Section 7.6 No Individual Liability on Contracts. The members of the Board shall not be liable personally for any debts, obligations, or undertakings contracted by them, or for the breach of any contracts. Such claims and obligations shall be paid out of the Trust; provided, however, that the Board shall not be exempt from personal liability for willful misconduct, intentional wrongdoing, breach of applicable fiduciary duty, negligence or fraud, and the Trust shall not indemnify the Board for such liabilities, or to the extent that application of this sentence would violate any law.

Section 7.7 City Not Liable for Conduct of Board. The Board is not, in its capacity as the Board of Trustees, an officer, agent, employee, or representative of Detroit. In its capacity as the Board of Trustees, the Board is a principal acting independently of the City, which shall not be liable for any act, omission, contract, obligation, or undertaking of the Trust, the Board or its officers, agents, or representatives.

Section 7.8 Liability Insurance. The Board may obtain and keep current a policy or policies of insurance, insuring the members of the Board from and against any and all liabilities, costs and expenses incurred by such persons as a result of any act, or omission to act, in connection with the performance of their duties, responsibilities and obligations under this Trust Agreement or the Plan. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the premiums on such policies may be paid from the Trust Fund.

Section 7.9 Reimbursement for Defense of Claims. To the extent permitted by applicable law and not otherwise covered by liability insurance purchased by the Trust (without regard to any non-recourse rider purchased by the insured), the Board, employees of the Board and persons acting on the Board's behalf pursuant to an express written delegation (each separately, the "Indemnified Party") shall be reimbursed by the Trust Fund for reasonable expenses, including without limitation attorneys fees, incurred in defense of any claim that seeks a recovery of any loss to the Plan or Trust Fund or for any damages suffered by any party to, or beneficiary of this Trust Agreement (a) for which the Indemnified Party is adjudged not liable, or (b) which is dismissed or compromised in a final settlement, where the Board or, where required by applicable law, an independent fiduciary determines that the settling Indemnified Party was not primarily responsible (in such cases, all or only a portion of the settling Indemnified Party's reasonable expenses may be reimbursed, as directed by the Board or an independent fiduciary), provided that, the Board shall have the right to approve of the retention of any counsel whose fees would be reimbursed by the Trust Fund, but such approval shall not be withheld unreasonably.

ARTICLE VIII AMENDMENT, TERMINATION AND MERGER

Section 8.1 Duration of the Trust. Unless terminated earlier pursuant to Section 8.3, this Trust Agreement shall terminate automatically on the earlier of: (a) the eighth anniversary of the Effective Date of the Plan of Adjustment if the City and the Board shall have agreed in writing that no Qualifying DWSD Transaction has occurred; or (b) the later of (i) written notice from GRS and PFRS of the death of the last individual who was a participant in such pension plans on the Effective Date of the Plan of Adjustment or (ii) the 90th anniversary of the effective date of this Trust Agreement.

Section 8.2 Amendment. The Trust Agreement may be amended at any time in writing by the Board or by Court order upon proper motion by the Board or the City, provided, however, that no amendment may impose a contribution obligation on the City beyond that specified in Section 3.1. No amendment to the Trust Agreement shall modify the responsibilities of the Board hereunder unless the Board has first consented to such amendment.

Section 8.3 Termination.

(a) Notwithstanding Section 8.1, the Trust and this Trust Agreement may be terminated at any time in writing by the Board with a copy of such written instrument to be provided to the City, or by Court order upon proper motion. Upon termination of this Trust Agreement, the assets of the Trust Fund, if any, shall be paid out at the direction of the Board to the GRS and PFRS as provided in Section IV.F of the Plan of Adjustment. Neither Detroit nor the Board shall have any beneficial interest in the Trust Fund. If the Trust Fund has assets at the time of its termination, it shall remain in existence only until all such assets have been distributed.

(b) Upon termination of the Trust pursuant to Section 8.1 or 8.3, the Board shall continue to have all of the powers provided in this Trust Agreement as are necessary or desirable for the orderly liquidation and distribution of the Trust Fund in accordance with the provisions hereof.

ARTICLE IX

Except to the extent required by applicable law, the rights or interest of any Beneficiary to any future distributions under the provisions of the GRS or PFRS shall not be subject to attachment or garnishment or other legal process by any creditor of any such Beneficiary, nor shall any such Beneficiary have any right to alienate, anticipate, commute, pledge, encumber or assign any of the benefits or payments which he may expect to receive, contingent or otherwise, under GRS or PFRS.

RETIREE HEALTH CARE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

Plaintiffs, the Official Committee of Retirees of the City of Detroit, Michigan (the “Committee”), Detroit Retired City Employees Association, Retired Detroit Police and Fire Fighters Association, and AFSCME Sub-Chapter 98, City of Detroit Retirees (collectively with the Committee, the “Plaintiffs”) and Defendants, the City of Detroit, Michigan (the “City”) and Kevyn Orr, individually and in his official capacity as Emergency Manager of the City of Detroit, Michigan (collectively with the City, the “Defendants”), hereby enter into this Settlement Agreement as of the 14th day of February, 2014 (the “Agreement”), which contains the following terms:

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Agreement Modifies March 1, 2014 Plan. The City agrees to make the changes listed in Part II herein to the City of Detroit Retiree Health Care Plan for the period March 1, 2014 through December 31, 2014. The changes enumerated in Part II are modifications to the City of Detroit Retiree Health Care Plan described in the 2014 Health Care Plan Options Booklet (“Booklet”) distributed approximately January 2, 2014. These modifications are premised on the terms summarized in the Booklet going into effect on March 1, 2014, subject only to the modifications set forth in this Agreement, which resolves the Plaintiffs’ claims in Adversary Proceeding No. 14-04015 (the “Adversary Proceeding”).

2. Modifications Will Not Decrease Benefits Offered in March 1, 2014 Plan. None of the modifications in Part II reduces or eliminates any of the benefits in the City of Detroit Retiree Health Care Plan for the period March 1, 2014 through December 31, 2014 as described in the Booklet, except as specified in Part II(4)(a) and (b) below.

3. Effective Date of Plan Modifications. The modifications listed in Part II of this Agreement shall be effective with the beginning of the plan on March 1, 2014 unless otherwise noted in the Agreement.

4. Aggregate Caps. Unless specifically noted below, there is no cap on the amount that the City will spend to fulfill the modifications listed in Part II. For the two modifications listed in Part II(3)(a)/(b) and (d)/(e) that expressly include capped funds of $2,500,000 and $3,000,000, respectively, the City shall aggregate those caps to a total of $5,500,000 such that if one capped fund is exhausted the City must draw from the other capped fund to the extent that the other capped fund has not been exhausted.

5. Conditions on Agreement. This Agreement, and the additional benefits set forth herein, are conditioned upon the City receiving debtor in possession financing that can be used for quality of life purposes on or before May 1, 2014 (the “DIP”). In the event the DIP is not in effect on or before May 1, 2014 and the City is unable to otherwise perform under this Agreement, this Agreement shall be null and void and the parties shall be returned to their respective positions.

II. MODIFICATIONS TO THE CITY'S RETIREE HEALTH CARE PLAN FOR THE PERIOD MARCH 1, 2014 THROUGH DECEMBER 31, 2014

1. Modification of Dental and Vision Coverage.

- (a) Dental Coverage. The City will make available an additional dental benefits option in addition to the dental benefits coverage option described in the Booklet. The additional option will be offered by Golden Dental Inc. ("Golden"). The premium charged for this group coverage option will be no greater than $23.73 per month for single coverage, $38.83 per month for two-person coverage, and $57.17 per month for family coverage, and the benefits will be as described in Exhibit 1 hereto; provided, however, that the amount charged to the retiree shall be increased to include an additional administrative charge, which administrative charge shall not exceed 20% of the applicable premium. The enrolling retiree will be fully responsible to pay the premium associated with this dental option, including the additional administrative charge, and the City shall allow the retirees to utilize the pension reduction feature for payment of the monthly premium. The City will use Reasonable Efforts to have such coverage effective June 1, 2014, including taking Reasonable Efforts to notify retirees by mail of this option as soon as practicable, and taking Reasonable Efforts to minimize the administrative charge. Reasonable Efforts, as used in this Agreement, requires the City to use good faith and reasonable diligence in light of its capabilities.
- (b) Vision Coverage. The City will make available an additional vision benefits option in addition to the vision benefits coverage option described in the Booklet. The additional option will be offered by Heritage Vision Plans, Inc. ("Heritage"). The premium for this group coverage option will be no greater than $6.95 per month for single coverage and $13.75 per month for 2 or more person coverage; provided, however, that the amount charged to the retiree shall be increased to include an additional administrative charge, which administrative charge shall not exceed 20% of the applicable premium. The option shall be a national network vision option similar to the option that the City provides to active employees. The enrolling retiree will be fully responsible to pay the premium associated with this vision option, including the additional administrative charge, and the City shall allow the retirees to utilize the pension reduction feature for payment of the monthly premium. The City will use Reasonable Efforts to have such coverage effective June 1, 2014, including taking Reasonable Efforts to notify retirees by mail of this option as soon as practicable, and taking Reasonable Efforts to minimize the administrative charge.

2. Modifications for Retirees Eligible for Medicare.

- (a) Extension of Enrollment Deadline to Opt Out of Medicare Advantage Plan Coverage. For retirees of the City who are enrolled in Medicare and receive coverage under a City-sponsored Medicare Advantage Plan through February 28, 2014, the date to opt out of such coverage was extended to February 7, 2014. Such retirees may opt out by hand delivery (no later than close of business February 7) or first-class mail delivery (post-marked on or before February 7) of the designated opt out form to the City Benefits Administration Office at Suite 1026, 2 Woodward Avenue, Detroit MI 48226. Retirees were permitted to request the designated opt out form by calling the City's Benefit Administration Customer Service Line or contacting the City Benefits Administration Office at the address above. The City will use Reasonable Efforts to process any such opt outs for which it receives timely notice in a manner so as to eliminate such Medicare Advantage Plan coverage effective March 1, 2014. To the extent the City is not able to process the timely sent opt out notices in a manner so as to eliminate such coverage effective March 1, 2014, such coverage shall be eliminated effective April 1, 2014. Retirees who did not opt out by February 7, 2014 will be enrolled in a City-sponsored Medicare Advantage Plan as described in the Booklet.

- (b) HRA Contribution for Medicare-Eligible Retirees Who Opt Out. For each Medicare-eligible retiree who opted out of coverage under the City-sponsored Medicare Advantage Plans on or prior to February 7, 2014, the City shall automatically enroll such retiree in a City-sponsored Health Reimbursement Arrangement ("HRA"). The HRA shall be administered by Flex Plan, Inc. The City will provide each electing enrollee with a vested $115 monthly contribution credit to his or her HRA during the remainder of 2014, which will carry forward until used by the retiree or otherwise forfeited under terms to be negotiated by the parties hereto. The City will make all Reasonable Efforts to implement the HRA credits effective May 1, 2014, retroactive to March 1, 2014. The initial monthly credit for May 2014 shall be in an amount equal to the total of $115 multiplied by the number of months starting March 2014 for which the enrolled retiree did not have Medicare Advantage Plan coverage (e.g., if John Smith had City-sponsored Medicare Advantage Plan coverage until February 28, 2014, the initial monthly credit for May 2014 will be $345, covering March, April, and May; thereafter, the payments shall be $115 per month for each month in 2014).
- (c) Medicare Advantage Plan Catastrophic Drug Expenses. Each of the Medicare Advantage Plans sponsored by the City for the period March 1, 2014 through December 31, 2014 include Medicare Part D prescription drug coverage, under which, once the $4,550 out-of-pocket threshold is met, the participant's cost sharing obligation is limited to the greater of 5% of the cost of the prescription, or $2.55 per prescription for generic and preferred multi-source drugs or $6.35 per prescription for all other prescription drugs; provided, that the participant's cost sharing obligation shall never be greater than the cost sharing that applied prior to the participant meeting such threshold. For each participant who meets the $4,550 out-of-pocket threshold while enrolled in one of the City's Medicare Advantage Plans during the period March 1, 2014 through December 31, 2014, the City will reimburse the amount of this cost sharing obligation to the related retiree. For the avoidance of doubt, participant means both retiree and any retiree's spouse who is covered by the City's Medicare Advantage Plans.

3. Modifications for Retirees Not Eligible for Medicare.

(a) Additional Stipend to Retirees With $75,000 or Lower Household Income Who Acquire Health Care Coverage on an Exchange.

The City will provide non-duty disabled retirees who are not eligible for Medicare a $125 stipend that they may use to purchase health care coverage. The City will increase this stipend by $50 for any non-Medicare eligible retiree who either (i) was enrolled in the City's retiree health program on December 31, 2013 or (ii) transitioned from active City benefits to retiree City benefits on or after November 1, 2013; but only to the extent such retiree described in (i) or (ii) above meets the following requirements:

- i) Not eligible for Medicare or Medicaid;
- ii) Not eligible for a benefit under Part II(4);
- iii) Not a duty-disabled retiree (duty-disabled retirees are eligible for higher stipends as provided for in the Booklet);
- iv) Under 65 years old (non-Medicare eligible retirees age 65 and older may receive an increased stipend under Part II(3)(c) below);
- v) Household income is $75,000 or less, as demonstrated by satisfaction of the process set forth in Part II(3)(b);
- vi) Does not acquire a City-offered group health plan as set forth in Part II(3)(f); and
- vii) Purchases or is covered by a health insurance policy acquired through a health insurance exchange ("Exchange") established pursuant to the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

(b) Process to Obtain Additional $50 Monthly Stipend.

- i) The City will retain Aon Hewitt to administer the eligibility process for the additional $50 monthly stipend set forth above in Part II(3)(a). Retirees will be given a 30-day notice period, to expire no later than April 30, 2014, during which they shall provide to Aon Hewitt the following:

- (1) Submission of having purchased an insurance policy through an Exchange that covers such retiree. Such submission shall include information necessary to validate the retiree's eligibility, including the name of the insurer, monthly premium amount, and the amount of federal subsidy, if any, that the retiree is to receive in connection with such Exchange-acquired coverage; and

- (2) If the proof of Exchange-acquired coverage shows that the retiree's premium does not also include a federal subsidy amount, such retiree shall also submit a copy of his or her most recently filed federal income tax return with proof of filing, but in no event a return prior to the 2011 tax year. If such federal income tax return shows household income in excess of $75,000 and the retiree believes that household income in 2013 was below $75,000, the retiree shall also submit – along with a copy of the most recently filed federal income tax return – proof sufficient for Aon Hewitt to conclude that his or her household income in 2013 was less than $75,000.
- ii) Aon Hewitt shall submit to the City its list of retirees eligible for the additional $50 monthly stipend and the monthly stipends shall be paid to the approved eligible retirees beginning in the month of June 2014 or as soon thereafter as administratively practical, with payments retroactive to March 1, 2014. For example, if the first payment is made in June 2014, it will be in the amount of $200 for the months of March, April, May, and June; thereafter, the payments shall be $50 per month for each succeeding month in 2014. The list provided by Aon Hewitt shall be final and no changes shall be made to such list for the remainder of 2014.

The City shall cap the amount that it pays for this additional $50 stipend during the period from March through December 2014 at $3,000,000. In the event that there are more retirees meeting the requirements in Part II(3)(a) and (b) (i.e., retirees listed on the final list) than can be paid in full for $3,000,000, each retiree will have his or her stipend amount reduced pro rata, unless there are additional funds that can be used as detailed in Part I(4).

- (c) Additional Payment to Non-Medicare Eligible Retirees Age 65 and Older.
The City will increase the stipend that it gives non-Medicare eligible retirees who are 65-years-old and older to $300/month. For such purposes, a non-Medicare eligible retiree is any retiree age 65 or older who is not – directly or through his or her spouse – eligible to automatically enroll in and obtain premium-free coverage under Part A of Medicare as evidenced by a denial letter from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (“CMS”). Retirees who have previously submitted such a letter to the City will not be required to resubmit it. Non-Medicare eligible retirees who are duty-disabled will not be eligible for this increase because their stipend is already $300 or more. The City will coordinate with Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan to determine the number of non-Medicare eligible retirees who are eligible for this $300 stipend. The increased stipend will apply for each month from March 2014 through December 2014. The City will make all Reasonable Efforts to implement the $300 increased monthly stipend beginning April 1, 2014, with payment of the increased amount over the stipend otherwise paid for prior months being retroactive to March 1, 2014; thereafter, the stipend shall be $300 per month for each succeeding month in 2014. Such eligible retirees will not receive any other stipend amounts from the City that are described in the Booklet or this Agreement.

(d) $125 Monthly Stipend For City Retirees' Spouses Who are Under Age 65, With $75,000 or Lower Household Income, and Are Enrolled in Health Care Coverage on an Exchange.

The City will provide a $125 stipend to certain married retirees whose spouses either (i) were enrolled in the City's retiree health program on December 31, 2013 or (ii) transitioned from active City benefits to retiree City benefits on or after November 1, 2013; but only to the extent such spouse described in (i) or (ii) above meets the following requirements:

- i) Not eligible to enroll in one of the City's Medicare Advantage Plans;
- ii) Not eligible for Medicaid;
- iii) Not eligible for a benefit under Part II(4);
- iv) Under 65 years old;
- v) Household income is $75,000 or less, as demonstrated by satisfaction of the process set forth in Part II(3)(e);
- vi) Does not acquire a City-offered group health plan as set forth in Part II(3)(f); and
- vii) Purchases or is covered by a health insurance policy acquired through an Exchange.

(e) Process to Obtain $125 Monthly Spouse Stipend.

- i) The City will retain Aon Hewitt to administer the eligibility process for the $125 monthly spouse stipend. Retirees will be given a 30-day notice period, to expire no later than April 30, 2014, during which they shall provide to Aon Hewitt the following proof:
 - (1) Submission of proof that their spouse is covered under an insurance policy purchased through an Exchange, including information necessary to validate the retirees' eligibility, including the name of the insurer, monthly premium amount, and the amount of federal subsidy, if any, that the spouse is to receive in connection with such Exchange-acquired coverage; and
 - (2) If the proof of Exchange-acquired coverage shows that the spouse's premium does not also include a federal subsidy amount, such retiree shall also submit a copy of his or her most recently filed federal income tax return with proof of filing, but in no event a return prior to the 2011 tax year. If such federal income tax return shows household income in excess of $75,000 and the retiree believes that household income in 2013 was below $75,000, the retiree shall also submit – along with a copy of the most recently filed federal income tax return – proof sufficient for Aon Hewitt to conclude that his or her household income in 2013 was less than $75,000.

ii) Aon Hewitt shall submit to the City its list of retirees who are eligible for this $125 monthly stipend and the monthly stipends shall be paid to the approved married retirees beginning in the month of June 2014 or as soon thereafter as administratively practical, with payments retroactive to March 1, 2014. For example, if the first payment is made in June 2014, it will be in the amount of $500 for the months of March, April, May, and June; thereafter, the payments shall be $125 per month for each succeeding month in 2014. The list provided by Aon Hewitt shall be final and no changes shall be made to such list for the remainder of 2014, except as follows:

- (1) if an eligible retiree ceases to be married (whether by death or divorce), the retiree's spouse will cease to be eligible for this stipend and the retiree shall be removed from the list effective as of the month immediately following such event; and
- (2) if a retiree's spouse transitions from active City benefits to retiree City benefits during 2014 and meets the eligibility provisions described in Part II(3)(d) and is approved as eligible pursuant to the process described in Part II(3)(e), the related retiree shall be added to the list effective as of the month in which the transition to retiree City benefits occurs, provided there is sufficient availability under the Aggregate Caps as described below.

The City will cap the amount that it pays for spousal stipends at $2,500,000. In the event that there are more retirees initially satisfying the requirements in Part II(3)(e) (i.e., retirees listed on the first list submitted by Aon Hewitt to the City) than can be paid in full for $2,500,000, each such retiree will have his or her stipend amount reduced pro rata, provided that if there are additional funds that can be used as detailed in Part I(4), each such retiree will only have his or her stipend amount reduced pro rata to the extent the aggregate amount is not sufficient to satisfy the full amount of such stipends. Retirees who become eligible for this spousal stipend during the year, as described above, shall only be eligible for a stipend to the extent there is sufficient availability under the Aggregate Caps detailed in Part I(4). The addition or removal of retirees from the list shall not impact the amount of the stipend being paid to other eligible retirees.

- (f) City Group Plan. In 2014, the City agrees to contract with Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan to offer a fully-insured group health plan option to retirees who are not eligible for Medicare. Such plan option shall be reasonably equivalent to the coverage offered by the City to active employees in 2014. The enrolling retiree will be fully responsible to pay the monthly premium associated with this option. The premium cost to retirees of such policy will include the cost to the City of enrollment and administration related to this policy option, so that the City will not incur any additional expense in offering this policy. The parties will use Reasonable Efforts to have such coverage effective May 1, 2014. The City shall provide a monthly stipend of $100 to each retiree who enrolls in the City group plan, beginning with the May 1, 2014 payment. No other stipend amounts from the City that are described in the Booklet or this Agreement shall be available to retirees enrolling in this group option, unless either (i) the retiree is duty-disabled, in which case, he or she will instead receive the stipend available to duty-disabled retirees described in the Booklet, or (ii) the retiree is eligible for the stipend described in Part II(3)I, in which case, he or she will instead receive such stipend.

4. Modifications for Retirees Below the Federal Poverty Level.

- (a) Coverage for Michigan Resident Retirees Eligible For Medicaid Coverage On or After April 1, 2014. The parties recognize that CMS has approved the State of Michigan's request to operate the "Healthy Michigan" program for adults who will become eligible for Medicaid under Section 1902(a)(10)(A)(i)(VIII) of the Social Security Act, and that on April 1, 2014 Michigan will provide Medicaid coverage to all adults residing in the State with income up to and including 133% of the Federal Poverty Level. "Federal Poverty Level" means the applicable poverty guideline based on state of residence and household size issued annually by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. For those retirees who are eligible for Medicaid under the scheduled April 1, 2014 expansion, the City will facilitate their transition in the following manner: Within 10 days of the effective date of this Agreement, the City shall contact by letter those non-Medicare eligible retirees, who, according to the Retirement Systems' records, reside in Michigan and whose annual pension income is in an amount less than 100% of the Federal Poverty Level. Such retirees will be given a 30 day opportunity to submit to Aon Hewitt proof that their income falls below the Federal Poverty Level. Upon receipt by Aon Hewitt of a list of such retirees falling below the Federal Poverty Level, the City shall provide payment to such retirees of the amount equal to the value of the federal subsidy for the month of March that they would have received in connection with the second lowest cost Exchange-purchased silver plan, had such retiree, and to the extent the retiree is married, such retiree's spouse, been eligible for such subsidy for the month of March 2014 for such plan based on a determination of household income at 100% of the Federal Poverty Level. A similar payment will be made by the City in connection with insurance coverage for April 2014 if such retiree and spouse are not covered by Medicaid. To the extent that the Medicaid expansion rules in Michigan have not provided such retirees the opportunity to migrate into the Michigan Medicaid program by May 1, 2014, the City shall cease its continued payment but the parties agree to negotiate in good faith an additional reasonable accommodation to such retirees that balances the City's and such retirees' interests. Retirees eligible for payments under this subsection are not eligible for any other payment offered by the City as set forth in the Booklet or as set forth in this Agreement.

- (b) Coverage for Non-Medicare Eligible Retirees in States that Have Not Expanded Medicaid. The City recognizes that not all States have chosen to expand Medicaid coverage in accordance with Title II of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, and certain non-Medicare eligible retirees residing outside the State of Michigan whose incomes fall below 133% of the Federal Poverty Level will not be eligible for Medicaid coverage. Accordingly, in connection with such retirees, the City will pay a monthly amount equal to the lesser of: (1) the second lowest cost monthly premium for a silver plan for such retiree and spouse purchased through an Exchange in their place of residence; or (2) the ratable monthly amount necessary to increase the retiree's annual household income to 100% of the Federal Poverty Level. Within 10 days of the effective date of this Agreement, the City shall contact by letter those retirees, who, according to the Retirement Systems' records, reside in states that do not provide Medicaid coverage to adults up to the Federal Poverty Level, and whose annual pension income is in an amount less than 100% of the Federal Poverty Level. Such retirees will be given a 30 day opportunity to submit to Aon Hewitt proof that their income falls below the Federal Poverty Level. The City shall commence such payments as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving a list of such retirees from Aon Hewitt. Retirees eligible for payments under this subsection are not eligible for any other payment offered by the City as set forth in the Booklet or as set forth in this Agreement.

III. RELEASES, FUTURE LEGAL PROCEEDINGS, AND MISCELLANEOUS

1. Future Claims in City Plan Confirmation Proceedings. This Agreement is entered into without prejudice to any party to this litigation with respect to any issue involving the rights, claims, obligations, and payments of health care and other post-employment benefits ("OPEB"); provided that the City will not seek to recover directly from the retirees any postpetition OPEB payments made to or on behalf of retirees. Each party expressly reserves its rights on OPEB issues in connection with negotiations of a plan of adjustment, and the Plaintiffs are free to pursue, and the City to oppose, their position that the postpetition OPEB payments the City made to or on behalf of retirees were a business necessity.

2. Release. Following the execution of this Agreement, the Plaintiffs will promptly dismiss the lawsuit – which solely addresses 2014 retiree health care benefits – with prejudice; provided, however, that any party to the lawsuit may bring an action in the Bankruptcy Court to enforce the terms of this Agreement resolving the lawsuit (an "Enforcement Action") and if the conditions contained in the last sentence of Part I(5) occur, then Plaintiffs are free to reinstate the Adversary Proceeding. Solely for purposes of an Enforcement Action, the City consents, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 904, to the Bankruptcy Court's hearing and deciding such Enforcement Action.

3. Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts, and each counterpart shall be treated as an original.

4. Good Faith. As evidenced by the undersigned acknowledgment of Judge Wiley Daniel, Mediator, this Agreement was negotiated and entered into by all parties in good faith.

EXHIBIT I.A.332

STATE CONTRIBUTION AGREEMENT

CONTRIBUTION AGREEMENT

This Contribution Agreement (“Agreement”), dated as of _____, 2014, is made by and among the Michigan Settlement Administration Authority, a Michigan body public corporate (the “Authority”), the General Retirement System of the City of Detroit, the Police and Fire Retirement System of the City of Detroit and the City of Detroit (the “City”).

RECITALS

A. The City filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 9 of the Bankruptcy Code on July 18, 2013 (the “Chapter 9 Case”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Michigan (the “Court”).

B. During the course of the Chapter 9 Case, the City has asserted that the City’s Police and Fire Retirement System (the “PFRS” or a “System”) and the General Retirement System (the “GRS” or a “System” and collectively with the PFRS, the “Systems”) are underfunded.

C. During the course of the Chapter 9 Case, there have been suggestions that the State of Michigan (the “State”) may be obligated to pay all or a portion of the underfunding of pension benefits payable to retirees, a suggestion the State vigorously disputes.

D. As part of the mediation process in the Chapter 9 Case, the mediators asked the State and other parties to assist in reducing the amount of underfunding in the PFRS and GRS pension funds by providing settlement funds for the benefit of pensioners that would not be otherwise available.

E. As part of its determination that the City was eligible to file the Chapter 9 Case, the Court determined that pension obligations of the City can be impaired or diminished in the Chapter 9 Case and are not protected from such impairment or diminution by the State Constitution.

F. In support of confirmation of the City’s Fourth Amended Plan of Adjustment dated May 5, 2014 (as may be further amended from time to time, the “Plan”), the State has agreed, subject to satisfaction of the terms and conditions set forth herein and in the Plan, to make a contribution to the GRS and PFRS in return for releases from, among others, the GRS and PFRS as set forth in the Support and Release Agreement entered into by the State and each of the Systems in connection with this matter.

G. On June 20, 2014, the Authority was established as the disbursement agent for the State with respect to the State Contribution (as defined below).

H. Capitalized terms used in this Agreement but not defined have the same meanings as set forth in the Plan.

NOW THEREFORE, THE PARTIES HERETO AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

1. State Contribution. On the later of (a) the date on which the Conditions Precedent have been satisfied, and (b) 60 days after the Effective Date of the Plan, the Authority shall disburse $98,800,000 to GRS and $96,000,000 to PFRS (collectively, the “State Contribution”) for the purpose of increasing the assets of the PFRS and GRS. The total aggregate State Contribution is equal to the net present value of $350,000,000 payable over 20 years determined using a discount rate of 6.75%, which results in a total contribution by the State of $194,800,000. The State Contribution shall only be used to fund payments to holders of GRS Pension Claims and PFRS Pension Claims, each as defined in the Plan.

2. Governance Requirements of the GRS and PFRS. At all times during the 20 year period following the disbursement of the State Contribution to the GRS and PFRS, the GRS and PFRS each must establish an investment committee (the “Investment Committee”) for the purpose of making recommendations to, and approving certain actions by, the respective System's board of trustees and/or making determinations and taking action under and with respect to Investment Management, as set forth in the terms and conditions enumerated on Exhibit A and Exhibit B, respectively, each attached to and incorporated by reference into this Agreement. Further, the Emergency Manager for the City and any subsequently appointed emergency manager for the City, appointed under PA 436 or under any successor or replacement statutes to PA 436, shall not seek to exercise any powers granted under section 12(1)(m) of PA 436 (or equivalent provision under any successor or replacement statute) against the Board of GRS or the Board of PFRS until the earlier of (a) one year following entry of an order confirming the Plan, and (b) December 31, 2015.

3. Income Stabilization Funds and Income Stabilization Payments. The City, GRS and PFRS shall establish an income stabilization program and amend the governing documents for GRS and the governing documents for PFRS to include the following:

- a. A supplemental pension income stabilization payment (the “Income Stabilization Payments”) payable on an annual basis beginning not later than 120 days after the Effective Date, to each Eligible Pensioner equal to the lesser of (a) the amount needed to restore the Eligible Pensioner's reduced pension benefit to the amount of the pension benefit that the Eligible Pensioner received from GRS or PFRS in 2013, or (b) the amount needed to bring the total annual household income of the Eligible Pensioner up to 130% of the Federal Poverty Level in 2013.
- b. In addition, to the extent an Eligible Pensioner's Estimated Adjusted Annual Household Income in any calendar year is less than 105% of the Federal Poverty Level in that year, the Eligible Pensioner will receive an additional benefit (“Income Stabilization Benefit Plus”). The Income Stabilization Benefit Plus shall be equal to the lesser of either (a) 100% restoration of pension benefits, including escalators and cost of living adjustments; or (b) the amount needed to bring the Eligible Pensioner's Estimated Adjusted Annual Household Income in that calendar year up to 105% of the Federal Poverty Level in that year.

- c. An Eligible Pensioner's "Estimated Adjusted Annual Household Income" shall be calculated as follows: (i) the annual pension benefit amount paid in 2013 shall be subtracted from the Eligible Pensioner's 2013 total household income (per their (or in the case of minor children, their legal guardian's) 2013 income tax returns or equivalent documentation) as adjusted for inflation or Social Security COLA increases to create a base additional income amount, plus (ii) the following three items as applicable, (x) the reduced pension benefit that GRS will pay the Eligible Pensioner for that year, (y) any GRS pension restoration due to an improved GRS funding level, and (z) the Eligible Pensioner's Income Stabilization Benefit. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Income Stabilization Payments, including the Income Stabilization Benefit Plus, under both GRS and PFRS shall not exceed $20 million in aggregate.
- d. A separate recordkeeping sub-account called the "Income Stabilization Fund" will be set up under each of GRS and PFRS for the sole purpose of paying the Income Stabilization Payments to Eligible Pensioners. The assets credited to the sub-accounts will be invested on a commingled basis with the applicable System's assets and will be credited with a pro-rata portion of the System's earnings and losses.
- e. Amounts credited to the Income Stabilization Fund, including the Assigned UTGO Bond Tax Proceeds, may not be used for any purpose other than the payment of Income Stabilization Payments to Eligible Pensioners, except as expressly provided in subparagraph (f) below.
- f. In 2022, provided that the State has not issued a certificate of default with respect to a System at any time prior to 2022, the Investment Committee for that System shall conduct a valuation to determine the Income Stabilization Payments anticipated to be made from the System in the future, in order for the System to fulfill the obligation to make Income Stabilization Payments (the "Estimated Future Liability"). In the event that 75% of the independent members of the Investment Committee determine that the GRS or PFRS Income Stabilization Fund is credited with assets in excess of its Estimated Future Liability (the "Excess Assets"), the Investment Committee may, in its sole discretion, recommend to the Board of Trustees that the Excess Assets, but not more than $35 million, be used to fund each System's payment of Adjusted Pension Amounts. The Investment Committee shall have the right to engage professionals to assist in this task as necessary, and such expenses shall be paid by the Systems. If any funds remain in the GRS or PFRS Income Stabilization Fund on the date upon which no Eligible Pensioners under their respective System are living, the remainder of each System's Income Stabilization Fund shall be used to fund each System's payment of Adjusted Pension Amounts.

- g. “Eligible Pensioners” are those retirees or surviving spouses who are at least 60 years of age or those minor children receiving survivor benefits from GRS or PFRS, each as of the Effective Date, whose pension benefit from GRS or PFRS will be reduced by the confirmed Plan, and who have a total household income equal to or less than 140% of the Federal Poverty Line in 2013 (per their (or in the case of minor children, their legal guardian’s) 2013 income tax returns or equivalent documentation). No new persons will be eligible to receive an Income Stabilization Payment at any time in the future, and any minor child receiving survivor benefits shall cease to be an Eligible Pensioner after he or she turns 18 years of age.
- h. The initial determination of Eligible Pensioners, and the amounts of Income Stabilization Payments payable to Eligible Pensioners shall be made by the State in its sole discretion. The State shall transmit the list of Eligible Pensioners to the Investment Committee and the Board of Trustees of GRS and PFRS, as applicable. The Board of Trustees, with the assistance of the Investment Committee of GRS and PFRS, shall be responsible for properly administering the respective Income Stabilization Fund and annually certifying to the Treasurer that it has properly administered the requirements for eligibility and payment of benefits with respect to Eligible Pensioners.

4. Conditions Precedent. The Authority’s obligations under this Agreement are not effective or enforceable until each of the following conditions (the “Conditions Precedent”) have been met to the satisfaction of the Authority and the Treasurer, unless any one or more of such conditions are waived in a writing executed by the Authority and the Treasurer:

- a. The Authority receives the State Contribution from the State.
- b. An endorsement of the Plan by the Official Retiree Committee which will include a letter from the Official Retiree Committee as part of the Plan solicitation package recommending to Classes 10 and 11 a vote in favor of the Plan, or equivalent assurances from member organizations representing a majority of retirees in the respective classes.
- c. Cessation of all litigation, including the cessation of funding of any litigation initiated by any other party, as it relates to the City (a) challenging PA 436 or any actions taken pursuant to PA 436, including but not limited to, a dismissal with prejudice of the cases set forth on Exhibit D, or (b) seeking to enforce Article IX, Section 24 of the Michigan Constitution; provided, however, (i) until the State Contribution is received by the Systems, the Systems agree to stay any pending litigation described in this subparagraph, and (ii) that as a condition precedent to the GRS and the PFRS dismissing any pending litigation described in this subparagraph that they are prosecuting, the GRS and the PFRS have the right to receive written confirmation from the Authority that the Authority is prepared and authorized to disburse the State Contribution in accordance with this Agreement and the Plan, subject only to the dismissal by the GRS and PFRS of any pending litigation described in this subparagraph that they are prosecuting.

- d. Active support of the Plan by, a release of and covenant not to sue the State from, and an agreement not to support in any way (including funding) the litigation described in subparagraph 4(c) by the parties listed on Exhibit C, or equivalent assurance of litigation finality (which, as to the Systems, shall be deemed satisfied by the execution of the Support and Release Agreement to be entered into by the State and each of the Systems in connection with this matter).
- e. Classes 10 and 11 accept the Plan.
- f. By December 31, 2014, the Court enters a final, non-appealable order confirming the Plan that includes, at a minimum, the following:
 - i. A release of the State and State Related Entities by each holder of a Pension Claim of all Liabilities arising from or related to the City, the Chapter 9 Case, including the authorization given to file the Chapter 9 Case, the Plan, all Exhibits, the Disclosure Statement, PA 436 and its predecessor or replacement statutes, and Article IX, Section 24 of the Michigan Constitution that such party has, had or may have against the State and any State Related Entities.
 - ii. A requirement that the governing documents of GRS and the governing documents of PFRS be amended to include:
 - a) the governance terms and conditions set forth in Paragraph 2, Exhibit A and Exhibit B of this Agreement; and
 - b) the Income Stabilization Payments and Income Stabilization Fund described in Paragraph 3 of this Agreement.
 - iii. Approval of, and authority for the City to enter into, the UTGO Settlement.
 - iv. A requirement that the City irrevocably assigns the right to receive not less than an aggregate amount of $20,000,000 of the payments on the Reinstated Stub UTGO Bonds to the Income Stabilization Funds of the GRS and PFRS. Such payments will be made to the Income Stabilization Funds in the form of annual installment payments over a 14 year period, pursuant to a payment schedule approved by the State.

- v. Approval of, and authority for the City to enter into, the DIA Settlement.
- vi. Agreement to and compliance with MCL 141.1561 and cooperation with the transition advisory board appointed pursuant to MCL 141.1563, or compliance with any new legislation that is enacted regarding post-bankruptcy governance.
- g. Evidence satisfactory to the State of an irrevocable commitment by:
 - i. The Foundations to fund $366,000,000 (or the net present value thereof) as part of the DIA Settlement; and
 - ii. The DIA Corp. to fund $100,000,000 (or the net present value thereof) as part of the DIA Settlement.
- h. The Plan Effective Date occurs on or before April 1, 2015.

5. Non-occurrence of Conditions Precedent. If the Conditions Precedent are not met to the satisfaction of the Authority and the Treasurer on or before April 1, 2015, upon written request of the Treasurer, the Authority shall remit the State Contribution to the Department and shall have no further obligations under this Agreement.

6. Default by GRS and PFRS; Cure Period; Remedies.

- a. A System will be in default if the System has not materially complied with any of the terms and conditions set forth in (i) the Plan, (ii) the Governing Documents, or (iii) this Agreement, including, but not limited to, failing to make the required Income Stabilization Payments or using funds in the Income Stabilization Fund for unauthorized purposes. For the purposes of this Agreement, “Governing Documents” shall mean, (x) for the GRS, the Combined Plan for the General Retirement System of the City of Detroit, Michigan, and (y) for the PFRS, the Combined Plan for the Police and Fire Retirement System of the City of Detroit, Michigan. Notwithstanding subparagraph ‘e’ below, there shall not be an event of default for purposes of this paragraph 6 unless and until the Treasurer delivers to the alleged defaulting System a written notice declaring and specifically identifying the facts of an alleged default (the “Default Notice”). Nothing herein shall prohibit the subject System from contesting the alleged default; provided, however, until the contest over the alleged default is resolved, the subject System may not include its State Contribution, as adjusted for earnings and losses, for purposes of determining whether benefits reduced by the Plan may be restored.
- b. In the event of a default by a System, the System shall have 100 days after receiving the Default Notice in accordance with subparagraph ‘a’ above (the “Cure Period”) to cure such default by remedying the damages sustained as a result of the default, as well as making any delinquent

Income Stabilization Payments, and restoring any funds improperly removed from any other fund maintained by the System, including the Income Stabilization Fund, as applicable. Prior to the expiration of the Cure Period, at least six of the seven total aggregate votes of the Investment Committee for the defaulting System must certify to the Treasurer that (i) the default has been cured, and (ii) that no material damages have been caused by the default that have not otherwise been remedied (the “Cure Certification”). During the Cure Period, the defaulting System may not include its State Contribution, as adjusted for earnings and losses, for purposes of determining whether benefits reduced by the Plan may be restored.

- c. If the Investment Committee for the defaulting System provides the Cure Certification to the Treasurer in accordance with subparagraph ‘b’ above, then the default will be deemed cured and the defaulting System may once again include its State Contribution, as adjusted for earnings and losses, for purposes of determining whether benefits reduced by the Plan may be restored.
- d. If the Investment Committee for the defaulting System fails to provide the Cure Certification to the Treasurer in accordance with subparagraph ‘b’ above, then no portion of the total State Contribution to the defaulting system, as adjusted for earnings and losses, may be taken into consideration by the System during the remainder of the 20 year period following the date of such default for purposes of determining whether benefits reduced by the Plan may be restored. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if at any time during or after the Cure Period the Investment Committee certifies by a simple majority vote, that (i) the default has been cured; and (ii) that no material damages have been caused by the default that have not otherwise been remedied, then the Treasurer may consent to the defaulting System once again including its State Contribution, as adjusted for earnings and losses, for purposes of determining whether benefits reduced by the Plan may be restored, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- e. Each Investment Committee shall provide compliance reports to the Treasurer on a semi-annual basis and at such other times as the Treasurer reasonably may request (each, a “Compliance Report”) that certifies that the Investment Committee is not aware of any defaults, or, if the Investment Committee is aware of a default, specifically identifying the facts of such default. After review of a Compliance Report, the Treasurer shall provide to the System either a certificate of compliance or a Default Notice.
- f. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a default, the Treasurer and the Authority shall have the right to pursue all available legal and equitable remedies against the Board of Trustees for the defaulting System, the Investment Committee, or any other person.

7. Execution in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be deemed to be an original and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

8. Governing Law/Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Michigan, without reference to its conflict of law provisions, and the obligations, rights and remedies of the parties hereunder shall be determined in accordance with such laws. The Bankruptcy Court of the Eastern District of Michigan shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any action or proceeding solely with respect to this Agreement, and each party, to the extent permitted by law, agrees to submit to such jurisdiction and to waive any defense based on venue or jurisdiction of such court.

9. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended, modified, superseded or canceled, and any of the terms, covenants, representations, warranties or conditions hereof may be waived only by an instrument in writing signed by each of the Parties.

10. Limitation of Liability. The obligation to make the State Contribution is not a general obligation or indebtedness of the State or the Authority and is subject to satisfaction of the conditions described herein. Furthermore, neither the State nor the Authority has any liability or obligation arising from or related to the contributions and funding of the Income Stabilization Fund of each System. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, no State Related Entity or board member of the Authority shall have any liability for the representations, warranties, covenants, agreements or other obligations of the State or the Authority hereunder or in any of the certificates, notices or agreements delivered pursuant hereto.

11. Severability. If any one or more of the covenants, agreements or provisions of this Agreement shall be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, the invalidity of any such covenants, agreements and provisions shall in no way affect the validity or effectiveness of the remainder of this Agreement, and it shall continue in force to the fullest extent permitted by law.

12. Headings. Any headings preceding the text of the several articles and sections hereof, and any table of contents or marginal notes appended to copies hereof, shall be solely for convenience or reference and shall not constitute a part of this Agreement, nor shall they affect its meaning, construction or effect.

FORM OF SYNCORA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT
OPTION TO PURCHASE AND DEVELOP LAND
BY AND BETWEEN CITY OF DETROIT
AND
PIKE POINTE HOLDINGS, LLC

THIS AGREEMENT (referred to herein as the “Agreement”) is entered into as of the ____ day of September, 2014 (the “Effective Date”), by and between the City of Detroit, a Michigan public body corporate (the “City”), acting through its Planning & Development Department (“PDD”), whose address is 2300 Cadillac Tower, Detroit, Michigan 48226, and Pike Pointe Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Developer”), whose address is [_____]. The City and Developer are sometimes referred to in this Agreement as a “Party” and, collectively, as the “Parties.”

Recitals:

A. In consideration of the Parties’ various contractual arrangements entered into contemporaneously herewith, including without limitation, extension of the lease of the Windsor Tunnel between the City and affiliates of Developer, and the mutual desire of the Parties to promote economic growth in the City (the “Arrangement”), the City has agreed to grant an option to Developer to acquire various parcels of land located in the City of Detroit as described in the attached Exhibit A (each a “Property” and, collectively, the “Properties”). Unless otherwise set forth herein, references in this Agreement to a Property shall apply only to the applicable Property and not the other Properties.

B. If Developer exercises its option with respect to one or more of parcels of the Property as set forth herein, Developer shall develop such Property in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

Accordingly, the Parties agree as follows:

Section 1. TERMS OF OPTION

(A) Grant of Option. The City hereby grants to Developer an option (the “Option”) to, from time to time, acquire any or all of the Properties from the City upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. The Option shall be effective for five (5) years from the Effective Date, except with respect to that certain Property located at 2200 Franklin for which the Option shall be effective for seven (7) years from the Effective Date (the “Option Period”). The Parties agree and acknowledge that the sole and exclusive consideration for the Option and any subsequent acquisition of any Property hereunder is deemed to be the Arrangement, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged. The City shall cause to be recorded and maintained of record against the Properties in the appropriate land records for the duration of the Option Period the memorandum of option attached hereto as Exhibit B. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Option Period may be extended for a period not to exceed two (2) years upon written consent of the City, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed (the “Option Extension”). For purposes of the Option Extension, it shall be unreasonable for the City to withhold consent thereto to the extent that, (i) on the date of Developer’s request therefor, development in the immediate vicinity of the Property has materially decreased or the general economic condition of the City or geographic region in which the Property is located has deteriorated, in either instance from and after the Effective Date to such a level that it would not be economically feasible for the Developer to pursue development of the Property and/or (ii) the Option Extension is reasonable given the complexity of the development contemplated by the Developer. Any dispute between the Parties with regard to a request for Option Extension which cannot be resolved by the Parties within sixty (60) days following the Developer’s request therefor shall be brought in the Bankruptcy Court for so long as it has jurisdiction, and thereafter in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan; provided, that if the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan does not have jurisdiction, then such legal action, suit or proceeding shall be brought in such other court of competent jurisdiction located in Wayne County, Michigan; provided, further, by execution and delivery of this Agreement, each of the Parties irrevocably accepts and submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such court, generally and unconditionally, with respect to any such action, suit or proceeding and specifically consents to the jurisdiction and authority of the Bankruptcy Court to hear and determine all such actions, suits, and proceedings under 28 U.S.C. §157(b) or (c), whichever applies.

(B) Diligence Notice. If the Developer desires (in its sole discretion) to undertake Due Diligence Activities (as hereinafter defined) with respect to one or more of the Properties, the Developer shall, from time to time, give prior written notice of its intent thereof to the City not less than sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of the Option Period (each, a “Diligence Notice”). The Developer shall be entitled to deliver any number of Diligence Notices with respect to the various Properties during the Option Period; provided, however, that any such Diligence Notice shall indicate reference to the Property the Developer intends to subject to the Due Diligence Activities hereunder.

(C) Condition of Property.

(1) Due Diligence Activities. Subject to the requirements of Section 2 below, upon delivery of the Diligence Notice to the City with respect to any Property, Developer shall have a period commencing on the date of the Diligence Notice and continuing through and including the date that is sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of the Option Period (the “Due Diligence Period”) to conduct its due diligence activities on any Property that is the subject of a Diligence Notice. For purposes of this Agreement, “Due Diligence Activities” include but are not limited to the following:

(a) such physical inspections, surveys, soil borings and bearing tests, possible relocation of utilities, and such environmental due diligence on or for the Property as Developer deems appropriate, all of which shall be completed at Developer’s expense;

(b) investigations, environmental site assessments, including Phase I and Phase II site assessments, sampling and testing of soil, groundwater, surface water, soil vapors, indoor air, and building materials (such as Asbestos and lead-based paint), and/or a Baseline Environmental Assessment, (“BEA”), as defined in Part 201 of the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Act (“NREPA”), being MCL 324.20101 et seq., and such other investigations and assessments as Developer may deem needed in its sole discretion to determine the condition of the Property and the Property’s compliance with Environmental Law and any other federal, state and local laws, rules, regulations and orders relating in any way to protection of human health, the environment and natural resources, all of which shall be completed at Developer’s expense; and

(c) a review of the title evidence, survey, entitlements, and payment of taxes and assessments, all of which shall be completed at Developer’s expense.

(d) a review of financing sources related to Developer’s proposed development and use of the Property, or any other matter that in Developer’s sole discretion is relevant to Developer’s acquisition of the Property.

(e) a review of all City Information and all publicly-available information with respect to the Property.

(f) a review of available public and private utilities and public accesses necessary for the proposed development of the Property.

(f) application and procurement of any zoning, site plan, elevation, special land use, environmental, conditional use or other municipal approvals or permits, or variances therefrom, required or appropriate for the proposed development of the Property. The City hereby authorizes the Developer to submit and apply for all such approvals, permits, and variances upon the commencement of the Due Diligence Period.

(2) City Information. The City shall use reasonable efforts to make available to Developer all information in the City's (or the City's agencies' or departments') possession or control related to the applicable Property within thirty (30) days following delivery to the City of a Diligence Notice for the applicable Property, including but not limited to existing leases, licenses, permits, approvals, contracts, warranties, title searches and policies, surveys, appraisals, environmental audits, Phase I environmental site assessments, Phase II reports or other testing or sampling data, asbestos surveys, reports, specifications, from the Planning, Building, Assessing, Environmental Affairs and Fire Departments, notices of violations of applicable laws, regulations and ordinances or other documents in the City's possession or control related to the applicable Property (collectively, the "City Information"). The City shall cooperate with the Developer and use reasonable efforts to facilitate the Developer's Due Diligence Activities, all at no material incremental cost to the City, including providing information, coordinating with tenants or other third party users of the Property as applicable, and executing such documentation as may be reasonable and necessary for Developer's access to the site and completion of the Due Diligence Activities including the preparation of a BEA.

(3) Insurance. Prior to entering onto any Property for any Due Diligence Activities, Developer or its contractors shall maintain the insurance coverage and comply with the insurance requirements specified in the City's Right-of-Entry, a form of which is attached as Exhibit C (the "Right-of-Entry").

(4) Indemnity. Developer shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless the City from and against any loss, liability, cost or expense incurred by the City to the extent resulting from Developer's (including its duly authorized employees, agents, engineers or other representatives) negligence or willful acts occurring in connection with the Due Diligence Activities; provided, however, that (i) in the event Developer provides an Objection Notice or otherwise elects not to proceed to Closing, the Developer shall in no circumstance have any obligation or liability with respect to any conditions pre-existing at the Property including without limitation any environmental condition, soil or groundwater contamination or other environmental conditions that may discovered in the course of the Developer's Due Diligence Activities and thereafter disclosed to the City as required hereunder, except to the extent such conditions are materially exacerbated due to the negligence or willful acts of Developer or any of its duly authorized employees, agents, engineers or other representatives, and (ii) the Developer shall not be responsible for any loss, liability, cost, or expense resulting from the discovery of any adverse information or condition regarding the applicable Property or from the City's (or the City's agencies' or departments') negligence or misconduct.

(5) Results of Due Diligence Activities. If Developer concludes, in Developer's sole discretion, that a particular Property is satisfactory, then Developer shall so notify the City in writing on or before the last day of the Due Diligence Period, by sending an “Election Notice,” and the parties shall proceed to closing the applicable Property subject to other terms and conditions of this Agreement. If Developer concludes, in Developer’s sole discretion, that, for any reason or for no reason, a particular Property is not satisfactory, then Developer shall so notify the City in writing on or before the last day of the Due Diligence Period, by sending a “Rejection Notice,” and the parties shall not proceed to Closing with respect to the applicable Property at such time. In the event the Developer issues a Rejection Notice with respect to any Property, Developer may not later elect to re-commence Due Diligence Activities with respect to the same Property and the Option granted hereunder with respect to such Property will be thereafter deemed released and of no further force or effect. If Developer concludes, in Developer’s sole discretion, as a result of the Due Diligence Activities that the condition of the Property is not satisfactory but Developer wants the City to cure such unsatisfactory conditions, then Developer shall notify the City in writing on or before the last day of the Due Diligence Period, by sending an “Objection Notice” setting forth with reasonable specificity the particular condition of the applicable Property which is unacceptable to Developer (each such condition referred to as a “Defect”). The City shall have the right, but not the obligation, within sixty (60) days of the Objection Notice (the “City Cure Period”), to cure such Defects; provided, however, that the City shall be required to cure any liens or encumbrances (collectively, a “Mandatory Cure”) (x) in favor of the City or any agency or department of the City or (y) result from a violation of Section 5(G) of this Agreement. If the City is unable or unwilling to cause any or all of the Defects (other than Mandatory Cures which the City shall be obligated to cure) during such City Cure Period, Developer shall have the right to either (i) elect not to exercise the Option with respect to the applicable Property by sending written notice to City of such election within two (2) days after the expiration of the City Cure Period, in which event the Developer may later elect to commence Due Diligence Activities with respect to the same Property by delivery of a Diligence Notice pursuant to the terms of Section 1(B) above; or (ii) waive its objection to such Defects and accept the Property subject to those Defects (Developer being deemed to have elected this option (ii) if it fails to make the election in the preceding option (i)). If Developer fails to provide an Election Notice or an Objection Notice within the Due Diligence Period, then Developer shall be deemed to have delivered a Rejection Notice with respect to the applicable Property. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, the City agrees to (1) cooperate with the Developer in clearing title to the Property to the extent that the title related Defects described in the Objection Notice are within the reasonable control of the City to address or eliminate and (2) cure all Mandatory Cure Defects. In the event that the expiration of the City Cure Period for a particular Property occurs (or would occur) after the expiration of the Option Period, the Option Period shall be extended for such Property until the date that is fifteen (15) days after the expiration of the applicable City Cure Period.

(6) As Is Condition of Property; City Cooperation. From time to time with respect to each Property, subject to the earliest to occur of (i) delivery by Developer of an Election Notice, (ii) written notice to Developer that the City has cured all Defects set forth in an Objection Notice provided prior to the expiration of the City Cured Period, or (iii) waiver by Developer of any Defects, each pursuant to Section 1(C)(5) above, closing of the transactions contemplated hereby with respect to a particular Property (each, a “Closing”) shall be on an “as-is, where-is” basis and the Developer shall take the applicable Property as it finds it at Closing other than a matter resulting from a violation of the covenant set forth in Section 5(G) of this Agreement. The City makes no implied or express representations or warranties of any kind as to its condition, including its environmental condition and any other condition that may adversely affect the development, or its fitness for absolutely any purpose whatsoever. By proceeding to Closing after completion of its Due Diligence Activities, Developer will acknowledge that it is satisfied with the condition of the applicable Property, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement. By accepting title to the applicable Property at Closing, Developer shall be deemed to have waived any right to object to the status of title or to the condition of the applicable Property, regardless of the result of any Due Diligence Activities, and shall be deemed to have declared its full satisfaction with the status of title to and condition of the applicable Property, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement.

(7) Release of City from Liability. Upon Closing on any particular Property, Developer shall release the City and its officials, employees, and agents (but not any third party) from any and all claims or causes of action the Developer may have against the City for any liability, injury or loss as a result of any physical defects in or physical conditions of the applicable Property, including but not limited to any surface, subsurface, latent or patent conditions whether naturally occurring or by action of any party, including but not limited to environmental condition, other than a matter resulting from a violation of the City's covenant set forth in Section 5(G)(ii) of this Agreement.

(8) Security of Properties. In the event that a Property is vacant or otherwise not being utilized by the City, without imposing any liability or obligation with respect thereto, commencing on the commencement of Due Diligence Activities with respect to such Property, Developer shall have the right, but not the obligation, in its sole and absolute discretion, at Developer's cost and expense, to undertake any actions it deems reasonably necessary to secure the Property and prevent damage or unauthorized access to the applicable Property, including, without limitation, installing and maintaining fencing and/or signage on the applicable Property. As a condition to Developer exercising its right hereunder to secure any Property, the Developer must first obtain a general liability policy of insurance in connection with such activities in form and amount reasonably satisfactory to the City, with the City named as an additional insured thereto. In addition, Developer shall not be deemed to be in control of or operating the applicable Property as a result of Developer's undertaking of any security measures with respect to this section. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in exercising its right to secure the Property provided for herein, Developer shall not be deemed to have warranted to the City the effectiveness of the security measures so implemented.

(D) Manner of Conveyance. At the Closing, the applicable Property shall be conveyed to Developer (or its designee) by one or more quit claim deeds substantially in the form of the deed set forth in Exhibit D (the "Deeds") using legal descriptions approved by Developer and the City.

or similar proceeding arising therefrom unless the City has a written agreement with a broker, finder or agent providing for such payment in which case the City shall be responsible for such broker, finder or agents' commissions, fees, judgments or expenses. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the City will defend and indemnify the Developer and hold it harmless with respect to any commissions, fees, judgments, or expenses of any nature and kind that the City or Developer may become liable to pay by reason of any claims by or on behalf of brokers, finders or agents claiming by, through or under the City incident to this Agreement and the transaction contemplated hereby or any litigation or similar proceeding arising therefrom unless the Developer has a written agreement with a broker, finder or agent providing for such payment in which case the Developer shall be responsible for such broker, finder or agents' commissions, fees, judgments or expenses.

(F) Taxes And Assessments.

(1) Property on Tax Rolls at Closing. All taxes and assessments which (i) have become a lien upon the Property or part thereof prior to the date of Closing, and (ii) have been discovered and specifically identified by Developer prior to the applicable Closing, shall be paid by the City and shall be a Mandatory Cure; provided, however, that all current property taxes shall be prorated and adjusted to the date of Closing on a due date basis. From and after each Closing, Developer shall be solely responsible for all taxes, liens, and assessments that become due and payable for the period after the applicable Closing against the applicable Property it acquires hereunder or any part thereof, whenever assessed, levied, or due, and shall have no claim against the City on account thereof.

(2) Approval of Requests for Economic Incentives/Entitlements and Land Use Approvals.

(i) The City agrees to consider any requests by Developer or its designee for any development or economic inducements (including tax abatements, tax credits, tax increment financing, grants, loans, cost reimbursements and like development incentives) for which any of the Properties are eligible, whether or not such requests are made as part of Developer's Due Diligence Activities or thereafter. The City also agrees to cooperate with and support Developer or its designee in any request to procure such development or economic inducements from other governmental authorities (whether or not related to or controlled by City).

(ii) The City agrees to consider requests or applications by Developer or its designee for approvals relating to zoning, site plans, special use permits, uses, variances or other municipal approvals that are necessary or appropriate to develop the Properties, provided that if the requests pertain to any of the Properties other than 1300 Beaubien, such requests are for uses that are consistent with the SD4 zoning classification as of the Effective Date or otherwise are consistent with residential, parking, retail or commercial uses permitted within the SD4 zoning classification as currently in effect or other uses suitable for the location.

(iii) The following shall apply to any consideration or cooperation by the City with respect to any formal requests made by Developer or its designee to the City, described in subsections (i) or (ii) of this Section: (a) the City agrees to process such requests pursuant to its ordinary processes for the applicable requests, (b) the City shall not unreasonably withhold, condition or delay approvals of the applicable requests, and shall not unreasonably impede or interfere with development activities consistent with this Agreement, (c) the City shall not discriminate against Developer or its designee in the consideration or approval of such requests on account of the Arrangement, the events leading up to the Arrangement or this Agreement, and (d) the City shall use reasonable efforts to facilitate such requests, taking into consideration other similar requests for approvals or inducements, as applicable, of third parties granted by the City for similarly situated developments and uses as those contemplated by Developer for the Property; provided, however, the City shall process such requests pursuant to all then applicable rules, regulations, statutes and similar requirements.

(G) Inability to Convey. Subject to the Developer's rights under Section 6(D) below, if, for any reason, the City is unable to convey title to a particular Property to the Developer upon exercise of the Option and Developer's election to proceed to Closing with respect to the applicable Property pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, which shall include (i) if the City (or an agency or department of the City) does not own title to such Property, (ii) there is a Defect that is not cured or removed as of the Closing and such Defect materially hinders Developer's ability to develop the applicable Property in an economically viable manner, (iii) there are any uncured Mandatory Cure items, or (iv) if Developer determines that the scope or expense of any environmental remediation necessary to develop the applicable Property would make the development thereof, as contemplated by the Developer, economically unfeasible, the Developer and the City shall mutually agree upon alternate consideration commensurate to the undeveloped, fair-market value of the applicable Property (the "Alternate Consideration"); provided, however, that such value shall assume that any applicable Defects have been removed; provided, further, that, with respect to the applicable Property, the reasonable, actual and out-of-pocket acquisition and development costs incurred by Developer or its designee after the Effective Date and prior to the date upon which Developer or its designee obtains actual knowledge of the existence of the particular Defect or condition of such Property giving rise to Alternate Consideration, including, without limitation, costs associated with Due Diligence Activities, remediation activities, and architect, engineering, and design activities, shall be included in the amount of Alternate Consideration to the extent Alternate Consideration is required pursuant to Section 1(G)(i) or 1(G)(iii) above.

To the extent the Parties do not agree on the Alternate Consideration within sixty (60) days of establishing that Alternative Consideration is required, then, within thirty (30) days thereafter, the Developer and the City shall deliver to each other Developer's or City's, as the case may be, determination of the Alternate Consideration (which shall be in the form of an alternate parcel of real property or cash payment amount). Within ten (10) days after each Party delivers to the other party such Party's determination of the Alternate Consideration, the Developer and the City shall each appoint one disinterested appraiser having the qualifications set forth herein. Each such appraiser must be a Member of the Appraisal Institute (MAI) and have at least ten (10) years of experience appraising commercial or industrial property in the Detroit metropolitan area as a MAI appraiser. If either the Developer or the City fails to appoint an appraiser within such ten (10) day period, the appraiser appointed by the Developer or the City, as the case may be, shall appoint an appraiser having the qualifications set forth herein. As promptly as possible, but in no event later than thirty (30) days after the appointment of both appraisers, the appraisers shall notify the Developer and the City in writing of their determination of which of the Developer's or the City's determination more closely approximates Alternate Consideration (all as valued as of the determination date). The Alternate Consideration so selected by the two appraisers will constitute the Alternate Consideration for purposes of this section, and will be binding upon the Developer and the City. If the two appraisers are unable to agree as to the Alternate Consideration, then the two appraisers shall promptly agree upon and appoint a third appraiser having the qualifications set forth herein. The third appraiser shall, within thirty (30) days of appointment, determine which of the two determinations of the Developer or the City more closely approximates Alternate Consideration, and shall notify the Developer and the City thereof. The Alternate Consideration selected by the third appraiser will constitute the Alternate Consideration for purposes of this section, and will be binding upon the Developer and the City. To the extent the Alternate Consideration selected by the appraisers hereunder is real property, (i) such real property shall be reasonably acceptable to Developer, and (ii) the City may elect in its sole discretion to satisfy such Alternate Consideration in the form of a cash payment to the Developer in an amount equal to the appraisers' determination of the cash value of the Alternate Consideration selected. To the extent the Alternate Consideration to be given to the Developer hereunder is real property, the City shall be deemed to have granted Developer an option with respect to such Alternative Consideration property pursuant to the same terms as this Agreement; provided, however, that the time periods with respect to such option, including without limitation, the Option Period, shall commence upon the date that such new option with respect to the Alternative Consideration is granted to Developer and not as of the Effective Date.

(H) Use of the Properties During the Due Diligence Period. Commencing on the commencement of the Due Diligence Period, Developer shall have the right (but not the obligation), in its sole discretion, to elect to utilize all or a portion of the Properties identified on Schedule 1(H) prior to acquiring title of the Use Property for the operations of a surface lot parking facility and ancillary uses (collectively, the "Parking Use") by providing thirty (30) days' prior written notice thereof to City (a "Use Notice"). The Use Notice shall identify the Properties that will be used by Developer for the Parking Use (collectively, the "Use Property"). Developer's right to utilize the Use Property for the Parking Use shall commence as a license from the City upon the expiration of thirty (30) days following the delivery of the Use Notice to the City. Developer shall have the right to enter into an agreement with a third party to operate the Parking Use on the Use Property. Developer shall pay all costs associated with the Parking Use of the Use Property (including all federal, state and local taxes and charges as may be applicable thereto; however, Developer shall not be responsible for ad valorem property taxes during the Use Period) and shall receive all revenue with respect thereto. In the event that Developer delivers a Use Notice, Developer shall be required to deliver an Election Notice with respect to the Use Property; provided however, Developer shall have the right to elect at what point during the Due Diligence Period such Election Notice is given by providing written notice of such election prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period. The period between a Use Notice and Closing shall be referred to herein as the "Use Period." If Developer fails to deliver such election prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period, Developer shall be deemed to have delivered an Election Notice with respect to the Use Property on the last day of the Due Diligence Period. Developer shall maintain such commercially reasonable insurance as is customary for operations similar to the Parking Use on the Use Property and shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless the City from and against any loss, liability, cost or expense incurred by the City to the extent resulting from the Parking Use; provided, however, that the Developer shall not be responsible for any loss, liability, cost, or expense resulting from the City's (or of the City's agencies' or departments') negligence or misconduct. Developer shall at all times keep the Use Property clean and free of debris and shall not permit any area of the Use Property to be littered with refuse during the Use Period. The City disclaims all representations and warranties as to the condition of the Use Property, including, but not limited to, any implied or express warranty of fitness of the Use Property for the Parking Use. Developer covenants and agrees that it shall not use the Use Property during the Use Period in any manner which violates the laws of the United States of America, the laws of the State of Michigan or any ordinances or other regulations of any governing municipality or other political subdivision. Developer's use of the Use Property and any activities or actions of Developer or its designee in connection therewith shall not be deemed a violation of the City's covenants under Section 5(G) below.

Section 2. ENVIRONMENTAL MATTERS

(A) Definitions. The following words and expressions shall, wherever they appear in this document, be construed as follows:

- (1) "Asbestos" shall have the meanings provided under the Environmental Laws and shall include, but not be limited to, asbestos fibers and friable asbestos as such terms are defined under the Environmental Laws.
- (2) "Environmental Claims" shall mean all claims, demands, suits, proceedings, actions, whether pending or threatened, contingent or non-contingent, known or unknown, including but not limited to investigations and notices by any governmental authority, brought under common law and/or under any of the Environmental Laws which can or do relate to the Property.
- (3) "Environmental Laws" shall mean all applicable federal, state, and local laws, rules, regulations, orders, judicial determinations and decisions or determinations by any judicial, legislative or executive body of any governmental or quasi-governmental entity, whether in the past, present or future, with respect to:
 - (i) the installation, existence, or removal of, or exposure to, Asbestos on the Property;
 - (ii) the existence on, or discharge from, or removal from the Property of Hazardous Materials; and
 - (iii) the effects on the environment of the Property or any activity conducted now, previously or hereafter conducted on the Property.

Environmental Laws shall include, but are not limited to, the following: (i) the Michigan Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Act, 1994 Public Act 451, as amended ("NREPA"); the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act, 42 USC Sections 9601, et seq. (“CERCLA”); the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act, Public Law 99-499, 100 Stat. 1613; the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, 42 USC Sections 6901, et seq.; the National Environmental Policy Act, 42 USC Section 4321; the Toxic Substances Control Act, 15 USC Section 2601; the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act, 49 USC Section 1801; the Clean Air Act, 42 USC Sections 7401, et seq.; and the regulations promulgated in connection therewith; (ii) Environmental Protection Agency regulations pertaining to Asbestos (including 40 CFR Part 61, Subpart M); Occupational Safety and Health Administration Regulations pertaining to Asbestos (including CFR Sections 1901.1001 and 1926.58) as each may now or hereafter be amended; and (iii) any Michigan state and local laws and regulations pertaining to any Hazardous Materials.

(4) “Hazardous Materials” shall mean any of the following as defined by the Environmental Laws: Asbestos; hazardous wastes; solid wastes; toxic or hazardous substances, wastes or contaminants (including but not limited to polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs), paint containing lead and urea formaldehyde foam insulation), and sewage.

(B) The City and Developer acknowledge and agree that some of the parcels to be transferred may be “facilities” pursuant to Part 201 of NREPA, whether or not as yet discovered to be such, and that given the number of parcels being transferred, the 100-year period over which the parcels were developed, numerous changes in uses, and the City’s lack of knowledge about the condition or history of most of the parcels, it may not be practicable or possible to identify all pre-existing contamination or conditions on the parcels which may strictly violate Environmental Laws. Further, the City and Developer acknowledge that although the Developer can give its general undertaking to comply with Environmental Laws with regard to its conduct of future activities on the parcels, at the time of Closing, neither City nor Developer will be able to estimate exactly what such compliance may involve with regard to existing contamination and other existing conditions on the parcels that may violate Environmental Laws. The City acknowledges that the Developer may conduct a BEA and CERCLA “All Appropriate Inquiry” assessment activities respecting the Property, the results of which assessments may be reported to federal and state authorities at such time as Developer issues an Election Notice to proceed to Closing with respect to such Property, in order to seek the associated protections from liability with respect to pre-existing environmental conditions at the Property (“Liability Protection”), or such earlier date as required pursuant to Environmental Laws or in order to preserve Liability Protection.

(C) The City shall authorize the Developer, through a fully executed Right-of-Entry (in the form attached), to enter upon the applicable Property during the Due Diligence Period to, subject to the conditions set forth herein, undertake environmental remediation activities approved by the City hereunder, and make soil boring and bearing tests, undertake such surveying and environmental due diligence activities as Developer deems appropriate, including without limitation sampling and testing of soil, soil vapor, surface water, groundwater, indoor air, and the installation of groundwater wells, provided such do not materially and permanently interfere with demolition or site improvement activities of the City or the rightful use of the Property by a tenant in possession or other third party, if any. All such testing and remediation shall be done at Developer's expense. Developer shall at all times during the Due Diligence Period comply with the terms and provisions of the Right-of-Entry, and Developer's right to enter upon the applicable Property is subject to execution of such Right-of-Entry. To the extent any provision of such Right-of-Entry conflicts with the terms set forth herein, the terms of this Agreement shall govern. Developer shall upon request submit to the City a copy of each final survey or environmental testing report generated as a result of such activities. Developer shall give prior written notice to the City to inspect, investigate and/or remediate the condition of the Property during the Due Diligence Period, including any investigation of the environmental condition (each such notice referred to herein as an "Investigation Notice"). To the extent the Investigation Notice includes a request to perform any environmental remediation activities upon the applicable Property, prior to undertaking such remediation, the Developer shall submit to the City in writing (i) the scope of remediation activities contemplated by the Developer, (ii) evidence of commercially reasonable insurance appropriate for the scope of remediation contemplated by the Developer, and (iii) evidence that the Developer has the financial resources to complete the scope of remediation contemplated, each of which shall be subject to the prior written approval of the City, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Upon written request of Developer, the City shall provide an electronic mail address for delivery of any Investigation Notice; provided, Developer shall mail a copy of any Investigation Notice sent via electronic mail to the City pursuant to the provisions of Section 4 below. Developer shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to minimize damage to the Property in connection with such entry and shall restore the Property to substantially the condition existing prior to such entry, provided that the City acknowledges that soil borings and groundwater well sampling may be conducted, and it may not be practicable to fully restore the Property to the exact same condition. Developer shall indemnify, defend and hold the City harmless from and against any and all loss, cost, liability and expense, including reasonable attorney fees and litigation costs, suffered or incurred by the City as a result of the Developer's (including any of its duly authorized employees, agents, engineers or other representatives) negligent acts or omissions or willful misconduct occurring in connection with the activities conducted in accordance with the Right-of-Entry; provided however that (A) in the event Developer provides an Objection Notice or otherwise elects not to proceed to Closing, the Developer shall in no circumstance have any indemnity obligation or other liability with respect to any environmental conditions pre-existing at the Property including without limitation any soil or groundwater contamination or other environmental conditions that may be discovered in the course of the Developer's Due Diligence Activities and thereafter disclosed to the City as required hereunder, except to the extent such environmental conditions are materially exacerbated due to the negligence or willful misconduct of Developer or any of its duly authorized employees, agents, engineers or other representatives, and (B) in no event shall Developer have any indemnity obligation or other liability with respect to any loss, cost, liability or expense incurred by the City as the result of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the City or its agents.

(D) In the event Developer elects to proceed to take title to any Property, upon the Closing, Developer takes such Property as it finds it, "AS IS", and the City makes no express or implied representations or warranties as to its fitness for absolutely any purpose whatsoever, including but not limited to any warranty that the Property is fit for the Developer's purpose or regarding the presence or absence of Hazardous Materials at, on, in, under, about, or from the Property and compliance with the Property with Environmental Laws. Developer acknowledges that neither the City nor any agent or employee of the City has made any representation, warranty or agreement, either express or implied, and Developer has not relied on any representation, warranty or agreement of any kind made by the City or any agent or employee of the City, concerning (a) the physical or environmental condition of the Property, or (b) the presence or absence of any condition, substance or material, including but not limited to any waste material, equipment or device at, on, in, under, about, or from the Property. Developer agrees that the disclosures of the City concerning the Property and its condition are intended to satisfy any duties the City may have under the law, including but not limited to the statutes, Environmental Laws, and common law. Developer shall rely solely on its own due diligence with respect to such inquiries, investigations and assessments. By executing this Agreement, Developer acknowledges that it is satisfied with the condition of the Property, subject only to its Due Diligence Activities, including but not limited to inspection of the Property, review of title, and the results of the tests, investigations and surveys permitted under this Agreement. If, prior to Closing, Developer fails to undertake such investigations and/or obtain such test results and surveys, or fails to object to the condition of the Property based on the results of its Due Diligence Activities, and Developer thereafter elects to proceed to Closing, Developer shall thereupon be deemed to have waived any right to object to the condition of the Property and shall be deemed to have declared its full satisfaction therewith.

(E) Upon Closing on any particular Property, subject to the City's covenant set forth in Section 5(G)(ii) below, Developer, for itself and its successors and assigns, expressly waives and releases all Environmental Claims (whether for personal injury, property damage or otherwise) that Developer may have against the City and its officials, employees and agents in connection with or related to such Property or any aspect thereof except for Environmental Claims arising out of actions by the City of its employees or agents that caused the release or threatened release of hazardous substances on the parcels being transferred. Upon Closing on any particular Property, Developer releases and discharges the City from all Environmental Claims that Developer may have against the City in connection with or arising out of the present condition of the Property.

(F) Intentionally omitted.

(G) Subject to the City's covenant set forth in Section 5(G)(ii) below, after the Closing with respect to a Property, the City shall have no obligation or liability to Developer whatsoever to undertake any cleanup or other remedial action that may be required in connection with the Property under any Environmental Law, or to comply with any other federal, state or local requirement to attend to the physical condition of the Property.

(H) At its sole cost and expense, with respect to an applicable Property for the period commencing on the applicable Closing and ending on the applicable Commencement of Construction, Developer shall: (a) comply with all Environmental Laws; (b) pay when due the cost of Developer's compliance with the Environmental Laws resulting directly or indirectly out of environmental conditions caused or permitted by Developer during its period of ownership, use, possession or development of the Property; and (c) keep the Property free of any lien imposed pursuant to the Environmental Laws resulting out of Developer's ownership, use, possession, or development of the Property.

(I) During the earliest of the date that Developer (a) receives title to the Property, (b) receives possession of the Property or (c) performs any removal or remedial activities on the Property, Developer shall comply with all Environmental Laws and will undertake to complete any further investigation and remediation of the environmental conditions, if any, necessary to permit the intended use of the Property in accordance with the Environmental Laws. As between the City and Developer but not as to third parties, Developer assumes the risk of liability for any and all Hazardous Materials, whether known or unknown, which may have been or may be present in, at, on, under about or from the Property except for hazardous materials released by the City or its agents, employees, or contractors.

(J) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary which may be contained in this Agreement, Developer represents and warrants and covenants to the City for the period after Developer's commencement of ownership, use, possession or development of the Property and terminating upon the Commencement of Construction at an applicable Property, as follows:

(i) Developer shall not directly or indirectly use or allow the use of the Property for the purpose of storing any Hazardous Materials Developer brings into the Property, nor shall Developer directly or indirectly use the Property in a manner which will cause or increase the likelihood of causing the release of such Hazardous Materials onto or from the Property, other than those Hazardous Materials which are necessary and commercially reasonable for the conduct of Developer's development activities or the business operated on the Property and which Hazardous Materials shall be, handled and disposed of in compliance with all Environmental Laws and industry standards and in a commercially reasonable manner.

(ii) Developer shall promptly notify the City of any claims or litigation against the Developer by any person (including any governmental authority), concerning the presence or possible presence of Hazardous Materials contamination at the Property or concerning any violation or alleged violation of the Environmental Laws by the Developer respecting the Property, and shall furnish the City with a copy of any such communication received by Developer.

(iii) Developer shall notify the City promptly and in reasonable detail in the event that Developer becomes aware of or suspects the presence of Hazardous Materials contamination or a violation of the Environmental Laws at the Property.

(iv) If Developer's operations at the Property violate the Environmental Laws so as to subject Developer or the City to a formal notice of violation by a governmental agency alleging a violation of the Environmental Laws, Developer shall promptly investigate the underlying circumstances and notify the City within fourteen (14) days of the results of its investigation. If Developer determines that an ongoing violation by Developer is occurring or did occur, Developer shall, to the extent required by Environmental Laws, cease or cause a cessation of or take other actions to address those aspects of the use or operations causing the violation and shall remedy and cure in compliance with the Environmental Laws any conditions arising therefrom to the extent required by Environmental Laws at its own cost and expense. If Developer disputes that its activities are violating Environmental Laws, it shall expeditiously appeal and prosecute an appeal of the notice of violation or take other commercially reasonable actions to dispute such notice.

Section 3. CLOSING

(A) Time and Place of Closing. The closing with respect to a particular Property shall take place at the office of the PDD, or such other location designated by the City and acceptable to Developer. Each Closing will take place within fifteen (15) days following the earliest to occur of (i) delivery by Developer of a Election Notice with respect to a particular Property, (ii) written notice to Developer that the City has cured all Defects set forth in an Objection Notice provided prior to the expiration of the City Cured Period with respect to a particular Property, or (iii) waiver by Developer of any Defects with respect to a particular Property, each pursuant to Section 1(C)(5) above. For the avoidance of doubt, no additional consideration shall be due from the Developer to the City at any Closing.

(B) Conditions to Closing. The City's obligation to proceed with a Closing is conditioned on the fulfillment by Developer of each of the following conditions precedent:

a. Resolution of Developer's Authority. Developer shall furnish to the City a certified copy of a resolution in form and substance as set forth on Exhibit E, duly authorizing the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and all other documents and actions contemplated hereunder with respect to a particular Property.

b. Intentionally Omitted.

c. Payment of Closing Costs. Developer shall have tendered payment of the closing costs payable by Developer, which shall include all title charges, escrow, closing and recording fees associated with any conveyance hereunder. For avoidance of doubt, the City shall not be responsible for any closing charges or transaction fees in connection with any Closing hereunder other than the payment of its own legal fees and expenses.

(C) Delivery of Deeds and Possession. The City will deliver to Developer at each Closing the Deeds with respect to the particular Property that is subject of such Closing to and possession of the applicable Property.

(D) Recording. Provided that Developer has complied with all conditions precedent as specified herein, the Deeds with respect to a particular Property shall be delivered at the applicable Closing for prompt recordation with the Register of Deeds of Wayne County, Michigan. Developer shall pay at each Closing all costs for recording the Deeds. Possession of the applicable Property shall be delivered to Developer at the applicable Closing.

Section 4: NOTICES

A notice, demand or other communication under this Agreement by either Party to the other shall be sufficiently given if it is dispatched by certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, or sent by recognized overnight delivery service, or hand delivered, with receipt obtained, and addressed as follows:

If to Developer: _____

If to the City: Director
Planning & Development Department
65 Cadillac Square, Suite 2300
Detroit, Michigan 48226

With a copy to (which copy shall not constitute notice):

Corporation Counsel
City of Detroit Law Department
2 Woodward Avenue
Suite 500
Detroit, MI 48226

All notices shall be deemed given on the day of mailing. Either Party to this Agreement may change its address for the receipt of notices at any time by giving notice thereof to the other as provided in this section. Any notice given by a Party hereunder must be signed by an authorized representative of such Party.

Section 5: COVENANTS

(A) Developer covenants for itself and its successors and assigns and every successor in interest to any Property constituting a part of the Properties, that from and after Closing on such Property, Developer and its successors and assigns shall develop such Property only to and in accordance with the uses specified in this Agreement, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the City. The uses specified in this Agreement are for development and use of such Property into parking facilities, residential housing, commercial, retail space or any other use suitable for the location, consistent with the City’s urban planning policies and the City’s comprehensive development plan in effect as of the date the Developer seeks zoning and land use approval for such development. Subject to force majeure delays, within fifteen (15) months following Closing (the “Commencement Deadline”) on any Property, the Developer shall achieve Commencement of Construction (as defined below) with respect to such Property. Following Commencement of Construction, the Developer shall diligently prosecute such development on the Property to substantial completion (which shall mean substantial completion of such development and all material improvements related thereto, exclusive of landscaping, punch list items and any tenant work for commercial or other space for which there are no tenants or for which the work is to be done by a tenant and any onsite or offsite work that is not commercially necessary for occupancy) (the date upon which such substantial completion occurs referred to herein as the “Completion Date”). Subject to force majeure delays, the Completion Date shall occur within thirty nine (39) months following Closing for the applicable Property, or such longer period of time as may be reasonably necessary for Developer or its designee to actually achieve substantial completion of the applicable development or improvements, provided Developer is diligently pursuing such completion (the “Completion Deadline”). For purposes hereof, “force majeure delays” shall mean acts of God, terrorism, flooding, strikes, lockouts or other labor trouble, materially adverse weather conditions, fire or other casualty, governmental preemption in connection with an emergency, any rule, order or regulation of any governmental authority or any department or subdivision thereof and any other cause or event beyond the reasonable control of Developer (other than failure of Developer to secure necessary land use or zoning approvals from any governmental authority), or inability to secure materials, labor or access to the Property because of any such emergency, rule, order, regulation, war, civil disturbance, terrorist act or other emergency, or inability to secure materials, labor or access to the Property because of any other cause or event beyond the reasonable control of Developer (other than shortage of funds). In the event that the Developer elects to undertake environmental remediation of the Property after the Closing, “force majeure delays” also shall include the time reasonably necessary for the proper completion of all applicable remediation activities. In the event that Developer ceases, delays, or slows its development activities for a particular Property as a result of any claim or cause of action filed, threatened or asserted by the City (or any of its agencies or departments) and, (1) a court of competent jurisdiction dismisses such action or rules in favor of Developer with respect thereto or (2) the City withdraws its claims or causes of actions, the delay associated with such reduction or cessation in the development shall be deemed a “force majeure delay.” The Commencement Deadline and Completion Deadline shall be extended for a period of time equal to the number of days during which Developer is prevented from proceeding with the construction of the development at the Property by reason of force majeure, provided that (i) Developer is otherwise in material compliance with the terms and provisions of this Agreement, and (ii) Developer notifies the City of the events constituting such force majeure upon the later of (i) Closing with respect to the applicable Property and (ii) sixty (60) days after Developer has actual knowledge of their occurrence.

(B) For purposes of this Agreement, “Commencement of Construction” on a Property shall be deemed to have occurred when the Developer shall have commenced foundation or other equivalent site preparation work on the Property, which site preparation work may include renovation or demolition of existing buildings located on the Property, as applicable.

(C) If the development plan for a Property calls for development of improvements on the Property in two or more discrete phases, the requirements set forth in this Agreement relative to the Completion of Construction, as well as the remedies of the City applicable thereto, shall be satisfied upon Completion of Construction of the initial phase.

(D) Developer covenants and agrees that from and after Closing it will: (i) comply with all zoning requirements, and all other applicable state and federal statutes and regulations and local laws and ordinances applicable to the ownership, use and/or occupancy of the Property; and (ii) pay and discharge when due without penalty, and in all events before penalty for nonpayment attaches thereto, all taxes, assessments and governmental charges, including but not limited to real estate taxes or assessments on the Property or any part thereof, except where the same may be contested in good faith.

(E) Certificate of Completion. The Developer shall give the City prompt written notice of the Completion Date. The City agrees that the PDD shall inspect the Property for purposes of issuance of the Certificate of Completion promptly following the Completion Date, and shall provide Developer with notice of any deficiencies in compliance with this Agreement, and an opportunity for cure and re-inspection. If, as of the Completion Deadline, PDD determines that Developer is in compliance with all provisions and requirements of this Agreement, PDD shall issue a “Certificate of Completion.” The Certificate of Completion shall be a conclusive acknowledgment by PDD of satisfaction by Developer of its obligations under this Agreement for the applicable Property or portion of the applicable Property addressed by the Certificate of Completion. The Certificate of Completion shall not, however, constitute evidence of compliance with or satisfaction of the requirements of any department, agency or entity with respect to any building, occupancy, or other permits, to the extent such departments are exercising their regulatory authority. The Certificate of Completion shall be in such form as can be recorded against the Property, or portion thereof, and shall release the Property, or portion thereof, from the City’s rights under this Agreement. The cost of recording the Certificate of Completion shall be the responsibility of Developer.

(F) Estate Conveyed. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, the estate conveyed hereby shall be deemed to be a determinable fee and only upon the Commencement of Construction on the Property will the possibility of reverter retained by the City automatically expire as to that part of the applicable Property.

(G) City Covenants. During the Option Period and prior to a Closing with respect each Property, the City shall (i) maintain such Property in at least the same condition and repair (except for environmental condition and repair thereof, which is addressed in sub-clause (ii) below) as of the Effective Date, (ii) not, through its own action (or the action of any agency, department, employee, agent, or contractor), alter the environmental condition of the Property, as such exists as of the Effective Date, in a material and adverse manner, (iii) not “down zone” the Property or take zoning or land use action on the Property that would materially and adversely affect Developer’s ability to develop the Property for the uses otherwise permitted in this Agreement, and (iv) not execute or grant any lease, contract, agreement, lien, security interest, encumbrance, easement, or restriction with respect to such Property, or amend, modify, renew, extend or terminate any of the foregoing, without prior written consent of the Developer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

Section 6: REMEDIES

(A) City’s Remedies Prior to Conveyance. Except with respect to assignment to a Permitted Entity (as defined below), in the event that, prior to the conveyance of the Property, Developer assigns this Agreement or any right therein or in a Property without the prior written approval of the City, this Agreement and any rights of Developer in this Agreement, may, at the option of the City, be terminated by the City after thirty (30) days written notice and opportunity to cure provided by the City to Developer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Developer’s rights and obligations under this Agreement may be assigned: (i) to a wholly owned subsidiary of Developer, or (ii) to a joint venture, limited liability company, partnership, limited partnership or other entity formed to develop or finance a Property or the Properties, provided that the Developer retains a direct or indirect interest in such entity (any such assignee being referred to as a "Permitted Entity"). In any case, the Developer shall provide written notice to the City of such assignment.

(B) City's Remedies Subsequent to Conveyance.

(1) Event of Default. If, prior to the issuance of a Certificate of Completion on a Property, Developer breaches any covenant set forth in Sections 5(A) or (D) hereof applicable to such Property and fails to cure such breach within ninety (90) days after written demand by the City, such an event shall be deemed to constitute an Event of Default, provided, however, that if the nature of Developer's default is such that more than the cure period provided is reasonably required for its cure, then Developer shall not be deemed to be in default and an Event of Default shall not have occurred if Developer commences such cure within said period and thereafter diligently pursues such cure to completion within two hundred seventy (270) days of City's initial written demand hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Developer shall have the right to dispute that an Event of Default has occurred or that an Event of Default has not been timely cured by written notice of dispute sent to the City ("Notice of Dispute"). In the event a Notice of Dispute is sent, the parties shall meet and in good faith work to resolve their differences. In the event the City and Developer cannot resolve their differences as to whether an Event of Default has occurred or has been cured, then the City shall not record a notice of an uncured and undisputed Event of Default as described in Section 6(B)(2) below without first bringing an action in a court of competent jurisdiction for a final judicial determination that an Event of Default occurred and was uncured. To the extent a court of competent jurisdiction deems that an Event of Default occurred prior to the Commencement of Construction and such cause of action was filed with the court of competent jurisdiction prior to the Commencement of Construction, irrespective of the date the court makes such determination, the City shall have all rights and remedies available to it hereunder as if such Event of Default was undisputed prior to the Commencement of Construction in the first instance. The City may, in its sole discretion, waive in writing any Default or Event of Default by Developer. Notwithstanding any provision contained herein to the contrary, any lender of Developer that has a security interest in a Property, shall have an additional notice and cure right that should provide such lender with a reasonable period of time after the expiration of any cure periods available to Developer in which to cure any Event of Default prior to the City enforcing its remedies hereunder.

(2) Right of Reverter. It is expressly understood and agreed between the Parties hereto that until the Commencement of Construction on a particular Property, the conveyance of such Property to Developer shall be construed and interpreted as the conveyance of a fee simple determinable, and that such conveyance shall endure only so long as subsequent to the conveyance and prior to the Commencement of Construction there has been no uncured or undisputed Event of Default with respect to such Property and such Event of Default results from a failure of the Commencement of Construction to have occurred prior to the Commencement Deadline (a "Reverter Event of Default"). In the event of an uncured and undisputed Reverter Event of Default and the City's recording of a notice thereof, after a judicial determination as required by Section 6(B)(1) above and written notice from the City to Developer of the City's election to enforce the reverter set forth in this Section, title to the applicable Property (and only the applicable Property) shall revert in the City, except for parcels of Property previously conveyed where Commencement of Construction has already been achieved. Upon such reversion of title, the City shall have the right to re-enter and take immediate possession of the applicable Property. Upon an uncured and undisputed Reverter Event of Default as to a Property occurring prior to the Commencement of Construction and expiration of the cure period, this Agreement and any rights of Developer arising hereunder with respect to the Property subject to the reverter, may, at the option of the City, be terminated by the City by the City providing written notice of such termination to the Developer prior to the cure of such Reverter Event of Default, and the Developer shall thereafter have no further interest in the reverted Property. In such case Developer agrees to promptly execute and deliver a quit claim deed for any such portion of reverted Property to the City. While the right of reversion as to a Property automatically terminates upon Commencement of Construction on such Property, the City agrees to provide Developer with a written acknowledgement, in recordable form, that the Commencement of Construction has occurred and the City's right of reversion has terminated as to such Property.

(3) Intentionally Omitted.

(C) Rights and Remedies Cumulative. The rights and remedies of the City, whether provided by law or by this Agreement, shall be cumulative, and the exercise by the City of any one or more remedies shall not preclude the exercise by it, at the same or different times, of any other remedy for the same default or breach or any other default or breach by the Developer. No waiver made by either Party shall apply to obligations beyond those expressly waived in writing.

(D) Developer's Remedies. If the City breaches its obligations under this Agreement after reasonable notice and opportunity to cure, Developer shall have the right to seek injunctive relief, specific performance or other equitable remedies for the City's breach of this Agreement. In no event shall the Developer be entitled to monetary damages as a result of the City's breach of this Agreement, except to the extent such damages arise out of the City's uncured breach of the covenant set forth in Section 5(G) above.

(E) City's Representatives Not Individually Liable. No official or employee of the City shall be personally liable to Developer or any successor in interest, in the event of any default or breach by the City or for any amount which may become due to Developer or successor or on any obligations under the terms of this Agreement.

Section 7: PROVISIONS NOT MERGED WITH DEEDS

No provision of this Agreement is intended to or shall be merged into the Deeds transferring title to each Property from the City to Developer or any successor in interest, and any such Deeds shall not be deemed to affect or impair the provisions and covenants of this Agreement.

Section 8: ENTIRE AGREEMENT; AMENDMENT

This Agreement (including all exhibits, schedules or other attachments hereto) constitutes the complete and exclusive statement of the terms of the agreement among the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, promises, and arrangements, oral or written, between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by an instrument in writing signed by both of the Parties.

Section 9: GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Michigan without regard to conflicts-of-law principles that would require the application of any other law.

Section 10: COUNTERPARTS

This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but together such counterparts shall constitute one and the same instrument.

Section 11: AUTHORITY OF CITY.

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement, in law or in equity, or otherwise to the contrary, this Agreement shall be of no force or effect and may not in any way be enforced against the City unless or until this Agreement and the transaction contemplated hereby have been: (i) approved in writing by the Emergency Manager for the City of Detroit, in accordance with Emergency Manager Order No. 5, (ii) either included in the Emergency Manager’s financial and operating plan or approved in writing by the Governor of the State of Michigan or his or her designee, in accordance with Section 12(1)(k) of Public Act 436 of 2012; and (iii) either included in the Emergency Manager’s financial and operating plan or approved in writing by the State Treasurer, in accordance with Section 15(1) of Public Act 436 of 2012.

Section 12: CITY AGENCIES AND DEPARTMENTS. Whenever this Agreement requires an action or creates an obligation on behalf of the City, the City shall also be required, as applicable, to cause all of its agencies and departments to undertake such obligations.

TUNNEL LEASE AMENDMENT

FIRST AMENDMENT TO LEASE

THIS FIRST AMENDMENT TO LEASE (this “Amendment”) is made and entered into as of the ___ day of _____, 2014 (the “Date Hereof”), by and between the City of Detroit, a Michigan municipal corporation (the “City”), and Detroit Windsor Tunnel LLC, a Michigan limited liability company (“Tenant”).

RECITALS

A. The City, as landlord, and Tenant, as successor-in-interest to Detroit & Canada Tunnel Corporation (“DCTC”), as tenant, are parties to the Tube Lease, dated March 20, 1978 (the “Tube Lease”), whereby the City leases to Tenant the portion of the Detroit Windsor Tunnel (the entire such tunnel, the “Tunnel”) located in Detroit, which portion is more particularly defined in the Tube Lease and referenced herein as the “Tube.”

B. The City, as landlord, as successor-in-interest to Ford Motor Properties, Inc. as sublandlord, and Tenant, as tenant, as successor-in-interest to DCTC as subtenant, are parties to the Sublease, dated March 20, 1978 (the “Plaza Lease”; together with the Tube Lease, the “Lease”), whereby the City leases to Tenant certain property defined in the Plaza Lease as the “New Tunnel Plaza” (such premises, the “Plaza Premises”; together with the Tube, the “Property”).

C. The term of the Lease (the “Term”) expires on November 3, 2020, and the period commencing on the Effective Date through and including November 3, 2020 shall be referenced herein as the “Existing Remainder Term”.

D. The City desires to enter into a long-term agreement regarding the operation of the Property to assure that (i) the Tunnel will continue to provide to residents of Detroit and to other Tunnel passengers a safe and efficient route between Detroit and Windsor; (ii) the Property will be maintained and enhanced; and (iii), to promote such goals, there is transparency to the City regarding the operation of the Property.

E. In furtherance of the goals of the City, the Tenant desires to enter into a long-term agreement with the City regarding the leasing and operation of the Property.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and legal sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Capitalized Terms; Effective Date. Any capitalized term used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in the Plaza Lease. “Effective Date” means the first day of the month next succeeding the month in which occurs the Date Hereof.

2. Extension of Term. The term of the Tube Lease is extended for the period beginning November 4, 2020 and ending on December 31, 2040 (such period, the “Extension Term”), upon all the terms and conditions as contained in the Tube Lease and applicable during the Third Renewal Option (as defined in the Plaza Lease), except as amended hereby. The term of the Plaza Lease is extended for the Extension Term, upon all the terms and conditions as contained in the Plaza Lease and applicable during the Third Renewal Option (as defined in the Plaza Lease), except as amended hereby.

3. Existing Term CapEx Credit; CapEx Schedule.

- (a) For any Capital Expenditures (as defined below) paid by Tenant during the Existing Remainder Term (the “Existing Remainder Term Capital Expenditures”), Tenant shall receive a credit equal to the amount of such Existing Remainder Term Capital Expenditures (a “CapEx Credit”) against the aggregate rentals payable by Tenant pursuant to Article IV of the Plaza Lease (such amounts, the “Rent”) during the Existing Remainder Term; provided, however, that the aggregate CapEx Credit to which Tenant is entitled pursuant to this Paragraph 3 shall not exceed the aggregate Rent payable by Tenant during the Existing Remainder Term. Tenant shall not claim a CapEx Credit for any Capital Expenditures paid in advance of the performance of the related work, other than for progress payments customary in the industry (or payments required due to emergency) without the City’s prior written approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. Subject to Paragraph 5, Tenant may not take a CapEx Credit during the Extension Term for an Existing Remainder Term Capital Expenditure.
- (b) “Capital Expenditures” means (i) capital expenditures, as determined by generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied in the United States (“GAAP”), paid for work to or at the Plaza Premises and (ii) (x) while the Existing JOA (as defined herein) or any successor agreement between Tenant (or its affiliate) and the City of Windsor (or its instrumentality) (any such agreement, a “D/W Agreement”) is in effect, 50% of the total capital expenditures, determined in accordance with GAAP, paid by Tenant (or its affiliate) and the City of Windsor (or its instrumentality) pursuant to a D/W Agreement for work to or at all or any portion of the underground tube of the Tunnel (i.e., the tube from and including the Detroit portal to and including the Windsor portal; such tube, the “Underground Portion”); provided, however, that Capital Expenditures made to the Underground Portion while a D/W Agreement is in effect shall be made such that the Detroit side of the Underground Portion is in a condition commensurate with the condition of the Windsor side of the Underground Portion; or (y) if no D/W Agreement is in effect, 100% of the capital expenditures, determined in accordance with GAAP, paid by Tenant for work to or at all or any portion for the Tube.
- (c) Within ninety (90) days after the Effective Date, Tenant shall provide the City a detailed plan and schedule for the capital improvements planned to be made to the Tunnel during the year in which the Effective Date occurs and the approximately five (5) years following the Effective Date. On or before each January 31st during the Term, Tenant shall deliver to the City an annual update of such plan together with a plan for the succeeding five (5) years.

4. Extension Term CapEx Credit.

- (a) For any Capital Expenditures paid by Tenant during the Extension Term (the “Extension Term Capital Expenditures”), Tenant shall receive a CapEx Credit against the Rent payable by Tenant during the Extension Term equal to the amount of such Extension Term Capital Expenditures; provided, however, the aggregate CapEx Credit to which Tenant is entitled during the Extension Term pursuant to this Paragraph 4 shall not exceed $8,000,000; and provided, further, that the annual CapEx Credit claimed by Tenant under this Paragraph 4 in any given calendar year of the Extension Term shall not exceed 75% of the Rent payable for such calendar year (but such annual limitation shall not in any way reduce the aggregate CapEx Credit to which Tenant is entitled under this Paragraph 4). If the Lease (as amended from time to time) terminates prior to December 31, 2040, other than due to a default by Tenant, then the City shall pay to Tenant, on thirty (30) days’ written notice from Tenant, the amount of CapEx Credits that have accrued to Tenant but have not been applied against the Rent.
- (b) No more than sixty (60) days prior to November 4, 2020, Tenant shall provide the City a high-level, strategic plan for the capital improvements that may be made to the Tunnel during the Extension Term to the extent such plan is known or is customary in the tunnel operations field.

5. CapEx Credit Documentation.

- (a) Tenant may offset the amount of any accrued but uncredited CapEx Credits against any monthly payments of Rent, subject to the limitations in Paragraphs 3 and 4. On or prior to the date of claiming any CapEx Credit (i.e., on or before the date of payment of any monthly installment of Rent, or if none is payable, on or before the date such monthly installment of Rent would otherwise have been payable) or requesting payment pursuant to the last sentence of Paragraph 4(a), Tenant shall submit to the City a notice setting forth the amount of the claimed CapEx Credit, together with reasonably detailed written documentation of the Capital Expenditures (and the work associated therewith) for which Tenant is entitled to a CapEx Credit (such notice, a “CapEx Notice”). Within five (5) days after receipt of any CapEx Notice, the City shall have the right to ask for reasonable additional information to verify such Capital Expenditures were paid and to determine the nature of work associated with such Capital Expenditure. If the City in good faith believes that a CapEx Credit was claimed for an expenditure that does not fall within the definition of “Capital Expenditure,” as such term is defined in Paragraph 3(b) above, then the City shall give Tenant notice thereof (a “Dispute Notice”) within fifteen (15) days after receipt of the applicable CapEx Notice, and the date on which Rent is due shall be extended by fifteen (15) days. If the City timely delivers a Dispute Notice, Tenant shall receive the portion of the CapEx Credit that is undisputed, if any, and shall pay the amount of disputed Rent, subject to the provisions of Article XVIII(2) of the Plaza Lease regarding disputed payments.

- (b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, as amended hereby, if the City timely provides a Dispute Notice in connection with a CapEx Credit claimed for Existing Remainder Term Capital Expenditures, and if and to the extent such dispute is resolved in Tenant's favor, then the City shall promptly pay an amount equal to the formerly disputed CapEx Credit to Tenant, or at Tenant's option, Tenant may credit such formerly disputed CapEx Credit against the Rent next coming due; provided, however, if (i) the aggregate accrued but unapplied CapEx Credit to which Tenant is entitled under Paragraph 3, plus the formerly disputed CapEx Credit, exceed the aggregate Rent payable during the portion of the Existing Remainder Term commencing at the time the dispute is resolved; or (ii) at the time the dispute is resolved, the Existing Remainder Term has ended; then in addition to, and without in any way reducing, the CapEx Credits to which Tenant is entitled under Paragraph 4, Tenant may take such formerly disputed CapEx Credit as a credit against the Rents payable during the Extension Term. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall Tenant be entitled to aggregate CapEx Credits for the Existing Remainder Term Capital Expenditures in excess of the aggregate Rent payable during the Existing Remainder Term.
- (c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, as amended hereby, if the City timely delivers a Dispute Notice in connection with a CapEx Credit claimed for Extension Term Capital Expenditures, and if and to the extent such dispute is resolved in Tenant's favor, then the City shall promptly pay an amount equal to the formerly disputed CapEx Credit to Tenant, or at Tenant's option, Tenant may credit such formerly disputed CapEx Credit against the Rent next coming due (in addition to, and not in limitation of, any CapEx Credit due under Paragraph 4). Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall Tenant be entitled to aggregate CapEx Credits for Extension Term Capital Expenditures in excess of $8,000,000.
- (d) The provisions of this Paragraph 5 shall survive the expiration or sooner termination of the Lease, as amended hereby.

6. Repair and Maintenance Standards. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, but subject to the casualty and condemnation provisions therein, Tenant shall maintain the Property in a good and safe condition and repair, in compliance with all applicable laws, and in accordance with the following sections of the Existing JOA (as defined below): Sections 8.1(d), (e) and (f), and the first grammatical paragraph of Section 8.1; Sections 8.3(a), (b) and (c); Section 8.4; Section 8.6; Section 9; Exhibit 8.1 and Sections 1, 2 and the first paragraph of Section 3 of Exhibit 9.1, provided that the second sentence of that first paragraph of Section 3 of Exhibit 9.1 shall be replaced with "The program shall include regular and customary cleaning and grounds maintenance." In the event that the Existing JOA is terminated or amended, these standards shall continue to apply (to the extent applicable).

7. Reporting. In addition to its reporting obligations under the Lease, but subject to Paragraph 10 hereof, Tenant shall deliver, at its sole cost and expense, the following reports and information to the City:

- (a) Within one hundred eighty (180) days following the end of each calendar year ending during the term of the Lease: (i) a copy of the audited balance sheets of Tenant at the end of each such calendar year and the related audited statements of income, calculation of annual rental, changes in equity and cash flows for such year, including, in each case, the notes thereto, together with the report thereon of the independent certified public accountants of Tenant, in each case in a manner and containing information consistent with Tenant's current practices and certified by Tenant's chief financial officer that such financial statements fairly present the financial condition and the results of operations, changes in equity and cash flows of Tenant as at the respective dates of and for the periods referred to in such financial statements, all in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States consistently applied; (ii) a report, in a format reasonably acceptable to the City, certified by the Tenant's chief financial officer, providing reasonably detailed information regarding any work associated with Capital Expenditures undertaken by the Tenant with respect to the Property, including such information as may be reasonably requested by the City, which shall include the type of work associated with such Capital Expenditures, the expected cost therefor, the expected completion date, the contractor engaged to perform such work associated with such Capital Expenditures, and any expected disruption of traffic in the Property as a result of the work associated with such Capital Expenditures; and (iii) a report, in a format reasonably acceptable to the City, detailing the amount of traffic through the Property on a weekly, monthly and quarterly basis, the make-up of that traffic and the Tenant's projections for the traffic in the upcoming calendar year and the Tenant's basis therefor;
- (b) Within thirty (30) days after the end of each six-month period, commencing with the six-month period ending June 30, 2015, a report, in a format reasonably acceptable to the City, detailing all material incidents that occurred in the Tunnel, including, but not limited to, vehicular accidents and hazardous material releases, but in each case only if such incidents materially impeded the normal operations of the Tunnel;
- (c) promptly after the occurrence thereof, an email report on any incident occurring in the Tunnel and causing material damage to property or injury to persons, if such incident results in the closure of any portion of the Tunnel for at least an hour;
- (d) within thirty (30) days after receipt by Tenant, a copy of (i) the engineering reports required by Sections 8.7 and 8.8 of the Joint Operating Agreement by and among the Corporation of the City of Windsor, the Windsor Tunnel Commission and Tenant (as successor-in-interest to DCTC and The Detroit and Windsor Subway Company, Ltd.) dated November 1, 1997 (the "Existing JOA"); or (ii) if the Existing JOA is amended or modified to change the requirements for those reports, (x) every year, an engineering report based on visual inspection of the Tunnel made by an independent, licensed engineer reasonably acceptable to Tenant and (y) every five (5) years a comprehensive engineering report on the Tunnel prepared by an independent, licensed engineer reasonably acceptable to the City, which report shall include, but not be limited to, an analysis of the structural integrity of the Tunnel, a description of the current state of the Tunnel, including its fixtures and mechanical systems, recommended capital expenditures for the Tunnel and such other information as the City may reasonably request; and

- (e) Within thirty (30) days after such request, any information regarding the Property reasonably requested by the City, provided that such information is in the possession or control of Tenant.

8. Right to Inspect. The City shall have the right, upon at least three (3) business days' written notice to Tenant, at reasonable times, provided that such inspection does not unreasonably interfere with the normal operation of the Property (and as to any portion of the Property subleased as of the date hereof or subsequently subleased to a governmental authority, does not violate the applicable sublease) and at the City's sole cost and expense, to have the Property inspected by an engineer, who is (i) either employed directly by the City or with whom the City has contracted; and (ii) licensed and has at least ten (10) years' experience in engineering matters related to construction, maintenance and repair of infrastructure projects or tunnels. Inspections made pursuant to this Paragraph 8 may only be performed once in each calendar year, except such limitation shall not apply when Tenant is in default of its obligations under Paragraph 6 of this Amendment or any other of its obligations regarding the repair, maintenance and operation of the Tunnel. Tenant shall make the Property and a senior officer who is responsible for maintenance and/or operations of the Property reasonably available to such engineer for the purposes of such inspection and shall provide such engineer any documentation in Tenant's possession or control, reasonably requested by such engineer, subject to Paragraph 10. Without limiting any provision hereof, any such engineering inspections conducted by or on behalf of the City shall be performed in accordance with all applicable laws and with all reasonable operating rules and regulations applicable to the Property. The City shall cause any individual or firm performing an inspection pursuant to this Paragraph 8 to be bound by the confidentiality obligations of the City pursuant to the provisions of Paragraph 10 hereof.

9. Calculation of Net Operating Income. For the avoidance of doubt, in calculating "net operating income" as defined in Section IV(2)(b) of the Plaza Lease, Tenant shall not include any expenses that are not attributable to the operation, maintenance and repair of the Property or to Tenant's obligations under the Lease; and, to the extent Tenant or Tenant's affiliates incur costs that are only partially attributable to the Property, Tenant shall not include as an expense for Section IV(2)(b) of the Plaza Lease the portion of those costs that are not attributable to the Property. Allocations will be prepared consistent with GAAP and the specific methodology and allocation shall be reflected and set forth in the companies' audited financial statements.

10. Confidentiality.

- (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, no information or document provided by Tenant to the City pursuant to or in connection with the Lease, as amended hereby, shall be subject to any confidentiality restrictions, and the City may publicly disclose such information or disclose such information to third parties as it deems appropriate in its sole discretion; provided, however, that Tenant shall have no obligation to deliver to the City (and Tenant may redact from information it delivers to the City) any Confidential Information (as defined below); and provided, further, that if Tenant delivers to the City any Confidential Information (and labels it as such), then the City shall not disclose such information to third parties (other than to its professional advisors, employees, third-party report providers, affiliates, officers, members, underwriters, agents, consultants, lenders, investors and legal counsel and as to those, only on a need-to-know basis, as reasonably determined by the City, provided such parties are bound by the confidentiality obligations of the City set forth in this Paragraph 10).

- (b) “Confidential Information” means information that (i) relates to maintaining national security and/or to maintaining security at the Tunnel; (ii) is required to be kept confidential by applicable law, regulation or order; or (iii) is a trade secret or is other information that is proprietary to Tenant (including, without limitation, information regarding Tenant’s proprietary toll and revenue collecting and accounting system and Tenant’s mobile app for express payments, and other technical and business information relating to Tenant’s proprietary ideas, patentable ideas, copyrights, and other proprietary systems and software).
- (c) If Tenant chooses to withhold Confidential Information from the City, Tenant shall promptly provide written notice that it has done so. The City, through its authorized representative, shall have the right, upon reasonable advance written notice to Tenant, to inspect any Confidential Information, which shall not be redacted, at the offices of Tenant within the City to verify during customary business hours that such information is Confidential Information and to review such Confidential Information, provided that the City may not make a copy of such Confidential Information.
- (d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Lease (as amended hereby), in an effort to ensure that the City, Tenant and the City of Windsor can effectively and efficiently operate the Tunnel in an integrated and seamless manner, the City shall have the right to share with Windsor all information regarding the Tunnel it receives, and Tenant shall cause it and its affiliates to not restrict the City of Windsor, or its affiliates, from providing the City any information related to the Tunnel.
- (e) Nothing contained in this Lease (as amended hereby) shall be construed to limit or reduce the rights and powers of the State of Michigan or the United States of America.

11. Ineligible Parties. It shall be a default under the Lease, as amended hereby, if any Ineligible Party (as defined below) shall be involved in the operation, financing, construction or management of the Property or the improvements thereon, or if such Ineligible Party has a direct or indirect beneficial interest in Tenant. “Ineligible Party” means any individual or entity, or any entity controlled by, controlling or under common control with any individual or entity, maintaining a controlling interest in any crossing of the border between the State of Michigan and Canada, such as any tunnel, bridge or other similar infrastructure; provided, however that the term “Ineligible Party” shall not include Pike Pointe Holdings, LLC; any entity controlled, controlling or under common control with Pike Pointe Holdings LLC; or Windsor.

12. Operation of an Integrated Tunnel. The parties acknowledge that it is in their respective and joint interests to cause the entire Tunnel to be operated in a harmonious and integrated manner. The City understands that to effect such operation, Tenant intends to negotiate a new or amended operating agreement with the City of Windsor (or an agency or instrumentality thereof), and that Tenant will negotiate such agreement in good faith (but that Tenant shall have no obligation to enter into such an agreement). The City also understands that achieving such purpose may require amendments to the Lease (as amended hereby) and agrees to be reasonable, and to act in good faith, in discussing and considering any such amendments. For avoidance of doubt, (i) Tenant will not have any obligation to enter into any such amendment that would (x) adversely affect (other than in a de minimis manner) its rights under the Lease, as amended hereby, (y) increase (other than in a de minimis manner) its obligations under the Lease, as amended from time to time or (z) decrease (other than in a de minimis manner) the City’s obligations under the Lease, as amended from time to time; and (ii) the City will not have any obligation to enter into any such amendment that would (x) adversely affect (other than in a de minimis manner) its rights under the Lease, as amended hereby, (y) increase (other than in a de minimis manner) its obligations under the Lease, as amended from time to time or (z) decrease (other than in a de minimis manner) Tenant’s obligations under the Lease, as amended from time to time.

13. Notices. Article XVIII(3) of the Plaza Lease and Article XV(3) of the Tube Lease are each amended and restated as follows:

OPTION AGREEMENT

OPTION AGREEMENT

THIS OPTION AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of the ___ day of _____, 2014, by and between Pike Pointe Holdings, LLC (“Pike Pointe”) and the City of Detroit, a Michigan municipal corporation (the “City”).

RECITALS

A. The City owns that certain parking garage, commonly known as the Grand Circus Parking Garage, located at 1600-01 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Michigan, as more particularly described in Exhibit 1 (the “Circus Garage”).

B. The Detroit Building Authority (the “DBA”) had previously owned the Circus Garage and had leased it to the City pursuant to the Contract of Lease No. 2 by and between the City and the DBA, dated October 1985, (as amended, the “DBA Lease”).

C. The DBA Lease has previously terminated pursuant to its terms, and pursuant to the terms of the DBA Lease, title to the property leased thereunder, including the Circus Garage, reverted back to the City.

D. Syncora Capital Assurance Inc. and Syncora Guarantee Inc. (collectively, “Syncora”) own the entire beneficial interest in Pike Pointe.

E. Syncora, through one or more of its affiliates, including Pike Pointe, owns and operates certain public infrastructure projects.

F. In connection with the continued improvement of the City, the City desires to grant an option to Pike Pointe with respect to the possibility of negotiating and entering into a mutually agreeable concession agreement for the operation and maintenance of the Circus Garage pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, and Pike Pointe desires to accept such option.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and legal sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Option. Pike Pointe shall have the option, in its sole discretion, to enter into a concession for the Circus Garage (the “Option”) on the terms set forth herein. In order to exercise the Option, Pike Pointe must deliver written notice to the City notifying the City that Pike Pointe has exercised the Option (the “Exercise Notice”), which Exercise Notice must be delivered within one (1) year from the effective date of the Seventh Amended Plan for the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit, as it may be further amended and as modified (the “Plan of Adjustment”). After delivery of the Exercise Notice, the City and Pike Pointe shall promptly and in good faith, negotiate a concession agreement in accordance with the terms set forth in Exhibit 2; provided, however, that neither party shall be obligated to execute a concession agreement. If, within ninety (90) days following the delivery of the Exercise Notice, an agreement has not been reached between the City and Pike Pointe regarding the Circus Garage, either party may, by delivery of notice to the other party, terminate this Option, and thereafter Pike Pointe shall have no right with respect to the Circus Garage.

2. Failure to Exercise. If Pike Pointe fails to send the Exercise Notice within one (1) year after the effective date of the Plan of Adjustment, Pike Pointe will be deemed to have not exercised the Option and will have no further right to do so nor shall it have any interest in the Circus Garage. At such time, this Agreement and the Option will have no further force or effect.

3. Anti-Assignment. Pike Pointe may not assign to any third party (other than a wholly owned subsidiary or other affiliate of Syncora in which Syncora is the direct or indirect beneficial owner (a “Pike Pointe Affiliate”), any interest in this Agreement or the Option without the City’s prior written consent, which consent may be withheld in the City’s sole discretion. Any attempted assignment without the City’s consent shall be void ab initio and of no force and effect, and such purported transferee shall have no right to exercise the Option nor shall it have any interest in the Circus Garage. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Pike Pointe shall have no right to exercise the Option if, at the time of such exercise and the execution of the Concession Agreement, Syncora is not a direct or indirect beneficial owner of Pike Pointe.

4. Title to Circus Garage. The City shall cause the DBA to execute such documentation as is necessary to confirm the transfer of ownership of the Circus Garage to the City promptly after execution of this Agreement. The City shall retain title to the Circus Garage during such time as Pike Pointe has the right to exercise the Option and shall maintain the Circus Garage in at least the same condition and repair as of the date hereof.

5. Development Agreements. Pike Pointe hereby acknowledges that the City has entered into certain development agreements with third party developers, which agreements contemplate that those developers will have the right to use parking spots within the Circus Garage at fair market rates (as determined by Pike Pointe from time to time and consistent with the rates provided to other patrons of the Circus Garage), and Pike Pointe agrees that it shall execute leases, licenses or other usage agreements with such developers on those terms. The City will provide the material terms and conditions of those development agreements with respect to developers’ use of Circus Garage as soon as is reasonably practicable following execution of this Agreement.

6. Due Diligence Activities.

(a) Prior to delivery of the Exercise Notice, Pike Pointe shall have a period commencing on the date hereof and continuing through and including the date of the delivery of the Exercise Notice or the expiration or termination of this Option, whichever is sooner, (the “Due Diligence Period”) to conduct its due diligence activities on the Circus Garage, which shall not unreasonably interfere with the use and operation of the Circus Garage. For purposes of this Agreement, “Due Diligence Activities” include but are not limited to the following:

(A) such physical inspections, soil borings and bearing tests, surveys, and possible relocation of utilities on or for the Circus Garage as Pike Pointe deems appropriate, all of which shall be completed at Pike Pointe’s expense;

- (B) investigations, environmental site assessments, including Phase I and Phase II site assessments, sampling and testing of soil, groundwater, surface water, soil vapors, indoor air, and building materials (such as Asbestos and lead-based paint), and/or a Baseline Environmental Assessment, (“BEA”), as defined in Part 201 of the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Act (“NREPA”), being MCL 324.20101 et seq., and such other investigations and assessments as Pike Pointe may deem needed in its sole discretion to determine the condition of the Circus Garage and the Circus Garage’s compliance with applicable law, all of which shall be completed at Pike Pointe’s expense; and
 - (C) a review of the title evidence, survey, entitlements, and payment of taxes and assessments, all of which shall be completed at Pike Pointe’s expense;
 - (D) a review of financing sources related to Pike Pointe’s proposed use of the Circus Garage, or any other matter that in Pike Pointe’s sole discretion is relevant to Pike Pointe’s use of the Circus Garage;
 - (E) a review of all City Information and all publicly-available information with respect to the Circus Garage;
 - (F) a review of available public and private utilities and public accesses necessary for the proposed use of the Circus Garage; and
 - (G) application and procurement of any zoning, site plan, elevation, special land use, environmental, conditional use or other municipal approvals or permits, or variances therefrom, required or appropriate for the proposed use of the Circus Garage. The City hereby authorizes Pike Pointe to submit and apply for all such approvals, permits, and variances upon the commencement of the Due Diligence Period.
- (b) Restoration of City Property. Promptly following completion of a Due Diligence Activity, Pike Pointe shall restore the Circus Garage and all property therein to the state in which it existed prior to the commencement of the Due Diligence Activity.
- (c) City Information. The City shall use reasonable efforts to make available to Pike Pointe all information in the City’s (or the City’s agencies’ or departments’) possession or control related to the Circus Garage within thirty (30) days following the effective date of the Plan of Adjustment, including but not limited to existing leases, licenses, permits, approvals, contracts, warranties, title searches and policies, surveys, appraisals, environmental audits, Phase I environmental site assessments, Phase II reports or other testing or sampling data, asbestos surveys, reports, specifications, from the Planning, Building, Assessing, Environmental Affairs and Fire Departments, notices of violations of applicable laws, regulations and ordinances or other documents in the City's possession or control related to the Circus Garage, to the extent the City is not required by law or applicable agreement to keep such information confidential (collectively, the "City Information"). The City shall cooperate with Pike Pointe and use reasonable efforts to facilitate Pike Pointe's Due Diligence Activities, all at no material incremental cost to the City, including providing information, coordinating with third party users of the Circus Garage as applicable, and executing such documentation as may be reasonable and necessary for Pike Pointe's access to the site and completion of the Due Diligence Activities including the preparation of a BEA.

- (d) Insurance. Prior to entering onto the Circus Garage for any Due Diligence Activities, Pike Pointe or its contractors shall enter into a right-of-entry agreement regarding the entry into the Circus Garage to be reasonably agreed to by the City and Pike Pointe.
- (e) Indemnity. Pike Pointe shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless the City from and against any loss, liability, cost or expense incurred by the City to the extent resulting from Pike Pointe's (including its duly authorized employees, agents, engineers or other representatives) negligence or willful acts occurring in connection with the Due Diligence Activities; provided, however, that Pike Pointe shall in no circumstance have any obligation or liability with respect to any conditions pre-existing at the Circus Garage including without limitation any environmental condition, soil or groundwater contamination or other environmental conditions that may be discovered in the course of the Pike Pointe's Due Diligence Activities and thereafter disclosed to the City, except to the extent such conditions are materially exacerbated due to the negligence or willful acts of Pike Pointe or any of its duly authorized employees, agents, engineers or other representatives, and (ii) Pike Pointe shall not be responsible for any loss, liability, cost, or expense resulting from the discovery of any adverse information or condition regarding the Circus Garage or from the City's (or the City's agencies' or departments') negligence or misconduct.

7. Notices. All notices, demands and other communications given or delivered under this Agreement shall be given in writing to the address indicated below (or such other address as the recipient specifies in writing) and will be deemed to have been given when delivered personally, three (3) business days after mailed by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested and postage prepaid, or when delivery is guaranteed if sent via a nationally recognized overnight carrier, or when receipt is confirmed if sent via facsimile or other electronic transmission to the recipient with telephonic confirmation by the sending party.

(iv) will have the same rights (other than priority) in and to the Distributable State Aid, and have the same protections (including, without limitation, a statutory lien to the same extent the 2010 Series A Bonds are secured by a statutory lien), as the 2010 Series A Bonds, except that the City's Deposit Date Balance Requirement (as defined in Section 2.5) with respect to the Municipal Obligation shall be as described in paragraph 2.5(e) below;

(v) will have the identical Financial Terms as the Restructured UTGO Bonds; and

(e) The Emergency Manager shall issue the Emergency Manager Order in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit B.

Section 2.4. Escrow and Application of Aggregate UTGO Tax Levy.

(a) The City agrees that, pursuant to documentation in form and substance satisfactory to the Parties, proceeds of the Aggregate UTGO Tax Levy collected by the City will be segregated and transmitted no less often than as provided in the schedule of Statutory Tax Collection Distribution Dates published by the Bureau of Local Government Services of the Michigan Department of Treasury, and in any event, no less often than (x) bi-monthly during the period beginning each July 1 and ending the following March 31, and (y) monthly during the period beginning April 1 and ending the following June 30 of each year, to U.S. Bank National Association as escrow trustee (the "Debt Millage Escrow Trustee"), to be held and distributed pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Debt Millage Escrow Agreement. (b) Proceeds of the Aggregate UTGO Tax Levy allocated to the UTGO Bonds will be transferred promptly by the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee (i) first, for deposit to the Tax Levy Account held by the Master Trustee for the Municipal Obligation in an amount sufficient, together with funds already on deposit therein to pay debt service due on the Municipal Obligation on or before the April 1 following such deposit, together with any past due debt service on the Municipal Obligation, and (ii) second, to the assignee of the rights to payment from the Assigned UTGO Bond Tax Levy of amounts payable on the Stub UTGO Bonds on or before the April 1 following such deposit, an amount equal to the scheduled debt service on the Stub UTGO Bonds. Proceeds of the Aggregate UTGO Bond Tax Levy transferred to the Master Trustee for the purpose of paying debt service on the Municipal Obligation will be held in trust under applicable State law.

(c) Neither the Holders of the MFA Bonds nor the Bond Insurers will seek payment from the proceeds of the UTGO Bond Tax Levy in excess of the amounts necessary to pay the Municipal Obligation scheduled annual debt service

Section 2.5. Distributable State Aid and Flow of Funds.

(a) Pursuant to the Agreement to Deposit Distributable State Aid, the State Treasurer has agreed to deliver 100% of the Distributable State Aid due the City to the Master Trustee for deposit under the Master Indenture for as long as the Municipal Obligation is outstanding. Payments by the State Treasurer of Distributable State Aid will be deposited directly into the funds and accounts held by the Master Trustee in accordance with and as provided by the Agreement to Deposit Distributable State Aid and the Master Indenture. (c) On each date that the State Treasurer deposits a payment of the City's Distributable State Aid (each a "DSA Deposit") with the Master Trustee (each a "DSA Deposit Date"), the Master Trustee shall set-aside such amounts as shall be sufficient to fund the minimum balances required to be on deposit in each DSA Escrow Fund to pay the then current annual principal and interest requirements on the related obligation as provided in the Master Indenture (each, a "Deposit Date Balance Requirement") and collectively the "Deposit Date Balance Requirements"). Any amounts remaining in the Debt Retirement Fund after the setting aside of the amounts necessary to satisfy the Deposit Date Balance Requirements of all DSA Escrow Funds, shall be released to the City for deposit to the General Fund of the City.

(d) On or before the Effective Date, the City pursuant to a supplemental indenture to the Master Indenture shall establish with the Master Trustee a Series 2014 DSA Escrow Fund (the "Series 2014 DSA Escrow Fund") for the purpose of accumulating Distributable State Aid in sufficient amounts to pay debt service on the Municipal Obligation. Within the Series 2014 DSA Escrow Fund there shall be created three separate and segregated sub-accounts designated the “Distributable Aid Account,” the “Tax Levy Account,” and the “General Account.” Proceeds of the Aggregate UTGO Tax Levy allocated to the Municipal Obligation and transferred to the Master Trustee by the Escrow Agent pursuant to Section 2.4(b)(i) shall be deposited to the Tax Levy Account and used as described in subsection (f) below. All other moneys deposited to the Series 2014 DSA Escrow Fund from time to time by the City shall be set aside and maintained in the General Account and used as described in subsection (f) below.

(e) To the extent the Master Trustee does not have on deposit in the Tax Levy Account the required portions of principal and interest due on the next October 1 or April 1 on the first day of each month set forth below (the “Deposit Date Balance Requirement for the Municipal Obligation”), the Master Indenture will provide for the deposit of all, or such lesser amount as is necessary to correct the deficiency in the Deposit Date Balance Requirement for the Municipal Obligation, of that month’s distribution of Distributable State Aid into the Distributable State Aid Account of the Series 2014 DSA Escrow Fund (after all deposits to DSA Escrow Funds established to pay debt service on obligations of the City having priority over the Municipal Obligation) . The Deposit Date Balance Requirement for the Municipal Obligation will be as follows:

DEPOSIT DATE BALANCE REQUIREMENT

MONTH OF DSA PAYMENT	PORTION OF NEXT MUNICIPAL OBLIGATION INTEREST PAYMENT	PORTION OF NEXT MUNICIPAL OBLIGATION PRINCIPAL PAYMENT
November	1/3	4/6
January	2/3	5/6
March	100%	100%
September	100%	3/6

(f) Amounts on deposit in the Series 2014 DSA Escrow Fund shall be withdrawn from the DSA Escrow Fund for the purpose of paying debt service on the Municipal Obligation when due to the bond trustee for the holders of the MFA Bonds (as assignee of the MFA), which payments will be used to make corresponding payments of principal and interest on the MFA Bonds. Amounts shall be debited first from the Tax Levy Account in an amount necessary to pay the principal of and interest on the Municipal Obligation on the corresponding payment date, and thereafter, if the amount on deposit in the Tax Levy Account is not sufficient to make the payments required, the amount necessary to satisfy the deficiency shall be debited, first, from the Distributable Aid Account, and second, from the General Account.

Section 2.6. Additional Indebtedness. From and after the date of this Agreement and, pursuant to documentation in form and substance satisfactory to the Parties, until the MFA Bonds have been paid in full:

(a) the City shall not incur, or permit to be outstanding, debt secured by a lien on the Distributable State Aid that is senior to the lien securing the Municipal Obligation, other than debt secured by a lien on the Distributable State Aid on the date of this Agreement (“Existing DSA Debt”) and additional debt (“Additional DSA Debt”) secured on a second or third lien level so that the aggregate principal amount of (x) Existing DSA Debt (as of the effective date of this Agreement – i.e., $479,310,000) plus (y) the Additional DSA Debt thereafter issued will not exceed $560,000,000, provided that, with respect to any Additional Debt the existing financial covenants in the Master Indenture restricting the issuance of additional bonds under the Master Indenture are satisfied.

(b) Notwithstanding clause (a), the City may issue first, second or third lien refunding bonds secured pursuant to the Master Indenture so long as any such refunding issuance results in debt service savings by the City in each year that such refunding bonds will be outstanding (based upon the amortization schedule in effect prior to the time of such refunding) or, if the last maturity of the MFA Bonds is prior to final maturity of the refunding bonds then to be issued, then in each year during which the MFA Bonds are outstanding.

(c) The City shall not incur debt secured by a lien on the Distributable State Aid that is pari passu with the lien securing the Municipal Obligation.

(d) The City may incur debt secured by a lien on the Distributable State Aid that is junior and subordinate to the lien securing the Municipal Obligation.

Section 2.7. Levy and Collection of the Ad Valorem Debt Millage.

The Settlement-Related Documents will provide that:

(a) The City shall impose in each year a separate debt millage levy reasonably projected to be in an amount necessary to pay the debt service coming due on all unlimited tax general obligation bonds (including both the Municipal Obligation and the Stub UTGO Bonds) before the next annual tax levy, including any past due amounts, plus any amounts necessary to reimburse the City for other City funds used to pay prior debt service, less any millage proceeds or other funds already on deposit with the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee which are available to pay the debt service next coming due. The City shall comply with applicable law in levying and collecting ad valorem millage levied to pay all unlimited tax general obligation bonds.

(b) The City shall certify annually not later than June 30 in each year that it has imposed the debt millage levy as required by and in accordance with Section 2.7(a). Such annual certification shall be in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C and shall be promptly provided to the Bond Insurers.

(c) The City shall furnish to the Bond Insurers promptly upon request such information reasonably requested by the Bond Insurers to confirm the imposition of the debt millage levy and to monitor collections. The Bond Insurers shall have the right to discuss such information with the City, and the City will use reasonable efforts to explain the collection process to the Bond Insurers, including the allocation methods used for partial property tax payments.

Section 2.8. Plan Effectiveness and Escrowing of Payments.

(a) If the Effective Date of the Plan does not occur on or prior to September 30, 2014 for any reason other than proximately by reason of the actions or positions taken by any of the executing Bond Insurers, or their failure to support the Plan as provided in Section 3.1 below, solely in their capacity as the insurers of the Prior UTGO Bonds and not in any other capacity (including, for the avoidance of doubt in their capacity as insurers of any other obligations of the City), the City will pay into an escrow to be established with the current paying agent for the Prior UTGO Bonds the pro rata portion of the October 2014 scheduled interest debt service payment and any pro rata payments of principal and interest due thereafter, which would otherwise be paid on the Restructured UTGO Bonds, as if the transaction contemplated by this Agreement (other than the MFA Bond issuance) had closed. Specifically, and for clarification of the City's obligation under this paragraph, the City will pay into escrow the pro rata portion of scheduled debt service payments on the $287.56 million of Restructured UTGO Bonds due after September 30, 2014 through the Effective Date of the Plan, on the same terms and schedule as set forth in the current documents governing the Prior UTGO Bonds, which, subject to Section 2.8(b) below, such escrowed funds shall be released to the Bond Insurers on the Effective Date of the Plan. Such escrow shall be pursuant to the Settlement Escrow Agreement ("Settlement Escrow Agreement") in the form of Exhibit D attached hereto, which will be executed and delivered on the date of the execution and delivery of this Agreement.

(b) If the Plan is not effective by March 31, 2015, and the Bankruptcy Court has issued an Approval Order (that is not stayed pending appeal) approving the settlement embodied in this Agreement, then on [March 31, 2015] the monies in such escrow will be released to the Bond Insurers, and the City will make all subsequent debt service payments, including the payment due on April 1, 2015, directly to the paying agent for the Prior UTGO Bonds as if the Restructured UTGO Bonds transaction (other than the MFA Bond issuance) had closed. If an Approval Order is entered but is subject to a stay pending appeal, the City shall continue to pay into escrow the scheduled debt service on the Prior UTGO Bonds for so long as such stay remains in effect, and shall release all monies in the escrow accounts as soon as such order is no longer subject to stay.

(c) If the Plan is not effective by September 30, 2014, then within fifteen (15) days of a request by the Bond Insurers, the City shall file an Approval Motion pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 with the Bankruptcy Court. The City and the Bond Insurers may mutually make an Approval Motion pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 at any time upon mutual agreement of the City and the Bond Insurers.

Section 2.9. Confirmation Order and Findings. The Plan Confirmation Order shall include provisions substantially in the form of Exhibit E. Any material modification to such provisions shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Parties.

Section 2.10. Conditions to Plan Effectiveness. The Plan shall provide that the effectiveness of the Plan is subject to the following conditions:

(a) The Michigan Finance Authority board shall have approved the issuance of the MFA Bonds and such bonds shall have been issued; and

(b) The City shall have obtained all governmental and Emergency Manager consents and approvals required to carry out the terms of this Agreement.

Section 2.11. Most Favored Nation. In recognition of the unique features of the UTGO Bonds and in consideration of the settlement, the City agrees that the Bond Insurers will benefit from a “most favored nation” provision consisting of the two fundamental protections below and that such provision will be described in the Plan. Further, the City agrees that, if a class of Impaired Financial Creditors receives treatment other than the current treatment in the Fourth Amended Plan for the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit (May 5, 2014) [Docket No. 4392], such class’ treatment in the Plan will include the existence of this “most favored nation” provision.

(a) Recovery Percentage Projected as of Confirmation Date. Under no circumstances shall the terms of the Plan permit either of the Limited Tax General Obligation Claims or the COP Claims (each as defined in the Plan and collectively, the “Impaired Financial Creditors”) to recover more on a percentage basis than the UTGO Claims as projected at Plan confirmation. In determining whether a Class of Impaired Financial Creditors will recover more on a percentage basis than the UTGO Claims as projected at Plan confirmation, the recovery percentage for each of the Impaired Financial Creditors’ Claims will be the sum of:

(i) the percentage that any cash payments and the principal amount of any “hard pay” instrument, combination of instruments or any other evidences of indebtedness or payment obligations of any kind (collectively, the “Hard Pay Instruments”) provided to such Impaired Financial Creditor Class under the Plan is of the aggregate amount of all the Allowed Claims in such Impaired Financial Creditor Class; and

(ii) the percentage that the reasonably anticipated recovery (as reasonably determined by the City as of Plan confirmation and as disclosed to creditors subject to the Bond Insurers' right to contest such determination as part of the confirmation hearing) on account of any "soft pay", contingent, or similar type of instrument, combination of instruments or any other evidences of indebtedness, contracts or settlements creating payment obligations of any kind including, without limitation, payment obligations relating to a sale, lease, privatization, public private partnership or similar arrangement or the value of any assets projected to be distributed or promised revenue streams or recoveries of any kind (collectively, the "Soft Pay Instruments" and together with the Hard Pay Instruments, the "Plan Instruments") provided to such Impaired Financial Creditor Class under the Plan is of the aggregate amount of all the Allowed Claims in such Impaired Financial Creditor Class.

(b) Actual Recovery Percentage Post-Confirmation. In the event the actual recovery percentage of any Impaired Financial Creditor Class on the aggregate Plan Instruments provided to such Impaired Financial Creditor's Class would result in such Class receiving 69.5% or more of the aggregate amount of all the Allowed Claims in any such Class (the "Trigger Event"), then payments that contribute to the Impaired Financial Creditor Class receiving a recovery over 69.5% (the "Trigger Payments") shall be made under such Plan Instruments to the Bond Insurers ("Top-Off Payments") on account of the Bond Insurer Claims in amounts equal to the following:

- (i) the amount of the Trigger Payment, multiplied by
- (ii) the quotient of
 - (A) $100.5 million, divided by
 - (B) the sum of (x) 30.5% of the aggregate amount of all the Allowed Claims in the particular Impaired Financial Creditor Class, and (y) $100.5 million.

For purposes of this sub-section, all actual recoveries for Impaired Financial Creditor Classes shall be determined by discounting the payments using a 5% discount rate back to the date of Plan confirmation. Amounts payable to the Bond Insurers pursuant to the provisions of this Section 2.11 will be allocated to the Bond Insurers as set forth on Schedule 2 attached hereto.

(c) Reporting. The City shall deliver to the Bond Insurers:

(i) promptly after the first payment is made thereunder, a written notice of any payment under any Soft Pay Plan Instrument benefiting any Impaired Financial Creditor Class, including the amount and date of such payment;

(ii) on each January 15 of every year beginning in the year after the first payment is made on any Soft Pay Plan Instrument benefiting any Impaired Financial Creditor Class and until the maturity date of the Soft Pay Instrument, a written report calculating the aggregate recovery percentage of each Impaired Financial Creditor Class;

(iii) after any Impaired Financial Creditor Class achieves a recovery percentage on the aggregate amount of all the Allowed Claims in such class equal to or greater than 60%, on each January 15 and July 15, a written report calculating the aggregate recovery percentage of each Impaired Financial Creditor Class;

(iv) after a Trigger Event occurs, a written report on each date that a payment is made under any Plan Instruments held by or benefiting an Impaired Financial Creditor Class that explains the calculation for the Trigger Payment and the Top-Off Payment and demonstrates compliance with the terms of this Agreement; and

(v) written notice in the event any Impaired Financial Creditor challenges or disagrees in any manner with the determination of any payments related to a Trigger Payment.

The City official executing any written notice or written report described above will respond within a reasonable time to written inquiries from any Bond Insurer regarding such notice or report. In the event any Bond Insurer or Insurers make a written request to meet with such City official, such City Official will meet within a reasonable time period with such Bond Insurer or Insurers to answer their reasonable questions regarding any such notice or report.

(d) Dispute Resolution. In the event any of the Bond Insurers provides a written notice to the City articulating disagreement with the City's determination of whether a Trigger Event has occurred or with the amount of shared payments after a Trigger Event pursuant to subsection 2.11(c)(iv), the City will notify all Bond Insurers and meet with the Bond Insurers within 15 business days of such written notice. At the meeting the Parties will attempt in good faith to resolve the differences. If the Parties are unable to reach a resolution of the differences the Bond Insurers will have the right to bring an enforcement action in the Bankruptcy Court.

Section 2.12. Legal Opinions.

Bond counsel will provide at closing customary legal opinions relating to the validity, priority and enforceability of any MFA transaction in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Bond Insurers; such opinions to include standard bankruptcy opinion exceptions. Bond counsel will also provide a customary opinion in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Bond Insurers, on the exemption of interest from Federal and State taxation of the MFA Bonds and the Municipal Obligation.

No opinion will be provided with respect to any aspect of any lien on the UTGO Bond Tax Levy.

Section 2.13. Stay of Litigation, Proofs of Claim.

(a) The Assured/NPFG Action and Ambac Action (the “UTGO Litigation”) as it relates to the Prior UTGO Bonds shall be stayed pending the issuance of an Approval Order or Plan Confirmation Order and the occurrence of the Effective Date, whereupon the Parties shall ask the Bankruptcy Court to dismiss the UTGO Litigation without prejudice until the Approval Order or the Plan Confirmation Order, as applicable, is a Final Order, when such dismissal shall be deemed to be with prejudice.

(b) As soon as practicable subsequent to the execution and delivery of this Agreement by each of the Parties, but in no event later than five (5) business days subsequent thereto, the Parties shall take any and all action as is appropriate to (i) stay the UTGO Litigation as provided in subsection (a) above, (ii) maintain the status quo of the Parties in the UTGO Litigation as of the execution of this Agreement, and (iii) ensure that no action (including separate litigation and any objection to proofs of claim filed by the Bond Insurers relating to the Prior UTGO Bonds) is undertaken or commenced inconsistent with seeking a stay of and maintaining the status quo of the UTGO Litigation; provided, however, that any such stay shall terminate on the first (1st) business day following termination of this Agreement.

(c) In the event (i) an Approval Motion is made by the City and denied by the Bankruptcy Court, (ii) an Approval Order is issued but is not consistent with this Agreement in any material respect or is overturned on appeal, (iii) a Plan consistent with this Agreement in all material respects is not confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court other than changes regarding payments relating to the Stub UTGO Bonds, or (iv) a Plan Confirmation Order is entered by the Bankruptcy Court but is not consistent in all material respects with this Agreement, or is overturned on appeal, then any Party (including one or more of the Bond Insurers as to such Bond Insurer or Bond Insurers) may resume the UTGO Litigation and terminate this Agreement as to such Party by written notice to the Parties.

(d) The Bond Insurers agree that all proofs of claims filed by any of them with respect to Prior UTGO Bonds shall be deemed resolved and fully satisfied by approval of this Agreement in the Plan Confirmation Order, which is a Final Order or an Approval Order, which is a Final Order, as applicable.

Section 2.14. Additional Covenants

(a) City Will Not Contest. The City shall not contest the validity or enforceability of any of the liens or interests granted under this Agreement or any of the obligations of the City set forth in this Agreement.

(b) Paying Agent, Master Trustee and Escrow Agent Fees.

The City shall pay the reasonable and customary fees and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) of (i) the paying agent with respect to the Prior UTGO Bonds (including the paying agent relating to the Prior UTGO Bonds that are not Holders Restructured UTGO Bonds) and (ii) of the paying agent, the Master Trustee, the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee and the escrow agent identified in the Settlement Escrow Agreement in respect of all transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(c) Further Action. To the extent that the City has not taken all necessary action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement, it will do so.

ARTICLE III
PLAN OF ADJUSTMENT AND PLAN SUPPORT

Section 3.1. Plan Support Commitment. From and after the date hereof, and so long as the City has complied, and is complying, with its covenants and obligations under this Agreement, the Bond Insurers will each support the treatment of the Prior UTGO Bonds in the Plan by, at a hearing or in a court filing, expressing such support solely as insurers of the Prior UTGO Bonds and, if each Bond Insurer has established its right to vote, will each vote Prior UTGO Bonds and reimbursement claims in support of such Plan treatment. The Plan shall provide that such treatment, consistent with this Agreement, is the treatment for all holders of the Prior UTGO Bonds. For the absence of doubt, nothing contained in this Agreement shall require any Bond Insurer to support or vote for the treatment of any class of claims under the Plan other than the UTGO Bonds.

Section 3.2. Solicitation Required in Connection with Plan.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article III or elsewhere in this Agreement to the contrary, this Agreement is not, and shall not be deemed to be, a solicitation of acceptances of the Plan. The City and the Bond Insurers acknowledge and agree that the acceptance of the Plan will not be solicited until the Bankruptcy Court has approved the Disclosure Statement and related ballots, and such Disclosure Statement and ballots have been transmitted to parties entitled to receive same.

Section 3.3. Plan Document Provisions. All Plan Documents, as they relate to the settlement embodied in this Agreement must (i) be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Bond Insurers and to the City and be consistent with this Agreement, (ii) provide that the Plan treatment for Prior UTGO Bonds is part of a settlement of the pending UTGO Litigation.

ARTICLE IV
DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

Section 4.1. Events of Default. The breach by any Party of any material agreement or covenant set forth in this Agreement or the Settlement Escrow Agreement will be an event of default ("Event of Default") under this Agreement.

Section 4.2. Remedies. The Parties acknowledge and agree that a breach of the provisions of this Agreement by any Party would cause irreparable damage to the other Parties and that such other Parties would not have an adequate remedy at law for such damage. Therefore, the obligations of the Parties set forth in this Agreement and the Settlement Escrow Agreement shall be enforceable by an order compelling specific performance issued by the Bankruptcy Court, and appropriate injunctive relief may be applied for and granted in connection therewith. Upon an Event of Default by the City, any Bond Insurer will have the right to compel immediate payment of amounts held under the Settlement Escrow Agreement by order of the Bankruptcy Court. Such remedies shall be cumulative and not exclusive and shall be in addition to any other remedies that the Parties may have under this Agreement, the Settlement Escrow Agreement or otherwise. Any Bond Insurer may exercise its rights hereunder on its own. Consistent with Section 904 of the Bankruptcy Code, the City hereby consents to the Bankruptcy Court enforcing the terms of this Agreement and the Settlement Escrow Agreement.

Section 4.3. Termination.

(a) This Agreement may be terminated by the mutual agreement of all of the Bond Insurers upon an Event of Default caused by the City. This Agreement may be terminated by less than all of the Bond Insurers as to such Bond Insurer or Bond Insurers upon an Event of Default caused by the City if (i) an action or proceeding seeking to enforce the material agreement or covenant purported to be breached is brought by one or more Bond Insurers before the Bankruptcy Court, (ii) the Bankruptcy Court, after notice and a hearing, finds that an Event of Default caused by the City has occurred and (iii) either (A) the Bankruptcy Court declines to issue an order compelling specific performance by the City of the applicable agreement or covenant purported to be breached or (B) the Bankruptcy Court issues such an order compelling specific performance but the City fails to comply with the order.

(b) This Agreement may be terminated by the City if any of the Bond Insurers fails to (i) support the Plan with respect to Class 8 – UTGO Claims or (ii) if it has the right to vote its Class 8 Claims as determined by the voting procedures process approved by the Bankruptcy Court in an order entered on March 11, 2014 (Docket No. 2984) (as such order may have been amended from time to time), vote its Class 8 Claims to accept the Plan. This Agreement may be terminated by the City upon an Event of Default caused by the Bond Insurers, or any of them, if (i) an action or proceeding seeking to enforce the material agreement or covenant purported to be breached is brought by the City before the Bankruptcy Court, (ii) the Bankruptcy Court finds, after notice and a hearing, that an Event of Default caused by the applicable Bond Insurer has occurred and (iii) either (A) the Bankruptcy Court declines to issue an order compelling specific performance by the applicable Bond Insurer of the applicable agreement or covenant purported to be breached or (B) the Bankruptcy Court issues such an order compelling specific performance but the applicable Bond Insurer fails to comply with the order.

(c) Upon any such termination, any Party (including one or more of the Bonds Insurers as to such Bond Insurer or Bond Insurers) may resume the UTGO Litigation unless it has been previously dismissed with prejudice or has been previously deemed dismissed with prejudice.

ARTICLE V REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Section 5.1. Representations and Warranties of the City. The City represents and warrants to the Bond Insurers that:

- (a) It is a municipal corporation of the State of Michigan.
- (b) It has the power to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder and it has taken or will take all necessary action to authorize such execution, delivery and performance.
- (c) Such execution, delivery and performance do not violate or conflict with any law applicable to it, any order or judgment of any court or other agency of government applicable to it, or any material agreements specifically applicable to it or any of its assets.
- (d) Other than (i) approvals by the MFA, the State Treasurer, the execution of the Emergency Manager Order, and the approvals required by Section 19 of Act 436 to be obtained prior to delivery of the Municipal Obligation, all of which the City reasonably expects to be obtained prior to the Effective Date, and (ii) the approval of the Bankruptcy Court, all governmental and Emergency Manager consents and approvals that are required to have been obtained by it as of the date of execution of this Agreement with respect to the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement have been obtained and are in full force and effect and all conditions of any such consents and approvals have been complied with.

Section 5.2. Representations and Warranties of the Bond Insurers. Each of the Bond Insurers represents to the City that:

- (a) It is duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization or incorporation.

(b) It has the power to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations under this Agreement and it has taken all necessary corporate action to authorize such execution, delivery and performance.

(c) Such execution, delivery and performance do not violate or conflict with any law applicable to it, any provision of its constitutional documents, any order or judgment of any court or other agency of government applicable to it, or any agreements specifically applicable to it or any of its assets.

(d) All corporate or governmental consents and approvals that are required to have been obtained by it with respect to this Agreement have been obtained and are in full force and effect and all conditions of any such consents and approvals have been complied with.

(e) Each of the respective Bond Insurers had and has standing to bring and resolve the UTGO Litigation related to the Prior UTGO Bonds that it insures (Assured and NPPFG represent that each had and has standing to bring and resolve the Assured/NPPFG Action, and Ambac represents that it had and has standing to bring and resolve the Ambac Action).

Section 5.3. Mutual Representations and Warranties. Unless otherwise noted, each Party makes the following representations, warranties and covenants (on a several basis, with respect to such Party only) to each of the other Parties:

(a) Each person signing this Agreement warrants that he or she is legally competent and authorized to execute this Agreement on behalf of the Party whose name is subscribed at or above such person's signature.

(b) The Parties have not made any statement or representation to each other regarding any facts relied upon by them in entering into this Agreement, and each of them specifically does not rely upon any statement, representation or promise of the other Parties hereto or any other person in entering into this Agreement, except as expressly stated herein or in the exhibits hereto. Each party has relied upon its own investigation and analysis of the facts and not on any statement or representation made by any other party in choosing to enter into this Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein.

(c) The Parties and their respective attorneys have made such investigation of the facts pertaining to this Agreement and all of the matters pertaining thereto as they deem necessary.

ARTICLE VI EXCULPATION

Section 6.1. Exculpation. The Plan will include the Bond Insurer Exculpated Parties as exculpated parties for acts and omissions (other than those constituting gross negligence or willful misconduct) in connection with (i) the Plan as it relates to this Agreement and (ii) this Agreement.

Section 6.2. Releases. Upon the dismissal with prejudice or deemed dismissal with prejudice of the applicable UTGO Litigation, the Parties to the applicable UTGO Litigation shall be deemed to have released each other, and the Parties' officials, officers, directors, employees and representatives, of and from any and all claims and causes of action related to the applicable UTGO Litigation and the Prior UTGO Bonds.

Section 6.3. Defense Against Challenges. (a) Subject to the terms of Section 6.3(b) below, if, after the issuance of the Plan Confirmation Order or the Approval Order, the validity or enforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement or the Settlement-Related Documents (as they relate to the settlement set forth in this Agreement) is challenged in any action, suit or proceeding, each of the named Parties in such action, suit or proceeding shall assume its own defense of such action, suit or proceeding.

(b) If, after the issuance of the Plan Confirmation Order or the Approval Order, an action, suit or proceeding is brought, an issue in which is the validity or enforceability of the Stub UTGO Bonds, including, without limitation, a challenge to the Assigned UTGO Bond Tax Proceeds (a "Stub UTGO Challenge"), the City shall assume the defense of such issue in any such action, suit or proceeding. If any of the Bond Insurers are named as a party in a Stub UTGO Challenge, the City will appoint counsel to the named Bond Insurers, which may or may not be counsel to the City. In all events, such counsel must be reasonably acceptable to the named Bond Insurers, and the City will pay the reasonable costs of such counsel.

ARTICLE VII DISMISSAL OF CASE AND TERMINATION

Section 7.1. Effect of Dismissal of the Bankruptcy Case. In the event the Bankruptcy Case is dismissed, any Party may at any time within 60 days after such dismissal immediately terminate this Agreement by written notice to the other Parties.

Section 7.2. Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement by any Party pursuant to any provisions of this Agreement, this Agreement shall become null and void and be deemed of no force and effect, with no liability on the part of any Party hereto (or of any of its elected or appointed officials, directors, officers, employees, consultants, contractors, agents, legal and financial advisors or other representatives) arising from such termination, and no Party shall have any obligations to any other Party arising out of this Agreement. Upon termination, neither this Agreement nor any terms or provisions set forth herein shall be admissible in any dispute, litigation, proceeding or controversy among the Parties and nothing contained herein shall constitute or be deemed to be an admission by any Party as to any matter, it being understood that the statements and resolutions reached herein were as a result of negotiations and compromises of the respective positions of the Parties. If this Agreement is terminated, then no Party hereto may (i) use this Agreement, any of its terms or any discussions or negotiations conducted in respect of this Agreement, or any part of the foregoing, in the UTGO Litigation; (ii) seek discovery with respect to any of the matters described in subsection (i) in the UTGO Litigation; or (iii) seek to admit any of the matters described in subsection (i) into evidence in the UTGO Litigation.

ARTICLE VIII MISCELLANEOUS

Section 8.1. Amendments. This Agreement may not be modified, amended or supplemented except by a written agreement executed by each Party to be affected by such modification, amendment or supplement.

Section 8.2. No Admission of Liability.

(a) The execution of this Agreement is not intended to be, nor shall it be construed as, an admission or evidence in any pending or subsequent suit, action, proceeding or dispute of any liability, wrongdoing, or obligation whatsoever (including as to the merits of any claim or defense) by any Party to any other Party or any other person with respect to any of the matters addressed in this Agreement.

(b) None of this Agreement (including, without limitation, the recitals and exhibits hereto), the settlement or any act performed or document executed pursuant to or in furtherance of this Agreement or the settlement: (i) is or may be deemed to be or may be used as an admission or evidence of the validity of any claim or of any wrongdoing or liability of any Party; or (ii) is or may be deemed to be or may be used as an admission or evidence of any liability, fault or omission of any Party in any civil, criminal or administrative proceeding in any court, administrative agency or other tribunal. None of this Agreement, the settlement, or any act performed or document executed pursuant to or in furtherance of this Agreement or the settlement shall be admissible in any proceeding for any purposes, except to enforce the terms of the Agreement, and except that any Party may file this Agreement in any action for any purpose, including, but not limited to, in order to support a defense or counterclaim based on the principles of res judicata, collateral estoppel, release, good faith settlement, judgment bar or reduction or any other theory of claim preclusion or issue preclusion or similar defense of counterclaim.

Section 8.3. Good Faith Negotiations. The Parties recognize and acknowledge that each of the Parties hereto is represented by counsel, and such Party received independent legal advice with respect to the advisability of entering into this Agreement. Each of the Parties acknowledges that the negotiations leading up to this Agreement were conducted regularly and at arm's length; this Agreement is made and executed by and of each Party's own free will; that each knows all of the relevant facts and his or its rights in connection therewith, and that he or it has not been improperly influenced or induced to make this settlement as a result of any act or action on the part of any party or employee, agent, attorney or representative of any party to this Agreement. The Parties further acknowledge that they entered into this Agreement because of their desire to avoid the further expense and inconvenience of litigation and other disputes, and to compromise permanently and settle the claims between the Parties settled by the execution of this Agreement.

Section 8.4. Rights and Remedies. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to augment or impair any rights, remedies and interests, including without limitation, liens, of any of the Parties hereto other than with respect to the Prior UTGO Bonds.

Section 8.5. Third Party Beneficiaries. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon, or to give to, any Person other than the Parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns, any right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement or any covenant, condition or stipulation thereof; and the covenants, stipulations and agreements contained in this Agreement are and shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 8.6. Governing Law; Retention of Jurisdiction; Service of Process. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Michigan, without giving effect to any principles of conflicts of law and applicable federal law. By its execution and delivery of this Agreement, each of the Parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees for itself that any legal action, suit or proceeding between any or all of the foregoing with respect to any matter under or arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment rendered in any such action, suit or proceeding, shall be brought in the Bankruptcy Court for that purpose only, and, by execution and delivery of this Agreement, each hereby irrevocably accepts and submits itself to the jurisdiction of such court, generally and unconditionally, with respect to any such action, suit or proceeding. In the event any such action, suit or proceeding is commenced, the Parties hereby agree and consent that service of process may be made, and personal jurisdiction over any Party hereto in any such action, suit or proceeding may be obtained, by service of a copy of the summons, complaint and other pleadings required to commence such action, suit or proceeding upon the Party at the address of such Party set forth in Section 8.11 hereof, unless another address has been designated by such Party in a notice given to the other Parties in accordance with Section 8.11 hereof. The City agrees that the Bankruptcy Court will have exclusive post-confirmation authority and power to enforce this Agreement and all Settlement-Related Documents and to hear and adjudicate any challenge, action, suit or proceeding brought by any third party challenging the validity or enforceability of any provision of this Agreement, until all UTGO Bonds have been paid in full and all Plan Instruments are no longer outstanding. Pursuant to Section 904 of the Bankruptcy Code, the City hereby consents to the Bankruptcy Court enforcing the terms of this Agreement and the Settlement Escrow Agreement.

Section 8.7. Headings. The headings of the Articles and Sections of this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and are not part of this Agreement and do not in any way limit or modify the terms or provisions of this Agreement and shall not affect the interpretation hereof.

Section 8.8. Binding Agreement Successors and Assigns; Joint and Several Obligations. This Agreement shall be binding upon the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Parties listed on the signature pages hereto. This Agreement is intended to bind and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors, assigns, administrators, constituents and representatives. The agreements, representations, covenants and obligations of the Parties under this Agreement are several only and not joint in any respect and none shall be responsible for the performance or breach of this Agreement by another.

Section 8.9. Entire Agreement. This Agreement shall constitute the full and entire agreement among the Parties with regard to the subject hereof, and supersedes all prior negotiations, representations, promises or warranties (oral or otherwise) made by any Party with respect to the subject matter hereof. No Party has entered into this Agreement in reliance on any other Party's prior representation, promise or warranty (oral or otherwise) except for those that may be expressly set forth in this Agreement.

Section 8.10. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original copy of this Agreement and all of which, when taken together, shall constitute one and the same Agreement. Copies of executed counterparts transmitted by telecopy or other electronic transmission service shall be considered original executed counterparts, provided receipt of copies of such counterparts is confirmed.

Section 8.11. Notices. Once the Debt Service Requirement has been satisfied for all UTGO Bonds for payments due on or before May 1 of each Fiscal Year, any excess shall be allocated to the same accounts in proportion to the Debt Service Requirements payable on such UTGO Bonds in the next Fiscal Year.

2. SECOND, the Escrow Trustee shall allocate deposits made to the 2014 UTGO Bonds Account (i) first to the 2014 Municipal Obligation Subaccount until the Debt Service Requirement payable (or past due) on the Municipal Obligation as shown on Exhibit D on or before April 1 of the then current Fiscal Year has been satisfied and (ii) second, to the Stub UTGO Bonds Subaccount until the Debt Service Requirement payable (or past due) on the Stub UTGO Bonds on or before April 1 of the then current Fiscal Year has been satisfied. (b) The Escrow Trustee shall keep and maintain a ledger on its books and records showing each Debt Millage Deposit into the Debt Millage Fund of the UTGO Debt Millage Fund, all transfers of funds from one account to another or from the UTGO Debt Millage Fund to the Master Trustee or the Income Stabilization Funds or the paying agent or trustee for any Additional Bonds, which ledger shall be substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit D-2 (the "Set Aside Ledger"). (d) The Escrow Trustee shall be protected in acting upon any notice, request, consent, certificate, order, affidavit, letter, telegram or other paper or document reasonably believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed or sent by the proper person or persons.

(e) As to the existence or non-existence of any fact or as to the sufficiency or validity of any instrument, paper or proceeding, the Escrow Trustee shall be entitled to rely upon a certificate believed in good faith to be genuine and correct, signed on behalf of the City by an authorized officer of the City as sufficient evidence of the facts therein contained. The Escrow Trustee may also accept a similar certificate to the effect that any particular dealing, transaction or action is necessary or expedient, but may at its discretion secure such further evidence deemed necessary or advisable, but shall in no case be bound to secure the same.

(f) The permissive right of the Escrow Trustee to do things enumerated in this Escrow Agreement, as amended, shall not be construed as a duty and the Escrow Trustee shall not be answerable for other than its gross negligence or willful misconduct. The immunities and exceptions from liability of the Escrow Trustee shall extend to its officers, directors, employees and agents.

(g) The Escrow Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect to the execution of its rights and obligations hereunder.

(h) All moneys received by the Escrow Trustee shall, until used or applied or invested as herein provided, be held in trust in the manner and for the purpose for which they were received, but need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by this Escrow Agreement, as amended, or by law. The Escrow Trustee shall not be under any liability for interest on any moneys received hereunder except such as may be agreed upon.

(i) The Escrow Trustee shall not be under any obligation to initiate any suit or to take any remedial proceeding under this Escrow Agreement or to take any steps in the execution of the trusts created by this Escrow Agreement or in the enforcement of any rights and powers under this Escrow Agreement until it has been indemnified to its satisfaction against any and all fees, costs and expenses and other reasonable disbursements and against all liability.

(j) The Escrow Trustee shall have no responsibility or liability with respect to any information, statement or recital in any official statement, offering memorandum or other disclosure material prepared or distributed with respect to the issuance of the UTGO Bonds, except for liability for its own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

(k) The Escrow Trustee may become the holder of any of the UTGO Bonds with the same rights it would have if it were not Escrow Trustee, and, to the extent permitted by law, may act as depository for and permit any of its officers or directors to act as a member of, or in any other capacity with respect to, any committee formed to protect the rights of holders, whether or not such committee shall represent the holders of a majority in principal amount of any of the UTGO Bonds of such series then outstanding.

(l) The Escrow Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by any of its officers, employees, agents or representatives, unless it shall be proved that the Escrow Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts.

(m) The Escrow Trustee has no obligation or liability to the holders for the payment of interest on, principal of or redemption premium, if any, with respect to the UTGO Bonds from its own funds; but rather the Escrow Trustee's obligations shall be limited to the performance of its duties hereunder.

(n) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Agreement or related documents, relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Escrow Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Article.

Section 402. Fees and Expenses of Escrow Trustee. (a) The Escrow Trustee shall be entitled to reasonable fees for services rendered under this Escrow Agreement, as amended, and shall be reimbursed for all expenses reasonably incurred in connection with such services. Such fees and expenses shall be payable by the City and shall be determined in accordance with the Fee Schedule attached as Exhibit E of this Agreement or as otherwise may be agreed to by the City and the Escrow Trustee.

(b) The City shall be liable for all fees, expenses, charges, losses, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by the Escrow Trustee pursuant to this Agreement except for those which are adjudicated to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Escrow Trustee, and shall pay such amounts to or at the direction of the Escrow Trustee.

Section 403. Resignation; Appointment of Successor Escrow Trustee; Successor Escrow Trustee Upon Merger, Consolidation or Sale. (a) The Escrow Trustee and any successor Escrow Trustee may resign only upon giving 60 days' prior written notice to the City and, while any of the Municipal Obligation or the Stub UTGO Bonds remains Outstanding, the Bond Insurers. Such resignation shall take effect only upon the appointment of a successor Escrow Trustee as described in Section 403(b) below and the acceptance of such appointment by the successor Escrow Trustee. Upon appointment of a successor Escrow Trustee, the resigning Escrow Trustee shall, after payment of its fees, costs and expenses, assign all of its right, title and interest in the Debt Millage Revenues, and transfer and assign its right, title and interest in the Escrow Agreement to the successor Escrow Trustee. The successor Escrow Trustee shall meet the requirements of Section 403(b) below and shall accept in writing its duties and responsibilities hereunder and file such acceptance with the City.

(b) In case the Escrow Trustee shall give notice of resignation or be removed, or be dissolved, or shall be in the course of dissolution or liquidation, or otherwise become incapable of acting hereunder, or in case it shall be taken under the control of any public office or offices, or of a receiver appointed by a court, a successor may with the prior written consent of the City (so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing under this Escrow Agreement) and, while any of the Municipal Obligation or the Stub UTGO Bonds remains

Outstanding, the Bond Insurers, be appointed by the owners of a majority in aggregate principal amount of UTGO Bonds then Outstanding, by an instrument or concurrent instruments in writing signed by such owners, or by their duly authorized attorneys in fact, a copy of which shall be delivered personally or sent by first class mail, postage prepaid, to the City, the retiring Escrow Trustee, and the successor Escrow Trustee, which, while any of the Municipal Obligation or the Stub UTGO Bonds remains Outstanding must be acceptable to the Bond Insurers insuring such Outstanding Bonds. In the absence of an appointment by the bondholders, the City may appoint a successor Escrow Trustee, by an instrument in writing signed by an authorized officer of the City, a copy of which shall be delivered personally or sent by first class mail, postage prepaid, to the retiring Escrow Trustee and the successor Escrow Trustee. If the owners of the UTGO Bonds and the City fail to so appoint a successor Escrow Trustee, hereunder within thirty (30) days after the Escrow Trustee has given notice of its resignation, has been removed, has been dissolved, has otherwise become incapable of acting hereunder or has been taken under control by a public officer or receiver, the Escrow Trustee shall have the right to petition a court of competent jurisdiction to appoint a successor hereunder. Every such Escrow Trustee appointed pursuant to the provisions of this Section 403(b) (i) shall at all times be a bank having trust powers or a trust company, (ii) shall at all times be organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or of any state, (iii) shall have, or be wholly owned by an entity having, a combined capital and surplus of at least $75,000,000, (iv) shall be authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers, and (v) shall be subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority.

(c) Any corporation or association into which the Escrow Trustee may be merged or converted or with or into which it may be consolidated, or to which it may sell or transfer its corporate trust business and assets as a whole or substantially as a whole, or any corporation or association resulting from any merger, conversion, sale, consolidation or transfer to which it is a party, provided such company shall be eligible under Section 403(b) hereof, shall be and become successor Escrow Trustee hereunder and shall be vested with all the trusts, powers, rights, obligations, duties, remedies, immunities and privileges hereunder as was its predecessor, without the execution or filing of any instrument or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

Section 404. Removal of Escrow Trustee. The Escrow Trustee may be removed at any time by an instrument or concurrent instruments in writing delivered to the Escrow Trustee and signed by the City; provided that if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing hereunder, then, while any of the Municipal Obligation or the Stub UTGO Bonds remains Outstanding, the Escrow Trustee may not be removed without the consent of the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the UTGO Bonds then Outstanding and the Bond Insurers. No removal of the Escrow Trustee and no appointment of a successor Escrow Trustee shall become effective until the successor Escrow Trustee has accepted its appointment in the manner provided in Section 403 hereof. Upon such removal and the payment of its fees, costs and expenses, the Escrow Trustee shall assign to the successor Escrow Trustee all of its right, title and interest in the Trust Estate in the same manner as provided in Section 403 hereof.

THE MASTER TRUSTEE

Section 601. Master Trustee. Except as otherwise required by the MFA, the Master Trustee for the Bonds shall act as bond registrar, transfer agent and trustee for the Bonds, and shall be initially U.S. Bank National Association, Detroit, Michigan, or such other bank or trust company located in the State of Michigan which is qualified to act in such capacity under the laws of the United States of America or the State of Michigan. The Master Trustee means and includes any company into which the Master Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any company resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which it shall be a party or any company to which the Master Trustee may sell or transfer all or substantially all of its corporate trust business, provided, that such company shall be a trust company or bank which is qualified to be a successor to the Master Trustee as determined by the Finance Director, shall be authorized by law to perform all the duties imposed upon it by this Order, and shall be the successor to the Master Trustee without the execution or filing of any paper or the performance of any further act, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding. The Finance Director is authorized to enter into a Fifth Supplement to the Master Trust Indenture in the form of a Fifth Supplemental Indenture with the Master Trustee, and from time to time as required, may designate a similarly qualified successor Master Trustee and enter into an agreement therewith for such services.

Section 602. Fifth Supplemental Indenture. The Authorized Officers are each hereby authorized and directed on behalf of the City to take any and all other actions and perform any and all acts that shall be required, necessary or desirable to enter into and implement the Fifth Supplemental Indenture with the Master Trustee, including, but not limited to, entering into an agreement with the State Treasurer in accordance with Act 227 to provide for the direct payment of Distributable Aid by the State Treasurer to the Master Trustee as additional security for the Bonds.

ARTICLE VII

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDERS OR RESOLUTIONS

Section 701. Supplemental Orders or Resolutions Not Requiring Consent of Holders of the Bonds. The City may with the prior written consent of the Bond Insurers, which in the opinion of the independent Bond Counsel are affected by such order or resolution, but without the consent of any Bondowner, adopt orders or resolutions supplemental to this Order for any one or more of the following purposes:

- (i) to confirm or further assure the security hereof or to grant or pledge to the holders of the Bonds any additional security;
- (ii) to add additional covenants and agreements of the City for the purposes of further securing the payment of the Bonds;
- (iii) to cure any ambiguity or formal defect or omission in this Order;
- (iv) to amend provisions in the Order relating to rebate to the United States Government or otherwise, which in the opinion of Bond Counsel are required in order to maintain the exclusion of interest on the Tax-Exempt Bonds from gross income for federal income tax purposes; and
- (v) such other action not materially, adversely and directly affecting the security of the Bonds;

provided that the effectiveness of any supplemental order or resolution is subject to Section 702 to the extent applicable.

Section 702. Opinion and Filing Under Act 34. Before any supplemental order or resolution under this Article shall become effective, a copy thereof shall be filed with the Master Trustee, together with an opinion of Bond Counsel that such supplemental order or resolution is authorized or permitted by this Article; provided that Bond Counsel in rendering any such opinion shall be entitled to rely upon certificates of the Finance Director or other City official, and opinions or reports of consultants, experts and other professionals retained by the City to advise it, with respect to the presence or absence of facts relative to such opinion and the consequences of such facts.

ARTICLE VIII

DEFEASANCE

Section 801. Defeasance. Bonds shall be deemed to be paid in full upon the deposit in trust of cash or direct obligations of, or obligations the principal of and interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by, the United States of America, or any combination thereof, not redeemable at the option of the issuer thereof, the principal and interest payments upon which, without reinvestment thereof, will come due at such times and in such amounts, as to be fully sufficient to pay when due, the principal of such Bonds and interest to accrue thereon, as confirmed by a verification report prepared by an independent certified public accountant; provided, that if any of such Bonds are to be called for redemption prior to maturing, irrevocable instructions to call such Bonds for redemption shall be given only with the prior written consent of the MFA and on such terms as may be required by the MFA. Such cash and securities representing such obligations shall be deposited with a bank or trust company and held for the exclusive benefit of the Owners of such Bonds. After such deposit, such Bonds shall no longer be entitled to the benefits of this Order (except for any rights of transfer or exchange of Bonds as therein or herein provided for) and shall be payable solely from the funds deposited for such purpose and investment earnings, if any, thereon, and the lien of this Order for the benefit of such Bonds shall be discharged.

OTHER PROVISIONS OF GENERAL APPLICATION

Section 901. Approval of Other Documents and Actions. The Mayor, the Finance Director, the Treasurer and the City Clerk are hereby authorized and directed on behalf of the City to take any and all other actions, perform any and all acts and execute any and all documents that shall be required, necessary or desirable to implement this Order.

The Finance Director is authorized to file applications with and to pay the related fees, if any, to the Michigan Department of Treasury at his discretion under Act 34 for an Order or Orders of Approval to issue all or a portion of the Bonds, and apply for such waivers or other Treasury approvals as necessary to implement the issuance, delivery and security for the Bonds, and as required by the Michigan Department of Treasury and Act 34. The Finance Director is authorized and directed to apply for ratings on the Bonds, if necessary, and pay any post closing filing fees required by Act 34 to the Michigan Department of Treasury or other specified agency, from legally available funds.

Section 902. Continuing Disclosure Undertaking. The City shall enter into a continuing disclosure undertaking pursuant to Rule 15c2-12 promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Rule") for the benefit of the MFA and the holders and beneficial owners of the MFA Bonds in connection with the delivery of the Bonds as to which the Rule is applicable, as more specifically set forth in Exhibit D hereto (the "Undertaking"); provided, however, that the terms of the Undertaking are subject to completion and modification prior to delivery of the Bonds by the Finance Director to such extent as the Finance Director shall deem necessary to comply with law or market requirements. The Finance Director is authorized to execute and deliver the Undertaking after completion and modification as provided in this Order and the Supplemental Order.

Section 903. Delegation of City to, and Authorization of Actions of the Mayor and the Finance Director. (a) Prior to the delivery date for the Bonds, the Finance Director may cause the preparation and approve the form and distribution of City disclosure, if necessary, for any Preliminary Official Statement or Official Statement of the MFA and offering materials to be used in conjunction with the transfer of the Municipal Obligations to the MFA in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Bond Insurers, and the issuance of the MFA Bonds, and the Mayor or Finance Director shall deem the City's disclosure "final" for purposes of Rule 15c2-12 of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(b) The Finance Director is hereby authorized and directed to do and perform any and all acts and things with respect to the Bonds which are necessary and appropriate to carry into effect, consistent with this Order, the authorizations therein and herein contained, including without limitation, the securing of ratings by bond rating agencies, if cost effective, the negotiation for and acquisition of bond insurance and/or other credit enhancement, if any, to further secure the Bonds or any portions thereof, the acquisition of an irrevocable surety bond to fulfill the City's obligation to fund any reserve account, the printing of the Bonds and the incurring and paying of reasonable fees, costs and expenses incidental to the foregoing and other costs of issuance of the Bonds including, but not limited to fees and expenses of bond counsel, financial advisors, accountants and others, from Bond proceeds or other available funds, for and on behalf of the City.

(c) Except as otherwise provided herein, all determinations and decisions of the Finance Director with respect to the issuance and sale of the Bonds as permitted or required by this Order shall be confirmed by the Authorized Officer in a Supplemental Order or Supplemental Orders, and such confirmations shall constitute determinations that any conditions precedent to such determinations and decisions of the Authorized Officer have been fulfilled.

Section 904. Act 34 Approval of the Bonds. The Bonds shall neither be issued nor delivered unless and only so long as the issuance of the Bonds as provided herein shall have been authorized and approved in accordance with the applicable provisions of Act 34.

Section 905. Approving Legal Opinions with Respect to the Bonds. Transfer of the Bonds to the MFA shall be conditioned upon receiving, at the time of delivery, the approving opinion of Bond Counsel, approving legality of the Bonds and, with respect to Bonds determined by the Finance Director to be issued on a tax-exempt basis, the exclusion from gross income of the interest paid thereon from federal and State income taxation only.

Section 906. Negotiated Transaction. (a) Pursuant to Section 309(1) of Act 34 the Emergency Manager determines to negotiate the delivery of the Bonds to the MFA in consideration for the transfer by the City to the MFA of the Bonds, as provided in the Purchase Contract approved by the Finance Director within the parameters established hereby, and confirmed by the Finance Director in the Supplemental Order. The reason for choosing a negotiated transaction instead of a competitive sale is that the terms of the Plan of Adjustment and the UTGO Settlement Agreement require the City to secure the payment of the Bonds with Distributable Aid under the terms of Act 227 which may only be accomplished by a delivery of the Bonds to the MFA. The negotiated transaction will allow the Municipal Obligations to be transferred to the MFA in consideration for the MFA Bonds to successfully implement a portion of the Plan of Adjustment.

(b) Subject to the foregoing, the Purchase Contract shall be dated the date of delivery of the Bonds. The Finance Director is hereby authorized and directed to execute the Purchase Contract for and on behalf of the City.

Section 907. Delivery of Bonds. Subject to the approval of the Supplemental Order, the Finance Director is hereby authorized to deliver the Municipal Obligations to the MFA upon the issuance and delivery of the MFA Bonds in consideration therefor.

Section 908. Official Statement. The Finance Director is hereby authorized to execute the Official Statement or other offering materials with respect to the Bonds in the form approved by him with such changes as the Finance Director may authorize. Circulation of the Preliminary Official Statement, if any, or other preliminary offering materials is hereby approved.

Section 909. Appointment of Bond Counsel; Engagement of Other Parties. The appointment by the Emergency Manager of the law firm of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, P.L.C. of Detroit, Michigan, as Bond Counsel for the Bonds is hereby ratified and confirmed, notwithstanding the periodic representation by Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, P.L.C., in unrelated matters of other parties and potential parties to the issuance of the Bonds. The fees and expenses of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, P.L.C. as Bond Counsel and other accumulated bond related fees and expenses shall be payable as a cost of issuance from available funds in accordance with the agreement of such firm on file with the Emergency Manager.

Section 910. Parties in Interest. Nothing in this Order, expressed or implied, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon, or to give to, any person or entity, other than the City, the Master Trustee, the MFA, the holders of the Bonds, the holders of the MFA Bonds, the Bond Insurers, and the Dissenting Bond Insurer any right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Order or any covenant, condition or stipulation hereof, and all covenants, stipulations, promises and agreements in this Order contained by and on behalf of the City, or the MFA shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the City and the MFA.

Section 911. No Recourse Under Order. All covenants, agreements and obligations of the City contained in this Order shall be deemed to be the covenants, agreements and obligations of the City and not of any councilperson, member, officer or employee of the City in his or her individual capacity, and no recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of or interest on the Bonds or for any claim based thereon or on this Order against any councilperson, member, officer or employee of the City or any person executing the Bonds in his or her official individual capacity.

Section 912. Severability. If any one or more sections, clauses or provisions of this Order shall be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or ineffective for any reason, such determination shall in no way affect the validity and effectiveness of the remaining sections, clauses and provisions hereof.

Section 913. Cover Page, Table of Contents and Article and Section Headings. The cover page, table of contents and Article and Section headings hereof are solely for convenience of reference and do not constitute a part of this Order, and none of them shall affect its meaning, construction or effect.

Section 914. Conflict. All resolutions or parts of resolutions or other proceedings of the City in conflict herewith shall be and the same hereby are repealed insofar as such conflict exists.

Section 915. Governing Law and Jurisdiction. This Order shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State.

Section 916. Order and Supplemental Order are a Contract. The provisions of this Order and the Supplemental Order shall constitute a contract among the City, the MFA, the holders of the Bonds and the Bond Insurers.

Section 917. Effective Date. This Order shall take effect immediately upon its adoption by the Council.

Section 918. Notices. All notices and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and given by United States certified or registered mail, expedited courier overnight delivery service or by other means (including facsimile transmission) that provides a written record of such notice and its receipt. SETTLEMENT ESCROW AGREEMENT

THIS SETTLEMENT ESCROW AGREEMENT (the "Agreement" or "Settlement Escrow Agreement"), is dated as of the ___ day of _____, 2014, made by and among the City of Detroit, County of Wayne, State of Michigan (the "City"), Ambac Assurance Corporation ("Ambac"), Assured Guaranty Municipal Corp. and Assured Guaranty Corp. (together, "Assured"), and National Public Finance Guarantee Corporation ("NPFG"), and U. S. Bank National Association, Detroit, Michigan (in such capacity, the "Settlement Escrow Trustee"). In this Agreement, each of the City, Ambac, Assured, NPFG and the Settlement Escrow Trustee is referred to individually as a "Party"; Ambac, Assured, and NPFG (including their successors and assigns) are referred to collectively as the "Bond Insurers"; and the City, the Settlement Escrow Trustee and the Bond Insurers are referred to collectively as the "Parties."

Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning set forth in the UTGO Settlement Agreement (defined herein).

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, the City and the Bond Insurers have heretofore entered into a Settlement Agreement, dated XX (the "UTGO Settlement Agreement") to consensually resolve their dispute under or in respect of the Prior UTGO Bonds, the Assured/NPFG Action, the AMBAC Action as it relates to the Prior UTGO Bonds, and the UTGO Claims, all arising out of a petition for relief filed by the City pursuant to Chapter 9 of title 11 of the United States Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Michigan;

WHEREAS, if the Effective Date of the Plan does not occur on or prior to September 30, 2014, for any reason other than proximately by reason of the actions or positions taken by any of the Bond Insurers, or their failure to support the Plan as described in Section 3.1 of the UTGO Settlement Agreement, solely in their capacity as the insurers of the Prior UTGO Bonds and not in any other capacity (including, for the avoidance of doubt in their capacity as insurers of any other obligations of the City), the City will be obligated to pay into an escrow to be established with the Settlement Escrow Trustee under this Agreement the October 2014 scheduled interest debt service payment that would otherwise be made on the Restructured UTGO Bonds as if the transaction contemplated by the UTGO Settlement Agreement (other than the MFA Bond issuance) had closed (the "Pro Forma Restructured UTGO Bonds"), and any pro rata payments of principal and interest due thereafter, as further described in Section 2.8 of the UTGO Settlement Agreement and herein;

WHEREAS, the City has executed the Debt Millage Escrow Agreement pursuant to which the City will be required, as of the Effective Date, to segregate and deposit the UTGO Tax Levy with the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual undertakings, provisions and agreements herein contained, the sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and in order to provide for the payment of the Pro Forma Restructured UTGO Bonds should the Effective Date not occur on or prior to September 30, 2014, and to secure the performance and observance of the conditions and covenants herein set forth and for other valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the City covenants and agrees with the Settlement Escrow Trustee and the Bond Insurers as follows:

ARTICLE I.
ESTABLISHMENT OF FUNDS AND ACCOUNTS

Section 101 Establishment of Settlement Escrow Fund. There is hereby created and established with the Settlement Escrow Trustee, pursuant to Order No. ___ and this Agreement, a single and common trust fund designated the “Settlement Escrow Fund”.

Section 102 Deposits to the Settlement Escrow Fund.

(a) If the Effective Date of the Plan does not occur on or prior to September 30, 2014 for any reason other than proximately by reason of the actions or positions taken by any of the Bond Insurers, or their failure to support the Plan as described in Section 3.1 of the UTGO Settlement Agreement, solely in their capacity as the insurers of the Prior UTGO Bonds and not in any other capacity (including, for the avoidance of doubt in their capacity as insurers of any other obligations of the City), the City shall pay the Settlement Escrow Trustee, from Debt Millage Revenues, for deposit into the Settlement Escrow Fund the October 2014 scheduled interest debt service payment with respect to the Pro Forma Restructured UTGO Bonds, as shown on Exhibit A, and any pro rata payments of principal and interest due thereafter, as shown on Exhibit A, as if the transaction contemplated by the UTGO Settlement Agreement (other than the MFA Bond issuance) had closed. Any such monies in the Settlement Escrow Fund which would have been payable on October 1, 2014 shall be released to the Bond Insurers on the Effective Date of the Plan. Any other monies then on deposit in the Settlement Escrow Fund shall be transferred on the Effective Date to the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee for deposit in the 2014 UTGO Municipal Obligation Subaccount in the 2014 UTGO Bonds Account established pursuant to the Debt Millage Escrow Agreement.

(b) If the Plan is not effective by March 31, 2015, and the Bankruptcy Court has issued an Approval Order (that is not stayed pending appeal) approving the settlement embodied in the UTGO Settlement Agreement, the monies in the Settlement Escrow Fund will be released and paid to the Bond Insurers in the amounts shown in Exhibit A for each prior interest payment date and the City shall make, or shall cause the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee to make, all subsequent debt service payments on each interest date payment (as shown on Exhibit A) directly to the paying agent for the Prior UTGO Bonds. If an Approval Order is entered but is subject to a stay pending appeal, the City shall continue to pay into the Settlement Escrow Fund the scheduled debt service on the Pro Forma Restructured UTGO Bonds as shown on Exhibit A for so long as such stay remains in effect, and, as soon as such order is no longer subject to stay, shall thereafter apply all monies in the Settlement Escrow Fund first, to immediately reimburse the Bond Insurers for payments of principal and interest made on and after October 1, 2014 with respect to the Prior UTGO Bonds, and thereafter to make payments directly to the Paying Agent for the UTGO Bonds.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Bond Insurer shall have defaulted in its obligation to make payments under its respective Bond Insurance Policy or Policies, any payment required to be made to such Bond Insurer shall be made to the holders of the Prior UTGOs at the direction of the City but only to the extent of any uncured failure or shortfall in the Bond Insurer's payment.

Section 103 Partial Payments; Accounting.

(a) If on any interest payment date amounts held in the Settlement Escrow Fund are less than the amounts due with respect to all Pro Forma Restructured UTGO Bonds (as shown on Exhibit A), such payments shall be distributed pro rata based upon the aggregate amount payable to each Bond Insurer. If the City fails to deposit into the Settlement Escrow Fund, or to otherwise pay to the Bond Insurers or holders of the Prior UTGO the amounts required by this Agreement, any deficiencies shall be paid into the Settlement Escrow Fund from the first available amounts of the Aggregate UTGO Tax Levy as provided for in Section 2.4(b)(i) of the UTGO Settlement Agreement, and shall be distributed to, or at the direction of the Bond Insurers, pro rata, as soon as practicable (subject to Section 102(b)) hereof.

(b) The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall keep and maintain a record showing each deposit into the Settlement Escrow Fund, and all transfers of funds made therefrom, which shall be provided to any Bond Insurer upon request.

(c) Any payment to a Bond Insurer shall be paid by wire transfer in immediately available funds into the accounts as shown in Section 501.

ARTICLE II.
INVESTMENT OF FUNDS

Section 201 Permitted Investments. All money held by the Settlement Escrow Fund, without the need for further direction by the City, shall be invested by the Settlement Escrow Trustee in accordance with written instructions from the City in mutual funds registered under the investment company act of 1940, title I of chapter 686, 54 Stat. 789, 15 USC 80a-1 to 80a-3 and 80a-4 to 80a-64, that are at the time of purchase within the highest classification established by not less than two standard rating services and so long as the portfolio of such mutual funds is limited to bonds, and other obligations on which the full and timely payment of principal and interest is unconditionally guaranteed by the full faith and credit of the United States. All investments shall mature or be redeemable at the option of the holder no later than the next interest payment date on the Pro Forma Restructured UTGO Bonds. In the absence of any written direction delivered to the Settlement Escrow Trustee by the City, the Settlement Escrow Trustee shall hold funds uninvested. The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall be entitled to rely on any written direction from the City as to the suitability and legality of the directed investment.

ARTICLE III.
THE SETTLEMENT ESCROW TRUSTEE

Section 301 Powers and Duties of Settlement Escrow Trustee. (a) The Settlement Escrow Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers hereof and perform any of its duties by or through attorneys, agents, receivers or employees, and shall be entitled to act upon the opinion or advice of its counsel concerning all matters hereof, and may in all cases be reimbursed hereunder for reasonable compensation paid to all such attorneys, agents, receivers and employees as may reasonably be employed in connection with the trust hereof. The Settlement Escrow Trustee may act upon an opinion of counsel and shall not be responsible for any loss or damage resulting from any action or nonaction by it taken or omitted to be taken in good faith in reliance upon such opinion of counsel.

(b) The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall not be responsible for any recital herein, or for the validity of the execution by the City of this Settlement Escrow Agreement, or of any supplements thereto or instruments of further assurance, or for the validity or sufficiency of, or filing of documents related to the security for the Prior UTGO Bonds intended to be secured hereby.

(c) The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall not be responsible or liable for any loss suffered in connection with any investment of funds made by it in accordance with this Settlement Escrow Agreement.

(d) The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall be protected in acting upon any notice, request, consent, certificate, order, affidavit, letter, telegram or other paper or document reasonably believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed or sent by the proper person or persons.

(e) As to the existence or non-existence of any fact or as to the sufficiency or validity of any instrument, paper or proceeding, the Settlement Escrow Trustee shall be entitled to rely upon a certificate believed in good faith to be genuine and correct, signed on behalf of the City or a Bond Insurer by an authorized officer of the City or Bond Insurer, as the case may be, as sufficient evidence of the facts therein contained. The Settlement Escrow Trustee may also accept a similar certificate to the effect that any particular dealing, transaction or action is necessary or expedient, but may at its discretion secure such further evidence deemed necessary or advisable, but shall in no case be bound to secure the same.

(f) The permissive right of the Settlement Escrow Trustee to do things enumerated in this Settlement Escrow Agreement, as amended, shall not be construed as a duty, and the Settlement Escrow Trustee shall not be answerable for other than its gross negligence or willful misconduct. The immunities and exceptions from liability of the Settlement Escrow Trustee shall extend to its officers, directors, employees and agents.

(g) The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall not be required to give any note or surety in respect to the execution of its rights and obligations hereunder.

(h) All moneys received by the Settlement Escrow Trustee shall, until used or applied or invested as herein provided, be held in trust in the manner and for the purpose for which they were received, but need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by this Settlement Escrow Agreement, as amended, or by law. The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall not be under any liability for interest on any moneys received hereunder except such as may be agreed upon.

(i) The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall not be under any obligation to initiate any suit or to take any remedial proceeding under this Settlement Escrow Agreement or to take any steps in the execution of the trusts created by this Settlement Escrow Agreement or in the enforcement of any rights and powers under this Settlement Escrow Agreement until it has been indemnified to its satisfaction against any and all fees, costs and expenses and other reasonable disbursements and against all liability.

(j) The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall have no responsibility or liability with respect to any information, statement or recital in any official statement, offering memorandum or other disclosure material prepared or distributed with respect to the issuance of the Prior UTGO Bonds, except for liability for its own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

(k) The Settlement Escrow Trustee may become the holder of any of the Prior UTGO Bonds with the same rights it would have if it were not Settlement Escrow Trustee, and, to the extent permitted by law, may act as depository for and permit any of its officers or directors to act as a member of, or in any other capacity with respect to, any committee formed to protect the rights of holders, whether or not such committee shall represent the holders of a majority in principal amount of any of the Prior UTGO Bonds of such series then outstanding.

(l) The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by any of its officers, employees, agents or representatives, unless it shall be proved that the Settlement Escrow Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts.

(m) The Settlement Escrow Trustee has no obligation or liability to the holders for the payment of interest on, principal of or redemption premium, if any, with respect to the Prior UTGO Bonds from its own funds; but rather the Settlement Escrow Trustee's obligations shall be limited to the performance of its duties hereunder.

(n) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Agreement or related documents, relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Settlement Escrow Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Article.

Section 302 Fees and Expenses of Settlement Escrow Trustee. (a) The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall be entitled to reasonable and customary fees for services rendered under this Agreement, as amended, and shall be reimbursed for all expenses reasonably incurred in connection with such services. Such fees and expenses shall be payable by the City and shall be determined in accordance with the Fee Schedule attached as Exhibit E of this Agreement or as otherwise may be agreed to by the City and the Settlement Escrow Trustee. The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall not have a lien for the payment of its fees and expenses upon any of the money deposited with it in accordance with this Agreement.

(b) The City shall be liable for all fees, expenses, charges, losses, costs, liabilities and damages (including reasonable attorneys' or other professional fees) incurred by the Settlement

Escrow Trustee pursuant to this Agreement except for those which are adjudicated to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Settlement Escrow Trustee, and shall pay such amounts to or at the direction of the Settlement Escrow Trustee.

Section 303 Resignation; Appointment of Successor Settlement Escrow Trustee; Successor Settlement Escrow Trustee Upon Merger, Consolidation or Sale. (a) The Settlement Escrow Trustee and any successor Settlement Escrow Trustee may resign only upon giving 60 days' prior written notice to the City and the Bond Insurers. Such resignation shall take effect only upon the appointment of a successor Settlement Escrow Trustee and the acceptance of such appointment by the successor Settlement Escrow Trustee. Upon appointment of a successor Settlement Escrow Trustee, the resigning Settlement Escrow Trustee shall, after payment of its fees, costs and expenses, assign all of its right, title and interest in the Settlement Escrow Fund, and transfer and assign its right, title and interest in the Settlement Escrow Agreement to the successor Settlement Escrow Trustee. The successor Settlement Escrow Trustee shall meet the requirements of Section 303(b) below and shall accept in writing its duties and responsibilities hereunder and file such acceptance with the City.

(b) In case the Settlement Escrow Trustee shall give notice of resignation or be removed, or be dissolved, or shall be in the course of dissolution or liquidation, or otherwise become incapable of acting hereunder, or in case it shall be taken under the control of any public office or offices, or of a receiver appointed by a court, a successor may be appointed by the Bond Insurers, with the prior written consent of the City (to the extent that no breach by the City of any material agreement or covenant, i.e. an "Event of Default," shall have occurred and be continuing under this Settlement Escrow Agreement, written notice of which has been provided by the Bond Insurers to the City and the Settlement Escrow Trustee), which consent shall not be unreasonably be withheld. (c) Any corporation or association into which the Settlement Escrow Trustee may be merged or converted or with or into which it may be consolidated, or to which it may sell or transfer its corporate trust business and assets as a whole or substantially as a whole, or any corporation or association resulting from any merger, conversion, sale, consolidation or transfer to which it is a party, provided such company shall be eligible under Section 303(b) hereof, shall be and become successor Settlement Escrow Trustee hereunder and shall be vested with all the trusts, powers, rights, obligations, duties, remedies, immunities and privileges hereunder as was its predecessor, without the execution or filing of any instrument or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

Section 304 Removal of Settlement Escrow Trustee. The Settlement Escrow Trustee may be removed at any time by an instrument or concurrent instruments in writing delivered to the Settlement Escrow Trustee signed by the City and by all of the Bond Insurers. IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT:

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. For a non-individual person such as a business entity, a charity, a Trust or other legal entity we will ask for documentation to verify its formation and existence as a legal entity. We may also ask to see financial statements, licenses, identification and authorization documents from individuals claiming authority to represent the entity or other relevant documentation.

CONFIRMATION ORDER INSERT

UTGO Settlement Agreement – Insert for Confirmation Order

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

A. After sufficient notice and opportunity for all parties to be heard, and after due deliberation, based on the Court’s thorough review and full consideration of the UTGO Settlement Agreement and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law. Any finding of fact constitutes a finding of fact even if it is stated as a conclusion of law, and any conclusion of law constitutes a conclusion of law even if it is stated as a finding of fact. All findings of fact and conclusions of law announced by the Court on the record in connection with confirmation of the Plan or otherwise at the Confirmation Hearing are incorporated herein by reference.¹ The findings and conclusions set forth herein and in the record of the Confirmation Hearing constitute the Court’s findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as made applicable herein by Bankruptcy Rules 7052 and 9014.

B. The UTGO Settlement described in the Plan and the UTGO Settlement Agreement are fair, equitable, reasonable, and in the best interests of the City and its creditors and residents.² The UTGO Settlement Agreement is the result of extensive arms’ length negotiations among the City and the UTGO Bond Insurers – all of whom were represented by sophisticated counsel. The compromises and settlements embodied in the UTGO Settlement (a) resolve all disputes with respect to claims classified in Class 8 under the Plan and the issues raised by the UTGO Bond Insurers in the UTGO Litigation and (b) are, collectively, a key compromise upon which several provisions of the Plan rest. In the absence of such compromises and settlements, the City's emergence from chapter 9 would likely have been delayed by litigation and burdened with additional expenses. The UTGO Settlement and the UTGO Settlement Agreement: (a) were negotiated and entered into in good faith, (b) comport with policies and purposes of chapter 9, (c) are fair, equitable and reasonable; (d) are in the best interests of the City and its creditors and residents as they not only fully resolve the UTGO Litigation but also permit the City's assignees to receive value from the Assigned UTGO Bond Tax Proceeds as set forth in the Plan; (e) are within the range of reasonable results if the disputes resolved by the UTGO Settlement, including the Assured/NPFG Action and the Ambac Action as they relate to the UTGO Bonds, were instead litigated to a conclusion; (f) fall above the lowest point in the range of reasonableness; and (g) meet the standards for approval under sections 105(a) and 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a) and other applicable law.

¹ The findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth herein and announced on the record during the Confirmation Hearing shall be construed in a manner consistent with each other so as to effect the purpose of each; provided, however, that if there is any direct conflict that cannot be reconciled, then, solely to the extent of such conflict, the provisions of this Confirmation Order shall govern and shall control and take precedence over any findings of fact or conclusions of law announced on the record at the Confirmation Hearing.

C. Without limiting any of the foregoing, the Court hereby finds that:

- a. The Plan incorporates the UTGO Settlement Agreement, and the effectiveness of the Plan is expressly conditioned upon: (a) the Michigan Finance Authority board having approved the issuance of the MFA Bonds and such bonds having been issued; and (b) the City having obtained all governmental and Emergency Manager consents and approvals required to carry out the terms of the UTGO Settlement Agreement.

- b. As of the Effective Date, the Plan represents a full, final and complete compromise, settlement, release and resolution of, among other matters, all disputes and pending or potential litigation (including any appeals), including, without limitation, the UTGO Litigation, regarding the allowability, amount, priority and treatment of the Unlimited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims. The treatment of Class 8 UTGO Claims under the Plan is a component of a settlement and compromise of the UTGO Litigation.
- c. Good and valuable consideration has been provided for all releases and exculpations granted pursuant to the UTGO Settlement Agreement, including, without limitation, the releases and exculpations granted pursuant to sections 6.1 and 6.2 of the UTGO Settlement Agreement. Such provisions are fair, equitable, reasonable and integral elements of the UTGO Settlement Agreement.
- d. The Court confirms that as of the Effective Date and pursuant to Emergency Manager Order No. __, the Municipal Obligation shall be secured, to the extent permitted by law, including without limitation section 12(1)(x) of Act 436, by a lien granted by the City on the UTGO Bond Tax Levy for so long as either the Municipal Obligation or the Stub UTGO Bonds are outstanding.
- e. As of the Effective Date, the UTGO Bond Tax Levy shall constitute “special revenues,” as defined in section 902 of the Bankruptcy Code, and “pledged special revenues,” as that term is used in section 922(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

- f. As of the Effective Date, the MFA shall possess a valid and enforceable statutory fourth lien and trust on Distributable State Aid, as provided in section 15(2) of the Shared Credit Rating Act or as otherwise provided under applicable law.
- g. As of the Effective Date, Holders of the MFA Bonds shall possess all of the MFA’s rights and interest in the Municipal Obligation including all the rights and interest provided herein and under the UTGO Settlement Agreement, subject to the reservation by the MFA of rights to indemnification and to make all determinations and approvals and receive all notices accorded to it under the Municipal Obligation and related documents. Accordingly, the MFA Bonds will be payable from and secured by (i) payments made by the City on the Municipal Obligation and to the extent permitted by law, including without limitation section 12(1)(x) of Act 436, a lien on the portion of the UTGO Bond Tax Levy allocable to the Municipal Obligation, pledged by the City to secure the Municipal Obligation and (ii) a lien, made a statutory lien as provided by the Shared Credit Rating Act, on moneys in the funds and accounts established for the MFA Bonds under the authorizing resolution for such bonds, including payments pledged by the City and received and held by the MFA or its trustee for the MFA Bonds, which include, without limitation, all payments of (x) the proceeds of the UTGO Bond Tax Levy and (y) Distributable State Aid.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

1. The UTGO Settlement. Consistent with the findings herein, the UTGO Settlement and the UTGO Settlement Agreement, including without limitation all of the transactions contemplated, the liens granted, and the protections created therein, are APPROVED in their entirety as a good faith, fair, reasonable, and equitable compromise and settlement of all disputes with respect to claims classified in Class 8 under the Plan that is in the best interests of the City and its creditors and residents. The entry of this Confirmation Order constitutes approval of the UTGO Settlement Agreement pursuant to the Bankruptcy Rules, including Bankruptcy Rule 9019, the Bankruptcy Code, including section 1123, and Act 279, Public Acts of Michigan, 1909, as amended; Act 436, Public Acts of Michigan, 2012; Act 34, Public Acts of Michigan, 2001, as amended; and Act 80, Public Acts of Michigan, 1981, as amended. As provided in the Plan, on the Effective Date, the UTGO Settlement Agreement shall be binding on the City, Ambac, Assured and NPF.

2. Approval of Exculpations and Releases. All exculpations and releases granted pursuant to the UTGO Settlement, including, without limitation, the releases and exculpations granted pursuant to sections 6.1 and 6.2 of the UTGO Settlement Agreement, are hereby approved in their entirety. The Court approves such settlements and releases on the grounds that good and valuable consideration has been provided therefor, and that such provisions are fair, equitable, reasonable, and integral elements of the UTGO Settlement Agreement.

3. Segregation of UTGO Bond Tax Levy. The proceeds of the UTGO Bond Tax Levy collected by the City shall be segregated and transmitted to the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee under the Debt Millage Deposit Escrow Agreement, and the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee shall segregate and transmit the proceeds allocable to the Municipal Obligation to the Master Trustee in accordance with section 2.4(a) of the UTGO Settlement Agreement.

4. Annual Certification of Debt Millage Levy. Pursuant to the Section 2.7(b) of the UTGO Settlement Agreement, the City shall certify annually, not later than June 30 of each year, that it has imposed the debt millage levy as required by and in accordance with the terms of the UTGO Settlement Agreement.

5. Retention of Jurisdiction. Pursuant to section 945(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court shall retain jurisdiction over the UTGO Settlement and the UTGO Settlement Agreement and any dispute arising from or related to the UTGO Settlement Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt and as the City has consented, the Court shall retain exclusive post-confirmation authority and power, to implement, interpret and enforce the UTGO Settlement Agreement and all Settlement-Related Documents, including, without limitation, all exhibits to the UTGO Settlement Agreement, the Restructured UTGO Bonds, the Municipal Obligation and the MFA Bonds. As the City has consented, the Court reserves all powers as are necessary or appropriate to enforce or to give effect to the Court's retained jurisdiction under the Plan and this Confirmation Order, including by way of injunction, as long as any of the Municipal Obligation, Stub UTGO Bonds or MFA Bonds are outstanding.

TERMS OF PFRS PENSION RESTORATION

TERMS OF PFRS PENSION RESTORATION

Pension Restoration Process

The following rules shall govern how accrued pensions, including COLA benefits, that are reduced as part of the Plan of Adjustment, shall be restored during the thirty year period following the Confirmation Order. The pension restoration process shall be supervised, and restoration decisions undertaken by the Investment Committee of PFRS and in accordance with the pension governance provisions set forth in the State Contribution Agreement and exhibits thereto. This pension restoration program shall be deemed a part of Component II of the Combined Plan for the Police and Fire Retirement System, but in the event of any conflict between the language set forth herein and the Combined Plan the terms of this Pension Restoration Agreement will govern.

GENERAL RESTORATION RULES

I. PFRS RESTORATION

1. Waterfall Categories

There will be three Waterfall Classes:

- a. PFRS Waterfall Class 1 – Retirees in retirement benefit pay status as of June 30, 2014, and their surviving spouses and beneficiaries
- b. PFRS Waterfall Class 2 – Retirees, who entered into retirement benefit pay status after June 30, 2014, and their surviving spouses and beneficiaries, and who are in pay status as of the end of the PFRS Fiscal Year prior to the year in which the restoration decision is made
- c. PFRS Waterfall Class 3 – All retirees, surviving spouses, and beneficiaries in pay status and all other PFRS participants who as of June 30, 2014 are not in retirement benefit pay status

2. General PFRS Pension Restoration Through June 30, 2023

Each year in conjunction with the annual actuarial valuation report, the PFRS actuary will project the PFRS funded ratio as of 2023 based upon the market value of plan assets relative to the actuarial accrued liabilities (the “Funded Level”). This projection will be further based upon a 6.75% assumed rate of investment return which is net of expenses (administrative and investment), future employer contributions as set forth in the Plan of Adjustment (subject to conditions in the Plan of Adjustment), and such other actuarial assumptions as utilized by the PFRS actuary. For purposes of PFRS Restoration through June 30, 2023, the Funding Target will be a 75% funded ratio, and the Restoration Target will be a 78% funded ratio, both projected to June 30, 2023. For purposes of calculating the funded ratio, the assets in the Restoration Reserve Account will be excluded. Each year, if the actuary projects that the Funded Level as of 2023 (excluding Restoration Account assets to avoid double counting) exceeds the Restoration Target (i.e., exceeds 78%), a credit of assets for bookkeeping purposes will be made into a new notional Restoration Reserve Account. The notional credit will be an amount equal to the excess of assets above the amount projected to be needed to satisfy the Restoration Target. Once the Restoration Reserve Account is established, each year thereafter, Restoration Account assets will be credited with interest in an amount equal to the net return on plan investments but capped at the actuarially assumed rate of investment return (i.e., 6.75% for the period through June 30, 2023). In the event of net losses, the credited asset value of the Restoration Reserve Account will be diminished to reflect such losses and any required transfer to the PFRS Pension Reserve Account as provided herein.

Actual restoration payments and restoration credits will work as follows: each year, in conjunction with the preparation of the annual actuarial valuation report and following establishment of the Restoration Reserve Account, the PFRS actuary will determine whether there are sufficient funds in such account to restore COLA benefits in a minimum incremental amount of 10% or more. For example: If a retiree's then current COLA benefit is a 1.0% annual compounded COLA, the minimum incremental restoration would increase the COLA benefit to 1.225%. COLA restoration only will occur if the funding level in the Restoration Reserve Account can fund 100% of the COLA increase over the actuarially-projected lives of the eligible recipient PFRS Waterfall Class. If the actuary certifies that the Restoration Reserve Account as of the end of the prior PFRS fiscal year satisfies the required funding level for one or more increments of restoration, then in the next immediate PFRS fiscal year actual COLA restoration payments will be made to PFRS Waterfall Class 1 members in such increments until an amount sufficient to fund 66% of the value of their future COLA payments (e.g., a 1.5% compound COLA, or as otherwise applicable) has been funded. At that juncture, and to the extent that additional assets in the Restoration Reserve Account would fully fund COLA restoration in at least one minimum 10% increment (i.e., amounts equal to 10% of the value of future COLA payments), PFRS Waterfall Class 2 members will receive COLA restoration, until an amount sufficient to fund 66% of the value of their future COLA payments has been funded. At that juncture, and to the extent that additional assets in the Restoration Reserve Account would fully fund COLA restoration in at least one minimum 10% increment (i.e., amounts equal to 10% of the value of future COLA payments), PFRS Waterfall Class 3 members will receive COLA restoration on a pro-rata basis. For PFRS Waterfall Class 3 members who are in pay status at that time of restoration, they will receive COLA payments; for active employees at the time of restoration, they will receive credits granting them a right upon retirement to receive COLA restoration equal to the 10% increments that are fully funded to PFRS Waterfall Class 3 members. For Example: Assume there are sufficient assets credited to the Restoration Reserve Account as of the end of a fiscal year to fully fund 66% of the value of the COLA for all PFRS Waterfall Class 1 and Class 2 members for their actuarially projected lives. To the extent additional assets remain in the Restoration Reserve Account to fully fund at least a 10% COLA increment for PFRS Waterfall Class 3 members for their actuarially projected lives, then (i) all retirees would receive a restoration payment of 76% of the value of their COLAs (their having already received by virtue of their membership in PFRS Waterfall Classes 1 and 2 an increase to 66% of the value of their COLAs) and also a 10% COLA increment would be credited to eligible active employees which would be included in their benefit payments upon retirement (thus causing their COLAs to increase in value from 45% to 55%). Restoration amounts actually paid from the Restoration Reserve Account will be debited from such account. Restoration payments will be calculated and paid on a prospective basis only.

Once restoration payments and credits begin, as long as the Restoration Reserve Account continues to have assets to fund 100% of an incremental COLA restoration amount for such Waterfall Class for their actuarially projected lives, the restoration payments and credits will continue; provided, however, that in the event the Restoration Reserve Account, after having sufficient assets to fund 100% of two or more increments, falls below 100% for the second or greater increment, the annual amounts to pay such second or greater increment can continue until the Restoration Reserve Account lacks any assets to fund such additional increment. For Example, assume a 10% increment in PFRS Waterfall Class 1 requires $10 million in assets to be fully funded for the PFRS Waterfall Class' actuarially projected lives, and that based on FY 2018 results the Restoration Reserve Account has assets of $22 million so as to fund two increments of restoration in FY 2019. Assume further that in the following year the Restoration Reserve Account drops in value to $17 million; in such event two increments could still be paid, and the second increment would cease being paid only if the value of assets in the Restoration Reserve Account dropped to or below $10 million (in the event they dropped below $10 million, the first increment also would cease being paid). For purposes of restoration reduction, restoration increments will be taken away in reverse order in which they were granted (i.e. last in, first out).

If the PFRS Funded Level (excluding Restoration Reserve Assets) projected to 2023 falls below 76% (hereinafter, "Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger"), then, until such time as the projected PFRS Funded Level in 2023 is 76% or above, further interest credits to the notional Restoration Reserve Account will cease notwithstanding the actual net PFRS investment returns for the fiscal year in question. Furthermore, if the PFRS Funded Level projected to 2023 falls below the Funding Target (i.e., 75%) then restoration payments to retirees and credits to active employees in the following year will be modified in the following manner: (1) funds previously credited to the Restoration Reserve Account will be notionally transferred and credited to the PFRS Pension Reserve Account in sufficient amounts to restore the projected PFRS Funded Level in 2023 to 75%; (2) following such transfer, the remaining assets in the Restoration Reserve Account shall be applied to make restoration payments in accordance with and pursuant to the same mechanism described in the previous paragraph.

In connection with preparation of the actuarial report for FY 2023, the PFRS actuary will determine whether PFRS has satisfied the Permanent Restoration Target, which shall be 78%. Transfers from the Restoration Reserve Account for credit to the PFRS Pension Reserve Account may be made in such amounts as are necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target. If following such transfers, the PFRS Funded Level as of June 30, 2023 has satisfied the Permanent Restoration Target (i.e., 78%), then the residual amounts, if any, in the Restoration Reserve Account (which will necessarily represent excess not necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target), and which fully fund one or more increments of COLA restoration payments for one or more PFRS Waterfall Classes for their actuarially projected lives, shall be transferred from the Restoration Reserve Account and credited to the PFRS Pension Reserve Account and the applicable incremental COLA payments shall be permanently restored for the applicable PFRS Waterfall Class and shall no longer be variable from year to year.

Following receipt of the actuarial reports for 2019, and in the event that the projected Funded Level of PFRS as of 2023 is less than 76%, the PFRS actuary shall revisit the restoration calculations that it made during each of the prior 4 years. It shall recalculate each such prior year's Funded Level projection, this time by assuming the lesser of (i) $4.5 million in annual administrative expenses until 2023, or (ii) an amount of annual administrative expenses until 2023 equal to the average annual normal course administrative expenses in the prior 4 years applicable to Component II, in addition to a net 6.75% annual investment return. If such retrospective recalculation indicates that fewer amounts would have transferred to the PFRS Restoration Reserve Account than actually were transferred during such look back period, then the PFRS Restoration Reserve Account shall be debited by the lesser of (i) this difference (plus interest at a rate equal to the rate that was credited to the Restoration Reserve Account during the look-back period or (ii) the dollars that were actually paid out in restoration payments during such look-back period (plus interest at a rate equal to the rate that was credited to the Restoration Reserve Account during the look-back period); or (iii) the amount required to increase the projected 2023 PFRS Funded Level to 76%.

3. General PFRS Pension Restoration from July 1, 2023 to June 30, 2033.

If and to the extent that all COLA payments have not been restored pursuant to the permanent restoration feature as of June 30, 2023 described in the immediately preceding paragraph, then during this period and for purposes of variable restoration, the Funding Target, the Restoration Target, the Permanent Restoration Target and the Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger shall be as set forth on Exhibit A hereto, all projected as of June 30, 2033. The same rules for restoration payments that applied during the period ending June 30, 2023 shall apply (including ceasing interest credits in the event of a Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger, and making Restoration Account asset transfers in the event the 2033 PFRS Funded Level falls below the 2033 Funding Target), except as follows. For purposes of determining whether the 2033 Restoration Target has been satisfied, the Plan actuary shall project investment returns through June 30, 2033 at the then current investment return assumption which is assumed to be net of expenses (administrative and investment), and the then applicable actuarial assumptions as utilized in the annual actuarial valuation. Further, the Plan actuary shall assume, merely for purposes of determining whether the Restoration Target is satisfied, that the annual City contribution amount shall be the annual amount necessary to fund the PFRS based upon an amortization of the actual 2023 UAAL (using the market value of assets) over 30 years (hereinafter, the "2023 UAAL Amortization") and in such manner that the resulting annual contribution stream would achieve the applicable PFRS' Funding Target (on Exhibit A) as of 2033. (Such projected, hypothetical contributions shall be for purposes only of making restoration determinations, and shall not necessarily be the actual contributions made or required to be made by the City or recommended during such period; all of which shall be determined independent of the restoration calculation process). For purposes of calculating the funded ratio, the assets in the Restoration Reserve account will be excluded

To the extent that the City's actual contributions to the PFRS in any of the FYs 2024 (i.e., the year ending June 30, 2024) through 2033 are greater than the projected annual contribution under the 2023 UAAL Amortization, such amounts, and any investment earnings thereon, shall be notionally credited to a new bookkeeping account in PFRS called the Extra Contribution Account. In determining pension restoration during the period from FY 2024 through 2033, none of the amounts in the Extra Contribution Account shall be considered for purposes of determining the projected funded level for the Restoration Target or Permanent Restoration Target. To the extent that the City's actual contributions to the PFRS in any of the FYs 2024 through 2033 are less than the projected annual contribution under the 2023 UAAL Amortization, such difference and any investment earnings thereon shall be notionally allocated to the Restoration Reserve Account.

Each year, in addition to the crediting of assets that exceed the amount necessary to satisfy the Restoration Target, existing Restoration Account assets will be credited with interest equal to the net return on plan investments, but capped at the then actuarial investment return assumption. In the event of net losses, the credited asset value of the Restoration Reserve Account will be diminished to reflect such losses.

In connection with preparation of the annual actuarial valuation report for FY 2033, the PFRS actuary will determine whether PFRS has satisfied the applicable Permanent Restoration Target, as set forth on Exhibit A. Transfers from the Restoration Reserve Account for credit to the PFRS Pension Reserve Account may be made in such amounts as are necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target. If following such transfers the funding level as of June 30, 2033 has satisfied the applicable Permanent Restoration

Target , then the residual amounts in the Restoration Reserve Account, if any (which will necessarily represent excess not necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target), and which fully fund one or more increments of COLA restoration payments for one or more PFRS Waterfall Classes, shall be transferred from the Restoration Reserve Account and credited to the PFRS Pension Reserve Account and the applicable incremental COLA payments shall be permanently restored for the applicable PFRS Waterfall Class and shall no longer be variable from year to year.

Following receipt of the actuarial reports for 2028, and in the event that the projected Funded Level of PFRS as of 2033 is less than 79%, the PFRS actuary shall revisit the restoration calculations that it made during each of the prior 4 years. It shall recalculate each such prior year's Funded Level projection, this time by assuming the lesser of (i) $4.5 million in annual administrative expenses until 2033, or (ii) an amount of annual administrative expenses until 2033 equal to the average annual normal course administrative expenses in the prior 4 years applicable to Component II, in addition to a net 6.75% annual investment return. If such retrospective recalculation indicates that fewer amounts would have transferred to the PFRS Restoration Reserve Account than actually were transferred during such look back period, then the PFRS Restoration Reserve Account shall be debited by the lesser of (i) this difference (plus interest at a rate equal to the rate that was credited to the Restoration Reserve Account during the applicable look-back period or (ii) the dollars that were actually paid out in restoration payments during such look-back period (plus interest at a rate equal to the rate that was credited to the Restoration Reserve Account during the applicable look-back period); or (iii) the amount required to increase the projected 2033 PFRS Funded Level to 79%.

4. General PFRS Pension Restoration from July 1, 2033 to June 30, 2043.

If and to the extent that all COLA payments have not been restored pursuant to the permanent restoration feature as of June 30, 2033 described in the immediately preceding paragraph, then during the period ending June 30, 2044 and for purposes of variable restoration, the Funding Target , the Restoration Target, the Permanent Restoration Target and the Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger shall be as set forth on Exhibit A hereto. The same rules for restoration that applied during the period ending June 30, 2033 shall otherwise apply (including ceasing interest credits in the event of a Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger, and making Restoration Account asset transfers in the event the 2043 PFRS Funded Level falls below the 2043 Funding Target), and shall be rolled forward. For example, for purposes of determining whether the 2043 Restoration Target has been satisfied, the Plan actuary shall project annual contributions using the same 2023 UAAL Amortization. For purposes of calculating the funded ratio, the assets in the Restoration Reserve account will be excluded, and no Extra Contribution Account assets shall be included for purposes of determining whether the Funded Level meets the Restoration Target or Permanent Restoration Target, including any additions to such account after 2033.

In connection with preparation of the annual actuarial valuation report for FY 2043, the PFRS actuary will determine whether PFRS has satisfied the applicable Permanent Restoration Target, as set forth on Exhibit A. Transfers from the Restoration Reserve Account for credit to the PFRS Pension Reserve Account may be made in such amounts as are necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target. If following such transfers the PFRS Funded Level as of June 30, 2043 is equal to or greater than the applicable Permanent Restoration Target, then the residual amounts in the Restoration Reserve Account, if any (which will necessarily represent excess not necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target), shall be transferred from the Restoration Reserve Account and credited to the PFRS Pension Reserve Account and the applicable incremental COLA payments shall be permanently restored for the applicable PFRS Waterfall Class and shall no longer be variable from year to year.

5. Modification of the Pension Restoration Program

If any time after July 1, 2026, the PFRS Investment Committee (by vote of 5 of its 7 members), or the PFRS Board of Trustees (by a greater than 66% vote) determines that a change in relevant circumstances has occurred, or there was a mutual mistake of fact in developing this Pension Restoration Agreement, such that the continued operation of this Agreement without amendment will: (a) materially harm the long-term economic interests of the City, or Retirement System; (b) materially impair the City's ability to fully fund over a reasonable period the then existing frozen benefit liabilities; or (c) materially hinder the Restoration program, if as of that juncture (and for purposes of applying this subsection 5(c)) annual funding levels (excluding the Extra Contribution Account) had materially exceeded the applicable PFRS Restoration Targets for a substantial period yet without any material actual restoration of benefits as contemplated herein having been made, the Investment Committee or the Board, as the case may be, shall provide written notice to the other entity of such a determination and of the need to amend this Restoration Agreement (it being understood that the post-Chapter 9, 40-year amortization period (to 2053) to fully fund PFRS frozen liabilities is, unless the relevant facts demonstrate otherwise, presumptively reasonable). The Investment Committee and the Board shall then meet to negotiate amendments to this Agreement that address the identified risk of harm or impairment, but which also considers this Agreement's objective of providing pension restoration. Such negotiations shall take into account reasonable actions the City has pursued or could pursue to mitigate such harm or impairment. Any such amendments shall require the approval of a majority vote of the combined members of the Committee and Board (persons who sit on both the Board and Committee shall have one vote). Such parties shall consult with the Mayor, City Council and the Governor in connection with such negotiation. If the Board, acting through a majority, and the Investment Committee, acting through a majority, cannot agree to such amendments within the 90-day period following the provision of such notice by the determining party, then the Board and Investment Committee shall proceed to mediation upon demand from either the Board or the Investment Committee. In this regard, within 30-days following expiration of the 90-day period the Board and the Investment Committee shall each select a mediator from the list of approved mediators for the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan. The two selected mediators shall appoint a third neutral mediator from the approved list. Each party shall furnish a written statement to the mediators within 30 days of selection of the neutral mediator. Representatives of the Mayor and the Governor shall be consulted in connection with such mediations. If following a 90-day mediation period following submission of the written statements the matter is not settled, then either the Investment Committee or the Board can file an action in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan asking it to declare, inter alia, whether or in what manner to amend this Agreement.

EXHIBIT A

PFRS - The 2033 and 2043 Funding Targets shall be 3.0% and 6% higher than the actual 2023 Funded Level rounded to the nearest 10th decimal. The Restoration Target shall be 3.0% higher than the Funding Target but not less than 81% and 84% in 2033 and 2043, respectively. The Permanent Restoration Targets shall be equal to the Restoration Targets for all time periods. The Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger will be set 1% higher than the projected Funding Target for all time periods.

TERMS OF GRS PENSION RESTORATION

TERMS OF GRS PENSION RESTORATION

Pension Restoration Process

The following rules shall govern how accrued pensions, including COLA benefits, that are reduced as part of the Plan of Adjustment, shall be restored during the thirty year period following the Confirmation Order. The pension restoration process shall be supervised, and restoration decisions undertaken by the Investment Committee of GRS and in accordance with the pension governance provisions set forth in the State Contribution Agreement and exhibits thereto. This pension restoration program shall be deemed a part of Component II of the Combined Plan for the General Retirement System of the City of Detroit, but in the event of any conflict between the language set forth herein and the Combined Plan the terms of this Pension Restoration Agreement will govern.

I. GRS RESTORATION

1. Waterfall Categories

There will be three Waterfall Classes:

- a. GRS Waterfall Class 1 – Retirees, in retirement benefit pay status as of June 30, 2014, and their surviving spouses and beneficiaries
- b. GRS Waterfall Class 2 – Retirees, who entered into retirement benefit pay status after June 30, 2014, and their surviving spouses and beneficiaries, and who are in pay status as of the end of the GRS Fiscal Year prior to the year in which the restoration decision is made
- c. GRS Waterfall Class 3 – All other GRS participants who as of June 30, 2014 are not in retirement benefit pay status

2. General GRS Pension Restoration Through June 30, 2023

Each year in conjunction with the annual actuarial valuation report, the GRS actuary will project the GRS funded ratio as of 2023 based upon the market value of plan assets relative to the actuarial accrued liabilities (the “Funded Level”). This projection will be further based upon a 6.75% assumed rate of investment return which is net of expenses (investment and administrative), future employer contributions as set forth in the Plan of Adjustment (subject to the conditions in the Plan of Adjustment) and such other actuarial assumptions as utilized by the GRS actuary. For purposes of GRS Restoration through June 30, 2023, the Funding Target will be a 70% funded ratio, the Restoration Target will be a 75% funded ratio, and the Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger will be a 71% funded ratio, all projected to June 30, 2023. For purposes of calculating the funded ratio, the assets in the Restoration Reserve account will be excluded. Each year, if the actuary projects that the projected Funded Level as of June 30, 2023 (excluding Restoration Account assets to avoid double counting) exceeds the Restoration Target (i.e., exceeds 75%), a credit of assets for bookkeeping purposes will be made into a new notional Restoration Reserve Account. The notional credit will be in an amount equal to the excess of assets above the amount projected to be needed to satisfy the Restoration Target. Once the Restoration Reserve Account is established, each year thereafter, Restoration Account assets will be credited with interest in an amount equal to the net return on plan investments, but capped at the actuarially assumed rate of investment return (i.e., 6.75% for the period through June 30, 2023). In the event of net losses, the credited asset value of the Restoration Reserve Account will be diminished to reflect such losses and any required transfer to the GRS Pension Reserve Account.

To the extent that the City's (including DWSD or a successor authority) actual contributions in any of the FYs 2015 through 2023 are less than the contributions provided for in the Plan of Adjustment, such difference and any investment earnings thereon shall be notionally allocated to the Pension Fund Reserve Account.

Actual restoration payments and credits will work as follows: Each year in conjunction with preparation of the annual actuarial valuation report and following establishment of the Restoration Reserve Account, the GRS actuary will determine whether there are sufficient funds in such account to restore a portion of the 4.5% across the board pension cuts in one or more minimum incremental amounts equal to ½% of the monthly benefit for each member of GRS Waterfall Class 1 (i.e. reducing the initial across the board cut to 4.0%). This restoration only occurs if the funding level in the Restoration Reserve Account can fund 100% of each incremental increase over the remaining actuarially projected lives of the eligible recipients in GRS Waterfall Class 1. If the Restoration Reserve Account satisfies the required funding level, then in the next GRS fiscal year, actual restoration payments will be made to GRS Waterfall Class 1 members in amounts equal to the benefit associated with each increment that have been fully funded in the Restoration Reserve Account. Once Waterfall Class 1 has sufficient assets in the GRS Restoration Reserve Account to fully fund and restore the 4.5% cut in their monthly benefits, and to the extent that additional assets in the Restoration Reserve Account remain and will fully fund at least ½% of the monthly benefit for each member of GRS Waterfall Class 2 over their remaining actuarially projected lives, then GRS Waterfall Class 2 members will receive pension restoration in minimum ½% benefit increments until an amount equal to the 4.5% cuts in their monthly benefits has been fully funded. At that juncture, and to the extent that additional assets in the Restoration Reserve Account remain and will fund at least a minimum ½% of the monthly benefit of each member in GRS Waterfall Class 3 over their remaining actuarially projected lives, then each such member of the class shall receive a credit granting them a right upon retirement to receive pension restoration equal to the benefit increments that are fully funded. Restoration payments will be calculated and paid on a prospective basis only.

After the full 4.5% across the board pension cuts are restored for all three GRS Waterfall Classes, and to the extent there are additional assets in the Restoration Reserve Account to fully fund COLA benefits over the actuarially-projected lives of the eligible recipient GRS Waterfall Class, such assets will be used to fully fund and restore a portion of the COLA values that were eliminated as part of the Plan of Adjustment. COLA will be restored in minimum 10% COLA value increments up to 50% of the future COLA values for each member of GRS Waterfall Class 1 (i.e., a 50% future COLA value will constitute a 1.25% simple COLA), then up to 50% of the future COLA values for each member of Waterfall Class 2, and then up to 50% of the future COLA values for each member of Waterfall Class 3 until all members of the three GRS Waterfall Classes have had 50% of the value of their COLAs fully funded and restored. After 50% of the future values of COLA have been fully funded and restored, and to the extent there are additional assets in the Restoration Reserve Account for each of the three GRS Waterfall Classes, then a second 50% COLA restoration will be made, first to members of GRS Waterfall Class 1, then Waterfall Class 2, and then Waterfall Class 3. Classes will be restored in minimum 10% COLA value increments. Restoration payments will be calculated and paid on a prospective basis only.

If the amounts in the Restoration Reserve Account are sufficient to fully-fund the 4.5% across the board pension cuts for all three GRS Waterfall Classes and 100% COLA restoration for all three GRS Waterfall Classes, then any additional assets in the Restoration Reserve Account shall be used to increase the frozen accrued benefits of active and other GRS participants whose ASF accounts were diminished as part of the ASF Recoupment, such that they receive treatment equal to the 20%/20% ceiling applied to retirees in pay status under the Plan of Adjustment. If after such pension restoration there are additional assets in the Restoration Reserve Account to fully fund benefit increments over their remaining actuarially projected lives, GRS Waterfall Class 1 members will receive pension restoration in ½% benefit increments of the reductions to their monthly pension due to ASF Recoupment, and once such pension benefits are restored, Waterfall Class 2 members will receive pension restoration in ½% benefit increments in connection with the reductions to their monthly pensions due to ASF Recoupment. Restoration payments will be calculated and paid on a prospective basis only.

Once restoration payments to applicable retirees and restoration credits to active employees begin, as long as the Restoration Reserve Account continues to have assets sufficient to fund 100% of an incremental pension restoration amount for such GRS Waterfall Class members for their actuarially projected lives, such restoration payments and credits will continue; provided, however, that in the event the Restoration Reserve Account , after having sufficient assets to fund 100% of two or more increments (over their actuarially projected lives), falls below 100% for the second or greater increment, the annual amounts to pay such second or other additional increment can continue until the Restoration Reserve Account lacks any assets to fund it. For example, assume a ½% increment in GRS Waterfall Class 1 requires $10 million in assets to be fully funded for the GRS Waterfall Class' actuarially projected lives, and that based on FY 2018 results the Restoration Reserve Account has assets of $22 million so as to fund two increments of restoration in FY 2019, i.e., a 1% pension increase. Assume further that in the following year the Restoration Reserve Account drops in value to $17 million; in such event two increments could still be paid, and the second increment of ½% would cease being paid only if the value of assets in the Restoration Reserve Account dropped to or below $10 million (in the event they dropped below $10 million, the first increment also would cease being paid). For purposes of restoration reduction, restoration increments will be taken away in reverse order in which they were granted (i.e. last in, first out).

In the event the GRS Funded Level (not including Restoration Reserve Assets) falls below 71% (hereinafter, "Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger"), then, until such time as the projected GRS Funded Level in 2023 is 71% or above, further interest credits to the notional Restoration Reserve Account will cease notwithstanding the actual net GRS investment returns for the fiscal year in question. Furthermore, if the GRS Funded Level projected to 2023 falls below the Funding Target (i.e., 70%) then restoration payments and credits in the following year will be modified in the following manner: (1) funds previously credited to the Restoration Reserve Account will be notionally transferred and credited to the GRS Pension Reserve Account in sufficient amounts to restore the projected GRS Funded Level in 2023 to 70%; (2) following such transfer, the remaining assets in the Restoration Reserve Account shall be applied to make restoration payments in accordance with and pursuant to the same mechanism described in the previous paragraph.

Following receipt of the actuarial reports for 2019, and in the event that the projected Funded Level of GRS as of 2023 is less than 71%, the GRS actuary shall revisit the restoration calculations that it made during each of the prior 4 years. It shall recalculate each such prior year's Funded Level projection, this time by assuming the lesser of (i) $4.5 million in annual administrative expenses until 2023, or (ii) an amount of annual administrative expenses until 2023 equal to the average annual normal course administrative expenses in the prior 4 years applicable to Component II, in addition to a net 6.75% annual investment return. If such retrospective recalculation indicates that fewer amounts would have transferred to the GRS Restoration Reserve Account than actually were transferred during such look back period, then the GRS Restoration Reserve Account shall be debited by the lesser of (i) this difference (plus interest at a rate equal to the rate that was credited to the Restoration Reserve Account during the look-back period or (ii) the dollars that were actually paid out in restoration payments during such look-back period (plus interest at a rate equal to the rate that was credited to the Restoration Reserve Account during the look-back period); or (iii) the amount required to increase the projected 2023 GRS Funded Level to 71%.

3. General GRS Pension Restoration from July 1, 2023 to June 30, 2033.

During this period, the Funding Target, the Restoration Target, the Permanent Restoration Targets and the Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger shall be as set forth on Exhibit A hereto. The same rules for variable restoration payments and credits that applied during the period ending June 30, 2023 shall apply during the period ending June 30, 2033 (including ceasing interest credits in the event of a Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger, and making Restoration Account asset transfers in the event the 2033 GRS Funded Level falls below the 2033 Funding Target), except as follows. For purposes of determining whether the 2033 Restoration Target has been satisfied, the Plan actuary shall project investment returns through June 30, 2033 at the then current investment return assumption which is assumed to be net of expenses (administrative and investment) and the applicable actuarial assumptions as utilized in the annual actuarial valuation. Further, the GRS Plan actuary shall assume, merely for purposes of determining whether the Restoration Target is satisfied, that the annual City contribution amount shall be the annual amount necessary to fund the GRS based upon an amortization of the actual 2023 UAAL at market value over 30 years (hereinafter, the "2023 UAAL Amortization") and in such manner that the resulting annual contribution stream would achieve the GRS Funding Target (on Exhibit A) as of 2033. (Such projected, hypothetical contributions shall be for purposes only of making restoration determinations, and shall not necessarily be the actual contributions made or required to be made by the City or recommended during such period; all of which shall be determined independent of the restoration calculation process.). For purposes of calculating the funded ratio, the assets in the Restoration Reserve account will be excluded.

To the extent that the City's actual contributions to the GRS in any of the FYs 2024 (the year ending June 30, 2024) through 2033 are greater than the projected annual contribution under the 2023 UAAL Amortization, such amounts, and any investment earnings thereon, shall be notionally credited to a new bookkeeping account in GRS called the Extra Contribution Account. In determining pension restoration during the period from FY 2024 through 2033, none of the amounts in the Extra Contribution Account shall be considered for purposes of determining the projected funded level for the Restoration Target or Permanent Restoration Targets. To the extent that the City's (including for this purpose DWSD or a successor authority) actual contributions in any of the FYs 2024 through 2033 are less than the projected annual contribution under the 2023 UAAL Amortization, such difference and any investment earnings thereon shall be notionally allocated to the Pension Fund Reserve Account.

Each year, in addition to the credit of assets that exceed the amount necessary to satisfy the Restoration Target, existing Restoration Account assets will be credited with interest equal to the net return on plan investments, but capped at the then investment return assumption. In the event of net losses, the credited asset value of the Restoration Reserve Account will be diminished to reflect such losses.

In connection with preparation of the actuarial report for FY 2028, the GRS actuary will determine whether GRS has satisfied the applicable Permanent Restoration Target, which shall be 75%. Transfers from the Restoration Reserve Account for credit to the GRS Pension Reserve Account may be made in such amounts as are necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target. If following such transfers the GRS Funded Level as of June 30, 2028 has satisfied the Permanent Restoration Target(75%), then the amounts in the Restoration Reserve Account , if any (which will necessarily represent excess not necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target), and which fully fund one or more increments of restoration payments for one or more GRS Waterfall Classes over such GRS Waterfall Class members' actuarially projected lives, shall be transferred from the Restoration Reserve Account and credited to the GRS Pension Reserve Account and the applicable incremental payments shall be permanently restored for the applicable GRS Waterfall Class and shall no longer be variable from year to year. Variable restoration payments will continue to be paid or credited during the period from July 1, 2028 through June 30, 2033 based on the applicable Restoration Target set forth in Exhibit A and otherwise in accordance with this restoration memorandum, notwithstanding whether the Restoration Target during this period is less than the Permanent Restoration Target as of June 30, 2028 of 75%.

In connection with preparation of the annual actuarial valuation report for FY 2033, the GRS actuary will determine whether GRS has satisfied the Permanent Restoration Target for 2033, as set forth on Exhibit A. Transfers from the Restoration Reserve Account for credit to the GRS Pension Reserve Account may be made in such amounts as are necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target . If following such transfers the GRS Funded Level as of June 30, 2033 has satisfied the applicable Permanent Restoration Target, then the amounts in the Restoration Reserve Account if any (which will necessarily represent excess not necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target), and which fully fund one or more increments of restoration payments for one or more GRS Waterfall Classes over such GRS Waterfall Class members' actuarially projected lives, shall be transferred from the Restoration Reserve Account and credited to the GRS Pension Reserve Account and the applicable incremental payments shall be permanently restored for the applicable GRS Waterfall Class and shall no longer be variable from year to year.

Following receipt of the actuarial reports for 2028, and in the event that the projected Funded Level of GRS as of 2033 is less than 71%, the GRS actuary shall revisit the restoration calculations that it made during each of the prior 4 years. It shall recalculate each such prior year's Funded Level projection, this time by assuming the lesser of (i) $4.5 million in annual administrative expenses until 2033, or (ii) an amount of annual normal course administrative expenses until 2033 equal to the average annual administrative expenses in the prior 4 years applicable to Component II, in addition to a net 6.75% annual investment return. If such retrospective recalculation indicates that fewer amounts would have transferred to the GRS Restoration Reserve Account than actually were transferred during such look back period, then the GRS Restoration Reserve Account shall be debited by the lesser of (i) this difference (plus interest at a rate equal to the rate that was credited to the Restoration Reserve Account during the look-back period or (ii) the dollars that were actually paid out in restoration payments during such look-back period (plus interest at a rate equal to the rate that was credited to the Restoration Reserve Account during the look-back period); or (iii) the amount required to increase the projected 2033 GRS Funded Level to 71%.

4. General GRS Pension Restoration from July 1, 2033 to June 30, 2043.

During this period, the Funding Target, the Restoration Target, the Permanent Restoration Target and the Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger shall be as set forth on Exhibit A hereto. The same rules for restoration that applied during the period ending June 30, 2033 shall otherwise apply (including ceasing interest credits in the event of a Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger, and making Restoration Account asset transfers in the event the 2043 GRS Funded Level falls below the 2043 Funding Target). For example, for purposes of determining whether the 2043 Restoration Target has been satisfied, the Plan actuary shall project annual contributions using the same 2023 UAAL Amortization. For purposes of calculating the funded ratio, the assets in the Restoration Reserve account will be excluded, and no Extra Contribution Account assets shall be included for purposes of determining whether the Funded Level meets the Restoration Target or Permanent Restoration Target, including any additions to such account after 2033.

In connection with preparation of the annual actuarial valuation report for FY 2043, the GRS actuary will determine whether GRS has satisfied the applicable Permanent Restoration Target, as set forth on Exhibit A. Transfers from the Restoration Reserve Account for credit to the GRS Pension Reserve Account may be made in such amounts as are necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target. If following such transfers the GRS Funded Level as of June 30, 2043 is equal to or greater than the applicable Permanent Restoration Target, then the amounts in the Restoration Reserve Account if any (which will necessarily represent excess not necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target), shall be transferred from the Restoration Reserve Account and credited to the GRS Pension Reserve Account and the applicable payments for the applicable GRS Waterfall Class shall be permanently restored and shall no longer be variable.

5. Modification of the Pension Restoration Program

If any time after July 1, 2026, the GRS Investment Committee (by vote of 5 of its 7 members), or the GRS Board of Trustees (by a greater than 66% vote) determines that a change in relevant circumstances has occurred, or there was a mutual mistake of fact in developing this Pension Restoration Agreement, such that the continued operation of this Agreement without amendment will: (a) materially harm the long-term economic interests of the City, or Retirement System; (b) materially impair the City's ability to fully fund over a reasonable period the then existing frozen benefit liabilities; or (c) materially hinder the Restoration program, if as of that juncture (and for purposes of applying this subsection 5(c)) annual funding levels (excluding the Extra Contribution Account) had materially exceeded the applicable PFRS Restoration Targets for a substantial period yet without any material actual restoration of benefits as contemplated herein having been made, the Investment Committee or the Board, as the case may be, shall provide written notice to the other entity of such a determination and of the need to amend this Restoration Agreement (it being understood that the post-Chapter 9, 40-year amortization period (to 2053) to fully fund GRS frozen liabilities is, unless the relevant facts demonstrate otherwise, presumptively reasonable). The Investment Committee and the Board shall then meet to negotiate amendments to this Agreement that address the identified risk of harm or impairment, but which also considers this Agreement's objective of providing pension restoration. Such negotiations shall take into account reasonable actions the City has pursued or could pursue to mitigate such harm or impairment. Any such amendments shall require the approval of a majority vote of the combined members of the Committee and Board (persons who sit on both the Board and Committee shall have one vote). Such parties shall consult with the Mayor, City Council and the Governor in connection with such negotiation. If the Board, acting through a majority, and the Investment Committee, acting through a majority, cannot agree to such amendments within the 90-day period following the provision of such notice by the determining party, then the Board and Investment Committee shall proceed to mediation upon demand from either the Board or the Investment Committee. In this regard, within 30-days following expiration of the 90-day period the Board and the Investment Committee shall each select a mediator from the list of approved mediators for the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan. The two selected mediators shall appoint a third neutral mediator from the approved list. Each party shall furnish a written statement to the mediators within 30 days of selection of the neutral mediator. Representatives of the Mayor and the Governor shall be consulted in connection with such mediations. If following a 90-day mediation period following submission of the written statements the matter is not settled, then either the Investment Committee or the Board can file an action in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan asking it to declare, inter alia, whether or in what manner to amend this Agreement.

EXHIBIT A TO THE GRS PENSION RESTORATION PROGRAM

GRS - The 2033 and 2043 Funding Targets shall be equal to the actual 2023 Funded Level rounded to the nearest 10th decimal . The Restoration Target shall be 3.0% higher than the Funding Target but not less than 73%. The Permanent Restoration Targets shall be 75% in 2028, and 1% higher than the Restoration Targets in 2033 and 2024, but not less than 75%.. The Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger will be set 1% higher than the projected Funding Target for all time periods.

UNDER SECTION 943 OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

F. The evidentiary record of the Confirmation Hearing and the Confirmation Standards Exhibit support the findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth in the following paragraphs.

G. The Court's supplemental opinion regarding confirmation of the Plan (the "Confirmation Opinion"), to be issued, is incorporated fully herein.

H. Section 943(b)(1). The Plan complies with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code made applicable to this Chapter 9 Case by sections 103(e) and 901 of the Bankruptcy Code.⁵ In particular:

1. Section 1122. In accordance with section 1122(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, Section II.B of the Plan classifies each Claim against the City into a Class containing only substantially similar Claims. The legal rights under applicable law of each holder of Claims within each Class under the Plan are substantially similar in nature and character to the legal rights of all other holders of Claims within such Class. No Claims were separately classified under the Plan to gerrymander favorable votes with respect to the Plan. In accordance with section 1122(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, Convenience Claims are separately classified in Class 15 under the Plan solely for the purpose of administrative convenience.

2. Section 1123(a)(1). In accordance with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, Section II.B of the Plan properly classifies all Claims that require classification. Valid factual and legal reasons

⁵ Section 901 of the Bankruptcy Code incorporates into chapter 9 the following chapter 11 provisions relevant to plan confirmation: sections 1122, 1123(a)(1)-(5), 1123(b), 1123(d), 1125, 1126(a)-(c) and (e)-(g), 1127(d), 1128, 1129(a)(2), 1129(a)(3), 1129(a)(6), 1129(a)(8), 1129(a)(10), 1129(b)(1) and 1129(b)(2)(A)-(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. See 11 U.S.C. § 901(a).

5. Section 1123(a)(4). In accordance with section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan provides the same treatment for each Claim of a particular Class unless the holder of such a Claim has agreed to less favorable treatment. Because ASF Recoupment is a settlement mechanism designed to (a) implement a critical component of the City's comprehensive settlement of pension-related issues and (b) enable the trustees of the GRS

6. The consideration provided to Syncora in connection with the Syncora Settlement that is not provided on account of the Plan COP Settlement (a) is separate and distinct from the treatment of Class 9 COP Claims held or insured by Syncora under the Plan, (b) is provided on account of (i) Syncora's agreement to invest new funds (subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable agreements) pursuant to commercial relationships with the City that are distinct from COP Claims held or insured by Syncora and (ii) Syncora's agreement to resolve all of its pending litigation against the City and, thus, (c) has been disregarded for purposes of determining whether the Plan complies with section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code. The consideration provided to FGIC in connection with the FGIC/COP Settlement that is not provided on account of the Plan COP Settlement (a) is separate and distinct from the treatment of Class 9 COP Claims held or insured by FGIC under the Plan and reflects an agreement to invest new funds in a commercial relationship with the City, (b) is provided on account of FGIC's agreement to resolve all of its pending litigation against the City and, thus, (c) has been disregarded for purposes of determining whether the Plan complies with section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

7. Section 1123(a)(5). In accordance with section 1123(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan provides adequate means for its implementation, including, without limitation, (a) the issuance of the New Securities pursuant to the Plan, (b) the consummation of the Settlements (as such term is defined below) described in the Plan, (c) the consummation of the State Contribution Agreement, (d) the assumption or rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, (e) the establishment and funding of the Professional Fee Reserve, (f) the City's assumption of certain indemnification obligations, (g) the City's entry into the Exit Facility and any agreements and ancillary notes related thereto and (h) the provisions regarding Effective Date transactions and transfers in Article IV of the Plan.

8. Section 1123(b)(1). In accordance with section 1123(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, Section II.B of the Plan impairs or leaves unimpaired, as the case may be, each Class of Claims.

9. Section 1123(b)(2). In accordance with section 1123(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, Section II.D and other provisions of the Plan provide for the assumption, assumption and assignment, or rejection of the Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases of the City that have not been previously assumed, assumed and assigned, or rejected pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and orders of the Court.

10. Section 1123(b)(3). In accordance with section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, Section III.D.2 of the Plan provides that, except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, release or other agreement entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, the City will retain and may enforce any claims, demands, rights, defenses and Causes of Action that it may hold against any Entity (including but not limited to (a) any and all Causes of Action against any party relating to the past practices of the Retirement Systems, (b) the currently pending actions and claims brought by the City identified on Schedule A to Exhibit III.D.2 to the Plan and (c) potential recovery actions that may be brought by the City under the Bankruptcy Code (or similar federal or state law) against, among other parties, the Entities identified on Schedule B to Exhibit III.D.2 to the Plan), to the extent not expressly released under the Plan or by any Final Order of the Court.

11. Section 1123(b)(5). In accordance with section 1123(b)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code, Section II.B of the Plan modifies or leaves unaffected, as the case may be, the rights of holders of Claims in each Class.

12. Section 1123(b)(6). In accordance with section 1123(b)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan includes additional appropriate provisions that are not inconsistent with applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, the provisions of Article III, Article IV, Article V, Article VI, Article VII and Article VIII of the Plan.

13. Section 1123(d). In accordance with section 1123(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, Section II.D.4 of the Plan provides for the satisfaction of Cure Amount Claims associated with each Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to be assumed pursuant to the Plan in accordance with section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. All Cure Amount Claims will be determined in accordance with the underlying agreements and applicable law.

14. Section 1127(d). All creditors entitled to vote on the Plan received proper notice of the Confirmation Hearing, and were provided an adequate opportunity to object to any amendments and modifications to the Fourth Amended Plan.⁷

15. Section 1129(a)(2). The City has complied with all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the Plan and the solicitation of acceptances or rejections thereof. In particular, the Plan complies proper notice of the Confirmation Hearing and all relevant dates, deadlines, procedures and other information relating to the Plan and/or the solicitation of votes thereon, including, without limitation, the Voting Deadline, the Objection Deadline (as such term was defined in the Confirmation Hearing Notice), the time, date and place of the Confirmation Hearing and the release provisions in the Plan.¹⁹

- l) All persons entitled to receive notice of the Disclosure Statement, the Plan and the Confirmation Hearing received proper, timely and adequate notice in accordance with the Solicitation Orders, applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules, and have had an opportunity to appear and be heard with respect thereto.²⁰

Accordingly, the City, the Retiree Committee, the GRS, the PFRS, the DRCEA and the RDPFFA are entitled to the protections afforded by section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and the exculpation provisions set forth in Section III.D.6 of the Plan.

- n) Claims in Classes 1A, 1B, 1C, 2A, 2B, 2C, 2D, 2E, 2F, 3 and 4 under the Plan are unimpaired, and such Classes are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code.²¹
- o) KCC has made a final determination of the validity of, and tabulation with respect to, all acceptances and rejections of the Plan by holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan, including the amount and number of accepting and rejecting Claims in Classes 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15 under the Plan.²²
- p) Holders of Claims in Class 17 (Indirect 36th District Court Claims) were previously classified in Class 14 under the Fourth Amended Plan. The City solicited acceptances or rejections of the Plan from the holders of Indirect 36th District Court Claims in their previous capacity as holders of Class 14 Claims. Pursuant to the Order Authorizing Certain Holders of Indirect 36th District Court Claims to Change Their Votes on the City's Plan of Adjustment (Docket No. 6288), entered on July 28, 2014, by agreement of the parties, the votes of all known holders of Indirect 36th District Court Claims rejecting the Plan under Class 14 were deemed to be votes accepting the Plan under Class 17.
- q) Under the Plan, Class 16 (Subordinated Claims) is Impaired and holders of Claims in such Class will receive

Paque Regarding the Solicitation and Tabulation of Votes On, and the Results of Voting with Respect to, Plan for the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit (Docket No. 8072), filed on October 23, 2014 (the "Second Supplemental Voting Declaration"), at ¶¶ 8-9.

no distributions under the Plan.²³ Therefore, Class 16 is conclusively presumed to reject the Plan in accordance with section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code, and no votes were solicited from holders of Class 16 Claims.²⁴

- r) The Plan was voted on by each Class of impaired Claims that was entitled to vote pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules and the Solicitation Orders.
- s) Each of Classes 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 17 have accepted the Plan by at least two-thirds in amount and a majority in number of the Claims in such Classes actually voting.²⁵
- t) The voting declarations admitted into evidence as City Exhibits 764 and 765, and the Second Supplemental Voting Declaration, set forth the tabulation of votes, as required by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules and the Disclosure Statement Order.²⁶

16. Section 1129(a)(3). The Plan has been proposed (a) in good faith; (b) with honesty, sincerity and good intentions; (c) with a basis for expecting that an adjustment of the City's debts and an operational restructuring of the City can be effected in accordance with the purpose of chapter 9, and that the Plan is feasible; and (d) not by any means forbidden by law. The Plan and the treatment of Claims thereunder are, and the process pursuant to which the City has sought Confirmation thereof has been, fundamentally fair to the City's creditors.

²³ See Plan, at § II.B.3.w.i.

²⁴ See id..

²⁵ See Second Supplemental Voting Declaration, at ¶¶ 8-9.

²⁶ See id. at Exhibits A-C.

The purpose of the Plan is to adjust the City's debts to enable the City to reverse its decades-long financial decline, eliminate its service delivery insolvency, restore adequate municipal services to its residents and meet its future financial obligations, consistent with the overarching remedial purpose of chapter 9 and the objectives and purposes of the Bankruptcy Code. The City's good faith in proposing the Plan and its prior versions, and fundamental fairness in dealing with its creditors, is further evidenced by the fact that the Plan (a) incorporates multiple key settlements that are the result of extensive arm's length negotiations (often conducted within the context of Court-ordered mediation) between the City and representatives of a large proportion of its creditors, (b) has been proposed with the support of the City's largest creditor constituencies and (c) is feasible (see ¶¶ N.10-18 below). In so finding, the Court has considered the totality of the circumstances in this Chapter 9 Case.

17. Section 1129(a)(6). Section III.A.7 of the Plan provides that the obtaining of any authorizations, consents and regulatory approvals necessary under applicable nonbankruptcy law is a specific condition to the effectiveness of the Plan, consistent with the language of section 1129(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code.²⁷ The Board of Water Commissioners will continue to have all authority to set and approve the water and sewerage rates charged by the DWSD, provided that, if a DWSD Authority is approved and formed, such rates would be determined by the board of such DWSD Authority.²⁸

²⁷ See Plan, at § III.A.7.

18. Section 1129(a)(8). The Plan has not been accepted by all impaired Classes of Claims because (a) Classes 14 and 15 (collectively, the "Impaired Rejecting Classes") have voted to reject the Plan²⁹ and (b) consistent with section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code, the holders of Claims in Class 16 (Subordinated Claims) (who receive no Distributions pursuant to Section II.B.3.w.i of the Plan) are deemed to have rejected the Plan.³⁰ Nevertheless, as more fully explained below, the Plan is confirmable because it satisfies section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to such Impaired Rejecting Classes.

19. Section 1129(a)(10). The Plan has been accepted by the following impaired Classes of Claims that are entitled to vote on the Plan, determined without including any acceptance of the Plan by any insider: Classes 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 17.³¹

20. Section 1129(b)(1): Unfair Discrimination. For the reasons set forth in the Confirmation Opinion, the Plan does not discriminate unfairly against the Impaired Rejecting Classes. The Plan provides greater percentage recoveries to holders of (a) Pension Claims in Classes 10 and 11 (as high as approximately 59% and 60%, respectively, although the Court does not make any specific finding with respect to such percentage recoveries), (b) Class 8 Unlimited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims (approximately 74%), (c) Limited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims (approximately 44%) and (d) Indirect 36th District Court Claims (approximately 33%) than to holders of (x) Other Unsecured Claims (approximately 13%) and (y) Convenience Claims (25% recovery).

³¹ See Second Supplemental Voting Declaration, at ¶¶ 8-9.

21. Despite the differences in the Classes' respective recoveries, the Court finds that such discrimination is fair in light of, among other things, (a) the circumstances of the City's Chapter 9 Case, (b) the purpose of chapter 9, which is to adjust an insolvent municipality's debt so that it can provide adequate municipal services and (c) the Court's conscience, as informed by the Court's experience, education and sense of morality.

22. Substantial mission-based considerations justify the differential treatment of Pension Claims. The City is a municipal service enterprise whose mission is to provide municipal services to its residents and visitors to promote their health, welfare and safety. The City, therefore, has a strong interest in preserving its relationships with its employees and in enhancing their motivation, consistent with the City's financial resources. In contrast, the City has no similar mission-related investment in its relationships with holders of Claims in Classes 14 and 15.

23. The Plan's differential treatment of Pension Claims is further justified because the fulfillment of the City municipal service mission is informed by, and subject to, the provisions of the constitution and laws of the State of Michigan and the City's status as an agency of the State. Article IX, Section 24 of the Michigan Constitution (the "Pensions Clause") (a) singles out municipal pension claims for special protection and (b) in so doing, specifically expresses the considered judgment of the people of the State of Michigan, which is entitled to substantial deference in connection with determining the fairness of the Plan's discrimination against the Impaired Rejecting Classes.

24. The reasonable expectations of creditors further demonstrate that the Plan's treatment of Pension Claims is fair, because the Pensions Clause gives notice to all of the City's unsecured creditors that, outside of bankruptcy, the rights of pension creditors are distinct and entitled to special State-law protections that are unavailable to other unsecured creditors of the City. Such constitutional notice (a) reasonably justifies the enhanced expectations of Holders of Pension Claims in this Chapter 9 Case and (b) should lower the reasonable expectations of all other unsecured creditors.

25. Moreover, the Plan's treatment of Pension Claims is the result of a collection of interconnected settlements. The factors that inform the reasonableness of each individual settlement are the same factors that inform the Court's judgment regarding the fairness of discrimination under the Plan. Because each such settlement is fair and reasonable, the discrimination in claim treatment resulting from such settlements also is fair.

26. The treatment of Limited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims, Unlimited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims and Indirect 36th District Court Claims also is fair because, in each instance, such treatment is the result of arm's-length, intensely negotiated and reasonable settlements between the City and the respective creditors and their representatives and is based on the asserted differing legal rights of, and litigation brought by, such parties. Specifically, a reasonable basis exists for the differential treatment of Limited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims and Unlimited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims, because the treatment of such Claims reflects (a) the results of protracted and comprehensively negotiated settlements between the City and the holders of such Claims and (b) the claimants' arguments to relative priority and security under State law. In addition, the Plan's treatment of Indirect 36th District Court Claims is related to the City's mission, and therefore is fair, because of the City's continuing legal and funding relationship with the 36th District Court.

27. The plan would not be feasible without discriminating among unsecured creditors because, with respect to Pension Claims in particular, the City's recovery will turn in large part on its ability to marshal the support of its residents in general and its retirees, employees and their labor unions in particular. With respect to Pension Claims, Limited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims, Unlimited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims and Indirect 36th District Court Claims, the settlements achieved by the City removed the risk of ongoing litigation over their respective asserted priorities, which litigation posed a significant obstacle to the City's ability to confirm a workable plan. The City's proposal of the differential treatment between Classes of unsecured Claims under the Plan was made in good faith and was not motivated by personal animosity or antipathy. The Plan treats holders of Claims in the Impaired Rejecting Classes as well as possible under the circumstances.

28. The Plan does not discriminate unfairly against Class 16 (Subordinated Claims) because the Claims within such Class are subordinated to all other Claims classified under the Plan in accordance with section 510(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and are entitled to Distributions under the Plan only to the extent that Classes that are senior in priority are paid in full.

Section 1129(b)(1), (b)(2): Fair and Equitable. For the reasons to be set forth in the Confirmation Opinion, the Plan is "fair and equitable" with respect to the Impaired Rejecting Classes. No evidence suggests that the City or any Class or group of creditors has committed any overreaching or misconduct that would require the Court to impose a remedy as a condition to Confirmation. Moreover, the circumstances of the City's Chapter 9 Case suggest to the Court's conscience that it is fair and equitable to impose the Plan upon the dissenting creditors against their stated will. A large number of Detroit residents are suffering hardship due to the City's service delivery insolvency. This condition is inhumane and intolerable, and can only be successfully addressed if the Plan is confirmed. No viable alternatives to the Plan exist that would resolve the City's service delivery insolvency and provide a greater recovery to Classes 14 and 15. Requiring creditors in the Impaired Rejecting Classes to share in the sacrifice that other creditors of the City have agreed to endure, and confirming the Plan, thus is fair and equitable under the circumstances.

I. Section 943(b)(2). The Plan complies with the provisions of chapter 9 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan complies with section 941 of the Bankruptcy Code because the City filed the Plan for the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit (Docket No. 2708) on February 21, 2014, consistent with the First Order Establishing Dates and Deadlines (Docket No. 280), entered on August 2, 2013, which order established March 1, 2014 as the deadline for the City to file its plan of adjustment. The Plan complies with section 942 of the Bankruptcy Code because the amendments and modifications made to the Fourth Amended Plan are either immaterial to, or do not adversely affect the treatment of, any Claim under the Plan.

J. Section 943(b)(3). The Court, with the assistance of counsel, will establish an expeditious mediation and Court-review process to determine the reasonableness and disclosure of all fees and expenses, paid and unpaid, for which the City is obligated in connection with this case through the Effective Date, as required by section 943(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, including (1) the professional fees and expenses of the GRS and the PFRS, to the extent that the City reimburses them, (2) the fees and expenses of the Fee Examiner and his professionals, (3) the Court-appointed feasibility expert and her counsel and (4) the other Fee Review Professionals. The preceding sentence does not apply with respect to fees and expenses explicitly dealt with in settlements previously approved by orders of the Court. The review pursuant to such process will satisfy the requirements of section 943(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.

1. In addition, pursuant to the Fee Review Order and the Fee Examiner Order, and with the City's consent, the Fee Examiner was appointed in the Chapter 9 Case as an officer of the Court and has reviewed, or will review, the fees and expenses of all Fee Review Professionals submitted to the Fee Examiner for review in accordance with the Fee Review Order for the period beginning on the Petition Date. Unless the Court subsequently orders otherwise, the fee review process established by the Fee Review Order will continue for fees and expenses incurred through the Effective Date pursuant to Section IV.N.2 of the Plan. In accordance with the Fee Review Order, each quarterly report and supplemental quarterly report filed by the Fee Examiner to date has determined that all Fee Review Professional Fees incurred during the relevant reporting periods have been fully disclosed and are reasonable or otherwise are commensurate with the complexity and speed of the Chapter 9 Case and the quality of services provided.³² Further, the fees and expenses of the Fee Examiner Parties are subject to Court review and approval under the terms of the Fee Review Order and the Plan.

³² See Fee Examiner's Quarterly Report for Months of July, August and September 2013 (Docket No. 2642), at ¶ 15; Fee Examiner's First Supplemental Quarterly Report for Months of July, August and September 2013 (Docket No. 3457), at ¶ 14; Fee Examiner's Second Supplemental Quarterly Report for Months of July, August and September 2013 (Docket No. 7574), at ¶ 14; Fee Examiner's Second Quarterly Report for Months of October, November and December 2013 (Docket No. 4498), at ¶ 16; Fee Examiner's First Supplemental Quarterly Report for Months of October, November and December 2013 (Docket No. 7575), at ¶ 17; Fee Examiner's Third Quarterly Report for Months of January, February and March 2014 (Docket No. 6528), at ¶ 18; Fee Examiner's First Supplemental Quarterly Report for Months of January, February and March 2014 (Docket No. 7332), at ¶ 19; Fee Examiner's Fourth Quarterly Report for Months of April, May and June 2014 (Docket No. 8186), at ¶ 18.

K. Section 943(b)(4).

1. All actions to be taken by the City to carry out the Plan are consistent with, do not violate and are not prohibited by applicable law, including, but not limited to, the following actions:

- the creation of the Detroit General VEBA and the Detroit Police and Fire VEBA;
- payments to be made by the DWSD during the period from the Effective Date through June 30, 2023 on account of (a) the DWSD's $428.5 million currently-calculated allocable share of the unfunded actuarially accrued liabilities of the GRS (as modified by the Plan), (b) related administrative costs and (c) restructuring costs incurred by the City in connection with the Chapter 9 Case allocable to the DWSD (the "DWSD Pension Funding"), consistent with paragraph 24 of the DWSD Tender Order;
- all actions taken in connection with the UTGO Settlement Agreement and all provisions of the Plan addressing recoveries upon Unlimited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims, including Sections II.B.3.n, II.B.3.o, II.B.3.p and IV.C of the Plan (such provisions of the Plan as they relate to such recoveries, and, collectively with the UTGO Settlement Agreement, the "UTGO Settlement"), including, but not limited to, the City's designation of an entity or entities to receive the Assigned UTGO Bond Tax Proceeds;
- the transfer of the DIA Assets to DIA Corp. pursuant to the DIA Settlement;³³ and ³³ See Attorney General's Approval of DIA Settlement (Docket No. 5338), filed on June 17, 2014.

- all actions taken in connection with the Syncora Development Agreement (including the garage option), the Tunnel Lease and the FGIC Development Agreement.

L. Section 943(b)(5). The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 943(b)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan expressly provides for the cash payment, in full, of Allowed Administrative Claims, including administrative expenses allowed under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code either (1) on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter or (2) if the Administrative Claim is not Allowed as of the Effective Date, 30 days after the date on which such Administrative Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.³⁴

M. Section 943(b)(6). The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 943(b)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code. The effectiveness of the Plan is expressly conditioned upon the obtaining of any authorizations, consents and regulatory approvals necessary under applicable nonbankruptcy law.³⁵ Neither the DWSD Pension Funding nor the provisions of the Plan relating to the DWSD CVR constitute a tax upon any DWSD ratepayer subject to electoral approval.

The restructuring of the City's obligations pursuant to the Plan, and the consequent restructuring (and lowering) of DWSD's costs, will not necessitate an increase in the rates charged by DWSD in excess of normally scheduled rate increases.

³⁴ See Plan, at § II.A.1.a.

³⁵ See Plan, at § III.A.7.

N. Section 943(b)(7).

1. Best Interests of Creditors. The Plan is in the best interests of creditors. The Plan provides the City's creditor body, as a whole, with a better alternative than dismissal of the Chapter 9 Case and all that creditors can reasonably expect under the circumstances. Outside of bankruptcy, the City would face several billion dollars in cumulative deficits over the next ten years, even if it attempted only to maintain the current level of inadequate public services.

Although the automatic stay has allowed the City to enhance its cash position during the bankruptcy, the fundamentals of the City's financial forecasts have not changed materially since the City first created the baseline financial forecasts in June 2013. Moreover, if the City's Chapter 9 Case were dismissed, the City would lose the benefit of many of the settlements it has reached with its creditors.

The City does not have sufficient excess revenues to continue paying its creditors outside of bankruptcy.

2. The legal limitations on the collection of judgments that apply outside of bankruptcy also constrain the best interests of creditors test in bankruptcy. Because Michigan Public Act 236 of 1961, the Revised Judicature Act, M.C.L. §§ 600.101, et seq. (the "Revised Judicature Act"), provides the sole remedy under State law for the City's creditors to recover on their claims, the City cannot be compelled under State law to liquidate City-owned assets to satisfy creditors' claims.³⁶ The City also cannot be compelled to sell any City-owned assets under the Bankruptcy Code because, in chapter 9 cases, section 904 of the Bankruptcy Code prohibits the Court from interfering with "(1) any of the political or governmental powers of the debtor; (2) any of the property or revenues of the debtor; or (3) the debtor's use or enjoyment of any income-producing property."³⁷

3. Maintaining the art collection housed at the DIA (the "DIA Collection") is critical to the feasibility of the Plan and to the City's future because the DIA Collection is an invaluable and irreplaceable resource, and because the DIA stands at the center of the City's cultural life. Selling the DIA Collection would impede the City's efforts to attract new residents, visitors and businesses and would only deepen the City's fiscal, economic and social problems. In addition, using the DIA Collection or some portion thereof as collateral for a loan to pay creditors would be imprudent because doing so would (a) merely substitute debt for debt and thus not benefit the City and (b) create a risk that the City would lose any art used as collateral in the event of a default.

4. Moreover, it would be impracticable for the City to liquidate the DIA Collection in an attempt to maximize creditor recoveries. Because (a) many works within the DIA Collection are subject to donor restrictions and (b) the Michigan Attorney General and DIA Corp. contend that the entire DIA Collection is held in trust, any attempt to liquidate the DIA Collection or any material portion thereof to satisfy the claims of creditors most likely would result in costly, complex and time-consuming litigation regarding the City's precise ownership interests in the approximately 60,000 works of art that comprise the DIA Collection. A forced liquidation of the DIA Collection would generate only a fraction of its true economic value.

³⁷ 11 U.S.C. § 904.

5. Nevertheless, the Plan provides for multiple new sources of revenue, cost saving initiatives and settlements that improve recoveries for creditors. The City has made reasonable efforts to monetize assets other than the DIA Collection, including the Detroit Windsor Tunnel, certain real estate properties, certain parking properties and the Joe Louis Arena property. The City also has entered into the Great Lakes Water Authority memorandum of understanding, which benefits all of the City's creditors.³⁸

6. The transactions and settlements associated with the "Grand Bargain" – including the State Contribution Agreement, the DIA Settlement and the City's comprehensive settlement of pension-related and labor-related issues negotiated with the Retiree Committee, the Retirement

Systems and certain unions and retiree associations – will generate at least an additional $816 million in nominal revenue for the benefit of the holders of Pension Claims. In addition, the City has entered into favorable settlements with representatives of the holders of Pension Claims, OPEB Claims, COP Claims, Unlimited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims, Limited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims and Indirect 36th District Court Claims. The difference between the amounts asserted by such claimants and the amounts accepted in settlement of such Claims redounds to the benefit of all the City's stakeholders. The successful implementation of the reinvestment initiatives incorporated into the Plan (the "Reinvestment Initiatives") is indispensable to the City's efforts to provide its creditors with as significant a recovery as could be expected under the circumstances, and the maximization of such creditor recoveries influenced the design of the Reinvestment Initiatives. In addition, absent confirmation of the Plan, the City would not have the ability to access the capital markets on reasonable terms, meaning that the issuance of numerous and large judgments against the City would quickly deplete the City's limited resources and its tax base.

7. Raising taxes also is not a viable option for the City.

The City is legally prohibited from raising property tax rates above their current levels, which rates are higher than those in neighboring communities and among the highest in Michigan. The likelihood of the people of Detroit or the State legislature voting to raise taxes is remote. Even if the City could legally increase property tax rates, doing so would not increase the City's revenues because the City has reached its practical taxable limit, i.e., tax saturation, meaning that any further tax increases on Detroit residents most likely would (a) exacerbate the City's already high tax collection delinquency rate, (b) continue the flight of residents and businesses from the City, (c) discourage inflow of prospective residents and businesses, (d) destabilize growth and (e) ultimately reduce the City's overall tax revenues. The loss of population in Detroit has compounded the City's financial difficulties and led to additional cutbacks in municipal services – which cutbacks, in turn, have led to continuing losses of population, industry and tax revenues. Increasing the tax burden on Detroit residents would only perpetuate this vicious cycle.

8. The effect of dismissal of the City's Chapter 9 Case would be the issuance of myriad judgment levies under State law.³⁹ In a dismissal scenario, the Revised Judicature Act would require the City to satisfy any judgments obtained by creditors either through bond issuances or property tax levies.⁴⁰ If the Chapter 9 Case were dismissed, the City's creditors would not realize greater recoveries than they would receive under the Plan because the City would lack the resources and ability to satisfy such judgment levies. In such a scenario, the City's pension obligations alone likely would quickly eradicate any meaningful recoveries for other unsecured creditors outside of chapter 9.

9. Dismissal of the Chapter 9 Case would deprive the City of the benefit of the Reinvestment Initiatives. Without such reinvestment, the City's ability to provide basic services would continue to decline below even today's inadequate levels. Without the ability to provide adequate levels of basic services, the City would be unable to reverse the exodus of residents and businesses from the City that has depleted the City's tax base, reduced land values and led to widespread abandonment and blight. In addition, the Plan offers financial benefits that would be unavailable to the City in the event of dismissal, including the $816 million that will be contributed to the Retirement Systems in connection with the Grand Bargain, the Exit Facility and the cost savings to be realized by the Reinvestment Initiatives and the Settlements under the Plan.

10. Feasibility. The Plan is feasible, within the meaning of section 943(b)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code. On and after the Effective Date, it is more likely than not that the City will be able to (a) make all payments contemplated by the Plan without a significant probability of default and

(b) sustainably provide adequate municipal services to its residents.⁴¹ The City has demonstrated a reasonable prospect that the City will successfully implement the Plan and the Reinvestment Initiatives.⁴²

11. The City's revenue and expense projections contained in (a) the ten-year summary of the Reinvestment Initiatives (the "10-Year Reinvestment Initiative Summary") introduced into evidence as City Exhibit 108 (July 2014); (b) the ten-year statement of projected cash flows (the "10-Year Forecast") introduced into evidence as City Exhibits 109 (July 2014), 733 (September 2014), 780 (October 2014), 781 (October 2014) and 782 (October 2014); (c) the forty-year statement of projected cash flows (the "40-Year Forecast") introduced into evidence as City Exhibits 111 (July 2014), 734 (September 2014), 779 (October 2014) and 793 (October 2014); and (d) the ten-year statement of projected cash flows of the City's water and sewage disposal funds introduced into evidence as part of City Exhibit 3 (collectively with the 10-Year Reinvestment Initiative Summary, the 10-Year Forecast and the 40-Year Forecast, the "Projections"), are reasonable, made in good faith, accurate, consistent with other financial projections made by the City and based upon assumptions that are reasonable when considered individually or collectively.⁴³

12. The City will have employees that have the necessary skill and commitment to implement, and perform according to the terms of, the Plan. The City will also have adequate systems, controls and procedures (as modified, modernized and developed by the Reinvestment Initiatives) to (a) monitor the City's financial and operational performance and (b) minimize and eliminate fraud, abuse and waste (both in the City's day-to-day operations and in the implementation of the Reinvestment Initiatives).⁴⁴

13. The City is beginning to implement appropriate controls to reasonably ensure the City's ongoing compliance with the terms of the Plan.⁴⁵ These controls include, but are not limited to: (a) the Michigan Financial Review Commission (the "Financial Review Commission") established pursuant to Public Act 181 of 2014, M.C.L. §§ 141.1631, et seq. ("PA 181" or the "Financial Review Commission Act"); (b) the requirements imposed by Public Act 182 of 2014,

M.C.L. § 117.4s-t ("PA 182" and, together with PA 181, the "Grand Bargain Legislation"), that the City (i) adopt a sound, multi-year financial plan, (ii) appoint a Chief Financial Officer and (iii) post its financial forecasts and contracts to the City's official website; and (c) the adoption of governance and financial oversight mechanisms for the Retirement Systems in connection with the State Contribution Agreement. The Financial Review Commission will have broad authority, under the Grand Bargain Legislation, to obtain and review the City's financial records on an ongoing basis, and to conduct financial audits of the City.⁴⁶

14. The Reinvestment Initiatives provide for the reinvestment of approximately $1.7 billion in the City between the Effective Date and June 30, 2023. The Reinvestment Initiatives will allow the City to achieve approximately $483 million in additional revenue and $358 million in cost savings during that same period, resulting in net reinvestment in the City of approximately $877 million. The Reinvestment Initiatives are reasonably designed to, and more likely than not will, ensure that the City will be able to (a) remedy its service delivery insolvency and provide adequate municipal services to its residents, (b) meet its financial obligations on a prospective basis, (c) promote the stability of the City's population and (d) provide a platform for the growth of both the City's resident and business populations.⁴⁷

15. The costs associated with the Reinvestment Initiatives are reasonable. The goals of the Reinvestment Initiatives are achievable.⁴⁸ The City can arrest the reinforcing trends of population loss, declining property values and declining revenues if adequate services are restored, blight is remediated and the City becomes a more attractive place to live and work. The Reinvestment Initiatives will accelerate investment in the City by business, community and philanthropic organizations.

16. Absent the Reinvestment Initiatives, the City cannot provide a sustainable level of services to its residents. The Reinvestment Initiatives are necessary to (a) remedy the City's service delivery insolvency, (b) reduce blight and strengthen neighborhoods, (c) improve the efficiency of, and adequately fund, the City's operations (including, but not limited to, its administrative and support departments and the operations of the 36th District Court), (d) allow elected officials to more effectively manage the City, (e) enhance the City's revenues, (f) reduce the City's costs and (g) ensure the provision of adequate and significantly improved municipal and public safety services to City residents and businesses.⁴⁹ The Mayor's office and the City Council have been consulted in connection with the City's restructuring and are committed to working in concert to implement the Plan and the Reinvestment Initiatives.⁵⁰

17. It is more likely than not that the Plan is sustainable over the long term.⁵¹ Based on the Projections, the City will have sufficient liquidity to sustain normal municipal operations, issue and perform under the New Securities, satisfy the Settlements and otherwise meet its financial obligations after the Effective Date. The amount and terms of the Exit Facility are reasonable. The City will have sufficient resources to service the Exit Facility. The Plan and the Exit Facility will enable the City to resolve onerous debts related to the City's excessive prepetition borrowing. The City's commitment, under the Plan, to use its best efforts to prepay the New LTGO Bonds on the Effective Date, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, is both reasonable and feasible. Credit markets likely (a) will be receptive to the newly de-leveraged City and (b) would be closed to the City absent the restructuring to be implemented pursuant to the Plan and the Reinvestment Initiatives. Although future economic risks cannot be predicted with certainty, and some economic risk factors are outside of the City's control, under the Plan, the City more likely than not will be able to adapt to unforeseen circumstances as necessary to preserve its revitalization.

18. Under the Plan, the DWSD will have sufficient resources to make the capital improvements necessary to enable the DWSD to continue to provide an adequate level of water and sewer service to its customers, and the DWSD's current capital improvement plans are reasonable for this purpose. There is no material risk of a system-wide failure that would prevent the DWSD from providing adequate levels of service. In addition, the DWSD Pension Funding does not negatively impact the feasibility of the Plan with respect to other creditors or the reinvestment initiatives.

EXECUTORY CONTRACTS

O. Pursuant to sections 365 and 1123(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code (incorporated into this Chapter 9 Case by section 901 of the Bankruptcy Code), upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, Section II.D of the Plan provides for the assumption, assumption and assignment or rejection of certain Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases. The City's determinations regarding the assumption, assumption and assignment or rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases are based on and within the sound business judgment of the City, are necessary to the implementation of the Plan and are in the best interests of the City, holders of Claims and other parties in interest in the Chapter 9 Case.

The City has filed Exhibit II.D.6 to the Plan (as it may have been amended or supplemented) and either has provided or will provide notice of the City's determinations regarding the assumption, assumption and assignment or rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases and any related Cure Amount Claims consistent with the procedures (collectively, the "Contract Procedures") set forth in the Order, Pursuant to Sections 365, 901 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, (A) Establishing Procedures with Respect to the Proposed Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and (B) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof (Docket No. 6512), entered on August 4, 2014 (the "Contract Procedures Order").

SETTLEMENTS AND RELEASES

P. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a) or otherwise, and in consideration for the distributions and other benefits provided under the Plan, the provisions of the Plan constitute a good faith compromise and settlement of all Claims and controversies resolved pursuant to the Plan.

Q. Based upon the representations and arguments of counsel to the City, the Retiree Committee, the Retirement Systems, Syncora, FGIC, the State, DIA Corp., the RDPFFA and the DRCEA, and all other testimony either actually given or proffered and other evidence introduced at the Confirmation Hearing and the full record of this Chapter 9 Case, the findings and conclusions of which are hereby incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein, this Order constitutes the Court's approval of all Settlements provided for herein or in the Plan because, among other things, all aspects of such Settlements have been fully disclosed and such Settlements (and, as applicable, the agreements underlying such Settlements): (1) were negotiated and entered into in good faith and at arm's length; (2) comport with the policies and purposes of chapter 9 of the Bankruptcy Code; (3) reflect a reasonable balance between certainty and the risks and expenses of both future litigation and the continuation of the Chapter 9 Case; (4) fall well within the range of reasonableness for the resolution of complex litigation; (5) are fair, equitable and reasonable and in the best interests of the City, its creditors and other parties in interest; (6) represent appropriate exercises of the City's business judgment; (7) are essential to the successful implementation of the Plan; and (8) meet the standards for approval under sections 105(a) and 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a) and other applicable law.

R. The DIA Settlement. The DIA Settlement resolves a substantial dispute surrounding the extent of the City's property rights with respect to the DIA Assets. Under the DIA Settlement, as reflected in Section IV.E.2 of the Plan, the City will irrevocably transfer all of its right, title and interest in and to the DIA Assets to DIA Corp., as trustee, to hold in perpetual charitable trust, and within the City limits, for the primary benefit of the residents of the City and the Counties and the citizens of the State.⁵²

1. The City cannot be compelled to liquidate the DIA Collection.⁵³ Even if such a liquidation could be compelled, however, many works in the DIA Collection are subject to donor restrictions and, contrary to the City's position, the Michigan Attorney General and DIA Corp. assert that the entire DIA Collection is held in trust.⁵⁴ The City's likelihood of success in potential litigation over whether the City has sufficient interest in the DIA Assets (or in any of them) to permit it to sell any such assets and use the proceeds of sale for its own purposes, including payment of operating expenses or debt, is uncertain. Any such litigation would likely take substantial time and cause the City to incur substantial expense.

⁵² See Plan, at Exhibit I.A.127 (DIA Settlement Documents).

⁵⁴ See Michigan Attorney General Opinion No. 7272 (June 13, 2013).

2. For the reasons set forth in the Confirmation Opinion, even if the City were to prevail in whole or in part in such litigation over the City's ability to sell the DIA Assets, it would not be in the City's best interests to liquidate the DIA Assets because (a) the City's ability to realize, on a timely basis, the full value of each of the DIA Assets it would be permitted to sell is uncertain and (b) a forced liquidation of the DIA Collection likely would yield only a fraction of the DIA Collection's true economic value. A proposed sale or other deaccession of the DIA Assets would have been resisted, and likely would have provoked adverse action, including litigation, by (a) DIA Corp. and donors to DIA Corp. and to the DIA and (b) the international art community. Preservation of the DIA Assets and the DIA is strongly in the interest of the City and its residents, is an important element in the revitalization of the City, critical to the feasibility of the Plan and to the City's future and therefore is in the interest of its creditors, who are receiving under the Plan payments over a period of time.

3. The compromises and settlements embodied in the DIA Settlement (a) accurately reflect and effectively resolve a substantial dispute surrounding the extent of the property rights the City possesses with respect to the DIA Assets, (b) avoid objections to confirmation of the Plan regarding the Plan's treatment of Pension Claims, (c) resolve pending appeals regarding the Court's ability to impair pensions under chapter 9 of the Bankruptcy Code, and (d) are, collectively, a key compromise upon which several provisions of the Plan rest.

In the absence of the DIA Settlement, the City's emergence from chapter 9 would likely have been delayed by litigation and burdened with additional expenses.

4. The DIA Settlement has not been entered into fraudulently, nor with the intent to hinder, delay or defraud any entity to which the City is, or may become, indebted on or after the Effective Date. The DIA Settlement is not a fraudulent transfer under state or federal law.

5. The transfer of the DIA Assets to the DIA Corp. serves the public purpose of providing civic, artistic and cultural activities to the general public. Such transfer is authorized by law, including by Section 4k of the Michigan Home Rule City Act, M.C.L. § 117.4k, and Section 1-102 of the Detroit City Charter.

6. The DIA Settlement (a) eliminates the risk and expense of litigation regarding the DIA Assets and the Plan's treatment of Pension Claims and (b) leverages the DIA Assets for the benefit of the City's pensioners while also protecting the DIA Assets from the threat of liquidation and preserving the DIA Assets for the benefit of the City, its residents and surrounding communities. Based on the evidence of (a) the amount of the consideration to be provided under the DIA Settlement directly to the Retirement Systems, (b) DIA Corp.'s commitments to the City under the DIA Settlement, including the obligation to maintain for the benefit of the public an encyclopedic art museum the permanent primary situs of which will be in the City, and (c) the settlement of litigation over the extent of the City's right, title or interest in the DIA Assets, the DIA Settlement and the transfer of the DIA Assets as provided in the DIA Settlement are for fair value and fair consideration and are fair, equitable, reasonable and in the best interests of the City and its creditors and residents.

S. The UTGO Settlement. After sufficient notice and opportunity for all parties to be heard, and after due deliberation, based on the Court's thorough review and full consideration of the UTGO Settlement Agreement and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law with respect to the UTGO Settlement:

1. The UTGO Settlement described in the Plan and the UTGO Settlement Agreement are fair, equitable, reasonable and in the best interests of the City and its creditors and residents. The UTGO Settlement Agreement is the result of extensive arm's length negotiations among the City and the Settling UTGO Bond Insurers – all of whom were represented by sophisticated counsel. The compromises and settlements embodied in the UTGO Settlement (a) resolve all disputes with respect to claims classified in Class 8 under the Plan and the issues raised by the Settling UTGO Bond Insurers in the UTGO Litigation and (b) are, collectively, a key compromise upon which several provisions of the Plan rest. In the absence of such compromises and settlements, the City's emergence from chapter 9 would likely have been delayed by litigation and burdened with additional expenses.

2. The UTGO Settlement and the UTGO Settlement

Agreement: (a) were negotiated and entered into in good faith; (b) comport with the policies and purposes of chapter 9; (c) are fair, equitable and reasonable; (d) are in the best interests of the City and its creditors and residents as they not only fully resolve the UTGO Litigation but also permit the City's assignees to receive value from the Assigned UTGO Bond Tax Proceeds as set forth in the Plan, which receipt fulfills a requirement of the State Contribution Agreement; (e) are within the range of reasonable results if the disputes resolved by the UTGO Settlement, including the UTGO Litigation, were instead litigated to a conclusion; (f) fall above the lowest point in the range of reasonableness; and (g) meet the standards for approval under sections 105(a) and 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a) and other applicable law.

3. Without limiting any of the foregoing, the Court hereby finds that:

- The Plan incorporates the UTGO Settlement Agreement, and the effectiveness of the Plan is expressly conditioned upon: (a) the MFA board having approved the issuance of the Restructured UTGO Bonds and such bonds having been issued;

and (b) the City having obtained all governmental and Emergency Manager consents and approvals required to carry out the terms of the UTGO Settlement Agreement.⁵⁵

- As of the Effective Date, the Plan represents a full, final and complete compromise, settlement, release and resolution of, among other matters, all disputes and pending or potential litigation (including any appeals), including, without limitation, the UTGO Litigation, regarding the allowability, amount, priority and treatment of the Unlimited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims. The treatment of Class 8 Unlimited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims under the Plan is a component of a settlement and compromise of the UTGO Litigation.⁵⁶
- Good and valuable consideration has been provided for all releases and exculpations granted pursuant to the UTGO Settlement Agreement, including, without limitation, the releases and exculpations granted pursuant to Sections 6.1 and 6.2 of the UTGO Settlement Agreement. Such provisions are fair, equitable, reasonable and integral elements of the UTGO Settlement Agreement.⁵⁷
- The Court confirms that, as of the Effective Date and pursuant to Emergency Manager Bond Order No. 4, the Municipal Obligation shall be secured, to the extent permitted by law, including, without limitation, Section 12(1)(x) of PA 436, by a lien granted by the City on the UTGO Bond Tax Levy

⁵⁵ See Plan, at §§ III.A.9, III.A.10.

⁵⁶ See Plan, at § II.B.3.o.ii, Exhibit I.A.360.

⁵⁷ See Plan, at Exhibit I.A.360.

for so long as either the Municipal Obligation or the Stub UTGO Bonds are outstanding.⁵⁸

- As of the Effective Date, the UTGO Bond Tax Levy shall constitute "special revenues," as defined in section 902 of the Bankruptcy Code, and "pledged special revenues," as that term is used in section 922(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.⁵⁹
- As of the Effective Date, the MFA shall possess a valid and enforceable statutory fourth lien and trust on the shared revenue payments that the City is entitled to receive from the State under the Michigan Constitution and Michigan Public Act 140 of 1971, the Glenn Steil State Revenue Sharing Act, M.C.L. §§ 141.901, et seq., as amended ("Distributable State Aid"), as provided in Section 15(2) of Michigan Public Act 227 of 1985, the Shared Credit Rating Act, M.C.L. §§ 141.1051, et seq., or as otherwise provided under applicable law.⁶⁰
- As of the Effective Date, Holders of the Restructured UTGO Bonds shall possess all of the MFA's rights and interest in the Municipal Obligation including all the rights and interest provided herein and under the UTGO Settlement Agreement, subject to the reservation by the MFA of rights to indemnification and to make all determinations and approvals and receive all notices accorded to it under the Municipal Obligation and related documents. Accordingly, the Restructured UTGO Bonds will be payable from and secured by (a) payments made by the City on the Municipal Obligation and to the extent permitted by law, including, without limitation, Section 12(1)(x) of PA 436, a lien on the portion of the UTGO Bond Tax Levy allocable to the Municipal Obligation, pledged by the City to secure the Municipal Obligation; and (b) a lien, made a statutory lien as provided by the Shared Credit Rating Act, on moneys in the funds and accounts established for the Restructured UTGO Bonds under the authorizing resolution for such bonds, including payments pledged by the City and received and held by the MFA or its trustee for the Restructured UTGO Bonds, which include, without limitation, all payments of (i) the proceeds of the UTGO Bond Tax Levy and (ii) Distributable State Aid.⁶¹

T. The LTGO Settlement. The LTGO Settlement Agreement and all Sections of the Plan pertaining to recoveries upon Limited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims, including Sections II.B.3.n and II.B.3.p.i.A of the Plan (such sections of the Plan, collectively with the LTGO Settlement Agreement, the "LTGO Settlement") are fair, equitable, reasonable and in the best interests of the City and its creditors and residents. The LTGO Settlement is the result of extensive arm's length negotiations among the City, the LTGO Insurer and BlackRock Financial Management (on behalf of certain managed funds and accounts) ("BlackRock"). The compromises and settlements embodied in the LTGO Settlement (1) resolve all disputes with respect to (a) the Plan and any objections filed by the LTGO Insurer or BlackRock related to the Plan, (b) the

Claims classified in Class 7 under the Plan and (c) all issues relating to Limited Tax General Obligation Bonds raised in the adversary proceeding brought before the Bankruptcy Court, captioned as Ambac Assurance Corp. v. City of Detroit, Michigan, No. 13-5310 (Bankr. E.D. Mich.) (the "Ambac Action"); and (2) are, collectively, a key compromise upon which several provisions of the Plan rest.⁶² In the absence of such compromises and settlements, the City's emergence from chapter 9 likely would have been delayed by litigation and burdened with additional expenses, with no assurance of a better result for the City. The treatment of Limited Tax General Obligation Bonds and related Limited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims under the Plan is part of the settlement of the Ambac Action, as such proceeding relates to such Bonds and Claims.

U. The OPEB Settlement. The OPEB Settlement is the result of extensive arm's length negotiations between the City and the Retiree Committee, which was represented by sophisticated counsel, and is an integral component of the City's global settlement of pension-related and other labor-related issues negotiated with, among others, the Retiree Committee. The compromises and settlements embodied in the OPEB Settlement (1) resolve all disputes with respect to the aggregate valuation of Claims classified in Class 12 under the Plan and the issues raised by the Retiree Committee in the Retiree Health Care Litigation; and ⁶² See Plan, at Exhibit I.A.237 (LTGO Settlement Agreement).

(2) are, collectively, a key compromise upon which several provisions of the Plan rest. In the absence of such compromises and settlements, the City's emergence from chapter 9 likely would have been delayed by litigation and burdened with additional expenses, with no assurance of a better result for the City.

1. The OPEB Settlement is in the best interests of the City and its creditors and residents as it fully resolves (a) the dispute between the City and the Retiree Committee regarding the aggregate valuation of OPEB Claims and the treatment of OPEB Claims under the Plan and (b) the Retiree Health Care Litigation. The OPEB Settlement is within the range of reasonable results if the disputes resolved by the OPEB Settlement, including the Retiree Health Care Litigation, were instead litigated to a conclusion.

V. The 36th District Court Settlement. The 36th District Court Settlement is the result of extensive arm's length negotiations among the City, the 36th District Court and the Settling 36th District Court Claimants. The compromises and settlements embodied in the 36th District Court Settlement resolve all disputes with respect to (1) the Plan and any objections filed by Settling 36th District Court Claimants related to the Plan and (2) the treatment of Indirect 36th District Court Claims under the Plan. In the absence of such compromises and settlements, the City's emergence from chapter 9 likely would have been delayed by litigation and burdened with additional expenses, with no assurance of a better result for the City.

1. The 36th District Court Settlement is in the best interests of the City and its creditors and residents as it not only resolves the treatment of Indirect 36th District Court Claims under the Plan, but also provides for the payment of the Settling 36th District Court Claimants' Claims at a significant discount while enabling the City to avoid further litigation with the Settling 36th District Court Claimants regarding the City's power to impair Indirect 36th District Court Claims under the Plan. The 36th District Court Settlement is within the range of reasonable results if the disputes resolved by the 36th District Court Settlement were instead litigated to a conclusion.

W. The Syncora Settlement. The Syncora Settlement is the result of extensive arm's length negotiations among the City, Syncora and other interested parties impacted by the Syncora Settlement, including the Retiree Committee and the LTGO Insurer. The Syncora Settlement includes a long term commitment by Syncora to the revitalization of core areas of the City and a partnership between Syncora and the City focused on the City's growth. Without limiting the foregoing, the Court hereby finds as follows with respect to the Syncora Settlement:

1. The compromises and settlements embodied in the Syncora Settlement resolve all disputes between the City and Syncora with respect to (a) any Class 9 Claim or Class 14 Claim held by Syncora, (b) the Plan and all objections filed by Syncora related to the Plan (including any objection related to the UTGO Settlement) and (c) all issues arising in connection with the Dismissed Syncora Litigation, including, but not limited to, issues arising in connection with the COP Swap Settlement and the Tunnel Lease. In the absence of the Syncora Settlement, the City's emergence from chapter 9 likely would have been delayed by additional litigation and burdened with additional expenses, with no assurance of a better result for the City. The Syncora Settlement is (a) a reasonable exercise of the City's business judgment and (b) within the range of reasonable results if the disputes resolved by the Syncora Settlement were instead litigated to a conclusion.

2. As part of the Syncora Settlement and to resolve all pending litigation involving the City and Syncora, the parties have agreed to enter into certain transactions (collectively, the "Syncora Redevelopment Transactions"), which include: (a) the amendment, assumption and extension of the Tunnel Lease;⁶³ (b) the Syncora Development Agreement;⁶⁴ and (c) the agreement between the City and Pike Pointe Holdings, LLC (the "Developer"), a subsidiary of

⁶⁴ See Plan, at Exhibit I.A.340.

Syncora, that provides the Developer, for a period of one year following the Effective Date, with the option to enter into a 30-year concession agreement to operate and maintain the Grand Circus Parking Garage. The Syncora Redevelopment Transactions will provide the City with benefits that the City otherwise would be unable to realize, including by laying the groundwork for a decades-long partnership between the City and Syncora that promises to provide substantial investment in, and rehabilitation of, City assets on a mutually beneficial basis. In addition, pursuant to the Syncora Settlement, the City will pay Syncora the sum of $5 million (the "Swap-Related Consideration") in consideration for Syncora's (a) dismissal of Syncora's appeals of the COP Swap Settlement Approval Order (Docket No. 4094) and the Order Regarding Casino Revenues and Automatic Stay (Docket No. 670) and (b) withdrawal of Syncora's other litigation claims arising from the COP Swap Documents.⁶⁵ The Swap-Related Consideration, and any consideration provided by the City to Syncora in connection with the Syncora Redevelopment Transactions, is separate and distinct from, and constitutes no part of, the treatment under the Plan of Class 9 COP Claims. The Syncora Development Agreement is solely for the benefit of Syncora (subject to any provision set forth in the Plan for payment of COP Agent Fees). The Syncora

⁶⁵ See Plan, at § IV.I.

Settlement provides benefits to Classes 7, 12 and 14 under the Plan that would otherwise have been unavailable thereto.

X. The FGIC/COP Settlement. The FGIC/COP Settlement is the result of extensive good faith, arm's length negotiations among the City, FGIC, the FGIC COP Holders and the State. The FGIC/COP Settlement is founded on a long term commitment by FGIC to the revitalization of core areas of the City and a partnership among FGIC, the City and the State focused on the City's growth. Without limiting the foregoing, the Court hereby finds as follows with respect to the FGIC/COP Settlement:

1. The compromises and settlements embodied in the FGIC/COP Settlement resolve all disputes between the City, FGIC and the FGIC COP Holders with respect to (a) all Class 9 or Class 14 Claims held by FGIC and all Class 9 Claims held by the FGIC COP Holders, (b) the Plan and any objection filed by FGIC or the FGIC COP Holders related to the Plan and (c) all issues arising in connection with the Dismissed FGIC/COP Litigation. In the absence of the FGIC/COP Settlement, the City's emergence from chapter 9 likely would have been delayed by litigation and burdened with additional expenses, with no assurance of a better result for the City. The FGIC/COP Settlement is (a) a reasonable exercise of the City's business judgment and (b) within the range of reasonable results if the disputes resolved by the FGIC/COP Settlement were instead litigated to a conclusion.

2. As part of the FGIC/COP Settlement and to resolve all pending litigation involving the City and FGIC, the City and FGIC have agreed to enter into the FGIC Development Agreement. The FGIC Development Agreement will provide the City with various benefits that the City otherwise would be unable to realize, including by laying the groundwork for a decades-long partnership among the City, FGIC and the State that promises to provide substantial investment in, and rehabilitation of, City assets. Any consideration provided by the City to FGIC in connection with the FGIC Development Agreement is separate and distinct from, and constitutes no part of, the treatment under the Plan of Class 9 COP Claims. The FGIC Settlement Consideration and the FGIC Development Agreement are solely for the benefit of FGIC and the FGIC COP Holders (subject to any provision set forth in the Plan for payment of COP Agent Fees).⁶⁶

⁶⁶ In addition, pursuant to the FGIC/COP Settlement, in full satisfaction and discharge of FGIC's Claims against the City related to the COP Swap Documents, FGIC will receive an Allowed Class 14 Claim in the amount of $6.13 million and the Downtown Development Authority shall assign to FGIC all of the Downtown Development Authority's right, title and interest to its distribution of New B Notes under the Plan on account of its $33.6 million Class 13 Claim. This consideration is solely for FGIC's benefit.

The FGIC/COP Settlement provides benefits to Classes 7, 12 and 14 under the Plan that would otherwise have been unavailable thereto.

3. The consideration to be paid by the City pursuant to the Syncora Settlement and the FGIC/COP Settlement is expected to be offset by certain newly-identified sources of revenue not incorporated into the City's July and September 2014 Projections (the "Prior Projections"), meaning that (a) the City's overall cash position set forth in the Prior Projections remains materially unchanged in the City's October 2014 Projections (incorporating the costs of the Syncora Settlement and the FGIC/COP Settlement) and (b) the City will have sufficient cash and revenues to satisfy its obligations under the Settlements and meet its operating expenses going forward.

Y. ASF Recoupment. ASF Recoupment, as set forth at Section II.B.3.r.ii.D of the Plan, is: (1) an integral component of the City's global settlement of pension-related and other labor-related issues negotiated with, among others, the Retirement Systems and the Retiree Committee; and (2) is well within the range of possible reasonable settlements.

1. During the period beginning in the mid-1980s until fiscal year 2012, Annuity Savings Fund accounts maintained on behalf of certain participants (who voluntarily contributed after tax dollars into the Annuity Savings Fund maintained by the GRS) often were credited with interest in excess of the actual or market rate of return for assets in the GRS Traditional Pension Plan (such interest, the "ASF Excess Interest"). Because the assets credited to such Annuity Savings Fund accounts were coinvested with the assets of the GRS Traditional Pension Plan, assets of the GRS Traditional Pension Plan were allocated to the applicable Annuity Savings Fund accounts to fund such ASF Excess Interest. The City asserts that the aggregate total of such ASF Excess Interest credited during the period from 2003 through 2013 was approximately $387 million. The ASF Recoupment contemplated by the Plan would recover approximately $190 million in total ASF Excess Interest credited to Annuity Savings Fund accounts through reductions to retiree pension benefits and asset transfers from active GRS participants.

2. The City has argued that the crediting of ASF Excess Interest to Annuity Savings Fund accounts constitutes a violation under Michigan Public Act 314 of 1965, the Public Employee Retirement System Investment Act, as well as the common law of trusts of the fiduciary duties owed to the GRS Traditional Pension Plan by the GRS Trustees and was an ultra vires act under the Detroit City Charter. Several GRS participants object, and assert a number of defenses to, the ASF Recoupment proposed by the City.

3. The Court does not rule on the merits of the City's claim to recover ASF Recoupment or the merits of the GRS participants' defenses.

The Court reviews the parties' respective positions solely to determine whether the ASF Recoupment component of the City's broader pension-related settlement is reasonable. The Court finds substantial merit in the City's claim to recover ASF Excess Interest. The legal authority of the GRS Trustees to credit ASF Savings Fund Accounts with ASF Excess Interest was doubtful, and the prudence of the practice even more so. The Court further finds that the defenses to ASF Recoupment asserted by the objecting GRS participants likely have little merit. Accordingly, the Court finds that the City would have a reasonable likelihood of success (between 60% and 70%) on any claim to recover ASF Excess Interest. Nevertheless, the length, complexity and expense of any such litigation, and related issues of collectability, would be substantial.

4. ASF participants received due process of law with respect to ASF Recoupment. In particular, ASF participants received (a) the Plain Language Supplement as part of their Solicitation Packages describing in detail the effect of ASF Recoupment (as well as subsequent communications from the City, the Retiree Committee, the Retirement Systems and certain retiree associations) and (b) sufficient opportunity to object to the Plan and ASF Recoupment, an opportunity exercised by many ASF participants.⁶⁷

⁶⁷ See Certificate of Service (Docket No. 6177), at ¶¶ 10, 14.

5. ASF Recoupment will not cause the amounts recovered from ASF Distribution Recipients to exceed the ASF Recoupment Cap or the Current GRS Retiree Adjustment Cap as such amounts are amortized over time using a 6.75% interest rate. Subject to Section II.B.3.r of the Plan, GRS participants subject to ASF Recoupment have the option to pay the ASF Recoupment Amount in a lump sum. The caps and other limitations on ASF Recoupment limit the hardship resulting to GRS participants therefrom.

Z. Plan Releases. Each non-Debtor party that will benefit from the releases, exculpations and related injunctions set forth in, among others, Sections III.D.5, III.D.6 and III.D.7 of the Plan (collectively, the "Plan Releases") either shares an identity of interest with the City, was instrumental to the successful prosecution of the Chapter 9 Case or provided substantial consideration, which value will allow for distributions that would not otherwise be available but for the contributions made by such non-Debtor parties. The Plan Releases are, individually and collectively, integral to, and necessary for the successful implementation of, the Plan, essential to the City's restructuring and supported by reasonable consideration. The City and all creditors that voted to accept the Plan have expressly consented to the Plan Releases. Releases of non-Debtor parties pursuant to Section III.D.7 of the Plan were appropriately disclosed by the City in the Disclosure Statement, on each Ballot mailed to creditors and in the Plain Language Supplement.⁶⁸ Accordingly, in light of all of the circumstances, the Plan Releases are consonant with the prevailing law in this District and are fair to the releasing parties. Without limiting the foregoing, the Court hereby finds as follows with respect to the Plan Releases:

1. The releases set forth in Section III.D.7.a of the Plan are consensual releases that apply only to holders of Claims that voted to accept the Plan. The Plan's consensual release provisions are lawful and appropriate.

2. The exculpation provision contained in Section III.D.6 of the Plan complies with applicable law and is appropriate. Such provision contains a carve-out for gross negligence and willful misconduct and is limited to claims arising out of the City's restructuring efforts and the Chapter 9 Case. In addition, the Plan's exculpation provision extends only to certain parties who either have settled with the City or have actively participated in the City's restructuring activities.

3. The non-consensual third party releases and related injunctions contained in the Plan (as such releases and injunctions may have been modified herein with respect to claims asserted against officers and employees of the City in their individual capacity pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 (see ¶¶ 22, 32 below)) are lawful and appropriate because unusual circumstances exist in the ⁶⁸ See, e.g., Disclosure Statement, at 16, 28-29, 37, 39, 50, 52, 60.

City's Chapter 9 Case that justify their application. As far as this Court is aware, this is the first chapter 9 case wherein (a) the debtor has sought to compromise pension benefits for a municipality's active and retired workforce and (b) third parties under no obligation to contribute funds to creditors of a municipal debtor have volunteered to provide funding in addition to proposed recoveries under the debtor's plan of adjustment.

4. As part of the Grand Bargain, the State has agreed to contribute $194.8 million to reduce the Retirement Systems' underfunding.⁶⁹ The settlements the City reached with representatives of its retirees and employees are conditioned upon the receipt of the State funding.⁷⁰ The contributions to be made by the State pursuant to the State Contribution Agreement are made in exchange for the release of, among other things, (a) the constitutionally-based claims asserted by the Retirement Systems and holders of Pension Claims that such Claims may not be impaired and (b) certain litigation identified in the State Contribution Agreement. The funding obligation of the State under the State Contribution Agreement is expressly conditioned upon the State and the State Related Entities obtaining the release set forth in Section III.D.7.b of the Plan.⁷¹

⁶⁹ See Plan, at Exhibit I.A.332 (State Contribution Agreement).

⁷¹ See Plan, Exhibit I.A.332, at 5.

The funding obligation of the DIA Funders under the DIA Settlement Documents is expressly conditioned upon the State's provision of funding pursuant to the State Contribution Agreement.⁷² Because (a) the consummation of both the State Contribution Agreement and the DIA Settlement – and, thus, the State's and DIA Funders' respective contributions pursuant thereto – depends upon the approval of the releases set forth at Section III.D.7.b of the Plan; (b) the releases set forth at Section III.D.7.b of the Plan apply only with respect to holders of Class 10 and Class 11 Claims, i.e., direct beneficiaries of both the State Contribution Agreement and the DIA Settlement; and (c) such provisions otherwise comply with applicable law, the Court hereby finds that the releases set forth at Section III.D.7.b of the Plan and any related injunctions are lawful and appropriate under the unusual circumstances of the City's Chapter 9 Case.

MISCELLANEOUS

AA. Exit Facility. The terms and conditions of the Exit Facility and all of the transaction documents governing the Exit Facility, including, but not limited to, bond purchase agreements, indentures, bond forms, account control agreements and all other related documents and agreements (collectively, the "Exit Facility Documents") and the fees to be paid thereunder (1) are fair and reasonable, (2) reflect the City's exercise of prudent judgment, (3) are supported by reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration, (4) are proposed in good faith, (5) are critical to the success and feasibility of the Plan and (6) are in the best interests of the City. The Exit Facility and the fees to be paid thereunder are the result of a full and fair marketing process conducted by the City and its agents and advisors.

The Exit Facility and the Exit Facility Documents and the fees to be paid thereunder were negotiated in good faith, without fraud or collusion and at arm's length among the parties, without the intent to hinder, delay or defraud any creditor of the City, and are supported by reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration. Credit extended under the Exit Facility and the Exit Facility Documents is extended in good faith for purposes and uses that are permitted by law, and not in violation of the Bankruptcy Code or of applicable nonbankruptcy law, and the Exit Facility (including the transactions contemplated by the Exit Facility Documents) is not prohibited by applicable bankruptcy or nonbankruptcy law. Each of (1) the MFA, (2) Barclays Capital Inc. (or such other qualifying affiliate as transferee), (3) the indenture trustee to be named under the Exit Facility Documents and (4) the holders of the bonds to be issued in connection with the Exit Facility (collectively, the "Exit Bonds"), therefore, shall not be affected by any reversal, modification, vacatur, amendment, reargument or reconsideration of this Order, any order finding jurisdiction, the Order for Relief or any other order.

BB. Waiver of Stay of Confirmation Order. To enable the City to (1) consummate the DIA Settlement and the State Contribution Agreement expeditiously, both of which settlements are conditioned upon the occurrence of the Effective Date; (2) begin implementing, and making distributions to the City's creditors pursuant to, the Plan; and (3) emerge from bankruptcy as expeditiously as possible to minimize costs to all parties and remedy its service delivery insolvency, good cause exists to support a waiver of the stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 3020(e).

ACCORDINGLY, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, AS FOLLOWS:

A. Confirmation of Plan

1. The Plan and each of its provisions (whether or not specifically approved herein) are CONFIRMED in each and every respect, pursuant to section 943 of the Bankruptcy Code. Failure specifically to include or reference particular sections or provisions of the Plan or any related agreement in this Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such sections or provisions, it being the intent of the Court that the Plan be confirmed and such related agreements be approved in their entirety.

2. The Effective Date of the Plan shall occur on the date determined by the City when the conditions set forth in Section III.A of the Plan have been satisfied or, if applicable, have been waived in accordance with Section III.B of the Plan.

3. Any objections or responses to Confirmation of the Plan and the reservation of rights contained therein that (a) have not been withdrawn, waived or settled prior to the entry of this Order or (b) are not cured by the relief granted herein are hereby OVERRULED in their entirety and on their merits, and all withdrawn objections or responses are hereby deemed withdrawn with prejudice.

B. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

4. Any finding of fact set forth in this Order constitutes a finding of fact even if it is stated as a conclusion of law, and any conclusion of law set forth in this Order constitutes a conclusion of law even if it is stated as a finding of fact. All findings of fact and conclusions of law announced by the Court on the record in connection with confirmation of the Plan or otherwise at the Confirmation Hearing or in the Confirmation Opinion are incorporated herein by reference.⁷³ The findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth herein, in the

⁷³ The findings of fact and conclusions of law that are (a) set forth herein, (b) announced on the record during the Confirmation Hearing and (c) in the Confirmation Opinion shall be construed in a manner consistent with each other so as to effect the purpose of each; provided, however, that if there is any direct conflict that cannot be reconciled, then, solely to the extent of such conflict, the provisions of the Confirmation Opinion shall govern and

Confirmation Opinion and in the record of the Confirmation Hearing constitute the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as made applicable herein by Bankruptcy Rules 7052 and 9014.

C. Approval of Settlements

5. Consistent with the findings herein, the DIA Settlement, the State Contribution Agreement, the UTGO Settlement, the LTGO Settlement, the 36th District Court Settlement, the OPEB Settlement, the Syncora Settlement and the FGIC/COP Settlement (collectively, the "Settlements"), including, without limitation, any and all of the transactions contemplated, liens granted and protections created therein, are approved in all respects as good faith, fair, reasonable and equitable compromises and settlements of all disputes with respect to the subject matter thereof that are in the best interests of the City and its creditors and residents.

6. The entry of this Order constitutes: (a) approval of the each of the Settlements pursuant to, as applicable, (i) the Bankruptcy Rules, including Bankruptcy Rule 9019, (ii) the Bankruptcy Code, including section 1123 thereof

8. As provided in the Plan, on the Effective Date, the UTGO Settlement Agreement shall be binding on the City, Ambac, Assured and NPMG. All exculpations and releases granted pursuant to the UTGO Settlement, including, without limitation, the releases and exculpations granted pursuant to Sections 6.1 and 6.2 of the UTGO Settlement Agreement, are hereby approved in their entirety.

The Court approves such settlements and releases on the grounds that good and valuable consideration has been provided therefor, and that such provisions are fair, equitable, reasonable and integral elements of the UTGO Settlement Agreement.

9. The proceeds of the UTGO Bond Tax Levy collected by the City shall be segregated and transmitted to the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee (as such term is defined at Section 2.4(a) of the UTGO Settlement Agreement) under the Debt Millage Escrow Agreement (as such term is defined at Section 1.2 of the UTGO Settlement Agreement), and the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee shall segregate and transmit the proceeds allocable to the Municipal Obligation to the Master Trustee (as such term is defined at Section 1.2 of the UTGO Settlement Agreement) in accordance with Section 2.4(a) of the UTGO Settlement Agreement.

10. Pursuant to the Section 2.7(b) of the UTGO Settlement Agreement, the City shall certify annually, not later than June 30 of each year, that it has imposed the debt millage levy as required by and in accordance with the terms of the UTGO Settlement Agreement.

11. All exculpations and releases granted pursuant to the LTGO Settlement, including, without limitation, the releases and exculpations granted pursuant to Sections 6.1 and 6.2 of the LTGO Settlement Agreement, are hereby approved in their entirety. The Court hereby approves such settlements and releases on the grounds that good and valuable consideration has been provided therefor, and that such provisions are fair, equitable, reasonable and integral elements of the LTGO Settlement.

12. All consent rights granted by the City to the LTGO Settlement Parties, on behalf of the holders of Allowed Limited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims, as reflected in the LTGO Settlement and specifically in Section II.B.3.p.i.A of the Plan, with respect to pre-Effective Date and post-Effective Date settlements of the COP Litigation are integral elements of the LTGO Settlement and supported by good and valuable consideration.

13. In accordance with the LTGO Settlement, each month, the City shall segregate and deposit into a debt service fund monies for the payment of one-sixth of the next semi-annual debt service payable on the New LTGO Bonds, which monies shall not be used for any purpose other than paying debt service on the New LTGO Bonds so long as any New LTGO Bonds remain outstanding.

14. The Syncora Settlement Documents, including, but not limited to, (a) the Settlement Agreement between the City and Syncora, (b) the Syncora Development Agreement (including the garage option) and (c) the Tunnel Lease, and all transactions contemplated thereby, are hereby approved in all respects. The Syncora Development Agreement shall be administered by, and consideration related thereto shall be distributed to, Syncora in a manner consistent with this Order and the Plan.

15. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Order or the Plan (including, without limitation, Sections II.B.3.p.i.A, III.D.6 or IV.L of the Plan, the FGIC/COP Settlement or the Syncora Settlement): (a) none of the form, method, mechanics or allocation of distributions in Section II.B.3.p.i.A of the Plan, nor any findings or orders of the Bankruptcy Court related thereto, shall, or shall be asserted or construed to, affect or prejudice any rights, claims or defenses between the COP Swap Counterparties, on the one hand, and any Settling COP Claimant (including Syncora, FGIC and the FGIC COP Holders) or COP Insurer, on the other hand. Subject to the proviso at the end of this paragraph, the preceding sentence hereby amends and replaces in its entirety the fourth paragraph of Section II.B.3.p.i.A of the Plan; (b) neither (i) any determinations, adjudications, findings or rulings in the Plan or by the Bankruptcy Court regarding the distributions or consideration provided to the COP Insurers or the Settling COP Claimants under the Plan, including whether such distributions or consideration are solely for the benefit of any particular parties nor (ii) any acceleration or deemed acceleration of any COPs provided for in the Plan or by the Bankruptcy Court shall in any way affect or prejudice any rights, claims or defenses of the COP Swap Counterparties, including with respect to such distributions or consideration; and (c) no release or agreement by any COP Agent provided for in the Plan (including, without limitation any agreement not to sue any COP Holder or any COP Insurer in Section II.B.3.p.i.A of the Plan) or by the Bankruptcy Court, shall in any way affect any liability of such COP Holder, COP Insurer or COP Agent to any COP Swap Counterparty (or to any COP Agent on behalf of such COP Swap Counterparty) or impair in any way the rights or obligations of any COP Swap Counterparty or COP Agent (on behalf of any COP Swap Counterparty) to sue any COP Holder, COP Insurer or COP Agent; provided, however that, notwithstanding anything in this paragraph to the contrary, the COP Swap Counterparties have agreed not to, and shall not, seek to enjoin, block, prevent, subject to any lien (other than a judgment lien) or otherwise interfere with (a) the distribution by the Debtor of the Class 9 Settlement Asset Pool and New B Notes to, as applicable, FGIC, the FGIC COP Holders, Syncora and the Settling COP Claimants under and as provided for in Section II.B.3.p.i.A of the Plan, (b) any performance, operation, administration of, sale of, transfer of, assignment of or other action with respect to the FGIC Development Agreement, the Syncora Development Agreement or the Tunnel Lease (it being understood that this clause (b) shall not impair any rights or claims of the COP Swap Counterparties to monetary damages related to such agreements or the value thereof), or (c) except as a defense, counterclaim or claim against and in response to a party asserting a counterclaim, in each case asserted by either of the COP Swap Counterparties, distributions to FGIC, the FGIC COP

Holders, Syncora and the Settling COP Claimants (as applicable) of the proceeds of any of the foregoing.

16. The FGIC/COP Settlement Documents, including, but not limited to, (a) the Settlement Agreement between the City and FGIC, (b) the Stipulation Regarding FGIC Plan COP Settlement and FGIC COP Swap Settlement and (c) the FGIC Development Agreement, and all transactions contemplated thereby are hereby approved in all respects. The FGIC Settlement Consideration and the FGIC Development Agreement shall be administered and distributed to FGIC and the FGIC COP Holders in a manner consistent with this Order and the Plan. The allocation of Plan distributions among FGIC and the FGIC COP Holders shall be determined in accordance with agreements among FGIC and the FGIC COP Holders disclosed in a term sheet filed with the Court on October 22, 2014, as the same was amended on October 27, 2014 and may be subsequently amended (with the written consent of the parties thereto) and more fully documented (the "FGIC/FGIC COP Holders Term Sheet"). Pursuant to the FGIC/COP Settlement, the Downtown Development Authority shall, as of the Effective Date, irrevocably assign to FGIC all of the New B Notes that the Downtown Development Authority is entitled to receive pursuant to its Class 13 Allowed Claim.

17. The COP Service Corporations shall enter into such Supplemental Trust Agreements as FGIC and Syncora may reasonably request with respect to their respective insured COPs as long as such Supplemental Trust Agreements (a) do not impose any additional obligations or liability on the COP Service Corporations and (b) are consistent with the allocation of Plan distributions among FGIC and the FGIC COP Holders agreed to by and among FGIC and the FGIC COP Holders pursuant to the FGIC/FGIC COP Holders Term Sheet.

18. Pursuant to and in accordance with the New C Notes Documents, revenues collected by the City related to (a) tickets issued for parking violations (including, but not limited to, meter collections, towing, storage fees and booting fees), other than revenues that would otherwise be paid to the 36th District Court, and (b) if the New C Notes are issued in a principal amount greater than $21,271,804, garage operations at the Parking Garages (collectively, the "City Parking Revenues") shall be directly remitted to a bank or banks or other financial institution which the Emergency Manager designates as a depository of the City (such institution, the "Depository Bank"). The Depository Bank shall deposit City Parking Revenues received by it into a special, separate and segregated fund (the "City Parking Revenue Fund") established at the Depository Bank. Beginning on the date of delivery of the New C Notes and commencing on the first day of each fiscal year thereafter, each day, City Parking Revenues deposited into the City

Parking Revenue Fund shall be remitted by the Depository Bank to a special, separate and segregated account held for and on behalf of the City (the "Debt Retirement Fund") by the bond registrar, transfer agent and paying agent for the New C Notes until sufficient funds are on deposit in the Debt Retirement Fund to pay the principal and interest payable on the New C Notes on the last day of that Fiscal Year (such amount, the "Annual Deposit Requirement"). Once the Annual Deposit Requirement is satisfied for that fiscal year, any additional City Parking Revenues deposited in the City Parking Revenue Fund during that fiscal year may be remitted to the City for deposit into the General Fund and may be used by the City for any other purposes permitted by law.

D. Approval of Releases and Exculpation

19. The Plan Releases set forth in Section III.D.7 of the Plan are approved in all respects, are incorporated herein in their entirety, are so ordered and shall be immediately effective on the Effective Date of the Plan without further order or action on the part of the Court, any of the parties to such releases or any other party.

20. Without limiting any other applicable provisions of, or releases contained in, the Plan, this Order or any contracts, instruments, releases, agreements or documents to be entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, as of the Effective Date, in consideration for the obligations of the City under the Plan and the consideration and other contracts, instruments, releases, agreements or documents to be entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan (including the State Contribution Agreement), each holder of a Claim that voted in favor of the Plan, to the fullest extent permissible under law, is hereby deemed to forever release, waive and discharge all Liabilities in any way relating to: (a) the City, the Chapter 9 Case (including the authorization given to file the Chapter 9 Case), the Plan, the Exhibits or the Disclosure Statement, in each case that such holder has, had or may have against the City or its current and former officials, officers, directors, employees, managers, attorneys, advisors and professionals, each acting in such capacity (and, in addition to and without limiting the foregoing, in the case of any Emergency Manager, in such Emergency Manager's capacity as an appointee under PA 436), provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, any person or entity designated to manage the Chapter 9 Case for the City after the Emergency Manager's term is terminated, whether such person or entity acts as an employee, advisor or contractor to the City or acts as an employee, agent, contractor or appointee of the State under any applicable state law, shall be treated the same as an employee of the City hereunder; and (b) (i) Claims that are compromised, settled or discharged under or in connection with the Plan, (ii) the Chapter 9 Case (including the authorization given to file the Chapter 9 Case), (iii) the Plan, (iv) the Exhibits, (v) the Disclosure Statement or

(vi) the DIA Settlement, in each case that such holder has, had or may have against the City's Related Entities, the State, the State Related Entities and the Released Parties; provided, however, that any such Liability of the Foundations, the DIA Funders and the CFSEM Supporting Organization and their Related Entities shall be released only to the extent that such Liability, if any, arises from any such entity's participation in the DIA Settlement.

21. Nothing in paragraph 20 hereof shall (a) affect the liability of the City, its Related Entities and the Released Parties that otherwise would result from any act or omission to the extent that act or omission subsequently is determined in a Final Order to have constituted gross negligence or willful misconduct; or (b) release (i) the City's obligations under the Plan or (ii) any defenses that any party may have against the City, its Related Entities, the State, the State Related Entities or the Released Parties.

22. For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything in the Plan or this Order (including paragraph 20) to the contrary, claims against officers or employees of the City in their individual capacity under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 shall not be released.

23. If the State Contribution Agreement is consummated, each holder of a Pension Claim will be deemed forever to release, waive and discharge all Liabilities arising from or related to the City, the Chapter 9 Case, including the authorization given to file the Chapter 9 Case, the Plan, all Exhibits, the Disclosure Statement, PA 436 and its predecessor or replacement statutes, and Article IX, Section 24 of the Michigan Constitution that such party has, had or may have against the State and any State Related Entities. For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing sentence does not provide for a release, waiver or discharge of obligations of the City that are established in the Plan or that arise from and after the Effective Date with respect to (a) pensions as modified by the Plan or (b) labor-related obligations, which post-Effective Date obligations shall be enforceable against the City or its representatives by active or retired employees or their collective bargaining representatives to the extent permitted by applicable non-bankruptcy law or the Plan, or, with respect to pensions only, the GRS or the PFRS.

24. As a condition to the State funding, the State and certain parties, including Michigan Council 25, Sub-Chapter 98, Local 3308 and Local 917 of AFSCME, entered into certain Support and Release Agreements and, for the avoidance of doubt, in the event of an express conflict between any such Support and Release Agreement, on the one hand, and the Plan, Plan Supplements or this Order, on the other hand, as to the parties to these Support and Release Agreements, their respective Support and Release Agreement shall govern.

25. Notwithstanding Sections III.D.5 through III.D.7 and IV.L of the Plan, paragraph Z of the above findings (titled "Plan Releases") and paragraphs 19 through 21 and 29 through 33 hereof, except as set forth in the COP Swap Settlement, nothing in the Plan or this Order shall or shall be deemed to provide a release by the COP Swap Counterparties of any Liabilities related to the COPs, the COP Service Corporations, the Transaction Documents (as defined in the COP Swap Settlement), the COP Swap Settlement or the COP Swap Settlement Approval Order.

26. Without limiting any other applicable provisions of, or releases contained in, the Plan or any contracts, instruments, releases, agreements or documents to be entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, as of the Effective Date, in consideration for the obligations under the Plan and the consideration and other contracts, instruments, releases, agreements or documents to be entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, each Settling COP Claimant shall be, and hereby is, to the fullest extent permitted under law, deemed to forever release, waive and discharge all Liabilities relating to COP Documents such Settling COP Claimant has, had or may have against the (a) the GRS, (b) the PFRS or (c) Related Entities of either the GRS or the PFRS. At the direction of FGIC, which shall be, and hereby is, deemed given on the Effective Date, the COP Contract Administrator shall have irrevocably agreed (on behalf of itself, any successors and each FGIC COP Holder) to release and not to sue any COP Holder or any COP Insurer on behalf of any FGIC COP Holder, COP Insurer, the Detroit Retirement Systems Funding Trust 2005 or the Detroit Retirement Systems Funding Trust 2006 in connection with any liability arising in connection with or related to (a) Sections 6.5 and 9.1 of the Contract Administration Agreements, (b) Section 8.03 of the COP Service Contracts, (c) distributions made pursuant to or in connection with Section II.B.3.p.i.A of the Plan, (d) the FGIC/COP Settlement or (e) the Syncora Settlement. On the Effective Date, Syncora and FGIC shall be, and hereby are, to the fullest extent permitted under law, deemed to forever mutually release, waive and discharge all liabilities against each other relating to distributions made pursuant to or in connection with Section II.B.3.p.i.A of the Plan, Sections 6.5 and 9.1 of the Contract Administration Agreements or Section 8.03 of the COP Service Contracts.

27. The exculpation provision set forth in Section III.D.6 of the Plan is approved in all respects, is incorporated herein in its entirety, is so ordered and shall be immediately effective on the Effective Date of the Plan without further order or action on the part of the Court, any of the parties to such exculpation or any other party. From and after the Effective Date, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law and except as expressly set forth in this paragraph, neither the City; its Related Entities (including the members of the City Council, the Mayor and the Emergency Manager), to the extent a claim arises from actions taken by such Related Entity in its capacity as a Related Entity of the City; the State; the State Related Entities; the Exculpated Parties; nor the Released Parties shall have or incur any liability to any person or Entity for any act or omission in connection with, relating to or arising out of the City's restructuring efforts and the Chapter 9 Case, including the authorization given to file the Chapter 9 Case, the formulation, preparation, negotiation, dissemination, consummation, implementation, confirmation or approval (as applicable) of the Plan, the property to be distributed under the Plan, the settlements implemented under the Plan, the Exhibits, the Disclosure Statement, any contract, instrument, release or other agreement or document provided for or contemplated in connection with the consummation of the transactions set forth in the Plan or the management or operation of the City; provided that the foregoing provisions shall, and hereby do, apply to (a) the LTGO Exculpated Parties solely in connection with acts or omissions taken in connection with the LTGO Settlement Agreement or the Plan (as it relates to the LTGO Settlement Agreement), (b) the UTGO Exculpated Parties solely in connection with acts or omissions taken in connection with the UTGO Settlement Agreement or the Plan (as it relates to the UTGO Settlement Agreement), (c) the DWSD Exculpated Parties solely in connection with acts or omissions taken in connection with the DWSD Tender, DWSD Tender Motion or DWSD Tender Order, (d) the

Syncora Exculpated Parties solely in connection with acts or omissions taken in connection with the Syncora Settlement Documents and any actions or litigation positions taken by the Syncora Exculpated Parties in the Chapter 9 Case, (e) the FGIC/COP Exculpated Parties solely in connection with acts or omissions taken in connection with the FGIC/COP Settlement Documents and any actions or litigation positions taken by the FGIC/COP Exculpated Parties in the Chapter 9 Case, (f) the RDPMA Exculpated Parties and (g) the COP Agent, solely in its capacity as such and solely in connection with any Distributions made pursuant to the terms of the Plan; provided, further, that the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not affect the liability of the City, its Related Entities, the State, the State Related Entities, the Released Parties and the Exculpated Parties that otherwise would result from any such act or omission to the extent that such act or omission is determined in a Final Order to have constituted gross negligence or willful misconduct or any act or omission occurring before the Petition Date. The City, its Related Entities (with respect to actions taken by such Related Entities in their capacities as Related Entities of the City), the State, the State Related Entities, the Released Parties and the Exculpated Parties shall be entitled to rely upon the advice of counsel and financial advisors with respect to their duties and responsibilities under, or in connection with, the Chapter 9 Case, the administration thereof and the Plan. This paragraph shall not affect any liability of

(a) any of the COP Swap Exculpated Parties to the Syncora Exculpated Parties or FGIC or (b) the Syncora Exculpated Parties or the FGIC/COP Exculpated Parties to any of the COP Swap Exculpated Parties. For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything in the Plan or this paragraph to the contrary, officers or employees of the City acting in their individual capacity shall not be exculpated from liability for claims asserted pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

E. Order Binding on All Parties

28. Subject to the provisions of Section III.A of the Plan, in accordance with section 944(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and notwithstanding any otherwise applicable law, upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, the terms of the Plan and this Order shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of: (a) the City; (b) any and all holders of Claims (irrespective of whether (i) any such Claim is impaired under the Plan, (ii) proof of any such Claim has been filed or deemed filed under section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code, (iii) any such Claim is allowed under section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code or (iv) whether the holders of such Claims accepted, rejected or are deemed to have accepted or rejected the Plan); (c) the registered and beneficial holders of COPs; (d) any other person giving, acquiring or receiving property under the Plan; (e) any and all non-Debtor parties to Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases with the City; (f) any party to any Settlement; and (g) the respective heirs, executors, administrators, trustees, affiliates, officers, directors, agents, representatives, attorneys, beneficiaries, guardians, successors or assigns, if any, of any of the foregoing. All settlements (including, without limitation, the Settlements), compromises, releases (including, without limitation, the Plan Releases), waivers, discharges, exculpations and injunctions set forth in the Plan shall be, and hereby are, operative, effective and binding on all Persons who may have had standing to assert any settled, released, discharged, exculpated or enjoined causes of action, and no other Person or entity shall possess such standing to assert such causes of action after the Effective Date. The compromises and settlements (including, without limitation, the Settlements) embodied in the Plan, along with the treatment of any associated Allowed Claims, shall not be subject to any collateral attack or other challenge by any Entity in any court or other forum.

F. Discharge of Claims

29. The Plan discharge provisions set forth in Section III.D.4 of the Plan are approved in all respects, are incorporated herein in their entirety, are so ordered and shall be immediately effective on the Effective Date of the Plan without further order or action on the part of the Court or any other party.

30. In accordance with Section III.D.4 of the Plan, except as specifically provided otherwise in the Plan or this Order, as of the Effective Date, pursuant to sections 524(a)(1), 524(a)(2) and 944(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, all debts of the City shall be, and hereby are, discharged, and such discharge will void any judgment obtained against the City at any time, to the extent that such judgment relates to a discharged debt; provided that, in accordance with section 944(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, such discharge shall not apply to (a) debts specifically exempted from discharge under the Plan, (b) debts held by an Entity that, before the Confirmation Date, had neither notice nor actual knowledge of the Chapter 9 Case, (c) claims against officers or employees of the City in their individual capacity under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 or (d) Claims of (i) T&T Management, Inc., (ii) HRT Enterprises and (iii) the John W. and Vivian M. Denis Trust related to condemnation or inverse condemnation actions against the City alleging that the City has taken private property without just compensation in violation of the Takings Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

G. Release of Liens

31. The release and discharge of all Liens against the City's property set forth in Section IV.M of the Plan are approved in all respects, are incorporated herein in their entirety, are so ordered and shall be immediately effective on the Effective Date of the Plan without further order or action on the part of the Court. As of the Effective Date, (a) the holders of such Liens are hereby authorized and directed to release any collateral or other property of the City (including any cash collateral) held by such holder and to take such actions as may be requested by the City to evidence the release of such Lien, including (i) the execution, delivery, filing or recording of appropriate releases and (ii) the taking of any action necessary to implement, consummate and otherwise effect the Plan in accordance with its terms, and (b) the City shall be authorized to execute and file on behalf of creditors such forms as may be necessary or appropriate to implement the provisions of Section IV.M of the Plan and this paragraph. All entities holding Claims against the City shall be, and hereby are, bound by the terms and provisions of all documents executed and delivered by them in connection with the Plan.

Upon the entry of this Order, all entities holding Claims against the City that are treated under the Plan, and other parties in interest, along with their respective present or former employees, agents, officers, directors or principals, shall be, and hereby are, enjoined from taking any actions to interfere with the implementation and consummation of the Plan.

H. Injunction

32. On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in this Order, all Entities that have been, are or may be holders of Claims against the City, Indirect 36th District Court Claims or Indirect Employee Indemnity Claims asserted against officers or employees of the City in their official capacity, along with their Related Entities, shall be, and hereby are, permanently enjoined from taking any of the following actions against or affecting the City or its property, DIA Corp. or its property, the DIA Assets, the Released Parties or their respective property and the Related Entities of each of the foregoing, with respect to such Claims (other than actions brought to enforce any rights or obligations under the Plan and appeals, if any, from this Order): (a) commencing, conducting or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action or other proceeding of any kind against or affecting the City or its property (including (i) all suits, actions and proceedings that are pending as of the Effective Date, which must be withdrawn or dismissed with prejudice, (ii) Indirect 36th District Court Claims and (iii) Indirect Employee Indemnity Claims asserted against officers or employees of the City in their official capacity); (b) enforcing, levying, attaching, collecting or otherwise recovering by any manner or means, directly or indirectly, any judgment, award, decree or order against the City or its property; (c) creating, perfecting or otherwise enforcing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any encumbrance of any kind against the City or its property; (d) asserting any setoff, right of subrogation or recoupment of any kind, directly or indirectly, against any obligation due the City or its property; (e) proceeding in any manner in any place whatsoever that does not conform to or comply with the provisions of this Order, the Plan or the Settlements (to the extent such Settlements have been approved by the Court herein); and (f) taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan. For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything in the Plan or this Order (including this paragraph) to the contrary, claims against officers or employees of the City in their individual capacity under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 shall not be enjoined. In addition, all individuals affected by the AFS Recoupment are enjoined from commencing any proceeding against the GRS and its trustees, officers, employees or professionals arising from GRS's compliance with the Plan or this Order.

33. All Entities that have held, currently hold or may hold any Liabilities released pursuant to the Plan shall be, and hereby are, permanently enjoined from taking any of the following actions against the State, the State Related Entities, the officers, board of trustees/directors, attorneys, advisors and professionals of the RDPFFA or the DRCEA, and the Released Parties or any of their respective property on account of such released Liabilities: (a) commencing, conducting or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action or other proceeding of any kind; (b) enforcing, levying, attaching, collecting or otherwise recovering by any manner or means, directly or indirectly, any judgment, award, decree or order; (c) creating, perfecting or otherwise enforcing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any lien; (d) asserting any setoff, right of subrogation or recoupment of any kind, directly or indirectly, against any obligation due the State, a State Related Entity, the officers, board of trustees/directors, attorneys, advisors and professionals of the RDPFFA or the DRCEA, or a Released Party; and (e) commencing or continuing any action, in any manner, in any place that does not comply with or is inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan or this Order. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph and without limiting the injunctions in Section III.D.5.a of the Plan or paragraph 32 hereof, the holders of Indirect 36th District Court Claims shall not be enjoined from taking any of the foregoing actions against the State or the State Related Entities with respect to Indirect 36th District Court Claims to the extent such Claims are not satisfied pursuant to the Plan.

34. During the period that begins on the Effective Date and ends on June 30, 2023, the trustees of the PFRS, the trustees of the GRS or the trustees of any successor trust or pension plan to either the PFRS or the GRS shall adopt and maintain an investment return assumption and discount rate for purposes of determining the assets and liabilities of the PFRS or the GRS (as applicable) that shall be 6.75%. Except as may be required to maintain the tax-qualified status of the PFRS or the GRS, or to comply with the terms of the Plan or this Order, the City, the trustees of the PFRS, the trustees of the GRS and all other persons or entities shall be, and hereby are, enjoined from and against the subsequent amendment of the terms, conditions and rules of operation of either the PFRS, the GRS or any successor plan or trust to either the PFRS or the GRS, that govern the calculation of pension benefits (including, as applicable, the PFRS Adjusted Pension Amount, the GRS Adjusted Pension Amount, accrual of additional benefits, the DIA Proceeds Default Amount, the Prior PFRS Pension Plan, the Prior GRS Pension Plan, the PFRS Restoration Payment, the GRS Restoration Payment, the New PFRS Active Pension Plan Formula, the New GRS Active Pension Plan Formula, the terms of the New PFRS Active Pension Plan and the terms of the New GRS Active Pension Plan) or against any action that governs the selection of the investment return assumptions described in Section II.B.3.q.ii.B of the Plan (with respect to the PFRS) or Section II.B.3.r.ii.B of the Plan (with respect to the GRS), the contributions to the PFRS or the GRS, or the calculation or amount of PFRS pension benefits or GRS pension benefits (as the case may be), for the period ending June 30, 2023, notwithstanding whether that subsequent amendment or act is created or undertaken by contract, agreement (including collective bargaining agreement), statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, charter, resolution or otherwise by operation of law.

I. State Contribution Agreement

35. The State Contribution Agreement is approved in all respects, and the City is hereby authorized to enter into, and take any action necessary to perform under or implement, the terms thereof. The State shall file and serve via the Court's electronic case filing and noticing system a notice that the conditions precedent to the State's payment of the State Contribution (as set forth at Section IV.D.3 of the Plan) have been satisfied or otherwise addressed pursuant to the procedures outlined in the State Contribution Agreement no later than ten days after all such conditions have been satisfied or otherwise addressed.

36. In accordance with Section IV.D.2 of the Plan, the Income Stabilization Funds of the GRS and the PFRS shall receive not less than an aggregate amount of $20 million over 14 years of the Assigned UTGO Bond Tax Proceeds in the form of annual installment payments pursuant to a payment schedule approved by the State.

37. In accordance with Section 4.f.ii of the State Contribution Agreement, filed as Exhibit I.A.332 to the Plan, the governing documents of the GRS and the governing documents of the PFRS shall be amended to include (a) the governance terms and conditions set forth in Paragraph 2, Exhibit A and Exhibit B of the State Contribution Agreement and (b) the Income Stabilization Payments and Income Stabilization Fund described in Paragraph 3 of the State Contribution Agreement.

J. DWSD Authority Transaction

38. The Memorandum of Understanding Regarding the Formation of the Great Lakes Water Authority (the "Memorandum of Understanding"), filed as Exhibit A to the Notice of Execution of Framework for Creating a Water and Sewer Authority (Docket No. 7357), is approved in all respects. The City is hereby authorized to enter into, and take any action necessary to perform under or implement, the terms of the Memorandum of Understanding and any final agreement resulting therefrom creating a regional water and sewer/stormwater authority to be called the Great Lakes Water Authority (the "GLWA") in accordance with, and subject to all approvals and consents required under, State law, the DWSD Tender Order, all documents related to the 2014 DWSD Refinancing Obligations, all documents related to the 2014 Revenue Refinancing Bonds, all documents related to the 2014 Revenue and Revenue Refinancing Bonds and the DWSD Bond Documents. The GLWA transaction contemplated in the Memorandum of Understanding, if consummated, would constitute a Qualifying DWSD Transaction as such term is defined in the Plan.

K. ASF Recoupment

39. ASF Recoupment is (a) an integral component of the City's global settlement of pension-related and other labor-related issues negotiated with, among others, the Retiree Committee, (b) is well within the range of possible reasonable settlements and (3) is approved in all respects. The City is hereby authorized to, and shall, on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date, calculate the Annuity Savings Fund Excess Amount for each ASF Current Participant, and the GRS, at the direction of the City, and solely as agent of the City and without any liability accruing to the GRS, shall deduct the Annuity Savings Fund Excess Amount from each such participant's Annuity Savings Fund account, which deducted amounts shall be used to fund the accrued pension benefits of all GRS participants; provided, however, that in no event shall the amount deducted from an ASF Current Participant's Annuity Savings Fund account exceed the ASF Recoupment Cap and the Current GRS Retiree Adjustment Cap. In the event that the amount credited to an ASF Current Participant's Annuity Savings Fund account as of the Effective Date is less than such participant's Annuity Savings Fund Excess Amount, the ASF Current Participant will be treated as an ASF Distribution Recipient to the extent of the shortfall.

40. For each ASF Distribution Recipient who, after receipt of notice as required by the Plan and this Order, does not elect the ASF Recoupment Cash Option described in Section II.B.3.r.ii.D.2.ii of the Plan and in the case of any ASF Distribution Recipient that elected the ASF Recoupment Cash Option but does not timely deliver the ASF Recoupment Cash Payment to the GRS, the City is hereby authorized to, and shall, on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date: (a) calculate the Annuity Savings Fund Excess Amount; and (b) convert such amount into monthly annuity amounts based on common actuarial assumptions (such as the ASF Distribution Recipient's life expectancy, and, if not already retired, expected date of retirement) and amortized using a 6.75% interest rate, and the GRS, pursuant to the Plan and at the direction of the Court, and without any liability accruing to the GRS, shall deduct such monthly annuity amounts from the ASF Distribution Recipient's monthly pension check; provided, however, that in no event shall the total amount deducted from an ASF Distribution Recipient's monthly pension check exceed the ASF Recoupment Cap or the Current GRS Retiree Adjustment Cap, if applicable. The total ASF Recoupment from the ASF Distribution Recipient's monthly pension checks over time shall not exceed the amount necessary to amortize the applicable Annuity Savings Fund Excess Amount at 6.75% interest.

41. Each ASF Distribution Recipient shall be afforded the ASF Recoupment Cash Option. No later than seven days following the Effective Date, the City, through its Claims and Balloting Agent, shall send the ASF Election Notice and the ASF Election Form by first-class U.S. mail to each ASF Distribution Recipient. The ASF Election Form shall explain that the amount of the ASF Recoupment Cash Payment shall be equal to the total amount of ASF Recoupment shown on the ASF Distribution Recipient's Ballot, unless the aggregate amount of ASF Recoupment for all ASF Distribution Recipients electing the ASF Recoupment Cash Option exceeds $30,000,000, in which case (a) the ASF Recoupment Cash Payment will be the ASF Distribution Recipient's Pro Rata portion of $30,000,000, and (b) the remaining portion of the ASF Distribution Recipient's ASF Recoupment will be annuitized and deducted from the ASF

Distribution Recipient's monthly pension check, as provided for in Section II.B.3.r.ii.D.2.i of the Plan. An ASF Distribution Recipient must return his or her ASF Election Form to the Claims and Balloting Agent so that it is actually received by the Claims and Balloting Agent by the ASF Election Date.

42. The GRS shall mail the ASF Final Cash Payment Notice no later than 14 days after the ASF Election Date. ASF Distribution Recipients shall have until the ASF Final Cash Payment Date to make the ASF Recoupment Cash Payment, which payment must be made by cashier's check or wire transfer and may not be made by personal check. If an ASF Distribution Recipient's ASF Recoupment Cash Payment is not received by the ASF Final Cash Payment Date, the GRS will notify the ASF Distribution Recipient of the failure to timely pay, and ASF Recoupment will be effected through diminution of such recipient's monthly pension check, as provided for in Section II.B.3.r.ii.D.2.i of the Plan and paragraph 40 hereof. The calculation of each electing ASF Distribution Recipient's ASF Recoupment Cash Payment shall not be adjusted under any circumstances, including as a result of default by any other electing ASF Distribution Recipient to remit his or her ASF Recoupment Cash Payment by the ASF Final Cash Payment Date.

L. Survival of Indemnities

43. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Order or the Plan, nothing in this Order or the Plan shall discharge or impair the obligations of the City as provided in the City Charter of the City or other organizational documents, resolutions, employment contracts, applicable law or other applicable agreements as of the Petition Date to indemnify, defend, reimburse, exculpate, advance fees and expenses to, or limit the liability of officers and employees of the City (consistent with the provisions hereof and including the members of the City Council, the Mayor and the Emergency Manager) and their Related Entities, in each case to the extent such Entities were acting in such capacity, against any claims or causes of action whether direct or derivative, liquidated or unliquidated, foreseen or unforeseen, asserted or unasserted. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Retirement System Indemnity Obligations shall not be assumed under the Plan or this Order and shall be, and hereby are, discharged. For the avoidance of doubt, no indemnification provision in any loan document, bond document, Bond Insurance Policy or other agreement with a Bond Insurer is exempted from discharge by reason of this paragraph.

M. Issuance of New Securities and Exemption From Securities Laws

44. The issuance of the New Securities by the City on the Effective Date or on a subsequent Distribution Date (as applicable) is hereby approved and authorized. To the maximum extent provided by section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code and applicable non-bankruptcy law, the issuance of New Securities pursuant to the Plan is, and shall be, exempt from Section 5 of the Securities Act and any other applicable U.S. state or local law requiring registration prior to the offering, issuance, distribution, or sale of securities. Except as set forth in the Plan with respect to the Syncora Excess New B Notes, the New Securities (a) are not "restricted securities" as defined in Rule 144(a)(3) under the Securities Act, and (b) are, and shall be, freely tradable and transferable by any initial recipient (including the Detroit General VEBA and the Detroit Police and Fire VEBA) thereof that (i) is not an "affiliate" of the City or applicable issuer as defined in Rule 144(a)(1) under the Securities Act, (ii) has not been such an "affiliate" within 90 days of such transfer and (iii) is not an entity that is an "underwriter" as defined in subsection (b) of Section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code. It is hereby expressly found and determined that the Detroit General VEBA and the Detroit Police and Fire VEBA are not affiliates of the City within the meaning of Rule 144(a)(1) under the Securities Act.

N. Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

45. The Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease provisions of Section II.D of the Plan are specifically approved in all respects, are incorporated herein in their entirety and are so ordered. The City is authorized to assume, assume and assign, or reject Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases in accordance with Section II.D of the Plan and the Contract Procedures Order.

46. The assumption of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases pursuant to Sections II.D.1 and II.D.2 of the Plan (and any related assignment) as of the Effective Date is hereby approved, except for Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases that: (a) have been rejected pursuant to a Final Order of the Court, (b) are subject to a pending motion for reconsideration or appeal of an order authorizing the rejection of such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, (c) are subject to a motion to reject such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease filed on or prior to the Effective Date, (d) are rejected pursuant to Section II.D.6 of the Plan or (e) are designated for rejection in accordance with the last sentence of this paragraph. If an objection to a proposed assumption, assumption and assignment or Cure Amount Claim filed in accordance with the Contract Procedures is not resolved in favor of the City, the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease may be designated by the City for rejection, which shall be, and hereby is, deemed effective as of the Effective Date.

47. Contracts, leases and other agreements entered into after the Petition Date by the City, including (a) any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases assumed by the City and (b) the collective bargaining agreements identified on Exhibit II.D.5 to the Plan, will be performed by the City in the ordinary course of its business. Accordingly, such contracts and leases (including any assumed Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases) will survive and remain unaffected by entry of this Order.

48. The rejection of each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease that is listed on Exhibit II.D.6 to the Plan is hereby approved pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code as of the later of (a) the Effective Date or (b) the resolution of any objection to the proposed rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Each contract or lease listed on Exhibit II.D.6 to the Plan shall be rejected only to the extent that any such contract or lease constitutes an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. The City may, at any time on or prior to the Effective Date, amend Exhibit II.D.6 to the Plan to delete any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease therefrom, thus providing for its assumption pursuant to Section II.D.1 of the Plan, or add any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease thereto, thus providing for its rejection pursuant to Section II.D.6 of the Plan. The City will provide notice of any such amendments to Exhibit II.D.6 to the Plan in accordance with the terms of the Contract Procedures Order. Listing a contract or lease on Exhibit II.D.6 to the Plan shall not constitute an admission by the City that such contract or lease is an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or that the City has any liability thereunder. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan shall be treated as Class 14 Claims (Other Unsecured Claims), subject to the provisions of section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code.

O. Plan Distributions

49. On and after the Effective Date, Distributions on account of Allowed Claims and the resolution and treatment of Disputed Claims shall be effectuated pursuant to Section II.B and Article V of the Plan. The Distribution Record Date shall be 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the date of entry of this Order.

P. Retained Causes of Action

50. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, release or other agreement entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, in accordance with section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, the City shall retain and may enforce any claims, demands, rights, defenses and Causes of Action that it may hold against any Entity, including but not limited to, (a) any and all Causes of Action against any party relating to the past practices of the Retirement Systems (including any investment decisions related to, and the management of, the Retirement Systems' respective pension plans or assets) and (b) the currently pending actions and claims brought by the City and identified on Exhibit III.D.2 to the Plan, to the extent not expressly released under the Plan or pursuant to any Final Order of the Court. The City's inclusion of, or failure to include, any right of action or claim on Exhibit III.D.2 to the Plan shall not be deemed an admission, denial or waiver of any claims, demands, rights or Causes of Action that the City may hold against any Entity.

Q. Claims Bar Dates and Other Claims Matters

51. General Administrative Claim Bar Date Provisions. Except as otherwise provided in Section II.A.2.b or Section II.A.2.c of the Plan or in a Bar Date Order or other order of the Court, unless previously filed, requests for payment of Administrative Claims must be filed and served on the City no later than 45 days after the Effective Date. Holders of Administrative Claims that are required to file and serve a request for payment of such Administrative Claims and that do not file and serve such a request by the applicable Bar Date will be forever barred from asserting such Administrative Claims against the City or its property, and such Administrative Claims will be deemed discharged as of the Effective Date. Objections to such requests must be filed and served on the City and the requesting party by the later of (a) 150 days after the Effective Date, (b) 60 days after the filing of the applicable request for payment of Administrative Claims or (c) such other period of limitation as may be specifically fixed by a Final Order for objecting to such Administrative Claims. The foregoing procedures shall be specified in the notice of entry of this Order and served on all parties in interest.

52. Holders of Claims based on Liabilities incurred by the City after the Petition Date in the ordinary course of its operations will not be required to file or serve any request for payment or application for allowance of such Claims. Such Claims will be paid by the City, pursuant to the terms and conditions of the particular transaction giving rise to such Claims, without further action by the holders of such Claims or further action or approval of the Court.

53. Holders of Administrative Claims that are Postpetition Financing Claims will not be required to file or serve any request for payment or application for allowance of such Claims. Such Administrative Claims will be satisfied pursuant to Section II.A.1.b of the Plan.

54. Professional Fee Reserve. On the Effective Date, the City shall establish and fund the Professional Fee Reserve from the General Fund or, where applicable, the DWSD's funds, in an amount sufficient to pay the Fee Review Professional Fees that remain unpaid as of the Effective Date, solely to the extent that such amounts are payable from the General Fund or the DWSD's funds. The initial amount of the Professional Fee Reserve shall be equal to the sum of (a) all invoices received from Fee Review Professionals and the Fee Examiner Parties as of the establishment and funding of the Professional Fee Reserve to the extent not yet paid (including holdbacks); (b) an estimate of the Fee Review Professionals' unbilled fees through the Effective Date as determined by the City in consultation with the Fee Review Professionals, which estimate shall be no lower than 125% of the aggregate amount of the highest monthly invoices respectively submitted by each Fee Review Professional pursuant to the Fee Review Order prior to the establishment and funding of the Professional Fee Reserve; and (c) an estimate of the Fee Examiner Parties' unbilled fees and expenses through the projected date of dismissal of the Fee Examiner under Section IV.N.3 of the Plan, as determined by the City in consultation with the Fee Examiner. The funds held in the Professional Fee Reserve may not be used for any purpose other than the payment of Fee Review Professional Fees until any and all disputes regarding the Fee Review Professional Fees, including any disputes arising under the Fee Review Order or the process established under paragraph 87 hereof, have been fully and finally resolved pursuant to a Final Order or a stipulation between the disputing parties. Any amounts remaining in the Professional Fee Reserve after final resolution of all such disputes and the payment of all Fee Review Professional Fees determined to be reasonable by the Court shall be released to the General Fund or the DWSD's funds, as applicable. If the Professional Fee Reserve is insufficient to pay all Fee Review Professional Fees that are determined to be reasonable by the Court and that are payable from the General Fund or the DWSD's funds, the City shall pay such additional amounts from the General Fund or the DWSD's funds, as applicable.

55. Bar Date for Rejection Damage Claims. Except as otherwise provided in a Final Order of the Court approving the rejection of an Executory

Contract or Unexpired Lease, Claims arising out of the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease must be filed with the Court and served upon counsel to the City on or before the later of: (a) 45 days after the Effective Date; or (b) 45 days after such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease is rejected pursuant to a Final Order or designated for rejection in accordance with Section II.D.3 of the Plan. Any Claims not filed within such applicable time periods will be forever barred from receiving a Distribution from, and shall not be enforceable against, the City.

56. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or this Order, neither FGIC nor the COP Trustee shall be required to file any Claims arising out of the rejection of the COP Service Contracts pursuant to the Plan, which Claims are resolved and treated pursuant to the terms of the FGIC/COP Settlement Documents and the Plan.

57. Workers' Compensation Claims. From and after the Effective Date, (a) the City shall continue to administer (either directly or through a third party administrator) and pay all valid claims for benefits and liabilities for which the City is responsible under applicable State workers' compensation law, regardless of when the applicable injuries were incurred, in accordance with the City's prepetition practices and procedures and governing State workers' compensation law, and (b) nothing in the Plan or this Order shall discharge, release or relieve the City from any current or future liability under applicable State workers' compensation law; provided that the City shall retain the right to challenge the validity of any claim for benefits or liabilities arising under applicable State workers' compensation law.

58. Claims Related to Operation of City Motor Vehicles. From and after the Effective Date, the City shall continue to administer (either directly or through a third party administrator) and pay valid prepetition Claims for liabilities with respect to which the City is required to maintain insurance coverage pursuant to M.C.L. § 500.3101 in connection with the operation of the City's motor vehicles consistent with the terms of Section IV.S of the Plan. Nothing in the Plan or this Order shall discharge, release or relieve the City from any current or future liability with respect to Claims subject to insurance coverage pursuant to M.C.L. § 500.3101 or Claims within the minimum coverage limits in M.C.L. § 500.3009(1); provided that the City shall retain the right to challenge the validity of any Claim subject to Section IV.S of the Plan or this paragraph, and nothing therein or herein shall be deemed to expand the City's obligations or any claimant's rights with respect to such Claims under State law.

59. Payment of Tax Refund Claims. From and after the Effective Date, the City shall continue to administer (either directly or through a third party administrator) and pay all valid claims for income tax refunds and property tax refunds for which the City is responsible under applicable law, regardless of when the applicable right to a refund arose, in accordance with the City's prepetition practices and procedures; provided that the City shall retain the right to challenge the validity of any claim for an income tax refund or property tax refund.

60. Utility Deposits. From and after the Effective Date, the City will continue to administer utility deposits in accordance with the City's prepetition practices and procedures, including the payment of any undisputed, non-contingent, liquidated claims against the City for the refund of a utility deposit.

61. Pass-Through Obligations. The City has certain Pass-Through Obligations to the Pass-Through Recipients with respect to which the City acts, or may in the future act, as tax-collecting agent for tax increment revenues derived from property taxes of the City and certain other jurisdictions and required to be transmitted by the Treasurer of the City to the Pass-Through Recipients under the respective tax increment financing enabling statutes. The City shall continue to honor its Pass-Through Obligations to the Pass-Through Recipients.

R. Plan Implementation

62. In accordance with section 1142 of the Bankruptcy Code, without further action by the Court, the City is authorized to: (a) take any and all actions necessary or appropriate to implement, effectuate and consummate the Plan, this Order or the transactions contemplated thereby or hereby, including the transactions contemplated by the Plan and the implementation and consummation of the contracts, instruments, settlements (including the Settlements), releases (including the Plan Releases) and other agreements or documents entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan; and (b) execute and deliver, adopt or amend, as the case may be, any contracts, instruments, releases, agreements and documents necessary to implement, effectuate and consummate the Plan, including, without limitation, those contracts, instruments, releases, agreements and documents identified in Article IV of the Plan. All transactions effected by the City during the pendency of the Chapter 9 Case from the Petition Date through the Confirmation Date are approved and ratified.

63. Each federal, state, commonwealth, county, municipal, local, foreign or other governmental agency is hereby directed and authorized to accept any and all documents, mortgages and instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement or consummate the transactions contemplated by the Plan and this Order.

S. Cancellation of Existing Bonds,
Bond Documents, COPs and COP Documents

64. Except (a) as provided in any contract, instrument or other agreement or document entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, (b) for purposes of evidencing a right to Distribution under the Plan or (c) as specifically provided otherwise in the Plan or this Order (including any rejection of Executory Contracts pursuant to Section II.D of the Plan or paragraph 48 hereof), on the Effective Date, the Bonds, the Bond Documents, the COPs and the COP Documents will be deemed automatically cancelled, terminated and of no further force or effect against the City without any further act or action under any applicable agreement, law, regulation, order or rule, and the obligations of the parties to the City, as applicable, under the Bonds, the Bond Documents, the COPs and the COP Documents shall be discharged; provided, however, that the Bonds, the Bond Documents, the COPs and the COP Documents shall continue in effect solely (a) to allow the Disbursing Agent to make any Distributions as set forth in the Plan and to perform such other necessary administrative or other functions with respect thereto; (b) for any trustee, agent, contract administrator or similar entity under the Bond Documents or COP Documents to have the benefit of all the rights and protections and other provisions of the Bond Documents or COP Documents, as applicable, and all other related agreements with respect to priority in payment and lien rights with respect to any Distribution; (c) to set forth the terms and conditions applicable to parties to the Bond Documents and COP Documents other than the City; (d) as may be necessary to preserve any claim by (i) a Bondholder or Bond Agent under a Bond Insurance Policy or against any Bond Insurer, (ii) a COPs Holder or COP Agent under a COP Insurance Policy or against any

COP Insurer or (iii) a COP Swap Counterparty under a Swap Insurance Policy or against any insurer thereunder; and (e) with respect to any obligation of any party (other than the City, except to the extent provided in the COP Swap Settlement or the COP Swap Settlement Approval Order) under any COP Document related to such party's obligations owed in respect of the COP Swap Documents or the COP Swap Claims. Notwithstanding the foregoing, and except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan (or the COP Swap Settlement or the COP Swap Settlement Approval Order), such Bonds, Bond Documents, COPs or COP Documents as remain outstanding shall not form the basis for the assertion of any Claim against the City. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph shall not apply to any Bonds that are Reinstated pursuant to Section II.B.3.a.ii of the Plan.

65. As of the Effective Date, the principal amounts of the COPs originally insured by FGIC shall be, and hereby are, deemed accelerated and due and payable, and no interest on the COPs originally insured by FGIC shall accrue thereafter, solely for the purposes of determining distributions from the COP Trustee to FGIC and the FGIC COP Holders. The foregoing acceleration of principal and cessation of interest shall affect only the rights of each FGIC COP Holder to the receipt of proceeds of distributions under the Plan and not the rights of each such FGIC COP Holder against FGIC and shall not in any way modify payments currently required of FGIC under its existing insurance policies or the

First Amended Plan of Rehabilitation for Financial Guaranty Insurance Company, dated June 4, 2013 (the "FGIC Rehabilitation Plan").

66. FGIC (irrespective of the terms of FGIC's COP Insurance Policies including, without limitation, the definition of "Due for Payment") may elect on or prior to the earlier to occur of (a) the Effective Date and (b) December 15, 2014, by filing a notice with the Court on or prior to such date, to treat all (but not less than all) of the outstanding principal owing on all (but not less than all) series of the FGIC-insured COPs as having been accelerated and currently "Due for Payment" (as such term is defined in the applicable FGIC COP Insurance Policy for purposes of such policy) as of the Effective Date, in which case, with respect to each FGIC COP Insurance Policy there shall be deemed a Permitted Policy Claim (as defined in the FGIC Rehabilitation Plan) in the amount of (a) the outstanding principal amount of the FGIC-Insured COPs in each CUSIP, as of the Effective Date, insured by such policy and (b) interest accrued and unpaid on such principal amount of such FGIC-Insured COPs through the Effective Date, in which case no interest shall accrue on or after the Effective Date. If FGIC does not elect to accelerate its COP Insurance Policies pursuant to the preceding sentence, FGIC's and the FGIC COP Holders' respective rights and obligations with respect to FGIC's COP Insurance Policies shall be governed by the FGIC/FGIC COP Holders Term Sheet.

67. Nothing in the Plan impairs, modifies, affects or otherwise alters the rights of (a) Bondholders or Bond Agents with respect to claims under applicable Bond Insurance Policies or against the Bond Insurers, (b) COPs Holders or the COP Agent with respect to claims under COP Insurance Policies and obligations related thereto or (c) COP Swap Counterparties with respect to claims under Swap Insurance Policies and obligations related thereto.

68. No provision of this Order or the Plan shall (a) enjoin any holder of a COP from enforcing its rights against any COP Insurer or (b) exculpate, release or affect any rights any holder of a COP may have with respect to any COP Insurance Policy.

T. Binding Effect of Prior Orders

69. Effective as of the Confirmation Date, but subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and subject to the terms of the Plan and this Order, all prior orders entered in the Chapter 9 Case, all documents and agreements executed by the City as authorized and directed thereunder and all motions or requests for relief by the City pending before the Court as of the Effective Date shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the City and any other parties expressly subject thereto. Nothing in the Plan or this Order shall in any respect modify the DWSD Tender Order, the rulings made and the rights granted therein or any of the documents approved, authorized or entered into pursuant thereto.

U. Final Order; Waiver of Stay

70. This Order is a final order, and the period in which an appeal must be filed shall commence immediately upon the entry hereof. The stay of this Order otherwise imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 3020(e) is hereby waived as of the date hereof.

V. Reversal

71. If any or all of the provisions of this Order are hereafter reversed, modified or vacated by subsequent order of this Court or any other federal appellate court with appropriate jurisdiction, such reversal, modification or vacatur shall not affect the validity of the acts or obligations incurred or undertaken under or in connection with the Plan prior to the City's receipt of written notice of such order. Notwithstanding any such reversal, modification or vacatur of this Order, any such act or obligation incurred or undertaken pursuant to, and in reliance on, this Order prior to the effective date of such reversal, modification or vacatur shall be governed in all respects by the provisions of this Order and the Plan and all related documents or any amendments or modifications thereto.

W. Notice of Confirmation of the Plan

72. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 2002(f)(7) and 3020(c)(2), on or before ten Business Days after occurrence of the Effective Date, the City shall mail or cause to be mailed to all creditors a notice (the "Confirmation Notice"), substantially in the form of Appendix II hereto, that informs such creditors of:

(a) entry of this Order; (b) the occurrence of the Effective Date; (c) the assumption and rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases pursuant to the Plan, as well as the deadline and procedures for the filing of Claims arising from any such rejection; (d) the deadline and procedures for the filing of Administrative Claims; and (e) such other matters as the City deems to be appropriate; provided, however, that the City shall be obligated to serve the Confirmation Notice only on the record holders of Claims as of the Confirmation Date. The City is directed to publish the Confirmation Notice once in the national editions of The Wall Street Journal and USA Today and the daily edition of the Detroit Free Press no later than ten Business Days after the Effective Date. As soon as practicable after the entry of this Order, the City shall make copies of this Order and the form Confirmation Notice available on (a) the City's official website at www.detroitmi.gov and (b) the Document Website at www.kccllc.net/Detroit.

X. Miscellaneous Provisions

73. The City is hereby authorized to make non-material modifications or amendments to the Plan at any time prior to the substantial consummation of the Plan, without further order of the Court. In addition, without the need for a further order or authorization of this Court, but subject to the express provisions of this Order, the City shall be, and hereby is, authorized and empowered to make non-material modifications to the documents filed with the Court, including Exhibits or documents forming part of the evidentiary record at the Confirmation Hearing, in its reasonable business judgment as may be necessary or appropriate.

74. The City shall not, without FGIC's prior written consent, amend the Plan in a manner that (a) would have a materially adverse effect on Class 9 or (b) adversely affect FGIC; provided, however, that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Order or the Plan, nothing in this Order or the Plan is intended to or shall be deemed to limit any rights of the FGIC COP Holders to object to any such Plan amendment.

75. On the Effective Date, the Retiree Committee, to the extent not previously dissolved or disbanded, will dissolve and disband, and the members of the Retiree Committee and their respective professionals will cease to have any role arising from or related to the Chapter 9 Case. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Retiree Committee's professionals will have standing to participate in the post-Effective Date determination by the Court of the reasonableness of the fees and expenses incurred by the Retiree Committee and its professionals in connection with the City's Chapter 9 Case.

76. Pursuant to the Order Resolving Corrected Motion of the Official Committee of Retirees for Entry of An Order Allowing an Administrative Expense Claim, entered on March 31, 2014 (Docket No. 3334), approving a stipulation and settlement agreement that requires the City to include a provision under the Barton doctrine first developed in Barton v. Barbour, 104 U.S. 126 (1881), and this Court having previously held that the Barton doctrine is applicable to members of the Retiree Committee, each and every member of the Retiree Committee is not only subject to protections under the release and injunction provisions of the Plan but is further protected by the provisions of the Barton doctrine and thus no action may be taken against any member of the Retiree Committee without separate relief granted by this Court.

77. On the Effective Date or as soon thereafter as is practicable, all appeals of the Opinion Regarding Eligibility and the Order for Relief, subject to settlements by and among the appellants and the City, shall be withdrawn.

78. The terms and conditions of the Exit Facility are fair and reasonable, and the Exit Facility has been negotiated in good faith and at arm's length. The City is hereby authorized to enter into, execute, deliver, file, record and issue the Exit Facility Documents and to incur the obligations under the Exit Facility, including the granting of liens thereunder, the payment of all fees, expenses, indemnities and other amounts provided for in each of the Exit Facility and the other instruments, agreements, guaranties and documents entered into in connection therewith, all of which are hereby approved. The City is authorized and empowered to incur and to perform its obligations in accordance with, and subject to, the Exit Facility Documents and to perform all acts, and make, execute and deliver all instruments and documents which may be required for the performance by the City under the Exit Facility Documents and the creation and perfection of the liens described in and provided for by the Exit Facility Documents. Subject to (a) the terms and conditions set forth in the Exit Facility Documents and (b) the City's compliance with the procedures for authorizing the borrowing of money under Sections 12(1) and 19 of PA 436 and the State Local Emergency Financial Assistance Loan Board's approval of the Exit Facility under Section 36a of Michigan Public Act 279 of 1909, the Home Rule City Act, M.C.L. §§ 117.1, et seq. (as amended), the City is hereby authorized to issue the Exit Bonds for purchase by the MFA in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Exit Facility Documents.

79. The Exit Facility Documents and the obligations of the City thereunder, including all related pledges and security agreements, shall, upon execution, constitute legal, valid, binding and authorized obligations of the City, enforceable in accordance with their terms. The loans, advances and financial accommodations to be extended under the Exit Facility are being extended, and shall be, and hereby are, deemed to have been extended, in good faith, for legitimate purposes, are reasonable, shall not be subject to avoidance, recharacterization or subordination (including equitable subordination) for any purposes whatsoever, and shall not constitute preferential transfers, fraudulent transfers or conveyances or other voidable transfers under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable non-bankruptcy law.

80. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Order or the Plan, as to the United States, its agencies, departments or agents, nothing in the Plan or this Order shall discharge, release or otherwise preclude: (a) any liability of the City arising on or after the Effective Date; (b) any liability that is not a "claim" within the meaning of section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code; (c) any valid defense of setoff or recoupment with respect to a Claim; or (d) any liability of any entity under environmental laws arising, continuing or springing anew after the Effective Date that any entity would be subject to as a post-Effective Date owner or operator of property, provided that, for the avoidance of doubt and without limiting the liabilities previously described in sub-paragraph (d), any liability that is a dischargeable "claim" within the meaning of section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code and arose before the Effective Date, including any liabilities for costs expended or paid by the United States under environmental laws before the Effective Date or any penalties or fines owed to the United States for days of violation of environmental laws before the Effective Date, shall be treated as otherwise provided in the Plan.

81. The Plan does not, and shall not be deemed to, modify, limit, release, discharge or enjoin any claims (a) related to the Retirement Systems that Bank of New York Mellon in its capacity as custodian under (i) the Global Custody Agreement with the Policemen and Firemen Retirement System of the City of Detroit, (ii) the Global Custody Agreement with the General Retirement System of the City of Detroit and (iii) the Global Custody Agreement with The Board of Trustees of The City of Detroit Employees' Benefit Plan (in such capacity, "BNY Mellon") may have against persons or entities other than the City or (b) against property of the Retirement Systems held by BNY Mellon in its capacity as custodian.

82. Any document related to the Plan that refers to a plan of adjustment of the City other than the Plan confirmed by this Order shall be, and it hereby is, deemed to be modified such that the reference to a plan of adjustment of the City in such document shall mean the Plan confirmed by this Order, as appropriate.

83. Without intending to modify any prior Order of this Court (or any agreement, instrument or document addressed by any prior Order), in the event of a direct conflict between the Plan, on the one hand, and any other agreement, instrument, or document intended to implement the provisions of the Plan, on the other, the provisions of the Plan shall govern (except as provided in paragraph 24 above, and unless otherwise expressly provided for in such agreement, instrument, or document). In the event of a direct conflict between the Plan or any agreement, instrument, or document intended to implement the Plan, on the one hand, and this Order, on the other, the provisions of this Order shall govern.

84. In accordance with Section III.C of the Plan, if the Effective Date does not occur, then upon motion by the City, the Court may declare that: (a) the Plan is null and void in all respects, including with respect to (i) the discharge of Claims pursuant to section 944 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) the assumptions, assignments or rejections of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases pursuant to Section II.D of the Plan and (iii) the releases described in Section III.D.7 of the Plan; and (b) nothing contained in the Plan shall (i) constitute a waiver or release of any Claims by or against the City or (ii) prejudice in any manner the rights of the City or any other party in interest.

85. To the extent that (a) the Court has held that any term or provision of the Plan is invalid, void or unenforceable and (b) with the consent of the City, the Court altered and interpreted such term or provision, consistent with Section VIII.D of the Plan, to make it valid or enforceable to the maximum extent practicable, consistent with the original purpose of the term or provision held to be invalid, void or unenforceable: (a) such term or provision, as altered or interpreted, shall be (i) valid and enforceable pursuant to its terms, (ii) considered integral to the Plan and shall not be deleted or modified without the City's consent and (iii) non-severable and mutually dependent; and (b) notwithstanding any such holding, alteration or interpretation, the remainder of the terms and provisions of the Plan shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated by such holding, alteration or interpretation.

86. Pursuant to Section IV.N of the Plan and in accordance with the Fee Review Order, the Fee Examiner shall continue to review and assess all Fee Review Professional Fees for the period through, but not including, the Effective Date pursuant to the standard of section 943(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Fee Review Order shall not apply to any fees or expenses of the Fee Review Professionals for the period on and after the Effective Date, and the Fee Examiner shall not review any such fees or expenses. All fees and expenses of the Fee Examiner Parties, whether incurred before, on or after the Effective Date, shall remain subject to review and approval of the Court pursuant to the terms of the Fee Review Order. Upon completing his review of all Fee Review Professional Fees and submitting all reports related thereto (as required by the Fee Review Order), the Fee Examiner shall have no further duties or obligations under the Fee Review Order other than obligations of confidentiality thereunder (which obligations, including, but not limited to, the confidentiality obligations set forth at paragraph 22 of the Fee Review Order, shall remain binding from and after the Effective Date). Nothing in this paragraph prohibits the mediator from requesting or requiring the Fee Examiner to participate in mediation regarding Professional Fees at any time.

87. The Court, with the assistance of counsel, will establish an expeditious mediation and Court-review process to determine the reasonableness and disclosure of all fees and expenses, paid and unpaid, for which the City is obligated in connection with this case through the Effective Date, as required by 11 U.S.C. § 943(b)(3). The preceding sentence does not apply with respect to fees and expenses explicitly dealt with in settlements previously approved by orders of the Court.

Y. No Diminution of State Power

90. No provision of the Plan or this Order shall be construed: (a) to limit or diminish the power of the State to control, by legislation or otherwise, the City in the exercise of the political or governmental powers of the City, including expenditures for such exercise; or (b) as a waiver by the State of its rights as a sovereign or rights granted to it pursuant to the Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, or limit or diminish the State's exercise of such rights.

Z. Post-Effective Date Governance

91. The City shall promptly provide to the Court copies of any reports given to, or received from, the Financial Review Commission. Nothing in the Plan or this Order shall expand, limit or otherwise modify the role or powers of the Financial Review Commission.

AA. Retention of Jurisdiction

92. The Court shall, and hereby does, retain such jurisdiction over the City and the Chapter 9 Case as is consistent with section 1334 of title 28 and title 11 of the United States Code until the Effective Date. Notwithstanding the entry of this Order, from and after the Effective Date, the Court shall retain such jurisdiction over the Chapter 9 Case to the fullest extent permitted by law, including, among other things, jurisdiction over those matters and issues described in Article VII of the Plan, provided, however, that notwithstanding Article VII of the Plan, the Court shall not have jurisdiction over any dispute between or among FGIC and the FGIC COP Holders with respect to agreements between or among them that do not involve the City, the State or any Released Party (other than FGIC and the FGIC COP Holders) as a party.

93. Pursuant to section 945(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court shall, and hereby does, retain jurisdiction over the UTGO Settlement and the UTGO Settlement Agreement and any dispute arising from or related to the UTGO Settlement Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt and as the City has consented, the Court shall retain exclusive post-Confirmation authority and power to implement, interpret and enforce the UTGO Settlement Agreement and all Settlement-Related Documents (as such term is defined at Section 1.2 of the UTGO Settlement Agreement), including, without limitation, all exhibits to the UTGO Settlement Agreement, the Restructured UTGO Bonds and the Municipal Obligation. As the City has consented, the Court reserves all powers as are necessary or appropriate to enforce or to give effect to the Court's retained jurisdiction under the Plan and this Order, including by way of injunction, as long as any of the Municipal Obligation, Stub UTGO Bonds or Restructured UTGO Bonds are outstanding.

94. Pursuant to section 945(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court shall, and hereby does, retain jurisdiction over the settlement of Limited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims and the LTGO Settlement and any dispute arising from or related to the LTGO Settlement. For the avoidance of doubt and as the City has consented, the Court shall retain exclusive post-Confirmation authority and power to implement, interpret and enforce the LTGO Settlement and all Settlement-Related Documents, including, without limitation, all exhibits to the LTGO Settlement Agreement and the New LTGO Bonds. As the City has consented, the Court reserves all powers as are necessary or appropriate to enforce or to give effect to the Court's retained jurisdiction under the Plan and this Order, including by way of injunction, as long as any of the New LTGO Bonds are outstanding.

95. Pursuant to section 945(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court shall, and hereby does, retain jurisdiction over any matters, cases, controversies, suits or disputes that may arise in connection with the FGIC Development Agreement or the Syncora Development Agreement.

A Claim shall be deemed classified in a particular Class only to the extent that the Claim qualifies within the description of that Class and shall be deemed classified in a different

Class to the extent that any remainder of such Claim qualifies within the description of such other Class. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall any Holder of an Allowed Claim be entitled to receive payments or Distributions under the Plan that, in the aggregate, exceed the Allowed amount of such Holder's Claim.

A. Unclassified Claims.

At the direction of FGIC, which shall be deemed given on the Effective Date, the COP Contract Administrator shall have irrevocably agreed (on behalf of itself, any successors and each FGIC COP Holder) to release and not to sue any COP Holder or any COP Insurer on behalf of any FGIC COP Holder, COP Insurer, the Detroit Retirement Systems Funding Trust 2005 or the Detroit Retirement

On the Effective Date, Syncora and FGIC shall, to the fullest extent permitted under law, be deemed to forever mutually release, waive and discharge all liabilities against each other relating to distributions made pursuant to or in connection with this Section II.B.3.p.i.A, Sections 6.5 and 9.1 of the Contract Administration Agreements or Section 8.03 of the COP Service Contracts.

During the Fiscal Years from the Effective Date through Fiscal Year 2023, annual contributions shall be made to fund benefits accrued under the Prior GRS Pension Plan only in the amounts identified on Exhibit II.B.3.r.ii.A. The exclusive sources for such contributions shall be certain pension related, administrative and restructuring payments received from the DWSD equal to approximately $428.5 million, a portion of the State Contribution, certain DIA Proceeds, a portion of the Assigned UTGO Bond Tax Proceeds and certain revenues from City departments, the Detroit Public Library and the Detroit Regional Convention Facility Authority. After June 30, 2023, (1) certain DIA Proceeds shall be contributed to the GRS and (2) the City will contribute such additional funds as are necessary to pay each Holder of a GRS Pension Claim his or her GRS Adjusted Pension Amount in accordance with and as modified by the terms and conditions contained in the Plan and the Prior GRS Pension Plan, in accordance with the State Contribution Agreement and exhibits thereto. Nothing in this Plan prevents any non-City third party from making additional contributions to or for the benefit of GRS if such party chooses to do so.

B. Investment Return Assumption.

During the period that ends on June 30, 2023, the board of trustees of the GRS, or the trustees of any successor trust or pension plan, shall adopt and maintain an investment return assumption and discount rate for purposes of determining the assets and liabilities of the GRS that shall be 6.75%.

C. Modification of Benefits for GRS Participants.

During the period that ends no earlier than June 30, 2023, the pension benefits payable to each Holder of a GRS Pension Claim shall be equal to the GRS Adjusted Pension Amount for such Holder, provided that such GRS Adjusted Pension Amount shall be (1) automatically reduced by the DIA Proceeds Default Amount in the event of a DIA Proceeds Payment Default and (2) increased by any GRS Restoration Payment.

Restoration of all or a portion of the modified pension benefits will be provided in accordance with the methodology set forth on Exhibit II.B.3.r.ii.C. For purposes of calculating a GRS Restoration Payment, market value of assets shall not include any City contributions through June 30, 2023, other than those listed on Exhibit II.B.3.r.ii.A or any State contributions if the GRS trustees fail to comply with the requirements described in the State Contribution Agreement. In the event that the Foundations and DIA Corp. accelerate all or a portion of their funding commitments described in Section IV.E.1 prior to June 30, 2023, the incremental portion of the acceleration will not count towards pension restoration.

D. Annuity Savings Fund Recoupment.

1. ASF Current Participants.

On or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date, the Annuity Savings Fund Excess Amount will be calculated for each ASF Current Participant and will be deducted from such participant's Annuity Savings Fund account and be used to fund the accrued pension benefits of all GRS participants; provided, however, that in no event shall the amount deducted from an ASF Current Participant's Annuity Savings Fund account exceed the ASF Recoupment Cap. In the event that the amount credited to an ASF Current Participant's Annuity Savings Fund account as of the Effective Date is less than such participant's Annuity Savings Fund Excess Amount, the ASF Current Participant will be treated as an ASF Distribution Recipient to the extent of the shortfall.

2. ASF Distribution Recipients.

i. Monthly Deduction.

For each ASF Distribution Recipient who does not elect the ASF Recoupment Cash Option described in Section II.B.3.r.ii.D.2.ii and in the case of any ASF Distribution Recipient that elected the ASF Recoupment Cash Option but does not timely deliver the ASF Recoupment Cash Payment to the GRS, the Annuity Savings Fund Excess Amount will: (A) be calculated and converted into monthly annuity amounts based on common actuarial assumptions (such as the ASF Distribution Recipient's life expectancy, and, if not already retired, expected date of retirement) and amortized using a 6.75% interest rate; and (B) then be deducted from the ASF Distribution Recipient's monthly pension check; provided, however, that in no event shall the total amount deducted from an ASF Distribution Recipient's monthly pension check exceed the ASF Recoupment Cap or the Current GRS Retiree Adjustment Cap, if applicable. The total ASF Recoupment from the ASF Distribution Recipient's monthly pension checks over time shall not exceed the amount necessary to amortize the applicable Annuity Savings Fund Excess Amount at 6.75% interest.

ii. Single Lump Sum Payment.

Each ASF Distribution Recipient shall be afforded the ASF Recoupment Cash Option.

No later than seven days following the Effective Date, the City, through its Claims and Balloting Agent, shall send the ASF Election Notice and the ASF Election Form by first-class U.S. mail to each ASF Distribution Recipient. The ASF Election Form shall explain that the amount of the ASF Recoupment Cash Payment shall be equal to the total amount of ASF Recoupment shown on the ASF Distribution Recipient's Ballot, unless the aggregate amount of ASF Recoupment for all ASF Distribution Recipients electing the ASF Recoupment Cash Option exceeds $30,000,000, in which case (A) the ASF Recoupment Cash Payment will be the ASF Distribution Recipient's Pro Rata portion of $30,000,000, and (B) the remaining portion of the ASF Distribution Recipient's ASF Recoupment will be annuitized and deducted from the ASF Distribution Recipient's monthly pension check, as provided for in Section II.B.3.r.ii.D.2.i.

An ASF Distribution Recipient must return his or her ASF Election Form to the Claims and Balloting Agent so that it is actually received by the Claims and Balloting Agent by the ASF Election Date.

GRS shall mail the ASF Final Cash Payment Notice no later than 14 days after the ASF Election Date. ASF Distribution Recipients shall have until the ASF Final Cash Payment Date to make the ASF Recoupment Cash Payment, which payment must be made by cashier's check or wire transfer and may not be made by personal check. If an ASF Distribution Recipient's ASF Recoupment Cash Payment is not received by the ASF Final Cash Payment Date, GRS will notify the ASF Distribution Recipient of the failure to timely pay, and ASF Recoupment will be effected through diminution of such recipient's monthly pension check, as provided for in Section II.B.3.r.ii.D.2.i. The calculation of each electing ASF Distribution Recipient's ASF Recoupment Cash Payment shall not be adjusted under any circumstances, including as a result of default by any other electing ASF Distribution Recipient to remit his or her ASF Recoupment Cash Payment by the ASF Final Cash Payment Date.

E. Contingent Payment Rights.

The City will issue the DWSD CVR to the Restoration Trust for the benefit of Holders of Pension Claims, as described in Section IV.F.

F. Accrual of Future Benefits.

Each Holder of a GRS Pension Claim who is an Active Employee shall receive, in addition to his or her GRS Adjusted Pension Amount, as such amount may be modified herein, such additional pension benefit for service on or after July 1, 2014, consistent with the terms and conditions of the New GRS Active Pension Plan Formula and the New GRS Active Pension Plan.

G. Governance.

On or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date, an Investment Committee shall be established under GRS in accordance with the State Contribution Agreement. The Investment Committee shall be vested with the authority and responsibilities set forth in the State Contribution Agreement for a period of 20 years following the Effective Date. The initial independent members of the Investment Committee established by GRS shall be (1) Kerrie VandenBosch, (2) Doris Ewing, (3) Robert Rietz, (4) David Sowerby and (5) Ken Whipple.

H. No Changes in Terms for Ten Years.

Except as may be required to maintain the tax-qualified status of the GRS or to comply with the terms of the Plan, the City, the trustees of the GRS and all other persons or entities shall be enjoined from and against the subsequent amendment of the terms, conditions and rules of operation of the GRS, or any successor plan or trust, that govern the calculation of pension benefits (including the GRS Adjusted Pension Amount, accrual of additional benefits, the DIA Proceeds Default Amount, the Prior GRS Pension Plan, the GRS Restoration Payment, the New GRS Active Pension Plan Formula and the terms of the New GRS Active Pension Plan) or against any action that governs the selection of the investment return assumption described in Section II.B.3.r.ii.B, the contribution to the GRS, or the calculation or amount of GRS pension benefits for the period ending June 30, 2023, notwithstanding whether that subsequent amendment or act is created or undertaken by contract, agreement (including collective bargaining agreement), statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, charter, resolution or otherwise by operation of law.

I. State Contribution Agreement.

The State Contribution Agreement, the effectiveness of which is contingent upon the acceptance of the Plan by Classes 10 and 11, shall include the following principal terms: (1) the State, or the State's authorized agent, will distribute the State Contribution for the benefit of Holders of Pension Claims; and (2) the Plan shall provide for the release of the State and the State Related Entities by each holder of a Pension Claim from all Liabilities arising from or related to the City, the Chapter 9 Case, the Plan, all Exhibits, the Disclosure Statement, PA 436 and its predecessor or replacement statutes, and Article IX, Section 24 of the Michigan Constitution, as more particularly described in the State Contribution Agreement and as set forth at Section III.D.7.b.

s. Class 12 – OPEB Claims.

i. Allowance.

As a result of a settlement between the City and the Retiree Committee, the OPEB Claims shall be allowed in an aggregate amount equal to $4,303,000,000.

ii. Treatment.

A. Detroit General VEBA.

Establishment of Detroit General VEBA: On or as soon as practicable following the Effective Date, the City will establish the Detroit General VEBA to provide health benefits to Detroit General VEBA Beneficiaries and certain of their dependents. The Detroit General VEBA will be governed by a seven member board of trustees that will be responsible for, among other things, management of property held by the Detroit General VEBA, administration of the Detroit General VEBA and determination of the level of and distribution of benefits to Detroit General VEBA Beneficiaries. The Detroit General VEBA Trust Agreement and related plan documentation will be substantially in the form set forth on Exhibit I.A.108. With respect to the initial appointment of the board of trustees, the Mayor will appoint one member, and the DRCEA and the Retiree Committee will each appoint three board members. The DRCEA will fill board member vacancies created by the departure of members initially appointed by the Retiree Committee or the DRCEA, and the Mayor will fill a board member vacancy created by the departure of the member appointed by the Mayor. The initial members of the Detroit General VEBA board of trustees shall be (1) Floyd Allen, (2) Roger Cheek, (3) Suzanne Daniels Paranjpe, (4) Doris Ewing,

(5) Barbara Wise-Johnson, (6) Shirley Lightsey and (7) Thomas Sheehan. Nothing in the Plan precludes either the Detroit General VEBA from being formed under Section 115 or the formation of a separate trust under Section 115, in each case with the City's consent, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld.

Distributions to Detroit General VEBA: On the Effective Date, the City shall distribute to the Detroit General VEBA New B Notes in the aggregate principal amount of $218,000,000, in satisfaction of the Allowed OPEB Claims held by Detroit General VEBA Beneficiaries. The Detroit General VEBA shall also be entitled to additional distributions as set forth in Section II.B.3.p.i.A.

B. Detroit Police and Fire VEBA.

Establishment of Detroit Police and Fire VEBA: On or as soon as practicable following the Effective Date, the City will establish the Detroit Police and Fire VEBA to provide health benefits to Detroit Police and Fire VEBA Beneficiaries and certain of their dependents. The Detroit Police and Fire VEBA will be governed by a seven member board of trustees and, for the first four years, one additional non-voting, ex-officio member. The board of trustees will be responsible for, among other things, management of property held by the Detroit Police and Fire VEBA, administration of the Detroit Police and Fire VEBA and determination of the level of and distribution of benefits to Detroit Police and Fire VEBA Beneficiaries. The Detroit Police and Fire VEBA Trust Agreement and related plan documentation will be substantially in the form set forth on Exhibit I.A.112. With respect to the initial appointment of the board of trustees, the Mayor will appoint one member, and the RDPFFA and the Retiree Committee will each appoint three board members. The RDPMA will appoint the non-voting, ex-officio member. The RDPFFA will fill board member vacancies created by the departure of voting members initially appointed by the Retiree Committee or the RDPFFA, and the Mayor will fill a board member vacancy created by the departure of the member appointed by the Mayor. The RDPMA will fill a non-voting, ex-officio board member vacancy created by the departure of the member initially appointed by the RDPMA, but such non-voting, ex-officio member position shall expire on December 31, 2018. The initial members of the Detroit Police and Fire VEBA board of trustees shall be (1) Floyd Allen, (2) Gregory Best, (3) John Clark, (4) Andrew Dillon, (5) Allan Grant, (6) Thomas Sheehan, (7) Greg Trozak and (8) Shirley Berger (ex officio). Nothing in the Plan precludes either the Detroit Police and Fire VEBA from being formed under Section 115 or the formation of a separate trust under Section 115, in each case with the City's consent, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld.

Distributions to Detroit Police and Fire VEBA: On the Effective Date, the City shall distribute to the Detroit Police and Fire VEBA New B Notes in the aggregate principal amount of $232,000,000, in satisfaction of the Allowed OPEB Claims held by Detroit Police and Fire VEBA Beneficiaries. The Detroit Police and Fire VEBA shall also be entitled to additional distributions as set forth in Section II.B.3.p.i.A.

C. No Further Responsibility.

From and after the Effective Date, the City shall have no further responsibility to provide retiree healthcare or any other retiree welfare benefits. The City shall have no responsibility from and after the Effective Date to provide life insurance or death benefits to former employees. On the Effective Date, the Employees Death Benefit Plan will be frozen for former employees, and the City will no longer have an obligation to contribute to fund death benefits under the plan for any participant or beneficiary who is a former employee. Existing retirees who participate in the plan will be granted a one-time opportunity to receive a lump sum distribution of the present value of their actuarially determined death benefit to the extent of the plan funding. For the avoidance of doubt, the Employees Death Benefit Plan shall not be merged into or operated by either the Detroit General VEBA or the Detroit Police and Fire VEBA. The Employees Death Benefit Board of Trustees shall continue to manage the Employees Death Benefit Plan and employ the staff of the Retirement Systems to administer the disbursement of benefits thereunder, the costs of which administration shall be borne by the assets of the Employees Death Benefit Plan.

Retirees (and active employees that retire prior to December 31, 2014) of the Detroit Public Library and the Detroit Regional Convention Facility Authority are Detroit General VEBA Beneficiaries and will receive the treatment set forth above. However, the collective bargaining and other legal rights and obligations of the Detroit Public Library and the Detroit Regional Convention Facility Authority, on one hand, and their respective unions and former and current employees, on the other hand, are not affected by the Plan. These parties retain the right to negotiate further or additional benefits; provided, however, that the City shall not be responsible for, or have any obligation with respect to, any such further or additional benefits or the administration thereof. In addition, in consideration of the eligible retirees of the Detroit Public Library and the Detroit Regional Convention Facility Authority participating in the Detroit General VEBA, the Detroit Public Library and the Detroit Regional Convention Facility Authority shall reimburse the City for their allocable share of the New B Note debt service related to the Detroit General VEBA.

t. Class 13 – Downtown Development Authority Claims.

i. Allowance.

On the Effective Date, the Downtown Development Authority Claims shall be deemed Allowed in the amount of $33,600,000.

ii. Treatment.

Unless such Holder agrees to a different treatment of such Claim, each Holder of an Allowed Downtown Development Authority Claim, in full satisfaction of such Allowed Claim, shall receive, on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date, a Pro Rata share of approximately $3.69 million in New B Notes.

u. Class 14 – Other Unsecured Claims.

i. Treatment.

Unless such Holder agrees to a different treatment of such Claim, each Holder of an Allowed Other Unsecured Claim, in full satisfaction of such Allowed Claim, shall receive (A) on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date, a Pro Rata share of approximately $16.48 million in New B Notes and (B) distributions in accordance with Section II.B.3.p.i.A.

v. Class 15 – Convenience Claims.

i. Treatment.

Each Holder of an Allowed Convenience Claim, in full satisfaction of such Allowed Claim, shall receive Cash equal to the amount of 25% of such Allowed Claim (as reduced, if applicable, pursuant to an election by such Holder in accordance with Section I.A.76) on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date, unless such Holder agrees to a different treatment of such Claim.

w. Class 16 – Subordinated Claims.

i. Treatment.

On the Effective Date, all Subordinated Claims shall be disallowed, extinguished and discharged without Distribution under the Plan, and Holders of Subordinated Claims shall not receive or retain any property on account of such Claims. Pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code, Class 16 is deemed to have rejected the Plan and Holders of Subordinated Claims are not entitled to cast a Ballot in respect of such Claims.

x. Class 17 – Indirect 36th District Court Claims.

i. Treatment.

Unless such Holder agrees to a different treatment of its Claim, each Holder of an Allowed Indirect 36th District Court Claim, in full satisfaction of such Allowed Claim, shall receive: (A) if the Allowed amount of such Indirect 36th District Court Claim is less than $100,000.00, on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date, Cash in an amount equal to 33% of the Allowed amount of such Allowed Indirect 36th

District Court Claim; or (B) if the Allowed amount of such Indirect 36th District Court Claim is equal to or more than $100,000.00, Cash equal to 33% of the Allowed amount of such Indirect 36th District Court Claim, plus simple interest on outstanding amounts at a rate of five percent per annum, payable in five equal annual installments, with the first installment to be paid on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date and the remaining four installments to be paid on the date of the first four anniversaries of the Effective Date or, if any such date is not a Business Day, on the first Business Day thereafter.

ii. Further Obligation of City, State and 36th District Court.

Subject to the terms of the 36th District Court Settlement, the treatment of Allowed Indirect 36th District Court Claims set forth in Section II.B.3.x.i shall fulfill any obligation of the City and the 36th District Court that may exist with respect to all Indirect 36th District Court Claims. Nothing in Section II.B.3.x.i prevents the Holder of an Indirect 36th District Court Claim from seeking further relief or payment from the State with respect to such Indirect 36th District Court Claim to the extent such Claim is not satisfied pursuant to the Plan.

C. Confirmation Without Acceptance by All Impaired Classes.

The City requests Confirmation under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that any impaired Class does not accept or is deemed not to accept the Plan pursuant to section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan shall constitute a motion for such relief.

D. Treatment of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

1. Assumption.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, in any contract, instrument, release or other agreement or document entered into in connection with the Plan or in a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, or as requested in any motion Filed by the City on or prior to the Effective Date, on the Effective Date, pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the City will be deemed to assume all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases to which it is a party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Retirement System Indemnity Obligations shall not be assumed under the Plan and shall be discharged. For the avoidance of doubt, the City shall assume the Tunnel Lease pursuant to this Section II.D.1.

2. Assumption of Ancillary Agreements.

Each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease assumed pursuant to Section II.D.1 will include any modifications, amendments, supplements, restatements or other agreements made directly or indirectly by any agreement, instrument or other document that in any manner affects such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, unless any such modification, amendment, supplement, restatement or other agreement is rejected pursuant to Section II.D.6 or designated for rejection in accordance with Section II.D.3.

3. Approval of Assumptions and Assignments.

The Confirmation Order will constitute an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving the assumption of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases pursuant to Sections II.D.1 and II.D.2 (and any related assignment) as of the Effective Date, except for Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases that (a) have been rejected pursuant to a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, (b) are subject to a pending motion for reconsideration or appeal of an order authorizing the rejection of such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, (c) are subject to a motion to reject such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease Filed on or prior to the Effective Date, (d) are rejected pursuant to Section II.D.6 or (e) are designated for rejection in accordance with the last sentence of this paragraph. An order of the Bankruptcy Court (which may be the Confirmation Order) entered on or prior to the Confirmation Date will specify the procedures for providing notice to each party whose Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease is being assumed pursuant to the Plan of: (a) the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease being assumed; (b) the Cure Amount Claim, if any, that the City believes it would be obligated to pay in connection with such assumption; (c) any assignment of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease; and (d) the procedures for such party to object to the assumption of the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, the amount of the proposed Cure Amount Claim or any assignment of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. If an objection to a proposed assumption, assumption and assignment or Cure Amount Claim is not resolved in favor of the City, the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease may be designated by the City for rejection, which shall be deemed effective as of the Effective Date.

4. Payments Related to the Assumption of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

To the extent that such Claims constitute monetary defaults, the Cure Amount Claims associated with each Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to be assumed pursuant to the Plan will be satisfied, pursuant to section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, at the option of the City: (a) by payment of the Cure Amount Claim in Cash on the Effective Date or (b) on such other terms as are agreed to by the parties to such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. If there is a dispute regarding: (a) the amount of any Cure Amount Claim, (b) the ability of the City or any assignee to provide "adequate assurance of future performance" (within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code) under the contract or lease to be assumed or (c) any other matter pertaining to the assumption of such contract or lease, the payment of any Cure Amount Claim required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code will be made within 30 days following the entry of a Final Order resolving the dispute and approving the assumption.

5. Contracts and Leases Entered Into After the Petition Date.

Contracts, leases and other agreements entered into after the Petition Date by the City, including (a) any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases assumed by the City and (b) the collective bargaining agreements identified on Exhibit II.D.5, will be performed by the City in the ordinary course of its business. Accordingly, such contracts and leases (including any assumed Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases) will survive and remain unaffected by entry of the Confirmation Order.

6. Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

On the Effective Date, each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease that is listed on Exhibit II.D.6 shall be deemed rejected pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Confirmation Order will constitute an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving such rejections, pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, as of the later of: (a) the Effective Date or (b) the resolution of any objection to the proposed rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Each contract or lease listed on Exhibit II.D.6 shall be rejected only to the extent that any such contract or lease constitutes an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. The City reserves its right, at any time on or prior to the Effective Date, to amend Exhibit II.D.6 to delete any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease therefrom, thus providing for its assumption pursuant to Section II.D.1, or add any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease thereto, thus providing for its rejection pursuant to this Section II.D.6. The City will provide notice of any amendments to Exhibit II.D.6 to the parties to the Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases affected thereby and to the parties on the then-applicable service list in the Chapter 9 Case. Listing a contract or lease on Exhibit II.D.6 shall not constitute an admission by the City that such contract or lease is an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or that the City has any liability thereunder. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan shall be treated as Class 14 Claims (Other Unsecured Claims), subject to the provisions of section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code.

7. Rejection Damages Bar Date.

Except as otherwise provided in a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court approving the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, Claims arising out of the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served upon counsel to the City on or before the later of: (a) 45 days after the Effective Date; or (b) 45 days after such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease is rejected pursuant to a Final Order or designated for rejection in accordance with Section II.D.3. Any Claims not Filed within such applicable time periods will be forever barred from receiving a Distribution from, and shall not be enforceable against, the City.

8. Preexisting Obligations to the City Under Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

Pursuant to section 365(g) of the Bankruptcy Code, rejection of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan or otherwise shall constitute a breach of such contract or lease and not a termination thereof, and all obligations owing to the City under such contract or lease as of the date of such breach shall remain owing to the City upon rejection. Notwithstanding any applicable non-bankruptcy law to the contrary, the City expressly reserves and does not waive any right to receive, or any continuing obligation of a non-City party to provide, warranties, indemnifications or continued maintenance obligations on goods previously purchased, or services previously received, by the City from non-City parties to rejected Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, and any such rights shall remain vested in the City as of the Effective Date.

9. Insurance Policies.

From and after the Effective Date, each of the City's insurance policies (other than welfare benefits insurance policies) in existence as of or prior to the Effective Date shall be reinstated and continue in full force and effect in accordance with its terms and, to the extent applicable, shall be deemed assumed by the City pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Section II.D.1. Nothing contained herein shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Causes of Action that the City may hold against any Entity, including any insurer under any of the City's insurance policies. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing contained in this Section II.D.9 shall apply to reinstate or continue any obligation of the City or any fund thereof to any Bond Insurer.

C. Effect of Nonoccurrence of Conditions to the Effective Date.

If each of the conditions to the Effective Date is not satisfied, or duly waived in accordance with Section III.B, then, before the time that each of such conditions has been satisfied and upon notice to such parties in interest as the Bankruptcy Court may direct, the City may File a motion requesting that the Bankruptcy Court vacate the Confirmation Order; provided, however, that, notwithstanding the Filing of such motion, the Confirmation Order may not be vacated if each of the conditions to the Effective Date is satisfied before the Bankruptcy Court enters an order granting such motion. If the Confirmation Order is vacated pursuant to this Section III.C: (1) the Plan will be null and void in all respects, including with respect to (a) the discharge of Claims pursuant to section 944(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) the assumptions, assignments or rejections of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases pursuant to Section II.D and (c) the releases described in Section III.D.7; and (2) nothing contained in the Plan, nor any action taken or not taken by the City with respect to the Plan, the Disclosure Statement or the Confirmation Order, will be or will be deemed to be (a) a waiver or release of any Claims by or against the City, (b) an admission of any sort by the City or any other party in interest or (c) prejudicial in any manner the rights of the City or any other party in interest.

D. Effect of Confirmation of the Plan.

1. Dissolution of Retiree Committee.

On the Effective Date, the Retiree Committee, to the extent not previously dissolved or disbanded, will dissolve and disband, and the members of the Retiree Committee and their respective professionals will cease to have any role arising from or related to the Chapter 9 Case.

2. Preservation of Rights of Action by the City.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, release or other agreement entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, in accordance with section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, the City will retain and may enforce any claims, demands, rights, defenses and Causes of Action that it may hold against any Entity, including but not limited to any and all Causes of Action against any party relating to the past practices of the Retirement Systems (including any investment decisions related to, and the management of, the Retirement Systems' respective pension plans or assets), to the extent not expressly released under the Plan or pursuant to any Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court. A nonexclusive schedule of currently pending actions and claims brought by the City is attached as Exhibit III.D.2. The City's inclusion of, or failure to include, any right of action or claim on Exhibit III.D.2 shall not be deemed an admission, denial or waiver of any claims, demands, rights or Causes of Action that the City may hold against any Entity, and all Entities are hereby notified that the City intends to preserve all such claims, demands, rights or Causes of Action.

3. Comprehensive Settlement of Claims and Controversies.

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and in consideration for the distributions and other benefits provided under the Plan, the provisions of the Plan will constitute a good faith compromise and settlement of all claims or controversies relating to the rights that a holder of a Claim may have with respect to any Allowed Claim or any Distribution to be made pursuant to the Plan on account of any Allowed Claim. The entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval, as of the Effective Date, of the compromise or settlement of all such claims or controversies and the Bankruptcy Court's finding that all such compromises or settlements are (a) in the best interests of the City, its property and Claim Holders and (b) fair, equitable and reasonable. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section III.D.3 shall not affect or limit the application of section 509 of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar doctrine to Bond Insurance Policy Claims.

4. Discharge of Claims.

a. Complete Satisfaction, Discharge and Release.

Except as provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the rights afforded under the Plan and the treatment of Claims under the Plan will be in exchange for and in complete satisfaction, discharge and release of all Claims arising on or before the Effective Date, including any interest accrued on Claims from and after the Petition Date. Except as provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, Confirmation will, as of the Effective Date, discharge the City from all Claims or other debts that arose on or before the Effective Date, and all debts of the kind specified in section 502(g), 502(h) or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether or not (i) a proof of Claim based on such debt is Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) a Claim based on such debt is allowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code or (iii) the Holder of a Claim based on such debt has accepted the Plan.

b. Discharge.

In accordance with Section III.D.4.a, except as expressly provided otherwise in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, the Confirmation Order will be a judicial determination, as of the Effective Date, of a discharge of all debts of the City, pursuant to sections 524(a)(1), 524(a)(2) and 944(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and such discharge will void any judgment obtained against the City at any time, to the extent that such judgment relates to a discharged debt; provided that such discharge will not apply to (i) debts specifically exempted from discharge under the Plan; and (ii) debts held by an Entity that, before the Confirmation Date, had neither notice nor actual knowledge of the Chapter 9 Case.

5. Injunction.

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided herein or in the Confirmation Order,

a. all Entities that have been, are or may be holders of Claims against the City, Indirect 36th District Court Claims or Indirect Employee Indemnity Claims, along with their Related Entities, shall be permanently enjoined from taking any of the following actions against or affecting the City or its property, DIA Corp. or its property, the DIA Assets, the Released Parties or their respective property and the Related Entities of each of the foregoing, with respect to such claims (other than actions brought to enforce any rights or obligations under the Plan and appeals, if any, from the Confirmation Order):

1. commencing, conducting or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action or other proceeding of any kind against or affecting the City or its property (including (A) all suits, actions and proceedings that are pending as of the Effective Date, which must be withdrawn or dismissed with prejudice, (B) Indirect 36th District Court Claims and (C) Indirect Employee Indemnity Claims);

2. enforcing, levying, attaching, collecting or otherwise recovering by any manner or means, directly or indirectly, any judgment, award, decree or order against the City or its property;

3. creating, perfecting or otherwise enforcing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any encumbrance of any kind against the City or its property;

4. asserting any setoff, right of subrogation or recoupment of any kind, directly or indirectly, against any obligation due the City or its property;

5. proceeding in any manner in any place whatsoever that does not conform to or comply with the provisions of the Plan or the settlements set forth herein to the extent such settlements have been approved by the Bankruptcy Court in connection with Confirmation of the Plan; and

6. taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan.

b. All Entities that have held, currently hold or may hold any Liabilities released pursuant to the Plan will be permanently enjoined from taking any of the following actions against the State, the State Related Entities, the officers, board of trustees/directors, attorneys, advisors and professionals of the RDPFFA or the DRCEA, and the Released Parties or any of their respective property on account of such released Liabilities: (i) commencing, conducting or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action or other proceeding of any kind; (ii) enforcing, levying, attaching, collecting or otherwise recovering by any manner or means, directly or indirectly, any judgment, award, decree or order; (iii) creating, perfecting or otherwise enforcing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any lien; (iv) asserting any setoff, right of subrogation or recoupment of any kind, directly or indirectly, against any obligation due the State, a State Related Entity, the officers, board of trustees/directors, attorneys, advisors and professionals of the RDPFFA or the DRCEA, or a Released Party; and (v) commencing or continuing any action, in any manner, in any place that does not comply with or is inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan. Notwithstanding the foregoing and without limiting the injunctions in Section III.D.5.a, the Holders of Indirect 36th District Court Claims shall not be enjoined from taking any of the foregoing actions against the State or the State Related Entities with respect to Indirect 36th District Court Claims to the extent such Claims are not satisfied pursuant to the Plan.

6. Exculpation.

From and after the Effective Date, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law and except as expressly set forth in this Section, neither the City, its Related Entities (including the members of the City Council, the Mayor and the Emergency Manager), to the extent a claim arises from actions taken by such Related Entity in its capacity as a Related Entity of the City, the State, the State Related Entities, the Exculpated Parties nor the Released Parties shall have or incur any liability to any person or Entity for any act or omission in connection with, relating to or arising out of the City's restructuring efforts and the Chapter 9 Case, including the authorization given to file the Chapter 9 Case, the formulation, preparation, negotiation, dissemination, consummation, implementation, confirmation or approval (as applicable) of the Plan, the property to be distributed under the Plan, the settlements implemented under the Plan, the Exhibits, the Disclosure Statement, any contract, instrument, release or other agreement or document provided for or contemplated in connection with the consummation of the transactions set forth in the Plan or the management or operation of the City; provided that the foregoing provisions shall apply to (a) the LTGO Exculpated Parties solely in connection with acts or omissions taken in connection with the LTGO Settlement Agreement or the Plan (as it relates to the LTGO Settlement Agreement), (b) the UTGO Exculpated Parties solely in connection with acts or omissions taken in connection with the UTGO Settlement Agreement or the Plan (as it relates to the UTGO Settlement Agreement), (c) the DWSD Exculpated Parties solely in connection with acts or omissions taken in connection with the DWSD Tender, DWSD Tender Motion or DWSD Tender Order, (d) the Syncora Exculpated Parties solely in connection with acts or omissions taken in connection with the Syncora Settlement Documents and any actions or litigation positions taken by the Syncora Exculpated Parties in the Chapter 9 Case, (e) the FGIC/COP Exculpated Parties solely in connection with acts or omissions taken in connection with the FGIC/COP Settlement Documents and any actions or litigation positions taken by the FGIC/COP Exculpated Parties in the Chapter 9 Case, (f) the RDPMA Exculpated Parties and (g) the COP Agent, solely in its capacity as such and solely in connection with any Distributions made pursuant to the terms of the Plan; provided, further, that the foregoing provisions in this Section III.D.6 shall not affect the liability of the City, its Related Entities, the State, the State Related Entities, the Released Parties and the Exculpated Parties that otherwise would result from any such act or omission to the extent that such act or omission is determined in a Final Order to have constituted gross negligence or willful misconduct or any act or omission occurring before the Petition Date. The City, its Related Entities (with respect to actions taken by such Related Entities in their capacities as Related Entities of the City), the State, the State Related Entities, the Released Parties and the Exculpated Parties shall be entitled to rely upon the advice of counsel and financial advisors with respect to their duties and responsibilities under, or in connection with, the Chapter 9 Case, the administration thereof and the Plan. This Section III.D.6 shall not affect any liability of (a) any of the COP Swap Exculpated Parties to the Syncora Exculpated Parties or FGIC or (b) the Syncora Exculpated Parties or FGIC/COP Exculpated Parties to any of the COP Swap Exculpated Parties.

7. Releases.

Without limiting any other applicable provisions of, or releases contained in, the Plan or any contracts, instruments, releases, agreements or documents to be entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, as of the Effective Date, in consideration for the obligations of the City under the Plan and the consideration and other contracts, instruments, releases, agreements or documents to be entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan (including the State Contribution Agreement):

a. each holder of a Claim that votes in favor of the Plan, to the fullest extent permissible under law, will be deemed to forever release, waive and discharge (which release will be in addition to the release and discharge of Claims otherwise provided herein and under the Confirmation Order and the Bankruptcy Code):

i. all Liabilities in any way relating to the City, the Chapter 9 Case (including the authorization given to file the Chapter 9 Case), the Plan, the Exhibits or the Disclosure Statement, in each case that such holder has, had or may have against the City or its current and former officials, officers, directors, employees, managers, attorneys, advisors and professionals, each acting in such capacity (and, in addition to and without limiting the foregoing, in the case of any Emergency Manager, in such Emergency Manager's capacity as an appointee under PA 436); provided further, for the avoidance of doubt, that any person or entity designated to manage the Chapter 9 Case for the City after the Emergency Manager's term is terminated, whether such person or entity acts as an employee, advisor or contractor to the City or acts as an employee, agent, contractor or appointee of the State under any applicable state law, shall be treated the same as an employee of the City hereunder; and

ii. all Liabilities in any way relating to (A) Claims that are compromised, settled or discharged under or in connection with the Plan, (B) the Chapter 9 Case (including the authorization given to file the Chapter 9 Case), (C) the Plan, (D) the Exhibits, (E) the Disclosure Statement or (F) the DIA Settlement, in each case that such holder has, had or may have against the City's Related Entities, the State, the State Related Entities and the Released Parties; provided, however, that any such Liability of the Foundations, the DIA Funders and the CFSEM Supporting Organization and their Related Entities shall be released only to the extent that such Liability, if any, arises from any such entity's participation in the DIA Settlement;

provided, however, that the foregoing provisions shall not affect the liability of the City, its Related Entities and the Released Parties that otherwise would result from any act or omission to the extent that act or omission subsequently is determined in a Final Order to have constituted gross negligence or willful misconduct; and provided further, however, that if Classes 10 and 11 vote to accept the Plan, but any necessary conditions precedent to the receipt of the initial funding from the State (pursuant to the State Contribution Agreement) and the DIA Funding Parties that are such as of the commencement of the Confirmation Hearing (pursuant to the DIA Settlement) that can be satisfied or waived by the applicable funding party prior to the Confirmation Hearing (including, but not limited to, adoption of relevant legislation and appropriations by the State and execution of necessary and irrevocable agreements for their funding commitments by each of the DIA Funding Parties that are such as of the commencement of the Confirmation Hearing, which conditions may not be waived) are not satisfied or waived by the applicable funding party prior to the Confirmation Hearing, then Holders of Claims in Classes 10 and 11 that voted to accept the Plan shall be deemed to have voted to reject the Plan, and the voluntary release set forth in the first sentence of this Section III.D.7.a shall not apply to Holders of Claims in Classes 10 and 11; provided, further, that nothing in this Section III.D.7.a shall release (i) the City's obligations under the Plan or (ii) any defenses that any party may have against the City, its Related Entities, the State, the State Related Entities or the Released Parties; and

- b. if the State Contribution Agreement is consummated, each holder of a Pension Claim will be deemed to forever release, waive and discharge all Liabilities arising from or related to the City, the Chapter 9 Case, including the authorization given to file the Chapter 9 Case, the Plan, all Exhibits, the Disclosure Statement, PA 436 and its predecessor or replacement statutes, and Article IX, Section 24 of the Michigan Constitution that such party has, had or may have against the State and any State Related Entities. For the avoidance of doubt, the Plan does not release, waive or discharge obligations of the City that are established in the Plan or that arise from and after the Effective Date with respect to (i) pensions as modified by the Plan or (ii) labor-related obligations. Such post-Effective Date obligations shall be enforceable against the City or its representatives by active or retired employees or their collective bargaining representatives to the extent permitted by applicable non-bankruptcy law or the Plan, or, with respect to pensions only, GRS or PFRS.

Notwithstanding Sections III.D.5-7 and IV.L of the Plan, except as set forth in the COP Swap Settlement, nothing in the Plan or the Confirmation Order shall or shall be deemed to provide a release by the COP Swap Counterparties of any Liabilities related to the COPs, the COP Service Corporations, the Transaction Documents (as defined in the COP Swap Settlement), the COP Swap Settlement or the COP Swap Settlement Approval Order. For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding Section III.D.6 of the Plan, a vote of DWSD Bond Claims or DWSD Revolving Bond Claims in favor of the Plan shall not, and shall not be deemed to, effect a release pursuant to this Section III.D.7 by a Holder of any such DWSD Bond Claims, a Holder of any such DWSD Revolving Bond Claims or the Bond Insurer insuring any such Claims of any Liabilities against the City or its Related Entities that do not arise in connection with the DWSD Bonds or the DWSD Revolving Bonds. For the further avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, a vote of a Claim other than a DWSD Bond Claim or DWSD Revolving Bond Claim in favor of the Plan shall not, and shall not be deemed to, effect a release pursuant to this Section III.D.7 by a Holder of any such voted Claim or the Bond Insurer insuring such voted Claim of any Liabilities against the City or any other Entity arising in connection with the DWSD Bonds or DWSD Revolving Bonds.

E. No Diminution of State Power.

No provision of this Plan shall be construed: (1) so as to limit or diminish the power of the State to control, by legislation or otherwise, the City in the exercise of the political or governmental powers of the City, including expenditures for such exercise; (2) so as to limit or diminish the power of the State to effect setoffs necessary to compensate the State or relieve the State of liability against funds (a) owing to the City from the State, (b) granted to the City by the State, or (c) administered by the State on behalf of the City or the federal government (including funds resulting from federal or state grants), for acts or omissions by the City (including but not limited to misappropriation or misuse of funds); and (3) as a waiver by the State of its rights as a sovereign or rights granted to it pursuant to the Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, or limit or diminish the State's exercise of such rights.

F. Effectiveness of the Plan.

The Plan shall become effective on the Effective Date. Any actions required to be taken on the Effective Date shall take place and shall be deemed to have occurred simultaneously, and no such action shall be deemed to have occurred prior to the taking of any other such action.

G. Binding Effect of Plan.

Pursuant to section 944(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, on and after the Effective Date, the provisions of the Plan shall bind all Holders of Claims, and their respective successors and assigns, whether or not the Claim of any such Holder is Impaired under the Plan and whether or not such Holder has accepted the Plan. The releases and settlements effected under the Plan will be operative, and subject to enforcement by the Bankruptcy Court, from and after the Effective Date, including pursuant to the injunctive provisions of the Plan. Once approved, the compromises and settlements embodied in the Plan, along with the treatment of any associated Allowed Claims, shall not be subject to any collateral attack or other challenge by any Entity in any court or other forum. As such, any Entity that opposes the terms of any compromise and settlement set forth in the Plan must (1) challenge such compromise and settlement prior to Confirmation of the Plan and (2) demonstrate appropriate standing to object and that the subject compromise and settlement does not meet the standards governing bankruptcy settlements under Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and other applicable law.

ARTICLE IV MEANS FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PLAN

A. DWSD.

1. Rates and Revenues.

DWSD will maintain Fiscal Year 2015 rate setting protocols for a minimum of five years, subject to certain changes necessary to stabilize water and sewer revenues. Rates will be determined by the Board of Water Commissioners or, if a DWSD Authority is formed and approved by the incorporating units' governing bodies, by the board of any such DWSD Authority. The City may seek to implement a rate stability program for City residents, which program may, among other things, (a) provide a source of funds to mitigate against rate increases, (b) enhance affordability and (c) provide a buffer against delinquent payments.

2. DWSD CBAs.

Collective bargaining agreements with respect to current DWSD employees that are in effect and not expired as of the Effective Date will be assumed by the City.

3. Potential DWSD Authority Transaction.

As a result of mediation or otherwise, it is possible that the City may enter into a DWSD Authority Transaction that includes the formation of the DWSD Authority to conduct many or all of the operations currently conducted by DWSD. Any such transaction would be subject to the approval of incorporating units and numerous other conditions. The timing of any such transaction, if it occurs at all, is not known. If any such transaction could occur, unless waived by the City in its sole discretion, the City will enter into such transaction only if Macomb County, Oakland County and Wayne County, and each of their municipal affiliates or related public corporations, withdraw with prejudice or shall have withdrawn with prejudice their objections to the Confirmation of the Plan. Any DWSD Authority Transaction shall be on terms that are consistent with all other provisions of the Plan, applicable law and orders of the Bankruptcy Court. The City shall not enter into any binding agreement with respect to or consummate any DWSD Authority Transaction prior to the Effective Date without first obtaining an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving and authorizing such DWSD Authority Transaction.

All terms and conditions in respect of any DWSD Authority Transaction set forth in (a) any DWSD Bond Document or (b) any transaction document in respect of such a DWSD Authority Transaction shall in any case include: (i) no material modifications to the source of payment and security for any DWSD Bonds or 2014 Revenue and Revenue Refinancing Bonds; (ii) an opinion of tax counsel that such transfer shall have no material adverse effect on the tax exempt status of the interest on the DWSD Bonds or 2014 Revenue and Revenue Refinancing Bonds; (iii) that the City could issue at least $1 of additional new money DWSD Bonds in compliance with the additional bonds test set forth in the applicable DWSD Bond Documents; and (iv) ratings confirmation of any rating agency then rating the DWSD Bonds and 2014 Revenue and Revenue Refinancing Bonds. A DWSD Authority Transaction shall not affect, impair, modify or otherwise alter the rights of any party under the DWSD Tender Order, the DWSD Bond Documents, the DWSD Revolving Bond Documents, the 2014 DWSD Refinancing Obligations, the 2014 Revenue and Revenue Refinancing Bonds or the 2014 Revenue Refinancing Bonds or any Bond Insurance Policy related to or issued in connection with any of the foregoing.

B. The New B Notes, New C Notes and New LTGO Bonds.

On or before the Effective Date, the City shall (a) execute the New B Notes Documents, issue the New B Notes, substantially on the terms set forth on Exhibit I.A.246, and distribute the New B Notes as set forth in the Plan; (b) execute the New C Notes Documents, issue the New C Notes, substantially on the terms set forth on Exhibit I.A.248 (and in any case in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the City and Syncora), and distribute the New C Notes as set forth in the Plan; and (c) execute the New LTGO Bond Documents, issue the New LTGO Bonds, substantially on the terms set forth on Exhibit I.A.237, and distribute the New LTGO Bonds as set forth in the Plan.

C. The UTGO Settlement.

On the Effective Date, the City and the Settling UTGO Bond Insurers shall consummate the UTGO Settlement Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit I.A.360. The treatment of Unlimited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims under the Plan is provided for pursuant to the UTGO Settlement Agreement, which involves the settlement of, among other things, the UTGO Litigation and is subject to Bankruptcy Court approval pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019. The Plan shall be construed as a motion for approval of, and the Confirmation Order shall constitute an order approving, the UTGO Settlement Agreement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019.

Pursuant to the UTGO Settlement Agreement, among other things: (1) the Unlimited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims shall be deemed Allowed in the amount of $388,000,000; (2) the City shall issue the Municipal Obligation to the MFA, which in turn will issue the Restructured UTGO Bonds; (3) Holders of Allowed Unlimited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims shall be entitled to receive their Pro Rata share of $279,618,950 of the Restructured UTGO Bonds as set forth in Schedule 1a of the UTGO Settlement Agreement; (4) the Settling UTGO Bond Insurers and the Non-Settling UTGO Bond Insurer shall be entitled to receive $7,941,840 of the Restructured UTGO Bonds as set forth in Schedule 1b to the UTGO Settlement Agreement; and (5) a designee or designees of the City shall have the right to receive the Assigned UTGO Bond Tax Proceeds, which Assigned UTGO Bond Tax Proceeds will be distributed over a 14-year period to the Income Stabilization Funds of GRS and PFRS for the payment of Income Stabilization Payments to Eligible Pensioners and to the Retirement Systems, in accordance with applicable agreements.

Each Settling UTGO Bond Insurer shall receive, as soon as reasonably practicable after the occurrence of a Trigger Event, its allocable share of the Top-Off Payments in accordance with the terms of the UTGO Settlement Agreement.

D. The State Contribution Agreement.

Prior to or on the Effective Date, if Classes 10 and 11 vote to accept the Plan, the City, GRS, PFRS and the State will enter into the State Contribution Agreement, substantially on the terms set forth on Exhibit I.A.332.

1. State Contribution.

The State or the State's authorized agent will contribute the net present value of $350 million payable over 20 years using a discount rate of 6.75% to GRS and PFRS for the benefit of the Holders of Pension Claims.

2. Income Stabilization Payments.

The Income Stabilization Funds of GRS and PFRS will receive not less than an aggregate amount of $20 million over 14 years of the Assigned UTGO Bond Tax Proceeds in the form of annual installment payments pursuant to a payment schedule approved by the State. Following the Effective Date, on an annual basis, GRS and PFRS will distribute such portion of the funds held in their respective Income Stabilization Fund to Eligible Pensioners entitled to receive the Income Stabilization Benefit and the Income Stabilization Benefit Plus. The Income Stabilization Benefit, which will be calculated in the first year following the Effective Date and will not increase thereafter, will be provided by the applicable Retirement System to each Eligible Pensioner. In addition, to the extent that an Eligible Pensioner's estimated adjusted annual household income (as determined by the applicable Retirement System) in any calendar year after the first year of the income stabilization program is less than 105% of the Federal Poverty Level for such year, the applicable Retirement System will distribute the Income Stabilization Benefit Plus to such Eligible Pensioner.

In the event that, in 2022 (provided that the State has not issued a certificate of default under the State Contribution Agreement with respect to GRS or PFRS, as applicable, at any time prior to 2022), it is the opinion of at least 75% of the independent members of the Investment Committee of GRS or PFRS, as applicable, that the Income Stabilization Fund of the applicable Retirement System is credited with Excess Assets, the respective Investment Committee may recommend that the Excess Assets, in an amount not to exceed $35 million, be used to fund the Adjusted Pension Amounts payable by the applicable Retirement System. In the event that any funds remain in the Income Stabilization Fund of each or either of GRS or PFRS on the date upon which no Eligible Pensioners under the applicable Retirement System are living, such funds shall be used to fund the Adjusted Pension Amounts payable by the applicable Retirement System.

3. Conditions to State's Participation.

The payment of the State Contribution by the State or the State's authorized agent is conditioned upon satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth in the State Contribution Agreement, including, among other things, the following: (a) the Confirmation Order becoming a Final Order no later than December 31, 2014, which Confirmation Order must contain certain provisions as set forth in the State Contribution Agreement, including a requirement that the governing documents of GRS and PFRS be amended to include (i) the governance terms and conditions set forth in the State Contribution Agreement and (ii) the Income Stabilization Funds and Income Stabilization Payments; (b) the occurrence of the Effective Date no later than April 1, 2015; (c) acceptance of the Plan by Classes 10 and 11, which Plan must be in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the State and contain certain release provisions; (d) the Retiree Committee's endorsement of the Plan, including a letter from the Retiree Committee recommending that Classes 10 and 11 vote in favor of the Plan, or equivalent assurances from member organizations representing a majority of retirees in Classes 10 and 11; (e) active support of the Plan by, a release of and covenant not to sue the State from, and an agreement not to support in any way the litigation described in subsection (f) of this Section by, the City, the Retiree Committee, the Retirement Systems and certain unions and retiree associations, or equivalent assurances of litigation finality; (f) cessation of all litigation, or equivalent assurances of finality of such litigation, including the cessation of funding of any litigation initiated by any other party, as it relates to the City, (i) challenging PA 436 or any actions taken pursuant to PA 436 or (ii) seeking to enforce Article IX, Section 24 of the Michigan Constitution; (g) evidence satisfactory to the State of an irrevocable commitment by the Foundations (excluding the Special Foundation Funders, as that term is defined in the DIA Settlement Documents) to fund $366 million (or the net present value thereof) as part of the DIA Settlement, as provided in Section IV.E.1; and (h) evidence satisfactory to the State of an irrevocable commitment by DIA Corp. to fund $100 million (or the net present value thereof) as part of the DIA Settlement, as provided in Section IV.E.1.

The State shall File and serve via the Court's electronic case filing and noticing system a notice that the conditions precedent to the State's payment of the State Contribution have been satisfied or otherwise addressed pursuant to the procedures outlined in the State Contribution Agreement no later than ten days after all such conditions have been satisfied or otherwise addressed.

4. Release of Claims Against the State and State Related Entities.

The State Contribution Agreement requires that the Plan provide for the release of the State and the State Related Entities by each holder of a Pension Claim from all Liabilities arising from or related to the City, the Chapter 9 Case, the Plan, all Exhibits, the Disclosure Statement, PA 436 and its predecessor or replacement statutes, and Article IX, Section 24 of the Michigan Constitution, as more particularly described in the State Contribution Agreement and as set forth at Section III.D.7.b.

E. The DIA Settlement.

On the Effective Date, the City and the DIA Corp. will enter into the DIA Settlement, pursuant to which (1) the DIA Funding Parties that are such as of the Effective Date have committed to assist in the funding of the City's restructured legacy pension obligations and (2) the City has agreed to enter into certain transactions that will cause the DIA to remain in the City in perpetuity, as described in and subject to the terms and conditions of the DIA Settlement Documents, and to otherwise make the DIA Assets available for the benefit of the residents of the City and the Counties and the citizens of the State. The DIA Settlement Documents attached hereto as Exhibit I.A.127 will qualify the description of the DIA Settlement in the Plan, Disclosure Statement and Exhibit I.A.126. The Plan shall be construed as a motion for approval of, and the Confirmation Order shall constitute an order approving, the DIA Settlement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019.

1. Funding Contributions.

The DIA Settlement will be funded as follows: (a) irrevocable commitments in an aggregate amount of at least $366 million by the Foundations (excluding the Special Foundation Funders, as that term is defined in the DIA Settlement Documents); and (b) in addition to its continuing commitments outside of the DIA Settlement, irrevocable commitments in an aggregate amount of $100 million from the DIA Direct Funders (including the commitment of the Special Foundation Funders, as that term is defined in the DIA Settlement Documents, and subject to certain adjustments as set forth in the DIA Settlement Documents), the payment of which $100 million will be guaranteed by DIA Corp., subject to the terms of the DIA Settlement Documents. The foregoing commitments shall be funded over the course of the 20 year period immediately following the Effective Date (subject to the annual confirmation of the City's continuing compliance with the terms of the DIA Settlement) according to the "Agreed Required Minimum Schedule" and subject to the option at any time for the "Present Value Discount," as set forth in the DIA Settlement Documents. Amounts committed by the Foundations and the DIA Direct Funders will be paid to the CFSEM Supporting Organization, which will (a) transfer such amounts for the purpose of funding the Retirement Systems upon the City's satisfaction of certain conditions and (b) not be subject to claims of creditors of the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan.

2. Transfer of DIA Assets.

On the Effective Date, the City shall irrevocably transfer all of its right, title and interest in and to the DIA Assets to DIA Corp., as trustee, to be held in perpetual charitable trust, and within the City limits, for the primary benefit of the residents of the City and the Counties and the citizens of the State.

3. Conditions to the DIA Funding Parties' Participation.

The DIA Funding Parties' participation in the DIA Settlement is conditioned upon, among other things, the following: (a) execution of the DIA Settlement Documents by each Foundation; (b) the irrevocable commitment from the DIA Corp. described in Section IV.E.1; (c) the acceptance of the Plan by Classes 10 and 11; (d) the irrevocable transfer by the City of the DIA Assets described in Section IV.E.2; (e) approval by the DIA's Board of Directors and the taking effect of the recommendation of the governance committee as described in Exhibit I.A.126; (f) the earmarking of all funds provided by the DIA Funding Parties towards the recoveries upon Pension Claims under the Plan for Holders of Claims in Classes 10 and 11; (g) the adoption of prospective governance and financial oversight mechanisms for the Retirement Systems that are reasonably satisfactory to the DIA Funding Parties; (h) the amendment by DIA Corp. and the art institute authority for each of Macomb County, Oakland County and Wayne County, Michigan of each art institute authority's respective service agreement so that the termination of the 1997 Operating Agreement between the City and DIA Corp. will not affect the art institute authorities' obligations under such agreements to pay millage proceeds to DIA Corp.; (i) the approval of the DIA Settlement by the Attorney General for the State; (j) the agreement of the State to provide the State Contribution; and (k) the City's agreement to indemnify and hold harmless the DIA Funding Parties and the CFSEM Supporting Organization and their Related Entities pursuant to, and in accordance with, the terms of the DIA Settlement Documents.

F. Contingent Payment Rights.

On or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Confirmation Date, the City shall establish the Restoration Trust. The City shall issue the DWSD CVR to the Restoration Trust. If a Qualifying DWSD Transaction has not occurred before the seventh anniversary of the Effective Date, the DWSD CVR shall terminate and expire. The Restoration Trust shall distribute proceeds from the DWSD CVR in the following amounts and priorities: (1) first, to GRS up to an amount sufficient for all three GRS waterfall classes identified on Exhibit II.B.3.r.ii.C to have their 4.5% pension reductions restored; (2) second, to GRS up to an amount sufficient for all three GRS waterfall classes identified on Exhibit II.B.3.r.ii.C to have 92% of their COLA benefits restored; and (3) third, 53% to GRS and 47% to PFRS. If the City makes any contributions to either GRS or PFRS out of its portion of the Net DWSD Transaction Proceeds, such contributions and earnings thereon shall not be taken into account for determining whether any pension restoration may be made. The DWSD CVR may not be transferred.

1. Special Restoration.

Any proceeds from the DWSD CVR distributed by the Restoration Trust on account of a Qualifying DWSD Transaction consummated on or before the Effective Date, or fully executed and enforceable before the Effective Date but consummated after the Effective Date, shall be utilized for the purpose of funding the Special Restoration; provided that the City shall act in good faith so as not to unreasonably delay the execution of a Qualifying DWSD Transaction solely to avoid Special Restoration. In such case, the City will perform a Value Determination and arrive at the Discounted Value. The City will engage in good faith discussion as to the reasonableness of the Value Determination with the Retiree Committee or Restoration Trust, as applicable. In the event that the Retiree Committee or the Restoration Trust, as applicable, does not accept the Value Determination, the Retiree Committee or the Restoration Trust, as applicable, may seek to have the Bankruptcy Court determine the dispute, and the City consents to such jurisdiction.

Special Restoration shall follow the priorities of restoration of benefits set forth in Exhibits II.B.3.q.ii.C and II.B.3.r.ii.C. In order for benefits to be restored pursuant to the Special Restoration, such benefits must be fully funded by 50% of the Discounted Value for the full actuarially-determined lives of all participants for whom benefits are restored. In the event that actual Net DWSD Transaction Proceeds from the DWSD CVR do not equal 50% of the contemplated Net DWSD Transaction Proceeds as of the date of the Value Determination, the Investment Committees of the Retirement Systems will reduce or eliminate the Special Restoration benefits, as applicable, by the amount that 50% of the Discounted Value exceeds the actual Net DWSD Transaction Proceeds from the DWSD CVR received or projected to be received using a 6.75% discount rate. In the event that the Retiree Committee, the Restoration Trust or the City, as applicable, does not agree with the reduction in the Special Restoration benefits, the Retiree Committee or the Restoration Trust, as applicable, or the City may consult with the trustees and Investment Committees of PFRS or GRS with respect to any such reduction. Neither the Retiree Committee nor the Restoration Trust shall have any right to initiate any enforcement proceeding with respect to Special Restoration.

2. General Restoration.

Any Net DWSD Transaction Proceeds from the DWSD CVR distributed by the Restoration Trust on account of a Qualifying DWSD Transaction consummated after the Effective Date, if such Qualifying Transaction was not fully executed and enforceable before the Effective Date, shall be utilized for the purpose of funding the pension trusts, and such cash contributions shall be included in any calculations allowing for the restoration of benefits in accordance with the general rules governing pension restoration as provided for in Exhibits II.B.3.q.ii.C and II.B.3.r.ii.C.

G. The OPEB Settlement.

The City and the Retiree Committee have reached a settlement related to the allowance and calculation of the OPEB Claims in Class 12 and the treatment of such Allowed OPEB Claims, the terms of which settlement are reflected in the Plan. The Plan shall be construed as a motion for approval of, and the Confirmation Order shall constitute an order approving, such settlement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019.

H. The LTGO Settlement.

The City, the LTGO Insurer and BlackRock Financial Management have reached a settlement related to the treatment of Allowed Limited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims, the terms of which settlement are reflected in the Plan. Pursuant to the LTGO Settlement Agreement, Distributions attributable to the Insured LTGO Bonds shall be made to the LTGO Distribution Agent (as opposed to directly to the record owners of the Insured LTGO Bonds or to the LTGO Insurer) for the benefit of the record owners of the Insured LTGO Bonds in accordance with the LTGO Settlement Agreement. In the event that the City intends to redeem the principal amount of New LTGO Notes during any time that the Insured LTGO Bonds are outstanding, the City and the LTGO Distribution Agent shall be required to take certain actions as described in the LTGO Settlement Agreement. The Plan shall be construed as a motion for approval of, and the Confirmation Order shall constitute an order approving, the LTGO Settlement Agreement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019.

I. The Syncora Settlement.

The City and Syncora have reached a settlement effecting a global resolution of all matters and litigation between the parties related to the Chapter 9 Case, as set forth in the Syncora Settlement Documents (the terms of which qualify and control over any description of the Syncora Settlement contained herein). Pursuant to the Syncora Settlement, and in accordance with the Plan, among other things: (1) the City shall, pursuant to Section II.D.1, assume the Tunnel Lease; (2) the parties shall enter into the Syncora Development Agreement; (3) the parties shall dismiss or withdraw the Dismissed Syncora Litigation as set forth in the Syncora Settlement Agreement; (4) any vote cast by Syncora to reject the Plan shall be deemed a vote to accept the Plan; (5) Syncora shall support Confirmation; and (6) on the Effective Date or as soon thereafter as practical, the City shall pay the sum of $5 million in full satisfaction of all of Claims filed or asserted against the City by Syncora relating to the COP Swap Agreements and any agreements related thereto, including the COP Syncora Swap Insurance Policies and the COP Swap Collateral Agreement. The Plan shall be construed as a motion for approval of, and the Confirmation Order shall constitute an order approving and authorizing the parties to enter into, (1) the Syncora Settlement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and (2) the related Syncora Development Agreement (including the garage option) and the Tunnel Lease. The City shall not amend the Plan in any way that adversely affects Syncora without Syncora's prior written consent.

J. The FGIC/COP Settlement.

The City and FGIC have reached a settlement effecting a global resolution of all matters and litigation between the parties related to the Chapter 9 Case, as set forth in the FGIC/COP Settlement Documents (the terms of which qualify and control over any description of the FGIC/COP Settlement contained herein). Pursuant to the FGIC/COP Settlement, and in accordance with the Plan, among other things: (1) the City and the Developer, for the benefit of FGIC and the FGIC COP Holders, shall enter into the FGIC Development Agreement; (2) FGIC shall, on behalf of the FGIC COP Holders, become a Settling COP Claimant with respect to all COPs and COP Claims associated with COPs originally insured by FGIC; (3) the parties shall dismiss or withdraw the Dismissed FGIC/COP Litigation as set forth in the FGIC/COP Settlement Documents; (4) except for Excluded Actions, FGIC shall waive any claims it may have against any other party related to the Dismissed FGIC/COP Litigation as set forth in the FGIC/COP Settlement Documents; (5) any vote cast by FGIC to reject the Plan shall be deemed a vote to accept the Plan; and (6) in full satisfaction and discharge of FGIC's claims against the City related to FGIC's Swap Insurance Policies, (a) FGIC shall receive an Allowed Class 14 Claim in the amount of $6.15 million, entitling FGIC to receive the Distributions provided pursuant to Section II.B.3.u.i and (b) the DDA shall assign to FGIC all of its right, title and interest to the New B Notes to be distributed to the DDA pursuant to Section II.B.3.t.ii. The Plan shall be construed as a motion for approval of, and the Confirmation Order shall constitute an order approving and authorizing the parties to enter into, (1) the FGIC/COP Settlement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and (2) the related FGIC Development Agreement. The City shall not amend the Plan in any way that adversely affects FGIC without FGIC's prior written consent.

K. Issuance of the New Securities.

The City shall issue the New Securities on the Effective Date or a subsequent Distribution Date, as applicable. To the maximum extent provided by section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code and applicable non-bankruptcy law, the issuance of New Securities as contemplated by the Plan is exempt from, among other things, the registration requirements of Section 5 of the Securities Act and any other applicable U.S. state or local law requiring registration prior to the offering, issuance, distribution, or sale of securities. The New Securities (a) are not "restricted securities" as defined in Rule 144(a)(3) under the Securities Act, and (b) are freely tradable and transferable by any initial recipient thereof that (i) is not an "affiliate" of the City or applicable issuer as defined in Rule 144(a)(1) under the Securities Act, (ii) has not been such an "affiliate" within 90 days of such transfer, and (iii) is not an entity that is an "underwriter" as defined in subsection (b) of Section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code.

L. Cancellation of Existing Bonds, Bond Documents, COPs and COP Documents.

Except (a) as provided in any contract, instrument or other agreement or document entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, (b) for purposes of evidencing a right to Distribution under the Plan or (c) as specifically provided otherwise in the Plan (including any rejection of Executory Contracts pursuant to Section II.D), on the Effective Date, the Bonds, the Bond Documents, the COPs and the COP Documents will be deemed automatically cancelled, terminated and of no further force or effect against the City without any further act or action under any applicable agreement, law, regulation, order or rule, and the obligations of the parties to the City, as applicable, under the Bonds, the Bond Documents, the COPs and the COP Documents shall be discharged; provided, however, that the Bonds, the Bond Documents, the COPs and the COP Documents shall continue in effect solely (i) to allow the Disbursing Agent to make any Distributions as set forth in the Plan and to perform such other necessary administrative or other functions with respect thereto, (ii) for any trustee, agent, contract administrator or similar entity under the Bond Documents or COP Documents to have the benefit of all the rights and protections and other provisions of the Bond Documents or COP Documents, as applicable, and all other related agreements with respect to priority in payment and lien rights with respect to any Distribution, (iii) to set forth the terms and conditions applicable to parties to the Bond Documents and COP Documents other than the City, (iv) as may be necessary to preserve any claim by (1) a Bondholder or Bond Agent under a Bond Insurance Policy or against any Bond Insurer, (2) a COPs Holder or COP Agent under a COP Insurance Policy or against any COP Insurer or (3) a COP Swap Counterparty under a Swap Insurance Policy or against any insurer thereunder and (v) with respect to any obligation of any party (other than the City, except to the extent provided in the COP Swap Settlement or the COP Swap Settlement Approval Order) under any COP Document related to such party's obligations owed in respect of the COP Swap Documents or the COP Swap Claims. Notwithstanding the foregoing, and except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan (or the COP Swap Settlement or the COP Swap Settlement Approval Order), such Bonds, Bond Documents, COPs or COP Documents as remain outstanding shall not form the basis for the assertion of any Claim against the City. Nothing in the Plan impairs, modifies, affects or otherwise alters the rights of (a) Bondholders or Bond Agents with respect to claims under applicable Bond Insurance Policies or against the Bond Insurers, (b) COPs Holders or COP Agent with respect to claims under COP Insurance Policies and obligations related thereto or (c) COP Swap Counterparties with respect to claims under Swap Insurance Policies and obligations related thereto. For the avoidance of doubt, except for the immediately preceding sentence, this Section IV.L shall not apply to any Bonds that are Reinstated pursuant to Section II.B.3.a.ii. As of the Effective Date, the principal amounts of the COPs originally insured by FGIC shall be deemed accelerated and due and payable, and no interest on the COPs originally insured by FGIC shall accrue thereafter, solely for the purposes of determining distributions from the COP Trustee to holders of COPs originally insured by FGIC. The foregoing acceleration of principal and cessation of interest shall affect only the rights of each holder of COPs originally insured by FGIC to the receipt of proceeds of distributions under the Plan and not the rights of each such COPs holder against FGIC or shall not in any way modify payments currently required of FGIC under its existing insurance policies or FGIC's Plan of Rehabilitation.

M. Release of Liens.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, release or other agreement or document entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, or where a Claim is Reinstated, on the Effective Date, all Liens against the City's property will be deemed fully released and discharged, and all of the right, title and interest of any holder of such Liens, including any rights to any collateral thereunder, will revert to the City. As of the Effective Date, (1) the holders of such Liens will be authorized and directed to release any collateral or other property of the City (including any cash collateral) held by such Holder and to take such actions as may be requested by the City to evidence the release of such Lien, including the execution, delivery, filing or recording of such releases as may be requested by the City, and (2) the City shall be authorized to execute and file on behalf of creditors Form UCC-3 termination statements or such other forms as may be necessary or appropriate to implement the provisions of this Section IV.M.

N. Professional Fees.

1. Professional Fee Reserve.

On the Effective Date, the City shall establish and fund the Professional Fee Reserve from the General Fund or, where applicable, the DWSD's funds, in an amount determined by the City to be sufficient to pay the Fee Review Professional Fees that remain unpaid as of the Effective Date, solely to the extent that such amounts are payable from the General Fund or the DWSD's funds. The initial amount of the Professional Fee Reserve shall be equal to the sum of (a) all invoices received from Fee Review Professionals and the Fee Examiner Parties as of the establishment and funding of the Professional Fee Reserve to the extent not yet paid (including holdbacks); (b) an estimate of the Fee Review Professionals' unbilled fees through the Effective Date as determined by the City in consultation with the Fee Review Professionals, which estimate shall be no lower than 125% of the aggregate amount of the highest monthly invoices respectively submitted by each Fee Review Professional pursuant to the Fee Review Order prior to the establishment and funding of the Professional Fee Reserve; and (c) an estimate of the Fee Examiner Parties' unbilled fees and expenses through the projected date of dismissal of the Fee Examiner under Section IV.N.3, as determined by the City in consultation with the Fee Examiner. The funds held in the Professional Fee Reserve may not be used for any purpose other than the payment of Fee Review Professional Fees until any and all disputes regarding the Fee Review Professional Fees, including any disputes arising under the Fee Review Order, have been fully and finally resolved pursuant to a Final Order or a stipulation between the disputing parties. Any amounts remaining in the Professional Fee Reserve after final resolution of all such disputes and the payment of all Fee Review Professional Fees determined to be reasonable in accordance with the Fee Review Order shall be released to the General Fund or the DWSD's funds, as applicable. If the Professional Fee Reserve is insufficient to pay all Fee Review Professional Fees that are determined to be reasonable in accordance with the Fee Review Order and that are payable from the General Fund or the DWSD's funds, the City shall pay such additional amounts from the General Fund or the DWSD's funds, as applicable.

2. Fee Review Order.

The Fee Examiner shall review all fees and expenses of the Fee Review Professionals for the period from the Petition Date and ending on the Effective Date in accordance with the terms of the Fee Review Order. For the avoidance of doubt, the Fee Review Order shall not apply to any fees or expenses of the Fee Review Professionals for the period on and after the Effective Date, and the Fee Examiner shall not review any such fees or expenses; provided, however, that all fees and expenses of the Fee Examiner Parties, whether incurred before, on or after the Effective Date, shall remain subject to review and approval of the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to the terms of the Fee Review Order.

3. Dismissal of the Fee Examiner.

Once the Fee Examiner completes his review of all Fee Review Professional Fees and submits or Files all reports related thereto as required by the Fee Review Order, the Fee Examiner shall be dismissed of all duties and obligations under the Fee Examiner Order and the Fee Review Order, other than any obligations of confidentiality thereunder. The confidentiality obligations of the Fee Examiner and the other Fee Examiner Parties, including the confidentiality obligations set forth in paragraph 22 of the Fee Review Order, shall remain binding from and after the Effective Date.

4. Potential Review of Fees Not Subject to Fee Review Order.

The City shall have the right to bring before the Bankruptcy Court a request to review and determine the reasonableness of the fees and expenses of any Fee Review Professional retained by a creditor of the City or any of its departments to the extent that such fees and expenses have not been either (a) approved pursuant to or in accordance with the DWSD Tender Order, (b) subject to court review or (c) subject to a Bankruptcy Court-approved or agreed upon process for binding arbitration.

5. Court-Appointed Expert.

The Court-appointed expert, Martha E. M. Kopacz of Phoenix Management Services, and her counsel shall be compensated for any reasonable fees and expenses incurred through the Confirmation Date in accordance with the terms of the Court's Order Appointing Expert Witness (Docket No. 4215), entered on April 22, 2014, as amended.

O. Assumption of Indemnification Obligations.

Notwithstanding anything otherwise to the contrary in the Plan, nothing in the Plan shall discharge or impair the obligations of the City as provided in the City Charter of the City or other organizational documents, resolutions, employment contracts, applicable law or other applicable agreements as of the Petition Date to indemnify, defend, reimburse, exculpate, advance fees and expenses to, or limit the liability of officers and employees of the City (consistent with the injunction provisions of Section III.D.5 and including the members of the City Council, the Mayor and the Emergency Manager) and their Related Entities, in each case to the extent such Entities were acting in such capacity, against any claims or causes of action whether direct or derivative, liquidated or unliquidated, foreseen or unforeseen, asserted or unasserted; provided that this Section IV.O shall be read in conjunction with the provisions for Indirect Employee Indemnity Claims set forth in Section III.D.5. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Retirement System Indemnity Obligations shall not be assumed under the Plan and shall be discharged. For the avoidance of doubt, no indemnification provision in any loan document, bond document, Bond Insurance Policy or other agreement with a Bond Insurer is exempted from discharge by reason of this Section IV.O.

P. Incorporation of Retiree Health Care Settlement Agreement.

The terms of the Retiree Health Care Settlement Agreement resolving the Retiree Health Care Litigation, which agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit I.A.298, are incorporated herein by reference and shall be binding upon the parties thereto.

Q. Payment of Workers' Compensation Claims.

From and after the Effective Date, (a) the City will continue to administer (either directly or through a third party administrator) and pay all valid claims for benefits and liabilities for which the City is responsible under applicable State workers' compensation law, regardless of when the applicable injuries were incurred, in accordance with the City's prepetition practices and procedures and governing State workers' compensation law, and (b) nothing in the Plan shall discharge, release or relieve the City from any current or future liability under applicable State workers' compensation law. The City expressly reserves the right to challenge the validity of any claim for benefits or liabilities arising under applicable State workers' compensation law.

R. 36th District Court Settlement.

The City and the Settling 36th District Court Claimants have reached a settlement related to (1) the allowance of certain of the Settling 36th District Court Claimants' Claims and (2) the treatment of Allowed Indirect 36th District Court Claims under the Plan substantially on the terms attached hereto as Exhibit I.A.9. The 36th District Court Settlement is incorporated into the Plan, which shall be construed as a motion for approval of, and the Confirmation Order shall constitute an order approving, such settlement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019.

S. Payment of Certain Claims Relating to the Operation of City Motor Vehicles.

From and after the Effective Date, the City will continue to administer (either directly or through a third party administrator) and pay valid prepetition Claims for liabilities with respect to which the City is required to maintain insurance coverage pursuant to MCL § 500.3101 in connection with the operation of the City's motor vehicles, as follows: (1) Claims for personal protection benefits as provided by MCL § 500.3107 and MCL § 500.3108, for which insurance coverage is required by MCL § 500.3101(1), shall be paid in full, to the extent valid, provided, however, that the City will not be liable for or pay interest or attorneys' fees under MCL § 500.3142

or MCL § 500.3148 on prepetition Claims for personal protection benefits; (2) tort claims permitted by MCL § 500.3135, for which residual liability insurance coverage is required by MCL § 500.3101(1) and MCL § 500.3131, shall be paid, to the extent valid, only up to the minimum coverages specified by MCL § 500.3009(1), i.e., up to a maximum of (a) $20,000 because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident, and subject to that limit for one person, (b) $40,000 because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident and (c) $10,000 because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any accident; and (3) Claims for property protection benefits under MCL § 500.3121 and MCL § 500.3123 shall be paid, to the extent valid, only up to the maximum benefits specified in MCL § 500.3121; provided, however, for the avoidance of doubt, to the extent any valid Claim subject to subsections 2 and 3 above exceeds the applicable payment limits, the excess claim amount shall be treated as an Other Unsecured Claim or a Convenience Claim (as applicable). Nothing in the Plan shall discharge, release or relieve the City from any current or future liability with respect to Claims subject to insurance coverage pursuant to MCL § 500.3101 or Claims within the minimum coverage limits in MCL § 500.3009(1). The City expressly reserves the right to challenge the validity of any Claim subject to this Section IV.S, and nothing herein shall be deemed to expand the City's obligations or claimants' rights with respect to these Claims under State law.

T. Payment of Tax Refund Claims.

From and after the Effective Date, the City will continue to administer (either directly or through a third party administrator) and pay all valid claims for income tax refunds and property tax refunds for which the City is responsible under applicable law, regardless of when the applicable right to a refund arose, in accordance with the City's prepetition practices and procedures. The City expressly reserves the right to challenge the validity of any claim for an income tax refund or property tax refund.

U. Utility Deposits.

From and after the Effective Date, the City will continue to administer utility deposits in accordance with the City's prepetition practices and procedures, including the payment of any undisputed, non-contingent, liquidated claims against the City for the refund of a utility deposit.

V. Pass-Through Obligations.

The City shall continue to honor its Pass-Through Obligations to the Pass-Through Recipients.

W. Exit Facility.

On the Effective Date, the City shall enter into the Exit Facility, as well as any ancillary notes, documents or agreements in connection therewith, including, without limitation, any documents required in connection with the creation or perfection of the liens securing the Exit Facility.

X. Post-Effective Date Governance.

Prior to or on the Effective Date, the Financial Review Commission shall be established pursuant to and in accordance with the Financial Review Commission Act. The Financial Review Commission shall provide oversight as set forth in the Financial Review Commission Act, including to ensure that, post-Effective Date, the City adheres to the Plan and continues to implement financial and operational reforms that promote more efficient and effective delivery of services to City residents. The City shall promptly provide to the Bankruptcy Court copies of any reports given to, or received from, the Financial Review Commission. Nothing herein shall expand, limit or otherwise modify the role or powers of the Financial Review Commission.

ARTICLE V PROVISIONS REGARDING DISTRIBUTIONS UNDER THE PLAN

A. Appointment of Disbursing Agent.

The City may act as Disbursing Agent or may employ or contract with other Entities to act as the Disbursing Agent or to assist in or make the Distributions required by the Plan. Any Disbursing Agent appointed by the City will serve without bond. Other than as specifically set forth in the Plan, the Disbursing Agent shall make all Distributions required to be made under the Plan.

B. Distributions on Account of Allowed Claims.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, on the Effective Date or as soon as practicable thereafter (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the date that such a Claim becomes an Allowed Claim, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive from the Disbursing Agent, the Bond Agent or the COP Agent, as applicable, the Distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class. In the event that any payment or act under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or the performance of such act may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. If and to the extent that there are Disputed Claims, Distributions on account of any such Disputed Claims shall be made pursuant to the provisions set forth in Section VI.B. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends or accruals on the Distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such Distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, no Holder of an Allowed Claim shall, on account of such Allowed Claim, receive a Distribution in excess of the Allowed amount of such Claim.

C. Certain Claims to Be Expunged.

Any Claim that has been or is hereafter listed in the List of Creditors as contingent, unliquidated or disputed, and for which no proof of Claim is or has been timely Filed, is not considered to be an Allowed Claim and shall be expunged without further action by the City and without further notice to any party or any action, approval or order of the Bankruptcy Court.

D. Record Date for Distributions; Exception for Bond Claims.

With the exception of Bond Claims, neither the City nor any Disbursing Agent will have any obligation to recognize the transfer of, or the sale of any participation in, any Claim that occurs after the close of business on the Distribution Record Date, and will be entitled for all purposes herein to recognize and distribute only to those Holders of Allowed Claims (including Holders of Claims that become Allowed after the Distribution Record Date) that are Holders of such Claims, or participants therein, as of the close of business on the Distribution Record Date. With the exception of the Bond Claims, the City and any Disbursing Agent shall instead be entitled to recognize and deal for all purposes under the Plan with only those record Holders stated on the official Claims Register as of the close of business on the Distribution Record Date. Unless otherwise set forth in the Confirmation Order, the City shall not establish a record date for Distributions to Holders of Bond Claims.

E. Means of Cash Payments.

Except as otherwise specified herein, all Cash payments made pursuant to the Plan shall be in U.S. currency and made by check drawn on a domestic bank selected by the Disbursing Agent or, at the option of the Disbursing Agent, by wire transfer, electronic funds transfer or ACH from a domestic bank selected by the Disbursing Agent; provided, however, that Cash payments to foreign Holders of Allowed Claims may be made, at the option of the Disbursing Agent, in such funds and by such means as are necessary or customary in a particular foreign jurisdiction.

F. Selection of Distribution Dates for Allowed Claims.

Except where the Plan requires the making of a Distribution on account of a particular Allowed Claim within a particular time, the Disbursing Agent shall have the authority to select Distribution Dates that, in the judgment of the Disbursing Agent, provide Holders of Allowed Claims with payments as quickly as reasonably practicable while limiting the costs incurred in the distribution process. Upon the selection of a Distribution Date by the Disbursing Agent, the Disbursing Agent shall File a notice of such Distribution Date that provides information regarding the Distribution to be made.

G. Limitations on Amounts to Be Distributed to Holders of Allowed Claims Otherwise Insured.

No Distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to one of the City's insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy; provided that, if the City believes a Holder of an Allowed Claim has recourse to an insurance policy and intends to direct the Disbursing Agent to withhold a Distribution pursuant to this Section V.G, the City shall provide written notice to such Holder regarding what the City believes to be the nature and scope of applicable insurance coverage. To the extent that one or more of the City's insurance carriers agrees to satisfy a Claim in full, then immediately upon such agreement such Claim may be expunged without a Claims objection having to be Filed and without any further notice or any action, order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. Nothing in the Plan, including this Section V.G, shall constitute a waiver of any claims, obligations, suits, judgments, damages, demands, debts, rights, Causes of Action or liabilities that any Entity may hold against any other Entity, including the City's insurance carriers and Bond Insurers, other than the City. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section shall not apply to Bond Insurance Policies or Swap Insurance Policies.

H. City's Rights of Setoff Preserved.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, pursuant to section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise applicable non-bankruptcy law, the City may set off against any Allowed Claim and the Distributions to be made pursuant to the Plan on account of such Allowed Claim the claims, rights and Causes of Action of any nature that the City may assert against the Holder of such Claim; provided, however, that neither the failure to effect a setoff nor the allowance of any Claim pursuant to the terms of the Plan shall constitute a waiver or release by the City of any claims, rights and Causes of Action that the City may assert against such Holder, all of which are expressly preserved.

I. Delivery of Distributions and Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions.

1. Delivery of Distributions Generally.

Except as set forth in Section V.I.2, Distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims shall be made at the addresses set forth in the City's records unless such addresses are superseded by proofs of Claim or transfers of Claim Filed pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3001.

2. Delivery of Distributions on Account of Bond Claims.

Distributions on account of the Bond Claims shall (a) be made by the Disbursing Agent to the Bond Agent under the applicable Bond Documents for the benefit of Holders of Bond Claims and (b) be deemed completed when made by the Disbursing Agent to the Bond Agent as if such Distributions were made directly to the Holders of such Claims. The applicable Bond Agent, in turn, shall make such distributions to the applicable Holders pursuant to the terms and conditions of the applicable Bond Documents and subject to the respective rights, claims and interests, if any, that the Bond Agent may have under the applicable Bond Documents or otherwise to the recovery or reimbursement of their fees, costs and expenses (including the fees, costs and expenses of counsel and financial advisors) from any distribution hereunder, whether such rights, claims or interests are in the nature of a charging lien or otherwise. The Bond Agent shall not be required to give any bond, surety or other security for the performance of its duties with respect to such Distributions.

3. De Minimis Distributions / No Fractional New Securities.

No distribution shall be made by the Disbursing Agent on account of an Allowed Claim if the amount to be distributed to the specific Holder of an Allowed Claim on the applicable Distribution Date has an economic value of less than $25.00. No fractional New Securities shall be distributed. Where a fractional portion of a New Security otherwise would be called for under the Plan, the actual issuance shall reflect a rounding down to the nearest whole New Security.

4. Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions.

In the event that any Distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable, no Distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Disbursing Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder, at which time such Distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest.

Any Holder of an Allowed Claim that does not claim an undeliverable or unclaimed Distribution within six months after the Effective Date shall be deemed to have forfeited its claim to such Distribution and shall be forever barred and enjoined from asserting any such claim against the City or its property. In such cases, any Cash held by the City on account of such undeliverable or unclaimed Distributions shall become the property of the City free of any restrictions thereon and notwithstanding any federal or state escheat laws to the contrary. Any New Securities held for distribution on account of such Claims shall be canceled and of no further force or effect. Nothing contained in the Plan shall require any Disbursing Agent to attempt to locate any Holder of an Allowed Claim.

5. Time Bar to Cash Payment Rights.

Checks issued in respect of Allowed Claims shall be null and void if not negotiated within 90 days after the date of issuance thereof. Requests for reissuance of any check shall be made to the Disbursing Agent by the Holder of the Allowed Claim to whom such check originally was issued within 180 days after the date of the original check issuance. After such date, the Claim of any Holder to the amount represented by such voided check shall be released and forever barred from assertion against the City and its property.

J. Other Provisions Applicable to Distributions in All Classes.

1. No Postpetition Interest.

Except as otherwise specifically provided for in the Plan, or required by applicable bankruptcy law, the City shall have no obligation to pay any amount that constitutes or is attributable to interest on an Allowed Claim accrued after the Petition Date and no Holder of a Claim shall be entitled to be paid any amount that constitutes or is attributable to interest accruing on or after the Petition Date on any Claim without regard to the characterization of such amounts in any document or agreement or to whether such amount has accrued for federal income tax purposes. Any such amount that constitutes or is attributable to interest that has been accrued and has not been paid by the City shall be cancelled as of the Effective Date for federal income tax purposes.

2. Compliance with Tax Requirements.

In connection with the Plan and all instruments issued in connection therewith and distributed thereon, the City and any Disbursing Agent shall comply with all Tax withholding and reporting requirements imposed on it by any governmental unit, and all Distributions under the Plan shall be subject to such withholding and reporting requirements. All such amounts withheld and paid to the appropriate governmental unit shall be treated as if made directly to the Holder of an Allowed Claim. The City and the Disbursing Agent shall be authorized to take any actions that they determine, in their reasonable discretion, to be necessary or appropriate to comply with such withholding and reporting requirements, including withholding Distributions pending receipt of information necessary to facilitate such Distributions, or establishing any other mechanisms they believe are reasonable and appropriate.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, each Entity receiving or deemed to receive a Distribution pursuant to the Plan shall have sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment of any Tax imposed on such Entity on account of such Distribution, including income, withholding and other Tax obligations. The City has the right, but not the obligation, to refuse, or to direct a Disbursing Agent to refuse, to make a Distribution until a Holder of an Allowed Claim has made arrangements satisfactory to the City and any Disbursing Agent for payment of any such Tax obligations. The City may require, as a condition to making a Distribution, that the Holder of an Allowed Claim provide the City or any Disbursing Agent with a completed Form W-8, W-9 or other Tax information, certifications and supporting documentation, as applicable.

If the City makes such a request and the Holder of an Allowed Claim fails to comply before the date that is 180 days after the initial request is made, the amount of such Distribution shall irrevocably revert to the City and any Claim in respect of such Distribution shall be released and forever barred from assertion against the City and its property.

3. Allocation of Distributions.

All Distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims that have components of principal and interest shall be deemed to apply first to the principal amount of such Claim until such principal amount is paid in full, and then the remaining portion of such Distributions, if any, shall be deemed to apply to any applicable accrued interest included in such Claim to the extent interest is payable under the Plan.

4. Surrender of Instruments.

As a condition to participation under this Plan, the Holder of a note, debenture or other evidence of indebtedness of the City that desires to receive the property to be distributed on account of an Allowed Claim based on such note, debenture or other evidence of indebtedness shall surrender such note, debenture or other evidence of indebtedness to the City or its designee (unless such Holder's Claim will not be Impaired by the Plan, in which case such surrender shall not be required), and shall execute and deliver such other documents as are necessary to effectuate the Plan; provided, however, that, if a claimant is a Holder of a note, debenture or other evidence of indebtedness for which no physical certificate was issued to the Holder but which instead is held in book-entry form pursuant to a global security held by the Depository Trust Company or other securities depository or custodian thereof, there shall be no requirement of surrender. In the City's sole discretion, if no surrender of a note, debenture or other evidence of indebtedness occurs and the Holder of Claim does not provide an affidavit and indemnification agreement, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the City, that such note, debenture or other evidence of indebtedness was lost, then no distribution may be made to such Holder in respect of the Claim based on such note, debenture or other evidence of indebtedness. For the avoidance of doubt, (a) no Bond, note, debenture or other evidence of indebtedness of the City shall be surrendered or deemed surrendered that is subject to any Bond Insurance Policy and (b) no COP shall be surrendered or deemed surrendered hereby to the extent necessary to make or preserve a claim under any applicable policies or other instruments insuring the COPs and obligations related thereto or against any party, other than the City, that insures the COPs. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such Bonds or Bond Documents as remain outstanding shall not form the basis for the assertion of any Claim against the City.

ARTICLE VI
PROCEDURES FOR RESOLVING DISPUTED CLAIMS

A. Treatment of Disputed Claims.

1. General.

No Claim shall become an Allowed Claim unless and until such Claim is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Court has entered a Final Order (including the Confirmation Order) allowing such Claim. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, no payments or Distributions shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim until such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim. Without limiting the foregoing in any way, no partial payments and no partial Distributions will be made with respect to a disputed, contingent or unliquidated Claim, or with respect to any Claim for which a proof of Claim has been Filed but not Allowed, until the resolution of such disputes or estimation or liquidation of such Claim by settlement or by Final Order.

2. ADR Procedures.

At the City's option, any Disputed Claim designated or eligible to be designated for resolution through the ADR Procedures may be submitted to the ADR Procedures in accordance with the terms thereof and the ADR Procedures Order. For the avoidance of doubt, the designation of a Disputed Claim for resolution through the ADR Procedures, either prior to or after the Effective Date, will not modify, and will not be deemed to have modified, the terms of the ADR Injunction imposed pursuant to the ADR Procedures Order. Disputed Claims not resolved through the ADR Procedures will be resolved pursuant to the Plan.

3. Tort Claims.

At the City's option, any unliquidated Tort Claim (as to which a proof of Claim was timely Filed in the Chapter 9 Case) not resolved through the ADR Procedures or pursuant to a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court will be determined and liquidated in the administrative or judicial tribunal(s) in which it is pending on the Effective Date (subject to the City's right to seek removal or transfer of venue) or, if no action was pending on the Effective Date, in an administrative or judicial tribunal of appropriate jurisdiction that (a) has personal jurisdiction over the parties, (b) has subject matter jurisdiction over the Tort Claim and (c) is a proper venue. The City may exercise the above option by service upon the holder of the applicable Tort Claim of a notice informing such holder that the City has exercised such option (which notice shall be deemed to satisfy the notice requirements of Section I.B of the ADR Procedures). Upon the City's service of such notice, the automatic stay imposed pursuant to sections 362 and 922 of the Bankruptcy Code (along with any extension of such stay pursuant to the terms of the Stay Extension Order) or, after the Effective Date, the injunction set forth at Section III.D.5, will be deemed modified, without the necessity for further Bankruptcy Court approval or any further action by the City, solely to the extent necessary to allow the parties to determine or liquidate the Tort Claim in the applicable administrative or judicial tribunal(s); provided that nothing contained in this Section will modify, or will be deemed to have modified, the terms of the Stay Extension Order with respect to any Tort Claim prior to the City having served notice of its intent to determine and liquidate such Tort Claim pursuant to this Section. If the City does not serve such a notice upon a holder of a Tort Claim by the Claims Objection Bar Date, such holder may file a motion with the Bankruptcy Court no later than 30 days after the Claims Objection Bar Date seeking relief from the discharge injunction imposed pursuant to Section III.D.5 in order to liquidate and determine its Claim, which right and the deadline for exercising such right shall be set forth in the notice of entry of the Confirmation Order.

Any Tort Claim determined and liquidated pursuant to a judgment obtained in accordance with this Section VI.A.3 and applicable non-bankruptcy law that is no longer appealable or subject to review will be deemed an Allowed Claim, provided that only the amount of such Allowed Tort Claim that is not satisfied from proceeds of insurance payable to the holder of such Allowed Tort Claim will be treated as an Allowed Claim for the purposes of distributions under the Plan and subject to the terms of the Plan. Distributions on account of any such Allowed Tort Claim shall be made in accordance with the Plan. Nothing contained in this Section will constitute or be deemed a waiver of any claim, right or Cause of Action that the City may have against any Entity in connection with or arising out of any Tort Claim, including any rights under section 157(b)(5) of title 28 of the United States Code. All claims, demands, rights, defenses and Causes of Action that the City may have against any Entity in connection with or arising out of any Tort Claim are expressly retained and preserved.

B. Disputed Claims Reserve.

On and after the Effective Date, until such time as all Disputed Claims have been compromised and settled or determined by Final Order and before making any Distributions, consistent with and subject to section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, the City shall establish and maintain a reserve of property equal to (1) the Distributions to which Holders of Disputed Claims would be entitled under the Plan if such Disputed Claims were Allowed Claims in the Face Amount of such Disputed Claims or (2) such lesser amount as required by an order of the Bankruptcy Court. On the first Distribution Date that is at least 30 days (or such fewer days as may be agreed to by the City in its sole discretion) after the date on which a Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim, the Disbursing Agent shall remit to the Holder of such Allowed Claim any Distributions such Holder would have been entitled to under the Plan on account of such Allowed Claim had such Claim been Allowed as of the Effective Date. If a Disputed Claim is disallowed by Final Order, the property reserved on account shall become available for Distribution to the Holders of Allowed Claims within the Class(es) entitled to receive such property. Each Holder of a Disputed Claim that ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim will have recourse only to the assets held in the disputed claims reserve and not to any other assets held by the City, its property or any property previously distributed on account of any Allowed Claim.

C. Objections to Claims.

1. Authority to Prosecute, Settle and Compromise.

The City's rights to object to, oppose and defend against all Claims on any basis are fully preserved. As of the Effective Date, only the City shall have the authority to File, settle, compromise, withdraw or litigate to judgment objections to Claims, including pursuant to the ADR Procedures or any similar procedures approved by the Bankruptcy Court. Any objections to Claims shall be Filed no later than the Claims Objection Bar Date. On and after the Effective Date, the City may settle or compromise any Disputed Claim or any objection or controversy relating to any Claim without any further notice or any action, order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

2. Expungement or Adjustment of Claims Without Objection.

Any Claim that has been paid, satisfied or superseded shall be expunged from the Claims Register by the Claims and Balloting Agent at the request of the City, and any Claim that has been amended by the Holder of such Claim shall be adjusted on the Claims Register by the Claims and Balloting Agent at the request of the City, without the Filing of an objection and without any further notice or any action, order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

3. Extension of Claims Objection Bar Date.

Upon motion by the City to the Bankruptcy Court, the City may request, and the Bankruptcy Court may grant, an extension to the Claims Objection Bar Date generally or with respect to specific Claims. Any extension granted by the Bankruptcy Court shall not be considered to be a modification to the Plan under section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. Authority to Amend List of Creditors.

The City will have the authority to amend the List of Creditors with respect to any Claim and to make Distributions based on such amended List of Creditors without approval of the Bankruptcy Court. If any such amendment to the List of Creditors reduces the amount of a Claim or changes the nature or priority of a Claim, the City will provide the Holder of such Claim with notice of such amendment and such Holder will have 20 days to File an objection to such amendment with the Bankruptcy Court. If no such objection is Filed, the Disbursing Agent may proceed with Distributions based on such amended List of Creditors without approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

ARTICLE VII
RETENTION OF JURISDICTION

Pursuant to sections 105(c), 945 and 1142(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and notwithstanding entry of the Confirmation Order and the occurrence of the Effective Date, the Bankruptcy Court will retain exclusive jurisdiction over all matters arising out of, and related to, the Chapter 9 Case and the Plan to the fullest extent permitted by law, including, among other things, jurisdiction to:

A. Allow, disallow, estimate, determine, liquidate, reduce, classify, re-classify, estimate or establish the priority or secured or unsecured status of any Claim, including the resolution of any request for payment of any Administrative Claim and the resolution of any and all objections to the amount, allowance, priority or classification of Claims;

B. G. H. Approve any modification of the Plan or approve any modification of the Confirmation Order or any contract, instrument, release or other agreement or document created in connection with the Plan or the Confirmation Order, or remedy any defect or omission or reconcile any inconsistency in any order, the Plan, the Confirmation Order or any contract, instrument, release or other agreement or document created in connection with the Plan or the Confirmation Order, or enter any order in aid of confirmation pursuant to sections 945 and 1142(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, in such manner as may be necessary or appropriate to consummate the Plan;

I. Issue injunctions, enforce the injunctions contained in the Plan and the Confirmation Order, enter and implement other orders or take such other actions as may be necessary or appropriate to restrain interference by any Entity with consummation, implementation or enforcement of the Plan or the Confirmation Order;

J. Adjudicate, decide or resolve any matters relating to the City's compliance with the Plan and the Confirmation Order consistent with section 945 of the Bankruptcy Code;

K. Enter and implement such orders as are necessary or appropriate if the Confirmation Order is for any reason or in any respect modified, stayed, reversed, revoked or vacated or Distributions pursuant to the Plan are enjoined or stayed;

O. Enforce or clarify any orders previously entered by the Bankruptcy Court in the Chapter 9 Case;

P. Enter a final decree closing the Chapter 9 Case pursuant to section 945(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; and

Q. Hear any other matter over which the Bankruptcy Court has jurisdiction under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules subject to any limits on the Bankruptcy Court's jurisdiction and powers under sections 903 and 904 of the Bankruptcy Code.

ARTICLE VIII MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

A. Plan Supplements.

All Plan Supplements not previously filed will be Filed no later than ten days before the Confirmation Hearing.

B. Modification of the Plan.

Subject to section 942 and 1127(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the City may alter, amend or modify the Plan or the Exhibits at any time prior to or after the Confirmation Date but prior to the substantial consummation of the Plan. A Holder of a Claim that has accepted the Plan shall be deemed to have accepted the Plan as altered, amended or modified so long as the proposed alteration, amendment or modification does not materially and adversely change the treatment of the Claim of such Holder.

C. Revocation of the Plan.

The City reserves the right to revoke or withdraw the Plan prior to the Confirmation Date. If the City revokes or withdraws the Plan, or if the Confirmation Date does not occur, then the Plan shall be null and void in all respects, and nothing contained in the Plan, nor any action taken or not taken by the City with respect to the Plan, the Disclosure Statement or the Confirmation Order, shall be or shall be deemed to be: (1) a waiver or release of any claims by or against the City; (2) an admission of any sort by the City or any other party in interest, or (3) prejudicial in any manner to the rights of the City or any other party in interest.

D. Severability of Plan Provisions.

If any term or provision of the Plan is held by the Bankruptcy Court to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the Bankruptcy Court, in each case at the election of and with the consent of the City, shall have the power to alter and interpret such term or provision to make it valid or enforceable to the maximum extent practicable, consistent with the original purpose of the term or provision held to be invalid, void or unenforceable, and such term or provision shall then be applicable as altered or interpreted. Notwithstanding any such holding, alteration or interpretation, the remainder of the terms and provisions of the Plan shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated by such holding, alteration or interpretation. The Confirmation Order shall constitute a judicial determination and shall provide that each term and provision of the Plan, as it may have been altered or interpreted in accordance with the foregoing, is: (1) valid and enforceable pursuant to its terms; (2) integral to the Plan and may not be deleted or modified without the City's consent; and (3) non-severable and mutually dependent.

E. Effectuating Documents and Transactions.

The City is authorized to execute, deliver, File or record such contracts, instruments, releases and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan and any notes or securities issued pursuant to the Plan. All such actions shall be deemed to have occurred and shall be in effect pursuant to applicable non-bankruptcy law and the Bankruptcy Code, without any requirement of further action by the City Council, the Emergency Manager, the Mayor or any employees or officers of the City. NOTICE OF (I) ENTRY OF ORDER CONFIRMING EIGHTH
AMENDED PLAN FOR THE ADJUSTMENT OF DEBTS OF THE CITY OF DETROIT AND (II) OCCURRENCE OF EFFECTIVE DATE

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE OF THE FOLLOWING:

1. Confirmation of the Plan and Occurrence of the Effective Date.

On _____, 2014, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Michigan (the "Bankruptcy Court") entered an order (Docket No. ____) (the "Confirmation Order") confirming the Eighth Amended Plan for the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit (as it may have been amended, supplemented or modified, the "Plan"), in the above-captioned chapter 9 case of the City of Detroit, Michigan (the "City"). The Effective Date of the Plan occurred on _____, 201_. Unless otherwise defined in this Notice, capitalized terms and phrases used herein have the meanings given to them in the Plan and the Confirmation Order.

2. Discharge of Claims.

a. Except as provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the rights afforded under the Plan and the treatment of Claims under the Plan are in exchange for and in complete satisfaction, discharge and release of all Claims arising on or before the Effective Date, including any interest accrued on Claims from and after the Petition Date. Except as provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, the City is discharged from all Claims or other debts that arose on or before the Effective Date, and all debts of the kind specified in section 502(g), 502(h) or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether or not (i) a proof of Claim based on such debt was Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) a Claim based on such debt was allowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code or (iii) the Holder of a Claim based on such debt accepted the Plan.

b. In accordance with the foregoing, except as expressly provided otherwise in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, the Confirmation Order is a judicial determination, as of the Effective Date, of a discharge of all debts of the City, pursuant to sections 524(a)(1), 524(a)(2) and 944(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and such discharge voids any judgment obtained against the City at any time, to the extent that such judgment relates to a discharged debt; provided that, in accordance with section 944(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, such discharge does not apply to (i) debts specifically exempted from discharge under the Plan; (ii) debts held by an Entity that, before the Confirmation Date, had neither notice nor actual knowledge of the Chapter 9 Case; (iii) claims against officers or employees of the City in their individual capacity under 42 U.S.C. § 1983; or (iv) Claims of (A) T&T Management, Inc., (B) HRT Enterprises and (C) the John W. and Vivian M. Denis Trust related to condemnation or inverse condemnation actions against the City alleging that the City has taken private property without just compensation in violation of the Takings Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

3. Releases.

a. General Releases by Holders of Claims. Without limiting any other applicable provisions of, or releases contained in, the Plan or any contracts, instruments, releases, agreements or documents to be entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, as of the Effective Date, in consideration for the obligations of the City under the Plan and the consideration and other contracts, instruments, releases, agreements or documents to be entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan (including the State Contribution Agreement), each holder of a Claim that voted in favor of the Plan, to the fullest extent permissible under law, is deemed to forever release, waive and discharge (which release will be in addition to the release and discharge of Claims otherwise provided herein and under the Confirmation Order and the Bankruptcy Code):

i. all Liabilities in any way relating to the City, the Chapter 9 Case (including the authorization given to file the Chapter 9 Case), the Plan, the Exhibits or the Disclosure Statement, in each case that such holder has, had or may have against the City or its current and former officials, officers, directors, employees, managers, attorneys, advisors and professionals, each acting in such capacity (and, in addition to and without limiting the foregoing, in the case of any Emergency Manager, in such Emergency Manager's capacity as an appointee under PA 436); provided further, for the avoidance of doubt, that any person or entity designated to manage the Chapter 9 Case for the City after the Emergency Manager's term is terminated, whether such person or entity acts as an employee, advisor or contractor to the City or acts as an employee, agent, contractor or appointee of the State under any applicable state law, shall be treated the same as an employee of the City hereunder; and

ii. all Liabilities in any way relating to (A) Claims that are compromised, settled or discharged under or in connection with the Plan, (B) the Chapter 9 Case (including the authorization given to file the Chapter 9 Case), (C) the Plan, (D) the Exhibits, (E) the Disclosure Statement or (F) the DIA Settlement, in each case that such holder has, had or may have against the City's Related Entities, the State, the State Related Entities and the Released Parties; provided, however, that any such Liability of the Foundations, the DIA Funders and the CFSEM Supporting Organization and their Related Entities are released only to the extent that such Liability, if any, arises from any such entity's participation in the DIA Settlement;

provided, however, that the foregoing provisions shall not affect the liability of the City, its Related Entities and the Released Parties that otherwise would result from any act or omission to the extent that act or omission subsequently is determined in a Final Order to have constituted gross negligence or willful misconduct; provided, further, that nothing in Section III.D.7.a of the Plan shall release (i) the City's obligations under the Plan or (ii) any defenses that any party may have against the City, its Related Entities, the State, the State Related Entities or the Released Parties. Notwithstanding anything in the Plan or the Confirmation Order to the contrary, claims against officers or employees of the City in their individual capacity under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 shall not be released.

b. Release by Holders of Pension Claims. Without limiting any other applicable provisions of, or releases contained in, the Plan or any contracts, instruments, releases, agreements or documents entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, as of the Effective Date, in consideration for the obligations of the City under the Plan and the consideration and other contracts, instruments, releases, agreements or documents to be entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan (including the State Contribution Agreement), if the State Contribution Agreement is consummated, each holder of a Pension Claim is deemed to forever release, waive and discharge all Liabilities arising from or related to the City, the Chapter 9 Case, including the authorization given to file the Chapter 9 Case, the Plan, all Exhibits, the Disclosure Statement, PA 436 and its predecessor or replacement statutes, and Article IX, Section 24 of the Michigan Constitution that such party has, had or may have against the State and any State Related Entities. For the avoidance of doubt, the Plan does not release, waive or discharge obligations of the City that are established in the Plan or that arise from and after the Effective Date with respect to (i) pensions as modified by the Plan or (ii) labor-related obligations. Such post-Effective Date obligations shall be enforceable against the City or its representatives by active or retired employees or their collective bargaining representatives to the extent permitted by applicable non-bankruptcy law or the Plan, or, with respect to pensions only, GRS or PFRS.

Notwithstanding Sections III.D.5-7 and IV.L of the Plan, except as set forth in the COP Swap Settlement, nothing in the Plan or the Confirmation Order shall or shall be deemed to provide a release by the COP Swap Counterparties of any Liabilities related to the COPs, the COP Service Corporations, the Transaction Documents (as defined in the COP Swap Settlement), the COP Swap Settlement or the COP Swap Settlement Approval Order. For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding Section III.D.6 of the Plan, a vote of DWSD Bond Claims or DWSD Revolving Bond Claims in favor of the Plan shall not, and shall not be deemed to, effect a release pursuant to Section III.D.7 of the Plan by a Holder of any such DWSD Bond Claims, a Holder of any such DWSD Revolving Bond Claims or the Bond Insurer insuring any such Claims of any Liabilities against the City or its Related Entities that do not arise in connection with the DWSD Bonds or the DWSD Revolving Bonds. For the further avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, a vote of a Claim other than a DWSD Bond Claim or DWSD Revolving Bond Claim in favor of the Plan shall not, and shall not be deemed to, effect a release pursuant to Section III.D.7 of the Plan by a Holder of any such voted Claim or the Bond Insurer insuring such voted Claim of any Liabilities against the City or any other Entity arising in connection with the DWSD Bonds or DWSD Revolving Bonds.

4. Injunctions.

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order:

a. All Entities that have been, are or may be holders of Claims against the City, Indirect 36th District Court Claims or Indirect Employee Indemnity Claims asserted against officers or employees of the City in their official capacity, along with their Related Entities, are permanently enjoined from taking any of the following actions against or affecting the City or its property, DIA Corp. or its property, the DIA Assets, the Released Parties or their respective property and the Related Entities of each of the foregoing, with respect to such claims (other than actions brought to enforce any rights or obligations under the Plan and appeals, if any, from the Confirmation Order): (i) commencing, conducting or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action or other proceeding of any kind against or affecting the City or its property (including (A) all suits, actions and proceedings that are pending as of the Effective Date, which must be withdrawn or dismissed with prejudice, (B) Indirect 36th District Court Claims and (C) Indirect Employee Indemnity Claims asserted against officers or employees of the City in their official capacity); (ii) enforcing, levying, attaching, collecting or otherwise recovering by any manner or means, directly or indirectly, any judgment, award, decree or order against the City or its property; (iii) creating, perfecting or otherwise enforcing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any encumbrance of any kind against the City or its property; (iv) asserting any setoff, right of subrogation or recoupment of any kind, directly or indirectly, against any obligation due the City or its property; (v) proceeding in any manner in any place whatsoever that does not conform to or comply with the provisions of the Plan or the settlements set forth therein to the extent such settlements have been approved by the Bankruptcy Court in connection with Confirmation of the Plan; and (vi) taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan. Notwithstanding anything in the Plan or the Confirmation Order to the contrary, claims against officers or employees of the City in their individual capacity under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 are not enjoined. In addition, all individuals affected by the AFS Recoupment are enjoined from commencing any proceeding against the GRS and its trustees, officers, employees or professionals arising from GRS's compliance with the Plan or this Order.

b. All Entities that have held, currently hold or may hold any Liabilities released pursuant to the Plan are permanently enjoined from taking any of the following actions against the State, the State Related Entities, the officers, board of trustees/directors, attorneys, advisors and professionals of the RDPFFA or the DRCEA, and the Released Parties or any of their respective property on account of such released Liabilities: (i) commencing, conducting or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action or other proceeding of any kind; (ii) enforcing, levying, attaching, collecting or otherwise recovering by any manner or means, directly or indirectly, any judgment, award, decree or order; (iii) creating, perfecting or otherwise enforcing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any lien; (iv) asserting any setoff, right of subrogation or recoupment of any kind, directly or indirectly, against any obligation due the State, a State Related Entity, the officers, board of trustees/directors, attorneys, advisors and professionals of the RDPFFA or the DRCEA, or a Released Party; and (v) commencing or continuing any action, in any manner, in any place that does not comply with or is inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan. Notwithstanding the foregoing and without limiting the injunctions in sub-paragraph 4(a) above, the Holders of Indirect 36th District Court Claims shall not be enjoined from taking any of the foregoing actions against the State or the State Related Entities with respect to Indirect 36th District Court Claims to the extent such Claims are not satisfied pursuant to the Plan.

5. Treatment of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

a. Assumption. Except for Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases rejected in the Plan or by other court order, or as requested in any motion Filed by the City on or prior to the Effective Date, as of the Effective Date, pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the City has been deemed to assume all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases to which it is a party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Retirement System Indemnity Obligations have not been assumed under the Plan and have been discharged. For the avoidance of doubt, the City has assumed the Tunnel Lease pursuant to Section II.D.1 of the Plan.

b. Assumption of Ancillary Agreements. Each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease assumed pursuant to Section II.D.1 of the Plan includes any modifications, amendments, supplements, restatements or other agreements made directly or indirectly by any agreement, instrument or other document that in any manner affects such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, unless any such modification, amendment, supplement, restatement or other agreement is rejected pursuant to Section II.D.6 of the Plan or designated for rejection in accordance with Section II.D.3 of the Plan.

c. Approval of Assumptions and Assignments. The Confirmation Order constitutes an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving the assumption of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases pursuant to Sections II.D.1 and II.D.2 of the Plan (and any related assignment) as of the Effective Date, except for Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases that (a) have been rejected pursuant to a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, (b) are subject to a pending motion for reconsideration or appeal of an order authorizing the rejection of such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, (c) are subject to a motion to reject such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease Filed on or prior to the Effective Date, (d) are rejected pursuant to Section II.D.6 of the Plan or (e) are designated for rejection in accordance with the last sentence of this paragraph. The City has provided separate notice to each party whose Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease is being assumed pursuant to the Plan of: (a) the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease being assumed; (b) the Cure Amount Claim, if any, that the City believes it would be obligated to pay in connection with such assumption; (c) any assignment of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease; and (d) the procedures for such party to object to the assumption of the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, the amount of the proposed Cure Amount Claim or any assignment of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease are set forth in the Contract Procedures Order (Docket No. 6512). If an objection to a proposed assumption, assumption and assignment or Cure Amount Claim is not resolved in favor of the City, the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease may be designated by the City for rejection, which shall be deemed effective as of the Effective Date.

d. Payments Related to the Assumption of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases. To the extent that such Claims constitute monetary defaults, the Cure Amount Claims associated with each Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to be assumed pursuant to the Plan will be satisfied, pursuant to section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, at the option of the City: (a) by payment of the Cure Amount Claim in Cash on the Effective Date or (b) on such other terms as are agreed to by the parties to such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. If there is a dispute regarding: (a) the amount of any Cure Amount Claim, (b) the ability of the City or any assignee to provide "adequate assurance of future performance" (within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code) under the contract or lease to be assumed or (c) any other matter pertaining to the assumption of such contract or lease, the payment of any Cure Amount Claim required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code will be made within 30 days following the entry of a Final Order resolving the dispute and approving the assumption.

e. Contracts and Leases Entered Into After the Petition Date. Contracts, leases and other agreements entered into after the Petition Date by the City, including (a) any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases assumed by the City and (b) the collective bargaining agreements identified on Exhibit II.D.5 to the Plan, will be performed by the City in the ordinary course of its business. Accordingly, such contracts and leases (including any assumed Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases) will survive and remain unaffected by entry of the Confirmation Order.

f. Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases. Each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease that is listed on Exhibit II.D.6 to the Plan was deemed rejected as of the Effective Date pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Confirmation Order constitutes an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving such rejections, pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, as of the later of: (a) the Effective Date or (b) the resolution of any objection to the proposed rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Each contract or lease listed on Exhibit II.D.6 to the Plan is rejected only to the extent that any such contract or lease constitutes an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Listing a contract or lease on Exhibit II.D.6 to the Plan does not constitute an admission by the City that such contract or lease is an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or that the City has any liability thereunder. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan shall be treated as Class 14 Claims (Other Unsecured Claims), subject to the provisions of section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code.

g. Rejection Damages Bar Date. Except as otherwise provided in a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court approving the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, Claims arising out of the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served upon counsel to the City on or before the later of: (a) 45 days after the Effective Date, i.e., _____, 20__; or (b) 45 days after such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease is rejected pursuant to a Final Order or designated for rejection in accordance with Section II.D.3 of the Plan. Any Claims not Filed within such applicable time periods will be forever barred from receiving a Distribution from, and shall not be enforceable against, the City. Proof of claim forms and instructions for filing claims can be found at the City's restructuring website, <https://www.kccllc.net/detroit>.

h. Preexisting Obligations to the City Under Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases. Pursuant to section 365(g) of the Bankruptcy Code, rejection of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan or otherwise shall constitute a breach of such contract or lease and not a termination thereof, and all obligations owing to the City under such contract or lease as of the date of such breach shall remain owing to the City upon rejection. Notwithstanding any applicable non-bankruptcy law to the contrary, the City expressly reserves and does not waive any right to receive, or any continuing obligation of a non-City party to provide, warranties, indemnifications or continued maintenance obligations on goods previously purchased, or services previously received, by the City from non-City parties to rejected Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, and any such rights shall remain vested in the City as of the Effective Date.

i. Insurance Policies. From and after the Effective Date, each of the City's insurance policies (other than welfare benefits insurance policies) in existence as of or prior to the Effective Date are reinstated and continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms and, to the extent applicable, are deemed assumed by the City pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Section II.D.1 of the Plan. Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Causes of Action that the City may hold against any Entity, including any insurer under any of the City's insurance policies. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing contained in Section II.D.9 of the Plan shall apply to reinstate or continue any obligation of the City or any fund thereof to any Bond Insurer.

6. Payment of Administrative Claims.

a. Administrative Claims in General. Except as specified in Section II.A.1 of the Plan, and subject to the bar date provisions therein, unless otherwise agreed by the Holder of an Administrative Claim and the City, or ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, each Holder of an Allowed Administrative Claim will receive, in full satisfaction of such Allowed Administrative Claim, Cash in an amount equal to such Allowed Administrative Claim either: (1) on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter; or (2) if the Administrative Claim is not Allowed as of the Effective Date, 30 days after the date on which such Administrative Claim becomes an Allowed Claim. No Claim of any official or unofficial creditors' committee or any member thereof for professionals' fees or other costs and expenses incurred by such creditors' committee or by a member of such creditors' committee shall constitute an Allowed Administrative Claim, except that the Retiree Committee's members and the Retiree Committee Professionals shall be entitled to payment in accordance with the Fee Review Order and any additional fee process established by the Court.

7. Bar Dates for Administrative Claims.

a. General Bar Date Provisions. Except as otherwise provided in subparagraphs 7(b) or 7(c) below or in a Bar Date Order or other order of the Bankruptcy Court, unless previously Filed, requests for payment of Administrative Claims must be Filed and served on the City no later than 45 days after the Effective Date, i.e., _____, 20__. Holders of Administrative Claims that are required to File and serve a request for payment of such Administrative Claims and that do not File and serve such a request by the applicable Bar Date will be forever barred from asserting such Administrative Claims against the City or its property, and such Administrative Claims will be deemed discharged as of the Effective Date. Objections to such requests must be Filed and served on the City and the requesting party by the later of (i) 150 days after the Effective Date, i.e., _____, 20__ , (ii) 60 days after the Filing of the applicable request for payment of Administrative Claims or (iii) such other period of limitation as may be specifically fixed by a Final Order for objecting to such Administrative Claims.

b. Ordinary Course Claims. Holders of Claims based on Liabilities incurred by the City after the Petition Date in the ordinary course of its operations are not required to File or serve any request for payment or application for allowance of such Claims. Such Claims will be paid by the City, pursuant to the terms and conditions of the particular transaction giving rise to such Claims, without further action by the Holders of such Claims or further action or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

c. Claims Under the Postpetition Financing Agreement. Holders of Administrative Claims that are Postpetition Financing Claims are not required to File or serve any request for payment or application for allowance of such Claims. Such Administrative Claims will be satisfied as set forth in subparagraph 7(b) above.

d. No Modification of Bar Date Order. The Plan does not modify any other Bar Date Order, including Bar Dates for Claims entitled to administrative priority under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code.

8. ASF Recoupment Cash Option.

a. ASF Recoupment Cash Option Election. No later than seven days following the Effective Date, i.e., _____, 20__, the City, through its Claims and Balloting Agent, will send the ASF Election Notice and the ASF Election Form by first-class U.S. mail to each ASF Distribution Recipient. The ASF Election Notice will notify ASF Distribution Recipients that each ASF Distribution Recipient may elect to pay the total amount of his or her ASF Recoupment in a single lump sum by timely returning a properly-completed ASF Election Form. The ASF Election Form will explain that the amount of the ASF Recoupment Cash Payment shall be equal to the total amount of ASF Recoupment shown on the ASF Distribution Recipient's Ballot, unless the aggregate amount of ASF Recoupment for all ASF Distribution Recipients electing the ASF Recoupment Cash Option exceeds $30,000,000, in which case (i) the ASF Recoupment Cash Payment will be the ASF Distribution Recipient's Pro Rata portion of $30,000,000, and (ii) the remaining portion of the ASF Distribution Recipient's ASF Recoupment will be annuitized and deducted from the ASF Distribution Recipient's monthly pension check, as provided for in Section II.B.3.r.ii.D.2.i of the Plan. An ASF Distribution Recipient must return his or her ASF Election Form to the Claims and Balloting Agent so that it is actually received by the Claims and Balloting Agent by the ASF Election Date, i.e., 35 days after the date on which the ASF Election Form is mailed.

b. ASF Recoupment Cash Payment. GRS will mail the ASF Final Cash Payment Notice no later than 14 days after the ASF Election Date. The ASF Final Cash Payment Notice is a notice that will be sent to each ASF Distribution Recipient who timely elects the ASF Recoupment Cash Option, and will indicate the amount of such ASF Distribution Recipient's ASF Recoupment Cash Payment. ASF Distribution Recipients shall have until the ASF Final Cash Payment Date – i.e., the later of (i) 90 days after the Effective Date, i.e., _____, 20__ or (ii) 50 days after the date of mailing of an ASF Final Cash Payment Notice – to make the ASF Recoupment Cash Payment, which payment must be made by cashier's check or wire transfer and may not be made by personal check. If an ASF Distribution Recipient's ASF Recoupment Cash Payment is not received by the ASF Final Cash Payment Date, GRS will notify the ASF Distribution Recipient of the failure to timely pay, and ASF Recoupment will be effected through diminution of such recipient's monthly pension check, as provided for in Section II.B.3.r.ii.D.2.i of the Plan. The calculation of each electing ASF Distribution Recipient's ASF Recoupment Cash Payment shall not be adjusted under any circumstances, including as a result of default by any other electing ASF Distribution Recipient to remit his or her ASF Recoupment Cash Payment by the ASF Final Cash Payment Date.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

In re: City of Detroit, Michigan, Debtor.

Bankruptcy Case No. 13-53846
Honorable Thomas J. Tucker
Chapter 9

CITY OF DETROIT’S MOTION FOR THE ENTRY OF AN ORDER
ENFORCING THE PLAN OF ADJUSTMENT INJUNCTION AND THE
BAR DATE ORDER AGAINST RODRICK SINER

The City of Detroit, Michigan (“City”), by its undersigned counsel, files its Motion for the Entry of an Order Enforcing the Plan of Adjustment Injunction and Bar Date Order Against Rodrick Siner (“Motion”). In support of this Motion, the City respectfully states as follows:

I. Introduction

1. On October 8, 2015, Rodrick Siner (“Siner”) filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, against the City seeking monetary damages on account of a pre-petition claim (Case No. 2:15-cv-13532) (“District Court Lawsuit”). The filing and prosecution of the District Court Lawsuit violates both the Bar Date Order (as defined in paragraph 4 below) and the injunction set forth in the confirmed Plan (as defined in paragraph 7 below). Consequently, the City seeks an order barring and permanently enjoining Siner from asserting and prosecuting the claims described in the District Court Lawsuit against the City or property of the City.

II. Background

A. The City's Bankruptcy Case

2. On July 18, 2013 ("Petition Date"), the City filed this chapter 9 case.
3. On October 10, 2013, the City filed its Motion Pursuant to Section 105, 501 and 503 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 3003(c), for Entry of an Order Establishing Bar Dates for Filing Proofs of Claim and Approving Form and Manner of Notice Thereof ("Bar Date Motion"). [Doc. No. 1146].
4. On November 21, 2013, this Court entered an order approving the Bar Date Motion ("Bar Date Order"). [Doc. No. 1782]. The Bar Date Order established February 21, 2014 ("General Bar Date") as the deadline for filing claims against the City. Paragraph 6 of the Bar Date Order states that the following entities must file a proof of claim on or before the Bar Date...any entity: (i) whose prepetition claim against the City is not listed in the List of Claims or is listed as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (ii) that desires to share in any distribution in this bankruptcy case and/or otherwise participate in the proceedings in this bankruptcy case associated with the confirmation of any chapter 9 plan of adjustment proposed by the City...

Bar Date Order ¶ 6.

5. Paragraph 22 of the Bar Date Order also provided that:

Pursuant to sections 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3003(c)(2), any entity that is required to file a proof of claim in this case pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules or this Order with respect to a particular claim against the City, but that fails properly to do so by the applicable Bar Date, shall be forever barred, estopped and enjoined from: (a) asserting any claim against the City or property of the City that (i) is in an amount that exceeds the amount, if any, that is identified in the List of Claims on behalf of such entity as undisputed, noncontingent and liquidated or (ii) is of a different nature or a different classification or priority than any Scheduled Claim identified in the List of Claims on behalf of such entity (any such claim under subparagraph (a) of this paragraph being referred to herein as an “Unscheduled Claim”); (b) voting upon, or receiving distributions under any Chapter 9 Plan in this case in respect of an Unscheduled Claim; or (c) with respect to any 503(b)(9) Claim or administrative priority claim component of any Rejection Damages Claim, asserting any such priority claim against the City or property of the City.

Bar Date Order ¶ 22 (emphasis added).

6. In accordance with the Bar Date Order, notice of the General Bar Date was published in the Detroit News, the Detroit Free Press, USA Today and the Wall Street Journal. [Doc. Nos. 3007, 3008, 3009].

7. On October 22, 2014, the City filed its Eighth Amended Plan of the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit (October 22, 2014) (“Plan”). [Doc. No. 8045].

8. On November 12, 2014, this Court entered an order confirming the Plan (“Confirmation Order”). [Doc. No. 8272].

9. The discharge provision in the Plan provides

Except as provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the rights afforded under the Plan and the treatment of Claims under the Plan will be in exchange for and in complete satisfaction, discharge and release of all Claims arising on or before the Effective Date. Except as provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, Confirmation will, as of the Effective Date, discharge the City from all Claims or other debts that arose on or before the Effective Date, and all debts of the kind specified in section 502(g), 502(h) or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether or not (i) proof of Claim based on such debt is Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) a Claim based on such debt is allowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code or (ii) the Holder of a Claim based on such debt has accepted the Plan.

Plan, Art. III.D.4.

10. The Plan injunction set forth in Article III.D.5 also provides in pertinent part:

Injunction

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided herein or in the Confirmation Order,

a. all Entities that have been, are or may be holders of Claims against the City...shall be permanently enjoined from taking any of the following actions against or affecting the City or its property...

1. commencing, conducting or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action or other proceeding of any kind against or affect the City of its property...

5. proceeding in any manner in any place whatsoever that does not conform or comply with the provisions of the Plan or the settlements set forth herein to the extent such settlements have been approved by the Bankruptcy Court in connection with Confirmation of the Plan; and

6. taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan.

Plan, Article III.D.5 (emphasis supplied).

11. The Court retained jurisdiction to enforce the Plan injunction and to resolve any suits that may arise in connection with the consummation, interpretation or enforcement of the Plan. Plan, Art. VII. F, G, I.

B. Siner Files a Complaint in District Court in 2015 Based on an Alleged Civil Rights Violation in 2010

12. On October 8, 2015, Siner filed a complaint, pro se, ("Complaint"), initiating the District Court Lawsuit against the City and four John Doe police officers in their individual and official capacity. The Complaint is attached as Exhibit 6A.

13. In the Complaint, Siner alleges he suffered a violation of his Constitutional rights related to filing of an arrest warrant by the Detroit Police Department on April 13, 2010 on criminal charges that were later dismissed. Complaint §§ II-III.

14. The City has appeared in the District Court Lawsuit and has filed an answer to the Complaint. See Exhibits 6B and 6C.

III. Argument

15. Siner violated the Plan injunction and discharge provisions when he filed the District Court Lawsuit asserting his claims against the City and the John Doe officers in their official capacity. Pursuant to the Plan, Siner's claims against the City and the John Doe officers in their official capacity are discharged and he is enjoined from, among other things, commencing any action against the City or the John Doe officers with respect to those claims. Plan, Art. III.D.4; Plan, Art. III.D.5.

16. Siner is also barred, estopped and enjoined from asserting any claim against the City or property of the City under the Bar Date Order because he did not file a proof of claim. Bar Date Order ¶ 22. Consequently, this Court should enter an order requiring the dismissal with prejudice Siner's claims against the City and the John Doe officers in their official capacity.

IV. Conclusion

17. The City respectfully requests that this Court enter an order in substantially the same form as the one attached as Exhibit 1, (a) granting the Motion; (b) requiring Siner to dismiss, or cause to be dismissed, with prejudice his claims against the City and the John Doe officers in their official capacity in the District Court Lawsuit; and (d) permanently barring, estopping and enjoining Siner from asserting any claims described in the District Court Lawsuit, or the alleged conduct forming the basis of the District Court Lawsuit, against the City or property of the City or the John Doe officers in their official capacity. The City sought, but did not obtain, concurrence to the relief sought in the Motion.

CONTINUE OF
STATEMENT OF FACTS

Plaintiff, who is on parole in the state of Alabama, and was residing in the state of Alabama at the time the complaint and warrant was filed for his arrest. Defendant John Doe contacted Plaintiff parole officer (Rikard), and advised the parole officer about the complaint made against Plaintiff. When Plaintiff reported for his monthly visit with his parole officer, who advised Plaintiff about the complaint made against him in Detroit. Which was Plaintiff first time being aware of complaint. Plaintiff denied the allegations, and told his parole officer that he was not in Detroit at the time of the alleged complaint. Karen Rikard (Parole officer) gave Plaintiff the phone number of Detective John Doe, then told Plaintiff to contact the detective. Plaintiff parole officer warned him, that if the detective put out a warrant for his arrest, that she will have to violate Plaintiff's parole.

Plaintiff, contacted Detective John Doe,

who informed Plaintiff that a Rolando Farris had made a complaint against him, and advise plaintiff of the allegations contained in the complaint. Plaintiff denied the allegations contained in the complaint, and advise Detective John Doe that he was not even in Detroit, that Rolando Farris had filed a false report. Plaintiff informed the Detective John Doe, that Rolando Farris is his (Plaintiff's) cousin boyfriend. That Rolando Farris and Ebony Cunningham (Plaintiff's cousin), are angry with Plaintiff because he refuse to sign over his share of property that Plaintiff and Ebony inherent, giving Ebony full ownership. Because Ebony and Rolando have been living in the property, maintaining it, and paying the property taxes. Detective John Doe the stated.

"That he was waiting on Rolando Farris to bring him the evidence to support the complaint, but it all sound like some bullshit, but if Rolando produce the evidence, he will be putting out a warrant for my arrest."

Detective John Doe let Rolando Farris fabricate his own evidence to support the Complaint. Detective John Doe let Rolando Farris return said evidence to the Police Department on a later date. However, said evidence that Rolando Farris provided Detective John Doe, was from another crime scene and investigation that Rolando Farris was involved in, that happen in Savannah, Tennessee. Detective John Doe, or the Detroit Police Department Eastern District, did not conduct a independant investigation. Detective John Doe let Rolando Farris fabricate his own evidence with disregard for the truth and failure to adequately investigate, causing a warrant to be issued for the arrest of Plaintiff for the charges mention in this complaint, causing Plaintiff to be falsely arrested, false imprisonment, Malicious prosecution, and defamation of character.

Detective John Doe who is a employee of the city of Detroit Police Department in which municipal custom, policy, and inadequacy of Police Training contribute to the deliberate indifference of federal rights of Plaintiff. Plaintiff attributes the alleged failings of Detective John Doe to insufficient supervision and training. Defendants John Doe 2 (Commander), John Doe 3 (Deputy Chief), and John Doe 4 (Chief of Police) acted in accordance with the City's custom, policy, and practice of (1) "not engaging in any systematic supervision or review of detectives or their investigations," and (2) "allowing detectives to investigate crimes, make arrest, prepare reports and to handle evidence without appropriate supervision. As a result, the Plaintiff was wrongfully arrested.

As of April 13, 2010, the city was not in full compliance with the Consent Judgment entered prior to the incidents giving rise to this claim. The consent Judgment required that the Detroit Police Department 1) "revise its arrest policies to define arrest and probable cause" in accordance with the Judgment; 2) review the merits of all arrests within a certain time after the arrest to ensure that there was probable cause to support it; and 3) provide annual training to officers on arrests which addresses, among other things, the Fourth Amendment's requirements.

CONTINUE OF
STATEMENT OF CLAIMS

independent investigation into the alleged allegations contained in the complaint. Detective John Doe allowed Rolando Farris to fabricate his own evidence and return it to the police department on a later date, from when the alleged incident was supposed to occur. An independent investigation would have revealed that Rolando Farris was filing a false report, that said evidence he provided John Doe was from a prior incident under investigation that occurred in Savannah, Tennessee. That there was no probable cause to arrest Plaintiff. (c) As a consequence of a legal proceeding initiated by John Doe, Plaintiff was deprived of liberty and property. Plaintiff was arrested and held in the 9th Precinct, until he was arraigned on the charges, then transferred to Wayne County Jail and posted 10% percent of a $100,000 thousand dollar bond. (d) The Criminal proceedings was resolved in the Plaintiff's favor. Prosecutor (Shannon N. Walker) abandon the charges on 10/04/2012 by filing "Prosecution's Motion To Dismiss". Therefore, the charges was Dismissed by the court on 10/04/2012

Claim (2) Violation of 4th Amendment Right to be Free From Unreasonable Seizures.

There was no probable cause to arrest the Plaintiff. John Doe or Detroit Police Department Eastern District never conducted an independent investigation to establish if there was probable cause for the arrest of Plaintiff. Detective John Doe used a false statement by (Rolando Farris) for a finding of probable cause with reckless disregard for the truth. Detective John Doe allow Rolando Farris to fabricate his own evidence, which Detective John Doe used for a finding of probable cause to arrest the plaintiff for the charges listed in this complaint.

Claim (3) Violation of 4th Amendment to be Free From Unlawful Imprisonment.

Plaintiff was arrested for the crimes mention in this complaint, which he is innocent of. The arrest and imprisonment was instigated by defendant John Doe without legal justification.

Claim (4) Violation of 14th Amendment due process and Equal Protection of the Laws.

Plaintiff was not afforded due process and equal protection of the laws. When he was arrested without probable cause for the charges mention in this complaint. The arrest of Plaintiff abridge the privileges or immunities of Plaintiff afforded to him by the United States Constitution when he was falsely arrested, unlawfully imprisonment, malicious prosecution, and defamation of character in violation of his Fourth Amendment Rights.

Claim (5) Defamation of Character

The charges against Plaintiff were dismissed, however the charges continue to follow and affect the Plaintiff in a negative way. Plaintiff has to continue to defend himself and answer to the dismissed charges upon the running of a background check on Plaintiff. The dismissed charges were contained in Plaintiff's Presentence Investigation Report, Plaintiff was questioned about the dismissed charges at his parole hearing in Michigan and had to defend himself against the dismissed charges. Plaintiff will have to defend himself against the dismissed charges at his Parole Revocation Hearing on October 13, 2015 in Alabama, as they are alleged as a violation of his parole in Alabama, Charge No. 5.

The charges will continue to follow Plaintiff and affect him. Because they are contained on file and upon the running of a background check they will show, which may or will hinder Plaintiff from gaining certain employment opportunities. The dismissed charges casts a negative stereotype upon the Plaintiff.

Plaintiff requests a Jury Trial in this matter.

REQUIRING RODRICK Siner TO DISMISS
WITH PREJUDICE HIS DISTRICT COURT LAW SUIT

FILED

Rodrick Siner, pro-se, acting without the benefit of counsel, does not consent to the relief sought in the motion filed by attorneys for the City of Detroit, and respectfully states as follows:

Rodrick Siner is an inmate who has been incarcerated since April 3, 2013, who contends the City of Detroit's bankruptcy does not automatically relieve the City of Detroit from all liabilities and claims filed against the City.

Furthermore, Mr. Siner's sufferings have been continuous and on going. On April 13, 2010 an arrest warrant was issued for Mr. Siner. On April 5, 2012, Mr. Siner was arrested on the warrant. The case was dismissed on October 4, 2012. Mr. Siner, was held in Michigan on other charges not related to this incident. On August 18, 2015, Mr. Siner was extradited to Alabama in which he had a Parole Revocation Hearing on October 13, 2015, in which his parole was revoked based on the warrant that was issued for Mr. Siner by the City of Detroit on April 13, 2010. Mr. Siner, is in prison to this very day because of the action of officers of the City of Detroit. Mr. Siner, contends the City of bankruptcy could not possibly cover future events, as Mr. Siner's Parole Revocation Hearing occurred on October 13, 2015, in which Mr. Siner couldn't have foreseen the outcome of that hearing prior to October 13, 2015. In which Mr. Siner was violated on false information relayed to his parole officer, by officers of the City of Detroit.

Mr. Siner, contends although the incidents of his claim began on April 13, 2010, he didn't file his claim until after his parole revocation hearing. Therefore, at the time of the City of Detroit's bankruptcy, Mr. Siner was still going through the process. Mr. Siner, is still suffering from the actions of the City of Detroit's Police Officers to this very day

Mr. Siner, contends just because the City of Detroit filed bankruptcy, bankruptcy laws doesn't mean an entity cannot be held accountable for its actions

It also should be noted that Mr. Siner did not receive a copy of City of Detroit's Motion until April 21, 2016, in which I notice I was to have within 14 days to file a response. However, the attorney for the City of Detroit failed to put a date on the Certificate of Service as to when the motion was actually mailed to Mr. Siner.

Chapter 9

CITY OF DETROIT’S REPLY IN SUPPORT OF ITS MOTION FOR THE ENTRY OF AN ORDER
ENFORCING THE PLAN OF ADJUSTMENT INJUNCTION AND THE
BAR DATE ORDER AGAINST RODRICK SINER

The City of Detroit, Michigan (“City”), by its undersigned counsel, files this Reply (“Reply”) in support of the City of Detroit’s Motion for the Entry of an Order Enforcing the Plan of Adjustment Injunction and Bar Date Order Against Rodrick Siner (“Motion,” Doc. No. 11159).

The Response to the City of Detroit’s Motion for the Entry of an Order (I) Enforcing the Plan of Adjustment Injunction and (II) Requiring Rodrick Siner to Dismiss with Prejudice His District Court Lawsuit (“Response,” Doc. No. 11175) only further explains why the relief the City seeks in its Motion should be granted. In his Response, Rodrick Siner (“Siner”) sets forth facts that make it plain that his claim arose prepetition. It was thus discharged as to the City and as to its police officers acting in their official capacities by the City’s confirmed Eighth Amended Plan for the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit (October 22, 2014) (the “Plan,” Doc. No. 8045) as discussed in the Motion.

As Siner explains in his Response, his claim arises out of the issuance of an April 13, 2010, arrest warrant (the “Warrant”) and a subsequent arrest pursuant to that Warrant two years later on April 5, 2012 (the “Arrest”). Response, p. 2. He admits that “the incidents of his claim began on April 13, 2010,” but that he did not file his complaint until October, 2015, when he claims the Warrant was treated as a parole violation in Alabama.¹ Id., p. 3. Even though Siner contends that he “couldn’t have foreseen the outcome of that hearing prior to October 13, 2015,”² his claim still arose pre-petition and is governed by the City’s confirmed Plan. Id.

This Court recently visited the question of how one determines whether a claim arose pre- or post-petition in its Fair Contemplation Test Opinion.³ In the ¹ Siner does not elaborate on why he happens to be on parole in Alabama.

Fair Contemplation Test Opinion, the Court surveyed the applicable case law to determine which of the available tests was most appropriate, ultimately adopting the “fair contemplation test” for this purpose. Id., pp. 19-22. Applying the test, a court “looks at whether there was a pre-petition relationship between the debtor and the creditor, such as contract, exposure, impact or privity, such that a possible claim is within the fair contemplation of the creditor at the time the petition is filed.” Id. at 22 (quoting In re Senczyszyn, 426 B.R. 250, 257 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 2010) (internal quotation marks omitted)). “Under this test, a claim is considered to have arisen pre-petition if the creditor could have ascertained through the exercise of reasonable due diligence that it had a claim at the time the petition is filed. Id. (quoting Signature Combs, Inc. v. United States, 253 F. Supp. 2d 1028, 1037 (W.D. Tenn. 2003) (internal quotation marks omitted)).

Here, Siner readily admits that the Warrant was issued in 2010 and the subsequent Arrest occurred in 2012, years prior to the City’s bankruptcy filing. Response, p. 2. He belatedly asserts that he could not have foreseen the adverse effects these events allegedly have had. Id., p.3. Under the fair contemplation test, however, the question is whether he could have foreseen them after reasonable due diligence. Assuming, for the sake of argument, that his claims have merit, reasonable due diligence would have informed Siner that a violation of his constitutional rights would give him a claim against the City for whatever harms flowed from the violation, both initially and in his subsequent legal entanglements. Thus, Siner's claim arose pre-petition and it is governed by the Plan.

As the Motion explains, pre-petition claims may not be brought against the City or its officers in their official capacities. Siner's filing of a complaint in that regard violates the Plan Injunction, so the City respectfully requests that the Court enter the proposed order provided with the Motion.

1 (Court in Session)

2 THE CLERK: All rise. This Court is now in session.
3 The Honorable Thomas J. Tucker is presiding. You may be
4 seated. The Court calls the case of the City of Detroit,
5 Michigan, case number 13-53846.

6 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon to everyone.
7 We have a number of matters scheduled for hearing -- or 8 further hearing today. I have in mind at least somewhat the 9 order in which I prefer to hear matters, but if counsel for 10 the city thinks there's a particular reason to do it in a
11 different order than I impose, that's fine.

12 Before we get much further into this though, let's have 13 entries of appearance by any and all attorneys in the 14 courtroom who wish to enter their appearance for the hearings
15 today starting with the city.

16 MR. SPINNER: Thank you, Your Honor. Ron Spinner
17 from Miller, Canfield and John Willems from Miller, Canfield
18 on behalf of the city.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 MR. STEMPIEN: Your Honor, I'm Eric Stempien. I'm
21 here on behalf of claimant Michael McKay.

22 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon to the 23 attorneys and to everyone else here in the courtroom. Mr.
24 Stempien, I'm glad you're at counsel table. I had in mind
25 calling the matter involving your client first.

1 MR. STEMPIEN: Oh.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Stempien, yes.

3 MR. STEMPIEN: Yes.

4 THE COURT: The matter involving the motion brought 5 by the claimant Michael McKay. I wanted to hear that first.
6 So unless there's any -- the city has any particular reason to 7 do -- to do -- otherwise, I'll hear that case first.

8 MR. SPINNER: Oh, no, that's fine, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. So this matter then is the 10 motion by claimant Michael McKay to enforce agreement
11 resolving claim of Michael McKay, it's entitled. It's docket
12 number 11157 filed May 11, 2016.

13 The city filed an objection to that motion on May 20,
14 2016. I have reviewed the papers filed by the parties
15 relating to this motion and we'll hear argument now. Mr.
16 Stempien, we'll start with you.

17 MR. STEMPIEN: Good afternoon, Your Honor, and thank 18 you. The first thing I'd like to make sure is clear is 19 exactly what it is we're -- we're requesting the Court to do.
20 Because I don't think it's perfectly clear from the -- the 21 objection that I received from the city that -- that really
22 came across completely.

23 We're not challenging the fact that there was a 24 settlement of a bankruptcy claim. We're not challenging that 25 the individual officers' claims were included within that

1 settlement. And I bring that up because attached to the 2 objection that the city filed, they attached a transcript from
3 a prior hearing of this Court where that was the issue before
4 the Court, whether there was a settlement, whether it applied
5 to the individual officers. That is not what our claim is 6 here. That's not the -- the requested relief that we have 7 here.

8 What we're saying, Your Honor, is that we want
9 confirmation that the settlement agreement that was reached
10 with regard to the bankruptcy claim requires a payment of the 11 full $42,500 to claimant Michael McKay. In the objection the 12 city simply says that this is a Class 14 claim. They provide 13 no specific support for that. They don't say why it's a Class
14 14, it's just something that they designated on their own.

15 However, when we look at everything that has made part of 16 this matter with Mr. McKay which would be the settlement
17 agreement, the eighth amended plan, Judge Rhodes' oral opinion
18 on the record with regard to his approval of the eighth
19 amended -- amended plan, it makes it clear that the settlement
20 requires a full payment of $42,500.

21 First, with regard to the agreement itself, the paragraph
22 that -- the operative paragraphs are Paragraph 2 and 5.
23 Basically what it is, is it says that he agrees to settle this
24 claim for $42,500, that it would be a -- a unsecured
25 non-priority claim.

1 Paragraph 5 then says that it will be treated as such
2 under the plan that was at that time not yet approved by the 3 Court. So it was not clear what the level of treatment was 4 going to be at the time that the settlement agreement was 5 reached.

6 So when the settlement agreement -- or excuse me, when 7 the plan is actually then approved, the question becomes what 8 is this claim. So I think we need to start kind of the 9 underlying lawsuit. The underlying lawsuit was a -- a 42 USC
10 1983 claim. It was brought in State Court and litigated
11 within State Court. It was against three individual officers.
12 There was never a claim made against the city itself. The 13 only defendants were the three individual police officers. It
14 was resolved through a binding arbitration process.

15 THE COURT: Well, wait a minute. You say in the 16 State Court litigation it was not -- the case was not brought 17 against the city itself, rather only against the individual
18 officers.

19 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

20 THE COURT: That may be, but your client Mr. McKay
21 filed a proof of claim in the City of Detroit bankruptcy case,
22 a claim against the City of Detroit by its nature. And that's 23 -- that was part of what was -- at least part of what was 24 settled by this settlement agreement at issue, isn't it?

25 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

1 THE COURT: Okay. And you said you're not
2 contesting that that settlement also include a settlement of 3 the -- Mr. McKay's claims against the individual officers.

4 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

5 THE COURT: Okay. So it's everybody.

6 MR. STEMPIEN: It is everybody.

7 THE COURT: All right. So the -- what Mr. McKay got 8 in exchange for his release of his claims against the City of 9 Detroit and the officers according to the settlement
10 agreement, is the treatment provided in Paragraph 2 of the 11 settlement agreement, isn't it?

12 MR. STEMPIEN: I would say it's actually Paragraph 5
13 is the operative paragraph, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Well, let's say 2 plus 5.

15 MR. STEMPIEN: Right. I think it's both right, Your 16 Honor, yeah.

17 THE COURT: Yeah, okay. So and that was -- there
18 would be an allowed claim of $42,500 to be treated as a Class
19 5 as a general unsecured non-priority claim subject to the 20 treatment provided for such claims under any Chapter 9 plan
21 confirmed by the Court.

22 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

23 THE COURT: That's the gist of it. Okay. And 24 that's all Mr. McKay got.

25 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

1 THE COURT: Right?

2 MR. STEMPIEN: Right.

3 THE COURT: Okay. So the plan that was confirmed in 4 the case, it was later but the plan that was confirmed in the 5 case treated general unsecured non-priority claims and it
6 treated them in Class 14 of the plan, didn't it?

7 MR. STEMPIEN: Well, I don't believe so, Your Honor.
8 Now I think 1983 claims and indemnification claims were given
9 their own treatment separately.

10 THE COURT: What class are they in in the plan in 11 your view?

12 MR. STEMPIEN: Your Honor --

13 THE COURT: If not 14, what class of the plan,
14 confirmed plan?

15 MR. STEMPIEN: Well, my read of the -- the plan says
16 that they have to pay it in full, Your Honor. I mean whether 17 -- whether it's under Class 14 --

18 THE COURT: Well, where is that in the plan?

19 MR. STEMPIEN: Okay. So where I would point the 20 Court to would be, it's under Article 4 because, you know, you
21 have the class and you have -- you have the plan that's going
22 to be put into place and then Article 4 of the plan says
23 here's how we're going to implement it.

24 These are the means for implementation of the plan. It's

25 Article 4, Section O, subsection O. It talks about assumption
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 8 of

1 of indemnification, I believe.

2 THE COURT: Hold on. If you're not going to give me
3 the page number, I'm going to have to dig it out.

4 MR. STEMPIEN: Oh, I'm sorry, 62 -- 62.

5 THE COURT: Hold on. Sixty-two of the confirmed
6 plan, is that right?

7 MR. STEMPIEN: That is correct.

8 THE COURT: And for the record, the confirmed plan,
9 when I'm looking at the confirmed plan, I'm looking at docket
10 number 8272, the eighth amended -- eighth amended plan filed
11 on -- I'm sorry, 8272 is the order confirming the eighth 12 amended plan.

13 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

14 THE COURT: And it has attached to it a copy of the 15 eighth amended plan that was confirmed. And in there you're 16 looking at Page 62 of the plan, right?

17 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

18 THE COURT: And I'm -- I'm on that page. Now what 19 -- what -- what language are you pointing to?

20 MR. STEMPIEN: So the language that I believe
21 requires full payment in this is under Section O, it says
22 assumption of indemnification obligations. Notwithstanding 23 anything otherwise to the contrary in the plan, nothing in the 24 plan shall discharge or impair the obligations of the city as

25 provided in the charter or other organizational documents of

1 such nature from the city to then indemnify, defend,
2 reimburse, escrow pay, advanced fees and expenses, or limit
3 the liability of officers, employees of the city.

4 So and this is consistent with Judge Rhodes' oral opinion
5 that he gave when he said I'm going to confirm the plan which
6 we attached as well to our motion and quoted within the brief
7 itself where Judge Rhodes says, 1983 claims are not affected
8 by this. And why this is important is because if you --

9 THE COURT: Well, just a minute.

10 MR. STEMPIEN: Okay.

11 THE COURT: Hold on. You cited Judge Rhodes' oral
12 opinion regarding confirmation of the plan. That was later
13 put into the order confirming plan.

14 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

15 THE COURT: And then later there was a written
16 opinion which went into more detail, but it was consistent, I
17 think, with the oral opinion about confirming the plan. In 18 all of these documents it appears to me that what that meant
19 and what was done with that is, that the Court sustained an 20 objection to confirmation that had been made in part by -- by 21 ruling that basically Section 1983 claims against individual
22 officers and employees of the city were not being discharged
23 by the plan, although such claims as against the City of 24 Detroit and therefore also against city employees in their

1 being against the City of Detroit were being treated and
2 discharged in the plan. Now do you -- do you disagree or 3 agree with that reading?

4 MR. STEMPIEN: I agree that our claim is subject to 5 the plan in the sense that -- in the sense that even if it
6 wasn't within what Judge Rhodes said or put in the final plan,
7 we agreed to that within the agreement. I mean I think that 8 -- however the plan treats these 1983 claims is -- is going to 9 be binding upon us based on what we said. But I guess what 10 I'm --

11 THE COURT: Well, you're not answering my question.

12 MR. STEMPIEN: Okay. Maybe I misunderstood.

13 THE COURT: I want to be clear about -- if possible,
14 I want to be clear about what the plan did and did not
15 discharge with respect to 1983 claims.

16 The plan, the confirmed plan did not discharge 1983
17 claims brought against officers or employees of the City of 18 Detroit in their individual capacities, do you agree?

19 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct, yes.

20 THE COURT: But it did discharge 1983 claims brought 21 against the City of Detroit or -- and/or -- and claims brought 22 against employees or officers of the City of Detroit in their 23 official capacities. Do you agree with that?

24 MR. STEMPIEN: I'm not able to answer that, I

25 apologize, Your Honor. I did not -- I know those with regard
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 11 of

1 to the city. With regard to the actions of within their
2 official capacity, my -- my understanding of it, and I may be
3 mistaken, is that it -- it's -- it's part of the 4 indemnification requirements because that's exactly what the 5 indemnification provisions are for.

6 THE COURT: Well, we're going to talk about the 7 indemnification provisions in a minute. But before we get to 8 that, I just want to be clear. We're talking about this sort
9 of the same basic groundwork here.

10 I'm looking at the order confirming plan, docket 8272, at 11 Pages 87 to 88, first of all. That's -- that's the order that 12 confirmed the plan filed November 12, 2014. Docket 8272,
13 Pages 87 to 88.

14 It's in a section called F, discharge of claims.
15 Paragraph 30 which carries over on to Page 88 says, this --
16 claims that are discharged and it says such discharge will not 17 apply to among other things, "claims against officers who are 18 employees of the city in their individual capacities --
19 capacity under 42 USC Section 1983." That's the exception to 20 the discharge for claims against employees in their individual
21 capacity that we just talked about, right? Right?

22 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct, yeah.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Now if you see something here in 24 the order confirming plan or in the plan for that matter that 25 indicates that the -- that 1983 claims against the city and

1 officers, employees in their official capacity were not
2 discharged were also exceptions to the discharge on this
3 confirmed plan. I need you to tell me where that is because I
4 don't know where that is. I don't think that's the case.

5 MR. STEMPIEN: I don't -- I would not be able to 6 point that out to the Court.

7 THE COURT: All right. Okay. So now you were 8 focusing here on Page 62 of the eighth amended plan that was 9 confirmed in this Paragraph O on Page 62 about the provision
10 regarding -- essentially meaning that the city's obligations
11 to essentially to indemnify its employees -- officers and 12 employees of the city was not being -- pardon me, discharged
13 or impaired by the confirmed plan, right?

14 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

15 THE COURT: Okay. So from that concept and that 16 provision in the confirmed plan you argue what?

17 MR. STEMPIEN: Well, I argued --

18 THE COURT: What's the consequence of that?

19 MR. STEMPIEN: My argument is that when they say the 20 word nothing -- nothing in the plan shall discharge or impair 21 their obligations to indemnify, I think the plain language of 22 the plan itself is nothing before this that we put in here
23 shall discharge that. And so my consequences --

24 THE COURT: Excuse me though. This is -- this

1 employees of the city, right?

2 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

3 THE COURT: It -- it doesn't refer to any sort of 4 duty to indemnify third party claimants.

5 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

6 THE COURT: Like your claim.

7 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

8 THE COURT: Right?

9 MR. STEMPIEN: Right. And that's not my position.
10 I'm not saying they indemnify me. My -- my -- here's the 11 argument, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Sure.

13 MR. STEMPIEN: We -- we sued these individual
14 officers. We didn't sue the City of Detroit. Our judgment
15 which as an arbitration award we never turned into a judgment,
16 but our arbitration award is as to these three individuals.

17 The only obligation that the City of Detroit could 18 possibly have to pay that award/judgment is as an indemnitor
19 for those three individual officers. That's the only 20 obligation the city could possibly have.

21 And that would be an obligation found within their 22 collective bargaining agreement. So this is not a direct
23 action against the city. We did not sue the city. That's why
24 I opened up with that because we didn't sue them.

25 Their -- only time they could ever have an obligation to

1 pay, let's say we never had the bankruptcy if -- if you just
2 went through the litigation and the City of Detroit paid the 3 arbitration award on a City of Detroit check and the City of 4 Detroit account, it would have only been as an indemnitor for 5 those three officers. That would be the only way they could
6 have been obligated in any manner.

7 Therefore because it's clear that they're indemnitors,
8 and it's clear that the plan says nothing in the plan shall 9 discharge per their obligations, they're obligated to 10 indemnify these individual officers as to that full amount,
11 it's not changed.

12 THE COURT: This duty to indemnify the officers that 13 you're pointing to is not a duty that runs to your client, to 14 an injured third party. It runs only to the officers, doesn't 15 it?

16 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

17 THE COURT: So your clients couldn't possibly have a 18 claim against the City of Detroit based upon the City of 19 Detroit's duty to indemnify its officers, is that right?

20 MR. STEMPIEN: My position on that is usually we 21 would have standing if they tried to challenge it to -- to 22 argue on that. But I don't think we could bring an 23 independent cause to enforce an -- or I mean an 24 indemnification provision.

1 belong to the officers.

2 MR. STEMPIEN: That is correct.

3 THE COURT: You agree, okay.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 MR. STEMPIEN: Yes. Now, this settlement agreement
6 it looks like the arbitration award was made by the three
7 arbitrators. It's looks like the written arbitration award
8 was May 16, 2013 it looks like the date. And I think that's 9 part of Exhibit A attached to docket 11181, the city's 10 response and probably elsewhere in the record, but -- so it
11 was after that arbitration award that Mr. McKay and the city
12 made this settlement agreement that's at issue, right?

13 MR. STEMPIEN: That's correct.

14 THE COURT: The -- the agreement doesn't seem to 15 state, you know, a date, official date of this agreement, but 16 it looks like it was signed by the city on December 16, 2015
17 signed by Mr. McKay it looks like June 23, 2014.

18 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

19 THE COURT: I'm just looking at the signature --

20 MR. STEMPIEN: That's right. And it -- it --

21 THE COURT: -- signature on the last page.

22 MR. STEMPIEN: -- was never signed by the attorneys
23 for Mr. McKay.

24 THE COURT: Right. It was signed by Mr. McKay and 25 by the city. And -- and that all happened after the

1 arbitration award had been entered against the individual
2 officers.

3 MR. STEMPIEN: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Right? Okay. So and you've said that 5 the settlement agreement settled Mr. McKay's claims against 6 the individual officers.

7 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

8 THE COURT: As well as the city, everybody.

9 MR. STEMPIEN: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Okay. So the agreement -- the 11 settlement agreement itself does not say the city would agree
12 to be obligated to indemnify Mr. McKay for anything based on 13 the arbitration award against the officers. Expressly what it
14 did was it gave Mr. McKay an allowed claim of $42,500 that 15 would be classified and treated in the Chapter 9 plan as a 16 general unsecured non-priority claim right, you would agree to 17 that?

18 MR. STEMPIEN: Yes. But --

19 THE COURT: Yeah, okay.

20 MR. STEMPIEN: Well, you say they didn't promise to 21 indemnify but they did promise to make a payment based on the 22 provisions of the plan that was to be later adopted. So I
23 mean whether you call it indemnification or not, but they made
24 a promise to pay.

25 THE COURT: Well, I don't think it says they'll make

1 a payment. It said that -- and then it said, it's Paragraph
2 5, it would -- in Paragraph 2 and 5 they give -- they give an
3 allowed general unsecured non-priority claim and say it's 4 going to be subject to the treatment of such -- for such
5 claims in any Chapter 9 plan.

6 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

7 THE COURT: All right. All right. So the -- the 8 provision regarding indemnification that you cited on Page 62
9 of the confirmed plan, it doesn't say anything about how 10 general unsecured non-priority claims are to be treated.

11 And it's limited for purposes of your motion, I think 12 you'll agree, to the city's obligation to indemnify, defend,
13 et cetera, its own employees.

14 MR. STEMPIEN: Yeah. The -- their obligation is to 15 the employee, yes.

16 THE COURT: So -- so how -- how does that -- how 17 does that -- I'm having trouble seeing the link that you're 18 trying to make there between that provision in the confirmed
19 plan and your ultimate conclusion that the city under this 20 settlement agreement has to pay the full 42,500 of the claim.

21 MR. STEMPIEN: Because I think the operative words
22 in Paragraph 5 are, subject to the treatment provided for such 23 claims under any Chapter 9 plan. So the question has to 24 become how does the plan treat this particular claim. The

1 THE COURT: Well, wait a minute. Look at Paragraph
2 5. The treatment provided for such claims under any Chapter 9
3 plan, the language you just pointed to. The reference to such
4 claims there is a reference, isn't it, to the -- the phrase
5 general unsecured non-priority claim?

6 MR. STEMPIEN: Yes.

7 THE COURT: It appears earlier in the sentence.

8 MR. STEMPIEN: Yes.

9 THE COURT: So when it says such claims you can
10 translate that to mean -- to say and mean that the claim, Mr.
11 McKay's claim, settled claim here, would be subject to the 12 treatment provided for general unsecured non-priority claims
13 under the Chapter 9 plan, is that right?

14 MR. STEMPIEN: Yes. And I would argue that 1983
15 claims are unsecured non-priority claims. I -- there's no --
16 there's no security created by our 1983 claim. There's no
17 priority. And I apologize if there is, because I -- I don't 18 practice bankruptcy at all. But my understanding is that 19 priority claims are things like wages and -- and things of 20 that nature.

21 This is -- my observance it's not a priority claim, it's 22 not a secured claim. It is a -- it is an unsecured
23 non-priority claim. But the plan treats 1983 claims --

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. STEMPIEN: -- differently than it does other

1 non-priority unsecured claims.

2 THE COURT: Maybe I'm -- I'm understanding your
3 argument a little better now, but let me see if I've got it.

4 MR. STEMPIEN: Okay.

5 THE COURT: If I understand it. Seems -- seems to 6 be what you're saying now is that this Paragraph 0 on Page 62
7 of the confirmed plan is one place, not the only place
8 necessarily, one place in which the plan, confirmed plan,
9 treats general unsecured non-priority claims.

10 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

11 THE COURT: In the form of claims that are claims by 12 employees of the city for indemnification, is that right?

13 MR. STEMPIEN: Well, it --

14 THE COURT: Isn't that what Paragraph 0 talks about?

15 MR. STEMPIEN: Yes. That is correct, yes, yes.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. STEMPIEN: But the general unsecured claim that 18 I have is a 1983 claim which I think is treated differently
19 under this. So my obligation -- my claim -- my settlement as 20 to the city and their officers was to be treated as that type
21 of a claim under the plan which I think provides for $42,500
22 full payment.

23 Now does that mean I can go to the officers and say the 24 officers have to pay me 42,500? Well, the Court's already

25 ruled no, I can't. I saw that in the prior ruling.

1 So then it's the city who is obligated to pay it under
2 this. And the only way they can be obligated to pay is under
3 the indemnification provision. And then if it's under the 4 indemnification provision, I think it's -- that is not
5 impaired or discharged in any manner.

6 THE COURT: Well, the city's obligated to pay
7 something because they agreed to a settlement agreement that 8 gave your client a general unsecured non-priority claim in the 9 bankruptcy under the plan. Whether they had before agreeing
10 to that, it was the city had any sort of legal obligation to 11 pay your client anything I suppose is -- is a different issue.

12 But the settlement agreement gave your client a right to 13 treatment, whatever treatment was -- what Paragraph 5 means
14 under any confirmed plan by the city, right?

15 MR. STEMPIEN: Right.

16 THE COURT: Right.

17 MR. STEMPIEN: But it would be in conjunction I
18 think with the nineteen eight -- we sued these individual
19 police officers, not the city. We didn't bring a custom and 20 policy claim against the city, we sued these individual
21 officers.

22 My understanding then is that they're obligated as the 23 full amount of the money. And if I had not -- my client had 24 not signed this agreement I could go after these officers for

1 agrees that's true. We signed this agreement so now we have
2 the city coming in.

3 So under one provision we get the full -- full 42,500,
4 but when the city has to come in and pay it they get to pay it
5 as a Class 14 under the notes. And I -- I think that that 6 would be -- I think that would be reading the -- the 7 provisions inconsistently. Because I think 1983 claims have
8 gotten their own treatment. These are individual officers
9 sued not -- not with the city, but as individuals.

10 And it was arbitrated. A decision was made. They had a
11 judgment or could enter a judgment against them if we hadn't 12 pursued the -- the agreement. And therefore if the city is 13 going to pay it, they can do it as an indemnitor and therefore 14 they're -- they're -- they can't impair that ability there to 15 do so.

16 THE COURT: Well, look at, if you have it front of 17 you there, Page 44 of the plan. It talks about the treatment
18 of Class 14.

19 MR. STEMPIEN: I believe I do have that one with me,
20 yes.

21 THE COURT: Other unsecured -- all right. The 22 treatment of Class 14. Do you have it there?

23 MR. STEMPIEN: I'm looking at it.

24 THE COURT: Page 44 of the plan, docket 8272

25 attached to the order confirming the plan at treatment. It
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 22 of

1 says, "unless such holder agrees to a different treatment of 2 such claim, each holder of an allowed other unsecured claim in 3 full satisfaction such allowed claim shall receive," and then
4 it goes on to talk about the -- the -- the notes, et cetera.
5 The Class 14 treatment there.

6 Now the -- the phrase allowed other unsecured claim,
7 allowed means the claim is allowed, but other unsecured claims
8 defined at Page 21 of the plan, Paragraph 262 in the -- number
9 262 of the definitions to mean any claim that is not an
10 administrative claim, a convenience claim, a COP claim, a
11 downtown development authority claim, a general obligation
12 bond claim, a GRS pension claim, an LBB claim, a BFRS pension
13 claim, a secured claim, indirect 36th District Court claim, or 14 subordinate claim.

15 Then it says where the avoidance of doubt, Section 1983
16 claims and indirect employee indemnity claims are included
17 within the definition of other unsecured claim.

18 So doesn't that claim which made clear when combined with 19 the language of the treatment of Class 14, that 1983 claims,
20 including indirect employee indemnity claims are within the 21 definition of -- of allowed other unsecured claim in Class 14
22 of the plan.

23 MR. STEMPIEN: Again, the direct -- there was no
24 direct 1983 claim, so it doesn't meet that because we didn't

1 individual officers for violation of the 42 USC 1983. That
2 provision if it's read in the way that I believe the Court
3 just indicated, I think would conflict with the -- the -- the 4 subsequent provision that says that the 1983 claims against 5 individual officers are not impaired. I don't remember the 6 language, I apologize, but to that effect.

7 Again can the -- can the -- would the officers then have 8 a different -- would they be in a different position to in 9 their indemnity claim against the city if we went after them
10 for the 42,500. It sounds like it would apply to that.

11 But then that -- that provision, that definition also 12 conflicts with Article 4, subsection 0 which says there's no
13 -- you know, there's no impairment of -- of an indemnity
14 claim.

15 I would ask -- I would ask the Court to apply that, you
16 know, sort of statutory construction rules that we would have 17 or the more specific provisions and would rule over the 18 general provisions. And I think when you read in conjunction 19 the specific 1983 section about individual officers and the 20 indemnification provisions it makes clear that I've still got 21 my full claim against the officers because that -- when I
22 signed this agreement and the -- and the officers -- or when 23 my client signed this agreement and -- and said we're waiving
24 our claim against the officers for 42,500 under the plan,
25 they're still obligated to 42,500.

1 And then -- then the city's got to indemnify it because
2 they're indemnified under their collective bargaining
3 agreement. And Article 4, Section 0 we'd say they have to do
4 it without impairment.

5 THE COURT: One of things I was going to get to and 6 ask you about the language in the plan about the treatment of 7 Class 14 on Page 44 in addition to what we've just already
8 talked about is, the opening phrase of the -- of the paragraph 9 that I just read to you, it says unless such holder agrees to 10 a different treatment of such claim.

11 I thought you were going to argue that partly in response
12 to my last question that well, yeah, the -- the claim that was 13 settled and the claim which is allowed in the case is maybe a 14 general unsecured non-priority claim. It is because that's 15 what -- what the settlement agreement says in Paragraph 2 and 16 5. And -- and it may be a -- an allowed other unsecured claim
17 within the meaning of Class 14, but here the holder, your 18 client of the claim, agreed to a different treatment of the 19 claim. That is treatment different than what Class 14
20 provides for.

21 MR. STEMPIEN: Right.

22 THE COURT: In the plan. And that, you're arguing
23 is based on the settlement agreement, the full $42,500
24 payment.

1 THE COURT: Is that part of what you're arguing?

2 MR. STEMPIEN: Yes, yeah, yeah.

3 THE COURT: All right. You -- on the subject of 4 your claim against the individual officers, I noticed that in
5 March of this year apparently in the State Court action you
6 obtained an order of that Court ordering the individual
7 employees to pay the full amount of the arbitration award
8 within 60 days, is that right?

9 MR. STEMPIEN: That is correct.

10 THE COURT: That's the order that is entitled order
11 enforcing arbitration award in March 14, 2016, Circuit Court.
12 This is -- a copy of this is -- it looks Exhibit 6 to your
13 motion.

14 MR. STEMPIEN: Okay.

15 THE COURT: Refers to the arbitration award issued
16 on May 16, 2013, order defendants, meaning the individual
17 defendants being Meyer and Watkins and John -- Officer John 18 Doe, so we're talking about Meyer and Watkins, I guess, to pay
19 that award within 60 days.

20 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

21 THE COURT: Was the city involved in the litigation
22 that led to this particular order in the State Court?

23 MR. STEMPIEN: Yes, they did.

24 THE COURT: They were?

25 MR. STEMPIEN: Yeah, they appeared at the hearing.
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 26 of

1 THE COURT: And did they argue against this?

2 MR. STEMPIEN: No.

3 THE COURT: Did they raise the issue of the 4 settlement?

5 MR. STEMPIEN: No.

6 THE COURT: And did they oppose this entry of this
7 order in any way?

8 MR. STEMPIEN: No.

9 THE COURT: During the hearing did they say anything
10 about their indemnification obligation to Officer Watkins?

11 MR. STEMPIEN: No.

12 THE COURT: Did you bring up any of these things
13 during that hearing?

14 MR. STEMPIEN: I did not.

15 THE COURT: All right. Well, what else do you want
16 to say about your motion then, Mr. Stempien?

17 MR. STEMPIEN: No, I believe we've covered 18 everything, Your Honor. I think the Court has a good sense of 19 what my argument is. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: All right. Well, thank you. We'll hear
21 from the city now. Mr. Spinner.

22 MR. SPINNER: Yes, good afternoon, Your Honor. I
23 think you have actually covered most of what I would say. You 24 know, now I understand exactly what he's -- brother counsel is 25 going after.

1 I think the -- the only issue I might raise, and it's
2 probably a lot simpler than it -- than it would appear in the 3 surface. To me the one doctrine that's being overlooked all
4 over here is merger and the ability to settle claims. Two
5 doctrines, I suppose.

6 First of all the parties can sell anything they wish for 7 the most part. And they did so here and signed an agreement
8 to that effect.

9 At the time the settlement took place, merger takes 10 place. The original claim merges into the settlement. The 11 settlement requires that this claim, this -- this suit in 12 which the order was -- from the Court which issued the order,
13 that suit was supposed to have been dismissed.

14 The claims against the individual police officers were 15 obviously released as they were to the city. Claimant 16 bargained for a $42,500 unsecured claim, that's what he has,
17 that's what he's gotten.

18 And beyond that I don't think I could add much to what 19 Your Honor's already asked. Unless you have questions for me,
20 Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Well, what do you say about this
22 Paragraph O on Page 62 of the confirmed plan and the argument
23 made by Mr. Stempien here?

24 MR. SPINNER: Indemnification? The -- well, two
25 things. First of all, there's no indemnification required

1 anymore, Your Honor, he's released the officers and said, I
2 will take an unsecured claim against the city for payment. So
3 there's no -- no ability or requirement for indemnification
4 because there's no further charges against the officers.
5 That's part of the settlement agreement that's been executed.
6 And as to that --

7 THE COURT: So it is your view that the reference in 8 the settlement agreement in Paragraphs 2 and 5 to the -- to 9 Mr. McKay having a general unsecured non-priority claim 10 subject to the treatment provided for such claims under any 11 Chapter 9 plan, does not -- it means the treatment provided in 12 Class 14 of the confirmed plan, not the -- not anything that's 13 provided in Paragraph 0 on Page 62 of the plan relating to the 14 indemnification of city employees.

15 MR. SPINNER: Oh, absolutely, Your Honor. As a 16 matter of fact, you know, if we really want to get to be 17 esoteric about this, most of the arbitration award was 18 entered. In theory the 1983 claims merged with that and you
19 have an arbitration dollar award. What is now against the 20 individual officers is a dollar --

21 THE COURT: That was a binding arbitration, I
22 assume, by agreement.

23 MR. SPINNER: I believe so.

24 THE COURT: Yeah.

25 MR. SPINNER: And then -- and that was exchanged and
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 29 of

1 merged into a settlement agreement and in the settlement
2 agreement the plaintiff unambiguously agreed to release the 3 city, its employees, and then -- and dismiss this case and in 4 exchange for that would receive a Class 14 unsecured claim.

5 The reasons for the entering into the agreement, I'm not
6 going to speculate. I'm not allowed to speculate because it's 7 unambiguous. There's no parol evidence really to speculate
8 upon. It's -- this is -- it is what it is. He was 9 represented by counsel. It was executed and then -- and now
10 he's gone off and gotten an award or an order from the Court.
11 I would say that theoretically is in violation of the 12 injunction. But I think this motion would probably take care
13 of that.

14 In effect, Your Honor, what we're looking for is the same
15 thing Mr. McKay is. We're looking to have the settlement
16 enforced. I think we just have different interpretations of 17 what that means.

18 THE COURT: The entry of this order on March --
19 dated March 14, 2016 by the State Circuit Court, order
20 enforcing arbitration award that I -- I referred to a little 21 bit ago with Mr. Stempien, Exhibit 6 to the -- Mr. McKay's
22 motion.

23 That order seems inconsistent with your argument about
24 the settlement agreement having released any claims by Mr.

1 MR. SPINNER: Certainly would be my position, Your
2 Honor.

3 THE COURT: So is there -- is there a problem
4 however in the fact that there is a State Court judgment or in 5 fact the order which I assume is a final order, that's
6 inconsistent with the city's position?

7 MR. SPINNER: Insofar as that the order exists, Your
8 Honor, if it's entered in violation of the Bankruptcy Court
9 injunction that was entered with the plan, we could move to 10 have it set aside. I mean technically speaking yes, the order
11 stands until it's set aside and probably needs to be set
12 aside.

13 I -- to be perfectly honest, I am not entirely familiar
14 with the circumstances of how the order was extracted from the 15 State Court. But if --

16 THE COURT: Well, how -- how would the order be in 17 violation of any sort of injunction, discharge order, or 18 injunction under the confirmed plan?

19 MR. SPINNER: Well, and to the extent -- just at a
20 beginning without speculating on how many different ways.
21 Just going after the fact the city's officers were sued in 22 their official capacities, this order does not, I don't 23 believe distinguish between that.

24 Certainly it's not limiting itself in any way. It's just

1 minimum it should be corrected.

2 But I mean I would also say that regarding the 3 settlement, the settlement said I will dismiss this case. And 4 he did not dismiss this case. So I think the city would then
5 have a claim against him theoretically for damages.

6 I don't want to speculate on how far this goes. I think
7 this can be resolved a lot more simply than all. But if we're
8 following hypotheticals, that's where I would take it.

9 THE COURT: The obligation to dismiss the city case
10 or the civil case in State Court, that's Paragraph 9 of the 11 settlement agreement.

12 MR. SPINNER: Yes, I believe so, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: That says stipulation of dismissal with 14 prejudice. And the form attached hereto is Exhibit B. I
15 don't see any Exhibit B in the record. What is Exhibit B?

16 MR. SPINNER: You know, Your Honor, we have not 17 found Exhibit B either. However, I believe when the Court
18 last looked at this there was that similar -- this was exactly
19 on all fours with the Phillips decision, Exhibit B was not 20 found. But there was definitely an intent expressed within 21 the agreement that the underlying litigation that led to the 22 filing of the proof of claim was to be dismissed and the city
23 takes the position that that same intent is expressed here,
24 it's the same language exactly.

25 THE COURT: All right. Anything else you'd like to
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 32 of

1 say then, Mr. Spinner?

2 MR. SPINNER: No, sir. Thank you.

3 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Stempien, as counsel for 4 the moving party you can briefly reply if you want to.

5 MR. STEMPIEN: Your Honor -- I'll get to the 6 lectern. The only thing I'd like to point out is that there
7 has been no indication that they were sued only in their
8 official capacities. And there's nothing in the arbitration
9 award that tells us how it was awarded against them.

10 They were sued as individuals. We did not sue the City
11 of Detroit. We did not bring them in and say they are -- you
12 know, this is the city's problem. We sued individual officers
13 which is actually in the 1983, that's generally how it's done.

14 So to -- to -- I think it's just -- I don't think that 15 there's been an establishment. I think that the fact of the 16 matter is we have an arbitration award that could have been a
17 judgment entered against three individuals with no indication
18 that it was in any -- in official capacity. So I believe it 19 still falls within that one provision of the plan that we 20 talked about earlier.

21 THE COURT: Entered against three individuals?

22 MR. STEMPIEN: Correct.

23 THE COURT: Who were those other than Meyer and 24 Watkins?

25 MR. STEMPIEN: If I could, Your Honor. It was

1 originally filed against Mr. Watkins, and then the lawsuit was
2 amended and we added three -- two other individual police
3 officers and the award was Officer Myron Watkins, Frederick
4 Persing, and Kevin Clark.

5 THE COURT: Oh, I see. They're named in the --

6 MR. STEMPIEN: It's Exhibit 5 of my --

7 THE COURT: They're named in the arbitration award.

8 MR. STEMPIEN: Right.

9 THE COURT: Yeah, okay, I got you. All right.

10 MR. STEMPIEN: Okay.

11 THE COURT: Go on.

12 MR. STEMPIEN: That's it. That's all.

13 THE COURT: All right. Thank you all. I'm going to 14 rule on this motion now.

15 Based on the argument presented in -- in the hearing
16 today and if this was not 100% clear in the papers filed by 17 the moving party and by the city before today's hearing, but 18 in the hearing it's now clear, that the moving party Mr.
19 McKay's theory here to entitlement from the City of Detroit of 20 full payment, the $42,500, the full amount of the -- what is 21 called the settled claim amount in Paragraph 2 of the 22 settlement agreement, must be paid at 100% rather than paid at 23 some -- with some lesser -- consideration of some lesser value
24 because of the terms of the confirmed Chapter 9 plan.

1 total amount of relief and really the only theory of relief
2 that ultimately is -- is argued here by the moving party, Mr.
3 McKay. And that means as -- as stated by Mr. Stempien,
4 counsel for Mr. McKay during the hearing made clear today, the 5 -- Mr. McKay agrees and acknowledges that the settlement
6 agreement provided for settlement of and release by him of the 7 -- his 1983 claims, or his -- his claims -- civil rights and 8 1983 claims against not only the City of Detroit whatever
9 claims there may be, but also against the individual officers
10 who were the subject of the arbitration award at issue.

11 And that's clear -- as the city argues, that's clear from 12 Paragraph 8 of the settlement agreement which by the way is in 13 the record as an exhibit to both parties' papers. I'm looking 14 at docket 11187 as my copy here, it's Exhibit B at that point.
15 It's also Exhibit 7 to the motion, docket 11157. That's the 16 settlement agreement.

17 The -- the settlement agreement is clear in Paragraphs 2
18 and 5 that what Mr. McKay was receiving as the sum total of 19 consideration running in his direction in exchange for 20 releasing his claims against the individual officers and the 21 city in Paragraph 8, is -- provides -- that provided in 22 Paragraphs 2 and 5 of the settlement agreement. That is in 23 the form of Mr. McKay being given -- a provision stating that 24 the claim Mr. McKay had filed in the City of Detroit's case

1 non-priority claim. That's Paragraph 2. In the amount of 2 $42,500.

3 The priority of the claim then is general unsecured
4 non-priority. Paragraph 5 confirms that of the settlement
5 agreement, confirms that as well. And says, "the parties
6 agree that any settled claim is a general unsecured
7 non-priority claim subject to the treatment provided for such
8 claims under any Chapter 9 plan for the adjustment of debts
9 confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court."

10 The -- Mr. McKay then is entitled to what he's entitled 11 to from the city as the sum total of what the city is 12 obligated to -- to provide to Mr. McKay under this based on 13 this settlement agreement, is whatever treatment the confirmed
14 Chapter 9 plan in this case provided for general unsecured
15 non-priority claims.

16 And that treatment in my view clearly is the treatment
17 provided in -- to Class 14 in the confirmed plan. The 18 treatment of Class 14 is stated in the confirmed plan. At 19 Page 44 of the confirmed plan, a copy of the confirmed plan is 20 attached to the order confirming plan, docket number 8272 on 21 file in this case. And that treatment is certainly quite 22 different from full payment in cash of the full amount of the 23 allowed claim as argued by Mr. McKay. It's the treatment that 24 provides for a pro rata share of certain amount of new B notes

1 definitely not full payment in cash and it is far -- far less
2 than that of the allowed claim.

3 Now Mr. -- that's clear in my view from the words used in 4 the provision, the stated -- the treatment of Class 4 claims
5 which are defined as allowed other unsecured claims, that's a
6 defined term on Page 44 of the confirmed plan.

7 It allowed -- there's no dispute that there's an allowed
8 claim here. The -- the question is whether this claim of Mr.
9 McKay under the settlement agreement is a "Other Unsecured
10 Claim" within the meaning of the statement of treatment under 11 Class 14 on Page 44 of the plan.

12 In my view clearly it is. The definition of -- of other 13 unsecured claim in the definitions of the confirmed plan on 14 Page 21 to 22, Paragraph 262 in my view, although you have to 15 parse through it, it's -- it's -- it's clear and unambiguous
16 that that includes the general unsecured non-priority claim of 17 the type which Mr. McKay was given as an allowed claim in this 18 Chapter 9 bankruptcy case under the confirmed Chapter 9 plan
19 by this settlement agreement, Paragraphs 2 and 5.

20 Mr. McKay has relied upon a provision in the confirmed
21 plan on Page 62 of the confirmed plan. Again it's docket
22 8272. The Paragraph 0 on that page which says for purposes
23 irrelevant to this motion, in -- in essence says that the 24 plan, the confirmed plan does not discharge or impair the

1 indemnify, defend, reimburse, exculpate, advanced fees and
2 expenses to or limit the liability of officers and employees
3 of the city.

4 As the movant's counsel acknowledged I think in today's
5 hearing, it is clear that the city's obligation to indemnify,
6 defend, reimburse, et cetera its employees, that was not 7 discharged given the language in Paragraph 0 on Page 62 of the 8 confirmed plan and otherwise, is an obligation that runs of 9 the city to its employees and not an obligation the city has 10 or that runs to any third party claimants who make claims
11 against employees and officers of the city like Mr. McKay.

12 And so the settlement agreement in my view and its 13 reference -- its language in Paragraphs 2 and 5 of the 14 settlement agreement, is clear and unambiguous given the clear
15 and unambiguous language of the confirmed Chapter 9 plan, that 16 the treatment of the allowed $42,500 claim that Mr. McKay has 17 under the settlement agreement or under the Chapter 9 plan, is 18 the treatment provided by in -- to holders of Class 14 claims
19 under the confirmed plan that I've already referred to and 20 nothing else and nothing more.

21 The city has no other obligation in my view under this 22 settlement agreement and under the confirmed plan than that to 23 Mr. McKay. The -- and so Mr. McKay's motion which seeks an 24 order requiring the city to pay the full $42,500 allowed

25 amount of his claim is relief that cannot be granted, it would
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 38 of

1 be inconsistent with the confirmed plan.

2 And the Court must reject Mr. McKay's motion and
3 arguments to the contrary. So for that -- those reasons Mr.
4 McKay's motion will be denied. I will prepare and enter an
5 order reflecting this ruling and denying the motion. Thank
6 you.

7 MR. STEMPIEN: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: The next motion then that I want to hear
9 that's on our agenda is the -- the motion filed by the city
10 seeking relief against Rodrick Siner.

11 For the record this motion was filed by the city on May 12 12, 2016. It is at docket number 11159. It's entitled City
13 of Detroit's motion for the entry of an order enforcing the 14 plan of adjustment injunction and the bar date order against 15 Rodrick Siner.

16 Now Mr. Spinner, you're on your feet. You're 17 representing the city today in this hearing on this motion.
18 For the record I will ask, I think I know the answer, but I
19 will ask whether Rodrick Siner is present or if there's anyone
20 here on behalf of Mr. Siner. I hear nothing. Mr. Siner has 21 failed to appear at this hearing either in person or through 22 any attorney.

23 And the Court and the city counsel may well know why that
24 is or have good reason to suspect why that is, namely that Mr.

25 Siner is in prison in Alabama at the moment and did not try to

1 make any arrangements to participate in this hearing by
2 telephone as far as I know and has not hired counsel as far as
3 I know to represent him in this -- in this matter.

4 He did file a written response to the city's motion. For 5 the record that appears at docket 11175. It was filed on May 6 17, 2016. The city filed a reply to that response on June 10,
7 2016 at docket 11261.

8 I have considered all of those documents. I also have 9 reviewed and considered the document filed by Mr. Siner in 10 this Court two days ago, June 13th at docket 11279 entitled
11 motion to reschedule hearing.

12 I have not yet acted on that motion to reschedule
13 hearing. For one thing a notice of deficiency had to be 14 issued with respect to that motion it was deficient in several 15 ways as identified in the deficiency notice that was filed
16 yesterday at docket 11281.

17 Mr. Spinner, let me ask you as counsel for the moving
18 party, the city, whether the city has a position regarding 19 whether the Court should grant or deny Mr. Siner's motion to 20 reschedule hearing filed two days ago.

21 MR. SPINNER: Your Honor, we do not believe it is --
22 could be taken in good -- we suggest that the Court deny it.
23 The -- if I -- if I read Mr. Siner's motion correctly, he 24 would like it adjourned until he is either appointed counsel,

1 happen approximately April of 2017.

2 That would mean that the -- if the -- if the Court were
3 to entertain it and adjourn it that long that would mean that 4 Mr. Siner's suit in the District Court could continue which 5 apparently he is able to manage from -- from prison for many 6 months before we would be able to adjudicate on whether or not 7 that is an illegal suit based on the plan injunction. So we 8 don't think that's a -- that's particularly well taken.

9 THE COURT: All right. Well, the short answer is 10 the city opposes Mr. Siner's motion to reschedule. I might 11 have considered ruling otherwise if the city had agreed to the 12 motion to reschedule in some way, but they -- they have not 13 and I'm going to deny Mr. Siner's motion to reschedule today's 14 hearing and I'll prepare and enter an order reflecting this 15 ruling.

16 I'm denying it for the following reasons. First, the 17 motion is untimely. It is filed much too late in time and 18 much too close to the date of the scheduled hearing in my 19 view.

20 Mr. Siner was mailed a notice of today's hearing on the 21 city's motion on May 19, 2016, just one day short of four 22 weeks before today's hearing date. And so shortly after that 23 Mr. Siner knew of the June 15 hearing date on this motion and 24 he waited until June 13 to file a motion to reschedule the 25 hearing. That's untimely in my view and it's denied for that

1 reason.

2 Second, Mr. Siner as -- as Mr. Spinner mentioned, Mr.
3 Siner asks in his motion to reschedule that the Court
4 reschedule the hearing until a later date that will allow him
5 to be present and present argument on his behalf, or in the 6 alternative, appoint counsel to represent him. The Court
7 cannot appoint counsel to represent Mr. Siner in this matter,
8 there's simply no basis in law or under this Court's rules or 9 procedures, or the Bankruptcy Code to permit that.

10 This Court does have a pro bono counsel, volunteer
11 counsel program in which volunteer attorneys represent certain
12 debtors and sometimes certain creditors in certain bankruptcy
13 -- types of bankruptcy cases regarding certain issues. But 14 they all have to do with issues of whether or not an 15 individual debtor is to obtain a discharge in a Chapter 7
16 case, or have a given -- certain types of debts excepted from 17 discharge in a Chapter 7 case.

18 The Court's pro bono program does not extend to a motion
19 of this type in this case. And so this Court does not have 20 any ability to appoint counsel to represent Mr. Siner in this 21 matter or otherwise.

22 And as Mr. Spinner pointed out, Mr. Siner's motion to 23 reschedule this hearing indicates that he is incarcerated
24 until -- is not scheduled to be released from his

25 incarceration in Alabama until April 2017. That is under the
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 42 of

1 circumstances far too long for this Court to wait to have --
2 to merely have a hearing on the city's motion under all the
3 circumstances.

4 And so for those reasons I'm -- I'm denying Mr. Siner's
5 very late filed motion to reschedule today's hearing and we're 6 going to go forward with today's hearing. And as I said, I'll 7 prepare and enter an order reflecting that ruling.

8 That brings us then to the city's motion. And while I
9 have denied and am denying Mr. Siner's motion to adjourn or 10 reschedule today's hearing on the motion, I am not defaulting
11 Mr. Siner for his failure to appear at the hearing today.

12 That is I'm not going to rule against him in any part or 13 in any way because of his failure to appear at today's 14 hearing. If I rule against him it will be based upon the 15 merits of this dispute rather than any sort of default by Mr.
16 Siner's failure to appear today.

17 And I do -- I do that because in this case it's obvious
18 and -- and well known to the Court, Mr. Siner's made known to 19 the Court that he -- that it is physically impossible for him
20 to appear at today's hearing and argue his -- his position.

21 I have considered, however, the position and argument he 22 made and facts he alleged in his written response to the 23 city's motion that I referred to earlier as well as of course
24 the city's arguments. Now I will give counsel for the city an 25 opportunity to argue the motion since they have appeared at

1 today's hearing.

2 So Mr. Spinner, I'll do that now. What do you want to 3 say about your motion?

4 MR. SPINNER: Thank you, Your Honor. Well,
5 obviously you've been considering it. Also I will keep it
6 extremely brief.

7 In short, Mr. Siner filed suit against the city in the 8 District Court on October 8th, 2015, commenced the case
9 15-13532 against the city and several John Doe police officers
10 which he sued in their official and individual capacities --
11 capacities asserting various violations of constitutional
12 rights.

13 And the city for protection has appeared and answered.
14 The short answer is that Mr. Siner is not allowed to do this.
15 He's filed -- the filed bar date order at docket 1782,
16 Paragraph 22 bars people from asserting pre-petition claims
17 against the city after February 21st, 2014.

18 The plan at docket 8045 which Your Honor has cited the 19 confirmation order confirming said plan contains a similar 20 injunction in Article 3(d)(5). Siner -- Mr. Siner responds
21 that the discharge could not cover future events and he cites
22 the revocation of his Alabama parole on October 13th, 2015
23 which he says he could not have foreseen to -- to which the 24 city responds that first in his complaint he says he was

25 warned about this by his parole officer when the warrant for
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 44 of

1 his arrest and his subsequent arrest took place sometime
2 between 2010 and 2012 which clearly means he must have been 3 aware of it since his parole officer -- he alleges himself, he
4 admits his parole officer told him this would be the outcome.

5 And also as an aside technically though he clearly saw
6 how the hearing was going to go because he filed -- he mailed
7 the complaint to the Court September 29th, two weeks before the 8 parole hearing alleging that his parole had been denied, so 9 either he has a crystal ball or pretty good idea what was 10 going on.

11 The Court has already considered how to decide whether a
12 claim arises pre or post-petition. For the record the issued 13 opinion is at docket 11089. And so the Court settled on the 14 fair contemplation test to make the determination. And the 15 simple question is with reasonable due diligence could the 16 claimant here Siner, assert ascertaining they had a claim
17 pre-petition and as we've just stated yes, he admits that his 18 parole officer warned him. So he did not even need to 19 exercise due diligence, he was informed that this could very 20 well be the outcome.

21 So he knew this -- this could have happened. This was 22 all pre-petition conduct and therefore it's all subject to the 23 bar date and the injunction and the claims against the city
24 and their officers at least in their official capacity, are 25 barred.

1 And I think that's pretty much the majority. The only
2 comment I would mention is that he did mention, and since 3 we're dealing with Mr. Siner in full fairness, he mentions he 4 did not get notice of the bar date. He raised that in his 5 motion to adjourn, although it's not technically up for the 6 Court.

7 It's also not relevant for this particular question. If
8 he feels he needs to file a motion to file a late filed claim 9 he can -- he can do so. We can deal with it at a future time.
10 But I wanted to respond fully to all of his -- his comments.
11 Other than that if Your Honor has any questions, happy to 12 address them. But I think you've -- you've covered it.

13 THE COURT: I don't have questions, thank you. I'm 14 going to rule on this motion now as well.

15 This motion by the city will be granted. It's clear and 16 -- it is clear from the facts and the circumstances presented
17 here that in filing this action that he filed in U.S. District
18 Court on or about October 8, 2015, Mr. Siner filed a lawsuit
19 against the City of Detroit based on a pre-petition claim.
20 That is a claim that he has against the City of Detroit that 21 arose well before the city filed its bankruptcy petition in 22 this Chapter 9 case on July 18, 2013. That was the bankruptcy
23 petition date.

24 Mr. Siner's complaint and -- and his claim are claims

1 may have had are based on actions and arise from actions,
2 wrongful actions allegedly taken by one or more officers of 3 the -- police officers of the city back in 2010. On or about
4 April 13, 2010.

5 The complaint is based upon an alleged violation of Mr.
6 Siner's constitutional rights that occurred he says and 7 alleges when an arrest warrant was issued by the Detroit
8 Police Department on April 13, 2010 against him on criminal 9 charges. His complaint is based entirely on that as the 10 wrongful action by the city and city officers that form the 11 basis of his claim or claims against the city.

12 That is clearly a pre-petition claim in the sense that it
13 arose well before the city filed its Chapter 9 bankruptcy
14 petition in July 2013. The -- while Mr. Siner argues in his 15 written response that he only suffered the most serious
16 damages that he complains about, that is the revocation of his 17 parole in Alabama that led to his incarceration that he still 18 suffers from in Alabama according to his response, while that 19 occurred after the filing of the bankruptcy petition, that is 20 not dispositive of the issue in my view of when the claim or 21 claims by Mr. Siner against the city arose for bankruptcy
22 purposes.

23 As the city points out in their response, the Court
24 recently issued an opinion discussing at length the law

1 arise for bankruptcy purposes. And when -- and whether it is
2 deemed to arise before or after the filing of a bankruptcy
3 petition.

4 I want to reiterate and incorporate by reference
5 everything I said in -- in my recent opinion filed in this 6 case on that subject. For the record the opinion was filed by 7 me as -- as an amended opinion. It was filed on April 19,
8 2016 and it is reported at 548 B.R. 748, a decision again from
9 April 19, 2016.

10 In that opinion, that lengthy opinion and in particular 11 at Pages 761 to 763 of the Court's opinion in that case, the 12 Court discusses the fair contemplation test as the proper test
13 for determining whether a claim arose pre-petition or 14 post-petition for bankruptcy purposes and then apply that test
15 to three different sets of claims that had been brought 16 against the city and ruled as to whether they were pre or 17 post-petition.

18 The claim of Mr. Siner, or claims of Mr. Siner clearly
19 arose pre-petition. The alleged wrongful conduct by the city
20 arose and Mr. Siner was well aware of the wrongful conduct,
21 far and long before the bankruptcy petition date.

22 The fact that Mr. Siner suffered damage or additional 23 damage from that alleged wrongful conduct by the city that he 24 was aware of well before the bankruptcy petition date after

25 the petition date and continues to suffer some adverse affects

1 after the petition date from such pre-petition conduct does
2 not make the claim arise after the filing of the bankruptcy
3 case for bankruptcy purposes.

4 Rather clearly this claim arose before the filing of the 5 bankruptcy petition. The consequences of that conclusion is,
6 that the filing and prosecution of that lawsuit in District --
7 U.S. District Court that's at issue in this motion by Mr.
8 Siner was a violation of the discharge injunction in the 9 confirmed Chapter 9 plan and the claim -- the so-called bar
10 date order, both of which are cited and discussed in detail in 11 the city's motion.

12 I agree entirely with the city on their arguments that 13 the -- Mr. Siner's actions in filing and prosecuting that 14 lawsuit in U.S. District Court was barred, is barred and 15 prohibited by the discharge injunction and the bar date order
16 in this bankruptcy case.

17 And so the city is entitled to the relief they request.
18 The -- Mr. Spinner, I'll ask you to submit the proposed order
19 that was attached to the motion. I will ask you to make one
20 change in the order.

21 In Paragraph 2 of the order it requires Mr. Siner to 22 dismiss or cause to be dismissed with prejudice his claims in 23 the city -- or the U.S. District Court case within five days
24 after the entry of this order. That -- that is perhaps a bit

1 prison in Alabama.

2 And so I'm going to make it 14 days. So I'll say no
3 later than, and so I'll just say no later than and then put in 4 the specific date that is 14 days after today which is June
5 29. So, no later than June 29, 2016, Frederick Siner shall 6 dismiss or cause to be dismissed, et cetera as it -- as it
7 reads there.

8 And then I -- I'll ask you to submit the order as 9 revised. I will modify probably in some non-substantive ways
10 the first paragraph text of the order to recite the Court
11 having held a hearing today and -- and -- and so forth. But 12 other than that the order is fine and I'll ask you to submit 13 that and I'll waive presentment of the revised order. Any 14 questions about what's needed there, Mr. Spinner?

15 MR. SPINNER: Crystal clear, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. As I said, I'll 17 prepare and enter the order regarding denying the motion to 18 reschedule the hearing.

19 All right. That next brings us to the remainder of the 20 agenda for today which is the city's forty-fourth omnibus
21 objection to certain claims. The city's forty-fifth omnibus
22 objection to certain claims. And then an adjourned hearing 23 regarding numerous claims that were the subject of several 24 previous omnibus objections to claims heard earlier dates

25 which were adjourned for purposes of being treated together

1 and argued at today's adjourned hearing.

2 I think all of these matters concern basically the same
3 issues. And so I think we'll consider them all together and 4 those -- we'll hear first from counsel for the city regarding 5 these omnibus objections to claim. And then anyone who is in 6 the Court who wants to be heard regarding these, any of these
7 matters insofar as it concerns a claim of theirs. Or if 8 you're an attorney, a claim of your client's in this case will 9 have an opportunity to be heard today in this hearing. So,
10 Mr. Spinner.

11 MR. SPINNER: Well, Your Honor. Thank you. You've 12 taken pretty much most of the words out of my mouth here
13 today. Pretty much I was going to suggest we do them all
14 together so that's -- that's absolutely appropriate.

15 What we were going to propose is that I would review the 16 procedure of how we got here and the docket entries and then 17 Mr. Willems would argue the brief. But Your Honor has been 18 doing a fabulous job keeping the docket up to date so if you
19 don't need me at all, I could just turn it over to Mr. Willems
20 to argue his brief, or I can go through the procedure,
21 whatever suits the Court.

22 THE COURT: I think you should briefly describe the 23 procedure and the background a bit here as to the claims --
24 objections other than the forty-fourth and forty-fifth omnibus

25 objections for the benefit of those who are present who don't

1 have counsel and -- and may benefit from hearing a bit about
2 the background on this.

3 MR. SPINNER: Happy to do so. On July 9th, 2014 the 4 Court entered the order pursuant to 11 USC Section 105(a) and
5 Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007 approving claims
6 objection procedures. That's at docket 5872 of the claims
7 procedures order.

8 And at two on that order it allows the city to file
9 omnibus objections with respect to claims that do not identify
10 a valid basis for any liability of the city. On February 26,
11 2016, the city filed omnibus claim objection twenty through 12 thirty-four and that's docket numbers 10776 through 10790.

13 Fifty-three Detroit employees filed responses that were 14 not stricken that raised similar issues with respect to terms
15 of employment and the imposition in large part on city
16 employment terms.

17 On March 24th, fifth, and April 7th of 2016, the city filed
18 ex parte motions to establish an orderly process for hearing
19 and determining these claims. And those were at docket
20 numbers 10931 and 11050.

21 On March 10th, we also filed two more omnibus objections
22 which related omnibus number thirty-six and thirty-seven at 23 docket numbers 10811 and 10812.

24 The city ordered -- entered orders granting our ex parte
25 motions. Those were entered at docket numbers 10941, 11035,

1 and 11054. And they were served upon the various claimants
2 and the certificates of service are at docket numbers 10966,
3 10987, 11070, and 11071.

4 Taken collectively these orders allowed the city the 5 opportunity to explain collectively why employee obligation
6 claims fail as a matter of law and thus on April 21st the city
7 filed its supplemental brief in support of expungement or 8 disallowance of claims of employee obligation claimants at 9 document number 11 -- 11102. No responses were filed now so
10 the employee obligation claims from those omnibus objections
11 are up for hearing today.

12 On May 12th, subsequent to that the city filed its 13 forty-fourth and forty-fifth omnibus objections for claimants
14 who asserted claims that the city believed were in the same
15 vein as those subject to the -- of the legal arguments in the 16 supplemental brief. And those were filed, those omnibus
17 objections were filed at docket numbers 11162 and 11163.

18 There were a number of timely responses to the 19 forty-fourth and forty-fifth omnibus objections and a number 20 of parties asserted that they were in positions funded by 21 grants provided outside the city and thus for various reasons
22 the city employment terms should not apply to them.

23 The city does not wish to rush to judgment on those. It
24 wishes to afford additional time to investigate and resolve

1 to adjourn the hearing for these particular claimants at 2 docket number 11255 and the Court granted that at document
3 11265.

4 The city served all the parties affected by this by 5 overnight service this past Friday at document number 11267 so
6 the affected parties should have got notice of that. None of 7 them have been returned, so they should all know they do not
8 need to show up today.

9 Of course some responses have subsequently been stricken
10 for various deficiencies. If the Court wishes, I can read in 11 the list of claimants who were scheduled to be heard today but 12 which were adjourned, or I can skip that.

13 THE COURT: One second.

14 MR. SPINNER: Certainly. There were 20 in all I
15 think. Fourteen for the forty-fourth and six for the 16 forty-fifth. And the reason for the size discrepancy, the 17 forty-fourth was the first 100 and the remaining I think 40 or 18 so were in the forty-fifth.

19 THE COURT: Just a minute, please.

20 MR. SPINNER: Sorry.

21 THE COURT: I -- I think, yes. I will ask you to 22 read the names of those who were -- whose claims were the 23 subject of the forty-fourth and forty-fifth omnibus claim
24 objections which are being heard for the first time today.

1 who are being adjourned. I don't have --

2 THE COURT: Just let me finish.

3 MR. SPINNER: I'm sorry.

4 THE COURT: Those omnibus claims objections are
5 being heard today except as to those individuals whose claims
6 -- the objection to claim has been adjourned by the Court's
7 order that was entered on June 10th that you referred to. So
8 as to those individuals whose -- for whom the hearing on the 9 claim objections have been adjourned to August 31 at 1:30
10 p.m., I would like you to read those names.

11 MR. SPINNER: Sure.

12 THE COURT: For the record and for the benefit of 13 anyone who has come to the hearing today, if your name is read
14 now, understand that you -- your claim is not scheduled for 15 hearing today, it's been adjourned for a hearing on August 31
16 at 1:30. You're not required to be here and there's nothing
17 to argue -- for you to argue today about your claim, but of 18 course everyone who is here is welcome to be here.

19 This Court is open to the public. And anyone whether 20 they have a claim or not in the city case is -- is -- 21 certainly may attend and listen to the hearing. So with that 22 said, Mr. Spinner, would you read the names of those who are 23 -- whose claim -- the objection to whose claims are not being 24 heard today but rather have been adjourned to August 31 at

25 1:30 p.m.

1 MR. SPINNER: Absolutely. Would you like just the
2 name or the name and the docket number of their response?

3 THE COURT: Just read the names and speak up so
4 everybody will hear you.

5 MR. SPINNER: Yes, sir. Michelle Duff, Anthony
6 Derrick Smith, Hope Strange, Dinah L. Bolton, Jacqueline M.
7 Jackson, Fern Clement --

8 THE COURT: Hold it, Mr. Spinner -- Mr. Spinner, 9 let's do it this way. I'm following along. I want you to 10 read it in the order that it appears in the order adjourning.
11 Do you have that there?

12 MR. SPINNER: I do. And for further clarification,
13 I believe -- I recognize some of these names have been 14 recently stricken. Their responses have been stricken for 15 various deficiencies. If the Court will indulge me just a 16 moment.

17 THE COURT: Just read the names that are in the box
18 on Page 2 of the June 10 order 11265. That's what I want you
19 to do.

20 MR. SPINNER: Yes, Your Honor. I had to get the 21 order in front of me.

22 THE COURT: All right. If you have that order in 23 front of you, go ahead and again speak up.

24 MR. SPINNER: I will. Dinah L. Bolton, Gueelma

1 Michelle Duff, Warren T. Duncan, Gerhard Eady, Jacqueline M.
2 Jackson, George A. Kaw, Kim McCoy, Sandra O'Neal, Diane L.
3 Onuigbo, Diana Lynn Patillo, Marlene Y. Robinson, Anthony
4 Derrick Smith, Hope Strange, Randall Thomas, Ranna K. Trivedi,
5 and Darrell S. Carrington.

6 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Again those are 7 the names of individuals whose claims are not being discussed
8 in today's hearing. The city's objection to your claim if 9 you're on that list that was just read is -- has been 10 adjourned to August 31 at 1:30 p.m. You need to be here then 11 for that if you want to appear and be heard about it.

12 Now, that concerns the individuals whose claims were part
13 of the city's forty-fourth and forty-fifth omnibus objections
14 to claim. There is a list of it looks like about 49 people
15 whose claims were the subject of earlier objections to claim
16 but which the hearing of which has been adjourned to today.

17 MR. SPINNER: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Under the procedures you described,
19 including the city's filing of its brief on April 21 talking 20 about the -- the city employment terms and the employee
21 obligation claims.

22 So is -- unless there's any further background that you
23 wish to give then, Mr. Spinner, we'll -- we'll hear argument
24 from the city on the merits of the -- these arguments.

1 the forty-fourth and forty-fifth. And I believe Mr. Wolfe's
2 was just stricken by the Court prior to this hearing for a
3 deficiency. So that leaves James Capizzo, Carla Smith, Gladys
4 Cannon, and Gerald Moore from the forty-fourth going forward
5 today and Renee Tollman for the forty-fifth. And that ends my 6 portion and I will turn it over to my colleague.

7 THE COURT: Well, wait, Mr. -- excuse me, if Mr.
8 Wolfe is present, I will allow him to be heard today in the 9 hearing. I'll allow him to speak if he's here and he wants to 10 speak about the names that you just went through.

11 But the names you just went through are the names of 12 individuals who filed responses, written responses as they 13 were required to do to the city's forty-fourth and forty-fifth 14 omnibus claim objections and there are other names of 15 individuals who were subject to those objections who are not 16 being adjourned or who did not file a written response. And 17 as to those, I -- I assume the city is seeking an order
18 granting the -- sustaining the objection to claim and 19 disallowing the claims.

20 MR. SPINNER: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. So if the city is ready to 22 argue the merits, go ahead.

23 MR. WOLFE: Your Honor, you wanted to hear from Mr.
24 Wolfe. I wanted to --

1 MR. WOLFE: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Well -- well, as I said, I'll give you
3 an opportunity to speak, Mr. Wolfe after we hear from the 4 attorney for the city.

5 MR. WOLFE: Okay. Thank you.

6 THE COURT: As I will give the others who are --
7 whose claims are up today, I'll give everyone else a chance to 8 speak. Go ahead, Mr. Williams is it?

9 MR. WILLEMS: Willems, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead, Mr. Willems.

11 MR. WILLEMS: It's E-m-s at the end.

12 THE COURT: Go ahead.

13 MR. WILLEMS: Thank you, Your Honor. The -- what 14 I'm going to do is just address briefly the general principles
15 about which we are asking the Court to expunge with -- with 16 all these -- these claims or disallow these claims.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Willems, let me ask you to speak up.

18 MR. WILLEMS: Yes, okay.

19 THE COURT: Apparently there are some folks in the 20 back of the courtroom that are having trouble hearing. I want
21 to make sure they hear. So I'm trying to speak up, hopefully
22 I'm not yelling.

23 MR. WILLEMS: I'll move the mike a little closer.

24 THE COURT: Yeah, please do.

25 MR. WILLEMS: How is that?

1 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

2 MR. WILLEMS: Okay. So we have essentially three 3 arguments, two of which apply to all of the claims and one of 4 which applies to a certain subsection.

5 As we reviewed these claims, we noticed that all of them
6 seem to have at least to a great degree or exclusively claims
7 based on the reductions in pay and benefits that took place
8 under what are known as the CET's, the city employment terms.
9 The city employment terms were imposed on city employees both
10 union and non-union in July of 2012 after the city entered 11 into a consent agreement or a financial stability agreement
12 with the state under what was then Act 4 which was in effect
13 at the time. That's PA-4 of 2011.

14 The -- under -- under that -- under Act 4 and under the 15 consent agreement, the city's duty to bargain with its unions
16 was suspended for the period of the consent agreement. And 17 that means that under -- under the Public Employment Relations 18 Act normally the city is required as a public employer to 19 bargain with the duly elected representatives of its 20 employees, in this case the unions ASFCME, SAAA, et cetera.

21 Under -- under the consent agreement under Act 4 that 22 duty was suspended for a period of time and so the city was 23 legally allowed to impose terms and conditions of employment
24 on its employees. And that was true whether it was a union

25 employee or not because basically unless you had a collective
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 60 of

1 bargaining agreement you were an at will negotiable employee
2 in any case.

3 So as part of the requirements under the consent
4 agreement, certain financial efficiencies had to be instituted
5 and a lot of those ended up being labor costs that were 6 addressed in the CET's. And what -- what we see in these 7 claims are pretty much the -- the same -- the same sort of 8 claims of reductions in pay and benefits that -- that you see 9 that were imposed in the CET's, the 10% wage loss, the 10 reduction in -- in various holidays, bonuses, longevity,
11 elimination, and loss of vacation days, swing, and election
12 holidays, holiday pay, paid lunch hours, increased health care
13 costs, changes in welfare benefits, freezing of reserved sick
14 banks, all those kinds of things.

15 And to practically every claim with one or two exceptions
16 I think, had some component of those reductions in them as 17 their claim. In some cases the CET's were specifically 18 referenced, in other cases they were not, but in any case the 19 -- the specifics of the claims comported precisely with the 20 reductions in -- in the -- in the pay and benefits that were 21 imposed under the CET's.

22 Our argument on -- on this process is that there's really
23 no valid underlying legal claim here. The CET's were lawfully
24 imposed under Act 4. To the extent that there were any 25 challenges they were rebuffed by -- by the Courts. In fact

13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 61 of

1 there were really only three legal challenges, two of which
2 we've cited in our brief. The Detroit Police Officers
3 Association brought two separate cases attempting to argue
4 primarily because they're a public safety union that they had 5 still retained rights to negotiate the terms and conditions of 6 employment despite the fact that there was -- that there were 7 CET's in place and that there was a -- a consent agreement in 8 place.

9 The Courts rejected those and as you may know
10 historically Act 4 was suspended pending a referendum and at 11 that point the Detroit Police Officers Association went back
12 into Court and tried to get the CET's overturned and the 13 Courts rejected that. Those cases were all up on appeal when 14 the -- when the city was placed in receivership and ultimately 15 the appeals were withdrawn.

16 So the -- the first reason for disallowing or expunging
17 these claims is that there's no valid underlying legal claim.
18 The city was within its rights to impose the CET's. There is 19 no -- no challenge that -- that undermines that argument and 20 the -- the claims should be disallowed for that reason.

21 The second reason for disallowing some of these claims is 22 that they appear to be based on the actions of the emergency
23 manager. As you -- as you know, in -- in March of 2013, the 24 city was placed in receivership and it was placed under the 25 guidance of -- of an emergency manager. This time under Act

1 436 which is the -- the successor statute to Act 4 and
2 contains a lot of the same provisions.

3 But in effect under receivership the emergency manager
4 also has no duty to bargain collectively under the Public
5 Employment Relations Act. And so there were further terms
6 imposed by the -- by the emergency manager and specifically
7 the claims, some of these claims, and I think we've identified
8 them in our brief, allege that in addition to the CET
9 reductions the emergency manager also imposed an annuity and 10 pension freeze under emergency manager order number 21.

11 And those claims should be expunged or disallowed for the 12 same reasons that these were lawful actions taken by the 13 emergency manager. There is no underlying legal claim that -- 14 that can be brought for any -- any reductions in pension or 15 annuities.

16 Finally, all of these -- well, all but I think two of the 17 claimants are union members and they belong to various unions.
18 The -- the bulk of them are AFSCME, American Federation of 19 State County and Municipal Employees which has a number of 20 locals throughout the city and various departments.

21 There are also members of several other unions which 22 we've identified in our brief. And all of these unions
23 themselves are members of what is called a coalition of 24 Detroit unions. The coalition and AFSCME both have their own

1 relating to the CET's that are brought here by the individual
2 claimants.

3 So in essence these claims are duplicative of the omnibus
4 union claims. The -- the Court is probably aware of both the 5 AFSCME claim and the coalition claim. And we have attached
6 those to our brief to demonstrate that the -- the claims
7 brought by the unions are in fact the same kinds of claims
8 that are brought by the individuals.

9 And being duplicative the individuals obviously the 10 question for the Court is, if I have duplicate claims which 11 one do I honor, which one prevails. And it's pretty clear
12 under Michigan law that it would be the union claims that 13 prevail.

14 The CET's as you recall were imposed under -- under an 15 amendment to PARA that was made as a result of Act 4. They -- 16 they are -- are part of collective bargaining law in this
17 state or they were at that time.

18 And the -- they supplanted the collective bargaining
19 agreements. But they did not, although there was no duty to 20 bargain with the unions, the unions still continued to be the 21 duly elected representatives of the unions. And the CET's
22 recognize that. They continued to have a grievance process.
23 They continued to have, you know, the whole relationship and 24 infrastructure between employer and union was still in place

1 And it's -- it's kind of a basic principle of -- of labor
2 law where you have a union in place that the employer has to
3 deal with the union. It's got to negotiate with the union it
4 cannot deal with employees individually, cannot negotiate with 5 employees individually, it's their elected representative that
6 manages the entire employment relationship.

7 If there's a problem there, the recourse is against the 8 union as we pointed out in our brief and a duty of fair
9 representation claim against the union. But in -- but the 10 basic terms and conditions and relationships with the employer
11 are in the hands of the union and that's by law, that's under 12 PARA.

13 In fact if we were to attempt to settle any of these 14 claims with the individuals we would probably hear from the 15 unions fairly quickly because we would be in fact violating 16 PARA on an attempt to do so. Remember each one of these 17 claims is not an individual claim, it's a claim about a policy
18 that affected all employees. The -- the policy being 19 expressed in the CET's. So we have those three reasons why
20 these claims should be disallowed or expunged.

21 THE COURT: Well, with respect to your argument
22 about duplicate claims --

23 MR. WILLEMS: Yeah.

24 THE COURT: This -- this last argument you've

1 and the city's objections to the claims of AFSCME and the
2 coalition of unions. You -- I -- you know, we -- we -- the 3 Court has entered orders, several orders over the last few
4 months extending deadlines.

5 MR. WILLEMS: Yes.

6 THE COURT: That the Court set a year or so ago
7 originally for the filing of summary judgment motions, and 8 briefs, and hearings. The -- the latest order if -- if I read
9 it correctly sets as the first deadline for summary judgment
10 motions to be filed, it's now June 28th this month.

11 MR. WILLEMS: Correct.

12 THE COURT: But I -- I thought I recalled seeing in 13 some of the papers, including stipulations for recent 14 extension orders, some indications that at least in principle
15 the dispute between the city and these -- the AFSCME and the 16 coalition regarding these claims has been settled, at least in 17 principle.

18 MR. WILLEMS: The claims have -- in principle. And 19 in fact we've -- we've --

20 THE COURT: So what is the status there?

21 MR. WILLEMS: Okay. We've gone a step beyond that.
22 We have a document now that has been agreed to by council and 23 it is now going through the ratification process in the city.
24 As you know all agreements have to be ultimately ratified by 25 city council and that's the process that we're in now. So we

1 have -- we have a -- a complete settlement of both claims
2 subject to ratification.

3 THE COURT: And that would include --

4 MR. WILLEMS: As far -- my understanding is, it's 5 been ratified on the union side.

6 THE COURT: It has been?

7 MR. WILLEMS: Yes.

8 THE COURT: The -- if the settlement is approved by 9 city council then the -- the settlement would settle any 10 claims, any and all claims of these claimants AFSCME and the 11 coalition of unions that you say are duplicates of claims some 12 of these individuals have brought, is that right?

13 MR. WILLEMS: They would, they would.

14 THE COURT: And is it the city's position that -- 15 that whatever the -- the Court may rule on the city's 16 arguments made today that all of these claims that have to do
17 with the individuals' claims that have to do with the city
18 employment terms, imposition of city employment terms, the 19 employee obligation claims, the merits of those claims. That 20 is the city's argument that there are no valid claims, no
21 legal -- valid legal claims for those things. Whatever the 22 Court rules on that, that's not going to be binding on AFSCME
23 and the coalition of unions for purposes of their claims?

24 MR. WILLEMS: Well, it depends on what you -- how 25 you rule, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: In other words part -- part of your
2 argument, I think --

3 MR. WILLEMS: Yeah.

4 THE COURT: Part of your argument is the same
5 argument that had you not settled but gone to litigation on 6 the AFSCME and coalition claims you would be making there.
7 And you would be asking the Court to rule on there.

8 That is the argument I assume is in there that -- the 9 city's argument that you're making now which is that the 10 imposition of the city employment terms, both before and after 11 the emergency manager was appointed under the Act 436, the 12 ones under Act 4 and Act 436, were lawfully done and cannot 13 give rise to any valid claim by anyone.

14 That's -- that's an argument that you -- the city was 15 maintaining against AFSCME and the coalition of the unions on 16 -- on that part of their claim that had to do with that,
17 right?

18 MR. WILLEMS: On that part, yes. They also had 19 other claims but yeah.

20 THE COURT: Yeah. And that was in there. And so
21 that as to the AFSCME and the coalition union claims, that's 22 in the process of -- of being settled, assuming the city
23 council ratifies it, it's -- it's settled and isn't going to 24 be litigated. But, you know, if something happens and city

25 council doesn't ratify and there is no settlement and the
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 68 of

1 matter has to be litigated, if I rule today on the merits of 2 these arguments you're making now in connection with these
3 individual claims is it your view that's going to bind the 4 AFSCME and the coalition of the unions or not?

5 MR. WILLEMS: Well, I suppose there would be parts
6 of it that might end up being law of the case, yes.

7 THE COURT: Well, except --

8 MR. WILLEMS: I mean obviously the --

9 THE COURT: Except AFSCME -- except your -- your 10 position is that AFSCME and the coalition of unions are the 11 prima parties to bring those claims if anyone and they're not 12 here, right?

13 They weren't given an opportunity to respond to the 14 city's April 21 brief and they're not participating in these 15 objection to claims in the individual claims. And your 16 objections are not stated as -- the ones before me today are 17 not stated as objections to the AFSCME and the -- and the 18 coalition union claims.

19 So I'm wondering how they're going to be -- they're not
20 going to be bound by what I rule today, but on the other hand,
21 you know, if I rule on the merits today, you know, you're
22 going to -- you'll probably be -- be thinking well, the Judge
23 isn't going to rule inconsistently with that later on.

24 So I -- I have this question about whether as a legal

1 any ruling that I make on the merits of your argument that
2 you're making today with respect to these many individual
3 claims. And I guess similar -- a similar concern that -- or 4 question about -- about what -- whether the Court should wait
5 to rule on the merits of all the -- of these arguments until 6 we see whether the settlement is actually going to go through 7 with the AFSCME and the coalition. Or -- or in the 8 alternative result in litigation, a litigated result.

9 MR. WILLEMS: I'm sorry, or --

10 THE COURT: A litigated result.

11 MR. WILLEMS: Oh, oh, yeah, right, right.

12 THE COURT: Do you see the concern I have?

13 MR. WILLEMS: No, I -- I understand. So I guess
14 here's my response to that. As I was sitting here, you know,
15 prior to coming up to argue, I was thinking really the -- the 16 -- the real issue here is the duplication issue.

17 And -- and that almost by itself kind of swallows the 18 rest of the -- the -- the arguments here because really these 19 claims under the CET's should and can only be brought by the 20 unions. And to the extent there are duplicate -- there's 21 duplication here, they, you know, they should be subsumed in 22 the -- in the union claims and withdrawn or expunged or 23 whatever as individual claims. Because that's -- that's 24 either going to settle or litigate all these issues. And

1 claimants.

2 THE COURT: I would have thought that is the more
3 difficult issue. That's how it struck me. That's a more
4 difficult issue you know, when you get into issues about
5 whether the individuals have right to bring their own claims
6 here or not. That doesn't strike me as a -- as a simple
7 issue, a simple matter.

8 If you're right about the merits, however, that is fairly
9 clean and simple issue to deal with one way or the other. If 10 you're right or you're wrong. But I had this concern about 11 the impact if any on the pending settlement.

12 MR. WILLEMS: I understand, yeah. We were -- got a 13 little bit of a crossfire going here that we need to be 14 sensitive to. Is the Court suggesting that we adjourn pending
15 what happens with the AFSCME cases?

16 THE COURT: Well, I, you know, I'm not wild about 17 that idea. We've got everybody here and --

18 MR. WILLEMS: Right.

19 THE COURT: Today is the day for the hearing on 20 this. And you've made -- you've made arguments about the 21 merits here.

22 MR. WILLEMS: Right.

23 THE COURT: Not just this duplication argument. How 24 soon will we know do you think whether or not city council has

25 -- has ratified this settlement with the -- the unions?

1 MR. WILLEMS: At this point, I think we may need one
2 more adjournment to finish it off. But that would be the end
3 of it. We should be able to have word from city council in at 4 least a month and a half to two months.

5 THE COURT: All right. Well, let's assume we're not
6 -- I'm not adjourning, we're going to have this hearing today
7 and -- and if I can rule, I'm going to rule one way or the 8 other on -- on the arguments. Is there anything else you'd 9 like to say before we hear from the -- any individuals that 10 want to be heard?

11 MR. WILLEMS: Can I take a moment to consult with 12 counsel?

13 THE COURT: Sure.

14 MR. WILLEMS: I don't know if I --

15 THE COURT: Again, speak up, please. Go ahead.

16 MR. WILLEMS: Yeah. I don't know if I have anything
17 very helpful to add. If we're going to proceed today then 18 obviously you're going to decide on the merits. The -- the 19 concern --

20 THE COURT: Well, I may decide today or I may decide
21 to put it off.

22 MR. WILLEMS: Or you may decide to put it off, I
23 understand.

24 THE COURT: But we're going to have the hearing

1 MR. WILLEMS: Okay.

2 THE COURT: We're going to do it at least with that
3 in mind.

4 MR. WILLEMS: Absolutely.

5 THE COURT: I had hoped -- I had hoped to be able to 6 rule today from the bench as I try to do in many of these 7 matters, but we'll see.

8 MR. WILLEMS: We -- we have not received any 9 responses to our legal arguments, so we might hear some today,
10 I -- I don't know. But the, I guess, other than that, you
11 know, the concern you raised about the AFSCME and the 12 coalition not being present in this sector of the arguments, I
13 mean, you know, the -- the -- their claims are not being 14 presented here.

15 If there's a -- if there's a issue in terms of who is 16 bound or what's bound, I suppose we could discuss the -- the 17 question of law of the case. But that would probably be 18 something that they would have to bring up in terms of whether 19 or not this ends up being that.

20 THE COURT: All right. Anything else you want to 21 say before we hear from others?

22 MR. WILLEMS: I do not have anything else.

23 THE COURT: All right. So, I want to give anyone
24 else who wants to be heard on this, whose claim is concerned
25 in this, an opportunity to be heard. The gentleman here,

1 you're an attorney, sir?

2 MR. GREENE: I am, sir.

3 THE COURT: Would you come up?

4 MR. GREENE: Yes.

5 THE COURT: If you want to be heard.

6 MR. GREENE: Yeah. Anthony Greene, I'm appearing on 7 behalf of Da'Nean Brooks. And I want to first say that I did
8 not submit her proof of claim for her, however, in her proof
9 of claim she indicated that she was objecting to the taking of 10 interest that she had gained on her annuity.

11 And I am arguing today, Your Honor, that the -- in 12 January 16, 2015, the City of Detroit -- she gained exactly
13 $15,424.41 in interest on her annuity. The city took $8,690
14 of -- of those funds.

15 They accordingly recouped those funds on the basis of the 16 eighth amended plan for adjustment of debts. And we object on 17 the basis that we -- even though it was done according to an 18 agreement, it certainly wasn't an agreement that she was 19 subject to and we consider those monies to belong to her and 20 not to the city, it was part of her annuity. And we argue
21 that they were unlawfully taken. And --

22 THE COURT: Mr. -- Mr. Greene, let me ask you --

23 MR. GREENE: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Just one second. I want to -- in my

25 papers here I want to find Ms. -- the paper -- the information
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 74 of

1 I have regarding Ms. Brooks' claim.

2 MR. GREENE: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Do you -- do you have -- which -- which
4 omnibus objection to claim was her claim subject to? Do you
5 have it there?

6 MR. GREENE: Hold on.

7 MR. WILLEMS: Your Honor, if I may, it's 8 twenty-eight.

9 MR. GREENE: Yeah.

10 THE COURT: Twenty-eight? All right. One second, 11 hold on.

12 MR. WILLEMS: And -- and it -- it would be Item 6 on 13 our --

14 MR. GREENE: Yeah.

15 MR. WILLEMS: I'm sorry, Item 53 on -- on our
16 Exhibit 1.

17 THE COURT: All right, hold on. Thank you. Exhibit
18 1.

19 MR. WILLEMS: Exhibit 1 has a list of the --

20 THE COURT: Yeah, I know.

21 MR. WILLEMS: Okay.

22 THE COURT: It's the -- it's the chart, Exhibit 1 to 23 the --

24 MR. GREENE: Yes.

25 THE COURT: -- to the April 21 brief.

1 MR. WILLEMS: Yes.

2 THE COURT: All right. I'm looking on there. It's 3 number fifty what?

4 MR. WILLEMS: Fifty-three.

5 THE COURT: All right. Hold on. All right. Mr.
6 Greene, I have found the information I was looking for in 7 this.

8 MR. GREENE: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Why don't you continue? You're saying
10 that the claim is -- is based on --

11 MR. GREENE: The taking of 800 -- $8,690.31 that was 12 -- it's called a recoument. It was taken in January of 2016
13 -- 2015 as a result of the bankruptcy.

14 THE COURT: As a result of the confirmed plan,
15 right?

16 MR. GREENE: That is true, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right. Just hold on, hold on.

18 MR. GREENE: Yeah, I'm sorry.

19 THE COURT: Hold on. So when was this proof of 20 claim filed?

21 MR. GREENE: This proof of claim was filed, I think
22 I do have that. That was filed on -- bear with me for a 23 second. I got it. That's the original proof of claim. That 24 was filed on February 21st, 2014.

25 And she -- and she -- in the proof of claim she does
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 76 of

1 mention that she was filing it to save part of her annuity
2 which belonged to her at the time. Well --

3 THE COURT: So the claim could not possibly have 4 included when -- when it was filed, anything about this
5 recoupment that occurred January 16 of 2015. It concerned
6 rather the -- the imposition of the city employment terms and 7 -- and orders affect on pensions and annuities by the 8 emergency manager order 21, both of which occurred pre --
9 pre-bankruptcy, is that right?

10 MR. GREENE: That is true. But she did on March 11 22nd, 2016, file an amended proof of claim.

12 THE COURT: All right. And that included then this 13 -- as part of the claim, a claim based on this recoupment of 14 8,690 on January 16 of 2015.

15 MR. GREENE: It is not mentioned in that -- in that 16 amendment. But if you put both together, the original proof
17 of claim and this proof of claim it is mentioned. But you're 18 right, it -- she does not reference that recoupment in this
19 particular second amended proof of claim, that's true.

20 THE COURT: All right. So to the extent the -- 21 perhaps we have two pieces here. You're arguing -- we've got 22 the pre-petition claim which is --

23 MR. GREENE: Yeah, that's true, that's correct.

24 THE COURT: Which is based on the imposition of the 25 city employment terms and --

1 MR. GREENE: Sure.

2 THE COURT: And the emergency manager order 21,
3 possibly also as well. And then this -- this other component
4 has to do with this recoupment that occurred under the terms
5 of the confirmed plan.

6 MR. GREENE: Sure.

7 THE COURT: That occurred in January 2015.

8 MR. GREENE: Yes, that's true.

9 THE COURT: And -- and so as to that latter, that 10 is, if I understand what you're saying correctly, Ms. -- Ms.
11 Brooks is complaining there about the terms of the confirmed
12 plan.

13 MR. GREENE: She is.

14 THE COURT: So how is that a valid claim?

15 MR. GREENE: Well -- well, I imagine it's a -- it's 16 a it's a constitutional claim I guess that will go along with 17 the claims of the actual AFSCME union which -- and that's 18 another concern that I had that her claim really has a lot to 19 do with the current claims of AFSCME union and I would ask the 20 Court to withhold an opinion regarding her claim until that 21 particular issue is resolved. Because they're arguing that,
22 the AFSCME union that she's a part of.

23 THE COURT: The AFSCME union claim includes a claim
24 based on the recoupment that occurred in January 2015?

25 MR. GREENE: Well, it -- it -- it challenges the 13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 78 of 126

1 taking of the money from the annuity and the pension.

2 THE COURT: But it doesn't directly challenge the
3 confirmed plan, does it?

4 MR. GREENE: I'll be honest with you, Your Honor, I
5 have not reviewed their entire claim. And I -- and I -- I
6 can't speak to that. I apologize for that.

7 THE COURT: Well, what do you want to say about the 8 merits of the -- of these -- of Ms. Brooks' positions here?

9 MR. GREENE: Well, we're claiming that 10 constitutionally that -- it constitutes a taking. Because 11 those funds belong to Ms. Brooks. And I know it was a part of 12 the -- the plan but certainly she wasn't individually a part 13 of that plan and it was taking money that belonged directly to 14 her.

15 THE COURT: Now are you talking about the 16 recoupment?

17 MR. GREENE: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Under the plan?

19 MR. GREENE: Yes.

20 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead. You were -- you
21 were saying.

22 MR. GREENE: Yeah, yeah. So -- so we believe that 23 even though that amount was under the plan, we believe it was 24 still unlawfully taken because it wasn't the city's money to

1 And -- and of course that's a, I guess a due process
2 argument or a constitutional argument that they should never
3 have taken those monies, even if it was a part of the plan.
4 So that's my argument, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. I'll allow the 6 city to respond now to this argument by Mr. Greene and then
7 we'll hear -- continue hearing from others who want to speak.

8 MR. GREENE: Thank you.

9 THE COURT: City?

10 MR. WILLEMS: Well, Your Honor, it appears that we 11 have an objection to the confirmation of the plan rather than 12 a claim. And it should be brought that way. So as -- as a 13 claim it should still be expunged.

14 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Greene just left the courtroom
15 but, you know, I'll say this. And, you know, I guess he'll 16 have to get it from the recording of the hearing. He's not 17 here, he just walked out.

18 The -- to the extent Ms. Brooks is making a claim that is 19 based upon the -- this -- what's characterized by Mr. Greene
20 in the hearing today as a recoupment of $8,690 in January of 21 2015 based on the terms of the confirmed plan, that claim is 22 -- that claim is without merit because it is inconsistent with 23 the terms of the confirmed Chapter 9 plan. Admittedly so by 24 -- as admitted by counsel for Ms. Brooks which plan, confirmed

1 is a final order that's long since been a final order and it's
2 not subject to debate.

3 Now, you know, that's -- that's the end of that piece of 4 the argument. The other -- to the extent Ms. Brooks' claim,
5 it appears that the claim she filed originally anyway, and 6 perhaps even the amended claim she filed in March 2016 is 7 based upon the imposition of the city employment terms and --
8 and the emergency manager's order 31 its affect on pensions
9 and annuities then that is part of the category of claims that 10 the city has called employee obligation claims and which the 11 city has argued are without merit as well as being duplicates
12 of claims brought -- properly brought by the unions.

13 So I -- I'm not ruling at this moment on that aspect of 14 the argument.

15 MR. WILLEMS: I understand.

16 THE COURT: And I'm going to hold off. I want to 17 hear from others and then we'll come back to that.

18 But certainly to the extent of Ms. Brooks' claim is based 19 upon essentially an objection to the confirmed plan, it's -- 20 it's overruled, the claim is -- the objection to that claim is 21 sustained.

22 So anyway, who wants to be heard from next, anyone?

23 Anyone who is represented by an attorney, I'll let you go

24 next. Are there any other attorneys here in the courtroom

25 that want to be heard on behalf of a client? No? All right.

1 Who's -- sir, you're -- you're next if you want to --

2 MR. COLLINS: Julius Collins.

3 THE COURT: Come on up. Your name is what again?

4 MR. COLLINS: Julius Collins.

5 THE COURT: All right. One moment, sir. I want to 6 find you in the -- in my list here. Oh, I see. Mr. Collins,
7 it looks like the city objected to your claim as part of their 8 twentieth omnibus objection to claim. What do you want to 9 say, Mr. Collins?

10 MR. COLLINS: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Thank you
11 and good afternoon.

12 My claims, I just ask the -- the city attorney was 13 stating that my claim is still against the city for the 14 actions taken against me and I worked for the City of Detroit
15 for 12 years and not only we took pay cuts in 2014, but before
16 then I don't have a accurate date, but of those cuts, that's 17 what I'm asking. I'm claiming for those actions taken.

18 And while I worked for the City of Detroit those years, I
19 -- we was forced to take pay cuts, and vacation cuts, and 20 longevity and -- and all those. Holidays was -- was -- was 21 cut and a lot of different actions were taken against us.

22 According to the CET and the consent agreement which I --
23 which I believe was unfair for the City of -- of Detroit. My 24 claim amount was -- was for 30,000 -- $30,000 in recoupment.

25 And I -- I would -- my -- my claims that I was forced
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 82 of

1 reduction in -- in -- in wages and elimination of my benefits.

2 And while I retired from the City of Detroit in 2012.

3 And I had a great -- great reduction in my retirement
4 benefits. And also I'm paying a retirement recoupment to the 5 City of Detroit to bail out the City of Detroit which is every 6 time I receive a -- a paycheck from the City of Detroit, I'm 7 still paying -- paying $61.00 to the City of Detroit according 8 to the bail out -- the bankruptcy plan.

9 So I -- and also I have to pay my own insurance because 10 certain -- certain period of time, I think it's July of 2013.
11 They eliminated -- they -- they forced us to -- to pay our own
12 medical benefits. We were -- we were given a stipend, but 13 then they turned around and eliminated the stipend so we have 14 to pay -- pay directly from -- from what my benefit is.

15 I had a $125.00 stipend coming out of my -- coming to me,
16 but after sometime in July, they reduced -- they eliminated
17 that and directly coming out of my retirement today is -- is 18 that amount, the $125.00 I have to pay for insurance.

19 So my -- my thing and my issue today is that I am
20 entitled to some type of financial restitution because the -- 21 the attorney spoke up, the union, AFSCME union was reacting on 22 my behalf. The AFSCME union is not on my behalf today. I'm 23 here individually. I can't afford a lawyer, so that's why I'm 24 here, I'm here personally because of my benefit and -- and my

25 cost of living. I can't afford a lawyer.

1 And -- and -- and I -- that's why I -- I -- I believe
2 through my -- through my years working for the City of Detroit
3 that I am entitled to some -- some financial restitution for 4 -- for my work and for the unfairness. Say -- it was saying
5 -- only said that the city had probably breached an employment
6 obligation. My thing is that the city wrongfully handled our 7 -- our employment obligation because we had no bargaining even 8 though I was a member of the City of Detroit, I had -- I had 9 nothing to say about what the city -- the CET, the city
10 employment term.

11 I had no -- individually I had nothing to -- nothing to 12 say about it, you know. I had -- I had no -- no offense so I
13 had no defense, you know, for the CET, for the consent
14 agreement. But I had -- as an employee of the City of 15 Detroit, I had nothing -- nothing to say about it, you know.

16 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Collins, you need to --
17 you need to wrap it up.

18 MR. COLLINS: Oh, I'm sorry.

19 THE COURT: I've got to give others a chance to 20 talk, so --

21 MR. COLLINS: Okay, okay. I'm sorry, sir, you know.

22 THE COURT: That's all right. It's okay.

23 MR. COLLINS: Yes.

24 THE COURT: You -- you know, we have to --

1 THE COURT: -- have a reasonable limit on how long
2 everybody can talk or we won't get done today.

3 MR. COLLINS: Okay, I'm -- I'm sorry, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: So go ahead. Go ahead and finish.
5 Finish up, please.

6 MR. COLLINS: But, okay. So -- so finally that's --
7 that's I -- I -- I believe that I am entitled to -- and -- and 8 we all are entitled to some financial obligation. And to me
9 if we can't -- if we -- I'm speaking for myself, if I -- if I
10 can't -- can't receive -- receive all of my claimant, I am --
11 I am willing to settle for, you know, for a settle amount. So
12 thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Collins. Mr.
14 Willems, you can have a seat. I think instead of calling on 15 you after each person speaks now for the rest of the hearing
16 I'll -- I'll give you a chance to speak when everyone else is 17 done on the -- on the claimant's side.

18 MR. WILLEMS: Okay, that's fine.

19 THE COURT: So if you would hold any thoughts you
20 were going to just express and we can hear those when everyone
21 else has spoken. So you don't have to stand up. You can if 22 you want, but you don't have to.

23 MR. WILLEMS: Thank you.

24 THE COURT: All right. So who would like to speak
25 next of the creditors? Sir, come on up.

1 MR. STEELE: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Come on up to the microphone and speak
3 loud, please, so everyone can hear you. What's your name,
4 sir?

5 MR. STEELE: My name is Craig Steele. Good
6 afternoon, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Craig what?

8 MR. STEELE: Craig Steele.

9 THE COURT: S-t what?

10 MR. STEELE: S-t-e-e-l-e.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Steele --

12 MR. STEELE: Yes.

13 THE COURT: -- let me find your claim on the list
14 here. One second. Mr. Willems, if you know where that -- he 15 is in the list, let me know.

16 MR. WILLEMS: It's number -- it's Item 20.

17 THE COURT: All right. One second. Number 20 on 18 the chart which is the city's Exhibit 1 to the April 21 brief.

19 MR. WILLEMS: Correct.

20 THE COURT: That's what we're talking about. So
21 this is part of the city's twentieth omnibus -- twenty-ninth
22 omnibus --

23 MR. WILLEMS: Twenty-ninth, yes.

24 THE COURT: Twenty-ninth omnibus objection. All

25 right. Go ahead, Mr. Steele. What would you like to say?
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 86 of

1 MR. STEELE: Well, Your Honor, I've been sitting in
2 this Court all day and you are doing a wonderful job looking
3 at all the back door moves that I consider very crafty and 4 creative.

5 My only contention is that I took -- I took -- I paid
6 attention to what you said about notion that if you rule today
7 and what that -- as the -- as the city's counsel said that 8 they have negotiations and they're almost in the process of 9 ratifying certain claims which we didn't know, I didn't know.
10 If you -- if you make a decision today that we don't have this 11 kind of -- well, you made a decision with that then and now we 12 want you to be consistent and make a decision in the same
13 manner then.

14 Or -- or, you know, when that comes down. And like you
15 said, you brought up a good question. What if the city
16 doesn't ratify. What if we lose on both end. You sign with 17 the city today and then the city council doesn't ratify.

18 So to me I think the Court shows a lot of wisdom and a 19 lot of patience by saying maybe we should adjourn it until we 20 see what that proceeding goes like.

21 THE COURT: And by the way, Mr. Steele and anyone
22 else, in case it's not clear to anyone, I -- I don't know what
23 the terms of this proposed settlement are, I have no idea.
24 And I don't really need to know --

1 THE COURT: -- at this stage of the case --

2 MR. STEELE: Right.

3 THE COURT: -- as the Bankruptcy Judge.

4 MR. STEELE: Right.

5 THE COURT: I don't know. Because if the settlement
6 does not happen --

7 MR. STEELE: And that was -- that was my contention
8 -- I'm sorry, go ahead.

9 THE COURT: Excuse me. If the settlement does not 10 happen and, you know, it's just a -- a dead letter, then the 11 parties are going to litigate --

12 MR. STEELE: Right.

13 THE COURT: -- in front of me and I'm going to have 14 to make decisions on the merits of the parties' arguments
15 about the claim of the unions. And I don't really want to 16 know what the parties talked about or agreed to tentatively
17 with respect to settlement.

18 MR. STEELE: Right.

19 THE COURT: If I'm going to be doing that. And so I
20 don't know what the terms are and I don't want to know. Just 21 so everybody's clear, I have no idea what --

22 MR. STEELE: Right.

23 THE COURT: -- what the proposed settlement is --

24 MR. STEELE: Right.

25 THE COURT: -- or what it may or may not provide for

1 any of the creditors involved in this hearing today. I have 2 no idea.

3 So just understand that and I want to make sure everyone
4 understands that. So Mr. Steele, go on. What else did you
5 want to say, anything?

6 MR. STEELE: Yes. And I -- and I appreciate you
7 bringing out that point, Your Honor. And it's no way for you
8 to even have that information.

9 But what I'm concerned like I said before is, that if you
10 rule in their favor and then like I said I just learned about 11 that information when city council said that they are in 12 negotiations and close to ratifying. And then when you asked 13 them how long would it be before they wrap up those 14 negotiations, he said maybe a month, half, two months.

15 Well, maybe we should wait and adjourn until we see as I
16 said, how that goes down. So we won't lose twice. That's --
17 that is my concern. Because he doesn't want us -- he said
18 that we cannot represent -- or AFSCME cannot represent, we 19 represent our own case he said that's duplicates. Okay, I
20 understand that.

21 Well, then if that is closer or not closer, but if that 22 is -- he says that he has to go with what the union -- he 23 can't even negotiate with us as individuals and if you can 24 only negotiate with AFSCME's and the other unions and those

1 should wait till it does conclude.

2 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Steele, we need to wrap
3 it up. Anything else you want to say?

4 MR. STEELE: No, that is -- that is it, sir. Thank
5 you for your time.

6 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Steele. Who
7 would like to speak next? Come on up, sir. Your name, sir?

8 MR. WOLFE: Henry Wolfe.

9 THE COURT: All right. One second. All right.
10 Good afternoon, Mr. Wolfe.

11 MR. WOLFE: Good afternoon.

12 THE COURT: Your claim is the subject of the city's 13 forty-fourth omnibus objection to claims.

14 MR. WOLFE: Correct, correct.

15 THE COURT: And that's docket 11162. I did see the 16 written response that you filed with the Court to that claim
17 objection on June 7 at docket -- it's at docket number 11232.
18 You -- one second.

19 I said earlier I would allow you to speak today, but I --
20 I want to make sure you know and it will be mailed -- it's 21 mailing -- being mailed to you today butt there is an order
22 entered today, earlier today striking your response to the 23 objection to claim because you did not comply with the Court's 24 notice of deficiency regarding your claim. You did not make

25 the deficiency.

1 And the problem was that you didn't file a proof of 2 service regarding -- or certificate of service regarding
3 service so they may respond on the city. And you had seven 4 days to fix that and you didn't do that within seven days and 5 so the Court as it typically always does in that kind of 6 situation, entered an order striking your response.

7 Now having said that, I will give you an opportunity to 8 speak today and I want you to go ahead. What do you want to 9 say about this?

10 MR. WOLFE: Okay. In regards to the -- I believe it
11 was the -- the deficiency was proof of service. I'm saying --
12 the justification for striking my response.

13 THE COURT: Well, what do you want to say?

14 MR. WOLFE: Well, I want to say that I received that 15 notification this past Thursday, so it has not been seven 16 days. I thought it said eight days, but I hasn't been seven 17 days. And if the --

18 THE COURT: You mean Thursday of last week you
19 received it.

20 MR. WOLFE: Of the last week I received it in the 21 mail, correct.

22 THE COURT: The notice required that you correct the 23 problem within seven days of the date of the notice, however,
24 which was June 7, so that meant -- that meant June 14,

25 yesterday. Anyway, go on.

1 MR. WOLFE: Okay. Well, that's the reason why you
2 hadn't received it.

3 My issue and response dealt with around the time of the 4 bankruptcy I filed two proofs of claim. One was in regards to 5 out of class payment and one was -- was in regards to 6 longevity pay.

7 When I received the notice from the Court, I was not
8 aware that it was in regards longevity pay so the response
9 dealt more so with the -- with the issue about the out of 10 class. That's why there was somewhat of some confusion there.

11 My contention about the -- I am still contesting about 12 the longevity pay because the city's argument for dismissal is 13 that the CET agreement nullified longevity pay, however the -- 14 that issue was issued in October of 2012 and my longevity pay
15 I stopped receiving it in two thousand, I believe nine, two -- 16 two years had passed before the CET agreement had went into 17 place and I did not receive longevity pay.

18 The out of class issue is a whole nother issue, but it
19 was filed as a proof of claim with this Court. But that was 20 not on the --

21 THE COURT: I don't see that that claim has been 22 objected to yet at least. At least it's not in the -- it's 23 not in the list. I don't -- it doesn't look like it's in the 24 list for -- of claims that were objected to on the city's

1 and that, I think, and that is claim number 2258 for $2,800.

2 MR. WOLFE: Correct.

3 THE COURT: Now if Mr. Willems can correct me if I'm
4 -- if he thinks I'm wrong about this, if the city has objected
5 to your -- what you refer to as your out of class pay claim,
6 he can tell me that and we'll -- we'll deal with that. But 7 I'm assuming for the time being that's not part of this claim
8 objection.

9 MR. WOLFE: You know unless you want it to be, but
10 no.

11 THE COURT: I'm not starting disputes that no party
12 has raised. I've got enough disputes that parties have raised 13 to deal with. So, anyway anything else you want to say then 14 for today?

15 MR. WOLFE: No, that's it. The deficiency if it's 16 in regards to -- it says something about proof of service.
17 Could I maybe be made aware of what that is?

18 THE COURT: Sure. When you file anything with the 19 Court, in this Bankruptcy Court and case, you have to serve a 20 copy of it on opposing parties and opposing attorneys, or if 21 the party is represented by an attorney as here on the -- on 22 the opposing attorney by -- and then file a certificate that 23 says that you have served your response on that -- on that
24 attorney, in this case attorney for the city and you didn't do
25 that, and that's what the deficiency was about.

1 Now anything else you want to say about the merits of
2 this issue about longevity pay before we let some other folks
3 talk, please?

4 MR. WOLFE: No.

5 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

6 MR. WOLFE: You're welcome.

7 THE COURT: Who wants to speak next? Good
8 afternoon.

9 MR. DORCH: Good afternoon. My name is Ventonia
10 Dorch.

11 THE COURT: One second. How do you spell your last 12 name?

13 MR. DORCH: D-o-r-c-h.

14 THE COURT: All right. Which claim objection are 15 you responding to, do you know?

16 MR. DORCH: I think it was on proof of -- what was 17 it, documentation, proof of what I was claiming, the money
18 that they took from me.

19 THE COURT: All right, just a minute. Mr. Willems,
20 do you know?

21 MR. WILLEMS: Is it Dorch, Ventonia?

22 MR. DORCH: Yeah.

23 MR. WILLEMS: Okay. That would be Item 10. It's 24 omnibus thirty-three.

1 see that. Go ahead, Mr. Dorch, what would you like to say?

2 MR. DORCH: Yes. In regards to they say the CET was 3 in effect in 2012. I started having the 10% taken from me in 4 2011. So it's way before the CET in late -- October 2011, I
5 think it was.

6 THE COURT: Anything else you want to say?

7 MR. DORCH: That's pretty much it.

8 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Who would like
9 to speak next?

10 MR. GREENE: Your Honor, I just spoke with -- this
11 is JaJuan Moore, JaJuan Moore.

12 THE COURT: Well, just a minute. Mr. Greene
13 attorney for who now?

14 MR. GREENE: Anthony Greene, Your Honor, appearing 15 on behalf of JaJuan Moore. And he is on --

16 MR. WILLEMS: It's -- it's objection number
17 thirty-six, Item 18 in Exhibit 1.

18 THE COURT: All right. One second.

19 MR. GREENE: Yeah.

20 THE COURT: Just a minute. So you're representing 21 Mr. Moore then, correct?

22 MR. GREENE: Yes, I am.

23 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead, what do you want
24 to say?

25 MR. GREENE: I was just retained, so I was given his
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 95 of

1 -- his summary of -- of what he believes he's entitled to from 2 the city.

3 He has what are called payroll disputes. The city not 4 providing him with the correct pay from June 11th, 2011 to 5 January 1st of 2016. So it's pre-petition and post-petition,
6 the city failing to provide him the correct amount. I believe
7 in his --

8 THE COURT: What do you mean failing to provide the 9 correct amount?

10 MR. GREENE: Well, he -- he was supposed to make -
11 how much money?

12 MR. MOORE: 15.35.

13 MR. GREENE: But they paid him --

14 MR. MOORE: $12.38.

15 MR. GREENE: Right. So they were actually paying 16 him $3.00 less each pay period. And they did that until 17 January of 2016. And he added that amount up to $3,000. And 18 -- and that he failed to receive from the city as a result of 19 them shorting his pay by $3.00 an hour.

20 THE COURT: When you say shorting his pay, is -- is 21 that because of the imposition of city employment terms?

22 MR. MOORE: That was -- if I may speak, Your Honor.
23 That was because of the work brain system we had. That it was 24 a payroll system. It also messed up our vacation time pay and 25 our sick time pay. It could jumble it up and it wouldn't get

1 it on your paycheck.

2 The paycheck said something different from the computer.
3 And Human Resources going to look at what's on your paycheck
4 versus the computer. So it was always a issue. And then it
5 always took a long time for them to pay you back and then
6 since we changed over to Great Lakes Authority, we still 7 haven't received compensation for that.

8 MR. GREENE: And there's also a question, Your 9 Honor, of what's called four hours turnaround pay which he
10 should have received and he can explain what turnaround pay 11 is.

12 THE COURT: Well, look -- look, we don't need in 13 this hearing an explanation in detail of what the claim is.

14 MR. GREENE: Okay.

15 THE COURT: What I -- what I need to know really,
16 the key things I need to know is, are the -- is the claim --
17 to what extent is the claim based upon city employment terms
18 that were imposed --

19 MR. GREENE: Got it.

20 THE COURT: Excuse me. That were imposed before the 21 city -- or the emergency manager was appointed or based on 22 cuts or freezes that were imposed by the emergency manager
23 before the bankruptcy case was filed.

24 To what extent are the claims based on that as opposed to 25 something else. And if it's something else, what is the

1 something else. That's the -- the key thing I want to know.
2 And then I would appreciate it if -- if you want -- any
3 argument you want to make about the merits of the city's
4 arguments regarding the first of those types of claims. That
5 is the city imposed city employment terms and the emergency
6 manager cuts previously. So go ahead, Mr. Greene.

7 MR. GREENE: Yeah, okay. With regards to the CET,
8 we argue again that the cutting his income or taking out 10%
9 of his wages which was also done as a result of the CET. The 10 CET actually cut his wages by 10%.

11 He is also claiming that that was unlawfully taken as 12 well. His arguments are -- are consistent with the AFSCME
13 arguments in the pending litigation. And there's also the --
14 the reason why we -- we request that the Court withhold
15 judgment until that issue is resolved.

16 So what he's saying is, as a result of the CET, 10% of 17 his wages were cut. And he believes that that was unlawful or 18 should not have occurred.

19 THE COURT: Now what's -- what about the first part
20 of my question which is to what extent if any does Mr. Moore
21 argue his claim is based on something other than the cuts and 22 adverse effects of the city imposed -- city employment terms
23 that were imposed.

24 MR. GREENE: Okay, other than.

25 THE COURT: Other things.

1 MR. GREENE: Okay, right.

2 THE COURT: Pre-petition claim based on other
3 things --

4 MR. GREENE: Pre-petition.

5 THE COURT: -- if any -- if anything.

6 MR. GREENE: Okay, right. Well, in terms of 7 pre-petition the city for whatever reason was miscalculating
8 his appropriate income and not paying him what they should 9 have paid him pursuant to his employment agreement with them.
10 And so that's a breach of contract, a breach of a contract
11 claim, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: You mean quite apart from any 10% cut 13 or --

14 MR. GREENE: That's exactly right. Yeah, that's a
15 totally separate issue.

16 THE COURT: Basically you're saying -- you're saying
17 the city was making a mistake.

18 MR. GREENE: Yes. The city --

19 THE COURT: And paying him less than they even 20 intended to pay him.

21 MR. GREENE: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Is that what you're saying?

23 MR. GREENE: Absolutely.

24 THE COURT: All right. So that's part of the claim.

25 MR. GREENE: That's part of the claim.

1 THE COURT: All right. Anything else that's not a
2 CET type part of the claim?

3 MR. GREENE: I think that's it unless you have
4 something else.

5 MR. MOORE: I would like to just add to that, part
6 of that 2012 there was a collective bargaining extension
7 agreement with the IOU. All of the people that was at the 8 DSWD was placed into that union where it was no concessions
9 involved or the CET.

10 The CET was new per that contract. So there was no
11 concessions. And I have right here the contract 2012 to 2022
12 per Sue McCormick acting on her own with DSWD away from the 13 city. We was all placed up under this contract but we was all
14 supposed to get our 10% back, wage concessions, and any issues
15 with the payroll clocks handled with the new ceridian that has 16 not been handled yet.

17 THE COURT: All right. Anything else then, Mr.
18 Greene?

19 MR. GREENE: No, no, no, that's it.

20 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Who would like
21 to speak next? Ma'am, come on up, please.

22 MS. CANNON: I just want to mention prior to the --

23 THE COURT: No, no, what's your name, please?

24 MS. CANNON: Oh, I'm sorry. Gladys Cannon,

25 forty-fourth.

1 THE COURT: Hold on.

2 MS. CANNON: Okay.

3 MR. WILLEMS: I'm sorry, I didn't get the name.

4 MS. CANNON: Gladys Cannon.

5 MR. WILLEMS: Cannon?

6 MS. CANNON: Yes, C-a-n-n-o-n.

7 MR. WILLEMS: Okay.

8 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Cannon, as you've just 9 referred to, your claim objected to as part of the city's 10 forty-fourth omnibus objection.

11 MS. CANNON: Right.

12 THE COURT: To claims. And you filed a written
13 response to that objection. What would you like to say?

14 MS. CANNON: What I would like to say is prior to 15 the implementation of the CET, they did deny us longevity in 16 2010 as well as 2011. I did file paperwork with the state
17 Wage and Labor Commission regarding that.

18 And when I contacted them about it, they said it would be 19 handled with the city, but we're talking a two year delay from 20 the time that I originally filed the paperwork till the time
21 that the CET was implemented.

22 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

23 MS. CANNON: You're welcome.

24 THE COURT: Who would like to be heard next?

25 MS. MCCRARY: Good afternoon.

1 THE COURT: Good afternoon. Speak close and into
2 the microphone, please, so we can all hear you. Your name,
3 please?

4 MS. MCCRARY: Sarah McCrary.

5 THE COURT: And which claim objection, do you know?

6 MS. MCCRARY: Excuse me?

7 THE COURT: Which claim objection?

8 MR. WILLEMS: It's number thirty-seven.

9 THE COURT: Pardon?

10 MR. WILLEMS: Number thirty-seven, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. Hold on. Where in the 12 chart?

13 MR. WILLEMS: Item 40.

14 THE COURT: Thirty-seventh omnibus objection. All
15 right. Thank you. I see that in the chart. Ms. McCrary, go
16 ahead. What would you like to say?

17 MS. MCCRARY: I'd just like to say that I've been 18 working for the city for 20 years. And even prior to the CET
19 and all the other things that are going on, we made a genuine
20 effort to keep the -- the city going. I work for the ITS 21 department.

22 We have saved the city hundreds of thousands of dollars
23 in things contract reviews and disposal of equipment and -- 24 and other things. And also before this CET and the BRF's and 25 all these things, we have already been taking do op days

1 That was back during the do op days. Whatever it took to --
2 to keep the city going, is what we had to do.

3 And during the CET not only were we taking a 10%
4 reduction in pay, but we were also doing the BRF days which 5 was a 20% reduction in pay for some months which is more than 6 I think was fair for the City of Detroit workers. I just --
7 and I am not part of the union and I was not part of the 8 union, so my claim is separate from everything else.

9 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

10 MS. MCCRARY: Thank you.

11 THE COURT: Who would like to speak next? Sir, you
12 came up earlier. Come on up.

13 MR. CAPIZZO: Good afternoon. My name is Jim
14 Capizzo. I'm in the forty-fourth objection.

15 THE COURT: All right. One second, please.

16 MR. WILLEMS: I'm sorry, I didn't catch the name.

17 MR. CAPIZZO: The -- James Capizzo.

18 MR. WILLEMS: James Capizzo, forty-fourth, okay.

19 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Capizzo, I see the -- 20 where you -- where your claim is listed and under the 21 forty-fourth omnibus objection to claim. And I see the 22 written response. And I did review the written response that 23 you filed to that claim objection. You filed it on June 7th,
24 it's docket number 11239. What would you like to say?

1 things. I'm just confused about this whole thing. I received
2 this thing a couple weeks ago in the mail and it said I should 3 be here or I might lose my claim on the one hand. And on the 4 other hand it says if you're a member of a union you're 5 duplicate filing and that sort of implies you shouldn't be 6 here. So that's -- that's just been confusing to me.

7 Now there's minor things. A young lady back there said
8 something. Not all the people received their notices so that 9 maybe she could address that, I don't know.

10 The -- the city says I don't have a valid basis. My 11 basis is it was the CET was non-negotiated. Now I also put 12 for my thing --

13 THE COURT: And your part of what union, sir?

14 MR. CAPIZZO: SAAA.

15 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Go ahead.

16 MR. CAPIZZO: SAAA calculated for me some $13,000 in 17 claim and I put -- and I also added plus for pension, so
18 somebody put unliquidated so it's -- it's the thirteen 19 thousand some dollars and -- and full pension. And our 20 pension is being -- pension cuts are being on appeal today in 21 the Court in Cincinnati. I think that Court is probably over 22 by now.

23 So also the emergency manager law was appealed and I
24 think that might be coming up in August. The emergency

1 -- than negotiate under democracy.

2 So that's my points. Thank you. I have some -- some
3 documents for the Court.

4 THE COURT: No.

5 MR. CAPIZZO: No.

6 THE COURT: If you want the Court to consider 7 documents, you need to file them with the clerk's office in 8 the case rather than hand them up at -- at a hearing.

9 MR. CAPIZZO: Okay. Thank you.

10 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Who would like
11 to speak next? Anyone? All right. No other creditors have 12 asked to speak next in the hearing here now. Mr. Willems, I
13 will give you a chance to reply and to speak further if you
14 would like to for the city.

15 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: Excuse me.

16 THE COURT: I can't hear what you're saying, but
17 Ma'am, do you want to speak?

18 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: How are you doing? My name is 19 Wanda Beckon-White. I'm on part case thirty-three.

20 THE COURT: Spell your last name, please.

21 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: B as in boy, E as in Edward, C as 22 in cat, K as in -- and O as in Mary, and the color White.

23 THE COURT: Ms. Beckom-White?

24 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Is that how you say it? All right. And

1 you're part of the forty --

2 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: Thirty-three.

3 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

4 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: Thirty-three.

5 THE COURT: All right. Just a minute. Where is
6 that in the chart, Mr. Willems?

7 MR. WILLEMS: I'm looking. I think it's towards the 8 back. Hang on. I'm sorry, is it White or Beckom?

9 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: It is both. But it's under 10 Beckom-White.

11 MR. WILLEMS: Oh, okay.

12 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: The omnibus thirty-three omnibus.

13 MR. WILLEMS: Oh, I'm sorry. Okay. It's 14 thirty-three is the objection, you're correct. And it's 15 twenty-three on the chart.

16 THE COURT: All right. One second. All right.
17 Thank you. Go ahead, Ms. -- what's -- the chart says White,
18 Wanda Beckom. What is your name again, Wanda Beckom-White?

19 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: Wanda -- Wanda Beckom-White.

20 THE COURT: Is Beckom-White one word, is it
21 hyphenated or what is it?

22 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: It's hyphenated with White.

23 THE COURT: Okay. I -- I got you. All right. Ms.
24 Beckom-White, go ahead.

25 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: Okay. Thank you for giving us
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 106 of 126

1 the opportunity to come to Court and -- and support the fact
2 that 10% have been taken away from our -- our -- our wages
3 along with longevity, some of our shift premium.

4 And I came here to say thank you for giving us the 5 opportunity to come. Some of the people that was on -- that 6 was in the case did not receive a packet to be able to 7 represent themselves. And I wanted to see if there is any way
8 possible that they was going to be included in this City of 9 Detroit under AFSCME.

10 When you say that city council is looking into 11 negotiating with AFSCME. I was trying to see the people that 12 did --

13 THE COURT: Ms. Beckom-White -- Ms. Beckom-White.

14 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: Uh-huh.

15 THE COURT: This isn't the time for you to ask
16 questions of the attorney for the city.

17 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: Okay, okay.

18 THE COURT: You can do that after the hearing.

19 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: Okay.

20 THE COURT: -- but not -- not during the hearing.

21 This is your chance --

22 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: No, was trying to --

23 THE COURT: Hold it, hold it.

24 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: Okay.

25 THE COURT: This is your chance to speak to the

1 Court.

2 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: Okay.

3 THE COURT: And say whatever you want to say, but
4 don't -- you know, do it briefly and go ahead.

5 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: Okay. I just wanted the people
6 that wasn't able to get a packet from the Court, to be able to 7 -- be able to be looked, you know, for them to look over it.
8 And how can I put it? So they can be able to be known that 9 they also have lost their 10%, they annuity, and they 10 longevity.

11 THE COURT: Well, I don't know who you're referring 12 to Ms. --

13 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: And they assist --

14 THE COURT: Excuse me.

15 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: Uh-huh.

16 THE COURT: I don't know who you're referring to 17 there --

18 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: Uh-huh.

19 THE COURT: -- but you're free to -- certainly to 20 bring to the attention of the attorneys for the city --

21 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: Uh-huh.

22 THE COURT: -- the names of any persons who you
23 think had a claim objected to by the city at any time and then
24 did not get proper notice of that objection to the claim --

25 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: Uh-huh.

1 THE COURT: -- and of the hearing date. So if -- if
2 you think there are such people, I would encourage you to let
3 the city's attorneys know about that.

4 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: Uh-huh.

5 THE COURT: And if any of those people want to seek 6 relief from the Court by way of a motion from any adverse 7 orders that may have been entered regarding their claim on the 8 ground that they didn't receive proper notice, they can do
9 that on their own behalf, but that's -- that's for them to do.
10 Anyway, go ahead. Anything else?

11 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: But that was my concern.

12 THE COURT: Anything else?

13 MS. BECKOM-WHITE: That was it.

14 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Now, I'll ask 15 again, anyone else among the creditors who want to speak in 16 the hearing today before we turn -- let the city counsel speak
17 and then conclude the hearing. All right, I hear nothing.

18 Mr. Willems, did you want to reply?

19 MR. WILLEMS: Well, Your Honor, as to the 20 individuals who have made a presentation to the Court --

21 THE COURT: Remember, please speak up so everybody
22 can hear you back there. Thank you.

23 MR. WILLEMS: Your Honor, as to the individuals who 24 have made a presentation to the Court, I first pointed out

25 that we haven't heard anything that undermines the city's
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 109 of

1 legal arguments or its arguments on the merits.

2 With respect to Mr. Collins, I'd note that his response,
3 the city did request that it be stricken because it was filed
4 late. I had the document that we filed in my hand just a
5 second ago, but it's gotten swallowed up in the paper mess
6 over there. But he doesn't -- he doesn't add anything to his
7 claim. It appears that he's still -- it's basically a CET
8 claim.

9 With respect to Mr. Wolfe --

10 THE COURT: Wait, hold on one second, please.

11 MR. WILLEMS: Yeah.

12 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Go ahead.

13 MR. WILLEMS: In fact his original claim, Mr.
14 Collins' original claim didn't even state an amount, it just 15 said compensation earned without any specificity. So his 16 claim is deficient for that reason.

17 With respect to Mr. Wolfe, I -- I wasn't sure if the 18 Court said that it had not seen our reply in support of 19 forty-fourth -- the city's forty-fourth omnibus objection.

20 THE COURT: I have seen it, I read it.

21 MR. WILLEMS: Oh, okay. All right. All right.

22 THE COURT: That was filed last Friday, right?

23 MR. WILLEMS: Yes. Yeah, it's --

24 THE COURT: Yeah, I saw that, I read it.

25 MR. WILLEMS: Okay. All right. As -- as -- as we
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 110 of

1 indicate in that response, or reply, first of all his -- his
2 response should be overruled. He's -- he's actually bringing
3 in a new claim after the bar date. He's bringing in now an 4 out of class claim as opposed to the longevity claim that he
5 previously pleaded.

6 So -- and in addition the -- the new claim is -- has been
7 settled as part of a -- an entire group of grievances that --
8 that the city settled as part of the -- the overall labor
9 settlement in -- under the -- under the bankruptcy
10 proceedings. And Tab 9 behind our -- behind the reply, Tab A9
11 I should say, addresses that.

12 THE COURT: What is Mr. Wolfe getting as a result of 13 the settlement of his claim regarding out of class pay?

14 MR. WILLEMS: I don't know what the specifics are.
15 There's a -- there's an omnibus settlement agreement that's -- 16 that's at that tab which settles all of the grievances that 17 were filed as part of the AFSCME proof of claim.

18 As you may recall the AFSCME proof of claim had two 19 parts. It had the -- the first part was a general recitation 20 of a number of broad collective bargaining claims and then as 21 Exhibit 2 it had several -- well, 50 or more pages of 22 individual grievances that were pending at the time of the 23 bankruptcy proceeding.

24 And those were all settled. I don't have the specifics

1 56 of -- of that attachment. And it -- it -- it specifies
2 that it was a grievance based on out of class payments and the 3 amount is the precisely same amount that -- that he has in his
4 claim here. So that -- that --

5 THE COURT: He said that he filed two claims, is
6 that correct?

7 MR. WILLEMS: His initial claim was based on the --
8 on the elimination of longevity.

9 THE COURT: Right.

10 MR. WILLEMS: The second claim, the untimely one was 11 the out of class pay.

12 THE COURT: Well, you say untimely. Was it filed 13 actually as a proof of claim, or merely a response to your 14 claim objection?

15 MR. WILLEMS: Well, it was -- it was filed as a
16 response but it added an entirely new claim.

17 THE COURT: All right. So it wasn't as if he filed
18 two proofs of claim in the case.

19 MR. WILLEMS: He did not file two proofs of claim,
20 no.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MR. SPINNER: Your Honor --

23 THE COURT: Go on, Mr. Willems.

24 MR. SPINNER: Your Honor, Ron Spinner. I'm sorry to 25 interrupt. I'm not entirely certain that there are a second

1 proof of claim. We just know that at the time what the city
2 has said were to be objected were on the list. I do not have
3 a collapsed list that says everything by claimant. So it's 4 possible pending a search there could be a second additional
5 proof of claim and I just don't want to go on the record
6 unless Mr. Willems is certain of that fact.

7 Based on the knowledge we have today there's no second
8 original pre-petition proof of claim. But I cannot stand
9 before you today for the city and say that for sure.

10 MR. WILLEMS: I appreciate that correction.

11 THE COURT: Well, if there is -- if there is, and 12 the city -- I mean eventually the city will object to it if 13 the city has an objection to it, I presume based on it being 14 settled or whatever else there may be for argument.

15 MR. SPINNER: That's right. For this purpose here
16 to the extent that Mr. Wolfe is suggesting that his first 17 claim, the one we were checking to longevity is an out of 18 class claim, we're explaining why it won't work as far as an 19 amendment goes. He can't -- untimely, amendment, all that 20 good stuff. But his original other claim as filed will remain
21 as it is until -- assuming that there is such a claim, it
22 remains there until we file an objection of course.

23 THE COURT: All right. Back to you, Mr. Willems.

24 MR. WILLEMS: Moving on to Mr. Dorch. He's claiming

1 to -- to address that at this moment.

2 It could well be that there's some confusion about the 3 timing. The -- the -- there were prior to the imposition of 4 the CET's under prior imposed collective bargaining
5 agreements, some reductions. But if that's what he's talking
6 about, then the argument would be the same. Those were --
7 those were lawfully imposed in the context of collective 8 bargaining.

9 And then they were -- they were not the CET's, but just 10 by way of quick historical background, the 2008, 2012
11 collective bargaining agreement between the city and AFSCME
12 was initially an imposed, and eventually an agreed to 13 collective bargaining agreement.

14 And under that 2008, 2012 collective bargaining
15 agreement, there were also some reductions that -- including
16 longevity and -- and there may have been some what they call
17 BFR days or 10% cuts, or something along that line.

18 And Mr. Moore, and I haven't had a chance to look this 19 up. Obviously he's got, as we now understand it, an 20 additional claim on failure to pay checks. I looked back in 21 his claim and -- and I think that -- that there's probably 22 some language in there that -- that would validate that -- 23 that it's part of the original claim. But that's the -- the 24 -- the failure to properly pay step increases.

1 one where -- I guess I can't imagine that there wouldn't have
2 been a grievance filed or something along that line. That
3 that wouldn't have been addressed in some way.

4 And what -- what I'd like to do with that one is propose
5 that -- that I take that information back to the city and we
6 look at it and see whether there's a -- there's an issue
7 there. Obviously with the rest of his claim which is a CET --
8 which is a standard CET claim, all our arguments would still 9 be in play on that one.

10 Ms. Cannon, she hasn't brought anything forth to 11 distinguish her from the other CET claimants and therefore our 12 arguments would hold there. The same with Ms. McCrary. Same 13 with Mr. Capizzo, although it looks like he may have also have 14 some claims that would fall under the -- either the confirmed
15 plan, or the emergency manager order 21, but it wasn't clear
16 from his recitation.

17 And I guess the same thing would apply to Ms.
18 Beckom-White. She didn't present any information to change
19 the nature or the -- the affect of our arguments on her claim.
20 And that's all I have.

21 THE COURT: All right, just a moment. All right.
22 Mr. Willems or Mr. Spinner, whoever wants to answer this. Am
23 I correct in assuming that when the Detroit city council
24 decides whether or not to ratify the proposed settlement of

1 that the -- that some sort of agreed order will be stipulated
2 to and submitted to the Court for entry if the settlement is
3 approved? Is that correct or is that not correct?

4 MR. WILLEMS: That's a correct assumption, Your
5 Honor.

6 THE COURT: So if it's approved, I will -- the Court
7 will learn about it that way if not some other way. That is 8 there will be a -- I'll see a stipulation and a proposed order
9 that indicates that it has been -- the settlement has been 10 approved and the city's objections to the claims of those 11 unions are fully settled, is that right?

12 MR. WILLEMS: That's -- that's correct.

13 THE COURT: What if the city council does not 14 ratify, decides not to ratify the settlement. How will the 15 Court know that? Will it -- will there be something filed
16 relating to the litigation deadlines order that will tell me
17 that or what?

18 MR. WILLEMS: I mentioned that we would then apprise
19 the Court of the fact that that particular settlement hasn't 20 been approved and there will either be a plan B attempt to 21 settle in some other way, or we may at that point decide that 22 -- or the parties may decide that they should come back to the 23 Court and litigate the issues.

24 THE COURT: Now currently as you know as I mentioned
25 earlier, the -- the first -- current first deadline in the

1 litigation schedule for the filing of certain summary judgment
2 motions regarding these claims is -- is currently now an
3 extended date of -- I think it was June 28th.

4 So if the city council hasn't acted before then, the 5 parties, I -- I assume were going to come back to the Court
6 and seek another extension order, right?

7 MR. WILLEMS: We will be, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: And when you -- when you do that you
9 will -- I hope you will put something in there to indicate
10 what the status is of the proposed settlement.

11 MR. WILLEMS: I think we've done that each time and 12 we will certainly do that again.

13 THE COURT: Yeah. The last time there was just -- 14 the dispute had been settled entirely in principle subject to 15 documentation. So you'll give me an update of that kind about 16 the status if it has not yet been fully approved you'll tell
17 me what's -- what the status is of the settlements, right?

18 MR. WILLEMS: We will do that.

19 THE COURT: Yeah. All right. So then I'll -- I'll 20 know one way or the other then in the not too distant future
21 what's going on with the settlements.

22 MR. WILLEMS: You will indeed.

23 THE COURT: All right. All right. Thank you.

24 With respect to the matters that the Court has just been
25 hearing today, the -- the objection to claim matters the Court

1 has been hearing that the forty-fourth omnibus, the
2 forty-fifth omnibus objections to claim, and the adjourned
3 hearing today on all of the claims that were subject to the --
4 to earlier omnibus objections to claim but which the Court
5 adjourned for hearing to today to give the city and the 6 parties a chance to file briefs, all of which have to do with 7 the city's arguments that these are employee -- so-called
8 employee obligation claims and the arguments that the city
9 makes in its brief that was filed April 21 at docket 11102 and 10 -- and argued further about today.

11 As to those, I'm not going to make a ruling today. And 12 I'm not going to make any ruling until I -- I see what happens
13 with the proposed settlement between the -- regarding the 14 city's objection to the claims of AFSCME and the coalition of 15 unions that we've talked about today.

16 If the city council of Detroit approves the -- or 17 ratifies the settlement from what's been told -- what I've 18 been told in this hearing, the -- the result of that will be 19 an order that -- that fully resolves the city's objection to 20 the claims of those unions. And the Court will have no
21 further concern about what impact a ruling on the merits of 22 the arguments presented today and in the April 21 brief may 23 have on the city's objection to the claims against AFSCME and 24 the coalition of unions since those matters will be settled
25 and will not be litigated.

1 And I think it's appropriate for the Court to wait and
2 see if this settlement is approved. And if the settlement is 3 not approved and it's going to be litigated, and then the 4 dispute is going to be litigated including the issues
5 regarding the imposition of -- of -- of city employment terms
6 and the emergency manager 21 and its affects on employees in 7 the -- and whether or not those adverse actions can give rise
8 to any valid legal claim by anyone in the city's bankruptcy
9 case.

10 I think those issues are issues that would be part of the 11 litigation between the city on the one hand and the AFSCME and 12 coalition of unions on the other regarding their claims. And 13 I would want the -- before I rule on the merits of those 14 arguments, I would want in that instance the city -- or rather 15 the coalition of unions and the AFSCME to have an opportunity
16 to be heard, to brief and to be heard on those -- the city's 17 arguments that are made in the April 21 brief about that.

18 However that will not be necessary if in fact in the next
19 month to month and a half as -- as the timing is predicted by 20 city's counsel -- city's counsel today in the hearing, the 21 claims -- the objections to claims against the claim of AFSCME
22 and the coalition of unions is settled through a final
23 settlement ratified by Detroit city council.

24 So I'm going to wait to see what happens with this

25 settlement. That's the short of it before I make any further
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 119 of

1 ruling on these objections to claim that we've talked about
2 today, except Mr. Willems, correct me if I'm wrong, I -- I
3 believe with respect to the forty-fourth and forty-fifth
4 omnibus objections to claim, there have been some creditors
5 who did not file a response to those objections and did not
6 appear today, is that correct?

7 MR. WILLEMS: That appears to be the case, yes.

8 MR. SPINNER: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Does the city want the Court essentially 10 by default to enter an order sustaining the objections as to 11 those creditors and those claims?

12 MR. SPINNER: I believe that has been the past
13 practice, Your Honor. And we would -- yes, we would like
14 that.

15 THE COURT: And the past practice has been -- yes,
16 it has been that. And -- and, you know, it's up to you, you
17 can tell me. I'm willing to do that much, that's not really a 18 ruling on the merits. Basically those claimants are having 19 their claims -- the objection to their claim sustained by 20 default.

21 And so I'll ask the counsel for the city to submit a 22 proposed order, one for each, the forty-fourth, one for the 23 forty-fifth sustaining the objection to claims as to all the 24 claims which no written response was -- neither a written

1 appear at today's hearing both.

2 So if the creditor for a particular claim did not file a
3 written response, stricken or not, did not file any written 4 response and did not appear at today's hearing and speak at 5 today's hearing, either one, then I'll sustain the objection
6 as to those -- their claim. Otherwise not.

7 And so that should be the -- the list of claims and 8 creditors on the list in the orders that -- proposed order
9 that you're going to submit. Do you -- do you -- do you see
10 what's needed here?

11 MR. SPINNER: I do. The only question I have, it
12 sounds like you're suggesting so that we do not include in 13 that Mr. Wolfe because he did appear today.

14 THE COURT: No, do not include Mr. Wolfe for -- for 15 the time being I'm going to leave him out there as part of the 16 other group and for ruling at a later time.

17 MR. SPINNER: That's fine, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: So Mr. Spinner or Mr. Willems, one of 19 you will submit that order. I'll waive presentment of these 20 orders, each of them. Ask you to submit those. And how 21 quickly can you get those to me? Tomorrow?

22 MR. SPINNER: I believe so. I certainly can work to 23 have that arranged. I'm traveling to the ABI conference
24 tomorrow, but our paralegal who takes care of this is well

25 versed in this by now and I think we can get through that.
13-53846-tjt Doc 13814-8 Filed 11/09/23 Entered 11/09/23 13:09:35 Page 121 of

1 THE COURT: All right. Well, you know, as soon as
2 you can. Now with respect to the claims that are not going to 3 be sustained, the objection to claims it's not going to be 4 sustained yet at least on the forty-fourth and forty-fifth,
5 plus all the other claims that were adjourned for hearing
6 today.

7 As I said, I'm going to hold off ruling on those. And so
8 with respect to those, what I'll do is deem them -- deem the 9 objections to those claims submitted for a decision, but the 10 Court's decision will await a determination of whether the 11 objections to claims of the AFSCME claim and the coalition of 12 union claims are -- are settled or not. And so I'll prepare 13 and enter an order reflecting that. So the exact terms of that 14 will be -- will be known.

15 Now, Mr. Willems or Mr. Spinner, one or the other, I 16 think there was at least one claim that was discussed during 17 today's hearing in which Mr. Willems says -- indicated he 18 wanted to go back to the city and find out more about it.

19 And I think the issue had to do with whether or not the 20 claim was -- involved any aspect or any -- any basis other
21 than the imposition of city employment terms, or the emergency
22 manager order 21. Or -- or for that matter, a claim that is 23 basically at war with the confirmed plan. Some other 24 pre-petition claim.

1 he wanted to check on. I think that was the claim of Mr.
2 Moore.

3 MR. WILLEMS: It was Mr. Moore. And -- and he -- he
4 had asserted that there was a failure to pay step increases
5 and so he was underpaid for --

6 THE COURT: Does the city want an opportunity to 7 file a supplement to its claim objection regarding Mr. Moore's
8 claim?

9 MR. WILLEMS: We -- I -- I -- that would be --

10 THE COURT: Pardon?

11 MR. WILLEMS: Yes, I would propose that.

12 THE COURT: Any of the other ones heard today that 13 you want to -- the opportunity to supplement regarding?

14 MR. WILLEMS: You know, offhand I -- I -- and none 15 of the others jump out at me as something that we need to 16 supplement.

17 THE COURT: All right. All right. So what sort of 18 deadline would you like me to set for any such optional
19 supplement by the city to be filed? One week enough?

20 MR. WILLEMS: One week may not be enough because in 21 trying to track down this -- this issue it may take longer
22 than that. So --

23 THE COURT: How much time do you want?

24 MR. WILLEMS: I would ask for at least two weeks.

25 THE COURT: All right. That's June 29. I'll put

1 that in the order.

2 MR. COLLINS: And, Your Honor --

3 THE COURT: And as I said, I'll prepare and enter an
4 order reflecting what I've said here and we'll go from there.
5 So I think that concludes matters for today. Sir, why do you
6 raise your hand?

7 MR. COLLINS: Your Honor, the attorney --

8 THE COURT: If you want to -- if you want to speak,
9 come up to the microphone. But this hearing is basically
10 finished. So what is it? You're Mr. Collins?

11 MR. COLLINS: Yes.

12 THE COURT: You spoke earlier.

13 MR. COLLINS: Okay. Yes, yes, it is.

14 THE COURT: What is it, sir?

15 MR. COLLINS: What's that? The -- the attorney for 16 the city said that I did not submit any -- you know, anything.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Collins, this is not an opportunity
18 for you to reply to his -- the reply of the city. They speak
19 last because they're the party objecting. We're done.

20 MR. COLLINS: Okay. Sir, I -- I did submit my 21 claims to the Court and to the clerk. And I did submit them
22 out for, you know --

23 THE COURT: Mr. Collins, I just said we're done.

24 Thank you. All right. Thank you all and we'll see you next

25 time.

In re: City of Detroit, Michigan, Debtor.

Bankruptcy Case No. 13-53846
Judge Thomas J. Tucker
Chapter 9

CITY OF DETROIT’S MOTION FOR THE ENTRY OF AN ORDER
ENFORCING THE BAR DATE ORDER AND CONFIRMATION ORDER
AGAINST DESMOND RICKS, AKILAH COBB AND DESIRE’A RICKS

The City of Detroit, Michigan (“City”) by its undersigned counsel, Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, PLC, files this Motion for the Entry of an Order Enforcing the Bar Date Order and Confirmation Order Against Desmond Ricks, Akilah Cobb and Desire’a Ricks (“Motion”). In support of this Motion, the City respectfully states as follows:

I. Introduction

1. On August 23, 2017, Desmond Ricks (“Ricks”), Akilah Cobb and Desire’a Ricks (collectively, the “Plaintiffs”) filed a federal court lawsuit against the City seeking monetary damages on account of alleged events that occurred in 1992. The filing of the lawsuit violates the discharge and injunction provisions in the City’s confirmed Plan and the Bar Date Order (each as defined below). The City informed the Plaintiffs of these violations and asked them to voluntarily dismiss the City from their federal court lawsuit, but to no avail. As a result, the City is left with no choice but to seek an order barring and permanently enjoining the Plaintiffs from asserting and prosecuting the claims described in the federal court action against the City or property of the City and requiring the plaintiffs dismiss the federal court action with prejudice to the extent it seeks any such relief.

II. Factual Background

A. The City's Bankruptcy Case

2. On July 18, 2013 ("Petition Date"), the City filed this chapter 9 case.

3. On October 10, 2013, the City filed its Motion Pursuant to Section 105, 501 and 503 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 3003(c), for Entry of an Order Establishing Bar Dates for Filing Proofs of Claim and Approving Form and Manner of Notice Thereof ("Bar Date Motion") [Doc. No. 1146], which was approved by order of this Court on November 21, 2013 ("Bar Date Order"). [Doc. No. 1782].

4. The Bar Date Order established February 21, 2014, as the deadline for filing claims against the City. Paragraph 6 of the Bar Date Order states that the following entities must file a proof of claim on or before the Bar Date...any entity: (i) whose prepetition claim against the City is not listed in the List of Claims or is listed as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (ii) that desires to share in any distribution in this bankruptcy case and/or otherwise participate in the proceedings in this bankruptcy case associated with the confirmation of any chapter 9 plan of adjustment proposed by the City...

Bar Date Order ¶ 6.

5. Paragraph 22 of the Bar Date Order also provides that:

Pursuant to sections 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3003(c)(2), any entity that is required to file a proof of claim in this case pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules or this Order with respect to a particular claim against the City, but that fails properly to do so by the applicable Bar Date, shall be forever barred, estopped and enjoined from: (a) asserting any claim against the City or property of the City that (i) is in an amount that exceeds the amount, if any, that is identified in the List of Claims on behalf of such entity as undisputed, noncontingent and liquidated or (ii) is of a different nature or a different classification or priority than any Scheduled Claim identified in the List of Claims on behalf of such entity (any such claim under subparagraph (a) of this paragraph being referred to herein as an “Unscheduled Claim”); (b) voting upon, or receiving distributions under any Chapter 9 Plan in this case in respect of an Unscheduled Claim; or (c) with respect to any 503(b)(9) Claim or administrative priority claim component of any Rejection Damages Claim, asserting any such priority claim against the City or property of the City.

6. None of the Plaintiffs filed a proof of claim.

7. On October 22, 2014, the City filed its Eighth Amended Plan of the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit (“Plan”), which this Court confirmed on November 12, 2014. [Doc. Nos. 8045 & 8272].

8. The discharge provision in the Plan provides:

Except as provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the rights afforded under the Plan and the treatment of Claims under the Plan will be in exchange for and in complete satisfaction, discharge and release of all Claims arising on or before the Effective Date. Except as provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation

Order, Confirmation will, as of the Effective Date, discharge the City from all Claims or other debts that arose on or before the Effective Date, and all debts of the kind specified in section 502(g), 502(h) or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether or not (i) proof of Claim based on such debt is Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) a Claim based on such debt is allowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code or (ii) the Holder of a Claim based on such debt has accepted the Plan.

Plan, Art. III.D.4, at p.50.

9. Further, the Plan injunction set forth in Article III.D.5 provides in pertinent part:

Injunction

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided herein or in the Confirmation Order,

a. all Entities that have been, are or may be holders of Claims against the City...shall be permanently enjoined from taking any of the following actions against or affecting the City or its property...

1. commencing, conducting or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action or other proceeding of any kind against or affect the City of its property...

5. proceeding in any manner in any place whatsoever that does not conform or comply with the provisions of the Plan or the settlements set forth herein to the extent such settlements have been approved by the Bankruptcy Court in connection with Confirmation of the Plan; and

6. taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan.

Plan, Article III.D.5, at pp.50-51 (emphasis added).

10. The Court also retained jurisdiction to enforce the Plan injunction and to resolve any suits that may arise in connection with the consummation, interpretation or enforcement of the Plan. Plan, Art. VII. F, G, I, at p.72.

B. Plaintiffs’ United States District Court Lawsuit

11. On December August 23, 2017, the Plaintiffs filed a complaint against the City and certain individuals, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, commencing case number 17-12784 (“Lawsuit”). On May 18, 2018, the Plaintiffs filed their First Amended Complaint (“Amended Complaint”) against the City and three individuals in their individual capacity. The Amended Complaint is attached as Exhibit 6.

12. In the Amended Complaint, the Plaintiffs assert claims which all arise from or relate to the alleged wrongful conviction of Ricks on September 23, 1992. Amended Complaint ¶ 75.

III. Argument

13. The Plaintiffs violated the Plan’s injunction and discharge provisions when they filed the Lawsuit to assert claims and otherwise seek relief against the City. And, they continue to violate them by persisting in prosecuting the Lawsuit.

14. The Plan’s discharge provision states that the “rights afforded under the Plan and the treatment of Claims under the Plan will be in exchange for and in complete satisfaction, discharge and release of all Claims arising on or before the Effective Date.” Plan Art. III.D.4, at p.50. The Plaintiffs did not file a proof of claim in the City’s bankruptcy case. Consequently, they do not have a right to a distribution or payment under the Plan on account of the claims asserted in the Lawsuit. Plan, Art. III.D.5, at p.50 (“[A]ll entities that have been, are or may be holders of Claims against the City . . . shall be permanently enjoined from . . . proceeding in any manner in any place whatsoever that does not conform or comply with the provisions of the Plan.”). See also Plan, Art. I.A.19, at p.3; Art. I.A.134, at p.11; Art. VI.A.1, at p.67 (“Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, no payments or Distributions shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim until such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.”). Any claims that Plaintiffs may have had were discharged, and the Plan enjoins Plaintiffs from pursuing them. The Bar Date Order also forever barred, estopped and enjoined the Plaintiffs from pursuing the claims asserted in the Amended Complaint.

15. Even if the Plaintiffs could somehow seek relief on their claims against the City or its property (which they cannot), the proper and only forum for doing so would be in this Bankruptcy Court. There is therefore no set of circumstances under which Plaintiffs are or would have been permitted to commence and prosecute the Lawsuit against the City or its property.

IV. Conclusion

16. The City thus respectfully requests that this Court enter an order, in substantially the same form as the one attached as Exhibit 1, (a) directing Plaintiffs to dismiss, or cause to be dismissed, the City with prejudice from the Lawsuit; (b) permanently barring, estopping and enjoining Plaintiffs from asserting the claims alleged in, or claims related to, the Lawsuit against the City or property of the City; and (c) prohibiting Plaintiffs from sharing in any distribution in this bankruptcy case. The City sought, but did not obtain, concurrence to the relief requested in the Motion.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

9. On March 3, 1992, at approximately 4:45 p.m., Gerry Bennett was shot to death in the parking lot of a Top Hat restaurant located at 16101 James Couzens, in the City of Detroit.

10. On that occasion, Plaintiff, a friend of Mr. Bennett, accompanied Bennett to the Top Hat restaurant in a red Ford Escort. Bennett, the driver of the Escort, parked the vehicle. Soon, a yellow Chevrolet Monte Carlo pulled up next to the Escort. Bennett got out of the Escort, while a light-skinned black man of medium height got out of the back seat of the Monte Carlo and entered the restaurant with Bennett. Plaintiff remained in the front passenger seat of the Escort.

11. When the two men left the restaurant about five to 10 minutes later, Plaintiff saw the light-skinned man point a chrome handgun at Bennett and shoot him in the stomach. Plaintiff got out of the Escort to confront the man. As he did, he saw the other man shoot Bennett in the head, then turn to shoot at Plaintiff.

12. Plaintiff turned and ran, shedding his winter coat to avoid it being caught in bushes as he ran through bushes into an adjacent neighborhood. The coat was later found by DPD officers. It contained his visitor's pass to Hutzel Hospital, where his girlfriend had just given birth to his baby daughter, Desire'a. The jacket also contained a phone book and a picture of his newborn baby.

13. An eyewitness at the scene, Arlene Strong, who was working as a cashier at the restaurant, gave a statement to police on the date of the murder. She stated that the shooter was an occupant of the yellow car. She described a "big silver gun" and described the shooter as "bright complexion, medium height."

14. Desmond Ricks is dark-skinned and stands 6'3"; in no way can he be described as "bright complexion, medium height."

15. The initial police report from the murder, authored by Officer R. Turner, described Ms. Strong as "[o]ne of the best witnesses."

16. Ms. Strong was the only eyewitness at the scene who provided a physical description of the shooter. Her description did not match Desmond Ricks.

17. On or about March 4, 1992, Defendant, STAWIASZ, was assigned as Officer-in-Charge ("OIC") of the homicide investigation.

18. On March 4, an autopsy was performed on Bennett's body. The Medical Examiner, Dr. Sawait Kanluen, retrieved one bullet from Bennett's brain, where it lodged after penetrating his skull. A second bullet was lodged in Bennett's spine.

19. On March 5, 1992, at approximately 4:00 p.m., Detroit Police Officer, James Fleming, acting on orders from DPD Sgt. Robert Gerds, and accompanied by federal A.T.F. agent, Anthony Primak, and Deputy U.S. Marshal, John Reghi, arrived at Plaintiff's mother's house at 16500 Hubbell Street in Detroit. Fleming later testified that Mary Ricks, Plaintiff's mother, was working in her garden in the front yard when they arrived.

20. Fleming also testified that the officers saw Plaintiff standing inside the doorway of the front door. He was arrested inside his home.

21. The officers did not have an arrest warrant, or consent to enter, or exigent circumstances, or probable cause, to arrest Plaintiff inside his home. It was an illegal, unconstitutional arrest.

22. Before Plaintiff was removed from the house, Mary Ricks allegedly told the officers that her son didn't shoot anybody, as he didn't even own a gun. She also stated that she was the only one in the house who owned a gun, which was a pistol she kept under her pillow, and that her son, Desmond, had never fired the gun.

23. Mrs. Ricks allowed the officers to take her handgun, a Rossi .38 Special, 5-shot revolver, serial #: D373334.

24. As the agents left the house, Plaintiff heard one agent, Primak, tell Fleming, “This gun hasn’t been fired.” Fleming responded, “Take it anyway.”

25. The .38 Special caliber revolver was given to Fleming to take to the DPD.

26. Plaintiff was arrested before Mary Ricks’ handgun was recovered and tested to compare the slugs removed from the victim’s body to bullets test-fired from the handgun.

27. At the time of Desmond Ricks’ arrest, there were no witnesses who identified Plaintiff as the shooter and no physical evidence linking him to the crime. The DPD had no evidence upon which to base probable cause for an arrest. The only evidence the police had was Plaintiff’s mere presence at the murder scene.

28. Long before March 3, 1992, it was clearly established under Michigan and federal law that an individual’s mere presence at a crime scene was insufficient, without more, to establish probable cause for an arrest. People v. Olszewski, 119 Mich.App. 455, 459; 326 N.W.2d 394 (1982); Harris v. Bornhorst, 513 F.3d 503, 515 (6th Cir. 2008), cert. denied,

554 U.S. 903; 128 S.Ct. 2938; 171 L.Ed.2d 865 (2008) (“[I]t is well-established that an individual’s mere presence at a crime scene does not constitute probable cause for an arrest”).

29. On March 6, 1992, one day after Plaintiff was illegally arrested, Defendant, STAWIASZ, requested that firearms identification testing be conducted on the Rossi handgun taken from Ricks’ home, to compare bullets to the slugs removed from Gerry Bennett’s body. STAWIASZ brought the handgun to Defendants, PAUCH and WILSON, firearm and tool-mark experts in the DPD Crime Lab. PAUCH and WILSON had previously received the slugs from the victim’s body.

30. PAUCH, WILSON, and STAWIASZ, as sworn police officers, had taken an oath, the Law Enforcement Code of Ethics, that stated, in pertinent part: “As a sworn police officer, my fundamental duty is to serve the community; to safeguard lives and property; to protect the innocent against deception, the weak against oppression or intimidation and the peaceful against violence or disorder; and to respect the constitutional rights of all to liberty, equality and justice.”

31. PAUCH and WILSON, with STAWIASZ present, test-fired bullets from the Rossi handgun and compared them to bullets removed from Bennett’s body.

32. A fundamental part of firearms identification, known to every competent (and even incompetent) firearms examiner, including PAUCH and WILSON, is the classification of bullets and guns by the number of lands and grooves in the barrel of a gun, and the direction of twist of the lands and grooves.

33. In firearms, rifling consists of helical grooves on the inside surface of a gun's barrel, which impart a spin to a bullet around its longitudinal axis. This spin serves to gyroscopically stabilize the bullet, improving its aerodynamic stability and accuracy.

34. A manufacturer's gun barrel can have any number of lands and grooves. The diameter of a barrel is measured between the distance of the lands, or raised surfaces, on the inside of the barrel.

6-R
Inside surface of a gun barrel showing lands and grooves.

35. As a bullet passes through the barrel of a gun, the bullet surface, which consists of a softer metal than the barrel, is scored by the lands in the barrel, which make the grooves in the bullet, allowing for a stable flight, much like the spin on a football.

36. The lands and grooves in the barrel are directional, meaning that the bullet will spin clockwise or counterclockwise. This is designated as the direction of the twist (“Right-hand twist” or “Left-hand twist”).

37. Competent firearms examiners, such as PAUCH and WILSON, can microscopically determine the number of lands and grooves and the direction of twist of the firearm or bullet. These are known as class characteristics and can help determine whether a certain bullet was fired from a specific gun.

38. PAUCH and WILSON’s report noted that the Rossi .38 Special caliber revolver was classified as “6-R,” so PAUCH and WILSON clearly knew the significance of such classifications.

39. The “6” designation means that the barrel of the Rossi handgun would cut six grooves (and corresponding lands (identifying features)) into the surface of the bullet, while the “R” designation signifies a “right-hand” rotation of the bullet as it passes through the barrel.

40. PAUCH and WILSON's examination revealed that one of the two slugs removed from the victim's body, bullet #2 removed from the spine (Evid. Tag # 923410), clearly was a "5-R" classification, meaning that it had five lands and grooves with a right-hand twist.

41. Based on their independent examinations, PAUCH and WILSON, well-trained, competent firearm and tool-mark examiners who had testified as expert witnesses on numerous occasions, knew to a certainty that the 5-R bullet recovered from Gerry Bennett's body could not have come from the 6R Rossi .38 Special caliber revolver.

42. Knowing the bullets did not match the suspect's gun, and that the description of the shooter by the only eyewitness did not describe Plaintiff, PAUCH, WILSON and STAWIASZ conspired and agreed to commit the overt act of falsifying the firearms identification test results to indicate a "Positive ID" (match) between the evidence bullets and the Rossi .38 Special caliber revolver removed from Plaintiff's home.

43. The fabricated "Positive ID" lab report provided the only link between Desmond Ricks and the murder of Gerry Bennett, as there was no physical evidence or eyewitness identification linking him to the crime.

44. PAUCH, WILSON, and STAWIASZ, all experienced, well-trained police officers who took an oath to protect citizens' constitutional rights, conspired to knowingly deprive Desmond Ricks of his constitutional rights under the 4th Amendment, which guarantees “[t]he right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation”

45. PAUCH, WILSON, and STAWIASZ knew their decision to fabricate the firearms lab report ran afoul of the United State Supreme Court’s recognition of the “fundamental value determination of our society that it is far worse to convict an innocent man than to let a guilty man go free.” In re Winship, 397 U.S. 358, 372; 90 S.Ct. 1068, 1077; 25 L.Ed.2d 368 (1970) (Harlan, J., concurring). See also T. Starkie, Evidence 956 (1824) (“The maxim of the law is . . . that it is better that ninety-nine . . . offenders should escape, than one innocent man should be condemned”).

46. PAUCH and WILSON also made a deliberate, knowing, and intentional choice not to identify the number of grooves and lands, or the orientation of rotation, on either of the two slugs removed from the victim’s body. Instead, the report simply stated that the slugs demonstrated “[t]races of lands and grooves,” even though the lands and grooves, especially on bullet #2 (ET# 923410) were clearly able to be measured.

(Lab Report, 3-6-92, Exhibit 1).

47. Despite knowing that the bullets did not match the weapon, the PAUCH and WILSON report declared that a comparison of the bullets removed from Bennett's body to the Rossi handgun "yielded a POSITIVE ID. Meaning the fired evidence was fired from the above weapon." Id. PAUCH would later testify at trial that "It leaves the same marks such as fingerprints would leave to that gun." TT, 9-21-92, p. 52. PAUCH would further testify to his degree of certainty in his conclusion, "Positive identification. These bullets were fired from this weapon and no other weapon." Id.

48. In fact, as later established by the Michigan State Police firearms expert, D/Sgt. Dean Molnar, Jr., in April and May of 2017, the slug removed from the head wound (Slug #1) was too mangled to identify any number of lands and grooves. However, the report stated that the other slug, removed from the back wound (Slug #2), "is consistent with being a .38/9mm caliber class fired lead bullet displaying conventional rifling specifications of five lands and grooves with a right twist." (MSP report, 5-24-17, Exhibit 2).

49. A "6-R" gun cannot make a "5-R" identification in the bullet.

50. PAUCH and WILSON, competent, well-trained evidence technicians who had testified as firearms identification experts on numerous prior occasions, knew long before March 6, 1992, that a “5-R” bullet cannot come from a “6-R” handgun.

51. Every expert in this case who has examined the subject bullets, including Defendants’ own retained expert, Jay Jarvis, a retired firearms identification expert from the Georgia Bureau of Investigations, has concluded that the subject bullets are classified as “5R.” “Based on data in the 2010 version of the General Rifling Characteristics File published by the FBI Laboratory and the undersigned’s previous experience, the rifling characteristics of five lands and grooves with a right twist exhibit on the item 1 and 2 bullets are commonly found in Smith & Wesson, Ruger and Taurus .38 Special and .357 Magnum revolvers.” (Jarvis report, 11-30-17, Exhibit 3).

52. Neither the slugs removed from Bennett’s body, nor photographs of the slugs, were provided to the prosecutor.

53. Based on the results of several Freedom of Information Act requests to the DPD, it is believed that PAUCH and WILSON did not take any photographs of the evidence bullets from the victim’s body, or any comparison photographs to document that the evidence bullets and the test-fired bullets matched like “fingerprints.”

54. On March 6, 1992, PAUCH and WILSON made a deliberate, knowing, and intentional and/or reckless choice not to photograph the slugs from the victim’s body.

55. On March 6, 1992, STAWIASZ made a conscious, knowing, and intentional and/or reckless choice not to request or require photographs of the fired slugs.

56. Had the slugs been provided to the prosecutor, Kenneth Simon, before trial, Simon would have had a constitutional “Brady” obligation to provide them to the defense, as they clearly impeached PAUCH’s conclusion that the slugs were a perfect match to Ricks’ gun, and were exculpatory evidence, because the slugs did not match Ricks’ revolver.

57. Neither PAUCH nor STAWIASZ told the prosecutor that the slugs from the victim’s body did not match the Rossi .38 Special caliber revolver retrieved from Plaintiff’s mother.

58. Had the true test results (that the slugs did not match the alleged murder weapon) been provided to the prosecutor before trial, he would have had a constitutional “Brady” obligation to provide them to the defense, as they clearly impeached PAUCH and WILSON’s conclusion that the slugs were a perfect match to Ricks' gun, and were exculpatory evidence, because the slugs did not match Ricks' handgun.

59. Had PAUCH and STAWIASZ told the prosecutor before trial that they had fabricated the lab report results, he would have had a constitutional "Brady" obligation to provide that evidence to the defense, as it clearly impeached PAUCH's conclusion that the slugs were a perfect match to Ricks' gun, and were exculpatory evidence, because the slugs did not match Ricks' handgun.

60. Since PAUCH, WILSON, and STAWIASZ knew that the slugs did not match the Rossi .38 Special caliber revolver removed from Desmond Ricks' mother's house, STAWIASZ, as Officer-in-Charge, made a conscious, knowing, and intentional and/or reckless choice not to request a fingerprint examination of the handgun to check for a match with Desmond Ricks, despite having requested a fingerprint test of the victim's cell phone and automobile.

61. On March 6, 1992, one day after his arrest, Plaintiff was interviewed by STAWIASZ and Investigator, Richard Ivy. Plaintiff explained what had occurred at the Top Hat restaurant and that he did not shoot Gerry Bennett, to which STAWIASZ responded, "We know you didn't; but you know who did, and you'll be the one going to prison if you don't tell us."

After that, Plaintiff refused to speak to STAWIASZ any further.

62. Later that morning, STAWIASZ informed Plaintiff that the bullets from the victim's body matched the Rossi .38 Special caliber revolver taken from Plaintiff's mother's bedroom.

63. On March 6, 1992, a witness on the scene, Howard Dillworth, was asked to view a live lineup with Desmond Ricks in the lineup. Mr. Dillworth did not identify Mr. Ricks as the shooter. STAWIASZ supervised the live lineup.

64. On March 11, 1992, another witness on the scene, Ollie McAdoo, was asked to view a live lineup with Desmond Ricks in the lineup. Mr. McAdoo did not identify Mr. Ricks as the shooter. STAWIASZ supervised the live lineup.

65. Despite police reports describing Arlene Strong as "one of the best witnesses" in the case, and Ms. Strong having previously described the shooter as "bright complexion, medium height," STAWIASZ made a conscious, knowing, and intentional and/or reckless choice not to have Arlene Strong view a live lineup.

66. On July 15, 1992, the trial court ordered the physical evidence, including the slugs and handgun, to be examined by retired Michigan State Police D/Lt., David Townshend. The examination was to be conducted at the Detroit Police Department.

67. Inexplicably, a subsequent order, dated August 6, 1992, was entered, allowing Defendant, STAWIASZ, to transport the evidence to Townshend's lab in Mason, Michigan, instead of testing being conducted at the DPD lab.

68. In furtherance of the decision to frame Desmond Ricks for murder, STAWIASZ switched the slugs taken from Gerry Bennett's body with the test-fired bullets from the Rossi .38 Special caliber revolver and marked the test-fired bullets as Evidence Tags 923409 and 923410. STAWIASZ then transported the evidence to Townshend's office for testing on August 16, 1992.

69. After viewing the evidence bullets, Townshend, an experienced firearms examiner, was concerned that the two bullets represented to be from the victim's body were not from the victim at all, because their condition was "too pristine" and they were not damaged, as he would have expected. STAWIASZ, however, assured Townshend that the bullets provided to him were, in fact, from the victim's body.

70. Relying on STAWIASZ's integrity and ethics, David Townshend, with STAWIASZ present, microscopically examined the evidence and compared the bullets presented by STAWIASZ to bullets Townshend test-fired from the Rossi handgun. Townshend concluded that the bullets represented by STAWIASZ to have come from the victim's body matched the Rossi .38 Special caliber revolver.

71. STAWIASZ knew they would match, since he supplied Townshend with the fabricated evidence (previously test-fired bullets from the Rossi handgun) and told Townshend that they were from the victim's body!

72. The firearms identification evidence was the centerpiece of the State's case, since no eyewitness testified that Plaintiff shot Gerry Bennett. The prosecutor stressed the physical evidence in his closing:

This case, ladies and gentlemen, comes down to really one thing, one piece of evidence, and that is this gun here. Because this is the one . . . inescapable fact of this case is that this gun is the weapon that killed Gerry Bennett. And this gun . . . was found at the defendant's house. That's the one inescapable fact. No matter how the defendant tries to escape it, he can't. This gun that killed Gerry Bennett was found at his house.
TT, 9-23-92, p. 107.

73. The prosecutor continued to emphasize Pauch's testimony:

You heard Officer Pauch say the nature of this evidence is about like a fingerprint. He has never seen – Officer Pouch (sic) has never seen a gun or two different guns that fired the same bullet the same way such as they would be misidentified. That just does not happen. This is the nature of fingerprint evidence. You can always tell when slugs were fired from a certain gun. It is that certain. And Officer Pouch (sic) told you he was certain.

Id. at 109.

74. PAUCH and WILSON's doctored test results were so important to prosecutor, Kenneth Simon's, case, that Simon mentioned the phrases "inescapable fact" and "can't escape the fact" [that Ricks' gun killed Gerry Bennett] no less than seven times during his closing argument.

75. Based on the fabricated "scientific testing," the jury convicted Plaintiff of second-degree murder and felony firearm on September 23, 1992.

76. But for Defendants' conduct, as set forth below, there would have been no probable cause for Plaintiff to be charged with the murder of Gerry Bennett.

77. After 25 years of wrongful incarceration, testing by the Michigan Police Department Crime Lab in 2017 demonstrated that the bullets from Gerry Bennett's body did not match the alleged murder weapon taken from Desmond Ricks' home.

78. On May 26, 2017, after Desmond Ricks had spent 9,214 days, or 25 years, 2 months, and 22 days, in jail and/or prison, he was released from the Richard A. Handlon Correctional Facility in Ionia, Michigan, on the order of Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Richard Skutt.

79. On June 1, 2017, charges were dismissed by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office and Desmond Ricks, now 51, was finally set free. (Order of Nolle Prosequi, 6-1-17, Exhibit 4).

80. On June 1, 2017, the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office released a statement saying "We worked collaboratively with the University of Michigan Innocence Clinic to secure a reanalysis of the ballistic evidence in this case. The ultimate result was that we agreed to the motion requesting a new trial on May 26, 2017. After thoroughly examining the remaining evidence in the case we have concluded that we cannot proceed to trial, and today we agree that Mr. Ricks should be released."

DETROIT'S CUSTOMS AND POLICIES THAT LED TO PLAINTIFF'S WRONGFUL CONVICTION

81. In and before March 5, 1992, the date of Plaintiff's arrest, the City of Detroit, by and through its final policymakers, had a custom and policy to authorize, condone, tolerate and approve illegal and unconstitutional actions by Detroit Police Department officers and command staff.

82. The illegal and unconstitutional actions and practices included but were not limited to:

- a. Conducting inadequate investigations into serious felony cases, such as murder, in order to expeditiously close

- cases, and affirmatively choosing not to develop or pursue actual leads or evidence;
- b. Knowingly and deliberately fabricating evidence in order to manufacture probable cause to arrest and/or strengthen a case for conviction;
- c. Knowingly and deliberately choosing not to conduct formal tests and identification procedures because investigators knew that the results would contradict evidence against their target suspect.

83. Defendant, DETROIT, through its final policymakers, further maintained a custom and policy of failing to adequately train, supervise, and/or discipline officers concerning proper and constitutionally adequate evidence collection, analysis, and disclosure, including their duty not to fabricate evidence and to disclose apparent exculpatory and impeachment evidence.

84. DETROIT's customs and policies, set forth above, demonstrated deliberate indifference to the constitutional rights of its citizens, including Desmond Ricks, and were the moving force behind the individual Defendants' constitutional violations.

85. Due to the conduct of Defendants, STAWIASZ, WILSON, PAUCH, and DETROIT, as set forth below, Plaintiff, DESMOND RICKS, suffered the following injuries and damages:

- A. Suffering a deprivation of liberty by being wrongfully incarcerated and imprisoned for a period of over twenty-five years, including significant time spent in solitary confinement;

- B. Severe emotional distress for the period from his arrest to the present, including, but not limited to: the emotional distress of being charged with second-degree murder and felony-firearm, facing a sentence of 32- to 62-years in prison; and being wrongfully convicted of crimes the Defendants knew he did not commit;
- C. Physical manifestations of emotional distress including, but not limited to, sleeplessness, irritability, loss of appetite, headaches, and other symptoms;
- D. Fright, shock, indignity, humiliation, outrage, and embarrassment of being wrongfully charged and imprisoned for murder;
- E. Loss of enjoyment of daily activities including, but not limited to, seeing his children grow up;
- F. Not being able to attend the funerals of family members, including his beloved mother;
- G. Physical injuries suffered in prison;
- H. Loss of employment opportunity, past income and future earning capacity;
- I. Loss of his close relationship with his minor daughters;
- J. Physical injuries while being imprisoned, including being assaulted;
- K. Loss of employment opportunity, past income and future earning capacity;
- L. Restricted and/or complete loss of all forms of personal freedom and physical liberty, including but not limited to diet, sleep, personal contact, educational opportunity, vocational opportunity, personal fulfillment, sexual activity, family relations, recreational activities, and personal expression;

- M. Many of Plaintiff's injuries and damages are likely to be permanent;
- N. Other damages which may be revealed through discovery.

86. Due to the conduct of Defendants, STAWIASZ, WILSON, and PAUCH, as set forth below, Plaintiff, AKILAH COBB, only seven years old when her father was arrested, suffered the loss of the parental society, companionship, guidance, and full relationship with her father.

87. Due to the conduct of Defendants, STAWIASZ, WILSON, and PAUCH, as set forth below, Plaintiff, DESIRE'A RICKS, only five days old when Plaintiff was arrested, suffered the loss of the parental society, companionship, guidance, and full relationship with her father.

88. Due to the conduct of Defendants, STAWIASZ, WILSON, and PAUCH, as set forth below, the true killer has never been caught and the victim's family has never received true closure.

COUNT I
CONSTITUTIONAL VIOLATIONS BY ALL DEFENDANTS

89. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference each preceding paragraph as if fully stated herein.

90. Defendants, STAWIASZ and PAUCH, were under an unwavering legal duty (“Brady” duty) to disclose to the prosecutors all material evidence where its exculpatory and impeachment value was apparent, including, but not limited to, the evidence that they fabricated the test results to state that the examination “yielded a POSITIVE ID. Meaning the fired evidence was fired from the above weapon,” when, in fact, the bullets did not match the Rossi .38 Special caliber revolver. Defendants’ failure to disclose the above-referenced evidence to the prosecutor resulted in material exculpatory and impeachment evidence not being turned over to Plaintiff’s defense counsel, in violation of the State’s Brady obligations.

91. Defendant, STAWIASZ, as Officer-in-Charge, was under a further duty to make truthful statements to the prosecutor and magistrate judge to establish probable cause for an arrest warrant.

92. Defendants, PAUCH and WILSON, were under a further duty to make truthful statements in forensic reports they knew would go to the prosecutor to establish probable cause for an arrest warrant.

93. Defendants violated DESMOND RICKS’ constitutionally-protected rights, including his right to liberty protected by the Due Process clause of the Fifth Amendment, as applicable to the States via the Fourteenth Amendment to the U. S. Constitution, his right to a fair trial, guaranteed by the Sixth Amendment, as well as his right to be free from continued unlawful detention without probable cause based on fabricated evidence, guaranteed by the Fourth Amendment, by the following conduct:

Brady Violations

Defendants, STAWIASZ and PAUCH, deliberately and knowingly, or with reckless disregard for the truth, chose not to disclose material exculpatory and impeachment evidence in their files to the prosecutor in violation of their constitutional obligation under Brady v Maryland, 373 US 83 (1963) and its progeny, which would have resulted in no arrest warrant being issued, or a finding of lack of probable cause at the preliminary exam or an acquittal at trial; such conduct constituting a claim for a “Brady violation” under the Fifth Amendment;

Malicious Prosecution

Defendant, STAWIASZ, influenced or participated in the initiation of criminal prosecution when he deliberately and knowingly supplied false evidence by switching bullets to be provided to David Townshend, and supplied false information and omitted material information which showed a reckless disregard for the truth in requesting an arrest warrant and swearing to facts in support of probable cause, which was material to a finding of probable cause. Such conduct constitutes a claim of federal “malicious prosecution” under the Fourth Amendment;

Defendants, PAUCH and WILSON, influenced or participated in the initiation of criminal prosecution when they deliberately and knowingly supplied false information (that the bullets from Gerry Bennett’s body matched Ricks’ gun) that was relied upon by the prosecutor in bringing criminal charges, and was material to a finding of probable cause that Plaintiff had committed the crime of murder, which otherwise would have been lacking. Such conduct constitutes a claim of federal “malicious prosecution” under the Fourth Amendment;

Fabrication of Evidence

Defendants, STAWIASZ, WILSON, and PAUCH, deliberately and knowingly fabricated evidence to create probable cause, including the “positive ID,” to suggest that the bullets from the victim’s body had come from the handgun retrieved from Ricks’ mother’s house, which was material to a finding of probable cause that Plaintiff had committed the crime of murder, and would otherwise have been lacking; such conduct constituting a claim of “fabrication of evidence” under the Fourth Amendment;

Defendant, STAWIASZ further fabricated evidence, in deliberate and knowing fashion, to secure a conviction, including switching the bullets provided to expert, David Townshend, which was material to the jury’s decision that Plaintiff had committed the crime of murder, and which otherwise would have been lacking; such conduct constituting a claim of “fabrication of evidence” under the Fourth Amendment;

DETROIT’s Monell Liability

Defendant, DETROIT, created policies, practices and customs, including a failure to provide adequate training to its police officers, including Defendants, PAUCH and STAWIASZ, in the manner set forth above, which demonstrated “deliberate indifference” to the constitutional rights of its citizens, and was the moving force behind the individual Defendants’ violations of Plaintiff’s constitutional rights.

94. Desmond Ricks’ right not to be deprived of liberty based upon fabrication of evidence by a government official acting in an investigatory capacity, including a police detective and police evidence technician, was clearly established before March 5, 1992.

95. Desmond Ricks' right to be provided with material exculpatory and impeachment evidence ("Brady" evidence), was clearly established before March 5, 1992.

96. Desmond Ricks' right not to be seized and continuously detained without probable cause, based upon a police officer's deliberate and knowing fabrication of evidence and false statements and material omissions to prosecutors and magistrate judges, guaranteed by the Fourth Amendment, was clearly established before March 5, 1992.

97. Defendants' Brady violations resulted in Plaintiff not receiving a fair trial, described as "a trial resulting in a verdict worthy of confidence." Kyles v. Whitley, 514 U.S. 419, 434, (1995).

98. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendants' willful violation of his constitutionally-protected rights, Plaintiff was detained without probable cause, charged with crimes he did not commit, wrongfully convicted and imprisoned for over 25 years, and deprived of his liberty, causing him to suffer the injuries and damages set forth above.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, DESMOND RICKS, prays for compensatory damages in a minimum amount of Fifty Million Dollars ($50,000,000.00). Plaintiff further seeks punitive damages pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1983 as to Defendants, PAUCH and STAWIASZ, in a minimum amount of Twenty-

Five Million Dollars ($25,000,000.00) against each Defendant, together with interest, costs, attorney fees, and other such relief as the Court deems appropriate.

COUNT II
COMMON LAW MALICIOUS PROSECUTION BY DEFENDANTS,
DONALD STAWIASZ, ROBERT B. WILSON, AND DAVID PAUCH

99. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference each preceding paragraph as if fully stated herein.

100. Defendant, STAWIASZ, initiated criminal prosecution against Plaintiff in state court by submitting a Warrant Request and swore to false facts in support of an arrest warrant.

101. The criminal proceedings ultimately terminated in Plaintiff's favor with a dismissal of the charges in state court on June 1, 2017.

102. STAWIASZ initiated the prosecution by deliberately stating false and misleading facts in his Request for Warrant, which were relied upon by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office. STAWIASZ acted maliciously and/or with a wanton or reckless disregard for Plaintiff's rights, by deliberately fabricating evidence (the "bullet evidence") to suggest that the handgun retrieved from Plaintiff's mother's house was the same weapon used in the murder of Gerry Bennett. Thus, STAWIASZ did not act with good faith.

103. PAUCH and WILSON also initiated the prosecution by deliberately stating false and misleading opinions in their March 6, 1992, lab report, which were relied upon by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office. PAUCH and WILSON acted maliciously and/or with a wanton or reckless disregard for Plaintiff's rights, by deliberately fabricating evidence (the "bullet evidence") to suggest that the handgun retrieved from Plaintiff's mother's house was the same weapon used in the murder of Gerry Bennett. Thus, PAUCH and WILSON did not act with good faith.

104. The prosecution was undertaken without probable cause, with malice, and for the purpose of framing Plaintiff for the murder and covering up an illegal arrest, not with the intention of bringing Plaintiff to justice for having committed the alleged murder.

105. The prosecution was undertaken to justify and cover up an illegal, warrantless arrest, and to counter the DPD's abysmal and long-standing record and reputation for failing to solve homicides.

106. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' malicious conduct, Plaintiff, DESMOND RICKS, was charged with crimes he did not commit, causing him to suffer the injuries and damages set forth above.

107. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' malicious prosecution, Plaintiffs, AKILAH COBB and DESIRE'A RICKS, suffered the injuries and damages set forth above.

108. Defendants' conduct was malicious and so willful and wanton as to demonstrate a reckless disregard of Plaintiffs' rights, and would readily inspire feelings of humiliation, outrage and indignity, such as would warrant exemplary damages.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, DESMOND RICKS, prays for such compensatory and exemplary damages as are available pursuant to the common-law of the State of Michigan, in a minimum amount of Fifty Million Dollars ($50,000,000.00), together with pre-judgment interest, costs and attorney fees in an amount to be determined by the Court.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, AKILAH COBB and DESIRE'A RICKS, pray for such compensatory and exemplary damages as are available pursuant to the common-law of the State of Michigan, in a minimum amount of Twelve and One Half Million Dollars ($12,500,000.00) for each Plaintiff, together with pre-judgment interest, costs and attorney fees in an amount to be determined by the Court.

COUNT III
COMMON LAW INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS BY DEFENDANTS, DONALD STAWIASZ,
ROBERT B. WILSON, AND DAVID PAUCH

109. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference each preceding paragraph as if fully stated herein.

110. Defendants, STAWIASZ, WILSON, and PAUCH, by their extreme and outrageous conduct, described above, demonstrated such intent and/or recklessness as to cause Plaintiff, Desmond Ricks, severe emotional distress.

111. Defendants' conduct can only be described as atrocious, outrageous, and utterly intolerable in a civilized society.

112. Defendants' conduct meets the elements of the common law claim for Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, DESMOND RICKS, prays for such compensatory and exemplary damages as are available pursuant to the common-law of the State of Michigan, in a minimum amount of Fifty Million Dollars ($50,000,000.00), together with pre-judgment interest, costs and attorney fees in an amount to be determined by the Court.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, AKILAH COBB and DESIRE'A RICKS, pray for such compensatory and exemplary damages as are available pursuant to the common-law of the State of Michigan, in a minimum amount of

Twelve and One Half Million Dollars ($12,500,000.00) for each Plaintiff, together with pre-judgment interest, costs and attorney fees in an amount to be determined by the Court.

Agency : Detroit Police Department Time Received : 10:02 a.m.
Agency No. : 0092029495 Date Completed : May 24, 2017

Nature of Offense:

0900-1 - Murder/Nonnegligent Manslaughter

Victim:

Bennett, Gerry

Suspect:

Desmond, Ricks

Evidence Received:

- Container 1 1 - Tape sealed envelope (DPD Tag 465922-1), containing:
 - Item 1 1 - String tied envelope (marked Head), containing:
 - 1 - Fired lead bullet.
- Container 2 1 - Tape sealed envelope (DPD Tag 465937-1), containing:
 - Item 2 1 - String tied envelope (marked Back Bone), containing:
 - 1 - Fired lead bullet.

Results of Physical/Microscopic Examination:

Items 1 and 2 (fired lead bullets) could not be identified or eliminated (inconclusive) as having been fired in the same firearm. The individual characteristics present did not display sufficient agreement.
Item 1 is consistent with being a .38/9mm caliber class fired lead bullet displaying conventional rifling specifications of a right twist. Damage/mutilation prevented a more definitive classification.
Item 2 is consistent with being a .38/9mm caliber class fired lead bullet displaying conventional rifling specifications of five lands and grooves with a right twist.

The classification statement for Items 1 and 2 will be separated and Item 2 is going to add that it is has five lands and grooves with a right twist.

RE: Desmond Ricks vs. City of Detroit

DESCRIPTION OF EVIDENCE

On November 27, 2017, the following evidence was received from Sgt. David Marshall:

1. Sealed manila envelope identified as containing one bullet.
2. Sealed manila envelope identified as containing one bullet.

SERVICES REQUESTED

Bullet examination and comparison

EXAMINATIONS CONDUCTED

The Item 1 package consists of a larger string tie manila envelope sealed with evidence tape. There is evidence that the package has been opened and re-sealed on more than one occasion. Inside the outer envelope is a smaller string tie commercially printed evidence envelope. Affixed to the smaller envelope with a staple is a small clear heat sealed plastic bag containing a lead bullet.

The Item 1 lead bullet is identified by markings on the package as coming from the autopsy of Gerry Bennett and removed from the decedent's head. It is identified as a 38 caliber bullet and exhibits damage consistent with a lead bullet that has penetrated a human skull. There is dried tissue and what appears to be a fragment of bone embedded in the side. This hollow base lead bullet is consistent with 158 grain .38 Special ammunition marketed by the Federal Cartridge Corporation. This fired bullet weighs 138.6 grains. Due to damage, the rifling characteristics were determined by dividing the bullet circumference by the combined widths of the best available land and groove impressions.

Inscribed on the side of the item 1 bullet is the number 51592 followed by what appeared to be initials. The characters comprising the initials could not be definitively discerned. Inscribed inside the base of the item 1 bullet is the number MD17-1738 followed by what appeared to be initials and the number 1. The characters comprising the initials could not be definitively discerned. The item 1 bullet was compared microscopically with the item 2 bullet.

The Item 2 package consists of a larger string tie manila envelope sealed with evidence tape. There is evidence that the package has been opened and re-sealed on more than one occasion. Inside the outer envelope is a smaller string tie commercially printed evidence envelope. Affixed to the smaller envelope with a staple is a small clear heat sealed plastic bag containing a lead bullet.

OFFICIAL REPORT

November 30, 2017

2017-CV-100201

The Item 2 lead bullet is identified by markings on the package as coming from the autopsy of Gerry Bennett and removed from the decedent's back. It is identified as a 38 caliber bullet and exhibits damage consistent with a lead bullet that has penetrated a human body. There is dried tissue on the side and inside the base. This hollow base lead bullet is consistent with 158 grain .38 Special ammunition marketed by the Federal Cartridge Corporation. This fired bullet weighs 152.2 grains. Due to damage, the rifling characteristics were determined by dividing the bullet circumference by the combined widths of the best available land and groove impressions.

Inscribed on the side of the item 2 bullet is the number 51592 followed by what appeared to be initials. The characters comprising the initials could not be definitively discerned. Inscribed inside the base of the item 2 bullet is the number MD17-1738 followed by what appeared to be initials and the number 2. The characters comprising the initials could not be definitively discerned. The item 2 bullet was compared microscopically with the item 1 bullet.

CONCLUSIONS

The item 1 bullet from the decedent's head was compared microscopically with the item 2 bullet from the decedent's back. There were sufficient corresponding individual characteristics on both the land and groove impressions on multiple areas of the bullets to conclude the two bullets were fired from the same firearm barrel.

Based on data in the 2010 version of the General Rifling Characteristics File published by the FBI Laboratory and the undersigned's previous experience, the rifling characteristics of five lands and grooves with a right twist exhibited on the item 1 and 2 bullets are commonly found in Smith & Wesson, Ruger and Taurus .38 Special and .357 Magnum revolvers. This does not preclude the possibility that a firearm produced by a different manufacturer with the same rifling characteristics could have fired the two bullets.

This report contains the interpretations and opinions of the undersigned based solely on the results of examinations conducted on the evidence discussed above. Analytical bench notes, photographs and other data supporting the conclusions are maintained separately within the case record.

Respectfully submitted,

Oral Argument Requested

PLAINTIFFS DESMOND RICKS, AKILAH COBB AND DESIRE'A RICKS'S RESPONSE IN OPPOSITION TO THE CITY OF DETROIT'S MOTION FOR THE ENTRY OF AN ORDER ENFORCING THE BAR DATE ORDER AND CONFIRMATION ORDER AGAINST DESMOND RICKS, AKILAH
COBB AND DESIRE'A RICKS

Desmond Ricks, Akilah Cobb, and Desire'a Ricks, by and through their attorneys Fieger, Fieger, Kenney & Harrington, P.C., file this response opposing the City of Detroit's Motion for the Entry of an Order Enforcing the Bar Date Order and Confirmation Order Against Desmond Ricks, Akilah Cobb and Desire'a Ricks ("Motion"). In support of this response, Desmond Ricks, Akilah Cobb, and Desire'a Ricks state as follows:

I. Introduction

1. Admitted that on August 23, 2017, Desmond Ricks ("Ricks"), Akilah Cobb and Desire'a Ricks (collectively, the "Plaintiffs") filed a federal lawsuit pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1983 and related state law claims stemming from the wrongful imprisonment of Desmond Ricks. Mr. Ricks was wrongfully convicted based on falsified evidence, and was imprisoned for over 24 years for a crime he did not commit. Mr. Ricks was exonerated in 2017 based on newly discovered evidence.

Denied that Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the bankruptcy orders. It is black letter law that a wrongful imprisonment claim under §1983 does not accrue until the sentence or conviction has been invalidated. "Just as a cause of action for malicious prosecution does not accrue until the criminal proceedings have terminated in the plaintiff's favor, so also a § 1983 cause of action for damages attributable to an unconstitutional conviction or sentence does not accrue until the conviction or sentence has been invalidated." Heck v. Humphrey, 512 U.S. 477, 489-90 (1994)(cleaned up). Mr. Ricks's §1983 claim, thus, accrued in 2017, well after the City of Detroit bankruptcy had concluded. The Plaintiffs' claims accrued after the City was discharged from Bankruptcy, and their claims are not subject to the Bankruptcy order.

Denied that Plaintiffs' federal lawsuit violates this Court's Bar Date Order. Plaintiffs have valid claims against the City that are not subject to the bankruptcy orders, since they accrued after the bankruptcy was over.

Admitted that Plaintiffs declined to concur with the City's requested relief, given that Plaintiffs have valid claims against the City that are not subject to any bankruptcy order. Notably, the City of Detroit did not make any attempts to contact Plaintiffs' counsel to discuss its motion, or the basis for the relief sought, other than e-mailing a draft of the motion and asking for concurrence.

II. Factual Background

A. The City's Bankruptcy Case

2. Admitted that on July 18, 2013 ("Petition Date"), the City filed this chapter 9 case.

3. Admitted that on October 10, 2013, the City filed its Motion Pursuant to Section 105, 501 and 503 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 3003(c), for Entry of an Order Establishing Bar Dates for Filing Proofs of Claim and Approving Form and Manner of Notice Thereof ("Bar Date Motion") [Doc. No. 1146], which was approved by order of this Court on November 21, 2013 ("Bar Date Order"). [Doc. No. 1782].

4. Admitted that the Bar Date Order established February 21, 2014, as the deadline for filing claims against the City. Further admitted that Paragraph 6 of the Bar Date Order states that the following entities must file a proof of claim on or before the Bar Date...any entity: (i) whose prepetition claim against the City is not listed in the List of Claims or is listed as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (ii) that desires to share in any distribution in this bankruptcy case and/or otherwise participate in the proceedings in this bankruptcy case associated with the confirmation of any chapter 9 plan of adjustment proposed by the City...

Bar Date Order ¶ 6.

5. Admitted that Paragraph 22 of the Bar Date Order also provides that:

Pursuant to sections 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3003(c)(2), any entity that is required to file a proof of claim in this case pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules or this Order with respect to a particular claim against the City, but that fails properly to do so by the applicable Bar Date, shall be forever barred, estopped and enjoined from: (a) asserting any claim against the City or property of the City that (i) is in an amount that exceeds the amount, if any, that is identified in the List of Claims on behalf of such entity as undisputed, noncontingent and liquidated or (ii) is of a different nature or a different classification or priority than any Scheduled Claim identified in the List of Claims on behalf of such entity (any such claim under subparagraph (a) of this paragraph being referred to herein as an “Unscheduled Claim”); (b) voting upon, or receiving distributions under any Chapter 9 Plan in this case in respect of an Unscheduled Claim; or (c) with respect to any 503(b)(9) Claim or administrative priority claim component of any Rejection Damages Claim, asserting any such priority claim against the City or property of the City.

Denied that the above provisions of the Bar Date Order apply to Plaintiffs’ lawsuit filed in federal court. The Bar Date Order defines the term “claim” as it is defined in the section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code. Bar Date Order ¶ 6. Section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code, in turn, defines a “claim” as:

(A) right to payment, whether or not such right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured, or unsecured; or

(B) right to an equitable remedy for breach of performance if such breach gives rise to a right to payment, whether or not such right to an equitable remedy is reduced to judgment, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, secured, or unsecured.

In order to be subject to the Bar Date Order, Plaintiffs must have had a “right to payment” before the applicable deadline.

Plaintiffs did not have any “right to payment” on or before February 21, 2014, the deadline for filing claims against the City. In February 2014, Mr. Ricks was still wrongfully imprisoned, and conviction had not been invalidated. Any dream of exoneration was not yet realized. At that time, Mr. Ricks had no “right to payment” (in any form) from the City, and thus had no “claim” for which he was required to file proof of. Mr. Ricks’s claims against the City did not accrue until 2017, when he was exonerated.

6. Admitted that none of the Plaintiffs filed a proof of claim, but Plaintiffs further state that they were not required to. As a practical matter, it is impossible to file a “proof of claim” for a cause of action that has not yet accrued. Simply put, there is no “claim,” as defined by the Bankruptcy Code.

7. Admitted that on October 22, 2014, the City filed its Eighth Amended Plan of the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit (“Plan”), which this Court confirmed on November 12, 2014. [Doc. Nos. 8045 & 8272].

8. The discharge provision in the Plan provides:

Except as provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the rights afforded under the Plan and the treatment of Claims under the Plan will be in exchange for and in complete satisfaction, discharge and release of all Claims arising on or before the Effective Date. Except as provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, Confirmation will, as of the Effective Date, discharge the City from all Claims or other debts that arose on or before the Effective Date, and all debts of the kind specified in section 502(g), 502(h) or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether or not (i) proof of Claim based on such debt is Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) a Claim based on such debt is allowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code or (ii) the Holder of a Claim based on such debt has accepted the Plan.

Plan, Art. III.D.4, at p.50.

9. Admitted that the Plan injunction set forth in Article III.D.5 provides in pertinent part:

Injunction

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided herein or in the Confirmation Order,

a. all Entities that have been, are or may be holders of Claims against the City...shall be permanently enjoined from taking any of the following actions against or affecting the City or its property...

1. commencing, conducting or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action or other proceeding of any kind against or affect the City of its property...

5. proceeding in any manner in any place whatsoever that does not conform or comply with the provisions of the Plan or the settlements set forth herein to the extent such settlements have been approved by the Bankruptcy Court in connection with Confirmation of the Plan; and

6. taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan.

Plan, Article III.D.5, at pp.50-51.

Denied that the Plan or its injunction provision apply to Plaintiffs' litigation. Plaintiffs did not have any "claims" against the City that accrued "on or before the effective date." They could not, therefore, file any "proof of claim" under the Plan Order deadlines. The injunction provisions do not apply to Plaintiffs' litigation.

10. Admitted that this Court retained jurisdiction to enforce the Plan injunction and to resolve any suits that may arise in connection with the consummation, interpretation or enforcement of the Plan. Plan, Art. VII. F, G, I, at p.72.

Denied that Plaintiffs' federal court litigation is implicated by the Plan.

B. Plaintiffs' United States District Court Lawsuit

11. Admitted that on December August 23, 2017, the Plaintiffs filed a complaint against the City and certain individuals in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, commencing case number 17-12784 ("Lawsuit"). On May 18, 2018, the Plaintiffs filed their First Amended Complaint ("Amended Complaint") against the City and three individuals in their individual capacity.

12. Admitted that in the Amended Complaint, the Plaintiffs assert claims which arise from or relate to the alleged wrongful conviction of Ricks on September 23, 1992. Denied that the date that Mr. Ricks was wrongfully convicted controls when his "claim" against the City arose. Mr. Ricks did not have a viable cause of action against the City or its employees for wrongful conviction until a Court of Law deemed that conviction wrongful and set it aside. As stated above, it is black letter law that a claim for wrongful conviction under §1983 does not accrue until the conviction or sentence has been invalidated. Heck, supra, at 489-90.

Mr. Rick was not exonerated, and his conviction was not invalidated and declared wrongful, until 2017. Thus, his "claim" stemming from the wrongful conviction did not arise until 2017.

III. Argument

13. Denied that Plaintiffs violated the Plan’s injunction and discharge provisions when they filed the Lawsuit to assert claims and otherwise seek relief against the City. As explained above, Plaintiffs did not have a claim arising from the wrongful conviction until the conviction was itself invalidated: 2017.

14. Admitted that the Plan’s discharge provision states that the “rights afforded under the Plan and the treatment of Claims under the Plan will be in exchange for and in complete satisfaction, discharge and release of all Claims arising on or before the Effective Date.” Plan Art. III.D.4, at p.50 (emphasis added).

Denied that Plaintiffs do not have a right to bring a cause of action against the City, or pursue their litigation in federal court. Plaintiffs’ claims did not accrue until 2017, well after the bankruptcy discharge provisions were put into place. The Plan did not discharge future claims, and specifically states that is only applies to “Claims arising on or before the Effective Date.” Mr. Ricks did not have a claim—i.e. a right to payment—

CORRECTED REPLY IN SUPPORT OF CITY OF DETROIT’S
MOTION FOR THE ENTRY OF AN ORDER ENFORCING THE BAR
DATE ORDER AND CONFIRMATION ORDER AGAINST DESMOND
RICKS, AKILAH COBB AND DESIRE’A RICKS

The City of Detroit, Michigan (“City”) files this Corrected Reply respectfully stating as follows:

1. Plaintiff Desmond Ricks¹ mistakenly asserts that his claim is not barred because it allegedly did not accrue under applicable non-bankruptcy law until after the City’s bankruptcy case. This Court, however, has made clear that the proper test is not when the cause of action accrues under nonbankruptcy law but rather when a right to payment arises for bankruptcy purposes. In re City of Detroit, Mich., 548 B.R. 748 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 2016). And, as Ricks’ claim against the City is a direct result of his alleged unlawful conviction in 1992 and the City’s alleged customs and policies “in and before March 5, 1992,” his claim was within his fair contemplation for over twenty-one years before the City filed for bankruptcy. First Amended Complaint, ¶ 81. Indeed, no later than 2011 and before the City filed for bankruptcy, on Ricks' behalf, the University of Michigan Innocence Clinic began requesting information and evidence from the City of Detroit and the US Attorney in an effort to overturn Ricks's conviction. Exhibits 1-16. During this same time period, Ricks was also professing his innocence and alleging that tainted evidence from the Detroit Crime Lab resulted in his conviction. Id. Consequently, the City respectfully requests that the Court require Ricks to dismiss the City with prejudice from the federal court action.

Background

2. The First Amended Complaint contains three counts: in Count I, entitled "Constitutional Violations by all Defendants," Plaintiff Desmond Ricks (but not Plaintiffs Cobb or Desire'a Ricks) asserts a claim against the City and the Individual Defendants. The other two counts assert claims against the individual defendants but not the City.

3. In Count I, Ricks asserts that the City is liable because

Defendant, DETROIT, created policies, practices and customs, including a failure to provide adequate training to its police officers, including Defendants, PAUCH and STAWIASZ, in the manner set forth above, which demonstrated "deliberate indifference" to the constitutional rights of its citizens, and was the moving force behind the individual Defendants' violations of Plaintiff's constitutional rights.

First Amended Complaint, ¶ 93.

4. Plaintiff described the alleged policies and practices in paragraph 81 through 85 of the First Amended Complaint. Paragraph 81 makes clear that alleged unconstitutional policies existed before the date of Plaintiff's alleged unlawful arrest:

In and before March 5, 1992, the date of Plaintiff's arrest, the City of Detroit, by and through its final policymakers, had a customer and policy to authorize....

First Amended Complaint, ¶ 81.

5. Consequently, the basis for the Plaintiff's claim against the City was a conviction and allegedly policies and procedures that were in effect over twenty-one years before the City filed for bankruptcy.

Argument

6. Plaintiff's claim against the City was discharged by the City's Plan because it within his fair contemplation before the City filed for bankruptcy. As this Court previously explained, [Claimants] may be correct that their claims were not yet actionable under state law or the City Employment Terms as of the petition date. But the question of when a claim arises under the Bankruptcy Code is governed by federal law. In re Parks, 281 B.R. 899, 902 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 2002) (citations omitted). And, as the above quoted definition of "claim" in Section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code indicates, pre-petition claims that are "contingent" or "unmatured," and thus not presently actionable, may be discharged. In re Dixon, 295 B.R. 226, 229–30 (Bankr.E.D.Mich.2003) (citing In re Kilbarr Corp.

v. G.S.A. (In re Remington Rand Corp.), 836 F.2d 825, 830–31 (3rd Cir.1988)) (other citations omitted) (“Courts have been careful to distinguish when a right to payment arises for bankruptcy purposes, and when the cause of action accrues.”).

In Parks, the court explained the meaning of a “contingent” debt, as that term is used in Section 101(5):

A “contingent debt is ‘one which the debtor will be called upon to pay only upon the occurrence or happening of an extrinsic event which will trigger the liability of the debtor to the alleged creditor.’” Thus, a right to payment need not be concurrently enforceable in order to constitute a claim that is dischargeable in bankruptcy. See Riverwood Int’l Corp. v. Olin Corp. (In re Manville Forest Prods. Corp.), 225 B.R. 862, 866 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998) (“Because contingent and unmatured rights of payment are ‘claims’ under the Code, it is possible that a right to payment that is not yet enforceable at the time of the filing of the petition under non-bankruptcy law, may be defined as a claim within section 101(5)(A) of the Code.”). See also Kilbarr Corp. v. G.S.A. (In re Remington Rand Corp.), 836 F.2d 825, 832 (3rd Cir. 1988) (“[A] party may have a bankruptcy claim and not possess a cause of action on that claim.”).

In re Parks, 281 B.R. at 901–02 (other citations omitted).

By contrast, “it is well-settled that ‘a debt is noncontingent if all events giving rise to liability occurred prior to the filing of the bankruptcy petition.” In re Redburn, 193 B.R. 249, 259 (Bankr. W.D. Mich. 1996) (emphasis added) (quoting Nicholes v. Johnny Appleseed of Wash. (In re Nicholes), 184 B.R. 82, 88 (9th Cir. BAP 1995)).

City of Detroit, 548 B.R. at 761-63.

7. The Court then rejected the “right to payment” test, which provides that arises for bankruptcy purposes only after each element of the claim has been established, and, instead adopted the “fair contemplation” test. “Under this test, a claim is considered to have arisen pre-petition if the creditor could have ascertained through the exercise of reasonable due diligence that it had a claim at the time the petition is filed. Id. (citations and quotations omitted). This test allows “the Court to examine all of the circumstances surrounding a particular claim—the debtor's conduct, the parties' pre-petition relationship, the parties' knowledge, the elements of the underlying claim—and use its best judgment to determine what is fair to the parties, in context.” Id.

8. In Sanford v. City of Detroit, et al, No. 17-13062, (E.D. Mich. Dec. 4, 2018), the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan applied this Court's fair contemplation test in dismissing a claim against the City that was nearly identical to the one asserted by Ricks. Ex. 17. The plaintiff in that case, Sanford, also asserted that the City's alleged customs, policies, and practices resulted in his unlawful conviction. Id. p. 8. And, Sanford argued that because his prepetition conviction was not overturned until after the City exited bankruptcy, his claim was not subject to the discharge in the City's plan. The court rejected that argument stating:

He certainly contemplated the factual bases underlying the claims raised in his complaint, since he attempted repeatedly to argue actual innocence before the state courts since at least 2008, insisting that his confessions was falsely obtained, concocted, and coerced. Sanford correctly points out that he could not have sued the City until his convictions were set aside, which did not happen until after bankruptcy. But, the courts that have considered the question uniformly have concluded that claims based on prepetition malicious prosecutions were barred, notwithstanding that the plaintiff could not file suit on his claims until his criminal conviction was overturned.

Id., p. 10.

9. Despite this Court’s adoption of the fair contemplation test (and not the right to payment test), Ricks’ argues that his claim was not discharged because his cause of action against the City did not accrue “until the conviction or sentence has been invalidated.” Response, p. 2. This Court should reject this argument because it adopted under the fair contemplation test. Under the fair contemplation test, as in Sanford, Ricks’ claim against the City arose prior to the City’s bankruptcy filing.

10. Here, by Ricks’ own admission, the City’s alleged conduct which gave rise to his claim occurred “in and before March 5, 1992.” First Amended Complaint ¶ 81. Of course, the relationship between the parties that gave rise to the claim also took place in 1992. Further, Ricks has always proclaimed his innocence and thus he knew he had an alleged claim against the City since 1992. See, e.g., First Amended Complaint 75-78; Exhibits 1-16. Beginning no later than 2011, with the assistance of firearms identification expert David Townshend, Attorney David Moran and Student Attorney Sally Larsen at the University of Michigan Law School Innocence Project, Claudia Whitman, Director of the National Capital Crime Assistance Network, and Roberto Guzman, Senior Legal Assistant at the Peoples Task Force To Free The Wrongfully Convicted, Ricks undertook substantial efforts to prove his alleged innocence well before the City filed for bankruptcy in 2013. Id. Finally, Monell holds that municipalities may be held liable for the constitutional violations of their employees only where the municipality's policy or custom led to the violation. Robertson v. Lucas, 753 F.3d 606, 622 (6th Cir. 2014). There can be no liability under Monell without an underlying constitutional violation. See Scott v. Clay Cnty., Tenn., 205 F.3d 867, 879 (6th Cir. 2000). The alleged constitutional violations here all took place in 1992. First Amended Complaint ¶¶ 90-98. In short, all of the factors considered under the fair contemplation test demonstrate that the claim asserted against the City arose in 1992 and was discharged by the City's Plan.

WHEREFORE, the City respectfully requests that the Court enter an order requiring Ricks to dismiss the City with prejudice from the federal court action.

1 Q. If you can identify them for me.

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. Okay.

4 MR. MUELLER: For the record, Exhibit 1 is
5 18 pages?

6 MR. ASHFORD: Yes, sir. 18 pages.

7 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

8 BY MR. ASHFORD:

9 Q. Exhibit 1.

10 A. Uh-hmm.

11 Q. Okay?

12 A. Uh-hmm. Yes, sir.

13 Q. The first name is David Townshend.

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. How do you know Mr. Townshend?

16 A. Mr. Townshend is the man who I hired to do the initial 17 firearms examination after the Detroit Police
18 Department said that those bullets matched that gun
19 and it didn't.

20 So I subsequently had sought his help to 21 come in and do -- do another analysis to show that 22 what I'm saying was correct: That that gun didn't
23 kill that guy, and I didn't commit this crime.

24 Q. When did you first contact David Townshend?

25 MR. MUELLER: During, during the criminal

1 process or like years later?

2 THE WITNESS: Yes, that's what I was --

3 BY MR. ASHFORD:

4 Q. Years later.

5 A. I was in the law library in 2009 at -- I forgot the 6 place they sent us to. But I was in the law library
7 in 2009, and I was going through the bar journal. And 8 sometimes you just sit there.

9 And one of these days I was -- you have 10 different days you do different stuff. You type one
11 day. You would write brief -- write briefs one day.
12 Type one day. Go back and forth.

13 So this particular day was a writing day.
14 So as I'm in there writing, I'm going through the bar
15 journal. I'm looking for names in there that have --
16 I always, always sought help. Always wrote letters
17 and wrote the people, call me, please help me, I'm 18 innocent. So always -- I would just go through there
19 periodically.

20 And as I'm going through there, I'm
21 going -- I'm flipping through the back, and I happen
22 to see the name that says, it said Spectrum Forensic 23 Examination Services. And as I look closer, I look at 24 the bottom. I see his name. And I know it's God sent 25 it to me. Only God, only God can do this.

1 At the bottom it said David Townshend. I
2 thought he had died. To be truthful with you, I
3 thought he -- because he was an older gentleman then.
4 And this was 20 -- this was 25, 20 -- at that time it
5 was almost 20 years. So I figured he might have
6 passed. But God is good. He was still alive.

7 So I, I wrote to that place, and I asked
8 him -- I wrote there -- no, I called first. And they 9 told me that he, that he did like outsourcing work for 10 them; that he didn't reside there.

11 So I wrote, I wrote, asked them could I
12 send him some mail there because I had no other
13 address for him, only what was in the bar journal
14 which was their address. So accommodated me and said
15 yes, we'll get -- next time he comes out or whatever,
16 we'll give it to him. Because I didn't know when that 17 would be, but I'm shooting my shot, you know. I
18 didn't care. I had nothing to lose.

19 So I got all the paperwork out and sent it.
20 You know, I sent it to him. And then he contacted me.

21 Q. How long was it before he contacted you?

22 A. Maybe about -- to be truthful with you, I can't 23 remember. It wasn't -- it was, it was, it was long,
24 but it, it -- it felt long, but I don't think it was 25 long. But you know how you just be anticipating so --

1 you want it so bad and it comes, you think it -- I
2 don't think -- maybe -- to be truthful, I don't really
3 want to put a time on it. I can't say, because I
4 can't say. But I know it, it felt long, but I don't
5 think it was really long.

6 And when he finally contacted me, you know,
7 I asked him do you remember me. And he said no. He 8 told me the truth. I don't remember you. I don't 9 remember the case. I don't remember none of that 10 stuff.

11 You have to understand this man didn't know
12 me. He didn't know -- all he know it's somebody on 13 the phone asking him different questions about 14 something that he may have done, you know, a while 15 ago. He didn't know. He wasn't going to commit
16 himself to that, and I understood that. I understood
17 that.

18 So this when I got to the point where I
19 needed to see him, you know. And I asked him, would 20 you be willing to come and visit me. I work in 21 prison. I don't have no money. I work in prison. I 22 work in the, in, in, in prison, and I be saving my 23 money and stuff.

24 I can, you know, go to my counselor, and 25 they can take the money out of your account and send

1 to people. I can send you 30, 40, 50 bucks for some 2 gas if you would just come up here and visit me and
3 let me show you some of this stuff I got, and maybe
4 you'll help me. You know, I had nothing else to lose,
5 you know. Nothing to lose.

6 Q. So then what happened?

7 A. He came. He -- well, I had to go through the visit
8 process. I had to the visiting process first.

9 Q. Did he tell you on the phone that, that he would come?

10 A. No. I'm going to get that correct. I'm going to give 11 you the whole story.

12 I called. I asked him -- I talked to him.
13 I asked him, I said well, I'm in prison. He said, he 14 said you went to prison? He said he didn't even know
15 I went -- he didn't know what had happened, from what 16 he, what he said. But I let it go. That's not what I
17 was trying to get. What I was trying to get was some 18 help. You know what I'm saying?

19 So I explained to him what was going on.
20 He, he agreed to do the visiting process. I went 21 through that, got the visiting process. Maybe about 22 two, three weeks he came to visit me. And when he
23 came to visit me, this is when I had some paperwork.
24 I didn't have the majority of the paperwork. I had, I
25 had some paperwork.

1 And when I showed him some stuff, he was
2 kind of like -- he didn't, he couldn't remember. And
3 I understood that. That was 20 -- that was 20 years,
4 over 20 years ago. I understand he couldn't remember,
5 but I was trying to save certain stuff or show him
6 certain things and jog his memory a little bit. And 7 it really did -- and it did. I'm going to be truth --
8 it didn't the first time. It didn't. You know, he 9 felt -- he say he can recall, but he had told me he 10 had lost all his effects and stuff, all his effects in 11 a flood somewhere. Something happened. A flood 12 somewhere. He lost all his stuff that he had had from 13 back then.

14 Because I wanted to get some of them notes
15 that he had of some of the stuff that he had did
16 during this process that could help me, but he didn't
17 have it, you know. And that was kind of like a 18 downer, but, you know, I took it, you know. At least 19 I can still talk to you and I see who knows what I 20 might get.

21 And the second time he came, this is when I
22 had more paperwork. Now when I went out there and 23 showed him his name and where he signed stuff and 24 examination and stuff he did, and he had did a little
25 more research. He started recalling a little more,

1 and we started going back and forth. When he seen it,
2 you know, I guess, you know, memory comes back. It's
3 like --

4 Q. How did you have more paperwork?

5 A. Because my, my -- I had got -- in 1994 my mother had
6 went to 1300 Beaubien, police headquarters in Detroit.
7 And I asked her to get my homicide file from the 8 Detroit Police Department. And they charged her $40.
9 Gave -- I don't know where the receipt at now. But 10 they charged her $40 and gave her a copy of my 11 homicide file.

12 She subsequently sent that file to me when 13 I was incarcerated. And me and my cellmate, the guy
14 you talking about, one of my cellmates, we sat down
15 and started going over my stuff. And this is when I
16 was trying to effectuate my appeal and try, you know,
17 do different things, you know.

18 And I had all that extra paperwork, but 19 my -- when my mother died -- when I went to prison, my 20 mother died. My sister ended up -- my oldest sister
21 Gwen ended up with it. She take the paperwork, not
22 knowing what it is, puts it in her closet. And it
23 sits in there from 2000, when my mother passed, until 24 2011, almost '11.

25 Because he had seen me in '10, and I, I

1 don't know how long it took for him to come back. But
2 '10 or '11, something like that. It sat there for 3 over ten years.

4 So one day she was just -- me and her had 5 been conversing on the phone. And she moved to 6 Charleston, South Carolina. And one day me and her
7 conversing on the phone, and she said I found some
8 paperwork in my closet that momma had at the house
9 that I took. And I was like what? What kind of 10 paperwork? She was like some stuff with -- some court
11 stuff with some names on there and different stuff.

12 So when she said this, I'm thinking to 13 myself what -- popped back in my mind, '94, the 14 homicide file. It had to be some of that paperwork
15 that she kept. Because I told my mother to make a 16 copy of the file. Keep the original and make a copy
17 and send me the copies.

18 So she got the original. Now my sister got 19 it. Once again it's God helping me, blessing me. My 20 sister, you know, my sister say she found those papers
21 in her closet when she was going to find some shoes to 22 go dancing with her husband. And she just happened to 23 see the box on the floor and remembered it, opened the 24 box up and all my papers were in there.

25 And when she sent me those papers, it was

1 the papers Mr. Townshend had done and all the other
2 papers and everything else I needed to show people
3 that, you know, this man might be -- this man might be
4 telling the truth.

5 Because you have to understand, in the 6 beginning you telling people -- I, I was telling
7 people I didn't do this. Nobody believed me. Nobody,
8 nobody believed me. Called me a liar and a bunch of 9 other things that I don't want to say. But I had to 10 accept that, and I took that.

11 It hurt. Don't get me wrong. But I didn't 12 have time to feel pain. I had to continue to do what 13 I had to do to prove my innocence, and I wasn't going 14 to stop no matter what nobody else said or what nobody 15 else felt.

16 And when I got those papers -- he came back
17 on the second visit. And when I started showing him 18 that and he seen his name and what was going on, he 19 knew it was legitimate.

20 Q. So you received those documents after the first visit.

21 A. Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

22 Q. So what did Mr. Townshend tell you during the second 23 visit?

24 A. I mean, it was pretty much he, he didn't fully recall.
25 But he started to remember certain things about what

1 know. I don't know.

2 Q. Did he work for the innocence project?

3 A. Not that I know of. He worked, maybe he worked for 4 one, but I don't think he worked for -- he didn't work
5 for the University of Michigan. No, sir.

6 Q. Did he work with Claudia Whitman?

7 A. Yes. At one point, yes.

8 Q. Okay. Who is Claudia Whitman?

9 A. She is the lady who is responsible for me sitting here
10 talking to you right now. The first person who 11 believed I was innocent and the lady who fought tooth
12 and nail to get me out of prison. The first person
13 who believed in me, who knew what I was telling her
14 was true because she could see it. She could feel it.
15 That's what she does.

16 She helps innocent people all over United 17 States of America. So in doing that -- you do that 18 job for so long, you get a feel for people. You know
19 what I'm saying. And you be around that person. You
20 get a feel for them. You say okay, this person -- you
21 might still have a little apprehension in there. But 22 once people start showing you stuff, you start seeing 23 different paperwork -- I started showing her that
24 stuff. She knew what it was. She could see it.

25 Q. Has she helped anyone else that you, that you knew of?

1 prison, Mr. Townshend had never informed me or, to my
2 knowledge, my attorney Kristi Glenn about the 3 irregularities he observed when he examined the 4 evidence in my case. Is that true?

5 A. That's true.

6 Q. What irregularities?

7 A. That the bullets were in pristine condition, as he
8 said in his affidavit. I didn't know these things,
9 you know. I didn't know none of this. I was hoping,
10 but I didn't know. I was praying, but I didn't know.

11 Q. Mr. Ricks, you wrote a lot of letters when you were in 12 prison; right?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Do you have copies of any of those letters?

15 A. Yes, sir. I wrote Barbara McQuade, United States
16 Attorney General. I mean, United States Attorney for 17 the Eastern District of Michigan. Judith Levy. I
18 wrote a lot of people, all kind of people that helped 19 me. I wrote Obama. Wouldn't make no difference. I'd 20 write Trump.

21 Q. You wrote --

22 A. I wasn't guilty.

23 Q. In paragraph number four, you wrote Ms. Strong a 24 letter; correct?

25 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Okay. Do you have a copy of that letter?

2 A. Yes, sir. Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

3 Q. You wrote letters to the innocence project?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. And Ms. Whitman?

6 A. Yes, sir. Ms. Winware (ph) over in Canada. She's 7 over in Canada. She's -- it's not called the Canadian 8 Innocence Project, but it's just an innocence project
9 over there in Canada. Her name is Winware. She's a
10 representative over there. She runs it. Wrote her,
11 too. She was going to help me.

12 I wrote Kym Worthy several letters. Wrote
13 Ms. Worthy several letters begging her, please. I
14 didn't do this. Please help me.

15 Q. How do you feel about Ms. Worthy?

16 MR. MUELLER: Objection.

17 THE WITNESS: I just, I just felt that she
18 could have did better than what she did. That's all.
19 I felt she could have did a lot better than what she 20 did, especially when she seen it wasn't right.

21 Beforehand I could understand. Everybody
22 screams they're innocent. But when a guy proves he's 23 innocent, you see he's innocent, at least have the 24 decency to come back and say it wasn't on my watch,
25 but I apologize what happened to you. And we going to

1 make it right and get you out of there.

2 They wouldn't even come and get me. The
3 State Police said I was innocent three weeks before
4 they even came and got me. They wouldn't even come
5 and get me until they called the ATF. They basically
6 forced their hand. Let that man out of there. Why
7 y'all got that innocent man in there. Y'all know that 8 man didn't commit that crime. Let him out. It make 9 no sense.

10 But no, I have no ill will towards her, no.
11 I don't have no ill will towards nobody, Mr. Ashford,
12 nobody. I'm just happy to be alive and out of that 13 prison.

14 Q. And it's your testimony today that you didn't bribe or 15 threaten or promise anyone anything --

16 A. No, sir.

17 Q. -- for their testimony?

18 A. No, sir.

19 MR. MUELLER: That is your testimony?

20 BY MR. ASHFORD:

21 Q. To change their testimony?

22 A. I didn't promise or offer anybody anything, sir. Not 23 at all. I just asked for the truth. The truth is 24 enough. That's all you need. Lies, you got to change
25 them up.

1 and it had her name -- it had her birth date on there.

2 And I was able to use that to get some help.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. The rest of the people, I didn't have that. They just

5 had -- like it was blacked out, so I really

6 couldn't -- I caught a break with that. Basically

7 just her and Mr. -- Ms. Strong and Mr. Townshend.

8 Q. How did you find out about Ms. Whitman at the National

9 Capital Crime Assistance Network?

10 A. I was -- I was directed to her by a guy who I dealt

11 with in there named Jessie Agnew. He introduced me to 12 Claudia.

13 Q. And how did you first come into contact with the 14 innocence project?

15 A. I wrote --

16 Q. And for the record, we're talking about the innocence

17 project at the University of Michigan Law School.

18 A. That's correct. That's correct. I wrote them a

19 letter back in 2009 and asked them could they assist

20 me. But they had a waiting list. They had just

21 started in like, a couple years before, something like

22 that. And they had, you know, got swamped. And they

23 had a waiting list.

24 And they would have to go through and

25 figure out who was innocent and who wasn't basically.

1 A. No, sir. I mean, that's hard to say because if
2 somebody come and visit me and they work for Detroit,
3 I don't know where they work. I don't want to lie to 4 you and say I don't and I -- I don't where those
5 people work. I don't ask them.

6 MR. MUELLER: We can narrow it --

7 BY MR. ASHFORD:

8 Q. But as far as you know, you haven't, you haven't had 9 any contact with any Detroit police officers.

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. In the last ten years.

12 A. No, sir.

13 Q. Or any Detroit lawyers.

14 A. No, sir. No, sir. I was at that place --

15 Q. Have you had, have you had any contact with anyone at 16 the National Capital Crime Assistance Network besides
17 Claudia Whitman and the paralegal that you, that you
18 referenced earlier?

19 A. Yeah. And her husband, Mr. Laird, Laird Carlson.
20 That's Claudia's husband. He works -- he does the 21 newspaper part of stuff like that for the --

22 Q. For her organization?

23 A. Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Have you had any contact with any Wayne County
25 prosecutors in the last ten years?

1 MR. MUELLER: Other than David Townshend.

2 THE WITNESS: Through my attorneys.

3 MR. MUELLER: Well, he's retired.

4 MR. ASHFORD: Yeah, he's retired.

5 THE WITNESS: But I'm saying through my
6 attorneys I've had contact with --

7 BY MR. ASHFORD:

8 Q. No, you personally.

9 A. No, sir. No, sir.

10 Q. And you've mentioned the innocence project in Canada.

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. That you contacted.

13 A. Yes, sir. I have letters and all that stuff, too.

14 Q. What other organizations have you contacted?

15 MR. MUELLER: Other than what he's talked 16 about?

17 BY MR. ASHFORD:

18 Q. Other than what you've told me about.

19 A. People in Atlanta, they had some kind of thing and 20 they was doing -- helping the people get transcripts.
21 It took me a long time -- I, I couldn't get my 22 transcripts. They wouldn't give me my transcripts
23 from down there.

24 They wouldn't give it to me in the '90s.

25 They wouldn't give it to me in the early 2000s. I

1 incarceration; correct?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. So why are you still suing the City of Detroit?

4 MR. MUELLER: Let me make a general
5 objection. One, that's why he's got a lawyer. But 6 you can go head and tell him how you were wronged and 7 what you --

8 BY MR. ASHFORD:

9 Q. I'm not asking for a legal basis. I'm asking for you
10 personally. Why are you --

11 A. It's not, it's not the money, Mr. Ashford. I want my 12 life back. I want them 25 years they took from me
13 back, and I can't get that. And I understand that.

14 And I love that city to death, man. I love
15 that city. But some of the people that were in that 16 city back then weren't right. They weren't right.
17 And they got to answer for what they did. And that's 18 just -- I don't wish no ill will. I have no hard
19 feelings, none of that. I don't have none of that, 20 none of that. Because I went, I went -- I came out of 21 the bottom of hell, and I asked God laying on my back
22 on that floor in that darkness, will you please help
23 me. If you help me to get out of here, I'm not -- I
24 can't be the best person I can be. I'm not going to 25 lie to you, God. But I'm going to be -- I'm going to

1 want wrong around me. I didn't go to the yard. I
2 didn't go to chow hall. I didn't leave my cell.
3 Because my focus was to get out of prison. And God
4 gave it to me when he closed that crime lab in 2008.
5 That was a blessing to me.

6 Q. Why?

7 A. Because that was the -- that was the reason I was sent
8 to jail, and that was the reason I'm out of jail.

9 Q. Why?

10 A. Because that crime lab wasn't right down there. The 11 error rate was too high. You playing with people's 12 lives. You got a 10 percent error rate down there,
13 Mr. Ashford. Out of 10 percent, that's a lot of 14 people going to jail. And I'm one of them that went 15 to jail and didn't have -- never was supposed to see
16 inside a jail, not for that crime, something that you
17 know I didn't do.

18 And then this man tells me right to my
19 face, I know you didn't do it. But if you don't help
20 me basically catch the criminal, you going -- you good
21 enough. I'm going to take you.

22 MR. MUELLER: What man said that?

23 THE WITNESS: Donald Stawiasz told me to my 24 face if you don't help me get these people, we're 25 going to take you. And I couldn't help him get those

Dear Mr. Ricks:

I write in response to your letters regarding the Detroit Crime Lab. The State Appellate Defender Office (SADO) is undertaking a complete review of our Wayne County clients to determine whether tainted evidence from the Detroit Crime Lab resulted in conviction.

We are also determining whether SADO can provide representation to non-clients with potential Detroit Crime Lab problems. We will keep your letter on file and update you as this process unfolds. For now, I can only suggest that you contact the Forensic Integrity Review Unit at the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office.

Ms. Whitman:

I sent a letter to the University of Michigan Innocence Clinic indicating that I had spoken to Mr. Ricks but was unable to investigate his claim of innocence. There is no federal statute that gives the United States the authority to investigate individual claims of this nature.

I did not send a letter to the Innocence Clinic to "press" them in any manner. Rather, I wrote to inform them of the information I received because these are the sorts of issues they deal with in their work.

Thank you very much for your message,

Judith: I hope you remember me from asking you about Det./Ronald Sanders. Desmond Ricks called yesterday and said that he talked with you and you wrote a letter to Dave about his case. I did speak with David Townshend, the ballistics expert who looked at the bullets 19 years ago and he said they were pristine, had no blood or anything on them and were test bullets. Also, they were in an unsealed envelope. He is willing to give an affidavit but no longer has his notes, though he remembers the case well. Did you, in fact, write Dave to press for the IP looking at the case? Thanks. Claudia Whitman

Re: Appeal of Notice of Package/Mail Rejection

Dear Mr. Prelesnik:

Please consider this letter my objection to the enclosed Notice of Package/Mail Rejection, which was received by me on November 22, 2011. For the following reasons, I ask that you reconsider the grounds for rejecting the material and allow Mr. Ricks to receive it.

The package I sent to Mr. Ricks contained two informational pieces about forensics evidence: one entitled Firearms, Projectiles, and Toolmark Identification Evidence, the other entitled Executive Summary, Strengthening Forensics Science in the United States: A Path Forward.

While the firearms and tool mark identification material contains information about bullets and how they are used as evidence, nothing more can be said about that. Indeed, the misidentification or otherwise mishandling of ballistics evidence by Detroit Police in Mr. Ricks' 1992 murder trial for which someone other than he was the killer is at the heart of research we are doing in assisting him in possibly filing post-conviction appeals. We are at the initial stages of researching the science of forensics evidence on his behalf and merely intend to share our findings with him to assist him in preparing for an appeal. It strains reasoning to conclude that the research material could pose a threat to institutional security or possibly encourage criminal activity when prisoners are not walking around your facility with firearms on their person. If that were the case, every prisoner serving time at your facility involving forensics evidence and who has crime lab or expert reports prepared by ballistics and/or DNA experts at the time of their trials could be said to be in possession of material posing a threat to institutional security or encourage criminal behavior. Of course, that is a stretch at logic, as was done here in rejecting the research material I sent to him. For these reasons, I ask that you reconsider the rejection notice and allow Mr. Ricks to receive the material for his information.

As concerns the executive summary prepared by the National Research Council, that report was given to Congress in February 2009 in the wake of scandals involving the now-defunct Detroit Crime Lab in which many defendants, Mr. Ricks among them, were wrongfully convicted of crimes based on faulty or falsified ballistics evidence. The NRC's report contained recommendations for the development of forensic science into a mature field of multidisciplinary research and practice run by forensics sciences independent of law enforcement agencies and prosecutors, both of whom bring an inherent bias into the field of forensics investigations. That is what that report discusses. Nothing in that report contains sensitive information on how to make, build or manufacture bullets or other weapons such that it would pose a threat to institutional security or encourage criminal activity, as the rejection notice flatly assumes. Therefore, I ask that you overturn the rejection notice as it concerns this informational piece as well.

In closing, I want to stress that both items sent to Mr. Ricks were legal research material intended to assist him with his appeals and nothing more. That said, even if the firearms and tool mark identification research material can be said to pose a threat to institutional security (which I disagree), the NRC's report to Congress clearly does not.

In invite you to review the material and provide me your findings at your convenience. If you have any questions or concerns, kindly contact the undersigned at the return address above or feel free to call me at (313) 272-1406.

Sincerely,

Roberto Guzman

I did a google and corrections based search on him several weeks ago and came up with no hits. But I will see about searching other applications for hits on Pitts. I just thought about something else too - much of what Desmond has told us puts me right in that parking lot that day and in the cop car with him. Much of what he has said we are finding out is true (like, for instance, his account that two federal agents were involved, the door being left wide open, Arlene Strong's description of the shooter, etc.) Our confirming from the paperwork Desmond's account that the two FBI agents were involved, leads me to also believe Desmond when he says they showed him a picture of Craig Pitts as the possible murder suspect. But when and why did they lose his scent? Big question.

Here's another thought - How is it that Desmond knows Craig Pitts' name? Do the FBI feed that to him? I think I recall Desmond saying other inmates at the prison saw his picture in a paper or something and told him Craig Pitts' name.

I suppose if you get a chance to interview or depose those agents, we sit with them with the FBI's paperwork to refresh their recollection and be able to find out if they ever caught up with Craig Pitts and find out why were they initially focusing on him as the killer in Desmond's case.

I would think the feds had Pitts and/or the other guy under surveillance for quite some time, as apparently they were business partners in the drug trade. What do you think we attempt to discover some information about the deceased too, which might lead us to Craig Pitts? I am going to do a pacer search to see if Pitts was ever federally charged for drug crimes and let you know what I find.

Let me know. Des just called and was excited that I found the agents. I suggested he write Ms. McQuade and reenforce how important this is to proving his innocence and also ask that he be present to question them under subpoena. He just said, "You don't know what it is like. I look in the mirror every day and see an innocent face in the mirror". Can you do any checking on Pitts? He is not in the system now. C

My take on it is that Desmond is correct in saying the feds were hot on Pitts' nephew and suspected he was (or even knew he was) involved in this killing. One other thing that stands out in my mind about the crime scene, and I shared this with Desmond when he called the other day. When police arrived on the scene, the passenger door to the vehicle where Desmond was seated was left open. That lends credibility to Desmond's claim that he ran for his life and was being fired upon by Pitts as he fled. The fact the door was found open is proof someone got the hell out of there really fast. If Desmond had walked with the deceased into the restaurant to make the transaction but instead chose to rob and kill him, he would have closed that passenger door and not leave it left open. I definitely will take another look at the lab reports to determine if more than two shell casings were found at the scene. If so, that would lend credence to Desmond's claim that after killing the victim, Pitts then turned his gun on Desmond as he fled.

You are so sweet. Thanks. I will certainly let you know but no plan now. I have to be in DC for the NCADP Board meeting mid-January and the 21st is the Move to Amend demonstration. Let's see what Ms. McQuade says. Unfortunately, unless he was lying, Reghi didn't remember Des or anything about the case. But if he did show Des a picture and say this guy was the suspect, maybe it is in the file or in his report. His name is definitely on the police report as one of the two federal agents involved in the case, as is Primak's. C

If Desmond had walked with the deceased into the restaurant to make the transaction but instead chose to rob and kill him, he would have closed that passenger door and not leave it left open. I definitely will take another look at the lab reports to determine if more than two shell casings were found at the scene. If so, that would lend credence to Desmond's claim that after killing the victim, Pitts then turned his gun on Desmond as he fled.

You are so sweet. Thanks. I will certainly let you know but no plan now. I have to be in DC for the NCADP Board meeting mid-January and the 21st is the Move to Amend demonstration. Let's see what Ms. McQuade says. Unfortunately, unless he was lying, Reghi didn't remember Des or anything about the case. But if he did show Des a picture and say this guy was the suspect, maybe it is in the file or in his report. His name is definitely on the police report as one of the two federal agents involved in the case, as is Primak's. C

Yeah, and a client of mine told me about Ken and Byron and Ken and another lawyer downtown here looking at cases. Very creepy stuff. Yeah, Mr. Byron's nose is so high in the air knowing the Pitts name precedes him. He is also very cozy with Ron Scott of the Coalition Against Police Brutality, who, most of us feel, has not turned coat to the cops. He is a sell out. Scott is. The corruption and political pay to play here is so deep it is crazy.

Byron is pretty arrogant. Damion Todd, the juvenile on the ACLU complaint against JLWOP, and one of the people in my notebook, had Cornelius as his attorney and he not only did nothing, there is reason to believe he colluded with the prosecution. I met with Byron when I was there last month. He is friends, big time, with my investigator, Ken.

When all the dope dealers got sent to prison or were killed, his business plummeted. Very shady character. He would always play the race card too, if a defendant was African-American and got on a soap box about black persecution by a white system. Very very unscrupulous lawyer. He only won cases because he was good at reminding people of the Jim Crow era and pulling the race card. I see Byron going down that same road.

I think Des only found out the name recently. Pitts is the nephew of Cornelius Pitts, well known lawyer in Detroit and he is thus a cousin of Byron Pitts, currently a hot shit lawyer. Gerry Bennett is the victim. Maybe you can put him together with Pitts. If all is true, they were watching Pitts but there were political reasons not to hassle him and Des was handy to take the fall. They do this all the time. Des told me Craig Pitts did some time and got release. I think his name is Craig Kent Pitts. C

Much of what he has said we are finding out is true (like, for instance, his account that two federal agents were involved, the door being left wide open, Arlene Strong's description of the shooter, etc.) Our confirming from the paperwork Desmond's account that the two FBI agents were involved, leads me to also believe Desmond when he says they showed him a picture of Craig Pitts as the possible murder suspect. But when and why did they lose his scent? Big question.

Here's another thought - How is it that Desmond knows Craig Pitts' name? Do the FBI feed that to him? I think I recall Desmond saying other inmates at the prison saw his

I suppose if you get a chance to interview or depose those agents, we sit with them with the FBI's paperwork to refresh their recollection and be able to find out if they ever caught up with Craig Pitts and find out why were they initially focusing on him as the killer in Desmond's case.

I would think the feds had Pitts and/or the other guy under surveillance for quite some time, as apparently they were business partners in the drug trade. What do you think we attempt to discover some information about the deceased too, which might lead us to Craig Pitts? I am going to do a pacer search to see if Pitts was ever federally charged for drug crimes and let you know what I find.

I suggested he write Ms. McQuade and reenforce how important this is to proving his innocence and also ask that he be present to question them under subpoena. He just said, "You don't know what it is like. I look in the mirror every day and see an innocent face in the mirror". Can you do any checking on Pitts? He is not in the system now. C

I saw paperwork to where those two agents names were involved in Desmond's arrest, which leads me to believe much of what Desmond says. He was never federally charged for the case or any case for that matter, so it begs the question why were the feds even looking at this murder, which for all purposes was something for the local authorities to prosecute - and they did. My take on it is that Desmond is correct in saying the feds were hot on Pitts' nephew and suspected he was (or even knew he was) involved in this killing. One other thing that stands out in my mind about the crime scene, and I shared this with Desmond when he called the other day. When police arrived on the scene, the passenger door to the vehicle where Desmond was seated was left open. That lends credibility to Desmond's claim that he ran for his life and was being fired upon by Pitts as he fled. The fact the door was found open is proof someone got the hell out of there really fast. If Desmond had walked with the deceased into the restaurant to make the transaction but instead chose to rob and kill him, he would have closed that passenger door and not leave it left open. RE: Legal Assistance

Dear Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms,

I am writing to you in concerns of hopefully receiving some help from your office with the legal matters that I am having.

I know that you are very busy, so I will keep this correspondence as brief as possible.

I have been incarcerated for the past 20yrs. for a crime that I did not commit. I have reached out to so many people on so many occasions for help, but I guess that it was not my time then.

But, recently I have been blessed to have the assistance of Mrs. Claudia Whitman, she is the Director of NDRAN of Cure. Which is a National Organization that reaches out to aid and assist the Wrongfully Convicted.

I was Arrested on March 5, 1992 in the City of Detroit, MI by 2 Federal Agents.

[1] Tony Primak #2703, A.T.F. Agent <> [2] John Reghi #2858, U.S. Marshal

Also upon my arrest, my Mothers .38 Caliber Handgun was confiscated by these Agents. In the police car on the ride to the police station, Agent John Reghi showed me a picture of the man whom I had seen shoot and kill the now deceased victim. I asked the Agents if they knew that he was the killer, why was I being taken to jail? They told me that everything was going to be alright.

Once we got to the police station, I never again saw those 2 Federal Agents.

The Detroit Police started asking me questions and I explained to them that the 2

Federal Agents that brought me down there knew that I was not the person who had committed that crime. They did not want to hear what I was saying. I was told by the Detroit Police Dept. that my Mothers Gun was used to commit that murder. I knew then that I was being railroaded for a crime that I did not commit.

So I hired an Independent Firearms Examiner to come and re-test the (2) Slugs in this case that were removed from the body of the deceased victim, and show that the police were in error with their findings.

An Order was entered by the Judge allowing the Independent Firearms Examiner to go down to the Detroit Crime Laboratory and conduct his examination on the evidence. But, when the Independent Firearms Examiner called the Detroit Crime Lab to schedule a date to get there and do his test, he was told that he could not perform his examination there. There was never a reason given as to why he was not allowed. So the (2) Evidence Slugs were taken to the Independent Examiner by the Lead Detective in the case. The same man that repeatedly told me that he was going to send me to jail. The Independent Examiner was not given the (2) Slugs from the crime, he was given test-fired shots that had been fired from my Mothers Gun. (the evidence was never sealed)

I have an Affidavit from the Independent Firearms Examiner, David G. Townshend, in which he says that the (2) Slugs that he was given to test did not have any "Blood" or other "Trace Evidence" on them that would indicate that they had been removed from the body of a "deceased victim".

There was also an eyewitness to the crime that made a statement to the police in which she said that "she observed a "bright-complexioned man", "medium height", with a "Big Silver Gun" shooting".

I have a "dark complexion", I am 6' 3" in height, and the Gun that was confiscated was a "black .38".

I humbly and sincerely ask that you would "Please" allow Mrs. Whitman the opportunity to interview these 2 Federal Agents who arrested me, and also be provided with their Reports that were made on March 5, 1992.

Hopefully that will show that I am not the man who committed this crime and I can finally go home.

When the Detroit Crime Lab was closed down in 2008, I knew that GOD had answered my Prayer for Help.

I wrote a letter to the Prosecutors Office in Detroit, and asked could the evidence in my case be re-tested by the Michigan State Police. They wrote me back and basically said be patient, they will get around to it. I have been patient for 20yrs. with the exact same problem. They want me to give up and I will never do that!

I did not kill that man, and I respectfully ask for your Help.

I Thank You in advance for your time in listening to my plea for help.

MAY GOD BLESS YOU.

P.S.

I wrote to the United States Attorney, Barbara L. McQuade, and she directed me to you. Please fine the letter enclosed.

Respectfully,

Desmond L. Ricks #187002

United States Attorney's Office

Detroit, MI 48226
Tel: (313) 226-9100

Dear U.S. Attorney McQuade:

I am writing to request your assistance in accessing information related to the murder of Gerry Bennett in Detroit in 1992, or to the case of Desmond Ricks, MDOC # 187002, who was convicted of Mr. Bennett's murder. We believe that agents with the U.S. Marshalls and the U.S. Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms may have information related to this incident. We do not represent Mr. Ricks, but are investigating his claims of innocence, and information from these agencies could help us to understand whether or not his claims might have merit.

Mr. Ricks was convicted of the March 3, 1992 shooting of Mr. Bennett at the Top Hat Restaurant then located at the intersection of Puritan St. and James Couzens Fwy. in Detroit, Michigan. He maintains that while he was on the scene, he was not the shooter, and that he saw the face of the man who was in fact the shooter. He claims that on March 5, 1992, he was picked up by two federal agents: Tony Primak, ATF Agent #2703, and John Reghi, U.S. Marshall #2858. As they drove him to the police station they showed him a picture of a man and asked him whether this was the person Mr. Ricks had seen shoot Mr. Bennett. Mr. Ricks said that it was, and the agents told him everything was going to be alright. However, when Mr. Ricks reached the police station he was taken for questioning and charged with the shooting. He did not see the agents again.

One key piece of evidence in Mr. Ricks' conviction was ballistics testing by the Detroit Crime Lab that found a match between the bullets in Mr. Bennett's body and test bullets fired from Mr. Ricks' mother's gun. Independent testing requested by Mr. Ricks' defense attorney confirmed that that there was a match between the test bullets and those the Crime Lab identified as having been taken from Mr. Bennett's body.

However, the independent examiner has now come forward with an affidavit stating that, due to a number of irregularities in the evidence that the Detroit Crime Lab gave him to test in Mr. Ricks' case, he believes "a new examination of the evidence on this case is warranted." Aff. of David G. Townshend, Aug. 30, 2011, p. 3. Among other irregularities, the bags containing the ballistics evidence were improperly sealed and the bullets identified as having been taken from Mr. Bennett's body were in "near pristine" condition: They "failed to reveal the presence of trace evidence or deformation that would be associated with bullets that had been fired in to the skull and the body of a homicide victim." Aff. of David G. Townshend, Aug. 30, 2011, p. 2.

Given Mr. Townshend's affidavit and what is now known about the ballistics testing practices at the Detroit Crime Lab at this time, we believe Mr. Ricks' innocence claims warrant further investigation. Therefore, any information that the U.S. Marshalls or the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms might have related to Mr. Bennett's murder or Mr. Ricks' arrest could be very important, and we request your assistance in accessing any information they might have.

Thank you for your time and consideration. If you have questions related to this request, please contact the Michigan Innocence Clinic at (734) 763-9353 or at the address above.

Hi Claudia,

Yes, I definitely understand that the bullets that were tested were not actually the bullets that killed Gerry Bennett. When I said that they could be retested, I meant that they could be examined by a ballistics lab to determine whether they are "pristine" enough that they could not have been fired into a body (especially a skull, as one of the shots that killed Bennett went right through the bone of his skull into his brain). I left a voicemail for Mr. Townsend this morning because I think that it would be very useful for Mr. Westrick to talk to Townsend, although it is discouraging that he can't find his notes. Please know that Ricks' case is one of my highest priorities at the Clinic and I am familiar with Mr. Townsend's affidavit and the other ballistics evidence in his case -- although there is always the possibility that I have overlooked or misread something.

Because Derrick Andrews and I were unable to find a time when we both could talk (due to my class schedule and his limited phone hours), he suggested that I call his assistant resident unit supervisor and schedule a call with him. I left two voicemails for his supervisor this week but he has not yet been in touch. Believe me, I understand the important of talking to Mr. Andrews. He has been so consistent in reaching out to me despite all the scheduling conflicts, it has been really heartening. But your point that every witness has a point where they lose interest is well-taken. I will send Andrews a J-Pay asking him to talk to his supervisor about calling me back - if that doesn't work, I can skip a portion of class if it comes to it.

Best,

Sally

David Townshend is the guy who testified, visited Des, talked to me several times, did a long affidavit, etc. You should have it but I just forwarded it. Lamentably, he never could find his work notes where he normally had a chart where he would mark things off. He did mention that the evidence was not properly sealed in his initial report but never mentioned the pristine nature of the bullets being a concern, which, he says, would have been on the work sheet. He did look for it and found notes but can't explain why he didn't do the regular chart thing. But if they give you the same bullets to test, you won't get anything because they are pristine. Townshend also says that when the Det. police brought him the bullets (contrary to what the judge had ordered and what was normal, ie., his going to the police station to do the testing, they had a smug demeanor like they knew he would get a match. Well, he did, because they were the test bullets.

You also may already know him, since he says he worked with us on the Titus case - I hadn't been aware of that before we talked.) At any rate, I'm going to check with my supervisors about whether we can send him more information related to Mr. Rick's case - if we are able to get ahold of the ballistics evidence in the case (which, for now, we are not even sure exists), he would be willing to do the retesting for us. Let me know if you had someone else in mind or if I should hold off for any reason in getting him more involved in the case.

About the Pitts charge, its not clear to me whether its being purposefully hidden. It might not be showing up on OTIS because he's been releases from prison and may be through with parole/probation as well. Was there some place besides OTIS that seemed to be hiding this information? Desmond didn't seem surprised about the charge; he seemed to assume it was the shooting he heard about at a Coney Island restaurant on Six Mile in Detroit. I may have a way of inquiring further about Pitts; I'm looking into it and will let you know.

The guy who did ballistics for the police, Pauch, I think was not above cooking the books on several cases. But this is disappointing. I think your supposition is probably right: ones they got the alleged "match" they didn't need to mention another suspect. I think Primak still works for ATF. Maybe you could interview him. That was my intention. Also, summaries of statements by Primak and Reghi seem insufficient. Is there a way to see the actual statement? Des did call today and my husband told him that 2:30 was a go. Great work getting the records!

They sent over records related to the Ricks case, which included summaries of statements from Tony Primak, John Reghi and one other ATF agent, Curtis Brunson. Unfortunately, none of the statements mentioned another suspect in the case. The statements were pretty barebones and dealt only with Ricks' arrest, not with any larger view of the case. They all did include the fact that the ballistics ended up matching Ricks' mother's gun; I wonder if the statements were influenced by that (supposed) fact. At any rate, I can scan and email you the documents tomorrow, and will let Ricks know about it on our phone call tomorrow afternoon. I think we have plenty else to follow up on and investigate, but this was certainly disappointing.

RE: Legal Assistance

Dear Ms. Larsen,

How are you? Good I hope.

This is a case that I was fortunate enough to get from the Court of Appeals. I was in the Law Library reading and ran across it. It's a fairly new case, within the last year as you can see.

It sent it to you to show the parallels between this case and mine. I also have enclosed a "brief guide" to show you exactly the points I feel are pertinent.

I know that you will read the whole case, but the information that I needed starts on

* pg.14 > pg 17 * (I apologize for the mistakes, wanted to get it out A.S.A.P)

As always, I am greatly appreciative of your help. GOD BLESS

Sincerely,

Hi Claudia,

Thanks for your emails. It will be disappointing if David Townshend cannot find his notes. Thank you very much for talking to him and asking him to double-check; hopefully it will turn something up.

Funny you should mention Kristi Glenn - I had just reached out to her myself. I'd like to talk to her and see whether she remembers anything - basically whether she remembers Townshend mentioning anything to her about the bullets looking funny. My guess is no, but it would be good to know before we go much further if she does remember this. She said she doesn't remember anything about the case, and asked me to send her a disk with the transcripts on it, which I will try to do by the end of the week.

About the evidence tag numbers changing -- it's possible that Desmond did mention this and it got lost in the shuffle of all the issues surrounding the evidence. He is sending me some more information about the ballistics, and we are scheduled to talk again on Friday, so I will bring it up with him then.

If you find me a little out of touch over the next week, I apologize. There's a crunch of stuff going on at school.

Best,

Sally

As I suspected, he never sent me those notes. I spoke to him on 8/22/2011 and he told me he found his notes from 11/30/95 and that he had not done a worksheet, which he couldn't explain. He says he gave information he had to a Gwendolyn Brumfield. (I don't know who this is; I didn't make notes on her but you could ask him or I could). I had called Kristi Glenn, his trial attorney. She now lives somewhere like VA. She says she kept no paper work. I had also asked him whether he felt he had any conflict of interest testifying as he did, since Des had hired him. He said he did not because the prosecutor had subpoenaed him and paid for his coming to court.

I just talked to him and he is going to double check. He doesn't remember who Brumfield is or where he might have sent them but he is going to look and see if he can find them. Claudia

There is also that issue that a number had been changed on the evidence. Originally, I think it was 923409 and 10 but then something is labeled 423.... Did Des go over this with you?

Hi Claudia,

Sorry for the delay, but below are my notes from my call with David Townshend. They are sort of extensive, sorry about that. He says you have his notes from the examination he did. Would you mind making a copy for me and scanning or mailing them to me? (If mailing, the address is Michigan Innocence Clinic, 701 S. State St., Ann Arbor, MI 48109.) Probably good to have lots of copies of those, I think they might become important. I've come across a law student who is a former police officer - I'm going to ask him to take a look at the chain of custody issue with me and help me understand it fully.

Also, I spoke with Dave and he is interested in pursuing Mr. Andrews' story (he agrees - we have no other choice at this point but to pursue the truth on this matter). He had some good ideas on what comes next -- we can ask the Wayne County ME's office to let us know whether they had a death like Fooks' come in during the right time frame. And I think I'm going to go visit Mr. Andrews to try to get a fuller sense of his story. But before I do that, I'd love to get a better sense of what Nicole Accola's murder has to do with this, so let me know if you talk to Danny about it.

I think that's all I've got for now. Hope you're having a great weekend :)

Notes from call with David Townshend
October 2, 2012

Overall: Mr. Townshend was quite nice and sounded 100% competent. He spent a long time on the phone with me and was thoughtful in his responses. He seemed like he would be happy to continue to help us out as necessary.

He said that the Ricks case has always stuck in his mind as one where things "just didn't seem right."

6 months or a year before DT was asked to look at the ballistics in Ricks' case, he had been asked to look at the ballistics in another case - he can't remember the defendant's name. The defense asked him to take a second look at the conclusion of the Detroit Crime Lab that test bullets from the defendant's gun in that case matched the bullets removed from a victim's body. But Townshend did not find a match. He performed his test at the Detroit Crime Lab and could not find sufficient similarities between the marks and grooves in the two sets of bullets. He asked the lab tech to point out what he thought proved they were from the same gun, and the tech pointed to a tiny dot present on all the bullets - not nearly enough, Townshend said, to prove they were the same. DT testified that in his opinion the bullets were not a match, and he believes the defendant was acquitted. He says he knows the Lab was furious about that.

Though originally DT was supposed to go to the Detroit Crime Lab to do the test in Ricks' case, he later received word that a sergeant would be bringing the evidence to him instead. This strikes him as very strange, because it costs substantial man hours and gas for the police to send someone to his lab, far from Detroit. He says the Detroit Crime Lab had never done that sort of thing before - he always went to them - although sometimes federal agencies like the FBI would go to DT's lab for the testing. Although this was definitely strange, DT cannot think of any advantage that the Lab would have gained by having the test done at DT's lab... if a fraud was perpetrated, this could just as easily have been accomplished by DT coming to Detroit. So that remains an open question -- and potentially an important one.

DT remembers thinking to himself, "Damn, these bullets look good," when he saw the bullets that purportedly came from Mr. Bennett's body. They were in "great condition" and "did not look like they came out of a body." He also noticed that marks that are usually made by the ME on either the slugs themselves or the envelopes into which the slugs are placed when they are removed from a victim's body were not present on these slugs. DT does not remember whether he mentioned this to Ms. Glenn, although this would normally be the kind of thing that he would mention. He does remember that when he gave his testimony in court and announced that the bullets were a match, Ricks was clearly shocked -- Ms. Glenn had not informed him of what DT's testimony would be (Ricks confirmed this to me). I know from conferences recorded in the trial transcript that Ms. Glenn was aware of what Mr. Townshend's testimony would be before he testified. It is super unfortunate that Ms. Glenn did not inform Mr. Ricks of the results in advance, but that doesn't mean that she also knew, and failed to communicate, that DT believed the bullets were suspicious. This could make the difference between whether the claim is a new evidence claim or an ineffective assistance of counsel claim... and the IAC claim might be stronger, if we could make it. Or maybe less strong -- either way, we need to know.

DT was of the opinion that, if the slugs were switched, it would have happened after the Detroit Crime Lab test, but before Townshend was given the bullets. This suggests a pattern of events such as this: The correct slugs are removed from Bennett's body and put in envelopes, but unsealed. They are taken to the Detroit Crime Lab and perform the test with Ricks' gun. Pauch concludes that the two sets up bullets are a match (this could be either because he is incompetent or because he purposely overlooked that the bullets did not appear to be the same). Then he hears that DT will be retesting the bullets. He realizes that DT will not find a match, either because the bullets from Bennett's body clearly were not a match to Ricks or because the bullets from Bennett's body are too beat up to draw a match at all. So he fires some test bullets from Ricks' gun and replaces them with the slugs in the unsealed evidence bags.

This would mean the chain of custody from the date on which the Detroit Crime Lab test was performed and the date when Townshend's test was performed is very important. If Pauch had access to the bullets between those dates, that's important. What Townshend pointed out is that it is possible that the bullets that were preserved in evidence are the ones removed from Bennett's body - that the bullets Townshend was shown were discarded at some point and not preserved. I think this would be okay. For one thing, maybe those bullets could be excluded as having come from Ricks' gun. For another, if they couldn't, Townshend could testify that those were definitely not the bullets he was shown at the time, and he or another ballistics expert could testify that no match can be found between the two sets of bullets.

Townshend explained the reasons why, at the time he did the testing, he felt that something was fishy about the bullets:

- They did not look like they had been fired into a body.
 - They were lead bullets, and lead is pretty soft. They should have had deformations from hitting bone.
 - They did not have trace evidence deposited on them. He said he can't recall a case in which he tested a bullet and didn't find blood, human issue, threads of fabric, something like that. There should be material on the bullet, unless the bullet has been washed, which it is not supposed to be.
- The bullets appeared to have been fired recently. Normally, he said, a lead bullet has lubricant on it that is removed when it passes through the barrel. This causes the bullet to begin to oxidize, and the oxidation process progresses over time - so one can tell to some degree by looking at the bullet how long ago it was fired. He remembers that these bullets looked like they had been fired unusually recently. He asked me to look up the dates from the ballistics testing forms to see how long it should have been between when Bennett was shot and when Townshend did his testing.

- The bullets, or the envelopes they were stored in, were not marked by pathology. Townshend thought this was something he had mentioned in his affidavit. While his affidavit mentioned that the envelopes were not sealed, I think this is a somewhat different issue. I will ask him to take a look at his affidavit and tell me if this is a different issue.

Townshend said he would find his notes from this case and send them to me, but later he emailed and said he couldn't find them and must have sent them to Claudia. I'll write to her and ask her for a copy.

Hi Claudia,

That's awesome, I would love to talk to this guy (as would everyone else in the Clinic, I imagine). Thanks so much for this.

About the lead bullets - I'm attached the ME receipt for bullets - that's the only thing I've got from the ME on ballistics, but I don't think it will be useful because it doesn't say what type of bullets they were. I read through the ME's testimony again and he doesn't get more specific there either. I have been assuming that we were looking at soft bullets because Townshend seemed certain that they should have been fairly destroyed by what they supposedly went through.

Dear Ms Strong,

I do not know how to begin this letter So I will simply start by saying, "I hope that you have been well, and "GOD has Blessed You & Your Family".

I know that we have never met, so for the sake of proper introduction, my name is Desmond Ricks.

Let me first say, that I do not wish to upset you or bring any grief into your life I just simply wish to briefly speak to you on this paper, and convey what I have been wanting to say in the past, and now the present.

You are not the reason why I am in prison. We both know that. Through a series of mostly bad choices, and reckless living as a young adult, I take full responsibility for what has happened to me. I fully understand that real men have to accept the mistakes that they have made, and live with the consequences that those mistakes carry with them. I also have come to understand, that when a man starts to learn from his past mistakes and begins to correct the flaws that he has, his life will change for the better.

I am no philosopher or psychiatrist Ms. Strong, I have just lived on this earth a long time, and in doing so you begin to have insight on the different aspects of life, and living. This insight is heightened by being isolated from society, and the simple things that people sometimes take for granted.

I know that you may be busy with the holiday season being in full swing, and I do not want to take away any of your time from that in reading this letter. So I will make this as brief and to the point as I possibly can. I need your help Ms. Strong

As you know, I was the guy that was in the Red Car with the guy that came into the restaurant and got shot. (His name was Gerry Bennett) The police wanted me to tell them who the guy was that shot Gerry I am telling you as I told them Ms. Strong, I do not know who that guy was, or the other guys that were with him Sure, I knew why we were there, and what we were there for, but I did not kill my friend.

I waited in the car for him to conduct his business with that guy, as you saw I never got out of the car until the shooting started. When I did get out of the car, the same guy shot at me and I started running across the parking lot. As I was running, I seen the bushes that were next to the building at the back. I didn't want my coat to get stuck in the bushes when I ran through them, so I slipped my coat off as I was running and it was left on the ground. In my coat pocket was a parking lot hospital pass with my girlfriends hospital room number on it. It was from Hutzel Hospital. We had a daughter born 2 days before this happened. Also in the pocket was a picture of my then 7 year old daughter, and my telephone book.

Why would I leave my coat at the scene of a crime with all of that vital information in it that would ultimately lead the police straight to me. It makes no sense, and I tried to explain that to them but they would not listen.

I could have went to the police afterwards, but I could only give them the same description that you gave them, "bright-complexion man", "medium height", with a "Big Silver Gun". The difference was, that I was a street guy, and the street code was, never under any circumstances, cooperate with the police. I know that you may not understand, but try this. My newborn daughter and her mother along with the rest of my family was out there unprotected. Never would I have allowed anything to happen to them on account of the street life that I was living.

I have never cried at any time in this place, or felt depressed. I knew that with that life came consequences. Knowing that, I had to as we say in the old school, "take my medicine". Please don't misunderstand, I was extremely angry and frustrated at what the police did to me. But I can never let that anger and frustration I felt towards the police cloud my judgement and hinder me from my regaining my freedom.

I knew that someone had to have seen what happened, and would eventually tell the police. This happened in broad daylight.

After the police got my coat, went through it and found my stuff inside, they came to arrest me. 2 days later on March 5th, I was arrested at my mothers home, on Hubbell and Florence. The police took my mothers gun from the house, which was a "Black .38", that was registered to her since the late 70's. They said after some tests that were done on it, it was the gun that killed Gerry. So since I was with Gerry when he died, I must have killed him.

Ms. Strong, I am "6 3" tall, I have a "dark complexion", and the gun that the police have is a "Black .38". That man that you described shooting at the restaurant, "medium height", "bright complexion", with a "Big Silver Gun", was not, and could never be me.

The Detroit Crime Lab was closed down in 2008 for doing bad testing on evidence, such as Guns and Bullets. I am hoping that they will re-test the evidence in my case, but until that day comes, will you "PLEASE HELP ME".

I did not kill Gerry Ms. Strong. The police wanted me to tell them who did, and since I couldn't, they believed that I wouldn't, and sent me to prison for a crime that they know I did not commit.

I don't know if you have been watching the various television programs that show how innocent people are sent to prison all the time. The show Vindicated which comes on BET and Centric Tuesday Nights, shows how people finally receive justice after spending years and years in prison for crimes that they have not committed. I hope to be vindicated one day for this crime that I did not commit.

I have done wrong in the past Ms. Strong, and Karma catches up with everyone. But, for the past 20 years of my life that I have spent in prison an innocent man, I figure that Ms. Karma, and everyone else, are all even. I don't want to die in prison Ms. Strong.

I have a daughter whom I said was 7 years old when I was sent to prison. She is 27 now, and I have 6 grandchildren, 4 granddaughters, and 2 grandsons. I have spoken with my grandchildren on the telephone as much as I can, but I have never seen them face to face. I vowed to never have them subjected to coming inside of a prison and visiting me. I don't want them to ever have to see this side of life, especially for a circumstance that they did not cause. Their ages start at 6 years to 6 months. They are too young to understand now anyway. My second daughter is 20 years old now and a college student. She will be 21 years old on March 1st, and I will have been in prison

21 years, 4 days after her birthday.

My daughters wanted to meet with you and ask you to help their father. But I had to explain to them that this was not an ordinary situation that we are in, and that you may have reservations about helping me. I understand how they feel, they just want me to come home and help them the way a father is suppose to help his daughters.

My Faith and My Belief are never shaken.

Ms Strong, I Prayed, and Prayed, and Prayed, for GOD to help me Then in May of this year, I was blessed to have the University Of Michigan Innocence Clinic take a serious look at my case and see if they could help me. Ms. Sally Larsen of the Michigan Innocence Clinic has been assisting me with getting the facts together and contacting potential help for me I am deeply indebted to her for her help.

Ms. Strong, I just need for you to do an Affidavit for me, which basically is a letter stating that I was not the person whom you saw shooting at the restaurant. "Please Ms Strong", with that letter I can be one of those people on T.V. who has been Vindicated. There is no harm that can come to you for telling the Truth. I know that you have been reading the newspapers and watching T.V. The police have been running wild in Detroit, doing all sorts of corrupt and unethical things to lock people up whether innocent or not They don't care,

I said that I was not going to take up a lot of your time, but when a person is basically begging for their life, time seems to evaporate rapidly.

I sincerely appreciate your reading this letter I hope that you can find it in your heart to help me.

I lost my Mother in August of 2000. She went to her grave knowing that the police used her gun to send me to prison. I am not looking for any sympathy Ms. Strong, I just would like for you to help me make this wrong right.

As I close this correspondence, let me lastly say, no matter what you decide, I always have and always will, wish you nothing but the best of what this life has to offer.

* MAY GOD BLESS YOU & YOUR FAMILY "

MERRY CHRISTMAS & HAPPY NEW YEAR

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

DAVONTAE SANFORD,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case Number 17-13062

Honorable David M. Lawson

CITY OF DETROIT, MICHAEL
RUSSELL, and JAMES TOLBERT,

Defendants.

_____ /

OPINION AND ORDER GRANTING IN PART AND DENYING IN PART DEFENDANTS’ MOTION TO DISMISS

Fourteen-year-old Davontae Sanford was convicted of murdering four people upon his plea of guilty in a Detroit, Michigan court in 2008. After another person confessed to the crimes and confirmed that Sanford was not involved, a state police investigation uncovered evidence that Sanford’s confession and ensuing guilty plea were the product of Detroit police misconduct. His conviction was set aside and all charges against him were dismissed in 2016, but not before he had spent over eight years in prison. He filed this lawsuit against the City of Detroit and the officers who constructed the case against him to recover damages for the violations of his civil rights that led to his wrongful conviction and confinement. The defendants moved to dismiss the complaint on various theories. One has merit: Detroit’s intervening bankruptcy bars Sanford’s claim against the City in this Court, because the final plan of adjustment discharged prepetition claims and the plaintiff is enjoined from pursuing his claim against the City except as the plan allows. Therefore, the Court will grant the motion to dismiss in part and dismiss the case against the City. The case will proceed, however, against the City’s police officers.

I. Facts

The City's motion is based in part on Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(1); it contends that the Court does not have subject-matter jurisdiction over Sanford's claim against it. The defendant police officers' motion is based on Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6). Because the defendants have challenged the adequacy of the complaint under that rule, the following facts as stated in the complaint are summarized below.

Around 11:25 p.m. on September 17, 2007, two professional hit men, Vincent Smothers and Ernest Davis, executed Michael Robinson, a low level drug dealer, and three other people who were present in Robinson's home on Runyon Street, on Detroit's East Side. The killings were provoked by a drug war. Smothers also found a woman and her young child in the house, hiding in a back bedroom. The woman and her child had been hit when Smothers and Davis first fired their weapons into the house, but they had survived. Smothers told them to hide and then left the house. Once outside, he exchanged gunfire with police chaplain Jesse King, who had happened upon the scene. Smothers and Davis then ran through a vacant lot to their getaway car.

Police soon responded and began to canvas the neighborhood of the crime scene. Among the officers on scene were the defendants, Detroit Police Department (DPD) Sergeant Michael Russell and Homicide Commander James Tolbert, and non-party Investigator Dale Collins. Witnesses at the scene told the police that the shooters were two black men, 30 to 35 years old, with brown skin and slim to medium builds. One was just over six feet tall, and the other just under six feet. Both men were wearing dark clothes and masks, and the taller man (Smothers), was wearing a coat and carrying a rifle.

From their survey of the scene, the police observed that the perpetrators began their shooting rampage outside, firing into the house through the front door and windows. Then they went inside and continued shooting at the persons they found inside. The four victims all were killed in the living room, and a handgun and assault rifle were used during the attack. A seven-year-old boy was found hiding under a bed in the back room with his mother, Valerie Glover. Glover told police that one of the attackers had spoken to her briefly, then left the house. Several marijuana plants were found growing in the basement, and neighbors told police that they thought Robinson had been selling drugs out of the home. The police also spoke to King, who told them that he had exchanged fire with one of the shooters as the men ran away from the house.

Plaintiff Davontae Sanford was 14 years old at the time and lived nearby on Beland Street. He was blind in one eye, functionally illiterate, and had a learning disability. When the police showed up, Sanford went outside, still in his pajamas, to ask them what was going on. Defendant Russell approached Sanford and asked him some questions about the shooting, which Sanford could not answer, since he did not know anything about the crime. Nearby, a K-9 officer was standing with his dog, who had been searching the scene, but the dog did not react to or show any interest in Sanford. Sanford also had no trace of blood on his clothes or person, despite the abundance of blood at the gory scene where multiple victims had been executed. Russell told Investigator Collins to take Sanford to his home and obtain parental consent to question the boy, and Collins secured a signed consent form from Sanford's grandmother. The defendants then transported Sanford to the police station, where they performed a gunshot residue test on his hands, and then interrogated him. The residue test eventually came back with a negative result.

Over the next two days, Sanford was interrogated twice by Russell and Tolbert. During one of those interrogations (it is unclear which), Sanford told the defendants that he recently had smoked marijuana and was still feeling the effect of it. The defendants also were aware of Sanford's learning disability. Nevertheless, and despite his young age, Russell and Tolbert questioned Sanford without an attorney or guardian present, contrary to DPD policy. The first interrogation ran for several hours into the morning of September 18th, and at the end of that first session Sanford signed a confession. Sanford's purported written confession, which was composed and typed up by Russell, stated that Sanford was present during the planning of the crime, but not during the shooting, and that the executions were carried out by three persons named as "Tone," "Tone-Tone," and "Carrie." The only accurate details in the statement were inserted by the defendants when it was composed, which were (1) that a handgun and assault rifle were used, (2) that the name of the intended victim was Michael or Mike, and (3) that there was a red car in the driveway of the home.

Sanford was released and went home after he signed the first statement. However, around 8:40 p.m. on September 18th, Russell and Tolbert went to Sanford's home and spoke to Sanford and his mother, Taminko Sanford. The officers did not inform Ms. Sanford that they already had obtained a statement from Davontae in which he implicated himself. But they did obtain another signed parental consent to further question the boy. Sanford was taken to the police station, where Russell began to interrogate him a second time around 9:30 p.m. The defendants lied to Sanford during the interrogation, telling him that he would be free to go afterwards, also falsely telling him that blood from the scene had been found on his shoes. When Sanford asked for an attorney, Russell responded by calling him a "dumbass," and he told Sanford that no attorneys were available at that hour. Russell and Tolbert concocted another written confession, which included additional details police had learned about the crime, including that the shooting had started outside, there were two gunmen involved who used a handgun and a rifle, the specific positions of bodies found at the scene, the survivors found hiding in a back room, and the fact that the shooters had traded shots with a witness after they left the house. The description of the clothing Sanford was wearing when he first was encountered by police also differed in the second statement and better matched the description of clothing witnesses had seen the gunmen wearing.

Russell and Tolbert reported, and later testified, that Sanford also had drawn a diagram of the crime scene that was attached to the second written confession. However, Tolbert had drawn that diagram and given it to Sanford, with instructions to sketch in the locations of bodies to match photographs of the scene that were shown to Sanford during the interrogation. During a 2015 investigation, Tolbert confessed to Michigan State Police investigators that he had drawn the sketch and that he falsely had testified that it was drawn by Sanford.

The interrogation facilities had audio and video recording features, but those were not active during most of the interrogation. Instead they only were turned on at the end, when police directed Sanford to “proofread” his confession (which he, however, could neither read nor understand, due to his illiteracy).

In the second statement, the perpetrators of the shooting were identified as “Los, Tone-Tone, PBI Tone, and Carrie,” but police later learned that none of those persons were involved. In particular, on September 29, 2007, DPD officers learned that Angelo Gardner, a.k.a. “Los,” and Antonio Langston, a.k.a. “PBI Tone,” both had solid alibis, and Gardner and Langston never were charged for the Runyon Street shooting. DPD officers later arrested Santo Green, a.k.a. “Tone-Tone,” but he never was charged either.

Sanford was charged with four counts of first-degree murder, based solely on the purported written confession and the sketch that he supposedly had drawn. During a psychiatric exam ordered after his arraignment, Sanford insisted he was innocent and that the police had fabricated and coerced his confession. The written statements and sketch were used as evidence at Sanford’s preliminary examination, and at a bench trial in March 2008. The defendants also testified that all of the facts in the written statements were volunteered by Sanford with no prompting from his interrogators, and that many of them would have been known only by the shooters.

Sanford entered a mid-trial guilty plea to the four murder charges (reduced to second-degree murder) and one firearm count. On April 4, 2008, the state court sentenced him to four concurrent terms of 37 to 90 years for the murder counts and an additional two-year term for the gun count.

On April 19, 2008, two weeks after Davontae went to prison, Vincent Smothers was arrested outside his home in Shelby Township and taken in for questioning by police. Smothers was interviewed by police over the course of two days, and he confessed that he had committed multiple murders in the Detroit area in 2006 and 2007, including the Runyon Street shootings.

Smothers told police that Sanford was not involved in the Runyon Street murders, and he volunteered several facts about the crimes that previously were unknown to police, including that his accomplice and the other shooter was Ernest Davis, that Davis had used a .45 caliber pistol and Smothers used an AK-47, that Davis had fired from outside the house, that Smothers found a woman and child hiding under a bed in the back room, and spoke briefly to them before leaving, that he had taken a .40 caliber pistol from the scene which he later used in another contract killing, and that when he learned there was a warrant out for his arrest, he told his wife to hide the guns used at Runyon Street in a house that belonged to Davis's cousin.

One of the officers who questioned Smothers was defendant Russell. During an intermission, when Russell took Smothers to the bathroom, he instructed Smothers to stop making statements about the Runyon Street shooting. In May 2008, Smothers was interviewed again by DPD Investigator Ira Todd, and he again confessed to the Runyon Street shootings. Smothers eventually was charged with eight of the twelve murders in which he had confessed his involvement — every one except the four shootings on Runyon Street.

In 2008, Sanford's appellate lawyer learned about Smothers' confession from news reports. Sanford filed a post-conviction motion asserting his innocence, supported in part by an affidavit supplied by Smothers. In 2015, the Michigan State Police began an investigation into alleged police misconduct surrounding the Runyon Street murder investigation. As noted above, Tolbert finally confessed to state police investigators then that he had fabricated the sketch supposedly drawn by Sanford. The evidence collected by the state police also included the contents of victim Michael Robinson's cell phone, which included a photograph of a .40 caliber pistol that resembled the gun used by Smothers in one of the murders to which he confessed (the same gun that Smothers told police he had taken away from the Runyon Street scene).

On May 20, 2016, the state police submitted a report of the investigation to the Wayne County Prosecutor's office. On June 8, 2016, Sanford's attorneys and the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office submitted a joint stipulation asking the trial court to set aside Sanford's conviction, and Sanford was released from custody. Finally, on July 19, 2016, the state court dismissed all of the charges against him.

The plaintiff filed his complaint in this case on September 18, 2017. The defendants filed a motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer. The complaint pleads four counts alleging violations of various constitutional amendments via 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and the Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA), and a separate claim against the City of Detroit. In Count I, the complaint alleges that the police violated the plaintiff's right to due process under the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments by (1) fabricating inculpatory evidence, (2) withholding exculpatory evidence that they were required to disclose under Brady v. Maryland, and (3) compelling, manipulating, and coercing the plaintiff to make a false confession. In Count II Sanford alleges that the police violated his rights under the Fourth Amendment by instigating a malicious prosecution against him based on fabricated evidence and without probable cause.

In Count III, Sanford alleges that the City of Detroit endorsed the illegal conduct by the defendants through customs, policies, and practices of pursuing rushed, shoddy investigations of high profile cases in order to secure quick arrests and convictions of any available suspect, while deliberately ignoring and suppressing evidence that pointed to anyone other than the designated suspect, and, subsequently, bestowing commendations and promotions on officers who secured rapid arrests and convictions, even when supervisors knew about dishonest and illegal conduct during their investigations. Sanford alleges in the complaint that defendant Tolbert was promoted to Commander of the Detroit Police Department's Major Crimes Unit in 2005, the same year when he was accused by Southfield police of filing a false police report (a felony).

In Count IV, Sanford alleges that when he was arrested and interrogated, he had intellectual and learning disabilities, was a minor (age 14), and was illiterate, and that he therefore was subject to a disability under the ADA, but instead of reasonably accommodating the plaintiff's disability and ensuring that he understood what was happening during his interrogation, the police instead intentionally exploited his diminished mental capacity by subjecting him to extended interrogation sessions, telling him to sign documents including a confession that he could not read or understand, and leading him to believe that he would be allowed to go free if he confessed, although that obviously was false.

In their motion, the defendants challenge each of these counts.

II. Post-Bankruptcy Claim Against Detroit

In 2013, the City of Detroit filed for protection under Chapter 9 of the Bankruptcy Code. The bankruptcy court set a date of February 21, 2014 for filing a proof of claim against the City. The City argues that Sanford's claims against it are barred by the discharge that resulted from the approval of the City's final plan of adjustment, which occurred on November 12, 2014. Sanford responds that none of the claims are barred by the bankruptcy, because they did not accrue, and he could not have asserted them by the exercise of reasonable diligence, before his conviction was vacated in 2016.

It is undisputed that Sanford never filed a proof of claim in the bankruptcy proceeding. The critical question is whether Sanford's claims raised against the City in this lawsuit are prepetition "claims." The City's liability on prepetition claims "was discharged when the Plan [of Adjustment] was confirmed on November 12, 2014, and became effective on December 10, 2014." In re City of Detroit, Michigan, 548 B.R. 748, 751 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 2016). Claimants seeking damages from the City based on claims that can be characterized as prepetition claims "are enjoined from pursuing a recovery beyond what is provided for in the Plan." Ibid. (citing 11 U.S.C. §§ 524(a)(2), 901(a), 944).

"The Bankruptcy Code defines 'claim' as a 'right to payment, whether or not such right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured, or unsecured.'" Id. at 761 (quoting 11 U.S.C. § 101(5)). "Congress intended by this language to adopt the broadest available definition of "claim," which includes 'all legal obligations of the debtor, no matter how remote or contingent.'" Ibid. (quoting Johnson v. Home State Bank, 501 U.S. 78, 83 (1991); In re Huffly Corp., 424 B.R. 295, 301 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 2010) (quotations marks omitted)).

“‘[F]ederal law determines when a claim arises under the Bankruptcy Code.’” In re Castellino Villas, AKF, LLC, 836 F.3d 1028, 1034 (9th Cir. 2016) (quoting In re SNTL Corp., 571 F.3d 826, 839 (9th Cir. 2009)). When determining whether a creditor’s claim arose before a bankruptcy petition was filed, most federal courts, including bankruptcy courts within the Sixth Circuit, “use the ‘fair contemplation’ test. Under this test, ‘a claim arises when a claimant can fairly or reasonably contemplate the claim’s existence even if a cause of action has not yet accrued under nonbankruptcy law.’” Ibid. (quoting SNTL Corp., 571 F.3d at 839); see also In re City of Detroit, Michigan, 548 B.R. at 761 (collecting cases). “‘It is well-established that a claim is ripe as an allowable claim in a bankruptcy proceeding even if it is a cause of action that has not yet accrued.’” SNTL Corp., 571 F.3d at 839 (quoting VillCool Fuel, Inc. v. Board of Equalization (In re Cool Fuel, Inc.), 210 F.3d 999, 1007 (9th Cir. 2000)).

It must be said here that all Sanford’s claims against the City were within his “fair contemplation” before the City declared bankruptcy. He certainly contemplated the factual bases underlying the claims raised in the complaint, since he attempted repeatedly to argue actual innocence before the state courts since at least 2008, insisting that his confession was falsely obtained, concocted, and coerced. Sanford correctly points out that he could not have sued the City until his convictions were set aside, which did not happen until after the bankruptcy. But the courts that have considered the question uniformly have concluded that claims based on prepetition malicious prosecutions were barred, notwithstanding that the plaintiff could not file suit on his claims until his criminal conviction was overturned.

For instance, in In re Motors Liquidation Co., 576 B.R. 761 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2017), the court, confronting similar facts, concluded that the claims based on prepetition misconduct were barred, notwithstanding that the plaintiff could not file suit until after the criminal case against him was dismissed, which occurred post-petition. The plaintiff, Gillispie, brought a claim alleging that certain General Motors employees were complicit in causing his wrongful conviction for rape, kidnapping and robbery. The employees' conduct predated the automaker's bankruptcy filing, but Gillispie's convictions were not vacated until after the bankruptcy filing. In finding the claims barred, the court found "irrelevant" the fact that non-bankruptcy law prevented Gillispie from bringing his claim against GM until his convictions were set aside, because "the 'accrued state law claim theory' does not apply to the determination whether a creditor has a 'claim' under section 101(5)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code." Id. at 777. The court explained:

The occurrence of the contingency event that would trigger Old GM's potential liability, namely the vacation of the conviction, was within the actual or presumed contemplation of Gillispie at the time he was convicted allegedly as a result of the conduct of GM employees. Gillispie surely knew (and believed) that his conviction was not warranted based on Old GM's employees' testimony, and as a result[,] Gillispie "has steadfastly maintained his innocence and labored tirelessly for over 20 years to clear his name." Gillispie initiated proceedings to vacate or reverse his conviction as soon as he was convicted. For example, as soon as February 26, 1991 — two weeks after his conviction — Gillispie filed a motion in state court seeking a new trial.

Ibid. Because Gillispie's claims were contingent on the successful termination of his criminal case, and were disputed and unliquidated, they were "contingent claims within the meaning of section 101(5)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code. To preserve the claims in this bankruptcy case, Gillispie had to file a proof of claim before the Bar Date." Ibid.; see also Stone v. Kmart Corp., No. 06-302, 2007 WL 1034959, at *3 (M.D. Ala. Mar. 30, 2007) ("The accrual time for Plaintiff's malicious prosecution claim under Alabama law does not control this action. The relevant inquiry is whether a claim has accrued under bankruptcy law based upon the statutory definition of a claim. The court finds that Plaintiff's claim accrued for purposes of bankruptcy law prior to the Bar Date. Applying the broad definition of claim to the facts of this case, Plaintiff, at the time of her arrest, had an arguably remote claim for malicious prosecution against Kmart. The scope of the term claim, as determined through the legislative history of the Bankruptcy Code, is more than broad enough to accommodate a malicious prosecution action, although the action has not accrued for purposes of state law.”).

For the same reasons, Sanford’s claims against the City must be considered prepetition claims. As such, it is barred by the City’s bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §§ 524(a)(2) (“A discharge in a case under this title . . . operates as an injunction against the commencement or continuation of an action, the employment of process, or an act, to collect, recover or offset any such debt as a personal liability of the debtor, whether or not discharge of such debt is waived . . .”).

III. Claims Against the Officers

Sanford brings his claims against the individual defendants under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), 42 U.S.C. § 12132.

Defendants Russell and Tolbert argue that (1) the plaintiff is estopped from proceeding with any claims against them for his wrongful conviction because his guilty pleas, and the subsequent affirmance of his convictions by the state courts, were “superseding causes” of his damages; (2) the Brady claims are barred because (a) the State had no obligation to disclose any information about the other person who confessed to the crimes of conviction, after the plaintiff pleaded guilty and was convicted, (b) the information about the falsity of the plaintiff’s confession and the fabrication of the sketch was equally available to the plaintiff, and the State therefore had no obligation to disclose any such information to him, and (c) fabricated information in police reports that were not disclosed was inadmissible hearsay, and the State has no obligation to disclose any information that does not constitute evidence; (3) the plaintiff is judicially estopped from asserting that he was unable to read or write, because he testified under oath at his plea hearing that he could read and write English; and (4) the plaintiff’s ADA claim for failure to provide reasonable accommodations during his interrogation accrued 10 years ago when he was interrogated, his Brady claims accrued nine years ago when he became aware of the allegedly falsified and withheld information, his claims based on a coerced confession accrued when his confession was used against him during the trial proceedings, and the limitations period was not tolled due to the plaintiff's incarceration and expired after any period of tolling due to the plaintiff's minority, so all of those claims are time barred under Michigan's three-year statute of limitations.

To state a claim under section 1983, the plaintiff must plead facts showing that a defendant acting "under color of state law" deprived him of a right established by the Constitution or the laws of the United States. Baynes v. Cleland, 799 F.3d 600, 607 (6th Cir. 2015) (citing Sigley v. City of Parma Heights, 437 F.3d 527, 533 (6th Cir. 2006)). The plaintiff must establish the liability of each individual defendant by that person's own conduct. Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 676 (2009) ("Because vicarious liability is inapplicable to Bivens and § 1983 suits, a plaintiff must plead that each Government-official defendant, through the official's own individual actions, has violated the Constitution."). Sanford contends that the conduct of both Russell and Tolbert deprived him of rights guaranteed by the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments and the ADA.

A. Claims Relating to Police Misconduct

1. Coerced Confession

Sanford contends that his confession, and later his guilty plea, were coerced by the defendants' misconduct. The misconduct consisted of fabricating evidence, deception, refusing a request for a lawyer, and exploiting the plaintiff's illiteracy and mental deficiencies. The complaint plainly states a claim under the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments.

It is true that extracting an involuntary confession by itself does not establish the civil liability of the interrogator under section 1983. Chavez v. Martinez, 538 U.S. 760, 766-67 (2003).

However, “[u]sing a coerced confession against the accused at trial may give rise to a claim for violation of the accused’s Fifth Amendment right not to be a witness against himself.” Avery v. City of Milwaukee, 847 F.3d 433, 439 n.2 (7th Cir. 2017) (citing Chavez, 538 U.S. at 767).

A confession is involuntary when “(i) the police activity was objectively coercive; (ii) the coercion in question was sufficient to overbear the defendant’s will; (iii) and the alleged police misconduct was the crucial motivating factor in the defendant’s decision to offer the statements.” United States v. Binford, 818 F.3d 261, 271 (6th Cir. 2016) (quoting United States v. Mahan, 190 F.3d 416, 422 (6th Cir. 1999)).

The plaintiff plausibly has alleged sufficient facts establishing each of these elements. He has outlined how the conduct of Tolbert and Russell was objectively coercive, when these defendants, knowing of his minority and his learning disability, induced Sanford to endorse a written confession and purported accompanying sketch of the crime scene which, due to his mental condition and illiteracy, he had no reasonable capacity knowingly or intelligently to comprehend or adopt. Moreover, the complaint also alleges that, during the second interrogation, at the end of which Sanford purportedly signed a second and more detailed written confession, the defendants refused the plaintiff’s request for an attorney and assured the plaintiff that he would be free to go if he confessed. Promises by police that a suspect would not be prosecuted may be illusory and suffice to show coercion where the police had no authority control whether the defendant would be charged or not based on the evidence collected by them. United States v. Siler, 526 F. App’x 573, 576 (6th Cir. 2013).

The plaintiff also alleges that the confession played a major role in his midtrial guilty plea, thereby connecting the defendants’ misconduct as a “crucial motivating factor” in his decision to plead guilty. Sanford has stated a viable claim for violation of his rights under the Fifth

Amendment's self-incrimination and due process clauses. See Sornberger v. City of Knoxville, Ill., 434 F.3d 1006, 1025 (7th Cir. 2006) (“[W]here, as here, a suspect’s criminal prosecution was not only initiated, but was commenced because of her allegedly un-warned confession, the ‘criminal case’ contemplated by the Self-Incrimination Clause has begun.”); Avery, 847 F.3d at 439.

2. Malicious Prosecution

The plaintiff also amply has made out viable claims for malicious prosecution under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments. The complaint states facts establishing these elements: “(1) that a criminal prosecution was initiated against the plaintiff and that the defendant made, influenced, or participated in the decision to prosecute; (2) that there was a lack of probable cause for the criminal prosecution; (3) that, as a consequence of a legal proceeding, the plaintiff suffered a deprivation of liberty apart from the initial seizure; and (4) that the criminal proceeding must have been resolved in the plaintiff’s favor.” Mills v. Barnard, 869 F.3d 473, 480 (6th Cir. 2017) (quotations omitted).

The plaintiff charges that the defendants induced a fraudulent prosecution that resulted in the defendant’s guilty plea to four murders that he did not commit. Those allegations track “[t]he prototypical case of malicious prosecution[, which] involves an official who fabricates evidence that leads to the wrongful arrest or indictment of an innocent person.” Ibid. So it is here. The Sixth Circuit readily has recognized malicious prosecution claims where the police instigate a fraudulent prosecution by presenting false evidence and lying under oath. Sykes v. Anderson, 625 F.3d 294, 313-14 (6th Cir. 2010) (“[W]e have no trouble concluding that a reasonable jury could have found that Sgt. Nichols influenced or participated in the decision to prosecute and that her false testimony was thus one cause of the commencement of the criminal proceedings against the Plaintiffs.” (rejecting argument that police officers did not “make the decision” to prosecute)).

B. Superseding Cause

The defendants take the curious position that the plaintiff’s guilty plea, and state court appellate rulings upholding his conviction, were “superseding causes” of his damages that bar him from recovering for the defendants’ misconduct. But the two cases that they cite to support that theory readily are distinguishable because in those cases the plaintiffs’ convictions had not been overturned, and in one case the allegedly fabricated evidence supported a single charge that had been dismissed. Reyes v. City of New York, 992 F. Supp. 2d 290, 298 (S.D.N.Y. 2014) (“Plaintiff did not plead guilty to the tampering with evidence charge that the purportedly fabricated evidence [a packet of heroin] created (as it was dropped) — thus, the charge formed no part of his criminal sentence.”); Barmapov v. Barry, No. 09-03390, 2011 WL 32371, at *4 (E.D.N.Y. Jan. 5, 2011) (“Plaintiff was convicted by guilty plea on September 8, 2009, and sentenced to ninety days imprisonment. As ninety days after September 8, 2009 have long since elapsed, and there is no evidence that Plaintiff is currently incarcerated, this Court can only conclude that Plaintiff is no longer ‘in custody.’”).

All the other cases that might illuminate the argument involved claims of alleged Fourth Amendment violations for unreasonable searches or seizures without probable cause, which the courts uniformly held were barred by subsequent guilty pleas or admissions that resulted in still-intact convictions. Brown v. Morales, No. 13-1056, 2017 WL 6949522, at *5 (W.D.N.Y. Oct. 10, 2017), report and recommendation adopted, No. 13-1056, 2018 WL 451823 (W.D.N.Y. Jan. 17, 2018) (“Because Plaintiff pled guilty to multiple counts in the superseding indictment, there is conclusive evidence that probable cause existed for his arrest, and his false arrest claim should be barred.”); Masetta v. Town of Irondequoit, No. 06-6143, 2010 WL 4823684, at *4 (W.D.N.Y. Nov. 29, 2010) (“[A] guilty plea on an underlying charge establishes probable cause as a matter of law.”); Padilla v. Miller, 143 F. Supp. 2d 453, 477 (M.D. Pa. 1999) (“At trial, Fayne Padilla admitted that the firearms found in his trunk were not owned by him and that he was carrying the concealed weapons and ammunition without a license to do so. Under these circumstances, Trooper Miller’s violation of Padilla’s Fourth Amendment rights cannot be regarded as the proximate cause of Fayne Padilla’s incarceration.”).

In this case, Sanford is not attempting to recover merely for an unlawful initial arrest or an unreasonable search — violations which are complete when they occur, regardless of the ultimate outcome of the criminal proceeding. Instead, he is seeking damages arising from a wrongful prosecution and conviction — which, the plaintiff alleges, inevitably compelled his fateful decision to plead guilty in the face of substantial false evidence manufactured by the police and presented to the court at his bench trial. The defendants’ position that they should be absolved of liability for stacking the deck against the plaintiff because their efforts to corner him into a guilty plea succeeded is nonsense, and they cite no authority to support it. Instead, the Supreme Court has stated that “§ 1983 ‘should be read against the background of tort liability that makes a man responsible for the natural consequences of his actions.’” Malley v. Briggs, 475 U.S. 335, 345 (1986) (quoting Monroe v. Pape, 365 U.S. 167, 187 (1961)).

Sanford unquestionably has pleaded facts that demonstrate the defendants’ wrongful conduct caused his damages. “Traditional tort concepts of causation inform the causation inquiry on a § 1983 claim.” Powers v. Hamilton Cty. Pub. Def. Comm’n, 501 F.3d 592, 608 (6th Cir. 2007) (citing McKinley v. City of Mansfield, 404 F.3d 418, 438 (6th Cir. 2005)). Sanford has alleged that Tolbert’s and Russell’s conduct was both a cause-in-fact and the proximate cause of his injuries. He has alleged that his prosecution and incarceration for a crime he did not commit “would not have occurred but for the[ir] conduct.” Ibid. (citing Butler v. Dowd, 979 F.2d 661, 669 (8th Cir. 1992)). And he has plausibly alleged that his damages were the foreseeable result of their misconduct in fabricating a case against him. Id. at 609 (noting that “courts have framed the § 1983 proximate-cause question as a matter of foreseeability, asking whether it was reasonably foreseeable that the complained of harm would befall the § 1983 plaintiff as a result of the defendant’s conduct”).

The defendants’ attempt to foist responsibility on the state courts fares no better, because judicial action does not “supersede” the defendants’ liability where the instigation and progress of the trial and appellate process was tainted by the defendants’ deception. Cf. Geronimo-Dominguez v. Vill. of Albion, No. 07-406C, 2009 WL 3128311, at *3 (W.D.N.Y. Sept. 29, 2009) (“A valid prosecution resulting in conviction is conclusive evidence that probable cause existed for an arrest.”); Wray v. City of New York, 490 F.3d 189, 193 (2d Cir. 2007) (“In the absence of evidence that Officer Weller misled or pressured the prosecution or trial judge, we cannot conclude that his conduct caused the violation of Wray’s constitutional rights; rather, the violation was caused by the ill-considered acts and decisions of the prosecutor and trial judge.”) (emphases added).

Nothing about Sanford’s guilty plea sensibly can be regarded as an intervening or superseding cause that isolated the defendants’ misconduct and prevented it from visiting damages for the constitutional violations Sanford alleged. Sanford has pleaded viable claims for these violations of his rights.

C. Brady v. Maryland Claims

Sanford also plausibly has alleged violations of his Fourteenth Amendment due process rights based on the defendants’ unconscionable conduct in falsifying evidence against him and suppressing evidence that would have prompted his exoneration (and eventually did). It is well established that “the suppression by the prosecution of evidence favorable to an accused upon request violates due process where the evidence is material either to guilt or to punishment, irrespective of the good faith or bad faith of the prosecution.” Wearry v. Cain, --- U.S. ---, 136 S. Ct. 1002, 1006 (2016) (quoting Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83, 87 (1963)).

The defendants persistently fixate on the plaintiff’s knowledge of his own innocence. But they ignore the crucial evidence that was so stubbornly suppressed by them, namely their admissions that they made up evidence and concocted a written confession out of whole cloth, and then lied under oath to the prosecutor and the state trial court to procure a conviction. However, courts have “[c]onsistently held that a police officer who manufactures false evidence against a criminal defendant violates due process if that evidence is later used to deprive the defendant of [his] liberty in some way.” Avery, 847 F.3d at 439 (quoting Whitlock v. Brueggemann, 682 F.3d 567, 580 (7th Cir. 2012); citing Mooney v. Holohan, 294 U.S. 103, 112 (1935) (“[T]he presentation of testimony known to be perjured . . . to procure the conviction and imprisonment of a defendant is as inconsistent with the rudimentary demands of justice as is the obtaining of a like result by intimidation.”)).

The defendants’ confessions of their own lies certainly would have been admissible in any court proceeding. And their admissions would have lent decisive weight to the plaintiff’s claims that he was innocent — likely, as it did nearly a decade later, promptly leading to his exoneration and the dismissal of the case against him. Those facts certainly suffice to sustain a substantive due process claim. Winslow v. Smith, 696 F.3d 716, 736 (8th Cir. 2012) (“Plaintiffs assert that their substantive due process rights were violated when Defendants conducted a conscience-shocking reckless investigation and amassed false evidence that was used to box Plaintiffs into entering guilty pleas. . . . Accordingly, we find Plaintiffs have pointed to sufficient evidence to support their claims based on a conscience-shocking, reckless investigation and manufactured false evidence.”).

The plaintiff also plausibly has alleged violations of his post-conviction due process rights caused by the defendants’ continued efforts to obscure and conceal the evidence that another person had confessed to the murders. According to the complaint, defendant Russell went as far as brazenly coaching the confessed true killer to “keep quiet” about his guilt and Sanford’s innocence. “In 2009, the Supreme Court acknowledged that convicted individuals ‘have a liberty interest in demonstrating [their] innocence with new evidence under state law.’” Howard v. City of Durham, No. 17-477, 2018 WL 1621823, at *4 (M.D.N.C. Mar. 31, 2018) (quoting District Attorney’s Office for Third Judicial Dist. v. Osborne, 557 U.S. 52, 68 (2009)). “While Osborne recognizes that a ‘criminal defendant proved guilty after a fair trial does not have the same liberty interests as a free man,’ it also makes clear that conduct that ‘transgresses any recognized principle of fundamental fairness in operation’ can cause a violation of a convicted individual’s right to demonstrate his innocence with new evidence.” Ibid. (quoting 557 U.S. at 68-69). The Howard court had little difficulty when facing similar facts finding a viable claim for denial of post-conviction due process:

Howard represents, and the officers do not dispute, that the 2011 court order directed the DPD to “immediately share with counsel for Mr. Howard any information it possesses about the man whose DNA was detected in Doris W.’s sexual assault kit.” Howard further alleges that Soucie and Pennica intentionally suppressed the recording of Jones and its contents, despite that order. The recording was plausibly key evidence, as Howard was exonerated at the hearing when it was presented to the state court. As such, the court finds that a reasonable person in the position of Soucie and Pennica should have known that suppression of the recording would violate the court’s disclosure order and Howard’s right to post-conviction relief, pursuant to his liberty interest. Moreover, that Soucie and Pennica acted intentionally in violation of the order is plausibly alleged, given the detailed allegations regarding their involvement in the case and that they provided a written report that allegedly misrepresented their interactions with Jones and omitted the fact that Jones made incriminating, contradictory, and inconsistent statements.

Howard, 2018 WL 1621823, at *5 (citations omitted).

Similarly, Sanford has stated a viable claim for violation of his rights under the Fourteenth Amendment's Due Process Clause.

D. Americans with Disabilities Act

The plaintiff alleges that the defendants violated the ADA by their failure to account for his mental limitations during his interrogation, and, moreover, their apparent cynical and deliberate exploitation of those limitations, of which they allegedly were aware. Title II of the ADA “provides that ‘no qualified individual with a disability shall, by reason of such disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of a public entity, or be subjected to discrimination by any such entity.’” Roell v. Hamilton County, 870 F.3d 471, 488 (6th Cir. 2017) (quoting 42 U.S.C. § 12132). “Neither the Supreme Court nor [the Sixth Circuit] has squarely addressed whether Title II of the ADA applies in the context of an arrest.” Id. at 489. However, “several [other] circuits [] have found Title II applicable to law-enforcement activities, including arrests.” Ibid.

Two types of claims can be brought under Title II: “claims for intentional discrimination and claims for a reasonable accommodation.” Ibid. (citing Ability Center of Greater Toledo v. City of Sandusky, 385 F.3d 901, 907 (6th Cir. 2004)). The Eighth Circuit has held that both types of ADA claims may arise from exploitative police conduct in the course of a custodial interrogation, on facts that pale against the stark allegations in the complaint in this case. See Folkerts v. City of Waverly, 707 F.3d 975, 983-84 (8th Cir. 2013).

The defendants contend that the plaintiff is “judicially estopped” from claiming that he cannot read or write (or could not in 2007), based on his monosyllabic response to the trial judge’s question on that point during the plea colloquy. Defs.’ Reply, Ex. 7, Plea Tr. at 71 (“Q. You can read and write the English language without trouble? A. Yes.”) (Pg ID 1780).

“Judicial estoppel is an ‘equitable doctrine that preserves the integrity of the courts by preventing a party from abusing the judicial process through cynical gamesmanship, achieving success on one position, then arguing the opposite to suit an exigency of the moment.’” United States v. Bates, 730 F. App’s 281, 283 (6th Cir. 2017) (quoting Mirando v. United States Dep’t of Treasury, 766 F.3d 540, 545 (6th Cir. 2014)). “While declining to establish ‘inflexible prerequisites or an exhaustive formula for determining the applicability of judicial estoppel,’ the Supreme Court identified three factors that often guide a court in deciding whether to apply the doctrine: ‘First, a party’s later position must be clearly inconsistent with its earlier position. Second, courts regularly inquire whether the party has succeeded in persuading a court to accept that party’s earlier position, so that judicial acceptance of an inconsistent position in a later proceeding would create the perception that either the first or the second court was misled. . . . A third consideration is whether the party seeking to assert an inconsistent position would derive an unfair advantage or impose an unfair detriment on the opposing party if not estopped.’” Ibid. (quoting New Hampshire v. Maine, 532 U.S. 742, 750-51 (2001)). However, “it is ‘well-settled that judicial estoppel does not apply where the prior inconsistent position occurred because of mistake or inadvertence.’” Ibid. (quoting Lewis v. Weyerhaeuser Co., 141 F. App’x 420, 425 (6th Cir. 2005)); see also New Hampshire v. Maine, 532 U.S. at 753 (“We do not question that it may be appropriate to resist application of judicial estoppel when a party’s prior position was based on inadvertence or mistake.” (quotations omitted)).

The balance of equities does not favor the application of judicial estoppel here, because (1) the plaintiff does not stand to procure any “unfair advantage” by his supposed contradictory positions; and (2) in any event, he plausibly has alleged that his mental condition was such that he reasonably could have given his answer in the criminal proceeding inadvertently or by mistake — i.e., because he did not fully understand the nature or consequences of the question posed to him.

The complaint states cognizable claims for intentional discrimination and denial of reasonable accommodations under Title II of the ADA.

E. Statute of Limitations

Finally, the defendants contend that the plaintiff's claims are time-barred. "Although the statute of limitations is an affirmative defense, a claim may be dismissed under Rule 12(b)(6) if the complaint affirmatively shows that the claim is time-barred." Lambert v. Sessions, No. 17-5324, 2017 WL 8217699, at *2 (6th Cir. Oct. 4, 2017) (citing Cataldo v. U.S. Steel Corp., 676 F.3d 542, 547 (6th Cir. 2012) ("The statute of limitations is an affirmative defense, and a plaintiff generally need not plead the lack of affirmative defenses to state a valid claim.") (citing Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a), (c))). The defendants argue that Sanford did not file his complaint within three years of when his claims accrued. They contend that the plaintiff's claims accrued either when he was interrogated or confessed, or when he was convicted.

In Michigan, a three-year statute of limitations applies to federal claims brought under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Scott v. Ambani, 577 F.3d 642, 646 (6th Cir. 2009). The date on which a section 1983 claim accrues is determined by reference to federal law and in accordance with common-law tort principles. Wallace v. Kato, 549 U.S. 384, 388 (2007). "Under those principles, it is the standard rule that accrual occurs when the plaintiff has a complete and present cause of action, that is, when the plaintiff can file suit and obtain relief." Ibid. (internal citations, quotations marks, and brackets omitted). That rule was complicated, however, by the Court's earlier decision in Heck v. Humphrey, 512 U.S. 477 (1994), which held that "a § 1983 cause of action for damages attributable to an unconstitutional conviction or sentence does not accrue until the conviction or sentence has been invalidated.” Id. at 489–90. The conviction is invalidated when it “has been reversed on direct appeal, expunged by executive order, declared invalid by a state tribunal authorized to make such determination, or called into question by a federal court’s issuance of a writ of habeas corpus.” Id. at 487.

Sanford’s claims are timely because it is undisputed that they were filed within three years after the criminal proceedings against the plaintiff terminated in his favor, by the trial court’s order of dismissal. See King v. Harwood, 852 F.3d 568, 579 (6th Cir. 2017). “Because an ‘element that must be alleged and proved in a malicious prosecution action is termination of the prior criminal proceeding in favor of the accused,’ the statute of limitations in such an action does not begin to run until ‘the plaintiff knows or has reason to know of’ such favorable termination.” Ibid. (quoting Heck v. Humphrey, 512 U.S. 477, 484 (1994); Eidson v. State of Tenn. Dept. of Children’s Servs., 510 F.3d 631, 635 (6th Cir. 2007)). The same can be said of Sanford’s other claims, since he was convicted and success on his claims would imply the invalidity of the convictions. See Kucharski v. Leveille, 526 F. Supp. 2d 768, 774 (E.D. Mich. 2007).

Curiously, the defendants argue that Heck does not apply to prolong the accrual date of Sanford’s claims because the criminal proceedings have not terminated in the plaintiff’s favor, since the dismissal was “without prejudice.” But the record is unclear on the precise nature of the trial court’s order, since no copy of that order was attached to the pleadings, and none is evident from the portions of the trial court record so far submitted to the Court. In any event, the Sixth Circuit readily has found that the third element under Heck is satisfied where the prosecution has been “abandoned” by the State, without regard to whether the dismissal was “with” or “without” prejudice. E.g., Mills, 869 F.3d at 479-480 (“In 2014, Mills filed a motion to dismiss the indictment, and the State responded with a nolle prosequi motion. The Marshall County Circuit Court entered a nolle prosequi order on April 4, 2014. . . . There appears to be no dispute that Mills suffered a deprivation of liberty and that the proceeding was eventually resolved in his favor”); Black’s Law Dictionary (10th ed. 2014) (“Nolle Prosequi: 1. A legal notice that a lawsuit or prosecution has been abandoned. 2. A docket entry showing that the plaintiff or the prosecution has abandoned the action.”); King, 852 F.3d at 576 (“On October 9, 2014, the Spencer Circuit Court entered an order dismissing the charges against King, thereby terminating the criminal prosecution against her. King now seeks to bring claims under both 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and Kentucky tort law against Defendants, chiefly arising from her prosecution and confinement.”) (emphases added).

Sanford’s claims are not time-barred.

IV. Conclusion

Plaintiff Davontae Sanford’s claims against the City of Detroit must be considered prepetition claims that are barred by the approval of the City’s final plan of adjustment, which was approved by the bankruptcy court on November 12, 2014. However, he has stated viable claims against defendants Michael Russell and James Tolbert. Their challenges to those claims in their motion to dismiss have no merit.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the defendants’ motion to dismiss (ECF No. 36) is GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART.

It is further ORDERED that the complaint is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE against defendant City of Detroit only. The motion is DENIED in all other respects.

CITY OF DETROIT’S MOTION FOR THE ENTRY OF AN ORDER
ENFORCING THE BAR DATE ORDER AND CONFIRMATION ORDER
AGAINST DEBRA METRIS-SHAMOON, MUKHLIS SHAMOON, CARL
VERES, PAUL METRIS AND JULIA METRIS

The City of Detroit, Michigan (“City”) by its undersigned counsel, Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, PLC, files this Motion for the Entry of an Order Enforcing the Bar Date Order and Confirmation Order Against Debra Metris-Shamoon, Mukhlis Shamoon, Carl Veres, Paul Metris and Julia Metris (“Motion”).

In support of this Motion, the City respectfully states as follows:

I. Introduction

1. On July 8, 2021, Debra Metris-Shamoon, Mukhlis Shamoon, Carl Veres, Paul Metris and Julia Metris (collectively, the “Plaintiffs”) filed their second amended complaint against the City seeking monetary damages on account of alleged events that occurred approximately ten months before the City filed for bankruptcy. The filing of the lawsuit violates the discharge and injunction provisions in the City’s confirmed Plan and the Bar Date Order (each as defined below). The City informed the Plaintiffs of these violations and asked them to voluntarily dismiss the lawsuit, but to no avail. As a result, the City is left with no choice but to seek an order barring and permanently enjoining the Plaintiffs from asserting and prosecuting the claims described in the federal court action against the City or property of the City and requiring the Plaintiffs to dismiss the federal court action with prejudice.

II. Factual Background

A. The City's Bankruptcy Case

2. On July 18, 2013 ("Petition Date"), the City filed this chapter 9 case.

3. On October 10, 2013, the City filed its Motion Pursuant to Section 105, 501 and 503 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 3003(c), for Entry of an Order Establishing Bar Dates for Filing Proofs of Claim and Approving Form and Manner of Notice Thereof ("Bar Date Motion") [Doc. No. 1146], which was approved by order of this Court on November 21, 2013 ("Bar Date Order"). [Doc. No. 1782].

4. The Bar Date Order established February 21, 2014, as the deadline for filing claims against the City. Paragraph 6 of the Bar Date Order states that the following entities must file a proof of claim on or before the Bar Date...any entity: (i) whose prepetition claim against the City is not listed in the List of Claims or is listed as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (ii) that desires to share in any distribution in this bankruptcy case and/or otherwise participate in the proceedings in this bankruptcy case associated with the confirmation of any chapter 9 plan of adjustment proposed by the City...

Bar Date Order ¶ 6.

5. Paragraph 22 of the Bar Date Order also provides that:

Pursuant to sections 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3003(c)(2), any entity that is required to file a proof of claim in this case pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules or this Order with respect to a particular claim against the City, but that fails properly to do so by the applicable Bar Date, shall be forever barred, estopped and enjoined from: (a) asserting any claim against the City or property of the City that (i) is in an amount that exceeds the amount, if any, that is identified in the List of Claims on behalf of such entity as undisputed, noncontingent and liquidated or (ii) is of a different nature or a different classification or priority than any Scheduled Claim identified in the List of Claims on behalf of such entity (any such claim under subparagraph (a) of this paragraph being referred to herein as an “Unscheduled Claim”); (b) voting upon, or receiving distributions under any Chapter 9 Plan in this case in respect of an Unscheduled Claim; or (c) with respect to any 503(b)(9) Claim or administrative priority claim component of any Rejection Damages Claim, asserting any such priority claim against the City or property of the City.

6. None of the Plaintiffs have filed a proof of claim in the City’s bankruptcy case.

7. On October 22, 2014, the City filed its Eighth Amended Plan of the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit (“Plan”), which this Court confirmed on November 12, 2014. [Doc. Nos. 8045 & 8272].

8. The discharge provision in the Plan provides:

Except as provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the rights afforded under the Plan and the treatment of Claims under the Plan will be in exchange for and in complete satisfaction, discharge and release of all Claims arising on or before the Effective Date. Except as provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, Confirmation will, as of the Effective Date, discharge the City from all Claims or other debts that arose on or before the Effective Date, and all debts of the kind specified in section 502(g), 502(h) or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether or not (i) proof of Claim based on such debt is Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) a Claim based on such debt is allowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code or (ii) the Holder of a Claim based on such debt has accepted the Plan.

Plan, Art. III.D.4, at p.50.

9. Further, the Plan injunction set forth in Article III.D.5 provides in pertinent part:

Injunction

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided herein or in the Confirmation Order,

a. all Entities that have been, are or may be holders of Claims against the City...shall be permanently enjoined from taking any of the following actions against or affecting the City or its property...

1. commencing, conducting or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action or other proceeding of any kind against or affect the City of its property...

5. proceeding in any manner in any place whatsoever that does not conform or comply with the provisions of the Plan or the settlements set forth herein to the extent such settlements have been approved by the Bankruptcy Court in connection with Confirmation of the Plan; and

6. taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan.

Plan, Article III.D.5, at pp.50-51 (emphasis added).

10. The Court also retained jurisdiction to enforce the Plan injunction and to resolve any suits that may arise in connection with the consummation, interpretation or enforcement of the Plan. Plan, Art. VII. F, G, I, at p.72.

B. Plaintiff’s United States District Court Lawsuit

11. On November 26, 2018, the Plaintiffs filed a complaint against the City and certain individuals in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan (“District Court”), commencing case number 18-13683 (“Lawsuit”). The docket sheet for the lawsuit is attached as Exhibit 6-1.

12. On June 25, 2021, the District Court entered the Order Granting in Part and Denying in Part Defendants’ Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings and Denying Defendants’ Motion for Summary Judgment (“Opinion”) in the Lawsuit. The Opinion is attached as Exhibit 6-2.

13. As set forth in the Opinion, each of the Plaintiffs’ claims stem from a raid which occurred on September 13, 2012. Opinion, p. 1. All of the Plaintiffs claims against the individual defendants have been dismissed. Opinion, p. 10. The only claims that remain in the Lawsuit are claims against the City.

14. In the Opinion, the District Court ordered the Plaintiffs to file an amended complaint. Opinion, p. 37.

15. On July 8, 2021, the Plaintiffs filed the Second Amended Complaint and Jury Demand (“Second Amended Complaint”).¹ The Second Amended Complaint is attached as Exhibit 6-3. The Second Amended Complaint contains three counts. Each of the counts stem from the alleged raid on September 13, 2012. Second Amended Complaint ¶ 10.

III. Argument

16. The Plaintiffs violated the Plan’s injunction and discharge provisions when they filed the Lawsuit to assert claims and otherwise seek relief against the City. And, they continue to violate them by persisting in prosecuting the Lawsuit.

17. The Plan’s injunction prohibited the filing of the Lawsuit and requires that it be dismissed with prejudice. Plan, Article III.D.5, at pp.50-51.

18. Further, the Plan’s discharge provision states that the “rights afforded under the Plan and the treatment of Claims under the Plan will be in exchange for and in complete satisfaction, discharge and release of all Claims arising on or before the Effective Date.” Plan Art. III.D.4, at p.50. The Plaintiffs did not file a proof of claim in the City’s bankruptcy case. Consequently, they do not have a right to a distribution or payment under the Plan on account of the claims asserted in the Lawsuit. Plan, Art. III.D.5, at p.50 (“[A]ll entities that have been, are or may be holders of Claims against the City . . . shall be permanently enjoined from . . . proceeding in any manner in any place whatsoever that does not conform or comply with the provisions of the Plan.”). See also Plan, Art. I.A.19, at p.3; Art. I.A.134, at p.11; Art. VI.A.1, at p.67 (“Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, no payments or Distributions shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim until such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.”). Any claims that Plaintiffs may have had were discharged, and the Plan enjoins the Plaintiffs from pursuing them. The Bar Date Order also forever barred, estopped and enjoined the Plaintiffs from pursuing the claims asserted in the Second Amended Complaint.

19. Even if the Plaintiffs could somehow seek relief on their claims against the City or its property (which they cannot), the proper and only forum for doing so would be in this Bankruptcy Court. There is therefore no set of circumstances under which the Plaintiffs are or would have been permitted to commence and prosecute the Lawsuit against the City or its property.

IV. Conclusion

20. The City thus respectfully requests that this Court enter an order, in substantially the same form as the one attached as Exhibit 1, (a) directing the Plaintiffs to dismiss, or cause to be dismissed, the Lawsuit with prejudice; (b) permanently barring, estopping and enjoining the Plaintiffs from asserting the claims alleged in, or claims related to, the Lawsuit against the City or property of the City; and (c) prohibiting the Plaintiffs from sharing in any distribution in this bankruptcy case. The City sought, but did not obtain, concurrence to the relief requested in the Motion.

Case No. 18-13683

SENIOR U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE
ARTHUR J. TARNOW

U.S. MAGISTRATE JUDGE
R. STEVEN WHALEN

ORDER GRANTING IN PART AND DENYING IN PART DEFENDANTS’ MOTION FOR JUDGMENT ON THE PLEADINGS [121] AND DENYING DEFENDANTS’ MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT [123]

This case stems from the September 13, 2012, raid of Plaintiffs’ homegrown medical marijuana business by members of the now defunct Detroit Police Department (“DPD”) Narcotics Unit. (Am. Compl. ¶ 10). Plaintiffs initially brought claims under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments via 42 U.S.C. § 1983, alleging both individual and institutional liability. (Id. ¶¶ 29-48). Plaintiffs have since dropped their Fourteenth Amendment claim and have agreed to dismissal of several DPD Defendants. (ECF No. 123, PageID.2458; ECF No. 128, PageID.4037). What remain are Plaintiffs’ Fourth Amendment claim against Sgt. Stephen Geelhood and Plaintiffs' municipal liability claim against the City of Detroit. (ECF No. 125, PageID.3014).

Defendants argue in their Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings [121] that Plaintiffs' action is barred by the applicable statute of limitations and that their Amended Complaint fails to put Defendants on notice as to what they allegedly did to violate the Constitution. (ECF No. 121, PageID.2287). Defendants argue in their Motion for Summary Judgment [123] that Sgt. Geelhood is entitled to qualified immunity and that Plaintiffs have failed to set forth genuine issues of material fact as to their Fourth Amendment and municipal liability claims. (ECF No. 123, PageID.2472, 2483). For the reasons articulated below, Defendants' Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings [121] will be GRANTED in part and DENIED in part and Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment [123] will be DENIED. Plaintiffs will be permitted to proceed to trial only on their municipal liability claim.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

On September 13, 2012, Sgt. Stephen Geelhood of the DPD swore out an affidavit in support of a search warrant for two houses—one located on Kings Dr., the other located on Wiloray Ave.—in Shelby Township, Michigan. (ECF No. 126-1, PageID.3052). His asserted bases for probable cause, both of which Plaintiffs challenge as to veracity, were a tip from a confidential informant/cooperating individual (“CI”) and his own surveillance. (Id. at 3053-54). The warrant issued and was executed later that day by Sgt. Geelhood, Sgt. Joe Tucker, Officer Juan Davis, and Officer Brian Johnson (the “Narcotics Crew” or “Crew Members”).¹ (ECF No. 126-2, PageID.3056-58).

After finding no evidence of criminal activity at the Kings Dr. address, the Narcotics Crew made their way to the Wiloray Ave. address, home to Plaintiffs Mukhlis (“Mark”) Shamoon and Debra Metris-Shamoon (“the Shamoons”), where Debra’s elderly parents, Plaintiffs Paul and Julia Metris (“the Metrises”), were visiting for lunch. (ECF No. 123-2, PageID.2565; ECF No. 126-3, PageID.3076; ECF No. 126-59, PageID.3966). It was early afternoon, around 12:00 or 12:30 PM. (ECF No.126-3, PageID.3076, 3080). Plaintiff Carl Veres, a family friend of the Shamoons, was outside. (ECF No. 126-3, PageID.3067-68). What happened next is subject to some dispute.

I. PLAINTIFFS’ VERSION

Carl was the first to notice something unusual was happening. He was traveling to the Wiloray Ave. house to pick up some clothes for an upcoming trip with the Shamoon’s son, Adam, and observed a DPD vehicle following him. (ECF No. 123-19, PageID.2978-79, 2989). He thought little of it until he parked outside the Shamoon's home and noticed several other law enforcement vehicles pulling up behind him. (Id. at 2980). He was on the phone with Adam at the time, and notified him of the vehicles. (Id. at 2981). Adam proceeded to call his mother. (ECF No. 126-3, PageID.3076).

¹ Other non-party law enforcement officials also appear to have been involved in the execution of the warrant.

Before Carl could get out of his truck, two Crew Members approached. (ECF No. 123-19, PageID.2981-82). The Crew Members did not identify themselves, though Carl later learned that one of them was Sgt. Tucker. (Id.). Sgt. Tucker pointed a shotgun at Carl's head through the passenger-side window; the other officer, armed with an assault rifle, "opened up the driver's side door, pulled [Carl] out by [his] shirt, slammed [him] to the ground, . . . cuffed [him,] and then picked [him] up and took [him] to the back of [his] truck." (Id. at 2982). Carl then observed several Crew Members break into the house through the front door without announcing their presence, while two others proceeded around the side of the house towards the back yard. (Id. at 2894).

Inside, Debra and her parents were having coffee. (ECF No. 126-3, PageID.3077; ECF No. 123-17, PageID.2890; ECF No. 123-18, PageID.2945, 2948). Debra had just started a phone call with Adam, who was attempting to pass along what Carl had told him, when Crew Members burst through the front door. (ECF No. 126-3, PageID.3076, 3080; ECF No. 123-17, PageID.2890-91; ECF No.

123-18, PageID.2945). One Crew member pointed a gun at Debra's face and "scream[ed] at [her] to shut [her] dogs up or he would shoot them." (ECF No. 126-3, PageID.3076). Julia, Debra's mother, immediately had her purse searched by a Crew Member; she believed they were looking for money. (ECF No. 123-18, PageID.2948, 2950). After three or four minutes of being held at gunpoint, Debra was permitted to remove her dogs to a bathroom. (ECF No. 126-3, PageID.3077). Paul, Debra's father, a former reserve sergeant with the Oakland County Sheriff's Department, was eventually relieved of a gun he lawfully carried. (ECF No. 123-17, PageID.2891-92). At no did time before entry did Crew Members announce who they were, provide a warning, or say, "police, search warrant." (ECF No. 126-3, PageID.3076). No Crew Member wore a badge or identified the police department to which they belonged. (Id. at 3076, 3078).

Outside, in the back yard, Mark was preparing to grill some steaks for lunch. (ECF No. 126-59, PageID.3982). Two Crew Members approached with guns aimed at his head and told him to drop what he was holding and put his hands up. (Id. at 3982, 3989). He was led to the front of the house, handcuffed behind his back, and directed to stand near Carl at the back of the Carl's truck. (Id. at 3982-83; ECF No. 123-19, PageID.2988). The two were instructed not to communicate with one another. (ECF No. 123-19, PageID.2984). Mark, who had a history of shoulder surgeries, had asked not to be handcuffed from behind when he was first restrained. (ECF No. 126-59, PageID.3982). Nevertheless, it took Mark fifteen minutes of “almost begging” for his handcuffs to be repositioned, at which point he “was ready to cry from the pain,” before an officer finally heeded his request. (Id. at 3983). Mark was taken inside the house after about thirty minutes. (Id.).

Prior to Mark being taken inside, Crew Members searched Carl’s truck and questioned him about why he had come to the house. (ECF No. 123-19, PageID.2989). While conducting the search, which lasted about ten minutes, Crew Members punctured one of Carl’s seats and “completely ripped everything out” of his vehicle, destroying the sound system. (Id. at 2998). Carl remained outside after Mark was taken into the house. (Id. at 2995). Eventually, about forty-five minutes after he had first arrived, Carl’s handcuffs were removed, and he was instructed to leave. (Id.).

Back inside, Crew Members led Mark to the kitchen where Debra was being questioned and began to question him as well. (ECF No. 126-59, PageID.3984). They first asked Mark how much money was in his safe and instructed him to open it. (Id.). When he complied, Crew Members confiscated the $200 they found in the safe as well as $115 they found in Mark’s wallet. (Id.). Two other safes were also in the house. One, an antique for which Mark did not have the combination, was broken open by Crew Members but was empty. (Id.). The other, in the Shamoon's bedroom, contained twenty-two freezer bags of dried marijuana leaves that Mark was storing away from his children until he could dispose of them.² (ECF No. 126-2, PageID.3057; ECF No. 126-59, PageID.3985, 3987).

In addition to taking $315 from Mark, Crew Members confiscated all of the Shamoon's marijuana—just under seventy live plants—as well as their lawfully owned firearms. (ECF No. 123-15, PageID.2842; 2848). Both Mark and Debra were licensed medical marijuana caregivers and they cared for their plants jointly. (ECF No. 126-3, PageID.3069). Debra offered to let the Narcotics Crew see their paperwork and caregiver cards, but they were not interested. (Id. at 3071).

The Narcotics Crew left the Shamoon's home with as little notice as they provided upon entry. All in all, the raid lasted about an hour and a half or two hours and no warrant was displayed. (Id. at 3061, 3080). None of the Plaintiffs were charged with any crimes after the raid. (ECF No. 126-59, PageID.3980-81). Crew Members forgot to remove Mark's handcuffs before they left, and he remained cuffed for approximately ten hours. (ECF No. 126-59, PageID.3986; ECF No. 126-66, PageID.4029). Eventually, Mark's son, who worked in security and had his own handcuffs, was able to unlock Mark's cuffs. (ECF No. 123-15, PageID.2849, 2856).

² The part of the marijuana plant that is commonly smoked is the flower, which is where high levels of THC are found. (ECF No. 126-59, PageID.3959). The leaves have no value. (Id.).

II. DEFENDANTS' VERSION

Before the Narcotics Crew broke through the front door of the Shamoons' home, they announced "police, search warrant" and received no response. (ECF No. 123-2, PageID.2620). Their warrant, which would have been left at the scene, had been lawfully procured by Sgt. Geelhood. (Id. at 2616-20). He based his affidavit on information from a CI, which he corroborated with his own surveillance. (Id. at 2510). The CI, whom Sgt. Geelhood knew only as "Harry," is now deceased. (ECF No. 132-2, PageID.4124-31). Sgt. Geelhood does not have any records documenting the information he received from the CI or his own surveillance because, "as a matter of practice, [he does] not keep records or notes when using [a CI] and [does] not keep records from previous investigations." (ECF No. 126-48, PageID.3740).

After the Narcotics Crew forced their way into the Shamoons' home, they observed that there were no medical marijuana cards on display and concluded that "[n]othing about the grow operation was legal." (ECF No. 123-2, PageID.2580). Accordingly, Sgt. Geelhood deemed it unnecessary to ask for proof of licensure or inquire about whether there was more than one licensed provider. (Id.). Despite the operation's apparent illegality, Sgt. Geelhood declined to charge the Shamoons with a crime because he thought it might hinder future investigations and hoped to obtain a “bigger haul.” (ECF No. 123, PageID.2464). The Narcotics Crew ultimately confiscated 285 marijuana plants, not seventy. (Id. at 3056).

PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

Plaintiffs allege that they were asserted class members in the case of Davis v. City of Detroit, et. al., No. 15-10547 (E.D. Mich.), filed February 11, 2015. (ECF No. 121-2, PageID.2311-15). The Davises claimed that they had been subject to illegal raids conducted by members of the DPD Narcotics Unit and sought institutional liability against the City of Detroit. (Id.). Once the Davises had an opportunity to conduct discovery, they were able to determine the specific officers involved, and filed an amended complaint on July 14, 2015, identifying those officers, who included Sgt. Geelhood. The Davises moved for class certification on July 14, 2016, but their motion was ultimately denied by Judge Borman on August 31, 2018. (ECF No. 121-4; ECF No. 121-6).

Upon denial of class certification, several putative class members filed individual lawsuits.³ Plaintiffs here filed suit against the City of Detroit and several “Doe” DPD personnel on November 26, 2018. (Compl.). Through the discovery process, Plaintiffs identified Sgts. Joe Tucker, Candace Matschikowski, and Stephen

³ In addition to the instant action, these lawsuits include: Reid v. City of Detroit, et. al., No. 18-13681; Frontczak v. City of Detroit, et al., No. 18-13781; Lockard v. City of Detroit, et al., No. 18-13045; and Gardella v. City of Detroit, et al., No. 18-13678.

Geelhood, as well as Officers Juan Davis and Brian Johnson, as the DPD members involved with the raid of their home. Plaintiffs amended their complaint to name those Defendants on March 21, 2019. (Am. Compl.). On October 23 and 24, 2020, Defendants moved for judgment on the pleadings and for summary judgment, respectively. (ECF No. 121; ECF No. 123). Plaintiffs responded on November 20, 2020. (ECF No. 128; ECF No. 125). Defendants replied in support of judgment on the pleadings on December 4, 2020, and in support of summary judgment on December 7, 2020. (ECF No. 130; ECF No. 132).

Plaintiffs have agreed to dismiss Defendants Johnson, Matschikowski, Davis, and Tucker, as well as their Fourteenth Amendment claim. (ECF No. 128, PageID.4037; ECF No. 123, PageID.2458). Remaining are Plaintiffs' Fourth Amendment claim against Sgt. Geelhood and Plaintiffs' municipal liability claim against the City of Detroit. (ECF No. 125, PageID.3014).

STANDARD OF REVIEW

I. FED. R. CIV. P. 12(C)

Courts review a FED. R. CIV. P. 12(c) motion for judgment on the pleadings under the same standard applicable to a FED. R. CIV. P. 12(b)(6) motion to dismiss. Hayward v. Cleveland Clinic Found., 759 F.3d 601, 608 (6th Cir. 2014) (citing Ziegler v. IBP Hog Mkt., Inc., 249 F.3d 509, 511-12 (6th Cir. 2001)). Judgment is appropriate where the plaintiff fails to “allege ‘enough facts to state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.’” Traverse Bay Area Intermediate Sch. Dist. v. Mich. Dep’t of Educ., 615 F.3d 622, 627 (6th Cir. 2010) (quoting Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007)). “A claim has facial plausibility when the pleaded factual content allows the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the misconduct alleged.” Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 663 (2009). “Detailed factual allegations” are not strictly necessary, “but the complaint must contain more than conclusions and an unsubstantiated recitation of the necessary elements of a claim.” McCormick v. Miami Univ., 693 F.3d 654, 658 (6th Cir. 2012). The court “assume[s] the veracity of well-pleaded factual allegations and determine[s] whether the plaintiff is entitled to legal relief as a matter of law.” Id. (citing Ashcroft, 556 U.S. at 679). And although “the court primarily considers the allegations in the complaint, . . . matters of public record, orders, items appearing in the record of the case, and exhibits attached to the complaint, also may be taken into account.” Amini v. Oberlin College, 259 F.3d 493, 502 (6th Cir. 2001) (emphasis omitted) (quoting Nieman v. NLO, Inc., 108 F.3d 1546, 1554 (6th Cir.1997)).

II. FED. R. CIV. P. 56

Summary judgment is appropriate where “there is no genuine dispute as to any material fact and the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.” FED. R.

CIV. P. 56(a). “A ‘material’ fact is one that ‘might affect the outcome of the suit under the governing law.’ And a genuine dispute of material fact exists if ‘the evidence is such that a reasonable jury could return a verdict for the [nonmoving] party.’” Abu-Joudeh v. Schneider, 954 F.3d 842, 849 (6th Cir. 2020) (citations omitted) (first quoting Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986); then quoting Jackson v. VHS Detroit Receiving Hosp., Inc., 814 F.3d 769, 775 (6th Cir. 2016)).

The moving party bears the burden of demonstrating an absence of material fact. Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 323 (1986).

If the moving party meets this burden, the burden then shifts to the nonmoving party to establish a “genuine issue” for trial via “specific facts.” Additionally, the moving party is entitled to summary judgment when the nonmoving party “fails to make a showing sufficient to establish the existence of an element essential to that party’s case, and on which that party will bear the burden of proof at trial.

Abu-Joudeh, 954 F.3d at 840 (citations omitted) (quoting Celotex Corp., 477 U.S. at 322, 324).

The court views all of the facts in the light most favorable to the nonmoving party and draws “all justifiable inferences” in the nonmoving party’s favor. Anderson, 477 U.S. at 255; Matsushita Elec. Indus. Co. v. Zenith Radio Corp., 475 U.S. 574, 587 (1986). “In other words, ‘at the summary judgment stage[,] the judge’s function is not . . . to weigh the evidence and determine the truth of the matter but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial.” Jackson, 814 F.3d at 775 (alteration in original) (quoting Anderson, 477 U.S. at 249).

ANALYSIS

I. Defendants’ Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings [121]

a. Statute of Limitations

Defendants first argue they are entitled to judgment on the pleadings because the statute of limitations has run on Plaintiffs’ claims. (ECF No. 121, PageID.2287). In Michigan, the statute of limitations for § 1983 actions is three years and begins to run when a plaintiff becomes aware of the injury for which they are bringing an action. Cooley v. Strickland, 479 F.3d 412, 416 (6th Cir. 2007); Carroll v. Wilkerson, 782 F.2d 44, 45 (6th Cir. 1986). Pursuant to the tolling doctrine announced in American Pipe, however, “the commencement of a class action suspends the applicable statute of limitations as to all asserted members of the class who would have been parties had the suit been permitted to continue as a class action.” American Pipe & Constr. Co. v. Utah, 414 U.S. 538, 554 (1974). Here, although the parties agree that the statute of limitations began to run on September 13, 2012, the date Plaintiffs became aware of the alleged constitutional violations, they disagree as to if, and for how long, the statute of limitations tolled. (ECF No. 121, PageID.2296; ECF No. 128, PageID.4038).

i. City of Detroit

Plaintiffs will benefit from American Pipe tolling as to the City of Detroit if they are deemed asserted class members in Davis v. City of Detroit, et. al., No. 15-10547 (E.D. Mich.). Defendants contend Plaintiffs are not asserted class members, while Plaintiffs argue they are. (ECF No. 121, PageID.2299-2303; ECF No. 128, PageID.4042-46). The Davises set forth six identifiers for their proposed class:

(a) individuals who were the owners and/or occupants of homes and/or businesses engaged in the licensed distribution of marijuana for medical purposes; (b) who were subjected to search and/or seizure by agents and/or members of the Detroit Police Department's Narcotics' Unit; [(c)] from the period of February 11, 2012 until the date of judgment or settlement of this case; [(d)] who were never convicted of any offense arising from the search and/or seizure; [(e)] whose search and seizure were executed without probable cause; and [(f)] where such searches and/or seizures were conducted pursuant to Defendant City of Detroit's policies, practices, and/or customs.

(ECF No. 121-6, PageID.2391) (alterations in original).

Defendants argue that Plaintiffs fail to meet the first identifier because they have not alleged specific facts showing "they were operating in compliance with the Michigan Medical Marijuana Act." (ECF No. 121, PageID.2300). But this asks the Court to read an additional identifier into the class definition that simply is not there. Moreover, even if the Court were to infer this additional identifier, Defendants' analysis would fail. Nothing in the record suggests that Plaintiffs engaged differently in the distribution of marijuana than the plaintiffs in the Davis action.

Accordingly, Plaintiffs plausibly plead that they were asserted members of the putative class in Davis. (Am. Compl. ¶¶ 9-10, 16, 19, 27, 30). The statute of limitations thus tolled with respect to the City of Detroit from February 11, 2015, the date the Davises filed their complaint, to August 31, 2018, the date class certification was denied. (ECF No. 121-2, PageID.2309; ECF No. 121-6, PageID.2389).

From the time the raid took place on September 13, 2012, until February 11, 2015, 881 days had run on the statute of limitations. Another eighty-seven days elapsed between August 31, 2018, when class certification was denied, and November 26, 2018, when Plaintiffs commenced this action. Because the total number of days (968) is fewer than 1,095 (three years), the statute of limitations does not bar Plaintiffs' claims against the City of Detroit.

ii. Sgt. Geelhood

According to Defendants, Sgt. Geelhood is subject to a separate tolling calculation because he was given a "John Doe" placeholder in the original Davis complaint and was not added by name until it was amended on July 14, 2015. (ECF No. 121, PageID.2297; ECF No. 121-2, PageID.230; ECF No. 121-3, PageID.2318).

In general, American Pipe tolling only applies to defendants named in the prior related class action. Wyser-Pratte Mgmt. Co. v. Telxon Corp., 413 F.3d 553, 568 (6th Cir. 2005). Plaintiffs concede that Sgt. Geelhood was not named in the original Davis complaint but argue that the February 11, 2015, tolling date should apply because the July 14, 2015, amendment related back to the original complaint. (ECF No. 128, PageID.4039).

FED. R. CIV. P. 15(c) determines whether an amendment to a complaint relates back to the filing date of the original complaint. See generally Asher v. Unarco Material Handling, Inc., 596 F.3d 313, 318 (6th Cir. 2010). In order for an amendment to relate back, “the party to be brought in by amendment . . . [must have] (i) received such notice of the action that it will not be prejudiced in defending on the merits; and (ii) [known] or should have known that the action would have been brought against it, but for a mistake concerning the proper party’s identity.” FED. R. CIV. P. 15(c)(1)(C). Although Plaintiffs may satisfy the notice requirement, see Berndt v. Tennessee, 796 F.2d 879, 883 (6th Cir. 1986) (permitting amendment under Rule 15(c) based on constructive, rather than actual, notice), they cannot satisfy the “but for a mistake” requirement. See Cox v. Treadway, 75 F.3d 230 (6th Cir. 1996) (explaining that although the imputed knowledge doctrine is still recognized, “[s]ubstituting a named defendant for a ‘John Doe’ defendant is considered a change in parties, not a mere substitution of parties,” and “such amendments do not satisfy the ‘mistaken identity’ requirement”); see also Brown v.

Cuyahoga Cty., 517 F. App'x 431, 433-34 (6th Cir. 2013) (affirming “the continued vitality of Cox” and holding that “an absence of knowledge is not a mistake, as required by Rule 15(c)(1)(C)(ii)”). Accordingly, even though Geelhood may have had constructive notice under Berndt, his addition by the Davises did not relate back under Rule 15(c), and Plaintiffs’ individual claims against him are barred by the statute of limitations.

b. Adequate Pleading

Defendants next argue that “the Amended Complaint fails . . . to specify which of the named defendants were personally involved in or responsible for each alleged constitutional violation.” (ECF No. 121, PageID.2303). Because all that remains is Plaintiffs’ municipal liability claim, this argument is moot.

II. DEFENDANTS’ MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

a. An Underlying Constitutional Violation

Defendants next argue that there has not been an underlying constitutional violation, and that without such a violation, there cannot be municipal liability under Monell v. Dep’t of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658 (1978). (ECF No. 123, PageID.2483). Defendants are correct that “[a] municipality or county cannot be liable under § 1983 absent an underlying constitutional violation by its officers.” Blackmore v. Kalamazoo County, 390 F.3d 890, 900 (6th Cir. 2004) (citing City of Los Angeles v.

Heller, 475 U.S. 796, 799 (1986)). Nevertheless, as long as a plaintiff can prove that they have suffered an underlying injury, they need not prevail on a claim against a specific actor in order to pursue municipal liability. See, e.g., Barnett v. Macarthur, 956 F.3d 1291, 1301 (11th Cir. 2020) (“Monell . . . and its progeny do not require that a jury must first find an individual defendant liable before imposing liability on local government.” (quoting Anderson v. City of Atlanta, 778 F.2d 678, 686 (11th Cir. 1985))); Fairley v. Luman, 281 F.3d 913, 917 (9th Cir. 2002) (“If a plaintiff establishes he suffered a constitutional injury by the City, the fact that individual officers are exonerated is immaterial to [municipal] liability under § 1983.”). Accordingly, although Plaintiffs’ Fourth Amendment claims against the individual officers are now out of the picture, proceeding to the Monell analysis is proper as long as there is a question of fact as to whether Plaintiffs’ Fourth Amendment rights were violated. As set forth below, there is.

It is axiomatic that “an officer [or investigator] cannot rely on a judicial determination of probable cause if that officer knowingly makes false statements and omissions to the judge such that but for these falsities the judge would not have issued the warrant.” Vakilian v. Shaw, 335 F.3d 509, 517 (6th Cir. 2003) (quoting Yancey v. Carroll County, 876 F.2d 1238, 1243 (6th Cir.1989)) (alteration in original). “Such reliance is unreasonable, and [search or seizure] . . . pursuant to such deceptive practices violates the Fourth Amendment.” McCallum v. Geelhood, 742 F. App’x 985, 991 (6th Cir. 2018) (quoting Gregory v. City of Louisville, 444 F.3d 725, 758 (6th Cir. 2006)). See generally Franks v. Delaware, 438 U.S. 154, 155-56 (1978) (establishing procedure for challenging warrant veracity).

Here, Plaintiffs allege that the material portions of Sgt. Geelhood’s warrant affidavit—his claims of being tipped off by a CI called Harry and conducting independent surveillance—were untruthful, and that the resulting raid on the Shamoons’ home was invalid. (ECF No. 125, PageID.3019). As an initial matter, the Court agrees that without the alleged tip and surveillance, the only evidence in support of the warrant would have been excessive electricity use, which could not have supported a finding of probable cause. (ECF No. 126-1, PageID.3053-54); see United States v. Thomas, 605 F.3d 300, 315 (6th Cir. 2010). Accordingly, the question is whether Plaintiffs’ evidence creates a reasonable dispute of material fact as to whether Sgt. Geelhood received and corroborated a tip from a CI. The Court finds that it does.

First, although Defendants have produced a death certificate for an individual whom Sgt. Geelhood apparently knew as “Harry,” nothing in the record apart from Sgt. Geelhood’s word connects Harry to the Shamoons, narcotics trafficking, or anything in this case. (ECF No. 132-3, ECF No. 132-4, ECF No. 132-5, ECF No.

132-6). Indeed, the DPD detective overseeing the investigation on Harry's death "[did] not recall [Sgt. Geelhood] telling [him] that [Harry] was working as an informant," and believed "that [Harry] was [likey] killed in connection with . . . auto theft," not narcotics trafficking. (ECF No. 125-5, PageID.4151-52). In addition, Sgt. Geelhood had no record of meeting or speaking with Harry in relation to the Shamoon warrant and could not recall any other cases in which Harry provided information. (ECF No. 132-7, PageID.4157). In an interview with DPD Internal Affairs regarding misconduct in the department, DPD Deputy Chief Charles Fitzgerald opined that 1) even "nine years later," an officer "should have knowledge of who [their] CI is," and that 2) an officer's alleged reliance upon a CI whose true name is unknown, even "for anonymity purposes," raises the question of whether there is "truly a CI." (ECF No. 126-14) (audio recording 34:43-37:20).⁴ Although Defendants offer a plausible explanation for why Sgt. Geelhood had no written records of his dealings with Harry,⁵ his inability to recall even one other instance in which Harry provided information is concerning, particularly since he claims that “[t]he information [Harry] was giving [him had] proved to be reliable.” (ECF No. 132-7, PageID.4157). Likewise, the fact that Sgt. Geelhood was apparently helping Harry “[get] in touch with the right people” at U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement further undercuts the credibility of the warrant affidavit, which alleged that the CI was providing information against their own interest. (ECF No. 126-1, PageID.3053; ECF No. 132-2, PageID.4125). In sum, while Defendants may have established the existence of a man Sgt. Geelhood knew as “Harry,” Defendants have not established beyond a reasonable dispute of material fact that Harry was the CI referenced in Sgt. Geelhood’s affidavit or that such a CI even existed.⁶

Second, while Sgt. Geelhood claims to have surveilled the Shamoons’ address on approximately five occasions prior to seeking a warrant, Defendants have produced no documentary evidence in support of this claim. (ECF No. 126-50, PageID.3768; ECF No. 132-7, PageID.4158). According to Deputy Chief Fitzgerald, DPD officers are required to document their surveillance, even if it is just jotting a note on the back of a receipt. (ECF No. 126-14) (audio recording 10:45-12:05). Although it is reasonable that some of Sgt. Geelhood's documentation might have been discarded after nearly nine years, Sgt. Geelhood claims his investigation was ongoing, and the City's record retention policies require that case reports for felony investigations, including case logs, be retained for at least twenty years. (ECF No. 126-44, PageID.3709-10; ECF No. 126-50, PageID.3771). Against this backdrop, the absence of any documentation is, at least, peculiar. Accordingly, there also remains a question of fact about whether, and to what extent, Sgt. Geelhood surveilled the Shamoons' home.

Based on the foregoing, the Court finds that Plaintiffs have demonstrated a genuine dispute of material fact as to whether Sgt. Geelhood included knowingly false statements in his warrant affidavit with the intent to mislead the issuing judge.⁷ Defendants' argument that Plaintiffs must make a "strong preliminary showing" (i.e. go beyond merely establishing a question of fact) is unpersuasive. (ECF No. 123, PageID.2474). In § 1983 cases, this heightened standard from Franks applies only when qualified immunity is at issue or where there are no “factual questions underlying the probable-cause determination.” Harmon v. Hamilton Cty., 675 F. App’x 532, 543 (6th Cir. 2017); see Vakilian, 335 F.3d at 517l. Neither of those circumstances are present here. Moreover, even assuming for the sake of argument that the heightened Franks standard did apply, the Court would find it satisfied on the evidence above. Accordingly, the question of probable cause is one for the jury, and the Court will proceed to Plaintiffs’ Monell claim.⁸ See Hill v. McIntyre, 884 F.2d 271, 275 (6th Cir. 1989) (“[I]n a § 1983 action[,] fact-finding under the Franks standard is the province of the jury.” (citing Hindman v. City of Paris, 746 F.2d 1063, 1067 (5th Cir. 1984))); see also Hale v. Kart, 396 F.3d 721, 728 (6th Cir. 2005) (“[A] jury trial is appropriate where reasonable disputes of material fact exist on facts underlying a probable cause determination.”).

⁷ Plaintiffs also proffer considerable evidence of a culture of corruption in the Narcotics Unit pursuant to which it would have been easy for a sergeant to falsify a warrant affidavit. Some of this evidence may be inadmissible propensity evidence, but certainly not all of it. For example, Plaintiffs offer deposition testimony from DPD Chief James Craig that "there were [previously uninvestigated] criminal and administrative violations occurring" in the Narcotics Unit, and that "sergeants may have been . . . directly involved." (ECF No. 126-34, PageID.3522, 3524). In any case, this evidence, though persuasive, is not vital to the Court's finding.

b. Monell Liability

It is well established that “[a] municipality may not be held liable under § 1983 on a respondeat superior theory—in other words, ‘solely because it employs a tortfeasor.’” D’Ambrosio v. Marino, 747 F.3d 378, 388-89 (6th Cir. 2014) (quoting Monell, 436 U.S. at 691). Rather, to prevail on a municipal liability claim, a plaintiff must “show[] that the municipality had a ‘policy or custom’ that caused the violation of [the plaintiff’s] rights.” Griffith v. Franklin Cty., 975 F.3d 554, 581 (6th Cir. 2020) (quoting Monell, 436 U.S. at 694); see Polk Cty. v. Dodson, 454 U.S. 312, 326 (1981) (noting that the policy or custom “must be ‘the moving force of the constitutional violation’” (quoting Monell, 436 U.S. at 694)).

A plaintiff can make a showing of an illegal policy or custom by demonstrating one of the following: (1) the existence of an illegal official policy or legislative enactment; (2) that an official with final decision making authority ratified illegal actions; (3) the existence of a policy of inadequate training or supervision; or (4) the existence of a custom of tolerance or acquiescence of federal rights violations.

Burgess v. Fischer, 735 F.3d 462, 478 (6th Cir. 2013) (citing Thomas v. City of Chattanooga, 398 F.3d 426, 429 (6th Cir. 2005)). Here, Plaintiffs allege liability under the second, third, and fourth theories. (ECF No. 125, PageID.3029).

i. Actions Taken By Officials with Final Decision-Making Authority (i.e. Ratification Theory)

Where an “authorized policymaker[] approve[s] a subordinate’s decision and the basis for it, their ratification [is] chargeable to the municipality.” St. Louis v. Praprotnik, 485 U.S. 112, 127 (1988) (plurality opinion). Here, Plaintiffs argue that “the numerosity of [allegedly] illegal raids” by the Narcotics Unit makes “the City . . . liable for the unconstitutional conduct of its sergeants who were the highest-ranking officers in charge of th[ose] raids.” (ECF No. 125, PageID.3035-36).

The first question the Court must answer is whether the sergeants to which Plaintiffs refer can be considered authorized policymakers. See Feliciano v. City of Cleveland, 988 F.2d 649, 655 (6th Cir. 1993) (explaining that “the municipality is liable for an official’s unconstitutional action only when the official is the one who has the ‘final authority to establish municipal policy with respect to the action ordered.’” (quoting Pembaur v. City of Cincinnati, 475 U.S. 469, 481 (1986))). “Authority to make municipal policy may be granted directly by a legislative enactment or may be delegated by an official who possesses such authority, and . . . whether an official had final policymaking authority is a question of state law.” Pembaur, 475 U.S. at 483 (plurality opinion).

Sgt. Tucker was the highest-ranking officer in charge of the raid on Plaintiffs’ home, however, he apparently was not required to review Sgt. Geelhood’s affidavit until the warrant had already issued. (ECF No. 126-50, PageID.3777, 3793-94). Accordingly, it is unclear who, in Plaintiffs’ view, should be considered the final policymaker for the purpose of this analysis. Regardless, because Plaintiffs cite no authority in support of either sergeant being a municipal policymaker, this detail matters little. According to former DPD Chief James Craig, sergeants can only “[c]arry out policy,” not make it. (ECF No. 132-10, PageID.4318). Chief Craig’s position is backed up by the 2012 Narcotics Standard Operating Procedures, which make “sergeant[s] . . . directly accountable to the lieutenants in charge of the[ir] units,” and the 2012 Charter of the City of Detroit, which states that the Board of Police Commissioners shall, “[i]n consultation with the Chief of Police, and with the approval of the Mayor[,] establish policies, rules and regulations.” (ECF No. 126-43, PageID.3634); DETROIT, MICH. CHARTER § 7-803 (2012), https://detroitmi.gov/sites/detroitmi.localhost/files/2018-05/2_29_2012_CharterDocument_2_1_WITHOUT_COMMENTARY_1.pdf [https://perma.cc/3WDJ-RAH8]. Against this backdrop, it is clear that sergeants were not final policymakers in a statutory sense.

Moreover, while it is true that policymaking authority can also be delegated, see Pembaur, 475 U.S. at 483, merely being given the “authority to exercise discretion while performing particular functions does not [by itself] make a municipal employee a final policymaker.” Feliciano, 988 F.2d at 655 (citing Praprotnik, 485 U.S. at 127). In other words, even where an official is delegated final decisionmaking authority by a superior, they will not necessarily be a final policymaker with respect to those decisions. See Cristini v. City of Warren, No. 07-11141, 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 162325, at *40 (E.D. Mich. Nov. 14, 2012). Rather, a municipal employee can be said to have final policymaking authority only when their “decisions are final and unreviewable and are not constrained by the official policies of superior officials.” Id. (emphasis added).

In Miller v. Calhoun Cty., the Sixth Circuit considered whether a shift commander at a county jail had been delegated policymaking authority with respect to overnight medical treatment for pretrial detainees. 408 F.3d 803, 814 (6th Cir. 2005). The plaintiff argued that despite state law giving the sheriff final policymaking authority over the jail, liability should be imputed to the municipality because “[the sergeant] was, by county policy, the de facto decision-maker as to emergency care for inmates on the midnight shift.” Id. But the Sixth Circuit disagreed. Id. It explained that the plaintiff was “conflate[ing] decisionmaking with policymaking,” and noted that there was “no evidence that [the sergeant’s] decisions were not subject to review, or that [the sergeant] possessed any authority to ‘formulate[] plans for the implementation of broad goals.’” Id. (quoting Hager v. Pike Cty. Bd. of Educ., 286 F.3d 366, 376 (6th Cir. 2002)).

Here, like in Miller, Plaintiffs have failed to demonstrate how the actions of Narcotics Unit sergeants, even those who supervised raids, were anything more than discretionary decisions subject to the review of superior officials. Accordingly, Plaintiffs may not proceed on their Monell claim under a ratification theory.

ii. A Custom of Tolerance or Acquiescence of Federal Rights Violations (i.e. Inaction Theory)

A municipal liability claim premised upon a “custom of tolerance or acquiescence of federal rights violations” is sometimes referred to as an “inaction theory.” See D’Ambrosio, 747 F.3d at 387. To prevail under this theory, a plaintiff must demonstrate:

(1) the existence of a clear and persistent pattern of violating federal rights . . . ; (2) notice or constructive notice on the part of defendants; (3) the defendants’ tacit approval of the unconstitutional conduct, such that their deliberate indifference in failing to act can be said to amount to an official policy of inaction; and (4) that the defendants’ custom was the ‘moving force,’ or direct causal link for the constitutional deprivation.

Powers v. Hamilton County Pub. Def. Comm’n, 501 F.3d 592, 607 (6th Cir. 2007) (quoting Doe v. Claiborne Cty., 103 F.3d 495, 508 (6th Cir. 1996)).

Plaintiffs argue that “the City knew, in the summer of 2010, about the corruption of DPD’s Narcotics Unit” but “waited until July 2014 . . . to address [it].” (ECF No. 125, PageID.3031). In support, Plaintiffs cite several allegedly unlawful raids by the Narcotics Unit, as well as examples they argue show the City’s notice of allegedly illegal conduct. (ECF No. 125, PageID.3031-33). But the majority of Plaintiffs’ examples are from 2013 to 2017, and “contemporaneous or subsequent conduct” cannot be relied upon to prove an inaction theory. Connick v. Thompson, 563 U.S. 51, 63 n.7 (2011). Accordingly, the Court will only consider Plaintiffs’ evidence to the extent that it relates to events before the raid on Plaintiffs' home. Several pieces of evidence fall within these parameters.

First, documents from the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office ("WCPO") regarding the exoneration of Darell Chancellor, who was arrested in 2011 following the execution of a search warrant by Sgt. Geelhood. The evidence within these records, which include a WCPO press release⁹ and a memo by the WCPO's Conviction Integrity Unit ("CIU"), would enable a jury to find that there had been illegal conduct in the Narcotics Unit by Sgt. Geelhood well before the raid on Plaintiffs' home. Defendants have objected to Plaintiffs' reliance upon the CIU memo, but the Court need not address the merits of this objection here. The press release by itself makes clear that Chancellor was released from prison because the WCPO determined that the evidence against him "ha[d] been credibly refuted" and "was based upon a fraudulent search warrant" by Sgt. Geelhood. (ECF No. 126-8, PageID.3253-54; ECF No. 126-17, PageID.3314).

Second, a letter from DPD Lt. Kelly Fitzgerald to the City's Office of the Inspector General ("OIG"), chronicling how, in late 2011, officials in the Narcotics

⁹ Because the press release sets forth the conclusions of the WCPO based on its own investigation, it falls within the public records exception to hearsay under FED. R. EVID. 803(8)(A). See Patterson v. Cent. Mills, Inc., 64 F. App'x 457, 462 (6th Cir. 2003) ("The Supreme Court has interpreted this 'public records' exception to the hearsay rule broadly to include both conclusions and opinions of public offices and agencies." (citing Beech Aircraft Corp. v. Rainey, 488 U.S. 153, 162 (1988))).

Unit and Internal Affairs swept evidence of allegedly falsified surveillance and overtime “under the rug.” (ECF No. 126-56, PageID.3886-91). This letter, which Defendants do not address in their Reply [132], provides specific, detailed examples of fabricated surveillance and overtime by Sgt. Tucker, who was in charge of the raid on Plaintiffs’ home. (Id. at 3887). For example, it notes how “[o]n October 22, 2011, Tucker tagged himself [on Facebook] at J. Alexanders restaurant (suburb) at 4:03 PM, yet . . . was paid [overtime] to be on narcotics surveillance from [1:00 PM to 8:00 PM].” (Id.). In addition, Lt. Fitzgerald explains that even though she alerted Internal Affairs to Sgt. Tucker’s conduct, the case was administratively closed without a full investigation after Lt. Kevin Robinson, the Commanding Officer of Narcotics, explained to investigators that what Sgt. Tucker did “is done all the time at Narcotics.” (Id. at 3890). In short, Lt. Fitzgerald’s letter not only documents a second pre-2012 example of misconduct in the Narcotics Unit, but also evidences a culture of indifference to such misconduct by the Unit’s highest-ranking officials. (Id. at 3887, 3889-90).

Third, the trial testimony of Gary Jackson and related supporting evidence, which go to when the City first became aware of alleged corruption in the Narcotics Unit. Jackson was a drug dealer turned DPD informant who served as a cooperating witness in the 2015 prosecution of David Hansberry, Bryan Watson, and Arthur Leavells, three of Sgt. Geelhood's former colleagues in the Narcotics Unit. See United States v. Hansberry, et. al., No. 15-20217 (E.D. Mich.). Along with two civilian associates, Hansberry, Watson, and Leavells were charged with multiple crimes arising out of a conspiracy to steal drugs and money from drug dealers.¹⁰ (ECF No. 126-23, PageID.3401; ECF No. 126-26, PageID.3444). Leavells and Calvin Turner, one of the civilian associates, pleaded guilty, while Hansberry, Watson, and Kevlin Omar Brown, the other civilian associate, went to trial. (ECF No. 126-26, PageID.3444; ECF No. 126-58).

At trial, Jackson testified as follows: In the summer of 2010, he had learned of a $3 million cocaine deal in Detroit, including how and when the profits would be moved out of the city. (ECF No. 126-26, PageID.3441-43). To make the most of this knowledge, he made an agreement with Leavells and Watson to exchange his information for a formal reward from the City of Detroit and an off the books cut of the seized money. (Id. at 3446-47). The bust was successful, but afterwards, Leavells told Jackson that there had been no opportunity to skim money off the top of the seizure before other officers arrived. (Id. at 3451). Jackson was furious, and even more so when the publicly reported total of the seizure was several hundred thousand dollars less than he expected. (Id. at 3451-52). Jackson thought he had been duped, and that Watson and Leavells had pocketed the missing money for themselves and lied to him. (Id. at 3452). Jackson began to worry he was not going to get any money at all and decided to take matters into his own hands. (Id. at 3452, 3455). Thanks to a coincidental mutual acquaintance, Jackson was able to arrange a dinner meeting with the then-DPD Chief, Ralph Godbee. (Id. at 3456; ECF No. 126-53, PageID.3834). At the meeting, Jackson told Chief Godbee that there had actually been $3 million in play, significantly more than the amount reported, and Chief Godbee responded, “I knew it.”¹¹ (ECF No. 126-26, PageID.3456).

¹⁰ See generally United States v. Watson, 778 F. App'x 340, 343 (6th Cir. 2019) ("The basic con went as follows: Defendants would raid a house or stop a car (generally with the help of an informant) knowing that drugs and money would be there. These pretextual raids would . . . scare [drug-dealing victims] 'to death' about getting arrested or hurt. So the victims would hand over their drugs and money to Defendants. And once Defendants got what they wanted, they would leave without making arrests or filing charges. Instead, Defendants would keep the money and sell the drugs (generally with the help of the same informant), splitting the profits. And if Defendants did report the bust, they would first take some money or drugs 'off the top.'").

Chief Godbee agrees that he met with Jackson very soon after the bust, but disputes Jackson’s version of their meeting. (ECF. No. 126-53, PageID.3836-37, 3840). He claims that Jackson did not mention a shortfall in the seized money and that the primary topic of discussion was the danger to Jackson and his family in light of the information he had given about the drug bust. (Id. at 3854). Regardless of who is telling the truth, there is plainly a dispute of material fact about whether Chief Godbee knew, in the summer of 2010, of allegations that members of the Narcotics Unit had stolen or attempted to steal a large sum of money from a drug bust.

Also supporting a finding of constructive notice is the fact that there were several discrepancies in the amount of currency reportedly seized as the cash moved through the chain of custody. (ECF No. 125, PageID.3039-41). The initial police report references a “tally sheet” that was discovered with the cash, which listed the amount of currency as $2,370,000. (ECF No. 126-51, PageID.3807-08; ECF No. 126-53, PageID.3846, 3857). This is the number that Chief Godbee first reported to the media. (ECF No. 126-53, PageID.3841). But by the time the money was logged into the property room, only $2,100,190 was accounted for. (ECF No. 126-51, PageID.3815; ECF No. 126-53, PageID.3846). And an additional shortfall of approximately $15,000 was discovered when the money was deposited at Comerica Bank. (ECF No. 126-51, PageID.3810; ECF No. 126-53, PageID.3846). This final shortfall triggered an Internal Affairs investigation, which concluded that it was attributable to a faulty counting machine, but the first shortfall was never investigated. (ECF No. 126-34, PageID.3547; ECF No. 126-54). In other words, regardless of whether the initial $2.37 million figure was accurate, there are sufficient facts for a jury to conclude that DPD officials knew of a several hundred-thousand-dollar discrepancy and did not investigate. (ECF No. 126-34, PageID.3547).

Defendants argue that these questions regarding missing money were already resolved by the jury when it found Hansberry and Watson not guilty on all counts except conspiracy and fully acquitted Brown. (ECF No. 132, PageID.4116; ECF No. 132-8, PageID.4160). But this argument fails to account for the differing burdens of proof in civil and criminal cases. And, in any event, the issue here is not whether Plaintiffs can prove that members of the Narcotics Unit stole currency from a drug bust, but whether the City had notice that they might have done so, and failed to look into it.

Taken together, these three examples—the Chancellor investigation and exoneration, the Fitzgerald OIG complaint, and the City’s knowledge of a possible shortfall in the Hansberry seizure—are sufficient to create a reasonable dispute of material fact as to whether there was a pattern of illegal conduct in the Narcotics Unit about which the City had notice. In addition, a reasonable jury could find, based on Plaintiffs’ evidence that Sgts. Geelhood and Tucker had previously falsified DPD records, that a raid premised upon a fraudulent warrant affidavit could have been prevented if the City had opened an investigation into the Narcotics Unit sooner. In other words, there is also a reasonable dispute of material fact as to whether the City's inaction was the moving force behind Plaintiffs' injury. See Powers, 501 F.3d at 607. Finally, because Plaintiffs have "advance[d] sufficient evidence to create a genuine issue of material fact[,] . . . the question of 'deliberate indifference' is one for the jury." Doe, 103 F.3d at 509 (citing Hicks v. Frey, 992 F.2d 1450, 1456-57 (6th Cir. 1993)). Accordingly, Plaintiffs' inaction theory of Monell liability may proceed to trial.

iii. A Policy of Inadequate Training or Supervision

In deposition, Chief Craig opined that there was a lack of supervision in the Narcotics Unit going back "even before [2010]." (ECF No. 126-34, PageID.3546). It is unsurprising, therefore, that several of the evidentiary items that support Plaintiffs' inaction theory also support a claim for failure to supervise. See Ellis v. Cleveland Mun. Sch. Dist., 455 F.3d 690, 700 (6th Cir. 2006) ("To succeed on a failure to train or supervise claim, the plaintiff must prove the following: (1) the training or supervision was inadequate for the tasks performed; (2) the inadequacy was the result of the municipality's deliberate indifference; and (3) the inadequacy was closely related to or actually caused the injury." (citing Russo v. City of Cincinnati, 953 F.2d 1036, 1046 (6th Cir. 1992))).

For example, as described in Lt. Fitzgerald's complaint to OIG: The Commanding Officer of Narcotics, Lt. Robinson, believed that Unit members would report being on the clock, doing things like conducting surveillance, when they were actually engaging in recreational activities. (ECF No. 126-56, PageID.3887-90). Lt. Robinson even told Internal Affairs investigators as much. (Id.). But no action was taken, and Unit members continued to submit warrant affidavits that relied upon alleged surveillance without any requirement that they seek approval from a superior officer before presenting their affidavit to a judge. (ECF No. 126-50, PageID.3794). In short, regardless of whether this practice was as widespread as Lt. Robinson intimated to Internal Affairs, a reasonable jury considering Plaintiffs' evidence could find both that there was inadequate supervision in the Narcotics Unit, and that the absence of a warrant review process was closely related to the allegedly fraudulent affidavit in Plaintiffs' case. Accordingly, Plaintiffs' failure to supervise theory of Monell liability may also proceed to trial.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment [123] is DENIED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, within thirty days, Plaintiffs may file a Second Amended Complaint consistent with the conclusions set forth above.

SO ORDERED.

COMMON ALLEGATIONS

9. In September 2012, Plaintiffs Deborah Metris-Shamoon and Mukhlis Shamoon were the lawful and licensed operator of a marijuana grow facility located at their residence in Shelby Township, Michigan.
10. On or about September 13, 2012, Defendants, acting under color of law and as officers of Defendant City of Detroit’s Narcotics Unit, conducted an unlawful raid of Plaintiffs’ home in Shelby Township, Michigan. The raid was supervised by, among others, Sgt. Joe Tucker of the Detroit Police Department.

11. Officers gained entry into Plaintiffs' residence via forced entry with at least one of the officers' weapons drawn.
12. The Officers purposefully concealed their identities during the raid and neither knocked or announced their presence before making a forced entry into Plaintiffs' home.
13. At no time during the raid did any of the officers show or present to Plaintiffs a lawfully issued search warrant.
14. During the raid, the officers destroyed Plaintiffs' home. Plaintiffs were unlawfully searched and seized within the meaning of the fourth amendment during the raid.
15. For an unknown duration of time, the officers extensively tore apart Plaintiffs' property and removed, without lawful authority, marijuana plants and other related legitimate and lawful by-products of Plaintiffs' business.
16. The officers had no probable cause to seize and/or arrest Plaintiffs nor were Plaintiffs ever shown a search or arrest warrant.
17. The officers also confiscated, without lawful authority, an Armsport 12-gauge shotgun, a BSA 9mm handgun, a Winchester Wildcat .22 Rifle, a BSR .45 Caliber Colt handgun, and money totaling $315.00 from Plaintiffs' residence.

18. At no time were Plaintiffs ever given a copy of any search warrant or a list of items that were unlawfully seized from their property.
19. Plaintiffs were eventually released by Defendants and never charged with any violations of law.
20. During the raid, Plaintiff Mukhlis Shamoan was placed in handcuffs which the officers left on him after leaving the property such that Mukhlis was forced to wear the handcuffs for approximately ten hours.
21. Following the raid, Defendants produced a search warrant and affidavit sworn out by Defendant Geelhood in which Defendant falsely swore to facts in an attempt to manufacture probable cause.
22. In particular, Defendant Geelhood falsely swore to having conducted surveillance of the Plaintiffs' home and having witnessed illegal drug transactions at Plaintiffs' residence.
23. Defendant Geelhood also falsely swore to having relied on a confidential informant to establish probable cause.
24. Upon information and belief, members of the Detroit Police Department's Narcotics Unit, including officers who participated in raid upon Plaintiffs' residence, have engaged in similar unlawful searches and seizures of other legitimate marijuana grow facilities in and around the City of Detroit.

25. Defendant City of Detroit has allowed an unconstitutional policy, custom and practice to flourish within its police department under which its police officers, including Defendant Geelhood, have unlawfully seized, confiscated, destroyed, or otherwise disposed of legitimate products of marijuana grow facilities.
26. Prior to the unlawful raid of Plaintiffs' home, Defendant City of Detroit had knowledge and notice that members of its Narcotics Unit were falsifying reports of narcotics surveillance, and despite such knowledge and notice Defendant City of Detroit ignored such misconduct.
27. Prior to the unlawful search and seizure of Plaintiffs' home, Defendant City of Detroit had knowledge and notice that officers of its Narcotics Unit were unlawfully seizing money and controlled substances for the officers' own pecuniary gain, and despite such knowledge and notice Defendant City of Detroit ignored such misconduct.
28. During these unconstitutional searches and seizures, Plaintiffs and dozens of other similar business owners would be threatened, intimidated, detained, and falsely arrested without probable cause.
29. Upon information and belief, Defendant City of Detroit's officers, including its supervisory personnel like Sgt. Tucker and Sgt. Geelhood routinely conducted, participated, and/or allowed the types of illegal searches and seizures described herein.

30. As a result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiffs were degraded, humiliated, and subjected to an unlawful search, seizure, and false arrest in violation of their constitutional rights.
31. Plaintiffs suffered extreme emotional distress, humiliation, embarrassment, and damage as a result of Defendants' unlawful actions.
32. Plaintiffs were putative class members in the case of Timothy and Hatema Davis v. City of Detroit, et. al., Case No.: 15-cv-10547 (E.D. Mich)(J. Borman) that sought to challenge as unconstitutional the acts, policies, and/or customs of Defendants as alleged herein.
33. Recently, the Court denied class certification in the Davis matter such that the instant Plaintiffs now seek to pursue their identical claims herein.

COUNT I; UNLAWFUL SEARCH AND SEISURE IN VIOLATION OF THE FOURTH AMENDMENT

34. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference herein the allegations contained in the above Paragraphs of the Complaint.
35. The acts of Defendants as ratified, endorsed, and cultivated by the City of Detroit and its Police Department as described herein violated Plaintiffs' rights against unlawful and unreasonable search and seizure as guaranteed by the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

36. Plaintiffs' arrest and detention as described herein were undertaken by Defendants without probable cause and without regard to any legitimate law enforcement interest.
37. The raid of Plaintiffs' home was based on a false affidavit sworn out by Defendant Geelhood who manufactured the bases of probable cause as described herein.
38. Defendants failed to knock and announce their presence before making forced entry into Plaintiffs' residence.
39. Plaintiffs' were unlawfully seized when the officers displayed and pointed their weapons at Plaintiffs without provocation or justification.
40. Defendant's actions were not taken spontaneously in response to an emergency, but rather in conformity with the City's deliberate policies, customs, and practices as carried out through the Detroit Police Department.
41. The constitutional rights that Defendant violated were clearly established at all times when Defendant violated such rights and a reasonable person in Defendant's position would have understood that his conduct was in violation of those rights.
42. Defendant Geelhood is thus not entitled to qualified immunity.
43. By virtue of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff is entitled to compensatory and punitive damages.

COUNT II; MONELL CLAIM AGAINST CITY OF DETROIT FOR UNCONSTITUTIONAL POLICIES, PRACTICES, AND/OR CUSTOMS

44. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference herein the allegations contained in the above paragraphs of this Complaint.
45. Defendant City of Detroit maintained an unconstitutional policy, custom, and/or practice of tolerating the misconduct and unlawful activity of officers within its Narcotics Unit.
46. Defendant City of Detroit's unconstitutional policy, custom, and/or practice of tolerating misconduct and the unlawful activity of its Narcotics Unit continued from, at least, 2010 through 2015 during which time Plaintiffs and several other individuals were subjected to unlawful searches and seizures by members of Defendant City of Detroit's Narcotics Unit.
47. Defendant City of Detroit knew about, or should have known about, the misconduct and unlawful activities of its officers within the Narcotics Unit before the raid of Plaintiffs' residence, and despite having such knowledge Defendant City of Detroit failed to remedy the misconduct and unlawful activity.
48. By failing to stop the misconduct and unlawful activity of its Narcotics Unit despite having knowledge of same, Defendant City of Detroit tacitly approved and condoned such unlawful activity which continued for several years.

49. For these reasons, Defendant City of Detroit is liable for the violation of Plaintiffs' constitutional rights which occurred as a direct result of Defendant City of Detroit's unconstitutional policy, custom, and/or practice as set forth herein.

COUNT III; MONELL CLAIM AGAINST CITY OF DETROIT FOR INADEQUATE TRAINING AND/OR SUPERVISION OF ITS AGENTS AND EMPLOYEES REGARDING THE CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS OF CITIZENS

50. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference herein the allegations contained in the above paragraphs of this Complaint.
51. Defendants City of Detroit had an obligation to train its employees, police officers, and/or agents regarding the constitutional rights of citizens under the Fourth Amendment.
52. Defendant City of Detroit had an obligation to supervise its agents and employees, including the individual Defendant named herein, to insure that the constitutional rights of Plaintiffs and similarly situated business owners were not violated.
53. Defendant City of Detroit failed to comply with its duty to train and/or supervise its employees, officers, and/or agents and had a custom or policy of acting with deliberate indifference to the types of egregious violations of the constitutional rights of Plaintiffs and other similarly situated business owners.

54. In this instance, the specific acts complained of herein were directed and encouraged by Sgt. Joe Tucker who were exercising supervisory authority over the individual officers and members of the narcotics unit.
55. Prior to the unlawful search and seizure of Plaintiffs' home, Defendant City of Detroit had knowledge that its narcotic officers, including Sgt. Joe Tucker, were falsifying time cards that purported to show narcotics surveillance that never occurred.
56. Despite having such knowledge, Defendant City of Detroit and its highest-ranking supervisory offices ignored such misconduct which Defendant "swept under the rug."
57. By failing to supervise its employees and officers, Defendant City of Detroit allowed a culture of corruption to flourish within certain ranks of its Police Department including the Narcotics Unit.
58. By inadequately training and/or supervising its employees, officers, and agents and having a custom or policy of deliberate indifference to the constitutional rights of Plaintiffs, Defendant City of Detroit encouraged and cultivated the conduct that resulted in the violation of Plaintiffs' constitutional rights.

59. Defendant City of Detroit had notice that its employees and officers were engaging in the types of actions described herein and failed to implement any preventative or corrective measures to ensure the safety of citizens including Plaintiffs.
60. Defendant City of Detroit's policies, practices, and customs were the moving force in causing Plaintiffs their injuries as described herein.
61. By virtue of the actions of Defendant City of Detroit, Plaintiffs are entitled to compensatory and punitive damages.

DAMAGES AND RELIEF REQUESTED

62. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference herein the allegations contained in the above paragraphs of this Complaint.
63. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' conduct, each and every one of them, as set forth herein, Plaintiffs' constitutional rights under the Fourth Amendment were violated.

under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1988, and/or Michigan law.

66. Plaintiffs are also entitled to declaratory and injunctive relief to prevent the further degradation, humiliation, embarrassment, injury, and emotional distress caused by Defendants' actions and unconstitutional policies, practices, and customs.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Honorable Court, by and through its trier of fact enter Judgment in favor of Plaintiffs and against Defendants, together with interest, costs and attorney fees or as otherwise determined by the court or trier of fact.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

In re:

CITY OF DETROIT, MICHIGAN,

Case No. 13-53846

Hon. Thomas J. Tucker

Chapter 9

Debtor.

DEBRA METRIS-SHAMOON, MUKHLIS SHAMOON,
CARL VERES, PAUL METRIS AND JULIA METRIS
RESPONSE IN OPPOSITION TO DEBTOR CITY OF DETROIT'S
MOTION FOR THE ENTRY OF AN ORDER ENFORCING THE BAR
DATE ORDER AND CONFIRMATION ORDER (DKT #13532)

By and through their counsel, Dettmer & Dezsi, PLLC, Debra Metris-Shamoon, Mukhlis Shamoon, Carl Veres, Paul Metris and Julia Metris (“Shamoons”) hereby file their Response in Opposition to the City of Detroit’s Motion for the Entry of an Order Enforcing the Bar Date and Confirmation Order (Dkt #13532).

In its motion, the City of Detroit asserts that the Shamoons are pursuing a pre-petition claim that has been discharged pursuant to the City’s Confirmed plan. The City’s motion should be denied for the following reasons:

1. The Shamoons were known creditors whose claims and/or identities were “readily ascertainable” by the City such that they were entitled to actual notice, and having failed to give the Shamoons such notice their claims are not subject to discharge;

2. The Shamoons did not fairly contemplate their claims against the City until after the effective date of the City's Confirmed plan such that they are not subject to discharge; and,
3. The City's right to discharge the Shamoons' claims are barred by the equitable doctrines of estoppel and laches.

Respectfully submitted,

BRIEF IN OPPOSITION TO DEBTOR CITY OF DETROIT'S MOTION FOR THE ENTRY OF AN ORDER ENFORCING THE BAR DATE ORDER
AND CONFIRMATION ORDER (DKT #13532)

I. Background Facts

A discussion of the facts relevant to the Shamoons' instant response require both a recitation of the facts underlying the Shamoons' case as well as the predecessor case of Timothy and Hatema Davis v. City of Detroit. The Davis case was filed as a putative class action alleging claims similar to the Shamoons.

Plaintiffs Debra Metris-Shamoon ("Debra") and her husband Mukhlis Shamoon ("Mukhlis") allege that they were subjected to an unlawful raid of their home in Shelby Township, Michigan by members of Detroit Police Department's Narcotics Unit. The raid took place on September 13, 2012, under the command of Sgt. Joe Tucker who supervised the raid crew which included, among others, Sgt. Stephen Geelhood. Both of Debra's octogenarian parents, Paul and Julia Metris, were visiting for lunch at the time of the raid, and so was a family friend, Carl Veres, who was picking up some clothes.

The raid lasted about an hour and a half during which she was never shown a warrant. The officers took all of her marijuana plants and product, about $315 cash, and some legally owned handguns that belonged to her son Adam. Debra testified that she was a licensed caregiver to provide marijuana though none of the officers ever asked to see any of her caregiver cards despite her offer to produce them.

Mukhlis was also a licensed caregiver. None of the Shamoons were ever charged with any crimes arising from the raid.

At the conclusion of the raid, Sgt. Joe Tucker left a Notice of Seizure and Intent to Forfeit form (Ex. O). Within a few days of the raid, both Debra Shamoons and her son Adam, had contacted the City of Detroit via telephone. Adam contacted Sgt. Tucker to inquire about why his parents' house was raided and inquired of the handguns taken from the home (Ex. G). According to Adam, he spoke to Sgt. Tucker and demanded answers about what had happened at his parents' home and about the status of their handguns. Id. Sgt. Tucker told Adam that he would have to wait before getting the guns and to call back a couple weeks later.

Debra, on the other hand, also contacted the Detroit Police department on two separate occasions in the couple weeks following the raid and before the 1st of October (Ex. H). During each of her calls, Debra also demanded answers about why her house had been raided and asked for a search warrant. Both times, Debra was told by some unknown lady from the department that she couldn't find any information on any of the Shamoons or a warrant in the department's computer system. Id.

After a couple weeks, Adam called Sgt. Tucker back and again demanded answers about what happened at his parents' home and the status of the handguns. Adam also advised Sgt. Tucker that he would get an attorney if necessary. Id.

Eventually, Sgt. Tucker told Adam to contact someone else at the department who told Adam he could come pick up his handguns though no one at the department explained to him what had happened at his parents' house. No one had shown him a warrant or other legal documentation regarding the search and seizure of the Shamoons' house.

On February 11, 2015, plaintiffs Timothy and Hatema Davis filed in the Eastern District of Michigan a putative class action under § 1983 against both the City of Detroit and several members of the Narcotics Unit claiming that they, along with several other individuals in and around Detroit, were subjected to unlawful raid of their home in Warren, Michigan. The Davis raid occurred in December 2013. See Case No. 15-cv-10547 (E.D. Mich.)(J. Borman)(Ex. A). The Davises allegations closely mirrored the allegations later made by the Shamoons insofar as the manner in which officers conducted the raid.

There was much media attention about the Davis case given the allegations of misconduct against the City of Detroit and its narcotics officers (Ex. B). Along with others, the Shamoons saw these media articles and contacted the undersigned counsel regarding the September 2012 raid of their home (Ex. H). According to Debra, these news reports were the first time that she or her family had any idea that her rights may have been violated by the actions of the officers.

On April 8, 2015, the U.S. Attorney indicted several members of the City of Detroit's Narcotics Unit, including narcotics officer Arthur Leavells (Ex. C).

On April 23, 2015, the undersigned counsel served on the City of Detroit the Davis plaintiffs' First Request to Produce Documents seeking documents related to the City's raids on several homes including the Shamoons' home (Ex. D, Plaintiffs' First Request to Produce, Nos. 1 and 2, pgs. 1-2).

Ultimately, after conducting some class-related discovery, the Davis plaintiffs moved to certify a class action consisting of individuals, including the Shamoons, who had been subjected to unlawful raids by members of the City of Detroit's now-defunct narcotics unit. See Motion to Certify Class, Case No. 15-cv-10547 ECF No. 88 (E.D. Mich.). Ultimately, the district court denied the Davises' Motion to Certify Class, see Case No. 15-cv-10547 ECF No. 168 (J. Borman Opinion and Order Denying Motion for Class). Not long after the district court denied the Davises' Motion to Certify Class, the Davises and the City of Detroit settled the Davises' claims for $350,000 (Ex. E). The release makes clear that the City of Detroit was a released party under the settlement.

On November 26, 2018, the Shamoons filed their own individual action naming as defendants both the City of Detroit and several individual officers who supervised and/or participated in the raid on the Shamoons' home including Sgt. Stephen Geelhood and Sgt. Joe Tucker. Since the filing of the Shamoons' case, the parties conducted extensive discovery that resulted in numerous discovery motions, motions for show cause, and dispositive motions (Ex. S Shamoan Docket).

On October 23, 2020, the individual Defendants filed a Motion to Dismiss pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(c) (Case No. 3:18-cv-13683 ECF No. 121), and the City of Detroit filed a Motion for Summary Judgment pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 56 (ECF No. 122). On November 20, 2020, Plaintiffs filed their response to Defendants' dispositive motions (ECF No. 125 and ECF No. 126).

On June 25, 2021, Judge Tarnow issued his Opinion and Order Granting in part and denying in part Defendants' Motion to Dismiss and/or for Summary Judgment (Case No. 3:18-cv-13683 ECF No. 145). In his Opinion and Order, Judge Tarnow denied Defendant City of Detroit's Motion for Summary Judgment finding that there were questions of as to (1) whether Plaintiffs' Fourth Amendment rights were violated by the search and seizure of their home; and, (2) whether the City of Detroit is liable under Monell based on both an "inaction theory" and a policy of inadequate supervision. Opinion and Order, Case No. 3:18-cv-13683, ECF No. 145, PageID.4466-4474 (E.D. Mich.).

In reaching his conclusion, Judge Tarnow relied on the extensive summary judgment record that included evidence that the City of Detroit was aware, as early as 2010, that members of its Narcotics Unit, including specifically Sgt. Stephen Geelhood, were conducting unlawful raids in and around the City of Detroit.

For instance, there was sworn testimony from Arthur Leavells,¹ the affiant of the purported search warrant for the Davises' home, that he routinely lied on affidavits in support of search warrants and would simply make up phony affidavits with "all kinds of lies" and that "it's not hard to do." (Ex. I, Trans. Pg. 72-73). Leavells admitted that he got bogus search warrants on "countless occasions" (Ex. I, Tr. 77), and there was "a lot of crookery going on in Detroit Police Narcotics" including "money seizures[.]" (Id. at Tr. 80:16 - 81:5). Leavells also testified that Sgt. Geelhood, the affiant of alleged search warrant affidavit for the Shamoons, had full knowledge of the misconduct, (id. at Tr. 81:11, 82:24—83:3), and that the narcotics officers were "ripping off marijuana when [they'd] go for raids[.]" Id. at Tr. 83. Leavells testified the officers would divide up the seized money (Id. at 82), and take "personal property like jewelry, cash, drugs, and guns." (Ex. I, Tr. 84-85).

In another instance, several officers of the narcotics crew were caught (on camera) stealing from another narcotics raid in February 2014 (Ex. N). That raid was also supervised and carried out at the direction of Sgt. Geelhood. The property owner had hidden cameras on the premises which recorded the narcotics officers stealing items. The owner of the property indicated that his Chase debit card was also taken and he subsequently discovered an unauthorized charge for $1,000 (Ex. N, pg 1-2).

Further evidence of Sgt. Geelhood's misconduct came from Wayne County Prosecutor Kym Worthy who recently moved to vacate a 2012 drug conviction of a defendant who was convicted upon the testimony and search warrant affidavit of Sgt. Geelhood. In an official press release, Worthy remarked "[t]hese are the first cases that deal directly with fraudulent search warrant affidavits and other activities by highly unethical and compromised narcotics police officers." Ex. M.²

Former Chief of Police James Craig also testified in his deposition that he believed that the narcotics unit's sergeants were "directly involved in the alleged misconduct" or "complicit and not taking appropriate supervisory action when necessary (Ex. J, Craig Depo. 24:14-22). Chief Craig's testimony is entirely consistent with the testimony of Leavells that Sgt. Geelhood was an active participant in the scheme.

In sum, Judge Tarnow concluded based on the voluminous summary judgment record that there was sufficient evidence that the City of Detroit knew about, but failed to stop, the rampant corruption and misconduct of the Narcotics Unit during the time of the Shamoons raid. Accordingly, Judge Tarnow denied the City of Detroit's Motion for Summary Judgment.

² Judge Tarnow concluded that Worthy's press release was competent evidence for purposes of opposing the City of Detroit's motion for summary judgment. See Case No. 18-cv-13683 ECF No. 145, Opinion and Order on Summary Judgment, pg. 29 n.9)(citing to FRE 803(8)(A)(i)-(iii); Patterson v. Central Mills, Inc., 64 Fed. Appx. 457, 462 (6th Cir. 2003)

The Shamoons' case was recently referred to Magistrate Judge Stafford for all final pre-trial matters, including motions in limine, jury instructions, verdict form, etc. See Case No. 18-cv-13863 ECF No. 154, Order Referring All Pretrial Matters. On March 16, 2022, Magistrate Judge Stafford issued a Notice to Appear which directed the parties to file a joint factual and procedural summary of the case before March 30, 2022. ECF No. 155.

In response to Magistrate Judge Stafford's Order, the City of Detroit asserted, for the first time ever, its defense that the Shamoons' claims were subject to discharge under the City's Confirmed Plan. The City of Detroit has now filed with this Court its Motion for the Entry of an Order Enforcing the Bar Date Order and Confirmation Order against the Shamoons.

For the reasons that follow, the Court should deny the City's motion and allow the matter to proceed to trial.

II. Discussion and Analysis

A. The Shamoons were known creditors whose claims and/or identities were "readily ascertainable" by the City such that they were entitled to actual notice, and having failed to give the Shamoons such actual notice their claims are not subject to discharge.

To the extent that the City asserts that the Shamoons' pre-petition claims are subject to discharge, the Court should reject the City's assertion and find that the Shamoons were known creditors who should have received actual notice of the City's bankruptcy. Without such notice, a discharge of their claims would violate the Shamoons' right to due process.

The Bankruptcy Code provides that notice shall be given of the commencement of a Chapter 9 case. 11 U.S.C. § 923. The Code also provides that "The debtor shall file a list of creditors." 11 U.S.C. § 924. Under the Code, a creditor is defined as an entity, which includes a person, that has a claim against the debtor that arose at the time of or before the order for relief concerning the debtor. 11 U.S.C. § 101(10). Known creditors are entitled to actual notice. 11 U.S.C. § 944(c)(2); Paging Network, Inc. v. Nationwide Paging, Inc., 534 F.3d 76, 80-81 (1st Cir. 2008).

A known creditor is one whose claims or identities are "readily ascertainable" by the debtor. See Paging Network, 534 F.3d at 81 (citing Tulsa Prof'l Collection Servs, Inc. v. Pope, 485 U.S. 478, 490 (1988)). Readily ascertainable means a debtor can discover a creditor's claims through "reasonably diligent efforts." Paging Network, 534 F.3d at 81. Reasonably diligent efforts require a debtor to examine its "own books and records." In re U.S. Home Corp., 223 B.R. 654, 659 (Bankr. S.D. N.Y. 1998). A claim is also discoverable to a debtor if the debtor has something in its possession like a demand or payment or “some communication with a debtor concerning the existence of the creditor’s claim.” In re Talon Auto Group, 284 B.R. 622, 626 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 2002)(quoting In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc., 151 B.R. 674, 681 (Bankr. S.D. N.Y. 1993)).

The Shamoons assert that their potential claim was known to the City such that they were entitled to receive actual notice. The Shamoons’ house was raided by several members of the Narcotics Unit including, specifically, Sgt. Stephen Geelhood who was the affiant of the purported search warrant for the Shamoons’ home. According to the sworn testimony of former narcotics officer Arthur Leavells, Sgt. Geelhood participated in a scheme to conduct unlawful raids by falsifying search warrants (Ex. I, Trans. pg. 81:11, 82:24-83:3 and Trans. pg. 84-85).

On this point, Judge Tarnow found that there were questions of fact as to whether Sgt. Geelhood’s affidavit was knowingly falsified. Case No. 3:18-cv-13683 ECF No. 145, PageID.4457-4460, Opinion and Order (finding ample record evidence creating a question of fact as to whether Geelhood falsified his affidavit in support of search warrant). In light of this evidence, the Court should conclude that the debtor knew of the Shamoons’ claims given that claims relate directly to the willful misconduct of a supervisory agent (i.e., Sgt. Geelhood) and for which the debtor’s own records would have reflected that the Shamoons were subject to this bogus raid.

Additionally, the Shamoons' son, Adam Shagoon, contacted Sgt. Tucker and spoke to him no less than twice about the status of his firearms that were confiscated during the raid and inquired of Sgt. Tucker as to City's legal basis for raiding the Shamoons' house (Ex. 7). These facts satisfy the "some communication with a debtor concerning the existence of the [Shamoons'] claim." Despite having knowledge of such a claim, the City failed to list the Shamoons as creditors on their Schedule H.

It should also be pointed out that, if the City would have listed the Shamoons as known creditors in its Schedule H, their claims would not have been subject to discharge under the terms of the confirmed plan. Specifically, the plan exempts from discharge claims by known creditors to the extent that such claims "result from any act or omission to the extent that the act or omission subsequently is determined by a Final Order to have constituted . . . willful misconduct[.]" Ex. L, Excerpt of Confirmed Plan, Art III, Sec D, sub. (7)(a), pg. 52 (entitled "Releases").

Based on the allegations of their Complaint, and the findings by Judge Tarnow in his Opinion and Order on summary judgment, there is more than an adequate basis from which to conclude that the Shamoons' claims were based on willful misconduct. The crux of their Monell claims against the City is premised on the theory that the City had knowledge of the misconduct within the narcotics unit and despite such knowledge the City failed to stop the misconduct. Such facts constitute “omissions” by the City to stop the rampant and widespread willful misconduct within the Narcotics Unit.

On this point, it should be noted that both Sgt. Tucker and Sgt. Geelhood have demonstrated histories for dishonest and willful misconduct. While now former convicted felon Arthur Leavells implicated Sgt. Geelhood in the ongoing misconduct, Sgt. Tucker also has a similar history of falsifying affidavit in support of narcotics-related search warrants and Sgt. Tucker had been the subject of several Internal Affairs investigations regarding perjury, misconduct, and fraud (Ex. P, DPD # 2255, 2257, 2259).

In one such investigation by Internal Affairs (IAU Case # 00-213), Sgt. Tucker was accused of perjury (i.e., falsifying a narcotics-related search warrant affidavit and swearing to have observed an individual selling narcotics whereas such individual was incarcerated at the time of Tucker’s alleged observation) (Ex. Q, DPD 2350-2353)(finding that Sgt. Tucker neglected his duty “by swearing to and signing a Search Warrant and Affidavit that contained false information[.]”).

Sgt. Tucker was accused or engaging in criminal fraud by falsifying time records and daily activity logs which included false entries purporting to reflect narcotics surveillance (Ex. R, DPD 2734-2741); (DPD 2736, “Tucker was falsifying OT requests and activity logs saying he worked OT that he did not work.”). The complainant in that instance, Sgt-turned-Lt. Kelly Fitzgerald, described the City’s response to credible allegations of Tucker’s misconduct as being “swept . . . under the rug” by the Lieutenant, Commander, Deputy Chief of the Narcotics Unit, and Internal Affairs (Ex. R, DPD 2740). Lt. Fitzgerald was sufficiently concerned about the Department’s deliberate indifference to the matter that she sought an investigation by Office of Inspector General asking that it investigate why the “initial complaint of criminal conduct” on the part of Tucker was “Administratively” closed by Internal Affairs, and further requesting that the OIG investigate “both criminal and department charges” related to Tucker’s misconduct and those who swept the matter “under the rug.” Judge Tarnow relied on, and specifically pointed to some of this record evidence in reaching his conclusion that the City had knowledge, and ignored, the willful misconduct that was pervasive in the former narcotics unit.

In sum, there is record evidence that Sgt. Tucker was aware that the Shamoons were challenging the manner in which the raid of their home was carried out, and as a sergeant of the narcotics department, Sgt. Tucker’s knowledge of the Shamoons’ claims should be imputed to the City. There is also evidence that the City knew about the misconduct within the narcotics department (specifically about Sgt. Tucker), and that despite such knowledge the City turned a blind eye to such misconduct. Collectively, this record evidence compels the conclusion that the City should have discovered the Shamoons’ claims through the exercise of reasonably diligent efforts.

Even without reaching the merits of whether the Shamoons' claims fall within the exemption from discharge as set forth above, the City's motion should nevertheless be denied based on the violation of the Shamoons' due process rights because the City's failed to provide them with actual notice. In this context, the due process clause requires a reasonable search for contingent or unmatured claims so that ascertainable creditors, like the Shamoons, would have received adequate notice of the proceedings and deadlines.

What is reasonable depends on the particular facts of each case. However, a known claim arises from facts that would alert the reasonable debtor of the possibility that a claim might reasonably be filed against it. In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp. Inc., 151 B.R. 674, 680-81 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.), aff'd sub nom. In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp., Inc., 157 B.R. 532 (S.D.N.Y. 1993). In this instance, the Debtor was aware of facts sufficient to alert it to the possibility that the Shamoons might have claims against the City.

In addition to the facts stated above, former Chief of Police James Craig's testimony supports the conclusion that the City should have known that the Shamoons were creditors based on the unlawful raid carried out by its narcotics officers and supervisors. Chief Craig confirmed, publicly and under oath during his deposition, that the City's Internal Affairs uncovered "false affidavits" that Craig described as "fabricated" and further acknowledged that "surveillance that was supposedly conducted to get the warrants wasn't done; information (officers) said they got from confidential informants was erroneous[.]” Craig also testified that these “patterns” of false affidavits and bogus claims of surveillance suggest the misconduct of the Narcotics Unit was more widespread than he previously thought (Ex. J, Craig Depo. pg. 52:10-53:5).

Importantly, former Chief Craig disbanded the City’s Narcotics Unit effective July 22, 2014 (Ex. F) which occurred before the debtor’s Eighth Amended Plan of the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit was confirmed by this Court on November 12, 2014. From these facts, it is clear that: (1) the debtor’s supervisory agents (i.e., Sgt. Geelhood and Sgt. Tucker) knew about the Shamoons’ constitutional claims against the City; (2) the City’s Internal Affairs department had knowledge of the misconduct within the narcotics unit well before July 2014; and, (3) former Chief of Police James Craig knew about the misconduct within the Narcotics Unit including, specifically, that narcotics officers were falsifying affidavits in support of narcotics-related search warrants.

In light of the foregoing, the Debtor could have discovered the Shamoons’ constitutional claims through reasonably diligent efforts. In particular, a review of the debtor’s “own books and records” of the Narcotics Unit would have uncovered the Shamoons’ claims. As Judge Tarnow pointed out, the City was unable to produce in discovery any records that confirmed the existence of the Confidential

Informant allegedly relied upon by Sgt. Geelhood. Nor could the City produce any records that confirmed the alleged surveillance of the Shamoons' home conducted by Sgt. Geelhood. See Case No. 3:18-cv-13683 ECF No. 145, PageID.4457-4458 (noting the absence of any records produced by the City to substantiate Geelhood's alleged reliance on a confidential informant); Id. at pg. 21-22 (Judge Tarnow noting that "while Geelhood claims to have surveilled the Shamoons' address on approximately five occasions prior to seeking a warrant, Defendants have produced no documentary evidence in support of this claim."); id. at 22 (Judge Tarnow further noting that according to Deputy Chief Fitzgerald, DPD officers are required to document their surveillance, even if it is just jotting a note on the back of a receipt" and that "the City's record retention policies require that case reports for felony investigations, including case logs, be retained for at least twenty years.").

In light of former Chief Craig's statements coupled with the lack of any documentation whatsoever to substantiate Geelhood's affidavit and search warrant to raid the Shamoons' home, this Court should conclude that the City's "own books and records" would have put the City on notice of the Shamoons' constitutional claims relating to the bogus raid conducted upon their home by Sgt. Geelhood. And having such knowledge and failing to give the Shamoons' actual notice, the City's untimely attempt to discharge their claims should fail.

Discharge under the Bankruptcy Code presumes that all creditors bound by the plan have been given notice sufficient to satisfy due process. See In re First Am. Health Care of Georgia, 220 B.R. 720, 723 (Bankr.S.D.Ga.1998). Both the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. 944(c)(2), and the City's Confirmed Plan (Article III D.4.b.) provide that the debtor is not discharged from any debt owed to an entity that, before confirmation of the plan, had neither notice nor actual knowledge of the Chapter 9 case.

Here, the Shamoons should have been a scheduled creditor and should have received the statutory notice required under the Code. The purpose of statutorily requiring a debtor to list its creditors with their mailing addresses is to provide them with basic due process notice. In re Glenwood Medical Group, Ltd., 211 B.R. 282, 285 (Bankr.N.D.111.1997). It is the debtor's burden to establish that the creditor received adequate notice. See In re O'Sullivan, 488 B.R. 510, 513 (Bankr. D. Mass. 2013)(citing In re Massa, 187 F.3d 292, 296 (2d Cir.1999)).

The totality of the circumstances should have alerted the City to the possibility that the Shamoons might reasonably have a claim for damages arising from the bogus raid upon their home in September 2012. Despite having knowledge of their claims, the Shamoons are not listed as creditors in the Debtor's Schedule H attached to its Second Amended List of Creditors and Claims (Doc No. 1059, Notice of Filing of Second Amended List of Creditors and Claims). The City had an obligation to mail the Shamoons notice of the bankruptcy. And the Shamoons had neither notice, nor actual knowledge of the City's Chapter 9 bankruptcy case. (Ex. H). Since the Shamoons were known claimants who did not receive the required notice their claims were not discharged in bankruptcy.

B. The Shamoons did not fairly contemplate their claims against the City of Detroit until after the effective date of the City's Confirmed plan such that they are not subject to discharge.

Alternatively, the Court should conclude that the Shamoons' did not fairly contemplate their claims against the City until after the City's confirmation plan was approved by the Court in 2014. For purposes of bankruptcy law, whether a party has a claim against a debtor is determined under the "fair contemplation" test. "[A] claim cannot fall within the purview of section 101(5) – and thus cannot be discharged as a pre-petition claim – unless that claim could have been contemplated by the parties prior to the bankruptcy proceedings." In re City of Detroit, Michigan, 548 B.R. at 761.

Here, while the raid on the Shamoons' house took place in September 2012, the Shamoons had no reason to suspect that the raid was carried out pursuant to a scheme by corrupt narcotics officers. At best, the Shamoons were concerned about the potential of criminal liability, but never thinking that the raid of their home was carried out by corrupt narcotics officers and sergeants who were falsifying affidavits with the intent to raid medical marijuana providers and reap the rewards of their misconduct.

The Shamoons had no reason to know, until the early part of 2015, that there was rampant corruption within the narcotics unit and that these corrupt officers were deliberating targeting medical marijuana providers in and around the City of Detroit for their own pecuniary gain. The first time that the Shamoons had any reason to believe they may have had a claim to assert against the City of Detroit was after hearing news reports about the Davis case in or around February 2015, followed by the federal indictments of several City of Detroit narcotics officers in April 2015 (Ex. H and B). By this point in time, the City's confirmed plan had already been approved by the Court in November 12, 2014.

Given the willful misconduct by the officers involved, the Shamoons did not fairly contemplate their constitutional claims against the City until after it was too late. For this reason, the Court should conclude that their claims are not barred.

C. The City's right to discharge the Shamoons' claims are barred by the equitable doctrines of estoppel and laches.

Assuming, arguendo, that the Court finds rejects the Shamoons' arguments above, the City's motion should also be denied under the equitable doctrines of estoppel and laches. It is well established that this Court retains equitable powers as codified in 11 U.S.C. § 105. Based on the facts presented here, the Court should decide, as a matter of equity, that the City's motion should be denied based on equitable estoppel and laches.

“The defense of laches ‘requires proof of (1) lack of diligence by the party against whom the defense is asserted; and, (2) prejudice to the party asserting the defense.’” In re Rechis, 339 B.R. 643, 645 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 2006)(J. Rhodes). The Shamoons satisfy each of these requirements relative to the City’s untimely motion.

First, it should be noted that the instant case was filed more than three-and-a-half years ago on November 18, 2018. During the lengthy pendency of this matter, the parties have extensively litigated numerous discovery disputes at great expense to the Shamoons. At no time during any of the last 3.5 years of this protracted litigation did the City seek to assert its rights, whatever they may be, to discharge and/or enjoin the Shamoons’ constitutional claims based on its confirmed plan.³

To the contrary, the City first raised its purported discharge defense only after the City had filed lengthy motions for summary judgment and after the Shamoons responded in opposition to such motions with a nearly 1,000 page summary judgment record of exhibits. See Case No. 3:18-cv-13683 ECF Nos. 121, 122, 123 (Motion(s) to Dismiss and for Summary Judgment, and ECF Nos. 125, 126, 128 (Shamoons’ Responses to Motion(s) to dismiss and for Summary Judgment along with Appendix of Exhibits. Only now after more than 3.5 years of litigation, and having not prevailed on summary judgment and facing an imminent trial, has the City raised, for the first time, its purported discharge defense. The City had a duty to raise its purported discharge defense without prejudicial delay, and the City failed to do so here.

As to the prejudice prong, the Court should consider that the Shamoons have incurred expenses totaling nearly $12,500 during this litigation. Such expenses include fifteen depositions and expert witness fees. Forcing the Shamoons to incur such costs while sitting idle for more than 3.5 years on its purported discharge defense constitutes prejudice to the Shamoons and should be considered under this Court's equitable powers. See, e.g., In re Dixon, 295 B.R. 226, 234 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 2003)(J. Shefferly)(highlighting that “the equitable doctrine of laches, which has as its goal the prevention of prejudicial delay in the bringing of a proceeding, is a relevant and necessary doctrine in the bankruptcy context.”). Clearly the City knew about its purported discharge defense long before now. In fact, the City has known of their potential discharge defense since 2015 during the litigation (and settlement) of the Davis case. Based on the City's egregious 3.5 year delay in raising such a defense, it appears just as likely that the City's instant motion is simply a litigation strategy to derail a trial on the merits.

These same facts should also compel the Court to conclude that the City is equitably estopped from seeking the relief raised in its instant motion. The doctrine of equitable estoppel may apply based on (1) conduct or language amounting to a representation of material facts; (2) the party to be estopped must be aware of the true facts; (3) the party to be estopped must intend that the representation be acted on or must act in such manner that the party asserting the estoppel has a right to believe it so intended; (4) the party asserting the estoppel must be unaware of the true facts; and, (5) the party asserting the estoppel must detrimentally and justifiably rely on the representation. In re H.R.P. Auto Center, Inc., 130 B.R. 247, 254 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1991)(citing Apponi v. Sunshine Biscuits, Inc., 809 F.2d 1210 (6th Cir. 1987), cert. denied 484 U.S. 820 (1987)).

Here, the Shamoons had no reason to believe their claims were subject to discharge. This is especially so given that the City settled the predecessor Davis case which was filed as a putative class action and in which the City was made aware, specifically, of the identity of the Shamoons as putative class members. At no time during the Davis litigation did the City ever assert that the Shamoons' claims (or any of the other putative class member's claims) were barred or subject to discharge under the City's confirmed plan. Instead, the City proceeded to discuss settlement of all the putative class cases, including the Shamoons, but ultimately the parties settled only the Davis case after which the Shamoons' instant case was filed in November 2018. Based on these actions, the Shamoons reasonably relied, to their detriment, in filing their instant claims without any knowledge of the City's purported discharge defense. During the more than 3.5 years litigating this matter, the Shamoons expended considerable time, money, and effort in prosecuting these claims.

Based on the sequence and timing of these facts, the Court should conclude that the City is now equitably estopped from the relief it now seeks.

CONCLUSION AND RELIEF REQUESTED

Based on the foregoing, the Court should deny the City's Motion for the Entry of an Order Enforcing the Bar Date Order and Confirmation Order as to the Shamoons.

Respectfully submitted,

DETTMER & DEZSI, PLLC,

Warren couple says Detroit police raid violated rights

Tom Greenwood and George Hunter The Detroit News

Published 11:45 a.m. ET Feb. 12, 2015 | Updated 11:24 p.m. ET Feb. 12, 2015

A Warren couple whose medical marijuana operation was raided by the Detroit Police Department's narcotics unit have filed a civil lawsuit against the officers, including one who killed himself after being investigated for corruption by the FBI and Internal Affairs.

The complaint was filed Wednesday in federal court by Timothy and Hatema Davis and names the city of Detroit as well as Lt. Charles Flanagan, former head of the DPD's narcotics unit, Detective James Napier and officers "Novak" and "John Doe."

Napier, who according to sources was being investigated for narcotics corruption, shot himself Jan. 22 while sitting in his car outside his parents' home in Sterling Heights.

The lawsuit alleges that on Dec. 28, 2013, the officers illegally raided the Davis home in Warren, which was the site of a legal marijuana growing facility.

The complaint alleges officers broke down a door and pointed weapons at Davis and his wife while failing to produce a search warrant.

Over the next few hours, the officers allegedly tore the house apart, seized 50 marijuana plants and related items and then transported the couple to a location in Detroit where they were questioned for another five hours, according to the lawsuit.

The couple were eventually released and never faced any charges, according to the complaint.

Detroit police spokeswoman June West said Thursday the department had just become aware of the Warren couple's lawsuit.

"We don't comment on litigation ... but there is no indication that this is connected to the federal investigation, which is isolated to a single team in the now disbanded narcotics unit."

The Detroit News

He added Napier had left the narcotics squad by the time Flanagan assumed command of the unit.

Flanagan — who reportedly was not the subject of any corruption investigation — declined to expand his comments because of the pending lawsuit.

The lawsuit alleges the defendants “have engaged in similar unlawful searches and seizures of other legitimate marijuana grow facilities in and around the city of Detroit” and that the city “has allowed an unconstitutional policy, custom and practice to flourish within its police department.”

The lawsuit also accused the city of failing to properly train its employees and officers, which allows a “culture of corruption to flourish within certain ranks of its police department including the narcotics unit.”

The complaint asks for compensation for the Davises plus attorney fees.

In July, Detroit Police Chief James Craig dismantled the narcotics unit in light of the investigation and replaced it with the major violators section.

Meanwhile, Flanagan, along with Craig and Assistant Chief Steve Dolunt, are accused of racism and harassment in a lawsuit filed in October by a former Detroit police officer.

The lawsuit was filed by Sgt. Myron Weathers, a 19-year veteran, in Wayne County Circuit Court. The lawsuit alleges Flanagan appointed an “unqualified white female officer” to a Drug Enforcement Administration Task Force.

Weathers said he was seeking damages of more than $25,000 because of retaliation for “questioning the assignment of an unqualified white, female officer to (Flanagan’s) crew.”

In response, Flanagan said Weathers took big screen TVs, a tablet and a video game system for his personal use after they were seized from drug dealers.

Flanagan also said rocks of crack cocaine that hadn’t been logged as evidence were found inside the desks of officers. Flanagan’s allegations initiated an internal investigation in May.

In his lawsuit, Weathers denied Flanagan’s accusations, saying he hadn’t improperly used the confiscated equipment and he had “repurposed” the TVs “for training purposes.”

In an earlier interview, Flanagan called Weathers’ suit a case of “sour grapes.”

Flanagan filed his own EEOC complaint in May claiming he was the victim of racial discrimination by black supervisors.

He also alleged he was exposed to a hostile work environment because he blew the whistle on alleged wrongdoings in the narcotics unit that happened before he took over the squad.

Lawsuit: Officers in Detroit police department's now-defunct narcotics unit executed illegal search based on false affidavit

Posted By Ryan Felton on Thu, Mar 12, 2015 at 11:14 am

Wikipedia

Detroit police officers in the city's now-defunct narcotics unit wrongly detained a Detroit resident after illegally searching his home with a warrant based on false statements, according to a lawsuit filed in Wayne County Circuit Court.

Anthony and Elaine McCallum say two officers executed a search warrant in 2013 on their home that was based on false statements given by a Detroit law enforcement official in a sworn affidavit, according to the complaint. The officers physically assaulted Anthony and threatened Elaine "for no reason," the complaint, filed in November, stated.

As a result of the April 2013 search, Anthony McCallum was charged with intent to deliver and manufacture marijuana, intent to deliver and manufacture less than 50 grams of cocaine, firearms possession by a felon, and felony firearms, court records show — but all charges were eventually dismissed. McCallum was convicted in 1997 of assault with intent to commit sexual penetration, according to the Michigan State Police sex offender registry.

The McCallums filed their seven-page complaint against two officers who conducted the search of their home, Sgt. Stephen Geelhood and "Officer Blue," who have been with the Detroit Police Department since 1994 and 1997, respectively, according to court records. In briefs filed by the McCallums attorney, Geelhood and Blue are identified as "undercover" officers in the city's "now disbanded narcotics unit." (The city later identified Blue in an email to MT as Officer Abraham Blue.)

Upon entering the couple's home, the officers assaulted Anthony McCallum, handcuffed and arrested the 47-year-old "without probable cause," and wrongfully pursued prosecution, according to the complaint. It's unclear if more officers were involved in the search.

"Defendants wrongfully pursued prosecution of Plaintiff based on their own wrongful conduct," the complaint alleges.

Thomas Kuhn, co-counsel representing the McCallums, declined comment. Detroit police said Geelhood and Blue remain employed with the department, but declined to comment on the pending litigation.

How Detroit police officers went about getting the search warrant was apparently the chief reason Anthony McCallum's charges were dropped almost instantaneously, court records show.

Here's what happened: Police obtained the warrant based on an affidavit signed by Officer Amy Matelic, according to a court transcript from an Aug. 8, 2013 hearing on the charges brought against Anthony McCallum, who initially plead not guilty on each count. In the sworn affidavit, Matelic stated she received a tip from a confidential informant that cocaine was being sold and stored within McCallum's home. The informant provided tips in the past that led to arrests and generated cases in 3rd Circuit Court and 36th District Court, according to the transcript.

The problem? According to the transcript, Matelic had no direct conversation with the informant or personal knowledge of the tip; another officer, Gil Hood, actually received it. But, for unclear reasons, Hood didn't sign the affidavit.

"So the affidavit I mean really just cannot be described as anything other than false in that respect," said Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Michael Hathaway, during the 2013 hearing.

The only thing "honestly averred in the affidavit," Hathaway said, is that Matelic and Hood conducted surveillance of McCallum's property. "That in and of itself does not provide probable cause for the warrant," Hathaway said.

In his parting words, Hathaway offered this to Anthony McCallum: "You have dodged a bullet. It is highly unlikely that this will ever happen again. And I strongly urge you to clean up your act."

The case and charges against McCallum were dismissed following the hearing in Hathaway's courtroom.

Peter Henning, a Wayne State University law professor and former federal prosecutor, said the key to affidavits is the veracity of the informant.

"You have to establish the credibility of the tipster and or corroborate what was provided," Henning told MT on Wednesday. "So I expect the affidavit wasn't just, 'Hey, I got a tip' — but it was, 'Hey, I got a tip from someone I know and here's what I know.'"

Officer Matelic's decision to sign the affidavit, when she had no personal knowledge of the tip, was "either sloppy practices or it shows the path of least resistance figuring no one would ever notice," Henning said.

"Get your affidavit blown — that would blow the warrant," he said. "It's not like they said, 'Oh, let's let a bad guy go' ... it did not meet the valid, constitutional requirements for a warrant."

The McCallums lawsuit, which also names the city of Detroit as a defendant, seeks compensatory damages in excess of $25,000 and attorney fees. A motion hearing is scheduled March 20 before Judge Annette Berry in Wayne County Circuit Court.

Detroit's narcotics unit was disbanded last summer by Detroit Police Chief James Craig. Since August, it has reportedly been the focus of an FBI probe. (David Porter, special agent in the FBI's Detroit bureau declined comment Thursday.)

Last month, it was also at the center of a separate lawsuit filed by a Warren couple. The couple, Timothy and Hatema Davis, allege officers forcibly entered their home in December 2013 with assault rifles drawn, demanded to know if they had any money, and seized nearly fifty marijuana plants, according to the complaint.

Timothy Davis — who said he was then taken to a seemingly abandoned building and questioned for five hours — was legally licensed to operate a marijuana grow facility, the complaint says.

The Davises say in the complaint the Detroit officers who conducted the raid never presented a search warrant.

The couple was handcuffed while officers "extensively tore apart Plaintiffs' property and removed ... nearly fifty marijuana plants and other related legitimate and lawful by-products of Plaintiffs' business," the complaint says.

The Davises were eventually released and never charged with any violations. The case remains pending.

Ex-drug squad member helped feds snare indicted

Robert Snell and George Hunter, The Detroit News 9:41 a.m. EDT April 17, 2015

A former member of a scandal-plagued Detroit police drug unit wore a secret recording device to help FBI agents catch and extorting drug dealers, The Detroit News has learned.

Officer Arthur Leavells was involved in an alleged conspiracy headed by two suspended members of the Detroit Police Department, federal agents secretly record conversations via a wiretap, according to court records and two sources familiar with the investigation.

The officer's involvement helps flesh out what led to a criminal case that Chief James Craig said undermined the public's cooperation also is a rare instance of a law enforcement member crossing the "thin blue line" to help prosecute colleagues.

The FBI and U.S. Attorney's Office refused to comment Thursday about the investigation and Leavells.

"The challenge for prosecutors is piercing the thin blue line, but there comes a point where self-interest takes over," said University law professor and former federal prosecutor. "Anytime someone wears a wire, they're playing on other people. There is a special bond but once prosecutors breach it, wiretaps end up helping build a much stronger case."

Leavells, 44, was charged in connection with his role in the conspiracy, according to federal court records filed Thursday. "information," which means a guilty plea is expected.

Lt. David "Hater" Hansberry and Officer Bryan "Bullet" Watson were charged April 8 in a bare-bones indictment. Court records indicate prosecutors are armed with bank and cellphone records, text messages, tax documents, photos and a wiretap. Sources familiar with the investigation told The News.

He allegedly conspired to distribute cocaine between June 2010 and August 2014, according to federal court records. He was charged Thursday.

That is the roughly the same period covered in the indictment against Hansberry and Watson, who are accused of arranging for money, narcotics and property.

Leavells worked in the drug unit under Hansberry, a source told The News, but quit several months ago after being suspended from the drug unit. They were suspended after a surveillance video captured them taking away a box that they never logged from a suspected drug house.

Hansberry, 34, of Warren and Watson, 46, of Novi, meanwhile, were suspended without pay following the indictment.

They "would also identify themselves as law enforcement officers performing official law enforcement duties in order to gain trust with their demands and to encourage their victims to flee, leaving behind their controlled substances, money or personal property," the indictment.

Instead of turning over the money, drugs and property to the Detroit Police Department, Hansberry and Watson sold the information to informants — and split the money, the Justice Department alleged.

In a court filing, prosecutors gave a peek at the types of evidence gathered during the current investigation.

That evidence includes phone records, social media records, receipts and other records of retail purchases.

A lawyer for Watson, a 22-year veteran of the department, declined comment Thursday.

Hansberry is a 16-year veteran — his lawyer called him a "superstar" — who rose through the ranks and was promoted

Hansberry's lawyer, Michael Harrison, could not be reached for comment Thursday but earlier told The News he worried

"My fear is that this case could be about drug dealers and dirty cops looking to get themselves out of trouble by burning Harrison said. "Could there be a much bigger fish than a young rising star of the police department?"

Craig declined comment Thursday, as did a spokeswoman for the U.S. Attorney's Office.

Two others have been charged in the case. Kevlin Brown, allegedly a Hansberry associate, is accused of robbing and e: According to court records filed Thursday, a man named Calvin Turner is expected to plead guilty after being accused of in April 2013, according to court records.

Craig disbanded the drug unit in July because of what he said were systemic problems uncovered during an Internal Aff May. The problems included handling drugs and evidence.

An officer helping prosecute colleagues is rare, and no guarantee of a conviction.

In 2004, three Detroit police officers cooperated in a federal case against eight officers from Detroit's 4th Precinct. The e charges they violated the constitutional rights of suspected criminals by planting evidence and writing phony reports.

RE: Davis v. City of Detroit; Case No. 15-10547 (E.D. Mich.)

Dear Mr. Bailey;

I hope this letter finds you well. In follow up with our recent conversation, I have enclosed Plaintiffs' First Request to Produce Documents directed to Defendants. When we met, you raised the issue of whether Plaintiffs would engage in discussions to possibly resolve their claims. As I indicated to you, I now represent several individuals who allege they were subject to unlawful search and seizure by members of the Detroit Narcotics Unit. As such, I would kindly request that you produce the investigative reports, search warrants, etc. (as contained in Plaintiffs' Request to Produce Nos 1-3) as soon as practicable and/or as part of your initial disclosures. Review of these documents would allow both of us the opportunity to evaluate our claims and defenses for possible early resolution of the claims. Please let me know if you have any questions, and thank you kindly for your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Michael R. Dezsi

GENERAL RELEASE, WAIVER AND SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

WHEREAS, the Released Defendants deny any liability to Plaintiffs;

WHEREAS, the Parties, but no other members of the putative class, have agreed to resolve all open issues between them raised or which could have been raised in the Litigation;

WHEREAS, the Plaintiffs have agreed to provide the general release and waiver of claims contained in this general release, waiver and settlement agreement (“Agreement”) which sets forth the Parties’ entire understanding of the terms of settlement for the Litigation;

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE MUTUAL COVENANTS OF THE PARTIES, the Parties agree as follows:

1. City shall pay to Plaintiffs, Releasing Occupants and their attorneys Michael Dezsi and Dennis Dettmer, Dettmer & Dezsi, PLLC (“the Firm”) (hereinafter collectively known as the “Payees,”) the aggregate amount of Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand U.S. Dollars ($350,000.00) (“Settlement Consideration”) as full and final consideration for the General Release and Waiver set forth in Paragraph 2 below. The Settlement Consideration shall be paid as follows: Check for the full amount of the Settlement Consideration made payable to: Dettmer & Dezsi, PLLC. Each of the Payees agree to provide an IRS W-9 form upon request. In addition, the Payees, indemnify and hold payor, City, harmless from any and all actions between the Firm, Plaintiffs and Releasing Occupants, regarding the Firm’s distribution of the of the Settlement Consideration to Plaintiffs and/or Releasing Occupants.

2. The Plaintiffs and Releasing Occupants knowingly and voluntarily without threat or coercion, for themselves, their personal representatives, trustees, beneficiaries, attorneys, heirs, successors, predecessors, shareholders, owners, subsidiaries and assigns (“Releasing Parties”) fully and forever release and discharge Released Defendants, their personal representatives, trustees, attorneys, heirs, successors, predecessors, indemnitees, insurers, employees, employers, officers, directors, elected and appointed officials, and assigns (“Released Parties”) which shall include individuals that currently or formerly held positions for which this release applies (e.g. retired/terminated employees not otherwise specifically released herein) from any and all claims, demands, actions, lawsuits, and causes of action of every kind, nature or description, whether known or unknown, which Releasing Parties may have had, may now have, or may hereafter arise before the date of this Agreement by reason of any matter, cause, act, or omission arising out of or in connection with their past dealings and contacts, including but not limited to all attorneys' fees of any kind or nature, charges and claims asserted, or which could have been asserted, in any Litigation that could have been filed from the beginning of time to the date of execution of this Agreement ("Released Claims"). This Waiver and Release specifically requires, inter alia, the release by Releasing Parties of the City of Detroit, its current and former employees, agents, principles, attorneys, officers, indemnitees and elected/appointed officials, all in their individual and official capacities.

3. The Released Defendants shall, upon payment of the Settlement Consideration, be dismissed with prejudice from the Litigation and the Releasing Parties shall be forever barred from asserting Released Claims. The Parties authorize their attorneys to execute a Stipulation for the dismissal of the Litigation as it relates to Plaintiffs and Releasing Occupants only. Said dismissal shall be with prejudice which Plaintiffs' counsel shall file upon receipt of the Settlement Consideration.

4. The Parties understand and agree that the terms of this Release cannot be confidential and that they are subject to disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act.

5. Releasing Parties agree that they will not file a lawsuit or claim of any type in any forum against Released Parties (whether in their individual or official capacities or whether current and/or former employees of City of Detroit) that arises out of the Litigation or relates, in any way, to the Released Claims. Releasing Parties warrant that, if they do file such a waived lawsuit or claim, the lawsuit or claim will be immediately dismissed; and, they will pay to the non-breaching party all of the costs, expenses, and attorney fees incurred by the non-breaching party in defending against such a lawsuit or claim.

6. The above commitments of the Parties are undertaken to avoid the inconvenience and costs of Litigation. The Parties accordingly acknowledge and agree that the Settlement Consideration stated above is made and accepted in settlement and compromise of disputed claims and shall not be, and shall not be construed to be, an admission of liability by any party to the other.

7. The Parties further understand and acknowledge that the terms of this Agreement are contractual and not a mere recital and that there are no agreements, understandings, or representations made by the Parties except as expressly stated herein.

8. The Parties acknowledge that before signing this Agreement they have read it, fully understood its terms, content, and effect, have had the benefit of advice from an attorney of their own choosing, and have relied fully and completely on their own judgment and the advice of their respective attorneys in executing this Release.

9. It is understood and agreed by the Parties that all understandings and agreements heretofore had by the Parties with respect to matters covered by this Agreement are merged into this Agreement, which alone fully and completely expresses the Parties' agreement.

10. The Parties acknowledge that they may hereafter discover facts different from or in addition to those, which they know or believe to be true with respect to the released claims, and the Parties agree that this Agreement shall be and remain effective in all respects, including, but not limited to, the released claims, notwithstanding such different or additional facts or the discovery thereof.

11. This General Release shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of the State of Michigan.

12. The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement may be executed in counterparts.

DECLARATION OF ADAM SHAMOON

I, ADAM SHAMOON, state as follows:

1. I am competent to testify as to the contents of this declaration.
2. I am the son of Debra and Mukhlis Shamoan.
3. I was not home at my parents house, located in Shelby Township, Michigan, on the date of September 13, 2012, when narcotics officers from the City of Detroit raided by parents' home.
4. I learned after the raid that the officers took several of my firearms from my parents' home. In particular, they took 2 long guns and 2 handguns.
5. My mom, Debra, showed me a paper that was left behind by the officers entitled "Notice of Seizure and Intent to Forfeit" dated September 13, 2012, which lists Sgt. Joe Tucker as a "witness." (Attachment A).
6. In the days following the raid, I contacted Sgt. Joe Tucker demanding to know why my parents' house was raided and also about the status of my handguns. I spoke directly with Sgt. Tucker who told me that I would have to wait a couple weeks and call him back.
7. A couple weeks later, I contacted Sgt. Tucker per his instructions, and again I demanded to know what happened at my parents' house and also about my handguns. Sgt. Tucker again told me that I would have to wait longer before I could possibly retrieve my handguns.
8. A couple weeks later, I again contacted Sgt. Tucker who told me to contact another sergeant from the drug enforcement unit whose name I don't remember.
9. When I spoke with this other sergeant, I threatened to retain an attorney if necessary to straighten out the matter. This sergeant seemed agitated by my comment and responded with something to the effect of, "I don't know why people always run out and get attorneys." He then told me to come down to the department to pick up my guns.

10. When I did go down to get my guns, nobody there seemed to know what I was talking about, though eventually I was given my guns without any paperwork and I didn't sign anything when I picked them up.

11. There was never any explanation or justification given to me by anyone about why they had raided my parents' house.

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746.

Dated: 05-15-2022

DECLARATION OF DEBRA METRIS-SHAMOON

I, DEBRA METRIS-SHAMOON, state as follows:

1. I am competent to testify as to the contents of this declaration.
2. Along with my husband and parents, I was at my house located in Shelby Township, Michigan, on the date of September 13, 2012, when my house was raided by unknown agents.
3. I say "unknown" because none of the officers identified themselves, the officers were dressed in black, and none of them displayed badges. When I was able to look outside I did see that one of the cars was a Detroit Police vehicle.
4. At the time I thought my house was being robbed, though one of the officers later identified himself by the name "Tucker."
5. At no time during the raid did any of the officers show us a warrant.
6. The officers took my and my husband's medical marijuana plants, about $315 of cash, and also took several registered firearms belonging to my son Adam.
7. We had no idea what was happening as we thought there must have been some kind of mix up with another house.
8. Neither I nor any of my family members were ever charged with any crimes arising from this raid.
9. In the weeks after the raid, I twice contacted the Detroit Police Department asking why they had raided our house and demanded to see a warrant. Both times I spoke with a woman who told me she couldn't find anything in the system under either my name or our home address.
10. My son Adam contacted one of the officers whose name was written down on a paper and my son asked what was going on and why did they raid our home. My son never got any answers about what had happened, though in November or December of 2012 he was told to come down to the station to pick up his firearms.

11. It wasn't until February or March of 2015 that I saw media reports about another raid carried out by officers from the City of Detroit that I had any idea that the officers may have violated our rights.
12. After seeing these media reports, I contacted my current attorneys' office and inquired if they could help us sort out what happened to us in September 2012.
13. A couple months later, in or around April 2015, I learned through other media reports that federal agents had indicted several Detroit police officers for conducting unlawful searches and seizures in and around Detroit. It wasn't until then I firmly believed that my family's rights had also been violated by the raid on our house in September 2012.
14. At no time did the City ever send me or my family any kind of notice or paperwork about the City filing for bankruptcy, and I didn't know about the City's bankruptcy until my attorneys talked to me about it well after I contacted them in the Spring of 2015.

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746.

3 -- -- --

4 (Proceedings commenced at 8:36 a.m., all parties
5 present)

6 (Whereupon the jury entered the courtroom at 7 8:36 a.m.)

8 THE LAW CLERK: United States District Court for the 9 Eastern District of Michigan is now in session, the Honorable
10 Stephen J. Murphy presiding.

11 The Court calls Case No. 15-20217, United States of 12 America versus David Hansberry and others.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Everybody's in place and let's all
14 be seated please. Morning to everybody.

15 THE JURORS: Good morning.

16 THE COURT: We're going to get back to work here in 17 just a few seconds. I -- at the end of the day yesterday, you
18 know, your mind is in a number of different places, but we're 19 going to go from now until 1:30, and what I'd like to do, if 20 possible, is, you know, stretch out the morning session. If we 21 don't have to take a break, we won't, and we'll go from now til
22 about 10:45 or 11:00, take our usual 25 or 30-minute break,
23 come back and then go from 11:30 roughly til 1:30. So that's 24 my idea. If it doesn't work out that way, it's fine. If any 25 of the parties or lawyers or the jury, of course, needs a break

1 prior to 11:00, just get Mr. Lepola's attention or whatever the
2 case may be and we'll take -- we'll take a quick comfort break.

3 But my idea that I didn't put very artfully yesterday
4 was that if we compress our -- our time, even though we're 5 knocking off a little early today, we might be able to get in 6 just as much testimony. Regardless of whether we do, we're
7 making very good progress, as I mentioned yesterday, and I
8 think we are -- we are right on schedule.

9 So continue to pay good attention. Thank you for 10 being on time. Keep your minds open.

11 And if you're ready to go, Mr. Light --

12 MR. LIGHT: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: -- we're ready to go as well. Yes, sir.

14 DIRECT EXAMINATION CONTINUED

15 BY MR. LIGHT:

16 Q. Good morning, Mr. Leavells.

17 A. Good morning.

18 Q. When we finished yesterday, we had listened to a recording
19 that you made of your conversations with David Hansberry on 20 September 7, 2014, correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And in those conversations you talked about a number of 23 different topics, including your mutual interest in growing
24 marijuana?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. Including the plan that purportedly came from Gary Jackson
2 to stage another rip-off like the ones that had occurred
3 before?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. Including Mr. Watson's idea --

6 MR. HARRISON: Your Honor, I'm going to object --

7 Q. -- about how to manipulate that?

8 MR. HARRISON: -- I'm going to object again, Your 9 Honor, to the continued leading.

10 THE COURT: I think we're setting the stage for 11 further testimony, so I'll hold the objection in abeyance and 12 ask you to, when we're back into the testimony, go ahead and --

13 MR. LIGHT: I just have a couple more along those 14 lines.

15 THE COURT: Yeah. Sum -- sum up where we were and 16 then get out of the leading questions and we'll move forward.

17 Go right ahead.

18 BY MR. LIGHT:

19 Q. Did your discussions also include what Mr. Watson and you
20 had talked about about how to implement what Gary Jackson had 21 been talking about?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And finally, did you talk some about contacts between Mr.
24 Hansberry and the person he called "my man" in Kentucky?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Now, four days later did you meet again with Officer Bryan
2 Watson on September 11, 2014?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And did you record that conversation as well?

5 A. Yes.

6 MR. LIGHT: I'm going to ask the Court if we may play
7 and publish to the jury Government Exhibit 808.

8 THE COURT: Yes, sir. Go right ahead.

9 (Audio clip being played at 8:41 a.m.)

10 MR. LIGHT: Stop there.

11 BY MR. LIGHT:

12 Q. Where's this conversation taking place?

13 A. At his house.

14 Q. Where?

15 A. At his house.

16 Q. And where is that located?

17 A. In Novi.

18 Q. And you're outside?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Looking at a hornets nest or something like that?

21 A. Yes.

22 MR. LIGHT: Go ahead.

23 (Audio clip being played at 8:41 a.m.)

24 MR. LIGHT: Would you stop there?

25 BY MR. LIGHT:

1 Hansberry, you tell him the truck's en route, they take the
2 truck down, correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And lots of notification are made, correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Federal agents you told us were notified, right?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. A Border Patrol agent with a dog was called, correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. Other federal agents arrive, correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Your supervisors arrived, correct?

13 A. Yeah.

14 Q. In all, would it be fair to say that there were at least 15 20 or 30 law enforcement officers at that scene?

16 A. It was a lot.

17 Q. And you tell us that when you arrived on the scene, that 18 the semi was stopped, correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. And that there were officers inside the cab, correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And that there was money that appeared to already be out
23 on the -- on the ground in duffle bags, correct?

24 A. It didn't appear to be but it was, laying right there on 25 the ground next to the car.

1 Q. Okay. And the officers -- what month was this?

2 A. This was in July.

3 Q. July 2010, right?

4 Officers are wearing their summer plainclothes
5 uniforms, correct?

6 A. Summer plainclothes uniforms?

7 Q. The officers on your crew are wearing polo shirts, right?

8 A. Officers on my crew? No.

9 Q. No?

10 A. Just two officers that had the raid gear on. The rest of 11 us was in plainclothes.

12 Q. And who were the officers in the raid gear?

13 A. Tourville and Napier.

14 Q. Tourville and Napier.

15 And explain to us what the raid gear is.

16 A. At that time it was polo shirts with "Police" on it,
17 narcotic patches on the side and BDU pants.

18 Q. So the raid gear would be polo shirts that say "Police"
19 and BDU -- like 511 BDU pants, right?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. Okay. And you say that when Officer Napier exited the 22 truck cab, you tried to hug him, right?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. And he kept you away, correct?

25 A. Pushed me away.

1 Q. Pushed you away.

2 And now in retrospect, you're inferring to the jury
3 that you believe that Officer Napier had stolen money and 4 didn't want to hug you because then you would have noticed the 5 money that he had on him, correct?

6 A. I say -- you could say that.

7 Q. That's your inference, right?

8 A. Mm-hmm.

9 Q. All right. And Gary Jackson told you and you believed 10 that there was $3 million in that truck when it was stopped,
11 correct?

12 A. He said it before and he said it after and stayed to it.

13 Q. And what you all found was $2.1 million, correct?

14 A. 2.1197.

15 Q. Okay. And so approximately $900,000 was missing, right?

16 A. Correct.

17 MR. HARRISON: And can we take a look at 724-F?

18 BY MR. HARRISON:

19 Q. What do we see there?

20 A. What part?

21 Q. How much of the money do we see there?

22 A. That's the 2.1197.

23 Q. That's all of it, right?

24 A. Correct.

25 MR. HARRISON: Can we see G?

1 BY MR. HARRISON:

2 Q. Do these numbers mean anything to you, sir?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. What do they mean?

5 A. The numbers to the left is the itemized number and then to 6 the right is how much is in that pack.

7 Q. Okay. And so the 20 would mean $20,000, right?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. So one of those packets that is labeled 20 would have --
10 would be $20,000, right?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Okay. And, sir, would you agree with me that those 13 packets are approximately eight to ten inches long and 14 approximately six to eight inches across, does that sound about 15 accurate?

16 A. I don't -- I don't know.

17 Q. About the size of a legal pad, that'd be a fair estimate?

18 A. I don't know.

19 Q. You don't know.

20 And would you agree with me, sir, that they're about
21 four to five inches thick?

22 A. I don't know the dimensions of it.

23 Q. Okay. So what we see there is $2.1 million, right?

24 A. 2.1197.

25 Q. Right. So you would agree with me that half of that would

1 be a little more than a million, right?

2 A. Somewhere around there.

3 Q. And you believe or you surmise that Officers Tourville and
4 Officers Napier were able to take half of that money and hide
5 it under their polo shirts and in their pants, and they were
6 able to do that before any of the other officers arrived,
7 that's what you're suggesting to us, correct?

8 A. That's not what I'm suggesting. I didn't say a million
9 dollars.

10 Q. $900,000, right?

11 A. 2.1197, so that's more like seven to eight thousand,
12 800,000.

13 Q. Okay. Fair enough. I want to move you on to some of the 14 specific incidents that you talked about, other ones. You
15 talked -- you told us about an incident in South -- Southfield
16 involving a raid that you did with Sergeant Hansberry's crew
17 where a woman was in the bathroom asking you to shoot her,
18 right?

19 A. Asking officers to shoot her, yes.

20 Q. Asking officers to shoot her.

21 And you remember specifically her saying that, right,
22 "Please shoot me," something like that?

23 A. Something around -- like that.

24 Q. Okay. And you remember that there were officers from 25 another department there as well, correct?

1 A. Southfield.

2 Q. And you told us that your recollection was that somewhere
3 around $40,000 was found, right?

4 A. It was on the table.

5 Q. It was on the table?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. What was your role in that entry, that raid?

8 A. I didn't really have a role in that one. I was just in 9 the -- in the entry crew.

10 Q. So you were part of the entry crew?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Part of the crew that went in after the door was -- was --
13 was taken down, right?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. Part of the crew that went around and searched and 16 secured, right?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And you don't remember specifically what you did, what 19 your role was?

20 A. No. I was just on the stack that I can remember.

21 Q. On the stack.

22 Can you explain to the jury what that means, to be on 23 the stack?

24 A. Just stacked up in the -- in the line.

25 Q. Okay. And you recall that after the money was secured,

1 THE COURT: Five minutes?

2 MR. BUCKLEY: Judge, I would agree with Mr. Fishman
3 as well.

4 THE COURT: All right. Let's take five minutes,
5 ladies and gentlemen. It's 10:25 and let's get back at 10:30.
6 Let's all rise for our jurors please.

7 (Whereupon the jury was excused at 10:25 a.m.)

8 THE COURT: Okay. Five-minute recess. You can step
9 down.

10 (Court in recess at 10:26 a.m.)

11 (Proceedings resumed at 10:36 a.m., all parties 12 present)

13 (Whereupon the jury entered the courtroom at 14 10:36 a.m.)

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MR. FISHMAN: We all feel a lot better now, Judge.

17 THE COURT: I know. Always ready to help.

18 MR. FISHMAN: Especially those of us who are a little 19 up in years, you know.

20 THE COURT: I was ready myself.

21 All right. Let's all be seated. Our jury's back.

22 Now, listen, Mr. Fishman, we -- maybe, you know,
23 when -- 35, 40 minutes, 11:00, 11:15, when you think it's a 24 good time for our break, you let us know --

25 MR. FISHMAN: I will.

1 THE COURT: -- and we'll take -- okay. Go right
2 ahead.

3 CROSS-EXAMINATION

4 BY MR. FISHMAN:

5 Q. Okay. So Mr. Levels [sic], you started -- or Leavells,
6 you started as a police officer in 1999, correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. When you were asked at the grand jury why you wanted to 9 become a police officer, you said as follows, page 5: Answer,
10 "Well, I thought I could make a difference, you know, and 11 wanted to support my family." Do you remember that answer?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. All right. So that was part of your intention, when you 14 said "make a difference," you meant do something good out for 15 the community, correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And then you told Mr. Harrison about an incident that 18 happened where you were trying to help Benny Doughrity, it's 19 D-O-U-G-H-R-I-T-Y, because he was some type of kin to Mr.
20 Jackson, am I right?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And Gary Jackson approached you and he asked you if you
23 could do something to help his kin, whatever he was to him,
24 right?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. And you said you'd see what you could do, something like
2 that, correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And what you decided to do, according to what you were
5 telling us before the break, was you typed up a search warrant
6 affidavit, am I right?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. And I'm not going to read through the same things that Mr.
9 Harrison read through, but you'd agree with me that it
10 contained all kinds of lies, right?

11 A. Some.

12 Q. Well, I don't want to go through all of them, but the ones
13 you agreed with Mr. Harrison were lies, you still agree those 14 were lies, right?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. And you knew from your experience that you can't just type
17 up a search warrant affidavit, you have to actually swear to it
18 and sign it, am I right?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. And you knew then as a police officer that swearing to an 21 affidavit was exactly the same as what you did yesterday when 22 Judge Murphy asked you if you're telling the truth, correct?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. It's an oath, isn't it?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. And what you did was you swore to something that you knew
2 contained a number of lies, am I right?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Can you tell us, sir, how did you decide which lies to 5 stick in there, for instance, the surveillances that you
6 claimed you observed narcotics transactions, how -- how did you
7 decide what lie you should stick in there?

8 A. It's just wording.

9 Q. Well, it's word -- how did you pick a black male,
10 heavysset, wearing a tan jacket, did you just pick that out of 11 the sky?

12 A. Yeah. It's not hard to do.

13 Q. It's not hard to do.

14 Had -- had you done that before?

15 A. Yeah, I've done it before.

16 Q. You've submitted false affidavits both to the Prosecutor's
17 Office and to judges before this?

18 A. Correct, just like your client did.

19 Q. Okay. Mr. Levels [sic], we're going to -- Leavells --
20 we're going to have a real -- I'm going to ask you questions
21 and you answer my question. If you want to make a speech, you
22 tell the Judge. If he lets you do it, you can speech, okay?
23 You got it? You got it?

24 A. I understand what you're saying.

25 Q. All right. So my question is are you telling the jury

1 that in addition to this false affidavit, you've submitted
2 other false affidavits, true?

3 A. I made others.

4 Q. And on each occasion you did the same thing in terms of 5 typing it up, swearing to it, eventually talking to a
6 prosecutor and then seeing a judge about it, am I right?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. And in this instance, the one that we have here, was March 9 the 14th of 2013, correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And based on your testimony, you said you went to the FBI
12 task force in October of 12, am I right?

13 A. Yeah, late October, 12.

14 Q. Halloween I think you said, true?

15 A. During Halloween.

16 Q. And then you stayed about six or seven months, correct?

17 A. Up until May, June -- I mean April, May.

18 Q. April, May of 2013, right?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Which means that on March the 14th of 2013 when you
21 submitted this false affidavit, you were working for the FBI?

22 A. I was working for Detroit Police Department.

23 Q. Okay. Let me use a different preposition. You were 24 working with the FBI at the time you did this?

25 A. I was on the joint task force, yes.

1 Q. And did you tell any of your superiors, either Sergeant
2 Weathers or maybe one of the FBI agents, say, "Guess what,
3 fellas? I've got to help this guy out so I'm going to go
4 submit a false affidavit to a prosecutor and a judge." Did you
5 tell anybody that?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Because you knew if you told them, number one, you'd be
8 booted off the task force in 15 minutes, right?

9 A. I don't know that.

10 Q. You don't.

11 Well, you figure they would say, "Hey, we're going to 12 give you one of those commendations for doing this." Is that 13 what you figured would happen?

14 A. Never thought of it.

15 Q. Okay. You -- you certainly thought of the notion if you
16 told the FBI or other officers that you were about to submit a
17 false affidavit, you knew something bad would happen to you,
18 didn't you? I'm sorry?

19 A. Well, you didn't give me a chance to answer.

20 Q. Go ahead. Somebody coughed. I thought you did.

21 A. Oh. I didn't -- can you repeat the question now?

22 Q. Yeah. My question is you knew, did you not, that if you 23 told the FBI or anybody on your task force, "I'm about to 24 submit a false affidavit to a judge and to a prosecutor," that 25 something bad would happen to you, right?

1 A. I don't know what will happen.

2 Q. How well did you know Assistant Prosecutor Sarah DeYoung
3 as of March 24th of 2013?

4 A. I knew her.

5 Q. And you knew she was a narcotics prosecutor over there,
6 correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. And from what you saw, first she appeared to be a good
9 lawyer, true?

10 A. True.

11 Q. And she appeared to be a straightforward,
12 straight-shooting, honest person, true?

13 A. True.

14 Q. Did it bother you in the least when you were reading this 15 affidavit over the phone to her that you were telling her a
16 bunch of lies, did that bother you?

17 A. I was reading what was on there.

18 Q. I know that, but my question is, sir, did it bother your 19 conscience, did it bother your mind, did it bother you at all
20 to be reading a pack of lies to somebody like Sarah DeYoung
21 who's a narcotics prosecutor at the Wayne County Prosecutor's
22 Office?

23 A. I didn't know my state of mind at that time so I can't 24 tell you something from not -- from back then.

25 Q. What you do know though about your state of mind was you

1 were certainly trying to help Gary Jackson, that's for sure?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And if it required you to lie on the phone to the 4 prosecutor, whatever your state of mind was, it wasn't enough
5 to keep you from doing it, agreed?

6 A. I did what I did.

7 Q. All right. And after you lied to Sarah DeYoung, you had
8 to go in front of some judge or magistrate with your affidavit
9 and have a brief conversation with that judge or magistrate,
10 true?

11 A. True.

12 Q. And you've done that countless occasions, true?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. And the judge or magistrate, whether they happen to be 15 sitting on the bench at the time or they're in chambers or 16 they're somewhere, they do the same thing that Judge Murphy did
17 that we talked about earlier: You put your hand in the air,
18 you tell that judge or that magistrate everything in here is 19 true, right?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. So when you stuck your hand in the air on March 22 the 24th -- I'm sorry, March the 14th of 2013 and you were 23 asked is everything true, did it bother you to lie outright to 24 the judge or magistrate, did it bother you?

25 A. I don't know my state of mind at that time so I don't

1 know.

2 Q. Okay. You told Mr. Harrison that you know nothing of 3 whether or not -- strike that. Let me start over.

4 Whether it was in person, on the phone, on e-mail or 5 by carrier pigeon, did you ever say to Sarah DeYoung after this
6 raid where you got the phony stuff, did you inform Sarah
7 DeYoung that you wanted her to give a break to Benny Doughrity?

8 A. After?

9 Q. After you had the phony raid with the phony warrant and 10 whatever the phony stuff you found in there, did you
11 communicate in any way with Sarah DeYoung that you wanted her
12 to give a break to Benny Doughrity on his case?

13 A. After?

14 Q. At any time.

15 A. I asked her what was needed to make that case go away.

16 Q. And you asked her that before the phony affidavit?

17 A. I asked her what was needed.

18 Q. Right. My question is did you ask her that before you
19 read that phony affidavit to her or after?

20 A. I had to ask her before.

21 Q. All right. So you talked to her before and you asked her 22 what was needed, and her answer was?

23 A. Some drugs and a gun.

24 Q. So that gave you the brilliant idea to look -- to create a
25 search warrant affidavit looking for drugs and a gun, right?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And after you found whatever you found, did you then
3 contact Sarah DeYoung and say, "Hey, we went in, he was my
4 source and we found drugs and guns, what are you going to do
5 for him?" or something like that?

6 A. No. I just let her know what we got and that was it.

7 Q. You never then -- I'm asking you this for the last time.
8 This is your last chance. You never said to Sarah DeYoung,
9 "Look, we found this stuff and I want you to do something, I'm 10 asking you to do something for Doughrity on his criminal case."

11 A. Once again, I called her and let her know what we got.

12 Q. Okay. The whole purpose of the exercise, including the 13 phony affidavit, was to try to help Mr. Jackson's kin, Benny 14 Doughrity, correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. Do you know, sir, where Mr. Doughrity is today?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Do you know, do you have any information whatsoever that 19 tells you that he's sitting in the penitentiary today on that
20 case?

21 MR. LIGHT: Objection, Your Honor. He's already said
22 he doesn't know.

23 THE COURT: I'll overrule. You can answer that.

24 Go ahead.

25 BY MR. FISHMAN:

1 Q. Do you know that he's in the penitentiary today on the
2 case you were supposedly trying to help him on?

3 A. No, I don't know.

4 Q. Okay. Did Sarah DeYoung ever say to you at any time,
5 either before or after, did she ever say to you, "Hey, don't 6 worry about it, I'll take care of that case, nothing will 7 happen to him"?

8 A. I don't recall.

9 Q. Okay. All right. You started your police career at the 10 Third Precinct, correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. You worked Special Operations, correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. You went to Narcotics, correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. And then you went to the FBI task force around 2012,
17 around Halloween as you've told us, right?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. When you got to the FBI task force, did you tell anybody
20 there, "Hey, there's a lot of crookery going on in Detroit
21 Police Narcotics; in fact, I'm one of them." Did you tell them
22 that?

23 A. No.

24 Q. But by then, according to you, there was all kinds of 25 crookery going on in the Detroit Police Narcotics Section,

1 right?

2 A. It was things going on.

3 Q. Right. Including money seizure and some of the other
4 things you've told us about, correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. But just so we're clear, you never said to anybody at the 7 FBI or anybody at the task force, you know, "You don't want me,
8 I've been a crook, and I know some other guys and I can tell on 9 them." You didn't do that, did you?

10 A. Nope.

11 Q. So by January of 2014 you were in Narcotics again and you
12 were working on Sergeant Geelhood's crew, is that correct?

13 A. In January, yes.

14 Q. And did you have some suspicions about Sergeant Geelhood?

15 A. What do you mean?

16 Q. Well, I mean did you think Sergeant Geelhood was a crook?

17 A. I don't know if he was a crook.

18 Q. Did you have any suspicions about him at all?

19 A. That's a wide open question. I mean --

20 Q. You're right.

21 A. -- be specific.

22 Q. No, that's my question. The answer is easy, yes or no?

23 A. I can't answer that question.

24 Q. Okay. Did Sergeant Geelhood before he was a sergeant work
25 on Sergeant Hansberry's crew with you, Hansberry, Watson and

1 the other people you've named?

2 A. I wasn't on there when he was there.

3 Q. Did you know him to have worked on Sergeant Hansberry's
4 crew?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And your answer is, when I asked you were you -- did you
7 have any suspicions, you don't know? Is that your answer?

8 A. You have to specify what you're talking about. Other than 9 that, I can't answer the question.

10 Q. Okay. When you were on Sergeant Geelhood's crew in 11 January of 2014, were you still selling marijuana to Calvin
12 Turner?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And tell the jury again how -- how many times you figure
15 you gave weed to Calvin Turner.

16 A. Several.

17 Q. Well, does several mean four or five, 10 or 12, what does
18 that mean?

19 A. I don't know, sir.

20 Q. More than 10?

21 A. Several.

22 Q. Okay. And what kind of quantities were you giving him?

23 A. Pounds.

24 Q. And how were you dividing up the money, splitting it?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And that was while you were -- continued while you were
2 working on Geelhood's crew, correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. You were also running a grow house, right, or being
5 involved in a grow house, correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And was the marijuana that was being grown in the house
8 being sold?

9 A. It still hadn't been sold.

10 Q. I'm sorry?

11 A. It wasn't sold.

12 Q. It was just in the process of being grown?

13 A. Yeah.

14 Q. Did you tell Sergeant Geelhood, "Hey, I hope you don't 15 mind, but I've got a grow house and I'm giving weed to Calvin
16 Turner. Is it okay if I stay on the crew?" Did you have a
17 conversation like that with him?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Were you guys also ripping off marijuana when you'd go for 20 raids while you were working with Sergeant Geelhood's crew?

21 A. Sometimes.

22 Q. And was the sergeant in the middle of that, was he either
23 taking it himself or watching you guys?

24 A. He pretty much knew.

25 Q. He pretty much knew. Okay.

1 And the crew was what, five, six, seven, eight
2 people?

3 A. It all depends.

4 Q. Were Beasley and Bray still on the crew?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And you've testified on numerous occasions Beasley and 7 Bray were not crooks, correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. And you're saying they knew and looked the other way, or 10 are you saying they didn't know and they got nothing out of it?

11 A. You have to ask them.

12 Q. No, I'm asking you, sir, from what you observed and what 13 you heard.

14 A. I mean I don't know if they knew anything.

15 Q. Okay. You'd -- you'd agree with me that -- that in most 16 raids, at some point in time, everybody is inside the location
17 at some point in time, true?

18 A. Pretty much.

19 Q. And you'd agree with me the evidence has to be catalogued
20 and listed, correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And you'd agree with me that oftentimes that evidence
23 includes controlled substances, it may also include personal
24 property like jewelry and it may also include cash, correct?

25 A. Rarely jewelry, but...

1 Q. Okay. Let's say cash and drugs. Yes?

2 A. And guns, yeah.

3 Q. And guns, right? Okay.

4 The incident occurs where you have the raid and 5 there's some equipment that's taken, the one that you've been
6 talking about to both the government and Mr. Harrison, correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. You didn't think ahead of time that maybe this crook who's 9 growing marijuana is slick enough that he might have some 10 surveillance inside, did you?

11 A. I don't know.

12 Q. Well, did it cross your mind, hey, maybe we shouldn't
13 steal this stuff because maybe the guy's got surveillance
14 equipment?

15 A. A lot of places have surveillance.

16 Q. That's not my question though. I'm talking about this
17 incident, did it occur to you that it might not be a good idea
18 to participate in stealing because he might have surveillance
19 equipment?

20 A. I don't know.

21 Q. Did anybody say while the stealing was going on or before 22 the stealing or after the stealing, "Hey, fellas, we could get 23 caught, maybe the guy's got surveillance equipment." Anybody
24 say that?

25 A. Not that I remember.

1 Q. But you -- you'd agree, as you've just said, these days a
2 lot of people do have surveillance equipment; houses,
3 buildings, parking lots, right?

4 A. Courtrooms.

5 Q. Courtrooms.

6 A. Mm-hmm.

7 Q. Okay. So when you got suspended, tell us again what's the 8 month and year?

9 A. It was 2014 in July.

10 Q. July.

11 That meant when you were suspended, there's two ways
12 of being suspended in the police department, with pay and 13 without pay. Which way were you suspended?

14 A. With pay.

15 Q. All right. So you were still getting your pay, correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And your understanding was that the -- there'd be an 18 investigation generally by Internal Affairs, is that true?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. And at some point in time there'd be some recommendation
21 and maybe you'd have a trial board or maybe not and you'd get
22 some kind of a punishment or not, correct?

23 A. I don't know what would happen.

24 Q. You were not concerned then, though, that you were going
25 to get fired as a result of the stealing from the weed house,

1 were you?

2 A. I didn't get fired.

3 Q. Sir, I'm asking you, were you concerned at the time when
4 you were suspended and you were still getting paid, were you
5 concerned that you were going to be fired or did you figure
6 you'll get 30 days off or something?

7 A. I knew I wasn't going to get fired.

8 Q. Okay. So you were still getting a check from the police
9 department every two weeks, correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And in April of 2014 you started having a marijuana
12 connection with this fellow Timothy Davis, am I right?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Did I hear you correctly, did you tell Mr. Harrison you 15 didn't know Timothy Davis was working with the government until 16 he mentioned it to you today?

17 A. No, that isn't what he said.

18 Q. All right. You -- you -- you've -- you've learned that he 19 was -- he was an informant for the government, right, you knew
20 that before you came in here today, didn't you?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. You knew that those deliveries you were making of weed and 23 hash and cannabis oil and whatever the other stuff was, you
24 knew that he was working for the government when you gave those 25 things to him, right?

1 A. No.

2 Q. You -- you -- you know that now though, don't you?

3 A. Yeah, now, afterwards.

4 Q. And you learned afterwards, you learned that the money
5 that you got came from the FBI?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Okay. So now you didn't learn that until after you were 8 busted in the phony rip set up by Gary Jackson correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. All right. So nobody, the FBI or the government, for 11 whatever reasons, they didn't grab you when you took the money
12 from Timothy Davis, right?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. They didn't grab you when you provided them with whatever
15 you provided them, right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. They left you out there, right?

18 A. I guess.

19 Q. Under suspension from the police department, true?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Working as a police officer?

22 A. Which time?

23 Q. Timothy Davis. We're talking about April of 2014.

24 A. I was off, sir.

25 Q. All right. And then the suspension came what -- when

1 again?

2 A. In July.

3 Q. And was it early July?

4 A. It was in July.

5 Q. All right. And again, you were still getting paid, right?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. So when Gary Jackson came to you and proposed this robbery
8 where y'all could split $40,000, it wasn't like you weren't
9 getting a paycheck from the City of Detroit, right?

10 A. I wasn't getting the same paycheck that I was getting
11 before.

12 Q. And so the jury understands, you mean because you weren't 13 getting court time, right?

14 A. Court time, overtime, things like that.

15 Q. And as a narcotics officer, you spend a lot of time
16 testifying in court, right?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Which you've done a zillion times, right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And you get paid extra if you work overtime and you get 21 paid what's called court time, particularly if you're not
22 working that day, right?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. So your check, even though it was still coming from the 25 citizens, was smaller than it was before?

1 A. Whole lot smaller.

2 Q. A whole lot smaller, right?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Are you telling the jury that's why you agreed to get
5 involved in trying to steal the 40,000 along with Gary Jackson,
6 was it 'cuz you weren't getting enough dough from the city?

7 A. No, I made a bad judgment.

8 Q. All right. That didn't enter into it though. It wasn't 9 the fact that you weren't getting enough money from the city
10 that caused you to say, you know, "I'm going to go in and 11 participate in a robbery," it wasn't that?

12 A. Made a mistake.

13 Q. Okay. But -- but it was greed, wasn't it? I mean, to be 14 blunt, wasn't it just greed?

15 A. How was it greed?

16 Q. I'm asking you. Didn't it seem like it's -- "I can get 17 $20,000 or $19,000, I can do it easy" and you were greedy,
18 isn't that right?

19 A. That's not greedy.

20 Q. Okay. It is stealing though, you would agree with that,
21 yes?

22 A. It's taking money.

23 Q. Okay. And do -- would -- would you agree that when Mr.
24 Jackson called you and proposed this idea, that one of the 25 things you were thinking about was, "Boy, what's in it for

1 Q. But you hope, do you not, that it will be as low as 2 possible, right?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Okay. So --

5 MR. FISHMAN: Thank you, Ms. Koch.

6 BY MR. FISHMAN:

7 Q. It's your testimony that everybody that you worked with in 8 Narcotics, particularly on Sergeant Hansberry's crew except for 9 Beasley and Bray, were all dirty cops, am I right?

10 A. I don't know about Amy Metalic.

11 Q. Okay. Barnett, he's dirty for sure, right?

12 A. I don't know.

13 Q. Well, didn't you -- didn't you tell us yesterday you saw 14 Officer Barnett take an ounce of cocaine and stick it in his 15 pocket and walk out with it?

16 A. Yeah, I seen him do that.

17 Q. Don't you think that kind of meets the definition of a 18 dirty cop, or is that something that's -- what -- what you're 19 supposed to do?

20 A. I mean I just knew he wasn't right.

21 Q. Okay. Officer Napier?

22 A. Right.

23 Q. Officer Tourville?

24 A. Right.

25 Q. Officer Riley?

A. Right.

Q. What about Officer Whitten, W-H-I-T-T-E-N, did she work on your crew?

A. Yeah, she did.

Q. Is she a crook?

A. Not that I know of.

Q. Okay. So she's no, Beasley's no, Bray's no, Metalic, question mark?

A. Yeah, I don't know.

Q. And Geelhood?

A. Yeah

Q. Yes. Okay.

And the people, whoever their names are that you recognize as the code names that were given to you, do you say they're crooked or no? Sting, Seal, Lobo, Dragon.

A. I have no idea.

Q. Okay.

A. Dragon, no.

Q. When you saw Officer Barnett take the cocaine during a raid, can you tell the jury approximately when that was?

A. I don't know exactly.

Q. Was it before or after the large money seizure that we're going to talk about in a second?

A. After.

Q. Okay. And you said that you -- you talked to Sergeant

1 Hansberry and Officer Watson about it, correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Did you -- did you have lieutenants still in those days?

4 A. Did I have who?

5 Q. Were there lieutenants in the Narcotics Section?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And over the lieutenant is what, the inspector, used to 8 be, now the captain?

9 A. Right.

10 Q. And then there are commanders, correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. And then there's the Chief of Police. Deputy chiefs and 13 then the Chief of Police, correct?

14 A. Inspectors and... yeah.

15 Q. All right. So you -- you told us you talked to Hansberry
16 and Watson and they asked you what did you want to do about it,
17 right?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And you didn't want to do anything about it, did you?

20 A. I told them whatever they wanted to do.

21 Q. Because if you wanted to do something about it, whatever
22 these two said, you could have gone to the lieutenant, the 23 inspector, all the way up to the Chief of Police and say, "Hey,
24 I just saw crookery in a search warrant execution," right?

25 A. I mean I went to my immediate supervisor.

1 Q. I know that. But my question is, sir, if your immediate
2 supervisor didn't do anything, there was nothing keeping you
3 from going way higher than him in the police department and 4 reporting what you say you saw, right?

5 A. Yeah, wasn't nothing stopping me.

6 Q. You told the jury, in response to Mr. Light's question at 7 the end of your direct testimony, if you would have stayed in 8 southwest Detroit, you wouldn't be here right now, correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. So are you blaming other people for the fact that you lied
11 on search warrant affidavits, gave weed to Calvin Turner and 12 all the other things that you've talked about, is that somebody
13 else's fault?

14 A. Did I say that?

15 Q. I'm asking you.

16 A. I didn't say that. I said that if I'd a stayed there, I'd 17 a been okay.

18 Q. And my question is are you blaming that on other people or 19 are you taking responsibility for it yourself?

20 A. I'm a man. I take responsibility for myself.

21 Q. You -- you'd agree, had you gone to some superior officer
22 higher than your sergeant about Officer Barnett, you could have 23 put a stop to whatever was going on right then, couldn't you?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Okay. You told us you knew Calvin Turner from childhood,

1 A. They got people out the house.

2 Q. Did you learn that somebody was arrested?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Did you learn that that person's name was Dante Mitchell?

5 A. I don't recall the name, sir.

6 Q. Did you learn that that person wound up being charged in 7 court, in Recorder's Court in Frank Murphy?

8 A. I have no idea.

9 Q. Did you talk to Gary Jackson about what kind of story that 10 guy should tell to the police or to the prosecutors?

11 A. What story?

12 Q. Did you talk to Gary Jackson about what kind of story the 13 person who was being held hostage -- and let's assume his name
14 is Fred Tucker -- did you talk to Gary Jackson about what that 15 guy ought to tell the police and prosecutors about the whole
16 incident?

17 A. I don't know exactly. I don't know.

18 Q. Do you know today that during May of 2014 there was a 19 federal wiretap on Mr. Jackson that picked up his phone calls?

20 A. How would I know that?

21 Q. I don't know. That's why I'm just -- you didn't know and 22 you don't know it now?

23 A. You're telling me.

24 MR. FISHMAN: Okay. That's all.

25 THE COURT: Thank you. Anything from you, Mr. Sasse?

1 MR. SASSE: No. Thank you, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Light, you want to ask some
3 questions?

4 MR. LIGHT: I have just a few, Your Honor.

5 Could I see that report from Glynn Court, sir --

6 MR. FISHMAN: Sure.

7 MR. LIGHT: -- that you asked about, sir?

8 MR. FISHMAN: Yes, sir.

9 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

10 BY MR. LIGHT:

11 Q. Just -- just one area I want to try to clarify a little 12 bit with you, Mr. Leavells. That seizure from the cab of the 13 truck, of the semi truck, was a lot of money, correct, sir?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. The final count of what was brought downtown to DBT -- DPD
16 headquarters was about $2.197 million, is that right?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Now, Gary Jackson insisted that there was more money than 19 that in that -- in that cab, correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. How much did he insist was there?

22 A. It was a range, but he kept saying 3 million.

23 Q. And Little, Gary Jackson's nephew, you talked with him
24 about that as well?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. And he insisted what amount of money was present in that
2 cab, as he understood it?

3 A. Three million, and kept showing me pictures.

4 Q. Now, there's a difference of about $800,000 there,
5 correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. If that $800,000 went walkabout away from that cab during 8 the execution of -- of -- of that street enforcement, do you
9 know how it walked away, how it got away?

10 A. No.

11 Q. You're not saying that somebody stuffed it all in the 12 cargo pockets of the cargo pants that Napier and Tourville had 13 on, you're not saying that, are you, sir?

14 A. Nope.

15 Q. You just don't know if or how that money was stolen,
16 correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Mr. Fishman asked you some questions about your grand jury
19 testimony. Do you recall that?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And he asked you a question and your answers from pages 30
22 to 31 of your grand jury testimony, right?

23 A. Right.

24 Q. That wasn't all your grand jury testimony on this subject,
25 was it, sir?

1 A. No.

2 Q. On page 36, starting at line 12, were these -- was this
3 question asked and did you give this answer: Question, "After 4 the fact, were there discussions involving Gary Jackson about
5 how much money was in the cab?" Answer, "Correct. What the 6 final tally was that we came up with was 2.197. The number
7 that Gary Jackson told us was 3 million. We didn't give him
8 any money out of this. We paid him through city funds which 9 was $250,000 cash."

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Was that your testimony before the grand jury as well?

12 A. Yes.

13 MR. LIGHT: No further questions.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Well, now hold on just a sec. Do
15 you want to respond to any of that, Mr. Harrison?

16 MR. HARRISON: One question.

17 RECROSS-EXAMINATION

18 BY MR. HARRISON:

19 Q. I just want to make sure I heard what I heard just now
20 right. With regard to the southwest Detroit big money seizure
21 that Mr. Light just asked -- asked you about, you agreed with 22 his question, you don't know if or how that money was stolen,
23 right?

24 A. Correct. It wasn't southwest either.

25 MR. FISHMAN: Yeah, it's east -- east side.

1 communicate electronically about it, and keep your minds open.
2 We'll see you tomorrow morning and we'll get through this,
3 okay?

4 All right. Let's all rise for our jurors please.

5 (Whereupon the jury was excused at 12:41 p.m.)

6 THE COURT: Okay. Everybody may be seated. We're
7 going to be in recess. Thank you all very much.

8 MR. LIGHT: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 MR. BUCKLEY: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 (Court in recess at 12:42 p.m.)

11 (Whereupon proceedings in the above-entitled matter
12 were adjourned to Wednesday, June 29, 2016)

Virtual Deposition
May 27, 2020
About 11:00 a.m.

COURT REPORTER: My name is Kelley Whitaker, CSR-0977, a Michigan State Notary Public and Certified Shorthand Reporter, and this deposition is being held via videoconferencing equipment and telecommunication.
The counsel, witness, and reporter are not in the same room. The witness will be sworn in remotely, pursuant to stipulation and agreement of all parties.
Will the parties please stipulate on the record that they consent and waive any objections to this manner of conducting the deposition and the attorneys participating in this deposition acknowledge that I am not physically present in the deposition room and that I will be reporting this deposition remotely.
Please indicate your agreement by stating your name and your agreement on the record.
MR. DETTMER: Dennis Dettmer, on behalf of the plaintiffs. And I agree to this remote deposition taking and have no objection whatsoever.
MR. SUROWIEC: James Surowiec, on behalf of City of Detroit, defendants, and I agree to the

1 deposition being taken remotely in the manner that you
2 just described.

4 CHIEF JAMES CRAIG,

5 having first been duly sworn, was examined and testified
6 on his oath as follows:

7 MR. DETTMER: Chief Craig, I'm Dennis Dettmer,
8 and it's a pleasure to meet you.

9 THE WITNESS: Nice meeting you, too.

10 EXAMINATION BY MR. DETTMER:

11 Q. I'd like to ask you a series of questions. And starting 12 off, we have given four Notices of Deposition to your 13 counsel and his firm. And I am wondering if you've seen
14 any one of those, because they have attached a subpoena
15 duces tecum to the City of Detroit asking for certain 16 documents.

17 Have you seen that -- any one of those four 18 deposition notices?

19 A. I don't recall seeing any of the notices. I was made
20 aware that there was a disposition (sic) by an attorney
21 that works at my office, or how or could have been, but 22 personally I have not seen it. But I was advised that 23 there was a deposition.

7 BY MR. DETTMER:

8 Q. Okay. The Notice of Deposition is Exhibit 1 to your 9 deposition today. I have as a Notice, also, a second
10 exhibit, Number 2, which is an email dated May 13th,
11 2020, from counsel for the defendant -- Lindsey Johnson
12 for the defendants.

13 And she indicates -- I'll read it into the 14 record. Thank you for your Notice of Deposition which 15 we will have our clients appear remotely. However,
16 Defendant City will not respond to the duces tecum
17 portion of the deposition since discovery has already
18 closed in this matter May 7th.

19 Also, this Deposition Notice requests
20 documents that have already been provided to you by the 21 Defendant City in response to client's numerous prior 22 Discovery Requests.

23 I would suggest that that mission is totally 24 improper. We initially sent our First Notice of 25 Deposition on October 30th, 2019. We Re-Noticed it on

1 December 9th, 2019, February 25, 2020, May 13th, 2020,
2 and May 18th, 2020. And I'll reference Court Order that
3 was entered on December 20th, 2019, by Judge Whalen that
4 ordered that we could take your deposition today.

5 And the point I'm making, the subpoena and the 6 Exhibit A attached to that subpoena directed to the 7 City, all were duplicative and all really started to 8 originate on October 30th, 2019. And the assertion that 9 it's not timely, since Discovery is cut off, as 10 indicated by what I am saying, that is not a
11 well-founded objection at all.

12 We will proceed accordingly --

13 MR. SUROWIEC: I would like to --

14 MR. DETTMER: -- with the Court. Now I would
15 like --

16 MR. SUROWIEC: I would like to respond to that 17 just briefly.

18 We have provided all of the records requested
19 in the subpoena duces tecum, and the form of that, I
20 believe, is improper. Chief Craig doesn't have those 21 records. We provided them, all of them, to Plaintiffs
22 on numerous occasions. We filed objections to that --
23 to that subpoena. To the extent that -- to the extent
24 that the discovery is closed, that's not really the 25 issue.

1 The issue is, this information has been
2 provided. Chief Craig is not going to show up at this
3 deposition with a bunch of papers, which you yourself
4 and Mr. Dezsi have already agreed this is very 5 cumbersome. We are remote; he is remote. What good is 6 it going to do? So that's our objection.

7 MR. DETTMER: That's not a proper reason not
8 to produce the records that I requested in that 9 subpoena.

10 MR. SUROWIEC: We object.

11 MR. DETTMER: The documents have been 12 subpoenaed and you have not produced the records that I
13 requested --

14 MR. SUROWIEC: We are a party.

15 MR. DETTMER: But let me go on.

16 (Multiple speakers)

17 MR. SUROWIEC: Go ahead.

18 We are a party to the subpoena.

19 MR. DETTMER: Chief Craig, have you seen any 20 of the exhibits?

21 THE WITNESS: The only predeposition -- I have 22 seen some exhibits. I couldn't tell you which ones or 23 what was contained. As it was already referenced, I
24 don't have anything in my possession right now.

25

1 BY MR. DETTMER:

2 Q. All right. I am going to run through some of these

3 fairly quickly. I'll make a reference to them. Your

4 counsel has them. If you want to take a look at them,

5 we can bring them up on the screen. Okay?

6 So if you have any question about any single

7 exhibit as we are discussing it, please indicate that

8 and we'll put it on the screen so you can see it in

9 detail. Okay?

10 A. Okay.

11 MR. SUROWIEC: Dennis, can I ask a quick

12 question? Are you referring to the exhibits that were 13 sent by Beth yesterday?

14 MR. DETTMER: Yes.

15 MR. SUROWIEC: Okay. So she indicated

16 1 through 10 and then 12 through 22 or 23. We didn't

17 get 1 through 10. Are there about 23 exhibits we're

18 talking about?

19 MR. DETTMER: There are actually more than 23

20 because some had subparts. If you looked at them, you

21 would have seen that. I've looked at the same email

22 chain that you did -- that you got, and I had all my --

23 all of the exhibits. But I don't want to argue about 24 that. You made that point. I don't agree with it.

25 MR. SUROWIEC: Dennis --

1 MR. DETTMER: You should have gotten them,

2 should have looked at the end of that chain, the first

3 email, and they were there.

4 MR. SUROWIEC: Dennis, I am just telling you,

5 for the record, we didn't get 1 through 10, so we'll

6 look at what you have, but I'm just telling you, I've

7 made my record and I asked Lindsey, did you get them.

8 We have what we have, which you sent last night.

9 That's fine. Go ahead.

10 MR. DETTMER: The email chain will show what

11 you got. And if you somehow overlooked it, that's it.

12 MR. SUROWIEC: Okay.

13 EXHIBIT 4

14 Wikipedia History of Craig

15 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION

16 MR. DETTMER: Our Exhibit 4 is a Wikipedia

17 page, and it's about you. And it gives a history of 18 your starting in the police department in Detroit after

19 you graduated high school here from Cass Tech.

20 And have you seen this document?

21 THE WITNESS: I don't know if I've seen this

22 specific document. I have seen my name on Wikipedia,

23 and I know those things get updated, so this particular

24 page, I'm not certain. I'm skimming through it as you

25 move up.

1 MR. DETTMER: It's a brief history. Rather

2 than going through it with you in any detail, Exhibit 4

3 kind of gives your biographical background.

4 THE WITNESS: Yes, this would be one that I

5 hadn't seen. I notice that there is some reference made

6 to US Representative Rashida Tlaib, so I haven't

7 personally seen this page.

8 MR. DETTMER: I would ask that, if you have

9 any questions about it, Mr. Surowiec will provide you

10 the -- Exhibit 4 and you can raise that -- an issue with 11 me and through him about --

12 MR. SUROWIEC: I don't have the exhibit.

13 MR. DETTMER: But it's a general statement

14 about your background.

15 THE WITNESS: I understand.

16 BY MR. DETTMER:

17 Q. Captain prepared you well and you're off and running.

18 A. Yes, he did.

19 Q. The next exhibit -- I have 5 and 5A. These are excerpts

20 from the Detroit Board of Police Commissioners.

25

1 EXHIBIT 5A

2 Excerpt from Board

3 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION

4 BY MR. DETTMER:

5 Q. This is related to your appointment. Okay?

6 What was the relationship between the Detroit

7 Board of Police Commissioners and the Detroit Police

8 Department?

9 A. They provide oversight to the police department;

10 however, when I was appointed as police chief in 2013,

11 it was not on the approval -- there was some

12 conversation, as I recall, between the Police Commission

13 and representation of the emergency manager who was in

14 place when I was appointed, and so as is reflected, and

15 I am relying on my memory, Executive Order Number 11,

16 that I was not under the supervisory oversight of the 17 police commission at that time.

18 Q. Once the bankruptcy was completed, did the relationship

19 you and the Detroit Board of Police Commissioners

20 change?

21 A. At some point. I don't know how soon after -- the

22 relationship basically was that they were the 23 supervising or oversight entity as it's reflected in the 24 City Charter of the Detroit Police Department.

25 Q. You were appointed by then emergency manager, Kevin Orr,

1 on -- effective on July 1, 2013?

2 A. July 1, 2013, yes.

3 Q. Then the Exhibit 5A is another emergency manager City of

4 Detroit Order Number 42, which really just deals with

5 powers of the Board of Police Commissioners being

6 reinstated effective immediately, and this is dated

7 September 25, 2014.

8 On that date, through the Order Number 42, how

9 did your relationship change with the board, if at all?

10 A. The way I describe it, I don't think there was much

11 change. The order was explicit as to the commission

12 being reinstated in their role, but even prior to the 13 reinstatement, the department was responsive to the

14 police commission, even though by an earlier order

15 before the reinstatement, I didn't have to but we did it

16 because we just felt it was the right thing to do.

17 EXHIBIT 6

18 Organizational Charts

19 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION

20 BY MR. DETTNER:

21 Q. Exhibit 6 is a collection of organizational charts of

22 the Detroit Police Department that were provided to us

23 through discovery. I wanted to ask you some general

24 questions about the organization and basically to 25 recognize the chain of command. Right?

1 out with police officers now in the current

2 organizational structure, corporals, neighborhood police

3 officers, detective, sergeant, and lieutenant. And

4 within the rank of sergeant, there's a master sergeant

5 that has more rank or more authority than that of a

6 sergeant.

7 Q. Of what level in the chain of command in the City of 8 Detroit is our supervisory responsibilities played?

9 A. What level in the department?

10 Q. Yes. For example, do -- under the current chain of 11 command, are corporals supervisors?

12 A. They are not. But depending on their role, they could

13 perform the role of field training officer, and as a

14 field training officer, they are responsible for

15 providing training to probationary police officers;

16 however, they would not be considered supervisors in the 17 rank structure. But they are --

18 Q. I'm sorry.

19 A. And detectives are not supervisors, either.

20 Q. So the first level of supervision within the Detroit

21 Police Department is a sergeant, correct?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. And is that true back to 2010, January 1st, 2010, from 24 your general knowledge of the operation of the police

25 department?

1 There is a chain of command in any police

2 department, and there is one, obviously, in Detroit;

3 correct?

4 A. Yes, it is.

5 Q. And you are, in effect, the chief executive officer as

6 the chief of police, correct?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. You have a number of assistant chiefs?

9 A. I do.

10 Q. And you have -- I'm not sure how many, maybe more than 11 one deputy chiefs?

12 A. Yes. Several deputy chiefs.

13 Q. And then the next level of the chain of command would 14 involve commanders or captains, correct?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. Captains and commanders are basically equivalent

17 positions? It's a matter of terminology, right?

18 A. They're not equivalent. They're referred to as command

19 officers. Commander outranks the Captain; the Captain

20 replaces the former rank of inspector.

21 Q. Thank you for that.

22 Then in the chain of command -- if I can just

23 briefly say this -- lieutenants and sergeants and then

24 police officers, that is right, in that sequence?

25 A. No. The sequence in terms of chain of command starts

1 A. As you know, I didn't start here until July of 2013.

2 But I would suppose, based on, as you reference, general

3 knowledge, that the sergeant would be the first line of

4 supervision.

5 Q. Okay. Generally, the chain of command -- a sergeant

6 reports up the line to a lieutenant, correct? And at 7 that point the communication is basically in that chain,

8 starting with you, going down to the assistant chiefs to 9 the deputy chiefs and down through the line, and

10 reporting back up is pretty much the same.

11 So if somebody -- if a police officer, for 12 example, makes a mistake, the sergeant is the person

13 that supervises that and deals with that initially,

14 correct?

15 A. Generally speaking, yes.

16 Q. If there is a problem, ongoing problem, he reports that

17 up the line to the lieutenant and the discipline

18 process, and the chain of command and communication

19 follows that up.

20 You don't always hear about what's going on at

21 the top of this chain of command, what a

22 sergeant's doing, unless it's a matter that comes up

23 through the chain, correct?

24 A. I do not always know. However, to your point, you made

25 some reference into the relationship between sergeant

1 and lieutenant. I believe there are times that the 2 lieutenant may not always know when a sergeant is
3 administering corrective action.

4 It could be counseling. Generally, if it's a
5 written counseling session, I believe the lieutenant
6 would be involved in that at some point through the 7 chain of command. But it's not so rigid, and I can't 8 speak to what occurred in 2010. I can talk about what 9 happens now.

10 There are times where a Captain or a commander
11 of the station may have direct contact with a police
12 officer relative to conduct, and it could be something
13 as simple as advising that police officer to wear a seat
14 belt when operating a motor vehicle, as an example.

15 Q. In the -- you're familiar, obviously, with the different
16 units within the Detroit Police Department, correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. You became the Chief of Police in the day-to-day
19 operation. You've learned quite a bit, I assume, about 20 the day-to-day operations about a lot of these different
21 units.

22 A. Basically, yes.

23 Q. If there's a Narcotics raid, there's usually a sergeant
24 that heads that up, correct?

25 A. I would expect.

1 Q. He has a crew?

2 A. At what period of time are you talking about?

3 Q. Let's go back. I mean -- you're looking -- at least the 4 scope of the current review goes back to 2010, although
5 I understand you're not back to 2010 yet.

6 But going back to prior to your -- the
7 effective date of the reorganization of the Narcotics
8 units in July 2014, you understood that the workings, I
9 assume, of the Narcotics Unit. And you understood that 10 there were sergeants and there were -- and they 11 supervised the police officers that worked under them
12 and their crew, right?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. And as far as you know, that goes back to 2010. You
15 don't have any information to the contrary?

16 A. I suppose. I can't say. I mean, you bring up an 17 example of saying an execution of a search warrant, and 18 I can't tell you definitively if, on every execution of 19 the search warrant in 2010, if the sergeant was present.
20 I wouldn't know that.

21 In fact, I can't tell you even after my 22 appointment if that was a consistent practice. An 23 expectation, yes. But to say that I know in every 24 single execution of a search warrant a sergeant was 25 present, I can't make that statement.

1 Q. Are you suggesting that your Detroit Police Department,
2 in its organizational structure, didn't have a
3 supervisor in a narcotics raid? That is the sergeant
4 that headed up the crew and oversaw its activities?

5 A. That is the expectation, but I can't tell you on every 6 single search warrant execution that a supervisor was 7 present. The expectation is that a sergeant at minimum
8 should be.

9 Now, since we've opened up, which I am sure
10 you'll get into, the task force that we're now working 11 on, certainly the expectation is greater. At minimum a 12 lieutenant shall be present when a raid is initiated by 13 a Narcotics Unit. But I've also teetered on even the 14 rank of captain being present.

15 Right now, as it stands today, the direction
16 is that a lieutenant shall be present on every execution
17 of a Narcotics search warrant.

18 Q. Chief, when did that policy become established?

19 A. That was during this iteration of the investigative work 20 that we are currently involved in. As we began and 21 started --

22 Q. Going back to August 7th, 2019, correct, when you first
23 started.

24 A. When we started our task force operation -- I don't have 25 the date in front of me -- current task force.

1 During that inquiry, there were some things we
2 learned about how the Narcotics Unit functions, and one
3 thing that we learned is that, generally speaking,
4 sergeants would be present. That would be the highest 5 rank present at Narcotics search warrant executions, as 6 you refer to as raids.

7 I've mandated that the rank of lieutenant, a
8 lieutenant shall be present at all executions of search
9 warrants by Narcotics.

10 Q. The purpose, if I may ask you, of having the lieutenant
11 present would be to elevate the level of supervision
12 because of the terms about sergeants and how they 13 operate?

14 A. Yes. In terms of accountability, some things that we 15 have learned during this most recent task force that we 16 have, that we now just named Operation Clean Sweep,
17 what we have learned is that in some instances sergeants
18 may have been involved, directly involved, in the 19 alleged misconduct that we were investigating.

20 And the extent of their involvement could be 21 nothing more than being complicit and not taking 22 appropriate supervisory action when necessary.

23 Q. Well, from what you say, prior to direct policy that
24 you've initiated, the policy was really one of inaction,
25 which is correctly in these raids that were undertaken

1 (Inaudible) affidavit, correct?

2 COURT REPORTER: Can you repeat -- can you

3 repeat the question?

4 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry; the affidavits were

5 not what?

6 BY MR. DETTNER:

7 Q. The search warrant and affidavits initiated the raids --

8 do you want me to call it search warrant executions?

9 You know, when, previously, prior to what you just

10 described, the sergeants were generally the supervisors

11 on the scene of an execution and search warrant, right?

12 A. Generally, it is my belief that they were. And I'm 13 talking about from 2013 going forward. I can't speak to 14 what was going on prior to that.

15 Q. And it was your decision that, to reduce any possibility

16 or reduce the problems within the Narcotics Unit, you

17 were looking at having a greater level of supervision,

18 if I understand you correctly. Is that right?

19 A. A greater level of supervisor for purposes of managerial

20 oversight. Lieutenants -- the rank of lieutenant is

21 considered a mid-manager underneath the rank of captain.

22 So at this point where we are in our probe, I feel

23 comfortable that a middle manager or a manager and

24 captain or commander rank should be present at search

25 warrant executions, primarily what we now call the Major

1 Violators section.

2 Again, those -- when we started an earlier --

3 and you've heard me reference in newspapers that the FBI

4 started a probe into the Detroit Police Department's

5 Narcotic section in 2010. That investigation culminated

6 in 2014.

7 What didn't work out at the conclusion of the 8 FBI's work -- it wasn't a seamless transition of that

9 investigated -- that investigation into the Detroit

10 Police Department.

11 So, in other words, so I'm making myself

12 clear, there were a lot of things that we didn't know

13 that we now know because it was a federal investigation

14 that involved federal crimes. And so they were the lead

15 agency investigating those crimes, and so there was no

16 review of any administrative violations.

17 Now, administrative investigations at times

18 does and do involve criminal allegations; however, they

19 also address any administrative concerns that could

20 result in discipline leading up to termination.

21 So I hope I'm making myself clear, that at the

22 conclusion of the FBI's investigation in 2014, I, along

23 with select members of our executive team were brought

24 into the findings and that it would be several

25 individuals indicted and/or charged.

1 What we didn't get is information

2 concerning -- any allegations concerning administrative

3 violations. Again, administrative violations could

4 result in not only discipline but dismissal.

5 Q. I'll get into a little more detail about that further

6 into the deposition, if I may.

7 But you would acknowledge, prior to your

8 taking your current position in July of 2013 -- 5/1/2013

9 (sic), there was criminal activity by members of the 10 Narcotics Unit?

11 A. I only know that because the Federal Bureau of 12 Investigation, I'm told, launched a probe into the 13 Detroit Police Department's Narcotics section in 2010.

14 That investigation was a four-year investigation. It

15 culminated in 2014, I guess, roughly a year and a half

16 into my tenure. Narcotics was not on the radar.

17 There were other issues concerning the 18 department relative to accountability. It had to do

19 with the Federal Consent Decree that we were under. But

20 nowhere under the Consent Decree was there any reference

21 or review of the operations of the Narcotics section.

22 Again, the FBI's probe was confidential, and

23 because it was confidential, I believe in 2010 most

24 likely the executive levels of this department did not

25 know that there was an FBI probe.

1 Q. Well, you would agree, at some point, and I believe

2 Lieutenant Hansberry was indicted by a filing in federal

3 court on April 8th, 2015.

4 At that point there was some knowledge that

5 there was criminal activity, at least it was alleged at 6 that point in the Narcotics -- then Narcotics -- well, I

7 shouldn't say that -- Major Violators Unit, previously

8 the Narcotics Unit, Hansberry, correct? That indictment

9 ended it?

10 A. I was aware, as I've already testified to, that I was

11 made aware that the FBI was planning to indict and in 12 one instance charge members of the department's

13 Narcotics Unit. That's when I became aware that there

14 was allegations of criminality not reflective of the 15 entire Narcotics Unit.

16 As I've already testified, I believe, as my

17 memory serves me, that two were indicted, one was

18 charged. There was an additional member that committed

19 suicide, I was told, but more than likely would have

20 been indicted. So you are talking about a total of 21 maybe four out of the entire Narcotics Unit.

22 Now if your question is, do I believe that

23 there were others involved in misconduct, I can only say

24 it's based on a belief and based on what I know today

25 and what I didn't know at the conclusion of the FBI's

1 investigation that I do believe that there were other
 2 criminal and administrative violations occurring; not
 3 necessarily reflective of every member of the Narcotics
 4 Unit.
 5 Q. We're talking about -- actually, there were a number of 6 indictments at the same time. Hansberry, who was then,
 7 I believe, a lieutenant, but he had come out of the 8 Narcotics Unit as a sergeant, and Police Officer Watson,
 9 who was in that same Hansberry crew, and Arthur
 10 Leavells, and Officer Napier. And Napier,
 11 unfortunately, committed suicide in his family's side
 12 drive, as you will recall, in January of 2018.
 13 But I think I saw some, and I'll discuss this 14 with you later. We need to get rolling here. There
 15 were some feelings that the Hansberry crew, which fell
 16 into Geelhood's crew, members of those two crews,
 17 originating with Hansberry, were involved in criminal
 18 activity. Is that fair to say?
 19 A. There was certainly speculation. None of these other
 20 members were charged, as you know. Again, I'll repeat, 21 that at the conclusion of the FBI's investigation, the 22 focus was on the folks that were indicted and the one
 23 that was charged.
 24 The remaining members who were more than 25 likely being investigated by the FBI, they were never

1 And what I'm really getting to, was someone
 2 assigned from the Detroit Police Department, whether 3 Internal Affairs or some investigative level, how the 4 events of that trial and evaluate the testimony and 5 consider Internal Affairs investigations of, for 6 example, Napier and others -- I guess, Napier's dead by 7 that time -- but by other members of that crew?
 8 MR. SUROWIEC: Objection; form, foundation,
 9 compound question.
 10 Go ahead.
 11 THE WITNESS: I can answer the question?
 12 MR. SUROWIEC: Yes, Chief.
 13 THE WITNESS: Factually there were two members
 14 of the Detroit Police Department that were part of the 15 Public Corruption Task Force. These two members -- I
 16 can't think of the second member's name. But Tim Ewald,
 17 which I suggested to counsel, had intimacy for years
 18 relative to the narcotics investigation that was 19 conducted by the FBI.
 20 When I talk about the seamless transition,
 21 where I felt it was a failure on the part of the 22 department, is that there was no handoff. That these 23 are the folks that got charged federally, these are the 24 people that we have concerns with administratively, and 25 we should launch an investigation.

1 charged. However, it doesn't mean that those additional
 2 members were not involved in some other kind of 3 misconduct, maybe some of what they were involved in 4 would be construed as criminal. However, this attorney
 5 did not charge them. The problem --
 6 Q. Let me ask you this.
 7 A. I'm trying to finish a point.
 8 Q. Yes.
 9 A. The problem with the conclusion is it wasn't a seamless
 10 transition from criminality to the possibility of 11 administrative work, and I am not faulting the FBI for 12 that because that's not what they do.
 13 The Detroit Police Department investigates
 14 misconduct. And if misconduct is made aware, you
 15 investigate and, again, as I have already testified to,
 16 sometimes that misconduct amounts to discipline, which 17 could mean suspension days leading up to and including 18 dismissal.
 19 Q. Let me -- I was going to get into this later, but since 20 you are raising it.
 21 During the trial of Hansberry and Watson,
 22 Leavells testified, and a Source of Information, Gary 23 Jackson, testified. And I would represent to you that 24 testimony was more inclusive of criminal conduct by 25 other members of Hansberry's crew.

1 These two members of the department primarily
 2 didn't do the heavy lifting, as you will, of 3 investigative work. They were trusted members of the 4 FBI's investigative team, although they were part of the 5 Detroit Police Department.
 6 BY MR. DETTMER:
 7 Q. I'm sorry. If -- I don't mean to interrupt you. But
 8 Ewald and who was the other one?
 9 A. I can't think of the second name right now. He has 10 since returned. He is working in the City in IT. It
 11 will come to me, but right now Tim Ewald had been part 12 of the FBI's task force on public corruption, so he was 13 very intimate relative to what was going on with the 14 investigation, and I would imagine he would opine that 15 there were others that were not criminally charged but 16 certainly were engaged in acts of misconduct.
 17 Q. Well, in Leavells' testimony during the trial of 18 Hansberry, it was very clear that other members of 19 Hansberry's were clearly involved in criminal activity
 20 and, either inside the court, a hearing, trial, or 21 review of transcripts would have clearly shown that.
 22 To your knowledge that didn't happen, correct?
 23 A. There were no --
 24 MR. SUROWIEC: Objection, form, foundation to 25 the question.

1 Chief, I apologize. Go ahead and answer, if 2 you can.

3 THE WITNESS: Yes, I -- you know, as I've
4 already testified to, and I made the statement several 5 times, there certainly was no seamless transition at the 6 conclusion of the criminality -- criminal case to moving 7 into the administrative.

8 Again, there were a lot of things that I and 9 my executive team were unaware of. We knew that there
10 was some problems, and in terms of -- there were other 11 members of Narcotics that may have been involved in 12 criminal activity, however, they weren't charged
13 criminally.

14 BY MR. DETTMER:

15 Q. Let me ask you -- let me ask you it this way. Did Ewald
16 prepare any memoranda or writing, that you're aware of,
17 that described the testimony of Leavells at the trial?

18 A. I am not aware of that memo.

19 Q. Did any -- are you aware of whether the Detroit Police
20 Department acquired the transcripts of Leavells and Gary
21 Jackson, the SOI?

22 A. I am not aware of it.

23 Q. Are you aware of any memoranda or writing that Ewald
24 prepared describing the testimony and the indication of 25 other individuals involved in any criminal activity?

1 MR. SUROWIEC: Can we have a time frame,
2 Chief, from when that happened?

3 THE WITNESS: It would be --

4 MR. DETTMER: Let me ask you this way. Let me
5 ask you this way.

6 BY MR. DETTMER:

7 Q. The raid on the three locations where there were 8 Narcotic Unit's records was on August 22, 2019. How 9 long prior to that when what is now called Clean Sweep
10 originate and the investigation undertaken?

11 A. When we raided our own Narcotics Unit, seized all of its 12 records, it was strategically done, based on we knew
13 that former Officer Mosley was going to face charges.

14 So I made a decision based on Mosley being
15 charged and fearful that, if we didn't act by seizing
16 all of our records, that the records could be destroyed.
17 That was one issue.

18 The second issue, I believe that, based on the 19 allegation against Officer Mosley, that that was not his 20 first time engaging in this kind of criminal misconduct.

21 So based on those two factors and the third
22 factor, ironically around the same time period there was 23 a source who provided information about what was going
24 on in Narcotics as to some of the alleged misconduct.
25 Those three things put me in a good position

1 A. I cannot recall any memorandum prepared by Tim Ewald.
2 My -- I have had conversations. Tim Ewald was very
3 different from the Hansberry case that concluded in 2014
4 to where we are today, without going into details
5 because it's a confidential part of the investigative
6 work that we are doing.

7 We have very specific information that we got 8 from a source. It was very descriptive of the type of 9 alleged conduct that was going on. Based on that 10 information and the case that was later brought by the 11 one who was recently charged or indicted, Mosley, we now
12 had a clear picture of what was going on allegedly in 13 the Narcotics Unit.

14 And that is why, based on information that we 15 got from a source, through the FBI, and I can't go into 16 that because it's still very much part of the 17 investigation, we have created a task force operation.
18 And that task force operation has been very surgical,
19 very thorough in looking at everything.

20 As I had testified to earlier, that operation
21 is called Operation Clean Sweep, and so as we have gone
22 on, based on the information that we got from the 23 source, we are getting a lot of information now. And so 24 information that we did not have at the conclusion of 25 Hansberry.

1 to, one, go in, seize all of our records, and it was 2 from that point that we started a task force. We didn't
3 have a name for it. We started off relatively small.

4 At the present time we have 17 members. We
5 also -- it's a DPD-led task force. Of the 17 members,
6 5 are the FBI, 3 are part-time, and 2 FBI full-time.

7 Q. Let me ask you about that, Director Graveline filing
8 a declaration filed with federal court on May 19 of this 9 year.

10 One of the things he's talking about is the 11 sequence of investigation starting most currently and 12 going back historically. And he raised this question
13 about the concern about the Statute of Limitations. I'm 14 wondering what you perceive, in any meetings or 15 discussions about this, that the longest Statute of 16 Limitations that may apply as potential criminal conduct 17 by members of the nar- -- the Major Violators or the 18 Narcotics Units. What do you think? Three years? Six
19 years?

20 MR. SUROWIEC: Objection to form.
21 Chief, one second.
22 Objection; form, foundation. That's a
23 multiparted question. I'm not sure what the question
24 is, it's somewhat loaded.
25 If you can answer it, Chief, go ahead.

1 THE WITNESS: I think I can. I'll try my
2 best.
3 So there are two things at work here. One,
4 the criminal statute probably, as was articulated by 5 Chris Graveline, would probably be out. However, since 6 my tenure I've also initiated what I call a Statute of 7 Limitations for administrative misconduct.
8 So how that works is that, once the department
9 becomes aware of misconduct from any source, it could be 10 from a civil lawsuit like this. If we become aware of 11 allegations of misconduct, the clock starts. We have 12 one year from the time we're made aware to complete and 13 adjudicate that allegation. So that's the 14 administrative statute.
15 Now, you should note that this has not been 16 something that has been agreed to by both the department
17 and the unions. It's, for the most part, a handshake.
18 At some point in the near future, we will
19 codify and we will develop a memorandum of understanding
20 to solidify the administrative Statute of Limitations.
21 And the reason why that came about, one of the things
22 that was problematic in the Detroit Police Department
23 for years, I was told, is that a lot of cases that were 24 being brought to the arbitrator, and those 25 administrative matters were being dismissed. And the

1 find criminally, if it meets the US Attorney standard --
2 certainly, this task force is a dual task force. It's 3 addressing allegations of criminality and it's also
4 addressing administration violations. So it's a twofold
5 task force.
6 FBI certainly is interested in the work. This
7 is why they had dedicated staff to Operation Clean
8 Sweep. The belief is there may be some allegations that 9 can be brought forth criminally, even though some of 10 them are dated. I don't know what the statute of 11 limitation, like, for example, color of law, or whatever 12 that -- there may be some of those. I don't know if 13 statute of those goes much longer, as Attorney Graveline
14 may have articulated. When we seized our records, we 15 are going back ten years. And so right now where we are 16 in this probe, we have gone back to the year of 2017.
17 So we haven't quite gone back ten years.
18 Q. Yes. I am aware of that and in some of the articles
19 that we will introduce as we get going, you've made that 20 clear.
21 The point that I am making with you is if I
22 were sitting at the table with the task force as a
23 member, I would say we need to start looking at 24 documents that are relevant to the Statute of 25 Limitations period expiring.

1 reasons for the dismissals were because of the lack of
2 timeliness.
3 So based on the lack of timeliness, I felt it
4 was important for both the community and the concerned
5 accused officer that there would be a timely
6 adjudication to all allegations of misconduct.
7 BY MR. DETTMER:
8 Q. I'm --
9 A. I am --
10 Q. Go ahead.
11 A. So in terms of the criminal statutes relative to some of 12 the officers that were never investigated criminally or 13 were investigated criminally -- and I can't testify as 14 to why, let's say, the FBI did not opt to pursue
15 charges. Maybe it was a US Attorney said we don't think 16 that there's enough to charge them with whatever the 17 criminal charge was. I don't know.
18 Q. The point --
19 A. However --
20 Q. The point I'm making, there must be some criminal
21 statutes that are under consideration by the task force,
22 and the question is, do you know what periods of time
23 we're talking?
24 A. Since we are working with both Federal Bureau of 25 Investigation, US Attorney's Office, anything that we

1 For example, if we have a six-year statute, we
2 should be looking at 2014 and start our investigation in
3 2014 and come forward to the current time. I don't
4 understand it starting in 2020 or '19 and going
5 backward, because the Statute of Limitations is a key
6 element here. It sounds like a major mistake on the 7 part of whoever is heading this task force not to 8 analyze that as a key issue.
9 A. I rely strongly on my legal advisers. There was a
10 method. You're not a part of the task force, and it's 11 okay to criticize me. But what I feel good about is 12 finally for the first time -- it may be the books will 13 say -- and the first time we have an opportunity to 14 totally eradicate criminal misconduct from the Narcotics
15 department.
16 Q. This is an administrative issue you are talking about?
17 A. Administrative and criminal. It's no doubt to me. I
18 can speculate that there are probably many allegations
19 of criminality that have gone untouched for whatever
20 reason.
21 I've talked to members in this organization as 22 recent as a couple of days ago. And during that meeting
23 with my command staff, I gave a brief update on the task
24 force's work. In my brief remarks, I indicated that it
25 is our mission and goal to totally for the first time

1 eradicate misconduct from the Narcotics Unit.

2 Q. I support that, Chief. But --

3 A. But, so, like I said, to many of you who have been on

4 the department for in excess of, let's say, 10, 15,

5 20 years, you've heard the stories -- I wasn't here

6 then -- that there was a strong belief that there were

7 members in the Narcotics Unit engaging in misconduct.

8 Q. Well, would you agree with the point I made a few

9 minutes ago, that really the investigation should have

10 started more timely with the expiration of the Statute

11 of Limitations? Would you agree to that?

12 A. I'm not going to agree for this one reason. I

13 understand where you're going. Let me tell you why we

14 started where we started.

15 Initially, we didn't know what we were dealing

16 with. As I pointed out, there were a couple of things

17 in play. We had another dirty officer that got

18 charged -- Officer Mosley, who got charged and I had a

19 strong belief that Officer Mosley was involved in other

20 criminal misconduct. I believed it.

21 So part of the reason for this surgical look,

22 it was to go back and look at Mosley, look at the 23 team -- he was a team leader. And we wanted to know if

24 the involvement even was beyond him. So we started

25 there because we knew that that was timely.

1 properly reported.

2 Secondly, your discussion so far indicates,

3 you know, substantially the same thing. But first of 4 all, Exhibit 7...

5 MR. SUROWIEC: Dennis, can I interrupt real

6 quick? We, honestly, didn't get Exhibits 1 through 10.

7 We did forward the ones we got last night to the Chief,

8 but could Michael put this up on the screen?

9 MR. DETTMER: Yes, he can put it up.

10 Michael?

11 BY MR. DETTMER:

12 Q. This is an article from the -- August 22, 2019 -- from 13 the Detroit News, and we marked it as your Deposition

14 Exhibit 7.

15 And it starts off, a team of Detroit

16 investigators seized records of computer data from three

17 of the department's own facilities Thursday, as part of 18 an ongoing internal probe into the allegations of 19 corruption into the department's drug operations, Chief

20 James Craig said.

21 Is that a fair statement? Is that accurate?

22 A. It is.

23 Q. And then it goes on: The investigation, the latest in a

24 series of probes in the former Narcotics section, which

25 were closed in 2014 because of rampant corruption,

1 No doubt in my mind that there are going to be

2 cases that as we continue this task force that are not

3 going to meet the criminal statute.

4 However, we've been in consultation with the

5 US Attorney's Office, the FBI, certainly, if there's

6 color of law violations -- as another part that I didn't

7 get into, we have also been meeting regularly with Wayne

8 County Prosecutor's office, primarily the Innocence

9 Project, and we are also looking at -- I'm going

10 to pause for just a minute. The mayor is calling me

11 so...

12 MR. DETTMER: We are pausing at 12:05; is that

13 correct?

14 THE WITNESS: Yes, if we could just pause and 15 I'll be short.

16 (Off the record at 12:02

17 Back on at 12:05 p.m.)

18 EXHIBIT 7

19 Detroit News Article

20 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION

21 BY MR. DETTMER:

22 Q. I'd like to go through articles, and starting with 7.

23 Exhibit 7, and it goes to 7D, and these are basically

24 the comments that you made to newspapers, and I just

25 want to confirm that what you said to the newspapers is

1 kicked off about four months ago after a large shipment

2 of drugs had been seized in Detroit was switched for

3 another substance by the time it got to Chicago for a

4 court hearing, Craig said. Is that accurate? The 5 statement, just generally?

6 A. Yes, that was an investigation -- we got information

7 that -- from the DEA and FBI about an allegation which I

8 can tell you didn't come to fruition.

9 Q. It did not?

10 A. Did not. However, without going into detail, because it

11 directly concerns what we are doing now, it was 12 beneficial in the investigative work we're doing now.

13 I'll just leave it there.

14 Q. Let me ask you this. In terms of the switch out of the 15 drugs on the -- from Detroit to Chicago, was the 16 Narcotics Unit involved in any way in --

17 A. There was no indication that what came to us occurred.

18 It would have been -- it could have been our Narcotics

19 Unit. It could have been -- I mean, allegedly it could

20 have been Narcotics. It could have been the place where 21 the narcotics were being held.

22 Again, it was an allegation only, but in terms

23 of the work that we were proceeding with, and, again, I

24 cannot and will not go into details, but it helped us

25 with the work that we are doing even though that issue

1 was unfounded.

2 Q. Chief, let me ask you this, then.

3 Was that acquisition of those drugs --

4 A. Can you hold one second? The gentleman -- I've got a
5 gentleman in my office that -- the other name -- he just 6 happens to be in the office.

7 (Chief having a discussion
8 off the record.)

9 THE WITNESS: Saraino. His name is Saraino.

10 BY MR. DETTMER:

11 Q. Ewald's partner, in effect?

12 A. Yes, that's correct.

13 Q. Do you know how to spell that?

14 THE WITNESS: How is Saraino's name spelled?
15 Saraino, S A R A I N O. That's his last name.
16 First name?

17 BY MR. DETTMER:

18 Q. S, as in "Sam," right?

19 A. Yes, first name, Michael.

20 Q. Thank you.

21 THE WITNESS: You're not in trouble, Mike.
22 Okay. Anyway.

23 BY MR. DETTMER:

24 Q. Well, what I am asking you, did the Major Violator's
25 Unit exercise a search warrant and acquire those drugs?

1 appearance and maybe more testimony from you. But right
2 now I want to go through this quickly.

3 Then you go on in the next paragraph, or the 4 article goes on, part of the corruption Craig referred
5 to involved former drug cops Hansberry, Watson, and 6 Leavells, who were convicted in federal court of 7 offenses that include ripping off drug dealers and 8 stealing and buying drugs that had been seized.

9 Basically, you acknowledge that in your
10 testimony so far today, correct?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. And then at the very bottom of the second page in 13 Exhibit 7, it says, he, referring to you, said
14 allegations made against Hansberry, Watson, and other 15 cops, the federal lawsuit also played a part in the 16 ongoing investigation which is the latest in a string of 17 probes into the department's narcotics operation.
18 Is that a fair statement --

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. -- that represented that?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And -- well, I'll come back to that. But I'm wondering
23 why Hansberry and Watson, you know, are the -- well,
24 seeming to leading into this. Why did that -- the 25 allegations made against them play a role in the ongoing

1 A. I don't recall the circumstances involved in the drugs,
2 but based on the DEA, FBI, it was unfounded and so -- in
3 fact, I know the DEA was doing an investigation relative
4 to the DEA's role, and I just don't know the outcome of 5 their role.

6 Q. All right. The next page of this article, I saw, Craig
7 said, he initiated the seizure of records and computer
8 files because of concerns about, and they quote, "a 9 residual effect of corruption", and he said has long
10 been part of Narcotics operation, which the chief
11 renamed the Major Violators section five years ago.

12 Is that a proper quote of a residual effect?

13 A. I could say yes. I think it was residual. A lot of it
14 was speculative on my part. But I made the statement
15 and, again, there were things I didn't -- as I have 16 already testified to in this session, there were things
17 I didn't know about the Hansberry matter, that as we 18 launched this probe, there is a direct nexus to it.

19 Q. We will get into that in more detail, but...

20 A. I'm not going to get into a lot of detail because, as I
21 indicated, I am in the middle of a corruption probe, and 22 some of what we are doing is very confidential.

23 Q. Well, we are under a Protective Order in this
24 proceeding. And I think the assertion of a privilege
25 we'll deal with, might require a motion and a court

1 investigation?

2 A. Because as we are doing the work that we're doing now,
3 we're finding certain patterns that have continued, that
4 preexisted the FBI's investigation. We believe that 5 continued even after their indictment.

6 Q. Going on to the next page of Exhibit 7, page 3. It
7 states at the very top, Craig disbanded the drug unit in
8 July 2014 because what he said was systemic problems
9 uncovered during the Internal Affairs investigation that 10 includes how drugs and evidence were handled.

11 "Systemic problems," by that do you mean
12 there's an activity according to a fixed plan, a
13 methodical operation within the drug unit?

14 A. I think it probably would have been better articulated
15 as trying to build in enhanced accountability. Did I 16 believe that there were other problems inside of the 17 drug unit that we couldn't identify?

18 But one thing that was missing from the 19 conclusion of that investigation and where we are now,
20 we didn't have anyone inside giving us information as to 21 some of the alleged conduct. However, basically 22 disbanning the Narcotics section and renaming it to 23 Major Violators was done to incorporate some best
24 practices that would tend to build in more
25 accountability.

1 One thing that I recall, and it didn't really
2 work as well as I thought, was to put a time limit of 3 how long officers assigned to Narcotics would work. So
4 what some did to do a workaround on the rule -- it was 5 like a five-year rule; that if you worked Narcotics for 6 five years, you had to leave. That's a best practice.

7 And what ultimately happened, individuals
8 would be moved out of Narcotics, not that anybody was 9 accused of any wrongdoing. It was just a best practice.
10 They were moved out, more cases than not, into 11 precinct-level Special Op Units to do the drug 12 investigations and some -- and I don't know the 13 number -- some ended up returning to the drug unit. So
14 there was an interruption in their time. So...

15 Q. I will get to that issue. I have an exhibit, the 16 administrative message making -- effective July 14th,
17 2014, the formation of Major Violators, and I'll get to 18 that.

19 EXHIBIT 7A
20 Detroit News Report
21 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION

22 BY MR. DETTMER:

23 Q. But I'd like to go on, and there's a December 11th,
24 2019, Exhibit 7A of a Detroit News report and it's 25 titled Detroit Police Probe Yields Allegations of

1 "allegations." We haven't really --

2 Q. It goes on, since -- the next paragraph.
3 Since the August 22nd raid in which dozens of 4 files and computers were seized and analyzed, Chief
5 James Craig has reassigned everyone in the unit with 6 five or more years' experience, correct?
7 Is that a correct statement?

8 A. That is.

9 Q. Then you go on, I am extremely concerned there may be a 10 pattern of practice of criminal misconduct in the 11 Narcotics Unit. Sadly, as we continue our probe, we 12 think it's going to grow in terms of magnitude.
13 Is that a correct quote from you?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. And then down lower on the first page, after Director
16 Graveline's picture. It goes on: Craig said, he 17 enlisted from FBI, Michigan State Police, US Attorney's
18 Office after materials seized in the raid, he enlisted 19 help -- I'm sorry -- revealed more problems than 20 anticipated. Is that correct? Or were they involved
21 prior to?

22 A. No, I think the FBI came. We initiated the probe, and 23 the FBI made a commitment. They gave us two 24 permanent -- and as I indicated earlier, there were 25 three part-time and I think one of the FBI was also part

1 Widespread Corruption on Drug Unit.

2 Would you agree with the lead-in to this
3 article?

4 MR. SUROWIEC: Object to form, foundation.

5 Go ahead, Chief, and answer the question.

6 THE WITNESS: Are you talking about the title
7 of the article?

8 BY MR. DETTMER:

9 Q. Yes. Right. Do you see it there?

10 A. Yes, I'd say there was widespread, given what we were 11 starting to uncover. But I want to pause for a moment 12 and make it abundantly clear that it didn't mean that 13 everybody working the drug unit was involved in 14 criminality.

15 Q. In the first paragraph, the indication -- if I just read
16 it into the record. Four months after Detroit Police
17 and Internal Affairs officers raided their own
18 department Narcotics Unit, investigators have uncovered
19 alleged corruption that includes drug cops planting
20 evidence, lying to prosecutors in search warrants,
21 robbing dope dealers, and embezzling funds, Police
22 Commission said.

23 You don't disagree with that, I assume?

24 A. I don't disagree that those were allegations that we 25 were looking at. I'm putting emphasis on

1 of the Public Corruption Task Force who is a Michigan
2 State Police. I'm not certain if he's still involved in
3 that, but he was at the time.

4 Q. You go on after -- by adding people. Now we are on to 5 17. And you recorded this saying, this is a major
6 corruption investigation, but I want to caution that 7 these are just allegations at this point. That's what
8 you've said a number of times, correct?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. On the second page of Exhibit 7A, in the first full
11 paragraph, it says, one of the investigation's
12 findings -- and I want to skip down -- the second bullet
13 point, false affidavits alleging were presented to --
14 allegedly were presented to prosecutor to get search
15 warrants.

16 And you are then quoted, it's alleged that the 17 probable cause against the warrants was fabricated.
18 Surveillance that was supposedly conducted to get the 19 warrants wasn't done. Is that correct? Is that proper?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. And you indicated there were identified eight instances
22 where this may have occurred, correct?

23 A. At that time, yes.

24 Q. And in the next -- the next bullet point, drug suspects
25 were designated as confidential informants without

1 permission. Only a prosecutor either from the Wayne
2 County Prosecutor's Office or the US Attorney's Office
3 can authorize a member of the department to turn a
4 suspect in to an informant. You said that, correct?
5 A. I did.

6 Q. And then it goes on, based on our investigation so far,
7 we found 11 instances where officers improperly made
8 suspects into informants. Based on our investigation so
9 far we -- I'm sorry -- we found 11 of these.

10 Now, let me ask you, how is it recorded that a 11 confidential informant really should be a Source of 12 Information, right -- or Confidential Informant has been 13 authorized by either US Attorney's Office or the Wayne
14 County Prosecutor's Office to act as an informant.

15 How is that done? What is the trail?

16 A. I can't tell you what the paperwork is. But simply put,
17 if an arrest is made, narcotics are seized, then the 18 police officer cannot unilaterally release that person.
19 You're going to work this case off, and you'll work it
20 off. We're not going to take you into custody, but 21 you'll work it off giving us additional information.

22 Only a prosecutor -- the point is, only a
23 prosecutor can make that decision to say, okay, you've 24 got this person with large amounts of, let's say,
25 cocaine, and we think the information that he or she has

1 probing.

2 Q. On the last page, Exhibit 7A. You attribute -- I'll 3 read it.

4 You attribute the problem "basic greed", and I
5 assume your basic greed of officers and supervisors in 6 the Narcotics Unit, and including, obviously, the Major
7 Violators Unit, correct?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. 7B, this is a newspaper article in Detroit News,
10 December 12th, 2019. And you're quoted a number of 11 times and I --

12 MR. DETTMER: Michael, can you bring that up?

13 BY MR. DETTMER:

14 Q. Start off, selling drugs in any city is dangerous as 15 dealers risk being killed or robbed by rivals, but in 16 Detroit, pushers for years also have known they could be 17 ripped off by cops, Police Chief James Craig said.

18 Is that accurate?

19 A. Yes, if I would have -- if I said it that way. But I
20 guess that's the essence of it -- yes, I don't know if I
21 would have said it just like that.

22 Q. That's the point you want to make?

23 A. Yes, but I might have said it differently.

24 Q. Then it goes on, the next paragraph, the culture here
25 has been such that drug traffickers figure that it was

1 is invaluable in getting someone, say, higher up.

2 In the drug trade, that prosecutor could make
3 that decision, not a police officer. I can't make that 4 decision as a police chief. I certainly -- it can be
5 recommended -- a recommendation that we pursue as -- a
6 word that they use in Narcotics, it's called flipping a
7 source, who they got drugs on. We found -- as it was 8 indicated, we found that that happened a number of 9 times, and that is improper.

10 Q. Now, going on the second page in A, down a little bit,
11 you indicate, we're also looking very closely at the 12 supervisors and managers in the Major Violators section.
13 What did they know and what did they do about it? The 14 investigation is looking very closely at the management
15 that oversaw Narcotics.

16 And so you were very concerned that the 17 Narcotic Units were not being properly supervised,
18 correct?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. And have you found anything where it's been established
21 that there was a deficiency in supervision?

22 A. As we continued our probe, based on the alleged conduct
23 or misconduct that supervisors either knew or didn't
24 know but should have known -- I guess that's the best
25 way to describe it -- that is something that we're still

1 just one of the costs of doing business. They knew I
2 could get killed, robbed by my competition or robbed by 3 cops. It's not like that in other cities that I have 4 worked.

5 Is that a proper quote from you?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. You go on on the next page, again, that -- the 8 investigation that's underway, has uncovered a pattern
9 and practice of alleged corruption. Is that fair to 10 say, in the drug unit?

11 A. That's correct.

12 And, again, I want to put emphasis on that
13 does not mean that every single member assigned to Major
14 Violators was engaged in this pattern and practice.

15 Q. I understand. You've made that point a number of times
16 in the articles being quoted. And I understand that.
17 I'm not suggesting that every officer that is or was 18 ever in the Narcotics Unit or Major Violators are 19 criminals, but there are some. That's clearly, I think,
20 the point, correct?

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. You were quoted a number of other times. Do you want to 23 take a quick look through this? I don't know if you can 24 see it clearly.

25 A. Is there anything specific that you want me to see?

1 Q. For example, on the second page, those who are
 2 trafficking in large amounts of drugs got passes based
 3 on the decision of a police officer. They are not going
 4 to come back knocking on my door, saying, Chief, we want
 5 to make a complaint.

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. That was the problem, right?

8 A. In essence.

9 I'm not saying with every arrest, but we have 10 seen that what -- you know, what drug dealer who's 11 getting a pass is going to come in and make a complaint.

12 Q. I understand that.

13 7C is an article titled Detroit Police
 14 Officials Revamp Internal Affairs Probe Procedures.
 15 This is dated April 27th, 2019, and it's a Detroit News
 16 article.

17 Now, the Internal Affairs has what
 18 responsibility?

19 A. To investigate both administrative and criminal 20 misconduct.

21 Q. And it's a check, in a way. It has some supervisory
 22 responsibility, correct?

23 Well, let me ask you it a different way. Does
 24 it play some role in supervising the police officers?

25 A. It can play a role in establishing policy, but the probe

1 Q. No. No, that's okay.

2 A. It's just that it was done, as I had testified already,
 3 to address the lack of timeliness of investigations,
 4 and, twofold, to address an accused officer. They 5 deserve to have a timely resolution to their 6 allegations. And also to the community that expects 7 that when they initiate allegations of misconduct, that 8 matter is addressed not four or five years later.

9 Q. Internal Affairs is a process in the discipline of 10 police officers, correct? In all levels of police
 11 officers?

12 A. That is one -- Internal Affairs is one part. They 13 execute, initiate -- strike initiate.

14 But they execute the investigative work of 15 serious allegations of misconduct which in some 16 instances includes criminal misconduct.

17 Q. And it's significant in the process of keeping track of 18 what is occurring within the police department? If it's 19 not running efficiently, you're not staying on top of 20 the supervision that's needed?

21 A. Well, there are other -- I disagree with the question.

22 We have audit functions inside the police
 23 department that monitor compliance with rules and 24 directives. Internal Affairs investigates allegations
 25 of misconduct.

1 is separate from IA. It was birthed out of --

2 Q. Well, earlier in your testimony today, you indicated
 3 that one of the things you changed was the Internal
 4 Affairs. Can you put a time period on investigations
 5 from inception to conclusion of one year? And you
 6 indicated some --

7 A. That was involving -- that was involving allegations of 8 misconduct, and that change had nothing to do with this
 9 probe. That was overall --

10 Q. Internal Affairs' probes can turn up criminal conduct,
 11 correct?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. So if these things languished and then were not being,
 14 if you will, aggressively addressed and putting a cap on 15 the time period made it more efficient, I assume, and 16 more analytical and more factual based, you know, you
 17 can't -- four years after the fact, getting the facts
 18 established is hard, agreed? The purpose of --

19 MR. SUROWIEC: Object to the form and 20 foundation of the question.

21 BY MR. DETTMER:

22 Q. The purpose of this was to really elevate, in some ways,
 23 the effectiveness of the supervision, correct?

24 A. I don't like your question.

25 I mean, I don't mean to be smug, or...

1 Q. The practice is that it be done timely. That's a
 2 supervision issue?

3 A. That's specific to allegations that come forth and,
 4 again, as I've already testified to, because there was
 5 no timely resolution and many of the cases going before
 6 arbitrators that were appealed were being dismissed
 7 because of the lack of timeliness.

8 So I felt strongly that Internal Affairs in 9 the department could be more efficient in responding to 10 the completion of internal investigations.

11 Q. I'd like to go on to 7E now. And it's an article dated 12 February 11th, of this year, 2020. And it's titled 13 Craig Defense Inhouse Probe of Police Narcotics Unit.

14 And in the second paragraph you are quoted, do
 15 you see that? It is not -- I don't know if our -- can 16 you read that?

17 A. Frankly, we are best poised to do this investigation.

18 Q. Yes. You can read it to yourself. Is that an 19 accurate --

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. -- recital of your statement?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And then down below the pictures, the second paragraph,
 24 that starts, "Craig said", could you read that?

25 A. Yes. It cuts off at a point because of the --

1 MR. DETTMER: Can you roll that up, Michael?
 2 THE WITNESS: A little bit. Roll it up. Not
 3 that way, the other way. Stop there.
 4 BY MR. DETTMER:
 5 Q. Is that a correct recitation?
 6 A. That's correct.
 7 Q. The second page, the paragraph that starts the second
 8 page, the probe, Craig said, see that?
 9 MR. DETTMER: Pick it up a little, Michael. A
 10 little more.
 11 THE WITNESS: I see it right there.
 12 BY MR. DETTMER:
 13 Q. Is that accurate?
 14 A. That's correct.
 15 Q. And then the next paragraph, is that accurate?
 16 A. Meaning if there's a pattern of conduct?
 17 Q. Yes, that's the one. Is that an accurate recitation?
 18 A. I've already testified to this very same thing not even 19 two minutes ago.
 20 Q. And then going on, you again indicate that the probe was 21 going back to 2010. That was something that you said a
 22 number of times.
 23 EXHIBIT 8
 24 Police Commissioner Meeting
 25 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION

1 and you're referring to Commissioner Crawford's question
 2 about finding a rotation in Narcotics.
 3 You go on: I was adhering or adopting, but I
 4 know that best practices and police departments that
 5 have come under such judgments, they have put limited
 6 duration on the tours of duty, high-risk assignments,
 7 such as Narcotics, Vice, Gang Units. And the reason for 8 that is because those assignments have had lengthy tours
 9 of duties is a greater likelihood of corruption.
 10 You knew that and made that point to the 11 commission, correct?
 12 A. I did.
 13 Q. And you go on, starting at line 19 on a page 39, in 14 Detroit, what we've done in adhering to the best
 15 practices, is that the tour of duty in those 16 assignments, Vice, Gangs, Narcotics, would be three 17 years, and the termination of the three-year assignment,
 18 the concerned employee could request a one-year
 19 extension.
 20 Did you enforce that policy consistently?
 21 A. I delegated enforcement down to assistant chief and 22 Deputy Chief Leavell and it candidly wasn't enforced in 23 the manner in which it was articulated.
 24 I can say I felt there was some resistance,
 25 even though not voiced, because it's always been the way

1 BY MR. DETTMER:
 2 Q. Go on to Exhibit 8.
 3 This is a July 17, 2014, meeting of the 4 Detroit Board of Police Commissioners which occurred on 5 Thursday, July 7th, 2014.
 6 I have 2, 3, pages -- actually, a couple of 7 pages identifying who was there and the date again. But 8 going to page 37, you are discussing, and there's a 9 report in detail by Hanson no less, of what's said at 10 the meeting, correct?
 11 And this report starting at line 12 on page 37
 12 addressing -- I'm sorry, on line 15, a discussion about 13 the revamping of the Narcotics Unit, the Major
 14 Violators.
 15 Do you recall that discussion?
 16 A. Not offhand. That was 2014. I've been to many --
 17 Q. Basically, though, you described the revamping of the 18 Narcotics Unit into the Major Violators?
 19 A. I'm sure I've had a number of conversations with the 20 Police Commission relative to the Narcotics Unit, and 21 I'm sure I would have briefed them on changes being 22 made.
 23 Q. There's a question about the length of time an officer
 24 can be a member of the Narcotics Unit, if you will. And 25 on page 39 you say: "I appreciate you bringing that up"

1 things were done in this department.
 2 So if they move someone out, the person still
 3 worked -- I have since learned -- worked in Narcotics
 4 and sat at the precinct level. And then at some point
 5 they were brought back. I'm not always aware who 6 left -- I mean, now it's different. We certainly have a
 7 more rigor attacks.
 8 The argument that those who have been in the 9 organization was that they felt lengthy experience was 10 important. Instead of this three-year and a one-year
 11 extension, if necessary. It wasn't really well
 12 received, at least that was my sense. Certainly now,
 13 there's no pushback.
 14 Q. Well, are you applying a three-year plus one possible,
 15 max of four years?
 16 A. If my memory --
 17 Q. Is that being enforced?
 18 A. If my -- well, since the start of our probe, we moved 19 anybody with five years or more out. So, yes, it has 20 been.
 21 So based on what I know now, there's nobody
 22 that has excess of five years, at least to my knowledge.
 23 Q. But until the probe started, 2019, there were people
 24 that had maybe as much as five or more years in --
 25 A. Right, there were still some people --

1 Q. -- Major Violators and Narcotics, right?

2 A. That's correct. So we have --

3 Q. So the supervision wasn't adhering to the policy you

4 instituted --

5 (Indiscernible, multiple

6 speakers at the same time)?

7 THE WITNESS: I'm wondering, are you going to

8 let me answer the question or are you going to talk,

9 because I can't get a response out. I would like to get

10 a response out, if that's okay.

11 MR. DETTMER: I want you to respond.

12 THE WITNESS: Okay.

13 So the answer is yes, we found instances where

14 it wasn't adhered to. As I testified to earlier, that 15 in some instances they were moved out and then brought 16 back.

17 In other words, the clock stopped and it was

18 restarted. So if you are out of Narcotics, say, for a

19 couple of months and you were brought back, the clock is 20 starting all over again. That was a way to get around

21 an unpopular decision.

22 BY MR. DETTMER:

23 Q. Well, you, as the chief of police, as CEO of the Detroit

24 Police Department, had the final say on policy, correct?

25 And you expect your officers, including all of your

1 decision?

2 A. As I remember, it probably was the same time following

3 the conclusion of the Hansberry indictment. So we were

4 looking for a way to change the culture, move the

5 major -- I mean Narcotics in another direction, that

6 based on what we've learned in our probe, there were

7 things that we didn't know that had we known at that

8 point, that would have been included in the restructure.

9 We just didn't know it. There was a lot of things we

10 didn't know.

11 Q. Hansberry was indicted on April 8th, 2015. But there

12 was an ongoing investigation, correct, prior to that,

13 about Hansberry and his crew members? Correct?

14 A. Yes. I have already testified that the FBI initiated

15 and started the investigation in 2010 --

16 Q. Right.

17 A. -- and culminated in 2014.

18 Q. Now, in terms of the Detroit Police Department, were

19 files opened about this investigation that originated

20 with the investigation you described previously but were

21 giving some direction to the organizational features?

22 You didn't just wake up one day and dictate this five-

23 or six-page document, right?

24 Exhibit 9. You had some information provided

25 to you before, correct?

1 command officers, to follow policy that you oversee and

2 instituted, correct?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. And the failure to do so is a failure of vision but at 5 different levels, correct?

6 A. You can say that, yes.

7 EXHIBIT 9

8 Administrative Message

9 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION

10 BY MR. DETTMER:

11 Q. I want to then go on to Exhibit 9. This is the 12 administrative message dated June 27th, 2014, where

13 there are organizational changes within organized crime.

14 BY MR. DETTMER:

15 Q. And organized crime is -- has under its umbrella a

16 number of different things. It had -- I can't -- it had

17 Narcotics Unit, gang intelligence, task force and vice

18 enforcement. And you changed the name of the Narcotics

19 Unit, and effective July 14, 2014, you named it Major

20 Violators and reduced the number and I think posted

21 other conditions, correct?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. Do you have something time wise that caused you to do

24 this in the summer of -- or in the period of 25 June 2014 -- or in 2014 that caused you to make this

1 A. As I've indicated and I've testified before, the changes

2 were made based on the Hansberry case and his other

3 crime partners. And it was our way of trying to move

4 the organization in another direction.

5 However, as I've already testified, and I've

6 probably have said this three times, there are a lot of

7 things that we didn't know in terms of practices until

8 the Mosley matter. And around the same time that Mosley

9 was charged, we had got information from a source who

10 was very familiar with the operations of narcotics and

11 the kind of things that some of the members were

12 allegedly involved in.

13 Q. Was that person a member of the Narcotics Unit or Major

14 Violators Unit?

15 A. As I indicated to you earlier in this conversation, we

16 are in the middle of a confidential -- and I'm not going

17 to disclose, unless compelled by a court the name of 18 that person. That person is a federal -- I guess it's

19 safe to say he is a federal informant, not a Detroit

20 Police Department informant.

21 Q. So then he's not -- I mean, that suggests to me he was 22 never part of the Detroit Police Department?

23 A. I am not -- as you know -- well, let me just stop there.

24 I'm not going to get into confidentiality of that part

25 of the investigation. I'm saying that we had a source

1 that was a federal source. The information was provided
 2 to us, and I'll leave it at that.

3 Q. Looking at it, you -- well, first of all, the former 4 Narcotics Unit was made up of enforcement, and 5 Conspiracy Unit; is that correct?

6 A. To the best of my knowledge.

7 Q. And do you recall what the difference in the two were --

8 A. Not offhand.

9 Q. -- as far as conspiracy?

10 A. Not offhand, I don't. I'm sorry.

11 Q. Did the -- at least what I understand, based on prior 12 testimony, that enforcement basically was street level
 13 and conspiracy was higher-level drug dealer enforcement
 14 addressing higher-level drug.

15 Does that ring a bell with you at all?

16 A. Yes, that sounds pretty close to correct.

17 Q. And what was the role of Major Violators? Did they fill
 18 in on the conspiracy side, major drug dealers, or did
 19 they deal with enforcement?

20 A. The idea was to focus on -- as you articulated, the 21 conspiracy side. Street enforcement we felt could be 22 better focused by precincts as complaints were being 23 made to various complaints -- I mean precincts about 24 street level drug dealing.

25 It would be the station that would handle it

1 because the Major Violator section was smaller than the
 2 former, and they were also a part of -- at least a
 3 component was part of DEA task force. We felt that it
 4 was better that they focus on Major Violators.

5 Q. Chief, you, obviously, correct -- let me ask you. You
 6 didn't fully lay out, do all of the investigation and 7 assignments that are made and reflected in Exhibit 9,
 8 correct? You set a policy and you put it in motion
 9 based on what you were aware of that was of concerning 10 turnkey, correct?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. Who participated in putting this document together,
 13 assignments, differentiating different components with 14 the meetings. What's the process of doing something
 15 like this, which is a significant chain?

16 A. It would have probably involved -- I see the name at the 17 conclusion, a Steve Dolunt, a former assistant chief,
 18 was the ranking member over operations that came under 19 his chain. Certainly James White, who was an assistant
 20 chief, was involved in that administrative part.

21 So those two assistant chiefs and select staff
 22 would be involved in the crafting of policy or 23 documentation.

24 Q. Are there documents that White and Dolunt were involved
 25 in and people would report to them generated so that it

1 resulted that, if you will, in Exhibit 9, the
 2 administrative message dated June 27th, 2014?

3 A. I'm not aware of any additional documents -- or at least
 4 I don't recall any additional documents.

5 Q. Did White and Dolunt have to look at things and have 6 meetings with people related to the implementation of 7 policy change that you directed?

8 A. I am certain that they had meetings, but I wasn't part
 9 of those meetings.

10 Q. Well, you're aware of the process, right? You've come 11 up through the ranks and overseeing the processes and 12 methodology.

13 How is something like this implemented if it's 14 not -- if there isn't a paper trail function?

15 A. As far as I know, this is the only -- there was a
 16 conversation and the two assistant chiefs got together
 17 and executed launching this change.

18 As to what that involved, I don't have 19 specific information. As I've testified, I did not sit 20 through that.

21 Q. Well, you see the enforcement operations? That's like
 22 the third page.

23 A. Again, I did not participate in the actual planning. I
 24 had discussions with the executive team, and during my 25 conversation, I didn't provide them any written

1 direction. I ended up telling them what I wanted and
 2 delegated to them to create and, at the conclusion,
 3 execute.

4 Q. Are you saying this document was created as a result of 5 verbal discussions only?

6 A. The initial direction of changing to Major Violators was 7 a discussion, and there was a subsequent -- I'm
 8 assuming. I don't know because I did not sit through 9 meetings with Dolunt and White other than maybe to get
 10 an update on what has occurred.

11 Q. Well, Chief Dolunt in the Enforcement Operations, on the 12 third page of Exhibit 9, discusses the paid positions of 13 different people.

14 You've seen these kinds of documents before,
 15 correct?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. People are reassigned on some regular basis. Generally,
 18 it generates a document similar to what we are looking 19 at on page 3, 5, and Bates Number 1 through -- 1 through 20 7 (sic), correct? You have seen those? Correct?

21 I'm sorry, 144 through 147.

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. For example, you indicated that there would be one
 24 lieutenant over the Major Violators. And on the Bates
 25 Number 144, there is a number of lieutenants that are

1 listed, one of them being James Moore. And he was in
 2 the 3rd Precinct, and he was put into Major Violators.
 3 Who made that decision? Why was he selected?
 4 A. I don't know how the selection was made. I don't know
 5 how the selection was made. They make recommendations.
 6 Given that that was 2014, at the time, most of 7 these individuals I didn't personally know, so I relied
 8 heavily on recommendations made by my executive team,
 9 which was the assistant chiefs. So they felt that's who 10 they wanted in these concerned assignments. There was 11 nothing to say they couldn't go there, at least not that 12 I am aware of. Nothing was brought to my attention.
 13 Q. Well, approximately at that point in time, there were 14 48 officers, a lieutenant, 6 sergeants, 41 police
 15 officers in what was then the Narcotics Unit. And that 16 48 went down to basically 24, right in half.
 17 You had no role in any of the decisions of the 18 appointments to be either lieutenant, the sergeants, or 19 the police officers, correct?
 20 A. I relied on my executive team to make recommendations
 21 and absent anything that was concerning, I supported
 22 their decisions. Again, I had been in the department a
 23 year. And probably most of these folks -- as I am
 24 looking at -- I mean, I know most of them now that I
 25 didn't know. So I didn't have any personal knowledge.

1 I didn't handpick myself. I relied on my executives to
 2 make their decisions.
 3 Q. Well, let me point something out, if I can.
 4 Hansberry's crew, that involved Sergeant
 5 Geelhood, eventually, nine of those people were in the 6 list of the July 22, 2014, list of people who were
 7 removed from the Narcotics Unit, Geelhood, Bray,
 8 Leavells, Matelic, Beasley, Riley, Barnett, Tourville,
 9 and Napier, who committed suicide sometime after this in
 10 January 2015.
 11 Do you know if any of those officers I just 12 enumerated and the eight that are still alive are under 13 investigation?
 14 A. There are some that are under investigation and one just 15 retired in --
 16 Q. Some are currently under investigation?
 17 A. Some are, yes. Yes.
 18 Q. Do you know which ones?
 19 A. Sergeant Geelhood is currently under investigation --
 20 Internal has a case of an allegation that emanated out
 21 of the Wayne County Prosecutor's office -- and we've 22 opened an investigation relative to him.
 23 Q. Is that Sergeant Geelhood?
 24 A. That is correct.
 25 Q. Anybody else?

1 A. Amy Matelic was under investigation by Internal Affairs
 2 and she was --
 3 Q. She entered into a consent agreement, correct, and 4 left -- just to refresh your memory -- left the Detroit
 5 Police Department?
 6 A. She was under investigation involving allegations
 7 concerning something that emanated out of a civil 8 lawsuit, and she opted to leave the department. And we 9 allowed her to do so. But it wasn't anything --
 10 Q. She was charged with falsifying an affidavit for a
 11 search warrant, and she basically, as I recall -- I'm 12 just trying to refresh your memory -- that Stephen
 13 Geelhood provided her the information and she did --
 14 A. I'm familiar with that case. She -- 15 MR. SUROWIEC: Dennis, could you please let 16 the witness answer your questions.
 17 BY MR. DETTMER:
 18 Q. Go ahead.
 19 A. No, it's getting a little old. I start to talk and I
 20 get talked over. I mean, can we just let me get my 21 comment out. If that's not satisfactory then -- because 22 I'm feeling like every time I start talking, you over
 23 talk me.
 24 Q. I don't mean to be and I don't -- really, I'm not trying 25 to be rude to you. We're under a 3 1/2 hour limitation,

1 and I want to move ahead. Some of this stuff, as you
 2 said, you repeated.
 3 A. A lot of it I just read it -- can I share my 4 frustration?
 5 A lot of what I'm saying is repeated, and you
 6 want to talk about efficiency of time, why am I saying
 7 the exact same thing? I'm not going to lie. I'm going
 8 to tell the truth.
 9 Q. No, no, no -- I know you're a truthful fellow.
 10 A. Yes, sometimes so far I guess, but I would rather be 11 upfront. So relative to this, I'm familiar with Amy
 12 Matelic. There was a lawsuit and she was facing 13 termination for false statements.
 14 As you know, you articulated, given at the 15 trial, she opted -- in lieu of being terminated, she 16 resigned or retired under charges. I think that is it.
 17 So we put under charges. So she has since left the 18 department. So that option is sometimes afforded. I
 19 mean, because if a person wants to opt to retire, you
 20 know, all we can do is put the reason for the retirement
 21 or resignation, and if there's an open case like this
 22 was, we put retired under charges. That's generally --
 23 not in every case, but that's generally what we do.
 24 Relative to Geelhood, that was something, as 25 I've already indicated, it came out of the -- I think

1 this was the Innocence Project case is what I was
 2 briefed, so we have an open investigation relative to 3 him and we're not complete with that yet.
 4 And I think there was a couple of other names
 5 that you mentioned that I am not --
 6 BY MR. DETTIMER:
 7 Q. Do you recognize any of them? I will go through them
 8 again.
 9 A. Outside of Geelhood and Matelic -- what were the other
 10 names you mentioned?
 11 Q. Bray.
 12 A. I've heard Bray's name, but I'm unaware of any open
 13 investigations unless he's part of our probe. There are 14 a lot of names that come up in our probe, that I can't 15 just off the top of my head tell you who they are.
 16 Q. Those nine people I have listed were either in or became 17 under Hansberry and subsequently Geelhood, was in 18 Hansberry's -- and there were nine of them. And as you
 19 know, Napier committed suicide, so there were eight
 20 people, and I'll give you the names of other -- you
 21 know, Leavells is out, obviously. But -- and Matelic's
 22 out. But who are still in play are Geelhood, Bray,
 23 Beasley, Riley, Barnett, and Tourville.
 24 Any of those ring a bell?
 25 A. Tourville comes to mind; I just can't recall what. It

1 seems as if -- we may have. I don't know. I think his
 2 name -- again, some of these names are coming up in our
 3 probe and we are moving forward.
 4 In fact, there are several members, and I
 5 don't know if it's Tourville, but we have several 6 members that have chief hearings pending that are 7 dismissal cases.
 8 Q. You've indicated a number of times that you're looking
 9 at a lot of Hansberry's crew?
 10 A. Well, not just --
 11 Q. I know, not just, but you are looking at them?
 12 A. Yes, we are. But, again, to what you -- you've 13 indicated earlier, you think we're going around -- we're 14 doing this backwards. We should have started back in 15 fear of the statute.
 16 And I will just be candid with you, if the US
 17 Attorney wanted us to start at the back, like 2010, or 18 whatever date our files go back to, because of statute
 19 issues. I am certain they would have raised that issue,
 20 because, you know, Mr. Graveline was a former US
 21 Attorney, very familiar with the statutes.
 22 But, again, we opted -- because our initial 23 concern was Mosley, and me believing that Mosley was 24 involved in other allegations, which we have found that 25 he was involved in other allegations of criminality.

1 Q. I'd like to talk to you about the stop on July 6th,
 2 2010, with Hansberry's crew. And I know you don't have
 3 personal knowledge of that. But recognizing that 4 potentially this is an issue of review and should be --
 5 for my valuation of it, I'd like to ask you some
 6 questions.
 7 Do you recall this is the stop where some
 8 millions of dollars were on the way to a Mexican cartel
 9 and on the east side near Gratiot and Outer Drive, I
 10 believe there was a stop by Hansberry's crew. And 11 there's a good amount of dispute about the amount of 12 money. I've had maybe three different numbers, based on 13 various sources, testimony, and trial and things like
 14 that.
 15 But are you somewhat familiar with all of 16 that?
 17 A. I've heard it. I'm not intimate with that case. I
 18 can't offer you anything. You could probably brief me
 19 out as to what you know, but I have heard -- and we 20 haven't gone back and did an exhaustive review of that.
 21 I just heard just basically what you're saying now.
 22 Q. There is a connection between Arthur Leavells and Gary 23 Jackson, a mutual friend. Right? And Gary Jackson was 24 a -- probably a high-level drug dealer. He owned a -- 25 or leased a truck operation for cleaning trucks, in --

1 what really apparently was the issue there, trucks come
 2 in and either drop drugs or pick up money, and the semis
 3 head down to Mexico or whatever. That's basically the 4 argument of the US Attorney in the Hansberry trial.
 5 But what I'm interested in and wanted to 6 discuss with you is the fact that there are three 7 different numbers, dollar numbers, that were significant
 8 in this case. Gary Jackson testified there was -- he 9 delivered $3 million to the drug runner who was driving
 10 the truck to Mexico. And at the time he did that,
 11 Leavells, Hansberry, and Watson and Hansberry's crew
 12 were in on this deal. They were going to stop it and 13 get the money. It was all prearranged.
 14 The second number was a tally sheet that was 15 with the money, and it -- it indicated that there was 16 $2,370,000 on -- in the various bags that had the money
 17 in it in the semi.
 18 Then there was a dispute that went to Internal 19 Affairs, basically, over the counters -- a dispute over 20 like $15,000. But what Comerica Bank established and 21 what was deposited in the Detroit Police Department's 22 account with Comerica was $2,084,820. That's the 23 established amount that was there.
 24 Basically, the testimony was that Tourville
 25 and Napier grabbed money per an agreement, and they were

1 charged with that. The question is, was there
 2 2,084,000, 2,370,000 or 3 million?
 3 Now, clearly the evidence that was grabbed at 4 the time indicated in the tally sheet there was 5 2.3 million plus, and for some reason nobody used that
 6 in any kind of investigation. It didn't trigger
 7 anything. Because them talking about 2,084,000 being
 8 deposited, there is a difference of somewhere in excess
 9 of $180,000 (sic) that disappeared, if the tally sheet
 10 is correct.
 11 Jackson is correct in his testimony in federal
 12 court, and I'm sure, you know, he faced serious
 13 consequences if he perjured himself, that there was 14 3 million.
 15 There was no accounting in any form by 16 supervision of the Detroit Police Department on those 17 issues. I hope I'm making it clear to you the issue.
 18 MR. SUROWIEC: Thousands of dollars.
 19 BY MR. DETTMER:
 20 Q. Hundreds of thousands of dollars disappeared and the 21 testimony of Leavells was that the crew grabbed that by 22 a prearranged agreement.
 23 MR. SUROWIEC: I would object to form,
 24 foundation. You are testifying. The question is not 25 even a question. It was literally about a three-minute

1 statement.
 2 It's inaccurate to the extent that you would
 3 say that Tourville and Napier were charged, and it calls
 4 for speculation on the part of the chief, who wasn't
 5 there.
 6 But, Chief, if you can answer that, which I am
 7 not sure what that was.
 8 THE WITNESS: I can't. I wasn't here then.
 9 In fact, I was a police chief in Portland, Maine, in 10 2010. I've heard some discussions about that limited --
 11 as I indicated before you started your three-minute
 12 narrative on what took place, I say you probably know
 13 more about this than I do.
 14 As it turns out, you have read testimony in 15 the federal case, which I have not. I don't know. As 16 we continue to do our probe and go back, I am certain 17 that this issue will resurrect. What will come out of 18 it, I don't know.
 19 BY MR. DETTMER:
 20 Q. I guess the point I'm making with you, this is an 21 opportunity for supervision, and I would indicate to you
 22 that --
 23 MR. DETTMER: If we can go to Chief Exhibit
 24 11B, Michael.
 25

1 EXHIBIT 11A
 2 Photo
 3 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION
 4 EXHIBIT 11B
 5 Photo
 6 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION.
 7 BY MR. DETTMER:
 8 Q. The highest level of the Detroit Police Department was 9 aware of this event and, in fact, after the money was 10 acquired -- that's Exhibit 11A -- that's the money on 11 the trunk of a car at the scene of the stop.
 12 And 11B, unfortunately, is sideways, but -- 13 there you go. And you'll recognize all of those 14 individuals, I am sure, Chief Godbee being in the 15 center, correct?
 16 A. That's correct.
 17 Q. There's the money.
 18 A. Correct.
 19 Q. And the point I'm making with you, there was a 20 subsequent investigation of how a money counter being 21 inaccurate over $15,000. Really, we are talking about 22 900,000 or 280,000 disappeared, and the trial was about
 23 how Hansberry and his crew grabbed that money.
 24 You're not aware of any of that? We're not 25 making (inaudible) --

1 A. No.
 2 Q. Here is something with the highest level management of
 3 the Detroit Police Department at the time and it wasn't
 4 properly handled. Is that fair to say?
 5 A. I can't say. Now, I guess --
 6 Q. Assuming what I said is correct?
 7 A. Well, here is a question I --
 8 MR. SUROWIEC: He is not going to say --
 9 THE WITNESS: I can't say how it was handled.
 10 Now, at some point this allegation was made that money
 11 was missing. Am I correct to say that?
 12 MR. DETTMER: Yes, but it was -- it was 13 focused on a counter -- money counter issue, not on the 14 tally sheet.
 15 THE WITNESS: So if it was a counter issue --
 16 I mean, either we believe that money was stolen -- as 17 you referenced, the highest levels of the organization
 18 were aware that there was some sort of nefarious act or 19 money was alleged to have not been accounted for, then 20 the only thing one could do was then initiate an 21 investigation into it. I don't know if the then Chief
 22 Ralph Godbee became aware and initiated an internal 23 investigation. I'm unaware of that.
 24 BY MR. DETTMER:
 25 Q. Well, there is evidence to support, as you well know

1 probably --

2 A. But specific to your -- specific to your question, if

3 the chief became aware of an allegation of theft, the

4 chief would then be responsible to initiate an internal

5 investigation. I don't know because I wasn't here.

6 Maybe as part of the work that we'll be doing

7 in the coming months, however long it takes us to get to

8 that time period, maybe we'll have the answer. Maybe I

9 can find that answer out right now. I don't know.

10 Q. Chief, what I'm really asking you, though, there was a

11 tally sheet that indicated there was $2,370,000 in that 12 truck.

13 A. Okay.

14 Q. That was evidence that the Detroit Police Department had

15 and it was totally ignored. And the point I am making

16 with you, that evidence was an indication that the

17 department should have known there was some problem here

18 and investigated it. They never investigated it.

19 A. You know --

20 MR. SUROWIEC: That's a mischaracterization of 21 the evidence, and you're painting it in an absolutely

22 false light.

23 But go ahead, Chief, if you can answer that.

24 THE WITNESS: I can't answer that. I mean,

25 the way the question's framed -- I know what I would do

1 in a given situation. But to say a tally sheet

2 reflected one thing, I guess one could argue, if I'm

3 understanding your synopsis, that -- how do we know the

4 tally sheet was correct? I don't know. Who's making

5 the allegation that -- I just don't know.

6 And so what you are doing is -- you want me to

7 say that it wasn't handled properly. I don't know what

8 the chief knew at that time. If I had known that you

9 were going to ask me this question in 2020, I would have

10 called him on July the 27th, say, one day I'm going to

11 be chief in Detroit and this question's going to be

12 asked. Did you do anything with this money thing.

13 I mean, I'm being facetious, of course. But

14 I'm just saying, there's no way -- I don't know enough

15 about the facts, and the way you framed it, the tally

16 sheet tells me nothing.

17 BY MR. DETTMER:

18 Q. Well, here, let me make the point for the record. In

19 Exhibit 10, DPD Bates 1643 --

20 EXHIBIT 10

21 Comerica Bank Deposit

22 Tally Sheet

23 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION

24 BY MR. DETTMER:

25 Q. Well, here, let me make the point for the record. In

1 Exhibit 10, DPD Bates 1643 -- is a bank deposit with the

2 Comerica Bank and it shows a deposit of $2,084,830.

3 A. I understand.

4 Q. In Bates Number -- DPD Bates Number 1648 in Exhibit 10

5 there's a tally sheet, and there are a number of pages

6 listing each of the deposits that were made -- or the

7 money bags that were in the -- in the vault, and that

8 tally sheet shows 2,370,000. Whether it's accurate or 9 not, no way either you or I know this.

10 But the point is that it raised an issue, and

11 there's no investigation at all at any point about that

12 tally sheet and the discrepancy between the bank

13 deposit, and its significant. All I'm saying is --

14 A. To your point -- I'll just say, to your point,

15 absolutely it's significant. And if you had asked me

16 the question, if you were the chief and you were made

17 aware of a discrepancy, what would you have done.

18 Q. What would you have done?

19 A. That's the question.

20 Q. What would you have done?

21 A. If I were the chief in 2010 in Detroit and I became

22 aware of a discrepancy, I would have initiated an

23 investigation to find out was it just an error that

24 somebody -- on the bank slip make a mistake? What would

25 it have been? I don't know.

1 I would have at least wanted to know because,

2 worst-case scenario, somebody stole the money. And then

3 it would have been involving interviews of people

4 involved. It would have been a number of things we

5 could have done.

6 With that kind of money, we would have gotten

7 search warrants to get into bank records of certain

8 department employees, to see if there was an unusual

9 amount of money deposited, which -- and in an

10 administrative case, even if, say, the US Attorney said,

11 well, it's not really enough. Or the Wayne County

12 prosecutor said it's not enough to prove theft, maybe.

13 Based upon a preponderance of evidence, it's enough to 14 support an allegation that a theft occurred. It just

15 doesn't meet a criminal standard. I mean, so that's

16 what I would have done. At least take a look. It

17 doesn't mean that I would have proven that the money was 18 stolen. I don't know. I really don't know.

19 Q. And the point I think is well taken. There was the 20 opportunity to actually know what occurred, and there

21 was a total lack of indifference to this, from what I

22 can see.

23 And the point I'm making is, Hansberry's crew

24 are basically the defendants in our cases that we have

25 and had they properly proceeded, had the Detroit

1 department supervision properly proceeded, it's -- these
2 people wouldn't have been raided.

3 These are the people who are criminal cops,
4 and they raided our clients' homes, and that's the point
5 I'm making with you. They didn't -- as you are correct,
6 it should have happened and it didn't.

7 MR. SUROWIEC: I would object to the narration
8 -- the narrative there. And I would also object to the 9 fact that you're -- you're giving false evidence because
10 you know that there was an Internal Affairs
11 investigation that was launched after the discrepancy
12 was noted, and that would have been under Chief Godbee,
13 so why are you saying there wasn't, Dennis?

14 MR. DETTMER: Here. Here. That investigation
15 was over whether the money counters were properly
16 operating. That was the issue, over $15,000.

17 MR. SUROWIEC: They did Garrity. They did
18 Garrity. They interviewed about 20 to 30 officers.
19 They did --

20 MR. DETTMER: Here --

21 MR. SUROWIEC: It was done.

22 BY MR. DETTMER:

23 Q. They weren't interviewing them about the $2,370,000
24 tally sheet. They weren't -- that number never came up
25 at all anyplace.

1 A. Well, I've got to tell you something. I am a little
2 dismayed because specifically I asked was there an
3 investigation. And counsel is now articulating that 4 there was an investigation. Maybe you don't like how 5 the investigation was conducted.

6 But if people were Garrity'd -- I even took
7 four to five minutes explaining that I would have people
8 interviewed, and it sounds like this is the very same
9 thing that happened anyway.

10 Q. No. No.

11 A. Just the outcome is different.

12 Q. Exhibit 13, that I have is the investigation.

13 EXHIBIT 13
14 Investigation money counter
15 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION

16 THE WITNESS: Okay.

17 BY MR. DETTMER:

18 Q. And it was about the counter, the money counter
19 discrepancy. That is what it was about. $15,370.00.
20 Exhibit 13 of the exhibits that we have. And that's it.
21 It's not about the tally sheet.

22 A. So I'm curious -- I'm curious, as I'm looking at this 23 memo, you got --

24 Q. You're looking at it. It's Exhibit 13, for the record.

25 A. Yes. Exhibit 13, Commander Brian Stair, who was the

1 commanding officer of IA at the time, Sergeant Dietrich
2 Lever, who is now a lieutenant still working for DPD,
3 don't you think either one or at least Lever who's still 4 a department member -- in fact, Lever, a lieutenant, is 5 a key member of our Operation Clean Sweep. I'm sure he 6 can give you and articulate the investigation involved
7 here. I can't.

8 Q. With all due respect, the only point I'm making was 9 there was evidence that there was $2,370,000 in those 10 bags.

11 A. Understood.

12 Q. And it's not mentioned at all anyplace. Anyplace. And 13 this is about 15 grand, I mean, come on. And had it
14 occurred, there's a good chance that Hansberry's crew
15 would have been operating that raided our clients'
16 homes.

17 A. But I'm looking --

18 Q. That's the point I'm trying to make with you.

19 A. I know. But as I'm looking at this memo, I know we're 20 putting a lot of time into this memo that I have no
21 idea. But it does reflect -- the counter reflected 22 2,084,820 and a difference of what you call 15 grand,
23 15,370. I would have to go through the whole thing, but 24 I think if this is a concern, why not have Dietrich
25 Lever deposed? Why not?

1 Q. I missed what you're saying.

2 A. Why not have Lieutenant Lever deposed to find out what
3 he would tell you about this? He's the investigator.

4 Q. My point is, it was there, it was -- and the evidence
5 was there. The tally sheet. There's no mention of it
6 anyplace. I mean --

7 A. Okay.

8 Q. -- if the head of Internal Affairs was aware of it, it
9 surely isn't reflected in any way --

10 A. Okay.

11 Q. -- in any document that I am aware of, of an Internal 12 Affairs investigation related to that.

13 Let's go on.

14 MR. SUROWIEC: I'm just going to pose an 15 objection. This is a 17-page document. Mr. Dezsi is 16 literally on page 1, has not moved off of page 1. The 17 witness is being cross-examined with zero (inaudible) to 18 this. It's not proper.

19 (Multiple speakers
20 speaking at the same time.)

21 MR. DETTMER: Are you suggesting someplace in 22 this document there's a tally sheet showing the 23 $2,370,000, in any way it's a part of this
24 investigation?

25 MR. SUROWIEC: I'm suggesting that you -- you

1 initially started your question off by actually
 2 testifying that there was no IA investigation. That's
 3 what you said. Leaving the chief to believe that --
 4 MR. DETTMER: There was no investigation about
 5 the amount of money --
 6 MR. SUROWIEC: You need to join the police
 7 force because --
 8 (Multiple speakers
 9 speaking at the same time)
 10 MR. DETTMER: -- the $2,370,000. Are you
 11 suggesting there was an investigation of the $2,370,000
 12 tally sheet, Jim? Come on.
 13 MR. SUROWIEC: Dennis, you need to be a police 14 officer because you don't like the way they do their 15 job. But as the chief said, Lieutenant Lever's the guy 16 who knows. You know, you're looking at half the 17 information.
 18 MR. DETTMER: Let's move on.
 19 Exhibit 12.
 20 EXHIBIT 12
 21 Detroit News Article
 22 11/03/2014
 23 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION
 24 BY MR. DETTMER:
 25 Q. Exhibit 12 is a November 3, 2014, Detroit News article.

1 And it's about four Detroit police officers suspended
 2 following a probe.
 3 You are quoted in here a number of times. But 4 this really involves two different crews of the four
 5 cops. There are two and two. It's not all four of them
 6 related to one incident. But you go on. I'm looking at 7 Paragraph 1, 2, 3 -- it's the third paragraph. It's out
 8 on the -- the first one out on the margin. Detroit
 9 Police Chief Craig disbanded the drug unit.
 10 Do you see that?
 11 Again, they use systemic problems with 12 something you had previously said.
 13 And what I am looking at is this relates to 14 Hansberry and others in his crew, correct?
 15 A. Yes. I think I've already testified that even though
 16 there were those who were part of the crew weren't 17 charged, I believe they still had limited knowledge that 18 they were involved in criminal and/or administrative 19 misconduct.
 20 Q. You're quoted a number of times here, but I think that 21 the points that -- I need to go on. I want to get done
 22 with some of this stuff. Let's skip 12A.
 23 12B, this is recording (sic) the suicide of 24 James Napier, an article in the Detroit News,
 25 January 22, 2015. And the second paragraph.

1 I'm sorry. Let me go back to the first
 2 paragraph. I'll read it. Detroit police officer,
 3 according to two police sources, was being investigated
 4 by the FBI and Detroit Internal Affairs narcotics
 5 corruption died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound on 6 Thursday morning, January 22, 2015. It doesn't say that 7 that's the morning.
 8 And the second paragraph -- I'll skip over the 9 first couple of lines. But it again says two sources --
 10 last two lines. Two sources familiar with the 11 investigation into corruption of the former narcotics
 12 section, that he was one of the officers being 13 investigated.
 14 Do you know who was being investigated at that
 15 time?
 16 MR. SUROWIEC: Objection; hearsay to what you
 17 just read, form, foundation.
 18 Chief, go ahead and answer, if you know.
 19 THE WITNESS: Well, I think you've named all
 20 of them I think early on in my testimony. I feel like I
 21 keep going over the same role. I talked about --
 22 BY MR. DETTMER:
 23 Q. The people I previously mentioned you're talking about?
 24 A. Earlier on in this deposition, I referenced three people
 25 that were charged -- no, two people charged -- I mean,

1 two people indicted, one charged, and one committed
 2 suicide, and this would be that person. That's it.
 3 That's what I know.
 4 Q. Just for the record, I have as Exhibit 12C, this is the 5 indictment of Hansberry, Watson.
 6 EXHIBIT 12C
 7 Indictment, Hansberry/Watson
 8 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION
 9 BY MR. DETTMER:
 10 Q. Also, Leavells was indicted but not part of --
 11 A. He was charged. He was charged.
 12 Q. Well, he pled.
 13 A. Okay. Okay. That's fine.
 14 Q. He really testified about the criminality, and it was a 15 plea deal.
 16 A. Right.
 17 Q. But the point I was just making with you, and I
 18 mentioned this before, the indictment was on April 8th,
 19 2015. That was the significance of that exhibit.
 20 And I -- based on your testimony, I assume you
 21 didn't really have much knowledge about the actual 22 trial, correct?
 23 A. I did not.
 24 Q. There's an article in this Exhibit 12D, the Free Press
 25 on June 30th, 2016.

1 EXHIBIT 12D

 5 BY MR. DETTMER:
 6 Q. The trial's ongoing and the papers are reporting what's 7 occurring.
 8 MR. DETTMER: And point to the bottom,
 9 Michael.
 10 BY MR. DETTMER:
 11 Q. During the trial, which is in its fourth week,
 12 prosecutors had portrayed Hansberry as a fast-talking
 13 schemer and a big spender who was motivated by greed.
 14 Thursday they cited his bank and tax records
 15 that bolster that claim, showing jurors how Hansberry
 16 spent his money while working for the Detroit Police
 17 Department. I have writing over it; I'm sorry.
 18 It goes on and explains about how much money
 19 he had and what he was doing. He had an Aston Martin, a 20 Cadillac, a Cadillac ATS, Corvette, and a Mazda6.
 21 And I've raised this about supervision. He 22 was at the Dexter base of the Narcotics Unit, and when I
 23 was taking testimony of his crew members, I asked about 24 the cars. Yes, he brought those cars to the base. You
 25 know, and the point that's being made in this article,

1 MR. DETTMER: And 12G is Gary Jackson's
 2 testimony.
 3 EXHIBIT 12G
 4 Jackson Testimony
 5 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION
 6 BY MR. DETTMER:
 7 Q. Gary Jackson clearly indicates there was $3 million.
 8 I'm sure his testimony was thoroughly vetted by the FBI,
 9 and he ran a risk of being -- to have no deal based on 10 perjury.
 11 I would also indicate to you that Godbee
 12 testified at the trial for the defense. He came on and 13 he claimed a meeting that's in dispute that Gary Jackson
 14 never mentioned that there was $3 million being shipped 15 on July 26th, 2010, and -- well, that matter is in 16 dispute.
 17 But the point is he, Gary Jackson, testified
 18 that there was 3 million and he told Chief Godbee that 19 and he just testified that Godbee said, I knew it.
 20 Suggesting that he knew there was some crime going on.
 21 Have you talked to anybody about that aspect
 22 of Gary Jackson's testimony?
 23 Were you aware of it?
 24 MR. SUROWIEC: Objection; form, foundation,
 25 hearsay, completely improper question.

1 on the next page --
 2 A. Is there a question?
 3 Q. -- the FBI made the point that his earnings were covered
 4 by cash -- I'm sorry; his earnings and purchases and 5 spendings, the difference, a shortage, earnings of his 6 salary as a Detroit police officer, was made up by cash
 7 deposits and substantial, you know, cash deposits.
 8 And the question is, the supervisors at the 9 base, the narcotics base on Dexter, never raised with 10 you, sir, or do you have any knowledge that Hansberry
 11 seems to be living pretty high considering his earnings?
 12 Anybody ever raise that with you?
 13 A. They did not.
 14 MR. SUROWIEC: Objection; form, foundation.
 15 Time frame.
 16 This is talking about 2010, Dennis.
 17 MR. DETTMER: I have a number of the 18 transcripts from the trial of Hansberry, two of them
 19 were Leavells testimony, and that's Exhibits 12E and F.

 25 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION

1 But, Chief, go ahead, answer it, if you can.
 2 Have you talked to anyone?
 3 THE WITNESS: I have heard some loose
 4 conversation about it. I'll reiterate for purposes of 5 the record. I was not here when that meeting took 6 place. I've had conversations with Chris Graveline as 7 part of our probe, and this is something that was talked
 8 about. I'm just not understanding what I can add to 9 that meeting.
 10 BY MR. DETTMER:
 11 Q. Okay. When you meet with somebody that brings you
 12 serious information about wrongdoing, do you generate
 13 any paper? Do you do a memo? On such and such a date,
 14 I spoke with so and so, and he said A, B, C?
 15 A. I do not. I called Chris Graveline, and if it's a
 16 serious matter, I'll call in the commander, and I say, I
 17 need you to open an investigation into X, Y, and Z.
 18 Q. It appears to be your testimony that Graveline, Director
 19 Graveline, is familiar with the testimony at the trial,
 20 correct?
 21 A. I don't know if he was familiar. It was a discussion we 22 had as part of this probe, and certainly he talked about
 23 a -- some testimony provided by former Chief Godbee
 24 relative to that and the exact specific statements you
 25 made about I thought so.

1 Like you, when I heard that, I had -- I asked
2 Graveline the same question. I said, if he thought
3 that, did he do anything about it? That's what I asked
4 Graveline. I said, do we know in our investigation if
5 he did anything about it? Because if you think 6 somebody's involved in criminal behavior, what, if 7 anything, did you do as the chief executive?

8 And so at this point, I don't have an answer
9 for you because we haven't gotten -- I was concerned
10 enough that I said, well, maybe as part of our 11 investigative work, I know that he testified in the 12 civil matter. Maybe we need to call him in as part of 13 our probe to find out, what, if anything, was done.

14 That was the conversation that Chris Graveline
15 and I had.

16 Q. Thank you. We've already discussed the Exhibit 13,
17 which is the interoffice memo about the money counter
18 here.

19 EXHIBIT 13

22 BY MR. DETTMER:

23 Q. 12I is out of order. (Inaudible) 12I is a
24 Warrendale/Detroit -- and I only raise this, and I'm 25 sure you haven't seen this. But that there was public

1 knowledge, as of July 26th, 2010, that there was
2 suggested $2.3 million that was, in fact, seized, a
3 little less than the tally sheet of 2.370.

4 But this is the only specific time I've seen a
5 document that says -- that suggests the amount was more
6 than $2,080,000 -- 85,000. But the point I'm making
7 with you, Chief, this issue was in the public media, and
8 I don't know where the source of this is, but it's out
9 there and it's probably the most accurate thing about 10 the tally sheet that I saw.

11 Going on, 12J is the conviction of Hansberry,
12 and it's dated February 22nd, 2017. That's when he was 13 convicted by the jury.

20 BY MR. DETTMER:

21 Q. Exhibit 14 is reigning in the use of paid informants.
22 We talked about that a little bit. I'd like to just 23 point out maybe one or two things.

24 You had a very serious concern about 25 informants, the reliability and the use of them. And

1 this is your discussion about that with the media.
2 Okay? Exhibit 14.

3 Then I'd like to go on. There's a stipulated
4 Protective Order that we marked as Exhibit 14A.

9 Confidentiality of SOI
10 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION

11 EXHIBIT 14C
12 Confidentiality of SOI
13 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION

14 BY MR. DETTMER:

15 Q. That relates to the confidentiality of the SOI documents
16 that I have that were produced to us, and it's 17 Exhibit 14B and C. So subject to Protective Order, and 18 this actually was in the Reid versus City of Detroit.
19 But we all recognize that this is confidentiality.

20 One of them is an individual named Ken 21 Jackson, and he's SOI 2499, and the other one is Gary
22 Jackson, SOI 2449.

23 Gary Jackson is the one that had provided the 24 information about the transfer -- the money on July 27,
25 2010. And if we can go to that.

1 Unfortunately these aren't Bates marked. But
2 I'd like to indicate the stop was on July 26, 2010.
3 Arthur Leavells signs up Gary Jackson as SOI 2449 on 4 July 27, 2010, the day after the raid.

5 Is that proper procedure? He's already used
6 him as the Source of Information. Signs him up the next
7 day after the stop of 2 million plus is --

8 A. I can't speak to what -- gee, I don't know. I don't 9 know what...

10 MR. DETTMER: Well, look at the next page,
11 Michael, I think it is, looking at the record of payment
12 to informant.

13 BY MR. DETTMER:

14 Q. Now, the -- apparently, Leavells worked very hard at 15 getting Jackson a reward for the stop on the 26th, and 16 on August 14, 2010, a little more than two weeks after 17 the stop, Leavells, it appears with some advisory DPD
18 people and $250,000 in cash, and he signs --

19 MR. DETTMER: Michael, can you move it a 20 little bit to the left?

21 BY MR. DETTMER:

22 Q. Well, you can see the $250,000, and he got -- he, Gary
23 Jackson, received $250,000 from the Detroit Police
24 Department as a result of that stop on July.

25 Were you aware of that?

1 A. It's signed 8/14. I mean, I've seen documents -- that
2 document, I believe I saw doing predep, but I wasn't
3 aware of it in 2010, no.

4 Q. Were you aware of it prior to the last couple of weeks
5 of deposition, unrelated to dep preparation?

6 A. I mean, I may have been. I don't recall specifically.
7 If you have a direct question and I was signed off on 8 anything, I can verify that. But I don't --

9 Q. You don't have any information, that's what I'm asking
10 you, prior to that?

11 A. I don't have any knowledge of -- of that.

12 Q. Is this consistent with Detroit Police Department
13 policy, once you came on board in 2013? The day after 14 the stop, the acquisition of the money, the SOI had 15 signed off --

16 A. I can't tell what was happening seven years ago. In 17 fact, to be candid, Narcotics was not on my radar until 18 the FBI advised me as to what they were planning on 19 doing.

We had a 12-year Consent Judgment, and the key issues concerning the department accountability were outlined in the Consent Judgment, but narcotics was not one of them.

24 Q. You notice on -- well, you can't see it.

25 MR. DETTMER: But, Michael, can you run it up

1 or down?

2 BY MR. DETTMER:

3 Q. This is Informant's Code 2499, which is not Gary Jackson
4 SOI number, he's 2449. And Leavells has used these 5 numbers kind of interchangeable in cases we have. And 6 you will see that -- there's another payment, and this 7 one is again to 2499 of $5,000 to -- Leavells to,
8 apparently, for Jackson, Gary Jackson, and it's listed
9 as a bonus payment.

Are you aware of the DPD paying bonus payments?

12 A. I don't have specific -- I reviewed that document within 13 a couple of months after I got here. I was briefed. I
14 don't have any independent recall. I did make my 15 signature at some point, so it's mine. I know that. I
16 just don't have any independent recall.

And I don't know who was working, which AC briefed me. I don't recall, really, having to approve informant payments. I know we have done them, but, again, a lot of what I've discussed today has to do with this unilateral flipping and, as you indicated, the transposing informant numbers.

I'm learning some of this as we go through the probe. And given the name of the officer who is listed here, who's been implicated for criminal misconduct,

1 certainly that causes me concern. But I don't have 2 any -- I think I signed off on that in September of
3 2013, two months after I was here. I just don't recall
4 it.

8 BY MR. DETTMER:

9 Q. Next, Exhibit 15. This is an Internal Affairs
10 investigation following a raid by a spinoff of 11 Hansberry's crew. You can see who it included.
12 Geelhood, Barnett, Riley, Matelic, Leavells, and 13 Tourville.

14 A. Right.

15 Q. These officers, including Sergeant Geelhood who was a 16 supervisor of his crew, were suspended for a year.

Are you aware of that?

18 A. Suspended for a year?

19 Q. Yes. Suspended with pay for a year.

20 A. I don't independently recall that. It wouldn't surprise
21 me. A lot of times we -- the police commission, and 22 this would have been pre them getting their authority
23 back, so I don't recall them being suspended for a year
24 with pay.

25 Q. They always make it very clear to me when you ask them

1 about it, well, we were suspended but with pay.

2 A. Well, that's a fact. I mean, that's kind of been the 3 process. I don't understand it. But in order to take 4 pay away, pre the adjudication of this matter, it would
5 have to go before the police commission.

So that was a standing practice. I have since changed that on case-by-case. So this happened -- like
I have two former narcotic officers off right now suspended with pay.

And ordinarily if they were pending criminal charges, I would give it to the police commission, but I've opted to move forward with the disciplinary hearing, and it is my anticipation that that's a termination case.

4 and an issue about a guy named by Michael Hathaway in

5 the criminal division of the Third Circuit, and then a

6 civil lawsuit following that that was initially assigned

7 to -- was assigned to --

8 A. I think that's the case that we are investigating

9 Sergeant Geelhood on now. I think -- I'm almost certain

10 that's the case.

11 Q. But this, again, goes back to an April 25, 2014, raid

12 where Geelhood is the affiant, okay? That's being

13 investigated.

14 And then finally 18 and 19.

15 EXHIBIT 18

16 Darell Chancellor Case

17 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION

18 EXHIBIT 19

19 Darell Chancellor Case

20 WAS MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION.

21 BY MR. DETTMER:

22 Q. Exhibits 18 and 19 involve a Darell Chancellor. I don't

23 know if you know about that. But the records provided

24 that and he actually initiated an investigation related

25 to this lawsuit.

1 transition from criminal to administrative relative to

2 the other members of the Hansberry crew.

3 We know that now looking back, so I think key

4 for where we are today is that we have information on

5 practices, illegal practices occurring in -- alleged

6 illegal practices occurring in Narcotics that we are

7 aggressively tackling.

8 The reason for the seizure of all of the 9 records, the person that provided information, the one I

10 told you I couldn't talk about that was a federal -- it

11 came from the federal side of the house, gave us

12 information. From that person, it kind of spelled it

13 out to specific alleged criminal actions.

14 So given that and the timing of Mosley, I felt

15 very strongly that what we didn't know at the conclusion

16 of Hansberry we know now. So now we have a template

17 where we can totally eradicate any type of corruption

18 involving Narcotics. There was so much we didn't have,

19 that we now do have.

20 Q. Well, Chief, you indicated --

21 A. And so my goal is just -- I'm sorry.

22 Q. What position was --

23 COURT REPORTER: I missed that question. Can

24 you repeat the question?

25 THE WITNESS: You were broken up.

1 And this involves a search warrant that goes

2 back -- well, Chancellor was convicted and sent to

3 prison, and he was still in prison until the Conviction

4 Integrity Unit release suggested to the Prosecutor

5 Worthy that he be released, and he was and the case was 6 dismissed.

7 A. And this is the case about Geelhood, yes?

8 Q. Yes, this is another case.

9 A. Yes, there's got to be a case -- I don't know -- you're

10 telling me that Chris Graveline provided. I know that 11 we opened a case against Geelhood based on an integrity.

12 I think I mentioned that earlier in my --

13 Q. Yes. Yes. Okay. That's this case. Okay.

14 A. Right.

15 MR. DETTMER: Let's take a moment.

16 (Off the record at 12:15 p.m.)

17 BY MR. DETTMER:

18 Q. Chief Craig, you would acknowledge that you're

19 attempting to change the culture of the Detroit Police

20 Department to the extent that there are some groups, for

21 example, the Hansberry and Geelhood crews that were

22 doing apparently dishonest acts, correct?

23 A. I made a full commitment. I think I spelled it out

24 early on in my deposition that we missed some things

25 with the Hansberry case. It wasn't a seamless

1 BY MR. DETTMER:

2 Q. What level of rank does Ted (sic) Ewald have?

3 A. He's an investigator. One of the original investigator

4 ranks. As I've testified to, Tim Ewald -- Tim Ewald has

5 been a long-time assigned investigator with the FBI's

6 public corruption unit. He is a DPD officer but

7 assigned to the FBI.

8 Q. Well --

9 A. And he was --

10 Q. Well, does he have a liaison relationship with the 11 Detroit Police Department where he reports to someone

12 about the investigations, ongoing investigations by the 13 FBI?

14 A. He does now. He does now. One of the problems that

15 I've discovered early on that it was technically a

16 liaison, but because he was -- I mean, this -- for

17 example, he is a DPD officer working with the FBI on the 18 Hansberry case, but, again, I didn't find out about the 19 Hansberry case until sometime in 2014.

20 So it is not like that the DPD liaison came

21 over and said, okay, here's a list of cases that the FBI

22 was investigating. It was a confidential investigation.

23 And many times the FBI will initiate and have ongoing

24 confidential investigations and will not tell the

25 department.

1 Q. Yes, but after --

2 A. Now, the DPD officer --

3 MR. DETTMER: We are losing you.

4 MR. SUROWIEC: Chief, hold on one second.

5 This is Jim Surowiec.

6 Whoever the IT person is, if they are on the 7 line or if anybody who can help, Chief is frozen. Chief

8 Craig, I'm not seeing you move at all. And, Dennis,

9 you're clipping in and out.

10 THE WITNESS: You can't see this?

11 MR. SUROWIEC: I'm wondering if there's

12 something we can do.

13 MR. DETTMER: It says bandwidth is low. It

14 says your bandwidth is low, Chief. That's what I'm 15 getting a report of.

16 THE WITNESS: Yes, I am in the office. I'm in 17 my office, so this should be a good bandwidth, you know.

18 MR. DETTMER: Yes, I would think so.

19 MR. SUROWIEC: Should we reconnect? Is there

20 an IT person? Michael?

21 THE REPORTER: The chief could go out and come

22 back in.

23 (Pause in proceedings

24 12:21 - 12:32 p.m.)

25 THE WITNESS: In the interest of addressing

1 deposition -- it wasn't until that information we got

2 from the source of the type of alleged conduct that was

3 going on in Narcotics that we were able to effectively

4 launch our own probe, which we've done.

5 It's a DPD-led tasks force and, again, the FBI

6 is part of that task force. There's a total of five

7 agents, three part-time, two permanent, and so now I

8 have a high level of confidence that the work that we're

9 doing now is the work that will finally make a

10 difference.

11 And finally eradicating, not describing

12 different points, a pattern of misconduct, and, again,

13 not by all, but just things that were allowed to happen

14 in Narcotics that weren't challenged.

15 BY MR. DETTMER:

16 Q. You would agree the conviction of Hansberry and Watson

17 in February of 2017 should have opened up a lot of 18 information through Ewald to the Internal Affairs

19 people, correct?

20 A. Absolutely. He was technically assigned to Internal

21 Affairs, but it wasn't -- and, again, I liked --

22 personally liked him, Ewald. I just think I

23 overestimated his capabilities, meaning that while he

24 had been attached to the FBI for a long time, clearly

25 working as an investigator in Internal Affairs is very

1 the transition between Han- -- can you hear me okay?

2 The transition of the Hansberry with the

3 Detroit staff that was embedded in the FBI was certainly

4 not something I was quite impressed with. In fact, I

5 can candidly say that I went through a number of

6 commanding officers over at Internal Affairs prior to

7 getting to the one before Chris Graveline. There was

8 someone named commander, who is now a Deputy Chief.

9 But the communication, seamless, didn't work

10 out in a manner that it should have, and at some point I

11 even moved Tim Ewald out of the FBI task force. He has 12 since been restored to that position. The communication

13 has changed dramatically.

14 My perception was that the DPD liaison role

15 was to work closely with the department executive team.

16 I recognize that there were some cases that the FBI were

17 investigating that they didn't necessarily want to brief

18 the department on.

19 However, because of the intimacy our DPD staff

20 had with the Hansberry case, I assumed or thought that

21 anything that wasn't addressed by the Feds could have

22 been easily been addressed by the department. That did

23 not happen.

24 So as a result of that, it wasn't until -- and

25 I think I have said this several times throughout this

1 different than being a task force officer in the FBI.

2 You're not actually writing up investigations

3 and doing the kind of investigative work that IA is

4 doing. The agents that worked there are on a much

5 different level.

6 I mean, for example, a lot of what the DPD

7 task force officers, Ewald would do, is they would

8 listen to wire conversations and make notes that would

9 then go off to the agents who were the ones who were

10 presenting the cases to the U.S. Attorney.

11 And so that was a piece of the transition that

12 didn't make a lot of sense. And very frustrating, to be

13 honest, because I knew then -- I felt we had a missed

14 opportunity on some of the others that worked Narcotics,

15 that while they didn't meet the threshold for federal

16 prosecution, they certainly could have met the threshold

17 of administrative prosecution, if you will.

18 And so -- that was then. But, again, the good

19 news was we were able to get very clear information on

20 the type of behaviors that were going on in Narcotics by 21 some.

22 Q. Well, Chief, you would agree you're trying to change the 23 culture. That's what you are talking about, correct?

24 A. That has been something I've been trying to do for --

25 and have been successful. I mean, we are in a 13-year

1 Consent Judgment.
2 The department was not compliant because there
3 was a culture of a lack of accountability by management.
4 That's a fact. I've said it publicly then and I'll say
5 it publicly now.

6 So once we got out from under Consent Judgment
7 and we start to build a new management, an executive
8 team, that's when change started to take place.

9 Q. We talked about -- I mentioned that Hansberry and 10 Watson, the conviction was in February of 2017. And 11 between that period and August of 2019, 2 1/2 years, is 12 reflective of kind of a historical lack of supervision
13 that's gone on, at least going back to 2010, correct?

14 A. I would say even before that. I think the culture was 15 such that -- and this is my opinion. It's not based on 16 fact. It's -- my opinion is that when there were 17 investigations like the FBI would come in, do their 18 investigation, whoever got convicted got convicted, and 19 it was done. It was over.

20 Mosley was different. Mosley popped up. He 21 got charged with the one incident. I believe had 22 business or status quo had -- we had allowed it to be 23 that way, he would have been charged and business would 24 have continued.

25 But instead, I'm going to say it now for the

1 investigated --

2 (Multiple speakers
3 speaking at the same time.)

4 A. I don't know if I -- I don't -- I can't agree with --

5 Q. -- that they had Ewald?

6 A. I am not going to agree with you. So -- I'm not going
7 to agree with you, and I'm going to tell you on this
8 reason.

9 Number one, I wasn't here in 2010. I don't
10 know about this tally sheet investigation.

11 You, on the record, said there was no
12 investigation. The City's attorney said there was an 13 investigation. And then you show that there was an 14 investigative report. So I'm troubled by that.

15 So when you make a statement that the 16 department basically ignored -- let me just say this to 17 you. I have never ignored anything in my tenure in this 18 police department. I respond to what I am aware of, and 19 sometimes, as we are going down this journey of change, 20 there were things I wasn't made aware of. So I can take 21 responsibility for that.

22 But if I had known what I know now, would I
23 have done things differently maybe at the conclusion of 24 Hansberry? Absolutely. I didn't know. I didn't know.
25 I would have launched the task force then.

1 fifth time, a couple of things worked out in our favor.
2 One, we had some information. Two, I had a hunch, if
3 you will, and the hunch was Mosley; this was not the 4 first time he engaged in this kind of criminal behavior.
5 There was no way for me to believe that.

6 So it was based on those two primary factors
7 that we launched the probe. The fact that I had now a
8 former US Attorney who understood the workings on the 9 other side certainly was a recipe for success.

10 So -- and while this is a lengthy undertaking,
11 we're in the process, as of now, adding additional 12 staff, task force operation, because we are going back,
13 and, as I think I indicated early in my deposition,
14 we're really only back to 2017.

15 Again, I recognize that counsel believes that 16 we should have started in reverse. It didn't work out
17 that way. I'm still comfortable that we started where 18 we started and we're doing what we're doing now.

19 Q. I'd like to raise two points. We talked about the 20 July 2010 stop and 2 million whatever, officers, and 21 we've talked about Hansberry and Watson being convicted
22 in February '17.

23 Those two events on the Detroit Police
24 Department had constructive notice that there was a 25 problem with the police department, correct? And they

1 BY MR. DETTMER:

2 Q. Chief, let me make the point about the tally sheet. The 3 point really I was making with you, was, there was never
4 an investigation of the tally sheet.

5 The investigation was solely related to the 6 money counters and the inefficiency there. And the real
7 issue was the tally sheet. Why wasn't that
8 investigated? We're talking about $280,000, not $15,000
9 because of a defective machine.

10 (Multiple speakers
11 speaking at the same time?)

12 THE WITNESS: How about in my -- how about in 13 my expert opinion? I don't think it's just about the 14 tally machine. If you've got a concern, I think the 15 concern is more about there was an inadequate
16 investigation.

17 There was an investigation. There wouldn't be 18 two separate investigations of the same issue. That's 19 not even logical. I've been doing this too long. I'm 20 suggesting that you could have confronted me with -- 21 said, well, do you think that, based on the fact that 22 the tally sheet was not mentioned in the counter
23 investigation, that the investigation was inadequate?
24 And I probably would have said to you, I'd agree. If 25 the tally sheet was an issue, I would have wanted to

1 look at that if it wasn't mentioned. But I haven't even
2 read that investigation to even know if the tally sheet
3 was mentioned.

4 BY MR. DETTMER:

5 Q. I appreciate that. But, Chief, I wasn't trying to 6 mislead you. I actually had that, Internal Affairs
7 document as an exhibit. If you can look at it and get 8 all of the exhibits from Mr. Surowiec, but I was not 9 trying to mislead you.

10 The whole point is the issue of the tally
11 sheet was some indication of a serious problem, and as 12 events played out in the federal trial, it was the 13 essence of the criminality going back to 2010.

14 A. And I can't argue with you. I'm just saying that given 15 the way you described the investigation, because 16 initially you said there was no investigation. And I
17 know what you were saying now.

18 Q. No investigation of the tally sheet.

19 A. Of the tally. But why wouldn't the tally sheet and the 20 money counter have been all in one, because it's part of 21 the same issue. It's the same issue.

22 Q. And I agree with you. Why wasn't that picked up when 23 Internal Affairs looked at a $15,000 discrepancy. Why
24 didn't they pick that up?

25 A. I don't know the answer to that.

1 MR. SUROWIEC: And I'm going to just object.

2 I object to --

3 (Multiple speakers
4 speaking at the same time)

5 BY MR. DETTMER:

6 Q. And they should have had notice of that. Or if they did
7 have notice, they just ignored it.

8 MR. SUROWIEC: Dennis, can I just raise a
9 point here? I'd like to be able to ask him about five 10 minutes of cleanup questions. I would like -- we're at 11 the 2:27 mark, and you're going over old stuff.

12 MR. DETTMER: Go ahead.

13 Chief, nice talking to you. Enjoy the rest of 14 your day.

15 THE WITNESS: Say what now?

16 MR. SUROWIEC: Chief, this is Jim Surowiec. I
17 have about five minutes or less of cleanup questions I
18 just want to ask you. Okay?

19 EXAMINATION BY MR. SUROWIEC:

20 Q. You indicated you started here in 2013. When you
21 started, you came from Cincinnati; is that correct?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. Okay. When you found out about Hansberry, Watson, and 24 Leavells, you were informed by the FBI in 2014 that they 25 had been indicted and they were going to be charged?

1 A. I would guess it was in 2014 only because soon after the
2 FBI brought me in to advise me, Hansberry and crew were
3 indicted not long after that. So they had started --
4 they had an investigation that they started in 2010 that
5 was ongoing through 2013 up until the culmination time
6 of 2014.

7 Q. Okay. Were you ever informed at any point in time prior 8 to finding out in 2014 that the FBI was looking at 9 Hansberry and Watson and Leavells?

10 A. I did not, no. In fact --

11 Q. Okay.

12 A. What I wanted to say is in support of that. So
13 Hansberry was a lieutenant working at the 12th Precinct,
14 and we were getting ready to make captains. And so
15 right at the time that he came up as a potential
16 candidate, I learned about the investigation, so, of 17 course, it was confidential.

18 I said nothing, but that was in 2014. Up
19 until that point, he was -- at least by the team around 20 me, regarded him very favorably as a top candidate in 21 Detroit Police Department.

22 Q. So there was nothing that anybody had notice of up until 23 the point the FBI said, knock knock. He's getting 24 indicted, Watson is getting indicted, Leavells is going 25 down, that would have --

1 A. Well, it wasn't that close. They gave me a little bit.
2 By that time the investigation was rock solid.

3 Q. Got you.

4 A. And, again, when they're doing a confidential
5 investigation, they're not necessarily going to alert
6 the department because they don't know who to trust.

7 Q. They could have been looking into you?

8 A. I doubt that they were looking into me, but --

9 Q. But they look at the highest levels. I'm just saying
10 they look at everybody.

11 A. I don't --

12 Q. No?

13 A. No. I'm not saying that. What I'm suggesting to you is 14 they do their investigation and they only bring in the 15 people who they feel they should, and the two task force
16 officers were already embedded.

17 So to my knowledge, they were the only two 18 that knew about those Narcotic officers being
19 investigated.

20 Q. In terms of 2010 when you weren't there, 2011, 2012,
21 2013, before you arrived, you have an opinion but you
22 don't have any evidence because your director has not 23 looked back that far, that there was a pattern or 24 culture of corruption, correct? You haven't gotten back
25 that far?

1 A. I have an opinion -- I have a strong opinion, yes.

2 Q. Okay. But it's not evidence based; is that fair?

3 A. It's not evidence based.

4 Q. It's based on your police -- you have police instincts

5 and gut and you're looking back and you're looking back

6 hard on and at everything?

7 A. And I follow my gut sometimes, and I did on Mosley and I

8 was absolutely correct. So, yes, I have a strong

9 opinion and instinct that's the result of almost

10 44 years of experience.

11 Q. So when they're talking about -- when they are talking

12 about the newspaper articles where you are being quoted

13 as saying there is a culture of corruption or pattern

14 and practice, you're referencing, and correct me if I'm

15 wrong, you just found out about Hansberry, Watson,

16 Leavells. There was also a civilian out of the 17 department by the name of Kenyal Brown, who was 18 indicted.

19 And then when you thought everything had been

20 shaken out and everybody had learned their lesson, in 21 2018 or '19, Mosley gets indicted.

22 Those are the individuals that we're talking

23 about in terms of being criminally charged, correct?

24 A. Mosley gets -- the difference with Mosley, we had

25 additional information that we started to look at. And

1 A. I think it was already asked and answered. I think

2 Dennis had an accurate account. Roughly 40-something,

3 down to maybe 24, almost in half. We focused on the

4 Major Violators, which was the old conspiracy, if you

5 will, and street enforcement, which is going to be left

6 with the precincts.

7 Q. So of 40 officers at the high point, we have -- in terms

8 of police officers, Hansberry, Watson, Leavells, and

9 Mosley who were convicted. No one else, correct?

10 A. As far as I know.

11 Q. Okay. Who has -- at the department, under your watch,

12 who has the final decisionmaking authority as to what

13 policies are enacted? Like the one that was enacted on 14 Major Violators and establishing the new way?

15 A. I initiate the policy, and I don't know the date that

16 the police commission came back into their authority,

17 but they have to approve policy enacted by the Detroit

18 Police Department.

19 Q. Okay. Does a police officer have the authority to enact

20 policy?

21 A. They do not.

22 Q. Does a sergeant have the power to enact a policy?

23 A. No. Carry out policy.

24 Q. Lieutenant, captain, commander, do any of those

25 individuals have the ability or authority to enact

1 looking at that additional information helped me form an

2 opinion that there is a pattern.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. Based on what I learned -- I'm telling you there's a

5 pattern of criminality that we started to see among

6 some. Allegations.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. And that we are investigating right now.

9 Q. And I know that we have -- we have talked in the past

10 and we discussed the concept of Monell, which is a

11 Monell claim, a constitutional claim against the City

12 for having an unconstitutional custom and practice and

13 policy.

14 When you say a pattern and practice, are you

15 saying it in legal terms or are you saying it in your

16 terms as a layman saying I see a pattern? I'm a police

17 officer --

18 A. Not legal. In lay terms as a police -- it's like when I

19 look at crime and I see that there's a cluster of 20 robberies in a certain location. I call it a pattern.

21 If I see a cluster or similar type of alleged

22 misconduct, I'll call that a pattern, too. Now, again,

23 we're talking about allegations.

24 Q. Okay. How many at high point did you say Narcotics had 25 in it before you cut the staff in half?

1 policy?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Let me take a quick look here.

4 A. I'm getting close. Help me out. Help me out.

5 Q. The last question I'll ask you is, so when you're making

6 these statements, because Mr. Dezsi showed you a lot of

7 news articles about widespread corruption, that is in

8 direct response to Hansberry, Leavells, Watson, and

9 Mosley; is that fair?

10 A. Mosley, but in the interest of fairness, because of the 11 probe -- the probe was just not for Mosley. We didn't

12 launch this probe just for Mosley.

13 Q. Right.

14 A. Okay?

15 Q. But I'm saying it wasn't in connection to 2010, '11,

16 '12, '13, '14 --

17 A. No, I didn't have any information then.

18 Q. Fair enough.

19 A. I might have had suspicions, but the 2010 matter that

20 was culminating in 2014, I did not have the information

21 that I now have.

22 Q. All right.

23 A. So if I'm saying there's a pattern, a widespread, given

24 what I now know, the allegations, and I've got to put

25 emphasis on alleged, because there's been no additional

1 people charged. There has been one that has been
 2 retired or resigned in lieu of termination, which was
 3 part of the alleged misconduct. She just didn't get 4 terminated. She resigned in lieu of.

5 Q. Here is my windup. The cases that we are now dealing 6 with, because one has been dismissed, one of the five
 7 cases has been dismissed. So we've got this case, which 8 is Metris-Shamoon versus City of Detroit and all of the 9 individuals. Frontczak versus City of Detroit. Reid
 10 versus City of Detroit, and Gardella -- I'm sorry, 11 that's --

12 A. You know, you're naming all of these cases. I don't 13 have them in front of me to know which, so...

14 Q. That was my question. There was one more there.
 15 Lockard versus City of Detroit.

16 Do you know anything about those cases?

17 A. Not definitively, no. I mean --

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. If you named officers involved in the cases, the names
 20 may --

21 Q. But in terms of the allegations that are involved in 22 those cases -- I mean, they're asking you questions
 23 about a Monell claim and about policy in the City.
 24 We're really here to talk about these cases.
 25 Do you have any intimate knowledge of the 1 lawsuits?

2 A. Some of the lawsuits we have opened up and initiated
 3 misconduct investigations, as I indicated during our
 4 predeposition, as I've indicated here. Matelic came out
 5 of a civil lawsuit. Geelhood came out of Wayne County
 6 Prosecutor's Integrity Unit, if my memory serves me
 7 correct. So I know for a fact, those two -- one for 8 sure came out of a lawsuit.

9 Q. Okay.

10 A. That's very different today. That if people are filing
 11 lawsuits, and in the lawsuit they are alleging 12 misconduct, we will open up and initiate an Internal 13 Affairs investigation.

14 It happened early on because it wasn't a
 15 seamless transition. A lot of times the Law Department
 16 didn't notify the department of allegations. This has 17 been, fortunately, a recent change.

18 This is something that I gave Grant Ha, who 19 works on my staff, that anytime a lawsuit comes in 20 alleging misconduct, we have to be notified so that we 21 can open up a misconduct. That didn't happen before.

22 Q. Okay. Thank you, sir.

23 A. All right. Thank you.

24 MR. DETTMER: One quick question. Very quick.
 25

1 RE-EXAMINATION BY MR. DETTMER:

2 Q. You're still looking at crew members of Hansberry and
 3 Geelhood's crews, and I would suggest to you those crews
 4 are members of the various grades of our four current
 5 cases. You don't know any of the detail of that; fair
 6 to say?

7 A. No, haven't gone that far back. As I indicated in my
 8 earlier testimony, we are working from Mosley back.
 9 Possibly when we get to 2010, 2011, or if -- or through 10 the course of lawsuits that are coming in, we'll 11 initiate investigations.

12 So I am certain that we're going to be looking 13 at individuals who are probably no longer members of the 14 department, and who have retired. There's some cases
 15 that the Wayne County Prosecutor's office is also 16 interested in exonerating. Hey, folks, I've got to 17 really -- I mean, I'm actually ten minutes out. So...

18 MR. SUROWIEC: I am done.

19 MR. DETTMER: Good to you see you, Chief.

20 Thank you.

21 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

Detroit police probe yields allegations of widespread corruption in drug unit

George Hunter, The Detroit News Published 11:23 p.m. ET Dec. 11, 2019 | Updated 10:05 a.m. ET Dec. 12, 2019

Detroit — Four months after Detroit police internal affairs officers raided their own department's narcotics unit, investigators have uncovered alleged corruption that includes drug cops planting evidence, lying to prosecutors in search warrant affidavits, robbing dope dealers and embezzling funds, police officials said.

Since the Aug. 22 raid, in which dozens of files and 50 computers were seized and analyzed, Chief James Craig has reassigned everyone in the unit with five or more years' experience.

"I'm extremely concerned there may be a pattern and practice of criminal misconduct in the narcotics unit," Craig said. "Sadly, as we continue our probe, we think it's going to grow in terms of magnitude."

The corruption is possibly so extensive that Chris Graveline, director of the department's Professional Standards Section and head of the ongoing investigation, set up a hotline this week, urging anyone with knowledge of misconduct by drug officers to call (313) 596-3190.

Craig said he enlisted help from the FBI, Michigan State Police and U.S. Attorney's Office after the material seized in the raid revealed more problems than anticipated.

"This started with a small team of our own Professional Standards investigators, but as they starting seeing the scope of the issues we were dealing with, the team has since grown to 17, and we may ask for even more help," Craig said. "This is a major corruption investigation, but I want to caution that these are just allegations at this point.

"The files we seized in the raid go back as far as 10 years, so the focus of our probe is roughly 10 years," Craig said. "However, since the raid, we've only looked at the past year and a half. So there's a lot more material to go through.

"We're not just looking at documents and case files; so far, we've also interviewed more than 20 complainants who were involved in narcotics trafficking, who had search warrants executed on them but were never arrested," Craig said.

Among the investigation's findings:

- Six instances of narcotics officers stealing money from drug dealers, and two cases of officers planting drugs on suspects.
- False affidavits allegedly were presented to prosecutors to get search warrants. "It's alleged that the probable cause to get the warrants was fabricated," Craig said. "Surveillance that was supposedly conducted to get the warrants wasn't done; information (officers) said they got from confidential informants was erroneous; and information (officers) said they'd gleaned from (the Detroit police drug hotline) 224-DOPE was non-existent. So far, we've identified eight instances where that may have occurred."
- Drug suspects were designated as confidential informants without permission. "Only a prosecutor, either from the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office or U.S. Attorney's Office, can authorize a member of the department to turn a suspect into an informant," Craig said. "Based on our investigation, so far we've found 11 instances where officers improperly made suspects into informants."
- Funds meant to pay informants were embezzled. "We found 50 vouchers with thumb prints and signatures of informants, but no dollar amount listed," Graveline said. It's alleged officers told informants they'd be paid a certain amount for information; the officers allegedly submitted requests for more money and pocketed the difference. (Thumbprints are used on the vouchers to identify informants.)

The first leg of the investigation — the latest in a series of probes into the former Narcotics Section, which was closed in 2014 and reformed as the Major Violators Section because of rampant corruption — kicked off in April, after a large shipment of drugs that had been seized in Detroit was switched for another substance by the time it got to Chicago for a court hearing, Craig said.

Former Detroit narcotics officer Michael Mosley, who was indicted in federal court on charges related to allegations that he took a bribe from a drug dealer, is central to the investigation, Craig said.

Mosley, who was indicted the same day the drug unit was raided, is scheduled to stand trial March 3.

"I can tell you primarily we're looking at the crew (Mosley) was assigned to, which includes a supervisor and five officers," Craig said. All have been reassigned, the chief said.

"I strongly believe that Mosley's criminal activity didn't start with the one time he was caught by the FBI, which is one of the reasons I ordered this investigation," he said.

"We're also looking very closely at the supervisors and managers in the Major Violators Section; what did they know, and what did they do about it?" Craig said. "This investigation is looking very closely at management that oversaw narcotics."

Craig stressed that moving people with five years of experience doesn't necessarily mean they are under suspicion.

Mosley's attorney, Robert Morgan, declined to comment.

Craig said the probe also is focusing on the activities of officers who worked with ex-Detroit narcotics cops David Hansberry, Bryan Watson and Arthur Leavells, who in 2017 were convicted in federal court (/story/news/local/detroit-city/2017/02/22/ex-detroit-cops-face-sentencing-extortion/98245018/) of offenses that included ripping off drug dealers and stealing money and drugs that had been seized in raids.

That investigation, which started in 2010, was focused solely on "the criminality of those who were indicted," Craig said. "(The current probe) is also taking a look at processes and other issues that could have contributed to the alleged problems we're uncovering."

Allegations of corruption in the Detroit police narcotics unit go back decades. In 1973, 22 Detroit cops from the 10th Precinct were indicted on charges of involvement in heroin trafficking; nine of the officers were convicted of various crimes.

In 1991, five current and former Detroit cops and a relative of then-Mayor Coleman Young were among a group that was charged with providing protection for FBI agents posing as drug traffickers. Five defendants pleaded guilty in federal court, while other officers were acquitted.

Charles Flanagan, a Detroit cop for 30 years before he retired in 2015, ran the former Narcotics Section from 2013-15. He said when he took over the unit, he found "problems that existed long before I got there."

Flanagan reported to Craig that he'd uncovered numerous issues, including a sergeant who had failed to turn in 32 pieces of drug evidence confiscated from hospitalized suspects, and another sergeant who made up false evidence tags for items seized during drug raids, including three flat-screen TVs, a laptop computer and an Xbox 360 video game system.

"I tried to correct some of the obvious issues when I got there," Flanagan said. "Most of the problems I encountered were things that were years old.

"One of the biggest problems in Narcotics historically has been that commanding officers were handcuffed because a lot of people would end up in those specialized units because of cronyism and nepotism," Flanagan said. "They'd have so-called mentors at the higher ranks in the department, and no matter how bad they were, their bosses were afraid to get rid of them."

Craig, who investigated corruption while he was a Los Angeles cop, blamed "basic greed" for many of the problems plaguing the drug unit.

"We thought that the indictment of the Hansberry team would have caused people to walk straight, but greed is the foundation for engaging in corruption," Craig said. "It comes down to basic greed.

"I'm not happy about what we've found in this investigation, but I think it's important to advise the public about what's going on," he said. "Some people might want to say this department is out of control, but I would remind them that this is a DPD-initiated investigation. We're not hiding from this."

Detroit police chief: Longstanding culture of drug unit corruption

George Hunter, The Detroit News Published 4:19 p.m. ET Dec. 12, 2019 | Updated 4:49 p.m. ET Dec. 12, 2019

Detroit — Selling drugs in any city is dangerous, as dealers risk being killed or robbed by rivals — but in Detroit, pushers for years also have known they could be ripped off by cops, police chief James Craig said Thursday.

"The culture here has been such that drug traffickers figured that was just the cost of doing business," Craig said during a press conference at Public Safety Headquarters. "They knew 'I could get killed, robbed by my competition or robbed by cops.' It's not like that in other cities I've worked in."

Craig's remarks followed a Detroit News report (/story/news/local/detroit-city/2019/12/11/detroit-police-probe-uncovers-widespread-alleged-corruption-drug-unit/4398321002/) about a four-month ongoing investigation that uncovered "a pattern and practice" of alleged corruption in the drug unit, called the Major Violators Section.

The allegations include drug cops planting evidence, lying to prosecutors in search warrant affidavits, robbing dope dealers and embezzling funds meant to pay informants.

The Detroit-initiated investigation started Aug. 22, when Detroit internal affairs officers raided their department's own drug unit, seizing and analyzing dozens of files and 50 computers.

Investigators also have interviewed more than 20 people whose drug houses were raided but were not arrested, and Craig said they told police it's no secret on the street that many Detroit drug cops were crooked.

In multiple instances, investigators found Detroit officers raided drug houses, seized money and drugs, and then told the dealers they could "work off the case" by giving police information about other drug houses.

After getting the information, Craig said the cops allegedly would "start the process all over again" when they raided the locations the dealers had told them about.

Officers would sometimes make confidential informants out of the people whose houses they'd raided without getting the required authorization from prosecutors, Craig said. Then, the officers allegedly embezzled the funds used to pay the informants, the chief said.

"Imagine you're a drug trafficker," Craig said. "A search warrant is executed at your home. Your next thought is, 'I'm going to be arrested.' Instead, you're getting paid, and that case is over.

"Those who are trafficking large amounts of drugs got a pass based on the decision of a police officer. They're not going to come knocking on my door saying, 'chief, we want to make a complaint.'"

Chris Graveline, a former assistant U.S. Attorney who heads the police department's Professional Standards Section, said the alleged corrupt cops could taint other cases in which they testified.

"The first thing you have to ask yourself is, what role did that witness play in my case?" Graveline said. "If it's a major role, then that's a big concern. Immediately, you're thinking 'I need to evaluate each of these cases, and how significant their testimony is in this case.

"This is going to require a lot of evaluation, not only by the Detroit Police Department but by prosecutors," Graveline said.

Wayne County Prosecutor Kym Worthy declined to comment, her spokeswoman, Maria Miller, said Thursday.

The alleged corruption is thought to be so rampant, police officials set up a 24-hour hotline at (313) 596-3190 to encourage people to call in tips about crooked drug cops.

"It's been up 24 hours, and we've already started to receive tips," Craig said. "One of the things we've learned from the complainants we've already interviewed was that they expect (corruption by narcotics officers)."

Craig stressed the alleged crooked officers make up only a small portion of the police department.

"How are you going to put on the badge ... and you're as much of a criminal as the people you're going after?" Craig said. "If you make the conscious decision to engage in criminal conduct, you're no longer a police officer. We're going to find you, and we're going to arrest you."

WCPO to Dismiss Two Narcotics Cases

On March 24, 2020, the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office Conviction Integrity Unit (CIU) presented an order which was signed by Third Circuit Court Chief Judge Timothy Kenny dismissing the case against Darell Chancellor who was convicted on December 12, 2012, of Possession of 450 grams to 999 grams of Cocaine. He was sentenced to 14 years, three months to 30 years as a Habitual Fourth Offender.

On the same day, the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office Public Integrity Unit presented an order which was signed by to Chief Judge Timothy Kenny dismissing the case against Darrell Richmond, who was convicted on August 9, 2019, of Delivery/Manufacture Narcotics Less than 50 grams and Felony Firearm Second Degree. He was sentenced to three to 20 years on the drug charge and a five-year consecutive sentence on the felony firearm charge.

Both cases were dismissed by order and no court appearances were held due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

Statement of Prosecutor Kym Worthy

Prosecutor Worthy said, "The cases that we are announcing today are the result of the tireless work of investigators from the Detroit Police Department and the Federal Bureau of Investigations (Richmond), and the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office Conviction Integrity Unit (Chancellor). These are the first cases that deal directly with fraudulent search warrant affidavits and other activities by highly unethical and compromised narcotics police officers. These cases take time to review, and we expect that there will be more. I will not hesitate to free other wrongfully convicted individuals if we find tainted or fraudulent evidence.”

Darell Chancellor CIU Recommendation*

The alleged evidence in the case about Mr. Chancellor cannot be corroborated and has been credibly refuted. It was based upon a fraudulent search warrant. Mr. Chancellor’s claim that he was wrongfully convicted is credible and his case will be dismissed by the Conviction Integrity Unit.

Darrell Richmond - Public Integrity Unit Recommendation *

The DPD and FBI investigation clearly shows that the information provided in the search warrant for Mr. Richmond’s home was based upon false and not-credible information. The conviction of Mr. Richmond will be dismissed by the WCPO Public Integrity Unit.

*Note: At this time limited information is being released BY WCPO due to the ongoing investigation of the Detroit Police Narcotics Unit by DPD and the FBI.

To: Chief of Police James E. Craig (Through Channels) [Signature]
Subject: DUTY STATUS REPORT FOR THE FOLLOWING OFFICERS ASSIGNED TO NARCOTICS:
SERGEANT STEPHEN GEELHOOD, BADGE S-501, PENSION #233448
POLICE OFFICER LARRY BARNETT, BADGE 2841, PENSION #233194
POLICE OFFICER STEVEN RILEY, BADGE 197, PENSION #235195
POLICE OFFICER AMY MATELIC, BADGE 2379, PENSION #234518

POLICE OFFICER GREGORY TOURVILLE, BADGE 682, PENSION #235981

From: Commander Johnny Thomas, Professional Standards Bureau

ISSUE:

On July 10, 2014, members of Internal Affairs suspended Sergeant Stephen Geelhood, badge S-501, and Police Officers Larry Barnett, badge 2841, Steven Riley, badge 197, Amy Matelic, badge 2379, Arthur Leavells, badge 463 and Gregory Tourville, badge 682, after it was discovered that during an investigation the officers were captured on video during a narcotic raid, putting at least five (5) small boxes, later identified as boxes of High Intensity Light bulbs, into a larger box as well as into bags. These items were not placed on evidence and are unaccounted for. The video also shows that at least four (4) officers are in this same room at one time while the light bulbs are being placed into the box and bag.

What should Sergeant Geelhood and Officers Barnett, Riley, Matelic, Leavells and Tourvilles duty status be?

DISCUSSION:

On June 19, 2014, Sergeant Juan Ayala, badge S-266, assigned to Internal Affairs, received a phone call from a Mr. Brent Rayis, W/M/30, of 3271 Edmunton, Rochester Hills, in which Mr. Rayis alleged that on February 13, 2014, at approximately 1:30 P.M., he was at 20103 W. Eight Mile Rd when it was raided by the Narcotics crew headed by Sergeant Geelhood.

Mr. Rayis stated that during the raid his Chase Debit card was taken and subsequently he discovered an unauthorized $1000 charge was made against his card. Mr. Rayis stated that the Marijuana that was found was in 20105 W. Eight Mile Rd, which the crew did not have a warrant for. Mr. Rayis also stated that once the raid was over he was arrested and taken to another location where the crew conducted another raid before being conveyed to the Detroit Detention Center (DDC) for processing.

From: Commander Johnny Thomas, Professional Standards Bureau

On June 20, 2014, Mr. Rayis presented himself at 1301 Third, Suite 319N, the Internal Affairs Office, to make a statement. Mr. Rayis also brought a disc that he claimed was from a hidden camera in 20103 W. Eight Mile Rd. The video was reviewed and it shows the officers' actions inside the location.

The video reveals the officers coming into the location, ordered Mr. Rayis to the ground, handcuffing him and then clearing the location. Once the location is cleared Mr. Rayis gets taken into 20101 W. Eight Mile Rd. The officers are then observed opening a closed door on the west side wall and entering another room. The officers are later seen coming out of that door with what appear to be Marijuana plants. The officers put the plants in bags and boxes, but they also put at least five (5) smaller boxes (Mr. Rayis later identified the smaller boxes as boxes of High Intensity Light bulbs) into the bags and boxes with the plants.

It should be noted that in the video, Officers Leavells, Barnett, Riley and Tourville are in view of each other and observed or participated in the destruction or concealing of property in the bags and boxes used to package the Marijuana Plants, with Sergeant Geelhood standing in the background in the same room. The officers listed the Marijuana as evidence on their arrest report; however, the property taken, other than the marijuana plants, was not listed as evidence and therefore is unaccounted for.

The video reveals that Officer Matelic entered the view of the camera on three separate occasions; however she was not in the room when the items were placed in the box that contained the Marijuana plants

The video also reveals that at least four (4) officers are in this same room at one time while the light bulbs are being placed into bags and boxes with the plants. The video reveals other unknown items are taken from the shelves as well as Officer Matelic with an object in her hand and then reacting as if she was shocked and threw the item to the ground.

Mr. Rayis also provided limited video from 20101 W. Eight Mile Rd that revealed five (5) officers that enter the location, followed by Sergeant Geelhood. The video shows the raid crew making entry into the T-shirt shop and walking toward the back. In the video a white male, later identified as Ibrahim Gharib, W/M/31, of 6160 N Slivery Ln, Dearborn Heights, is seen meeting the officers in the front part of the store with his hand up. Mr. Gharib is patted down and was placed in front of a display case with his hands on the glass.

The video reveals a black male, later identified as Grady Wicker III, B/M/29, of 29500 Franklin Rd, Southfield, also walked into the front of the store and also placed against the display case with his hands on the glass. The rest of the video reveals the officers' interaction with the detainees.

On the same date, Police Officer Michael Saraino, badge 247, assigned to Internal Affairs, and Sergeant Ayala conducted an audio recorded interview of Mr. Rayis. During the interview, Mr. Rayis' statement closely mirrored that of his phone call. Mr. Rayis also identified the things taken by the officers as high intensity light bulbs.

A review of CRISNET Report #1402130158.1, titled "08-48-2913-Execution of Search Warrant," completed by Police Officer Amy Matelic, and all of the attached Preliminary Complaint Reports, Investigator's Report and all other paperwork that pertained to the execution of the search warrant at 20103 W. Eight Mile Rd., revealed the only property listed taken was Marijuana Plants, loose Marijuana, currency, and Mr. Rayis' vehicle, a 2003 Acura. No other property was listed as taken.

On July 2, 2014, Investigator Timothy Ewald, badge I-1, assigned to Internal Affairs, and Officer Saraino, went to the Property Section and inspected the packages where the unaccounted merchandise was seen being placed into, and they were not found.

On July 10, 2014, Sergeant Ayala conducted an audio recorded interview with Mr. Wicker who stated he was in the backroom of his place of employment, 20101 W. Eight Mile Rd. Mr. Wicker stated that while at the location the police played with and broke gag shock pens that were at the location. Mr. Wicker also stated that the police took at least three (3) shock pens from the store and five (5) HPS light bulbs that belong to him, as they were leaving. After the police left Mr. Wicker checked his vehicle, since the police searched it, and found an I-Pod and a black pair of Rayban glasses were missing.

On July 10, 2014, Officer Saraino, and Sergeant Ayala, conducted an audio recorded interview of Mr. Gharib. Mr. Gharib stated that on February 13, 2014, at approximately 1:30 P.M., the police came into his work at 20101 W. Eight Mile, and searched the place. Mr. Gharib stated that he was detained in his shop and searched. During the search Mr. Gharib stated that the officers stole gag "shocking" items that he had for sale for $5.00 each. He also stated that the female officer was tricked and shocked by a male officer and that she threw the pen to the floor and broke it (this fact was confirmed by the video viewed). Mr. Gharib also stated that his 2008 Jeep Liberty was searched and after the police left his Bulova watch was missing.

On July 10, 2014, at approximately 4:00 P.M., Lieutenant Kelly Fitzgerald, badge L-33, assigned to Internal Affairs, and Sergeant Ayala along with members assigned to Internal Affairs went to 14655 Dexter, Narcotics Base, and stood by as Captain Rodney Cox, Commanding Officer of Organized Crime, suspended the above listed officers and sergeant with pay.

It shall also be noted that a walk through was conducted of the location and none of the described items were located at this time.

INTERNAL AFFAIRS UNIT

Subject: IAU CASE #00 213
SERGEANT JOSEPH TUCKER JR., BADGE S-95
ASSIGNED: SIXTH PRECINCT
APPOINTED: SEPTEMBER 20, 1993
ALLEGATION: PERJURY

IAU INVESTIGATOR:
Sergeant Karen L. Fairley

INVESTIGATION:

On December 4, 2000, the Internal Affairs Unit received an investigative report prepared on April 12, 2000, by Investigator Sandra K. Mercer, assigned to the Office of the Chief Investigator. The report pertained to a complaint, Citizen Complaint Report (CCR) #29405, BPC #99-772, filed on October 5, 1999, at the Twelfth Precinct, by Ms. Paulette Crowder, B/F/47, of 20400 Wyoming. Information contained in the report revealed misconduct on the part of then Police Officer Joseph Tucker Jr., Badge 2373, then assigned to the Narcotics Division. Specifically, Officer Tucker swore to and signed a Search Warrant and Affidavit that contained false information.

The investigative report indicated that on October 4, 1999, Officer Tucker caused a Search Warrant and Affidavit (#004438) to be issued for the search of 20400 Wyoming, for narcotics. The Search Warrant and Affidavit also stated that the "seller," Mr. Clifford Crowder, B/M/30, was to be searched. However, Investigator Mercer's investigation supported Ms. Crowder's contention that her son, Mr. Clifford Crowder, was incarcerated on October 4, 1999, one of the dates Officer Tucker swore to have seen him at 20400 Wyoming selling drugs.

Investigator Mercer's investigation disclosed that on October 4, 1999, Sergeant Terence Randolph, Badge S-872, of the Narcotics Division, and his crew, including Officer Tucker, raided Ms. Crowder's residence looking for narcotics and her son, Clifford Crowder. However, information gathered by Investigator Mercer revealed that Mr. Crowder was picked up on September 29, 1999, by Wayne County Corrections officials on warrant #95-009989, for probation violation, and subsequently sentenced to twenty years in prison. He was held in the Wayne County Jail until his transfer to the Jackson Correctional Facility on October 4, 1999. (Document 7-1)

On May 16, 2000, Chief Investigator Lori Bobbitt Waddles prepared a memo addressed to the Chief of Police. The memo indicated that the Office of the Chief Investigator's investigation of the aforementioned CCR resulted in a finding of "Improper Conduct," and was being forwarded for appropriate action. (Document 7-2)

On September 16, 2000, a Charge Sheet was prepared by Lieutenant Steven Dolunt, Badge L-43, then assigned to the Disciplinary Administration Unit, recommending that Officer Tucker be charged with "Neglect of Duty." (Document 7-3)

On November 1, 2000, Lieutenant Dolunt addressed a memo to the Commanding Officer of the Narcotics Enforcement Section. The memo indicated that the Chief of Police waived jurisdiction in Officer Tucker's disciplinary matter and that it was to be handled at the command level. (Document 7-4)

On November 30, 2000, Inspector Patrick McCarthy, assigned to the Narcotics North-West Section, prepared a memo addressed to Inspector Donald Williams, of the Internal Controls Section. The memo stated he was forwarding a copy of Investigator Mercer's report for review and disposition. (Document 7-5)

On December 5, 2000, this matter was assigned to Sergeant Karen L. Fairley, Badge S-382, of the Internal Affairs Unit for investigation.

On January 22, 2001, Sergeant Tucker (promoted October 27, 2000) was interviewed by Sergeant Fairley after she advised him of his constitutional rights (Miranda). Sergeant Tucker acknowledged having a Search Warrant and Affidavit sworn in on October 4, 1999. He listed on the Search Warrant and Affidavit September 29, 1999, October 1, 1999, and October 4, 1999, as the dates on which he allegedly observed Mr. Crowder selling drugs from the side entrance of 20400 Wyoming. According to Sergeant Tucker, he set up surveillance per a complaint of narcotics activity at the Wyoming address. He was positioned approximately one and a half blocks from the home and using binoculars when he observed who he thought was Mr. Crowder conducting narcotics transactions from the side door.

Sergeant Tucker further stated that he later found out that the person he observed at the door was not Mr. Crowder, who was incarcerated. He went on to say that it is not common to swear out a warrant and be mistaken about the target, but he was certain that it was Mr. Crowder because he has dealt with him in the past. He also stated that the reason he named Mr. Crowder in the search warrant was because he wanted to be thorough.

Sergeant Tucker went on to say that on October 4, 1999, at approximately 9:30 A.M., he conducted a surveillance at 20400 Wyoming prior to swearing out the warrant in order to make sure nothing had changed since his last surveillance. At that time he was alone and observed who he thought was Mr. Crowder at the location. Sergeant Tucker described the person he observed as being a black male, approximately twenty-five years old, 5'6", with a dark complexion and "kinky" hair. That person's physical attributes were close to Mr. Crowder's physical attributes. This person was later identified as Mr. Aronde Ware, B/M/20, who was investigated and released at the scene when the search warrant was executed. On the other days in question narcotics buys (controlled purchases) were made, and surveillance was conducted, and he was certain that the person selling was Mr. Crowder.

Sergeant Tucker added that he had seen Mr. Crowder prior to obtaining the warrant a few times. Once when he arrested him, and two or three times when he was being investigated. Lastly, Sergeant Tucker stated that it was approximately a six hour time lapse from the time he obtained the search warrant until the warrant was executed. (Tape)

On February 13, 2001, Sergeant Fairley presented an Investigator's Report to Wayne County Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Maria Miller for review.

On March 2, 2001, Ms. Miller denied the issuance of a warrant against Sergeant Tucker due to insufficient evidence. (Document 10-1)

On March 19, 2001, Sergeant Candace Kailimai, Badge S-501, and Investigator Lisa Collins, Badge-I-176, both assigned to the Internal Affairs Unit, interviewed Sergeant Tucker under the provisions of Garrity. He stated that the statement he made under Miranda was the same that he would make under Garrity, and that he had nothing more to add. (Tape)

Subject: Sgt. Tucker

Lieutenant, after we spoke this morning I still was uneasy about this situation. I've given this thing with Tucker a lot of thought and I have to get this off my chest and then I'll leave you to enjoy your Holiday weekend.

I've been at Narcotics for quite awhile. I was there in 1999 when they Arrested Delford Forte and Derrick Carpenae from Narcotics Conspiracy for stealing cash money out of dope houses. This was investigated and proven, they were caught in the act.

I was there in 2001 when Dogbite (Sgt. Raby) was charged and convicted with stealing money because he had a gambling problem. There were also many accusations against Lt. Art McNamara (Coyote) which were never founded but he retired anyway. I believe the rumors, whether true or not, somehow lessened all the good narcotics work he did as a cop because of the allegations.

Sgt. Kenny Jackson (Action) and crew were transferred for accusations of stealing that as far as I know were investigated but were unfounded. These officers also carry this around to this day.

I say all this to say that each one of these instances had different sets of circumstances. Some you could prove and did, some you know it was happening but never could prove and some that you had no idea if it did or did not and it was never proved and ruined some people's careers. Street cops have to deal with allegations all the time.

In this instance I believe (and this is just an opinion) the best case scenario is to transfer Sgt. Tucker out of Narcotics to remove him from the temptation and to re-assign each member of that crew to the other 5 crews under Narcotics. We can prove that he was supposed to be on surveillance and posted on a social network site to the contrary.

It may be hard to prove and circumstantial at best that he has lied on logs and OT sheets, but because one of his officers has come forward I believe removing Sgt. Tucker would not be unfair nor will it undermine the officers efforts from coming forward. Obviously he would be told that there were allegations of OT stealing and that a prelim investigation shows he did, and that's why he was removed.

I also believe that re-assigning the officers and removing Tucker would send a message to Narcotics as to just how serious we are about this. I will also go one step further and suggest that the crews all be re-aligned with the exception of the crew chiefs and maybe one or 2 officers to remove the sense of comfort or complacency amongst crews that could have led to this sort of thing in the first place.

Again, I am just throwing this out there. My intentions aren't to step on anyone's toes or go above ranks. If I were running Narcotics, this is the decision that I would make and feel it is the best conclusion given this specific incident.

Either way, we'll get past this.

This situation arose in November/December of 2011 when I, Lieutenant Kelly Fitzgerald, of the Detroit Police Department was assigned to the Narcotics Section as an Administrative Sergeant. My primary function was to process all paperwork for the Commanding Officer of Narcotics, Lieutenant Kevin Robinson and I was a direct report to Lieutenant Robinson (referred to as Robinson going forward). During the week of November 21, 2011, Police Officer (now Sergeant) Stephen Geelhood, called me and inquired about why he was not paid for overtime he worked on November 10, 2011. Officer Geelhood (referred to as Geelhood going forward) worked on a Narcotic Raid crew and reported to Sergeant (Now Lieutenant) Joe L. Tucker Jr. (referred to as Tucker going forward). I explained to Geelhood that I would check into the situation and get back to him. I inquired with Police Officer Jennifer Biggers, the timekeeping officer, why Geelhood had not been paid for the overtime (OT) he worked on November 10, 2011 and she wrote me a note and placed copies of four (4) separate OT requests for the case submitted by Tucker which listed Geelhood and other members of the crew. The note stated "Hey Kelly I talked to K-Rob (referring to Robinson) about these yesterday, and he approved the O.T. for 11/4, 11/8, and 11/13. He said he would take a look at the Nov 10th O.T. when he gets back. Thanks!! Crash". The name Crash is Officer Biggers nickname. Robinson eventually denied the OT for 11/10/11 and dated the denial stamp signed November 10, 2011.

Later the same day during the week of November 21, 2011, Geelhood came to see me for an answer as to why the OT was denied by Robinson. I showed him the note given to me and copies of the OT requests authored by Tucker along with copies of their daily Activity Logs for the OT worked and Geelhood became upset and told me he was tired of working all the OT and doing all the work and that Tucker did not actually work the OT but put his name on the OT, and that he (Geelhood) actually worked all the OT and now he is losing out on OT and Tucker is getting paid OT that he is not actually working. I was shocked by his admission and I asked if he had proof that Tucker did not work this OT. He said no and he doubts any of the other guys would tell the truth that Tucker did not work because they work as a "crew concept" and you do not "rat" on anyone like that. He said he had no physical proof that Tucker was not there during those dates (11/4, 11/10, 11/13, 11/18) but that Tucker is forever "tagging" himself on Facebook (FB) at places/locations around the city, suburbs and other states and he told me that he was sure there were specific dates that he (Tucker) actually put in for OT for working at the exact same time he "tagged" himself outside the city or at an specific location which was not the location his activity log listed that he was at that allowed him to get paid the OT. In other words, Tucker was falsifying OT requests and activity logs saying he worked OT that he did not work. He gave me examples of Tucker "tagging" himself on FB with his sick child at a hospital while he was getting paid OT to work at Narcotics, "tagging" himself on FB at a restaurant outside the city, while getting paid OT to work at Narcotics and "tagging" himself on FB from a child's concert downtown while getting paid to work at Narcotics.

I told Geelhood I would look into his allegations and he left my office, but he was very upset/mad that he was still not getting paid for the OT worked on 11/10/11. During that same week of November 21, 2011, after my meeting with Geelhood, I pulled up Tuckers FB page (we were FB friends at the time) and scrolled through the numerous postings and "taggings" Tucker documented on his FB page and was stunned to find similar "taggings" that Geelhood had spoken to me about. I printed those "tags" from a computer on November 22, 2011. I was unsure if there were more dates that Tucker may have posted on FB and could have possibly put in for OT at the exact same time so I printed several days of postings to bring back to the office to verify whether or not Tucker had actually put in for OT during the same time as alleged. This allegation from Geelhood was of criminal fraud and is a very serious charge and I had to be sure that I was absolutely positive Tucker was committing fraud before I took the evidence and the allegation to the next level. I went through several weeks/months of Tuckers approved OT as well as his normal paid working time and discovered the following results:

- May 9, 2011 Tucker posted he was in Las Vegas at an airport at 8:32 PM but his time sheets says he was at work at Narcotics from 11AM-7PM
- On June 30, 2011, Tucker posted that he was at Providence Hospital with his sick son at 5:41 PM, yet Tucker was on a paid BV day and worked OT on "operation Party Stopper" at Narcotics from 5PM-12A
- On September 23, 2011, Tucker tagged himself and two others and a child in a picture at the Fox Theater at 3:33 PM with characters from a children's play, YoGabbaGabba Show, while he was paid to work his regular scheduled hours of 11A-7P for the day
- On October 22, 2011, Tucker tagged himself at J. Alexanders restaurant (suburb) at 4:03 PM, yet he was paid OT to be on narcotics surveillance from 1P-8P

There were a few other "tags" that stood out that he appeared to be at a certain location conducting various activities (Car Wash, Running at the gym, watching the Lions football game, in Washington DC at the Police Memorial) while he was being paid either OT or regular straight time working at Narcotics. I gathered all the documents and information I had at proceeded to report my findings to Robinson. Robinson seemed disinterested, and gave me the impression that my findings were no big deal. I cannot recall my exact conversation with Robinson but I was upset enough about his lack of concern and what seemed to be him (Robinson) blowing me off that I called Deputy Chief Paul Welles (referred to as Welles going forward), the DC over the Bureau that ran Narcotics and explained to him what I uncovered. Welles was angry, surprised and upset and told me to reduce my concern to writing and email it to Robinson. Welles stated that if Robinson had not brought the allegations and evidence forward by "Monday", that he would step in and get involved.

On Friday, November 25, 2011 at 2:20 PM I authored the following email to Robinson and CC'd Welles:

"Lieutenant, after we spoke this morning I still was uneasy about the situation. I've given this thing with Tucker a lot of thought and I have to get this off my chest and then I'll leave you to enjoy your Holiday weekend.

Robinson never responded but the following Monday, November 28, 2011, Robinson called me into his office to show me a memo he authored addressed to Commander Sherece Fleming-Freeman, of Organized Crime, Robinson's direct boss. The memo read as follows:

"Request for Investigation of overtime worked by personnel assigned to Narcotics.

During the week of November 21, 2011, writer was advised by Sergeant Kelly Fitzgerald, badge S-308, assigned as the administrative Sergeant at Narcotics, that Police Officer Stephen Geelhood, badge 501, assigned to Narcotics Conspiracy Crew contacted her with information. Officer Geelhood stated that there was a discrepancy in overtime that was recently worked and approved during the November 4, 2011 through November 12, 2011 period. Officer Geelhood stated that crew members did not work all the approved overtime during this period and it was approved by crew Sergeant Joe Tucker, badge S-95.

Sergeant Fitzgerald advised writer who in turn advised Commander Fleming Freeman. This allegation implies false or incorrect overtime being paid to members of the crew.

This documentation as the attached are being provided to your office for review and prerogative."

Robinson included the overtime requests dated November 4, 8, 10 and 13, 2011 and he (Robinson) endorsed (signed) the memo. He showed me the memo and told me to hand deliver it to Fleming-Freeman. I explained to him that the memo was not completely accurate and that I had more information/evidence that should be added and attached to the memo and Robinson told me he was sticking to what Geelhood originally complained about (the false OT by Tucker that he could not prove but stated Tucker did not work). I was very upset with Robinson and felt as is this was being down played as some sort of clerical error. I drove to Fleming-Freeman's office and delivered the memo and attachment to her. I recall her telling me that I did the right thing and this needed to be reported and she was forwarding the information to Internal Affairs (IA).

On December 7, 2011, members from IA, Sergeant Michelle Zberkot and Richard Firsdon came to Narcotics to speak to me about the incident. I gave them copies of all the information I had and told them of all the additional information I had gathered that was not reported in the memo from Robinson. It is my recollection that they left and came back the following day to retrieve additional timekeeping documents they needed for their investigation.

At some point on 12/7 or 12/8, 2011, they were in my office and Robinson called me and asked why ^{من} were in there with the door shut. When I explained to him that I was giving them additional documents, he became angry and told me that he was in charge and that they needed to talk to him. I went with them into his office while he explained to them that what Tucker was doing was not a crime and that it is done all the time at Narcotics. In front of Robinson ~~I provided~~ I provided Firsdon and Zberkot with three (3) recent OT requests signed and submitted by Tucker. The requests were for OT worked by Tucker and his crew members on November 28-30, 2011. They were complete with signed activity logs from Tucker and crew as well. I then provided them with a FB posting/tag that Tucker posted on November 28, 2011 at 12:31 PM near Paradise NV (Nevada) that was a picture of what appears to be a hotel room and window in the background and he posted "Breakfast overlooking the Vegas Strip, I WANNA STAY!!" Again on November 28, 2011 at 7:38 PM Tucker tagged from McCarran International Airport in Las Vegas Nevada, stating "Time to come home". Then again on November 29, 2011, at 12:53 AM, Tucker tagged himself from Detroit Metro Airport and posted " LUCY, I'm hooooome!!" (Appearing to reference an old I Love Lucy show.

I provided the unapproved OT and all the documents for the three (3) OT requests to Firsdon and Zberkot and they left. I could tell that Robinson was frustrated and he told me to give him the three OT request so he could look at them. The next morning Robinson handed me back the three requests for OT submitted by Tucker for the dates of November 28-30 and told me to fax IA the OT request for November 28th to show he "Denied" that OT. The date of the Denial stamp and signature from Robinson was December 7, 2011, the date that I gave the documents to Firsdon and Zberkot in his office. Robinson approved the other two dates (11/29-30) and it was my belief that he did that because I had no documents to show that Tucker was not at work and that he worked the OT on those dates. I followed his orders and faxed the info as requested, but I called Firsdon first to tell him what was happening.

Shortly after that date, Geelhood came back to my office and told me that Tucker found out that he came to me about the OT fraud and he was upset that I gave the information to IA. He expressed his fear of being transferred or retaliated against and told me who would not cooperate in the investigation and that he wanted me to call IA and tell them to forget about the whole thing. I expressed to him that I would not do that and I tried to assure him that this was being investigated and he would not be transferred or retaliated against. He was adamant that he was not going to cooperate and left my office. I went to Robinson and told him what happened and I asked if he had told anyone about this incident. He stated to me that he had told Police Officer Booker Tooles (buddah) and that was all. Time passed (a few weeks) and I never heard back from Firsdon and/or Zberkot. I was very frustrated because I felt that nothing changed in the office as far as Tucker and the crew. It was then that I decided to take all the notes I saved and all my correspondence and dates and reduced it to a timeline and documented dates and times and people involved so I would not forget if I was ever questioned formally. This never occurred and after a few months I expressed to DC Welles that I no longer wanted to work at Narcotics in that environment or for Robinson and that I wanted to transfer to another command because of what happened. I even sent emails to other Captains asking if they had openings in their commands so I could transfer out of Narcotics. In October of 2012 Welles transferred me out of Narcotics to the Criminal Investigations Bureau. I never heard another thing about this investigation from anyone including IA.

In November of 2013 I was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant (Tucker was also promoted to Lieutenant along with me) and I was assigned as the Commanding Officer of IA. I had occasion to ask Firsdon who was still at IA now working for me, what happened to the investigation and he told me he was told to turn over all the documents and that the case was "Administratively Closed" by his Lieutenant Whitney Walton and the Commander, Brian Stair. Working at IA for a year and a half I realized rather quickly that the investigation and the information I provided to IA was criminal in nature and should have been looked into by IA and a thorough and complete investigation was warranted. This did not happen.

At the very least, all members mentioned in the complaint should have been interviewed. The investigating OIC could have and should have requested phone records, FB records, financial records, payroll records, video records at Providence Hospital, Fox Theater, Metro Airport, McCann Airport, and any other records that may have provided evidence of fraud. To my knowledge, this did not happen.

At some point in early 2014, while I was in charge of IA, another fraud investigation was brought to the attention of Commander Sims, the Commanding Officer over myself and IA that involved Tucker (now a Lieutenant in charge of the Special Victims Unit, SVU). At the time Tucker was at SVU he reported through the chain of command to my husband, Deputy Chief Charles Fitzgerald, and it was DC Fitzgerald who requested in writing to Commander Sims that IA investigate not only Tucker but other members of SVU due to evidence of possible fraud that surfaced after an audit. Sims gave the information to me and directed me to open and assign an IA investigation on the documents provided, which I did and which was exactly what should have occurred in 2011 when the first complaint was lodged. During the investigation it was reported back to the Chief, during a briefing on the case with myself, the OIC Sergeant Juan Ayala, and Captain Brian Mounsey, the Commanding Officer of Internal Control, who is my direct supervisor, that there was evidence that Tucker at the very least violated several department policies, although the criminal investigation was still ongoing. Chief Craig transferred Tucker as well as his immediate supervisor, Commander Nichols Giaquinto, out of SVU. Tucker was transferred to the 12th Precinct Patrol.

Because of but not limited to, the above mentioned events, Tucker has brought a lawsuit against the City of Detroit naming me, among others as racially discriminating against him and it is sited that I am targeting Tucker because he is black. The suit also speaks of the incident from Narcotics in 2011, stating that I was targeting and investigating him on my own for no reason for fraud and that IA looked into the allegation that I brought forward and it was determined to be "Unfounded".

This was reported in the Detroit News on Friday, July 3, 2015 in an article authored by George Hunter. These accusations against me are completely false. When the allegation of fraud and the information to follow was brought to my attention from Geelhood in 2011, I did exactly what I was supposed to do and gather information and forwarded everything to my supervisors and IA. I took the information to my Lieutenant, my Commander, my Deputy Chief and eventually to IA, all of whom have swept the incident and the evidence I brought forward, under the rug, further leading to the terrible accusations that I am targeting Tucker.

I am respectfully requesting that your office (OIG) look into the following but not limited to:

- Why the initial complaint of criminal conduct that I sent to IA in November/December of 2011 was not investigated, and was closed "Administratively"?
- Why I was never formally interviewed regarding the complaint I sent to IA in November/December of 2011?

- Whether or not DC Welles, Commander Felmming-Freeman, Lieutenant Robinson, or Officer Geelhood were formally interviewed regarding the complaint I sent to IA in November/December of 2011?
- If not, why not?
- Due to the statute of limitations of criminal fraud being five (5) years and still within the scope of possible criminal charges against any member involved in criminal fraudulent activity, I am requesting that all documents that I have provided to IA and still retain copies of, be investigated for both criminal and departmental charges on anyone who violated such charges.

For fear of retaliation against myself and my husband, although I am willing to give my name and my personal information, provide a full statement as well as any and all evidence or supporting documents that I still retain, I am requesting to remain anonymous if and until such time that I must make a public statement.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

In re: City of Detroit, Michigan, Debtor.

Bankruptcy Case No. 13-53846
Judge Thomas J. Tucker
Chapter 9

REPLY BRIEF IN SUPPORT OF
CITY OF DETROIT’S MOTION FOR THE ENTRY OF AN ORDER
ENFORCING THE BAR DATE ORDER AND CONFIRMATION ORDER
AGAINST DEBRA METRIS-SHAMOON, MUKHLIS SHAMOON,
CARL VERES, PAUL METRIS AND JULIA METRIS

In accordance with this Court’s orders,¹ the City of Detroit, Michigan (“City”) files this Reply Brief in support of its Motion,² respectfully stating as follows.

I. Introduction

Debra Metris-Shamoon, Mukhlis Shamoon, Carl Veres, Paul Metris, and Julia Metris (collectively, the “Plaintiffs”) raise a number of arguments previously raised and rejected by this Court and others in their Response³ to the City’s Motion. These arguments did not avail prior respondents and should be rejected again now.

² City of Detroit’s Motion for the Entry of an Order Enforcing the Bar Date Order and Confirmation Order Against Debra Metris-Shamoon, Mukhlis Shamoon, Carl Veres, Paul Metris and Julia Metris (Doc. No. 13532).

³ Debra Metris-Shamoon, Mukhlis Shamoon, Carl Veres, Paul Metris and Julia Metris Response in Opposition to Debtor City of Detroit’s Motion for the Entry of an Order Enforcing the Bar Date Order and Confirmation Order (Dkt #13532) (Doc. No. 13565).

The Plaintiffs make three arguments in trying to resist the City's Motion. First, they claim they were known creditors, and thus were entitled to service of notice of the City's bankruptcy case.⁴ Making a few calls to the police department does not suffice to put the City on notice that the Plaintiffs would allege a claim against the City, however. Nor does alleging that the City was generally aware of problems in its police department. The Plaintiffs' argument has been raised in similar circumstances and been rejected by two federal court judges in this District.

Plaintiffs next say that their claims were not within their "fair contemplation" pre-petition even though the facts that gave rise to them occurred in 2012. This argument also has been rejected by this Court and others. In fact, as the District Court observed in its Opinion regarding the Lawsuit,⁵ the Plaintiffs agree that the statute of limitations began to run on their claims on September 13, 2012. Thus, if they had any claims at all, September 13, 2012, is the date as of which they knew of or should have been able to discover them, had they exercised diligence. Moreover, it is contradictory for Plaintiffs to assert that they were unaware they had a claim, but in the same breath, argue that the City must have known that they did.

⁴ They also claim to somehow have been unaware that the City had filed for bankruptcy protection until 2015. See, e.g., Response, Ex. H., Declaration of Debra Metris-Shamoon, ¶¶ 11, 14 (declaring under penalty of perjury that one of the Plaintiffs, despite being aware of media reports regarding the City's narcotics unit, was unaware that the City itself had filed for bankruptcy protection).

⁵ Capitalized but undefined terms have the meanings ascribed to them in the Motion.

Finally, the Plaintiffs argue that the City should be barred both by equitable estoppel and by laches from filing its Motion, but these arguments are unavailing. Regarding estoppel, the Plaintiffs do not (and cannot) point to any representation that the City made on which they could have relied. Indeed, the Plaintiffs only say that the City delayed in asserting its discharge as a defense. But, under binding Sixth Circuit case law, debtors are not obligated to raise discharge as a defense. Thus, delay in asserting discharge cannot qualify as a representation for estoppel purposes. Moreover, the Plaintiffs admit they were aware of the bankruptcy case when they filed their suit, so they cannot claim to be ignorant of the “true facts,” as required for estoppel to apply. For similar reasons, laches is also inapplicable.

For these reasons, the Court should grant the City’s Motion.

II. Argument

A. The Plaintiffs were unknown creditors. The publication notice City’s Plan provided them with constructive notice of the City’s bankruptcy case. They were not entitled to anything further.

1. Debtors are not required to make an exhaustive search for claims such as the ones the Plaintiffs now assert.

It takes more than a few phone calls to the police department to put a municipality on notice that there may be a claim against it. That is essentially all that the Plaintiffs say that they did. As a result, they were not “known creditors” and they received the notice they were due.

The Monson court recently summarized which creditors must receive actual notice of a bankruptcy case and which may receive notice by publication.

Bankruptcy law distinguishes between known and unknown creditors. Unknown creditors may be notified by publication; but known creditors are entitled to actual notice. Known creditors are those whose claims or identities are “readily ascertainable” by the debtor. Readily ascertainable means a debtor, through “reasonably diligent efforts” could discover a creditor’s claim. “Reasonably diligent efforts” does not require impracticable and extended searches in the name of due process. Rather, a debtor must home in on its own books and records. Typically, that means the debtor has something in its possession, either a demand for payment or some communication with a debtor concerning the existence of the creditor’s claim.

Monson v. City of Detroit, No. 18-10638, 2019 WL 1057306, at *9 (E.D. Mich. March 6, 2019) (citations and quotation marks omitted).

In Monson, a person was wrongly convicted and imprisoned pre-petition. Id., at *1-6. He was released in 2017 and sued the City two years later. Id., at *6. Just like the Plaintiffs, Monson alleged “that prior to the bankruptcy the City knew its police department had a pattern and practice of unconstitutional arrests and interrogations. And in its possession the police department had all the information it needed to conclude Monson was a victim of those unconstitutional patterns and practices.” Id., at *9. He argued that the police had sufficient information for the City to conclude that he had a claim. Id. Monson thus insisted that the City should have known he was a creditor and provided him actual notice of its case. Id. He argued that his claims were not discharged because the City did not provide him with this notice. Id.

The District Court disagreed. At the time of the City’s bankruptcy filing, Monson’s claim against the City was foreseeable, but remained contingent on him overturning his conviction. Id., at *9-10. And “neither Monson nor his lawyers in the clinic ever provided anything to the City that amounted to a demand for payment or a communication concerning the existence of his future claim.” Id., at *9. Thus, Monson was an unknown creditor and publication notice sufficed. Id., at *9-10.

Though issued only recently, the Monson court’s analysis already has been followed by at least one other court. Burton v. Sanders, No. 20-11948, 2021 WL 168543, at *9 (E.D. Mich. Jan. 1, 2021).

2. The Plaintiffs’ brief interactions with the Detroit Police Department fail to constitute sufficient indication that the City should have been aware of their alleged claim.

The Plaintiffs claim that a handful of telephone calls to the Detroit Police Department and the release of Adam Shamoons’ firearms without having to sign papers should have put the City on notice that Plaintiffs had a claim against the City. Response, Ex. H (Decl. of Debra Metris Shamon), Doc. No. 13565-15, ¶¶ 9-10; Ex. G (Decl. of Adam Shamon), Doc. No. 13565-14, ¶ 6-10. They also argue for many pages in their Response that the City was aware of problems in its police department. Even if all of these statements are true (and the City does not concede that they are), they are essentially the same allegations rejected in Monson. Indeed, the strongest allegation leveled by the Plaintiffs to put the City on notice of their alleged claims is that they “threatened to retain an attorney.” Response, Ex. G (Decl. of Adam Shamoon), Doc. No. 13565-14, ¶ 9. This does not rise to the level of “either a demand for payment or some communication with a debtor concerning the existence of the creditor’s claim.” Monson, 2019 WL 1057306, at *9. The Plaintiffs thus were unknown creditors at the time of the City’s bankruptcy filing.

This Court entered an order directing and approving the manner of publication for the notice of the claims bar date.⁶ The Plaintiffs do not suggest that the City failed in any way to comply with this order. Thus, as unknown creditors, the Plaintiffs received sufficient notice of the claims bar date.

B. Plaintiffs’ claims were within their fair contemplation as of 2012 and thus were pre-petition claims.

1. This Court uses the “fair contemplation” test to determine when a claim arose.

This Court has adopted the fair contemplation test to decide when a contingent or unmaturing claim arises for bankruptcy purposes. Under the fair contemplation test, a claim arises pre-petition if the creditor “could have ascertained through the exercise of reasonable due diligence that it had a claim” at the time the petition was filed. In re City of Detroit, 548 B.R. 748, 763 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 2016) (quoting Signature Combs, Inc. v. United States, 253 F. Supp. 2d 1028, 1037 (W.D. Tenn. 2003)). A plaintiff need not know for certain that it has an actionable claim because “certainty is not the standard. The standard is whether the contingent claim was within [the plaintiff’s] fair contemplation.” Id. at 767. If events giving rise to an alleged claim occur pre-petition, and a claimant is aware of these events pre-petition, then the claim is within the claimant’s fair contemplation pre-petition, even if the claimant is not certain the claim is actionable until after the petition is filed. Id.

The Sixth Circuit recently stated that “[t]he statutory period [for a § 1983 claim] begins to run when the plaintiff knows or has reason to know that the act providing the basis of his or her injury has occurred.” Garza v. Lansing Sch. Dist., 972 F.3d 853, 867 n.8 (6th Cir. 2020) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted, emphasis added). The accrual date for a section 1983 claim is thus the date as of which a party could ascertain that it had a claim by exercising reasonable due diligence.

Three courts in this district have considered situations where a plaintiff was aware it had a claim against the City pre-petition but did not file a section 1983 claim against the City until after the petition date. In each case, the court concluded that the claim was within the plaintiff’s fair contemplation pre-petition. Burton, 2021

WL 168543, at *4; Monson, 2019 WL 1057306, at *8-9; Sanford v. City of Detroit, No. 17-13062, 2018 WL 6331342, at *5-6 (E.D. Mich. Dec. 4, 2018).

2. The Plaintiffs’ allegations and the District Court’s Opinion show that their alleged claims were within their fair contemplation pre-petition.

Here, the Plaintiffs do not dispute that the event giving rise to their alleged claims occurred on September 13, 2012; they acknowledge that on the first page of their Response brief. They explain in some detail how they contacted the Detroit Police Department several times over the following weeks. They were not motivated to investigate whether they might have a claim based on this event until 2015, however, when they saw media reports of other claimants attempting to pursue claims against the City. See Response, p. 3. Thus, they did not “exercise reasonable due diligence” until 2015, and want to use their delay as an excuse for why they did not contemplate that they had a claim until after the claims bar date had passed. This is not how the “fair contemplation” test works, though.

In fact, the District Court determined in its Opinion, attached as Exhibit 2 to the Motion, that the Plaintiffs were aware of their claim pre-petition: “Here, although the parties agree that the statute of limitations began to run on September 13, 2012, the date Plaintiffs became aware of the alleged constitutional violations, they disagree as to if, and for how long, the statute of limitations tolled.” Opinion, p. 13 (Motion Ex. 6-2, Doc. No. 13532-2, p. 14 of 52) (emphasis added). As noted previously, that means that September 13, 2012, is the date on which the Plaintiffs knew or had reason to know of their claims—i.e., the date as of which the claims were within the Plaintiffs’ fair contemplation. Garza, 972 F.3d at 867 n.8. The fact that they waited a few years before investigating their potential claim does not convert it to a post-petition claim. City of Detroit, 548 B.R. at 763-67. Their claims (to the extent they had any) were pre-petition claims and are now barred because the Plaintiffs did not file a proof of claim as required. Burton, 2021 WL 168543, at *4; Monson, 2019 WL 1057306, at *8-9; Sanford, 2018 WL 6331342, at *5-6.

C. The Plaintiffs’ discussion of equitable estoppel and laches are equally unavailing.

1. Equitable estoppel does not apply in this instance.

a. Equitable estoppel generally requires an affirmative assertion upon which a party relies to its detriment. It only applies to omissions where there is a duty to speak.

The doctrine of equitable estoppel requires:

- 1) conduct or language amounting to a representation of material facts; 2) the party to be estopped must be aware of the true facts; 3) the party to be estopped must intend that the representation be acted on or act such that the party asserting the estoppel has a right to believe it so intended; 4) the party asserting the estoppel must be unaware of the true facts; and 5) the party asserting the estoppel must detrimentally and justifiably rely on the representation.

Qassis v. Republic Bank (In re Luna Pier Land Dev., LLC), 325 B.R. 735, 739 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 2005) (quoting King v. Henderson, 2000 WL 1478360, at *5 (6th Cir. Sept. 27, 2000)).

It is possible, though difficult, to make an estoppel argument based on a party's failure to speak, rather than on an affirmative representation, but only "where there exists a duty to make factual disclosures." Louden v. Fed. Land Bank of Louisville (In re Louden), 106 B.R. 109, 112 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 1989). As the Sixth Circuit explained,

[b]efore there can be an estoppel by mere silence, facts must be alleged and proved showing a duty and opportunity to speak; that the party to be estopped knew or had reason to believe, that the holder of the obligation would rely on the silence of the party to be estopped, and did rely on his silence, and was injured thereby.

C. I. T. Corp. v. Janis, 418 F.2d 960, 982–83 (6th Cir. 1969).

b. Under binding Sixth Circuit case law, debtors are not obligated to raise discharge as a defense.

Debtors have no duty to raise their discharge as a defense in any civil action, thanks to the Bankruptcy Code.

Section 524(a)(1) and (2) apply in chapter 9 bankruptcy cases. 11 U.S.C. § 901(a). Section 524(a)(2) states that a discharge "operates as an injunction against the commencement . . . of an action . . . to collect . . . any [debt discharged under section 944]" The Sixth Circuit has explained what this means.

The concern of the drafters of § 524 was that a creditor whose debt was discharged would bring suit "in a local court after the granting of the discharge, and if the debtor failed to plead the discharge affirmatively, the defense was deemed waived and an enforceable judgment could then be taken against him or her." To avoid such abuses:

[S]ection 524(a) declares that any judgment on a discharged debt in any forum other than the bankruptcy court is null and void as it affects the personal liability of the debtor.... Accordingly, if a creditor brings a collection suit after discharge, and obtains a judgment against the debtor, the judgment is rendered null and void by section 524(a). The purpose of the provision is to make it absolutely unnecessary for the debtor to do anything at all in the collection action.

Hamilton v. Herr (In re Hamilton), 540 F.3d 367, 372-73 (6th Cir. 2008) (quoting 4 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 524.LH [1], at 524–61 (Sept.2005) (Lawrence P. King ed., 15th ed. rev.)). For this reason, “a debtor need not raise his discharge in bankruptcy as an affirmative defense, because thanks to § 524(a) ‘such an affirmative defense is unnecessary and has been since 1970.’” Id. at 373 (citation omitted).

In addition to section 524, the Plan includes a similar injunction, as discussed on pages 4 and 5 of the Motion. Plan, Art. III.D.5, pp. 50-51. Even if a creditor feels that a discharge injunction is erroneously entered as applied to it, it still must comply with the injunction until it seeks and obtains relief from the injunction. See, e.g., Kravis, Gass & Weber, S.C. v. Michel (In re Crivello), 134 F.3d 831, 838 (7th Cir. 1998) (citing United States v. United Mine Workers, 330 U.S. 258, 293 (1947)). It cannot violate the injunction, then complain that the debtor failed to object to its violation of a court order. See Hamilton, 540 F.3d at 372-73.

- c. The Plaintiffs point to no affirmative representation upon which to base their estoppel argument. Instead, they rely on the City’s delay in asserting its discharge as a defense. Under Sixth Circuit law, they cannot use that delay to justify their violation of both section 524 and the Plan injunction.

The Plaintiffs identify no plausible basis for their estoppel claim. They do not identify any City representation upon which they could have relied. They also do not claim that they were unaware of the City’s bankruptcy case as of the date they filed their lawsuit. Response, Ex. H., Declaration of Debra Metris-Shamoon, ¶ 14. As such, they cannot claim that they were “unaware of the true facts.” Luna Pier Land Dev., 325 B.R. at 739. Instead, they essentially argue that they have gotten away with violating the discharge injunction for a while, and thus should be permitted to continue getting away with it. But, the City was never obligated to raise discharge as a defense. Hamilton, 540 F.3d at 372-73. Thus, the City’s delay in doing so cannot constitute an “omission” for equitable estoppel, and the Plaintiff’s attempt to assert equitable estoppel fails. C. I. T. Corp., 418 at 982–83.

- 2. Because a debtor is never required to raise the discharge injunction as a defense, laches does not apply. But, even if laches were applicable, it would not help the Plaintiffs here.

- a. The first step in evaluating a laches is to determine whether it applies. It does not apply here.

“Laches is the negligent and unintentional failure to protect one’s rights.” Kehoe Component Sales, Inc. v. Best Lighting Prods., Inc., 796 F.3d 576, 584 (6th Cir. 2015) (quoting Nartron Corp. v. STMicroelectronics, Inc., 305 F.3d 397, 408

(6th Cir. 2002)). Application of laches is often left to the discretion of the trial court, though there are circumstances in which it will not apply at all. See Chirco v. Crosswinds Cmtys., Inc., 474 F.3d 227, 231 (6th Cir. 2007). For example, laches usually cannot circumvent a legislature’s judgment to shorten a statute of limitations. Id. at 231-33. Here, both the discharge injunction in the Plan and 11 U.S.C. § 524(a) prevent the invocation of laches because the City cannot be “late” in asserting a defense that it is not obligated to assert in the first instance. Hamilton, 540 F.3d at 372-73. In other words, because a debtor never needs to raise “discharge” as a defense, a debtor cannot “negligently” fail to protect its rights by not asserting its discharge.

By 2015, before they filed suit, the Plaintiffs were well aware of the City’s bankruptcy case. Response, Ex. H., Declaration of Debra Metris-Shamoon, ¶ 14. Knowing of the City’s bankruptcy, they sued anyway. The City was not obligated to raise discharge as a defense. Hamilton, 540 F.3d at 372-73. The Plaintiffs cannot now complain that they wasted their time and efforts pursuing the City in violation of the discharge injunction. Laches simply does not apply.

b. Even if laches could apply to a debtor’s failure to raise “discharge” as a defense, it would not avail the Plaintiffs here as their position is unchanged.

Even if laches were applicable, it requires more than delay. The delay must work some disadvantage to a party, such as the entry of (and reliance on) court orders or reliance on the validity of a sale of property. In re Ottoman, 621 B.R. 768, 791-92 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 2020). A delay that does not change the relative positions of the parties or convey an unfair advantage to a party will not support the application of laches. NLRB v. Taylor Mach. Prods., Inc., 136 F.3d 507, 514 (6th Cir. 1998).

Here, the Plaintiffs do not and cannot point to any change in their relative position. They are still in the same position as they were before—barred from pursuing their claim by their failure to file a proof of claim and by the discharge injunction. The Plaintiffs’ only complaint is that they incurred expenses as they litigated their case in violation of the City’s discharge, which they should not have been doing in the first place. This is insufficient to invoke laches; if all it took was persistence and a debtor’s lapse to break through a discharge injunction, then a discharge injunction (and section 524) would be of little protection.

c. Laches does not help the Plaintiffs because the City’s delay in raising discharge was not unreasonable and the City pursued other valid arguments in the interim.

Further, as an equitable doctrine, laches requires a showing that a party failed to act diligently. If a party errs but corrects that error promptly, it argues against application of laches. See Luna Pier Land Dev., 325 B.R. at 740. Likewise, if the party trying to assert laches acted itself improperly, it cannot seek to apply laches. Id. at 740-41.

Here, the City's previous counsel did not raise discharge as a defense even as it pursued other defenses to Plaintiffs' claims. When the City's previous counsel withdrew from this case in December of 2021,⁷ the City of Detroit's Law Department reviewed the matter and noticed that Plaintiff's claims arose prepetition. In her next filing, counsel rectified the error by raising the issue to the District Court and referring the matter to undersigned counsel,⁸ asking undersigned counsel to file the Motion. In contrast, the Plaintiffs sued the City post-petition, fully aware of the City's bankruptcy case, and in violation of both the Bankruptcy Code and the Plan discharge injunction. The City submits that, even were laches to apply (and the City contends it does not), then Plaintiffs have not shown that it should be applied under these circumstances. Luna Pier Land Dev., 325 B.R. at 740-41.

⁷ See Stipulated Order of Substitution of Counsel, Case No. 18-13683, Doc. No. 151, entered Dec. 7, 2021 (substituting Crystal Olmstead of the City of Detroit Legal Department for Crystal B. Olmstead in replacement of attorneys James M. Surwicz, Lindsey R. Johnson, and James P. Allen, Sr.).

⁸ See Joint Factual and Procedural Summary, Case No. 18-13683, Doc. No. 156, filed Mar. 30, 2022, p. 6, stating Defendant claims the Plaintiffs' claims are barred by bankruptcy. The incident that is the subject of this lawsuit occurred in 2012. The City of Detroit filed for bankruptcy in 2013. The Plaintiffs did not file a claim in bankruptcy court; as such their claims are barred. Further, even if their claims were not barred, the recovery is limited based on the bankruptcy order. The City has referred this matter to its bankruptcy counsel for review.

IV. Conclusion

For all of these reasons, the Court should grant the City's Motion and such further relief as it deems appropriate.

Case No. 13-53846

CITY OF DETROIT, MICHIGAN,

Chapter 9

Debtor.

Judge Thomas J. Tucker

OPINION REGARDING THE CITY OF DETROIT’S MOTION FOR THE ENTRY OF AN ORDER ENFORCING THE BAR DATE ORDER AND CONFIRMATION ORDER
AGAINST DEBRA METRIS-SHAMOON, ET AL. (DOCKET # 13532)

This case is before the Court on the motion by the City of Detroit (the “City”), entitled “City of Detroit’s Motion for the Entry of an Order Enforcing the Bar Date Order and Confirmation Order Against Debra Metris-Shamoon, Mukhlis Shamoon, Carl Veres, Paul Metris and Julia Metris” (Docket # 13532, the “Motion”). As suggested by its title, the Motion seeks relief against the following individuals: Debra Metris-Shamoon, Mukhlis Shamoon, Carl Veres, Paul Metris and Julia Metris (collectively, the “Respondents”). The City seeks injunctive and declaratory relief to prevent the Respondents from continuing to prosecute claims against the City that were discharged in this bankruptcy case.

The Respondents objected to the Motion, and argue that their claims were not discharged. The Court held a telephonic hearing on the Motion on August 24, 2022, then took the Motion under advisement. For the following reasons, the Court will grant the Motion.

The Court has reviewed and carefully considered all of the papers filed by the City and the Respondents concerning the Motion,¹ and all of the written and oral arguments of the parties. The Court finds and concludes as follows.

1. Each of the Respondents joined in filing and prosecuting claims against the City in the case of Debra Metris-Shamoon, et al. v. City of Detroit, et al., Case No. 18-cv-13683 (United States District Court, E.D. Michigan) (the “District Court Case”), including the most recent statement of their claims, contained in their Second Amended Complaint filed on July 8, 2021 (the “Second Amended Complaint”).²

2. Each of the Respondents’ claims against the City arose several months before the City filed its petition commencing this Chapter 9 bankruptcy case on July 18, 2013. All of the events forming the basis of the Respondents’ claims occurred on September 13, 2012. The claims arose on that date, when officers of the Detroit Police Department conducted what the Respondents have called an “unlawful raid” on the home of two of the Respondents in Shelby Township, Michigan, and seized certain property.³ In their Second Amended Complaint, the Respondents alleged the following about the events of September 13, 2012:

9. In September 2012, Plaintiffs Deborah Metris-Shamoon and Mukhlis Shamoon were the lawful and licensed operator of a marijuana grow facility located at their residence in Shelby Township, Michigan.

10. On or about September 13, 2012, Defendants, acting under color of law and as officers of Defendant City of Detroit’s Narcotics Unit, conducted an unlawful raid of Plaintiffs’ home in Shelby Township, Michigan. The raid was supervised by, among others, Sgt. Joe Tucker⁴ of the Detroit Police Department.

11. Officers gained entry into Plaintiffs’ residence via forced entry with at least one of the officers' weapons drawn.

² A copy of the Second Amended Complaint appears as Exhibit 6-3 to the Motion (Docket # 13532-2).

⁴ Sgt. Joe Tucker is no relation to the undersigned judge.

12. The Officers purposefully concealed their identities during the raid and neither knocked or announced their presence before making a forced entry into Plaintiffs' home.

13. At no time during the raid did any of the officers show or present to Plaintiffs a lawfully issued search warrant.

14. During the raid, the officers destroyed Plaintiffs' home. Plaintiffs were unlawfully searched and seized within the meaning of the fourth amendment during the raid.

15. For an unknown duration of time, the officers extensively tore apart Plaintiffs' property and removed, without lawful authority, marijuana plants and other related legitimate and lawful by-products of Plaintiffs' business.

16. The officers had no probable cause to seize and/or arrest Plaintiffs nor were Plaintiffs ever shown a search or arrest warrant.

17. The officers also confiscated, without lawful authority, an Armsport 12-gauge shotgun, a BSA 9mm handgun, a Winchester Wildcat .22 Rifle, a BSR .45 Caliber Colt handgun, and money totaling $315.00 from Plaintiffs' residence.

18. At no time were Plaintiffs ever given a copy of any search warrant or a list of items that were unlawfully seized from their property.

19. Plaintiffs were eventually released by Defendants and never charged with any violations of law.

20. During the raid, Plaintiff Mukhlis Shamoan was placed in handcuffs which the officers left on him after leaving the property such that Mukhlis was forced to wear the handcuffs for approximately ten hours.

21. Following the raid, Defendants produced a search warrant and affidavit sworn out by Defendant Geelhood in which Defendant falsely swore to facts in an attempt to manufacture probable cause.

22. In particular, Defendant Geelhood falsely swore to having conducted surveillance of the Plaintiffs' home and having witnessed illegal drug transactions at Plaintiffs' residence.

23. Defendant Geelhood also falsely swore to having relied on a confidential informant to establish probable cause.⁵

3. Under what is known as the “fair contemplation” test, all of the Respondents’ claims against the City arose pre-petition — i.e., before July 18, 2013 — because before that date, the Respondents “‘could have ascertained through the exercise of reasonable due diligence that [they] had a claim’” against the City, based on the events of September 13, 2012. See In re City of Detroit, Michigan, 548 B.R. 748, 763 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 2016) (citation omitted).⁶

4. In addition, the Respondents each admitted and agreed, in the District Court Case, that their claims against the City, which are brought under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, accrued for statute of limitations purposes on September 13, 2012, because that is “the date [the Respondents] became aware of the alleged constitutional violations.”⁷

5. When the City filed its bankruptcy petition on July 18, 2013, and from that date until well after the December 10, 2014 Effective Date of the City’s confirmed plan of adjustment (the “Relevant Time”), each of the Respondents was an “unknown creditor” of the City, rather than a “known creditor,” as those concepts are defined in cases such as Chemetron Corp. v. Jones, 72

⁵ Second Amended Complaint at ¶¶ 9-23.

⁶ The “fair contemplation” test “looks at whether there was a pre-petition relationship between the debtor and the creditor, ‘such as contract, exposure, impact or privity,’ such that a possible claim is within the fair contemplation of the creditor at the time the petition is filed. . . . Under this test, a claim is considered to have arisen pre-petition if the creditor ‘could have ascertained through the exercise of reasonable due diligence that it had a claim’ at the time the petition is filed.” Id. (citations omitted).

⁷ See Ex. 6-2 to Respondents’ Resp. (Docket # 13532-2) at 13 (district court opinion, filed in the District Court Case on June 25, 2021).

F.3d 341, 345-46 (3d Cir. 1995) and Monson v. City of Detroit, Case No. 18-10638, 2019 WL 1057306, at *9-10 (E.D. Mich. Mar. 6, 2019). As unknown creditors, the Respondents validly could be, and were, given adequate notice of the City’s bankruptcy case by publication only.⁸ As a result, each of the Respondents had adequate notice of the City’s bankruptcy case, beginning shortly after it was filed on July 18, 2013.

6. The Respondents were “unknown creditors” of the City during the Relevant Time because during that time, the Respondents’ claims against the City were not “readily ascertainable” by the City. The Court agrees with the following statements of law by the court in Monson, including its statement of what “readily ascertainable” means in this context:

Bankruptcy law distinguishes between known and unknown creditors. Unknown creditors may be notified by publication; but known creditors are entitled to actual notice. Known creditors are those whose claims or identities are “readily ascertainable” by the debtor. Readily ascertainable means a debtor, through “reasonably diligent efforts” could discover a creditor’s claim. “Reasonably diligent efforts” does not require “impracticable and extended searches . . . in the name of due process.” Rather, a debtor must home in on its “own books and records.” Typically, that means the debtor has something in its possession, either a “demand for payment” or “some communication with a debtor concerning the existence of the creditor’s claim.”

Monson, 2019 WL 1057306, at *9 (citations omitted).

7. The Respondents have not presented or alleged any facts that could permit the Court to find that their claims against the City were “readily ascertainable” by the City during the

⁸ The Respondents do not dispute that the notices by publication in this bankruptcy case were adequate, as to unknown creditors.

Relevant Time. For example, there is no evidence that at any time before April 23, 2015,⁹ any of the Respondents communicated any demand for payment to the City or communicated to the City the existence of a claim against the City. None of the phone calls to the Detroit Police Department that allegedly were made by Respondent Debra Metris-Shamoon and her son, Adam Shamoon,¹⁰ described in their Declarations,¹¹ constituted a demand for payment on any claim or a communication of the existence of a claim against the City.¹² Nor is there any evidence that at any time before April 23, 2015, the City's books and records indicated that any of the Respondents had or alleged any claims against the City.

8. All of the Respondents' claims against the City were discharged, under the discharge provisions in the City's confirmed plan of adjustment, on that plan's Effective Date of December 10, 2014. See Order Confirming Eighth Amended Plan for the Adjustment of Debts of the City

⁹ April 23, 2015 is the date of a letter mailed by the Respondents' attorney to the City's Legal Department, requesting documents for the putative class action of Davis v. City of Detroit, Case No. 15-10547 (E.D. Mich.). See Ex. D to Respondents' Resp. (Docket # 13565-11). During the hearing on the Motion, the Respondents' attorney identified the sending of this letter and its enclosure as the first time that the City was made aware that any of the Respondents were putative class members in the Davis case. (Ultimately, the Davis case was not certified as a class action, and was settled.) The Respondents filed their own action against the City and others — the District Court Case — on November 26, 2018.

¹⁰ Adam Shamoon is not one of the Respondents, and did not join as a plaintiff in the District Court Case. He was not present when the September 13, 2012 raid occurred. Four guns belonging to Adam Shamoon were seized in the raid, but they were later returned to him.

¹¹ Exs. G and H to the Respondents' Resp. (Docket ## 13565-14 and 13565-15).

¹² The allegations about these phone calls can fairly be summarized as follows. First, Adam Shamoon says that in the days and weeks soon after the raid, he called the police department three times, during which he asked why his parents' house was raided, and to seek the return of his four guns that had been seized. He was given no information or explanation about the raid, but he was permitted to pick up his guns. (See Ex. G to the Respondents' Resp. (Docket # 13565-14). Second, Debra Metris-Shamoon says that she called the police department twice, asking why the police had raided her home and demanding to see a warrant. She received no explanation. (See Ex. H to the Respondents' Resp. (Docket # 13565-15).

of Detroit, filed November 12, 2014 (Docket # 8272, the “OCP”) at 87-88; Eighth Amended Plan for the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit (Docket # 8045, copy attached to OCP at Docket # 8272 (App. I), the “Plan”) at 50, Article III.D.4.¹³

9. Under the injunction provisions in the OCP and in the confirmed Plan, all of the Respondents are barred and enjoined from pursuing any of their discharged claims against the City, in the District Court Case or otherwise. See OCP at 89-91; Plan at 50-51, Article III.D.5.

10. Under the Court’s November 21, 2013 Order, cited by the City’s Motion as the “Bar Date Order” (Docket # 1782), the deadline for filing a proof of claim in this bankruptcy case was February 21, 2014. It is undisputed that none of the Respondents ever filed a proof of claim in this bankruptcy case.

11. Under ¶ 22 of the Bar Date Order, the Respondents are barred from receiving any distributions in this bankruptcy case, and the Respondents are “forever barred, estopped and enjoined from . . . asserting any claim against the City or property of the City[.]” See Bar Date Order at 14-15, ¶ 22.

12. The Respondents argue that the doctrines of equitable estoppel and laches preclude the City from seeking the relief it now seeks. These arguments are based on the City’s delay in seeking the relief it now seeks, and the City’s delay in raising the bankruptcy discharge in any way as a defense in the District Court Case. While the City has not adequately explained the reason(s) for its delay, the Court cannot apply either equitable estoppel or laches to bar the City's relief. Neither of these doctrines can be used to deprive the City of the benefit of its bankruptcy discharge.

13. Even if the City had delayed raising the bankruptcy discharge until after suffering an adverse judgment on the Respondents' claims in the District Court Case, the City could not be deprived of the benefit of the bankruptcy discharge. Any such adverse judgment would be deemed "void ab initio" under binding case law in the Sixth Circuit. See Hamilton v. Herr (In re Hamilton), 540 F.3d 367, 373-76 (6th Cir. 2008). Under Hamilton, a debtor who is faced with a lawsuit asserting a claim that was discharged in bankruptcy has no duty to do anything. Based on 11 U.S.C. §§ 524(a)(1) and 524(a)(2),¹⁴ the court in Hamilton held that it is "absolutely unnecessary for the debtor to do anything at all in [such an] action." Id. at 373 (quoting 4 Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 524.LH[1] at 524-57 (Sept. 2005) (Lawrence P. King ed., 15th ed. rev.)). "[A]ny judgment on a discharged debt in any forum other than the bankruptcy court is . . . rendered null and void by section 524(a)." Id.

¹⁴ Sections 524(a)(1) and 524(a)(2) apply in Chapter 9 cases. See 11 U.S.C. § 901(a). Those provisions in § 524(a) state:

(a) A discharge in a case under this title—

(1) voids any judgment at any time obtained, to the extent that such judgment is a determination of the personal liability of the debtor with respect to any debt discharged under section 727, 944, 1141, 1192, 1228, or 1328 of this title, whether or not discharge of such debt is waived; [and]

(2) operates as an injunction against the commencement or continuation of an action, the employment of process, or an act, to collect, recover or offset any such debt as a personal liability of the debtor, whether or not discharge of such debt is waived[.]

14. It follows that the City's delay in seeking the relief it now seeks cannot be used to deny such relief, under equitable doctrines like equitable estoppel and laches, or otherwise.

For the reasons stated in this Opinion, the City's Motion must be granted. The Court will enter a separate Order granting the City the relief it seeks.

2 THE COURT CLERK: Please rise. This Court is back
3 in session.

4 You may be seated.

5 Court will call the matter of the City of Detroit,
6 Michigan, case number 13-53846.

7 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon to each of 8 you. Would you enter your appearances for the record,
9 please, starting with counsel for the City?

10 MR. SWANSON: Thank you, Your Honor. Marc Swanson
11 on behalf of the City of Detroit.

12 MR. HARRINGTON: Good afternoon, Your Honor.
13 James J. Harrington on behalf of the Plaintiffs Ricks.

14 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon again,
15 everyone. This is the hearing, as you know, on the City of 16 Detroit's motion seeking relief against Desmond Ricks et al., 17 motion for entry of an order enforcing the bar date order and 18 confirmation order, et cetera.

19 I have reviewed the papers filed by the parties
20 regarding this -- relating to this motion. I have also done
21 some review of the record of the U.S. District Court in the 22 lawsuit that's pending over in District Court, which is 23 referred to and discussed in the motion and related papers.

24 So, Mr. Swanson, let me hear from you first.

25 MR. SWANSON: Good afternoon. Plaintiff Desmond

1 Ricks is suing the City on account of a claim which arises
2 from alleged unlawful events in 1992, and an alleged unlawful
3 conviction in 1992. The claims against the City are, in 4 Plaintiff's own words, based on the City's alleged policies
5 that were in effect, quote, "In and before March 5, 1992."
6 Reading from paragraph 81 of the complaint.

7 The claim is further based on alleged unlawful and
8 unconstitutional actions taken by the City's police officers
9 in 1992. It's undisputed that the alleged unlawful
10 conviction was in 1992, the actions by the City's police
11 officers were in 1992, and the City's alleged unlawful 12 policies were those in place in 1992, and the City didn't
13 file for bankruptcy until 2013, 21 years later. Yet,
14 Plaintiff claims that its claim is not barred by the City's
15 bankruptcy case and didn't arise until 2017.

16 And why does Plaintiff make this assertion? Well,
17 Plaintiff asserts that the proper test for the Court to 18 determine when the claim arose is the right to payment test.
19 That is the leading argument on page 1 of the Plaintiff's
20 objection to the City's motion.

21 As this Court knows, and as this Court has wrote
22 about, that test holds that a bankruptcy claim does not 23 accrue until the cause of action is ripe under non-24 bankruptcy law. So under applicable federal law or 25 applicable state law.

1 This Court, however, rejected that test in an
2 opinion that's cited in the City's reply filed on Friday.
3 And instead of the right to payment test, the Court adopted
4 the fair contemplation test.

5 And under that test, a claim is considered to have
6 arisen pre-petition if the creditor could have ascertained
7 through the exercise of reasonable due diligence that it had
8 a claim at the time the petition is filed.

9 And as this Court wrote, this test allows the 10 Court to examine all the circumstances surrounding a
11 particular claim: The Debtor's conduct, the parties' pre-
12 petition relationship, the parties' knowledge, the elements
13 of the underlying claim, and use its best judgment to 14 determine what is fair to the parties in context.

15 Now, attached as exhibit 17 to the City's reply
16 was a very recent District Court decision in the case Sanford
17 v. City of Detroit. That case has many factual similarities
18 to the case here today. It's an alleged unlawful conviction
19 case. The alleged unlawful conviction occurred before the 20 City filed for bankruptcy. The conviction was not overturned
21 until after the City exited from bankruptcy.

22 And the plaintiff in that case, Sanford, asserted
23 that the City's alleged customs, policies, and practices,
24 resulted in his unlawful conviction. And that's the same
25 type of claim that the Plaintiff here is making against the

1 City.

2 And Sanford advanced the exact same argument that
3 the Plaintiff here is making to support its argument that the 4 claim is not subject to the Plan. And that's the argument
5 that the pre-petition conviction was not overturned until 6 after the City exited bankruptcy, and, thus, the cause of 7 action was not ripe under non-bankruptcy law until after the 8 City exited bankruptcy, and, thus, it was not subject to the 9 City's Plan.

10 The Federal District Court rejected that argument,
11 and stating that Mr. Sanford certainly contemplated the 12 factual bases underlying the claims raised in his complaint
13 since he attempted repeatedly to argue actual innocence
14 before the State Court since at least 2008, insisting that 15 his confessions were falsely obtained, concocted, and 16 coerced.

17 Sanford correctly points out that he could not
18 have sued the City until his convictions were set aside,
19 which did not happen until after the bankruptcy.

20 But the courts that have considered the question
21 uniformly have concluded that claims based on pre-petition
22 malicious prosecutions were barred, notwithstanding that the
23 Plaintiff could not file suit on his claims until his
24 criminal conviction was overturned. The case is on all fours
25 with the facts here.

1 And despite this Court's adoption of the fair
2 contemplation --

3 THE COURT: There's actually an even more recent 4 case from the District Court similar to this case and similar
5 to Sanford, which maybe you're familiar with. I happened to 6 cross it recently. It was decided March 6, 2019. It's 7 called Monson, M-O-N-S-O-N, versus City of Detroit, et al.
8 It's 2019 Westlaw 1057306, 1057306.

9 MR. SWANSON: Wow.

10 THE COURT: A decision by Judge Michelson, very 11 similar to Sanford, and same result as Sanford. I happened
12 to cross it when I was looking for something else.

13 And so there's two District Judges in two 14 different cases, the District Court for this District, that 15 have ruled the way you've described as characterized as 16 Sanford and as you want the Court to rule in this matter.

17 And so I want to make both parties aware of that 18 case, that Monson case. Were you aware of that?

19 MR. SWANSON: I had run across it, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Well, so those are two cases
21 where the City defended an action brought against it in 22 District Court and raised the argument that you're raising in 23 this Court now on this motion in the District Court as a
24 defense and let the District Court decide the issue.

25 Why didn't the City let the District Court -- or

1 why isn't the City leaving it to the District Court in this
2 case, in the Ricks case, to decide the issues raised by this
3 motion?

4 MR. SWANSON: Your Honor, I apologize. I don't
5 have a great answer for you. I was told by the City that 6 this claim had been asserted in the District Court and to 7 file a motion with you. I never had any discussion about 8 filing a motion in the --

9 THE COURT: Well, let me ask you this: Do you
10 know why the City waited until January 30, 2019, to file this
11 motion in this Court when the case, the District Court case
12 against it by the Ricks, the Ricks parties, was filed back in 13 August 2017? A year and a half or so, the City waited to 14 seek relief from this Court. Do you know why that is?

15 MR. SWANSON: I don't know why that is.

16 THE COURT: The City, I noticed in looking at the 17 District Court record, the pending case, the Ricks case in 18 the District Court, the City filed a motion for summary --
19 the City and all Defendants filed a motion for summary
20 judgment in that case. I'm sure you're familiar, as is your 21 opposing counsel, with that.

22 And in that motion -- and that was that, that was 23 filed on -- the City's motion was filed on February 6th, and 24 it raised a whole bunch of arguments, but one of the 25 arguments it raised was, the City of Detroit raised the same

1 argument that you're making in this current motion in its
2 summary judgment motion filed in the District Court.

3 And I did see that, and I did see the response to 4 that that was filed on March 6, 2019, by the Plaintiffs, the 5 Ricks plaintiffs, to that motion.

6 Now, in that response, the Ricks Plaintiffs argue
7 the fair contemplation test and they argue that they should 8 prevail on that fair contemplation test. They make their 9 arguments there, and that's in a brief that they filed on 10 March 6, 2019, docket number 99 in the District Court case,
11 case number 17-12784.

12 So they made that argument about the fair
13 contemplation test on March 6th. And that, of course, was 14 before your reply brief was filed in this case pointing out
15 the fair contemplation test, so forth, on March 15.

16 So we've got this issue, or these issues, being 17 raised simultaneously, essentially, in both cases, this 18 bankruptcy case and the District Court case. Why shouldn't I
19 leave it to the District Court to decide this issue, as was 20 done in the Monson case and in the Sanford case, as those 21 Courts decided?

22 MR. SWANSON: Well, Your Honor, this Court has, of 23 course, jurisdiction over the Plan, can enforce the Plan, has 24 jurisdiction over the bar date order, and the City's moving
25 and asking for relief in this Court. I don't -- I don't --

1 THE COURT: Now, the District Court is aware that
2 you are doing this, I see from the District Court papers. I
3 saw there was a motion for extension of time, and the 4 District Court recently denied that motion.

5 And then in the course of that motion, and the 6 papers filed in that motion, and the District Court's ruling
7 on that motion, it's clear the District Court is aware the 8 City is making this same argument in this case, in this
9 bankruptcy case. And just didn't really say that this Court
10 shouldn't do that or, should or shouldn't do that, but just 11 basically noted it.

12 So it's just, you know, perhaps the City had a 13 deadline, I assume they had a deadline to file any summary
14 judgment motion in the Ricks case in District Court that they 15 had to meet, and I can understand that.

16 And when you file a motion for summary judgment,
17 you want to put in all your arguments. But by the time the 18 City filed its summary judgment motion in the District Court
19 case, you had already made the motion in this case.

20 MR. SWANSON: Yeah. And I checked before I came 21 here today. I believe the deadline for the City to file its 22 summary judgment motion in the District Court case was 23 February 6th, and I believe that it filed its motion --

24 THE COURT: And you filed it on the deadline?

25 MR. SWANSON: Not me.

1 THE COURT: Yeah.

2 MR. SWANSON: Yeah.

3 THE COURT: Right. The City Law Department.

4 MR. SWANSON: City Law Department filed it on
5 February 6th. And I saw that motion. I saw -- I did check
6 the docket last week. I saw that it had not been ruled on by 7 the District Court. I wasn't aware that the City --

8 THE COURT: It looks like there's a deadline --
9 the briefing isn't done yet. I think there's a deadline of 10 March 27th for reply briefs to be filed in connection with 11 those motions --

12 MR. SWANSON: Sure.

13 THE COURT: -- in the District Court. So it will 14 be sometime after that, presumably, before the District Court
15 makes any ruling on those motions.

16 But you want this court to go ahead and rule,
17 presumably, now, today, on your motion, and in your favor, as 18 a means, in your view, of what would shortcut and make 19 necessary the District Court ruling on this issue in the 20 District Court case.

21 MR. SWANSON: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Are there other cases like this
23 floating around out there in District Court where this same
24 issue is at play?

25 MR. SWANSON: Not that I'm aware of.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Well, so perhaps you saw and
2 reviewed the summary judgment brief filed by the Ricks
3 Plaintiffs in the District Court. That is the brief in which
4 they filed on March 6th in which they argued fair
5 contemplation. That is that Ricks' claim was not within his 6 fair contemplation at the time the bankruptcy petition was 7 filed in the City's bankruptcy case. Did you read that
8 brief?

9 MR. SWANSON: I may have glanced at it, but I
10 don't --

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MR. SWANSON: I did not look at it in any detail.

13 THE COURT: Well, it's only a couple --

14 MR. SWANSON: Yeah.

15 THE COURT: It's a couple pages long.

16 MR. SWANSON: Yeah.

17 THE COURT: But we'll hear, presumably, the same
18 kind of arguments, the same arguments, and maybe other
19 arguments, here from Mr. Harrington on that subject.

20 But, you know, in your opening motion and in the 21 response filed by the Ricks Plaintiffs to your motion, nobody
22 argues anything about the fair contemplation test. Nobody
23 says a word about it. It only gets discussed, you know,
24 application of it and what the test means and requires and 25 everything else, in your reply, right? In this case.

1 MR. SWANSON: That's true.

2 THE COURT: Okay. So my only clue at the moment
3 about what the Ricks Plaintiffs are going to argue about fair
4 contemplation is in what they filed in the District Court
5 case that I've just alluded to.

6 So I did read your reply brief, of course, and I
7 looked at the exhibits you attached to that in support of 8 your argument that Mr. Ricks was claiming innocence and 9 claiming all the facts that he needed to know as claims of 10 innocence and wrongful imprisonment and everything else long
11 before the City filed its bankruptcy petition in 2013. I did
12 review those exhibits.

13 Do you want to say anything about those things or 14 that subject further before we hear from Mr. Harrington?

15 MR. SWANSON: Yes, Your Honor. I'd like to go
16 through the exhibits, because I think they certainly go to 17 Mr. Ricks fairly contemplating that he had a claim against 18 the City prior to the City's bankruptcy filing.

19 The first exhibit here is a deposition transcript
20 from Mr. Ricks on May 21, 2018. The portions that were 21 excerpted from the deposition, however, talk about events in 22 Mr. Ricks' own words which occurred in 2009. So Mr. Ricks
23 describes in 2009 that he saw -- this is in Exhibit 1. He 24 saw an ad in the Bar Journal with the name of the expert
25 witness he used on the ballistic issue in 2009. A gentleman

1 by the name of David G. Townsend. And the ad is at Page 32
2 of 108 at Docket 13021.

3 And Mr. Ricks describes in 2009 his efforts to 4 contact Mr. Townsend because he believed that he had been
5 wrongfully convicted and he believed that the ballistics test
6 was a factor in that wrongful conviction.

7 The next exhibit, Your Honor, is a letter from the 8 state appellate defender officer dated August 6th, 2009. And 9 they write to Mr. Ricks --

10 THE COURT: That's exhibit 2, right?

11 MR. SWANSON: That's exhibit 2.

12 THE COURT: Yeah.

13 MR. SWANSON: I write in response to your letters
14 regarding the Detroit Crime Lab. The State Appellate
15 Defender Office is undertaking a complete review of our Wayne
16 County clients to determine whether tainted evidence from the 17 Detroit Crime Lab resulted in your -- resulted in conviction.

18 Again, it would certainly appear here Mr. Ricks
19 had made a claim to the State Appellate Defender Officer -- 20 Office that a tainted crime lab played a -- played a role in 21 his conviction.

22 Exhibit number 3, Your Honor, is another letter
23 dated February 11, 2010 from the same sender, the State
24 Appellate Defender Office, which writes to Mr. Ricks: "You
25 have expressed interest in having our office review your case

1 for potential Detroit Crime Lab issues." Again, Mr. Ricks is
2 asserting that some malfeasance with the Detroit Crime Lab
3 resulted in his conviction.

4 Exhibit 4, Your Honor, dovetails with Exhibit 1.
5 This is a letter from David Townsend, the expert Mr. Ricks
6 used in his 1992 trial and ultimate conviction, writing to 7 Mr. Ricks that he was going to the prison to try to visit Mr.
8 Ricks but couldn't get there.

9 Exhibit 5, Your Honor, is a email dated June 22,
10 2011 and June 23, 2011. The bottom email is from a lady
11 named Claudia Whitman, and Ms. Whitman was a investigator who 12 was working on Mr. Ricks' behalf. Her official title, I
13 believe, is Director of National Capital Crime Assistance
14 Network, and she is writing here to a U.S. attorney about 15 contacting the University of Michigan Innocence Clinic to 16 work on Mr. Ricks' claim. And this is in 2011.

17 Exhibit 6 is correspondence between the lady, Ms.
18 Whitman, that I just identified, and another man named 19 Roberto Guzman, who is a Senior Legal Assistant at the 20 People's Task Force to Free the Wrongfully Convicted, again
21 another individual that was working on Mr. Ricks' case,
22 talking about sending him, to Mr. Ricks, a letter regarding 23 some ballistic testing to the prison where Mr. Ricks was 24 incarcerated and that material not getting through to Mr.
25 Ricks.

1 Exhibit 7, again, some correspondence between Mr.
2 Guzman, the assistant at the People Task Force to Free the
3 Wrongfully Convicted, and Claudia Whitman, the investigator,
4 discussing efforts to contact some of the original agents who
5 made Mr. Ricks' arrest in 1992.

6 Exhibit 8 is a letter dated February 1, 2012, from 7 Mr. Ricks to the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearm. He 8 states quite clearly in the second paragraph on Page 1: "I
9 have been incarcerated for the past 20 years for a crime that 10 I did not commit, but recently, I've been blessed to have the 11 assistance of Ms. Claudia Whitman. She is the Director of 12 NDRAN of Cure ND -- NDRAN of Cure, which is a national 13 organization that reaches out to aid and assist the 14 wrongfully convicted."

15 And this is a letter where he essentially requests
16 that the Bureau provide him with access to the agents that 17 arrested him.

18 Page 2 of that letter also talks about Mr. Ricks,
19 in the middle there, having an affidavit from the independent
20 firearms examiner, David G. Townsend, the individual 21 identified in exhibit 1 and exhibit 4, in which he says that 22 the two slugs that he was given to test did not have any 23 blood or other trace evidence.

24 At the end of the letter he has a PS there which 25 says: "I wrote to the United States Attorney, Barbara L.

1 McQuaid, and she directed me to you."

2 Exhibit 9 is that letter to Ms. McQuaid, or is one
3 of the letters to Ms. McQuaid, and this is written, again,
4 June 13th, 2012, a year before the City filed for bankruptcy,
5 written by David Moran, who I believe was a lawyer at the 6 Michigan Innocence Clinic, and Sally Larson, a student
7 attorney at the University of Michigan Innocence Clinic. So
8 at that time Mr. Ricks had the University of Michigan
9 Innocence Clinic working on his behalf trying to overturn his 10 alleged unlawful conviction.

11 Exhibit 10 --

12 THE COURT: This letter says in the first
13 paragraph: "We do not represent Mr. Ricks," --

14 MR. SWANSON: Oh. Right.

15 THE COURT: -- "but are investigating his claims
16 of innocence," et cetera. So I'm not sure what that means 17 exactly, if they were investigating claims of innocence of 18 Mr. Ricks on his behalf. I don't know why they said they 19 weren't representing him, but they were investigating his 20 claim.

21 MR. SWANSON: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. SWANSON: And I think the complaint makes a
24 reference to the Michigan Innocent Clinic playing a critical
25 role in his, in his -- in overturning his conviction.

1 So to the extent they were representing him, they
2 were certainly working on his behalf, to the extent there is
3 a difference, I suppose.

4 Exhibit 10 is a letter from the Michigan Innocence
5 Clinic. This is six days after they wrote to Ms. McQuaid,
6 June 19, 2012, and this is to the City of Detroit Law
7 Department FOIA coordinator requesting, you know, it's a FOIA
8 request for information related to the homicide that he was 9 convicted of.

10 Exhibit 11, more emails between Sally Larson, who 11 was the student attorney who signed the letter to Ms.
12 McQuaid on behalf of the Michigan Innocence Clinic, to 13 Claudia Whitman, the investigator. And in this letter the 14 parties are discussing the possibility of rerunning
15 ballistics from the 1992 conviction.

16 Exhibit 12, I believe, is similar.

17 Exhibit 13, another letter dated September 24,
18 2012, again, from Mr. Ricks to Ms. Larson, the student 19 attorney at the University of Michigan Law School and 20 Michigan Innocence Clinic, talking about new case law which I
21 believe Mr. Ricks asserts could or would help in overturning
22 his unlawful conviction.

23 Exhibit 14, these are emails between the Michigan
24 Innocence Clinic, again Ms. Sally Larson and Ms. Claudia
25 Whitman, regarding their notes on discussion of, you know,

1 ballistics experts.

2 Exhibit 15 --

3 THE COURT: I noticed that exhibit 14 has as part
4 of it a copy of notes that Ms. Larson made of the phone
5 conversation that she had with David Townsend on October 2, 6 2012, where they're talking about the ballistics evidence and 7 problems with it, and so forth.

8 MR. SWANSON: Yeah, in the Detroit Crime Lab.

9 THE COURT: Go ahead.

10 MR. SWANSON: Thank you.

11 Exhibit 15, is another set of emails between the 12 Michigan Innocence Clinic and Claudia Whitman, again talking
13 about ballistics and the bullets and, you know, that same
14 subject matter.

15 Exhibit 16 is a letter from Mr. Ricks dated 16 December 12, 2012, where one of the alleged witnesses in the 17 Plaintiff's complaint, named in the Plaintiff's complaint,
18 Ms. Strong, where he's writing to her, again discussing the 19 case and potential misidentification of him by Ms. Strong.

20 And so -- and this is -- this is -- there's more
21 that's similar to this. We only attached --

22 THE COURT: I noticed in that letter, exhibit 16,
23 the letter from Mr. Ricks to Ms. Strong, he does complain
24 about the police, and he refers to what the police did to me,
25 and he's angry and frustrated about what the police did to

1 me. And he says -- he talks about the Detroit Crime Lab was 2 closed down in 2008 for doing bad testing on evidence, such
3 as guns and bullets. I'm hoping that they will retest the 4 evidence in my case, and so forth.

5 The next -- the last page of his letter he says:
6 "The police have been running wild in Detroit doing all sorts
7 of corrupt and unethical things to lock people up. Whether 8 innocent or not, they don't care." That's the last page of 9 the exhibit 16 letter to Mr. Ricks to Ms. Strong.

10 Anyway, go on.

11 MR. SWANSON: Well, Your Honor, I believe going
12 through those 16 exhibits we have conclusive evidence that 13 the claims Mr. Ricks is asserting in his complaint against 14 the City were within his fair contemplation well before the 15 City filed for bankruptcy.

16 When this Court applies the fair contemplation
17 contest it looks at a number of things:

18 The debtor's conduct. The debtor's conduct here
19 all occurred in 1992.

20 The relationship between the parties is another
21 factor that the Court looks at. The relationship between the 22 parties all occurred in 1992.

23 The Court also looks at the parties' knowledge.
24 Well, here, Mr. Ricks, he's demonstrated that he knew of this 25 potential claim probably from the minute that he alleges he

1 was unlawfully arrested, and certainly well before the City's
2 bankruptcy case, because the Michigan Innocence Clinic was
3 investigating this on his behalf. He was contacting experts.
4 He was contacting witnesses. All the while professing his
5 innocence and professing that issues with the Detroit Police
6 Department and Detroit Crime Lab led to his unlawful
7 conviction.

8 And, Your Honor, these are the same claims and 9 facts that formed the basis for Mr. Ricks' complaint against 10 the City of Detroit. And sure, Your Honor, all of the 11 factors --

12 Oh, I guess, finally, this is a Monell claim that 13 the Plaintiff here is asserting against the City of Detroit,
14 and Monell holds municipalities may be held liable for the 15 constitutional violations of their employees only where the 16 municipality's policy or custom led to the violation, and 17 there can be no liability under Monell without an underlying 18 constitutional violation.

19 All of the constitutional violations that Mr.
20 Ricks is complaining about occurred in 1992, 21 years before
21 the City filed for bankruptcy.

22 And as exhibits 1 to 16 demonstrate, Mr. Ricks
23 knew of the factual bases, or at least was asserting the 24 factual bases for these alleged constitutional violations
25 well before the City filed for bankruptcy.

1 In short, Your Honor, all of the factors
2 considered under the fair contemplation test demonstrate that
3 the claims that were asserted by Ricks against the City arose
4 no later than 1992, and, thus, were subject to the discharge
5 in the City's Plan and the bar date order.

6 The City would thus respectfully request that this
7 Court enter an order dismissing the City of Detroit with 8 prejudice from the Federal District Court lawsuit asking the 9 Plaintiff -- requiring the Plaintiff to dismiss the City of 10 Detroit with prejudice from the lawsuit.

11 THE COURT: With respect to the Monell, what you
12 characterize as the Monell claims, the claims against the 13 City that are asserted in the U.S. District Court complaint,
14 first amended complaint, I know accrual -- the accrual test
15 is not the test here, and I understand that. I've written
16 about that, as you know, in the published opinion that you
17 cite in your brief.

18 But in terms of when a claim, a Monell claim
19 accrues in this kind of situation, is it correct to say that 20 in the case of someone wrongfully imprisoned, wrongfully 21 convicted, wrongfully imprisoned, because of violations of 22 that person's constitutional rights by police is the sort of 23 the theory that's alleged here, and then seeking liability
24 against the municipality because of its policies and 25 practices and so forth, does that claim only accrue when

1 there has been a reversal, vacation, dismissal of the 2 charges, conviction against the claimant? I'm talking about 3 accrual here not -- accrual under non-bankruptcy law, not
4 when it arises for purposes of it being a bankruptcy claim.
5 Is that the case?

6 MR. SWANSON: Your Honor, I have not researched
7 that. I know that in the opinion that we cited, the Sanford
8 opinion, the District Court there, I believe, said that 9 Sanford correctly points out that he could not have sued the 10 City until his convictions were set aside, which did not
11 happen until after bankruptcy.

12 THE COURT: All right. I see. So that's the 13 answer that the Court in the Sanford case gives to that.

14 MR. SWANSON: Yeah. And I have nothing to add to 15 that to support it or deny it.

16 THE COURT: All right. Anything else you'd like
17 to say?

18 MR. SWANSON: No, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

20 Mr. Harrington?

21 MR. HARRINGTON: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

22 If I may speak briefly on the accrual as you were 23 asking in the non-bankruptcy setting?

24 THE COURT: Sure.

25 MR. HARRINGTON: Yes, Your Honor, you are correct

1 in the sense that the claim has not accrued until the
2 conviction has been set aside.

3 I mean, think about the practical ramifications if
4 say somebody like Mr. Ricks was to have filed his 1983 Monell
5 claim in 1990, 1995, the first thing that's going to be met
6 with is a simple 12(b)(6) motion. I mean, there's --

7 THE COURT: Well, you cite the Heck case --

8 MR. HARRINGTON: Yes, we do.

9 THE COURT: -- in your response to the City's
10 motion in this case. Is it the Heck case, that Supreme Court
11 case, that stands for this proposition that a Monell type
12 claim in this kind of a situation, wrongful imprisonment,
13 wrongful conviction, does not arise until the conviction is 14 set aside?

15 MR. HARRINGTON: That is accurate, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: It is. Okay.

17 MR. HARRINGTON: Now --

18 THE COURT: It doesn't sound like the City
19 disputes that, really, so. All right.

20 MR. HARRINGTON: I don't think they do, because 21 it's -- I think you're just getting a little bit of context
22 because this is bankruptcy and that's -- what we're talking
23 about is non-bankruptcy with the accrual of the claim.

24 But it kind of dovetails and tailors into what 25 we're talking about here with the fair contemplation, because

1 as counsel was walking through all of these exhibits talking
2 about what Mr. Ricks was doing in contacting and really
3 professing his innocence, all he's doing is trying to build a
4 case.

5 And I think that is a distinction, that he's 6 trying to build a case, as opposed to being able, really, to 7 file a case. And what was to happen if he files a proof of 8 claim without this determination that it was a wrongful
9 conviction? The policy implications are very, very 10 interesting.

11 What is he really supposed to do? He files this 12 claim, and he could face possible sanctions because he 13 doesn't have a claim. He doesn't have a case until it's been 14 set aside.

15 I mean, if we were to go through and take a vote
16 on everybody in prison who believes that they were wrongfully
17 convicted, I think we'd see a pretty strong showing of hands.

18 And I don't think the policy and the underlying 19 intent of all of this is to put that type of a burden on all
20 of these inmates to say, hey, if you think you've got a, you
21 know, possible claim, although you might get sanctioned for 22 filing a frivolous either lawsuit or notice of claim, you
23 better -- you better do it. And I don't think that's the 24 intent. So I think --

25 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Ricks had filed a proof of

1 claim in the City's bankruptcy case by the bar date, which I
2 think was February 13, 2014, or thereabouts. If he had done
3 that, and, of course, that was a time when his conviction had 4 not yet been set aside. That happened in 2017, it seems 5 undisputed in this case. But it hadn't happened yet. He was 6 still trying to get it -- get relief, get it set aside, get
7 freed, but he hadn't been yet.

8 So if he had filed a proof of claim then, it seems 9 to me in terms of that sort of bankruptcy world it would be 10 deemed a contingent claim. That is, it's a claim that's 11 contingent upon obtaining -- setting aside of the conviction,
12 which had not happened yet.

13 And if that contingency doesn't come to pass, then 14 he would -- the City would never -- could never possibly owe
15 him a debt on a Monell-type claim.

16 But if it did come to pass later, at a later date,
17 the City might. Or at least his claim wouldn't be subject to 18 dismissal, in effect, or rejection on the ground of Heck,
19 that it hadn't accrued yet.

20 In bankruptcy when a contingent claim is filed it
21 doesn't necessarily get disallowed just because it's a
22 contingent claim, but there is a provision in the Bankruptcy
23 Code for estimating contingent claims under certain 24 circumstances where you don't know if the contingency will 25 happen, or not yet.

1 And so there's a process for estimating for
2 purposes of claims allowance in the bankruptcy case.

3 So it's not enough when somebody files a
4 contingent claim like that, in this scenario I'm -- the 5 hypothetical scenario I'm describing, the City, it's not
6 enough for the City to have objected to that just on saying
7 it's contingent, the conviction hasn't been set aside yet, so
8 there's no claim accrued, so we owe them nothing.

9 It's not enough, because if the contingency occurs
10 later, that argument goes out the window. So the claim, the 11 contingent claim has to be estimated. That's the idea there.
12 Okay.

13 MR. HARRINGTON: Understood. And I don't --

14 THE COURT: So it's not -- it's not just that the 15 claim would have been rejected out of hand in the bankruptcy
16 case only because it was then contingent. You see what I'm 17 suggesting?

18 MR. HARRINGTON: In concept, yes.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. HARRINGTON: But I don't think that applies
21 here. And how tenuous of a claim, or as you would maybe say,
22 how tenuous of a contingency would be allowed, would be okay,
23 would not be sanctionable or deemed to be a frivolous filing
24 with the Court. I mean, I mean, how far --

25 THE COURT: That's part of what bankruptcy courts

1 have to figure out when they are doing this type of claims
2 estimation process on a contingent claim that I've -- or on 3 an unmatured or contingent, either one, claim that I've been 4 describing to you.

5 MR. HARRINGTON: Right.

6 THE COURT: It's not necessarily an easy thing to 7 do.

8 MR. HARRINGTON: And that's what I'm --

9 THE COURT: It's not a -- there's no science to 10 that. It's not a scientific precision.

11 MR. HARRINGTON: Well, and that's what I'm getting 12 at. Because what would have to happen is would be literally
13 a whole almost a trial within a trial on the evaluation of 14 Mr. -- the viability of his claim, and so we would literally
15 have a trial within a trial to determine how viable this is.

16 Because if that was the case, and if everybody who
17 is currently incarcerated at the hands of the Detroit Police
18 Department for, let's just say, you know, gross mishandling
19 of evidence -- and I'm not -- I'm not casting stones, I'm 20 just saying let's just assume that for this discussion. How 21 many people would have to come forward and literally try 22 their case to say, Your Honor, look at my contingencies, if 23 this, and this, and then this, this, this, and this actually
24 come to fruition, then I'm going to have a great case.

25 And so where are we with that? What is -- and

1 that's why I think when this Court, this Bankruptcy Court,
2 today, can look at all of the circumstances surrounding, and
3 I think with this imprisonment case it presents a bit of a
4 different picture, because without -- no matter what Mr.
5 Ricks thinks, no matter what he knows, no matter what he
6 says, what he researches, if he doesn't have the exoneration,
7 there is no claim. So I guess the question really for the 8 Court is, is how tenuous, I mean, how many times are 9 convictions really turned over?

10 So my position to the Court is, is that if you are 11 even looking at this, which I would ask you -- what I would 12 suggest that it doesn't apply, but if you're looking at this 13 as to the contingencies by as far removed in the, really, the 14 likelihood of him actually getting a conviction overturned
15 for somebody who has spent over 20-some years in prison, it
16 almost never happens.

17 So you're talking about, really, the Hail Mary of 18 all Hail Mary's happening and that's the contingency that 19 the, that the City wants you to, if you're going to apply
20 this contingency-type of analysis, they would look at this as 21 like a cover the eyes, and we're almost in March madness,
22 cover the eyes, inbound pass, without looking over the 23 shoulder and it's the swish and we win by one at the buzzer,
24 and --

25 THE COURT: You know, though, really, what you're

1 arguing sounds like an argument in substance. An argument
2 against the fair contemplation test, rather than an argument
3 that says courts, Bankruptcy Courts should use the accrual
4 test, and the case law has rejected that. I have rejected
5 that.

6 Many bankruptcy cases have rejected that accrual
7 test as inconsistent with Congressional intent in the very 8 broad definition of claim that's in the Bankruptcy Code. And 9 you know that, because you've read -- you've read my opinion
10 in the City of Detroit case, I assume, that's cited.

11 MR. HARRINGTON: Yes.

12 THE COURT: And you've read the Sanford case, I 13 assume?

14 MR. HARRINGTON: Yes.

15 THE COURT: And have you read the Monson case?

16 MR. HARRINGTON: I have not.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. HARRINGTON: I will.

19 THE COURT: It's very similar to Sanford.

20 MR. HARRINGTON: And I would love it if the Court
21 did apply the accrual test, because then this would be 22 extremely easy.

23 But under the reasonable contemplation, or the --
24 I'm sorry, the fair contemplation test, as we look at it to 25 the Ricks case, I think creates a situation where how can he

1 reasonably contemplate that he has a claim? Even in his
2 mind, he knows what he did. He knows what he didn't do.

3 But, in order to get -- I mean, the mountains that
4 have to be moved for that to happen is really, I mean, there
5 is his subjective belief and then there is a reasonable
6 belief, and if we look at this, how could he -- we know that
7 he got out and he was exonerated. But as we sit here
8 evaluating it before it could happen, how could we reasonably 9 believe, in light of all of the evidence, in light of what we 10 know, in light of 20-some years having been in prison, how 11 could we reasonably believe that he has a cause of action?

12 And so I guess even when you apply the fair
13 contemplation test, I believe that under the authority -- and 14 I appreciate the --

15 THE COURT: Well, what about -- in relating to 16 that question, what about what David Townsend was saying, as 17 of October 2, 2012, in his phone call with Sally Larson of 18 the Michigan Innocence Project, about the ballistics tests
19 and the ballistics evidence in Mr. Ricks' case?

20 MR. HARRINGTON: Yeah.

21 THE COURT: That's exhibit 14 --

22 MR. HARRINGTON: No, I --

23 THE COURT: -- to the City's reply brief.

24 MR. HARRINGTON: No, I understand.

25 THE COURT: You've seen it.

1 MR. HARRINGTON: Yes. I know. Where he's talking
2 about how, I think it was about the soft lead and talking --
3 correct me if I'm wrong. Right? Where he's talking about 4 the soft lead, he would expect to have seen more damage to 5 the, to the bullet. He's just providing evidence in support
6 of that.

7 And look, I don't disagree that that evidence
8 brings it closer to whether or not he has a claim, but 9 there's still an incredible hurdle that has to be overcome to 10 get the conviction over --

11 THE COURT: Is it fair to say that at least as 12 early as the time frame 2009 through 2012, time frame of 13 these exhibits that are attached to the City's reply, that 14 Mr. Ricks and his ballistics consultant, Mr. Townsend, and 15 the people at the Michigan Innocence Clinic, Project Clinic
16 that we're investigating this case for Mr. Ricks, with him, 17 all had reasons to believe that the ballistics evidence in 18 this case was simply wrong and bad evidence, and upon 19 retesting would lead to, it would lead to setting aside the 20 conviction?

21 MR. HARRINGTON: Okay. If I can break --

22 THE COURT: Now, that last part is a little
23 trickier than the first part of my question.

24 MR. HARRINGTON: Right. Because the last part of 25 your question --

1 THE COURT: You got to find the bullets.

2 MR. HARRINGTON: Well --

3 THE COURT: The real bullets you got to find.

4 MR. HARRINGTON: Right. But the last part of what
5 you just said is to overturn the conviction which presumes
6 that you can anticipate, number one, what a judge is going to 7 do, what an appellate court is going to do, and what the 8 highest court would do. So that presumes quite a bit.

9 And one thing that my father taught me, who is an
10 attorney, is you never presume ever, ever, ever what a judge
11 is going to do. So I think all that he can really assume is 12 that he is building and trying to build a case.

13 I mean, it's clear, there's no doubt he's trying 14 to, one, he's trying -- not trying to build a case, trying to 15 get out of prison for a crime he never committed.

16 But number two, he's trying to build evidence to 17 do just that. But to make -- to have that evidence and to 18 take that leap to say that he knows, reasonably knows, that a
19 judge is going to side with him I think is way too far
20 tenuous and it comes back to the Hail Mary and it doesn't 21 fall within the fair contemplation because it is so tenuous.
22 Because it would require --

23 THE COURT: In your view, when did it become not 24 so tenuous? When in time?

25 MR. HARRINGTON: When he was --

1 THE COURT: What event and when did it happen that
2 it became not so tenuous? We know in 2017 there came a time
3 when the conviction was vacated, I presume, or charges were 4 dismissed. It was over. He was freed. But at some point
5 before that event it must have become apparent that he had a
6 strong case for vindication.

7 MR. HARRINGTON: I will say this, and I know
8 you're going to say, Mr. Harrington, now you're arguing 9 accrual, but this is a rare circumstance where I believe the 10 roads have merged, and I believe that at the time that that 11 reversal of the conviction came down, was inked at that time,
12 and maybe even I would go so far as to say after all
13 appellate remedies have been expired, at that point in time
14 would be the time when we would apply his contemplation of 15 the claim.

16 Going through the fair contemplation analysis, I
17 think we get to the same location that you do under the 18 accrual, because otherwise to apply to, to -- because really
19 what it requires is, is it requires Mr. Ricks to have a 20 reasonable belief that the judge is going to set aside the 21 conviction. And I don't know a person in this world that 22 could ever reach that conclusion. It's just not possible.

23 And also, I'm not trying to go backwards or 24 sideways on anything. You know, or position obviously is 25 that we would ask that you deny the City's motion, or

1 alternatively abstain and have this heard by the District
2 Court, as one of the other cases have, and plus that this
3 case --

4 THE COURT: Well, wait a minute. You're saying if
5 I'm not inclined to -- if I'm not going to rule for you, I
6 should -- I should not rule and let the District Court
7 decide. But otherwise, you want me to decide.

8 MR. HARRINGTON: Judge, I'm just being an 9 advocate.

10 THE COURT: I mean, you can't do that. You can't 11 argue that. You want this Court to decide this, or don't 12 you?

13 MR. HARRINGTON: I want you to decide this, Your 14 Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 MR. HARRINGTON: I think I'm right on the 17 position.

18 THE COURT: But you want this Court to decide it.
19 You don't want me to abstain.

20 MR. HARRINGTON: No, Judge, I want you to decide
21 it.

22 THE COURT: Okay. All right. All right.

23 Well, so when -- the conviction was vacated, I
24 guess. Is that the right term?

25 MR. HARRINGTON: Yeah. Yeah. It was over --

1 yeah. Overturned.

2 THE COURT: What's the correct terminology of what
3 happened? Some circuit judge, some Michigan circuit judge
4 vacated the conviction? What was it?

5 MR. HARRINGTON: For lack of a better term, I'm 6 just, I'm going to go with the --

7 THE COURT: Maybe it's in your first amended
8 complaint. But what happened exactly?

9 MR. HARRINGTON: May I have just one second, Your 10 Honor?

11 THE COURT: Yeah. Uh-huh.

12 MR. HARRINGTON: Because I don't believe that I --

13 THE COURT: I'm looking at paragraph 78 of your 14 first amended complaint. It's exhibit 6 to the City's motion
15 in this case, docket 13,000.

16 Well, it says when he was released. Paragraph 78
17 says the day he was released from prison. Paragraph 79 says
18 June 1, 2017, charges were dismissed by the Wayne County
19 Prosecutor's Office. Maybe it doesn't say when the 20 conviction was actually vacated, or what. Or is it in there
21 somewhere?

22 MR. HARRINGTON: I'm looking, as well, Your Honor.
23 I apologize for not having it in my --

24 THE COURT: I thought I saw somewhere, maybe I'm 25 thinking of a different case, but where some state court

1 vacated the conviction, ordered a new trial, did something.

2 MR. HARRINGTON: Just a moment, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Yeah. Uh-huh.

4 (Pause)

5 MR. HARRINGTON: What I do have, Your Honor, is 6 there is exhibit 4. It looks like it was exhibit 4 to the 7 City of Detroit's motion dated June 1st, 2017, of a
8 motion/order of nolo -- I apologize for lack of 9 pronunciation, but nolle p-r-o-s-e-q-u-i, meaning that 10 they're not going to prosecute, and the case was dismissed
11 without prejudice. And I think for --

12 THE COURT: Okay. Hold on one second. I'm 13 looking at the City's exhibit 4, it's docket 13,000 in this 14 case. Hold on.

15 MR. HARRINGTON: I'm sorry, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: It's docket number 13,000 in this 17 case. The motion, City motion, I'm looking at it. It's 18 exhibit 4 you've just cited me to, right?

19 MR. HARRINGTON: It looks like -- I apologize. It
20 looks like it's exhibit -- if you look at exhibit 6, it's the 21 amended complaint, and it's exhibit 4 to the amended
22 complaint.

23 THE COURT: Oh, I see. Yeah. All right. I think 24 I'm there. Hold on.

25 MR. HARRINGTON: And that looks like the order.

1 THE COURT: Okay. It's State of Michigan, Third
2 Judicial Circuit, Wayne County, motion/order of nolle
3 prosequi, and there is a motion, I presume, by the 4 Prosecutor's Office, and an order granting that motion,
5 saying the motion is granted and the case is dismissed
6 without prejudice, June 1, 2017, signed by the judge. That's 7 what you're talking about, right?

8 MR. HARRINGTON: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Okay. So that would be when the,
10 basically when the City moved to dismiss the case and --
11 criminal case, and the judge granted it.

12 At some point before that date was there --
13 there's a conviction, a judgment of conviction and sentence
14 on the books before -- it must have been, something must have 15 been done with it before there could be a dismissal of the 16 case. I mean, I'm just assuming, I'm guessing that that's 17 got to be true. Was there some order that preceded this June 18 1, 2017 order that vacated the conviction, for example? Do
19 you know?

20 MR. HARRINGTON: I don't know. At the -- I could,
21 I'd be happy to give you more procedural history on 22 supplemental briefing and I could limit it to two pages.

23 THE COURT: Well, I'm kind of working my way
24 backwards a little bit in time chronologically. And what I'm 25 trying to get to is, part of what I'm trying to get to is, at

1 some point -- assuming there was an order at some point in,
2 let's say in some time in 2017, before June 1, vacating the 3 conviction ordering a new trial, doing something that took
4 the conviction off the books and restored the case as a
5 pending criminal case that had to be dealt with, there must 6 have been a motion, a briefing, some sort of presentation to 7 the Court, even if it was just a stipulation between Mr.
8 Ricks and the Prosecutor's Office, something that triggered
9 that action by the Court.

10 And I'm asking, you know, what was that, and when 11 was that filed? And in sort of working backwards it's, you
12 know, at some point, at least potentially, at some point
13 before there was actually an order vacating the conviction,
14 there must have been a reasonable anticipation by Mr. Ricks
15 or his attorneys that the conviction would be vacated.

16 MR. HARRINGTON: Can I make a comment?

17 THE COURT: And the question is: When did that 18 happen?

19 MR. HARRINGTON: Let me make a comment.

20 Hypothetically, if there was some type of motion
21 for a new trial, based on either newly discovered evidence or 22 something of that kind, and let's say the judge granted --
23 and I'm, and I'm -- literally, Judge, I'm just speaking out
24 of -- off the cuff. If there was some type of motion for a
25 new trial, and say the judge granted it, I think you're

1 asking me, Mr. Harrington, okay, I see this order where 2 they're saying they're not going to prosecute anymore, but we
3 do know that there was a conviction, so we have this window
4 of time.

5 What happened in that window to get us to this
6 order that says no conviction? Was there a motion for new a
7 trial that was granted by the judge? Was there some, as you
8 say, stipulation?

9 And as I stand here today, Your Honor, I don't
10 have the answers to that. I could have those answers to you
11 on extremely short order. I can limit it to one to two pages
12 of just bullet point dates with the appropriate exhibits for 13 you to examine. I just don't have those at my fingertips
14 now, and I --

15 THE COURT: Well, the record in -- strictly 16 speaking, the record in this bankruptcy case, I think, does
17 not show when there was this new testing of bullets, which I
18 thought I remembered that there was new testing of bullets,
19 that showed that the bullets, the actual bullets that were 20 recovered from the deceased victim's body were not a match to 21 the gun that was connected to Mr. Ricks through his mother.

22 But there may be something about that in the 23 District Court record, which, of course, has -- you know, the 24 motion for summary, the cross motions for summary judgment
25 have a million exhibits. There's tons of stuff in there, and

1 I didn't go and look through all that. But do you know that?
2 Was there new testing that basically triggered this relief
3 from the conviction?

4 MR. HARRINGTON: Well, I know that -- yes, I know
5 that there is testing from David Ballish, who is a retained
6 expert. I know there is -- here's what I don't know, and I
7 know you want answers to this and I don't know the dates of 8 when that occurred.

9 And from listening to this Court, I do think that
10 it's important that we have those dates because I think it 11 would help analyze this. But I don't have those dates, Your 12 Honor.

13 THE COURT: You don't know offhand if there's 14 anything in the record of the District Court that I can look
15 at to get me to get that information? I know if we dig, it
16 might be in there.

17 But I'm asking whether you happen to know offhand
18 where that may be, where that is in there. I presume it 19 would be, if it's anywhere, it would be in one or more of the 20 summary judgment exhibits.

21 MR. HARRINGTON: We would -- we would have to 22 consult with the motion, cross motions.

23 THE COURT: As I said, there's a lot of exhibits
24 there.

25 MR. HARRINGTON: Right. We had two people from

1 our appellate department --

2 THE COURT: Yeah.

3 MR. HARRINGTON: -- writing it. And I'm more of 4 trial counsel on the case --

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MR. HARRINGTON: -- and so I'm not going to -- I'm 7 not going to make anything up and I'm not going to 8 misrepresent and just say, yeah, it's there and just hope it
9 is. But I would -- I'm making an oral request, I guess, to 10 be able to issue the Court supplemental briefing on these 11 just narrow issues and for the factual basis.

12 THE COURT: Your view, I take it from what you've 13 said, of the fair contemplation test as applied in this case
14 is that the issue is at what point did Mr. Ricks first have 15 enough information to give him -- to justify a reasonable
16 belief, reasonable belief, that his conviction would be set
17 aside?

18 MR. HARRINGTON: In June of '17 when --

19 THE COURT: No, I'm saying --

20 MR. HARRINGTON: Oh, I'm sorry.

21 THE COURT: -- that's your view of how the -- what 22 the issue is under the fair contemplation test in this case.
23 Is that right?

24 MR. HARRINGTON: Yes. When -- yes.

25 THE COURT: And --

1 MR. HARRINGTON: I mean, that's --

2 THE COURT: And how do we know when that was?

3 MR. HARRINGTON: That's what I was just going to 4 say.

5 THE COURT: Based on what's currently in the 6 record.

7 MR. HARRINGTON: Well, I guess what we can look at 8 is the order of the June -- exhibit 4 of the of first amended
9 complaint, that is exhibit 6, to the Defendant -- the City of 10 Detroit's motion where -- it would be June 1st, 2017, where 11 they're not going to prosecute.

12 Where that decision is made, I believe that would 13 be -- that would be the time. Because I -- and I think your 14 question, if I heard you correctly, was, Mr. Harrington, 15 based on the record that's in front of me, meaning the 16 motion, your response, and the reply. Is that what you're 17 asking?

18 THE COURT: Yeah. I'm not including the District
19 Court record at this point.

20 MR. HARRINGTON: That's what I thought.

21 THE COURT: Though this Court I think technically 22 can take judicial notice of anything that's filed as a matter
23 of public record over in that District Court case. It's 24 available to me electronically as I'm sitting right here at 25 my computer. But, yeah. Well, you're pegging it at the date

1 on which, the earliest date upon which the Monell claim could
2 have, could be deemed to have accrued. That's where you're
3 saying they merge. It's the same date.

4 MR. HARRINGTON: Yeah. Under the analysis of fair
5 contemplation versus accrual, whether you walk through the 6 steps of the fair contemplation, it ends up being the same
7 date as the accrual.

8 THE COURT: So how do we know though -- how do we
9 know that there wasn't some date or time before June 1, 2017,
10 and perhaps well before that time, when Mr. Ricks knew enough
11 of the facts, or knew facts that would give -- that would 12 justify a reasonable belief that his conviction would be set
13 aside?

14 MR. HARRINGTON: Sure. That's fairly -- I can
15 answer that. That's, in my mind, I think fairly simple.
16 Because if it's let's just say a set aside, and the 17 conviction was overturned, but let's say it comes about 18 through a motion for a new trial, well there is still a new 19 trial that is in place and the prosecutors could still have a 20 -- get a conviction.

21 And so if Mr. Ricks was to have immediately have 22 filed his 1983 Monell claim while this -- while the Wayne
23 County Prosecutor's Office still has the case open and 24 pending, well, if they go and get a conviction again, and 25 he's got his 1983 Monell claim, it all goes away. There is

1 no case. I mean, it's -- it would be summarily dismissed on
2 its face, really, by 12(b)(6). It wouldn't even -- I mean,
3 maybe Rule 56, but it would be -- it would be just gone.

4 THE COURT: Well, what I'm getting at is it seems
5 to me that the record before me in this bankruptcy case, that
6 is the papers filed by the City and by you, your side,
7 relating to this motion, including these exhibits attached to 8 the City's reply brief, maybe don't necessarily enable this
9 Court to answer the question: Was there a time before June 10 1, 2017, when Mr. Ricks had facts, knew facts, that would 11 justify a reasonable belief that his conviction would be 12 vacated and that he would not again be convicted?

13 You know, if, just hypothetically speaking, on,
14 you know, June 1, 2013, a month before the City filed its 15 bankruptcy case, facts came to light, facts became known that 16 made it clear that -- evidence and facts that made it clear
17 that Mr. Ricks was wrongfully convicted and that he -- that 18 the City had no -- or the county, county prosecutor had no
19 hope of convicting him in a new trial of this murder, then it
20 would seem to me under that hypothetical situation, clearly 21 under the fair contemplation test, the claim had to -- would 22 have to be deemed to have arisen at that time, pre-petition.
23 Do you see what I'm saying?

24 MR. HARRINGTON: Yeah. And if it -- can I add to 25 that, if I may?

1 THE COURT: So what I'm -- what I'm getting at is,
2 it seems to me the record doesn't, at present, doesn't
3 necessarily permit this Court to conclude that that time,
4 that time when that happened, that fair contemplation first
5 happened under the test you -- the way you framed the issue,
6 didn't have pre-petition before the June -- the July 2013
7 bankruptcy case filed.

8 MR. HARRINGTON: I agree with you. And if I may 9 add, for example, if there was something in the record where 10 the prosecutor's office walked into his cell and said, you
11 know, we've been looking over everything that you've 12 submitted to us. We've just got some paperwork to go over,
13 the City, Mr. Ricks, even though it wasn't our doing, screwed
14 up. You have a great case. We're going to do this 15 paperwork, your case will be dismissed, and then we want you
16 to file your 1983 claim against the City.

17 Now, pretty sure that didn't happen, but it would 18 -- I would be hard pressed to argue the position that I'm 19 arguing before this Court if those were the facts. Because 20 if at that time, and say, you know, I'm sorry the date and 21 year, the 2000 -- you know, pre-petition stuff, if that, if 22 that conversation happened under the reasonable contemplation
23 as to whether or not he has a case, he's being told by the 24 people prosecuting him that he does.

25 THE COURT: Well, but you don't have to go that

1 far to get to fair contemplation.

2 MR. HARRINGTON: I know. But --

3 THE COURT: I mean, there's some -- let me, let me
4 ask it this way. There's some event, or events, that
5 occurred that basically triggered or opened the door for Mr.
6 Ricks to get his conviction vacated and to be freed.

7 MR. HARRINGTON: Yes.

8 THE COURT: What was it? Was it new ballistic
9 testing? What was it?

10 MR. HARRINGTON: It was the culmination of all of 11 the evidence that he had been getting. But is the question
12 that you're asking me, is it what was the triggering event
13 through the court process that --

14 THE COURT: What occurred. What occurred that 15 made it possible, or even likely, or even inevitable, that 16 this conviction was going to be vacated? What occurred?

17 MR. HARRINGTON: Based on the record that you have 18 in front of you, I believe, Your Honor, that it is an 19 insufficient record to answer that exact question.

20 THE COURT: Is there anything in your first 21 amended complaint which is in the record here in this case
22 that would give any clues about that? That's a long
23 complaint, and I didn't read every paragraph, I confess. I
24 was looking at things, certain specific things in there at 25 the time, and didn't go through and read them all.

1 MR. HARRINGTON: Well, I'm going to start with,
2 again, with exhibit 4, which is the order that we've talked
3 about. You also have, you know, the exhibit 3. You also 4 have ballistics, you know, ballistics testing. Same with 5 exhibit 2, there's forensic laboratory testing. And those 6 are dated in March of 2017, November 2017. And then the 7 order of the dismissal, or the nolle prosecution, ending up
8 dismissing the case was June 1st of '17. So all three of 9 those pieces of evidence were obtained post-petition.

10 THE COURT: Okay. So you're pointing me to 11 exhibits to your first amended complaint that are in the 12 record in this case?

13 MR. HARRINGTON: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: What about allegations in the first 15 amended complaint? Do any of those shed a light on the 16 timing of these events that triggered the vindication,
17 essentially, of Mr. Ricks?

18 MR. HARRINGTON: And specifically focusing on when 19 that date occurred?

20 THE COURT: What the events were and when they 21 occurred, or at least what the events were.

22 (Pause)

23 MR. HARRINGTON: I'm reading through paragraph 48
24 on page -- it looks like it's page 12, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: I see that.

1 MR. HARRINGTON: That talks about testing done by
2 Detective Sergeant Dean Molnar. He conducted some type of,
3 it looks like, test in April, May of 2017.

4 THE COURT: I see that. Anything else?

5 MR. HARRINGTON: I'm going through it as I flip
6 the pages, Your Honor.

7 (Pause)

8 MR. HARRINGTON: On -- again, and I turn back to 9 paragraph 78 which you had previously identified, talking 10 about May 26 when he was released from the Ionia Correctional 11 Facility.

12 THE COURT: I mean, his conviction must have been 13 vacated, you would think, before that date, right? There's 14 nothing in the first amended complaint, is there, showing
15 what happened to his conviction in that way.

16 MR. HARRINGTON: And I've flipped through it and 17 I've read it, Your Honor. No, I don't -- I don't believe 18 that's in there. And as I've stated, I'd be, I'd be happy to 19 provide that with this Court.

20 THE COURT: All right. Anything else in the first 21 amended complaint you want to point me to?

22 MR. HARRINGTON: No, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Okay. What else would you like to say
24 about the motion, then?

25 MR. HARRINGTON: No, I have nothing else to add,

1 Your Honor. Thank you for being so well read.

2 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

3 Mr. Swanson, you may briefly reply in support of 4 your motion, if you would like.

5 MR. SWANSON: Your Honor, two points. The first
6 is, I wanted to correct something I said earlier.

7 In the City's summary judgment brief in the 8 District Court case, docket number 91, case 17-12784, on page
9 34, the City does argue that Plaintiff's claims are barred by 10 the applicable statute of limitations because accrual occurs
11 when a plaintiff has a complete and present cause of action.
12 That is when the plaintiff can file suit.

13 The City thus argued that all of Plaintiff's
14 claims in the Federal District Court action, I guess,
15 including those against the City, were time-barred under the 16 applicable statute of limitations.

17 THE COURT: What does that have to do with 18 anything? What's the point of that, of the -- of you making
19 this point?

20 MR. SWANSON: Well, that the statute of 21 limitations would presumably run when the cause of action
22 accrued. And the City's arguing and --

23 THE COURT: When does the -- does the City make an 24 argument about when the cause of action accrued in that paper
25 there?

1 MR. SWANSON: Well, it argues that the -- that Mr.
2 Ricks was free to file suit in 1992 on all of his claims.
3 And because he didn't file suit then when the cause of action
4 accrued, that that all of the claims are barred by statute of 5 limitations.

6 THE COURT: Well, I must have misunderstood, then.
7 I thought the City, in connection with this motion, basically
8 was not disputing that the claim, the Monell claim, did not 9 accrue until the Ricks conviction was vacated, and that 10 didn't occur until 2017.

11 MR. SWANSON: The City has taken --

12 THE COURT: Isn't that what -- isn't that what you
13 were agreeing to?

14 MR. SWANSON: Well, I tried to say, Your Honor
15 I -- you know, I had not looked into that and had not taken a 16 position. I pointed the Court to a quote from the Sanford
17 case, but I didn't take a position on that issue in my 18 pleadings, and then I went --

19 THE COURT: Well, what's the City -- tell me in 20 more detail, what's the City's argument about this in the 21 City -- in the Ricks case.

22 MR. SWANSON: Sure.

23 THE COURT: The cause of action under Monell
24 accrued in 1992, is the City saying?

25 MR. SWANSON: In Michigan, a three-year statute of

1 limitations applies to federal claims brought under 43 U.S.C.
2 1983, citing a Scott decision from the Sixth Circuit.

3 THE COURT: Yes.

4 MR. SWANSON: And a Wallace decision from the 5 Supreme Court.

6 Quote, "Accrual occurs when the plaintiff has a
7 complete and present cause of action, and that is when the 8 Plaintiff can file suit," close quote.

9 The limitations period for Plaintiff's claim for 10 intentional infliction of severe emotional distress is also
11 three years, citing MCL 600.5805 subsection --

12 THE COURT: Focus on the Monell claims, would you?

13 MR. SWANSON: Sure. I think they --

14 THE COURT: That's the only claim that's asserted
15 against the City. Monell is, right?

16 MR. SWANSON: Monell is the only claim that's 17 asserted.

18 THE COURT: It's number one in the first amended
19 complaint.

20 MR. SWANSON: That's right.

21 THE COURT: What does the City say about the 22 statute of limitations with respect to that claim in their 23 summary judgment motion in the City case -- in the Ricks
24 case? Anything?

25 MR. SWANSON: In 1992, there was no bar to play to

1 bringing suit against the City of Detroit and its police
2 officers. Plaintiff failed to do so, and, therefore, his
3 claims are barred.

4 THE COURT: And the statute of limitations is how 5 long?

6 MR. SWANSON: Three years.

7 THE COURT: The City says?

8 MR. SWANSON: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Three years. Well, what about this
10 concept, is the City simply -- is the City saying the Monell
11 claims accrued in 1992 in that brief?

12 MR. SWANSON: Yes.

13 THE COURT: It is? Is there -- what authority is 14 there for that proposition?

15 MR. SWANSON: It cites Scott v. Ambani, 577 F. 3d
16 642, 646, a Sixth Circuit case, 2009.

17 THE COURT: What about the Heck case?

18 MR. SWANSON: The Heck case talks about malicious
19 prosecution. I don't necessarily think that applies to a
20 Monell claim against a municipality.

21 THE COURT: Okay. So now are you -- are you now
22 saying that the City, in support of this motion in this
23 Court, is now saying that the Monell claims asserted in count
24 1 of the first amended complaint of the City in the Ricks
25 action against the City accrued in 1992?

1 MR. SWANSON: Yes.

2 THE COURT: They did. Okay. Now that, of course,
3 is not an argument you made in your reply brief.

4 MR. SWANSON: That's correct.

5 THE COURT: Or in your motion. In your reply
6 brief you said accrual isn't the test.

7 MR. SWANSON: Yeah. We don't think accrual is the 8 test.

9 THE COURT: It's fair contemplation. It's not 10 accrual.

11 MR. SWANSON: Yeah.

12 THE COURT: You know, if the -- if the claim
13 actually accrued before the bankruptcy was filed, even under 14 the accrual test, this claim would be barred by the discharge
15 order. Right?

16 MR. SWANSON: That's correct. I think Plaintiff
17 is -- to the City it's really not relevant when the claim
18 accrued, because the Court does not apply the accrual test.

19 The Court looks at the facts and circumstances
20 underlying this claim. The Court, in its opinion --

21 THE COURT: Well, if the claim accrued under non-22 bankruptcy law pre-petition, isn't it always going to be 23 deemed a pre-petition claim under the fair contemplation
24 test?

25 MR. SWANSON: I think Plaintiff here would argue

1 that even if it accrued it wasn't within Plaintiff's fair
2 contemplation until the conviction was overturned, and 3 thus --

4 THE COURT: You're not answering my question.
5 They're saying it didn't accrue until the conviction was 6 vacated. They're saying that, and they're citing Heck.

7 But my question is: Isn't it always going to be 8 the case that if a cause of action actually accrued under 9 applicable non-bankruptcy law before the bankruptcy petition
10 was filed, that claim is going to be deemed a pre-petition
11 claim under the fair contemplation test.

12 MR. SWANSON: The fair contemplation test does not 13 include as a factor the date that the claim actually accrued.
14 And thus, you know, I haven't thought of --

15 THE COURT: Well, it includes all relevant
16 circumstances.

17 MR. SWANSON: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Right?

19 MR. SWANSON: I mean, it --

20 THE COURT: All the circumstances surrounding a
21 particular claim, including the Debtor's conduct, the party's 22 pre-petition relationship, the party's knowledge, elements of 23 the underlying claim.

24 So I would think courts could consider if the 25 claim accrued under non-bankruptcy law, pre-petition,

1 certainly that would be a factor, if not conclusive, very
2 close to being conclusive, in establishing that it's a pre-
3 petition claim under the fair contemplation test, don't you
4 think?

5 MR. SWANSON: I'm not going to argue with that 6 point.

7 THE COURT: I'm trying to think. It's kind of 8 hard for me to think of a situation where that wouldn't be 9 the case.

10 So if the claim really did accrue before the 11 conviction, Mr. Ricks' conviction was vacated, or whatever
12 happened to it, that puts a whole new light on this issue, I
13 think.

14 MR. SWANSON: It very well might. In the Court's 15 opinion that I cited in my reply there was, I believe, some 16 uncertainty in terms of whether those claims had accrued
17 under non-bankruptcy law prior to the petition date. The 18 claims of Tanya Hughes, for one.

19 And this Court wrote, you know, that certainty is 20 not the standard. It's not the standard that the Plaintiff
21 knew for sure that the claim had accrued or that they for 22 sure had a claim that which could be asserted.

23 The Plaintiff here professed his innocence from 24 day one, and starting in 2011, he employed, or he utilized,
25 the services of an investigator, a paralegal, a team of

1 lawyers, and his previous expert, to prove his innocence. He
2 was -- he was telling all of these people that he had a claim
3 against the City of Detroit because he was unlawfully
4 convicted.

5 And he was pointing to the same evidence which 6 allegedly resulted in him being freed from prison. In his
7 own words he had a claim in 2011. We know it because he said
8 it.

9 Under the fair contemplation test rarely do you
10 get evidence that's this crystal clear that a Plaintiff knew 11 that they had a claim. I mean, he said it in the letter, and 12 people on his behalf were telling the U.S. District Attorney 13 that he had a claim. If that's not enough, I don't know what 14 does it. All of the conduct here, again, occurred in 1992.
15 We have the Plaintiff on record --

16 THE COURT: Is it enough under the fair
17 contemplation test for a claimant to subjectively think they 18 have a claim, or believe they have a claim, if that belief is 19 not objectively reasonable at the time?

20 MR. SWANSON: Yes.

21 THE COURT: You think it is?

22 MR. SWANSON: I think if the Plaintiff believes 23 that they have a claim against the City that's within their 24 fair contemplation. I mean, their subjective belief is part
25 of the fair contemplation test. What do they believe? Do

1 they believe they have a claim against the City or not? We
2 don't necessarily need all of the objective evidence to line
3 up before the bar date for this Court to hold that a claim
4 within the Plaintiff's fair contemplation against the City.

5 I mean, as this Court wrote, Congress included the 6 words "contingent," "unmatured," "disputed" within the 7 definition, Section 1015, of the term "claim."

8 This Court also wrote that Congress used those 9 words because it wanted to adopt the broadest definition of 10 claim possible.

11 I don't see how this Court could rule that a
12 plaintiff who was putting down in writing and telling people
13 prior to the City's bankruptcy case that he had a claim
14 against the City, that that claim wasn't within his fair
15 contemplation. I mean, he was asserting a claim. He was 16 telling people he had a claim. I don't know what else,
17 really, could cause the Court to rule that this was within 18 his fair contemplation.

19 Again, Your Honor, certainty is not the standard.
20 What Plaintiff continues to argue is that we have to wait
21 until this claim accrued under their theory of when accrual
22 occurred, and that's not the test. The test is fair
23 contemplation, and we should take it from Mr. Ricks' own
24 words. He knew he had a claim before the City filed for 25 bankruptcy.

1 Thank you.

2 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, both. I'm
3 going to rule on this motion now.

4 (Pause)

5 THE COURT: With respect to jurisdictional
6 matters. First of all, this Court has subject matter
7 jurisdiction over this bankruptcy case and this contested
8 matter that's represented by the City's current motion and 9 which, of course, is contested by the Ricks plaintiffs.

10 And this is a core proceeding, and all of this is 11 true for the very same reasons that I stated that the matters
12 before me in the published opinion that I'm going to cite 13 were covered by the Court's subject matter jurisdiction and 14 were core proceedings.

15 And also, by the way, proceedings in which the 16 Court reserved jurisdiction to rule in the confirmed Chapter
17 9 plan.

18 The case, the prior case, of course, is the case
19 that the parties are aware of and the City cited in its 20 papers, and that's In re City of Detroit, Michigan, reported
21 at 548 Bankruptcy Reporter 748, and in particular the section
22 of that opinion at page 753 to 754 that's labeled Roman
23 numeral II jurisdiction. I incorporate by reference what I
24 said there in that section, in that prior opinion, in this 25 bench opinion that I'm now giving as the basis for why the

1 Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this contested
2 matter and why this contested matter is a core proceeding.

3 That prior opinion I'll just, I'll refer to it as 4 this Court's 2016 opinion. That's the opinion that I just 5 cited.

6 And by the way, that was a decision of this Court
7 from 2016. It's the same opinion that was cited by the U.S.
8 District Court in the Sanford case, which the City has
9 attached to its reply brief, and which is reported at 2018
10 Westlaw 6331342, Sanford versus City of Detroit, a decision
11 of the U.S. District Court for this District from December 4, 12 2018. Judge Lawson is the district judge in that case.
13 That's the Sanford case, and I may refer to that, as well, in 14 this bench opinion.

15 Going back to my published 2016 opinion and 16 decision, however, I do reiterate and incorporate by 17 reference into this bench opinion, everything I said about 18 the applicable law, that is the law applicable to determining 19 whether a given claim or claims arose for bankruptcy purposes
20 before a bankruptcy petition was filed. And that discussion
21 is in the 2016 published opinion at 548 Bankruptcy Reporter
22 at pages 761 through 763.

23 In that part of the 2016 opinion, that's where 24 this Court discusses a couple of concepts that are key to the 25 issue before me on the present motion. And that is, first,

1 the concept and the rule of law, which is that in order to 2 have a pre-petition claim, that is a claim that is deemed to 3 have arisen before the filing of the bankruptcy case. It is 4 not necessary for the claim to have accrued under an 5 applicable non-bankruptcy law such that a lawsuit could be
6 filed on it and sustained in the sense that all the elements
7 of the cause of action had accrued before the bankruptcy
8 petition was filed.

9 At 548 Bankruptcy Reporter, at 762 to 763, I
10 discussed that. It's sometimes referred to as the accrual
11 test for determining when a claim arises. Another name for 12 it sometimes given in the case law is it's sometimes called 13 the, quote, "right to payment," unquote test. As described 14 in my prior opinion, 548 Bankruptcy Reporter, at 762 to 763,
15 that tests provides that a claim arises for bankruptcy
16 purposes only after each element of the claim has been 17 established.

18 It's essentially an accrual test. As I said,
19 however, and reiterate now, but as I said in the 2016
20 opinion, that test had been widely rejected. And this Court
21 rejected it in my 2016 opinion, and I do so now for the same
22 reasons and based on the same authorities that I cited in my
23 prior published opinion from 2016.

24 The second point is that instead of an accrual or 25 right to payment type test, or some other test among possible

1 tests for determining when a claim arises for purposes of --
2 for bankruptcy purposes, the Court adopts -- did adopt, and
3 reiterates now, that the correct test is the so-called fair
4 contemplation test.

5 And as I described it in my prior opinion,
6 including 548 Bankruptcy Reporter at 763, that test looks at,
7 quote: "Looks at whether there was a pre-petition
8 relationship between the debtor and the creditor, such as 9 contract exposure, impact, or privity, such that a possible
10 claim is within the fair contemplation of the creditor at the 11 time the petition is filed," unquote. That's at page 763 of 12 my prior opinion, and I'm omitting citations here on that.

13 I further said, and reiterate now, but I further 14 said in the prior opinion the following: Quote, "Under this 15 test a claim that's considered to have arisen pre-petition if 16 the creditor -- the creditor ascertained through the exercise
17 of reasonable due diligence that it had a claim at the time
18 the petition was filed. This test, which the Court will 19 refer to as the fair contemplation test, has the advantage of 20 allowing the Court to examine all the circumstances
21 surrounding a particular claim, the Debtor's conduct, the 22 party's prepetition relationship, the party's knowledge, the 23 elements of the underlying claim, and use its best judgment
24 to determine what is fair to the parties in context,"
25 unquote. That's 548 Bankruptcy Reporter at 763. And again,

1 I'm omitting citations.

2 Now, in saying this, and in adopting and
3 describing the fair contemplation test, one has to -- the 4 Court bears in mind and reiterates, as I discussed in the 5 prior -- the 2016 opinion, as well, that a claim as defined
6 in the Bankruptcy Code, Section 101, Sub 5, includes a right
7 to payment that is contingent and a right to payment that is 8 unmatured, so that it is possible to have a contingent claim,
9 or an unmatured claim, that still is a claim that has arisen
10 for bankruptcy purposes as of the bankruptcy petition date,
11 even though as of that date the creditor could not have 12 successfully filed suit and prevailed on such a claim under 13 applicable non-bankruptcy law because some event had not yet
14 occurred that had to occur in order for there to be a valid
15 claim that met all the elements under non-bankruptcy law for 16 such a claim.

17 And I discussed that, again, I reiterate what I
18 said in the prior opinion, in particular at pages 548
19 Bankruptcy Reporter, at 761 to 763, about that subject.

20 Now, the Ricks Plaintiffs here, in opposing the 21 City's present motion, have argued, among other things, that 22 under applicable non-bankruptcy law Mr. Ricks, Desmond Ricks,
23 that is, who is the Plaintiff who asserts a claim against the 24 City in Count 1 of the first amended complaint in the U.S.
25 District Court action, did not have any claim that had yet

1 accrued against the City of Detroit when the City of Detroit
2 filed its bankruptcy petition in this Chapter 9 bankruptcy
3 case in July 2013, because as of that time Mr. Ricks'
4 conviction, which he says was a wrongful conviction,
5 essentially was still on the books.

6 It had not been vacated or reversed or in any way
7 successfully challenged as of the date of the bankruptcy
8 petition in this Chapter 9 bankruptcy case, so that he could 9 not at that time, at the time of the bankruptcy petition,
10 have successfully prosecuted a civil claim against the City
11 of Detroit of the type, or types, that are alleged in Count 1
12 of the first amended complaint in the District Court action,
13 so-called Monell-type claims against the City.

14 Mr. Ricks argues that that is the applicable non-15 bankruptcy law, and they, I believe, cite the Heck case for 16 that proposition.

17 Now, it develops during -- it develops during,
18 really, the City's reply portion of today's oral argument
19 that the City may now be contending, at least in this Court,
20 that the so-called Monell claims that Mr. Ricks is asserting
21 against the City in the District Court action actually
22 accrued much earlier than the date in which Mr. Ricks
23 obtained a vacation, or a reversal, or undoing of some sort,
24 under state law of his conviction, which happened,
25 apparently, in 2017.

1 I will assume for purposes of ruling on the City's
2 motion in this case that Mr. Ricks is correct, his counsel
3 and he are correct, in arguing that he did -- his claim, his 4 Monell claims against the City did not accrue under non-
5 bankruptcy law until his conviction was vacated, and that
6 this did not occur until some time in the first half of 2017.

7 So I am assuming for purpose of ruling on the 8 City's present motion, then, that Mr. Ricks did not have any 9 claim, so-called Monell claim, against the City of Detroit
10 that had accrued under applicable non-bankruptcy law as of 11 the date the City filed its bankruptcy petition in July 2013.

12 As I indicated, however, that's not the end of the 13 inquiry, because the accrual test, also known as the right to 14 payment test, as I discussed earlier, is not the applicable
15 test to determine when a claim or whether a claim has arisen
16 for bankruptcy purposes.

17 Now, as I further discussed in the 2016 opinion,
18 in detail, and as is true here, if it's undisputed, and it is 19 certainly correct, as the City points out and argues in its 20 motion, that if Mr. Ricks claims that he's asserting in the 21 District Court action against the City of Detroit did, in 22 fact, arise for bankruptcy purposes before the July 2013
23 bankruptcy petition date in this case, then those claims are,
24 in fact, barred by the discharge and by the confirmed plan
25 and by the claims bar date order in this bankruptcy case,

1 which the City cites and quotes from in detail in its opening
2 motion.

3 And so, if Mr. Ricks' claims against the City of 4 Detroit are deemed to have arisen for bankruptcy purposes
5 pre-petition, in other words, before the July 2013 bankruptcy
6 petition date in this case, then those claims are indeed --
7 have indeed been discharged and may not be pursued, and the 8 discharge injunction, and the injunction in the confirmed
9 plan in this case bar Mr. Ricks from pursuing such claims.

10 So back to the fair contemplation test. The City
11 points to 16 different exhibits, numbered exhibits 1 through 12 16, that are attached to its reply brief filed in this case
13 at docket number 13021, all of which I have reviewed and 14 which the City's counsel talked about in today's hearing, but 15 before the hearing, I did review those, as well.

16 And all of those documents, and certainly those 17 documents when taken in combination, do make clear, in my 18 view, that from -- during the time period June of 2009, or 19 roughly -- or rather, some time in 2009, all the way through 20 and as late as October of 2012 -- I'm sorry, all the way
21 through December of 2012, Mr. Ricks, Desmond Ricks, while he 22 was still in prison under the conviction for murder that was 23 later vacated and the charges which were later dismissed in 24 2017, Mr. Ricks, during this time period, this pre-bankruptcy
25 petition time period 2009 through December 2012, had reason

1 to know and to believe, and had knowledge of facts to know
2 and believe, that he had a claim, albeit a then contingent
3 claim, against the City of Detroit.

4 The type of claims that basically for claims that 5 led to his wrongful conviction and wrongful imprisonment for 6 roughly two decades or more, against the City of Detroit.

7 The claims admittedly were still contingent
8 because Mr. Ricks had not yet, as of the bankruptcy petition
9 date, obtained relief or vindication from his murder
10 conviction in State Court, so the claims had not accrued yet.
11 And that event had to occur before he could successfully
12 pursue the claims.

13 So it was a contingent -- they were contingent
14 claims as of the bankruptcy petition date, but he did have 15 reason.

16 And he could have ascertained through the exercise
17 of reasonable due diligence that he had a claim at the time,
18 existing prior to the time of the filing of the bankruptcy
19 petition in this Chapter 9 case, in July 2013.

20 Of course, all of the conduct, the allegedly 21 wrongful conduct that forms the basis of Mr. Ricks' claims
22 against the City, occurred in 1992. As the City correctly
23 points out, Mr. Ricks certainly knew that.

24 And all of the policies and practices of the City
25 that formed the basis of Mr. Ricks' Monell claims existed as

1 of March 1992. This is all alleged in the first amended
2 complaint of Mr. Ricks in the District Court.

3 And the exhibits submitted by the City show that
4 Mr. Ricks not only believed, but had reason to believe, that
5 he had a valid claim against the City and the police officers
6 involved in the investigation and prosecution of the murder
7 case against him that led to his conviction in 1992, that he 8 had a valid claim and he was working hard and diligently to,
9 as I think to use the term Plaintiff's -- Mr. Ricks' counsel
10 used in hearing today, to build that case, to build that 11 claim, build evidence for that claim.

12 But it was certainly well within his fair
13 contemplation, based upon the conduct of the Debtor that had 14 occurred back in 1992, the parties, the pre-petition
15 relationship between Mr. Ricks and the City and the City's 16 police personnel involved, and the knowledge that Mr. Ricks
17 had before this bankruptcy case was filed, it was certainly,
18 under all those circumstances, it was, in my view, within the 19 fair contemplation of Mr. Ricks that he had a claim, albeit a
20 contingent claim, against the City of Detroit that existed
21 before the bankruptcy, this bankruptcy case was filed.

22 And so the Court does rule, and in my view is 23 constrained to rule give the very broad scope of the 24 definition of claim under the Bankruptcy Code, as I discussed
25 in the 2016 opinion that I published. and the case law under

1 that definition, the Court is constrained to rule that the
2 claims asserted by Mr. Ricks in his first amended complaint,
3 Count 1 against the City in the District Court case, are pre-
4 petition claims, claims that arose for bankruptcy purposes
5 before the bankruptcy case here was filed.

6 As a result, under the confirmed plan and the 7 applicable law and the orders of this Court, Mr. Ricks'
8 claims against the City were discharged, and Mr. Ricks is 9 enjoined from pursuing or prosecuting any such claims by the 10 Court's orders and by the discharge injunction that applies
11 in this Chapter 9 bankruptcy case.

12 And so for those reasons, the City's motion will
13 be granted. I will enter an order granting that motion now.

14 Mr. Swanson, in looking at the proposed order that 15 was attached to your motion, I guess my first question is:
16 Do you still want the Court to enter the order in the form
17 that was attached to your motion, or do you have any 18 modifications to that proposed order that you want to ask me 19 to make?

20 MR. SWANSON: Your Honor, we would be fine with 21 this order. I think we've learned that two of the three 22 Plaintiffs are not asserting any claims against the City, so
23 --

24 THE COURT: I saw that you said that in your reply
25 brief.

1 MR. SWANSON: Yeah.

2 THE COURT: Does that require any change in the 3 order, though? Or you are saying it doesn't?

4 MR. SWANSON: No, I don't think it does.

5 THE COURT: I don't either.

6 MR. SWANSON: Yeah.

7 THE COURT: Now, what I will -- one thing I do
8 question or have concern about, and that is paragraph number
9 4 of your proposed order.

10 You go beyond -- in the order, you go beyond
11 requiring the Plaintiffs to dismiss the City from the pending
12 District Court action and enjoining them from asserting
13 claims.

14 In paragraph 4, you have the Court ordering that 15 the three Plaintiffs in the Ricks case are prohibited from 16 sharing in any distribution in this bankruptcy case.

17 Now, you said in your motion that none of these
18 parties have filed any proof of claim in the bankruptcy case,
19 timely or otherwise, and that's still true, I assume?

20 MR. SWANSON: Yes.

21 THE COURT: All right. So there's no possible way
22 given that, that they presently would have any argument to 23 share in any distribution of the bankruptcy case. So isn't 24 this paragraph 4 unnecessary?

25 MR. SWANSON: Yes.

1 THE COURT: All right. So take it out. I'll ask
2 you to -- well, here's what I'm going to do in terms of 3 substantive change to the order.

4 Paragraph 2 says, within five days of the entry of 5 this order, the three Ricks parties shall each dismiss, or 6 cause to be dismissed, et cetera, the City from the pending
7 District Court case.

8 The form I want to use is instead of saying five 9 days after order, I want to set a specific calendar date as 10 the deadline for that. And normally, I would say no later
11 than one week from the day, that would be March 27. So
12 that's the date I would pick.

13 Now, just logistically, is that, do you think,
14 going to be a problem for you logistically, Mr. Harrington,
15 for your side to comply if the deadline is March 27th?

16 MR. HARRINGTON: I'm pulling up my calendar, if I
17 may, Your Honor. If that's okay?

18 THE COURT: Sure.

19 MR. HARRINGTON: The 27th is fine.

20 THE COURT: All right. And I think that's 21 actually the date on which summary judgment reply briefs are 22 due in the District Court currently, in any case.

23 All right. So make that change to paragraph 2,
24 Mr. Swanson. It will say no later than March 27, 2019,
25 Desmond Ricks, et cetera, shall each, and so forth. You see

1 that?

2 MR. SWANSON: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right. And you're taking
4 paragraph 4 out.

5 MR. SWANSON: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: The rest of the order is fine. I'll 7 make some non-substantive changes in the first paragraph of 8 the order to recite the fact that the Court held a hearing
9 today, and for reasons stated by the Court on the record, and 10 so forth, that sort of stuff.

11 MR. HARRINGTON: Your Honor?

12 THE COURT: But I'll take care of that.

13 Now, let me -- I'm going to come to you in a 14 minute.

15 MR. HARRINGTON: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Swanson, do you have any questions
17 about the form of the revised order to submit?

18 MR. SWANSON: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

19 THE COURT: All right. Now, Mr. Harrington, same
20 question to you, form of the order.

21 MR. HARRINGTON: Yes, Your Honor. With respect to 22 this case, there are other individual Defendants, the 23 officers involved, that aren't subject to this Court's ruling
24 and do have indemnity from the City of Detroit.

25 My problem with paragraph 3, it talks about

1 Desmond Ricks, Ms. Cobb, Ms. Ricks, are each permanently
2 barred, estopped, and enjoined, from asserting any claims
3 asserted in the --

4 THE COURT: I see what you're getting at.

5 MR. HARRINGTON: So I've got an issue with that.

6 THE COURT: Yeah. How would you change that 7 language to narrow that to make clear that this order is --
8 and certainly, I'm not ruling this way, and we're not -- the 9 order is not -- should not be interpreted to mean that these 10 Ricks parties are enjoined from pursuing their claims against 11 the individuals named in the pending action in their 12 individual capacity rather than in their official capacity.

13 MR. HARRINGTON: Sure. And it's quite simple. I
14 don't think paragraph 3 is necessary at all with a dismissal
15 order against the City. Well, then, it's quite simple. I
16 can't go take City property, but I can pursue through -- I
17 can pursue the officers, and the officers through their 18 bargaining agreement with the City, has indemnity.

19 So I pursue the officers, but then the City of 20 Detroit satisfies any judgment in the event that we prevail
21 against the officers on the claims.

22 THE COURT: Well, if the City indemnifies the 23 officers and ends up paying something in the case because 24 they're indemnified, in the capacity of indemnifying the 25 individual Defendants for claims asserted against them in

1 their individual capacity, then that's a matter -- that's not
2 a matter of right that the Plaintiffs have against the City,
3 the Ricks have against the City. That's, rather, at most, a
4 right that the individuals would have against the City.
5 Right?

6 MR. HARRINGTON: Right. But a broad
7 interpretation of paragraph 3 would affect the substantial
8 rights of my client.

9 THE COURT: Well, let's do this, and you tell me
10 why this doesn't take care of it.

11 I do want to keep an injunction in paragraph 3,
12 but change the wording a bit, and perhaps this. Paragraph 3
13 now instead would say, list the three individuals, and say,
14 each is -- are each permanently, and we don't need barred and 15 estopped, we'll just say permanently enjoined from asserting
16 claims asserted in the lawsuit -- well, or the rest of it.

17 Or claims arising from or related to the lawsuit
18 against the City of Detroit or the property of the City of 19 Detroit. That seems to me narrow enough to not create a 20 problem for you, but perhaps we can add a sentence that makes 21 it absolutely clear.

22 MR. HARRINGTON: I would like that, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: How would you propose to word a
24 sentence to add to paragraph 3 to do that? What language
25 would you like?

1 MR. HARRINGTON: Why don't we start with, any and
2 all claims made by Plaintiff against the individual officers,
3 David Pauch, Donald Stawiasz, S-T-A-W-I-A-S-Z, and Robert
4 Wilson, are unaffected by this Court's ruling --

5 THE COURT: Hold on. Any and all claims made by?

6 MR. HARRINGTON: Plaintiffs against -- do you need
7 the names of the officers again, Your Honor?

8 THE COURT: I can get the names from the first
9 amended complaint.

10 MR. HARRINGTON: Thank you.

11 THE COURT: Right? It's the three that are listed
12 in the caption of the first amended complaint, right?

13 MR. HARRINGTON: Are unaffected by this Court's
14 ruling.

15 THE COURT: Or how about unaffected by this order?

16 MR. HARRINGTON: By this order.

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 MR. HARRINGTON: And Plaintiffs may recover any 19 proceeds that would be paid or payable by the City of Detroit
20 through its appropriate collective bargaining agreement, or 21 otherwise indemnity.

22 I mean, it's how it works in all of these 1983
23 cases against the individual officer, because the only claim
24 --

25 THE COURT: Wait a minute. Claims unaffected by

1 this order. I would want to say, any and all claims made by
2 Plaintiffs against the three, and list the three individuals,
3 comma, in their individual capacity, parentheses, as opposed
4 to in their official capacity, are unaffected by this order,
5 period.

6 Now, you want to say more than that, and what's 7 the more than that? Why do we need to say Plaintiffs may 8 recover anything under the collective bargaining?

9 MR. HARRINGTON: The only reason that I say that 10 -- the only reason I feel the necessity to say that, is 11 because of how broad paragraph 3 of that order reads by 12 trying to say that we can't recover any City of Detroit
13 property, because in essence the way that this works and the 14 way that this case will go down the track is if we prevail,
15 or if there's a settlement, or if there's any payment to come
16 from these officers, it gets paid by the City.

17 THE COURT: But not because of -- again, not 18 because the Plaintiffs have any right against the City for 19 that.

20 Any right to indemnity is a right that's enjoyed
21 by the individuals against the City, not a right that the 22 Plaintiffs have against the City. That's the distinction,
23 right?

24 MR. HARRINGTON: Right. Yeah. Because it's the 25 bargaining agreement that the officers have by being a member

1 of the police force. It's like almost an insurance agreement
2 that they're going to pay for, you know, if they're sued --

3 THE COURT: How about this? Add -- the sentence
4 we've been talking about is fine up to the point where they
5 aren't affected by this order.

6 And then add a sentence that says something like
7 this, and we can play with the wording, but something like
8 this. This order does not -- well, what I want to say is 9 this order -- essentially, this order does not impair any 10 right to indemnity that the individual officers may have
11 against the City.

12 MR. HARRINGTON: Fine. Yeah. I'm fine with that.

13 THE COURT: Does that work?

14 MR. HARRINGTON: Something to that extent.

15 THE COURT: Does that work for you, Mr. Swanson?

16 MR. SWANSON: Yes.

17 THE COURT: All right. So let me let me get it
18 down and I'll read it all to you and you guys can make sure 19 it's good.

20 MR. SWANSON: Your Honor?

21 THE COURT: Just a second.

22 MR. SWANSON: Sure.

23 (Pause)

24 THE COURT: All right. So you want to say
25 something before I read it back to you?

1 MR. SWANSON: Yes. Am I responsible for putting
2 this in? I just want to make sure I take careful notes if I
3 have --

4 THE COURT: I'm going to read it now --

5 MR. SWANSON: I will.

6 THE COURT: -- and then you can comment or 7 question. How's that?

8 MR. SWANSON: All right.

9 THE COURT: Both of you.

10 All right. So now paragraph 3 will say, I'll try
11 to go through it. It will say: Desmond Ricks, Akilah Cobb, 12 and Desire'a Ricks, and then after that put a parenthesis and 13 say the, quote, Plaintiffs with a capital P, because we're 14 going to refer to that term later. Okay. Are each 15 permanently enjoined from asserting claims asserted in the 16 lawsuits or claims arising from or related to the lawsuit
17 against the City of Detroit or property of the City of 18 Detroit, period.

19 Then we add this sentence. Any and all claims
20 made by the Plaintiffs against, and then we'll name the three
21 individuals who are named as defendants in the -- individual
22 defendants in the District Court, Pauch, Stawiasz, Wilson,
23 whatever that is, their names, any and all claims made
24 against, and list those three names, A, B, or C, comma, in 25 their individual capacity, parentheses, rather than in their

1 official capacity, close paren, are unaffected by this order,
2 period.

3 Let me make sure you got that much, Mr. Swanson.

4 (Pause)

5 THE COURT: Okay. Then the next sentence will
6 say, it's still on paragraph 3, the next sentence will say,
7 this order does not affect any right to indemnity that the
8 individual officers -- not officers, let's say --

9 MR. HARRINGTON: The City may owe.

10 THE COURT: No. Hold on. In the sentence before
11 when we list the individuals, the three names, let's define
12 them with parentheses, the capital I, Individual --
13 Individuals, put that in quotes, close paren. Okay. So
14 after the three names put paren, the quote capital I,
15 Individuals, close quote and close paren. All right.

16 Then in the next final sentence it'll say, this 17 order does not affect any right to indemnity that the 18 Individuals, capital I, may have against the City, period.

19 So I'll read through it one more time and then
20 I'll ask for any questions or comments.

21 Paragraph 3. Desmond Ricks, Akilah Cobb, and 22 Desire'a Ricks, paren capital P, Plaintiffs, in quotes, close
23 paren, are each permanently enjoined from asserting claims 24 asserted in the lawsuit or claims arising from or related to 25 the lawsuit against the City of Detroit or property of the

1 City of Detroit, period. Any and all claims made by
2 Plaintiffs against, then the three names, A, B, or C, paren,
3 the capital I Individuals, in quotes, close paren, in their
4 individual capacity, paren, as opposed to their official
5 capacity, close paren, are unaffected by this order, period.
6 This order does not affect any right to indemnity that the 7 individuals may have against the City, period. End of 8 paragraph 3.

9 Now, first question. Mr. Swanson, did you get all
10 that down?

11 MR. SWANSON: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: The second question is, did you have 13 any comments or questions about form?

14 MR. SWANSON: The only comment that I would have 15 is that the first added sentence we have paren, rather than 16 official capacity, close paren. I would propose to, after 17 that parentheses, define individuals there instead of after 18 their names.

19 THE COURT: That's okay with me. What about you,
20 Mr. Harrington?

21 MR. HARRINGTON: I don't really understand the 22 change. I think we're all talking about the same thing.

23 And just so we're all a hundred percent clear that 24 the spirit of all of this, whether we're saying potato or 25 potato, the spirit of all of this is that in the event that

1 there is a verdict against any one of these officers that any
2 issue of indemnity won't be encumbered or prohibited or
3 precluded in any way, shape, or form by this Court's ruling
4 on the City of Detroit claims. I just want to make sure that
5 that's clear. Right, counsel?

6 THE COURT: So, Mr. Swanson, why do you need this 7 change you've just asked for?

8 MR. SWANSON: I just thought it would -- it would 9 make clear that we're talking about the individuals in their 10 individual capacity and not their official capacity. If the 11 Court prefers, it's like what --

12 THE COURT: Let's leave it as-is.

13 MR. SWANSON: Sure.

14 THE COURT: Anything else?

15 MR. SWANSON: No.

16 THE COURT: What about you, Mr. Harrington?
17 Anything else?

18 MR. HARRINGTON: No, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right. So the order, then, will 20 have the change to paragraph 2 that I mentioned, the new 21 paragraph -- the revised paragraph 3 that we talked about.
22 Paragraph 4 comes out. Paragraph 5 stays in, retaining 23 jurisdiction, that's fine.

24 And I'll ask Mr. Swanson to revise the order,
25 submit it. I'll wait for the presentment of the revised

1 order, since we've discussed it in detail here. And of 2 course before I sign it, I will make sure that it fully 3 complies with my ruling and what we've talked about here, and 4 I'll get that entered.

5 So that's it for today and for this matter. Thank
6 you.

7 MR. HARRINGTON: Thank you, Your Honor.

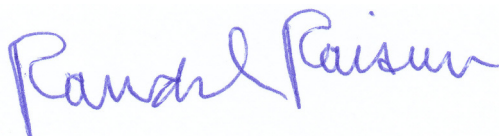

8 THE COURT CLERK: All rise.

1 (Time Noted: 1:30 p.m.)

2 THE COURT CLERK: Judge Tucker presiding.

3 THE COURT: Good afternoon to everyone. This is 4 Judge Tucker on the phone.

5 Let's call our case that's scheduled for 1:30
6 p.m., please.

7 THE COURT CLERK: We'll call the matter of the 8 City of Detroit, Michigan, case number 13-53846.

9 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon again.
10 Let's begin by having entries of appearance for today's 11 hearing, first of all the attorney or attorneys for the City
12 of Detroit.

13 MR. SWANSON: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Marc 14 Swanson from Miller Canfield on behalf of the City of 15 Detroit.

16 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon to you.
17 And the attorney for the Respondent, Darell
18 Chancellor, please?

19 MR. JOHNSON: Good afternoon, Judge. Ven Johnson
20 on behalf of Mr. Chancellor.

21 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon to you.
22 And let me ask for the record, is there anyone else on the 23 phone who wants to enter an appearance in this case today?

24 (No response)

25 THE COURT: I hear nothing. So good afternoon.

1 This is the further continued hearing, continued from a week
2 ago to today, Wednesday afternoon of last week, regarding the 3 City of Detroit's motion for entry of an order enforcing the 4 bar date order and confirmation order against Darell
5 Chancellor.

6 For the record, that motion is filed at docket
7 number 13691 on the Court's docket in this case.

8 I have reviewed the motion, the response filed to 9 the motion by Mr. Chancellor, and the reply brief, or reply
10 filed by the City in support of the motion, plus the exhibits
11 that were filed with those papers.

12 So good afternoon. Let's hear from each side.
13 I'll begin with counsel for the moving party, Mr. Swanson.

14 MR. SWANSON: Thank you, Your Honor. Marc
15 Swanson, Miller Canfield, on behalf of the City.

16 Your Honor, the Plaintiff raises two arguments in 17 response to the City's motion, both of which fail.

18 The first argument is that the claim arose pre-
19 petition under the fair contemplation test. Plaintiff's
20 response in paragraphs 43 and 44 are the only two substantive
21 responses to the City's assertion that the fair contemplation
22 test applies and that the claim arose under it prepetition.

23 Plaintiff's response, however, is based on the 24 accrual test. In paragraphs 43 and 44 of the response,
25 Plaintiff argues that the accrual test applies and that the

1 Plaintiff could not have filed a claim until the conviction
2 was vacated in 2020.

3 Now, Plaintiff's argument for the accrual test,
4 and the argument that a claim did not arise until a
5 conviction was vacated, have been rejected by this Court in 6 prior opinions and by the District Court here.

7 District Court Judge Michelson in Monson, District
8 Court Judge Borman and Burton, District Court Judge Lawson
9 and Sanford, and also in the General Motors bankruptcy case,
10 which I believe was cited in the Sanford opinion.

11 In each of those cases, with very similar facts,
12 the District Court held that the claim was discharged.

13 Now, with respect to the facts in this case, all
14 of the key events occurred prior to the City's bankruptcy
15 case.

16 On November 1 of 2011, Chancellor alleges that he 17 was not there when surveillance was performed on, allegedly,
18 his mother's house.

19 He also says on that date, you know, the 20 description was way off. The person -- he weighed 180
21 pounds. The person -- or the person allegedly surveilled
22 weighed 180 pounds. He wore -- he weighed 245 pounds and had 23 glasses on.

24 November 2, 2011, is the date of the alleged false
25 affidavit.

1 May of 2012 is the date when Chancellor was
2 arrested.

3 Chancellor was tried in November of 2012. He was
4 convicted in November of 2012. He was sentenced in December
5 of 2012. He began his sentence in December of 2012.

6 And in 2013, before the City filed for bankruptcy,
7 Mr. Chancellor also filed an appeal.

8 All along the way, Chancellor was proclaiming his
9 innocence, as evidenced by court filings and deposition
10 testimony. And let's go through some of those court filings
11 and some of that evidence.

12 So when Chancellor was arrested, Chancellor stated
13 that he knew he was innocent. And how do we know that?
14 Because we can go to his deposition transcript, which was 15 attached as exhibit 6F to the City's motion.

16 He was asked during his deposition, "When you were 17 arrested, did you believe that you were innocent?"

18 His response, "I know I was innocent."

19 This is on Page 49 of the deposition transcript,
20 lines 16 through 18.

21 In that regard, during his deposition,
22 Chancellor's attorney asked him:

23 Question, "Without belaboring the point, Darell,
24 what did it feel like to go to trial and be accused of a
25 crime that you didn't commit?"

1 Answer, "I mean, it felt terrible. It feels more
2 terrible when you get found guilty of something you ain't
3 commit because it's like the justice system has failed you."

4 And that's his deposition transcript page 78,
5 lines 10 through 18.

6 During his trial, Chancellor testified and 7 proclaimed his innocence. And how do we know that? We can
8 turn to exhibit 6B, which is the trial transcript. He said
9 that the drugs were not his. He said that the guns were not 10 his. And he said it couldn't have been him because the 11 person who was identified in the affidavit was not him
12 because he was shorter and heavier. And that's page 78
13 through 84 of the trial transcript.

14 Mr. Chancellor also sent a letter to the judge who 15 was presiding over the State Court case, Judge Hathaway. In 16 that letter he said he had, quote, "Been locked up for six 17 months for something I know nothing about. The police got 18 the wrong person. The evidence and the facts will show that 19 I haven't did anything." That's exhibit 6H to the City's 20 motion, Your Honor.

21 On November 12, 2012, Chancellor was found guilty
22 of possession of cocaine. According to Chancellor, and in 23 the second amended complaint in the Federal Court action,
24 Judge Hathaway explicitly relied on Geelhood's false
25 statement that identified Chancellor as the person who was

1 seen selling drugs from the target address. Chancellor, of 2 course, denied during the trial and on appeal that Geelhood
3 had correctly identified him.

4 Chancellor was then sentenced on December 12,
5 2012, to a term of 14 years and 3 months to 30 years of 6 imprisonment.

7 Chancellor's attorney asked him what it felt like
8 to be, quote, "Wrongfully convicted." "Every single day, the 9 question, every single day you're in that prison cell, jail
10 cell, precinct cell, being accused and ultimately wrongfully
11 convicted of doing something you didn't do, Darell, every 12 day, all day. What did it feel like?"

13 Answer, "It felt terrible -- it feels terrible 14 when you know you ain't do something but you convicted for 15 it. It was."

16 And that is from Mr. Chancellor's deposition
17 transcript on page 83 and 84.

18 On January 18, 2013, Chancellor appealed his 19 conviction, and his conviction was later affirmed, and the 20 Court of Appeals rejected his argument that he was a victim
21 of a mistaken identity.

22 Your Honor, Chancellor's claim arose pre-petition
23 long before his conviction was vacated.

24 Again, Chancellor argues that his claim against 25 the City did not arise until his conviction was vacated in

1 March of 2020. That is the accrual test, Your Honor.

2 But as this Court has ruled, and the District
3 Court has uniformly ruled, the accrual test is not the test
4 to determine when a bankruptcy claim arises. The test to 5 determine when a bankruptcy claim arises is the fair
6 contemplation test.

7 Again, this exact same argument that Mr.
8 Chancellor raises has been raised repeatedly, and denied.

9 With respect to the District Court cases. I think
10 the Sanford case stated it quite well. In that case the 11 Court said, referring to Sanford, he certainly contemplated
12 the factual bases underlying the claims raised in the 13 complaint since he attempted repeatedly to argue actual 14 innocence before the State Courts since at least 2008
15 insisting that his confession was falsely obtained,
16 concocted, and coerced.

17 Sanford correctly points out that he could not
18 have sued the City until his convictions were set aside,
19 which did not happen until after the bankruptcy.

20 But the courts that have considered the question
21 uniformly have concluded that claims based on pre-petition,
22 malicious prosecutions, were barred, notwithstanding that the
23 plaintiff could not file suit on his claims until his
24 criminal conviction was overturned.

25 The Court in Monson and Burton and this Court have

1 all had very similar rulings and findings, and there are no
2 facts in this case which could cause the Court to come to a
3 different conclusion.

4 In short, Your Honor, under the fair contemplation
5 test, Chancellor's claim arose before the City's bankruptcy
6 filing, because prior to the City's filing Chancellor could
7 have ascertained through the exercise of reasonable due
8 diligence that he had a claim against the City.

9 Your Honor, the second argument that was raised by 10 Mr. Chancellor in his response to the City's motion was 11 regarding raising discharge as an affirmative defense.

12 Now, Chancellor cited a Sixth Circuit case,
13 Makowski, for the proposition that the City had an 14 affirmative obligation to cite bankruptcy discharge as an 15 affirmative defense.

16 And Chancellor is wrong on a few levels here.

17 First, that decision was issued in 2005, and since
18 then, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure have been amended 19 and they no longer require that discharge be raised as an
20 affirmative defense.

21 The City cited and quoted the Advisory Committee
22 notes which explain quite clearly why discharge and 23 bankruptcy was deleted from the list of affirmative defenses
24 and why discharge and bankruptcy does not need to be raised
25 as an affirmative defense.

1 If that weren't enough, Your Honor, this Court has 2 had the chance to consider a similar argument in a previous
3 case.

4 And this court, citing to another Sixth Circuit
5 case, decided later, Hamilton v. Hertz, 540 F. 3d 367. And 6 this Court said, quote, "Even if the City had delayed raising
7 the bankruptcy discharge until after suffering an adverse
8 judgment on the Respondent's claims in the District Court
9 case, the City could not be deprived of the benefit of the 10 bankruptcy discharge. Any such adverse judgment would be 11 deemed void ab initio under binding case law in the Sixth
12 Circuit."

13 And, again, I don't think we need to go any 14 further than that to see that the Plaintiff's argument that 15 the City had to raise bankruptcy discharge as an affirmative
16 defense fails, Your Honor.

17 In short, Your Honor, there were two arguments
18 raised by the Plaintiff here, both of which have been 19 rejected repeatedly.

20 No court that I'm aware of has applied the accrual
21 test to these facts and I think many courts have commented
22 that the accrual test has been uniformly rejected.

23 And the second argument that the Plaintiff makes
24 is based on a Sixth Circuit case that is no longer applicable
25 because the rule cited by that case has been revised.

1 And this Court has also had the opportunity to
2 consider a similar argument, and based on the Sixth Circuit
3 case, Hamilton, how that the City had no obligation to raise
4 discharge as an affirmative defense.

5 And thus, both of these arguments fail and the 6 City would respectfully request that the Court enter an order
7 granting its motion.

8 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Swanson.
9 Mr. Johnson, I'll hear from you now, please.

10 MR. JOHNSON: Thank you, Judge. Good afternoon.
11 We'll say that never did I think I would be arguing a motion
12 in Bankruptcy Court, so I appreciate the Court's indulgence.

13 When I hear the City argue about fair
14 contemplation tests it sounds so, under these circumstances, 15 so unfair under the facts and circumstances that existed for 16 Darell Chancellor.

17 It's "Darell," to correct the record. Darell
18 Chancellor.

19 As the Court knows, my client's conviction was 20 vacated on March 24, 2020. And I understand about what 21 accrual test means.

22 And for the record, and I know the Court knows
23 this probably, and that is for his lawsuit Darell Chancellor
24 had no lawsuit, had no claim, had no recognizable injury,
25 until his conviction was vacated; hence wrongful conviction.

1 How it works, and what would be inherently unfair
2 and unjust, would be for someone to argue, or to be
3 successful in arguing, that although my client did not have a
4 valid cause of action, and while he is falsely in prison
5 serving a wrongful sentence, like he was from December of 6 2012 through even the petition date, Judge, of July 18, 2013.

7 So, in other words, for those eight months, if we
8 were to use those dates, that somehow after his wrongful 9 conviction he was suppose to know, while he's serving in 10 state prison, that it was somehow fair that he should have 11 contemplated to watch the City of Detroit's bankruptcy
12 proceedings to know that no one, no layperson would ever
13 know, let alone a convicted -- a wrongfully convicted person
14 in state penitentiary, would ever know that he had to file a 15 claim under the bankruptcy even though he hadn't been -- his 16 conviction hadn't been acquitted -- or hadn't been entered 17 yet.

18 So when I hear the term "fair contemplation test," 19 trying to attach that issue to this set of cases, is 20 absolutely, from my perspective, legally laughable.

21 I can read these other opinions. I cannot believe
22 -- and I read it, so I know it happened, what the other
23 courts have said. I can't -- I wasn't there and I didn't 24 argue it, and I'm really sad to see what they said, but that 25 is not, in and of itself, binding on this Court, as I

1 understand it.

2 And so how was it that Mr. Chancellor, wrongfully
3 serving a -- at that time for eight months a prison term on 4 something that ultimately he was found acquitted of years
5 later, yet he was supposed to know bankruptcy law. He was 6 supposed to get notice of the City of Detroit's bankruptcy
7 itself. It's not like the City sent it to him or that 8 anybody in prison would ever know that.

9 So there is no fair contemplation test that passed
10 here, Judge. It's not fair for this -- for the City to argue 11 that his claim is barred before he had a claim, before he 12 even would know of a bankruptcy, because he's removed from 13 society. There's no showing by the City that he should have 14 known about this, because there can be none.

15 And when we talk about fairness, then we can talk
16 about affirmative defenses. And affirmative defenses, the 17 way that they've always been interpreted as a 9 or 10-year
18 former defense lawyer, they're legal defenses that should be 19 raised immediately so that we can have these discussions and 20 these fights, if you will, beforehand.

21 And then in the event that there's need for 22 factual development, then we could -- we could have that 23 during discovery. And in this particular case there is no
24 other argument that a bankruptcy is a legal defense.

25 In a weird way, what I believe, going back to fair

1 contemplation test, Judge, of my client, notice that my
2 client's lawyers, me and my firm, who do civil rights
3 litigation, not just in Michigan, but across the country, we
4 never filed a motion or any claim with the City of Detroit
5 because we never, ever expected that such an argument would 6 be made that something that happened, a petition while my 7 client was in prison, wrongfully, seven years before he was 8 -- his conviction was vacated, that we should do something on 9 his behalf, because we never believed, nor should we, in my 10 opinion, had believed that this claim was ever barred.

11 So to hold that my client had -- should have 12 fairly contemplated such a thing when his pretty
13 sophisticated lawyers didn't contemplate it, because no way
14 would we think it could apply, is, again, I believe,
15 something that the City fails to show as a matter of law.

16 And so we'd ask the Court under these 17 circumstances, and not identical to other cases that I'm 18 aware of, but obviously the City will say that they're 19 similar, that's their opinion, but under these circumstances,
20 Judge, we believe that as a matter of law to hold Mr.
21 Chancellor that he fairly could contemplate the City's 22 bankruptcy when he was pursuing his appeal -- which is what,
23 by the way, his lawyer did, and I might add again on his 24 behalf, lawyers involved in filing an appeal from SADO, just 25 so the, so the Court knows, no one ever advised Mr.

1 Chancellor, nor should they have for that matter, that he
2 should have filed a claim with the -- for the City's
3 bankruptcy, if you will, with the Bankruptcy Court, while
4 they're fighting an appeal.

5 And then there was another appeal even after that,
6 I might add. And there was also a District Court action, a
7 habeas corpus.

8 So you had multiple layers of lawyers involved, no
9 one ever told him that, but somehow he's supposed to have 10 figured out on his own while he is wrongfully serving prison
11 time back in late 2012 and 2013.

12 So we ask the Court to please deny this motion.

13 Thanks, Judge.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Johnson, a question. You may have 15 -- and I may understand this incorrectly, but I thought I
16 heard you in your argument just now to suggest, among many 17 other things, that Mr. Chancellor being in prison at the time
18 the City filed its bankruptcy case in July of 2013, and in 19 jail thereafter for some time, that he wouldn't have known of 20 the City's bankruptcy.

21 If that -- if you're making that argument or that 22 claim now, that's the very first time Mr. Chancellor has made
23 that argument to this Court.

24 There's nothing at all about that in the written
25 response filed to the City's motion here. Nothing. No

1 argument about that at all, no assertion of that at all. Are
2 you saying -- are you trying to argue that now?

3 MR. JOHNSON: Well, absolutely, Judge. The City
4 has failed, as the moving party, has to obviously prove that
5 he did have notice. And they've shown nothing of what notice
6 would have been made knowable to Mr. Chancellor, and that
7 would be a crucial element of the fair contemplation test.

8 What has the City shown this Court to rule as a
9 matter of law that my client knew or should have known about 10 the City's petition and the bar date of 7/18/13? They've 11 done nothing. They're simply arguing that. So their 12 argument is, in essence, no different than mine.

13 THE COURT: All right. So I should -- you think I
14 should accept that as one of your arguments and consider the 15 merits of it even though it's being raised for the first time
16 in this oral argument and wasn't raised in the written 17 response?

18 MR. JOHNSON: Judge, we argued in our written
19 response that, if you will, that there's no way that Mr.
20 Chancellor knew about this or could know about this.

21 So I don't think -- maybe it wasn't stated exactly
22 how I just stated it, but I think the argument is the same.
23 So I don't believe it's being raised, if you will, for the 24 first time.

25 But again, that's the City's burden, Judge, when

1 they're moving as a matter of law on this.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Johnson, where in your written
3 response did you argue anywhere that there's no way that Mr.
4 Chancellor knew or could have known of the bankruptcy? I
5 didn't see that in there anywhere. Maybe I'm missing it.
6 Where is it?

7 MR. JOHNSON: Well, I guess first and foremost,
8 Judge, how would somebody in prison ever know about
9 bankruptcy proceedings anywhere as a matter of common sense,
10 first and foremost?

11 THE COURT: Mr. Johnson, excuse me.

12 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: Excuse me. That's not my question.
14 Answer my question. Where is it in your written paper?
15 Anywhere?

16 MR. JOHNSON: Well, on page 14, Judge, I'm looking 17 at paragraph 47 of my brief.

18 THE COURT: Hold on.

19 MR. JOHNSON: Even if Chancellor could -- I'm 20 sorry.

21 THE COURT: Hold on a minute.

22 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: Your response is filed, just for the 24 record, as docket 13699. Where are you pointing to in there
25 now?

1 MR. JOHNSON: On page 14, Judge, in paragraph 47.

2 THE COURT: Wait a minute. Page 14? There's no
3 Page 14.

4 MR. JOHNSON: Sorry, Judge. I apologize to the 5 Court. I was looking at the wrong thing. I apologize to the 6 Court.

7 THE COURT: So what's the answer? Is it in there
8 somewhere, or not?

9 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I'm looking for it. As 10 I said to the Court, I don't think it was stated exactly how 11 I said it. But I'm reviewing it right now, Judge. I
12 apologize to the Court.

13 THE COURT: That's fine. Take your time.

14 MR. JOHNSON: Thank you, sir.

15 (Brief pause)

16 MR. JOHNSON: Let me double check that I have the 17 right thing now, Judge. Yes, Your Honor. In page 6, please,
18 under Roman numeral III argument.

19 THE COURT: I see page 6. Go ahead.

20 MR. JOHNSON: Thank you, Judge. 43, of course
21 these allegations are denied and Plaintiff's claim did not
22 accrue until his conviction was vacated on March 24, 2020;
23 44, it is undisputed -- it is disputed that under the fair
24 contemplation test Mr. Chancellor could have ascertained
25 through the exercise of reasonable due diligence that he had

1 a claim against the City. His claim did not accrue until it
2 was found that Officer Geelhood had committed fraud obtaining
3 the search warrant.

4 So what I said to this Court was exactly, fair --
5 under the fair contemplation test it is not fair, nor
6 established, that he could have ascertained through exercise
7 of reasonable due diligence that he had a claim against the 8 City.

9 And as the City told the Court in its argument,
10 they knew that Mr. -- as it pertains to this proceeding, they 11 knew that my client, Mr. Chancellor, was in prison starting
12 in December of '12 is what counsel told the Court, December 13 of 2012, which, of course, is about seven months before the 14 petition.

15 So I believe, yes, Judge, that we did present this 16 argument exactly in that fashion.

17 And I'm looking on Page 7 --

18 THE COURT: I don't -- I'm sorry. I'm sorry, I
19 don't see how paragraph 43 or 44 contains an argument or 20 asserts that Mr. Chancellor did not know of the City's 21 bankruptcy case.

22 MR. JOHNSON: Page 7, if I could, Judge, please,
23 in paragraph 45.

24 THE COURT: Well, all right. So now we're moving
25 to paragraph 45. Go ahead.

1 MR. JOHNSON: It is denied that the plan's
2 discharge provision applies to Mr. Chancellor as he did not
3 have a responsibility to file a proof of claim, as he did
4 not, under the fair contemplation test, have a reason to file
5 such a claim.

6 THE COURT: Yes.

7 MR. JOHNSON: So we were specifically arguing
8 about the fair contemplation test at the time when the 9 petition date was filed, 7/18/13, Judge.

10 THE COURT: Well, I think at least it's arguable,
11 anyway, that the fair contemplation test concerns whether in 12 this case Mr. Chancellor could have ascertained through the 13 exercise of reasonable diligence, due diligence, that he had 14 a claim against the City of Detroit having to do with this 15 wrongful conviction that he's been -- that he's alleged, not 16 whether he could have exercised, through reasonable due
17 diligence or otherwise, he could have ascertained that the 18 City had filed bankruptcy. That's a -- that's really a 19 different issue, isn't it?

20 MR. JOHNSON: I see it, Your Honor, as in an 21 exercise of due diligence did Mr. -- or should Mr. Chancellor
22 have known that he had a claim? He did not have a claim at 23 that time.

24 His claim that he had never materialized until 25 3/24/20, when his conviction was vacated. So he had no

1 claim. There was no claim to assert yet, and that's why the 2 accrual test is important under the facts and the 3 circumstances of this analysis.

4 It does matter because it absolutely, definitively
5 goes to what a normal person, or in this case, forgive me, a
6 reasonable person, with a good caveat again of this person
7 being in a federal penitentiary, wrongfully, should know
8 relative to what claim was he supposed to have filed when he
9 didn't have a claim, yet.

10 So in other words, he's supposed to file a 11 bankruptcy claim while he's in federal -- or state prison, in 12 July or so of 2013, even though he does not have a valid
13 cause of action, nor does he know that he's going to get one,
14 because many people obviously believe, and I guess I think
15 the evidence shows that many people are innocent yet
16 convicted, and yet, under this area of law he has nothing, no
17 claim until he gets it vacated, which is a huge process, as 18 the Court probably knows.

19 But he ultimately is -- his claim does accrue on 20 3/24/20, yet again, seven years before that, he's supposed to 21 know to file a bankruptcy.

22 I think that that flies in the face of truth and 23 logic. Most lay people don't know this, let alone somebody
24 who's now in a prison sentence for serving something for a
25 crime they didn't commit, that they're now supposed to figure

1 that out on their own.

2 THE COURT: All right. I think, you know, you're
3 going over ground you've already tread, and we got onto this
4 discussion when I was asking about an apparent argument
5 you're making today for the first time, I think, that Mr.
6 Chancellor did not have notice or knowledge of the City's
7 bankruptcy case.

8 Is there anything more you want to say about that 9 specific issue?

10 MR. JOHNSON: No, Judge. Thank you.

11 THE COURT: All right. Well, thank you, Mr.
12 Johnson.

13 Mr. Swanson, as I normally do, I'll give you a 14 brief opportunity as the moving party here to reply in 15 support of the motion, if you want.

16 MR. SWANSON: Thank you, Your Honor. Marc Swanson
17 on behalf of the City.

18 There was no argument about notice in the 19 Plaintiff's response. If Chancellor wanted to make an 20 argument about notice, you would think that at least once in 21 the response he would have used the word "notice," and notice
22 is not used at all in the response.

23 You know, similar arguments were made in Burton
24 and Monson, and in each of those cases the Court found that 25 plaintiff was an unknown creditor and the constructive notice

1 that was provided during the City's bankruptcy case with
2 respect to the bar date order, the plan, and the confirmation
3 order, which this Court has found time and time again to have 4 been valid, to constitute adequate notice.

5 With respect to fair contemplation. Mr. Johnson
6 said, you know, there was no lawsuit, there was no claim.
7 And I can agree, perhaps, that there wasn't a lawsuit until 8 2020, but there certainly was a claim. There was a
9 contingent claim.

10 One of the orders that we cited in our papers was 11 this Court's order in the Desmond Ricks matter, which the 12 Court held an oral argument on in 2019.

13 And during that oral argument a very similar 14 argument was asserted by the plaintiff's counsel and the 15 Court correctly said that that it was a contingent claim,
16 that even if under applicable state or federal law a claim
17 did not accrue until a conviction was vacated. For 18 bankruptcy purposes that's not the test.

19 The test is when the claim was fairly
20 contemplated, and it was fairly contemplated far before, and 21 at that point the plaintiff had a contingent claim, and that 22 should be what the Court finds here.

23 With respect to Plaintiff's argument on 24 affirmative defenses. Plaintiff raised nothing new.
25 Plaintiff didn't distinguish this Court's prior opinion,

1 didn't distinguish the Sixth Circuit's opinion in Hamilton,
2 and didn't attempt to rescue the citation to a old Sixth
3 Circuit case which cited a prior version of a rule which is 4 no longer applicable.

5 For those reasons, Your Honor, the City would 6 respectfully request that the Court enter an order granting 7 its motion.

8 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. One moment,
9 please.

10 (Pause)

11 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, both. I'm
12 going to do what I hope is a fairly brief and concise oral
13 ruling now on this motion. One moment.

14 (Pause)

15 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

16 The motion has been argued both in writing and 17 orally in today's hearing, the motion by the City of Detroit,
18 for entry of an order enforcing the bar date order and 19 confirmation order against Darell Chancellor, or Darell
20 Chancellor, I think it might be pronounced.

21 For the record, again, that motion is docket
22 number 13691.

23 The respondent, Mr. Chancellor, through counsel,
24 filed a response to the motion, written response. The 25 response was filed at docket number 13699 on the Court's

1 docket.

2 The Court has reviewed that response, the exhibits
3 that were filed with it, as well as the exhibits filed with 4 the City's papers, as well as the City's reply brief at 5 docket 13714, and I have considered the arguments in today's 6 -- made in today's hearing.

7 The first thing I'll cover and I'll say is that
8 this Court, the Bankruptcy Court here, has subject matter
9 jurisdiction over this matter, and this matter is a core
10 proceeding in which this Court has authority and jurisdiction
11 to make a final decision on the motion.

12 The authority for that I won't go into great 13 detail about. What I'll do is cite and incorporate by 14 reference what I said in a couple of prior opinions in this 15 case about the subject of jurisdiction, core proceedings, and 16 those subjects, and also about the -- in these opinions about 17 the fact that this Court, in the plan of adjustment that was 18 confirmed by the Court, this Court retained jurisdiction to 19 rule on the very types of motions and disputes that's before 20 me with this motion and if necessary to enter injunctions to 21 further enforcing the confirmed plan of adjustment and other
22 orders of the Court in this case.

23 The earlier opinions of mine that cover this are,
24 first of all, the case of In re City of Detroit, Michigan,
25 548 Bankruptcy Reporter 748, a decision of mine from 2016

1 that's published, and that -- in particular, pages 753 and
2 754 of that opinion.

3 Again, I incorporate that discussion in the 4 section called Roman numeral II, Jurisdiction, in that
5 opinion by reference here and adopted and applied it in this 6 case, as well.

7 A second opinion on this subject is the decision
8 the Court made just a couple weeks ago, on September 18,
9 2023. That's the case -- again it's In re City of Detroit,
10 Michigan. It's not yet published in the Bankruptcy Reporter
11 as far as I know, but it is published. It's reported at 2023
12 WestLaw 6131465. It's also an opinion that is filed in this 13 bankruptcy case. It's at docket number 13738. Again, it's 14 September 18 of 2023.

15 The WestLaw citation for the jurisdictional
16 provisions is star pages 6 to 7. The citation of the version
17 that's published, or that's filed on the Court's docket at 18 13738, is .pdf pages 13 to 14 of that opinion.

19 Again, I incorporate by reference what the Court
20 said there about subject matter jurisdiction, core
21 proceedings, the Court's authority to make a final
22 determination in this kind of matter.

23 Moving to the merits now of this dispute.

24 First of all, I do find and conclude that the --
25 from the undisputed facts that the claims alleged against the

1 City of Detroit and against Officer Steven Geelhood in his
2 representative capacity, in the cases that are now pending in 3 the U.S. District Court for this District, those cases, the 4 two cases are the ones cited in the City's motion at page 5,
5 paragraphs 12 and 13, copies of complaints from those cases
6 are Exhibit 6B and 6C of the City's motion.

7 Those claims alleged against the City and against 8 Officer Geelhood in his representative capacity in those 9 cases were, in fact, discharged by the discharge in the 10 City's confirmed plan of adjustment, and Mr. Chancellor is,
11 in fact, barred and enjoined from filing and prosecuting
12 those claims.

13 That is distinct from the claims, any claims
14 alleged against Officer Geelhood in his -- solely in his 15 individual capacity. Those were not -- they were not 16 discharged and are not enjoined. So there is that 17 distinction, and that's a distinction that was raised in the 18 written response filed by Mr. Chancellor.

19 These claims against the City and Mr. Geelhood in 20 his representative capacity all arose before the bankruptcy
21 petition was filed in this Chapter 9 case on July 18, 2013,
22 and, therefore, were discharged.

23 First of all, the fair contemplation test that the 24 parties have argued about does indeed apply, as opposed to 25 the so-called accrual test. I have already ruled that way in

1 prior opinions, and I reiterate that ruling now that the fair
2 contemplation test is the appropriate test to determine
3 whether a claim arose before or after the filing of a
4 bankruptcy petition.

5 A couple of places where I have ruled that way is,
6 first of all, in the City of Detroit case that I cited
7 earlier. The one that's 548 Bankruptcy Reporter 748, at page
8 763 of the Court's opinion.

9 In that case I ruled that the fair contemplation
10 test is the appropriate test to apply, and I discussed what 11 that test meant, and I incorporate that discussion and the 12 authority cited in that opinion by reference.

13 And the Court has applied that test in other -- in 14 deciding other motions in this bankruptcy case. But that's 15 really the leading case, by me at least, on that subject.

16 The fair contemplation test raises -- sets the 17 standard as being that a claim is considered to have arisen
18 pre-petition if the creditor could have ascertained through 19 the exercise of reasonable due diligence that it had a claim
20 at the time the bankruptcy petition is filed.

21 In my view, the answer here is clearly that, yes,
22 indeed, Mr. Chancellor could have, with the exercise of 23 reasonable diligence, ascertained that he had a claim against 24 the City of Detroit and against Mr. Geelhood in at least in 25 his representative capacity, before the City filed its

1 bankruptcy petition on July 18, 2013.

2 That's based upon the facts and events that
3 occurred that contribute to give rise to Mr. Chancellor's
4 claims.

5 The events that occurred in November 2011, May 6 2012, November 2012, including the conviction in the state
7 court, criminal conviction of Mr. Chancellor that occurred on 8 November 12 of 2012 for which he was sentenced to prison on 9 December 12 of 2012 and promptly thereafter did go to prison.

10 These events are described in detail, and I think 11 accurately so, in the City's motion. Again, docket 13691 at 12 paragraphs 20 to 38 of the motion.

13 Given those facts and events, all of which 14 occurred well before the City filed its bankruptcy petition
15 in July of 2013, it's clear to me that under the fair
16 contemplation test Mr. Chancellor could have ascertained
17 through the exercise of reasonable due diligence that he had 18 a claim against the City and against Mr. Geelhood in his 19 representative capacity before the petition was filed in this
20 bankruptcy case.

21 This test and this issue, that is whether the 22 claim arose pre-petition or not, is a distinct test and a
23 distinct issue from the question of whether or not a claimant
24 like Mr. Chancellor knew, or should have known, about the 25 City having filed bankruptcy, which is a different issue, and

1 I'm going to talk about that in a little bit.

2 This test -- this issue focuses on not that issue
3 but whether, rather, on whether the claimant, like Mr.
4 Chancellor here, could have ascertained with the --
5 reasonably ascertained or ascertained through the exercise of 6 reasonable due diligence that he had a claim at the time the 7 petition was filed.

8 The answer to that here is, yes, it's clear that
9 Mr. Chancellor knew of and believed to be true all the facts
10 that are recited in the City's motion that occurred before
11 the petition date.

12 He certainly knew, or thought he knew, and he 13 believed, that he was the victim of a wrongful conviction,
14 that he was the victim of a conviction that was obtained 15 through what he viewed at the time as false testimony by 16 Officer Geelhood, both in an affidavit that gave rise to --
17 that was used to get a search warrant at Mr. Chancellor's 18 mother's house in November of 2012, all the way through the 19 trial testimony of Officer Geelhood, that Mr. Chancellor
20 viewed as false.

21 He not only knew that and thought these things at 22 the time, but he also argued these things vociferously to the 23 courts, the state trial court, the State Court of Appeals, on 24 the appeal that he filed shortly after he filed his 25 conviction, and before -- and that appeal was filed before

1 the bankruptcy case was filed, as well.

2 The claims arose pre-petition here under the fair
3 contemplation test even though Mr. Chancellor's 2012
4 conviction, criminal conviction, was not vacated until March
5 24, 2020, and which, of course, was the date that was well
6 after the filing of the City's bankruptcy case in 2013.

7 Mr. Chancellor argues that his claims at issue did
8 not arise until his conviction was vacated in March of 2020
9 because his claims or cause of action under applicable law
10 did not accrue until that conviction was vacated in March of 11 2020.

12 This is, in effect, an argument seeking to --
13 asking the Court to apply the so-called right to payment or 14 accrual test for determining when a bankruptcy claim arose.

15 That accrual test is discussed by this Court in 16 its decision -- or opinion that I just cited a moment ago
17 about the fair contemplation test, 548 Bankruptcy Reporter,
18 at page 762.

19 And as the Court notes there, I think accurately
20 so, and it's still accurate, that test has been widely 21 rejected by the courts as not an appropriate test for -- not
22 the appropriate test for determining when a claim arises,
23 whether it arises before or after the bankruptcy.

24 As the City, I think, has correctly argued, as of 25 the bankruptcy petition date in this case, July 18, 2013, Mr.

1 Chancellor had a claim as that claim -- the term claim is
2 defined under the Bankruptcy Code, it's Section 101 of the 3 Bankruptcy Code, even though the claim at that time was 4 contingent, or unmatured, or both, because the claim could
5 not be pursued until the conviction was vacated later.

6 Contingent claims, unmatured claims, are expressly
7 part of what is a claim within the meaning of the Bankruptcy
8 Code for purposes of determining whether a claim arose pre-
9 petition or post-petition.

10 And the cases in which I've discussed that include
11 the case I cited a moment ago, 548 Bankruptcy Reporter, this 12 time at page 761, and also at page 762 of that opinion.

13 So even though the claim was -- excuse me. Even 14 though the claim was contingent and unmatured as of the 15 bankruptcy petition date, there still was a claim, and it
16 arose pre-petition under the appropriate test, which is the 17 fair contemplation test.

18 There are, as the City points out, a number of 19 similar cases that have applied the fair contemplation test
20 to find in cases and situations very similar to this one that 21 the claimant's claim arose before the filing of the 22 bankruptcy case and, therefore, it was barred and discharged.

23 Perhaps the closest case in terms of facts and the 24 discussion by the Court is the Sanford case cited by the 25 City, a decision of the District Court from this District

1 from 2018. That's Sanford v. City of Detroit, 2018 WestLaw
2 6331342, a decision from December 4, 2018, by the U.S.
3 District Court, Judge Lawson. It's star page 5 in the 4 WestLaw version of that opinion.

5 The Court discusses this subject, and I think the 6 discussion is applicable equally in this case, and fully
7 supports the Court's ruling now in this case.

8 I do want to talk about this notice issue that was 9 raised for the first time in today's hearing, in my view.

10 There seemed to be an argument or suggestion by 11 counsel for Mr. Chancellor in today's hearing that Mr.
12 Chancellor, who was in state prison, incarcerated in state
13 prison, when the City filed its bankruptcy case, may not have 14 had notice or knowledge of the City's bankruptcy case in time
15 to file a proof of claim, in time to pursue the claim through 16 the bankruptcy process, and at least certainly not as of the 17 bankruptcy petition date, July of 2013.

18 That argument, first of all, is an argument that's 19 made for the very first time in oral argument in the hearing
20 today by Mr. Chancellor. There's no hint of such an 21 argument, in my view, in the written response filed by Mr.
22 Chancellor to the motion.

23 That argument, in my view, then, has been 24 forfeited by Mr. Chancellor.

25 But even if not forfeited, in my view the argument

1 is without merit because of the unknown creditor concept.

2 Now, the City didn't brief this. They have argued
3 it in the hearing today in response to the new argument about 4 notice of the bankruptcy, but this concept and this -- the 5 concept of the unknown creditor is one that's out there in 6 the case law and it's in one of the reported published
7 opinions of this court in this very case. It was published a
8 little more than a year ago now and that is -- one moment.
9 That's the -- that's the case of In re City of Detroit,
10 Michigan, 642 Bankruptcy Reporter 807, a decision of this
11 Court from August 26, 2022.

12 In that case the Court talked about the unknown
13 creditor concept, beginning at page 810, 642 Bankruptcy
14 Reporter at 810.

15 There, the Court held, as numerous other courts
16 have held, that a creditor in a bankruptcy case that was an 17 unknown creditor, as the concept is defined by the case law,
18 at the time of the bankruptcy filing, is a creditor for which 19 the debtor has no duty to serve notice specifically, of the 20 bankruptcy specifically, upon.

21 But rather, one for whom notice of the bankruptcy
22 case by publication only is sufficient to put the creditor on 23 notice of the bankruptcy case for purposes of due process and 24 other concerns under the law.

25 At pages 810 to 811, at 642 Bankruptcy Reporter, I

1 talk about this concept and applied it in that case. It
2 applies equally here.

3 The concept of an unknown creditor is, one, a
4 creditor in which the claim against the City was readily
5 ascertainable by the City during the relevant time. That is,
6 during the time period as of the filing and thereafter in the
7 bankruptcy case.

8 And by readily ascertainable the case law requires
9 there whether the respondent, the creditor, communicated any
10 demand for payment or otherwise communicated to the City
11 before the bankruptcy was filed, the existence of a claim
12 against the City.

13 If not, then the creditor is deemed an unknown
14 creditor unless -- well, is deemed an unknown creditor and 15 the City may provide sufficient notice of the bankruptcy
16 filing for due process purposes and otherwise by publication.

17 This case of Mr. Chancellor's is a case of an 18 unknown creditor, and that at the time of the City's 19 bankruptcy filing, and at least until 2020 when Mr.
20 Chancellor's conviction was vacated that he filed, first 21 filed suit against the City for wrongful conviction related
22 claims.

23 Until then, he was not a known creditor to the 24 City. His claim, or claims, or existence of claims, were not
25 readily ascertainable by the City during that relevant time

1 period, and that is because there's simply no evidence or 2 argument made in the papers, or even today in the hearing by 3 Mr. Chancellor's counsel that Mr. Chancellor did anything to 4 communicate to the City that he believed he had a claim for a
5 wrongful conviction or wrongful conviction related claim
6 against the City at the time of the bankruptcy filing or any 7 time thereafter until 2020.

8 And so, being an unknown creditor he must be 9 deemed to have been given adequate notice of the City's 10 bankruptcy case by publication.

11 The Court noted in its decision in the earlier
12 case, 640 Bankruptcy -- 642 Bankruptcy Reporter, at 810, 811,
13 the fact the City did provide notice of its bankruptcy case
14 by publication properly.

15 And, of course, the City of Detroit filing
16 bankruptcy was no secret to anyone. It was very widely known
17 throughout the Detroit area, throughout Michigan, throughout 18 the United States, and beyond, at the time. It was the 19 largest municipal bankruptcy ever filed, I think still is,
20 the largest municipal bankruptcy ever filed in this country
21 and received enormous publicity.

22 And so given all of that -- and I should also
23 note, in the absence of any evidence provided by Mr.
24 Chancellor which he alleges or asserts that he didn't know of 25 the City's bankruptcy filing when it occurred, the argument

1 about notice, as I perceive it to have been made today, even
2 if not forfeited, is without merit and I must reject it for
3 the reasons that I have just stated.

4 So given that Mr. Chancellor's claims arose pre-
5 petition under the fair contemplation test, the claims
6 against the City and against Officer Geelhood in his
7 representative capacity were filed -- arose pre-petition
8 here. Those claims were discharged under the City's 9 confirmed plan of adjustment, both under the terms of the 10 plan and the order confirming that plan, that confirmed the 11 plan in November of 2013 -- I'm sorry, no, November 2014.

12 And those provisions are cited and quoted in 13 detail in a prior opinion of this court in the opinion I've 14 just been citing, the 642 Bankruptcy Reporter 807 opinion, in 15 particular at page 812. So I incorporate that reference --
16 that by reference.

17 The claims of Mr. Chancellor against the City and 18 Officer Geelhood in his representative capacity are barred
19 and enjoined under the bar date order that the City has 20 cited, the City's plan, and the order confirming plan. All
21 of that is confirmed by what I wrote at 642 Bankruptcy
22 Reporter, at page 812, among other places in the published
23 opinions of mine, citing those particular provisions in the 24 bar date order of the plan and the order confirming plan.

25 And so the claims are discharged and Mr.

1 Chancellor is barred and enjoined already from pursuing them.

2 I will address briefly the argument of Mr.
3 Chancellor arguing that the City did not assert its 4 bankruptcy discharge as an affirmative defense in either of 5 the cases that are now pending in U.S. District Court, and I
6 presume also an argument that the City unreasonably delayed
7 in raising the issue of the bankruptcy discharge and 8 injunctions in the filing of this motion, and compared to the 9 timing and the time that the U.S. District Court cases have 10 been pending.

11 The City is correct, in my view, in everything
12 that it says and argues in its reply brief at docket 13714,
13 at pages 4 to 6, .pdf pages 4 to 6, of that -- of that brief
14 in responding to and refuting these arguments.

15 This Court held in the 642 Bankruptcy Reporter
16 case, at pages 812 to 813, citing the Sixth Circuit's
17 decision of Hamilton v. Hertz, that a bankruptcy debtor, like 18 the City of Detroit, has no duty to raise any sort of 19 affirmative defense or defense, or to do anything, in 20 response to claims being brought against it in a non-
21 bankruptcy court that have been discharged.

22 Any such action and any judgment, adverse judgment
23 suffered on such claims is void ab initio under the case law
24 and because of the bankruptcy discharge.

25 And so, it is simply not a valid argument to argue

1 anything like that the City's motion here is barred in any
2 way by the City's failure to plead as an affirmative defense
3 or otherwise raise, timely or otherwise, in the pending U.S.
4 District Court cases the discharge and bar date order and
5 injunction provisions that it's argued in this motion in this
6 Court.

7 And the City is also right that the 2010
8 amendments to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(c)(1) did 9 eliminate from the list of affirmative defenses that had to 10 be pled in federal court actions generally the discharge, a 11 bankruptcy discharge. That's no longer in the rule as an 12 affirmative defense that must be pled for the reasons that 13 I've discussed.

14 And so the Court is bound to reject those 15 arguments by Mr. Chancellor.

16 This Court, this Bankruptcy Court, does have 17 jurisdiction and authority to specifically enjoin Mr.
18 Chancellor's continued prosecution of the claims against the 19 City and the claim against Officer Geelhood in his 20 representative capacity.

21 The Court's opinion from September 18 that I cited
22 -- this year that I cited earlier points that out. It cites
23 chapter and verse in the City's plan of adjustment, confirmed
24 plan of adjustment documents. The plan and the order
25 confirming plan.
