Re: Fee Agreement in connection with JAMS arbitration claims filed by McKool Smith P.C. against Highland Capital Management, L.P.

Dear Mr. Leventon:

This letter is to set out the fee agreement and billing procedure to be followed in the above-referenced matter. Daniel Sheehan PLLC (“We”) agree to represent Highland Capital Management, L.P. (“You”) in connection with the JAMS arbitration claims filed by McKool Smith P.C. against Highland Capital Management, L.P.

We will charge You an hourly rate of $575 per hour for Dan Sheehan. In addition, You agree that I may associate Patrick McShan of McShan Law to assist me with the case. We will charge You an hourly rate of $425 per hour for Patrick McShan. We will bill monthly, on an itemized basis, for fees based upon the actual time spent plus all expenses incurred on your behalf. You agree to pay all fees and expenses within 30 days of a billing statement from our office. He will provide you with an engagement letter for his services.

You agree to promptly pay all out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the case within 30 days of the invoice date. A list of typical costs and expenses is attached. Certain expenses can be very substantial such as local counsel fees, expert fees, court reporters and videographers for depositions, travel costs, and major photocopy projects. You hereby authorize us to incur expenses We deem necessary to properly pursue your claims. Notwithstanding the aforementioned, We will not incur any out-of-pocket expenses in excess of $1,000.00 without Your prior written authorization.

We will require one or more experts to consult and testify in the case. You authorize us to retain expert witnesses that we deem necessary. You agree to make separate fee arrangements with local counsel and necessary expert witnesses and pay them directly.

We may withdraw from the case if You fail to timely pay our monthly invoices or reimburse us for expenses as provided above. Failure to pay fees and expenses within 30 days of receipt of the statement may result in our withdrawing from further representation. You agree that failure to timely pay fees and expense authorizes our withdrawal. We may also withdraw if You refuse to comply with reasonable discovery requests or orders of the court.

While it is certainly our intention and desire to achieve a satisfactory result concerning the referenced matter, it must be understood that We cannot and will not make any warranties or guarantees as to the outcome of the dispute nor as to the amount of fees or expenses that may be incurred. If You have any complaints, please be advised that the State Bar of Texas investigates and prosecutes professional misconduct committed by Texas attorneys. While not every complaint or dispute with a lawyer involves professional misconduct, the general counsel of the State Bar of Texas will provide you information about how to file a complaint. If you desire more information, you may call toll free to the following number: 1-800-932-1900.

The firm and its attorneys strive to maintain a high level of professionalism. Among other things, the firm's attorneys comply with "The Texas Lawyer's Creed-A Mandate for Professionalism," which the Supreme Court of Texas adopted in 1989. A copy of the Creed is attached to this agreement for your review. You agree to read it, and not to ask any of the firm's attorneys or other employees to act in a way that would violate any of the rules contained in it.

This agreement is the final agreement between us. There are no prior oral agreements. Any modification of this agreement must be in writing, signed by both parties. This agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas. All obligations of the parties hereunder shall also be determined by Texas law and are performable in Dallas County, Texas. The parties agree that any dispute shall be submitted to the courts of Dallas County, Texas and agree that such venue shall be exclusive. If this letter accurately states our agreement, please sign this letter in the space provided below and return it to me. We will send you a fully executed copy of this letter for our records. If at any time you have any questions concerning our fees or expenses in this matter, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Daniel J. Sheehan

THE TEXAS LAWYER'S CREED

A Mandate for Professionalism

*I am a lawyer. I am entrusted by the People of Texas to preserve and improve our legal system.
I am licensed by the Supreme Court of Texas. I must therefore abide by the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct, but I know that Professionalism requires more than merely avoiding the violation of laws and rules.
I am committed to this Creed for no other reason than it is right.*

I. OUR LEGAL SYSTEM

A lawyer owes to the administration of justice personal dignity, integrity, and independence. A lawyer should always adhere to the highest principles of professionalism.

1. I am passionately proud of my profession. Therefore, "My word is my bond."
2. I am responsible to assure that all persons have access to competent representation regardless of wealth or position in life.
3. I commit myself to an adequate and effective pro bono program.
4. I am obligated to educate my clients, the public, and other lawyers regarding the spirit and letter of this Creed.
5. I will always be conscious of my duty to the judicial system.

II. LAWYER TO CLIENT

A lawyer owes to a client allegiance, learning, skill, and industry. A lawyer shall employ all appropriate legal means to protect and advance the client's legitimate rights, claims, and objectives. A lawyer shall not be deterred by any real or imagined fear of judicial disfavor or public unpopularity, nor be influenced by mere self-interest.

1. I will advise my client of the contents of this creed when undertaking representation.
2. I will endeavor to achieve my client's lawful objectives in legal transactions and in litigation as quickly and economically as possible.
3. I will be loyal and committed to my client's lawful objectives, but I will not permit that loyalty and commitment to interfere with my duty to provide objective and independent advice.
4. I will advise my client that civility and courtesy are expected and are not a sign of weakness.
5. I will advise my client of proper and expected behavior.
6. I will treat adverse parties and witnesses with fairness and due consideration. A client has no right to demand that I abuse anyone or indulge in any offensive conduct.
7. I will advise my client that we will not pursue conduct which is intended primarily to harass or drain the financial resources of the opposing party.
8. I will advise my client that we will not pursue tactics which are intended primarily for delay.
9. I will advise my client that we will not pursue any course of action which is without merit.
10. I will advise my client that I reserve the right to determine whether to grant accommodations to opposing counsel in all matters that do not adversely affect my client's lawful objectives. A client has no right to instruct me to refuse reasonable requests made by other counsel.
11. I will advise my client regarding the availability of mediation, arbitration, and other alternative methods of resolving and settling disputes.

III. LAWYER TO LAWYER

A lawyer owes to opposing counsel, in the conduct of legal transactions and the pursuit of litigation, courtesy, candor, cooperation, and scrupulous observance of all agreements and mutual understandings. Ill feelings between clients shall not influence a lawyer's conduct, attitude, or demeanor toward opposing counsel. A lawyer shall not engage in unprofessional conduct in retaliation against other unprofessional conduct.

1. I will be courteous, civil, and prompt in oral and written communications.
2. I will not quarrel over matters of form or style, but I will concentrate on matters of substance.
3. I will identify for other counsel or parties all changes I have made in documents submitted for review.
4. I will attempt to prepare documents which correctly reflect the agreement of the parties. I will not include provisions which have not been agreed upon or omit provisions which are necessary to reflect the agreement of the parties.
5. I will notify opposing counsel, and, if appropriate, the Court or other persons, as soon as practicable, when hearings, depositions, meetings, conferences or closings are cancelled.
6. I will agree to reasonable requests for extensions of time and for waiver of procedural formalities, provided legitimate objectives of my client will not be adversely affected.
7. I will not serve motions or pleadings in any manner that unfairly limits another party's opportunity to respond.

8. I will attempt to resolve by agreement my objections to matters contained in pleadings and discovery requests and responses.
9. I can disagree without being disagreeable. I recognize that effective representation does not require antagonistic or obnoxious behavior. I will neither encourage nor knowingly permit my client or anyone under my control to do anything which would be unethical or improper if done by me.
10. I will not, without good cause, attribute bad motives or unethical conduct to opposing counsel nor bring the profession into disrepute by unfounded accusations of impropriety. I will avoid disparaging personal remarks or acrimony towards opposing counsel, parties and witnesses. I will not be influenced by any ill feeling between clients. I will abstain from any allusion to personal peculiarities or idiosyncrasies of opposing counsel.
11. I will not take advantage, by causing any default or dismissal to be rendered, when I know the identity of an opposing counsel, without first inquiring about that counsel's intention to proceed.
12. I will promptly submit orders to the Court. I will deliver copies to opposing counsel before or contemporaneously with submission to the Court. I will promptly approve the form of orders which accurately reflect the substance of the rulings of the Court.
13. I will not attempt to gain an unfair advantage by sending the Court or its staff correspondence or copies of correspondence.
14. I will not arbitrarily schedule a deposition, Court appearance, or hearing until a good faith effort has been made to schedule it by agreement.
15. I will readily stipulate to undisputed facts in order to avoid needless costs or inconvenience for any party.
16. I will refrain from excessive and abusive discovery.
17. I will comply with all reasonable discovery requests. I will not resist discovery requests which are not objectionable. I will not make objections nor give instructions to a witness for the purpose of delaying or obstructing the discovery process. I will encourage witnesses to respond to all deposition questions which are reasonably understandable. I will neither encourage nor permit my witness to quibble about words where their meaning is reasonably clear.
18. I will not seek Court intervention to obtain discovery which is clearly improper and not discoverable.
19. I will not seek sanctions or disqualification unless it is necessary for protection of my client's lawful objectives or is fully justified by the circumstances.

IV. LAWYER AND JUDGE

Lawyers and judges owe each other respect, diligence, candor, punctuality, and protection against unjust and improper criticism and attack. Lawyers and judges are equally responsible to protect the dignity and independence of the Court and the profession.

1. I will always recognize that the position of judge is the symbol of both the judicial system and administration of justice. I will refrain from conduct that degrades this symbol.
2. I will conduct myself in Court in a professional manner and demonstrate my respect for the Court and the law.
3. I will treat counsel, opposing parties, the Court, and members of the Court staff with courtesy and civility.
4. I will be punctual.
5. I will not engage in any conduct which offends the dignity and decorum of proceedings.
6. I will not knowingly misrepresent, mischaracterize, misquote or miscite facts or authorities to gain an advantage.
7. I will respect the rulings of the Court.
8. I will give the issues in controversy deliberate, impartial and studied analysis and consideration.
9. I will be considerate of the time constraints and pressures imposed upon the Court, Court staff and counsel in efforts to administer justice and resolve disputes.

Mandated by the Supreme Court of Texas and the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals on November 7, 1989.

Reaffirmed by the Supreme Court of Texas and the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals in April 2013.
