DEBTORS' APPLICATION FOR ORDER SHORTENING TIME

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors"), by and through their undersigned proposed counsel, request that the time period to notice a hearing on the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Conditionally Approving the Adequacy of the Information Contained in the Disclosure Statement for the NOLA Debtors, (II) Approving the Solicitation and Voting Procedures with Respect to Confirmation of the Plan, (III) Approving the Form of Ballots and Notices in Connection Therewith, (IV) Scheduling Certain Dates with Respect Thereto, and (V) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 391], filed contemporaneously herewith (the "Disclosure Statement Motion"), as required by Fed. 2. State the hearing dates requested: September 4, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

3. Reduction of the time period is not prohibited under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9006(c)(1).

[2] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Disclosure Statement Motion.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter the Order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, granting the relief as is just and proper under the circumstances.

DECLARATION OF JUSTIN UTZ, IN SUPPORT OF FINAL APPROVAL OF THE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT AND CONFIRMATION OF THE AMENDED JOINT CHAPTER 11 PLAN OF CBRM REALTY INC. AND CERTAIN OF ITS DEBTOR AFFILIATES

I, Justin Utz, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, hereby declare that the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief:

1. I am the Chief Financial Officer of The Lynd Group Holdings, LLC and its subsidiaries and affiliates including Lynd Management Group, LLC, LAGSP, LLC, and Kelly Hamilton Lender, LLC (collectively, "Lynd"). Lynd is the property manager and asset manager of the Debtors. Based on my work with the Debtors, my review of relevant documents, and my discussions with members of the Debtors' management team and other professionals, including the Independent Fiduciary,[2] I am familiar with the Debtors' day-to-day operations, business affairs, and capital structure. I submit this declaration (this "Declaration") in support of final approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan for Debtors CBRM Realty Inc., Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC, and Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC.

2. Except where specifically noted, the statements in this Declaration are based upon: my personal knowledge of the Debtors' operations, business affairs, financial performance, and restructuring efforts; (b) information learned from my review of relevant documents; and

[2] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 469] (including all exhibits and supplements thereto and as may be modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time, the "Plan"), the Disclosure Statement for the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 360, Ex. A] (including all exhibits thereto and as may be modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time, the "Disclosure Statement"), or the Order (I) Conditionally Approving the Adequacy of the Information Contained in the Disclosure Statement, (II) Approving the Solicitation and Voting Procedures with Respect to Confirmation of the Plan, (III) Approving the Form of Ballots and Notices in Connection Therewith, (IV) Scheduling Certain Dates with Respect Thereto, and (V) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 347] (the "Disclosure Statement Order"), as applicable.

(c) information I have received from members of the Debtors' management or the Debtors' advisors.

3. I am over the age of 18 and authorized to submit this Declaration on behalf of the Debtors. I am not being compensated for this testimony other than through payments received by Lynd as a professional engaged by the Debtors; none of those payments are specifically payable on account of this testimony. If called upon to testify, I could and would testify competently to the statements set forth in this Declaration, as the information in this Declaration is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge.

I. Background and Qualifications

4. I have been the Chief Operating Officer and subsequently the Chief Financial Officer of Lynd since 2021. Lynd is a leading operator, developer, and investor for multifamily properties. Among other things, Lynd typically provides property management, asset management and financial reporting, business operations, construction, and related services to multifamily properties across the United States.

5. I have over 25 years of management and operations experience. I previously worked as Chief Financial and Chief Operating Officer for GDC Technics, a bespoke manufacturer of head of state aircraft interiors. I received a Master of Business Administration from Southern Methodist University and an associate of applied sciences degree from Texas State Technical College.

II. Lynd Steps in Prepetition to Support the Kelly Hamilton Property in the Wake of Mr. Silber's Guilty Plea

6. Lynd Management Group serves as the Property Manager for the Kelly Hamilton Property, pursuant to that certain Amended and Restated Property Management Agreement dated June 10, 2025. As the property manager for the Kelly Hamilton Property, Lynd Management provides on-site personnel and oversees all day-to-day property-level functions, including leasing, maintenance, compliance with regulatory obligations, and the coordination of services for residents. LAGSP serves as asset manager for the Debtors pursuant to that certain Asset Management Agreement dated June 10, 2025. As the asset manager for the Kelly Hamilton Property, LAGSP provides strategic oversight of the Kelly Hamilton Property's operations, ensures compliance with financing and regulatory obligations, and assists in capital planning and financial reporting.

7. Kelly Hamilton Property is a 110-unit multifamily residential apartment complex located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The Kelly Hamilton Property serves low-income tenants and participates in various government-supported housing programs, including Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD") housing assistance and rent-restricted programs under applicable regulatory agreements.

8. There are two separate HUD approvals necessary for Kelly Hamilton. First, an approval as property manager which Lynd received in August 2025. The second necessary approval is HUD's approval as "owner." This step has not been completed yet, but Lynd has submitted all of the relevant documents to HUD, and they are processing the request. This approval remains a condition to close.

9. The Kelly Hamilton Property is a vital affordable housing resource in its local community. Rent payments from tenants, including subsidies paid directly by the HAP contract, represent the Debtors' primary source of revenue. The Debtors do not have employees of their own and instead rely on third-party professionals, such as Lynd, to manage and operate the Kelly Hamilton Property. Approval as the HAP contract administrator for the Kelly Hamilton Property was more difficult than usual given the ownership and authority challenges the Crown Capital Portfolio faces as a result of Mr. Silber's guilty plea. Nonetheless, Lynd has received approval as management agent for the HAP contract for the Kelly Hamilton Property in mid-August 2025.

10. At the time that Lynd became the asset and property manager, the Kelly Hamilton Property faced significant, preexisting challenges. The units were in extremely poor condition and needed significant upgrades and repairs. There were critical gaps in the property's administrative and record-keeping processes that posed significant risks to both operational efficiency and financial accuracy. The property faced significant "bad debt" and numerous vacant or unoccupied units. Additionally, these challenges were compounded when Moshe "Mark" Silber, who managed the Debtors, entered into a plea agreement with the Fraud Section of the Department of Justice and the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey for conspiracy to commit wire fraud affecting an institution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 371. The plea agreement was filed publicly on July 9, 2024, and was dated April 17, 2024.

11. As discussed in these chapter 11 cases, Mr. Silber was effectively disqualified from continuing to manage the Debtors following his guilty plea. Pursuant to a forbearance agreement entered between Mr. Silber and certain noteholders on August 29, 2024, it was required that Mr. Silber appoint an independent fiduciary acceptable to the noteholders as the sole director of CBRM Realty Inc. and Crown Capital Holdings LLC, providing that individual with an irrevocable proxy for so long as the obligations under the forbearance agreement remained pending.

12. On September 26, 2024, the noteholders party to the forbearance agreement consented to the appointment of Ms. Elizabeth A. LaPuma as the Independent Fiduciary. Since that time, Ms. LaPuma has acted in a fiduciary capacity for those entities and the dozens of other entities directly or indirectly owned by CBRM, including the Debtors. Lynd continued to serve as the asset and property manager to the Kelly Hamilton Property and served as an advisor to the Independent Fiduciary along with other professionals.

13. Lynd has been engaged, and in consistent contact, with HUD from the beginning of its tenure as the asset manager of the Kelly Hamilton Property, which occurred starting on February 3, 2025. Prior to Lynd's involvement in the portfolio, Landex Management aka Winn Companies ("Winn") was hired as the property manager for the Kelly Hamilton Property, among other properties in the portfolio. On September 27, 2024, Winn provided notice of termination of the management agreements calling from a transfer of management oversite on October 31, 2024. On October 3, 2024, HUD issued a notice to Winn requiring them to continue as the manager pending HUD approval of a replacement management agent. Therefore, the Kelly Hamilton Property was left in "limbo" with a lame duck management agent who failed to address tenant complaints. Lynd stepped in to manage the property when Winn virtually abandoned the Kelly Hamilton Property. Lynd submitted to HUD for approval as management agent, but due to conflicting issues with authority related to Silber's ownership, HUD did not provide the appropriate approvals. After continued discussion trying to overcome the ownership issue with HUD, once Winn abandoned the property, Lynd stepped in on an unapproved, emergency basis to manage the Kelly Hamilton Property.

14. Ultimately, the Debtors entered bankruptcy in order to be able to provide HUD with definitive court approval of ownership signature authority. Since that time, Lynd has worked carefully, constructively, and collaboratively with HUD to become the HUD-approved property manager of the Kelly Hamilton Property. On August 25, 2025, HUD approved Lynd Management Group as the management agent for the Kelly Hamilton Property.

15. Lynd delivered an asset recovery plan to the Independent Fiduciary, the Debtors' financial advisor, and Debtors' counsel. In connection with that plan, and alongside other professionals retained in this case, Lynd conducted a thorough analysis of the Debtors' properties, including the Kelly Hamilton Property, to determine which, if any, had value in excess of their mortgage balances that could support equity. This analysis included an on-site inspection of the Kelly Hamilton Property and a review of the property's financial documents. As a result of this analysis, Lynd determined that the Kelly Hamilton Property had potential equity value but required asset stabilization and capital funding to make its units rent-ready and to correct conditions on the property.

16. Despite the potential equity value in the Kelly Hamilton Property, it was nearly impossible to obtain financing for that property due to the guilty plea by Mr. Silber. Generally, lenders are unwilling to provide capital or financing to counterparties controlled by parties with felony convictions. Further, Mr. Silber entered into a plea agreement which provided for criminal forfeiture to the US government. Given that Mr. Silber is the sole equity holder of CBRM, which is the parent entity of the Debtors, many financing parties refused to provide capital for out-of-court restructuring efforts. Without additional capital, combined with the Debtors' limited liquidity, capital needs, and the legacy deferred maintenance burden, the Debtors' ability to stabilize operations and maintain compliance with regulatory standards was impossible. As such, the Debtors commenced these chapter 11 cases to facilitate an in-court restructuring and sale process to obtain critical funding for necessary operations of the Kelly Hamilton Property, to safeguard resident health and safety, and to maximize value for the Debtors' estates and recoveries for their creditors.

III. Lynd Continues to Provide Critical Support to the Kelly Hamilton Property During These Chapter 11 Cases

17. As disclosed throughout these cases, 3650 SS1 Pittsburgh LLC (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender" or the "Kelly Hamilton Purchaser") agreed to provide the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, which is a $9.7 million senior secured, superpriority debtor-in-possession credit facility, subject to the Court's approval. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender is a vehicle created by 3650 REIT Investment Management LLC ("3650 REIT"), which is Lynd's financing partner. Lynd holds a participating interest in 3650 SS1 Pittsburgh, LLC through its affiliate Kelly Hamilton Lender, LLC. On May 28, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Postpetition Financing, (II) Granting Liens and Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (III) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (IV) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 61], seeking entry of interim and final orders approving the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, as well as related relief. On June 4, 2025, the Court entered the Interim Order (I) Authorizing the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties to Obtain Senior Secured Priming Superpriority Postpetition Financing, (II) Granting Liens and Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (III) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (IV) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 108]. On June 19, 2025, the Court entered the Final Order (I) Authorizing the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties to Obtain Senior Secured Priming Superpriority Postpetition Financing, (II) Granting Liens and Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (III) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (IV) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 178] (the "Final Order").

18. On June 11, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order Authorizing the Debtors to Assume Certain Amended and Restated Property Management and Asset Management Agreements [Docket No. 128] seeking authority to assume critical prepetition property management and staffing contracts with Lynd Management and LAGSP, which provided essential onsite and centralized services to the Debtors' multifamily housing portfolio, including the Kelly Hamilton Property. On June 18, 2025, the Court entered the Order Authorizing the Assumption of Certain Amended and Restated Property Management Agreements and Asset Management Agreement [Docket No. 171]. The assumptions of Lynd's contracts allowed the Debtors to preserve value and maintain operational stability, continuity, and compliance with regulatory requirements, and safeguard resident health and safety throughout the chapter 11 process.

19. In accordance with the approved budget attached to the Final Order, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility provides $1.3 million in "Kelly Hamilton Capex – Phase 1" and $313,000 in working capital. "Kelly Hamilton Capex – Phase 1" refers to capital expenditures relating to interior unit improvement including the repair of occupied and unoccupied units. Additionally, funds were allocated for exterior repairs, plumbing repairs, and water conservation. Working capital refers to money used to sustain the operating expenditures of the property including utility payments, insurance, interest expenses and similar operating expenses. In accordance with the Final Order, Lynd, at the Debtors' direction, commenced repairs utilizing the allocated funds to improve and stabilize operations at the Kelly Hamilton Property.

20. A true and correct copy of the postpetition expenditures under the "Kelly Hamilton Capex – Phase 1" and "Working Capital" made by the Debtors are attached as Exhibit A. Lynd has issued contracts for the entire Capex budget. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility was used as a bridge to fund the operations of the Kelly Hamilton Property during these chapter 11 cases. A more permanent solution is necessary for the Kelly Hamilton Property to stabilize in the short term and long term.

IV. The Kelly Hamilton Purchaser and Lynd's Preparations for the Kelly Hamilton Property Post-Confirmation

21. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility specifically contemplated that the Kelly Hamilton Lender was entitled, subject to Court approval, to enter into a stalking horse purchase agreement with respect to the Kelly Hamilton Property under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. On July 11, 2025, the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser entered into the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement, subject to the Court's approval. On July 24, 2025, the Court entered the Order (I) Approving (A) Bidding Procedures, the Sale Timeline, and the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof for the Kelly Hamilton Property, (B) the Debtors' Entry into and Performance under the Stalking Horse Agreement, (C) Bid Protections in Connection with the Stalking Horse Agreement, and (D) Assumption and Assignment Procedures, and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 325] approving the Bidding Procedures, the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement, the bid protections, and all related relief requested in the Bidding Procedures Motion. On August 15, 2025, the Debtors filed the Notice of Cancellation of Auction and Designation of the Stalking Horse Bid as the Successful Bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property [Docket No. 383], notifying the Court and the public that the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser was designated as the Successful Bidder in accordance with the Bidding Procedures.

22. The Kelly Hamilton Purchaser has demonstrated that they are up to the task of becoming the owners of the Kelly Hamilton Property. They are getting the necessary work done for the benefit of residents and to preserve the Kelly Hamilton Property as a vital, multi-family housing going concern in the Pittsburgh community. Lynd understands the scope of the work necessary to be done at Kelly Hamilton Property, the necessary budget to address the scope of this work, and the necessary funding to accomplish this work. Lynd is preparing not only for ownership of the Kelly Hamilton Property in the short term, but also to care for the property in the long term.

23. First, Lynd has commissioned multiple inspections of the Kelly Hamilton Property. As mentioned above, Lynd conducted an inspection when it first became the asset manager of the Kelly Hamilton Property. Thereafter, 3650 REIT during its due diligence and negotiation of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility commissioned their own third-party inspection of the Kelly Hamilton Property. As recently as August 5, 2025, Lynd and its lending partners commissioned another third-party project capital needs reports for the Kelly Hamilton Property. Additionally, Lynd voluntarily engaged a third-party to conduct a National Standards for the Physical Inspection of Real Estate ("NSPIRE") pre-inspection of the Kelly Hamilton Property, which is scheduled for early September 2025. Lynd utilized these reports to develop a budget for the repair and sustainability needs of the Kelly Hamilton Property.

24. Second, Lynd has created a budget for capital expenditures, including renovations and servicing. Lynd has taken steps to ensure it will have the necessary dollars to undertake these projects. Relying on Lynd's expertise, Lynd has budgeted $1.4 million to address the necessary capital expenditures. Lynd has committed more capital than each of the third party reports identified as required.

25. Third, while the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement requires HUD to consent to the assignment of the HAP Contract before the sale can close, the Debtors are advancing through HUD's established process for the assignment of the HAP contract and are confident they will receive HUD's consent. The Kelly Hamilton Purchaser has engaged with HUD for weeks, held calls with HUD, and submitted the necessary materials for HUD's review. HUD has acknowledged the Court-approved milestones in these Chapter 11 Cases and is coordinating its internal review accordingly. The Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement includes a scheduled closing date. HUD is aware of that closing date.

26. During the course of these cases, Lynd and its counsel have communicated the above points, the cash flow issues of the property, and Lynd's plan to address the Kelly Hamilton Property with various stakeholders, including both Plan objectors. Lynd has invited these stakeholders and the City of Pittsburgh to the property to view the progress that has been made. To date, the City of Pittsburgh and other objectors have not accepted Lynd's offer to view the property.

27. Approval of the Sale Transaction is critical to the Debtor's ability to provide safe and sustainable living to Tenants. Lynd's ability to improve the property, for the benefit of all residents and the Debtors' stakeholders is conditioned upon its ability to close on the Sale Transaction. If Lynd closes on the property, it has a budget and a set of work orders to restore the Kelly Hamilton Property that it is ready to implement immediately. Lynd is confident of its ability to get the necessary funding from HUD and the assignment of the HAP contracts in light of the above, and to take the necessary next steps to restore the Kelly Hamilton Property as a vital, affordable housing resource for the Pittsburgh community.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

DECLARATION OF MATTHEW DUNDON, PRINCIPAL OF ISLANDDUNDON LLC, IN SUPPORT OF FINAL APPROVAL OF THE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT AND CONFIRMATION OF THE AMENDED JOINT CHAPTER 11 PLAN OF CBRM REALTY INC. AND CERTAIN OF ITS DEBTOR AFFILIATES

I, Matthew Dundon, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, hereby declare that the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief:

1. I am a Principal of Dundon Advisers LLC ("Dundon") and its real estate restructuring affiliate IslandDundon LLC ("IslandDundon"), the proposed financial advisor for the above-captioned debtors and debtors-in-possession (collectively, the "Debtors"). Based on my work with the Debtors, my review of relevant documents, and my discussions with members of the Debtors' management team and other professionals, including the Independent Fiduciary,[2] I am familiar with the Debtors' day-to-day operations, business affairs, capital structure, and the claims filed against the estates. I submit this declaration (this "Declaration") in support of final approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan for Debtors CBRM Realty Inc., Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC, and Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC.[3]

2. Except where specifically noted, the statements in this Declaration are based upon: (a) my personal knowledge of the Debtors' operations, business affairs, financial performance, and

[2] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 469] (including all exhibits and supplements thereto and as may be modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time, the "Plan"), Disclosure Statement for the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 360, Ex. [3] It is my understanding that in parallel, the Debtors are pursuing a dual-track process for four multifamily affordable housing complexes located in New Orleans, Louisiana (the "NOLA Properties"). That process is being advanced through a separate but coordinated proposed chapter 11 plan (including all exhibits thereto and as may be modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time, the "Crown Plan") [Docket No. 389] that contemplates a Court-supervised marketing and sale process for the NOLA Properties. The Debtors that are subject to the proposed Crown Plan are Crown Capital Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC, Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC, RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Copper Creek restructuring efforts; (b) information learned from my review of relevant documents; and (c) information I have received from members of the Debtors' management or the Debtors' advisors. This Declaration is intended to supplement, and does not overlap with the factual content set forth in, the Declaration of Evan J. Gershbein of Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global Regarding the Solicitation of Votes and Tabulation of Ballots Cast on Joint Chapter 11 Plan of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 462] (the "Voting Report"), filed contemporaneously herewith.

If called upon to testify, I could and would testify competently to the statements set forth in this Declaration, as the information in this Declaration is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge.

I. Background and Qualifications

4. I have been a principal of Dundon since 2016 and of IslandDundon and its predecessor joint venture vehicles with Island Capital Group LLC ("Island") since 2019. Dundon provides financial restructuring and asset management advice and places loans and other nonsecurities financings on the primary and secondary markets. Island invests in real estate transactions and holds interests in real estate services concerns. I previously worked as a credit hedge fund portfolio manager (2010 to 2016), an institutional brokerage fixed income analyst and head of research (2003 to 2010), and a securities and leveraged finance attorney (1998 to 2003).

LLC, RH Lakewind East LLC, and RH Windrun LLC. To the extent the Crown Plan becomes effective, the Crown Debtors will transfer to the Creditor Recovery Trust certain assets, including causes of action, proceeds from the sale of the NOLA Properties, and specified equity interests of the Debtors, thereby further enhancing recoveries for creditors across these Estates.

5. I have worked directly with the Debtors, their management, and other advisors to provide services in connection with the preparation, filing, and implementation of the above-captioned chapter 11 cases. Among other things, I have personally been involved in or oversaw the preparation of the liquidation analysis attached to the Disclosure Statement as Exhibit C (the "Liquidation Analysis") and the Debtors' analysis of the claims filed in these Chapter 11 Cases.

6. I received a Juris Doctor from the University of Chicago Law School and a Bachelor of Arts from the University of California at Berkeley. My testimony and declarations in relation to complex chapter 11 matters are regularly accepted by bankruptcy courts in this and many other districts.

II. Preliminary Statement

7. The Debtors own and operate the Kelly Hamilton Apartments, a multifamily affordable housing complex in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (the "Kelly Hamilton Property"). The Kelly Hamilton Property provides rent-restricted housing to low-income residents and is supported in part by government housing programs. Preserving this property is essential not only to maximizing the value of the Debtors' Estates, but also to maintaining a critical affordable housing resource for the Pittsburgh community.

8. On May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors filed these chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases"). On August 18, 2025, Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC filed a voluntary petition with this Court under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. These filings were necessitated by severe operational, financial, and governance challenges stemming from mismanagement of the broader Crown Capital Portfolio and the criminal conviction of its ultimate equity owner, Mark "Moshe" Silber. These issues precipitated liquidity constraints, declining property performance, and increasing creditor enforcement actions across the portfolio.

9. Since the Petition Date, and under the direction of the Independent Fiduciary, the Debtors have stabilized operations, secured postpetition financing, and conducted a robust Court-supervised marketing and sale process designed to maximize value for stakeholders. Upon completing that marketing process, the Debtors are prepared to confirm the Plan that provides for the implementation of the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property to 3650 SS1 Pittsburgh LLC (the "Kelly Hamilton Purchaser"), in accordance with the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement (the "Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction").

10. I believe that confirmation of the Plan is the best available path to conclude the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases and maximize creditor recoveries. The Plan implements the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, provides for the satisfaction of Allowed Other Priority Claims, Other Secured Claims, Kelly Hamilton Go-Forward Trade Claims, and Other Kelly Hamilton Unsecured Claims, and establishes a Creditor Recovery Trust for the benefit of certain creditors as set forth in the Plan (such creditors, the "Trust Beneficiaries").[4] The Creditor Recovery Trustee will be responsible for administering, prosecuting, settling, or monetizing the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets for the benefit of the Trust Beneficiaries as set forth in the Plan, and making distributions in accordance with the Plan and Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

11. Following consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction and the Effective Date of the Plan, the Debtors will no longer operate an ongoing business and will wind down their affairs. A Wind-Down Officer selected by the Debtors will oversee the wind down, dissolution, and liquidation of the Debtors' Estates in accordance with the Plan.

[4] The Trust Beneficiaries shall include Holders of all Allowed CBRM Unsecured Claims and, to the extent the Crown Plan is confirmed, Holders of all Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims (each as defined in the Crown Plan).

12. The Plan ensures that the Debtors' Estates can be wound down efficiently while maximizing recoveries for creditors and is the culmination of complex, arms'-length negotiations among the Debtors, creditors, and other stakeholders. For the reasons set forth below, confirmation of the Plan is in the best interests of the Debtors' Estates.

III. The Sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property

13. As set forth in the Declaration of Matthew Dundon, Principal of IslandDundon LLC, in Support of Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Approving (A) Bidding Procedures, the Sale Timeline, and the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof for the Kelly Hamilton Property, (B) the Debtors Entry into and Performance Under the Stalking Horse Agreement, (C) Bid Protections in Connection with the Stalking Horse Agreement, and (D) Assumption and Assignment Procedures, and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 313] (the "Bidding Procedures Declaration"), IslandDundon advised the Debtors in connection with one or more postpetition transaction(s) concerning the Kelly Hamilton Property with the goal of maximizing its value for the Debtors' stakeholders. The Bidding Procedures Declaration is incorporated by reference.

A. The Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction Was Entered Into in Good Faith

14. With IslandDundon's assistance, the Debtors entered into arms'-length negotiations with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, which ultimately agreed to serve as the "stalking horse bidder" for the Kelly Hamilton Property. See Bidding Procedures Declaration. The Debtors, with the help of their advisors, evaluated the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender's proposed terms to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property and determined that acceptance of the terms proposed by the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender was in the best interests of the Estates. See id. Accordingly, on July 11, 2025, the Kelly Hamilton Debtor and the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser entered into the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement whereby the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender agreed to credit bid the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim (each as defined in the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement), to acquire substantially all of the Kelly Hamilton Property owned by the Kelly Hamilton Debtor. See id.

15. The Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement was negotiated at arm's length, without collusion or fraud, and in good faith. I believe this is evidenced by, among other things: (i) the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser has recognized that the Debtors were free to engage with any party in connection with the marketing and sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property, (ii) the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser has complied with all applicable provisions of the Bidding Procedures Order, (iii) Kelly Hamilton Purchaser's bid was subjected to the competitive and robust bidding process set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order, and (iv) the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement has been disclosed, is attached as Exhibit 4 to the Bidding Procedures Order, and is reasonable and appropriate.

B. The Debtors Complied with the Bidding Procedures Order and Pursued a Robust Marketing Process

16. In parallel, pursuant to the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors and their advisors continued the robust marketing process to test the market and ensure that no higher or better offers were available for the Kelly Hamilton Property. Specifically, the Debtors, with the assistance of IslandDundon and Hilco Real Estate, LLC, the Debtors' real estate advisor, contacted 125 potentially interested parties who received a non-confidential marketing overview, and provided further diligence materials to the nineteen parties who executed confidentiality agreements.

17. Parties in interest were afforded approximately five weeks between the filing of the Debtors' Bidding Procedures Motion [Docket No. 281] and the bid deadline of August 14, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) to diligence and formulate bids for the Kelly Hamilton

Property, which I believe was reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances of these Chapter 11 Cases. I believe the bidding procedures approved by the Court ensured that all qualified bids could be solicited, reviewed, and evaluated in a manner consistent with the milestones and confirmation timeline outlined in the Debtors' solicitation procedures.

18. Despite the robust outreach and diligence process, no qualifying alternative bids were received for the Kelly Hamilton Property on or before August 15, 2025. On August 14, 2025, two offers were received for less than a qualifying offer. Neither bid was submitted with a marked asset purchase agreement as instructed and there was no reason to believe that additional time would lead to a qualifying bid under the Bidding Procedures Order. I believe that there was no realistic prospect that any party could have negotiated and financed an executable transaction even in the absence of the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser's credit bid. The lack of competing bids was attributable to the distressed condition of the property and the broader financial and operational context—not any flaw or impropriety in the marketing process.

19. As a result, on August 15, 2025, the Debtors cancelled the auction and designated the stalking horse bid submitted by the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser as the successful bid. See Notice of Cancellation of Auction and Designation of the Stalking Horse Bid as the Successful Bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property [Docket No. 383]. The Debtors determined that accepting the stalking horse bid and consummating a sale on its terms was in the best interests of the Estates, especially considering the drastic impact to the Estates of being unable to consummate the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property. Consistent with that determination, the Debtors now seek to effectuate the terms of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction through the Plan.

20. If the Plan is not confirmed or does not go effective, I believe there is no assurance that the Debtors would, and I doubt that the Debtors could, be able to implement an alternative transaction that would provide recoveries equal to or greater than those contemplated by the Plan, inclusive of the consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction. The Plan is based on the consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction and the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' Estates. It is my understanding that the Debtors do not have an alternative transaction or plan of reorganization currently negotiated, proposed or available. If the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction is not consummated, I believe the Debtors may be required to convert these Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or seek the dismissal of these Chapter 11 Cases, either of which would likely result in significantly lower recoveries for Holders of Allowed Claims and prove detrimental to the Debtors' stakeholders. It is very questionable whether the Debtors or any chapter 7 trustee would have sufficient financial resources to operate the Kelly Hamilton Property, which is a grave concern under these circumstances, particularly given the imminent winter season and the corresponding increase in utility and maintenance expenses. The Kelly Hamilton Property provides a valuable service to its residents and the broader Pittsburgh community and will benefit from access to a properly-capitalized sponsor.

C. The Debtors Gave Proper Notice of the Confirmation and Sale Hearing

21. It is my understanding that, in order for the Debtors to consummate the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, proper notice must be provided to interested parties. I believe the Debtors complied with their notice obligations by filing the Notice of Proposed Sale, Entry into Stalking Horse Agreement, Bidding Procedures, Auction, and Confirmation and Sale Hearing (the "Sale Notice") [Docket No. 333] and serving this notice on interested parties in accordance with this Court's Bidding Procedures Order. The Sale Notice, among other things, provided the date of the auction for the Kelly Hamilton Property (if any) and set the deadline to object to the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Debtors also published the Sale Notice in the Newark Star Ledger and the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette. See Affidavit of Publication of Notice of Proposed Sale,

Entry into Stalking Horse Agreement, Bidding Procedures, Auction, and Confirmation and Sale Hearing [Docket No. 366].

IV. The Plan

22. The Plan is the product of extensive, arm's-length negotiations among the Debtors, the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser, Spano, and other key stakeholders. These negotiations resulted in a consensual framework that resolved competing creditor interests and provided a clear path to maximize value through the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction and the Wind-Down of the Debtors' Estates following consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, including the creation of a Creditor Recovery Trust. The Debtors worked constructively with their stakeholders throughout the process, incorporating their comments into both the Plan and the Confirmation Order.

23. Importantly, the Plan reflects hard-fought but constructive compromises. For example, it provides for the release of certain Released Parties in exchange for substantial contributions that facilitated the Plan's implementation, while at the same time preserving other causes of action to be pursued for the benefit of unsecured creditors through the Creditor Recovery Trust.

24. As set forth below, in exchange for the releases granted under the Plan, the Released Parties made meaningful and valuable contributions to these Chapter 11 Cases, including by providing financing, support, and concessions that were critical to enabling the consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction. Without these efforts, creditors likely would have faced the lower recoveries of a piecemeal liquidation under chapter 7. I believe that, as a result, the Plan will provide Holders of Allowed Unsecured Claims with materially greater recoveries than they would receive in any alternative restructuring scenario.

25. Additionally, my team and I, with the assistance of the Debtors and White & Case LLP, prepared the Liquidation Analysis. The Liquidation Analysis represents a good-faith estimate of what creditors would recover in a hypothetical liquidation under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. The analysis, methodology, and assumptions applied as part of the Liquidation Analysis are set out in greater detail therein. Based on my experience with the Debtors, my review of their books and records, and my experience as a restructuring advisor, I believe that the methodology used to prepare the Liquidation Analysis is appropriate and the assumptions and conclusions set forth therein are fair and reasonable under the circumstances.

A. The Debtor Releases Were Hard Fought and Are Narrowly Tailored

26. Article VIII.C of the Plan sets forth certain releases granted by the Debtors and their Estates (the "Debtor Releases"). These provisions are the product of good-faith, arm's-length negotiations among the Debtors and their key stakeholders, informed by the extensive investigation and review undertaken by the Independent Fiduciary and the Debtors' professionals. The releases are narrowly tailored, supported by valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties—including their efforts to negotiate and implement the Plan and their contributions that enabled the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction and the establishment of the Creditor Recovery Trust—and are critical to achieving the settlements embodied in the Plan. I believe that the Debtor Releases included in the Plan constitute an appropriate exercise of the Debtors' business judgment and are fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Debtors and their Estates.

27. I believe that each of the Released Parties has been an active participant in these Chapter 11 Cases and has provided a significant and substantial contribution warranting the release of claims embodied in the Debtor Releases. All of the Debtors' Released Parties engaged as crucial participants in the Plan process and share a common goal with the Debtors in seeing the Plan succeed. During Plan negotiations and related discussions, the Released Parties demonstrated a desire to seek to confirm the Plan and implement the transactions contemplated thereunder. Each Released Party has worked constructively with the Debtors and their advisors, including my team, to promote their wind-down efforts, both prior to and following the Petition Date.

28. Since September 26, 2024, the Independent Fiduciary has acted in a fiduciary capacity for the Debtors and other non-debtor entities owned by Debtors CBRM Realty Inc. and Crown Capital Holdings LLC. See Declaration of Matthew Dundon, Principal of IslandDundon LLC, in Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Pleadings [Docket No. 44] (the "First Day Declaration").[5] Prior to the Petition Date, the Independent Fiduciary took steps to revitalize the Debtors' portfolio, including by ensuring that each property owned by the portfolio had sufficient staffing and other resources, with the goal of ensuring that residents had safe, clean homes, as well as providing periodic updates to the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes (the "Noteholders"). Since the Petition Date, the Independent Fiduciary has engaged with the Debtors' professionals and stakeholders to promote the Debtors' restructuring efforts, including by directing and overseeing the negotiation and execution of the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement, the marketing of the Kelly Hamilton Property, and the proposed Plan.

29. Similarly, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser are active participants in these Chapter 11 Cases, providing both the debtor-in-possession financing needed to reach confirmation and the successful bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property. Accordingly, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser maintain a strong interest—which they have demonstrated through their hard work during the cases and in Plan negotiations—

[5] The First Day Declaration and the Declaration of Matthew Dundon, Principal of IslandDundon LLC, in Support of Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Postpetition Financing, (II) Granting Liens and Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (III) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (IV) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 156] are incorporated by reference.

in seeing the Plan confirmed and the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction contemplated therein be consummated.

30. I understand that, based on my review of relevant documents and conversations with the Noteholders, the Noteholders also played a crucial role in the Plan process. As stakeholders, the Noteholders share the common goal of confirming the Plan, which includes the creation of the Creditor Recovery Trust for the benefit of, among others, Noteholders with Allowed Unsecured Claims. In the absence of an official unsecured creditors' committee, the Noteholders served as the primary voice and coordinating constituency for unsecured creditors in these Chapter 11 Cases.

31. Finally, as explained in greater detail below, the Debtors' Asset Manager and Property Manager were also integral parties to the Plan process, including the negotiation and execution of the Plan. Indeed, the services provided by these parties were necessary to preserve the value of the Kelly Hamilton Property, which is central to the Debtors' restructuring efforts. Accordingly, these parties share the common goal of ensuring the Plan's success and consummation.

32. I believe that the Released Parties have each made a substantial contribution to the Debtors' Estates, as each Released Party played an integral role in the formulation of the Plan and the administration of these Chapter 11 Cases. As explained above, the Independent Fiduciary has negotiated with critical stakeholders, overseen the administration of these Chapter 11 Cases, and managed the negotiation, drafting, and execution of the Plan, including the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction pursuant to the terms of the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement. Moreover, it is my understanding that the Independent Fiduciary has agreed to forego payment of certain fees that arose prior to the Petition Date and/or may be forced to forego payment of certain fees and expenses incurred postpetition in exchange for the releases contemplated in the Plan. As a result, I believe that the Independent Fiduciary has provided substantial monetary and non-monetary contributions to the Debtors' wind-down efforts.

33. Moreover, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser have made indispensable contributions without which this Plan could not be consummated. Indeed, as set forth above, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender provided the financing needed to fund these Chapter 11 Cases, including to market, auction, and sell the Kelly Hamilton Property, and the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser invested the time and resources to negotiate the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement, and agreed to serve as the "stalking horse bidder" for the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property, thus setting a baseline bid for the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property and promoting a competitive bidding process. I believe there was no viable path to administer these Chapter 11 Cases or pursue the proposed Plan absent the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender's financing and Kelly Hamilton Purchaser's bid. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender's capital and the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser's commitments were necessary to the Plan and materially advanced creditor recoveries and tenant interests. Accordingly, I believe that the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser have made substantial contributions to the Debtors' wind-down efforts.

34. The Noteholders also provided substantial contributions to the Debtors and their Estates and were instrumental in negotiating the terms of the Plan on behalf of a key group of Holders of unsecured Claims. Indeed, certain of the Noteholders have agreed to serve on the Advisory Committee (as defined in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement), which will ensure that the Creditor Recovery Trust is managed by a body with a fiduciary responsibility to its beneficiaries.

35. I further believe that the Debtors' professionals have made significant contributions to the Debtors' efforts in these Chapter 11 Cases. With respect to Debtors' counsel, based on my review of relevant documents, I believe that White & Case LLP played an instrumental role in the Debtors' bankruptcy proceedings, including by (i) facilitating the commencement of the chapter 11 cases through the filing of the Debtors' voluntary petitions, (ii) securing, revising, and filing motions that, among other things, secured the necessary postpetition financing needed to administer these Chapter 11 Cases, and (iii) negotiating and filing the proposed Plan and Disclosure Statement. See Attorney Monthly Fee Statement for the Period May 19, 2025 Through May 31, 2025 [Docket No. 369]; Attorney Monthly Fee Statement for the Period June 1, 2025 Through June 30, 2025 [Docket No. 403]. Similarly, I believe that the Debtors' New Jersey counsel, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, has provided vital contributions to the Debtors throughout these Chapter 11 Cases, including by assisting the Debtors as New Jersey counsel with respect to matters and proceedings in the Chapter 11 Cases.

36. Based on my team's work in these Chapter 11 Cases, I also believe that IslandDundon has made substantial contributions to the Debtors' bankruptcy efforts. Indeed, as set forth above and in the Bidding Procedures Declaration, IslandDundon advised the Debtors in connection with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender's proposed terms to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property, the "stalking horse bid" submitted by the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser, and the parallel process by which the Debtors pursued a marketing process to ensure no higher or better offers were available for the Kelly Hamilton Property.

37. I believe that the Debtors' Claims and Noticing Agent provided valuable services that have allowed the Debtors to propose and seek to confirm the Plan. For example, I understand that the Claims and Noticing Agent solicited votes from each class of creditors entitled to vote on the Plan, tabulated these votes, and published the Voting Report setting forth the results of the vote, along with ensuring that the Disclosure Statement and Plan were properly noticed.

38. In addition to the Independent Fiduciary, it is my understanding that the Debtors' professionals, including White & Case LLP, IslandDundon LLC, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, and Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global, have agreed to forego payment of certain fees that arose prior to the Petition Date and/or may be forced to forego payment of certain fees and expenses incurred postpetition, in exchange for the releases contemplated in the Plan, each of which could be fairly considered to be additional consideration for the benefit of the releases the Plan would grant them.

39. Finally, I believe that the Debtors' Asset Manager and Property Manager provided valuable services that have allowed the Debtors to propose and seek to confirm the Plan. As explained above, the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction is a crucial cornerstone of the proposed Plan. I understand that the Debtors' Property Manager was charged with day-to-day operations, tenant relations, staffing, and maintenance of the Debtors' properties, including the Kelly Hamilton Property, while the Asset Manager's duties included contracting with professionals, including property managers and contractors, and monitoring their performance, managing and disbursing funds, establishing reserves, and recommending cash resource investment strategies, reviewing and monitoring the property manager's operations, preparing strategic asset and marketing plans, recommending and overseeing major repairs, replacements, and critical improvements at the Debtors' properties, and providing information for annual financial statements and tax returns. See Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order Authorizing the Debtors to Assume Certain Amended and Restated Property Management and Asset Management Agreements [Docket No. 128]. I believe that these services helped obtain the highest and best bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property and kept the Debtors operational during the course of these Chapter 11 Cases. Accordingly, I believe that the Debtors' Asset Manager and Property Manager provided substantial value to the Debtors, and thus the Debtor Releases are appropriate with respect to these parties.

40. I believe that the Debtor Releases are essential to the success of the Debtors' Plan because they constitute an integral term of the Plan. Absent the Debtor Releases, the Released Parties would not have agreed to support the Plan. As described above, each Released Party contributed substantial value to these Chapter 11 Cases and did so with the understanding that they would receive releases from the Debtors. In the absence of the Released Parties' support, the Debtors would not be in a position to confirm the Plan, implement the Plan, and maximize value for creditors. The Debtor Releases, therefore, are essential to the Debtors' Restructuring Transaction.

41. For example, I understand that the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender insisted on these Debtor Releases during the negotiation of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Credit Agreement, as evidenced by that certain Binding Term Sheet for Senior Secured, Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Financing dated May 26, 2025, attached as Exhibit A to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order. Importantly, the Debtor Releases are the product of arm's-length negotiations between the Debtors and their key stakeholders, all of which was overseen by the Debtors' Independent Fiduciary.

42. It is equally important to note that the Plan does not release Mark Silber; his conspirators, indicted, convicted or otherwise; any of his family; or any of their respective transferees, or any of the professionals associated with the issuance of the Crown Capital Notes and the borrowing of the various mortgage loans with which the Debtors and their affiliates financed the purchase of their respective properties from any of their respective liabilities to the Debtors' Estates or to any third party. To the contrary, the Plan carefully preserves the Estates

Causes of Action against such non-releasees, establishes the Creditor Recovery Trust to, among other things, efficiently and effectively investigate and prosecute preserved Causes of Action for investigation and prosecution.

V. Effects of Delaying Confirmation

43. It is my understanding that certain objectors to the Plan have requested that the Confirmation Hearing be continued to December 10, 2025 in order for certain parties potentially to submit alternative proposed plans. A three-month delay in confirming the Plan would be catastrophic and value-destructive to the Debtors' estates and to creditors' recoveries.

44. The Debtors filed these Chapter 11 Cases to prevent a sheriff's sale, address urgent liquidity shortfalls, and stabilize the Debtors' operations. It is my understanding that the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility was designed as a short-term bridge, not as a source of long-term capital. Postponing confirmation would (i) increase administrative expenses, (ii) prolong uncertainty at the Kelly Hamilton Property that urgently needs investment, and (iii) defer the only transaction that positions a new owner to deploy capital for the benefit of both the Kelly Hamilton Property tenants and the broader community. Prompt confirmation, by contrast, will enable the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser, as the new equity owner, to inject capital and pursue long-term rehabilitation immediately.

45. I believe the sale process for the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction was designed to ensure transparency and market testing while adhering to the tight milestones and liquidity constraints imposed under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility. The milestones require, among other things, entry of a confirmation order by September 4, 2025. As a result, I believe that an adjournment to confirmation would violate the milestones under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, jeopardize the Debtors' financing, and introduce risk that the Estates cannot absorb. Absent confirmation of the Plan and consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, it is my understanding that the Debtors will run out of funds to administer these Chapter 11 Cases as early as September 30, 2025.

46. It is also my understanding that the Plan is predicated on the consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction. If the sale is not consummated, including due to termination of the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement as a result of delay, the Debtors may be required to convert the Chapter 11 Cases to chapter 7 pursuant to which a trustee would be appointed or elected to liquidate the Debtors' assets. In a chapter 7 scenario, the approximately $4.5 million in capital that the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser has arranged for the Kelly Hamilton Property would not be available. I believe that outcome is not in the best interests of the Estates, would significantly erode value, and delay distributions for stakeholders.

47. As earlier noted, the Debtors running out of money is not just an issue for the Chapter 11 Cases, it is also an operational threat to the socially-disadvantaged residents who stand to benefit from a well-managed residence with a properly capitalized sponsor.

48. To my knowledge, no party, including the parties seeking to adjourn confirmation, has offered financing that could bridge the Debtors to a later confirmation date. Moreover, to my knowledge, no party, including the parties seeking to adjourn confirmation, has proposed a viable and available alternative to the Plan, or even stated that such an alternative will be forthcoming.

49. A three-month delay in confirming the Plan would be severely detrimental to the Debtors and their Estates. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility was intentionally sized as a short-term bridge facility sufficient to cover the Debtors' funding needs for only up to 180 days. Since the Petition Date, occupancy levels and rent collections at the Kelly Hamilton Property have continued to decline, placing further strain on liquidity. Compounding this problem, Housing Assistance Payments ("HAP") owed by HUD cannot be collected by the Debtors unless and until title to the property is transferred through a bankruptcy sale or plan consummation; accordingly, those funds remain unavailable to meet near-term obligations. Based on initial projections, Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC and Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC were expected to run out of cash by mid-August 2025. Through aggressive expense management, that exhaustion date was extended only marginally, to mid-September 2025, underscoring the fragility of the Debtors' cash position. Additionally, $1 million of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility proceeds are contractually earmarked for the exclusive use of the Creditor Recovery Trust for the benefit of the Trust Beneficiaries to pursue certain litigation against parties not being released under the Plan. Those proceeds are not available for operating or administrative expenses. Any delay in confirmation would not only jeopardize the Estates' ability to remain administratively solvent but would also compress the limited timeframe within which the Creditor Recovery Trust would be able to investigate and pursue these Causes of Action before relevant statutes of limitation expire. For all of these reasons, a three-month adjournment to confirmation would risk immediate administrative insolvency, undermine creditor recoveries, and impair the Estates' ability to maximize litigation recoveries for the Trust Beneficiaries.

VI. Effects of Appointing an Examiner

50. It is my understanding that one objector to the Plan has also requested that an examiner be appointed. There is no plausible benefit to the Estates from the appointment of an Examiner. Such an appointment would be value-destructive to the Debtors' Estates and to creditors' recoveries and a threat to the well-being of the Debtors' tenants.

51. Moreover, it is unclear what an examiner could accomplish or complete before confirmation of the Plan, which is scheduled to be heard on September 4, 2025, as well as what additional value would be added to the Debtors' Estates to offset the increased costs of the examiner's investigation. The appointment of an examiner would increase administrative costs to the detriment of the Debtors' Estates and would reduce recoveries to their creditors. As a result of increased administrative costs, the Debtors may be required to convert the Chapter 11 Cases to chapter 7 pursuant to which a trustee would be appointed or elected to liquidate the Debtors' assets. As discussed above, I believe that outcome is not in the best interests of the Estates, would significantly erode value, and delay distributions for stakeholders.

52. The scope of a hypothetical examiner's work would be sharply limited by the entire absence of funds, or prospect of funds, to pay for his or her professionals or for the support of those professionals by the Debtors' professionals, by the Debtors' non-possession of the books and records that would likely be of most interest to him or her, and by Silber's and his confederates' likely non-cooperation with any investigation. There are no funds to finance an extension of the active Chapter 11 Cases while an examiner does whatever he or she might still hope to do despite those factors, which would in turn likely compel a conversion of these Chapter 11 Cases to chapter 7 cases or their dismissal. In this scenario, the risks to the Kelly Hamilton Property tenants, as discussed above, are at stake.

53. I am certainly mindful of the need to investigate and pursue the Estates' Causes of Action and to facilitate the prosecution by third parties of any Causes of Action not released under the Plan. As discussed above, I believe that the Plan appropriately protects creditor interests by narrowly tailoring any releases of the Estates and third-party Causes of Action and by establishing the Creditor Recovery Trust to prosecute retained claims. Moreover, I have personally participated in certain—and am aware of additional—significant preparatory efforts by the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Noteholders to retain contingency counsel and/or to obtain litigation funding, which would be capital that an examiner could neither access nor deploy.

VII. Conclusion

54. In conclusion, based on the foregoing, I believe that final approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan is in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, Holders of Claims and Interests, and other parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

Background

I. Company Background

1. The Debtors are part of a larger real estate portfolio indirectly owned by Debtor CBRM Realty Inc. and formed by real estate investor Mr. Silber and certain affiliated parties (the "Crown Capital Portfolio"). The Crown Capital Portfolio holds dozens of multifamily housing projects across the United States, including the Kelly Hamilton Property, and has been historically funded, at least in part, by the federal government's housing assistance programs, such as Section 8. Ultimately, the Crown Capital Portfolio raised hundreds of millions of dollars of financing, including (i) over $200 million from the sale of bonds issued by Crown Capital and guaranteed by CBRM (the "Notes") and (ii) approximately $450 million of property-level mortgage loans provided by an array of different financing sources.

[3] The Debtors have reached an agreement in principle to resolve the City Objection and Bacon Objection. To the extent any issue remains unresolved at the time of the Confirmation Hearing, the Debtors submit this Memorandum and reserve all rights.

2. Among the assets in the Crown Capital Portfolio is the Kelly Hamilton Property, a 110-unit multifamily residential apartment complex located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The Kelly Hamilton Property serves low-income tenants and participates in various government-supported housing programs, including U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD") housing assistance and rent-restricted programs under applicable regulatory agreements. The Debtors' primary business is the ownership, financing, and operation of this single affordable housing asset.

II. Founder Misconduct and Breakdown in Governance

3. Prior to the Petition Date, Mr. Silber was the target of an extensive investigation by the federal government in connection with a multi-year conspiracy to fraudulently induce a financial institution to issue a $74 million loan to BRC Williamsburg Holdings, LLC, a shell company controlled by Mr. Silber.[5] On April 17, 2024, Mr. Silber entered into a plea agreement with the Fraud Section of the Department of Justice and the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey for conspiracy to commit wire fraud affecting an institution under 18 U.S.C. § 371.[6]

[6] See USA v. Silber, No. 24-00446 (D.N.J. July 9, 2024) [Docket No. 6].

4. During the course of the investigations and plea negotiations, Mr. Silber neglected the management of the Crown Capital Portfolio, leading to numerous properties falling into default or becoming subject to receivership proceedings.[7] Indeed, as set forth in the First Day Declaration, a considerable share of the Debtors' distress arises from the fact that many, if not all, of the properties of the Debtors and their affiliates are likely worth much less today than the appraised values which supported the issuance of the Notes and certain of the property-level mortgage loans, largely as a result of Mr. Silber's negligence and mismanagement of the Crown Capital Portfolio.[8]

5. Once the plea became public, Mr. Silber was disqualified from continuing to manage the Crown Capital Portfolio.[9] By Mr. Silber's own admission, "[m]y guilty plea precipitated a crisis for my real estate business by making CBRM, Crown, and their dozens of subsidiaries unbankable while I remained in control of them. This left the business unable to access capital and credit it needed to perform day-to-day operations and pay expenses such as maintenance, repairs, utilities, wages, salaries, and debt service."[10]

6. Crown Capital Portfolio's stakeholders, including certain investors (the "Noteholders") who purchased the Notes from Debtor Crown Capital, as issuer, with Debtor CBRM as guarantor, were concerned about these developments because Crown Capital Portfolio's value supported the payment of principal and interest under the Notes.[11] On August 29, 2024, following discussions between Mr. Silber's counsel and the Noteholders' counsel and financial advisor, the parties entered into a forbearance agreement (the "Forbearance Agreement").[12] The Forbearance Agreement addressed various matters involving pending defaults under the Notes and Mr. Silber's go-forward involvement with the portfolio, and established a process to ensure that the Crown Capital Portfolio had sufficient fiduciary oversight.[13] The Forbearance Agreement, among other things, required "Mr. Silber to appoint an independent fiduciary" of CBRM and Crown Capital, and provided "that individual with an irrevocable proxy for so long as the obligations under the Forbearance Agreement remained pending."[14]

7. Mr. Silber and the Noteholders entered into the Forbearance Agreement because the Debtors and the Crown Capital Portfolio did not have sufficient capital and liquidity to manage the portfolio or pay interest payments to the Noteholders.[15] Many of the properties were in a state of disrepair and required substantial capital to improve and maintain.[16] In this context, by September 20, 2024, the Debtors identified Kelly Hamilton Lender LLC (the "Kelly Hamilton Lender"), an affiliate The Lynd Group, as the only available financing source willing to provide urgently needed working capital. On that date, Kelly Hamilton Lender extended a $3,500,000 term loan to Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC ("Kelly Hamilton") pursuant to a Loan and Security Agreement, dated September 20, 2024, between Kelly Hamilton as borrower and Kelly Hamilton Lender as lender (the "Prepetition Kelly Hamilton Loan"). The Prepetition Kelly Hamilton Loan was evidenced by a Term Note of the same date and secured by an Open-End Commercial Mortgage, Security Agreement, and Assignment of Leases and Rents in connection with the Kelly Hamilton Property, also dated September 20, 2024. Shortly thereafter, LAGSP was retained as the asset manager of the over 50 properties in the Crown Capital Portfolio, and Lynd Management was retained as the property manager of the Kelly Hamilton Property.

8. On September 26, 2024, the Noteholders party to the Forbearance Agreement consented to the appointment of Elizabeth A. LaPuma—a restructuring professional with over 20 years' experience as an investment banker and corporate director, including for companies in distress—as the independent fiduciary for CBRM and Crown Capital (the "Independent Fiduciary").[17] However, soon after Ms. LaPuma's appointment, Mr. Silber began to unwind the existing management structure for the Crown Capital Portfolio, including laying off many of his employees.[18] Mr. Silber's actions caused turnover issues, a lack of continuity in (or, in some cases, a complete absence of) employees, and a lapse in company recordkeeping, thus undermining the portfolio's ability to maintain its value.[19] For example, for certain entities, LAGSP received organizational charts that were inaccurate or did not receive any organizational charts at all.[20] This lapse in information made it difficult for the new advisors to manage the Crown Capital Portfolio.[21]

9. In light of this situation, following Ms. LaPuma's appointment, Lynd created an asset recovery plan.[22] In connection with that plan, Lynd conducted a thorough analysis of the Debtors' properties to determine which, if any, had value in excess of their mortgage balances that could support unsecured creditor recoveries or even dividends upon equity.[23] Lynd determined, as a result of its analysis, that most of the properties in the Crown Capital Portfolio, potentially worth more than their respective mortgage balances, could only realize that incremental value with substantial additional capital investment.[24] Any rent collections within the portfolio exceeding day-to-day operating costs were used to maintain units.[25] IslandDundon LLC ("IslandDundon") reviewed Lynd's analyses, conducted its own analyses, and reached the same conclusions.[26]

10. This situation was exacerbated by the guilty pleas by Mr. Silber and his co-conspirator, Mr. Schulman, which made obtaining financing for the Debtors and the Crown Capital Portfolio nearly impossible.[27] As a general matter, lenders and other financing parties do not want to provide capital or financing to counterparties controlled by parties with felony convictions.[28] Mr. Silber is the sole equity holder of CBRM, which is the parent entity of the Crown Capital Portfolio.[29]

11. On December 9, 2024, Ms. LaPuma was appointed as manager of the Debtors through an omnibus written consent. However, Mr. Silber, and in some instances, Mr. Schulman, had direct or indirect equity interests in many of the entities of the Crown Capital Portfolio.[30] As such, Mr. Silber's and Mr. Schulman's felony convictions and refusal to forfeit their equity interests made it impossible for the Debtors and other entities within the Crown Capital Portfolio to obtain prepetition financing.[31] Additionally, Mr. Silber and Mr. Schulman still retained control of multiple managing member entities within the Crown Capital Portfolio and did not give that control of such entities to the Independent Fiduciary.[32] This retention of control by Mr. Silber and Mr. Schulman caused serious issues with obtaining financing from lenders and funding from the Department of Housing and Urban Development with respect to certain properties within the Crown Capital Portfolio.[33] In March 2025, Mr. Silber was sentenced to a term of imprisonment of 30 months.[34]

III. The Chapter 11 Cases

12. On May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date"), with no viable out-of-court restructuring alternatives and facing the imminent sheriff's sale in Rockland County, New York of certain CBRM assets—including its equity interest in Crown—the Debtors commenced these chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases"). On August 18, 2025, Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC filed a voluntary petition with this Court under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. These Chapter 11 Cases are being jointly administered pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these Chapter 11 Cases and no official committees have been appointed or designated.

13. Additional factual information regarding the Debtors' business, their capital structure, and the circumstances leading to these chapter 11 filings is contained in the First Day Declaration.

IV. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Credit Agreement

14. Prior to commencing these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors pursued refinancing and restructuring efforts outside of court; however, these efforts were severely impaired by Silber's prosecution and the nature of the allegations against him.[35] With the assistance of their advisors, the Debtors engaged numerous parties regarding potential out-of-court financing initiatives, all of which proved to be unsuccessful.[36] The Debtors ultimately concluded that financing outside a court-supervised restructuring process was not feasible.[37]

15. The Debtors then began discussions with Lynd Management Group LLC and its related entities (collectively, "Lynd") and with 3650 Real Estate Investment Management LLC ("3650 REIT"), a financing partner identified by Lynd, regarding a potential debtor-in-possession facility secured by the assets of the Kelly Hamilton Debtor.[38] This proposal contemplated financing between the Kelly Hamilton Debtor and 3650 SSI Pittsburgh LLC (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender"), an entity formed by Lynd and 3650 REIT (the "Original Kelly Hamilton DIP Proposal"). At the same time, the Debtors also began to engage with certain of the Noteholders regarding a potential financing facility secured by the assets of both the Kelly Hamilton Debtor and certain other Debtor entities (the "Noteholder DIP Proposal").[39]

39 Id.

16. Upon commencing these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors initially determined that the Noteholder DIP Proposal was superior to the Original Kelly Hamilton DIP Proposal because it (i) provided financing for both the Kelly Hamilton Debtor and the other Debtors; (ii) committed significant startup capital for a litigation trust; and (iii) had the support of certain noteholders.[40] However, the Noteholder DIP Proposal also contemplated a non-consensual priming lien on all of the other Debtors' prepetition funded debt creditors, approval of which would likely have required the Debtors to engage in costly and distracting litigation.[41]

17. While attempting to finalize documentation of the Noteholder DIP Proposal, the Debtors also recommenced discussions with Lynd and 3650 REIT regarding a revised financing proposal for the Kelly Hamilton Debtor (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Proposal").[42] Following extensive negotiations among the Debtors, the Noteholder steering committee, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, and the prepetition lenders to the other Debtors, the Debtors ultimately finalized terms with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, resulting in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility.[43]

18. A key element of the revised Kelly Hamilton DIP Proposal was the use of proceeds from the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility to repay amounts outstanding on the Prepetition Kelly Hamilton Loan. Repayment of the Prepetition Kelly Hamilton Loan with proceeds from the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility was disclosed in Exhibit A to the Binding Term Sheet for Senior Secured, Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Financing, dated May 26, 2025 (the "DIP Term Sheet"), which set forth the sources and uses of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility. The DIP Term Sheet was filed in connection with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Motion (defined below), the Kelly Hamilton Interim DIP Order (defined below), and the Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order (defined below). In addition, the "Debt Balance (Payoff)" of the Prepetition Kelly Hamilton Loan was specifically reflected in the Court-approved budget (the "Approved Budget") attached to both the Interim and Final DIP Orders.

19. On May 28, 2025, the Debtors filed the Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Postpetition Financing, (II) Granting Liens and Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (III) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (IV) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 61] (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Motion"). The Court held a hearing on interim approval of the facility on June 2, 2025. Prior to the hearing, creditor Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge, Ltd. filed an objection, but only with respect to financing for certain Debtors other than the Kelly Hamilton Debtor [Docket No. 94]. No other formal objections were filed regarding interim approval of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, and the Objectors did not present objections at the hearing [Docket No. 111]. On June 4, 2025, the Court entered an order granting interim approval of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility [Docket No. 107] (the "Kelly Hamilton Interim DIP Order").

20. On June 17, 2025, the Court held a hearing on final approval of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility. Prior to this hearing, creditor Spano Investor LLC ("Spano") filed the Limited Objection and Reservation of Rights of Spano Investor LLC with Respect to Final DIP Financing Orders [Docket No. 135]. No other formal objections were filed, including by the Objectors (as defined below), nor were any issues raised at the hearing [Docket No. 234].

21. On June 19, 2025, the Court entered approved the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility on a final basis [Docket No. 178] (the "Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order"). In doing so, the Court found that: (i) the Debtors were unable to obtain credit from any other source on more favorable terms; (ii) the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility was fair, reasonable, and negotiated in good faith and at arm's length among the parties; (iii) the facility represented a sound and prudent exercise of the Debtors' business judgment; (iv) the financing was necessary to preserve estate value and prevent immediate and irreparable harm to hundreds of HUD-subsidized tenants; and (v) repayment of the Prepetition Kelly Hamilton Loan, along with its sources and uses, was properly disclosed and the Debtors were authorized to make payments in accordance with the Approved Budget.

V. The Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction

22. In May 2025, the Debtors retained IslandDundon as their financial advisor and investment banker. Among other things, IslandDundon advised the Debtors in connection with one or more postpetition transaction(s) concerning the Kelly Hamilton Property with the goal of maximizing its value for the Debtors' stakeholders.

23. As explained above, the first step in that process consisted of the Debtors obtaining debtor-in-possession financing to fund the administration of these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors accomplished this by securing the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility. Next, as required by the terms of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, the Debtors, with IslandDundon's assistance, negotiated with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender to become the "stalking horse" bidder for the Kelly Hamilton Property.

24. These negotiations culminated in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender's presentation of proposed transaction terms to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property. The Debtors, with the assistance of IslandDundon and the Debtors' legal counsel, evaluated (a) the amount of consideration provided; (b) the structure of the proposed plan transactions; (c) the requested bid protections and any possible impact on any auction; (d) the risk that Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender might be unable to consummate the purchase; and (e) the potential consequences of refusing the proposal, including but not limited to being required to repay the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility with cash. Based on this evaluation, the Debtors determined that acceptance of the terms proposed by the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender was in the best interests of the Estates and therefore, authorized the drafting, execution and delivery of definitive documentation embodying the accepted terms.

25. On July 11, 2025, the Kelly Hamilton Debtor and the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender entered into a purchase and sale agreement (the "Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement") whereby the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender agreed to credit bid the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim (each as defined in the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement), to acquire substantially all of the Kelly Hamilton Property owned by the Kelly Hamilton Debtor. The Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement includes procedures that treat the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender's purchase commitment as a "stalking horse" bid, i.e., subject to a continued marketing process by the Debtors and to being supplanted, after payment of a breakup fee, by a third party's higher and better bid, should one emerge from such continued marketing process.

26. Recognizing the likely need for a sales process for the Kelly Hamilton Property that includes potential buyers other than the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, however, the Debtors, with the assistance of IslandDundon and their other advisors, initiated a sales process before the Petition Date of these Chapter 11 Cases. IslandDundon identified 37 parties interested in purchasing and/or financing the purchase of the Kelly Hamilton Property.

27. To further this process and to receive court approval for the Debtors to enter into the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement, the Debtors sought approval of certain bidding and sale procedures for the Kelly Hamilton Property.[44] On July 14, 2025, the Court entered an order establishing the objection deadline for the Bidding Procedures Motion as July 21, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).[45] The Debtors received no formal objections to the Bidding Procedures Motion before or at the hearing to consider the Bidding Procedures Motion.[46]

28. On July 24, 2025, the Court entered the Bidding Procedures Order. Among other things, the Bidding Procedures Order authorized the Debtors to "enter into and perform all of their respective pre-closing obligations under the [Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement]," determining that pursuit of the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement "reflect[ed] a sound exercise of the Debtor's business judgment."[47] The Bidding Procedures Order also approved the proposed bid protections and provided that "[n]o party may object to the right of the [Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender] to credit bid the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim."[48] Further, the Bidding Procedures Order provided that the "[Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender] shall be permitted to credit bid the sum of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim."[49]

29. Following entry of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors and their advisors continued the marketing process to test the market and ensure that no higher or better offers were available for the Kelly Hamilton Property. Specifically, the Debtors, with the assistance of IslandDundon and Hilco Real Estate, LLC, the Debtors' real estate advisor, contacted 125 potentially interested parties who received a non-confidential marketing overview, and provided further diligence materials to the nineteen parties who executed confidentiality agreements. The Debtors provided extensive additional material to a subset of nineteen potential purchasers who agreed to execute and deliver confidentiality agreements with the Debtors. Moreover, the Debtors and IslandDundon continued to conduct discussions with any party that complied with the requirements of the Bidding Procedures Order.

30. The Debtors also filed the Notice of Proposed Sale, Entry into Stalking Horse Agreement, Bidding Procedures, Auction, and Confirmation and Sale Hearing (the "Sale Notice") [Docket No. 333] and served this notice on interested parties in accordance with the Bidding Procedures Order. The Sale Notice, among other things, provided the bid deadline and the date of the auction for the Kelly Hamilton Property (if any). The Debtors also published the Sale Notice in the Newark Star Ledger and the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette.[50]

31. As described in the Dundon Declaration, despite the robust outreach and diligence process, no qualifying alternative bids were received for the Kelly Hamilton Property on or before August 15, 2025. There was no realistic prospect that any party could have negotiated and financed an executable transaction even in the absence of the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser's credit bid. The lack of competing bids was attributable to the distressed condition of the property and the broader financial and operational context—not any flaw or impropriety in the marketing process.

[50] See Affidavit of Publication of Notice of Proposed Sale, Entry into Stalking Horse Agreement, Bidding Procedures, Auction, and Confirmation and Sale Hearing [Docket No. 366].

32. As a result, on August 15, 2025, the Debtors cancelled the auction and designated the stalking horse bid submitted by the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser as the successful bid.[51] The Debtors now seek to effectuate the terms of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction through the Plan.

VI. Plan Solicitation and Notification Process

33. On July 11, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking conditional approval of the Disclosure Statement and associated voting and solicitation procedures [Docket No. 283] (the "Disclosure Statement Motion"). On August 1, 2025, the Court entered the Disclosure Statement Order. In compliance with the Disclosure Statement Order and the Bankruptcy Code, only Holders of Claims in Class 3 (Kelly Hamilton Go-Forward Trade Claims), Class 4 (Other Kelly Hamilton Unsecured Claims), Class 5 (Crown Capital Unsecured Claims), Class 6A (CBRM Unsecured Claims), and Class 6B (Spano CBRM Claim) (the "Voting Classes") were entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.[52] The following Classes of Claims and Interests were not entitled to vote on the Plan, and the Debtors did not solicit votes from the Holders of such Claims and Interests:[53]

| Class | Claims and Interests | Status | Voting Rights |
|---|---|---|---|
| Class 1 | Other Priority Claims | Unimpaired | Not Entitled to Vote (Presumed to Accept) |
| Class 2 | Other Secured Claims | Unimpaired | Not Entitled to Vote (Presumed to Accept) |

[51] See Notice of Cancellation of Auction and Designation of the Stalking Horse Bid as the Successful Bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property [Docket No. 383].

[52] 11 U.S.C. § 1126.

[53] As described in the Voting Report, following solicitation of the Plan, the Debtors determined that a NOLA Restructuring Transaction would not occur prior to Confirmation of the Plan. Accordingly, Crown Capital Holdings LLC is not a Debtor under the Plan and the Joint Chapter 11 Plan for Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 389] (as may be modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time) shall constitute the sole plan for Crown Capital Holdings LLC. After filing the Voting Report, the Debtors filed an amended Plan removing Crown Capital Holdings LLC as a Debtor and conforming the Classes of Claims and Interests and related definitions prior to the Confirmation Hearing. As a result, the numbering of the class labels reflected in the Voting Report differ from those that appear in the Plan.

|---|---|---|---|
| Class 7 | Intercompany Claims | Impaired | Not Entitled to Vote |
| Class 8 | Intercompany Interests | Impaired | Not Entitled to Vote |

VII. The Objections

35. On August 26, 2025, formal objections were filed by Ms. Bacon and the City of Pittsburgh. On August 28, 2025, a formal objection was filed by the U.S. Trustee. To the extent the Debtors are unable to consensually resolve such Objections prior to the Combined Hearing Date, the Debtors request that the Court overrule such Objections. A summary of the arguments in the Objections and a summary of the Debtors' responses as to why they should be overruled are in the chart attached hereto as Exhibit A.

Argument

36. For the reasons set forth herein, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court overrule the remaining Objections and (a) approve the adequacy of the Disclosure Statement on a final basis and (b) confirm the Plan.

I. The Disclosure Statement Contains "Adequate Information" as Required by Section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Debtors Complied with the Applicable Notice Requirements

A. The Disclosure Statement Contains Adequate Information

37. The purpose of a disclosure statement is to provide "adequate information" that allows parties entitled to vote on a proposed plan to make an informed decision as to whether to vote to accept or reject the plan.[54] "Adequate information" is a flexible standard, based on the facts and circumstances of each case.[55] Courts within the Third Circuit and elsewhere

[54] See, e.g., Krystal Cadillac-Oldsmobile GMC Truck, Inc. v. Gen. Motors Corp., 337 F.3d 314, 321–22 (3d Cir. 2003) (providing that a disclosure statement must contain "adequate information to enable a creditor to make an informed judgment about the Plan" (internal quotations omitted)); *Century Glove, Inc. v. First Am. Ill. 1987) ("The primary purpose of a disclosure statement is to provide all material information which creditors and equity security holders affected by the plan need in order to make an intelligent decision whether to vote for or against the plan.").

United Jersey Bank*, 848 F.2d 414, 417 (3d Cir. 1988) ("From the legislative history of § 1125 we discern that adequate information will be determined by the facts and circumstances of each case."); S. acknowledge that determining what constitutes "adequate information" for the purpose of satisfying section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code resides within the broad discretion of the court.[56]

38. Courts look for certain information when evaluating the adequacy of the disclosures in a proposed disclosure statement, including:

a. the events which led to the filing of a bankruptcy petition;

b. the relationship of a debtor with its affiliates;

c. a description of the available assets and their value;

d. the anticipated future of the company;

e. the source of information stated in the disclosure statement;

f. the present condition of a debtor wile in chapter 11;

g. the claims asserted against a debtor;

h. the estimated return to creditors under a chapter 7 liquidation;

i. the future management of a debtor;

j. the chapter 11 plan or a summary thereof;

k. the financial information, valuations, and projections relevant to the claimants' decision to accept or reject the chapter 11 plan;

l. the information relevant to the risks posed to claimants under the plan;

m. the actual or projected realizable value from recovery of preferential or otherwise voidable transfers;

40. As discussed above, section 1125(a) requires only "adequate information" sufficient for parties entitled to vote on a proposed plan to make an informed decision about whether to vote to accept or reject the plan. Accordingly, the Disclosure Statement contains adequate information within the meaning of section 1125(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and should be approved on a final basis.

B. The Disclosure Statement Complied with the Applicable Notice and Solicitation Requirements

41. In addition to conditionally approving the adequacy of the Disclosure Statement, the Disclosure Statement Order granted final relief regarding solicitation and noticing procedures and materials including, among other things: (a) approving the Solicitation and Voting Procedures; (b) approving the Ballots; (c) approving the Notice of Non-Voting Status; (d) approving the Cover Letter; (e) approving the Combined Hearing Notice; (f) approving the Plan Supplement Notice; (g) approving the Assumption Notice; (h) approving the manner and form of the Solicitation Packages and the materials contained therein; and (i) scheduling the dates and deadlines related thereto. The Debtors have complied with the procedures approved by the Disclosure Statement Order and the timeline approved therein. No objections to compliance with respect to any dates and deadlines set forth in the Disclosure Statement Order were filed or received by the Debtors.

C. Solicitation of the Plan Complied with the Bankruptcy Code and Was in Good Faith

42. Section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that "a person that solicits acceptance or rejection of a plan, in good faith and in compliance with the applicable provisions of this title . . . is not liable" on account of such solicitation for violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing solicitation of acceptance or rejection of a plan.[68]

43. As set forth in the Disclosure Statement and Disclosure Statement Motion, and as demonstrated by the Debtors' compliance with the Disclosure Statement Order, the Debtors at all times took appropriate actions in connection with the solicitation of the Plan in compliance with section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, the Debtors request that the Court grant the parties the protections provided under section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

44. For the foregoing reasons, the Court should enter an order approving the Disclosure Statement on a final basis.

II. The Plan Satisfies Each Requirement for Confirmation

45. To confirm the Plan, the Court must find that the Debtors have satisfied the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code.[69] As described in detail below, the Plan complies with all relevant provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and all other applicable law.

A. The Plan Complies with the Applicable Provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (Section 1129(a)(1))

46. Under section 1129(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, a plan must "compl[y] with the applicable provisions of [the Bankruptcy Code]."[70] The legislative history of section 1129(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code explains that this provision also encompasses and incorporates the requirements of sections 1122 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, which govern the classification of claims and the contents of a plan, respectively.[71] As explained below, the Plan complies with the requirements of sections 1122 and 1123 in all respects.

1. The Plan Satisfies the Classification Requirements of Section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code

47. The classification requirement of section 1122(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in pertinent part, as follows:

> Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, a plan may place a claim or an interest in a particular class only if such claim or interest is substantially similar to the other claims or interests of such class.[72]

48. Courts in this jurisdiction and others have recognized that plan proponents have significant flexibility in placing similar claims into different classes, provided there is a rational basis to do so.[73] Moreover, the requirement of substantial similarity does not mean that claims or

Courts have identified grounds justifying separate classification, including: (a) where members of a class possess different legal rights, and (b) where there are good business reasons for separate classification. See John Hancock Mut. Life Ins. Co. v. Route 37 Bus. Park Assocs. (In re Route 37 Bus. Park Assocs.), 987 F.2d 154, 158–59 (3d Cir. 1993) (holding that, as long as each class represents a voting interest that is "sufficiently distinct and weighty to merit separate voice in the decision whether the proposed reorganization should proceed," the classification is proper); *In re Jersey City Med. LTV Steel Co. 49. The Plan's classification of Claims and Interests satisfies the requirements of section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code because the Plan places Claims and Interests into nine separate Classes, with Claims and Interests in each Class differing from the Claims and Interests in each other Class in a legal or factual way or based on other relevant criteria.[75] Specifically, the Plan provides for the separate classification of Claims and Interests into the following Classes:

Class 1: Other Priority Claims

Class 2: Other Secured Claims

Class 3: Kelly Hamilton Go-Forward Trade Claims

Class 5A: CBRM Unsecured Claims

Class 5B: Spano CBRM Claim

[75] See Plan Art. III.

Class 7: Intercompany Interests

Class 8: CBRM Interests

Class 9: Section 510(b) Claims

50. Except for General Administrative Claims, Professional Compensation Claims, Kelly Hamilton DIP Claims, and Priority Tax Claims, which need not be designated as Classes under the Plan, the Plan's classification scheme is rational and was not proposed to create a consenting impaired Class and thereby manipulate voting. Valid business, factual, and legal reasons exist for separately classifying the various Classes of Claims and Interests created under the Plan, and such Classes do not unfairly discriminate between Holders of Claims and Interests. The Plan also provides for the separate classification of Claims against and Interests in each Debtor based upon the differences in legal nature and/or priority of such Claims and Interests.

51. Accordingly, the Claims or Interests assigned to each particular Class described above are substantially similar to the other Claims or Interests in each such Class, and the distinctions among Classes are based on valid business, factual, and legal distinctions. The Debtors submit that the Plan fully complies with and satisfies section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code, and no party has asserted otherwise.

2. The Plan Satisfies the Mandatory Plan Requirements of Section 1123(a) of the Bankruptcy Code

52. Section 1123(a) of the Bankruptcy Code sets forth seven criteria that every chapter 11 plan must satisfy.[76] The Plan satisfies each of these requirements.[77]

[76] 11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(1)–(7).

[77] See 11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(1)–(8). Section 1123(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code is only applicable to individual debtors.

ii. Designation of Classes of Claims and Equity Interests: § 1123(a)(1)

53. For the reasons set forth above, Article III of the Plan properly designates Classes of Claims, other than Claims of the type described in sections 507(a)(2), 507(a)(3), and 507(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code, and Classes of Interests, as required by section 1123(a)(1), and thus satisfies the requirement of section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code.

ii. Specification of Unimpaired Classes: § 1123(a)(2)

54. Section 1123(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that the Plan "specify any class of claims or interests that is not impaired under the plan." The Plan meets this requirement by identifying each Class in Article III that is Unimpaired.

iii. Treatment of Impaired Classes: § 1123(a)(3)

55. Section 1123(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that the Plan "specify the treatment of any class of claims or interests that is impaired under the plan." The Plan meets this requirement by setting forth the treatment of each Class in Article III that is Impaired.

iv. Equal Treatment Within Classes: § 1123(a)(4)

56. Section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that the Plan "provide the same treatment for each claim or interest of a particular class, unless the holder of a particular claim or interest agrees to a less favorable treatment of such particular claim or interest."[78] The Plan meets this requirement because the treatment of each Claim or Interest in each particular Class is the same as the treatment of each other Claim or Interest in such Class (except as otherwise agreed to by a Holder of a particular Claim or Interest). Stated another way, all Holders of Allowed Claims or Interests in each Class will receive the same rights and treatment as other Holders of Allowed Claims or Interests within such Holders' respective Class.

v. Means for Implementation: § 1123(a)(5)

57. Section 1123(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that the Plan provide "adequate means" for its implementation. The Plan satisfies this requirement because Article IV of the Plan, as well as other provisions thereof, provide for the means by which the Plan will be implemented. Among other things, Article IV of the Plan provides for: (i) consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction;[79] (ii) identification of the sources of consideration for Distributions under the Plan;[80] (iii) appointment of the Wind-Down Officer;[81] (iv) establishment of the Creditor Recovery Trust for the benefit of the beneficiaries of the Creditor Recovery Trust (the "Trust Beneficiaries");[82] (v) appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee;[83] and (vi) funding and vesting of the Creditor Recovery Trust with the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.[84] The definitive terms governing the implementation of these transactions are set forth in the Plan and in the applicable agreements, instruments, and documents included in the Plan Supplement. Collectively, these measures establish the structure necessary to consummate the Plan, facilitate the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' Estates, and maximize recoveries for creditors in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code.

58. The terms governing the execution of these transactions are set forth in greater detail in the Plan and the Plan Supplement, as applicable. Thus, the Plan satisfies section 1123(a)(5).

B. The Debtors Have Complied with the Applicable Provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (Section 1129(a)(2))

59. The principal purpose of section 1129(a)(2) is to ensure that a plan proponent has complied with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code regarding solicitation of acceptances of a plan.[85] The legislative history to section 1129(a)(2) provides that section 1129(a)(2) is intended to encompass the disclosure and solicitation requirements set forth in section 1125 and the plan acceptance requirements set forth in section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code.[86] As discussed in more detail in Section III herein, and as set forth below, the Debtors have complied with these provisions, including sections 1125 and 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, as well as Bankruptcy Rules 3017 and 3018, by distributing the Disclosure Statement and soliciting acceptances of the Plan through their Claims and Noticing Agent in accordance with the Disclosure Statement Order.

1. The Debtors Have Complied with the Disclosure and Solicitation Requirements of Section 1125

60. Section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code prohibits the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of a plan "unless, at the time of or before such solicitation, there is transmitted to such holder the plan or a summary of the plan, and a written disclosure statement approved, after notice and a hearing, by the court as containing adequate information."[87] Section 1125 ensures that parties in interest are fully informed regarding the debtor's condition so that they may make an informed decision whether to approve or reject the plan.[88]

61. Section 1125 is satisfied here. Before the Debtors solicited votes on the Plan, the Court conditionally approved the Disclosure Statement.[89] The Court also approved the Solicitation Packages provided to Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan, the non-voting materials provided to parties not entitled to vote on the Plan, and the relevant dates for voting on the Plan and objecting to the Plan and the Disclosure Statement.[90] As stated in the Voting Report, the Debtors, through the Claims and Noticing Agent, complied with the content and delivery requirements of the Disclosure Statement Order, satisfying sections 1125(a) and 1125(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.[91] The Debtors also satisfied section 1125(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, which provides that the same disclosure statement must be transmitted to each holder of a claim or interest in a particular Class.

62. Based on the foregoing, the Debtors submit that they have complied in all respects with the solicitation requirements of section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code and the Disclosure Statement Order, and no party has asserted otherwise.

91 See Voting Report at 3-6.

2. The Debtors Have Satisfied the Plan Acceptance Requirements of Section 1126

63. Section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that only holders of allowed claims and equity interests in impaired classes that will receive or retain property under a plan on account of such claims or equity interests may vote to accept or reject a plan.[92] The Debtors did not solicit votes on the Plan from the following Classes:

- Classes 1 and 2, which are not impaired under the Plan and, therefore, are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code.[93]

- Classes 6, 7, 8, and 9 which pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy are deemed to have rejected the Plan.[94]

64. Accordingly, the Debtors solicited votes only from Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes—Class 3, 4, 5A and Class 5B—because these Classes are Impaired and entitled to receive a distribution under the Plan.[95] With respect to the Voting Classes of Claims, section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that:

> A class of claims has accepted a plan if such plan has been accepted by creditors, other than any entity designated under subsection (e) of [section 1126], that hold at least two-thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of the allowed claims of such class held by creditors, other than any entity designated under subsection (e) of [section 1126], that have accepted or rejected such plan.[96]

65. The Voting Report, summarized above, demonstrates that the Plan has been accepted by the Voting Classes in accordance with section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code.[97] Based on the foregoing, the Debtors submit that they have satisfied the requirements of section 1129(a)(2), and no party has asserted otherwise.

C. The Debtors Proposed the Plan in Good Faith and Not by Any Means Forbidden by Law (Section 1129(a)(3))

66. Section 1129(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that a chapter 11 plan be "proposed in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law."[98] Where a plan satisfies the purposes of the Bankruptcy Code and has a good chance of succeeding, the good faith requirement of section 1129(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code is satisfied.[99] To determine whether a plan seeks relief consistent with the Bankruptcy Code, courts consider the totality of the circumstances surrounding the development of the Plan.[100]

67. The Plan was proposed with integrity, good intentions, and with the goal of maximizing stakeholder recoveries. The Plan is the product of extensive, arm's-length negotiations among the Debtors, the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser, Spano, and other key stakeholders. These negotiations resulted in a consensual framework that resolved competing creditor interests and provided a clear path to maximize value through the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction and the Wind-Down of the Debtors' Estates following consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, including the creation of a Creditor Recovery Trust. The Debtors worked constructively with their stakeholders throughout the process, incorporating their comments into both the Plan and the Confirmation Order. The overwhelming support for the Plan by the creditors that voted in favor of it is strong evidence that the Plan has a proper purpose and enjoys broad stakeholder support.

68. Importantly, the Plan reflects hard-fought but constructive compromises. For example, it provides for the release of certain Released Parties in exchange for substantial contributions that facilitated the Plan's implementation, while at the same time preserving other causes of action to be pursued for the benefit of unsecured creditors through the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Plan also equitably balances the treatment of creditor groups by, among other things, providing the Trust Beneficiaries with access to monetized litigation recoveries through the Creditor Recovery Trust and ensuring that Wind-Down Claims are reconciled and satisfied under the Wind-Down structure. These features demonstrate that the Plan was designed not only to maximize recoveries, but also to ensure fairness and transparency in the treatment of claims.

69. In exchange for the releases granted under the Plan, the Released Parties made meaningful and valuable contributions to these Chapter 11 Cases, including by providing financing, support, and concessions that were critical to enabling the consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction. Without these efforts, creditors likely would have faced the lower recoveries of a piecemeal liquidation under chapter 7. As a result, the Plan will provide Holders of Allowed Unsecured Claims with materially greater recoveries than they would receive in any alternative restructuring scenario.

70. The overwhelming acceptance of the Plan by the Holders of Claims that voted on the Plan and the support of the Plan further reflects the Plan's fairness and the good faith efforts of the parties to achieve the objectives of chapter 11. Accordingly, the Debtors have acted in good faith and with the best intentions for creditors in proposing the Plan, in accordance with section 1129(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.[101]

D. The Plan Provides That the Debtors' Payment of Professional Fees and Expenses Are Subject to Bankruptcy Court Approval (Section 1129(a)(4))

71. Section 1129(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that certain fees and expenses paid by the plan proponent, by the debtor, or by a person receiving distributions of property under the plan, be subject to approval by the Court as reasonable.[102] Courts in this district and elsewhere have construed this section to require that all payments of professional fees paid out of estate assets be subject to review and approval by the Court as to their reasonableness.[103]

72. The Plan satisfies section 1129(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan provides that all Professional Compensation Claims must be approved by the Court pursuant to final fee applications in accordance with section 1129(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code. Further, the Plan provides that the Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all Professional Compensation Claims. Therefore, it is my understanding that the Plan complies with the requirements of section 1129(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the Debtors' professionals.

E. The Plan Does Not Require Additional Disclosures Regarding Directors, Officers, and Insiders (§ 1129(a)(5))

73. The Bankruptcy Code requires the plan proponent to disclose the affiliation of any individual proposed to serve as a director or officer of the debtor or a successor to the debtor under the plan.[104] Section 1129(a)(5)(A)(ii) further requires that the appointment or continuance of such officers and directors be consistent with the interests of creditors and equity security holders and with public policy.[105]

74. In accordance with section 1129(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code, the identity of the Creditor Recovery Trustee was disclosed in the Plan Supplement, which is incorporated into the Plan. If the Plan is confirmed, the Creditor Recovery Trustee will be RLA Consulting LLC. Article IV.D. of the Plan provides that, on the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be automatically appointed as a representative of the Debtors' Estates.[106] The Creditor Recovery Trust will be governed by the Creditor Recovery Trustee pursuant to the terms of the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement and under the oversight of the Advisory Committee.[107] Pursuant to the terms of the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Creditor Recovery Trustee will have authority to, among other things, (a) hold, manage, protect, and monetize the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets; (b) carry out the provisions of the Plan relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust, including commencing, prosecuting, and settling all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Insurance Causes of Action; and (c) perform all actions and execute all agreements, instruments and other documents necessary to effectuate the purpose of the Creditor Recovery

Trust.[108] RLA Consulting LLC is well qualified to fulfil these responsibilities, maximize the value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and ensure that distributions to the Trust Beneficiaries are made in a fair, transparent, and efficient manner consistent with the Plan.

75. The Plan further provides that, on the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer shall be appointed by the Debtors to conduct the Wind-Down and shall succeed to the powers and privileges as would have been applicable to the Debtors' officers, directors, and shareholders, and the Debtors.[109] From and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer shall act for the Debtors in the same fiduciary capacity as applicable to a board of directors or managers and officers, subject to the provisions of the Plan. The Wind-Down Officer will have authority to, among other things, (a) implement the Wind-Down as expeditiously as reasonably possible and administer the liquidation of the post-Effective Date Debtors and their Estates and of any assets held by the post-Effective Date Debtors and their Estates after consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, (b) resolve any Disputed Wind-Down Claims and undertake a good faith effort to reconcile and settle Disputed Wind-Down Claims, (c) make distributions on account of Allowed Wind-Down Claims in accordance with the Plan, (d) file appropriate tax returns, and (e) otherwise administer the Plan, in each case to the extent set forth in the Wind-Down Agreement.[110] Upon completion of the Wind-Down, the Debtors shall be dissolved by the Wind-Down Officer. Unless otherwise disclosed in the Plan Supplement, if the Plan is confirmed, the Wind-Down Officer will be the Creditor Recovery Trustee—RLA Consulting LLC. RLA Consulting LLC is well qualified to oversee the Wind-Down, manage the orderly dissolution of the Debtors, and ensure that all remaining claims administration, reporting, and distribution obligations are carried out in accordance with the Plan.

76. Therefore, the requirements under section 1129(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code are satisfied, and no party has asserted otherwise.

F. The Plan Does Not Require Governmental Regulatory Approval (§ 1129(a)(6))

77. Section 1129(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code permits confirmation only if any regulatory commission that has or will have jurisdiction over a debtor after confirmation has approved any rate change provided for in the plan. The Plan does not provide for any rate changes and the Debtors are not subject to any such regulation. Section 1129(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable to these Chapter 11 Cases, and no party has asserted otherwise.

G. The Plan Is in the Best Interests of All the Debtors' Creditors (§ 1129(a)(7))

78. The "best interests test" of section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that, with respect to each impaired class of claims or interests, each individual holder of a claim or interest has either accepted the plan or will receive or retain property having a present value, as of the effective date of the plan, of not less than that which such holder would receive if the debtor were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code at that time. The best interests test is satisfied where the estimated recoveries for a debtor's stakeholders in a hypothetical chapter 7 liquidation are less than or equal to the estimated recoveries for a holder of an impaired claim or interest under the debtor's chapter 11 plan that rejects the plan.[111]

[111] See Bank of Am. Nat'l Trust & Sav. Ass'n v. 203 N. LaSalle St. P'ship, 526 U.S. 434, 441 n.13 (1999) ("The 'best interests' test applies to individual creditors holding impaired claims, even if the class as a whole votes to accept the plan."); In re Cypresswood Land Partners, I, 409 B.R. 396, 428 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2009) ("This provision is known as the 'best-interest-of-creditors-test' because it ensures that reorganization is in the best interest of individual claimholders who have not voted in favor of the plan.").

79. To determine whether the Plan satisfies the best interests of creditors test, the Debtors, with the assistance of IslandDundon, prepared the Liquidation Analysis. The Liquidation Analysis represents a good-faith estimate of what creditors would recover in a hypothetical liquidation under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. The analysis, methodology, and assumptions applied as part of the Liquidation Analysis are set out in greater detail therein.

80. For all of the reasons set forth in the Liquidation Analysis, and subject to the limitations and assumptions contained therein, the Liquidation Analysis demonstrates that the Plan will provide each Holder of an Allowed Claim or Interest in an impaired class an amount that is not less than what such Holder would otherwise receive or retain through a liquidation of the Debtors under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

81. The Liquidation Analysis represents a good-faith estimate of recoveries in a hypothetical chapter 7 case, taking into account the limited assets of the Debtors, primarily consisting of the Kelly Hamilton Property, as well as remaining cash on hand. The analysis assumes that a chapter 7 trustee would be appointed shortly after conversion of the cases, that the trustee would conduct a sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property, and that the chapter 7 estates would incur additional administrative expenses, including trustee fees and professional costs, in connection with such process.

82. As set forth in the Liquidation Analysis, recoveries for Holders of Claims in a hypothetical chapter 7 liquidation are projected to be materially lower than under the Plan. In particular, Holders of Allowed Other Kelly Hamilton Unsecured Claims, CBRM Unsecured Claims, and the Spano CBRM Claim would receive no recovery in a chapter 7 scenario, as compared to potential recoveries of up to 100% under the Plan.

83. The estimates regarding the Debtors' assets and liabilities that are incorporated into the Liquidation Analysis are based upon the knowledge and familiarity of the Debtors' advisors with the Debtors' business and their relevant experience in chapter 11 proceedings. As such, the Debtors' Liquidation Analysis is reasonable and should be afforded deference.

84. Based on the Liquidation Analysis, no Holder of Claims or Interests would receive more in a hypothetical chapter 7 liquidation than it would receive under the Plan. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of the best interests of creditors test under section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code.

H. The Bankruptcy Code's Voting Requirements of Section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code

85. Section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that each class of claims or interests must either accept a plan or be unimpaired under a plan.[112] If any class of claims or interests rejects the plan, the plan must satisfy the "cramdown" requirements with respect to the claims or interests in that class.[113]

86. As set forth in the Voting Report, Holders of Claims in Classes 1 and 2 are not impaired under the Plan and, therefore, are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, and Holders of Claims in Classes 6, 7, 8, and 9 are impaired and deemed to reject the Plan. Additionally, as evidenced by the Voting Report, the Plan has been accepted by well in excess of two-thirds in amount and one-half in number of Holders of Kelly Hamilton Go-Forward Trade Claims, CBRM Unsecured Claims, and the Spano CBRM Claim entitled to vote and who voted on the Plan.

[113] 11 U.S.C. § 1129(b).

87. However, the Plan has not been accepted by the requisite number of Holders of Claims in Class 4 (Other Kelly Hamilton Unsecured Claims). As to Class 4, the Plan may be confirmed over their dissent under the "cram down" provisions of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Debtors will seek confirmation under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, rather than section 1129(a)(8). For the reasons set forth below, the Plan does not discriminate unfairly and is fair and equitable. Therefore, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and is confirmable.

I. The Plan Provides for Payment in Full of All Allowed Priority Claims (§ 1129(a)(9))

88. Section 1129(a)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that certain priority claims be paid in full on the effective date of a plan and that the holders of certain other priority claims receive deferred cash payments.[114] In particular, pursuant to section 1129(a)(9)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, holders of claims of a kind specified in section 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code—administrative claims allowed under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code—must receive on the effective date cash equal to the allowed amount of such claims.[115] Section 1129(a)(9)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that each holder of a claim of a kind specified in section 507(a)(1) or (4) through (7) of the Bankruptcy Code—generally wage, employee benefit, and deposit claims entitled to priority—must receive deferred cash payments of a value, as of the effective date of the plan, equal to the allowed amount of such claim (if such class has accepted the plan), or cash of a value equal to the allowed amount of such claim on the effective date of the plan (if such class has not accepted the plan). Finally, section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that the holder of a claim of a kind specified in section 507(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code—i.e., priority tax claims—must receive cash payments over a period not to exceed five years from the petition date, the present value of which equals the allowed amount of the claim. The Plan satisfies all of these requirements.

89. The Plan provides that, unless otherwise agreed to by the Holder of an Allowed General Administrative Claim and the Debtors, each Holder of an Allowed General Administrative Claim will receive, in full and final satisfaction of, and, in exchange for such General Administrative Claim, treatment as is consistent with the provisions of section 1129(a)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code or an amount of Cash equal to the unpaid amount of such Allowed General Administrative Claims in accordance with the following: (a) if such General Administrative Claim is Allowed as of the Effective Date, on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter (or, if not then due, when such Allowed General Administrative Claim is due or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter); (b) if such General Administrative Claim is not Allowed as of the Effective Date, no later than sixty (60) days after the date on which an order Allowing such General Administrative Claim becomes a Final Order, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter; (c) if such Allowed General Administrative Claim is based on liabilities incurred by the Debtors in the ordinary course of their business after the Petition Date in accordance with the terms and conditions of the particular transaction giving rise to such Allowed General Administrative Claim without any further action by the Holder of such Allowed General Administrative Claim, when such Allowed General Administrative Claim is due or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter; or (d) at such time and upon such terms as set forth in a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court.

90. Moreover, the Plan provides that, pursuant to section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code, unless otherwise agreed by the Holder of an Allowed Priority Tax Claim and the Debtors, prior to the Effective Date, each Holder of an Allowed Priority Tax Claim will receive, at the option of the Debtor, in full and final satisfaction of, and in exchange for, its Allowed Priority Tax Claim, (a) Cash in an amount equal to the amount of such Allowed Priority Tax Claim or (b) Cash in an aggregate amount of such Allowed Priority Tax Claim payable in instalment payments over a period of time not to exceed five (5) years after the Petition Date, pursuant to section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(a)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code.

J. At Least One Impaired Class of Claims Has Accepted the Plan (Section 1129(a)(10))

91. Section 1129(a)(10) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that, to the extent there is an impaired class of claims, at least one impaired class of claims must accept the plan, "without including any acceptance of the plan by any insider," as an alternative to the requirement under section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code that each class of claims or interests must either accept the plan or be unimpaired under the plan.[116]

92. As set forth in the Voting Report, Classes 3, 5A, and 5B are entitled to vote on the Plan, are Impaired, and have accepted the Plan, without including the acceptance of the Plan by any Insiders in such Class. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies section 1129(a)(10) of the Bankruptcy Code.

[116] 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(10).

K. The Plan Is Feasible and Is Not Likely to Be Followed by the Need for Further Financial Reorganization (Section 1129(a)(11))

93. Section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that the Court determine, in relevant part, that confirmation is not likely to be followed by the liquidation or further financial reorganization of the Debtors (or any successor thereto), unless such liquidation or reorganization is proposed in the Plan. The debtor bears the burden of demonstrating the feasibility of the plan by a preponderance of the evidence.[117] The Court need not require a guarantee of success to find the Plan feasible.[118] Instead, the Court must find that the "plan offers a reasonable expectation of success.[119]

94. In determining standards of feasibility, courts have identified the following probative factors:

- the adequacy of the capital structure;
- the earning power of the business;
- the economic conditions;
- the ability of management;
- the probability of the continuation of the same management; and [119] See In re G–I Holdings Inc., 420 B.R. 216, 267 (D.N.J. 2009) ("[The] key element of feasibility is whether there is a reasonable probability the provisions of the Plan can be performed.").

- any other related matter which determines the prospects of a sufficiently successful operation to enable performance of the provisions of the plan.[120]

95. The Plan proposes the consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction and an orderly wind-down of the Debtors' remaining affairs. The Plan's means of implementation authorize all actions necessary to effectuate the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction and related transactions, and identifies sources of cash for distribution—namely, Sale Proceeds, Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and Wind-Down Assets.

96. To carry out this wind-down, the Plan establishes a Wind-Down Officer, who is empowered to (a) liquidate any remaining assets after the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, (b) resolve disputed wind-down claims, (c) make Plan distributions, (d) file final tax returns, and (e) oversee the ultimate dissolution of the Debtors. This centralized post-Effective Date administration provides a clear path to promptly conclude the Estates.[121] Thus, the Plan satisfies the feasibility requirement under section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code.

97. In sum, the Plan's implementation provisions, funding sources, wind-down framework, and distribution mechanics establish that confirmation will not be followed by the need for further reorganization. Instead, the Plan provides a practical, fully articulated path to consummate the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, administer and distribute the remaining assets (including through the Creditor Recovery Trust), and promptly close these cases.

L. The Plan Provides for the Payment of All Fees Under 28 U.S.C. § 1930 (Section 1129(a)(12))

98. Section 1129(a)(12) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the payment of "[a]ll fees payable under section 1930 of title 28 [of the United States Code], as determined by the court at the hearing on confirmation of the plan." Section 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that "any fees and charges assessed against the estate under [section 1930 of] chapter 123 of title 28" are afforded priority as administrative expenses. The Plan satisfies section 1129(a)(12) of the Bankruptcy Code because the Debtors have paid all chapter 11 statutory and operating fees required to be paid during these Chapter 11 Cases. Further, pursuant to the Plan, all Quarterly Fees payable on or before the Effective Date shall be paid by the Debtors in full in Cash on the Effective Date. After the Effective Date, the Debtors, the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, and the Wind-Down Officer shall pay any and all Quarterly Fees in full in cash when due in each Chapter 11 Case for each quarter (including any fraction thereof) until the earliest of such Chapter 11 Case being closed, dismissed, or converted to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies section 1129(a)(12) of the Bankruptcy Code.

M. Sections 1129(a)(13) Through 1129(a)(16) of the Bankruptcy Code Do Not Apply to the Plan

99. Several of the Bankruptcy Code's confirmation requirements are inapplicable to the Plan. Section 1129(a)(13) requires that all retiree benefits continue post-effective date at any levels established in accordance with section 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code.[122] The Debtors do not have any remaining obligations to pay retiree benefits (as defined in section 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code) or will not have any such obligations as of the Effective Date. Section 1129(a)(14) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable to the Plan because the Debtors are not subject to any domestic support obligations.[123] Section 1129(a)(15) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable to the Plan because none of the Debtors are "individuals" as that term is defined in the Bankruptcy Code.[124] Section 1129(a)(16) of the Bankruptcy Code is also inapplicable because the Plan does not provide for any property transfers by a corporation or trust that is not a moneyed, business, or commercial corporation or trust.[125]

[122] 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(13). Section 1114(a) of the Bankruptcy Code defines "retiree benefits" as: "[P]ayments to any entity or person for the purpose of providing or reimbursing payments for retired employees and their spouses and dependents, for medical, surgical, or hospital care benefits, or benefits in the event of sickness, accident, disability, or death under any plan, fund, or program (through the purchase of insurance or otherwise) maintained or established in whole or in part by the debtor prior to filing a petition commencing a case under this title." 11 U.S.C. § 1114(a).

N. The Plan Satisfies the Cramdown Requirements (Section 1129(b))

100. Section 1129(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that, if all applicable requirements of section 1129(a) of the Bankruptcy Code are met other than section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code, a plan may be confirmed so long as the requirements set forth in section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code are satisfied. To confirm a plan that has not been accepted by all impaired classes (thereby failing to satisfy section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code), the plan proponent must show that the plan does not "discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" with respect to the non-accepting impaired classes.[126]

101. As set forth above, Classes 6, 7, 8, and 9 are deemed to reject the Plan, and Class 4 voted to reject the Plan. As set forth below, the Plan satisfies the requirements under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and no party has asserted otherwise.

1. The Plan Is Fair and Equitable (§ 1129(b)(2)(B)(ii))

102. A plan is "fair and equitable" with respect to an impaired class of claims or interests that rejects a plan (or is deemed to reject a plan) if it follows the "absolute priority" rule.[127] This requires that an impaired rejecting class of claims or interests either be paid in full or that a class junior to the impaired accepting class not receive any distribution under a plan on account of its junior claim or interest.[128] The Plan satisfies section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Notwithstanding the fact that Classes 6, 7, 8, and 9 are deemed to have rejected the Plan and that Class 4 rejected the Plan, the Plan is confirmable.

103. Pursuant to section 1129(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan distributes value to Holders of Claims and Interests pursuant to the priority scheme set forth in the Bankruptcy Code, and, with respect to Classes 6, 7, 8, and 9 (each of which is deemed to have rejected the Plan), and Class 4, which has rejected the Plan, no Holder of a Claim or Interest in a class junior to such Impaired Classes will receive or retain any property under the Plan on account of such junior Claim or Interest. Accordingly, the Plan may still be confirmed under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. The Plan Does Not Unfairly Discriminate with Respect to the Impaired Classes That Have Not Voted to Accept the Plan (§ 1129(b)(1))

104. Unlike the concept of "fair and equitable," which is defined under the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Code does not provide a standard for determining when "unfair discrimination" exists. Courts typically examine the facts and circumstances of the particular case to make the determination.[129] In general, courts have held that a plan unfairly discriminates in violation of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code only if it provides materially different treatment for creditors and interest holders with similar legal rights without compelling justifications for doing so.[130] A threshold inquiry to assessing whether a proposed chapter 11 plan unfairly discriminates against a dissenting class is whether the dissenting class is equally situated to a class allegedly receiving more favorable treatment.[131]

105. Class 4 includes all unsecured claims against Debtors Kelly Hamilton or Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC that are not held by creditors that will continue to provide goods and services to such Debtor entities following the consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction. Class 6 includes all claims held by a Debtor or an Affiliate against another Debtor or Affiliate. Class 7 encompasses any Interests held by one Debtor in another Debtor. Class 8, by contrast, only includes the equity interests of Mark Silber in Debtor CBRM. Finally, Class 9 includes all Section 510(b) Claims subject to subordination pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code.

106. The Plan's treatment of Classes 4, 6, 7, 8, and 9 is proper and does not represent unfair discrimination because no similarly situated Class of Claims or Interests will receive more favourable treatment under the Plan. Specifically, the Plan classifies all similarly-situated Holders of Claims and Interests together and all similarly-situated Holders of Claims and Interests will receive the same treatment. In fact, there are no similarly situated Classes or Interests pursuant to the Plan, so the Plan does not discriminate unfairly.

O. The Plan Complies with the Other Provisions of Section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code (Sections 1129(c)–(e))

107. The Plan satisfies the remaining provisions of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code. First, section 1129(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, which prohibits confirmation of multiple plans, is not implicated because there is only one proposed plan. Second, the purpose of the Plan is not to avoid taxes or the application of section 5 of the Securities Act of 1933. Moreover, no governmental unit or any other party has requested that the Court decline to confirm the Plan on such grounds. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(d) of the Bankruptcy Code. Finally, section 1129(e) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable because none of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases is a "small business case." Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(c), (d), and (e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and no party has asserted otherwise.

III. The Plan Complies with the Discretionary Provisions of Section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code

108. Finally, the Plan contains provisions implementing certain releases and exculpations, compromising claims and interests, and enjoining certain causes of action. These provisions are substantially consistent with those approved by the Court in precedent chapter 11 plans.[132] Each of these provisions is appropriate because, as applicable, they (a) are the product of arm's-length negotiations, (b) were critical to obtaining the support of the various constituencies for the Plan, (c) are given for valuable consideration, (d) are fair and equitable and in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and these Chapter 11 Cases, and (e) are consistent with the relevant provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and Third Circuit law. Such provisions are discussed in turn below, but, in summary, satisfy the requirements of section 1123(b).

A. The Plan Complies with Section 1123(d) of the Bankruptcy Code

109. Section 1123(d) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that "if it is proposed in a plan to cure a default the amount necessary to cure the default shall be determined in accordance with the underlying agreement and nonbankruptcy law."[133] With respect to the Debtors' Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, the Plan provides for the assumption or rejection by the Debtors or the assumption and assignment thereof to the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser in accordance with the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement, which satisfies section 1123(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. Further, as contemplated by section 1123(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors filed and served certain notices of cure costs and potential assumption and assignment of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, which set forth a list of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases that may be assumed and assigned to the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser in connection with the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction.[134]

110. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, and no party has asserted otherwise.

B. The Plan Appropriately Incorporates Settlements of Certain Claims and Interests

111. The Bankruptcy Code states that a plan may "provide for . . . the settlement or adjustment of any claim or interest belonging to the debtor or to the estate."[135] The Plan provides for a settlement of certain Claims and Interests to the extent provided for by the Bankruptcy Code.

112. Settlements are favored in chapter 11 because they minimize litigation and expedite the administration of the bankruptcy case.[136] Settlements are considered a "normal part of the process of reorganization" and a "desirable and wise method[] of bringing to a close proceedings" that would otherwise be "lengthy, complicated, and costly."[137] Ultimately, approval of a compromise is within the "sound discretion" of the Court.[138]

113. The standards for approval of a settlement under section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code are generally the same as those under Bankruptcy Rule 9019.[139] Generally, courts in the Third Circuit will approve a settlement by the debtors if the settlement "exceed[s] the lowest point in the range of reasonableness."[140] The Third Circuit has provided the following four criteria that a Court should consider when approving a settlement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019: (a) the probability of success in litigation; (b) the likely difficulties in collection; (c) the complexity of the litigation involved, and the expense, inconvenience, and delay necessarily attending it; and (d) the paramount interest of creditors.[141] In addition, the court must determine whether the proposed settlement is fair and equitable, and in the best interests of the estate.[142]

114. The Plan incorporates the settlement or adjustment of certain Claims or Interests belonging to the Debtors or to the Estates in consideration for the classification, Distributions, releases, and other benefits provided under the Plan. The settlements embodied in the Plan are fair and equitable and consistent with the Bankruptcy Code.

115. Accordingly, the Plan's discretionary general settlement provisions satisfy the requirements of section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and no party is asserting otherwise.

C. The Plan Provides for the Sale of Estate Assets

116. Section 1123(b)(4) provides that a plan may provide for the sale of all or substantially all of the property of the estate, and the distribution of the proceeds of such sale among holders of claims or interests.[143] As permitted by section 1123(b)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan provides for the consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction pursuant to the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement, which will effectuate a value-maximizing sale of the Debtors' Kelly Hamilton Property.

117. The Plan seeks approval of a value-maximizing sale of the Debtors' Kelly Hamilton Property to the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser, as more fully set forth in the Plan. As discussed in the Disclosure Statement, during these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors pursued a Court-approved, public, and transparent process for a value-maximizing sale transaction. The Debtor cast a wide net to prospective purchasers and conducted a fair auction process in accordance with the Bankruptcy Court-approved Bidding Procedures. The Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction effectuated through the Plan is the result of those immense efforts.

118. The Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction effectuated through the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser's credit bid represents a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment. The Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction is effectuated in good faith, and results from a heavily negotiated, arm's length bargaining process. As set forth more fully in the Dundon Declaration, the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction is in good faith and appropriate under the circumstances. Accordingly, the Plan is consistent with Bankruptcy Code section 1123(b)(4).

D. Modifications of Rights of Holders of Claims and Interests

119. Section 1123(b)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a plan may "modify the rights of holders of secured claims, other than a claim secured only by a security interest in real property that is the debtor's principal residence, or of holder of unsecured claims, or leave unaffected the rights of holders of any class of claims."[144]

[144] 11 U.S.C. § 1123(b)(5).

120. As permitted by section 1123(b)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan modifies, or may modify, the rights of Holders of Claims and Interests in Classes 3, 4, 5A, 5B, 6, 7, 8, and 9, and leaves unaffected the rights of Holders of Claims in Classes 1 and 2.

E. The Plan's Release, Exculpation, and Injunction Provisions Satisfy Section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code

121. The Plan includes consensual and customary releases of Claims held by the Debtors and parties in interest, an exculpation provision, and an injunction provision. These provisions are the product of good-faith, arm's-length negotiations among the Debtors and their key stakeholders, informed by the extensive investigation and review undertaken by the Independent Fiduciary and the Debtors' professionals. The releases are narrowly tailored, supported by valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties—including their efforts to negotiate and implement the Plan and their contributions that enabled the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction and establishment of the Creditor Recovery Trust—and are critical to achieving the settlements embodied in the Plan. Moreover, the overwhelming approval of the Plan by the Debtors' stakeholders strongly supports the conclusion that these Plan provisions are appropriate. The Debtors and their stakeholders believe these provisions are fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of creditors, and they are consistent with the Bankruptcy Code.

1. The Release by Holders of Claims and Interests Is Appropriate

122. The Plan provides for certain consensual third-party releases granted by Releasing Parties. The Disclosure Statement and solicitation materials clearly disclosed the third-party release in conspicuous terms and explained the consent mechanics.

123. Courts in the Third Circuit routinely approve such release provisions if, as here, they are consensual and appropriately tailored.[145] Here, all parties in interest will be given ample opportunity to evaluate and opt into the Third-Party Release. Holders of Claims or Interests were afforded the opportunity to affirmatively consent to the third-party release through their Ballots or opt-in forms; only those parties who provided affirmative consent are treated as Releasing Parties under the Plan. Specifically, a Holder of a Claim in Class 3, Class 4, Class 5A, or Class 5B affirmatively consented to grant the third-party release set forth in Article VIII.D of the Plan if the Holder either (a) voted to accept the Plan, or (b) abstained or did not affirmatively vote to accept the Plan but checked the box on the Holder's Ballot indicating that the Holder opts to grant the release. Holders of Claims or Interests in Class 1, Class 2, Class 6, Class 7, Class 8, and Class 9, which were not entitled to vote, could affirmatively consent to grant the release by submitting a completed Opt-In Form and checking the box on the form indicating their consent.

124. Furthermore, all voting stakeholders and non-voting stakeholders were be asked to certify that they read and understood the election they were making in the Opt-In Form and will receive notice and instructions for doing so.

125. In addition to being consensual, the third-party release is (a) specific in scope, (b) a key inducement for stakeholder concessions, and (c) supported by valuable consideration of all of the Released Parties that will allow the Debtors to consummate the Kelly Hamilton Sale

Transaction, establish the Creditor Recovery Trust, and facilitate the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' affairs. The consensual third-party release provides a substantial level of finality that is fair, reasonable, and appropriate.

2. The Debtor Release is Appropriate

126. The Plan includes consensual and customary releases of Claims held by the Debtors and parties in interest, an exculpation provision, and an injunction provision. These provisions are the product of good-faith, arm's-length negotiations among the Debtors and their key stakeholders, informed by the extensive investigation and review undertaken by the Independent Fiduciary and the Debtors' professionals. The releases are narrowly tailored, supported by valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties—including their efforts to negotiate and implement the Plan and their contributions that enabled the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction and establishment of the Creditor Recovery Trust—and are critical to achieving the settlements embodied in the Plan. Moreover, the overwhelming approval of the Plan by the Debtors' stakeholders strongly supports the conclusion that these Plan provisions are appropriate. The Debtors and their stakeholders believe these provisions are fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of creditors, and they are consistent with the Bankruptcy Code.

127. These releases are limited in scope and supported by consideration, including the Released Parties' support for the Plan, the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, and the creation and funding of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Released Parties include: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser; (c) the Asset Manager; (d) the Property Manager; (e) the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (h) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent.

128. Section 1123(b)(3)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a chapter 11 plan may provide for "the settlement or adjustment of any claim or interest belonging to the debtor or to the estate."[146] A debtor may release claims under section 1123(b)(3)(A) "if the release is a valid exercise of the debtor's business judgment, is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the estate."[147]

129. Courts in this jurisdiction and elsewhere generally analyze five factors when determining the propriety of a debtor release, commonly known as the Zenith or Master Mortgage factors.[148] The analysis includes an inquiry into whether there is: (1) identity of interest between the debtor and non-debtor; (2) contribution to the plan by the non-debtor; (3) the necessity of the release to the plan; (4) overwhelming acceptance of the plan and release by creditors and interest holders; and (5) payment of all or substantially all of the claims of the creditors and interest holders.[149] These factors are "neither exclusive nor conjunctive requirements" but rather serve as guidance to courts in determining fairness of a debtor's releases.[150] The Debtor Releases easily meet the applicable standard and should be approved.[151]

130. First, an identity of interest exists between the Debtors and the proposed Released Parties. All of the Debtors' Released Parties engaged as crucial participants in the Plan process and share a common goal with the Debtors in seeing the Plan succeed. The Released Parties seek to confirm the Plan and implement the transactions contemplated thereunder, and that each Released Party has worked constructively with the Debtors to promote their wind-down efforts, both prior to and following the Petition Date.

131. Specifically, since September 26, 2024, the Independent Fiduciary has acted in a fiduciary capacity for the Debtors and other non-debtor entities owned by Debtors CBRM Realty Inc. and Crown Capital Holdings LLC.[152] Prior to the Petition Date, the Independent Fiduciary took steps to revitalize the Debtors' portfolio, including by ensuring that each property owned by the portfolio had sufficient staffing and other resources, with the goal of ensuring that residents had safe, clean homes, as well as providing periodic updates to the Noteholders. Since the Petition Date, the Independent Fiduciary has engaged with the Debtors' professionals and stakeholders to promote the Debtors' restructuring efforts, including by directing and overseeing the negotiation and execution of the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement, the marketing of the Kelly Hamilton Property, and the proposed Plan.

132. Similarly, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser are active participants in these Chapter 11 Cases, providing both the debtor-in-possession financing needed to reach confirmation and the successful bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property. Accordingly, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser maintain a strong interest in seeing the Plan confirmed and the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction contemplated therein be consummated. Moreover, as set forth in the in the Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order, the Debtors may be required to indemnify the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender for certain claims. Where such indemnification obligations exist, there is an identity of interest between the indemnitor and the indemnitee.

133. The Noteholders also played a crucial role in the Plan process. As stakeholders, the Noteholders share the common goal of confirming the Plan, which includes the creation of the Creditor Recovery Trust for the benefit of, among others, Noteholders with Allowed Unsecured Claims. In the absence of an official unsecured creditors' committee, the Noteholders served as the primary voice and coordinating constituency for unsecured creditors in these Chapter 11 Cases.

134. Finally, as explained in greater detail below, the Debtors' Asset Manager and Property Manager were also integral parties to the Plan process, including the negotiation and execution of the Plan. Indeed, the services provided by these parties were necessary to preserve the value of the Kelly Hamilton Property, which is central to the Debtors' restructuring efforts. Accordingly, these parties share the common goal of ensuring the Plan's success and consummation.

135. Second, the Released Parties have each made a substantial contribution to the Debtors' Estates, as each Released Party played an integral role in the formulation of the Plan and the administration of these Chapter 11 Cases. As courts in this jurisdiction have recognized, a wide variety of acts may illustrate a substantial contribution to a debtor's bankruptcy efforts.[153] As explained above, the Independent Fiduciary has negotiated with critical stakeholders, overseen the administration of these Chapter 11 Cases, and managed the negotiation, drafting, and execution of the Plan, including the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction pursuant to the terms of the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement. Moreover, the Independent Fiduciary has agreed to forego payment of certain fees that arose prior to the Petition Date and/or may be forced to forego payment of certain fees and expenses incurred postpetition in exchange for the releases contemplated in the Plan. As a result, the Independent Fiduciary has provided substantial monetary and non-monetary contributions to the Debtors' wind-down efforts.

136. Moreover, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser have affirmatively contributed value that was necessary to consummate the Plan. Indeed, as set forth above, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender provided the financing needed to fund these Chapter 11 Cases, including to market, auction, and sell the Kelly Hamilton Property, and the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser invested the time and resources to negotiate the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement, and agreed to serve as the "stalking horse bidder" for the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property, thus setting a baseline bid for the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property and promoting a competitive bidding process.[154] Accordingly, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser have made substantial contributions to the Debtors' wind-down efforts.

137. The Noteholders also provided substantial contributions to the Debtors and their Estates and were instrumental in negotiating the terms of the Plan on behalf of a key group of Holders of Unsecured Claims. Indeed, certain of the Noteholders have agreed to serve on the Advisory Committee (as defined in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement), which will ensure that the Creditor Recovery Trust is managed by a body with a fiduciary responsibility to its beneficiaries.

138. The Debtors' professionals have made significant contributions to the Debtors' efforts in these Chapter 11 Cases. With respect to Debtors' counsel, White & Case LLP played an instrumental role in the Debtors' bankruptcy proceedings, including by (i) facilitating the commencement of the chapter 11 cases through the filing of the Debtors' voluntary petitions, (ii) securing, revising, and filing motions that, among other things, secured the necessary postpetition financing needed to administer these Chapter 11 Cases, and (iii) negotiating and filing the proposed Plan and Disclosure Statement.[155] Similarly, the Debtors' New Jersey counsel, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, has provided vital contributions to the Debtors throughout these Chapter 11 Cases, including by assisting the Debtors as New Jersey counsel with respect to matters and proceedings in the Chapter 11 Cases.

139. IslandDundon has similarly made substantial contributions to the Debtors' bankruptcy efforts. Indeed, as set forth above and in the Bidding Procedures Declaration, IslandDundon advised the Debtors in connection with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender's proposed terms to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property, the "stalking horse bid" submitted by the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser, and the parallel process by which the Debtors pursued a marketing process to ensure no higher or better offers were available for the Kelly Hamilton Property.

140. The Debtors' Claims and Noticing Agent provided valuable services that have allowed the Debtors to propose and seek to confirm the Plan. For example, the Claims and Noticing Agent solicited votes from each class of creditors entitled to vote on the Plan, tabulated these votes, and published the Voting Report setting forth the results of the vote, along with ensuring that the Disclosure Statement and Plan were properly noticed.

141. In addition to the Independent Fiduciary, the Debtors' professionals, including White & Case LLP, IslandDundon LLC, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, and Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global, have agreed to forego payment of certain fees that arose prior to the Petition Date and/or may be forced to forego payment of certain fees and expenses incurred postpetition, in exchange for the releases contemplated in the Plan.

142. As explained above, the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction is a crucial cornerstone of the proposed Plan. The Debtors' Property Manager was charged with day-to-day operations, tenant relations, staffing, and maintenance of the Debtors' properties, including the Kelly Hamilton Property, while the Asset Manager's duties included contracting with professionals, including property managers and contractors, and monitoring their performance, managing and disbursing funds, establishing reserves, and recommending cash resource investment strategies, reviewing and monitoring the property manager's operations, preparing strategic asset and marketing plans, recommending and overseeing major repairs, replacements, and critical improvements at the Debtors' properties, and providing information for annual financial statements and tax returns.[156] These services helped obtain the highest and best bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property and kept the Debtors operational during the course of these Chapter 11 Cases. Accordingly, the Asset Manager and Property Manager and the Claims and Noticing Agent provided substantial value to the Debtors, and thus the Debtor Releases are appropriate with respect to these parties.

143. Third, the Debtor Releases are essential to the success of the Debtors' Plan because they constitute an integral term of the Plan. Absent the Debtor Releases, it is highly unlikely that the Released Parties would have agreed to support the Plan. As described above, each Released Party contributed substantial value to these Chapter 11 Cases and did so with the understanding that they would receive releases from the Debtors. In the absence of the Released Parties' support, the Debtors would not be in a position to confirm the Plan, implement the Plan, and maximize value for creditors. The Debtor Releases, therefore, are essential to the Debtors' Restructuring Transactions.

144. For example, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender insisted on these Debtor Releases during the negotiation of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Credit Agreement, as evidenced by that certain Binding Term Sheet for Senior Secured, Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Financing dated May 26, 2025.[157]

[157] See Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order, Ex. A.

145. Importantly, the Debtor Releases are the product of arm's-length negotiations between the Debtors and their key stakeholders, all of which was overseen by the Debtors' Independent Fiduciary. In consideration for the Debtor Releases, the Debtors and their Estates will receive mutual releases from potential each of the Releasing Parties, along with the substantial contributions by each Released Party as set forth above. The Debtor Releases provide finality, underpins the settlement and compromise of issues achieved by the Plan, and avoids significant delay in consummating the Plan. Therefore, the inclusion of the Debtor Releases are appropriate and inures to the benefit of all the Debtors' stakeholders.

146. Fourth, a substantial majority of a debtor's creditors voted to accept the plan with the proposed releases. Here, as shown in the Voting Report, all but one of the classes entitled to vote on the Plan all voted to accept the Plan. Further, apart from the U.S. Trustee—who is not an affected creditor under the Plan—no party has objected specifically to the Debtor Releases. Accordingly, there is overwhelming support of the Debtor Releases by the parties affected by such releases.

3. The Exculpation Provision Is Appropriate

147. Article VIII.E of the Plan provides that each Exculpated Party shall be released and exculpated from any Cause of Action for acts or omissions in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan, and related transactions, except for acts or omissions determined by Final Order to constitute actual fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence. The exculpation is narrowly tailored in time and scope.

148. Courts evaluate the appropriateness of exculpation provisions based on a number of factors, including whether the plan was proposed in good faith, whether liability is limited, and whether the exculpation provision was necessary for plan negotiations.[158] Exculpation provisions that are limited to claims not involving a criminal act, actual fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence, are customary and generally approved in this district under appropriate circumstances.[159] Unlike third-party releases, exculpation provisions do not affect the liability of third parties per se but rather set a standard of care of gross negligence or willful misconduct in future litigation by a non-releasing party against an "Exculpated Party" for acts arising out of the Debtors' restructuring.[160] Exculpation for parties participating in the Plan process is appropriate where Plan negotiations could not have occurred without protection from liability.[161]

149. The Exculpated Parties have participated in good faith in formulating and negotiating the Plan as it relates to the Debtors, and they should be entitled to protection from exposure to any lawsuits related to this chapter 11 process filed by unsatisfied parties. Moreover, the Exculpation provision and the liability standard it sets represent a conclusion of law that flows logically from certain findings of fact that the Court must reach in confirming the Plan as it relates to the Debtors. As discussed above, this Court must find, under section 1129(a)(2), that the Debtors have complied with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Additionally, this Court must find, under section 1129(a)(3), that the Plan has been proposed in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law. These findings apply to the Debtors and, by extension, their Related Parties. Further, these findings imply that the Plan was negotiated at arm's-length and in good faith.

150. Here, the estate fiduciaries and professionals who acted in good faith and in reliance on the Bankruptcy Code and orders of the Court, and it is consistent with sections 105, 1125, and 1129(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The exculpation provision is an integral component of the Plan and supports an efficient conclusion of these Chapter 11 Cases while preserving accountability for wrongful conduct.

4. The Injunction Provision Is Appropriate

151. Article VIII.F of the Plan implements the Plan's release and exculpation provisions by permanently enjoining all Persons and Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that are fully satisfied pursuant to the Plan or any Claim or Interest that is subject to the releases and exculpations set forth in the Plan from enforcing, pursuing, or seeking any setoff or relief with respect to such Claims or Interests, except for the receipt of the payments or Distributions that are contemplated by the Plan. Thus, the Injunction Provision is a necessary part of the Plan precisely because it enforces the discharge, release, and exculpation provisions that are centrally important to the Plan.[162] Further, the injunction provided for in the Plan is narrowly tailored to achieve its purpose.

[162] See SEC v. Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp. (In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp.), 960 F.2d 285, 293 (2d Cir. 1992) (holding that a court may approve an injunction provision where such provision "plays an important part in the debtor's reorganization plan").

IV. The Remaining Objections to Confirmation of the Plan and Final Approval of the Adequacy of the Disclosure Statement Should be Overruled

152. The Debtors received three objections: the Bacon Objection, the City Objection and the U.S. Trustee Objection. To the extent the Debtors are unable to consensually resolve such Objections prior to the Confirmation Hearing, the Debtors request that the Court overrule such Objections for the reason set forth herein.

A. The Court Should Overrule the Bacon and City Objections to the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction

1. The Bacon and City Objections Are Impermissible Collateral Attacks on This Court's Final Orders

153. Both Ms. Bacon and the City (together, the "Objectors") seek to rehash issues already decided by this Court. Specifically, the Objectors raise various issues with respect to the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, asserting that (i) the stalking horse bid submitted by the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser was impermissible, (ii) the Debtors' marketing of the Kelly Hamilton Property was flawed, and (iii) the parties to the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement are insiders. The Objectors also attack the postpetition financing approved by this Court, objecting to (i) the allocation of proceeds under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, and (ii) the identity of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender as an insider. The objections lodged by the City and Ms. Bacon are not confirmation objections but rather attempts to re-litigate issues already resolved by the Court in prior final orders.

154. With respect to the proposed sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property, the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction is the product of a transparent, Court-approved process that represents the only viable path to maximize value for creditors and preserve affordable housing for tenants. The Debtors, under the oversight of their Independent Fiduciary and with the assistance of their advisors, marketed the Kelly Hamilton Property consistent with the Bidding Procedures Order.

Despite broad outreach, no other qualified bids were submitted. The stalking horse bid of the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser was therefore properly designated as the highest and best offer.

155. Similarly, these objections disregard the record and both of the Kelly Hamilton Interim DIP Order and Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order, which are now final and non-appealable. As the record reflects, the Debtors pursued multiple financing alternatives, but all proved unworkable, leaving the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility as the only viable option. That facility—including its sources and uses—was fully disclosed, subjected to notice and hearing, and approved only after this Court found that the Debtors could not obtain credit on more favorable terms, that the financing was negotiated in good faith and at arm's length, and that it was essential to preserve tenant welfare and estate value.[163] The Objectors' present challenges are nothing more than impermissible collateral attacks on those final orders and should be rejected.

i. The Bidding Procedures Order Is A Final Order Not Subject to Collateral Attack

156. Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 8002(a) provides that a "notice of appeal must be filed with the bankruptcy clerk within 14 days after the judgment, order, or decree to be appealed is entered." Upon entry of a final order by the Bankruptcy Court, any party who fails to appeal such an order or otherwise seeks an extension of time to do so will be bound by the terms of that order.[164] The period of time to file an appeal may be extended by a bankruptcy court upon a request of a party, but only where such a request is made either: (i) before the time for filing a [163] See Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order ¶¶ E, F, I.

[164] See In re Patriot Contr. Corp., No. 05-33190 (DHS), 2006 Bankr. LEXIS 4988, at *9 (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 28, 2006) (finding that a creditor who never filed an objection to the entry of a cash collateral order and who did not file a timely appeal of that order "cannot now challenge that [o]rder through a subsequent motion.").

notice of appeal has expired, or (ii) within twenty days from the expiration of the time to file a notice of appeal, so long as the movant can show "excusable neglect."[165]

157. Upon expiration of this appeal period, a bankruptcy court's order becomes final and parties who failed to seek appropriate relief will be bound by the terms of that order. As the court in In re Target Indus., Inc. explained, "[a]lthough the contours of a bankruptcy case make its somewhat more difficult than in other contexts, the doctrine of res judicata is fully applicable to bankruptcy court decisions.[166] Indeed, "res judicata is applicable to final orders issued by the bankruptcy court."[167]

158. Because application of res judicata in bankruptcy matters present difficulties, the Third Circuit has provided guidance in this area, holding that claim should be barred if the "factual underpinnings, theory of the case, and relief sought . . . are so close to a claim actually litigated in bankruptcy that it would be unreasonable not to have brought them both at the same time in the bankruptcy forum."[168]

159. The issues raised by the Objectors were previously adjudicated by this Court in the Bidding Procedures Order, entered on July 24, 2025.[169] Pursuant to Rule 8002(a), any party wishing to appeal that order was required to file a notice of appeal or a motion to extend the appeal period by August 7, 2025. Under Rule 8002(c), the Objectors had one final opportunity to seek an extension by filing a motion no later than August 27, 2025. Even assuming—though it is not the case—that the current objections could be construed as such a motion, relief under Rule 8002(c) requires a showing that the failure to timely appeal was due to excusable neglect. The Objectors have made no such showing.

160. Importantly, the Objectors—who were parties to these bankruptcy proceedings[170]—received notice of the Bidding Procedures Motion, the supporting declaration, this Court's order setting a July 24, 2025 hearing, and the Bidding Procedures Order itself. Despite this, the Objectors: (a) did not file any formal objections to the proposed relief; (b) did not appear at the July 24 hearing; (c) did not appeal the Bidding Procedures Order; and (d) did not seek an extension of time to file an appeal. The Court should not permit the Objectors to now collaterally attack final orders entered in connection with plan confirmation.

161. The issues raised by the Objectors have already been presented to and ruled upon by the Court. Specifically, the Objectors argue that the credit bid submitted by the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser and the bid protections approved by the Court should not have been authorized, claiming they may have had a chilling effect on bidding.[171] However, in entering the Bidding Procedures Order, the Court expressly authorized the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser to credit bid the amount of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility Obligations and the Manager Administrative Expense Claim.[172]

162. In doing so, the Court considered whether the credit bid, along with the proposed procedures, would deter competitive bidding. The Court concluded that no such chilling effect would result. Furthermore, the marketing process failed to produce any alternative bids that were viable or competitive with the value offered by the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser—whether that bid was structured as a credit bid or otherwise.

163. Ms. Bacon also argues that, due to numerous perceived flaws concerning the timeframe in which the sale occurred, the marketing process for the Kelly Hamilton Property failed to obtain the highest and best price for the property.[173] Specifically, the Bacon Objection argues that the "effort to develop a plan for the Kelly Hamilton portfolio has been hampered by," among other things, the "accelerated timeline for a sale to the [Kelly Hamilton Purchaser]."[174] The Bacon Objection goes on to assert that the "abbreviated timeframe" prevented "other potential buyers from making fair market value bids for the portfolio following due diligence, including the local governmental and nongovernmental stakeholders with whom Ms. Bacon and her counsel have been working for this purpose."[175]

164. These issues have already been resolved by the Court, and Ms. Bacon cannot now challenge the procedures that were previously approved. The Debtors sought, and the Court authorized in the Bidding Procedures Order, a specific timeline for the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Property that balanced the need for thorough marketing with the urgency imposed by the Debtors' financial constraints.

165. The Bidding Procedures Order expressly found that "the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, and the Confirmation and Sale Hearing, and the objection periods associated with each of the foregoing are reasonably calculated to provide notice to any affected party and afford the affected party the opportunity to exercise any rights affected by the" Bidding Procedures

Motion.[176] The Court also determined that the "Confirmation and Sale Notice is appropriate and reasonably calculated to provide all interested parties with timely and proper notice."[177]

166. Further, the Court concluded that such notice was sufficient to inform all interested parties—including known and unknown holders of liens, claims, interests, or other encumbrances—that the proposed Sale Transaction would be free and clear of such interests as to the Debtors, their assets, and their estates.[178]

167. In short, the timeline under which the Debtors completed the Kelly Hamilton Transaction was already reviewed and approved by this Court. Ms. Bacon cannot now raise objections that should have been asserted months ago.

ii. The Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order Is A Final Order Not Subject to Collateral Attack

168. The Objectors' challenges constitute nothing more than impermissible collateral attacks. Any such arguments could have been raised in response to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Motion—at the interim hearing, the final hearing, or by appeal.[179] Having failed to do so, and with the Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order now final and non-appealable, the doctrine of res judicata squarely bars any attempt to revisit issues already adjudicated by this Court.

169. As noted above, res judicata is a judicial doctrine that precludes a party from re-litigating claims that were, or could have been, raised in a prior action.[180] The doctrine applies [179] Pursuant to Fed. R. Bank. P. 8002(a), a notice of appeal must be filed with the bankruptcy clerk within 14 days after the judgment, order, or decree to be appealed is entered. The Objectors raise objections to the Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order, which are not only procedurally as they are raised as a confirmation objection but also 55 days too late.

where three elements are satisfied: (1) a final judgment on the merits in a prior proceeding; (2) the same parties or their privies; and (3) a subsequent action based on the same cause of action.[181] Res judicata "gives dispositive effect to a prior judgment if a particular issue, although not litigated, could have been raised in the earlier proceeding."[182] In such circumstances, a court "must dismiss . . . any claim that was previously raised, or which could have been raised previously."[183]

170. All three elements are satisfied here. First, the Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order constitutes a final judgment on the merits of the Debtors' request for postpetition financing and use of proceeds to prepay the Prepetition Kelly Hamilton Loan, entered after appropriate notice and hearings. Second, the Objectors were parties in interest who received notice and an opportunity to be heard in connection with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Motion, and are thus bound by the order. Third, the objections they now raise—challenging the propriety of the "roll-up," the allocation of sale proceeds, and the alleged insider status—arise from the same cause of action, namely the approval and implementation of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility. Under res judicata, these claims are barred. Courts have consistently applied res judicata to final orders entered in bankruptcy cases under similar circumstances.[184]

Antonelli Creditors' Liquidating Trust*, 123 F.3d 777, 783 (4th Cir. 1997) (confirmation order could not be collaterally attacked). There are also numerous cases where financing orders have been held to be final orders and not subject to collateral attack. See, e.g., *Spartan Mills v. Bank of Am. 171. The City's allegations that "Lynd is a potential insider of the Debtors" or that "Lynd may be an insider" fare no better.[185] As further discussed below, the City offers no credible evidence in support of these assertions. In any event, this issue has already been resolved by the Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order, which expressly provides that the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender shall not, by virtue of extending DIP financing, "are deemed to be in control of [Kelly Hamilton Apts, LLC, Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC, CBRM Realty Inc., and Crown Capital Holdings, LLC] or their properties or operations."[186] The DIP Order further states that the DIP Lender shall not be considered "a control person, insider (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), 'responsible person,' or managing agent" of those parties.[187] Accordingly, any attempt to relitigate this issue must be rejected.

iii. The Objections Violate the Strong Principles of Finality

172. Finally, the Objectors' challenges to the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order and the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility contravene the well-established principles of finality that underpin bankruptcy proceedings.[188] Permitting the Objectors to effectively unwind final orders—whether related to bidding procedures or postpetition financing—would jeopardize the reliance interests of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser, and other third parties who acted in good faith in accordance with those orders. Such a result would severely undermine the stability and predictability that final bankruptcy court orders are intended to provide.

173. In short, the Objectors had every opportunity to raise these arguments at multiple stages throughout the bankruptcy proceedings. They cannot now seek a second bite at the apple during plan confirmation.

2. The Court Should Overrule the Objections to the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction

174. In addition to the alleged chilling effects of the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser's credit bid, Ms. Bacon argues that, due to numerous perceived flaws concerning the timeframe in which the sale occurred, the marketing process for the Kelly Hamilton Property failed to obtain the highest and best price for the property.[189] However, the Kelly Hamilton Property was marketed—and is now proposed to be sold—in accordance with the procedures established by this Court. Accordingly, the Court should overrule the arguments set forth in the Objection.

i. The Debtors Properly Marketed the Kelly Hamilton Property in Order to Obtain the Highest and Best Bid

175. As an initial matter, as set forth above, any objections asserted to the marketing process should be overruled because such objections needed to have been raised at the hearing on the Bidding Procedures Motion. The Bidding Procedures Order, a final order entered by this Court, approved the proposed marketing and sale timeline, and the Debtors complied with these requirements.

176. In addition to its objection to the marketing of the property, the Bacon Objection also objects to the outcome of the sale, asserting that the price paid by the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser is flawed because the "Debtors have produced no evidence of the fair market value of the portfolio. . ."[190] This point misses the mark. The Debtors and their advisors contacted various interested parties, executed several confidentiality agreements, provided multiple parties with additional information, and ensured that notice of the Bidding Procedures Order and proposed sale was properly distributed. Following a thorough marketing process, the Debtors did not receive any qualifying bids in addition to the bid submitted by the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser. Accordingly, the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser's bid is the fair market value for the Kelly Hamilton Property.

177. Under similar facts, the court in In re Kara Homes, Inc. approved an asset sale where a creditor submitted a credit bid for the property.[191] As the court explained, barring evidence to the contrary, courts should "accept the amount of a credit bid from a sophisticated business entity, which knowingly had the option to bid more or less, as evidence of the fair market value of the property."[192] Indeed, the court explained that it is "common sense" that a credit bid reflects a creditor's valuation of the purchased assets, and that credit bids represent the "rational justification" that such assets are "equal to, or greater than, that amount."[193] In such instances, courts should "place greater weight on actual bidding results at a court-approved sale in lieu of 'after the fact' judicial re-creation of fair market value."[194]

178. The record clearly demonstrates that the Kelly Hamilton Property was marketed in good faith and in full compliance with the Bidding Procedures Order. Hilco Real Estate LLC, a nationally recognized and experienced real estate advisory firm, conducted extensive outreach to potential purchasers. In addition, the Debtors published notice of the proposed sale transaction in accordance with the Court's order, and their advisors actively promoted and managed a virtual dataroom to facilitate diligence by interested parties. Despite these comprehensive efforts, no qualified competing bids were received. As a result, the stalking horse bid submitted by the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser was properly designated as the highest and best offer. The lack of competing bids is attributable to the distressed condition of the property and the broader financial and operational context—not any flaw or impropriety in the marketing process. To the contrary, the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser's bid, secured through a robust and Court-supervised process, represents the highest and best value reasonably attainable under the circumstances.

ii. Lynd Is Not an Insider of the Debtors

179. The City's allegation that Lynd[195] is an insider of the Debtors is unsupported. Section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code defines an insider as, in relevant part: (i) a director of the debtor, (ii) an officer of the debtor, (iii) a person in control of the debtor, (iv) a partnership in which the debtor is a general partner, (v) general partner of the debtor, or (vi) a relative of a general partner, director, officer, or person in control of the debtor. In order to constitute a "person in control" as used in section 101 of the Bankruptcy Code, a party must have "actual control" over the debtor, similar to a director or officer.[196]

195 The City broadly defines all Lynd entities as "Lynd," arguing that all of these entities are insiders of the Debtors, despite the fact that different Lynd entities serve as the Debtors' property manager and asset manager, and that the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender is a separate joint venture entity between a Lynd entity and 3650 REIT.

180. There are also additional, "non-statutory" insiders. For a party to be a non-statutory insider, "there must be a close relationship with the debtor and some evidence, other than the relationship, that the transaction was not conducted at arm's length."[197] There are ordinarily three factors to determine whether a person is a non-statutory insider of the debtor: (1) the closeness of the relationship between the parties, (2) the degree of influence the non-debtor exerts over the debtor, and (3) whether the subject transaction was arm's length.[198]

181. It is unclear whether the City asserts that Lynd is a statutory or non-statutory insider of the Debtors. The City itself seems unsure in its own arguments, asserting that "Lynd is a potential insider of the Debtors" and that "Lynd may be an insider."[199] As loose support for this argument, the City sets forth a barebones assertion that "Lynd, as property manager, consultant and DIP Lender, exercises or has exercised, sufficient control or influence over the Debtors. . ."[200] The City also argues that Lynd "exerted at least some degree of control and influence over the Debtors and their operations."[201] This argument misapplies the standard and misconstrues applicable law.

201 Id. ¶ 19.

182. First, no Lynd entity is a statutory insider of the Debtor. Lynd Management Group LLC and LAGSP, LLC serve as asset and property managers for the Debtors, respectively. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender (which is not entirely a Lynd entity) provided much needed postpetition financing to the Debtors. In none of these cases has Lynd served as a director, officer, person in control, or general partner of the Debtors.

183. Second, Lynd has not exercised the requisite degree of control over the Debtors. As set forth in the Property and Asset Management Order, Lynd Management Group LLC and LAGSP, LLC provided services to the Debtors that were both tailored to the Debtors' operational needs and limited in scope. These services include, among other things, preparing and presenting quarterly operating and capital budgets for the Kelly Hamilton Property, preparing quarterly strategic asset planning, procuring tenants for the Kelly Hamilton Property, obtain credit reports for such tenants, and collecting rents.[202] Indeed, as explained above, this Court has already entered an order finding as much.[203]

184. Third, Lynd has received certain protections and benefits in these Chapter 11 Cases that were uncontested by the Objectors on the grounds (or at all) that Lynd is an insider of the Debtors specifically. For example, the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser received certain bid protections from the Court.[204] The Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order also provides that the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility was "negotiated in good faith and at arm's length" among the parties, and that all obligations were extended in good faith.[205] To the extent the City considered Lynd to be an insider of the Debtors, it should have objected to these protections prior to approval by the Court.

185. Fourth, the City has not presented any evidence beyond Lynd's relationship with the Debtors that the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction was not conducted at arm's length. To the contrary, no Lynd entity participated in the selection, evaluation, and consideration of potential bidders. For its part, in support of its argument the City cites to one case, In re Winstar Communs., Inc., 554 F.3d 382 (3d Cir. 2009). That case is easily distinguishable. Contrary to the arguments in the City's objection, the record in Winstar was replete with allegations and factual findings of one entity's control and influence over the debtor. Specifically, the Winstar court adopted the lower court's finding that the non-debtor entity forced the debtor entity to purchase its goods in order to inflate its quarterly report, coerced debtor employees to perform work for the non-debtor entity, and, in one instance, forced the debtor to pay upwards of $135 million for software goods it did not need.[206] Importantly, the Winstar court distinguished that case from a situation where a non-debtor lender simply "compell[ed] payment of debts or other financial concessions" as provided for in the parties' credit agreement.[207] As the court noted, this would not arise to the level of undue influence because "it is well established that the exercise of financial control. . .incident to the creditor-debtor relationship does not make the creditor an insider."[208]

186. Here, the City has not presented any evidence that Lynd is exerting such undue influence on the Debtors comparable to the influence exerted by the insider in Winstar. Even assuming that all the allegations in the City's objection are true, the sort of administerial work performed by the Debtors' asset and property managers do not rise to the level of undue influence. Further, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender's relationship with the Debtors is the sort of creditor-debtor relationship that the Winstar court stated should be free from insider allegations.

187. In short, Lynd's role throughout these Chapter 11 Cases has been fully disclosed and transparent. The fact that Lynd provided financing and management services does not render it an insider; rather, it reflects its willingness to step in when no other party would. Moreover, the City has not presented any evidence beyond this financial and management relationship that Lynd improperly influenced the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction. Rather, the City's objection is riddled with wavering statements that Lynd "may" have influenced the Debtors and "may" therefore be an insider. These statements are insufficient to withstand scrutiny.

3. The Plan Was Proposed in Good Faith

188. The Plan was proposed in good faith. The City's assertion that the Debtors "may not" have acted in good faith because the proposed sale "may" have been the product of bid chilling ignores the Court-approved bidding process and lacks any evidentiary support.[209]

189. Section 1129(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that a plan be "proposed in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law." The Third Circuit has held that a plan is proposed in good faith when it "fairly achieve[s] a result consistent with the objectives and purposes of the Bankruptcy Code."[210] Whether a plan satisfies this standard is a fact-specific inquiry, requiring the Court to evaluate the totality of the circumstances surrounding the development of the plan.[211]

190. The record in these Chapter 11 Cases demonstrates that the Plan is the product of a transparent, Court-supervised process aimed at maximizing value for creditors while preserving affordable housing for tenants. As described in the Dundon Declaration, the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction resulted from arm's-length negotiations conducted pursuant to Court-approved bidding procedures. Interested parties were provided with meaningful diligence access, and the sale timeline and procedures were established by Court order. All parties had a full and fair opportunity to participate. The City's allegation that the Plan was not proposed in good faith due to alleged bid chilling is contrary to both the record and this Court's prior findings approving the bidding procedures.[212]

191. Courts have consistently found good faith even where an auction process yields no competing bids, so long as the process is fair and provides value to creditors.[213] Here, the Plan satisfies those standards: it provides for full payment of, among other Claims, all Allowed Administrative and Priority Tax Claims and establishes a Creditor Recovery Trust to benefit unsecured creditors. The marketing process included outreach to dozens of potential buyers and execution of nineteen confidentiality agreements. The City points to no fraud, collusion, or misconduct. Its speculation that the sale "may have been" chilled, and thus the Plan "may not" have been proposed in good faith,[214] is pure conjecture. Such unsubstantiated allegations cannot overcome the robust, Court-approved process that led to the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction.[215]

211 In re W.R. Grace & Co., 475 B.R. at 87.

212 The City's "bid-chilling" narrative is, in substance, an attack on (i) the DIP Facility, (ii) credit-bid rights, (iii) bid protections, and (iv) the sale timeline. As discussed further herein, each was disclosed, noticed, litigated, and approved in this Court's orders. "Bid chilling" requires proof of collusion, concealment, or process manipulation. The City offers none: no declaration from a deterred bidder, no term that barred participation, and no showing that any qualified, financeable bid was suppressed.

213 See In re Unbreakable Nation Co., 437 B.R. 189, 199 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 2010).

192. At bottom, the City's objections appear to reflect a fundamental disagreement with the Plan—particularly the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction—rather than any legitimate basis to question the Debtors' good faith. As discussed above, the City's arguments mischaracterize the facts and disregard the Bidding Procedures Order. Mere disagreement with the terms of a plan does not amount to a lack of good faith.[216] The record demonstrates that the Debtors proposed the Plan honestly, with integrity, and in accordance with their fiduciary duties—and therefore in good faith.

4. Delay of Confirmation Would Prejudice Stakeholders and Lead to Liquidation of the Debtors' Estates

193. The Bacon Objection requests a 90-day delay of the Confirmation Hearing to allow local groups additional time to submit a competing bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property.

194. As an initial matter, and as previously discussed, the Objectors are bound by the Bidding Procedures Order, including the bidding procedures attached as Exhibit 1 thereto (the "Bidding Procedures"). Under the Bidding Procedures, any interested party seeking to bid on the Kelly Hamilton Property was required to submit a written offer to the Debtors that met specific requirements—including disclosure of the proposed purchaser, the purchase price, standard representations, and various acknowledgments.[217] The Objectors failed to comply with any of these requirements. On that basis alone, the Court should enforce the Bidding Procedures and deny the request to reopen the auction.

195. Moreover, courts in this Circuit have consistently held that a completed, court-sanctioned sale should not be reopened absent clear evidence of fraud, unfairness, mistake, or a gross inadequacy of price.[218] This principle is particularly strong where the sale was conducted pursuant to Court-approved procedures.[219] Here, the Objectors offer no such evidence. There is no showing of fraud, unfairness, or an inadequate price—indeed, the Objectors have not demonstrated that a viable competing bid even exists.

196. It is also unclear what Ms. Bacon hopes to achieve through a delay. Her memorandum asserts that there is "no evidence that the [Kelly Hamilton Property], in its current condition, could draw $9.7 million on the open market," [220] yet she simultaneously seeks time to allow local governmental, nongovernmental, and philanthropic entities to present "an alternative plan and sale transaction."[221] In essence, Ms. Bacon concedes that any alternative bid would be for less consideration than the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser's bid. Granting a delay in the hope of securing a lower bid is neither legally justified nor in the best interests of the Debtors' Estates.

197. Finally, as described in the Dundon Declaration, any delay in confirming the Plan would result in significant and unjustified harm to the Debtors, their creditors, and the tenants of the Kelly Hamilton Property. These Chapter 11 Cases were filed to prevent a sheriff's sale, address urgent liquidity challenges, and stabilize the Debtors' operations. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility was designed as a short-term bridge—not a long-term financing solution. Delaying confirmation would increase administrative expenses, prolong uncertainty, and deny the Kelly Hamilton Property the stability and investment it urgently requires. Additionally, delay of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction would significantly deplete the Debtors' short-term financing and force the Debtors to liquidate, which would be value-destructive and result in depleted recoveries for all stakeholders. Prompt confirmation, by contrast, will enable the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser—as the new equity owner—to inject capital and pursue long-term rehabilitation for the benefit of both the tenants and the broader community.

5. The Kelly Hamilton Property Does Not Modify or Absolve the Debtors or Kelly Hamilton Purchaser from Complying with Applicable Laws

198. The City objects to the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction to the extent that "the sale, or the proposed sale order, modifies or absolves, in any way, the obligations of the Debtors or buyer from complying with applicable laws including codes and ordinances of the City with respect to the [Kelly Hamilton] Property. The sale should also not divest any of the City's tax or municipal liens which are of first priority under applicable law."[222]

199. The Debtors are not proposing—nor has the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser requested—that the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser be absolved from any obligations arising out of its ownership of the Kelly Hamilton Property following the closing of the sale, including compliance with applicable laws, codes, and ordinances of the City. Upon the closing of the Kelly Hamilton Sale

[222] City Obj. ¶ 32.

Transaction, all obligations incurred by the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser arising from its status as owner of the property are not discharged or otherwise affected by the Plan.[223]

200. Tax obligations and municipal liens, if any will be paid in full on or prior to the Effective Date in accordance with the Plan.[224] Thus, because the Debtors are authorized by the Plan, Bankruptcy Code, and Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement to either pay the City's claims in full or otherwise sell the Kelly Hamilton Property free and clear of all claims and interests, and because the Plan does not affect the City's enforcement rights against the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser for future liabilities, the City's objection should be overruled.

B. The Court Should Overrule the Bacon and City Objections to the Feasibility of the Plan Under Section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code

201. Ms. Bacon argues that the Plan may not be feasible and thus, cannot satisfy section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code because (i) the Debtors likely cannot attain HUD approvals to consummate the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction and (ii) the Kelly Hamilton Purchase will be unable to comply with the HAP Contract[225] and HUD regulations.[226] Neither of the City's proposed conditions undermines the feasibility of the Plan.[227] Both arguments fail as a matter of 224 See Plan Art. II.E.

225 As defined in the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement, "HAP Contract" means that certain Housing Assistance Payments Contract dated as of October 1, 1982 between Debtor, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development and Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency, as renewed and amended pursuant to that certain Renewal HAP Contract for Section 8 Mark-Up-To-Market Project entered into as of September 1, 2023. 227 The City does not raise a specific objection to the Plan's feasibility under section 1129(a)(11). Instead, it requests that the Court condition approval of the sale on (i) the correction of unspecified "problems at the property" prior to closing and (ii) the City's right to inspect both interior and exterior areas of the property before the sale is consummated. This relief is neither required by the Bankruptcy Code nor appropriate based on the current record. Imposing such conditions would improperly introduce a new condition precedent to closing that could interfere law and fact. Ms. Bacon does not (and cannot) establish that the Debtors' Plan is incapable of being implemented.Section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that the Court determine, in relevant part, that confirmation is not likely to be followed by the liquidation or further financial reorganization of the Debtors (or any successor thereto), unless such liquidation or reorganization is proposed in the Plan.[228] To determine "whether the feasibility standard is met, a court must be satisfied that the plan is workable and has a reasonable likelihood of success."[229] The purpose of the feasibility test is to "protect against visionary or speculative plans."[230]

202. As such, "no guarantee of success is required and the mere potential for failure of the plan is insufficient to disprove feasibility."[231] The "key element of feasibility is whether there is a reasonable probability the provisions of the plan can be performed."[232] A "relatively low threshold of proof" may satisfy the feasibility requirement.[233] Furthermore, near unanimous support of creditors with respect to the plan "weighs heavily" in favor of a finding of feasibility.[234] with a HUD-regulated transaction. Indeed, the sale is expressly contingent upon HUD approval. The Debtors, and following closing, the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser, remain committed to cooperating in good faith with the City to facilitate lawful access to the property. However, the City's general interest in oversight cannot be transformed into a de facto approval right or closing condition. Nothing in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement impairs or limits the City's police and regulatory powers, which remain fully preserved under applicable law.

234 After considering this "primary factor," additional factors that courts have considered, to the extent applicable, are: (i) the adequacy of the debtor's corporate structure; (ii) the earning power of its business; (iii) economic conditions; (iv) the ability of debtor's management; (v) the probability of continuation of the same management; and (vi) any other related matters which determine the prospects of a sufficiently successful operation to enable performance of the provisions of the plan. Id.

203. A chapter 11 plan that implements a sale is feasible if it demonstrates (i) the sale can close as structured, and (ii) the sale will generate sufficient proceeds (together with any other identified sources) to fund distributions in accordance with the Code's priority scheme, while the post-effective-date fiduciary can complete the limited wind-down obligations. As set forth in the Dundon Declaration, that is precisely what this Plan achieves. The Plan provides for the consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction and the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' remaining affairs. The Plan's means of implementation authorize all actions necessary to effectuate the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction and related transactions, and it clearly identifies the sources of cash for distribution: namely, the Sale Proceeds, Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and Wind-Down Assets.

204. The Plan's implementation provisions, funding sources, wind-down framework, and distribution mechanics all support a finding that confirmation will not be followed by the need for further reorganization. Rather, the Plan lays out a clear, practical, and fully articulated path to (i) consummate the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, (ii) administer and distribute remaining assets, including through the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (iii) promptly close these Chapter 11 Cases. Additionally, the Plan has received overwhelming creditor support, which further weighs in favor of a finding of feasibility. Of the seventy-four creditors entitled to vote, only two—one of whom is an Objector—voted to reject the Plan.[235]

[235] In re S B Bldg. Assocs. Ltd. P'ship, 621 B.R. at 355 (finding that "there is no better evidence of feasibility than the fact that creditors who have "skin in the game" . . . are willing to support the Debtors' Plan").

1. Conditions Precedent to Consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction Do Not Defeat Feasibility of the Plan

205. Section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code does not require that every third-party consent be in hand on the date of the Confirmation Hearing—it only requires that there is a reasonable assurance that confirmation will not be followed by liquidation or further reorganization, except as proposed by the plan. Ms. Bacon attaches an August 18, 2025 email to the Bacon Objection, noting that HUD had not yet formally approved the HAP assignment and leaps to the conclusion that HUD approval is "far from a foregone conclusion."[236] But Ms. Bacon overlooks that the email shows only that HUD's review was pending on that date, not that approval is unlikely or unattainable.

206. Indeed, bankruptcy courts, including in this District, routinely confirm plans subject to uncertain and contingent future events or external approvals where, as here, the plan includes those approvals as conditions precedent and the record shows a credible path to satisfaction.[237]

207. As set forth in the Utz Declaration,[238] while the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement requires HUD's consent to the assignment of the HAP Contract as a condition to closing, the Debtors are actively advancing through HUD's established process for obtaining that consent and remain confident that it will be secured. The Kelly Hamilton Purchaser has been in regular communication with HUD for several weeks, has participated in calls, and has submitted all required documentation for HUD's review. HUD has acknowledged the Court-approved milestones in these Chapter 11 Cases and seems to be coordinating its internal review in accordance with that timeline. The Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement includes a scheduled closing date consistent with the expected receipt of HUD's consent.[239] This is precisely the credible, conditioned pathway that section 1129(a)(11) requires. Ms. Bacon offers no contrary evidence—no expert, no agency statement, no regulatory impediment—suggesting that HUD consent is unattainable.

2. The Kelly Hamilton Purchaser Is Capable of Complying with All Regulatory Requirements with Respect to the Kelly Hamilton Property

208. Ms. Bacon argues that the Plan is not feasible because, in her view, it is unclear whether the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser has the financial and operational wherewithal to manage the Kelly Hamilton Property in compliance with the HAP Contract and applicable HUD regulations.[240] This argument overlooks both the governing legal standard for feasibility and the evidentiary record in these cases.

209. Section 1129(a)(11) requires only a reasonable assurance that confirmation will not be followed by liquidation or further reorganization, except as contemplated by the Plan. It does not impose a requirement that the purchaser's future operations be risk-free or optimal in every respect.[241] When a plan contemplates a sale followed by a wind-down, the feasibility inquiry is correspondingly narrow—focused on whether the Plan can be implemented as written, meaning the sale can close and the wind-down can be administered. As set forth above, the Debtors have satisfied this standard.

210. Even if one were to adopt Ms. Bacon's mistaken framing of feasibility as a test of the purchaser's ability to comply with ongoing regulatory obligations, the record still supports a finding of feasibility. As described in the Utz Declaration, the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser has demonstrated a credible financial position with evidence of funds and financing commitments and is actively working to obtain the required HUD consent to assign the HAP Contract. Ms. Bacon's contrary argument relies on isolated anecdotes concerning operations during the Chapter 11 bridge period, ignoring the difficult circumstances under which the Estates have operated and the regulatory oversight HUD will continue to exercise post-closing. The Independent Fiduciary stepped in amid portfolio-wide turmoil caused by the prior owner's misconduct, incomplete books and records, unpaid vendors, and urgent operational challenges. Despite these constraints and a limited DIP budget, the Estates stabilized essential services and positioned the property for sale. Feasibility does not require resolution of all legacy maintenance issues before confirmation, and ongoing compliance with HUD regulations and the HAP Contract remains firmly within HUD's regulatory authority, as expressly preserved in the Plan.

211. Feasibility demands only reasonable assurance of success—a relatively low evidentiary threshold that the Debtors have met, as demonstrated by the Utz Declaration and Dundon Declaration.[242] Accordingly, the Court should overrule objections based on speculative concerns regarding (i) the ability to obtain HUD's consent to assign the HAP Contract and (ii) the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser's future operational compliance.

C. The Court Should Overrule Objections to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility

212. As explained above, the Objectors seek to relitigate issues already decided by this Court, including the allocation of proceeds under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility and the identity of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender as an insider. For these reasons, the Court should deny the objections to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility. Moreover, in addition to being procedurally improper, the Objections fail on the merits.

1. Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code Protects the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and Prepetition Kelly Hamilton Lender

213. Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code precludes the Objectors from effectively seeking reconsideration of the Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order upon which the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and Prepetition Kelly Hamilton Lender has relied.[243] Section 364(e) provides that:

> The reversal or modification on appeal of an authorization under this section to obtain credit or incur debt, or of a grant under this section of a priority or a lien, does not affect the validity of any debt so incurred, or any priority or lien so granted, to an entity that extended such credit in good faith, whether or not such entity knew of the pendency of the appeal, unless such authorization and the incurring of such debt, or the granting of such priority or lien, were stayed pending appeal.

11 U.S.C. § 364(e).

214. Although Section 364(e) refers to appeals, its protections have been extended to challenges to a financing order in the bankruptcy court.[244] Having found that the Debtors, Kelly

2. The Objectors' Specific Challenges Are Misplaced and Contradicted by the Record

215. Although the Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order is a final and non-appealable order, even if the Court were to consider the Objectors' arguments, those arguments are misplaced and contradicted by the record. The Objectors claim that the prepayment of the Prepetition Kelly Hamilton Loan constituted an improper and hidden "roll-up" of insider debt.[246] The record, however, tells a different story. The prepayment was explicitly disclosed in Exhibit A to the DIP Term Sheet, incorporated by reference into the Kelly Hamilton DIP Motion, and reflected in the Approved Budget attached to both the Kelly Hamilton Interim and Final DIP Orders. This Court authorized the prepayment as an approved use of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility proceeds.[247] Far from being concealed, the prepayment was transparent, fully discussed during the hearings, and affirmatively approved by this Court.

affected by reversal of authorization on appeal); see also In re Fleetwood Enters., Inc., 427 B.R. 852, 859 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2010) (Section 364(e) applies when a financing order is challenged in the bankruptcy court after the lender has relied on the order's protections), aff'd, 471 B.R. 319 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2012). Indeed, Section 364(e) would offer little incentive to lenders if its protection was limited only to appeals since the bankruptcy court's modification of its own orders "poses the same risks as does reversal on appeal." Id. at 860 (quoting *Kham & Nate's Shoes No. 2, Inc. v. 247 Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order ¶ 15 ("[T]he Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties shall be and are hereby authorized to use Cash Collateral in accordance with, and solely and exclusively for the disbursement set forth in the Approved Budget attached [as] Exhibit C to this Final Order.").

216. Furthermore, as reflected in the First Day Declaration, Kelly Hamilton DIP Motion, DIP Declaration, and stipulations in the Kelly Hamilton Interim and Final DIP Orders, the Prepetition Kelly Hamilton Loan was a secured obligation extended in September 2024 at a moment when Mr. Silber's plea and governance breakdown had rendered the portfolio "unbankable." In that environment, Lynd was the only party willing to provide urgently needed working capital to stabilize the property. When it later became clear that a court-supervised restructuring was the only viable path forward, the Debtors explored both a Noteholder DIP Proposal and a revised proposal from Lynd and its financing partner, 3650 REIT. Although the Noteholders Proposal expressed willingness to fund, the proposal depended on a non-consensual priming lien that would have embroiled the estates in costly litigation and was therefore not a feasible option. By contrast, Lynd and 3650 REIT together formed the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, which provided the only confirmable and practical source of postpetition financing. As a condition of that financing, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender required that the outstanding secured Prepetition Loan be prepaid at closing to ensure a first-priority lien on the Kelly Hamilton Property.

217. The Objectors also attack the allocation of Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility proceeds, arguing that too little was directed to capital expenditures and working capital, and too much to prepayment of the Kelly Hamilton Prepetition Loan and professional fees.[248] These arguments fail for two reasons. First, the Kelly Hamilton Interim and Final DIP Orders approved the budget after notice and hearing and expressly found that (i) no more favorable financing was available, (ii) the DIP was negotiated in good faith and was fair and reasonable, and (iii) the financing was necessary to prevent immediate and irreparable harm to hundreds of HUD-subsidized tenants.[249] Second, the allocation of proceeds reflects sound business judgment and the realities of these Chapter 11 Cases.[250] The prepayment of the Prepetition Kelly Hamilton Loan was a bargained-for condition of new money; professional and administrative costs are inherent in stabilizing estates and preserving value; and the capex/working-capital lines were designed to address urgent needs.

218. The City's complaint about asset-management fees is equally misplaced. Asset management is a portfolio-level service—strategic oversight, capital planning, lender/agency interface, and reporting—that is distinct from on-site property management.[251] As such, the fee the City attacks is not a Kelly-Hamilton-only expense. The asset manager's scope spans several properties in the Crown Capital Portfolio, not just one.[252] Dividing the fee by only one property managed by asset manager grossly distorts the analysis. When properly spread across the portfolio, the fee is proportionate and reasonable. Notwithstanding, the Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order already found the Approved Budget, including this line item, to be fair, reasonable, and necessary.[253]

219. Indeed, as this Court has already found, the Debtors were "unable to obtain financing… on terms more favorable," the DIP Facility "represent[ed] the best source of debtor-in-possession financing available," and it was "negotiated in good faith and at arm's length."[254] The Objectors' attempt to conflate the prepayment of a secured prepetition loan with a prohibited roll-up—and their effort to relitigate budget allocations already approved—mischaracterizes both the record and the Court's binding findings.

220. The City also suggests the prepayment of the Prepetition Kelly Hamilton Loan improperly benefitted Lynd as an "insider" and chilled the sale process.[255] The record shows otherwise. Lynd was neither an officer, director, nor equityholder of the Debtors; it held no controlling stake. It was retained as property manager for Kelly Hamilton and as asset manager across the broader portfolio shortly before the filings, and continued postpetition on disclosed, Court-approved terms.[256]

221. In sum, the Objectors' challenges to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility are untimely, meritless, and foreclosed by this Court's binding orders. The Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order expressly authorized the prepayment of the Prepetition Kelly Hamilton Loan, approved the budget allocations now attacked, and found that the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility was the product of good-faith, arm's-length negotiations that provided the Debtors with the best and only practical source of financing.[257] Principles of res judicata and finality, as well as the statutory protections of section 364(e), preclude the Objectors from relitigating those findings. Their objections mischaracterize the record, rest on flawed assumptions, and attempt to unwind orders upon which the Debtors, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, and other parties have already relied. For all of these reasons, the Court should overrule the objections in their entirety.

D. The Court Should Reject the Request to Appoint an Examiner Under Section 1104(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code

222. In the City Objection, which was filed a little over one week prior to the Confirmation Hearing, the City requests the appointment of an examiner pursuant to section 1104(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.[258] Such relief is untimely, inappropriate, and should be denied.

1. The City's Request for Appointment of an Examiner Is Untimely

223. Section 1104(c) authorizes the appointment of an examiner only "before confirmation of a plan" and "after notice and a hearing." Similarly, Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-2(b) requires 21 days' notice for motions, unless shortened pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-2(c), which requires a showing of exigency.[259] Here, the City failed to serve a motion 21 days before the hearing, did not seek an order shortening time under Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-2(c), and provided no justification for suspending the Local Bankruptcy Rules. With the Confirmation Hearing scheduled for September 4, 2025, the Court cannot appoint an examiner pre-confirmation in compliance with both section 1104(c) and the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Any appointment after confirmation would contravene the statute's express "before confirmation" requirement.[260] On these grounds alone, the City's request should be denied.[261]

2. The City Did Not Meet Its Burden Under 11 U.S.C. § 1104(c)(1) [262]

224. Even if the City's request was timely (it is not), under section 1104(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the provision pursuant to which the City moves for relief, the appointment of an examiner is discretionary, and the movant bears the burden[263] to show that "such appointment is in the interests of creditors, any equity security holders, and other interests of the estate."[264] A single creditor group "cannot justify the appointment of an . . . examiner simply by alleging that it would be in its interests."[265] A request to appoint an examiner "must be substantiated with factual support"—not speculation.[266]

225. Here, as described in the Dundon Declaration, the appointment of an examiner would consume scarce resources and is neither warranted by the statute nor supported by the circumstances of these Chapter 11 Cases. The proposed examination would duplicate the Independent Fiduciary's efforts or efforts that will be performed by the Creditor Recovery Trust.[267] The Independent Fiduciary has overseen these Chapter 11 Cases and under the Plan, all potential claims against the Excluded Parties, including Mr. Silber, are preserved and transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust.[268] Courts routinely reject examiner motions under these circumstances as duplicative, inefficient, and costly.[269]

226. Moreover, section 1104(c) only authorizes "an investigation of the debtor as is appropriate." It does not provide for a roving inquiry into non-debtors or a vehicle to manufacture challenges to final court orders. The City's proposed investigation scope—an open-ended investigation into "any allegations of fraud, dishonesty, incompetence, misconduct, mismanagement, or irregularity" by "current or former management," coupled with probes into "the relationship between Lynd and the Debtors and/or Silber" and whether there is a basis to

S.D.N.Y. 2012). The absence of any joinder from other stakeholders further underscores that the relief is not "in the interests" of the estate. See In re Silvergate, No. 24-12158 (KBO) Dec. 19, 2024 Hr'g Tr. at 47:24-48:5 ("I see no reason to shift costs of this adversarial process onto the estate and its stakeholders, especially where it is currently very much unclear whether [movant] and other similarly situated common shareholders are even entitled to a distribution in this case and no other priority creditor has joined in their efforts today"); In re Gliatech Inc., 305 B.R. 832, 836 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 2004) (consideration of whether other parties had joined movant's request for an examiner was appropriate in determining the propriety of an examiner's investigation).

"vacate, amend or annul" prior orders—targets non-debtor conduct and invites an impermissible collateral attack on the Court's orders.[270] Thus, the City's request falls outside of section 1104(c), duplicates work preserved for and to be pursued by the Creditor Recovery Trust, and should be denied.[271]

3. If the Court Appoints an Examiner, the Scope Should Be Narrow

227. If, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Court were to appoint an examiner (which it should not), the appointment should be narrow in scope and duration and subject to a limited budget. The Court "retains broad discretion to direct the examiner's investigation, including its scope, degree, duration, and cost."[272] The examiner's appointment should not interfere with the September 24, 2025 outside date for closing the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, and the examiner's total budget should be capped at $20,000 or a de minimis amount, with no variance absent further order of the Court. Confirmation and closing of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction should proceed on the existing timetable without awaiting the examiner's report.[273]

E. The Court Should Reject the Request for Class Certification Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23

228. Ms. Bacon asks this Court to certify a class of claimants comprised of tenants of the Kelly Hamilton Property.[274] That request should be denied. It is both procedurally improper and substantively deficient under the governing standards for class certification.

229. Class certification in bankruptcy is governed by Bankruptcy Rule 7023, which incorporates Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 ("Rule 23").[275] Rule 23, however, does not apply automatically in a main bankruptcy proceeding.[276] Instead, a party may seek class certification only by commencing an adversary proceeding, or, in limited circumstances, by filing a motion under Bankruptcy Rule 9014 to invoke Rule 7023 in a contested matter.[277] Whether to apply Rule 23 rests within the Court's discretion, and courts consistently observe that class claims are disfavored in bankruptcy because "[t]he superiority and efficiency of the bankruptcy claims resolution process over class litigation is well established."[278]

230. When a party seeks class certification in the main case through a contested matter, the Court must first determine whether Rule 23 should apply at all.[279] In making this threshold determination, courts typically consider three factors: "(1) whether the class was certified prepetition, (2) whether the members of the putative class received notice of the bar date, and (3) whether class certification will adversely affect the administration of the case, especially if the proposed litigation would cause undue delay."[280] Particularly relevant to this analysis are (a) the timing of the certification motion and (b) whether a plan has already been filed, voted on, or confirmed.[281]

231. Ms. Bacon fails to satisfy any of the Musicland Factors. Accordingly, the Court need not reach Rule 23's substantive requirements. First, Ms. Bacon never sought—nor was she ever appointed—as a class representative prepetition. Second, the tenants' Ms. Bacon purports to represent all received notice of the Bar Date Order and had the opportunity to file their own claims. Class claims are disfavored where members received notice of the bar date, because allowing them would effectively nullify that deadline absent a showing of excusable neglect.[282] Permitting tenants to rely on Ms. Bacon's objection as a substitute would undermine the finality of the bar date and circumvent this strict standard. Moreover, no class proof of claim was filed before the bar date. Because the bar date operates as a statute of limitations, any claim now asserted on behalf of a putative class would be untimely and must be disallowed.[283] Third, Ms. Bacon's request would prejudice the administration of the Debtors' estates. Class litigation in bankruptcy carries the inherent risk of delay, which runs counter to the "pervasive theme" of the Bankruptcy Code: avoiding undue delay in the administration of the estate.[284] Delay is especially prejudicial once a plan is near or post-confirmation.[285]

232. Even if the Court were to find Ms. Bacon's request procedurally proper and warranting a review of Rule 23, it still fails on the merits. Rule 23 permits class certification only if the proponent demonstrates: (1) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable; (2) there are questions of law or fact common to the class; (3) the claims and defenses of the class representative are typical of those of the class; and (4) the representative will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.[286] The party seeking class certification bears the burden of establishing that certification is warranted under the circumstances.[287] Ms. Bacon has not carried that burden.

233. First, Ms. Bacon has demonstrated no basis for numerosity. The Kelly Hamilton Property contains 110 units, yet Ms. Bacon is the only tenant to object to the Plan or file proofs of claim. Every tenant received notice of the bar date and had an opportunity to be heard. Indeed, tenant claims where only one proof of claim was filed "can be conveniently and expeditiously managed by following normal bankruptcy procedures."[288]

234. Second, Ms. Bacon has failed to establish commonality or typicality. Her objection raises grievances unique to her unit and her personal disputes with management.[289] She has provided no evidence that other tenants experienced the same issues of fact or law. Without such evidence, the claims and defenses she asserts cannot be considered typical of the proposed class. Notably, no other tenant has joined her objection or filed one of their own despite proper notice. The absence of any corroborating filings underscores that her claims are individual, not representative.

235. In short, Ms. Bacon cannot satisfy the requirements of Rule 23. She has failed to establish numerosity, commonality, or typicality, and she is plainly inadequate to represent the interests of other tenants who have not come forward. For these reasons, the Court should deny her request for class certification.

F. The Court Should Overrule the U.S. Trustee's Objection to the Debtor Releases Under the Plan

236. While the Debtors and the U.S. Trustee have resolved several informal objections to the Plan, the U.S. Trustee objects to the releases granted by the Debtors and their Estates pursuant to Article VIII.C of the Plan.[290] Specifically, the U.S. Trustee argues that: (i) it is inappropriate for estate fiduciaries to receive both an exculpation and a release, (ii) the Plan does not establish that each of the Releasing Parties are providing adequate consideration in exchange for receiving such releases, and (iii) there are "many individuals and entities included in n the definition of Released Parties that are unknown parties."[291] For the following reasons, the U.S. Trustee Objection should be overruled.

1. Estate Fiduciaries are Entitled to Receive a Release in Addition to an Exculpation

237. The U.S. Trustee takes issue with the estate fiduciaries receiving the Debtor Releases when they "are being exculpated for their actions or inactions between the Petition Date and the Effective Date" under the Plan.[292] As an initial matter, the U.S. Trustee offers no support for this argument. In fact, courts within the Third Circuit have approved releases in favor of exculpated parties—even where such releases were contested.[293] Although some courts have questioned, in dicta, whether it is necessary for fiduciaries to receive both a release and exculpation, those courts have granted both where the record demonstrated that the releases were necessary and the result of substantial contributions.[294]

This Court has even approved plans that include exculpated parties in the definition of released parties in cases where the U.S. Trustee has objected to the proposed releases. See, e.g., In re InMarketing Group, Inc., Case No. 19-25754 (SLM) [Docket No. 212] (Bankr. D.N.J. 2018) (approving contested debtor releases defining "exculpated parties" identically with "released parties" where debtors did not file an amended plan or other pleading evidencing a compromise)

[294] See, e.g., In re Wash. Mut., Inc., 442 B.R. at 350 (holding that proposed releases to exculpated debtor professionals did not satisfy Zenith factors absent evidence that such parties contributed to debtors' reorganization or that releases were necessary); In re PWM Property Management LLC, Case No. 21-11445 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 31, 2021) (granting debtor releases to estate fiduciaries upon evidence at confirmation hearing that such releases were necessary and the product of substantial contributions). In PWM, at the confirmation hearing, the court requested that the debtors remove exculpated professionals from the definition of released parties, stating that it did not "think there's any reason to grant a release that's coterminous with the typical exculpation." 238. Here, it is appropriate for the estate fiduciaries to receive a release, as each party has contributed to the Plan process and waived significant prepetition claims.[295] Further, the estate fiduciaries would not have been willing to take on this matter but for the assurance of obtaining the Debtor Releases given the unique circumstances that led to these Chapter 11 Cases.[296]

239. These Chapter 11 Cases were filed to restructure the Crown Capital Portfolio following Mr. Silber's fraud and conviction. Since September 2024, estate professionals have worked diligently to revitalize the Crown Capital Portfolio—a challenging endeavor due to the severe mismanagement and neglect attributable to Mr. Silber and his co-conspirator.[297] As a result of this history, it is particularly appropriate for the estate fiduciaries to be granted a release as well as an exculpation. In accordance with applicable law, the exculpations provided under the Plan apply to conduct throughout these Chapter 11 Cases.[298] However, the estate fiduciaries and professionals have been working on this matter before the Petition Date and were appointed in the midst of extreme turmoil. The Debtor Releases are therefore necessary to protect the Released Parties from potential claims arising prior to the Petition Date that stem from no fault of their own, but rather from Mr. Silber's misconduct. Without these releases, fiduciaries and professionals who played no role in the fraud could nonetheless face ongoing litigation related to Mr. Silber's actions. Accordingly, the Debtor Releases should be approved as to these parties.

2. Estate Fiduciaries are Entitled to Receive a Release in Addition to an Exculpation

240. As explained above in Section III.E.2 herein, all estate fiduciaries and professionals are entitled to the Debtor Releases because (1) an identity of interest between the parties exists; (2) each party has made a substantial contribution to the plan; (3) the Debtor Releases are necessary to the reorganization; and (4) the Plan and Debtor Releases have received overwhelming acceptance by creditors and interest holders.

3. The Scope of Debtor Releases is Appropriate

241. The U.S. Trustee briefly notes that the Debtor Releases are improper to the extent that "unknown parties" are included in the definition of Released Parties.[299] But that is not the case. Instead, the releases extend only to narrowly defined categories of parties affiliated with the primary Released Parties—namely, current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals. The U.S. Trustee offers no additional support or explanation for its objection. This Court has previously approved plans that included debtor releases in favor of similarly situated parties.[300]

242. Further, the unique facts and circumstances leading up to the Chapter 11 Cases, discussed above (see supra at ¶¶ 3-11), support the inclusion of related parties of the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser, the Asset Manager, the Property Manager, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, and the Noteholders (such named parties, the "Primary Released Parties"), including their "representatives" and "other professionals" for purposes of the Debtor Releases.[301] As described above (see supra ¶¶ 129–146), each Primary Released Party is entitled to the Debtor Releases under the standard set forth in Zenith. Each has worked constructively with the Debtors to facilitate their efforts during these cases, both before and after the Petition Date, and has made substantial contributions to the Debtors' Estates—whether through their roles in financing these Chapter 11 Cases, waiving certain claims against the Debtors, advancing the Plan process, supporting the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, or assisting in the overall administration of the cases. These critical efforts would not have been possible without the support of their respective representatives, professionals, and other related parties. Without the inclusion of these related parties in the Debtor Release, the Primary Released Parties would not have agreed to support the Plan. Accordingly, the Zenith analysis justifying the Debtor Releases for each Primary Released Party likewise supports extending those releases to their affiliated representatives, professionals, and related parties. For the reasons set forth above, the Debtor Releases should extend to all Released Parties, including the estate fiduciaries, their respective representatives, professionals, and other related parties identified therein.

Reservation of Rights

243. The Debtors reserve all rights with respect to the subject matter of this Response, including, without limitation, the right to amend or supplement this response or the arguments made herein at the Confirmation Hearing. The Debtors also reserve all rights, claims and causes of action against the Objectors, including in connection with the matters set forth herein.

[301] See Plan Art. I.A.114 (defining "Released Party").

Conclusion

244. For the reasons set forth herein, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court overrule the Objections, provide final approval of the Disclosure Statement, and confirm the Plan for Debtors CBRM Realty Inc., Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC, and Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC.

| 3. The Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction | City of Pittsburgh[Docket No. 455] | The Plan may not have been proposed in good faith under section 1129(a)(3) because it includes the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction which may have been the result of impermissible bid chilling. ¶¶ 5, 25, 31, 35. | The City ignores the Court-approved bidding process and lacks any evidentiary support. In accordance with section 1129(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors' Plan is a culmination of a transparent, Court-supervised process designed to maximize value for creditors while preserving affordable housing for tenants.As described in the Dundon Declaration, the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction resulted from arms' length negotiations conducted pursuant to Court-approved bidding procedures. Interested parties were provided with meaningful diligence access; and the sale timeline and procedures were established by the Court order. All parties had a full and fair opportunity to participate. The City's allegation that the Plan was not proposed in good faith due to alleged bid chilling is contrary to both the record and this Court's prior findings approving the bidding procedures. See § IV.A. |
| | City of Pittsburgh[Docket No. 455] | To the extent the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction is approved, the City requests that it be conditioned upon the Debtors and the property manager correcting the problems at the Kelly Hamilton Property and satisfying a city inspection. ¶¶ 7, 32, 33, 34 | The City's requested relief is neither required by the Bankruptcy Code nor appropriate on this record, and if granted, would improperly inject a new condition precedent that risks derailing a HUD-regulated transaction that the Plan already conditions on HUD approval. |

| | | | The Debtors and, after closing, the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser are willing to cooperate in good faith to facilitate lawful access to the Kelly Hamilton Property, but the City's ability to inspect cannot be converted into an inappropriate closing condition or approval right. Nothing in the Plan, Confirmation Order, or Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement impairs the City's police and regulatory powers, which remain fully preserved under applicable law. See § IV.A. |
| | City of Pittsburgh[Docket No. 455] | Lynd is an insider of the Debtors as there is an indication that Lynd exerted at least some degree of control and influence over the Debtors and their operations and the Court should therefore scrutinize the sale. ¶¶ 19, 29. | This issue has already been resolved by the Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order and any attempt to relitigate this issue must be rejected. In any event, the City's allegation that Lynd[2] is an insider of the Debtors is unsupported. First, Lynd has not served as a director, officer, person in control, or general partner of the Debtors and thus, Lynd is not a statutory insider under section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code. Second, Lynd has not exercised the requisite degree of control over the Debtors to constitute a non-statutory insider. The fact that Lynd provided financing and management services does not render it an insider. See § IV.A, IV.C. |
| | Chardell Bacon[Docket No. 453] | The Plan provides that neither the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser nor any of its Affiliates shall be deemed to be a successor to the Debtors but that provision ignores that the Stalking Horse Bidder will act, in all respects, as successor to the Kelly Hamilton Debtors for the purposes of | Although the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser intends to purchase the Kelly Hamilton Property, the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser is not a successor to, continuation of, or alter ego of the Debtors. [2] The City broadly defines all Lynd entities as "Lynd," arguing that all of these entities are insiders of the Debtors, despite the fact that different Lynd entities serve as the Debtors' property manager and asset manager, and that the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender is a separate joint venture entity between a Lynd entity and 3650 REIT.

| | Chardell Bacon[Docket No. 453] | The Court should delay confirmation of the Plan for ninety days in order to allow Ms. Bacon, along with other interested parties, to submit a competing bid for the Kelly Hamilton Property. ¶ 31. | As set forth in the Dundon Declaration, a three-month delay in confirming the Plan would be catastrophic and value-destructive to the Debtors' estates and to creditors' recoveries. Delay of confirmation would violate the milestones set forth in the Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order, jeopardize financing and estate liquidity, and risk termination of the Kelly Hamilton Purchase Agreement and conversion to chapter 7. No party has offered financing that could bridge the Debtors to a later confirmation date. See § IV.A. |
| 4. Debtor Releases | United States Trustee[Docket No. 460] | The Debtors have not established that each of the proposed Released Parties are providing adequate consideration in exchange for receiving a release and the Zenith factors do not support the Debtor Releases. ¶¶ 25–32. | For the reasons set forth in the Dundon Declaration, the Zenith factors support approval of the Debtor Releases for each of the Released Parties. The Debtor Releases are fair, reasonable, narrowly tailored, supported by the requisite amount of creditors, and in the best interests of the Debtors' Estates. The Debtors' agreement to provide the Debtor Releases as an exercise of the Debtors' business judgment is in the best interests of all stakeholders and is an integral part of the Plan. See § IV.F. |
| | United States Trustee[Docket No. 460] | The Debtors' estate fiduciaries should only be granted an exculpation and not a release from the Debtors. ¶ 33. | The Debtor Releases and exculpation provisions are appropriate and well-supported. It is appropriate for estate fiduciaries to be released because, among other things, each has provided critical contributions to the plan process and waived significant prepetition claims. | 5. Feasibility of the Plan | Chardell Bacon[Docket No. 453] | The Plan is not feasible under section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code because (i) the Debtors likely cannot attain HUD approvals to consummate the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction and (ii) the Kelly Hamilton Purchase will be unable to comply with the HAP Contract and HUD regulations. ¶¶ 41, 43-45, 47-48, 51-52, 54. | Section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code does not require that every third-party consent be in hand on the date of the Confirmation Hearing or that the purchaser's future operations be risk-free or optimal in every respect—it only requires that there is a reasonable assurance that confirmation will not be followed by liquidation or further reorganization, except as proposed by the plan. The Debtors have satisfied this "relatively low threshold of proof." See In re Prussia Assocs., 322 B.R. 572, 584 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 2005). See § IV.B.The Plan's implementation provisions, funding sources, wind-down framework, and distribution mechanics all support a finding that confirmation will not be followed by the need for further reorganization. Rather, the Plan lays out a clear, practical, and fully articulated path to (i) consummate the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, (ii) administer and distribute remaining assets, including through the Creditor Recovery Trust), and (iii) promptly close these Chapter 11 Cases. See § IV.B. |
| 6. Class Certification | Chardell Bacon[Docket No. 453] | Tenants of the Kelly Hamilton Property should be allowed to form a class for purposes of objecting to the Plan because Ms. Bacon and similarly-situated tenants satisfy the class certification requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, applicable to these proceedings via Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 9014(c) and 7023. ¶¶ 32-29. | Ms. Bacon's request for class certification should be denied. It is both procedurally improper and substantively deficient under the governing standards. Class certification in bankruptcy is governed by Bankruptcy Rule 7023, which incorporates Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, but Rule 23 does not automatically apply in contested matters under Bankruptcy Rule 9014. A party may invoke Rule 7023 only with leave of the Court, and |

She has failed to demonstrate numerosity, as she is the only tenant who filed a proof of claim or objected to the Plan despite notice to all tenants. Nor has she shown commonality or typicality, since her allegations concern grievances specific to her unit and personal disputes with management rather than issues common to other tenants. In short, Ms. Bacon has not satisfied Rule 23's requirements, and her request for class certification must be denied. See § IV.E. |
| 7. Examiner Appointment | City of Pittsburgh[Docket No. 455] | An examiner should be appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to section 1104(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. ¶¶ 36-37. | Appointment of an examiner now is unnecessary and counterproductive: these Chapter 11 Cases have been run under the supervision of an Independent Fiduciary (in addition to the U.S. Trustee and this Court) through a transparent, court-approved sale and confirmation process. The Confirmation Order shall be deemed to authorize the Debtors, among other things, to take all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effect any transaction described in, approved by, contemplated by, or necessary to effectuate the Plan, including the Restructuring Transactions and the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction. With respect to the Plan, all amounts of Cash necessary for the Debtors to make payments or distributions pursuant to the Plan shall be obtained from the Sale Proceeds, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and the Wind-Down Assets.

C. Wind Down and Dissolution of the Debtors.

1. Appointment of the Wind-Down Officer.

On the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer shall be appointed by the Debtors for the purpose of conducting the Wind-Down and shall succeed to such powers and privileges as would have been applicable to the Debtors' officers, directors, and shareholders, and the Debtors. Upon the conclusion of the Wind-Down, the Debtors shall be dissolved by the Wind-Down Officer. The Wind-Down Officer shall act for the Debtors in the same fiduciary capacity as applicable to a board of directors or managers and officers, subject to the provisions hereof (and all certificates of formation, membership agreements, articles of incorporation or by-laws, and related documents, as applicable, are deemed amended pursuant to the Plan to permit and authorize the same). From and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer shall be a representative of and shall act for the post-Effective Date Debtors and their Estates.

Among other things, the Wind-Down Officer shall be responsible for: (a) implementing the Wind-Down as expeditiously as reasonably possible and administering the liquidation of the post-Effective Date Debtors and their Estates and of any assets held by the post-Effective Date Debtors and their Estates after consummation of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, (b) resolving any Disputed Wind-Down Claims and undertaking a good faith effort to reconcile and settle Disputed Wind-Down Claims, (c) making distributions on account of Allowed Wind-Down Claims in accordance with the Plan, (d) filing appropriate tax returns, and (e) otherwise administering the Plan, in each case to the extent set forth in the Wind-Down Agreement.

On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer shall cause the Debtors to comply with, and abide by, the terms of the Plan, and take such other reasonable actions as the Wind-Down Officer may determine to be necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of the Plan. Except to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of the Plan or complete the Wind-Down, from and after the Effective Date, the Debtors (a) for all purposes, shall be deemed to have withdrawn their business operations from any state or province in which the Debtors were previously Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Wind-Down Officer shall retain the authority to take all necessary actions to dissolve the Debtors in, and withdraw the Debtors from, applicable states and provinces to the extent required by applicable law, without the necessity for any other or further actions to be taken by or on behalf of such dissolving Entity or any payments to be made in connection therewith, other than the filing of a certificate of dissolution with the appropriate governmental authorities. Any funds remaining in the Debtors at the time of dissolution shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, subject to any reversionary interests of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender in the Fee Escrow solely to the extent that the Bankruptcy Court determines that the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility has not been indefeasibly repaid in full in Cash or otherwise satisfied in full by the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction.

D. Creditor Recovery Trust.

1. Establishment of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

On or before the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement shall be executed, and all other necessary steps shall be taken to create the Creditor Recovery Trust. On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be automatically appointed as a representative of the Debtors' Estates pursuant to sections 1123(a)(5), (a)(7), and (b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. From and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall succeed to all rights, privileges, and powers of the Debtors and their Estates with respect to the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be substituted and will replace the Debtors and their Estates in all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Insurance Causes of Action, whether or not such claims are pending in filed litigation.

2. Certain Tax Matters Related to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be established to liquidate the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and make distributions in accordance with the Plan, Confirmation Order, and Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and in accordance with Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the liquidating purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be structured to qualify as a "liquidating trust" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 301.7701-4(d) and in compliance with Revenue Procedure 94-45, and thus, as a "grantor trust" within the meaning of Sections 671 through 679 of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, the beneficiaries of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes (1) as direct recipients of undivided interests in the respective claims each has that constitute the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (other than to the extent the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets are allocable to Disputed Claims) and as having immediately contributed such assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (2) thereafter, as the grantors and deemed owners of the Creditor Recovery Trust and thus, the direct owners of an undivided interest in the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (other than such Creditor Recovery Trust Assets that are allocable to Disputed Claims).

The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall file tax returns for the Creditor Recovery Trust as a grantor trust pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 1.671-4(a) and in accordance with the Plan. The Creditor Recovery Trust's items of taxable income, gain, loss, deduction, and/or credit (other than such items in respect of any assets allocable to, or retained on account of, Disputed Claims) will be allocated to each holder in accordance with their relative ownership of Creditor Recovery Trust interests. As soon as possible after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall make a good faith valuation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and such valuation shall be used consistently by all parties for all U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Creditor Recovery Trustee may request an expedited determination of taxes on the Creditor Recovery Trust under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all returns filed for, or on behalf of, the Creditor Recovery Trust for all taxable periods through the dissolution of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trustee (1) may timely elect to treat any Creditor Recovery Trust Assets allocable to Disputed Claims as a "disputed ownership fund" governed by Treasury Regulations Section 1.468B-9 if and to the extent the Creditor Recovery Trustee determines such assets so qualify, and (2) to the extent permitted by applicable law, shall report consistently for state and local income tax purposes. If a "disputed ownership fund" election is made, all parties (including the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the holders of Creditor Recovery Trust interests) shall report for U.S. federal, state, and local income tax purposes consistently with the foregoing. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall file all income tax returns with respect to any income attributable to a "disputed ownership fund" and shall pay the U.S. federal, state, and local income taxes attributable to such disputed ownership fund based on the items of income, deduction, credit, or loss allocable thereto.

Following the establishment of the Creditor Recovery Trust, no Person or Entity shall have the right under the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law to obtain standing on behalf of any Debtor, any Debtor's Estate, or the Creditor Recovery Trust to take any action, or fail to take any action, with respect to any matter directly or indirectly involving the Creditor Recovery Trust (including the right to obtain standing to pursue any Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, any Avoidance Action, or any Causes of Action).

4. Funding of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be funded with the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trustee may, in its reasonable discretion, without approval by the Bankruptcy Court but subject to approval from the Advisory Committee, (i) enter into any financing arrangement to fund the Creditor Recovery Trust (including funding provided by litigation finance parties), or (ii) enter into an engagement letter on behalf of the Creditor Recovery Trust with an attorney, law firm, or other professional pursuant to which the Creditor Recovery Trust will retain such attorney, law firm, or other professional to pursue the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action on a contingency or special-fee-award basis.

5. Privileged Information of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

On the Effective Date, any attorney-client privilege, work-product privilege, common-interest communications with Insurance Companies, protection or privilege granted by joint defense, common interest, and/or other privilege or immunity of the Debtors relating, in whole or in part, to the Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, the RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims, the CBRM Unsecured Claims, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action), or the Insurance Causes of Actions shall be irrevocably transferred to and vested in the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall have the same rights as the Debtors in Privileged Information relating to the Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, the RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims, the CBRM Unsecured Claims and the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. The Creditor Recovery Trust's rights in the Privileged Information will remain subject to the rights of third parties under applicable law, including any rights arising from the common interest doctrine, the joint defense doctrine, joint attorney-client representation, or any agreement; provided, however, that prior to taking any action that could affect any privilege in which a third party may have rights, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall provide such third party with reasonable written notice.

6. Creditor Recovery Trustee.

The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be governed exclusively by the Creditor Recovery Trustee. The powers and duties of the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall include, but shall not be limited to, those powers, duties and responsibilities vested in the Creditor Recovery Trustee pursuant to the terms of the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and shall include the authority to: (a) hold, manage, protect, and monetize the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets; (b) carry out the provisions of the Plan relating to the Creditor Recovery Trust, including commencing, prosecuting, and settling all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Insurance Causes of Action; and (c) perform all actions and execute all agreements, instruments and other documents necessary to effectuate the purpose of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The preceding list of powers, duties, and responsibilities of the Creditor Recovery Trustee is non-exclusive and the powers, rights and responsibilities of the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be further specified in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

7. Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee.

On the Effective Date and pursuant to the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Advisory Committee (as defined in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement) shall be established. The Advisory Committee shall serve in a fiduciary capacity in the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust and have such rights of with respect to oversight, approval, consultation and consent as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. 8. Vesting of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

As of the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, Encumbrances, charges or other interests to the extent permitted by section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not diminish, and fully preserves, any defenses the Debtors would have if such assets had been retained by the Debtors. The Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as applicable, through their authorized agents or representatives, shall retain and may exclusively enforce the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action vested, transferred, or assigned to such entity on behalf of both the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust or the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as applicable, shall have the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. For the avoidance of doubt, subject to the provisions of this Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets will not be deemed property of the Debtors or their Estates and the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not be deemed to be a successor of the Debtors for purposes of any Distribution made by the Creditor Recovery Trust.

9. Abandonment of the Abandoned Entities

United Jersey Bank*, 848 F.2d 414 (3d Cir. 1988) such that no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), shall apply to prevent the Creditor Recovery Trust or the Wind-Down Officer from initiating, filing, prosecuting, enforcing, abandoning, settling, compromising, releasing, withdrawing, or litigating to judgment any such Causes of Action.

E. Cancellation of Securities and Agreements.

On the Effective Date, except to the extent otherwise provided in the Plan, all notes, instruments, certificates, and other documents evidencing, or in any way related to, Claims or Interests shall be canceled as against the Debtors and each Released Party and the obligations of the Debtors thereunder or in any way related thereto shall be released, settled, and compromised.

On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors and their directors, managers, partners, officers, authorized persons, and members thereof (including the Independent Fiduciary) are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, securities, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan and the securities issued pursuant to the Plan in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors, without the need for any approvals, authorizations, or consents, except for those expressly required pursuant to the Plan, or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

H. Exemption from Certain Taxes and Fees.

Pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers of property or any Interests pursuant to the Plan, including the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, the recording of any amendments to such transfers, or any new mortgages or liens placed on the property in connection with such transfers, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, registration tax, mortgage tax, stamp act, real estate, transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, or other similar tax, fees, charges, or governmental assessment (including any penalties and interest), and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment to the maximum extent covered by section 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code.

I. Preservation of Rights of Action.

On the Effective Date, (i) the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and (ii) the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall vest in the post-Effective Date Debtors under the authority of the Wind-Down Officer, in each case free and clear of all Claims, Liens, Encumbrances and other interests. The Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall become Wind-Down Assets. On and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue and dispose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and the Wind-Down Officer shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action. No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan or Disclosure Statement as to any Cause of Action as any indication that the Debtor, and on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action against them. No preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation. Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, subject to the oversight, approval, consultation and consent of the Advisory Committee as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, shall retain and shall have, through their authorized agents or representatives, the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or the Disclosure Statement to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee or the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action. Unless and until any such Causes of Action against any Person or Entity are expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or assigned, or settled under the Plan or a Final Order, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, expressly reserve all such Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation or Consummation.

J. Election to Contribute Claims.

Because aggregating all Contributed Claims may enable the pursuit and settlement of such litigation claims in a more efficient and effective manner, each Holder of a Claim or Interest may agree, by electing on its Ballot, to contribute its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of Contributing Claimants. Rather, as provided in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, any value attributable to such Contributed Claims will be segregated and only available for disbursement to those Holders that elected to contribute such Claims. By electing such option on its Ballot, each Contributing Claimant agrees that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, it will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

K. Contribution of Contributed Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Contributed Claims will be irrevocably contributed to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Holders of Claims entitled to receive the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust and shall thereafter be Creditor Recovery Trust Assets for all purposes. No Person may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Confirmation Order, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Plan Supplement, or any other document as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee will or will not pursue any and all available Contributed Claims against such Person. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all Contributed Claims fully to the same extent that the Contributing Claimants could have asserted such claims prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contributed Claims shall not include the rights of any of the Contributing Claimants to receive the Distributions under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests and shall not include any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law.

L. Funding of Creditor Recovery Trust Amount.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Amount shall be funded in Cash.

M. CBRM-Crown Capital Intercompany Settlement.

In full settlement of any Intercompany Claims arising in connection with the proceeds of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility being used to fund the restructuring of Debtor CBRM pursuant to this Plan, (1) any Claims and Causes of Action held by CBRM shall constitute Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, and (2) CBRM agrees that the Wind-Down Officer shall have the sole authority to wind down, dissolve, and liquidate its Estate and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the sole authority to effectuate Distributions to the Holders of CBRM Unsecured Claims to the extent the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims receive payment in full.

ARTICLE V
TREATMENT OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

A. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, all Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases (including all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List) will be deemed rejected, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than those that previously were assumed or rejected by the Debtors or those that are subject to a pending motion to assume or assign such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such rejections.

B. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

Unless otherwise provided by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within 30 days after entry of the Confirmation Order. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to this Plan not filed within such time shall be disallowed, forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against, as applicable, the Debtors, the Estates, or property thereof, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged. All Allowed Claims arising from the rejection of any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases shall constitute and be treated as Unsecured Claims. Nothing herein shall constitute an extension of any Claims Bar Date otherwise applicable to a Claim arising from an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously rejected by the Debtors.

C. Treatment of Insurance Policies.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each of the Insurance Policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto issued to or entered into by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date shall not be considered Executory Contracts and shall neither be assumed nor rejected by the Debtors; provided, however, that to the extent any such Insurance Policy is determined by Final Order to be an Executory Contract, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the Plan will constitute a motion to assume such Insurance Policy and assign the same to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, the entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute approval of such assumption and assignment pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Unless otherwise determined by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed by the parties thereto prior to the Effective Date, no payments are required to cure any defaults of the Debtor existing as of the Confirmation Date with respect to any Insurance Policy, and prior payments for premiums or other charges made prior to the Petition Date under or with respect to any Insurance Policy shall be indefeasible.

D. Effect of Confirmation on D&O Liability Insurance Policies.

From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall remain in place on terms for coverage and amounts no less favorable than the Debtors' current directors' and officers' insurance policies. The D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and shall be maintained for the benefit of the beneficiaries thereunder. The Debtors and the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policies (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect on or prior to the Effective Date, and any current and former directors, officers, managers, and employees of the Debtors and their Affiliates who served in such capacity at any time before or after the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy or policies for the full term of such policy or policies regardless of whether such directors, officers, managers, and employees remain in such positions after the Effective Date.

ARTICLE VI
PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISTRIBUTIONS

A. Timing and Calculation of Amounts to Be Distributed.

Except as (1) otherwise provided herein, (2) directed by a Final Order, or (3) as otherwise agreed to by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Officer, as the case may be, and the Holder of the applicable Claim, on the Effective Date (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Distribution Date after such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive the full amount of distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class from the Distribution Agent. In the event that any payment or distribution under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or distribution may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. Except as specifically provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

B. Distribution Agent.

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under the Plan and the Plan Supplement; (b) make all distributions contemplated under the Plan; (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan and the Plan Supplement, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of the Plan and the Plan Supplement.

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Distribution Agent on or after the Effective Date (including taxes) and any reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement claims (including reasonable attorney and/or other professional fees and expenses) made by the Distribution Agent shall be paid in Cash by the Wind-Down Officer from the Wind-Down Account.

C. Delivery of Distributions and Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Distribution Agent shall make all distributions required under the Plan. The Distribution Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Additionally, in the event that the Distribution Agent is so otherwise ordered, all costs and expenses of procuring any such bond or surety shall be paid from the Wind-Down Account.

In the event that either (a) a distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable, (b) the Holder of an Allowed Claim does not respond in writing to a request by the Debtors or the Distribution Agent for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution within sixty (60) days or otherwise complete the actions necessary to facilitate a distribution as identified to the Holder within ninety (90) days of the Distribution Agent's request, no distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Distribution Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder or received the necessary information to facilitate a particular distribution, at which time such distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest, dividends, or other accruals of any kind; provided that such distributions shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code on the date that is six months after (a) the date of the distribution, if a distribution is made, or (b) the date that a request for information or action is sent by the Distribution Agent. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Creditor Recovery Trust automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable local, state, federal, or foreign escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and the Claim or Interest of any Holder to such property or interest in property shall be released and forever barred.

D. Claims Payable by Third Parties.

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to one of the Debtors' insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable insurance policy, including any D&O Liability Insurance Policy. Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Cause of Action that the Debtors or any Entity may hold against any other Entity, including insurers under any policies of insurance, nor shall anything contained in the Plan constitute or be deemed a waiver by such insurers of any defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such insurers.

E. Distributions to Unsecured Claims.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, all CBRM Unsecured Claims shall be administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to and in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

F. Allocation Between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided herein, the aggregate consideration paid to Holders on account of their Allowed Claims pursuant to the Plan shall be treated as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof and as determined for federal income tax purposes) and second, to the extent the consideration exceeds the principal amount of the Allowed Claims, to the remaining portion of such Allowed Claim, if any.

ARTICLE VII
PROCEDURES FOR RESOLVING CONTINGENT, UNLIQUIDATED, AND DISPUTED CLAIMS

A. Allowance of Claims.

After the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have and shall retain any and all available rights and defenses the applicable Debtor had with respect to any Claim immediately before the Effective Date, including, without limitation, the right to assert any objection to Claims based on the limitations imposed by section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that neither the Wind-Down Officer nor the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to any Professional Fee Claims or fees of the Independent Fiduciary. For the avoidance of doubt, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to and otherwise reconcile any and all Claims that seek recovery from the Creditor Recovery Trust other than Professional Fee Claims and fees of the Independent Fiduciary. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases before the Effective Date (including the Confirmation Order), no Claim against any Debtor shall become an Allowed Claim unless and until such Claim or Interest is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Court has entered a Final Order, including the Confirmation Order (when it becomes a Final Order), in the Chapter 11 Cases allowing such Claim.

No payment or distribution provided under the Plan shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim or portion thereof unless and until such Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

B. Automatic Disallowance and Expungement of Certain Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Claims Filed after the Claims Bar Date that were required to be Filed in advance of the Claims Bar Date under its terms shall be expunged and disallowed without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

C. Distributions After Allowance.

To the extent a Disputed Claim ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, as soon as practicable, the Debtors shall provide to the Holder of such Claim the Distribution (if any) to which such Holder is entitled under the Plan as of the Effective Date, less any previous Distribution (if any) that was made on account of the undisputed portion of such Claim, without any interest, dividends, or accruals to be paid on account of such Claim.

ARTICLE VIII
SETTLEMENT, RELEASE, INJUNCTION, AND RELATED PROVISIONS

A. Settlement, Compromise, and Release of Claims and Interests.

To the extent provided for by the Bankruptcy Code, and in consideration for the distributions and other benefits provided pursuant to the Plan, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, the distributions, rights, and treatment that are provided in the Plan shall be in complete satisfaction, effective as of the Effective Date, of Claims, Interests, and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever, including any interest accrued on Claims or Interests from and after the Petition Date, whether known or unknown, against, liabilities of, Liens on, obligations of, rights against, and Interests in, the Debtors or any of their assets or properties, regardless of whether any property shall have been distributed or retained pursuant to the Plan on account of such Claims and Interests, including demands, liabilities, and Causes of Action that arose before the Effective Date, any liability (including withdrawal liability) to the extent such Claims or Interests relate to services performed by agents or representatives of the Debtors before the Effective Date and that arise from a termination of employment, any contingent or non-contingent liability on account of representations or warranties issued on or before the Effective Date, and all debts of the kind specified in sections 502(g), 502(h), or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, in each case whether or not: (1) a Proof of Claim based upon such debt, right, Claim, or Interest is Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code; (2) a Claim or Interest based upon such debt, right, or Interest is Allowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (3) the Holder of such a Claim or Interest has accepted the Plan. Any default by the Debtors or their Affiliates with respect to any Claim or Interest that existed immediately before or on account of the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases shall be deemed cured on the Effective Date.[2]

B. Release of Liens.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, on the Effective Date and concurrently with the applicable distributions made pursuant to the Plan and, in the case of a Secured Claim, satisfaction in full of the portion of the Secured Claim that is Allowed as of the Effective Date, all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estate shall be fully released, settled, and compromised.

C. Releases by the Debtors.

Pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, for good and valuable consideration, on and after the Effective Date, each Released Party is deemed released by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Claims, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies, and liabilities whatsoever, including any derivative Claims, asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that the Debtors or their Estates would have been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the Holder of any Claim or Interest or other Entity, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Chapter 11 Cases, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date.

D. Releases by Holders of Claims and Interests.

As of the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Releasing Parties are deemed to have released the Debtors, their Estates, and the Released Parties from any and all Claims, Interests, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies and liabilities whatsoever, including any direct Claims held by any of the Releasing Parties against the Debtors, their Estates, and/or the Released Parties or derivative Claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that each Releasing Party would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Debtors' restructuring, the Chapter 11 Cases, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents, or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (1) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan and (2) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members (whether or not any such member affirmatively voted to accept the Plan) shall not release nor be deemed to release any claim or cause of action that any such holders may hold against the Kelly Hamilton Purchaser, the Asset Manager, the Property Manager, or the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals.

E. Exculpation.

The Debtors, their Estates, the Independent Fiduciary, and the Debtors' professionals including White & Case LLP, IslandDundon LLC, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, and Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global have, and upon completion of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of the Plan and distributions pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

F. Injunction.

Pursuant to section 362(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the automatic stay of an act against property of the Debtors' estates will continue until such property is no longer property of the Debtors' estates, and pursuant to section 362(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, the stay of any other act described in section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code continues until the earlier of the closure or dismissal of these Chapter 11 Cases. In addition, as of the Effective Date and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Plan or the Confirmation Order, all Persons and Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that are fully satisfied pursuant to the Plan or any Claim or Interest that is subject to the releases and exculpations set forth in the Plan shall be precluded and permanently enjoined on and after the Effective Date from enforcing, pursuing, or seeking any setoff or relief with respect to such Claims or Interests, except for the receipt of the payments or Distributions that are contemplated by the Plan.

For the avoidance of doubt, this Article VIII.F shall not constitute a discharge under section 1141(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

ARTICLE IX

ARTICLE X
MODIFICATION, REVOCATION, OR WITHDRAWAL OF THE PLAN

A. Modification and Amendments.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors reserve the right to modify the Plan, whether materially or immaterially, including by adding a non-Debtor entity that becomes a debtor and debtor in possession under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code to, or removing a Debtor from, the Plan, and seek Confirmation, in each instance, to the extent permitted under the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to certain restrictions and requirements set forth in section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3019 and those restrictions on modifications set forth in the Plan, the Debtors reserve their right to alter, amend, or modify materially the Plan, one or more times, after Confirmation, and, to the extent necessary, may initiate proceedings in the Bankruptcy Court to so alter, amend, or modify the Plan, or remedy any defect or omission, or reconcile any inconsistencies in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, or the Confirmation Order, in such matters as may be necessary to carry out the purposes and intent of the Plan.

B. Effect of Confirmation on Modifications.

C. Revocation or Withdrawal of the Plan.

The Debtors reserve the right to revoke or withdraw the Plan before the Confirmation Date or the Effective Date and to File subsequent plans of reorganization, in which case the Plan shall be null and void in all respects.

ARTICLE XI

The Creditor Recovery Trust's rights in the Privileged Information will remain subject to the rights of third parties under applicable law, including any rights arising from the common interest doctrine, the joint defense doctrine, joint attorney-client representation, or any agreement; provided, however, that prior to taking any action that could affect any privilege in which a third party may have rights, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall provide such third party with reasonable written notice.

The preceding list of powers, duties, and responsibilities of the Creditor Recovery Trustee is non-exclusive and the powers, rights and responsibilities of the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall be further specified in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

7. Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not diminish, and fully preserves, any defenses the Debtors would have if such assets had been retained by the Debtors. The Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as applicable, through their authorized agents or representatives, shall retain and may exclusively enforce the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action vested, transferred, or assigned to such entity on behalf of both the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Creditor Recovery Trust or the Creditor Recovery Trustee, as applicable, shall have the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. 9. Abandonment of the Abandoned Entities

Upon the Effective Date of the Plan, the Debtors shall be deemed to have abandoned any equity interest in or other interest with respect to any Abandoned Entity pursuant to section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code.

10. Adequate Disclosure.

The Confirmation Order shall provide that all Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action have been sufficiently and adequately disclosed in the Chapter 11 Cases for all purposes necessary to satisfy the requirements of the standard set forth in Oneida Motor Freight, Inc. v. United Jersey Bank, 848 F.2d 414 (3d Cir. 1988) such that no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), shall apply to prevent the Creditor Recovery Trust or the Wind-Down Officer from initiating, filing, prosecuting, enforcing, abandoning, settling, compromising, releasing, withdrawing, or litigating to judgment any such Causes of Action.

E. Cancellation of Securities and Agreements.

On the Effective Date, except to the extent otherwise provided in the Plan, all notes, instruments, certificates, and other documents evidencing, or in any way related to, Claims or Interests shall be canceled as against the Debtors and each Released Party and the obligations of the Debtors thereunder or in any way related thereto shall be released, settled, and compromised.

F. Corporate Action.

Notwithstanding any requirements under applicable nonbankruptcy law, upon the Effective Date, all actions contemplated by the Plan shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, including the implementation of the Restructuring Transactions and the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction. All matters provided for in the Plan involving the corporate structure of the Debtors, and any corporate action required by the Debtors in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have occurred and shall be in effect, without any requirement of further action by any Person or Entity or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors and their directors, managers, partners, officers, authorized persons, and members thereof (including the Independent Fiduciary) are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, securities, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan and the securities issued pursuant to the Plan in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors, without the need for any approvals, authorizations, or consents, except for those expressly required pursuant to the Plan, or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

G. Independent Fiduciary.

As of the Effective Date, notwithstanding any agreement, proxy, resolution, shareholders' agreement, or other document to the contrary, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall own the CBRM Interests and shall have the sole authority and power to control the corporate governance actions of CBRM; provided, however, that, except as provided in the Crown Capital Plan, the foregoing shall not affect nor be deemed to affect the corporate governance actions or other actions of Crown Capital, which shall, under the sole and exclusive direction of the Independent Fiduciary ~~may in her reasonable discretion authorize another Person or Entity~~, have the authority to act on behalf of ~~the Independent Fiduciary or assume the powers~~ any Entity directly or indirectly owned by Crown Capital, including each Entity identified on Schedule 1 attached hereto, in each case under the sole and exclusive authority of the Independent Fiduciary.

H. Exemption from Certain Taxes and Fees.

Pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers of property or any Interests~~, including the Transferred Subsidiaries,~~ pursuant to the Plan, including the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction, the recording of any amendments to such transfers, or any new mortgages or liens placed on the property in connection with such transfers, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, registration tax, mortgage tax, stamp act, real estate, transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, or other similar tax, fees, charges, or governmental assessment (including any penalties and interest), and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment to the maximum extent covered by section 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code.

I. Preservation of Rights of Action.

On the Effective Date, (i) the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and (ii) the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall vest in the post-Effective Date Debtors under the authority of the Wind-Down Officer, in each case free and clear of all Claims, Liens, Encumbrances and other interests. The Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall become Wind-Down Assets. On and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue and dispose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and the Wind-Down Officer shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action. No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan or Disclosure Statement as to any Cause of Action as any indication that the Debtor, and on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action against them. No preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation. Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, subject to the oversight, approval, consultation and consent of the ~~Trust~~ Advisory Committee as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, shall retain and shall have, through their authorized agents or representatives, the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or the Disclosure Statement to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee or the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action. Unless and until any such Causes of Action against any Person or Entity are expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or assigned, or settled under the Plan or a Final Order, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, expressly reserve all such Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation or Consummation.

J. Election to Contribute Claims.

Because aggregating all Contributed Claims may enable the pursuit and settlement of such litigation claims in a more efficient and effective manner, each Holder of a Claim or Interest may agree, by electing on its Ballot, to contribute its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of ~~the Holders that elected to contribute such Claims. Contributed Claims and the proceeds thereof will not be included within the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust~~Contributing Claimants. Rather, as provided in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, any value attributable to such Contributed Claims will be segregated and only available for disbursement to those Holders that elected to contribute such Claims. By electing such option on its Ballot, each Contributing Claimant agrees that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, it will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

K. Contribution of Contributed Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Contributed Claims will be irrevocably contributed to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Holders of Claims entitled to receive the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust and shall thereafter be Creditor Recovery Trust Assets for all purposes. No Person may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Confirmation Order, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Plan Supplement, or any other document as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee will or will not pursue any and all available Contributed Claims against such Person. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all Contributed Claims fully to the same extent that the Contributing Claimants could have asserted such claims prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contributed Claims shall not include the rights of any of the Contributing Claimants to receive the Distributions under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests and shall not include any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law.

L. Funding of Creditor Recovery Trust Amount.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Amount shall be funded in Cash.

M. CBRM-Crown Capital Intercompany Settlement.

In full settlement of any Intercompany Claims arising in connection with the proceeds of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility being used to fund the restructuring of Debtor CBRM pursuant to this Plan, (1) any Claims and Causes of Action held by CBRM shall constitute Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, and (2) CBRM agrees that the Wind-Down Officer shall have the sole authority to wind down, dissolve, and liquidate its Estate and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the sole authority to effectuate Distributions to the Holders of CBRM Unsecured Claims to the extent the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims receive payment in full.

TREATMENT OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

A. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, all Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases (including all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List) will be deemed rejected, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than those that previously were assumed or rejected by the Debtors or those that are subject to a pending motion to assume or assign such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such rejections.

B. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

Unless otherwise provided by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within 30 days after entry of the Confirmation Order. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to this Plan not filed within such time shall be disallowed, forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against, as applicable, the Debtors, the Estates, or property thereof, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged. All Allowed Claims arising from the rejection of any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases shall constitute and be treated as Unsecured Claims. Nothing herein shall constitute an extension of any Claims Bar Date otherwise applicable to a Claim arising from an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously rejected by the Debtors.

C. Treatment of Insurance Policies.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each of the Insurance Policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto issued to or entered into by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date shall not be considered Executory Contracts and shall neither be assumed nor rejected by the Debtors; provided, however, that to the extent any such Insurance Policy is determined by Final Order to be an Executory Contract, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the Plan will constitute a motion to assume such Insurance Policy and assign the same to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, the entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute approval of such assumption and assignment pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Unless otherwise determined by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed by the parties thereto prior to the Effective Date, no payments are required to cure any defaults of the Debtor existing as of the Confirmation Date with respect to any Insurance Policy, and prior payments for premiums or other charges made prior to the Petition Date under or with respect to any Insurance Policy shall be indefeasible.

D. Effect of Confirmation on D&O Liability Insurance Policies.

From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall remain in place on terms for coverage and amounts no less favorable than the Debtors' current directors' and officers' insurance policies. The D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and shall be maintained for the benefit of the beneficiaries thereunder. The Debtors and the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policies (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect on or prior to the Effective Date, and any current and former directors, officers, managers, and employees of the Debtors and their Affiliates who served in such capacity at any time before or after the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy or policies for the full term of such policy or policies regardless of whether such directors, officers, managers, and employees remain in such positions after the Effective Date.

ARTICLE VI
PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISTRIBUTIONS

A. Timing and Calculation of Amounts to Be Distributed.

Except as (1) otherwise provided herein, (2) directed by a Final Order, or (3) as otherwise agreed to by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Officer, as the case may be, and the Holder of the applicable Claim, on the Effective Date (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Distribution Date after such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive the full amount of distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class from the Distribution Agent. In the event that any payment or distribution under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or distribution may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. Except as specifically provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

B. Distribution Agent.

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under the Plan and the Plan Supplement; (b) make all distributions contemplated under the Plan; (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan and the Plan Supplement, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of the Plan and the Plan Supplement.

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Distribution Agent on or after the Effective Date (including taxes) and any reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement claims (including reasonable attorney and/or other professional fees and expenses) made by the Distribution Agent shall be paid in Cash by the Wind-Down Officer from the Wind-Down Account.

C. Delivery of Distributions and Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Distribution Agent shall make all distributions required under the Plan. The Distribution Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Additionally, in the event that the Distribution Agent is so otherwise ordered, all costs and expenses of procuring any such bond or surety shall be paid from the Wind-Down Account.

In the event that either (a) a distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable, (b) the Holder of an Allowed Claim does not respond in writing to a request by the Debtors or the Distribution Agent for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution within sixty (60) days or otherwise complete the actions necessary to facilitate a distribution as identified to the Holder within ninety (90) days of the Distribution Agent's request, no distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Distribution Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder or received the necessary information to facilitate a particular distribution, at which time such distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest, dividends, or other accruals of any kind; provided that such distributions shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code on the date that is six months after (a) the date of the distribution, if a distribution is made, or (b) the date that a request for information or action is sent by the Distribution Agent. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Creditor Recovery Trust automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable local, state, federal, or foreign escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and the Claim or Interest of any Holder to such property or interest in property shall be released and forever barred.

D. Claims Payable by Third Parties.

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to one of the Debtors' insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable insurance policy, including any D&O Liability Insurance Policy. Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Cause of Action that the Debtors or any Entity may hold against any other Entity, including insurers under any policies of insurance, nor shall anything contained in the Plan constitute or be deemed a waiver by such insurers of any defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such insurers.

E. Distributions to Unsecured Claims.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, all ~~Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and~~ CBRM Unsecured Claims shall be administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to and in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

F. Allocation Between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided herein, the aggregate consideration paid to Holders on account of their Allowed Claims pursuant to the Plan shall be treated as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof and as determined for federal income tax purposes) and second, to the extent the consideration exceeds the principal amount of the Allowed Claims, to the remaining portion of such Allowed Claim, if any.

ARTICLE VII
PROCEDURES FOR RESOLVING CONTINGENT, UNLIQUIDATED, AND DISPUTED CLAIMS

A. Allowance of Claims.

After the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have and shall retain any and all available rights and defenses the applicable Debtor had with respect to any Claim immediately before the Effective Date, including, without limitation, the right to assert any objection to Claims based on the limitations imposed by section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that neither the Wind-Down Officer nor the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to any Professional Fee Claims or fees of the Independent Fiduciary. For the avoidance of doubt, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to and otherwise reconcile any and all Claims that seek recovery from the Creditor Recovery Trust other than Professional Fee Claims and fees of the Independent Fiduciary. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases before the Effective Date (including the Confirmation Order), no Claim against any Debtor shall become an Allowed Claim unless and until such Claim or Interest is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Court has entered a Final Order, including the Confirmation Order (when it becomes a Final Order), in the Chapter 11 Cases allowing such Claim.

No payment or distribution provided under the Plan shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim or portion thereof unless and until such Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

B. Automatic Disallowance and Expungement of Certain Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Claims Filed after the Claims Bar Date that were required to be Filed in advance of the Claims Bar Date under its terms shall be expunged and disallowed without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

C. Distributions After Allowance.

To the extent a Disputed Claim ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, as soon as practicable, the Debtors shall provide to the Holder of such Claim the Distribution (if any) to which such Holder is entitled under the Plan as of the Effective Date, less any previous Distribution (if any) that was made on account of the undisputed portion of such Claim, without any interest, dividends, or accruals to be paid on account of such Claim.

DECLARATION OF ANDRES A. ESTRADA WITH RESPECT TO THE SOLICITATION AND THE TABULATION OF VOTES ON THE JOINT CHAPTER 11 PLAN OF CBRM REALTY INC. AND CERTAIN OF ITS DEBTOR AFFILIATES

I, Andres A. Estrada, hereby declare under the penalty of perjury:

1. I am a Managing Director of Corporate Restructuring Services employed by Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC dba Verita Global ("Verita"), whose main business address is 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, 3rd Floor, El Segundo, California 90245.

2. I submit this declaration (the "Declaration") with respect to the solicitation of votes and the tabulation of ballots cast on the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 338] (as may be modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time, the "Plan").[2] Except as otherwise noted, all facts set forth herein are based on my personal knowledge, knowledge that I acquired from individuals under my supervision, and my review of relevant documents. I am authorized to submit this Declaration on behalf of Verita. If I were called to testify, I could and would testify competently as to the facts set forth herein.

3. The Bankruptcy Court authorized Verita's retention (a) as claims and noticing agent to the Debtors on June 2, 2025 pursuant to the Order Authorizing the Appointment of Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global as Claims and Noticing Agent Effective as of the Petition Date [Docket No. 101], and (b) as administrative advisor to the Debtors on June 18, 2025 pursuant to the Order Authorizing the Debtors' Employment and Retention of Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global as Administrative Advisor Effective as of the Petition Date [Docket No. 172] (together, the "Retention Orders"). The Retention Orders authorize Verita to assist the Debtors with, among other things, the service of solicitation materials and tabulation of votes cast to accept or reject the Plan. Verita and its employees have considerable experience in soliciting and tabulating votes to accept or reject chapter 11 plans.

SERVICE AND TRANSMITTAL OF
SOLICITATION PACKAGES AND THE TABULATION PROCESS

4. On August 1, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order (I) Conditionally Approving the Adequacy of the Information Contained in the Disclosure Statement, (II) Approving the Solicitation and Voting Procedures With Respect to Confirmation of the Plan, (III) Approving the Form of Ballots and Notices in Connection Therewith, (IV) Scheduling Certain Dates With Respect Thereto, and (V) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 347] (the "Disclosure Statement Order"), establishing procedures to solicit votes from and tabulate Ballots submitted by Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan. Verita adhered to the procedures outlined in the Disclosure Statement Order and caused the solicitation packages (the "Solicitation Packages") to be distributed to parties entitled to vote on the Plan. I supervised the solicitation and tabulation performed by Verita's employees.

5. Pursuant to the Disclosure Statement Order, Verita transmitted Solicitation Packages to those Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan as of the Voting Record Date or Supplemental Voting Record Date, pursuant to the Disclosure Statement Order. Only Holders of Claims in Class 3 (Kelly Hamilton Go-Forward Trade Claims), Class 4 (Other Kelly Hamilton Unsecured Claims), Class 5 (Crown Capital Unsecured Claims), Class 6A (CBRM Unsecured Claims), and Class 6B (Spano CBRM Claim) (the "Voting Classes") were entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.[3]

[3] The Plan provides that Crown Capital Holdings LLC shall constitute a Debtor for purposes of the Plan solely to the extent that a NOLA Restructuring Transaction (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) has been consummated or the NOLA DIP Lenders and the Independent Fiduciary agree in writing or as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Following solicitation of the Plan, the Debtors determined that a NOLA Restructuring Transaction would not occur prior to Confirmation of the Plan. Accordingly, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, Crown Capital Holdings LLC shall not be a Debtor under the Plan and the Joint Chapter 11

6. The following materials constitute Solicitation Packages distributed to Holders of Claims in Voting Classes: (a) the Solicitation and Voting Procedures; (b) the applicable form of Ballot, together with detailed voting instructions, and instructions on how to submit the Ballot; (c) the Cover Letter, which describes the contents of the Solicitation Package and recommends that Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes vote to accept the Plan; (d) the Disclosure Statement (and exhibits thereto, including the Plan); (e) the Disclosure Statement Order; (f) the Combined Hearing Notice; (g) any additional documents that the Court has ordered be made available to Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes.

7. In lieu of Solicitation Packages, all known holders of claims in Class 1 (Other Priority Claims), 2 (Other Secured Claims), 7 (Intercompany Claims), Class 8 (Intercompany Interests), Class 9 (CBRM Interests), Class 10 (Crown Capital Interests), and Class 11 (Section 510(b) Claims) (collectively, the "Non-Voting Classes") received the Notice of Non-Voting Notice Status. Furthermore, Verita caused the Combined Hearing Notice to be served on all Holders of Claims or Interests in Non-Voting Classes, Holders of Disputed Claims, and the creditor matrix, pursuant to the Disclosure Statement Order.

8. A detailed description of Verita's distribution of solicitation materials to Holders entitled to vote on the Plan is set forth in the Certificate of Service, which was filed with the Bankruptcy Court on August 27, 2025 [Docket No. 457].

Plan for Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 389] (as may be modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time) shall constitute the sole plan for Crown Capital Holdings LLC. The Debtors will file an amended Plan removing Crown Capital Holdings LLC as a Debtor and conforming the Classes of Claims and Interests and related definitions prior to the Confirmation Hearing. As a result, the numbering of the class labels reflected in this Voting Report may differ from those that will appear in the amended Plan.

9. On August 8, 2025, Verita posted links to the electronic versions of the Plan, Disclosure Statement, the Disclosure Statement Order, the Cover Letter, the Solicitation and Voting Procedures, and the Combined Hearing Notice on the public access website at https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm.

10. On August 7, 2025, the Publication Notice was published in The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette and The Star-Ledger. The Proof of Publication, an affidavit evidencing the publication of the Publication Notice, was filed with the Court on August 13, 2025 [Docket No. 366].

11. The Disclosure Statement Order established July 24, 2025 as the Voting Record Date to determine which Holders of Claims and Interests were entitled to receive the Solicitation Package or the Notice of Non-Voting Status and an Opt-In Form, as applicable. To accommodate the Debtors' Claims Bar Date, for any creditor who held a Claim that is subject to the Debtors' Claims Bar Date and who filed a Proof of Claim after the Voting Record Date (i.e., July 24, 2025), but on or before the Claims Bar Date, the Disclosure Statement Order established as the Supplemental Voting Record Date the date that such Proof of Claim is filed.

12. Pursuant to the Disclosure Statement Order, Verita worked closely with counsel to the Debtors to identify the Holders in the Voting Classes entitled to vote on the Plan and to coordinate the distribution of the Solicitation Packages to such Holders.

13. In accordance with the Disclosure Statement Order, Verita received, reviewed, determined the validity of, and tabulated the Ballots submitted to vote on the Plan. Each Ballot submitted to Verita was date-stamped, scanned, assigned a Ballot number, entered into Verita's voting database, and processed. The deadline for Ballots to be received by Verita was August 26, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) (the "Voting Deadline").

14. Per the Disclosure Statement Order, to be included in the tabulation results as valid, a Ballot must have been (a) properly completed pursuant to the Disclosure Statement Order, (b) executed by the relevant holder entitled to vote on the Plan (or such holder's representative), (c) returned to Verita via an approved method of delivery set forth in the Disclosure Statement Order, and (d) received by Voting Deadline. Verita completed its final tabulation of the Ballots on August 27, 2025, following a complete review and audit of all Ballots received.

15. Every validly cast Ballot was considered in the tabulation. The final tabulation of votes cast by timely and properly completed Ballots received by Verita is attached hereto as Exhibit A. The detailed Ballot reports for the Voting Classes are attached hereto as Exhibit A-1 through Exhibit A-5. A report of Ballots excluded from the final tabulation, and the reasons for exclusion of such Ballots is attached hereto as Exhibit B. All such Ballots were not counted because they did not satisfy the requirements for a valid Ballot set forth in the Disclosure Statement Order.

16. Verita also reviewed and documented elections recorded on the Ballots and Opt-In Forms from creditors in the Voting Classes and Non-Voting Classes that checked the box on such Ballot or Opt-In Form to opt in to the releases by Holders of Claims and Interests. A report of all Holders of Claims and Interests who opted into the releases is attached hereto as Exhibit C. For avoidance of doubt, this Declaration does not certify the validity or enforceability of any opt in elections received, including those reported on Exhibit C, but rather is providing these opt in election results for reporting and information purposes only.

CONCLUSION

To the best of my knowledge, information and belief, the foregoing information concerning the distribution, submission, and tabulation of Ballots in connection with the Plan is true.

DECLARATION OF JAMES H. MILLAR REGARDING THE APPOINTMENT OF MR DANIEL B. KAMENSKY AS TRUSTEE TO THE PROPOSED CREDITOR RECOVERY TRUST

[1] The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, are: CBRM Realty Inc. (2420), Crown Capital Holdings LLC (1411), Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC (1115), Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC (0765), RH Chenault Creek LLC (8987), RH Copper Creek LLC (0874), RH Lakewind East LLC (6963), RH Windrun LLC (0122), RH New Orleans Holdings LLC (7528), and RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC (1951). The location of the Debtors' service address in these chapter 11 cases is: 4499 Pond Hill Road, San Antonio Texas 78231.

I, James H. Millar, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 and L.B.R. 7007-1, hereby declare that the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief:

1. I am a partner with the law firm Faegre Drinker Biddle & Reath, LLP, counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes[2] (the "Ad Hoc Group"), formed in connection with the chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") commenced by the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (the "Debtors"), on May 19, 2025, by and through its counsel.

2. The Ad Hoc Group holds disclosable economic interests or acts as investment managers or advisors to funds and/or accounts that hold disclosable economic interest in relation to certain of the Debtors, as described more fully in in its Verified Statement Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2019 ("Verified Statement") [Docket No. 31].

3. There are approximately 50 members of the Ad Hoc Group. Because of this large number, decisions of the Ad Hoc Group have been delegated to a subset of members that hold the majority of claims (the "Steering Committee").[3]

4. On August 1, 2025, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court") entered an order [Docket No. 349]: (i) authorizing Debtors to solicit acceptances for the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 338] (as modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time, the "Plan"); (ii) conditionally approving the Disclosure Statement for the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 360] as containing "adequate information"

[3] The Steerinng Committee is composed of representatives of eight members of the Ad Hoc Group, Customers Bank, Federated Insurance Companies, Cincinnati Financial, AQS Asset Management, Bar Harbor Bank and Trust, Sagicor Life Insurance Co., NexAnnuity, and NSG Asset Management [Docket No. 411].

pursuant to section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code; (iii) approving the solicitation materials and documents to be included in the solicitation package; (iv) approving procedures for soliciting, noticing, receiving, and tabulating votes on the Plan; (v) establishing certain deadlines to opt to grant the releases set forth in the Plan; and (vi) approving procedures for filing objections to the Plan.

5. As contemplated by the Plan and the Disclosure Statement Order, Debtors filed a "Plan Supplement" on August 20, 2025 [Docket No. 411], which, inter alia, proposed that a trust (the "Creditor Recovery Trust") be established pursuant to the proposed "Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement" (the "Trust Agreement"), with the members of the Steering Committee appointed to the proposed "Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee".

6. The Trust Agreement proposes that Mr. Daniel B. Kamensky would serve as Trustee of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

7. I submit this declaration regarding the process used to select Mr. Kamensky as the proposed Trustee.

8. I solicited from the Steering Committee the names of candidates potentially to serve as Trustee of the proposed Creditor Recovery Trust.

9. In addition to the names put forward by the Steering Committee, I provided input regarding the list of potential candidates for Trustee.

10. No candidate put forward by the Steering Committee was excluded from consideration as a potential candidate.

11. The final list of candidates was four individuals, including Mr. Kamensky.

12. When contacted regarding their interest to serve as the Trustee of the Creditor Recovery Trust, one candidate expressed that they did not wish to serve as Trustee.

13. The remaining three candidates, including Mr. Kamensky, were vetted by the Steering Committee.

14. Each candidate was asked to provide references to the Steering Committee. All references were contacted.

15. The three candidates were also asked to make a presentation to the Steering Committee and submit to an interview.

16. Mr. Kamensky's presentation was impressive.

17. Mr. Kamensky's interview was also very favorable.

18. Mr. Kamensky was considered an excellent candidate because, among other things:

a. He has substantial expertise in bankruptcy and finance matters, as evidenced by his adjunct professorship at NYU's Stern School of Business, where he is the Executive Director of the Workshop on Corporate Restructuring and Bankruptcy.

b. He has considerable practical experience in bankruptcy and restructuring, including as an attorney at Simpson Thacher & Bartlett and in his subsequent consulting and legal career on restructuring and bankruptcy related matters.

c. He has participated extensively in various industry committees, including, inter alia, as the Former Chairman of the Bankruptcy & Creditor Rights Group of the Managed Funds Association.

d. He expressed a strong desire to take on the role of Trustee and devote a substantial amount of time to recovering funds on behalf of creditors.

19. Before the interview process, I made a point of disclosing to the Steering Committee that Mr. Kamensky had previously pled guilty to one count of a federal bankruptcy crime for which he was sentenced to approximately six months in a correctional facility. (He served approximately 76 days before release.) Mr. Kamensky also affirmatively spoke to this issue during his interview. Mr. Kamensky explained that his conduct in no way reflected on his personal character and that since that time he had been accepted back into the legal and financial community.

20. I checked Mr. Kamensky's references. They were all very favorable. In response to pointed questions, the references confirmed that Mr. Kamensky would be an excellent choice as Trustee and that the circumstances of his conviction did not reflect his personal character and that they would not be a detriment to him serving as Trustee.

21. With full knowledge of those circumstances, the Steering Committee voted on the candidates, and approved, Mr. Kamensky as the Trustee of the proposed Creditor Recovery Trust.

Trump announces 25% tariff on India

Plus unspecified penalties for buying Russian oil

President Donald Trump said Wednesday that he would not extend a self-imposed Friday deadline for new trade deals and announced a 25% duty on imports from India, dashing hopes for an agreement with one of the United States' largest trading partners.

WASHINGTON — The United States will impose a 25% tariff on goods from India, plus an additional import tax because of India's purchasing of Russian oil, President Donald Trump said Wednesday.

India "is our friend," Trump said on his Truth Social platform, but its tariffs on U.S. products "are far too high."

The Republican president added India buys military equipment and oil from Russia, enabling Moscow's war in Ukraine. As a result, he intends to charge an additional "penalty" starting on Friday as part of the launch of his administration's revised tariffs on multiple countries.

Trump told reporters on Wednesday the two countries were still in the middle of negotiations on trade despite the tariffs slated to begin in a few days.

"We're talking to India now," the president said. "We'll see what happens."

The Indian government said Wednesday it's studying the implications of Trump's tariffs announcement.

India and the U.S. have been engaged in negotiations on concluding a "fair, balanced and mutually beneficial" bilateral trade agreement over the last few months, and New Delhi remains committed to that objective, India's Trade Ministry said in a statement.

Trump on Wednesday signed separate orders to tax imports of copper at 50% and justify his 50% tariffs on Brazil due to their criminal prosecution of former President Jair Bolsonaro and treatment of U.S. social media companies.

Trump had previously threatened to impose the 50% tariff on Brazil effective Friday in a letter he sent earlier this month to the country's president, Luiz Inácio Lula da Silva. In that letter, Trump threatened the hefty tariff if Brazil did not end its trial against right-wing former president Jair Bolsonaro.

The order that Trump signed on Wednesday, which increases Brazil's tariff by 40%, accuses the Brazilian government of "serious human rights abuses that have undermined the rule of law in Brazil."

Trump also said on Truth Social that he was meeting Wednesday with a trade delegation from South Korea, which currently faces 25% tariffs starting on Friday. He also said the U.S. has reached a deal with Pakistan that includes the development of its oil reserves. Meanwhile, Treasury Secretary Scott Bessent was briefing him on trade talks with China.

Trump's view on tariffs

Trump's announcement comes after a slew of negotiated trade frameworks with the European Union, Japan, the Philippines and Indonesia — all of which he said would open markets for American goods while enabling the U.S. to raise tax rates on imports. The president views tariff revenues as a way to help offset the budget deficit increases tied to his recent income tax cuts and generate more domestic factory jobs.

While Trump has effectively wielded tariffs as a cudgel to reset the terms of trade, the economic impact is uncertain as most economists expect a slowdown in U.S. growth and greater inflationary pressures as some of the costs of the taxes are passed along to domestic businesses and consumers.

There's also the possibility of more tariffs coming on trade partners with Russia as well as on pharmaceutical drugs and computer chips.

Kevin Hassett, director of the White House National Economic Council, said Trump and U.S. Trade Representative Jamieson Greer would announce the Russia-related tariff rates on India at a later date.

Tariffs face European pushback

Trump's approach of putting a 15% tariff on America's long-standing allies in the EU is also generating pushback, possibly causing European partners as well as Canada to seek alternatives to U.S. leadership on the world stage.

French President Emmanuel Macron said Wednesday in the aftermath of the trade framework that Europe "does not see itself sufficiently" as a global power, saying in a cabinet meeting that negotiations with the U.S. will continue as the agreement gets formalized.

"To be free, you have to be feared," Mr. Macron said. "We have not been feared enough. There is a greater urgency than ever to accelerate the European agenda for sovereignty and competitiveness."

Seeking a deeper partnership with India

Washington has long sought to develop a deeper partnership with New Delhi, which is seen as a bulwark against China.

Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi has established a good working relationship with Trump, and the two leaders are likely to further boost cooperation between their countries. When Trump in February met with Mr. Modi, the U.S. president said that India would start buying American oil and natural gas.

The new tariffs on India could complicate its goal of doubling bilateral trade with the U.S. to $500 billion by 2030. The two countries have had five rounds of negotiations for a bilateral trade agreement. While the U.S. has been seeking greater market access and zero tariff on almost all its exports, India has expressed reservations on throwing open sectors such as agriculture and dairy, which employ a bulk of the country's population for livelihood, Indian officials said.

The Census Bureau reported that the U.S. ran a $45.8 billion trade imbalance in goods with India last year, meaning it imported more than it exported.

At a population exceeding 1.4 billion people, India is the world's largest country and a possible geopolitical counterbalance to China. India and Russia have close relations, and New Delhi has not supported Western sanctions on Moscow over its war in Ukraine.

The new tariffs could put India at a disadvantage in the U.S. market relative to Vietnam, Bangladesh and, possibly, China, said Ajay Sahai, director general of the Federation of Indian Export Organisations.

"We are back to square one as Trump hasn't spelled out what the penalties would be in addition to the tariff," Mr. Sahai said. "The demand for Indian goods is bound to be hit."

Russian missiles hit Ukrainian army training ground, kill at least 3 soldiers

Compiled from news services

Kharkiv regional military administration via AP

A building burns after a Russian strike on Kharkiv, Ukraine.

Russian missiles hit a Ukrainian army training ground Wednesday, killing three soldiers and wounding 18 others, authorities said, targeting Ukraine's efforts to make up a severe manpower shortage in the nearly 3½-year war.

The Russian Defense Ministry asserted that the strike killed or wounded about 200 Ukrainian troops. The ministry said Ukraine's 169th training center near Honcharivske in the Chernihiv region was hit with two Iskander missiles, one armed with multiple submunitions and another with high explosives.

Meanwhile, Russia continued its stepped-up aerial campaign against Ukrainian civilian targets, launching 78 attack drones overnight, including up to eight newly developed jet-powered drones, Ukraine's air force said. At least five people were wounded.

Ukrainian forces are mostly hanging on against a grinding summer push by Russia's bigger army, though the Russian Defense Ministry has claimed recent small advances along the 620-mile front line.

Ukrainian ground forces acknowledged the Russian strike on a military training ground in the Chernihiv region of northern Ukraine, but its casualty report differed widely from Moscow's.

Thailand, Cambodia reaffirm their ceasefire

Thailand and Cambodia reaffirmed their shaky ceasefire on Wednesday after China helped mediate a peace process to end days of border fighting.

The ceasefire reached in Malaysia was supposed to take effect at midnight on Monday, but was quickly tested. Thailand's army accused Cambodia of launching attacks in multiple areas early Tuesday, while Cambodia said there was no firing in any location. The Thai army then reported exchanges of gunfire into Wednesday morning but said there was no use of heavy artillery.

"Such act of aggression constitutes once again a clear violation of the ceasefire agreement by Cambodian forces and their apparent lack of good faith," Thailand's Foreign Ministry said in a statement early Wednesday.

A Thai military statement issued later in the day listed seven alleged hostile actions and truce violations by Cambodia.

Arkansas man arrested in killings of couple

A 28-year-old Arkansas man was arrested Wednesday in the killings of a married couple in front of their children at Devil's Den State Park over the weekend, officials said.

Arkansas State Police arrested James Andrew McGann from Springdale and charged him with two counts of capital murder. Police did not mention a possible motive.

"No news can heal the enormous harm done to the Brink family in last weekend's crime, but this announcement is a comfort and reassurance for our State," Arkansas Gov. Sarah Huckabee Sanders said in a statement.

Clinton David Brink, 43, and Cristen Amanda Brink, 41, were found dead Saturday on a walking trail at Devil's Den. Their daughters, who are 7 and 9, were not hurt and are being cared for by family members, authorities have said.

Virginia councilman set on fire in office attack

A city councilmember in Virginia ran through his office covered in gasoline and then was set on fire by a man who chased him outside, authorities said Wednesday.

Lee Vogler, 38, was flown to a North Carolina hospital after the attack investigators say stemmed from a "personal matter" that was unrelated to his politics or work as councilman, authorities said.

The suspect, Shotsie Michael Buck Hayes, of Danville, was charged with attempted first-degree murder and aggravated malicious wounding.

Police say the suspect entered Mr. Vogler's office, where he works at a local magazine, confronted him and doused him in flammable liquid. Both men then left the building and the 29-year-old suspect set Mr. Vogler on fire, police said.

That budget provides, among other things, for over $1.44 million in proceeds from the DIP Facilities to be used to fund a litigation trust (or similar post-confirmation entity) to investigate and prosecute claims against the Debtors' insiders and other parties for the benefit of the Debtors' general unsecured creditors.

e. Priming Liens. The DIP Lenders will receive priming liens and superpriority claims for repayment of all amounts owed under the DIP Facilities.

f. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Lenders. Certain prepetition secured lenders, including CIF and CKD Penn, are granted adequate protection in the form of replacement liens and superpriority claims to the extent their collateral is being used or primed by the DIP Facilities.

g. Fees. The Debtors have agreed to pay (i) an Origination Fee of 3.0% of the DIP Facilities, (ii) a nominal servicing fee of $7,500 per month for the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, and (iii) a nominal servicing fee of $1,000 per month for the NOLA DIP Facility.

10. The proceeds of the DIP Facilities will enable the Debtors to repay the existing mortgage indebtedness of the Kelly Hamilton Debtor and facilitate the rehabilitation of their affordable housing assets in Louisiana and Pennsylvania. Additionally, approximately $1.2 million of the proceeds of the DIP Facilities will be reserved to fund the costs of the investigation, development, and prosecution of valuable claims and causes of action against certain of the Debtors' insiders, including Silber and Schulman, and other parties for the benefit of the Debtors' unsecured creditors.

11. Pursuant to certain milestones in connection with the DIP Facilities, the Debtors intend to conduct a postpetition marketing process to solicit sale, financing, and plan sponsor proposals for both the Kelly Hamilton Debtor and the NOLA Debtors, which will culminate in an auction to be held during these chapter 11 cases. The process is designed to facilitate a value-maximizing outcome.

The Debtors' Need for Postpetition Financing

12. The Debtors have an immediate need to access the funds provided by the DIP Facilities. Information regarding the Debtors' cash needs leading up to the Petition Date and the need for the relief requested in the Motion is addressed in the First Day Declaration. As further described in the First Day Declaration and the Motion, given the Debtors' unsustainable liquidity challenges, the Debtors require immediate access to proceeds under the proposed DIP Facilities to support the orderly continuation and operation of their businesses, satisfy payroll obligations, fund the administrative costs of these chapter 11 cases, make necessary capital expenditures to preserve the value of the Debtors' assets (and secured creditors' collateral), and provide the Debtors runway to consummate a restructuring or sale transaction for the benefit of all stakeholders.

13. Prior to the Petition Date, IslandDundon, together with the Debtors' attorneys, undertook a detailed analysis of the Debtors' operations and funding needs. From this review and analysis, it became clear that the Debtors would require an infusion of capital to allow the Debtors to continue their operations and fund the administrative costs of these chapter 11 cases while working with their advisors and key stakeholders to maximize the value of their estates.

The Debtors' Efforts to Obtain Postpetition Financing

14. Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors' efforts to refinance and restructure their capital structure were severely impaired by the prosecution of Mark Silber and the nature of the allegations against him. The Debtors, with the assistance of IslandDundon and Lynd Living, engaged with numerous parties regarding potential financing initiatives. These efforts were unsuccessful, and the Debtors determined that financing outside of a court-supervised restructuring process was not feasible. In conjunction with that determination, the Debtors began to engage with Lynd Living and 3650 REIT regarding a potential debtor-in-possession financing facility secured by the Kelly Hamilton Debtor's assets (the "Original Kelly Hamilton DIP Proposal"). At the same time, the Debtors also began to engage with a Noteholder regarding a potential financing facility secured by the assets of both the Kelly Hamilton Debtor and the NOLA Debtors (the "Noteholder DIP Proposal").

15. In conjunction with the commencement of these cases, the Debtors determined that the Noteholder DIP Proposal was superior to the Original Kelly Hamilton DIP Proposal, as it (1) provided financing for both the NOLA Debtors and the Kelly Hamilton Debtor; (2) committed significant start up capital for a litigation trust; and (3) had the support of certain Noteholders. However, the Noteholder DIP Proposal also contemplated a non-consensual priming lien on all of the NOLA Debtors' prepetition funded debt creditors, the approval of which would have required the Debtors to engage in costly, distracting litigation.

16. In the following days, as the Debtors sought to finish documenting the Noteholder DIP Proposal, the Debtors recommenced discussions with Lynd Living and 3650 REIT regarding a revised financing proposal for the Kelly Hamilton Debtor. The Debtors also received unsolicited outreach from prepetition lender DH1 regarding its interest in providing a consensual DIP facility secured by the NOLA Debtors' assets.

17. The Debtors were then faced with three potential paths forward: (a) obtain financing on a consensual basis from the Debtors' existing senior secured lenders, which would provide capital and minimize the risk of costly litigation with a contested DIP approval hearing; (b) obtain financing on a non-consensual priming basis from the Noteholder, which would have provided capital for the business and significant funding for a future litigation trust but would have involved a costly priming battle with DH1, CKD Funding, and CKD Penn in their capacities as prepetition lenders to the NOLA Debtors; or (c) liquidate and provide little, if any, recovery to creditors through the Debtors' operating and litigation assets. The inadvisability of a low-to-no recovery liquidation speaks for itself, and I did not believe the Debtors should take on the expense, uncertainty, and potential delay a priming fight such as accepting the Noteholder DIP Proposal would likely impose when the Debtors had in hand the reasonable alternatives for which they now seek approval.

18. Following extensive dialogue between the Debtors, the steering committee of Noteholders, and the proposed DIP financing providers, the Debtors finalized terms with both Lynd Living and 3650 REIT and DH1, culminating in the DIP Facilities.

The Proposed DIP Facilities Were Negotiated At Arm's-Length

19. The Debtors negotiated the DIP Facilities and DIP Documents with the DIP Lenders in good faith, at arm's length, and with the assistance of their respective advisors. I believe that the Debtors have obtained the best financing available under the circumstances.

20. The fees to be paid under the proposed DIP Facilities, as summarized above and as set forth in more detail in the Motion, are an integral component of the overall terms of the DIP Facilities, were required by the DIP Secured Parties as consideration for the extension of postpetition financing, and are consistent with the market.

The DIP Facilities Are the Best Postpetition Financing Arrangements Currently Available to the Debtors

21. Based on my experience with DIP financing transactions, as well as my involvement in the efforts to secure postpetition financing for the Debtors, the proposed DIP Facilities are fair, reasonable, and adequate under the circumstances. I believe that the DIP

Facilities are the best financing opportunities currently available to the Debtors under the facts and circumstances of these chapter 11 cases.

22. The DIP Facilities are expected to provide the Debtors with the liquidity necessary to preserve the Debtors' estates. The DIP Facilities have been sized to provide the Debtors with liquidity to continue the operation of their businesses, including their properties, fund necessary capital expenditures, satisfy their obligations to tenants and the federal government, pay wage and salary obligations for their employees, and continue to satisfy other working capital and operational needs during these chapter 11 cases. The DIP Facilities will also send a clear message to tenants and vendors that these chapter 11 cases and the events leading to these chapter 11 cases (including the misconduct of the Debtors' prepetition insiders) will not impair the Debtors' go-forward operations.

23. The terms of the DIP Facilities are the result of the negotiations and DIP solicitation process described above. As previously noted, the Debtors, with the assistance of their advisors, solicited and considered other sources of postpetition financing to determine whether the Debtors could obtain such postpetition financing on better terms. However, the Debtors did not receive any alternative proposals with superior terms.

24. I believe that the Debtors' decision to enter into the DIP Facilities is a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment. Given the Debtors' significant liquidity constraints, obligations to tenants, vendors, and the federal government, and – most critically – the lack of any alternative financing proposals on superior terms, I believe entry into the DIP Facilities is essential to the Debtors' restructuring efforts.

Conclusion

25. In sum, for the reasons stated above and based on my experience, it is my professional opinion that the terms of the DIP Facilities are reasonable under the current circumstances and market conditions, and were the product of good faith, arm's-length negotiations, and that the DIP Facilities will benefit all stakeholders in these chapter 11 cases.

DECLARATION OF MATTHEW DUNDON, PRINCIPAL OF ISLANDDUNDON LLC, IN SUPPORT OF DEBTORS' CHAPTER 11 PETITIONS AND FIRST DAY PLEADINGS

I, Matthew Dundon, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, hereby declare that the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief:

1. I am a Principal of Dundon Advisers LLC ("Dundon") and its real estate restructuring affiliate IslandDundon LLC ("IslandDundon"). IslandDundon has been engaged by the above-captioned debtors and debtors-in-possession (collectively, the "Debtors") and will soon file an application to be retained as financial advisor and investment banker to the Debtors. In this capacity, I am generally familiar with the Debtors' day-to-day operations, business and financial affairs, and books and records.

2. I have been a principal of Dundon since 2016 and of IslandDundon and its predecessor joint venture vehicles with Island Capital Group LLC ("Island") since 2019. Dundon provides financial restructuring and asset management and places loans and other non-securities financings on the primary and secondary markets. Island invests in real estate transactions and holds interests in real estate services concerns. I previously worked as a credit hedge fund portfolio manager (2010 to 2016), an institutional brokerage fixed income analyst and head of research (2003 to 2010), and a securities and leveraged finance attorney (1998 to 2003). I received a Juris Doctor from the University of Chicago Law School and a Bachelor of Arts from the University of California at Berkeley. My testimony and declarations in relation to complex chapter 11 matters are regularly accepted by Bankruptcy Courts in this and many other Districts.

3. I submit this declaration (the "Declaration") in support of (a) the Debtors' petitions for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") filed with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court") on May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date") and (b) the various types of "first day" relief that the Debtors have requested pursuant to the motions and pleadings filed in connection therewith (collectively, the "First Day Pleadings"). A chart depicting the Debtors' organization structure as of the Petition Date is attached to this Declaration as Exhibit A.

4. I have reviewed the First Day Pleadings and consulted with the Debtors' legal and financial advisors. To the best of my knowledge, information, and belief formed after reasonable inquiry, I believe that approval of the relief requested in the First Day Pleadings is necessary to minimize disruption to the Debtors' business operations, permit a smooth and effective transition into chapter 11, and preserve and maximize the value of the Debtors' estates. I also believe that absent immediate access to financing and authority to make certain essential payments and otherwise continue conducting ordinary course business operations, as described in greater detail in the First Day Pleadings, the Debtors would suffer immediate and irreparable harm to the detriment of their estates, creditors, and other stakeholders.

5. Except as otherwise indicated herein, the facts set forth in this Declaration are based upon my personal knowledge of the Debtors' business operations, my review of relevant documents, information provided to me or verified by other managers, employees or the Debtors' professional advisors, and/or my opinion based upon my experience.

6. I am authorized to submit this Declaration on behalf of the Debtors and, if called upon, I could and would testify competently to the facts set forth herein.

I. Company Background and Founder Misconduct

7. The Debtors filed these chapter 11 cases on an expedited basis in light of numerous challenges, including a sheriff's sale in Rockland County, New York for Debtor CBRM Realty Inc. ("CBRM"), a critical lack of funding necessary to preserve the health and safety of the Debtors' affordable housing projects in Pennsylvania and Louisiana, and challenges with raising capital due to the fact that the Debtors' ultimate equity owner was recently sentenced to prison for his role in defrauding the federal government in connection with an affordable housing project (which does not have a presently-identified connection to the Debtors or their past or present activities) (the "Silber Prosecution-Related Property").

8. The Debtors are part of a larger real estate portfolio indirectly owned by CBRM and formed by real estate investor Moshe "Mark" Silber and certain affiliated parties (the "Crown Capital Portfolio"). The Crown Capital Portfolio holds dozens of multifamily housing projects across the United States and has been historically funded, at least in part, by the federal government's housing assistance programs, such as Section 8. Ultimately, the Crown Capital Portfolio raised hundreds of millions of dollars of financing, including (i) over $200 million from the sale of bonds issued by Debtor Crown Capital Holdings LLC ("Crown") and guaranteed by Debtor CBRM (the "Notes") and (ii) approximately $450 million of property-level mortgage loans provided by an array of different financing sources.

9. Silber and certain of his co-investors, including Frederick Schulman, have been targets of extensive investigations by the federal government and certain state authorities. On April 17, 2024, Silber entered into a plea agreement in connection with the Silber Prosecution-Related Property with the Fraud Section of the Department of Justice and the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey for conspiracy to commit wire fraud affecting an institution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 371. Schulman also entered into a plea agreement around the same time. Silber was sentenced to 30 months in prison and Schuman was sentenced to 12 months and one day in prison, to be followed by nine months of home confinement. Both have agreed to pay restitution. To my knowledge, none of Silber, Schulman, any Debtor or any past or present officer of any Debtor has been indicted, made subject of a criminal information, civilly sued, or received a Wells Notice or a state equivalent thereof in relation to any properties or transactions of any Debtor.

10. A considerable share of the Debtors' distress arises from the fact that many, if not all, of the properties of the Debtors and their affiliates (including properties that the Debtors lost before the commencement of these cases) are likely worth much less today than the appraised values which supported the issuance of the Notes and certain of the property-level mortgage loans. Although the reasons for this depreciation remain the subject of active investigation by me and my advisors, it may be explained by three factors alone or in combination. First, commencing in 2023, if not earlier, perhaps in part or in whole due to the distraction of the government investigations and eventual prosecution, Silber and Schulman neglected the management of the Crown Capital Portfolio, causing numerous properties or property-holding Debtors or Debtor affiliates to fall into operational and/or physical disarray, jeopardize their eligibility for affordable housing programs which pay or subsidize all or most of the rent rolls, suffer declining occupancy rates, default on their obligations under their respective loan agreements, allow property-level mortgage loans to mature, fail to defend lawsuits (including the Acquiom litigation discussed infra) and become subject to default judgments, and/or become subject to receivership proceedings.. Second, the government successfully prosecuted Silber and Schulman in connection with the Silber Prosecution-Related Property for using false or misleading property-level information to obtain inflated appraisals for certain properties, obtaining excessive financing, and then siphoning the surplusage out of Crown. The Debtors are investigating what relevance, if any, this misconduct has to them. Third, many of the properties of the Debtors and their affiliates were valued for the purposes of the issuance of the Notes and some of the property-level mortgages in a period of time — 2021 and 2022 — when multi-family projects such as the Debtors' were at all-time high values in part due to low interest rates and high investor demand during and after the COVID pandemic — and those properties would likely be worth less today even in the absence of management negligence or intentional misconduct.

II. Appointment of Independent Fiduciary

11. Once Silber's plea became public, Silber, as a convicted felon, was effectively disqualified from continuing to manage the Crown Capital Portfolio. The Crown Capital Portfolio's stakeholders, including investors who purchased the Notes (the "Noteholders"), expressed concern about these developments because the Crown Capital Portfolio's value supported the payment of principal and interest under the Notes.

12. Following discussions between Mr. Silber's counsel and the Noteholders' counsel (Faegre Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP) and financial advisers (at the time, IslandDundon), on August 29, 2024, the parties entered into a forbearance agreement (the "Forbearance Agreement"). The Forbearance Agreement addressed various matters involving pending defaults under the Notes and Mr. Silber's go-forward involvement with the portfolio and established a process to ensure the Crown Capital Portfolio had sufficient fiduciary oversight. The Forbearance Agreement, among other things, required Mr. Silber to appoint an independent fiduciary acceptable to the Noteholders as the sole director of CBRM and Crown and provide that individual with an irrevocable proxy for so long as the obligations under the Forbearance Agreement remained pending.

13. Thereafter, I and others of the Noteholders' advisors identified numerous potential candidates to serve as independent fiduciary as required by the Forbearance Agreement. On September 26, 2024, the bondholders party to the Forbearance Agreement consented to the appointment of Ms. Elizabeth A. LaPuma—a restructuring professional who for over 20 years has worked as an investment banker and corporate director, including for companies in distress—as the independent fiduciary for CBRM and Crown (the "Independent Fiduciary"). Since that time, Ms. LaPuma has acted in a fiduciary capacity for those entities and the dozens of other entities directly or indirectly owned by CBRM, including the Debtors.

III. Factors Precipitating the Debtors' Chapter 11 Filings

14. Following her appointment, the Independent Fiduciary, with my assistance and that of her other advisors, including my IslandDundon colleagues, immediately got to work to maximize the value of the portfolio. The Independent Fiduciary ordered a review of all litigation involving the portfolio, including the systematic identification of defaults, lawsuits, and judgments entered against the properties. In addition, the Independent Fiduciary, with the assistance of entities within The Lynd Group Texas-based real estate management organization ("Lynd Living"), began the process of ensuring that each property owned by the portfolio had sufficient staffing and other resources, with the goal of ensuring that residents had safe, clean homes.

15. The Independent Fiduciary also took steps to ensure that she and the portfolio had the internal resources to maximize value for all stakeholders. Among other things, she obtained director and officer insurance (which the Crown Capital Portfolio inexplicably never obtained prior to the Independent Fiduciary's appointment) to enable her to fulfill her duties. The Independent Fiduciary also began providing periodic updates to the Noteholder advisers and steering committee (including weekly calls), engaged an investment advisor to seek refinancing and new capital opportunities for certain portfolio properties, and engaged with other creditors.

16. These efforts, however, required a pause in any negative enforcement actions contemplated by creditors of the Crown Capital Portfolio, including the Noteholders. Thus, following her appointment, the Independent Fiduciary worked constructively with her advisors and the Noteholders' advisors to extend the Forbearance Agreement in order to allow additional time to restructure the portfolio in a manner which would maximize value for all stakeholders. Most recently, the Noteholders agreed to extend the Forbearance Agreement through April 14, 2025. However, prior to the expiration of that extension, the Noteholders informed the Independent Fiduciary's advisors that they would not extend the Forbearance Agreement any further.

17. Around the same time, one of the Debtors' judgment creditors similarly expressed its intent to execute on the Debtors' assets. Specifically, in June 2022, Mr. Silber purportedly entered into that certain Credit Agreement, dated June 2, 2022, between UBS O'Connor LLC, as lender ("UBS"), and Acquiom Agency Services LLC ("Acquiom"), as administrative agent (the "Silber Credit Agreement"). The Silber Credit Agreement was purportedly guaranteed by, among others, CBRM, and was purportedly secured by a pledge by CBRM of its equity in Crown. On March 6, 2024, Acquiom sent a letter to Mr. Silber asserting that a default had occurred under the Silber Credit Agreement resulting from Mr. Silber's failure to timely make certain interest payments which Acquiom asserted were properly due under the Silber Credit Agreement. On May 2, 2024, after failing to receive a response to its letter, Acquiom filed a lawsuit against, among others, Silber and CBRM (the "UBS Defendants") to recover the total aggregate principal balance under the Silber Credit Agreement in a suit captioned Acquiom Agency Services LLC v. Fox Capital LLC et. al., Index No. 652265/2024, Supreme Court of the State of New York County of New York, Commercial Division Part 45 (May 2, 2024).

18. On August 2, 2024, the Supreme Court of the State of New York (the "New York Court") granted Acquiom's summary judgment motion and required that Silber repay the amounts outstanding under the Silber Credit Agreement in an amount totaling $19,185,000 plus interest. On September 5, 2024, the New York Court entered a judgment against the UBS Defendants in the amount of $21,020,452.60. On September 9, 2024, Acquiom assigned the right to collect on this judgment to Spano Investor LLC (the "Judgment Creditor"). After the assignment, on December 14, 2024, the New York Court entered a property execution order requiring the UBS Defendants to satisfy the judgment and authorizing the Judgment Creditor to foreclose and collect upon certain assets in satisfaction of its judgment, including CBRM's right, title, and interest in Crown. The Rockland County sheriff was scheduled to conduct a sheriff's sale of certain assets of CBRM, including its equity interest in Crown, on Thursday, May 22, 2025. The sheriff's sale, had it proceeded, would have allowed a prepetition creditor to exercise remedies against CBRM's interest in Crown, the entity overseen by the Independent Fiduciary (a) that issued the Notes, (b) holds significant potential claims and causes of action against Silber and other affiliates, and (c) holds CBRM's interests in the Crown Capital Portfolio. The sheriff's sale, if it had proceeded, would have, therefore, allowed a single prepetition judgment creditor receive a recovery at the expense of other creditors (particularly the Noteholders). The Debtors commenced these chapter 11 cases to maximize value for all of CBRM's creditors.

IV. Prepetition Secured Indebtedness

19. On the basis of information available to and reviewed by me and my advisors, I presently believe the Debtors' prepetition secured indebtedness presently to consist of:

(i) a term loan in the original principal amount of $3,500,000 (the "Prepetition Kelly Hamilton Loan") pursuant to that certain Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of September 20, 2024, between Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC (the "Kelly Hamilton Debtor"), as Borrower, and Kelly Hamilton Lender LLC (the "Kelly Hamilton Lender"), as Lender, evidenced by that certain Term Note, dated as of September 20, 2024, by Kelly Hamilton Debtor in favor of the Kelly Hamilton Lender, and secured by an Open-End Commercial Mortgage, Security Agreement and Assignment of Leases and Rents, dated as of September 20, 2024;

(ii) loans (the "Prepetition CKD Loans") issued to RH Lakewind East LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, and RH Windrun LLC (together, with RH Chenault Creek LLC, collectively, the "NOLA Debtors") evidenced by that certain Non-Revolving Commercial Line of Credit Note, dated as of July 8, 2024, in the original principal amount of up to $10,000,000, in favor of CKD Funding LLC ("CKD") and secured by a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents and Security Agreement, dated as of July 8, 2024;

(iii) loans (the "Prepetition DH1 Loans") issued to RH Chenault Creek LLC evidenced by (a) an Amended and Restated Secured Promissory Note, dated as of March 12, 2024, in the principal amount of $4,060,875.87, and Assignment of Amended and Restated Secured Promissory Note and Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents and Security Agreement, and Allonge to Amended and Restated Secured Promissory Note, dated as of September 6, 2024, and (b) that certain Non-Revolving Commercial Line of Credit Note, dated as of April 4, 2024, in the original principal amount of up to $7,500,000, in favor of DH1 Holdings LLC ("DH1"), each of which is secured by (a) a Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents and Security Agreement, dated as of March 13, 2024, and (b) a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Lease and Rents and Security Agreement, dated as of April 4, 2024; and

(iv) amounts due under the Silber Credit Agreement, if and to the extent both the obligation and its security are validated as to one or more Debtor, and then only to the extent that the equity collateral therefore has any value.

20. Additionally, I believe (i) CKD Investor Penn LLC ("CKD Penn") holds a mortgage on the properties held by the NOLA Debtors pursuant to a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents and Security Agreement, dated as of August 16, 2024, and (ii) Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge, LTD holds a mortgage on the property held by RH Lakewind East LLC pursuant to a Mortgage, Security Agreement, assignment of Leases and Rents and Fixture Filing, dated as of December 11, 2024.

V. Prepetition Unsecured Obligations

21. On the basis of information available to and reviewed by me and my advisors, I presently believe the Debtors' prepetition unsecured obligations consist principally of (a) the Notes, which are a series of three bond issuances, each made under a purported exemption from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, each of which is structured as a series of economically-identical bilateral agreements between the issuer and guarantor thereof, on the one hand, and each note purchaser (principally consisting of insurance companies and wealth management firms), on the other hand, and none of which possesses a trust indenture nor indenture trustee, (b) the obligations under the Silber Credit Agreement to the extent its obligations are validated but are determined to be unsecured or in excess of the value of any validated collateral, (c) operating trade obligations, and (d) obligations to Lynd Living and providers of professional services to or the payment of which was guaranteed by the Debtors.

VI. DIP Financing and Objectives of the Chapter 11 Cases

22. Prior to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors' efforts to refinance and restructure their capital structure were severely impaired by Silber's prosecution and the nature of the allegations involving Silber. The Debtors, with the assistance of an external financing broker and Lynd Living, engaged with numerous parties regarding potential financing initiatives. None of those efforts succeeded and the Debtors determined that financing outside of a court-supervised restructuring process was not feasible. In conjunction with that determination, the Debtors began to engage with Lynd Living and a capital partner, 3650 REIT, regarding a potential debtor-in-possession financing facility secured by the Kelly Hamilton Debtor's assets (the "Original Kelly Hamilton DIP Proposal"). At the same time, the Debtors also began to engage with a Noteholder regarding a potential financing facility secured by the assets of both the Kelly Hamilton Debtor and the NOLA Debtors (the "Noteholder DIP Proposal").

23. In conjunction with the commencement of these cases, the Debtors determined that the Noteholder DIP Proposal was superior to the Original Kelly Hamilton DIP Proposal. Among other things, the Noteholder DIP Proposal (1) provided financing for the NOLA Debtors as well as the Kelly Hamilton Debtor, (2) committed significant start-up funding for a litigation trust, and

(3) had the support of certain Noteholders. The Noteholder DIP Proposal, however, also contemplated a non-consensual priming lien on all of the NOLA Debtors' prepetition funded debt creditors, the approval of which would have required the Debtors to engage in costly, distracting litigation.

24. In the following days, as the Debtors sought to finish documenting the Noteholder DIP Proposal, the Debtors also recommenced discussions with Lynd Living and 3650 REIT regarding a revised financing proposal for the Kelly Hamilton Debtor. The Debtors also received unsolicited outreach from DH1, which as detailed above holds a mortgage on the NOLA Debtors' properties, regarding its interest in providing a consensual DIP facility secured by the NOLA Debtors' assets. Following extensive dialogue between the Debtors, the steering committee of Noteholders, and the proposed DIP financing providers, the Debtors finalized terms with both Lynd Living and 3650 REIT and DH1.

25. Specifically, the Kelly Hamilton Debtor has obtained a lending commitment from Lynd Living and 3650 REIT for a secured debtor-in-possession credit facility (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility") in a principal amount of up to $9,830,162, comprised of one or more new term loans. Additionally, the NOLA Debtors have obtained a lending commitment from DH1, CKD and CKD Penn for a secured debtor-in-possession credit facility (the "NOLA DIP Facility" and, together with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, the "DIP Facilities") in the aggregate principal amount of up to $17,422,728, comprised of (a) one or more new term loans and (b) a roll-up of the Prepetition DH1 Loans and the Prepetition CKD Loans.

26. The proceeds of the DIP Facilities will enable the Debtors to repay the existing mortgage indebtedness of the Kelly Hamilton Debtor and facilitate the rehabilitation of their affordable housing assets in Louisiana and Pennsylvania. Additionally, approximately $1.2

million of the proceeds of the DIP Facilities will be reserved to fund the costs of the investigation, development, and prosecution of valuable claims and causes of action against certain of the Debtors' insiders, including Silber and Schulman, and other parties for the benefit of the Debtors' unsecured creditors.

27. Pursuant to certain milestones in connection with the DIP Facility, the Debtors will also engage in a postpetition marketing process to solicit sale, financing, and plan sponsor proposals for the Kelly Hamilton Debtor and the NOLA Debtors and conduct an auction during the chapter 11 cases in order to obtain the highest and best transaction for the Kelly Hamilton Debtor and the NOLA Debtors.

VII. Conclusion

28. The ultimate goal in these chapter 11 cases is to achieve a value-maximizing result for the Debtors' stakeholders. I presently anticipate that with the cooperation of all parties in interest and with the assistance of the Court, this result will include, perhaps among other things, (a) the realization for the benefit of unsecured creditors of any value in properties in excess of the enforceable amount of mortgage loans thereupon, and (b) the preliminary investigation of, and creation of suitable post-effective date structure(s) (e.g., a litigation trust with appropriate funding) to pursue, estate causes of action such as those which may exist against Silber, Schulman and other insiders, non-insider transferees of constructive and actual fraudulent and preferential transfers, participants in the issuance of the Notes who were negligent or reckless in fulfilling their duties to the Debtors, and aiders and abettors of any of the foregoing, and to coordinate for mutual benefit with the Noteholders and Acquiom in respect of causes of action which may have common facts, legal theories, or sources of recovery with causes of action which are their property. To minimize any loss of value, the Debtors' immediate objective is to maintain a business-as-usual atmosphere during the course of these chapter 11 cases, with as little interruption or disruption to the Debtors' operations as possible. I believe that if the Court grants the relief requested by the First Day Pleadings, the prospect for achieving these objectives will be substantially enhanced.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

I. INTRODUCTION

Reference is made to the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates (the "Plan"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Plan. Crown Capital Holdings LLC ("Crown Capital"), RH Chenault Creek LLC ("Chenault"), RH Windrun LLC ("Windrun"), RH Copper Creek LLC ("Copper Creek"), RH Lakewind East LLC ("Lakewind"), RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC, and Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC (collectively, the "Debtors")[2] submit this disclosure statement (the "Disclosure Statement"), pursuant to section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, to holders of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors in connection with the solicitation of votes for acceptance of the Plan. The Plan constitutes a separate chapter 11 plan for each Debtor.

II. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The Debtors own and operate four multifamily affordable housing complexes located in New Orleans, Louisiana (the "NOLA Properties"): Carmel Brook Apartments, owned by Chenault; Carmel Spring Apartments, owned by Windrun; Laguna Reserve Apartments, owned by Lakewind; and Laguna Creek Apartments, owned by Copper Creek. The NOLA Properties provide rent restricted housing to low-income residents and are supported in part by government housing programs. Preserving the NOLA Properties is critical not only to maximizing the value of the Debtors' estates, but also to protecting vital affordable housing resources in the local community.

The Debtors, along with their affiliates CBRM Realty Inc. ("CBRM"), Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC, and Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC ("Kelly Hamilton," together with CBRM and Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC, the "CBRM Debtors"), commenced these chapter 11 cases on May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date").[3] These chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") were filed amid severe operational, financial, and governance challenges stemming from mismanagement of the broader Crown Capital Portfolio (defined below) and the criminal conviction of its ultimate equity owner, Mark "Moshe" Silber. These issues contributed to liquidity constraints, declining property performance, and creditor enforcement actions. Since the Petition Date, and under the leadership of an independent fiduciary (the "Independent Fiduciary"), the Debtors have stabilized operations, obtained postpetition financing, and initiated a court-supervised marketing process aimed at maximizing value for the benefit of all stakeholders.

To support this process, Crown Capital, Chenault Creek, Windrun, Copper Creek, and Lakewind obtained $17,422,728 in postpetition financing (the "NOLA DIP Facility") from DH1 Holdings LLC ("DH1"), CKD Funding LLC ("CKD Funding"), and CKD Investor Penn LLC ("CKD Penn" and, together with DH1 and CKD Funding, collectively, the "NOLA DIP Lenders"), investors with deep experience in the multifamily and affordable housing sectors. Of that amount, approximately $8,461,524 was funded through new money loans, while the remaining $8,961,204 reflected a roll-up of prepetition obligations. Prior to

[2] The CBRM Plan provides that Crown Capital Holdings LLC shall constitute a Debtor for purposes of the CBRM Plan solely to the extent that a NOLA Restructuring Transaction (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) has been consummated or the NOLA DIP Lenders and the Independent Fiduciary agree in writing or as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Subsequent to the filing of the CBRM Plan, the Debtors determined that a NOLA Restructuring Transaction would not occur prior to Confirmation of the CBRM Plan. Accordingly, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the CBRM Plan, Crown Capital Holdings LLC shall not be a Debtor under the CBRM Plan and this Plan shall constitute the sole plan for Crown Capital Holdings LLC. The Debtors shall modify the CBRM Plan to remove Crown Capital Holdings LLC as a Debtor prior to the Confirmation Hearing scheduled for the CBRM Plan.

[3] The Petition Date for Debtor Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC ("Laguna Reserve") is August 17, 2025.

the Petition Date, the NOLA DIP Lenders held the senior secured mortgage loans encumbering the NOLA Properties and were the Debtors' primary secured creditors. The NOLA DIP Facility has served as a critical bridge to fund operations and support a dual-track strategy for sale and plan confirmation.

Operational stability has been further supported by the Debtors' continued engagement of Lynd Management Group LLC ("Lynd Management") as property manager and LAGSP LLC ("LAGSP") as asset manager. Both firms are affiliates of The Lynd Group, a Texas-based real estate organization with a national platform and demonstrated experience managing affordable housing assets. The Debtors initially engaged Lynd Management and LAGSP pursuant to prepetition service agreements, and subsequently moved to assume and amend those agreements postpetition to ensure continuity of operations and to enhance oversight during the chapter 11 process.

The Debtors are now advancing a chapter 11 plan that contemplates a court-approved sale of the NOLA Properties (the "NOLA Sale Transaction"). On August 15, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving: (a) bidding procedures, including the sale timeline and form and manner of notice for the potential sale of one or more of the NOLA Properties; (b) a process for selecting a stalking horse bidder and approving bid protections; and (c) procedures for the potential assumption and assignment of executory contracts and unexpired leases [Docket No. 382] (the "NOLA Bidding Procedures Order"). In accordance with the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order, the NOLA Sale Transaction may be implemented either pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or through consummation of the Plan.

The Plan contemplates the following stakeholder recoveries:

- All Allowed Other Priority Claims will be paid in full in Cash on the Effective Date, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable;

- All Allowed Other Secured Claims will be (a) paid in full in Cash, (b) reinstated, (c) receive the return of applicable collateral securing such Allowed Other Secured Claims, or (d) otherwise receive treatment that renders such Claims Unimpaired under the Bankruptcy Code;

- Each Holder of an Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claim will receive, (a) to the extent there are Sale Proceeds that are proceeds of the sale of the Lakewind Property in excess of the amount necessary to satisfy all Allowed NOLA DIP Claims, Allowed General Administrative Claims, Allowed Priority Tax Claims, Allowed Other Priority Claims, and Allowed Other Secured Claims in full in Cash on the Effective Date, payment in Cash of the amount of the excess Sale Proceeds attributable to the sale of the Lakewind Property on the Effective Date or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable; or (b) to the extent there are not sufficient Sale Proceeds that are proceeds of the sale of the Lakewind Property to satisfy the Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claim in full, on account of the remaining unpaid CIF Mortgage Loan Claim, its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution to Holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan;

- Each Holder of an Allowed NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claim will receive a treatment determined by the NOLA Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the NOLA Purchase Agreement;

- Each Holder of an Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan;

- Each Holder of an Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan);

- Each Holder of an Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan);

- Except as otherwise provided in the Plan Supplement, all Intercompany Claims will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Claims;

- Except as otherwise provided in the Plan Supplement, all Intercompany Interests will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Interests;

- On the Effective Date, each Crown Capital Interest shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust as provided in the Plan; provided, however, that the Crown Capital Interests shall remain subject to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed to by Spano Investor LLC; provided, further, however, that Spano Investor LLC shall not directly or indirectly seek to exercise any legal, equitable, or other rights against such Crown Capital Interests or other assets of any Debtor or subsidiary of any Debtor that may constitute collateral of Spano Investor LLC with respect to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. pending further order of the Bankruptcy Court or a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court in the Spano Adversary Proceeding; provided, further, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Plan shall limit or affect Spano Investor LLC's rights to enforce its prepetition judgment and exercise any remedies against non-Debtors Fox Capital LLC, CBCC 1 LLC, CBCC 2 LLC, CBCC 3 LLC, CBCC 4 LLC, CBCC 5 LLC, Westwood Jackson Apts MM LLC, or Westwood Jackson Apts LLC, or any assets of such non-Debtor entities;

- All Interests in RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust without any distribution on account of such Interests; and

- All Section 510(b) Claims, if any, will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Claims.

The Debtors strongly believe that the Plan is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, and represents the best available alternative at this time. For these reasons, the Debtors strongly recommend that Holders of Claims and Interests entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan vote to accept the Plan.

III. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS REGARDING THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT AND THE PLAN

A. What is chapter 11?

Chapter 11 is the principal business reorganization chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition to permitting debtor rehabilitation, chapter 11 promotes equality of treatment for creditors and similarly situated equity interest holders, subject to the priority of distributions prescribed by the Bankruptcy Code.

The commencement of a chapter 11 case creates an estate that comprises all of the legal and equitable interests of the debtor as of the date the chapter 11 case is commenced. The Bankruptcy Code provides that the debtor may continue to operate its business and remain in possession of its property as a "debtor in possession."

Consummating a chapter 11 plan is the principal objective of a chapter 11 case. A bankruptcy court's confirmation of a chapter 11 plan binds the debtor, any person acquiring property under the plan, any creditor or equity interest holder of the debtor (whether or not such creditor or equity interest holder voted to accept the plan), and any other entity as may be ordered by the bankruptcy court. Subject to certain limited exceptions, the order issued by a bankruptcy court confirming a plan provides for the treatment of the debtor's liabilities in accordance with the terms of the confirmed plan.

B. Why are the Debtors sending me this Disclosure Statement?

The Debtors are seeking to obtain Bankruptcy Court approval of the Plan. Before soliciting acceptances of the Plan, section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Debtors to prepare a disclosure statement containing adequate information of a kind, and in sufficient detail, to enable a hypothetical reasonable investor to make an informed judgment regarding acceptance of the Plan and to share such disclosure statement with all holders of Claims and Interests whose votes on the Plan are being solicited. This Disclosure Statement is being submitted in accordance with these requirements.

C. Am I entitled to vote on the Plan?

Your ability to vote on, and your distribution under, the Plan, if any, depends on what type of Claim or Interest you hold. Each category of holders of Claims or Interests, as set forth in Article III of the Plan pursuant to section 1122(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, is referred to as a "Class." Each Class's respective voting status is set forth below:

| Class | Claims and Interests | Status | Voting Rights |
|---|---|---|---|
| Class 1 | Other Priority Claims | Unimpaired | Note Entitled to Vote (Presumed to Accept) |
| Class 2 | Other Secured Claims | Unimpaired | Not Entitled to Vote (Presumed to Accept) |
| Class 3 | CIF Mortgage Loan Claims | Impaired | Entitled to Vote |
| Class 4 | NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims | Impaired | Entitled to Vote |
| Class 5 | Other NOLA Unsecured Claims | Impaired | Entitled to Vote |
| Class 6 | Crown Capital Unsecured Claims | Impaired | Entitled to Vote |
| Class 7 | RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims | Impaired | Entitled to Vote |
| Class 8 | Intercompany Claims | Unimpaired / Impaired | Not Entitled to Vote |
| Class 9 | Intercompany Interests | Unimpaired / Impaired | Not Entitled to Vote |
| Class 10 | Crown Capital Interests | Impaired | Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject) |
| Class 11 | RH New Orleans Interests | Impaired | Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject) |
| Class 12 | Section 510(b) Claims | Impaired | Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject) |

D. What will I receive from the Debtors if the Plan is consummated?

The following chart provides a summary of the anticipated recovery to Holders of Claims and Interests under the Plan. Any estimates of Claims or Interests in this Disclosure Statement may vary from the final amounts allowed by the Bankruptcy Court. Your ability to receive distributions under the Plan depends upon the ability of the Debtors to obtain Confirmation and meet the conditions necessary to consummate the Plan.

Each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive under the Plan the treatment described below in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for such Holder's Claim, except to the extent different treatment is agreed to by the Debtors and the Holder of such Allowed Claim. Unless otherwise indicated, the Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive such treatment on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. Projected recoveries included in the summary table below reflect the Debtors' analysis of anticipated Claims.

| 1 | Other Priority Claims | Except to the extent that a Holder of an Allowed Other Priority Claim and the applicable Debtor agree to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, compromise, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for such Allowed Other Priority Claim, each such Holder shall receive payment in full, in Cash, of the unpaid portion of its Allowed Other Priority Claim on the Effective Date or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable (or, if payment is not then due, shall be paid in accordance with its terms in the ordinary course). | $[●] | 100% |
| 2 | Other Secured Claims | Except to the extent that a Holder of an Allowed Other Secured Claim and the applicable Debtor agree to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, compromise, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for such Allowed Other Secured Claim, each such Holder shall receive on the Effective Date or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable: (i) payment in full in Cash of the unpaid portion of such Holder's Allowed Other Secured Claim on the Effective Date or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable (or if payment is not then due, payment shall be made in accordance with its terms in the ordinary course); (ii) the applicable Debtor's interest in the collateral securing such Holder's Allowed Other Secured Claim; (iii) reinstatement of such Holder's Allowed Other Secured Claim; or (iv) such other treatment rendering such Holder's Allowed Other Secured Claim Unimpaired. | $[●] | 100% |

[4] Recoveries to Holders of Class 6 Crown Capital Unsecured Claims are dependent upon the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such value is largely dependent on the successful prosecution of Claims and Causes of Action, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, by the Creditor Recovery Trust. There can be no assurance of the validity of, the amount of, or the chance of recovery on account of these Claims and Causes of Action. Defenses may also be available. Accordingly, recoveries are uncertain.

There can be no assurance of the validity of, the amount of, or the chance of recovery on account of these Claims and Causes of Action. Defenses may also be available. Accordingly, recoveries are uncertain.

E. What will I receive from the Debtors if I hold a General Administrative Claim or a Priority Tax Claim?

General Administrative Claims and Priority Tax Claims have not been placed in a Class in the Plan, consistent with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. Article II.A of the Plan sets forth the treatment for General Administrative Claims and provides in part that such Claims will be satisfied in full in an amount of Cash equal to the amount of such Allowed General Administrative Claim. Article II.E of the Plan sets forth the treatment for Priority Tax Claims, which states that an Allowed Priority Tax Claim will be treated in accordance with section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code.

F. Are any regulatory approvals required to consummate the Plan?

Other than approvals that may be required in the ordinary course of business in connection with the continued operation of the NOLA Properties, the Debtors are not aware of any material U.S. regulatory approvals required to consummate the Plan. However, the sale of the NOLA Properties pursuant to the Plan or under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code is subject to entry of a final, non-appealable order of the Bankruptcy Court confirming the Plan or sale under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

G. What happens if the NOLA Sale Transaction is not consummated?

The Plan is premised on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, which the Debtors believe will represent the best available path to maximize value and facilitate an orderly Wind-Down of the Estates. However, if the NOLA Sale Transaction is not consummated, the Debtors would work expeditiously to evaluate and pursue an alternative transaction structure, which could include, if required and feasible, a reorganization of one or more Debtors, though no such transaction has been proposed or developed to date and may not be viable given the Debtors' financial condition.

While no such alternative restructuring has been negotiated or proposed as of the date of this Disclosure Statement, the Debtors believe there may be value-preserving alternatives that could be developed and implemented through a revised chapter 11 plan, subject to further diligence, market conditions, and creditor support. In such a scenario, the treatment of Claims and Interests could differ from that set forth in the current Plan and would be determined based on the structure of any such alternative transaction.

If no viable transaction can be implemented, the Debtors may need to consider a conversion to chapter 7, which could result in lower recoveries than those estimated under the Plan.

H. What happens to my recovery if the Plan is not confirmed or does not go effective?

If the Plan is not confirmed or does not go effective, there is no assurance that the Debtors will be able to implement an alternative transaction that would provide recoveries equal to or greater than those contemplated by the Plan. The Plan is based on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' Estates. The Debtors do not have an alternative transaction or plan of reorganization currently negotiated or proposed.

If the NOLA Sale Transaction cannot be completed and the Plan cannot be confirmed, the Debtors would evaluate potential alternatives. However, there can be no assurance that a viable alternative transaction could be identified, negotiated, and implemented in a timely or cost-effective manner. In such a scenario, the Debtors may be required to convert these Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, which the Debtors believe would likely result in significantly lower recoveries for Holders of Allowed Claims.

For a more detailed description of the potential consequences of a failure to confirm or consummate the Plan, see Article XI.B of this Disclosure Statement, entitled "Best Interests of Creditors Test," which begins on page 41.

I. If the Plan provides that I get a distribution, do I get it upon Confirmation or when the Plan goes effective, and what is meant by "Confirmation," "Effective Date," and "Consummation"?

"Confirmation" of the Plan refers to approval of the Plan by the Bankruptcy Court. Confirmation of the Plan does not guarantee that you will receive the distribution indicated under the Plan. After Confirmation of the Plan by the Bankruptcy Court, there are conditions that need to be satisfied or waived so that the Plan can go effective. Initial distributions to holders of Allowed Claims and Interests will only be made on the date the Plan becomes effective—the "Effective Date"—or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, as specified in the Plan. See Article IX of the Plan. "Consummation" means the occurrence of the Effective Date.

J. What are the sources of Cash and other consideration required to fund the Plan?

The Debtors intend to fund distributions under the Plan through a combination of (a) the Sale Proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction; (b) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to be transferred in accordance with the CBRM Plan and this Plan; and (c) other available assets, as further described in the Plan.

The NOLA Sale Transaction contemplates the sale of the NOLA Properties pursuant to one or more purchase agreements with the successful bidder(s) following conclusion of the sale process.

In addition to the proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction, distributions under the Plan will be funded from: (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, consisting of, to the extent not expended prior to the Effective Date solely with respect to the development and investigation of Claims and Causes of Action held by the Debtors or their Estates to be pursued for the benefit of creditors, Cash in an amount equal to $1,000,000 of the proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility, which shall be funded on the Effective Date; (ii) any recoveries from the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, Contributed Claims, and NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, which will be pursued and administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust; and (iii) the Interests of RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC and Crown Capital. Distributions from the Creditor Recovery Trust will be made to Holders of Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claims (Class 6) and Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims (Class 7), with each Holder receiving its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust provided to such Holder on account of its Allowed CBRM Unsecured Claim (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan).

For the avoidance of doubt, the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall include any Claim or Cause of Action, including any Avoidance Action, held by the Debtors or their Estates and the proceeds thereof, against any of the following (each, an "Excluded Party" and collectively, the "Excluded Parties"): (a) Moshe (Mark) Silber; (b) Frederick Schulman; (c) Piper Sandler & Co.; (d) Mayer Brown LLP; (e) Rhodium Asset Management LLC; (f) Syms Construction LLC; (g) Rapid Improvements LLC; (h) NB Affordable Foundation Inc.; (i) any title agencies; (j) any independent real estate appraisal firms; (k) any other current or former Insiders of the Debtors; (l) any party listed on the Schedule of Excluded Parties, which shall be filed as part of the Plan Supplement (as the same may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time); and (m) with respect to each of the foregoing, each Person's or Entity's Affiliates, partners, members, managers, officers, directors, and agents that are not specifically identified in the Plan as a Released Party.

Certain administrative expenses, including Allowed Professional Compensation Claims, will be funded from a dedicated Fee Escrow Account. The specific allocation of consideration and other assets to the various Classes of Claims and Interests will be set forth in the Plan Supplement.

K. Will there be releases and exculpation granted to parties in interest as part of the Plan?

Yes, the Plan provides for releases and exculpation of the Debtors and other parties in interest as set forth in Article VIII of the Plan.

Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors faced escalating operational and financial distress stemming from broader issues within the Crown Capital Portfolio (as defined below), including the criminal conviction of its ultimate equity owner, disputes among insiders, and a breakdown in governance and oversight. These failures contributed to cash flow shortfalls, unpaid obligations, and deterioration in property performance, placing the long-term viability of the NOLA Properties at serious risk. Following the appointment of the Independent Fiduciary in April 2024, the Debtors and their professionals undertook an extensive review of potential estate claims, insider transactions, and restructuring alternatives.

As part of that assessment, the Independent Fiduciary and the Debtors' professionals evaluated prepetition financial dealings involving insiders and affiliated entities, as well as the conduct surrounding the historical governance and financial condition of the Debtors. Based on that review, the Independent Fiduciary directed the Debtors to preserve all potential Claims and Causes of Action—including, without limitation, Avoidance Actions under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code and any claims for breach of fiduciary duty, mismanagement, or other actionable misconduct—against each Excluded Party. These parties are expressly excluded from the definitions of both "Released Parties" and "Exculpated Parties" under the Plan. Accordingly, the Plan does not, and shall not be construed to, release, exculpate, or otherwise impair any Claims or Causes of Action against these parties, all of which are expressly preserved. The Debtors, through the Independent Fiduciary and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, retain and reserve all such Causes of Action for the benefit of the Debtors' Estates and their stakeholders, and such Causes of Action will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust for potential pursuit by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in accordance with the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

In contrast, the Independent Fiduciary has determined that releases are appropriate for the following parties: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the NOLA Purchaser; (c) LAGSP; (d) Lynd Management; (e) the NOLA DIP Lenders; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former Affiliates, and such Entity's and its current and former Affiliates' subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (h) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. These parties are collectively defined in the Plan as the "Released Parties."

In addition to the estate releases, the Plan includes a customary third-party release that applies only to Holders of Claims or Interests who affirmatively consent to grant such release. A Holder of a Claim in Class 3, Class 4, Class 5, Class 6, or Class 7 affirmatively consents to grant the third-party release set forth in Article VIII of the Plan if the Holder either (a) votes to accept the Plan, or (b) abstains or does not affirmatively vote to accept the Plan but checks the box on the Holder's Ballot indicating that the Holder opts to grant the release. Holders of Claims or Interests in Class 1, Class 2, Class 8, Class 9, Class 10, Class 11 or Class 12, which are not entitled to vote, may affirmatively consent to grant the release by submitting a completed Opt-In Form and checking the box indicating their consent. Only those Holders who take one of these specified affirmative actions will grant the third-party release under the Plan.

The Plan also includes an exculpation provision that applies to (a) each Debtor solely in its capacity as a debtor and debtor in possession following the Petition Date and excluding such Debtor for the period prior to the Petition Date, (b) the Independent Fiduciary, (c) LAGSP, (d) Lynd Management, and (e) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. These parties are exculpated from any liability for any act or omission arising as of or following the Petition Date through the Effective Date in connection with, relating to, or arising out of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan, the NOLA Sale Transaction, or Restructuring Transactions, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation of any document in connection with the Plan, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Plan, the pursuit of Consummation, the Restructuring Transactions, the administration and implementation of the Plan, or the distribution of property pursuant to the Plan.

The Debtors believe that the release, exculpation, and related injunction provisions are necessary and appropriate in light of the contributions made by the Released and Exculpated Parties, and consistent with applicable law, including precedent established by the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. The Debtors intend to present evidence at the Confirmation Hearing in support of the necessity and propriety of these Plan provisions.

IMPORTANTLY, ONLY HOLDERS OF CLAIMS OR INTERESTS THAT AFFIRMATIVELY OPT TO GRANT THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASES CONTAINED IN THE PLAN WILL BE SUBJECT TO SUCH RELEASES. A HOLDER WILL BE CONSIDERED TO HAVE AFFIRMATIVELY CONSENTED TO THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASES ONLY IF THAT HOLDER: (A) IS A HOLDER OF A CLAIM IN CLASS 3, CLASS 4, CLASS 5, CLASS 6 OR CLASS 7 AND VOTES TO ACCEPT THE PLAN; (B) IS A HOLDER OF A CLAIM IN CLASS 3, CLASS 4, CLASS 5, CLASS 6 OR CLASS 7, ABSTAINS OR DOES NOT AFFIRMATIVELY VOTE TO ACCEPT THE PLAN, AND CHECKS THE BOX ON THE BALLOT INDICATING THAT SUCH HOLDER OPTS TO GRANT THE RELEASES; OR (C) IS A HOLDER OF A CLAIM OR INTEREST IN CLASS 1, CLASS 2, CLASS 8, CLASS 9, CLASS 10, CLASS 11 OR CLASS 12 AND CHECKS THE BOX ON THE OPT-IN FORM INDICATING THAT SUCH HOLDER OPTS TO GRANT THE RELEASES. HOLDERS WHO DO NOT AFFIRMATIVELY OPT TO GRANT THE RELEASES WILL NOT BE BOUND BY THEM. THE RELEASES ARE AN INTEGRAL ELEMENT OF THE PLAN.

L. What are the potential claims and causes of action against Silber and his affiliates?

The Debtors, through their Independent Fiduciary, are continuing to investigate potential Estate Claims and Causes of Action against Mark Silber, Frederick Schulman, and other individuals and entities associated with their historical control, management, or influence over the Debtors prior to the Petition Date. These investigations include potential claims for breach of fiduciary duty, mismanagement, corporate waste, fraudulent transfers, and other conduct that may have harmed the Debtors or their stakeholders.

With the assistance of advisors, the Independent Fiduciary is reviewing numerous prepetition transactions and governance actions involving these insiders. The areas of focus include the mismanagement of the Debtors' real estate assets, the potential misuse of financing proceeds, neglect of regulatory obligations, and other conduct potentially involving self-dealing, fraud, or improper diversion of estate value. The Debtors are also evaluating whether the misconduct that formed the basis of Silber's and Schulman's criminal convictions may have impacted the Debtors or their creditors.

As a result of this ongoing review, the Independent Fiduciary has directed the Debtors to preserve all related Claims and Causes of Action, including those against Silber, Schulman, entities they owned or controlled, and any other individuals or firms that may have facilitated or benefited from the conduct in question. These individuals and entities are expressly excluded from the Plan's definitions of "Released Parties" and "Exculpated Parties," and therefore are not receiving any release or exculpation under the Plan.

All such Claims and Causes of Action are being preserved under the Plan and, as of the Effective Date, will vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust and may be pursued by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The Creditor Recovery Trustee will serve as the post-effective date fiduciary responsible for investigating and, where appropriate, prosecuting such retained Claims and Causes of Action for the benefit of unsecured creditors.

M. How does this Plan relate to and interact with the CBRM Plan?

This Plan has been developed in coordination with the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 338] (as amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time, the "CBRM Plan"). Pursuant to the CBRM Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan to assume all liability of the CBRM Debtors and their estates for, and to administer, all CBRM Unsecured Claims.

Under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the Debtors will transfer to the Creditor Recovery Trust (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any) to be administered for and distributed to the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims in accordance with the waterfall provisions of the CBRM Plan.

If the CBRM Plan is not confirmed or does not become effective, the Debtors will implement an alternative, court-approved mechanism to administer and distribute the assets that would otherwise have been transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such mechanism may include establishing a similar trust under the Plan or another structure designed to maximize value for stakeholders.

N. What is the Creditor Recovery Trust?

The Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan for the benefit of Holders of Class 6 Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, Class 7 Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims, and Allowed CBRM Unsecured Claims (as defined in the CBRM Plan).

Pursuant to the Plan, certain assets will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, including: (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, consisting of, to the extent not expended prior to the Effective Date solely with respect to the development and investigation of Claims and Causes of Action held by the Debtors or their Estates to be pursued for the benefit of creditors, Cash in an amount equal to $1,000,000 of the proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility, which shall be funded on the Effective Date; (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any).

In addition, as set forth in the Plan, the Debtors will include in the Plan Supplement a schedule of executory contracts to be assumed by the applicable Debtor and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts"). On the Effective Date, such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts shall be deemed assumed and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and any associated Cure Amounts shall be satisfied in accordance with the Plan and the Confirmation Order.

The Creditor Recovery Trust will be administered by one or more trustees selected by the CBRM Debtors, in consultation with the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, the NOLA DIP Lenders, and Spano Investor LLC ("Spano"). The Creditor Recovery Trustee will be responsible for administering, prosecuting, settling, or monetizing the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and making distributions in accordance with the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The Creditor Recovery Trust is intended to maximize recoveries for unsecured creditors.

O. What is the Wind-Down and who is responsible?

Following the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the Effective Date of the Plan, the Debtors will no longer operate an ongoing business and will instead wind down their affairs. The Wind-Down Officer appointed under the CBRM Plan shall be appointed by the Debtors to oversee the wind down, dissolution, and liquidation of the Estates following the Effective Date in accordance with Article IV.C of the Plan.

P. What is the deadline to vote on the Plan?

The Voting Deadline is [●], 2025, at [●] [a.m. / p.m.] (prevailing Eastern Time).

Q. How do I vote for or against the Plan?

Detailed instructions regarding how to vote on the Plan are contained on the ballots distributed to Holders of Claims and Interests that are entitled to vote on the Plan. For your vote to be counted, you must submit your ballot in accordance with the instructions provided in Article IV.D of this Disclosure Statement. BALLOTS SENT BY FAX OR EMAIL ARE NOT ALLOWED AND WILL NOT BE COUNTED.

R. Why is the Bankruptcy Court holding a Confirmation Hearing?

Section 1128(a) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Bankruptcy Court to hold a hearing on confirmation of the Plan and recognizes that any party in interest may object to Confirmation of the Plan. The Confirmation Hearing will be scheduled by the Bankruptcy Court shortly after the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases. All parties in interest will be served notice of the time, date, and location of the Confirmation Hearing once scheduled.

S. What is the purpose of the Confirmation Hearing?

The confirmation of a plan of reorganization by a bankruptcy court binds the debtor, any issuer of securities under a plan of reorganization, any person acquiring property under a plan of reorganization, any creditor or equity interest holder of a debtor, and any other person or entity as may be ordered by the bankruptcy court in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to certain limited exceptions, the order issued by the bankruptcy court confirming a plan of reorganization discharges a debtor from any debt that arose before the confirmation of such plan of reorganization and provides for the treatment of such debt in accordance with the terms of the confirmed plan of reorganization.

The deadline by which all objections to the Plan must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served so as to be actually received by the appropriate notice parties is [●], 2025, at [●] [a.m. / p.m.] (prevailing Eastern Time).

T. Who do I contact if I have additional questions with respect to this Disclosure Statement or the Plan?

U. Do the Debtors recommend voting in favor of the Plan?

Yes. The Debtors strongly recommend that all eligible creditors vote to accept the Plan. The Plan contemplates the sale of the NOLA Properties through a competitive, court-supervised Sale Process, the transfer of designated assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust to administer and distribute recoveries, and the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' Estates following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction.

This structure is designed to maximize value and ensure fair and efficient distributions to creditors. The Debtors believe that the Plan is in the best interests of all Holders of Claims and Interests under the circumstances. Alternative paths would likely involve significant delays, increased administrative costs, and lower recoveries. In contrast, the Plan offers a clear, actionable, and creditor-focused approach to monetize remaining assets, preserve and pursue potential litigation claims, and bring these Chapter 11 Cases to a prompt and value-maximizing conclusion for the benefit of all stakeholders.

IV. SOLICITATION AND VOTING PROCEDURES

This Disclosure Statement, which is accompanied by a ballot (the "Ballot") to be used for voting on the Plan, is being distributed to the Holders of Claims in the Classes entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

A. Holders of Claims and Interests Entitled to Vote on the Plan

The Debtors are soliciting votes to accept or reject the Plan only from Holders of Claims and Interests in Classes 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 (the "Voting Classes"). The Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes are Impaired under the Plan and may, in certain circumstances, receive a distribution under the Plan. Accordingly, Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes have the right to vote to accept or reject the Plan. The Debtors are not soliciting votes from Holders of Claims or Interests in Classes 1, 2, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12.

B. Votes Required for Acceptance by a Class

Under the Bankruptcy Code, acceptance by a class of claims requires an affirmative vote of more than one-half in number of total allowed claims that have voted and an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds in dollar amount of the total allowed claims that have voted. Acceptance by a class of interests requires an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds in amount of the total allowed interests that have voted.

C. Certain Factors to Be Considered Prior to Voting

There are a variety of factors that all Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan should consider prior to voting to accept or reject the Plan. These factors may impact recoveries under the Plan and include, among other things:

- unless otherwise specifically indicated, the financial information contained in the Disclosure Statement has not been audited and is based on an analysis of data available at the time of the preparation of the Plan and the Disclosure Statement;

- although the Debtors believe that the Plan complies with all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors can neither assure such compliance nor that the Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan;

- the Debtors may request Confirmation without the acceptance of the Plan by all Impaired Classes in accordance with section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; and

- any delays of either Confirmation or Consummation could result in, among other things, increased Administrative Claims and Professional Fee Claims.

While these factors could affect distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests under the Plan, the occurrence or impact of such factors may not necessarily affect the validity of the vote of the Voting Classes or necessarily require a re-solicitation of the votes of Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes pursuant to section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code.

For a further discussion of risk factors, please refer to "Risk Factors" described in Article X of this Disclosure Statement.

D. Solicitation Procedures

1. Claims and Noticing Agent

The Debtors have retained the Claims and Noticing Agent, Verita, to act as, among other things, the Claims and Noticing Agent in connection with the solicitation of votes to accept or reject the Plan.

2. Solicitation Package

The following materials constitute the solicitation package (collectively, the "Solicitation Package") distributed to Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes:

- a cover letter describing the contents of the Solicitation Package and urging the Holders of Claims and Interests in each of the Voting Classes to vote to accept the Plan;
- notice of the Confirmation Hearing;
- a customized paper Ballot;
- the Disclosure Statement (including the Plan and all exhibits) and the Disclosure Statement Order; and
- any other materials ordered by the Bankruptcy Court to be included as part of the Solicitation Package.

V. OVERVIEW OF THE COMPANY'S OPERATIONS

A. The Debtors' Business Operations

The Debtors are part of a larger real estate portfolio formed by real estate investor Moshe "Mark" Silber and certain affiliated parties (the "Crown Capital Portfolio"). The Crown Capital Portfolio holds dozens of multifamily housing projects across the United States, including the NOLA Properties, and has been historically funded, at least in part, by the federal government's housing assistance programs, such as Section 8.

Among the assets in the Crown Capital Portfolio are the NOLA Properties. These properties serve low-income tenants and participate in various government-supported housing programs. The NOLA Properties serve as a critical source of affordable housing for low-income residents in the New Orleans community. Rent payments from tenants (including subsidies paid directly by government programs) represent the Debtors' primary source of revenue. The Debtors do not have employees of their own and instead rely on third-party professionals to manage and operate the NOLA Properties.

B. Property Management and Operations

Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors engaged Lynd Management to serve as the Property Manager for the NOLA Properties, pursuant to certain Amended and Restated Property Management Agreements dated as of September 16, 2019. Lynd Management provides on-site personnel and oversees all day-to-day property-level functions, including leasing, maintenance, compliance with regulatory obligations, and the coordination of services for residents.

In addition, LAGSP serves as asset manager for the Debtors pursuant to that certain Asset Management Agreement dated as of September 19, 2024. LAGSP provides strategic oversight of the NOLA Properties' operations, ensures compliance with financing and regulatory obligations, and assists in capital planning and financial reporting.

All rent and subsidy collections are deposited into operating accounts controlled by the Debtors. In the ordinary course, these funds are used to pay property-level operating expenses, taxes, insurance, and debt service obligations. Prior to the Petition Date, limited liquidity, capital needs, and the legacy deferred maintenance burden impaired the Debtors' ability to stabilize operations and maintain compliance with regulatory standards.

C. Founder Misconduct and Breakdown in Governance

Prior to the Petition Date, the Crown Capital Portfolio raised hundreds of millions of dollars of financing, including (i) over $200 million from the sale of bonds issued by Crown Capital and guaranteed by CBRM (the "Notes") and (ii) approximately $450 million of property-level mortgage loans provided by an array of different financing sources.

Moshe "Mark" Silber and certain of his co-investors, including Frederick Schulman, have been targets of extensive investigations by the federal government and certain state authorities. On April 17, 2024, Silber entered into a plea agreement in connection with defrauding the federal government in connection with an affordable housing project (which does not have a presently-identified connection to the Debtors or their past or present activities) (the "Silber Prosecution-Related Property"). The plea agreement was entered into with the Fraud Section of the Department of Justice and the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey for conspiracy to commit wire fraud affecting an institution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 371. Schulman also entered into a plea agreement around the same time. Silber was sentenced to 30 months in prison and Schuman was sentenced to 12 months and one day in prison, to be followed by nine months of home confinement. Both have agreed to pay restitution.

A considerable share of the Debtors' distress arises from the fact that many, if not all, of the properties of the Debtors and their affiliates are likely worth much less today than the appraised values which supported the issuance of the Notes and certain of the property-level mortgage loans. Although the reasons for this depreciation remain the subject of active investigation, it may be explained by three factors alone or in combination. First, commencing in 2023, if not earlier, perhaps in part or in whole due to the distraction of the government investigations and eventual prosecution, Silber and Schulman neglected the management of the Crown Capital Portfolio, causing numerous properties or property-holding Debtors or their affiliates to fall into operational and/or physical disarray, jeopardize their eligibility for affordable housing programs which pay or subsidize all or most of the rent rolls, suffer declining occupancy rates, default on their obligations under their respective loan agreements, allow property-level mortgage loans to mature, fail to defend lawsuits (including the Acquiom litigation discussed infra) and become subject to default judgments, and/or become subject to receivership proceedings. Second, the government successfully prosecuted Silber and Schulman in connection with the Silber Prosecution-Related Property for using false or misleading property-level information to obtain inflated appraisals for certain properties, obtaining excessive financing, and then siphoning the surplusage out of Crown Capital. The Debtors are investigating what relevance, if any, this misconduct has to them. Third, many of the properties of the Debtors and their affiliates were valued for the purposes of the issuance of the Notes and some of the property-level mortgages in a period of time — 2021 and 2022 — when multi-family projects such as the Debtors' were at all-time high values in part due to low interest rates and high investor demand during and after the COVID pandemic — and those properties would likely be worth less today even in the absence of management negligence or intentional misconduct.

D. Appointment of Independent Fiduciary

Once Silber's plea became public, Silber, as a convicted felon, was effectively disqualified from continuing to manage the Crown Capital Portfolio. The Crown Capital Portfolio's stakeholders, including investors who purchased the Notes (the "Noteholders"), expressed concern about these developments because the Crown Capital Portfolio's value supported the payment of principal and interest under the Notes.

Following discussions between Mr. Silber's counsel and the Noteholders' counsel (Faegre Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP) and financial advisers (at the time, IslandDundon), on August 29, 2024, the parties entered into a forbearance agreement (the "Forbearance Agreement"). The Forbearance Agreement addressed various matters involving pending defaults under the Notes and Mr. Silber's go-forward involvement with the portfolio and established a process to ensure the Crown Capital Portfolio had sufficient fiduciary oversight. The Forbearance Agreement, among other things, required Mr. Silber to appoint an independent fiduciary acceptable to the Noteholders as the sole director of CBRM and Crown Capital and provide that individual with an irrevocable proxy for so long as the obligations under the Forbearance Agreement remained pending.

Thereafter, the Noteholders' advisors identified numerous potential candidates to serve as independent fiduciary as required by the Forbearance Agreement. On September 26, 2024, the bondholders party to the Forbearance Agreement consented to the appointment of Ms. Elizabeth A. LaPuma—a restructuring professional who for over 20 years has worked as an investment banker and corporate director, including for companies in distress—as the Independent Fiduciary for CBRM and Crown Capital. Since that time, Ms. LaPuma has acted in a fiduciary capacity for those entities and the dozens of other entities directly or indirectly owned by CBRM, including the Debtors.

E. Factors Precipitating the Debtors' Chapter 11 Filings

Following her appointment, the Independent Fiduciary immediately got to work to maximize the value of the portfolio. The Independent Fiduciary ordered a review of all litigation involving the portfolio, including the systematic identification of defaults, lawsuits, and judgments entered against the properties. In addition, the Independent Fiduciary, with the assistance of entities within Lynd Management, began the process of ensuring that each property owned by the portfolio had sufficient staffing and other resources, with the goal of ensuring that residents had safe, clean homes.

The Independent Fiduciary also took steps to ensure that she and the portfolio had the internal resources to maximize value for all stakeholders. Among other things, she obtained director and officer insurance (which the Crown Capital Portfolio inexplicably never obtained prior to the Independent Fiduciary's appointment) to enable her to fulfill her duties. The Independent Fiduciary also began providing periodic updates to the Noteholder advisers and steering committee (including weekly calls), engaged an investment advisor to seek refinancing and new capital opportunities for certain portfolio properties, and engaged with other creditors.

These efforts, however, required a pause in any negative enforcement actions contemplated by creditors of the Crown Capital Portfolio, including the Noteholders. Thus, following her appointment, the Independent Fiduciary worked constructively with her advisors and the Noteholders' advisors to extend the Forbearance Agreement in order to allow additional time to restructure the portfolio in a manner which would maximize value for all stakeholders. The Noteholders agreed to extend the Forbearance Agreement through April 14, 2025. However, prior to the expiration of that extension, the Noteholders informed the Independent Fiduciary's advisors that they would not extend the Forbearance Agreement any further.

Around the same time, one of the Debtors' judgment creditors similarly expressed its intent to execute on the Debtors' assets. Specifically, in June 2022, Mr. Silber purportedly entered into that certain Credit Agreement, dated June 2, 2022, between UBS O'Connor LLC, as lender ("UBS"), and Acquiom Agency Services LLC ("Acquiom"), as administrative agent (the "Silber Credit Agreement"). The Silber Credit Agreement was purportedly guaranteed by, among others, CBRM, and was purportedly secured by a pledge by CBRM of its equity in Crown Capital. On March 6, 2024, Acquiom sent a letter to Mr. Silber asserting that a default had occurred under the Silber Credit Agreement resulting from Mr. Silber's failure to timely make certain interest payments which Acquiom asserted were properly due under the Silber Credit Agreement. On May 2, 2024, after failing to receive a response to its letter, Acquiom filed a lawsuit against, among others, Silber and CBRM (the "UBS Defendants") to recover the total aggregate principal balance under the Silber Credit Agreement in a suit captioned Acquiom Agency Services LLC v. Fox Capital LLC et. al., Index No. 652265/2024, Supreme Court of the State of New York County of New York, Commercial Division Part 45 (May 2, 2024).

On August 2, 2024, the Supreme Court of the State of New York (the "New York Court") granted Acquiom's summary judgment motion and required that Silber repay the amounts outstanding under the Silber Credit Agreement in an amount totaling $19,185,000 plus interest. On September 5, 2024, the New York Court entered a judgment against the UBS Defendants in the amount of $21,020,452.60. On September 9, 2024, Acquiom assigned the right to collect on this judgment to Spano. After the assignment, on December 14, 2024, the New York Court entered a property execution order requiring the UBS Defendants to satisfy the judgment and authorizing the Spano to foreclose and collect upon certain assets in satisfaction of its judgment, including CBRM's right, title, and interest in Crown Capital. The Rockland County sheriff was scheduled to conduct a sheriff's sale of certain assets of CBRM, including its equity interest in Crown Capital, on Thursday, May 22, 2025. The sheriff's sale, had it proceeded, would have allowed a prepetition creditor to exercise remedies against CBRM's interest in Crown Capital, the entity overseen by the Independent Fiduciary (a) that issued the Notes, (b) holds significant potential claims and causes of action against Silber and other affiliates, and (c) holds CBRM's interests in the Crown Capital Portfolio. The sheriff's sale, if it had proceeded, would have, therefore, allowed a single prepetition judgment creditor receive a recovery at the expense of other creditors (particularly the Noteholders). The Debtors commenced these Chapter 11 Cases to maximize value for all of CBRM's creditors.

F. The Debtors' Prepetition Secured Indebtedness

As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were obligated under several prepetition secured credit facilities related to the NOLA Properties. CKD Funding is the holder of first-priority lien obligations arising under two loan facilities (together, the "Prepetition First Lien Loans"). The first facility originated with DH1, which made a loan to Chenault on or about April 4, 2024. This loan was initially in the principal amount of $7.5 million, later increased to $10 million by amendment on the same day, and subsequently increased to $25 million pursuant to a second amendment dated July 5, 2024 (the "DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan"). The loan was secured by a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Lease and Rents and Security Agreement dated April 4, 2024, encumbering Carmel Brook Apartments (the "DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage"). On March 10, 2025, DH1 assigned its rights under the DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan and DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage to CKD Funding, and the assignment was recorded in the Parish of Orleans, Louisiana, on March 12, 2025.

The second facility was made by CKD Funding directly to Windrun, Lakewind, and Copper Creek on or about July 8, 2024, in the principal amount of up to $10 million. This loan was secured by a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents and Security Agreement dated July 8, 2024, covering Carmel Spring Apartments, Laguna Reserve Apartments, and Laguna Creek Apartments. Together, the obligations under these two facilities comprise the Prepetition First Lien Loans. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were liable to CKD Funding in an amount not less than $8,961,204, secured by valid, perfected first-priority liens on substantially all of their assets.

In addition, CKD Funding acquired a junior loan originally made by Akiri Funds, LLC ("Akiri") to Chenault Creek on or about January 21, 2024, in the original principal amount of $3,635,475. That loan was amended and restated on March 12, 2024, to reflect a revised principal amount of $4,060,875.87 (the "Akiri Loan"), and was secured by a Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents, and Security Agreement dated March 13, 2024 (the "Akiri Mortgage"). The Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage were expressly subordinated to the DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan and DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage pursuant to a Subordination and Intercreditor Agreement dated April 4, 2024. Akiri sold and assigned the Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage to DH1 on September 6, 2024, who ultimately assigned the Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage to CKD Funding as part of the same March 2025 assignment from DH1 CKD Funding.

CKD Penn, LLC holds a junior mortgage on each of the NOLA Properties pursuant to a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and rents and Security Agreement dated August 16, 2024, which secures its guaranty of certain obligations owed by non-debtor affiliates of the Debtors.

Finally, Lakewind granted a mortgage on Laguna Reserve Apartments in favor of Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge Ltd. ("CIF") to secure a $4.5 million credit facility originally extended by CIF to Laguna Reserve pursuant to a Credit Agreement dated April 25, 2023. The mortgage was granted following a default by Laguna Reserve and was recorded on December 13, 2024. The CIF Lakewind Mortgage (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) is recognized by the Debtors, the Independent Fiduciary, CKD Funding, and CKD Penn as a valid, properly perfected lien, but only to the extent and subject to the conditions set forth in the NOLA DIP Order. Specifically, the CIF Lakewind Mortgage is junior to the Prepetition First Priority Liens (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) and the CKD Penn Junior Liens (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) and is recognized solely in accordance with the stipulations and reservations of rights contained in the NOLA DIP Order.

G. Prepetition Unsecured Obligations

As of the Petition Date, the Debtors' prepetition unsecured indebtedness consisted of: (a) the Notes, which are a series of three bond issuances, each made under a purported exemption from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, each of which is structured as a series of economically-identical bilateral agreements between the issuer and guarantor thereof, on the one hand, and each note purchaser (principally consisting of insurance companies and wealth management firms), on the other hand, and none of which possesses a trust indenture nor indenture trustee; (b) operating trade obligations; and (c) obligations to Lynd Management, LAGSP, and providers of professional services to or the payment of which was guaranteed by the Debtors.

VI. OVERVIEW OF THE CHAPTER 11 CASES

A. Commencement of Chapter 11 Cases

On the Petition Date, the Debtors commenced the Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors continue to manage their properties and operate their businesses as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. Joint Administration of the Chapter 11 Cases

On May 20, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking joint administration of their Chapter 11 Cases for procedural purposes only [Docket No. 7]. On May 27, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order granting the motion and directing that the cases be jointly administered under the lead case, In re CBRM Realty Inc., Case No. 25-15343 [Docket No. 51].

C. Complex Chapter 11 Case Designation and Procedures

On May 20, 2025, the Debtors submitted an application to designate the Chapter 11 Cases as complex Chapter 11 cases [Docket No. 10]. On May 28, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order granting the designation [Docket No. 57]. Subsequently, on June 9, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order implementing the Chapter 11 Complex Case Procedures [Docket No. 122].

D. Cash Management System

On May 23, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking authority to continue using their existing cash management system, maintain their existing bank accounts and business forms, honor related obligations in the ordinary course of business, and continue conducting intercompany transactions. The motion also requested that postpetition intercompany balances be granted superpriority administrative expense status pursuant to sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 30].

On May 28, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an interim order approving the requested relief on an interim basis [Docket No. 60]. Following a final hearing, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order on June 18, 2025, authorizing the Debtors to continue operating their cash management system and related practices on a final basis [Docket No. 165]. Pursuant to the final order, the Debtors were authorized to maintain their prepetition cash management structure, including all bank accounts and intercompany funding arrangements, and to continue using their existing checks and business forms, provided that they include a "Debtor in Possession" designation.

E. Authorization of Tenant Reimbursement and Business Operations

On May 23, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking authority to continue to operate their businesses in the ordinary course, including authority to pay certain prepetition obligations that are essential to ongoing operations and necessary to preserve the value of the estates [Docket No. 34] (the "Ordinary Course Motion"). This relief was critical to maintaining stable operations during the early stages of the Chapter 11 Cases and ensuring continuity of services across the Debtors' real estate portfolio.

Included within the scope of the Ordinary Course Motion was authorization for the Debtors to honor prepetition obligations to tenants, including obligations related to tenant reimbursements. Many of the Debtors' commercial leases contain provisions requiring the landlords to reimburse tenants for specific capital expenditures or tenant improvements, subject to defined lease terms and conditions. These reimbursements, while prepetition in origin, were viewed as essential to maintaining positive tenant relationships, avoiding litigation, and preserving the ongoing viability of tenancy arrangements that are foundational to the Debtors' revenue stream.

On June 18, 2025, following notice and a hearing, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order granting the Debtors authority to make tenant reimbursement payments consistent with the terms of applicable leases, and to continue administering and satisfying those obligations on a go-forward basis without the need for further Court approval [Docket No. 166]. On June 27, 2025, the Court entered a final order granting the Debtors authority to continue their prepetition business operations, policies, and practices, including the authorization to pay taxes and fees, vendor claims, and insurance obligations in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis [Docket No. 226].

F. Retention of Chapter 11 Professionals

The Debtors have obtained authority to retain various professionals to assist them in carrying out their duties under the Bankruptcy Code during these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors' professionals include: (i) White & Case LLP as bankruptcy counsel; (ii) Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey special counsel; and (iii) Verita as claims and noticing agent and administrative agent. In addition, the Debtors have filed applications to retain: (i) IslandDundon Partners LLC as restructuring advisor and investment banker; (ii) Hilco Real Estate, LLC, as real estate advisor for the Kelly Hamilton Property (as defined below) and the NOLA Properties; and (iii) Larry G. Schedler & Associates, Inc.., as real estate broker for the NOLA Properties. The Debtors may seek to retain additional professionals.

G. DIP Financing Motion

On May 28, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 61] seeking authority to obtain two senior secured superpriority debtor-in-possession ("DIP") financing facilities from the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and the NOLA DIP Lenders, respectively.

On June 19, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court approved the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility on a final basis [Docket No. 178] (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Order"). Pursuant to the Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement, dated June 23, 2025, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility provides up to $9,705,162 in postpetition financing to the Debtors. The proceeds are to be used, among other things, to pay accrued and unpaid prepetition obligations to the prior secured lender, fund working capital, pay administrative and professional expenses in these Chapter 11 Cases, and preserve the value of low-income, HUD-subsidized multifamily housing owned by the Debtors.

The Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility is secured by first-priority, priming liens on substantially all assets of the Debtors (excluding certain litigation trust assets) and includes superpriority administrative expense claims under section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The facility provides that the obligations owed to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender are subject only to a defined Carve-Out and a limited reservation of rights respecting the Purported Spano Judgment Lien (as defined in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order).

On July 2, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court approved the NOLA DIP Facility on a final basis [Docket No. 251] (the "NOLA DIP Order"). Pursuant to the Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement, the NOLA DIP Facility provides for up to $17,422,728 in postpetition financing to Debtors Crown Capital, RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Windrun LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, and RH Lakewind East LLC. Of that amount, approximately $8,461,524 constitutes new money loans, with the remaining $8,961,204 representing a roll-up of obligations under the prepetition first lien loan facilities. The proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility are to be used to fund working capital, pay administrative and professional expenses in these Chapter 11 Cases, satisfy critical prepetition obligations, and preserve and stabilize the value of the NOLA Properties.

The NOLA DIP Facility is secured by first-priority, priming liens and includes superpriority administrative expense claims under section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The obligations under the NOLA DIP Facility are subject only to a defined Carve-Out and are governed by a budget and reporting protocol similar to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility. The final DIP order also provides for the roll-up of prepetition debt upon entry of the final order, without a novation or impairment of existing liens, and reserves certain rights with respect to potential litigation trust assets. For the avoidance of doubt, except to the extent that the NOLA DIP Facility has been indefeasibly repaid in full in Cash or the NOLA DIP Lenders and the Independent Fiduciary otherwise agree in writing, the Plan does not modify or otherwise affect any obligations of the Debtors arising under or related to the NOLA DIP Facility.

H. Utilities Motion

On June 10, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking entry of interim and final orders to establish adequate assurance procedures and to prevent utility companies from altering, refusing, or discontinuing service due to the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases [Docket No. 125] (the "Utilities Motion"). The Utilities Motion was critical to ensuring uninterrupted utility services to the Debtors' affordable housing projects across multiple states. The Debtors proposed to deposit approximately $67,025 into a segregated account as adequate assurance for utility providers, in addition to maintaining their historical payment practices.

On July 10, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order granting the relief requested in the Utilities Motion [Docket No. 279].

I. Lynd Management and LAGSP Contract Assumption

On June 11, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 128] seeking authority to assume critical prepetition property management and staffing contracts with Lynd Management and LAGSP, which provided essential onsite and centralized services to the Debtors' multifamily housing portfolio. The Debtors determined that assumption of these contracts was necessary to preserve value and maintain operational stability, particularly given Lynd Management and LAGSP's provision of critical property management and asset management services that are essential to maintaining compliance with regulatory requirements (including HUD requirements) and safeguarding resident health and safety. Continued engagement of Lynd Management and LAGSP was also integral to preserving the value of the Kelly Hamilton Property and the NOLA Properties and ensuring uninterrupted, compliant operations throughout the chapter 11 process.

On June 18, 2025, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 171] authorizing assumption of the contracts. In connection with that assumption, the Debtors agreed to pay a total cure amount of $953,000 to Lynd Management and LAGSP. Of that amount, $328,000 was payable in cash upon entry of the order, with the remaining $625,000 to be treated as an allowed administrative expense under sections 365(b) and 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and paid in accordance with the Plan's treatment of General Administrative Claims.

This arrangement provided immediate liquidity to Lynd Management and LAGSP and preserved its continued postpetition services while deferring the balance of the cure costs in a manner that aligned with the Debtors' liquidity constraints. The assumption of the Lynd Management and LAGSP contracts helped ensure continuity in essential property operations while supporting the Debtors' broader restructuring efforts.

J. Schedules and Statements and Claims Bar Dates

On June 27, 2025, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 227] approving the establishment of deadlines for filing proofs of claim. The order established: (i) 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on July 28, 2025, as the general bar date for all non-governmental creditors to file proofs of claim against the Debtors (the "Claims Bar Date"); (ii) 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on November 17, 2025, as the deadline for governmental units to file claims (the "Governmental Bar Date"); (iii) the later of (a) the Claims or Governmental Bar Date, as applicable, or (b) 30 days after entry of an order authorizing rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease, as the deadline for claims arising from such rejection (the "Rejection Damages Bar Date"); and (iv) the later of (a) the Claims or Governmental Bar Date, as applicable, or (b) 21 days following service of an amendment to a Debtor's Schedules, as the deadline for affected creditors to file claims in response (the "Amended Schedules Bar Date").

The Debtors intend to serve all required Bar Date Notices promptly upon entry of the Bar Date Order and have engaged Verita to facilitate notice and claims administration.

On June 24, 2025, the Debtors filed their Schedules of Assets and Liabilities and Statements of Financial Affairs (the "Schedules and Statements") pursuant to section 521 of the Bankruptcy Code. These filings included individual Schedules and Statements for Chenault, Windrun, Copper Creek, Lakewind, RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, and RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC [Docket Nos. 192-197].[6] The Schedules and Statements were prepared based on information available to the Debtors as of the Petition Date and are subject to further amendment or supplementation as discovery continues. Laguna Reserve anticipates filing its Schedules and Statements within the time permitted under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(c).

K. Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 11 Case of RH Lakewind East LLC

On June 1, 2025, CIF filed a motion to dismiss the Chapter 11 case of Lakewind pursuant to sections 1112(b) and 305(a) of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 87]. CIF alleged that Lakewind's bankruptcy petition was not filed in good faith and that dismissal was warranted based on purported bad faith and lack of legitimate reorganization purpose.

Following negotiations among the Debtors, CIF, and other stakeholders, and in connection with the settlement embodied in the NOLA DIP Order, CIF agreed to withdraw the motion with prejudice. Pursuant to paragraph 9 of the NOLA DIP Order, entry of that order constituted CIF's agreement to permanently withdraw its motion to dismiss and to waive further litigation or objection concerning the subject matter of that motion. Accordingly, the motion to dismiss was deemed withdrawn with prejudice upon entry of the NOLA DIP Order.

L. Adversary Proceeding Commenced by Cleveland International Fund

On June 25, 2025, CIF commenced the adversary proceeding styled Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge Ltd. and Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC v. CKD Funding, LLC and CKD Investor Penn LLC, Adv. Proc. No. 25-01269, asserting claims related to the financing structure of certain Crown Capital Portfolio entities.

The Debtors and other stakeholders disputed CIF's standing to prosecute the claims asserted in the adversary proceeding. Before any responsive pleadings were filed, CIF voluntarily dismissed the adversary proceeding on the basis that it lacked standing to pursue the asserted claims.

Thereafter, as part of the settlement embodied in the NOLA DIP Order, CIF agreed to waive and release any further challenges related to the subject matter of the adversary proceeding. Pursuant to paragraph 9 of the NOLA DIP Order, CIF also agreed not to initiate or pursue further litigation or objections concerning the Debtors' governance structure or restructuring process to the extent addressed in the adversary proceeding or resolved in connection with the settlement.

M. Retention and Compensation of Professionals

On July 8, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order Authorizing Employment and Payment of Professionals Utilized in the Ordinary Course of Business [Docket No. 270] (the "Ordinary Course Professionals Motion"). Pursuant to the Ordinary Course Professionals Motion, the Debtors sought authority to retain and compensate certain professionals utilized in the ordinary course of business without the need to file individual retention applications for each such professional, subject to certain procedures and monthly payment caps. On July 24, 2025, the Court entered an order granting the relief requested in the Ordinary Course Professionals Motion [Docket No. 270].

Also on July 8, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Administrative Fee Order Establishing Procedures for the Allowance and Payment of Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of [6] The Schedules for Chenault Creek, Copper Creek, Lakewind, and Windrun were amended on July 31, 2025 [Docket Nos. 341-344] to reflect updates to Schedule E/F. Additional amendments may be made as necessary.

Expenses of Professionals Retained by Order of the Court [Docket No. 272] (the "Interim Compensation Motion"). The Interim Compensation Motion requested approval of procedures for the interim allowance and payment of fees and reimbursement of expenses of professionals retained pursuant to sections 327 and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code. On July 24, 2025, the Court entered an order granting the relief requested in the Interim Compensation Motion [Docket No. 324].

N. The CBRM Plan

On June 30, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed the initial CBRM Plan [Docket No. 246] and related disclosure statement [Docket No. 247] (the "CBRM Disclosure Statement"), in accordance with milestones set forth in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order.

On July 11, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed a motion seeking approval of procedures for the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Apartments, a multifamily affordable housing complex located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (the "Kelly Hamilton Property"), including a proposed stalking horse purchase agreement and related bid protections [Docket No. 281] (the "Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion"). That same day, the CBRM Debtors filed a motion seeking conditional approval of the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement and associated voting and solicitation procedures (the "Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion") [Docket No. 283].

On July 24, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed revised versions of the CBRM Plan and CBRM Disclosure Statement [Docket Nos. 320, 321], and the Bankruptcy Court held a hearing to consider approval of both the Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion and the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion. The Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the relief sought in the Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion [Docket No. 325] that same day, and on August 1, 2025, entered an order approving the revised relief requested in the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion [Docket No. 347], following submission of updated solicitation documents filed on July 30, 2025 and August 5, 2025, including the CBRM Disclosure Statement and CBRM Plan [Docket Nos. 339, 340, 360].

The bid deadline was August 14, 2025, and no additional qualified bids were received. Accordingly, the auction scheduled for August 18, 2025 will not be held. On August 15, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed a notice designating the stalking horse purchaser as the successful bidder [Docket No. 383]. Under the CBRM Plan, the Kelly Hamilton Property will be sold to the stalking horse purchaser, subject to Bankruptcy Court approval at the confirmation hearing set for September 4, 2025.

Distributions under the CBRM Plan will be funded from, among other sources, the proceeds of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction (as defined in the CBRM Plan) and the Creditor Recovery Trust. The CBRM Debtors are currently soliciting votes on the CBRM Plan, with a voting deadline of August 26, 2025.

O. Disputed Spano CBRM Claim and Spano Adversary Proceeding

As described in greater detail above, Acquiom obtained a prepetition judgment against CBRM in connection with guarantees provided under the Silber Credit Agreement, which judgment was subsequently assigned to Spano. That judgment included, among other actions, a scheduled sheriff's sale of CBRM's equity interests in Crown Capital that was stayed by the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases.

On July 15, 2025, Spano filed a proof of claim against CBRM (Claim No. 4), asserting a secured claim in the amount of approximately $21.1 million based on the prepetition judgment and a purported lien. In response, on July 18, 2025, CBRM filed a complaint in the Bankruptcy Court against Spano and Acquiom, initiating an adversary proceeding captioned CBRM Realty Inc. v. Spano Investor LLC (In re CBRM Realty Inc.), Adv. Pro. No. 25-01295, Case No. 25-15343 (Bankr. D.N.J. July 18, 2025) (the "Spano Adversary Proceeding") [Adv. Dkt. No. 1] (the "Complaint").

The Complaint alleges, among other things, that in June 2022, Mr. Silber entered into a credit agreement with Acquiom and certain lenders and subsequently received an aggregate amount of $19 million of loan proceeds prior to November 2023. In November 2023, Mr. Silber caused CBRM to become a guarantor under the credit agreement via an amendment to the governing guaranty agreement. Mr. Silber also received an additional $7.75 million of loan proceeds under the credit agreement. In May 2025, Acquiom filed suit against the guarantors in New York state court under the relevant loan documents. On September 5, 2024, Acquiom received a judgment against the guarantors, including CBRM, in the amount of approximately $21 million. Acquiom subsequently assigned the judgment to Spano. On or around December 13, 2024, Spano delivered a property execution letter to the Rockland County Sheriff, resulting in a purported judgment lien on CBRM's property. The corresponding levy was served on CBRM's counsel, White & Case LLP, on January 15, 2025. The Complaint alleges that the levy expired 90 days after service if CBRM's property was not transferred to the sheriff—and that no such transfer occurred.

The Complaint seeks to avoid CBRM's guaranty as a constructively fraudulent transfer pursuant to sections 544 and 548 of the Bankruptcy Code and to avoid the purported judgment lien as unperfected as of the Petition Date under section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition, the Complaint seeks disallowance of Spano's proof of claim in its entirety or, in the alternative, a determination that Spano holds only an unsecured claim.

The Complaint asserts five causes of action, including: (i) avoidance and recovery of the guaranty as a constructively fraudulent transfer under sections 544, 548, 550, and 551, against Spano and Acquiom; (ii) avoidance and recovery of the purported lien under sections 544, 550, and 551, against Spano and Acquiom; (iii) disallowance of the defendants' claims under section 502(d), against Spano and Acquiom; (iv) disallowance of Spano's claim under section 502(b), against Spano; and (v) recharacterization and/or disallowance of Spano's claim as unsecured under sections 502 and 506, against Spano.

Spano disputes all of the allegations asserted in the Spano Adversary Proceeding and has expressly reserved all rights, claims, and defenses in connection therewith.

On July 30, 2025, the Debtors, Spano, and Acquiom executed the Stipulation and Agreed Order Among the Debtors, Spano Investor LLC, and Acquiom Agency Services LLC to Stay Adversary Proceeding and Resolve Certain Claims Treatment Issues, which was filed with the Bankruptcy Court and was entered on July 31, 2025 [Docket No. 345] (the "Spano Stipulation"). Pursuant to the Spano Stipulation, the Spano CBRM Claim (as defined in the CBRM Plan) shall be deemed Allowed in the amount of $21,118,881.01 solely for voting purposes under section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, without prejudice to Spano's position that its Claim is secured and supported by valid, enforceable liens and security interests. The CBRM Plan was amended to provide for a separate class for the Spano CBRM Claim, and Spano has agreed to vote to accept the CBRM Plan in that class. The Spano Stipulation expressly reserves all parties' rights with respect to the classification, allowability, priority, and secured status of the Spano CBRM Claim.

The Spano Adversary Proceeding and related claim objections have been stayed in their entirety and may resume only if, after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee makes a good-faith determination that value is available for distribution to creditors of CBRM after the payment in full of all Allowed Claims against CBRM's subsidiaries. Spano will receive thirty (30) days' advance written notice of such determination and may file an objection with the Bankruptcy Court within thirty (30) days of receiving such notice. If the Creditor Recovery Trustee determines no such value is available, the Spano Adversary Proceeding shall be dismissed with prejudice. If value is determined to be available, the Spano Adversary Proceeding shall resume in accordance with a mutually agreed-upon schedule, unless otherwise resolved.

On August 7, 2025, the Debtors filed the Notice of Entry of Stipulation and Agreed Order Among the Debtors, Spano Investor LLC, and Acquiom Agency Services LLC to Stay Adversary Proceeding and Resolve Certain Claims Treatment Issues [Adv. Dkt. No. 5].

P. Pleadings Relating to Moshe (Mark) Silber

On July 18, 2025, Mr. Silber, acting pro se, filed the Motion of Party in Interest Moshe ("Mark") Silber for Issuance of a Subpoena Duces Tecum Pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004(C) and 9016 [Docket No. 298] (the "Silber Rule 2004 Motion") for an order compelling discovery under Rule 2004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure from Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, and LAGSP. The Silber Rule 2004 Motion seeks records from Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, and LAGSP relating to a range of topics relating to the Debtors and non-Debtor affiliates, as well as all communications regarding these topics between or among Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, LAGSP, and IslandDundon LLC. The hearing on the Silber Rule 2004 Motion was originally scheduled for August 14, 2025.

On July 25, 2025, Mr. Silber, acting pro se, filed the Motion of Party in Interest Moshe ("Mark") Silber for Appointment of an Equity Security Holders Committee or, in the Alternative, Appointment of Counsel [Docket No. 348] (the "Silber Equity Committee Motion") seeking appointment of an equity committee in these Chapter 11 Cases or, in the alternative, the appointment of counsel for Mr. Silber pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(1). Upon the filing of the Silber Equity Committee Motion, the Court adjourned the hearing on the Silber Rule 2004 Motion to August 21, 2025, to hear both motions on the same day.

On July 29, 2025, the Debtors served a Subpoena for Rule 2004 Examination on Mr. Silber, which had a response deadline of August 15, 2025. See Notice of Service of Subpoena Pursuant to L.R. 2004-1 [Docket No. 337].

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed objections to the Silber Rule 2004 Motion [Docket No. 374] and the Silber Equity Committee Motion [Docket No. 375]. The Debtors have offered to produce limited documents responsive to Mr. Silber's proposed requests.

On August 14, 2025, the U.S. Trustee also objected to the Silber Equity Committee Motion. Docket No. 377.

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 378] (the "Motion for Leave") seeking entry of an order granting the Debtors leave to depose Mr. Silber, who is currently confined in prison, at the site of his incarceration between August 25, 2025, and August 29, 2025. The Motion for Leave will be heard on August 21, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Objection to Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230 of Moshe Mark Silber [Docket No. 372] (the "Silber Claim Objection") and Declaration of Matthew Dundon, Principal of IslandDundon LLC, in Support of the Debtors' Objection to Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230 of Moshe Mark Silber [Docket No. 373], seeking entry of an order disallowing the three Proofs of Claim filed by Mr. Silber (i.e., Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230) (collectively, the "Silber Claims"). Each of the Silber Claims asserts a purported unsecured claim of $3,989,175.00 for tax liabilities allegedly arising from the sale of a property. Proof of Claim No. 216 was superseded by a later filing and Proof of Claim No. 230 is duplicative. As to the remaining Proof of Claim No. 229, Mr. Silber did not attach sufficient support to the claim to constitute prima facie validity of a claim and the claim seeks amounts for which the Debtors are not liable. Accordingly, the Debtors seek to disallow the Silber Claims in their entirety to avoid duplicative or unwarranted recoveries. A hearing to consider the Silber Claim Objection is set for September 22, 2025, at 11:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

Q. NOLA Bidding Procedures

On July 30, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 350] seeking entry of the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order approving bidding procedures (the "NOLA Bidding Procedures")[7] in connection with a potential sale of one or more of the NOLA Properties. Such sale may be implemented either under a chapter 11 plan or as a standalone transaction pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. The NOLA Bidding Procedures are intended to facilitate a competitive and value-maximizing process through which interested parties may submit bids to acquire one or more of the NOLA Properties. The process ensures that all qualified bids are solicited, reviewed, and evaluated in a manner consistent with the milestones and confirmation timeline outlined in this Disclosure Statement and the associated solicitation procedures. To date, the Debtors have not entered into a stalking horse agreement with a stalking horse bidder for the NOLA Properties, and the Debtors may consider proposals for one or more of the NOLA Properties.

The Court entered the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order on August 15, 2025 [Docket No. 382]. Pursuant to the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order, the Bid Deadline is September 11, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). If one or more Qualifying Bids are received, the Debtors will conduct an auction on September 15, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Debtors will file and serve a notice of any Successful Bidder and Back-Up Bidder no later than September 16, 2025. To the extent applicable, the hearing to consider approval of a sale pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code is scheduled for September 22, 2025 at 11:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). Alternatively, if the potential sale is to be consummated through the Plan, the confirmation and sale hearing is scheduled for October 22, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

R. Chapter 11 Filing for Laguna Reserve

Following the Petition Date, Debtors' counsel, in coordination with LAGSP, determined that Lakewind is a subsidiary of Laguna Reserve and that Debtor Crown Capital Holdings LLC owns 100% of the equity interests in Laguna Reserve. Accordingly, on August 17, 2025, the Debtors filed a voluntary petition under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code for Laguna Reserve. Concurrently therewith, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for an Order (A) Applying Certain Orders in Initial Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases to Debtor Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC and (B) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 387] (the "Omnibus First Day Motion"). The Omnibus First Day Motion seeks to apply to Laguna Reserve's chapter 11 case certain orders previously entered in the chapter 11 cases, in order to avoid duplicative filings, reduce administrative burdens on the Bankruptcy Court and parties in interest, and streamline case administration.

VII. SUMMARY OF THE MATERIAL TERMS OF THE PLAN

The Plan provides for the implementation of the NOLA Sale Transaction—a court-supervised sale of one or more of the NOLA Properties pursuant to the Plan or as a standalone sale under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code as set forth in the NOLA Purchase Agreement. The Debtors are conducting the sale process in accordance with the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order.

No stalking horse bidder has been designated. If one or more qualified bids are received, the Debtors will conduct an auction to determine the highest or otherwise best offer. The successful bidder may acquire one or more of the NOLA Properties.

[7] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order.

IX. CERTAIN TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN

The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be structured in a manner consistent with U.S. federal tax law as determined by the Debtors prior to the Confirmation Hearing.

X. RISK FACTORS

Before voting to accept or reject the Plan, Holders of Claims or Interests entitled to vote should read and carefully consider the risk factors set forth below, in addition to the information set forth in this Disclosure Statement together with any attachments, exhibits, or documents incorporated by reference hereto. The factors below should not be regarded as the only risks associated with the Plan or its implementation.

A. Risks Relating to the Debtors' Business Operations and Financial Condition

1. General Economic Conditions

The Debtors' ability to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction may be affected by broader macroeconomic conditions, including rising interest rates, inflationary pressures, labor market disruptions, volatility in the housing market, investor sentiment, and geopolitical instability. Such factors may negatively impact real estate valuations, the availability of financing, and the willingness of potential purchasers to consummate transactions on favorable terms. While the Plan assumes a relatively stable economic environment, no assurance can be given that such conditions will continue through the expected closing.

2. Risk of Failure to Consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction

The Plan is based on the successful execution of the NOLA Sale Transaction in accordance with the Court-approved Bidding Procedures, which may be implemented either under a chapter 11 plan or as a standalone transaction pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. To date, the Debtors have not entered into a stalking horse agreement for the NOLA Properties, and there is no assurance that a qualified bid will be submitted or that the auction process will yield a value-maximizing transaction.

If the Debtors are unable to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction—whether due to a lack of qualified bids, termination of a purchase agreement, failure to satisfy closing conditions, or failure to obtain necessary Bankruptcy Court approval—the Debtors may face significant liquidity constraints. In that event, the Debtors may be forced to pursue an alternative restructuring strategy or, if none is viable, convert these Chapter 11 Cases to chapter 7 liquidation. Any such alternative could result in delayed, diminished, or uncertain recoveries for creditors compared to those anticipated under the Plan.

3. Limited Continuing Operations

Following the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, the Debtors do not expect to continue operations as going concerns. As a result, many risks typically associated with ongoing business activities—such as tenant turnover, market competition, or long-term access to capital—are less relevant. However, operational issues arising prior to the Effective Date, including delays in closing or transitional disruptions, could adversely impact Plan implementation and creditor recoveries.

4. Performance of Property Manager

The Debtors rely on their property manager, Lynd Management, to manage day-to-day operations of the NOLA Properties. Any failure by Lynd Management to perform its obligations under the property management agreements—whether due to operational, financial, or staffing issues—could impair property performance, impact tenant relations, and reduce the attractiveness of the NOLA Properties to potential buyers. Such issues could, in turn, delay or reduce proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction.

B. Risks Related to Bankruptcy Law

1. Risk of Non-Confirmation of the Plan

Although the Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies all requirements necessary for confirmation by the Bankruptcy Court, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion or that modifications to the Plan will not be required for confirmation or that such modifications would not necessitate re-solicitation of votes. Moreover, the Debtors can make no assurances that they will receive the requisite acceptances to confirm the Plan, and even if all Voting Classes vote in favor of the Plan or the requirements for "cram down" are met with respect to any Class that rejects or is deemed to reject the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court may exercise discretion as a court of equity and choose not to confirm the Plan. If the Plan is not confirmed, it is unclear what distributions Holders of Claims or Interests would ultimately receive with respect to their Claims or Interests in a subsequent plan of reorganization or otherwise.

2. Non-Consensual Confirmation

If any impaired class of Claims or Interests does not accept or is deemed not to accept a plan of reorganization, a Bankruptcy Court may nevertheless confirm such plan at the proponent's request if at least one impaired class has accepted the plan (with such acceptance being determined without including the vote of any "insider" in such class), and as to each impaired class that has not accepted the plan, the Bankruptcy Court determines that the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" with respect to the dissenting impaired classes. If any Class votes to reject or is deemed to reject the Plan, then these requirements must be satisfied with respect to such rejecting Class. The Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies these requirements.

3. Risk Related to Wind-Down and Plan Implementation

The Plan contemplates a Wind-Down of the Debtors' Estates following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, including the creation of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Execution of the Wind-Down and administration of post-Effective Date responsibilities depends on various factors, including sufficient funding and the ability of the Creditor Recovery Trustee to realize value from retained causes of action. Delays, disputes, or unforeseen liabilities could reduce the proceeds ultimately available to distribute to creditors.

4. Risk That the CBRM Plan Will Not Be Confirmed and Become Effective

This Plan has been developed in coordination with the CBRM Plan. Pursuant to the CBRM Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan to assume all liability of the CBRM Debtors and their estates for, and to administer, all CBRM Unsecured Claims.

Under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the Debtors will transfer to the Creditor Recovery Trust (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any).

If the CBRM Plan is not confirmed or does not become effective, the Debtors will implement an alternative, court-approved mechanism to administer and distribute the assets that would otherwise have been transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such mechanism may include establishing a similar trust under the Plan or another structure designed to maximize value for stakeholders. This could result in delays, increased administrative costs, and reduced recoveries for creditors, as well as potential changes to the priority and allocation of distributions compared to the structure contemplated under the CBRM Plan.

5. Allowed Claims Could Exceed Estimates

There can be no assurance that the Allowed amount of Claims participating in distributions will not be significantly more than projected, which in turn, could cause the value of distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims whose treatment is limited to distributions from a specified recovery source to be reduced. Inevitably, some assumptions will not materialize, and unanticipated events and circumstances may affect the ultimate results and total amount of Claims against the Debtors' Estates. Therefore, the actual amount of Allowed Claims may vary from the Debtors' projections and feasibility analysis, and the variation may be material.

6. U.S. Federal Income Tax Risks

The tax consequences of the Plan to the Debtors and to Holders of Claims and Interests may vary depending on the individual's tax situation and are subject to significant uncertainties. Parties in interest should consult their own tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal, state, local, and non-U.S. income and other tax consequences of the Plan, including any income that may arise from the receipt of distributions or interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust.

7. Risk of Non-Occurrence of the Effective Date

Although the Debtors believe that the Effective Date will occur soon after the Confirmation Date, there can be no assurance as to the timing of the Effective Date. If the conditions precedent to the Effective Date set forth in the Plan have not occurred or have not been waived as set forth in Article IX.B of the Plan, then the Confirmation Order may be vacated, in which event no distributions would be made under the Plan, the Debtors and all Holders of Claims or Interests would be restored to the status quo as of the day immediately preceding the Confirmation Date, and the Debtors' obligations with respect to Claims and Interests would remain unchanged.

8. Conversion into Chapter 7 Cases

If no plan of reorganization can be confirmed, or if the Bankruptcy Court otherwise finds that it would be in the best interest of Holders of Claims and Interests, some or all of the Chapter 11 Cases may be converted to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, pursuant to which a trustee would be appointed or elected to liquidate the Debtors' assets for distribution in accordance with the priorities established by the Bankruptcy Code.

9. Parties in Interest May Object to the Plan's Classification of Claims and Interests

Section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a plan may place a claim or an equity interest in a particular class only if such claim or equity interest is substantially similar to the other claims or equity interests in such class. The Debtors believe that the classification of the Claims and Interests under the Plan complies with the requirements set forth in the Bankruptcy Code because the Debtors created Classes of Claims and Interests each encompassing Claims or Interests, as applicable, that are substantially similar to the other Claims or Interests, as applicable, in each such Class. Nevertheless, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion.

10. The Debtors May Fail to Satisfy Vote Requirements

If votes are received in number and amount sufficient to enable the Bankruptcy Court to confirm the Plan, the Debtors intend to seek, as promptly as practicable thereafter, Confirmation of the Plan. In the event that sufficient votes are not received, the Debtors may seek to confirm an alternative chapter 11 plan. There can be no assurance that the terms of any such alternative chapter 11 plan would be similar or as favorable to the Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests as those proposed in the Plan.

11. Continued Risk upon Confirmation

Following the NOLA Sale Transaction, the Debtors will not continue operating as a going concern. Instead, their primary role will be to implement the Wind-Down and transfer assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust. The cessation of operations may limit the Debtors' ability to address unanticipated claims, disputes, or liabilities that arise post-Effective Date.

12. Contingencies Could Affect Votes of Impaired Classes to Accept or Reject the Plan

The distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan can be affected by a variety of contingencies, including whether the Bankruptcy Court orders certain Allowed Claims to be subordinated to other Allowed Claims. The occurrence of any and all such contingencies, which could affect distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan, will not affect the validity of the vote taken by the Impaired Classes to accept or reject the Plan or require any sort of revote by the Impaired Classes. The estimated Claims and creditor recoveries set forth in this Disclosure Statement are based on various assumptions, and the actual Allowed amounts of Claims may significantly differ from the estimates. Should one or more of the underlying assumptions ultimately prove to be incorrect, the actual Allowed amounts of Claims may vary from the estimated Claims contained in this Disclosure Statement. Moreover, the Debtors cannot determine with any certainty at this time, the number or amount of Claims that will ultimately be Allowed. Such differences may materially and adversely affect, among other things, the percentage recoveries to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan.

13. Disruption from Competing Plans or Proposals

Although no competing plan has been proposed to date, parties in interest may seek to propose an alternative chapter 11 plan. The pursuit of such a competing plan could delay Confirmation, increase administrative costs, or result in lower recoveries for creditors.

14. Releases, Injunctions, and Exculpations Provisions May Not Be Approved

Article VIII of the Plan provides for certain releases, injunctions, and exculpations, including a release of liens and third-party releases. The releases, injunctions, and exculpations provided in the Plan are subject to objection by parties in interest and may not be approved. If the releases are not approved, certain Released Parties may withdraw their support for the Plan.

C. Additional Factors

1. The Debtors Could Withdraw the Plan

Subject to, and without prejudice to, the rights of any party in interest, the Plan may be revoked or withdrawn before the Confirmation Date by the Debtors.

2. The Debtors Have No Duty to Update

The statements contained in this Disclosure Statement are made by the Debtors as of the date hereof, unless otherwise specified herein, and the delivery of this Disclosure Statement after that date does not imply that there has been no change in the information set forth herein since that date. Additionally, the Debtors have no duty to update this Disclosure Statement unless otherwise ordered to do so by the Bankruptcy Court.

3. No Representations Outside this Disclosure Statement Are Authorized

No representations concerning or related to the Debtors, the Chapter 11 Cases, or the Plan are authorized by the Bankruptcy Court or the Bankruptcy Code, other than as set forth in this Disclosure Statement. Any representations or inducements made to secure your acceptance or rejection of the Plan that are other than those contained in, or included with, this Disclosure Statement should not be relied upon in making the decision to accept or reject the Plan.

4. No Legal or Tax Advice Is Provided by this Disclosure Statement

The contents of this Disclosure Statement should not be construed as legal, business, or tax advice. Each Holder of a Claim or Interest should consult its own legal counsel and accountant as to legal, tax, and other matters concerning their Claim or Interest.

This Disclosure Statement is not legal advice to you. This Disclosure Statement may not be relied upon for any purpose other than to determine how to vote on the Plan or object to confirmation of the Plan.

5. No Admission Made

Nothing contained herein or in the Plan shall constitute an admission of, or shall be deemed evidence of, the tax or other legal effects of the Plan on the Debtors or Holders of Claims or Interests.

XI. CONFIRMATION OF THE PLAN

The Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan only if all of the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code are met. Among the requirements for confirmation are that the plan is (a) accepted by all impaired classes of claims and interests entitled to vote or, if rejected or deemed rejected by an impaired class, that the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" as to such class; (b) in the "best interests" of the holders of claims and interests impaired under the plan; and (c) feasible.

A. Acceptance of the Plan

The Bankruptcy Code defines "acceptance" of a plan by a class of (i) claims as acceptance by creditors in that class that hold at least two-thirds (2/3) in dollar amount and more than one-half (1/2) in number of the claims that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the plan and (ii) interests as acceptance by interest holders in that class that hold at least two-thirds (2/3) in amount of the interests that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the plan. Holders of claims or interests that fail to vote are not counted in determining the thresholds for acceptance of the plan.

If any impaired class of claims or interests does not accept the plan (or is deemed to reject the plan), the Bankruptcy Court may still confirm the plan at the request of the Debtors if, as to each impaired class of claims or interests that has not accepted the plan (or is deemed to reject the plan), the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" under the so-called "cram down" provisions set forth in section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The "unfair discrimination" test applies to classes of claims or interests that are of equal priority and are receiving different treatment under the plan. A chapter 11 plan does not discriminate unfairly, within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code, if the legal rights of a dissenting class are treated in a manner consistent with the treatment of other classes whose legal rights are substantially similar to those of the dissenting class and if no class of claims or interests receives more than it legally is entitled to receive for its claims or interests. The test does not require that the treatment be the same or equivalent, but that such treatment be "fair." The "fair and equitable" test applies to classes of different priority and status (e.g., secured versus unsecured; claims versus interests) and includes the general requirement that no class of claims receive more than 100% of the allowed amount of the claims in such class. As to the dissenting class, the test sets different standards that must be satisfied in order for the Plan to be confirmed, depending on the type of claims or interests in such class. The following sets forth the "fair and equitable" test that must be satisfied as to each type of class for a plan to be confirmed if such class rejects the plan:

- Secured Creditors. Each holder of an impaired secured claim either (a) retains its liens on the property, to the extent of the allowed amount of its secured claim, and receives deferred cash payments having a value, as of the effective date of the plan, of at least the allowed amount of such secured claim, (b) has the right to credit bid the amount of its claim if its property is sold and retains its lien on the proceeds of the sale, or (c) receives the "indubitable equivalent" of its allowed secured claim.

- Unsecured Creditors. Either (a) each holder of an impaired unsecured claim receives or retains under the plan, property of a value, as of the effective date of the plan, equal to the amount of its allowed claim or (b) the holders of claims and interests that are junior to the claims of the dissenting class will not receive any property under the plan.

- Interests. Either (a) each equity interest holder will receive or retain under the plan property of a value equal to the greater of (i) the fixed liquidation preference or redemption price, if any, of such equity interest and (ii) the value of the equity interest or (b) the holders of interests that are junior to the interests of the dissenting class will not receive or retain any property under the plan.

The Debtors believe the Plan satisfies the "fair and equitable" requirement with respect to any rejecting Class.

IF ALL OTHER CONFIRMATION REQUIREMENTS ARE SATISFIED AT THE CONFIRMATION HEARING, THE DEBTORS WILL ASK THE BANKRUPTCY COURT TO RULE THAT THE PLAN MAY BE CONFIRMED ON THE GROUNDS THAT THE SECTION 1129(B) REQUIREMENTS HAVE BEEN SATISFIED.

B. Best Interests of Creditors Test

The Bankruptcy Code requires that each holder of an impaired claim or interest either (1) accepts the plan or (2) receives or retains under the plan property of a value, as of the effective date, that is not less than the value such holder would receive if the debtor were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. This requirement is customarily referred to as the "best interests of creditors" test. As demonstrated in the liquidation analysis attached hereto as Exhibit C, the Debtors believe that liquidation under chapter 7 would result in smaller distributions to creditors than those provided for in the Plan.

C. Feasibility

The Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies the feasibility requirement set forth in section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan is predicated on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the subsequent Wind-Down of the Debtors' Estates. Following the sale closing and transfer of the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets on the Effective Date, the Debtors will no longer engage in business operations and will instead proceed with an orderly Wind-Down consistent with the terms of the Plan.

The Debtors do not anticipate the need for any further reorganization or restructuring of their affairs following Confirmation. Moreover, the Debtors expect to have sufficient resources—including the proceeds of the NOLA Sale Transaction, Cash on hand, and other Plan funding sources—to satisfy all obligations required to be performed under the Plan and to fund the Wind-Down and the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust. As such, the Debtors believe that Confirmation of the Plan is not likely to be followed by liquidation (other than as expressly contemplated), or by the need for further financial reorganization of the Debtors or any successor thereto under the Plan.

D. Confirmation Hearing

Section 1128(a) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Bankruptcy Court to hold a confirmation hearing upon appropriate notice to all required parties. The Confirmation Hearing is scheduled for [●], 2025 at [__]:[__] [_].m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Confirmation Hearing may be adjourned from time to time by the Bankruptcy Court without further notice except for the announcement of the continuation date made at the Confirmation Hearing, at any subsequent continued Confirmation Hearing, or pursuant to a notice filed on the docket for the Chapter 11 Cases.

Section 1128(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that any party in interest may object to the confirmation of a plan. Any objection to confirmation of the Plan must be in writing, must conform to the Bankruptcy Rules and the local rules of the Bankruptcy Court, must set forth the name of the objector, the nature and amount of Claims or Interests held or asserted by the objector against the Debtors' estates or properties, the basis for the objection and the specific grounds therefor, and must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served no later than the Confirmation Objection Deadline.

XII. CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATION

The Debtors believe the Plan is in the best interests of all stakeholders and urge the Holders of Claims and Interests entitled to vote on the Plan to vote in favor thereof.

Any counterparty to a Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract that fails to timely object to the proposed assumption of any Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from contesting the Debtors' assumption and assignment of the applicable Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract and from requesting payment of a Cure Amount that differs from the amount paid or proposed to be paid by the Creditor Recovery Trust, without the need for any objection by the Creditor Recovery Trust or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. The Creditor Recovery Trust may settle any dispute regarding a Cure Amount without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, to the extent any provision in any Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan restricts or prevents, or purports to restrict or prevent, or is breached or would be deemed breached by, the assumption and assignment of such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract (including any change of control or similar provision), then such provision shall be deemed pre-empted and modified such that neither the Debtors' assumption and assignment of the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract nor any of the transactions contemplated by the Plan shall entitle the non-Debtor counterparty to terminate or modify such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract or to exercise any other purported default-related rights thereunder.

The Debtors' assumption and assignment of any Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract pursuant to the Plan or otherwise, and payment of any applicable Cure Amount in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article IV.D, shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any Claims or defaults, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any assumed and assigned Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract at any time prior to the effective date of assumption and assignment.

In the event of a timely filed objection regarding: (1) a Cure Amount (2) the ability of the Creditor Recovery Trust or any assignee to provide adequate assurance of future performance within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code under the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract to be assumed and assigned or (3) any other matter pertaining to assumption and assignment or the requirements of section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, such dispute shall be resolved by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court (which may be the Confirmation Order) or as may be agreed upon by the Creditor Recovery Trust and the counterparty to the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall pay the applicable Cure Amount as soon as reasonably practicable after entry of a Final Order resolving such dispute and approving such assumption and assignment, or as may otherwise be agreed upon by the Creditor Recovery Trust and the counterparty to the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract. To the extent that a dispute regarding the applicable Cure Amount is resolved or determined unfavorably to the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trust may, in its discretion, reject the applicable Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract after such determination, which rejection shall supersede, nullify, and render of no force or effect any earlier assumption and assignment. Under no circumstances shall the status of payment of a Cure Amount required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code following the entry of a Final Order resolving the dispute and approving the assumption and assignment prevent or delay implementation of the Plan or the occurrence of the Effective Date.

E. Cancellation of Securities and Agreements.

On the Effective Date, except to the extent otherwise provided in the Plan, all notes, instruments, certificates, and other documents evidencing, or in any way related to, Claims or Interests shall be canceled as against the Debtors and each Released Party and the obligations of the Debtors thereunder or in any way related thereto shall be released, settled, and compromised.

F. Corporate Action.

Notwithstanding any requirements under applicable nonbankruptcy law, upon the Effective Date, all actions contemplated by the Plan shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, including the implementation of the Restructuring Transactions and, to the extent not approved pursuant to a Sale Order, the NOLA Sale Transaction. All matters provided for in the Plan involving the corporate structure of the Debtors, and any corporate action required by the Debtors in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have occurred and shall be in effect, without any requirement of further action by any Person or Entity or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors and their directors, managers, partners, officers, authorized persons, and members thereof (including the Independent Fiduciary) are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, securities, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan and the securities issued pursuant to the Plan in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors, without the need for any approvals, authorizations, or consents, except for those expressly required pursuant to the Plan, or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

G. Independent Fiduciary.

As of the Effective Date, the Independent Fiduciary may in her reasonable discretion authorize another Person or Entity to act on behalf of the Independent Fiduciary or assume the powers of the Independent Fiduciary.

. Exemption from Certain Taxes and Fees.

Pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers of property or any Interests, including the Transferred Subsidiaries, pursuant to the Plan, including, to the extent applicable, the NOLA Sale Transaction, the recording of any amendments to such transfers, or any new mortgages or liens placed on the property in connection with such transfers, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, registration tax, mortgage tax, stamp act, real estate, transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, or other similar tax, fees, charges, or governmental assessment (including any penalties and interest), and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment to the maximum extent covered by section 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code.

I. Preservation of Rights of Action.

On the Effective Date, (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall vest in the post-Effective Date Debtors under the authority of the Wind-Down Officer, in each case free and clear of all Claims, Liens, Encumbrances and other interests. The NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust and shall, upon such transfer, become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan) and the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall become Wind-Down Assets. On and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue and dispose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action (including the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action) and the Wind-Down Officer shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action. No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan or Disclosure Statement as to any Cause of Action as any indication that the Debtor, and on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action against them. No preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res udicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation. Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, subject to the oversight, approval, consultation and consent of the Trust Advisory Committee as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, shall retain and shall have, through their authorized agents or representatives, the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

No Person or Entit ma rel on the absence o a speci ic re erence in the Plan the Plan Supplement or the Disclosure Statement to an Cause o Action a ainst it as an indication that the Creditor Reco er Trustee or the Wind-Down O icer as applicable will not pursue an and all a ailable Causes o Action. Unless and until any such Causes of Action against any Person or Entity are expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or assigned, or settled under the Plan or a Final Order, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, expressly reserve all such Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res udicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation or Consummation.

. Election to Contribute Claims.

Because aggregating all Contributed Claims may enable the pursuit and settlement of such litigation claims in a more efficient and effective manner, each Holder of a Claim or Interest may agree, by electing on its Ballot, to contribute its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Holders that elected to contribute such Claims. Contributed Claims and the proceeds thereof will not be included within the Distributable Value (as defined in the CBRM Plan) of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Rather, as provided in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, any value attributable to such Contributed Claims will be segregated and only available for disbursement to those Holders that elected to contribute such Claims. By electing such option on its Ballot, each Contributing Claimant agrees that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, it will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and

(ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

. Contribution of Contributed Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Contributed Claims will be irrevocably contributed to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Holders of Claims entitled to receive the Distributable Value (as defined in the CBRM Plan) of the Creditor Recovery Trust and shall thereafter be Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan) for all purposes. No Person may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Confirmation Order, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Plan Supplement, or any other document as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee will or will not pursue any and all available Contributed Claims against such Person. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all Contributed Claims fully to the same extent that the Contributing Claimants could have asserted such claims prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contributed Claims shall not include the rights of any of the Contributing Claimants to receive the Distributions under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests and shall not include any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law.

TREATMENT OF EXEC TORY CONTRACTS AND NEXPIRED LEASES

A. Assumption and Re ection of Executory Contracts and nexpired Leases.

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, all Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases (including all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List) will be deemed rejected, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than those that previously were assumed or rejected by the Debtors or those that are subject to a pending motion to assume or assign such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such rejections.

B. Claims Based on Re ection of Executory Contracts and nexpired Leases.

Unless otherwise provided by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within 30 days after entry of the Confirmation Order. An Claims arisin rom the re ection o an Executor Contract or nexpired Lease pursuant to this Plan not iled within such time shall be disallowed ore er barred estopped and en oined rom assertion and shall not be en orceable a ainst as applicable the Debtors the Estates or propert thereo without the need or an ob ection b the Debtors or urther notice to or action order or appro al o the Ban ruptc Court or an other Entit and an Claim arisin out o the re ection o the Executor Contract or nexpired Lease shall be deemed ull satis ied released and dischar ed. All Allowed Claims arising from the rejection of any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases shall constitute and be treated as Unsecured Claims. Nothing herein shall constitute an extension of any Claims Bar Date otherwise applicable to a Claim arising from an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously rejected by the Debtors.

C. Treatment of Insurance Policies.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each of the Insurance Policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto issued to or entered into by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date shall not be considered Executory Contracts and shall neither be assumed nor rejected by the Debtors provided, however, that to the extent any such Insurance Policy is determined by Final Order to be an Executory Contract, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the Plan will constitute a motion to assume such Insurance Policy and assign the same to the Creditor

Recovery Trust. Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, the entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute approval of such assumption and assignment pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Unless otherwise determined by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed by the parties thereto prior to the Effective Date, no payments are required to cure any defaults of the Debtor existing as of the Confirmation Date with respect to any Insurance Policy, and prior payments for premiums or other charges made prior to the Petition Date under or with respect to any Insurance Policy shall be indefeasible.

D. Effect of Confirmation on D O Liability Insurance Policies.

From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall remain in place on terms for coverage and amounts no less favorable than the Debtors' current directors' and officers' insurance policies. From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust and, upon such transfer, shall become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan), which D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be maintained for the benefit of the beneficiaries thereunder. The Debtors and the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policies (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect on or prior to the Effective Date, and any current and former directors, officers, managers, and employees of the Debtors and their Affiliates who served in such capacity at any time before or after the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy or policies for the full term of such policy or policies regardless of whether such directors, officers, managers, and employees remain in such positions after the Effective Date.

ARTICLE VI
PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISTRIB TIONS

A. Timing and Calculation of Amounts to Be Distributed.

Except as (1) otherwise provided herein, (2) directed by a Final Order, or (3) as otherwise agreed to by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Officer, as the case may be, and the Holder of the applicable Claim, on the Effective Date (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Distribution Date after such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive the full amount of distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class from the Distribution Agent. In the event that any payment or distribution under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or distribution may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. Except as specifically provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

B. Distribution Agent.

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under the Plan and the Plan Supplement (b) make all distributions contemplated under the Plan (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan and the Plan Supplement, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of the Plan and the Plan Supplement.

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Distribution Agent on or after the Effective Date (including taxes) and any reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement claims (including reasonable attorney and/or other professional fees and expenses) made by the Distribution Agent shall be paid in Cash by the Wind-Down Officer from the Wind-Down Account.

C. Delivery of Distributions and ndeliverable or nclaimed Distributions.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Distribution Agent shall make all distributions required under the Plan. The Distribution Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Additionally, in the event that the Distribution Agent is so otherwise ordered, all costs and expenses of procuring any such bond or surety shall be paid from the Wind-Down Account.

In the event that either (a) a distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable, (b) the Holder of an Allowed Claim does not respond in writing to a request by the Debtors or the Distribution Agent for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution within sixty (60) days or otherwise complete the actions necessary to facilitate a distribution as identified to the Holder within ninety (90) days of the Distribution Agent's request, no distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Distribution Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder or received the necessary information to facilitate a particular distribution, at which time such distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest, dividends, or other accruals of any kind provided that such distributions shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code on the date that is six months after (a) the date of the distribution, if a distribution is made, or (b) the date that a request for information or action is sent by the Distribution Agent. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Creditor Recovery Trust automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable local, state, federal, or foreign escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and the Claim or Interest of any Holder to such property or interest in property shall be released and forever barred.

D. Claims Payable by Third Parties.

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to one of the Debtors' insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable insurance policy, including any D&O Liability Insurance Policy. Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Cause of Action that the Debtors or any Entity may hold against any other Entity, including insurers under any policies of insurance, nor shall anything contained in the Plan constitute or be deemed a waiver by such insurers of any defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such insurers.

E. Distributions to nsecured Claims.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, all Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims shall be administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to and in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

F. Allocation Between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided herein, the aggregate consideration paid to Holders on account of their Allowed Claims pursuant to the Plan shall be treated as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof and as determined for federal income tax purposes) and second, to the extent the consideration exceeds the principal amount of the Allowed Claims, to the remaining portion of such Allowed Claim, if any.

ARTICLE VII
PROCED RES FOR RESOLVING CONTINGENT NLI IDATED AND DISP TED CLAIMS

A. Allowance of Claims.

After the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have and shall retain any and all available rights and defenses the applicable Debtor had with respect to any Claim immediately before the Effective Date, including, without limitation, the right to assert any objection to Claims based on the limitations imposed by section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code provided that neither the Wind-Down Officer nor the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to any Professional Fee Claims or fees of the Independent Fiduciary. For the avoidance of doubt, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to and otherwise reconcile any and all Claims that seek recovery from the Creditor Recovery Trust other than Professional Fee Claims and fees of the Independent Fiduciary. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases before the Effective Date (including the Confirmation Order), no Claim against any Debtor shall become an Allowed Claim unless and until such Claim or Interest is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Court has entered a Final Order, including the Confirmation Order (when it becomes a Final Order), in the Chapter 11 Cases allowing such Claim.

No payment or distribution provided under the Plan shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim or portion thereof unless and until such Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

B. Automatic Disallowance and Expungement of Certain Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Claims Filed after the Claims Bar Date that were required to be Filed in advance of the Claims Bar Date under its terms shall be expunged and disallowed without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

C. Distributions After Allowance.

To the extent a Disputed Claim ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, as soon as practicable, the Debtors shall provide to the Holder of such Claim the Distribution (if any) to which such Holder is entitled under the Plan as of the Effective Date, less any previous Distribution (if any) that was made on account of the undisputed portion of such Claim, without any interest, dividends, or accruals to be paid on account of such Claim.

ARTICLE X
MODIFICATION REVOCATION OR WITHDRAWAL OF THE PLAN

A. Modification and Amendments.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors reserve the right to modify the Plan, whether materially or immaterially, including by adding a non-Debtor entity that becomes a debtor and debtor in possession under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code to, or removing a Debtor from, the Plan, and seek Confirmation, in each instance, to the extent permitted under the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to certain restrictions and requirements set forth in section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3019 and those restrictions on modifications set forth in the Plan, the Debtors reserve their right to alter, amend, or modify materially the Plan, one or more times, after Confirmation, and, to the extent necessary, may initiate proceedings in the Bankruptcy Court to so alter, amend, or modify the Plan, or remedy any defect or omission, or reconcile any inconsistencies in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, or the Confirmation Order, in such matters as may be necessary to carry out the purposes and intent of the Plan.

B. Effect of Confirmation on Modifications.

Entry of a Confirmation Order shall mean that all modifications or amendments to the Plan occurring after the solicitation thereof and before the Confirmation Date are approved pursuant to section 1127(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and do not require additional disclosure or resolicitation under Bankruptcy Rule 3019.

C. Revocation or ithdrawal of the Plan.

The Debtors reserve the right to revoke or withdraw the Plan before the Confirmation Date or the Effective Date and to File subsequent plans of reorganization, in which case the Plan shall be null and void in all respects.

ARTICLE XI

G. Independent Fiduciary.

As of the Effective Date, the Independent Fiduciary may in her reasonable discretion authorize another Person or Entity to act on behalf of the Independent Fiduciary or assume the powers of the Independent Fiduciary.

. Exemption from Certain Taxes and Fees.

Pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers of property or any Interests, including the Transferred Subsidiaries, pursuant to the Plan, including, to the extent applicable, the NOLA Sale Transaction, the recording of any amendments to such transfers, or any new mortgages or liens placed on the property in connection with such transfers, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, registration tax, mortgage tax, stamp act, real estate, transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, or other similar tax, fees, charges, or governmental assessment (including any penalties and interest), and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment to the maximum extent covered by section 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code.

I. Preservation of Rights of Action.

On the Effective Date, (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall vest in the post-Effective Date Debtors under the authority of the Wind-Down Officer, in each case free and clear of all Claims, Liens, Encumbrances and other interests. The NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust and shall, upon such transfer, become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan) and the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall become Wind-Down Assets. On and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue and dispose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action (including the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action) and the Wind-Down Officer shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action. No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan or Disclosure Statement as to any Cause of Action as any indication that the Debtor, and on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action against them. No preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res udicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation. Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, subject to the oversight, approval, consultation and consent of the Trust Advisory Committee as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, shall retain and shall have, through their authorized agents or representatives, the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

No Person or Entit ma rel on the absence o a speci ic re erence in the Plan the Plan Supplement or the Disclosure Statement to an Cause o Action a ainst it as an indication that the Creditor Reco er Trustee or the Wind-Down O icer as applicable will not pursue an and all a ailable Causes o Action. Unless and until any such Causes of Action against any Person or Entity are expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or assigned, or settled under the Plan or a Final Order, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, expressly reserve all such Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res udicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation or Consummation.

. Election to Contribute Claims.

Because aggregating all Contributed Claims may enable the pursuit and settlement of such litigation claims in a more efficient and effective manner, each Holder of a Claim or Interest may agree, by electing on its Ballot, to contribute its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Holders that elected to contribute such Claims. Contributed Claims and the proceeds thereof will not be included within the Distributable Value (as defined in the CBRM Plan) of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Rather, as provided in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, any value attributable to such Contributed Claims will be segregated and only available for disbursement to those Holders that elected to contribute such Claims. By electing such option on its Ballot, each Contributing Claimant agrees that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, it will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and

(ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

. Contribution of Contributed Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Contributed Claims will be irrevocably contributed to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Holders of Claims entitled to receive the Distributable Value (as defined in the CBRM Plan) of the Creditor Recovery Trust and shall thereafter be Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan) for all purposes. No Person may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Confirmation Order, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Plan Supplement, or any other document as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee will or will not pursue any and all available Contributed Claims against such Person. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all Contributed Claims fully to the same extent that the Contributing Claimants could have asserted such claims prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contributed Claims shall not include the rights of any of the Contributing Claimants to receive the Distributions under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests and shall not include any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law.

TREATMENT OF EXEC TORY CONTRACTS AND NEXPIRED LEASES

A. Assumption and Re ection of Executory Contracts and nexpired Leases.

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, all Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases (including all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List) will be deemed rejected, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than those that previously were assumed or rejected by the Debtors or those that are subject to a pending motion to assume or assign such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such rejections.

B. Claims Based on Re ection of Executory Contracts and nexpired Leases.

Unless otherwise provided by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within 30 days after entry of the Confirmation Order. An Claims arisin rom the re ection o an Executor Contract or nexpired Lease pursuant to this Plan not iled within such time shall be disallowed ore er barred estopped and en oined rom assertion and shall not be en orceable a ainst as applicable the Debtors the Estates or propert thereo without the need or an ob ection b the Debtors or urther notice to or action order or appro al o the Ban ruptc Court or an other Entit and an Claim arisin out o the re ection o the Executor Contract or nexpired Lease shall be deemed ull satis ied released and dischar ed. All Allowed Claims arising from the rejection of any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases shall constitute and be treated as Unsecured Claims. Nothing herein shall constitute an extension of any Claims Bar Date otherwise applicable to a Claim arising from an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously rejected by the Debtors.

C. Treatment of Insurance Policies.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each of the Insurance Policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto issued to or entered into by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date shall not be considered Executory Contracts and shall neither be assumed nor rejected by the Debtors provided, however, that to the extent any such Insurance Policy is determined by Final Order to be an Executory Contract, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the Plan will constitute a motion to assume such Insurance Policy and assign the same to the Creditor

Recovery Trust. Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, the entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute approval of such assumption and assignment pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Unless otherwise determined by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed by the parties thereto prior to the Effective Date, no payments are required to cure any defaults of the Debtor existing as of the Confirmation Date with respect to any Insurance Policy, and prior payments for premiums or other charges made prior to the Petition Date under or with respect to any Insurance Policy shall be indefeasible.

D. Effect of Confirmation on D O Liability Insurance Policies.

From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall remain in place on terms for coverage and amounts no less favorable than the Debtors' current directors' and officers' insurance policies. From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust and, upon such transfer, shall become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan), which D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be maintained for the benefit of the beneficiaries thereunder. The Debtors and the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policies (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect on or prior to the Effective Date, and any current and former directors, officers, managers, and employees of the Debtors and their Affiliates who served in such capacity at any time before or after the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy or policies for the full term of such policy or policies regardless of whether such directors, officers, managers, and employees remain in such positions after the Effective Date.

ARTICLE VI
PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISTRIB TIONS

A. Timing and Calculation of Amounts to Be Distributed.

Except as (1) otherwise provided herein, (2) directed by a Final Order, or (3) as otherwise agreed to by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Officer, as the case may be, and the Holder of the applicable Claim, on the Effective Date (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Distribution Date after such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive the full amount of distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class from the Distribution Agent. In the event that any payment or distribution under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or distribution may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. Except as specifically provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

B. Distribution Agent.

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under the Plan and the Plan Supplement (b) make all distributions contemplated under the Plan (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan and the Plan Supplement, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of the Plan and the Plan Supplement.

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Distribution Agent on or after the Effective Date (including taxes) and any reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement claims (including reasonable attorney and/or other professional fees and expenses) made by the Distribution Agent shall be paid in Cash by the Wind-Down Officer from the Wind-Down Account.

C. Delivery of Distributions and Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Distribution Agent shall make all distributions required under the Plan. The Distribution Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Additionally, in the event that the Distribution Agent is so otherwise ordered, all costs and expenses of procuring any such bond or surety shall be paid from the Wind-Down Account.

In the event that either (a) a distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable, (b) the Holder of an Allowed Claim does not respond in writing to a request by the Debtors or the Distribution Agent for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution within sixty (60) days or otherwise complete the actions necessary to facilitate a distribution as identified to the Holder within ninety (90) days of the Distribution Agent's request, no distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Distribution Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder or received the necessary information to facilitate a particular distribution, at which time such distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest, dividends, or other accruals of any kind provided that such distributions shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code on the date that is six months after (a) the date of the distribution, if a distribution is made, or (b) the date that a request for information or action is sent by the Distribution Agent. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Creditor Recovery Trust automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable local, state, federal, or foreign escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and the Claim or Interest of any Holder to such property or interest in property shall be released and forever barred.

D. Claims Payable by Third Parties.

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to one of the Debtors' insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable insurance policy, including any D&O Liability Insurance Policy. Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Cause of Action that the Debtors or any Entity may hold against any other Entity, including insurers under any policies of insurance, nor shall anything contained in the Plan constitute or be deemed a waiver by such insurers of any defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such insurers.

E. Distributions to Unsecured Claims.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, all Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims shall be administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to and in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

F. Allocation Between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided herein, the aggregate consideration paid to Holders on account of their Allowed Claims pursuant to the Plan shall be treated as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof and as determined for federal income tax purposes) and second, to the extent the consideration exceeds the principal amount of the Allowed Claims, to the remaining portion of such Allowed Claim, if any.

ARTICLE VII
PROCEDURES FOR RESOLVING CONTINGENT, UNLIQUIDATED AND DISPUTED CLAIMS

A. Allowance of Claims.

After the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have and shall retain any and all available rights and defenses the applicable Debtor had with respect to any Claim immediately before the Effective Date, including, without limitation, the right to assert any objection to Claims based on the limitations imposed by section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code provided that neither the Wind-Down Officer nor the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to any Professional Fee Claims or fees of the Independent Fiduciary. For the avoidance of doubt, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to and otherwise reconcile any and all Claims that seek recovery from the Creditor Recovery Trust other than Professional Fee Claims and fees of the Independent Fiduciary. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases before the Effective Date (including the Confirmation Order), no Claim against any Debtor shall become an Allowed Claim unless and until such Claim or Interest is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Court has entered a Final Order, including the Confirmation Order (when it becomes a Final Order), in the Chapter 11 Cases allowing such Claim.

No payment or distribution provided under the Plan shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim or portion thereof unless and until such Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

B. Automatic Disallowance and Expungement of Certain Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Claims Filed after the Claims Bar Date that were required to be Filed in advance of the Claims Bar Date under its terms shall be expunged and disallowed without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

C. Distributions After Allowance.

To the extent a Disputed Claim ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, as soon as practicable, the Debtors shall provide to the Holder of such Claim the Distribution (if any) to which such Holder is entitled under the Plan as of the Effective Date, less any previous Distribution (if any) that was made on account of the undisputed portion of such Claim, without any interest, dividends, or accruals to be paid on account of such Claim.

Based on the results of Verita's searches, (a) Verita does not have any connection with Laguna Reserve, and (b) does not hold or represent any interest adverse to Laguna Reserve.

7. Accordingly, based on the information available to me, I believe that (i) Verita is a "disinterested person" within the meaning of section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, as would be required by section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, and does not hold or represent an interest adverse to the Debtors' estates, including Laguna Reserve; and (ii) Verita has no connection with any of the Debtors, including Laguna Reserve, their affiliates, their creditors, or any other party-in-interest, or their respective attorneys and accountants, or any persons employed by the U.S. Trustee or the Court, except as may be disclosed in this Supplemental Declaration or my Prior Declarations.

SUPPLEMENTAL VERIFIED STATEMENT OF KENNETH A. ROSEN IN SUPPORT OF APPLICATION BY THE DEBTORS TO EMPLOY CHAPTER 11 NEW JERSEY COUNSEL

I, Kenneth A. Rosen, declare that the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief:

1. I am a shareholder of Ken Rosen Advisors PC ("KAR") and am authorized to practice before the courts of the State of New Jersey, and the federal courts for the State of New Jersey. KAR is co-counsel to the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (the "Debtors").

2. I submit this supplemental statement (the "Supplemental Statement") in support of the Application by the Debtors to Employ Chapter 11 New Jersey Counsel [Docket No. 174] (the "Application") and to supplement the disclosures set forth in the (a) Verified Statement of Kenneth A. Rosen in Support of Application by the Debtors to Employ Chapter 11 New Jersey Counsel [Docket No. 174-1] (the "First Statement"), (b) Supplemental Verified Statement of Kenneth A. Rosen in Support of Application by the Debtors to Employ Chapter 11 New Jersey Counsel [Docket No. 215, Ex. A] (the "Second Statement"), and (c) Verified Statement of Kenneth A. Rosen in Support of Application by the Debtors to Employ Chapter 11 New Jersey Counsel [Docket No. 223] (the "Third Statement" and together with the First Statement and Second Statement, the "Prior Statements").[2] On June 27, 2025, the Court entered the Order Approving the Employment of Chapter 11 New Jersey Counsel [Docket No. 224] (the "Retention Order").

[2] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Application.

3. In addition, I submit this Supplemental Statement in support of the Debtors' Motion for an Order (A) Applying Certain Orders in Initial Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases to Debtor Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC and (B) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 387] (the "Laguna Reserve Motion").

4. Except as otherwise noted herein, I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth herein. To the extent any information disclosed herein requires amendment or modification as additional information becomes available to KAR, I will submit a supplemental statement to this Court reflecting such amended or modified information.

Additional Disclosures

5. On August 17, 2025, Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC ("Laguna Reserve") filed a voluntary petition with this Court under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. Laguna Reserve is managing its business as a debtor in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Debtors have requested procedural consolidation and joint administration of the chapter 11 cases of Laguna Reserve and the Initial Debtors pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). See Laguna Reserve Motion. Specifically, in the Laguna Reserve Motion, the Debtors request that the Court apply, among other things, the Retention Order to Laguna Reserve and its chapter 11 case. See id.

6. In accordance with the procedures set forth in my Prior Statements, KAR conducted a disclosure review with respect to KAR's connections to Laguna Reserve. Based on the results of KAR's searches, (a) KAR does not have any connection with Laguna Reserve, and (b) does not hold or represent any interest adverse to the Laguna Reserve.

7. Accordingly, based on the information available to me, I believe that (i) KAR is a "disinterested person" within the meaning of section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, as would be required by section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, and does not hold or represent an interest adverse to the Debtors' estates, including Laguna Reserve; and (ii) KAR has no connection with any of the Debtors, including Laguna Reserve, their affiliates, their creditors, or any other party-in-interest, or their respective attorneys and accountants, or any persons employed by the U.S. Trustee or the Court, except as may be disclosed in this Supplemental Statement or my Prior Statements.

a. Contents. Each Proof of Claim must: (i) be written in legible English; (ii) include a claim amount denominated in United States dollars;

(iii) conform substantially with the Proof of Claim Form provided by the Debtors or Official Form 410; and (iv) be signed by the claimant or by an authorized agent or legal representative of the claimant on behalf of the claimant, whether such signature is an electronic signature or is ink.

b. Section 503(b)(9) Claim. Any Proof of Claim asserting a claim entitled to priority under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code must also: (i) include the value of the goods delivered to and received by the Debtors in the twenty (20) days prior to the Petition Date; (ii) attach any documentation identifying the particular invoices for which such claim is being asserted; and (iii) attach documentation of any reclamation demand made to the Debtors under section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code (if applicable).

f. Supporting Documentation. Each Proof of Claim must include supporting documentation in accordance with Bankruptcy Rules 3001(c) and 3001(d). If, however, such documentation is voluminous, such Proof of Claim may include a summary of such documentation or an explanation as to why such documentation is not available. g. Timely Service. Each Proof of Claim must be filed or submitted, including supporting documentation, through any of the following methods: (i) electronic submission through the Electronic Case Filing, (ii) electronic submission using the interface available on the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm or (iii) if submitted through non-electronic means, by U.S. mail or other hand delivery system, so as to be actually received by the Claims and Noticing Agent on or before the Claims Bar Date, the Governmental Bar Date, or other applicable Bar Date, as applicable, at the following address:

The following requirements shall apply with respect to filing and preparing each Proof of Claim:

a. Contents. Each Proof of Claim must: (i) be written in legible English; (ii) include a claim amount denominated in United States dollars; (iii) conform substantially with the Proof of Claim Form provided by the Debtors or Official Form 410; and (iv) be signed by the claimant or by an authorized agent or legal representative of the claimant on behalf of the claimant, whether such signature is an electronic signature or is ink.

b. Section 503(b)(9) Claim. Any Proof of Claim asserting a claim entitled to priority under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code must also: (i) include the value of the goods delivered to and received by the Debtors in the twenty (20) days prior to the Petition Date; (ii) attach any documentation identifying the particular invoices for which such claim is being asserted; and (iii) attach documentation of any reclamation demand made to the Debtors under section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code (if applicable).

Chapter 11

Case No. 25–15343 (MBK)
(Jointly Administered)

[1] The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, are: CBRM Realty Inc. (2420), Crown Capital Holdings LLC (1411), Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC (1115), Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC (0765), RH Chenault Creek LLC (8987), RH Copper Creek LLC (0874), RH Lakewind East LLC (6963), RH Windrun LLC (0122), RH New Orleans Holdings LLC (7528), and RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC (1951). DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER (I) AUTHORIZING THE DEBTORS TO OBTAIN POSTPETITION FINANCING, (II) GRANTING LIENS AND SUPERPRIORITY ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSE CLAIMS, (III) MODIFYING THE AUTOMATIC STAY, AND (IV) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") respectfully state as follows in support of this motion:

Preliminary Statement[2]

1. The Debtors require immediate access to liquidity. The amount of cash currently held by the Debtors, in addition to the Debtors' forecasted receipts from operations in the ordinary course, is insufficient to fund the Debtors' businesses and these chapter 11 cases. As a result, the Debtors and their professionals engaged—before and after the commencement of these cases—with potential lenders on terms for value-maximizing debtor-in-possession financing facilities. That process yielded competitive commitments from new, third-party lenders and the Debtors' incumbent, prepetition lenders. Ultimately, after good faith, arms'-length negotiations, the Debtors have determined to seek approval of two debtor-in-possession financing facilities offered by their prepetition lenders, which will provide the Debtors sufficient liquidity to support the orderly continuation and operation of their businesses, satisfy payroll obligations, fund the administration of these chapter 11 cases, make necessary capital expenditures to preserve the value of the Debtors' assets (and secured creditors' collateral), and provide the Debtors runway to consummate a restructuring or sale transaction for the benefit of all stakeholders.

2. These two financing facilities are principally secured by the assets of two separate

[2] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in this Preliminary Statement shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in this motion or the Declaration of Matthew Dundon, Principal of IslandDundon LLC, in Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Pleadings [Docket No. 44] (the "First Day Declaration"), as applicable.

silos of Debtors. First, Debtor Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC (the "Kelly Hamilton Debtor")—which operates a low-income housing development in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania—obtained a lending commitment from its prepetition lender for a senior secured debtor-in-possession credit facility in a principal amount of up to $9,705,162, comprised of one or more new term loans (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility"). Second, Debtors RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, RH Lakewind East LLC, and RH Windrun LLC (collectively, the "NOLA Debtors")—which operate low-income housing developments in New Orleans, Louisiana—obtained a lending commitment from certain prepetition lenders for a secured debtor-in-possession credit facility in the aggregate principal amount of up to $17,422,728, comprised of one or more new term loans and a roll-up of the lenders' prepetition loans (the "NOLA DIP Facility" and, together with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, the "DIP Facilities").

3. The terms of the DIP Facilities are summarized in greater detail in this motion, and include the following:

- Following entry of the Interim Orders, the Debtors may draw the $9,705,162 Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility in full and $4,960,725 in new money under the NOLA DIP Facility.
- Following entry of the Final Orders, the Debtors may draw the remaining $3,500,799 in new money under the NOLA DIP Facility.
- Prepetition secured claims of the NOLA DIP Lender will be rolled up concurrently with the funding of new money loans—e.g., $4,960,725 will be rolled up after entry of the NOLA Interim Order and funding, and $4,000,479 will be rolled up after entry of the NOLA Final Order and funding.
- The Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility accrues interest at 16% (with 10% in cash and 6% PIK) and the NOLA DIP Facility accrues interest at 18% (with 12% in cash and 6% PIK).
- All borrowings and disbursements will be made consistent with an approved budget. That budget provides, among other things, for over $1.4 million in proceeds from the DIP Facilities to be used to fund a litigation trust (or similar post-confirmation entity) to investigate and prosecute claims against the Debtors' insiders and other parties for the benefit of the Debtors' general unsecured creditors.

- The DIP Lenders will receive priming liens and superpriority claims for repayment of all amounts owed under the DIP Facilities.

4. Any DIP facility must be evaluated in light of a debtor's individual facts and circumstances. Here, the DIP Facilities maximize value for the Debtors' stakeholders, reflect the reasoned and sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment, and incorporate the best terms available in the market. The terms of the DIP Facilities are necessary to avoid massive harm to the Debtors' business and loss of value for all stakeholders, and also to give the Debtors the opportunity to pursue a going concern transaction. The Debtors had a very difficult time arranging DIP financing, given the charges against the Debtors' former insiders described in the First Day Declaration, and did not receive any alternative proposals with superior terms. Without access to the DIP Facilities, the Debtors' ability to operate and ultimately maximize the value of their estates will be materially—if not irreparably—jeopardized, all to the great detriment of any prepetition secured parties that are being primed under the DIP Facilities and that have not (unlike the DIP Lenders) expressly consented to being primed. Those parties also stand to benefit significantly from a potential restructuring transaction, which is only possible if the Debtors obtain immediate access to the DIP Facilities. Therefore, the Debtors believe the terms of the DIP Facilities are warranted under the facts of these chapter 11 cases and applicable law.

5. In sum, the relief requested by this motion is a necessary step to preserve the Debtors' operations and bridge to a transaction that maximizes value for their estates. On this record, and as the Debtors are prepared to demonstrate at the Court's hearing on this motion, the relief requested herein presents a sound exercise of business judgment and should be approved.

Relief Requested

6. The Debtors seek entry of interim orders (the "Kelly Hamilton Interim Order" and the "NOLA Interim Order," as applicable, and together, the "Interim Orders") and final orders (the "Kelly Hamilton Final Order" and the "NOLA Final Order," as applicable, and together, the "Final Orders"), to be filed in connection herewith, granting the following relief:[3]

- Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility: Authorizing certain of the Debtors to enter into a debtor-in-possession financing facility on the terms set forth in the Binding Term Sheet for Senior Secured, Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Financing, dated May 26, 2025, attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Term Sheet"), with 3650 SS1 Pittsburgh LLC (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender");

- NOLA DIP Facility: Authorizing certain of the Debtors to enter into a debtor-in-possession financing facility on the terms set forth in the NOLA Debtors Binding Term Sheet for Senior Secured, Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Financing, dated May 26, 2025, attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "NOLA DIP Term Sheet"), with DH1 Holdings LLC, CKD Funding LLC, and CKD Investor Penn LLC (collectively, the "NOLA DIP Lender" and, together with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, the "DIP Lenders");

- Cash Collateral: Authorizing the Debtors to use the proceeds of the DIP Facilities and the prepetition collateral of the Debtors' prepetition secured lenders, including cash collateral, subject to the terms of each DIP Facility's definitive documentation;

- DIP Liens: Authorizing the Debtors to grant first-priority, fully perfected liens on all assets subject only to the Carve-Out (as defined below);

- DIP Superpriority Claims: Granting superpriority administrative expense claims to the lenders and agents (if applicable) under the DIP Facilities (collectively, the "DIP Secured Parties") for all amounts due under the DIP Facilities, subject only to the Carve-Out;

- Adequate Protection: Granting adequate protection to certain of the Debtors' prepetition secured lenders to the extent of any postpetition diminution in value of their interests in any prepetition collateral;

- Automatic Stay: Vacating and modifying the automatic stay imposed by section 362 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), to the extent necessary to implement and effectuate the terms and provisions of the agreements, documents, and instruments delivered or executed in connection with the DIP Facilities (collectively, the "DIP Documents");

[3] The Debtors will file the proposed form of the Kelly Hamilton Interim Order (which will attach the proposed credit agreement under the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility) prior to the initial hearing on this motion. An initial draft of the NOLA Interim Order is attached hereto as Exhibit C, which remains subject to review by the Debtors and the NOLA DIP Lender and which may be revised prior to the initial hearing on this motion. The Debtors will also file proposed forms of each Final Order prior to the Final Hearing (as defined herein).

- Final Hearing: Scheduling a final hearing (the "Final Hearing") to consider final approval of the DIP Facilities, the Debtors' use of cash collateral, and the other relief requested in this motion on a final basis, and approving the form of notice with respect to the Final Hearing; and

- Immediate Effectiveness: Waiving any applicable stay (including under Bankruptcy Rule 6004) with respect to the effectiveness and enforceability of each Interim Order and providing for the immediate effectiveness of each Interim Order.

Jurisdiction and Venue

7. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court") has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on September 18, 2012 (Simandle, C.J.). The Debtors confirm their consent to the Court entering a final order.

The Debtors' Prepetition Capital Structure

11. The Debtors' prepetition secured indebtedness consists of the following obligations:

12. Prepetition Loans – Kelly Hamilton Debtor. The Kelly Hamilton Debtor borrowed a term loan in the original principal amount of $3,500,000 (the "Prepetition Kelly Hamilton Loan") from Kelly Hamilton Lender LLC (the "Kelly Hamilton Lender"), pursuant to that certain Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of September 20, 2024, between the Kelly Hamilton Debtor, as Borrower, and the Kelly Hamilton Lender, as Lender, evidenced by that certain Term Note, dated as of September 20, 2024 and secured by an Open-End Commercial Mortgage, Security Agreement and Assignment of Leases and Rents, dated as of September 20, 2024.

13. Prepetition Loans – NOLA Debtors. Debtors RH Lakewind East LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, and RH Windrun LLC borrowed loans with the original principal amount of up to $10,000,000 (the "Prepetition CKD Loans") from CKD Funding LLC ("CKD Funding"), pursuant that certain Non-Revolving Commercial Line of Credit Note, dated as of July 8, 2024 and secured by a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents and Security Agreement, dated as of July 8, 2024.

14. Debtor RH Chenault Creek LLC borrowed loans (the "Prepetition DH1 Loans") from DH1 Holdings LLC ("DH1"), pursuant to (a) that certain Amended and Restated Secured Promissory Note, dated as of March 12, 2024, in the principal amount of $4,060,875.87, and Assignment of Amended and Restated Secured Promissory Note and Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents and Security Agreement, and Allonge to Amended and Restated Secured Promissory Note, dated as of September 6, 2024, and (b) that certain Non-Revolving Commercial Line of Credit Note, dated as of April 4, 2024, in the original principal amount of up to $7,500,000, each of which is secured by a Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents and Security Agreement, dated as of March 13, 2024, and a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Lease and Rents and Security Agreement, dated as of April 4, 2024.

15. Additionally, CKD Investor Penn LLC ("CKD Penn") holds a mortgage on the properties held by the NOLA Debtors pursuant to a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents and Security Agreement, dated as of August 16, 2024, and Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge, LTD ("CIF"), purports to hold a mortgage on the property held by Debtor RH Lakewind East LLC pursuant to a Mortgage, Security Agreement, assignment of Leases and Rents and Fixture Filing, dated as of December 11, 2024.[5]

16. The NOLA Interim Order will grant adequate protection in the form of replacement liens and superpriority administrative expense claims to CKD Penn and CIF on account of the Debtors' postpetition use of such parties' collateral and the priming of their liens under the NOLA DIP Facility.

[5] The Debtors do not admit the validity or allowance of CIF's alleged mortgage or prepetition claim and reserve all rights to challenge such mortgage and claim at an appropriate time.

Basis for Relief

I. The Debtors Should Be Authorized to Obtain Postpetition Financing Under the DIP Facilities

17. The Debtors satisfy the requirements for relief under section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, which authorizes a debtor to obtain secured or superpriority financing under certain circumstances. The Debtors were unable to procure sufficient financing in the form of unsecured credit, which would be allowable under section 503(b)(1) or as an administrative expense, in accordance with sections 364(a) or (b) of the Bankruptcy Code. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 364(a)–(b). The Debtors also negotiated vigorously, and at arm's length, with the DIP Lenders to secure the DIP Facilities on the terms described herein. For these reasons, as discussed further below, the Debtors satisfy the necessary conditions under section 364 for authority to enter into the DIP Facilities.

A. Entry into the DIP Facilities Is an Exercise of the Debtors' Sound Business Judgment

18. The Court should authorize the Debtors, as an exercise of their sound business judgment, to enter into the DIP Documents and obtain access to the DIP Facilities. Courts grant a debtor in possession considerable deference in acting in accordance with its business judgment in obtaining postpetition secured credit, so long as the agreement to obtain such credit does not run afoul of the provisions of, and policies underlying, the Bankruptcy Code. See, e.g., TWA v. Travellers Int'l AG. (In re TWA), 163 B.R. 964, 974 (Bankr. D. Del. 1994) (approving a postpetition loan and receivables facility because such facility "reflect[ed] sound and prudent business judgment"); In re L.A. Dodgers LLC, 457 B.R. 308, 313 (Bankr. D. Del. 2011) ("[C]ourts will almost always defer to the business judgment of a debtor in the selection of the lender."); In re Ames Dep't Stores, Inc., 115 B.R. 34, 40 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1990) ("[C]ases consistently reflect that the court's discretion under section 364 is to be utilized on grounds that permit reasonable business judgment to be exercised so long as the financing agreement does not contain terms that leverage the bankruptcy process and powers or its purpose is not so much to benefit the estate as it is to benefit a party-in-interest.").

19. Specifically, to determine whether the business judgment standard is met, a court need only "examine whether a reasonable business person would make a similar decision under similar circumstances." In re Exide Techs., 340 B.R. 222, 239 (Bankr. D. Del. 2006); see also In re Curlew Valley Assocs., 14 B.R. 506, 513–14 (Bankr. D. Utah 1981) (noting that courts should not second guess a debtor's business decision when that decision involves "a business judgment made in good faith, upon a reasonable basis, and within the scope of [the debtor's] authority under the [Bankruptcy] Code").

20. Furthermore, in considering whether the terms of postpetition financing are fair and reasonable, courts consider the terms in light of the relative circumstances of both the debtor and the potential lender. See In re Farmland Indus., Inc., 294 B.R. 855, 886 (Bankr. W.D. Mo. 2003) (while many of the terms favored the DIP Lenders, "taken in context, and considering the relative circumstances of the parties," the court found them to be reasonable); see also Unsecured Creditors' Comm. Mobil Oil Corp. v. First Nat'l Bank & Trust Co. (In re Elingsen McLean Oil Co., Inc.), 65 B.R. 358, 365 n.7 (W.D. Mich. 1986) (recognizing a debtor may have to enter into "hard bargain[s]" to acquire funds for its reorganization). The Court may also appropriately take into consideration non-economic benefits to the Debtors offered by a proposed postpetition facility.

21. For example, in In re ION Media Networks, Inc., the Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York held that:

> Although all parties, including the Debtors and the Committee, are naturally motivated to obtain financing on the best possible terms, a business decision to obtain credit from a particular lender is almost never based purely on economic terms. Relevant features of the > financing must be evaluated, including non-economic elements such as the timing and certainty of closing, the impact on creditor constituencies and the likelihood of a successful reorganization. This is particularly true in a bankruptcy setting where cooperation and establishing alliances with creditor groups can be a vital part of building support for a restructuring that ultimately may lead to a confirmable reorganization plan. That which helps foster consensus may be preferable to a notionally better transaction that carries the risk of promoting unwanted conflict.

No. 09-13125, 2009 WL 2902568, at *4 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. July 6, 2009).

22. The Debtors' determination to move forward with the DIP Facilities is a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment. The Debtors have spent months seeking capital for their real estate properties individually and in conjunction with the efforts of certain affiliated entities. Those efforts recently culminated with three paths: (a) obtaining financing on a consensual basis from the Debtors' existing senior secured lenders, which would provide capital and minimize the risk of costly litigation with a contest DIP approval hearing; (b) obtain financing on a non-consensual priming basis from a holder of the notes issued by Debtor Crown Capital Holdings LLC, which would have provided capital for the business and significant funding for a future litigation trust but would have involved a costly priming battle with DH1, CKD Funding, and CKD Penn in their capacities as prepetition lenders to the NOLA Debtors; or (c) liquidate and provide little, if any, recovery to creditors through the Debtors' operating and litigation assets.

23. In the face of this choice, the Debtors have elected to enter into the DIP Facilities, which are two side-by-side debtor-in-possession financings that will fund the Debtors' operating assets, the administrative costs of these chapter 11 cases, and secure over $1.4 million of funding for a future litigation trust established to pursue claims and causes of action against Mark Silber and other insiders. The DIP Facilities will send a clear message to tenants and vendors that these chapter 11 cases and the misconduct of the Debtors' prepetition insiders will not impair the Debtors' go-forward operations. The Debtors negotiated the DIP Facilities and DIP Documents with the DIP Secured Parties in good faith, at arm's length, and with the assistance of their respective advisors, and the Debtors believe that they have obtained the best financing available under the circumstances. Accordingly, entry into and performance under the DIP Facilities is an exercise of the Debtors' sound business judgement and should be approved.

B. The Debtors Should Be Authorized to Grant Liens, Priming Liens, and Superpriority Claims

24. Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code distinguishes among (a) obtaining unsecured credit in the ordinary course of business, (b) obtaining unsecured credit out of the ordinary course of business, and (c) obtaining credit with specialized priority or with security. See 11 U.S.C. § 364. If a debtor in possession cannot obtain postpetition credit on an unsecured basis, pursuant to section 364(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, a court may authorize a debtor to obtain credit or to incur debt, the repayment of which is entitled to superpriority administrative expense status, or is secured by a senior lien on unencumbered property, or a junior lien on encumbered property, or a combination of the foregoing. Id. In addition, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, a court may authorize a debtor to obtain postpetition credit secured by a lien that is equal or senior in priority to existing liens on encumbered property (i.e., a "priming" lien) when a debtor is unable to obtain credit on other terms and the interests of existing lienholders are adequately protected, or if the existing lienholders consent to such priming.

25. The Debtors propose to grant the DIP Lenders superpriority administrative expense claims for repayment of the DIP obligations with priority over all other claims against the Debtors (subject to the Carve-Out); senior secured liens on all of the Debtors' unencumbered property; and priming senior secured liens on the Debtors' property encumbered by prepetition liens. Therefore, the approval of the DIP Facilities is governed by both sections 364(c) and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy

i. The Debtors Satisfy Section 364(c)'s Requirements to Obtain Financing on a Senior Secured and Superpriority Basis

26. In the event that a debtor demonstrates that it is unable to obtain unsecured credit allowable as an administrative expense under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, section 364(c) provides that a court:

> may authorize the obtaining of credit or the incurring of debt (1) with priority over any or all administrative expenses of the kind specified in section 503(b) or 507(b) of [the Bankruptcy Code]; (2) secured by a lien on property of the estate that is not otherwise subject to a lien; or (3) secured by a junior lien on property of the estate that is subject to a lien.

11 U.S.C. § 364(c).

27. Courts have articulated a three-part test to determine whether a debtor is entitled to financing under section 364(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Specifically, courts look to whether:

a. the debtor is unable to obtain unsecured credit under section 364(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, i.e., by allowing a lender only an administrative claim;

b. the credit transaction is necessary to preserve the assets of the estate; and

c. the terms of the transaction are fair, reasonable, and adequate, given the circumstances of the debtor-borrower and proposed lenders.

See, e.g., In re Crouse Grp., Inc., 71 B.R. 544, 549 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1987); In re Los Angeles Dodgers LLC, 457 B.R. at 312; See In re Ames Dep't Stores, 115 B.R. at 37–40 ; see also In re St. Mary Hosp., 86 B.R. 393, 401–02 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1988).

28. First, to show that the credit required is not obtainable on an unsecured basis, a debtor need only demonstrate "by a good faith effort that credit was not available without" the protections of sections 364(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Bray v. Shenandoah Fed. Savs. & Loan Ass'n (In re Snowshoe Co.), 789 F.2d 1085, 1088 (4th Cir. 1986) (stating section 364 "imposes no duty to seek credit from every possible lender before concluding that such credit is unavailable"). The Debtors have not been able to obtain unsecured credit or an alternative DIP financing on better terms than those reflected in the DIP Documents.

29. Second, the DIP Facilities are necessary to preserve the Debtors' estates. In the absence of DIP financing, the Debtors will lack sufficient funding to meet their obligations during these chapter 11 cases, as set forth in the Approved Budget. The DIP Facilities have been sized to provide the Debtors with liquidity to continue the operation of their businesses, including their properties, fund necessary capital expenditures, satisfy their obligations to tenants and the federal government, pay wage and salary obligations for their employees, and continue to satisfy other working capital and operational needs during these chapter 11 cases.

30. Third, the terms of the DIP Facilities are fair, reasonable, and adequate under the circumstances. The DIP Facilities provide critical liquidity on terms that are comparable to other DIP financings and generally consistent with market terms for companies seeking similar postpetition financing. See, e.g., In re Rite Aid Corp., No. 25-14861 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. May 7, 2025) [Docket No. 143 ¶ 9] (approving DIP facility with terms and collateral package generally consistent with proposed DIP Facility); In re WeWork, Inc., No. 23-19865 (JKS) (Bankr. D.N.J. May 8, 2024) [Docket No. 1883] (same); In In re Thrasio Holdings, Inc., No. 24-11840 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 1, 2024) [Docket No. 81] (same); In re Cyxtera Techs., Inc., No. 23-14854 (JKS) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jun. 7, 2023) [Docket No. 70] (same).

31. In light of the foregoing, the Court should authorize the Debtors, pursuant to sections 364(c)(1) and 364(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, to provide the DIP Lenders with superpriority administrative expense claims and first priority liens on all unencumbered property of the estates.

ii. The Debtors Should Be Authorized to Obtain Priming Liens Under Section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code

32. Section 364(d) provides that debtors may obtain credit secured by a senior or equal lien on property of the estate already subject to a lien where the debtor is "unable to obtain such credit otherwise" and "there is adequate protection of the interest of the holder of the lien on the property of the estate on which such senior or equal lien is proposed to be granted." 11 U.S.C. § 364(d)(1). The Debtors may incur "priming" liens under the DIP Facilities if they are unable to obtain unsecured or junior secured credit and either (a) the affected secured lenders consent, or (b) adequate protection exists for such priming lien. See Anchor Savs. Bank FSB v. Sky Valley, Inc., 99 B.R. 117, 122 (N.D. Ga. 1989).

33. When determining whether to authorize a debtor to obtain credit secured by a "priming" lien as authorized by section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, courts focus on whether the transaction will enhance the value of the debtors' assets. Courts consider a number of factors, including, without limitation:

a. whether alternative financing is available on any other basis (i.e., whether any better offers, bids or timely proposals are before the court);

b. whether the proposed financing is necessary to preserve estate assets and is necessary, essential and appropriate for continued operation of the debtors' business;

c. whether the terms of the proposed financing are reasonable and adequate given the circumstances of both the debtors and proposed lender(s);

d. whether the proposed financing agreement was negotiated in good faith and at arm's length and entry therein is an exercise of sound and reasonable business judgment and in the best interest of the debtor's estate and its creditors; and

e. whether the proposed financing agreement adequately protects prepetition secured creditors.

See, e.g., Ames Dep't Stores, 115 B.R. at 37–39; Bland v. Farmworker Creditors, 308 B.R. 109, 113–14 (S.D. Ga. 2003); see also 3 Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 364.04[1] (15th ed. rev. 2008). In particular, courts have authorized financing involving priming liens to avoid imminent liquidation. See, e.g., In re Prospect Medical Holdings, Inc., No. 25-80002-SGJ11 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Jan. 14, 2025) [Docket No. 101 ¶ 7] (granting senior priming DIP liens to avoid liquidation); In re Franchise Group, Inc., No. 24-12480 (Bankr. D. Del. Nov. 7, 2024) [Docket No. 134 ¶ 6(c)] (same); In re True Religion Apparel, Inc., No. 20-10941 (Bankr. D. Del. Apr. 15, 2020) [Docket No. 78 ¶ 2.1] (same); In re Patriot Coal Corp., No. 15-32450-KLP (Bankr. E.D. Va. May 13, 2015) [Docket No. 67 ¶ 14(a)(iv)] (same).

34. The NOLA DIP Facility's priming liens with respect to CIF should be approved.[6] First, the NOLA Debtors were unable to find alternative financing that preserved the NOLA Debtors as going-concern operations. No potential financing party was willing to provide the NOLA Debtors with unsecured or junior secured financing. The NOLA Debtors have an extremely limited pool of unencumbered assets that was insufficient to attract potential financing counterparties. Additionally, in light of the misconduct of the Debtors' former insiders and the near-term potential shutdown of the Debtors' operations, no counterparty was willing to assume the risk of extending credit on an unsecured or junior secured basis. The NOLA DIP Lender was not willing to extend new capital to the NOLA Debtors absent being provided priming liens on the NOLA Debtors' property, including the encumbered assets of the NOLA Debtors.

35. Second, the NOLA Debtors require immediate access to the NOLA DIP Facility to provide adequate liquidity for the operation and maintenance of their properties. Absent such relief, the NOLA will suffer material and irreparable harm, as they simply cannot operate or maintain their operations in the ordinary course without cash on hand and would face an immediate liquidity crisis. Accordingly, value will be lost and the NOLA Debtors' ability to effectuate a restructuring transaction will be significantly threatened. Conversely, the NOLA Debtors' access to liquidity will benefit all stakeholders—including CIF—by facilitating the NOLA Debtors' efforts to preserve and enhance the value of the NOLA Debtors' assets.

36. Third, the Debtors and their advisors determined that the DIP Facilities are the only alternative readily available for such liquidity. The Debtors conducted arm's-length negotiations with the DIP Lenders regarding the terms of the DIP Facilities. The Debtors are only able to obtain these negotiated terms by agreement to provide first priority priming liens. The Debtors do not believe, moreover, that the financing necessary to fund these chapter 11 cases and prevent an immediate liquidation of the Debtors' estates is available from other parties on comparable terms.

37. Finally, and as discussed more fully below, the Debtors will provide adequate protection for CIF's alleged interests in prepetition collateral subject to the NOLA DIP Facility's priming liens.

C. The Debtors' Proposed Adequate Protection Should Be Approved

38. Parties with an interest in cash collateral or collateral that may be used to secure postpetition financing are entitled to adequate protection, including if such interests are being primed. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 363(e), 364(d). While section 361 of the Bankruptcy Code provides examples of forms of adequate protection, such as granting replacement liens and administrative claims, courts decide what constitutes sufficient adequate protection on a case-by-case basis. See, e.g., In re Satcon Tech. Corp., No. 12-12869, 2012 WL 6091160, at *6 (Bankr. D. Del. Dec. 7, 2012). At the same time, it is well-recognized that "adequate protection" is not equivalent to "absolute protection." In re Beker Indus., Inc., 58 B.R. 725, 741 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986) ("Adequate protection, not absolute protection, is the statutory standard.").

39. The NOLA Interim Order provides adequate protection for CIF because it allows the NOLA Debtors to continue operating their multifamily residential properties and generate revenue for the benefit of their creditors. See, e.g., In re Salem Plaza Assoc., 135 B.R. 753, 758

(Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1992) (holding that debtor's continued operation of shopping center, thereby "preserv[ing] the base that generates the income stream," provided adequate protection to secured creditor). In addition, CIF will be granted replacement liens and superpriority claims, in each case junior in all respects to the Carve-Out, the NOLA DIP Facility, and the liens and collateral granted to DH1 as DIP Lender under the NOLA DIP Facility.

40. The foregoing adequate protection package is appropriate under the circumstances, consistent with the market, and should be approved. See, e.g., In re Rite Aid Corp., No. 25-14861 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. May 7, 2025) [Docket No. 143 ¶ 9] (providing adequate protection liens to prepetition secured parties); In re WeWork, Inc., No. 23-19865 (JKS) (Bankr. D.N.J. May 8, 2024) [Docket No. 1883]; In In re Thrasio Holdings, Inc., No. 24-11840 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 1, 2024) [Docket No. 81]; In re Cyxtera Techs., Inc., No. 23-14854 (JKS) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jun. 7, 2023) [Docket No. 70].

II. The Debtors Should Be Authorized to Pay the Fees Required by the DIP Secured Parties Under the DIP Documents

41. Under the DIP Documents, the Debtors have agreed, subject to Court approval, to pay certain fees to the DIP Secured Parties. In particular, the Debtors have agreed to pay an Origination Fee of 3.0% of the DIP Facility, a nominal servicing fee of $7,500 per month for the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility, a nominal servicing fee of $1,000 per month for the NOLA DIP Facility, and a break-up fee of $250,000 if the Kelly Hamilton Debtor obtains replacement DIP financing prior to the conclusion of these chapter 11 cases. These fees are an integral component of the overall terms of the DIP Facilities and were required by the DIP Secured Parties as consideration for the extension of postpetition financing.

42. Courts in this district and others have approved similar fees in large chapter 11 cases. See, e.g., In re Rite Aid Corp., No. 23-18992 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Oct. 17, 2023)

(approving 4.0 percent Upfront Fee of the DIP Term Loan Facility); In re Cyxtera Techs., Inc., No. 23-14854 (JKS) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jun. 7, 2023) (approving a backstop fee of 6 percent and a 3 percent commitment fee on New Money Loans); In re Akorn, Inc., No. 20-11177 (KBO) (Bankr. D. Del. May 22, 2022) (approving a commitment fee of approximately 3.0 percent of the DIP loans).

43. Because the fees under the proposed DIP Facilities are integral to the DIP Secured Parties' agreement to provide postpetition financing and consistent with the market, the Court should authorize the Debtors to pay the fees provided under the DIP Facilities, subject to the terms and conditions of the DIP Documents.

III. The Debtors Should Be Authorized to Use Cash Collateral

44. Pursuant to section 363(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor may use cash collateral as long as "(A) each entity that has an interest in such cash collateral consents; or (B) the court, after notice and a hearing, authorizes such use, sale, or lease in accordance with the provisions of this section." 11 U.S.C. § 363(c)(2). Section 363(e) of the Bankruptcy Code provides for adequate protection of interests in property when a debtor uses cash collateral. Further, section 362(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides for adequate protection of interests in property due to the imposition of the automatic stay. See In re Cont'l Airlines, 91 F.3d 553, 556 (3d Cir. 1996).

45. The Debtors have satisfied the requirements of sections 363(c)(2) and (e) and should be authorized to use the Cash Collateral. Each of the DIP Lenders has consented to the use of their cash collateral on the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents. In addition, as described above, CIF will receive adequate protection that is fair and reasonable and that adequately protects such creditor's interest in its alleged prepetition collateral, including cash collateral, from any postpetition diminution in value. Accordingly, the Court should authorize the

IV. The DIP Lenders Should Be Deemed Good-Faith Lenders Under Section 364(e)

46. Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code protects a good-faith lender's right to collect on loans extended to a debtor, and its right in any lien securing those loans, even if the authority of the debtor to obtain such loans or grant such liens is later reversed or modified on appeal. Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that:

> The reversal or modification on appeal of an authorization under this section [364 of the Bankruptcy Code] to obtain credit or incur debt, or of a grant under this section of a priority or a lien, does not affect the validity of any debt so incurred, or any priority or lien so granted, to an entity that extended such credit in good faith, whether or not such entity knew of the pendency of the appeal, unless such authorization and the incurring of such debt, or the granting of such priority or lien, were stayed pending appeal.

11 U.S.C. § 364(e).

47. The DIP Lenders qualify as good faith lenders under section 364(e). The DIP Facilities are the product of the Debtors' reasonable and informed determination that the DIP Lenders provided the best postpetition financing alternative available under the circumstances, as well as extended, arm's length, and good-faith negotiations between the Debtors and the DIP Lenders. The terms and conditions of the DIP Facilities are also reasonable under the circumstances. Further, the proceeds of the DIP Facilities will be used only for purposes that are permissible under the Bankruptcy Code and no consideration is being provided to any party to the DIP Facilities other than as described herein.

48. Accordingly, the Court should find that the DIP Lenders are entitled to the protections afforded by section 364(e) as good faith lenders to the Debtors.

V. The Automatic Stay Should Be Modified on a Limited Basis

49. The Interim Orders will provide that the automatic stay provisions of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code will be modified to allow the DIP Secured Parties to file any financing statements, security agreements, notices of liens, and other similar instruments and documents in order to validate and perfect the liens and security interests granted to them under the DIP Facilities. The Interim Orders will also provide that the automatic stay is modified as necessary to permit the Debtors to grant liens to the DIP Secured Parties and to incur all liabilities and obligations set forth in the Interim Orders. Finally, the Interim Orders will provide that, following the occurrence of an event of default and an appropriate opportunity for the Debtors to obtain appropriate relief from the Court, the automatic stay shall be vacated and modified to the extent necessary to permit the applicable DIP Secured Party to exercise all rights and remedies in accordance with the DIP Documents and applicable law.

50. Stay modifications of this kind are ordinary and standard features of debtor in possession financing arrangements and, in the Debtors' business judgment, are reasonable and fair under the circumstances of these chapter 11 cases. See, e.g., In re Rite Aid Corp., No. 23-18992 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Oct. 17, 2023) [Docket No. 120] (modifying automatic stay as necessary to effectuate the terms of the order); In re WeWork, Inc., No. 23-19865 (JKS) (Bankr. D.N.J. May 8, 2024) [Docket No. 1883] (same); In In re Thrasio Holdings, Inc., No. 24-11840 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 1, 2024) [Docket No. 81]; In re Cyxtera Techs., Inc., No. 23-14854 (JKS) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jun. 7, 2023) [Docket No. 70] (same).

The Debtors Require Immediate Access to the DIP Facilities and Cash Collateral

51. The Court may grant interim relief in respect of a motion filed pursuant to section 363(c) or 364 of the Bankruptcy Code where, as here, interim relief is "necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the estate pending a final hearing." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001(b)(2), (c)(2). Bankruptcy Rule 4001(c)(2) governs the procedures for obtaining authorization to obtain postpetition financing and provides, in relevant part:

> The court may begin a final hearing on a motion for authority to obtain credit no earlier than 14 days after it has been served. If the motion so requests, the court may conduct a hearing before that 14 day period ends. After a preliminary hearing, the court may authorize using only the cash collateral necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the estate pending a final hearing.

52. The Debtors have an immediate postpetition need to access the funds provided by the DIP Facilities. The Debtors cannot maintain the value of their estates during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases without access to cash. The Debtors will be unable to operate their business as a going concern in the near term without the ability to access the DIP Facilities and use cash collateral and will suffer immediate and irreparable harm to the detriment of all creditors and other parties in interest.

53. The Debtors, therefore, seek immediate authority to access the DIP Facilities on an interim basis and as set forth in this motion and in the Interim Orders to prevent immediate and irreparable harm to their estates pending the Final Hearing pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b) and 4001(c). Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully submit that they have satisfied the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 4001 to support an expedited preliminary hearing and immediate access to the DIP Facilities and cash collateral on an interim basis.

Request of Waiver of Stay

54. To the extent that the relief sought in this motion constitutes a use of property under section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors seek a waiver of the fourteen-day stay under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h). Further, to the extent applicable, the Debtors request that the Court find that the provisions of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 are satisfied. As explained herein, the relief requested in this motion is immediately necessary for the Debtors to be able to continue to operate their businesses and preserve the value of their estates.

Waiver of Memorandum of Law

55. The Debtors request that the Court waive the requirement to file a separate memorandum of law pursuant to Local Rule 9013-1(a)(3) because the legal basis upon which the Debtors rely is set forth herein and the motion does not raise any novel issues of law.

No Prior Request

56. No prior request for the relief sought in this motion has been made to this Court or any other court.

Reservation of Rights

57. Nothing contained in this motion or any order granting the relief requested in this motion, and no action taken pursuant to the relief requested or granted (including any payment made in accordance with any such order), is intended as or shall be construed or deemed to be: (a) an admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's right to dispute any claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this motion or any order granting the relief requested by this motion except as otherwise set forth in the motion; (e) a request or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) an admission as to the validity, priority, enforceability or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; or (g) a waiver or limitation of any claims, causes of action or other rights of the Debtors or any other party in interest against any person or entity under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law.

Notice

58. The Debtors will provide notice of this motion to the following parties and/or their respective counsel, as applicable: (a) the office of the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey; (b) the DIP Lenders; (c) Lynd Living; (d) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes; (e) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey; (f) the Internal Revenue Service; (g) the attorneys general in the states where the Debtors conducts their business operations; (h) the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development; and (i) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors request that the Court enter the Interim Orders and Final Orders, granting the relief requested in this motion and such other and further relief as the Court deems appropriate under the circumstances.

The foregoing indemnity shall include, without limitation, any costs and expenses incurred in the enforcement of any binding provisions of this Term Sheet. | Third-Party Release of Indemnified Parties | The Debtors agree that the Chapter 11 Plan filed with the Bankruptcy Court will include a third-party release of the Indemnified Parties subject to the right of third parties affected by such release to "opt out" of the release. | Fiduciary Duties | No term of this Term Sheet to the contrary, the Debtors shall have the right to take any action (or to refuse to take any action) to the extent that the Debtors determine that taking any such action (or declining to take any such action) is consistent with the Debtors' fiduciary duties. |

Additional Agreement Terms

Closing Fees, Costs, and Expenses: Subject to approval of the DIP Facility by the Bankruptcy Court, whether or not the transaction contemplated herein closes, subject to available liquidity, the Kelly Hamilton Debtor shall be obligated to pay all of DIP Lender's out-of-pocket fees, costs and expenses (in each case, without markup) related to this transaction, including, without limitation, the fees and expenses of DIP Lender's outside counsel, title report fees and costs, survey costs, and costs incurred in obtaining and/or reviewing due diligence materials, including, without limitation, environmental and engineering reports and travel costs of DIP Lender's personnel or representatives.

Waiver of Right to Trial by Jury: Debtors, and by its acceptance hereof, DIP Lender, hereby expressly waive any right to trial by jury of any claim, demand, action or cause of action (1) arising under this Term Sheet, loan or DIP Funding or any other instrument, document or agreement executed or delivered in connection therewith, including, without limitation, any present or future modification thereof or (2) in any way connected with or related or incidental to the dealings of the parties hereto or any of them with respect to this Term Sheet (as now or hereafter modified) or the transaction related hereto, in each case whether such claim, demand, action or cause of action is new existing or hereafter arising, and whether sounding in contract or tort of otherwise; and each party hereby agrees and consents that any such claim, demand or cause of action shall be decided by a court trial without a jury.

Break-up Fee: In the event the Bankruptcy Court authorizes the Kelly Hamilton Debtor to obtain financing secured by the Kelly Hamilton Property from an alternative DIP lender (an "Approved Alternative Financing Transaction"), the Kelly Hamilton Debtor will immediately pay to the DIP Lender $250,000 (the "Break-up Fee"), which shall be an obligation of the Kelly Hamilton Debtor and payable upon, and solely from the proceeds of, the Approved Alternative Financing Transaction. Subject to approval of the DIP Facility by the Bankruptcy Court, the obligation of the Kelly Hamilton Debor to pay the Break-up Fee shall survive the termination of this Term Sheet.

DIP Lender has specifically advised Debtors that it is devoting considerable internal resources to successfully consummate a transaction as contemplated in this Term Sheet and as such, it is not only expending meaningful costs and expenses in addition to reimbursable third-party out-of-pocket expenses, but, also and more importantly, foregoing other investment opportunities. To address this significant financial commitment to be made by DIP Lender, prior to the execution of this Term Sheet, the parties hereto have (i) discussed a potential determination of DIP Lender's damages in the event that Debtors were to breach the exclusivity provision set forth herein, and (ii) concluded that such determination is difficult and impractical as of the date of this Term Sheet. Therefore, given such discussions between the parties, which are hereby expressly acknowledged and confirmed, Debtors agree that the amount of the applicable Break-up Fee is a reasonable estimate of DIP Lender's damages as of the date of this Term Sheet and provides a satisfactory alternative to Debtor's performance of its obligations under the "Exclusivity" paragraph set forth above and is not intended as a penalty.

Miscellaneous: This Term Sheet shall be governed, construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York and any action brought regarding this Term Sheet must be brought in a state or federal court in New York, New York. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any matters involving this Term Sheet or the transactions contemplated by this Term Sheet. The Debtors hereby represent, warrant, covenant and agree that: (i) each Debtor has the power and authority to execute this Term Sheet, to bind Debtors hereunder, (ii) the proposed transaction described herein is not the subject of a commitment or term sheet executed by Debtors from another lender; and (iii) no other party has a right of refusal or other option which could cause the DIP Facility not to be consummated.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed and agree to be bound by the terms set forth in this Term Sheet or caused the same to be executed by their respective duly authorized officers as of the day and year first above written.

not less than $8,961,204 on account of the Prepetition First Lien Loans and all other obligations owing under or in connection therewith (collectively, the "Prepetition First Lien Obligations").

v. Prepetition Collateral. In connection with the Prepetition First Lien Loans, the NOLA Debtors granted the Prepetition First Lien Lenders granted the Prepetition First Lien Mortgages and the Prepetition First Lien Obligations are secured by valid, binding, perfected, and enforceable first-priority security interests in and liens on (the "Prepetition First Priority Liens") substantially all of the NOLA Debtors' assets (the "Prepetition First Lien Collateral"). In addition, in connection with the CKD Penn Guaranty, the NOLA Debtors granted CKD Penn the CKD Penn Prepetition Junior Lien Mortgage and the obligations of CKD Penn with respect to the CKD Guaranty were secured by valid, binding, perfected, and enforceable first-priority security interests in and liens on (the "CKD Penn Prepetition Junior Liens") substantially all of the NOLA Debtors' assets (the "Prepetition Junior Lien Collateral", and together with the Prepetition First Lien Collateral, collectively, the "Prepetition Collateral").

vi. Validity, Perfection, and Priority of Prepetition First Priority Liens, CKD Penn Prepetition Junior Liens, and Prepetition First Lien Obligations. Each of the Debtors acknowledges and agrees that, in each case as of the Petition Date: (i) the Prepetition First Priority Liens and CKD Penn Prepetition Junior Liens encumber all of the Prepetition Collateral, as the same existed on the Petition Date; (ii) the Prepetition First Priority Liens and CKD Penn Prepetition Junior Liens are valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and properly perfected liens on and security interests in the Prepetition Collateral; (iii) the Prepetition First Priority Liens and CKD Penn Prepetition Junior Liens (which are subject to and subordinate to the Prepetition First Priority Liens) are subject and subordinate only to valid, perfected and enforceable prepetition liens (if any) which are senior to the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties' liens or security interests as of the Petition Date or to valid and unavoidable liens in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date that are perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and that are senior to the liens or security interests of DH1, CKD Funding and CKD Penn as of the Petition Date (such liens, the "Permitted Prior Liens"); (iv) the Prepetition First Priority Liens and CKD Penn Prepetition Junior Liens were granted to or for the benefit of the DH1, CKD Funding and CKD Penn for fair consideration and reasonably equivalent value and were granted contemporaneously with, or covenanted to be provided as an inducement for, the making of the loans and/or commitments and other financial accommodations secured thereby; (v) the Prepetition First Lien Obligations and obligations with respect to the CKD Penn Guaranty constitute legal, valid, binding, and non-avoidable obligations of the Debtors; (vi) no offsets, challenges, objections, defenses, claims, or counterclaims of any kind or nature to any of the Prepetition First Priority Liens, CKD Penn Prepetition Junior Liens, Prepetition First Lien Obligations or any obligations with respect to the CKD Penn Guaranty exist, and no portion of the Prepetition First Priority Liens, CKD Penn Prepetition Junior Liens, Prepetition First Lien Obligations or any obligations with respect to the CKD Penn Guaranty is subject to any challenge, cause of action, or defense, including impairment, set-off, right of recoupment, avoidance, attachment, disallowance, disgorgement, reduction, recharacterization, recovery, subordination (whether equitable or otherwise), attack, offset, contest, defense, counterclaims, cross-claims, or "claim" (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law; and (vii) subject entry of the Final Order, the Debtors and their estates have no claims, objections, challenges, causes of actions, recoupments, counterclaims, cross-claims, setoff rights, and/or choses in action, including "lender liability" causes of action or avoidance claims under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code, whether arising under applicable state law or federal law (including any recharacterization, subordination, avoidance, disgorgement, recovery, or other claims arising under or pursuant to sections 105, 510, or 542 through 553 of the Bankruptcy Code), against the DH1, CKD Funding, CKD Penn or any of their respective affiliates, agents, representatives, attorneys, advisors, professionals, officers, directors, and employees arising out of, based upon, or related to the Prepetition First Lien Loans, Prepetition First Lien Mortgages, the Prepetition First Lien Obligations, the Prepetition First Priority Liens, the CKD Guaranty, the CKD Penn Junior Lien Mortgage, the CKD Penn Prepetition Junior Liens, or any other prepetition transactions with the Debtors.

F. Cash Collateral. Substantially all of the Debtor Borrowers' cash, including any amounts generated by the collection of accounts receivable, all cash proceeds of the Prepetition Collateral, and the Debtor Borrowers' banking, checking, or other deposit accounts with financial institutions as of the Petition Date or deposited into the Debtor Borrowers' banking, checking, or other deposit accounts with financial institutions after the Petition Date constitutes "cash collateral" of DH1, CKD Funding and CKD Penn within the meaning of Bankruptcy Code section 363(a) (the "Cash Collateral").

G. Adequate Protection. Each of CKD Penn and CIF are entitled, pursuant to sections 105, 361, 362 and 363(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, to adequate protection of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral for any diminution in the value thereof.

H. Final Hearing. At the Final Hearing, the Debtors will seek entry of the Final Order, which shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the DIP Term Sheet. Notice of the Final Hearing and Final Order will be provided in accordance with this Interim Order.

I. Purpose and Necessity of Financing. The Debtors require the financing described in the Motion and as expressly provided in the DIP Term Sheet, this Interim Order , and certain formal loan documents to be entered into in connection with and upon entry of the Final Order, the "DIP Loan Documents") (i) to pay costs, fees and expenses of the NOLA DIP Lender, as provided for in the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order, as well as all scheduled payments of interest and principal thereunder, (ii) to provide working capital and for other general corporate purposes of the Debtor Borrowers, and (iii) to satisfy the administrative expenses of these Chapter 11 Cases and other claims or amounts allowed by this Court. If the Debtor Borrowers do not obtain authorization to borrow under the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order is not entered, the Debtor Borrowers will suffer immediate and irreparable harm. The Debtor Borrowers are unable to obtain financing on more favorable terms from sources other than the NOLA DIP Lender under the DIP Term Sheet and are unable to obtain adequate unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense. The Debtor Borrowers also are unable to obtain secured credit allowable under sections 364(c)(1), 364(c)(2), and 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code for the purposes set forth in the DIP Term Sheet without granting the NOLA DIP Lender superpriority claims, liens, and security interests, pursuant to sections 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, as provided in this Interim Order. After considering all alternatives, the Debtor Borrowers concluded, in the exercise of their prudent business judgment, that the loan facility provided under the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order represents the best working capital financing available to them at this time. The DIP Facility is the best loan available to the Debtor Borrowers and the Debtor Borrowers have been unsuccessful in their attempts to find any alternative financing. Additionally, the terms of the DIP Facility are fair and reasonable and reflect the Debtor Borrowers' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties.

J. Good Cause. The ability of the Debtor Borrowers to obtain sufficient working capital and liquidity under the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order is vital to the Debtor Borrowers, their estates, and creditors and stakeholders. The liquidity to be provided under the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order will enable the Debtor Borrowers to continue to operate their businesses in the ordinary course and preserve the value of their businesses. The Debtor Borrowers' estates will be immediately and irreparably harmed if this Interim Order is not entered. Good cause has, therefore, been shown for the relief sought in the Motion.

K. Good Faith. The DIP Facility, the DIP Term Sheet, and this Interim Order have been negotiated in good faith and at arm's length among the Debtor Borrowers and the NOLA DIP Lender, and all of the obligations and indebtedness arising under, in respect of or in connection with the DIP Facility, the DIP Term Sheet, and this Interim Order, including without limitation, all loans made to the Debtor Borrowers pursuant to the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order, and any other obligations under the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order (all of the foregoing, collectively, the "DIP Obligations"), shall be deemed to have been extended by the NOLA DIP Lender and their affiliates in good faith, as that term is used in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and in express reliance upon the protections offered by section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the DIP Obligations, the DIP Liens (as defined below), and the Superpriority Claims (as defined below), shall be entitled to the full protection of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and the terms, conditions, benefits, and privileges of this Interim Order regardless of whether this Interim Order is subsequently reversed, vacated, modified, or otherwise is no longer in full force and effect or the Chapter 11 Cases are subsequently converted or dismissed.

L. Consideration. All of the Debtor Borrowers will receive and have received fair consideration and reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the DIP Facility and all other financial accommodations provided under the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order.

M. Immediate Entry of Interim Order. The Debtors have requested immediate entry of this Interim Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 4001. The permission granted herein to enter into the DIP Facility and to obtain funds thereunder is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtor Borrowers. This Court concludes that entry of this Interim Order is in the best interests of the Debtors' respective estates, creditors and stakeholders as its implementation will, among other things, allow for the continued operation of the Debtor Borrowers' existing businesses and further enhance the Debtor Borrowers' prospects for a successful restructuring.

N. Notice. Upon the record presented to this Court at the Hearing, and under the exigent circumstances set forth therein, notice of the Motion and the emergency relief requested thereby and granted in this Interim Order has been provided in accordance with Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b) and 4001(c)(1) and Local Rule 9013-5, which notice was appropriate under the circumstances and sufficient for the Motion. No other or further notice of the Motion or entry of this Interim Order is required.

Based upon the foregoing findings and conclusions, the Motion and the record before the Court with respect to the Motion, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

i. the execution, delivery and performance of the DIP Term Sheet, including, without limitation, any guarantees, any security and pledge agreements, and any mortgages contemplated thereby;

ii. the non-refundable payment of the fees referred to in the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order and costs and expenses as may be due in accordance with the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order, and

iii. the performance of all other acts required under or in connection with the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order.

d. The DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order constitute valid, binding and non-avoidable obligations of the Debtors enforceable against each person or entity party thereto in accordance with their respective terms for all purposes during the Chapter 11 Cases, any subsequently converted case of any Debtor Borrower under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, or after the dismissal of any case. No obligation, payment, transfer, or grant of security under the DIP Term Sheet or this Interim Order shall be stayed, restrained, voidable, avoidable, or recoverable under the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable law (including without limitation, under sections 502(d), 547, 548 or 549 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable state Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, or similar statute or common law), or subject to any avoidance, reduction, setoff, recoupment, offset, recharacterization, subordination (whether equitable, contractual, or otherwise), counterclaims, cross-claims, defenses, disallowance, impairment, or any other challenges under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable foreign or domestic law or regulation by any person or entity.

4. Carve-Out.

a. Amount of Carve-Out. The relative priority of all amounts owed under the DIP Facility will be subject only to a "Carve-Out" in an amount equal to, without duplication: (a) the costs and administrative expenses permitted to be incurred by any Chapter 7 trustee under section 726(b) of the Bankruptcy Code pursuant to an order of the Bankruptcy Court following any conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to section 1112 of the Bankruptcy Code in an amount not to exceed $25,000; (b) the amount equal to: (i) the cash held in the Escrow Account (as defined in the DIP Term Sheet) with respect to any fees and expenses incurred by the Debtors' independent fiduciary, the Debtors' counsel, and the Debtors' financial advisor prior to an Event of Default in an amount not to exceed the amount set forth in the Approved Budget, whether or not such fees, expenses, and costs have been approved by the Bankruptcy Court as of such date, plus (ii) up to $150,000 in the aggregate to pay any allowed fees, expenses, and costs incurred by the Debtors' independent fiduciary, counsel, financial adviser, and notice and claims agent following the occurrence of an Event of Default; and (c) fees owed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930.

b. Payment of Allowed Professional Fees Prior to Event of Default. Any payment or reimbursement made prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default in respect of any allowed fees, expenses, and costs incurred by the Debtors' independent fiduciary, counsel, financial adviser, and notice and claims agent shall not reduce the Carve-Out.

c. Payment of Allowed Professional Fees After Event of Default. Any payment or reimbursement made on or after the occurrence of an Event of Default in respect of any allowed fees, expenses, and costs incurred by the Debtors' independent fiduciary, counsel, financial adviser, and notice and claims agent shall permanently reduce the Carve Out on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

5. Payment of DIP Facility Fees and Expenses.

a. The Debtor Borrowers are hereby authorized and directed to pay upon demand, all other fees, costs, expenses and other amounts payable under the terms of the DIP Term Sheet (and/or the DIP Loan Documents) and this Interim Order and all other fees and out-of-pocket costs and expenses of the NOLA DIP Lender in accordance with the terms of the DIP Term Sheet (and/or the DIP Loan Documents) and this Interim Order, including, without limitation, all documented fees and out-of-pocket costs and expenses of ArentFox Schiff LLP as counsel to the NOLA DIP Lender (the "DIP Professional Fees and Expenses"), subject to receiving a written invoice therefor. None of such fees, costs, expenses or other amounts shall be subject to further application to or approval of this Court, and shall not be subject to allowance or review by this Court or subject to the U.S. Trustee's fee guidelines, and no attorney or advisor to the NOLA DIP Lender shall be required to file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with this Court; provided, however, that copies of any such invoices shall be provided contemporaneously to the U.S. Trustee and counsel to any Official Committee (if one exists) (together with the Debtor Borrowers, the "Review Parties"); provided further, however, that such invoices may be redacted or modified to the extent necessary to delete any information subject to the attorney-client privilege, any information constituting attorney work product, or any other confidential information, and the provision of such invoices shall not constitute a waiver of the attorney-client privilege or any benefits of the attorney work product doctrine. Any objections raised by any Review Party with respect to such invoices must be in writing and state with particularity the grounds therefor and must be submitted to the affected professional within ten

(10) calendar days after delivery of such invoices to the Review Parties (such ten (10) day calendar period, the "Review Period"). If no written objection is received prior to the expiration of the Review Period from the Review Parties, the Debtor Borrowers shall pay such invoices within five (5) calendar days following the expiration of the Review Period. If an objection is received within the Review Period, the Debtor Borrowers shall promptly pay the undisputed amount of the invoice within five (5) calendar days, and the disputed portion of such invoice shall not be paid until such dispute is resolved by agreement between the affected professional and the objecting party or by order of this Court. Any hearing to consider such an objection to the payment of any fees, costs or expenses set forth in a professional fee invoice hereunder shall be limited to the reasonableness of the fees, costs and expenses that are the subject of such objection. All such unpaid fees, costs, expenses and other amounts owed or payable to the NOLA DIP Lender shall be secured by the DIP Collateral and afforded all of the priorities and protections afforded to the DIP Obligations under the DIP Term Sheet (and/or the DIP Loan Documents) and this Interim Order.

b. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the fees, costs and expenses of the NOLA DIP Lender under the terms of the DIP Term Sheet, whether incurred prior to or after the Petition Date shall be deemed fully earned, non-refundable, irrevocable, and non-avoidable, and the Debtor Borrowers are authorized and directed to pay in full in cash all unpaid DIP Professional Fees and Expenses arising through and including the Initial Draw, without the need for any professional engaged by or on behalf of the DIP Lender to first deliver a copy of its invoice to any of the Review Parties (other than Debtor Borrowers). All unpaid fees, costs, and expenses shall be included and constitute part of the principal amount of the DIP Obligations and be secured by the DIP Liens.

c. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Interim Order to the contrary, any and all payments, premiums, fees, costs, expenses, and other amounts paid at any time by any of the Debtor Borrowers to the NOLA DIP Lender pursuant to the requirements of this Interim Order or the DIP Term Sheet (and/or the DIP Loan Documents) shall be non-refundable and irrevocable, are hereby approved, and shall not be subject to any challenge, objection, defense, claim or cause of action of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, avoidance (whether under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or under applicable law (including any applicable state law Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act or similar statute or common law)), reduction, setoff, offset, recoupment, recharacterization, subordination (whether equitable, contractual, or otherwise), reclassification, disgorgement, disallowance, impairment, marshaling, surcharge, or recovery or any other cause of action, whether arising under the Bankruptcy Code, applicable non- bankruptcy law or otherwise, by any person or entity (subject, solely in the case of the DIP Professional Fees and Expenses, to paragraph 5(a) of this Interim Order).

6. Superpriority Claims. The Superpriority Claim granted in this paragraph shall be subject and subordinate in priority of payment only to, the Carve-Out.

(ii) a first priority, perfected security interest in, and lien, under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code upon all property and assets (including Cash Collateral) of each Debtor Borrower (including, subject to the Final Order, CBRM) and of each Debtor Borrower's estate that is, as of the Petition Date, subject to valid, perfected, and non-avoidable liens in favor of the DIP Lenders.

(b) The liens created as described in clauses (i) and (ii) above (the "DIP Liens") shall cover all property and assets (including Cash Collateral) of the Debtor Borrowers and their estates (now or hereafter acquired and all proceeds thereof), except (i) until entry of the Final Order, Avoidance Actions[4] and their proceeds; (ii) until entry of the Final Order, any proceeds of the Estate Litigation Assets[5]; (iii) until entry of the Final Order, any proceeds of the Assigned Litigation Assets[6]; (iv) until entry of the Final Order, all property and assets of CBRM); and (v) as otherwise agreed to by the DIP Secured Parties (collectively, the "DIP Collateral", and together with the Prepetition Collateral, collectively, "Collateral").

(c) The DIP Liens shall be effective immediately upon the entry of this Interim Order and subject only to the Carve-Out.

(d) Except as provided in this Interim Order, the DIP Liens shall not at any time be (i) made subject or subordinated to, or made pari passu with, any other lien or security interest

4 "Avoidance Actions" shall mean all claims and causes of action under sections 502(d), 544, 545, 547, 548, and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other avoidance actions under the Bankruptcy Code or other federal law or applicable state law.

5 "Estate Litigation Assets" shall mean any claims or causes of action, including claims or causes of action under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law, held by the Debtor Borrowers or their estates and the proceeds thereof, other than any such claims or causes of action against any NOLA DIP Lender and the NOLA DIP Lender's respective affiliates, principals, affiliates, officers, employees, agents and other representatives. For the avoidance of any doubt, the Estate Litigation Assets shall include any claim or cause of action, including any claim or cause of action under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law, held by the Debtors or their estates and the proceeds thereof against Moshe (Mark) Silber, Frederick Schulman, Piper Sandler & Co., and any other current or former insiders of the Debtors.

6 "Assigned Litigation Assets" shall mean any claims or causes of action or the proceeds thereof, in whole or in part, that any entity (including any creditors of the Debtors or their estates) contributes, assigns, sells to, or abandons to the Debtors or their estates, or any successor to the Debtors or their estates, including any Litigation Trust.

existing as of the Petition Date, or created under sections 363 or 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, or (ii) subject to any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtor Borrowers' estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(e) The DIP Liens shall be and hereby are fully perfected liens and security interests, effective and perfected upon the date of this Interim Order without the necessity of execution by the Debtors of mortgages, security agreements, pledge agreements, financing agreements, financing statements or other agreements, such that no additional steps need be taken by the NOLA DIP Lender to perfect such interests. Any provision of any lease, loan document, easement, use agreement, proffer, covenant, license, contract, organizational document, or other instrument or agreement that requires the consent or approval of one or more landlords, licensors, or other parties, or requires the payment of any fees or obligations to any governmental entity, non-governmental entity or any other person, in order for any of the Debtor Borrowers to pledge, grant, mortgage, sell, assign, or otherwise transfer any fee or leasehold interest or the proceeds thereof or other collateral, shall have no force or effect with respect to the transactions granting in favor of the NOLA DIP Lender a priority security interest in such fee, leasehold or other interest or other collateral or the proceeds of any assignment, sale or other transfer thereof, by any of the Debtor Borrowers in favor of the NOLA DIP Lender, in accordance with the terms of the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order.

(f) The DIP Liens, Superpriority Claims, and other rights, benefits, and remedies granted under this Interim Order and the DIP Term Sheet in favor of the NOLA DIP

Lender, shall continue in these Chapter 11 Cases, in any superseding case or cases under the Bankruptcy Code (including without limitation any case for any Debtor under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code), and following any dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases, and such liens and claims shall maintain their priority as provided in this Interim Order until all the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash and completely satisfied, and the NOLA DIP Lender's commitments have been terminated in accordance with the DIP Term Sheet.

8. Adequate Protection for CKD Penn. Subject only to the payment of the Carve Out, pursuant to sections 361, 363(e), and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, and in consideration of the stipulations and consents set forth herein, as adequate protection of CKD Penn's interests in the Prepetition Collateral, for any diminution in value of such interests (each such diminution, a "Diminution in Value"), resulting from, among other things, the imposition of the priming DIP Liens on the Prepetition Collateral, the Carve Out, the Debtors' use of the Prepetition Collateral, and the imposition of the automatic stay, CKD Penn is hereby granted the following (collectively, the "Adequate Protection Obligations"):

a. Adequate Protection Liens. As security for any Diminution in Value, additional and replacement, valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and effective and automatically perfected postpetition security interests in and liens as of the date of this Interim Order (together, the "Adequate Protection Liens"), whether certificated or uncertificated and without the necessity of the execution by the Debtors (or recordation or other filing), of security agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements, mortgages, or other similar documents, on 90% of the equity interests of Sycamore Meadows Apartments, LTD indirectly held by Crown, and the proceeds of any such interests. Subject to the terms of this Interim Order, the Adequate Protection Liens shall be subordinate only to the (A) Carve Out, (B) the DIP Liens, and (C) Permitted Prior Liens. The Adequate Protection Liens shall otherwise be senior to all other security interests in, liens on, or claims against any of the DIP Collateral (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors and their estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code).

b. Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims. As further adequate protection, in accordance with sections 503(b), 507(a), and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, allowed administrative expense claims in each of the Debtor Borrowers' Chapter 11 Cases ahead of and senior to any and all other administrative expense claims in each of the Debtor Borrowers' Chapter 11 Cases to the extent of any postpetition Diminution in Value (the "Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims"), but junior to the Carve Out and the DIP Superpriority Claims. Subject to the Carve Out and the DIP Superpriority Claims in all respects, the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims will not be junior to any claims and shall have priority over all administrative expense claims against each of the Debtor Borrowers, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, administrative expense claims of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c) (subject to entry of the Final Order), 507(a), 507(b), 546(d), 726, 1113 and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code.

c. Adequate Protection Payments. As further adequate protection, the Debtor Borrowers are authorized and directed to timely pay, in accordance with the terms of this Interim Order, all reasonable and documented fees and out-of-pocket expenses, whether incurred before, on or after the Petition Date, to the extent not duplicative of any fees and/or expenses paid pursuant to paragraph [5] hereof, including all reasonable and documented fees and expenses of counsel and other professionals retained as provided for in the DIP Term Sheet, DIP Loan Documents and this Interim Order, including, for the avoidance of doubt, of ArentFox Schiff LLP, as counsel to the NOLA DIP Lender (all payments referenced in this sentence, collectively, the "Adequate Protection Payments"). None of the Adequate Protection Payments shall be subject to separate approval by this Court or the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, and no recipient of any such payment shall be required to file any monthly, interim or final fee application with respect thereto or otherwise seek the Court's approval of any such payments.

d. Right to Seek Additional Adequate Protection. This Interim Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly, the rights of the Prepetition First Lien Lenders to request further or alternative forms of adequate protection at any time or the rights of the Debtors or any other party to contest such request. Nothing herein shall impair or modify the application of section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that the adequate protection provided to CKD Penn is insufficient to compensate for any Diminution in Value of their interests in the Prepetition Collateral during the Chapter 11 Cases. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed a finding by the Court, or an acknowledgment by any of the Prepetition First Lien Lenders that the adequate protection granted herein does in fact adequately protect any of the Prepetition First Lien Lenders against any Diminution in Value of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including the Cash Collateral).

e. Other Covenants. The Debtor Borrowers shall maintain their cash management arrangements in a manner consistent with the cash management order approving the Debtor Borrowers' cash management motion. The Debtor Borrowers shall comply with the covenants contained in the DIP Term Sheet and DIP Loan Documents regarding conduct of business, including, without limitation, preservation of rights, qualifications, licenses, permits, privileges, franchises, governmental authorizations and intellectual property rights material to the conduct of their business and the maintenance of properties, assets and insurance.

f. Miscellaneous. Except for (i) the Carve Out and (ii) as otherwise provided in paragraphs [6 and 7], the Adequate Protection Liens and Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims granted to CKD Penn pursuant to paragraph [8] of this Interim Order shall not be subject, junior, or pari passu, to any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtor Borrowers' estates under the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, pursuant to section 551 or otherwise, and shall not be subordinated to or made pari passu with any lien, security interest or administrative claim under the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, pursuant to section 364 or otherwise.

9. Adequate Protection for CIF. As adequate protection of the interests of CIF in its Prepetition Collateral to the extent of any postpetition Diminution in Value of such interests resulting from, among other things, the imposition of the priming DIP Liens on CIF's Prepetition Collateral, the Carve-Out, the Debtors' use of CIF's Prepetition Collateral, and the imposition of the automatic stay, CIF is hereby granted the following: (a) continuing, valid, binding, enforceable and perfected security interests and liens on CIF's Prepetition Collateral, which shall be junior in all respects to the Carve-Out, the DIP Liens, and the Prepetition First Priority Liens and CKD Penn Prepetition Junior Liens, but otherwise senior to all other security interests in, liens on, or claims against CIF's Prepetition Collateral; and (b) allowed administrative expense claims against the estate of Debtor RH Lakewind East LLC for repayment of CIF's alleged prepetition mortgage to the extent of any postpetition Diminution in Value, which shall be junior in all respects to the Carve-Out, the NOLA DIP Facility, and all superpriority claims granted to the NOLA DIP Lender under the NOLA DIP Facility, but otherwise senior to any and all other administrative expense claims in such Debtor's Chapter 11 Case.

10. Section 507(b) Reservation. Subject only to the Carve Out, nothing herein shall impair or modify the application of section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that the adequate protection provided to CKD Penn is insufficient to compensate for any Diminution in Value of CKD Penn's interest in the Prepetition Junior Lien Collateral during the Chapter 11 Cases. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed a finding by the Court, or an acknowledgment by any of the Prepetition First Lien Lenders that the adequate protection granted herein does in fact adequately protect any of the Prepetition First Lien Lenders against any Diminution in Value of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including the Cash Collateral).

11. Insurance. Until the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full, at all times, the Debtor Borrowers shall maintain casualty and loss insurance coverage for the Prepetition Collateral and the DIP Collateral on substantially the same basis as maintained prior to the Petition Date and shall name the NOLA DIP Lender as loss payee or additional insured, as applicable, thereunder.

12. Perfection of DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens.

a. Each NOLA DIP Lender is hereby authorized, but not required, to file or record financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments in any jurisdiction, or take possession of or control over, or take any other action in order to validate and perfect the liens and security interests granted to them hereunder, in each case without the necessity to pay any mortgage recording fee or similar fee or tax. Whether or not any NOLA DIP Lender shall, in its sole discretion, chooses to file such financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments, or take possession of or control over, or otherwise confirm perfection of the liens and security interests granted to them hereunder, such liens and security interests shall be deemed valid, perfected, allowed, enforceable, non-avoidable, and not subject to challenge dispute or subordination, at the time and as of the date of entry of this Interim Order. The Debtor Borrowers shall, if requested, execute and deliver to the NOLA DIP Lender all such agreements, financing statements, instruments and other documents as the NOLA DIP Lender may reasonably request to more fully evidence, confirm, validate, perfect, preserve, and enforce the DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens. All such documents will be deemed to have been recorded and filed as of the date of entry of this Interim Order.

b. A certified copy of this Interim Order may, in the discretion of the NOLA DIP Lender, be filed with or recorded in filing or recording offices in addition to or in lieu of such financing statements, mortgages, notices of lien, or similar instruments, and all filing offices are hereby directed to accept such certified copy of this Interim Order for filing and recording.

13. Authority to Execute and Deliver Necessary Documents.

a. All of the DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens shall be effective and perfected as of the entry of this Interim Order and without the necessity of the execution of mortgages, security agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements, or other agreements.

b. Each of the Debtor Borrowers is hereby further authorized and directed to (i) perform all of its obligations under the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order, and such other agreements as may be required by the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order to give effect to the terms of the financing provided for therein and in this Interim Order, and (ii) perform all acts required under the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order.

c. The Debtor Borrowers shall execute all documents and take all actions required to effectuate the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order, including, without limitation, executing all instruments which may be requested by the NOLA DIP Lender and in accordance with the DIP Term Sheet.

d. All obligations under the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order shall constitute valid and binding obligations of each of the Debtor Borrowers enforceable against each of them, and each of their successors and assigns, in accordance with their terms and the terms of this Interim Order. No obligation, payment, transfer, or grant of a security interest under the DIP Term Sheet or this Interim Order shall be stayed, restrained, voidable, or recoverable under the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable law or subject to avoidance, reduction, setoff, recoupment, offset, recharacterization, subordination (whether equitable, contractual, or otherwise), counterclaims, cross-claims, defenses, disallowance, impairment, or any other challenges under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable foreign or domestic law or regulation by any person or entity.

14. Amendments, Consents, Waivers, and Modifications. The Debtor Borrowers, with the express written consent of the NOLA DIP Lender, may enter into any amendments, consents, waivers, or modifications to the DIP Term Sheet without the need for further notice and hearing or any order of this Court, provided that such amendments, consents, waivers, or modifications do not shorten the Maturity Date, increase commitments or the rate of interest payable under the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order, require the payment of a fee, change any Event of Default, add any covenants, or amend the covenants in the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order to be materially more restrictive; provided, however, that a copy of any such amendment, consent, waiver or other modification shall be served by the Debtors on the U.S. Trustee and any Official Committee.

15. Budget; Use of Proceeds. All expenditures of the Debtor Borrowers shall be made subject to the Approved Budget, attached as Exhibit B to this Interim Order. The Debtor Borrowers shall not permit aggregate expenditures under the Approved Budget to exceed one hundred and fifteen percent (115%) of the total budgeted expenses or aggregate cash receipts under the Approved Budget to be less than eighty-five percent (85%) of the total budgeted cash receipts, in each case calculated on a rolling two-week basis commencing as of the Petition Date, with the first such testing to begin two weeks after the Petition Date; provided, however, that the cash disbursements considered for determining compliance with this covenant shall exclude disbursements in respect of (x) the NOLA DIP Lender's expenses and professional fees and (y) payments made to vendors that qualify as "Critical Vendors" and are approved by the NOLA DIP Lender and interest due under the existing mortgage. The Approved Budget may be amended only with the consent of the NOLA DIP Lender.

16. Financial Reporting. After entry of the Interim Order, the Debtor Borrowers shall:

a. provide to the NOLA DIP Lender, as soon as available but no later than 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on the last Friday of the rolling two-week period, a budget variance and reconciliation report setting forth: (i) a comparative reconciliation, on a line-by-line basis, of actual cash receipts and disbursements against the cash receipts and disbursements forecast in the Approved Budget, and (ii) the percentage variance of the aggregate receipts and aggregate disbursements, for (A) the rolling two-week period ended on (and including) the last Sunday of the two-week reporting period and (B) the cumulative period to date, (iii) projections for the following nine weeks, including a rolling cash receipts and disbursements forecast for such period, and (iv) such other information requested from time to time by the NOLA DIP Lender;

b. provide to the NOLA DIP Lender or its counsel or advisors (i) (a) usual and customary financial reporting based on the Debtors' prior practice, taking into account the debtor-in-possession status of the Debtors, (b) prompt delivery (email shall suffice) to the NOLA DIP Lender, and in any event within 5 business days after receipt thereof by any Debtor, copies of each notice or other correspondence received from any federal or state authority or agency of the United States (or comparable state authority or agency in any applicable non-U.S. jurisdiction) concerning the NOLA Properties (as defined in the DIP Term Sheet), any investigation or possible investigation or other inquiry by such department or agency regarding financial or other operational results or activities of any Debtor, and (c) upon request of the NOLA DIP Lender, prompt delivery (email shall suffice) of copies of any detailed audit reports, management letters, or recommendations submitted to the independent director or CRO of any Debtor by independent accountants in connection with the books or accounts of any Debtor; and

c. weekly updates on the uses of capital expenditures on the NOLA Properties and any sale process (including, without limitation, full copies of any preliminary and final bids received).

17. Reservation of Rights of the NOLA DIP Lender and Prepetition First Lien Lenders. Subject only to the Carve Out, notwithstanding any other provision in this Interim Order or the other DIP Documents to the contrary, the entry of this Interim Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly, or otherwise impair: (a) any of the rights of any of the Prepetition First Lien Lenders to seek any other or supplemental relief in respect of the Debtors including the right to seek additional adequate protection at and following the Final Hearing; provided that any such further or different adequate protection shall at all times be subordinate and junior to the Carve Out and the claims and liens of the DIP Secured Parties granted under this Interim Order and the other DIP Documents; (b) any of the rights of the NOLA DIP Lender or the Prepetition First Lien Lenders under the DIP Term Sheet, the DIP Loan Documents, the Prepetition First Lien Loans, any intercreditor agreement, or the Bankruptcy Code or under non-bankruptcy law (as applicable), including, without limitation, the right of any of the NOLA DIP Lender or the Prepetition First Lien Lenders to (i) request modification of the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) request dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases, conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7, or appointment of a chapter 11 trustee or examiner with expanded powers in any of the Cases, (iii) seek to propose, subject to the provisions of section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code, a chapter 11 plan or plans; or (c) any other rights, claims, or privileges (whether legal, equitable, or otherwise) of any of the NOLA DIP Lender or the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties. The delay in or failure of the NOLA DIP Lender and/or the Prepetition First Lien Lenders to seek relief or otherwise exercise their rights and remedies shall not constitute a waiver of any of the NOLA DIP Lender or the Prepetition First Lien Lenders' rights and remedies. For all adequate protection purposes throughout the Chapter 11 Cases, each of the Prepetition First Lien Lenders shall be deemed to have requested relief from the automatic stay and adequate protection for any Diminution in Value from and after the Petition Date. For the avoidance of doubt, such request will survive termination of this Interim Order.

18. Reservation of Third-Party Rights and Bar of Challenges and Claims. Subject to the Challenge Period (as defined herein), the stipulations, admissions, waivers, and releases contained in this Interim Order, including the Debtors' Stipulations, shall be binding upon the Debtors, their estates, and any of their respective successors in all circumstances and for all purposes and the Debtors are deemed to have irrevocably waived and relinquished all Challenges (as defined below) as of the Petition Date. The stipulations, admissions, and waivers contained in this Interim Order, including, the Debtors' Stipulations, shall be binding upon all other parties in interest, including any Official Committee and any other person acting on behalf of the Debtors' estates, unless and to the extent that a party in interest with proper standing granted by order of the Court (or other court of competent jurisdiction) has timely and properly filed an adversary proceeding or contested matter under the Bankruptcy Rules (i) before the earlier of (a) the deadline to object to confirmation of the Debtors' plan of reorganization or (b) the earlier of (I) except as to any Official Committee, sixty (60) calendar days after entry of the Interim Order, and (II) in the case of any such adversary proceeding or contested matter filed by any Official Committee, forty-five (45) calendar days after the appointment of such Official Committee (the "Challenge Period" and the date of expiration of the Challenge Period, the "Challenge Period Termination Date"); provided, however, that if, prior to the end of the Challenge Period, (x) the cases convert to chapter 7, or (y) if a chapter 11 trustee is appointed, then, in each such case, the Challenge Period shall be extended by the later of (A) the time remaining under the Challenge Period plus ten (10) days or (B) such other time as ordered by the Court solely with respect to any such trustee, commencing on the occurrence of either of the events discussed in the foregoing clauses (x) and (y); (ii) seeking to avoid, object to, or otherwise challenge the findings or Debtors' Stipulations regarding: (a) the validity, enforceability, extent, priority, or perfection of the mortgages, security interests, and liens of the Prepetition First Lien Lenders and CKD Penn; or (b) the validity, enforceability, allowability, priority, secured status, or amount of the Prepetition First Lien Obligations and CKD Penn Prepetition Junior Liens (any such claim, a "Challenge"), and (iii) in which the Court enters a final order in favor of the plaintiff sustaining any such Challenge in any such timely filed adversary proceeding or contested matter. Upon the expiration of the Challenge Period Termination Date without the filing of a Challenge (or if any such Challenge is filed and overruled): (a) any and all such Challenges by any party (including the Official Committee, any chapter 11 trustee, and/or any examiner or other estate representative appointed or elected in these Cases, and any chapter 7 trustee and/or examiner or other estate representative appointed or elected in any successor case) shall be forever barred; (b) the Prepetition First Lien Obligations shall constitute allowed claims, not subject to counterclaim, setoff, recoupment, reduction, subordination, recharacterization, defense, or avoidance for all purposes in the Cases and any successor cases; (c) the Prepetition First Priority Liens shall be deemed to have been, as of the Petition Date, legal, valid, binding, and perfected secured claims, not subject to recharacterization, subordination, or avoidance; and (d) all of the Debtors' stipulations and admissions contained in this Interim Order, including the Debtors' Stipulations, and all other waivers, releases, affirmations, and other stipulations as to the priority, extent, and validity as to the Prepetition First Lien Lenders' claims, liens, and interests contained in this Interim Order shall be of full force and effect and forever binding upon the Debtor Borrowers, the Debtor Borrowers' estates, and all creditors, interest holders, and other parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases and any successor cases. If any such adversary proceeding or contested matter is timely and properly filed under the Bankruptcy Rules and this Interim Order, and remains pending and the Chapter 11 Cases are converted to chapter 7, the chapter 7 trustee may continue to prosecute such adversary proceeding or contested matter on behalf of the Debtor Borrowers' estates. Furthermore, if any such adversary proceeding or contested matter is timely and properly filed under the Bankruptcy Rules and in accordance with this Interim Order, the stipulations and admissions contained in this Interim Order, including the Debtors' Stipulations, shall nonetheless remain binding and preclusive on any Official Committee and any other person or entity except to the extent that such stipulations and admissions were expressly challenged in such adversary proceeding or contested matter prior to the Challenge Period Termination Date. Nothing in this Interim Order vests or confers on any person (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), including, without limitation, any Official Committee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, standing or authority to pursue any cause of action belonging to the Debtor Borrowers or their estates, including, without limitation any challenges (including a Challenge) with respect to the Prepetition First Priority Liens, CKD Penn Prepetition Junior Liens, Prepetition First Lien Obligations or any obligations with respect to the CKD Penn Guaranty, and a separate order of the Court conferring such standing on any Official Committee or other party-in-interest shall be a prerequisite for the prosecution of a Challenge by such Official Committee or such other party-in-interest.

19. Maturity Date. Consistent with the DIP Term Sheet, maturity date ("Maturity Date") shall be the earliest to occur of (i) October 30, 2025; (ii) the closing date following entry of one or more final orders approving the NOLA Restructuring Transaction (as defined in the DIP Term Sheet); (iii) the acceleration of any outstanding DIP Loan following the occurrence of an Event of Default; (iv) the filing of a plan which is inconsistent with terms of the DIP Term Sheet or the DIP Loan Documents; or (v) entry of an order by the Bankruptcy Court in the Chapter 11 Cases either (a) dismissing the Chapter 11 Cases or converting one or more Chapter 11 Cases to Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) the Bankruptcy Court does not authorize or approve the DIP Facility Liens, or (c) appointing a Chapter 11 trustee or an examiner with enlarged powers relating to the operation of the business of the Debtors (i.e., powers beyond those set forth in sections 1106(a)(3) and (4) of the Bankruptcy Code), in each case without the consent of the NOLA DIP Lender; provided, however, that to the extent that the Debtors effectuate a NOLA Restructuring Transaction as a sale under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, rather than under the Chapter 11 Plan, the Maturity Date shall be abated pending confirmation of the Chapter 11 Plan and consummation of the Chapter 11 Plan. All amounts outstanding under the DIP Facility shall be due and payable in full, and the DIP Commitments thereunder shall terminate on the Maturity Date.

20. Events of Default. The occurrence of any of the following events shall constitute an "Event of Default" under the DIP Term Sheet:

a. the Debtor Borrowers' failure to make debt-service or other payments when due hereunder;

c. the Debtor Borrowers' failure to satisfy any material obligations set forth in the DIP Term Sheet and/or any related DIP Loan Documents;

g. failure by the Debtor Borrowers to file and confirm a chapter 11 plan in accordance with the applicable milestones;

h. the confirmation of a chapter 11 plan inconsistent with the DIP Term Sheet; and

i. the filing of a 363 motion for the NOLA Properties that is inconsistent with the DIP Term Sheet.

21. Remedies Upon Event of Default. Upon the occurrence of and during the continuance of an Event of Default, (i) the Debtor Borrowers shall be bound by all restrictions, prohibitions and other terms as provided in this Interim Order and the DIP Term Sheet, and (ii) the NOLA DIP Lender, shall be entitled to take any act or exercise any right or remedy as provided in this Interim Order or the DIP Term Sheet, including, without limitation, suspending or immediately terminating the DIP Facility; provided, however, that in the case of the enforcement of rights pursuant to this paragraph, the NOLA DIP Lender shall provide counsel to the Debtors, counsel to any Official Committee (if one exists), and the U.S. Trustee with five (5) business days' prior written notice (such period, the "Remedies Notice Period"). Immediately upon the expiration of the Remedies Notice Period, the Court shall hold an emergency hearing when the Court is available (the "Enforcement Hearing") at which the Debtors, any Official Committee, and/or any other party in interest shall be entitled to seek a determination from the Court solely as to whether an Event of Default has occurred, and at the conclusion of the Enforcement Hearing, the Court may fashion an appropriate remedy that is consistent with the terms of this Interim Order. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no enforcement rights set forth in this paragraph shall be exercised prior to the Court holding an Enforcement Hearing, subject to Court availability, and the expiration of the Remedies Notice Period, and the Remedies Notice Period shall not expire until the conclusion of the Enforcement Hearing and the issuance of a ruling by the Court if such Enforcement Hearing is conducted by the Court.

22. Automatic Stay Modified. The automatic stay provisions of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code hereby are, to the extent applicable, vacated, and modified to the extent necessary without the need for any further order of this Court, as follows: upon an Event of Default under the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order, the NOLA DIP Lender is authorized to exercise any and all of their rights and remedies in accordance with the terms of the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order, and to take all actions required or permitted by the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order without necessity of further Court orders, provided that the NOLA DIP Lender shall give five (5) business days notice to counsel to the Debtors, counsel to any Official Committee, and the U.S. Trustee of such action, and this Interim Order shall not prejudice the rights of any party in interest to oppose the exercise of the NOLA DIP Lender's remedies.

23. Subsequent Reversal or Modification. This Interim Order is entered pursuant to section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, and Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b) and (c), granting the NOLA DIP Lender all protections afforded by section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. If any or all of the provisions of this Interim Order are hereafter reversed, modified, vacated or stayed, that action will not affect (i) the validity of any obligation, indebtedness, or liability incurred hereunder by any of the Debtor Borrowers to the NOLA DIP Lender, prior to the date of receipt by the NOLA DIP Lender of written notice of the effective date of such action or (ii) the validity and enforceability of any lien, claim, or priority authorized or created under the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order. Notwithstanding any such reversal, stay, modification, or vacatur, any postpetition indebtedness, obligation, or liability incurred by any of the Debtor Borrowers to the NOLA DIP Lender, prior to written notice to the NOLA DIP Lender of the effective date of such action, shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Interim Order and the NOLA DIP Lender shall be entitled to all the rights, remedies, privileges, and benefits granted herein and in the DIP Term Sheet with respect to all such indebtedness, obligations, or liability.

24. Collateral Rights. In the event that any person or entity that holds a lien or security interest in Collateral of the Debtor Borrowers or their estates that is junior or subordinate to the DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens in such Collateral of the Debtor Borrowers or their estates receives or is paid the proceeds of such Collateral of the Debtor Borrowers or their estates, or receives any other payment with respect thereto from any other source, prior to indefeasible payment in full in cash and the complete satisfaction of all DIP Obligations under the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order, and termination of the commitments in accordance with the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order, such junior or subordinate lienholder shall be deemed to have received, and shall hold, the proceeds of any such Collateral of the Debtor Borrowers or their estates in trust for the NOLA DIP Lender or CKD [or CIF], as applicable, and shall immediately turnover such proceeds to the NOLA DIP Lender, or CKD [or CIF], as applicable, for application in accordance with the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order.

In addition, upon the indefeasible payment and satisfaction in full of all DIP Obligations owed to the NOLA DIP Lenders by the Debtors, and termination of the rights and obligations arising under this Interim Order, the Final Order, the DIP Term Sheet and the DIP Loan Documents (which payment and termination shall be on terms and conditions acceptable to the NOLA DIP Lender), the NOLA DIP Lenders shall be automatically deemed to be absolutely and forever released and discharged from any and all obligations, liabilities, actions, duties, responsibilities, commitments, claims, and causes of action arising, occurring in connection with, or related to the DIP Term Sheet and DIP Loan Documents, this Interim Order, or the Final Order (whether known or unknown, direct or indirect, matured or contingent, foreseen or unforeseen, due or not due, primary or secondary, liquidated or unliquidated).

27. Rights Under Section 363(k). The full amount of the DIP Obligations may be used to "credit bid" for the assets and property of the Debtor Borrowers as provided for in section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, in accordance with the terms of the DIP Term Sheet and this Interim Order without the need for further Court order authorizing the same.

| Events of Default | The events of default in the Loan Documents shall be usual and customary for a DIP Loan of this nature including, without limitation, failure to make debt-service or other payments when due pursuant to the Loan Documents; failure of the Debtors to make deposits into the required accounts for which the Debtors are required to make such deposits; breach of any covenant; breach of representations and warranties; any action by the U.S. Department of Justice to initiate forfeiture proceedings against any asset owned either partially or entirely by any Debtor; judgments and attachments; making payments outside of the Approved Budget; failure to file and confirm the Chapter 11 Plan; and the filing of a chapter 11 plan inconsistent with this Term Sheet. |
| Bankruptcy Court Filings | As soon as practicable in advance of filing with the Bankruptcy Court, Debtors shall furnish to the DIP Lender (i) the motion seeking approval of and proposed form of the DIP Orders, which motion shall be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the DIP Lender; (ii) as applicable, any motions seeking approval of bidding procedures and any section 363 sale, and the proposed forms of orders related thereto, which shall be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the DIP Lender; and (iii) any motion and proposed form of order filed with the Bankruptcy Court relating to any management equity plan, incentive, retention or severance plan, and/or the assumption, rejection, modification or amendment of any material contract (each of which must be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the DIP Lender). |
| Indemnification and Release | The Debtors hereby agree to protect, defend, indemnify, release and hold harmless the DIP Lender, 3650 REIT Investment Management LLC ("REIT 3650"), any fund or separately-managed account that REIT 3650 manages, 3650 Special Situations Real Estate Investment Trust A LLC and its affiliated entities, Kelly Hamilton Lender LLC, The Lynd Group Holdings, LLC, Lynd Management Group LLC, Lynd Acquisitions Group, LLC, LAGSP, LLC and in each case such entity's respective affiliates, principals, affiliates, officers, employees, agents and other representatives (collectively, "Indemnified Parties") for, from and against any and all claims, suits, liabilities, losses, costs, expenses (including reasonable, out-of-pocket attorneys' fees and costs) imposed upon or incurred by or asserted against any Indemnified Party arising out of or relating to the Debtors (and any subsidiaries or affiliates), prior loans, mortgages, all avoidance actions under Title 11 of the U.S.C., this Term Sheet or the transactions contemplated thereby, except for those arising out of the willful misconduct or gross |

| | negligence of the DIP Lender as determined by a non-appealable court order. The foregoing indemnity shall include, without limitation, any costs and expenses incurred in the enforcement of any binding provisions of this Term Sheet. This indemnification provision shall survive in the event the Bankruptcy Court fails to approve the DIP Facility.The consideration for this indemnification and release is the DIP Lender's agreement, subject to approval by the Bankruptcy Court, to enter into the DIP Facility as provided in this Term Sheet. |
| Third-Party Release of Indemnified Parties | The Debtors agree that the Chapter 11 Plan filed with the Bankruptcy Court will include a third-party release of the Indemnified Parties subject to the right of third parties affected by such release to "opt out" of the release. For the avoidance of any doubt, the Debtors shall not be obligated under this Term Sheet to file or seek approval of a chapter 11 plan that includes a non-consensual third-party release of any person or entity. |
| Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement | The DIP Lender shall be entitled, subject to approval by the Bankruptcy Court, to enter into a stalking horse purchase agreement with respect to the Kelly Hamilton Debtor's assets under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to entry of the Interim Order and execution of a stalking horse purchase agreement for the Debtors' assets under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or the Chapter 11 Plan, the Debtors agree to seek approval of a reasonable stalking horse break-up fee of $250,000 to the DIP Lender to compensate the DIP Lender for out of pocket due diligence expenses, among other costs. |
| Fiduciary Duties | No term of this Term Sheet to the contrary, the Debtors shall have the right to take any action (or to refuse to take any action) to the extent that the Debtors determine that taking any such action (or declining to take any such action) is consistent with the Debtors' fiduciary duties. |

Closing Fees, Costs, and Expenses: Subject to approval of the DIP Facility by the Bankruptcy Court, whether or not the transaction contemplated herein closes, subject to available liquidity, the Kelly Hamilton Debtor shall be obligated to pay all of DIP Lender's out-of-pocket fees, costs and expenses (in each case, without markup) related to this transaction, including, without limitation, the fees and expenses of DIP Lender's outside counsel, title report fees and costs, survey costs, and costs incurred in obtaining and/or reviewing due diligence materials, including, without limitation, environmental and engineering reports and travel costs of DIP Lender's personnel or representatives.

Waiver of Right to Trial by Jury: Debtors, and by its acceptance hereof, DIP Lender, hereby expressly waive any right to trial by jury of any claim, demand, action or cause of action (1) arising under this Term Sheet, loan or DIP Funding or any other instrument, document or agreement executed or delivered in connection therewith, including, without limitation, any present or future modification thereof or (2) in any way connected with or related or incidental to the dealings of the parties hereto or any of them with respect to this Term Sheet (as now or hereafter modified) or the transaction related hereto, in each case whether such claim, demand, action or cause of action is new existing or hereafter arising, and whether sounding in contract or tort of otherwise; and each party hereby agrees and consents that any such claim, demand or cause of action shall be decided by a court trial without a jury.

Break-up Fee: In the event the Bankruptcy Court authorizes the Kelly Hamilton Debtor to obtain financing secured by the Kelly Hamilton Property from an alternative DIP lender (an "Approved Alternative Financing Transaction"), the Kelly Hamilton Debtor will immediately pay to the DIP Lender $250,000 (the "Break-up Fee"), which shall be an obligation of the Kelly Hamilton Debtor and payable upon, and solely from the proceeds of, the Approved Alternative Financing Transaction. Subject to approval of the DIP Facility by the Bankruptcy Court, the obligation of the Kelly Hamilton Debor to pay the Break-up Fee shall survive the termination of this Term Sheet.

DIP Lender has specifically advised Debtors that it is devoting considerable internal resources to successfully consummate a transaction as contemplated in this Term Sheet and as such, it is not only expending meaningful costs and expenses in addition to reimbursable third-party out-of-pocket expenses, but, also and more importantly, foregoing other investment opportunities. To address this significant financial commitment to be made by DIP Lender, prior to the execution of this Term Sheet, the parties hereto have (i) discussed a potential determination of DIP Lender's damages in the event that Debtors were to breach the exclusivity provision set forth herein, and (ii) concluded that such determination is difficult and impractical as of the date of this Term Sheet. Therefore, given such discussions between the parties, which are hereby expressly acknowledged and confirmed, Debtors agree that the amount of the applicable Break-up Fee is a reasonable estimate of DIP Lender's damages as of the date of this Term Sheet and provides a satisfactory alternative to Debtor's performance of its obligations under the "Exclusivity" paragraph set forth above and is not intended as a penalty.

Miscellaneous: This Term Sheet shall be governed, construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York and any action brought regarding this Term Sheet must be brought in a state or federal court in New York, New York. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any matters involving this Term Sheet or the transactions contemplated by this Term Sheet. The Debtors hereby represent, warrant, covenant and agree that: (i) each Debtor has the power and authority to execute this Term Sheet, to bind Debtors hereunder, (ii) the proposed transaction described herein is not the subject of a commitment or term sheet executed by Debtors from another lender; and (iii) no other party has a right of refusal or other option which could cause the DIP Facility not to be consummated.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed and agree to be bound by the terms set forth in this Term Sheet or caused the same to be executed by their respective duly authorized officers as of the day and year first above written.

Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge, Ltd., ("CIF"), by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby files its objection (the "Objection") to the Debtors' Motion for

[1] The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, are: CBRM Realty Inc. (2420), Crown Capital Holdings LLC (1411), Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC (1115), Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC (0765), RH Chenault Creek LLC (8987), RH Copper Creek LLC (0874), RH Lakewind East LLC (6963), RH Windrun LLC (0122), RH New Orleans Holdings LLC (7528), and RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC (1951). The location of the Debtors' service address in these chapter 11 cases is: In re CBRM Realty Inc., et al., c/o White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10020.

Entry of an Order (i) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Postpetition Financing, (ii) Granting Liens and Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (iii) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (iv) Granting Related Relief (the "DIP Motion"). CIF objects to the DIP Motion to the extent it relates to the NOLA DIP Facility, Debtor RH Lakewind East LLC ("Lakewind"), and real property owned by Lakewind.[2] In support of its Objection, CIF respectfully states as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. CIF holds a mortgage on real property owned by Lakewind that is located at 5131 Bundy Road in New Orleans, Louisiana (the "Property"). The Mortgage secures obligations of Lakewind's sole member Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC ("Laguna") under that certain Credit Agreement, dated April 25, 2023, by and between Laguna, as borrower, and CIF, as lender (the "Credit Agreement"). Under the Credit Agreement, CIF advanced $4.5 million to Laguna which was immediately contributed to Lakewind. Indeed, CIF wired the loan proceeds directly to Lakewind.

2. In November 2024, Laguna defaulted under the Credit Agreement. CIF agreed to forbear from exercising default remedies against Laguna. In exchange for such forbearance, Laguna caused Lakewind to grant CIF a mortgage on the Property, together with an assignment of rents and other assets related to the Property. The Mortgage was duly recorded in the Parish of Orleans in Louisiana on December 13, 2024.

3. In or about January 2025, CIF became aware that a prior mortgage on the Property was recorded by an entity called CKD Investor Penn LLC ("CKD") in July 2024.

4. CIF was surprised to learn about a prior mortgage. First, under the Credit Agreement, Laguna is prohibited from permitting Lakewind to incur additional debt without

[2] Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Motion.

CIF's consent (not to be unreasonably withheld). No such consent was sought or obtained. Second, Laguna, as sole member and managing member of Lakewind, did not authorize Lakewind to incur debt and grant a mortgage. Third, in accordance with the Credit Agreement, CIF had been receiving quarterly financial statements of Laguna and Lakewind and the financial statements following the July 2024 recording of the CKD mortgage do not show or mention a CKD mortgage on the Property or any debt owing to CKD. The CKD mortgage and debt first appear on Laguna/Lakewind financial statements in January 2025.

5. By letter dated April 8, 2025, to CKD, counsel to Stephen Strnisha, the manager of Laguna, requested documentation to determine the basis of the CKD mortgage that suddenly appeared on the Lakewind financial statements. This request followed several unsuccessful requests for such information from the property manager, Lynd Management Group LLC.

6. By letter dated April 16, 2025, counsel for CKD responded, essentially telling Laguna to pound sand and refusing to provide any information beyond the recorded CKD mortgage.

7. CIF has reason to be suspicious of the validity of the CKD mortgage, including that CKD apparently was formed the day of or the day before the CKD mortgage was recorded which was also the day before CBRM's notorious former principal, Mark Silber, pleaded guilty to conspiracy to commit wire fraud in connection with real estate loans.

8. In the face of these irregularities, the Debtors and CKD now seek to validate and elevate CKD's prepetition loan and mortgage, and saddle Lakewind with substantial additional debt with priority over CIF's claim, to the tune of $17 million.

9. Notwithstanding that the several CBRM entities that filed bankruptcy are not substantively consolidated, the Debtors and CKD seek to hold Lakewind jointly and severally liable for the full $17 million NOLA DIP Facility without allocation among the NOLA DIP

Borrowers and, particularly, without regard to the amount, if any, that will actually be used by Lakewind and potentially benefit Lakewind and its creditors.

10. In that regard, although neither CKD, the Debtors, nor Lynd Management Group LLC ever provided Laguna with copies of any underlying CKD financing documents, as requested, based on the First Day Declaration and the DIP Motion, there are four CBRM entities that are borrowers under the prepetition CKD financing. Before Lakewind becomes jointly and severally liable for debt incurred to roll-up that prepetition financing, the Court, creditors, and parties-in-interest should know how much, if any, CKD prepetition financing was actually used by Lakewind. Again, because these Debtors are not substantively consolidated, Lakewind creditors stand to be severely prejudiced if Lakewind incurs liability for repayment of a loan that was used by Debtors other than Lakewind.

11. Further, while the Debtors acknowledge CIF's mortgage (see First Day Declaration, ¶ 20), they propose to grant CKD a lien on the Property that would prime CIF's mortgage without adequately protecting CIF's interest in the Property. The Debtors argue that continuing to operate the Property together with junior replacement liens and administrative expense claims that are behind CKD's $17M NOLA DIP Facility protects CIF. It does not.

12. The DIP Motion does not provide analysis of the relative value of the Property vis-à-vis the amount, if any, of CKD prepetition loan that benefited Lakewind, the outstanding debt owed to CIF, and any equity in the Property that might inure to the benefit of unsecured creditors and the estate. Without that analysis, the NOLA DIP Facility should not be approved, even on an interim basis.

13. Finally, CIF recently filed its Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 11 Case of RH Lakewind East LLC on the basis that it was filed without authority under state law (Docket No. 87). The potential, indeed likelihood, that Lakewind will not be a Debtor in these cases, renders its incurrence of additional debt under the NOLA DIP Facility a non-starter. Without proper authority to commencer its chapter 11 case, Lakewind also lacks authority to be a NOLA DIP Borrower.

OBJECTION

14. If approved, even on an interim basis, the proposed NOLA DIP Facility would dilute CIF's secured interest in the Property without any, never mind adequate, protection of that interest. The Debtors cite In re Salem Plaza Assoc., 135 B.R. 753, 758 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1992) for the proposition that continued operation of the Property provides adequate protection. But Salem Properties involved the use of cash collateral to pay ongoing operating expenses, not a priming DIP loan.

15. Interim approval of the proposed NOLA DIP Facility would immediately put $5 million ahead of CIF without any protection of CIF's interest as required by section 364(d)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. And there has been no evidence or other demonstration of the extent, if any, to which Lakewind would be the beneficiary of that $5 million.

16. The proposed NOLA DIP Facility is also excessive. Debtors assert that more than $1 million is owed in property taxes for the NOLA DIP Borrowers. But according to current records of the City of New Orleans Bureau of Treasury, Lakewind's delinquent tax liability is approximately $250 thousand. Lakewind and its separate creditors and constituents should not incur such disproportionate joint and several liability for the other NOLA DIP Borrowers.

17. It is also likely that the economics of the proposed NOLA DIP Facility will change when the Lakewind case is dismissed. It is not even certain whether CKD would go forward with the NOLA DIP Facility if Lakewind is not one of the borrowers.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, CIF respectfully requests that the Court deny interim approval of the NOLA DIP Facility and grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Dated: June 2, 2025

Respectfully submitted,

C. Jurisdiction and Venue. The Court has jurisdiction over the Motion, these Chapter 11 Cases, and the parties and property affected hereby pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. Venue for these Chapter 11 Cases is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This matter is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b) and this Court may enter a final order consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution. The bases for the relief sought in the Motion and granted in this Interim Order are sections 105, 361, 362, 363, 364, 503, 506, 507 and 552 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 4001, 6004, and 9014, and Local Rule 4001-3.

D. Committee. As of the date hereof, no official committee of unsecured creditors has been appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code (any such committee, the "Official Committee").

E. Final Hearing. At the Final Hearing, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties will seek entry of the Final Order, which shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the DIP Documents. Notice of the Final Hearing and Final Order will be provided in accordance with this Interim Order.

F. Purpose and Necessity of Financing. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties require the financing described in the Motion and as expressly provided in the DIP Documents and this Interim Order (i) to pay costs, fees and expenses of the DIP Secured Parties, as provided for in the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, as well as all scheduled payments of interest and principal thereunder to the extent permissible under the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) to provide working capital for operations and real property improvements and for other general corporate purposes of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties, and (iii) to satisfy the administrative expenses of these Chapter 11 Cases and other claims or amounts allowed by this Court. If the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties do not obtain authorization to borrow under the DIP Documents and this Interim Order is not entered, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties and hundreds of tenants subsidized by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD") will suffer immediate and irreparable harm.

G. No Credit Available on More Favorable Terms. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties are unable to obtain financing or other financial accommodations from sources other than the DIP Lender on terms more favorable than those provided under the DIP Facility, the DIP Documents and this Interim Order. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties are unable to obtain adequate unsecured credit allowable as an administrative expense under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties are also unable to obtain adequate secured credit for money borrowed under sections 364(c)(1), 364(c)(2) and 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code without the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties granting (a) the DIP Liens as first priority priming liens on all DIP Collateral, (b) the Superpriority Claims, and (c) the rights, benefits and protections to the DIP Secured Parties. After considering all available alternatives, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties have concluded, in the exercise of their sound business judgment, that the DIP Facility represents the best source of debtor-in-possession financing available to them at this time. Additionally, the terms of the DIP Facility are fair and reasonable and reflect the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent.

H. Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties' Stipulations, Releases and Acknowledgements Regarding DIP Secured Parties. Without prejudice to the rights of any other party in interest (but subject to the limitations thereon contained in paragraph 17 below), and after consultation with their attorneys, and in exchange for and as a material inducement for receiving this DIP Facility, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties, for themselves, their estates and all representatives of such estates, admit, stipulate, acknowledge and agree as follows in this paragraph H:

a. No Control. None of the DIP Secured Parties (in their capacities as such) by virtue of making the DIP loans are deemed to be in control of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties or their properties or operations, has authority to determine the manner in which any of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties' operations are conducted, or is a control person, insider (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), "responsible person," or managing agent of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties or any of their affiliates by virtue of any of the actions taken with respect to, in connection with, related to, or arising from this Interim Order, the DIP Facility, the DIP Liens, the DIP Obligations, the DIP Documents or the transactions contemplated by each.

b. Prepetition Lienholders. On and before the Petition Date, liens (the "Prepetition Liens") existed on certain of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties' real properties and personal property (the "Prepetition Collateral") pursuant to that certain Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of September 20, 2024, between Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC, as Borrower, and Kelly

The Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties represents that the Prepetition Secured Obligations constitute legal, valid and binding obligation of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties, enforceable in accordance with the terms of the underlying agreements giving rise to such obligations, other than in respect of the stay of enforcement arising from section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, and no portion of the Prepetition Secured Obligations is subject to avoidance or subordination pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or non-bankruptcy law. In accordance with the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Secured Obligations will be paid in full from the DIP Facility Amount contemporaneously with the closing on the DIP Facility.

c. No Claims, Defenses, or Causes of Action. As of the date hereof, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties' estates, predecessors, successors, and assigns hold no (and hereby waive, discharge and release any) valid or enforceable claims (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), counterclaims, defenses, setoff rights, or any other causes of action of any kind, and waive, discharge and release any right they may have to (i) challenge the validity, enforceability, priority, security and perfection of any of the DIP Obligations, DIP Documents, or DIP Liens, respectively, and (ii) assert any and all claims (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code) or causes of action against the DIP Secured Parties, the Indemnified Parties (defined below), or any of their respective current, former and future affiliates, subsidiaries, funds, or managed accounts, officers, directors, managers, managing members, members, equity holders, partners, principals, employees, representatives, agents, attorneys, advisors, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, and other professionals, and the successors and assigns of each of the foregoing (in their capacities as such), in each case, whether arising at law or in equity, including any recharacterization, subordination, avoidance, or other claim arising under or pursuant to section 105 or chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any other similar provisions of applicable state or federal law.

8. Perfection of DIP Liens.

a. The DIP Secured Parties are hereby authorized, but not required, to file or record financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments in any jurisdiction, or take possession of or control over, or take any other action in order to validate and perfect the liens and security interests granted to them hereunder, in each case without the necessity to pay any mortgage recording fee or similar fee or tax. Whether or not the DIP Secured Parties shall, in their sole discretion, choose to file such financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments, or take possession of or control over, or otherwise confirm perfection of the liens and security interests granted to them hereunder, such liens and security interests shall be deemed valid, perfected, allowed, enforceable, non-avoidable, and not subject to challenge dispute or subordination, at the time and as of the date of entry of this Interim Order subject to paragraph 17 herein. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties shall, if requested, promptly execute and deliver to the DIP Secured Parties all such agreements, financing statements, instruments and other documents as the DIP Secured Parties may reasonably request to more fully evidence, confirm, validate, perfect, preserve, and enforce the DIP Liens. All such documents will be deemed to have been recorded and filed as of the date of entry of this Interim Order.

b. A certified copy of this Interim Order may, in the discretion of the DIP

Secured Parties, be filed with or recorded in filing or recording offices in addition to or in lieu of such financing statements, mortgages, notices of lien, or similar instruments, and all filing offices are hereby directed to accept such certified copy of this Interim Order for filing and recording.

9. Priority of DIP Liens. The DIP Liens shall have the following ranking and priorities (subject in all cases to the Carve-Out):

a. First Priority Liens on Unencumbered Property. Pursuant to section 364(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, the DIP Liens shall be valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, non-avoidable, fully and automatically perfected first priority liens and security interests in all DIP Collateral that is not subjected to Prepetition Liens, including (subject to the Final Order) Avoidance Action Proceeds, which DIP Liens shall be subject and subordinate only to the Carve-Out.

b. Priming DIP Liens. Pursuant to sections 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the DIP Liens shall be valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, non-avoidable, fully and automatically perfected liens and security interests in all DIP Collateral (other than as described in subparagraph (a) above), which DIP Liens (a) shall be subject and subordinate only to the Carve-Out and the Purported Spano Judgment Lien, and (b) shall be senior to any and all other liens and security interests in DIP Collateral, including, without limitation, all liens and security interests in any DIP Collateral that would otherwise be subject to the Prepetition Liens. For the avoidance of doubt, the DIP Liens are senior to and prime any and all other liens and security interests in the Kelly Hamilton Property, with the understanding that the indebtedness secured by the Prepetition Liens held by KH Lender will be paid in full contemporaneously with the draw of the DIP Facility Amount under the DIP Facility and from proceeds of the DIP Facility.

c. DIP Liens Senior to Other Liens. Except to the extent expressly permitted hereunder, subject to the Carve-Out and the Purported Spano Judgment Lien, the DIP Liens and the Superpriority Claims shall not be made subject to or pari passu with (a) any lien, security interest, or claim granted in any of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, including any lien or security interest granted in favor of any federal, state, municipal, or other governmental unit (including any regulatory body), commission, board or court for any liability of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties, (b) any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties and their estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, (c) any intercompany or affiliate claim, lien or security interest of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties or their affiliates, or (d) any other lien, security interest or claim arising under section 363 or 364 of the Bankruptcy Code granted on or after the date hereof.

10. Maintenance of DIP Collateral. Until such time as all DIP Obligations are paid in full (or as otherwise agreed in writing by the DIP Lender), the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties shall continue to maintain all property, operational, and other insurance as required and as specified in the DIP Documents. Upon the entry of this Interim Order, the DIP Agent, for the benefit of itself and the applicable DIP Secured Parties, shall automatically be deemed to be named as additional insured and lender loss payee under each insurance policy maintained by the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties that in any way relates to the DIP Collateral (including all property damage and business interruption insurance policies of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties, whether expired, currently in place, or to be put in place in the future), and shall act in that capacity.

11. Cash Management. Until such time as all DIP Obligations and Prepetition Obligations are paid in full, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties shall also maintain the cash management system in effect as of the Petition Date, as modified by this Interim Order and any order of the Court authorizing the continued use of the cash management system that is reasonably acceptable to the DIP Lender. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties shall open the new deposit or securities accounts provided in the DIP Documents and make deposits in accordance with the DIP Documents, including the Escrow Account. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties shall not open any new deposit or securities account that is not subject to the liens and security interests of each of the DIP Secured Parties; provided, however, if the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties do open such accounts then, in each case they shall be subject to the lien priorities and other provisions set forth in this Interim Order.

12. Fees. All fees paid and payable and costs or expenses reimbursed or reimbursable by the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties to the DIP Secured Parties are hereby approved. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties are hereby authorized and directed to promptly pay all such fees, costs, and expenses (including, without limitation, all due diligence, transportation, computer, duplication, messenger, audit, insurance, appraisal, valuation and consultant costs and expenses, and all search, filing and recording fees, incurred or sustained by the DIP Lender and its counsel and professional advisors in connection with the DIP Facility, the DIP Documents or the transactions contemplated thereby, the administration of the DIP Facility and any amendment or waiver of any provision of the DIP Documents) on demand, without the necessity of any further application with the Court for approval or payment of such fees, costs or expenses, subject to receiving a written invoice thereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the fees, costs and expenses of the DIP Secured Parties under the terms of the DIP Documents, whether incurred prior to or after the Petition Date shall be deemed fully earned, non-refundable, irrevocable, and non-avoidable as of the date of this Interim Order. All unpaid fees, costs, and expenses shall be included and constitute part of the principal amount of the DIP Obligations and be secured by the DIP Liens. None of such fees, costs, expenses or other amounts shall be subject to further application to or approval of this Court, and shall not be subject to allowance or review by this Court or subject to the U.S. Trustee's fee guidelines, and no attorney or advisor to the DIP Lender shall be required to file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with this Court; provided, however, that copies of any such invoices shall be provided contemporaneously to the U.S. Trustee and counsel to any Official Committee (if one exists) (together with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties, the "Review Parties") and such invoices shall include a general description of the nature of the matters worked on, a list of professionals who worked on the matter, their hourly rate (if such professionals bill at an hourly rate), the number of hours each professional billed and, with respect to the invoices of law firms, the year of law school graduation for each attorney; provided, however, that the U.S. Trustee reserves the right to seek copies of invoices containing the detailed time entries of any professional; provided further, however, that such invoices may be redacted or modified to the extent necessary to delete any information subject to the attorney-client privilege, any information constituting attorney work product, or any other confidential information, and the provision of such invoices shall not constitute a waiver of the attorney-client privilege or any benefits of the attorney work product doctrine (the U.S. Trustee shall be provided with unredacted copies of such invoices upon request). Any objections raised by any Review Party with respect to such invoices must be in writing and state with particularity the grounds therefor and must be submitted to the affected professional within ten (10) calendar days after delivery of such invoices to the Review Parties (such ten (10) day calendar period, the "Review Period"). If no written objection is received prior to the expiration of the Review Period from the Review Parties, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties shall pay such invoices within five (5) calendar days following the expiration of the Review Period. If an objection is received within the Review Period, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties shall promptly pay the undisputed amount of the invoice within five (5) calendar days, and the disputed portion of such invoice shall not be paid until such dispute is resolved by agreement between the affected professional and the objecting party or by order of this Court. Any hearing to consider such an objection to the payment of any fees, costs or expenses set forth in a professional fee invoice hereunder shall be limited to the reasonableness of the fees, costs and expenses that are the subject of such objection. All such unpaid fees, costs, expenses and other amounts owed or payable to the DIP Lender shall be secured by the DIP Collateral and afforded all of the priorities and protections afforded in the DIP Loan Documents) and this Interim Order. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, subject to and effective upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief, and subject to the above concerning payments to attorneys or advisors to the DIP Lender, the fees, costs and expenses of the DIP Secured Parties under the terms of the DIP Documents, whether incurred prior to or after the Petition Date shall be deemed fully earned, non-refundable, irrevocable, and non-avoidable . All unpaid fees, costs, and expenses shall be included and constitute part of the principal amount of the DIP Obligations and be secured by the DIP Liens.

13. Authority to Execute and Deliver Necessary Documents.

a. All of the DIP Liens shall be effective and perfected as of the entry of this Interim Order and without the necessity of the execution of mortgages, security agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements, or other agreements.

b. Each of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties are hereby further authorized and directed to (i) promptly perform all of its obligations under the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, and such other agreements as may be required by the DIP Documents and this Interim Order to give effect to the terms of the financing provided for therein and in this Interim Order, and (ii) perform all acts required under the DIP Documents and this Interim Order.

c. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties shall promptly execute all documents and take all actions required to effectuate the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, including, without limitation, executing all instruments which may be requested by the DIP Secured Parties and in accordance with the DIP Documents.

d. All obligations under the DIP Documents and this Interim Order shall constitute valid and binding obligations of each of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties enforceable against each of them, and each of their successors and assigns, in accordance with their terms and the terms of this Interim Order. No obligation, payment, transfer, or grant of a security interest under the DIP Documents or this Interim Order shall be stayed, restrained, voidable, or recoverable under the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable law or subject to avoidance, reduction, setoff, recoupment, offset, recharacterization, subordination (whether equitable, contractual, or otherwise), counterclaims, cross-claims, defenses, disallowance, impairment, or any Challenge.

14. Amendments, Consents, Waivers, and Modifications. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties, with the express written consent of the DIP Lender, may enter into any amendments, consents, waivers, supplements, or modifications to the DIP Documents without the need for further notice and hearing or any order of this Court, provided that such amendments, consents, waivers, or modifications do not shorten the Maturity Date (as defined below), increase commitments or the rate of interest payable under the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, require the payment of a fee, change any Event of Default, add any covenants, or amend the covenants in the DIP Documents and this Interim Order to be materially more restrictive; provided, however, that the Debtors shall provide notice (which shall be provided through electronic mail) to counsel to the Official Committee (if appointed), the U.S. Trustee, and counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes (collectively, the "Amendment Notice Parties"), each of whom shall have five (5) business days from the date of such notice to object in writing to any such amendment, consent, waiver, supplement, or other modification. If all Amendment Notice Parties indicate that they have no objection to the amendment, modification or supplement (or if no objections are timely received), the Debtors may proceed to execute the amendment, modification or supplement, which shall become effective immediately upon execution. If an Amendment Notice Party timely objects to such amendment, modification or supplement, approval of the Court (which may be sought on an expedited basis) will be necessary to effectuate the amendment, modification or supplement; provided that such amendment, modification or supplement shall be without prejudice to the right of any party in interest to be heard. Any modification, amendment, or supplement that becomes effective in accordance with this paragraph shall be filed with the Court.

15. Approved Budget; Use of Proceeds and Cash Collateral. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties shall be and are hereby authorized to use Cash Collateral in accordance with, and solely and exclusively for the disbursements set forth in, the Approved Budget attached to Exhibit B to this Interim Order. The DIP Lender's consent to the use of Cash Collateral is subject to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties' compliance with the Approved Budget, which budget shall depict, on a weekly basis and line item basis, (i) projected cash receipts, (ii) projected disbursements, and (iii) net cash flow, for the first thirteen (13) week period from the Petition Date. The budget shall be updated, modified, or supplemented by the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties not less than one time in each four (4) consecutive week period, and each such updated, modified, or supplemented budget shall be approved in writing (including by email) by, and shall be in form and substance satisfactory to, the DIP Lender, and no such updated, modified or supplemented budget shall be effective until so approved. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties shall not permit aggregate expenditures under the Approved Budget to exceed one hundred and fifteen percent (115%) of the total budgeted expenses or aggregate cash receipts under the Approved Budget to be less than eighty-five percent (85%) of the total budgeted cash receipts ("Permitted Variances"), in each case calculated on a rolling two-week basis commencing as of the Petition Date; provided, however, that the cash disbursements considered for determining compliance with this covenant shall exclude disbursements in respect of (x) restructuring professional fees and expenses and (y) restructuring charges arising on account of the Chapter 11 Cases, including payments made to vendors that qualify as "Critical Vendors" and interest due under the existing mortgage on the Kelly Hamilton Property. Any material modifications to the Approved Budget must be filed with the Court on notice to parties-in-interest, and any non-material modifications to the Approved Budget shall be sent to the U.S. Trustee and counsel to the Official Committee (if any).

16. Financial Reporting. After entry of the Interim Order, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties shall provide to the DIP Lender, counsel to the Official Committee (if any), and counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Crown Capital Notes, as soon as available but no later than 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on the last Friday of the rolling two-week period, a budget variance and reconciliation report ("Financial Report") setting forth: (i) a comparative reconciliation, on a line-by-line basis, of actual cash receipts and disbursements against the cash receipts and disbursements forecast in the Approved Budget, and (ii) the percentage variance of the aggregate receipts and aggregate disbursements, for (A) the rolling two-week period ended on (and including) the last Sunday of the two-week reporting period and (B) the cumulative period to date, (iii) projections for the following nine weeks, including a rolling cash receipts and disbursements forecast for such period and (iv) such other information requested from time to time by DIP Lender in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DIP Documents.

17. Effect of Stipulations on Third Parties.

a. The Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties' stipulations, admissions, waivers, releases, and indemnities with respect to the Released Parties, shall be binding upon all other parties in interest, including, without limitation, any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases and any other person or entity acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties' estates, including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties, in all circumstances and for all purposes unless: (i) such committee or any other party in interest with requisite standing (subject in all respects to any agreement or applicable law that may limit or affect such entity's right or ability to do so) has timely filed an adversary proceeding or contested matter (subject to the limitations contained herein, including, inter alia, in this paragraph) by the earlier of (a) the deadline to object to confirmation of the chapter 11 plan for the Kelly Hamilton Debtors or a sale of all or substantially all of the Kelly Hamilton Debtors' assets, and (b) except as to any Official Committee, sixty (60) calendar days after entry of the Final Order, and in the case of any such adversary proceeding or contested matter filed by the Official Committee, sixty (60) calendar days after the appointment of such Official Committee (the "Challenge Period"); provided that any party in interest reserves the right to seek relief to modify the Challenge Period or oppose such requested relief; provided further that if, prior to the end of the Challenge Period, (x) the cases convert to chapter 7, or (y) if a chapter 11 trustee is appointed, then, in each such case, the Challenge Period shall be extended for the Chapter 7 trustee or the Chapter 11 trustee to forty-five (45) days after their appointment or (B) such other time as ordered by the Court solely with respect to any such trustee, commencing on the occurrence of either of the events discussed in the foregoing clauses (x) and (y); (ii) such committee or any other party in interest with requisite standing (subject in all respects to any agreement or applicable law that may limit or affect such entity's right or ability to do so) has timely filed an adversary proceeding or contested matter (subject to the limitations contained herein, including, inter alia, in this paragraph) seeking to avoid, object to, or otherwise challenge the findings or Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties' Stipulations regarding: (a) the validity, enforceability, extent, priority, or perfection of the mortgages, security interests, and liens of the Prepetition Lender; (b) the validity or enforceability of any releases or indemnities in favor of the DIP Lender or Prepetition Lender contained in this Interim Order; or (c) the validity, enforceability, allowability, priority, secured status, or amount of the Prepetition Secured Obligations (any such claim, a "Challenge"); and (iii) there is a final non-appealable order in favor of the plaintiff sustaining any such Challenge in any such timely filed adversary proceeding or contested matter; provided, however, that any pleadings filed in connection with any Challenge shall set forth with specificity the basis for such challenge or claim and any challenges or claims not so specified prior to the expiration of the Challenge Period shall be deemed forever, waived, released and barred.

b. If no such Challenge is timely and properly filed during the Challenge Period or the Court does not rule in favor of the plaintiff in any such proceeding then: (i) the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases with respect to the Released Parties contained in this Interim Order shall be binding on all parties in interest; (ii) the obligations of the Prepetition Secured Obligations shall constitute allowed claims not subject to defense, claim, counterclaim, recharacterization, subordination, recoupment, offset or avoidance, for all purposes in the Chapter 11 Cases, and any subsequent chapter 7 case(s); (iii) the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Secured Debt Collateral shall be deemed to have been, as of the Petition Date, legal, valid, binding, perfected, security interests and liens, not subject to recharacterization, subordination, avoidance or other defense; and (iv) the Prepetition Secured Obligations and the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral shall not be subject to any other or further claim or challenge by any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any other party in interest acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties' estates, including, without limitation, any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 trustee or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties) and any defenses, claims, causes of action, counterclaims and offsets by any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11

Cases or any other party acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties' estates, including, without limitation, any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 trustee or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties), whether arising under the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, against any of the Released Parties arising out of or relating to any of the Prepetition Secured Obligations, the Prepetition Liens and the Prepetition Collateral shall be deemed forever waived, released and barred.

c. If any such Challenge is timely filed during the Challenge Period, the stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases with respect to the Released Parties contained in this Interim Order shall nonetheless remain binding and preclusive (as provided in the second sentence of this paragraph) on any statutory or nonstatutory committee appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases and on any other person or entity, except to the extent that such stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases were expressly and successfully challenged in such Challenge as set forth in a final, non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction. Nothing in this Interim Order vests or confers on any Person (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), including any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in these Chapter 11 Cases, standing or authority to pursue any claim or cause of action belonging to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties or their estates, including, without limitation, Challenges with respect to the Prepetition Secured Obligations, or the Prepetition Liens, and any ruling on standing, if appealed, shall not stay or otherwise delay the Chapter 11 Cases or confirmation of any plan of reorganization.

d. For the avoidance of doubt, any trustee appointed or elected in these Chapter 11 Cases shall, until the expiration of the period provided herein for asserting Challenges, and thereafter for the duration of any adversary proceeding or contested matter commenced pursuant to this paragraph (whether commenced by such trustee or commenced by any other party in interest on behalf of the Debtors' estates), be deemed to be a party other than the Debtors and shall not, for purposes of such adversary proceeding or contested matter, be bound by the acknowledgments, admissions, confirmations and stipulations of the Debtors in this Interim Order. Nothing in this Interim Order vests or confers on any person (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), including, without limitation, any Official Committee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, standing or authority to pursue any cause of action belonging to the Kelly Hamilton Debtors or their estates, including, without limitation any challenges (including a Challenge) with respect to the Prepetition Liens, or Prepetition Secured Obligations, and a separate order of the Court conferring such standing on any Official Committee or other party-in-interest shall be a prerequisite for the prosecution of a Challenge by such Official Committee or such other party-in-interest. The filing of a motion seeking standing to file a Challenge action before the Challenge Period, which attaches a proposed Challenge action, shall extend the Challenge Period with respect to that party until two (2) business days after the Court approves the standing motion, or such other time period ordered by the Court in approving the standing motion. The DIP Lenders stipulate and agree that each of the DIP Lenders will not raise as a defense in connection with any Challenge the ability of creditors to file derivative suits on behalf of limited liability companies. For the avoidance of doubt, as to the Debtors, upon entry of this Interim Order, all Challenges, and any right to assert any Challenge, are hereby irrevocably waived and relinquished as of the Petition Date, and the Debtors' Stipulations shall be binding in all respects on the Debtors irrespective of the filing of any Challenge.

18. Maturity Date. The maturity date ("Maturity Date") shall be the earliest to occur of (i) November 30, 2025; (ii) the closing date following entry of one or more final orders approving the Kelly Hamilton Restructuring Transaction (as defined below); (iii) the acceleration of any of the outstanding DIP Obligations following the occurrence of an Event of Default; (iv) the filing of a chapter 11 plan which is inconsistent with terms of this Interim Order or the DIP Documents; or (v) entry of an order by the Court in the Chapter 11 Cases either (a) dismissing one or more Chapter 11 Cases or converting one or more Chapter 11 Cases to chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) determining not to authorize or approve the DIP Liens or the DIP Documents in accordance with their terms, or (c) appointing a chapter 11 trustee or an examiner with enlarged powers relating to the operation of the business of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties (i.e., powers beyond those set forth in sections 1106(a)(3) and (4) of the Bankruptcy Code), in each case without the consent of the DIP Lender; provided, however, that to the extent that the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties, with the DIP Lender's prior written consent, effectuate a Kelly Hamilton Restructuring Transaction as a sale under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, rather than under the Chapter 11 Plan, the Maturity Date shall be abated pending confirmation of the Chapter 11 Plan and consummation of the Chapter 11 Plan. All amounts outstanding under the DIP Facility shall be due and payable in full, and the DIP Commitments thereunder shall terminate on the Maturity Date.

19. Events of Default. Subject to any applicable grace period, the occurrence of any of the following events, unless waived, as applicable and in accordance with the terms of the applicable DIP Documents, by the DIP Secured Parties, shall constitute an event of default (each, an "Event of Default" and collectively, the "Events of Default") under the DIP Facility: (a) the failure of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties to perform, in any material respect, any of the terms, provisions, conditions, covenants, or obligations under this Interim Order; or (b) the occurrence of an "Event of Default" under the DIP Credit Agreement.

20. Remedies Upon Event of Default. Upon the occurrence of and during the continuance of an Event of Default, (i) the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties shall be bound by all restrictions, prohibitions and other terms as provided in this Interim Order and the DIP Documents, and (ii) the DIP Secured Parties, shall be entitled to take any act or exercise any right or remedy as provided in this Interim Order or the DIP Documents, including, without limitation, suspending or immediately terminating the DIP Facility; provided, however, that in the case of the enforcement of rights pursuant to this paragraph, the DIP Secured Parties shall provide counsel to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties, counsel to any Official Committee, counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Crown Notes, and the U.S. Trustee with five (5) business days' prior written notice (such period, the "Remedies Notice Period"). Immediately upon the expiration of the Remedies Notice Period, the Court shall hold an emergency hearing when the Court is available (the "Enforcement Hearing") at which the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties, any Official Committee, and/or any other party in interest shall be entitled to seek a determination from the Court solely as to whether an Event of Default has occurred, and at the conclusion of the Enforcement Hearing, the Court may fashion an appropriate remedy that is consistent with the terms of this Interim Order. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no enforcement rights set forth in this paragraph shall be exercised prior to the Court holding an Enforcement Hearing, subject to Court availability, and the expiration of the Remedies Notice Period, and the Remedies Notice Period shall not expire until the conclusion of the Enforcement Hearing and the issuance of a ruling by the Court if such Enforcement Hearing is conducted by the Court.

21. No Waiver by Failure to Seek Relief. The failure or delay of the DIP Lender to seek relief or otherwise exercise its respective rights and remedies under this Interim Order, the DIP Documents, or applicable law, shall not constitute a waiver of any of the rights.

22. Automatic Stay Modified. The automatic stay provisions of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code hereby are, to the extent applicable, vacated, and modified to the extent necessary without the need for any further order of this Court, to permit: (a) the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties to grant the DIP Liens and the Superpriority Claims, and to perform such acts as the DIP Secured Parties may request to assure the perfection and priority of the DIP Liens; (b) the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties to incur all liabilities and obligations, including all of the DIP Obligations, to the DIP Secured Parties as contemplated under this Interim Order and the DIP Documents; (c) the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties to pay all amounts required hereunder and under the DIP Documents; (d) the DIP Secured Parties to retain and apply payments made in accordance with the terms of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents; (e) subject to the Remedies Notice Period, the DIP Secured Parties to exercise, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default, all rights and remedies provided for in this Interim Order, the DIP Documents, or applicable law; (f) to perform under this Interim Order and the DIP Documents, and to take any and all other actions that may be required, necessary, or desirable for the performance by the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties under this Interim Order and the DIP Documents and the implementation of the transactions contemplated hereunder and thereunder, and (g) the implementation of all of the terms, rights, benefits, privileges, remedies, and provisions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents.

23. Subsequent Reversal or Modification. This Interim Order is entered pursuant to section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, and Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b) and (c), granting the DIP Secured Parties all protections afforded by section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. The reversal or modification on appeal of an authorization under this section to obtain credit or incur debt, or of a grant under this section of a priority or a lien, does not affect the validity of any debt so incurred, or any priority or lien so granted, to an entity that extended such credit in good faith, whether or not such entity knew of the pendency of the appeal, unless such authorization and the incurring of such debt, or the granting of such priority or lien, were stayed pending appeal.

24. Collateral Rights. In the event that any person or entity that holds a lien or security interest in DIP Collateral of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties or their estates that is junior or subordinate to the DIP Liens in such DIP Collateral of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties or their estates receives or is paid the proceeds of such DIP Collateral of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties or their estates, or receives any other payment with respect thereto from any other source, other than the payment in full of the Prepretition Lender as contemplated herein and the Prepetition Lender's subsequent use of such funds, prior to indefeasible payment in full in cash and the complete satisfaction of all DIP Obligations under the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, and termination of the commitments in accordance with the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, such junior or subordinate lienholder shall be deemed to have received, and shall hold, the proceeds of any such DIP Collateral of the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties or their estates in trust for the DIP Secured Parties, and shall immediately turnover such proceeds to the DIP Secured Parties for application in accordance with the DIP Documents and this Interim Order.

25. No Third Party Beneficiary. Except as explicitly set forth herein, no rights are created hereunder for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder, or any direct, indirect, or incidental beneficiary.

26. Rights Under Section 363(k). The DIP Lender shall have the right to credit bid all or any portion of the DIP Loan balance in any sale under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or the Chapter 11 Plan as provided for in section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, in accordance with the terms of the DIP Documents and this Interim Order without the need for further Court order authorizing the same, which purchase shall include the right of the DIP Lender to request that the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties assume the HAP Contract (as defined in the DIP Term Sheet) and assign the HAP Contract to the DIP Lender (subject to HUD approval).

27. Limitation on Charging Expenses Against DIP Collateral. Effective as of the Petition Date but subject to and effective upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief and the terms thereof, no expenses of administration of the Chapter 11 Cases or any future proceeding that may result therefrom, including liquidation in bankruptcy or other proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code, shall be charged against or recovered from the DIP Collateral (except to the extent of the Carve-Out) or the DIP Secured Parties, pursuant to sections 105(a) or 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar principle of law or equity, without the prior written consent of the DIP Secured Parties, and no such consent shall be implied from any other action, inaction, or acquiescence by the DIP Secured Parties.

28. No Marshaling. Effective as of the Petition Date but subject to and effective upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief, the DIP Secured Parties shall not be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the DIP Collateral, and proceeds of the DIP Collateral shall be received and applied pursuant to this Interim Order and the DIP Documents, notwithstanding any other agreement or provision to the contrary; provided, however, that proceeds from the DIP Lender Litigation Claims shall be used to satisfy the DIP Obligations only after the exhaustion of all other DIP Collateral.

29. Equities of the Case. The DIP Secured Parties shall be entitled to all the rights and benefits of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to proceeds, product, offspring, or profits of any of the DIP Collateral, and, effective as of the Petition Date but subject to and effective upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief and the terms thereof, the "equities of the case" exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code shall not apply to the DIP Secured Parties with respect to proceeds, product, offspring, or profits of any of the DIP Collateral.

30. Indemnification. Subject to and effective upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief and the rights and limitations of any third party under paragraph 17 of this Interim Order, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties shall protect, defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Indemnified Parties for, from and against any and all claims, suits, liabilities, losses, costs, expenses (including reasonable, out-of-pocket attorneys' fees and costs) imposed upon or incurred by or asserted against any Indemnified Party arising out of or relating to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Loan Parties (and any successors and assigns, and any subsidiaries or affiliates), prior loans, mortgages, all Avoidance Actions, the DIP Documents or the transactions contemplated thereby, except for those arising out of the fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence of an Indemnified Party as determined by a non-appealable court order. Indemnification under this provision shall include the right of advancement for any indemnified claim or expense, subject to prompt notice by DIP Lender and approval by the Court after notice and a hearing, and any costs and expenses incurred in the enforcement of any binding provisions of the DIP Documents.
