CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER

The Court orders:

1. Not later than June 3, 2020, Total E&P and Nade Tavakoli must file a joint trial preparation statement.
2. The joint trial preparation statement must:
  - a. Identify all claims and counterclaims that the parties agree must be tried by the Court in this contested matter.
  - b. Identify all additional claims and counterclaims that Total E&P asserts must be tried in this contested matter. As to each such claim or counterclaim, the statement must:
    - i. Identify the pleading that Total E&P alleges contains the claim or counterclaim.
    - ii. Provide a short statement as to why E&P alleges that the claim or counterclaim is contained in the pleading.
    - iii. Provide a short statement as to why Nader Tavakoli alleges that the claim or counter claim is not contained in the pleading.

- c. Identify all additional claims and counterclaims that Nader Tavakoli asserts must be tried in this contested matter. As to each such claim or counterclaim, the statement must:
    - i. Identify the pleading that Nader Tavakoli alleges contains the claim or counterclaim.
    - ii. Provide a short statement as to why Nader Tavakoli alleges that the claim or counterclaim is contained in the pleading.
    - iii. Provide a short statement as to why Total E&P alleges that the claim or counter claim is not contained in the pleading.
  - d. Identify all discovery that the parties agree must be completed before trial, along with a schedule for completion of the discovery.
  - e. Identify all discovery disputes between the parties, with a short statement of the nature of each dispute.
  - f. Identify all other trial preparation disputes between the parties.
3. The Court will conduct an audio and video scheduling conference on June 8, 2020 at 4:30 p.m.
