BANKRUPTCY COURT EASTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI SOUTHEASTERN DIVISION/Bankruptcy Clerk,

BRIGGS & STRATTON -- Case No. 20-43597-399

I had $24,111.11 dollars of my IRA invested in Briggs & Stratton (BRIGGS & STRATTON CORP NOTE 6.87500%) - Corporate bond at Fidelity with a maturity date of 12/15/2020. The Trade Date was 02/07/2020 and the settlement date was 02/11/2020.

This is a lot of money to loose in my IRA and I retired in October Of 2019.

I received approximately $2,00?? of the $24,111.11 somehow to my account at Fidelity.

Briggs & Straton $2,000/$24,111.11 = .0829. They took 91% of my investment plus bond Interest $1,718.74 .

In 4 months I lost approximatel 91% of my principal. (Month that the bond was Bought / Month Bankrupt --- 02/07/2020 / July 2020 = 4 months)

Did the court know that this bond was being offered to investors and how many investors were suckered? This bond was not for improvement to the business, instead it was a money scheme to fraud the investor. How many investors were suckered for how mush money ?

If Briggs & Straton went bankrupt and out of business what would be the return on the bond after they liquefy their assets? I did nothing with this at Fidelity because I was thinking that when then liquefy the business that the bond would get paid first then the stock holders. Do bonds get paid first then stock?

"Fidelity was voted the most trusted wealth management company for 2022"?

Fidelity is also responsible as Fidelity did no analysis of the Market and offered this Briggs & Stratton Bond on Fidelity's web site. Fidelity continued to offer it with a sucker catch offering of 6.87500%. Fidelity did nothing to investigate this fraud on their web site. Briggs & Straton knew they were headed for bankrupt and did not retract the bond - Investor Fraud!
