¹Interest is accrued daily and credited to your account on a monthly basis. This is accrued interest month-to-date that has not yet been paid; however, this money can be withdrawn or used to buy securities.

The "cash alternatives" balance is the interest- or dividend-earning cash you hold in a sweep vehicle; this money can be withdrawn or used to buy securities. This balance also includes accrued interest that will be paid at month-end.

Although certain money market funds seek to preserve their value of your investment at $1 per share, it is possible to lose money by investing in such a fund. An investment in a money market fund is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) or any other government agency. Mutual fund purchases may be subject to eligibility and other restrictions. Certain money market funds may impose liquidity fees and redemption gates in certain circumstances.

Interest rates paid on balances in the IDA and TD Ameritrade Cash are based on tiers. The previous day's closing balance determines eligibility for a particular tier each day. Simple interest is accrued daily based on the interest rate tier applicable to each day's balance, and is credited to your account on the last business day of the month. In accordance with the Client Agreement, TD Ameritrade may change the tiers and rates at its discretion and without notice and is not obligated to pay different rates between tiers. Rate changes may vary by program, location or arrangement.
