THE ORDINARY COURSE OF BUSINESS AND (II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

Upon the motion (the “Motion”)<sup>2</sup> of the above-captioned debtor and debtor in possession (the “Debtor”) for entry of an order (this “Order”), (a) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtor to retain and compensate certain professionals utilized in the ordinary course of business (each, an “OCP,” and collectively, the “OCPs”) identified on the list attached hereto as Exhibit 1 (as may be amended or supplemented by the Debtor from time to time in accordance with this Order) pursuant to the Compensation Procedures and (b) granting related relief, all as more fully set forth in the Motion; and this Court having jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334; and this Court having found that this is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2); and this Court having found that it may enter a final order consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution; and this Court having found that venue of this proceeding and the Motion in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that the Debtor’s notice of the Motion and opportunity for a hearing on the Motion were appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion, and all objections, if any, to the Motion having been withdrawn, resolved, or overruled; and the Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and the record of the hearing on such Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before this Court; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Debtor is authorized to retain and compensate the OCPs identified on the OCP List attached hereto as Exhibit 1 (as may be amended or supplemented by the Debtor from time to time in accordance with this Order), in the ordinary course of business, in accordance with the following compensation procedures (collectively, the “Compensation Procedures”):

- a. Each OCP identified on the OCP List shall file with the Court a declaration of disinterestedness (each a “Declaration of Disinterestedness”), substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 2, within 14 days after the later of (i) the date of entry of this Order, (ii) the date on which such OCP commences services for the Debtor, and (iii) the date on which such OCP is added to the OCP List.
- b. Each OCP shall serve the Declaration of Disinterestedness upon: (i) proposed counsel to the Debtor, (x) Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, Attn: David R. Zylberberg (david.zylberberg@stblaw.com), Moshe A. Fink (moshe.fink@stblaw.com), Rachael L. Foust (rachael.foust@stblaw.com), and Zachary J. Weiner (zachary.weiner@stblaw.com) and (y) Gray Reed, Attn: Jason S. Brookner (jbrookner@grayreed.com) and Lydia R. Webb (lwebb@grayreed.com); (ii) the Office of the U.S. Trustee for the Southern District of Texas, Attn: Jayson B. Ruff (Jayson.B.Ruff@usdoj.gov); and (iii) counsel to any statutory committee appointed in this chapter 11 case (each, a “Notice Party,” and collectively, the “Notice Parties”).
- c. The Notice Parties and any other party in interest shall have 14 days after the service of each Declaration of Disinterestedness to object to the retention of such OCP (the “Objection Deadline”). The objecting party shall serve any such objection upon the Notice Parties and the respective OCP on or before the Objection Deadline. If any such objection cannot be resolved within 14 days of its receipt, the matter shall be scheduled for hearing before this Court on a date mutually agreeable to the objecting party and the relevant OCP.
- d. If no objection is received by the Objection Deadline with respect to any particular OCP, then retention of any such OCP shall be deemed approved by this Court without hearing or further order. The Debtor shall be authorized to retain any such OCP as of the date such OCP commenced providing services to the Debtor and pay such OCP as set forth below.

- e. The Debtor reserves the right to modify the OCP List as necessary to add or remove OCPs, from time to time, in their sole discretion. In the event an OCP is added to the OCP List, the Debtor shall file a notice with this Court listing the additional OCP(s) that the Debtor intends to employ, along with the additional OCP's Declaration of Disinterestedness (each, an "OCP Notice") and will serve each OCP Notice on the Notice Parties. The Notice Parties and any other parties in interest shall have 14 days following the date of service of an OCP Notice to file and serve to the Notice Parties and the respective additional OCP an objection to the retention of such OCP.
- f. The Debtor shall be authorized to pay, without formal application to this Court by any OCP, 100 percent of the fees and reimbursable expenses to each of the OCPs retained pursuant to these procedures upon each OCP's submission to the Debtor of an appropriate invoice setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of the services rendered and expenses incurred after the Petition Date; provided that while this chapter 11 case is pending, the aggregate fees of the OCPs set forth on Exhibit 1 attached hereto, excluding reasonable and necessary costs and reimbursable expenses, may not exceed $100,000 per month on average over a rolling three-month period (the "OCP Monthly Cap"), except as otherwise provided herein or ordered by the Court; provided, further, that if any OCP's aggregate fees incurred during this chapter 11 case, excluding costs and reimbursable expenses, exceeds $400,000 (the "OCP Case Cap"), such OCP shall seek final approval of such fees with the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, rule 2016 of the Bankruptcy Rules, and rule 2016-1 of the Bankruptcy Local Rules.
- g. To the extent the OCPs seek compensation in excess of the applicable OCP Monthly Cap (the "Excess Fees"), the Debtor shall: (i) file with this Court a notice of fees in excess of the OCP Monthly Cap (the "Notice of Excess Fees") and invoices setting forth, in reasonable detail, the nature of the services rendered and disbursements actually incurred by the OCPs for the relevant month; and (ii) serve the Notice of Excess Fees on the Notice Parties. Interested parties shall then have 14 days to file an objection to the Notice of Excess Fees with this Court. If after 14 days no objection is filed, the Excess Fees shall be deemed approved, and the OCPs may be paid 100 percent of their fees and expenses without filing a fee application or further order of this Court.

2. To the extent that any agreement between the Debtor and an OCP provides for the indemnification by the Debtor of an OCP in connection with the services that are the subject of the Motion (each such agreement, an “OCP Agreement”), such indemnification provisions are approved subject to the following modifications, applicable during the pendency of these cases:

- a. The OCPs shall not be entitled to indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement pursuant to the OCP Agreement for services other than the services provided under the OCP Agreement, unless such services and the indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement are approved by this Court.
- b. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the OCP Agreement, the Debtor shall have no obligation to indemnify the OCPs, or provide contribution or reimbursement to the OCPs, for any claim or expense that is either: (i) judicially determined (the determination having become final) to have arisen from an OCP’s gross negligence, willful misconduct, or fraud; (ii) for a contractual dispute in which the Debtor alleges the breach of an OCP’s contractual obligations if this Court determines that indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement would not be permissible under applicable law; (iii) of any type for which this Court determines that indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement would not be permissible; or (iv) settled prior to a judicial determination under (i) or (ii), but determined by this Court, after notice and a hearing, to be a claim or expense for which an OCP should not receive indemnity, contribution, or reimbursement under the terms of the OCP Agreement as modified by this Court.
- c. If, before the earlier of (i) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in this case (that order having become a final order no longer subject to appeal), or (ii) the entry of an order closing this chapter 11 case, an OCP believes that it is entitled to the payment of any amounts by the Debtor on account of the Debtor’s indemnification, contribution, and/or reimbursement obligations under the OCP Agreement (as modified by this Order), including the advancement of defense costs, such OCP must file an application therefor in this Court, and the Debtor may not pay any such amounts to such OCP before the entry of an order by this Court approving the payment. All parties in interest shall retain the right to object to any such application. In the event that such application includes a request for reimbursement of attorneys’ fees and expenses, the invoices and supporting time records for such attorneys’ fees and expenses shall be included in the application.

3. This Order shall not apply to any professional retained by the Debtor pursuant to a separate order of this Court.

4. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, nothing in this Order shall prevent the U.S. Trustee from seeking an order from this Court (a) requiring an OCP to file a separate retention application under section 327(a) or 327(e) of the Bankruptcy Code or (b) altering the amount of the OCP Monthly Cap or the OCP Case Cap.

5. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Order shall be deemed: (a) an admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtor under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtor's or any other party in interest's right to dispute any claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any claim; (d) an implication or admission that any particular claim is of a type specified or defined in this Order or the Motion or a finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim or other priority claim; (e) a request or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any prepetition agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) an admission as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtor's estate; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtor's or any other party in interest's rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; or (h) a concession by the Debtor that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens.

6. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

7. All time periods set forth in this Order shall be calculated in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 9006(a).

8. The Debtor is authorized to take all reasonable actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Order in accordance with the Motion.

9. This Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Order.

DECLARATION OF DISINTERESTEDNESS OF [ENTITY]
PURSUANT TO THE ORDER (I) AUTHORIZING THE RETENTION AND COMPENSATION OF CERTAIN PROFESSIONALS UTILIZED IN THE ORDINARY COURSE OF BUSINESS AND (II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

I, _____, make this declaration (this “Declaration”) under penalty of perjury:

1. I am a [position] of [Company], located at [Street, City, State, Zip Code]
(the “Company”).

2. Ambipar Emergency Response, the above-captioned debtor and debtor in possession (the “Debtor”), have requested that the Company provide [specific description] services to the Debtor and the Company has consented to provide such services.

3. The Company may have performed services in the past, may currently perform services, and may perform services in the future, in matters unrelated to this chapter 11 case, for persons that are parties in interest in this chapter 11 case. The Company does not perform services for any such person in connection with this chapter 11 case, or have any relationship with any such person, their attorneys, or accountants that would be adverse to the Debtor or its estate with respect to the matter(s) on which the Company is proposed to be employed.

4. As part of its customary practice, the Company is retained in cases, proceedings, and transactions involving many different parties, some of whom may represent or be employed by the Debtor, claimants, and parties in interest in this chapter 11 case.

5. Neither I, nor any principal, partner, director, officer of, or professional employed by, the Company has agreed to share or will share any portion of the compensation to be received from the Debtor with any other person other than the principal and regular employees of the Company.

6. Neither I, nor any principal, partner, director, officer of, or professional employed by, the Company, insofar as I have been able to ascertain, holds or represents any interest adverse to the Debtor or its estate with respect to the matter(s) upon which this Company is proposed to be employed.

7. The Debtor owes the Company $_____ for prepetition services, the payment of which is subject to limitations contained in the Bankruptcy Code. I understand that the amount owed by any of the Debtor to the Company for prepetition services will be treated as a general unsecured claim, and as such, the Company may file a proof of claim.

8. I further understand that this Declaration will not suffice as the Company's proof of claim.

9. As of October 20, 2025, the date on which the Debtor commenced this chapter 11 case, the Company [was/was not] party to an agreement for indemnification with the Debtor. [A copy of such agreement is attached as Annex 1.]

10. [If there is an indemnification agreement]: Such agreement for indemnification (the "OCP Agreement") is subject to the following modifications, applicable during the pendency of this chapter 11 case:

- a. The Company shall not be entitled to indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement pursuant to the OCP Agreement for services other than the services provided under the OCP Agreement, unless such services and the indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement are approved by this Court.
- b. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the OCP Agreement, the Debtor shall have no obligation to indemnify the Company, or provide contribution or reimbursement to the Company, for any claim or expense that is either: (i) judicially determined (the determination having become final) to have arisen from the Company's gross negligence, willful misconduct, or fraud; (ii) for a contractual dispute in which the Debtor alleges the breach of the Company's contractual obligations if this Court determines that indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement would not be permissible under applicable law; (iii) of any type for which this Court determines that indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement would not be permissible; or (iv) settled prior to a judicial determination under (i) or (ii), but determined by this Court, after notice and a hearing, to be a claim or expense for which the Company should not receive indemnity, contribution, or reimbursement under the terms of the OCP Agreement as modified by this Court.
- c. If, before the earlier of (i) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in this case (that order having become a final order no longer subject to appeal), or (ii) the entry of an order closing this chapter 11 case, the Company believes that it is entitled to the payment of any amounts by the Debtor on account of the Debtor's indemnification, contribution, and/or reimbursement obligations under the OCP Agreement (as modified by this Order), including the advancement of defense costs, the Company must file an application therefor in this Court, and the Debtor may not pay any such amounts to the Company before the entry of an order by this Court approving the payment. All parties in interest shall retain the right to object to any such application. In the event that such application includes a request for reimbursement of attorneys' fees and expenses, the invoices and supporting time records for such attorneys' fees and expenses shall be included in the application.

11. The Company is conducting further inquiries regarding its retention by any creditors of the Debtor, and upon conclusion of that inquiry, or at any time during the period of its employment, if the Company should discover any facts bearing on the matters described herein, the Company will supplement the information contained in this Declaration.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
