12. The Payment Processors and the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to continue to perform under the Payment Processing Agreements without interruption and in the usual and ordinary course, and are authorized to receive, process, and disburse all prepetition and postpetition Service Charges to the Debtors in the ordinary course in accordance with the Payment Processing Agreements in a manner consistent with past practices.

15. The Debtors shall serve a copy of this Interim Order on all Banks within five (5) days after entry of this Interim Order, and upon any bank at which the Debtors open a new bank within five (5) days after the opening of the new account.

16. All banks maintaining any of the Debtor Bank Accounts that are provided with notice of this Interim Order shall not honor or pay any bank payments drawn on the listed Debtor Bank Accounts or otherwise issued before the Petition Date for which the Debtors specifically issue timely stop payment orders in accordance with the documents governing such Debtor Bank Accounts.

17. Subject to the terms set forth herein, any bank, including the Banks, may rely upon the representations of the Debtors with respect to whether any check, draft, wire, or other transfer drawn or issued by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date should be honored pursuant to any order of this Court, and no bank that honors a prepetition check or other item drawn on any account that is the subject of this Interim Order (a) at the direction of the Debtors, (b) in a good-faith belief that this Court has authorized such prepetition check or item to be honored, or (c) as a result of a mistake made despite implementation of reasonable customary handling procedures, shall be deemed to be nor shall be liable to the Debtors, their estates, or any other party on account of such prepetition check or other item being honored postpetition, or otherwise deemed to be in violation of this Interim Order.

20. To the extent that any of the Bank Accounts are not in compliance with section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and any provisions of the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, the Debtors time to comply with section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code is hereby extended for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this Interim Order (the "Extension Period"), provided, however, that such extension is without prejudice to the Debtors' right to request a further extension of the Extension Period or a final waiver of the requirements of section 345(b) in these chapter 11 cases or the U.S. Trustee's right to oppose such a request.

21. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Interim Order.

23. Nothing in this Interim Order constitutes: (a) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any party in interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim or interest under applicable law or non-bankruptcy law; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any claim; (d) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (e) a request for or granting of approval for assumption of any agreement, contract, program, policy, or lease under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (f) an admission as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates. Any payment made pursuant to this Interim Order is not intended to be and should not be construed as an admission to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Debtors' or any party in interest's rights to subsequently dispute such claim.
