under such Closing Documents will (i) result in the violation of any applicable Laws or any provision of Bidder's organizational documents, (ii) conflict with any order of any Governmental Authority binding upon Bidder, or (iii) conflict or be inconsistent with, or result in any default under, any contract, agreement or commitment by which Bidder is bound.

None of the funds of Debtor have been or will be derived from any unlawful activity with the result that the investment of direct or indirect equity owners in Debtor is prohibited by Law or that the Transaction or this Agreement is or will be in violation of Law. Debtor has and will continue to implement procedures, and has consistently and will continue to consistently apply those procedures, to ensure the foregoing representations and warranties remain true and correct at all times prior to Closing. ## I. RECITALS

A. Previously, the Assignor/Seller or a former owner of the multifamily housing project identified on page 1 ("Project") entered into an original Section 8 housing assistance payments ("HAP") Contract ("Original HAP Contract") with the contract administrator at that time (HUD, or a public housing agency ("PHA") acting under an annual contributions contract ("ACC") with HUD). The Original HAP Contract was authorized under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 ("Act"), 42 U.S.C. § 1437f. If still in its original term (i.e., without having expired and been renewed, as described in the following paragraph), the Original HAP Contract is being assigned, assumed, and amended.

B. If the Original HAP Contract previously expired, it was renewed under a contract ("Renewal Contract") or under successive Renewal Contracts, as authorized under the Multifamily Assisted Housing Reform and Affordability Act of 1997, 42 U.S.C. § 1437f note, and the Renewal Contract currently in effect is being assigned, assumed, and amended.

C. A copy of the Original HAP Contract is attached and designated "Exhibit A."

D. If the Original HAP Contract previously expired and was renewed, a copy of the Renewal Contract currently in effect is also attached and is designated "Exhibit B."

E. The term "HAP Contract" means the Original HAP Contract (if no Renewal Contract) or the Renewal Contract currently in effect, as applicable. The term "Contract Administrator" means the current contract administrator (HUD, or a PHA, as applicable), as identified on page 1.

F. If this Assignment is in connection with a sale or lease of the Project, the Assignor/Seller and the Assignee/Buyer have entered into an agreement for such sale or lease, which includes the real property on which the Project is located, and any and all improvements situated thereon.

G. The Assignor/Seller wishes to assign, and the Assignee/Buyer wishes to assume, the HAP Contract, including all the rights and obligations thereunder.

H. The Assignor/Seller and/or the Assignee/Buyer have requested HUD's written consent to the assignment of the HAP Contract, and both understand that such consent is subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Assignment.

I. The Assignor/Seller, the Assignee/Buyer, and the Contract Administrator therefore agree as follows:

II. ASSIGNMENT BY ASSIGNOR/SELLER

A. The Assignor/Seller hereby irrevocably assigns the HAP Contract, including all the rights and obligations thereunder, to the Assignee/Buyer.

B. The Assignor/Seller is hereby released from all obligations arising under the HAP Contract, on or after the Effective Date, provided, however, that (i) the release shall not apply to any breach of the HAP Contract based on events, circumstances, or conditions occurring before the Effective Date; and (ii) the Assignor/Seller shall remain obligated to file any annual financial statements that the HAP Contract or any applicable law or regulation may require for the period preceding the Effective Date.

C. Nothing in this Assignment shall be construed to impair, limit, or otherwise affect any right that the Contract Administrator or HUD has or may have against the Assignor/Seller for any violation of the HAP Contract that occurred or may have occurred on or before the Effective Date.

III. ASSUMPTION BY THE ASSIGNEE/BUYER. The Assignee/Buyer hereby assumes the HAP Contract, including all the rights and obligations thereunder, as amended by this Assignment.

IV. AMENDMENT. The Assignee/Buyer (referred to in this Section IV as the "Owner") and the Contract Administrator hereby amend the HAP Contract to contain the following new provisions:

A. "Compliance with applicable Federal statutes and regulations, as amended from time to time. The Owner shall comply with all applicable Federal statutes and regulations, as amended from time to time, including all applicable regulations in 24 C.F.R. part 5, as amended from time to time, including without limitation the following:

1. 2 C.F.R. part 200 ("Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards");

2. 24 C.F.R. § 5.107 ("Audit Requirements for Non-Profit Organizations");

3. 24 C.F.R. part 5 subpart G ("Physical Condition Standards and Inspection Requirements");

4. 24 C.F.R. part 5 subpart H ("Uniform Financial Reporting Standards"); and

5. 24 C.F.R. part 200 subpart P ("Physical Condition of Multifamily Properties")."

B. "Annual financial reports. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the HAP Contract, including any previous amendment to the HAP Contract, the Owner shall comply with the following provisions:

1. Within ninety (90) days, or such period established in writing by HUD, following the end of each fiscal year, Owner shall prepare a financial report for the Owner's fiscal year, or the portion thereof that started with the Owner's assumption of the HAP Contract, based on an examination of the books and records of the Owner in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and in such other form and substance as specified by HUD in supplemental guidance, and provide such report to the Contract Administrator and HUD (if a PHA is the Contract Administrator) in such form, substance, and manner as may be specified by HUD under the Uniform Financial Reporting Standards at 24 C.F.R. § 5.801 ("UFRS"), or any successor regulations.

2. Unless specifically waived or modified by HUD or to the extent otherwise exempt, Owner shall: (a) engage an independent, licensed Certified Public Accountant ("CPA") to audit the Owner's annual financial report and to produce an audit report in accordance with both Generally Accepted Government Auditing Standards and Generally Accepted Auditing Standards; (b) engage an independent, licensed CPA to perform an agreed-upon procedure, in accordance with the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Statement on Standards for Attestation Engagements, to compare the financial data template information submitted electronically by the Owner to HUD against the annual financial report examined by, and the audit report prepared by, the independent, licensed CPA, and report any variances to HUD; and (c) furnish to the Contract Administrator and HUD (if a PHA is the Contract Administrator) the audit report, and any other reports relating to the annual financial report or the audit report as required by HUD, by such means and in such form, substance, and manner as may be specified by HUD under UFRS, or any successor regulations.

3. To the extent certain non-profit Owners' requirement to submit annual financial reports may be waived or modified by HUD, or such Owners may otherwise be exempt from compliance, such waiver, modification, or exemption shall not be construed to relieve Owner of any requirements of this provision, except for those requirements specifically waived, modified, or exempt from.

4. If Owner fails to perform as required pursuant to this provision, the Contract Administrator or HUD (if a PHA is the Contract Administrator) may, at its sole election, and in a manner determined by HUD, and without affecting any other provisions herein, and after first providing notice of default of the HAP Contract to the Owner, initiate or cause to be initiated a forensic audit of the Owner's books, records, and accounts in such a manner as to provide to the Contract Administrator and HUD (if a PHA is the Contract Administrator) with as much of the same information that would have been provided had the Owner not failed to perform as required. Any such audit initiated by the Contract Administrator or HUD does not relieve Owner of the requirement to submit to the Contract Administrator and HUD (if a PHA is the Contract Administrator) an annual audited financial report as required pursuant to this provision."

C. "Applicability and binding nature on successors and assigns. The duties and obligations set forth in the HAP Contract, as amended by this Assignment, shall apply during the remainder of the term of the HAP Contract and during each successive renewal term and shall further apply to and be binding on each of the Assignee/Buyer's successors and assigns."

V. CONSENT BY HUD. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein and as evidenced by the signature of HUD's authorized representative on page 9, HUD hereby consents to the assignment of the HAP Contract.

VI. RIGHTS OF PARTIES, GOVERNING LAW, AND EXECUTION

A. Nothing in this Assignment shall be construed to impair, limit, or otherwise affect any rights that the Assignor/Seller, the Assignee/Buyer, the Contract Administrator, and/or HUD has or may have under the HAP Contract.

B. This Assignment shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State in which the Project is located and, to the extent that any provision is inconsistent with such laws, with the laws of the United States of America.

C. This Assignment may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be considered an original for all purposes. Any and all counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

D. Unless signed by an authorized representative of the Contract Administrator and of HUD, this Assignment shall have no legal effect, and no housing assistance payments shall be made under the HAP Contract to the Assignee/Buyer.

This policy continues as of the Date of Policy in favor of an Insured, so long as the Insured:

a. retains an estate or interest in the Land;

b. owns an obligation secured by a purchase money Mortgage given by a purchaser from the Insured; or

c. has liability for warranties given by the Insured in any transfer or conveyance of the Insured's Title.

3. NOTICE OF CLAIM TO BE GIVEN BY INSURED CLAIMANT

The Insured must notify the Company promptly in writing if the Insured has Knowledge of:

5. DEFENSE AND PROSECUTION OF ACTIONS

a. Upon written request by the Insured and subject to the options contained in Condition 7, the Company, at its own cost and without unreasonable delay, will provide for the defense of an Insured in litigation in which any third party asserts a claim covered by this policy adverse to the Insured. This obligation is limited to only those stated causes of action alleging matters insured against by this policy. The Company has the right to select counsel of its choice (subject to the right of the Insured to object for reasonable cause) to represent the Insured as to those covered causes of action. The Company is not liable for and will not pay the fees of any other counsel. The Company will not pay any fees, costs, or expenses incurred by the Insured in the defense of any cause of action that alleges matters not insured against by this policy.

b. The Company has the right, in addition to the options contained in Condition 7, at its own cost, to institute and prosecute any action or proceeding or to do any other act that, in its opinion, may be necessary or desirable to establish the Title, as insured, or to prevent or reduce loss or damage to the Insured. The Company may take any appropriate action under the terms of this policy, whether or not it is liable to the Insured. The Company's exercise of these rights is not an admission of liability or waiver of any provision of this policy. If the Company exercises its rights under Condition 5.b., it must do so diligently.

c. When the Company brings an action or asserts a defense as required or permitted by this policy, the Company may pursue the litigation to a final determination by a court having jurisdiction. The Company reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to appeal any adverse judgment or order.

ii. any other lawful act that in the opinion of the Company may be necessary or desirable to establish the Title or any other matter, as insured.

If the Company is prejudiced by any failure of the Insured to furnish the required cooperation, the Company's liability and obligations to the Insured under this policy terminate, including any obligation to defend, prosecute, or continue any litigation, regarding the matter requiring such cooperation.

b. The Company may reasonably require the Insured Claimant to submit to examination under oath by any authorized representative of the Company and to produce for examination, inspection, and copying, at such reasonable times and places as may be designated by the authorized representative of the Company, all records, in whatever medium maintained, including books, ledgers, checks, memoranda, correspondence, reports, e-mails, disks, tapes, and videos, whether bearing a date before or after the Date of Policy, that reasonably pertain to the loss or damage. Further, if requested by any authorized representative of the Company, the Insured Claimant must grant its permission, in writing, for any authorized representative of the Company to examine, inspect, and copy all the records in the custody or control of a third party that reasonably pertain to the loss or damage. No information designated in writing as confidential by the Insured Claimant provided to the Company pursuant to Condition 6 will be later disclosed to others unless, in the reasonable judgment of the Company, disclosure is necessary in the administration of the claim or required by law. Any failure of the Insured Claimant to submit for examination under oath, produce any reasonably requested information, or grant permission to secure reasonably necessary information from third parties as required in Condition 6.b., unless prohibited by law, terminates any liability of the Company under this policy as to that claim.

7. OPTIONS TO PAY OR OTHERWISE SETTLE CLAIMS; TERMINATION OF LIABILITY

To pay or tender payment of the Amount of Insurance under this policy. In addition, the Company will pay any costs, attorneys' fees, and expenses incurred by the Insured Claimant that were authorized by the Company up to the time of payment or tender of payment and that the Company is obligated to pay.

Upon the exercise by the Company of this option provided for in Condition 7.a., the Company's liability and obligations to the Insured under this policy terminate, including any obligation to defend, prosecute, or continue any litigation.

b. To Pay or Otherwise Settle with Parties other than the Insured or with the Insured Claimant

i. To pay or otherwise settle with parties other than the Insured for or in the name of the Insured Claimant. In addition, the Company will pay any costs, attorneys' fees, and expenses incurred by the Insured Claimant that were authorized by the Company up to the time of payment and that the Company is obligated to pay; or

In addition, the Company will pay any costs, attorneys' fees, and expenses incurred by the Insured Claimant that were authorized by the Company up to the time of payment and that the Company is obligated to pay.

8. CONTRACT OF INDEMNITY; DETERMINATION AND EXTENT OF LIABILITY

This policy is a contract of indemnity against actual monetary loss or damage sustained or incurred by an Insured Claimant who has suffered loss or damage by reason of matters insured against by this policy. This policy is not an abstract of the Title, report of the condition of the Title, legal opinion, opinion of the Title, or other representation of the status of the Title. All claims asserted under this policy are based in contract and are restricted to the terms and provisions of this policy. The Company is not liable for any claim alleging negligence or negligent misrepresentation arising from or in connection with this policy or the determination of the insurability of the Title.

ii. the difference between the fair market value of the Title, as insured, and the fair market value of the Title subject to the matter insured against by this policy.

b. Except as provided in Condition 8.c. or 8.d., the fair market value of the Title in Condition 8.a.ii. is calculated using the date the Insured discovers the defect, lien, encumbrance, adverse claim, or other matter insured against by this policy.

c. If, at the Date of Policy, the Title to all of the Land is void by reason of a matter insured against by this policy, then the Insured Claimant may, by written notice given to the Company, elect to use the Date of Policy as the date for calculating the fair market value of the Title in Condition 8.a.ii.

d. If the Company pursues its rights under Condition 5.b. and is unsuccessful in establishing the Title, as insured:

i. the Amount of Insurance will be increased by Fifteen Percent (15%); and

ii. the Insured Claimant may, by written notice given to the Company, elect, as an alternative to the dates set forth in Condition 8.b. or, if it applies, 8.c., to use either the date the settlement, action, proceeding, or other act described in Condition 5.b. is concluded or the date the notice of claim required by Condition 3 is received by the Company as the date for calculating the fair market value of the Title in Condition 8.a.ii.

e. In addition to the extent of liability for loss or damage under Conditions 8.a. and 8.d., the Company will also pay the costs, attorneys' fees, and expenses incurred in accordance with Conditions 5 and 7.

9. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

a. The Company fully performs its obligations and is not liable for any loss or damage caused to the Insured if the Company accomplishes any of the following in a reasonable manner:

i. removes the alleged defect, lien, encumbrance, adverse claim, or other matter;

ii. cures the lack of a right of access to and from the Land; or

iii. cures the claim of Unmarketable Title, all as insured. The Company may do so by any method, including litigation and the completion of any appeals.

b. The Company is not liable for loss or damage arising out of any litigation, including litigation by the Company or with the Company's consent, until a State or federal court having jurisdiction makes a final, non-appealable determination adverse to the Title.

c. The Company is not liable for loss or damage to the Insured for liability voluntarily assumed by the Insured in settling any claim or suit without the prior written consent of the Company.

d. The Company is not liable for the content of the Transaction Identification Data, if any.

10. REDUCTION OR TERMINATION OF INSURANCE

All payments under this policy, except payments made for costs, attorneys' fees, and expenses, reduce the Amount of Insurance by the amount of the payment.

11. LIABILITY NONCUMULATIVE

The Amount of Insurance will be reduced by any amount the Company pays under any policy insuring a Mortgage to which exception is taken in Schedule B or to which the Insured has agreed, assumed, or taken subject, or which is executed by an Insured after the Date of Policy and which is a charge or lien on the Title, and the amount so paid will be deemed a payment to the Insured under this policy.

12. PAYMENT OF LOSS

When liability and the extent of loss or damage are determined in accordance with the Conditions, the Company will pay the loss or damage within thirty (30) days.

13. COMPANY'S RECOVERY AND SUBROGATION RIGHTS UPON SETTLEMENT AND PAYMENT

a. If the Company settles and pays a claim under this policy, it is subrogated and entitled to the rights and remedies of the Insured Claimant in the Title and all other rights and remedies in respect to the claim that the Insured Claimant has against any person, entity, or property to the fullest extent permitted by law, but limited to the amount of any loss, costs, attorneys' fees, and expenses paid by the Company. If requested by the Company, the Insured Claimant must execute documents to transfer these rights and remedies to the Company. The Insured Claimant permits the Company to sue, compromise, or settle in the name of the Insured Claimant and to use the name of the Insured Claimant in any transaction or litigation involving these rights and remedies.

b. If a payment on account of a claim does not fully cover the loss of the Insured Claimant, the Company defers the exercise of its subrogation right until after the Insured Claimant fully recovers its loss.

This is a PRO FORMA policy for discussion purposes only that provides no insurance coverage to or on behalf of the proposed insured. It does not reflect the present state of the Title, and no party is entitled to rely on any statement herein as a representation by the Company as to the state of Title to the property. FORM OF FIRPTA AFFIDAVIT

Section 1445 of the Internal Revenue Code provides that a transferee of a United States real property interest must withhold tax if the transferor is a foreign person. For U.S. tax purposes (including Section 1445), the owner of a disregarded entity (which has legal title to a U.S. real property interest under local law) will be the transferor of the property and not the disregarded entity. To inform the transferee that withholding of tax is not required upon the disposition of a United States real property interest by KELLY HAMILTON APTS LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Seller"), the undersigned hereby certifies the following:

1. Seller is not a disregarded entity as defined in §1.1445-2(b)(2)(iii) of the Internal Revenue Code.

2. Seller is not a foreign corporation, foreign partnership, foreign trust, or foreign estate (as those terms are defined in the Internal Revenue Code and Income Tax Regulations).

3. Seller's U.S. employer taxpayer identification number is [_____].

4. Seller's office address is _____.

Seller understands that this certification may be disclosed to the Internal Revenue Service by transferee and that any false statement contained herein could be punished by fine, imprisonment, or both.

For all purposes of this Agreement, capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Plan.

ARTICLE II
ESTABLISHMENT OF THE CREDITOR RECOVERY TRUST

2.1 Establishment of the Creditor Recovery Trust and Appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee.

(a) The Debtors and the Creditor Recovery Trustee, pursuant to the Plan and the Confirmation Order and in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, hereby establish a trust on behalf of the holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, the holders of RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims, the holders of CBRM Unsecured Claims, the holder of the Spano CBRM Claim, and the Contributing Claimants (the "Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries"), which shall be known as the "CBRM Creditor Recovery Trust," on the terms set forth herein. In connection with the exercise of the Creditor Recovery Trustee's powers hereunder, the Creditor Recovery Trustee may use this name or such variation thereof as the Creditor Recovery Trustee sees fit.

(b) The Creditor Recovery Trustee is hereby appointed as trustee of the Creditor Recovery Trust effective as of the Effective Date.

(c) The Creditor Recovery Trustee agrees to accept and hold the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (excluding any Assets in a Disputed Claims Reserve), as defined in the Plan, in trust for the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement.

(d) The Creditor Recovery Trustee and each successor trustee serving from time to time hereunder shall have all the rights, powers, and duties as set forth herein.

(e) The Creditor Recovery Trustee is, and any successor trustee serving from time to time hereunder shall be, a "United States person" as such term is defined in section 7701(a)(30) of the IRC.

(f) The Creditor Recovery Trustee may serve without bond.

(g) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, any action by the Creditor Recovery Trustee that affects the interests of more than one Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary shall be binding and conclusive on all Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries even if such Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries have different or conflicting interests.

2.2 Transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

(a) Pursuant to the Plan, and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, as of the Effective Date, the Debtors and the Contributing Claimants (as defined in the Plan) hereby irrevocably transfer, assign and deliver, and (except as provided for federal, state and local income tax purposes in Sections 2.6 and 9.1 hereof) shall be deemed to have transferred, assigned and delivered, to the Creditor Recovery Trust, without recourse, all of their respective rights, title and interest in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (excluding any Assets in a Disputed Claims Reserve), free and clear of all Liens, Claims, encumbrances and interests (legal, beneficial or otherwise) for the benefit of the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, including, without limitation, all attorney-client privileges, work-product privileges, accountant-client privileges and any other evidentiary privileges or immunity in respect of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets that, prior to the Effective Date, belonged to the Debtors pursuant to applicable federal, state and other law, which shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, in trust, and, consistent with sections 1123(a)(5)(B) and 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, for the sole benefit of the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries; provided, however, that the Debtors and the Contributing Claimants shall not be deemed to have transferred any documents, information or privileges related to any claims or causes of action that are released under the Plan; provided further, that the foregoing proviso shall not prevent the transfer of any documents, information or privileges to the extent that any such documents, information or privileges also relate to Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. Other than as set forth herein, the Debtors and the Contributing Claimants shall have no claim to, right, or interest in, whether direct, residual, contingent or otherwise, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets once such assets have been transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

(b) The Debtors, the Contributing Claimants, and any party under their control shall reasonably cooperate with the Creditor Recovery Trustee in the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust, including by providing reasonable access to the Creditor Recovery Trustee and its advisors to all records, documents, information, and work product (including all electronic records, documents, information, and work product) relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the extent that the Creditor Recovery Trustee determines such records, documents, information, and work product (including all electronic records, documents, information, and work product) are necessary to (i) prosecute, investigate, sell, transfer, or convey any of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, (ii) benefit from any relevant privileges, or (iii) otherwise perform its duties under and in accordance with the Plan and this Agreement, in each case, that are in the possession or control of any such parties, copies of which shall be provided to the Creditor Recovery Trust and its advisors, all in compliance with applicable law.

(c) The Debtors, the Contributing Claimants, and any party under their control shall: (i) execute and/or deliver any instruments, documents, books, and records (including those maintained in electronic format and original documents as may be needed), and (ii) take, or cause to be taken, such further actions, in each case, that are reasonably necessary to evidence or effectuate the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (including the Trust Causes of Action) to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

(d) To the extent reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trustee, the Debtors and the Contributing Claimants shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the professionals retained by such parties during the Chapter 11 Cases (the "Pre-Trust Professionals") to, subject to any applicable professional rules of responsibility or any non-transferred Privileges (as defined below), use commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Creditor Recovery Trustee in the investigation and prosecution of the Trust Causes of Action and the sale, transfer, or conveyance of any of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, including, without limitation, by providing access to the Pre-Trust Professionals.

(e) All of the proceeds received by the Creditor Recovery Trust from the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets shall be added to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and held as a part thereof (and title thereto shall be vested in the Creditor Recovery Trust).

(f) For all federal, state and local income tax purposes, all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors, the Contributing Claimants, the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries) shall treat the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with Section 9.1 hereof.

(g) Such transfers pursuant to the Plan shall be exempt from any stamp, real estate transfer, mortgage reporting, sales, use or other similar tax, pursuant to and to the extent permitted under section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(h) Any direct or indirect transferee of interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be bound by this Agreement.

2.3 Privileges.

(a) All attorney-client privileges, work product protections and other privileges, immunities or protections from disclosure (the "Privileges") held by any one or more of the Debtors or the Contributing Claimants (including any pre-petition or post-petition committee or subcommittee of the board of directors or equivalent governing body of any of the Debtors and their predecessors) (the "Privilege Transfer Parties") related in any way to the Creditor

Recovery Trust Assets and the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust (the "Transferred Privileged Information") are hereby transferred and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Transferred Privileged Information shall include documents and information of all manner, whether oral, written, or digital, and whether or not previously disclosed or discussed. For the avoidance of doubt, the Privileges shall include any right to preserve or enforce a Privilege that arises from any joint defense, common interest, or similar agreement involving any of the Privilege Transfer Parties.

(b) The foregoing transfer and assignment shall vest the Privileges concerning the Transferred Privileged Information exclusively in the Creditor Recovery Trust, consistent with sections 1123(a)(5)(B) and 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, for the sole benefit of the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall have the exclusive authority and sole discretion to maintain the Privileges and keep the Transferred Privileged Information confidential, or waive any Privileges and/or disclose and/or use in litigation or any proceeding any or all of the Transferred Privileged Information.

(c) The Privilege Transfer Parties agree to take all necessary actions to effectuate the transfer of such Privileges, and to provide to the Creditor Recovery Trust without the necessity of a subpoena all Transferred Privileged Information in their respective possession, custody, or control reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust is further expressly authorized to formally or informally request or subpoena documents, testimony or other information that would constitute Transferred Privileged Information from any persons, including attorneys, professionals, consultants and experts that may possess Transferred Privileged Information, and no such person may object to the production to the Creditor Recovery Trust of such Transferred Privileged Information on the basis of a Privilege held by a Privilege Transfer Party. Until and unless the Creditor Recovery Trust makes a determination in its sole discretion to waive any Privilege, Transferred Privileged Information shall be produced solely to the Creditor Recovery Trust or as required by law. For the avoidance of doubt, this Subsection is subject in all respects to Section 2.3(a) of this Agreement.

(d) Pursuant to, inter alia, Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d), no Privileges shall be waived by the transfer and assignment of the Privileges or the production of any Transferred Privileged Information to the Creditor Recovery Trust or any of its respective employees, professionals or representatives, or by disclosure of such Transferred Privileged Information between the Privilege Transfer Parties, on the one hand, and the Creditor Recovery Trust, on the other hand, or any of their respective employees, professionals or representatives.

(e) If a Privilege Transfer Party, the Creditor Recovery Trust, any of their respective employees, professionals or representatives or any other person inadvertently produces or discloses Transferred Privileged Information to any third party, such production shall not be deemed to destroy any of the Privileges, or be deemed a waiver of any confidentiality protections afforded to such Transferred Privileged Information. In such circumstances, the disclosing party shall, promptly upon discovery of the production, notify the Creditor Recovery Trust of the production and shall demand of all recipients of the inadvertently disclosed Transferred Privileged Information that they return or confirm the destruction of such materials.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 2.3, for the avoidance of doubt, no Privilege or Transferred Privileged Information related to any claims or causes of action that have been released under the Plan shall be deemed to have been transferred or assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust, provided however, that the foregoing shall not prevent the transfer of any Privilege or Transferred Privileged Information to the extent that such Privilege or Transferred Privileged Information also relates to Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

2.4 Payment of Fees and Expenses. The Creditor Recovery Trust may incur any reasonable and necessary expenses in connection with the performance of its obligations under the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement, including reasonable and necessary fees and expenses incurred to monetize the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and pursue the Trust Causes of Action and in connection with retaining professionals, consultants and advisors to aid it in fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement, the Confirmation Order, and the Plan ("Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals"). All such expenses shall be paid from the Creditor Recovery Trust, and solely be the obligation of, the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries shall have no obligation to provide any funding with respect to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

2.5 Title to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. The transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (excluding any Assets in a Disputed Claims Reserve) to the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to Section 2.2 hereof is being made for the sole benefit, and on behalf, of the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries. Upon the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall succeed to all of the Debtors', the Estates', the Contributing Claimants', and the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries' rights, title and interest in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and, other than as expressly set forth hereunder, no other Entity shall have any interest, legal, beneficial or otherwise (including any claim, lien, or encumbrance), in the Creditor Recovery Trust or the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets upon the assignment and transfer of such assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust; provided that the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall use Cash from the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to satisfy Allowed Professional Compensation Claims, fees of the Independent Fiduciary, and fees of the Ad Hoc Group of Crown Capital Noteholders in accordance with Article II.A of the Plan.

2.6 Nature and Purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

(a) Purpose. The Creditor Recovery Trust is organized and established as a "grantor" trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes, pursuant to sections 671 through 679 of the Internal Revenue Code (excluding any Disputed Claims Reserve) for the purpose of (i) prosecuting all Trust Causes of Action, monetizing the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (the "Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds"), and distributing the Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds, in each case, in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement and (ii) liquidating and administering the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets in accordance with Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or any other business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the liquidating purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust, and without effect to its status as a "liquidating trust" for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Creditor Recovery Trustee will make continuing efforts to resolve the Trust Causes of Action, dispose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, make timely distributions and not unduly prolong the duration of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

(b) Relationship. This Agreement is intended to create a trust and a trust relationship and to be governed and construed in all respects as a trust. Subject to Section 4.10(u), the Creditor Recovery Trust is not intended to be, and shall not be deemed to be, or be treated as, a general partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, corporation, joint stock company or association, nor shall the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries for any purpose be, or be deemed to be or treated in any way whatsoever to be, liable or responsible hereunder as partners or joint venturers. The relationship of the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, on the one hand, to the Creditor Recovery Trustee, on the other hand, shall be solely that of a beneficiary of a trust and shall not be deemed a principal and agency relationship, and their rights shall be limited to those conferred upon them by the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a final determination under section 1313(a) of the IRC that the Creditor Recovery Trust (excluding any Disputed Claims Reserves) does not qualify as a grantor trust, the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries and the Creditor Recovery Trustee intend that the Creditor Recovery Trust (excluding any Disputed Claims Reserves) be treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes and will take all actions reasonably necessary to cause the Creditor Recovery Trust (excluding any Disputed Claims Reserves) to be treated as such.

(c) No Waiver of Claims. In accordance with section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code and subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trustee may enforce all rights to commence and pursue, as appropriate, any and all Causes of Action contributed, whether by the Debtors or the Contributing Claimants, to the Creditor Recovery Trust (the "Trust Causes of Action"). No Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee will not pursue any and all Trust Causes of Action against such Entity. The Creditor Recovery Trustee expressly reserves all Trust Causes of Action for later adjudication, resolution, abandonment, settlement, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise) or laches, shall apply to such Trust Causes of Action upon, after or as a consequence of the Confirmation Order.

2.7 Appointment as Representative. Pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be the duly appointed representative of the Estates for certain limited purposes and, as such, to the extent provided herein, the Creditor Recovery Trustee succeeds to the rights and powers of a trustee in bankruptcy solely with respect to prosecution, resolution and settlement of the Trust Causes of Action and the Disputed Claims. Nothing in this Agreement or the Plan requires the Creditor Recovery Trustee to render any services or incur any costs with respect to any Debtor without adequate funding, as determined by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in its reasonable discretion. To the extent that any of the Trust Causes of Action cannot be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust because of a restriction on transferability under applicable non-bankruptcy law that is not superseded or preempted by section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code or any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code, such Trust Causes of Action and rights shall be deemed to have been retained by the Debtors or the Contributing Claimant (other than for tax purposes), as applicable, and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be deemed to have been designated as a representative of the Debtors to the extent provided herein pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code solely to enforce and pursue such Trust Causes of Action on behalf of the Debtors or any Contributing Claimant, as applicable, for the benefit of the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries. Notwithstanding the foregoing, all Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds (excluding any Assets in a Disputed Claims Reserve) shall be distributed to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries consistent with the provisions of the Plan, Confirmation Order, and this Agreement, including Section 6.2; provided that the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall use Cash from the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to satisfy Allowed Professional Compensation Claims, fees of the Independent Fiduciary, and fees of the Ad Hoc Group of Crown Capital Noteholders in accordance with Article II.A of the Plan. For the avoidance of doubt, any of the Trust Causes of Action subject to this Section 2.7 shall be treated by the Parties for U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes as transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust as described in Section 2.2(f) herein.

ARTICLE III
CREDITOR RECOVERY TRUST INTERESTS

3.1 Creditor Recovery Trust Distributions. The Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries shall be entitled to distributions from the Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds (excluding any Assets in a Disputed Claims Reserve) in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement, including Section 6.2.

3.2 Interests Beneficial Only. The Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries shall not be entitled to any title in or to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets as such (which title shall be vested in the Creditor Recovery Trust) or to any right to call for a partition or division of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets or to require an accounting.

3.3 Effect of Death, Incapacity or Bankruptcy. The death, incapacity or bankruptcy of any Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary during the term of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not (i) operate to terminate the Creditor Recovery Trust, (ii) entitle the representatives or creditors of the deceased, incapacitated or bankrupt party to an accounting, (iii) entitle the representatives or creditors of the deceased, incapacitated or bankrupt party to take any action in the Bankruptcy Court or elsewhere for the distribution of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets or for a partition thereof, or (iv) otherwise affect the rights and obligations of any of the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries under this Agreement.

3.4 Change of Address. Any Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries may, after the Effective Date, select an alternative distribution address by providing notice to the Creditor Recovery Trustee identifying such alternative distribution address. Such notification shall be effective only upon receipt by the Creditor Recovery Trustee. Absent actual receipt of such notice by the Creditor Recovery Trustee, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall not recognize any such change of distribution address.

3.5 Standing. No Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary shall have standing to direct the Creditor Recovery Trustee, subject to the provisions of Article V, to do or not to do any act or to institute any action or proceeding at law or in equity against any party upon or with respect to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

ARTICLE IV
RIGHTS, POWERS AND DUTIES OF CREDITOR RECOVERY TRUSTEE

4.1 Role of the Creditor Recovery Trustee. In furtherance of and consistent with the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Plan, subject to the terms and conditions contained in the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall, in accordance with Article V herein, (i) receive, manage, supervise and protect the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets upon the receipt of same by the Creditor Recovery Trust on behalf of and for the benefit of the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries; (ii) investigate, analyze, prosecute and, if necessary and appropriate, settle and compromise the Trust Causes of Action; (iii) prepare and file all required tax returns and pay all taxes and all other obligations of the Creditor Recovery Trust; (iv) liquidate and convert the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to Cash and make distributions to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries in accordance with Articles V and VI herein; and (v) have all such other responsibilities as may be vested in the Creditor Recovery Trustee pursuant to the Plan, the Confirmation Order, this Agreement, and all other applicable orders of the Bankruptcy Court. All decisions and duties with respect to the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to be made and fulfilled, respectively, by the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be carried out in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, this Agreement (including the provisions of Article V) and all other applicable orders of the Bankruptcy Court. In all circumstances, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall act in the best interests of all Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries and in furtherance of the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to prosecute, settle or otherwise resolve the Trust Causes of Action and to make timely distributions of any Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds realized therefrom and to otherwise monetize the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and not unreasonably prolong the duration of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

4.2 Power to Contract. In furtherance of the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust, and except as otherwise specifically restricted in the Plan, Confirmation Order, or this Agreement (including the provisions of Article V), the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right and power on behalf of the Creditor Recovery Trust, and also may cause the Creditor Recovery Trust, to enter into any covenants or agreements binding the Creditor Recovery Trust, and to execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all instruments that are necessary or deemed by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to be consistent with and advisable in furthering the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

4.3 Ultimate Right to Act Based on Advice of Counsel or Other Professionals. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to prevent the Creditor Recovery Trustee from taking or refraining to take any action on behalf of the Creditor Recovery Trust that, based upon the advice of counsel or other professionals, the Creditor Recovery Trustee determines in good faith that it is obligated to take or to refrain from taking in the performance of any duty that the Creditor Recovery Trustee may owe the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries or any other Entity pursuant to the Plan, Confirmation Order, or this Agreement.

4.4 Authority to Prosecute and Settle Trust Causes of Action.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, including Article V herein, the Plan, and the Confirmation Order, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall prosecute, pursue, compromise, settle, or abandon any and all Trust Causes of Action that have not already been resolved as of the Effective Date. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the absolute right to pursue, not pursue, release, abandon, and/or settle any and all Trust Causes of Action (including any counterclaims asserted against the Creditor Recovery Trust) as it determines in the best interests of the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, and consistent with the purposes of the Creditor Recovery Trust, and shall have no liability for the outcome of its decision.

(b) To the extent that any action has been taken to prosecute or otherwise resolve any Trust Causes of Action prior to the Effective Date by the Debtors or any Contributing Claimant, on the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be substituted for the Debtors or the Contributing Claimants, as the case may be, in connection therewith in accordance with Rule 25 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, made applicable to the Creditor Recovery Trust by Bankruptcy Rule 7025, and the caption with respect to such pending litigation shall be changed to the following, at the option of the Creditor Recovery Trust: "[Name of Trustee], as Trustee for the CBRM Creditor Recovery Trust v. [Defendant]" or "CBRM Creditor Recovery Trust v. [Defendant]." Without limiting the foregoing, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall take any and all actions necessary or prudent to intervene as plaintiff, movant or additional party, as appropriate, with respect to any applicable Cause of Action. For purposes of exercising its powers, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be deemed to be a representative of the Estates pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(c) Subject to Section 4.4(a), any determinations by the Creditor Recovery Trustee, with regard to the amount or timing of settlement or other disposition of any Trust Causes of Action settled in accordance with the terms of this Agreement shall be conclusive and binding on the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries and all other parties in interest following the entry of an order of a court of competent jurisdiction (including, as relevant, a Final Order issued by the Bankruptcy Court) approving such settlement or other disposition, to the extent any such order is required to be obtained to enforce any such determinations.

4.5 Liquidation of Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. The Creditor Recovery Trustee, in the exercise of its reasonable business judgment, shall, in an expeditious but orderly manner and subject to the other provisions of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement (including Section 2.2 and the provisions of Article V), liquidate and convert to Cash the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, make timely distributions in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement (including Section 6.2), and not unduly prolong the existence of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall exercise reasonable business judgment and liquidate the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to maximize net recoveries to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, provided, however, that the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be entitled to take into consideration the risks, timing, and costs of potential actions in making determinations as to the methodologies to be employed to maximize such recoveries. Such liquidations may be accomplished through the prosecution, compromise and settlement, abandonment or dismissal of any or all of the Trust Causes of Action or otherwise or through the sale or other disposition of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (in whole or in combination). The Creditor Recovery Trustee may incur any reasonable and necessary expenses in connection with the liquidation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and distribution of the Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds subject to the provisions of the Plan and the Confirmation Order.

4.6 Distributions. Subject to Sections 4.8, 4.10, and 4.11 hereof, and the provisions of this Section 4.6, any non-Cash property of the Creditor Recovery Trust may be sold, transferred, abandoned or otherwise disposed of by the Creditor Recovery Trustee. Notice of such sale, transfer, abandonment or disposition shall be provided to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries pursuant to the reporting obligations provided in Section 4.13 of this Agreement. If, in the Creditor Recovery Trustee's reasonable judgment, such property cannot be sold in a commercially reasonable manner, or the Creditor Recovery Trustee believes, in good faith, such property has no value to the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to abandon or otherwise dispose of such property. Except in the case of fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence, no party in interest shall have a Cause of Action against the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or any of their directors, officers, employees, consultants, or professionals arising from or related to the disposition of non-Cash property in accordance with this Section 4.6.

4.7 Retention of Counsel and Other Professionals. The Creditor Recovery Trust may, but shall not be required to, retain such Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals as the Creditor Recovery Trustee deems necessary to aid it in fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement, the Confirmation Order, and the Plan, and on whatever reasonable and/or customary fee arrangements the Creditor Recovery Trustee deems appropriate, including contingency fee arrangements, but without application to or order of the Bankruptcy Court. The Creditor Recovery Trustee may pay the reasonable salaries, fees and expenses of such Entities in the ordinary course of business and neither the Creditor Recovery Trustee nor any Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary shall have any liability or obligation for any fees or expenses of any such professional. For the avoidance of doubt, prior employment in any capacity in the Debtors' bankruptcy cases on behalf of the Debtors, their estates, the Ad Hoc Group of Crown Capital Noteholders, any committee appointed under Bankruptcy Code Section 1102, or any creditors shall not preclude the Creditor Recovery Trust's retention of such professionals, consultants, or other persons.

4.8 Management of Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order or this Agreement, and subject to Treasury Regulations governing Creditor Recovery Trusts and the retained jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court as provided for in the Plan, but without prior or further authorization, the Creditor Recovery Trustee may, to the extent provided in this Agreement, control and exercise authority over the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, over the management and disposition thereof, and over the management and conduct of the Creditor Recovery Trust, in each case, as necessary or advisable to enable the Creditor Recovery Trustee to fulfill the intents and purposes of this Agreement. No Entity dealing with the Creditor Recovery Trust will be obligated to inquire into the authority of the Creditor Recovery Trustee in connection with the acquisition, management or disposition of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

(b) In connection with the management and use of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and except as otherwise expressly limited in the Plan, the Confirmation Order or this Agreement, the Creditor Recovery Trust will have, in addition to any powers conferred upon the Creditor Recovery Trust by any other provision of this Agreement, the power to take any and all actions as, in the Creditor Recovery Trustee's reasonable discretion, are necessary or advisable to effectuate the primary purposes of the Creditor Recovery Trust, as set forth herein, including, without limitation, the power and authority to (i) pay taxes and other obligations owed by the Creditor Recovery Trust or incurred by the Creditor Recovery Trustee; (ii) engage and compensate the Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals to assist the Creditor Recovery Trustee with respect to their respective responsibilities; (iii) object to, compromise, and settle Disputed Claims, subject to Bankruptcy Court approval, if applicable; (iv) commence and/or pursue any and all actions involving the Trust Causes of Action that could arise or be asserted at any time, unless otherwise limited, waived, released, compromised, settled, or relinquished in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or this Agreement; and (v) perform its obligations under the Plan, this Agreement, and applicable orders of the Bankruptcy Court (including, as applicable, the Confirmation Order).

4.9 Investment of Cash. The right and power of the Creditor Recovery Trustee to invest the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, the proceeds thereof, or any income earned by the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be limited to the right and power to invest such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets only in Cash and U.S. Government securities as defined in section 2(a)(16) of the Investment Company Act; provided, however, that (a) the scope of any such permissible investments shall be further limited to include only those investments that a liquidating trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 301.7701-4(d), may be permitted to hold, pursuant to the Treasury Regulations, Revenue Procedures, or any modification in the Internal Revenue Service guidelines, whether set forth in Internal Revenue Service rulings, other Internal Revenue Service pronouncements, or otherwise, (b) the Creditor Recovery Trustee may retain any Creditor Recovery Trust Assets received that are not Cash only for so long as may be required for the prompt and orderly liquidation of such assets, and (c) the Creditor Recovery Trustee may expend the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (i) as reasonably necessary to meet contingent liabilities and maintain the value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets during liquidation, (ii) to pay reasonable and documented administrative expenses (including, but not limited to, any taxes imposed on the Creditor Recovery Trust or reasonable fees and expenses in connection with liquidating the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets), subject in all cases to Section 2.4 of this Agreement, and (iii) to satisfy other liabilities incurred or assumed by the Creditor Recovery Trust (or to which the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets are otherwise subject), in each case in accordance with the Plan and this Agreement.

4.10 Additional Powers of the Creditor Recovery Trustee. In addition to any and all of the powers enumerated above, and except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order or this Agreement, and subject to the Treasury Regulations governing Creditor Recovery Trusts and the retained jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court as provided for in the Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as provided in this Agreement, shall be empowered to:

(a) except to the extent Disputed Claims have been previously Allowed, control and effectuate the Disputed Claims reconciliation process, including to object to, seek to subordinate, compromise or settle any and all Disputed Claims;

(f) determine and satisfy any and all liabilities created, incurred or assumed by the Creditor Recovery Trust;

(j) (i) receive, manage, invest, supervise, protect, and liquidate the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, withdraw and make distributions from and pay taxes and other obligations owed by the Creditor Recovery Trust from funds held by the Creditor Recovery Trustee and/or the Creditor Recovery Trust in the Creditor Recovery Trust Account and (ii) withdraw and make distributions from and pay taxes and other obligations owed in respect of any Disputed Claims or any Disputed Claims Reserve from the applicable Disputed Claims Reserve in accordance with the Plan, as long as such actions are consistent with the Creditor Recovery Trust's status as a liquidating trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d) and are merely incidental to its liquidation and dissolution;

(k) prepare, or have prepared, and file, if necessary, with the appropriate Governmental Unit any and all tax returns, information returns, and other required documents with respect to the Creditor Recovery Trust or any Disputed Claims Reserve (including, without limitation, U.S. federal, state, local or foreign tax or information returns required to be filed by the Creditor Recovery Trust or any Disputed Claims Reserve), cause all taxes payable by the Creditor Recovery Trust or any Disputed Claims Reserve to be paid exclusively out of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets or any Disputed Claims Reserve, as applicable, make all tax withholdings, and file and prosecute tax refund claims on behalf of the Creditor Recovery Trust or any Disputed Claims Reserve;

(q) take or refrain from taking any and all actions the Creditor Recovery Trustee reasonably deems necessary for the continuation, protection, and maximization of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets consistent with the purposes hereof; provided that the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall use Cash from the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to satisfy Allowed Professional Compensation Claims, fees of the Independent Fiduciary, and fees of the Ad Hoc Group of Crown Capital Noteholders in accordance with Article II.A of the Plan;

(r) take all steps and execute all instruments and documents the Creditor Recovery Trustee reasonably deems necessary to effectuate the Creditor Recovery Trust;

(t) take all actions the Creditor Recovery Trustee reasonably deems necessary to comply with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement (including all obligations thereunder);

(u) in the event that the Creditor Recovery Trust shall fail or cease to qualify as a liquidating trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), take any and all necessary actions as it shall reasonably deem appropriate to have such assets treated as held by an entity classified as a partnership for federal, state, and local tax purposes; and

4.11 Limitations on Power and Authority of the Creditor Recovery Trustee. The Creditor Recovery Trustee will not have the authority to do any of the following:

(a) take any action in contravention of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or this Agreement (including the provisions of Article V);

(b) take any action that would make it impossible to carry on the activities of the Creditor Recovery Trust;

(c) possess property of the Creditor Recovery Trust or assign the Creditor Recovery Trust's rights in specific property for any purpose other than as provided herein;

(d) cause or permit the Creditor Recovery Trust to engage in any trade or business or utilize or dispose of any part of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets or the proceeds, revenue or income therefrom in furtherance of any trade of business;

(e) dissolve the Creditor Recovery Trust other than in accordance with Sections 10.1 and 10.2 of this Agreement;

(f) receive transfers of any listed stocks or securities or any readily marketable assets or any operating assets of a going business, except as may be required (x) under the Plan and the Confirmation Order, (y) as reasonably necessary for the protection, conservation, or maintenance of value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets in furtherance of efforts to liquidate the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and (z) otherwise in compliance with Revenue Procedure 94-45, 1994-2 C.B. 684; provided, however, that in no event shall the Creditor Recovery Trust receive any such investment that would jeopardize treatment of the Creditor Recovery Trust as a "liquidating trust" for federal income tax purposes under Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), or any successor provision thereof;

(g) retain Cash in excess of a reasonable amount necessary to (w) satisfy any liabilities of the Creditor Recovery Trust, (x) to protect, conserve or maintain the value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, (y) to meet any Claims and contingent liabilities and (z) to establish and maintain the reserves contemplated by the Plan or this Agreement;

(h) receive or retain any operating assets of an operating business, a partnership interest in a partnership that holds operating assets or 50% or more of the stock of a corporation with operating assets other than in furtherance of the protection, conservation, or maintenance of value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets in furtherance of efforts to liquidate the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets; provided, however, that in no event shall the Creditor Recovery Trustee receive or retain any such asset or interest that would jeopardize treatment of the Creditor Recovery Trust as a "liquidating trust" for federal income tax purposes under Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d) or any successor provision thereof; or

(i) take any other action or engage in any investments or activities that would jeopardize treatment of the Creditor Recovery Trust as a liquidating trust for federal income tax purposes under Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), or any successor provision thereof.

4.12 Books and Records. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall maintain books and records relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (including income realized therefrom and the Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds) and the payment of, costs and expenses of, and liabilities for claims against or which, pursuant to the Plan, are the responsibility of the Creditor Recovery Trust in such detail and for such period of time as may be necessary to enable the Creditor Recovery Trustee to make full and proper accounting in respect thereof and in accordance with applicable law. Such books and records shall be maintained as reasonably necessary to facilitate compliance with the tax reporting requirements of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Nothing in this Agreement requires the Creditor Recovery Trustee to file any accounting or seek approval of any court with respect to the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust or as a condition for managing any payment or distribution out of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, except as may otherwise be set forth in the Plan or the Confirmation Order.

4.13 Reports.

(a) Financial and Status Reports. The fiscal year of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be the calendar year. Within [ninety (90)] days after the end of each calendar year during the term of the Creditor Recovery Trust, and within [forty-five (45)] days after the end of each calendar quarter during the term of the Creditor Recovery Trust (other than the fourth quarter) and as soon as practicable upon termination of the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall make available to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries and the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee, as of the end of such period or such date of termination, a written report including: (i) financial statements of the Creditor Recovery Trust for such period, and, if the end of a calendar year, an unaudited report (which may be prepared by an independent certified public accountant employed by the Creditor Recovery Trustee) reflecting the result of such procedures relating to the financial accounting administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust as may be adopted by the Creditor Recovery Trustee; (ii) a summary description of any action taken by the Creditor Recovery Trust which, in the judgment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, materially affects the Creditor Recovery Trust and of which notice has not previously been given to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries; (iii) a description of the progress of liquidating the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and making distributions to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, which description shall include a written report providing, among other things, a summary of the litigation status of the Trust Causes of Action transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, any settlements entered into by the Creditor Recovery Trust with respect to the Trust Causes of Action, the Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds recovered to date, and the distributions made by the Creditor Recovery Trust to date; (iv) payments made to the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals (including fees and expenses paid to contingency fee counsel); and (v) any other material information relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust deemed appropriate to be disclosed by the Creditor Recovery Trustee. In addition, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall provide unaudited financial statements to each Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary on a quarterly basis (which may be quarterly operating reports filed with the Bankruptcy Court). The Creditor Recovery Trustee may post any such report on a website maintained by the Creditor Recovery Trust or electronically file it with the Bankruptcy Court in lieu of actual notice to each Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall respond, as soon as reasonably practicable, to reasonable requests for information (to the extent available) described in this clause (a) that is reasonably requested from Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries during reasonable business hours, in each case, to the extent such requests do not (i) request the disclosure of privileged or confidential information, (ii) request the disclosure of information which would not be in the best interest of the Creditor Recovery Trust (in the reasonable discretion of the Creditor Recovery Trustee), and (iii) interfere with the duties of the Creditor Recovery Trustee hereunder. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall not be required to make available (through reporting or response to requests) any information if the disclosure of such information, in its sole discretion, would (i) constitute a violation of the Creditor Recovery Trustee's confidentiality or other non-disclosure obligations pursuant to a contract or a court order, or (ii) prejudice or harm the investigation or pursuit of any Trust Causes of Action.

(b) Annual Plan and Budget. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall prepare and adopt an annual plan and budget as the Creditor Recovery Trustee deems reasonably appropriate.

ARTICLE V

ADVISORY COMMITTEE

5.1 Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee. The Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee (the "Advisory Committee") is hereby created in accordance with the Plan. The Advisory Committee initially shall be composed of the following members: [_____, _____, and _____] (each, a "Member," and collectively, the "Members"), all of whom hereby accept their appointment as Members of the Advisory Committee. The Advisory Committee may authorize its own dissolution by filing with the Bankruptcy Court an appropriate notice that its responsibilities under this Agreement have concluded. Unless already dissolved, the Advisory Committee shall be dissolved as of the earlier of (i) the date upon which each Member receives a distribution from the Creditor Recovery Trust in full satisfaction of its respective Allowed Claim; or (ii) the date the Chapter 11 Case is closed. Further provisions as relating to the Advisory Committee are as follows:

(a) Actions Requiring Consultation with the Advisory Committee. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall consult with the Advisory Committee (which may occur by negative notice) prior to taking any action regarding any of the following matters: (i) the distribution, disposition or abandonment of any non-Cash Creditor Recovery Trust Assets having a valuation in excess of $[250,000]; (ii) the settlement, compromise, or other resolution of any Disputed Claim, wherein the Allowed amount of the asserted Claim exceeds $250,000; (iii) the exercise of any right or action set forth in this Agreement that expressly requires consultation with the Advisory Committee; (iv) the borrowing of any funds by the Creditor Recovery Trust or pledge of any portion of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets; and (v) any matter which could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect, as determined by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in consultation with legal counsel, on the amount of distributions to be made by the Creditor Recovery Trust.

(b) Creditor Recovery Trustee's Conflict of Interest. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall disclose to the Advisory Committee any conflicts of interest (actual or potential) that the Creditor Recovery Trustee has with respect to any matter arising during administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust. In the event that the Creditor Recovery Trustee cannot take any action by reason of an actual or potential conflict of interest, the Advisory Committee, acting by majority, shall be authorized to take any such action(s) in the Creditor Recovery Trustee's place and stead, including without limitation the retention of professionals (which may include professionals retained by the Creditor Recovery Trustee) for the purpose of taking such actions. The Bankruptcy Court shall hear and finally determine any dispute arising out of this section.

(c) To the extent required under this Agreement or the Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trustee may satisfy its consultation requirement by providing written notice, which may be in the form of an email, to the Advisory Committee [five (5) business days] (or less if the circumstances require it as determined by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in his or her sole discretion) prior to the proposed action.

(d) Any Member of the Advisory Committee may resign at any time on notice (including email notice) to the other Members of the Advisory Committee and to the Creditor Recovery Trustee. Any such resignation shall be effective on the later of: (i) the date specified in the notice delivered to the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the other Members; and (ii) the date that is thirty (30) days after the date such notice is delivered. In the event of the resignation, death, incapacity, or removal of a Member of the Advisory Committee, the remaining Members of the Advisory Committee, in consultation with the Creditor Recovery Trustee, shall select and appoint a replacement Member. In the event that no one is willing to serve as a replacement Member on the Advisory Committee for a period of [thirty (30)] consecutive days after the departure of the Member at issue, then the Creditor Recovery Trustee may, during such vacancy and thereafter, ignore any reference in this Agreement, the Plan, or the Confirmation Order to the Advisory Committee, and all references to the Advisory Committee's rights and responsibilities under this Agreement, the Plan, or the Confirmation Order will be null and void.

(e) Each member of the Advisory Committee and its representatives shall have no liability for any actions or omissions in accordance with this Agreement or with respect to the Creditor Recovery Trust unless arising out of such Entity's own fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence. Unless arising out of such Entity's own fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence, in performing its duties under this Agreement, each member of the Advisory Committee and its representatives (as applicable) shall have no liability for any action taken by such Entity in good faith, in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the Creditor Recovery Trust and/or in accordance with the advice of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, the Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals retained by the Creditor Recovery Trust, or its own professionals.

ARTICLE VI
DISTRIBUTIONS

6.1 Distributions Generally. Subject to the terms of Section 6.2 below, from time to time (but no less frequently than semi-annually), the Creditor Recovery Trustee or its designated agent (which agent must be reasonably acceptable to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries) shall make a determination of the amount of Cash available for distribution to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, which shall include the amount of Cash then on hand (including the net income and the Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds, if any, from any disposition of Trust Causes of Action, any Cash received on account of or representing Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds, and treating as Cash for purposes of this Section 6.1 any permitted investments under Section 4.9 and excluding any Cash or other amounts in any Disputed Claims Reserve), reduced by any such amounts that are reasonably necessary to (i) meet contingent liabilities and to maintain the value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets during liquidation, (ii) pay reasonable incurred or anticipated expenses of the Creditor Recovery Trust (including, but not limited to, any taxes imposed on or payable by the Creditor Recovery Trust or in respect of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and fees and expenses of professionals retained on behalf of the Creditor Recovery Trust), or (iii) satisfy other liabilities incurred or anticipated by the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with the Plan or this Agreement (which amounts under (i) through (iii) above shall have priority in distribution ahead of any distributions to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries). The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall then distribute all such available Cash to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement.

Subject to the terms of Section 6.2 below, distributions shall be made to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries in the following order of priority:

First, to the holders of claims for compensation as provided under the last sentence of Article II.A of the Plan until paid in full;

Second, to the holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims until paid in full (including postpetition interests); and

Third, to the holders of RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims, CBRM Unsecured Claims, and the Spano CBRM Claim, in the priority as provided for in the Plan, until paid in full (including postpetition interest).

6.2 Distribution of Contributed Claims Proceeds. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, and in accordance with Article IV.J of the Plan, with respect to any proceeds received from the prosecution and, if necessary and appropriate, settlement and compromise of any Contributed Claim (the "Contributed Claim Proceeds"), the Creditor Recovery Trustee or its designated agent (which agent must be reasonably acceptable to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries) shall distribute such Contributed Claim Proceeds to the Contributing Claimants on a pro-rata basis and shall not distribute any such Contributed Claim Proceeds to any Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary that did not elect to contribute its claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

6.3 Address for Delivery. Any distributions to be made by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to the holder of an Allowed Claim under this Agreement and the Plan shall be made at the last-known address for each such holder as indicated on the Creditor Recovery Trust's records as of the applicable distribution date, which, subject to Section 3.4 hereof, for each holder of an Allowed Claim shall be deemed to be the address set forth (i) in the Schedules, (ii) on the Proof of Claim filed by such holder, (iii) in any notice of assignment filed with the Bankruptcy Court with respect to such Claim pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), or (iv) in any notice served by such holder giving details of a change of address.

6.4 Undeliverable and Unclaimed Distributions.

(a) If any distribution to any holder is returned as undeliverable, no distribution to such holder shall be made unless and until the Creditor Recovery Trustee is notified in writing of the then-current address of such holder, at which time such distribution shall be made as soon as reasonably practicable after such distribution has become deliverable or has been claimed to such holder without interest. Nothing contained herein shall require the Creditor Recovery Trustee to attempt to locate any holder of an Allowed Claim.

(b) Any holder of an Allowed Claim that does not assert its right to an undeliverable distribution prior to the date that is six months after the applicable distribution date will be forever barred from asserting any such Claim against the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. In such cases, (a) the undeliverable distribution shall be deemed to be unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust (notwithstanding any applicable federal or state escheat, abandoned or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), (b) the Allowed Claims with respect to such distribution shall be automatically cancelled, (c) the right of the holders entitled to those distributions shall be discharged and forever barred, and (d) the undeliverable distribution shall be reserved or distributed in accordance with the Plan and this Agreement.

6.5 Time Bar to Cash Payments. Any check issued by the Creditor Recovery Trust on account of an Allowed Claim shall be null and void if not negotiated within 90 days after the issuance of such check. Requests for reissuance of any check shall be made directly to the Creditor Recovery Trustee by the holder of the relevant Allowed Claim with respect to which such check originally was issued. If any holder of an Allowed Claim holding an unnegotiated check does not request reissuance of that check within six months after the date the check was mailed or otherwise delivered to the holder, the entitlement of the holder regarding such unnegotiated check and the funds represented thereby shall be released and the holder thereof shall be forever barred, estopped and enjoined from asserting any claim with respect to such unnegotiated check and the funds represented thereby against any of the Debtors, the Creditor Recovery Trust, or the Creditor Recovery Trustee. In such cases, any Cash held for payment on account of such unnegotiated check shall be deemed to be unclaimed property and shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, free of any Claims of such holder with respect thereto (notwithstanding any applicable federal or state escheat, abandoned or unclaimed property laws to the contrary).

6.6 Manner of Payment. Any distribution of Cash by the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be made by the Creditor Recovery Trustee, in the sole discretion of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, either (i) via a check drawn on or wire or ACH transfer from, a bank account established in the name of the Creditor Recovery Trust on or subsequent to the Confirmation Date at a domestic bank selected by the Creditor Recovery Trustee (the "Creditor Recovery Trust Account"), or (ii) as may be appropriate under the circumstances and mutually agreed between the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the recipient of such distribution.

6.7 Fractional Distributions. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall not be required to make on account of any Allowed Claim partial distributions if any portion of such Claim remains in dispute, or payments of fractions of dollars. Fractions of dollars shall be rounded to the nearest whole unit (with any amount equal to or less than one-half dollar to be rounded down).

6.8 De Minimis Distributions. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall not be required to make a distribution if the amount of Cash to be distributed is less than $100 to any one claimant in a single distribution. Any funds so withheld and not distributed shall be held in reserve and distributed to such claimant in subsequent distributions except if the aggregate distributions (including the final distribution) to be made by the Creditor Recovery Trust to such claimant is less than $100, in which case such amount shall be included in the Dissolution Process set forth in Section 10.1 of this Agreement.

6.9 Business Day. Any payment or distribution due on a day other than a Business Day shall be made, without interest, on the next Business Day.

6.10 Withholding Taxes. The Creditor Recovery Trustee may deduct and withhold taxes from any and all amounts otherwise distributable to any Entity determined in the Creditor Recovery Trustee's reasonable discretion, required by this Agreement, any law, regulation, rule, ruling, directive, treaty or other governmental requirement in accordance with Section 9.4 hereof.

6.11 Disputed Claims Reserves. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be authorized, but not directed, to establish one or more Creditor Recovery Trust Disputed Claims Reserves. The Creditor Recovery Trustee may, in its sole discretion, hold any property to be distributed pursuant to the Plan, in the same proportions and amounts as provided for in the Plan, in the Creditor Recovery Trust Disputed Claims Reserve in trust for the benefit of the holders of Disputed Claims ultimately determined to be Allowed after the Effective Date and payable by the Creditor Recovery Trust under the Plan. To the extent payable by the Creditor Recovery Trust under the Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall distribute such amounts (net of any expenses, including any taxes relating thereto or otherwise payable by the Creditor Recovery Trust Disputed Claims Reserve), as provided in the Plan, as such Claims are resolved by a Final Order or agreed to by settlement, and such amounts will be distributable on account of such Claims as such amounts would have been distributable had such Claims been Allowed Claims as of the Effective Date. Amounts remaining in the Creditor Recovery Trust Disputed Claims Reserve, if any, after the resolution of all applicable Disputed Claims and the satisfaction of all applicable Allowed Disputed Claims payable by the Creditor Recovery Trust under the Plan shall promptly be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, without any further notice to, action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or by any other Entity.

modified from time to time by agreement of the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee or, if the Chapter 11 Cases have not been closed or dismissed, by order of the Bankruptcy Court. Notice of any modification of the Creditor Recovery Trustee's compensation shall be filed promptly with the Bankruptcy Court; provided, however, that after the closing or dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases, such notice shall be served on the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries. For the avoidance of doubt, the Creditor Recovery Trust Compensation shall not be binding on any successor trustee, and, subject to the requirements of Section 7.5 hereof, a successor trustee shall negotiate its compensation with the Creditor Recovery Trust and file a summary of the terms of its compensation with the Bankruptcy Court upon accepting the appointment.

(c) Expenses. The Creditor Recovery Trust will reimburse the Creditor Recovery Trustee for all actual, reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in connection with the performance of the duties of the Creditor Recovery Trustee hereunder or under the Confirmation Order or the Plan (collectively, the "Creditor Recovery Trustee Expenses" and, together with the Creditor Recovery Trustee Compensation, the "Creditor Recovery Trustee Fees").

(d) Payment. The Creditor Recovery Trustee Fees shall be paid to the Creditor Recovery Trustee without necessity for review or approval by the Bankruptcy Court or any other Person. The Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction until the closing or dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases to adjudicate any dispute regarding the Creditor Recovery Trustee Fees.

7.3 Resignation. The Creditor Recovery Trustee may resign by giving not less than [45 days'] prior written notice thereof by filing a notice with the Bankruptcy Court (and such notice shall be served on the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries). Such resignation shall become effective on the earlier to occur of: (a) the day specified in such notice, and (b) the appointment of a successor satisfying the requirements set out in Section 7.5 by the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee or the Bankruptcy Court and the acceptance by such successor of such appointment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon the Termination Date (as defined in Section 10.1 below), the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be deemed to have resigned, except as otherwise provided for in Section 10.2 herein. Written notice of the resignation of the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the appointment of a successor Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be provided promptly to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries.

7.4 Removal.

(a) The Creditor Recovery Trustee (or any successor Creditor Recovery Trustee) may be removed (i) by the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee, for Cause, upon not less than [45 days'] prior written notice; or (ii) by order of the Bankruptcy Court for Cause.

(b) To the extent there is any dispute regarding the removal of a Creditor Recovery Trustee (including any dispute relating to any portion of the Creditor Recovery Trustee Fees) and so long as the Chapter 11 Cases have not been closed or dismissed, the Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction to consider and adjudicate any such dispute. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Creditor Recovery Trustee will continue to serve as the Creditor Recovery Trustee after his, her or its removal other than for Cause until the earlier of (i) the time when appointment of a successor Creditor Recovery Trustee will become effective in accordance with Section 7.5 of this Agreement or (ii) [45 days] after the date of removal.

(c) For purposes of this Section 7.4, "Cause" shall mean (i) the Creditor Recovery Trustee's willful failure to perform his/her/its material duties hereunder, which is not remedied within [thirty (30)] days of notice; (ii) the Creditor Recovery Trustee's commission of an act of fraud, theft or embezzlement in connection with or reasonably related to the performance of its duties hereunder; (iii) the Creditor Recovery Trustee's gross negligence, willful misconduct, or knowing violation of law in the performance of its duties hereunder, or (iv) the Creditor Recovery Trustee's breach of fiduciary duties or an unresolved conflict of interest in connection with or reasonably related to the performance of its duties hereunder.

7.5 Appointment of Successor Creditor Recovery Trustee.

(a) In the event of the death or disability (in the case of a Creditor Recovery Trustee that is a natural person), dissolution (in the case of a Creditor Recovery Trustee that is not a natural person), resignation, incompetency or removal of the Creditor Recovery Trustee (each, a "Succession Event"), the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee shall promptly designate a successor Creditor Recovery Trustee satisfying the requirements set forth in Section 7.1 hereof; provided, however, the Bankruptcy Court may designate a successor Creditor Recovery Trustee to the extent that the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee has not designated a successor Creditor Recovery Trustee within [thirty (30)] days of a Succession Event resulting from the death, disability, dissolution, resignation or incompetency of the Creditor Recovery Trustee. Such appointment shall specify the date on which such appointment shall be effective. Every successor Creditor Recovery Trustee appointed hereunder shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee an instrument accepting the appointment under this Agreement and agreeing to be bound as Creditor Recovery Trustee hereto and subject to the terms of this Agreement, and thereupon the successor Creditor Recovery Trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all rights, powers, trusts and duties of the predecessor Creditor Recovery Trustee and the successor Creditor Recovery Trustee shall not be personally liable for any act or omission of the predecessor Creditor Recovery Trustee; provided, however, that a predecessor Creditor Recovery Trustee shall, nevertheless, when requested in writing by the successor Creditor Recovery Trustee, execute and deliver an instrument or instruments conveying and transferring to such successor Creditor Recovery Trustee under the Creditor Recovery Trust all the estates, properties, rights, powers and trusts of such predecessor Creditor Recovery Trustee and otherwise assist and cooperate, without cost or expense to the predecessor Creditor Recovery Trustee, in effectuating the assumption by the successor Creditor Recovery Trustee of his/her/its obligations and functions hereunder. For notice purposes only and not for approval, the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee shall file with the Bankruptcy Court (if the Chapter 11 Cases have not been closed) a notice appointing the successor Creditor Recovery Trustee.

(b) During any period in which there is a vacancy in the position of Creditor Recovery Trustee, the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee shall appoint (or the Bankruptcy Court may appoint) an interim Creditor Recovery Trustee (the "Interim Trustee"). The Interim Trustee shall be subject to all the terms and conditions applicable to a Creditor Recovery Trustee hereunder; provided, however, any such Interim Trustee shall not be entitled to receive the Creditor Recovery Trustee Compensation unless approved by the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee.

(c) To the extent that the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee are unable to appoint a successor Creditor Recovery Trustee or Interim Trustee and the Chapter 11 Cases have been closed or dismissed, the Chapter 11 Cases may be reopened for the limited purpose of seeking an order of the Bankruptcy Court to appoint a successor Creditor Recovery Trustee.

7.6 Effect of Resignation or Removal. The death, disability, dissolution, bankruptcy, resignation, incompetency, incapacity or removal of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as applicable, shall not operate to terminate the Creditor Recovery Trust created by this Agreement or to revoke any existing agency created pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or invalidate any action theretofore taken by the Creditor Recovery Trustee or any prior Creditor Recovery Trustee. In the event of the resignation or removal of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, such Creditor Recovery Trustee will promptly (a) execute and deliver such documents, instruments and other writings as may be ordered by the Bankruptcy Court (or any other court of competent jurisdiction) or reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee or the successor Creditor Recovery Trustee to effect the termination of such Creditor Recovery Trustee's capacity under this Agreement, (b) deliver to the successor Creditor Recovery Trustee all documents, instruments, records and other writings related to the Creditor Recovery Trust as may be in the possession of such Creditor Recovery Trustee, including any materials relating to Trust Causes of Action, and shall not retain any copies of such materials, even for archival purposes, and (c) otherwise assist and cooperate in effecting the assumption of its obligations and functions by such successor Creditor Recovery Trustee.

7.7 Confidentiality. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall hold strictly confidential and not use for personal gain or for the gain of any Entity for whom such Creditor Recovery Trustee may be employed any confidential information of or pertaining to any Entity to which any of the Trust Causes of Action or Creditor Recovery Trust Assets relates or of which the Creditor Recovery Trustee has become aware in the Creditor Recovery Trustee's capacity as Creditor Recovery Trustee, until (a) such information is made public other than by disclosure by the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or any Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals in violation of this Agreement; (b) the Creditor Recovery Trust is required by law to disclose such information (in which case the Creditor Recovery Trust shall provide the relevant Entity reasonable advance notice and an opportunity to protect his, her, or its rights); or (c) the Creditor Recovery Trust obtains a waiver of confidentiality from the applicable Entity; provided, that nothing in this Section 7.7 shall affect, amend, or modify any existing confidentiality agreement or protective order governing information transferred or otherwise provided to the Creditor Recovery Trustee under the Plan or this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII
LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

8.1 No Further Liability. Each of the Creditor Recovery Trustee and its representatives shall have no liability for any actions or omissions in accordance with this Agreement or with respect to the Creditor Recovery Trust unless arising out of such Entity's own fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence. Unless arising out of such Entity's own fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence, in performing its duties under this Agreement, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and its representatives (as applicable) shall have no liability for any action taken by such Entity in good faith, in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the Creditor Recovery Trust and/or in accordance with the advice of the Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals retained by the Creditor Recovery Trust. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and its representatives may rely without independent investigation on copies of orders of the Bankruptcy Court reasonably believed by such Entity to be genuine and shall have no liability for actions taken in reliance thereon. None of the provisions of this Agreement shall require the Creditor Recovery Trustee or its representatives to expend or risk their own funds or otherwise incur personal financial liability in the performance of any of their duties hereunder or in the exercise of any of their rights and powers. Each of the Creditor Recovery Trustee and its representatives may rely without inquiry upon writings delivered to such Entity pursuant to the Plan, the Confirmation Order or this Agreement (including in the execution of such Person's duties hereunder or thereunder) that such Entity reasonably believes to be genuine and to have been properly given. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 8.1 shall relieve the Creditor Recovery Trustee or its representatives from any liability for any actions or omissions arising out of such Person's fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence. Any action taken or omitted to be taken in the case of the Creditor Recovery Trustee with the express approval of the Bankruptcy Court (so long as the Chapter 11 Cases have not been closed or dismissed) will conclusively be deemed not to constitute fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence. No termination of this Agreement or amendment, modification or repeal of this Section 8.1 shall adversely affect any right or protection of the Creditor Recovery Trustee or its respective designees, professional agents or representatives that exists at the time of such amendment, modification or repeal.

8.2 Indemnification of the Creditor Recovery Trustee.

(a) From and after the Effective Date, each of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, the Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals and each of the Creditor Recovery Trustee's representatives (each, a "Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party," and collectively, the "Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Parties") shall be, and hereby is, indemnified by the Creditor Recovery Trust, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, from and against any and all claims, debts, dues, accounts, actions, suits, Causes of Action, bonds, covenants, judgments, damages, attorneys' fees, defense costs and other assertions of liability arising out of any such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party's exercise of what such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its powers or the discharge of what such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its duties conferred by the Plan, the Confirmation Order or this Agreement, any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered pursuant to, or in furtherance of, the Plan, applicable law or otherwise (except only for actions or omissions to act to the extent determined by a Final Order to be due to such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party's own fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence on and after the Effective Date). The foregoing indemnification shall also extend to matters directly or indirectly in connection with, arising out of, based on, or in any way related to: (i) this Agreement; (ii) the services to be rendered pursuant to this Agreement; (iii) any document or information, whether oral or written, referred to herein or supplied to the Creditor Recovery Trustee; or (iv) proceedings by or on behalf of any creditor. Expenses, including attorney's fees and other expenses and disbursements, incurred by a Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid or reimbursed by the Creditor Recovery Trust, solely out of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (including any insurance policy obtained by the Creditor Recovery Trust for the benefit of Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Parties), in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding; provided, however, that any Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party receiving any such advance shall execute a written undertaking to repay such advance if a court of competent jurisdiction ultimately determines, by Final Order, that such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party is not entitled to indemnification hereunder due to such Person's own fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence. Any indemnification claim of a Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party shall be entitled to a priority distribution from the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, ahead of any other claim to or interest in such assets. In any matter covered by the first two sentences of this subsection, any party entitled to indemnification shall have the right to employ such party's own separate counsel, at the Creditor Recovery Trust's expense, subject to the foregoing terms and conditions. In addition, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall purchase insurance coverage as set forth in Section 4.10(i) hereof, including fiduciary liability insurance for the benefit of the Creditor Recovery Trustee. The indemnification provided under this Section 8.2 shall survive the death, dissolution, resignation or removal, as may be applicable, of the Creditor Recovery Trustee or any other Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party and shall inure to the benefit of the Creditor Recovery Trustee's and each other Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party's respective heirs, successors and assigns.

(b) The foregoing indemnity in respect of any Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party shall survive the termination of such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party from the capacity for which such party is indemnified. Termination or modification of this Agreement shall not limit or negatively affect any indemnification rights or obligations set forth herein.

(c) Any Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party may waive the benefits of indemnification under this Section 8.2, but only by an instrument in writing executed by such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party.

(d) The rights to indemnification under this Section 8.2 are not exclusive of other rights which any Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party may otherwise have at law or in equity, including, without limitation, common law rights to indemnification or contribution. Nothing in this Section 8.2 will affect the rights or obligations of any Entity (or the limitations on those rights or obligations) under any other agreement or instrument to which that Entity is a party. Further, the Creditor Recovery Trust hereby agrees: (i) that the Creditor Recovery Trust is the indemnitor of first resort (i.e., in the event any Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party has the right to receive indemnification from one or more third party, the Creditor Recovery Trust's obligations to such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party are primary); (ii) that the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be required to pay the full amount of expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually incurred by such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party in connection with any proceeding as to which the Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification hereunder in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding; (iii) that the Creditor Recovery Trust irrevocably waives, relinquishes and releases such third parties from any and all claims by the Creditor Recovery Trust against such third parties for contribution, subrogation or any other recovery of any kind in respect thereof; and (iv) no Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party shall have the obligation to reduce, offset, allocate, pursue or apportion any indemnification advancement, contribution or insurance coverage among multiple parties owing indemnification obligations to such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party prior to the Creditor Recovery Trust's satisfaction of its indemnification obligations hereunder. For the avoidance of doubt, each Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party shall be entitled, subject to the terms hereof, to indemnification for any costs and attorneys' fees such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party may incur in connection with enforcing any of its rights under this Article VIII.

8.3 Creditor Recovery Trust Liabilities. All liabilities of the Creditor Recovery Trust, including, without limitation, indemnity obligations under Section 8.2 of this Agreement and applicable law, will be liabilities of the Creditor Recovery Trust as an Entity and will be paid or satisfied solely from the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and paid on a priority basis, provided, however, that the Creditor Recovery Trust may obtain liability insurance to satisfy its indemnity obligations under Section 8.2 and applicable law. No liability of the Creditor Recovery Trust will be payable in whole or in part by any Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary individually or in the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary's capacity as a Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary, by the Creditor Recovery Trustee individually or in the Creditor Recovery Trustee's capacity as Creditor Recovery Trustee, or by any representative, member, partner, shareholder, director, officer, professional, employee, agent, affiliate or advisor of any Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary, the Creditor Recovery Trustee or their respective affiliates.

8.4 Limitation of Liability. None of the Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Parties shall be liable for direct, indirect, monetary, punitive, exemplary, consequential, special or other damages for a breach of this Agreement, except to the extent his/her/its actions or omissions to act, as determined by a Final Order, are due to such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party's own fraud or willful misconduct from and after the Effective Date and any of the foregoing damages are awarded pursuant to any such Final Order.

8.5 Burden of Proof. In making a determination with respect to entitlement to exculpation or indemnification hereunder, the court, or Entity making such determination shall presume that any Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party is entitled to exculpation and indemnification under this Agreement and any Entity seeking to overcome such presumption shall have the burden of proof to overcome that presumption.

ARTICLE IX
TAX MATTERS

9.1 Treatment of Creditor Recovery Trust Assets Transfer. The Creditor Recovery Trust (excluding any Disputed Claims Reserves) is intended to be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a liquidating trust described in Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d). For all federal, state and local income tax purposes, all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors, the Contributing Claimants, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries) shall treat the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the benefit of the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, whether their Claims are Allowed on or after the Effective Date, including any amounts or other assets subsequently transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust (but only at such time as actually transferred) as (i) a transfer of their senior interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (subject to any obligations relating to such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets ) directly to the holders of the Crown Capital Unsecured Claims followed by a contribution by the holders of the Crown Capital Unsecured Claims of such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, (ii) a transfer of their junior interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (subject to any obligations relating to such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets) directly to the holders of the CBRM Unsecured Claims followed by a contribution by the holders of the CBRM Unsecured Claims of such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, (iii) a transfer of their junior interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (subject to any obligations relating to such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets) directly to the holders of the RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims followed by a contribution by the holders of the RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims of such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, (iv) a transfer of its junior interest in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (subject to any obligations relating to such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets) directly to the holders of the Spano CBRM Claim followed by a contribution by the holder of the Spano CBRM Claim of such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (v) the contribution to the Creditor Recovery Trust of the claims held by the Contributing Claimants. Accordingly, the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries shall be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as the grantors and owners of their respective share of such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. The foregoing treatment shall also apply, to the extent permitted by applicable law, for state and local income tax purposes.

9.2 Tax Treatment of Disputed Claims Reserves.

(a) Subject to contrary definitive guidance from the Internal Revenue Service or a court of competent jurisdiction (including the receipt by the Creditor Recovery Trustee of a private letter ruling if the Creditor Recovery Trustee so requests, or the receipt of an adverse determination by the Internal Revenue Service upon audit if not contested by the Creditor Recovery Trustee), the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall (A) timely elect to treat any Disputed Claims Reserve as a "disputed ownership fund" governed by Treasury Regulation section 1.468B-9 and (B) to the extent permitted by applicable law, report consistently with the foregoing for state and local income tax purposes. All parties (including, without limitation and as applicable, the Debtors, the Contributing Claimants, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries) shall report for U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes consistently with the foregoing election, if made.

(b) With respect to any Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and any other income or gain of the Creditor Recovery Trust, allocable to Disputed Claims, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall cause the Creditor Recovery Trust to pay out of the applicable Disputed Claims Reserve any taxes imposed on the applicable Disputed Claims Reserve or its Assets by any federal, state or local, or any non-U.S. governmental unit.

9.3 Tax Reporting.

(a) The "taxable year" of the Creditor Recovery Trust and any Disputed Claims Reserve shall be the "calendar year" as such terms are defined in section 441 of the IRC. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall file tax returns for the Creditor Recovery Trust (excluding any Disputed Claims Reserve) treating the Creditor Recovery Trust as a grantor trust pursuant to Treasury Regulation section 1.671-4(a) and in accordance with the Plan and this Section 9.3. The Creditor Recovery Trustee also will annually send to each Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary a separate statement setting forth such Contributing Claimant's share of items of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit (including the receipts and expenditures of the Creditor Recovery Trust) as relevant for U.S. federal income tax purposes and will instruct all such Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries to use such information in preparing their U.S. federal income tax returns; provided, that if the Creditor Recovery Trustee elects to make distributions through an intermediary, it shall provide such statement to such intermediaries for them to provide to such Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall also file or provide (or cause to be filed or provided) any other statement, return or disclosure relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust or any Disputed Claims Reserve that is required by any governmental unit.

(b) Allocations of Creditor Recovery Trust taxable income among the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries shall be determined by reference to the manner in which an amount of Cash equal to such taxable income would be distributed (were such Cash permitted to be distributed at such time, and without regard to any restrictions on distributions set forth in the Plan or this Agreement) if, immediately prior to such deemed distribution, the Creditor Recovery Trust had distributed all its assets (valued at their tax book value) to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, adjusted for prior taxable income and loss and taking into account all prior and concurrent distributions from the Creditor Recovery Trust. Similarly, taxable loss of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be allocated by reference to the manner in which an economic loss would be borne immediately after a hypothetical liquidating distribution of the remaining Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. The tax book value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets for purposes of this Section 9.3(b) shall equal their fair market value on the Effective Date, adjusted in accordance with tax accounting principles prescribed by the IRC, the applicable Treasury Regulations and other applicable administrative and judicial authorities and pronouncements. This Section 9.3(b) shall exclude any amounts of income or loss, and any Assets of, a Disputed Claims Reserve. In the event, and to the extent, any Cash retained on account of Disputed Claims in the Disputed Claims Reserve is insufficient to pay the portion of any such taxes attributable to the taxable income arising from the assets allocable to, or retained on account of, Disputed Claims, such taxes shall be (i) reimbursed from any subsequent Cash amounts retained on account of such Disputed Claims, or (ii) to the extent such Disputed Claims have subsequently been resolved, deducted from any amounts otherwise distributable by the Creditor Recovery Trustee as a result of the resolution of such Disputed Claims.

(c) The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be responsible for payment, out of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, of any taxes imposed on the Creditor Recovery Trust or the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, excluding the Disputed Claims Reserves.

9.4 Withholding of Taxes. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall deduct and withhold and pay to the appropriate governmental unit all amounts required to be deducted or withheld pursuant to the IRC or any provision of any state, local or non-U.S. tax law with respect to any payment or distribution to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries. Notwithstanding the above, each holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim that is to receive a distribution under the Plan shall have the sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment of any taxes imposed on such holder by any governmental authority, including income, withholding and other tax obligations, on account of such distribution. All such amounts withheld and paid to the appropriate governmental unit shall be treated as amounts distributed to such Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries for all purposes of this Agreement.

(a) The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be authorized to collect such tax information from the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries (including, without limitation, social security numbers or other tax identification numbers) as it, in its sole discretion, deems necessary to effectuate the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement. As a condition to receive distributions under the Plan, all Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries may be required to identify themselves to the Creditor Recovery Trustee and provide tax information and the specifics of their holdings, to the extent the Creditor Recovery Trustee deems appropriate, including an IRS Form W-9 or, in the case of Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries that are not United States persons for federal income tax purposes, certification of foreign status on an applicable IRS Form W-8.

(b) The Creditor Recovery Trustee may refuse to make a distribution to any Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary that fails to furnish such information in a timely fashion, until such information is delivered; provided, however, that, upon the delivery of such information by a Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall make such distribution to which the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary is entitled, without interest; and, provided, further, that, if the Creditor Recovery Trustee fails to withhold in respect of amounts received or distributable with respect to any such holder and the Creditor Recovery Trustee is later held liable for the amount of such withholding, such holder shall reimburse the Creditor Recovery Trustee for such liability. The identification requirements in Section 9.4(a) and this Section 9.4(b) may, in certain cases, extend to holders who hold their securities in street name. If a Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary fails to comply with such a request for tax information within 180 days, such distribution shall be deemed an unclaimed distribution and treated in accordance with Section 6.4(b) of this Agreement.

(c) In the event that the Creditor Recovery Trustee elects to make distributions through an intermediary, the party who would be the withholding agent with respect to distributions to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary under U.S. federal income tax principles shall be responsible for withholding tax compliance with respect to any such distribution, based on instructions on the character of the income from the Creditor Recovery Trustee.

9.5 Valuation. As soon as reasonably practicable following the establishment of the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall determine the value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, based on the good-faith determination of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall apprise, in writing, the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries and counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes of such valuation. The valuation shall be used consistently by all Parties (including the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries) for all federal income tax purposes. In connection with the preparation of the valuation contemplated hereby and by the Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be entitled to retain such Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals as the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall determine to be appropriate or necessary in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall take such other actions in connection therewith as it determines to be appropriate or necessary. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall bear all of the reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with determining such value, including the fees and expenses of any Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals retained in connection therewith.

9.6 Expedited Determination of Taxes. The Creditor Recovery Trustee may request an expedited determination of taxes of the Creditor Recovery Trust or any Disputed Claims Reserve under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all returns filed for, or on behalf of, the Creditor Recovery Trust or any Disputed Claims Reserve for all taxable periods through the termination of the Creditor Recovery Trust or any Disputed Claims Reserve.

9.7 Foreign Tax Matters. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall duly comply on a timely basis with all obligations, and satisfy all liabilities, imposed on the Creditor Recovery Trustee or the Creditor Recovery Trust or any Disputed Claims Reserve under non-United States law relating to taxes. The Creditor Recovery Trustee, or any other legal representative of the Creditor Recovery Trust, shall not distribute the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets or proceeds thereof without having first obtained all certificates required to have been obtained under applicable non-United States law relating to taxes.

ARTICLE X
TERMINATION OF CREDITOR RECOVERY TRUST

10.1 Termination. The Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be discharged or dissolved, as the case may be, at such time as (a) the Creditor Recovery Trustee has liquidated or abandoned all Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, (b) the Creditor Recovery Trustee determines that the pursuit of Trust Causes of Action is not likely to yield sufficient additional proceeds to justify further pursuit of such Trust Causes of Action, (c) all objections to the Disputed Claims have been resolved, and (d) all Distributions required to be made by the Creditor Recovery Trust under the Plan have been made; provided, however, that in no event shall the Creditor Recovery Trust be dissolved later than five years from the Effective Date unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion within the six-month period prior to the fifth anniversary (or within the six-month period prior to the end of any extension period), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed three years, including any prior extensions, without a favorable private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or a "should" level opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Creditor Recovery Trustee that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of the Creditor Recovery Trust as a liquidating trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the liquidating purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets; provided, further, however, that if the Chapter 11 Cases have been closed or dismissed before the date that is five years from the Effective Date, then no Bankruptcy Court approval shall be required and the only requirement for an extension is a private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Creditor Recovery Trustee that the extension of the Creditor Recovery Trust term will not change the treatment of the Creditor Recovery Trust as a liquidating trust for income tax purposes. If at any time the Creditor Recovery Trustee determines, in reliance upon the advice of the Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals (or any one or more of them), that the expense of administering the Creditor Recovery Trust so as to make a final distribution to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries is likely to exceed the value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets then remaining in the Creditor Recovery Trust and provided that clause (d) above has been satisfied, the Creditor Recovery Trustee may apply to the Bankruptcy Court for authority to (i) reserve any amount necessary to dissolve the Creditor Recovery Trust,

(ii) donate any balance to a charitable organization (A) described in section 501(c)(3) of the IRC, (B) exempt from U.S. federal income tax under section 501(a) of the IRC, (C) not a "private foundation," as defined in section 509(a) of the IRC and (D) that is unrelated to the Debtors, the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, any Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals and any insider of any of the foregoing and (iii) dissolve the Creditor Recovery Trust (all of the foregoing actions in clauses (i) through (iii) being referred to as the "Dissolution Process"). Such date upon which the Creditor Recovery Trust shall finally be dissolved shall be referred to herein as the "Termination Date."

10.2 Continuance of Creditor Recovery Trust for Winding Up. During the Dissolution Process, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, solely for the purpose of liquidating and winding up the affairs of the Creditor Recovery Trust, shall continue to act as such until its duties have been fully performed. During the Dissolution Process, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall continue to be entitled to receive the Creditor Recovery Trustee Fees called for by Section 7.2(a) hereof and subject to Section 2.4 hereof. Upon distribution of all the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall retain the books, records and files that shall have been delivered or created in connection with the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust to the extent not otherwise required to be handled by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in accordance with Section 2.2 hereof. At the Creditor Recovery Trustee's discretion, but subject in all cases to Section 2.2 hereof, all of such records and documents may be destroyed no earlier than two (2) years following the Termination Date as the Creditor Recovery Trustee deems appropriate (unless such records and documents are necessary to fulfill the Creditor Recovery Trustee's obligations hereunder). Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, upon the Termination Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be deemed discharged and have no further duties or obligations hereunder, except to account to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries as provided herein, and the Creditor Recovery Trust will be deemed to have dissolved.

ARTICLE XI
AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

11.1 Subject to Sections 11.2 and 11.3 of this Agreement, the Creditor Recovery Trustee may amend, supplement or waive any provision of this Agreement. Technical amendments to this Agreement may be made, as necessary to clarify this Agreement or enable the Creditor Recovery Trustee to effectuate the terms of this Agreement, by the Creditor Recovery Trustee.

11.2 Notwithstanding Section 11.1 of this Agreement, no amendment, supplement or waiver of or to this Agreement shall (a) adversely affect the interests, rights or treatment of the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, (b) adversely affect the payments and/or distributions to be made under the Plan, the Confirmation Order or this Agreement, (c) amend Section 7.2(b) hereof, (d) be inconsistent with the Plan or the Confirmation Order, (e) adversely affect the U.S. federal income tax status of the Creditor Recovery Trust as a "liquidating trust" or (f) be inconsistent with the purpose and intention of the Creditor Recovery Trust to liquidate in an expeditious but orderly manner the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets in accordance with Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d).

11.3 No failure by the Creditor Recovery Trust or the Creditor Recovery Trustee to exercise or delay in exercising any right, power, or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power, or privilege hereunder preclude any further exercise thereof, or of any other right, power, or privilege.

ARTICLE XII
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

12.1 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey (without reference to principles of conflicts of law that would require or permit application of the law of another jurisdiction).

12.2 Jurisdiction. Subject to the proviso below and so long as the Chapter 11 Cases have not been closed or dismissed, the Parties agree that the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction over the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trustee, including, without limitation, the administration and activities of the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trustee to the fullest extent permitted by law; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have power and authority to bring any action in any court of competent jurisdiction to (1) prosecute any of the Trust Causes of Action and pursue any recoveries in respect of any Trust Causes of Action, (2) liquidate, administer or protect any of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and (3) enforce this Agreement against any entity that is not a party to this Agreement and is not subject to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court. Each Party to this Agreement hereby irrevocably consents to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court in any action to enforce, interpret or construe any provision of this Agreement or of any other agreement or document delivered in connection with this Agreement, and also hereby irrevocably waives any defense of improper venue, forum non conveniens, or lack of personal jurisdiction to any such action brought in the Bankruptcy Court. Each Party hereby irrevocably consents to the service by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, of any process in any action to enforce, interpret, or construe any provision of this Agreement.

12.3 Severability. In the event any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall be determined by Final Order to be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances or in jurisdictions other than those as to or in which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

(a) The Debtors and the Creditor Recovery Trustee, pursuant to the Plan and the Confirmation Order and in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, hereby establish a trust on behalf of the holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, the holders of RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims, the holders of CBRM Unsecured Claims, the holder of the Spano CBRM Claim, and the Contributing Claimants (the "Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries"), which shall be known as the "CBRM Creditor Recovery Trust," on the terms set forth herein. (c) The Creditor Recovery Trustee agrees to accept and hold the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (excluding any Assets in a Disputed Claims Reserve), as defined in the Plan, in trust for the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement.

(g) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, any action by the Creditor Recovery Trustee that affects the interests of more than one Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary shall be binding and conclusive on all Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries even if such Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries have different or conflicting interests.

2.2 Transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

(a) Pursuant to the Plan, and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, as of the Effective Date, the Debtors and the Contributing Claimants (as defined in the Plan) hereby irrevocably transfer, assign and deliver, and (except as provided for federal, state and local income tax purposes in Sections 2.6 and 9.1 hereof) shall be deemed to have transferred, assigned and delivered, to the Creditor Recovery Trust, without recourse, all of their respective rights, title and interest in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (excluding any Assets in a Disputed Claims Reserve), free and clear of all Liens, Claims, encumbrances and interests (legal, beneficial or otherwise) for the benefit of the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, including, without limitation, all attorney-client privileges, work-product privileges, accountant-client privileges and any other evidentiary privileges or immunity in respect of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets that, prior to the Effective Date, belonged to the Debtors pursuant to applicable federal, state and other law, which shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, in trust, and, consistent with sections 1123(a)(5)(B) and 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, for the sole benefit of the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries; provided, however, that the Debtors and the Contributing Claimants shall not be deemed to have transferred any documents, information or privileges related to any claims or causes of action that are released under the Plan; provided further, that the foregoing proviso shall not prevent the transfer of any documents, information or privileges to the extent that any such documents, information or privileges also relate to Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. Other than as set forth herein, the Debtors and the Contributing Claimants shall have no claim to, right, or interest in, whether direct, residual, contingent or otherwise, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets once such assets have been transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

(b) The Debtors, the Contributing Claimants, and any party under their control shall reasonably cooperate with the Creditor Recovery Trustee in the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust, including by providing reasonable access to the Creditor Recovery Trustee and its advisors to all records, documents, information, and work product (including all electronic records, documents, information, and work product) relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the extent that the Creditor Recovery Trustee determines such records, documents, information, and work product (including all electronic records, documents, information, and work product) are necessary to (i) prosecute, investigate, sell, transfer, or convey any of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, (ii) benefit from any relevant privileges, or (iii) otherwise perform its duties under and in accordance with the Plan and this Agreement, in each case, that are in the possession or control of any such parties, copies of which shall be provided to the Creditor Recovery Trust and its advisors, all in compliance with applicable law.

(c) The Debtors, the Contributing Claimants, and any party under their control shall: (i) execute and/or deliver any instruments, documents, books, and records (including those maintained in electronic format and original documents as may be needed), and (ii) take, or cause to be taken, such further actions, in each case, that are reasonably necessary to evidence or effectuate the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (including the Trust Causes of Action) to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

(d) To the extent reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trustee, the Debtors and the Contributing Claimants shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the professionals retained by such parties during the Chapter 11 Cases (the "Pre-Trust Professionals") to, subject to any applicable professional rules of responsibility or any non-transferred Privileges (as defined below), use commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Creditor Recovery Trustee in the investigation and prosecution of the Trust Causes of Action and the sale, transfer, or conveyance of any of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, including, without limitation, by providing access to the Pre-Trust Professionals.

(e) All of the proceeds received by the Creditor Recovery Trust from the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets shall be added to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and held as a part thereof (and title thereto shall be vested in the Creditor Recovery Trust).

(f) For all federal, state and local income tax purposes, all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors, the Contributing Claimants, the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries) shall treat the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with Section 9.1 hereof.

(g) Such transfers pursuant to the Plan shall be exempt from any stamp, real estate transfer, mortgage reporting, sales, use or other similar tax, pursuant to and to the extent permitted under section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(h) Any direct or indirect transferee of interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be bound by this Agreement.

2.3 Privileges.

(a) All attorney-client privileges, work product protections and other privileges, immunities or protections from disclosure (the "Privileges") held by any one or more of the Debtors or the Contributing Claimants (including any pre-petition or post-petition committee or subcommittee of the board of directors or equivalent governing body of any of the Debtors and their predecessors) (the "Privilege Transfer Parties") related in any way to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust (the "Transferred Privileged Information") are hereby transferred and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Transferred Privileged Information shall include documents and information of all manner, whether oral, written, or digital, and whether or not previously disclosed or discussed. For the avoidance of doubt, the Privileges shall include any right to preserve or enforce a Privilege that arises from any joint defense, common interest, or similar agreement involving any of the Privilege Transfer Parties.

(b) The foregoing transfer and assignment shall vest the Privileges concerning the Transferred Privileged Information exclusively in the Creditor Recovery Trust, consistent with sections 1123(a)(5)(B) and 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, for the sole benefit of the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall have the exclusive authority and sole discretion to maintain the Privileges and keep the Transferred Privileged Information confidential, or waive any Privileges and/or disclose and/or use in litigation or any proceeding any or all of the Transferred Privileged Information.

(c) The Privilege Transfer Parties agree to take all necessary actions to effectuate the transfer of such Privileges, and to provide to the Creditor Recovery Trust without the necessity of a subpoena all Transferred Privileged Information in their respective possession, custody, or control reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust is further expressly authorized to formally or informally request or subpoena documents, testimony or other information that would constitute Transferred Privileged Information from any persons, including attorneys, professionals, consultants and experts that may possess Transferred Privileged Information, and no such person may object to the production to the Creditor Recovery Trust of such Transferred Privileged Information on the basis of a Privilege held by a Privilege Transfer Party. Until and unless the Creditor Recovery Trust makes a determination in its sole discretion to waive any Privilege, Transferred Privileged Information shall be produced solely to the Creditor Recovery Trust or as required by law. For the avoidance of doubt, this Subsection is subject in all respects to Section 2.3(a) of this Agreement.

(d) Pursuant to, inter alia, Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d), no Privileges shall be waived by the transfer and assignment of the Privileges or the production of any Transferred Privileged Information to the Creditor Recovery Trust or any of its respective employees, professionals or representatives, or by disclosure of such Transferred Privileged Information between the Privilege Transfer Parties, on the one hand, and the Creditor Recovery Trust, on the other hand, or any of their respective employees, professionals or representatives.

(e) If a Privilege Transfer Party, the Creditor Recovery Trust, any of their respective employees, professionals or representatives or any other person inadvertently produces or discloses Transferred Privileged Information to any third party, such production shall not be deemed to destroy any of the Privileges, or be deemed a waiver of any confidentiality protections afforded to such Transferred Privileged Information. In such circumstances, the disclosing party shall, promptly upon discovery of the production, notify the Creditor Recovery Trust of the production and shall demand of all recipients of the inadvertently disclosed Transferred Privileged Information that they return or confirm the destruction of such materials.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 2.3, for the avoidance of doubt, no Privilege or Transferred Privileged Information related to any claims or causes of action that have been released under the Plan shall be deemed to have been transferred or assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust, provided however, that the foregoing shall not prevent the transfer of any Privilege or Transferred Privileged Information to the extent that such Privilege or Transferred Privileged Information also relates to Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

2.4 Payment of Fees and Expenses. The Creditor Recovery Trust may incur any reasonable and necessary expenses in connection with the performance of its obligations under the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement, including reasonable and necessary fees and expenses incurred to monetize the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and pursue the Trust Causes of Action and in connection with retaining professionals, consultants and advisors to aid it in fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement, the Confirmation Order, and the Plan ("Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals"). All such expenses shall be paid from the Creditor Recovery Trust, and solely be the obligation of, the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries shall have no obligation to provide any funding with respect to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

2.5 Title to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. The transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (excluding any Assets in a Disputed Claims Reserve) to the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to Section 2.2 hereof is being made for the sole benefit, and on behalf, of the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries. Upon the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall succeed to all of the Debtors', the Estates', the Contributing Claimants', and the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries' rights, title and interest in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and, other than as expressly set forth hereunder, no other Entity shall have any interest, legal, beneficial or otherwise (including any claim, lien, or encumbrance), in the Creditor Recovery Trust or the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets upon the assignment and transfer of such assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust; provided that the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall use Cash from the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to satisfy Allowed Professional Compensation Claims, fees of the Independent Fiduciary, and fees of the Ad Hoc Group of Crown Capital Noteholders in accordance with Article II.A of the Plan.

2.6 Nature and Purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

(a) Purpose. The Creditor Recovery Trust is organized and established as a "grantor" trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes, pursuant to sections 671 through 679 of the Internal Revenue Code (excluding any Disputed Claims Reserve) for the purpose of (i) prosecuting all Trust Causes of Action, monetizing the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (the "Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds"), and distributing the Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds, in each case, in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement and (ii) liquidating and administering the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets in accordance with Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or any other business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the liquidating purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust, and without effect to its status as a "liquidating trust" for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Creditor Recovery Trustee will make continuing efforts to resolve the Trust Causes of Action, dispose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, make timely distributions and not unduly prolong the duration of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

(b) Relationship. This Agreement is intended to create a trust and a trust relationship and to be governed and construed in all respects as a trust. Subject to Section 4.10(u), the Creditor Recovery Trust is not intended to be, and shall not be deemed to be, or be treated as, a general partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, corporation, joint stock company or association, nor shall the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries for any purpose be, or be deemed to be or treated in any way whatsoever to be, liable or responsible hereunder as partners or joint venturers. The relationship of the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, on the one hand, to the Creditor Recovery Trustee, on the other hand, shall be solely that of a beneficiary of a trust and shall not be deemed a principal and agency relationship, and their rights shall be limited to those conferred upon them by the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a final determination under section 1313(a) of the IRC that the Creditor Recovery Trust (excluding any Disputed Claims Reserves) does not qualify as a grantor trust, the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries and the Creditor Recovery Trustee intend that the Creditor Recovery Trust (excluding any Disputed Claims Reserves) be treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes and will take all actions reasonably necessary to cause the Creditor Recovery Trust (excluding any Disputed Claims Reserves) to be treated as such.

(c) No Waiver of Claims. In accordance with section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code and subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trustee may enforce all rights to commence and pursue, as appropriate, any and all Causes of Action contributed, whether by the Debtors or the Contributing Claimants, to the Creditor Recovery Trust (the "Trust Causes of Action"). No Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee will not pursue any and all Trust Causes of Action against such Entity. The Creditor Recovery Trustee expressly reserves all Trust Causes of Action for later adjudication, resolution, abandonment, settlement, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise) or laches, shall apply to such Trust Causes of Action upon, after or as a consequence of the Confirmation Order.

2.7 Appointment as Representative. Pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be the duly appointed representative of the Estates for certain limited purposes and, as such, to the extent provided herein, the Creditor Recovery Trustee succeeds to the rights and powers of a trustee in bankruptcy solely with respect to prosecution, resolution and settlement of the Trust Causes of Action and the Disputed Claims. Nothing in this Agreement or the Plan requires the Creditor Recovery Trustee to render any services or incur any costs with respect to any Debtor without adequate funding, as determined by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in its reasonable discretion. To the extent that any of the Trust Causes of Action cannot be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust because of a restriction on transferability under applicable non-bankruptcy law that is not superseded or preempted by section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code or any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code, such Trust Causes of Action and rights shall be deemed to have been retained by the Debtors or the Contributing Claimant (other than for tax purposes), as applicable, and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be deemed to have been designated as a representative of the Debtors to the extent provided herein pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code solely to enforce and pursue such Trust Causes of Action on behalf of the Debtors or any Contributing Claimant, as applicable, for the benefit of the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries. Notwithstanding the foregoing, all Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds (excluding any Assets in a Disputed Claims Reserve) shall be distributed to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries consistent with the provisions of the Plan, Confirmation Order, and this Agreement, including Section 6.2; provided that the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall use Cash from the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to satisfy Allowed Professional Compensation Claims, fees of the Independent Fiduciary, and fees of the Ad Hoc Group of Crown Capital Noteholders in accordance with Article II.A of the Plan. For the avoidance of doubt, any of the Trust Causes of Action subject to this Section 2.7 shall be treated by the Parties for U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes as transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust as described in Section 2.2(f) herein.

ARTICLE III
CREDITOR RECOVERY TRUST INTERESTS

3.1 Creditor Recovery Trust Distributions. The Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries shall be entitled to distributions from the Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds (excluding any Assets in a Disputed Claims Reserve) in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement, including Section 6.2.

3.2 Interests Beneficial Only. The Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries shall not be entitled to any title in or to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets as such (which title shall be vested in the Creditor Recovery Trust) or to any right to call for a partition or division of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets or to require an accounting.

The death, incapacity or bankruptcy of any Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary during the term of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not (i) operate to terminate the Creditor Recovery Trust, (ii) entitle the representatives or creditors of the deceased, incapacitated or bankrupt party to an accounting, (iii) entitle the representatives or creditors of the deceased, incapacitated or bankrupt party to take any action in the Bankruptcy Court or elsewhere for the distribution of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets or for a partition thereof, or (iv) otherwise affect the rights and obligations of any of the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries under this Agreement.

3.4 Change of Address. Any Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries may, after the Effective Date, select an alternative distribution address by providing notice to the Creditor Recovery Trustee identifying such alternative distribution address. Such notification shall be effective only upon receipt by the Creditor Recovery Trustee. Absent actual receipt of such notice by the Creditor Recovery Trustee, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall not recognize any such change of distribution address.

3.5 Standing. No Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary shall have standing to direct the Creditor Recovery Trustee, subject to the provisions of Article V, to do or not to do any act or to institute any action or proceeding at law or in equity against any party upon or with respect to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

ARTICLE IV
RIGHTS, POWERS AND DUTIES OF CREDITOR RECOVERY TRUSTEE

4.1 Role of the Creditor Recovery Trustee. In furtherance of and consistent with the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Plan, subject to the terms and conditions contained in the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall, in accordance with Article V herein, (i) receive, manage, supervise and protect the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets upon the receipt of same by the Creditor Recovery Trust on behalf of and for the benefit of the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries; (ii) investigate, analyze, prosecute and, if necessary and appropriate, settle and compromise the Trust Causes of Action; (iii) prepare and file all required tax returns and pay all taxes and all other obligations of the Creditor Recovery Trust; (iv) liquidate and convert the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to Cash and make distributions to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries in accordance with Articles V and VI herein; and (v) have all such other responsibilities as may be vested in the Creditor Recovery Trustee pursuant to the Plan, the Confirmation Order, this Agreement, and all other applicable orders of the Bankruptcy Court. All decisions and duties with respect to the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to be made and fulfilled, respectively, by the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be carried out in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, this Agreement (including the provisions of Article V) and all other applicable orders of the Bankruptcy Court. In all circumstances, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall act in the best interests of all Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries and in furtherance of the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to prosecute, settle or otherwise resolve the Trust Causes of Action and to make timely distributions of any Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds realized therefrom and to otherwise monetize the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and not unreasonably prolong the duration of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

4.2 Power to Contract. In furtherance of the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust, and except as otherwise specifically restricted in the Plan, Confirmation Order, or this Agreement (including the provisions of Article V), the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right and power on behalf of the Creditor Recovery Trust, and also may cause the Creditor Recovery Trust, to enter into any covenants or agreements binding the Creditor Recovery Trust, and to execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all instruments that are necessary or deemed by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to be consistent with and advisable in furthering the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

4.3 Ultimate Right to Act Based on Advice of Counsel or Other Professionals. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to prevent the Creditor Recovery Trustee from taking or refraining to take any action on behalf of the Creditor Recovery Trust that, based upon the advice of counsel or other professionals, the Creditor Recovery Trustee determines in good faith that it is obligated to take or to refrain from taking in the performance of any duty that the Creditor Recovery Trustee may owe the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries or any other Entity pursuant to the Plan, Confirmation Order, or this Agreement.

4.4 Authority to Prosecute and Settle Trust Causes of Action.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, including Article V herein, the Plan, and the Confirmation Order, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall prosecute, pursue, compromise, settle, or abandon any and all Trust Causes of Action that have not already been resolved as of the Effective Date. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the absolute right to pursue, not pursue, release, abandon, and/or settle any and all Trust Causes of Action (including any counterclaims asserted against the Creditor Recovery Trust) as it determines in the best interests of the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, and consistent with the purposes of the Creditor Recovery Trust, and shall have no liability for the outcome of its decision.

(b) To the extent that any action has been taken to prosecute or otherwise resolve any Trust Causes of Action prior to the Effective Date by the Debtors or any Contributing Claimant, on the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be substituted for the Debtors or the Contributing Claimants, as the case may be, in connection therewith in accordance with Rule 25 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, made applicable to the Creditor Recovery Trust by Bankruptcy Rule 7025, and the caption with respect to such pending litigation shall be changed to the following, at the option of the Creditor Recovery Trust: "[Name of Trustee], as Trustee for the CBRM Creditor Recovery Trust v. [Defendant]" or "CBRM Creditor Recovery Trust v. [Defendant]." Without limiting the foregoing, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall take any and all actions necessary or prudent to intervene as plaintiff, movant or additional party, as appropriate, with respect to any applicable Cause of Action. For purposes of exercising its powers, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be deemed to be a representative of the Estates pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(c) Subject to Section 4.4(a), any determinations by the Creditor Recovery Trustee, with regard to the amount or timing of settlement or other disposition of any Trust Causes of Action settled in accordance with the terms of this Agreement shall be conclusive and binding on the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries and all other parties in interest following the entry of an order of a court of competent jurisdiction (including, as relevant, a Final Order issued by the Bankruptcy Court) approving such settlement or other disposition, to the extent any such order is required to be obtained to enforce any such determinations.

4.5 Liquidation of Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. The Creditor Recovery Trustee, in the exercise of its reasonable business judgment, shall, in an expeditious but orderly manner and subject to the other provisions of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement (including Section 2.2 and the provisions of Article V), liquidate and convert to Cash the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, make timely distributions in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement (including Section 6.2), and not unduly prolong the existence of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall exercise reasonable business judgment and liquidate the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to maximize net recoveries to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, provided, however, that the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be entitled to take into consideration the risks, timing, and costs of potential actions in making determinations as to the methodologies to be employed to maximize such recoveries. Such liquidations may be accomplished through the prosecution, compromise and settlement, abandonment or dismissal of any or all of the Trust Causes of Action or otherwise or through the sale or other disposition of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (in whole or in combination). The Creditor Recovery Trustee may incur any reasonable and necessary expenses in connection with the liquidation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and distribution of the Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds subject to the provisions of the Plan and the Confirmation Order.

4.6 Distributions. Subject to Sections 4.8, 4.10, and 4.11 hereof, and the provisions of this Section 4.6, any non-Cash property of the Creditor Recovery Trust may be sold, transferred, abandoned or otherwise disposed of by the Creditor Recovery Trustee. Notice of such sale, transfer, abandonment or disposition shall be provided to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries pursuant to the reporting obligations provided in Section 4.13 of this Agreement. If, in the Creditor Recovery Trustee's reasonable judgment, such property cannot be sold in a commercially reasonable manner, or the Creditor Recovery Trustee believes, in good faith, such property has no value to the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to abandon or otherwise dispose of such property. Except in the case of fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence, no party in interest shall have a Cause of Action against the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or any of their directors, officers, employees, consultants, or professionals arising from or related to the disposition of non-Cash property in accordance with this Section 4.6.

4.7 Retention of Counsel and Other Professionals. The Creditor Recovery Trust may, but shall not be required to, retain such Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals as the Creditor Recovery Trustee deems necessary to aid it in fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement, the Confirmation Order, and the Plan, and on whatever reasonable and/or customary fee arrangements the Creditor Recovery Trustee deems appropriate, including contingency fee arrangements, but without application to or order of the Bankruptcy Court. The Creditor Recovery Trustee may pay the reasonable salaries, fees and expenses of such Entities in the ordinary course of business and neither the Creditor Recovery Trustee nor any Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary shall have any liability or obligation for any fees or expenses of any such professional. For the avoidance of doubt, prior employment in any capacity in the Debtors' bankruptcy cases on behalf of the Debtors, their estates, the Ad Hoc Group of Crown Capital Noteholders, any committee appointed under Bankruptcy Code Section 1102, or any creditors shall not preclude the Creditor Recovery Trust's retention of such professionals, consultants, or other persons.

4.8 Management of Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order or this Agreement, and subject to Treasury Regulations governing Creditor Recovery Trusts and the retained jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court as provided for in the Plan, but without prior or further authorization, the Creditor Recovery Trustee may, to the extent provided in this Agreement, control and exercise authority over the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, over the management and disposition thereof, and over the management and conduct of the Creditor

Recovery Trust, in each case, as necessary or advisable to enable the Creditor Recovery Trustee to fulfill the intents and purposes of this Agreement. No Entity dealing with the Creditor Recovery Trust will be obligated to inquire into the authority of the Creditor Recovery Trustee in connection with the acquisition, management or disposition of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

(b) In connection with the management and use of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and except as otherwise expressly limited in the Plan, the Confirmation Order or this Agreement, the Creditor Recovery Trust will have, in addition to any powers conferred upon the Creditor Recovery Trust by any other provision of this Agreement, the power to take any and all actions as, in the Creditor Recovery Trustee's reasonable discretion, are necessary or advisable to effectuate the primary purposes of the Creditor Recovery Trust, as set forth herein, including, without limitation, the power and authority to (i) pay taxes and other obligations owed by the Creditor Recovery Trust or incurred by the Creditor Recovery Trustee; (ii) engage and compensate the Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals to assist the Creditor Recovery Trustee with respect to their respective responsibilities; (iii) object to, compromise, and settle Disputed Claims, subject to Bankruptcy Court approval, if applicable; (iv) commence and/or pursue any and all actions involving the Trust Causes of Action that could arise or be asserted at any time, unless otherwise limited, waived, released, compromised, settled, or relinquished in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or this Agreement; and (v) perform its obligations under the Plan, this Agreement, and applicable orders of the Bankruptcy Court (including, as applicable, the Confirmation Order).

4.9 Investment of Cash. The right and power of the Creditor Recovery Trustee to invest the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, the proceeds thereof, or any income earned by the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be limited to the right and power to invest such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets only in Cash and U.S. Government securities as defined in section 2(a)(16) of the Investment Company Act; provided, however, that (a) the scope of any such permissible investments shall be further limited to include only those investments that a liquidating trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 301.7701-4(d), may be permitted to hold, pursuant to the Treasury Regulations, Revenue Procedures, or any modification in the Internal Revenue Service guidelines, whether set forth in Internal Revenue Service rulings, other Internal Revenue Service pronouncements, or otherwise, (b) the Creditor Recovery Trustee may retain any Creditor Recovery Trust Assets received that are not Cash only for so long as may be required for the prompt and orderly liquidation of such assets, and (c) the Creditor Recovery Trustee may expend the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (i) as reasonably necessary to meet contingent liabilities and maintain the value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets during liquidation, (ii) to pay reasonable and documented administrative expenses (including, but not limited to, any taxes imposed on the Creditor Recovery Trust or reasonable fees and expenses in connection with liquidating the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets), subject in all cases to Section 2.4 of this Agreement, and (iii) to satisfy other liabilities incurred or assumed by the Creditor Recovery Trust (or to which the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets are otherwise subject), in each case in accordance with the Plan and this Agreement.

4.10 Additional Powers of the Creditor Recovery Trustee. In addition to any and all of the powers enumerated above, and except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order or this Agreement, and subject to the Treasury Regulations governing Creditor Recovery

Trusts and the retained jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court as provided for in the Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as provided in this Agreement, shall be empowered to:

(a) except to the extent Disputed Claims have been previously Allowed, control and effectuate the Disputed Claims reconciliation process, including to object to, seek to subordinate, compromise or settle any and all Disputed Claims;

(b) make Distributions to Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries as set forth in, and implement the wind-down pursuant to, the Plan;

(e) protect and enforce the rights of the Creditor Recovery Trust in and to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets by any method deemed reasonably appropriate including, without limitation, by judicial proceedings or pursuant to any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, or similar law (whether foreign or domestic) and general principles of equity;

(f) determine and satisfy any and all liabilities created, incurred or assumed by the Creditor Recovery Trust;

(j) (i) receive, manage, invest, supervise, protect, and liquidate the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, withdraw and make distributions from and pay taxes and other obligations owed by the Creditor Recovery Trust from funds held by the Creditor Recovery Trustee and/or the Creditor Recovery Trust in the Creditor Recovery Trust Account and (ii) withdraw and make distributions from and pay taxes and other obligations owed in respect of any Disputed Claims or any Disputed Claims Reserve from the applicable Disputed Claims Reserve in accordance with the Plan, as long as such actions are consistent with the Creditor

Recovery Trust's status as a liquidating trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d) and are merely incidental to its liquidation and dissolution;

(k) prepare, or have prepared, and file, if necessary, with the appropriate Governmental Unit any and all tax returns, information returns, and other required documents with respect to the Creditor Recovery Trust or any Disputed Claims Reserve (including, without limitation, U.S. federal, state, local or foreign tax or information returns required to be filed by the Creditor Recovery Trust or any Disputed Claims Reserve), cause all taxes payable by the Creditor Recovery Trust or any Disputed Claims Reserve to be paid exclusively out of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets or any Disputed Claims Reserve, as applicable, make all tax withholdings, and file and prosecute tax refund claims on behalf of the Creditor Recovery Trust or any Disputed Claims Reserve;

(m) make tax elections by and on behalf of the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Disputed Claims Reserves, which are deemed by the Creditor Recovery Trustee, either independently or with the advice of Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals, to be in the best interest of maximizing the liquidation value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets;

(n) investigate, analyze, compromise, adjust, arbitrate, mediate, sue on or defend, pursue, prosecute, abandon, dismiss, exercise rights, powers and privileges with respect to or otherwise deal with and settle, in accordance with the terms set forth in this Agreement, the Trust Causes of Action;

(p) retain and reasonably compensate for services rendered and expenses incurred by Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals to perform such reviews and/or audits of the financial books and records of the Creditor Recovery Trust as may be appropriate in the Creditor Recovery Trustee's reasonable discretion and to prepare and file any tax returns or informational returns for the Creditor Recovery Trust as may be required;

(q) take or refrain from taking any and all actions the Creditor Recovery Trustee reasonably deems necessary for the continuation, protection, and maximization of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets consistent with the purposes hereof; provided that the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall use Cash from the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to satisfy Allowed Professional Compensation Claims, fees of the Independent Fiduciary, and fees of the Ad Hoc Group of Crown Capital Noteholders in accordance with Article II.A of the Plan;

(r) take all steps and execute all instruments and documents the Creditor Recovery Trustee reasonably deems necessary to effectuate the Creditor Recovery Trust;

(s) liquidate any remaining Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and provide for the distributions therefrom in accordance with the provisions of the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement;

(t) take all actions the Creditor Recovery Trustee reasonably deems necessary to comply with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement (including all obligations thereunder);

(u) in the event that the Creditor Recovery Trust shall fail or cease to qualify as a liquidating trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), take any and all necessary actions as it shall reasonably deem appropriate to have such assets treated as held by an entity classified as a partnership for federal, state, and local tax purposes; and

(v) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Creditor Recovery Trustee pursuant to the Plan, the Confirmation Order, this Agreement, any order of the Bankruptcy Court or as otherwise determined by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to be reasonably necessary and proper to carry out the obligations of the Creditor Recovery Trustee in relation to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

4.11 Limitations on Power and Authority of the Creditor Recovery Trustee. The Creditor Recovery Trustee will not have the authority to do any of the following:

(a) take any action in contravention of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or this Agreement (including the provisions of Article V);

(b) take any action that would make it impossible to carry on the activities of the Creditor Recovery Trust;

(c) possess property of the Creditor Recovery Trust or assign the Creditor Recovery Trust's rights in specific property for any purpose other than as provided herein;

(d) cause or permit the Creditor Recovery Trust to engage in any trade or business or utilize or dispose of any part of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets or the proceeds, revenue or income therefrom in furtherance of any trade of business;

(e) dissolve the Creditor Recovery Trust other than in accordance with Sections 10.1 and 10.2 of this Agreement;

(f) receive transfers of any listed stocks or securities or any readily marketable assets or any operating assets of a going business, except as may be required (x) under the Plan and the Confirmation Order, (y) as reasonably necessary for the protection, conservation, or maintenance of value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets in furtherance of efforts to liquidate the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and (z) otherwise in compliance with Revenue Procedure 94-45, 1994-2 C.B. 684; provided, however, that in no event shall the Creditor Recovery Trust receive any such investment that would jeopardize treatment of the Creditor Recovery Trust as a "liquidating trust" for federal income tax purposes under Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), or any successor provision thereof;

(g) retain Cash in excess of a reasonable amount necessary to (w) satisfy any liabilities of the Creditor Recovery Trust, (x) to protect, conserve or maintain the value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, (y) to meet any Claims and contingent liabilities and (z) to establish and maintain the reserves contemplated by the Plan or this Agreement;

(h) receive or retain any operating assets of an operating business, a partnership interest in a partnership that holds operating assets or 50% or more of the stock of a corporation with operating assets other than in furtherance of the protection, conservation, or maintenance of value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets in furtherance of efforts to liquidate the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets; provided, however, that in no event shall the Creditor Recovery Trustee receive or retain any such asset or interest that would jeopardize treatment of the Creditor Recovery Trust as a "liquidating trust" for federal income tax purposes under Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d) or any successor provision thereof; or

(i) take any other action or engage in any investments or activities that would jeopardize treatment of the Creditor Recovery Trust as a liquidating trust for federal income tax purposes under Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), or any successor provision thereof.

4.12 Books and Records. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall maintain books and records relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (including income realized therefrom and the Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds) and the payment of, costs and expenses of, and liabilities for claims against or which, pursuant to the Plan, are the responsibility of the Creditor Recovery Trust in such detail and for such period of time as may be necessary to enable the Creditor Recovery Trustee to make full and proper accounting in respect thereof and in accordance with applicable law. Such books and records shall be maintained as reasonably necessary to facilitate compliance with the tax reporting requirements of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Nothing in this Agreement requires the Creditor Recovery Trustee to file any accounting or seek approval of any court with respect to the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust or as a condition for managing any payment or distribution out of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, except as may otherwise be set forth in the Plan or the Confirmation Order.

4.13 Reports.

(a) Financial and Status Reports. The fiscal year of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be the calendar year. Within [ninety (90)] days after the end of each calendar year during the term of the Creditor Recovery Trust, and within [forty-five (45)] days after the end of each calendar quarter during the term of the Creditor Recovery Trust (other than the fourth quarter) and as soon as practicable upon termination of the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall make available to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries and the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee, as of the end of such period or such date of termination, a written report including: (i) financial statements of the Creditor Recovery Trust for such period, and, if the end of a calendar year, an unaudited report (which may be prepared by an independent certified public accountant employed by the Creditor Recovery Trustee) reflecting the result of such procedures relating to the financial accounting administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust as may be adopted by the Creditor Recovery Trustee; (ii) a summary description of any action taken by the Creditor Recovery Trust which, in the judgment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, materially affects the Creditor Recovery Trust and of which notice has not previously been given to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries; (iii) a description of the progress of liquidating the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and making distributions to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, which description shall include a written report providing, among other things, a summary of the litigation status of the Trust Causes of Action transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, any settlements entered into by the Creditor Recovery Trust with respect to the Trust Causes of Action, the Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds recovered to date, and the distributions made by the Creditor Recovery Trust to date; (iv) payments made to the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals (including fees and expenses paid to contingency fee counsel); and (v) any other material information relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust deemed appropriate to be disclosed by the Creditor Recovery Trustee. In addition, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall provide unaudited financial statements to each Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary on a quarterly basis (which may be quarterly operating reports filed with the Bankruptcy Court). The Creditor Recovery Trustee may post any such report on a website maintained by the Creditor Recovery Trust or electronically file it with the Bankruptcy Court in lieu of actual notice to each Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall respond, as soon as reasonably practicable, to reasonable requests for information (to the extent available) described in this clause (a) that is reasonably requested from Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries during reasonable business hours, in each case, to the extent such requests do not (i) request the disclosure of privileged or confidential information, (ii) request the disclosure of information which would not be in the best interest of the Creditor Recovery Trust (in the reasonable discretion of the Creditor Recovery Trustee), and (iii) interfere with the duties of the Creditor Recovery Trustee hereunder. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall not be required to make available (through reporting or response to requests) any information if the disclosure of such information, in its sole discretion, would (i) constitute a violation of the Creditor Recovery Trustee's confidentiality or other non-disclosure obligations pursuant to a contract or a court order, or (ii) prejudice or harm the investigation or pursuit of any Trust Causes of Action.

(b) Annual Plan and Budget. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall prepare and adopt an annual plan and budget as the Creditor Recovery Trustee deems reasonably appropriate.

ARTICLE V

ADVISORY COMMITTEE

5.1 Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee. The Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee (the "Advisory Committee") is hereby created in accordance with the Plan. The Advisory Committee initially shall be composed of the following members: [_____, _____, and _____] (each, a "Member," and collectively, the "Members"), all of whom hereby accept their appointment as Members of the Advisory Committee. The Advisory Committee may authorize its own dissolution by filing with the Bankruptcy Court an appropriate notice that its responsibilities under this Agreement have concluded. Unless already dissolved, the Advisory Committee shall be dissolved as of the earlier of (i) the date upon which each Member receives a distribution from the Creditor Recovery Trust in full satisfaction of its respective Allowed Claim; or (ii) the date the Chapter 11 Case is closed. Further provisions as relating to the Advisory Committee are as follows:

(a) Actions Requiring Consultation with the Advisory Committee. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall consult with the Advisory Committee (which may occur by negative notice) prior to taking any action regarding any of the following matters: (i) the distribution, disposition or abandonment of any non-Cash Creditor Recovery Trust Assets having a valuation in excess of $[250,000]; (ii) the settlement, compromise, or other resolution of any Disputed Claim, wherein the Allowed amount of the asserted Claim exceeds $250,000; (iii) the exercise of any right or action set forth in this Agreement that expressly requires consultation with the Advisory Committee; (iv) the borrowing of any funds by the Creditor Recovery Trust or pledge of any portion of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets; and (v) any matter which could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect, as determined by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in consultation with legal counsel, on the amount of distributions to be made by the Creditor Recovery Trust.

(b) Creditor Recovery Trustee's Conflict of Interest. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall disclose to the Advisory Committee any conflicts of interest (actual or potential) that the Creditor Recovery Trustee has with respect to any matter arising during administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust. In the event that the Creditor Recovery Trustee cannot take any action by reason of an actual or potential conflict of interest, the Advisory Committee, acting by majority, shall be authorized to take any such action(s) in the Creditor Recovery Trustee's place and stead, including without limitation the retention of professionals (which may include professionals retained by the Creditor Recovery Trustee) for the purpose of taking such actions. The Bankruptcy Court shall hear and finally determine any dispute arising out of this section.

(c) To the extent required under this Agreement or the Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trustee may satisfy its consultation requirement by providing written notice, which may be in the form of an email, to the Advisory Committee [five (5) business days] (or less if the circumstances require it as determined by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in his or her sole discretion) prior to the proposed action.

(d) Any Member of the Advisory Committee may resign at any time on notice (including email notice) to the other Members of the Advisory Committee and to the Creditor Recovery Trustee. Any such resignation shall be effective on the later of: (i) the date specified in the notice delivered to the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the other Members; and (ii) the date that is thirty (30) days after the date such notice is delivered. In the event of the resignation, death, incapacity, or removal of a Member of the Advisory Committee, the remaining Members of the Advisory Committee, in consultation with the Creditor Recovery Trustee, shall select and appoint a replacement Member. In the event that no one is willing to serve as a replacement Member on the Advisory Committee for a period of [thirty (30)] consecutive days after the departure of the Member at issue, then the Creditor Recovery Trustee may, during such vacancy and thereafter, ignore any reference in this Agreement, the Plan, or the Confirmation Order to the Advisory Committee, and all references to the Advisory Committee's rights and responsibilities under this Agreement, the Plan, or the Confirmation Order will be null and void.

(e) Each member of the Advisory Committee and its representatives shall have no liability for any actions or omissions in accordance with this Agreement or with respect to the Creditor Recovery Trust unless arising out of such Entity's own fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence. Unless arising out of such Entity's own fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence, in performing its duties under this Agreement, each member of the Advisory Committee and its representatives (as applicable) shall have no liability for any action taken by such Entity in good faith, in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the Creditor Recovery Trust and/or in accordance with the advice of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, the Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals retained by the Creditor Recovery Trust, or its own professionals.

ARTICLE VI
DISTRIBUTIONS

6.1 Distributions Generally. Subject to the terms of Section 6.2 below, from time to time (but no less frequently than semi-annually), the Creditor Recovery Trustee or its designated agent (which agent must be reasonably acceptable to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries) shall make a determination of the amount of Cash available for distribution to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, which shall include the amount of Cash then on hand (including the net income and the Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds, if any, from any disposition of Trust Causes of Action, any Cash received on account of or representing Creditor Recovery Trust Proceeds, and treating as Cash for purposes of this Section 6.1 any permitted investments under Section 4.9 and excluding any Cash or other amounts in any Disputed Claims Reserve), reduced by any such amounts that are reasonably necessary to (i) meet contingent liabilities and to maintain the value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets during liquidation, (ii) pay reasonable incurred or anticipated expenses of the Creditor Recovery Trust (including, but not limited to, any taxes imposed on or payable by the Creditor Recovery Trust or in respect of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and fees and expenses of professionals retained on behalf of the Creditor Recovery Trust), or (iii) satisfy other liabilities incurred or anticipated by the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with the Plan or this Agreement (which amounts under (i) through (iii) above shall have priority in distribution ahead of any distributions to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries). The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall then distribute all such available Cash to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement.

Subject to the terms of Section 6.2 below, distributions shall be made to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries in the following order of priority:

First, to the holders of claims for compensation as provided under the last sentence of Article II.A of the Plan until paid in full;

Second, to the holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims until paid in full (including postpetition interests); and

Third, to the holders of RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims, CBRM Unsecured Claims, and the Spano CBRM Claim, in the priority as provided for in the Plan, until paid in full (including postpetition interest).

6.2 Distribution of Contributed Claims Proceeds. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, and in accordance with Article IV.J of the Plan, with respect to any proceeds received from the prosecution and, if necessary and appropriate, settlement and compromise of any Contributed Claim (the "Contributed Claim Proceeds"), the Creditor Recovery Trustee or its designated agent (which agent must be reasonably acceptable to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries) shall distribute such Contributed Claim Proceeds to the Contributing Claimants on a pro-rata basis and shall not distribute any such Contributed Claim Proceeds to any Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary that did not elect to contribute its claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

6.3 Address for Delivery. Any distributions to be made by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to the holder of an Allowed Claim under this Agreement and the Plan shall be made at the last-known address for each such holder as indicated on the Creditor Recovery Trust's records as of the applicable distribution date, which, subject to Section 3.4 hereof, for each holder of an Allowed Claim shall be deemed to be the address set forth (i) in the Schedules, (ii) on the Proof of Claim filed by such holder, (iii) in any notice of assignment filed with the Bankruptcy Court with respect to such Claim pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), or (iv) in any notice served by such holder giving details of a change of address.

6.4 Undeliverable and Unclaimed Distributions.

(a) If any distribution to any holder is returned as undeliverable, no distribution to such holder shall be made unless and until the Creditor Recovery Trustee is notified in writing of the then-current address of such holder, at which time such distribution shall be made as soon as reasonably practicable after such distribution has become deliverable or has been claimed to such holder without interest. Nothing contained herein shall require the Creditor Recovery Trustee to attempt to locate any holder of an Allowed Claim.

(b) Any holder of an Allowed Claim that does not assert its right to an undeliverable distribution prior to the date that is six months after the applicable distribution date will be forever barred from asserting any such Claim against the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. In such cases, (a) the undeliverable distribution shall be deemed to be unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust (notwithstanding any applicable federal or state escheat, abandoned or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), (b) the Allowed Claims with respect to such distribution shall be automatically cancelled, (c) the right of the holders entitled to those distributions shall be discharged and forever barred, and (d) the undeliverable distribution shall be reserved or distributed in accordance with the Plan and this Agreement.

6.5 Time Bar to Cash Payments. Any check issued by the Creditor Recovery Trust on account of an Allowed Claim shall be null and void if not negotiated within 90 days after the issuance of such check. Requests for reissuance of any check shall be made directly to the Creditor Recovery Trustee by the holder of the relevant Allowed Claim with respect to which such check originally was issued. If any holder of an Allowed Claim holding an unnegotiated check does not request reissuance of that check within six months after the date the check was mailed or otherwise delivered to the holder, the entitlement of the holder regarding such unnegotiated check and the funds represented thereby shall be released and the holder thereof shall be forever barred, estopped and enjoined from asserting any claim with respect to such unnegotiated check and the funds represented thereby against any of the Debtors, the Creditor Recovery Trust, or the Creditor Recovery Trustee. In such cases, any Cash held for payment on account of such unnegotiated check shall be deemed to be unclaimed property and shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, free of any Claims of such holder with respect thereto (notwithstanding any applicable federal or state escheat, abandoned or unclaimed property laws to the contrary).

6.6 Manner of Payment. Any distribution of Cash by the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be made by the Creditor Recovery Trustee, in the sole discretion of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, either (i) via a check drawn on or wire or ACH transfer from, a bank account established in the name of the Creditor Recovery Trust on or subsequent to the Confirmation Date at a domestic bank selected by the Creditor Recovery Trustee (the "Creditor Recovery Trust Account"), or (ii) as may be appropriate under the circumstances and mutually agreed between the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the recipient of such distribution.

6.7 Fractional Distributions. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall not be required to make on account of any Allowed Claim partial distributions if any portion of such Claim remains in dispute, or payments of fractions of dollars. Fractions of dollars shall be rounded to the nearest whole unit (with any amount equal to or less than one-half dollar to be rounded down).

6.8 De Minimis Distributions. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall not be required to make a distribution if the amount of Cash to be distributed is less than $100 to any one claimant in a single distribution. Any funds so withheld and not distributed shall be held in reserve and distributed to such claimant in subsequent distributions except if the aggregate distributions (including the final distribution) to be made by the Creditor Recovery Trust to such claimant is less than $100, in which case such amount shall be included in the Dissolution Process set forth in Section 10.1 of this Agreement.

6.9 Business Day. Any payment or distribution due on a day other than a Business Day shall be made, without interest, on the next Business Day.

6.10 Withholding Taxes. The Creditor Recovery Trustee may deduct and withhold taxes from any and all amounts otherwise distributable to any Entity determined in the Creditor Recovery Trustee's reasonable discretion, required by this Agreement, any law, regulation, rule, ruling, directive, treaty or other governmental requirement in accordance with Section 9.4 hereof.

6.11 Disputed Claims Reserves. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be authorized, but not directed, to establish one or more Creditor Recovery Trust Disputed Claims Reserves. The Creditor Recovery Trustee may, in its sole discretion, hold any property to be distributed pursuant to the Plan, in the same proportions and amounts as provided for in the Plan, in the Creditor Recovery Trust Disputed Claims Reserve in trust for the benefit of the holders of Disputed Claims ultimately determined to be Allowed after the Effective Date and payable by the Creditor Recovery Trust under the Plan. To the extent payable by the Creditor Recovery Trust under the Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall distribute such amounts (net of any expenses, including any taxes relating thereto or otherwise payable by the Creditor Recovery Trust Disputed Claims Reserve), as provided in the Plan, as such Claims are resolved by a Final Order or agreed to by settlement, and such amounts will be distributable on account of such Claims as such amounts would have been distributable had such Claims been Allowed Claims as of the Effective Date. Amounts remaining in the Creditor Recovery Trust Disputed Claims Reserve, if any, after the resolution of all applicable Disputed Claims and the satisfaction of all applicable Allowed Disputed Claims payable by the Creditor Recovery Trust under the Plan shall promptly be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, without any further notice to, action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or by any other Entity.

7.1 Independent Creditor Recovery Trustee. The Creditor Recovery Trustee, in accordance with the Plan and the Confirmation Order, shall be a professional natural person, entity or financial institution.

7.2 Creditor Recovery Trustee's Term of Service, Compensation and Reimbursement.

(a) Term of Service. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall serve as of the Effective Date until: (a) the completion of all of the Creditor Recovery Trustee's duties, responsibilities and obligations under this Agreement and the Plan; (b) termination of the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with this Agreement; or (c) the Creditor Recovery Trustee's death or dissolution, incapacitation, resignation or removal.

(b) Compensation. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall receive compensation from the Creditor Recovery Trust as provided in a separate engagement letter (the "Creditor Recovery Trustee Compensation"). The compensation of the Creditor Recovery Trustee may be modified from time to time by agreement of the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee or, if the Chapter 11 Cases have not been closed or dismissed, by order of the Bankruptcy Court. Notice of any modification of the Creditor Recovery Trustee's compensation shall be filed promptly with the Bankruptcy Court; provided, however, that after the closing or dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases, such notice shall be served on the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries. For the avoidance of doubt, the Creditor Recovery Trust Compensation shall not be binding on any successor trustee, and, subject to the requirements of Section 7.5 hereof, a successor trustee shall negotiate its compensation with the Creditor Recovery Trust and file a summary of the terms of its compensation with the Bankruptcy Court upon accepting the appointment.

(c) Expenses. The Creditor Recovery Trust will reimburse the Creditor Recovery Trustee for all actual, reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in connection with the performance of the duties of the Creditor Recovery Trustee hereunder or under the Confirmation Order or the Plan (collectively, the "Creditor Recovery Trustee Expenses" and, together with the Creditor Recovery Trustee Compensation, the "Creditor Recovery Trustee Fees").

(d) Payment. The Creditor Recovery Trustee Fees shall be paid to the Creditor Recovery Trustee without necessity for review or approval by the Bankruptcy Court or any other Person. The Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction until the closing or dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases to adjudicate any dispute regarding the Creditor Recovery Trustee Fees.

7.3 Resignation. The Creditor Recovery Trustee may resign by giving not less than [45 days'] prior written notice thereof by filing a notice with the Bankruptcy Court (and such notice shall be served on the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries). Such resignation shall become effective on the earlier to occur of: (a) the day specified in such notice, and (b) the appointment of a successor satisfying the requirements set out in Section 7.5 by the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee or the Bankruptcy Court and the acceptance by such successor of such appointment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon the Termination Date (as defined in Section 10.1 below), the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be deemed to have resigned, except as otherwise provided for in Section 10.2 herein. Written notice of the resignation of the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the appointment of a successor Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be provided promptly to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries.

7.4 Removal.

(a) The Creditor Recovery Trustee (or any successor Creditor Recovery Trustee) may be removed (i) by the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee, for Cause, upon not less than [45 days'] prior written notice; or (ii) by order of the Bankruptcy Court for Cause.

(b) To the extent there is any dispute regarding the removal of a Creditor Recovery Trustee (including any dispute relating to any portion of the Creditor Recovery Trustee Fees) and so long as the Chapter 11 Cases have not been closed or dismissed, the Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction to consider and adjudicate any such dispute. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Creditor Recovery Trustee will continue to serve as the Creditor Recovery Trustee after his, her or its removal other than for Cause until the earlier of (i) the time when appointment of a successor Creditor Recovery Trustee will become effective in accordance with Section 7.5 of this Agreement or (ii) [45 days] after the date of removal.

(c) For purposes of this Section 7.4, "Cause" shall mean (i) the Creditor Recovery Trustee's willful failure to perform his/her/its material duties hereunder, which is not remedied within [thirty (30)] days of notice; (ii) the Creditor Recovery Trustee's commission of an act of fraud, theft or embezzlement in connection with or reasonably related to the performance of its duties hereunder; (iii) the Creditor Recovery Trustee's gross negligence, willful misconduct, or knowing violation of law in the performance of its duties hereunder, or (iv) the Creditor Recovery Trustee's breach of fiduciary duties or an unresolved conflict of interest in connection with or reasonably related to the performance of its duties hereunder.

7.5 Appointment of Successor Creditor Recovery Trustee.

(a) In the event of the death or disability (in the case of a Creditor Recovery Trustee that is a natural person), dissolution (in the case of a Creditor Recovery Trustee that is not a natural person), resignation, incompetency or removal of the Creditor Recovery Trustee (each, a "Succession Event"), the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee shall promptly designate a successor Creditor Recovery Trustee satisfying the requirements set forth in Section 7.1 hereof; provided, however, the Bankruptcy Court may designate a successor Creditor Recovery Trustee to the extent that the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee has not designated a successor Creditor Recovery Trustee within [thirty (30)] days of a Succession Event resulting from the death, disability, dissolution, resignation or incompetency of the Creditor Recovery Trustee. Such appointment shall specify the date on which such appointment shall be effective. Every successor Creditor Recovery Trustee appointed hereunder shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee an instrument accepting the appointment under this Agreement and agreeing to be bound as Creditor Recovery Trustee hereto and subject to the terms of this Agreement, and thereupon the successor Creditor Recovery Trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all rights, powers, trusts and duties of the predecessor Creditor Recovery Trustee and the successor Creditor Recovery Trustee shall not be personally liable for any act or omission of the predecessor Creditor Recovery Trustee; provided, however, that a predecessor Creditor Recovery Trustee shall, nevertheless, when requested in writing by the successor Creditor Recovery Trustee, execute and deliver an instrument or instruments conveying and transferring to such successor Creditor Recovery Trustee under the Creditor Recovery Trust all the estates, properties, rights, powers and trusts of such predecessor Creditor Recovery Trustee and otherwise assist and cooperate, without cost or expense to the predecessor Creditor Recovery Trustee, in effectuating the assumption by the successor Creditor Recovery Trustee of his/her/its obligations and functions hereunder. For notice purposes only and not for approval, the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee shall file with the Bankruptcy Court (if the Chapter 11 Cases have not been closed) a notice appointing the successor Creditor Recovery Trustee.

(b) During any period in which there is a vacancy in the position of Creditor Recovery Trustee, the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee shall appoint (or the Bankruptcy Court may appoint) an interim Creditor Recovery Trustee (the "Interim Trustee"). The Interim Trustee shall be subject to all the terms and conditions applicable to a Creditor Recovery Trustee hereunder; provided, however, any such Interim Trustee shall not be entitled to receive the Creditor Recovery Trustee Compensation unless approved by the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee.

(c) To the extent that the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee are unable to appoint a successor Creditor Recovery Trustee or Interim Trustee and the Chapter 11 Cases have been closed or dismissed, the Chapter 11 Cases may be reopened for the limited purpose of seeking an order of the Bankruptcy Court to appoint a successor Creditor Recovery Trustee.

7.6 Effect of Resignation or Removal. The death, disability, dissolution, bankruptcy, resignation, incompetency, incapacity or removal of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as applicable, shall not operate to terminate the Creditor Recovery Trust created by this Agreement or to revoke any existing agency created pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or invalidate any action theretofore taken by the Creditor Recovery Trustee or any prior Creditor Recovery Trustee. In the event of the resignation or removal of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, such Creditor Recovery Trustee will promptly (a) execute and deliver such documents, instruments and other writings as may be ordered by the Bankruptcy Court (or any other court of competent jurisdiction) or reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee or the successor Creditor Recovery Trustee to effect the termination of such Creditor Recovery Trustee's capacity under this Agreement, (b) deliver to the successor Creditor Recovery Trustee all documents, instruments, records and other writings related to the Creditor Recovery Trust as may be in the possession of such Creditor Recovery Trustee, including any materials relating to Trust Causes of Action, and shall not retain any copies of such materials, even for archival purposes, and (c) otherwise assist and cooperate in effecting the assumption of its obligations and functions by such successor Creditor Recovery Trustee.

7.7 Confidentiality. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall hold strictly confidential and not use for personal gain or for the gain of any Entity for whom such Creditor Recovery Trustee may be employed any confidential information of or pertaining to any Entity to which any of the Trust Causes of Action or Creditor Recovery Trust Assets relates or of which the Creditor Recovery Trustee has become aware in the Creditor Recovery Trustee's capacity as Creditor Recovery Trustee, until (a) such information is made public other than by disclosure by the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or any Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals in violation of this Agreement; (b) the Creditor Recovery Trust is required by law to disclose such information (in which case the Creditor Recovery Trust shall provide the relevant Entity reasonable advance notice and an opportunity to protect his, her, or its rights); or (c) the Creditor Recovery Trust obtains a waiver of confidentiality from the applicable Entity; provided, that nothing in this Section 7.7 shall affect, amend, or modify any existing confidentiality agreement or protective order governing information transferred or otherwise provided to the Creditor Recovery Trustee under the Plan or this Agreement.

LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

8.1 No Further Liability. Each of the Creditor Recovery Trustee and its representatives shall have no liability for any actions or omissions in accordance with this Agreement or with respect to the Creditor Recovery Trust unless arising out of such Entity's own fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence. Unless arising out of such Entity's own fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence, in performing its duties under this Agreement, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and its representatives (as applicable) shall have no liability for any action taken by such Entity in good faith, in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the Creditor Recovery Trust and/or in accordance with the advice of the Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals retained by the Creditor Recovery Trust. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and its representatives may rely without independent investigation on copies of orders of the Bankruptcy Court reasonably believed by such Entity to be genuine and shall have no liability for actions taken in reliance thereon. None of the provisions of this Agreement shall require the Creditor Recovery Trustee or its representatives to expend or risk their own funds or otherwise incur personal financial liability in the performance of any of their duties hereunder or in the exercise of any of their rights and powers. Each of the Creditor Recovery Trustee and its representatives may rely without inquiry upon writings delivered to such Entity pursuant to the Plan, the Confirmation Order or this Agreement (including in the execution of such Person's duties hereunder or thereunder) that such Entity reasonably believes to be genuine and to have been properly given. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 8.1 shall relieve the Creditor Recovery Trustee or its representatives from any liability for any actions or omissions arising out of such Person's fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence. Any action taken or omitted to be taken in the case of the Creditor Recovery Trustee with the express approval of the Bankruptcy Court (so long as the Chapter 11 Cases have not been closed or dismissed) will conclusively be deemed not to constitute fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence. No termination of this Agreement or amendment, modification or repeal of this Section 8.1 shall adversely affect any right or protection of the Creditor Recovery Trustee or its respective designees, professional agents or representatives that exists at the time of such amendment, modification or repeal.

8.2 Indemnification of the Creditor Recovery Trustee.

(a) From and after the Effective Date, each of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, the Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals and each of the Creditor Recovery Trustee's representatives (each, a "Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party," and collectively, the "Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Parties") shall be, and hereby is, indemnified by the Creditor Recovery Trust, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, from and against any and all claims, debts, dues, accounts, actions, suits, Causes of Action, bonds, covenants, judgments, damages, attorneys' fees, defense costs and other assertions of liability arising out of any such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party's exercise of what such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its powers or the discharge of what such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its duties conferred by the Plan, the Confirmation Order or this Agreement, any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered pursuant to, or in furtherance of, the Plan, applicable law or otherwise (except only for actions or omissions to act to the extent determined by a Final Order to be due to such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party's own fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence on and after the Effective Date). The foregoing indemnification shall also extend to matters directly or indirectly in connection with, arising out of, based on, or in any way related to: (i) this Agreement; (ii) the services to be rendered pursuant to this Agreement; (iii) any document or information, whether oral or written, referred to herein or supplied to the Creditor Recovery Trustee; or (iv) proceedings by or on behalf of any creditor. Expenses, including attorney's fees and other expenses and disbursements, incurred by a Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid or reimbursed by the Creditor Recovery Trust, solely out of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (including any insurance policy obtained by the Creditor Recovery Trust for the benefit of Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Parties), in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding; provided, however, that any Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party receiving any such advance shall execute a written undertaking to repay such advance if a court of competent jurisdiction ultimately determines, by Final Order, that such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party is not entitled to indemnification hereunder due to such Person's own fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence. Any indemnification claim of a Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party shall be entitled to a priority distribution from the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, ahead of any other claim to or interest in such assets. In any matter covered by the first two sentences of this subsection, any party entitled to indemnification shall have the right to employ such party's own separate counsel, at the Creditor Recovery Trust's expense, subject to the foregoing terms and conditions. In addition, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall purchase insurance coverage as set forth in Section 4.10(i) hereof, including fiduciary liability insurance for the benefit of the Creditor Recovery Trustee. The indemnification provided under this Section 8.2 shall survive the death, dissolution, resignation or removal, as may be applicable, of the Creditor Recovery Trustee or any other Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party and shall inure to the benefit of the Creditor Recovery Trustee's and each other Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party's respective heirs, successors and assigns.

(b) The foregoing indemnity in respect of any Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party shall survive the termination of such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party from the capacity for which such party is indemnified. Termination or modification of this Agreement shall not limit or negatively affect any indemnification rights or obligations set forth herein.

(c) Any Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party may waive the benefits of indemnification under this Section 8.2, but only by an instrument in writing executed by such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party.

(d) The rights to indemnification under this Section 8.2 are not exclusive of other rights which any Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party may otherwise have at law or in equity, including, without limitation, common law rights to indemnification or contribution. Nothing in this Section 8.2 will affect the rights or obligations of any Entity (or the limitations on those rights or obligations) under any other agreement or instrument to which that Entity is a party. Further, the Creditor Recovery Trust hereby agrees: (i) that the Creditor Recovery Trust is the indemnitor of first resort (i.e., in the event any Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party has the right to receive indemnification from one or more third party, the Creditor Recovery Trust's obligations to such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party are primary); (ii) that the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be required to pay the full amount of expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually incurred by such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party in connection with any proceeding as to which the Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification hereunder in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding; (iii) that the Creditor Recovery Trust irrevocably waives, relinquishes and releases such third parties from any and all claims by the Creditor Recovery Trust against such third parties for contribution, subrogation or any other recovery of any kind in respect thereof; and (iv) no Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party shall have the obligation to reduce, offset, allocate, pursue or apportion any indemnification advancement, contribution or insurance coverage among multiple parties owing indemnification obligations to such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party prior to the Creditor Recovery Trust's satisfaction of its indemnification obligations hereunder. For the avoidance of doubt, each Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party shall be entitled, subject to the terms hereof, to indemnification for any costs and attorneys' fees such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party may incur in connection with enforcing any of its rights under this Article VIII.

8.3 Creditor Recovery Trust Liabilities. All liabilities of the Creditor Recovery Trust, including, without limitation, indemnity obligations under Section 8.2 of this Agreement and applicable law, will be liabilities of the Creditor Recovery Trust as an Entity and will be paid or satisfied solely from the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and paid on a priority basis, provided, however, that the Creditor Recovery Trust may obtain liability insurance to satisfy its indemnity obligations under Section 8.2 and applicable law. No liability of the Creditor Recovery Trust will be payable in whole or in part by any Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary individually or in the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary's capacity as a Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary, by the Creditor Recovery Trustee individually or in the Creditor Recovery Trustee's capacity as Creditor Recovery Trustee, or by any representative, member, partner, shareholder, director, officer, professional, employee, agent, affiliate or advisor of any Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary, the Creditor Recovery Trustee or their respective affiliates.

8.4 Limitation of Liability. None of the Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Parties shall be liable for direct, indirect, monetary, punitive, exemplary, consequential, special or other damages for a breach of this Agreement, except to the extent his/her/its actions or omissions to act, as determined by a Final Order, are due to such Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party's own fraud or willful misconduct from and after the Effective Date and any of the foregoing damages are awarded pursuant to any such Final Order.

8.5 Burden of Proof. In making a determination with respect to entitlement to exculpation or indemnification hereunder, the court, or Entity making such determination shall presume that any Creditor Recovery Trust Indemnified Party is entitled to exculpation and indemnification under this Agreement and any Entity seeking to overcome such presumption shall have the burden of proof to overcome that presumption.

ARTICLE IX
TAX MATTERS

9.1 Treatment of Creditor Recovery Trust Assets Transfer. The Creditor Recovery Trust (excluding any Disputed Claims Reserves) is intended to be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a liquidating trust described in Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d). For all federal, state and local income tax purposes, all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors, the Contributing Claimants, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries) shall treat the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the benefit of the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, whether their Claims are Allowed on or after the Effective Date, including any amounts or other assets subsequently transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust (but only at such time as actually transferred) as (i) a transfer of their senior interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (subject to any obligations relating to such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets ) directly to the holders of the Crown Capital Unsecured Claims followed by a contribution by the holders of the Crown Capital Unsecured Claims of such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, (ii) a transfer of their junior interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (subject to any obligations relating to such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets) directly to the holders of the CBRM Unsecured Claims followed by a contribution by the holders of the CBRM Unsecured Claims of such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, (iii) a transfer of their junior interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (subject to any obligations relating to such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets) directly to the holders of the RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims followed by a contribution by the holders of the RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims of such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, (iv) a transfer of its junior interest in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (subject to any obligations relating to such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets) directly to the holders of the Spano CBRM Claim followed by a contribution by the holder of the Spano CBRM Claim of such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (v) the contribution to the Creditor Recovery Trust of the claims held by the Contributing Claimants. Accordingly, the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries shall be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as the grantors and owners of their respective share of such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. The foregoing treatment shall also apply, to the extent permitted by applicable law, for state and local income tax purposes.

9.2 Tax Treatment of Disputed Claims Reserves.

(a) Subject to contrary definitive guidance from the Internal Revenue Service or a court of competent jurisdiction (including the receipt by the Creditor Recovery Trustee of a private letter ruling if the Creditor Recovery Trustee so requests, or the receipt of an adverse determination by the Internal Revenue Service upon audit if not contested by the Creditor Recovery Trustee), the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall (A) timely elect to treat any Disputed Claims Reserve as a "disputed ownership fund" governed by Treasury Regulation section 1.468B-9 and (B) to the extent permitted by applicable law, report consistently with the foregoing for state and local income tax purposes. All parties (including, without limitation and as applicable, the Debtors, the Contributing Claimants, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries) shall report for U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes consistently with the foregoing election, if made.

(b) With respect to any Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and any other income or gain of the Creditor Recovery Trust, allocable to Disputed Claims, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall cause the Creditor Recovery Trust to pay out of the applicable Disputed Claims Reserve any taxes imposed on the applicable Disputed Claims Reserve or its Assets by any federal, state or local, or any non-U.S. governmental unit.

9.3 Tax Reporting.

(a) The "taxable year" of the Creditor Recovery Trust and any Disputed Claims Reserve shall be the "calendar year" as such terms are defined in section 441 of the IRC.

The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall file tax returns for the Creditor Recovery Trust (excluding any Disputed Claims Reserve) treating the Creditor Recovery Trust as a grantor trust pursuant to Treasury Regulation section 1.671-4(a) and in accordance with the Plan and this Section 9.3. The Creditor Recovery Trustee also will annually send to each Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary a separate statement setting forth such Contributing Claimant's share of items of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit (including the receipts and expenditures of the Creditor Recovery Trust) as relevant for U.S. federal income tax purposes and will instruct all such Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries to use such information in preparing their U.S. federal income tax returns; provided, that if the Creditor Recovery Trustee elects to make distributions through an intermediary, it shall provide such statement to such intermediaries for them to provide to such Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall also file or provide (or cause to be filed or provided) any other statement, return or disclosure relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust or any Disputed Claims Reserve that is required by any governmental unit.

(b) Allocations of Creditor Recovery Trust taxable income among the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries shall be determined by reference to the manner in which an amount of Cash equal to such taxable income would be distributed (were such Cash permitted to be distributed at such time, and without regard to any restrictions on distributions set forth in the Plan or this Agreement) if, immediately prior to such deemed distribution, the Creditor Recovery Trust had distributed all its assets (valued at their tax book value) to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, adjusted for prior taxable income and loss and taking into account all prior and concurrent distributions from the Creditor Recovery Trust. Similarly, taxable loss of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be allocated by reference to the manner in which an economic loss would be borne immediately after a hypothetical liquidating distribution of the remaining Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. The tax book value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets for purposes of this Section 9.3(b) shall equal their fair market value on the Effective Date, adjusted in accordance with tax accounting principles prescribed by the IRC, the applicable Treasury Regulations and other applicable administrative and judicial authorities and pronouncements. This Section 9.3(b) shall exclude any amounts of income or loss, and any Assets of, a Disputed Claims Reserve. In the event, and to the extent, any Cash retained on account of Disputed Claims in the Disputed Claims Reserve is insufficient to pay the portion of any such taxes attributable to the taxable income arising from the assets allocable to, or retained on account of, Disputed Claims, such taxes shall be (i) reimbursed from any subsequent Cash amounts retained on account of such Disputed Claims, or (ii) to the extent such Disputed Claims have subsequently been resolved, deducted from any amounts otherwise distributable by the Creditor Recovery Trustee as a result of the resolution of such Disputed Claims.

(c) The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be responsible for payment, out of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, of any taxes imposed on the Creditor Recovery Trust or the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, excluding the Disputed Claims Reserves.

9.4 Withholding of Taxes. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall deduct and withhold and pay to the appropriate governmental unit all amounts required to be deducted or withheld pursuant to the IRC or any provision of any state, local or non-U.S. tax law with respect to any payment or distribution to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries. Notwithstanding the above, each holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim that is to receive a distribution under the Plan shall have the sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment of any taxes imposed on such holder by any governmental authority, including income, withholding and other tax obligations, on account of such distribution. All such amounts withheld and paid to the appropriate governmental unit shall be treated as amounts distributed to such Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries for all purposes of this Agreement.

(a) The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be authorized to collect such tax information from the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries (including, without limitation, social security numbers or other tax identification numbers) as it, in its sole discretion, deems necessary to effectuate the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement. As a condition to receive distributions under the Plan, all Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries may be required to identify themselves to the Creditor Recovery Trustee and provide tax information and the specifics of their holdings, to the extent the Creditor Recovery Trustee deems appropriate, including an IRS Form W-9 or, in the case of Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries that are not United States persons for federal income tax purposes, certification of foreign status on an applicable IRS Form W-8.

(b) The Creditor Recovery Trustee may refuse to make a distribution to any Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary that fails to furnish such information in a timely fashion, until such information is delivered; provided, however, that, upon the delivery of such information by a Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall make such distribution to which the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary is entitled, without interest; and, provided, further, that, if the Creditor Recovery Trustee fails to withhold in respect of amounts received or distributable with respect to any such holder and the Creditor Recovery Trustee is later held liable for the amount of such withholding, such holder shall reimburse the Creditor Recovery Trustee for such liability. The identification requirements in Section 9.4(a) and this Section 9.4(b) may, in certain cases, extend to holders who hold their securities in street name. If a Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary fails to comply with such a request for tax information within 180 days, such distribution shall be deemed an unclaimed distribution and treated in accordance with Section 6.4(b) of this Agreement.

(c) In the event that the Creditor Recovery Trustee elects to make distributions through an intermediary, the party who would be the withholding agent with respect to distributions to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiary under U.S. federal income tax principles shall be responsible for withholding tax compliance with respect to any such distribution, based on instructions on the character of the income from the Creditor Recovery Trustee.

9.5 Valuation. As soon as reasonably practicable following the establishment of the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall determine the value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, based on the good-faith determination of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall apprise, in writing, the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries and counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes of such valuation. The valuation shall be used consistently by all Parties (including the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries) for all federal income tax purposes. In connection with the preparation of the valuation contemplated hereby and by the Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be entitled to retain such Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals as the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall determine to be appropriate or necessary in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall take such other actions in connection therewith as it determines to be appropriate or necessary. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall bear all of the reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with determining such value, including the fees and expenses of any Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals retained in connection therewith.

9.6 Expedited Determination of Taxes. The Creditor Recovery Trustee may request an expedited determination of taxes of the Creditor Recovery Trust or any Disputed Claims Reserve under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all returns filed for, or on behalf of, the Creditor Recovery Trust or any Disputed Claims Reserve for all taxable periods through the termination of the Creditor Recovery Trust or any Disputed Claims Reserve.

9.7 Foreign Tax Matters. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall duly comply on a timely basis with all obligations, and satisfy all liabilities, imposed on the Creditor Recovery Trustee or the Creditor Recovery Trust or any Disputed Claims Reserve under non-United States law relating to taxes. The Creditor Recovery Trustee, or any other legal representative of the Creditor Recovery Trust, shall not distribute the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets or proceeds thereof without having first obtained all certificates required to have been obtained under applicable non-United States law relating to taxes.

ARTICLE X
TERMINATION OF CREDITOR RECOVERY TRUST

10.1 Termination. The Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be discharged or dissolved, as the case may be, at such time as (a) the Creditor Recovery Trustee has liquidated or abandoned all Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, (b) the Creditor Recovery Trustee determines that the pursuit of Trust Causes of Action is not likely to yield sufficient additional proceeds to justify further pursuit of such Trust Causes of Action, (c) all objections to the Disputed Claims have been resolved, and (d) all Distributions required to be made by the Creditor Recovery Trust under the Plan have been made; provided, however, that in no event shall the Creditor Recovery Trust be dissolved later than five years from the Effective Date unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion within the six-month period prior to the fifth anniversary (or within the six-month period prior to the end of any extension period), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed three years, including any prior extensions, without a favorable private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or a "should" level opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Creditor Recovery Trustee that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of the Creditor Recovery Trust as a liquidating trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the liquidating purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets; provided, further, however, that if the Chapter 11 Cases have been closed or dismissed before the date that is five years from the Effective Date, then no Bankruptcy Court approval shall be required and the only requirement for an extension is a private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Creditor Recovery Trustee that the extension of the Creditor Recovery Trust term will not change the treatment of the Creditor Recovery Trust as a liquidating trust for income tax purposes. If at any time the Creditor Recovery Trustee determines, in reliance upon the advice of the Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals (or any one or more of them), that the expense of administering the Creditor Recovery Trust so as to make a final distribution to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries is likely to exceed the value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets then remaining in the Creditor Recovery Trust and provided that clause (d) above has been satisfied, the Creditor Recovery Trustee may apply to the Bankruptcy Court for authority to (i) reserve any amount necessary to dissolve the Creditor Recovery Trust, (ii) donate any balance to a charitable organization (A) described in section 501(c)(3) of the IRC, (B) exempt from U.S. federal income tax under section 501(a) of the IRC, (C) not a "private foundation," as defined in section 509(a) of the IRC and (D) that is unrelated to the Debtors, the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, any Creditor Recovery Trust Professionals and any insider of any of the foregoing and (iii) dissolve the Creditor Recovery Trust (all of the foregoing actions in clauses (i) through (iii) being referred to as the "Dissolution Process"). Such date upon which the Creditor Recovery Trust shall finally be dissolved shall be referred to herein as the "Termination Date."

10.2 Continuance of Creditor Recovery Trust for Winding Up. During the Dissolution Process, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, solely for the purpose of liquidating and winding up the affairs of the Creditor Recovery Trust, shall continue to act as such until its duties have been fully performed. During the Dissolution Process, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall continue to be entitled to receive the Creditor Recovery Trustee Fees called for by Section 7.2(a) hereof and subject to Section 2.4 hereof. Upon distribution of all the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall retain the books, records and files that shall have been delivered or created in connection with the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust to the extent not otherwise required to be handled by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in accordance with Section 2.2 hereof. At the Creditor Recovery Trustee's discretion, but subject in all cases to Section 2.2 hereof, all of such records and documents may be destroyed no earlier than two (2) years following the Termination Date as the Creditor Recovery Trustee deems appropriate (unless such records and documents are necessary to fulfill the Creditor Recovery Trustee's obligations hereunder). Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, upon the Termination Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be deemed discharged and have no further duties or obligations hereunder, except to account to the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries as provided herein, and the Creditor Recovery Trust will be deemed to have dissolved.

AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

11.1 Subject to Sections 11.2 and 11.3 of this Agreement, the Creditor Recovery Trustee may amend, supplement or waive any provision of this Agreement. Technical amendments to this Agreement may be made, as necessary to clarify this Agreement or enable the Creditor Recovery Trustee to effectuate the terms of this Agreement, by the Creditor Recovery Trustee.

11.2 Notwithstanding Section 11.1 of this Agreement, no amendment, supplement or waiver of or to this Agreement shall (a) adversely affect the interests, rights or treatment of the Creditor Recovery Trust Beneficiaries, (b) adversely affect the payments and/or distributions to be made under the Plan, the Confirmation Order or this Agreement, (c) amend Section 7.2(b) hereof, (d) be inconsistent with the Plan or the Confirmation Order, (e) adversely affect the U.S. federal income tax status of the Creditor Recovery Trust as a "liquidating trust" or (f) be inconsistent with the purpose and intention of the Creditor Recovery Trust to liquidate in an expeditious but orderly manner the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets in accordance with Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d).

11.3 No failure by the Creditor Recovery Trust or the Creditor Recovery Trustee to exercise or delay in exercising any right, power, or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power, or privilege hereunder preclude any further exercise thereof, or of any other right, power, or privilege.

ARTICLE XII
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

12.1 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey (without reference to principles of conflicts of law that would require or permit application of the law of another jurisdiction).

12.2 Jurisdiction. Subject to the proviso below and so long as the Chapter 11 Cases have not been closed or dismissed, the Parties agree that the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction over the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trustee, including, without limitation, the administration and activities of the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trustee to the fullest extent permitted by law; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have power and authority to bring any action in any court of competent jurisdiction to (1) prosecute any of the Trust Causes of Action and pursue any recoveries in respect of any Trust Causes of Action, (2) liquidate, administer or protect any of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and (3) enforce this Agreement against any entity that is not a party to this Agreement and is not subject to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court. Each Party to this Agreement hereby irrevocably consents to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court in any action to enforce, interpret or construe any provision of this Agreement or of any other agreement or document delivered in connection with this Agreement, and also hereby irrevocably waives any defense of improper venue, forum non conveniens, or lack of personal jurisdiction to any such action brought in the Bankruptcy Court. Until the closing or dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases, any action to enforce, interpret, or construe any provision of this Agreement will be brought only in the Bankruptcy Court; provided, however, that in the event that the Bankruptcy Court does not have jurisdiction pursuant to the foregoing provision, including after the closing or dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases, any action to enforce, interpret, or construe any provision of this Agreement will be brought in either a state or federal court of competent jurisdiction in the State of New Jersey (without prejudice to the right of any Party to seek to reopen the Chapter 11 Cases to hear matters with respect to this Agreement). Each Party hereby irrevocably consents to the service by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, of any process in any action to enforce, interpret, or construe any provision of this Agreement.

12.3 Severability. In the event any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall be determined by Final Order to be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances or in jurisdictions other than those as to or in which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

The date of receipt of such notice shall be the earliest of (a) the date of actual receipt by the receiving party, (b) the date of personal delivery (or refusal upon presentation for delivery), (c) the date of the transmission confirmation or (d) three Business Days after service by first-class mail, to the receiving party's below address(es):

12.11 Limitations. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, the Plan or the Confirmation Order, nothing herein is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or to give any person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement. ## Schedule of Retained Causes of Action

Article IV.I of the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 338] (as may be amended, modified, revised, or supplemented from time to time, the "Plan") provides that: "Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, subject to the oversight, approval, consultation and consent of the Trust Advisory Committee as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, shall retain and shall have, through their authorized agents or representatives, the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court."

Article IV.I of the Plan further provides that: "No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or the Disclosure Statement to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee or the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action." Without limiting the generality of Article IV.I of the Plan, the Debtors identify the following types of Causes of Action that are expressly preserved by the Debtors and the post-Effective Date Debtors after the Effective Date, solely to the extent such Causes of Action are not otherwise specifically released, settled, compromised, transferred, or assigned under the Plan or any other order of the Court.

The Debtors expressly reserve the right to alter, modify, amend, remove, augment, or supplement this Schedule of Retained Causes of Action at any time with additional Causes of Action. Failure to include any Cause of Action herein at any time shall not be a bar and shall not have any impact on the post-Effective Date Debtors' and Creditor Recovery Trust's rights to bring any Cause of Action not otherwise released pursuant to the Plan.

I. Claims Against Third-Parties

The Debtors and the post-Effective Date Debtors expressly reserve all Causes of Action against all Persons or Entities that are not Released Parties, including Causes of Action that are (a) listed on Schedule 1 attached hereto; (b) based upon any contract or quasi-contract theory of liability or recovery; (c) based upon any tort theory of liability or recovery, including, without limitation, tortious interference with existing contracts, tortious interference with contractual or business relations, conversion, theft, embezzlement, conspiracy, unfair competition, misappropriation of trade secrets, self-dealing, fraud, negligence, gross negligence, willful misconduct, breach of warranty, misappropriation, or misrepresentation; (d) based upon any other legal or equitable theory of liability or recovery arising under federal, state, or other statutory or common law or otherwise, including, without limitation, breach of fiduciary duty, breach of the duty of care, breach of the duty of good faith and fair dealing, breach of the duty of loyalty, breach of the duty of candor, breach of the duty of oversight, or breach of any other duty, or aiding and abetting any such breaches of duty; (e) arising under sections 362, 510, 542, 543, 544 through 550, or 553 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) for avoidance, fraudulent transfer, and similar Causes of Action pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, state or other federal statutes, or common law; (g) for recharacterization, subordination, or disallowance of any Claim, or for setoff, counterclaim, recoupment; or (h) arising from or relating to the failure to properly oversee and govern the Debtors' operations and finances, operational mismanagement, expenditures of company funds for personal use (including, but not limited to, self-dealing, kickbacks, and embezzlement), theft of company property, improper and excessive compensation, improper and excessive benefits, improper dealings with companies owned or controlled by the Debtors' former equity holders (direct or indirect), officers, directors, members, managers, employees or agents, financial and accounting mismanagement and/or impropriety, or violations of employment agreements, company agreements, or other company policies.

II. Contributed Claims

III. Claims Against Professional Persons

Unless they are Released Parties or otherwise released pursuant to the Plan, the Debtors and the post-Effective Date Debtors expressly reserve all Causes of Action against any outside attorneys, financial advisors, investment bankers, auditors, or other professional persons for any claims or causes of action, including, without limitation, negligence, malpractice, fraud, misrepresentation, and aiding and abetting breaches of fiduciary duty in connection with services rendered to the Debtors.

IV. Avoidance Actions

Unless otherwise released by the Plan, the Debtors and the post-Effective Date Debtors expressly reserve all Causes of Action that may be brought by or on behalf of the Debtors, the post-Effective Date Debtors, their Estates, or other authorized parties in interest to avoid a transfer of property or an obligation incurred by the Debtors pursuant to any applicable section of the Bankruptcy Code, including sections 502, 510, 542, 544, 545, 547 through and including 553 of the Bankruptcy Code, and section 724(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, or under similar or related state or federal statutes or common law, including preference and fraudulent transfer laws.

V. Insurance Causes of Action

Unless otherwise released pursuant to the Plan, the Debtors and the post-Effective Date Debtors expressly reserve all Insurance Causes of Action based in whole or in part upon any and all insurance contracts and insurance policies to which any Debtor or post-Effective Date Debtor is a party or pursuant to which any Debtor or post-Effective Date Debtor has any rights whatsoever, regardless of whether such contract or policy is specifically identified in the Plan, this Plan Supplement, or any amendments thereto, including, without limitation, Causes of Action against insurance carriers, reinsurance carriers, insurance brokers, underwriters, occurrence carriers, or surety bond issuers relating to coverage, indemnity, contribution, reimbursement, or any other matters.

EXHIBIT C: Liquidation Analysis

I. INTRODUCTION

Reference is made to the Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates (the "Plan"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Plan. Crown Capital Holdings LLC ("Crown Capital"), RH Chenault Creek LLC ("Chenault"), RH Windrun LLC ("Windrun"), RH Copper Creek LLC ("Copper Creek"), RH Lakewind East LLC ("Lakewind"), RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC, and Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC (collectively, the "Debtors") submit this disclosure statement (the "Disclosure Statement"), pursuant to section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, to holders of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors in connection with the solicitation of votes for acceptance of the Plan. The Plan constitutes a separate chapter 11 plan for each Debtor.

II. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The Debtors own and operate four multifamily affordable housing complexes located in New Orleans, Louisiana (the "NOLA Properties"): Carmel Brook Apartments, owned by Chenault; Carmel Spring Apartments, owned by Windrun; Laguna Reserve Apartments, owned by Lakewind; and Laguna Creek Apartments, owned by Copper Creek. The NOLA Properties provide rent restricted housing to low-income residents and are supported in part by government housing programs. Preserving the NOLA Properties is critical not only to maximizing the value of the Debtors' estates, but also to protecting vital affordable housing resources in the local community.

The Debtors, along with their affiliates CBRM Realty Inc. ("CBRM"), Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC, and Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC ("Kelly Hamilton," together with CBRM and Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC, the "CBRM Debtors"), commenced these chapter 11 cases on May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date").[2] These chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") were filed amid severe operational, financial, and governance challenges stemming from mismanagement of the broader Crown Capital Portfolio (defined below) and the criminal conviction of its ultimate equity owner, Mark "Moshe" Silber. These issues contributed to liquidity constraints, declining property performance, and creditor enforcement actions. Since the Petition Date, and under the leadership of an independent fiduciary (the "Independent Fiduciary"), the Debtors have stabilized operations, obtained postpetition financing, and initiated a court-supervised marketing process aimed at maximizing value for the benefit of all stakeholders.

To support this process, Crown Capital, Chenault Creek, Windrun, Copper Creek, and Lakewind obtained $17,422,728 in postpetition financing (the "NOLA DIP Facility") from DH1 Holdings LLC ("DH1"), CKD Funding LLC ("CKD Funding"), and CKD Investor Penn LLC ("CKD Penn" and, together with DH1 and CKD Funding, collectively, the "NOLA DIP Lenders"), investors with deep experience in the multifamily and affordable housing sectors. Of that amount, approximately $8,461,524 was funded through new money loans, while the remaining $8,961,204 reflected a roll-up of prepetition obligations. Prior to the Petition Date, the NOLA DIP Lenders held the senior secured mortgage loans encumbering the NOLA Properties and were the Debtors' primary secured creditors. The NOLA DIP Facility has served as a critical bridge to fund operations and support a dual-track strategy for sale and plan confirmation.

Operational stability has been further supported by the Debtors' continued engagement of Lynd Management Group LLC ("Lynd Management") as property manager and LAGSP LLC ("LAGSP") as asset manager. Both firms are affiliates of The Lynd Group, a Texas-based real estate organization with a national platform and demonstrated experience managing affordable housing assets. The Debtors initially engaged Lynd Management and LAGSP pursuant to prepetition service agreements, and subsequently moved to assume and amend those agreements postpetition to ensure continuity of operations and to enhance oversight during the chapter 11 process.

The Debtors are now advancing a chapter 11 plan that contemplates a court-approved sale of the NOLA Properties (the "NOLA Sale Transaction"). On August 15, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving: (a) bidding procedures, including the sale timeline and form and manner of notice for the potential sale of one or more of the NOLA Properties; (b) a process for selecting a stalking horse bidder and approving bid protections; and (c) procedures for the potential assumption and assignment of executory contracts and unexpired leases [Docket No. 382] (the "NOLA Bidding Procedures Order"). In accordance with the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order, the NOLA Sale Transaction may be implemented either pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or through consummation of the Plan.

The Plan contemplates the following stakeholder recoveries:

- All Allowed Other Priority Claims will be paid in full in Cash on the Effective Date, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable;

- All Allowed Other Secured Claims will be (a) paid in full in Cash, (b) reinstated, (c) receive the return of applicable collateral securing such Allowed Other Secured Claims, or (d) otherwise receive treatment that renders such Claims Unimpaired under the Bankruptcy Code;

- Each Holder of an Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claim will receive, (a) Sale Proceeds that are proceeds of the sale of the Lakewind Property to the extent set forth in and subject to the waterfall provisions of the NOLA DIP Order; or (b) to the extent the Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claim is not satisfied by the applicable Sale Proceeds in full as set forth in clause (i), its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution to Holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan;

- Each Holder of an Allowed NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claim will receive a treatment determined by the NOLA Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the NOLA Purchase Agreement;

- Each Holder of an Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan;

- Each Holder of an Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan);

- Each Holder of an Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan);

- Except as otherwise provided in the Plan Supplement, all Intercompany Claims will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Claims; provided, however, that any such Intercompany Claim shall not be canceled, released or extinguished and shall remain in force to the extent necessary to allow the Creditor Recovery Trustee to seek recovery from any non-Debtor;

- Except as otherwise provided in the Plan Supplement, all Intercompany Interests will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Interests;

- On the Effective Date, each Crown Capital Interest shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust as provided in the Plan; provided, however, that the Crown Capital Interests shall remain subject to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed to by Spano Investor LLC; provided, further, however, that Spano Investor LLC shall not directly or indirectly seek to exercise any legal, equitable, or other rights against such Crown Capital Interests or other assets of any Debtor or subsidiary of any Debtor that may constitute collateral of Spano Investor LLC with respect to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. pending further order of the Bankruptcy Court or a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court in the Spano Adversary Proceeding; provided, further, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Plan shall limit or affect Spano Investor LLC's rights to enforce its prepetition judgment and exercise any remedies against non-Debtors Fox Capital LLC, CBCC 1 LLC, CBCC 2 LLC, CBCC 3 LLC, CBCC 4 LLC, CBCC 5 LLC, Westwood Jackson Apts MM LLC, or Westwood Jackson Apts LLC, or any assets of such non-Debtor entities;

- All Interests in RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust without any distribution on account of such Interests; and

- All Section 510(b) Claims, if any, will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Claims.

The Debtors strongly believe that the Plan is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, and represents the best available alternative at this time. For these reasons, the Debtors strongly recommend that Holders of Claims and Interests entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan vote to accept the Plan.

III. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS REGARDING THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT AND THE PLAN

A. What is chapter 11?

Chapter 11 is the principal business reorganization chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition to permitting debtor rehabilitation, chapter 11 promotes equality of treatment for creditors and similarly situated equity interest holders, subject to the priority of distributions prescribed by the Bankruptcy Code.

The commencement of a chapter 11 case creates an estate that comprises all of the legal and equitable interests of the debtor as of the date the chapter 11 case is commenced. The Bankruptcy Code provides that the debtor may continue to operate its business and remain in possession of its property as a "debtor in possession."

Consummating a chapter 11 plan is the principal objective of a chapter 11 case. A bankruptcy court's confirmation of a chapter 11 plan binds the debtor, any person acquiring property under the plan, any creditor or equity interest holder of the debtor (whether or not such creditor or equity interest holder voted to accept the plan), and any other entity as may be ordered by the bankruptcy court. Subject to certain limited exceptions, the order issued by a bankruptcy court confirming a plan provides for the treatment of the debtor's liabilities in accordance with the terms of the confirmed plan.

B. Why are the Debtors sending me this Disclosure Statement?

The Debtors are seeking to obtain Bankruptcy Court approval of the Plan. Before soliciting acceptances of the Plan, section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Debtors to prepare a disclosure statement containing adequate information of a kind, and in sufficient detail, to enable a hypothetical reasonable investor to make an informed judgment regarding acceptance of the Plan and to share such disclosure statement with all holders of Claims and Interests whose votes on the Plan are being solicited. This Disclosure Statement is being submitted in accordance with these requirements.

C. Am I entitled to vote on the Plan?

Your ability to vote on, and your distribution under, the Plan, if any, depends on what type of Claim or Interest you hold. Each category of holders of Claims or Interests, as set forth in Article III of the Plan pursuant to section 1122(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, is referred to as a "Class." Each Class's respective voting status is set forth below:

| Class | Claims and Interests | Status | Voting Rights |
|---|---|---|---|
| Class 1 | Other Priority Claims | Unimpaired | Note Entitled to Vote (Presumed to Accept) |
| Class 2 | Other Secured Claims | Unimpaired | Not Entitled to Vote (Presumed to Accept) |
| Class 3 | CIF Mortgage Loan Claims | Impaired | Entitled to Vote |
| Class 4 | NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims | Impaired | Entitled to Vote |
| Class 5 | Other NOLA Unsecured Claims | Impaired | Entitled to Vote |
| Class 6 | Crown Capital Unsecured Claims | Impaired | Entitled to Vote |
| Class 7 | RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims | Impaired | Entitled to Vote |
| Class 8 | Intercompany Claims | Impaired | Not Entitled to Vote |
| Class 9 | Intercompany Interests | Impaired | Not Entitled to Vote |
| Class 10 | Crown Capital Interests | Impaired | Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject) |
| Class 11 | RH New Orleans Interests | Impaired | Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject) |
| Class 12 | Section 510(b) Claims | Impaired | Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject) |

D. What will I receive from the Debtors if the Plan is consummated?

The following chart provides a summary of the anticipated recovery to Holders of Claims and Interests under the Plan. Any estimates of Claims or Interests in this Disclosure Statement may vary from the final amounts allowed by the Bankruptcy Court. Your ability to receive distributions under the Plan depends upon the ability of the Debtors to obtain Confirmation and meet the conditions necessary to consummate the Plan.

Each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive under the Plan the treatment described below in full and final satisfaction of and in exchange for such Holder's Claim, except to the extent different treatment is agreed to by the Debtors and the Holder of such Allowed Claim. Unless otherwise indicated, the Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive such treatment on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. Projected recoveries included in the summary table below reflect the Debtors' analysis of anticipated Claims.

THE PROJECTED RECOVERIES SET FORTH IN THE TABLE BELOW ARE ESTIMATES ONLY AND THEREFORE ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE. FOR A COMPLETE DESCRIPTION

[3] Recoveries to Holders of Class 6 Crown Capital Unsecured Claims are dependent upon the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such value is largely dependent on the successful prosecution of Claims and Causes of Action, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, by the Creditor Recovery Trust. There can be no assurance of the validity of, the amount of, or the chance of recovery on account of these Claims and Causes of Action. Defenses may also be available. Accordingly, recoveries are uncertain.

Such value is largely dependent on the successful prosecution of Claims and Causes of Action, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, by the Creditor Recovery Trust. There can be no assurance of the validity of, the amount of, or the chance of recovery on account of these Claims and Causes of Action. Defenses may also be available. Accordingly, recoveries are uncertain.

E. What will I receive from the Debtors if I hold a General Administrative Claim or a Priority Tax Claim?

General Administrative Claims and Priority Tax Claims have not been placed in a Class in the Plan, consistent with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. Article II.A of the Plan sets forth the treatment for General Administrative Claims and provides in part that such Claims will be satisfied in full in an amount of Cash equal to the amount of such Allowed General Administrative Claim. Article II.E of the Plan sets forth the treatment for Priority Tax Claims, which states that an Allowed Priority Tax Claim will be treated in accordance with section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code.

F. Are any regulatory approvals required to consummate the Plan?

Other than approvals that may be required in the ordinary course of business in connection with the continued operation of the NOLA Properties, the Debtors are not aware of any material U.S. regulatory approvals required to consummate the Plan. However, the sale of the NOLA Properties pursuant to the Plan or under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code is subject to entry of a final, non-appealable order of the Bankruptcy Court confirming the Plan or sale under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

G. What happens if the NOLA Sale Transaction is not consummated?

The Plan is premised on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, which the Debtors believe will represent the best available path to maximize value and facilitate an orderly Wind-Down of the Estates. However, if the NOLA Sale Transaction is not consummated, the Debtors would work expeditiously to evaluate and pursue an alternative transaction structure, which could include, if required and feasible, a reorganization of one or more Debtors, though no such transaction has been proposed or developed to date and may not be viable given the Debtors' financial condition.

While no such alternative restructuring has been negotiated or proposed as of the date of this Disclosure Statement, the Debtors believe there may be value-preserving alternatives that could be developed and implemented through a revised chapter 11 plan, subject to further diligence, market conditions, and creditor support. In such a scenario, the treatment of Claims and Interests could differ from that set forth in the current Plan and would be determined based on the structure of any such alternative transaction.

If no viable transaction can be implemented, the Debtors may need to consider a conversion to chapter 7, which could result in lower recoveries than those estimated under the Plan.

H. What happens to my recovery if the Plan is not confirmed or does not go effective?

If the Plan is not confirmed or does not go effective, there is no assurance that the Debtors will be able to implement an alternative transaction that would provide recoveries equal to or greater than those contemplated by the Plan. The Plan is based on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' Estates. The Debtors do not have an alternative transaction or plan of reorganization currently negotiated or proposed.

If the NOLA Sale Transaction cannot be completed and the Plan cannot be confirmed, the Debtors would evaluate potential alternatives. However, there can be no assurance that a viable alternative transaction could be identified, negotiated, and implemented in a timely or cost-effective manner. In such a scenario, the Debtors may be required to convert these Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, which the Debtors believe would likely result in significantly lower recoveries for Holders of Allowed Claims.

For a more detailed description of the potential consequences of a failure to confirm or consummate the Plan, see Article XI.B of this Disclosure Statement, entitled "Best Interests of Creditors Test," which begins on page 48.

I. If the Plan provides that I get a distribution, do I get it upon Confirmation or when the Plan goes effective, and what is meant by "Confirmation," "Effective Date," and "Consummation"?

"Confirmation" of the Plan refers to approval of the Plan by the Bankruptcy Court. Confirmation of the Plan does not guarantee that you will receive the distribution indicated under the Plan. After Confirmation of the Plan by the Bankruptcy Court, there are conditions that need to be satisfied or waived so that the Plan can go effective. Initial distributions to holders of Allowed Claims and Interests will only be made on the date the Plan becomes effective—the "Effective Date"—or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, as specified in the Plan. See Article IX of the Plan. "Consummation" means the occurrence of the Effective Date.

J. What are the sources of Cash and other consideration required to fund the Plan?

The Debtors intend to fund distributions under the Plan through a combination of (a) the Sale Proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction; (b) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to be transferred in accordance with the CBRM Plan and this Plan; and (c) other available assets, as further described in the Plan.

The NOLA Sale Transaction contemplates the sale of the NOLA Properties pursuant to one or more purchase agreements with the successful bidder(s) following conclusion of the sale process.

In addition to the proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction, distributions under the Plan will be funded from: (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, consisting of, to the extent not expended prior to the Effective Date solely with respect to the development and investigation of Claims and Causes of Action held by the Debtors or their Estates to be pursued for the benefit of creditors, Cash in an amount equal to $1,000,000 of the proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility, which shall be funded on the Effective Date; (ii) any recoveries from the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, Contributed Claims, and NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, which will be pursued and administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust; and (iii) the Interests of RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC and Crown Capital. Distributions from the Creditor Recovery Trust will be made to Holders of Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claims (Class 6) and Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims (Class 7), with each Holder receiving its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan).

For the avoidance of doubt, the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall include any Claim or Cause of Action, including any Avoidance Action, held by the Debtors or their Estates and the proceeds thereof, against any of the following (each, an "Excluded Party" and collectively, the "Excluded Parties"): (a) Moshe (Mark) Silber; (b) Frederick Schulman; (c) Piper Sandler & Co.; (d) Mayer Brown LLP; (e) Rhodium Asset Management LLC; (f) Syms Construction LLC; (g) Rapid Improvements LLC; (h) NB Affordable Foundation Inc.; (i) any title agencies; (j) any independent real estate appraisal firms; (k) any rating agencies; (l) any accounting firms; (m) other current or former Insiders of the Debtors; (n) any party on the Schedule of Excluded Parties; and (o) with respect to each of the foregoing, each Person's or Entity's Affiliates, partners, members, managers, officers, directors, employees, and agents that are not specifically identified in this Plan as a Released Party.

Certain administrative expenses, including Allowed Professional Compensation Claims, will be funded from a dedicated Fee Escrow Account. The specific allocation of consideration and other assets to the various Classes of Claims and Interests will be set forth in the Plan Supplement.

K. Will there be releases and exculpation granted to parties in interest as part of the Plan?

Yes, the Plan provides for releases and exculpation of the Debtors and other parties in interest as set forth in Article VIII of the Plan.

Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors faced escalating operational and financial distress stemming from broader issues within the Crown Capital Portfolio (as defined below), including the criminal conviction of its ultimate equity owner, disputes among insiders, and a breakdown in governance and oversight. These failures contributed to cash flow shortfalls, unpaid obligations, and deterioration in property performance, placing the long-term viability of the NOLA Properties at serious risk. Following the appointment of the Independent Fiduciary in April 2024, the Debtors and their professionals undertook an extensive review of potential estate claims, insider transactions, and restructuring alternatives.

As part of that assessment, the Independent Fiduciary and the Debtors' professionals evaluated prepetition financial dealings involving insiders and affiliated entities, as well as the conduct surrounding the historical governance and financial condition of the Debtors. Based on that review, the Independent Fiduciary directed the Debtors to preserve all potential Claims and Causes of Action—including, without limitation, Avoidance Actions under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code and any claims for breach of fiduciary duty, mismanagement, or other actionable misconduct—against each Excluded Party. These parties are expressly excluded from the definitions of both "Released Parties" and "Exculpated Parties" under the Plan. Accordingly, the Plan does not, and shall not be construed to, release, exculpate, or otherwise impair any Claims or Causes of Action against these parties, all of which are expressly preserved. The Debtors, through the Independent Fiduciary and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, retain and reserve all such Causes of Action for the benefit of the Debtors' Estates and their stakeholders, and such Causes of Action will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust for potential pursuit by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in accordance with the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

In contrast, the Independent Fiduciary has determined that releases are appropriate for the following parties: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the NOLA Purchaser; (c) LAGSP; (d) Lynd Management; (e) the NOLA DIP Lenders; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (h) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. These parties are collectively defined in the Plan as the "Released Parties."

In addition to the estate releases, the Plan includes a customary third-party release that applies only to Holders of Claims or Interests who affirmatively consent to grant such release. A Holder of a Claim in Class 3, Class 4, Class 5, Class 6, or Class 7 affirmatively consents to grant the third-party release set forth in Article VIII of the Plan if the Holder either (a) votes to accept the Plan, or (b) abstains or does not affirmatively vote to accept the Plan but checks the box on the Holder's Ballot indicating that the Holder opts to grant the release. Holders of Claims or Interests in Class 1, Class 2, Class 8, Class 9, Class 10, Class 11 or Class 12, which are not entitled to vote, may affirmatively consent to grant the release by submitting a completed Opt-In Form and checking the box indicating their consent. Only those Holders who take one of these specified affirmative actions will grant the third-party release under the Plan.

The Plan also includes an exculpation provision that applies to (a) each Debtor solely in its capacity as a debtor and debtor in possession following the Petition Date and excluding such Debtor for the period prior to the Petition Date, (b) the Independent Fiduciary, (c) LAGSP, (d) Lynd Management, and (e) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. These parties are exculpated from any liability for any act or omission arising as of or following the Petition Date through the Effective Date in connection with, relating to, or arising out of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan, the NOLA Sale Transaction, or Restructuring Transactions, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation of any document in connection with the Plan, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Plan, the pursuit of Consummation, the Restructuring Transactions, the administration and implementation of the Plan, or the distribution of property pursuant to the Plan.

The Debtors believe that the release, exculpation, and related injunction provisions are necessary and appropriate in light of the contributions made by the Released and Exculpated Parties, and consistent with applicable law, including precedent established by the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. The Debtors intend to present evidence at the Confirmation Hearing in support of the necessity and propriety of these Plan provisions.

IMPORTANTLY, ONLY HOLDERS OF CLAIMS OR INTERESTS THAT AFFIRMATIVELY OPT TO GRANT THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASES CONTAINED IN THE PLAN WILL BE SUBJECT TO SUCH RELEASES. ### L. What are the potential claims and causes of action against Silber and his affiliates?

The Debtors, through their Independent Fiduciary, are continuing to investigate potential Estate Claims and Causes of Action against Mark Silber, Frederick Schulman, and other individuals and entities associated with their historical control, management, or influence over the Debtors prior to the Petition Date. These investigations include potential claims for breach of fiduciary duty, mismanagement, corporate waste, fraudulent transfers, and other conduct that may have harmed the Debtors or their stakeholders.

With the assistance of advisors, the Independent Fiduciary is reviewing numerous prepetition transactions and governance actions involving these insiders. The areas of focus include the mismanagement of the Debtors' real estate assets, the potential misuse of financing proceeds, neglect of regulatory obligations, and other conduct potentially involving self-dealing, fraud, or improper diversion of estate value. The Debtors are also evaluating whether the misconduct that formed the basis of Silber's and Schulman's criminal convictions may have impacted the Debtors or their creditors.

As a result of this ongoing review, the Independent Fiduciary has directed the Debtors to preserve all related Claims and Causes of Action, including those against Silber, Schulman, entities they owned or controlled, and any other individuals or firms that may have facilitated or benefited from the conduct in question. These individuals and entities are expressly excluded from the Plan's definitions of "Released Parties" and "Exculpated Parties," and therefore are not receiving any release or exculpation under the Plan.

All such Claims and Causes of Action are being preserved under the Plan and, as of the Effective Date, will vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust and may be pursued by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The Creditor Recovery Trustee will serve as the post-effective date fiduciary responsible for investigating and, where appropriate, prosecuting such retained Claims and Causes of Action for the benefit of unsecured creditors.

M. How does this Plan relate to and interact with the CBRM Plan?

This Plan has been developed in coordination with the Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 469] (as amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time, the "CBRM Plan"). Pursuant to the CBRM Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan to assume all liability of the CBRM Debtors and their estates for, and to administer, all CBRM Unsecured Claims.

Under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the Debtors will transfer to the Creditor Recovery Trust (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any) to be administered for and distributed to the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims in accordance with the waterfall provisions of the CBRM Plan.

If the CBRM Plan is not confirmed or does not become effective, the Debtors will implement an alternative, court-approved mechanism to administer and distribute the assets that would otherwise have been transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such mechanism may include establishing a similar trust under the Plan or another structure designed to maximize value for stakeholders.

N. What is the Creditor Recovery Trust?

The Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan for the benefit of Holders of Class 6 Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, Class 7 Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims, and Allowed CBRM Unsecured Claims (as defined in the CBRM Plan).

Pursuant to the Plan, certain assets will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, including: (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, consisting of, to the extent not expended prior to the Effective Date solely with respect to the development and investigation of Claims and Causes of Action held by the Debtors or their Estates to be pursued for the benefit of creditors, Cash in an amount equal to $1,000,000 of the proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility, which shall be funded on the Effective Date; (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any).

In addition, as set forth in the Plan, the Debtors will include in the Plan Supplement a schedule of executory contracts to be assumed by the applicable Debtor and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts"). On the Effective Date, such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts shall be deemed assumed and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and any associated Cure Amounts shall be satisfied in accordance with the Plan and the Confirmation Order.

The Creditor Recovery Trust will be administered by one or more trustees selected by the CBRM Debtors, in consultation with the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, the NOLA DIP Lenders, and Spano Investor LLC ("Spano"). The Creditor Recovery Trustee will be responsible for administering, prosecuting, settling, or monetizing the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and making distributions in accordance with the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The Creditor Recovery Trust is intended to maximize recoveries for unsecured creditors.

O. What is the Wind-Down and who is responsible?

Following the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the Effective Date of the Plan, the Debtors will no longer operate an ongoing business and will instead wind down their affairs. The Wind-Down Officer appointed under the CBRM Plan shall be appointed by the Debtors to oversee the wind down, dissolution, and liquidation of the Estates following the Effective Date in accordance with Article IV.C of the Plan.

P. What is the deadline to vote on the Plan?

The Voting Deadline is October 10, 2025, at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

Q. How do I vote for or against the Plan?

Detailed instructions regarding how to vote on the Plan are contained on the ballots distributed to Holders of Claims and Interests that are entitled to vote on the Plan. For your vote to be counted, you must submit your ballot in accordance with the instructions provided in Article IV.D of this Disclosure Statement. BALLOTS SENT BY FAX OR EMAIL ARE NOT ALLOWED AND WILL NOT BE COUNTED.

R. Why is the Bankruptcy Court holding a Confirmation Hearing?

Section 1128(a) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Bankruptcy Court to hold a hearing on confirmation of the Plan and recognizes that any party in interest may object to Confirmation of the Plan. The Confirmation Hearing will be scheduled by the Bankruptcy Court shortly after the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases. All parties in interest will be served notice of the time, date, and location of the Confirmation Hearing once scheduled.

S. What is the purpose of the Confirmation Hearing?

The confirmation of a plan of reorganization by a bankruptcy court binds the debtor, any issuer of securities under a plan of reorganization, any person acquiring property under a plan of reorganization, any creditor or equity interest holder of a debtor, and any other person or entity as may be ordered by the bankruptcy court in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to certain limited exceptions, the order issued by the bankruptcy court confirming a plan of reorganization discharges a debtor from any debt that arose before the confirmation of such plan of reorganization and provides for the treatment of such debt in accordance with the terms of the confirmed plan of reorganization.

The deadline by which all objections to the Plan must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served so as to be actually received by the appropriate notice parties is October 10, 2025, at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

T. Who do I contact if I have additional questions with respect to this Disclosure Statement or the Plan?

If you have any questions regarding this Disclosure Statement or the Plan, please contact the Debtors' Claims and Noticing Agent, Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global ("Verita"), by submitting an inquiry to https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm/inquiry (with "CBRM Solicitation Inquiry" in the subject line).

Copies of the Plan and the Disclosure Statement: (a) are available on the Debtors' restructuring website, free of charge, at https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm; (b) may be obtained upon request of the Claims and Noticing Agent by writing to CBRM Realty Inc., et al. Ballot Processing, c/o KCC dba Verita Global, 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300, El Segundo, CA 90245 or by submitting an inquiry to https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm/inquiry (with "CBRM Solicitation Inquiry" in the subject line); and (c) will be available for inspection for a fee on the Bankruptcy Court's website at https://www.njb.uscourts.gov.

U. Do the Debtors recommend voting in favor of the Plan?

Yes. The Debtors strongly recommend that all eligible creditors vote to accept the Plan. The Plan contemplates the sale of the NOLA Properties through a competitive, court-supervised Sale Process, the transfer of designated assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust to administer and distribute recoveries, and the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' Estates following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction.

This structure is designed to maximize value and ensure fair and efficient distributions to creditors. The Debtors believe that the Plan is in the best interests of all Holders of Claims and Interests under the circumstances. Alternative paths would likely involve significant delays, increased administrative costs, and lower recoveries. In contrast, the Plan offers a clear, actionable, and creditor-focused approach to monetize remaining assets, preserve and pursue potential litigation claims, and bring these Chapter 11 Cases to a prompt and value-maximizing conclusion for the benefit of all stakeholders.

IV. SOLICITATION AND VOTING PROCEDURES

This Disclosure Statement, which is accompanied by a ballot (the "Ballot") to be used for voting on the Plan, is being distributed to the Holders of Claims in the Classes entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

A. Holders of Claims and Interests Entitled to Vote on the Plan

The Debtors are soliciting votes to accept or reject the Plan only from Holders of Claims and Interests in Classes 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 (the "Voting Classes"). The Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes are Impaired under the Plan and may, in certain circumstances, receive a distribution under the Plan. Accordingly, Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes have the right to vote to accept or reject the Plan. The Debtors are not soliciting votes from Holders of Claims or Interests in Classes 1, 2, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12.

B. Votes Required for Acceptance by a Class

Under the Bankruptcy Code, acceptance by a class of claims requires an affirmative vote of more than one-half in number of total allowed claims that have voted and an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds in dollar amount of the total allowed claims that have voted. Acceptance by a class of interests requires an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds in amount of the total allowed interests that have voted.

If a Class contains Claims or Interests eligible to vote and no Holders of Claims or Interests eligible to vote in such Class vote to accept or reject the Plan, then such Class shall be deemed to have accepted the Plan.

C. Certain Factors to Be Considered Prior to Voting

There are a variety of factors that all Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan should consider prior to voting to accept or reject the Plan. These factors may impact recoveries under the Plan and include, among other things:

- unless otherwise specifically indicated, the financial information contained in the Disclosure Statement has not been audited and is based on an analysis of data available at the time of the preparation of the Plan and the Disclosure Statement;

- although the Debtors believe that the Plan complies with all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors can neither assure such compliance nor that the Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan;

- the Debtors may request Confirmation without the acceptance of the Plan by all Impaired Classes in accordance with section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; and

- any delays of either Confirmation or Consummation could result in, among other things, increased Administrative Claims and Professional Fee Claims.

While these factors could affect distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests under the Plan, the occurrence or impact of such factors may not necessarily affect the validity of the vote of the Voting Classes or necessarily require a re-solicitation of the votes of Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes pursuant to section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code.

For a further discussion of risk factors, please refer to "Risk Factors" described in Article X of this Disclosure Statement.

D. Solicitation Procedures

The following materials constitute the solicitation package (collectively, the "Solicitation Package") distributed to Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes:

- notice of the Confirmation Hearing;
- a customized paper Ballot;
- the Disclosure Statement (including the Plan and all exhibits) and the Disclosure Statement Order; and
- any other materials ordered by the Bankruptcy Court to be included as part of the Solicitation Package.

V. OVERVIEW OF THE COMPANY'S OPERATIONS

A. The Debtors' Business Operations

The Debtors are part of a larger real estate portfolio formed by real estate investor Moshe "Mark" Silber and certain affiliated parties (the "Crown Capital Portfolio"). The Crown Capital Portfolio holds dozens of multifamily housing projects across the United States, including the NOLA Properties, and has been historically funded, at least in part, by the federal government's housing assistance programs, such as Section 8.

Among the assets in the Crown Capital Portfolio are the NOLA Properties. These properties serve low-income tenants and participate in various government-supported housing programs. The NOLA Properties serve as a critical source of affordable housing for low-income residents in the New Orleans community. Rent payments from tenants (including subsidies paid directly by government programs) represent the Debtors' primary source of revenue. The Debtors do not have employees of their own and instead rely on third-party professionals to manage and operate the NOLA Properties.

B. Property Management and Operations

Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors engaged Lynd Management to serve as the Property Manager for the NOLA Properties, pursuant to certain Amended and Restated Property Management Agreements dated as of September 16, 2019. Lynd Management provides on-site personnel and oversees all day-to-day property-level functions, including leasing, maintenance, compliance with regulatory obligations, and the coordination of services for residents.

In addition, LAGSP serves as asset manager for the Debtors pursuant to that certain Asset Management Agreement dated as of September 19, 2024. LAGSP provides strategic oversight of the NOLA Properties' operations, ensures compliance with financing and regulatory obligations, and assists in capital planning and financial reporting.

All rent and subsidy collections are deposited into operating accounts controlled by the Debtors. In the ordinary course, these funds are used to pay property-level operating expenses, taxes, insurance, and debt service obligations. Prior to the Petition Date, limited liquidity, capital needs, and the legacy deferred maintenance burden impaired the Debtors' ability to stabilize operations and maintain compliance with regulatory standards.

C. Founder Misconduct and Breakdown in Governance

Prior to the Petition Date, the Crown Capital Portfolio raised hundreds of millions of dollars of financing, including (i) over $200 million from the sale of bonds issued by Crown Capital and guaranteed by CBRM (the "Notes") and (ii) approximately $450 million of property-level mortgage loans provided by an array of different financing sources.

Moshe "Mark" Silber and certain of his co-investors, including Frederick Schulman, have been targets of extensive investigations by the federal government and certain state authorities. On April 17, 2024, Silber entered into a plea agreement in connection with defrauding the federal government in connection with an affordable housing project (which does not have a presently-identified connection to the Debtors or their past or present activities) (the "Silber Prosecution-Related Property"). The plea agreement was entered into with the Fraud Section of the Department of Justice and the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey for conspiracy to commit wire fraud affecting an institution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 371. Schulman also entered into a plea agreement around the same time. Silber was sentenced to 30 months in prison and Schuman was sentenced to 12 months and one day in prison, to be followed by nine months of home confinement. Both have agreed to pay restitution.

A considerable share of the Debtors' distress arises from the fact that many, if not all, of the properties of the Debtors and their affiliates are likely worth much less today than the appraised values which supported the issuance of the Notes and certain of the property-level mortgage loans. Although the reasons for this depreciation remain the subject of active investigation, it may be explained by three factors alone or in combination. First, commencing in 2023, if not earlier, perhaps in part or in whole due to the distraction of the government investigations and eventual prosecution, Silber and Schulman neglected the management of the Crown Capital Portfolio, causing numerous properties or property-holding Debtors or their affiliates to fall into operational and/or physical disarray, jeopardize their eligibility for affordable housing programs which pay or subsidize all or most of the rent rolls, suffer declining occupancy rates, default on their obligations under their respective loan agreements, allow property-level mortgage loans to mature, fail to defend lawsuits (including the Acquiom litigation discussed infra) and become subject to default judgments, and/or become subject to receivership proceedings. Second, the government successfully prosecuted Silber and Schulman in connection with the Silber Prosecution-Related Property for using false or misleading property-level information to obtain inflated appraisals for certain properties, obtaining excessive financing, and then siphoning the surplusage out of Crown Capital. The Debtors are investigating what relevance, if any, this misconduct has to them. Third, many of the properties of the Debtors and their affiliates were valued for the purposes of the issuance of the Notes and some of the property-level mortgages in a period of time — 2021 and 2022 — when multi-family projects such as the Debtors' were at all-time high values in part due to low interest rates and high investor demand during and after the COVID pandemic — and those properties would likely be worth less today even in the absence of management negligence or intentional misconduct.

D. Appointment of Independent Fiduciary

Once Silber's plea became public, Silber, as a convicted felon, was effectively disqualified from continuing to manage the Crown Capital Portfolio. The Crown Capital Portfolio's stakeholders, including investors who purchased the Notes (the "Noteholders"), expressed concern about these developments because the Crown Capital Portfolio's value supported the payment of principal and interest under the Notes.

Following discussions between Mr. Silber's counsel and the Noteholders' counsel (Faegre Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP) and financial advisers (at the time, IslandDundon), on August 29, 2024, the parties entered into a forbearance agreement (the "Forbearance Agreement"). The Forbearance Agreement addressed various matters involving pending defaults under the Notes and Mr. Silber's go-forward involvement with the portfolio and established a process to ensure the Crown Capital Portfolio had sufficient fiduciary oversight. The Forbearance Agreement, among other things, required Mr. Silber to appoint an independent fiduciary acceptable to the Noteholders as the sole director of CBRM and Crown Capital and provide that individual with an irrevocable proxy for so long as the obligations under the Forbearance Agreement remained pending.

Thereafter, the Noteholders' advisors identified numerous potential candidates to serve as independent fiduciary as required by the Forbearance Agreement. On September 26, 2024, the bondholders party to the Forbearance Agreement consented to the appointment of Ms. Elizabeth A. LaPuma—a restructuring professional who for over 20 years has worked as an investment banker and corporate director, including for companies in distress—as the Independent Fiduciary for CBRM and Crown Capital. Since that time, Ms. LaPuma has acted in a fiduciary capacity for those entities and the dozens of other entities directly or indirectly owned by CBRM, including the Debtors.

E. Factors Precipitating the Debtors' Chapter 11 Filings

Following her appointment, the Independent Fiduciary immediately got to work to maximize the value of the portfolio. The Independent Fiduciary ordered a review of all litigation involving the portfolio, including the systematic identification of defaults, lawsuits, and judgments entered against the properties. In addition, the Independent Fiduciary, with the assistance of entities within Lynd Management, began the process of ensuring that each property owned by the portfolio had sufficient staffing and other resources, with the goal of ensuring that residents had safe, clean homes.

The Independent Fiduciary also took steps to ensure that she and the portfolio had the internal resources to maximize value for all stakeholders. Among other things, she obtained director and officer insurance (which the Crown Capital Portfolio inexplicably never obtained prior to the Independent Fiduciary's appointment) to enable her to fulfill her duties. The Independent Fiduciary also began providing periodic updates to the Noteholder advisers and steering committee (including weekly calls), engaged an investment advisor to seek refinancing and new capital opportunities for certain portfolio properties, and engaged with other creditors.

These efforts, however, required a pause in any negative enforcement actions contemplated by creditors of the Crown Capital Portfolio, including the Noteholders. Thus, following her appointment, the Independent Fiduciary worked constructively with her advisors and the Noteholders' advisors to extend the Forbearance Agreement in order to allow additional time to restructure the portfolio in a manner which would maximize value for all stakeholders. The Noteholders agreed to extend the Forbearance Agreement through April 14, 2025. However, prior to the expiration of that extension, the Noteholders informed the Independent Fiduciary's advisors that they would not extend the Forbearance Agreement any further.

Around the same time, one of the Debtors' judgment creditors similarly expressed its intent to execute on the Debtors' assets. Specifically, in June 2022, Mr. Silber purportedly entered into that certain Credit Agreement, dated June 2, 2022, between UBS O'Connor LLC, as lender ("UBS"), and Acquiom Agency Services LLC ("Acquiom"), as administrative agent (the "Silber Credit Agreement"). The Silber Credit Agreement was purportedly guaranteed by, among others, CBRM, and was purportedly secured by a pledge by CBRM of its equity in Crown Capital. On March 6, 2024, Acquiom sent a letter to Mr. Silber asserting that a default had occurred under the Silber Credit Agreement resulting from Mr. Silber's failure to timely make certain interest payments which Acquiom asserted were properly due under the Silber Credit Agreement. On May 2, 2024, after failing to receive a response to its letter, Acquiom filed a lawsuit against, among others, Silber and CBRM (the "UBS Defendants") to recover the total aggregate principal balance under the Silber Credit Agreement in a suit captioned Acquiom Agency Services LLC v. Fox Capital LLC et. al., Index No. 652265/2024, Supreme Court of the State of New York County of New York, Commercial Division Part 45 (May 2, 2024).

On August 2, 2024, the Supreme Court of the State of New York (the "New York Court") granted Acquiom's summary judgment motion and required that Silber repay the amounts outstanding under the Silber Credit Agreement in an amount totaling $19,185,000 plus interest. On September 5, 2024, the New York Court entered a judgment against the UBS Defendants in the amount of $21,020,452.60. On September 9, 2024, Acquiom assigned the right to collect on this judgment to Spano. After the assignment, on December 14, 2024, the New York Court entered a property execution order requiring the UBS Defendants to satisfy the judgment and authorizing the Spano to foreclose and collect upon certain assets in satisfaction of its judgment, including CBRM's right, title, and interest in Crown Capital. The Rockland County sheriff was scheduled to conduct a sheriff's sale of certain assets of CBRM, including its equity interest in Crown Capital, on Thursday, May 22, 2025. The sheriff's sale, had it proceeded, would have allowed a prepetition creditor to exercise remedies against CBRM's interest in Crown Capital, the entity overseen by the Independent Fiduciary (a) that issued the Notes, (b) holds significant potential claims and causes of action against Silber and other affiliates, and (c) holds CBRM's interests in the Crown Capital Portfolio. The sheriff's sale, if it had proceeded, would have, therefore, allowed a single prepetition judgment creditor receive a recovery at the expense of other creditors (particularly the Noteholders). The Debtors commenced these Chapter 11 Cases to maximize value for all of CBRM's creditors.

F. The Debtors' Prepetition Secured Indebtedness

As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were obligated under several prepetition secured credit facilities related to the NOLA Properties. CKD Funding is the holder of first-priority lien obligations arising under two loan facilities (together, the "Prepetition First Lien Loans"). The first facility originated with DH1, which made a loan to Chenault on or about April 4, 2024. This loan was initially in the principal amount of $7.5 million, later increased to $10 million by amendment on the same day, and subsequently increased to $25 million pursuant to a second amendment dated July 5, 2024 (the "DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan"). The loan was secured by a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Lease and Rents and Security Agreement dated April 4, 2024, encumbering Carmel Brook Apartments (the "DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage"). On March 10, 2025, DH1 assigned its rights under the DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan and DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage to CKD Funding, and the assignment was recorded in the Parish of Orleans, Louisiana, on March 12, 2025.

The second facility was made by CKD Funding directly to Windrun, Lakewind, and Copper Creek on or about July 8, 2024, in the principal amount of up to $10 million. This loan was secured by a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents and Security Agreement dated July 8, 2024, covering Carmel Spring Apartments, Laguna Reserve Apartments, and Laguna Creek Apartments. Together, the obligations under these two facilities comprise the Prepetition First Lien Loans. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were liable to CKD Funding in an amount not less than $8,961,204, secured by valid, perfected first-priority liens on substantially all of their assets.

In addition, CKD Funding acquired a junior loan originally made by Akiri Funds, LLC ("Akiri") to Chenault Creek on or about January 21, 2024, in the original principal amount of $3,635,475. That loan was amended and restated on March 12, 2024, to reflect a revised principal amount of $4,060,875.87 (the "Akiri Loan"), and was secured by a Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents, and Security Agreement dated March 13, 2024 (the "Akiri Mortgage"). The Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage were expressly subordinated to the DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan and DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage pursuant to a Subordination and Intercreditor Agreement dated April 4, 2024. Akiri sold and assigned the Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage to DH1 on September 6, 2024, who ultimately assigned the Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage to CKD Funding as part of the same March 2025 assignment from DH1 CKD Funding.

CKD Penn, LLC holds a junior mortgage on each of the NOLA Properties pursuant to a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and rents and Security Agreement dated August 16, 2024, which secures its guaranty of certain obligations owed by non-debtor affiliates of the Debtors.

Finally, Lakewind granted a mortgage on Laguna Reserve Apartments in favor of Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge Ltd. ("CIF") to secure a $4.5 million credit facility originally extended by CIF to Laguna Reserve pursuant to a Credit Agreement dated April 25, 2023. The mortgage was granted following a default by Laguna Reserve and was recorded on December 13, 2024. The CIF Lakewind Mortgage (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) is recognized by the Debtors, the Independent Fiduciary, CKD Funding, and CKD Penn as a valid, properly perfected lien, but only to the extent and subject to the conditions set forth in the NOLA DIP Order. Specifically, the CIF Lakewind Mortgage is junior to the Prepetition First Priority Liens (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) and the CKD Penn Junior Liens (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) and is recognized solely in accordance with the stipulations and reservations of rights contained in the NOLA DIP Order.

G. Prepetition Unsecured Obligations

As of the Petition Date, the Debtors' prepetition unsecured indebtedness consisted of: (a) the Notes, which are a series of three bond issuances, each made under a purported exemption from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, each of which is structured as a series of economically-identical bilateral agreements between the issuer and guarantor thereof, on the one hand, and each note purchaser (principally consisting of insurance companies and wealth management firms), on the other hand, and none of which possesses a trust indenture nor indenture trustee; (b) operating trade obligations; and (c) obligations to Lynd Management, LAGSP, and providers of professional services to or the payment of which was guaranteed by the Debtors.

VI. OVERVIEW OF THE CHAPTER 11 CASES

A. Commencement of Chapter 11 Cases

On the Petition Date, the Debtors commenced the Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors continue to manage their properties and operate their businesses as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. Joint Administration of the Chapter 11 Cases

On May 20, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking joint administration of their Chapter 11 Cases for procedural purposes only [Docket No. 7]. On May 27, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order granting the motion and directing that the cases be jointly administered under the lead case, In re CBRM Realty Inc., Case No. 25-15343 [Docket No. 51].

C. Complex Chapter 11 Case Designation and Procedures

On May 20, 2025, the Debtors submitted an application to designate the Chapter 11 Cases as complex Chapter 11 cases [Docket No. 10]. On May 28, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order granting the designation [Docket No. 57]. Subsequently, on June 9, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order implementing the Chapter 11 Complex Case Procedures [Docket No. 122].

D. Cash Management System

On May 23, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking authority to continue using their existing cash management system, maintain their existing bank accounts and business forms, honor related obligations in the ordinary course of business, and continue conducting intercompany transactions. The motion also requested that postpetition intercompany balances be granted superpriority administrative expense status pursuant to sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 30].

On May 28, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an interim order approving the requested relief on an interim basis [Docket No. 60]. Following a final hearing, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order on June 18, 2025, authorizing the Debtors to continue operating their cash management system and related practices on a final basis [Docket No. 165]. Pursuant to the final order, the Debtors were authorized to maintain their prepetition cash management structure, including all bank accounts and intercompany funding arrangements, and to continue using their existing checks and business forms, provided that they include a "Debtor in Possession" designation.

E. Authorization of Tenant Reimbursement and Business Operations

On May 23, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking authority to continue to operate their businesses in the ordinary course, including authority to pay certain prepetition obligations that are essential to ongoing operations and necessary to preserve the value of the estates [Docket No. 34] (the "Ordinary Course Motion"). This relief was critical to maintaining stable operations during the early stages of the Chapter 11 Cases and ensuring continuity of services across the Debtors' real estate portfolio.

Included within the scope of the Ordinary Course Motion was authorization for the Debtors to honor prepetition obligations to tenants, including obligations related to tenant reimbursements. Many of the Debtors' commercial leases contain provisions requiring the landlords to reimburse tenants for specific capital expenditures or tenant improvements, subject to defined lease terms and conditions. These reimbursements, while prepetition in origin, were viewed as essential to maintaining positive tenant relationships, avoiding litigation, and preserving the ongoing viability of tenancy arrangements that are foundational to the Debtors' revenue stream.

On June 18, 2025, following notice and a hearing, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order granting the Debtors authority to make tenant reimbursement payments consistent with the terms of applicable leases, and to continue administering and satisfying those obligations on a go-forward basis without the need for further Court approval [Docket No. 166]. On June 27, 2025, the Court entered a final order granting the Debtors authority to continue their prepetition business operations, policies, and practices, including the authorization to pay taxes and fees, vendor claims, and insurance obligations in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis [Docket No. 226].

F. Retention of Chapter 11 Professionals

The Debtors have obtained authority to retain various professionals to assist them in carrying out their duties under the Bankruptcy Code during these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors' professionals include: (i) White & Case LLP as bankruptcy counsel; (ii) Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey special counsel; and (iii) Verita as claims and noticing agent and administrative agent. In addition, the Debtors have filed applications to retain: (i) IslandDundon Partners LLC as restructuring advisor and investment banker; (ii)

Hilco Real Estate, LLC, as real estate advisor for the Kelly Hamilton Property (as defined below) and the NOLA Properties; and (iii) Larry G. Schedler & Associates, Inc.., as real estate broker for the NOLA Properties. The Debtors may seek to retain additional professionals.

G. DIP Financing Motion

On May 28, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 61] seeking authority to obtain two senior secured superpriority debtor-in-possession ("DIP") financing facilities from the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and the NOLA DIP Lenders, respectively.

On June 19, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court approved the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility on a final basis [Docket No. 178] (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Order"). Pursuant to the Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement, dated June 23, 2025, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility provides up to $9,705,162 in postpetition financing to the Debtors. The proceeds are to be used, among other things, to pay accrued and unpaid prepetition obligations to the prior secured lender, fund working capital, pay administrative and professional expenses in these Chapter 11 Cases, and preserve the value of low-income, HUD-subsidized multifamily housing owned by the Debtors.

The Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility is secured by first-priority, priming liens on substantially all assets of the Debtors (excluding certain litigation trust assets) and includes superpriority administrative expense claims under section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The facility provides that the obligations owed to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender are subject only to a defined Carve-Out and a limited reservation of rights respecting the Purported Spano Judgment Lien (as defined in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order).

On July 2, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court approved the NOLA DIP Facility on a final basis [Docket No. 251] (the "NOLA DIP Order"). Pursuant to the Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement, the NOLA DIP Facility provides for up to $17,422,728 in postpetition financing to Debtors Crown Capital, RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Windrun LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, and RH Lakewind East LLC. Of that amount, approximately $8,461,524 constitutes new money loans, with the remaining $8,961,204 representing a roll-up of obligations under the prepetition first lien loan facilities. The proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility are to be used to fund working capital, pay administrative and professional expenses in these Chapter 11 Cases, satisfy critical prepetition obligations, and preserve and stabilize the value of the NOLA Properties.

The NOLA DIP Facility is secured by first-priority, priming liens and includes superpriority administrative expense claims under section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The obligations under the NOLA DIP Facility are subject only to a defined Carve-Out and are governed by a budget and reporting protocol similar to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility. The final DIP order also provides for the roll-up of prepetition debt upon entry of the final order, without a novation or impairment of existing liens, and reserves certain rights with respect to potential litigation trust assets. For the avoidance of doubt, except to the extent that the NOLA DIP Facility has been indefeasibly repaid in full in Cash or the NOLA DIP Lenders and the Independent Fiduciary otherwise agree in writing, the Plan does not modify or otherwise affect any obligations of the Debtors arising under or related to the NOLA DIP Facility.

H. Utilities Motion

On June 10, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking entry of interim and final orders to establish adequate assurance procedures and to prevent utility companies from altering, refusing, or discontinuing service due to the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases [Docket No. 125] (the "Utilities Motion"). The Utilities Motion was critical to ensuring uninterrupted utility services to the Debtors' affordable housing projects across multiple states. The Debtors proposed to deposit approximately $67,025 into a segregated account as adequate assurance for utility providers, in addition to maintaining their historical payment practices.

On July 10, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order granting the relief requested in the Utilities Motion [Docket No. 279].

I. Lynd Management and LAGSP Contract Assumption

On June 11, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 128] seeking authority to assume critical prepetition property management and staffing contracts with Lynd Management and LAGSP, which provided essential onsite and centralized services to the Debtors' multifamily housing portfolio. The Debtors determined that assumption of these contracts was necessary to preserve value and maintain operational stability, particularly given Lynd Management and LAGSP's provision of critical property management and asset management services that are essential to maintaining compliance with regulatory requirements (including HUD requirements) and safeguarding resident health and safety. Continued engagement of Lynd Management and LAGSP was also integral to preserving the value of the Kelly Hamilton Property and the NOLA Properties and ensuring uninterrupted, compliant operations throughout the chapter 11 process.

On June 18, 2025, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 171] authorizing assumption of the contracts. In connection with that assumption, the Debtors agreed to pay a total cure amount of $953,000 to Lynd Management and LAGSP. Of that amount, $328,000 was payable in cash upon entry of the order, with the remaining $625,000 to be treated as an allowed administrative expense under sections 365(b) and 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and paid in accordance with the Plan's treatment of General Administrative Claims.

This arrangement provided immediate liquidity to Lynd Management and LAGSP and preserved its continued postpetition services while deferring the balance of the cure costs in a manner that aligned with the Debtors' liquidity constraints. The assumption of the Lynd Management and LAGSP contracts helped ensure continuity in essential property operations while supporting the Debtors' broader restructuring efforts.

J. Schedules and Statements and Claims Bar Dates

On June 27, 2025, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 227] approving the establishment of deadlines for filing proofs of claim. The order established: (i) 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on July 28, 2025, as the general bar date for all non-governmental creditors to file proofs of claim against the Debtors (the "Claims Bar Date"); (ii) 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on November 17, 2025, as the deadline for governmental units to file claims (the "Governmental Bar Date"); (iii) the later of (a) the Claims or Governmental Bar Date, as applicable, or (b) 30 days after entry of an order authorizing rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease, as the deadline for claims arising from such rejection (the "Rejection Damages Bar Date"); and (iv) the later of (a) the Claims or Governmental Bar Date, as applicable, or (b) 21 days following service of an amendment to a Debtor's Schedules, as the deadline for affected creditors to file claims in response (the "Amended Schedules Bar Date").

The Debtors intend to serve all required Bar Date Notices promptly upon entry of the Bar Date Order and have engaged Verita to facilitate notice and claims administration.

On June 24, 2025, the Debtors filed their Schedules of Assets and Liabilities and Statements of Financial Affairs (the "Schedules and Statements") pursuant to section 521 of the Bankruptcy Code. These filings included individual Schedules and Statements for Chenault, Windrun, Copper Creek, Lakewind, RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, and RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC [Docket Nos. 192-197].[5] The Schedules and Statements were prepared based on information available to the Debtors as of the Petition Date and are subject to further amendment or supplementation as discovery continues. Laguna Reserve anticipates filing its Schedules and Statements within the time permitted under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(c).

K. Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 11 Case of RH Lakewind East LLC

On June 1, 2025, CIF filed a motion to dismiss the Chapter 11 case of Lakewind pursuant to sections 1112(b) and 305(a) of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 87]. CIF alleged that Lakewind's bankruptcy petition was not filed in good faith and that dismissal was warranted based on purported bad faith and lack of legitimate reorganization purpose.

Following negotiations among the Debtors, CIF, and other stakeholders, and in connection with the settlement embodied in the NOLA DIP Order, CIF agreed to withdraw the motion with prejudice. Pursuant to paragraph 9 of the NOLA DIP Order, entry of that order constituted CIF's agreement to permanently withdraw its motion to dismiss and to waive further litigation or objection concerning the subject matter of that motion. Accordingly, the motion to dismiss was deemed withdrawn with prejudice upon entry of the NOLA DIP Order.

L. Adversary Proceeding Commenced by Cleveland International Fund

On June 25, 2025, CIF commenced the adversary proceeding styled Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge Ltd. and Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC v. CKD Funding, LLC and CKD Investor Penn LLC, Adv. Proc. No. 25-01269, asserting claims related to the financing structure of certain Crown Capital Portfolio entities.

The Debtors and other stakeholders disputed CIF's standing to prosecute the claims asserted in the adversary proceeding. Before any responsive pleadings were filed, CIF voluntarily dismissed the adversary proceeding on the basis that it lacked standing to pursue the asserted claims.

Thereafter, as part of the settlement embodied in the NOLA DIP Order, CIF agreed to waive and release any further challenges related to the subject matter of the adversary proceeding. Pursuant to paragraph 9 of the NOLA DIP Order, CIF also agreed not to initiate or pursue further litigation or objections concerning the Debtors' governance structure or restructuring process to the extent addressed in the adversary proceeding or resolved in connection with the settlement.

M. Retention and Compensation of Professionals

On July 8, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order Authorizing Employment and Payment of Professionals Utilized in the Ordinary Course of Business [Docket No. 270] (the "Ordinary Course Professionals Motion"). Pursuant to the Ordinary Course Professionals Motion, the Debtors sought authority to retain and compensate certain professionals utilized in the ordinary course of business without the need to file individual retention applications for each such professional, subject to certain procedures and monthly payment caps. On July 24, 2025, the Court entered an order granting the relief requested in the Ordinary Course Professionals Motion [Docket No. 270].

Also on July 8, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Administrative Fee Order Establishing Procedures for the Allowance and Payment of Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of

[5] The Schedules for Chenault Creek, Copper Creek, Lakewind, and Windrun were amended on July 31, 2025 [Docket Nos. 341-344] to reflect updates to Schedule E/F. Additional amendments may be made as necessary.

Expenses of Professionals Retained by Order of the Court [Docket No. 272] (the "Interim Compensation Motion"). The Interim Compensation Motion requested approval of procedures for the interim allowance and payment of fees and reimbursement of expenses of professionals retained pursuant to sections 327 and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code. On July 24, 2025, the Court entered an order granting the relief requested in the Interim Compensation Motion [Docket No. 324].

N. The CBRM Plan

On June 30, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed the initial CBRM Plan [Docket No. 246] and related disclosure statement [Docket No. 247] (the "CBRM Disclosure Statement"), in accordance with milestones set forth in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order.

On July 11, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed a motion seeking approval of procedures for the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Apartments, a multifamily affordable housing complex located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (the "Kelly Hamilton Property"), including a proposed stalking horse purchase agreement and related bid protections [Docket No. 281] (the "Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion"). That same day, the CBRM Debtors filed a motion seeking conditional approval of the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement and associated voting and solicitation procedures (the "Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion") [Docket No. 283].

On July 24, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed revised versions of the CBRM Plan and CBRM Disclosure Statement [Docket Nos. 320, 321], and the Bankruptcy Court held a hearing to consider approval of both the Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion and the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion. The Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the relief sought in the Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion [Docket No. 325] that same day, and on August 1, 2025, entered an order approving the revised relief requested in the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion [Docket No. 347], following submission of updated solicitation documents filed on July 30, 2025 and August 5, 2025, including the CBRM Disclosure Statement and CBRM Plan [Docket Nos. 339, 340, 360].

The bid deadline was August 14, 2025, and no additional qualified bids were received. Accordingly, the auction scheduled for August 18, 2025 will not be held. On August 15, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed a notice designating the stalking horse purchaser as the successful bidder [Docket No. 383]. Under the CBRM Plan, the Kelly Hamilton Property will be sold to the stalking horse purchaser, subject to Bankruptcy Court approval at the confirmation hearing set for September 4, 2025.

Distributions under the CBRM Plan will be funded from, among other sources, the proceeds of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction (as defined in the CBRM Plan) and the Creditor Recovery Trust. The CBRM Debtors are currently soliciting votes on the CBRM Plan, with a voting deadline of August 26, 2025.

O. Disputed Spano CBRM Claim and Spano Adversary Proceeding

As described in greater detail above, Acquiom obtained a prepetition judgment against CBRM in connection with guarantees provided under the Silber Credit Agreement, which judgment was subsequently assigned to Spano. That judgment included, among other actions, a scheduled sheriff's sale of CBRM's equity interests in Crown Capital that was stayed by the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases.

On July 15, 2025, Spano filed a proof of claim against CBRM (Claim No. 4), asserting a secured claim in the amount of approximately $21.1 million based on the prepetition judgment and a purported lien. In response, on July 18, 2025, CBRM filed a complaint in the Bankruptcy Court against Spano and Acquiom, initiating an adversary proceeding captioned CBRM Realty Inc. v. Spano Investor LLC (In re CBRM Realty Inc.), Adv. Pro. No. 25-01295, Case No. 25-15343 (Bankr. D.N.J. July 18, 2025) (the "Spano Adversary Proceeding") [Adv. Dkt. No. 1] (the "Complaint").

The Complaint alleges, among other things, that in June 2022, Mr. Silber entered into a credit agreement with Acquiom and certain lenders and subsequently received an aggregate amount of $19 million of loan proceeds prior to November 2023. In November 2023, Mr. Silber caused CBRM to become a guarantor under the credit agreement via an amendment to the governing guaranty agreement. Mr. Silber also received an additional $7.75 million of loan proceeds under the credit agreement. In May 2025, Acquiom filed suit against the guarantors in New York state court under the relevant loan documents. On September 5, 2024, Acquiom received a judgment against the guarantors, including CBRM, in the amount of approximately $21 million. Acquiom subsequently assigned the judgment to Spano. On or around December 13, 2024, Spano delivered a property execution letter to the Rockland County Sheriff, resulting in a purported judgment lien on CBRM's property. The corresponding levy was served on CBRM's counsel, White & Case LLP, on January 15, 2025. The Complaint alleges that the levy expired 90 days after service if CBRM's property was not transferred to the sheriff—and that no such transfer occurred.

The Complaint seeks to avoid CBRM's guaranty as a constructively fraudulent transfer pursuant to sections 544 and 548 of the Bankruptcy Code and to avoid the purported judgment lien as unperfected as of the Petition Date under section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition, the Complaint seeks disallowance of Spano's proof of claim in its entirety or, in the alternative, a determination that Spano holds only an unsecured claim.

The Complaint asserts five causes of action, including: (i) avoidance and recovery of the guaranty as a constructively fraudulent transfer under sections 544, 548, 550, and 551, against Spano and Acquiom; (ii) avoidance and recovery of the purported lien under sections 544, 550, and 551, against Spano and Acquiom; (iii) disallowance of the defendants' claims under section 502(d), against Spano and Acquiom; (iv) disallowance of Spano's claim under section 502(b), against Spano; and (v) recharacterization and/or disallowance of Spano's claim as unsecured under sections 502 and 506, against Spano.

Spano disputes all of the allegations asserted in the Spano Adversary Proceeding and has expressly reserved all rights, claims, and defenses in connection therewith.

On July 30, 2025, the Debtors, Spano, and Acquiom executed the Stipulation and Agreed Order Among the Debtors, Spano Investor LLC, and Acquiom Agency Services LLC to Stay Adversary Proceeding and Resolve Certain Claims Treatment Issues, which was filed with the Bankruptcy Court and was entered on July 31, 2025 [Docket No. 345] (the "Spano Stipulation"). Pursuant to the Spano Stipulation, the Spano CBRM Claim (as defined in the CBRM Plan) shall be deemed Allowed in the amount of $21,118,881.01 solely for voting purposes under section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, without prejudice to Spano's position that its Claim is secured and supported by valid, enforceable liens and security interests. The CBRM Plan was amended to provide for a separate class for the Spano CBRM Claim, and Spano has agreed to vote to accept the CBRM Plan in that class. The Spano Stipulation expressly reserves all parties' rights with respect to the classification, allowability, priority, and secured status of the Spano CBRM Claim.

The Spano Adversary Proceeding and related claim objections have been stayed in their entirety and may resume only if, after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee makes a good-faith determination that value is available for distribution to creditors of CBRM after the payment in full of all Allowed Claims against CBRM's subsidiaries. Spano will receive thirty (30) days' advance written notice of such determination and may file an objection with the Bankruptcy Court within thirty (30) days of receiving such notice. If the Creditor Recovery Trustee determines no such value is available, the Spano Adversary Proceeding shall be dismissed with prejudice. If value is determined to be available, the Spano Adversary Proceeding shall resume in accordance with a mutually agreed-upon schedule, unless otherwise resolved.

On August 7, 2025, the Debtors filed the Notice of Entry of Stipulation and Agreed Order Among the Debtors, Spano Investor LLC, and Acquiom Agency Services LLC to Stay Adversary Proceeding and Resolve Certain Claims Treatment Issues [Adv. Dkt. No. 5].

P. Pleadings Relating to Moshe (Mark) Silber

On July 18, 2025, Mr. Silber, acting pro se, filed the Motion of Party in Interest Moshe ("Mark") Silber for Issuance of a Subpoena Duces Tecum Pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004(C) and 9016 [Docket No. 298] (the "Silber Rule 2004 Motion") for an order compelling discovery under Rule 2004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure from Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, and LAGSP. The Silber Rule 2004 Motion seeks records from Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, and LAGSP relating to a range of topics relating to the Debtors and non-Debtor affiliates, as well as all communications regarding these topics between or among Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, LAGSP, and IslandDundon LLC. The hearing on the Silber Rule 2004 Motion was originally scheduled for August 14, 2025.

On July 25, 2025, Mr. Silber, acting pro se, filed the Motion of Party in Interest Moshe ("Mark") Silber for Appointment of an Equity Security Holders Committee or, in the Alternative, Appointment of Counsel [Docket No. 348] (the "Silber Equity Committee Motion") seeking appointment of an equity committee in these Chapter 11 Cases or, in the alternative, the appointment of counsel for Mr. Silber pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(1). Upon the filing of the Silber Equity Committee Motion, the Court adjourned the hearing on the Silber Rule 2004 Motion to August 21, 2025, to hear both motions on the same day.

On July 29, 2025, the Debtors served a Subpoena for Rule 2004 Examination on Mr. Silber, which had a response deadline of August 15, 2025. See Notice of Service of Subpoena Pursuant to L.R. 2004-1 [Docket No. 337].

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed objections to the Silber Rule 2004 Motion [Docket No. 374] and the Silber Equity Committee Motion [Docket No. 375]. The Debtors have offered to produce limited documents responsive to Mr. Silber's proposed requests.

On August 14, 2025, the U.S. Trustee also objected to the Silber Equity Committee Motion. Docket No. 377.

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 378] (the "Motion for Leave") seeking entry of an order granting the Debtors leave to depose Mr. Silber, who is currently confined in prison, at the site of his incarceration between August 25, 2025, and August 29, 2025. The Motion for Leave will be heard on August 21, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Objection to Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230 of Moshe Mark Silber [Docket No. 372] (the "Silber Claim Objection") and Declaration of Matthew Dundon, Principal of IslandDundon LLC, in Support of the Debtors' Objection to Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230 of Moshe Mark Silber [Docket No. 373], seeking entry of an order disallowing the three Proofs of Claim filed by Mr. Silber (i.e., Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230) (collectively, the "Silber Claims"). Each of the Silber Claims asserts a purported unsecured claim of $3,989,175.00 for tax liabilities allegedly arising from the sale of a property. Proof of Claim No. 216 was superseded by a later filing and Proof of Claim No. 230 is duplicative. As to the remaining Proof of Claim No. 229, Mr. Silber did not attach sufficient support to the claim to constitute prima facie validity of a claim and the claim seeks amounts for which the Debtors are not liable. Accordingly, the Debtors seek to disallow the Silber Claims in their entirety to avoid duplicative or unwarranted recoveries. A hearing to consider the Silber Claim Objection is set for September 22, 2025, at 11:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

Q. NOLA Bidding Procedures

On July 30, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 350] seeking entry of the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order approving bidding procedures (the "NOLA Bidding Procedures")[6] in connection with a potential sale of one or more of the NOLA Properties. Such sale may be implemented either under a chapter 11 plan or as a standalone transaction pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. The NOLA Bidding Procedures are intended to facilitate a competitive and value-maximizing process through which interested parties may submit bids to acquire one or more of the NOLA Properties. The process ensures that all qualified bids are solicited, reviewed, and evaluated in a manner consistent with the milestones and confirmation timeline outlined in this Disclosure Statement and the associated solicitation procedures. To date, the Debtors have not entered into a stalking horse agreement with a stalking horse bidder for the NOLA Properties, and the Debtors may consider proposals for one or more of the NOLA Properties.

The Court entered the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order on August 15, 2025 [Docket No. 382]. Pursuant to the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order, the Bid Deadline is September 11, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). If one or more Qualifying Bids are received, the Debtors will conduct an auction on September 15, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Debtors will file and serve a notice of any Successful Bidder and Back-Up Bidder no later than September 16, 2025. To the extent applicable, the hearing to consider approval of a sale pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code is scheduled for September 22, 2025 at 11:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). Alternatively, if the potential sale is to be consummated through the Plan, the confirmation and sale hearing is scheduled for October 22, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

R. Chapter 11 Filing for Laguna Reserve

Following the Petition Date, Debtors' counsel, in coordination with LAGSP, determined that Lakewind is a subsidiary of Laguna Reserve and that Debtor Crown Capital Holdings LLC owns 100% of the equity interests in Laguna Reserve. Accordingly, on August 17, 2025, the Debtors filed a voluntary petition under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code for Laguna Reserve. Concurrently therewith, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for an Order (A) Applying Certain Orders in Initial Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases to Debtor Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC and (B) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 387] (the "Omnibus First Day Motion"). The Omnibus First Day Motion seeks to apply to Laguna Reserve's chapter 11 case certain orders previously entered in the chapter 11 cases, in order to avoid duplicative filings, reduce administrative burdens on the Bankruptcy Court and parties in interest, and streamline case administration.

VII. SUMMARY OF THE MATERIAL TERMS OF THE PLAN

The Debtors are conducting the sale process in accordance with the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order.

No stalking horse bidder has been designated. If one or more qualified bids are received, the Debtors will conduct an auction to determine the highest or otherwise best offer. The successful bidder may acquire one or more of the NOLA Properties.

[6] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order.

VIII. SUMMARY OF THE RELEASES, INJUNCTION, EXCULPATION, AND DISCHARGE CONTEMPLATED BY THE PLAN

A. Settlement, Compromise, and Release of Claims and Interests

IX. CERTAIN TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN

A. General Tax Considerations

The following discussion is a summary of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences from the consummation of the Plan to Holders entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust, is for general information purposes only, and should not be relied upon for purposes of determining the specific tax consequences of the Plan with respect to a particular Holder of a Claim. This discussion does not purport to be a complete analysis or listing of all potential tax considerations. This discussion does not address aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to a particular Holder of a Claim subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws (such as broker dealers; traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting for securities holdings; banks; thrifts; insurance companies; financial institutions; regulated investment companies; real estate investment trusts; pension plans; partnerships (or other entities or arrangements treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) or a partner, member or owner therein; persons that hold a Claim as part of a straddle or a hedging, conversion or constructive sale transaction; persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar and other tax exempt investors). This summary does not discuss any aspects of state, local or foreign tax laws or any U.S. federal estate or gift tax considerations. Furthermore, this summary does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to a Holder of a Claim, such as the potential application of the alternative minimum tax.

This discussion is based on existing provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "IRC"), existing and proposed Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, and current administrative rulings and court decisions. Legislative, judicial, or administrative changes or interpretations enacted or promulgated after the date hereof could alter or modify the analyses set forth below with respect to the federal income tax consequences of the Plan. Any such changes or interpretations may be retroactive and could significantly affect the federal income tax consequences of the Plan.

No ruling has been or will be requested or obtained from the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") with respect to any tax aspects of the Plan and no opinion of counsel has been or will be sought or obtained with respect thereto. No representations or assurances are being made to the Holders of Claims or Interests with respect to the U.S. federal income tax consequences described herein.

B. U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to Holders of Claims

1. Consequences of U.S. Holders of Claims

For purposes of this discussion, a "U.S. Holder" is a beneficial owner of a Claim that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

- an individual citizen or resident of the United States;
- a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state therein or the District of Columbia;
- an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or
- a trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over its administration and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or otherwise if the trust has a valid election in effect under current Treasury regulations to be treated as a United States person.

A "Non-U.S. Holder" is any Holder that is not a U.S. Holder or a partnership (or other entity treated as a partnership or other pass-through entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes). If a partnership (or other entity treated as a partnership or other pass-through entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is a Holder of a Claim, the tax treatment of a partner (or other beneficial owner) generally will depend upon the status of the partner (or other beneficial owner) and the activities of the partner (or other beneficial owner) and the entity. Partners (or other beneficial owners) of partnerships (or other pass-through entities) that are Holders of Claims should consult their respective tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Plan.

The federal income tax consequences of the implementation of the Plan to a U.S. Holder of Claims will depend, among other things, upon the origin of the Holder's Claim, when the Holder receives payment in respect of such Claim, whether the Holder reports income using the accrual or cash method of tax accounting, whether the Holder acquired its Claim at a discount and whether the Holder has taken a bad debt deduction with respect to such Claim.

(a) CIF Mortgage Loan Claims

Each Holder of a CIF Mortgage Loan Claim will be entitled to receive proceeds from the sale of the Lakewind Property in excess of the amount necessary to satisfy all Allowed NOLA DIP Claims, Allowed General Administrative Claims, Allowed Priority Tax Claims, Allowed Other Priority Claims, and Allowed Other Secured Claims in full in Cash on the Effective Date, and, to the extent such excess cash is insufficient to satisfy the Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claims in full, each holder's pro rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution to holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan.

Holders of CIF Mortgage Loan Claims generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the amount of any Cash received by the Holder (other than any consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income).

(b) NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims

Each Holder of a NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claim will be entitled to receive substantially all assets of Debtors Chenault Creek, Copper Creek, Lakewind, and Windrun pursuant to the NOLA Purchase Agreement. The NOLA Purchase Agreement will set forth the specific terms of the transaction, which may include the assumption of certain liabilities and the payment of cure amounts for assigned executory contracts, among other provisions.

Holders of NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims generally will recognize gain or loss on the receipt of such assets in exchange for their Claims in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the fair market value on the date of the exchange of such assets, less any liabilities (other than in consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income). Holders of NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims are expected to have a fair market value tax basis in the assets acquired.

(c) Other NOLA Unsecured Claims

Each Holder of an Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan.

Holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the amount of any Cash received by the Holder (other than any consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income).

(d) Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims

Each Holder of an Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claim and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan).

As described more fully below, Holders of Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claim and Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the fair market value of each Holder's Pro Rata Share of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (other than any consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income).

When gain or loss is recognized, such gain or loss may be long-term capital gain or loss if the Claim disposed of is a capital asset in the hands of the U.S. Holder and has been held for more than one year (subject to the rules discussed below regarding market discount). Each U.S. Holder of a Claim should consult its own tax advisor to determine whether gain or loss recognized by such Holder will be long-term capital gain or loss and the specific tax effect thereof on such Holder.

(i) Character of Gain or Loss

When gain or loss is recognized by a U.S. Holder, the character of such gain or loss as long-term or short-term capital gain or loss or as ordinary income or loss is determined by a number of factors, including the tax status of the U.S. Holder, whether the U.S. Holder's Claim constitutes a capital asset in the hands of the U.S. Holder and how long it has been held, whether such Claim was acquired at a market discount, and whether and to what extent the U.S. Holder previously claimed a bad debt deduction in respect of the Claim. Each U.S. Holder of a Claim should consult its own tax advisor to determine whether gain or loss recognized by such Holder will be long-term capital gain or loss and the specific tax effect thereof on such Holder.

(ii) Accrued but Unpaid Interest

Pursuant to Article VI.F of the Plan, all distributions in respect of Allowed Claims will be allocated first to the principal amount of the Allowed Claim (as determined for federal income tax purposes), with any excess allocated to accrued but unpaid interest. There is no assurance, however, that such allocation would be respected by the IRS for federal income tax purposes. In general, to the extent any amount received (whether cash or other property) by a U.S. Holder of a debt instrument is received in satisfaction of accrued interest during its holding period, such amount will be taxable to the Holder as interest income (if not previously included in the Holder's gross income under the Holder's normal method of accounting). Conversely, a U.S. Holder generally recognizes a deductible loss to the extent any accrued interest claimed was previously included in its gross income and is not paid in full. Each U.S. Holder of Claims is urged to consult its own tax advisor regarding the allocation of consideration and the taxation or deductibility of unpaid interest for tax purposes.

(iii) Market Discount

U.S. Holders of Claims receive Cash or other property in respect of their Claims may be affected by the "market discount" provisions of the sections 1276 through 1278 of the IRC. Under these rules, some or all of the gain realized by a U.S. Holder may be treated as ordinary income (instead of capital gain), to the extent of the amount of "market discount" on such Claims.

In general, a debt obligation with a fixed maturity of more than one year that is acquired by a holder on the secondary market (or, in certain circumstances, upon original issuance) is considered to be acquired with "market discount" as to that holder if the debt obligation's stated redemption price at maturity (or revised issue price, in the case of a debt obligation issued with original issue discount) exceeds the tax basis of the debt obligation in the holder's hands immediately after its acquisition. However, a debt obligation will not be a "market discount bond" if such excess is less than a statutory de minimis amount (equal to 0.25 percent of the debt obligation's stated redemption price at maturity or revised issue price, in the case of a debt obligation issued with original issue discount).

Any gain recognized by a U.S. Holder on the taxable disposition of Claims (determined as described above) that were acquired with market discount should be treated as ordinary income to the extent of the market discount that accrued thereon while the Claims were considered to be held by a U.S. Holder (unless the U.S. Holder elected to include market discount in income as it accrued).

(iv) Limitation on Use of Capital Losses

A U.S. Holder who recognizes capital losses will be subject to limits on their use of capital losses. For a non-corporate U.S. Holder, capital losses may be used to offset any capital gains (without regard to holding periods) plus ordinary income to the extent of the lesser of (a) $3,000 ($1,500 for married individuals filing separate returns) or (b) the excess of the capital losses over the capital gains. A non-corporate U.S. Holder may carry over unused capital losses and apply them to capital gains and a portion of their ordinary income for an unlimited number of years. For corporate U.S. Holders, losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets may only be used to offset capital gains. A corporate U.S. Holder who has more capital losses than can be used in a tax year may be allowed to carry over the excess capital losses for use in succeeding tax years. Corporate U.S. Holders may only carry over unused capital losses for the five years following the capital loss year, but are allowed to carry back unused capital losses to the three years preceding the capital loss year.

(v) Medicare Tax

Certain U.S. Holders that are individuals, estates, or trusts are required to pay an additional 3.8 percent tax on, among other things, interest, dividends and gains from the sale or other disposition of capital assets. U.S. Holders that are individuals, estates, or trusts should consult their own tax advisors regarding the effect, if any, of this tax provision on their ownership and disposition of any consideration to be received under the Plan.

2. Consequences to Non-U.S. Holders of Claims.

The following discussion addresses some of the U.S. federal income tax consequences to a beneficial owner of a Claim is a Non-U.S. Holder. The following discussion includes only certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Plan to Non-U.S. Holders. This discussion does not include any non-U.S. tax considerations. The rules governing the U.S. federal income tax consequences to Non-U.S. Holders are complex. Each Non-U.S. Holder is urged to consult its own tax advisor regarding the U.S. federal, state, local, non-U.S., and non-income tax consequences of the consummation of the Plan to such Non-U.S. Holder.

(a) Gain Realized / Income Allocated to Non-U.S. Holders

Whether a non-U.S. Holder realizes gain or loss on the exchange and the amount of such gain or loss is generally determined in the same manner as set forth above in connection with U.S. Holders.

(b) Gain/Income Recognition by Non-U.S. Holders

Any gain realized by a Non-U.S. Holder on the exchange of its Claim generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income taxation unless: (a) except as otherwise covered by clause (b) below, (i) with respect to capital gains, the Non-U.S. Holder is an individual who was present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year in which the Plan becomes effective and certain other conditions are met or (ii) with respect to income other than capital gains, the income is otherwise deemed to be derived from U.S. sources, or (b) such gain and/or income is effectively connected with the conduct by such Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business in the United States (and, if an income tax treaty applies, such gain is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by such Non-U.S. Holder in the United States).

If the first exception applies, the Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a rate of 30 percent (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty) on the amount by which such Non-U.S. Holder's capital gains allocable to U.S. sources exceed capital losses allocable to U.S. sources during the taxable year of the exchange. If the second exception applies, the Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax with respect to any gain realized on the exchange if such gain is effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States in the same manner as a U.S. Holder. In order to claim an exemption from withholding tax, such Non-U.S. Holder will be required to provide a properly executed IRS Form W-8ECI (or such successor form as the IRS designates). In addition, if such a Non-U.S. Holder is a corporation, it may be subject to a "branch profits tax" equal to 30 percent (or such lower rate provided by an applicable income tax treaty) of its effectively connected earnings and profits for the taxable year, subject to certain adjustments.

(c) Accrued Interest

Subject to the discussion of backup withholding and FATCA below, payments to a Non-U.S. Holder that are attributable to accrued but unpaid interest with respect to the Claims generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax; provided that the withholding agent has received or receives, prior to payment, appropriate documentation (generally, IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E) establishing that the Non-U.S. Holder is not a U.S. person, unless:

- the Non-U.S. Holder actually or constructively owns 10 percent or more of the capital or profits interest in the "regarded" owner of the applicable Debtor for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- the Non-U.S. Holder is a "controlled foreign corporation" that is a "related person" with respect to the Owner (each, within the meaning of the IRC);
- the Non-U.S. Holder is a bank receiving interest described in IRC Section 881(c)(3)(A); or
- such interest is effectively connected with the conduct by the Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business within the United States (in which case, provided the Non-U.S. Holder provides a properly executed IRS Form W-8ECI (or successor form) to the withholding agent, the Non-U.S. Holder (x) generally will not be subject to withholding tax, but (y) will be subject to U.S. federal income tax in the same manner as a U.S. Holder (unless an applicable income tax treaty provides otherwise), and a Non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes may also be subject to a branch profits tax with respect to such Non-U.S. Holder's effectively connected earnings and profits that are attributable to the accrued interest at a rate of 30% (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty)).

A Non-U.S. Holder that does not qualify for the exemption from withholding tax with respect to accrued but unpaid interest that is not effectively connected income generally will be subject to withholding of U.S. federal income tax at a 30% rate (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty) on any payments that are attributable to accrued but unpaid interest. For purposes of providing a properly executed IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E, special procedures are provided under applicable Treasury Regulations for payments through qualified foreign intermediaries or certain financial institutions that hold customers' securities in the ordinary course of their trade or business. In addition, a corporate Non-U.S. Holder may, under certain circumstances, be subject to an additional "branch profits tax" at a 30 percent rate (or such lower rate provided by an applicable income tax treaty) on its effectively connected earnings and profits attributable to such interest (subject to adjustments).

The certifications described above must be provided to the applicable withholding agent prior to the payment of interest. Non-U.S. Holders that do not timely provide the applicable withholding agent with the required certification, but that qualify for a reduced rate under an applicable income tax treaty, may obtain a refund of any excess amounts withheld by timely filing an appropriate claim for refund with the IRS. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding their entitlement to benefits under any applicable income tax treaty.

Under the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA"), foreign financial institutions and certain other foreign entities must report certain information with respect to their U.S. account holders and investors or be subject to withholding at a rate of 30 percent on the receipt of "withholdable payments."

For this purpose, "withholdable payments" are generally U.S.-source payments of fixed or determinable, annual or periodical income. FATCA withholding will apply even if the applicable payment would not otherwise be subject to U.S. federal nonresident withholding. Each Non-U.S. Holder should consult its own tax advisor regarding the possible impact of these rules on such Non-U.S. Holder's exchange of its Claim.

3. Creditor Recovery Trust

Subject to any applicable law or definitive guidance from the IRS or a court of competent jurisdiction to the contrary, the Debtors expect to treat the Creditor Recovery Trust as a "liquidating trust" under section 301.7701-4(d) of the Treasury Regulations and a grantor trust under section 671 of the IRC, and the trustee of the Creditor Recovery Trust will take a position on the Creditor Recovery Trust's tax return accordingly. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the transfer of assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust will be deemed to occur as (a) a first-step transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Holders of the applicable Claims, and (b) a second-step transfer by such Holders to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

No request for a ruling from the IRS is expected to be sought on the classification of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the IRS would not take a contrary position regarding the classification of the Creditor Recovery Trust. If the IRS were to successfully challenge the classification of the Creditor Recovery as a grantor trust, the federal income tax consequences to the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries could vary from those discussed in the Plan (including the potential for an entity-level tax). For example, the IRS could characterize the Creditor Recovery Trust as a so-called "complex trust" subject to a separate entity-level tax on its earnings, except to the extent that such earnings are distributed during the taxable year.

As soon as possible after the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, the trustee(s) of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall make a good faith valuation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. This valuation will be made available from time to time, as relevant for tax reporting purposes. Each of the Debtors, the trustee(s) of the Creditor Recovery Trust, and the Holders of Claims receiving interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust shall take consistent positions with respect to the valuation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and such valuations shall be utilized for all U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Allocations of taxable income and loss of the Creditor Recovery Trust among the Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries shall be determined, as closely as possible, by reference to the amount of distributions that would be received by each such beneficiary if the Creditor Recovery Trust had sold all of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets at their tax book value and distributed the proceeds to the Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries, adjusted for prior taxable income and loss and taking into account all prior and concurrent distributions from the Creditor Recovery Trust. The tax book value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets shall equal their fair market value on the date of the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, adjusted in accordance with tax accounting principles prescribed by the IRC, applicable Treasury Regulations, and other applicable administrative and judicial authorities and pronouncements.

The Creditor Recovery Trust shall in no event be dissolved later than five (5) years from the creation of such Creditor Recovery Trust unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion within the six (6) month period prior to the fifth (5th) anniversary (or within the six (6) month period prior to the end of an extension period), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed five (5) years, together with any prior extensions, without a favorable private letter ruling from the IRS or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the trustee(s) of the Creditor Recovery Trust that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of the trust as a Creditor Recovery trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the recovery and liquidation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

The Creditor Recovery Trust will file annual information tax returns with the IRS as a grantor trust pursuant to section 1.671-4(a) of the Treasury Regulations that will include information concerning certain items relating to the holding or disposition (or deemed disposition) of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (e.g., income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit). Each Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiary holding a beneficial interest in the Creditor Recovery Trust will receive a copy of the information returns and must report on its federal income tax return its share of all such items. The information provided by the Creditor Recovery Trust will pertain to Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries who receive their interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust in connection with the Plan.

4. Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Under the backup withholding rules, a Holder of a Claim may be subject to backup withholding with respect to Distributions or payments made pursuant to the Plan unless that Holder: (a) comes within certain exempt categories (which generally include corporations) and, when required, demonstrates that fact, or (b) provides a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies under penalty of perjury that the taxpayer identification number is correct and that the Holder is not subject to backup withholding because of a failure to report all dividend and interest income. Backup withholding is not an additional tax, but merely an advance payment that may be refunded to the extent it results in an overpayment of tax.

The foregoing discussion is intended only as a summary of certain income tax consequences of the Plan and is not a substitute for careful tax planning with a tax professional. The above discussion is for informational purposes only and is not tax advice. The tax consequences are in many cases uncertain and may vary depending on a Holder's particular circumstances. Accordingly, Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors about the United States federal, state and local, and applicable foreign income and other tax consequences of the Plan.

X. RISK FACTORS

Before voting to accept or reject the Plan, Holders of Claims or Interests entitled to vote should read and carefully consider the risk factors set forth below, in addition to the information set forth in this Disclosure Statement together with any attachments, exhibits, or documents incorporated by reference hereto. The factors below should not be regarded as the only risks associated with the Plan or its implementation.

A. Risks Relating to the Debtors' Business Operations and Financial Condition

1. General Economic Conditions

The Debtors' ability to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction may be affected by broader macroeconomic conditions, including rising interest rates, inflationary pressures, labor market disruptions, volatility in the housing market, investor sentiment, and geopolitical instability. Such factors may negatively impact real estate valuations, the availability of financing, and the willingness of potential purchasers to consummate transactions on favorable terms. While the Plan assumes a relatively stable economic environment, no assurance can be given that such conditions will continue through the expected closing.

2. Risk of Failure to Consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction

The Plan is based on the successful execution of the NOLA Sale Transaction in accordance with the Court-approved Bidding Procedures, which may be implemented either under a chapter 11 plan or as a standalone transaction pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. To date, the Debtors have not entered into a stalking horse agreement for the NOLA Properties, and there is no assurance that a qualified bid will be submitted or that the auction process will yield a value-maximizing transaction.

If the Debtors are unable to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction—whether due to a lack of qualified bids, termination of a purchase agreement, failure to satisfy closing conditions, or failure to obtain necessary Bankruptcy Court approval—the Debtors may face significant liquidity constraints. In that event, the Debtors may be forced to pursue an alternative restructuring strategy or, if none is viable, convert these Chapter 11 Cases to chapter 7 liquidation. Any such alternative could result in delayed, diminished, or uncertain recoveries for creditors compared to those anticipated under the Plan.

3. Limited Continuing Operations

Following the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, the Debtors do not expect to continue operations as going concerns. As a result, many risks typically associated with ongoing business activities—such as tenant turnover, market competition, or long-term access to capital—are less relevant. However, operational issues arising prior to the Effective Date, including delays in closing or transitional disruptions, could adversely impact Plan implementation and creditor recoveries.

4. Performance of Property Manager

The Debtors rely on their property manager, Lynd Management, to manage day-to-day operations of the NOLA Properties. Any failure by Lynd Management to perform its obligations under the property management agreements—whether due to operational, financial, or staffing issues—could impair property performance, impact tenant relations, and reduce the attractiveness of the NOLA Properties to potential buyers. Such issues could, in turn, delay or reduce proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction.

B. Risks Related to Bankruptcy Law

1. Risk of Non-Confirmation of the Plan

Although the Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies all requirements necessary for confirmation by the Bankruptcy Court, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion or that modifications to the Plan will not be required for confirmation or that such modifications would not necessitate re-solicitation of votes. Moreover, the Debtors can make no assurances that they will receive the requisite acceptances to confirm the Plan, and even if all Voting Classes vote in favor of the Plan or the requirements for "cram down" are met with respect to any Class that rejects or is deemed to reject the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court may exercise discretion as a court of equity and choose not to confirm the Plan. If the Plan is not confirmed, it is unclear what distributions Holders of Claims or Interests would ultimately receive with respect to their Claims or Interests in a subsequent plan of reorganization or otherwise.

2. Non-Consensual Confirmation

If any impaired class of Claims or Interests does not accept or is deemed not to accept a plan of reorganization, a Bankruptcy Court may nevertheless confirm such plan at the proponent's request if at least one impaired class has accepted the plan (with such acceptance being determined without including the vote of any "insider" in such class), and as to each impaired class that has not accepted the plan, the Bankruptcy Court determines that the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" with respect to the dissenting impaired classes. If any Class votes to reject or is deemed to reject the Plan, then these requirements must be satisfied with respect to such rejecting Class. The Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies these requirements.

3. Risk Related to Wind-Down and Plan Implementation

The Plan contemplates a Wind-Down of the Debtors' Estates following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, including the creation of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Execution of the Wind-Down and administration of post-Effective Date responsibilities depends on various factors, including sufficient funding and the ability of the Creditor Recovery Trustee to realize value from retained causes of action. Delays, disputes, or unforeseen liabilities could reduce the proceeds ultimately available to distribute to creditors.

4. Risk That the CBRM Plan Will Not Be Confirmed and Become Effective

This Plan has been developed in coordination with the CBRM Plan. Pursuant to the CBRM Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan to assume all liability of the CBRM Debtors and their estates for, and to administer, all CBRM Unsecured Claims.

Under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the Debtors will transfer to the Creditor Recovery Trust (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any).

If the CBRM Plan is not confirmed or does not become effective, the Debtors will implement an alternative, court-approved mechanism to administer and distribute the assets that would otherwise have been transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such mechanism may include establishing a similar trust under the Plan or another structure designed to maximize value for stakeholders. This could result in delays, increased administrative costs, and reduced recoveries for creditors, as well as potential changes to the priority and allocation of distributions compared to the structure contemplated under the CBRM Plan.

5. Allowed Claims Could Exceed Estimates

There can be no assurance that the Allowed amount of Claims participating in distributions will not be significantly more than projected, which in turn, could cause the value of distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims whose treatment is limited to distributions from a specified recovery source to be reduced. Inevitably, some assumptions will not materialize, and unanticipated events and circumstances may affect the ultimate results and total amount of Claims against the Debtors' Estates. Therefore, the actual amount of Allowed Claims may vary from the Debtors' projections and feasibility analysis, and the variation may be material.

6. U.S. Federal Income Tax Risks

The tax consequences of the Plan to the Debtors and to Holders of Claims and Interests may vary depending on the individual's tax situation and are subject to significant uncertainties. Parties in interest should consult their own tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal, state, local, and non-U.S. income and other tax consequences of the Plan, including any income that may arise from the receipt of distributions or interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust.

7. Risk of Non-Occurrence of the Effective Date

Although the Debtors believe that the Effective Date will occur soon after the Confirmation Date, there can be no assurance as to the timing of the Effective Date. If the conditions precedent to the Effective Date set forth in the Plan have not occurred or have not been waived as set forth in Article IX.B of the Plan, then the Confirmation Order may be vacated, in which event no distributions would be made under the Plan, the Debtors and all Holders of Claims or Interests would be restored to the status quo as of the day immediately preceding the Confirmation Date, and the Debtors' obligations with respect to Claims and Interests would remain unchanged.

8. Conversion into Chapter 7 Cases

If no plan of reorganization can be confirmed, or if the Bankruptcy Court otherwise finds that it would be in the best interest of Holders of Claims and Interests, some or all of the Chapter 11 Cases may be converted to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, pursuant to which a trustee would be appointed or elected to liquidate the Debtors' assets for distribution in accordance with the priorities established by the Bankruptcy Code.

9. Parties in Interest May Object to the Plan's Classification of Claims and Interests

Section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a plan may place a claim or an equity interest in a particular class only if such claim or equity interest is substantially similar to the other claims or equity interests in such class. The Debtors believe that the classification of the Claims and Interests under the Plan complies with the requirements set forth in the Bankruptcy Code because the Debtors created Classes of Claims and Interests each encompassing Claims or Interests, as applicable, that are substantially similar to the other Claims or Interests, as applicable, in each such Class. Nevertheless, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion.

10. The Debtors May Fail to Satisfy Vote Requirements

If votes are received in number and amount sufficient to enable the Bankruptcy Court to confirm the Plan, the Debtors intend to seek, as promptly as practicable thereafter, Confirmation of the Plan. In the event that sufficient votes are not received, the Debtors may seek to confirm an alternative chapter 11 plan. There can be no assurance that the terms of any such alternative chapter 11 plan would be similar or as favorable to the Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests as those proposed in the Plan.

11. Continued Risk upon Confirmation

Following the NOLA Sale Transaction, the Debtors will not continue operating as a going concern. Instead, their primary role will be to implement the Wind-Down and transfer assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust. The cessation of operations may limit the Debtors' ability to address unanticipated claims, disputes, or liabilities that arise post-Effective Date.

12. Contingencies Could Affect Votes of Impaired Classes to Accept or Reject the Plan

The distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan can be affected by a variety of contingencies, including whether the Bankruptcy Court orders certain Allowed Claims to be subordinated to other Allowed Claims. The occurrence of any and all such contingencies, which could affect distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan, will not affect the validity of the vote taken by the Impaired Classes to accept or reject the Plan or require any sort of revote by the Impaired Classes. The estimated Claims and creditor recoveries set forth in this Disclosure Statement are based on various assumptions, and the actual Allowed amounts of Claims may significantly differ from the estimates. Should one or more of the underlying assumptions ultimately prove to be incorrect, the actual Allowed amounts of Claims may vary from the estimated Claims contained in this Disclosure Statement. Moreover, the Debtors cannot determine with any certainty at this time, the number or amount of Claims that will ultimately be Allowed. Such differences may materially and adversely affect, among other things, the percentage recoveries to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan.

13. Disruption from Competing Plans or Proposals

Although no competing plan has been proposed to date, parties in interest may seek to propose an alternative chapter 11 plan. The pursuit of such a competing plan could delay Confirmation, increase administrative costs, or result in lower recoveries for creditors.

14. Releases, Injunctions, and Exculpations Provisions May Not Be Approved

Article VIII of the Plan provides for certain releases, injunctions, and exculpations, including a release of liens and third-party releases. The releases, injunctions, and exculpations provided in the Plan are subject to objection by parties in interest and may not be approved. If the releases are not approved, certain Released Parties may withdraw their support for the Plan.

C. Additional Factors

1. The Debtors Could Withdraw the Plan

Subject to, and without prejudice to, the rights of any party in interest, the Plan may be revoked or withdrawn before the Confirmation Date by the Debtors.

2. The Debtors Have No Duty to Update

The statements contained in this Disclosure Statement are made by the Debtors as of the date hereof, unless otherwise specified herein, and the delivery of this Disclosure Statement after that date does not imply that there has been no change in the information set forth herein since that date. Additionally, the Debtors have no duty to update this Disclosure Statement unless otherwise ordered to do so by the Bankruptcy Court.

3. No Representations Outside this Disclosure Statement Are Authorized

No representations concerning or related to the Debtors, the Chapter 11 Cases, or the Plan are authorized by the Bankruptcy Court or the Bankruptcy Code, other than as set forth in this Disclosure Statement. Any representations or inducements made to secure your acceptance or rejection of the Plan that are other than those contained in, or included with, this Disclosure Statement should not be relied upon in making the decision to accept or reject the Plan.

4. No Legal or Tax Advice Is Provided by this Disclosure Statement

The contents of this Disclosure Statement should not be construed as legal, business, or tax advice. Each Holder of a Claim or Interest should consult its own legal counsel and accountant as to legal, tax, and other matters concerning their Claim or Interest.

This Disclosure Statement is not legal advice to you. This Disclosure Statement may not be relied upon for any purpose other than to determine how to vote on the Plan or object to confirmation of the Plan.

5. No Admission Made

Nothing contained herein or in the Plan shall constitute an admission of, or shall be deemed evidence of, the tax or other legal effects of the Plan on the Debtors or Holders of Claims or Interests.

XI. CONFIRMATION OF THE PLAN

The Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan only if all of the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code are met. Among the requirements for confirmation are that the plan is (a) accepted by all impaired classes of claims and interests entitled to vote or, if rejected or deemed rejected by an impaired class, that the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" as to such class; (b) in the "best interests" of the holders of claims and interests impaired under the plan; and (c) feasible.

A. Acceptance of the Plan

The Bankruptcy Code defines "acceptance" of a plan by a class of (i) claims as acceptance by creditors in that class that hold at least two-thirds (2/3) in dollar amount and more than one-half (1/2) in number of the claims that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the plan and (ii) interests as acceptance by interest holders in that class that hold at least two-thirds (2/3) in amount of the interests that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the plan. Holders of claims or interests that fail to vote are not counted in determining the thresholds for acceptance of the plan.

If any impaired class of claims or interests does not accept the plan (or is deemed to reject the plan), the Bankruptcy Court may still confirm the plan at the request of the Debtors if, as to each impaired class of claims or interests that has not accepted the plan (or is deemed to reject the plan), the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" under the so-called "cram down" provisions set forth in section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The "unfair discrimination" test applies to classes of claims or interests that are of equal priority and are receiving different treatment under the plan. A chapter 11 plan does not discriminate unfairly, within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code, if the legal rights of a dissenting class are treated in a manner consistent with the treatment of other classes whose legal rights are substantially similar to those of the dissenting class and if no class of claims or interests receives more than it legally is entitled to receive for its claims or interests. The test does not require that the treatment be the same or equivalent, but that such treatment be "fair." The "fair and equitable" test applies to classes of different priority and status (e.g., secured versus unsecured; claims versus interests) and includes the general requirement that no class of claims receive more than 100% of the allowed amount of the claims in such class. As to the dissenting class, the test sets different standards that must be satisfied in order for the Plan to be confirmed, depending on the type of claims or interests in such class. The following sets forth the "fair and equitable" test that must be satisfied as to each type of class for a plan to be confirmed if such class rejects the plan:

- Secured Creditors. Each holder of an impaired secured claim either (a) retains its liens on the property, to the extent of the allowed amount of its secured claim, and receives deferred cash payments having a value, as of the effective date of the plan, of at least the allowed amount of such secured claim, (b) has the right to credit bid the amount of its claim if its property is sold and retains its lien on the proceeds of the sale, or (c) receives the "indubitable equivalent" of its allowed secured claim.

- Unsecured Creditors. Either (a) each holder of an impaired unsecured claim receives or retains under the plan, property of a value, as of the effective date of the plan, equal to the amount of its allowed claim or (b) the holders of claims and interests that are junior to the claims of the dissenting class will not receive any property under the plan.

- Interests. Either (a) each equity interest holder will receive or retain under the plan property of a value equal to the greater of (i) the fixed liquidation preference or redemption price, if any, of such equity interest and (ii) the value of the equity interest or (b) the holders of interests that are junior to the interests of the dissenting class will not receive or retain any property under the plan.

The Debtors believe the Plan satisfies the "fair and equitable" requirement with respect to any rejecting Class.

IF ALL OTHER CONFIRMATION REQUIREMENTS ARE SATISFIED AT THE CONFIRMATION HEARING, THE DEBTORS WILL ASK THE BANKRUPTCY COURT TO RULE THAT THE PLAN MAY BE CONFIRMED ON THE GROUNDS THAT THE SECTION 1129(B) REQUIREMENTS HAVE BEEN SATISFIED.

B. Best Interests of Creditors Test

The Bankruptcy Code requires that each holder of an impaired claim or interest either (1) accepts the plan or (2) receives or retains under the plan property of a value, as of the effective date, that is not less than the value such holder would receive if the debtor were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. This requirement is customarily referred to as the "best interests of creditors" test. As demonstrated in the liquidation analysis attached hereto as Exhibit C, the Debtors believe that liquidation under chapter 7 would result in smaller distributions to creditors than those provided for in the Plan.

C. Feasibility

The Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies the feasibility requirement set forth in section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan is predicated on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the subsequent Wind-Down of the Debtors' Estates. Following the sale closing and transfer of the NOLA

Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets on the Effective Date, the Debtors will no longer engage in business operations and will instead proceed with an orderly Wind-Down consistent with the terms of the Plan.

The Debtors do not anticipate the need for any further reorganization or restructuring of their affairs following Confirmation. Moreover, the Debtors expect to have sufficient resources—including the proceeds of the NOLA Sale Transaction, Cash on hand, and other Plan funding sources—to satisfy all obligations required to be performed under the Plan and to fund the Wind-Down and the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust. As such, the Debtors believe that Confirmation of the Plan is not likely to be followed by liquidation (other than as expressly contemplated), or by the need for further financial reorganization of the Debtors or any successor thereto under the Plan.

D. Confirmation Hearing

Section 1128(a) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Bankruptcy Court to hold a confirmation hearing upon appropriate notice to all required parties. The Confirmation Hearing is scheduled for October 22, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Confirmation Hearing may be adjourned from time to time by the Bankruptcy Court without further notice except for the announcement of the continuation date made at the Confirmation Hearing, at any subsequent continued Confirmation Hearing, or pursuant to a notice filed on the docket for the Chapter 11 Cases.

Section 1128(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that any party in interest may object to the confirmation of a plan. Any objection to confirmation of the Plan must be in writing, must conform to the Bankruptcy Rules and the local rules of the Bankruptcy Court, must set forth the name of the objector, the nature and amount of Claims or Interests held or asserted by the objector against the Debtors' estates or properties, the basis for the objection and the specific grounds therefor, and must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served no later than the Confirmation Objection Deadline.

XII. CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATION

The Debtors believe the Plan is in the best interests of all stakeholders and urge the Holders of Claims and Interests entitled to vote on the Plan to vote in favor thereof.

(b) Treatment: On the Effective Date, each Crown Capital Interest shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust as provided in the Plan; provided, however, that the Crown Capital Interests shall remain subject to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed to by Spano Investor LLC; provided, further, however, that Spano Investor LLC shall not directly or indirectly seek to exercise any legal, equitable, or other rights against such Crown Capital Interests or other assets of any Debtor or subsidiary of any Debtor that may constitute collateral of Spano Investor LLC with respect to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. pending further order of the Bankruptcy Court or a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court in the Spano Adversary Proceeding; provided, further, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Plan shall limit or affect Spano Investor LLC's rights to enforce its prepetition judgment and exercise any remedies against non-Debtors Fox Capital LLC, CBCC 1 LLC, CBCC 2 LLC, CBCC 3 LLC, CBCC 4 LLC, CBCC 5 LLC, Westwood Jackson Apts MM LLC, or Westwood Jackson Apts LLC, or any assets of such non-Debtor entities.

(c) Voting: Class 10 is Impaired under the Plan. Each Holder of a Crown Capital Interest is conclusively deemed to have rejected the Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Crown Capital Interests are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

11. Class 11 – RH New Orleans Interests.

(a) Classification: Class 11 consists of all Interests in Debtor RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC.

(b) Treatment: On the Effective Date, each Holder of a RH New Orleans Interest shall not be entitled to any Distribution on account of such Interest, which shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust as provided in the Plan.

(c) Voting: Class 11 is Impaired under the Plan. Each Holder of a RH New Orleans Interest is conclusively deemed to have rejected the Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of RH New Orleans Interests are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

12. Class 12 – Section 510(b) Claims.

(a) Classification: Class 12 consists of all Section 510(b) Claims against any Debtor.

(b) Treatment: On the Effective Date, each Holder of a Section 510(b) Claim shall not be entitled to any Distribution on account of such Section 510(b) Claim, which shall be canceled, released, and extinguished and of no further force or effect without further action by the Debtors.

(c) Voting: Class 12 is Impaired under the Plan. Each Holder of a Section 510(b) Claim is conclusively deemed to have rejected the Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Section 510(b) Claims are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

C. Elimination of Vacant Classes.

Any Class of Claims or Interests that, as of the commencement of the Confirmation Hearing, does not have at least one Holder of a Claim or Interest that is Allowed in an amount greater than zero for voting purposes shall be considered vacant, deemed eliminated from the Plan for purposes of voting to accept or reject the Plan, and disregarded for purposes of determining whether the Plan satisfies section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to that Class.

D. Voting Classes Where No Valid Votes Are Received.

If a Class contains Claims or Interests eligible to vote and no Holders of Claims or Interests eligible to vote in such Class vote to accept or reject the Plan, then such Class shall be deemed to have accepted the Plan.

E. Subordinated Claims.

The allowance, classification, and treatment of all Allowed Claims and Allowed Interests and the respective distributions and treatments under the Plan take into account and conform to the relative priority and rights of the Claims and Interests in each Class in connection with any contractual, legal, and equitable subordination rights relating thereto, whether arising under general principles of equitable subordination, section 510(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise. Pursuant to section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors reserve the right to re-classify any Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest in accordance with any contractual, legal, or equitable subordination relating thereto.

ARTICLE IV
MEANS FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PLAN

A. NOLA Sale Transaction, Restructuring Transactions, and Sources of Consideration for Plan Distributions.

The Confirmation Order shall be deemed to authorize the Debtors, among other things, to take all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effect any transaction described in, approved by, contemplated by, or necessary to effectuate the Plan, including the Restructuring Transactions and, to the extent not approved pursuant to a Sale Order, the NOLA Sale Transaction. With respect to the Plan, all amounts of Cash necessary for the Debtors to make payments or distributions pursuant to the Plan shall be obtained from the Sale Proceeds, the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and the Wind-Down Assets.

1. NOLA Sale Transaction.

To the extent not approved pursuant to a Sale Order, on the Effective Date, the Debtors shall be authorized to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction and, among other things, the NOLA Properties shall be transferred to and vest in the NOLA Purchaser free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges, or other encumbrances pursuant to the terms of the NOLA Purchase Agreement and the Confirmation Order. On and after the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors or the NOLA Purchaser, as applicable, may operate their businesses and may use, acquire, or dispose of property and compromise or settle any Claims, Interests, or Causes of Action without supervision or approval by the Bankruptcy Court and free of any restrictions of the Bankruptcy Code or Bankruptcy Rules. Neither the NOLA Purchaser nor any of its Affiliates shall be deemed to be a successor to the Debtors.

2. Payment of Sale Proceeds by NOLA Purchaser.

To the extent the NOLA Sale Transaction is not approved pursuant to a Sale Order, on the Effective Date, the NOLA Purchaser shall pay to the Debtors the Sale Proceeds as and to the extent provided for in the NOLA Purchase Agreement.

3. Restructuring Transactions.

On the Effective Date, the Debtors and the NOLA Purchaser, to the extent applicable, shall implement the Restructuring Transactions. The actions to implement the Restructuring Transactions may include: (a) the execution and delivery of appropriate agreements or other documents of merger, amalgamation, consolidation, restructuring, conversion, disposition, transfer, arrangement, continuance, dissolution, sale, purchase, or liquidation containing terms that are consistent with the terms of the Plan and that satisfy the applicable requirements of applicable law and any other terms to which the applicable Entities may agree; (b) the execution and delivery of appropriate instruments of transfer, assignment, assumption, or delegation of any asset, property, right, liability, debt, or obligation on terms consistent with the terms of the Plan and having other terms for which the applicable parties agree; (c) the filing of appropriate certificates or articles of incorporation, reincorporation, merger, consolidation, conversion, amalgamation, arrangement, continuance, or dissolution pursuant to applicable state or provincial law; and (d) all other actions that the Debtors or the NOLA Purchaser, to the extent applicable, determine to be necessary or appropriate, including making filings or recordings that may be required by applicable law in connection with the Plan. Without limiting the foregoing, prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors, acting at the sole and exclusive direction of the Independent Fiduciary, shall have the right to establish a trust, special purpose vehicle, or other Entity to hold Crown Capital and any Entity directly or indirectly owned by Crown Capital.

B. General Settlement of Claims.

To the extent provided for by the Bankruptcy Code, and in consideration for the classification, Distributions, releases, and other benefits provided under the Plan, on the Effective Date, certain of the provisions of the Plan shall constitute a good-faith compromise and settlement of certain Claims, Interests, Causes of Action, and controversies released, settled, compromised, or otherwise resolved pursuant to the Plan.

C. Wind Down and Dissolution of the Debtors.

1. Appointment of the Wind-Down Officer.

On the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer appointed under the CBRM Plan shall be appointed by the Debtors for the purpose of conducting the Wind-Down and shall have all powers, privileges, and responsibilities provided to the Wind-Down Officer under Article IV.C of the CBRM Plan with respect to these Debtors subject to the provisions of Article IV.A.3 and Article IV.G herein with respect to Crown Capital and any Entity directly or indirectly owned by Crown Capital.

2. Termination of Wind-Down Officer's Duties; Dissolution of Debtors.

Upon a certification to be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court by the Wind-Down Officer of all distributions having been made and completion of all its duties under the Plan and entry of a final decree closing the last of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Wind-Down Officer shall be discharged without any further action, including the filing of any documents with the secretary of state for the state in which the Debtors are formed or any other jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Wind-Down Officer shall retain the authority to take all necessary actions to dissolve the Debtors in, and withdraw the Debtors from, applicable states and provinces to the extent required by applicable law, without the necessity for any other or further actions to be taken by or on behalf of such dissolving Entity or any payments to be made in connection therewith, other than the filing of a certificate of dissolution with the appropriate governmental authorities. Any funds remaining in the Debtors at the time of dissolution shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, subject to any reversionary interests of the NOLA DIP Lender in the Fee Escrow solely to the extent that the Bankruptcy Court determines that the NOLA DIP Facility has not been indefeasibly repaid in full in Cash or otherwise satisfied in full by the NOLA Sale Transaction.

D. Creditor Recovery Trust.

1. Appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be automatically appointed as a representative of the Debtors' Estates pursuant to sections 1123(a)(5), (a)(7), and (b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. From and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall succeed to all rights, privileges, and powers of the Debtors and their Estates with respect to the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, which NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets shall, upon such transfer, become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan); provided, however, that the transfer of the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not (i) affect nor be deemed to affect the corporate governance actions or other actions of Crown Capital nor (ii) divest the Independent Fiduciary of her control of Crown Capital and any Entity directly or indirectly owned by Crown Capital. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be substituted and will replace the Debtors and their Estates in all NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, whether or not such claims are pending in filed litigation. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall operate as set forth in and be subject to the tax provisions of the CBRM Plan.

2. Vesting of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

As of the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, Encumbrances, charges or other interests to the extent permitted by section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided, however, that the Crown Capital Interests shall remain subject to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed to by Spano Investor LLC; provided, further, however, that Spano Investor LLC shall not directly or indirectly seek to exercise any legal, equitable, or other rights against such Crown Capital Interests or other assets of any Debtor or subsidiary of any Debtor that may constitute collateral of Spano Investor LLC with respect to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. pending further order of the Bankruptcy Court or a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court in the Spano Adversary Proceeding; provided, further, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Plan shall limit or affect Spano Investor LLC's rights to enforce its prepetition judgment and exercise any remedies against non-Debtors Fox Capital LLC, CBCC 1 LLC, CBCC 2 LLC, CBCC 3 LLC, CBCC 4 LLC, CBCC 5 LLC, Westwood Jackson Apts MM LLC, or Westwood Jackson Apts LLC, or any assets of such non-Debtor entities.

For the avoidance of doubt, subject to the provisions of this Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets will not be deemed property of the Debtors or their Estates and the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not be deemed to be a successor of the Debtors for purposes of any Distribution made by the Creditor Recovery Trust.

3. Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts shall be deemed assumed by the Debtors and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code. Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving such assumption and assignment. Except as otherwise set forth herein, the assumption and assignment of a Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract pursuant to the Plan shall be effective as of the Effective Date. Any monetary defaults under each Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract to be assumed pursuant to the Plan shall be satisfied, pursuant to section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, by payment of the Cure Amount in Cash by the Creditor Recovery Trust.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors shall, on or before the date of filing of the Plan Supplement, cause the Cure and Assumption Notices to be served on counterparties to Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts to be assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan. Any objection by a non-Debtor counterparty to an Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract to the assumption and assignment, the related Cure Amount, or adequate assurance must be filed, served, and actually received by the Debtors on or prior to the deadline for filing objections to the Plan (or such later date as may be provided in the applicable Cure and Assumption Notice); provided that each counterparty to a Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract (a) that the Debtors later determine to assume and assign or (b) as to which the Debtors modify the applicable Cure Amount, must object to the assumption and assignment or Cure Amount, as applicable, by the earlier of: (i) fourteen (14) days after the Debtors serve such counterparty with a corresponding Cure and Assumption Notice; and (ii) the Confirmation Hearing.

Any counterparty to a Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract that fails to timely object to the proposed assumption of any Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from contesting the Debtors' assumption and assignment of the applicable Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract and from requesting payment of a Cure Amount that differs from the amount paid or proposed to be paid by the Creditor Recovery Trust, without the need for any objection by the Creditor Recovery Trust or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. The Creditor Recovery Trust may settle any dispute regarding a Cure Amount without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, to the extent any provision in any Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan restricts or prevents, or purports to restrict or prevent, or is breached or would be deemed breached by, the assumption and assignment of such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract (including any change of control or similar provision), then such provision shall be deemed pre-empted and modified such that neither the Debtors' assumption and assignment of the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract nor any of the transactions contemplated by the Plan shall entitle the non-Debtor counterparty to terminate or modify such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract or to exercise any other purported default-related rights thereunder.

The Debtors' assumption and assignment of any Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract pursuant to the Plan or otherwise, and payment of any applicable Cure Amount in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article IV.D, shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any Claims or defaults, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any assumed and assigned Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract at any time prior to the effective date of assumption and assignment.

In the event of a timely filed objection regarding: (1) a Cure Amount; (2) the ability of the Creditor Recovery Trust or any assignee to provide adequate assurance of future performance within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code under the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract to be assumed and assigned; or (3) any other matter pertaining to assumption and assignment or the requirements of section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, such dispute shall be resolved by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court (which may be the Confirmation Order) or as may be agreed upon by the Creditor Recovery Trust and the counterparty to the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall pay the applicable Cure Amount as soon as reasonably practicable after entry of a Final Order resolving such dispute and approving such assumption and assignment, or as may otherwise be agreed upon by the Creditor Recovery Trust and the counterparty to the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract. To the extent that a dispute regarding the applicable Cure Amount is resolved or determined unfavorably to the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trust may, in its discretion, reject the applicable Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract after such determination, which rejection shall supersede, nullify, and render of no force or effect any earlier assumption and assignment. Under no circumstances shall the status of payment of a Cure Amount required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code following the entry of a Final Order resolving the dispute and approving the assumption and assignment prevent or delay implementation of the Plan or the occurrence of the Effective Date.

E. Cancellation of Securities and Agreements.

On the Effective Date, except to the extent otherwise provided in the Plan, all notes, instruments, certificates, and other documents evidencing, or in any way related to, Claims or Interests shall be canceled as against the Debtors and each Released Party and the obligations of the Debtors thereunder or in any way related thereto shall be released, settled, and compromised.

F. Corporate Action.

Notwithstanding any requirements under applicable nonbankruptcy law, upon the Effective Date, all actions contemplated by the Plan shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, including the implementation of the Restructuring Transactions and, to the extent not approved pursuant to a Sale Order, the NOLA Sale Transaction. All matters provided for in the Plan involving the corporate structure of the Debtors, and any corporate action required by the Debtors in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have occurred and shall be in effect, without any requirement of further action by any Person or Entity or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors and their directors, managers, partners, officers, authorized persons, and members thereof (including the Independent Fiduciary) are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, securities, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan and the securities issued pursuant to the Plan in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors, without the need for any approvals, authorizations, or consents, except for those expressly required pursuant to the Plan, or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

G. Independent Fiduciary.

As of the Effective Date, notwithstanding any agreement, proxy, resolution, shareholders' agreement, or other document to the contrary or the transfer of the Crown Capital Interests to the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Independent Fiduciary shall have the sole authority and power to control the corporate governance actions of Crown Capital and any Entity directly or indirectly owned by Crown Capital.

H. Exemption from Certain Taxes and Fees.

Pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers of property or any Interests, including the Transferred Subsidiaries, pursuant to the Plan, including, to the extent applicable, the NOLA Sale Transaction, the recording of any amendments to such transfers, or any new mortgages or liens placed on the property in connection with such transfers, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, registration tax, mortgage tax, stamp act, real estate, transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, or other similar tax, fees, charges, or governmental assessment (including any penalties and interest), and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment to the maximum extent covered by section 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code.

I. Preservation of Rights of Action.

On the Effective Date, (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall vest in the post-Effective Date Debtors under the authority of the Wind-Down Officer, in each case free and clear of all Claims, Liens, Encumbrances and other interests. The NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust and shall, upon such transfer, become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan) and the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall become Wind-Down Assets. On and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue and dispose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action (including the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action) and the Wind-Down Officer shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action. No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan or Disclosure Statement as to any Cause of Action as any indication that the Debtor, and on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action against them. No preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation. Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, subject to the oversight, approval, consultation and consent of the Advisory Committee as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, shall retain and shall have, through their authorized agents or representatives, the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or the Disclosure Statement to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee or the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action. Unless and until any such Causes of Action against any Person or Entity are expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or assigned, or settled under the Plan or a Final Order, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, expressly reserve all such Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation or Consummation.

J. Election to Contribute Claims.

Because aggregating all Contributed Claims may enable the pursuit and settlement of such litigation claims in a more efficient and effective manner, each Holder of a Claim or Interest may agree, by electing on its Ballot, to contribute its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of Contributing Claimants. Rather, as provided in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, any value attributable to such Contributed Claims will be segregated and only available for disbursement to those Holders that elected to contribute such Claims. By electing such option on its Ballot, each Contributing Claimant agrees that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, it will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

K. Contribution of Contributed Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Contributed Claims will be irrevocably contributed to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of Contributing Claimants. No Person may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Confirmation Order, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Plan Supplement, or any other document as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee will or will not pursue any and all available Contributed Claims against such Person. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all Contributed Claims fully to the same extent that the Contributing Claimants could have asserted such claims prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contributed Claims shall not include the rights of any of the Contributing Claimants to receive the Distributions under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests and shall not include any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law.

ARTICLE V
TREATMENT OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

A. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, all Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases (including all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List) will be deemed rejected, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than those that previously were assumed or rejected by the Debtors or those that are subject to a pending motion to assume or assign such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such rejections.

B. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

Unless otherwise provided by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within 30 days after entry of the Confirmation Order. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to this Plan not filed within such time shall be disallowed, forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against, as applicable, the Debtors, the Estates, or property thereof, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged. All Allowed Claims arising from the rejection of any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases shall constitute and be treated as Unsecured Claims. Nothing herein shall constitute an extension of any Claims Bar Date otherwise applicable to a Claim arising from an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously rejected by the Debtors.

C. Treatment of Insurance Policies.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each of the Insurance Policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto issued to or entered into by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date shall not be considered Executory Contracts and shall neither be assumed nor rejected by the Debtors; provided, however, that to the extent any such Insurance Policy is determined by Final Order to be an Executory Contract, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the Plan will constitute a motion to assume such Insurance Policy and assign the same to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, the entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute approval of such assumption and assignment pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy

Code. Unless otherwise determined by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed by the parties thereto prior to the Effective Date, no payments are required to cure any defaults of the Debtor existing as of the Confirmation Date with respect to any Insurance Policy, and prior payments for premiums or other charges made prior to the Petition Date under or with respect to any Insurance Policy shall be indefeasible.

D. Effect of Confirmation on D&O Liability Insurance Policies.

From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall remain in place on terms for coverage and amounts no less favorable than the Debtors' current directors' and officers' insurance policies. From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be maintained for the benefit of the beneficiaries thereunder and shall not be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust nor become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan). The Debtors shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policies (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect on or prior to the Effective Date, and the Independent Fiduciary shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy or policies for the full term of such policy or policies.

ARTICLE VI
PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISTRIBUTIONS

A. Timing and Calculation of Amounts to Be Distributed.

Except as (1) otherwise provided herein, (2) directed by a Final Order, or (3) as otherwise agreed to by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Officer, as the case may be, and the Holder of the applicable Claim, on the Effective Date (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Distribution Date after such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive the full amount of distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class from the Distribution Agent. In the event that any payment or distribution under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or distribution may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. Except as specifically provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

B. Distribution Agent.

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under the Plan and the Plan Supplement; (b) make all distributions contemplated under the Plan; (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan and the Plan Supplement, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of the Plan and the Plan Supplement.

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Distribution Agent on or after the Effective Date (including taxes) and any reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement claims (including reasonable attorney and/or other professional fees and expenses) made by the Distribution Agent shall be paid in Cash by the Wind-Down Officer from the Wind-Down Account.

C. Delivery of Distributions and Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Distribution Agent shall make all distributions required under the Plan. The Distribution Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Additionally, in the event that the Distribution Agent is so otherwise ordered, all costs and expenses of procuring any such bond or surety shall be paid from the Wind-Down Account.

In the event that either (a) a distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable, (b) the Holder of an Allowed Claim does not respond in writing to a request by the Debtors or the Distribution Agent for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution within sixty (60) days or otherwise complete the actions necessary to facilitate a distribution as identified to the Holder within ninety (90) days of the Distribution Agent's request, no distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Distribution Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder or received the necessary information to facilitate a particular distribution, at which time such distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest, dividends, or other accruals of any kind; provided that such distributions shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code on the date that is six months after (a) the date of the distribution, if a distribution is made, or (b) the date that a request for information or action is sent by the Distribution Agent. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Creditor Recovery Trust automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable local, state, federal, or foreign escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and the Claim or Interest of any Holder to such property or interest in property shall be released and forever barred.

D. Claims Payable by Third Parties.

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to one of the Debtors' insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable insurance policy, including any D&O Liability Insurance Policy. Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Cause of Action that the Debtors or any Entity may hold against any other Entity, including insurers under any policies of insurance, nor shall anything contained in the Plan constitute or be deemed a waiver by such insurers of any defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such insurers.

E. Distributions to Unsecured Claims.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, all Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims shall be administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to and in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

F. Allocation Between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided herein, the aggregate consideration paid to Holders on account of their Allowed Claims pursuant to the Plan shall be treated as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof and as determined for federal income tax purposes) and second, to the extent the consideration exceeds the principal amount of the Allowed Claims, to the remaining portion of such Allowed Claim, if any.

ARTICLE VII
PROCEDURES FOR RESOLVING CONTINGENT, UNLIQUIDATED, AND DISPUTED CLAIMS

A. Allowance of Claims.

After the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have and shall retain any and all available rights and defenses the applicable Debtor had with respect to any Claim immediately before the Effective Date, including, without limitation, the right to assert any objection to Claims based on the limitations imposed by section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that neither the Wind-Down Officer nor the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to any Professional Fee Claims or fees of the Independent Fiduciary. ## I. INTRODUCTION

Reference is made to the Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates (the "Plan"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Plan. Crown Capital Holdings LLC ("Crown Capital"), RH Chenault Creek LLC ("Chenault"), RH Windrun LLC ("Windrun"), RH Copper Creek LLC ("Copper Creek"), RH Lakewind East LLC ("Lakewind"), RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC, and Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC (collectively, the "Debtors")[2] submit this disclosure statement (the "Disclosure Statement"), pursuant to section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, to holders of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors in connection with the solicitation of votes for acceptance of the Plan. The Plan constitutes a separate chapter 11 plan for each Debtor.

II. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The Debtors own and operate four multifamily affordable housing complexes located in New Orleans, Louisiana (the "NOLA Properties"): Carmel Brook Apartments, owned by Chenault; Carmel Spring Apartments, owned by Windrun; Laguna Reserve Apartments, owned by Lakewind; and Laguna Creek Apartments, owned by Copper Creek. The NOLA Properties provide rent restricted housing to low-income residents and are supported in part by government housing programs. Preserving the NOLA Properties is critical not only to maximizing the value of the Debtors' estates, but also to protecting vital affordable housing resources in the local community.

The Debtors, along with their affiliates CBRM Realty Inc. ("CBRM"), Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC, and Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC ("Kelly Hamilton," together with CBRM and Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC, the "CBRM Debtors"), commenced these chapter 11 cases on May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date").[3] These chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") were filed amid severe operational, financial, and governance challenges stemming from mismanagement of the broader Crown Capital Portfolio (defined below) and the criminal conviction of its ultimate equity owner, Mark "Moshe" Silber. These issues contributed to liquidity constraints, declining property performance, and creditor enforcement actions. Since the Petition Date, and under the leadership of an independent fiduciary (the "Independent Fiduciary"), the Debtors have stabilized operations, obtained postpetition financing, and initiated a court-supervised marketing process aimed at maximizing value for the benefit of all stakeholders.

To support this process, Crown Capital, Chenault Creek, Windrun, Copper Creek, and Lakewind obtained $17,422,728 in postpetition financing (the "NOLA DIP Facility") from DH1 Holdings LLC ("DH1"), CKD Funding LLC ("CKD Funding"), and CKD Investor Penn LLC ("CKD Penn" and, together with DH1 and CKD Funding, collectively, the "NOLA DIP Lenders"), investors with deep experience in the multifamily and affordable housing sectors. Of that amount, approximately $8,461,524

[2] ~~The CBRM Plan provides that Crown Capital Holdings LLC shall constitute a Debtor for purposes of the CBRM Plan solely to the extent that a NOLA Restructuring Transaction (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) has been consummated or the NOLA DIP Lenders and the Independent Fiduciary agree in writing or as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Subsequent to the filing of the CBRM Plan, the Debtors determined that a NOLA Restructuring Transaction would not occur prior to Confirmation of the CBRM Plan. Accordingly, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the CBRM Plan, Crown Capital Holdings LLC shall not be a Debtor under the CBRM Plan and this Plan shall constitute the sole plan for Crown Capital Holdings LLC. The Debtors shall modify the CBRM Plan to remove Crown Capital Holdings LLC as a Debtor prior to the Confirmation Hearing scheduled for the CBRM Plan.~~

was funded through new money loans, while the remaining $8,961,204 reflected a roll-up of prepetition obligations. Prior to the Petition Date, the NOLA DIP Lenders held the senior secured mortgage loans encumbering the NOLA Properties and were the Debtors' primary secured creditors. The NOLA DIP Facility has served as a critical bridge to fund operations and support a dual-track strategy for sale and plan confirmation.

Operational stability has been further supported by the Debtors' continued engagement of Lynd Management Group LLC ("Lynd Management") as property manager and LAGSP LLC ("LAGSP") as asset manager. Both firms are affiliates of The Lynd Group, a Texas-based real estate organization with a national platform and demonstrated experience managing affordable housing assets. The Debtors initially engaged Lynd Management and LAGSP pursuant to prepetition service agreements, and subsequently moved to assume and amend those agreements postpetition to ensure continuity of operations and to enhance oversight during the chapter 11 process.

The Debtors are now advancing a chapter 11 plan that contemplates a court-approved sale of the NOLA Properties (the "NOLA Sale Transaction"). On August 15, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving: (a) bidding procedures, including the sale timeline and form and manner of notice for the potential sale of one or more of the NOLA Properties; (b) a process for selecting a stalking horse bidder and approving bid protections; and (c) procedures for the potential assumption and assignment of executory contracts and unexpired leases [Docket No. 382] (the "NOLA Bidding Procedures Order"). In accordance with the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order, the NOLA Sale Transaction may be implemented either pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or through consummation of the Plan.

The Plan contemplates the following stakeholder recoveries:

- All Allowed Other Priority Claims will be paid in full in Cash on the Effective Date, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable;

- All Allowed Other Secured Claims will be (a) paid in full in Cash, (b) reinstated, (c) receive the return of applicable collateral securing such Allowed Other Secured Claims, or (d) otherwise receive treatment that renders such Claims Unimpaired under the Bankruptcy Code;

- Each Holder of an Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claim will receive, (a) ~~to the extent there are Sale Proceeds that are proceeds of the sale of the Lakewind Property in excess of the amount necessary to satisfy all Allowed NOLA DIP Claims, Allowed General Administrative Claims, Allowed Priority Tax Claims, Allowed Other Priority Claims, and Allowed Other Secured Claims in full in Cash on the Effective Date, payment in Cash of the amount of the excess Sale Proceeds attributable to the sale of the Lakewind Property on the Effective Date or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable; or (b) to the extent there are not sufficient~~ Sale Proceeds that are proceeds of the sale of the Lakewind Property to ~~satisfy~~ the extent set forth in and subject to the waterfall provisions of the NOLA DIP Order; or (b) to the extent the Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claim ~~in full, on account of the remaining unpaid CIF Mortgage Loan Claim~~is not satisfied by the applicable Sale Proceeds in full as set forth in clause (i), its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution to Holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan;

- Each Holder of an Allowed NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claim will receive a treatment determined by the NOLA Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the NOLA Purchase Agreement;

- Each Holder of an Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan;

- Each Holder of an Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan);

- Each Holder of an Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan);

- Except as otherwise provided in the Plan Supplement, all Intercompany Claims will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Claims; provided, however, that any such Intercompany Claim shall not be canceled, released or extinguished and shall remain in force to the extent necessary to allow the Creditor Recovery Trustee to seek recovery from any non-Debtor;

- Except as otherwise provided in the Plan Supplement, all Intercompany Interests will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Interests;

- On the Effective Date, each Crown Capital Interest shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust as provided in the Plan; provided, however, that the Crown Capital Interests shall remain subject to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed to by Spano Investor LLC; provided, further, however, that Spano Investor LLC shall not directly or indirectly seek to exercise any legal, equitable, or other rights against such Crown Capital Interests or other assets of any Debtor or subsidiary of any Debtor that may constitute collateral of Spano Investor LLC with respect to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. pending further order of the Bankruptcy Court or a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court in the Spano Adversary Proceeding; provided, further, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Plan shall limit or affect Spano Investor LLC's rights to enforce its prepetition judgment and exercise any remedies against non-Debtors Fox Capital LLC, CBCC 1 LLC, CBCC 2 LLC, CBCC 3 LLC, CBCC 4 LLC, CBCC 5 LLC, Westwood Jackson Apts MM LLC, or Westwood Jackson Apts LLC, or any assets of such non-Debtor entities;

- All Interests in RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust without any distribution on account of such Interests; and

- All Section 510(b) Claims, if any, will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Claims.

The Debtors strongly believe that the Plan is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, and represents the best available alternative at this time. For these reasons, the Debtors strongly recommend that Holders of Claims and Interests entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan vote to accept the Plan.

A. What is chapter 11?

Chapter 11 is the principal business reorganization chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition to permitting debtor rehabilitation, chapter 11 promotes equality of treatment for creditors and similarly situated equity interest holders, subject to the priority of distributions prescribed by the Bankruptcy Code.

The commencement of a chapter 11 case creates an estate that comprises all of the legal and equitable interests of the debtor as of the date the chapter 11 case is commenced. The Bankruptcy Code provides that the debtor may continue to operate its business and remain in possession of its property as a "debtor in possession."

Consummating a chapter 11 plan is the principal objective of a chapter 11 case. A bankruptcy court's confirmation of a chapter 11 plan binds the debtor, any person acquiring property under the plan, any creditor or equity interest holder of the debtor (whether or not such creditor or equity interest holder voted to accept the plan), and any other entity as may be ordered by the bankruptcy court. Subject to certain limited exceptions, the order issued by a bankruptcy court confirming a plan provides for the treatment of the debtor's liabilities in accordance with the terms of the confirmed plan.

B. Why are the Debtors sending me this Disclosure Statement?

The Debtors are seeking to obtain Bankruptcy Court approval of the Plan. Before soliciting acceptances of the Plan, section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Debtors to prepare a disclosure statement containing adequate information of a kind, and in sufficient detail, to enable a hypothetical reasonable investor to make an informed judgment regarding acceptance of the Plan and to share such disclosure statement with all holders of Claims and Interests whose votes on the Plan are being solicited. This Disclosure Statement is being submitted in accordance with these requirements.

C. Am I entitled to vote on the Plan?

Your ability to vote on, and your distribution under, the Plan, if any, depends on what type of Claim or Interest you hold. Each category of holders of Claims or Interests, as set forth in Article III of the Plan pursuant to section 1122(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, is referred to as a "Class." Each Class's respective voting status is set forth below:

| Class | Claims and Interests | Status | Voting Rights |
|---|---|---|---|
| Class 1 | Other Priority Claims | Unimpaired | Note Entitled to Vote (Presumed to Accept) |
| Class 2 | Other Secured Claims | Unimpaired | Not Entitled to Vote (Presumed to Accept) |
| Class 3 | CIF Mortgage Loan Claims | Impaired | Entitled to Vote |
| Class 4 | NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims | Impaired | Entitled to Vote |
| Class 5 | Other NOLA Unsecured Claims | Impaired | Entitled to Vote |

|---|---|---|---|
| Class 6 | Crown Capital Unsecured Claims | Impaired | Entitled to Vote |
| Class 7 | RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims | Impaired | Entitled to Vote |
| Class 8 | Intercompany Claims | ~~Unimpaired /~~ Impaired | Not Entitled to Vote |
| Class 9 | Intercompany Interests | ~~Unimpaired /~~ Impaired | Not Entitled to Vote |
| Class 10 | Crown Capital Interests | Impaired | Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject) |
| Class 11 | RH New Orleans Interests | Impaired | Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject) |
| Class 12 | Section 510(b) Claims | Impaired | Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject) |

D. What will I receive from the Debtors if the Plan is consummated?

The following chart provides a summary of the anticipated recovery to Holders of Claims and Interests under the Plan. Any estimates of Claims or Interests in this Disclosure Statement may vary from the final amounts allowed by the Bankruptcy Court. Your ability to receive distributions under the Plan depends upon the ability of the Debtors to obtain Confirmation and meet the conditions necessary to consummate the Plan.

Each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive under the Plan the treatment described below in full and final satisfaction~~, settlement, release, and discharge~~ of and in exchange for such Holder's Claim, except to the extent different treatment is agreed to by the Debtors and the Holder of such Allowed Claim. Unless otherwise indicated, the Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive such treatment on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. Projected recoveries included in the summary table below reflect the Debtors' analysis of anticipated Claims.

[43] Recoveries to Holders of Class 6 Crown Capital Unsecured Claims are dependent upon the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such value is largely dependent on the successful prosecution of Claims and Causes of Action, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, by the Creditor Recovery Trust. There can be no assurance of the validity of, the amount of, or the chance of recovery on account of these Claims and Causes of Action. Defenses may also be available. Accordingly, recoveries are uncertain.

[54] Recoveries to Holders of Class 7 RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims are dependent upon the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such value is largely dependent on the successful prosecution of Claims and Causes of Action, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, by the Creditor Recovery Trust. There can be no assurance of the validity of, the amount of, or the chance of recovery on account of these Claims and Causes of Action. Defenses may also be available. Accordingly, recoveries are uncertain.

E. What will I receive from the Debtors if I hold a General Administrative Claim or a Priority Tax Claim?

General Administrative Claims and Priority Tax Claims have not been placed in a Class in the Plan, consistent with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. Article II.A of the Plan sets forth the treatment for General Administrative Claims and provides in part that such Claims will be satisfied in full in an amount of Cash equal to the amount of such Allowed General Administrative Claim. Article II.E of the Plan sets forth the treatment for Priority Tax Claims, which states that an Allowed Priority Tax Claim will be treated in accordance with section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code.

F. Are any regulatory approvals required to consummate the Plan?

Other than approvals that may be required in the ordinary course of business in connection with the continued operation of the NOLA Properties, the Debtors are not aware of any material U.S. regulatory approvals required to consummate the Plan. However, the sale of the NOLA Properties pursuant to the Plan or under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code is subject to entry of a final, non-appealable order of the Bankruptcy Court confirming the Plan or sale under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

G. What happens if the NOLA Sale Transaction is not consummated?

The Plan is premised on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, which the Debtors believe will represent the best available path to maximize value and facilitate an orderly Wind-Down of the Estates. However, if the NOLA Sale Transaction is not consummated, the Debtors would work expeditiously to evaluate and pursue an alternative transaction structure, which could include, if required and feasible, a reorganization of one or more Debtors, though no such transaction has been proposed or developed to date and may not be viable given the Debtors' financial condition.

While no such alternative restructuring has been negotiated or proposed as of the date of this Disclosure Statement, the Debtors believe there may be value-preserving alternatives that could be developed and implemented through a revised chapter 11 plan, subject to further diligence, market conditions, and creditor support. In such a scenario, the treatment of Claims and Interests could differ from that set forth in the current Plan and would be determined based on the structure of any such alternative transaction.

If no viable transaction can be implemented, the Debtors may need to consider a conversion to chapter 7, which could result in lower recoveries than those estimated under the Plan.

H. What happens to my recovery if the Plan is not confirmed or does not go effective?

If the Plan is not confirmed or does not go effective, there is no assurance that the Debtors will be able to implement an alternative transaction that would provide recoveries equal to or greater than those contemplated by the Plan. The Plan is based on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' Estates. The Debtors do not have an alternative transaction or plan of reorganization currently negotiated or proposed.

If the NOLA Sale Transaction cannot be completed and the Plan cannot be confirmed, the Debtors would evaluate potential alternatives. However, there can be no assurance that a viable alternative transaction could be identified, negotiated, and implemented in a timely or cost-effective manner. In such a scenario, the Debtors may be required to convert these Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, which the Debtors believe would likely result in significantly lower recoveries for Holders of Allowed Claims.

For a more detailed description of the potential consequences of a failure to confirm or consummate the Plan, see Article XI.B of this Disclosure Statement, entitled "Best Interests of Creditors Test," which begins on page ~~41~~48.

I. If the Plan provides that I get a distribution, do I get it upon Confirmation or when the Plan goes effective, and what is meant by "Confirmation," "Effective Date," and "Consummation"?

"Confirmation" of the Plan refers to approval of the Plan by the Bankruptcy Court. Confirmation of the Plan does not guarantee that you will receive the distribution indicated under the Plan. After Confirmation of the Plan by the Bankruptcy Court, there are conditions that need to be satisfied or waived so that the Plan can go effective. Initial distributions to holders of Allowed Claims and Interests will only be made on the date the Plan becomes effective—the "Effective Date"—or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, as specified in the Plan. See Article IX of the Plan. "Consummation" means the occurrence of the Effective Date.

J. What are the sources of Cash and other consideration required to fund the Plan?

The Debtors intend to fund distributions under the Plan through a combination of (a) the Sale Proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction; (b) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to be transferred in accordance with the CBRM Plan and this Plan; and (c) other available assets, as further described in the Plan.

The NOLA Sale Transaction contemplates the sale of the NOLA Properties pursuant to one or more purchase agreements with the successful bidder(s) following conclusion of the sale process.

In addition to the proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction, distributions under the Plan will be funded from: (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, consisting of, to the extent not expended prior to the Effective Date solely with respect to the development and investigation of Claims and Causes of Action held by the Debtors or their Estates to be pursued for the benefit of creditors, Cash in an amount equal to $1,000,000 of the proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility, which shall be funded on the Effective Date; (ii) any recoveries from the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, Contributed Claims, and NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, which will be pursued and administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust; and (iii) the Interests of RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC and Crown Capital. Distributions from the Creditor Recovery Trust will be made to Holders of Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claims (Class 6) and Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims (Class 7), with each Holder receiving its Pro Rata share of the Distributable

Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust ~~provided to such Holder on account of its Allowed CBRM Unsecured Claim~~ (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan).

For the avoidance of doubt, the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall include any Claim or Cause of Action, including any Avoidance Action, held by the Debtors or their Estates and the proceeds thereof, against any of the following (each, an "Excluded Party" and collectively, the "Excluded Parties"): (a) Moshe (Mark) Silber; (b) Frederick Schulman; (c) Piper Sandler & Co.; (d) Mayer Brown LLP; (e) Rhodium Asset Management LLC; (f) Syms Construction LLC; (g) Rapid Improvements LLC; (h) NB Affordable Foundation Inc.; (i) any title agencies; (j) any independent real estate appraisal firms; (k) any rating agencies; (l) any accounting firms; (m) other current or former Insiders of the Debtors; (~~l~~n) any party ~~listed~~ on the Schedule of Excluded Parties~~, which shall be filed as part of the Plan Supplement (as the same may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time)~~; and (~~m~~o) with respect to each of the foregoing, each Person's or Entity's Affiliates, partners, members, managers, officers, directors, employees, and agents that are not specifically identified in ~~the~~this Plan as a Released Party.

Certain administrative expenses, including Allowed Professional Compensation Claims, will be funded from a dedicated Fee Escrow Account. The specific allocation of consideration and other assets to the various Classes of Claims and Interests will be set forth in the Plan Supplement.

Yes, the Plan provides for releases and exculpation of the Debtors and other parties in interest as set forth in Article VIII of the Plan.

Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors faced escalating operational and financial distress stemming from broader issues within the Crown Capital Portfolio (as defined below), including the criminal conviction of its ultimate equity owner, disputes among insiders, and a breakdown in governance and oversight. These failures contributed to cash flow shortfalls, unpaid obligations, and deterioration in property performance, placing the long-term viability of the NOLA Properties at serious risk. Following the appointment of the Independent Fiduciary in April 2024, the Debtors and their professionals undertook an extensive review of potential estate claims, insider transactions, and restructuring alternatives.

As part of that assessment, the Independent Fiduciary and the Debtors' professionals evaluated prepetition financial dealings involving insiders and affiliated entities, as well as the conduct surrounding the historical governance and financial condition of the Debtors. Based on that review, the Independent Fiduciary directed the Debtors to preserve all potential Claims and Causes of Action—including, without limitation, Avoidance Actions under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code and any claims for breach of fiduciary duty, mismanagement, or other actionable misconduct—against each Excluded Party. These parties are expressly excluded from the definitions of both "Released Parties" and "Exculpated Parties" under the Plan. Accordingly, the Plan does not, and shall not be construed to, release, exculpate, or otherwise impair any Claims or Causes of Action against these parties, all of which are expressly preserved. The Debtors, through the Independent Fiduciary and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, retain and reserve all such Causes of Action for the benefit of the Debtors' Estates and their stakeholders, and such Causes of Action will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust for potential pursuit by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in accordance with the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

In contrast, the Independent Fiduciary has determined that releases are appropriate for the following parties: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the NOLA Purchaser; (c) LAGSP; (d) Lynd Management; (e) the NOLA DIP Lenders; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former ~~Affiliates, and such Entity's and its current and former Affiliates'~~ subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (h) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. These parties are collectively defined in the Plan as the "Released Parties."

In addition to the estate releases, the Plan includes a customary third-party release that applies only to Holders of Claims or Interests who affirmatively consent to grant such release. A Holder of a Claim in Class 3, Class 4, Class 5, Class 6, or Class 7 affirmatively consents to grant the third-party release set forth in Article VIII of the Plan if the Holder either (a) votes to accept the Plan, or (b) abstains or does not affirmatively vote to accept the Plan but checks the box on the Holder's Ballot indicating that the Holder opts to grant the release. Holders of Claims or Interests in Class 1, Class 2, Class 8, Class 9, Class 10, Class 11 or Class 12, which are not entitled to vote, may affirmatively consent to grant the release by submitting a completed Opt-In Form and checking the box indicating their consent. Only those Holders who take one of these specified affirmative actions will grant the third-party release under the Plan.

The Plan also includes an exculpation provision that applies to (a) each Debtor solely in its capacity as a debtor and debtor in possession following the Petition Date and excluding such Debtor for the period prior to the Petition Date, (b) the Independent Fiduciary, (c) LAGSP, (d) Lynd Management, and (e) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. These parties are exculpated from any liability for any act or omission arising as of or following the Petition Date through the Effective Date in connection with, relating to, or arising out of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan, the NOLA Sale Transaction, or Restructuring Transactions, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation of any document in connection with the Plan, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Plan, the pursuit of Consummation, the Restructuring Transactions, the administration and implementation of the Plan, or the distribution of property pursuant to the Plan.

The Debtors believe that the release, exculpation, and related injunction provisions are necessary and appropriate in light of the contributions made by the Released and Exculpated Parties, and consistent with applicable law, including precedent established by the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. The Debtors intend to present evidence at the Confirmation Hearing in support of the necessity and propriety of these Plan provisions.

IMPORTANTLY, ONLY HOLDERS OF CLAIMS OR INTERESTS THAT AFFIRMATIVELY OPT TO GRANT THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASES CONTAINED IN THE PLAN WILL BE SUBJECT TO SUCH RELEASES. A HOLDER WILL BE CONSIDERED TO HAVE AFFIRMATIVELY CONSENTED TO THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASES ONLY IF THAT HOLDER: (A) IS A HOLDER OF A CLAIM IN CLASS 3, CLASS 4, CLASS 5, CLASS 6 OR CLASS 7 AND VOTES TO ACCEPT THE PLAN; (B) IS A HOLDER OF A CLAIM IN CLASS 3, CLASS 4, CLASS 5, CLASS 6 OR CLASS 7, ABSTAINS OR DOES NOT AFFIRMATIVELY VOTE TO ACCEPT THE PLAN, AND CHECKS THE BOX ON THE BALLOT INDICATING THAT SUCH HOLDER OPTS TO GRANT THE RELEASES; OR (C) IS A HOLDER OF A CLAIM OR INTEREST IN CLASS 1, CLASS 2, CLASS 8, CLASS 9, CLASS 10, CLASS 11 OR CLASS 12 AND CHECKS THE BOX ON THE OPT-IN FORM INDICATING THAT SUCH HOLDER OPTS TO GRANT THE RELEASES. HOLDERS WHO DO NOT AFFIRMATIVELY

OPT TO GRANT THE RELEASES WILL NOT BE BOUND BY THEM. THE RELEASES ARE AN INTEGRAL ELEMENT OF THE PLAN.

L. What are the potential claims and causes of action against Silber and his affiliates?

The Debtors, through their Independent Fiduciary, are continuing to investigate potential Estate Claims and Causes of Action against Mark Silber, Frederick Schulman, and other individuals and entities associated with their historical control, management, or influence over the Debtors prior to the Petition Date. These investigations include potential claims for breach of fiduciary duty, mismanagement, corporate waste, fraudulent transfers, and other conduct that may have harmed the Debtors or their stakeholders.

With the assistance of advisors, the Independent Fiduciary is reviewing numerous prepetition transactions and governance actions involving these insiders. The areas of focus include the mismanagement of the Debtors' real estate assets, the potential misuse of financing proceeds, neglect of regulatory obligations, and other conduct potentially involving self-dealing, fraud, or improper diversion of estate value. The Debtors are also evaluating whether the misconduct that formed the basis of Silber's and Schulman's criminal convictions may have impacted the Debtors or their creditors.

As a result of this ongoing review, the Independent Fiduciary has directed the Debtors to preserve all related Claims and Causes of Action, including those against Silber, Schulman, entities they owned or controlled, and any other individuals or firms that may have facilitated or benefited from the conduct in question. These individuals and entities are expressly excluded from the Plan's definitions of "Released Parties" and "Exculpated Parties," and therefore are not receiving any release or exculpation under the Plan.

All such Claims and Causes of Action are being preserved under the Plan and, as of the Effective Date, will vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust and may be pursued by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The Creditor Recovery Trustee will serve as the post-effective date fiduciary responsible for investigating and, where appropriate, prosecuting such retained Claims and Causes of Action for the benefit of unsecured creditors.

M. How does this Plan relate to and interact with the CBRM Plan?

This Plan has been developed in coordination with the Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. ~~338~~469] (as amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time, the "CBRM Plan"). Pursuant to the CBRM Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan to assume all liability of the CBRM Debtors and their estates for, and to administer, all CBRM Unsecured Claims.

Under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the Debtors will transfer to the Creditor Recovery Trust (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any) to be administered for and distributed to the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims in accordance with the waterfall provisions of the CBRM Plan.

If the CBRM Plan is not confirmed or does not become effective, the Debtors will implement an alternative, court-approved mechanism to administer and distribute the assets that would otherwise have been transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such mechanism may include establishing a similar trust under the Plan or another structure designed to maximize value for stakeholders.

N. What is the Creditor Recovery Trust?

The Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan for the benefit of Holders of Class 6 Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, Class 7 Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims, and Allowed CBRM Unsecured Claims (as defined in the CBRM Plan).

Pursuant to the Plan, certain assets will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, including: (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, consisting of, to the extent not expended prior to the Effective Date solely with respect to the development and investigation of Claims and Causes of Action held by the Debtors or their Estates to be pursued for the benefit of creditors, Cash in an amount equal to $1,000,000 of the proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility, which shall be funded on the Effective Date; (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any).

In addition, as set forth in the Plan, the Debtors will include in the Plan Supplement a schedule of executory contracts to be assumed by the applicable Debtor and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts"). On the Effective Date, such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts shall be deemed assumed and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and any associated Cure Amounts shall be satisfied in accordance with the Plan and the Confirmation Order.

The Creditor Recovery Trust will be administered by one or more trustees selected by the CBRM Debtors, in consultation with the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, the NOLA DIP Lenders, and Spano Investor LLC ("Spano"). The Creditor Recovery Trustee will be responsible for administering, prosecuting, settling, or monetizing the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and making distributions in accordance with the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The Creditor Recovery Trust is intended to maximize recoveries for unsecured creditors.

O. What is the Wind-Down and who is responsible?

Following the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the Effective Date of the Plan, the Debtors will no longer operate an ongoing business and will instead wind down their affairs. The Wind-Down Officer appointed under the CBRM Plan shall be appointed by the Debtors to oversee the wind down, dissolution, and liquidation of the Estates following the Effective Date in accordance with Article IV.C of the Plan.

P. What is the deadline to vote on the Plan?

The Voting Deadline is ~~[●]~~October 10, 2025, at ~~[●] [a.m. / p.m.]~~4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

Q. How do I vote for or against the Plan?

Detailed instructions regarding how to vote on the Plan are contained on the ballots distributed to Holders of Claims and Interests that are entitled to vote on the Plan. For your vote to be counted, you must submit your ballot in accordance with the instructions provided in Article IV.D of this Disclosure Statement. BALLOTS SENT BY FAX OR EMAIL ARE NOT ALLOWED AND WILL NOT BE COUNTED.

R. Why is the Bankruptcy Court holding a Confirmation Hearing?

Section 1128(a) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Bankruptcy Court to hold a hearing on confirmation of the Plan and recognizes that any party in interest may object to Confirmation of the Plan. The Confirmation Hearing will be scheduled by the Bankruptcy Court shortly after the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases. All parties in interest will be served notice of the time, date, and location of the Confirmation Hearing once scheduled.

S. What is the purpose of the Confirmation Hearing?

The confirmation of a plan of reorganization by a bankruptcy court binds the debtor, any issuer of securities under a plan of reorganization, any person acquiring property under a plan of reorganization, any creditor or equity interest holder of a debtor, and any other person or entity as may be ordered by the bankruptcy court in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to certain limited exceptions, the order issued by the bankruptcy court confirming a plan of reorganization discharges a debtor from any debt that arose before the confirmation of such plan of reorganization and provides for the treatment of such debt in accordance with the terms of the confirmed plan of reorganization.

The deadline by which all objections to the Plan must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served so as to be actually received by the appropriate notice parties is ~~[●]~~October 10, 2025, at ~~[●] [a.m. / p.m.]~~4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

T. Who do I contact if I have additional questions with respect to this Disclosure Statement or the Plan?

If you have any questions regarding this Disclosure Statement or the Plan, please contact the Debtors' Claims and Noticing Agent, Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global ("Verita"), by submitting an inquiry to https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm/inquiry (with "CBRM Solicitation Inquiry" in the subject line).

Copies of the Plan and the Disclosure Statement: (a) are available on the Debtors' restructuring website, free of charge, at https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm; (b) may be obtained upon request of the Claims and Noticing Agent by writing to CBRM Realty Inc., et al. Ballot Processing, c/o KCC dba Verita Global, 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300, El Segundo, CA 90245 or by submitting an inquiry to https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm/inquiry (with "CBRM Solicitation Inquiry" in the subject line); and (c) will be available for inspection for a fee on the Bankruptcy Court's website at https://www.njb.uscourts.gov.

U. Do the Debtors recommend voting in favor of the Plan?

Yes. The Debtors strongly recommend that all eligible creditors vote to accept the Plan. The Plan contemplates the sale of the NOLA Properties through a competitive, court-supervised Sale Process, the transfer of designated assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust to administer and distribute recoveries, and the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' Estates following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction.

This structure is designed to maximize value and ensure fair and efficient distributions to creditors. The Debtors believe that the Plan is in the best interests of all Holders of Claims and Interests under the circumstances. Alternative paths would likely involve significant delays, increased administrative costs, and lower recoveries. In contrast, the Plan offers a clear, actionable, and creditor-focused approach to monetize remaining assets, preserve and pursue potential litigation claims, and bring these Chapter 11 Cases to a prompt and value-maximizing conclusion for the benefit of all stakeholders.

IV. SOLICITATION AND VOTING PROCEDURES

This Disclosure Statement, which is accompanied by a ballot (the "Ballot") to be used for voting on the Plan, is being distributed to the Holders of Claims in the Classes entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

A. Holders of Claims and Interests Entitled to Vote on the Plan

The Debtors are soliciting votes to accept or reject the Plan only from Holders of Claims and Interests in Classes 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 (the "Voting Classes"). The Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes are Impaired under the Plan and may, in certain circumstances, receive a distribution under the Plan. Accordingly, Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes have the right to vote to accept or reject the Plan. The Debtors are not soliciting votes from Holders of Claims or Interests in Classes 1, 2, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12.

B. Votes Required for Acceptance by a Class

Under the Bankruptcy Code, acceptance by a class of claims requires an affirmative vote of more than one-half in number of total allowed claims that have voted and an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds in dollar amount of the total allowed claims that have voted. Acceptance by a class of interests requires an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds in amount of the total allowed interests that have voted.

If a Class contains Claims or Interests eligible to vote and no Holders of Claims or Interests eligible to vote in such Class vote to accept or reject the Plan, then such Class shall be deemed to have accepted the Plan.

C. Certain Factors to Be Considered Prior to Voting

There are a variety of factors that all Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan should consider prior to voting to accept or reject the Plan. These factors may impact recoveries under the Plan and include, among other things:

- unless otherwise specifically indicated, the financial information contained in the Disclosure Statement has not been audited and is based on an analysis of data available at the time of the preparation of the Plan and the Disclosure Statement;
- although the Debtors believe that the Plan complies with all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors can neither assure such compliance nor that the Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan;
- the Debtors may request Confirmation without the acceptance of the Plan by all Impaired Classes in accordance with section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; and
- any delays of either Confirmation or Consummation could result in, among other things, increased Administrative Claims and Professional Fee Claims.

While these factors could affect distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests under the Plan, the occurrence or impact of such factors may not necessarily affect the validity of the vote of the Voting Classes or necessarily require a re-solicitation of the votes of Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes pursuant to section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code.

For a further discussion of risk factors, please refer to "Risk Factors" described in Article X of this Disclosure Statement.

D. Solicitation Procedures

A. The Debtors' Business Operations

The Debtors are part of a larger real estate portfolio formed by real estate investor Moshe "Mark" Silber and certain affiliated parties (the "Crown Capital Portfolio"). The Crown Capital Portfolio holds dozens of multifamily housing projects across the United States, including the NOLA Properties, and has been historically funded, at least in part, by the federal government's housing assistance programs, such as Section 8.

Among the assets in the Crown Capital Portfolio are the NOLA Properties. These properties serve low-income tenants and participate in various government-supported housing programs. The NOLA Properties serve as a critical source of affordable housing for low-income residents in the New Orleans community. Rent payments from tenants (including subsidies paid directly by government programs) represent the Debtors' primary source of revenue. The Debtors do not have employees of their own and instead rely on third-party professionals to manage and operate the NOLA Properties.

B. Property Management and Operations

Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors engaged Lynd Management to serve as the Property Manager for the NOLA Properties, pursuant to certain Amended and Restated Property Management Agreements dated as of September 16, 2019. Lynd Management provides on-site personnel and oversees all day-to-day property-level functions, including leasing, maintenance, compliance with regulatory obligations, and the coordination of services for residents.

In addition, LAGSP serves as asset manager for the Debtors pursuant to that certain Asset Management Agreement dated as of September 19, 2024. LAGSP provides strategic oversight of the NOLA Properties' operations, ensures compliance with financing and regulatory obligations, and assists in capital planning and financial reporting.

All rent and subsidy collections are deposited into operating accounts controlled by the Debtors. In the ordinary course, these funds are used to pay property-level operating expenses, taxes, insurance, and debt service obligations. Prior to the Petition Date, limited liquidity, capital needs, and the legacy deferred maintenance burden impaired the Debtors' ability to stabilize operations and maintain compliance with regulatory standards.

C. Founder Misconduct and Breakdown in Governance

Prior to the Petition Date, the Crown Capital Portfolio raised hundreds of millions of dollars of financing, including (i) over $200 million from the sale of bonds issued by Crown Capital and guaranteed by CBRM (the "Notes") and (ii) approximately $450 million of property-level mortgage loans provided by an array of different financing sources.

Moshe "Mark" Silber and certain of his co-investors, including Frederick Schulman, have been targets of extensive investigations by the federal government and certain state authorities. On April 17, 2024, Silber entered into a plea agreement in connection with defrauding the federal government in connection with an affordable housing project (which does not have a presently-identified connection to the Debtors or their past or present activities) (the "Silber Prosecution-Related Property"). The plea agreement was entered into with the Fraud Section of the Department of Justice and the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey for conspiracy to commit wire fraud affecting an institution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 371. Schulman also entered into a plea agreement around the same time. Silber was sentenced to 30 months in prison and Schuman was sentenced to 12 months and one day in prison, to be followed by nine months of home confinement. Both have agreed to pay restitution.

A considerable share of the Debtors' distress arises from the fact that many, if not all, of the properties of the Debtors and their affiliates are likely worth much less today than the appraised values which supported the issuance of the Notes and certain of the property-level mortgage loans. Although the reasons for this depreciation remain the subject of active investigation, it may be explained by three factors alone or in combination. First, commencing in 2023, if not earlier, perhaps in part or in whole due to the distraction of the government investigations and eventual prosecution, Silber and Schulman neglected the management of the Crown Capital Portfolio, causing numerous properties or property-holding Debtors or their affiliates to fall into operational and/or physical disarray, jeopardize their eligibility for affordable housing programs which pay or subsidize all or most of the rent rolls, suffer declining occupancy rates, default on their obligations under their respective loan agreements, allow property-level mortgage loans to mature, fail to defend lawsuits (including the Acquiom litigation discussed infra) and become subject to default judgments, and/or become subject to receivership proceedings. Second, the government successfully prosecuted Silber and Schulman in connection with the Silber Prosecution-Related Property for using false or misleading property-level information to obtain inflated appraisals for certain properties, obtaining excessive financing, and then siphoning the surplusage out of Crown Capital. The Debtors are investigating what relevance, if any, this misconduct has to them. Third, many of the properties of the Debtors and their affiliates were valued for the purposes of the issuance of the Notes and some of the property-level mortgages in a period of time — 2021 and 2022 — when multi-family projects such as the Debtors' were at all-time high values in part due to low interest rates and high investor demand during and after the COVID pandemic — and those properties would likely be worth less today even in the absence of management negligence or intentional misconduct.

D. Appointment of Independent Fiduciary

Once Silber's plea became public, Silber, as a convicted felon, was effectively disqualified from continuing to manage the Crown Capital Portfolio. The Crown Capital Portfolio's stakeholders, including investors who purchased the Notes (the "Noteholders"), expressed concern about these developments because the Crown Capital Portfolio's value supported the payment of principal and interest under the Notes.

Following discussions between Mr. Silber's counsel and the Noteholders' counsel (Faegre Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP) and financial advisers (at the time, IslandDundon), on August 29, 2024, the parties entered into a forbearance agreement (the "Forbearance Agreement"). The Forbearance Agreement addressed various matters involving pending defaults under the Notes and Mr. Silber's go-forward involvement with the portfolio and established a process to ensure the Crown Capital Portfolio had sufficient fiduciary oversight. The Forbearance Agreement, among other things, required Mr. Silber to appoint an independent fiduciary acceptable to the Noteholders as the sole director of CBRM and Crown Capital and provide that individual with an irrevocable proxy for so long as the obligations under the Forbearance Agreement remained pending.

Thereafter, the Noteholders' advisors identified numerous potential candidates to serve as independent fiduciary as required by the Forbearance Agreement. On September 26, 2024, the bondholders party to the Forbearance Agreement consented to the appointment of Ms. Elizabeth A. LaPuma—a restructuring professional who for over 20 years has worked as an investment banker and corporate director, including for companies in distress—as the Independent Fiduciary for CBRM and Crown Capital. Since that time, Ms. LaPuma has acted in a fiduciary capacity for those entities and the dozens of other entities directly or indirectly owned by CBRM, including the Debtors.

E. Factors Precipitating the Debtors' Chapter 11 Filings

Following her appointment, the Independent Fiduciary immediately got to work to maximize the value of the portfolio. The Independent Fiduciary ordered a review of all litigation involving the portfolio, including the systematic identification of defaults, lawsuits, and judgments entered against the properties. In addition, the Independent Fiduciary, with the assistance of entities within Lynd Management, began the process of ensuring that each property owned by the portfolio had sufficient staffing and other resources, with the goal of ensuring that residents had safe, clean homes.

The Independent Fiduciary also took steps to ensure that she and the portfolio had the internal resources to maximize value for all stakeholders. Among other things, she obtained director and officer insurance (which the Crown Capital Portfolio inexplicably never obtained prior to the Independent Fiduciary's appointment) to enable her to fulfill her duties. The Independent Fiduciary also began providing periodic updates to the Noteholder advisers and steering committee (including weekly calls), engaged an investment advisor to seek refinancing and new capital opportunities for certain portfolio properties, and engaged with other creditors.

These efforts, however, required a pause in any negative enforcement actions contemplated by creditors of the Crown Capital Portfolio, including the Noteholders. Thus, following her appointment, the Independent Fiduciary worked constructively with her advisors and the Noteholders' advisors to extend the Forbearance Agreement in order to allow additional time to restructure the portfolio in a manner which would maximize value for all stakeholders. The Noteholders agreed to extend the Forbearance Agreement through April 14, 2025. However, prior to the expiration of that extension, the Noteholders informed the Independent Fiduciary's advisors that they would not extend the Forbearance Agreement any further.

Around the same time, one of the Debtors' judgment creditors similarly expressed its intent to execute on the Debtors' assets. Specifically, in June 2022, Mr. Silber purportedly entered into that certain Credit Agreement, dated June 2, 2022, between UBS O'Connor LLC, as lender ("UBS"), and Acquiom Agency Services LLC ("Acquiom"), as administrative agent (the "Silber Credit Agreement"). The Silber Credit Agreement was purportedly guaranteed by, among others, CBRM, and was purportedly secured by a pledge by CBRM of its equity in Crown Capital. On March 6, 2024, Acquiom sent a letter to Mr. Silber asserting that a default had occurred under the Silber Credit Agreement resulting from Mr. Silber's failure to timely make certain interest payments which Acquiom asserted were properly due under the Silber Credit Agreement. On May 2, 2024, after failing to receive a response to its letter, Acquiom filed a lawsuit against, among others, Silber and CBRM (the "UBS Defendants") to recover the total aggregate principal balance under the Silber Credit Agreement in a suit captioned Acquiom Agency Services LLC v. Fox Capital LLC et. al., Index No. 652265/2024, Supreme Court of the State of New York County of New York, Commercial Division Part 45 (May 2, 2024).

On August 2, 2024, the Supreme Court of the State of New York (the "New York Court") granted Acquiom's summary judgment motion and required that Silber repay the amounts outstanding under the Silber Credit Agreement in an amount totaling $19,185,000 plus interest. On September 5, 2024, the New York Court entered a judgment against the UBS Defendants in the amount of $21,020,452.60. On September 9, 2024, Acquiom assigned the right to collect on this judgment to Spano. After the assignment, on December 14, 2024, the New York Court entered a property execution order requiring the UBS Defendants to satisfy the judgment and authorizing the Spano to foreclose and collect upon certain assets in satisfaction of its judgment, including CBRM's right, title, and interest in Crown Capital. The Rockland County sheriff was scheduled to conduct a sheriff's sale of certain assets of CBRM, including its equity interest in Crown Capital, on Thursday, May 22, 2025. The sheriff's sale, had it proceeded, would have allowed a prepetition creditor to exercise remedies against CBRM's interest in Crown Capital, the entity overseen by the Independent Fiduciary (a) that issued the Notes, (b) holds significant potential claims and causes of action against Silber and other affiliates, and (c) holds CBRM's interests in the Crown Capital Portfolio. The sheriff's sale, if it had proceeded, would have, therefore, allowed a single prepetition judgment creditor receive a recovery at the expense of other creditors (particularly the Noteholders). The Debtors commenced these Chapter 11 Cases to maximize value for all of CBRM's creditors.

F. The Debtors' Prepetition Secured Indebtedness

As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were obligated under several prepetition secured credit facilities related to the NOLA Properties. CKD Funding is the holder of first-priority lien obligations arising under two loan facilities (together, the "Prepetition First Lien Loans"). The first facility originated with DH1, which made a loan to Chenault on or about April 4, 2024. This loan was initially in the principal amount of $7.5 million, later increased to $10 million by amendment on the same day, and subsequently increased to $25 million pursuant to a second amendment dated July 5, 2024 (the "DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan"). The loan was secured by a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Lease and Rents and Security Agreement dated April 4, 2024, encumbering Carmel Brook Apartments (the "DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage"). On March 10, 2025, DH1 assigned its rights under the DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan and DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage to CKD Funding, and the assignment was recorded in the Parish of Orleans, Louisiana, on March 12, 2025.

The second facility was made by CKD Funding directly to Windrun, Lakewind, and Copper Creek on or about July 8, 2024, in the principal amount of up to $10 million. This loan was secured by a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents and Security Agreement dated July 8, 2024, covering Carmel Spring Apartments, Laguna Reserve Apartments, and Laguna Creek Apartments. Together, the obligations under these two facilities comprise the Prepetition First Lien Loans. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were liable to CKD Funding in an amount not less than $8,961,204, secured by valid, perfected first-priority liens on substantially all of their assets.

In addition, CKD Funding acquired a junior loan originally made by Akiri Funds, LLC ("Akiri") to Chenault Creek on or about January 21, 2024, in the original principal amount of $3,635,475. That loan was amended and restated on March 12, 2024, to reflect a revised principal amount of $4,060,875.87 (the "Akiri Loan"), and was secured by a Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents, and Security Agreement dated March 13, 2024 (the "Akiri Mortgage"). The Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage were expressly subordinated to the DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan and DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage pursuant to a Subordination and Intercreditor Agreement dated April 4, 2024. Akiri sold and assigned the Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage to DH1 on September 6, 2024, who ultimately assigned the Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage to CKD Funding as part of the same March 2025 assignment from DH1 CKD Funding.

CKD Penn, LLC holds a junior mortgage on each of the NOLA Properties pursuant to a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and rents and Security Agreement dated August 16, 2024, which secures its guaranty of certain obligations owed by non-debtor affiliates of the Debtors.

Finally, Lakewind granted a mortgage on Laguna Reserve Apartments in favor of Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge Ltd. ("CIF") to secure a $4.5 million credit facility originally extended by CIF to Laguna Reserve pursuant to a Credit Agreement dated April 25, 2023. The mortgage was granted following a default by Laguna Reserve and was recorded on December 13, 2024. The CIF Lakewind Mortgage (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) is recognized by the Debtors, the Independent Fiduciary, CKD Funding, and CKD Penn as a valid, properly perfected lien, but only to the extent and subject to the conditions set forth in the NOLA DIP Order. Specifically, the CIF Lakewind Mortgage is junior to the Prepetition First Priority Liens (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) and the CKD Penn Junior Liens (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) and is recognized solely in accordance with the stipulations and reservations of rights contained in the NOLA DIP Order.

G. Prepetition Unsecured Obligations

As of the Petition Date, the Debtors' prepetition unsecured indebtedness consisted of: (a) the Notes, which are a series of three bond issuances, each made under a purported exemption from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, each of which is structured as a series of economically-identical bilateral agreements between the issuer and guarantor thereof, on the one hand, and each note purchaser (principally consisting of insurance companies and wealth management firms), on the other hand, and none of which possesses a trust indenture nor indenture trustee; (b) operating trade obligations; and (c) obligations to Lynd Management, LAGSP, and providers of professional services to or the payment of which was guaranteed by the Debtors.

VI. OVERVIEW OF THE CHAPTER 11 CASES

A. Commencement of Chapter 11 Cases

On the Petition Date, the Debtors commenced the Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors continue to manage their properties and operate their businesses as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. Joint Administration of the Chapter 11 Cases

On May 20, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking joint administration of their Chapter 11 Cases for procedural purposes only [Docket No. 7]. On May 27, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order granting the motion and directing that the cases be jointly administered under the lead case, In re CBRM Realty Inc., Case No. 25-15343 [Docket No. 51].

C. Complex Chapter 11 Case Designation and Procedures

On May 20, 2025, the Debtors submitted an application to designate the Chapter 11 Cases as complex Chapter 11 cases [Docket No. 10]. On May 28, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order granting the designation [Docket No. 57]. Subsequently, on June 9, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order implementing the Chapter 11 Complex Case Procedures [Docket No. 122].

D. Cash Management System

On May 23, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking authority to continue using their existing cash management system, maintain their existing bank accounts and business forms, honor related obligations in the ordinary course of business, and continue conducting intercompany transactions. The motion also requested that postpetition intercompany balances be granted superpriority administrative expense status pursuant to sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 30].

On May 28, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an interim order approving the requested relief on an interim basis [Docket No. 60]. Following a final hearing, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order on June 18, 2025, authorizing the Debtors to continue operating their cash management system and related practices on a final basis [Docket No. 165]. Pursuant to the final order, the Debtors were authorized to maintain their prepetition cash management structure, including all bank accounts and intercompany funding arrangements, and to continue using their existing checks and business forms, provided that they include a "Debtor in Possession" designation.

On May 23, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking authority to continue to operate their businesses in the ordinary course, including authority to pay certain prepetition obligations that are essential to ongoing operations and necessary to preserve the value of the estates [Docket No. 34] (the "Ordinary Course Motion"). This relief was critical to maintaining stable operations during the early stages of the Chapter 11 Cases and ensuring continuity of services across the Debtors' real estate portfolio.

Included within the scope of the Ordinary Course Motion was authorization for the Debtors to honor prepetition obligations to tenants, including obligations related to tenant reimbursements. Many of the Debtors' commercial leases contain provisions requiring the landlords to reimburse tenants for specific capital expenditures or tenant improvements, subject to defined lease terms and conditions. These reimbursements, while prepetition in origin, were viewed as essential to maintaining positive tenant relationships, avoiding litigation, and preserving the ongoing viability of tenancy arrangements that are foundational to the Debtors' revenue stream.

On June 18, 2025, following notice and a hearing, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order granting the Debtors authority to make tenant reimbursement payments consistent with the terms of applicable leases, and to continue administering and satisfying those obligations on a go-forward basis without the need for further Court approval [Docket No. 166]. On June 27, 2025, the Court entered a final order granting the Debtors authority to continue their prepetition business operations, policies, and practices, including the authorization to pay taxes and fees, vendor claims, and insurance obligations in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis [Docket No. 226].

F. Retention of Chapter 11 Professionals

The Debtors have obtained authority to retain various professionals to assist them in carrying out their duties under the Bankruptcy Code during these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors' professionals include: (i) White & Case LLP as bankruptcy counsel; (ii) Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey special counsel; and (iii) Verita as claims and noticing agent and administrative agent. In addition, the Debtors have filed applications to retain: (i) IslandDundon Partners LLC as restructuring advisor and investment banker; (ii) Hilco Real Estate, LLC, as real estate advisor for the Kelly Hamilton Property (as defined below) and the NOLA Properties; and (iii) Larry G. Schedler & Associates, Inc.., as real estate broker for the NOLA Properties. The Debtors may seek to retain additional professionals.

G. DIP Financing Motion

On May 28, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 61] seeking authority to obtain two senior secured superpriority debtor-in-possession ("DIP") financing facilities from the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and the NOLA DIP Lenders, respectively.

On June 19, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court approved the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility on a final basis [Docket No. 178] (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Order"). Pursuant to the Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement, dated June 23, 2025, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility provides up to $9,705,162 in postpetition financing to the Debtors. The proceeds are to be used, among other things, to pay accrued and unpaid prepetition obligations to the prior secured lender, fund working capital, pay administrative and professional expenses in these Chapter 11 Cases, and preserve the value of low-income, HUD-subsidized multifamily housing owned by the Debtors.

The Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility is secured by first-priority, priming liens on substantially all assets of the Debtors (excluding certain litigation trust assets) and includes superpriority administrative expense claims under section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The facility provides that the obligations owed to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender are subject only to a defined Carve-Out and a limited reservation of rights respecting the Purported Spano Judgment Lien (as defined in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order).

On July 2, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court approved the NOLA DIP Facility on a final basis [Docket No. 251] (the "NOLA DIP Order"). Pursuant to the Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement, the NOLA DIP Facility provides for up to $17,422,728 in postpetition financing to Debtors Crown Capital, RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Windrun LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, and RH Lakewind East LLC. Of that amount, approximately $8,461,524 constitutes new money loans, with the remaining $8,961,204 representing a roll-up of obligations under the prepetition first lien loan facilities. The proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility are to be used to fund working capital, pay administrative and professional expenses in these Chapter 11 Cases, satisfy critical prepetition obligations, and preserve and stabilize the value of the NOLA Properties.

The NOLA DIP Facility is secured by first-priority, priming liens and includes superpriority administrative expense claims under section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The obligations under the NOLA DIP Facility are subject only to a defined Carve-Out and are governed by a budget and reporting protocol similar to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility. The final DIP order also provides for the roll-up of prepetition debt upon entry of the final order, without a novation or impairment of existing liens, and reserves certain rights with respect to potential litigation trust assets. For the avoidance of doubt, except to the extent that the NOLA DIP Facility has been indefeasibly repaid in full in Cash or the NOLA DIP Lenders and the Independent Fiduciary otherwise agree in writing, the Plan does not modify or otherwise affect any obligations of the Debtors arising under or related to the NOLA DIP Facility.

H. Utilities Motion

On June 10, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking entry of interim and final orders to establish adequate assurance procedures and to prevent utility companies from altering, refusing, or discontinuing service due to the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases [Docket No. 125] (the "Utilities Motion"). The Utilities Motion was critical to ensuring uninterrupted utility services to the Debtors' affordable housing projects across multiple states. The Debtors proposed to deposit approximately $67,025 into a segregated account as adequate assurance for utility providers, in addition to maintaining their historical payment practices.

On July 10, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order granting the relief requested in the Utilities Motion [Docket No. 279].

I. Lynd Management and LAGSP Contract Assumption

On June 11, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 128] seeking authority to assume critical prepetition property management and staffing contracts with Lynd Management and LAGSP, which provided essential onsite and centralized services to the Debtors' multifamily housing portfolio. The Debtors determined that assumption of these contracts was necessary to preserve value and maintain operational stability, particularly given Lynd Management and LAGSP's provision of critical property management and asset management services that are essential to maintaining compliance with regulatory requirements (including HUD requirements) and safeguarding resident health and safety. Continued engagement of Lynd Management and LAGSP was also integral to preserving the value of the Kelly Hamilton Property and the NOLA Properties and ensuring uninterrupted, compliant operations throughout the chapter 11 process.

On June 18, 2025, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 171] authorizing assumption of the contracts. In connection with that assumption, the Debtors agreed to pay a total cure amount of $953,000 to Lynd Management and LAGSP. Of that amount, $328,000 was payable in cash upon entry of the order, with the remaining $625,000 to be treated as an allowed administrative expense under sections 365(b) and 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and paid in accordance with the Plan's treatment of General Administrative Claims.

This arrangement provided immediate liquidity to Lynd Management and LAGSP and preserved its continued postpetition services while deferring the balance of the cure costs in a manner that aligned with the Debtors' liquidity constraints. The assumption of the Lynd Management and LAGSP contracts helped ensure continuity in essential property operations while supporting the Debtors' broader restructuring efforts.

J. Schedules and Statements and Claims Bar Dates

On June 27, 2025, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 227] approving the establishment of deadlines for filing proofs of claim. The order established: (i) 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on July 28, 2025, as the general bar date for all non-governmental creditors to file proofs of claim against the Debtors (the "Claims Bar Date"); (ii) 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on November 17, 2025, as the deadline for governmental units to file claims (the "Governmental Bar Date"); (iii) the later of (a) the Claims or Governmental Bar Date, as applicable, or (b) 30 days after entry of an order authorizing rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease, as the deadline for claims arising from such rejection (the "Rejection Damages Bar Date"); and (iv) the later of (a) the Claims or Governmental Bar Date, as applicable, or (b) 21 days following service of an amendment to a Debtor's Schedules, as the deadline for affected creditors to file claims in response (the "Amended Schedules Bar Date").

The Debtors intend to serve all required Bar Date Notices promptly upon entry of the Bar Date Order and have engaged Verita to facilitate notice and claims administration.

On June 24, 2025, the Debtors filed their Schedules of Assets and Liabilities and Statements of Financial Affairs (the "Schedules and Statements") pursuant to section 521 of the Bankruptcy Code. These filings included individual Schedules and Statements for Chenault, Windrun, Copper Creek, Lakewind, RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, and RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC [Docket Nos. 192-197].[65] The Schedules and Statements were prepared based on information available to the Debtors as of the Petition Date and are subject to further amendment or supplementation as discovery continues. Laguna Reserve anticipates filing its Schedules and Statements within the time permitted under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(c).

K. Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 11 Case of RH Lakewind East LLC

On June 1, 2025, CIF filed a motion to dismiss the Chapter 11 case of Lakewind pursuant to sections 1112(b) and 305(a) of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 87]. CIF alleged that Lakewind's bankruptcy petition was not filed in good faith and that dismissal was warranted based on purported bad faith and lack of legitimate reorganization purpose.

Following negotiations among the Debtors, CIF, and other stakeholders, and in connection with the settlement embodied in the NOLA DIP Order, CIF agreed to withdraw the motion with prejudice. Pursuant to paragraph 9 of the NOLA DIP Order, entry of that order constituted CIF's agreement to permanently withdraw its motion to dismiss and to waive further litigation or objection concerning the subject matter of that motion. Accordingly, the motion to dismiss was deemed withdrawn with prejudice upon entry of the NOLA DIP Order.

L. Adversary Proceeding Commenced by Cleveland International Fund

On June 25, 2025, CIF commenced the adversary proceeding styled Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge Ltd. and Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC v. CKD Funding, LLC and CKD Investor Penn LLC, Adv. Proc. No. 25-01269, asserting claims related to the financing structure of certain Crown Capital Portfolio entities.

The Debtors and other stakeholders disputed CIF's standing to prosecute the claims asserted in the adversary proceeding. Before any responsive pleadings were filed, CIF voluntarily dismissed the adversary proceeding on the basis that it lacked standing to pursue the asserted claims.

Thereafter, as part of the settlement embodied in the NOLA DIP Order, CIF agreed to waive and release any further challenges related to the subject matter of the adversary proceeding. Pursuant to paragraph 9 of the NOLA DIP Order, CIF also agreed not to initiate or pursue further litigation or objections concerning the Debtors' governance structure or restructuring process to the extent addressed in the adversary proceeding or resolved in connection with the settlement.

M. Retention and Compensation of Professionals

On July 8, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order Authorizing Employment and Payment of Professionals Utilized in the Ordinary Course of Business [Docket No. 270] (the "Ordinary Course Professionals Motion"). Pursuant to the Ordinary Course Professionals Motion, the Debtors sought authority to retain and compensate certain professionals utilized in the ordinary course of business without the need to file individual retention applications for each such professional, subject to certain procedures and monthly payment caps. On July 24, 2025, the Court entered an order granting the relief requested in the Ordinary Course Professionals Motion [Docket No. 270].

[65] The Schedules for Chenault Creek, Copper Creek, Lakewind, and Windrun were amended on July 31, 2025 [Docket Nos. 341-344] to reflect updates to Schedule E/F. Additional amendments may be made as necessary.

Also on July 8, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Administrative Fee Order Establishing Procedures for the Allowance and Payment of Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals Retained by Order of the Court [Docket No. 272] (the "Interim Compensation Motion"). The Interim Compensation Motion requested approval of procedures for the interim allowance and payment of fees and reimbursement of expenses of professionals retained pursuant to sections 327 and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code. On July 24, 2025, the Court entered an order granting the relief requested in the Interim Compensation Motion [Docket No. 324].

N. The CBRM Plan

On June 30, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed the initial CBRM Plan [Docket No. 246] and related disclosure statement [Docket No. 247] (the "CBRM Disclosure Statement"), in accordance with milestones set forth in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order.

On July 11, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed a motion seeking approval of procedures for the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Apartments, a multifamily affordable housing complex located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (the "Kelly Hamilton Property"), including a proposed stalking horse purchase agreement and related bid protections [Docket No. 281] (the "Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion"). That same day, the CBRM Debtors filed a motion seeking conditional approval of the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement and associated voting and solicitation procedures (the "Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion") [Docket No. 283].

On July 24, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed revised versions of the CBRM Plan and CBRM Disclosure Statement [Docket Nos. 320, 321], and the Bankruptcy Court held a hearing to consider approval of both the Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion and the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion. The Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the relief sought in the Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion [Docket No. 325] that same day, and on August 1, 2025, entered an order approving the revised relief requested in the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion [Docket No. 347], following submission of updated solicitation documents filed on July 30, 2025 and August 5, 2025, including the CBRM Disclosure Statement and CBRM Plan [Docket Nos. 339, 340, 360].

The bid deadline was August 14, 2025, and no additional qualified bids were received. Accordingly, the auction scheduled for August 18, 2025 will not be held. On August 15, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed a notice designating the stalking horse purchaser as the successful bidder [Docket No. 383]. Under the CBRM Plan, the Kelly Hamilton Property will be sold to the stalking horse purchaser, subject to Bankruptcy Court approval at the confirmation hearing set for September 4, 2025.

Distributions under the CBRM Plan will be funded from, among other sources, the proceeds of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction (as defined in the CBRM Plan) and the Creditor Recovery Trust. The CBRM Debtors are currently soliciting votes on the CBRM Plan, with a voting deadline of August 26, 2025.

O. Disputed Spano CBRM Claim and Spano Adversary Proceeding

As described in greater detail above, Acquiom obtained a prepetition judgment against CBRM in connection with guarantees provided under the Silber Credit Agreement, which judgment was subsequently assigned to Spano. That judgment included, among other actions, a scheduled sheriff's sale of CBRM's equity interests in Crown Capital that was stayed by the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases.

On July 15, 2025, Spano filed a proof of claim against CBRM (Claim No. 4), asserting a secured claim in the amount of approximately $21.1 million based on the prepetition judgment and a purported lien. In response, on July 18, 2025, CBRM filed a complaint in the Bankruptcy Court against Spano and Acquiom, initiating an adversary proceeding captioned CBRM Realty Inc. v. Spano Investor LLC (In re CBRM Realty Inc.), Adv. Pro. No. 25-01295, Case No. 25-15343 (Bankr. D.N.J. July 18, 2025) (the "Spano Adversary Proceeding") [Adv. Dkt. No. 1] (the "Complaint").

The Complaint alleges, among other things, that in June 2022, Mr. Silber entered into a credit agreement with Acquiom and certain lenders and subsequently received an aggregate amount of $19 million of loan proceeds prior to November 2023. In November 2023, Mr. Silber caused CBRM to become a guarantor under the credit agreement via an amendment to the governing guaranty agreement. Mr. Silber also received an additional $7.75 million of loan proceeds under the credit agreement. In May 2025, Acquiom filed suit against the guarantors in New York state court under the relevant loan documents. On September 5, 2024, Acquiom received a judgment against the guarantors, including CBRM, in the amount of approximately $21 million. Acquiom subsequently assigned the judgment to Spano. On or around December 13, 2024, Spano delivered a property execution letter to the Rockland County Sheriff, resulting in a purported judgment lien on CBRM's property. The corresponding levy was served on CBRM's counsel, White & Case LLP, on January 15, 2025. The Complaint alleges that the levy expired 90 days after service if CBRM's property was not transferred to the sheriff—and that no such transfer occurred.

The Complaint seeks to avoid CBRM's guaranty as a constructively fraudulent transfer pursuant to sections 544 and 548 of the Bankruptcy Code and to avoid the purported judgment lien as unperfected as of the Petition Date under section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition, the Complaint seeks disallowance of Spano's proof of claim in its entirety or, in the alternative, a determination that Spano holds only an unsecured claim.

The Complaint asserts five causes of action, including: (i) avoidance and recovery of the guaranty as a constructively fraudulent transfer under sections 544, 548, 550, and 551, against Spano and Acquiom; (ii) avoidance and recovery of the purported lien under sections 544, 550, and 551, against Spano and Acquiom; (iii) disallowance of the defendants' claims under section 502(d), against Spano and Acquiom; (iv) disallowance of Spano's claim under section 502(b), against Spano; and (v) recharacterization and/or disallowance of Spano's claim as unsecured under sections 502 and 506, against Spano.

Spano disputes all of the allegations asserted in the Spano Adversary Proceeding and has expressly reserved all rights, claims, and defenses in connection therewith.

On July 30, 2025, the Debtors, Spano, and Acquiom executed the Stipulation and Agreed Order Among the Debtors, Spano Investor LLC, and Acquiom Agency Services LLC to Stay Adversary Proceeding and Resolve Certain Claims Treatment Issues, which was filed with the Bankruptcy Court and was entered on July 31, 2025 [Docket No. 345] (the "Spano Stipulation"). Pursuant to the Spano Stipulation, the Spano CBRM Claim (as defined in the CBRM Plan) shall be deemed Allowed in the amount of $21,118,881.01 solely for voting purposes under section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, without prejudice to Spano's position that its Claim is secured and supported by valid, enforceable liens and security interests. The CBRM Plan was amended to provide for a separate class for the Spano CBRM Claim, and Spano has agreed to vote to accept the CBRM Plan in that class. The Spano Stipulation expressly reserves all parties' rights with respect to the classification, allowability, priority, and secured status of the Spano CBRM Claim.

The Spano Adversary Proceeding and related claim objections have been stayed in their entirety and may resume only if, after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee makes a good-faith determination that value is available for distribution to creditors of CBRM after the payment in full of all Allowed Claims against CBRM's subsidiaries. Spano will receive thirty (30) days' advance written notice of such determination and may file an objection with the Bankruptcy Court within thirty (30) days of receiving such notice. If the Creditor Recovery Trustee determines no such value is available, the Spano Adversary Proceeding shall be dismissed with prejudice. If value is determined to be available, the Spano Adversary Proceeding shall resume in accordance with a mutually agreed-upon schedule, unless otherwise resolved.

On August 7, 2025, the Debtors filed the Notice of Entry of Stipulation and Agreed Order Among the Debtors, Spano Investor LLC, and Acquiom Agency Services LLC to Stay Adversary Proceeding and Resolve Certain Claims Treatment Issues [Adv. Dkt. No. 5].

P. Pleadings Relating to Moshe (Mark) Silber

On July 18, 2025, Mr. Silber, acting pro se, filed the Motion of Party in Interest Moshe ("Mark") Silber for Issuance of a Subpoena Duces Tecum Pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004(C) and 9016 [Docket No. 298] (the "Silber Rule 2004 Motion") for an order compelling discovery under Rule 2004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure from Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, and LAGSP. The Silber Rule 2004 Motion seeks records from Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, and LAGSP relating to a range of topics relating to the Debtors and non-Debtor affiliates, as well as all communications regarding these topics between or among Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, LAGSP, and IslandDundon LLC. The hearing on the Silber Rule 2004 Motion was originally scheduled for August 14, 2025.

On July 25, 2025, Mr. Silber, acting pro se, filed the Motion of Party in Interest Moshe ("Mark") Silber for Appointment of an Equity Security Holders Committee or, in the Alternative, Appointment of Counsel [Docket No. 348] (the "Silber Equity Committee Motion") seeking appointment of an equity committee in these Chapter 11 Cases or, in the alternative, the appointment of counsel for Mr. Silber pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(1). Upon the filing of the Silber Equity Committee Motion, the Court adjourned the hearing on the Silber Rule 2004 Motion to August 21, 2025, to hear both motions on the same day.

On July 29, 2025, the Debtors served a Subpoena for Rule 2004 Examination on Mr. Silber, which had a response deadline of August 15, 2025. See Notice of Service of Subpoena Pursuant to L.R. 2004-1 [Docket No. 337].

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed objections to the Silber Rule 2004 Motion [Docket No. 374] and the Silber Equity Committee Motion [Docket No. 375]. The Debtors have offered to produce limited documents responsive to Mr. Silber's proposed requests.

On August 14, 2025, the U.S. Trustee also objected to the Silber Equity Committee Motion. Docket No. 377.

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 378] (the "Motion for Leave") seeking entry of an order granting the Debtors leave to depose Mr. Silber, who is currently confined in prison, at the site of his incarceration between August 25, 2025, and August 29, 2025. The Motion for Leave will be heard on August 21, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Objection to Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230 of Moshe Mark Silber [Docket No. 372] (the "Silber Claim Objection") and Declaration of Matthew Dundon, Principal of IslandDundon LLC, in Support of the Debtors' Objection to Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230 of Moshe Mark Silber [Docket No. 373], seeking entry of an order disallowing the three Proofs of Claim filed by Mr. Silber (i.e., Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230) (collectively, the "Silber Claims"). Each of the Silber Claims asserts a purported unsecured claim of $3,989,175.00 for tax liabilities allegedly arising from the sale of a property. Proof of Claim No. 216 was superseded by a later filing and Proof of Claim No. 230 is duplicative. As to the remaining Proof of Claim No. 229, Mr. Silber did not attach sufficient support to the claim to constitute prima facie validity of a claim and the claim seeks amounts for which the Debtors are not liable. Accordingly, the Debtors seek to disallow the Silber Claims in their entirety to avoid duplicative or unwarranted recoveries. A hearing to consider the Silber Claim Objection is set for September 22, 2025, at 11:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

Q. NOLA Bidding Procedures

On July 30, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 350] seeking entry of the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order approving bidding procedures (the "NOLA Bidding Procedures")[76] in connection with a potential sale of one or more of the NOLA Properties. Such sale may be implemented either under a chapter 11 plan or as a standalone transaction pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. The NOLA Bidding Procedures are intended to facilitate a competitive and value-maximizing process through which interested parties may submit bids to acquire one or more of the NOLA Properties. The process ensures that all qualified bids are solicited, reviewed, and evaluated in a manner consistent with the milestones and confirmation timeline outlined in this Disclosure Statement and the associated solicitation procedures. To date, the Debtors have not entered into a stalking horse agreement with a stalking horse bidder for the NOLA Properties, and the Debtors may consider proposals for one or more of the NOLA Properties.

The Court entered the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order on August 15, 2025 [Docket No. 382]. Pursuant to the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order, the Bid Deadline is September 11, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). If one or more Qualifying Bids are received, the Debtors will conduct an auction on September 15, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Debtors will file and serve a notice of any Successful Bidder and Back-Up Bidder no later than September 16, 2025. To the extent applicable, the hearing to consider approval of a sale pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code is scheduled for September 22, 2025 at 11:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). Alternatively, if the potential sale is to be consummated through the Plan, the confirmation and sale hearing is scheduled for October 22, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

R. Chapter 11 Filing for Laguna Reserve

Following the Petition Date, Debtors' counsel, in coordination with LAGSP, determined that Lakewind is a subsidiary of Laguna Reserve and that Debtor Crown Capital Holdings LLC owns 100% of the equity interests in Laguna Reserve. Accordingly, on August 17, 2025, the Debtors filed a voluntary petition under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code for Laguna Reserve. Concurrently therewith, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for an Order (A) Applying Certain Orders in Initial Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases to Debtor Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC and (B) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 387] (the "Omnibus First Day Motion"). The Omnibus First Day Motion seeks to apply to Laguna Reserve's chapter 11 case certain orders previously entered in the chapter 11 cases, in order to avoid duplicative filings, reduce administrative burdens on the Bankruptcy Court and parties in interest, and streamline case administration.

A. General Tax Considerations

The following discussion is a summary of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences from the consummation of the Plan to Holders entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust, is for general information purposes only, and should not be relied upon for purposes of determining the specific tax consequences of the Plan with respect to a particular Holder of a Claim. This discussion does not purport to be a complete analysis or listing of all potential tax considerations. This discussion does not address aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to a particular Holder of a Claim subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws (such as broker dealers; traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting for securities holdings; banks; thrifts; insurance companies; financial institutions; regulated investment companies; real estate investment trusts; pension plans; partnerships (or other entities or arrangements treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) or a partner, member or owner therein; persons that hold a Claim as part of a straddle or a hedging, conversion or constructive sale transaction; persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar and other tax exempt investors). This summary does not discuss any aspects of state, local or foreign tax laws or any U.S. federal estate or gift tax considerations. Furthermore, this summary does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to a Holder of a Claim, such as the potential application of the alternative minimum tax.

This discussion is based on existing provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "IRC"), existing and proposed Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, and current administrative rulings and court decisions. Legislative, judicial, or administrative changes or interpretations enacted or promulgated after the date hereof could alter or modify the analyses set forth below with respect to the federal income tax consequences of the Plan. Any such changes or interpretations may be retroactive and could significantly affect the federal income tax consequences of the Plan.

No ruling has been or will be requested or obtained from the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") with respect to any tax aspects of the Plan and no opinion of counsel has been or will be sought or obtained with respect thereto. No representations or assurances are being made to the Holders of Claims or Interests with respect to the U.S. federal income tax consequences described herein.

LOCAL AND NON-U.S. INCOME, ESTATE, AND OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN.

1. Consequences of U.S. Holders of Claims

For purposes of this discussion, a "U.S. Holder" is a beneficial owner of a Claim that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

- an individual citizen or resident of the United States;
- a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state therein or the District of Columbia;
- an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or
- a trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over its administration and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or otherwise if the trust has a valid election in effect under current Treasury regulations to be treated as a United States person.

A "Non-U.S. Holder" is any Holder that is not a U.S. Holder or a partnership (or other entity treated as a partnership or other pass-through entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes). If a partnership (or other entity treated as a partnership or other pass-through entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is a Holder of a Claim, the tax treatment of a partner (or other beneficial owner) generally will depend upon the status of the partner (or other beneficial owner) and the activities of the partner (or other beneficial owner) and the entity. Partners (or other beneficial owners) of partnerships (or other pass-through entities) that are Holders of Claims should consult their respective tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Plan.

The federal income tax consequences of the implementation of the Plan to a U.S. Holder of Claims will depend, among other things, upon the origin of the Holder's Claim, when the Holder receives payment in respect of such Claim, whether the Holder reports income using the accrual or cash method of tax accounting, whether the Holder acquired its Claim at a discount and whether the Holder has taken a bad debt deduction with respect to such Claim.

(a) CIF Mortgage Loan Claims

Each Holder of a CIF Mortgage Loan Claim will be entitled to receive proceeds from the sale of the Lakewind Property in excess of the amount necessary to satisfy all Allowed NOLA DIP Claims, Allowed General Administrative Claims, Allowed Priority Tax Claims, Allowed Other Priority Claims, and Allowed Other Secured Claims in full in Cash on the Effective Date, and, to the extent such excess cash is insufficient to satisfy the Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claims in full, each holder's pro rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution to holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan.

Holders of CIF Mortgage Loan Claims generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the amount of any Cash received by the Holder (other than any consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income).

(b) NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims

Each Holder of a NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claim will be entitled to receive substantially all assets of Debtors Chenault Creek, Copper Creek, Lakewind, and Windrun pursuant to the NOLA Purchase Agreement. The NOLA Purchase Agreement will set forth the specific terms of the transaction, which may include the assumption of certain liabilities and the payment of cure amounts for assigned executory contracts, among other provisions.

Holders of NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims generally will recognize gain or loss on the receipt of such assets in exchange for their Claims in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the fair market value on the date of the exchange of such assets, less any liabilities (other than in consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income). Holders of NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims are expected to have a fair market value tax basis in the assets acquired.

(c) Other NOLA Unsecured Claims

Each Holder of an Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan.

Holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the amount of any Cash received by the Holder (other than any consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income).

(d) Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims

Each Holder of an Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claim and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan).

As described more fully below, Holders of Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claim and Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the fair market value of each Holder's Pro Rata Share of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (other than any consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income).

When gain or loss is recognized, such gain or loss may be long-term capital gain or loss if the Claim disposed of is a capital asset in the hands of the U.S. Holder and has been held for more than one year (subject to the rules discussed below regarding market discount). Each U.S. Holder of a Claim should consult its own tax advisor to determine whether gain or loss recognized by such Holder will be long-term capital gain or loss and the specific tax effect thereof on such Holder.

(i) Character of Gain or Loss

When gain or loss is recognized by a U.S. Holder, the character of such gain or loss as long-term or short-term capital gain or loss or as ordinary income or loss is determined by a number of factors, including the tax status of the U.S. Holder, whether the U.S. Holder's Claim constitutes a capital asset in the hands of the U.S. Holder and how long it has been held, whether such Claim was acquired at a market discount, and whether and to what extent the U.S. Holder previously claimed a bad debt deduction in respect of the Claim. Each U.S. Holder of a Claim should consult its own tax advisor to determine whether gain or loss recognized by such Holder will be long-term capital gain or loss and the specific tax effect thereof on such Holder.

(ii) Accrued but Unpaid Interest

Pursuant to Article VI.F of the Plan, all distributions in respect of Allowed Claims will be allocated first to the principal amount of the Allowed Claim (as determined for federal income tax purposes), with any excess allocated to accrued but unpaid interest. There is no assurance, however, that such allocation would be respected by the IRS for federal income tax purposes. In general, to the extent any amount received (whether cash or other property) by a U.S. Holder of a debt instrument is received in satisfaction of accrued interest during its holding period, such amount will be taxable to the Holder as interest income (if not previously included in the Holder's gross income under the Holder's normal method of accounting). Conversely, a U.S. Holder generally recognizes a deductible loss to the extent any accrued interest claimed was previously included in its gross income and is not paid in full. Each U.S. Holder of Claims is urged to consult its own tax advisor regarding the allocation of consideration and the taxation or deductibility of unpaid interest for tax purposes.

(iii) Market Discount

U.S. Holders of Claims receive Cash or other property in respect of their Claims may be affected by the "market discount" provisions of the sections 1276 through 1278 of the IRC. Under these rules, some or all of the gain realized by a U.S. Holder may be treated as ordinary income (instead of capital gain), to the extent of the amount of "market discount" on such Claims.

In general, a debt obligation with a fixed maturity of more than one year that is acquired by a holder on the secondary market (or, in certain circumstances, upon original issuance) is considered to be acquired with "market discount" as to that holder if the debt obligation's stated redemption price at maturity (or revised issue price, in the case of a debt obligation issued with original issue discount) exceeds the tax basis of the debt obligation in the holder's hands immediately after its acquisition. However, a debt obligation will not be a "market discount bond" if such excess is less than a statutory de minimis amount (equal to 0.25 percent of the debt obligation's stated redemption price at maturity or revised issue price, in the case of a debt obligation issued with original issue discount).

Any gain recognized by a U.S. Holder on the taxable disposition of Claims (determined as described above) that were acquired with market discount should be treated as ordinary income to the extent of the market discount that accrued thereon while the Claims were considered to be held by a U.S. Holder (unless the U.S. Holder elected to include market discount in income as it accrued).

(iv) Limitation on Use of Capital Losses

A U.S. Holder who recognizes capital losses will be subject to limits on their use of capital losses. For a non-corporate U.S. Holder, capital losses may be used to offset any capital gains (without regard to holding periods) plus ordinary income to the extent of the lesser of (a) $3,000 ($1,500 for married individuals filing separate returns) or (b) the excess of the capital losses over the capital gains. A non-corporate U.S. Holder may carry over unused capital losses and apply them to capital gains and a portion of their ordinary income for an unlimited number of years. For corporate U.S. Holders, losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets may only be used to offset capital gains. A corporate U.S. Holder who has more capital losses than can be used in a tax year may be allowed to carry over the excess capital losses for use in succeeding tax years. Corporate U.S. Holders may only carry over unused capital losses for the five years following the capital loss year, but are allowed to carry back unused capital losses to the three years preceding the capital loss year.

(v) Medicare Tax

Certain U.S. Holders that are individuals, estates, or trusts are required to pay an additional 3.8 percent tax on, among other things, interest, dividends and gains from the sale or other disposition of capital assets. U.S. Holders that are individuals, estates, or trusts should consult their own tax advisors regarding the effect, if any, of this tax provision on their ownership and disposition of any consideration to be received under the Plan.

2. Consequences to Non-U.S. Holders of Claims.

The following discussion addresses some of the U.S. federal income tax consequences to a beneficial owner of a Claim is a Non-U.S. Holder. The following discussion includes only certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Plan to Non-U.S. Holders. This discussion does not include any non-U.S. tax considerations. The rules governing the U.S. federal income tax consequences to Non-U.S. Holders are complex. Each Non-U.S. Holder is urged to consult its own tax advisor regarding the U.S. federal, state, local, non-U.S., and non-income tax consequences of the consummation of the Plan to such Non-U.S. Holder.

(a) Gain Realized / Income Allocated to Non-U.S. Holders

Whether a non-U.S. Holder realizes gain or loss on the exchange and the amount of such gain or loss is generally determined in the same manner as set forth above in connection with U.S. Holders.

(b) Gain/Income Recognition by Non-U.S. Holders

Any gain realized by a Non-U.S. Holder on the exchange of its Claim generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income taxation unless: (a) except as otherwise covered by clause (b) below, (i) with respect to capital gains, the Non-U.S. Holder is an individual who was present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year in which the Plan becomes effective and certain other conditions are met or (ii) with respect to income other than capital gains, the income is otherwise deemed to be derived from U.S. sources, or (b) such gain and/or income is effectively connected with the conduct by such Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business in the United States (and, if an income tax treaty applies, such gain is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by such Non-U.S. Holder in the United States).

If the first exception applies, the Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a rate of 30 percent (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty) on the amount by which such Non-U.S. Holder's capital gains allocable to U.S. sources exceed capital losses allocable to U.S. sources during the taxable year of the exchange. If the second exception applies, the Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax with respect to any gain realized on the exchange if such gain is effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States in the same manner as a U.S. Holder. In order to claim an exemption from withholding tax, such Non-U.S. Holder will be required to provide a properly executed IRS Form W-8ECI (or such successor form as the IRS designates). In addition, if such a Non-U.S. Holder is a corporation, it may be subject to a "branch profits tax" equal to 30 percent (or such lower rate provided by an applicable income tax treaty) of its effectively connected earnings and profits for the taxable year, subject to certain adjustments.

(c) Accrued Interest

Subject to the discussion of backup withholding and FATCA below, payments to a Non-U.S. Holder that are attributable to accrued but unpaid interest with respect to the Claims generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax; provided that the withholding agent has received or receives, prior to payment, appropriate documentation (generally, IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E) establishing that the Non-U.S. Holder is not a U.S. person, unless:

- the Non-U.S. Holder actually or constructively owns 10 percent or more of the capital or profits interest in the "regarded" owner of the applicable Debtor for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- the Non-U.S. Holder is a "controlled foreign corporation" that is a "related person" with respect to the Owner (each, within the meaning of the IRC);
- the Non-U.S. Holder is a bank receiving interest described in IRC Section 881(c)(3)(A); or
- such interest is effectively connected with the conduct by the Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business within the United States (in which case, provided the Non-U.S. Holder provides a properly executed IRS Form W-8ECI (or successor form) to the withholding agent, the Non-U.S. Holder (x) generally will not be subject to withholding tax, but (y) will be subject to U.S. federal income tax in the same manner as a U.S. Holder (unless an applicable income tax treaty provides otherwise), and a Non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes may also be subject to a branch profits tax with respect to such Non-U.S. Holder's effectively connected earnings and profits that are attributable to the accrued interest at a rate of 30% (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty)).

A Non-U.S. Holder that does not qualify for the exemption from withholding tax with respect to accrued but unpaid interest that is not effectively connected income generally will be subject to withholding of U.S. federal income tax at a 30% rate (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty) on any payments that are attributable to accrued but unpaid interest. For purposes of providing a properly executed IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E, special procedures are provided under applicable Treasury Regulations for payments through qualified foreign intermediaries or certain financial institutions that hold customers' securities in the ordinary course of their trade or business. In addition, a corporate Non-U.S. Holder may, under certain circumstances, be subject to an additional "branch profits tax" at a 30 percent rate (or such lower rate provided by an applicable income tax treaty) on its effectively connected earnings and profits attributable to such interest (subject to adjustments).

The certifications described above must be provided to the applicable withholding agent prior to the payment of interest. Non-U.S. Holders that do not timely provide the applicable withholding agent with the required certification, but that qualify for a reduced rate under an applicable income tax treaty, may obtain a refund of any excess amounts withheld by timely filing an appropriate claim for refund with the IRS. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding their entitlement to benefits under any applicable income tax treaty.

Under the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA"), foreign financial institutions and certain other foreign entities must report certain information with respect to their U.S. account holders and investors or be subject to withholding at a rate of 30 percent on the receipt of "withholdable payments."

For this purpose, "withholdable payments" are generally U.S.-source payments of fixed or determinable, annual or periodical income. FATCA withholding will apply even if the applicable payment would not otherwise be subject to U.S. federal nonresident withholding. Each Non-U.S. Holder should consult its own tax advisor regarding the possible impact of these rules on such Non-U.S. Holder's exchange of its Claim.

3. Creditor Recovery Trust

Subject to any applicable law or definitive guidance from the IRS or a court of competent jurisdiction to the contrary, the Debtors expect to treat the Creditor Recovery Trust as a "liquidating trust" under section 301.7701-4(d) of the Treasury Regulations and a grantor trust under section 671 of the IRC, and the trustee of the Creditor Recovery Trust will take a position on the Creditor Recovery Trust's tax return accordingly. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the transfer of assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust will be deemed to occur as (a) a first-step transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Holders of the applicable Claims, and (b) a second-step transfer by such Holders to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

No request for a ruling from the IRS is expected to be sought on the classification of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the IRS would not take a contrary position regarding the classification of the Creditor Recovery Trust. If the IRS were to successfully challenge the classification of the Creditor Recovery as a grantor trust, the federal income tax consequences to the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries could vary from those discussed in the Plan (including the potential for an entity-level tax). For example, the IRS could characterize the Creditor Recovery Trust as a so-called "complex trust" subject to a separate entity-level tax on its earnings, except to the extent that such earnings are distributed during the taxable year.

As soon as possible after the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, the trustee(s) of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall make a good faith valuation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. This valuation will be made available from time to time, as relevant for tax reporting purposes. Each of the Debtors, the trustee(s) of the Creditor Recovery Trust, and the Holders of Claims receiving interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust shall take consistent positions with respect to the valuation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and such valuations shall be utilized for all U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Allocations of taxable income and loss of the Creditor Recovery Trust among the Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries shall be determined, as closely as possible, by reference to the amount of distributions that would be received by each such beneficiary if the Creditor Recovery Trust had sold all of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets at their tax book value and distributed the proceeds to the Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries, adjusted for prior taxable income and loss and taking into account all prior and concurrent distributions from the Creditor Recovery Trust. The tax book value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets shall equal their fair market value on the date of the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, adjusted in accordance with tax accounting principles prescribed by the IRC, applicable Treasury Regulations, and other applicable administrative and judicial authorities and pronouncements.

The Creditor Recovery Trust shall in no event be dissolved later than five (5) years from the creation of such Creditor Recovery Trust unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion within the six (6) month period prior to the fifth (5th) anniversary (or within the six (6) month period prior to the end of an extension period), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed five (5) years, together with any prior extensions, without a favorable private letter ruling from the IRS or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the trustee(s) of the Creditor Recovery Trust that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of the trust as a Creditor Recovery trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the recovery and liquidation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

The Creditor Recovery Trust will file annual information tax returns with the IRS as a grantor trust pursuant to section 1.671-4(a) of the Treasury Regulations that will include information concerning certain items relating to the holding or disposition (or deemed disposition) of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (e.g., income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit). Each Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiary holding a beneficial interest in the Creditor Recovery Trust will receive a copy of the information returns and must report on its federal income tax return its share of all such items. The information provided by the Creditor Recovery Trust will pertain to Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries who receive their interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust in connection with the Plan.

Under the backup withholding rules, a Holder of a Claim may be subject to backup withholding with respect to Distributions or payments made pursuant to the Plan unless that Holder: (a) comes within certain exempt categories (which generally include corporations) and, when required, demonstrates that fact, or (b) provides a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies under penalty of perjury that the taxpayer identification number is correct and that the Holder is not subject to backup withholding because of a failure to report all dividend and interest income. Backup withholding is not an additional tax, but merely an advance payment that may be refunded to the extent it results in an overpayment of tax.

The foregoing discussion is intended only as a summary of certain income tax consequences of the Plan and is not a substitute for careful tax planning with a tax professional. The above discussion is for informational purposes only and is not tax advice. The tax consequences are in many cases uncertain and may vary depending on a Holder's particular circumstances. Accordingly, Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors about the United States federal, state and local, and applicable foreign income and other tax consequences of the Plan.

X. RISK FACTORS

Before voting to accept or reject the Plan, Holders of Claims or Interests entitled to vote should read and carefully consider the risk factors set forth below, in addition to the information set forth in this Disclosure Statement together with any attachments, exhibits, or documents incorporated by reference hereto. The factors below should not be regarded as the only risks associated with the Plan or its implementation.

A. Risks Relating to the Debtors' Business Operations and Financial Condition

1. General Economic Conditions

The Debtors' ability to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction may be affected by broader macroeconomic conditions, including rising interest rates, inflationary pressures, labor market disruptions, volatility in the housing market, investor sentiment, and geopolitical instability. Such factors may negatively impact real estate valuations, the availability of financing, and the willingness of potential purchasers to consummate transactions on favorable terms. While the Plan assumes a relatively stable economic environment, no assurance can be given that such conditions will continue through the expected closing.

2. Risk of Failure to Consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction

The Plan is based on the successful execution of the NOLA Sale Transaction in accordance with the Court-approved Bidding Procedures, which may be implemented either under a chapter 11 plan or as a standalone transaction pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. To date, the Debtors have not entered into a stalking horse agreement for the NOLA Properties, and there is no assurance that a qualified bid will be submitted or that the auction process will yield a value-maximizing transaction.

If the Debtors are unable to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction—whether due to a lack of qualified bids, termination of a purchase agreement, failure to satisfy closing conditions, or failure to obtain necessary Bankruptcy Court approval—the Debtors may face significant liquidity constraints. In that event, the Debtors may be forced to pursue an alternative restructuring strategy or, if none is viable, convert these Chapter 11 Cases to chapter 7 liquidation. Any such alternative could result in delayed, diminished, or uncertain recoveries for creditors compared to those anticipated under the Plan.

3. Limited Continuing Operations

Following the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, the Debtors do not expect to continue operations as going concerns. As a result, many risks typically associated with ongoing business activities—such as tenant turnover, market competition, or long-term access to capital—are less relevant. However, operational issues arising prior to the Effective Date, including delays in closing or transitional disruptions, could adversely impact Plan implementation and creditor recoveries.

4. Performance of Property Manager

The Debtors rely on their property manager, Lynd Management, to manage day-to-day operations of the NOLA Properties. Any failure by Lynd Management to perform its obligations under the property management agreements—whether due to operational, financial, or staffing issues—could impair property performance, impact tenant relations, and reduce the attractiveness of the NOLA Properties to potential buyers. Such issues could, in turn, delay or reduce proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction.

B. Risks Related to Bankruptcy Law

1. Risk of Non-Confirmation of the Plan

Although the Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies all requirements necessary for confirmation by the Bankruptcy Court, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion or that modifications to the Plan will not be required for confirmation or that such modifications would not necessitate re-solicitation of votes. Moreover, the Debtors can make no assurances that they will receive the requisite acceptances to confirm the Plan, and even if all Voting Classes vote in favor of the Plan or the requirements for "cram down" are met with respect to any Class that rejects or is deemed to reject the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court may exercise discretion as a court of equity and choose not to confirm the Plan. If the Plan is not confirmed, it is unclear what distributions Holders of Claims or Interests would ultimately receive with respect to their Claims or Interests in a subsequent plan of reorganization or otherwise.

2. Non-Consensual Confirmation

If any impaired class of Claims or Interests does not accept or is deemed not to accept a plan of reorganization, a Bankruptcy Court may nevertheless confirm such plan at the proponent's request if at least one impaired class has accepted the plan (with such acceptance being determined without including the vote of any "insider" in such class), and as to each impaired class that has not accepted the plan, the Bankruptcy Court determines that the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" with respect to the dissenting impaired classes. If any Class votes to reject or is deemed to reject the Plan, then these requirements must be satisfied with respect to such rejecting Class. The Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies these requirements.

3. Risk Related to Wind-Down and Plan Implementation

The Plan contemplates a Wind-Down of the Debtors' Estates following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, including the creation of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Execution of the Wind-Down and administration of post-Effective Date responsibilities depends on various factors, including sufficient funding and the ability of the Creditor Recovery Trustee to realize value from retained causes of action. Delays, disputes, or unforeseen liabilities could reduce the proceeds ultimately available to distribute to creditors.

4. Risk That the CBRM Plan Will Not Be Confirmed and Become Effective

This Plan has been developed in coordination with the CBRM Plan. Pursuant to the CBRM Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan to assume all liability of the CBRM Debtors and their estates for, and to administer, all CBRM Unsecured Claims.

Under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the Debtors will transfer to the Creditor Recovery Trust (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any).

If the CBRM Plan is not confirmed or does not become effective, the Debtors will implement an alternative, court-approved mechanism to administer and distribute the assets that would otherwise have been transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such mechanism may include establishing a similar trust under the Plan or another structure designed to maximize value for stakeholders. This could result in delays, increased administrative costs, and reduced recoveries for creditors, as well as potential changes to the priority and allocation of distributions compared to the structure contemplated under the CBRM Plan.

5. Allowed Claims Could Exceed Estimates

There can be no assurance that the Allowed amount of Claims participating in distributions will not be significantly more than projected, which in turn, could cause the value of distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims whose treatment is limited to distributions from a specified recovery source to be reduced. Inevitably, some assumptions will not materialize, and unanticipated events and circumstances may affect the ultimate results and total amount of Claims against the Debtors' Estates. Therefore, the actual amount of Allowed Claims may vary from the Debtors' projections and feasibility analysis, and the variation may be material.

6. U.S. Federal Income Tax Risks

The tax consequences of the Plan to the Debtors and to Holders of Claims and Interests may vary depending on the individual's tax situation and are subject to significant uncertainties. Parties in interest should consult their own tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal, state, local, and non-U.S. income and other tax consequences of the Plan, including any income that may arise from the receipt of distributions or interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust.

7. Risk of Non-Occurrence of the Effective Date

Although the Debtors believe that the Effective Date will occur soon after the Confirmation Date, there can be no assurance as to the timing of the Effective Date. If the conditions precedent to the Effective Date set forth in the Plan have not occurred or have not been waived as set forth in Article IX.B of the Plan, then the Confirmation Order may be vacated, in which event no distributions would be made under the Plan, the Debtors and all Holders of Claims or Interests would be restored to the status quo as of the day immediately preceding the Confirmation Date, and the Debtors' obligations with respect to Claims and Interests would remain unchanged.

8. Conversion into Chapter 7 Cases

If no plan of reorganization can be confirmed, or if the Bankruptcy Court otherwise finds that it would be in the best interest of Holders of Claims and Interests, some or all of the Chapter 11 Cases may be converted to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, pursuant to which a trustee would be appointed or elected to liquidate the Debtors' assets for distribution in accordance with the priorities established by the Bankruptcy Code.

9. Parties in Interest May Object to the Plan's Classification of Claims and Interests

Section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a plan may place a claim or an equity interest in a particular class only if such claim or equity interest is substantially similar to the other claims or equity interests in such class. The Debtors believe that the classification of the Claims and Interests under the Plan complies with the requirements set forth in the Bankruptcy Code because the Debtors created Classes of Claims and Interests each encompassing Claims or Interests, as applicable, that are substantially similar to the other Claims or Interests, as applicable, in each such Class. Nevertheless, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion.

10. The Debtors May Fail to Satisfy Vote Requirements

If votes are received in number and amount sufficient to enable the Bankruptcy Court to confirm the Plan, the Debtors intend to seek, as promptly as practicable thereafter, Confirmation of the Plan. In the event that sufficient votes are not received, the Debtors may seek to confirm an alternative chapter 11 plan. There can be no assurance that the terms of any such alternative chapter 11 plan would be similar or as favorable to the Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests as those proposed in the Plan.

11. Continued Risk upon Confirmation

Following the NOLA Sale Transaction, the Debtors will not continue operating as a going concern. Instead, their primary role will be to implement the Wind-Down and transfer assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust. The cessation of operations may limit the Debtors' ability to address unanticipated claims, disputes, or liabilities that arise post-Effective Date.

12. Contingencies Could Affect Votes of Impaired Classes to Accept or Reject the Plan

The distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan can be affected by a variety of contingencies, including whether the Bankruptcy Court orders certain Allowed Claims to be subordinated to other Allowed Claims. The occurrence of any and all such contingencies, which could affect distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan, will not affect the validity of the vote taken by the Impaired Classes to accept or reject the Plan or require any sort of revote by the Impaired Classes. The estimated Claims and creditor recoveries set forth in this Disclosure Statement are based on various assumptions, and the actual Allowed amounts of Claims may significantly differ from the estimates. Should one or more of the underlying assumptions ultimately prove to be incorrect, the actual Allowed amounts of Claims may vary from the estimated Claims contained in this Disclosure Statement. Moreover, the Debtors cannot determine with any certainty at this time, the number or amount of Claims that will ultimately be Allowed. Such differences may materially and adversely affect, among other things, the percentage recoveries to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan.

13. Disruption from Competing Plans or Proposals

Although no competing plan has been proposed to date, parties in interest may seek to propose an alternative chapter 11 plan. The pursuit of such a competing plan could delay Confirmation, increase administrative costs, or result in lower recoveries for creditors.

14. Releases, Injunctions, and Exculpations Provisions May Not Be Approved

Article VIII of the Plan provides for certain releases, injunctions, and exculpations, including a release of liens and third-party releases. The releases, injunctions, and exculpations provided in the Plan are subject to objection by parties in interest and may not be approved. If the releases are not approved, certain Released Parties may withdraw their support for the Plan.

C. Additional Factors

1. The Debtors Could Withdraw the Plan

Subject to, and without prejudice to, the rights of any party in interest, the Plan may be revoked or withdrawn before the Confirmation Date by the Debtors.

2. The Debtors Have No Duty to Update

The statements contained in this Disclosure Statement are made by the Debtors as of the date hereof, unless otherwise specified herein, and the delivery of this Disclosure Statement after that date does not imply that there has been no change in the information set forth herein since that date. Additionally, the Debtors have no duty to update this Disclosure Statement unless otherwise ordered to do so by the Bankruptcy Court.

3. No Representations Outside this Disclosure Statement Are Authorized

No representations concerning or related to the Debtors, the Chapter 11 Cases, or the Plan are authorized by the Bankruptcy Court or the Bankruptcy Code, other than as set forth in this Disclosure Statement. Any representations or inducements made to secure your acceptance or rejection of the Plan that are other than those contained in, or included with, this Disclosure Statement should not be relied upon in making the decision to accept or reject the Plan.

4. No Legal or Tax Advice Is Provided by this Disclosure Statement

The contents of this Disclosure Statement should not be construed as legal, business, or tax advice. Each Holder of a Claim or Interest should consult its own legal counsel and accountant as to legal, tax, and other matters concerning their Claim or Interest.

This Disclosure Statement is not legal advice to you. This Disclosure Statement may not be relied upon for any purpose other than to determine how to vote on the Plan or object to confirmation of the Plan.

5. No Admission Made

Nothing contained herein or in the Plan shall constitute an admission of, or shall be deemed evidence of, the tax or other legal effects of the Plan on the Debtors or Holders of Claims or Interests.

XI. CONFIRMATION OF THE PLAN

The Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan only if all of the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code are met. Among the requirements for confirmation are that the plan is (a) accepted by all impaired classes of claims and interests entitled to vote or, if rejected or deemed rejected by an impaired class, that the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" as to such class; (b) in the "best interests" of the holders of claims and interests impaired under the plan; and (c) feasible.

A. Acceptance of the Plan

The Bankruptcy Code defines "acceptance" of a plan by a class of (i) claims as acceptance by creditors in that class that hold at least two-thirds (2/3) in dollar amount and more than one-half (1/2) in number of the claims that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the plan and (ii) interests as acceptance by interest holders in that class that hold at least two-thirds (2/3) in amount of the interests that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the plan. Holders of claims or interests that fail to vote are not counted in determining the thresholds for acceptance of the plan.

If any impaired class of claims or interests does not accept the plan (or is deemed to reject the plan), the Bankruptcy Court may still confirm the plan at the request of the Debtors if, as to each impaired class of claims or interests that has not accepted the plan (or is deemed to reject the plan), the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" under the so-called "cram down" provisions set forth in section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The "unfair discrimination" test applies to classes of claims or interests that are of equal priority and are receiving different treatment under the plan. A chapter 11 plan does not discriminate unfairly, within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code, if the legal rights of a dissenting class are treated in a manner consistent with the treatment of other classes whose legal rights are substantially similar to those of the dissenting class and if no class of claims or interests receives more than it legally is entitled to receive for its claims or interests. The test does not require that the treatment be the same or equivalent, but that such treatment be "fair." The "fair and equitable" test applies to classes of different priority and status (e.g., secured versus unsecured; claims versus interests) and includes the general requirement that no class of claims receive more than 100% of the allowed amount of the claims in such class. As to the dissenting class, the test sets different standards that must be satisfied in order for the Plan to be confirmed, depending on the type of claims or interests in such class. The following sets forth the "fair and equitable" test that must be satisfied as to each type of class for a plan to be confirmed if such class rejects the plan:

- Secured Creditors. Each holder of an impaired secured claim either (a) retains its liens on the property, to the extent of the allowed amount of its secured claim, and receives deferred cash payments having a value, as of the effective date of the plan, of at least the allowed amount of such secured claim, (b) has the right to credit bid the amount of its claim if its property is sold and retains its lien on the proceeds of the sale, or (c) receives the "indubitable equivalent" of its allowed secured claim.

- Unsecured Creditors. Either (a) each holder of an impaired unsecured claim receives or retains under the plan, property of a value, as of the effective date of the plan, equal to the amount of its allowed claim or (b) the holders of claims and interests that are junior to the claims of the dissenting class will not receive any property under the plan.

- Interests. Either (a) each equity interest holder will receive or retain under the plan property of a value equal to the greater of (i) the fixed liquidation preference or redemption price, if any, of such equity interest and (ii) the value of the equity interest or (b) the holders of interests that are junior to the interests of the dissenting class will not receive or retain any property under the plan.

The Debtors believe the Plan satisfies the "fair and equitable" requirement with respect to any rejecting Class.

IF ALL OTHER CONFIRMATION REQUIREMENTS ARE SATISFIED AT THE CONFIRMATION HEARING, THE DEBTORS WILL ASK THE BANKRUPTCY COURT TO RULE THAT THE PLAN MAY BE CONFIRMED ON THE GROUNDS THAT THE SECTION 1129(B) REQUIREMENTS HAVE BEEN SATISFIED.

B. Best Interests of Creditors Test

The Bankruptcy Code requires that each holder of an impaired claim or interest either (1) accepts the plan or (2) receives or retains under the plan property of a value, as of the effective date, that is not less than the value such holder would receive if the debtor were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. This requirement is customarily referred to as the "best interests of creditors" test. As demonstrated in the liquidation analysis attached hereto as Exhibit C, the Debtors believe that liquidation under chapter 7 would result in smaller distributions to creditors than those provided for in the Plan.

C. Feasibility

The Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies the feasibility requirement set forth in section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan is predicated on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the subsequent Wind-Down of the Debtors' Estates. Following the sale closing and transfer of the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets on the Effective Date, the Debtors will no longer engage in business operations and will instead proceed with an orderly Wind-Down consistent with the terms of the Plan.

The Debtors do not anticipate the need for any further reorganization or restructuring of their affairs following Confirmation. Moreover, the Debtors expect to have sufficient resources—including the proceeds of the NOLA Sale Transaction, Cash on hand, and other Plan funding sources—to satisfy all obligations required to be performed under the Plan and to fund the Wind-Down and the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust. As such, the Debtors believe that Confirmation of the Plan is not likely to be followed by liquidation (other than as expressly contemplated), or by the need for further financial reorganization of the Debtors or any successor thereto under the Plan.

D. Confirmation Hearing

Section 1128(a) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Bankruptcy Court to hold a confirmation hearing upon appropriate notice to all required parties. The Confirmation Hearing is scheduled for ~~[●]~~October 22, 2025 at ~~[●]:[●] [●].m~~11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Confirmation Hearing may be adjourned from time to time by the Bankruptcy Court without further notice except for the announcement of the continuation date made at the Confirmation Hearing, at any subsequent continued Confirmation Hearing, or pursuant to a notice filed on the docket for the Chapter 11 Cases.

Section 1128(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that any party in interest may object to the confirmation of a plan. Any objection to confirmation of the Plan must be in writing, must conform to the Bankruptcy Rules and the local rules of the Bankruptcy Court, must set forth the name of the objector, the nature and amount of Claims or Interests held or asserted by the objector against the Debtors' estates or properties, the basis for the objection and the specific grounds therefor, and must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served no later than the Confirmation Objection Deadline.

XII. CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATION

The Debtors believe the Plan is in the best interests of all stakeholders and urge the Holders of Claims and Interests entitled to vote on the Plan to vote in favor thereof.

2 TERM AND FUNDING OF RENEWAL CONTRACT

a The Renewal Contract begins on 09/01/2023 [v] and shall run for a period of 20 Year(s) [vi].

b Execution of the Renewal Contract by the Contract Administrator is an obligation by HUD of $ 100 [vii] an amount sufficient to provide housing assistance payments for approximately 4 [viii] months of the Renewal Contract term.

c HUD will provide additional funding for the remainder of the first annual increment and for subsequent annual increments, including for any remainder of such subsequent annual increments, subject to the availability of sufficient appropriations. When such appropriations are available, HUD will obligate additional funding and provide the Owner written notification of (i) the amount of such additional funding, and (ii) the approximate period of time within the Renewal Contract term to which it will be applied.

3 RENEWAL CONTRACT

a Parties

(1) This contract ("Renewal Contract") is a housing assistance payments contract ("HAP contract") between the contract administrator and the owner of the housing.

(2) If HUD is the contract administrator, HUD may assign the Renewal Contract to a public housing agency ("PHA") for the purpose of PHA administration of the Renewal Contract, as contract administrator, in accordance with the Renewal Contract (during the term of the annual contributions contract ("ACC") between HUD and the PHA). Notwithstanding such assignment, HUD shall remain a party to the provisions of the Renewal Contract that specify HUD's role pursuant to the Renewal Contract, including such provisions of section 8 (applicable requirements), section 9 (statutory changes during term), section 10 (distributions) and section 11 (PHA default) of the Renewal Contract.

b Statutory authority

The Renewal Contract is entered pursuant to section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (“Section 8”) (42 U.S.C. 1437f), and section 524(a) of the Multifamily Assisted Housing Reform and Affordability Act of 1997 (MAHRA)  (Title V of Public Law No.105-65, October 27, 1997, 111 Stat. 1384), as amended.

c Expiring Contract

Previously, the owner entered into a Housing Assistance Payments Contract ("Expiring Contract") with HUD or a PHA to make Section 8 housing assistance payments to the owner for eligible families living in the project. The term of the Expiring Contract has expired or will expire prior to the beginning of the term of the Renewal Contract.

d Purpose of Renewal Contract

The purpose of the Renewal Contract is to renew the Expiring Contract for an additional term. During the term of the Renewal Contract, the contract administrator will make housing assistance payments to the owner in accordance with the provisions of the Renewal Contract. Such payments shall only be made for contract units occupied by eligible families ("families") leasing decent, safe and sanitary units from the owner in accordance with HUD regulations and other requirements.

The Renewal Contract applies to the project contract units identified in Exhibit A by size and applicable contract rents.

4 EXPIRING CONTRACT - PROVISIONS RENEWED

a Except as specifically modified by the Renewal Contract, all provisions of the Expiring Contract are renewed (to the extent such provisions are consistent with statutory requirements in effect at the beginning of the Renewal Contract term).

b Any provisions of the Expiring Contract concerning any of the following subjects are not renewed, and shall not be applicable during the renewal term:

(1) The amount of the monthly contract rents;

(2) Contract rent adjustments;

(3) Project account (sometimes called “HAP reserve” or “project reserve”) as previously established and maintained by HUD pursuant to former Section 8(c)(6) of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (currently Section 8(c)(5) of the Act, 42 U.S.C. 1437f(c)(5)). Section 8(c)(5) does not apply to the Renewal Contract, or to payment of housing assistance payments during the Renewal Contract term.

c The Renewal Contract includes those provisions of the Expiring Contract that are renewed in accordance with this section.

5 CONTRACT RENT

a Initial contract rents

At the beginning of the Renewal Contract term, and until contract rents for units in the project are adjusted in accordance with section 5b, the contract rent for each bedroom size (number of bedrooms) shall be the initial contract rent amount listed in Exhibit A, which is attached to and made a part of the Renewal Contract. The initial contract rent amounts listed in Exhibit A have been increased to market levels under the HUD Mark-Up-to-Market Option.

b Contract rent adjustments

(1) OCAF adjustment

Except for adjustment of the contract rents to comparable market rents at the expiration of each 5-year period (as provided in paragraph 5b(2) of this section) (“fifth year adjustment”), during the term of the Renewal Contract the contract administrator shall annually, on the anniversary of the Renewal Contract, adjust the amounts of the monthly contract rents in accordance with HUD requirements, using an operating cost adjustment factor (OCAF) established by HUD. Such adjustments by use of the OCAF shall not result in a negative adjustment (decrease) of the contract rents. The OCAF shall not be used for a fifth year adjustment.

(2) Fifth year adjustment (comparability adjustment at expiration of each 5-year period, if applicable)

(a) This section 5(b)(2) is only applicable if the term of the Renewal Contract is longer than five (5) years (from the first day of the term specified in section 2a).

(b) At the expiration of each 5-year period of the Renewal Contract term, the contract administrator shall compare existing contract rents with comparable market rents for the market area. At such anniversary of the Renewal Contract, the contract administrator shall make any adjustments in the monthly contract rents, as reasonably determined by the contract administrator in accordance with HUD requirements, necessary to set the contract rents for all unit sizes at comparable market rents. Such adjustments may result in a negative adjustment (decrease) or positive adjustment (increase) of the contract rents for one or more unit sizes.

(c) To assist in the redetermination of contract rents, the contract administrator may require that the owner submit to the contract administrator a rent comparability study prepared (at the owner's expense) in accordance with HUD requirements.

(3) Procedure for rent adjustments during renewal term

To adjust contract rents during the term of the Renewal Contract (in accordance with paragraph 5b(1) or paragraph 5b(2)), the contract administrator shall give the owner notice of the revised Exhibit A. The revised Exhibit A shall specify the adjusted contract rent amount for each bedroom size as determined by the contract administrator in accordance with paragraph 5b(1) or paragraph 5b(2). The notice shall specify when the adjustment of contract rent is effective. The notice by the contract administrator of the revised Exhibit A constitutes an amendment of the Renewal Contract.

(4) No other adjustments

Except for contract rent adjustments in accordance with paragraph 5b, there shall not be any other adjustments of the contract rents during the term of the Renewal Contract. Special adjustments shall not be granted.

6 OWNER WARRANTIES

a The owner warrants that it has the legal right to execute the Renewal Contract and to lease dwelling units covered by the contract.

b The owner warrants that the rental units to be leased by the owner under the Renewal Contract are in decent, safe and sanitary condition, as defined by HUD, and shall be maintained in such condition during the term of the Renewal Contract.

7 OWNER NOTICE

a Before termination of the Renewal Contract, the owner shall provide written notice to the contract administrator and each assisted family in accordance with the law and HUD requirements.

b If the owner fails to provide such notice in accordance with the law and HUD requirements, the owner may not increase the tenant rent payment for any assisted family until such time as the owner has provided such notice for the required period.

8 APPLICABLE REQUIREMENTS

The Renewal Contract shall be construed and administered in accordance with all statutory requirements, and with all HUD regulations and other requirements, including amendments or changes in HUD regulations and other requirements during the term of the Renewal Contract. However, any changes in HUD regulations and requirements which are inconsistent with the provisions of the Renewal Contract, including the provisions of section 5 (contract rent) and section 10 (distributions), shall not be applicable.

9 STATUTORY CHANGES DURING TERM

If any statutory change during the term of the Renewal Contract is inconsistent with section 5 or section 10 of the Renewal Contract, and if HUD determines, and so notifies the contract administrator and the owner, that the contract administrator is unable to carry out the provisions of section 5 or section 10 because of such statutory change, then the contract administrator or the owner may terminate the Renewal Contract upon notice to the other party.

10 DISTRIBUTIONS

During the term of the Renewal Contract, neither HUD nor the PHA may impose any additional limitations on distributions of project funds other than any distribution limitations specified in Exhibit B, which is attached to and made a part of this Renewal Contract.

11 PHA DEFAULT

a This section of the Renewal Contract applies if the contract administrator is a PHA acting as contract administrator pursuant to an annual contributions contract ("ACC") between the PHA and HUD. This includes a case where HUD has assigned the Renewal Contract to a PHA contract administrator, for the purpose of PHA administration of the Renewal Contract.

b If HUD determines that the PHA has committed a material and substantial breach of the PHA's obligation, as contract administrator, to make housing assistance payments to the owner in accordance with the provisions of the Renewal Contract, and that the owner is not in default of its obligations under the Renewal Contract, HUD will take actions HUD determines necessary for the continuation of housing assistance payments to the owner in accordance with the Renewal Contract.

12 SECTIONS 236 AND 221(D)(3) BMIR PROJECTS -- PREPAYMENT

a This section of the Renewal Contract shall be applicable if the project is a Section 236 project or a 221(d)(3) BMIR project (See the check-box at section 1 of the Renewal Contract).

b During the term of the Renewal Contract, the owner shall not prepay any FHA-insured mortgage on the project, except where HUD, in its sole discretion, approves the prepayment as a component of a transaction whereby the project is preserved as affordable housing.

13 EXCLUSION OF THIRD-PARTY RIGHTS

a The contract administrator does not assume any responsibility for injury to, or any liability to, any person injured as a result of the owner's action or failure to act in connection with the contract administrator's implementation of the Renewal Contract, or as a result of any other action or failure to act by the owner.

b The owner is not the agent of the contract administrator or HUD, and the Renewal Contract does not create or affect any relationship between the contract administrator or HUD and any lender to the owner or any suppliers, employees, contractors or subcontractors used by the owner in connection with implementation of the Renewal Contract.

c If the contract administrator is a PHA acting as contract administrator pursuant to an annual contributions contract ("ACC") between the PHA and HUD, the contract administrator is not the agent of HUD, and the Renewal Contract does not create any relationship between HUD and any suppliers, employees, contractors or subcontractors used by the contract administrator to carry out functions or responsibilities in connection with contract administration under the ACC.

If the project is subject to any limitations on distribution of project funds pursuant to an FHA Regulatory Agreement or pursuant to the Expiring Contract, such limitations on distribution shall continue to be applicable during the term of the Renewal Contract, provided that the owner may take an increased distribution in accordance with the Section 8 Renewal Policy Guidance for Renewal of Project-Based Section 8 Contracts, (the "Guidebook").

However, owners of Section 8 properties must maintain the property in good condition, as demonstrated by a REAC score of 60 or higher, in order to take increased distributions.

The owner shall comply with the distribution limitations. The maximum distribution to the owner shall be equal to the total of:

NOW, THEREFORE, after due deliberation thereon and good cause appearing therefor, the Court hereby makes and issues the following findings of fact, conclusions of law, and order (collectively, this "Order"):

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

IT IS HEREBY FOUND, DETERMINED, ADJUDGED, DECREED, AND ORDERED THAT:

A. Findings and Conclusions

1. The findings and conclusions set forth herein and in the record of the Combined Hearing constitute the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law under rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as made applicable herein by Bankruptcy Rules 7052 and 9014. To the extent any of the following findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such.

To the extent any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such.

B. Jurisdiction and Venue

2. Venue in this Court was proper as of the Petition Date and continues to be proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. Approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan are core proceedings under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this matter under 28 U.S.C. § 1334. The Court has exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether the Disclosure Statement and Plan comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and should be approved and confirmed, respectively, and to enter a final order with respect thereto.

C. Commencement and Joint Administration of the Chapter 11 Cases

3. On the Petition Date, the Debtors commenced the Chapter 11 Cases, and on June 30, 2025, the Court entered an order authorizing the joint administration of the Chapter 11 Cases in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). See Docket No. 51. The Debtors have operated their businesses and managed their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors were and are entities eligible for relief under section 109 of the Bankruptcy Code. No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in the Chapter 11 Cases and no official committees have been appointed or designated.

D. Judicial Notice

4. The Court takes judicial notice of the docket of the Chapter 11 Cases maintained by the clerk of the Court, including, but not limited to, all pleadings and other documents filed, all orders entered, and all evidence and arguments made, proffered, adduced, and/or presented at the various hearings held before the Court during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases.

E. Objections

5. All parties have had a fair opportunity to litigate all issues raised, or that might have been raised, in objections to final approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan and such objections, if any, have been fully and fairly litigated or resolved.

6. In particular, the objections of the City of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and Chardell Bacon have been resolved by the Confirmation Stipulation, which stipulation is contingent upon the terms and conditions of the Confirmation Stipulation being approved by this Court and incorporated as material terms and conditions of this Order.

F. Plan Supplement

7. On August 20, 2025 and September 3, 2025, the Debtors filed the Plan Supplement with the Court. The Plan Supplement (including as subsequently modified, supplemented, or otherwise amended in accordance with the Plan as of the date hereof) complies with the terms of the Plan. The Debtors provided good and proper notice of the filing of the Plan Supplement in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Disclosure Statement Order. All documents included in the Plan Supplement are integral to, part of, and incorporated by reference into the Plan. No other or further notice is or will be required with respect to the Plan Supplement.

G. Modifications to the Plan

8. Pursuant to section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code, any modifications to the Plan made after the entry of the Disclosure Statement Order, including those described or set forth in this Order, constitute technical or clarifying changes, changes with respect to particular Claims by agreement with Holders of such Claims, or modifications that do not otherwise materially or adversely affect or change the treatment of any other Claim or Interest under the Plan. These modifications are consistent with the disclosures previously made pursuant to the Disclosure Statement and Solicitation Materials served pursuant to the Disclosure Statement Order and notice of these modifications was adequate and appropriate under the facts and circumstances of the Chapter 11 Cases. In accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 3019, these modifications do not require additional disclosure under section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code or the resolicitation of votes under section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, and they do not require that Holders of Claims be afforded an opportunity to change previously cast acceptances or rejections of the Plan. Accordingly, the Plan is properly before this Court and all votes cast with respect to the Plan prior to such modifications shall be binding and shall apply with respect to the Plan.

H. Adequacy of the Disclosure Statement

9. The Disclosure Statement contains "adequate information" (as such term is defined in section 1125(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and used in section 1126(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code) with respect to the Debtors, the Plan, and the transactions contemplated therein.

I. Disclosure Statement Order and Notice

10. On August 1, 2025, the Court entered the Disclosure Statement Order. As evidenced by the Solicitation Affidavit, the Publication Affidavit, and the record in the Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors provided due, adequate, and sufficient notice of the Plan and Disclosure Statement, the Disclosure Statement Order, the Solicitation Materials, the Plan Supplement, the settlement, release, exculpation, and injunction provisions contained in the Plan, the Combined Hearing, the Voting Deadline, the Combined Objection Deadline, and any other applicable bar dates described in the Disclosure Statement Order, in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, including Bankruptcy Rules 2002(b), 3016, 3017, 3019, and 3020(b), the Local Rules, the Solicitation and Voting Procedures, and the Disclosure Statement Order. No other or further notice is or shall be required.

J. Solicitation

11. The Debtors solicited votes for acceptance and rejection of the Plan in good faith, and such solicitation complied with the Bankruptcy Code, including sections 1125 and 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, including Bankruptcy Rules 3017, 3018, and 3019, the Disclosure Statement Order, the Solicitation and Voting Procedures, the Local Rules, and all other applicable rules, laws, and regulations. Transmission and service of the Solicitation Packages by the Debtors was timely, adequate, and sufficient under the facts and circumstances of the Chapter 11 Cases. No other or further notice is or shall be required.

K. Service of Opt-In Form

12. The Ballots and Notice of Non-Voting Status included a form for opting to grant the Third-Party Release (as defined below) (the "Opt-In Form") and instructions for opting to grant the Third-Party Release through the submission of the Opt-In Form to the Claims and Noticing Agent for recording by the Combined Objection Deadline. The process described in the Disclosure Statement Order, the Solicitation and Voting Procedures, and the Solicitation Affidavit that the Debtors and the Claims and Noticing Agent followed to identify the relevant parties on which to serve the Ballots and Notice of Non-Voting Status and to distribute the Opt-In Form was reasonably calculated to ensure that each of the Holders of Claims and Interests was informed of (i) its ability to opt to grant the Third-Party Release or (ii) that it would be consenting to grant the Third-Party Release by voting to accept the Plan. Transmission and service of the Opt-In Forms was timely, adequate, and sufficient under the facts and circumstances of the Chapter 11 Cases. No other or further notice is or shall be required.

L. Voting Report

13. The Voting Report was admitted into evidence during the Combined Hearing without objection. The procedures used to tabulate Ballots were fair and conducted in accordance with the Disclosure Statement Order, the Solicitation Procedures, the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and all other applicable rules, laws, and regulations.

14. As set forth in the Plan, Holders of Claims in Class 3, Class 4, Class 5A, and Class 5B (the "Voting Classes") were eligible to vote to accept or reject the Plan in accordance with the Solicitation and Voting Procedures. As evidenced by the Voting Report, all Voting Classes aside from Class 4 voted to accept the Plan in accordance with section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code.

M. Bankruptcy Rule 3016

15. The Plan and all modifications thereto are dated and identify the entities submitting them, satisfying Bankruptcy Rule 3016(a). The Debtors appropriately filed the Plan and Disclosure Statement with the Court, satisfying Bankruptcy Rule 3016(b). The injunction, release, and exculpation provisions in the Plan and Disclosure Statement describe, in bold font and with specific and conspicuous language, all acts to be enjoined and identify the entities that will be subject to the injunction, satisfying Bankruptcy Rule 3016(c).

N. Burden of Proof

16. The Debtors, as proponents of the Plan, have met their burden of proving the elements of sections 1129(a) and 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code by a preponderance of the evidence, the applicable evidentiary standard for confirmation. Further, to the extent applicable, the Debtors have proven the elements of sections 1129(a) and 1129(b) by clear and convincing evidence. Each witness who testified (by declaration, proffer, or otherwise) on behalf of the Debtors in connection with the Combined Hearing was credible, reliable, and qualified to testify as to the topics addressed in his or her testimony.

O. Compliance with the Requirements of Section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code

17. Based on the following findings of fact and conclusions of law, the Plan, all pleadings, documents, exhibits, statements, declarations, and affidavits filed in connection with confirmation of the Plan, and all evidence and arguments made, proffered, or adduced at the Combined Hearing, all requirements for plan confirmation set forth in section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied.

1. Section 1129(a)(1): Compliance with Applicable Provisions of the Bankruptcy Code

18. The Plan complies with all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including sections 1122 and 1123, as required by section 1129(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

a. Sections 1122 and 1123(a)(1): Proper Classification

19. The Plan designates all Claims and Interests, other than the Claims of the type described in sections 507(a)(2), 507(a)(3), or 507(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code, into nine Classes. The Claims or Interests in each designated Class have the same or substantially similar rights as the other Claims or Interests in such Class. Valid business, legal, and factual reasons exist for separately classifying the various Classes of Claims and Interests under the Plan. The Plan, therefore, satisfies sections 1122 and 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

b. Section 1123(a)(2): Specification of Unimpaired Classes

20. The Plan specifies that Class 1 Other Priority Claims and Class 2 Other Secured Claims are Unimpaired (the "Presumed Accepting Classes") within the meaning of section 1124 of the Bankruptcy Code, thereby satisfying section 1123(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

21. Additionally, Article II of the Plan specifies that Allowed General Administrative Claims, Professional Fee Claims, Priority Tax Claims, and Kelly Hamilton DIP Claims will be paid in full in accordance with the terms of the Plan, although these Claims are not classified under the Plan.

c. Section 1123(a)(3): Specification of Treatment of Impaired Classes

22. The Plan specifies that Claims or Interests in the following Classes are Impaired within the meaning of section 1124, and specifies the treatment of such Classes, thereby satisfying section 1123(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code:

| Class | Claims and Interests |
|---|---|
| 3 | Kelly Hamilton Go-Forward Trade Claims |
| 4 | Other Kelly Hamilton Unsecured Claims |
| 5A | CBRM Unsecured Claims |
| 5B | Spano CBRM Claim |
| 6 | Intercompany Claims |
| 7 | Intercompany Interests |
| 8 | CBRM Interests |
| 9 | Section 510(b) Claims |

d. Section 1123(a)(4): No Disparate Treatment

23. The Plan provides for the same treatment for each Claim or Interest in each respective Class unless the Holder of a particular Claim or Interest has agreed to less favorable treatment on account of such Claim or Interest. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

e. Section 1123(a)(5): Adequate Means for Plan Implementation

24. The Plan, the various documents included in the Plan Supplement, and the terms of this Order provide adequate and proper means for the implementation of the Plan, including, among other things: (a) the satisfaction of Claims and Interests; (b) the sources of consideration for Distributions under the Plan; (c) the consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction; (d) the appointment of the Wind-Down Officer to, among other things, (1) implement the Wind-

Down as expeditiously as reasonably possible and administer the liquidation of the post-Effective Date Debtors and their Estates and of any assets held by the post-Effective Date Debtors and their Estates after consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, (2) resolve any Disputed Wind-Down Claims and undertake a good faith effort to reconcile and settle Disputed Wind-Down Claims, (3) make distributions on account of Allowed Wind-Down Claims in accordance with the Plan, (4) file appropriate tax returns, and (5) otherwise administer the Plan, in each case to the extent set forth in the Wind-Down Agreement; and (e) the establishment of the Creditor Recovery Trust and appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee to, among other things, liquidate the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, in accordance with the Plan, this Order, and Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code.

f. Section 1123(a)(7): Directors, Officers, and Trustees

25. The identity of the Creditor Recovery Trustee is disclosed in the Plan Supplement. In accordance with the Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trustee has been selected by the Debtors, in consultation with the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, the NOLA DIP Lenders, and Spano Investor LLC. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall also serve as the Wind-Down Officer. Thus, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code.

g. Sections 1123(a)(6) and 1123(a)(8): Inapplicable Provisions

26. The Plan does not provide for the issuance of new equity interests and, therefore, section 1123(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable. Additionally, none of the Debtors are individuals and, therefore, section 1123(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable.

h. Section 1123(b): Discretionary Contents of the Plan

27. The Plan's discretionary provisions comply with section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and are not inconsistent with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Thus, the Plan satisfies section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

1. Impairment/Unimpairment of Any Class of Claims or Interests

28. In accordance with section 1123(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, each Class of Claims and Interests is either Impaired or Unimpaired under the Plan.

2. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

29. In accordance with section 1123(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan provides that, on the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided therein, each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease not previously rejected, assumed, or assumed and assigned shall be deemed automatically rejected pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code effective as of the Confirmation Date, unless such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease is subject to a motion to reject, assume, or assume and assign pending as of the Effective Date.

30. The Debtors' determinations regarding the rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases are based on, and within, the sound business judgment of the Debtors, are necessary to the implementation of the Plan, and are in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, Holders of Claims and Interests, and other parties in interest in the Chapter 11 Cases. Entry of this Order by the Court shall constitute approval of such rejections pursuant to sections 365(a) and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. Compromise and Settlement

31. To the extent provided by the Bankruptcy Code, and in consideration for the classification, Distributions, releases, and other benefits provided under the Plan, on the Effective Date, certain provisions of the Plan shall constitute a good-faith compromise and settlement of certain Claims, Interests, Causes of Action, and controversies released, settled, compromised, or otherwise resolved pursuant to the Plan.

4. Preservation of Estate Claims and Causes of Action

32. In accordance with section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan provides that (i) the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and (ii) the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall vest in the post-Effective Date Debtors under the authority of the Wind-Down Officer. The Plan and the Plan Supplement, including the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action, provide adequate disclosure with respect to the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action that the Creditor Recovery Trust and the post-Effective Date Debtors shall retain, respectively. The Plan and Plan Supplement, including the descriptions of the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action as contained in the Plan and the Schedule of Retained Estate Claims, are specific and unequivocal with respect to Causes of Action to be preserved and retained by the Creditor Recovery Trust and the post-Effective Date Debtors and comply with the standard set forth in Oneida Motor Freight, Inc. v. United Jersey Bank, 848 F.2d 414 (3d Cir. 1988). All parties in interest received adequate notice with respect to such Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action. The provisions regarding Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action in the Plan are appropriate and in the best interests of the Debtors, their respective Estates, and Holders of Claims and Interests.

5. Debtor Release

33. Article VIII.C of the Plan (the "Debtor Release") describes certain releases granted by the Debtors and their Estates. Such releases are a necessary and integral element of the Plan, and are fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and Holders of Claims and Interests. The Debtor Release is: (a) in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties; (b) a good-faith settlement and compromise of the Claims released by the Debtor Release; (c) given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; (d) appropriately tailored under the facts and circumstances of the Chapter 11 Cases; and (e) a bar to any of the Debtors and their Estates asserting any Cause of Action released by the Debtor Release against the Released Parties or their property. Accordingly, the Debtor Release is approved.

34. The Debtors have satisfied their burden with respect to the propriety of the Debtor Release. The Debtor Release appropriately offers protection to parties that provided consideration to the Debtors and that participated in the Debtors' restructuring process. The Released Parties made significant concessions and contributions to the Chapter 11 Cases, including by actively supporting the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, the Plan, and the Chapter 11 Cases. The scope of the Debtor Release is appropriately tailored under the facts and circumstances of the Chapter 11 Cases.

6. Release by Holders of Claims and Interests

35. Article VIII.D of the Plan (the "Third-Party Release") describes certain releases granted by the Releasing Parties to the Released Parties, which include: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser; (c) the Asset Manager; (d) the Property Manager; (e) the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members to the extent such member does not vote to reject the Plan; (g) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (h) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent.

36. The Releasing Parties were provided proper and sufficient notice of the Plan, the Third-Party Release, and the Combined Objection Deadline through the service of the Solicitation Materials and the publication of the Publication Notice in The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette and The Star-Ledger on August 7, 2025. No further notice is necessary. The Plan, the Ballots, the Notice of Non-Voting Status, and the Combined Hearing Notice each included the Third-Party Release provision in conspicuous, boldface type. The Ballots informed Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes that they would be a Releasing Party under the Plan and consenting to the Third-Party Release by (i) voting to accept the Plan or (ii) checking the opt-in election box on the Ballot to grant the Third-Party Release. Similarly, the Notice of Non-Voting Status informed Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Non-Voting Classes that they would be irrevocably granting the Third-Party Release by affirmatively opting to grant the Third-Party release by completing and returning the Opt-In Form to the Claims and Noticing Agent by the Voting Deadline. The Plan provides appropriate and specific disclosure with respect to the Claims and Causes of Action that are subject to the Third-Party Release, and no other disclosure is necessary. The Third-Party Release is specific in language, integral to the Plan, and given for substantial consideration.

37. The Third-Party Release is: (a) consensual with respect to the Releasing Parties; (b) an essential provision of the Plan; (c) given in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties; (d) a good-faith settlement and compromise of the Causes of Action released by the Third-Party Release; (e) materially beneficial to, and in the best interests of, the Debtors, their Estates, and their stakeholders, and important to the overall objectives of the Plan to finally resolve certain Cause of Actions among or against certain parties in interest in the Chapter 11 Cases; (f) fair, equitable, and reasonable; (g) given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; (h) a bar to any of the Releasing Parties asserting any Cause of Action released by the Third-Party Release against any of the Released Parties or their property; and (i) consistent with sections 105, 524, 1123, 1129, and 1141 and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Third-Party Release is approved.

7. Exculpation

38. The exculpation set forth in Article VIII.E of the Plan (the "Exculpation") is appropriate under applicable law because it was proposed in good faith, was formulated following extensive good-faith, arm's-length negotiations with key constituents, is essential to the Plan, and is appropriately limited in scope. The Exculpated Parties relied upon the Exculpation as a material inducement to engage in prepetition and postpetition negotiations with the Debtors that culminated in the Plan and the settlements and compromises therein that maximize value for the Debtors' Estates and their stakeholders. The record in the Chapter 11 Cases fully supports the Exculpation, which is appropriately tailored to protect the Exculpated Parties from unnecessary litigation and contains appropriate carve outs for actions determined to have constituted willful misconduct or gross negligence. Accordingly, the Exculpation is approved. The Debtors, their Estates, the Independent Fiduciary, and the Debtors' professionals including White & Case LLP, IslandDundon LLC, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, and Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global have, and upon entry of this Order will be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with all applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of the Plan and Distributions pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such Distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule or regulation governing solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such Distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

8. Injunction

39. The injunction provisions set forth in Article VIII.F of the Plan (the "Injunction") are essential to the Plan and are necessary to implement the Plan and to preserve and enforce the Debtor Release, the Third-Party Release, and the Exculpation provisions. The Injunction is appropriately tailored to achieve those purposes and is, therefore, approved.

9. Additional Plan Provisions

40. The other discretionary provisions in the Plan, including the Plan Supplement, are appropriate and consistent with applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, the treatment of Insurance Policies and the retention of Court jurisdiction.

2. Section 1129(a)(2): Compliance of the Debtors and Others with the Applicable Provisions of the Bankruptcy Code

41. The Debtors, as proponents of the Plan, have complied with all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code as required by section 1129(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, including sections 1122, 1123, 1124, 1125, 1126, 1128, and 1129, and with Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 3017, 3018, and 3019. The Debtors and their agents transmitted the Solicitation Materials and related documents and solicited and tabulated votes with respect to the Plan fairly, in good faith, and in compliance with the Disclosure Statement Order, the Solicitation Procedures, the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules, including, but not limited to, sections 1125 and 1126(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. Section 1129(a)(3): Proposal of Plan in Good Faith

42. The Plan is the product of the open, honest, and good faith process through which the Debtors have conducted their Chapter 11 Cases and reflects extensive, good faith, arm's length negotiations among the Debtors, the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser, the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, and the Debtors' other key economic stakeholders. The Plan itself and the process leading to its formulation provide independent evidence of the Debtors' good faith, serve the public interest, and assure fair treatment of Holders of Claims. In addition to achieving a result consistent with the objectives of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan allows the Debtors' economic stakeholders to realize the highest possible recoveries under the circumstances. Consistent with the overriding purpose of the Bankruptcy Code, the Chapter 11 Cases were filed, and the Plan was proposed, with the legitimate and honest purpose of maximizing the value of the Debtors' Estates. Accordingly, the Plan is fair, reasonable, and consistent with sections 1122, 1123, and 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code. Based on the foregoing, as well as the facts and record of the Chapter 11 Cases, including, but not limited to, the Combined Hearing, the Plan has been proposed in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law, thereby satisfying section 1129(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. Section 1129(a)(4): Court Approval of Certain Payments as Reasonable

43. All payments made or to be made by the Debtors for services or for costs and expenses in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, or in connection with the Plan and incident to the Chapter 11 Cases, have been authorized by, approved by, or are subject to the approval of, the Court as reasonable, thereby satisfying section 1129(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

5. Section 1129(a)(5): Service of Certain Individuals

44. The Plan provides that, on the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer shall be appointed by the Debtors for the purpose of conducting the Wind-Down and shall succeed to such powers and privileges as would have been applicable to the Debtors' officers and directors. Additionally, the Plan provides that, on the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be appointed by the Debtors to govern the Creditor Recovery Trust.

45. The Creditor Recovery Trustee was selected by the Debtors, in consultation with the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, the NOLA DIP Lenders, and Spano Investor LLC, in a manner consistent with the interests of Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims under the Crown Capital Plan and CBRM Unsecured Claims and with public policy. The Debtors disclosed the identity of the Creditor Recovery Trustee in the Plan Supplement. The Plan provides that, unless otherwise disclosed in the Plan Supplement, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall serve as the Wind-Down Officer. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. Section 1129(a)(6): Rate Changes

46. The Plan does not provide for any rate changes over which a governmental regulatory commission has jurisdiction, and, accordingly, section 1129(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable to the Plan.

7. Section 1129(a)(7): Best Interests of Holders of Claims and Interests

47. Each Holder of a Claim or Interest either (a) has voted to accept the Plan, (b) is Unimpaired and deemed to have accepted the Plan, or (c) shall receive or retain under the Plan, on account of such Claim or Interest, property of a value, as of the Effective Date of the Plan, that is not less than the amount that such Holder would receive or retain if the Debtors were to be liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition, the liquidation analysis attached as Exhibit C to the Disclosure Statement (the "Liquidation Analysis"), as well as the other evidence related thereto in support of the Plan that was proffered or adduced at or prior to the Combined Hearing, (a) is reasonable, persuasive, credible, and accurate as of the date such analysis or evidence was proffered, adduced, and/or presented, (b) utilizes reasonable and appropriate methodologies and assumptions, (c) has not been controverted by other evidence, and (d) establishes that, with respect to each Impaired Class of Claims or Interests, each Holder of an Allowed Claim or Interest in such Class, unless otherwise agreed to by such Holder, shall receive under the Plan on account of such Allowed Claim or Interest property of a value, as of the Effective Date, that is not less than the amount such Holder would receive if the Debtors were liquidated on the Effective Date under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

48. Accordingly, the Debtors have satisfied the requirements of section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code.

8. Section 1129(a)(8): Acceptance by Certain Classes

49. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Presumed Accepting Classes are Unimpaired under the Plan and are presumed to have accepted the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Voting Classes are Impaired under the Plan and have all voted to accept the Plan except for Class 4. Claims in Classes 6-9 are Impaired under the Plan and deemed to have rejected the Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Deemed Rejecting Classes"). Although section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code has not been satisfied with respect to the Deemed Rejecting Classes and Class 4, the Plan is confirmable because the Plan does not discriminate unfairly and is fair and equitable with respect to the Deemed Rejecting Classes and Class 4 and, thus, satisfies section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to such Classes as described further below.

9. Section 1129(a)(9): Treatment of Claims Entitled to Priority Pursuant to Section 507(a) of the Bankruptcy Code

50. The treatment of General Administrative Claims, Professional Compensation Claims, Priority Tax Claims, and Other Priority Claims under the Plan satisfies the requirements of and complies in all respects with section 1129(a)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code.

10. Section 1129(a)(10): Acceptance by Impaired Class

51. As evidenced by the Voting Report, without including any acceptance of the Plan by any insider (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes aside from Holders of Claims in Class 4 voted to accept the Plan in accordance with section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. As such, there is at least one Impaired Class of Claims that has accepted the Plan and, therefore, section 1129(a)(10) of the Bankruptcy Code has been satisfied.

11. Section 1129(a)(11): Feasibility of the Plan

52. The evidence supporting the Plan proffered or adduced by the Debtors at or before the Combined Hearing: (a) is reasonable, persuasive, credible, and accurate as of the dates such evidence was prepared, presented, or proffered; (b) has not been controverted by other persuasive evidence; (c) establishes that the Plan is feasible and confirmation of the Plan is not likely to be followed by liquidation (other than as contemplated by the Plan) or the need for further financial reorganization; and (d) establishes that the Debtors will have sufficient funds available to meet their obligations under the Plan. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code.

12. Section 1129(a)(12): Payment of Statutory Fees

53. The Plan provides for the payment of all fees payable under section 1930 of title 28 of the United States Code in accordance with section 1129(a)(12) of the Bankruptcy Code.

13. Sections 1129(a)(13), (14), (15), and (16): Inapplicable Provisions

54. Section 1129(a)(13) is inapplicable because the Debtors do not maintain any retirement benefits as defined in section 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1129(a)(14) is inapplicable because the Debtors are not required to pay domestic support obligations pursuant to a judicial or administrative order or statute. Section 1129(a)(15) is inapplicable because the Debtors are not individuals under the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1129(a)(16) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable because the Debtors are not nonprofit entities or trusts.

14. Section 1129(b): No Unfair Discrimination; Fair and Equitable

55. Notwithstanding the rejection of the Plan by the Deemed Rejecting Classes and Class 4, based upon the record before the Court and the treatment provided on account of such Claims and Interests, (a) the Plan does not discriminate unfairly against, and is fair and equitable with respect to, such Classes of Claims and Interests and (b) the Plan satisfies all the requirements for confirmation set forth in section 1129(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, except for section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code. The evidence in support of confirmation of the Plan proffered or adduced by the Debtors at, or prior to, or in declarations filed in connection with, the Combined Hearing regarding the Debtors' classification and treatment of Claims and Interests and the requirements for confirmation of the Plan under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (x) is reasonable, persuasive, credible, and accurate, (y) utilizes reasonable and appropriate methodologies and assumptions, and (z) has not been controverted by other credible evidence. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the Deemed Rejecting Classes and Class 4.

15. Section 1129(c): Only One Plan

56. The Plan is the only plan filed in the Chapter 11 Cases for Debtors CBRM Realty Inc., Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC, and Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC and, accordingly, satisfies section 1129(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

16. Section 1129(d): Principal Purpose of the Plan Is Not Avoidance of Taxes or Section 5 of the Securities Act

57. The principal purpose of the Plan is not the avoidance of taxes or the avoidance of the application of section 5 of the Securities Act, thereby satisfying the requirements of section 1129(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

17. Section 1129(e): Not Small Business Cases

58. The Chapter 11 Cases are not small business cases and, accordingly, section 1129(e) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable to the Chapter 11 Cases.

P. Sufficiency of Marketing

59. The Debtors and their professionals conducted a fair, open, and adequate prepetition marketing and sale process as set forth in the Bidding Procedures Declaration. The marketing and sale process was non-collusive, duly noticed, and provided a full, fair, and reasonable opportunity for any Entity to make an offer, and the process conducted by the Debtors obtained the highest or best value for the Kelly Hamilton Property. There was no other transaction available or presented that would have yielded as favorable an economic result for the Debtors' Estates as that provided by the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction. Based upon the record of these proceedings, all creditors and other parties in interest and all prospective buyers have been afforded a reasonable and fair opportunity to make a higher or otherwise better offer. The marketing and sale process undertaken by the Debtors and their professionals has been adequate and appropriate and reasonably calculated to maximize the value for the benefit of all stakeholders in all respects.

Q. Sound Business Purpose; Sale Highest or Best Offer

60. Consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction constitutes a valid and sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment, and such acts are in the best interests of the Debtors, the Estates, and Holders of Claims and Interests. This Court finds that the Debtors have articulated good and sufficient business reasons for the Court to authorize (i) the consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction pursuant to the terms of the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement and the Plan, (ii) the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts as set forth herein, in the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement, and the Plan, and (iii) the assumption of the Assumed Liabilities as set forth herein, in the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement, and the Plan.

61. The Debtors have articulated good and sufficient business reasons justifying the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property to the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser on the terms and conditions set forth in the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement. Additionally: (a) the total consideration provided by the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser pursuant to the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction is the highest or best offer available to the Debtors; (b) the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction presents the best opportunity to realize the maximum value for the Debtors' Estates and avoid a decline and devaluation of the Kelly Hamilton Property; (c) there is risk that the value of the Kelly Hamilton Property will deteriorate, and the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser may terminate the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement, if the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction is not consummated promptly; (d) the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement and the consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction will provide a greater recovery for the Debtors' creditors than would be provided by any other presently available alternative; (e) the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser would not agree to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property if the Kelly Hamilton Property remained subject to higher or better offers after the entry of this Order; and (f) the Debtors' consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction is reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances. The Debtors have demonstrated compelling circumstances and a good, sufficient, and sound business purpose and justification for the consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction.

62. The Debtors' decision to enter into and assume the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement and consummate the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction constitutes a proper exercise of the fiduciary duties of the Independent Fiduciary. Because entry into the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement and the consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction constitutes the exercise of sound business judgment by the Debtors, none of the Debtors, or their respective current and former members, managers, officers, directors, employees, advisors, professionals, or agents in their capacity as such, shall incur or have any liability to the Estates or any Holder of a Claim against or Interest in the Debtors for any act or omission in connection with, related to, or arising out of the negotiations of the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement or the consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction contemplated thereunder, other than liability arising out of or relating to any act or omission of the Debtors that constitutes a breach of the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement, willful misconduct, or fraud, in each case as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction.

R. Arm's-Length Sale and Kelly Hamilton Purchaser's Good Faith

63. The Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement and the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction were negotiated, proposed, and undertaken by the Debtors and the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser at arm's length, without collusion or fraud, and in good faith within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Kelly Hamilton Purchaser (i) recognizes that the Debtors were free to deal with any other party interested in making an offer, (ii) complied with the procedures governing the Debtors' marketing and sale process in all respects, and (iii) willingly subjected its bid to the competitive marketing and sale process. All payments to be made by the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser and other agreements or arrangements entered into by the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser in connection with the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction have been disclosed. As a result of the foregoing, the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser is a "good faith purchaser" and, as such, is entitled to all of the protections afforded by section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, including in the event this Order or any portion thereof is reversed or modified on appeal, and the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser has proceeded in good faith in all respects in connection with the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction specifically and the Chapter 11 Cases generally.

S. Authority

64. The Debtors have: (i) full power and authority to execute the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement and all other documents contemplated thereby, (ii) all of the power and authority necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement subject to the terms of the Plan and this Order, and (iii) taken all corporate action necessary to authorize and approve the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement, the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property, and all other actions required to be performed by the Debtors in order to consummate the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction. No consents or approvals, other than those already obtained or expressly provided for in the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement or this Order, are required for the Debtors to consummate the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction.

T. Good Faith

65. The Debtors and the Exculpated Parties have acted in "good faith" within the meaning of section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules in connection with all of their respective activities relating to support and consummation of the Plan, including the solicitation of acceptances of the Plan, their participation in the Chapter 11 Cases and the activities described in section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, and are entitled to the protections afforded by section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

U. Implementation

66. All documents and agreements necessary to implement the transactions contemplated by the Plan, including those contained or summarized in the Plan Supplement, and all other relevant and necessary documents have been negotiated in good faith and at arm's-length, are in the best interests of the Debtors, the Estates, and Holders of Claims and Interests, and shall, upon completion of documentation and execution, be valid, binding, and enforceable documents and agreements not in conflict with any federal, state, or local law. Such documents and agreements are essential elements of the Plan, and entry into and consummation of the transactions contemplated by each such document or agreement is in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and Holders of Claims and Interests. The Debtors have exercised reasonable business judgment in determining which documents and agreements to enter into and have provided sufficient and adequate notice of such documents and agreements. The Debtors, the post-Effective Date Debtors, the Wind-Down Officer, the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser, or the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as applicable, are authorized to take any action reasonably necessary or appropriate to implement, effectuate and consummate the Plan, the documents and agreements necessary to implement the Plan, this Order, and the transactions contemplated thereby or hereby, including performance under the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement, the Wind-Down Agreement, and the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

specifically reference any particular provision set forth in the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement in this Order shall not diminish or impair the efficacy of such provision, it being the intent of this Court that the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement and all other agreements or arrangements entered into by the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser and the Debtors in connection with the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, and each and every provision, term and condition thereof be authorized and approved in its entirety.

75. The Debtors are authorized to consummate the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction and, among other things, the Kelly Hamilton Property shall be transferred to and vest in the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges, or other encumbrances pursuant to the terms of the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement and this Order.

77. Neither the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser nor any of its Affiliates shall be deemed to be a successor to the Debtors.

78. The Debtors and the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser have acted in good faith and are entitled to the protections afforded under section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code. No evidence has been presented to the Court indicating that the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction may be avoided pursuant to section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code.

79. The documents related to implementation of the Kelly Hamilton Transaction may be modified, amended, or supplemented by the parties thereto in non-material ways in accordance with the terms thereof, without further order of the Court.

I. Assumed Contracts

80. Notwithstanding any provision of any Assumed Contract or applicable non-bankruptcy law that prohibits, restricts, or conditions the assignment of such Assumed Contract, the Debtors are authorized to assume and assign to the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser the Assume Contracts pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, which assumption and assignment shall take place on and be effective as of the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided herein. There shall be no accelerations, assignment fees, increases, or any other fees charged to the Debtor, the post-Effective Date Debtors, or the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser as a result of the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, which shall not be a default under any such Assumed Contract. After the payment or satisfaction of the relevant Cure Cost (if applicable), none of the Debtors, their Estates, the post-Effective Date Debtors, or the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser shall have any further liabilities under the Assumed Contracts to the non-Debtor counterparties under the Assumed Contracts, other than the obligations under the Assumed Contracts that accrue or become due and payable on or after the Effective Date. Upon assumption and assignment to the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser of the Assumed Contracts, the Assumed Contracts shall be deemed valid and binding, in full force and effect in accordance with their terms, subject to the provisions of this Order. As of the Effective Date, the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser shall succeed to the entirety of Debtor Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC's rights and obligations under each Assumed Contract.

J. Valid Transfer; No Liability

81. The transfer to the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser of the Debtors' rights, title, and interest in the Kelly Hamilton Property pursuant to the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement shall be, and hereby is deemed to be, a legal, valid, and effective transfer of the Debtors' rights, title, and interest in the Kelly Hamilton Property, notwithstanding any requirement for approval or consent by any person, and all rights, title, and interest of the Debtors in the Kelly Hamilton Property shall vest with or will vest in the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser free and clear of all Claims of any kind or nature whatsoever (other than the Assumed Liabilities).

permanently enjoined from asserting, prosecuting, or otherwise pursuing or taking any other action against the Debtors or the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser or the Debtors' or the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser's respective affiliates, successors, assigns, equity holders, directors, officers, employees, or professionals, the Kelly Hamilton Property, or the interests of the Debtors or the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser in the Kelly Hamilton Property based on any Claims, Interests, Liens, or other encumbrances to the extent such Claims, Interests, Liens, or encumbrances are released or discharged pursuant to the Plan, including any Claims arising under or out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to, the transfer of the Debtors' interests in the Kelly Hamilton Property to the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser. Following the Closing, no holder of a Claim against the Debtors (other than Assumed Liabilities) shall interfere with the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser's title to or use and enjoyment of the Debtors' or the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser's interest in the Kelly Hamilton Property based on or related to such Claim. All Persons and Entities are hereby enjoined from taking action that would interfere with or adversely affect the ability of the Debtors to transfer the Kelly Hamilton Property in accordance with the terms of the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser Agreement, the Plan, and this Order.

83. On the Closing Date, this Order shall be construed and shall constitute for any and all purposes a full and complete general assignment, conveyance, and transfer of all of the Debtors' rights, title, and interest in the Kelly Hamilton Property or a bill of sale transferring good and marketable title in the Kelly Hamilton Property to the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser, pursuant to the terms of the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement and the Plan, in each case free and clear of all Claims (other than Assumed Liabilities).

K. Wind-Down and Dissolution of the Debtors

84. The Wind-Down Officer is authorized to implement the Plan and may take any reasonable action necessary to implement the Wind-Down and dissolve the Debtors in, and withdraw the Debtors from, applicable states and provinces to the extent required by applicable law, without the necessity for any other or further actions to be taken by or on behalf of such dissolving Entity or any payments to be made in connection therewith, other than the filing of a certificate of dissolution with the appropriate governmental.

85. Except to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of the Plan or complete the Wind-Down, from and after the Effective Date, the post-Effective Date Debtors (i) for all purposes shall be deemed to have withdrawn their business operations from any state in which the Debtors were previously conducting, or are registered or licensed to conduct, their business operations, and shall not be required to file any document, pay any sum, or take any other action in order to effectuate such withdrawal (ii) shall be deemed to have cancelled pursuant to the Plan all Interests, and (iii) shall not be liable in any manner to any taxing authority for franchise, business, license, or similar taxes accruing on or after the Effective Date.

Plan, the foregoing shall not affect nor be deemed to affect the corporate governance actions or other actions of Crown Capital, which shall, under the sole and exclusive direction of the Independent Fiduciary, have the authority to act on behalf of any Entity directly or indirectly owned by Crown Capital, including each Entity identified on Schedule 1 to the Plan, in each case under the sole and exclusive authority of the Independent Fiduciary.

P. Preservation of Rights of Action

91. The Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall become Wind-Down Assets. On and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue and dispose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and the Wind-Down Officer shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action.

92. No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan or Disclosure Statement as to any Cause of Action as any indication that the Debtor, and on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action against them. No preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation. Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, subject to the oversight, approval, consultation and consent of the Advisory Committee as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, shall retain and shall have, through their authorized agents or representatives, the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Court.

Q. Contributed Claims

93. On the Effective Date, all Contributed Claims will be irrevocably contributed to Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Contributing Claimants and shall thereafter be Creditor Recovery Trust Assets for all purposes.

94. No Person may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, this Order, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Plan Supplement, or any other document as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee will or will not pursue any and all available Contributed Claims against such Person. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all Contributed Claims fully to the same extent that the Contributing Claimants could have asserted such claims prior to the Effective Date.

R. Closing the Chapter 11 Cases

95. Entry of this Order by the Court shall constitute approval of such rejections.

T. Insurance Policies

97. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, each of the Insurance Policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto issued to or entered into by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date shall not be considered Executory Contracts and shall neither be assumed nor rejected by the Debtors; provided, however, that to the extent any such Insurance Policy is determined by Final Order to be an Executory Contract, then, notwithstanding anything

99. From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall remain in place on terms for coverage and amounts no less favorable than the Debtors' current directors' and officers' insurance policies. From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be maintained for the benefit of the beneficiaries thereunder and shall not be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust nor become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. The Debtors shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policies (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect on or prior to the Effective Date, and the Independent Fiduciary shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy or policies for the full term of such policy or policies.

ARTICLE IV
MEANS FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PLAN

A. Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, Restructuring Transactions, and Sources of Consideration for Plan Distributions.

The Confirmation Order shall be deemed to authorize the Debtors, among other things, to take all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effect any transaction described in, approved by, contemplated by, or necessary to effectuate the Plan, including the Restructuring Transactions and the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction. With respect to the Plan, all amounts of Cash necessary for the Debtors to make payments or distributions pursuant to the Plan shall be obtained from the Sale Proceeds, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and the Wind-Down Assets.

1. Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction.

On the Effective Date, the Debtors shall be authorized to consummate the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction and, among other things, the Kelly Hamilton Property shall be transferred to and vest in the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges, or other encumbrances pursuant to the terms of the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement and the Confirmation Order. On and after the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors or the Kelly Hamilton

Purchaser, as applicable, may operate their businesses and may use, acquire, or dispose of property and compromise or settle any Claims, Interests, or Causes of Action without supervision or approval by the Bankruptcy Court and free of any restrictions of the Bankruptcy Code or Bankruptcy Rules. Neither the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser nor any of its Affiliates shall be deemed to be a successor to the Debtors.

2. Payment of Sale Proceeds by Kelly Hamilton Purchaser.

On the Effective Date, the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser shall pay to the Debtors the Sale Proceeds as and to the extent provided for in the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement.

3. Restructuring Transactions.

B. General Settlement of Claims.

To the extent provided for by the Bankruptcy Code, and in consideration for the classification, Distributions, releases, and other benefits provided under the Plan, on the Effective Date, certain of the provisions of the Plan shall constitute a good-faith compromise and settlement of certain Claims, Interests, Causes of Action, and controversies released, settled, compromised, or otherwise resolved pursuant to the Plan.

C. Wind Down and Dissolution of the Debtors.

1. Appointment of the Wind-Down Officer.

On the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer shall be appointed by the Debtors for the purpose of conducting the Wind-Down and shall succeed to such powers and privileges as would have been applicable to the Debtors' officers, directors, and shareholders, and the Debtors. Upon the conclusion of the Wind-Down, the Debtors shall be dissolved by the Wind-Down Officer. The Wind-Down Officer shall act for the Debtors in the same fiduciary capacity as applicable to a board of directors or managers and officers, subject to the provisions hereof (and all certificates of formation, membership agreements, articles of incorporation or by-laws, and related documents, as applicable, are deemed amended pursuant to the Plan to permit and authorize the same). From and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer shall be a representative of and shall act for the post-Effective Date Debtors and their Estates.

Among other things, the Wind-Down Officer shall be responsible for: (a) implementing the Wind-Down as expeditiously as reasonably possible and administering the liquidation of the post-Effective Date Debtors and their Estates and of any assets held by the post-Effective Date Debtors and their Estates after consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, (b) resolving any Disputed Wind-Down Claims and undertaking a good faith effort to reconcile and settle Disputed Wind-Down Claims, (c) making distributions on account of Allowed Wind-Down Claims in accordance with the Plan, (d) filing appropriate tax returns, and (e) otherwise administering the Plan, in each case to the extent set forth in the Wind-Down Agreement.

On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer will be authorized to implement the Plan, and the Wind-Down Officer shall have the power and authority to take any reasonable action necessary to implement the Wind-Down. On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer shall cause the Debtors to comply with, and abide by, the terms of the Plan, and take such other reasonable actions as the Wind-Down Officer may determine to be necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of the Plan. Except to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of the Plan or complete the Wind-Down, from and after the Effective Date, the Debtors (a) for all purposes, shall be deemed to have withdrawn their business operations from any state or province in which the Debtors were previously conducting, or are registered or licensed to conduct, their business operations, and shall not be required to file any document, pay any sum, or take any other action to effectuate such withdrawal, (b) shall be deemed to have cancelled pursuant to this Plan all Interests, and (c) shall not be liable in any manner to any taxing authority for franchise, business, license, or similar taxes accruing on or after the Effective Date. The filing of the final monthly operating or disbursement report (for the month in which the Effective Date occurs) and all subsequent quarterly reports shall be the responsibility of the Wind-Down Officer, provided, however, that no Debtor shall be relieved of any duty under applicable law to file any post-confirmation report or pay any U.S. Trustee Fees.

After the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer shall complete and file all final or otherwise required federal, state, provincial, and local tax returns for each of the Debtors.

2. Termination of Wind-Down Officer's Duties; Dissolution of Debtors.

Upon a certification to be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court by the Wind-Down Officer of all distributions having been made and completion of all its duties under the Plan and entry of a final decree closing the last of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Wind-Down Officer shall be discharged without any further action, including the filing of any documents with the secretary of state for the state in which the Debtors are formed or any other jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Wind-Down Officer shall retain the authority to take all necessary actions to dissolve the Debtors in, and withdraw the Debtors from, applicable states and provinces to the extent required by applicable law, without the necessity for any other or further actions to be taken by or on behalf of such dissolving Entity or any payments to be made in connection therewith, other than the filing of a certificate of dissolution with the appropriate governmental authorities. Any funds remaining in the Debtors at the time of dissolution shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, subject to any reversionary interests of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender in the Fee Escrow solely to the extent that the Bankruptcy Court determines that the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility has not been indefeasibly repaid in full in Cash or otherwise satisfied in full by the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction.

D. Creditor Recovery Trust.

1. Establishment of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

On or before the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement shall be executed, and all other necessary steps shall be taken to create the Creditor Recovery Trust. On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be automatically appointed as a representative of the Debtors' Estates pursuant to sections 1123(a)(5), (a)(7), and (b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. From and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall succeed to all rights, privileges, and powers of the Debtors and their Estates with respect to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be substituted and will replace the Debtors and their Estates in all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Insurance Causes of Action, whether or not such claims are pending in filed litigation.

2. Certain Tax Matters Related to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be established to liquidate the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and make distributions in accordance with the Plan, Confirmation Order, and Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and in accordance with Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the liquidating purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be structured to qualify as a "liquidating trust" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 301.7701-4(d) and in compliance with Revenue Procedure 94-45, and thus, as a "grantor trust" within the meaning of Sections 671 through 679 of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, the beneficiaries of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes (1) as direct recipients of undivided interests in the respective claims each has that constitute the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (other than to the extent the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets are allocable to Disputed Claims) and as having immediately contributed such assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (2) thereafter, as the grantors and deemed owners of the Creditor Recovery Trust and thus, the direct owners of an undivided interest in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (other than such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets that are allocable to Disputed Claims).

The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall file tax returns for the Creditor Recovery Trust as a grantor trust pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 1.671-4(a) and in accordance with the Plan. The Creditor Recovery Trust's items of taxable income, gain, loss, deduction, and/or credit (other than such items in respect of any assets allocable to, or retained on account of, Disputed Claims) will be allocated to each holder in accordance with their relative ownership of Creditor Recovery Trust interests. As soon as possible after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall make a good faith valuation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and such valuation shall be used consistently by all parties for all U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Creditor Recovery Trustee may request an expedited determination of taxes on the Creditor Recovery Trust under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all returns filed for, or on behalf of, the Creditor Recovery Trust for all taxable periods through the dissolution of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trustee (1) may timely elect to treat any Creditor Recovery Trust Assets allocable to Disputed Claims as a "disputed ownership fund" governed by Treasury Regulations Section 1.468B-9 if and to the extent the Creditor Recovery Trustee determines such assets so qualify, and (2) to the extent permitted by applicable law, shall report consistently for state and local income tax purposes. If a "disputed ownership fund" election is made, all parties (including the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the holders of Creditor Recovery Trust interests) shall report for U.S. federal, state, and local income tax purposes consistently with the foregoing. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall file all income tax returns with respect to any income attributable to a "disputed ownership fund" and shall pay the U.S. federal, state, and local income taxes attributable to such disputed ownership fund based on the items of income, deduction, credit, or loss allocable thereto.

3. Purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

The purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be to (a) hold, manage, protect and monetize the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and (b) administer, process and satisfy all Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims under the Crown Capital Plan and all CBRM Unsecured Claims, which for the avoidance of doubt shall be submitted exclusively to the Creditor Recovery Trust and satisfied by the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall have the exclusive power and authority to, among other things, in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement: (i) hold, manage, protect and monetize Creditor Recovery Trust Assets; (ii) commence, prosecute, and settle all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action; and (iii) perform all actions and execute all agreements, instruments and other documents necessary to effectuate the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust and carry out the provisions of the Plan relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Following the establishment of the Creditor Recovery Trust, no Person or Entity shall have the right under the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law to obtain standing on behalf of any Debtor, any Debtor's Estate, or the Creditor Recovery Trust to take any action, or fail to take any action, with respect to any matter directly or indirectly involving the Creditor Recovery Trust (including the right to obtain standing to pursue any Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, any Avoidance Action, or any Causes of Action).

4. Funding of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be funded with the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trustee may, in its reasonable discretion, without approval by the Bankruptcy Court but subject to approval from the Advisory Committee, (i) enter into any financing arrangement to fund the Creditor Recovery Trust (including funding provided by litigation finance parties), or (ii) enter into an engagement letter on behalf of the Creditor Recovery Trust with an attorney, law firm, or other professional pursuant to which the Creditor Recovery Trust will retain such attorney, law firm, or other professional to pursue the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action on a contingency or special-fee-award basis.

5. Privileged Information of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

On the Effective Date, any attorney-client privilege, work-product privilege, common-interest communications with Insurance Companies, protection or privilege granted by joint defense, common interest, and/or other privilege or immunity of the Debtors relating, in whole or in part, to the Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, the RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims, the CBRM Unsecured Claims, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action), or the Insurance Causes of Actions shall be irrevocably transferred to and vested in the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall have the same rights as the Debtors in Privileged Information relating to the Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, the RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims, the CBRM Unsecured Claims and the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. The Creditor Recovery Trust's rights in the Privileged Information will remain subject to the rights of third parties under applicable law, including any rights arising from the common interest doctrine, the joint defense doctrine, joint attorney-client representation, or any agreement; provided, however, that prior to taking any action that could affect any privilege in which a third party may have rights, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall provide such third party with reasonable written notice.

6. Creditor Recovery Trustee.

The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be governed exclusively by the Creditor Recovery Trustee. The powers and duties of the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall include, but shall not be limited to, those powers, duties and responsibilities vested in the Creditor Recovery Trustee pursuant to the terms of the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and shall include the authority to: (a) hold, manage, protect, and monetize the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets; (b) carry out the provisions of the Plan relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust, including commencing, prosecuting, and settling all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Insurance Causes of Action; and (c) perform all actions and execute all agreements, instruments and other documents necessary to effectuate the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The preceding list of powers, duties, and responsibilities of the Creditor Recovery Trustee is non-exclusive and the powers, rights and responsibilities of the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be further specified in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

7. Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee.

On the Effective Date and pursuant to the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Advisory Committee (as defined in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement) shall be established. The Advisory Committee shall serve in a fiduciary capacity in the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust and have such rights of with respect to oversight, approval, consultation and consent as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The members of the Advisory Committee shall be entitled to compensation for their services in an amount to be agreed by, if prior to the Confirmation Hearing, the Debtors, or if on or after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee.

8. Vesting of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

As of the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, Encumbrances, charges or other interests to the extent permitted by section 1141 of the Bankruptcy

Code. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not diminish, and fully preserves, any defenses the Debtors would have if such assets had been retained by the Debtors. The Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as applicable, through their authorized agents or representatives, shall retain and may exclusively enforce the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action vested, transferred, or assigned to such entity on behalf of both the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust or the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as applicable, shall have the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. For the avoidance of doubt, subject to the provisions of this Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets will not be deemed property of the Debtors or their Estates and the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not be deemed to be a successor of the Debtors for purposes of any Distribution made by the Creditor Recovery Trust.

9. Abandonment of the Abandoned Entities

Upon the Effective Date of the Plan, the Debtors shall be deemed to have abandoned any equity interest in or other interest with respect to any Abandoned Entity pursuant to section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code.

10. Adequate Disclosure.

The Confirmation Order shall provide that all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action have been sufficiently and adequately disclosed in the Chapter 11 Cases for all purposes necessary to satisfy the requirements of the standard set forth in Oneida Motor Freight, Inc. v. United Jersey Bank, 848 F.2d 414 (3d Cir. 1988) such that no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), shall apply to prevent the Creditor Recovery Trust or the Wind-Down Officer from initiating, filing, prosecuting, enforcing, abandoning, settling, compromising, releasing, withdrawing, or litigating to judgment any such Causes of Action.

E. Cancellation of Securities and Agreements.

On the Effective Date, except to the extent otherwise provided in the Plan, all notes, instruments, certificates, and other documents evidencing, or in any way related to, Claims or Interests shall be canceled as against the Debtors and each Released Party and the obligations of the Debtors thereunder or in any way related thereto shall be released, settled, and compromised.

F. Corporate Action.

Notwithstanding any requirements under applicable nonbankruptcy law, upon the Effective Date, all actions contemplated by the Plan shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, including the implementation of the Restructuring Transactions and the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction. All matters provided for in the Plan involving the corporate structure of the Debtors, and any corporate action required by the Debtors in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have occurred and shall be in effect, without any requirement of further action by any Person or Entity or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors and their directors, managers, partners, officers, authorized persons, and members thereof (including the Independent Fiduciary) are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, securities, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan and the securities issued pursuant to the Plan in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors, without the need for any approvals, authorizations, or consents, except for those expressly required pursuant to the Plan, or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

G. Independent Fiduciary.

As of the Effective Date, notwithstanding any agreement, proxy, resolution, shareholders' agreement, or other document to the contrary, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall own the CBRM Interests and shall have the sole authority and power to control the corporate governance actions of CBRM; provided, however, that, except as provided in the Crown Capital Plan, the foregoing shall not affect nor be deemed to affect the corporate governance actions or other actions of Crown Capital, which shall, under the sole and exclusive direction of the Independent Fiduciary, have the authority to act on behalf of any Entity directly or indirectly owned by Crown Capital, including each Entity identified on Schedule 1 attached hereto, in each case under the sole and exclusive authority of the Independent Fiduciary.

H. Exemption from Certain Taxes and Fees.

Pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers of property or any Interests pursuant to the Plan, including the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, the recording of any amendments to such transfers, or any new mortgages or liens placed on the property in connection with such transfers, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, registration tax, mortgage tax, stamp act, real estate, transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, or other similar tax, fees, charges, or governmental assessment (including any penalties and interest), and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment to the maximum extent covered by section 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code.

I. Preservation of Rights of Action.

On the Effective Date, (i) the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and (ii) the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall vest in the post-Effective Date Debtors under the authority of the Wind-Down Officer, in each case free and clear of all Claims, Liens, Encumbrances and other interests. The Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall become Wind-Down Assets. On and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue and dispose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and the Wind-Down Officer shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action. No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan or Disclosure Statement as to any Cause of Action as any indication that the Debtor, and on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action against them. No preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation. Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, subject to the oversight, approval, consultation and consent of the Advisory Committee as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, shall retain and shall have, through their authorized agents or representatives, the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or the Disclosure Statement to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee or the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action. Unless and until any such Causes of Action against any Person or Entity are expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or assigned, or settled under the Plan or a Final Order, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, expressly reserve all such Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation or Consummation.

J. Election to Contribute Claims.

Because aggregating all Contributed Claims may enable the pursuit and settlement of such litigation claims in a more efficient and effective manner, each Holder of a Claim or Interest may agree, by electing on its Ballot, to contribute its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of Contributing Claimants. Rather, as provided in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, any value attributable to such Contributed Claims will be segregated and only available for disbursement to those Holders that elected to contribute such Claims. By electing such option on its Ballot, each Contributing Claimant agrees that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, it will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

K. Contribution of Contributed Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Contributed Claims will be irrevocably contributed to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Contributing Claimants. No Person may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Confirmation Order, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Plan Supplement, or any other document as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee will or will not pursue any and all available Contributed Claims against such Person. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all Contributed Claims fully to the same extent that the Contributing Claimants could have asserted such claims prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contributed Claims shall not include the rights of any of the Contributing Claimants to receive the Distributions under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests and shall not include any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law.

L. Funding of Creditor Recovery Trust Amount.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Amount shall be funded in Cash.

M. CBRM-Crown Capital Intercompany Settlement.

In full settlement of any Intercompany Claims arising in connection with the proceeds of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility being used to fund the restructuring of Debtor CBRM pursuant to this Plan, (1) any Claims and Causes of Action held by CBRM shall constitute Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, and (2) CBRM agrees that the Wind-Down Officer shall have the sole authority to wind down, dissolve, and liquidate its Estate and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the sole authority to effectuate Distributions to the Holders of CBRM Unsecured Claims to the extent the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims receive payment in full.

TREATMENT OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

A. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, all Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases (including all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List) will be deemed rejected, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than those that previously were assumed or rejected by the Debtors or those that are subject to a pending motion to assume or assign such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such rejections.

B. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

Unless otherwise provided by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within 30 days after entry of the Confirmation Order. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to this Plan not filed within such time shall be disallowed, forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against, as applicable, the Debtors, the Estates, or property thereof, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged. All Allowed Claims arising from the rejection of any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases shall constitute and be treated as Unsecured Claims. Nothing herein shall constitute an extension of any Claims Bar Date otherwise applicable to a Claim arising from an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously rejected by the Debtors.

C. Treatment of Insurance Policies.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each of the Insurance Policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto issued to or entered into by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date shall not be considered Executory Contracts and shall neither be assumed nor rejected by the Debtors; provided, however, that to the extent any such Insurance Policy is determined by Final Order to be an Executory Contract, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the Plan will constitute a motion to assume such Insurance Policy and assign the same to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, the entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute approval of such assumption and assignment pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Unless otherwise determined by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed by the parties thereto prior to the Effective Date, no payments are required to cure any defaults of the Debtor existing as of the Confirmation Date with respect to any Insurance Policy, and prior payments for premiums or other charges made prior to the Petition Date under or with respect to any Insurance Policy shall be indefeasible.

D. Effect of Confirmation on D&O Liability Insurance Policies.

From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall remain in place on terms for coverage and amounts no less favorable than the Debtors' current directors' and officers' insurance policies. From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be maintained for the benefit of the beneficiaries thereunder and shall not be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust nor become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. The Debtors shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policies (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect on or prior to the Effective Date, and the Independent Fiduciary shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy or policies for the full term of such policy or policies.

ARTICLE VI
PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISTRIBUTIONS

A. Timing and Calculation of Amounts to Be Distributed.

Except as (1) otherwise provided herein, (2) directed by a Final Order, or (3) as otherwise agreed to by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Officer, as the case may be, and the Holder of the applicable Claim, on the Effective Date (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Distribution Date after such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive the full amount of distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class from the Distribution Agent. In the event that any payment or distribution under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or distribution may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. Except as specifically provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

B. Distribution Agent.

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under the Plan and the Plan Supplement; (b) make all distributions contemplated under the Plan; (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan and the Plan Supplement, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of the Plan and the Plan Supplement.

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Distribution Agent on or after the Effective Date (including taxes) and any reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement claims (including reasonable attorney and/or other professional fees and expenses) made by the Distribution Agent shall be paid in Cash by the Wind-Down Officer from the Wind-Down Account.

C. Delivery of Distributions and Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Distribution Agent shall make all distributions required under the Plan. The Distribution Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Additionally, in the event that the Distribution Agent is so otherwise ordered, all costs and expenses of procuring any such bond or surety shall be paid from the Wind-Down Account.

In the event that either (a) a distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable, (b) the Holder of an Allowed Claim does not respond in writing to a request by the Debtors or the Distribution Agent for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution within sixty (60) days or otherwise complete the actions necessary to facilitate a distribution as identified to the Holder within ninety (90) days of the Distribution Agent's request, no distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Distribution Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder or received the necessary information to facilitate a particular distribution, at which time such distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest, dividends, or other accruals of any kind; provided that such distributions shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code on the date that is six months after (a) the date of the distribution, if a distribution is made, or (b) the date that a request for information or action is sent by the Distribution Agent. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Creditor Recovery Trust automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable local, state, federal, or foreign escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and the Claim or Interest of any Holder to such property or interest in property shall be released and forever barred.

D. Claims Payable by Third Parties.

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to one of the Debtors' insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable insurance policy, including any D&O Liability Insurance Policy. Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Cause of Action that the Debtors or any Entity may hold against any other Entity, including insurers under any policies of insurance, nor shall anything contained in the Plan constitute or be deemed a waiver by such insurers of any defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such insurers.

E. Distributions to Unsecured Claims.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, all CBRM Unsecured Claims shall be administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to and in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

F. Allocation Between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided herein, the aggregate consideration paid to Holders on account of their Allowed Claims pursuant to the Plan shall be treated as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof and as determined for federal income tax purposes) and second, to the extent the consideration exceeds the principal amount of the Allowed Claims, to the remaining portion of such Allowed Claim, if any.

ARTICLE VII
PROCEDURES FOR RESOLVING CONTINGENT, UNLIQUIDATED, AND DISPUTED CLAIMS

A. Allowance of Claims.

After the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have and shall retain any and all available rights and defenses the applicable Debtor had with respect to any Claim immediately before the Effective Date, including, without limitation, the right to assert any objection to Claims based on the limitations imposed by section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that neither the Wind-Down Officer nor the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to any Professional Fee Claims or fees of the Independent Fiduciary. For the avoidance of doubt, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to and otherwise reconcile any and all Claims that seek recovery from the Creditor Recovery Trust other than Professional Fee Claims and fees of the Independent Fiduciary. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases before the Effective Date (including the Confirmation Order), no Claim against any Debtor shall become an Allowed Claim unless and until such Claim or Interest is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Court has entered a Final Order, including the Confirmation Order (when it becomes a Final Order), in the Chapter 11 Cases allowing such Claim.

No payment or distribution provided under the Plan shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim or portion thereof unless and until such Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

B. Automatic Disallowance and Expungement of Certain Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Claims Filed after the Claims Bar Date that were required to be Filed in advance of the Claims Bar Date under its terms shall be expunged and disallowed without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

C. Distributions After Allowance.

To the extent a Disputed Claim ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, as soon as practicable, the Debtors shall provide to the Holder of such Claim the Distribution (if any) to which such Holder is entitled under the Plan as of the Effective Date, less any previous Distribution (if any) that was made on account of the undisputed portion of such Claim, without any interest, dividends, or accruals to be paid on account of such Claim.

ARTICLE VIII
SETTLEMENT, RELEASE, INJUNCTION, AND RELATED PROVISIONS

A. Settlement, Compromise, and Release of Claims and Interests.

To the extent provided for by the Bankruptcy Code, and in consideration for the distributions and other benefits provided pursuant to the Plan, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, the distributions, rights, and treatment that are provided in the Plan shall be in complete satisfaction, effective as of the Effective Date, of Claims, Interests, and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever, including any interest accrued on Claims or Interests from and after the Petition Date, whether known or unknown, against, liabilities of, Liens on, obligations of, rights against, and Interests in, the Debtors or any of their assets or properties, regardless of whether any property shall have been distributed or retained pursuant to the Plan on account of such Claims and Interests, including demands, liabilities, and Causes of Action that arose before the Effective Date, any liability (including withdrawal liability) to the extent such Claims or Interests relate to services performed by agents or representatives of the Debtors before the Effective Date and that arise from a termination of employment, any contingent or non-contingent liability on account of representations or warranties issued on or before the Effective Date, and all debts of the kind specified in sections 502(g), 502(h), or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, in each case whether or not: (1) a Proof of Claim based upon such debt, right, Claim, or Interest is Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code; (2) a Claim or Interest based upon such debt, right, or Interest is Allowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (3) the Holder of such a Claim or Interest has accepted the Plan. Any default by the Debtors or their Affiliates with respect to any Claim or Interest that existed immediately before or on account of the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases shall be deemed cured on the Effective Date.[2]

B. Release of Liens.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, on the Effective Date and concurrently with the applicable distributions made pursuant to the Plan and, in the case of a Secured Claim, satisfaction in full of the portion of the Secured Claim that is Allowed as of the Effective Date, all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estate shall be fully released, settled, and compromised.

C. Releases by the Debtors.

Pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, for good and valuable consideration, on and after the Effective Date, each Released Party is deemed released by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Claims, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies, and liabilities whatsoever, including any derivative Claims, asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that the Debtors or their Estates would have been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the Holder of any Claim or Interest or other Entity, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Chapter 11 Cases, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction,

[2] The releases provided in this Article VIII are without duplication to the releases provided under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order.

agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date.

D. Releases by Holders of Claims and Interests.

As of the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Releasing Parties are deemed to have released the Debtors, their Estates, and the Released Parties from any and all Claims, Interests, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies and liabilities whatsoever, including any direct Claims held by any of the Releasing Parties against the Debtors, their Estates, and/or the Released Parties or derivative Claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that each Releasing Party would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Debtors' restructuring, the Chapter 11 Cases, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents, or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (1) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan and (2) except as to any member of the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes who opted to grant the releases contained in Article VIII.D of the Plan, the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members (whether or not any such member affirmatively voted to accept the Plan) shall not release nor be deemed to release any claim or cause of action that any such holders may hold against the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser, the Asset Manager, the Property Manager, or the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals. For the avoidance of doubt, the language in clause (2) in the foregoing sentence does not revive any prior releases issued by the Debtors under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order.

E. Exculpation.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, each Debtor and each Exculpated Party is hereby released and exculpated from any Claim, obligation, Cause of Action, or liability for any Exculpated Claim, except for gross negligence or willful misconduct, but in all respects each Debtor and each Exculpated Party shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to its duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan. The Debtors, their Estates, the Independent Fiduciary, and the Debtors' professionals including White & Case LLP, IslandDundon LLC, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, and Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global have, and upon completion of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of the Plan and distributions pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

F. Injunction.

Pursuant to section 362(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the automatic stay of an act against property of the Debtors' estates will continue until such property is no longer property of the

Debtors' estates, and pursuant to section 362(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, the stay of any other act described in section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code continues until the earlier of the closure or dismissal of these Chapter 11 Cases. In addition, as of the Effective Date and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Plan or the Confirmation Order, all Persons and Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that are fully satisfied pursuant to the Plan or any Claim or Interest that is subject to the releases and exculpations set forth in the Plan shall be precluded and permanently enjoined on and after the Effective Date from enforcing, pursuing, or seeking any setoff or relief with respect to such Claims or Interests, except for the receipt of the payments or Distributions that are contemplated by the Plan.

For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing relief may include (but is not limited to): (1) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claim or Interest; (2) enforcing, attaching, collecting, or recovering by any manner or means any judgment, award, decree, or order against such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (3) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any encumbrance of any kind against such Entities or the property or the Estates of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (4) asserting any right of setoff, subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due from such Entities or against the property of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; and (5) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests.

For the avoidance of doubt, this Article VIII.F shall not constitute a discharge under section 1141(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

ARTICLE IX

MODIFICATION, REVOCATION, OR WITHDRAWAL OF THE PLAN

A. Modification and Amendments.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors reserve the right to modify the Plan, whether materially or immaterially, including by adding a non-Debtor entity that becomes a debtor and debtor in possession under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code to, or removing a Debtor from, the Plan, and seek Confirmation, in each instance, to the extent permitted under the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to certain restrictions and requirements set forth in section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3019 and those restrictions on modifications set forth in the Plan, the Debtors reserve their right to alter, amend, or modify materially the Plan, one or more times, after Confirmation, and, to the extent necessary, may initiate proceedings in the Bankruptcy Court to so alter, amend, or modify the Plan, or remedy any defect or omission, or reconcile any inconsistencies in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, or the Confirmation Order, in such matters as may be necessary to carry out the purposes and intent of the Plan.

Upon the motion (the "Motion"),[1] of the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors"), for entry of an order (this "Order") (i) approving: (a) on a conditional basis, the adequacy of the Disclosure Statement for the Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 503], attached hereto as Exhibit 1 (as the same may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time consistent with applicable law, the "Disclosure Statement"); (b) the Solicitation and Voting Procedures; (c) the Ballots; (d) the Solicitation Package; (e) the Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form; (f) the Combined Hearing Notice; (g) the Publication Notice; (h) the Cover Letter; (i) the Plan Supplement Notice; (j) the Rejection Notice; (k) any other notices in connection therewith; and (l) certain dates with respect thereto, including, but not limited to, the Voting Record Date, the Solicitation Mailing Deadline, the Combined Hearing Notice Deadline, the Publication Deadline, the Plan Supplement Filing Deadline, the Combined Objection Deadline, the Voting and Opt-In Deadline, the deadline to file the Voting Report, the Confirmation Brief Deadline, and the Combined Hearing Date; and (ii) granting related relief, all as more fully set forth in the Motion; and the Court having jurisdiction to consider the Motion and the relief requested therein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11 of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on September 18, 2012 (Simandle, C.J.) and consideration of the Motion and the relief requested therein being a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b); and this Court having found that venue of this proceeding and the Motion in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Motion was appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the "Hearing"); and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before the Court and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED as set forth herein.

2. All objections that have not been withdrawn, waived, or settled, or not otherwise resolved pursuant to the terms hereof, if any, are hereby DENIED and OVERRULED on the merits with prejudice.

I. Conditional Approval of the Disclosure Statement

3. The Disclosure Statement is approved on a conditional basis as providing Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan with adequate information to make an informed judgment as to whether to vote to accept or reject the Plan in accordance with section 1125(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. This approval is without prejudice to the right of any party in interest to argue at the Combined Hearing that the Disclosure Statement does not contain adequate information within the meaning of section 1125(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, and this Order shall be without preclusive effect as to any determination by the Court at the Combined Hearing solely regarding the adequacy of the information contained in the Disclosure Statement within the meaning of section 1125(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the burden shall remain on the Debtors to demonstrate at the Combined Hearing that the Disclosure Statement contains adequate information within the meaning of section 1125(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

5. The notice of the Hearing filed by the Debtors and served upon parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases constitutes adequate and sufficient notice of the hearing to consider the conditional approval of the Disclosure Statement (and exhibits thereto, including the Plan) and the deadline for filing objections to the conditional approval of the Disclosure Statement and responses thereto is hereby approved.

6. The Disclosure Statement (including all applicable exhibits thereto) provides Holders of Claims or Interests, and other parties in interest, with sufficient notice of, and the identities of the entities subject to, the injunction, exculpation, and release provisions contained in Article VIII of the Plan, in satisfaction of the requirements of Bankruptcy Rules 2002(c)(3) and 3016(b)–(c).

II. Approval of the Procedures, Materials, and Timeline for Soliciting Votes on and Confirming the Plan

A. Approval of the Solicitation and Voting Procedures

7. The Debtors are authorized to solicit, receive, and tabulate votes to accept the Plan in accordance with the Solicitation and Voting Procedures attached hereto as Exhibit 2, which are hereby approved in their entirety. The Solicitation and Voting Procedures comply with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules.

8. The Debtors are further authorized to solicit votes on or before the Solicitation Mailing Deadline from creditors known to the Debtors as of the Voting Record Date. With respect to any creditor who holds a claim against the Laguna Debtor that is subject to the Laguna Claims Bar Date and who files a Proof of Claim after the Voting Record Date, but on or before the Laguna Claims Bar Date, the Voting Record Date for such creditors shall be the date that such Proof of Claim is filed (any such date a "Supplemental Voting Record Date"). The Debtors are authorized to provide any creditor that files a Proof of Claim by a Supplemental Voting Record Date with a Solicitation Package and/or a Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form, as applicable, as soon as reasonably practical thereafter and such creditor shall be entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan (if such claimant is entitled to vote pursuant to the Plan and the Solicitation and Voting Procedures); provided that, if the Debtors and the Claims Agent previously provided such creditor with a Ballot on account of a scheduled claim or previous Proof of Claim filed in advance of any such Supplemental Voting Record Date, the Debtors and the Claims Agent shall update the creditor's voting amount, but shall not be obligated to send a new Ballot.

12. The Solicitation Package provides the Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan with adequate information to make an informed judgment as to whether to vote to accept or reject the Plan in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2002(b) and 3017(d), and the Local Rules.

13. The Debtors are authorized to cause electronic copies of the Solicitation Package to be distributed through the Claims Agent via email (using the email address maintained by the Debtors as of the Voting Record Date) to Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes. To the extent (i) (a) an email address is not on file for any such Holders of Claims or (b) distribution of the Solicitation Package via email as set forth in the previous sentence is returned as undeliverable; and (ii) the Debtors are in possession of a physical mailing address for such Holders, the Claims Agent shall serve the Solicitation Package on such Holders in electronic format (i.e., USB flash drive format) (except for the Solicitation and Voting Procedures and Ballots, which shall be provided in paper format) via first-class mail; provided, however, that any party that receives a Solicitation Package via email or for which service in electronic format (i.e., USB flash drive format) imposes a hardship may receive a Solicitation Package in paper format by contacting the Claims Agent and requesting paper copies of the corresponding materials previously received via email or electronic format (i.e., USB flash drive format).

14. The Debtors and the Claims Agent are authorized to rely on the address information (including email addresses for voting and non-voting parties alike) maintained by the Debtors and provided to the Claims Agent. Any obligation for the Debtors or the Claims Agent to conduct any additional research for updated addresses based on undeliverable solicitation materials (including undeliverable Ballots) is hereby waived. Furthermore, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, neither the Debtors nor the Claims Agent shall be required to distribute a Solicitation Package or any other materials related to voting or confirmation of the Plan to any person or entity from which the notice of the Motion or other mailed notice in these cases was returned as undeliverable unless the Claims Agent is provided with accurate mailing addresses for such persons or entities on or prior to the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable. In no event shall any Holder of a Claim be entitled to submit a Ballot after the Voting and Opt-In Deadline without the Debtors' express written consent or by a separate order of the Court after notice and a hearing.

15. The form of letter (the "Cover Letter"), substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 5, describing the contents of the Solicitation Package and recommending that Holders of Claims in each of the Voting Classes vote in favor of the Plan, is approved.

16. The Ballots, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 3A, 3B, 3C, 3D, and 3E are hereby approved and comply with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules.

17. The Debtors are authorized to cause copies of the Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form to be delivered via email and/or first-class mail, as applicable, through the Claims Agent to Holders of Claims or Interests in the Non-Voting Classes and Holders of Disputed Claims.

18. On or before the Solicitation Mailing Deadline, the Debtors (through the Claims Agent) shall provide the Solicitation Package (other than Ballots and the Cover Letter) via email to the U.S. Trustee and all parties on the Master Service List as of the Voting Record Date.

19. The Claims Agent is authorized to assist the Debtors in all of the actions set forth herein, as applicable, including: (i) distributing copies of the Solicitation Package (including the Combined Hearing Notice) and Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form; (ii) receiving, tabulating, and reporting on Ballots cast to accept or reject the Plan by Holders of Claims; (iii) receiving, tabulating, and reporting on the Opt-In Forms received by Holders of Claims or Interests; (iv) responding to inquiries from Holders of Claims or Interests and other parties in interest relating to the conditionally-approved Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Ballots, the Solicitation Package, the Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form, and all other related documents and matters related thereto, including the procedures and requirements for voting to accept or reject the Plan, opting to grant the Releases provided by the Releasing Parties, and for objecting to confirmation of the Plan; (v) soliciting votes on the Plan; and (vi) if necessary, contacting parties in interest regarding the Plan and/or the Disclosure Statement.

20. The Claims Agent is authorized to accept Ballots and Opt-In Forms via electronic online transmission through an online balloting portal on the Debtors' case website (the "E-Ballot Portal") as set forth in the Solicitation and Voting Procedures. The encrypted ballot data and audit trail created by such electronic submission shall become part of the record of any Ballot or Opt-In Form submitted in this manner and the creditor's electronic signature shall be deemed to be immediately legally valid and effective. The Ballots and Opt-In Forms submitted online via the E-Ballot Portal shall be deemed to contain an original signature. E-Ballot is the sole manner in which Ballots shall be accepted via electronic or online transmission. Ballots submitted by facsimile, email, or other means of electronic transmission shall not be counted.

21. All votes to accept or reject the Plan must be cast using the appropriate Ballot. All Ballots must be properly executed, completed, and delivered according to their applicable voting instructions via: (i) first-class mail; (ii) overnight delivery; (iii) personal delivery; or (iv) the E-Ballot Portal. For the avoidance of any doubt, Ballots submitted to the Claims Agent by any means other than as expressly provided in this Order or in the Solicitation and Voting Procedures shall not be valid and shall not count as a vote to accept or reject the Plan. The Debtors are authorized to extend the Voting and Opt-In Deadline in their discretion without further order of the Court.

D. Approval of the Form of Notice to Non-Voting Classes and Holders of Disputed Claims and Opt-In Form.

22. Except to the extent the Debtors determine otherwise, the Debtors are not required to provide the Solicitation Package to Holders of Claims or Interests in Non-Voting Classes or Holders of Disputed Claims, as such Holders are not entitled to vote on the Plan. Instead, on or before the Solicitation Mailing Deadline or as soon as reasonably practicable following the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, the Claims Agent shall distribute the Notice of Non-Voting Status (via email or via first-class mail, as applicable) in lieu of the Solicitation Package, the form of each of which, including the mechanisms for opting to grant the releases contained in Article VIII of the Plan, to Classes 1, 2, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 who are not entitled to vote on the Plan or Holders of Disputed Claims; provided that the Debtors shall also distribute the Combined Hearing Notice on or before the Combined Hearing Notice Deadline to Holders of Claims or Interests in Non-Voting Classes or Holders of Disputed Claims.

23. Service of the Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form and Combined Hearing Notice via email (using the email address maintained by the Debtors as of the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable) or via first-class mail in paper or electronic format (i.e., USB flash drive format), as applicable, is reasonably calculated to provide notice to Holders of Claims or Interests that are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan of the hearing and constitutes adequate and sufficient notice of the hearing to consider confirmation of the Plan and final approval of the Disclosure Statement.

24. The Debtors are not required to distribute the Solicitation Package, other solicitation materials, or a Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form to: (i) Holders of Claims that (a) have already been paid in full during the chapter 11 cases or that are otherwise paid in full in the ordinary course of business pursuant to an order previously entered by this Court or (b) are scheduled to be paid in the ordinary course prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline; or (ii) any party to whom the notice of the Motion was sent but was subsequently returned as undeliverable without a physical forwarding address by the Voting Record Date.

25. The Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form shall include, among other things: (i) instructions as to how to view or obtain copies of the Disclosure Statement (including the Plan and the other exhibits attached thereto), this Order, and all other materials in the Solicitation Package (excluding Ballots) from the Claims Agent and/or the Court's website via PACER; (ii) notice to recipients of their status as Holders or potential Holders of Claims or Interests in Non-Voting Classes or Holders of Disputed Claims; (iii) a disclosure regarding the settlement, release, exculpation, and injunction language set forth in Article VIII of the Plan; (iv) the Opt-In Form by which Holders may elect to opt to grant the releases set forth in Article VIII of the Plan; (v) notice of the Combined Objection Deadline; and (vi) notice of the Combined Hearing Date and information related thereto. The Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form are hereby approved and comply with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules.

E. Approval of the Combined Hearing Notice

26. The Combined Hearing Notice, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 6, which shall be filed by the Debtors and served upon parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases and published in a format modified for publication one time on or before the Publication Deadline (or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter) in The New Orleans Advocate, constitutes adequate and sufficient notice of the hearing to consider approval of the Plan and final approval of the Disclosure Statement, the manner in which a copy of the Plan and Disclosure Statement can be obtained, and the time fixed for filing objections to confirmation of the Plan and final approval of the Disclosure Statement, in satisfaction of the requirements of the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules.

F. Approval of the Plan Supplement Notice

27. The Debtors are authorized to send notice of the filing of the Plan Supplement, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 7, to parties in interest on or before the Plan Supplement Filing Deadline. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors may amend the documents contained in, and exhibits to, the Plan Supplement through the Effective Date in accordance with the Plan.

G. Approval of the Rejection Notice

28. Service of the Rejection Notice, as provided in this Order, shall constitute adequate notice of the rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases under the Plan. The Rejection Notice, substantially in the form attached to this Order as Exhibit 8, is hereby approved and complies with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules. The Debtors are authorized to serve the Rejection Notice on counterparties to Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases being rejected under the Plan.

H. Non-Substantive Modifications

29. The Debtors are authorized to make non-substantive and immaterial changes to the Plan, Disclosure Statement, Solicitation and Voting Procedures, Ballots, Solicitation Package, Notice of Non-Voting Status, Opt-In Form, Combined Hearing Notice, Publication Notice, Cover Letter, Plan Supplement Notice, Rejection Notice, and any other notice attached hereto and any related documents without further order of the Court, including formatting changes, changes to correct typographical and grammatical errors, if any, and to make conforming changes to the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, and any other materials (including any appendices thereto) in the Solicitation Package before distribution. Subject to the foregoing, the Debtors are authorized to solicit, receive, and tabulate votes to accept or reject the Plan in accordance with this Order and the Solicitation and Voting Procedures without further order of the Court.

III. Approval of the Procedures for Filing Objections to the Final Approval of the Adequacy of the Information Contained in the Disclosure Statement and Confirmation of the Plan

30. Objections to confirmation of the Plan and final approval of the Disclosure Statement will not be considered by the Court unless such objections are timely filed and properly served in accordance with this Order. Specifically, all objections to the confirmation of the Plan or requests for modifications to the Plan, if any, must: (i) be in writing; (ii) conform to the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and any orders of this Court; (iii) state, with particularity, the legal and factual basis for the objection and, if practicable, a proposed modification to the Plan (or related materials) that would resolve such objection; and (iv) be filed with the Court (contemporaneously with a proof of service) and served upon each of the notice parties identified in the Combined Hearing Notice in accordance with the terms of this Order on or before the Combined Objection Deadline.

IV. Miscellaneous

31. The Debtors' rights to modify the Plan in accordance with Article X thereof, including the right to add a non-Debtor entity that becomes a debtor and debtor in possession under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code to, or remove a Debtor from, the Plan at any time before the Combined Hearing Date, are reserved without further order of the Court.

32. Nothing in this Order shall be construed as a waiver of the right of the Debtors or any other party in interest, as applicable, to object to a Proof of Claim after the Voting Record Date.

33. Nothing in this Order constitutes a finding of fact or conclusion of law regarding whether the Debtors' proposed opt-in procedures establish consensual releases, and the rights of all parties in interest to object to confirmation on any grounds are fully reserved.

34. All time periods set forth in this Order shall be calculated in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 9006(a).

35. Notwithstanding any Bankruptcy Rule or Local Rule to the contrary, this Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

36. Any relief granted to the Debtors pursuant to this Order shall mean the Debtors, acting at the direction of the Independent Fiduciary.

37. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice thereof in satisfaction of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules.

SOLICITATION AND VOTING PROCEDURES

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT on [●], 2025, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court") entered an order [Docket No. [●]] (the "Disclosure Statement Order"): (i) authorizing Crown Capital Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC, Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC, RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, RH Lakewind East LLC, and RH Windrun LLC (collectively, the "Debtors") to solicit acceptances of the Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 501] (as modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time, the "Plan");[2] (ii) conditionally approving the Disclosure Statement for the Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 503] (as modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time, the "Disclosure Statement") as containing "adequate information" pursuant to section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code; (iii) approving the solicitation materials and documents to be included in the solicitation package (the "Solicitation Package"); (iv) approving procedures for soliciting, noticing, receiving, and tabulating votes on the Plan; (v) establishing certain deadlines to opt to grant the releases set forth in the Plan; and (vi) establishing deadlines for filing objections to the Plan.

A. The Voting Record Date.

The Court has established September 4, 2025 as the record date for purposes of determining which Holders of Claims in Class 3 CIF Mortgage Loan Claims, Class 4 NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims, Class 5 Other NOLA Unsecured Claims, Class 6 Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, and Class 7 RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims (each a "Voting Class," and collectively, the "Voting Classes") are entitled to vote on the Plan (the "Voting Record Date").

Only with respect to Debtor Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC (the "Laguna Debtor"), to accommodate the bar date for this Debtor which the Debtors have set as 5:00 p.m. prevailing Eastern Time on the date that is twenty-one (21) days from the date the Debtors file schedules of assets and liabilities for the Laguna Debtor (the "Laguna Claims Bar Date"), the Voting Record Date applicable to any creditor who holds a Claim against the Laguna Debtor and who files a Proof of Claim after the Voting Record Date (i.e., September 4, 2025), but on or before the Laguna Claims Bar Date, shall be the date that such Proof of Claim is filed (any such date a "Supplemental Voting Record Date"). A creditor of the Laguna Debtor that files a Proof of Claim by a Supplemental Voting Record Date shall receive a Solicitation Package and/or a Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form, as applicable, as soon as reasonably practical thereafter and shall be entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan (if such claimant is entitled to vote pursuant to the Plan and the Solicitation and Voting Procedures). If, however, the Claims Agent previously provided such creditor with a Ballot on account of a scheduled Claim or previous Proof of Claim filed in advance of any such Supplemental Voting Record Date, the Claims Agent shall update the creditors' voting amount internally to comport with the amount reflected in Proof of Claim, except as otherwise provided herein, but shall not be obligated to send a new Ballot.

B. The Voting and Opt-In Deadline.

The Court has approved October 10, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) as the deadline for Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes to vote to accept or reject the Plan and the deadline by which the Opt-In Form must be properly executed, completed, and submitted (the "Voting and Opt-In Deadline"). The Debtors may extend the Voting and Opt-In Deadline without further order of the Court by filing a notice on the Court's docket. To be counted as votes to accept or reject the Plan, all ballots (the "Ballots") must be executed, completed, and delivered pursuant to the instructions set forth on the applicable Ballot, and all Opt-In Forms must be properly executed, completed, and delivered so that they are actually received by Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC (d/b/a Verita Global) (the "Claims Agent") no later than the Voting and Opt-In Deadline. Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes should submit their Ballots in accordance with the instructions provided on the applicable Ballot.

[2] Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, or the Disclosure Statement Order, as applicable.

C. Form, Content, and Manner of Notices.

1. The Solicitation Package.

The following materials shall constitute the solicitation package (the "Solicitation Package"):

a. a copy of these Solicitation and Voting Procedures;

b. the applicable forms of Ballots, together with detailed voting instructions and instructions on how to submit the Ballots;

c. the Cover Letter, which describes the contents of the Solicitation Package and recommends that Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes vote to accept the Plan;

d. the Disclosure Statement (and exhibits thereto, including the Plan);

e. the Disclosure Statement Order (without exhibits, except for the Solicitation and Voting Procedures);

f. the Combined Hearing Notice; and

g. any additional documents that the Court has ordered to be made available to Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes.

2. Distribution of the Solicitation Package.

Within five (5) Business Days following entry of the Disclosure Statement Order or as soon as reasonably practicable following the Supplemental Voting Record Date (such date, as applicable, the "Solicitation Mailing Deadline"), the Claims Agent shall serve, or cause to be served, via email copies of the Solicitation Package to Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan and other parties in interest. To the extent (i) (a) an email address is not on file for any such Holders of Claims or (b) distribution of the Solicitation Package via email as set forth in the previous sentence is returned as undeliverable; and (ii) the Debtors are in possession of a physical mailing address for such Holders, the Claims Agent shall serve the Solicitation Package on such Holders in electronic format (i.e., USB flash drive format) (except for the Solicitation and Voting Procedures and Ballots, which shall be provided in paper format) via first-class mail. Any party that receives a Solicitation Package via email or for which USB flash drive imposes a hardship, as applicable, may request a Solicitation Package in paper format from the Claims Agent by submitting an inquiry to https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm/inquiry (with "CBRM" in the subject line). In addition, these Solicitation and Voting Procedures, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Disclosure Statement Order, and all pleadings filed with the Court are available on the Debtors' case website at https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm.

The Claims Agent shall serve, or cause to be served, via email, electronic versions of the Solicitation Package (excluding Ballots and the Cover Letter) on the U.S. Trustee and all parties who have requested service of papers in this case pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 as of the Solicitation Mailing Deadline.

The Claims Agent will not distribute the Solicitation Package to: (i) Holders of Claims that (a) have already been paid in full during the Chapter 11 Cases or that are otherwise paid in full in the ordinary course of business pursuant to an order previously entered by the Court or (b) are scheduled to be paid in the ordinary course prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline; or (ii) any party to whom the notice of the Disclosure Statement was sent but was subsequently returned as undeliverable without a forward address on or prior to the Voting Record Date or Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable.

3. Resolution of Disputed Claims for Voting Purposes; Resolution Event.

The Claim amounts established herein shall control for voting purposes only and shall not constitute the Allowed amount of any Claim for any other purpose, including distributions under the Plan. Any amounts pre-populated on a Ballot by the Debtors through the Claims Agent are not binding for purposes of allowance and distribution. In resolving disputed Claims for voting purposes, the following principles shall apply:

a. Absent a further order of the Court, the Holder of a Claim in a Voting Class that is the subject of a pending objection on a "reduce and allow" basis shall be entitled to vote such Claim in the reduced amount contained in such objection;

b. If a Claim in a Voting Class is subject to an objection, other than a "reduce and allow" objection, that is filed with the Court on or prior to September 23, 2025: (i) the Debtors shall cause the applicable Holder to be served with the Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form (which Notice shall be served with such objection); and (ii) the applicable Holder shall not be entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan on account of such Claim unless a Resolution Event (as defined herein) occurs as provided herein;

c. If a Claim in a Voting Class is subject to an objection, other than a "reduce and allow" objection, that is filed with the Court on or after September 23, 2025, the applicable Claim shall be deemed temporarily allowed in its original amount for voting purposes only, without further action by the Holder of such Claim and without further order of the Court, unless the Court orders otherwise;

d. A "Resolution Event" means the occurrence of one or more of the following events no later than two (2) Business Days prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline:

i. an order of the Court is entered allowing such Claim pursuant to section 502(b) of the Bankruptcy Code;

ii. an order of the Court is entered temporarily allowing such Claim for voting purposes only pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a), after notice and a hearing;

iii. a stipulation or other agreement is executed between the Holder of such Claim and the Debtors resolving the objection and allowing such Claim, which allowance may be for voting purposes only, in an agreed-upon amount and such agreement (or notice of such agreement) is conveyed by the Debtors to the Claims Agent by electronic mail or otherwise; or

iv. the pending objection is voluntarily withdrawn by the objecting party;

e. No later than one (1) Business Day following the occurrence of a Resolution Event, the Debtors shall cause the Claims Agent to distribute to the relevant Holder via hand delivery, first-class mail, or email, a Solicitation Package to the relevant Holder; and

f. Claims that have been paid, scheduled to be paid in the ordinary course prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline, or otherwise satisfied prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline, shall not be provided with a ballot and shall not be allowed to vote.

4. Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form for Unimpaired Classes, Deemed Rejecting Classes, and Distribution of Opt-In Forms.

The following Holders of Claims or Interests will receive (i) the Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form, which will instruct such Holders as to how they may obtain copies of the documents contained in the Solicitation Package (excluding Ballots), as well as how they may opt to grant the releases in the Plan; and (ii) the Opt-In Form by which such Holders of Claims or Interests may opt to grant the releases and, if applicable, make certain elections:

a. certain Holders of Claims or Interests that are not classified in accordance with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code or who are not entitled to vote because they are Unimpaired or otherwise presumed to accept the Plan under section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code; and

b. certain Holders of Claims or Interests who are not entitled to vote because they are deemed to reject the Plan under section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code.

5. Deadline for Filing Proofs of Claim Arising from the Rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases Under the Plan.

The Plan provides that each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease (including all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List) will be deemed rejected, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than those that previously were assumed or rejected by the Debtors or those that are subject to a pending motion to assume or assign such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such rejections. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan not filed within such time shall be disallowed, forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against, as applicable, the Debtors, the Estates, or property thereof, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged.

For the avoidance of doubt, a Holder will only be entitled to receive the Solicitation Package on account of a Claim arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease if the Claim is filed by the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable.

D. Voting and Tabulation Procedures.

1. Holders of Filed and Scheduled Claims Entitled to Vote.

Only the following Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes shall be entitled to vote with respect to such Claims.

a. Unless otherwise provided, Holders of Claims who, on or before the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, have timely filed a Proof of Claim (or an untimely Proof of Claim that has been Allowed as timely by the Court under applicable law on or before the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable) that: (i) has not been expunged, disallowed, disqualified, withdrawn, or superseded prior to the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable; and (ii) is not the subject of a pending objection filed with the Court on or before September 23, 2025, pending a Resolution Event as provided herein; provided that a Holder of a Claim that is the subject of a pending objection on a "reduce and allow" basis shall receive a Solicitation Package and be entitled to vote such Claim in the reduced amount contained in such objection absent a further order of the Court;

b. Holders of Claims that are listed in the Debtors' Schedules of Assets and Liabilities (the "Schedules"); provided that Claims that are scheduled as contingent, unliquidated, or disputed (excluding such scheduled disputed, contingent, or unliquidated Claims that have been paid or superseded by a timely Filed Proof of Claim) shall be allowed to vote only in the amounts set forth in Section D.2 of the Solicitation and Voting Procedures;

c. Holders whose Claims arise: (i) pursuant to an agreement or settlement with the Debtors, as reflected in a document filed with the Court; (ii) from an order entered by the Court; or (iii) from a document executed by the Debtors pursuant to authority granted by the Court, in each case regardless of whether a Proof of Claim has been filed or the Claim was scheduled as contingent, unliquidated, or disputed;

d. Holders of any Claim that has been temporarily allowed to vote on the Plan pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3018; and

e. with respect to any Entity described in subparagraphs (a) through (d) above, who, on or before the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, has transferred such Entity's Claim to another Entity, the assignee of such Claim; provided that such transfer or assignment has been fully effectuated pursuant to the procedures set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e) and such transfer is reflected on the Claims Register on the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable.

2. Establishing Claim Amounts for Voting Purposes.

The Claim amounts established herein shall control for voting purposes only and shall not constitute the Allowed amount of any Claim. Moreover, any amounts filled in on Ballots by the Debtors through the Claims Agent, as applicable, are not binding for purposes of allowance and distribution.

a. In tabulating votes, the following hierarchy shall be used to determine the amount of the Claim associated with each claimant's vote:

i. the Claim amount (i) settled and/or agreed upon by the Debtors, as reflected in a document filed with the Court, (ii) set forth in an order of the Court, (iii) set forth in a document executed by the Debtors pursuant to authority granted by the Court, or (iv) set forth in e-mailed instructions from the Debtors' counsel to the Claims Agent with the applicable voter copied;

ii. the Claim amount Allowed (temporarily or otherwise) pursuant to a Resolution Event under these Solicitation and Voting Procedures;

iii. the Claim amount contained in a Proof of Claim that is not subject to an objection and that has been timely filed by the applicable bar date (or deemed timely filed by the Court under applicable law), except for any amounts asserted on account of any interest accrued after the Petition Date; provided that any Ballot cast by a holder of a Claim who timely files a Proof of Claim in respect of (i) a contingent Claim or a Claim in a wholly-unliquidated or undetermined or unknown amount (as indicated on the face of the Claim or based on a reasonable review by the Debtors and/or the Claims Agent) that is not the subject of an objection will count toward satisfying the numerosity requirement of section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code and will count as a Ballot for a Claim in the amount of $1.00 solely for the purposes of satisfying the dollar amount provisions of section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, and (ii) a partially liquidated and partially unliquidated Claim will be Allowed for voting purposes only in the liquidated amount; provided, further, that to the extent the Claim amount contained in the Proof of Claim is different from the Claim amount set forth in a document filed with the Court as referenced in subparagraph (a)(i) above, the Claim amount in the document filed with the Court shall supersede the Claim amount set forth on the respective Proof of Claim for voting purposes;

iv. the Claim amount listed in the Schedules (to the extent such Claim is not superseded by a timely filed Proof of Claim); provided that such Claim is not scheduled as contingent, disputed, or unliquidated and/or has not been paid; provided, further, that if the applicable Claims Bar Date has not expired prior to the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, a Claim listed in the Schedules as contingent, disputed, or unliquidated shall vote at $1.00;

b. Proofs of Claim filed for $0.00 or Claims scheduled for $0.00 are not eligible to vote;

c. notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any creditor who has filed or purchased duplicate Claims within the same Voting Class shall be provided with only one Solicitation Package and one Ballot for voting a single Claim in such Class, regardless of whether the Debtors have objected to such duplicate Claims;

d. to the extent a Holder of a Claim files a Proof of Claim prior to the Voting Record Date or Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, and during the solicitation period that amends or supersedes a Claim for which a Solicitation Package was previously distributed to the same Holder, the Debtors are not obligated to cause the Claims Agent to distribute an additional Solicitation Package to such Holder;

e. if a Proof of Claim has been amended by a later Proof of Claim that is filed on or prior to the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, the later-filed amending Claim shall be entitled to vote in a manner consistent with these Solicitation and Voting Procedures, and the earlier-filed Claim shall be disallowed for voting purposes, regardless of whether the Debtors have objected to such amended Claim. Except as otherwise ordered by the Court, any amendments to Proofs of Claim after the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, shall not be considered for purposes of these Solicitation and Voting Procedures; and

f. in the absence of any of the foregoing, such Claim shall be disallowed for voting purposes.

3. Voting and Ballot Tabulation Procedures.

The following voting procedures and standard assumptions shall be used in tabulating Ballots, subject to the Debtors' right to waive any of the below specified requirements for completion and submission of Ballots so long as (i) such waiver is noted in the Voting Report, and (ii) such requirement is not otherwise required by the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules, or Local Rules:

a. except as otherwise provided in these Solicitation and Voting Procedures, unless the Ballot being furnished is timely submitted and actually received by the Claims Agent on or prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline (as the same may be extended by the Debtors), the Debtors, in their sole discretion, shall be entitled to reject such Ballot as invalid and, therefore, not count it in connection with confirmation of the Plan;

b. the Claims Agent will date-stamp all Ballots when received;

c. the Claims Agent shall retain copies of Ballots and all solicitation-related correspondence for two (2) years following the closing of the Chapter 11 Cases, whereupon the Claims Agent is authorized to destroy and/or otherwise dispose of: (i) all copies of Ballots; (ii) printed solicitation materials, including unused copies of the Solicitation Package; and (iii) all solicitation-related correspondence (including undeliverable mail), in each case unless otherwise directed by the Debtors or the Clerk of the Court in writing within such two (2) year period;

d. the Debtors will file the Voting Report by no later than three (3) calendar days prior to the Combined Hearing;

e. the Voting Report shall, among other things, delineate every Ballot that was excluded from the voting results (each, an "Irregular Ballot"), including, but not limited to, those Ballots that are late or (in whole or in material part) illegible, unidentifiable, lacking signatures or other necessary information, or damaged, and the Voting Report shall indicate the Debtors' decision regarding such Irregular Ballots;

f. the Debtors, subject to a contrary order of the Court, may waive any defects or irregularities as to any particular Irregular Ballot at any time, either before or after the close of voting, and any such waivers will be documented in the Voting Report or a supplemental voting report, as applicable;

g. neither the Debtors nor any other Entity will be under any duty to provide notification of defects or irregularities with respect to delivered Ballots other than as provided in the Voting Report nor will any of them incur any liability for notification or failure to provide such notification;

h. unless waived or as ordered by the Court, any defects or irregularities in connection with submissions of Ballots must be cured prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline or such Ballots will not be counted; provided that a valid opt-in election on an otherwise defective or Irregular Ballot submitted prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline shall be honored as a valid opt-in election;

i. the method of delivery of Ballots to be sent to the Claims Agent is at the election and risk of each Holder, and except as otherwise provided, a Ballot will be deemed delivered only when the Claims Agent actually receives the executed Ballot;

j. an executed Ballot is required to be submitted by the Entity or its authorized representative submitting such Ballot;

k. delivery of a Ballot to the Claims Agent by email, facsimile, or any electronic means, other than expressly provided in the applicable Ballot or these Solicitation and Voting Procedures, will not be valid;

l. no Ballot should be sent to the Debtors, the Debtors' agents (other than the Claims Agent) or the Debtors' financial or legal advisors, and, if so sent, such Ballot will not be counted unless the same is otherwise validly submitted by other means;

m. if multiple Ballots are received from the same Holder with respect to the same Claim prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline, the last dated, properly submitted, valid Ballot timely received will be deemed to reflect that voter's intent and will supersede and revoke any prior received Ballot;

n. Holders must vote all of their Claims within a particular Class either to accept or reject the Plan and may not split any votes; accordingly, a Ballot that partially rejects and partially accepts the Plan will not be counted, and to the extent there are multiple Claims within the same Class, the applicable Debtor may, in its discretion, aggregate the Claims of any particular Holder within a Class for the purpose of tabulating votes;

o. Holders of Claims against multiple Debtors must vote such Claims either to accept or reject the Plan at each such Debtor and may not vote any such Claim to accept at one Debtor and reject at another Debtor; accordingly, a Ballot that rejects the Plan for a Claim at one Debtor and accepts the Plan for a Claim held by the same Holder at another Debtor will not be counted;

p. a person signing a Ballot in their capacity as a trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, attorney in fact, officer of a corporation, or otherwise acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity of a Holder of Claims must indicate such capacity when signing, and if required or requested by the Claims Agent, the Debtors, or the Court, must submit proper evidence of such fiduciary or representative capacity to the requesting party to so act on behalf of such Holder;

q. in the event a designation of lack of good faith is requested by a party in interest under section 1126(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court will determine whether any vote to accept and/or reject the Plan cast with respect to that Claim will be counted for purposes of determining whether the Plan has been accepted or rejected;

r. subject to any order of the Court, the Debtors reserve the right to reject any and all Ballots not in proper form, the acceptance of which, in the opinion of the Debtors, would not be in accordance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Rules; provided that any such rejections will be documented in the Voting Report;

s. if a Claim has been estimated or otherwise Allowed only for voting purposes by order of the Court, such Claim shall be temporarily Allowed in the amount so estimated or Allowed by the Court for voting purposes only and not for purposes of allowance or distribution;

t. if an objection to a Claim is filed, such Claim shall be treated in accordance with the procedures set forth herein;

u. the following Ballots shall not be counted in determining the acceptance or rejection of the Plan:

i. any Ballot that is illegible or contains insufficient information to permit the identification of the Holder of such Claim;

ii. any Ballot cast by any Entity that does not hold a Claim in a Voting Class;

iii. any unsigned Ballot or Ballot lacking an original signature (for the avoidance of doubt, a Ballot submitted via the Claims Agent's online balloting portal shall be deemed to contain an original signature);

iv. any Ballot not marked to accept or reject the Plan or marked both to accept and reject the Plan;

v. any Ballot transmitted by any other means not specifically approved pursuant to the Disclosure Statement Order or contemplated by these Solicitation and Voting Procedures or by separate order of the Court;

vi. any Ballot sent to any of the Debtors, the Debtors' agents or representatives, or the Debtors' advisors (other than the Claims Agent) unless such Ballot is otherwise submitted by proper means; and

vii. any Ballot submitted by any Entity not entitled to vote pursuant to the procedures described herein;

v. after the Voting and Opt-In Deadline, no Ballot may be withdrawn or modified without the prior written consent of the Debtors or further order of the Court;

w. the Debtors are authorized to enter into stipulations with the Holder of any Claim, an email agreement between such Holder or its representatives and Debtors' counsel being sufficient, agreeing to the amount of a Claim for voting purposes;

x. where any portion of a single Claim has been transferred to a transferee, all Holders of any portion of such single Claim will be (i) treated as a single creditor for purposes of the numerosity requirements in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code (and for the other solicitation and voting procedures set forth herein) and (ii) required to vote every portion of such Claim collectively to accept or reject the Plan;

y. in the event that (i) a Ballot, (ii) a group of Ballots within a Voting Class received from a single creditor, or (iii) a group of Ballots received from the various Holders of multiple portions of a single Claim partially reject and partially accept the Plan, such Ballots shall not be counted; and

z. for purposes of the numerosity requirement of section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, separate Claims held by a single creditor in a particular Class will be aggregated and treated as if such creditor held one Claim in such Class, and all votes related to such Claim will be treated as a single vote to accept or reject the Plan; provided, however, that if separate affiliated entities, including any funds or accounts that are advised or managed by the same entity or by affiliated entities, hold Claims in a particular Class, these Claims will not be aggregated and will not be treated as if such Holders held one Claim in such Class, and the votes of each affiliated entity or managed fund or account will be counted separately for numerosity purposes as votes to accept or reject the Plan.

E. Amendments to the Plan and Solicitation and Voting Procedures.

The Debtors reserve the right to make non-substantive or immaterial changes to the Plan, Disclosure Statement, Solicitation and Voting Procedures, Ballots, Solicitation Package, Notice of Non-Voting Status, Opt-In Form, Combined Hearing Notice, Publication Notice, Cover Letter, Plan Supplement Notice, Rejection Notice, and any other notice attached hereto and any related documents without further order of the Court, including formatting changes, changes to correct typographical and grammatical errors, if any, and to make conforming changes to the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, and any other materials (including any appendices thereto) in the Solicitation Package before distribution.

If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, or if you believe that you have received the wrong Ballot, please contact the Claims Agent immediately by submitting an inquiry to https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm/inquiry (with "CBRM" in the subject line).

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the solicitation package (the "Solicitation Package") you are receiving with this Ballot. You should review the Disclosure Statement, Plan, and voting instructions contained herein before you vote to accept or reject the Plan and decide whether to opt to grant the Releases set forth in Article VIII.D of the Plan. You may wish to seek legal advice concerning the Restructuring Transactions contemplated under the Plan.

The Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests, including you, regardless of whether you vote to accept or reject the Plan and to make certain elections contained herein. A Voting Class shall be deemed to have accepted the Plan if Holders of at least two-thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims that submit votes in such Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Court may confirm the Plan if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code. If the Plan is confirmed by the Court, the Plan will be binding on all Holders of Claims or Interests, among others, regardless of whether such Holders voted to or were presumed to accept, voted to or were deemed to reject, or abstained from voting on the Plan. This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan, opting to grant the Releases set forth in Article VIII.D of the Plan, and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, or if you believe that you have received the wrong Ballot, please contact the Claims Agent immediately by submitting an inquiry to https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm/inquiry (with "CBRM" in the subject line).

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the solicitation package (the "Solicitation Package") you are receiving with this Ballot. If you received the Solicitation Package via email or if service in electronic format (i.e., USB flash drive format) imposes a hardship, you may receive a Solicitation Package in paper format by contacting the Claims Agent and requesting paper copies to the corresponding materials previously received via email or electronic format (i.e., USB flash drive format).

You should review the Disclosure Statement, Plan, and voting instructions contained herein before you vote to accept or reject the Plan and decide whether to opt to grant the Releases set forth in Article VIII.D of the Plan. You may wish to seek legal advice concerning the Restructuring Transactions contemplated under the Plan.

The Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests, including you, regardless of whether you vote to accept or reject the Plan and to make certain elections contained herein. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting and Opt-In Deadline.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (1) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan and (2) except as to any member of the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes who opted to grant the releases contained in Article VIII.D of the Plan, the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members (whether or not any such member affirmatively voted to accept the Plan) shall not release nor be deemed to release any claim or cause of action that any such holders may hold against the Asset Manager or the Property Manager and such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals.

Article VIII.E of the Plan provides for the following exculpation (the "Exculpation"):

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, each Debtor and each Exculpated Party is hereby released and exculpated from any Claim, obligation, Cause of Action, or liability for any Exculpated Claim, except for gross negligence or willful misconduct, but in all respects each Debtor and each Exculpated Party shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to its duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan. The Debtors, their Estates, the Independent Fiduciary, and the Debtors' professionals including White & Case LLP, IslandDundon LLC, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, and Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global have, and upon completion of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of the Plan and distributions pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

For the avoidance of doubt, this Article VIII.F shall not constitute a discharge under section 1141(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Definitions related to the Third-Party Release, Exculpation, and Injunction:

Under the Plan, "Released Party" means each of the following in its capacity as such: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the NOLA Purchaser; (c) the Asset Manager; (d) the Property Manager; (e) the NOLA DIP Lenders; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (h) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. For the avoidance of any doubt, no Person or Entity identified on the Schedule of Excluded Parties shall constitute a Released Party for purposes of the Plan.

Under the Plan, "Releasing Parties" means each of the following in its capacity as such: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the NOLA Purchaser; (c) the Asset Manager; (d) the Property Manager; (e) the NOLA DIP Lenders; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) each Holder of a Claim that affirmatively votes to accept the Plan; (h) each Holder of a Claim in Class 3, Class 4, Class 5, Class 6, and Class 7 who abstains or does not affirmatively vote to accept the Plan but checks the box on such Holder's Ballot indicating that such Holder opts to grant the releases contained in Article VIII of the Plan; (i) each Holder of a Claim in Class 1, Class 2, Class 8, Class 9, Class 10, Class 11, and Class 12 who checks the box on such Holder's Opt-In Form indicating that such Holder opts to grant the releases contained in Article VIII of the Plan; (j) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (k) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent.

Under the Plan, "Exculpated Party" means, each of, and in each case, in its capacity as such, (a) each Debtor solely in its capacity as a debtor and debtor in possession following the Petition Date and excluding such Debtor for the period prior to the Petition Date, (b) the Independent Fiduciary, (c) the Asset Manager, (d) the Property Manager, and (e) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. For the avoidance of any doubt, no Person or Entity identified on the Schedule of Excluded Parties shall constitute an Exculpated Party for purposes of the Plan.

Under the Plan, "Exculpated Claim" means any Claim related to any act or omission arising as of or following the Petition Date through the Effective Date in connection with, relating to, or arising out of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan, the NOLA Sale Transaction, or Restructuring Transactions, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation of any document in connection with the Plan, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Plan, the pursuit of Consummation, the Restructuring Transactions, the administration and implementation of the Plan, or the distribution of property pursuant to the Plan.

Item 4. Contributed Claims

If the Plan is confirmed, all Claims or Causes of Action, including Avoidance Actions, held by the Debtors or their Estates as of the Effective Date and the proceeds thereof, other than any Claims or Causes of Action against the Released Parties that are released under Article VIII of the Plan (collectively, the "NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action") will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

In addition to these NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, certain creditors may have direct Causes of Action against certain third parties associated with the Debtors, their predecessors, or respective Affiliates that are not released under the Plan. However, it may be difficult and expensive for individual creditors to sue third parties for losses. Accordingly, creditors can elect to contribute direct Causes of Action to the Creditor Recovery Trust. By opting to contribute Causes of Action to the Creditor Recovery Trust, you are giving the Creditor Recovery Trust the right to pursue those direct Causes of Action on your behalf together with other creditors. As a result, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be able to use trust resources to sue on account of those direct Causes of Action, and all recoveries will inure to the benefit of all Holders that agreed to contribute their Claims. In other words, if the Creditor Recovery Trust prevails on any Claims that you contribute, those recoveries will be distributed among all creditors that elected to contribute their Contributed Claims and will not be distributed solely to you. For the avoidance of doubt, the decision to "opt in" to contribute Claims is entirely voluntary, and the failure to "opt in" does not prejudice any electing creditors' rights.

By electing such option, you agree that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, you will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed your Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Debtors or the Creditor Recovery Trust to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

☐ CONTRIBUTED CLAIM ELECTION: By checking this box, you elect to contribute your Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust

Definitions related to the Contributed Claims

Under the Plan, "Contributed Claim" means any direct Cause of Action that any Contributing Claimant has against any Person (other than a Debtor) that had a direct relationship with the Debtors, their predecessors, or respective Affiliates and that harmed such Contributing Claimant in the claimant's capacity as a creditor of the Debtors, including (a) any Cause of Action based on, arising out of, or related to the alleged misrepresentation of any of the Debtors' financial information, business operations, or related internal controls; and (b) any Cause of Action based on, arising out of, or related to any alleged failure to disclose, or actual or attempted cover up or obfuscation of, any of the Debtors' conduct prior to the Petition Date; provided, however, that Contributed Claims do not include (i) any derivative claims of the Debtors, (ii) any direct claims against the Released Parties, (iii) any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law, (iv) any claim of a Holder of a Crown Capital Unsecured Claim against Piper Sandler & Co. or any of its Affiliates or representatives, and (v) any claim or cause of action against the Asset Manager or the Property Manager and such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals.

Under the Plan, "Contributing Claimant" means any Holder of a Claim or Interest that elects through its Ballot to contribute their Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust in order for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, each Debtor and each Exculpated Party is hereby released and exculpated from any Claim, obligation, Cause of Action, or liability for any Exculpated Claim, except for gross negligence or willful misconduct, but in all respects each Debtor and each Exculpated Party shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to its duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan. Definitions related to the Third-Party Release, Exculpation, and Injunction:

Under the Plan, "Released Party" means each of the following in its capacity as such: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the NOLA Purchaser; (c) the Asset Manager; (d) the Property Manager; (e) the NOLA DIP Lenders; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (h) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. For the avoidance of any doubt, no Person or Entity identified on the Schedule of Excluded Parties shall constitute a Released Party for purposes of the Plan.

Under the Plan, "Releasing Parties" means each of the following in its capacity as such: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the NOLA Purchaser; (c) the Asset Manager; (d) the Property Manager; (e) the NOLA DIP Lenders; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) each Holder of a Claim that affirmatively votes to accept the Plan; (h) each Holder of a Claim in Class 3, Class 4, Class 5, Class 6, and Class 7 who abstains or does not affirmatively vote to accept the Plan but checks the box on such Holder's Ballot indicating that such Holder opts to grant the releases contained in Article VIII of the Plan; (i) each Holder of a Claim in Class 1, Class 2, Class 8, Class 9, Class 10, Class 11, and Class 12 who checks the box on such Holder's Opt-In Form indicating that such Holder opts to grant the releases contained in Article VIII of the Plan; (j) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (k) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent.

Under the Plan, "Exculpated Party" means, each of, and in each case, in its capacity as such, (a) each Debtor solely in its capacity as a debtor and debtor in possession following the Petition Date and excluding such Debtor for the period prior to the Petition Date, (b) the Independent Fiduciary, (c) the Asset Manager, (d) the Property Manager, and (e) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. For the avoidance of any doubt, no Person or Entity identified on the Schedule of Excluded Parties shall constitute an Exculpated Party for purposes of the Plan.

Under the Plan, "Exculpated Claim" means any Claim related to any act or omission arising as of or following the Petition Date through the Effective Date in connection with, relating to, or arising out of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan, the NOLA Sale Transaction, or Restructuring Transactions, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation of any document in connection with the Plan, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Plan, the pursuit of Consummation, the Restructuring Transactions, the administration and implementation of the Plan, or the distribution of property pursuant to the Plan.

Item 4. Contributed Claims

If the Plan is confirmed, all Claims or Causes of Action, including Avoidance Actions, held by the Debtors or their Estates as of the Effective Date and the proceeds thereof, other than any Claims or Causes of Action against the Released Parties that are released under Article VIII of the Plan (collectively, the "NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action") will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

In addition to these NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, certain creditors may have direct Causes of Action against certain third parties associated with the Debtors, their predecessors, or respective Affiliates that are not released under the Plan. However, it may be difficult and expensive for individual creditors to sue third parties for losses. Accordingly, creditors can elect to contribute direct Causes of Action to the Creditor Recovery Trust. By opting to contribute Causes of Action to the Creditor Recovery Trust, you are giving the Creditor Recovery Trust the right to pursue those direct Causes of Action on your behalf together with other creditors. As a result, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be able to use trust resources to sue on account of those direct Causes of Action, and all recoveries will inure to the benefit of all Holders that agreed to contribute their Claims. In other words, if the Creditor Recovery Trust prevails on any Claims that you contribute, those recoveries will be distributed among all creditors that elected to contribute their Contributed Claims and will not be distributed solely to you. For the avoidance of doubt, the decision to "opt in" to contribute Claims is entirely voluntary, and the failure to "opt in" does not prejudice any electing creditors' rights.

By electing such option, you agree that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, you will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed your Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Debtors or the Creditor Recovery Trust to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

☐ CONTRIBUTED CLAIM ELECTION: By checking this box, you elect to contribute your Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust

Definitions related to the Contributed Claims

Under the Plan, "Contributed Claim" means any direct Cause of Action that any Contributing Claimant has against any Person (other than a Debtor) that had a direct relationship with the Debtors, their predecessors, or respective Affiliates and that harmed such Contributing Claimant in the claimant's capacity as a creditor of the Debtors, including (a) any Cause of Action based on, arising out of, or related to the alleged misrepresentation of any of the Debtors' financial information, business operations, or related internal controls; and (b) any Cause of Action based on, arising out of, or related to any alleged failure to disclose, or actual or attempted cover up or obfuscation of, any of the Debtors' conduct prior to the Petition Date; provided, however, that Contributed Claims do not include (i) any derivative claims of the Debtors, (ii) any direct claims against the Released Parties, (iii) any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law, (iv) any claim of a Holder of a Crown Capital Unsecured Claim against Piper Sandler & Co. or any of its Affiliates or representatives, and (v) any claim or cause of action against the Asset Manager or the Property Manager and such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals.

Under the Plan, "Contributing Claimant" means any Holder of a Claim or Interest that elects through its Ballot to contribute their Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust in order for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute such Contributed Claims for their benefit.

Chapter 11 Case No. 25-15343 (MBK) (Jointly Administered)

TO ALL HOLDERS OF CLAIMS ENTITLED TO VOTE ON THE PLAN:

CBRM Realty Inc. and its affiliated debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors")[1] each filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court") on May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date").

You have received this letter (the "Cover Letter") and the enclosed materials because you are entitled to vote on the Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 501] (as modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time, the "Plan"). YOU ARE RECEIVING THIS LETTER BECAUSE YOU ARE ENTITLED TO VOTE ON THE PLAN. YOU SHOULD READ THIS LETTER CAREFULLY AND DISCUSS IT WITH YOUR ATTORNEY. IF YOU DO NOT HAVE AN ATTORNEY, YOU MAY WISH TO CONSULT ONE.

In addition to this letter, the enclosed materials comprise your Solicitation Package and were approved by the Court for distribution to Holders of Claims in connection with the solicitation of votes to accept or reject the Plan. Please review these materials carefully and follow the instructions contained therein. The Solicitation Package consists of the following, as applicable:

g. any additional documents that the Court has ordered to be made available to Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes.

The Debtors have approved the filing of the Plan and the solicitation of votes to accept or reject the Plan. The Debtors believe that the acceptance of the Plan is in the best interests of their estates, Holders of Claims and Interests, and all other parties in interest. Moreover, the Debtors believe that any alternative to confirmation of the Plan could result in extensive delays and increased administrative expenses, which, in turn, likely would result in smaller distributions on account of Claims asserted in the Chapter 11 Cases.

THE DEBTORS STRONGLY URGE YOU TO PROPERLY AND TIMELY SUBMIT YOUR BALLOT CASTING A VOTE TO ACCEPT THE PLAN AND MAKING CERTAIN ELECTIONS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INSTRUCTIONS ON YOUR BALLOT.

THE DEADLINE TO VOTE TO ACCEPT OR REJECT THE PLAN AND OPT TO GRANT THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASE IS OCTOBER 10, 2025 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

[1] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the Motion.

District of New Jersey, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on September 18, 2012 (Simandle, C.J.) and consideration of the Motion and the relief requested therein being a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b); and this Court having found that venue of this proceeding and the Motion in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Motion was appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the "Hearing"); and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before the Court and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED as set forth herein.

2. All objections that have not been withdrawn, waived, or settled, or not otherwise resolved pursuant to the terms hereof, if any, are hereby DENIED and OVERRULED on the merits with prejudice.

I. Conditional Approval of the Disclosure Statement

3. The Disclosure Statement is approved on a conditional basis as providing Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan with adequate information to make an informed judgment as to whether to vote to accept or reject the Plan in accordance with section 1125(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. This approval is without prejudice to the right of any party in interest to argue at the Combined Hearing that the Disclosure Statement does not contain adequate information within the meaning of section 1125(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, and this Order shall be without preclusive effect as to any determination by the Court at the Combined Hearing solely regarding the adequacy of the information contained in the Disclosure Statement within the meaning of section 1125(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the burden shall remain on the Debtors to demonstrate at the Combined Hearing that the Disclosure Statement contains adequate information within the meaning of section 1125(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

5. The notice of the Hearing filed by the Debtors and served upon parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases constitutes adequate and sufficient notice of the hearing to consider the conditional approval of the Disclosure Statement (and exhibits thereto, including the Plan) and the deadline for filing objections to the conditional approval of the Disclosure Statement and responses thereto is hereby approved.

6. The Disclosure Statement (including all applicable exhibits thereto) provides Holders of Claims or Interests, and other parties in interest, with sufficient notice of, and the identities of the entities subject to, the injunction, exculpation, and release provisions contained in Article VIII of the Plan, in satisfaction of the requirements of Bankruptcy Rules 2002(c)(3) and 3016(b)–(c).

II. Approval of the Procedures, Materials, and Timeline for Soliciting Votes on and Confirming the Plan

A. Approval of the Solicitation and Voting Procedures

7. The Debtors are authorized to solicit, receive, and tabulate votes to accept the Plan in accordance with the Solicitation and Voting Procedures attached hereto as Exhibit 2, which are hereby approved in their entirety. The Solicitation and Voting Procedures comply with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules.

8. The Debtors are further authorized to solicit votes on or before the Solicitation Mailing Deadline from creditors known to the Debtors as of the Voting Record Date. With respect to any creditor who holds a claim against the Laguna Debtor that is subject to the Laguna Claims Bar Date and who files a Proof of Claim after the Voting Record Date, but on or before the Laguna Claims Bar Date, the Voting Record Date for such creditors shall be the date that such Proof of Claim is filed (any such date a "Supplemental Voting Record Date"). The Debtors are authorized to provide any creditor that files a Proof of Claim by a Supplemental Voting Record Date with a Solicitation Package and/or a Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form, as applicable, as soon as reasonably practical thereafter and such creditor shall be entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan (if such claimant is entitled to vote pursuant to the Plan and the Solicitation and Voting Procedures); provided that, if the Debtors and the Claims Agent previously provided such creditor with a Ballot on account of a scheduled claim or previous Proof of Claim filed in advance of any such Supplemental Voting Record Date, the Debtors and the Claims Agent shall update the creditor's voting amount, but shall not be obligated to send a new Ballot.

The Debtors may adjourn the Combined Hearing and any related dates and deadlines from time to time, without notice to the parties in interest other than announcement of such adjournment in open court and/or filing a notice of adjournment with the Court.

C. Approval of the Form and Distribution of the Solicitation Package to Parties Entitled to Vote on the Plan.

11. The Debtors shall cause the Solicitation Package to be distributed to Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan as of the Voting Record Date on or before the Solicitation Mailing Deadline or as soon as reasonably practicable following the Supplemental Voting Record Date; provided that the Debtors shall distribute the Combined Hearing Notice on or prior to the Combined Hearing Notice Deadline. Such service satisfies the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules. The Solicitation Package shall include the following documents, the form of each of which is hereby approved:

a. a copy of the Solicitation and Voting Procedures, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 2;

b. the form of Ballot, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 3A, 3B, 3C, 3D, and 3E, together with detailed voting instructions and instructions on how to submit the Ballot;

c. the Cover Letter, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 5;

d. the Combined Hearing Notice, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 6;

e. the Disclosure Statement (and exhibits thereto, including the Plan);

f. this Order (without exhibits); and

g. any additional documents that the Court has ordered to be made available to Holders of Claims or Interests in the Voting Classes.

12. The Solicitation Package provides the Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan with adequate information to make an informed judgment as to whether to vote to accept or reject the Plan in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2002(b) and 3017(d), and the Local Rules.

13. The Debtors are authorized to cause electronic copies of the Solicitation Package to be distributed through the Claims Agent via email (using the email address maintained by the Debtors as of the Voting Record Date) to Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes. To the extent (i) (a) an email address is not on file for any such Holders of Claims or (b) distribution of the Solicitation Package via email as set forth in the previous sentence is returned as undeliverable; and (ii) the Debtors are in possession of a physical mailing address for such Holders, the Claims Agent shall serve the Solicitation Package on such Holders in electronic format (i.e., USB flash drive format) (except for the Solicitation and Voting Procedures and Ballots, which shall be provided in paper format) via first-class mail; provided, however, that any party that receives a Solicitation Package via email or for which service in electronic format (i.e., USB flash drive format) imposes a hardship may receive a Solicitation Package in paper format by contacting the Claims Agent and requesting paper copies of the corresponding materials previously received via email or electronic format (i.e., USB flash drive format).

14. The Debtors and the Claims Agent are authorized to rely on the address information (including email addresses for voting and non-voting parties alike) maintained by the Debtors and provided to the Claims Agent. Any obligation for the Debtors or the Claims Agent to conduct any additional research for updated addresses based on undeliverable solicitation materials (including undeliverable Ballots) is hereby waived. Furthermore, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, neither the Debtors nor the Claims Agent shall be required to distribute a Solicitation Package or any other materials related to voting or confirmation of the Plan to any person or entity from which the notice of the Motion or other mailed notice in these cases was returned as undeliverable unless the Claims Agent is provided with accurate mailing addresses for such persons or entities on or prior to the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable. In no event shall any Holder of a Claim be entitled to submit a Ballot after the Voting and Opt-In Deadline without the Debtors' express written consent or by a separate order of the Court after notice and a hearing.

15. The form of letter (the "Cover Letter"), substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 5, describing the contents of the Solicitation Package and recommending that Holders of Claims in each of the Voting Classes vote in favor of the Plan, is approved.

16. The Ballots, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 3A, 3B, 3C, 3D, and 3E are hereby approved and comply with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules.

17. The Debtors are authorized to cause copies of the Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form to be delivered via email and/or first-class mail, as applicable, through the Claims Agent to Holders of Claims or Interests in the Non-Voting Classes and Holders of Disputed Claims.

18. On or before the Solicitation Mailing Deadline, the Debtors (through the Claims Agent) shall provide the Solicitation Package (other than Ballots and the Cover Letter) via email to the U.S. Trustee and all parties on the Master Service List as of the Voting Record Date.

19. The Claims Agent is authorized to assist the Debtors in all of the actions set forth herein, as applicable, including: (i) distributing copies of the Solicitation Package (including the Combined Hearing Notice) and Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form; (ii) receiving, tabulating, and reporting on Ballots cast to accept or reject the Plan by Holders of Claims; (iii) receiving, tabulating, and reporting on the Opt-In Forms received by Holders of Claims or Interests; (iv) responding to inquiries from Holders of Claims or Interests and other parties in interest relating to the conditionally-approved Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Ballots, the Solicitation Package, the Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form, and all other related documents and matters related thereto, including the procedures and requirements for voting to accept or reject the Plan, opting to grant the Releases provided by the Releasing Parties, and for objecting to confirmation of the Plan; (v) soliciting votes on the Plan; and (vi) if necessary, contacting parties in interest regarding the Plan and/or the Disclosure Statement.

20. The Claims Agent is authorized to accept Ballots and Opt-In Forms via electronic online transmission through an online balloting portal on the Debtors' case website (the "E-Ballot Portal") as set forth in the Solicitation and Voting Procedures. The encrypted ballot data and audit trail created by such electronic submission shall become part of the record of any Ballot or Opt-In Form submitted in this manner and the creditor's electronic signature shall be deemed to be immediately legally valid and effective. The Ballots and Opt-In Forms submitted online via the E-Ballot Portal shall be deemed to contain an original signature. E-Ballot is the sole manner in which Ballots shall be accepted via electronic or online transmission. Ballots submitted by facsimile, email, or other means of electronic transmission shall not be counted.

21. All votes to accept or reject the Plan must be cast using the appropriate Ballot. All Ballots must be properly executed, completed, and delivered according to their applicable voting instructions via: (i) first-class mail; (ii) overnight delivery; (iii) personal delivery; or (iv) the E-Ballot Portal. For the avoidance of any doubt, Ballots submitted to the Claims Agent by any means other than as expressly provided in this Order or in the Solicitation and Voting Procedures shall not be valid and shall not count as a vote to accept or reject the Plan. The Debtors are authorized to extend the Voting and Opt-In Deadline in their discretion without further order of the Court.

D. Approval of the Form of Notice to Non-Voting Classes and Holders of Disputed Claims and Opt-In Form.

22. Except to the extent the Debtors determine otherwise, the Debtors are not required to provide the Solicitation Package to Holders of Claims or Interests in Non-Voting Classes or Holders of Disputed Claims, as such Holders are not entitled to vote on the Plan. Instead, on or before the Solicitation Mailing Deadline or as soon as reasonably practicable following the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, the Claims Agent shall distribute the Notice of Non-Voting Status (via email or via first-class mail, as applicable) in lieu of the Solicitation Package, the form of each of which, including the mechanisms for opting to grant the releases contained in Article VIII of the Plan, to Classes 1, 2, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 who are not entitled to vote on the Plan or Holders of Disputed Claims; provided that the Debtors shall also distribute the Combined Hearing Notice on or before the Combined Hearing Notice Deadline to Holders of Claims or Interests in Non-Voting Classes or Holders of Disputed Claims.

23. Service of the Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form and Combined Hearing Notice via email (using the email address maintained by the Debtors as of the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable) or via first-class mail in paper or electronic format (i.e., USB flash drive format), as applicable, is reasonably calculated to provide notice to Holders of Claims or Interests that are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan of the hearing and constitutes adequate and sufficient notice of the hearing to consider confirmation of the Plan and final approval of the Disclosure Statement.

24. The Debtors are not required to distribute the Solicitation Package, other solicitation materials, or a Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form to: (i) Holders of Claims that (a) have already been paid in full during the chapter 11 cases or that are otherwise paid in full in the ordinary course of business pursuant to an order previously entered by this Court or (b) are scheduled to be paid in the ordinary course prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline; or (ii) any party to whom the notice of the Motion was sent but was subsequently returned as undeliverable without a physical forwarding address by the Voting Record Date.

25. The Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form shall include, among other things: (i) instructions as to how to view or obtain copies of the Disclosure Statement (including the Plan and the other exhibits attached thereto), this Order, and all other materials in the Solicitation Package (excluding Ballots) from the Claims Agent and/or the Court's website via PACER; (ii) notice to recipients of their status as Holders or potential Holders of Claims or Interests in Non-Voting Classes or Holders of Disputed Claims; (iii) a disclosure regarding the settlement, release, exculpation, and injunction language set forth in Article VIII of the Plan; (iv) the Opt-In Form by which Holders may elect to opt to grant the releases set forth in Article VIII of the Plan; (v) notice of the Combined Objection Deadline; and (vi) notice of the Combined Hearing Date and information related thereto. The Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form are hereby approved and comply with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules.

E. Approval of the Combined Hearing Notice

26. The Combined Hearing Notice, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 6, which shall be filed by the Debtors and served upon parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases and published in a format modified for publication one time on or before the Publication Deadline (or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter) in The New Orleans Advocate, constitutes adequate and sufficient notice of the hearing to consider approval of the Plan and final approval of the Disclosure Statement, the manner in which a copy of the Plan and Disclosure Statement can be obtained, and the time fixed for filing objections to confirmation of the Plan and final approval of the Disclosure Statement, in satisfaction of the requirements of the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules.

F. Approval of the Plan Supplement Notice

27. The Debtors are authorized to send notice of the filing of the Plan Supplement, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 7, to parties in interest on or before the Plan Supplement Filing Deadline. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors may amend the documents contained in, and exhibits to, the Plan Supplement through the Effective Date in accordance with the Plan.

G. Approval of the Rejection Notice

28. Service of the Rejection Notice, as provided in this Order, shall constitute adequate notice of the rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases under the Plan. The Rejection Notice, substantially in the form attached to this Order as Exhibit 8, is hereby approved and complies with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules. The Debtors are authorized to serve the Rejection Notice on counterparties to Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases being rejected under the Plan.

H. Non-Substantive Modifications

29. The Debtors are authorized to make non-substantive and immaterial changes to the Plan, Disclosure Statement, Solicitation and Voting Procedures, Ballots, Solicitation Package, Notice of Non-Voting Status, Opt-In Form, Combined Hearing Notice, Publication Notice, Cover Letter, Plan Supplement Notice, Rejection Notice, and any other notice attached hereto and any related documents without further order of the Court, including formatting changes, changes to correct typographical and grammatical errors, if any, and to make conforming changes to the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, and any other materials (including any appendices thereto) in the Solicitation Package before distribution. Subject to the foregoing, the Debtors are authorized to solicit, receive, and tabulate votes to accept or reject the Plan in accordance with this Order and the Solicitation and Voting Procedures without further order of the Court.

III. Approval of the Procedures for Filing Objections to the Final Approval of the Adequacy of the Information Contained in the Disclosure Statement and Confirmation of the Plan

30. Objections to confirmation of the Plan and final approval of the Disclosure Statement will not be considered by the Court unless such objections are timely filed and properly served in accordance with this Order. Specifically, all objections to the confirmation of the Plan or requests for modifications to the Plan, if any, must: (i) be in writing; (ii) conform to the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and any orders of this Court; (iii) state, with particularity, the legal and factual basis for the objection and, if practicable, a proposed modification to the Plan (or related materials) that would resolve such objection; and (iv) be filed with the Court (contemporaneously with a proof of service) and served upon each of the notice parties identified in the Combined Hearing Notice in accordance with the terms of this Order on or before the Combined Objection Deadline.

IV. Miscellaneous

31. The Debtors' rights to modify the Plan in accordance with Article X thereof, including the right to add a non-Debtor entity that becomes a debtor and debtor in possession under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code to, or remove a Debtor from, the Plan at any time before the Combined Hearing Date, are reserved without further order of the Court.

32. Nothing in this Order shall be construed as a waiver of the right of the Debtors or any other party in interest, as applicable, to object to a Proof of Claim after the Voting Record Date.

33. Nothing in this Order constitutes a finding of fact or conclusion of law regarding whether the Debtors' proposed opt-in procedures establish consensual releases, and the rights of all parties in interest to object to confirmation on any grounds are fully reserved.

34. All time periods set forth in this Order shall be calculated in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 9006(a).

35. Notwithstanding any Bankruptcy Rule or Local Rule to the contrary, this Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

36. Any relief granted to the Debtors pursuant to this Order shall mean the Debtors, acting at the direction of the Independent Fiduciary.

37. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice thereof in satisfaction of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules.

38. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Order in accordance with the Motion.

39. The requirement set forth in Local Rule 9013-1(a)(3) that any motion be accompanied by a memorandum of law is hereby deemed satisfied by the contents of the Motion or otherwise waived.

40. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Order.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT on [●], 2025, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court") entered an order [Docket No. [●]] (the "Disclosure Statement Order"): (i) authorizing Crown Capital Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC, Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC, RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, RH Lakewind East LLC, and RH Windrun LLC (collectively, the "Debtors") to solicit acceptances of the Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. ~~389~~501] (as modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time, the "Plan");[2] (ii) conditionally approving the Disclosure Statement for the Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. ~~390~~503] (as modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time, the "Disclosure Statement") as containing "adequate information" pursuant to section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code; (iii) approving the solicitation materials and documents to be included in the solicitation package (the "Solicitation Package"); (iv) approving procedures for soliciting, noticing, receiving, and tabulating votes on the Plan; (v) establishing certain deadlines to opt to grant the releases set forth in the Plan; and (vi) establishing deadlines for filing objections to the Plan.

A. The Voting Record Date.

The Court has established September 4, 2025 as the record date for purposes of determining which Holders of Claims in Class 3 CIF Mortgage Loan Claims, Class 4 NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims, Class 5 Other NOLA Unsecured Claims, Class 6 Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, and Class 7 RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims (each a "Voting Class," and collectively, the "Voting Classes") are entitled to vote on the Plan (the "Voting Record Date").

Only with respect to Debtor Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC (the "Laguna Debtor"), to accommodate the bar date for this Debtor which the Debtors have set as 5:00 p.m. prevailing Eastern Time on the date that is twenty-one (21) days from the date the Debtors file schedules of assets and liabilities for the Laguna Debtor (the "Laguna Claims Bar Date"), the Voting Record Date applicable to any creditor who holds a Claim against the Laguna Debtor and who files a Proof of Claim after the Voting Record Date (i.e., September 4, 2025), but on or before the Laguna Claims Bar Date, shall be the date that such Proof of Claim is filed (any such date a "Supplemental Voting Record Date"). If, however, the Claims Agent previously provided such creditor with a Ballot on account of a scheduled Claim or previous Proof of Claim filed in advance of any such Supplemental Voting Record Date, the Claims Agent shall update the creditors' voting amount internally to comport with the amount reflected in Proof of Claim, except as otherwise provided herein, but shall not be obligated to send a new Ballot.

C. Form, Content, and Manner of Notices.

1. The Solicitation Package.

The following materials shall constitute the solicitation package (the "Solicitation Package"):

a. a copy of these Solicitation and Voting Procedures;

b. the applicable forms of Ballots, together with detailed voting instructions and instructions on how to submit the Ballots;

c. the Cover Letter, which describes the contents of the Solicitation Package and recommends that Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes vote to accept the Plan;

d. the Disclosure Statement (and exhibits thereto, including the Plan);

e. the Disclosure Statement Order (without exhibits, except for the Solicitation and Voting Procedures);

f. the Combined Hearing Notice; and

g. any additional documents that the Court has ordered to be made available to Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes.

2. Distribution of the Solicitation Package.

Within five (5) Business Days following entry of the Disclosure Statement Order or as soon as reasonably practicable following the Supplemental Voting Record Date (such date, as applicable, the "Solicitation Mailing Deadline"), the Claims Agent shall serve, or cause to be served, via email copies of the Solicitation Package to Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan and other parties in interest. To the extent (i) (a) an email address is not on file for any such Holders of Claims or (b) distribution of the Solicitation Package via email as set forth in the previous sentence is returned as undeliverable; and (ii) the Debtors are in possession of a physical mailing address for such Holders, the Claims Agent shall serve the Solicitation Package on such Holders in electronic format (i.e., USB flash drive format) (except for the Solicitation and Voting Procedures and Ballots, which shall be provided in paper format) via first-class mail. Any party that receives a Solicitation Package via email or for which USB flash drive imposes a hardship, as applicable, may request a Solicitation Package in paper format from the Claims Agent by submitting an inquiry to https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm/inquiry (with "CBRM" in the subject line). In addition, these Solicitation and Voting Procedures, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Disclosure Statement Order, and all pleadings filed with the Court are available on the Debtors' case website at https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm.

The Claims Agent shall serve, or cause to be served, via email, electronic versions of the Solicitation Package (excluding Ballots and the Cover Letter) on the U.S. Trustee and all parties who have requested service of papers in this case pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 as of the Solicitation Mailing Deadline.

The Claims Agent will not distribute the Solicitation Package to: (i) Holders of Claims that (a) have already been paid in full during the Chapter 11 Cases or that are otherwise paid in full in the ordinary course of business pursuant to an order previously entered by the Court or (b) are scheduled to be paid in the ordinary course prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline; or (ii) any party to whom the notice of the Disclosure Statement was sent but was subsequently returned as undeliverable without a forward address on or prior to the Voting Record Date or Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable.

3. Resolution of Disputed Claims for Voting Purposes; Resolution Event.

The Claim amounts established herein shall control for voting purposes only and shall not constitute the Allowed amount of any Claim for any other purpose, including distributions under the Plan. Any amounts pre-populated on a Ballot by the Debtors through the Claims Agent are not binding for purposes of allowance and distribution. In resolving disputed Claims for voting purposes, the following principles shall apply:

a. Absent a further order of the Court, the Holder of a Claim in a Voting Class that is the subject of a pending objection on a "reduce and allow" basis shall be entitled to vote such Claim in the reduced amount contained in such objection;

b. If a Claim in a Voting Class is subject to an objection, other than a "reduce and allow" objection, that is filed with the Court on or prior to September 23, 2025: (i) the Debtors shall cause the applicable Holder to be served with the Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form (which Notice shall be served with such objection); and (ii) the applicable Holder shall not be entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan on account of such Claim unless a Resolution Event (as defined herein) occurs as provided herein;

c. If a Claim in a Voting Class is subject to an objection, other than a "reduce and allow" objection, that is filed with the Court on or after September 23, 2025, the applicable Claim shall be deemed temporarily allowed in its original amount for voting purposes only, without further action by the Holder of such Claim and without further order of the Court, unless the Court orders otherwise;

d. A "Resolution Event" means the occurrence of one or more of the following events no later than two (2) Business Days prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline:

i. an order of the Court is entered allowing such Claim pursuant to section 502(b) of the Bankruptcy Code;

ii. an order of the Court is entered temporarily allowing such Claim for voting purposes only pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a), after notice and a hearing;

iii. a stipulation or other agreement is executed between the Holder of such Claim and the Debtors resolving the objection and allowing such Claim, which allowance may be for voting purposes only, in an agreed-upon amount and such agreement (or notice of such agreement) is conveyed by the Debtors to the Claims Agent by electronic mail or otherwise; or

iv. the pending objection is voluntarily withdrawn by the objecting party;

e. No later than one (1) Business Day following the occurrence of a Resolution Event, the Debtors shall cause the Claims Agent to distribute to the relevant Holder via hand delivery, first-class mail, or email, a Solicitation Package to the relevant Holder; and

f. Claims that have been paid, scheduled to be paid in the ordinary course prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline, or otherwise satisfied prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline, shall not be provided with a ballot and shall not be allowed to vote.

4. Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form for Unimpaired Classes, Deemed Rejecting Classes, and Distribution of Opt-In Forms.

The following Holders of Claims or Interests will receive (i) the Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form, which will instruct such Holders as to how they may obtain copies of the documents contained in the Solicitation Package (excluding Ballots), as well as how they may opt to grant the releases in the Plan; and (ii) the Opt-In Form by which such Holders of Claims or Interests may opt to grant the releases and, if applicable, make certain elections:

a. certain Holders of Claims or Interests that are not classified in accordance with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code or who are not entitled to vote because they are Unimpaired or otherwise presumed to accept the Plan under section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code; and

b. certain Holders of Claims or Interests who are not entitled to vote because they are deemed to reject the Plan under section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code.

5. Deadline for Filing Proofs of Claim Arising from the Rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases Under the Plan.

The Plan provides that each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease (including all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List) will be deemed rejected, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than those that previously were assumed or rejected by the Debtors or those that are subject to a pending motion to assume or assign such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such rejections. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan not filed within such time shall be disallowed, forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against, as applicable, the Debtors, the Estates, or property thereof, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged.

For the avoidance of doubt, a Holder will only be entitled to receive the Solicitation Package on account of a Claim arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease if the Claim is filed by the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable.

D. Voting and Tabulation Procedures.

1. Holders of Filed and Scheduled Claims Entitled to Vote.

Only the following Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes shall be entitled to vote with respect to such Claims.

a. Unless otherwise provided, Holders of Claims who, on or before the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, have timely filed a Proof of Claim (or an untimely Proof of Claim that has been Allowed as timely by the Court under applicable law on or before the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable) that: (i) has not been expunged, disallowed, disqualified, withdrawn, or superseded prior to the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable; and (ii) is not the subject of a pending objection filed with the Court on or before September 23, 2025, pending a Resolution Event as provided herein; provided that a Holder of a Claim that is the subject of a pending objection on a "reduce and allow" basis shall receive a Solicitation Package and be entitled to vote such Claim in the reduced amount contained in such objection absent a further order of the Court;

b. Holders of Claims that are listed in the Debtors' Schedules of Assets and Liabilities (the "Schedules"); provided that Claims that are scheduled as contingent, unliquidated, or disputed (excluding such scheduled disputed, contingent, or unliquidated Claims that have been paid or superseded by a timely Filed Proof of Claim) shall be allowed to vote only in the amounts set forth in Section D.2 of the Solicitation and Voting Procedures;

c. Holders whose Claims arise: (i) pursuant to an agreement or settlement with the Debtors, as reflected in a document filed with the Court; (ii) from an order entered by the Court; or (iii) from a document executed by the Debtors pursuant to authority granted by the Court, in each case regardless of whether a Proof of Claim has been filed or the Claim was scheduled as contingent, unliquidated, or disputed;

d. Holders of any Claim that has been temporarily allowed to vote on the Plan pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3018; and

e. with respect to any Entity described in subparagraphs (a) through (d) above, who, on or before the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, has transferred such Entity's Claim to another Entity, the assignee of such Claim; provided that such transfer or assignment has been fully effectuated pursuant to the procedures set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e) and such transfer is reflected on the Claims Register on the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable.

2. Establishing Claim Amounts for Voting Purposes.

The Claim amounts established herein shall control for voting purposes only and shall not constitute the Allowed amount of any Claim. Moreover, any amounts filled in on Ballots by the Debtors through the Claims Agent, as applicable, are not binding for purposes of allowance and distribution.

a. In tabulating votes, the following hierarchy shall be used to determine the amount of the Claim associated with each claimant's vote:

i. the Claim amount (i) settled and/or agreed upon by the Debtors, as reflected in a document filed with the Court, (ii) set forth in an order of the Court, (iii) set forth in a document executed by the Debtors pursuant to authority granted by the Court, or (iv) set forth in e-mailed instructions from the Debtors' counsel to the Claims Agent with the applicable voter copied;

ii. the Claim amount Allowed (temporarily or otherwise) pursuant to a Resolution Event under these Solicitation and Voting Procedures;

iii. the Claim amount contained in a Proof of Claim that is not subject to an objection and that has been timely filed by the applicable bar date (or deemed timely filed by the Court under applicable law), except for any amounts asserted on account of any interest accrued after the Petition Date; provided that any Ballot cast by a holder of a Claim who timely files a Proof of Claim in respect of (i) a contingent Claim or a Claim in a wholly-unliquidated or undetermined or unknown amount (as indicated on the face of the Claim or based on a reasonable review by the Debtors and/or the Claims Agent) that is not the subject of an objection will count toward satisfying the numerosity requirement of section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code and will count as a Ballot for a Claim in the amount of $1.00 solely for the purposes of satisfying the dollar amount provisions of section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, and (ii) a partially liquidated and partially unliquidated Claim will be Allowed for voting purposes only in the liquidated amount; provided, further, that to the extent the Claim amount contained in the Proof of Claim is different from the Claim amount set forth in a document filed with the Court as referenced in subparagraph (a)(i) above, the Claim amount in the document filed with the Court shall supersede the Claim amount set forth on the respective Proof of Claim for voting purposes;

iv. the Claim amount listed in the Schedules (to the extent such Claim is not superseded by a timely filed Proof of Claim); provided that such Claim is not scheduled as contingent, disputed, or unliquidated and/or has not been paid; provided, further, that if the applicable Claims Bar Date has not expired prior to the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, a Claim listed in the Schedules as contingent, disputed, or unliquidated shall vote at $1.00;

b. Proofs of Claim filed for $0.00 or Claims scheduled for $0.00 are not eligible to vote;

c. notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any creditor who has filed or purchased duplicate Claims within the same Voting Class shall be provided with only one Solicitation Package and one Ballot for voting a single Claim in such Class, regardless of whether the Debtors have objected to such duplicate Claims;

d. to the extent a Holder of a Claim files a Proof of Claim prior to the Voting Record Date or Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, and during the solicitation period that amends or supersedes a Claim for which a Solicitation Package was previously distributed to the same Holder, the Debtors are not obligated to cause the Claims Agent to distribute an additional Solicitation Package to such Holder;

e. if a Proof of Claim has been amended by a later Proof of Claim that is filed on or prior to the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, the later-filed amending Claim shall be entitled to vote in a manner consistent with these Solicitation and Voting Procedures, and the earlier-filed Claim shall be disallowed for voting purposes, regardless of whether the Debtors have objected to such amended Claim. Except as otherwise ordered by the Court, any amendments to Proofs of Claim after the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, shall not be considered for purposes of these Solicitation and Voting Procedures; and

f. in the absence of any of the foregoing, such Claim shall be disallowed for voting purposes.

3. Voting and Ballot Tabulation Procedures.

The following voting procedures and standard assumptions shall be used in tabulating Ballots, subject to the Debtors' right to waive any of the below specified requirements for completion and submission of Ballots so long as (i) such waiver is noted in the Voting Report, and (ii) such requirement is not otherwise required by the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules, or Local Rules:

a. except as otherwise provided in these Solicitation and Voting Procedures, unless the Ballot being furnished is timely submitted and actually received by the Claims Agent on or prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline (as the same may be extended by the Debtors), the Debtors, in their sole discretion, shall be entitled to reject such Ballot as invalid and, therefore, not count it in connection with confirmation of the Plan;

b. the Claims Agent will date-stamp all Ballots when received;

c. the Claims Agent shall retain copies of Ballots and all solicitation-related correspondence for two (2) years following the closing of the Chapter 11 Cases, whereupon the Claims Agent is authorized to destroy and/or otherwise dispose of: (i) all copies of Ballots; (ii) printed solicitation materials, including unused copies of the Solicitation Package; and (iii) all solicitation-related correspondence (including undeliverable mail), in each case unless otherwise directed by the Debtors or the Clerk of the Court in writing within such two (2) year period;

d. the Debtors will file the Voting Report by no later than three (3) calendar days prior to the Combined Hearing;

e. the Voting Report shall, among other things, delineate every Ballot that was excluded from the voting results (each, an "Irregular Ballot"), including, but not limited to, those Ballots that are late or (in whole or in material part) illegible, unidentifiable, lacking signatures or other necessary information, or damaged, and the Voting Report shall indicate the Debtors' decision regarding such Irregular Ballots;

f. the Debtors, subject to a contrary order of the Court, may waive any defects or irregularities as to any particular Irregular Ballot at any time, either before or after the close of voting, and any such waivers will be documented in the Voting Report or a supplemental voting report, as applicable;

g. neither the Debtors nor any other Entity will be under any duty to provide notification of defects or irregularities with respect to delivered Ballots other than as provided in the Voting Report nor will any of them incur any liability for notification or failure to provide such notification;

h. unless waived or as ordered by the Court, any defects or irregularities in connection with submissions of Ballots must be cured prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline or such Ballots will not be counted; provided that a valid opt-in election on an otherwise defective or Irregular Ballot submitted prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline shall be honored as a valid opt-in election;

i. the method of delivery of Ballots to be sent to the Claims Agent is at the election and risk of each Holder, and except as otherwise provided, a Ballot will be deemed delivered only when the Claims Agent actually receives the executed Ballot;

j. an executed Ballot is required to be submitted by the Entity or its authorized representative submitting such Ballot;

k. delivery of a Ballot to the Claims Agent by email, facsimile, or any electronic means, other than expressly provided in the applicable Ballot or these Solicitation and Voting Procedures, will not be valid;

l. no Ballot should be sent to the Debtors, the Debtors' agents (other than the Claims Agent) or the Debtors' financial or legal advisors, and, if so sent, such Ballot will not be counted unless the same is otherwise validly submitted by other means;

m. if multiple Ballots are received from the same Holder with respect to the same Claim prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline, the last dated, properly submitted, valid Ballot timely received will be deemed to reflect that voter's intent and will supersede and revoke any prior received Ballot;

n. Holders must vote all of their Claims within a particular Class either to accept or reject the Plan and may not split any votes; accordingly, a Ballot that partially rejects and partially accepts the Plan will not be counted, and to the extent there are multiple Claims within the same Class, the applicable Debtor may, in its discretion, aggregate the Claims of any particular Holder within a Class for the purpose of tabulating votes;

o. Holders of Claims against multiple Debtors must vote such Claims either to accept or reject the Plan at each such Debtor and may not vote any such Claim to accept at one Debtor and reject at another Debtor; accordingly, a Ballot that rejects the Plan for a Claim at one Debtor and accepts the Plan for a Claim held by the same Holder at another Debtor will not be counted;

p. a person signing a Ballot in their capacity as a trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, attorney in fact, officer of a corporation, or otherwise acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity of a Holder of Claims must indicate such capacity when signing, and if required or requested by the Claims Agent, the Debtors, or the Court, must submit proper evidence of such fiduciary or representative capacity to the requesting party to so act on behalf of such Holder;

q. in the event a designation of lack of good faith is requested by a party in interest under section 1126(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court will determine whether any vote to accept and/or reject the Plan cast with respect to that Claim will be counted for purposes of determining whether the Plan has been accepted or rejected;

r. subject to any order of the Court, the Debtors reserve the right to reject any and all Ballots not in proper form, the acceptance of which, in the opinion of the Debtors, would not be in accordance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Rules; provided that any such rejections will be documented in the Voting Report;

s. if a Claim has been estimated or otherwise Allowed only for voting purposes by order of the Court, such Claim shall be temporarily Allowed in the amount so estimated or Allowed by the Court for voting purposes only and not for purposes of allowance or distribution;

t. if an objection to a Claim is filed, such Claim shall be treated in accordance with the procedures set forth herein;

u. the following Ballots shall not be counted in determining the acceptance or rejection of the Plan:

   i. any Ballot that is illegible or contains insufficient information to permit the identification of the Holder of such Claim;

   ii. any Ballot cast by any Entity that does not hold a Claim in a Voting Class;

   iii. any unsigned Ballot or Ballot lacking an original signature (for the avoidance of doubt, a Ballot submitted via the Claims Agent's online balloting portal shall be deemed to contain an original signature);

   iv. any Ballot not marked to accept or reject the Plan or marked both to accept and reject the Plan;

   v. any Ballot transmitted by any other means not specifically approved pursuant to the Disclosure Statement Order or contemplated by these Solicitation and Voting Procedures or by separate order of the Court;

   vi. any Ballot sent to any of the Debtors, the Debtors' agents or representatives, or the Debtors' advisors (other than the Claims Agent) unless such Ballot is otherwise submitted by proper means; and

   vii. any Ballot submitted by any Entity not entitled to vote pursuant to the procedures described herein;

v. after the Voting and Opt-In Deadline, no Ballot may be withdrawn or modified without the prior written consent of the Debtors or further order of the Court;

w. the Debtors are authorized to enter into stipulations with the Holder of any Claim, an email agreement between such Holder or its representatives and Debtors' counsel being sufficient, agreeing to the amount of a Claim for voting purposes;

x. where any portion of a single Claim has been transferred to a transferee, all Holders of any portion of such single Claim will be (i) treated as a single creditor for purposes of the numerosity requirements in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code (and for the other solicitation and voting procedures set forth herein) and (ii) required to vote every portion of such Claim collectively to accept or reject the Plan;

y. in the event that (i) a Ballot, (ii) a group of Ballots within a Voting Class received from a single creditor, or (iii) a group of Ballots received from the various Holders of multiple portions of a single Claim partially reject and partially accept the Plan, such Ballots shall not be counted; and

z. for purposes of the numerosity requirement of section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, separate Claims held by a single creditor in a particular Class will be aggregated and treated as if such creditor held one Claim in such Class, and all votes related to such Claim will be treated as a single vote to accept or reject the Plan; provided, however, that if separate affiliated entities, including any funds or accounts that are advised or managed by the same entity or by affiliated entities, hold Claims in a particular Class, these Claims will not be aggregated and will not be treated as if such Holders held one Claim in such Class, and the votes of each affiliated entity or managed fund or account will be counted separately for numerosity purposes as votes to accept or reject the Plan.

E. Amendments to the Plan and Solicitation and Voting Procedures.

The Debtors reserve the right to make non-substantive or immaterial changes to the Plan, Disclosure Statement, Solicitation and Voting Procedures, Ballots, Solicitation Package, Notice of Non-Voting Status, Opt-In Form, Combined Hearing Notice, Publication Notice, Cover Letter, Plan Supplement Notice, Rejection Notice, and any other notice attached hereto and any related documents without further order of the Court, including formatting changes, changes to correct typographical and grammatical errors, if any, and to make conforming changes to the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, and any other materials (including any appendices thereto) in the Solicitation Package before distribution.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, each Debtor and each Exculpated Party is hereby released and exculpated from any Claim, obligation, Cause of Action, or liability for any Exculpated Claim, except for gross negligence or willful misconduct, but in all respects each Debtor and each Exculpated Party shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to its duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan. The Debtors, their Estates, ~~and the Exculpated Parties~~the Independent Fiduciary, and the Debtors' professionals including White & Case LLP, IslandDundon LLC, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, and Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global have, and upon completion of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of the Plan and distributions pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for the following injunction (the "Injunction"):

Pursuant to section 362(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the automatic stay of an act against property of the Debtors' estates will continue until such property is no longer property of the Debtors' estates, and pursuant to section 362(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, the stay of any other act described in section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code continues until the earlier of the closure or dismissal of these Chapter 11 Cases. In addition, as of the Effective Date and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Plan or the Confirmation Order, all Persons and Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that are fully satisfied pursuant to the Plan or any Claim or Interest that is subject to the releases and exculpations set forth in the Plan shall be precluded and permanently enjoined on and after the Effective Date from enforcing, pursuing, or seeking any setoff or relief with respect to such Claims or Interests, except for the receipt of the payments or Distributions that are contemplated by the Plan.

For the avoidance of any doubt, no Person or Entity identified on the Schedule of Excluded Parties shall constitute a Released Party for purposes of the Plan.

Under the Plan, "Releasing Parties" means each of the following in its capacity as such: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the NOLA Purchaser; (c) the Asset Manager; (d) the Property Manager; (e) the NOLA DIP Lenders; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) each Holder of a Claim that affirmatively votes to accept the Plan; (h) each Holder of a Claim in Class 3, Class 4, Class 5, Class 6, and Class 7 who abstains or does not affirmatively vote to accept the Plan but checks the box on such Holder's Ballot indicating that such Holder opts to grant the releases contained in Article VIII of the Plan; (i) each Holder of a Claim in Class 1, Class 2, Class 8, Class 9, Class 10, Class 11, and Class 12 who checks the box on such Holder's Opt-In Form indicating that such Holder opts to grant the releases contained in Article VIII of the Plan; (j) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former ~~Affiliates, and such Entity's and its~~ ~~Affiliates'~~ subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (k) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent.

Under the Plan, "Exculpated Party" means, each of, and in each case, in its capacity as such~~:~~, (a) each Debtor solely in its capacity as a debtor and debtor in possession following the Petition Date and excluding such Debtor for the period prior to the Petition Date, (b) the Independent Fiduciary, (c) the Asset Manager, (d) the Property Manager, and (e) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. For the avoidance of any doubt, no Person or Entity identified on the Schedule of Excluded Parties shall constitute an Exculpated Party for purposes of the Plan.

Under the Plan, "Exculpated Claim" means any Claim related to any act or omission arising as of or following the Petition Date through the Effective Date in connection with, relating to, or arising out of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan, the NOLA Sale Transaction, or Restructuring Transactions, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation of any document in connection with the Plan, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Plan, the pursuit of Consummation, the Restructuring Transactions, the administration and implementation of the Plan, or the distribution of property pursuant to the Plan.

Item 4. Contributed Claims

If the Plan is confirmed, all Claims or Causes of Action, including Avoidance Actions, held by the Debtors or their Estates as of the Effective Date and the proceeds thereof, other than any Claims or Causes of Action against the Released Parties that are released under Article VIII of the Plan (collectively, the "NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action") will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

In addition to these NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, certain creditors may have direct Causes of Action against certain third parties associated with the Debtors, their predecessors, or respective Affiliates that are not released under the Plan. However, it may be difficult and expensive for individual creditors to sue third parties for losses. Accordingly, creditors can elect to contribute direct Causes of Action to the Creditor Recovery Trust. By opting to contribute Causes of Action to the Creditor Recovery Trust, you are giving the Creditor Recovery Trust the right to pursue those direct Causes of Action on your behalf together with other creditors. As a result, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be able to use trust resources to sue on account of those direct Causes of Action, and all recoveries will inure to the benefit of all Holders that agreed to contribute their Claims. In other words, if the Creditor Recovery Trust prevails on any Claims that you contribute, those recoveries will be distributed among all creditors that elected to contribute their Contributed Claims and will not be distributed solely to you. For the avoidance of doubt, the decision to "opt in" to contribute Claims is entirely voluntary, and the failure to "opt in" does not prejudice any electing creditors' rights.

By electing such option, you agree that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, you will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed your Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Debtors or the Creditor Recovery Trust to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

☐ CONTRIBUTED CLAIM ELECTION: By checking this box, you elect to contribute your Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust

Definitions related to the Contributed Claims

Under the Plan, "Contributed Claim" means any direct Cause of Action that any Contributing Claimant has against any Person (other than a Debtor) that had a direct relationship with the Debtors, their predecessors, or respective Affiliates and that harmed such Contributing Claimant in the claimant's capacity as a creditor of the Debtors, including (a) any Cause of Action based on, arising out of, or related to the alleged misrepresentation of any of the Debtors' financial information, business operations, or related internal controls; and (b) any Cause of Action based on, arising out of, or related to any alleged failure to disclose, or actual or attempted cover up or obfuscation of, any of the Debtors' conduct prior to the Petition Date; provided, however, that Contributed Claims do not include (i) any derivative claims of the Debtors, (ii) any direct claims against the Released Parties, (iii) any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law, ~~or~~ (iv) any claim of a Holder of a Crown Capital Unsecured Claim against Piper Sandler & Co. or any of its Affiliates or representatives~~.~~, and (v) any claim or cause of action against the Asset Manager or the Property Manager and such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals.

Under the Plan, "Contributing Claimant" means any Holder of a Claim or Interest that elects through its Ballot to contribute their Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust in order for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute such Contributed Claims for ~~the benefit of Holders of Claims entitled to receive the Distributable Value (as defined in the CBRM Plan) of the Creditor Recovery Trust~~their benefit.

The Debtors, their Estates, ~~and the Exculpated Parties~~the Independent Fiduciary, and the Debtors' professionals including White & Case LLP, IslandDundon LLC, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, and Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global have, and upon completion of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of the Plan and distributions pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

For the avoidance of any doubt, no Person or Entity identified on the Schedule of Excluded Parties shall constitute a Released Party for purposes of the Plan.

Under the Plan, "Releasing Parties" means each of the following in its capacity as such: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the NOLA Purchaser; (c) the Asset Manager; (d) the Property Manager; (e) the NOLA DIP Lenders; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) each Holder of a Claim that affirmatively votes to accept the Plan; (h) each Holder of a Claim in Class 3, Class 4, Class 5, Class 6, and Class 7 who abstains or does not affirmatively vote to accept the Plan but checks the box on such Holder's Ballot indicating that such Holder opts to grant the releases contained in Article VIII of the Plan; (i) each Holder of a Claim in Class 1, Class 2, Class 8, Class 9, Class 10, Class 11, and Class 12 who checks the box on such Holder's Opt-In Form indicating that such Holder opts to grant the releases contained in Article VIII of the Plan; (j) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former ~~Affiliates, and such Entity's and its~~ ~~Affiliates'~~ subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (k) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent.

Under the Plan, "Exculpated Party" means, each of, and in each case, in its capacity as such~~:~~, (a) each Debtor solely in its capacity as a debtor and debtor in possession following the Petition Date and excluding such Debtor for the period prior to the Petition Date, (b) the Independent Fiduciary, (c) the Asset Manager, (d) the Property Manager, and (e) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. For the avoidance of any doubt, no Person or Entity identified on the Schedule of Excluded Parties shall constitute an Exculpated Party for purposes of the Plan.

Under the Plan, "Exculpated Claim" means any Claim related to any act or omission arising as of or following the Petition Date through the Effective Date in connection with, relating to, or arising out of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan, the NOLA Sale Transaction, or Restructuring Transactions, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation of any document in connection with the Plan, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Plan, the pursuit of Consummation, the Restructuring Transactions, the administration and implementation of the Plan, or the distribution of property pursuant to the Plan.

Item 4. Contributed Claims

If the Plan is confirmed, all Claims or Causes of Action, including Avoidance Actions, held by the Debtors or their Estates as of the Effective Date and the proceeds thereof, other than any Claims or Causes of Action against the Released Parties that are released under Article VIII of the Plan (collectively, the "NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action") will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

In addition to these NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, certain creditors may have direct Causes of Action against certain third parties associated with the Debtors, their predecessors, or respective Affiliates that are not released under the Plan. However, it may be difficult and expensive for individual creditors to sue third parties for losses. Accordingly, creditors can elect to contribute direct Causes of Action to the Creditor Recovery Trust. By opting to contribute Causes of Action to the Creditor Recovery Trust, you are giving the Creditor Recovery Trust the right to pursue those direct Causes of Action on your behalf together with other creditors. As a result, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be able to use trust resources to sue on account of those direct Causes of Action, and all recoveries will inure to the benefit of all Holders that agreed to contribute their Claims. In other words, if the Creditor Recovery Trust prevails on any Claims that you contribute, those recoveries will be distributed among all creditors that elected to contribute their Contributed Claims and will not be distributed solely to you. For the avoidance of doubt, the decision to "opt in" to contribute Claims is entirely voluntary, and the failure to "opt in" does not prejudice any electing creditors' rights.

By electing such option, you agree that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, you will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed your Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Debtors or the Creditor Recovery Trust to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

☐ CONTRIBUTED CLAIM ELECTION: By checking this box, you elect to contribute your Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust

Definitions related to the Contributed Claims

Under the Plan, "Contributed Claim" means any direct Cause of Action that any Contributing Claimant has against any Person (other than a Debtor) that had a direct relationship with the Debtors, their predecessors, or respective Affiliates and that harmed such Contributing Claimant in the claimant's capacity as a creditor of the Debtors, including (a) any Cause of Action based on, arising out of, or related to the alleged misrepresentation of any of the Debtors' financial information, business operations, or related internal controls; and (b) any Cause of Action based on, arising out of, or related to any alleged failure to disclose, or actual or attempted cover up or obfuscation of, any of the Debtors' conduct prior to the Petition Date; provided, however, that Contributed Claims do not include (i) any derivative claims of the Debtors, (ii) any direct claims against the Released Parties, (iii) any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law, ~~or~~ (iv) any claim of a Holder of a Crown Capital Unsecured Claim against Piper Sandler & Co. or any of its Affiliates or representatives~~.~~, and (v) any claim or cause of action against the Asset Manager or the Property Manager and such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals.

Under the Plan, "Contributing Claimant" means any Holder of a Claim or Interest that elects through its Ballot to contribute their Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust in order for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute such Contributed Claims for ~~the benefit of Holders of Claims entitled to receive the Distributable Value (as defined in the CBRM Plan) of the Creditor Recovery Trust~~their benefit.

RE: CBRM Realty Inc., *et al.
Chapter 11 Case No. 25-15343 (MBK) (Jointly Administered)

TO ALL HOLDERS OF CLAIMS ENTITLED TO VOTE ON THE PLAN:

CBRM Realty Inc. and its affiliated debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors")[1] each filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court") on May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date").

You have received this letter (the "Cover Letter") and the enclosed materials because you are entitled to vote on the Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. ~~389~~501] (as modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time, the "Plan"). On [●], 2025, the Court entered an order [Docket No. [●]] (the "Disclosure Statement Order"): (i) authorizing the Debtors to solicit acceptances for the Plan; (ii) conditionally approving the Disclosure Statement for the Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. ~~390~~503] (as modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time, the "Disclosure Statement")[2] as containing "adequate information" pursuant to section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code; (iii) approving the solicitation materials and documents to be included in the solicitation packages (the "Solicitation Package"); (iv) approving procedures for soliciting, noticing, receiving, and tabulating votes on the Plan; (v) establishing certain deadlines to opt to grant the releases set forth in the Plan; and (vi) approving procedures for filing objections to confirmation of the Plan.

YOU ARE RECEIVING THIS LETTER BECAUSE YOU ARE ENTITLED TO VOTE ON THE PLAN. YOU SHOULD READ THIS LETTER CAREFULLY AND DISCUSS IT WITH YOUR ATTORNEY. IF YOU DO NOT HAVE AN ATTORNEY, YOU MAY WISH TO CONSULT ONE.

In addition to this letter, the enclosed materials comprise your Solicitation Package and were approved by the Court for distribution to Holders of Claims in connection with the solicitation of votes to accept or reject the Plan. Please review these materials carefully and follow the instructions contained therein. The Solicitation Package consists of the following, as applicable:

a. this Cover Letter;

b. a copy of the Solicitation and Voting Procedures;

c. the applicable form of Ballot, together with detailed instructions as to how to vote and submit the Ballot;

d. the Combined Hearing Notice;

e. the Disclosure Statement as approved by the Court (and exhibits thereto, including the Plan);

~~CBRM Realty Inc. (on behalf of itself and each of the other~~The Debtors~~) has~~ have approved the filing of the Plan and the solicitation of votes to accept or reject the Plan. The Debtors believe that the acceptance of the Plan is in the best interests of their estates, Holders of Claims and Interests, and all other parties in interest. Moreover, the Debtors believe that any alternative to confirmation of the Plan could result in extensive delays and increased administrative expenses, which, in turn, likely would result in smaller distributions on account of Claims asserted in the Chapter 11 Cases.

THE DEBTORS STRONGLY URGE YOU TO PROPERLY AND TIMELY SUBMIT YOUR BALLOT CASTING A VOTE TO ACCEPT THE PLAN AND MAKING CERTAIN ELECTIONS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INSTRUCTIONS ON YOUR BALLOT.

THE DEADLINE TO VOTE TO ACCEPT OR REJECT THE PLAN AND OPT TO GRANT THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASE IS OCTOBER 10, 2025 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).
