CITY OF DETROIT’S COUNTER STATEMENT OF THE ISSUE PRESENTED ON APPEAL

Appellee, the City of Detroit (“City”), by and through its counsel, submits this counter statement of the issue to be presented on appeal in connection with appellant, Darell Deon Chancellor’s (“Appellant”) Statement of Issue to be Presented on Appeal filed October 26, 2023. The City states that the issue is

Whether the Bankruptcy Court correctly ordered Appellant to dismiss the City of Detroit and Officer Stephen Geelhood, in his representative capacity, from the lawsuit Appellant filed because the record showed that Appellant’s claim arose prior to the City’s bankruptcy filing under the fair contemplation test, and thus Appellant’s lawsuit violated both (1) the Bankruptcy Court’s order setting a deadline for asserting claims against the City that arose prior to the City’s bankruptcy filing and (2) the Bankruptcy Court’s order confirming the City’s plan for the adjustment of its debts.

Bankruptcy Case No. 13-53846
Judge Thomas J. Tucker
Chapter 9

CITY OF DETROIT’S MOTION FOR THE ENTRY OF AN ORDER
ENFORCING THE BAR DATE ORDER AND CONFIRMATION ORDER AGAINST DARELL CHANCELLOR

The City of Detroit, Michigan (“City”) by its undersigned counsel, Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, PLC, files this Motion for the Entry of an Order Enforcing the Bar Date Order and Confirmation Order Against Darell Chancellor (“Motion”). In support of this Motion, the City respectfully states as follows:

I. Introduction

1. On June 19, 2020, Darell Chancellor (“Chancellor”) filed two lawsuits, one in federal and one in state court, against the City and a police officer of the City (in his representative and individual capacities) seeking monetary damages on account of the same alleged incidents that occurred in 2011 and 2012. The state court lawsuit was removed by the City and the lawsuits were then consolidated by order of the Federal District Court. Chancellor’s claims in these lawsuits arose prior to the City’s bankruptcy filing in July, 2013. Consequently, the filing of the lawsuits violates the discharge and injunction provisions in the City’s confirmed Plan and the Bar Date Order (each as defined below).

2. The City informed Chancellor of these violations and asked him to voluntarily dismiss the City from his lawsuits, but to no avail. As a result, the City is left with no choice but to seek an order barring and permanently enjoining Chancellor from asserting and prosecuting the claims described in the federal court action and the state court action against Officer Stephen Geelhood (in his representative capacity), the City, or property of the City and requiring Chancellor to dismiss each court action with prejudice to the extent it seeks any such relief.

II. Factual Background

A. The City's Bankruptcy Case

3. On July 18, 2013 ("Petition Date"), the City filed this chapter 9 case.

4. On October 10, 2013, the City filed its Motion Pursuant to Section 105, 501 and 503 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 3003(c), for Entry of an Order Establishing Bar Dates for Filing Proofs of Claim and Approving Form and Manner of Notice Thereof ("Bar Date Motion") [Doc. No. 1146], which was approved by order of this Court on November 21, 2013 ("Bar Date Order"). [Doc. No. 1782].

5. The Bar Date Order established February 21, 2014, as the deadline for filing claims against the City. Paragraph 6 of the Bar Date Order states that the following entities must file a proof of claim on or before the Bar Date...any entity: (i) whose prepetition claim against the City is not listed in the List of Claims or is listed as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (ii) that desires to share in any distribution in this bankruptcy case and/or otherwise participate in the proceedings in this bankruptcy case associated with the confirmation of any chapter 9 plan of adjustment proposed by the City...

Bar Date Order ¶ 6.

6. Paragraph 22 of the Bar Date Order also provides that:

Pursuant to sections 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3003(c)(2), any entity that is required to file a proof of claim in this case pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules or this Order with respect to a particular claim against the City, but that fails properly to do so by the applicable Bar Date, shall be forever barred, estopped and enjoined from: (a) asserting any claim against the City or property of the City that (i) is in an amount that exceeds the amount, if any, that is identified in the List of Claims on behalf of such entity as undisputed, noncontingent and liquidated or (ii) is of a different nature or a different classification or priority than any Scheduled Claim identified in the List of Claims on behalf of such entity (any such claim under subparagraph (a) of this paragraph being referred to herein as an “Unscheduled Claim”); (b) voting upon, or receiving distributions under any Chapter 9 Plan in this case in respect of an Unscheduled Claim; or (c) with respect to any 503(b)(9) Claim or administrative priority claim component of any Rejection Damages Claim, asserting any such priority claim against the City or property of the City.

7. Chancellor did not file a proof of claim.

8. On October 22, 2014, the City filed its Eighth Amended Plan of the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit (“Plan”), which this Court confirmed on November 12, 2014. [Doc. Nos. 8045 & 8272].

9. The discharge provision in the Plan provides:

Except as provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the rights afforded under the Plan and the treatment of Claims under the Plan will be in exchange for and in complete satisfaction, discharge and release of all Claims arising on or before the Effective Date. Except as provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, Confirmation will, as of the Effective Date, discharge the City from all Claims or other debts that arose on or before the Effective Date, and all debts of the kind specified in section 502(g), 502(h) or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether or not (i) proof of Claim based on such debt is Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) a Claim based on such debt is allowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code or (ii) the Holder of a Claim based on such debt has accepted the Plan.

Plan, Art. III.D.4, at p.50.

10. Further, the Plan injunction set forth in Article III.D.5 provides in pertinent part:

Injunction

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided herein or in the Confirmation Order, a. all Entities that have been, are or may be holders of Claims against the City...shall be permanently enjoined from taking any of the following actions against or affecting the City or its property...

1. commencing, conducting or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action or other proceeding of any kind against or affect the City of its property...

5. proceeding in any manner in any place whatsoever that does not conform or comply with the provisions of the Plan or the settlements set forth herein to the extent such settlements have been approved by the Bankruptcy Court in connection with Confirmation of the Plan; and

6. taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan.

Plan, Article III.D.5, at pp.50-51 (emphasis added).

11. The Court also retained jurisdiction to enforce the Plan injunction and to resolve any suits that may arise in connection with the consummation, interpretation or enforcement of the Plan. Plan, Art. VII. F, G, I, at p.72.

B. Chancellor’s Lawsuits Against the City and Officer Stephen Geelhood

12. On June 19, 2020, Chancellor filed a complaint against the City and Officer Stephen Geelhood (in his individual and representative capacity), in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, commencing case number 20-11616 (“Federal Court Lawsuit”). On September 23, 2020, Chancellor filed his Second Amended Complaint (“Second Amended Complaint”). A copy of the Second Amended Complaint is attached as Exhibit 6A and the docket in the Federal Court Lawsuit is attached as Exhibit 6B.

13. On June 19, 2020, Chancellor filed a complaint (“Removed Complaint”) against the City and Officer Stephen Geelhood (in his individual and representative capacity), in the Third Judicial Circuit of Michigan, commencing case number 20-007758-NO (“Removed Lawsuit” and together with the Federal Court Lawsuit, the “Lawsuits”). A copy of the State Court Complaint is attached as Exhibit 6C.

14. The State Court Lawsuit was removed to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan by notice dated July 27, 2020, commencing case number 20-11992. On September 23, 2020, Chancellor filed an amended complaint. On that same day, the District Court entered the Order of Consolidation, which consolidated case 20-11616 with case 20-11992 for all purposes, including trial. Exhibit 6D. The Order of Consolidation also closed case 20-11992 for administrative purposes. The docket in the Removed Lawsuit is attached as Exhibit 6E.

15. The complaints are substantially similar.

16. Prior to the conviction at issue here, Chancellor had been convicted of five other crimes as an adult. Exhibit 6F, Darell Chancellor Deposition Transcript, pp. 20-23.<sup>1</sup>

17. Three of these convictions were for possession of heroin. Darell Chancellor Deposition Transcript, pp. 20-21. The other convictions were for receiving and concealing a stolen car and armed robbery. Darell Chancellor Deposition Transcript, pp. 21-23. Chancellor spent seven to eight years in prison for the armed robbery conviction and was released in 2010. Darell Chancellor Deposition Transcript, p. 25 §§ 8-14.

18. After Chancellor was released from prison in 2010, he was paroled. Darell Chancellor Deposition Transcript, p. 25, §§14-17.

19. In his deposition, Chancellor stated after he was released, he moved into his mother's house at 5023 32nd Street, as he reported to his parole officer. Darell Chancellor Deposition Transcript, p. 35 §§ 22-25. However, Chancellor alleged that he moved out of his mother's house the following month, in January 2011, and moved in with his girlfriend at 9029 Robinson in violation of his parole. Chancellor alleges that he lied to his parole officer and did not tell him about the alleged move. Id.

20. The location where Chancellor resided is significant because Chancellor alleges that on November 2, 2011, an affidavit in support of a search warrant was falsified and sworn to by Defendant Officer Geelhood ("Geelhood") before a 36th District Court magistrate in the City of Detroit. Second Amended Complaint ¶ 8.

21. Chancellor further alleges that because of the false affidavit, a search warrant was issued by the magistrate for the search of the home of Chancellor's mother. Second Amended Complaint ¶ 9.

22. According to Chancellor, in 2011, Geelhood falsely alleged that he received information from a confidential informant on October 31, 2011, that a large quantity of heroin was being stored and sold from the home of Chancellor's mother. Second Amended Complaint ¶ 10.

23. In the affidavit, Geelhood stated that he set up surveillance at Chancellor's mother's home at 5023 32nd street on November 1, 2011, and "personally observed a black male in his '30s [, 5'8"], 180 lbs.' engaging in a 'suspected narcotics transaction' with buyers." Second Amended Complaint ¶ 11.

24. On November 2, 2011, the search warrant based on Geelhood's allegedly false affidavit was executed at Chancellor's mother's home. During the execution of the warrant, a quantity of cocaine was found on the premises. No heroin was found. Second Amended Complaint ¶ 13.

25. Chancellor alleges that he was not at his mother's house when the search warrant was executed. Second Amended Complaint ¶ 14. Darell Chancellor Deposition Transcript p. 41. Chancellor was later arrested in May of 2012 and charged with (a) the delivery/manufacture of a controlled substance (450 to 999 grams); (b) possession of a controlled substance (450 to 999 grams); (c) felon in possession of a firearm; and (d) felony firearm. Second Amended Complaint ¶ 14. When Chancellor was arrested, Chancellor stated that he knew that he was innocent. Darell Chancellor Deposition Transcript, p. 49 §§ 16-18.

26. Chancellor alleged that the false claims made and sworn to by Geelhood in the search warrant affidavit led directly to the issuance of the search warrant, the raid at Chancellor's mother's home, the seizure of the cocaine, and to Chancellor's subsequent prosecution. Second Amended Complaint ¶ 15.

27. Further, according to Chancellor, as a direct result of Geelhood's false affidavit in 2011, Chancellor was arrested and held in Wayne County Jail until his trial on November 8, 2012. Second Amended Complaint ¶¶ 16-17.

28. In 2012, Geelhood was "the prosecution's star witness at trial." He testified to both the seizure of the cocaine during the raid and the events that he claimed had occurred the two previous days. Second Amended Complaint ¶ 18.

29. During Chancellor's trial in 2012, Chancellor alleges that Geelhood testified falsely when he swore to the affidavit before the 36th District Court magistrate. Second Amended Complaint ¶ 19.

30. Chancellor alleges that Geelhood testified falsely at the trial in 2012 about receiving a tip from the confidential informant, conducting surveillance, and falsely identified Chancellor as the person that he observed selling heroin during his surveillance of Chancellor's mother's home. Second Amended Complaint ¶ 20.

31. Chancellor also alleges:

21. The falseness of Geelhood's testimony regarding the alleged three separate hand-to-hand narcotic transactions during his surveillance is magnified by the fact that he never stopped any of the individuals allegedly involved in the drug buys to verify that one had actually taken place.

22. The falseness of Geelhood's identification of Darell as the person who he allegedly observed selling drugs on November 1, 2011 was further demonstrated by the difference between the description of the alleged seller as 5'8", 180 pounds, no glasses, and the actual size and description of Darell who is 5'11", 250 pounds and has worn prescription glasses his entire adult life.

Second Amended Complaint ¶¶ 21-22.

32. Indeed, Chancellor challenged the veracity of Geelhood’s testimony at his trial in 2012. Second Amended Complaint ¶ 24.

33. In that regard, during his deposition, Chancellor’s attorney asked Chancellor:

Q. Without belaboring the point, Darell, what did it feel like to go to trial and be accused of a crime that you didn't commit?

A. I mean, it felt terrible. It feels more terrible when you get found guilty of something you ain't commit because it's like the justice system that failed you. You been taught to believe in the justice system, but to get to found guilty for something you ain't do is where the justice going to come from, yeah.

Darell Chancellor Deposition Transcript, p. 78 §§ 10-18.

34. During his trial, Chancellor testified and proclaimed his innocence.

Exhibit 6G, Trial Transcript, pp. 78-84.

35. On November 8, 2012, Chancellor sent Judge Hathaway – the judge presiding over his trial – a letter which provided in pertinent part that Chancellor had been “locked up for 6 months for something I know nothing about” and “the police got the wrong person.” Exhibit 6H, Chancellor Letter to Judge Hathaway.

36. On November 12, 2012, Chancellor was found guilty of possession of cocaine. According to Chancellor, Judge Hathaway explicitly relied on Geelhood’s false statements that identified Chancellor as the person who was seen selling drugs from the target address. Second Amended Complaint ¶ 24.

37. Chancellor was sentenced on December 12, 2012, to serve a term of 14 years and 3 months to 30 years of imprisonment. Second Amended Complaint ¶ 25.

38. Chancellor began his sentence on December 12, 2012. Exhibit 6I, Chancellor Commitment to Department of Corrections.

39. Chancellor's attorney asked Chancellor what it felt like to be "wrongfully convicted":

- Q. Every single day you're in that prison cell, jail cell, precinct cell being accused and ultimately wrongfully convicted of doing something you didn't do, Darell, every day, all day what did it feel like?
- A. It feel terrible when you know you ain't do something, but you convicted for it. It was --
- Q. I listened -- did I interrupt you? I'm sorry. If you weren't done, go ahead.
- A. I mean, like I was saying, it's like, like I said, you sitting in there looking like where the justice going to come from. That's a hard feeling when you know you ain't done nothing, but a judge convicted you of something and now you stuck in prison trying to figure out how you going to get back home for something you ain't do. First, you ain't supposed to be here because you ain't did nothing. But now that you here, how you going to get back home for something you ain't do.
- Q. So when Counsel went over your previous convictions, I didn't hear anything about you ever going to trial except for this thing.
- A. Because I did that. I would never -- if I did something, I'm going to let you -- I'll say I did it.

- So if I do it --
- Q. You didn't go to trial on those other charges --
- A. No.
- Q. because ultimately you either pled nolo contendere or not guilty; right?
- A. Right; right.
- Q. Excuse me. Or guilty. Sorry.
- A. Right. I pled guilty; right.
- Q. This one you fought and went to trial; right?
- A. Right.

Darell Chancellor Deposition Transcript, pp. 83-84, §§ 2-8.

C. Chancellor Appeals His Conviction

40. On or about January 18, 2013, Chancellor appealed his conviction and the trial court entered the Claim of Appeal and Order Appointing Counsel. Exhibit 6J, Claim of Appeal and Order Appointing Counsel. The docket sheet for Chancellor's appeal is attached as Exhibit 6K, Court of Appeals Docket Sheet.

41. The Michigan Court of Appeals affirmed the trial court despite Defendant's argument that he was the victim of mistaken identity. Exhibit 6L, Decision of the Michigan Court of Appeals.

42. On March 24, 2020, Chancellor's conviction was vacated. Second Amended Complaint ¶ 34.

III. Argument

43. Chancellor violated the Plan's injunction and discharge provisions when he filed the Lawsuits to assert pre-petition claims and otherwise seek relief against the City and Geelhood (in his representative capacity). And, he continues to violate them by persisting in prosecuting the Lawsuits.

44. Under the “fair contemplation” test, Chancellor’s claims against the City and Geelhood arose pre-petition – i.e., before July 18, 2013 – because before that date, Chancellor “could have ascertained through the exercise of reasonable due diligence that [he] had a claim” against the City, based on the events which occurred in 2011 and 2012, as detailed in the Second Amended Complaint and the other exhibits to this Motion. See In re City of Detroit, Michigan, 548 B.R. 748, 763 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 2016) (citation omitted); see also Doc. No. 11296, 13617; Burton v. Sanders, No. 20-11948, 2021 WL 168543, at *9 (E.D. Mich. Jan. 1, 2021), at *4; Monson v. City of Detroit, No. 18-10638, 2019 WL 1057306, at *9 (E.D. Mich. March 6, 2019); Sanford v. City of Detroit, No. 17-13062, 2018 WL 6331342, at *5-6 (E.D. Mich. Dec. 4, 2018).

45. Despite holding a pre-petition claim, Chancellor did not file a proof of claim in the City’s bankruptcy case. The Plan’s discharge provision states that the “rights afforded under the Plan and the treatment of Claims under the Plan will be in exchange for and in complete satisfaction, discharge and release of all Claims arising on or before the Effective Date.” Plan Art. III.D.4, at p.50.

46. Consequently, Chancellor does not have a right to a distribution or payment under the Plan on account of the claims asserted in the Lawsuits. Plan,

Art. III.D.5, at p.50 (“[A]ll entities that have been, are or may be holders of Claims against the City . . . shall be permanently enjoined from . . . proceeding in any manner in any place whatsoever that does not conform or comply with the provisions of the Plan.”). See also Plan, Art. I.A.19, at p.3; Art. I.A.134, at p.11; Art. VI.A.1, at p.67 (“Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, no payments or Distributions shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim until such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.”). Any claims that Chancellor may have had were discharged, and the Plan enjoins Chancellor from pursuing them. The Bar Date Order also forever barred, estopped, and enjoined Chancellor from pursuing the claims asserted in the Lawsuits.

47. Even if Chancellor could somehow seek relief on his claims against Geelhood (in his representative capacity), the City, or its property (which he cannot), the proper and only forum for doing so would be in this Bankruptcy Court. There is therefore no set of circumstances under which Chancellor is, or would have been, permitted to commence and prosecute the Lawsuits against Geelhood (in his representative capacity), the City or its property.

IV. Conclusion

48. The City thus respectfully requests that this Court enter an order, in substantially the same form as the one attached as Exhibit 1: (a) directing Chancellor to dismiss, or cause to be dismissed, the City and Geelhood in his representative capacity with prejudice from the Lawsuits; (b) permanently barring, estopping and enjoining Chancellor from asserting the claims alleged in, or claims related to, the Lawsuits against Geelhood (in his representative capacity), the City or property of the City; and (c) prohibiting Chancellor from sharing in any distribution in this bankruptcy case. The City sought, but did not obtain, concurrence to the relief requested in the Motion.

PLAINTIFF'S SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT

NOW COMES Plaintiff, DARELL CHANCELLOR, through his counsel, JOHNSON LAW, PLC and for this Amended Complaint, against the defendants, states as follows:

1. At all times relevant to this lawsuit, Plaintiff, Darell Chancellor ("Darell") was a resident of Detroit, in Wayne County, Michigan.

2. At all times relevant to this lawsuit, Defendant Officer Stephen Geelhood (“Geelhood”) was employed as a police officer with the Detroit Police Department.
3. At all times relevant to this lawsuit, Geelhood acted under color of state law and is being sued in his individual and representative capacities.
4. At all times relevant to this lawsuit, Defendant City of Detroit (“The City”) was a municipal corporation, duly organized in carrying on governmental functions in the City of Detroit, in Wayne County, Michigan.
5. The amount in controversy exceeds $25, 000.00 exclusive of costs, interest and attorney fees; and jurisdiction is otherwise conferred on this Court pursuant to the United States Constitution as well as 42 U.S.C. §1983.
6. Plaintiff relies on the jury demand that was originally filed in this Court.

COMMON ALLEGATIONS

7. At all times relevant to this lawsuit, Geelhood was a member of the now-defunct narcotics unit in the police department for the City of Detroit.
8. On November 2, 2011, an affidavit in support of a search warrant was falsified and sworn to by Officer Geelhood before a 36th District Court magistrate in the City of Detroit.

9. As a result of Geelhood's swearing to the false affidavit, a search warrant was issued by the magistrate for the search of 5023 32nd Street in Detroit, the home of Darell's mother.
10. In the false affidavit, Geelhood alleged that he had received information from a confidential informant (CI) on October 31, 2011 that a large quantity of heroin was being stored at and sold from the 32nd Street home. That allegation was false.
11. In the false affidavit, Geelhood further alleged that he had set up surveillance at 5023 32nd Street on November 1, 2011, and personally observed a black male, described as being in his "30s [, 5'8",] 180 lbs." engaging in a "suspected narcotics transaction" with buyers. That allegation was also false.
12. The affidavit went on to state that based on his 17 years of experience as a police officer and 9 years in the Narcotics Unit, Geelhood believed that there was probable cause that heroin and the individual suspected of making the narcotics transaction would be found on the premises.
13. On November 2, 2011, the search warrant based on Geelhood's false affidavit was executed at 5023 32nd Street in Detroit. During the execution of the warrant, a quantity of cocaine was found on the premises. No heroin was found.

14. Darell was not at his mother's house when the search warrant was executed. But he was later arrested in May of 2012 and charge with (a) the delivery/manufacture of a controlled substance (450 to 999 grams); (b) possession of a controlled substance (450 to 999 grams); (c) felon in possession of a firearm; and (d) felony firearm.
15. The false claims made and sworn to b Geelhood in the search warrant affidavit led directly to the issuance of the search warrant, the raid at 5023 32nd Street, the seizure of the cocaine and to Darell's subsequent prosecution.
16. As a direct result of Geelhood's false affidavit, Darell was arrested in May of 2012 and held in Wayne County Jail until his trial date.
17. A bench trial was conducted before the Honorable Daniel Hathaway on November 8, 2012.
18. Geelhood was the prosecution's star witness at trial. He testified to both the seizure of the cocaine during the raid and the events that he falsely claimed had occurred the two previous days.
19. Geelhood testified falsely at trial that he was telling the truth to the magistrate when he swore to the affidavit before the 36th District Court magistrate.
20. Geelhood also testified falsely at trial about receiving a tip from the CI, conducting surveillance, and he further falsely identified Darell as the person that he supposedly observed selling heroin during his alleged surveillance of Darell's mother's home.

21. The falseness of Geelhood's testimony regarding the alleged three separate hand-to-hand narcotic transactions during his surveillance is magnified by the fact that he never stopped any of the individuals allegedly involved in the drug buys to verify that one had actually taken place.

22. The falseness of Geelhood's identification of Darell as the person who he allegedly observed selling drugs on November 1, 2011 was further demonstrated by the difference between the description of the alleged seller as 5'8", 180 pounds, no glasses, and the actual size and description of Darell who is 5'11", 250 pounds and has worn prescription glasses his entire adult life.

23. On November 12, 2012, when Darell was found guilty of possession of cocaine, Judge Hathaway explicitly relied on Geelhood's false statements that identified Darell as the person who was seen selling drugs from the target address.

24. The reliance on Geelhood's false statements was highlighted when Judge Hathaway issued his verdict convicting Darell of possession of cocaine and stated the following:

"So it really comes down to the reliability of Officer Geelhood's identification. As I said when [Geelhood] was questioned and the discrepancies were pointed out he was adamant and maintained that the individual he saw that day through the binoculars was, in fact, the defendant Mr. Chancellor; that he recognized him from that surveillance that he did and that he was in fact the person and of course to me, this comes down to, well, part of it comes down to that identification.” (Trial transcript, Vol. 3, pp 31-32)

25. Darell was sentenced on December 12, 2012 to serve a term of 14 years and 3 months to 30 years of imprisonment.

26. The Conviction Integrity Unit (CIU), a division of the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office, became involved in Darell's case as a result of an internal investigation by the Detroit Police Department (DPD) as well as a federal investigation into the department's Narcotics Unit concerning allegations that multiple Detroit police narcotics officers, including Geelhood, had participated in falsifying warrant affidavits, falsely accusing citizens of drug crimes and stealing case, guns and narcotics found during search warrant executions.

27. On information and belief, at the time of Darell's trial in 2012, the City was aware of the existence of the federal investigation and that the DPD had begun its own investigation of the Narcotics Unit.

28. As a result of the DPD's investigation, the Narcotic Unit, which included Geelhood, was disbanded by Detroit Police Chief James Craig in the summer of 2014.

29. In 2019, because of the numerous allegations of misconduct against multiple officers in the Narcotics Unit, Darell's conviction was reviewed by the CIU.

30. The CIU's investigation found that the records of the DPD and/or the Narcotics Unit contained no complaints of criminal activity at the 32nd Street address.

31. The CIU also found that there were no records of the tip allegedly provided by the CI to Geelhood as alleged in his false search warrant affidavit.

32. At the conclusion of their investigation, the CIU determined that the allegations contained in the search warrant affidavit and Geelhood's trial testimony could not be corroborated.

33. Likewise, the CIU concluded that the allegations in Geelhood's affidavit that supported the issuance of the search warrant for the home on 32nd Street were false.

34. An order to vacate Darell's conviction was subsequently entered on March 24, 2020.

35. From the time of Darell's false arrest that arose from Geelhood's falsified search warrant and affidavit, up through the time that his conviction was vacated, Darell was incarcerated for eight years.

36. Because of Geelhood and/or the City's negligent, grossly negligent and/or intentional misconduct, Darell was unlawfully arrested, imprisoned, maliciously prosecuted and deprived of due process, for a crime that Geelhood and/or the City knew Darell did not commit.

COUNT I: STATE CLAIM—FALSE ARREST--GEELHOOD

37.Plaintiff reasserts and incorporates each of the allegations stated above.

38.Darell was arrested.

39.Darell was aware of the arrest and it was against his will.

40.Geelhood knew that the search warrant that Darell’s arrest was premised upon was not based on true and accurate information and thus didn’t provide probable cause for Darell’s arrest.

41.Geelhood knew that he had falsified statements in the affidavit to support the search warrant which led to an unlawful search and seizure of the property found at Darell’s mother’s home on 32nd Street, which ultimately led to Darell’s arrest.

42.As the direct and proximate result of Geelhood’s misconduct, Darell suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in the future, including, but not limited to:

- a. Physical pain and suffering;
- b. Mental anguish;
- c. Fright and shock;
- d. Denial of social pleasure and enjoyments;
- e. Embarrassment, humiliation or mortification;
- f. Lost wages and/or earning capacity;
- g. The legal expense incurred by Darell to defend against the frivolous criminal charges prosecuted against him; and

h. All other damages learned through the course of discovery and up to the time of trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter a Judgment in his favor and against the defendants in an amount in excess of $25,000.00 and exclusive of costs, interest, and attorney fees.

COUNT II: STATE CLAIM—MALICIOUS PROSECUTION—GEELHOOD

43.Plaintiff reasserts and incorporates each of the allegations stated above.

44.Geelhood instituted and initiated the allegations of criminal activity against Darell without probable cause and with malice or a with primary purpose other than bringing about justice through the proper adjudication of the claim upon which the proceedings are based.

45.Darell’s criminal conviction was vacated in his favor.

46.As the direct and proximate result of Geelhood’s misconduct, Darell has suffered damages and will continue to suffer damages in the future, including but not limited to:

- a. Mental anguish;
- b. Embarrassment, humiliation or mortification;
- c. Denial of social pleasure and enjoyment; and
- d. All other damages learned through the course of discovery and up through time of trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter a Judgment in his favor and against the defendants in an amount in excess of $25,000.00 and exclusive of costs, interest, and attorney fees.

COUNT III: STATE CLAIM—FALSE IMPRISONMENT--GEELHOOD

47. Plaintiff reasserts and incorporates each of the allegations stated above.

48. Darell was imprisoned by Geelhood when he was arrested without probable cause and thus deprived of his personal liberty and freedom of movement.

49. Such imprisonment was against Darell's will.

50. Geelhood accomplished the imprisonment by actual physical force.

51. Geelhood intended to deprive Darell of his personal liberty or freedom of movement.

52. Such imprisonment was unlawful because the arrest was made without probable cause.

53. The prosecution against Darell was caused by Geelhood.

54. A post-conviction proceeding vacated Darell's underlying conviction for possession which in turn released Darell from serving further time in prison.

55. There was no probable cause for initiating or continuing the proceeding.

56. The initiation or continuation of the proceeding was done with malice or a primary purpose other than that of bringing the offender to justice.

57. As the direct and proximate result of misconduct by Geelhood, Darell suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in the future, including, but not limited to:

- a. Physical pain and suffering;
- b. Mental anguish;

- c. Fright and shock;
- d. Denial of social pleasure and enjoyments;
- e. Embarrassment, humiliation or mortification;
- f. Lost wages and/or earning capacity;
- g. The legal expense that Darell incurred to defend against the wrongfully prosecuted criminal charges; and
- h. All other damages learned through the course of discovery and up through the time of trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter a Judgment in his favor and against the defendants in an amount in excess of $25,000.00 and exclusive of costs, interest, and attorney fees.

COUNT IV: STATE CLAIM—GROSS NEGLIGENCE—GEELHOOD

58. Plaintiff reasserts and incorporates each of the allegations stated above.

59. Geelhood had a duty to the general public and in particular to Darell, to refrain from grossly negligent conduct.

60. Geelhood breached that duty and was grossly negligent, or was so reckless as to demonstrate a substantial lack of concern for whether an injury would result when he knowingly falsified the contents of the affidavit that supported the search warrant and knowing executed the search warrant that he knew lacked probable cause.

61. By knowingly falsifying the contents of affidavit and knowingly executing a search that he knew lacked probable cause, Geelhood withheld evidence that exculpated Darell.

62. Geelhood's gross negligence was the one most immediate, efficient, and direct cause of the injury or damage, e.g., the proximate cause, of Darell's damages and injuries, including but not limited to:

- a. False arrest for a crime he did not commit;
- b. False imprisonment for a crime he did not commit;
- d. Physical pain and suffering;
- e. Mental anguish;
- f. Fright and shock;
- g. Denial of social pleasure and enjoyment;
- h. Embarrassment, humiliation or mortification;
- i. Lost wages and/or earning capacity; and
- j. All other damages learned through the course of discovery.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter a Judgment in his favor and against the defendants in an amount in excess of $25,000.00 and exclusive of costs, interest, and attorney fees.

COUNT V: FEDERAL CLAIM-- MUNICIPAL LIABILITY—
CITY OF DETROIT

63. Plaintiff reasserts and incorporates each of the allegations stated above.

64. At all times relevant to this lawsuit, Darell had a right under the due process clause of the state and federal constitutions not to be deprived of his life, liberty, or property.

65. Geelhood's acts of falsifying the affidavit in support of the operative search warrant and executing the search warrant that he accordingly knew lacked the requisite probable cause amounts to withholding exculpatory evidence and violated Darell's fundamental constitutional rights under the 4th, 8th and 14th Amendments.

66. At all times relevant to this lawsuit, the City did have a custom or practice of corruption and misconduct within the narcotics' unit that gave rise to routinely falsifying affidavits to support search warrants, falsely accusing citizens of possessing and/or selling drugs, as well as unlawfully stealing and/or seizing property obtained from searches.

67. Those customs and practices of the City's narcotics unit were so pervasive that the narcotics unit was ultimately disbanded by the Detroit Police Department's own police chief.

68. At all times relevant to this lawsuit, the City did have a custom or practice within its narcotics' unit of failing to adequately train and/or supervise its officers.

69. These failures to adequately train and/or supervise were evident by the years and years of officer corruption and misconduct that went unnoticed and undisciplined.

70. The City, by facilitating a custom and/or practice of corruption and misconduct as well as failing to adequately train and/or supervise acted as the "moving force" behind the deprivation of Darell's constitutional rights.

71. There is a direct causal link between the customs and/or practices and the injuries that Darell has suffered.

72. As a direct and proximate result of the City's customs and/or practices and Geelhood's misconduct specifically, Darell has suffered damages and will continue to suffer damages in the future, including but not limited to the following:

- a. Physical pain and suffering;
- b. Mental anguish;
- c. Fright and shock;
- d. Denial of social pleasure and enjoyments;
- e. Embarrassment, humiliation or mortification;
- f. Lost wages and/or earning capacity;
- g. The legal expense that Darell incurred to defend against wrongfully prosecuted criminal charges; and
- h. All other damages learned through the course of discovery and up through the time of trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter a Judgment in his favor and against the defendants in an amount in excess of $25,000.00 and exclusive of costs, interest, and attorney fees.

COUNT VI: FEDERAL CLAIMS-FALSE ARREST & FALSE IMPRISONMENT--GEELHOOD

73. Plaintiff reasserts and incorporates each of the allegations stated above.

74. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, as well as the 4th, 8th and/or 14th Amendments to the United States Constitution, individuals are protected from detention without legal process.

75.Darell was falsely arrested and falsely imprisoned by Geelhood.

76.Geelhood intentionally and deliberately, or with a reckless disregard for the truth, made false statements, material misrepresentations and/or omissions in the search warrant and affidavit to establish probable cause for Darell's arrest and imprisonment.

77.The magistrate would not have found probable cause for the search warrant without Geelhood's false statements, material misrepresentations and/or omissions.

78.The protection from detention without legal process is a clearly established constitutional right of which a reasonable person and/or officer would have known,.

79.Hence, Geelhood's actions are objectively unreasonable considering this clearly established constitutional right.

80.As a direct and proximate result of Geelhood's misconduct, Darell has suffered damages, and will continue to suffer damages in the future, including, but not limited to:

- a. Physical pain and suffering;
- b. Mental anguish;
- c. Fright and shock;
- d. Denial of social pleasure and enjoyments;
- e. Embarrassment, humiliation or mortification;
- f. Lost wages and/or earning capacity;
- g. The legal expense incurred by Darell to defend against the frivolous criminal charges prosecuted against him; and

h. All other damages learned through the course of discovery and up to the time of trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter a Judgment in his favor and against the defendants in an amount in excess of $25,000.00 and exclusive of costs, interest, and attorney fees.

COUNT VII: FEDERAL CLAIM—MALICIOUS PROSECUTION—GEELHOOD

81. Plaintiff reasserts and incorporates each of the allegations stated above.

82. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, as well as the 4th, 8th and/or 14th Amendments to the United States Constitution, individuals are protected from criminal prosecution without probable cause.

83. A criminal prosecution was initiated by Geelhood against Darell.

84. Geelhood influenced and/or participated in the prosecution against Darell when he intentionally and deliberately, or with a reckless disregard for the truth, made false statements, material misrepresentations and/or omissions in the search warrant and affidavit.

85. Geelhood's false statements were material in establishing probable cause to prosecute Darell.

86. Darell suffered a deprivation of liberty as a consequence of the legal proceeding because he was imprisoned for over 8 years.

87. The criminal proceedings against Darell were ultimately resolved in his favor when his conviction was vacated.

88. The protection from criminal prosecution without probable cause is a clearly established constitutional right of which a reasonable person would have known.

89. Geelhood's actions were objectively unreasonable considering this clearly established constitutional right.

90. As a direct and proximate result of Geelhood's misconduct, Darell has suffered, and will continue to suffer damages in the future, including, but not limited to:

- a. Physical pain and suffering;
- b. Mental anguish;
- c. Fright and shock;
- d. Denial of social pleasure and enjoyments;
- e. Embarrassment, humiliation or mortification;
- f. Lost wages and/or earning capacity;
- g. The legal expense that Darell incurred to defend against wrongfully prosecuted criminal charges; and
- h. All other damages learned through the course of discovery and up through the time of trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter a Judgment in his favor and against the defendants in an amount in excess of $25,000.00 and exclusive of costs, interest, and attorney fees.

COUNT VIII: FEDERAL CLAIMS—DENIAL OF DUE PROCESS—GEELHOOD

91. Plaintiff reasserts and incorporates each of the allegations stated above.
92. Darell had a right under the due process clause in the federal constitution, as well as the due process clause in Michigan's constitution, not to be deprived of his life, liberty, or property.
93. At all times relevant to this lawsuit, Geelhood was a state actor and his conduct was subject to 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985, and 1988.
94. The search warrant and affidavit that Geelhood falsified and/or his failure to disclose that he falsified the search warrant and affidavit violated Darell's right to due process.
95. Geelhood willfully or inadvertently falsified the search warrant and affidavit and/or failed to disclose that he falsified the search warrant and affidavit.
96. Probable cause could not have been established without Geelhood's falsified statements in the search warrant and affidavit and/or without his failure to disclose that he falsified statements in the search warrant and affidavit.
97. As a result of Geelhood's falsified statements in the search warrant and affidavit and/or Geelhood's failure to disclose that he falsified statements in the search warrant and affidavit Darell was prejudiced.
98. Geelhood's knowledge that the statements he provided to establish probable cause for the search warrant and affidavit were false was exculpatory.

99. Despite having this exculpatory evidence, Geelhood never produced this evidence to the prosecution or defense counsel in violation of Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

100. The right to due process is a clearly established constitutional right of which a reasonable person would have known.

101. Geelhood's actions were objectively unreasonable considering this clearly established constitutional right.

There are no other pending civil actions arising out of the transactions or occurrences alleged in this Complaint.

/s/ Ayanna D. Hatchett
AYANNA D. HATCHETT (P70055)

NOW COMES Plaintiff, DARELL CHANCELLOR, through his counsel, JOHNSON
LAW, PLC and for his Complaint against the defendants states as follows:

- 1. At all times relevant to this lawsuit, Plaintiff, Darell Chancellor (“Darell”) was a resident of Detroit, in Wayne County, Michigan.

20-007758-NO FILED IN MY OFFICE Cathy M. Garrett WAYNE COUNTY CLERK 6/19/2020 12:49 PM Carliita McMiller

2. At all times relevant to this lawsuit, Defendant Officer Stephen Geelhood (“Geelhood”) was employed as a police officer with the Detroit Police Department.
3. At all times relevant to this lawsuit, Geelhood acted under color of state law and is being sued in his individual and representative capacities.
4. At all times relevant to this lawsuit, Defendant City of Detroit (“The City”) was a municipal corporation, duly organized in carrying on governmental functions in the City of Detroit, in Wayne County, Michigan.
5. The amount in controversy exceeds $25, 000.00 exclusive of costs, interest and attorney fees; and jurisdiction is otherwise conferred on this Court pursuant to the United States Constitution as well as 42 U.S.C. §1983.

COMMON ALLEGATIONS

6. At all times relevant to this lawsuit, Geelhood was a member of the now-defunct narcotics unit in the police department for the City of Detroit.
7. On November 2, 2011, an affidavit in support of a search warrant was falsified and sworn to by Officer Geelhood before a 36th District Court magistrate in the City of Detroit.
8. As a result of Geelhood’s swearing to the false affidavit, a search warrant was issued by the magistrate for the search of 5023 32nd Street in Detroit, the home of Darell’s mother.
9. In the false affidavit, Geelhood alleged that he had received information from a confidential informant (CI) on October 31, 2011 that a large quantity of heroin was being stored at and sold from the 32nd Street home. That allegation was false.
10. In the false affidavit, Geelhood further alleged that he had set up surveillance at 5023 32nd Street on November 1, 2011, and personally observed a black male, described as being in his “30s [, 5’8”], 180 lbs.” engaging in a “suspected narcotics transaction” with buyers.

That allegation was also false.

11. The affidavit went on to state that based on his 17 years of experience as a police officer and 9 years in the Narcotics Unit, Geelhood believed that there was probable cause that heroin and the individual suspected of making the narcotics transaction would be found on the premises.
12. On November 2, 2011, the search warrant based on Geelhood’s false affidavit was executed at 5023 32nd Street in Detroit. During the execution of the warrant, a quantity of cocaine was found on the premises. No heroin was found.
13. Darell was not at his mother’s house when the search warrant was executed. But he was later arrested in May of 2012 and charge with (a) the delivery/manufacture of a controlled substance (450 to 999 grams); (b) possession of a controlled substance (450 to 999 grams); (c) felon in possession of a firearm; and (d) felony firearm.
14. The false claims made and sworn to b Geelhood in the search warrant affidavit led directly to the issuance of the search warrant, the raid at 5023 32nd Street, the seizure of the cocaine and to Darell’s subsequent prosecution.
15. As a direct result of Geelhood’s false affidavit, Darell was arrested in May of 2012 and held in Wayne County Jail until his trial date.
16. A bench trial was conducted before the Honorable Daniel Hathaway on November 8, 2012.
17. Geelhood was the prosecution’s star witness at trial. He testified to both the seizure of the cocaine during the raid and the events that he falsely claimed had occurred the two previous days.

18. Geelhood testified falsely at trial that he was telling the truth to the magistrate when he swore to the affidavit before the 36th District Court magistrate.
19. Geelhood also testified falsely at trial about receiving a tip from the CI, conducting surveillance, and he further falsely identified Darell as the person that he supposedly observed selling heroin during his alleged surveillance of Darell's mother's home.
20. The falseness of Geelhood's testimony regarding the alleged three separate hand-to-hand narcotic transactions during his surveillance is magnified by the fact that he never stopped any of the individuals allegedly involved in the drug buys to verify that one had actually taken place.
21. The falseness of Geelhood's identification of Darell as the person who he allegedly observed selling drugs on November 1, 2011 was further demonstrated by the difference between the description of the alleged seller as 5'8", 180 pounds, no glasses, and the actual size and description of Darell who is 5'11", 250 pounds and has worn prescription glasses his entire adult life.
22. On November 12, 2012, when Darell was found guilty of possession of cocaine, Judge Hathaway explicitly relied on Geelhood's false statements that identified Darell as the person who was seen selling drugs from the target address.
23. The reliance on Geelhood's false statements was highlighted when Judge Hathaway issued his verdict convicting Darell of possession of cocaine and stated the following:

"So it really comes down to the reliability of Officer Geelhood's identification. As I said when [Geelhood] was questioned and the discrepancies were pointed out he was adamant and maintained that the individual he saw that day through the binoculars was, in fact, the defendant Mr. Chancellor; that he recognized him from that surveillance that he did and that he was in fact the person and of course to me, this comes down to, well, part of it comes down to that identification.” (Trial transcript, Vol. 3, pp 31-32)

24. Darell was sentenced on December 12, 2012 to serve a term of 14 years and 3 months to 30 years of imprisonment.
25. The Conviction Integrity Unit (CIU), a division of the Wayne County Prosecutor’s Office, became involved in Darell’s case as a result of an internal investigation by the Detroit Police Department (DPD) as well as a federal investigation into the department’s Narcotics Unit concerning allegations that multiple Detroit police narcotics officers, including Geelhood, had participated in falsifying warrant affidavits, falsely accusing citizens of drug crimes and stealing case, guns and narcotics found during search warrant executions.
26. On information and belief, at the time of Darell’s trial in 2012, the City was aware of the existence of the federal investigation and that the DPD had begun its own investigation of the Narcotics Unit.
27. As a result of the DPD’s investigation, the Narcotic Unit, which included Geelhood, was disbanded by Detroit Police Chief James Craig in the summer of 2014.
28. In 2019, because of the numerous allegations of misconduct against multiple officers in the Narcotics Unit, Darell’s conviction was reviewed by the CIU.
29. The CIU’s investigation found that the records of the DPD and/or the Narcotics Unit contained no complaints of criminal activity at the 32nd Street address.
30. The CIU also found that there were no records of the tip allegedly provided by the CI to Geelhood as alleged in his false search warrant affidavit.
31. At the conclusion of their investigation, the CIU determined that the allegations contained in the search warrant affidavit and Geelhood’s trial testimony could not be corroborated.

32. Likewise, the CIU concluded that the allegations in Geelhood's affidavit that supported the issuance of the search warrant for the home on 32nd Street were false.
33. An order to vacate Darell's conviction was subsequently entered on March 24, 2020.
34. From the time of Darell's false arrest that arose from Geelhood's falsified search warrant and affidavit, up through the time that his conviction was vacated, Darell was incarcerated for eight years.
35. Because of Geelhood and/or the City's negligent, grossly negligent and/or intentional misconduct, Darell was unlawfully arrested, imprisoned, maliciously prosecuted and deprived of due process, for a crime that Geelhood and/or the City knew Darell did not commit.

COUNT I: STATE CLAIM—FALSE ARREST--GEELHOOD

36. Plaintiff reasserts and incorporates each of the allegations stated above.
37. Darell was arrested.
38. Darell was aware of the arrest and it was against his will.
39. Geelhood knew that the search warrant and affidavit that Darell's arrest was premised upon was not based on true and accurate information and thus did not provide probable cause for Darell's arrest.
40. Geelhood knew that he had falsified statements in the affidavit to support the search warrant which led to an unlawful search and seizure of the property found at Darell's mother's home on 32nd Street, which ultimately led to Darell's arrest.
41. As the direct and proximate result of Geelhood's misconduct, Darell suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in the future, including, but not limited to:

- a. Physical pain and suffering;
- b. Mental anguish;
- c. Fright and shock;
- d. Denial of social pleasure and enjoyments;
- e. Embarrassment, humiliation or mortification;
- f. Lost wages and/or earning capacity;
- g. The legal expense incurred by Darell to defend against the frivolous criminal charges prosecuted against him; and
- h. All other damages learned through the course of discovery and up to the time of trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter a Judgment in his favor and against the defendants in an amount in excess of $25,000.00 and exclusive of costs, interest, and attorney fees.

COUNT II: STATE CLAIM—MALICIOUS PROSECUTION—GEELHOOD

42. Plaintiff reasserts and incorporates each of the allegations stated above.
43. Geelhood instituted and initiated the allegations of criminal activity against Darell without probable cause and with malice or a with primary purpose other than bringing about justice through the proper adjudication of the claim upon which the proceedings are based.
44. Darell's criminal conviction was vacated in his favor.
45. As the direct and proximate result of Geelhood's misconduct, Darell has suffered damages and will continue to suffer damages in the future, including but not limited to:

- a. Mental anguish;
- b. Embarrassment, humiliation or mortification;
- c. Denial of social pleasure and enjoyment; and
- d. All other damages learned through the course of discovery and up through time of trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter a Judgment in his favor and against the defendants in an amount in excess of $25, 000.00 and exclusive of costs, interest, and attorney fees.

COUNT III: STATE CLAIM—FALSE IMPRISONMENT—GEELHOOD

46. Plaintiff reasserts and incorporates each of the allegations stated above.
47. Darell was imprisoned by Geelhood when he was arrested without probable cause and thus deprived of his personal liberty and freedom of movement.
48. Such imprisonment was against Darell's will.
49. Geelhood accomplished the imprisonment by actual physical force.
50. Geelhood intended to deprive Darell of his personal liberty or freedom of movement.
51. Such imprisonment was unlawful because the arrest was made without probable cause.
52. The prosecution against Darell was caused by Geelhood.
53. A post-conviction proceeding vacated Darell's underlying conviction for possession which in turn released Darell from serving further time in prison.
54. There was no probable cause for initiating or continuing the proceeding.
55. The initiation or continuation of the proceeding was done with malice or a primary purpose other than that of bringing the offender to justice.

56. As the direct and proximate result of misconduct by Geelhood, Darell suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in the future, including, but not limited to:

- a. Physical pain and suffering;
- b. Mental anguish;
- c. Fright and shock;
- d. Denial of social pleasure and enjoyments;
- e. Embarrassment, humiliation or mortification;
- f. Lost wages and/or earning capacity;
- g. The legal expense that Darell incurred to defend against the wrongfully prosecuted criminal charges; and
- h. All other damages learned through the course of discovery and up through the time of trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter a Judgment in his favor and against the defendants in an amount in excess of $25, 000.00 and exclusive of costs, interest, and attorney fees.

COUNT IV: STATE CLAIM—GROSS NEGLIGENCE—GEELHOOD

57. Plaintiff reasserts and incorporates each of the allegations stated above.

58. Geelhood had a duty to the general public and in particular to Darell, to refrain from grossly negligent conduct.

59. Geelhood breached that duty and was grossly negligent, or was so reckless as to demonstrate a substantial lack of concern for whether an injury would result when he knowingly falsified the contents of the affidavit that supported the search warrant and knowing executed the search warrant that he knew lacked probable cause.

60. By knowingly falsifying the contents of affidavit and knowingly executing a search that he knew lacked probable cause, Geelhood withheld evidence that exculpated Darell.

61. Geelhood's gross negligence was the one most immediate, efficient, and direct cause of the injury or damage, e.g., the proximate cause, of Darell's damages and injuries, including but not limited to:

- a. False arrest for a crime he did not commit;
- b. False imprisonment for a crime he did not commit;
- d. Physical pain and suffering;
- e. Mental anguish;
- f. Fright and shock;
- g. Denial of social pleasure and enjoyment;
- h. Embarrassment, humiliation or mortification;
- i. Lost wages and/or earning capacity; and
- j. All other damages learned through the course of discovery.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter a Judgment in his favor and against the defendants in an amount in excess of $25, 000.00 and exclusive of costs, interest, and attorney fees.

Respectfully submitted,

6 THE REPORTER: The attorneys participating in

7 this proceeding acknowledge that I am not physically

8 present in the conference room and that I will be

9 reporting this proceeding remotely. They further

10 acknowledge that in lieu of an oath administered in

11 person, the witness will verbally declare his testimony

12 in this matter is under penalty of perjury. The 13 parties and counsel consent to this arrangement and 14 waive any objections to this manner of reporting.

15 Please indicate your agreement on the record.

16 MR. CUNNINGHAM: Patrick Cunningham on behalf

17 of the defendants and I agree.

18 MS. HATCHETT: Ayanna Hatchett on behalf of 19 plaintiff and we have no objection to the statement as 20 read.

21 MR. JOHNSON: Ven Johnson on behalf of 22 plaintiff as well. Thanks.

23 DARELL CHANCELLOR,

24 was thereupon called as a witness herein, and after

25 having first been duly sworn to testify to the truth,

1 the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, was
2 examined and testified as follows:

3 EXAMINATION

4 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

5 Q. Good morning, Mr. Chancellor, my name is Patrick
6 Cunningham and I represent Steven Geelhood and the City
7 of Detroit in your lawsuit against those two groups.
8 Have you ever given deposition testimony before?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. I'm sorry. The answer is yes?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. How long has it been since you last gave deposition
13 testimony?

14 A. I think since 2005.

15 Q. Did you end up coming into the office or are you at 16 home?

17 A. I'm at home.

18 Q. Okay. If you could do your best, I can't really -- I
19 can really only see the top of your forehead there.
20 That's much better. Thanks.

21 Is there anybody at home with you there?

22 A. Not in the room, no.

23 Q. Okay. So, I'm sorry, when was the last time you gave 24 deposition testimony?

25 A. 2005.

1 Q. 2005? Okay. This is the same thing, but it's a little
2 bit different, obviously, since we're doing all of this 3 remotely and everybody is appearing by Zoom. But the 4 rules are still the same. You have sworn to tell the 5 truth, and Diane is going to be taking down a written
6 record of the things that you and I say. And in order
7 to make it easier on Diane, there are a view things
8 that I'm going to ask you to do. The first is to give 9 verbal answers in words. In a normal conversation I
10 might ask you a yes or no question and you might nod
11 your head and shake your head and I would know what you
12 meant, but it's difficult for Diane to take down. So 13 please do your best to answer verbally in words. Is 14 that fair?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. Another thing that's particularly difficult to 17 avoid is uh-huhs and unh-unhs which are difficult to 18 transcribe, so please do your best to answer with 19 yesses and nos. Is that fair?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. The last thing is, and this is particularly true
22 on Zoom, it's difficult to transcribe when more than 23 one person is talking at a time, so please do your best
24 to wait until I've finished asking a question before
25 you start answering a question. Is that fair?

1 A. No problem.

2 Q. Okay. And the last thing is if I ask a question and
3 you give an answer, I will assume that you heard and 4 understood the question. Is that fair?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Could you please give me your full name?

7 A. Darell Deon Chancellor.

8 Q. And what is your current address?

9 A. 5023 32nd.

10 Q. And where at that location do you stay? In a room?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Where is your room?

13 A. In the living room.

14 Q. Do you have a bed that you sleep on?

15 A. I sleep on my mother couch.

16 Q. How many bedrooms are in the house at 5023 32nd Street?

17 A. Three.

18 Q. Who lives at 5023 32nd Street with you right now?

19 A. My mother, and my sister and her boyfriend.

20 Q. And what is your mother's name?

21 A. Janet Chancellor.

22 Q. And what is your sister's name?

23 A. Crystal Chancellor.

24 Q. And how do you spell Crystal?

25 A. What is it? C-y-t -- I mean C-y-s-t-a-l.

1 Q. Okay. And what is your mother's boyfriend's name?

2 A. Alvin Thomas.

3 Q. And nobody lives at the house besides you, your mom,
4 your sister and her boyfriend?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. What is your Social Security number?

7 A. ***-**-3013.

8 Q. Do you have a Michigan driver's license?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Do you have a Michigan State ID?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Do you have it with you?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Could you read me the number off of it?

15 A. Which number?

16 Q. The long one that starts with a letter and ends with a
17 bunch of numbers.

18 A. C-524-135-139-932.

19 Q. Could you hold it up to the camera so that I can see 20 it? I think that's good. Let me just Zoom in on that.
21 Can you just pull it back a little bit? Right there is 22 perfect. What's the weight on that identification
23 card?

24 A. 280.

25 Q. What's the height?

1 A. 5'11".

2 Q. And when was that issued?

3 A. Issued -- what's this?

4 Q. Should be in the top right corner?

5 A. December 14, 2020.

6 Q. And below that should be the expiration date. What's 7 the expiration date?

8 A. December 7, 2024.

9 Q. What's your date of birth?

10 A. 12-7-81.

11 Q. So are you still 5'11"?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. How much do you weigh right now?

17 Q. Always been right handed?

18 A. Yes.

20 besides Darell Chancellor?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. What other names have you used?

23 A. Jason Chancellor, Jason Thomas.

24 Q. What did you use the name Jason Chancellor for?

25 A. I don't recall. I think I had a -- I don't recall. I

1 think I had a dope case and I used the name.

2 Q. Did you tell the police that your name was Jason
3 Chancellor?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. What about Jason Thomas? What did you use that name
6 for?

7 A. Probably the same thing.

8 Q. Was that a name you gave to the police?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Are there any other names that you've used in the past
11 besides Darell Chancellor, Jason Chancellor or Jason
12 Thomas?

13 A. No, not that I know of.

14 Q. Are you married?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Have you ever been married?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. How many times have you been married?

19 A. Once.

20 Q. And are you divorced?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. What's the name of your ex-wife?

23 A. Katrice Butler.

24 Q. When you were married did she go by Katrice Chancellor?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Did she ever have another last name besides Butler or
2 Chancellor?

3 A. I don't know.

4 Q. Not to your knowledge?

5 A. Not to my knowledge.

6 Q. Okay. When you married her, before you married did she 7 go by Katrice Butler?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Has she remarried since you guys got divorced?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Do you know if she uses a different last name, a 12 married last name now?

13 A. I don't know.

14 Q. Give me one second. I'm just going to try --

15 A. No problem.

16 Q. -- and find a name here. Katrice Alford, is that 17 Katrice's last now?

18 A. I don't -- I believe so.

19 Q. Okay. Where does Katrice live?

20 A. I don't know, sir. I don't know the name of the block.
21 I forget the name of the block.

22 Q. When you say the name of the block, do you mean the 23 name of the street that she lives on?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And do you have Katrice's phone number?

1 Q. There's still a gas station there, isn't there?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Was it the same kind of operation, G&G Market is the 4 gas station that's there now?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. What did you do at G&G Market?

7 A. Stock, basically. Yeah, basically stock and whatever
8 else was asked of me.

9 Q. What else was asked of you besides stocking shelves?

10 A. I mean make sure it stay clean, try to keep riffraff up
11 out of there.

12 Q. Who was your boss at G&G Market?

13 A. Kevin.

14 Q. What's Kevin's last name?

15 A. I can't remember. It was one of them funny last names.
16 He used to own the gas station.

17 Q. What kind of funny last name?

18 A. One of them -- not funny, but hard to pronounce. One
19 of them Arabic --

20 Q. I understood what you said. I'm not trying to make it
21 offensive, but I'm just trying to know specifically how 22 was it unusual?

23 A. One of the Arab last names, so it's hard to pronounce.

24 Q. Who did you work with at G&G Market?

25 A. I worked by myself.

1 Q. When you were working at G&G Market would you be the
2 only person there?

3 A. I mean, Kevin would be there, but like besides that 4 it's just mainly me.

5 Q. You didn't have any coworkers?

6 A. No.

7 Q. And when was the last time you worked at G&G Market?

8 A. 2012; like 2012.

9 Q. Do you have a phone number for Kevin?

10 A. No, I haven't talked to Kevin.

11 Q. And so Kevin worked there, but he was also the owner of 12 the store?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. What's the last place that you worked before G&G?

15 A. Before G&G I worked for some temp services. I don't 16 recall the names, but it was a few temp services.

17 Q. Did you ever work for Manpower?

18 A. I don't recall that. It's probably a temp service or 19 something, but I don't recall the name.

20 Q. Yeah, I was just asking because Manpower is a popular
21 temp service.

22 A. Oh, okay.

23 Q. See if that jogs your memory at all. What did you
24 do -- what kind of jobs did the temp service have you
25 doing?

1 A. I mean, it's different jobs. You go to different sites
2 every day. It's a different job.

3 Q. Right. So what were some of the jobs that you were
4 doing?

5 A. I don't recall, that's why I say, it was before G&G
6 Market, so I don't really recall.

7 Q. And so you don't recall any jobs that you did for the
8 temp service?

9 A. No; vaguely.

10 Q. I know it was before G&G Market, but when was the last 11 time you worked for a temp service?

12 A. Don't recall, sir.

13 Q. Have you ever filed a lawsuit before this one?

14 A. Yes. Well, I had attorney file. I never filed one 15 myself.

16 Q. Sure. How many lawsuits have you had an attorney file
17 for you?

18 A. One, before this one, one.

19 Q. One before this?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And did you testify at a deposition in connection with 22 that lawsuit?

23 A. Yes, that's the deposition I told you, yes.

24 Q. Okay. Sir, I can only see the top of your head right
25 now, Mr. Chancellor. There you go, that's much better.

1 Thank you.

2 And who did you sue in that lawsuit, that
3 prior lawsuit?

4 A. The City of Detroit, an Officer Melendez.

5 Q. And what was that lawsuit about?

6 A. Basically the same things going on now. Officer
7 Melendez lied on me.

8 Q. What did he say?

9 A. He said I had a firearm, which I didn't.

10 Q. Did Officer Melendez have any involvement in this 11 lawsuit, the one we're talking about right now?

12 A. No, not to my knowing. I don't know.

13 Q. You're not aware of any involvement that he had?

14 A. No.

15 Q. And what was the result of that prior lawsuit?

16 A. It was settled out.

17 Q. And did you receive a payment?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. How much did you receive?

20 MS. HATCHETT: I'm just going to object
21 preliminarily as based on relevance, but go ahead,
22 Darell.

23 THE WITNESS: It was 250,000.

24 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

25 Q. What did you do with that $250,000?

1 A. I didn't get a chance to spend it. I was locked up, so
2 the state took it.

3 Q. Did the state take it to pay for the cost of your
4 imprisonment?

5 A. Yes.

6 MS. HATCHETT: Objection; relevance.

7 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

8 Q. In this case you were convicted of possession of 9 cocaine; right?

10 A. In this case I was exonerated.

11 Q. Well, initially you were convicted by the judge; right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Before that conviction, how many prior convictions did
14 you have before the one underlying this case?

15 MS. HATCHETT: I'll just object based off of 16 relevance to this whole line of questioning, if I can 17 have a continuing objection; Patrick, on this one.

18 MR. CUNNINGHAM: I'll give you a continuing
19 objection on the basis of relevance.

20 MS. HATCHETT: Thank you.

21 MR. CUNNINGHAM: Sure.

22 THE WITNESS: Now you say what?

23 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

24 Q. How many prior convictions did you have before the one
25 underlying this case? You know, let me start over.

1 That's a confusing way to go about it. I can see that
2 you're confused.

3 What's the first time you were ever convicted
4 of a crime?

5 A. I think -- as a adult?

6 Q. Were you convicted before you were an adult?

7 A. I had, yes, I had a conviction as a juvenile, yes.

8 Q. How old were you when you had a juvenile conviction?

9 A. I think I was about 15, 16 at the time.

10 Q. And what was that conviction for?

11 A. I think it was like -- I don't know how to put it. It
12 was like truant, just basic like truancy at school and 13 acting up at home, so my mother decided to award me to 14 the state, if that's like a case.

15 Q. Did you end up living -- when you say award you to the 16 state, does that mean you stopped living with your mom?

17 A. Yes, my mother award me to the state, yes.

22 those centers, stuff like that.

23 Q. And how long did you live at one of those centers?

24 A. Till my grandma came and got me. My grandma took 25 custody of me, so not that long. A few months at the 1 most.

2 Q. And so I guess I'm not clear. As a juvenile were you
3 convicted of a crime?

4 A. If that's not a crime, I guess not.

5 Q. Okay. Were there any other convictions you had as a 6 juvenile?

7 A. I think I had a possession of marijuana or something
8 like that.

9 Q. How old were you when you were convicted of possession
10 of marijuana?

11 A. Around the same, about 15, 16.

12 Q. When is the first time you were convicted of a crime as 13 an adult?

14 A. I think like 2000; 2000, 2001, something in there.

15 Q. You would have been about 20 years old, 21 years old,

22 Q. Did you have a trial for that conviction?

7 Q. Did you have a trial for that charge?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Did you plead guilty to that charge?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. After your second conviction of under 50 grams of 12 heroin, what's the next time you got convicted of a
13 crime?

14 A. It was all around in the same time, so it was like from 15 2000 to 2001 or 2002, it was another under 25 or under 16 50.

17 Q. Under 25 or 50 grams of what?

18 A. Heroin.

19 Q. And did you have a trial in that case?

20 A. No.

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. After your third conviction of possession of heroin,
24 what's the next time you were convicted of a crime?

3 Q. And did you have a trial in that case?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Did you plead guilty in that case?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. What did you plead guilty to receiving and concealing?

8 A. It was a car.

9 Q. A stolen car?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. After your conviction of receiving and concealing the 12 car, what's the next time you were convicted of a
13 crime?

14 A. Armed robbery. I think it was an armed robbery, 2003
15 armed robbery, felony firearm.

16 Q. And did you have a trial in that case?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Did you plead guilty in that case?

19 A. Plead no contact (phonetic).

20 Q. Pled no contest?

21 A. Yeah.

22 Q. And what did you do that you pled no contest to armed 23 robbery?

24 A. What you mean? I don't understand the question.

25 Q. Did you rob someplace?

1 A. A person.

2 Q. Who did you rob?

3 A. A drug dealer.

4 Q. What did you rob this person of?

5 A. Some glasses.

6 Q. What kind of glasses?

7 A. Cartier glasses.

11 Q. What were you armed with?

12 A. A gun.

13 Q. What kind of gun?

14 A. A .357.

15 Q. Was that a .357 Magnum?

16 A. I don't remember the make and the model -- I mean the 17 model.

18 Q. Where did you get a .357 from?

19 MS. HATCHETT: Object to relevance. Go

20 ahead.

21 THE WITNESS: I don't recall.

22 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

23 Q. After armed robbery and felony firearm, what's the next 24 thing you were convicted of?

25 A. There's no convictions after that. I was convicted of 1 this what I have been exonerated from, that was it.

2 Q. In 2001 when you were convicted of under 50 grams of 3 heroin, were you imprisoned after that conviction?

4 A. What you mean, imprisoned?

5 Q. Did they put you in jail?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Did you get probation?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. After the second conviction in 2001 under 50
10 grams of heroin, did they put you in jail after that?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Did you get probation?

13 A. Yes, I didn't go to prison for none of them
14 convictions.

15 Q. Okay. I appreciate you trying to save me some time, 16 but just for completeness sake I'm going to go through 17 them.

18 For the third conviction in 2002, under 25
19 grams of heroin, did you get probation for that?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And were you in jail for that at all?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Okay. The conviction of receiving and concealing over 24 $1,000, did you get probation for that?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And did you go to jail at all for that?

2 A. No.

3 Q. And for the armed robbery, felony firearm conviction,
4 were you sentenced to probation for that?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Were you sentenced to prison for that?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. All right. And was your sentence for the armed 9 robbery, felony firearm?

10 A. 7 to 15, 5 for the armed robbery, 2 for the gun, so
11 altogether it was 7 to 15.

12 Q. And how long did you actually serve in prison?

13 A. Like 7-1/2 years, 8 years.

14 Q. So that was from 2003 to about 2010; is that right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And when you were released in 2010, you were paroled?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Since you have been let out of prison in this case have 19 you been charged with any other crimes?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Did you ever receive medical care when you were in 22 prison?

23 A. Like what?

24 Q. Like seeing a doctor or seeing a nurse or anything like
25 that?

1 A. I mean, yes, if I was sick I went to the doctor, yes.

2 Q. Okay. And do they have a doctor at the prison or do
3 you leave the prison to go see a doctor somewhere else?

4 A. I mean, they got a doctor at the prison.

5 Q. And I see that you're wearing glasses; right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And I always find this question difficult to ask. Why
8 do you wear glasses? Because I need them to see.
9 That's always the answer and it makes sense, but what 10 kind of vision problems do you have without your 11 glasses that your glasses correct for you?

12 A. Without my glasses, I can't see. It's blurry. I --

13 Q. Go ahead. I'm sorry.

14 A. I can't function without my glasses.

15 Q. Are things close to you blurry or are things far away
16 from you blurry or are both of them blurry?

17 A. It's all blurry.

10 Q. What do you remember about November 1st, 2011?

11 A. I mean, what do you mean what do I remember?

10 Q. What kind of car did you have?

14 Q. And how long were you at work?

19 depends on when he's done, you know, if we done working
20 for the day.

21 Q. Well, when were you done working that day?

22 A. About that day at about 5:00; about 5:00, 6:00,
23 something like that.

24 Q. And then what did you do at 5:00 o'clock when you were 25 done working?

1 A. I went home.

2 Q. And where was home?

7 Q. And did you work on November 2nd, 2011?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And what time did you start work?

10 A. About the same, about 8:00; about 8:45, 9:00.

5 Q. So November 1st was coming up on 10 years ago; right?

6 A. Uh-huh.

7 Q. Why do you remember that day?

8 A. Why do I remember that day?

9 Q. Yeah.

10 A. Because I -- I mean why wouldn't I remember that day?
11 I just spent 8 years in prison over that day. If 12 something traumatic happened to you, you remember that 13 day, too.

14 Q. Okay. And did anything out of the ordinary happen on 15 November 1st, 2011 to you?

16 A. What you mean, that date?

17 Q. Yes, November 1st, 2011. Anything out of the ordinary

12 A. I was at home.

13 Q. And what did you do after you talked to your mom?

14 A. What you mean, what did I do about what?

15 Q. About anything. But what did you do? You hung up the 16 phone and then what happened after that?

17 A. Nothing happened after that. I hung up the phone and 18 that was that.

19 Q. Did you leave the house that night after you got off
20 the phone with your mom?

21 A. No.

22 Q. So your mom's house is 5023 32nd Street; right?

23 A. Yes

24 Q. And that's the house you're at right now; right?

25 A. No, I'm not right there right now, no.

1 Q. Where are you now?

2 A. I'm over a friend house right now.

3 Q. Oh, I assumed that you were.

4 A. Do I have to be at home to do this call?

5 Q. No, I asked you earlier where you were and you told me
6 that you were at 5023 32nd Street.

7 MS. HATCHETT: Actually, I think you may have
8 asked him specifically where he was living.

9 MR. CUNNINGHAM: Correct. Well, I asked him
10 that, too.

11 THE WITNESS: Yeah.

12 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

13 Q. Okay. I asked you -- maybe I misunderstood. Where are 14 you right now?

15 A. Do I got to answer that?

16 Q. Yeah. I wouldn't -- you're testifying remotely from a 17 location. I would like to know the location where 18 you're testifying from remotely.

19 MR. JOHNSON: Please answer, Darell. Thank
20 you.

21 THE WITNESS: Okay. I'm over at my 22 girlfriend house.

23 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

24 Q. All right. And what's the address there?

25 A. It's 15040 Robison.

1 Q. 1504?
2 A. Yeah, zero, Robison.
3 Q. I'm sorry. 15040 Robison? Did I get it right?
4 A. Say it again for me.
5 Q. Sure. 15040?
6 A. Yes; Robison. I mean not Robison, Ferguson.
7 Q. Ferguson?
8 A. Yeah; Ferguson.

13 Q. And is Rogers R-o-g-e-r-s?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. So 5023 32nd Street, that's your mom's house?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Is that still your mom's house?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Okay. Have you lived there in the past?
20 A. What you mean, in the past?
21 Q. Did you ever live at that house?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. When is the last time you lived there?
24 A. I stay there now.
25 Q. And when did you start living there this time, if that

1 makes sense?

2 A. When I got out of prison.

3 Q. And when was that?

4 A. March 26, 2020.

5 Q. Okay. On March 26, 2020 you got out of prison and you
6 started living at 5023 32nd Street?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And have you lived anywhere else in between March 26,
9 2020 and now?

10 A. No.

11 Q. All right. Before March 26 of 2020 had lived at 5023
12 32nd Street before that?

13 A. You said before March 2020? I was locked up.

14 Q. Correct. Ever in the past, did you ever live at that 15 address before?

16 A. Yes; yes.

17 Q. And when is the last time you lived at that address
18 before, before you moved back in in March 26, 2020?

19 A. I was at that location when I got out of prison the 20 first time, in December. December 14 -- I mean
21 December 15, 2010 I stayed there.

22 Q. Okay. So December 15, 2010 you got out of prison and 23 you moved --

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. -- into your mom's house?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And when did you move out of your mom's house?

3 A. The next month when my utilities, when my lights was on 4 on my house on Robison, I moved into Robison.

5 Q. And that would have been January 2011?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. When you were living at -- on 32nd Street, when I say
8 the 32nd street house, I'm going to mean your mom's
9 house; is that fair?

10 A. Okay. Yes; yes; yes.

11 Q. All right. When you were living at the 32nd Street
12 house in December of 2010, who lived there with you?

13 A. The same people and my brother.

14 Q. So your mom?

15 A. My mother, her boyfriend, that's my sister.

16 Q. Alvin?

17 A. Alvin, and Antonio.

18 Q. And Antonio, was your brother?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Also last name Chancellor?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. So in December of 2010, did anybody live there besides
23 you, your mom, Crystal, Alvin and Antonio?

24 A. No, that was it.

25 Q. Okay. After you moved out in January of 2011, did

1 anybody else move into the 32nd Street house?

2 A. I don't think -- I don't know. I don't recall.

3 Q. Did you have any cousins that lived there?

4 A. I don't recall.

5 Q. Did Ronald Durrell live there?

6 A. I don't recall.

7 Q. All right. In January of 2011 -- let's see. Well, I
8 guess it's between December and January, December of 9 2010 and January of 2011, when you were living at the 10 32nd Street house, where did you sleep?

11 A. On the couch.

12 Q. Is it the same couch you're sleeping on now?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Is the couch the same location?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Is it on the first floor or the second floor?

17 A. The first floor.

18 Q. After you moved out, did you ever stay over or stay the 19 night at the 32nd Street house?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Did you keep any of your belongings at the 32nd Street
22 house after you moved out?

23 A. No.

24 Q. And there are only three bedrooms in the 32nd Street
25 house?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. How many beds?

3 A. Should be three. Yes, I say three.

4 Q. Okay. At the trial in this case, remember the trial in 5 this case, the criminal trial?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. There was a document introduced into evidence
8 from the Michigan Department of Treasury, do you
9 remember that?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. What was that document?

12 A. It was -- it was something from my parole officer, a 13 payment or something. If I ain't mistaken, it was some 14 type of payment thing from my parole officer.

15 Q. You told your parole officer that you lived at 5023
16 32nd Street right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And your parole officer came to visit you at that 19 location; right?

20 A. Yes

21 Q. And did she visit you there after January of 2011?

22 A. No, not to my -- I don't recall. I don't recall seeing 23 her after that.

24 Q. Did you ever tell your parole officer that you moved to 25 Robison?

1 A. No.

2 Q. So when you told your parole officer that you lived at 3 32nd Street, you really lived at Robison; is that
4 right?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. So you were lying to her when you told her that; right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Did you tell your parole officer that you lived
9 upstairs at 32nd Street?

10 A. No.

11 Q. So if she testified that you told her that you lived
12 upstairs, she would be lying?

13 A. Yes.

14 MR. CUNNINGHAM: Hey, Ayanna, I have a few
15 exhibits I'm going to show him. I'm going to e-mail
16 them to you right now.

17 MS. HATCHETT: Okay. Thank you.

18 MR. CUNNINGHAM: Just give me one minute, Mr.
19 Chancellor.

20 MR. JOHNSON: If you can, e-mail them to me,
21 too, sir.

22 MR. CUNNINGHAM: I will.

23 MR. JOHNSON: I appreciate it. Thanks.

24 MR. CUNNINGHAM: Bear with me. My computer
25 is not cooperating with me.

1 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

2 Q. All right. Mr. Chancellor, I'm going to share a
3 document on your screen. You should be able to see it
4 on your phone, I hope. So we'll see how this goes.
5 Okay. Can you see that, Mr. Chancellor?

6 A. Yes, a little bit.

7 Q. I'll try and make it a little bit bigger.

8 A. Okay.

9 Q. Can you see what it says at the top there?

10 A. Parole conditions.

11 Q. If I highlight it, can you see the highlighting?

12 A. Yeah.

13 Q. Okay. Parole conditions. All right.

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. And number 2 here, can you see that?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And could you read that for me?

18 A. Hold on one second. You must not change residence
19 without prior permission of your agent, your field
20 agent.

21 Q. And I'm just going to zoom out a little bit so you can 22 it's one whole document. Is that your signature at the 23 bottom?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. I'm going to mark that as Exhibit 1. And then

1 I'm going to ask you to look at this also, Mr.
2 Chancellor. Is that your writing?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And is that your signature at the bottom?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. That's it for the moment.

7 All right. Are you aware that on November
8 2nd, 2011 cocaine was found at your mom's house at 5023
9 32nd Street?

10 A. Could you repeat the question?

11 Q. Sure. Are you aware that on November 2nd, 2011 cocaine
12 was found at your mother's house at 5023 32nd Street?

13 A. Yeah, I'm aware they say something found there.

14 Q. I'm sorry. You aware what?

15 A. I'm aware that something was found there they say.

16 Q. At your trial do you remember your attorney stipulating
17 that what they found was cocaine?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. So would you disagree with me when I say that what they 20 found there was cocaine?

21 A. I don't know what they found there. I wasn't there,
22 sir.

23 Q. Was that your cocaine?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Do you know how that cocaine got there?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Well, it wasn't your mother's cocaine; right?

3 A. Not to my knowing.

4 Q. So do you know whether it was your mother's cocaine?

5 MS. HATCHETT: Objection; relevance.

6 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

7 Q. I'm sorry. I couldn't hear your response.

8 A. No, I don't know who cocaine it was.

9 Q. Was it Ronald Durrell's cocaine?

10 A. Don't know, sir.

11 Q. Was it Alvin Thomas' cocaine?

12 A. Don't know, sir.

13 MS. HATCHETT: Objection; asked and answered,
14 lack of foundation.

15 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

16 Q. Was it Crystal's cocaine?

17 MS. HATCHETT: Same objection.

18 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

19 Q. Did it belong to one of your cousins?

20 A. Don't know, sir. Ain't belong to me.

21 Q. Okay. And so you don't know how it got there?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. All right. Your house on Robison, it's 9209? That's 24 right, isn't it, 9209?

25 A. 9209, yes.

1 Q. Okay. Why did you purchase that house?

2 A. I don't understand the question.

3 Q. Were you in prison when you purchased that house?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. So what did you need a house for?

6 A. Just because I was coming home and I wanted a house to 7 live in.

8 Q. When did you purchase that house?

9 A. I don't recall. I don't recall. I think it was -- I
10 don't recall, sir.

11 Q. Okay. Who did you purchase it from?

12 A. What do you mean, who I purchase it from?

13 Q. Did you pay money to somebody to get the house?

14 A. I had a, yes, my friend Roxsanna Collins.

15 Q. So you bought the house from Roxsanna?

16 A. No, she bought it for me. I was incarcerated, so I
17 couldn't, you know, sign deeds and all that, so she 18 bought the house for me, and when I was coming home I
19 was getting the house from her.

20 Q. Who did she buy the house from?

21 A. I don't know, sir.

22 Q. And so I think what you're telling me is she bought it
23 from somebody else, you're not sure who, and then you
24 bought it from her? Really you were just kind of using 25 her as a go-between between whoever owned it before she

1 owned it and yourself?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. So Roxsanna never lived there?

4 A. No.

5 Q. And how do you know Roxsanna? What's your relationship
6 with her?

7 A. I took her to her prom like years ago, way, way years
8 ago. Used to be my girlfriend.

9 Q. Where does Roxsanna live?

10 A. Don't know.

11 Q. And, I'm sorry, Roxsanna's last name is Collins; is 12 that right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And Roxsanna by the way is R-o-x-s-a-n-n-a?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And what's Roxsanna's phone number?

17 A. I got to go through my phone to get it.

18 Q. Okay. If you could do that, please.

19 A. I'm kind of scared.

20 Q. It's touch and go with that, isn't it? Right. Let's 21 hold off on that for the time being.

22 A. Right.

23 Q. We might not want to risk that.

24 A. Right.

25 Q. All right. I'm going to try to remember at the end and

1           then I'll ask you again, and then if we lose our
2           connection, so be it.

3       A.    All right.

4       Q.    Okay.  How much did you pay for 9209 Robison?

5       A.    I don't recall.  I don't remember.  I don't remember.

6       Q.    Where did you get the money to buy it?

7                       MS. HATCHETT:  Objection to relevance.  You
8           can go ahead, Mr. Chancellor, if you can recall.

9                       THE WITNESS:  I don't.  I don't recall.  It
10          was -- I don't recall.

11       BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

12       Q.    On Robison did anybody ever live there with you and 13           your wife and your son besides the --

14       A.    No.

15       Q.    -- three of you?

16       A.    No.  Well, her kids.

17       Q.    When did her kids live there?

18       A.    When they came -- I guess when they came over.

19       Q.    So they didn't live there, but they would stay with you
20           sometimes?

21       A.    Yes, from her and her mother, yes.

22       Q.    And what's Katrice's mother's name?

23       A.    Linda, I think.

24       Q.    And what's Linda's last name?

25       A.    Butler.

1 Q. And where does Linda live?

2 A. Don't know, sir.

3 Q. What's Linda's phone number?

4 A. Don't know, sir.

5 Q. Is Linda's number in your phone?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Before you moved into the house on Robison, who lived
8 there?

9 A. Don't know, sir.

10 Q. Now, I've seen a utility bill from DTE for that 11 address. You know what I'm talking about?

12 A. I can't -- I don't know what you're talking about. I
13 can't see it.

14 Q. Okay. Let me see if I can find it. I can't put my 15 fingers on it right now. Did you have electric service
16 at the house at Robison when you lived there?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Did you have other utilities besides electricity?

19 A. Like heat?

20 Q. Yes.

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And was that also through DTE?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Did you have water?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And was that through Detroit Water & Sewerage
2 Department?

3 A. Yes, I think so.

4 Q. Did you have cable T.V.?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Who did you get your cable T.V. from?

7 A. I don't know. I didn't pay no cable bills.

8 Q. Did you have Comcast cable?

9 A. Don't know, sir.

10 Q. Did you have AT&T cable?

11 A. Don't know, sir.

12 Q. I'm going to show you another document. Can you see
13 that document, Mr. Chancellor?

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. And is this your signature at the bottom?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. All right. And this document says dated this February 18 8, 2008; you see where it says that?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Was that the date you signed this document?

21 A. I don't recall.

22 Q. And did Roxsanna sign her name or did you sign her
23 name?

24 A. She had to sign on her own name.

25 Q. Okay. And do you see this identification card here at

1 the bottom?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Is that your identification card?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. It's also got your signature at the bottom?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And that's a picture of you?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Where were you on February 8th, 2008?

10 A. I was locked up.

11 Q. Did Roxsanna ever come to the prison to see you?

12 A. Unh-unh.

13 Q. Is that a no?

14 A. I don't recall, sir, no.

15 Q. Did you ever have a notary come to the prison where you
16 were to sign this deed?

17 A. I don't recall.

18 Q. Who recorded this deed?

19 A. I don't recall, sir.

20 Q. When were you arrested for this case?

21 A. May 2nd, 2012.

22 Q. And where were you when you were arrested?

23 A. I was driving. I was pulled over.

24 Q. And was that in the city of Detroit?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And where did they take you when they arrested you?

2 A. The jail.

3 Q. Was that the Detroit Detention Center or was that 4 before the Detroit Detention Center?

5 A. That was before the Detroit Detention Center.

6 Q. So which jail was it?

7 A. If I can recall, it was the precinct, the 2nd Precinct.

8 Q. And how long were you at the 2nd Precinct?

9 A. For a couple days.

10 Q. And then what happened after a couple days?

11 A. I went to Wayne County.

12 Q. And how long we're you at Wayne County Jail?

13 A. To trial, till I lost the trial.

14 Q. Never bonded out?

15 A. No.

16 Q. When you were arrested did you believe that you were 17 innocent?

18 A. I know I was innocent.

19 Q. I'm going to show you another document. Can you see
20 that document, Mr. Chancellor?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Do you recognize that document?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. That document was -- I think it was the Defense Exhibit
25 A in your trial; right?

1 A. I don't recall what exhibit it was.

2 Q. Okay. But you were aware of that at the time of trial,
3 this document?

4 A. I'm aware of this, yes.

5 Q. I know you were aware of it now, but back then you were 6 aware of it, too; right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And at the time of your trial did you believe that the 9 statements in this affidavit were false?

10 A. Could you repeat the question?

11 Q. Sure. Let's take a look at the -- part of the search
12 warrant. I'm sorry. I'd like to mark this as Exhibit
13 3, and I'd like to mark the deed we looked at before as 14 Exhibit 2, which I failed to mention.

15 Okay. Can you see the part where it says --
16 I'm going to try and highlight it here -- on November
17 1st, 2011 affiant set up a fixed surveillance?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. And during the course of 30 minutes, affiant
20 observed at least three persons separately go to the 21 above address, knock on the door of 5023 32nd, engage 22 in a short conversation with the person matching the 23 above seller description. Then the suspected buyer
24 would stay outside and the above-described seller
25 returned and made a suspected narcotic transaction with

1 the buyer in which money was exchanged for suspected
2 heroin. Affiant has seen this type of activity several 3 times in the past and finds this type of activity to be 4 consistent with ongoing narcotic activity.

5 Do you believe that's a true statement?

6 A. I believe --

7 MR. JOHNSON: First of all, hold on. It's 8 affiant, first of all, but go ahead.

9 THE WITNESS: I believe I ain't got nothing
10 to do nothing in this statement, so I don't true or 11 guess who, I don't know who you're talking about.

12 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

13 Q. Okay. I guess then my question is do you know whether 14 that statement is true or not?

15 A. No, I don't know nothing about nothing in this 16 statement.

17 Q. Okay. Now, all right, Mr. Chancellor, I'm going to ask
18 you to look at another paragraph. It says on October
19 31st, 2011, affiant received information from a 20 credible and reliable informant. The CI stated to 21 affiant that he/she knows there is a large amount of 22 heroin at the above location which is being stored and 23 sold at this location. The affiant has sued the CI in 24 over three occasions resulting in three arrests for 25 VSCA with cases pending in 36th District and Third

1 Circuit resulting in the confiscation of quantities of 2 marijuana, cocaine and firearms proving the CI is
3 familiar with narcotics and it's packaging. Do you
4 know if that statement is true?

5 A. I don't know nothing about none of that.

6 Q. Okay. Do you own a motor vehicle?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Have you owned a motor vehicle since the purple Chevy 9 Cavalier that you used to own?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. What other motor vehicle have you owned?

12 A. I had a -- what was it? -- a Crown Victoria and a 13 Trailblazer.

14 Q. When did you own a Crown Victoria?

15 A. Like, I want to say the end of 2011, beginning of 2012.

16 Q. What color was the Crown Victoria?

17 A. Gold, brownish gold.

18 Q. Okay. Did you own that gold Crown Victoria on November 19 1st, 2011?

20 A. What was the date?

21 Q. November 1st, 2011.

22 A. No, not that I can recall.

23 Q. Have you ever spoken to Stephen Geelhood before?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Have you ever spoken to him on the telephone?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Had you ever met Stephen Geelhood before November 1st
3 of 2011?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Do you know of any reason why he would make up a fake
6 affidavit and come to search your mom's house on
7 November 1st, 2011?

8 A. No, don't have the slightest idea.

9 Q. Do you currently receive any government benefits?

10 A. No. What do you mean?

11 Q. Sure. Medicaid? Do you get Medicaid?

12 A. I got a Medicaid card. I haven't used it or nothing.

13 Q. And you're not Medicare eligible, are you?

14 A. What you mean?

15 Q. Medicare is usually for people 65 and older, but also 16 for some people with chronic health conditions.

17 A. No.

18 Q. It's that red, white and blue card that says Medicare
19 on it if you're eligible.

20 A. No.

21 Q. Do you receive any kind of Social Security benefits?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Do you get food stamps or a Bridge card or anything
24 like that?

25 A. Get a Bridge card.

1 Q. Other than Medicaid, do you have any other kind of 2 health insurance?

3 A. No, not to my knowing.

4 Q. Do you have any kind of automobile insurance?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Any other kind of insurance?

7 A. No.

8 Q. All right. I have one more document to look at. Okay.
9 Can you see that document, Mr. Chancellor?

10 A. Yeah.

11 Q. Do you recognize that document?

12 A. Not right offhand.

13 Q. Well, I'm going to suggest to you that this is a 14 document -- actually, I don't even know if this is 15 true, so let me ask you a question about this document.
16 It looks to me like a document that the CIU sent to you
17 and had you provide them information and you sent it
18 back to them. Does that sound right to you?

19 A. No, I don't recall.

20 Q. Okay. I'm going to ask you to look at this. Is that 21 your handwriting?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And what about this part, this is my new evidence? Is 24 that your handwriting?

25 A. Yeah.

1 Q. And is this what you believe was new evidence in your
2 criminal case?

3 A. I believe it was just evidence that wasn't looked at.

4 Q. Okay. I'm going to ask you to look at this handwritten 5 number 10 here. It says, please tell us of the new 6 evidence which supports your claim that you are 7 innocent of the crimes of conviction. You see that?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Now, here you have a whole section of evidence, and 10 then here you have another section that says, my new 11 evidence. And is this evidence that you thought was 12 new evidence that shows your innocence?

13 A. I thought this was evidence that wasn't submitted at 14 trial.

15 Q. Okay. Okay. Fair enough. And so new evidence you
16 have listed here, my original state ID card that shows 17 my height and weight, which is your height is 5'11" and 18 your weight is 220 pounds, do you see that?

19 A. Right.

20 Q. And you thought that was something that should have 21 been considered at trial but was not?

22 A. Right.

23 Q. Correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Yeah. Okay. And then the second one was my quit claim

1 deed to the house I stayed at. Is that also evidence
2 that you -- was not considered at your criminal trial
3 that you thought should have been considered?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And that's the quit claim deed that we just looked at;
6 right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. The third thing here is my detainee input sheet to show
9 my weight before I got to jail. That's also something
10 that you thought should have been considered at your 11 trial but wasn't?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. The next thing is my DTE energy bill. That's 14 evidence that you thought should have been considered
15 at your trial but wasn't?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And that's -- the DTE bill I was referring to earlier,
18 but I can't seem to put my fingers on now.

19 Chapter 5. Affidavit for Janet Chancellor to 20 testify. That's Janet Chancellor is your mom; right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And so you thought she was going to give some testimony
23 that she didn't offer at trial; right?

24 A. That she -- yes.

25 Q. Okay. Besides this new evidence that you listed here,

1 is there any other new evidence that you think should
2 have been considered at your criminal trial that wasn't
3 considered?

4 MR. JOHNSON: Calls for a legal conclusion.
5 Go ahead.

6 THE WITNESS: Like, could you repeat that
7 question?

8 MR. CUNNINGHAM: Yes.

9 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

10 Q. So you made a list of things and you said I think these 11 things should have been considered at my criminal 12 trial, but they weren't. I want to make sure that if 13 there's anything else that you think should have been 14 on this list, what else is it?

15 MR. JOHNSON: Calls for a legal conclusion.
16 Go ahead.

17 THE WITNESS: No, I think everything is on 18 there.

19 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

20 Q. So you can't think of another document that you have 21 that you wish the court to consider --

22 MR. JOHNSON: Same --

23 MR. CUNNINGHAM: -- in your --

24 MR. JOHNSON: Sorry. I apologize, Patrick.
25 Same objection. I apologize.

1 MR. CUNNINGHAM: No problem.

2 THE WITNESS: No.

3 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

4 Q. Here. I'm going to ask the question real slow. Give 5 Mr. -- give your lawyer an opportunity to object, and 6 then if you could answer. All right, Mr. Chancellor?

7 A. Go ahead.

8 Q. Okay. Besides the stuff you listed that we just went 9 over, is there any other document that you know of that 10 you wish had been admitted into evidence at your 11 criminal trial?

12 MR. JOHNSON: Calls for legal conclusion. Go
13 ahead, please, Darell.

14 THE WITNESS: Not right now.

15 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

16 Q. Okay. And, again, let's do the same thing. I'll ask
17 real slow. Give your attorney an opportunity to object
18 and then please answer.

19 Are there any other witnesses -- like you
20 said my mom, Janet Chancellor would testify. Are there
21 any other witnesses besides your mom, Janet Chancellor,
22 who you thought should have testified at your criminal
23 trial, but didn't?

24 MR. JOHNSON: Same objection. Go ahead,
25 Darell.

1 THE WITNESS: No.

2 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

3 Q. Okay. Have you seen a doctor since you were released
4 from prison?

5 A. Yes. What type of doctor?

6 Q. Any type of doctor.

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. What doctors have you seen since you were released from 9 prison?

10 A. I've seen a doctor, I just left a doctor. I was 11 getting checked for COVID.

12 Q. Okay. And besides getting checked for COVID, have you 13 seen a doctor for any other reason since you were 14 released from prison?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. What other reasons have you seen a doctor for?

17 A. I seen a doctor, I forget his name. I forget the name.

18 A. What did you see him for?

19 A. Because I been going through a lot of stuff since I've 20 been released from prison.

21 Q. Have you seen a psychiatrist since you got released
22 from prison?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. What psychiatrist have you seen?

25 A. I forget his name. I forget his name.

1 Q. How many times have you seen him?

2 A. Once.

3 MR. JOHNSON: Darell, are you talking about
4 Dr. Shiner? S-h-i-n-e-r.

5 THE WITNESS: That's him.

6 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

7 Q. Have you seen any other psychiatrist besides Dr.
8 Shiner?

9 A. No.

10 Q. And you only saw him one time?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Have you seen a psychologist since you were released
13 from prison?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Do you have any kind of physical ailment that you link
16 to your time in prison?

17 A. I mean, what do you mean?

18 Q. Like, so you see a psychiatrist I guess for mental 19 issues. Do you have any physical issues that you see a 20 doctor for?

21 A. No, no physical issue.

22 Q. And how long were you in prison?

23 A. Eight years.

24 Q. Is that the longest stretch of prison time you've done?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. How long is the next longest time?

2 A. For the armed robbery.

3 Q. And what did you talk about with Dr. Shiner?

4 A. I told him what was going on with me. I don't like --
5 I'm really -- how I feel. I don't feel safe really 6 going outside or being, really, I don't feel safe in 7 the law enforcements no more. You know, I stay -- I
8 tell him I stay in the house nowadays because I don't 9 want another episode to happen. I don't know what will 10 happen next. That's what we talked about. I tell him
11 I don't want to go outside, really.

12 Q. Are you taking any kind of medication?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Are you doing any kind of talk therapy where you go
15 talk to a doctor, or a social worker or a psychologist?

16 A. No.

17 Q. What do you want to tell me about your time in prison?

18 A. It was long, hard and terrible. I mean you see things
19 you not supposed to see in prison.

20 Q. Things like what?

21 A. Like I had a bunkie used to get butt naked in middle of 22 the night and jack off while I'm laying there. Like I
23 had 300-pound bunkie wanted to fight and --

24 Q. I'm sorry. You cut out on me a little bit. You had a 25 300-pound bunkie that what?

1 A. Wanted to fight every night.

2 Q. He wanted to fight you?

3 A. He wanted to fight. He didn't care who it was. I was 4 just locked in the room with him.

5 Q. Did you ever have any fights while you were in prison?

6 A. I had a lot of fights when I was in prison.

7 Q. How many fights?

8 A. More than I can count.

9 Q. More than 10 fights?

10 A. I don't recall the number of fights.

11 Q. Well, can you put like a ballpark estimate on it?

12 A. I just said I had a bunkie that woke up, wanted to 13 fight. I don't recall the nights or how many nights in 14 a row that he woke up, wanted to do this, but it was a 15 lot of nights.

16 Q. What was his name?

17 A. I don't recall. I really didn't want to know his name.

18 Q. How long was he your bunkie?

19 A. For months, for about six months.

20 Q. Did you get a GED while you were in prison?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Was that the first stretch or the second stretch?

23 A. The first stretch.

24 Q. Did you do any education in prison during the second
25 stretch?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Did you have a job at the prison during the second
3 stretch?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. What was your job?

6 A. I was a porter.

7 Q. What does a porter do?

8 A. Clean up doo-doo. Clean up after everybody. Like the 9 people use the bathroom, you got to go in there and 10 clean it when they done. If there was doo-doo on the 11 floor or pee on the floor, you got to clean that up.

12 Q. You just told me you got your GED. Did you ever attend
13 a high school?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. What high school did you attend?

16 A. Chadsey.

17 Q. Where is that?

18 A. It's on Martin and McGraw. Well, yeah, between Martin
19 and McGraw.

20 Q. And that's a Detroit Public School high school?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. What's the last grade you attended?

23 A. The 11th.

24 Q. Did you complete the 11th grade?

25 A. No.

1 Q. So you completed 10th grade and part of 11th grade?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. We talked about your bunkies in prison. Is there
4 anything else you want to tell me about prison?

5 A. Don't go.

6 Q. Sound advice.

7 Are there any other experiences you had 8 during this stretch of prison that stick out in your 9 memory?

10 A. No. Like I said, worst is seeing another man jack off
11 in front of you. That's a terrible feeling.

12 Q. I can understand that. Have you filed a lawsuit under 13 the Wrongful Imprisonment Compensation Act?

14 A. I don't know, what's the name of it?

15 Q. I think it's actually incarceration. The state --

16 MR. JOHNSON: WICA; WICA. W-I-C-A.

17 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

18 Q. Are you familiar with that, Mr. Chancellor, at all?

19 A. No, I ain't. No, I haven't.

20 Q. Okay.

21 MR. JOHNSON: We have not filed as of now.

22 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

23 Q. What injuries have you suffered as a result of your
24 imprisonment?

25 A. What you mean, physically? I don't know what you mean.

1 Q. Any kind, physical or emotional.

2 A. Like I'm very paranoid now. Like I told you, I don't
3 want to go outside. I don't. I can't even spend like
4 time with my son like I want to outside because I'm 5 scared. I don't know what can happen next. Like I
6 say, it ain't -- I don't know, I don't trust the 7 police. I can't just go outside like that. I mean
8 there's more than Geelhood. I don't trust none of 9 them. I can't -- I don't want to go outside. Like I
10 say, I don't go outside. I don't sleep well. It's 11 just it's a total -- it's totally different.

12 Q. Do you have any financial expense that you've incurred
13 as a result of your imprisonment? Did it cost you any 14 money?

15 A. That what cost me any money?

16 Q. Being in prison.

17 MR. JOHNSON: Foundation. Go ahead.

18 THE WITNESS: Yes. I mean, I spent money on 19 lawyers, I lost my house due to me being in prison and 20 I was -- I was, what was it? -- had to pay restitution
21 while I was in prison.

22 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

23 Q. What lawyers did you pay?

24 A. I had Ronnie Cromer and Ray Paige.

25 Q. Ray Paige was your trial attorney at the criminal

1 trial; right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. What did Ronnie Cromer do for you?

4 A. Ronnie, he was my first lawyer before. He's the one I
5 had before trial. Ray just stepped in at trial.

6 Q. Did you have to pay any lawyers besides Ronnie Cromer
7 and Ray Paige?

8 A. Pay them for what?

9 Q. Fair question. Did you have to pay any lawyers as a 10 result of your imprisonment other than Ronnie Cromer or 11 Ray Paige?

12 A. No.

13 Q. You said you lost your house. Why did you lose your 14 house?

15 A. The mortgage. It wasn't going to pay itself. If I'm 16 locked up, I'm the one paying the bills there.

17 Q. Did you have a mortgage on your house?

18 A. I mean not -- no, I did not have a mortgage. Excuse
19 me.

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. But the taxes. Excuse me.

22 Q. Taxes? Okay. Was the house foreclosed on?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And how much restitution did you pay?

25 A. I think they made me pay like $1,000 for victim fees or

1 something. I don't --

2 Q. Aside from what we just talked about, are there any
3 other expenses that incurred, money that you had to pay
4 out as a result of your imprisonment?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Have you ever met Valerie Newman?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. When did you meet Valerie Newman?

9 A. I met Valerie Newman like when I got released. I think
10 it was a month or so after I got released.

11 Q. Did she ever come to talk to you while you were in 12 prison?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Do you know Pat Little?

15 A. Pat Little? No.

16 Q. Do you know Carol Stanyar?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Do you know Tim Ewald?

19 A. I know Tim Ewald, yes.

20 Q. How do you know Tim Ewald?

21 A. Tim, I had -- Tim came, talked to me.

22 Q. When is the first time you met Tim?

23 A. Well, I knew Tim since Officer Melendez case.

24 Q. That was like the year 2000, is that about right or is 25 that not the right time frame?

1 A. No, like 2000 and -- yeah. No, about 2003, something
2 like that, 2002.

3 Q. Around 2002, 2003? And how did you know Tim Ewald in 4 around 2002 or 2003?

5 A. Officer Melendez.

6 Q. What was Tim's role in that situation?

7 A. I guess he was on Officer Melendez case.

8 Q. And what kind of involvement did you have with Tim?

9 A. Like during my case he just had me really point out
10 Officer Melendez in the lineup and all that.

11 Q. Was he a police officer investigating Melendez?

12 A. I don't recall. I don't know.

13 Q. Okay. Did you keep in touch with Tim after the 14 Melendez --

15 A. No, I haven't seen him since.

16 Q. Did you ever speak to him on the phone?

17 A. No.

18 Q. After you moved out of your mom's house on 32nd Street,
19 how often would you go over there?

20 A. What days? What time you talking?

21 Q. I'm talking about after you moved out in January of 22 2011.

23 A. Oh, I mean I go over there like -- like I go over there
24 about probably -- I used to go probably three, four 25 times out the week, check on my mother.

1 Q. Were you over there on November 1st, 2011?

2 A. No. November 1st? No.

3 Q. You didn't go over to check on your mother that day?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Are there any other injuries that you suffered or 6 damages that you incurred that you want to tell me
7 about that we didn't already talk about?

8 A. No.

9 MR. JOHNSON: Foundation. Go ahead. Sorry.

10 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

11 Q. Is there any other kind of treatment you've sought
12 since you got released from prison other than with Dr.
13 Shiner?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Is there a Katie Chancellor in your family?

16 A. A who?

17 Q. Katie Chancellor?

18 A. No, I never heard the name.

19 MR. CUNNINGHAM: Okay. All right. I think 20 that's all I have.

21 MS. HATCHETT: Okay. We don't have any other
22 questions. We don't have any follow-up questions,
23 Patrick.

24 MR. JOHNSON: Wait a minute, Hatchett. Wait
25 a minute.

1 MS. HATCHETT: Oh, sorry.

2 MR. JOHNSON: What's this "we: stuff?

3 EXAMINATION

4 BY MR. JOHNSON:

5 Q. I'm going to ask you a couple questions about the 6 search warrant that Counsel asked you about, Exhibit 3,
7 if my notes are at all legible and correct.

8 At the time of November 2, 2011, were you
9 5'8" and 1800 pounds?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Okay. Now, we've seen some documents and so forth
12 around that time that said how tall you were. If you 13 weren't 5'8", how tall were you?

14 A. 5'11".

15 Q. So three inches taller than 5'8"?

16 A. Right.

17 Q. And 180 pounds. How much were you -- did you weigh on 18 November 2, 2011?

19 A. 220.

20 Q. So 40 pounds more?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. Okay. Do you even know when is the last time you
23 weighed only 180 pounds?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Has it been, shall I say, a lot of years?

1 A. Yeah, it's been a lot of years.

2 Q. No offenses, brother, me, too, but I'm just asking.

3 A. Right.

4 Q. So if in the search warrant Officer Geelhood was 5 describing a black male, 30s -- let me ask you that.
6 How old were you back on November 2 of 2011, roughly?

7 A. I think I want 29.

8 Q. All right. So at least if that's true, he says 30s,
9 you'd be within a year or so of that; right?

10 A. Right.

11 Q. All right. So if he's talking about a black male who 12 is in his 30s, 5'8", 180, that is not you, a black male 13 5'11", 220?

14 A. Correct, that is not me.

15 Q. So do you have any knowledge if he says he, Geelhood in 16 his affidavit, that on October 31, 2011 someone that 17 looked like that was inside the home at 5023 32nd
18 Street, Detroit, Michigan, that was allegedly seen by a 19 confidential informant --

20 A. You talking?

21 Q. Yeah, I know. Sorry. The hamster is on the wheel
22 though still, brother, so give me a minute.

23 A. Okay. Go ahead.

24 Q. Where he knew that there was a large -- the 25 confidential informant, that he knew there was a large

1 amount of heroin stored and sold at that location, do
2 you have any information about that?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Did you have any large amount of heroin stored and sold
5 at that location on October 31, 2011?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Did the confidential informant in any way testify at 8 your trial?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Was the confidential informant ever revealed to you or 11 your counsel that you're aware of as to who that person
12 is?

13 A. No.

14 Q. If, according to Geelhood -- excuse me -- Officer
15 Geelhood on November 1, 2011, the day before you were 16 arrested, he claims that 5023 32nd Street, over the 17 course of 30 minutes he observed three people
18 separately go into the address, knock on the door and 19 engage in short conversation with a person matching the 20 above-seller description, first of all, is 5'8", 180,
21 is that matching your description, yes or no?

22 A. No.

23 Q. So if Geelhood claims to have seen that on November 1, 24 was it you?

25 A. No.

1 Q. You said you weren't even at the house on November 1;
2 correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. The suspected buyer would stay outside and
5 above-described seller returned and made suspected
6 narcotic transition. Any idea who that is or what 7 they're doing?

8 A. No.

9 Q. And then there was alleged money exchanged for 10 suspected heroin. Okay? Was that you?

11 A. No.

12 Q. What were you charged with on November 2, the next day?

13 A. I wasn't charged the next day. It was -- I wasn't -- I
14 didn't get arrested on this thing. I got charged --
15 what was it? -- May 2nd, 2012, and they charged --

16 Q. What were you charged with?

17 A. I was charged with attempt to deliver.

18 Q. Of what?

19 A. 450 grams.

20 Q. Of what?

21 A. Of cocaine.

22 Q. Okay. Well, this affidavit said heroin.

23 A. Right.

24 Q. Do you have any information --

25 A. No.

1 Q. -- as to why Geelhood would say that there was activity
2 on November 1 relative to suspected heroin if
3 ultimately you were charged with cocaine?

4 A. No, I do not.

5 Q. Are you aware at all of Officer Geelhood's record with 6 the Detroit Police Department in terms of how many 7 times he's been investigated or written up for 8 suspected criminal activity related to him being a
9 narcotics officer?

10 A. No, I don't know nothing about it.

11 Q. You mentioned Melendez many times today. You sued that 12 officer; correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Apparently you were successful at least in terms of 15 getting a settlement; true?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. I think I heard you say 250 grand; right?

18 A. Yes; yes.

19 Q. And so you told us that that money was in the bank and 20 that's in part what the state took after you were 21 improperly and illegally arrested and charged with 22 this; right?

23 A. Right.

24 Q. And did they take all that money?

25 A. Yes, basically. They took half.

1 Q. I need to know how much money did they take out of the 2 money that you had while you were in prison on this
3 charge in this case.

4 A. No, not on this case. They took it when I was locked
5 up for armed robbery.

6 Q. I apologize. My bad. Got it.

7 On November 2 were you at your mom's house?

8 A. No.

9 Q. On October 31, 2011 were you at your mom's house?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Going back to my question about Melendez. What 12 happened, when did that lawsuit settle, to the best of 13 your memory, Darell?

14 A. I think it was 2006.

15 Q. Do you know what, if anything, happened to Melendez?

16 A. Unh-unh.

17 Q. Did he remain a police officer? Did he get in trouble?
18 Do you have any idea? If you don't know, tell me.

19 A. I just -- well, recently when I was coming home on this 20 case, I mean I just got exonerated on this case, I
21 think he just got locked up for something else. I'm 22 not for sure though.

23 Q. Okay. And do you know when he last worked with DPD?

24 A. Unh-unh; no.

25 Q. Are you aware of any issue at all between Geelhood and

1 your mom?

2 A. No.

3 Q. So in terms of the activities that are identified in 4 this November 2, 2011 search warrant by Geelhood,
5 number one, had nothing to do with you?

6 A. Nothing to do with me.

7 Q. Not you?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Correct?

10 A. Correct; not me.

11 Q. How long was your trial, Darell?

12 A. I think my trial was two days.

13 Q. Okay. So you told us you got arrested on this May 2, 14 2012; correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. So about six months after the affidavit we're talking
17 about; right?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. Did you have any knowledge that you were about to be 20 arrested?

21 A. No, I got pulled over on a routine traffic stop.

22 Q. And then did they ultimately tell you that they charged
23 you based on this affidavit of search warrant and what 24 they found in your mom's house from six months earlier?

25 A. They just told me I had a warrant.

1 Q. And that's when you found out it was for this?

2 A. I found out that -- I didn't find out what it was for 3 until I went to my -- to court to have a hearing.

4 Q. Your mom told you that they raided the house; right?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. When did she tell you that?

7 A. The same day, the day they raided.

8 Q. November 2, 2011?

9 A. Right.

10 Q. Did she tell you that they found anything?

11 A. No, she just told me that they -- the police searched
12 her house.

13 Q. Did she tell you that they confiscated any drugs?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Did she tell you that they are asking about you and 16 whether you lived there or anything like that?

17 A. No, she only thing she said they asked who stayed at 18 the house.

19 Q. And you may not know this, do you know what your mom
20 told them?

21 A. No.

22 Q. So from May 2, 2012, you getting arrested, you said a 23 couple days in the precinct in that jail, then went to 24 Wayne County Jail; right?

25 A. Right.

1 Q. Remained there through trial?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. Trial was when?

4 A. Trial was November 12, 2012.

5 Q. November 12, 2012?

6 A. 2012, yeah.

7 Q. About a year after this search warrant we've been 8 talking about; right?

9 A. Right.

10 Q. Without belaboring the point, Darell, what did it feel
11 like to go to trial and be accused of a crime that you
12 didn't commit?

13 A. I mean, it felt terrible. It feels more terrible when 14 you get found guilty of something you ain't commit
15 because it's like the justice system that failed you.
16 You been taught to believe in the justice system, but 17 to get to found guilty for something you ain't do is 18 where the justice going to come from, yeah.

19 Q. Did you have a jury or was it just Judge Hathaway?

20 A. Just Judge Hathaway.

21 Q. Did you ever any experience with Judge Dan Hathaway
22 before?

23 A. Never, never, never in life.

24 Q. When you heard him say the word guilty --

25 A. Huh.

1 Q. And you just made a sound, didn't you?

2 A. Yeah.

3 Q. Darell, you can still feel it?

4 A. Yeah, I'm guilty, yeah, when you hear guilty, I mean
5 it's like there's nothing else come after that. That's
6 the last say-so, guilty. So --

7 Q. And from --

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. -- that day all the way through March 26th, of 2020 you
10 remained jailed and then ultimately in prison?

11 A. I remained in prison, yes.

12 Q. Obviously, the entire time that you're in jail, whether 13 it's the precinct, Wayne County or prison, you ain't
14 working at G&G?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Or anywhere else?

17 A. I'm a porter. Like I just told, I'm cleaning people
18 feces that just got to use the bathroom.

19 Q. At the jail prison; right?

20 A. At the jail prison.

21 Q. My question though is when you're in jail or prison,
22 you're not able to work an outside job?

23 A. No.

24 Q. And earn any wages?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. That otherwise you'd be able to earn?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. You tell us that you last worked for G&G in 2012. I
4 thought that's what I heard. Am I wrong about that?

5 A. Correct; you're correct.

6 Q. So, in other words, you were working at G&G when you
7 got arrested on May 2, 2012?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Roughly, if you know, Darell, how much money were you
10 making at G&G?

11 A. It wasn't -- it was like $10 an hour, something like 12 that.

13 Q. But it was a job?

14 A. But it was a job.

15 Q. When you were working, Counsel asked you about some of 16 your temporary agency jobs. Really what he's trying to 17 ask you, Darell, is can you tell us not necessarily the 18 names of places and stuff, but the type of work you
19 were doing. In other words, were you being a stock guy
20 and putting stuff at a grocery store, were you stamping
21 parts with a press at a, you know, at a stamping
22 facility?

23 A. Right.

24 Q. Can you think back at all and let us better understand
25 while you were working for any type of temp agency what

1 types of work you were doing?

2 A. Like -- well, like I told you with the temp service,
3 one day you can be stocking, one day you could be
4 stamping.

5 Q. And that's what we want to hear about. Tell us what 6 you can think of. Again, we'll talk about where it was 7 later, and if you remember, you do, you don't, but we 8 want to know what type of jobs, please.

9 A. It was like with the temp service, it's mainly -- like 10 you say, it's mainly packing and -- it's mainly packing
11 with temp services.

12 Q. Packing like what?

13 A. Like produce, or whatever, whatever they bring in that 14 got to be packed. It can be produce. You can pack
15 sugar. You can pack whatever they got to be packed,
16 got to be packed.

17 Q. By the way, when they arrested you on May 2, 2012, you
18 didn't have the unregistered gun on you, did you?

19 A. No; no.

20 Q. All right. You told us you were making roughly 10
21 bucks an hour at G&G. When you were working your jobs
22 through the temp agencies, what was your hourly rate,
23 approximately?

24 A. $8, $9, you know, the job varies.

25 Q. Yeah.

1 A. So wherever the temp service, whatever they pay, that
2 what you working for that day.

3 Q. Were you and Katrice still married then when you got 4 arrested?

5 A. Yeah.

6 Q. When did you all get a divorce?

7 A. I mean, when we -- too much time, I'll just say that.
8 I had too much time to do.

9 Q. So she divorced you?

10 A. Yeah.

11 Q. While you were in prison for this thing that you didn't 12 do?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Approximately when?

15 A. Let me see. It was -- I think it was 2016.

16 Q. So about four years or so after you were wrongfully
17 convicted?

18 A. Yeah. She looked at like four years after, 10 more to 19 go.

20 Q. Yeah. And I should have asked you that. So when you
21 were convicted the sentence the judge gave, Judge
22 Hathaway --

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. -- was what?

25 A. 14; 14 to 30. 14 years, 3 -- it was 14 years, 3 months

1 to 30 years.

2 Q. Every single day you're in that prison cell, jail cell,
3 precinct cell being accused and ultimately wrongfully
4 convicted of doing something you didn't do, Darell,
5 every day, all day what did it feel like?

6 A. It feel terrible when you know you ain't do something,
7 but you convicted for it. It was --

8 Q. I listened -- did I interrupt you? I'm sorry. If you
9 weren't done, go ahead.

10 A. I mean, like I was saying, it's like, like I said, you
11 sitting in there looking like where the justice going
12 to come from. That's a hard feeling when you know you 13 ain't done nothing, but a judge convicted you of 14 something and now you stuck in prison trying to figure
15 out how you going to get back home for something you
16 ain't do. First, you ain't supposed to be here because 17 you ain't did nothing. But now that you here, how you
18 going to get back home for something you ain't do.

19 Q. So when Counsel went over your previous convictions, I
20 didn't hear anything about you ever going to trial
21 except for this thing.

22 A. Because I did that. I would never -- if I did
23 something, I'm going to let you -- I'll say I did it.
24 So if I do it --

25 Q. You didn't go to trial on those other charges --

1 A. No.

2 Q. -- because ultimately you either pled nolo contendere
3 or not guilty; right?

4 A. Right; right.

5 Q. Excuse me. Or guilty. Sorry.

6 A. Right. I pled guilty; right.

7 Q. This one you fought and went to trial; right?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. Unfortunately, lost.

10 A. Exactly.

11 Q. So you lost your wife -- right, Darell -- from this?

12 A. Yes; yes.

13 Q. You didn't just lose her though, you lost somebody else
14 really important in your life, too?

15 A. I lost a lot -- to death, yes, I lost a lot of people
16 to death due to me being locked up. I lost my auntie.

17 Q. I'm talking about your son.

18 A. I lost eight, nine years, the first nine years of his 19 life, eight years of his life.

20 Q. That's where I'm going, brother.

21 A. So, yeah, I mean, yeah, I lost that.

22 Q. What's his date of birth?

23 A. 8-25th, that's the day, birthday.

24 Q. August 25?

25 A. Yes. Excuse me. Yes, it's August 25th.

1 Q. Why are you putting the phone down?

2 A. Because, like you say, I mean, it's emotional.

3 Q. You're crying?

4 A. Basically. It's emotional. I -- it's emotional.

5 Q. And what ultimately you're crying about is when I asked
6 you questions about the time you missed with your son?

7 A. Right. I mean, it's hard to -- you can't get that
8 back.

9 Q. Was he born on August 25, 2011?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. So about three months before this false affidavit?

12 A. Right. You can't get that back.

13 Q. So when he was born, where did Katrice have your son?

14 A. Huh?

15 Q. Where did she have him? What hospital?

16 A. At Children's.

17 Q. And were you with her when she delivered?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. When you brought the baby home, where did you all live?

20 A. On Robison.

21 Q. You, Katrice and your son, brand new son?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Every day for the rest of that year throughout 2011
24 you, Katrice and the son lived there on Robison?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Your son did not live with anybody at 5023 32nd Street
2 ever, did he?

3 A. No.

4 Q. I think I heard you tell Counsel the last time you
5 lived at that house was in early I think January 2011?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And you lived there then why?

8 A. Because my electricity wasn't on at my house.

9 Q. At Robison?

10 A. Right.

11 Q. And the only way you could live in Robison, obviously,
12 if the utilities are working?

13 A. Exactly.

14 Q. And you got those working approximately when?

15 A. The next month I was released from prison.

16 Q. Which is when?

17 A. Was January.

18 Q. 2011?

19 A. 2011, yes.

20 Q. Why did you list 5023 32nd Street on any of the 21 documents about parole and all that other stuff?

22 A. The G&G Market and the parole office is literally six 23 to seven blocks apart. So if I got to report, I could 24 still -- it won't bother my work. I can leave work and 25 literally go report and be back at work in less than 20

1 minutes. That's why.

2 Q. How often did you have to report?

3 A. Every two weeks.

4 Q. And did you report?

5 A. Every two weeks.

6 Q. And did you have any problem at all with your parole
7 officer?

8 A. I didn't have a problem at all.

9 Q. But why tell them that the 5023 address if you were 10 really living on Robison?

11 A. Because if I was to tell them to change the address
12 they would change my parole officer to a parole
13 building that's so -- it's totally out of the way. The 14 other parole office was on 8 Mile and something at the 15 time.

16 Q. Okay. You were simply trying to keep your job at G&G?

17 A. Basically.

18 Q. Did your parole officer, to the best of your 19 knowledge -- if you remember, great, if you don't, tell 20 us -- write you up for anything that you're aware of 21 from when you got out of prison in January 2011 up
22 until the time that you were arrested in May of 2012?

23 A. No, she didn't write me up for nothing. I went back to 24 prison. She didn't wrote me up anything.

25 Q. That's why I asked.

1                   So I asked you for the rest of 2011 about
2                   where you lived with your baby and your wife. But now
3                   January 1, 2012 up until the time you were arrested on 4                   May 2, 2012, for those five months -- actually, four 5                   full months and two days -- where did you live?

6           A.    On Robison.

7           Q.    With your wife and your son?

8           A.    With my wife and my son.

9           Q.    Is that the last time where you actually lived with 10           either one of them?

11          A.    Yes.

12          Q.    So from May 2, 2012, the time you were jailed, did your 13           wife, Katrice, ever bring your son up to the prison or 14           the jail?

15          A.    I seen him like twice.

16          Q.    Did you ask her to bring him more often?

17          A.    Yes. She, I mean, yeah, but you can't make nobody do
18           nothing.

19          Q.    I hear you, man, but did you ask?

20          A.    Yes, I asked. You know, I asked. I wanted to see him, 21           but, you know, she had other plans.

22          Q.    Let me ask you. Roles reversed, can you blame her not 23           wanting to bring a baby, a brand new baby up to a
24           prison to visit somebody he doesn't even know?

25          A.    I'm not mad at her. To this day I'm not mad at her.

1 Q. But if anybody truly wants to know about you and what
2 you've gone through, a huge part of you is that young
3 man?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. That's been taken from you, Darell?

6 A. Yeah.

7 Q. How do you get that time back?

8 A. You can't. That's time gone.

9 Q. All right. In any regard, you told us about Tim Ewald.
10 E-w-a-l-d. Is that the gentleman who is an 11 investigator for the feds?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Did you ever talk to anybody from Wayne County at all 14 other than Val Newman after your exoneration and 15 release from prison?

16 A. No.

17 Q. I said Wayne County. City of Detroit, too? Same
18 question, City of Detroit.

19 A. No.

20 Q. Other than what information you got from -- well, Val
21 Newman is on behalf of the County, so my question is 22 has anybody from the city ever written you, talked to 23 you, apologized to you for any of this?

24 A. No; no. No one.

25 MR. JOHNSON: Appreciate your time. Thank

1           you, sir. I've got no more questions.

2                       MR. CUNNINGHAM: I just have two follow-ups.

3                               RE-EXAMINATION

4 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM:

5 Q. Have you filed state or federal tax returns in the 6 past, Mr. Chancellor?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Never?

9 A. Not -- no, not that I know of.

10 Q. Okay. So nothing you can recall?

11 A. Not that I can recall.

12 Q. And when you were arrested, that wasn't Officer
13 Geelhood who placed you under arrest; right?

14 A. Correct.

15                       MR. CUNNINGHAM: That's all I have.

16                       MR. JOHNSON: No more questions. Thank you
17 very much.

5 COURT CLERK: Calling Case No. 12-4974, People
6 vs. Darell Chancellor. Here for a continuation of a trial.

7 MS. ZEIGER: Good afternoon, your Honor.

8 Stephanie Zeiger, on behalf of the People.

9 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

10 MR. PAIGE: May it please the Honorable Court,
11 Ray Paige, on behalf of the Defendant, your Honor.

12 Today is the date set for a waiver trial,
13 your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. PAIGE: I've had the occasion to be given a 16 letter that's --

17 THE COURT: Yeah, it just came in from the 18 Defendant addressed to me. So I wanted to make sure that 19 you knew what had been sent to me. That you've got a copy,
20 and that the People got a copy.

21 MR. PAIGE: Yeah. And I'm just now reading it,
22 Your Honor. I was not aware of this.

23 THE COURT: Honestly, I wasn't either until 24 literally thirty seconds before I walked out. So there we 25 have it.

1 MS. ZEIGER: Your Honor, the People will be.
2 moving for a sequestration motion with the exception to my
3 officer-in-charge, Sergeant Joe Tucker, Jr., who will not
4 be testifying. The individual sitting behind me is my
5 intern, your Honor, David Klein (ph.). He's not a witness
6 at all.

7 THE COURT: Okay. I'm issuing a mutual order of 8 sequestration. If there's anyone in the courtroom who 9 intends to testify in this matter, you're instructed to 10 remove yourself from the courtroom until such time as you
11 are called as a witness. Then when you're called as a 12 witness, you're free to stay in the courtroom. I'm making 13 an exception for the officer-in-charge.

14 MS. ZEIGER: Thank you.

15 MR. PAIGE: One moment, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 All right. Do you wish to make an opening
18 statement, at this time, Ms. Zeiger?

19 MS. ZEIGER: No, your Honor. The People will 20 continue with our waiver of opening statement, if there's 21 no objection.

22 THE COURT: All right. Any objection?

23 MR. PAIGE: No, objection, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 MR. PAIGE: We reserve the right to make one,

1 your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right. You reserve. All right.

3 Thank you.

4 Then, Ms. Zeiger, do you want to call your first

5 witness?

6 MS. ZEIGER: Yes, your Honor. The People will

7 call Officer Brian Johnson.

8 COURT CLERK: Would you come and spell your name

15 32nd Street in the City of Detroit, County of Wayne?

16 A Yes, ma'am.

17 Q What was your reason for going to that address?

18 A To execute a narcotic search warrant.

19 Q What is at that address?

20 A A home.

21 Q Did you go there with other members of the narcotics unit?

22 A Yes, ma'am.

23 Q And when you got to that home, did you, in fact, execute
24 that search warrant on that home?

25 A Yes, ma'am.

1 Q What role did you play in executing that search warrant?

2 A The shotgun man.

3 Q What is the shotgun man?

4 A The shotgun man is the first one to enter the location. My 5 duties is to encounter and neutralize any possible threat
6 to myself or the crew.

7 Q And do you remember -- was presence and purpose announced
8 that day?

9 A Yes, ma'am.

10 Q And was entry forced into that home or were you let in, if 11 you remember?

12 A May I refer to my PCR?

13 Q Will that refresh your recollection?

14 A Yes, ma'am.

15 We went in through an open front door.

16 BY MS. ZEIGER:

17 Q So the front door was open. That means you don't have to 18 breach any doors?

19 A Correct.

20 THE COURT: But did someone let you in, or it
21 was just open?

22 THE WITNESS: It was unlocked, sir. The door
23 was closed, but it was unlocked.

24 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

25 BY MS. ZEIGER:

1 Q When you execute a search warrant, do you always check
2 first to see if a door is unlocked or locked?

3 A I always check and make sure to see if the door is open.

4 Q Did you go into the home?

5 A Yes, ma'am.

6 Q Did you encounter anyone in that home?

7 A Well, we encountered someone on the front porch.

8 Q On the front porch?

9 A Detained that person, and entered the location and 10 encountered a female inside.

11 Q The person on the front porch male or female?

12 A Male.

13 Q So when you first got to that location, was that person
14 already on the porch?

15 A Yes, ma'am.

16 Q Did one of your crew members deal with him or did you deal
17 with him?

18 A I gave him some verbal orders. I said, get down. He got 19 down. And I proceeded inside of the location. So one of 20 my crew members detained him.

21 Q You said there was a black female in the home; is that
22 correct?

23 A Yes, ma'am.

24 Q Where was that black female at?

25 A She was in the dining room..

1 Q Do you see that black female any where here in court today?

2 A Yes, ma'am.

3 Q Where is she at?

4 A Sitting in the last row of the courtroom.

5 Q Was there anybody else in the home at that time besides the 6 black female?

7 A No, ma'am.

8 THE COURT: Can we know who it is he's talking
9 about? Who is he talking about?

10 MS. ZEIGER: Sorry, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 (Lady in audience acknowledged her presence)

13 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am. I appreciate it.

14 MS. ZEIGER: Sorry, your Honor. I didn't realize 15 there was more than one black female in the back. Thank 16 you.

17 THE COURT: Thanks.

18 BY MS. ZEIGER:

19 Q Can you describe for us the inside of this home. How it's 20 broken down.

21 A You enter like a living room area. Then a dining room.
22 Going straight back is a kitchen. And then a stairwell
23 leading upstairs. Going in it would be -- the bedrooms
24 would be to the right -- to the left, I'm sorry.

25 Q Upstairs -- was there a kitchen upstairs?

- 1 A Yes, ma'am.
- 2 Q And there was a kitchen downstairs?
- 3 A Yes, ma'am.
- 4 Q Two kitchens in this house?
- 5 A Yes, ma'am.
- 6 Q Was this a two -- was it a two-family flat?
- 7 A No, ma'am.
- 8 Q It was a one -- it was a one family home?
- 9 A It had one address, yes, ma'am.
- 10 Q Were there bedrooms upstairs and downstairs?
- 11 A Yes, ma'am.
- 12 Q How many entrance doors did this home have?
- 13 A A front door and, I believe, there was a back door.
- 14 Q So in the front there was only one door?
- 15 A Yes, ma'am.
- 16 Q It wasn't set up like a flat where there would have been
- 17 two entrances?
- 18 A No, ma'am.
- 19 Q Would there have been a way for you to get to the upstairs
- 20 from the front foyer area of the home.
- 21 A No, ma'am.
- 22 Q Would the only way to get upstairs was through the main
- 23 floor living area on the first floor?
- 24 A Yes, ma'am.
- 25 Q Did you go upstairs and search?

1 A After the location was cleared, yes, ma'am.

2 Q Did you find anybody upstairs?

3 A No, ma'am.

4 Q Did you search the entire home, top and bottom?

5 A I didn't, no, ma'am.

6 Q Do you know if crew members searched the entire home, top
7 and bottom?

8 A Yes, ma'am.

9 Q Did you assist in searching?

10 A Yes, ma'am.

11 Q Where did you search?

12 A I searched upstairs.

13 Q Did you seize anything when you searched?

14 A Yes. After the location was cleared, I seized some POR,
15 off the kitchen table.

16 Q What's P --

17 COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry. Repeat that. You
18 retrieved something off the table.

19 THE WITNESS: Some POR, proof of residence.

20 COURT REPORTER: Thank you.

21 BY MS. ZEIGER:

22 Q Proof of residence. What exactly did you seize?

23 A It was State of Treasury mail in the name of Darell
24 Chancellor.

25 Q Did it have an address associated with it?

1 A Yes, ma'am.

2 Q What address was that?

3 A The address of that location, ma'am.

4 Q 502 --

5 A 5023, yes, ma'am.

6 Q 32nd Street?

7 A Yes, ma'am.

8 Q Officer Johnson, was that letter opened or closed when you
9 found it?

10 A It was open.

11 THE COURT: Where exactly did you say you found
12 it?

13 THE WITNESS: On the kitchen table.

14 THE COURT: The kitchen upstairs --

15 THE WITNESS: Upstairs.

16 THE COURT: -- or downstairs?

17 THE WITNESS: The upstairs kitchen table.

18 THE COURT: Upstairs kitchen table.

19 Thank you.

20 MS. ZEIGER: Your Honor, may I approach the 21 witness?

22 THE COURT: Yes.

23 (People's proposed Exhibit No. 1 marked for 24 identification)

25 BY MS. ZEIGER:

1 Q Officer Johnson, I'm going to show you what's been marked
2 as People's proposed Exhibit No. 1. And actually let me
3 just ask you a question before that. The item, the proof
4 of residency, that you've testified that you seized did you
5 place that under evidence tag number?

6 A Yes, ma'am.

7 Q Do you remember that evidence tag number off of your
8 memory?

9 A No, ma'am.

10 Q Do you need your report to refresh your recollection as to 11 that number?

12 A Yes, ma'am.

13 MR. PAIGE: Stipulate. I'll stipulate to it.

14 BY MS. ZEIGER:

15 Q I'm going to hand you what's been marked as People's 16 proposed Exhibit No. 1. Is that the -- can you tell us
17 what is inside of that item?

18 A From the outside of the envelope it states:

19 "Michigan Department of Treasury."

20 It's addressed to a Darell Deon Chancellor.

21 The date on the outside of the envelope is 11/1/11.

22 Inside it says:

23 "Department of Treasury."

24 And it's dated -- again, addressed to a

25 Mr. Darell Chancellor, with a date on it of 11/5/11.

1 MS. ZEIGER: Your Honor, we ask for the admission
2 of People's proposed Exhibit No 1.

3 THE COURT: Any objection?

4 MR. PAIGE: No, objection, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. People's 1 is admitted.

6 (People's Exhibit 1 admitted into evidence.)

7 MS. ZEIGER: Thank you, your Honor.

8 BY MS. ZEIGER:

9 Q Officer Johnson, did you seize anything else from the 10 residence that day, either upstairs or downstairs?

11 A No, ma'am.

12 MS. ZEIGER: Nothing further, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Cross-examine.

14 MR. PAIGE: Just a few questions with the 15 Court's permission?

16 THE COURT: Sure.

17 CROSS-EXAMINATION

18 BY MR. PAIGE:

19 Q Officer Johnson, I just want to be clear about a couple
20 things because I plan to argue this at the end of the day.
21 One is that this gentleman was not on the premises when you
22 got there, right?

23 A That's correct, sir.

24 THE COURT: And when he says -- for the record,
25 when he says, "this gentleman," he's talking about the

1 Defendant.

2 BY MR. PAIGE:

3 Q The Defendant, right?

4 A That's correct, sir.

5 Q And, so that I'm clear, this dwelling appeared to be 6 occupied, meaning that there were lights on?

7 A Yes, sir.

8 Q There was furniture in the house?

9 A Yes, sir.

10 Q Bedrooms?

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q Upstairs and downstairs?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q Refrigerator?

15 A There were appliances.

16 Q Appliances.

17 A person detained on the porch?

18 A Yes, sir.

19 Q Black female?

20 A Inside the location, yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: She was inside. There was a
22 different person on the porch.

23 BY MR. PAIGE:

24 Q Black female, who is present in the courtroom today, right?

25 A That was inside the location, yes, sir.

1 Q Right. All right. And there was a black male that was on
2 the porch?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 Q What was his name?

5 A I don't have that in my report, sir.

6 Q You don't?

7 A No, sir.

8 Q Can you give me a description of that person?

9 A Black male, probably '5 9", '5 10". I think I have that -- 10 it's on my sergeant's PCR.

11 THE COURT: Do you remember if you were able to 12 determine whether that particular person that was on the 13 porch was a resident of that location or not?

14 THE WITNESS: He was not a resident, sir. He 15 stated he was there doing some work for the lady that owned
16 the residence.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 BY MR. PAIGE:

19 Q And you took that to be -- you believed that, right?

20 A Yes, sir.

21 Q Did you investigate that? Did you talk to the lady of the 22 -- whoever the lady purportedly was supposed to be of the 23 residence as to whether that person was doing some work for 24 her or not?

25 A Yes, sir.

1 Q All right. And did you submit that to a writing?

2 A No, sir.

3 Q Okay. And this is your report here.

4 Before you got to the premises, you had a search
5 warrant, right?

6 This is your report?

7 A No, that's Sergeant Tucker's report.

8 MS. ZEIGER: I thought you wanted Sergeant
9 Tucker's report. I'm sorry.

10 THE WITNESS: I was saying that the name of the 11 gentleman on the porch --

12 THE COURT: Yeah, that report has the name of 13 the --

14 THE WITNESS: -- was on Sergeant Tucker's
15 report.

16 THE COURT: -- or the description of the person
17 that's on the porch.

18 BY MR. PAIGE:

19 Q Okay. The description is on his report, right? This is 20 the report you were referring to, right?

21 A Yes, sir.

22 Q Okay. That will refresh your memory as far as the height
23 and weight, right?

24 A We have the name, and the birthdate, and the address of the 25 gentleman that was detained on the porch.

1 Q Does it have the height on it?

2 A No, sir.

3 Q Does it have the weight on it?

4 A No, sir.

5 Q Do you have a recollection of -- you've already told us the 6 person was approximately '5 8", '5 9", right?

7 A Probably about '5 9", '5 10", slim build.

8 Q Slim build.

9 Okay. When you -- before you got to the 10 premises -- and I'm going to move on -- you were armed with 11 a search warrant, right?

12 A Yes, sir.

13 Q And in the search warrant, there was a description of a
14 person to be searched, right?

15 A Yes, sir.

16 Q And the description of the person to be searched was 17 approximately '5 9", and a hundred and sixty something
18 pounds, right?

19 A Officer Geelhood gave that, and --

20 Q I'm just asking does that comport with your recollection?

21 A I can't recall, sir.

22 Q Okay. Do you have a recollection of -- were you -- you
23 were interested in searching a person when you got to the 24 premises, right?

25 A Yes, sir.

1 Q And is there anything that can refresh your memory relative
2 to who was the person to be searched or the description of 3 the person?

4 A We're briefed off the search warrant.

5 Q I understand that.

6 A So the search warrant would refresh my memory.

7 MR. PAIGE: This is the original, ma'am?

8 MS. ZEIGER: It's the original copied. I made a
9 copy of the original.

10 THE COURT: It's the closest she has.

11 MS. ZEIGER: It's all I've got.

12 BY MR. PAIGE:

13 Q After looking at the search warrant, does this refresh your 14 memory of the description of the person to be searched?

15 A Yes, sir.

16 Q And what was that?

17 A The person of interest was a black male, 30s, '5 8", 180
18 pounds.

19 Q Okay. No mention of glasses, right?

20 A No, sir.

21 MR. PAIGE: Stand up, Mr. Chancellor.

22 BY MR. PAIGE:

23 Q How much would you say he weighs?

24 A I'd probably say on the plus side of 200.

25 Q 200 and if I told you about 220 -- I'm just -- I'm just

1 saying.

2 A Yeah.

3 Q About 220. All right. And if I were to tell you he's 4 about '5 11".

5 A I would probably have to stand next to him, sir.

6 Q You can stand next to him. You want to?

7 A Yeah.

8 Q Because we -- this is a search for the truth. You know,
9 this is not a -- we just trying to get it where it's at.

10 A Probably.

11 Q Okay. You want to be as close to '6 0" tall as you can be,
12 huh?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 MR. PAIGE: May I mark this into evidence, if 15 there's no objection?

16 THE COURT: Any objection to the search warrant
17 being placed into evidence?

18 MS. ZEIGER: No, your Honor, that's fine.

19 THE COURT: All right. So that's going to be 20 Defense A. Defense A, the copy of the search warrant, is 21 admitted.

22 (Defense Exhibit A admitted into evidence.)

23 MR. PAIGE: Nothing further.

24 Thank you, sir.

25 THE COURT: Redirect?

1 MS. ZEIGER: Yes, your Honor.

2 Thank you:

3 May I approach the witness?

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 MS. ZEIGER: Thank you.

6 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

7 BY MS. ZEIGER:

8 Q Officer Johnson, you were just shown Sergeant Tucker's
9 report. Can you tell us the name of the individual that 10 was on the porch?

11 A Mr. Ronald Durhall (ph.), black male, birthdate 12/1/58,
12 of 4981 32nd Street.

13 Q So that would have been down the street then from the 14 location that you were at?

15 A Yes, ma'am.

16 Q And he was born in 1958?

17 A 1958.

18 Q Thank you.

19 Also, you were asked whether the house was 20 furnished. Was the upstairs furnished?

21 A Yes, ma'am.

22 Q Did it appear to be currently being lived in, in your 23 opinion?

24 A Yes, ma'am.

25 MS. ZEIGER: Nothing further, your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Anything based upon that, Mr. Paige?

2 RECROSS-EXAMINATION

3 BY MR. PAIGE:

4 Q Were you aware that -- do you see the Durhall (ph.) that
5 -- do you see him in the courtroom? The person that you
6 detained?

7 A No, sir.

8 MR. PAIGE: Mr. Durhall, would you stand up.
9 Just stand up.

10 BY MR. PAIGE:

11 Q Is this the person that you detained?

12 A It could be. Without seeing his name, or his ID, I
13 couldn't tell you, sir.

14 THE COURT: You can't tell from looking at him
15 now?

16 THE WITNESS: No, sir.

17 MR. PAIGE: If you can -- come closer, sir.

18 BY MR. PAIGE:

19 Q Is this the person --

20 Just stay right there. Don't be too excited.

21 BY MR. PAIGE:

22 Q Is the person that you detained, was he approximately his 23 height?

24 A He was similar to his height.

25 Q And was he approximately his weight?

1 A I couldn't tell you that, sir.

2 Q I mean, is it --

3 A He was slim build. I don't know how much that gentleman
4 weighs.

5 Q Well, would you consider --

6 Take your jacket off.

7 BY MR. PAIGE:

8 Q Would you consider him slim build?

9 A Yes, sir.

10 Q All right.

11 Have a seat.

12 BY MR. PAIGE:

13 Q And this -- okay, if I were to tell you that this person,
14 Mr. Durhall (ph.), was not a handy man, but he lived there,
15 and was the boyfriend of Mr. Chancellor's mother, could you
16 refute that?

17 A Only thing I can tell you is that that gentleman and the 18 lady inside the location lied to me that day then.

19 Q Okay. And people do -- it's not unusual to lie to the 20 police, is it?

21 A Not at all.

22 Q All right.

23 Did you search every bedroom in the house?

24 A No, sir.

25 Q Did you go through the drawers in the bedrooms to look for

1 proof of residencies for whatever reason?

2 A I didn't, sir, no.

3 Q Have you to this date did a record search to make a
4 determination of who owned the house?

5 A I didn't, no, sir.

6 Q To this date, your role as it relates to an officer --
7 you're a sergeant, right?

8 A No, sir.

9 Q You should be.

10 Yeah, but you've been a law enforcement officer
11 for a while, right?

12 A Yes, sir.

13 Q Did you trace any proceeds from what purports -- this is a 14 drug raid, right?

15 A Yes, sir.

16 Q Did you seize any cars or monies from Defendant Chancellor?

17 A No, sir.

18 Q Airplanes, boats?

19 A No, sir.

20 MR. PAIGE: Nothing further -- no, no.

21 BY MR. PAIGE:

22 Q Were you aware that Defendant Chancellor has a brother that 23 lived in that house?

24 A No, sir.

25 Q That is about '5 10" and slim build, were you aware of

1 that?

2 A No, sir.

3 Q Were you aware that there was a cousin who lived in that
4 house by the name of Willie Chancellor that was similarly
5 build as Antonio Chancellor, the Defendant's brother?
6 Just yes or no.

7 A No, sir.

8 Q And so that it's clear -- and I know the Judge knows this
9 and you know it, but I just want to put it on the record
10 you don't know if Defendant Chancellor ever opened that 11 mail, do you?

12 A No, sir.

13 Q And notwithstanding whether he did or not -- I'll leave
14 that alone.

15 MR. PAIGE: Nothing further.

16 MS. ZEIGER: Nothing further, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 Thank you, officer.

19 THE WITNESS: Thank you, sir.

20 (Witness excused.)

21 MS. ZEIGER: Your Honor, the People would call
22 Officer Steven Geelhood next.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 COURT CLERK: Can you spell your name for her.

25 OFFICER GEELHOOD: Steven with a V, last name

1 G-E-E-L-H-O-O-D.

2 COURT REPORTER: Thank you.

3 COURT CLERK: Do you solemnly swear or affirm the 4 testimony you're about to give to the Court will be the 5 truth so help you God?

6 OFFICER GEELHOOD: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Have a seat, please.

8 MS. ZEIGER: May I proceed, your Honor?

9 THE COURT: Please.

10 MS. ZEIGER: Thank you.

11 S T E V E N G E E L H O O D,

16 one bedroom upstairs?

17 THE WITNESS: I recall one for sure that there
18 was a bed in, and there might have been two rooms that were 19 -- could have been bedrooms.

20 THE COURT: You don't recall for sure. I'm just 21 wondering where did you say you saw the men's clothing?

22 THE WITNESS: It would have been in the kitchen.

23 THE COURT: Oh, in the kitchen?

24 THE WITNESS: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 BY MS. ZEIGER:

2 Q Let's talk about that. Where did you find men's clothing
3 in the kitchen?

4 A In the hamper in the kitchen under the kitchen table.

5 THE COURT: Officer, there's a clothes hamper in 6 the kitchen?

7 THE WITNESS: Yes.

8 BY MS. ZEIGER:

9 Q Was there anything else in that clothes hamper besides male
10 clothing?

11 A Yes, I made a confiscation of narcotics from that hamper.

12 Q And, specifically, what type of narcotics?

13 A It would have been cocaine.

14 Q Did you place that cocaine on a lock sealed folder number?

15 A I did.

16 Q What was that?

17 A Referring to my PCR, --

18 Q Will that refresh your recollection?

19 A It would.

20 Q Please do so.

21 A Nancy 03346711.

22 MS. ZEIGER: May I approach, your Honor?

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 MS. ZEIGER: Thank you.

25 BY MS. ZEIGER:

1 Q Officer, I'm going to show you what's marked as People's
2 proposed Exhibit No. 2.

3 MR. PAIGE: I'll stipulate that that's it.

4 MS. ZEIGER: Okay. But I'm going to ask him some 5 follow up questions.

6 BY MS. ZEIGER:

7 Q Is that the lock sealed folder number that you just read
8 off to us as being the lock sealed folder number that you
9 placed the cocaine on that day?

10 A It is.

11 Q And how many -- did you find more than one bag of cocaine?

12 A There was one bag with four bags inside.

13 Q The way that the cocaine is today, is that the way that it
14 was when you found it back on November 2nd, 2011?

15 A No.

16 Q Can you describe it the way it looked back on November 2nd?

17 A It would have been all white chunks of cocaine.

18 Q And would you agree with me that that's liquified --

19 A It has.

20 Q -- inside? Okay. Was that the way that you seized it
21 that day?

22 A No.

23 Q Okay. Does it have a stench to it?

24 A Very much so.

25 THE COURT: Is that normal? Is that what

1 happens to it when it sits in a bag?

2 THE WITNESS: If it sits too long in the heat.

3 MS. ZEIGER: Your Honor, we have someone from the 4 Michigan State Police who can explain why this is like 5 this.

6 THE COURT: Okay. I've never seen that before.

7 MS. ZEIGER: Yes..

8 THE COURT: I was just more curious than 9 anything.

10 BY MS. ZEIGER:

11 Q And, Officer Geelhood, was that a small amount of cocaine?

12 A Very large amount.

13 Q And in your training and experience this amount of cocaine
14 is that indicative of anything to you?

15 A Yes, dealing of cocaine. Major dealing of cocaine.

16 Q Did you have a further conversation with the -- you
17 described her as the Defendant's mother?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Did you order her or ask her to do anything for you?

20 A I asked her to contact the Defendant.

21 Q Did she comply?

22 A She did.

23 Q How did she make contact with him?

24 A With a -- with her cell phone.

25 Q Did you observe her talk to anybody?

1 A I did.

2 Q Did you talk to anybody?

3 A I did.

4 Q Can you tell us the person you talked to was that male or 5 female?

6 A It was a male.

7 Q Can you tell us what your side of the conversation was?

8 A It would have been that we would like to make contact and 9 talk about what happened during the raid.

10 Q Did you ask that person to come to the home at all?

11 A I did.

12 Q Did that person ever come to that home?

13 A No.

14 Q Had you been to that house before November 2nd, 2011 or in 15 the area of that home of 5023 32nd Street?

16 A I had.

17 Q When was that?

18 A During my pre-raid surveillance.

19 Q And do you remember specifically what date that was?

20 A I would have to refer to my search warrant.

21 MS. ZEIGER: Your Honor, --

22 THE COURT: No, I don't have it.

23 THE WITNESS: There is a copy right here. I can 24 see it.

25 THE COURT: Ms. Zeiger, do you want to give it

1 to the witness?

2 MS. ZEIGER: Yes.

3 BY MS. ZEIGER:

4 Q And this has been marked, I believe, as Defense --

5 MR. PAIGE: 1.

6 THE COURT: Defense A.

7 MR. PAIGE: Oh, it's A?

8 MS. ZEIGER: Defense A.

9 THE COURT: Yeah. People 1, Defense A.

10 MS. ZEIGER: Yes.

11 BY MS. ZEIGER:

12 Q So we have marked this already, and it has been admitted as 13 Defense A.

14 A I was there the day before the raid.

15 Q So that would have been November 1st, 2011?

16 A Correct.

17 Q And what was your reason for being around that location on
18 November 1st?

19 A I had received information on the 31st of October that 20 there was drugs being sold by -- at this location.

21 Q Do you remember what time of day it was that you were in 22 that area on November 1st?

23 A It would have been later in the evening.

24 Q Did you observe anything?

25 A I did.

1 Q What did you observe?

2 A Referring to my search warrant --

3 Q Would that refresh your recollection?

4 A It would.

5                   Within thirty minutes, I observed three people
6 independently go into the front door of that house having 7 conversation with the described Defendant seated here, and 8 making purchases of suspected heroin.

9 Q You just pointed to somebody. Who did you point to?

10 A The gentleman sitting in front of the defense table with 11 the blue shirt, black pants.

12 Q Thank you.

13                   MS. ZEIGER: May the record reflect that the 14 witness has identified the Defendant Mr. Darell Chancellor?

15                   THE COURT: Yes, it will.

16                   MS. ZEIGER: Thank you.

17 BY MS. ZEIGER:

18 Q Where did you exactly see the Defendant?

19 A At the front of the -- at the door of that house of the 20 house that we raided.

21 Q You described it it seems as though this home is broken up
22 into two living spaces. Did this home have more than one
23 front door?

24 A No.

25 Q Were there any lights on in the front of this house?

1 A When we hit it?

2 Q No, on November 1st. Excuse me.

3 A I could visually see, yes, that it was this person sitting
4 at this table right here. I could see him. It was lit
5 enough for me to see him.

6 THE COURT: Was it daylight or night?

7 THE WITNESS: It would have been towards the 8 evening hours, but I could see. It probably would have 9 been around 5:00 or 6:00, but it was October so it was 10 late.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 THE WITNESS: Dark.

13 BY MS. ZEIGER:

14 Q I see that you're wearing glasses today.

15 A Yes.

16 Q Are those reading glasses or are those prescription
17 glasses?

18 A Readers.

19 Q On November 1st, 2011 when you were outside doing 20 surveillance were you using anything to assist you in your 21 ability to see?

22 A I had binoculars in the vehicle. I was using those, yes.

23 Q You were using your binoculars, okay.

24 And; approximately, how far away from the 25 home were you set up conducting your surveillance with your

1 binoculars?

2 A I'd say, approximately, three to four hundred feet.

3 Q Are these binoculars that you use on a daily basis doing
4 surveillance?

5 A All the time when I'm on surveillance, yes.

6 MS. ZEIGER: Nothing further at this time, your 7 Honor.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Cross-exam.

9 CROSS-EXAMINATION

10 BY MR. PAIGE:

11 Q How do you pronounce your last name?

12 A Geelhood.

13 Q Geelhood?

14 A Geelhood.

15 Q Geelhood. Listen, I think you're the key to this case. So
16 I'm going to spend a little bit of time with you, but not 17 that much, all right?

18 A Yes, sir.

19 Q All right. You was the affiant on the search warrant,
20 right?

21 A Yes.

22 Q All right. And when you gave information to a magistrate,
23 were you telling the truth then about the description --

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q -- of the person?

1 A Yes.

2 Q And in that description, you indicated that the person was
3 approximately '5 --

4 A If I can refer to my paperwork?

5 Q Yes, please do.

6 A I put he was '5 8", a 180 pounds.

7 Q '5 8" and a 180 pounds.

8 You never said anything about glasses, did you?

9 A No, sir.

10 MR. PAIGE: Stand up, Mr. Chancellor.

11 BY MR. PAIGE:

12 Q How much do you say he weighs right here?

13 A Probably 210.

14 Q 210, 220?

15 A I guess, yes.

16 Q Yeah. So are you normally 40 pounds --

17 Have a seat.

18 BY MR. PAIGE:

19 Q Are you normally -- would you agree with me the difference
20 between 220 and 180 would put a person from a description
21 of mainly a slim build to a -- would you consider him a
22 medium build?

23 A Would I consider him a medium build?

24 Q A medium build, right.

25 A No, he's on the heavier side.

1 Q So you would say on a heavier side?

2 A Correct.

3 Q You would call him heavy build then? I'm just trying to 4 get the vernacular right.

5 A Yes, sir.

6 Q In your description of the person in the search warrant,
7 in your every day vernacular, would you say that a person
8 '5 8", '5 9", and a 180 pounds is heavy build?

9 A No.

10 Q Have you ever been wrong before?

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q And would you not agree that identification evidence is 13 probably the most unreliable evidence?

14 MS. ZEIGER: Objection, argumentative.

15 MR. PAIGE: Well, I'll just say this.

16 BY MR. PAIGE:

17 Q Have you ever made a mistake about identifying someone
18 before thinking that you know someone, and then all of a
19 sudden you say, oh, that's not the person that I thought it
20 was? Has that ever happened to you?

21 A Not like this, sir, no.

22 Q Well, no. I'm not saying like this.

23 I'm just saying have you ever made a mistake
24 in identification?

25 A No, sir. I'm quite positive this was the gentleman at the

1 house.

2 Q No, you -- no, no, no, no. See you -- you're trying to
3 protect yourself, and I'm not beating you up.

4 I'm saying have you ever made a mistake about
5 identification about -- for any reason?

6 MS. ZEIGER: Your Honor, this has been asked and
7 answered.

8 MR. PAIGE: I'll move on.

9 THE COURT: Yeah.

10 BY MR. PAIGE:

11 Q Did you see --

12 Stand up, sir.

13 BY MR. PAIGE:

14 Q Did you see this person on the premises on the date that 15 you executed the search warrant?

16 A It could have been him, yes.

17 Q It could have been him.

18 Come closer, again.

19 How would you describe him?

20 A What his build is?

21 Q Yes.

22 A From a distance, probably '5 10", 170.

23 Q Bingo.

24 Have a seat.

25 BY MR. PAIGE:

1 Q So you can get it right.

2 So were you aware that the Defendant had a
3 brother on the premises that was named Antonio? Were you
4 aware of that, that lived there?

5 A I wasn't aware of that, no.

6 Q And that he was -- he is described as about '5 10", '5 11", 7 a 170, 180 pounds. Are you aware of that?

8 A No, sir.

9 Q Are you aware that there was another black male, his 10 cousin, living on those premises?

11 A No, sir.

12 Q November of last year, right?

13 A A year ago, yes.

14 Q What was the date, November what?

15 A It was the 2nd.

16 Q November 2nd around election time, right?

17 A Correct.

18 Q Okay. And it was about what time in the evening?

19 A Like I said earlier, about 5:00 or 6:00, maybe.

20 Q 5:00 or 6:00, all right.

21 THE COURT: You're talking about the
22 surveillance or the execution of the warrant?

23 MR. PAIGE: The surveillance.

24 THE COURT: Okay. That was the 1st, not the 25 2nd, right?

1 THE WITNESS: That was the 1st, yes.

2 BY MR. PAIGE:

3 Q Okay. About what time was the surveillance?

4 A About 5:00 or 6:00.

5 Q About 5:00 or 6:00.

6 Now, listen, when I asked this man to stand up,
7 he's approximately how far away from you right now?

8 You don't have to stand up again.

9 BY MR. PAIGE:

10 Q How far away would you say he's from you?

11 A Sixty feet.

12 Q Sixty feet.

13 And you had to ask me to have him come closer to 14 you, did you not?

15 No, I'm not laughing.

16 A Did I have him come closer?

17 Q I -- I had him come closer to you.

18 A I did not ask for him to come closer, no. You did.

19 Q No, I did for you -- so you could --

20 A Thank you for that, yeah.

21 Q But I brought him closer to you --

22 A You did bring him closer, yes.

23 Q -- because you couldn't really make a determination from 24 where he was at, at that point, right?

25 A Yes.

1 Q So it's nighttime. It's nighttime November 1st
2 at about 6:00. It's nighttime, right?

3 A Yes. Evening time, yes.

4 Q Evening, nighttime.

5 Was the person -- strike that. And I've already 6 gotten it out.

7 Did you describe the person in the search warrant
8 wearing glasses?

9 A No, I didn't.

10 Q And if I were to tell you that this man has a heavy
11 prescription because he has problems, like me, and maybe
12 not like you because you got reading glasses, right?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q If I were to tell you that he has a heavy prescription, you
15 couldn't refute that, could you?

16 A If what now? If he had a prescription?

17 Q I mean --

18 A I wouldn't have any idea whether he has a prescription.

19 Q All right. Well, it wasn't -- a guy didn't have a cane
20 and a dog, a blind man, you know. That's not necessary.

21 MR. PAIGE: Nothing further.

22 THE COURT: Redirect.

23 MS. ZEIGER: Thank you, your Honor.

24 May I approach, your Honor?

25 THE COURT: Yes.

1 MS. ZEIGER: Thank you.

2 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

3 BY MS. ZEIGER:

4 Q Officer, I'm going to show you what's been marked as 5 People's proposed Exhibit No. 6. Can you tell me what that
6 is.

7 A It's the Defendant.

8 Q And is that a picture of the Defendant?

9 A It is.

10 Q And do you know when that was taken?

11 A Let's see 11/2 of '11 -- no, that's when it was run.

12 Q Yes.

13 Is that a Secretary of State document?

14 A Oh, expires on 12/7/14. It was effective on 1/10/11.

15 Q And is the Defendant wearing glasses in that picture?

16 A He is not.

17 Q And is that the picture that Mr. Chancellor would have been 18 -- had taken for his driver's license?

19 A It is.

20 Q And what address is associated with that?

21 A 5023 32nd.

22 Q Thank you.

23 MS. ZEIGER: Your Honor, we ask for the admission
24 of People's proposed Exhibit No. 6.

25 MR. PAIGE: No objection.

1 THE COURT: People's 6 is admitted.

2 MS. ZEIGER: Thank you.

3 (People's Exhibit No. 6 admitted into evidence.)

4 BY MS. ZEIGER:

5 Q The person that you saw outside on November 1st, 2011 --

6 A Yes.

7 Q -- this is the person that you described as doing
8 hand-to-hand transactions?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Was that person wearing glasses?

11 A No.

12 Q When you were using your binoculars, did you have any 13 troubles viewing that individual?

14 A None.

15 Q And was that the Defendant?

16 A Absolutely.

17 Q Does the Defendant look the same way today as he did a year
18 ago?

19 A He's heavier.

20 Q And I'm going to show you People's Exhibit No. 6. Is he 21 heavier now than what he was in this photograph? Looking 22 at the picture as comparison.

23 A Yes. It appears to me that he's thinner here than he is 24 here.

25 Q Okay. He's thinner where?

1 A In this picture.

2 Q Okay. Than he is seating --

3 A Correct.

4 Q -- sitting here today?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Okay.

7 THE COURT: And did we determine the picture was 8 taken in January of 2011? Is that what it says?

9 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

11 BY MS. ZEIGER:

12 Q Are you aware of any other family member living at that 13 home besides the Defendant and the Defendant's mother?

14 A No.

15 Q The person that was brought up to you and you were asked to 16 look at, do you know if that was the person who was on the 17 porch that day? And when I say "that day," I mean the day
18 of the raid?

19 A It appears that he is, yes.

20 Q Was that the person that you saw the day before when you
21 were doing your surveillance on December -- November 1st,
22 2011?

23 A No.

24 MS. ZEIGER: Nothing further, your Honor.

25 RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION

1 BY MR. PAIGE:

2 Q You told your Honor that this picture was taken from the
3 Secretary of State --

4 A Yes.

5 Q -- to get a driver's license?

6 A Yes.

7 Q How do you know that?

8 A It says it on the top.

9 Q Just point to it because I can't see where.

10 A That's what this means.

11 Q You said, "that's what this means?"

12 A Yes.

13 Q It doesn't say driver's license on that, does it?

14 A To me it does.

15 THE COURT: What does it say? Tell me what it
16 says.

17 BY MR. PAIGE:

18 Q It's a code, right?

19 A That's what it means, sir.

20 Q Well, let me tell you what I think it means. I think it
21 means that he was getting a state ID. So, I think that's 22 a difference. Because I want to -- this is a search for 23 the truth. Are you telling me that on this particular date
24 that this man was getting a driver's license and not
25 complying with the requirement to get a state ID?

1 A That's him going to the Secretary of State and getting an
2 ID of some sort from the Secretary of State.

3 Q Now, it's some sort.

4 MS. ZEIGER: I didn't understand what you yelled
5 out.

6 BY MR. PAIGE:

7 Q Now, it's some sort of ID, right?

8 A It has to be done through the Secretary of State of 9 Michigan. That's what that document states.

10 Q That's not the question I asked you under oath.

11 I asked you did you tell this Court that 12 this man was getting a driver's license, specifically?
13 Did you tell your Honor, Judge Hathaway, that this man was 14 getting a driver's license picture? Did you say that?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And now I'm going to ask you another question. When you
17 got that search warrant, what day was that on?

18 A It was on the 2nd.

19 Q The 2nd.

20 Did you -- and I don't mean to insult you.

21 A Please don't.

22 Q Did you pull a picture of Darell Chancellor prior to 23 getting that search warrant? Yes or no.

24 A Prior to, no.

25 Q Did you -- when did this become in your possession?

1 A After the search warrant. It probably was --
2 Q What -- when?
3 A Probably when we were doing the paperwork.
4 Q No, I don't want to know probably. Because if you had this 5 -- did you -- did you pull his picture and then go and make 6 a false affidavit about this man? Did you do that?
7 A No, sir.
8 Q Because his lower torso is not published in this purported
9 picture, right?
10 A It doesn't appear to be, sir.
11 Q And so it gives opportunity for error for the description
12 as far as his body weight, does it not?
13 A What are you asking me?
14 Q I'm telling you that you can't tell how much this man
15 weighs based on this picture.
16 A She asked me my opinion of his weight. That's what I
17 answered.
18 Q No. It ain't she talking to you now.
19 I said, you cannot determine this man's weight by 20 this picture, can you? Can you?
21 A I believe that I can. That he looks smaller there than he 22 does when he's sitting here.
23 Q Would you make a guesstimate about his weight without 24 knowing his weight in using this -- as far as talking to a
25 judge and --

1 A I could not give a total weight from that picture, no, sir.

2 Q And what if I were to tell you that as a requirement of a
3 state ID, he was told to take his glasses off.

4 A I was not there, sir.

5 Q Of course you were not.

6 Big dope transaction, right? Big dope
7 transaction. That's a lot of dope. You've already told us
8 that, right? That's a question. It's a lot of dope,
9 right?

10 A What question are you asking me the transaction or the 11 amount of the dope?

12 Q The amount of the dope.

13 A It's a lot of dope, yes, sir.

14 Q Yes. And what would be the value of that dope?

15 A I believe that it's about $400.00 a gram, and it was over 16 600 grams.

17 Q So give me a guesstimate. You're good with numbers.

18 A Approximately $240,000.00.

19 Q How much?

20 A Approximately $240,000.00.

21 Q $240,000.00?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay. Did you do any trace -- traces to make a 24 determination of what kind of assets this man owned on/or 25 about November 1st or 2nd of 2011? Did you do any trace

1 evidence on that? You.

2 A I had another address from the mother that she'd given me
3 at the house.

4 Q I'm asking you a question, sir. Did you do --

5 A And I'm trying to answer it, sir.

6 Q So what did you determine?

7 A Whether he lived at the other house that she gave me.

8 Q I'm not asking you that question. I'm asking you did you
9 make a determination of what his net worth was on November
10 1st or 2nd of 2011?

11 MS. ZEIGER: And, your Honor, I'm going to 12 object at this point. If I may be allowed to redirect
13 again based upon this questioning? Because I think this 14 goes outside the scope of my redirect. If I can --

15 THE COURT: It does go outside the scope, but 16 I'll allow it with the understanding that you can reopen --

17 MS. ZEIGER: Thank you.

18 THE COURT: -- your redirect.

19 MS. ZEIGER: Thank you, your Honor.

20 BY MR. PAIGE:

21 Q Did you do any trace evidence on this guy to make a
22 determination what his assets -- what his net worth was?

23 A No, sir.

24 Q The dope that you found was not in plain view?

25 A Correct.

1 Q And, in fact, the dope was covered up by clothing, right?

2 A Yes.

3 Q That's what you put in your report, did you not?

4 A I said, yes.

5 Q And it was pushed under a table?

6 A I didn't know who pushed it there or why it was pushed
7 there. It was under a table. That's why I confiscated
8 it.

9 Q I didn't ask you --

10 THE COURT: The hamper was under a table?

11 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 BY MR. PAIGE:

14 Q There is no fingerprints on the dope that is traced back to 15 him, right?

16 A I didn't believe we got any back, no.

17 Q No latent prints, right?

18 A I didn't get any back.

19 Q You never saw him touch that dope, did you?

20 A Not that particular bag that we confiscated, no.

21 Q Did you ever confiscate a bag of dope that he purportedly
22 sold? Did you ever confiscate a bag that he sold?

23 A No.

24 Q Did you detain the people who you thought were making drug
25 transactions?

1 A No, sir.

2 Q Did you go into all the bedrooms?

3 A Yes.

4 Q You went in everyone of the bedrooms in that house?

5 A I went over the whole house, yes.

6 Q So how many bedrooms did you go into?

7 A Approximately four.

8 Q Sir, if I tell you it's three bedrooms downstairs and three 9 upstairs, you might have missed two?

10 A I told you I went into approximately four. I went into 11 every room in that house.

12 Q So you don't really know how many you went into. That 13 would be a better answer. It could be --

14 A I'm trying to answer you, sir. Some of the rooms didn't 15 have beds in them.

16 Q So if -- some of the rooms didn't have beds in them?

17 A Right.

18 Q So you didn't call them bedrooms then. There were rooms
19 that appeared to be bedrooms, but they didn't have beds
20 in them, and so you didn't -- you won't call them
21 bedrooms?

22 A I'll answer by saying I went in every room in the house.

23 Q All right. Were the lights on?

24 A Where?

25 Q Were the lights on in the house?

1 A Some of the rooms, not all of the rooms.
2 Q Did you get an electricity bill? That's all I'm trying to
3 get. Did you get an electricity bill?
4 A Did I get an electricity bill?
5 Q Yes, out of the house?
6 A Did I, no.
7 Q Did you get a cable bill?
8 A You're asking me if I got one?
9 Q Yes.
10 A No.
11 Q Did anybody in your crew get one, if you know?
12 A There's other confiscations. I did not make them.
13 Q Okay. Did you get any other proof of residency in the 14 house?
15 A I did not get any other proof of residency.
16 Q You saw a female in the house, right?
17 A Yes.
18 Q Is she in the courtroom today?
19 A Yes.
20 Q Did you get any proof of residency from her?
21 A I --
22 Q Did you check her for ID?
23 A I made a confiscation of the dope. That's all I made.
24 MR. PAIGE: Stand up.
25 BY MR. PAIGE:

1 Q Did you check her for ID?

2 A I did not.

3 Q You weren't looking for proof of residency from her?

4 A I did not.

5 Q The person that was detained on the porch, that you don't 6 know if this was the man or not, did you get proof of 7 residency or check his -- that person's driver's license?

8 A You're asking me if I did, I did not.

9 Q And do you know if anybody in your crew did?

10 A They would have.

11 Q They would have?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Well, we've already had one person to testify and said that 14 he -- claimed that he did not.

15 MS. ZEIGER: Your Honor, I'm going to object.

16 He cannot tell what one person's testimony is. That's the 17 whole purpose of the sequestration.

18 THE COURT: I'll sustain the objection.

19 MR. PAIGE: Correct. I got it.

20 THE COURT: Go ahead, Ms. Zeiger.

21 MS. ZEIGER: Thank you..

22 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

23 BY MS. ZEIGER:

24 Q Officer Geelhood, did you have this picture of People's 25 Exhibit No. 6 with you before you executed a search

1 warrant?

2 A No.

3 Q Did you know the Defendant's name before you executed the 4 search warrant?

5 A No.

6 Q Did you put a name into your search warrant?

7 A No.

8 Q Had you had a name, would you have put that into the search
9 warrant?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Where did you learn the name of Darell Chancellor from?

12 MR. PAIGE: Objection to hearsay.

13 MS. ZEIGER: Your Honor, he went on and on about 14 how my officer knew who this person was ahead of time, and 15 lied in the search warrant, lied to the magistrate, and did
16 it based upon this document.

17 MR. PAIGE: I never said he lied. I asked him
18 the question did he lie. And it's still hearsay.

19 THE COURT: All right. What was the question
20 again?

21 MS. ZEIGER: Your Honor, I asked him where it was 22 that he got the name of Darell Chancellor from.

23 THE COURT: Well, I -- I don't think that that's 24 hearsay unless it's -- the answer to it is that someone
25 told him. If the answer is that someone told him, then it

1 would be hearsay.

2 MR. PAIGE: That's what --

3 THE COURT: But if he gets some form of
4 identification from someone or something, then I don't 5 think that's hearsay. That's something that he obtained as 6 part of his police work.

7 MS. ZEIGER: And I would agree that he got 8 identification from someone.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Then I'm going to allow it.

10 BY MS. ZEIGER:

11 Q Who did you get the name of Darell Chancellor from that 12 day?

13 A We got it from POR that was upstairs, and we also got it
14 from the mother.

15 Q And the mother this is the woman standing -- sitting in the 16 back?

17 A Yes.

18 MR. PAIGE: Your Honor, I ask that the mother's 19 information be stricken because it's hearsay.

20 THE COURT: Well, --

21 MR. PAIGE: It's not a big deal, but it is 22 hearsay.

23 THE COURT: Yeah, I will -- I'll allow it to be 24 stricken as hearsay. But I just thought that there was 25 from Officer Johnson that that came out without objection.

1 I don't know. Maybe I'm not remembering his testimony
2 properly. But I'll allow that that be stricken, and go on 3 the basis of the fact that he got it from the proof of 4 residence.

5 Go ahead, please.

6 BY MS. ZEIGER:

7 Q But you didn't have that name before you got to the house
8 that day?

9 A Correct.

10 Q Okay. You were asked about the assets of the Defendant.
11 After you were at this house executing the search warrant,
12 did you end up going to another location?

13 A I did.

14 Q What location is that?

15 A It would have been on the west side. I'm trying to recall
16 the address. I'm -- the mother gave it to me at the scene.

17 Q What was your reason for going to that location?

18 A She gave me that location that he also --

19 MR. PAIGE: Objection to the hearsay.

20 THE COURT: All right. I'll sustain that.

21 BY MS. ZEIGER:

22 Q Were you checking out another home?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And when you got to that home, did you see any vehicles
25 outside?

1 A I did.

2 Q What vehicles did you see outside?

3 A The same one I saw during the surveillance that the 4 Defendant was driving, a later model either an Aurora or a
5 Riviera.

6 Q So you saw this Aurora or Riviera on November 1st, 2011 at 7 5023 32nd Street when you were conducting your
8 surveillance?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And then you also saw this Riviera or Aurora at another
11 location on the west side?

12 A Correct.

13 THE COURT: Where did you see it when you were 14 doing the surveillance on the 1st?

15 THE WITNESS: It was in front of the house.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 THE WITNESS: The 50 --

18 THE COURT: Parked on the street in front of the 19 house?

20 THE WITNESS: Yes.

21 BY MS. ZEIGER:

22 Q Where did you see it in relationship to this other address
23 on the 2nd?

24 A In the driveway.

25 Q The height on People's Exhibit No. 6 what is that listed

1 at?

2 A '5 11".

3 Q And what height did you have in your search warrant?

4 A Referring to my document it's '5 8".

5 Q And, again, you did not have this picture before the search
6 warrant?

7 A No.

8 Q Was the description that you put in the search warrant
9 based upon your observations on November 1st?

10 A Yes.

11 MS. ZEIGER: Nothing further, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

13 Re-cross limited to the area that she covered.

14 MR. PAIGE: Let's try to get through this 15 because I know we're trying to get this in.

16 RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. PAIGE:

18 Q The Riviera did you run a license plate check on it? Did
19 you?

20 A I would have. I don't recall what came back.

21 Q If you would have, then that would be evidence, right?
22 I mean, that would be -- you would have memorialized that,
23 right?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Is there any where in your records you can refresh your

1 memory?

2 A I would have ran the plate that was in front of the house.
3 Whether it came back to that gentleman or not, I can't 4 recall.

5 Q Well, wouldn't you put that in your notes that you ran the 6 plate and it came back to John or Jane Doe?

7 A I would have run the plate to ensure it was run. I do not
8 know who it came back to. It is not in front of me.

9 MR. PAIGE: All right. Nothing further.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 Thank you.

12 MS. ZEIGER: Nothing further, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. You're all set. Thank 14 you, officer.

15 (Witness excused.)

16 MS. ZEIGER: We're going to put a stipulation on 17 the record.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MS. ZEIGER: As it relates to People's Exhibit
20 No. 2, the cocaine that was found by Officer Geelhood and 21 in lock sealed folder N, as in Nancy 03346711. Officer
22 Geelhood testified that the cocaine was not in the manner
23 that it is today. Today it is now melted, for lack of a 24 better word, I'm using a non-scientific word. But he 25 testified that it was not like this. That is was a hard

1 substance on November 2nd, 2011.

2 And we also have a laboratory analysis that was
3 offered by Holli Proulx, her last name is spelled
4 P-R-O-U-L-X. Her first name is Holli, H-O-L-L-I. She is a
5 Forensic Scientist in the Control Substances Unit in the 6 Michigan State Police. She received one sealed plastic bag
7 N, as in Nancy 03346711 containing one plastic bag
8 containing four knotted plastic bags containing off white
9 material. She analyzed two of the bags. She came up with 10 a weight of 516.65 grams. It was a Schedule II cocaine
11 base was the substance identified within the bag.

12 So stipulated?

13 MR. PAIGE: So stipulated.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MS. ZEIGER: And, your Honor, --

16 THE COURT: That stipulation is made a part of 17 the record then.

18 MS. ZEIGER: And, your Honor, at this time I do
19 have Ms. Proulx in court, and I'm going to be releasing her 20 as a result of this stipulation.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MS. ZEIGER: Thank you.

23 THE COURT: That's fine.

24 Thanks for being here.

25 MS. ZEIGER: And I'll grab my next witness.

4 A As far as my recollection, it was just jeans. I would say
5 men's jeans, shirts, underwear, socks.

6 Q It was all male clothing?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Did you seize anything else that day?

9 A No, I did not.

10 MS. ZEIGER: Nothing further, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Cross-examine.

12 MR. PAIGE: Real quick.

13 CROSS-EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. PAIGE:

15 Q One gun was in the hamper, right?

16 A Both guns, sir.

17 Q Oh, both guns were in the hamper?

18 A Yes, sir.

19 MR. PAIGE: Nothing further.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 You're all set. Thank you, sir.

22 THE WITNESS: Thank you, sir.

23 (Witness excused.)

24 MS. ZEIGER: Your Honor, at this time there's a 25 stipulation between defense counsel and the People that

1 back on November 2nd, 2011 the Defendant had previously
2 been convicted of a felony and was ineligible to possess a
3 firearm. So stipulated, Mr. Paige?

4 MR. PAIGE: Yes, it is.

5 MS. ZEIGER: Thank you.

6 THE COURT: All right. That stipulation is made
7 a part of the record in this case.

8 MS. ZEIGER: Thank you, your Honor.

9 The People would rest at this time.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Defense witnesses?

11 MR. PAIGE: Your Honor, I'm going to reserve the 12 right to make a directed verdict motion.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. PAIGE: And do it all at one time.

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 MR. PAIGE: But I'm not giving up that right --

17 THE COURT: Sure. Yeah, absolutely.

18 MR. PAIGE: -- to make a motion for directed 19 verdict.

20 May I counsel with my client just for one second?

21 THE COURT: Sure.

22 MR. PAIGE: Two minutes in the box so I can --

23 THE COURT: Yeah, we'll take a brief recess.
24 We'll come back in three minutes.

25 MR. PAIGE: Yes, thank you.

1 MS. ZEIGER: Thank you, your Honor.

2 (Matter in recess)

3 (Matter reconvened)

4 THE COURT: Okay. How do you wish to proceed at 5 this time, Mr. Paige?

6 MR. PAIGE: Your Honor, the defense -- the 7 Defendant wants to testify.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MR. PAIGE: Can I voir dire him real quick --

10 THE COURT: Absolutely, yeah.

11 MR. PAIGE: -- on this?

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 Stand up, please.

14 MR. PAIGE: You know you have the absolute right
15 not to testify?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

17 MR. PAIGE: And if you do not testify, your 18 Honor would instruct himself like he would instruct a jury
19 that he can't use that against you? You understand that?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

21 MR. PAIGE: And I've had the occasion to talk to 22 you about this?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

24 MR. PAIGE: And I've given you the admonishment
25 that it's been my experience a lot of times when defendants

1 take the stand they hang themselves?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

3 MR. PAIGE: And so we understand what's at risk?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

5 MR. PAIGE: You swear to tell the truth?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

7 MR. PAIGE: I can't do all the Judge's work.

8 THE COURT: Yeah. I'll do the swearing in.

9 Okay. Can you raise your right hand.

10 Do you swear or affirm the testimony you're 11 about to give in this matter shall be the truth so help you
12 God?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

14 THE COURT: All right. Have a seat, please,
15 Mr. Chancellor.

16 D A R E L L D E O N C H A N C E L L O R,
17 sworn by the Court, was examined and testified as follows:

5 Q And did you give the state that address?

6 A Yes.

7 Q And when you gave them that information, was that

9 A At the time it was. Because when I first came home, she 10 asked me where -- was that my location? I told her, yes.
11 But my lights was cut off on Robson. So I had to parole to 12 that house.

13 Q Okay. Now the house on Robson give us that address again.

24 Q Those glasses is that a prop for court today?

25 A No, sir.

1 Q Are those prescription glasses?

20 Q Okay. Your cousin -- strike that.

21 Did Mr. Durhall (ph.) live there -- stay there
22 sometimes?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Okay. Do you see him in the courtroom?

25 A Yes.

1 Q Okay. And could you just point him out for the record.
2 He's already been put into the record, but could you point
3 him out.
4 A He's in the back row. He's the only guy in the back row.
5 Q Yeah, I can even see that.
6 And what's his relationship to your family?
7 A He's my mother's boyfriend.
8 Q Okay. I guess that makes him a handy man. He does some 9 work around the house sometimes?
10 A He better, if he want to still stay there.
11 Q All right. Did you have any clothing upstairs?
12 A No.
13 Q What size shoe do you wear? You look like you've got big 14 feet.
15 A 11.
16 Q They not that big. 11?
17 A Okay.
18 Q And your pant size?
19 A 44.
20 Q 44?
21 A Yes.
22 Q And your shirt size?
23 A 5X.
24 Q 5X. If I looked in that collar right now, I'll see a 5X?
25 A Yes, sir.

1 Q 5X large. You're not even helping yourself out. It says
2 5X large; is that right?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 Q So you've been locked up for a while, right?

5 A Yes.

6 Q We got a judge. We don't have a jury. You've been locked
7 up for a while. You didn't get fat on the prison food did
8 you -- or jail food, did you?

9 A No, sir, they didn't feed us enough.

10 Q Whose dope is it?

11 A I don't know.

12 Q Is it your dope?

13 A No, sir.

14 Q Is it your guns?

15 A No, sir.

16 Q What were you doing with your life on November 2nd, 2011?
17 What were you doing with your life? If Judge Hathaway had 18 to get a synopsis of what you were doing with your life,
19 what were you doing with your life?

20 A I was working. I was taking care of my family.

21 MR. PAIGE: Nothing further.

22 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

23 Cross-examine.

24 MS. ZEIGER: Thank you.

25 CROSS-EXAMINATION

1 BY MS. ZEIGER:

2 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Chancellor.

3 A Good afternoon.

4 Q When did you start working at G and G Market?

5 A I'd say around the summertime of 2011.

6 Q And did you have to get that job as a condition of your 7 parole?

8 A Yes. I had to maintain a job, yes.

9 Q Okay. And you had to prove to Agent Izumi that you have a
10 job, correct?

11 A Yes.

12 Q A legitimate job?

13 A Yes.

14 Q How much money did you make an hour?

15 A Like $7.50.

16 Q How many hours did you work a week?

17 A It varies.

18 Q Give me a range.

19 A Like a week probably thirty five; forty hours.

20 Q You get taxes taken out or is it under the table?

21 A It's under the table.

22 Q Does your wife work, Katrice?

23 A Yes.

24 Q What does she do?

25 A She worked at -- what's the clothing store name? Forman

1 Mills. But right now she work at Family Dollar.

2 Q When did she work at Forman Mills?

3 A This was, like, when I first came home.

4 Q When was that?

5 A 2010, December 2010.

6 Q How long did she -- when did she stop working at Forman
7 Mills?

8 A She stopped working there about I'd say February. She got 9 pregnant so she stopped working.

10 Q February of 2011?

11 A Yes.

12 Q When was your son born?

13 A My son was born in August, August 25th.

14 Q Of 2011?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Okay. When did she go to work at the Family Dollar?

17 A Last year sometime.

18 Q So since you've been in?

19 A No, it was right before I got locked up.

20 Q Are those Cartiers that you're wearing?

21 A Yes.

22 Q How expensive are those glasses?

23 A About $300.00, $400.00.

24 Q Okay. Your address 9209 Robson is Robson R-O-B-S-O-N?

25 A Yes.

1 Q How long have you owned that house?

2 A I was incarcerated when I bought that house.

3 Q You were incarcerated when you bought that house?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Okay. Did they bring the documents to you in jail to have

6 you sign?

7 A No. I went through another person. She bought the house,

8 and it was mine.

9 Q Is the house legally deeded in your name?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Okay. When did that happen?

12 A Like November of 2010 right before I got out. Right before

13 I was to get out.

14 Q Okay. So right when you got out, you had a home to live

15 in?

16 A I didn't have no lights.

17 Q Okay. When did you get lights?

18 A January of 2011.

19 Q All right. Fair to say that Agent Izumi came out July 19th

20 2011 and you represented your mom's house as your house;

21 isn't that correct?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay. Did you have lights at the Robson address then?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Okay. When you didn't have lights, where were you living

1 at?

2 A I was staying with my mother.

3 Q How long did you not have lights for?

4 A I came home in December. The next month I had lights.

5 Q Was Katrice staying with you then, also?

6 A On Robson?

7 Q No, at your mom's house when you first came out?

8 A No.

9 Q How long have you and Katrice been married?

10 A Since 2008. I got married when I was incarcerated.

11 Q Okay. And Agent Izumi she was back out there in March 12 of 2012, as well, too, correct?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And you were there?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And you represented that home to her, again, as your home?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Were you embarrassed of your Robson house?

19 A No.

20 Q Were you hiding that house from her?

21 A No.

22 Q Why were you lying to her?

23 A Because I worked -- my job is closer to my mother's house.

24 If I would have told her I had a different address, she

25 would have switched offices and it would have made me go way

1 on Eight Mile to report when it's out the way of my job.
2 Q So the whole reason why you were lying was that you could
3 stay at the office where Agent Izumi is?
4 A Yes. Because the parole office is right down the street
5 from my job.
6 Q Where is the G and G Market?
7 A On Eleven and Warren.
8 Q And it's fair to say that lying to your parole agent is a
9 violation of your parole about where you're living?
10 A Yes.
11 Q Okay. Now you said that on 11 -- on November 2nd, 2011 you
12 were working between 8:00 and 4:00, 8:00 and 5:00, correct?
13 A Yes.
14 Q Okay. But you were not present at your mom's house when 15 the search warrant was executed?
16 A No, sir -- no, ma'am.
17 Q It's okay. You received a phone call from a police officer
18 that day, didn't you?
19 A No.
20 Q No. You never talked to officer Geelhood?
21 A No.
22 Q What were you doing on November 1st, 2011? Do you
23 remember?
24 A No, ma'am.
25 Q Mr. Durhall (ph.) does he also live down the street?

1 Does he have an address down the street of 4981 32nd
2 Street?
3 A No, not to my knowledge.
4 Q No, okay. How long have he and your mom been boyfriend and 5 girlfriend?
6 A For a long time.
7 Q Your brother Antonio Chancellor how old is he?
8 A He's 36 -- 37.
9 Q Your cousin Willie how old is he?
10 A He's 34.
11 Q And you're testifying that they all stay with your mom?
12 A Yes.
13 Q What's your sister's name?
14 A Crystal Chancellor.
15 Q Now, can you stand up for me so that I can see your 16 clothing. It's fair to say that you're clothing is a
17 little bit baggie, correct?
18 A Yes.
19 Q What was that?
20 A Yes.
21 Q Yes, it is baggie.
22 A Yes.
23 Q Okay. And you can sit down. Thank you.
24 And you have access to snacks and things of that 25 nature in the jail, correct?

1 A What at Dickerson?

2 Q Dickerson.

3 A Yes.

4 Q Okay.

5 MS. ZEIGER: Nothing further, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 MR. PAIGE: No further questions.

8 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Chancellor. You're
9 all set. Step down, sir.

10 All right. Any additional witnesses or evidence
11 on behalf of defense?

12 MS. ZEIGER: Not on behalf of the People, your 13 Honor.

14 MR. PAIGE: Neither on behalf of the defense.

15 THE COURT: Okay. So at this point, the defense
16 rest?

17 MR. PAIGE: Yes, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. Defense rest. So do you
19 want to make a closing argument at this time? The reason
20 I'm bringing that up is I'm not going to be prepared to 21 make a decision on this case today. Because I want to give 22 some thought to the evidence that's been presented. I
23 don't want to rush it. I want to give some thought to 24 this. So I'm saying that because I'm happy to have closing
25 arguments now, and then have you come back in the morning,

1 and I'll deliberate and make a decision. Or, if you
2 prefer, you can come first thing in the morning and do
3 closing, and then I'll deliberate at that time, as well.

4 MS. ZEIGER: Is there any way that we can come at 5 like 8:30? I have to be at the airport at 11:00, and I
6 have a motion in front of Judge Bill with Danny Blanc that 7 I'm going to try and get done between --

8 MR. PAIGE: Will you be here Monday?

9 MS. ZEIGER: Yes, I will be here Monday.

10 THE COURT: Do you want to just do it Monday
11 morning?

12 MR. PAIGE: Yes.

13 MS. ZEIGER: You want to do it Monday morning?

14 MR. PAIGE: Yes, your Honor, yes.

15 THE COURT: Because 8:30 does present a problem
16 for us.

17 MS. ZEIGER: I understand.

18 THE COURT: We're trying to get our Friday
19 docket put together --

20 MS. ZEIGER: Gotcha.

21 THE COURT: -- and when we do that, it makes it
22 more difficult on everybody.

23 MS. ZEIGER: Just knowing that I'm with Mr. Blanc
24 I know that it's going to be a lengthy motion.

25 THE COURT: Yeah. So let's plan on 9:00 a.m. --

1 MS. ZEIGER: Okay.

2 THE COURT: -- Monday morning. We'll get
3 finished up. We'll have closing argument, and then I'll 4 deliberate at that time.

5 MS. ZEIGER: Thank you, your Honor.

6 MR. PAIGE: Thank you, your Honor.

7 MS. ZEIGER: Your Honor, would you want me to 8 bring any of the guns and the drugs?

9 THE COURT: Leave the guns and the cocaine.

10 MS. ZEIGER: Okay. I'll keep the paper documents
11 with me.

12 THE COURT: Right.

13 MS. ZEIGER: Okay. Sounds good.

14 THE COURT: Just make sure you bring them back

15 --

16 MS. ZEIGER: Will do.

17 THE COURT: -- so that I'll have them when I
18 deliberate.

19 MS. ZEIGER: Will do. I'll make sure I do that.

Chancellor Letter to Judge Hathaway

Dear: Honorable Judge D. Hathaway

My name is [redacted] and I have trial November 8 in front of you case # 2012701246.
I didn't want a jury trial because I'm fighting for my life, and I'm working in the court room.
I know the laws and can read the facts better than you. I been locked up 6 months for something I know nothing about. Me and my wife had my first baby I missed his first birthday and that's killing me. I know what I'm about to say you hear it all the time, but the police got the wrong person you will see that by the description they got do not match me at all. I know I'm facing alot of time if I get found guilty so please believe me if I did or know anything I wouldn't be taking this chance of trial. The evidence and the facts will show that I haven't did anything.

P.S

Thank you kindly for your time

v

DARELL CHANCELLOR,

Defendant-Appellant.

No. 314437
Wayne Circuit Court
LC No. 12-004974-FH

ON RECONSIDERATION

Before: MURRAY, P.J., and JANSEN and SHAPIRO, JJ.

PER CURIAM.

Defendant appeals as of right his conviction after a bench trial of possession of 450 to 999 grams of cocaine, MCL 333.7403(2)(a)(ii). The trial court sentenced defendant, as a fourth habitual offender, MCL 769.12, to a term of 14 years and 3 months to 30 years' imprisonment.<sup>1</sup> We affirm.

This case arises out of a search of a house and seizure of 516.65 grams of cocaine. On November 1, 2011, Detroit police surveilled a house at 5023 32nd Street during which Officer Steven Geelhood observed a black male engage in three independent hand-to-hand transactions of suspected drugs at the front door of the house. The next day, police executed a search warrant. Upon searching a second-floor kitchen area, police found a bag containing four smaller bags of cocaine and two loaded handguns. The items were inside a clothes hamper that was tucked under a kitchen table. On top of the kitchen table, police found an open letter sent from the Michigan Department of Treasury and addressed to defendant at 5023 32nd Street. Police detained defendant's mother and a man during the search. Defendant was not then present at the house, but was later arrested.

<sup>1</sup> Defendant was also charged with possession with intent to deliver 450 to 999 grams of cocaine, MCL 333.7401(2)(a)(ii), felon in possession of a firearm, MCL 750.224f, and possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony (felony-firearm), MCL 750.227b, but was acquitted of those other charges.

Defendant raises a single issue on appeal, arguing that there was insufficient evidence presented at trial to support his conviction of possessing cocaine under a constructive possession theory. When reviewing a claim of insufficient evidence, this Court reviews the record de novo. People v Meissner, 294 Mich App 438, 452; 812 NW2d 37 (2011). We review the evidence in the light most favorable to the prosecution and determine whether a rational trier of fact could find that the essential elements of the crime were proven beyond a reasonable doubt. People v Reese, 491 Mich 127, 139; 815 NW2d 85 (2012).

Possession of a controlled substance requires a showing of “dominion or right of control over the drug with knowledge of its presence and character.” People v Meshell, 265 Mich App 616, 621; 696 NW2d 754 (2005), quoting People v Nunez, 242 Mich App 610, 615; 619 NW2d 550 (2000), in turn quoting People v Maliskey, 77 Mich App 444, 453; 258 NW2d 512 (1977). Possession can be actual or constructive. People v Wolfe, 440 Mich 508, 520; 489 NW2d 748 (1992), amended 441 Mich 1201 (1992). Constructive possession exists when the totality of the circumstances indicates a sufficient nexus between the defendant and the controlled substance. Id. at 521; see also, People v Konrad, 449 Mich 263, 271; 536 NW2d 517 (1995), citing People v Germaine, 234 Mich 623, 627; 208 NW 705 (1926) (analyzing whether the defendant had sufficient dominion or control to support a conviction based on constructive possession). By itself, a defendant’s presence at a location where drugs are found is insufficient to establish possession. Wolfe, 440 Mich at 520.

Defendant contends that he was not the person police observed during the surveillance and that he did not live at 5023 32nd Street at the time of the search. But viewing the evidence in the light most favorable to the prosecution, a rational trier of fact could find beyond a reasonable doubt that defendant constructively possessed the seized cocaine. Officer Geelhood testified at trial that he was “[a]bsolutely” certain defendant was the person he saw involved in the suspected drug transactions at the front door of the house. Although defendant argues that he is the victim of mistaken identity – citing his heavier weight at the time of trial and reliance on prescription glasses – Officer Geelhood testified that he had a clear view of defendant during the surveillance. The prosecution also introduced as a trial exhibit a Secretary of State document depicting defendant as thinner and not wearing glasses. The trial court found Officer Geelhood’s testimony concerning his identification of defendant to be reliable, and those questions of credibility are left to the trier of fact to resolve. People v Harrison, 283 Mich App 374, 378; 768 NW2d 98 (2009).

Also, police found the cocaine in the second-floor living quarters, and sufficient evidence suggested defendant occupied or had control over that area. The cocaine was in a clothes hamper that held male clothing, and police seized the letter addressed to defendant from the table under which the cocaine was found. Additionally, defendant’s parole agent, Cyndi Izumi, testified that she visited defendant at 5023 32nd Street and that defendant told her he lived there. Indeed, defendant admitted that he told Izumi that he lived at the house and that he had, in fact, lived there for a time. The Secretary of State document listed defendant’s address as 5023 32nd Street, and Officer Geelhood testified that during the search, defendant’s mother directed him to a second residence where he could find defendant. Officer Geelhood went there and observed a vehicle that had been parked in front of 5023 32nd Street during the surveillance.

On this record, there was sufficient evidence to link defendant to both the house (through identification of him as the person involved in the front-door transactions and his admission that he at times lived there)<sup>2</sup> and that he had control over the area where police found the cocaine (through the evidence of the mail and clothing). Though there was no direct evidence that defendant actually possessed the drugs found inside the house (though there certainly was direct evidence of him possessing drugs at the front door), circumstantial evidence and the reasonable inferences that arise from the evidence can constitute satisfactory proof of the elements of a crime. People v Carines, 460 Mich 750, 757; 597 NW2d 130 (1999). And, all conflicts in the evidence must be resolved in favor of the prosecution. People v Kanaan, 278 Mich App 594, 619; 751 NW2d 57 (2008). The prosecution was not required to show that defendant was the only person with access to or control over the cocaine. Possession may be joint, with more than one person actually or constructively possessing a controlled substance. Konrad, 449 Mich at 271, citing Wolfe, 440 Mich at 520. Under these circumstances, there was sufficient evidence of the required nexus between defendant and the cocaine to reasonably find constructive possession beyond a reasonable doubt.<sup>3</sup>

Our dissenting colleague argues that the trial court's factual findings were not sufficient to support defendant's conviction. Defendant, however, does not argue or raise this issue in his counsel's brief nor in his own Standard 4 brief. Therefore, it is not an issue properly before us. In any event, "[a]lthough the circuit court's findings were brief, they established that it was aware of the relevant issues in the case and correctly applied the law . . ." People v Smith, 211 Mich App 233, 235; 535 NW2d 248 (1995). See, also, MCR 6.403 and MCR 2.517(A)(2). The main issue was whether defendant could be connected to the cocaine—and the trial court made findings that (1) defendant resided at the house and (2) defendant's residence was "upstairs" (where the cocaine was located) such that he constructively possessed the cocaine. Given the evidence as outlined above, the trial court's findings—albeit brief—were sufficient enough for us to conclude that the trial court was aware of the relevant issues and made findings on those issues that were supported by the evidence.

<sup>2</sup> In his Standard 4 brief, defendant argues that he received the ineffective assistance of counsel when his trial counsel did not present defendant's wife and mother as witnesses who could testify that defendant did not live at this house, and when failing to object to "liquid formed narcotics" at trial. Even assuming those acts were ineffective, defendant is not entitled to relief because in light of the facts presented to the court, he has not established prejudice. People v Corbin, 463 Mich 590, 599-600; 623 NW2d 884 (2001).

<sup>3</sup> Defendant suggests that that trial court rendered inconsistent rulings with respect to the cocaine and firearm possession charges. The requirement that a firearm be readily accessible distinguishes the firearm possession charges from the drug possession charge. See, People v Williams (After Remand), 198 Mich App 537, 541; 499 NW2d 404 (1993).

DARELL CHANCELLOR,

No. 314437
Wayne Circuit Court
LC No. 12-004974-FH

Defendant-Appellant.

Before: MURRAY, P.J., and JANSEN and SHAPIRO, JJ.

SHAPIRO, J. (dissenting).

I respectfully dissent. This case concerns a bench trial with highly controverted proofs. The majority reviews the most inculpatory proofs, and based upon them, concludes that there was sufficient evidence to convict. I would agree with the majority's conclusion if the trial court had made factual findings adopting those proofs or even if it provided a clear indication that it based defendant's conviction upon them even without formal fact-finding. However, the trial court did not do so and so it cannot be determined whether defendant's conviction was based on the facts referenced by the majority or by a conclusion on the part of the trial court that defendant could be convicted of possession of cocaine solely on the basis of a finding that he resided in the relevant house, a finding which by itself would not be sufficient. Accordingly, I would reverse defendant's conviction and remand for a new trial.

I. FACTS

Defendant was charged with both possession and possession with intent to deliver 450 to 999 grams of cocaine, MCL 333.7401(2)(a)(ii) (possession with intent to deliver); MCL 333.7403(2)(a)(ii) (possession), and possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony (felony-firearm), MCL 750.227b. After a bench trial, the court acquitted defendant of possession with intent to deliver and felony-firearm. However, the court convicted defendant of possession. Defendant was sentenced as a fourth habitual offender, MCL 769.12, to the statutory 30-year maximum term and to a minimum term of 170 months, the lowest term within the relevant sentencing guidelines range.

The charges arose out of a search of a home on 32nd Street in Detroit at approximately 5:30 p.m. on November 2, 2011. Three police officers and defendant's parole officer testified in the prosecution's case-in-chief. Defendant testified on his own behalf.

Officer Geelhood testified that on October 31, 2011, he received information that heroin was being sold from the 32nd Street house. The following evening, he watched the house and within 30 minutes saw three people independently go to the front door, have a conversation with a black man (who he later identified as the “seller” in his search warrant affidavit), and make purchases of what he believed to be heroin. He testified that he observed these activities from about 400 feet away, using binoculars, and although it was dark, there was a light on at the front of the house. Geelhood testified, consistent with the description he set forth in the search warrant affidavit, that the seller he saw during this period of observation was a black male, 5’7” to 5’8” tall, 170-180 pounds, and of slim build. He also testified that the man was not wearing glasses.

Geelhood testified that he was “absolutely certain” that the man he observed was defendant. However, he conceded that defendant was 5’11” tall and of “heavy build,” weighing, in his estimation, between 210 and 220 pounds. Given the clear divergence between his description of the seller and defendant’s actual appearance, Geelhood was asked if his description of the seller in the affidavit could have been mistaken. He denied any error and reaffirmed his description of the seller as a man as much as 4 inches shorter and up to 50 pounds lighter than defendant appeared to him at trial.

All three officers testified that defendant was not present at the 32nd Street house when the warrant was executed. Present at the home were defendant’s mother and a black male in his 50s, about 5’9” tall and of slim build, weighing approximately 170 pounds. This individual told the officers that he was working on the house, but that he did not live there. He was apparently not pursued as a suspect.

The officers testified that the 32nd Street house had at least four bedrooms – two on the first floor and two on the second. There were kitchens on both the first and second floors, though the second floor could only be accessed by stairs from the first floor, i.e., there was no separate entrance or private stairs to the second floor. There was a table in the upstairs kitchen. Beneath the table was a clothes hamper in which the officers found men’s clothing, the large quantity of cocaine at issue, and two guns. None of the clothes were offered as evidence and the officers did not further describe the type or size of the clothing.

One of the officers testified that he found an envelope on the table in the upstairs kitchen that had been opened and contained a letter from the State of Michigan addressed to defendant at the 32nd Street address. The officer testified that prior to the discovery of this letter they did not have a name associated with the suspected seller. An officer asked defendant’s mother where they could find defendant and she provided the officers with a different address. An officer testified that he went to that address and observed a car in the driveway that had been seen at the 32nd Street house the night before during surveillance. He ran the license plate and learned that the vehicle belonged to defendant. When defendant was later arrested, he was not in possession of any drugs.

Defendant’s parole officer also testified. She stated that she had met with defendant on two occasions at the 32nd Street address and that he told her that he lived there.

Defendant testified on his own behalf and stated that neither the cocaine nor the guns found at the 32nd Street house belonged to him. He testified that at the time of trial he was 30 years old, 5'11" tall, and weighed 250 pounds. He testified that on the date of the search, he weighed 245 pounds. He testified that he always wore the glasses he was wearing in the courtroom and could not function without them. He testified that he wore size 44 waist pants and it was shown that the shirt he was wearing was 5XL, though he conceded that the clothes were baggy.

The prosecution speculated in argument that defendant probably gained weight (apparently 40-60 lbs) due to eating jail food while awaiting trial.<sup>1</sup> In addition, the prosecution introduced a Secretary of State photo of defendant's head and shoulders taken in January 2011 in which he was not wearing glasses. Geelhood testified that, in his opinion, defendant appeared thinner in the photo than he did at trial.

Defendant testified that he lived on Robson Street with his wife and son at the time of the search and kept all of his clothes there. He testified that he had lived at his mother's home on 32nd Street when he was initially released from prison in November 2010, i.e., when he gave that address to the parole officer. He stated that after moving to the Robson address, he continued to represent to his parole officer that he lived at the 32nd Street house. He testified that he misrepresented his address to the parole officer because his workplace was near his mother's home and if he reported the change in address, he would have been reassigned to a parole office located a greater distance away. He testified that on the date of the search, the persons living at the 32nd Street house were his mother, his brother, his sister, and a male cousin. He described his brother as 37 years old, 5'9" tall, and weighing approximately 165-170 pounds. He described his cousin as 34 years old. He stated that another person, the man present at the house at the time of the search, was his mother's boyfriend, who lived in the house.

After hearing proofs and argument, the trial court delivered its findings and verdict. It found defendant guilty of constructively possessing the cocaine, but not acquitted him of possession with intent to deliver and felony-firearm.

II. ANALYSIS

Where a criminal case is bench tried, it is not sufficient for the court to simply state a verdict. Under MCR 6.403, "[t]he court must find the facts specially . . . . The court must state its findings and conclusions on the record or in a written opinion made part of the record." "[I]n criminal cases . . . a judge who sits without a jury is obligated to articulate the reasons for his decision in findings of fact. Findings of fact in a nonjury case serve a function paralleling the judge's charge in a jury case, that of revealing the law applied by the fact finder." People v Jackson, 390 Mich 621, 627; 212 NW2d 918 (1973). In other words, the requirement that the trial court make factual findings is not to require that the court resolve each and every factual dispute, but to assure that the court correctly applied the law. See People v Armstrong, 175 Mich App 181, 184; 437 NW2d 343 (1989). Further, a trial judge sitting as fact-finder in a bench trial is not permitted to reach “compromise” verdicts. Wayne Co Prosecutor v Detroit Recorder’s Court Judge, 177 Mich App 762, 765; 442 NW2d 771 (1989), citing People v Burgess, 419 Mich 305, 310-311; 353 NW2d 444 (1984).

---

In this case, the trial court’s findings were inadequate to determine the factual basis for defendant’s conviction and to determine whether the trial court properly applied the law in reaching its verdict.

The trial court’s factual findings and conclusions of law as to the relevant charge read in their entirety as follows:

[O]n Count II, I do find that there was sufficient basis to show proof beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant did in fact possess the cocaine that was found in the laundry hamper and that it did exceed 450 grams or more; that the proof of residence was established beyond a reasonable doubt for [defendant]; that the fact that the mail was found in the upstairs location indicates to me that the residence was upstairs and that in fact there is a sufficient basis for me to find constructive possession by [defendant] of that cocaine, and I find him guilty of Count II, controlled substance possession, cocaine.

It is reasonable to infer from the trial court’s findings that the conviction may have been based solely on the court’s conclusion that defendant resided at the 32nd Street house. However, “[i]t is well established that a person’s presence, by itself, at a location where drugs are found is insufficient to establish constructive possession.” People v Wolfe, 440 Mich 508, 520; 441 Mich 1201 (1992). While residence at the subject house is certainly relevant to the question of constructive possession, the legal standard is not satisfied by residence alone, but rather whether that the defendant exercised “dominion or right of control over the drug with knowledge of its presence and character.” People v McKinney, 258 Mich App 157, 165; 670 NW2d 254 (2003) (quotation marks and citations omitted).

Beyond mere presence or possible residence, demonstrating dominion and control requires additional circumstances, albeit ones that may vary from case to case. Wolfe, 440 Mich at 520 (“some additional connection between the defendant and the contraband must be shown.”); see also id. at 522-524 (the defendant attempted to destroy drugs when police arrived, was found in possession of $5 used to purchase cocaine by an undercover officer, and possessed the only key to the apartment where the drugs were discovered); McKinney, 258 Mich App at 166 (the defendant claimed ownership of $3,000 discovered by police and shared the bedroom where the drugs were discovered); People v Nunez, 242 Mich App 610, 615-616; 619 NW2d 550 (2000) (possession established where police found utility bills addressed to the defendant, the defendant had a key to the apartment, and a witness testified that the defendant resided in the apartment).

In the instant case, the prosecution did not assert that defendant lived alone in the 32nd Street home and the defense presented evidence that at least two other men resided there. Finding the proofs sufficient is even more difficult, given that the contraband was found in a common area, i.e., a room in the house accessible to all residents and as to which defendant, if he did live there, had no special or exclusive dominion. Thus, even if only one member of the household had dominion and control over the contraband and the others never exercised any control over it, by definition, each member of the household shared a “nexus” with the contraband, by virtue of their residence in the home where it was found. However, this does not answer the question of which of the residents had dominion and control over the drugs. It is not a crime to merely live in a house in which someone else possesses drugs. And again, “[i]t is well established that a person’s presence, by itself, at a location where drugs are found is insufficient to prove constructive possession.” Wolfe, 440 Mich at 520.

The court did note that the letter addressed to defendant was found on a table and the drugs were found in a clothing hamper under that table. I agree that the location of the letter is of some relevance, but it was not found in the hamper along with the drugs and no drugs were on the table. I do not agree that the mere presence of the letter in the same common room as the hidden drugs is sufficient to establish defendant’s dominion and control over the drugs. See Nunez, 242 Mich App at 615-616 (in addition to utility bills addressed to the defendant, police found defendant in possession of a key, and a witness testified explicitly that defendant resided there). Indeed, the letter was the sole object in the house identified as belonging to defendant. No other items were linked to the defendant. There were four bedrooms, none of which were identified as belonging to defendant or containing any of his possessions. There was no evidence that any items found in any bedrooms or closets belonged to defendant and the clothes in the hamper were not linked to him other than by the fact that they were men’s clothes. I would agree that the fact that they were men’s clothes would have been sufficient had the trial court concluded that no other men lived in the house, but it did not.

In my view, a conviction based solely on the letter would rest on insufficient evidence. Thus, the critical question is whether the man Geelhood observed the night before the search, making suspect transactions, was defendant. However, the trial court made no findings in this regard and its absence of such a finding is critical. Had the court found that the man seen the night before was defendant, I would defer to that finding and affirm the conviction as the events of the night before would link him to the drugs.<sup>2</sup> However, if the trial court found that the man seen the night before was not defendant, then he could not be properly found to have exercised dominion and control over the drugs found in the house.

In sum, the trial court did not render sufficient factual findings for a reviewing court to determine whether it properly applied the law. Jackson, 390 Mich at 627. The proper remedy in such a case is to reverse the conviction and remand for a new trial. Accordingly, I would reverse defendant’s conviction and remand for a new trial.

<sup>2</sup> Of course, if the trial court found that defendant was the man the police observed, it would lead to the conclusion that defendant was guilty of possession with intent to distribute.

DARELL CHANCELLOR’S RESPONSE IN OPPOSITION TO THE CITY OF DETROIT’S MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER
ENFORCING THE BAR DATE ORDER AND
CONFIRMATION ORDER AGAINST DARELL CHANCELLOR

Darell Chancellor, by his Attorneys Johnson Law, PLC, responds to the City of Detroit’s motion as follows:

I. Introduction

1. It is admitted that Chancellor filed the subject lawsuits which have been consolidated by order of the Federal District Court. Chancellor’s claims did not accrue or arise until his conviction was vacated on March 24, 2020, and as such the filing of the lawsuit does not violate the discharge and injunction instructions in the City’s confirmed plan in the Bar Date Order.

2. The first notification that Plaintiff received that Defendant intended to assert a bankruptcy discharge wasn’t provided until shortly before the filing of this motion in April of 2023. The case had been pending since Defendant filed their answer to the original complaint in July of 2020. Discovery had been continuing and up to 30 depositions have already been taken. The City of Detroit did not raise a bankruptcy discharge as an affirmative defense pursuant to FRCP 8(c) in answer to the original complaint or the amended complaint as they were required to do. See Mickowski v Visi-Trak Worldwide, LLC, 415 F3d 501, 506 (6th Cir. 2005).

16. Prior to being tried and wrongfully convicted in 2012 of constructive possession of 450-990 grams of cocaine at issue in the pending civil action, between 2000 and 2003, Plaintiff plead guilty to charges of possessing narcotics less than 50 grams and one armed robbery. (Exhibit 1, Criminal General Information/Habitual). Notably, as he did in 2012, Plaintiff entered a not guilty plea in April of 2002, to a fraudulent gun charge that was falsely asserted against him by another notorious member of the Detroit Police Department—former Officer Melendez. (Exhibit 2, ROA). Officer Melendez was later fired for misconduct and the fraudulent gun charge against Plaintiff was dismissed on May 7, 2002.

19. Before being discharged from prison on parole in December of 2010, Plaintiff acquired the home on 9209 Robson Street in Detroit by quit claim deed which was recorded on November 9, 2010. While his home on Robson was being renovated, Plaintiff briefly stayed with his mother on 32nd Street. (Exhibit 3, Recorded Quit Claim Deed).

21. Admitted.

22. Admitted. Geelhood falsely alleged that he received information from a confidential informant (CI). Neither the City or Geelhood have ever been able to substantiate or confirm that the CI referenced in the subject affidavit ever existed.

23. Admitted. Long after Plaintiff had moved into his home with his wife, Katrice Alford, and his newborn son, Geelhood falsely swore to conducting surveillance at Plaintiff's mother's home on 32nd Street and to seeing Plaintiff purportedly conducting narcotic transactions. (Exhibit 4, Search Warrant/Affidavit). Moreover, he claimed to observe a Black male who was 5'8" and 180 pounds. Id. The LIEN information pulled up by the Detroit Police Department one day after the raid dated on November 2, 2011 didn't even substantiate the description in the affidavit that Geelhood falsely swore to. That LEIN identified Plaintiff as two inches taller at 5'10" and 50lbs heavier at 230 lb. (Exhibit 5, DPD LIEN Info).

24. Geelhood claimed to have discovered 450-999 grams of cocaine in a laundry hamper of clothes that was in a common room upstairs on 32nd Street next to a room that was occupied by Plaintiff's sister, Crystal Chancellor.

25. Admitted. It is undisputed that Plaintiff was not present at his mother's home when the search warrant was executed. Chancellor wasn't even arrested until he was pulled over on a traffic stop the next year on May 2, 2012. (Exhibit 6, Detainee Input Sheet).

26. Admitted.

27. Admitted. Plaintiff further alleges that he was wrongfully convicted and imprisoned for over eight years until the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office moved to have his conviction and sentence vacated on March 24, 2020. (Exhibit 7, Order to Vacate)

28. Admitted. Geelhood never accounted for the gross discrepancies in his descriptions of Plaintiff's weight and height versus Plaintiff's actual height and weight. Geelhood never corroborated his undocumented "sighting" of Plaintiff with something like a utility bill that connected Plaintiff to his mother's home, property search, or CLEAR . Yet at the criminal trial Geelhood insisted that Plaintiff was the same person he purportedly observed during his 30-minute surveillance the day before the raid.

C. Chancellor's Appeal

40. Admitted.

41. Admitted. Judge Shapiro's dissent, however, was telling. (Exhibit 8, COA Dissent).

42. Admitted. The Conviction Integrity Unit, a division of the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office, began investigating Plaintiff's conviction in 2018 and ultimately concluded that Plaintiff had been wrongfully convicted as a result of Geelhood's false statements.

III. Argument

43. These allegations are denied as Plaintiff's claims did not accrue until his conviction was vacated on March 24, 2020.

44. It is disputed that under the "fair contemplation" test, Mr. Chancellor could have ascertained through the exercise of reasonable due diligence that he had a claim against the City. His claim did not accrue until it was found that Ofcr. Geelhood committed fraud in obtaining the subject search warrant.

45. It is denied that the plan's discharge provision applies to Mr. Chancellor as he did not have a responsibility to file a proof of claim as he did not, under the "fair contemplation" test, have a reason to file such claim.

46. It is denied that Plaintiff's claims should be barred by the discharge plan. In furtherance of this position, Plaintiff asserts that the City should be prohibited from raising this discharge claim due to the fact that they did not raise the claim in their affirmative defenses in answer to the complaint and amended complaint filed in violation of FRCP 8(c).

47. Mr. Chancellor denies the allegations in paragraph 47 as under the circumstances of this case, in which the City failed to assert the affirmative defense of bankruptcy discharge, the filing of the complaint in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan was appropriate.

IV. Conclusion

48. Plaintiff requests the following relief:

- a. Plaintiff requests that the City of Detroit's motion be denied in its entirety; or
- b. That if the Court does grant a portion of the City of Detroit's motion, the order should be limited to:
  - i. An order (a) directing Chancellor dismiss or cause to be dismissed his claims against the City and Geelhood in his representative capacity with prejudice from the lawsuit; (b) permanently barring, estopping and enjoining Chancellor from asserting claims alleged in, or claims related to the lawsuits against Geelhood (in his representative capacity, and the City; (c) prohibiting Chancellor from sharing in any distribution in this bankruptcy case.

- c. In the event the Court does grant a portion of the City’s relief, Plaintiff requests that the Court deny the City’s request to have the order apply to claims against “the property of the City” as said claims have never been made in the underlying lawsuit. There has never been a claim made by Mr. Chancellor against the City’s property in this case (e.g. garnishment, foreclosure, etc.), and as such, the relief sought goes beyond the terms of the underlying lawsuit and is moot. Furthermore, if the Plaintiff is successful in his claims against Geelhood individually, the City may be responsible for indemnifying and that indemnity claim would not be subject the bankruptcy discharge pursuant to: In re: City of Detroit, 524 B.R. 147, 294-296 (U.S. Bankruptcy Ct. Ed. Mich 2014). If the Court to enter an order prohibiting Plaintiff from pursuing claims against “property of the City” an argument could be made that this would impermissibly apply to a potential indemnity claim and this should be avoided in this order;
- d. As to Geelhood, Defendant has only asked for the relief sought applies to claims against Geelhood in his “representative capacity”. This order should clearly state that any relief awarded does not apply to claims against Geelhood in his “individual capacity”.

SEARCH WARRANT AND AFFIDAVIT

TO THE SHERIFF OR ANY PEACE OFFICER OF SAID COUNTY: PO. GEBELHOOD.

Affiant, having subscribed and sworn to an affidavit for a Search Warrant, and I having under oath examined affiant, am satisfied that probable cause exists: THEREFORE IN THE NAME OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN, I COMMAND THAT YOU SEARCH THE FOLLOWING PLACE: The entire premises known as 5023 32nd, Detroit Michigan, described as a single family dwelling, located in the city of Detroit, County of Wayne and the State of Michigan.

ALSO TO BE SEARCH: Seller's B/M/30s' 5'-8" 180 lbs.

And to seize secure, tabulate and make return according to the law the following property.

All Controlled substance, all monies, books, and records used in the connection with illegal Narcotic trafficking, all equipment and supplies used in the manufacture, delivery, sale or use of Controlled Substances, all firearms used in connection with the above described activities, all evidence of ownership, occupancy or control of the

THE FOLLOWING FACTS ARE SWORN TO BY AFFIANT IN SUPPORT OF ISSUANCE OF THIS WARRANT: The affiant is a member of the Detroit Police Department, Wayne County, Michigan. The Affiant has been a police officer for over 17 years. The Affiant is currently assigned to the Narcotics Division, Conspiracy Section.

1. On 10/31/11 Affiant received information from a creditable and reliable informant. This CI stated to affiant that he/she knows there is a large amount of Heroin at the above location, which is being stored and sold at this location. The affiant has used this CI on over (3) occasion resulting in (3) arrest for VSGA with cases pending in 36th district and 3rd circuit court resulting in the confiscation of quantities of Marijuana, Cocaine and firearms. Proving this CI is familiar with narcotics and its packaging.

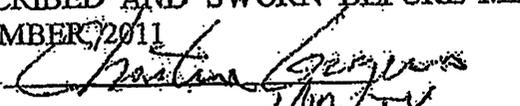

2. On 11/01/11 Affiant set up a fixed surveillance on 5023 32nd, and during the course of 30 minutes, Affiant observed at least 3 persons separately go to the above address, knock on the door of 5023 32nd, engage in a short conversation with a person matching the above seller description, then the suspected buyer would stay outside and the above described seller returned and made a suspected narcotic transaction with the buyer in which money was exchanged for suspected Heroin. Affiant has seen this type activity several times in the past, and finds this type of activity to be consistent with on going narcotic activity.

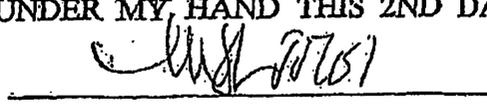

3. Based on the affiant's 17 years experience as a police officer in the City of Detroit, having been assigned to the narcotics division for 9 years, having been on the execution of over a hundred search warrant and being familiar with the narcotic trade and habits of its sellers and the above facts, wherefore the affiant having probable cause to believe that the above described items will be found on the premises by Narcotics Officer in the City of Detroit.

UNPUBLISHED

No. 314437
Wayne Circuit Court
LC No. 12-004974-FH

ON RECONSIDERATION

Before: MURRAY, P.J., and JANSEN and SHAPIRO, JJ.

PER CURIAM.

Defendant appeals as of right his conviction after a bench trial of possession of 450 to 999 grams of cocaine, MCL 333.7403(2)(a)(ii). The trial court sentenced defendant, as a fourth habitual offender, MCL 769.12, to a term of 14 years and 3 months to 30 years' imprisonment.<sup>1</sup> We affirm.

This case arises out of a search of a house and seizure of 516.65 grams of cocaine. On November 1, 2011, Detroit police surveilled a house at 5023 32nd Street during which Officer Steven Geelhood observed a black male engage in three independent hand-to-hand transactions of suspected drugs at the front door of the house. The next day, police executed a search warrant. Upon searching a second-floor kitchen area, police found a bag containing four smaller bags of cocaine and two loaded handguns. The items were inside a clothes hamper that was tucked under a kitchen table. On top of the kitchen table, police found an open letter sent from the Michigan Department of Treasury and addressed to defendant at 5023 32nd Street. Police detained defendant's mother and a man during the search. Defendant was not then present at the house, but was later arrested.

<sup>1</sup> Defendant was also charged with possession with intent to deliver 450 to 999 grams of cocaine, MCL 333.7401(2)(a)(ii), felon in possession of a firearm, MCL 750.224f, and possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony (felony-firearm), MCL 750.227b, but was acquitted of those other charges.

Defendant raises a single issue on appeal, arguing that there was insufficient evidence presented at trial to support his conviction of possessing cocaine under a constructive possession theory. When reviewing a claim of insufficient evidence, this Court reviews the record de novo. People v Meissner, 294 Mich App 438, 452; 812 NW2d 37 (2011). We review the evidence in the light most favorable to the prosecution and determine whether a rational trier of fact could find that the essential elements of the crime were proven beyond a reasonable doubt. People v Reese, 491 Mich 127, 139; 815 NW2d 85 (2012).

Possession of a controlled substance requires a showing of “dominion or right of control over the drug with knowledge of its presence and character.” People v Meshell, 265 Mich App 616, 621; 696 NW2d 754 (2005), quoting People v Nunez, 242 Mich App 610, 615; 619 NW2d 550 (2000), in turn quoting People v Maliskey, 77 Mich App 444, 453; 258 NW2d 512 (1977). Possession can be actual or constructive. People v Wolfe, 440 Mich 508, 520; 489 NW2d 748 (1992), amended 441 Mich 1201 (1992). Constructive possession exists when the totality of the circumstances indicates a sufficient nexus between the defendant and the controlled substance. Id. at 521; see also, People v Konrad, 449 Mich 263, 271; 536 NW2d 517 (1995), citing People v Germaine, 234 Mich 623, 627; 208 NW 705 (1926) (analyzing whether the defendant had sufficient dominion or control to support a conviction based on constructive possession). By itself, a defendant’s presence at a location where drugs are found is insufficient to establish possession. Wolfe, 440 Mich at 520.

Defendant contends that he was not the person police observed during the surveillance and that he did not live at 5023 32nd Street at the time of the search. But viewing the evidence in the light most favorable to the prosecution, a rational trier of fact could find beyond a reasonable doubt that defendant constructively possessed the seized cocaine. Officer Geelhood testified at trial that he was “[a]bsolutely” certain defendant was the person he saw involved in the suspected drug transactions at the front door of the house. Although defendant argues that he is the victim of mistaken identity – citing his heavier weight at the time of trial and reliance on prescription glasses – Officer Geelhood testified that he had a clear view of defendant during the surveillance. The prosecution also introduced as a trial exhibit a Secretary of State document depicting defendant as thinner and not wearing glasses. The trial court found Officer Geelhood’s testimony concerning his identification of defendant to be reliable, and those questions of credibility are left to the trier of fact to resolve. People v Harrison, 283 Mich App 374, 378; 768 NW2d 98 (2009).

Also, police found the cocaine in the second-floor living quarters, and sufficient evidence suggested defendant occupied or had control over that area. The cocaine was in a clothes hamper that held male clothing, and police seized the letter addressed to defendant from the table under which the cocaine was found. Additionally, defendant’s parole agent, Cyndi Izumi, testified that she visited defendant at 5023 32nd Street and that defendant told her he lived there. Indeed, defendant admitted that he told Izumi that he lived at the house and that he had, in fact, lived there for a time. The Secretary of State document listed defendant’s address as 5023 32nd Street, and Officer Geelhood testified that during the search, defendant’s mother directed him to a second residence where he could find defendant. Officer Geelhood went there and observed a vehicle that had been parked in front of 5023 32nd Street during the surveillance.

On this record, there was sufficient evidence to link defendant to both the house (through identification of him as the person involved in the front-door transactions and his admission that he at times lived there)<sup>2</sup> and that he had control over the area where police found the cocaine (through the evidence of the mail and clothing). Though there was no direct evidence that defendant actually possessed the drugs found inside the house (though there certainly was direct evidence of him possessing drugs at the front door), circumstantial evidence and the reasonable inferences that arise from the evidence can constitute satisfactory proof of the elements of a crime. People v Carines, 460 Mich 750, 757; 597 NW2d 130 (1999). And, all conflicts in the evidence must be resolved in favor of the prosecution. People v Kanaan, 278 Mich App 594, 619; 751 NW2d 57 (2008). The prosecution was not required to show that defendant was the only person with access to or control over the cocaine. Possession may be joint, with more than one person actually or constructively possessing a controlled substance. Konrad, 449 Mich at 271, citing Wolfe, 440 Mich at 520. Under these circumstances, there was sufficient evidence of the required nexus between defendant and the cocaine to reasonably find constructive possession beyond a reasonable doubt.<sup>3</sup>

Our dissenting colleague argues that the trial court's factual findings were not sufficient to support defendant's conviction. Defendant, however, does not argue or raise this issue in his counsel's brief nor in his own Standard 4 brief. Therefore, it is not an issue properly before us. In any event, "[a]lthough the circuit court's findings were brief, they established that it was aware of the relevant issues in the case and correctly applied the law . . . ." People v Smith, 211 Mich App 233, 235; 535 NW2d 248 (1995). See, also, MCR 6.403 and MCR 2.517(A)(2). The main issue was whether defendant could be connected to the cocaine—and the trial court made findings that (1) defendant resided at the house and (2) defendant's residence was "upstairs" (where the cocaine was located) such that he constructively possessed the cocaine. Given the evidence as outlined above, the trial court's findings—albeit brief—were sufficient enough for us to conclude that the trial court was aware of the relevant issues and made findings on those issues that were supported by the evidence.

Affirmed.

<sup>2</sup> In his Standard 4 brief, defendant argues that he received the ineffective assistance of counsel when his trial counsel did not present defendant's wife and mother as witnesses who could testify that defendant did not live at this house, and when failing to object to "liquid formed narcotics" at trial. Even assuming those acts were ineffective, defendant is not entitled to relief because in light of the facts presented to the court, he has not established prejudice. People v Corbin, 463 Mich 590, 599-600; 623 NW2d 884 (2001).

<sup>3</sup> Defendant suggests that that trial court rendered inconsistent rulings with respect to the cocaine and firearm possession charges. The requirement that a firearm be readily accessible distinguishes the firearm possession charges from the drug possession charge. See, People v Williams (After Remand), 198 Mich App 537, 541; 499 NW2d 404 (1993).

Bankruptcy Case No. 13-53846
Judge Thomas J. Tucker
Chapter 9

REPLY IN SUPPORT OF CITY OF DETROIT’S MOTION FOR THE ENTRY OF AN ORDER ENFORCING THE BAR DATE ORDER AND CONFIRMATION ORDER AGAINST DARELL CHANCELLOR

In support of the City of Detroit’s Motion for the Entry of an Order Enforcing the Bar Date Order and Confirmation Order Against Darell Chancellor (“Motion,” Doc. No. 13691) and in response to Darell Chancellor’s Response in Opposition to the City of Detroit’s Motion for the Entry of an Order Enforcing the Bar Date Order and Confirmation Order Against Darell Chancellor (“Response,” Doc. No. 13699), the City of Detroit (“City”) files this Reply. Because the Response raises only two substantive arguments, both of which this Court previously has rejected, the City’s Motion should be granted.

I. Chancellor’s Claim Arose Prepetition, Long Before His Conviction Was Vacated

Chancellor first argues that his claim against the City did not accrue until his conviction was vacated in March of 2020. Chancellor is wrong. Under the “fair contemplation” test, Chancellor’s claim arose before the City’s bankruptcy filing because, prior to the City’s filing, Chancellor “could have ascertained through the exercise of reasonable due diligence that he had a claim” against the City. In re City of Detroit, Michigan, 548 B.R. 748, 763 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 2016) (internal quotation marks and citation omitted).

Courts agree that, for bankruptcy purposes, a claim for a wrongful conviction does not accrue when the conviction is vacated. Instead, it arises when the claim first enters into the plaintiff’s fair contemplation. In one example, a court noted,

It must be said here that all Sanford’s claims against the City were within his “fair contemplation” before the City declared bankruptcy. He certainly contemplated the factual bases underlying the claims raised in the complaint, since he attempted repeatedly to argue actual innocence before the state courts since at least 2008, insisting that his confession was falsely obtained, concocted, and coerced. Sanford correctly points out that he could not have sued the City until his convictions were set aside, which did not happen until after the bankruptcy. But the courts that have considered the question uniformly have concluded that claims based on prepetition malicious prosecutions were barred, notwithstanding that the plaintiff could not file suit on his claims until his criminal conviction was overturned.

Sanford v. City of Detroit, No. 17-13062, 2018 WL 6331342, at *5 (E.D. Mich. Dec. 4, 2018); see also Monson v. City of Detroit, No. 18-10638, 2019 WL 1057306 at *8-9 (E.D. Mich. Mar. 6, 2019); Burton v. Sanders, No. 20-11948, 2021 WL 168543, at *4-6 (E.D. Mich. Jan. 1, 2021). This is usually when the underlying events occur, such as the improper arrest, but certainly is no later than the date of the trial at which the allegedly improper conviction occurs.

This issue has arisen repeatedly in the City’s bankruptcy case. Doc. Nos. 11159, 13000 (prior motions to enforce). In each instance, the Court recognized that, because the events that gave rise to the asserted claim occurred prepetition, the claimant was able to (or should have been able to) contemplate that he had potential claims against the City and, accordingly, file a proof of claim in the City’s bankruptcy case if he wished to participate in the case and recover on the claim. See Doc. Nos. 11296, 13025 (granting motions referenced above).

The instant situation is no different. Chancellor’s lawsuit is based on claims stemming from actions that culminated in a trial in 2012. Motion, ¶¶ 12-39; Response, ¶¶12-39. Chancellor proclaimed his innocence at this trial, wrote a letter to the Judge asserting his innocence and appealed his conviction prior to the City’s bankruptcy filing. Motion, ¶¶ 34, 35, & 40; Response, ¶¶ 34, 35, & 40. Thus, as in each of the prior two cases before this Court, Chancellor should have filed a proof of claim in the City’s bankruptcy case if he wanted to assert a claim against the City. He did not. Motion, ¶ 7; Response, ¶ 7. He is now barred from asserting any claim against the City or property of the City.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Chancellor asserts that any order entered on the Motion should not include the phrase “property of the City.” Response, ¶ 48. However, the Bar Date Order prohibits parties that did not file a proof of claim from asserting claims against “property of the City.” Bar Date Order, ¶ 22. Thus, the phrase “property of the City” should be included in an order entered on the Motion.

II. The City Had No Obligation to Raise Discharge as an Affirmative Defense

Chancellor also asserts that the City of Detroit had an affirmative obligation to cite “bankruptcy discharge” as an affirmative defense. Chancellor cites to Mickowski v. Visi-Trak Worldwide, LLC for this proposition. Response, ¶ 2 (citing 415 F.3d 501, 506 (6th Cir. 2005)). Notwithstanding this citation, Chancellor’s argument has been raised before in this Court and rejected.

The Mickowski decision was issued in 2005. Since then, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure have been amended; they no longer require that discharge must be raised as an affirmative defense. As the advisory committee notes explain, “[D]ischarge in bankruptcy” is deleted from the list of affirmative defenses. Under 11 U.S.C. § 524(a)(1) and (2) a discharge voids a judgment to the extent that it determines a personal liability of the debtor with respect to a discharged debt. The discharge also operates as an injunction against commencement or continuation of an action to collect, recover, or offset a discharged debt. For these reasons it is confusing to describe discharge as an affirmative defense. But § 524(a) applies only to a claim that was actually discharged. Several categories of debt set out in 11 U.S.C. § 523(a) are excepted from discharge. The issue whether a claim was excepted from discharge may be determined either in the court that entered the discharge or--in most instances--in another court with jurisdiction over the creditor's claim.

Thus, Chancellor’s reliance on Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 8(c) is misplaced.

As noted in the comment above, discharge voids a judgment that determines a debtor’s liability. Debtors have no duty to raise their discharge as a defense in any civil action thanks to Bankruptcy Code § 524. Paragraphs (1) and (2) of section 524 apply in chapter 9 bankruptcy cases. 11 U.S.C. § 901(a). Section 524(a)(2) states that a discharge “operates as an injunction against the commencement . . . of an action . . . to collect . . . any [debt discharged under section 944] . . . .” The Sixth Circuit has explained what this means.

The concern of the drafters of § 524 was that a creditor whose debt was discharged would bring suit “in a local court after the granting of the discharge, and if the debtor failed to plead the discharge affirmatively, the defense was deemed waived and an enforceable judgment could then be taken against him or her.” To avoid such abuses:

[S]ection 524(a) declares that any judgment on a discharged debt in any forum other than the bankruptcy court is null and void as it affects the personal liability of the debtor....

Accordingly, if a creditor brings a collection suit after discharge, and obtains a judgment against the debtor, the judgment is rendered null and void by section 524(a). The purpose of the provision is to make it absolutely unnecessary for the debtor to do anything at all in the collection action.

Hamilton v. Herr (In re Hamilton), 540 F.3d 367, 372-73 (6th Cir. 2008) (quoting 4 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 524.LH [1], at 524–61 (Sept.2005) (Lawrence P. King ed., 15th ed. rev.). For this reason, “a debtor need not raise his discharge in bankruptcy as an affirmative defense, because thanks to § 524(a) ‘such an affirmative defense is unnecessary and has been since 1970.” Id. at 373 (citation omitted).

In addition to section 524, the Plan includes a similar injunction, as discussed on pages 4 and 5 of the Motion. Plan, Art. III.D.5, pp. 50-51. Even if a creditor feels that a discharge injunction is erroneously entered as applied to it, it still must comply with the injunction until it seeks and obtains relief from the injunction. See, e.g., Kravis, Gass & Weber, S.C. v. Michel (In re Crivello), 134 F.3d 831, 838-39 (7th Cir. 1998) (citing United States v. United Mine Workers, 330 U.S. 258, 293 (1947)). The creditor cannot violate the injunction, then complain that the debtor failed to object to its violation of a court order. See Hamilton, 540 F.3d at 372-73.

For these reasons, when this Court was confronted by this argument last year, it properly rejected it. In re City of Detroit, Mich., 642 B.R. 807, 812–13 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 2022) (also avail. at Doc. No. 13617). Thus, Chancellor is simply incorrect when he argues in his response that that City was required to affirmatively assert “discharge” as an affirmative defense. Response, ¶ 2.

III. Conclusion

The only two substantive arguments made in the Response have been previously rejected by this Court. For this reason, the Court should GRANT the City’s Motion.

2 THE COURT CLERK: Judge Tucker presiding.

3 THE COURT: Good afternoon to everyone. This is 4 Judge Tucker on the phone.

5 Let's call our case that's scheduled for 1:30
6 p.m., please.

7 THE COURT CLERK: We'll call the matter of the 8 City of Detroit, Michigan, case number 13-53846.

9 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon again.
10 Let's begin by having entries of appearance for today's 11 hearing, first of all the attorney or attorneys for the City
12 of Detroit.

13 MR. SWANSON: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Marc 14 Swanson from Miller Canfield on behalf of the City of 15 Detroit.

16 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon to you.
17 And the attorney for the Respondent, Darell
18 Chancellor, please?

19 MR. JOHNSON: Good afternoon, Judge. Ven Johnson
20 on behalf of Mr. Chancellor.

21 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon to you.
22 And let me ask for the record, is there anyone else on the 23 phone who wants to enter an appearance in this case today?

24 (No response)

25 THE COURT: I hear nothing. So good afternoon.

1 This is the further continued hearing, continued from a week
2 ago to today, Wednesday afternoon of last week, regarding the 3 City of Detroit's motion for entry of an order enforcing the 4 bar date order and confirmation order against Darell
5 Chancellor.

6 For the record, that motion is filed at docket
7 number 13691 on the Court's docket in this case.

8 I have reviewed the motion, the response filed to 9 the motion by Mr. Chancellor, and the reply brief, or reply
10 filed by the City in support of the motion, plus the exhibits
11 that were filed with those papers.

12 So good afternoon. Let's hear from each side.
13 I'll begin with counsel for the moving party, Mr. Swanson.

14 MR. SWANSON: Thank you, Your Honor. Marc
15 Swanson, Miller Canfield, on behalf of the City.

16 Your Honor, the Plaintiff raises two arguments in 17 response to the City's motion, both of which fail.

18 The first argument is that the claim arose pre-
19 petition under the fair contemplation test. Plaintiff's
20 response in paragraphs 43 and 44 are the only two substantive
21 responses to the City's assertion that the fair contemplation
22 test applies and that the claim arose under it prepetition.

23 Plaintiff's response, however, is based on the 24 accrual test. In paragraphs 43 and 44 of the response,
25 Plaintiff argues that the accrual test applies and that the

1 Plaintiff could not have filed a claim until the conviction
2 was vacated in 2020.

3 Now, Plaintiff's argument for the accrual test,
4 and the argument that a claim did not arise until a
5 conviction was vacated, have been rejected by this Court in 6 prior opinions and by the District Court here.

7 District Court Judge Michelson in Monson, District
8 Court Judge Borman and Burton, District Court Judge Lawson
9 and Sanford, and also in the General Motors bankruptcy case,
10 which I believe was cited in the Sanford opinion.

11 In each of those cases, with very similar facts,
12 the District Court held that the claim was discharged.

13 Now, with respect to the facts in this case, all
14 of the key events occurred prior to the City's bankruptcy
15 case.

16 On November 1 of 2011, Chancellor alleges that he 17 was not there when surveillance was performed on, allegedly,
18 his mother's house.

19 He also says on that date, you know, the 20 description was way off. The person -- he weighed 180
21 pounds. The person -- or the person allegedly surveilled
22 weighed 180 pounds. He wore -- he weighed 245 pounds and had 23 glasses on.

24 November 2, 2011, is the date of the alleged false
25 affidavit.

1           May of 2012 is the date when Chancellor was
2 arrested.

3           Chancellor was tried in November of 2012. He was 4 convicted in November of 2012. He was sentenced in December
5 of 2012. He began his sentence in December of 2012.

6           And in 2013, before the City filed for bankruptcy,
7 Mr. Chancellor also filed an appeal.

8           All along the way, Chancellor was proclaiming his
9 innocence, as evidenced by court filings and deposition
10 testimony. And let's go through some of those court filings
11 and some of that evidence.

12           So when Chancellor was arrested, Chancellor stated
13 that he knew he was innocent. And how do we know that?
14 Because we can go to his deposition transcript, which was 15 attached as exhibit 6F to the City's motion.

16           He was asked during his deposition, "When you were 17 arrested, did you believe that you were innocent?"

18           His response, "I know I was innocent."

19           This is on Page 49 of the deposition transcript,
20 lines 16 through 18.

21           In that regard, during his deposition,
22 Chancellor's attorney asked him:

23           Question, "Without belaboring the point, Darell,
24 what did it feel like to go to trial and be accused of a
25 crime that you didn't commit?"

1           Answer, "I mean, it felt terrible. It feels more
2 terrible when you get found guilty of something you ain't
3 commit because it's like the justice system has failed you."

4           And that's his deposition transcript page 78,
5 lines 10 through 18.

6           During his trial, Chancellor testified and 7 proclaimed his innocence. And how do we know that? We can
8 turn to exhibit 6B, which is the trial transcript. He said
9 that the drugs were not his. He said that the guns were not 10 his. And he said it couldn't have been him because the 11 person who was identified in the affidavit was not him
12 because he was shorter and heavier. And that's page 78
13 through 84 of the trial transcript.

14           Mr. Chancellor also sent a letter to the judge who 15 was presiding over the State Court case, Judge Hathaway. In 16 that letter he said he had, quote, "Been locked up for six 17 months for something I know nothing about. The police got 18 the wrong person. The evidence and the facts will show that 19 I haven't did anything." That's exhibit 6H to the City's 20 motion, Your Honor.

21           On November 12, 2012, Chancellor was found guilty
22 of possession of cocaine. According to Chancellor, and in 23 the second amended complaint in the Federal Court action,
24 Judge Hathaway explicitly relied on Geelhood's false
25 statement that identified Chancellor as the person who was

1 seen selling drugs from the target address. Chancellor, of 2 course, denied during the trial and on appeal that Geelhood
3 had correctly identified him.

4 Chancellor was then sentenced on December 12,
5 2012, to a term of 14 years and 3 months to 30 years of
6 imprisonment.

7 Chancellor's attorney asked him what it felt like 8 to be, quote, "Wrongfully convicted." "Every single day, the 9 question, every single day you're in that prison cell, jail
10 cell, precinct cell, being accused and ultimately wrongfully
11 convicted of doing something you didn't do, Darell, every 12 day, all day. What did it feel like?"

13 Answer, "It felt terrible -- it feels terrible 14 when you know you ain't do something but you convicted for 15 it. It was."

16 And that is from Mr. Chancellor's deposition
17 transcript on page 83 and 84.

18 On January 18, 2013, Chancellor appealed his 19 conviction, and his conviction was later affirmed, and the 20 Court of Appeals rejected his argument that he was a victim
21 of a mistaken identity.

22 Your Honor, Chancellor's claim arose pre-petition
23 long before his conviction was vacated.

24 Again, Chancellor argues that his claim against 25 the City did not arise until his conviction was vacated in

1 March of 2020. That is the accrual test, Your Honor.

2 But as this Court has ruled, and the District
3 Court has uniformly ruled, the accrual test is not the test
4 to determine when a bankruptcy claim arises. The test to 5 determine when a bankruptcy claim arises is the fair
6 contemplation test.

7 Again, this exact same argument that Mr.
8 Chancellor raises has been raised repeatedly, and denied.

9 With respect to the District Court cases. I think 10 the Sanford case stated it quite well. In that case the 11 Court said, referring to Sanford, he certainly contemplated
12 the factual bases underlying the claims raised in the 13 complaint since he attempted repeatedly to argue actual 14 innocence before the State Courts since at least 2008
15 insisting that his confession was falsely obtained,
16 concocted, and coerced.

17 Sanford correctly points out that he could not
18 have sued the City until his convictions were set aside,
19 which did not happen until after the bankruptcy.

20 But the courts that have considered the question
21 uniformly have concluded that claims based on pre-petition,
22 malicious prosecutions, were barred, notwithstanding that the 23 plaintiff could not file suit on his claims until his 24 criminal conviction was overturned.

25 The Court in Monson and Burton and this Court have

1 all had very similar rulings and findings, and there are no
2 facts in this case which could cause the Court to come to a
3 different conclusion.

4 In short, Your Honor, under the fair contemplation
5 test, Chancellor's claim arose before the City's bankruptcy
6 filing, because prior to the City's filing Chancellor could
7 have ascertained through the exercise of reasonable due
8 diligence that he had a claim against the City.

9 Your Honor, the second argument that was raised by 10 Mr. Chancellor in his response to the City's motion was 11 regarding raising discharge as an affirmative defense.

12 Now, Chancellor cited a Sixth Circuit case,
13 Makowski, for the proposition that the City had an 14 affirmative obligation to cite bankruptcy discharge as an 15 affirmative defense.

16 And Chancellor is wrong on a few levels here.

17 First, that decision was issued in 2005, and since
18 then, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure have been amended 19 and they no longer require that discharge be raised as an
20 affirmative defense.

21 The City cited and quoted the Advisory Committee
22 notes which explain quite clearly why discharge and 23 bankruptcy was deleted from the list of affirmative defenses
24 and why discharge and bankruptcy does not need to be raised
25 as an affirmative defense.

1           If that weren't enough, Your Honor, this Court has 2 had the chance to consider a similar argument in a previous
3 case.

4           And this court, citing to another Sixth Circuit
5 case, decided later, Hamilton v. Hertz, 540 F. 3d 367. And 6 this Court said, quote, "Even if the City had delayed raising
7 the bankruptcy discharge until after suffering an adverse
8 judgment on the Respondent's claims in the District Court
9 case, the City could not be deprived of the benefit of the 10 bankruptcy discharge. Any such adverse judgment would be 11 deemed void ab initio under binding case law in the Sixth
12 Circuit."

13           And, again, I don't think we need to go any 14 further than that to see that the Plaintiff's argument that 15 the City had to raise bankruptcy discharge as an affirmative
16 defense fails, Your Honor.

17           In short, Your Honor, there were two arguments
18 raised by the Plaintiff here, both of which have been 19 rejected repeatedly.

20           No court that I'm aware of has applied the accrual
21 test to these facts and I think many courts have commented
22 that the accrual test has been uniformly rejected.

23           And the second argument that the Plaintiff makes 24 is based on a Sixth Circuit case that is no longer applicable
25 because the rule cited by that case has been revised.

1           And this Court has also had the opportunity to
2 consider a similar argument, and based on the Sixth Circuit
3 case, Hamilton, how that the City had no obligation to raise
4 discharge as an affirmative defense.

5           And thus, both of these arguments fail and the 6 City would respectfully request that the Court enter an order
7 granting its motion.

8           THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Swanson.
9           Mr. Johnson, I'll hear from you now, please.

10           MR. JOHNSON: Thank you, Judge. Good afternoon.
11 We'll say that never did I think I would be arguing a motion
12 in Bankruptcy Court, so I appreciate the Court's indulgence.

13           When I hear the City argue about fair
14 contemplation tests it sounds so, under these circumstances, 15 so unfair under the facts and circumstances that existed for 16 Darell Chancellor.

17           It's "Darell," to correct the record. Darell
18 Chancellor.

19           As the Court knows, my client's conviction was 20 vacated on March 24, 2020. And I understand about what 21 accrual test means.

22           And for the record, and I know the Court knows
23 this probably, and that is for his lawsuit Darell Chancellor
24 had no lawsuit, had no claim, had no recognizable injury,
25 until his conviction was vacated; hence wrongful conviction.

1           How it works, and what would be inherently unfair
2 and unjust, would be for someone to argue, or to be
3 successful in arguing, that although my client did not have a
4 valid cause of action, and while he is falsely in prison
5 serving a wrongful sentence, like he was from December of 6 2012 through even the petition date, Judge, of July 18, 2013.

7           So, in other words, for those eight months, if we
8 were to use those dates, that somehow after his wrongful 9 conviction he was suppose to know, while he's serving in 10 state prison, that it was somehow fair that he should have 11 contemplated to watch the City of Detroit's bankruptcy
12 proceedings to know that no one, no layperson would ever
13 know, let alone a convicted -- a wrongfully convicted person
14 in state penitentiary, would ever know that he had to file a 15 claim under the bankruptcy even though he hadn't been -- his 16 conviction hadn't been acquitted -- or hadn't been entered 17 yet.

18           So when I hear the term "fair contemplation test," 19 trying to attach that issue to this set of cases, is 20 absolutely, from my perspective, legally laughable.

21           I can read these other opinions. I cannot believe
22 -- and I read it, so I know it happened, what the other
23 courts have said. I can't -- I wasn't there and I didn't 24 argue it, and I'm really sad to see what they said, but that 25 is not, in and of itself, binding on this Court, as I

1 understand it.

2           And so how was it that Mr. Chancellor, wrongfully
3 serving a -- at that time for eight months a prison term on 4 something that ultimately he was found acquitted of years
5 later, yet he was supposed to know bankruptcy law. He was 6 supposed to get notice of the City of Detroit's bankruptcy
7 itself. It's not like the City sent it to him or that 8 anybody in prison would ever know that.

9           So there is no fair contemplation test that passed
10 here, Judge. It's not fair for this -- for the City to argue 11 that his claim is barred before he had a claim, before he 12 even would know of a bankruptcy, because he's removed from 13 society. There's no showing by the City that he should have 14 known about this, because there can be none.

15           And when we talk about fairness, then we can talk
16 about affirmative defenses. And affirmative defenses, the 17 way that they've always been interpreted as a 9 or 10-year
18 former defense lawyer, they're legal defenses that should be 19 raised immediately so that we can have these discussions and 20 these fights, if you will, beforehand.

21           And then in the event that there's need for 22 factual development, then we could -- we could have that 23 during discovery. And in this particular case there is no
24 other argument that a bankruptcy is a legal defense.

25           In a weird way, what I believe, going back to fair

1 contemplation test, Judge, of my client, notice that my
2 client's lawyers, me and my firm, who do civil rights
3 litigation, not just in Michigan, but across the country, we
4 never filed a motion or any claim with the City of Detroit
5 because we never, ever expected that such an argument would 6 be made that something that happened, a petition while my 7 client was in prison, wrongfully, seven years before he was 8 -- his conviction was vacated, that we should do something on 9 his behalf, because we never believed, nor should we, in my 10 opinion, had believed that this claim was ever barred.

11           So to hold that my client had -- should have 12 fairly contemplated such a thing when his pretty
13 sophisticated lawyers didn't contemplate it, because no way
14 would we think it could apply, is, again, I believe,
15 something that the City fails to show as a matter of law.

16           And so we'd ask the Court under these 17 circumstances, and not identical to other cases that I'm 18 aware of, but obviously the City will say that they're 19 similar, that's their opinion, but under these circumstances, 20 Judge, we believe that as a matter of law to hold Mr.
21 Chancellor that he fairly could contemplate the City's 22 bankruptcy when he was pursuing his appeal -- which is what,
23 by the way, his lawyer did, and I might add again on his 24 behalf, lawyers involved in filing an appeal from SADO, just 25 so the, so the Court knows, no one ever advised Mr.

1 Chancellor, nor should they have for that matter, that he
2 should have filed a claim with the -- for the City's
3 bankruptcy, if you will, with the Bankruptcy Court, while
4 they're fighting an appeal.

5           And then there was another appeal even after that,
6 I might add. And there was also a District Court action, a
7 habeas corpus.

8           So you had multiple layers of lawyers involved, no
9 one ever told him that, but somehow he's supposed to have 10 figured out on his own while he is wrongfully serving prison
11 time back in late 2012 and 2013.

12           So we ask the Court to please deny this motion.

13 Thanks, Judge.

14           THE COURT: Mr. Johnson, a question. You may have 15 -- and I may understand this incorrectly, but I thought I
16 heard you in your argument just now to suggest, among many 17 other things, that Mr. Chancellor being in prison at the time
18 the City filed its bankruptcy case in July of 2013, and in 19 jail thereafter for some time, that he wouldn't have known of 20 the City's bankruptcy.

21           If that -- if you're making that argument or that 22 claim now, that's the very first time Mr. Chancellor has made
23 that argument to this Court.

24           There's nothing at all about that in the written
25 response filed to the City's motion here. Nothing. No

1 argument about that at all, no assertion of that at all. Are
2 you saying -- are you trying to argue that now?

3 MR. JOHNSON: Well, absolutely, Judge. The City
4 has failed, as the moving party, has to obviously prove that 5 he did have notice. And they've shown nothing of what notice
6 would have been made knowable to Mr. Chancellor, and that 7 would be a crucial element of the fair contemplation test.

8 What has the City shown this Court to rule as a
9 matter of law that my client knew or should have known about 10 the City's petition and the bar date of 7/18/13? They've 11 done nothing. They're simply arguing that. So their 12 argument is, in essence, no different than mine.

13 THE COURT: All right. So I should -- you think I
14 should accept that as one of your arguments and consider the 15 merits of it even though it's being raised for the first time
16 in this oral argument and wasn't raised in the written 17 response?

18 MR. JOHNSON: Judge, we argued in our written
19 response that, if you will, that there's no way that Mr.
20 Chancellor knew about this or could know about this.

21 So I don't think -- maybe it wasn't stated exactly
22 how I just stated it, but I think the argument is the same.
23 So I don't believe it's being raised, if you will, for the 24 first time.

25 But again, that's the City's burden, Judge, when

1 they're moving as a matter of law on this.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Johnson, where in your written
3 response did you argue anywhere that there's no way that Mr.
4 Chancellor knew or could have known of the bankruptcy? I
5 didn't see that in there anywhere. Maybe I'm missing it.
6 Where is it?

7 MR. JOHNSON: Well, I guess first and foremost,
8 Judge, how would somebody in prison ever know about
9 bankruptcy proceedings anywhere as a matter of common sense,
10 first and foremost?

11 THE COURT: Mr. Johnson, excuse me.

12 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: Excuse me. That's not my question.
14 Answer my question. Where is it in your written paper?
15 Anywhere?

16 MR. JOHNSON: Well, on page 14, Judge, I'm looking 17 at paragraph 47 of my brief.

18 THE COURT: Hold on.

19 MR. JOHNSON: Even if Chancellor could -- I'm 20 sorry.

21 THE COURT: Hold on a minute.

22 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: Your response is filed, just for the 24 record, as docket 13699. Where are you pointing to in there
25 now?

1 MR. JOHNSON: On page 14, Judge, in paragraph 47.

2 THE COURT: Wait a minute. Page 14? There's no
3 Page 14.

4 MR. JOHNSON: Sorry, Judge. I apologize to the 5 Court. I was looking at the wrong thing. I apologize to the 6 Court.

7 THE COURT: So what's the answer? Is it in there
8 somewhere, or not?

9 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I'm looking for it. As 10 I said to the Court, I don't think it was stated exactly how 11 I said it. But I'm reviewing it right now, Judge. I
12 apologize to the Court.

13 THE COURT: That's fine. Take your time.

14 MR. JOHNSON: Thank you, sir.

15 (Brief pause)

16 MR. JOHNSON: Let me double check that I have the 17 right thing now, Judge. Yes, Your Honor. In page 6, please,
18 under Roman numeral III argument.

19 THE COURT: I see page 6. Go ahead.

20 MR. JOHNSON: Thank you, Judge. 43, of course
21 these allegations are denied and Plaintiff's claim did not
22 accrue until his conviction was vacated on March 24, 2020;
23 44, it is undisputed -- it is disputed that under the fair
24 contemplation test Mr. Chancellor could have ascertained
25 through the exercise of reasonable due diligence that he had

1 a claim against the City. His claim did not accrue until it
2 was found that Officer Geelhood had committed fraud obtaining
3 the search warrant.

4 So what I said to this Court was exactly, fair --
5 under the fair contemplation test it is not fair, nor
6 established, that he could have ascertained through exercise
7 of reasonable due diligence that he had a claim against the 8 City.

9 And as the City told the Court in its argument,
10 they knew that Mr. -- as it pertains to this proceeding, they 11 knew that my client, Mr. Chancellor, was in prison starting
12 in December of '12 is what counsel told the Court, December 13 of 2012, which, of course, is about seven months before the 14 petition.

15 So I believe, yes, Judge, that we did present this 16 argument exactly in that fashion.

17 And I'm looking on Page 7 --

18 THE COURT: I don't -- I'm sorry. I'm sorry, I
19 don't see how paragraph 43 or 44 contains an argument or 20 asserts that Mr. Chancellor did not know of the City's 21 bankruptcy case.

22 MR. JOHNSON: Page 7, if I could, Judge, please,
23 in paragraph 45.

24 THE COURT: Well, all right. So now we're moving
25 to paragraph 45. Go ahead.

1 MR. JOHNSON: It is denied that the plan's
2 discharge provision applies to Mr. Chancellor as he did not
3 have a responsibility to file a proof of claim, as he did
4 not, under the fair contemplation test, have a reason to file
5 such a claim.

6 THE COURT: Yes.

7 MR. JOHNSON: So we were specifically arguing
8 about the fair contemplation test at the time when the 9 petition date was filed, 7/18/13, Judge.

10 THE COURT: Well, I think at least it's arguable,
11 anyway, that the fair contemplation test concerns whether in 12 this case Mr. Chancellor could have ascertained through the 13 exercise of reasonable diligence, due diligence, that he had 14 a claim against the City of Detroit having to do with this 15 wrongful conviction that he's been -- that he's alleged, not 16 whether he could have exercised, through reasonable due 17 diligence or otherwise, he could have ascertained that the 18 City had filed bankruptcy. That's a -- that's really a 19 different issue, isn't it?

20 MR. JOHNSON: I see it, Your Honor, as in an 21 exercise of due diligence did Mr. -- or should Mr. Chancellor 22 have known that he had a claim? He did not have a claim at 23 that time.

24 His claim that he had never materialized until 25 3/24/20, when his conviction was vacated. So he had no

1 claim. There was no claim to assert yet, and that's why the 2 accrual test is important under the facts and the 3 circumstances of this analysis.

4           It does matter because it absolutely, definitively
5 goes to what a normal person, or in this case, forgive me, a
6 reasonable person, with a good caveat again of this person
7 being in a federal penitentiary, wrongfully, should know
8 relative to what claim was he supposed to have filed when he 9 didn't have a claim, yet.

10           So in other words, he's supposed to file a 11 bankruptcy claim while he's in federal -- or state prison, in 12 July or so of 2013, even though he does not have a valid
13 cause of action, nor does he know that he's going to get one,
14 because many people obviously believe, and I guess I think
15 the evidence shows that many people are innocent yet
16 convicted, and yet, under this area of law he has nothing, no
17 claim until he gets it vacated, which is a huge process, as 18 the Court probably knows.

19           But he ultimately is -- his claim does accrue on 20 3/24/20, yet again, seven years before that, he's supposed to 21 know to file a bankruptcy.

22           I think that that flies in the face of truth and 23 logic. Most lay people don't know this, let alone somebody
24 who's now in a prison sentence for serving something for a
25 crime they didn't commit, that they're now supposed to figure

1 that out on their own.

2 THE COURT: All right. I think, you know, you're 3 going over ground you've already tread, and we got onto this
4 discussion when I was asking about an apparent argument
5 you're making today for the first time, I think, that Mr.
6 Chancellor did not have notice or knowledge of the City's
7 bankruptcy case.

8 Is there anything more you want to say about that 9 specific issue?

10 MR. JOHNSON: No, Judge. Thank you.

11 THE COURT: All right. Well, thank you, Mr.
12 Johnson.

13 Mr. Swanson, as I normally do, I'll give you a 14 brief opportunity as the moving party here to reply in 15 support of the motion, if you want.

16 MR. SWANSON: Thank you, Your Honor. Marc Swanson
17 on behalf of the City.

18 There was no argument about notice in the 19 Plaintiff's response. If Chancellor wanted to make an 20 argument about notice, you would think that at least once in 21 the response he would have used the word "notice," and notice
22 is not used at all in the response.

23 You know, similar arguments were made in Burton
24 and Monson, and in each of those cases the Court found that 25 plaintiff was an unknown creditor and the constructive notice

1 that was provided during the City's bankruptcy case with
2 respect to the bar date order, the plan, and the confirmation
3 order, which this Court has found time and time again to have 4 been valid, to constitute adequate notice.

5           With respect to fair contemplation. Mr. Johnson
6 said, you know, there was no lawsuit, there was no claim.
7 And I can agree, perhaps, that there wasn't a lawsuit until 8 2020, but there certainly was a claim. There was a
9 contingent claim.

10           One of the orders that we cited in our papers was 11 this Court's order in the Desmond Ricks matter, which the 12 Court held an oral argument on in 2019.

13           And during that oral argument a very similar 14 argument was asserted by the plaintiff's counsel and the 15 Court correctly said that that it was a contingent claim,
16 that even if under applicable state or federal law a claim
17 did not accrue until a conviction was vacated. For 18 bankruptcy purposes that's not the test.

19           The test is when the claim was fairly 20 contemplated, and it was fairly contemplated far before, and 21 at that point the plaintiff had a contingent claim, and that 22 should be what the Court finds here.

23           With respect to Plaintiff's argument on 24 affirmative defenses. Plaintiff raised nothing new.
25 Plaintiff didn't distinguish this Court's prior opinion,

1 didn't distinguish the Sixth Circuit's opinion in Hamilton,
2 and didn't attempt to rescue the citation to a old Sixth
3 Circuit case which cited a prior version of a rule which is 4 no longer applicable.

5           For those reasons, Your Honor, the City would 6 respectfully request that the Court enter an order granting 7 its motion.

8           THE COURT: All right. Thank you. One moment,
9 please.

10           (Pause)

11           THE COURT: All right. Thank you, both. I'm 12 going to do what I hope is a fairly brief and concise oral
13 ruling now on this motion. One moment.

14           (Pause)

15           THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

16           The motion has been argued both in writing and 17 orally in today's hearing, the motion by the City of Detroit, 18 for entry of an order enforcing the bar date order and 19 confirmation order against Darell Chancellor, or Darell
20 Chancellor, I think it might be pronounced.

21           For the record, again, that motion is docket
22 number 13691.

23           The respondent, Mr. Chancellor, through counsel,
24 filed a response to the motion, written response. The 25 response was filed at docket number 13699 on the Court's

1 docket.

2           The Court has reviewed that response, the exhibits
3 that were filed with it, as well as the exhibits filed with 4 the City's papers, as well as the City's reply brief at 5 docket 13714, and I have considered the arguments in today's 6 -- made in today's hearing.

7           The first thing I'll cover and I'll say is that
8 this Court, the Bankruptcy Court here, has subject matter
9 jurisdiction over this matter, and this matter is a core
10 proceeding in which this Court has authority and jurisdiction
11 to make a final decision on the motion.

12           The authority for that I won't go into great 13 detail about. What I'll do is cite and incorporate by 14 reference what I said in a couple of prior opinions in this 15 case about the subject of jurisdiction, core proceedings, and 16 those subjects, and also about the -- in these opinions about 17 the fact that this Court, in the plan of adjustment that was 18 confirmed by the Court, this Court retained jurisdiction to 19 rule on the very types of motions and disputes that's before 20 me with this motion and if necessary to enter injunctions to 21 further enforcing the confirmed plan of adjustment and other
22 orders of the Court in this case.

23           The earlier opinions of mine that cover this are,
24 first of all, the case of In re City of Detroit, Michigan,
25 548 Bankruptcy Reporter 748, a decision of mine from 2016

1 that's published, and that -- in particular, pages 753 and
2 754 of that opinion.

3           Again, I incorporate that discussion in the 4 section called Roman numeral II, Jurisdiction, in that
5 opinion by reference here and adopted and applied it in this 6 case, as well.

7           A second opinion on this subject is the decision
8 the Court made just a couple weeks ago, on September 18,
9 2023. That's the case -- again it's In re City of Detroit,
10 Michigan. It's not yet published in the Bankruptcy Reporter
11 as far as I know, but it is published. It's reported at 2023
12 WestLaw 6131465. It's also an opinion that is filed in this 13 bankruptcy case. It's at docket number 13738. Again, it's 14 September 18 of 2023.

15           The WestLaw citation for the jurisdictional
16 provisions is star pages 6 to 7. The citation of the version
17 that's published, or that's filed on the Court's docket at 18 13738, is .pdf pages 13 to 14 of that opinion.

19           Again, I incorporate by reference what the Court
20 said there about subject matter jurisdiction, core
21 proceedings, the Court's authority to make a final
22 determination in this kind of matter.

23           Moving to the merits now of this dispute.

24           First of all, I do find and conclude that the --
25 from the undisputed facts that the claims alleged against the

1 City of Detroit and against Officer Steven Geelhood in his
2 representative capacity, in the cases that are now pending in 3 the U.S. District Court for this District, those cases, the 4 two cases are the ones cited in the City's motion at page 5,
5 paragraphs 12 and 13, copies of complaints from those cases
6 are Exhibit 6B and 6C of the City's motion.

7           Those claims alleged against the City and against 8 Officer Geelhood in his representative capacity in those 9 cases were, in fact, discharged by the discharge in the 10 City's confirmed plan of adjustment, and Mr. Chancellor is,
11 in fact, barred and enjoined from filing and prosecuting
12 those claims.

13           That is distinct from the claims, any claims
14 alleged against Officer Geelhood in his -- solely in his 15 individual capacity. Those were not -- they were not 16 discharged and are not enjoined. So there is that 17 distinction, and that's a distinction that was raised in the 18 written response filed by Mr. Chancellor.

19           These claims against the City and Mr. Geelhood in 20 his representative capacity all arose before the bankruptcy
21 petition was filed in this Chapter 9 case on July 18, 2013,
22 and, therefore, were discharged.

23           First of all, the fair contemplation test that the 24 parties have argued about does indeed apply, as opposed to 25 the so-called accrual test. I have already ruled that way in

1 prior opinions, and I reiterate that ruling now that the fair
2 contemplation test is the appropriate test to determine
3 whether a claim arose before or after the filing of a
4 bankruptcy petition.

5 A couple of places where I have ruled that way is,
6 first of all, in the City of Detroit case that I cited
7 earlier. The one that's 548 Bankruptcy Reporter 748, at page
8 763 of the Court's opinion.

9 In that case I ruled that the fair contemplation
10 test is the appropriate test to apply, and I discussed what 11 that test meant, and I incorporate that discussion and the 12 authority cited in that opinion by reference.

13 And the Court has applied that test in other -- in 14 deciding other motions in this bankruptcy case. But that's 15 really the leading case, by me at least, on that subject.

16 The fair contemplation test raises -- sets the 17 standard as being that a claim is considered to have arisen
18 pre-petition if the creditor could have ascertained through 19 the exercise of reasonable due diligence that it had a claim
20 at the time the bankruptcy petition is filed.

21 In my view, the answer here is clearly that, yes,
22 indeed, Mr. Chancellor could have, with the exercise of 23 reasonable diligence, ascertained that he had a claim against 24 the City of Detroit and against Mr. Geelhood in at least in 25 his representative capacity, before the City filed its

1 bankruptcy petition on July 18, 2013.

2           That's based upon the facts and events that
3 occurred that contribute to give rise to Mr. Chancellor's
4 claims.

5           The events that occurred in November 2011, May 6 2012, November 2012, including the conviction in the state
7 court, criminal conviction of Mr. Chancellor that occurred on 8 November 12 of 2012 for which he was sentenced to prison on 9 December 12 of 2012 and promptly thereafter did go to prison.

10           These events are described in detail, and I think 11 accurately so, in the City's motion. Again, docket 13691 at 12 paragraphs 20 to 38 of the motion.

13           Given those facts and events, all of which 14 occurred well before the City filed its bankruptcy petition
15 in July of 2013, it's clear to me that under the fair
16 contemplation test Mr. Chancellor could have ascertained
17 through the exercise of reasonable due diligence that he had 18 a claim against the City and against Mr. Geelhood in his 19 representative capacity before the petition was filed in this
20 bankruptcy case.

21           This test and this issue, that is whether the 22 claim arose pre-petition or not, is a distinct test and a
23 distinct issue from the question of whether or not a claimant
24 like Mr. Chancellor knew, or should have known, about the 25 City having filed bankruptcy, which is a different issue, and

1 I'm going to talk about that in a little bit.

2           This test -- this issue focuses on not that issue
3 but whether, rather, on whether the claimant, like Mr.
4 Chancellor here, could have ascertained with the --
5 reasonably ascertained or ascertained through the exercise of 6 reasonable due diligence that he had a claim at the time the 7 petition was filed.

8           The answer to that here is, yes, it's clear that 9 Mr. Chancellor knew of and believed to be true all the facts
10 that are recited in the City's motion that occurred before
11 the petition date.

12           He certainly knew, or thought he knew, and he 13 believed, that he was the victim of a wrongful conviction,
14 that he was the victim of a conviction that was obtained
15 through what he viewed at the time as false testimony by 16 Officer Geelhood, both in an affidavit that gave rise to --
17 that was used to get a search warrant at Mr. Chancellor's 18 mother's house in November of 2012, all the way through the 19 trial testimony of Officer Geelhood, that Mr. Chancellor
20 viewed as false.

21           He not only knew that and thought these things at 22 the time, but he also argued these things vociferously to the 23 courts, the state trial court, the State Court of Appeals, on 24 the appeal that he filed shortly after he filed his 25 conviction, and before -- and that appeal was filed before

1 the bankruptcy case was filed, as well.

2           The claims arose pre-petition here under the fair
3 contemplation test even though Mr. Chancellor's 2012
4 conviction, criminal conviction, was not vacated until March
5 24, 2020, and which, of course, was the date that was well
6 after the filing of the City's bankruptcy case in 2013.

7           Mr. Chancellor argues that his claims at issue did
8 not arise until his conviction was vacated in March of 2020
9 because his claims or cause of action under applicable law
10 did not accrue until that conviction was vacated in March of 11 2020.

12           This is, in effect, an argument seeking to --
13 asking the Court to apply the so-called right to payment or 14 accrual test for determining when a bankruptcy claim arose.

15           That accrual test is discussed by this Court in 16 its decision -- or opinion that I just cited a moment ago
17 about the fair contemplation test, 548 Bankruptcy Reporter,
18 at page 762.

19           And as the Court notes there, I think accurately
20 so, and it's still accurate, that test has been widely 21 rejected by the courts as not an appropriate test for -- not 22 the appropriate test for determining when a claim arises,
23 whether it arises before or after the bankruptcy.

24           As the City, I think, has correctly argued, as of 25 the bankruptcy petition date in this case, July 18, 2013, Mr.

1 Chancellor had a claim as that claim -- the term claim is
2 defined under the Bankruptcy Code, it's Section 101 of the 3 Bankruptcy Code, even though the claim at that time was 4 contingent, or unmatured, or both, because the claim could
5 not be pursued until the conviction was vacated later.

6 Contingent claims, unmatured claims, are expressly
7 part of what is a claim within the meaning of the Bankruptcy
8 Code for purposes of determining whether a claim arose pre-
9 petition or post-petition.

10 And the cases in which I've discussed that include
11 the case I cited a moment ago, 548 Bankruptcy Reporter, this 12 time at page 761, and also at page 762 of that opinion.

13 So even though the claim was -- excuse me. Even 14 though the claim was contingent and unmatured as of the 15 bankruptcy petition date, there still was a claim, and it
16 arose pre-petition under the appropriate test, which is the 17 fair contemplation test.

18 There are, as the City points out, a number of 19 similar cases that have applied the fair contemplation test
20 to find in cases and situations very similar to this one that 21 the claimant's claim arose before the filing of the 22 bankruptcy case and, therefore, it was barred and discharged.

23 Perhaps the closest case in terms of facts and the 24 discussion by the Court is the Sanford case cited by the 25 City, a decision of the District Court from this District

1 from 2018. That's Sanford v. City of Detroit, 2018 WestLaw
2 6331342, a decision from December 4, 2018, by the U.S.
3 District Court, Judge Lawson. It's star page 5 in the 4 WestLaw version of that opinion.

5 The Court discusses this subject, and I think the 6 discussion is applicable equally in this case, and fully
7 supports the Court's ruling now in this case.

8 I do want to talk about this notice issue that was 9 raised for the first time in today's hearing, in my view.

10 There seemed to be an argument or suggestion by 11 counsel for Mr. Chancellor in today's hearing that Mr.
12 Chancellor, who was in state prison, incarcerated in state
13 prison, when the City filed its bankruptcy case, may not have 14 had notice or knowledge of the City's bankruptcy case in time
15 to file a proof of claim, in time to pursue the claim through 16 the bankruptcy process, and at least certainly not as of the 17 bankruptcy petition date, July of 2013.

18 That argument, first of all, is an argument that's 19 made for the very first time in oral argument in the hearing
20 today by Mr. Chancellor. There's no hint of such an 21 argument, in my view, in the written response filed by Mr.
22 Chancellor to the motion.

23 That argument, in my view, then, has been 24 forfeited by Mr. Chancellor.

25 But even if not forfeited, in my view the argument

1 is without merit because of the unknown creditor concept.

2 Now, the City didn't brief this. They have argued
3 it in the hearing today in response to the new argument about 4 notice of the bankruptcy, but this concept and this -- the 5 concept of the unknown creditor is one that's out there in 6 the case law and it's in one of the reported published
7 opinions of this court in this very case. It was published a
8 little more than a year ago now and that is -- one moment.
9 That's the -- that's the case of In re City of Detroit,
10 Michigan, 642 Bankruptcy Reporter 807, a decision of this
11 Court from August 26, 2022.

12 In that case the Court talked about the unknown
13 creditor concept, beginning at page 810, 642 Bankruptcy
14 Reporter at 810.

15 There, the Court held, as numerous other courts
16 have held, that a creditor in a bankruptcy case that was an 17 unknown creditor, as the concept is defined by the case law, 18 at the time of the bankruptcy filing, is a creditor for which 19 the debtor has no duty to serve notice specifically, of the 20 bankruptcy specifically, upon.

21 But rather, one for whom notice of the bankruptcy
22 case by publication only is sufficient to put the creditor on 23 notice of the bankruptcy case for purposes of due process and 24 other concerns under the law.

25 At pages 810 to 811, at 642 Bankruptcy Reporter, I

1 talk about this concept and applied it in that case. It
2 applies equally here.

3           The concept of an unknown creditor is, one, a
4 creditor in which the claim against the City was readily
5 ascertainable by the City during the relevant time. That is,
6 during the time period as of the filing and thereafter in the
7 bankruptcy case.

8           And by readily ascertainable the case law requires
9 there whether the respondent, the creditor, communicated any 10 demand for payment or otherwise communicated to the City
11 before the bankruptcy was filed, the existence of a claim
12 against the City.

13           If not, then the creditor is deemed an unknown
14 creditor unless -- well, is deemed an unknown creditor and 15 the City may provide sufficient notice of the bankruptcy
16 filing for due process purposes and otherwise by publication.

17           This case of Mr. Chancellor's is a case of an 18 unknown creditor, and that at the time of the City's 19 bankruptcy filing, and at least until 2020 when Mr.
20 Chancellor's conviction was vacated that he filed, first 21 filed suit against the City for wrongful conviction related
22 claims.

23           Until then, he was not a known creditor to the 24 City. His claim, or claims, or existence of claims, were not
25 readily ascertainable by the City during that relevant time

1 period, and that is because there's simply no evidence or 2 argument made in the papers, or even today in the hearing by 3 Mr. Chancellor's counsel that Mr. Chancellor did anything to 4 communicate to the City that he believed he had a claim for a
5 wrongful conviction or wrongful conviction related claim
6 against the City at the time of the bankruptcy filing or any 7 time thereafter until 2020.

8           And so, being an unknown creditor he must be 9 deemed to have been given adequate notice of the City's 10 bankruptcy case by publication.

11           The Court noted in its decision in the earlier
12 case, 640 Bankruptcy -- 642 Bankruptcy Reporter, at 810, 811,
13 the fact the City did provide notice of its bankruptcy case
14 by publication properly.

15           And, of course, the City of Detroit filing
16 bankruptcy was no secret to anyone. It was very widely known
17 throughout the Detroit area, throughout Michigan, throughout 18 the United States, and beyond, at the time. It was the 19 largest municipal bankruptcy ever filed, I think still is,
20 the largest municipal bankruptcy ever filed in this country
21 and received enormous publicity.

22           And so given all of that -- and I should also 23 note, in the absence of any evidence provided by Mr.
24 Chancellor which he alleges or asserts that he didn't know of 25 the City's bankruptcy filing when it occurred, the argument

1 about notice, as I perceive it to have been made today, even
2 if not forfeited, is without merit and I must reject it for
3 the reasons that I have just stated.

4           So given that Mr. Chancellor's claims arose pre-
5 petition under the fair contemplation test, the claims
6 against the City and against Officer Geelhood in his
7 representative capacity were filed -- arose pre-petition
8 here. Those claims were discharged under the City's 9 confirmed plan of adjustment, both under the terms of the 10 plan and the order confirming that plan, that confirmed the 11 plan in November of 2013 -- I'm sorry, no, November 2014.

12           And those provisions are cited and quoted in 13 detail in a prior opinion of this court in the opinion I've 14 just been citing, the 642 Bankruptcy Reporter 807 opinion, in 15 particular at page 812. So I incorporate that reference --
16 that by reference.

17           The claims of Mr. Chancellor against the City and 18 Officer Geelhood in his representative capacity are barred 19 and enjoined under the bar date order that the City has 20 cited, the City's plan, and the order confirming plan. All
21 of that is confirmed by what I wrote at 642 Bankruptcy
22 Reporter, at page 812, among other places in the published
23 opinions of mine, citing those particular provisions in the 24 bar date order of the plan and the order confirming plan.

25           And so the claims are discharged and Mr.

1 Chancellor is barred and enjoined already from pursuing them.

2 I will address briefly the argument of Mr.
3 Chancellor arguing that the City did not assert its 4 bankruptcy discharge as an affirmative defense in either of 5 the cases that are now pending in U.S. District Court, and I
6 presume also an argument that the City unreasonably delayed
7 in raising the issue of the bankruptcy discharge and 8 injunctions in the filing of this motion, and compared to the 9 timing and the time that the U.S. District Court cases have 10 been pending.

11 The City is correct, in my view, in everything
12 that it says and argues in its reply brief at docket 13714,
13 at pages 4 to 6, .pdf pages 4 to 6, of that -- of that brief
14 in responding to and refuting these arguments.

15 This Court held in the 642 Bankruptcy Reporter
16 case, at pages 812 to 813, citing the Sixth Circuit's
17 decision of Hamilton v. Hertz, that a bankruptcy debtor, like 18 the City of Detroit, has no duty to raise any sort of 19 affirmative defense or defense, or to do anything, in 20 response to claims being brought against it in a non-
21 bankruptcy court that have been discharged.

22 Any such action and any judgment, adverse judgment
23 suffered on such claims is void ab initio under the case law
24 and because of the bankruptcy discharge.

25 And so, it is simply not a valid argument to argue

1 anything like that the City's motion here is barred in any
2 way by the City's failure to plead as an affirmative defense
3 or otherwise raise, timely or otherwise, in the pending U.S.
4 District Court cases the discharge and bar date order and
5 injunction provisions that it's argued in this motion in this
6 Court.

7           And the City is also right that the 2010
8 amendments to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(c)(1) did 9 eliminate from the list of affirmative defenses that had to 10 be pled in federal court actions generally the discharge, a 11 bankruptcy discharge. That's no longer in the rule as an 12 affirmative defense that must be pled for the reasons that 13 I've discussed.

14           And so the Court is bound to reject those 15 arguments by Mr. Chancellor.

16           This Court, this Bankruptcy Court, does have 17 jurisdiction and authority to specifically enjoin Mr.
18 Chancellor's continued prosecution of the claims against the 19 City and the claim against Officer Geelhood in his 20 representative capacity.

21           The Court's opinion from September 18 that I cited
22 -- this year that I cited earlier points that out. It cites
23 chapter and verse in the City's plan of adjustment, confirmed
24 plan of adjustment documents. The plan and the order
25 confirming plan.

AND APPROVING FORM AND MANNER OF NOTICE THEREOF

The City of Detroit ("Detroit" or the "City") hereby moves the Court, pursuant to sections 105, 501 and 503 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), and Rules 2002 and 3003(c) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules") for the entry of an order<sup>1</sup> establishing bar dates for filing proofs of claim and approving the form and manner of notice thereof. In support of this Motion, the City respectfully represents as follows:

<sup>1</sup> This Motion includes certain attachments that are labeled in accordance with Rule 9014-1(b)(1) of the Local Rules of the Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Michigan (the "Local Rules"). Consistent with Local Rule 9014-1(b), a copy of the proposed form of order granting this Motion is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. A summary identifying each included attachment by exhibit number is appended to this Motion.

General Background

1. On July 18, 2013 (the "Petition Date"), the City filed a petition for relief in this Court, thereby commencing the largest chapter 9 case in history.

2. Incorporated in 1806, Detroit is the largest city in Michigan. As of December 2012, the City had a population of less than 685,000 (down from a peak population of nearly 2 million in 1950). Over the past several decades, the City has experienced significant economic challenges that have negatively impacted employment, business conditions and quality of life.

3. As of June 30, 2013 — the end of the City's 2013 fiscal year — the City's liabilities exceeded $18 billion (including, among other things, general obligation and special revenue bonds, unfunded actuarially accrued pension and other postemployment benefit liabilities, pension obligation certificate liabilities and related derivative liabilities). As of June 30, 2013, the City's accumulated unrestricted general fund deficit was approximately $237 million.

4. In February 2013, a state review team determined that a local government financial emergency exists in the City. Thereafter, in March 2013, Kevyn D. Orr was appointed, and now serves as, emergency manager with respect to the City (in such capacity, the "Emergency Manager") under Public Act 436 of 2012, the Local Financial Stability and Choice Act, MCL § 141.1541, et seq. ("PA 436"). Under Section 18(1) of PA 436, the Emergency Manager acts exclusively on behalf of the City in this chapter 9 case. MCL § 141.1558.

The List of Claims and the Claims Agent

5. On the Petition Date, the City filed its List of Creditors Pursuant to Section 924 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 1007 (Docket No. 16) (the "Original List of Creditors").

6. On August 1, 2013, the City filed its Amended List of Creditors Pursuant to Section 924 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 1007 (Docket No. 258) (the "Amended List of Creditors"), which replaced the Original List of Creditors and redacted certain personal information therein.

7. On September 30, 2013, the City filed its Second Amended List of Creditors and Claims, Pursuant to Sections 924 and 925 of the Bankruptcy Code (Docket No. 1059), which supplemented and amended the information in the Amended List of Creditors and also constitutes the City's list of claims under section 925 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended or supplemented from time to time, the "List of Claims").

8. On July 19, 2013, the City filed the Motion of Debtor for Entry of an Order Appointing Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC as Claims and Noticing Agent Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 156(c), Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy

Code and Bankruptcy Rule 2002 (Docket No. 19) (the "Claims Agent Motion").

In light of the complexity of the City's chapter 9 case and the size of its potential creditor pool, the Claims Agent Motion sought the appointment of Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC ("KCC") as claims and noticing agent in this case. By an order entered on August 6, 2013 (Docket No. 297), the Court approved of the relief requested in the Claims Agent Motion.

Jurisdiction

9. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). Venue for this matter is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Relief Requested

10. The City hereby moves the Court, pursuant to sections 105, 501 and 503 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 3003(c), for the entry of an order: (a) establishing the general bar date by which the entities specified below must file proofs of claim in this chapter 9 case (the "General Bar Date"); (b) establishing the date by which proofs of claim (including any claims asserting administrative priority) relating to the City's rejection of executory contracts or unexpired leases must be filed (the "Rejection Damages Bar Date"); (c) establishing the date by which entities must file proofs of claim as a result of any further amendment of the List of Claims by the City (the "Amended Claims List Bar Date"); (d) confirming the date by which governmental units must file proofs of claim in this case (the "Governmental Bar Date" and, collectively with the General Bar Date, the Rejection Damages Bar Date and the Amended Claims List Bar Date, the "Bar Dates"); and (e) approving the form and manner of notice of the Bar Dates.

Request for an Order (A) Establishing the Bar Dates and Related Claims Procedures and (B) Approving Form and Manner of Notice Thereof

11. To complete the restructuring process and make distributions to creditors in this case, the City requires, among other things, complete and accurate information regarding the nature, validity and amount of the claims<sup>2</sup> that will be asserted against the City. Consequently, to avoid any delay in the restructuring process, the City requests that the Court (a) establish the Bar Dates and related claims procedures proposed herein and (b) approve the form and manner of notice thereof.

A. Establishment of the Bar Dates

12. The General Bar Date. Bankruptcy Rule 3003(c)(3) requires that the Court fix a time within which proofs of claim must be filed in a case under chapter 9 or chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3003(c)(3)

---

<sup>2</sup> The term "claim," as used herein, has the meaning given to it in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code.

("The court shall fix . . . the time within which proofs of claim . . . may be filed.")<sup>3</sup>

The City proposes that it will serve a notice of the Bar Dates and a proof of claim form by the date (the "Service Date") that is no later than five business days after the entry of an order approving this Motion and establishing the Bar Dates (the "Bar Date Order"). Assuming that the Bar Date Order is entered by November 13, 2013 (the date of one of the omnibus hearing dates in this case), the Service Date would occur no later than November 20, 2013. The City requests that the Court establish January 21, 2014, at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, as the General Bar Date.<sup>4</sup> This will provide no fewer than 60 days after the anticipated Service Date for creditors to file proofs of claim in this case.

13. The General Bar Date is the date by which all entities<sup>5</sup> holding claims that arose, or are deemed to have arisen, prior to the Petition Date ("Prepetition Claims") must file proofs of claim unless they fall within one of the exceptions described below. The General Bar Date would apply to all types of

<sup>3</sup> Bankruptcy Rule 3003(a) states that this "rule applies in chapter 9 and 11 cases." Section 501(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, generally, that "[a] creditor or an indenture trustee may file a proof of claim." 11 U.S.C. § 501(a).

<sup>4</sup> If this Court schedules a hearing on this Motion in advance of the November 13, 2013 omnibus hearing, an earlier date could be set as the General Bar Date while still providing at least 60 days' notice to creditors.

<sup>5</sup> As used herein, the term "entity" has the meaning given to it in section 101(15) of the Bankruptcy Code and includes, among other things, "persons" as such term is defined in section 101(41) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Prepetition Claims against the City, including secured claims, unsecured priority claims and unsecured nonpriority claims. For the avoidance of doubt, the City proposes that the General Bar Date would apply to claims asserting priority under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code (any such claim, a "503(b)(9) Claim"). To that end, the City further proposes that the filing of a proof of claim form be deemed to satisfy the procedural requirements for the assertion of 503(b)(9) Claims (which, despite their priority status, are prepetition claims). All administrative claims under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, other than 503(b)(9) Claims and the administrative portions of Rejection Damages Claims, will not be deemed proper if asserted by proof of claim.<sup>6</sup> The City intends to establish a process for the assertion of other administrative expense claims at a future date if and to the extent necessary.

14. The Rejection Damages Bar Date. The City anticipates that certain entities may assert claims arising from or relating to the rejection of executory contracts or unexpired leases, pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, or claims otherwise related to such rejected agreements, including:

<sup>6</sup> Section 503 of the Bankruptcy Code, which deems certain claims to be administrative expenses, and section 507(a)(2), which grants priority status to administrative expenses, are made applicable in a chapter 9 case by section 901 of the Bankruptcy Code. 11 U.S.C. § 901. The City specifically reserves the right to dispute or object to, or assert counterclaims, offsets, recoupments or defenses against, any 503(b)(9) Claim or other claim asserting administrative priority status on any grounds.

(a) secured claims, unsecured priority claims and unsecured nonpriority claims that arose or are deemed to have arisen prior to the Petition Date;<sup>7</sup> and

(b) administrative claims under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, "Rejection Damages Claims"). The City seeks to establish the Rejection Damages Bar Date as the deadline for entities to file any Rejection Damages Claims with respect to executory contracts or unexpired leases rejected pursuant to a Court order entered prior to the confirmation and effectiveness of the City's chapter 9 plan (a "Rejection Order").

15. In particular, the City proposes that the Rejection Damages Bar Date will be the later of (a) the General Bar Date and (b) 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the first business day that is at least 30 days after the entry of the applicable Rejection Order. Any Rejection Order entered by the Court will include a provision describing, and providing further notice of, the Rejection Damages Bar Date.

16. For the avoidance of doubt, all prepetition and postpetition claims of any kind or nature relating to executory contracts or unexpired leases rejected by a Rejection Order must be filed by the Rejection Damages Bar Date. The City proposes that the filing of a proof of claim form, along with a detailed statement describing the nature and basis of any portion of a Rejection Damages Claim asserting administrative priority pursuant to section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, be deemed to satisfy the procedural requirements for the assertion of such claim.

17. The Amended Claims List Bar Date. The City reserves the right to: (a) dispute, or assert offsets or defenses against, (i) any filed claim (any such claim, a "Filed Claim") or (ii) any claim listed or reflected in the List of Claims (any such claim, a "Scheduled Claim") as to nature, amount, liability, classification or otherwise; (b) subsequently designate any Scheduled Claim as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (c) otherwise amend or supplement the List of Claims. If the City amends or supplements its List of Claims after the Service Date, the City proposes that it will give notice of any such amendment or supplement to the holders of claims affected thereby, including notice of the Amended Claims List Bar Date to file proofs of claim in response to the amendment or supplement to the List of Claims.

18. In particular, if the City amends or supplements its List of Claims to: (a) reduce the undisputed, noncontingent and liquidated amount of a Scheduled Claim; (b) change the nature or classification of a Scheduled Claim in a manner adverse to the listed creditor; or (c) add a new Scheduled Claim to the List of Claims with respect to a party that was not previously served with notice of the Bar Dates (in each case, a "Modified Claim"), the affected claimant will be permitted to file any proof of claim, or amend any previously filed proof of claim, in respect of the Modified Claim by the Amended Claims List Bar Date.

By contrast, if the amendment to the List of Claims improves the amount or treatment of a previously listed or filed claim, claimants that previously were served with a notice of the Bar Dates are not permitted to file additional claims by the Amended Claims List Bar Date. An entity that previously filed a proof of claim will not be required to re-file its claim as a result of an amendment to the List of Creditors.

19. The City requests that the Amended Claims List Bar Date be established as the later of: (a) the General Bar Date; and (b) 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the first business day that is at least 30 days after the date that notice of the applicable amendment or supplement to the List of Claims (an "Amendment Notice") is served on the claimant. Any Amendment Notice shall identify the Amended Claims List Bar Date.

20. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall preclude the City from objecting to any Filed Claim or Scheduled Claim on any grounds.

21. The Governmental Bar Date. Bankruptcy Rule 3002(c)(1) provides that "[a] proof of claim filed by a governmental unit . . . is timely filed if it is filed not later than 180 days after the date of the order for relief." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3002(c)(1). No order for relief has yet been entered in the City's chapter 9 case.<sup>8</sup> Nevertheless, the City requests that the Court's order granting the relief requested herein confirm that the Governmental Bar Date is established as the later of (a) 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the first business day that is at least 180 days after this Court's entry of an order for relief in the City's chapter 9 case; and (b) any Rejection Damages Bar Date or Amended Claims List Bar Date applicable to the governmental unit.<sup>9</sup>

B. Entities That Must File Proofs of Claim by the General Bar Date

22. The City proposes that, subject to the provisions of paragraphs 14 through 21 of this Motion for holders of claims subject to the Rejection Damages Bar Date, the Amended Claims List Bar Date and the Governmental Bar Date and the exceptions described in paragraph 23 below, the following entities must file proofs of claim on or before the General Bar Date:

- (a) Any entity: (i) whose Prepetition Claim against the City is not listed in the List of Claims or is listed as disputed, contingent or

---

<sup>8</sup> Proceedings to establish the City's eligibility to be a chapter 9 debtor pursuant to section 109(c) of the Bankruptcy Code are ongoing at this time. If the City prevails in establishing eligibility, the Court will enter an order for relief consistent with section 921(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

<sup>9</sup> The City intends to provide all known creditors that are governmental units with prompt notice of this Court's entry of an order for relief and the resulting Governmental Bar Date.

unliquidated; and (ii) that desires to share in any distribution in this bankruptcy case and/or otherwise participate in the proceedings in this bankruptcy case associated with the confirmation of any chapter 9 plan of adjustment; and

(b) Any entity that believes that its Prepetition Claim is improperly classified in the List of Claims or is listed in an incorrect amount and that desires to have its claim allowed in a classification or amount other than that identified in the List of Claims.

C. Entities Not Required to File Proofs of Claim by the General Bar Date

23. The City proposes that entities holding the following claims (which claims otherwise would be subject to the General Bar Date) need not file proofs of claim on account of such claims:

(a) Any claim for unfunded actuarially accrued healthcare liabilities associated with the City's Health and Life Insurance Benefit Plan and the Supplemental Death Benefit Plan (any such claim, a "Healthcare UAAL Claim"). The City submits that the liquidation of Healthcare UAAL Claims is not practicable or meaningful on a creditor-by-creditor basis and, therefore, no purpose would be served by requiring employees and retirees to attempt to quantify their Healthcare UAAL Claims through the submission of proofs of claim.

(b) Any claim by present or potential future beneficiaries of the City's two pension systems, the General Retirement System and the Police and Fire Retirement System (together, the "Retirement Systems"), for unfunded pension liabilities (any such claim, a "Pension Liability Claim"). In each case, the applicable Retirement System is the creditor of, and proper party to assert Pension Liability Claims against, the City.

(c) Any claim by a holder for the repayment of principal, interest and/or other applicable fees and charges on or under (i) the bonds set forth on Exhibit 6.1 attached hereto (collectively, the "Secured Bonds") or (ii) any certificates of participation issued by the City (collectively, the "COPs"). In each case, the trustee or similar entity (the "Trustee") has informed the City that, consistent with Bankruptcy Rule 3003(c)(5), it intends to: (i) file any proofs of claim against the City on behalf of the holders of the Secured Bonds and the COPs; and (ii) provide notice to the holders of the Secured Bonds and the COPs.

(d) Any claim arising from an ordinary course entitlement to an income tax refund (to the extent of such claimed entitlement) asserted through the City's established income tax refund procedures,<sup>10</sup> provided,

<sup>10</sup> The City has been processing income tax refunds in the ordinary course and intends to continue to do so. In accordance with the authority granted the

however, that entities holding any other Prepetition Claims or causes of action related to income tax matters that are not properly asserted through the City's established income tax refund procedures must file a proof of claim by the General Bar Date.

(e) Any claim with respect to which the holder already has filed a signed proof of claim against the City with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, or with KCC, in a form substantially similar to Official Bankruptcy Form No. 10;

(f) Any claim that is listed on the List of Claims if (i) the claim is not listed as "disputed," "contingent" or "unliquidated;" and (ii) such entity agrees with the amount, nature and priority of the claim as set forth in the List of Claims;

(g) Any claim that previously has been allowed by order of the Court;

(h) Any claim that has been paid in full by the City; and

(i) Any claim allowable under sections 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code as an expense of administration (other than any

City by this Court's order dated September 25, 2013 (Docket No. 1021), the City intends to file under seal an amended Schedule O to the List of Claims identifying the City's known income tax refund creditors.

503(b)(9) Claim or any portion of a Rejection Damages Claim asserting administrative priority under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code).

24. For the avoidance of doubt, the following entities should file proofs of claim to the extent the filing of such claim is not otherwise made unnecessary by the terms of the foregoing paragraph 23: (a) employees and retirees asserting Prepetition Claims other than Healthcare UAAL Claims and Pension Liability Claims and (b) holders of bonds other than the Secured Bonds (collectively, the "Unsecured GO Bonds") asserting Prepetition Claims in connection with such bonds.<sup>11</sup>

D. Liquidation of Tort Claims

25. Consistent with the Court's order of October 8, 2013 (Docket No. 1114), the City intends to file a motion by November 12, 2013 for approval of an efficient process for liquidating prepetition tort claims asserted against the City. The City anticipates that this process: (a) may involve the use of alternative dispute resolution practices, including mediation or consensual arbitration; and (b) would be implemented once the tort claims have been asserted through the proof of claim process.

---

<sup>11</sup> The City intends to provide notice to beneficial holders of the Unsecured GO Bonds, as set forth in paragraph 29 below.

E. Effect of Failure to File Proofs of Claim

26. The City proposes that, pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3003(c)(2),<sup>12</sup> any entity that is required to file a proof of claim in this case pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules or the Bar Date Order with respect to a particular claim against the City, but that fails properly to do so by the applicable Bar Date, should be forever barred, estopped and enjoined from: (a) asserting any claim against the City or property of the City that (i) is in an amount that exceeds the amount, if any, that is identified in the List of Claims on behalf of such entity as undisputed, noncontingent and liquidated or (ii) is of a different nature or a different classification than any Scheduled Claim identified in the List of Claims on behalf of such entity (any such claim under this subparagraph (a) being referred to herein as an "Unscheduled Claim"); (b) voting upon any plan of adjustment in this chapter 9 case or receiving distributions under any plan of adjustment in this chapter 9 case in respect of an Unscheduled Claim; or (c) with respect to any 503(b)(9) Claim and any

[a]ny creditor . . . whose claim . . . is not scheduled or scheduled as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated shall file a proof of claim . . . within the time prescribed by subdivision (c)(3) of this rule; any creditor who fails to do so shall not be treated as a creditor with respect to such claim for the purposes of voting and distribution.

Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3002(c)(2).

administrative priority component of any Rejection Damages Claim, asserting any such priority claim against the City or property of the City.

F. Procedures for Providing Notice of Bar Dates and Filing Proofs of Claim

27. The City proposes to serve on all known entities potentially holding claims that are subject to the Bar Dates: (a) a notice of the Bar Dates substantially in the form of the notice attached hereto as Exhibit 6.2 and incorporated herein by reference (the "Bar Date Notice"); and (b) a proof of claim form substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 6.3 and incorporated herein by reference (the "Proof of Claim Form" and, collectively with the Bar Date Notice, the "Bar Date Notice Package").<sup>13</sup>

28. The Bar Date Notice states, among other things, that proofs of claim must be filed on or before the applicable Bar Date and provides instructions for the filing of claims. As soon as practicable, but in any event no later than five business days following this Court's entry of the Bar Date Order, the City intends

---

<sup>13</sup> The Proof of Claim Form is derived from Official Bankruptcy Form No. 10, but has been modified, and may be further modified in certain limited respects, to (a) remove certain categories of claim that are inapplicable in chapter 9 and (b) accommodate the claims process in this case. For example, the City has eliminated the check boxes providing for the assertion of priority claims under subsections (a)(1)(A), (a)(1)(B), (a)(4), (a)(5), (a)(7) and (a)(8) of section 507 of the Bankruptcy Code because the foregoing subsections are not applicable in a chapter 9 case pursuant to section 901(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

to mail the Bar Date Notice Package by first class United States mail, postage prepaid (or equivalent service), to:

- (a) all known potential claimants (or their counsel, if known), including all entities identified as potential claim holders in the List of Claims;
- (b) the Trustees;
- (c) counsel to the Official Committee of Retirees appointed in this case;
- (d) all parties that have requested notice of the proceedings in this case as of the date of the Bar Date Order;
- (e) all parties that have filed proofs of claim in this case as of the date of the Bar Date Order;
- (f) all parties to executory contracts and unexpired leases with the City, including all parties to executory contracts and unexpired leases rejected by a Rejection Order, if any, as of the date of the Bar Date Order;
- (g) all parties to pending litigation with the City;
- (h) the United States Attorney for this District; and
- (i) all federal and state environmental protection agencies for this jurisdiction.

29. The City also intends to serve the Bar Date Notice Package on the beneficial holders of the Unsecured GO Bonds. Many such beneficial holders are not known to the City because the Unsecured GO Bonds are held in the name of CEDE & Company on behalf of institutional brokers and other customers (collectively, the "Institutional Nominees") of the Depository Trust and Clearing Corporation ("DTC"). The Institutional Nominees, in turn, hold the Unsecured GO

Bonds, among other bonds, in "street name" on behalf of the beneficial holders. To ensure that the best notice practicable under the circumstances is provided to the beneficial holders of the Unsecured GO Bonds, the City intends to request from DTC a listing of the Institutional Nominees (the "Institutional Nominee List"), as of a record date that is no more than 30 days prior to the anticipated Service Date. Upon receipt of the Institutional Nominee List from DTC, KCC will cause the Bar Date Notice Package to be served on the Institutional Nominees with instructions for the Institutional Nominees to forward the Bar Date Notice Package to the beneficial holders of the Unsecured GO Bonds. In this regard, the City requests that the Court confirm that, where beneficial holders of Unsecured GO Bonds have agreed to accept service of notices relating to the Unsecured GO Bonds by electronic mail, service of the Bar Date Notice Package on the beneficial holders of the Unsecured GO Bonds by electronic mail will constitute adequate notice of the Bar Dates.<sup>14</sup>

30. The timing of the General Bar Date on January 21, 2014 will ensure that potential claimants known to the City as of the Service Date will receive no fewer than 60 days' notice by mail of the General Bar Date, assuming that the Bar Date Order is entered on or about the date of the omnibus hearing set for November 13, 2013. This substantially exceeds the minimum 21-day notice period provided by Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a)(7)<sup>15</sup> and the minimum 30-day notice period for foreign creditors provided by Bankruptcy Rule 2002(p).

<sup>14</sup> The City and KCC anticipate that final service of the Bar Date Notice Package on the holders of the Unsecured GO Bonds will be completed, whether by electronic mail or regular mail, by Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc., a company that specializes in providing various forms of investor communications.

31. Except with respect to holders of Unsecured GO Bonds, for holders of Scheduled Claims, the Proof of Claim Form mailed to such entities will indicate: (a) the amount of the Scheduled Claim, if any; (b) whether the Scheduled Claim is listed as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (c) whether the Scheduled Claim is listed as a secured claim, an unsecured priority claim or an unsecured nonpriority claim.

32. The City proposes that claimants be required to submit proofs of claim on the Proof of Claim Form or on such other form that conforms substantially to Official Bankruptcy Form No. 10. For any claim to be validly and properly filed, a signed original of a completed proof of claim, together with any accompanying documentation required hereunder or by Bankruptcy Rules 3001(c) and 3001(d),<sup>16</sup> must be delivered to the City's claims processing center maintained

<sup>15</sup> Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a)(7) states that "the clerk, or some other person as the court may direct, shall give the debtor, the trustee, all creditors and indenture trustees at least 21 days' notice by mail of ... the time fixed for filing proofs of claims pursuant to [Bankruptcy] Rule 3003(c) ...." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002(a)(7).

by KCC (the "Claims Processing Center") at City of Detroit Claims Processing Center c/o Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC, 2335 Alaska Avenue, El Segundo, CA 90245 so as to be received no later than the applicable Bar Date.<sup>17</sup> The City proposes that claimants be permitted to submit proofs of claim in person or by courier service, hand delivery or mail. Proofs of claim submitted by facsimile or electronic mail will not be accepted. In addition, proofs of claim must (a) be written in the English language and (b) be denominated in United States currency. Proofs of claim will be deemed filed when actually received by KCC at the Claims Processing Center by one of the approved methods of delivery.

When a claim, or an interest in property of the debtor securing the claim, is based on a writing, the original or a duplicate shall be filed with the proof of claim. If the writing has been lost or destroyed, a statement of the circumstances of the loss or destruction shall be filed with the claim.

Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3001(c). Bankruptcy Rule 3001(d) requires that "[i]f a security interest in property of the debtor is claimed, the proof of claim shall be accompanied by evidence that the security interest has been perfected." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3001(d).

The City proposes that, if the documents supporting a claimant's proof of claim are voluminous, the claimant may file a summary of such documents with its proof of claim; provided, however, that any claimant that files a summary of supporting documents in lieu of the documentation required by Bankruptcy Rule 3001 will be required to transmit the documents in support of its claim to (a) KCC and (b) the City within ten days after the date of a written request by the City for such documents.

<sup>17</sup> Consistent with the terms of the retention of KCC as claims and noticing agent, creditors will be directed to file claims directly with KCC rather than the Clerk of this Court.

33. The City submits that the proposed General Bar Date, which is no fewer than 60 days after the expected Service Date, will provide potential claimants with ample time after the mailing of the Bar Date Notice within which to review their own books and records and prepare and file proofs of claim, if necessary. In addition, for Rejection Orders entered after the date that the Bar Date Order is entered, the City will include a description of the Rejection Damages Bar Date in the text of the Rejection Order.

G. Publication of Bar Date Notice

34. In light of the size of the City and its creditor pool, it is anticipated that there may be parties with potential claims against the City that the City was unable to identify in its List of Claims. Asserted claims by such unknown potential claimants may include, for example: (a) claims of trade vendors that failed to submit invoices to the City; (b) claims of certain former employees for whom the City may no longer possess current address information; (c) claims of entities with potential unasserted causes of action against the City; and (d) other claims that, for various other reasons, are not recorded in the City's books and records. Accordingly, the City believes that (a) it is necessary to provide notice of the Bar Dates to entities whose names and addresses are unknown to the City and (b) it is advisable to provide supplemental notice to known holders of potential claims. Therefore, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002(l),<sup>18</sup> the City requests authority to publish the Bar Date Notice, modified to the extent necessary or appropriate to conform the Bar Date Notice to publication and minimize expense once in The Detroit Free Press and the national editions of USA Today and The Wall Street Journal at least 28 days prior to the General Bar Date. The City also: (a) intends to post the Bar Date Notice on (i) the City's restructuring website maintained by KCC at www.kcellc.net/detroit and (ii) the website maintained by the Emergency Manager's office at <http://www.detroitmi.gov/EmergencyManager.aspx>; and (b) reserves the right to publish the Bar Date Notice in other national or regional newspapers, trade journals or similar publications, as the City may deem necessary or appropriate in its sole discretion.

Reservation of Rights

35. The City files this Motion without prejudice to or waiver of its rights pursuant to section 904 of the Bankruptcy Code, and nothing herein is intended to, shall constitute or shall be deemed to constitute the City's consent, pursuant to section 904 of the Bankruptcy Code, to this Court's interference with (a) any of the political or governmental powers of the City, (b) any of the property

---

<sup>18</sup> Bankruptcy Rule 2002(l) provides that "[t]he court may order notice by publication if it finds that notice by mail is impracticable or that it is desirable to supplement the notice."

or revenues of the City or (c) the City's use or enjoyment of any income-producing property.

Notice

36. Notice of this Motion has been given to all entities that have requested notice pursuant to Rule 2002 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (or their counsel if known). In addition, a copy of the Motion was served on the Office of the United States Trustee. The City submits that no other or further notice need be provided.

Statement of Concurrence

37. Local Rule 9014-1(g) provides that "in a bankruptcy case unless it is unduly burdensome, the motion shall affirmatively state that concurrence of opposing counsel in the relief sought has been requested on a specified date and that the concurrence was denied." Local Rule 9014-1(g). Given the number of parties and potential parties involved in this case and the lack of known opposing parties who would be adversely impacted by the relief requested herein, it would be impracticable (and, with regard to unknown parties, impossible) for the City to affirmatively seek the concurrence of each opposing counsel interested in the relief sought herein. Accordingly, the City submits that imposing the requirements of Local Rule 9014-1(g) in this matter would be "unduly burdensome" and requests that its requirements be waived.

Request for Hearing

38. The City requests that the Court schedule a hearing on this Motion for the omnibus hearing scheduled for November 13, 2013, at 10:00 a.m., Eastern Time, or sooner at such date and time as the Court's schedule permits.

Statement Regarding Evidentiary Nature of Hearing

39. The City believes that this Motion raises no factual issues and anticipates that an evidentiary hearing on this Motion will not be required.

No Prior Request

40. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this or any other Court.

WHEREFORE, the City respectfully requests that the Court: (a) enter an order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1, granting the relief requested herein; and (b) grant such other and further relief to the City as the Court may deem proper.

Dated: October 10, 2013

This matter coming before the Court on the Motion of Debtor,
Pursuant to Sections 105, 501 and 503 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy
Rules 2002 and 3003(c), for Entry of an Order Establishing Bar Dates for Filing Proofs of Claim and Approving Form and Manner of Notice Thereof
(the "Motion"),<sup>1</sup> filed by the City of Detroit (the "City"); the Court having reviewed the Motion and having considered the statements of counsel and the evidence adduced with respect to the Motion at a hearing before the Court
(the "Hearing"); the Court finding that: (a) the Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334; (b) this is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b); and (c) notice of the Motion and the Hearing was sufficient under the circumstances; and the Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the Hearing establish just cause for the relief granted herein;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED.
2. As used herein, (a) the term "claim" has the meaning given to such term in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) the term "entity" has the meaning given to such term in section 101(15) of the Bankruptcy Code and (c) the term "governmental unit" has the meaning given to such term in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code.
3. The form of Bar Date Notice Package, and the manner of providing notice of the Bar Dates proposed in the Motion, are approved in all respects pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 2002(a)(7) and 2002(l). The form and manner of notice of the Bar Dates approved herein are deemed to fulfill the notice requirements of the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules. As such, the Debtors are authorized to serve the Bar Date Notice Package in the manner described in paragraphs 16 through 18 below.

4. Except as otherwise provided in this Order, all entities (including, without limitation, individuals, partnerships, corporations, joint ventures and trusts) that assert claims against the City that arose (or are deemed to have arisen) prior to July 18, 2013 (any such claim, a "Prepetition Claim") must file a proof of claim in writing in accordance with the procedures described herein by 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on January 21, 2014 (the "General Bar Date").

5. The General Bar Date applies to all types of Prepetition Claims, including secured claims, unsecured priority claims and unsecured nonpriority claims. For the avoidance of doubt, the General Bar Date shall apply to claims asserting administrative expense priority under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code ("503(b)(9) Claims"). The filing of a proof of claim form shall satisfy the procedural requirements for the assertion of 503(b)(9) Claims. All administrative claims under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, other than 503(b)(9) Claims and the administrative portions of Rejection Damages Claims (as defined below), shall not be deemed proper if asserted by proof of claim.

6. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 10 through 14 of this Order with respect to holders of claims subject to the Rejection Damages Bar Date, the Amended Claims List Bar Date and the Governmental Bar Date, and the exceptions described in paragraph 8 below, the following entities must file a proof of claim on or before the General Bar Date:

(a) Any entity: (i) whose prepetition claim against the City is not listed in the List of Claims or is listed as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (ii) that desires to share in any distribution in this bankruptcy case and/or otherwise participate in the proceedings in this bankruptcy case associated with the confirmation of any chapter 9 plan of adjustment; and

(b) Any entity that believes that its prepetition claim is improperly classified in the List of Claims or is listed in an incorrect amount and that desires to have its claim allowed in a classification or amount other than that identified in the List of Claims.

7. The following procedures for the filing of proofs of claim shall apply:

(a) Proofs of claim must be on the Proof of Claim Form attached hereto as Exhibit 1 or otherwise conform substantially to Official Bankruptcy Form No. 10;

(b) Proofs of claim must be filed by mailing the original proof of claim or delivering the original proof of claim by hand or overnight courier to City of Detroit Claims Processing Center c/o Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC, 2335 Alaska Avenue, El Segundo, CA 90245. Proofs of claim submitted by facsimile or electronic mail shall not be accepted and shall not be deemed properly filed;

(c) Proofs of claim will be deemed timely filed only if actually received by the City's claims agent, Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC ("KCC"), at the address set forth in the foregoing subparagraph on or before the applicable Bar Date. If a creditor wishes to receive acknowledgement of KCC's receipt of a proof of claim, the creditor also must submit to KCC by the applicable Bar Date and concurrently with submitting its original proof of claim (i) a copy of the original proof of claim and (ii) a self-addressed, postage prepaid return envelope; and

(d) Proofs of claim must (i) be signed by the claimant or, if the claimant is not an individual, by an authorized agent of the claimant; (ii) include any documents upon which the claim is based (or, if such documents are voluminous, a summary) or an explanation as to why the documents are not available; (iii) be written in the English language; and

(iv) be denominated in United States currency. Any claimant that provides a summary in lieu of the documentation required by Bankruptcy Rule 3001 shall transmit the documents in support of its claim to KCC and the City within ten days after the date of any written request by the City for such documents.

8. Entities holding the following claims (which claims otherwise would be subject to the General Bar Date) shall not be required to file proofs of claim in this chapter 9 case on account of such claims:

(a) Any claim for unfunded actuarially accrued healthcare liabilities associated with the City's Health and Life Insurance Benefit Plan and the Supplemental Death Benefit Plan (any such claim, a "Healthcare UAAL Claim").

(b) Any claim by present or potential future beneficiaries of the City's two pension systems, the General Retirement System and the Police and Fire Retirement System, for unfunded pension liabilities (any such claim, a "Pension Liability Claim"). Any Pension Liability Claim is the responsibility of the applicable Retirement System.

(c) Any claim by a holder for the repayment of principal, interest and/or other applicable fees and charges on or under (i) the Secured Bonds or (ii) the COPs.

(d) Any claim arising from an ordinary course entitlement to an income tax refund (to the extent of such claimed entitlement) asserted through the City's established income tax refund procedures, provided, however, that entities holding any other Prepetition Claims or causes of action related to income tax matters that are not properly asserted through the City's established income tax refund procedures must file a proof of claim by the General Bar Date.

(e) Any claim with respect to which the holder already has filed a signed proof of claim against the City with the Clerk of this Court or KCC in a form substantially similar to Official Bankruptcy Form No. 10;

(f) Any claim that is listed on the List of Claims if (i) the claim is not listed as "disputed," "contingent" or "unliquidated;" and (ii) such entity agrees with the amount, nature and priority of the claim as set forth in the List of Claims;

(g) Any claim that previously has been allowed by order of the Court;

(h) Any claim that has been paid in full by the City; and

(i) Any claim allowable under sections 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code as an expense of administration (other than any 503(b)(9) Claim or any portion of a Rejection Damages Claim asserting administrative priority under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code).

9. For the avoidance of doubt, the following entities should file proofs of claim to the extent the filing of such claim is not otherwise made unnecessary by the terms of the foregoing paragraph 8: (a) employees and retirees asserting Prepetition Claims other than Healthcare UAAL Claims and Pension Liability Claims and (b) holders of Unsecured GO Bonds asserting claims in connection with such bonds.

10. Any entities asserting claims arising from or relating to the rejection of executory contracts or unexpired leases, in accordance with section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and pursuant to an order of this Court entered prior to the confirmation of the City's chapter 9 plan (a "Rejection Order"), or claims otherwise related to such rejected agreements, including (a) secured claims, unsecured priority claims and unsecured nonpriority claims that arose or are deemed to have arisen prior to the Petition Date and (b) administrative claims under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, "Rejection Damages"), Claims") are required to file proofs of claim by the later of (a) the General Bar Date and (b) 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the first business day that is at least 30 days after the entry of the applicable Rejection Order (the "Rejection Damages Bar Date"). For the avoidance of doubt, all prepetition and postpetition claims of any kind or nature relating to executory contracts or unexpired leases rejected by a Rejection Order must be filed by the Rejection Damages Bar Date. Rejection Orders entered after the date of entry of this Order shall include a description of the Rejection Damages Bar Date in the text of the Rejection Order.

11. Each entity asserting a Rejection Damages Claim with an administrative claim component must file, along with its proof of claim, a detailed statement describing the nature and basis of the portion of the Rejection Damages Claim asserting an administrative priority under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Administrative Claim Supplement"). The filing of a proof of claim form, along with an attached Administrative Claim Supplement, if applicable, shall satisfy the procedural requirements for the assertion of a Rejection Damages Claim (including any administrative claim included therein).

12. The City shall retain the right to: (a) dispute, or assert offsets or defenses against, any Filed Claim or any Scheduled Claim as to nature, amount, liability, classification or otherwise; (b) subsequently designate any Scheduled Claim as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (c) otherwise amend or supplement the List of Claims. If the City amends or supplements the List of Claims after the Service Date, the City shall give notice of any such amendment or supplement to the holders of claims affected thereby, including notice of the applicable Amended Claims List Bar Date to file proofs of claim in response to the amendment or supplement to the List of Claims.

13. In particular, if the City amends or supplements its List of Claims to: (a) reduce the undisputed, noncontingent and liquidated amount of a claim; (b) change the nature or classification of a Scheduled Claim in a manner adverse to the listed creditor; or (c) add a new Scheduled Claim to the List of Claims with respect to a party that was not previously served with notice of the Bar Dates (in each case, a "Modified Claim"), the affected claimant shall be permitted to file a proof of claim, or amend any previously filed proof of claim, in respect of the Modified Claim in accordance with the procedures described herein by the later of (a) the General Bar Date; and (b) 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the first business day that is at least 30 days after the date that notice of the applicable amendment to the List of Claims is served on the claimant (the "Amended Claims List Bar Date"). By contrast, if the amendment to the List of Claims improves the amount or treatment of a previously listed or filed claim, a claimant that previously was served with a notice of the Bar Dates is not permitted to file additional claims by the Amended Claims List Bar Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall preclude the City from objecting to any claim, whether listed or filed, on any grounds.

14. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3002(c)(1), the date by which governmental units shall file proofs of claim in this case shall be the later of:

(a) the first business day that is at least 180 days following the date of the entry of an order for relief in this case; and (b) any Rejection Damages Bar Date or Amended Claims List Bar Date applicable to the governmental unit.

15. Pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3003(c)(2), any entity that is required to file a proof of claim in this case pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules or this Order with respect to a particular claim against the City, but that fails properly to do so by the applicable Bar Date, shall be forever barred, estopped and enjoined from:

(a) asserting any claim against the City or property of the City that (i) is in an amount that exceeds the amount, if any, that is identified in the List of Claims on behalf of such entity as undisputed, noncontingent and liquidated or (ii) is of a different nature or a different classification than any Scheduled Claim identified in the List of Claims on behalf of such entity (any such claim under subparagraph (a) of this paragraph being referred to herein as an "Unscheduled Claim"); (b) voting upon, or receiving distributions under any plan of adjustment in this chapter 9 case in respect of an Unscheduled Claim; or (c) with respect to any 503(b)(9) Claim or administrative priority claim component of any Rejection Damages Claim, asserting any such priority claim against the City or property of the City.

16. As soon as practicable, but in any event no later than five business days after the entry of this Order, the City, through KCC or otherwise, shall serve the Bar Date Notice Package by first class mail, postage prepaid (or equivalent service), on:

- (a) all known potential claimants (or their counsel, if known), including all entities identified as potential claim holders in the List of Claims;
- (b) the Trustees;
- (c) counsel to the Official Committee of Retirees appointed in this case;
- (d) all parties that have requested notice of the proceedings in this case as of the date of this Order;
- (e) all parties that have filed proofs of claim in this case as of the date of this Order;
- (f) all known parties to executory contracts and unexpired leases with the City, including all parties to executory contracts and unexpired leases rejected by a Rejection Order, if any, as of the date of this Order;
- (g) all known parties to pending litigation with the City;
- (h) the United States Attorney for this District; and
- (i) all federal and state environmental protection agencies for this jurisdiction.

17. The City also shall serve the Bar Date Notice on the holders of the Unsecured GO Bonds. If DTC has not already provided the Institutional Nominee List to the City as of the date of this Order, DTC is directed to provide the City with the Institutional Nominee List within three business days of this date. Service of the Bar Date Notice by electronic mail on those holders of the Unsecured GO Bonds that previously consented in writing to receive notices regarding the Unsecured GO Bonds by electronic mail shall constitute adequate notice of the Bar Dates on such holders.

18. As part of the Bar Date Package, the City shall mail one or more Proof of Claim Forms (as appropriate), substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 2, to the parties receiving the Bar Date Notice. Except with respect to holders of Unsecured GO Bonds, for holders of Scheduled Claims listed in the List of Claims, the Proof of Claim Form mailed to such entities shall indicate how the City has listed the creditor's claim in the List of Claims, including: (a) the amount of the claim, if any; (b) whether the claim is listed as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (c) whether the claim is listed as a secured claim, an unsecured priority claim or an unsecured nonpriority claim.

19. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002(f), the City shall publish the Bar Date Notice, once, in the Detroit Free Press, The Detroit News and national editions of USA Today and The Wall Street Journal at least 28 days prior to the General Bar Date, which publication is hereby approved and shall be deemed good, adequate and sufficient publication notice of the Bar Dates. The City is authorized to modify the Bar Date Notice to the extent necessary or appropriate to conform the Bar Date Notice to publication and minimize expense.

20. The City and KCC are authorized and empowered to take such steps and perform such acts as may be necessary to implement and effectuate the terms of this Order.

21. The entry of this Order is without prejudice to the right of the City to seek a further order of this Court fixing a date by which holders of claims or interests not subject to the Bar Dates established herein must file such proofs of claim or interest or be barred from doing so.

22. The Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the interpretation, implementation and/or enforcement of this Order.

NOTICE OF DEADLINES FOR FILING OF PROOFS OF CLAIM

(GENERAL BAR DATE IS JANUARY 21, 2014
AT 5:00 P.M., EASTERN TIME)

TO ALL PERSONS AND ENTITIES WITH CLAIMS AGAINST THE CITY OF DETROIT, MICHIGAN:

On [_____], 2013, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Michigan (the "Court") entered an order (Docket No. [___]) (the "Bar Date Order") establishing certain deadlines for the filing of proofs of claim in the chapter 9 bankruptcy case of the City.

By the Bar Date Order, the Court established January 21, 2014 at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time (the "General Bar Date"), as the general claims bar date for filing proofs of claim in the City's case. As described below, certain claimants are not required to file proofs of claim with respect to their claims, and the Bar Date Order also establishes different bar dates with respect to certain categories of claims. To determine if you need to file a proof of claim in this case and the applicable deadline and instructions for filing a proof of claim, please read this Notice carefully.

List of Claims

On the Filing Date (as defined below), the City filed its List of Creditors Pursuant to Section 924 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 1007 (Docket No. 16) (the "Original List of Creditors"). On August 1, 2013, the City filed its Amended List of Creditors Pursuant to Section 924 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 1007 (Docket No. 258) (the "Amended List of Creditors"), which replaced the Original List of Creditors and redacted certain personal information therein.

On September 30, 2013, the City filed its Second Amended List of Creditors and Claims, Pursuant to Sections 924 and 925 of the Bankruptcy Code (Docket No. 1059), which supplemented and amended the information in the Amended List of Creditors and also constitutes the City's list of claims under section 925 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended or supplemented from time to time, the "List of Claims"). Any claim identified on the List of Claims is referred to herein as a "Scheduled Claim."

Proof of Claim Form

For your convenience, enclosed with this Notice is a proof of claim form (the "Claim Form"), which identifies on its face the amount, nature and classification of your claim(s), if any, listed in the City's List of Claims. A blank copy of the Claim Form also is available on the City's restructuring website at www.kccllc.net/detroit. [Note: This paragraph is for the service version, not the publication version, of this Notice.]

For the convenience of potential claimants, a proof of claim form prepared for use in the City's chapter 9 case (the "Claim Form") is available on the City's restructuring website at www.kccllc.net/detroit. [Note: This paragraph is for the publication version of this Notice.]

Certain Definitions

As used in this Notice the term "entity" has the meaning given to it in section 101(15) of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") and includes, among other things, individuals, partnerships, corporations, joint ventures and trusts.

As used in this Notice, the term "claim" means, as to or against the City and in accordance with section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code: (a) any right to payment, whether or not such right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured or unsecured; or (b) any right to an equitable remedy for breach of performance if such breach gives rise to a right to payment, whether or not such right to an equitable remedy is reduced to judgment, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, secured or unsecured.

1. THE BAR DATES

The Bar Date Order establishes the following bar dates for filing proofs of claim in this case (collectively, the "Bar Dates"):

- (a) The General Bar Date. Pursuant to the Bar Date Order, except as described below, all entities holding claims against the City that arose (or are deemed to have arisen) prior to the commencement of this case are required to file proofs of claim by the General Bar Date (i.e., by January 21, 2014 at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time). This case was commenced on July 18, 2013 (the "Filing Date"). The General Bar Date applies to all types of claims against the City that arose prior to the Filing Date, including secured claims, unsecured priority claims and unsecured nonpriority claims. For the avoidance of doubt, the General Bar Date applies to all claims asserting administrative expense priority under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code, subject to Section 3 below.
- (b) The Rejection Damages Bar Date. Pursuant to the Bar Date Order, any entity asserting claims arising from or relating to the rejection of executory contracts or unexpired leases, in accordance with section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and pursuant to an order entered prior to the confirmation and effectiveness of a plan of adjustment in the City's chapter 9 case (any such order, a "Rejection Order"), or claims otherwise related to such rejected agreements, including (i) secured claims, unsecured priority claims and unsecured nonpriority claims that arose or are deemed to have arisen prior to the Filing Date and (ii) administrative claims under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, "Rejection Damages Claims") are required to file proofs of claim by the later of (a) the General Bar Date and (b) 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the first business day that is at least 30 days after the entry of the relevant Rejection Order. The later of these dates is referred to in this Notice as the "Rejection Damages Bar Date." For the avoidance of doubt, all prepetition and postpetition claims of any kind or nature arising from or relating to executory contracts or unexpired leases rejected by a Rejection Order must be filed by the Rejection Damages Bar Date. In accordance with the Bar Date Order, any Rejection Order entered by the Bankruptcy Court will specify the Rejection Damages Bar Date applicable to any executory contracts or unexpired leases rejected thereunder.
- (c) The Amended Claims List Bar Date. Pursuant to the Bar Date Order, if, subsequent to the date of this Notice, the City amends or supplements its List of Claims to: (i) reduce the undisputed, noncontingent and liquidated amount of a claim; (ii) change the nature or classification of a Scheduled Claim in a manner adverse to the listed creditor; or (iii) add a new Scheduled Claim to the List of Claims with respect to a party that was not previously served with notice of the Bar Dates (in each case, a "Modified Claim"), the affected claimant shall be permitted to file a proof of claim, or amend any previously filed proof of claim, in respect of the Modified Claim in accordance with the procedures described herein by the later of (i) the General Bar Date; and (ii) 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the first business day that is at least 30 days after the date that notice of the applicable amendment to the List of Claims is served on the claimant (the "Amended Claims List Bar Date"). The City will provide notice of any Amended Claims List Bar Date to affected claimants. Affected claimants that previously filed a proof of claim (any such claim, a "Filed Claim") with respect the liabilities giving rise to any Modified Claim need not refile their proof of claim because the Filed Claim is deemed to supersede and replace the original Scheduled Claim and the Modified Claim. In addition, if the City's amendment to the List of Claims improves the amount or treatment of a Scheduled Claim or a Filed Claim, a claimant that previously was served with a notice of the Bar Dates is not permitted to file additional claims by the Amended Claims List Bar Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein precludes the City from objecting to any Scheduled Claim or Filed Claim on any grounds.
- (d) The Governmental Bar Date. Governmental units (as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code) are not subject to the General Bar Date. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3002(c)(1), the date by which governmental units must file proofs of claim in this case (the "Governmental Unit Bar Date") is the later of: (i) the first business day that is at least 180 days following the date of the entry of an order for relief in this case; and (ii) any Rejection Damages Bar Date or Amended Claims List Bar Date applicable to the governmental unit. No order for relief has yet been entered in the City's chapter 9 case, and proceedings to establish the City's eligibility to be a chapter 9 debtor are ongoing at this time. If the City prevails in establishing eligibility, the Court will enter an order for relief consistent with section 921(d) of the Bankruptcy Code. [Update as appropriate at time that this Notice is finalized.] The City will provide notice of the entry of an order for relief to all known creditors that are governmental units of the Court's entry of an order for relief and the resulting Governmental Bar Date.

2. WHO MUST FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM

Unless one of the exceptions described in Section 5 below applies, if you have a claim that arose or is deemed to have arisen prior to the Filing Date (any such claim, a "Prepetition Claim"), you MUST file a proof of claim to share in distributions from the City's bankruptcy case or to vote on a chapter 9 plan. Claims based on acts or omissions of the City that occurred before the Filing Date must be filed on or prior to the applicable Bar Date, even if such claims are not now fixed, liquidated or certain or did not mature or become fixed, liquidated or certain before the Filing Date.

Except where the Rejection Damages Bar Date, the Amended Claims List Bar Date or the Governmental Bar Date applies to establish a different deadline or one of the exceptions in Section 5 applies, the following entities must file proofs of claim on or before the General Bar Date:

- (a) any entity (i) whose Prepetition Claim against the City is not listed in the City's List of Claims or is listed as "disputed," "contingent" or "unliquidated" and (ii) that desires to share in any distribution in this bankruptcy case and/or otherwise participate in the proceedings in this bankruptcy case associated with the confirmation of any chapter 9 plan of adjustment; and
- (b) any entity that believes its Prepetition Claim is improperly classified in the List of Claims or is listed in an incorrect amount and that desires to have its claim allowed in a classification or amount other than that identified in the List of Claims.

3. WHAT TO FILE

As noted above, the City is enclosing a Claim Form for use in this case, or you may use another proof of claim form that conforms substantially to Official Bankruptcy Form No. 10. If your claim is listed by the City on its List of Claims (other than claims arising from unsecured general obligation bonds issued by the City), the attached Claim Form sets forth: (a) the amount of your claim (if any) as listed by the City; (b) whether your claim is listed as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (c) whether your claim is listed as a secured claim, an unsecured priority claim or an unsecured nonpriority claim. You will receive a different Claim Form for each claim listed in your name by the City. You may utilize the Claim Form(s) provided by the City to file your claim. Additional proof of claim forms may be obtained at the following websites: (a) www.kccllc.net/detroit for a blank Claim Form designed specifically for this case or (b) www.uscourts.gov/bkforms for a copy of Official Bankruptcy Form No. 10. [Note: This paragraph is for the service version, not the publication version, of this Notice.]

To file your claim, you may use (a) the Claim Form specifically prepared for this chapter 9 case, which is available at www.kccllc.net/detroit or (b) another proof of claim form that conforms substantially to Official Bankruptcy Form No. 10 (which form is available at www.uscourts.gov/bkforms). [Note: This paragraph is for the publication version of this Notice.]

All proof of claim forms must be signed by the claimant or, if the claimant is not an individual, by an authorized agent of the claimant. The proof of claim form must be written in English and be denominated in United States currency. You should attach to your completed proof of claim form any documents on which the claim is based (the "Supporting Documents") (or, if the Supporting Documents are voluminous, you may attach a summary) or an explanation as to why the documents are not available. If you file a summary of the Supporting Documents because they are voluminous, you must transmit the Supporting Documents to (a) the City of Detroit Claims Processing Center (as defined below) and (b) the City within ten days after the date of a written request by the City for such documents.

Each entity asserting a Rejection Damages Claim with an administrative claim component must file, along with its proof of claim, a detailed statement describing the nature and basis of the portion of the Rejection Damages Claim asserting an administrative priority under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Administrative Claim Supplement").

Under the Bar Date Order, the filing of a proof of claim form satisfies the procedural requirements for the assertion of any administrative priority claims under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code. Likewise, the filing of a proof of claim form, along with an attached Administrative Claim Supplement, if applicable, satisfies the procedural requirements for the assertion of a Rejection Damages Claim (including any administrative claim included therein). Claims asserting administrative expense priority (a) under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code or (b) as a portion of a Rejection Damages Claim must be filed by the General Bar Date and the Rejection Damages Bar Date, respectively.

All other administrative claims under sections 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code will not be deemed proper if asserted by proof of claim. The City intends to establish a process for the assertion of such claims at a future date if and to the extent necessary or appropriate. Note that the claim priorities provided under subsections (a)(1) and (a)(3) through (a)(10) of section 507 of the Bankruptcy Code are inapplicable in chapter 9 pursuant to section 901(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. WHEN AND WHERE TO FILE

All proofs of claim must be filed so as to be received on or before the applicable Bar Date, at the following address (the "City of Detroit Claims Processing Center"):

City of Detroit Claims Processing Center
c/o Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC
2335 Alaska Avenue
El Segundo, CA 90245

Proofs of claim will be deemed filed only when actually received by the City of Detroit Claims Processing Center on or before the applicable Bar Date. Proofs of claim may NOT be delivered by facsimile or electronic mail transmission. Any facsimile or electronic mail submissions will not be accepted and will not be deemed filed until a proof of claim is submitted by one of the methods described above.

Proof of claim forms will be collected from the City of Detroit Claims Processing Center, docketed and maintained by the City's claims agent, Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC ("KCC"). If you wish to receive acknowledgement of KCC's receipt of a proof of claim, you must submit by the applicable Bar Date and concurrently with submitting your original proof of claim (a) a copy of the original proof of claim and (b) a self-addressed, postage prepaid return envelope.

5. WHO DOES NOT NEED TO FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM

The Bar Date Order further provides that entities holding the following claims (which claims otherwise would be subject to the General Bar Date) need not file proofs of claim on account of such claims:

- (a) Any claim for unfunded actuarially accrued healthcare liabilities associated with the City's Health and Life Insurance Benefit Plan and the Supplemental Death Benefit Plan (any such claim, a "Healthcare UAAL Claim").
- (b) Any claim by present or potential future beneficiaries of the City's two pension systems, the General Retirement System and the Police and Fire Retirement System, for unfunded pension liabilities (any such claim, a "Pension Liability Claim").
- (c) Any claim by a holder for the repayment of principal, interest and/or other applicable fees and charges on or under (i) the bonds identified on the "Schedule of Secured Bonds" on the last page of this Notice (collectively, the "Secured Bonds") or (ii) any certificates of participation issued by the City (collectively, the "COPs"). In each case, the trustee or similar entity with respect to the applicable series of Secured Bonds or COPs has informed the City that, consistent with Bankruptcy Rule 3003(c)(5), it intends to: (i) file any proofs of claim against the City on behalf of the holders of the Secured Bonds and the COPs; and (ii) provide notice to the holders of the Secured Bonds and the COPs.

- (d) Any claim arising from an ordinary course entitlement to an income tax refund (to the extent of such claimed entitlement) asserted through the City's established income tax refund procedures, provided, however, that entities holding any other Prepetition Claims or causes of action related to income tax matters that are not properly asserted through the City's established income tax refund procedures must file a proof of claim by the General Bar Date.
- (e) Any claim with respect to which the holder already has filed a signed proof of claim against the City with the Clerk of this Court in a form substantially similar to Official Bankruptcy Form No. 10;
- (f) Any claim that is listed on the List of Claims if (i) the claim is not listed as "disputed," "contingent" or "unliquidated;" and (ii) such entity agrees with the amount, nature and priority of the claim as set forth in the List of Claims;
- (g) Any claim that previously has been allowed by order of the Court;
- (h) Any claim that has been paid in full by the City; and
- (i) Any claim allowable under sections 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code as an expense of administration (other than any 503(b)(9) Claim or any portion of a Rejection Damages Claim asserting administrative priority under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code).

For the avoidance of doubt, employees and retirees asserting Prepetition Claims other than Healthcare UAAL Claims and Pension Liability Claims should file a proof of claim to the extent the filing of such claim is not otherwise made unnecessary by the terms of the foregoing subparagraphs a through i.

6. EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

As described in Section 1 above, any entity wishing to assert a Rejection Damages Claim must file a proof of claim for any prepetition or postpetition damages caused by such rejection, or any other prepetition or postpetition claims of any kind or nature whatsoever relating to the rejected agreement, by the Rejection Damages Bar Date.

7. CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM BY THE APPLICABLE BAR DATE

ANY ENTITY THAT IS REQUIRED TO FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM WITH RESPECT TO A PARTICULAR CLAIM AGAINST THE CITY, BUT THAT FAILS TO DO SO BY THE APPLICABLE BAR DATE DESCRIBED IN THIS NOTICE, SHALL BE FOREVER BARRED, ESTOPPED AND ENJOINED FROM THE FOLLOWING: (A) ASSERTING ANY CLAIM AGAINST THE CITY OR PROPERTY OF THE CITY THAT (I) IS IN AN AMOUNT THAT EXCEEDS THE AMOUNT, IF ANY, THAT IS IDENTIFIED IN THE LIST OF CLAIMS ON BEHALF OF SUCH ENTITY AS UNDISPUTED, NONCONTINGENT AND LIQUIDATED OR (II) IS OF A DIFFERENT NATURE OR A DIFFERENT CLASSIFICATION THAN ANY CLAIM IDENTIFIED IN THE LIST OF CLAIMS ON BEHALF OF SUCH ENTITY (ANY SUCH CLAIM BEING REFERRED TO IN THIS NOTICE AS AN "UNSCHEDULED CLAIM"); (B) VOTING UPON, OR RECEIVING DISTRIBUTIONS UNDER, ANY PLAN OF ADJUSTMENT IN THIS CHAPTER 9 CASE IN RESPECT OF AN UNSCHEDULED CLAIM; OR (C) WITH RESPECT TO ANY 503(B)(9) CLAIM OR ADMINISTRATIVE PRIORITY CLAIM COMPONENT OF ANY REJECTION DAMAGES CLAIM, ASSERTING ANY SUCH PRIORITY CLAIM AGAINST THE CITY OR PROPERTY OF THE CITY.

8. THE CITY'S LIST OF CLAIMS AND ACCESS THERETO

You may be listed as the holder of a claim against the City in the City's List of Claims. To determine if and how you are listed on the List of Claims, please refer to the descriptions set forth on the enclosed proof of claim form(s) regarding the nature, amount and status of your claim(s). See paragraph 10 below for instructions regarding how to access the List of Claims. If you received postpetition payments from the City on account of your claim, the information on the enclosed proof of claim form may reflect the net remaining amount of your claims.

If you rely on the City's List of Claims, it is your responsibility to determine that the claim is accurately listed in the List of Claims. However, you may rely on the enclosed form, which sets forth (a) the amount of your claim (if any) as listed; (b) specifies whether your claim is listed in the List of Claims as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (c) identifies whether your claim is listed as a secured, unsecured priority or unsecured nonpriority claim.

As described above, if you agree with the nature, amount and status of your claim as listed in the City's List of Claims, and if your claim is not described in the Schedules as "disputed," "contingent" or "unliquidated," you need not file a proof of claim. Otherwise, or if you decide to file a proof of claim, you must do so before the applicable Bar Date in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Notice. [Service Version, omit this Section 8 in Publication Version]

9. RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

The City reserves the right to (a) dispute, or to assert offsets or defenses against, any filed claim or any claim listed or reflected in the List of Claims as to nature, amount, liability, priority, classification or otherwise; (b) subsequently designate any listed claim as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (c) otherwise amend or supplement the List of Claims. Nothing contained in this Notice shall preclude the City from objecting to any claim, whether listed or filed, on any grounds.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

You may be required to provide additional disclosure if an interested party objects to the claim.

7. Documents:

Attach redacted copies of any documents that show the debt exists and a lien secures the debt. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest and documents required by FRBP 3001(c) for claims based on an open-end or revolving consumer credit agreement. You may also attach a summary in addition to the documents themselves. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit disclosing confidential health care information. Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning.

8. Date and Signature:

The individual completing this proof of claim must sign and date it. FRBP 9011. If the claim is filed electronically, FRBP 5005(a)(2) authorizes courts to establish local rules specifying what constitutes a signature. If you sign this form, you declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information, and reasonable belief. Your signature is also a certification that the claim meets the requirements of FRBP 9011(b). Whether the claim is filed electronically or in person, if your name is on the signature line, you are responsible for the declaration. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. If the claim is filed by an authorized agent, provide both the name of the individual filing the claim and the name of the agent. If the authorized agent is a servicer, identify the corporate servicer as the company. Criminal penalties apply for making a false statement on a proof of claim.

DEFINITIONS

Debtor

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

Creditor

A creditor is a person, corporation, or other entity to whom debtor owes a debt that was incurred before the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (10).

Claim

A claim is the creditor's right to receive payment for a debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Proof of Claim

A proof of claim is a form used by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The creditor must file the form with the clerk of the same bankruptcy court in which the bankruptcy case was filed.

Secured Claim Under 11 U.S.C. § 506 (a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien.

A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

Unsecured Claim

An unsecured claim is one that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be partly unsecured if the amount of the claim exceeds the value of the property on which the creditor has a lien.

Claim Entitled to Priority as an Administrative Expense Under 11 U.S.C. §§ 503(b)(9) and 507(a)(2)

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured claims that are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims. In a chapter 9 case, 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(9) may provide priority status to claims for "the value of goods received by the debtor within 20 days before the date of commencement of a case.. in which the goods have been sold to the debtor in the ordinary course of such debtor's business." 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(9).

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 901(a), the priorities accorded certain claims under 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(1) and (a)(3-10) are inapplicable in a chapter 9 case.

Redacted

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

Evidence of Perfection

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

INFORMATION

Acknowledgment of Filing of Claim

To receive acknowledgment of your filing, you may either enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this proof of claim or you may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at <http://www.kccllc.net/Detroit>

Offers to Purchase a Claim

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED, as set forth herein, and the Responses are resolved or addressed by the terms of this Order or as set forth on the record of the Hearing.
2. As used herein, (a) the term "claim" has the meaning given to such term in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) the term "entity" has the meaning given to such term in section 101(15) of the Bankruptcy Code and (c) the term "governmental unit" has the meaning given to such term in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code.
3. The form of (a) Notice of Deadlines for Filing of Proofs of Claim attached as Exhibit B to the Reply and attached hereto as Annex I (the "Bar Date Notice") and (b) the proof of claim form attached as Exhibit 6.3 to the Motion and attached hereto as Annex II (the "Proof of Claim Form" and, together with the Bar Date Notice, the "Bar Date Notice Package"), and the manner of providing notice of the Bar Dates proposed in the Motion, are approved in all respects pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 2002(a)(7) and 2002(l). The form and manner of notice of the Bar Dates approved herein are deemed to fulfill the notice requirements of the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules. As such, the Debtors are authorized to serve the Bar Date Notice Package in the manner described in paragraphs 23 through 26 below. In addition, the City is authorized to make non-substantive edits or corrections to the Bar Date Notice and the Proof of Claim form, consistent with the terms of this Order.

4. Except as otherwise provided in this Order, all entities (including, without limitation, individuals, partnerships, corporations, joint ventures and trusts) that assert claims against the City that arose (or are deemed to have arisen) prior to July 18, 2013 (any such claim, a "Prepetition Claim") must file a proof of claim in writing in accordance with the procedures described herein by 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on February 21, 2014 (the "General Bar Date").

5. Except as otherwise provided in this Order, the General Bar Date applies to all types of Prepetition Claims, including secured claims, unsecured priority claims and unsecured nonpriority claims. For the avoidance of doubt, the General Bar Date shall apply to claims asserting administrative expense priority under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code ("503(b)(9) Claims"). The filing of a proof of claim form shall satisfy the procedural requirements for the assertion of 503(b)(9) Claims. All administrative claims under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, other than 503(b)(9) Claims and the administrative portions of Rejection Damages Claims (as defined below), shall not be deemed proper if asserted by proof of claim.

6. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 16 through 19 of this Order with respect to holders of claims subject to the Rejection Damages Bar Date, the Amended Claims List Bar Date and the Governmental Bar Date, and the exceptions described in paragraph 8 below, the following entities must file a proof of claim on or before the General Bar Date:

(a) Any entity: (i) whose prepetition claim against the City is not listed in the List of Claims or is listed as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (ii) that desires to share in any distribution in this bankruptcy case and/or otherwise participate in the proceedings in this bankruptcy case associated with the confirmation of any chapter 9 plan of adjustment proposed by the City (a "Chapter 9 Plan"); and

(b) Any entity that believes that its prepetition claim is improperly classified in the List of Claims or is listed in an incorrect amount or priority and that desires to have its claim allowed in a classification, priority or amount other than that identified in the List of Claims, provided that any holder of GO Bonds (as defined below) asserting a claim solely for principal and interest in connection with such bonds is not required to file a proof of claim to preserve its right to a pro rata share of distributions on account of the amount of principal and interest under such bonds listed in the City's List of Claims.

7. The following procedures for the filing of proofs of claim shall apply:

(a) Proofs of claim must be on the Proof of Claim Form or otherwise conform substantially to Official Bankruptcy Form No. 10;

(b) Proofs of claim must be filed by mailing the original proof of claim or delivering the original proof of claim by hand or overnight courier either to: (a) the City of Detroit Claims Processing Center c/o Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC, 2335 Alaska Avenue, El Segundo, CA 90245; or (b) the Clerk of the Court, United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, 211 West Fort Street, Suite 1700, Detroit, Michigan 48226. Proofs of claim submitted by facsimile, electronic mail or electronic (ECF) court filing shall not be accepted and shall not be deemed properly filed;

(c) Proofs of claim will be deemed timely filed only if actually received by the City's claims agent, Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC ("KCC"), or the Court at the addresses set forth in the foregoing subparagraph on or before the applicable Bar Date. If a creditor wishes to receive acknowledgement of receipt of a proof of claim by KCC or the Clerk of this Court (the "Clerk's Office"), the creditor also must submit to KCC or Clerk's Office by the applicable Bar Date and concurrently with submitting its original proof of claim: (i) a copy of the original proof of claim; and (ii) for claims submitted to KCC or by mail to the Clerk's Office, a self-addressed, postage prepaid return envelope; and

(d) Proofs of claim must (i) be signed by the claimant or by an authorized agent of the claimant; (ii) include any documents upon which the claim is based (or, if such documents are voluminous, a summary) or an explanation as to why the documents are not available; (iii) be written in the English language; and (iv) be denominated in United States currency. Any claimant that provides a summary in lieu of the documentation required by Bankruptcy Rule 3001 shall transmit the documents in support of its claim to KCC and the City within ten days after the date of any written request by the City for such documents.

8. Entities holding the following claims (to the extent such claims would be subject to the General Bar Date) shall not be required to file proofs of claim in this chapter 9 case on account of such claims:

(a) Any claim for liabilities associated with post-employment benefits under the City's Health and Life Insurance Benefit Plan, the Supplemental Death Benefit Plan or other non-pension post-employment welfare benefits, including unfunded actuarially accrued liabilities (any such claim, a "Healthcare Liability Claim").

(b) Any claim by present or potential future beneficiaries of the City's two pension systems, the General Retirement System and the Police and Fire Retirement System, for pension benefits or unfunded pension liabilities (any such claim, a "Pension Liability Claim").

(c) Any claim of (or on behalf of) an active employee for ordinary course compensation and employment benefits, including, without limitation, wages, salaries, employee medical benefits and/or insurance benefits ("Ordinary Course Compensation Claims"), provided, however, that Ordinary Course Compensation Claims shall not include claims asserted or to be asserted in any lawsuit or similar proceeding even where such claims assert as damages an entitlement to wages, salaries, employee medical benefits and/or insurance benefits.

(d) Any claim by a holder for the repayment of principal, interest and/or other applicable fees and charges on or under (i) the Secured Bonds or (ii) the COPs.

(e) Any claim by a holder for the repayment of principal or interest on or under the City's unlimited tax general obligation bonds, limited tax general obligation bonds and general fund bonds (collectively, the "GO Bonds") to preserve its right to a pro rata share of distributions on account of the amount of principal and interest under such bonds listed in the City's List of Claims.

(f) Any claim arising from an ordinary course entitlement to an income tax refund (to the extent of such claimed entitlement) asserted through the City's established income tax refund procedures, provided, however, that entities holding any other Prepetition Claims or causes of action related to income tax matters that are not properly asserted through the City's established income tax refund procedures must file a proof of claim by the General Bar Date.

(g) Any claim with respect to which the holder already has filed a signed proof of claim against the City with the Clerk's Office or KCC in a form substantially similar to Official Bankruptcy Form No. 10;

(h) Any claim that is listed on the List of Claims if (i) the claim is not listed as "disputed," "contingent" or "unliquidated;" and (ii) such entity agrees with the amount, nature and priority of the claim as set forth in the List of Claims;

(i) Any claim that previously has been allowed by order of the Court;

(j) Any claim that has been paid in full by the City; and

(k) Any claim allowable under sections 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code as an expense of administration (other than any proof of claim is without prejudice to the right of any Public Safety Union member to file a claim on his or her own behalf.

12. The Retiree Committee may file one or more protective proofs of claim on behalf of retirees and their beneficiaries on account of Healthcare Liability Claims and Pension Liability Claims, subject to the City's rights to object to such claims. For the avoidance of doubt, it is not necessary for the Retiree Committee to file any such proof of claim: (a) to preserve the rights of retirees and their beneficiaries to receive any distributions from the City to which they may be entitled; or (b) to vote on any Chapter 9 Plan, to the extent such retirees and beneficiaries otherwise would be entitled to do so. In addition, nothing herein shall preclude the Retirement Systems from filing proofs of claim on behalf of retirees and beneficiaries on account of Pension Liability Claims, nor shall this Order constitute a judicial determination of the proper party or parties to assert any claim.

13. UAW may file one or more omnibus proofs of claim on behalf of UAW-represented employees and former employees, regardless of the nature of such claims, including, without limitation, claims for post-retirement health obligations, pension obligations (whether benefits, underfunding or otherwise) or other compensation, subject to the City's right to object to any such claims. The City shall reasonably cooperate with UAW in providing names and addresses of City retirees who are former employees of UAW-represented City bargaining units to the extent the City has such information. The filing of any such omnibus proof of claim is without prejudice to the right of any UAW-represented employee or former employee to file a claim on his or her own behalf.

14. AFSCME may file one or more omnibus proofs of claim on behalf of AFSCME-represented employees and former employees, regardless of the nature of such claims, including, without limitation, claims for post-retirement health obligations, pension obligations (whether benefits, underfunding or otherwise) or other compensation, subject to the City's right to object to any such claims. The City shall reasonably cooperate with AFSCME in providing names and addresses of City retirees who are former employees of AFSCME-represented City bargaining units to the extent the City has such information. The filing of any such omnibus proof of claim is without prejudice to the right of any AFSCME-represented employee or former employee to file a claim on his or her own behalf.

15. For the avoidance of doubt, the classification, priority and treatment of claims for principal and interest under the GO Bonds pursuant to any Chapter 9 Plan shall not be affected by any provision of this Order or by whether or not the holders of GO Bonds file or do not file proofs of claim.

16. Any entities asserting claims arising from or relating to the rejection of executory contracts or unexpired leases, in accordance with section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and pursuant to an order of this Court entered prior to the confirmation of the City's Chapter 9 Plan (a "Rejection Order"), or claims otherwise related to such rejected agreements, including (a) secured claims, unsecured priority claims and unsecured nonpriority claims that arose or are deemed to have arisen prior to the Petition Date and (b) administrative claims under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, "Rejection Damages Claims") are required to file proofs of claim by the later of (a) the General Bar Date and (b) 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the first business day that is at least 30 days after the entry of the applicable Rejection Order (the "Rejection Damages Bar Date"). For the avoidance of doubt, all prepetition and postpetition claims of any kind or nature relating to executory contracts or unexpired leases rejected by a Rejection Order must be filed by the Rejection Damages Bar Date. Rejection Orders entered after the date of entry of this Order shall include a description of the Rejection Damages Bar Date in the text of the Rejection Order.

17. Each entity asserting a Rejection Damages Claim with an administrative claim component must file, along with its proof of claim, a detailed statement describing the nature and basis of the portion of the Rejection Damages Claim asserting an administrative priority under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Administrative Claim Supplement"). The filing of a proof of claim form, along with an attached Administrative Claim Supplement, if applicable, shall satisfy the procedural requirements for the assertion of a Rejection Damages Claim (including any administrative claim included therein).

18. The City shall retain the right to: (a) dispute, or assert offsets or defenses against, any Filed Claim or any Scheduled Claim as to nature, amount, liability, classification, priority or otherwise; (b) subsequently designate any Scheduled Claim as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (c) otherwise amend or supplement the List of Claims. If the City amends or supplements the List of Claims after the Service Date, the City shall give notice of any such amendment or supplement to the holders of claims affected thereby, including notice of the applicable Amended Claims List Bar Date to file proofs of claim in response to the amendment or supplement to the List of Claims.

19. In particular, if the City amends or supplements its List of Claims to: (a) reduce the undisputed, noncontingent and liquidated amount of a claim; (b) change the nature, classification or priority of a Scheduled Claim in a manner adverse to the listed creditor; or (c) add a new Scheduled Claim to the List of Claims with respect to a party that was not previously served with notice of the Bar Dates (in each case, a "Modified Claim"), the affected claimant shall be permitted to file a proof of claim, or amend any previously filed proof of claim, in respect of the Modified Claim in accordance with the procedures described herein by the later of (a) the General Bar Date; and (b) 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the first business day that is at least 30 days after the date that notice of the applicable amendment to the List of Claims is served on the claimant (the "Amended Claims List Bar Date"). By contrast, if the amendment to the List of Claims improves the amount or treatment of a previously listed or filed claim, a claimant that previously was served with a notice of the Bar Dates is not permitted to file additional claims by the Amended Claims List Bar Date; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be construed to limit, enhance or otherwise affect a claimant's right to amend a timely filed proof of claim.

20. Nothing contained in this Order shall preclude the City from objecting to any claim, whether listed or filed, on any grounds. In addition, nothing herein limits, or is intended to limit, any claimant's rights to defend against any objection.

21. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3002(c)(1), the date by which governmental units shall file proofs of claim in this case shall be the later of: (a) the first business day that is at least 180 days following the date of the entry of an order for relief in this case; and (b) any Rejection Damages Bar Date or Amended Claims List Bar Date applicable to the governmental unit.

22. Pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3003(c)(2), any entity that is required to file a proof of claim in this case pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules or this Order with respect to a particular claim against the City, but that fails properly to do so by the applicable Bar Date, shall be forever barred, estopped and enjoined from:

(a) asserting any claim against the City or property of the City that (i) is in an amount that exceeds the amount, if any, that is identified in the List of Claims on behalf of such entity as undisputed, noncontingent and liquidated or (ii) is of a different nature or a different classification or priority than any Scheduled Claim identified in the List of Claims on behalf of such entity (any such claim under subparagraph (a) of this paragraph being referred to herein as an "Unscheduled Claim"); (b) voting upon, or receiving distributions under any Chapter 9 Plan in this case in respect of an Unscheduled Claim; or (c) with respect to any 503(b)(9) Claim or administrative priority claim component of any Rejection Damages Claim, asserting any such priority claim against the City or property of the City.

23. Within five business days after the entry of this Order or as soon as practicable thereafter, the City, through KCC or otherwise, shall serve the Bar Date Notice Package by first class mail, postage prepaid (or equivalent service), on:

- (a) all known potential claimants (or their counsel, if known), including all entities identified as potential claim holders in the List of Claims;
- (b) the Trustees;
- (c) counsel to the Official Committee of Retirees appointed in this case;

- (d) all parties that have requested notice of the proceedings in this case as of the date of this Order;
- (e) all parties that have filed proofs of claim in this case as of the date of this Order;
- (f) all known parties to executory contracts and unexpired leases with the City, including all parties to executory contracts and unexpired leases rejected by a Rejection Order, if any, as of the date of this Order;
- (g) all known parties to pending litigation with the City;
- (h) the United States Attorney for this District; and
- (i) all federal and state environmental protection agencies for this jurisdiction.

24. The City also shall serve the Bar Date Notice on the holders of the GO Bonds. If DTC has not already provided the Institutional Nominee List to the City as of the date of this Order, DTC is directed to provide the City with the Institutional Nominee List within three business days of this date or as soon as practicable thereafter. Service of the Bar Date Notice by electronic mail on those holders of the GO Bonds that previously consented in writing to receive notices regarding the GO Bonds by electronic mail shall constitute adequate notice of the Bar Dates on such holders.

25. As part of the Bar Date Package, the City shall mail one or more Proof of Claim Forms (as appropriate) to the parties receiving the Bar Date Notice. Except with respect to holders of GO Bonds, for holders of Scheduled Claims listed in the List of Claims, the Proof of Claim Form mailed to such entities shall indicate how the City has listed the creditor's claim in the List of Claims, including: (a) the amount of the claim, if any; (b) whether the claim is listed as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (c) whether the claim is listed as a secured claim or an unsecured nonpriority claim. Along with Proof of Claim Forms distributed to the holders of GO Bonds, the City will provide a schedule identifying the amount listed in the List of Claims for each series of GO Bonds.

26. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002(f), the City shall publish the Bar Date Notice, once, in the Detroit Free Press, The Detroit News and national editions of USA Today and The Wall Street Journal at least 28 days prior to the General Bar Date, which publication is hereby approved and shall be deemed good, adequate and sufficient publication notice of the Bar Dates. The City is authorized to modify the Bar Date Notice to the extent necessary or appropriate to conform the Bar Date Notice to publication and minimize expense.

27. The City and KCC are authorized and empowered to take such steps and perform such acts as may be necessary to implement and effectuate the terms of this Order.

28. The entry of this Order is without prejudice to the right of the City to seek a further order of this Court fixing a date by which holders of claims or interests not subject to the Bar Dates established herein must file such proofs of claim or interest or be barred from doing so.

NOTICE OF DEADLINES FOR FILING OF PROOFS OF CLAIM
(GENERAL BAR DATE IS FEBRUARY 21, 2014
AT 4:00 P.M., EASTERN TIME)

TO ALL PERSONS AND ENTITIES WITH CLAIMS AGAINST THE CITY OF DETROIT, MICHIGAN (THE "CITY"):

On [_____], 2013, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Michigan (the "Court") entered an order (Docket No. [___]) (the "Bar Date Order") establishing certain deadlines for the filing of proofs of claim in the chapter 9 bankruptcy case of the City.

By the Bar Date Order, the Court established February 21, 2014 at 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time (the "General Bar Date"), as the general claims bar date for filing proofs of claim in the City's case. As described below, certain claimants are not required to file proofs of claim with respect to their claims, and the Bar Date Order also establishes different bar dates with respect to certain categories of claims. See Section 1 for more information. To determine if you need to file a proof of claim in this case and the applicable deadline and instructions for filing a proof of claim, please read this Notice carefully.

List of Claims

On September 30, 2013, the City filed its Second Amended List of Creditors and Claims, Pursuant to Sections 924 and 925 of the Bankruptcy Code (Docket No. 1059), which constitutes the City's list of claims (as amended or supplemented from time to time, the "List of Claims") under section 925 of title 11 the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"). Any claim identified on the List of Claims is referred to herein as a "Scheduled Claim."

Proof of Claim Form

For your convenience, enclosed with this Notice is a proof of claim form (the "Claim Form"), which identifies on its face the amount, nature and classification of your claim(s), if any, listed in the City's List of Claims. If you are the holder of a general obligation bond (defined in Section 1 as GO Bonds), please note that the List of Claims identifies the City's calculation of the total bond debt by series as of commencement of the City's bankruptcy case on July 18, 2013, and the List of Claims does not identify the amount owed to any particular bondholder. If you are a holder of a GO Bond, the amount listed by the City in the List of Claims for each series of GO Bonds is provided with your Claim Form.

A blank copy of the Claim Form is available on the City's restructuring website at www.kccllc.net/detroit, along with all other documents filed in the City's bankruptcy case. [Note: The preceding two paragraphs are for the service version, not the publication version, of this Notice.]

For the convenience of potential claimants, a proof of claim form prepared for use in the City's chapter 9 case (the "Claim Form"), along with all other documents filed in the City's bankruptcy case, is available on the City's restructuring website at www.kccllc.net/detroit. [Note: This paragraph is for the publication version of this Notice.]

Certain Definitions

The following definitions come from the Bankruptcy Code and are provided for your convenience.

As used in this Notice the term "entity" has the meaning given to it in section 101(15) of the Bankruptcy Code and includes, among other things, individuals, partnerships, corporations, joint ventures and trusts.

As used in this Notice, the term "claim" means, as to or against the City and in accordance with section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code: (a) any right to payment, whether or not such right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured or unsecured; or (b) any right to an equitable remedy for breach of performance if such breach gives rise to a right to payment, whether or not such right to an equitable remedy is reduced to judgment, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, secured or unsecured.

SECTION 1 — WHO IS NOT REQUIRED TO FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM

SUMMARY

- Section 1 describes which of the City's creditors are not required to file a claim. It states that the following creditors, among others, are not required to file a claim:
  - City retirees and their beneficiaries are not required to file claims for pension or healthcare benefits or other post-employment welfare benefits. The City will work with retiree representatives to establish an appropriate process for retirees and their beneficiaries to vote on and receive payments under any restructuring plan.
  - City employees and their beneficiaries are not required to file claims for pension or healthcare benefits, routine wages or other employment benefits. The City will work with employee representatives to establish an appropriate process for employees to vote on and receive payments under any restructuring plan.
  - Taxpayers are not required to file claims for routine income tax refunds. The City will continue to process routine income tax refunds according to its usual procedures.
  - Bondholders holding any of the bonds identified on the "Schedule of Secured Bonds" on the last two pages of this Notice and holders of Certificates of Participation issued by the City are not required to file claims for the repayment of principal, interest and/or other applicable fees and charges. In each case, the applicable trustee or other agent has agreed to file the claim on behalf of the holders.
  - Other bondholders holding general obligation bonds are not required to file claims to receive their pro rata share of distributions on account of the amount of principal and interest listed on the City's list of claims. See Section 8 for more details about the list of claims.
- A restructuring plan is a document that explains how the City proposes to pay the amounts it owes to its creditors. Once filed, this plan will be available for creditors to review. If you are not required to file a claim, you do not need to complete and return a claim form, and you will still keep your rights to vote on a restructuring plan and receive payments under the plan. Who gets to vote on the plan will be determined at a later date. The amount you may receive under the plan also will be determined later. The plan may propose that you receive less than the amount you are owed.
- Even if you are not required to file a claim form, you are permitted to do so.

The Bar Date Order provides that entities holding the following claims are not required to file proofs of claim on account of such claims to preserve any right they may have to receive distributions from the City and vote on any chapter 9 plan of adjustment (a "Plan") proposed by the City:

- (a) Claims of retirees, employees or other beneficiaries for (a) post-employment benefits under the City's Health and Life Insurance Benefit Plan, the Supplemental Death Benefit Plan or other non-pension post-employment welfare benefits, including unfunded actuarially accrued liabilities (any such claim, a "Retirement Healthcare Claim") and (b) pension benefits (any such claim, a "Pension Claim") under the City's two retirement systems, the General Retirement System and the Police and Fire Retirement System (together, the "Retirement Systems"). In consultation with the Official Committee of Retirees appointed in the Chapter 9 Case (the "Retiree Committee"), other groups representing the interests of current and future recipients of post-employment healthcare and pension benefits and, in the case of Pension Claims, the Retirement Systems, the City intends to establish an appropriate mechanism for such retirees, employees or other beneficiaries to vote on any Plan with respect to any pension and healthcare claims they may possess.
- (b) Claims of active employees for ordinary course compensation and employment benefits including, without limitation, wages, salaries, employee medical benefits and insurance benefits ("Ordinary Course Compensation Claims"). The City intends to continue to pay Ordinary Course Compensation Claims in the normal course. Accordingly, active employees need not file proofs of claim on account of Ordinary Course Compensation Claims. For the avoidance of doubt, claims asserted or to be asserted in any lawsuit or similar proceeding are not Ordinary Course

Compensation Claims even where the claims assert as damages an entitlement to wages, salaries, employee medical benefits and/or insurance benefits.

- (c) Any claim by a holder for the repayment of principal, interest and/or other applicable fees and charges on or under (i) the bonds identified on the "Schedule of Secured Bonds" on the last two pages of this Notice (collectively, the "Secured Bonds") or (ii) any certificates of participation issued by the City (collectively, the "COPs"). In each case, the trustee or similar entity with respect to the applicable series of Secured Bonds or COPs has informed the City that, consistent with Bankruptcy Rule 3003(c), it intends to: (i) file any proofs of claim against the City on behalf of the holders of the Secured Bonds and the COPs; and (ii) provide notice to the holders of the Secured Bonds and the COPs.
- (d) Any claim by a holder for the repayment of principal or interest on or under the City's unlimited tax general obligation bonds, limited tax general obligation bonds and general fund bonds (collectively, the "GO Bonds" or "general obligations bonds") to preserve its right to a pro rata share of payments on account of the amount of principal and interest under such bonds listed in the List of Claims. Holders of GO Bonds with claims for amounts beyond principal and interest under these bonds are required to file claims for those additional amounts unless another exception applies. Also, the insurers of the GO Bonds must file any claims relating to the GO Bonds by the General Bar Date. The classification, priority and treatment of claims for principal and interest under the GO Bonds pursuant to any Chapter 9 Plan shall not be affected by any provision of the Bar Date Order or by whether or not the holders of GO Bonds file or do not file proofs of claim.
- (e) Any claim arising from an ordinary course entitlement to an income tax refund (to the extent of such claimed entitlement) asserted through the City's established income tax refund procedures, provided, however, that entities holding any other Prepetition Claims or causes of action related to income tax matters that are not properly asserted through the City's established income tax refund procedures must file a proof of claim by the General Bar Date.
- (f) Any claim with respect to which the holder already has filed a signed proof of claim against the City with the Clerk of this Court in a form substantially similar to Official Bankruptcy Form No. 10.
- (g) Any claim that is listed on the List of Claims if (i) the claim is not listed as "disputed," "contingent" or "unliquidated;" and (ii) such entity agrees with the amount, nature and priority of the claim as set forth in the List of Claims.
- (h) Any claim that previously has been allowed by order of the Court.
- (i) Any claim that has been paid in full by the City.
- (j) Any claim allowable under sections 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code as an expense of administration (other than any 503(b)(9) Claim or any portion of a Rejection Damages Claim asserting administrative priority under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code).

For the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein or in the Bar Date Order affects any right that the claimants identified in subsections (a) through (h) of this Section 1 may have to vote on and receive distributions under any Plan proposed by the City. Further, nothing herein or in the Bar Date Order should be construed as an agreement by the City or a determination by the Court that any particular party is the proper holder of any specific claim against the City with the right to vote on any Plan proposed by the City and receive distributions from the City on account of such claim.

Nothing in this Section 1 limits the right of any entity (including, without limitation, the City, the Retiree Committee, the Retirement Systems or the City's unions, employees, retirees, bondholders, bond insurers, trustees, paying agents or any other entity) to (a) assert any proof of claim authorized under the Bankruptcy Code or (b) object to any proof of claim on any grounds to the extent permitted under the Bankruptcy Code.

SECTION 2 — WHO MUST FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM

SUMMARY

- Section 2 explains who must file a claim. If none of the exceptions in Section 1 apply to you, then you must file a claim.
- Note that the instructions in this document are for filing claims for any amounts owed to you by the City that "arose" before July 18, 2013, when this bankruptcy case was filed. That may include amounts promised to you before July 18, 2013, even if they were not due until later.
- If you are the holder of a bond listed at the end of this document, or the holder of a Certificate of Participation, a trustee or agent has indicated that it will file a claim on your behalf.
- If you hold general obligation bonds, you are not required to file claims for your pro rata share of distributions on account of the amount of principal and interest listed on the City's list of claims. See Section 8 for more details about the list of claims. Claims for other amounts should be filed by the deadline.
- Even if you are not required to file a claim form, you are permitted to do so.

If none of the exceptions described in Section 1 applies, and if you have a claim that arose or is deemed to have arisen prior to the Filing Date (any such claim, a "Prepetition Claim"), you MUST file a proof of claim to share in distributions from the City's bankruptcy case and to vote on a Plan. Claims based on acts or omissions of the City that occurred before the Filing Date must be filed on or prior to the applicable Bar Date, even if such claims are not now fixed, liquidated or certain or did not mature or become fixed, liquidated or certain before the Filing Date.

Except where one of the exceptions described in Section 1 applies (or where the Rejection Damages Bar Date, the Amended Claims List Bar Date or the Governmental Bar Date applies to establish a different deadline), the following entities must file proofs of claim on or before the General Bar Date:

- (a) any entity (i) whose Prepetition Claim against the City is not listed in the City's List of Claims or is listed as "disputed," "contingent" or "unliquidated" and (ii) that desires to share in any distribution in this bankruptcy case and/or otherwise participate in the proceedings in this bankruptcy case associated with the confirmation of any Plan; and
- (b) any entity that believes its Prepetition Claim is improperly classified in the List of Claims or is listed in an incorrect amount or priority and that desires to have its claim allowed in a classification, priority or amount other than that identified in the List of Claims, provided that any holder of GO Bonds asserting a claim for principal and interest in connection with such bonds is not required to file a proof of claim to preserve its right to a pro rata share of distributions on account of the amount of principal and interest under such bonds listed in the City's List of Claims.

Note that the Bar Date Order should not be construed as an agreement by the City or a determination by the Court that any particular party is the proper holder of any specific claim against the City with the right to vote on any Plan proposed by the City and receive distributions from the City on account of such claim.

SECTION 3 — THE BAR DATES

SUMMARY

- Section 3 states that the general deadline for creditors to file claims is February 21, 2014 at 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time.
- "Bar date" is the legal term for the deadline to file a claim form.
- There are other later deadlines for filing claims that apply to certain parties. Additional information about these deadlines will be sent to those parties. These deadlines also are explained in Section 3.

The Bar Date Order establishes the following bar dates for filing proofs of claim in this case (collectively, the "Bar Dates"):

- (a) The General Bar Date. Pursuant to the Bar Date Order, except as described below, all entities holding claims against the City that arose (or are deemed to have arisen) prior to the commencement of this case are required to file proofs of claim by the General Bar Date (i.e., by February 21, 2014 at 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time). This case was commenced on July 18, 2013 (the "Filing Date"). The General Bar Date applies to all types of claims against the City that arose prior to the Filing Date, including secured claims, unsecured priority claims and unsecured nonpriority claims. For the avoidance of doubt, the General Bar Date applies to all claims asserting administrative expense priority under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code, subject to Section 4 below.
- (b) The Rejection Damages Bar Date. Pursuant to the Bar Date Order, any entity asserting claims arising from or relating to the rejection of executory contracts or unexpired leases, in accordance with section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and pursuant to an order entered prior to the confirmation and effectiveness of a Plan (any such order, a "Rejection Order"), or claims otherwise related to such rejected agreements, including (i) secured claims, unsecured priority claims and unsecured nonpriority claims that arose or are deemed to have arisen prior to the Filing Date and (ii) administrative claims under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, "Rejection Damages Claims") are required to file proofs of claim by the later of (a) the General Bar Date and (b) 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the first business day that is at least 30 days after the entry of the relevant Rejection Order. The later of these dates is referred to in this Notice as the "Rejection Damages Bar Date." For the avoidance of doubt, all prepetition and postpetition claims of any kind or nature arising from or relating to executory contracts or unexpired leases rejected by a Rejection Order must be filed by the Rejection Damages Bar Date. In accordance with the Bar Date Order, any Rejection Order entered by the Bankruptcy Court will specify the Rejection Damages Bar Date applicable to any executory contracts or unexpired leases rejected thereunder.
- (c) The Amended Claims List Bar Date. Pursuant to the Bar Date Order, if, subsequent to the date of this Notice, the City amends or supplements its List of Claims to: (i) reduce the undisputed, noncontingent and liquidated amount of a claim; (ii) change the nature, classification or priority of a Scheduled Claim in a manner adverse to the listed creditor; or (iii) add a new Scheduled Claim to the List of Claims with respect to a party that was not previously served with notice of the Bar Dates (in each case, a "Modified Claim"), the affected claimant shall be permitted to file a proof of claim, or amend any previously filed proof of claim, in respect of the Modified Claim in accordance with the procedures described herein by the later of (i) the General Bar Date; and (ii) 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the first business day that is at least 30 days after the date that notice of the applicable amendment to the List of Claims is served on the claimant (the "Amended Claims List Bar Date"). The City will provide notice of any Amended Claims List Bar Date to affected claimants. Affected claimants that previously filed a proof of claim (any such claim, a "Filed Claim") with respect to the liabilities giving rise to any Modified Claim need not refile their proof of claim because the Filed Claim is deemed to supersede and replace the original Scheduled Claim and the Modified Claim. In addition, if the City's amendment to the List of Claims improves the amount or treatment of a Scheduled Claim or a Filed Claim, a claimant that previously was served with a notice of the Bar Dates is not permitted to file additional claims by the Amended Claims List Bar Date; provided, however, that nothing contained in the Bar Date Order shall be construed to limit, enhance or otherwise affect a claimant's right to amend a timely filed proof of claim. In addition, notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein precludes the City from objecting to any Scheduled Claim or Filed Claim on any grounds.

- (d) The Governmental Bar Date. Governmental units (as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code) are not subject to the General Bar Date. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3002(c)(1), the date by which governmental units must file proofs of claim in this case (the "Governmental Unit Bar Date") is the later of: (i) the first business day that is at least 180 days following the date of the entry of an order for relief in this case; and (ii) any Rejection Damages Bar Date or Amended Claims List Bar Date applicable to the governmental unit. No order for relief has yet been entered in the City's chapter 9 case, and proceedings to establish the City's eligibility to be a chapter 9 debtor are ongoing at this time. If the City prevails in establishing eligibility, the Court will enter an order for relief consistent with section 921(d) of the Bankruptcy Code. [Update as appropriate at time that this Notice is finalized.] The City will provide notice of the entry of an order for relief to all known creditors that are governmental units of the Court's entry of an order for relief and the resulting Governmental Bar Date.

SECTION 4 — WHAT TO FILE

SUMMARY

- Section 4 explains the paperwork for filing a claim.
- The claim form is sometimes called a "proof of claim."
- You must complete and sign the claim form and provide all necessary supporting documentation or a summary of this documentation.
- The amount owed to you must be listed in U.S. dollars, and the form must be filled out in English.
- The claim form includes instructions and explanations to assist you.
- A claim form is enclosed. Extra copies are available for free on the internet at www.kccllc.net/detroit.

As noted above, the City is enclosing a Claim Form for use in this case, or you may use another proof of claim form that conforms substantially to Official Bankruptcy Form No. 10. If your claim is listed by the City on its List of Claims (other than claims arising from GO Bonds), the attached Claim Form sets forth: (a) the amount of your claim (if any) as listed by the City; (b) whether your claim is listed as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (c) whether your claim is listed as a secured claim or an unsecured nonpriority claim. If you are the holder of a GO Bond, please note that the List of Claims identifies the City's calculation of the total bond debt by series as of the Filing Date, and the List of Claims does not identify the amount owed to any particular bondholder. If you are a holder of a GO Bond, the amount listed by the City in the List of Claims for each series of GO Bonds is provided with your Claim Form.

You will receive a different Claim Form for each claim listed in your name by the City. You may utilize the Claim Form(s) provided by the City to file your claim. Additional proof of claim forms may be obtained at the following websites: (a) www.kccllc.net/detroit for a blank Claim Form designed specifically for this case or (b) www.uscourts.gov/bkforms for a copy of Official Bankruptcy Form No. 10. [Note: The preceding two paragraphs are for the service version, not the publication version, of this Notice.]

To file your claim, you may use (a) the Claim Form specifically prepared for this chapter 9 case, which is available at www.kccllc.net/detroit or (b) another proof of claim form that conforms substantially to Official Bankruptcy Form No. 10 (which form is available at www.uscourts.gov/bkforms). [Note: This paragraph is for the publication version of this Notice.]

All proof of claim forms must be signed by the claimant or by an authorized agent of the claimant. The proof of claim form must be written in English and be denominated in United States currency. You should attach to your completed proof of claim form any documents on which the claim is based (the "Supporting Documents") (or, if the Supporting Documents are voluminous, you may attach a summary) or an explanation as to why the documents are not available. If you file a summary of the Supporting Documents because they are voluminous, you must transmit the Supporting Documents to (a) the City of Detroit Claims Processing Center (as defined below) and (b) the City within ten days after the date of a written request by the City for such documents.

Each entity asserting a Rejection Damages Claim with an administrative claim component must file, along with its proof of claim, a detailed statement describing the nature and basis of the portion of the Rejection Damages Claim asserting an administrative priority under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Administrative Claim Supplement").

Under the Bar Date Order, the filing of a proof of claim form satisfies the procedural requirements for the assertion of any administrative priority claims under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code. Likewise, the filing of a proof of claim form, along with an attached Administrative Claim Supplement, if applicable, satisfies the procedural requirements for the assertion of a Rejection Damages Claim (including any administrative claim included therein). Claims asserting administrative expense priority (a) under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code or (b) as a portion of a Rejection Damages Claim must be filed by the General Bar Date and the Rejection Damages Bar Date, respectively.

All other administrative claims under sections 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code will not be deemed proper if asserted by proof of claim. The City intends to establish a process for the assertion of such claims at a future date if and to the extent necessary or appropriate. Note that the claim priorities provided under subsections (a)(1) and (a)(3) through (a)(10) of section 507 of the Bankruptcy Code are inapplicable in chapter 9 pursuant to section 901(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you wish to receive acknowledgement of receipt of a proof of claim, you must submit by the applicable Bar Date and concurrently with submitting your original proof of claim (a) a copy of the original proof of claim and (b) for claims submitted to KCC or by mail to the Clerk's Office, a self-addressed, postage prepaid return envelope.

SECTION 6 — EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

SUMMARY

- Section 6 provides special rules for creditors asserting claims arising from contracts that the City rejects during its bankruptcy case.
- "Rejecting" a contract is a special bankruptcy power that allows the City to stop performing certain agreements upon approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

As described in Section 3 above, any entity wishing to assert a Rejection Damages Claim must file a proof of claim for any prepetition or postpetition damages caused by such rejection, or any other prepetition or postpetition claims of any kind or nature whatsoever relating to the rejected agreement, by the Rejection Damages Bar Date.

SECTION 7 — CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM BY THE APPLICABLE BAR DATE

SUMMARY

- Section 7 explains what happens if you are required to file a claim by the deadline, but do not.
- In that case, you will lose the right to vote on or receive payments under the City's restructuring plan.

ANY ENTITY THAT IS REQUIRED TO FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM WITH RESPECT TO A PARTICULAR CLAIM AGAINST THE CITY, BUT THAT FAILS TO DO SO BY THE APPLICABLE BAR DATE DESCRIBED IN THIS NOTICE, SHALL BE FOREVER BARRED, ESTOPPED AND ENJOINED FROM THE FOLLOWING: (A) ASSERTING ANY CLAIM AGAINST THE CITY OR PROPERTY OF THE CITY THAT (I) IS IN AN AMOUNT THAT EXCEEDS THE AMOUNT, IF ANY, THAT IS IDENTIFIED IN THE LIST OF CLAIMS ON BEHALF OF SUCH ENTITY AS UNDISPUTED, NONCONTINGENT AND

LIQUIDATED OR (II) IS OF A DIFFERENT NATURE OR A DIFFERENT CLASSIFICATION OR PRIORITY THAN ANY CLAIM IDENTIFIED IN THE LIST OF CLAIMS ON BEHALF OF SUCH ENTITY (ANY SUCH CLAIM BEING REFERRED TO IN THIS NOTICE AS AN "UNSCHEDULED CLAIM"); (B) VOTING UPON, OR RECEIVING DISTRIBUTIONS UNDER, ANY PLAN IN THIS CHAPTER 9 CASE IN RESPECT OF AN UNSCHEDULED CLAIM; OR (C) WITH RESPECT TO ANY 503(B)(9) CLAIM OR ADMINISTRATIVE PRIORITY CLAIM COMPONENT OF ANY REJECTION DAMAGES CLAIM, ASSERTING ANY SUCH PRIORITY CLAIM AGAINST THE CITY OR PROPERTY OF THE CITY.

SECTION 8 — THE CITY'S LIST OF CLAIMS

SUMMARY

- Section 8 explains that the City filed a list of the claims that it believes it owes.
- The enclosed claim form will show how the City listed your claim. A copy of the claim list also is available on the internet at www.kccllc.net/detroit.
- Note that the City's bond debt was listed by bond series. Individual bondholders were not listed. The claim form sent to holders of general obligation bonds will include a list of all series of general obligation bonds, showing the City's calculation of the total principal and interest as of the date the bankruptcy was filed.
- If your claim is on the claim list, that means the City may have filed a claim for you. Please review the information carefully. If the City listed your claim with any of these labels, you cannot rely on the City's claim: "contingent" or "unliquidated" or "disputed." If you see any of these words next to your claim, you must file the claim form by the deadline if the claim deadline applies to you. The parties listed in Section 1 do not have to file a claim form by the deadline.

You may be listed as the holder of a claim against the City in the City's List of Claims. To determine if and how you are listed on the List of Claims, please refer to the descriptions set forth on the enclosed proof of claim form(s) regarding the nature, amount and status of your claim(s). See Section 10 below for instructions regarding how to access the List of Claims. If you received postpetition payments from the City on account of your claim, the information on the enclosed proof of claim form may reflect the net remaining amount of your claims.

If you rely on the City's List of Claims, it is your responsibility to determine that the claim is accurately listed in the List of Claims. However, you may rely on the enclosed form, which sets forth (a) the amount of your claim (if any) as listed; (b) specifies whether your claim is listed in the List of Claims as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (c) identifies whether your claim is listed as a secured, unsecured priority or unsecured nonpriority claim. If you are the holder of a GO Bond, please note that the List of Claims identifies the City's calculation of the total bond debt by series as of the Filing Date, and the List of Claims does not identify the amount owed to any particular bondholder. If you are a holder of a GO Bond, the amount listed by the City in the List of Claims for each series of GO Bonds is provided with your Claim Form.

As described above, if you agree with the nature, amount and priority of your claim as listed in the City's List of Claims, and if your claim is not described in the Schedules as "disputed," "contingent" or "unliquidated," you do not need to file a proof of claim. Otherwise, or if you decide to file a proof of claim, you must do so before the applicable Bar Date in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Notice. [Note: This Section 8 is for the service version, not the publication version, of this Notice.]

SECTION 9 — RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

SUMMARY

- Section 9 explains that the City has the right to "object" to any claim you may file.
- This means that the City can challenge your claim in Court. If the City challenges your claim, you will be notified.

The City reserves the right to (a) dispute, or to assert offsets or defenses against, any filed claim or any claim listed or reflected in the List of Claims as to nature, amount, liability, priority, classification or otherwise; (b) subsequently designate any listed claim as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; and (c) otherwise amend or supplement the List of Claims. Nothing contained in this Notice shall preclude the City from objecting to any claim, whether listed or filed, on any grounds. Nothing herein or in the Bar Date Order limits, or is intended to limit, any claimant's rights to defend against any objection.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, exceptions to these general rules may apply.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

For the convenience of creditors, the Court, Name of Debtor and Case Number already have been completed on this modified proof of claim form.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4 and 5. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

2. Basis for Claim:

State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card. If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information. You may be required to provide additional disclosure if an interested party objects to the claim.

3. Last Four Digits of Any Number by Which Creditor Identifies Debtor: State only the last four digits of the debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the debtor.

3a. Debtor May Have Scheduled Account As:

Report a change in the creditor's name, a transferred claim, or any other information that clarifies a difference between this proof of claim and the claim as listed by the debtor on the Second Amended List of Creditors and Claims, Pursuant to Sections 924 and 925 of the Bankruptcy Code (Docket No. 1059), as it may be amended or supplemented from time to time.

4. Secured Claim:

Check whether the claim is fully or partially secured. Skip this section if the claim is entirely unsecured. (See Definitions.) If the claim is secured, check the box for the nature and value of property that secures the claim, attach copies of lien documentation, and state, as of the date of the bankruptcy filing, the annual interest rate (and whether it is fixed or variable), and the amount past due on the claim.

5. Amount of Claim Entitled to Priority as a Administrative Expense Under 11 U.S.C. §§ 503(b)(9) and 507(a)(2).

If any portion of the claim is entitled to priority under U.S.C. §§ 503(b)(9) and 507(a)(2), state the amount entitled to priority. (See Definitions.) A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority.

6. Credits:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:

Attach redacted copies of any documents that show the debt exists and a lien secures the debt. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest and documents required by FRBP 3001(c) for claims based on an open-end or revolving consumer credit agreement. You may also attach a summary in addition to the documents themselves. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit disclosing confidential health care information. Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning.

8. Date and Signature:

The individual completing this proof of claim must sign and date it. FRBP 9011. If the claim is filed electronically, FRBP 5005(a)(2) authorizes courts to establish local rules specifying what constitutes a signature. If you sign this form, you declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information, and reasonable belief. Your signature is also a certification that the claim meets the requirements of FRBP 9011(b). Whether the claim is filed electronically or in person, if your name is on the signature line, you are responsible for the declaration. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. If the claim is filed by an authorized agent, provide both the name of the individual filing the claim and the name of the agent. If the authorized agent is a servicer, identify the corporate servicer as the company. Criminal penalties apply for making a false statement on a proof of claim.

DEFINITIONS

Debtor

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

Creditor

A creditor is a person, corporation, or other entity to whom debtor owes a debt that was incurred before the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (10).

Claim

A claim is the creditor's right to receive payment for a debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Proof of Claim

A proof of claim is a form used by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The creditor must file the form by sending or delivering the form to one of the addresses provided below.

Secured Claim Under 11 U.S.C. § 506 (a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien.

A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

Unsecured Claim

An unsecured claim is one that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be partly unsecured if the amount of the claim exceeds the value of the property on which the creditor has a lien.

Claim Entitled to Priority as an Administrative Expense Under 11 U.S.C. §§ 503(b)(9) and 507(a)(2)

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured claims that are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims. In a chapter 9 case, 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(9) may provide priority status to claims for "the value of goods received by the debtor within 20 days before the date of commencement of a case ... in which the goods have been sold to the debtor in the ordinary course of such debtor's business." 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(9).

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 901(a), the priorities accorded certain claims under 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(1) and (a)(3-10) are inapplicable in a chapter 9 case.

Redacted

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

Evidence of Perfection

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

INFORMATION

Acknowledgment of Filing of Claim

To receive acknowledgment of your filing, you may either enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this proof of claim or you may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at <http://www.kccllc.net/Detroit>

Offers to Purchase a Claim

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.

i. Treatment.

A. Plan COP Settlement Option.

On the Effective Date, the City shall deliver to the COP Trustee, solely for the benefit of, and for distribution to, the COP Insurers and the Settling COPs Claimants in accordance with (1) the Supplemental Trust Agreements and (2) the instructions of the applicable COP Insurer, (x) the Class 9 Settlement Asset Pool and (y) New B Notes in the face amount of $97,692,787, based upon each Settling COP Claimant's Pro Rata share calculated as an amount equal to the proportion that the unpaid principal amount plus accrued prepetition interest of COPs held by such Settling COP Claimant bears to the aggregate unpaid principal amount of all COPs plus all accrued prepetition interest thereon; provided, that the allocation of distributions among FGIC COP Holders shall be determined in accordance with agreements among FGIC and the FGIC COP Holders disclosed in a term sheet filed in court on October 22, 2014, as the same may be subsequently amended and more fully documented. For the avoidance of doubt, a Settling COP Claimant shall not be required to transfer (1) any claim against a COP Insurer or (2) the COPs it holds to the City pursuant to the Plan COP Settlement or otherwise pursuant to the Plan, the Syncora Settlement Documents or the FGIC/COP Settlement Documents. The COP Service Corporations shall enter into such Supplemental Trust Agreements as FGIC and Syncora may reasonably request with respect to their respective insured COPs as long as such Supplemental Trust Agreements do not impose any additional obligations or liability on the COP Service Corporations.

The City has granted the LTGO Settlement Parties, on behalf of the holders of Allowed Limited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims in Class 7, and the Retiree Committee consent rights regarding pre-Effective Date settlements of the COP Litigation if and as permitted under applicable non-bankruptcy law. The LTGO Settlement Parties have consented to the Syncora Settlement and FGIC/COP Settlement. On the Effective Date, on account of such consent rights, the Excess New B Notes shall be distributed as follows: (1) approximately $42.68 million to the Detroit General VEBA and the Detroit Police and Fire VEBA in proportion with the New B Notes allocated to each pursuant to Sections II.B.3.s.ii.A and II.B.3.s.ii.B; (2) approximately $17.34 million to be distributed Pro Rata among holders of Allowed Limited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims in Class 7; and (3) approximately $4.12 million to be distributed Pro Rata among holders of Allowed Other Unsecured Claims in Class 14. With respect to the distribution of the Syncora Excess New B Notes, on April 1, 2015, the City shall pay the interest then due on the Syncora Excess New B Notes and shall also prepay the October 1, 2015 interest payment on the Syncora Excess New B Notes (as a consequence of which, no interest payment shall be made on the Syncora Excess New B Notes on October 1, 2015). The VEBAs may not sell or otherwise transfer their right, title or interest in the Syncora Excess New B Notes prior to October 2, 2015.

As part of the Plan COP Settlement, on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date, Syncora shall cause to be paid $500,126.94 in cash to the COP Agent on account of COP Agent Fees. As part of the Plan COP Settlement, FGIC shall cause to be paid to the COP Agent 75.945% of the reasonable COP Agent Fees in cash out of the first proceeds of the distributions to or for the benefit of the FGIC COP Holders.

Nothing in this Section II.B.3.p.i.A shall, or shall be asserted or construed to, affect or prejudice any rights, claims or defenses between the COP Swap Counterparties on the one hand and any Settling COP Claimant (including Syncora, FGIC and the FGIC COP Holders) on the other hand.

Without limiting any other applicable provisions of, or releases contained in, the Plan or any contracts, instruments, releases, agreements or documents to be entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, as of the Effective Date, in consideration for the obligations under the Plan and the consideration and other contracts, instruments, releases, agreements or documents to be entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, each Settling COP Claimant shall, to the fullest extent permitted under law, be deemed to forever release, waive and discharge all Liabilities relating to COP Documents such Settling COP Claimant has, had or may have against the (1) GRS, (2) PFRS or (3) Related Entities of either GRS or PFRS. At the direction of FGIC, which shall be deemed given on the Effective Date, the COP Contract Administrator shall have irrevocably agreed (on behalf of itself, any successors and each FGIC COP Holder) to release and not to sue any COP Holder or any COP Insurer on behalf of any FGIC COP Holder, COP Insurer, the Detroit Retirement Systems Funding Trust 2005 or the Detroit Retirement

Systems Funding Trust 2006 in connection with any liability arising in connection with or related to (1) Sections 6.5 and 9.1 of the Contract Administration Agreements, (2) Section 8.03 of the COP Service Contracts, (3) distributions made pursuant to or in connection with this Section II.B.3.p.i.A, (4) the FGIC Settlement or (5) the Syncora Settlement. On the Effective Date, Syncora and FGIC shall, to the fullest extent permitted under law, be deemed to forever mutually release, waive and discharge all liabilities against each other relating to distributions made pursuant to or in connection with this Section II.B.3.p.i.A, Sections 6.5 and 9.1 of the Contract Administration Agreements or Section 8.03 of the COP Service Contracts.

ii. Impact of UTGO Settlement.

Pursuant to the UTGO Settlement Agreement, the City has agreed that (a) the Plan shall not permit the Holders of Allowed COP Claims to recover more on a percentage basis on account of such Allowed COP Claims than the Holders of Allowed Unlimited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims recover on a percentage basis on account of such Allowed Unlimited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims, as such percentage recoveries are projected on the terms set forth in the UTGO Settlement Agreement at Confirmation; and (b) if a Trigger Event occurs, the Settling UTGO Bond Insurers shall receive Top-Off Payments (as set forth in Section IV.C).

q. Class 10 – PFRS Pension Claims.

i. Allowance.

The PFRS Pension Claims shall be allowed in an aggregate amount equal to the sum of approximately $1,250,000,000.

ii. Treatment.

A. Contributions to PFRS.

During the Fiscal Years from the Effective Date through Fiscal Year 2023, annual contributions shall be made to fund benefits accrued under the Prior PFRS Pension Plan only in the amounts identified on Exhibit II.B.3.q.ii.A. The exclusive source for such contributions shall be certain DIA Proceeds and a portion of the State Contribution. After June 30, 2023, (1) PFRS will receive certain additional DIA Proceeds and (2) the City will contribute sufficient funds required to pay each Holder of a PFRS Pension Claim his or her PFRS Adjusted Pension Amount in accordance with and as modified by the terms and conditions contained in the Plan and the Prior PFRS Pension Plan, in accordance with the State Contribution Agreement and exhibits thereto. Nothing in this Plan prevents any non-City third party from making additional contributions to or for the benefit of PFRS if such party chooses to do so.

B. Investment Return Assumption.

During the period that ends on June 30, 2023, the trustees of the PFRS, or the trustees of any successor trust or pension plan, shall adopt and maintain an investment return assumption and discount rate for purposes of determining the assets and liabilities of the PFRS that shall be 6.75%.

C. Modification of Benefits for PFRS Participants.

During the period that ends no earlier than June 30, 2023, the pension benefits payable to each Holder of a PFRS Pension Claim shall be equal to the PFRS Adjusted Pension Amount for such Holder, provided that such PFRS Adjusted Pension Amount shall be (1) automatically reduced by the DIA Proceeds Default Amount in the event of a DIA Proceeds Payment Default and (2) increased by any PFRS Restoration Payment.

Restoration of all or a portion of the modified pension benefits will be provided in accordance with the methodology set forth on Exhibit II.B.3.q.ii.C. For purposes of calculating a PFRS Restoration Payment, market value of assets shall not include any City contributions through June 30, 2023, other than those listed on Exhibit II.B.3.q.ii.A or any State contributions if the PFRS trustees fail to comply with the requirements described in the State Contribution Agreement. In the event that the Foundations and DIA Corp. accelerate all or a portion of their funding commitments described in Section IV.E.1 prior to June 30, 2023, the incremental portion of the acceleration will not count towards pension restoration.

D. Contingent Payment Rights.

The City will issue the DWSD CVR to the Restoration Trust for the benefit of Holders of Pension Claims, as described in Section IV.F.

E. Accrual of Future Benefits.

Each Holder of a PFRS Pension Claim who is an Active Employee shall receive, in addition to his or her PFRS Adjusted Pension Amount, as such amount may be modified herein, such additional pension benefit for service on or after July 1, 2014 consistent with the terms and conditions of the New PFRS Active Pension Plan Formula and the New PFRS Active Pension Plan.

F. Governance.

On or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date, an Investment Committee shall be established under PFRS in accordance with the State Contribution Agreement. The Investment Committee shall be vested with the authority and responsibilities set forth in the State Contribution Agreement for a period of 20 years following the Effective Date. The initial independent members of the Investment Committee established by PFRS shall be (1) Woodrow S. Tyler, (2) McCullough Williams III, (3) Robert C. Smith, (4) Joseph Bogdahn and (5) Rebecca Sorenson.

G. No Changes in Terms for Ten Years.

Except as may be required to maintain the tax-qualified status of the PFRS or to comply with the terms of the Plan, the City, the trustees of the PFRS and all other persons or entities shall be enjoined from and against the subsequent amendment of the terms, conditions and rules of operation of the PFRS, or any successor plan or trust, that govern the calculation of pension benefits (including the PFRS Adjusted Pension Amount, accrual of additional benefits, the DIA Proceeds Default Amount, the Prior PFRS Pension Plan, the PFRS Restoration Payment, the New PFRS Active Pension Plan Formula and the terms of the New PFRS Active Pension Plan) or against any action that governs the selection of the investment return assumption described in Section II.B.3.q.ii.B, the contribution to the PFRS or the calculation or amount of PFRS pension benefits for the period ending June 30, 2023, notwithstanding whether that subsequent amendment or act is created or undertaken by contract, agreement (including collective bargaining agreement), statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, charter, resolution or otherwise by operation of law.

H. State Contribution Agreement.

The State Contribution Agreement, the effectiveness of which is contingent upon the acceptance of the Plan by Classes 10 and 11, shall include the following principal terms: (1) the State, or the State's authorized agent, will distribute the State Contribution for the benefit of Holders of Pension Claims; and (2) the Plan shall provide for the release of the State and the State Related Entities by each holder of a Pension Claim from all Liabilities arising from or related to the City, the Chapter 9 Case, the Plan, all Exhibits, the Disclosure Statement, PA 436 and its predecessor or replacement statutes, and Article IX, Section 24 of the Michigan Constitution, as more particularly described in the State Contribution Agreement and as set forth at Section III.D.7.b.

r. Class 11 – GRS Pension Claims.

i. Allowance.

The GRS Pension Claims shall be allowed in an aggregate amount equal to the sum of approximately $1,879,000,000.

ii. Treatment.

A. Contributions to GRS.

During the Fiscal Years from the Effective Date through Fiscal Year 2023, annual contributions shall be made to fund benefits accrued under the Prior GRS Pension Plan only in the amounts identified on Exhibit II.B.3.r.ii.A. The exclusive sources for such contributions shall be certain pension related, administrative and restructuring payments received from the DWSD equal to approximately $428.5 million, a portion of the State Contribution, certain DIA Proceeds, a portion of the Assigned UTGO Bond Tax Proceeds and certain revenues from City departments, the Detroit Public Library and the Detroit Regional Convention Facility Authority. After June 30, 2023, (1) certain DIA Proceeds shall be contributed to the GRS and (2) the City will contribute such additional funds as are necessary to pay each Holder of a GRS Pension Claim his or her GRS Adjusted Pension Amount in accordance with and as modified by the terms and conditions contained in the Plan and the Prior GRS Pension Plan, in accordance with the State Contribution Agreement and exhibits thereto. Nothing in this Plan prevents any non-City third party from making additional contributions to or for the benefit of GRS if such party chooses to do so.

B. Investment Return Assumption.

During the period that ends on June 30, 2023, the board of trustees of the GRS, or the trustees of any successor trust or pension plan, shall adopt and maintain an investment return assumption and discount rate for purposes of determining the assets and liabilities of the GRS that shall be 6.75%.

C. Modification of Benefits for GRS Participants.

During the period that ends no earlier than June 30, 2023, the pension benefits payable to each Holder of a GRS Pension Claim shall be equal to the GRS Adjusted Pension Amount for such Holder, provided that such GRS Adjusted Pension Amount shall be (1) automatically reduced by the DIA Proceeds Default Amount in the event of a DIA Proceeds Payment Default and (2) increased by any GRS Restoration Payment.

Restoration of all or a portion of the modified pension benefits will be provided in accordance with the methodology set forth on Exhibit II.B.3.r.ii.C. For purposes of calculating a GRS Restoration Payment, market value of assets shall not include any City contributions through June 30, 2023, other than those listed on Exhibit II.B.3.r.ii.A or any State contributions if the GRS trustees fail to comply with the requirements described in the State Contribution Agreement. In the event that the Foundations and DIA Corp. accelerate all or a portion of their funding commitments described in Section IV.E.1 prior to June 30, 2023, the incremental portion of the acceleration will not count towards pension restoration.

D. Annuity Savings Fund Recoupment.

1. ASF Current Participants.

On or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date, the Annuity Savings Fund Excess Amount will be calculated for each ASF Current Participant and will be deducted from such participant's Annuity Savings Fund account and be used to fund the accrued pension benefits of all GRS participants; provided, however, that in no event shall the amount deducted from an ASF Current Participant's Annuity Savings Fund account exceed the ASF Recoupment Cap. In the event that the amount credited to an ASF Current Participant's Annuity Savings Fund account as of the Effective Date is less than such participant's Annuity Savings Fund Excess Amount, the ASF Current Participant will be treated as an ASF Distribution Recipient to the extent of the shortfall.

2. ASF Distribution Recipients.

i. Monthly Deduction

For each ASF Distribution Recipient who does not elect the ASF Recoupment Cash Option described in Section II.B.3.r.ii.D.2.ii and in the case of any ASF Distribution Recipient that elected the ASF Recoupment Cash Option but does not timely deliver the ASF Recoupment Cash Payment to the GRS, the Annuity Savings Fund Excess Amount will: (A) be calculated and converted into monthly annuity amounts based on common actuarial assumptions (such as the ASF Distribution Recipient's life expectancy, and, if not already retired, expected date of retirement) and amortized using a 6.75% interest rate; and (B) then be deducted from the ASF Distribution Recipient's monthly pension check; provided, however, that in no event shall the total amount deducted from an ASF Distribution Recipient's monthly pension check exceed the ASF Recoupment Cap or the Current GRS Retiree Adjustment Cap, if applicable. The total ASF Recoupment from the ASF Distribution Recipient's monthly pension checks over time shall not exceed the amount necessary to amortize the applicable Annuity Savings Fund Excess Amount at 6.75% interest.

ii. Single Lump Sum Payment

Each ASF Distribution Recipient shall be afforded the ASF Recoupment Cash Option.

No later than seven days following the Effective Date, the City, through its Claims and Balloting Agent, shall send the ASF Election Notice and the ASF Election Form by first-class U.S. mail to each ASF Distribution Recipient. The ASF Election Form shall explain that the amount of the ASF Recoupment Cash Payment shall be equal to the total amount of ASF Recoupment shown on the ASF Distribution Recipient's Ballot, unless the aggregate amount of ASF Recoupment for all ASF Distribution Recipients electing the ASF Recoupment Cash Option exceeds $30,000,000, in which case (A) the ASF Recoupment Cash Payment will be the ASF Distribution Recipient's Pro Rata portion of $30,000,000, and (B) the remaining portion of the ASF Distribution Recipient's ASF Recoupment will be annuitized and deducted from the ASF Distribution Recipient's monthly pension check, as provided for in Section II.B.3.r.ii.D.2.i.

An ASF Distribution Recipient must return his or her ASF Election Form to the Claims and Balloting Agent so that it is actually received by the Claims and Balloting Agent by the ASF Election Date.

GRS shall mail the ASF Final Cash Payment Notice no later than 14 days after the ASF Election Date. ASF Distribution Recipients shall have until the ASF Final Cash Payment Date to make the ASF Recoupment Cash Payment, which payment must be made by cashier's check or wire transfer and may not be made by personal check. If an ASF Distribution Recipient's ASF Recoupment Cash Payment is not received by the ASF Final Cash Payment Date, GRS will notify the ASF Distribution Recipient of the failure to timely pay, and ASF Recoupment will be effected through diminution of such recipient's monthly pension check, as provided for in Section II.B.3.r.ii.D.2.i. The calculation of each electing ASF Distribution Recipient's ASF Recoupment Cash Payment shall not be adjusted under any circumstances, including as a result of default by any other electing ASF Distribution Recipient to remit his or her ASF Recoupment Cash Payment by the ASF Final Cash Payment Date.

E. Contingent Payment Rights.

The City will issue the DWSD CVR to the Restoration Trust for the benefit of Holders of Pension Claims, as described in Section IV.F.

F. Accrual of Future Benefits.

Each Holder of a GRS Pension Claim who is an Active Employee shall receive, in addition to his or her GRS Adjusted Pension Amount, as such amount may be modified herein, such additional pension benefit for service on or after July 1, 2014, consistent with the terms and conditions of the New GRS Active Pension Plan Formula and the New GRS Active Pension Plan.

G. Governance.

On or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date, an Investment Committee shall be established under GRS in accordance with the State Contribution Agreement. The Investment Committee shall be vested with the authority and responsibilities set forth in the State Contribution Agreement for a period of 20 years following the Effective Date. The initial independent members of the Investment Committee established by GRS shall be (1) Kerrie VandenBosch, (2) Doris Ewing, (3) Robert Rietz, (4) David Sowerby and (5) Ken Whipple.

H. No Changes in Terms for Ten Years.

Except as may be required to maintain the tax-qualified status of the GRS or to comply with the terms of the Plan, the City, the trustees of the GRS and all other persons or entities shall be enjoined from and against the subsequent amendment of the terms, conditions and rules of operation of the GRS, or any successor plan or trust, that govern the calculation of pension benefits (including the GRS Adjusted Pension Amount, accrual of additional benefits, the DIA Proceeds Default Amount, the Prior GRS Pension Plan, the GRS Restoration Payment, the New GRS Active Pension Plan Formula and the terms of the New GRS Active Pension Plan) or against any action that governs the selection of the investment return assumption described in Section II.B.3.r.ii.B, the contribution to the GRS, or the calculation or amount of GRS pension benefits for the period ending June 30, 2023, notwithstanding whether that subsequent amendment or act is created or undertaken by contract, agreement (including collective bargaining agreement), statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, charter, resolution or otherwise by operation of law.

I. State Contribution Agreement

The State Contribution Agreement, the effectiveness of which is contingent upon the acceptance of the Plan by Classes 10 and 11, shall include the following principal terms: (1) the State, or the State's authorized agent, will distribute the State Contribution for the benefit of Holders of Pension Claims; and (2) the Plan shall provide for the release of the State and the State Related Entities by each holder of a Pension Claim from all Liabilities arising from or related to the City, the Chapter 9 Case, the Plan, all Exhibits, the Disclosure Statement, PA 436 and its predecessor or replacement statutes, and Article IX, Section 24 of the Michigan Constitution, as more particularly described in the State Contribution Agreement and as set forth at Section III.D.7.b.

The DRCEA will fill board member vacancies created by the departure of members initially appointed by the Retiree Committee or the DRCEA, and the Mayor will fill a board member vacancy created by the departure of the member appointed by the Mayor. The initial members of the Detroit General VEBA board of trustees shall be (1) Floyd Allen, (2) Roger Cheek, (3) Suzanne Daniels Paranjpe, (4) Doris Ewing,

(5) Barbara Wise-Johnson, (6) Shirley Lightsey and (7) Thomas Sheehan. Nothing in the Plan precludes either the Detroit General VEBA from being formed under Section 115 or the formation of a separate trust under Section 115, in each case with the City's consent, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld.

Distributions to Detroit General VEBA: On the Effective Date, the City shall distribute to the Detroit General VEBA New B Notes in the aggregate principal amount of $218,000,000, in satisfaction of the Allowed OPEB Claims held by Detroit General VEBA Beneficiaries. On the Effective Date, the Employees Death Benefit Plan will be frozen for former employees, and the City will no longer have an obligation to contribute to fund death benefits under the plan for any participant or beneficiary who is a former employee. Existing retirees who participate in the plan will be granted a one-time opportunity to receive a lump sum distribution of the present value of their actuarially determined death benefit to the extent of the plan funding. For the avoidance of doubt, the Employees Death Benefit Plan shall not be merged into or operated by either the Detroit General VEBA or the Detroit Police and Fire VEBA. The Employees Death Benefit Board of Trustees shall continue to manage the Employees Death Benefit Plan and employ the staff of the Retirement Systems to administer the disbursement of benefits thereunder, the costs of which administration shall be borne by the assets of the Employees Death Benefit Plan.

Retirees (and active employees that retire prior to December 31, 2014) of the Detroit Public Library and the Detroit Regional Convention Facility Authority are Detroit General VEBA Beneficiaries and will receive the treatment set forth above. However, the collective bargaining and other legal rights and obligations of the Detroit Public Library and the Detroit Regional Convention Facility Authority, on one hand, and their respective unions and former and current employees, on the other hand, are not affected by the Plan. These parties retain the right to negotiate further or additional benefits; provided, however, that the City shall not be responsible for, or have any obligation with respect to, any such further or additional benefits or the administration thereof. In addition, in consideration of the eligible retirees of the Detroit Public Library and the Detroit Regional Convention Facility Authority participating in the Detroit General VEBA, the Detroit Public Library and the Detroit Regional Convention Facility Authority shall reimburse the City for their allocable share of the New B Note debt service related to the Detroit General VEBA.

Nothing in Section II.B.3.x.i prevents the Holder of an Indirect 36th District Court Claim from seeking further relief or payment from the State with respect to such Indirect 36th District Court Claim to the extent such Claim is not satisfied pursuant to the Plan.

C. Confirmation Without Acceptance by All Impaired Classes.

The City requests Confirmation under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that any impaired Class does not accept or is deemed not to accept the Plan pursuant to section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan shall constitute a motion for such relief.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Retirement System Indemnity Obligations shall not be assumed under the Plan and shall be discharged. For the avoidance of doubt, the City shall assume the Tunnel Lease pursuant to this Section II.D.1.

2. Assumption of Ancillary Agreements.

Each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease assumed pursuant to Section II.D.1 will include any modifications, amendments, supplements, restatements or other agreements made directly or indirectly by any agreement, instrument or other document that in any manner affects such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, unless any such modification, amendment, supplement, restatement or other agreement is rejected pursuant to Section II.D.6 or designated for rejection in accordance with Section II.D.3.

3. Approval of Assumptions and Assignments.

The Confirmation Order will constitute an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving the assumption of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases pursuant to Sections II.D.1 and II.D.2 (and any related assignment) as of the Effective Date, except for Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases that (a) have been rejected pursuant to a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, (b) are subject to a pending motion for reconsideration or appeal of an order authorizing the rejection of such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, (c) are subject to a motion to reject such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease Filed on or prior to the Effective Date, (d) are rejected pursuant to Section II.D.6 or (e) are designated for rejection in accordance with the last sentence of this paragraph. An order of the Bankruptcy Court (which may be the Confirmation Order) entered on or prior to the Confirmation Date will specify the procedures for providing notice to each party whose Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease is being assumed pursuant to the Plan of: (a) the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease being assumed; (b) the Cure Amount Claim, if any, that the City believes it would be obligated to pay in connection with such assumption; (c) any assignment of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease; and (d) the procedures for such party to object to the assumption of the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, the amount of the proposed Cure Amount Claim or any assignment of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. If an objection to a proposed assumption, assumption and assignment or Cure Amount Claim is not resolved in favor of the City, the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease may be designated by the City for rejection, which shall be deemed effective as of the Effective Date.

4. Payments Related to the Assumption of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

To the extent that such Claims constitute monetary defaults, the Cure Amount Claims associated with each Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to be assumed pursuant to the Plan will be satisfied, pursuant to section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, at the option of the City: (a) by payment of the Cure Amount Claim in Cash on the Effective Date or (b) on such other terms as are agreed to by the parties to such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. If there is a dispute regarding: (a) the amount of any Cure Amount Claim, (b) the ability of the City or any assignee to provide "adequate assurance of future performance" (within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code) under the contract or lease to be assumed or (c) any other matter pertaining to the assumption of such contract or lease, the payment of any Cure Amount Claim required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code will be made within 30 days following the entry of a Final Order resolving the dispute and approving the assumption.

5. Contracts and Leases Entered Into After the Petition Date.

Contracts, leases and other agreements entered into after the Petition Date by the City, including (a) any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases assumed by the City and (b) the collective bargaining agreements identified on Exhibit II.D.5, will be performed by the City in the ordinary course of its business. Accordingly, such contracts and leases (including any assumed Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases) will survive and remain unaffected by entry of the Confirmation Order.

6. Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

On the Effective Date, each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease that is listed on Exhibit II.D.6 shall be deemed rejected pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Confirmation Order will constitute an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving such rejections, pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, as of the later of: (a) the Effective Date or (b) the resolution of any objection to the proposed rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Each contract or lease listed on Exhibit II.D.6 shall be rejected only to the extent that any such contract or lease constitutes an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. The City reserves its right, at any time on or prior to the Effective Date, to amend Exhibit II.D.6 to delete any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease therefrom, thus providing for its assumption pursuant to Section II.D.1, or add any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease thereto, thus providing for its rejection pursuant to this Section II.D.6. The City will provide notice of any amendments to Exhibit II.D.6 to the parties to the Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases affected thereby and to the parties on the then-applicable service list in the Chapter 9 Case. Listing a contract or lease on Exhibit II.D.6 shall not constitute an admission by the City that such contract or lease is an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or that the City has any liability thereunder. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan shall be treated as Class 14 Claims (Other Unsecured Claims), subject to the provisions of section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code.

7. Rejection Damages Bar Date.

Except as otherwise provided in a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court approving the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, Claims arising out of the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served upon counsel to the City on or before the later of: (a) 45 days after the Effective Date; or (b) 45 days after such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease is rejected pursuant to a Final Order or designated for rejection in accordance with Section II.D.3. Any Claims not Filed within such applicable time periods will be forever barred from receiving a Distribution from, and shall not be enforceable against, the City.

8. Preexisting Obligations to the City Under Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

Pursuant to section 365(g) of the Bankruptcy Code, rejection of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan or otherwise shall constitute a breach of such contract or lease and not a termination thereof, and all obligations owing to the City under such contract or lease as of the date of such breach shall remain owing to the City upon rejection. Notwithstanding any applicable non-bankruptcy law to the contrary, the City expressly reserves and does not waive any right to receive, or any continuing obligation of a non-City party to provide, warranties, indemnifications or continued maintenance obligations on goods previously purchased, or services previously received, by the City from non-City parties to rejected Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, and any such rights shall remain vested in the City as of the Effective Date.

9. Insurance Policies.

From and after the Effective Date, each of the City's insurance policies (other than welfare benefits insurance policies) in existence as of or prior to the Effective Date shall be reinstated and continue in full force and effect in accordance with its terms and, to the extent applicable, shall be deemed assumed by the City pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Section II.D.1. Nothing contained herein shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Causes of Action that the City may hold against any Entity, including any insurer under any of the City's insurance policies. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing contained in this Section II.D.9 shall apply to reinstate or continue any obligation of the City or any fund thereof to any Bond Insurer.

ARTICLE III
CONFIRMATION OF THE PLAN

A. Conditions Precedent to the Effective Date.

The Effective Date will not occur, and the Plan will not be consummated, unless and until the City has determined that all of following conditions have been satisfied or waived in accordance with Section III.B:

5. The Confirmation Order shall contain (a) a finding that the Syncora Development Agreement is solely for the benefit of Syncora (subject to any provision set forth herein for payment of COP Agent Fees), and (b) an ordered provision that such consideration be administered and distributed to Syncora in a manner consistent therewith and with the Plan.
6. All actions and all contracts, instruments, settlements, releases and other agreements or documents necessary to implement the terms and provisions of the Plan are effected or executed and delivered, as applicable, in form and substance satisfactory to the City.

7. All authorizations, consents and regulatory approvals, if any, required in connection with the consummation of the Plan have been obtained and not revoked, including all governmental and Emergency Manager consents and approvals required to carry out the terms of the LTGO Settlement Agreement.

10. The City shall have obtained all governmental and Emergency Manager consents and approvals required to carry out the terms of the UTGO Settlement Agreement.

12. If Classes 10 and 11 have accepted the Plan, all conditions to the effectiveness of the State Contribution Agreement and the DIA Settlement Documents have been satisfied.

13. The Syncora Settlement and the Syncora Settlement Agreement shall have been approved by the Bankruptcy Court in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the City and Syncora, and such approval shall not have been vacated or otherwise modified, and the definitive documents contemplated thereby shall have been executed and delivered.

The Syncora Development Agreement shall have been approved by the Bankruptcy Court in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the City and Syncora, and such approval shall not have been vacated or otherwise modified, and the definitive documents contemplated thereby shall have been executed and delivered.

15. The FGIC/COP Settlement Documents and the FGIC Development Agreement shall have been approved by the Bankruptcy Court in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the City and FGIC, and such approval shall not have been vacated or otherwise modified, and the definitive documents contemplated thereby shall have been executed and delivered.

16. The New York State Department of Financial Services shall have waived in writing the notice requirement under FGIC's plan of rehabilitation with respect to the settlement contemplated by the FGIC/COP Settlement Documents and the FGIC Development Agreement in form and substance reasonably acceptable to FGIC, and such waiver shall not have been vacated or otherwise modified.

17. The Effective Date shall have occurred within 180 days of the entry of the Confirmation Order, unless the City requests an extension of such deadline and such deadline is extended by the Bankruptcy Court.

B. Waiver of Conditions to the Effective Date.

The conditions to the Effective Date set forth in Section III.A may be waived in whole or part at any time by the City in its sole and absolute discretion, except for those conditions set forth in (1) Section III.A.9 and Section III.A.10, which conditions cannot be waived, (2) Sections III.A.5, III.A.13 and III.A.14, which may only be waived by the City with the prior written consent of Syncora, (3) Sections III.A.4 and III.A.15, which may only be waived by the City with the prior written consent of FGIC and (4) Section III.A.16, which may be waived by the City at any time on or after November 4, 2014 at 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) with the prior written consent of FGIC.

C. Effect of Nonoccurrence of Conditions to the Effective Date.

If each of the conditions to the Effective Date is not satisfied, or duly waived in accordance with Section III.B, then, before the time that each of such conditions has been satisfied and upon notice to such parties in interest as the Bankruptcy Court may direct, the City may File a motion requesting that the Bankruptcy Court vacate the Confirmation Order; provided, however, that, notwithstanding the Filing of such motion, the Confirmation Order may not be vacated if each of the conditions to the Effective Date is satisfied before the Bankruptcy Court enters an order granting such motion. If the Confirmation Order is vacated pursuant to this Section III.C: (1) the Plan will be null and void in all respects, including with respect to (a) the discharge of Claims pursuant to section 944(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) the assumptions, assignments or rejections of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases pursuant to Section II.D and (c) the releases described in Section III.D.7; and (2) nothing contained in the Plan, nor any action taken or not taken by the City with respect to the Plan, the Disclosure Statement or the Confirmation Order, will be or will be deemed to be (a) a waiver or release of any Claims by or against the City, (b) an admission of any sort by the City or any other party in interest or (c) prejudicial in any manner the rights of the City or any other party in interest.

D. Effect of Confirmation of the Plan.

1. Dissolution of Retiree Committee.

On the Effective Date, the Retiree Committee, to the extent not previously dissolved or disbanded, will dissolve and disband, and the members of the Retiree Committee and their respective professionals will cease to have any role arising from or related to the Chapter 9 Case.

2. Preservation of Rights of Action by the City.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, release or other agreement entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, in accordance with section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, the City will retain and may enforce any claims, demands, rights, defenses and Causes of Action that it may hold against any Entity, including but not limited to any and all Causes of Action against any party relating to the past practices of the Retirement Systems (including any investment decisions related to, and the management of, the Retirement Systems' respective pension plans or assets), to the extent not expressly released under the Plan or pursuant to any Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court. A nonexclusive schedule of currently pending actions and claims brought by the City is attached as Exhibit III.D.2. The City's inclusion of, or failure to include, any right of action or claim on Exhibit III.D.2 shall not be deemed an admission, denial or waiver of any claims, demands, rights or Causes of Action that the City may hold against any Entity, and all Entities are hereby notified that the City intends to preserve all such claims, demands, rights or Causes of Action.

3. Comprehensive Settlement of Claims and Controversies.

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and in consideration for the distributions and other benefits provided under the Plan, the provisions of the Plan will constitute a good faith compromise and settlement of all claims or controversies relating to the rights that a holder of a Claim may have with respect to any Allowed Claim or any Distribution to be made pursuant to the Plan on account of any Allowed Claim. The entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval, as of the Effective Date, of the compromise or settlement of all such claims or controversies and the Bankruptcy Court's finding that all such compromises or settlements are (a) in the best interests of the City, its property and Claim Holders and (b) fair, equitable and reasonable. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section III.D.3 shall not affect or limit the application of section 509 of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar doctrine to Bond Insurance Policy Claims.

4. Discharge of Claims.

a. Complete Satisfaction, Discharge and Release.

Except as provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the rights afforded under the Plan and the treatment of Claims under the Plan will be in exchange for and in complete satisfaction, discharge and release of all Claims arising on or before the Effective Date, including any interest accrued on Claims from and after the Petition Date. Except as provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, Confirmation will, as of the Effective Date, discharge the City from all Claims or other debts that arose on or before the Effective Date, and all debts of the kind specified in section 502(g), 502(h) or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether or not (i) a proof of Claim based on such debt is Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) a Claim based on such debt is allowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code or (iii) the Holder of a Claim based on such debt has accepted the Plan.

b. Discharge.

In accordance with Section III.D.4.a, except as expressly provided otherwise in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, the Confirmation Order will be a judicial determination, as of the Effective Date, of a discharge of all debts of the City, pursuant to sections 524(a)(1), 524(a)(2) and 944(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and such discharge will void any judgment obtained against the City at any time, to the extent that such judgment relates to a discharged debt; provided that such discharge will not apply to (i) debts specifically exempted from discharge under the Plan; and (ii) debts held by an Entity that, before the Confirmation Date, had neither notice nor actual knowledge of the Chapter 9 Case.

5. Injunction.

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided herein or in the Confirmation Order,

a. all Entities that have been, are or may be holders of Claims against the City, Indirect 36th District Court Claims or Indirect Employee Indemnity Claims, along with their Related Entities, shall be permanently enjoined from taking any of the following actions against or affecting the City or its property, DIA Corp. or its property, the DIA Assets, the Released Parties or their respective property and the Related Entities of each of the foregoing, with respect to such claims (other than actions brought to enforce any rights or obligations under the Plan and appeals, if any, from the Confirmation Order):

1. commencing, conducting or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action or other proceeding of any kind against or affecting the City or its property (including (A) all suits, actions and proceedings that are pending as of the Effective Date, which must be withdrawn or dismissed with prejudice, (B) Indirect 36th District Court Claims and (C) Indirect Employee Indemnity Claims);

2. enforcing, levying, attaching, collecting or otherwise recovering by any manner or means, directly or indirectly, any judgment, award, decree or order against the City or its property;

3. creating, perfecting or otherwise enforcing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any encumbrance of any kind against the City or its property;

4. asserting any setoff, right of subrogation or recoupment of any kind, directly or indirectly, against any obligation due the City or its property;

5. proceeding in any manner in any place whatsoever that does not conform to or comply with the provisions of the Plan or the settlements set forth herein to the extent such settlements have been approved by the Bankruptcy Court in connection with Confirmation of the Plan; and

6. taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan.

b. All Entities that have held, currently hold or may hold any Liabilities released pursuant to the Plan will be permanently enjoined from taking any of the following actions against the State, the State Related Entities, the officers, board of trustees/directors, attorneys, advisors and professionals of the RDPFFA or the DRCEA, and the Released Parties or any of their respective property on account of such released Liabilities: (i) commencing, conducting or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action or other proceeding of any kind; (ii) enforcing, levying, attaching, collecting or otherwise recovering by any manner or means, directly or indirectly, any judgment, award, decree or order; (iii) creating, perfecting or otherwise enforcing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any lien; (iv) asserting any setoff, right of subrogation or recoupment of any kind, directly or indirectly, against any obligation due the State, a State Related Entity, the officers, board of trustees/directors, attorneys, advisors and professionals of the RDPFFA or the DRCEA, or a Released Party; and (v) commencing or continuing any action, in any manner, in any place that does not comply with or is inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan. Notwithstanding the foregoing and without limiting the injunctions in Section III.D.5.a, the Holders of Indirect 36th District Court Claims shall not be enjoined from taking any of the foregoing actions against the State or the State Related Entities with respect to Indirect 36th District Court Claims to the extent such Claims are not satisfied pursuant to the Plan.

6. Exculpation.

From and after the Effective Date, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law and except as expressly set forth in this Section, neither the City, its Related Entities (including the members of the City Council, the Mayor and the Emergency Manager), to the extent a claim arises from actions taken by such Related Entity in its capacity as a Related Entity of the City, the State, the State Related Entities, the Exculpated Parties nor the Released Parties shall have or incur any liability to any person or Entity for any act or omission in connection with, relating to or arising out of the City's restructuring efforts and the Chapter 9 Case, including the authorization given to file the Chapter 9 Case, the formulation, preparation, negotiation, dissemination, consummation, implementation, confirmation or approval (as applicable) of the Plan, the property to be distributed under the Plan, the settlements implemented under the Plan, the Exhibits, the Disclosure Statement, any contract, instrument, release or other agreement or document provided for or contemplated in connection with the consummation of the transactions set forth in the Plan or the management or operation of the City; provided that the foregoing provisions shall apply to (a) the LTGO Exculpated Parties solely in connection with acts or omissions taken in connection with the LTGO Settlement Agreement or the Plan (as it relates to the LTGO Settlement Agreement), (b) the UTGO Exculpated Parties solely in connection with acts or omissions taken in connection with the UTGO Settlement Agreement or the Plan (as it relates to the UTGO Settlement Agreement), (c) the DWSD Exculpated Parties solely in connection with acts or omissions taken in connection with the DWSD Tender, DWSD Tender Motion or DWSD Tender Order, (d) the Syncora Exculpated Parties solely in connection with acts or omissions taken in connection with the Syncora Settlement Documents and any actions or litigation positions taken by the Syncora Exculpated Parties in the Chapter 9 Case, (e) the FGIC/COP Exculpated Parties solely in connection with acts or omissions taken in connection with the FGIC/COP Settlement Documents and any actions or litigation positions taken by the FGIC/COP Exculpated Parties in the Chapter 9 Case, (f) the RDPMA Exculpated Parties and (g) the COP Agent, solely in its capacity as such and solely in connection with any Distributions made pursuant to the terms of the Plan; provided, further, that the foregoing provisions in this Section III.D.6 shall not affect the liability of the City, its Related Entities, the State, the State Related Entities, the Released Parties and the Exculpated Parties that otherwise would result from any such act or omission to the extent that such act or omission is determined in a Final Order to have constituted gross negligence or willful misconduct or any act or omission occurring before the Petition Date. The City, its Related Entities (with respect to actions taken by such Related Entities in their capacities as Related Entities of the City), the State, the State Related Entities, the Released Parties and the Exculpated Parties shall be entitled to rely upon the advice of counsel and financial advisors with respect to their duties and responsibilities under, or in connection with, the Chapter 9 Case, the administration thereof and the Plan. This Section III.D.6 shall not affect any liability of (a) any of the COP Swap Exculpated Parties to the Syncora Exculpated Parties or FGIC or (b) the Syncora Exculpated Parties or FGIC/COP Exculpated Parties to any of the COP Swap Exculpated Parties.

7. Releases

Without limiting any other applicable provisions of, or releases contained in, the Plan or any contracts, instruments, releases, agreements or documents to be entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, as of the Effective Date, in consideration for the obligations of the City under the Plan and the consideration and other contracts, instruments, releases, agreements or documents to be entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan (including the State Contribution Agreement):

a. each holder of a Claim that votes in favor of the Plan, to the fullest extent permissible under law, will be deemed to forever release, waive and discharge (which release will be in addition to the release and discharge of Claims otherwise provided herein and under the Confirmation Order and the Bankruptcy Code):

i. all Liabilities in any way relating to the City, the Chapter 9 Case (including the authorization given to file the Chapter 9 Case), the Plan, the Exhibits or the Disclosure Statement, in each case that such holder has, had or may have against the City or its current and former officials, officers, directors, employees, managers, attorneys, advisors and professionals, each acting in such capacity (and, in addition to and without limiting the foregoing, in the case of any Emergency Manager, in such Emergency Manager's capacity as an appointee under PA 436); provided further, for the avoidance of doubt, that any person or entity designated to manage the Chapter 9 Case for the City after the Emergency Manager's term is terminated, whether such person or entity acts as an employee, advisor or contractor to the City or acts as an employee, agent, contractor or appointee of the State under any applicable state law, shall be treated the same as an employee of the City hereunder; and

ii. all Liabilities in any way relating to (A) Claims that are compromised, settled or discharged under or in connection with the Plan, (B) the Chapter 9 Case (including the authorization given to file the Chapter 9 Case), (C) the Plan, (D) the Exhibits, (E) the Disclosure Statement or (F) the DIA Settlement, in each case that such holder has, had or may have against the City's Related Entities, the State, the State Related Entities and the Released Parties; provided, however, that any such Liability of the Foundations, the DIA Funders and the CFSEM Supporting Organization and their Related Entities shall be released only to the extent that such Liability, if any, arises from any such entity's participation in the DIA Settlement; provided, however, that the foregoing provisions shall not affect the liability of the City, its Related Entities and the Released Parties that otherwise would result from any act or omission to the extent that act or omission subsequently is determined in a Final Order to have constituted gross negligence or willful misconduct; and provided further, however, that if Classes 10 and 11 vote to accept the Plan, but any necessary conditions precedent to the receipt of the initial funding from the State (pursuant to the State Contribution Agreement) and the DIA Funding Parties that are such as of the commencement of the Confirmation Hearing (pursuant to the DIA Settlement) that can be satisfied or waived by the applicable funding party prior to the Confirmation Hearing (including, but not limited to, adoption of relevant legislation and appropriations by the State and execution of necessary and irrevocable agreements for their funding commitments by each of the DIA Funding Parties that are such as of the commencement of the Confirmation Hearing, which conditions may not be waived) are not satisfied or waived by the applicable funding party prior to the Confirmation Hearing, then Holders of Claims in Classes 10 and 11 that voted to accept the Plan shall be deemed to have voted to reject the Plan, and the voluntary release set forth in the first sentence of this Section III.D.7.a shall not apply to Holders of Claims in Classes 10 and 11; provided, further, that nothing in this Section III.D.7.a shall release (i) the City's obligations under the Plan or (ii) any defenses that any party may have against the City, its Related Entities, the State, the State Related Entities or the Released Parties; and

- b. if the State Contribution Agreement is consummated, each holder of a Pension Claim will be deemed to forever release, waive and discharge all Liabilities arising from or related to the City, the Chapter 9 Case, including the authorization given to file the Chapter 9 Case, the Plan, all Exhibits, the Disclosure Statement, PA 436 and its predecessor or replacement statutes, and Article IX, Section 24 of the Michigan Constitution that such party has, had or may have against the State and any State Related Entities. For the avoidance of doubt, the Plan does not release, waive or discharge obligations of the City that are established in the Plan or that arise from and after the Effective Date with respect to (i) pensions as modified by the Plan or (ii) labor-related obligations. Such post-Effective Date obligations shall be enforceable against the City or its representatives by active or retired employees or their collective bargaining representatives to the extent permitted by applicable non-bankruptcy law or the Plan, or, with respect to pensions only, GRS or PFRS.

Notwithstanding Sections III.D.5-7 and IV.L of the Plan, except as set forth in the COP Swap Settlement, nothing in the Plan or the Confirmation Order shall or shall be deemed to provide a release by the COP Swap Counterparties of any Liabilities related to the COPs, the COP Service Corporations, the Transaction Documents (as defined in the COP Swap Settlement), the COP Swap Settlement or the COP Swap Settlement Approval Order. For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding Section III.D.6 of the Plan, a vote of DWSD Bond Claims or DWSD Revolving Bond Claims in favor of the Plan shall not, and shall not be deemed to, effect a release pursuant to this Section III.D.7 by a Holder of any such DWSD Bond Claims, a Holder of any such DWSD Revolving Bond Claims or the Bond Insurer insuring any such Claims of any Liabilities against the City or its Related Entities that do not arise in connection with the DWSD Bonds or the DWSD Revolving Bonds. For the further avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, a vote of a Claim other than a DWSD Bond Claim or DWSD Revolving Bond Claim in favor of the Plan shall not, and shall not be deemed to, effect a release pursuant to this Section III.D.7 by a Holder of any such voted Claim or the Bond Insurer insuring such voted Claim of any Liabilities against the City or any other Entity arising in connection with the DWSD Bonds or DWSD Revolving Bonds.

E. No Diminution of State Power

No provision of this Plan shall be construed: (1) so as to limit or diminish the power of the State to control, by legislation or otherwise, the City in the exercise of the political or governmental powers of the City, including expenditures for such exercise; (2) so as to limit or diminish the power of the State to effect setoffs necessary to compensate the State or relieve the State of liability against funds (a) owing to the City from the State, (b) granted to the City by the State, or (c) administered by the State on behalf of the City or the federal government (including funds resulting from federal or state grants), for acts or omissions by the City (including but not limited to misappropriation or misuse of funds); and (3) as a waiver by the State of its rights as a sovereign or rights granted to it pursuant to the Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, or limit or diminish the State's exercise of such rights.

F. Effectiveness of the Plan.

The Plan shall become effective on the Effective Date. Any actions required to be taken on the Effective Date shall take place and shall be deemed to have occurred simultaneously, and no such action shall be deemed to have occurred prior to the taking of any other such action.

G. Binding Effect of Plan.

Pursuant to section 944(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, on and after the Effective Date, the provisions of the Plan shall bind all Holders of Claims, and their respective successors and assigns, whether or not the Claim of any such Holder is Impaired under the Plan and whether or not such Holder has accepted the Plan. The releases and settlements effected under the Plan will be operative, and subject to enforcement by the Bankruptcy Court, from and after the Effective Date, including pursuant to the injunctive provisions of the Plan. Once approved, the compromises and settlements embodied in the Plan, along with the treatment of any associated Allowed Claims, shall not be subject to any collateral attack or other challenge by any Entity in any court or other forum. As such, any Entity that opposes the terms of any compromise and settlement set forth in the Plan must (1) challenge such compromise and settlement prior to Confirmation of the Plan and (2) demonstrate appropriate standing to object and that the subject compromise and settlement does not meet the standards governing bankruptcy settlements under Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and other applicable law.

ARTICLE IV
MEANS FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PLAN

A. DWSD.

1. Rates and Revenues.

DWSD will maintain Fiscal Year 2015 rate setting protocols for a minimum of five years, subject to certain changes necessary to stabilize water and sewer revenues. Rates will be determined by the Board of Water Commissioners or, if a DWSD Authority is formed and approved by the incorporating units' governing bodies, by the board of any such DWSD Authority. The City may seek to implement a rate stability program for City residents, which program may, among other things, (a) provide a source of funds to mitigate against rate increases, (b) enhance affordability and (c) provide a buffer against delinquent payments.

2. DWSD CBAs.

Collective bargaining agreements with respect to current DWSD employees that are in effect and not expired as of the Effective Date will be assumed by the City.

3. Potential DWSD Authority Transaction.

As a result of mediation or otherwise, it is possible that the City may enter into a DWSD Authority Transaction that includes the formation of the DWSD Authority to conduct many or all of the operations currently conducted by DWSD. Any such transaction would be subject to the approval of incorporating units and numerous other conditions. The timing of any such transaction, if it occurs at all, is not known. If any such transaction could occur, unless waived by the City in its sole discretion, the City will enter into such transaction only if Macomb County, Oakland County and Wayne County, and each of their municipal affiliates or related public corporations, withdraw with prejudice or shall have withdrawn with prejudice their objections to the Confirmation of the Plan. Any DWSD Authority Transaction shall be on terms that are consistent with all other provisions of the Plan, applicable law and orders of the Bankruptcy Court. The City shall not enter into any binding agreement with respect to or consummate any DWSD Authority Transaction prior to the Effective Date without first obtaining an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving and authorizing such DWSD Authority Transaction.

E. The DIA Settlement.

On the Effective Date, the City and the DIA Corp. will enter into the DIA Settlement, pursuant to which (1) the DIA Funding Parties that are such as of the Effective Date have committed to assist in the funding of the City's restructured legacy pension obligations and (2) the City has agreed to enter into certain transactions that will cause the DIA to remain in the City in perpetuity, as described in and subject to the terms and conditions of the DIA Settlement Documents, and to otherwise make the DIA Assets available for the benefit of the residents of the City and the Counties and the citizens of the State. The DIA Settlement Documents attached hereto as Exhibit I.A.127 will qualify the description of the DIA Settlement in the Plan, Disclosure Statement and Exhibit I.A.126. 1. Funding Contributions.

The DIA Settlement will be funded as follows: (a) irrevocable commitments in an aggregate amount of at least $366 million by the Foundations (excluding the Special Foundation Funders, as that term is defined in the DIA Settlement Documents); and (b) in addition to its continuing commitments outside of the DIA Settlement, irrevocable commitments in an aggregate amount of $100 million from the DIA Direct Funders (including the commitment of the Special Foundation Funders, as that term is defined in the DIA Settlement Documents, and subject to certain adjustments as set forth in the DIA Settlement Documents), the payment of which $100 million will be guaranteed by DIA Corp., subject to the terms of the DIA Settlement Documents. The foregoing commitments shall be funded over the course of the 20 year period immediately following the Effective Date (subject to the annual confirmation of the City's continuing compliance with the terms of the DIA Settlement) according to the "Agreed Required Minimum Schedule" and subject to the option at any time for the "Present Value Discount," as set forth in the DIA Settlement Documents. Amounts committed by the Foundations and the DIA Direct Funders will be paid to the CFSEM Supporting Organization, which will (a) transfer such amounts for the purpose of funding the Retirement Systems upon the City's satisfaction of certain conditions and (b) not be subject to claims of creditors of the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan.

2. Transfer of DIA Assets.

On the Effective Date, the City shall irrevocably transfer all of its right, title and interest in and to the DIA Assets to DIA Corp., as trustee, to be held in perpetual charitable trust, and within the City limits, for the primary benefit of the residents of the City and the Counties and the citizens of the State.

F. Contingent Payment Rights

On or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Confirmation Date, the City shall establish the Restoration Trust. The City shall issue the DWSD CVR to the Restoration Trust. If a Qualifying DWSD Transaction has not occurred before the seventh anniversary of the Effective Date, the DWSD CVR shall terminate and expire. The Restoration Trust shall distribute proceeds from the DWSD CVR in the following amounts and priorities: (1) first, to GRS up to an amount sufficient for all three GRS waterfall classes identified on Exhibit II.B.3.r.ii.C to have their 4.5% pension reductions restored; (2) second, to GRS up to an amount sufficient for all three GRS waterfall classes identified on Exhibit II.B.3.r.ii.C to have 92% of their COLA benefits restored; and (3) third, 53% to GRS and 47% to PFRS. If the City makes any contributions to either GRS or PFRS out of its portion of the Net DWSD Transaction Proceeds, such contributions and earnings thereon shall not be taken into account for determining whether any pension restoration may be made. The DWSD CVR may not be transferred.

1. Special Restoration

Any proceeds from the DWSD CVR distributed by the Restoration Trust on account of a Qualifying DWSD Transaction consummated on or before the Effective Date, or fully executed and enforceable before the Effective Date but consummated after the Effective Date, shall be utilized for the purpose of funding the Special Restoration; provided that the City shall act in good faith so as not to unreasonably delay the execution of a Qualifying DWSD Transaction solely to avoid Special Restoration. In such case, the City will perform a Value Determination and arrive at the Discounted Value. The City will engage in good faith discussion as to the reasonableness of the Value Determination with the Retiree Committee or Restoration Trust, as applicable. In the event that the Retiree Committee or the Restoration Trust, as applicable, does not accept the Value Determination, the Retiree Committee or the Restoration Trust, as applicable, may seek to have the Bankruptcy Court determine the dispute, and the City consents to such jurisdiction.

Special Restoration shall follow the priorities of restoration of benefits set forth in Exhibits II.B.3.q.ii.C and II.B.3.r.ii.C. In order for benefits to be restored pursuant to the Special Restoration, such benefits must be fully funded by 50% of the Discounted Value for the full actuarially-determined lives of all participants for whom benefits are restored. In the event that actual Net DWSD Transaction Proceeds from the DWSD CVR do not equal 50% of the contemplated Net DWSD Transaction Proceeds as of the date of the Value Determination, the Investment Committees of the Retirement Systems will reduce or eliminate the Special Restoration benefits, as applicable, by the amount that 50% of the Discounted Value exceeds the actual Net DWSD Transaction Proceeds from the DWSD CVR received or projected to be received using a 6.75% discount rate. In the event that the Retiree Committee, the Restoration Trust or the City, as applicable, does not agree with the reduction in the Special Restoration benefits, the Retiree Committee or the Restoration Trust, as applicable, or the City may consult with the trustees and Investment Committees of PFRS or GRS with respect to any such reduction. Neither the Retiree Committee nor the Restoration Trust shall have any right to initiate any enforcement proceeding with respect to Special Restoration.

2. General Restoration

Any Net DWSD Transaction Proceeds from the DWSD CVR distributed by the Restoration Trust on account of a Qualifying DWSD Transaction consummated after the Effective Date, if such Qualifying Transaction was not fully executed and enforceable before the Effective Date, shall be utilized for the purpose of funding the pension trusts, and such cash contributions shall be included in any calculations allowing for the restoration of benefits in accordance with the general rules governing pension restoration as provided for in Exhibits II.B.3.q.ii.C and II.B.3.r.ii.C.

G. The OPEB Settlement.

The City and the Retiree Committee have reached a settlement related to the allowance and calculation of the OPEB Claims in Class 12 and the treatment of such Allowed OPEB Claims, the terms of which settlement are reflected in the Plan. H. The LTGO Settlement.

The City, the LTGO Insurer and BlackRock Financial Management have reached a settlement related to the treatment of Allowed Limited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims, the terms of which settlement are reflected in the Plan. In the event that the City intends to redeem the principal amount of New LTGO Notes during any time that the Insured LTGO Bonds are outstanding, the City and the LTGO Distribution Agent shall be required to take certain actions as described in the LTGO Settlement Agreement. The Plan shall be construed as a motion for approval of, and the Confirmation Order shall constitute an order approving, the LTGO Settlement Agreement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019.

I. The Syncora Settlement

The City and Syncora have reached a settlement effecting a global resolution of all matters and litigation between the parties related to the Chapter 9 Case, as set forth in the Syncora Settlement Documents (the terms of which qualify and control over any description of the Syncora Settlement contained herein). The Plan shall be construed as a motion for approval of, and the Confirmation Order shall constitute an order approving and authorizing the parties to enter into, (1) the Syncora Settlement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and (2) the related Syncora Development Agreement (including the garage option) and the Tunnel Lease. The City shall not amend the Plan in any way that adversely affects Syncora without Syncora's prior written consent.

J. The FGIC/COP Settlement

The City and FGIC have reached a settlement effecting a global resolution of all matters and litigation between the parties related to the Chapter 9 Case, as set forth in the FGIC/COP Settlement Documents (the terms of which qualify and control over any description of the FGIC/COP Settlement contained herein). Pursuant to the FGIC/COP Settlement, and in accordance with the Plan, among other things: (1) the City and the Developer, for the benefit of FGIC and the FGIC COP Holders, shall enter into the FGIC Development Agreement; (2) FGIC shall, on behalf of the FGIC COP Holders, become a Settling COP Claimant with respect to all COPs and COP Claims associated with COPs originally insured by FGIC; (3) the parties shall dismiss or withdraw the Dismissed FGIC/COP Litigation as set forth in the FGIC/COP Settlement Documents; (4) except for Excluded Actions, FGIC shall waive any claims it may have against any other party related to the Dismissed FGIC/COP Litigation as set forth in the FGIC/COP Settlement Documents; (5) any vote cast by FGIC to reject the Plan shall be deemed a vote to accept the Plan; and (6) in full satisfaction and discharge of FGIC's claims against the City related to FGIC's Swap Insurance Policies, (a) FGIC shall receive an Allowed Class 14 Claim in the amount of $6.15 million, entitling FGIC to receive the Distributions provided pursuant to Section II.B.3.u.i and (b) the DDA shall assign to FGIC all of its right, title and interest to the New B Notes to be distributed to the DDA pursuant to Section II.B.3.t.ii. The Plan shall be construed as a motion for approval of, and the Confirmation Order shall constitute an order approving and authorizing the parties to enter into, (1) the FGIC/COP Settlement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and (2) the related FGIC Development Agreement. The City shall not amend the Plan in any way that adversely affects FGIC without FGIC's prior written consent.

K. Issuance of the New Securities.

The City shall issue the New Securities on the Effective Date or a subsequent Distribution Date, as applicable. To the maximum extent provided by section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code and applicable non-bankruptcy law, the issuance of New Securities as contemplated by the Plan is exempt from, among other things, the registration requirements of Section 5 of the Securities Act and any other applicable U.S. state or local law requiring registration prior to the offering, issuance, distribution, or sale of securities. The New Securities (a) are not "restricted securities" as defined in Rule 144(a)(3) under the Securities Act, and (b) are freely tradable and transferable by any initial recipient thereof that (i) is not an "affiliate" of the City or applicable issuer as defined in Rule 144(a)(1) under the Securities Act, (ii) has not been such an "affiliate" within 90 days of such transfer, and (iii) is not an entity that is an "underwriter" as defined in subsection (b) of Section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code.

L. Cancellation of Existing Bonds, Bond Documents, COPs and COP Documents.

Except (a) as provided in any contract, instrument or other agreement or document entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, (b) for purposes of evidencing a right to Distribution under the Plan or (c) as specifically provided otherwise in the Plan (including any rejection of Executory Contracts pursuant to Section II.D), on the Effective Date, the Bonds, the Bond Documents, the COPs and the COP Documents will be deemed automatically cancelled, terminated and of no further force or effect against the City without any further act or action under any applicable agreement, law, regulation, order or rule, and the obligations of the parties to the City, as applicable, under the Bonds, the Bond Documents, the COPs and the COP Documents shall be discharged; provided, however, that the Bonds, the Bond Documents, the COPs and the COP Documents shall continue in effect solely (i) to allow the Disbursing Agent to make any Distributions as set forth in the Plan and to perform such other necessary administrative or other functions with respect thereto, (ii) for any trustee, agent, contract administrator or similar entity under the Bond Documents or COP Documents to have the benefit of all the rights and protections and other provisions of the Bond Documents or COP Documents, as applicable, and all other related agreements with respect to priority in payment and lien rights with respect to any Distribution, (iii) to set forth the terms and conditions applicable to parties to the Bond Documents and COP Documents other than the City, (iv) as may be necessary to preserve any claim by (1) a Bondholder or Bond Agent under a Bond Insurance Policy or against any Bond Insurer, (2) a COPs Holder or COP Agent under a COP Insurance Policy or against any COP Insurer or (3) a COP Swap Counterparty under a Swap Insurance Policy or against any insurer thereunder and (v) with respect to any obligation of any party (other than the City, except to the extent provided in the COP Swap Settlement or the COP Swap Settlement Approval Order) under any COP Document related to such party's obligations owed in respect of the COP Swap Documents or the COP Swap Claims. Notwithstanding the foregoing, and except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan (or the COP Swap Settlement or the COP Swap Settlement Approval Order), such Bonds, Bond Documents, COPs or COP Documents as remain outstanding shall not form the basis for the assertion of any Claim against the City. Nothing in the Plan impairs, modifies, affects or otherwise alters the rights of (a) Bondholders or Bond Agents with respect to claims under applicable Bond Insurance Policies or against the Bond Insurers, (b) COPs Holders or COP Agent with respect to claims under COP Insurance Policies and obligations related thereto or (c) COP Swap Counterparties with respect to claims under Swap Insurance Policies and obligations related thereto. For the avoidance of doubt, except for the immediately preceding sentence, this Section IV.L shall not apply to any Bonds that are Reinstated pursuant to Section II.B.3.a.ii. As of the Effective Date, the principal amounts of the COPs originally insured by FGIC shall be deemed accelerated and due and payable, and no interest on the COPs originally insured by FGIC shall accrue thereafter, solely for the purposes of determining distributions from the COP Trustee to holders of COPs originally insured by FGIC. The foregoing acceleration of principal and cessation of interest shall affect only the rights of each holder of COPs originally insured by FGIC to the receipt of proceeds of distributions under the Plan and not the rights of each such COPs holder against FGIC or shall not in any way modify payments currently required of FGIC under its existing insurance policies or FGIC's Plan of Rehabilitation.

M. Release of Liens.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, release or other agreement or document entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, or where a Claim is Reinstated, on the Effective Date, all Liens against the City's property will be deemed fully released and discharged, and all of the right, title and interest of any holder of such Liens, including any rights to any collateral thereunder, will revert to the City. As of the Effective Date, (1) the holders of such Liens will be authorized and directed to release any collateral or other property of the City (including any cash collateral) held by such Holder and to take such actions as may be requested by the City to evidence the release of such Lien, including the execution, delivery, filing or recording of such releases as may be requested by the City, and (2) the City shall be authorized to execute and file on behalf of creditors Form UCC-3 termination statements or such other forms as may be necessary or appropriate to implement the provisions of this Section IV.M.

N. Professional Fees

1. Professional Fee Reserve

On the Effective Date, the City shall establish and fund the Professional Fee Reserve from the General Fund or, where applicable, the DWSD's funds, in an amount determined by the City to be sufficient to pay the Fee Review Professional Fees that remain unpaid as of the Effective Date, solely to the extent that such amounts are payable from the General Fund or the DWSD's funds. The initial amount of the Professional Fee Reserve shall be equal to the sum of (a) all invoices received from Fee Review Professionals and the Fee Examiner Parties as of the establishment and funding of the Professional Fee Reserve to the extent not yet paid (including holdbacks); (b) an estimate of the Fee Review Professionals' unbilled fees through the Effective Date as determined by the City in consultation with the Fee Review Professionals, which estimate shall be no lower than 125% of the aggregate amount of the highest monthly invoices respectively submitted by each Fee Review Professional pursuant to the Fee Review Order prior to the establishment and funding of the Professional Fee Reserve; and (c) an estimate of the Fee Examiner Parties' unbilled fees and expenses through the projected date of dismissal of the Fee Examiner under Section IV.N.3, as determined by the City in consultation with the Fee Examiner. The funds held in the Professional Fee Reserve may not be used for any purpose other than the payment of Fee Review Professional Fees until any and all disputes regarding the Fee Review Professional Fees, including any disputes arising under the Fee Review Order, have been fully and finally resolved pursuant to a Final Order or a stipulation between the disputing parties. Any amounts remaining in the Professional Fee Reserve after final resolution of all such disputes and the payment of all Fee Review Professional Fees determined to be reasonable in accordance with the Fee Review Order shall be released to the General Fund or the DWSD's funds, as applicable. If the Professional Fee Reserve is insufficient to pay all Fee Review Professional Fees that are determined to be reasonable in accordance with the Fee Review Order and that are payable from the General Fund or the DWSD's funds, the City shall pay such additional amounts from the General Fund or the DWSD's funds, as applicable.

2. Fee Review Order

The Fee Examiner shall review all fees and expenses of the Fee Review Professionals for the period from the Petition Date and ending on the Effective Date in accordance with the terms of the Fee Review Order. For the avoidance of doubt, the Fee Review Order shall not apply to any fees or expenses of the Fee Review Professionals for the period on and after the Effective Date, and the Fee Examiner shall not review any such fees or expenses; provided, however, that all fees and expenses of the Fee Examiner Parties, whether incurred before, on or after the Effective Date, shall remain subject to review and approval of the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to the terms of the Fee Review Order.

3. Dismissal of the Fee Examiner

Once the Fee Examiner completes his review of all Fee Review Professional Fees and submits or Files all reports related thereto as required by the Fee Review Order, the Fee Examiner shall be dismissed of all duties and obligations under the Fee Examiner Order and the Fee Review Order, other than any obligations of confidentiality thereunder. The confidentiality obligations of the Fee Examiner and the other Fee Examiner Parties, including the confidentiality obligations set forth in paragraph 22 of the Fee Review Order, shall remain binding from and after the Effective Date.

4. Potential Review of Fees Not Subject to Fee Review Order

The City shall have the right to bring before the Bankruptcy Court a request to review and determine the reasonableness of the fees and expenses of any Fee Review Professional retained by a creditor of the City or any of its departments to the extent that such fees and expenses have not been either (a) approved pursuant to or in accordance with the DWSD Tender Order, (b) subject to court review or (c) subject to a Bankruptcy Court-approved or agreed upon process for binding arbitration.

5. Court-Appointed Expert

The Court-appointed expert, Martha E. M. Kopacz of Phoenix Management Services, and her counsel shall be compensated for any reasonable fees and expenses incurred through the Confirmation Date in accordance with the terms of the Court's Order Appointing Expert Witness (Docket No. 4215), entered on April 22, 2014, as amended.

O. Assumption of Indemnification Obligations.

Notwithstanding anything otherwise to the contrary in the Plan, nothing in the Plan shall discharge or impair the obligations of the City as provided in the City Charter of the City or other organizational documents, resolutions, employment contracts, applicable law or other applicable agreements as of the Petition Date to indemnify, defend, reimburse, exculpate, advance fees and expenses to, or limit the liability of officers and employees of the City (consistent with the injunction provisions of Section III.D.5 and including the members of the City Council, the Mayor and the Emergency Manager) and their Related Entities, in each case to the extent such Entities were acting in such capacity, against any claims or causes of action whether direct or derivative, liquidated or unliquidated, foreseen or unforeseen, asserted or unasserted; provided that this Section IV.O shall be read in conjunction with the provisions for Indirect Employee Indemnity Claims set forth in Section III.D.5. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Retirement System Indemnity Obligations shall not be assumed under the Plan and shall be discharged. For the avoidance of doubt, no indemnification provision in any loan document, bond document, Bond Insurance Policy or other agreement with a Bond Insurer is exempted from discharge by reason of this Section IV.O.

P. Incorporation of Retiree Health Care Settlement Agreement.

The terms of the Retiree Health Care Settlement Agreement resolving the Retiree Health Care Litigation, which agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit I.A.298, are incorporated herein by reference and shall be binding upon the parties thereto.

Q. Payment of Workers' Compensation Claims.

From and after the Effective Date, (a) the City will continue to administer (either directly or through a third party administrator) and pay all valid claims for benefits and liabilities for which the City is responsible under applicable State workers' compensation law, regardless of when the applicable injuries were incurred, in accordance with the City's prepetition practices and procedures and governing State workers' compensation law, and (b) nothing in the Plan shall discharge, release or relieve the City from any current or future liability under applicable State workers' compensation law. The City expressly reserves the right to challenge the validity of any claim for benefits or liabilities arising under applicable State workers' compensation law.

R. 36th District Court Settlement.

The City and the Settling 36th District Court Claimants have reached a settlement related to (1) the allowance of certain of the Settling 36th District Court Claimants' Claims and (2) the treatment of Allowed Indirect 36th District Court Claims under the Plan substantially on the terms attached hereto as Exhibit I.A.9. The 36th District Court Settlement is incorporated into the Plan, which shall be construed as a motion for approval of, and the Confirmation Order shall constitute an order approving, such settlement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019.

S. Payment of Certain Claims Relating to the Operation of City Motor Vehicles.

From and after the Effective Date, the City will continue to administer (either directly or through a third party administrator) and pay valid prepetition Claims for liabilities with respect to which the City is required to maintain insurance coverage pursuant to MCL § 500.3101 in connection with the operation of the City's motor vehicles, as follows: (1) Claims for personal protection benefits as provided by MCL § 500.3107 and MCL § 500.3108, for which insurance coverage is required by MCL § 500.3101(1), shall be paid in full, to the extent valid, provided, however, that the City will not be liable for or pay interest or attorneys' fees under MCL § 500.3142

or MCL § 500.3148 on prepetition Claims for personal protection benefits; (2) tort claims permitted by MCL § 500.3135, for which residual liability insurance coverage is required by MCL § 500.3101(1) and MCL § 500.3131, shall be paid, to the extent valid, only up to the minimum coverages specified by MCL § 500.3009(1), i.e., up to a maximum of (a) $20,000 because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident, and subject to that limit for one person, (b) $40,000 because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident and (c) $10,000 because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any accident; and (3) Claims for property protection benefits under MCL § 500.3121 and MCL § 500.3123 shall be paid, to the extent valid, only up to the maximum benefits specified in MCL § 500.3121; provided, however, for the avoidance of doubt, to the extent any valid Claim subject to subsections 2 and 3 above exceeds the applicable payment limits, the excess claim amount shall be treated as an Other Unsecured Claim or a Convenience Claim (as applicable). Nothing in the Plan shall discharge, release or relieve the City from any current or future liability with respect to Claims subject to insurance coverage pursuant to MCL § 500.3101 or Claims within the minimum coverage limits in MCL § 500.3009(1). The City expressly reserves the right to challenge the validity of any Claim subject to this Section IV.S, and nothing herein shall be deemed to expand the City's obligations or claimants' rights with respect to these Claims under State law.

T. Payment of Tax Refund Claims.

From and after the Effective Date, the City will continue to administer (either directly or through a third party administrator) and pay all valid claims for income tax refunds and property tax refunds for which the City is responsible under applicable law, regardless of when the applicable right to a refund arose, in accordance with the City's prepetition practices and procedures. The City expressly reserves the right to challenge the validity of any claim for an income tax refund or property tax refund.

U. Utility Deposits.

From and after the Effective Date, the City will continue to administer utility deposits in accordance with the City's prepetition practices and procedures, including the payment of any undisputed, non-contingent, liquidated claims against the City for the refund of a utility deposit.

V. Pass-Through Obligations.

The City shall continue to honor its Pass-Through Obligations to the Pass-Through Recipients.

W. Exit Facility.

On the Effective Date, the City shall enter into the Exit Facility, as well as any ancillary notes, documents or agreements in connection therewith, including, without limitation, any documents required in connection with the creation or perfection of the liens securing the Exit Facility.

X. Post-Effective Date Governance.

Prior to or on the Effective Date, the Financial Review Commission shall be established pursuant to and in accordance with the Financial Review Commission Act. The Financial Review Commission shall provide oversight as set forth in the Financial Review Commission Act, including to ensure that, post-Effective Date, the City adheres to the Plan and continues to implement financial and operational reforms that promote more efficient and effective delivery of services to City residents. The City shall promptly provide to the Bankruptcy Court copies of any reports given to, or received from, the Financial Review Commission. Nothing herein shall expand, limit or otherwise modify the role or powers of the Financial Review Commission.

ARTICLE V
PROVISIONS REGARDING DISTRIBUTIONS UNDER THE PLAN

A. Appointment of Disbursing Agent.

The City may act as Disbursing Agent or may employ or contract with other Entities to act as the Disbursing Agent or to assist in or make the Distributions required by the Plan. Any Disbursing Agent appointed by the City will serve without bond. Other than as specifically set forth in the Plan, the Disbursing Agent shall make all Distributions required to be made under the Plan.

B. Distributions on Account of Allowed Claims.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, on the Effective Date or as soon as practicable thereafter (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the date that such a Claim becomes an Allowed Claim, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive from the Disbursing Agent, the Bond Agent or the COP Agent, as applicable, the Distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class. In the event that any payment or act under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or the performance of such act may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. If and to the extent that there are Disputed Claims, Distributions on account of any such Disputed Claims shall be made pursuant to the provisions set forth in Section VI.B. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends or accruals on the Distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such Distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, no Holder of an Allowed Claim shall, on account of such Allowed Claim, receive a Distribution in excess of the Allowed amount of such Claim.

C. Certain Claims to Be Expunged.

Any Claim that has been or is hereafter listed in the List of Creditors as contingent, unliquidated or disputed, and for which no proof of Claim is or has been timely Filed, is not considered to be an Allowed Claim and shall be expunged without further action by the City and without further notice to any party or any action, approval or order of the Bankruptcy Court.

D. Record Date for Distributions; Exception for Bond Claims.

With the exception of Bond Claims, neither the City nor any Disbursing Agent will have any obligation to recognize the transfer of, or the sale of any participation in, any Claim that occurs after the close of business on the Distribution Record Date, and will be entitled for all purposes herein to recognize and distribute only to those Holders of Allowed Claims (including Holders of Claims that become Allowed after the Distribution Record Date) that are Holders of such Claims, or participants therein, as of the close of business on the Distribution Record Date. With the exception of the Bond Claims, the City and any Disbursing Agent shall instead be entitled to recognize and deal for all purposes under the Plan with only those record Holders stated on the official Claims Register as of the close of business on the Distribution Record Date. Unless otherwise set forth in the Confirmation Order, the City shall not establish a record date for Distributions to Holders of Bond Claims.

E. Means of Cash Payments.

Except as otherwise specified herein, all Cash payments made pursuant to the Plan shall be in U.S. currency and made by check drawn on a domestic bank selected by the Disbursing Agent or, at the option of the Disbursing Agent, by wire transfer, electronic funds transfer or ACH from a domestic bank selected by the Disbursing Agent; provided, however, that Cash payments to foreign Holders of Allowed Claims may be made, at the option of the Disbursing Agent, in such funds and by such means as are necessary or customary in a particular foreign jurisdiction.

F. Selection of Distribution Dates for Allowed Claims.

Except where the Plan requires the making of a Distribution on account of a particular Allowed Claim within a particular time, the Disbursing Agent shall have the authority to select Distribution Dates that, in the judgment of the Disbursing Agent, provide Holders of Allowed Claims with payments as quickly as reasonably practicable while limiting the costs incurred in the distribution process. Upon the selection of a Distribution Date by the Disbursing Agent, the Disbursing Agent shall File a notice of such Distribution Date that provides information regarding the Distribution to be made.

G. Limitations on Amounts to Be Distributed to Holders of Allowed Claims Otherwise Insured.

No Distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to one of the City's insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy; provided that, if the City believes a Holder of an Allowed Claim has recourse to an insurance policy and intends to direct the Disbursing Agent to withhold a Distribution pursuant to this Section V.G, the City shall provide written notice to such Holder regarding what the City believes to be the nature and scope of applicable insurance coverage. To the extent that one or more of the City's insurance carriers agrees to satisfy a Claim in full, then immediately upon such agreement such Claim may be expunged without a Claims objection having to be Filed and without any further notice or any action, order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. Nothing in the Plan, including this Section V.G, shall constitute a waiver of any claims, obligations, suits, judgments, damages, demands, debts, rights, Causes of Action or liabilities that any Entity may hold against any other Entity, including the City's insurance carriers and Bond Insurers, other than the City. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section shall not apply to Bond Insurance Policies or Swap Insurance Policies.

H. City's Rights of Setoff Preserved.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, pursuant to section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise applicable non-bankruptcy law, the City may set off against any Allowed Claim and the Distributions to be made pursuant to the Plan on account of such Allowed Claim the claims, rights and Causes of Action of any nature that the City may assert against the Holder of such Claim; provided, however, that neither the failure to effect a setoff nor the allowance of any Claim pursuant to the terms of the Plan shall constitute a waiver or release by the City of any claims, rights and Causes of Action that the City may assert against such Holder, all of which are expressly preserved.

I. Delivery of Distributions and Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions.

1. Delivery of Distributions Generally.

Except as set forth in Section V.I.2, Distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims shall be made at the addresses set forth in the City's records unless such addresses are superseded by proofs of Claim or transfers of Claim Filed pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3001.

2. Delivery of Distributions on Account of Bond Claims.

Distributions on account of the Bond Claims shall (a) be made by the Disbursing Agent to the Bond Agent under the applicable Bond Documents for the benefit of Holders of Bond Claims and (b) be deemed completed when made by the Disbursing Agent to the Bond Agent as if such Distributions were made directly to the Holders of such Claims. The applicable Bond Agent, in turn, shall make such distributions to the applicable Holders pursuant to the terms and conditions of the applicable Bond Documents and subject to the respective rights, claims and interests, if any, that the Bond Agent may have under the applicable Bond Documents or otherwise to the recovery or reimbursement of their fees, costs and expenses (including the fees, costs and expenses of counsel and financial advisors) from any distribution hereunder, whether such rights, claims or interests are in the nature of a charging lien or otherwise. The Bond Agent shall not be required to give any bond, surety or other security for the performance of its duties with respect to such Distributions.

3. De Minimis Distributions / No Fractional New Securities.

No distribution shall be made by the Disbursing Agent on account of an Allowed Claim if the amount to be distributed to the specific Holder of an Allowed Claim on the applicable Distribution Date has an economic value of less than $25.00. No fractional New Securities shall be distributed. Where a fractional portion of a New Security otherwise would be called for under the Plan, the actual issuance shall reflect a rounding down to the nearest whole New Security.

4. Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions.

In the event that any Distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable, no Distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Disbursing Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder, at which time such Distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest.

Any Holder of an Allowed Claim that does not claim an undeliverable or unclaimed Distribution within six months after the Effective Date shall be deemed to have forfeited its claim to such Distribution and shall be forever barred and enjoined from asserting any such claim against the City or its property. In such cases, any Cash held by the City on account of such undeliverable or unclaimed Distributions shall become the property of the City free of any restrictions thereon and notwithstanding any federal or state escheat laws to the contrary. Any New Securities held for distribution on account of such Claims shall be canceled and of no further force or effect. Nothing contained in the Plan shall require any Disbursing Agent to attempt to locate any Holder of an Allowed Claim.

5. Time Bar to Cash Payment Rights.

Checks issued in respect of Allowed Claims shall be null and void if not negotiated within 90 days after the date of issuance thereof. Requests for reissuance of any check shall be made to the Disbursing Agent by the Holder of the Allowed Claim to whom such check originally was issued within 180 days after the date of the original check issuance. After such date, the Claim of any Holder to the amount represented by such voided check shall be released and forever barred from assertion against the City and its property.

J. Other Provisions Applicable to Distributions in All Classes.

1. No Postpetition Interest.

Except as otherwise specifically provided for in the Plan, or required by applicable bankruptcy law, the City shall have no obligation to pay any amount that constitutes or is attributable to interest on an Allowed Claim accrued after the Petition Date and no Holder of a Claim shall be entitled to be paid any amount that constitutes or is attributable to interest accruing on or after the Petition Date on any Claim without regard to the characterization of such amounts in any document or agreement or to whether such amount has accrued for federal income tax purposes. Any such amount that constitutes or is attributable to interest that has been accrued and has not been paid by the City shall be cancelled as of the Effective Date for federal income tax purposes.

2. Compliance with Tax Requirements.

In connection with the Plan and all instruments issued in connection therewith and distributed thereon, the City and any Disbursing Agent shall comply with all Tax withholding and reporting requirements imposed on it by any governmental unit, and all Distributions under the Plan shall be subject to such withholding and reporting requirements. All such amounts withheld and paid to the appropriate governmental unit shall be treated as if made directly to the Holder of an Allowed Claim. The City and the Disbursing Agent shall be authorized to take any actions that they determine, in their reasonable discretion, to be necessary or appropriate to comply with such withholding and reporting requirements, including withholding Distributions pending receipt of information necessary to facilitate such Distributions, or establishing any other mechanisms they believe are reasonable and appropriate.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, each Entity receiving or deemed to receive a Distribution pursuant to the Plan shall have sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment of any Tax imposed on such Entity on account of such Distribution, including income, withholding and other Tax obligations. The City has the right, but not the obligation, to refuse, or to direct a Disbursing Agent to refuse, to make a Distribution until a Holder of an Allowed Claim has made arrangements satisfactory to the City and any Disbursing Agent for payment of any such Tax obligations. The City may require, as a condition to making a Distribution, that the Holder of an Allowed Claim provide the City or any Disbursing Agent with a completed Form W-8, W-9 or other Tax information, certifications and supporting documentation, as applicable.

If the City makes such a request and the Holder of an Allowed Claim fails to comply before the date that is 180 days after the initial request is made, the amount of such Distribution shall irrevocably revert to the City and any Claim in respect of such Distribution shall be released and forever barred from assertion against the City and its property.

3. Allocation of Distributions.

All Distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims that have components of principal and interest shall be deemed to apply first to the principal amount of such Claim until such principal amount is paid in full, and then the remaining portion of such Distributions, if any, shall be deemed to apply to any applicable accrued interest included in such Claim to the extent interest is payable under the Plan.

4. Surrender of Instruments.

As a condition to participation under this Plan, the Holder of a note, debenture or other evidence of indebtedness of the City that desires to receive the property to be distributed on account of an Allowed Claim based on such note, debenture or other evidence of indebtedness shall surrender such note, debenture or other evidence of indebtedness to the City or its designee (unless such Holder's Claim will not be Impaired by the Plan, in which case such surrender shall not be required), and shall execute and deliver such other documents as are necessary to effectuate the Plan; provided, however, that, if a claimant is a Holder of a note, debenture or other evidence of indebtedness for which no physical certificate was issued to the Holder but which instead is held in book-entry form pursuant to a global security held by the Depository Trust Company or other securities depository or custodian thereof, there shall be no requirement of surrender. In the City's sole discretion, if no surrender of a note, debenture or other evidence of indebtedness occurs and the Holder of Claim does not provide an affidavit and indemnification agreement, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the City, that such note, debenture or other evidence of indebtedness was lost, then no distribution may be made to such Holder in respect of the Claim based on such note, debenture or other evidence of indebtedness. For the avoidance of doubt, (a) no Bond, note, debenture or other evidence of indebtedness of the City shall be surrendered or deemed surrendered that is subject to any Bond Insurance Policy and (b) no COP shall be surrendered or deemed surrendered hereby to the extent necessary to make or preserve a claim under any applicable policies or other instruments insuring the COPs and obligations related thereto or against any party, other than the City, that insures the COPs. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such Bonds or Bond Documents as remain outstanding shall not form the basis for the assertion of any Claim against the City.

ARTICLE VI
PROCEDURES FOR RESOLVING DISPUTED CLAIMS

A. Treatment of Disputed Claims.

1. General.

No Claim shall become an Allowed Claim unless and until such Claim is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Court has entered a Final Order (including the Confirmation Order) allowing such Claim. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, no payments or Distributions shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim until such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim. Without limiting the foregoing in any way, no partial payments and no partial Distributions will be made with respect to a disputed, contingent or unliquidated Claim, or with respect to any Claim for which a proof of Claim has been Filed but not Allowed, until the resolution of such disputes or estimation or liquidation of such Claim by settlement or by Final Order.

2. ADR Procedures.

At the City's option, any Disputed Claim designated or eligible to be designated for resolution through the ADR Procedures may be submitted to the ADR Procedures in accordance with the terms thereof and the ADR Procedures Order. For the avoidance of doubt, the designation of a Disputed Claim for resolution through the ADR Procedures, either prior to or after the Effective Date, will not modify, and will not be deemed to have modified, the terms of the ADR Injunction imposed pursuant to the ADR Procedures Order. Disputed Claims not resolved through the ADR Procedures will be resolved pursuant to the Plan.

3. Tort Claims.

At the City's option, any unliquidated Tort Claim (as to which a proof of Claim was timely Filed in the Chapter 9 Case) not resolved through the ADR Procedures or pursuant to a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court will be determined and liquidated in the administrative or judicial tribunal(s) in which it is pending on the Effective Date (subject to the City's right to seek removal or transfer of venue) or, if no action was pending on the Effective Date, in an administrative or judicial tribunal of appropriate jurisdiction that (a) has personal jurisdiction over the parties, (b) has subject matter jurisdiction over the Tort Claim and (c) is a proper venue. The City may exercise the above option by service upon the holder of the applicable Tort Claim of a notice informing such holder that the City has exercised such option (which notice shall be deemed to satisfy the notice requirements of Section I.B of the ADR Procedures). Upon the City's service of such notice, the automatic stay imposed pursuant to sections 362 and 922 of the Bankruptcy Code (along with any extension of such stay pursuant to the terms of the Stay Extension Order) or, after the Effective Date, the injunction set forth at Section III.D.5, will be deemed modified, without the necessity for further Bankruptcy Court approval or any further action by the City, solely to the extent necessary to allow the parties to determine or liquidate the Tort Claim in the applicable administrative or judicial tribunal(s); provided that nothing contained in this Section will modify, or will be deemed to have modified, the terms of the Stay Extension Order with respect to any Tort Claim prior to the City having served notice of its intent to determine and liquidate such Tort Claim pursuant to this Section. If the City does not serve such a notice upon a holder of a Tort Claim by the Claims Objection Bar Date, such holder may file a motion with the Bankruptcy Court no later than 30 days after the Claims Objection Bar Date seeking relief from the discharge injunction imposed pursuant to Section III.D.5 in order to liquidate and determine its Claim, which right and the deadline for exercising such right shall be set forth in the notice of entry of the Confirmation Order.

Any Tort Claim determined and liquidated pursuant to a judgment obtained in accordance with this Section VI.A.3 and applicable non-bankruptcy law that is no longer appealable or subject to review will be deemed an Allowed Claim, provided that only the amount of such Allowed Tort Claim that is not satisfied from proceeds of insurance payable to the holder of such Allowed Tort Claim will be treated as an Allowed Claim for the purposes of distributions under the Plan and subject to the terms of the Plan. Distributions on account of any such Allowed Tort Claim shall be made in accordance with the Plan. Nothing contained in this Section will constitute or be deemed a waiver of any claim, right or Cause of Action that the City may have against any Entity in connection with or arising out of any Tort Claim, including any rights under section 157(b)(5) of title 28 of the United States Code. All claims, demands, rights, defenses and Causes of Action that the City may have against any Entity in connection with or arising out of any Tort Claim are expressly retained and preserved.

B. Disputed Claims Reserve.

On and after the Effective Date, until such time as all Disputed Claims have been compromised and settled or determined by Final Order and before making any Distributions, consistent with and subject to section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, the City shall establish and maintain a reserve of property equal to (1) the Distributions to which Holders of Disputed Claims would be entitled under the Plan if such Disputed Claims were Allowed Claims in the Face Amount of such Disputed Claims or (2) such lesser amount as required by an order of the Bankruptcy Court. On the first Distribution Date that is at least 30 days (or such fewer days as may be agreed to by the City in its sole discretion) after the date on which a Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim, the Disbursing Agent shall remit to the Holder of such Allowed Claim any Distributions such Holder would have been entitled to under the Plan on account of such Allowed Claim had such Claim been Allowed as of the Effective Date. If a Disputed Claim is disallowed by Final Order, the property reserved on account shall become available for Distribution to the Holders of Allowed Claims within the Class(es) entitled to receive such property. Each Holder of a Disputed Claim that ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim will have recourse only to the assets held in the disputed claims reserve and not to any other assets held by the City, its property or any property previously distributed on account of any Allowed Claim.

C. Objections to Claims.

1. Authority to Prosecute, Settle and Compromise.

The City's rights to object to, oppose and defend against all Claims on any basis are fully preserved. As of the Effective Date, only the City shall have the authority to File, settle, compromise, withdraw or litigate to judgment objections to Claims, including pursuant to the ADR Procedures or any similar procedures approved by the Bankruptcy Court. Any objections to Claims shall be Filed no later than the Claims Objection Bar Date. On and after the Effective Date, the City may settle or compromise any Disputed Claim or any objection or controversy relating to any Claim without any further notice or any action, order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

2. Expungement or Adjustment of Claims Without Objection.

Any Claim that has been paid, satisfied or superseded shall be expunged from the Claims Register by the Claims and Balloting Agent at the request of the City, and any Claim that has been amended by the Holder of such Claim shall be adjusted on the Claims Register by the Claims and Balloting Agent at the request of the City, without the Filing of an objection and without any further notice or any action, order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

3. Extension of Claims Objection Bar Date.

Upon motion by the City to the Bankruptcy Court, the City may request, and the Bankruptcy Court may grant, an extension to the Claims Objection Bar Date generally or with respect to specific Claims. Any extension granted by the Bankruptcy Court shall not be considered to be a modification to the Plan under section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. Authority to Amend List of Creditors.

The City will have the authority to amend the List of Creditors with respect to any Claim and to make Distributions based on such amended List of Creditors without approval of the Bankruptcy Court. If any such amendment to the List of Creditors reduces the amount of a Claim or changes the nature or priority of a Claim, the City will provide the Holder of such Claim with notice of such amendment and such Holder will have 20 days to File an objection to such amendment with the Bankruptcy Court. If no such objection is Filed, the Disbursing Agent may proceed with Distributions based on such amended List of Creditors without approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

ARTICLE VII
RETENTION OF JURISDICTION

B. G. Resolve any cases, controversies, suits or disputes that may arise in connection with the consummation, interpretation or enforcement of the Plan or any contract, instrument, release or other agreement or document that is entered into or delivered pursuant to the Plan or any Entity's rights arising from or obligations incurred in connection with the Plan or such documents;

H. Approve any modification of the Plan or approve any modification of the Confirmation Order or any contract, instrument, release or other agreement or document created in connection with the Plan or the Confirmation Order, or remedy any defect or omission or reconcile any inconsistency in any order, the Plan, the Confirmation Order or any contract, instrument, release or other agreement or document created in connection with the Plan or the Confirmation Order, or enter any order in aid of confirmation pursuant to sections 945 and 1142(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, in such manner as may be necessary or appropriate to consummate the Plan;

I. Issue injunctions, enforce the injunctions contained in the Plan and the Confirmation Order, enter and implement other orders or take such other actions as may be necessary or appropriate to restrain interference by any Entity with consummation, implementation or enforcement of the Plan or the Confirmation Order;

ARTICLE VIII MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

A. Plan Supplements.

All Plan Supplements not previously filed will be Filed no later than ten days before the Confirmation Hearing.

B. Modification of the Plan.

Subject to section 942 and 1127(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the City may alter, amend or modify the Plan or the Exhibits at any time prior to or after the Confirmation Date but prior to the substantial consummation of the Plan. A Holder of a Claim that has accepted the Plan shall be deemed to have accepted the Plan as altered, amended or modified so long as the proposed alteration, amendment or modification does not materially and adversely change the treatment of the Claim of such Holder.

C. Revocation of the Plan.

The City reserves the right to revoke or withdraw the Plan prior to the Confirmation Date. If the City revokes or withdraws the Plan, or if the Confirmation Date does not occur, then the Plan shall be null and void in all respects, and nothing contained in the Plan, nor any action taken or not taken by the City with respect to the Plan, the Disclosure Statement or the Confirmation Order, shall be or shall be deemed to be: (1) a waiver or release of any claims by or against the City; (2) an admission of any sort by the City or any other party in interest, or (3) prejudicial in any manner to the rights of the City or any other party in interest.

D. Severability of Plan Provisions.

If any term or provision of the Plan is held by the Bankruptcy Court to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the Bankruptcy Court, in each case at the election of and with the consent of the City, shall have the power to alter and interpret such term or provision to make it valid or enforceable to the maximum extent practicable, consistent with the original purpose of the term or provision held to be invalid, void or unenforceable, and such term or provision shall then be applicable as altered or interpreted. Notwithstanding any such holding, alteration or interpretation, the remainder of the terms and provisions of the Plan shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated by such holding, alteration or interpretation. The Confirmation Order shall constitute a judicial determination and shall provide that each term and provision of the Plan, as it may have been altered or interpreted in accordance with the foregoing, is: (1) valid and enforceable pursuant to its terms; (2) integral to the Plan and may not be deleted or modified without the City's consent; and (3) non-severable and mutually dependent.

E. Effectuating Documents and Transactions.

The City is authorized to execute, deliver, File or record such contracts, instruments, releases and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan and any notes or securities issued pursuant to the Plan. All such actions shall be deemed to have occurred and shall be in effect pursuant to applicable non-bankruptcy law and the Bankruptcy Code, without any requirement of further action by the City Council, the Emergency Manager, the Mayor or any employees or officers of the City. On the Effective Date, the appropriate employees and officers of the City are authorized and directed to execute and deliver the agreements, documents and instruments contemplated by the Plan, and to take any other actions as may be necessary or advisable to effectuate the provisions and intent of the Plan, in the name and on behalf of the City.

F. Successors and Assigns.

If requested in writing by the Board, the Benefit Recipient shall take, through any representative designated by the Board, such action as may be necessary or appropriate to recover such payment from any person or entity, said action to be taken in the name of the Benefit Recipient. In the event of a recovery or settlement, the Trust Fund shall be reimbursed in full on a first priority basis out of such recovery or settlement for expenses, costs, and attorneys' fees incurred by it in connection therewith.

(b) If the Trust Fund pays, or is obligated to pay, any amount to or on behalf of a Benefit Recipient for an illness or injury, the Trust Fund shall be entitled to, and shall have a first priority equitable lien on, the proceeds of any recovery, by judgment, settlement or otherwise, with respect to the illness or injury, and if paid to the Benefit Recipient, the Benefit Recipient shall immediately pay any such proceeds to the Trust Fund. If the Benefit Recipient fails to pay such proceeds, or does not cause such proceeds to be paid, to the Trust Fund, the Board may, in addition to any other remedy to which it may be entitled, recover the proceeds directly or by offset against claims for benefits under the Plan and Trust made with respect to the affected Benefit Recipient (or such Benefit Recipient's beneficiaries, heirs, attorneys, agents, representatives, or estate).

(c) The Trust Fund shall have the right of subrogation and reimbursement set forth in this Section 9.14 regardless of whether the Benefit Recipient is made whole and regardless of whether the recovery, or any part thereof, is designated as payment for health care expenses, pain and suffering, loss of income or any other specified or unspecified damages or reason, and without regard to whether recovery is designated as including or excluding the health care expenses covered by the Plan and Trust. Any recovery by a Benefit Recipient, an attorney or other third party shall be deemed to be for the benefit of the Plan and Trust and shall be held in constructive trust for the Trust Fund until the Trust Fund is reimbursed in full for all amounts paid by the Trust Fund. The subrogation and reimbursement rights of the Trust Fund described in this Section 9.14 include all rights against, and include all rights with respect to, proceeds from or held by any attorney, third party, insurance carrier or payer of medical benefits, including an uninsured or under-insured motorist carrier, a no-fault carrier and a school insurance carrier, even if such coverage was purchased by the Benefit Recipient, and without regard to whether the proceeds have been paid or are payable.

(d) By participating in the Plan, each Benefit Recipient agrees to cooperate fully with the Plan and Trust and to execute and deliver agreements, liens and other documents and do whatever else the Board deems necessary to enable and assist the Trust Fund in exercising its rights under this Section 9.14, but the Trust Fund's rights under this Section 9.14 shall be effective regardless of whether the Benefit Recipient actually signs any agreements, liens or other documents. By participating in the Plan, each Benefit Recipient also agrees (i) that he or she will not make or maintain any make whole, common trust fund or apportionment action or claim in contravention of the subrogation and reimbursement provisions of this Section 9.14; and (ii) that he or she will not oppose any proceeding by the Trust Fund to obtain reimbursement on procedural grounds. The Benefit Recipient, directly or through his or her representatives, shall not do anything to impair the Trust Fund's rights. If the Board determines that any Trust Fund recovery rights under Section 9.14 have been impaired by any action of the Benefit Recipient or his or her representatives or by the Benefit Recipient's or such other person's failure to comply with the Benefit Recipient's obligations under Section 9.14, the Board may, in addition to any other remedy to which it may be entitled, determine the amount by which the Trust Fund's recovery rights have been impaired and recover such amount directly or by offset against claims for benefits under the Trust Fund made with respect to the affected Benefit Recipient.

(e) This Section 9.14 entitles the Trust Fund to subrogation and reimbursement equal to the entire amount paid by the Trust Fund for the illness or injury to which the subrogation or reimbursement relates, including related expenses, costs and attorneys' fees, which shall be from the first dollars payable to or received by the Benefit Recipient, his representatives, heirs, legal counsel, estate or any other third party from any settlement, judgment or other payment, without reduction for attorneys' fees or for any other reason. The common fund, make-whole, apportionment or any similar doctrines shall not apply to any amounts received. Any attorneys' fees shall be the responsibility solely of the Benefit Recipient, and the Trust Fund shall not pay any attorneys' fees or costs associated with a Benefit Recipient's claim or lawsuit without the Board's prior written authorization.

(f) The intention of this Section 9.14 is to give the Trust Fund the first right of subrogation and reimbursement in full with respect to the first dollars paid or payable, even though the Benefit Recipient is not made whole. Each Benefit Recipient agrees that as a condition to receiving benefits under the Plan and from the Trust Fund, the Benefit Recipient shall comply with the requirements of this Section 9.14.

ARTICLE X AMENDMENT, TERMINATION AND MERGER

Section 10.1 Amendment. The Trust Agreement may be amended at any time in writing by the Board, by a vote of not less than six (6) out of seven (7) Board members, or by Court order upon proper motion, provided, however, that no amendment may impose a contribution obligation on Detroit; provided further that no amendment shall in any way conflict with the terms of the Plan of Adjustment or a Court order confirming the Plan of Adjustment; and provided further that no amendment shall adversely affect the exempt status of the Trust or Plan under Section 501(c)(9) of the Code. No amendment to the Trust Agreement shall modify the responsibilities of the Bank hereunder unless the Bank has first consented to such amendment.

Section 10.2 Termination.

(a) The Trust and this Trust Agreement may be terminated at any time in writing by action of the Board, acting by a vote of not less than six (6) out of seven (7) Board members, with a copy of such written instrument to be provided to the Bank, or by Court order upon proper motion. Upon termination of this Trust Agreement, the assets of the Trust Fund shall be paid out at the direction of the Board in the following order of priority: (i) the payment of reasonable and necessary administrative expenses (including taxes); (ii) the payment of benefits to Participants entitled to payments for claims arising prior to such termination; and (iii) upon satisfaction of all liabilities to existing Participants, either directly or through the purchase of insurance, to provide life, sick accident or other permissible benefits in accordance with Code section 501(c)(9) and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. Neither Detroit nor any member of the Board shall have any beneficial interest in the Trust Fund, except to the extent an Individual Trustee is also a Participant in the Plan. Any determination by the Board or an administrator to distribute assets of the Trust upon termination to an Individual Trustee who is also a Participant must have the written concurrence of the Bank. The Trust Fund shall remain in existence until all assets have been distributed.

(b) Upon termination, the Bank and the Board shall continue to have all of the powers provided in this Trust Agreement as are necessary or desirable for the orderly liquidation and distribution of the Trust Fund in accordance with the provisions hereof.

Section 10.3 Transfer of Assets and/or Liabilities. To the extent permitted by Code section 501(c)(9) and other applicable law, some or all of the assets and/or liabilities of the Trust Fund may at the discretion of the Board be transferred directly to another trust for the purpose of providing health or welfare benefits to some or all of the Participants on such terms and conditions as the Board may determine.

Neither the Board, the Bank nor Detroit assumes any contractual obligation as to the continuance of the Plan and shall not be responsible for the adequacy of the Trust Fund to meet and discharge any liabilities under the Plan, and the Bank's obligation to make any payment shall be limited to amounts held in the Trust Fund at the time of the payment.

Section 5.8 Payment of Expenses. The Bank shall apply the assets of the Trust Fund to pay all reasonable costs, charges, and expenses (including, but not limited to, all brokerage fees and transfer tax expenses and other expenses incurred in connection with the sale or purchase of investments, all real and personal property taxes, income taxes and other taxes of any kind at any time levied or assessed under any present or future law upon, or with respect to, the Trust Fund or any property included in the Trust Fund and all legal, actuarial, accounting and financial advisory expenses) reasonably incurred by the Bank or the Board in connection with establishing, sponsoring, administering or operating the Trust or Plan. The Board shall by written certificate provided to the Bank request payment for any expenses related to the administration of the Trust and/or the Plan. Upon receipt of the written certificate, the Bank may make the payment requested by the Board. The expenses of the Bank shall constitute a lien on the Trust Fund.

Such removal shall be effective on the date specified in such written notice, provided that notice has been given to the Bank of the appointment of a successor institutional trustee or custodian in the manner set forth in Section 7.3 below.

Section 7.2 Resignation. The Bank may resign by filing with the Board a written resignation that shall take effect ninety (90) days after the date of such filing, unless prior thereto a successor institutional trustee or custodian has been appointed by the Board. In no event may the Bank's resignation take effect before a successor institutional trustee or custodian has been appointed by the Board and such successor trustee has accepted the appointment. If the Board fails to appoint a successor institutional trustee or custodian, the retiring Bank may seek the appointment of a successor entity in the manner set forth in Section 7.3.

Section 7.3 Successor Bank.

(a) The Board may appoint a successor institutional trustee or custodian by delivering to such successor an instrument in writing, executed by an authorized representative of the Board, appointing such successor entity, and by delivering to the removed or resigning Bank an acceptance in writing, executed by the successor so appointed. Such appointment shall take effect upon the date specified in Section 7.1 or 7.2 above, as applicable.

(b) Alternatively, the Board may appoint a successor institutional trustee or custodian by securing from such successor an amendment to this Trust Agreement, executed by both the successor and an authorized representative of the Board, which replaces the current Bank with the successor institutional trustee or custodian, appointing such successor institutional trustee or custodian, and by delivering to the removed or resigning Bank an executed copy of the amendment. Such appointment shall take effect upon the date specified in the amendment.

(c) If no appointment of a successor institutional trustee or custodian is made by the Board within a reasonable time after such resignation, removal or other event, any court of competent jurisdiction may, upon application by the retiring Bank, appoint a successor institutional trustee or custodian after such notice to the Board and the retiring Bank, as such court may deem suitable and proper.

Section 7.4 Effect of Removal or Resignation of Bank. Upon the removal or resignation of the Bank in accordance with Section 7.1 or 7.2 above, the Bank shall be fully discharged from further duty or responsibility under this Trust Agreement to the extent permitted by law.

Section 7.5 Merger or Consolidation of the Bank. Any corporation continuing as the result of any merger or resulting from any consolidation, to which merger or consolidation the Bank is a party, or any corporation to which substantially all the business and assets of the Bank may be transferred, will be deemed to be continuing as the Bank.

Such member shall have expert knowledge or extensive experience with respect to economics, finance, institutional investments, administration of public or private health and welfare benefit plans, executive management, benefits administration or actuarial science. The Board member selected by the Mayor to begin serving as of the Effective Date shall be Floyd Allen.

(b) The remaining six (6) voting members shall be appointed as follows: three (3) such voting members shall initially be designated by the Official Committee of Retirees of the City of Detroit, Michigan, and three (3) such voting members shall initially be designated by the Retired Detroit Police and Fire Fighters Association. The non-voting member may attend any meeting of the Board, provide whatever opinion and recommendations he or she deems warranted, and receive all written product received by the full Board. To the extent the Board appoints any committee or subcommittee, such non-voting member is also eligible to be appointed, in the full voting Board's discretion, as an ex-officio member of such committee/subcommittee, but if appointed would not vote as a committee/subcommittee member.

Each voting Board member shall acknowledge his or her appointment and acceptance of the duties and responsibilities set forth in this Trust Agreement in writing.

Section 8.2 Term of Office. Each member of the Board shall serve a period of four (4) years, or if earlier, until his or her death, incapacity to serve hereunder, or resignation. A voting Board member whose term has ended due to the passage of time may be reappointed to serve an additional four (4) year term pursuant to the procedures set forth in Section 8.4 below.

Section 8.3 Resignation. A Board member may resign, and shall be fully discharged from further duty or responsibility under this Trust Agreement to the extent permitted by law, by giving at least ninety (90) days' advance written notice to the Board (and in the case of a Board member selected by the Mayor, to the Mayor; and in the case of a Board member selected by the Official Committee of Retirees or the Retired Detroit Police and Fire Fighters Association, to the Retired Detroit Police and Fire Fighters Association), which notice shall state the date when such resignation shall take effect, which notice or time period may be waived by the Board.

Section 8.4 Vacancies. In the event of a vacancy, either by resignation, death, incapacity, expiration of term of office, or other reasons, the replacement Board member shall be appointed as provided below.

(a) In the event of a vacancy of the seat previously filled by the appointee of the Mayor of Detroit, the replacement Board member shall be appointed as provided in Section 8.1(a).

(b) In the event of a vacancy of a seat previously filled by an appointee of the Official Committee of Retirees or the Retired Detroit Police and Fire Fighters Association, the replacement Board member shall be appointed by the Retired Detroit Police and Fire Fighters Association.

(c) In the event of a vacancy of the non-voting, ex-officio seat previously filled by the appointee of the Retired Detroit Police Members Association, the replacement Board member shall be appointed by the Retired Detroit Police Members Association; provided, however, that such seat shall terminate on December 31, 2018, and in no event shall a vacancy in this seat after December 31, 2018 be filled.

Section 8.5 Fees and Expenses. Voting Board members shall each be paid a stipend. For the 2015 and 2016 calendar year, this stipend shall be in the amount of $12,000 per year (payable ratably on a monthly basis). Beginning with the 2017 calendar year and for each year thereafter, this stipend shall be in the amount of $6,000 per year (payable ratably on a monthly basis); provided, however, that the Board, by a vote of not less than six (6) out of seven (7) voting Board members, shall have the power to provide for a different amount for the stipend; and provided, further, that in no event shall such annual stipend exceed $12,000. The ex-officio member appointed by the Retired Detroit Police Members Association shall be paid a stipend of $4,800 per year (payable ratably on a monthly basis) for the 2015 and 2016 calendar years, and shall be paid an amount equal to 50% of the stipend of a voting Board member for the 2017 and 2018 calendar years. Each voting Board member may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses properly and actually incurred in the performance of his or her duties, and in the case of the non-voting member, he or she may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses properly and actually incurred in connection with attendance at Board or Board committee meetings. Compensation payable to the Board members and all reimbursed expenses shall be payable out of the Trust.

Section 8.6 Operation of the Board; Quorum. The Board shall select from among its members a chair and a vice chair. The Board shall hold regular meetings, and shall designate the time and place thereof in advance. The Board shall adopt its own rules of procedure and shall keep a record of proceedings. Each Board member shall be entitled to one vote on each question before the Board. Five (5) voting members shall constitute a quorum at any meeting. Except as provided in Section 8.5 and Article X, a majority vote of the seven (7) voting members of the Board at a meeting in which a quorum exists shall be necessary for a decision by the Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the voting members of the Board may act by unanimous written consent in lieu of a meeting.

ARTICLE IX POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Section 9.1 General. The Board shall be responsible for designing, adopting, maintaining and administering the Plan, as well as administering the Trust and managing the Trust assets as provided herein. Subject to the provisions of this Trust Agreement, the Plan documents and applicable laws, the Board shall have sole, absolute and discretionary authority to adopt such rules and regulations and take all actions that it deems desirable for the administration of the Plan and Trust, and to interpret the terms of the Plan and Trust. The decisions of the Board will be final and binding on all Participants and all other parties to the maximum extent allowed by law. In performing its duties hereunder, the voting members of the Board shall comply with the terms of the Trust, and shall discharge their duties for the exclusive purposes of providing benefits to participants and beneficiaries of the Plan and Trust and defraying reasonable expenses of the Plan and Trust, and with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence then prevailing that a prudent person acting in a like capacity – and familiar with such matters – would use in the conduct of an enterprise of like character and with like aims.

Section 9.2 Plan Design and Administration.

(a) Adoption of Plan. The Board shall adopt a Plan to offer life, sickness, accident or other similar benefits to Participants. All terms of the Plan shall be determined by the Board; provided that such terms shall be consistent with this Trust Agreement, Code section 501(c)(9) and the regulations promulgated thereunder. The Board shall be under no obligation to design the Plan to assure that the assets of the Trust Fund are sufficient to provide benefits to all potential Participants of the Plan in subsequent years.

(b) Benefits. The Plan shall include benefits and any other features including, without limitation, premium-sharing or other cost-sharing or reimbursements, that the Board from time to time determines appropriate or desirable in its sole discretion. The Plan may provide for different benefit structures or programs for different groups of Participants, as determined by the Board in its sole discretion. In designing the Plan and the benefits to be provided thereunder, the Board may take into account relevant circumstances, including, without limitation, the degree to which Participants may have alternative resources or coverage sources, as well as the resources of the Trust Fund. Benefits provided under the Plan shall be limited to those health care benefits permitted by Code Section 501(c)(9), and any Plan eligibility restrictions established by the Board shall conform with the requirements set forth in Treasury Regulation Section 1.501(c)(9)-2.

(c) Method of Providing Benefits. Benefits under the Plan may be fully insured, partially insured or self-insured, as determined by the Board from time to time in its sole discretion. The expected cost of benefits under the Plan shall not exceed the amount expected to be available under the Trust.

(d) Plan Documentation. The Board shall be responsible for creating, adopting and/or executing any documents necessary to set forth the Plan's governing terms, and shall be responsible for communicating the terms of the Plan to the Eligible Retiree Members and Eligible Dependents in accordance with applicable law.

Section 9.3 Investment of the Trust. The Board, with the same care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person acting in a similar capacity and familiar with those matters would use in the conduct of a similar enterprise with similar means, shall have full power and authority to manage, control, invest and reinvest the money and other assets of the Trust Fund, and the Bank shall comply with the proper written direction of the Board concerning those assets. The Board may employ outside advisors, including investment advisors, to advise it with regard to the investment of the assets of the Trust Fund. Any outside advisors shall acknowledge a fiduciary relationship to the Board and the Trust Fund.

In investing and managing the assets of the Trust, the Board:

shall consider among other circumstances: the general economic conditions; the possible effect of inflation or deflation; the role that each investment or course of action plays within the overall portfolio; the expected total return from income and the appreciation of capital; needs for liquidity, regularity of income, and preservation or appreciation of capital; and the adequacy of funding for the plan based on reasonable actuarial factors;

(b) shall diversify the investments of the Trust unless the Board reasonably determines that because of special circumstances, it is clearly prudent not to do so;

(c) shall make a reasonable effort to verify facts relevant to the investment and management of assets of the Trust; and

(d) may consider benefits created by an investment in addition to investment return only if the Board determines that the investment providing these collateral benefits would be prudent even without the collateral benefits.

Section 9.4 Appointment of Investment Managers. The Board, from time to time, may appoint one or more independent Investment Managers, pursuant to a written investment management agreement describing the powers and duties of the Investment Manager, to direct the investment and reinvestment of all or a portion of the Trust (hereinafter referred to as an "Investment Account"). The Board shall determine that each Investment Manager is a fiduciary to the Board and Trust with demonstrated expertise in the type of investments authorized by the Board and, is entitled (under its investment management agreement) to direct the investment and reinvestment of the Investment Account for which it is responsible, in its sole and independent discretion and without limitation, except for any limitations which from time to time the Board determines shall modify the scope of such authority. If an Investment Manager is appointed, it shall have the authority of the Bank specified in Section 5.1 hereof with respect to the Investment Account over which it has investment discretion and the Bank's duties with respect to such Investment Account shall be limited to following the instructions of the Investment Manager. Provided that an Investment Manager is prudently selected and monitored by the Board, the Board shall have no liability (a) for the acts or omissions of such Investment Manager; (b) for following directions of such Investment Manager which are given in accordance with this Trust Agreement; or (c) for any loss of any kind which may result by reason of the manner of division of the Trust into Investment Accounts.

Section 9.5 Government Reports and Returns. The Board shall file all reports and returns that are required to be made with respect to the Trust and the Plan.

Section 9.6 Compromise or Settle Claims. The Board may compromise, settle and release claims or demands in favor of or against the Trust or the Board on such terms and conditions as the Board may deem advisable. The Board may at all times rely upon the advice of independent counsel in reaching such decisions.

Section 9.7 Appointment of Administrator. The Board may appoint one or more third parties to perform any administrative functions it has with regard to the Trust or Plan.

Section 9.8 Employment of Assistance. The Board has the exclusive authority to employ, contract and pay for all professional services including, but not limited to, actuarial, investment, legal, accounting, medical, and any other services that the Board considers necessary for the proper operation and administration of the Plan and Trust. The powers granted to the Board in this subparagraph include complete control of the procurement process, including contracts for office space, computer hardware and software, and human resource services. In accordance with the provisions of Section 5.3 hereof, the Board may direct the Bank to pay reasonable compensation therefor from the Trust Fund. The Board may take or may refrain from taking any action in accordance with or reliance upon the opinion of counsel or such expert advisors.

Section 9.9 Reliance on Written Instruments. The Board shall be fully protected in acting upon any instrument, certificate or paper believed by him or her to be genuine and to be signed or presented by a duly authorized person or persons, and shall be under no duty to make any investigation or inquiry as to any statement contained in any such writing, but may accept the same as conclusive evidence of the truth and accuracy of the statements therein contained.

Section 9.10 No Individual Liability on Contracts. The Board shall not be liable personally for any debts, obligations, or undertakings contracted by them, or for the breach of any contracts. Such claims and obligations shall be paid out of the Trust; provided, however, that neither the Board nor any of its members shall be exempt from personal liability for willful misconduct, intentional wrongdoing, breach of applicable fiduciary duty, negligence, or fraud, and the Trust shall not indemnify the Board for such liabilities to the extent that such indemnification would violate the provisions of Section 9.13 herein, or to the extent that application of this sentence would violate any law.

Section 9.11 Detroit Not Liable for Conduct of Board. The Board is not in its capacity as Board an officer, agent, employee, or representative of Detroit. In its capacity as Board, the Board is a principal acting independently of Detroit, which shall not be liable for any act, omission, contract, obligation, liability, debt, or undertaking of the Board or its officers, agents, or representatives.

Section 9.12 Liability Insurance. The Board shall obtain and keep current a policy or policies of insurance, insuring the members of the Board from and against any and all liabilities, costs and expenses incurred by such persons as a result of any act, or omission to act, in connection with the performance of their duties, responsibilities and obligations under this Trust Agreement or the Plan. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the premiums on such policies may be paid from the Trust Fund.

Section 9.13 Reimbursement for Defense of Claims.

(a) To the extent permitted by applicable law, and not otherwise covered by liability insurance purchased by the Trust (without regard to any non-recourse rider purchased by the insured), the Board, its individual trustees, employees of the Board and persons acting on the Board's behalf pursuant to an express written delegation to the extent such written delegation provides for indemnification (each separately, the "Indemnified Party") shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Trust Fund for all reasonable costs and expenses, including without limitation attorney's fees, judgments, settlements, liabilities, fines, or penalties, incurred or suffered in defense of any claim demand, cause of action or administrative proceeding that seeks to hold the Indemnified Party personally liable for any loss to the Plan or Trust Fund or for damages suffered by any party to, or beneficiary of this Trust Agreement arising out of conduct reasonably believed to be good faith acts within the scope and powers and duties of the Indemnified Party, provided that, the Board shall have the right to approve of the retention of any counsel whose fees would be paid by the Trust Fund, but such approval shall not be withheld unreasonably. In the event that indemnification is made by the Trust pursuant hereto, the Indemnified Party shall agree to reimburse the Trust for all fees, costs and expenses to the extent that it is determined that the Indemnified Party's acts or omissions constituted fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct, negligence, or breach of fiduciary duty, and an independent fiduciary shall take all reasonable steps to ensure reimbursement at the time the Trust Fund agrees to indemnify pursuant to this Section; provided further that in the case of a final judicial determination of negligence or breach of fiduciary duty the Indemnified Party's reimbursement obligation shall be limited to the lesser of $50,000 or the deductible on any non-recourse commercial liability insurance policy.

(b) The Board may make, execute, record and file on its own behalf and on behalf of the Trust, all instruments and other documentation (including one or more separate indemnification agreements between the Trust and individual Indemnified Parties) that the Board deems necessary and appropriate in order to extend the benefit of the provisions of this Section to any Indemnified Party.

Section 9.14 Subrogation and Reimbursement. If the Plan is self-insured, the following provisions regarding subrogation and third-party reimbursement will apply.

(a) If the Trust Fund pays, or is obligated to pay, any amount to or on behalf of an individual (“Benefit Recipient”), the Trust Fund shall be subrogated as provided in this Section 9.14 to all the Benefit Recipient’s rights of recovery with respect to the illness or injury for which the payment of benefits is made by the Trust Fund. The right of recovery referred to in the preceding sentence shall include the right to make a claim, sue, and recover against any person or entity from the first dollars of any funds which are paid or payable as a result of a personal injury claim or any reimbursement of health care expenses. If requested in writing by the Board, the Benefit Recipient shall take, through any representative designated by the Board, such action as may be necessary or appropriate to recover such payment from any person or entity, said action to be taken in the name of the Benefit Recipient. In the event of a recovery or settlement, the Trust Fund shall be reimbursed in full on a first priority basis out of such recovery or settlement for expenses, costs, and attorneys’ fees incurred by it in connection therewith.

(b) If the Trust Fund pays, or is obligated to pay, any amount to or on behalf of a Benefit Recipient for an illness or injury, the Trust Fund shall be entitled to, and shall have a first priority equitable lien on, the proceeds of any recovery, by judgment, settlement or otherwise, with respect to the illness or injury, and if paid to the Benefit Recipient, the Benefit Recipient shall immediately pay any such proceeds to the Trust Fund. If the Benefit Recipient fails to pay such proceeds, or does not cause such proceeds to be paid, to the Trust Fund, the Board may, in addition to any other remedy to which it may be entitled, recover the proceeds directly or by offset against claims for benefits under the Plan and Trust made with respect to the affected Benefit Recipient (or such Benefit Recipient’s beneficiaries, heirs, attorneys, agents, representatives, or estate).

(c) The Trust Fund shall have the right of subrogation and reimbursement set forth in this Section 9.14 regardless of whether the Benefit Recipient is made whole and regardless of whether the recovery, or any part thereof, is designated as payment for health care expenses, pain and suffering, loss of income or any other specified or unspecified damages or reason, and without regard to whether recovery is designated as including or excluding the health care expenses covered by the Plan and Trust. Any recovery by a Benefit Recipient, an attorney or other third party shall be deemed to be for the benefit of the Plan and Trust and shall be held in constructive trust for the Trust Fund until the Trust Fund is reimbursed in full for all amounts paid by the Trust Fund. The subrogation and reimbursement rights of the Trust Fund described in this Section 9.14 include all rights against, and include all rights with respect to, proceeds from or held by any attorney, third party, insurance carrier or payer of medical benefits, including an uninsured or under-insured motorist carrier, a no-fault carrier and a school insurance carrier, even if such coverage was purchased by the Benefit Recipient, and without regard to whether the proceeds have been paid or are payable.

(d) By participating in the Plan, each Benefit Recipient agrees to cooperate fully with the Plan and Trust and to execute and deliver agreements, liens and other documents and do whatever else the Board deems necessary to enable and assist the Trust Fund in exercising its rights under this Section 9.14, but the Trust Fund’s rights under this Section 9.14 shall be effective regardless of whether the Benefit Recipient actually signs any agreements, liens or other documents. By participating in the Plan, each Benefit Recipient also agrees (i) that he or she will not make or maintain any make whole, common trust fund or apportionment action or claim in contravention of the subrogation and reimbursement provisions of this Section 9.14; and (ii) that he or she will not oppose any proceeding by the Trust Fund to obtain reimbursement on procedural grounds. The Benefit Recipient, directly or through his or her representatives, shall not do anything to impair the Trust Fund's rights. If the Board determines that any Trust Fund recovery rights under Section 9.14 have been impaired by any action of the Benefit Recipient or his or her representatives or by the Benefit Recipient's or such other person's failure to comply with the Benefit Recipient's obligations under Section 9.14, the Board may, in addition to any other remedy to which it may be entitled, determine the amount by which the Trust Fund's recovery rights have been impaired and recover such amount directly or by offset against claims for benefits under the Trust Fund made with respect to the affected Benefit Recipient.

(e) This Section 9.14 entitles the Trust Fund to subrogation and reimbursement equal to the entire amount paid by the Trust Fund for the illness or injury to which the subrogation or reimbursement relates, including related expenses, costs and attorneys' fees, which shall be from the first dollars payable to or received by the Benefit Recipient, his representatives, heirs, legal counsel, estate or any other third party from any settlement, judgment or other payment, without reduction for attorneys' fees or for any other reason. The common fund, make-whole, apportionment or any similar doctrines shall not apply to any amounts received. Any attorneys' fees shall be the responsibility solely of the Benefit Recipient, and the Trust Fund shall not pay any attorneys' fees or costs associated with a Benefit Recipient's claim or lawsuit without the Board's prior written authorization.

(f) The intention of this Section 9.14 is to give the Trust Fund the first right of subrogation and reimbursement in full with respect to the first dollars paid or payable, even though the Benefit Recipient is not made whole. Each Benefit Recipient agrees that as a condition to receiving benefits under the Plan and from the Trust Fund, the Benefit Recipient shall comply with the requirements of this Section 9.14.

ARTICLE X AMENDMENT, TERMINATION AND MERGER

Section 10.1 Amendment. The Trust Agreement may be amended at any time in writing by the Board, by a vote of not less than six (6) out of seven (7) voting Board members, or by Court order upon proper motion, provided, however, that no amendment may impose a contribution obligation on Detroit; provided further that no amendment shall in any way conflict with the terms of the Plan of Adjustment or a Court order confirming the Plan of Adjustment; and provided further that no amendment shall adversely affect the exempt status of the Trust or Plan under Section 501(c)(9) of the Code. No amendment to the Trust Agreement shall modify the responsibilities of the Bank hereunder unless the Bank has first consented to such amendment.

Section 10.2 Termination.

(a) The Trust and this Trust Agreement may be terminated at any time in writing by action of the Board, acting by a vote of not less than six (6) out of seven (7) voting Board members, with a copy of such written instrument to be provided to the Bank, or by Court order upon proper motion. Upon termination of this Trust Agreement, the assets of the Trust Fund shall be paid out at the direction of the Board in the following order of priority: (i) the payment of reasonable and necessary administrative expenses (including taxes); (ii) the payment of benefits to Participants entitled to payments for claims arising prior to such termination; and

(iii) upon satisfaction of all liabilities to existing Participants, either directly or through the purchase of insurance, to provide life, sick accident or other permissible benefits in accordance with Code section 501(c)(9) and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. Neither Detroit nor any member of the Board shall have any beneficial interest in the Trust Fund, except to the extent an Individual Trustee is also a Participant in the Plan. Any determination by the Board or an administrator to distribute assets of the Trust upon termination to an Individual Trustee who is also a Participant must have the written concurrence of the Bank. The Trust Fund shall remain in existence until all assets have been distributed.

(b) Upon termination, the Bank and the Board shall continue to have all of the powers provided in this Trust Agreement as are necessary or desirable for the orderly liquidation and distribution of the Trust Fund in accordance with the provisions hereof.

Section 10.3 Transfer of Assets and/or Liabilities. To the extent permitted by Code section 501(c)(9) and other applicable law, some or all of the assets and/or liabilities of the Trust Fund may at the discretion of the Board be transferred directly to another trust for the purpose of providing health or welfare benefits to some or all of the Participants on such terms and conditions as the Board may determine.

ARTICLE XI MISCELLANEOUS

Except to the extent required by applicable law, the rights or interest of any Participant to any benefits or future payments hereunder or under the provisions of the Plan shall not be subject to attachment or garnishment or other legal process by any creditor of any such Participant, nor shall any such Participant have any right to alienate, anticipate, commute, pledge, encumber or assign any of the benefits or payments which he may expect to receive, contingent or otherwise, under this Trust Agreement.

Funding Commitments

All commitments of the Funders shall, subject to the terms and conditions of this Term Sheet and the Definitive Documentation, be the irrevocable, authorized, valid and binding commitments by the Funders, enforceable against such Funders, except that the commitment of The DIA as to any DIA Deficiency will be subject to its right of substitution as discussed in "DIA Commitment Regarding Funding" below. Exhibit B and Exhibit C, as applicable, set forth the commitment amount and, to the extent known prior to the date of this Term Sheet, the payment schedule for each Funder. Prior to execution of the Definitive Documentation, each Funder with respect to which the payment schedule was not known as of the date of this Term Sheet (unless such party becomes a "Funder" only after the date of the Definitive Documentation) shall agree to a payment schedule. Each Funder shall have the right to prepay its commitment in whole or in part at any time without penalty and no interest will be owed on any Funder's payments.

All payments by the Funders shall be made as set forth in "Payment Mechanism" of this Term Sheet. (The mechanics, timing and terms of all payments by the State shall be determined between the State and the City.)

The parties acknowledge that Funder payments are conditioned on the City meeting certain conditions both initially and on a continuing basis. See "Conditions to Future Funding Obligations" of this Term Sheet. Failure of the City to meet those conditions in any material respect may result in the delay of a scheduled payment by the Funders to the Supporting Organization and a delay of a scheduled payment by the Supporting Organization to the City until (i) all material requisite conditions for that payment are met; or (ii) cancellation of that payment if the material requisite conditions are not met within any established cure period.

Funding commitments of the following amounts (before giving effect to any Present Value Discount, as applicable) are required as a condition to Closing:

|                          |                |

| Foundation Funders (net) | $366 million  |
| DIA Funders and DIA      | $100 million* |
| State                    | $350 million  |

*inclusive of the intended funding amounts for the identified Foundation Funders

|-------------------------------|--|
|                               | listed in Exhibit B To the extent the City fails to meet its indemnity obligations further described in Exhibit D, the Funders', the Supporting Organization's and The DIA's (with respect to a DIA Deficiency or under the Guaranty) funding commitments will be reduced by any litigation or defense costs, damages or settlement costs incurred by the applicable Funder, the Supporting Organization or The DIA in connection therewith. Similarly, the Funders, the Supporting Organization and The DIA may reduce their funding commitments to the extent that any litigation or defense costs, damages or settlement costs incurred by them and arising from the transactions contemplated by this Term Sheet and the Definitive Documentation are not otherwise covered by the City's indemnity obligations described in Exhibit D.  |
| Present Value Discount | To the extent that the DIA Funders and The DIA have agreed upon an aggregate payment schedule (determined as of the Closing and adjusted after the Closing for any New Donor Commitments), that provides for the payment of greater than an aggregate of $5 million per year during the Payment Period (the "Agreed Required Minimum Schedule"), the amount and timing of such annual excess in commitments shall, applying a discount rate to be agreed upon hereafter but prior to Closing, which may or may not be the same earnings rate that the Pensions use as provided for in the confirmed Plan of Adjustment as the Pensions' assumed future investment return, result in a present value discount in an amount which reflects the payments required to be made being instead made more rapidly than required by the Agreed Required Minimum Payment Schedule, which present value discount shall reduce the aggregate amount of the commitments that The DIA is required to secure or, as to any DIA Deficiency, undertake itself (the "Present Value Discount"). Each Foundation Funder which funds its commitment more rapidly than ratably over twenty years shall likewise be entitled to a Present Value Discount determined in the same manner as set forth in the preceding paragraph. Any disputes regarding the calculation or application of a Present Value Discount will be irrevocably determined, |

|--|--|
|  | based upon the formula described in this Term Sheet, by an independent auditing firm to be agreed upon in the Definitive Documentation.   |
| The DIA Commitment Regarding Funding | The DIA undertakes to secure commitments for contributions of $100 million (subject to the Present Value Discount) from the business community (and their related foundations), other foundations and individuals. As of the Closing, The DIA shall be responsible for any portion of the $100 million (subject to the Present Value Discount) for which it has not secured commitments from DIA Funders as of the Closing (the "DIA Deficiency"). However, The DIA shall have the right after the Closing to substitute for its obligation to pay any or all of the DIA Deficiency commitments from new DIA Funders or an increased funding commitment from an existing DIA Funder (each a "New Donor Commitment") for such amount of the DIA Deficiency. Subject to the terms of this Term Sheet, all New Donor Commitments shall be payable according to payment schedules which shall not run later than the end of the Payment Period. In addition, The DIA agrees that it will have no claims against the Foundation Funders for failure to fund their commitments and that the Foundation Funders have made no commitments beyond those set forth in this Term Sheet (as will be reflected in the Definitive Documentation). |
| DIA Guaranty                         | Subject to the terms and conditions of this Term Sheet, The DIA shall guaranty (the "Guaranty") the payment by all DIA Funders of all amounts such DIA Funders pledge against the $100 million (subject to the Present Value Discount) commitment of The DIA under the "Funding Commitment" section of this Term Sheet. The City may take action to collect Default Amounts under the Guaranty as permitted under the "Default and Remedies" section of this Term Sheet. The City shall not otherwise take action to collect any amounts under the Guaranty, and under no circumstances will anyone other than the City have any right to take any action to collect any amounts under the Guaranty. The DIA Guaranty shall be in form and substance acceptable to the City and the Funders.  |
| Default and Remedies                 | All Funders (including The DIA, both as to any DIA Deficiency and with respect to the Guaranty) shall have the right to rely upon the determination of the Board of Directors of the Supporting Organization as to whether the conditions   | to a scheduled payment have been satisfied and, if not initially satisfied, whether they have been timely cured. In the event that the Supporting Organization has determined that the conditions have not been satisfied (or timely cured) and the City disputes that determination, the City's only recourse shall be to dispute the Supporting Organization's determination. The City shall have no claim against any Funder (or under the Guaranty) for such Funder's reliance upon the determination of the Board of Directors of the Supporting Organization. Any dispute between the City and the Supporting Organization regarding whether the conditions had been satisfied or timely cured shall be determined in accordance with the "Dispute Resolution" section of this Term Sheet.

In the event it is determined by the Supporting Organization or through arbitration that the conditions to a scheduled payment have been satisfied or timely cured, all Funders shall be required to make their scheduled payments to the Supporting Organization (or, as to DIA Funders that so elect in accordance with the "Payment Mechanism" section of this Term Sheet, to The DIA, which will be required to make its scheduled payments to the Supporting Organization). If a Foundation Funder, a DIA Funder or The DIA (either with respect to a Deficiency Amount or on behalf of a DIA Funder who elects to make its payments to The DIA) has made its scheduled payment to the Supporting Organization, the City shall have recourse only to the Supporting Organization (and not any Funder that made its scheduled payment) for such payment. If a Foundation Funder, a DIA Funder or The DIA (either with respect to a Deficiency Amount or on behalf a DIA Funder who elects to make its payments to The DIA) has not made its scheduled payment after it is determined by the Supporting Organization or through arbitration that the conditions to such payment have been satisfied or timely cured, the Supporting Organization shall, after making reasonable efforts to collect the scheduled payment from the Funder (the "Non-funding Party"), assign its right to enforce payment of that scheduled payment (the "Default Amount") to the City in full satisfaction of the Supporting Organization's obligation to make such payment to the City.

If the Supporting Organization assigns to the City, in accordance with the preceding paragraph, the Supporting Organization's right to enforce payment of a Default Amount from a DIA Funder (a "Defaulted DIA Funder"), during the twelve-month period following the assignment of the claim

|---|---|
|   | to the City (the “City Collection Period”), the City shall exercise commercially reasonable efforts to collect the Default Amount from that Defaulted DIA Funder, and any amounts collected from that Defaulted DIA Funder shall reduce the amount subject to the Guaranty. If the City is unable to collect the Default Amount from a Defaulted DIA Funder during the City Collection Period, upon the expiration of the City Collection Period, the City may collect the Default Amount from The DIA under the Guaranty and, in such event, assign to The DIA all right and title to (and exclusive authority to collect) the Default Amount. In no event will any Funder other than the Non-funding Party have any responsibility for the payment or obligations of such Non-funding Party (except, as to The DIA, under the Guaranty), and the City will not have any right to collect any amounts from any Funder except as set forth above. Moreover, there will be no third-party beneficiaries to the rights of the City or the Supporting Organization, and no party other than the City or the Supporting Organization (or The DIA in respect of the Guaranty), as applicable, shall have the right to assert any claim against any Funder in respect of the obligations arising under the Definitive Documentation. Without limiting the foregoing, the failure of any Funder or the Supporting Organization to make a scheduled payment shall give rise to a claim by the City against such Non-funding Party, as set forth above, and not against any other Funder, the Supporting Organization, The DIA or the Museum Assets; provided, however, (i) as contemplated in “The DIA Commitment Regarding Funding” above, The DIA will be obligated for any DIA Deficiency except to the extent the DIA Deficiency is replaced during the Payment Period with a New Donor Commitment, and (ii) The DIA will have its obligations under the Guaranty. The City will be responsible for all costs of its enforcement against the Non-funding Party and will not seek reimbursement of costs of enforcement from any other party or the Supporting Organization. No other person or entity shall have the right to enforce payment. |
| Initial Payment | At and as a condition to the Closing (a) each of the Foundation Funders and the State shall pay at least 5% of its commitment under this Term Sheet and (b) The DIA and the DIA Funders in the aggregate shall pay at least $5 million.   |

|---|--|
| Transfer on Initial Payment                                   | The Transfer shall be irrevocably consummated upon the Initial Payment to the City Account (defined in "Conditions to Future Funding Obligations" of this Term Sheet) (which shall be made at the Closing). In addition, at the Closing, the City and The DIA will enter into an agreement that (1) terminates the Operating Agreement, (2) includes a mutual release of pre-Closing claims, and (3) assigns (without recourse) from the City to The DIA all current and future commitments or gifts made or intended for the benefit of the Museum or The DIA, including without limitation money and works of art. The City will not, however, make any representations or warranties relating to the condition of, or title to, the Museum Assets or such commitments and will not have any liability with respect thereto.  |
| Payment Mechanism   | All payments by the Funders shall be made directly to the Supporting Organization which shall hold such payments in a segregated account (the "Account") pending payment to the City. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any DIA Funder may make its payments to The DIA instead of to the Supporting Organization; payments by The DIA (either with respect to a Deficiency Amount or on behalf a DIA Funder who elects pursuant to the preceding sentence to make its payments to The DIA) to the Supporting Organization shall be pursuant to the terms of an agreement which will be entered into between The DIA and the Supporting Organization in connection with the execution of the Definitive Documentation. As set forth under "Default and Remedies" above, only the City will have recourse or claims against the Account, provided all conditions specified in "Conditions to Future Funding Obligations" of this Term Sheet have been satisfied and as otherwise provided in this Term Sheet, and the City shall be paid when due, directly from the Account for the exclusive payment of the Pensions. The City will not be entitled to any interest or earnings on the balances of the Account. The City shall then pay such amounts to and for the exclusive payment of the Pensions in accordance with the allocation determined by the City and agreed by the Funders. |
| DIA Commitment for State-wide Services for State Contribution | In addition to continuing to operate the Museum for the benefit of the people of the City and the State, including the citizens of the Tri-Counties, and continuing to provide the special services to the residents of the Tri-Counties during the millage term that are provided for in the millage   | agreements, during the Payment Period The DIA will provide an array of art programs at no or discounted costs to the residents of the State. In determining which programs to offer, both the cost to The DIA of developing and operating these programs and The DIA's other fundraising obligations, including its need to raise funds for general operations and its stated goal of building endowment funds, as well as any fundraising obligation under this settlement, will be taken into account. As appropriate, The DIA will collaborate with its Michigan museum colleagues in the development of these programs. Given the length of the Payment Period, it is expected that these programs would be developed and adjusted over time. Such programs could include at the outset:

- Two exhibitions in each twelve-month period, with the first such period beginning six months after the Closing, of objects from the Museum collection that would rotate through museums and art centers around the State on a schedule to be determined by The DIA and the recipient museums. Each exhibition will be developed and organized by The DIA and will include installation and de-installation of the objects, a marketing package (logo and advertising template) and, possibly, input on programming and education opportunities.
- An annual professional development program coordinated with the Michigan Museums Association designed to strengthen museum professionals and introduce museum job opportunities to student audiences.
- An expansion of the Museum's popular Inside/Out program (during the tenure of the program), which places high-quality art reproductions in Southeast Michigan communities, to include two additional outstate locations annually, supporting tourism, cultural awareness and life-long learning.
- Art object conservation services at a discounted rate to Michigan museums conducted in consultation with the Museum conservators and the curatorial staff of the requesting museum.
- The development of an educational program based on the Museum collection that supports National Common Core Standards, to be offered in two

If the AAM ceases to exist or to be generally regarded by leading American art museums as the preeminent American art museum accreditation organization, then the AAM's successor organization or such other organization that is at that time generally regarded by leading American art museums as the preeminent American art museum accreditation organization shall be substituted for the AAM.</li> </ol> |

Such successor entity would subject itself to the same conditions as set forth in this Term Sheet and the Definitive Documentation, including but not limited to holding the Museum Assets in perpetual charitable trust for the people of the City and the State, including the citizens of the Tri-Counties. Susan Nelson, principal of Technical Development Corporation, will facilitate and advise the process, with funding as required from the Foundation Funders. ## EXHIBIT D

INDEMNIFICATION, JURISDICTION, VENUE AND CHOICE OF LAW

All capitalized terms used but not defined in this Exhibit D are defined in the Term Sheet.

- (a) To the maximum extent permitted by law, the City shall indemnify, defend, and hold the Foundation Funders, the DIA Funders, The DIA and the Supporting Organization and their affiliates and all their respective shareholders, officers, directors, members, managers, employees, successors, assigns, representatives, attorneys and agents (the "Indemnified Parties") harmless from, against, and with respect to any claim, liability, obligation, loss, damage, assessment, judgment, cost and expense (including, without limitation, actual out-of-pocket attorney fees and actual expenses incurred in investigating, preparing, defending against, or prosecuting any litigation or claim, action, suit, hearing, proceeding or demand) of any kind or character, arising out of or in any manner, incident, relating or attributable to the following (provided indemnification will not be available to an Indemnified Party to the extent resulting from such Indemnified Party's breach of contract, sole ordinary negligence, gross negligence or intentional wrongful acts):
- (i) Any claims by third parties or the City arising out of any action properly taken by the Indemnified Parties under the Definitive Documentation with respect to the contemplated transaction including, but not limited to, any payment, non-payment or other obligation of the Indemnified Parties permitted thereunder;
  - (ii) Any breach or failure of any representation or warranty of the City contained in the Definitive Documentation between the City and the Indemnified Parties and/or other parties related to the contemplated transaction;
  - (iii) Any failure by the City to perform, satisfy or comply with any covenant, agreement or condition to be performed, satisfied or complied with by the City under the Definitive Documentation with the Indemnified Parties or under agreements with any third parties contemplated by this transaction;
  - (iv) Reliance by the Indemnified Parties upon any books or records of the City or reliance by them on any written information furnished by the City or any of the City's employees, officials or agents to them to the extent any such information should prove to be false or materially inaccurate or misleading (including, without limitation, by omission), but only to the extent that such books, records or written information was furnished by the City in connection with the City showing its compliance with the conditions to initial or future funding as set forth in the Term Sheet;
  - (v) Any claim or objection made in the City's Chapter 9 Bankruptcy (Case No. 13-53846) or any other action brought against, or involving, the Indemnified Parties with respect to their participation in any transaction contemplated by the proposed or confirmed Plan of Adjustment;

(vi) The transfer, assignment or sale by the City to The DIA of any assets or property (real or personal) and any rights, title and interests therein including, but not limited to, the Museum and all of the Museum Assets;

(vii) Any action or claim against the Indemnified Parties made by the Pensions, including any successors or assigns and any plan participants, or their representatives, successors or assigns (collectively, the "Pension Funds"), as nothing under the Term Sheet or the Definitive Documentation is intended to, nor are they to be construed or interpreted to, make the Indemnified Parties a party in privity with, or having an obligation in any capacity to the Pension Funds. By way of illustration and not limitation, the following statements apply:

First, the Indemnified Parties have no responsibility for the operation or administration of the Pension Funds and have no fiduciary responsibility for the Pension Funds as plan sponsor, plan administrator, investment advisor or otherwise.

Second, the Indemnified Parties have no obligation to contribute towards the funding of the Pension Funds and are not a funding guarantor.

(viii) Any action or claim brought by the City, The DIA, the Pension Funds or any other party concerning non-payment of the contributions pursuant to the contemplated transaction by the Indemnified Parties due to the breach of the Definitive Documentation by the City, the DIA, the Pension Funds or any other party, so long as the Indemnified Parties have made a good faith determination of the breach of the Definitive Documentation or payment condition.

(b) An Indemnified Party shall notify the City in a timely manner of any matters as to which the Indemnified Party is entitled to receive indemnification and shall set forth in such notice reasonable detail regarding specific facts and circumstances then known by the Indemnified Party which pertain to such matters. Failure or delay in providing such notice shall not relieve the City of its defense or indemnity obligations except to the extent the City's defense of an applicable claim against an Indemnified Party is actually prejudiced by such Indemnified Party's failure or delay.

(c) The City shall not contest on any grounds the enforceability of its indemnification obligations hereunder.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties acknowledge that the City is not making any representations to The DIA regarding the City's title to the Museum Assets prior to the Closing and that The DIA will not be entitled to indemnification in connection with its defense of any post-Closing claims by third parties challenging The DIA's title to any Museum Asset to the extent that such claim is based on an allegation that the City did not have legal title to the particular Museum Asset prior to the Closing (a "Quitclaim Challenge"). To be clear, however, The DIA will be entitled to indemnification by the City under this Exhibit D in connection with any post-Closing challenges to The DIA's title to Museum Assets that are in any way based upon a claim that the title that the City had to the Museum Assets prior to Closing was not effectively conveyed to The DIA at and as a result of the Closing.

Defense of Indemnity Claims

(a) To the extent the City is notified of claim for which it is required to indemnify an Indemnified Party, the City shall be solely responsible for responding to or otherwise defending such claim. In such event, the City shall assume exclusive control of the defense of such claim at its sole expense using counsel of its sole choosing and may settle such claim in its sole discretion; provided, however, that (i) with respect to any claim that involves allegations of criminal wrongdoing, the City shall not settle such claim without the prior written approval of the Indemnified Party, which approval may be withheld in such Indemnified Party's sole discretion, and (ii) with respect to any other claim, the City shall not settle such claim in a manner that requires the admission of liability, fault, or wrongdoing on the part of an Indemnified Party, that fails to include a release of all covered claims pending against the Indemnified Party, or that imposes any obligation on the Indemnified Party without the prior written approval of the Indemnified Party, which approval may be withheld in such Indemnified Party's sole discretion. The City will keep the Indemnified Party reasonably informed of the status of any negotiations or legal proceedings related to any claim, and the Indemnified Party shall be entitled to engage counsel (at its own expense) to monitor the handling of any claim by the City. Notwithstanding the foregoing, other than as relates to a Quitclaim Challenge (for which The DIA will not be entitled to indemnification, as set forth above), The DIA shall be entitled to defend on its own behalf any claims regarding title to, interest in or control of the Museum Assets or operation of the Museum. To the extent The DIA intends to exercise such right, the City and The DIA shall use their commercially reasonable efforts in good faith to coordinate a joint defense of such claim (including as to selection of joint counsel). If the City and The DIA cannot agree on a joint defense of the claim, each party shall undertake its own defense, reserving all rights against the other for indemnification hereunder with respect to such claim, but, in such case, The DIA shall not be entitled to indemnification of its defense costs in connection therewith.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Exhibit D or the Term Sheet, to the extent that the City is required to indemnify an Indemnified Party hereunder, and the underlying claim being indemnified does not arise out of the City's breach of contract, sole ordinary negligence, gross negligence or intentional wrongful acts and is not due to a claim brought by the City, the City may reimburse itself for the costs of such indemnity out of the payments from the Supporting Organization, in which case the amount payable by the City to the Pensions shall be reduced by the amount reimbursed to the City for such indemnity.

Jurisdiction/Venue/Choice of Law

The parties agree that, except as to disputes that are subject to arbitration in accordance with the "Dispute Resolution" section of the Term Sheet, jurisdiction shall be retained by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Michigan for all matters related to the contemplated transaction and venue shall be in Detroit. The parties agree that this agreement is to be governed by Michigan law.

ARTICLE II
The Commitments

2.1 DIA Funding Obligation.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including The DIA’s guaranty obligations in Section 2.8(c) of this Agreement, The DIA hereby commits to pay to the Supporting Organization on the Closing Date and with respect to each Payment Date: (A) $5 million multiplied by the number of annual payments required before and with respect to the then current Payment Date (treating the Closing Date for such purpose as a Payment Date) minus (B) the sum of (i) the aggregate amounts previously paid by The DIA, all DIA Direct Funders and both Special Foundation Funders plus (ii) the amount to be paid in the aggregate by all DIA Direct Funders and both Special Foundation Funders on such Payment Date. The DIA may pay an amount in excess of its obligation in this Section 2.1(a) without penalty or premium in connection with any payment otherwise made with respect to a Payment Date.

(b) Except for The DIA’s guaranty obligations as provided in Section 2.8(c) of this Agreement, and taking into account the application of Sections 2.1(c) and (d) below, The DIA shall have no obligation to make any further payments and The DIA’s obligations shall be entirely satisfied at such time (the “Termination Date”) as: (A) the sum of (1) the remaining aggregate funding commitments of DIA Direct Funders to the Supporting Organization assuming such commitments are paid precisely in accordance with the funding schedule reflected in their individual DIA Direct Funder FDF Agreements plus, (2) the remaining aggregate funding commitments of both Special Foundation Funders to the Supporting Organization assuming such commitments are paid precisely in accordance with the funding schedule reflected in their individual Foundation FDF Agreements, plus (3) the aggregate amount theretofore paid by DIA Direct Funders, The DIA and both Special Foundation Funders to the Supporting Organization that is paid to the City Account is greater than or equal to (B) the sum of (i) $5 million paid on the Closing Date plus (ii) nineteen (19) payments of $5 million on each Payment Date thereafter, with each of the amounts in (A) and (B) being calculated with application of the Present Value Discount. The term “Termination Date” includes the date, if any, of the cancellation of the commitment of The DIA hereunder in accordance with Section 2.5(b) of this Agreement. Hypothetical examples of the calculation of The DIA’s payment obligations pursuant to this Section 2.1 are attached as Schedule 2 to this Agreement.

(c) For purposes of the calculations in Sections 2.1(a) and 2.1(b) of this Agreement, in the event of a City Event of Default during a particular fiscal year (July 1 through June 30) that results in the cancellation of a payment pursuant to Section 2.5(b) of this Agreement, The DIA, all DIA Direct Funders and both Special Foundation Funders shall, in each case, be deemed to have made the annual payment required by, with respect to The DIA, Section 2.1(a) of this Agreement and The DIA FDF Agreement, and with respect to DIA Direct Funders and Special Foundation Funders by their respective Funding Agreements, on June 30 of such year notwithstanding such cancellation of such scheduled payment.

(d) The DIA's payment obligations under Sections 2.1(a) and 2.1(b) above and Section 2.8(c) shall be reduced by (x) any litigation or defense costs, damages or settlement costs incurred by The DIA, any DIA Direct Funder or any Special Foundation Funder to the extent the City fails to meet its indemnity obligations set forth in Section 6.2 of this Agreement, and (y) to the extent of any litigation or defense costs, damages or settlement costs incurred by The DIA, any DIA Direct Funder or any Special Foundation Funder arising from the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Transaction Documentation that are not otherwise covered by the City's indemnity obligations in Section 6.2 of this Agreement.

2.2 Foundation Funders Commitments to Supporting Organization. Under their respective Foundation FDF Agreements, each Foundation Funder has committed to make an aggregate amount of payments to the Supporting Organization. The obligation of each Foundation Funder to make such aggregate amount of payments to the Supporting Organization shall terminate at such time as, taking into account the application of Section 2.3(d), (A) the aggregate amount theretofore paid by that Foundation Funder to the Supporting Organization that is paid to the City Account is greater than or equal to (B) the aggregate amount of its commitment paid (i) on the Closing Date plus (ii) the nineteen (19) payments on each Payment Date thereafter, with each of the amounts in (A) and (B) being calculated with application of the Present Value Discount. For purposes of the calculations in this Section 2.2, in the event of a City Event of Default during a particular fiscal year (July 1 through June 30) that results in the cancellation of a payment pursuant to Section 2.5(b) of this Agreement, all Foundation Funders shall be deemed to have made the scheduled payment under their respective Foundation FDF Agreements on June 30 of such year notwithstanding the cancellation of such scheduled payment.

2.3 Payments.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of ARTICLE II, funding of the commitments shall be made by (i) each Foundation Funder pursuant to the terms and conditions of its Foundation FDF Agreement, (ii) The DIA pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the DIA FDF Agreement, and (iii) each DIA Direct Funder pursuant to the terms and conditions of its DIA Direct Funder FDF Agreement.

(b) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, on the Closing Date, and on an annual basis thereafter commencing in 2016, on each Payment Date the Supporting Organization will remit to the City Account pursuant to the wire transfer instructions on Schedule 1 to this Agreement: (x) the payments made by all Foundation Funders as described in Section 2.2 of this Agreement and any prepayments by Foundation Funders, plus (y) the payments made by The DIA pursuant to Section 2.1 of this Agreement and the DIA FDF Agreement and any prepayments by The DIA, plus (z) the payments made by all DIA Direct Funders pursuant to the DIA Direct Funder FDF Agreements and any prepayments by DIA

Direct Funders. No interest will be owed on any Funder's payments. The Supporting Organization shall not have any obligation to remit funds to the City Account if it has not received scheduled payments from a Funder, except as provided in Section 2.8(c) of this Agreement with respect to The DIA's guaranty of payment obligations with respect to a Defaulted DIA Funder. Further, the obligation of the Supporting Organization to remit payments to the City shall terminate upon the remittance in the aggregate of $466 million, comprised of $100 million from The DIA (including the commitments of DIA Direct Funders and Special Foundation Funders) and $366 million from Foundation Funders (excluding Special Foundation Funders), in each case, without interest and before applying any Present Value Discount, if applicable, or the equivalent of such amount, applying the Present Value Discount, payable $23.3 million at Closing and $23.3 million with respect to each Payment Date thereafter. For purposes of the calculations in this Section 2.3(b), (x) in the event of a City Event of Default during a particular fiscal year (July 1 through June 30) that results in the cancellation of a payment by any Funder pursuant to Section 2.5(b) of this Agreement, the Supporting Organization shall be deemed to have made the scheduled payment under this Agreement on June 30 of such year notwithstanding such cancellation of such scheduled payment and (y) the provisions of Section 2.3(d) shall, if applicable, be taken into account in such calculation.

(c) Either the City or the Supporting Organization may deliver written notice to the other party that they have been unable to reach agreement upon the calculation of the amount of any prepayment by any Foundation Funder applying the Present Value Discount in accordance with the applicable Foundation FDF Agreement in advance of a particular Payment Date. In addition, the City may deliver a written notice of objection to the Supporting Organization regarding the calculation of the payment obligations of The DIA with respect to a particular Payment Date within sixty (60) days after the remittance of the funds by the Supporting Organization to the City on behalf of The DIA. Any such disputes regarding the calculation of any such payment obligations under this Agreement or the applicable Foundation FDF Agreement will be determined by an independent accounting firm of national or regional (Midwest) reputation; provided that no such firm may have a conflict of interest and such firm shall be required to maintain independence as those terms are defined by the AICPA Code of Professional Conduct (as of June 1, 2012) (the "Accountant"). The Accountant shall be agreed to by the City and the Supporting Organization with respect to a Foundation Funder or by the City and The DIA if the dispute relates to The DIA's payment obligations. If the applicable Parties cannot agree on the Accountant within fourteen (14) days after either Party issues written notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, then within seven (7) days after the end of such fourteen (14) day notice period, each of such Parties shall submit the names of two (2) accounting firms that meet the standards of the preceding sentence, within seven (7) days thereafter, either Party may strike one name submitted by the other Party and the Accountant shall be selected by lot from the remaining names. The City and the Supporting Organization or The DIA, as applicable, shall deliver their calculations of the amounts they assert are owing to the Accountant within fourteen (14) days after the selection of the Accountant. The Accountant shall deliver its determination of the disputed payment obligations under this Agreement within thirty (30) days after receipt of the written notice of calculations from the Parties, and when rendered in writing, shall be final and binding upon each of the Parties. The City and The DIA agree that the Supporting Organization shall not be responsible for any shortfall in the amount of funds remitted to the City Account on behalf of The DIA due to a dispute regarding the calculation of The DIA's payment obligations in accordance with the provisions of this Section

2.3(c) nor shall the Supporting Organization have any other liability as a result of any such dispute.

(d) The obligation of the Foundation Funders under Section 2.2 of this Agreement and of the Supporting Organization to remit funds to the City Account under Section 2.3(b) above shall be reduced by (x) any litigation or defense costs, damages or settlement costs incurred by the Supporting Organization or the Foundation Funder to the extent the City fails to meet its indemnity obligations set forth in Section 6.2 of this Agreement, and (y) to the extent of any litigation or defense costs, damages or settlement costs incurred by the Supporting Organization or the Foundation Funder arising from the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Transaction Documentation, that are not otherwise covered by the City's indemnity obligations in Section 6.2 of this Agreement.

The City will cooperate with any such onsite review and will provide those persons conducting the review adequate office space and assistance (without charge) to conduct that review. The City specifically waives, in favor of the Supporting Organization, or its agent or consultant, any fee for a public record search, pursuant to MCLA 15.234.

(d) The obligation of The DIA, a DIA Direct Funder and a Foundation Funder to make payment to the Supporting Organization of any portion of its commitment under this Agreement or any other Funding Agreement is conditioned upon the City's compliance with the covenants in Sections 5.2 and 5.3(a)-(d) of this Agreement, satisfaction of the conditions specified in Sections 2.4(a)-(c) above, the receipt of the Independent Audited Financial Reports and the Pension Certificate. The City acknowledges that The DIA under this Agreement, and under the DIA FDF Agreement, and each DIA Direct Funder and Foundation Funder under its respective Funding Agreement, shall have no obligation to make any payment to the Supporting Organization, nor shall the Supporting Organization have any obligation to remit any funds to the City Account, until all material requisite conditions precedent to funding in Section 2.4 of this Agreement are met. Failure of the City to meet the conditions to funding specified in this Section 2.4 in any material respect, including based on the Supporting Organization informing the City that the information provided in the Annual Report, the Independent Audited Financial Reports, the Pension Certificates or the Interim Reaffirmation is incomplete or unsatisfactory, shall be a "City Event of Default".

2.5 The City's Cure Right; Suspension or Cancellation of Funding.

(a) The City shall have the opportunity to cure any City Event of Default by May 15th of the year following the date the Annual Report is due under Section 2.4(a) above (this being 135 days from the time conditions to funding were due to be met by the City) provided an issuance of written notice of a City Event of Default by the Supporting Organization was provided to the City by the Supporting Organization by January 31st of the year following the year such Annual Report was due from the City under Section 2.4(a) above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that the applicable City Event of Default cannot reasonably be cured by May 15th as specified above or if the Event of Default arises out of the Independent Audited Financial Reports, the Pension Certificates or the Interim Reaffirmation of that Annual Report, and as long as the City has commenced to cure, and diligently pursues the cure of such default in good faith, such cure period shall be extended in writing by a reasonable period of time (the "Extended Cure Period"), to permit the City to cure such City Event of Default; provided, however, such Extended Cure Period shall not extend beyond December 15th (being 346 days from the date the Annual Report was due under Section 2.4(a) above). The City's ability to receive the benefit of the Extended Cure Period shall be subject to the written approval of the Supporting Organization upon receipt of a written request from the City setting forth why the City believes that it will be able to meet the requirements set forth above within the requested Extended Cure Period, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

(b) All obligations of The DIA under this Agreement, and as acknowledged by the City, all obligations of The DIA under the DIA FDF Agreement and of DIA Direct Funders and Foundation Funders under their respective Funding Agreements, to make scheduled payments and of the Supporting Organization to remit funds to the City Account shall be suspended for the duration of the initial and any Extended Cure Period. The City acknowledges and agrees that, if the City fails to cure a City Event of Default during the initial and any Extended Cure Period, the scheduled payment of The DIA under this Agreement and under the DIA FDF Agreement and of all DIA Direct Funders and Foundation Funders under their respective Funding Agreements shall be cancelled, and the Supporting Organization shall have not so paid, that the Supporting Organization shall assign its right to enforce payment of the Default Amount to the City. If the Non-funding Party does not pay its Default Amount within the thirty (30) day period, the Supporting Organization shall assign its right to enforce payment of the Default Amount to the City in full satisfaction of the Supporting Organization's obligation to make such payment to the City; provided that if the Non-funding Party is a DIA Direct Funder or a Special Foundation Funder (a "Defaulted DIA Funder") such assignment shall be made to The DIA and not the City. Except with respect to the guaranty obligation of The DIA with respect to a Defaulted DIA Funder in accordance with Section 2.8(c) below, the annual payment amount due to the City from the Supporting Organization on the Payment Date will be reduced by the Default Amount.

(c) In the case of a Defaulted DIA Funder, the Supporting Organization shall issue written notice to The DIA within two (2) days after the expiration of the twenty (20) day funding period specified in Section 2.7 of this Agreement of the name of the Defaulted DIA Funder and the Default Amount. The DIA shall within five (5) Business Days of receipt of such notice pay to the Supporting Organization (x) the Default Amount if the Termination Date has occurred and (y) if the Termination Date has not occurred, such additional amount as is necessary, if any, such that The DIA's payment to the Supporting Organization with respect to such Payment Date is equal to the amount that The DIA is otherwise required to pay pursuant to Section 2.1 of this Agreement. The DIA shall not, however, have any obligation pursuant to this Section 2.8(c) if The DIA's commitment has been cancelled as provided in Section 2.5 of this Agreement. If the Supporting Organization thereafter collects the Default Amount from the Defaulted DIA Funder, the Supporting Organization shall promptly pay such amount to The DIA.

(d) The City agrees that, except for the guaranty obligation of The DIA in Section 2.8(c) of this Agreement with respect to a Defaulted DIA Funder, in no event will any Funder other than the Non-funding Party have any responsibility for the payment or obligations of such Non-funding Party, and the City will not have any right to collect any amounts from any Funder except as set forth in Section 2.8(b) of this Agreement. No party other than the City (as provided in Section 2.8(b) of this Agreement), the Supporting Organization, or The DIA with respect to a Defaulted DIA Funder or a DIA Indirect Funder pursuant to any grant agreement directly with The DIA shall have the right to assert any claim against any Funder. Without limiting the foregoing, the failure of The DIA, any DIA Direct Funder, any Foundation Funder or the Supporting Organization to make a scheduled payment shall only give rise to a claim by the City against such Non-funding Party (pursuant to Section 2.8(b) above), or by the Supporting Organization, and not against any other Funder, the Supporting Organization, The DIA or the DIA Assets; provided, however, (x) The DIA will have its guaranty obligations under Section 2.8(c) of this Agreement and its rights under its applicable grant agreement with each DIA Indirect Funder and (y) the foregoing shall not preclude the City from asserting claims in satisfaction of an indemnity claim pursuant to Section 6.1(b) of this Agreement but only against cash, cash equivalents or cash receivables of The DIA (excluding any cash, cash equivalents or cash receivables that are restricted in use by the terms of the donation, gift, bequest or contribution of a third party or by restrictions imposed on the use of proceeds from the sale of art by the applicable standards or ethical guidelines of the AAM or the Association of Art Museum Directors (or such other organizations by which The DIA or the Museum or its Director is accredited in the future or of which they become members in accordance with then applicable art museum best practices). Without limiting the foregoing, under no circumstances shall the City or the Supporting Organization have a claim against any DIA Indirect Funder.

(e) The City will be responsible for all costs of its enforcement against the Non-funding Party or the Supporting Organization, as applicable, and will not seek reimbursement of costs of enforcement from any other Funder or the Supporting Organization. No other person or entity shall have the right to enforce payment of any commitments in connection with any Funding Agreement or any Transactional Documentation except as specifically set forth in this Agreement.

ARTICLE III Initial Funding; Closing

3.1 Closing. The closing of the transactions pursuant to this Agreement (the “Closing”) will take place immediately following the written confirmation from an authorized representative of the City, the Supporting Organization and The DIA in the form of Exhibit E to this Agreement (the “Closing Direction”); provided, that the Closing hereunder shall in all events occur concurrently with the closing under the Charitable Trust Agreement. The time and date on which the Closing occurs is referred to in this Agreement as the “Closing Date”.

3.2 Initial Funding. On the Closing Date, subject to the satisfaction of the deliverables pursuant to Section 3.3 of this Agreement, the Supporting Organization shall remit to the City Account pursuant to the wire transfer instructions on Schedule 1 to this Agreement:

- (i) the aggregate payment by Foundation Funders (excluding Special Foundation Funders) of at least $18.3 million, and
- (ii) the aggregate payment by The DIA, DIA Direct Funders and Special Foundation Funders of at least $5 million.

3.3 At the Closing. At the Closing, the Supporting Organization shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to each of the other Parties fully executed copies of the following which, to the extent held by the Title Company in escrow, shall be deemed delivered by virtue of the release of such documents by the Title Company in accordance with escrow instructions previously delivered to the Title Company:

- (a) each grant agreement between a Foundation Funder and the Supporting Organization in substantially the form of Exhibit B to this Agreement (the “Foundation FDF Agreement”).
- (b) each grant agreement between a DIA Direct Funder and the Supporting Organization in substantially the form of Exhibit C to this Agreement (the “DIA Direct Funder FDF Agreement”).
- (c) the agreement between The DIA and the Supporting Organization in substantially the form of Exhibit D to this Agreement with respect to The DIA’s payment obligations as set forth in Section 2.1 of this Agreement (the “DIA FDF Agreement”).

ARTICLE IV

Representations and Warranties; Covenants of The DIA and the Supporting Organization

4.1 DIA Representations, Warranties and Covenants.

(a) The DIA represents and warrants that this Agreement and the DIA FDF Agreement have been duly executed and The DIA's obligations under this Agreement and under the DIA FDF Agreement are authorized, valid and binding commitments of The DIA, enforceable against it in accordance with their respective terms.

(b) The DIA acknowledges that (x) Foundation Funders, DIA Funders and the Supporting Organization have no financial obligations other than, in the case of Foundation Funders, on a several basis, their individual commitments in their respective Foundation FDF Agreement, in the case of DIA Direct Funders, their respective commitments in each of their DIA Direct Funder FDF Agreements, and DIA Indirect Funders pursuant to any grant agreement directly with The DIA, and (y) that the Funders are not guaranteeing payment to the City of any amount committed by any other Funder (other than The DIA with respect to its obligations in Section 2.8(c) of this Agreement).

(c) The DIA agrees not to amend or modify the DIA FDF Agreement, or release or waive any rights that it has under such Funding Agreement, in a manner that would reasonably be expected to adversely affect the timing or amount of the payments to be made thereunder without the consent of the City.

4.2 Supporting Organization Representations and Warranties. The Supporting Organization represents that its obligations under this Agreement and under the applicable Funding Agreements have been duly executed and are authorized, valid and binding upon the Supporting Organization, enforceable against it in accordance with their respective terms.

4.3 Supporting Organization Covenants as to Funding Agreements.

(a) The Supporting Organization agrees not to amend or modify any Funding Agreement, or release or waive any rights that it has under any Funding Agreement, in a manner that would reasonably be expected to adversely affect the timing or amount of the payments to be made thereunder (i) without the consent of the City and, (ii) with respect to any DIA Direct Funder FDF Agreement or Foundation FDF Agreement with a Special Foundation Funder, the consent of The DIA.

(b) The Supporting Organization shall promptly after execution thereof deliver to The DIA and the City copies of any DIA Direct Funder FDF Agreement entered into after the Closing Date, or any modifications to any DIA Direct Funder FDF Agreement or Foundation FDF Agreement with a Special Foundation Funder executed at Closing, in the event that the commitments thereunder are increased or modified (with the consent of The DIA) after the Closing Date.

(c) Concurrently with the remittance of payments to the City Account by the Supporting Organization, the Supporting Organization shall deliver to The DIA and the City a schedule which reflects all payments received in such year from DIA Direct Funders and Special Foundation Funders and shall denote thereon whether any such payment represents a prepayment in excess of the funding schedule under the applicable DIA Direct Funder FDF Agreement or Foundation FDF Agreement, as applicable, and the date on which such payment was remitted to the City Account.

4.4 Reporting Obligations. The DIA will provide to the other Funders and the City, and/or their representatives, within 150 days after the end of each fiscal year during the Payment Period (i) annual financial statements of The DIA audited by an independent certified public accountant and (ii) the annual report of the Director of the Museum in the form provided to the board of directors of the Museum.

4.5 Supporting Organization Observer Right. During the Payment Period, the Supporting Organization shall have the right to designate a representative to attend and participate in a non-voting observer capacity in the meetings of the Board of The DIA (or its successor entity) subject to such observer's compliance with the applicable policies regarding confidentiality, conflicts of interest and other similar matters as may reasonably be adopted from time to time by The DIA.

ARTICLE V Representations and Warranties; Covenants of the City

5.1 City Representations and Warranties.

(a) The City represents and warrants that this Agreement has been duly executed and the City's obligations under this Agreement are authorized, valid and binding commitments of the City, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

(b) The City acknowledges that (x) Foundation Funders, DIA Funders and the Supporting Organization have no financial obligations other than, in the case of Foundation Funders, on a several basis, each of their commitments in their individual Foundation FDF Agreements, in the case of DIA Direct Funders, their respective commitments in each of their DIA Direct Funder FDF Agreements, and DIA Indirect Funders pursuant to any grant agreement directly with The DIA, and (y) that the Funders are not guaranteeing payment to the City of any amount committed by any other Funder (other than The DIA with respect to its obligations in Section 2.8(c) of this Agreement). The City further acknowledges that it has no rights under any grant agreement between any DIA Indirect Funder and The DIA.

5.2 City Commitments Relating to Pensions. The City covenants to The DIA and Supporting Organization as follows:

(a) For the twenty (20) year period following the effective date of the Plan of Adjustment, the City shall maintain the Pension Governance Terms reflected in the GRS and the PFRS, as applicable, without modification or amendment, except as required to comply with applicable federal law, including without limitation to maintain the tax qualified status of the GRS or PFRS under the Internal Revenue Code, or the Plan of Adjustment.

(b) The City acknowledges that, except as provided in Section 6.3(e) and to pay reasonable expenses of maintaining the City Account, all funds remitted by the Supporting Organization to the City Account in connection with this Agreement shall be used solely for the payment of contributions to GRS and PFRS, allocated as provided in the Plan of Adjustment, in satisfaction of the City's obligation to contribute to the Prior GRS Pension Plan and the Prior PFRS Pension Plan in accordance with the Plan of Adjustment. Except as provided in Section 6.3(e) and to pay reasonable expenses of maintaining the City Account, the City shall cause to be transferred from the City Account for payment of contributions to the Prior GRS Pension Plan and the Prior PFRS Pension Plan all amounts received from the Supporting Organization within not more than three (3) Business Days after such funds are deposited in the City Account.

(c) The City shall notify the Supporting Organization in writing prior to the selection of the initial and successor independent GRS Investment Committee and PFRS Investment Committee members and such notice shall include information regarding the identity and qualifications of the candidates under consideration by the State, the City and the GRS Board or PFRS Board, as applicable. In addition, upon the written request of the Supporting Organization, the City shall provide to the appropriate representatives of the State and the applicable Board any written comments or observations about the candidates that the Supporting Organization elects in its consulting role to provide to the City, provided that such written comments or observations are received by the City no later than three (3) days after the City has provided notice to the Supporting Organization of the identity of the candidates under consideration.

(d) The City shall provide written notification of any change to the wire transfer instructions to the City Account on Schedule 1 to this Agreement at least ten (10) Business Days prior to the next Payment Date.

5.3 Other City Commitments. The City covenants to The DIA and Supporting Organization as follows:

(a) The City shall pass no charter, ordinance or other provision that solely affects or primarily targets the Museum, The DIA or museums within the City generally which charter, ordinance or other provision has a material adverse impact on the Museum or The DIA (it being understood that a "material adverse impact" shall include any adverse financial impact or any contradiction, or adverse impact on the enforceability, of the terms of the DIA Settlement or the Transaction Documentation), except pursuant to State-enabling legislation.

(b) The City agrees that after the Effective Time the City of Detroit Arts Commission will have no oversight of The DIA, the Museum or the DIA Assets.

(c) The City shall not impose any fee, tax or other cost on the Museum or The DIA that solely affects or primarily targets the Museum, The DIA, the DIA Assets or museums within the City generally.

(d) The City shall provide (or cause to be provided) utilities, police, fire and other City services to The DIA at the same pricing and on the same terms upon which the City offers to provide utilities, police, fire and such other City services to arm's-length third parties generally.

(e) The City agrees that, as of the date hereof, there are no further commitments from the Funders, the Supporting Organization, The DIA or the State relating to the Museum or the DIA Assets beyond those contained in this Agreement or the other Transaction Documentation.

ARTICLE VI Indemnification

6.1 Indemnification by The DIA. To the maximum extent permitted by law, The DIA shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless:

(a) DIA Funders, Foundation Funders, the City and the Supporting Organization and each of their Related Parties (the “DIA Indemnified Parties”) from, against, and with respect to any Loss arising out of or in any manner, incident, relating or attributable to, or resulting from The DIA’s failure to perform any of its obligations under the Transaction Documentation; and

(b) the City and its Related Parties from, against, and with respect to any Loss arising out of or in any manner, incident, relating or attributable to, or resulting from any claim brought by an employee of The DIA arising from or relating to his/her employment with The DIA which employment commenced at any time after the effective date of the Operating Agreement and prior to the Effective Time, including without limitation, wrongful termination, workers’ compensation, unemployment compensation, discrimination, violation of federal or state labor or employment laws, ERISA, bodily injury, personal injury or defamation, but excluding any claim relating to pension benefits from the GRS to which such employee was or is entitled by virtue of having been employed by the City prior to the commencement of employment with The DIA (the “Employee Liabilities”).

6.2 Indemnification by the City.

(a) To the maximum extent permitted by law, the City shall indemnify, defend, and hold Foundation Funders, DIA Funders, The DIA and the Supporting Organization and their respective Related Parties (the “City Indemnified Parties”) harmless from, against, and with respect to any Loss arising out of or in any manner incident, relating or attributable to, or resulting from the following (provided indemnification will not be available to an Indemnified Party to the extent resulting from such Indemnified Party’s breach of contract, sole ordinary negligence, gross negligence or intentional wrongful acts):

(i) Any claims by third parties or the City arising out of any action properly taken by a City Indemnified Party under the Transaction Documentation, including but not limited to, any payment or non-payment or performance of any other obligation of the City Indemnified Parties permitted thereunder;

(ii) Any breach or failure of any representation or warranty of the City contained in the Transaction Documentation between the City and the City Indemnified Parties and/or other parties related to the transactions consummated pursuant to this Agreement or the Charitable Trust Agreement;

(iii) Any failure by the City to perform, satisfy or comply with any covenant, agreement or condition to be performed, satisfied or complied with by the City under the Transaction Documentation with the City Indemnified Parties or under agreements with any third parties contemplated by this Agreement or the Charitable Trust Agreement;

(iv) Reliance by the City Indemnified Parties upon any books or records of the City or reliance by them on any written information furnished by the City or any of the City's employees, officials or agents to them to the extent any such information should prove to be false or materially inaccurate or misleading (including, without limitation, by omission), but only to the extent that such books, records or written information was furnished by the City in connection with the City showing its compliance with the conditions to initial or future funding as set forth in this Agreement;

(v) Any claim or objection made after the Effective Date of the Plan of Adjustment in the Bankruptcy Case or any other action brought against, or involving, the City Indemnified Parties with respect to their participation in any transaction contemplated by the proposed or confirmed Plan of Adjustment;

(vi) The transfer, assignment or sale by the City to The DIA of any assets or property (real or personal) and any rights, title and interests therein including but not limited to, the Museum and all of the Museum Assets;

(vii) Any action or claim against the City Indemnified Parties made by the GRS or PFRS, including any successors or assigns and any plan participants, or their representatives, successors or assigns (collectively, the "Pension Funds"), as nothing under the Transaction Documentation is intended to, nor are they to be construed or interpreted to, make the City Indemnified Parties a party in privity with, or having an obligation in any capacity to the Pension Funds. By way of illustration and not limitation, the following statements apply:

First, the City Indemnified Parties have no responsibility for the operation or administration of the Pension Funds and have no fiduciary responsibility for the Pension Funds as plan sponsor, plan administrator, investment advisor or otherwise; and Second, the City Indemnified Parties have no obligation to contribute towards the funding of the Pension Funds and are not a funding guarantor.

(viii) Any action or claim brought by the City, The DIA, the Pension Funds or any other party concerning non-payment of the commitments pursuant to this Agreement (and the Funding Agreements) by the City Indemnified Parties due to the breach of the Transaction Documentation by the City, The DIA, the Pension Funds or any other party, so long as the City Indemnified Parties have made a good faith determination of the breach of the Transaction Documentation or payment condition.

(b) The City shall not contest on any grounds the enforceability of its indemnification obligations hereunder.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties acknowledge that the City is not making any representations to The DIA regarding the City's title to the Museum Assets prior to the Effective Time and that The DIA will not be entitled to indemnification in connection with its defense of any claims by third parties after the Effective Time challenging The DIA's title to any Museum Asset to the extent that such claim is based on an allegation that the City did not have legal title to the particular Museum Asset prior to the Effective Time (a "Quitclaim Challenge"). To be clear, however, The DIA will be entitled to indemnification by the City under this Section 6.2 in connection with any challenges after the Effective Time to The DIA's title to Museum Assets that are in any way based upon a claim that the title that the City had to the Museum Assets prior to the Effective Time was not effectively conveyed to The DIA at and as a result of the closing under the Charitable Trust Agreement. For avoidance of doubt, in the event of a final determination by the Bankruptcy Court not subject to appeal or certiorari by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Museum Assets must be re-conveyed to the City, the Losses for which The DIA may be indemnified shall not include the value of the Museum Assets but shall include all other Losses incurred by The DIA for which it is otherwise entitled to indemnification under this Agreement.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the City's indemnification of an Indemnified Party shall be limited solely to Losses arising out of or related to the Indemnified Party's participation in any transaction contemplated by the DIA Settlement.

6.3 Defense of Indemnity Claims.

(a) An Indemnified Party shall provide written notice to The DIA or the City, as applicable (the "Indemnifying Party") in a timely manner and in any event, within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of any claim, of any matters as to which the Indemnified Party is entitled to receive indemnification and shall set forth in such notice reasonable detail regarding specific facts and circumstances then known by the Indemnified Party which pertain to such matters. Failure or delay in providing such notice shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its defense or indemnity obligations except to the extent the Indemnifying Party's defense of an applicable claim against an Indemnified Party is actually prejudiced by such Indemnified Party's failure or delay.

(b) To the extent the Indemnifying Party is notified of a claim for which it is required to indemnify an Indemnified Party, the Indemnifying Party shall be solely responsible at its expense for responding to or otherwise defending such claim. In such event, the Indemnifying Party shall assume exclusive control of the defense of such claim at its sole expense using counsel of its sole choosing and may settle such claim in its sole discretion; provided, however, that (i) with respect to any claim that involves allegations of criminal wrongdoing, the City shall not settle such claim without the prior written approval of the City Indemnified Party, which approval may be withheld in such City Indemnified Party's sole discretion, and (ii) with respect to any other claim, the Indemnifying Party shall not settle such claim in a manner that requires the admission of liability, fault, or wrongdoing on the part of an Indemnified Party, that fails to include a release of all covered claims pending against the Indemnified Party, or that imposes any obligation on the Indemnified Party without the prior written approval of the Indemnified Party, which approval may be withheld in such Indemnified Party's sole discretion.

(c) The Indemnifying Party will keep the Indemnified Party reasonably informed of the status of any negotiations or legal proceedings related to any claim, and the Indemnified Party shall be entitled to engage counsel (at its own expense) to monitor the handling of any claim by the Indemnifying Party.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, The DIA shall be entitled to defend on its own behalf any claims regarding title to, interest in or control of the Museum Assets or operation of the Museum (including with respect to a Quitclaim Challenge provided The DIA shall not be entitled to indemnification for a Quitclaim Challenge, as set forth above). To the extent The DIA intends to exercise such right, the City and The DIA shall use their commercially reasonable efforts in good faith to coordinate a joint defense of such claim (including as to selection of joint counsel). If the City and The DIA cannot agree on a joint defense of the claim, each Party shall undertake its own defense, reserving all rights against the other for indemnification hereunder with respect to such claim, but, in such case, The DIA shall not be entitled to indemnification of its defense costs in connection therewith.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement or in the Charitable Trust Agreement, to the extent that the City is required to indemnify a City Indemnified Party hereunder, and the underlying claim being indemnified does not arise out of the City's breach of contract (including a City Event of Default), sole ordinary negligence, gross negligence or intentional wrongful acts and is not due to a claim brought by the City (including pursuant to Section 2.8(b) of this Agreement), the City may reimburse itself for the costs of such indemnity out of the City Account, in which case the amount payable by the City in satisfaction of the City's obligation to contribute to the Prior GRS Pension Plan and the Prior PFRS Pension Plan shall be reduced by the amount reimbursed to the City for such indemnity.

ARTICLE VII Miscellaneous

7.1 No Third Party Beneficiary. Except for the Indemnified Parties, each of whom is an express third-party beneficiary under this Agreement with respect to ARTICLE VI of this Agreement, and each Funder who is an express third-party beneficiary under Sections 2.3(d), 2.5(b), 2.6, 2.8(a), 2.8(d), 2.8(e), 4.1(b), 4.4, 5.1(b) and 5.3(e) of this Agreement, the terms and provisions of this Agreement are intended solely for the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns, and nothing contained in this Agreement, expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any person or entity other than the City, The DIA, and the Supporting Organization any third-party beneficiary rights or remedies.

7.2 Choice of Law; Jurisdiction; Venue. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Michigan without regard to such state's choice of law provisions which would require the application of the law of any other jurisdiction. By its execution and delivery of this Agreement, each of the Parties irrevocably and unconditionally agrees for itself that, except as to disputes regarding the calculation of the The DIA's payment obligations under this Agreement or of a Foundation Funder under a Foundation FDF Agreement which shall be determined in accordance with Section 2.3(c) of this Agreement, or any disputes that are subject to arbitration in accordance with Section 7.3 of this Agreement, any legal action, suit or proceeding against it with respect to any matter arising under or arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment rendered in any such action, suit or proceeding, including a proceeding under Section 2.3(c) or Section 7.3 of this Agreement, shall be brought in the Bankruptcy Court for so long as it has jurisdiction, and thereafter in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan; provided that if the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan does not have jurisdiction, then such legal action, suit or proceeding shall be brought in such other court of competent jurisdiction located in Wayne County, Michigan; and provided, further, that The DIA may bring a legal action, suit or proceeding in a state court to obtain a writ of mandamus to enforce the obligations of the City in Section 5.3 of this Agreement. By execution and delivery of this Agreement, each of the Parties irrevocably accepts and submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such court, generally and unconditionally, with respect to any such action, suit or proceeding and specifically consents to the jurisdiction and authority of the Bankruptcy Court to hear and determine all such actions, suits, and proceedings under 28 U.S.C. §157(b) or (c), whichever applies.

7.3 Dispute Resolution. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to the satisfaction of the conditions precedent to funding in ARTICLE II of this Agreement shall be settled by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”) in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules, and judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof in accordance with Section 7.2 of this Agreement. Any such controversy or claim shall be submitted to a panel of three (3) AAA arbitrators. The place of the arbitration shall be within the Wayne County, Michigan. Except as may be required by law, neither a party nor an arbitrator may disclose the existence, content, or results of any arbitration hereunder without the prior written consent of all Parties to the arbitration. The Parties may apply to the arbitrator seeking injunctive relief until the arbitration award is rendered or the controversy is otherwise resolved. The Parties also may, without waiving any remedy under this Agreement, seek from any court having jurisdiction in accordance with Section 7.2 of this Agreement any interim or provisional relief that is necessary to protect the rights or property of that party, pending the establishment of the arbitral tribunal (or pending the arbitral tribunal’s determination of the merits of the controversy). Each Party shall bear its own costs and expenses and an equal share of the arbitrators’ and administrative fees of arbitration. With respect to any dispute as to a City Event of Default and a payment in connection with the same, the arbitration proceeding and its findings contemplated under this Section must be held and received by no later than the January 31st of the second calendar year after the year in which the Annual Report was due, as provided in Section 2.4(a) above, from the City to the Supporting Organization from which the disputed City Event of Default arose, regardless of whether the City Event of Default arises from the Annual Report or the Interim Reaffirmation of said report. If the arbitration hearing findings cannot be received by that January 31st, the position of the Supporting Organization that the City Event of Default exists and has not been cured will be deemed a final determination for purposes of determining whether the conditions to funding have been satisfied.

7.4 Specific Performance. It is understood and agreed by the Parties that money damages would be an insufficient remedy for any breach of this Agreement by any Party and each non-breaching Party shall be entitled to specific performance and injunctive or other equitable relief as a remedy for any such breach, including, without limitation, seeking an order of the court having jurisdiction in accordance with Section 7.2 of this Agreement requiring any Party to comply promptly with any of its obligations hereunder.

7.5 Amendment and Waiver. This Agreement may be amended and any provision of this Agreement may be waived; provided that any such amendment or waiver will be binding upon the Parties only if such amendment or waiver is set forth in a writing executed by all Parties during the Payment Period and, thereafter, by The DIA and the City. No course of dealing between or among any persons having any interest in this Agreement will be deemed effective to modify, amend or discharge any part of this Agreement or any rights or obligations of any Party under or by reason of this Agreement.

7.6 Notices. All notices, demands and other communications given or delivered under this Agreement shall be given in writing to the address indicated below (or such other address as the recipient specifies in writing) and will be deemed to have been given when delivered personally, three (3) Business Days after mailed by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested and postage prepaid, or when delivery is guaranteed if sent via a nationally recognized overnight carrier, or when receipt is confirmed if sent via facsimile or other electronic transmission to the recipient with telephonic confirmation by the sending party.

Any attempted assignment in violation of this Section 7.7 shall be null and void.

7.8 Severability. Whenever possible, each provision of this Agreement will be interpreted in such a manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision of this Agreement is held to be prohibited by or invalid under applicable law, such provision will be ineffective only to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity, without invalidating the remainder of such provisions or the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

7.9 No Strict Construction. The language used in this Agreement will be deemed to be the language chosen by the Parties to express their mutual intent. In the event an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement will be construed as if drafted jointly by the Parties, and no presumption or burden of proof will arise favoring or disfavoring any Party by virtue of the authorship of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

supersedes all other prior negotiations, agreements and understandings, whether written or oral, among the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.

7.12 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument, and shall become effective when counterparts have been signed by each of the Parties and delivered to the other Parties; it being understood that all Parties need not sign the same counterpart. The exchange of copies of this Agreement or of any other document contemplated by this Agreement (including any amendment or any other change thereto) and of signature pages thereof by facsimile transmission (whether directly from one facsimile device to another by means of a dial-up connection or whether otherwise transmitted via electronic transmission), by electronic mail in “portable document format” (“.pdf”) form, or by any other electronic means intended to preserve the original graphic and pictorial appearance of a document, or by a combination of such means, shall constitute effective execution and delivery of this Agreement as to the Parties and may be used in lieu of an original Agreement or other document for all purposes. As of the Closing Date, $5 million multiplied by the single Payment Date (Closing) equals $5 million. The sum of previous payments by The DIA, DIA Direct Funders and Special Foundation Funders ($0) and the DIA Direct Funders' and Special Foundation Funders' scheduled payment at Closing ($0) equals $0. Therefore, at Closing, The DIA is obligated to pay $5 million less $0, which equals $5 million. The formula applies in an identical manner to the June 30, 2016 Payment Date (and the remaining Payment Dates). $5 million multiplied by the two (2) relevant Payment Dates (the Closing Date and June 30, 2016) equals $10 million. The sum of the previous payments by The DIA, DIA Direct Funders and Special Foundation Funders ($5 million) and the DIA Direct Funders' and Special Foundation Funders' scheduled payment ($2 million) equals $7 million. Therefore, on June 30, 2016, The DIA is obligated to pay $10 million less $7 million, which equals $3 million.

As of June 30, 2016, The DIA has satisfied its payment obligation under the Omnibus Transaction Agreement (other than its guarantee obligation). The Present Value Discount of the total payments made as of the end of the day June 30, 2016, plus the Present Value Discount of the DIA Direct Funders' and Special Foundation Funders' remaining scheduled payments equals the Present Value Discount of $5 million paid at Closing and 19 annual payments of $5 million commencing as of June 30, 2016.

*DIA Direct Funder and Special Foundation Funder scheduled payments are assumed to be made on the Payment Date, as scheduled.

** All examples assume an October 31, 2014 Closing Date.

As of the Closing Date, $5 million multiplied by the single Payment Date (the Closing Date) equals $5 million. The sum of previous payments by The DIA, DIA Direct Funders and Special Foundation Funders ($0) and the DIA Direct Funders' and Special Foundation Funders' scheduled payment at Closing ($10,000,000) is $10 million. Therefore, at Closing, The DIA is not obligated to make a payment. The same result occurs for each Payment Date up to June 30, 2027.

As of the June 30, 2027 Payment Date, $5 million multiplied by the 13 relevant Payment Dates equals $65 million. The sum of the previous payments by The DIA ($0) and DIA Direct Funders and Special Foundation Funders ($60 million) and the DIA Direct Funders' and Special Foundation Funders' scheduled payments on June 30, 2027 ($0), equals $60 million. Therefore, on June 30, 2027, The DIA is obligated to pay $65 million less $60 million, which equals $5 million. The same result would occur for each of the remaining Payment Dates, except the Present Value Discount limitation under Section 2.1(b) applies as of the June 30, 2029 Payment Date. On that Payment Date, the formula for the Present Value Discount will result in The DIA only needing to pay $4,316,096 in order for the Present Value Discount of the total payments made as of the end of that day, plus the Present Value Discount of the DIA Direct Funders' and Special Foundation Funders' remaining scheduled payments ($0) equaling the Present Value Discount of $5 million paid at Closing and 19 annual payments of $5 million commencing as of June 30, 2016.

*DIA Direct Funder and Special Foundation Funder scheduled payments are assumed to be made on the Payment Date, as scheduled.

**No payment due because of Present Value Discount limitation.

The facts are the same as in Example 2, except that The DIA makes a $4,683,841 prepayment at the time of the June 30, 2027 Payment Date. For the June 30, 2028 Payment Date, The DIA is obligated to pay $316,159, calculated as follows: $5 million multiplied by 14 relevant Payment Dates equals $70 million, less previous payments of $69,683,841, equals $316,159. The DIA makes a $3,726,128 prepayment at the time of the June 30, 2028 Payment Date also. For the June 30, 2029 Payment Date, The DIA is not obligated to make any payment, notwithstanding the following calculation: $5 million multiplied by 15 relevant Payment Dates equals $75 million, less previous payments of $73,726,128, equals $1,273,872. However, under Section 2.1(b), the Present Value Discount of the payments made as of the end of the day on June 30, 2028 ($73,726,128, before discounting), plus the Present Value Discount of the DIA Direct Funders' and Special Foundation Funders' remaining scheduled payments ($0) equals the Present Value Discount of $5 million paid at Closing and 19 annual payments of $5 million commencing as of June 30, 2016. The DIA's prepayments at the time of the 2027 and 2028 Payment Dates results in The DIA not having a payment obligation in 2029 or thereafter.

*DIA Direct Funder and Special Foundation Funder scheduled payments are assumed to be made on the Payment Date, as scheduled.

**$4,683,841 is the discounted value of $5 million at a 6.75% discount rate for a one-year period.

***$3,726,128 is the discounted amount that results in The DIA fulfilling its payment obligation on a present value basis as of June 30, 2028.

****No payment due because of Present Value Discount limitation and no guarantee because there are no remaining commitments.

The facts are the same as in Example 3, except the DIA Direct Funders’ and Special Foundation Funders’ Scheduled Payment has been revised as set forth above and The DIA will be required to make payments for the Payment Dates in years 2023 through 2030. The DIA’s prepayment of $4,683,841 at the time of the June 30, 2027 Payment Date and its payment obligation on the June 30, 2028 Payment Date remain the same as in Example 3. Under Section 2.1(a), The DIA has a $5 million payment obligation with respect to the June 30, 2029 Payment Date. On the June 30, 2030 Payment Date, The DIA pays $1,969,618, notwithstanding the following calculation: $5 million multiplied by 16 relevant Payment Dates equals $80 million, less previous payments of $75,000,000, equals $5,000,000. However, under Section 2.1(b), the Present Value Discount of the payments made as of the end of the day on June 30, 2030 ($76,969,618 before discounting), plus the Present Value Discount of the DIA Direct Funders’ and Special Foundation Funders’ remaining scheduled payments ($10,000,000, before discounting) equals the Present Value Discount of $5 million paid at Closing and 19 annual payments of $5 million commencing as of June 30, 2016. The DIA’s aggregate payments as of the June 30, 2030 Payment Date result in The DIA not having a payment obligation in 2031 or thereafter.

*DIA Direct Funder and Special Foundation Funder scheduled payments are assumed to be made on the Payment Date, as scheduled.

**$4,683,841 is the discounted value of $5 million at a 6.75% discount rate for a one-year period.

***$1,969,618 is the discounted amount that results in The DIA fulfilling its payment obligation on a present value basis as of June 30, 2030.

****No payment due because of Present Value Discount limitation, but The DIA guarantee applies if the 2033 and 2034 payments are not made or are not made on a timely basis.

SETTLEMENT, CONVEYANCE AND CHARITABLE TRUST AGREEMENT

THIS SETTLEMENT, CONVEYANCE AND CHARITABLE TRUST AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”), effective as of the Effective Time, is entered into by and between the City of Detroit, Michigan (the “City”) and The Detroit Institute of Arts, a Michigan nonprofit corporation f/k/a Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts (“The DIA”). The City and The DIA are together referred to herein as the “Parties” and individually as a “Party”. Capitalized terms used in this Agreement and not defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in the Omnibus Transaction Agreement among the City, The DIA and Foundation for Detroit’s Future, a Michigan nonprofit corporation (the “Omnibus Transaction Agreement”).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, beginning in 1885 The DIA held the assets of the museum that is now commonly referred to as the Detroit Institute of Arts (the “Museum”) in charitable trust for the benefit of the people of the City and the State of Michigan (the “State”) and, beginning in 1919, the City began to hold certain of such assets in charitable trust, with museum assets acquired by either The DIA or the City, and assets contributed by other donors and the State, constituting additions to the trust corpus to the extent not expended for the ongoing conduct of the trust’s charitable and educational activities;

WHEREAS, the Attorney General of the State has determined that the Museum collection is held by the City in charitable trust;

WHEREAS, The DIA asserts that the Museum and all Museum Assets are owned by the City in charitable trust, the co-trustees of which are the City and The DIA and subject to the protections of a public trust;

WHEREAS, the City acknowledges that certain creditors of the City and other interested persons have taken the position that the City has full legal and beneficial title to the Museum, including its art collection;

WHEREAS, this Agreement is being entered into as part of the DIA Settlement pursuant to the Omnibus Transaction Agreement whereby the City will convey all of its right, title and interest (including legal title it may hold as trustee and legal title and beneficial interest it otherwise holds) to the Museum and all related assets to The DIA in exchange for fair value by virtue of (i) the settlement of any dispute regarding the ownership of Museum and the Museum Assets, (ii) the contributions through the Supporting Organization by The DIA (and through it, the DIA Indirect Funders), DIA Direct Funders and Special Foundation Funders of $100 million, of Foundation Funders (excluding Special Foundation Funders) of $366 million, and an additional contribution by the State of $350 million, which aggregate $816 million (in each case and in the aggregate before applying any discount for early payment), which amounts will be paid for the benefit of Pension Claims of the City, and (iii) the commitment of The DIA to hold the Museum Assets (as they may be augmented, replaced or disposed of consistent with the perpetual charitable trust and as otherwise permitted under this Agreement) (collectively, “DIA Assets”) in perpetual charitable trust and to operate the Museum primarily for benefit of the residents of the City and the Tri-Counties and the citizens of the State;

WHEREAS, the allocation of responsibilities with respect to the charitable trust assets and the operation of the Museum has changed from time to time;

WHEREAS, The DIA currently operates the Museum and manages its assets under an Operating Agreement for the Detroit Institute of Arts, made on December 12, 1997, between The DIA and the City (the “Operating Agreement”) whereby those responsibilities have been performed by The DIA as operator on the terms set forth therein;

WHEREAS, the City and The DIA currently are parties to that certain Licensing Agreement, dated December 12, 1997 (the “Licensing Agreement”) under which the City licensed the use of certain intellectual property assets to The DIA, which will be terminated by the Parties pursuant to this Agreement;

WHEREAS, as part of the DIA Settlement and concurrently with the closing pursuant to the Omnibus Transaction Agreement, the Transfer shall occur, each of the Operating Agreement and the Licensing Agreement shall be terminated, and the other transactions and agreements reflected herein shall become effective; and

WHEREAS, the Transfer of the Museum and the Museum Assets is for fair value, for a public purpose and authorized by law.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants and agreements hereinafter set forth and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, intending to be legally bound, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

4.2. Termination of the Licensing Agreement. As of the Effective Time, the Licensing Agreement is terminated without any further action or notice by the Parties and without any further rights or obligations of any Party thereunder.

4.3. Release. Each of the Parties hereby fully and forever, knowingly, voluntarily, and irrevocably, releases, acquits, discharges and promises not to sue the other Party or its Related Parties from, including, without limitation, any and all claims, demands, damages, obligations, losses, causes of action, costs, expenses, attorneys' fees judgments, liabilities, duties, debts, liens, accounts, obligations, contracts, agreements, promises, representations, actions and causes of action, other proceedings and indemnities of any nature whatsoever arising from or in any way related to the Operating Agreement other than The DIA's indemnity obligation under Section J of the Operating Agreement (which shall survive in accordance with its terms), the Licensing Agreement, the Museum, the Museum Assets or any other matter of any kind or nature, whether accrued or contingent, known or unknown and whether based on law, equity, contract, tort, statute or other legal or equitable theory of recovery, whether mature or to mature in the future, which from the beginning of time of the world to the Effective Time, either Party had, now has, or may have against the other Party or its Related Parties; provided that the foregoing release shall not extend to, nor be deemed to modify in any respect, any right of any Party under this Agreement or any other Transaction Documentation.

ARTICLE V
Representations and Warranties

5.1. Representations and Warranties of The DIA. The DIA represents and warrants to the City that (a) it has the power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and each Exhibit to this Agreement to which it is a party and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder, (b) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and each Exhibit to this Agreement to which it is a party have been duly authorized by all necessary action, (c) this Agreement and each Exhibit to this Agreement to which it is a party constitutes the valid and binding obligation of The DIA, enforceable in accordance with its respective terms, and (d) its performance under this Agreement and each Exhibit to this Agreement to which it is a party will not conflict with, result in a breach of or constitute (alone or with notice or lapse of time or both) a default under, any agreement or other instrument or any applicable law binding upon The DIA.

5.2. Representations and Warranties of The City. The City represents and warrants to The DIA that (a) it has the power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and each Exhibit to this Agreement to which it is a party and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder, (b) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and each Exhibit to this Agreement to which it is a party have been duly authorized by all necessary action, (c) this Agreement and each Exhibit to this Agreement to which it is a party constitutes the valid and binding obligation of the City, enforceable in accordance with its respective terms, and (d) its performance under this Agreement and each Exhibit to this Agreement to which it is a party will not conflict with, result in a breach of or constitute (alone or with notice or lapse of time or both) a default under, any agreement or other instrument or any applicable law binding upon the City.

5.3. Acknowledgement of No Further Representations and Warranties. Except for the representations and warranties in Section 5.2 of this Agreement or as otherwise specifically set forth in the Transaction Documentation, the Museum Assets are being transferred by the City to The DIA without warranty or representation of any kind, including any warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose or any warranty or representation which might otherwise be inherent in a description or in specifications.

ARTICLE VI
Covenants of the City

6.1. Further Assurances. In addition to the actions specifically provided for elsewhere in this Agreement, at any time and from time to time, at The DIA's reasonable request, the City shall (x) at its own expense (except as provided in subsection (y)), do, execute, acknowledge and deliver all and every such further acts, transfers, assignments, conveyances, powers of attorney, and assurances (including in recordable form) as The DIA reasonably may require to transfer, convey, assign and deliver the Museum and the Museum Assets free and clear of all security interests, liens, encumbrances, claims and interests of the City and its creditors and to confirm The DIA's title to the Museum and all of the Museum Assets and (y) at no cost or expense to the City, take such actions, including filing such releases, as may be necessary to remove any security interest, lien, encumbrance, claim or interest of the City or any of its creditors on the Museum or the Museum Assets.

6.2. Remittance of Museum Assets. If after the Effective Time, the City receives (a) any monies for the benefit of The DIA or the Museum, including with respect to any existing or future (i) donations, gifts, bequests, and contributions from individuals, corporations, foundations and trusts, if any, and (ii) federal, state, regional, county or local tax proceeds and grants from governmental or quasi-public entities, if any, other than proceeds or grants that are intended for the City for reimbursement for specific amounts that were previously advanced or funded by the City with the expectation of the City at the time of such advance or funding that such reimbursement would be received by the City, or (b) any art or other property that is, as designated by its grant, intended for the benefit of the Museum or The DIA, in each case, the City shall promptly pay or deliver such monies, art or other property to The DIA.

6.3. NO RECOURSE. THE TRANSFER OF THE MUSEUM AND THE MUSEUM ASSETS IS FINAL AND IRREVOCABLE. THE DIA SHALL RETAIN TITLE TO AND OWNERSHIP OF THE MUSEUM AND THE DIA ASSETS IN PERPETUITY AND THE CITY SHALL NOT HAVE RECOURSE TO ANY OF THE DIA ASSETS FOR ANY CLAIMS THE CITY MAY HAVE AGAINST THE DIA, ANY OTHER FUNDER, THE SUPPORTING ORGANIZATION, THE STATE OR OTHERWISE, WHETHER ARISING NOW OR IN THE FUTURE, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, NONCOMPLIANCE BY THE DIA, ANY OTHER FUNDER OR THE SUPPORTING ORGANIZATION WITH ANY OF THE TERMS OR CONDITIONS OF THE OMNIBUS TRANSACTION AGREEMENT, THE TRANSACTION DOCUMENTS OR ANY RELATED DOCUMENTS; PROVIDED THAT THE FOREGOING SHALL NOT PRECLUDE THE CITY FROM ASSERTING CLAIMS IN SATISFACTION OF AN INDEMNITY OBLIGATION PURSUANT TO SECTION J OF THE OPERATING AGREEMENT OR SECTION 6.1(b) OF THE OMNIBUS AGREEMENT BUT ONLY AGAINST CASH, CASH EQUIVALENTS OR CASH RECEIVABLES OF THE DIA (EXCLUDING ANY CASH, CASH EQUIVALENTS OR CASH RECEIVABLES THAT ARE RESTRICTED IN USE BY THE TERMS OF THE DONATION, GIFT, BEQUEST OR CONTRIBUTION OF A THIRD PARTY OR BY RESTRICTIONS IMPOSED ON THE USE OF PROCEEDS FROM THE SALE OF ART BY THE APPLICABLE STANDARDS OR ETHICAL GUIDELINES OF THE AAM OR THE ASSOCIATION OF ART MUSEUM DIRECTORS (OR SUCH OTHER ORGANIZATIONS BY WHICH THE DIA OR THE MUSEUM OR ITS DIRECTOR IS ACCREDITED IN THE FUTURE OR OF WHICH THEY BECOME MEMBERS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THEN APPLICABLE ART MUSEUM BEST PRACTICES).

ARTICLE VII
Covenants of The DIA

7.1. Charitable Trust.

(a) The DIA as trustee shall hold the DIA Assets in perpetual charitable trust. The primary purpose of the charitable trust shall be to provide for the primary benefit of the residents of the City and the Tri-Counties and the citizens of the State an art museum located in the City of Detroit, including the ownership, maintenance and operation of The Detroit Institute of Arts, and all the benefits that are derivative thereof.

(b) The DIA shall neither change the name of the Museum from “The Detroit Institute of Arts” nor relocate the primary situs of the Museum from its current location at 5200 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Michigan, without the approval of the City; provided that nothing in this Agreement or in any other agreement included in the Transaction Documentation shall be deemed to otherwise restrict the ability of The DIA to lend or to otherwise allow art works to travel outside of the City or the State consistent with ordinary Museum operations.

(c) In its capacity as trustee of the perpetual charitable trust, The DIA shall operate the Museum as an encyclopedic art museum in the City, in accordance with changing future demands in the operation of such a Museum. The DIA shall not deaccession from its collection or sell, lease, pledge, mortgage, or otherwise encumber art that is accessioned to its permanent collection except in accordance with the code of ethics or applicable standards for museums published by the AAM, as amended or modified by the AAM. If the AAM ceases to exist or ceases to be generally regarded by leading American art museums as the preeminent American art museum accreditation organization, then the code of ethics or applicable standards (as may be amended or modified) of AAM’s successor organization, or such other organization that is at that time generally regarded by leading American art museums as the preeminent American art museum accreditation organization, shall be substituted for such policies of the AAM.

7.2. State-wide Services. In addition to continuing to operate the Museum for the primary benefit of the residents of the City, the Tri-Counties and the citizens of the State, and continuing to provide the special services to the residents of the Tri-Counties during the balance of the ten (10) year millage period commencing in 2013 that are provided for in the agreements for the Millage, during the Payment Period The DIA will provide an array of art programs at no or discounted costs to the residents of the State. In determining which programs to offer, both the cost to The DIA of developing and operating these programs and The DIA’s other fundraising obligations, including its need to raise funds for general operations and its stated goal of building endowment funds, as well as any fundraising obligation under the Omnibus Transaction Agreement, will be taken into account. As appropriate, The DIA will collaborate with its Michigan museum colleagues in the development of these programs. Given the length of the Payment Period, it is expected that these programs would be developed and adjusted over time. Such programs could include at the outset:

(i) two exhibitions in each twelve-month period, with the first such period beginning six (6) months after the Closing, of objects from the Museum collection that will rotate through museums and art centers around the State on a schedule to be determined by The DIA and the recipient museums. Each exhibition will be developed and organized by The DIA and will include installation and de-installation of the objects, a marketing package (logo and advertising template) and, possibly, input on programming and education opportunities,

(ii) an annual professional development program coordinated with the Michigan Museums Association designed to strengthen museum professionals and introduce museum job opportunities to student audiences,

(iii) an expansion of the Museum's popular Inside/Out program (during the tenure of the program), which places high-quality art reproductions in Southeast Michigan communities, to include two additional outstate locations annually, supporting tourism, cultural awareness and life-long learning,

(iv) art object conservation services at a discounted rate to Michigan museums conducted in consultation with the Museum conservators and the curatorial staff of the requesting museum, and

(v) the development of an educational program based on the Museum collection that supports National Common Core Standards, to be offered in two Michigan communities annually and to include follow-up support for educators.

7.3. Liquidation. In the event of a dissolution of, and liquidation of the assets and affairs of, The DIA in accordance with the Michigan Nonprofit Corporation Act, the DIA Assets will be conveyed to another nonprofit entity determined by the board of directors of The DIA, subject to the reasonable approval of the City and the Supporting Organization, if then in existence, and otherwise by majority vote of the City and any Foundation Funders who have remaining commitments under their Funding Agreements. As a condition to receiving the conveyance, such successor entity must subject itself to the same conditions as set forth in this Agreement, including but not limited to, holding the DIA Assets in perpetual charitable trust for the primary benefit of the residents of the City and the Tri-Counties and the citizens of the State. For the purposes of determining the majority vote described above, and for the avoidance of doubt, the Parties agree that the City and each of the Foundation Funders who have remaining commitments under their Funding Agreements at the time of such dissolution or liquidation shall each have one vote with respect to any such approval.

7.4. City Board Representative. From and after the Effective Time, in perpetuity, the City shall have the right to appoint one director to the Board of The DIA (or its successor entity). Such representative shall be designated in writing to The DIA by the Mayor of the City with approval by the City Council. Such director shall be subject to removal by The DIA for cause. The City shall have the right in accordance with this Section 7.4 to appoint a successor representative to any vacancy created by the removal of the City's representative for cause or otherwise.

7.5. Enforcement of Certain of The DIA's Obligations. The Attorney General of the State and the Corporation Counsel of the City (on behalf of the City) (or their respective successors) shall have the exclusive rights to enforce the obligations of The DIA (x) to hold the DIA Assets in perpetual charitable trust and (y) under ARTICLE VII of this Agreement. If the Corporation Counsel of the City (on behalf of the City) exercises its rights to enforce the obligations of The DIA pursuant to this Section 7.5 by means of a legal action or proceeding, the unsuccessful party to such action or proceeding shall pay to the prevailing party all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements, incurred by such prevailing party in such action or proceeding and in any appeal in connection therewith. If such prevailing party recovers a judgment in any such action, proceeding or appeal, such costs, expenses and attorneys' fees and disbursements shall be included in and as a part of such judgment.

ARTICLE VIII
Incorporation by Reference; Entire Agreement

8.1. Incorporation by Reference. The following provisions of the Omnibus Transaction Agreement are hereby incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein mutatis mutandis: Article I (Definitions), Article VI (Indemnification) with respect to the indemnification of the City by The DIA pursuant to Section 6.1 of the Omnibus Transaction Agreement and the indemnification of The DIA by the City pursuant to Section 6.2 of the Omnibus Transaction Agreement, subject to the limitations and procedural requirements otherwise set forth in Article VI of the Omnibus Transaction Agreement, Section 7.4 (Specific Performance), Section 7.6 (Notices) (with respect to the Parties hereto), Section 7.7 (Binding Agreement; Assignment), Section 7.8 (Severability), Section 7.9 (No Strict Construction), Section 7.10 (Captions), and Section 7.12 (Counterparts).

8.2. Grantee:

Foundation for Detroit's Future

Grant Number:

#[Insert grant number]

Date Authorized:

[Insert Date], 2014

Amount Granted:

#[Insert Grant Amount]
(Conditional, multi-year)

II. Grant

The purpose of this grant of #[INSERT GRANT AMOUNT] to the Foundation for Detroit's Future ("Grantee"), a supporting organization of the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan, is to provide the funding, in part, for the proposed DIA Settlement found in the Corrected Fifth Amended Plan for the Adjustment of the Debts of the City of Detroit, as it may be further amended and as modified, and in a term sheet found in Exhibit I.A.102 of same, provided DIA Settlement provisions and said term sheet remain substantially unchanged ("Plan of Adjustment"). The grant and the payment of the grant installments will be conditioned upon the City of Detroit and the City of Detroit General Retirement System and Police and Fire Retirement System ("Pension Funds") being in compliance with (i) the conditions precedent for closing found in the Plan of Adjustment, and (ii) certain material grant conditions, of both an initial and ongoing nature, that are memorialized in the Omnibus Transaction Agreement ("OTA") to be entered into between the City of Detroit, the Detroit Institute of Arts, and the Grantee substantially in the form attached to this Terms of Grant Agreement as Exhibit A and incorporated herein by this reference, a copy of which will be provided to Foundation promptly following its execution. Any capitalized defined terms not defined herein will have the definitions found in the OTA.

This Terms of Grant Agreement is also known as a "Foundation FDF Agreement" under the OTA.

Grant payments will be made in equal annual installments over a twenty-year period, subject to those conditions and any terms and conditions of this Terms of Grant Agreement. The schedule of grant payments will be made as follows and subject to the following conditions:

a. Initial Grant Payment

1. Payment amount and date. Foundation will make an initial grant payment to Grantee of $[INSERT 1/20 OF TOTAL GRANT AWARD] upon the later of (i) the return of this signed Terms of Grant Agreement by Grantee, and (ii) August 30, 2014.

2. Payment Conditions.

Grantee acknowledges that this initial grant payment is being made by Foundation in order to facilitate the ability of Grantee to provide, in part, the initial payment to the City of Detroit by Grantee due at Closing in the event that the DIA Settlement found in the Plan of Adjustment is approved, and both (i) the City of Detroit and the City of Detroit Pension Funds are in compliance with their material grant conditions, of both an initial and ongoing nature, that are memorialized in Article IV(E) of the Plan of Adjustment and (ii) the conditions to the Foundation's and Grantee's grant obligations set forth in the OTA and the Plan of Adjustment have been satisfied in all material respects.

In the event that the Plan of Adjustment is not approved by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, or the Closing is otherwise not consummated, by December 31, 2014, Grantee will return to Foundation all provided grant funds by January 31, 2015. The remaining grant installments under this Terms of Grant Agreement will likewise be cancelled and this Terms of Grant Agreement will terminate.

3. Report on City of Detroit Compliance with Initial Grant Conditions

Grantee will provide to Foundation a report within 45 days of the Closing Date documenting that the conditions precedent for Closing were met and that the initial grant payment contemplated by the OTA has been made by the Grantee to the City of Detroit. In the event the Closing does not occur by December 31, 2014, a first and final report will be provided by January 31, 2015.

b. Annual Grant Payments

1. Payment Amounts and Dates. Commencing in 2015 and continuing until 2033 (except as otherwise provided herein), Foundation will annually make a grant payment to Grantee of $[INSERT 1/20 OF TOTAL GRANT AWARD] by September 15 of that year. Foundation intends Grantee to use these annual payments to fund, in part, the annual payments from Grantee to the City of Detroit, pursuant to and subject to the terms and conditions of the OTA, on a funding schedule commencing June 30, 2016, and each June 30 thereafter ending on June 30, 2034 (the payment dates to the City of Detroit being subject to possible extensions pursuant to the OTA).

Foundation acknowledges that it has the right to, but is not required to, rely on any finding by the board of trustees of the Grantee that the City is in compliance with the Conditions for Funding found in Section 2.4 of the OTA and that as a result of such a finding the Foundation is obligated to make timely payment to Grantee as provided in Section 2.7 of the OTA. Foundation will not unreasonably dispute any such finding by the board of the Grantee that the City is in compliance. If (i) Foundation has failed to make an annual grant installment payment to Grantee when due hereunder and Grantee has provided the Foundation the 30-day notice contemplated by Section 2.8(b) of the OTA, and (ii) the Foundation has not made the required grant payment by the expiration of such 30-day period, then Grantee will assign its right to enforce collection of the payment from the Foundation to the City and the City will have the right to pursue collection of that payment as provided in the OTA. Foundation will be responsible for its own costs and attorney fees in defending any action by Grantee or City to enforce payment from Foundation, unless those costs and attorney fees are otherwise indemnified or set-off on behalf of Foundation by the provisions of the OTA or the Plan of Adjustment.

2. Annual Grant Payment Conditions

Grantee agrees that any annual grant payment it receives from the Foundation will be used for the sole purpose of making the annual payments to be made by Grantee to the City of Detroit pursuant to Section 2.3 of the OTA.

In the event the Foundation has provided (i) an annual grant payment to the Grantee prior to the date Grantee has determined that the City has complied with Section 2.4 of the OTA for the year in which the annual grant payment is to be used, or (ii) Foundation, in its sole discretion, advances any future annual grant payment to Grantee, Grantee will maintain such grant balances in conservatively invested reserves to ensure that the monies provided are available to make payment to the City when conditions have been met. Any earnings on such early grant payments will be used to offset operational costs of Grantee relating to the purposes of this grant. If on December 31, 2034, there remains any earnings after payment of those operational expenses, Grantee, in its discretion, may use those excess earnings (i) to make grants and/or establish endowments that will support the ongoing revitalization, or maintain and expand the quality of life of the residents, of the City of Detroit and/or (ii) return those excess earnings ratably to the Foundation Funders.

In the event the City fails to meet the conditions for release of an annual payment to it under Section 2.4 of the OTA and all applicable cure periods available to the City pursuant to Section 2.5 of the OTA (including any periods of time necessary for dispute resolution as provided in the OTA) have expired, the Foundation may either request that the Grantee return that annual grant payment to the Foundation, at which time the Foundation's obligation to make such annual grant payment is automatically terminated and cancelled, or request that the Grantee retain the annual grant payment for application to a future annual grant payment due to the Grantee from the Foundation. Foundation and Grantee also acknowledge and agree that consistent with Section 2.5(b) of the OTA, the Foundation may cancel its remaining grant installments to Grantee if the City fails to meet the conditions for release of an annual payment to it under the OTA, and all applicable cure periods available to the City pursuant to Section 2.5 of the OTA (including any periods of time necessary for dispute resolution as provided in the OTA) have expired. If Foundation elects to cancel its remaining grant payments, the Foundation may either request that the Grantee return any pre-paid annual grant amount provided to Grantee that has not yet been paid or is not obligated to be paid to the City by Grantee and/or allow Grantee to retain some or all of such pre-paid grant installments to offset operational costs of Grantee relating to the purposes of this grant.

3. Present Value Election

Consistent with the OTA, Foundation has the right to elect to make early payment of any or all of its grant payment obligations to the Grantee and have its obligation under this Terms of Grant Agreement reduced by a present value discount rate of 6.75% as provided in the OTA. Grantee will transfer such early payment to the City of Detroit and elect that present value discount provided the requirements of the next paragraph are met.

Foundation agrees that it will only make the above mentioned present value election if (i) the Grantee receives confirmation from the City, in a form reasonably acceptable to Grantee, that the Grantee's future grant payment obligations to the City under the OTA will be properly reduced as a result of such present value election by Foundation, and (ii) Foundation and Grantee agree to reasonable arrangements to prevent such early payment election from Foundation jeopardizing the fiscal stability and operations of Grantee and its abilities to perform its obligations under the OTA.

III. Indemnification and Other Provisions

Foundation and Grantee acknowledge that Foundation is a third-party beneficiary of certain provisions contained in the OTA and the contemplated order confirming the Plan of Adjustment. Foundation's rights as a third-party beneficiary include, but are not limited to, (i) indemnification by the City of Detroit as found in Section 6.2 of the OTA, (ii) set-offs on grant installments as a result of the City of Detroit failing to pay for defense and other costs (except that Foundation is not entitled to such set-off if the Grantee has, as a result of the City failing to pay all of the defense and other costs of the Foundation, incurred those costs on behalf of Foundation and Grantee), (iii) jurisdiction and choice of law provisions, and (iv) certain injunctive and other relief as found in the Plan of Adjustment as confirmed by court order. Foundation's obligation to make any installment payment under this Terms of Grant Agreement is expressly conditioned upon the existence of all such third-party benefits including, but not limited to, said indemnification provision, set-off provisions and injunctive relief.

This Terms of Grant Agreement, or any rights, obligations or funds awarded under this Terms of Grant Agreement, may not be assigned, unless otherwise expressly provided herein, without the prior written consent of the non-assigning party, and any purported assignment in violation of the foregoing will be void and of no effect. This Terms of Grant Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the state of Michigan, with jurisdiction in the State and Federal Courts of Michigan (as more specifically provided in the OTA and the Plan of Adjustment).

IV. Review of Grant Activity

Grantee will provide written annual reports to the Foundation each July 30 showing the use of the grant funds provided under this grant. Grantee may extend the date for any annual report to no later than January 30 of the following calendar year if Grantee is unable to obtain information from the City of Detroit necessary for completing the report. Foundation and Grantee agree that the reports to be provided will be of a standard format and content to be provided to all Foundation Funders. The content of the annual reports will include, without limitation:

- Information on the Grantee's progress toward meeting the terms of this grant
- A statement of determination by the board of Grantee regarding the City's compliance with the Conditions for Funding found in Section 2.4 of the OTA
- A statement of facts regarding the accounting treatment of the remaining payments due to Grantee by the Foundation for consideration by the Foundation in preparing its statements of financial position
- Copies of any and all evaluation or similar reports, if any, provided to any other Foundation Funder or any party to the OTA
- An explanation of any significant changes in the organizational leadership of the Grantee, such information to be provided promptly to Foundation if it occurs between the filing of an annual report

A final report is due by June 30, 2035.

In addition, Grantee will furnish the Foundation with any additional information reasonably requested by the Foundation from time to time. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Grantee will provide the Foundation (or its designated representatives) with reasonable access to Grantee's files, records and personnel for the purpose of making financial audits, evaluations or verification, program evaluations, or other verifications concerning this grant as the Foundation reasonably deems necessary during the term of this grant and for five years thereafter. The fees and expenses of any such representative that is designated by the Foundation to undertake these tasks, and any reasonable out-of-pocket costs actually incurred by the Grantee in complying with this request, will be paid by the Foundation.

V. Standard Provisions

In accepting this grant, the Grantee agrees to the following and certifies the following statements:

- a. Grantee will use the funds granted solely for the purpose stated and Grantee will repay any portion of the amounts granted which is not used for the purpose of the grant or not expended by the due date for the final report.
- b. Grantee is and will at all times maintain its status as (i) a nonprofit corporation in good standing under the laws of the State of Michigan, and (ii) an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) and Section 509(a)(3) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code ("Code") that is not a "private foundation" within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Code because it is a Type-I supporting organization of the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan.
- c. Grantee will notify the Foundation immediately of any change in its tax status.
- d. Grantee will return any unexpended funds if the Grantee loses its exemption from Federal income taxation as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization pursuant to Section 509(a)(1), 509(a)(2) or 509(a)(3) of the Code.
- e. Grantee will maintain books and records adequate to verify actions related to this grant during the term of this grant and for five years thereafter.
- f. Grant funds will only be expended for charitable, educational, literary or scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and Grantee will comply with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations that govern the use of funds received from private foundations. Grantee will in no event use grant funds or any income earned thereon to:

- i. Carry on propaganda or otherwise to attempt to influence legislation (within the meaning of Section 4945(d)(1) of the Code).
- ii. Influence the outcome of any specific public election or carry on, directly or indirectly, any voter registration drive (within the meaning of Section 4945(d)(2) of the Code).
- iii. Make grants to individuals or to other organizations for travel, study or similar purpose that do not comply with the requirements of Section 4945(d)(3) or (4) of the Code.
- iv. Undertake any activity other than for a charitable, educational, literary or scientific purpose specified in Section 170(c)(2)(B) of the Code.
- v. Inure a benefit to any private person or entity in violation of Section 501(c)(3) and 4941 of the Code, including but not limited to any Foundation trustee, officer, employee, or his/her spouse, children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren or their respective spouses for any purpose.
- vi. Support a use that is not in compliance with all applicable anti-terrorist financing and asset control laws, regulations, rules and executive orders, including but not limited to, the USA Patriot Act of 2001 and Executive Order No. 13224. Furthermore, Grantee agrees to ensure that no Foundation funds will be disbursed to any organization or individual listed on the United States Government's Terrorist Exclusion List or the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) Specially Designated Nationals & Blocked Persons List. In addition, Grantee takes reasonable steps to ensure that its board, staff and volunteers have no dealings whatsoever with known terrorist or terrorist organizations.
- g. Grantee acknowledges and agrees that this Terms of Grant Agreement does not imply a commitment by the Foundation to continued funding beyond the express terms of this Terms of Grant Agreement.
- h. Grantee represents that this grant will not result in the private benefit of any individual or entity, including, but not limited to, the discharge of any pledge or financial obligation of any individual or entity.

VI. Publicity

Communications regarding this grant, the OTA and the City's compliance with the ongoing conditions of the OTA will be coordinated and made by Grantee, in consultation with Foundation and other Foundation Funders. Foundation and Grantee will obtain the other's approval prior to making any public announcement about this grant. Foundation may include information on this grant in its period publications without the need for Grantee approval.

STIPULATION REGARDING FGIC PLAN COP SETTLEMENT AND FGIC COP SWAP SETTLEMENT

WHEREAS, the Detroit General Retirement System Service Corporation, a Michigan nonprofit corporation (“DGRS”), and the Detroit Police and Fire Retirement System Service Corporation, a Michigan nonprofit corporation (“PFRS” and, together with DGRS, each a “Service Corporation” and collectively the “Service Corporations”) created each of (i) the Detroit Retirement Systems Funding Trust 2005 (the “2005 Pension Funding Trust”) pursuant to that certain Trust Agreement, dated June 2, 2005, among the Service Corporations and U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee, and (ii) the Detroit Retirement Systems Funding Trust 2006 (the “2006 Pension Funding Trust”) pursuant to that certain Trust Agreement, dated June 12, 2006, among the Service Corporations and U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee;

WHEREAS, the 2005 Pension Funding Trust issued certain Taxable Certificates of Participation Series 2005 (the “2005 Pension Funding Securities”) and the 2006 Pension Funding Trust issued certain Taxable Certificates of Participation Series 2006 (the “2006 Pension Funding Securities” and collectively with the 2005 Pension Funding Securities, the “Certificates of Participation” or “COPs”);

WHEREAS, Financial Guaranty Insurance Company (“FGIC”) issued certain financial guaranty insurance policies guaranteeing the payment of the principal of and interest on certain of the Certificates of Participation (“FGIC COPs Policies”);

WHEREAS, in connection with the issuance of the COPs, the Service Corporations entered into certain swap transactions under certain 1992 ISDA Master Agreements (Local Currency Single Jurisdiction) (together with all ancillary and related instruments and agreements, as the same may have been subsequently amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified, the “COP Swap Agreements”);

WHEREAS, FGIC issued certain financial guaranty insurance policies guaranteeing the payment of certain amounts owed by the Service Corporations under the COP Swap Agreements;

WHEREAS, the City of Detroit, Michigan (the “City”) has proposed a Plan for the Adjustment of Debts, as amended (the “Plan”),<sup>1</sup> and FGIC has opposed and objected to such Plan; and

WHEREAS, the City and FGIC (collectively, the “Parties”) and their representatives have engaged in good faith, arm’s length settlement discussions regarding a consensual resolution of their disputes under or in respect of the Plan, the Certificates of Participation and the COP Swap Agreements.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the promises, mutual covenants, and agreements set forth herein and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties, by and through their respective undersigned counsel, agree and stipulate as follows:

1. The City shall (a) modify the Plan as set forth on Exhibit 1, (b) not amend the Plan in a way that would have a materially adverse effect on the class of claims (“Class 9”) associated with COPs as set forth in the Plan, without the consent of FGIC, and (c) exclude the Joe Louis Arena Parking Garage from any requests for qualifications, quotations or proposals in connection with the Parking Garages.

2. All votes cast by FGIC to accept or reject the Plan, including any votes cast on behalf of any COP Holder, shall be deemed to have been cast as accepting the Plan.

3. All objections by FGIC to the Plan shall be withdrawn, without prejudice to FGIC refileing such objections in the event that (i) the Plan is not confirmed, (ii) this Stipulation is not approved, or (iii) that certain Settlement Agreement, entered into as of October [___], 2014, by and between the City and FGIC in connection with the COP Litigation (the "Settlement Agreement") is not approved or is otherwise terminated in accordance with the provisions thereof (each event described in clause (i), (ii) or (iii), a "Termination Event"). Pending approval of this Stipulation, FGIC shall take no action in furtherance of any objection, joinder, reservation of rights, or opposition to the Plan. For the avoidance of doubt, while approval for this Stipulation is pending, FGIC shall refrain from calling or examining any witnesses, introducing other evidence or advancing legal argument in connection with the confirmation trial on the Plan.

4. FGIC, on behalf of itself and the COP Holders, shall opt into the Plan COP Settlement with respect to the COPs originally insured by FGIC (the "FGIC-Insured COPs"), without impairing the COP Holders' insurance claims against FGIC.

5. The consideration provided under this Stipulation and the Plan COP Settlement is solely for the benefit of FGIC and the COP Holders, and such consideration shall be administered and distributed in a manner consistent with the Plan.

6. Subject to FGIC having obtained the consents of any and all reinsurers providing reinsurance with respect to all or a portion of the FGIC COPs Policies, FGIC may, in its sole discretion, require the insertion of the following provision in the proposed Confirmation Order:

FGIC (irrespective of the terms of the FGIC COPs Policies, including, without limitation the definition of Due for Payment) may treat all of the outstanding principal owing on all series of the FGIC-Insured COPs as having been accelerated and currently “Due for Payment” (as such term is defined in the applicable FGIC COPs Policy for purposes of such policy) as of the Effective Date, in which case, with respect to each FGIC COPs Policy there shall be deemed a Permitted Policy Claim (as defined in the First Amended Plan of Rehabilitation for Financial Guaranty Insurance Company, dated June 4, 2013) in the amount of (i) the outstanding principal amount of the FGIC-Insured COPs in each CUSIP, as of the Effective Date, insured by such policy and (ii) interest accrued and unpaid on such principal amount of such FGIC-Insured COPs through the Effective Date, in which case no interest shall accrue on or after the Effective Date.

7. In full satisfaction and discharge of FGIC’s swap insurance and related claims against the City, FGIC shall receive: (a) an Allowed Class 14 claim in the amount of $6.11 million, and (b) the Downtown Development Authority shall assign to FGIC all of the Downtown Development Authority's right, title and interest to its distribution of New B Notes under the plan on account of its $33.6 million Class 13 claim. For the avoidance of doubt, this consideration is solely for FGIC's benefit.

8. This Stipulation shall automatically terminate upon the occurrence of a Termination Event.

9. This Stipulation, including Exhibit 1 hereto, and the Settlement Agreement contain the entire understanding of the Parties hereto concerning the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior understandings and agreements, whether written or oral, between the Parties hereto on such subject matter. The Parties acknowledge that they are not relying on any promises or representations not contained in this Stipulation.

10. This Stipulation may be executed in counterparts by facsimile, email, or other similar electronic transmission, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which when taken together shall constitute one document.

BY AND AMONG
CITY OF DETROIT,
THE STATE OF MICHIGAN
AND
FINANCIAL GUARANTY INSURANCE COMPANY

THIS AGREEMENT (referred to herein as this “Agreement”) is entered into as of the ____ day of October, 2014 (the “Effective Date”), by and between the City of Detroit, a Michigan public body corporate (the “City”), acting through its Planning & Development Department (“PDD”), whose address is 2300 Cadillac Tower, Detroit, Michigan 48226, the State of Michigan (the “State”), whose address is P.O. Box 30013, Lansing, Michigan 48909, and Financial Guaranty Insurance Company, a New York stock insurance company (“Developer”), whose address is 521 Fifth Avenue – 15th Floor, New York, New York 10175. The City and Developer are sometimes referred to in this Agreement as a “Party” and, collectively, as the “Parties.”

Recitals:

A. In consideration of the Parties’ various contractual arrangements and settlements entered into contemporaneously herewith between the City and Developer, and the mutual desire of the Parties to promote economic growth in the City (the “Arrangement”), the City has agreed to grant an option to Developer to acquire that certain real property upon which is presently situated the improvements commonly referred to as the Joe Louis Arena, inclusive of 5.3 acres of real property located at 19 Steve Yzerman Drive, Detroit, Michigan, and the Joe Louis Arena Garage, inclusive of 3.3 acres of real property located at 900 W. Jefferson Avenue, Detroit, Michigan (collectively, the “Property”). As used herein, the term “Property” shall be deemed to include: (i) the land described on Exhibit ___<sup>1</sup> together with all air, mineral, subsurface and riparian rights appertaining thereto, if any; (ii) the City's interest, if any, in those certain above ground pedestrian walkways and all necessary related easements located on the Property or appurtenant thereto, whether now existing or hereafter granted prior to the Closing (as hereinafter defined), allowing access from the property to COBO Center (the "COBO Interests"); (iii) the City's interest, if any, in any land lying in the bed of any street, road, alley, right-of-way or avenue, at the foot of, adjoining or dividing the Property, only to the extent such street, road, alley, right-of-way or avenue is not open for the general benefit of the public; (iv) the City's interest, if any, in the use and benefit of all easements appurtenant to the Property whether or not of record; (v) the City's interest in and development rights under all authorizations, permits and approvals with respect to the use and development of the Property; and (vi) such other rights, interests and properties as may be specified in this Agreement to be sold, transferred, assigned or conveyed by the City to Developer.

B. The State has agreed to grant to the Developer or assist the Developer in obtaining certain economic development incentives for purposes of developing the Property upon the terms and conditions set forth herein.

C. If Developer exercises its option with respect to the Property as set forth herein, Developer shall develop such Property in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

Accordingly, the Parties agree as follows:

Section 1. DEVELOPMENT AND OPTION

(A) Development Proposal.

(1) On or before a date which is thirty-six (36) months following full and complete execution of this Agreement (as the same may be extended in accordance with the terms hereof, the "Development Proposal Deadline"), the Developer shall (i) identify a developer partner that shall serve as development manager for the Development, or a development manager to be hired on a fee for service basis by Developer to manage construction of the Development (as hereinafter defined), either of which shall have significant experience in the development of large, complex mixed-use urban projects, and (ii) prepare a comprehensive development plan for the Development, and shall submit such information along with such plan (in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the City) to the City for its review and approval in the manner set forth in this Section 1(A) (the "Development Proposal"), which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, including, without limitation, any condition in such approval that would interfere with the eligibility of the Development for TIF Incentives (as defined in Section 5(I)(a) below) as contemplated hereby. For purposes of this Agreement, "Development" shall mean that certain mixed use project consisting of (i) a first-class hotel and related facilities including not less than 300 hotel rooms, and (ii) such other office, retail, commercial, recreational, residential and/or condominium units as shall be determined by the Developer (industrial, adult entertainment and other noxious uses excepted) given prevailing market conditions, with a height above ground not to exceed 30 floors, to be constructed upon the Property by the Developer, together with all onsite improvements, site preparation, onsite infrastructure (including, without limitation, sanitary sewer, water, storm sewer, sidewalks, street lighting, driveways, storm water detention or retention facilities), related parking facilities and landscaping, necessary or appurtenant thereto; in all instances as approved by the City in accordance herewith, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed to the extent consistent with the City's urban planning policies and the City's comprehensive development plan as existing on the date any applicable Required Approvals (as defined below) are obtained by the Developer. For purposes of this Agreement, and without limiting the Developer's ability to identify and receive approval of a different development partner, the Detroit Regional Convention Facility Authority is deemed by the City an approved development partner. The Development Proposal shall include an application for the brownfield plan necessary for the application for TIF Incentives, and it shall also identify which components of the Development Proposal are eligible for the TIF Incentives, disbursement of which shall be governed by the Economic Incentive Agreements (as defined in Section 5(I)(a) below), and the City shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the State or applicable State related entity to grant any approvals necessary for those TIF Incentives no later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the date of approval of the Development Proposal, subject to the terms hereof. The Development Proposal shall include the terms of the Guaranty (as defined in Section 5(B) below), including the identity of any guarantor thereunder, and also include the terms of any proposed equity investment and financing for the Development; provided, however, (i) the Development Proposal does not need to disclose any additional equity partners, provided that the Developer will not partner with any third party that is prohibited from doing business with the City, (ii) the Development proposal does not need to disclose the holder(s) of the COPs or holders of the beneficial interests in the COPs, and (iii) the Development Proposal does not need to identify a development partner if the rights under the Agreement have been transferred to a developer prior to the date of the Development Proposal Deadline, which transferee has previously been approved by the City, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

(2) The City shall review any Development Proposal submitted to the City by the Developer and within ninety (90) days of receipt by the City of such Development Proposal (the "Development Proposal Review Period") the City shall either (i) approve the Development Proposal or (ii) provide the Developer with the specific reasons why the Development Proposal is not acceptable, which may include unacceptability of the proposed development partner (if required). If the City does not approve the Development Proposal, the Developer may provide a revised Development Proposal(s) to the City for its approval pursuant to the process herein, which shall continue until the earlier of (i) the date on which a Development Proposal is approved, and (ii) the Development Proposal Deadline which shall be automatically extended by the aggregate of all Development Proposal Review Periods. The City and, to the extent applicable related to the TIF Incentives, the State, shall reasonably cooperate with the Developer in preparation of the Development Proposal, at no incremental cost to the City or, as applicable, the State. The Development Proposal, as approved by the City pursuant to this Section 1(A) shall be hereinafter referred to as the “Approved Development Proposal.”

(3) Upon request of the Developer, the City may approve an extension of the Development Proposal Deadline by up to twenty-four (24) additional months, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. The City agrees that it would be unreasonable to withhold its approval of such extension if (i) the Developer requested the extension because development in the immediate vicinity of the Property has materially decreased or the general economic condition of the City has deteriorated to such a level that it would not be economically feasible for the Developer to pursue development of the Property or (ii) it is reasonable given the complexity of the development contemplated by the Developer for the Property.

(B) Option and Diligence Procedure.

(1) The Developer shall have until a date which is one hundred eighty (180) days prior to the Development Proposal Deadline (as may be extended) to give the City written notice of its intent to conduct the Diligence Activities (as hereinafter defined) on the Property (the “Diligence Notice”). Following receipt of the Diligence Notice, the City shall use its commercially reasonable efforts during the Diligence Period (as defined below) to provide the Developer and its contractors, consultants and their respective agents with such access to the Property as may be reasonably requested by the Developer from time to time, subject to any access limitation of that certain Sublease of Riverfront Arena between the City, Olympia Entertainment, Inc. and the Detroit Red Wings, Inc., dated June 15, 2014, and the related Parking Agreement (as may be amended, restated or modified, the “JLA Lease”). For purposes of this Agreement, “Diligence Activities” include but are not limited to the following:

(a) such physical inspections, surveys, soil borings and bearing tests and possible relocation of utilities, all as Developer deems necessary in its sole discretion, all of which shall be completed at Developer’s expense;

(b) subject to the terms and provisions of Section 2 below, including giving of such Investigation Notices and obtaining City approval as may be required thereunder, investigations, environmental studies, environmental site assessments (including Phase I and Phase II site assessments, and/or sampling and invasive testing of soil, groundwater, surface water, soil vapors, indoor air, and building materials (such as Asbestos and lead-based paint)), and such other investigations and assessments as Developer may deem necessary in its sole discretion to determine the condition of the Property and the Property’s compliance with Environmental Laws (as defined below) and any other federal, state and local laws, rules, regulations and orders relating in any way to protection of human health, the environment and natural resources, all of which shall be completed at Developer’s expense; and

(c) a review of available public and private utilities and public accesses necessary for the proposed development of the Property.

(2) Title and Survey. The City shall deliver to Developer a title commitment and ALTA survey for the Property (the "Title Commitment and Survey") promptly following execution of this Agreement. Within twenty (20) business days after the Developer's receipt of the Title Commitment and Survey (in form reasonably acceptable to the Developer) and copies of each of the title exceptions referenced in the Title Commitment and Survey, the Developer shall examine the Title Commitment and Survey and shall make any objections to any items therein that would cause title to the Property not to be good and marketable, free and clear of any items that, in Developer's reasonable discretion, would unreasonably interfere with the construction, use or operation of the Development for its intended purposes or impair the value of the Development to such an extent as to make such Development not commercially feasible (any of the foregoing a "Title Defect") by written notice to the City (the "Title Objection Notice"). For avoidance of doubt, the City shall not be obligated to cure, remove or bond over any objection to the Title Commitment and Survey that fails to qualify as a Title Defect hereunder. The Title Objection Notice shall state with specificity the reasons for Developer's objection(s) and the curative steps requested by the Developer which would remove the basis for the Developer's objection(s). The City shall cure, remove or bond over any Title Defects prior to the Closing Date. If the Developer orders an update to the Title Commitment and Survey prior to Closing (as defined in Section 3(A) below), and such update shows any additional Title Defect not caused by the Developer or its agents, consultants or contractors, the City shall cause each such Title Defect to be cured, removed or bonded over prior to Closing.

(3) City Information. To the extent within the possession of the City and the City Parties (as defined below), as reasonably determined by the City's corporation counsel upon due inquiry, the City shall, promptly upon the written request of the Developer, provide, and shall cause all City Parties to provide, to the Developer (i) copies of all environmental studies, asbestos reports or other environmental reports on the Property, and all material documents, records or non-privileged communications related to the presence, use or release of Hazardous Materials at the Property subject to a pending claim or matter or present at concentrations exceeding those allowed by law, (ii) copies of all title reports and the underlying documents referenced therein, (iii) copies of all surveys of the Property, (iv) copies of any other records, documents, instruments, agreements or files with respect to the use or ownership of the Property, to the extent materially relevant after Closing, (v) to the extent not included in the above, copies of the correspondence to or from the City or any City Parties related to the use or ownership of the Property, to the extent materially relevant after Closing and (vi) such other documentation as is reasonably requested by Developer with respect to the Property. For purposes of this Agreement, "City Parties" shall mean any department, subdivision or agency of the City and/or any governmental authority within the direct or indirect control or supervision of the City.

(4) Insurance. Prior to entering onto the Property for any Diligence Activities, Developer or its contractors shall maintain the insurance coverage and comply with the insurance requirements specified in the City's Right-of-Entry, a form of which is attached as Exhibit A (the "Right-of-Entry").

(5) Indemnity. Developer shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless the City from and against any loss, liability, cost or expense incurred by the City to the extent resulting from Developer's (including its duly authorized employees, agents, engineers or other representatives) negligence or willful acts occurring in connection with the Diligence Activities; provided, however, that the Developer shall not be responsible for any loss, liability, cost, or expense resulting from the City's (or any City Parties') negligence or misconduct.

(6) The Developer shall notify the City in writing, no less than one hundred twenty (120) days following the Diligence Notice (the "Diligence Period"), that either (i) the Developer intends to proceed to Closing on the Property (the "Notice of Option Exercise"), or (ii) the condition of the Property is such that, in Developer's reasonable judgment, the condition adversely affects Developer's ability to timely complete the Development or adversely affects the use, value or marketability of the Property (the "Objection Notice"), which Objection Notice shall state with reasonable specificity the particular diligence matter(s) unacceptable to the Developer, including any Title Defects ("Objections"). The City, in its sole discretion, shall have the option (but not the obligation) to cure, remove or bond over such Objections within sixty (60) days following receipt of the Objection Notice (the "Cure Period"), provided, that the City must cure, remove or bond over such Objections that (a) are encumbrances for the benefit of the City, the City Parties, their lenders or vendors, (b) are Title Defects, or (c) may reasonably be deemed to directly cause a delay in the Developer's ability to complete the Development in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement more than two (2) years after the Completion Deadline; provided, however, in the event any such Objection may reasonably be deemed to directly cause a delay in the Developer's ability complete the Development in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement of two (2) years or less after the Completion Deadline (a "Minor Delay Defect"), then the City shall not be obligated to cure, remove or bond over such Minor Delay Defect; however, the number of days of delay reasonably determined to be caused by such Minor Delay Defect shall be deemed Force Majeure Delay (as hereinafter defined) for the equivalent number of days. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the City shall be obligated to cause to be cured, removed or bonded over prior to expiration of the Cure Period: (i) mechanics' liens; (ii) judgment liens against the City or any City Parties; (iii) mortgages, similar loan documents and voluntary liens with respect to indebtedness of the City or any City Party; (iv) delinquent taxes, charges, impositions or assessments; (v) fines issued by any governmental or quasi-governmental authority or other liens encumbering the Property or any portion thereof which are in liquidated amount; and (vi) any other monetary liens against the property. To the extent the Developer desires to proceed to Closing on the Property following delivery of an Objection Notice, the Developer must deliver to the City a Notice of Option Exercise prior to fifteen (15) days following expiration of the Cure Period. Failure of the Developer to timely deliver a Notice of Option Exercise as provided for herein shall result in automatic termination of the Developer's rights under this Agreement and the Developer shall thereafter have no further interest in the Property. Following delivery by the Developer of a Notice of Option Exercise, the City shall be bound to convey the Property, upon the terms and conditions set forth herein, and the City and the Developer shall proceed to closing on the Property on a mutually agreed upon date which is the later of (i) two (2) years following approval by the City of the Development Proposal, and (ii) six (6) months following completion of Demolition (as defined in Section 5(H)(b) below) by the City (the “Closing Date”).

(7) As Is Condition of Property; City Cooperation. The City makes no implied or express representations or warranties of any kind as to any condition that may adversely affect the development, or its fitness for absolutely any purpose whatsoever, other than with respect to the Sufficient Environmental Remediation (as defined in Section 5(H)(b) below). Upon delivery to the City of the Notice of Option Exercise, Developer will be deemed to have acknowledged that it is satisfied with the condition of the applicable Property, subject to the completion of the Sufficient Environmental Remediation, and shall be deemed to have waived any right to object to the status of title or to the condition of the Property, regardless of the result of any Diligence Activities, except as expressly provided for in this Agreement.

(8) Release of City from Liability. Upon Closing and subject to the City’s obligation hereunder to perform Sufficient Environmental Remediation, Developer shall release the City and its officials, employees, and agents (but not any third party) from any and all claims or causes of action the Developer may have against the City for any liability, injury or loss as a result of any physical defects in or physical conditions of the Property, including but not limited to any surface, subsurface, latent or patent conditions whether naturally occurring or by action of any party.

(C) Brokerage and Finder’s Fees and Commission. Developer will defend and indemnify the City and hold it harmless with respect to any commissions, fees, judgments, or expenses of any nature and kind that the City or Developer may become liable to pay by reason of any claims by or on behalf of brokers, finders or agents claiming by, through or under Developer incident to this Agreement and the transaction contemplated hereby or any litigation or similar proceeding arising therefrom unless the City has a written agreement with a broker, finder or agent providing for such payment in which case the City shall be responsible for such broker, finder or agents’ commissions, fees, judgments or expenses. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the City will defend and indemnify the Developer and hold it harmless with respect to any commissions, fees, judgments, or expenses of any nature and kind that the City or Developer may become liable to pay by reason of any claims by or on behalf of brokers, finders or agents claiming by, through or under the City incident to this Agreement and the transaction contemplated hereby or any litigation or similar proceeding arising therefrom unless the Developer has a written agreement with a broker, finder or agent providing for such payment in which case the Developer shall be responsible for such broker, finder or agents’ commissions, fees, judgments or expenses. Developer represents and warrants to the City that it has not engaged or otherwise dealt with any brokers entitled to any commissions, fees, judgments, or expenses in connection with this Agreement.

(D) Taxes And Assessments. All taxes and assessments which (i) have become a lien upon the Property or part thereof prior to the date of Closing, and (ii) have been discovered and specifically identified by Developer prior to the Closing, shall be paid by the City on or prior to the Closing Date; provided, further that all current property taxes shall be paid by the City through the date of Closing. From and after Closing, and subject to any abatement or other tax limitation described in this Agreement, Developer shall be solely responsible for all taxes, liens, and assessments that become due and payable for the period after the Closing against the Property it acquires hereunder or any part thereof, whenever assessed, levied, or due.

Section 2. ENVIRONMENTAL MATTERS

(A) Definitions. The following words and expressions shall, wherever they appear in this Agreement, be construed as follows:

(1) “Asbestos” shall have the meanings provided under the Environmental Laws and shall include, but not be limited to, asbestos fibers, friable asbestos or asbestos-containing materials or presumed asbestos-containing materials, as such terms are defined under the Environmental Laws.

(2) “Environmental Claims” shall mean all claims, demands, suits, proceedings, actions, whether pending or threatened, contingent or non-contingent, known or unknown, including but not limited to investigations and notices by any governmental authority or other person, brought under common law and/or under any of the Environmental Laws which can or do relate to the Property or the operations conducted thereon.

(a) the installation, existence, or removal of, or exposure to, Asbestos at, on or in the Property;

(b) the existence on, discharge from, release of, exposure to, or removal from the Property of Hazardous Materials; and

(c) the effects on the environment of the Property or any activity conducted now, or previously or hereafter conducted, on the Property.

(“CERCLA”); the Superfund Amendments and

Reauthorization Act, Public Law 99-499, 100 Stat. 1613; the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, 42 USC Sections 6901, et seq.; the National Environmental Policy Act, 42 USC Section 4321; the Toxic Substances Control Act, 15 USC Section 2601; the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act, 49 USC Section 1801; the Clean Air Act, 42 USC Sections 7401, et seq.; the Occupational Safety and Health Act, 29 USC Sections 651, et seq., as each have been amended and the regulations promulgated in connection therewith; (ii) Environmental Protection Agency regulations pertaining to Asbestos (including 40 CFR Part 61, Subpart M); Occupational Safety and Health Administration Regulations pertaining to Asbestos (including CFR Sections 1901.1001 and 1926.58) as each may now or hereafter be amended; and (iii) any Michigan state and local laws and regulations pertaining to any Hazardous Materials.

(4) “Hazardous Materials” shall include any material, substance or waste classified, regulated, or otherwise characterized as “hazardous,” “toxic,” “radioactive,” a “pollutant,” “contaminant,” or words of similar meaning or is otherwise regulated by Environmental Laws, including, without limitation, polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs), paint containing lead and urea formaldehyde foam insulation, and sewage.

(B) The City and Developer acknowledge and agree that some of the parcels to be transferred may be “facilities” pursuant to Part 201 of NREPA, whether or not as yet discovered to be such and that the obligations to perform Sufficient Environmental Remediation is the City’s obligation and shall be done at its cost and expense.

(C) The City shall authorize the Developer, through a fully executed Right-of-Entry (in the form attached), to enter upon the Property during the Diligence Period to, subject to the reasonable conditions set forth herein, make soil boring and bearing tests, undertake such surveying and environmental due diligence activities as Developer deems appropriate, including without limitation sampling and testing of soil, soil vapor, surface water, groundwater, indoor air, and the installation of groundwater wells, provided such do not materially and unreasonably interfere with demolition or site improvement activities of the City or the rightful use of the Property by a tenant in possession or other third party, if any, provided the City shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to facilitate such access to tenant spaces. All such testing and remediation shall be done at Developer’s expense; provided, if sampling occurs, the City shall have the right, at its cost and expense, to obtain split samples of any environmental media to the extent reasonably practicable. During the Diligence Period, Developer shall comply with the terms and provisions of the Right-of-Entry. Developer’s right to enter upon the applicable Property is subject to execution of such Right-of-Entry and subject to the prior written authorization by the tenant under the JLA Lease, which the City shall use commercially reasonable efforts to procure promptly upon receipt of the Diligence Notice from the Developer. Upon request from the City, Developer shall promptly provide the City with a copy of each final survey or environmental testing report generated as a result of such activities. Developer shall give prior written notice to the City of Developer’s plan to inspect and/or investigate the environmental condition of the Property during the Diligence Period (each such notice referred to herein as an “Investigation Notice”). The Investigation Notice shall identify any agents or contractors that the Developer intends to use in conducting the activities covered by the Investigation Notice and the general scope of such activities; provided, the scope of any such investigations, site assessments or testing activities shall be subject to the City's prior written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; provided, further, Developer shall have sole discretion to determine what analysis any samples will be subjected to. Developer shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to minimize damage to the Property in connection with such entry and shall restore the Property to the condition existing prior to such entry. Developer shall indemnify, defend and hold the City harmless from and against any and all out-of-pocket loss, cost, liability and expense, including reasonable attorney fees and litigation costs, suffered or incurred by the City as a result of the Developer's (including any of its duly authorized employees, agents, engineers or other representatives) negligent acts or omissions or willful misconduct occurring in connection with the activities conducted in accordance with the Right-of-Entry.

(D) In the event Developer elects to proceed to take title to the Property, upon the Closing and subject to the Sufficient Environmental Remediation, Developer takes such Property as it finds it, "AS IS", and the City makes no express or implied representations or warranties as to its fitness for absolutely any purpose whatsoever, including but not limited to any warranty that the Property is fit for the Developer's purpose or regarding the presence or absence of Hazardous Materials at, on, in, under, at, or from the Property and compliance with the Property with Environmental Laws, other than with respect to Sufficient Environmental Remediation. Except with respect to Sufficient Environmental Remediation, Developer acknowledges that neither the City nor any agent or employee of the City has made any representation, warranty or agreement, either express or implied, and Developer has not relied on any representation, warranty or agreement of any kind made by the City or any agent or employee of the City, concerning (a) the physical or environmental condition of the Property, or (b) the presence or absence of any condition, substance or material, including but not limited to any waste material, equipment or device at, on, in, under, about, or from the Property. Developer agrees that the disclosures of the City concerning the Property and its condition are intended to satisfy any duties the City may have under the law, including but not limited to the statutes, Environmental Laws, and common law. By executing this Agreement, Developer acknowledges that it is entitled to receive from the City Sufficient Environmental Remediation and is entitled to conduct its Diligence Activities, including but not limited to inspection of the Property, review of title, and the results of the tests, investigations and surveys permitted under this Agreement. If, prior to Closing, Developer fails to undertake such investigations and/or obtain such test results and surveys, or fails to object to the condition of the Property based on the results of its Diligence Activities, and Developer thereafter elects to proceed to Closing, Developer shall thereupon be deemed to have waived any right to object to the condition of the Property and shall be deemed to have declared its full satisfaction therewith, subject to Sufficient Environmental Remediation.

(E) Upon Closing, Developer, for itself and its successors and assigns, expressly waives and releases all Environmental Claims (whether for personal injury, property damage or otherwise) that Developer may have against the City and its officials, employees and agents in connection with or related to such Property or any aspect thereof, except with respect to Sufficient Environmental Remediation.

(F) After the Closing, the City shall have no obligation or liability to Developer whatsoever to undertake any cleanup or other remedial action that may be required in connection with the Property under any Environmental Law, or to comply with any other federal, state or local requirement to attend to the physical condition of the Property, subject to the City's obligations hereunder related to Sufficient Environmental Remediation.

(G) At its sole cost and expense, with respect to the Property for the period commencing on the Closing and ending on Commencement of Construction (as defined in Section 5(C) below), Developer shall: (a) comply with all Environmental Laws; (b) pay when due the cost of Developer's compliance with the Environmental Laws resulting out of environmental conditions caused or permitted by Developer during its period of ownership, use, possession or development of the Property; and (c) keep the Property free of any lien imposed pursuant to the Environmental Laws resulting out of Developer's ownership, use, possession, or development of the Property.

(H) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary which may be contained in this Agreement, Developer represents and warrants and covenants to the City for the period after Developer's commencement of ownership, use, possession or development of the Property through and including Commencement of Construction, as follows:

(a) Developer shall not use or allow the use of the Property for the purpose of storing any Hazardous Materials Developer brings into the Property, nor shall Developer use the Property in a manner which will cause or increase the likelihood of causing the release of such Hazardous Materials onto or from the Property, in each case other than those Hazardous Materials which are necessary and commercially reasonable for the conduct of Developer's development activities or the business operated on the Property and which Hazardous Materials shall be handled and disposed of in compliance with all Environmental Laws and industry standards and in a commercially reasonable manner.

(b) Developer shall promptly notify the City of any claims or litigation against the Developer by any person (including any governmental authority), concerning the presence or possible presence of Hazardous Materials contamination at the Property or concerning any violation or alleged violation of the Environmental Laws by the Developer respecting the Property, and shall furnish the City with a copy of any such communication received by Developer.

(c) Developer shall notify the City promptly and in reasonable detail in the event that Developer becomes aware of or suspects the presence of Hazardous Materials at levels exceeding those allowed by the Environmental Laws or contamination or a material violation of the Environmental Laws at the Property.

(d) If Developer's operations at the Property violate the Environmental Laws so as to subject Developer or the City to a formal notice of violation by a governmental agency alleging a violation of the Environmental Laws, Developer shall promptly notify the City of the Developer's receipt of such formal notice of violation and shall promptly investigate the underlying circumstances and notify the City within five (5) days after the completion of its investigation of the results of its investigation. If Developer determines that an ongoing material violation by Developer is occurring or did occur, Developer shall, to the extent required by Environmental Laws, cease or cause a cessation of or take other actions to address those aspects of the use or operations causing the violation and shall remedy and cure in compliance with the Environmental Laws any conditions arising therefrom to the extent required by Environmental Laws at its own cost and expense. If Developer disputes that its activities are violating Environmental Laws, it shall expeditiously appeal and prosecute an appeal of the notice of violation or take other commercially reasonable actions to dispute such notice.

Section 3. CLOSING

(A) On the Closing Date, the City shall, subject to Developer's satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth in Section 3(B) below, convey the Property to the Developer (the "Closing") by quit-claim deed substantially in the form of the deed set forth in Exhibit B (the "Deed") using legal descriptions approved by Developer and the City. The Parties agree and acknowledge that the sole and exclusive consideration for conveyance of the Property hereunder is deemed to be the Arrangement, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged.

(B) Conditions to Closing. The City's obligation to proceed with a Closing is conditioned on the fulfillment by Developer of each of the following conditions precedent:

a. Resolution of Developer's Authority. Developer shall furnish to the City a certified copy of a resolution in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the City and the title company insuring title to the Property, duly authorizing the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and all other documents and actions contemplated hereunder.

b. Payment of Closing Costs. Developer shall have tendered payment of the closing costs payable by Developer, which shall include all title charges, escrow, closing and recording fees associated with any conveyance hereunder except those costs expressly allocated to the City hereunder. The City shall pay all closing costs in connection with transfer of the Property at Closing to the extent such costs are expressly allocated to sellers of real property in Detroit, Michigan pursuant to applicable law. Each Party shall bear the cost of its own legal fees and expenses in connection with this Agreement.

(C) Delivery of Deeds and Possession. The City will deliver to Developer at Closing the Deed with respect to the Property and possession thereof.

(D) Recording. Provided that Developer has complied with all conditions precedent as specified in Section 3(B) above, the Deed shall be delivered at the Closing for prompt recordation with the Register of Deeds of Wayne County, Michigan. Developer shall pay at Closing all costs for recording the Deed. Possession of the Property shall be delivered to Developer at the Closing.

Section 4: NOTICES

All notices, demands, requests, consents, approvals or other communications (any of the foregoing, a "Notice") required, permitted, or desired to be given hereunder to any Party shall be in writing and either (a) hand delivered, (b) sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, (c) sent by facsimile transmission (with confirmation), or (d) sent by reputable overnight prepaid courier, addressed to the Party to be so notified at its address set forth below, or to such other address as such Party may hereafter specify in accordance with the provisions of this Section. ## Section 5: COVENANTS

(A) Developer covenants for itself and its successors and assigns and every successor in interest to the Property, that from and after Closing on the Property, Developer and its successors and assigns shall develop such Property only to and in accordance with the Approved Development Proposal and otherwise pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the City. Subject to Force Majeure Delays (as defined below), within twelve (12) months following the Closing Date (the “Commencement Deadline”), the Developer shall achieve Commencement of Construction with respect to such Property. Following Commencement of Construction, the Developer shall diligently prosecute the Development on the Property to substantial completion in material conformance with the Approved Development Proposal (which shall mean substantial completion of the Development and all improvements related thereto, exclusive of landscaping, punch list items and any tenant work for commercial or other space for which there are no tenants or for which the work is to be done by a tenant and any onsite or offsite work that is not commercially necessary for occupancy in material conformance with the Approved Development Proposal) (the date upon which such substantial completion occurs referred to herein as the “Completion Date”). Subject to Force Majeure Delays, the Completion Date shall occur within thirty-six (36) months following the Closing Date (the “Completion Deadline”). For purposes of this Agreement, “Force Majeure Delays” shall mean an event, casualty, occurrence, condition, or circumstance of any kind or nature reasonably beyond the control of the applicable party hereto which renders such party unable to perform any of its obligations contemplated hereunder, in full or in part, including, without limitation, (i) acts of declared or undeclared war by a foreign enemy; (ii) civil commotion, insurrection or riots; (iii) fire or casualty or condemnation; (iv) floods, hurricanes or other materially adverse weather conditions; (v) earthquakes; (vi) acts of God; (vii) governmental preemption in the case of emergency; (viii) unavailability of materials to the extent not within the reasonable control of the applicable party (other than shortage of funds); (ix) strikes, lockouts or other labor trouble; (x) inability to secure labor or access to the Property including, without limitation, holdover of the tenant under the JLA Lease (as defined below) beyond any stated expiration date (inclusive of all renewal options thereunder); (xi) acts of terrorism; (xii) the suspension of government operations; (xiii) any act, omission, rule, order or regulation of any governmental authority or any department or subdivision thereof (other than, with respect to the City, the City, any department, subdivision or agency of the City or any governmental authority within the direct or indirect control or supervision of the City and other than, with respect to the Developer, the failure of the Developer to secure the Required Approvals if the Developer does not apply for and diligently prosecute the applications for such Required Approvals); (ix) the presence of hazardous materials on the Property and any related remedial action; and (x) any other cause, event or circumstance not within the reasonable control of the applicable party (other than shortage of funds).

(B) The Commencement Deadline and Completion Deadline shall be extended for a period of time equal to the number of days during which Developer is prevented from proceeding with the construction of the development at the Property by reason of Force Majeure

Delays, provided that (i) Developer is otherwise in compliance with the terms and provisions of this Agreement, and (ii) Developer notifies the City of the events constituting such Force Majeure Delays no later than sixty (60) days after Developer has actual knowledge of their occurrence. At Closing, Developer shall cause the City to be provided with a commercially reasonable completion guarantee, or other assurance of completion (which other assurance of completion shall be reasonably acceptable to the City), given by an entity reasonably acceptable to the City, which guarantees for the benefit of the City substantial completion of the Development on or before the Completion Deadline (the “Guaranty”).

(C) For purposes of this Agreement, “Commencement of Construction” on the Property shall be deemed to have occurred when the Developer shall have commenced site preparation work on the Property, which site preparation work may include renovation or demolition of existing structures located on the Property by the Developer, as applicable.

(D) Developer covenants and agrees that from and after Closing, through and including the Commencement of Construction, it will: (i) comply with all applicable zoning requirements, and all other applicable state and federal statutes and regulations and local laws and ordinances applicable to the ownership, use and/or occupancy of the Property; and (ii) except as abated in accordance with the terms hereof, pay and discharge when due without penalty, and in all events before penalty for nonpayment attaches thereto, all taxes, assessments and governmental charges, including but not limited to real estate taxes or assessments on the Property or any part thereof, except where the same may be contested in good faith.

(E) Developer covenants and agrees to permit the City or its designee to encumber that portion of the Property depicted in the attached Exhibit C with an easement upon terms and conditions determined by the City in its reasonable discretion, for the purpose of constructing certain riverwalk improvements. In the event the easement contemplated above is not placed of record prior to Closing, the Developer (including any successors or assigns thereof) shall permit such easement to be placed of record following Closing free of charge. Notwithstanding any provision hereof to the contrary, no such easement described in this paragraph, to the extent recorded prior to Closing, shall form the basis for a Title Defect or any Objection hereunder, and the City shall not be required for any reason to cure, remove or bond over such encumbrance.

(F) Developer covenants and agrees to permit the City or its designee to maintain on the Property those certain public transportation assets of the City commonly referred to as the “people mover” and all ancillary assets related thereto free of charge (the “People Mover”). Developer further covenants and agrees to permit the City or its designee to encumber the Property with an easement upon terms and conditions determined by the City in its reasonable discretion, for the purpose of maintaining, renewing and replacing, as necessary in the City’s sole discretion, the People Mover in the location on the Property in which the People Mover is situated as of the date of this Agreement. In the event the easement contemplated above is not placed of record prior to Closing, the Developer (including any successors or assigns thereof) shall permit such easement to be placed of record following Closing free of charge. Notwithstanding any provision hereof to the contrary, no such easement described in this paragraph, to the extent recorded prior to Closing, shall form the basis for a Title Defect or any Objection hereunder, and the City shall not be required for any reason to cure, remove or bond over such encumbrance.

(G) Estate Conveyed. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, the estate conveyed hereby shall be deemed to be a determinable fee and only upon Commencement of Construction hereunder will the possibility of reverter retained by the City automatically expire as to that part of the applicable Property.

(H) City Covenants.

(a) Prior to Closing, the City shall (1) subject to Demolition, maintain the Property in at least the same condition and repair (except for environmental condition and repair thereof, which is addressed in sub-clause (2) below) as such exists on the Effective Date, (2) not, through its own action, alter the environmental condition of the Property, as such exists on the Effective Date, in a material and adverse manner, (3) not take zoning or land use action on the Property without Developer's prior written consent, and (4) not execute or grant any lease, contract, agreement, lien, security interest, encumbrance, easement, or restriction with respect to such Property, or amend, modify, renew or extend any of the foregoing, without prior written consent of the Developer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; provided, however, without the consent of the Developer, the City shall be permitted to (i) enter into, amend, modify or renew any contract, agreement or lease with respect to the Property to the extent that such instrument is terminable at will by the City and is terminated by the City prior to the Closing or the term of such instrument does not extend beyond Closing, and (ii) amend or modify the JLA Lease in any manner which would not materially, adversely alter the rights of the Developer hereunder (for avoidance of doubt, the City shall be permitted to terminate the JLA Lease without the Developer's prior consent); provided, however, in no event shall the City renew or otherwise extend the JLA Lease, subject to the right of the existing tenant thereunder to so extend the JLA Lease. The City shall pass no charter, ordinance or other provision that solely affects or primarily targets the Developer or its rights under this Agreement which charter, ordinance or other provision has a material adverse impact on the Developer or its rights under this Agreement (it being understood that a "material adverse impact" shall include any adverse financial impact on or any contradiction, or adverse impact on the enforceability of, the terms of this Agreement or the Economic Incentive Agreements). To the extent any COBO Interests are intended to benefit the owner of the Property, but are not otherwise in the name of, or held by, the City, upon written request of the Developer given to the City not less than ninety (90) days prior to Closing, the City shall use reasonable efforts to cause such COBO Interests to be conveyed to the Developer at Closing.

(b) Promptly upon expiration of the JLA Lease, but in no event more than ninety (90) days after expiration of the JLA Lease (the "Demolition Commencement Date"), the City shall commence or cause to be commenced the demolition of all improvements on the Property (except for those certain improvements commonly referred to as the Joe Louis Arena Garage) (the "Demolition Property"), which demolition shall include (i) removal and disposal of all building improvements and materials located thereon and (ii) certain excavation work to be completed at the Demolition Property, which excavation work shall include, without limitation, clearing and grubbing, soil erosion and control, and site excavation and embankment on the Demolition Property, all in accordance with plans and specifications reasonably acceptable to the Developer and all applicable laws, including, but not limited to Environmental Laws (“Demolition”). For the avoidance of doubt, if the City commences staging for the Demolition by the Demolition Commencement Date, the City will be deemed to have timely commenced Demolition. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Demolition shall also include (i) remediation or removal of Hazardous Materials (including, but not limited to, asbestos-containing materials, PCB-containing light fixtures, mercury-containing switches) related to the removal and disposal of materials from the Demolition Property to the extent required by or necessary to comply with applicable laws or as is customary for demolition projects of a similar scope and nature and (ii) the investigation, control or removal of any Hazardous Materials at, on or below the surface of the Property that is sufficient under and otherwise causes the Property to comply with applicable law for Developer to develop and use the Property consistent with the Development Proposal for its intended purposes as a multiuse hotel, residential condominium, office or retail development (“Sufficient Environmental Remediation”). Sufficient Environmental Remediation may, at the City’s election, include controls that do not unreasonably interfere with the Development Proposal; provided such are acceptable to the governmental authorities with jurisdiction over the Property. Developer agrees that, in conjunction with Developer, the City may have prepared and submitted to the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality a Baseline Environmental Assessment (Phase II) and associated Due Care Plans approved by and for the benefit of Developer, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned; however, the submission of such shall not alleviate the City’s obligation to undertake such other actions necessary to perform Sufficient Environmental Remediation to allow for the implementation of the Development Proposal. The Developer agrees that in conducting Sufficient Environmental Remediation, the City may rely on protective barriers to prevent contact with affected soil and deed restrictions to limit groundwater use and other due care requirements approved by the governmental authorities and reasonably acceptable to Developer. Sufficient Environmental Remediation shall not include the construction of measures adopted as controls to the extent that they are otherwise specifically part of the Development Proposal, in which case Developer shall construct them as part of the Development; however, if the costs to do so are increased as a result of government approved controls, the City shall reimburse Developer for the increased costs to satisfy any government imposed controls. Developer or any future owner will be responsible for maintaining any reasonable controls or due care measures adopted as part of the Sufficient Environmental Remediation. The Demolition Commencement Date is expected to occur on or before September 15, 2017. Demolition shall be completed within one (1) year following the Demolition Commencement Date. The State shall make available to the City and/or the City Parties certain CRP Incentives set forth below, of which up to $6,000,000 will be for the purpose of reimbursing the City for the costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Demolition (the “Demolition CRP Incentives”). For purposes of this Agreement, “CRP Incentives” shall mean incentives available from the Michigan Strategic Fund, in cooperation with the Michigan Economic Development Corporation (“MEDC”), through the Community Revitalization Program under Public Act 252 of 2011. If there are any remaining Demolition CRP Incentives following the Demolition and the Sufficient Environmental Remediation, such funds shall be made available to reimburse the Developer for other eligible costs for the Development, to the extent the Developer otherwise meets the eligibility requirements for CRP Incentives and enters into the Economic Incentive Agreements applicable to such CRP Incentives.

(c) Until the earlier of Closing or termination of the Developer's rights under this Agreement, the City shall fund or cause to be funded all costs and expenses for the repairs specified on page 15 "Opinion of Expected Construction Costs – July 2014" in the Physical Conditions Due Diligence Review and Evaluation dated September 2014 prepared by Desman Associates, except for Item #3 identified therein.

(d) The City represents to Developer that, as of the Closing Date, the City or an instrumentality of the City will have the right, power and authority to convey the Property in the manner provided for in this Agreement.

(I) Economic Incentive Covenants.

(a) In order to facilitate construction of the Development pursuant to the Approved Development Proposal on the Property, the State has agreed to reimburse the Developer for certain eligible project costs through TIF Incentives, as more particularly set forth herein. To the extent that the Approved Development Proposal meets the eligibility requirements for TIF Incentives, the Developer shall be provided up to $18,000,000 in TIF Incentives, which TIF Incentives will accrue interest at three percent (3%) per annum on any outstanding balance thereof, pursuant to one or more subsequent final written grants or loans (forgivable or otherwise), as applicable, and a development agreement or other economic assistance agreements, as applicable, which shall be entered into by the Developer and the State no later than one hundred twenty (120) following the City's approval of the Approved Development Proposal (which date may be extended by up to sixty (60) days in the event that the TIF Incentives require review by the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality) (the "Economic Incentive Agreements"). The Economic Incentive Agreements shall include (i) a schedule of performance- based project milestones for construction of the Development, and (ii) a pro-forma budget for the Development, as agreed upon by the City, the State and the Developer. The Economic Incentive Agreements will be executed in accordance with the standard process, including the filing of any necessary applications. The Economic Incentive Agreements shall govern disbursement of the TIF Incentives, including those project costs related to the Development that are eligible for TIF Incentives, as well as conditions precedent, milestones and timing for such disbursement, and shall include customary periodic reporting requirements of the Developer for data related to the Development both during and after construction. For purposes of this Agreement, "TIF Incentives" shall mean certain redevelopment incentives awarded by the Michigan Strategic Fund (MSF) under the Brownfield Tax Increment Financing Program (Act 381 of 1996), as administered by MEDC.

(b) To the extent the Development includes residential uses, the Economic Incentive Agreements shall also provide for designation of the Development as a Neighborhood Enterprise Zone ("NEZ"), and the City and each of the City Parties shall cooperate with and assist the Developer in applying for the NEZ certificate. The City and each of the City Parties shall establish either a Commercial Redevelopment Zone (as defined in the Commercial Redevelopment Act, defined below) or a Commercial Rehabilitation Zone (as defined in the Commercial Rehabilitation Act, defined below), as requested by the Developer, such that the Property will be eligible for the property tax abatements available for properties in the applicable zone. The City and each of the City Parties shall cooperate with and assist the Developer in applying for and obtaining the tax abatements for which the Property and any development thereon is eligible under the Commercial Rehabilitation Act or the Commercial Redevelopment Act. For purposes hereof, “Commercial Redevelopment Act” means the Public Act 255 of 1978, MCL § 207.651 et seq., and “Commercial Rehabilitation Act” means the Public Act 210 of 2005, MCL § 207.841 et seq.

(c) The City shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to assist the Developer in obtaining any additional sources of developer financings and grants not already expressly provided for in this Agreement that are identified in writing to the City by the Developer.

(J) Land Use Covenants.

(a) The City shall change the zoning requirement for the Property to be designated “B-5”, which will permit the Developer to develop the Property as a mixed-use development, provided that the City administratively approves the site plans, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. Approval by the City of the Development Proposal shall not be deemed approval with respect to any site plan, elevation, special land use, environmental, conditional use or other municipal approvals or permits, or variances therefrom, required for the Development (the “Required Approvals”); provided, however, upon approval by the City of the Development Proposal and prior to Closing, the Developer may proceed with securing the Required Approvals at its sole cost and expense.

(b) With respect to any formal requests made by Developer or its designee to the City or State for any Required Approvals, the City or State, as applicable: (a) agrees to process such requests promptly and to use commercially reasonable efforts to process them within thirty (30) days of submission by the Developer, (b) shall not unreasonably withhold, condition or delay approvals of the applicable requests, provided that the City or State have the legal authority to grant such approval and that such approval does not violate any applicable law, rule or regulation of general application, (c) shall not unreasonably impede or interfere with the Development, (d) shall not discriminate against Developer in the consideration or approval of such Required Approvals on account of the circumstances surrounding the Arrangement and this Agreement and the events leading up thereto, and (e) shall use reasonable efforts to facilitate such requests, taking into consideration other similar requests for approvals or inducements, as applicable, of third parties granted thereby for similarly situated developments and uses as those contemplated for the Development; provided, however, the City or State, as applicable, shall process such requests for all Required Approvals pursuant to all then applicable rules, regulations, statutes and similar requirements.

Section 6: REMEDIES

(A) City’s Remedies Prior to Conveyance. In the event that, prior to the Closing on the Property, Developer assigns or otherwise transfers this Agreement or any right therein or in the Property to any entity prohibited from doing business with the City, this Agreement and any rights of Developer in this Agreement, may, at the option of the City, be terminated by the City after thirty (30) days written notice and opportunity to cure provided by the City to Developer. In any case, the Developer shall provide written notice to the City of such assignment.

(B) City's Remedies Subsequent to Conveyance.

(1) Event of Default. If, prior to the Developer achieving substantial completion of the Development, the Developer breaches any covenant set forth in this Agreement and fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) days after written demand by the City, such an event shall be deemed to constitute an "Event of Default", provided, however, that if the nature of Developer's default is such that more than the cure period provided is reasonably required for its cure, then Developer shall not be deemed to be in default if Developer commences such cure within said period and thereafter diligently pursues such cure to completion within one hundred eighty (180) days of City's initial written demand hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Developer shall have the right to dispute that an Event of Default has occurred or that an Event of Default has not been timely cured by written notice of dispute sent to the City ("Notice of Dispute"). In the event a Notice of Dispute is sent, such Parties shall meet and in good faith work to resolve their differences. In the event the City and Developer cannot resolve their differences as to whether an Event of Default has occurred or has been cured, then the City shall not take any action with respect to such uncured and disputed Event of Default as described in Sections 6(B)(2) or 6(B)(3) below without first bringing an action in a court of competent jurisdiction for a final judicial determination that an Event of Default occurred and was uncured. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Developer shall not be entitled to give a Notice of Dispute and the City shall not be required to first meet in good faith with the Developer as provided for above, and may proceed directly to seek judicial relief in a court of competent jurisdiction to the extent such Event of Default arises from or relates to the imminent risk of harm to property or persons. The City may, in its sole discretion, waive in writing any default or Event of Default by Developer.

(2) City's Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default by the Developer, then after a judicial determination as required by Section 6(B)(1) above, the City shall have the right (as its sole remedy except as set forth in Section 6(B)(3) below with respect to the failure of the Developer to achieve Commencement of Construction prior to the Commencement Deadline as the same may be extended as provided herein), to seek injunctive relief, specific performance or other equitable remedies (other than the forfeiture of Developer's title to or interest in the Property) for the Developer's breach of this Agreement,. In no event shall the City be entitled to monetary damages as a result of the Developer's breach of this Agreement.

(3) Right of Reverter. It is expressly understood and agreed between the Parties hereto that until Commencement of Construction, the conveyance of such Property to Developer shall be construed and interpreted as the conveyance of a fee simple determinable, and that in the event of an uncured and undisputed Event of Default caused solely by the failure of the Developer to achieve Commencement of Construction prior to the Commencement Deadline as the same may be extended as provided herein, then after a judicial determination as required by Section 6(B)(1) above, title to the Property shall automatically revert in the City. Upon such reversion of title, the City shall have the right to re-enter and take immediate possession of the Property. While the right of reversion as to the Property automatically terminates upon Commencement of Construction, the City agrees to provide Developer with a written acknowledgement, in recordable form, that Commencement of Construction has occurred and the City's right of reversion has terminated hereunder and to take such further action as may reasonably be requested by the Developer, at no incremental cost to the City, to extinguish the right of reversion of record.

(C) Rights and Remedies Cumulative. The rights and remedies of the City and the Developer, whether provided by law or by this Agreement, shall be cumulative, and the exercise by the City or the Developer of any one or more remedies shall not preclude the exercise by it, at the same or different times, of any other remedy for the same default or breach or any other default or breach by the Developer or the City. No waiver made by any Party shall apply to obligations beyond those expressly waived in writing.

(D) Developer's Remedies. If the City breaches its obligations under this Agreement after reasonable notice and opportunity to cure, Developer shall have the right to seek injunctive relief, specific performance or other equitable remedies for the City's breach of this Agreement. In no event shall the Developer be entitled to monetary damages as a result of the City's breach of this Agreement.

(E) Representatives Not Individually Liable. No official or employee of the City shall be personally liable to Developer or any successor in interest, in the event of any default or breach by the City or for any amount which may become due to Developer or successor or on any obligations under the terms of this Agreement. No director, officer or employee of the Developer or any successor in interest shall be personally liable to the City, in the event of any default or breach by the Developer or any successor in interest for any amount which may become due to the City or on any obligations under the terms of this Agreement.

Section 7: PROVISIONS NOT MERGED WITH DEEDS

Party shall be brought in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Michigan (the "Bankruptcy Court") for so long as it has jurisdiction, and thereafter in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan (the "District Court"); provided, that if the District Court does not have jurisdiction, then such legal action, suit or proceeding shall be brought in such other court of competent jurisdiction located in Wayne County, Michigan; provided, further, by execution and delivery of this Agreement, each of the Parties irrevocably accepts and submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such court, generally and unconditionally, with respect to any such action, suit or proceeding and specifically consents to the jurisdiction and authority of the Bankruptcy Court to hear and determine all such actions, suits, and proceedings under 28 U.S.C. §157(b) or (c), whichever applies.

Section 13: TRANSFERABILITY.

(A) Developer shall be entitled to freely transfer or assign its rights and obligations hereunder at any time, as long as it provides the City written notice thereof and it does not transfer its rights hereunder to a party that is prohibited from doing business with the City, and upon such assignment and an assumption of the obligations and liabilities of the Developer by any such transferee, the Developer shall be automatically released from any of its obligations or liabilities hereunder.

The Distribution Agreement shall provide that, unless the Distribution Agent receives, no later than noon on a principal or interest payment date for the Prior LTGO Bonds, written notice from Cede & Co., as the registered owner of the outstanding Insured Prior LTGO Bonds, or any subsequent registered owner (the “Registered Owner”) that Ambac has failed to timely pay a properly submitted claim for principal and/or interest which was due and payable on the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds on that date, the Distribution Agent shall remit each payment of principal and/or interest received by it from the paying agent for the New LTGO Bonds or the paying agent for the New B Notes to Ambac. In the event that the Distribution Agent receives, no later than noon on a principal or interest payment date for the Prior LTGO Bonds, written notice from the Registered Owner that Ambac has failed to timely pay a properly submitted claim for principal and/or interest which was due and payable on that date, the Distribution Agent shall remit the payment of principal and/or interest received by it from the paying agent for the New LTGO Bonds or the paying agent for the New B Notes to the paying agent for the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds for payment to the Holders of the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds, and shall provide notice thereof to Ambac, the paying agent for the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds and the Holders of the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds. The Distribution Agreement will provide that, once Ambac has paid the Holders of Insured Prior LTGO Bonds in full, the Distribution Agent will assign its beneficial ownership interest in the New LTGO Bonds and Reserve B Bonds to Ambac.

Section 2.2 Issuance of New LTGO Bonds, Delivery of New LTGO Bonds, and Delivery of Reserve B Notes.

(a) (i) On or before the Effective Date, by execution of the Emergency Manager Order the City will authorize the issuance and delivery of its Financial Recovery Bonds (Limited Tax General Obligation) under Section 36a of the Home Rule Act (“New LTGO Bonds”) in accordance with applicable law, which New LTGO Bonds shall be distributed Pro Rata to the LTGO Claim Holders pursuant to the Plan. The New LTGO Bonds will have the principal amount, interest rate, amortization schedule and other financial terms as set forth in Schedule 1 (the “Financial Terms”) and the Emergency Manager Order. The New LTGO Bonds will be limited tax general obligations of the City issued in accordance with applicable law. The New LTGO Bonds shall be taxable. The New LTGO Bonds will be callable prior to maturity at the option of the City on any date at a price of par plus accrued interest to the date of redemption and without premium or penalty. If the City intends to redeem the New LTGO Bonds during any time that the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds are outstanding as set forth in Section 2.1(b)(ii) then:

(v) at least 35 days prior to such intended redemption, the City will direct the paying agent for the New LTGO Bonds to send a redemption notice to the New LTGO Bondholders;

(w) at least 34 days prior to the redemption date the Distribution Agent will direct the paying agent for the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds to send a redemption notice to Insured Prior LTGO Bondholders providing for a pro rata redemption of Insured Prior LTGO Bonds in an aggregate principal amount equal to the proportion that the principal amount of the New LTGO Bonds then outstanding of which the Distribution Agent is the beneficial owner bears to the total principal amount of New LTGO Bonds then outstanding, in accordance with the procedures for redemption in the Prior LTGO Bonds documents;

(x) no later than noon, Eastern Time, on the business day prior to the redemption date the City will pay the redemption price of the New LTGO Bonds to the paying agent for the New LTGO Bonds, and upon receipt of the redemption price of the portion of the New LTGO Bonds of which it is the beneficial owner, but no later than 10:00 a.m. Eastern Time, on the redemption date, the Distribution Agent shall promptly transfer the redemption price for the portion of the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds to be redeemed to the paying agent for the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds to effectuate the redemption of the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds on the same day;

(y) if Ambac issues endorsements to its Bond Insurance Policies decreasing such Policies by the redemption principal amount, the holders of Insured Prior LTGO Bonds will be deemed to consent to such endorsements and such Bond Insurance Policies will be so reduced; and

(z) the City understands that the paying agent for the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds will apply the amount received to reduce the principal amount, pro rata, of the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds which then remain outstanding as provided in Section 2.1(b) above and such reduction in principal shall be deemed a redemption, in part, of such the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds.

(ii) Any redemption of the New LTGO Bonds will be in whole and not in part.

(iii) In the event the City decides not to issue the New LTGO Bonds by the Effective Date but instead to pay cash to the LTGO Claim Holders, the Holders of Insured Prior LTGO Bonds which then remain outstanding as provided in Section 2.1(b) above will receive pro rata, cash equal to the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds' Pro Rata shares of such cash. The City understands that the paying agent for the Insured Prior LTGO

Bonds will apply such cash, pro rata, to reduce the principal of Insured Prior LTGO Bonds which then remain outstanding as provided in Section 2.1(b) and such reduction in principal shall be deemed a redemption, in part, of such Insured Prior LTGO Bonds.

(iv) All Settlement-Related Documents will be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the LTGO Parties (and in the case of the Plan Documents, solely as they relate to this Agreement).

(v) Each of the New LTGO Bonds will be freely transferable through the DTC System under a unique CUSIP identification number or, if the DTC System is discontinued with respect to the New LTGO Bonds, in such other manner as is permitted in accordance with their terms.

(vi) The City will not optionally redeem Insured Prior LTGO Bonds except as set forth in this Agreement.

(b) In addition to issuing and delivering the New LTGO Notes to the LTGO Claims Holders, the City shall also deliver and distribute to the LTGO Claim Holders the Pro Rata share of the Reserve B Notes in accordance with Section 2.2(e) of this Agreement. The Plan will provide in the event the City intends to redeem all or a portion of principal amount of New B Notes during any time that the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds are outstanding pursuant to Section 2.1(b)(ii) then:

(i) at least 35 days prior to the redemption date, the Distribution Agent will direct the paying agent for the Reserve B Notes to send a redemption notice to the New B Note Holders

(ii) at least 34 days prior to the redemption date, the Distribution Agent will direct the paying agent for the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds to send a redemption notice to Insured Prior LTGO Bondholders providing for a pro rata redemption of Insured Prior LTGO Bonds in an aggregate principal amount equal to the proportion that the principal amount of the New B Notes held by the Distribution Agent which are to be redeemed bears to the total principal amount of Insured Prior LTGO Bonds then outstanding pursuant to Section 2.1(b)(ii), in accordance with the procedures for redemption in the Prior LTGO Bonds documents;

(iii) no later than noon, Eastern Time, on the business day prior to the redemption date the City will pay the redemption price of the New B Notes to the paying agent for the New B Notes, and upon receipt of the redemption price of the portion of the New B Notes of which it is the beneficial owner, but no later than 10:00 a.m. Eastern Time, on the redemption date the Distribution Agent shall promptly transfer the redemption price for the portion of the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds to be redeemed to the paying agent for the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds to effectuate the redemption of the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds on the same day;

(iv) if Ambac issues endorsements to its bond Insurance Policies decreasing such Policies by the redemption principal amount, the holders of Insured Prior LTGO Bonds will be deemed to consent to such endorsements and such

Bond Insurance Policies will be so reduced; and

(v) the City understands that the paying agent for the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds will apply the amount received to reduce the principal amount, pro rata, of the Insured Prior LTGO Bonds which then remain outstanding as provided in Section 2.1(b) and such reduction in principal shall be deemed a redemption in part, of such Insured Prior LTGO Bonds.

(c) The Plan will provide that, from and after the Effective Date:

(i) The City will remain a named plaintiff and defendant in the COP Litigation but will transfer all of its rights and interests in the COP Litigation to a Litigation Trust whose beneficiaries, for the purpose of the COP Litigation, shall be the Litigation Parties and the Holders of Allowed Class 14 Claims. The Litigation Trustee will be selected by the LTGO Representative and the Retiree Committee and must be acceptable to the City. The document creating the Litigation Trust shall include indemnification of the Litigation Trustee by the City and will contain such other terms satisfactory to the Retiree Committee, the LTGO Representative and the City.

(ii) The Litigation Trustee will follow the day to day direction of the VEBA Trust Representatives in prosecuting and defending the COP Litigation, including defending any counterclaims and third-party claims therein. The Litigation Trustee and VEBA Trust Representatives will meet, in person or by phone at reasonable times and with reasonable advance notice, with all or any of the LTGO Representative, the VEBA Trust Representatives and the City (the "Litigation Parties") as requested to discuss the status, progress and prosecution of the COP Litigation. The Litigation Trustee will provide copies of all court filings by any party in the COP Litigation and such other documents relating to the COP Litigation as may be reasonably requested by the Litigation Parties. Upon request from a Litigation Party, the Litigation Trustee will provide to such Litigation Party drafts of court papers that will be filed by the Litigation Trustee as early as practicable under the circumstances to allow for comments, which may be accepted or rejected.

(iii) The cost of all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the COP Litigation will be borne by the Disputed COP Claims Reserve, subject to the funding of the Disputed COP Claims Reserve pursuant to Section II.B.3.p.iii of the Plan. The City will advance payment of all such fees and expenses within 30 days of receipt of the statements for the same pending reimbursement from the Disputed COP Claims Reserve. Reimbursement of the City will be effected by an offset in the amount of fees and expenses paid to the date of such reimbursement against the amount to be paid by the City to the Disputed COP Claims Reserve on that date. In the event that the COP Litigation is unsuccessful and a final, nonappealable judgment is entered against the City or the Litigation Trust as successor in interest to the City, such that the notes in the Disputed COP Claims Reserve are subject to release and distribution in full to the holders of Allowed Class 9 Claims in accordance with the Plan, the City will reimburse the Disputed COP Claims Reserve for any amounts withdrawn prior to the date of such adverse judgment.

(iv) The Litigation Trustee will submit invoices for the fees and expenses incurred in connection with the COP Litigation, including for the Litigation Trustee's professional fees to the City on a monthly basis, and the City will pay such invoice within 30 days after receipt, subject to reimbursement as provided in paragraph (c)(iii) above. The Litigation Trustee fees will be fixed and consented to by the LTGO Representative and the VEBA Trustee Representatives.

(v) The Litigation Trustee will consult with the Litigation Parties in connection with any potential settlement of the COP Litigation. The Litigation Trustee will provide the Litigation Parties advance notice as early as practicable under the circumstances of any settlement negotiations, and the Litigation Parties and their counsel will have the right to participate in such negotiations. Any potential settlement must resolve the settled claims in their entirety, including the release by the settling party of all counterclaims and third party claims relating to the settled claims that it made or could have made against anyone. The Litigation Trustee will not take action on the matters set forth below unless all of the Litigation Parties agree with the decision relating to (B), (C) and (D) below, and the LTGO Representative agrees with the settlement described in (A) below:

(A) Any settlement that releases from the Disputed COP Claims Reserve to any of the COP Holders a pro rata share of the B Notes (or equivalent currency) based on 40% or more of the face amount of their claim.

(B) Any change of COP Litigation counsel.

(C) Any decision not to appeal an adverse decision on any claim or defense related to the COP Litigation.

(D) Any decision to voluntarily dismiss a substantive claim or counterclaim or to end the COP Litigation

To the extent the Litigation Parties are unable to reach agreement on the above matters, the Litigation Trustee or any Litigation Party may refer the matter to the Independent Party for mediation. Subject to such mediation, the Litigation Trustee shall have the authority to take whatever action may be required to avoid potentially adverse or prejudicial consequences of inaction. If a consensual resolution cannot be reached, the Independent Party will decide a substantive resolution of the issue or issues based upon the Independent Party's assessment of the merits of the legal claims, counterclaims and legal liabilities in the COP Litigation, which decision will be binding on the Litigation Parties and Litigation Trustee.

The City, the COP Litigation counsel, the VEBA Trust Representatives and the LTGO Representative will take any steps that may be required to preserve applicable privileges of the City and the COP Litigation counsel.

(d) In the event any Holder of a Disputed COP Claim enters into a settlement of such claim with the City prior to the Effective Date, including pursuant to the Plan, the portion of the New B Notes allocable to such Disputed COP Claim if such Disputed COP Claim had been allowed in full that is not used to satisfy the Disputed COP Claim pursuant to the terms of such settlement shall be deposited into the Disputed COP Claims Reserve and then distributed from the Disputed COP Claims Reserve pursuant to Section 2.2(e).

(e) Following the occurrence of the Effective Date, upon a settlement, or the entry of an order by the trial court having jurisdiction over the objections to the Disputed COP Claims, resolving any objection to any disputed COP Claim (“Resolved COP Claims”) and after all distributions on account of Allowed Claims respecting such Resolved COP Claim have been made or provided for, any and all New B Notes and distributions thereon remaining in the Disputed COP Claims Reserve with respect to such Resolved COP Claim shall be distributed as follows, and valued at face value for the purposes of the distribution: (I) an amount of New B Notes and/or distributions thereon in an amount equal to the costs, fees and expenses related to the COP Litigation incurred from and after the Effective Date shall be distributed to the City to reimburse it for attorneys’ fees relating to the COP Litigation, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.2(c)(iii) above; (II) following such distribution, the balance of the New B Notes and any distributions thereon remaining in the Disputed COP Claims Reserve allocated to or with respect to such Resolved COP Claim shall be distributed as follows: (i) 65% to the Detroit General VEBA and the Detroit Police and Fire VEBA in proportion with the New B Notes allocated to each pursuant to Sections II.B.3.s.ii.A and II.B.3.s.ii.B of the Plan; and (ii) 20% to the LTGO Claim Holders (the “Reserve B Notes”) to be allocated Pro Rata; and (iii) 15% is to be allocated as determined by the City.

Section 2.3 Confirmation Order and Findings. The Plan Confirmation Order shall (i) approve the terms and conditions of this Agreement, (ii) direct that each month monies for the payment of one-sixth of the next semi-annual debt service payable on the New LTGO Bonds must be segregated and deposited into a debt service fund and not be used for any purpose other than paying debt service on the New LTGO Bonds so long as any New LTGO Bonds remain outstanding, (iii) provide that Plan treatment of the Prior LTGO Bonds is part of a settlement of the Ambac Action as it relates to the Prior LTGO Bonds, (iv) provide that the Bankruptcy Court will have exclusive post-confirmation authority and power to enforce this Agreement and all Settlement-Related Documents and (v) be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the LTGO Parties.

Section 2.4 Conditions to Plan Effectiveness. The Plan shall provide that the effectiveness of the Plan is subject to the City having obtained all governmental and Emergency Manager consents and approvals required to carry out the terms of this Agreement.

Section 2.5 Stay of Litigation, Proofs of Claim.

(a) The Ambac Action, as it pertains to the Prior LTGO Bonds, shall be stayed pending the issuance of an Approval Order or Plan Confirmation Order and the occurrence of the Effective Date, whereupon Ambac and the City shall ask the Bankruptcy Court to dismiss the Ambac Action as it pertains to the Prior LTGO Bonds without prejudice until the Approval Order or the Plan Confirmation Order, as applicable, is a Final Order, when such dismissal shall be deemed to be with prejudice. If the Ambac Action is dismissed without prejudice and subsequently refiled pursuant to this Agreement, then the statute of limitations for the causes of action asserted in the Ambac Action, and all other defenses based on the passage of time, shall be tolled for 60 days after the date of the event that would permit a refile.

(b) As soon as practicable subsequent to the execution and delivery of this Agreement by each of the Parties, but in no event later than five (5) business days subsequent thereto, Ambac and the City shall take any and all action as is appropriate to (i) stay the Ambac Action as provided in subsection (a) above, (ii) maintain the status quo in the Ambac Action as it pertains to the Prior LTGO Bonds as of the execution of this Agreement, and (iii) ensure that no action (including separate litigation and any objection to proofs of claim filed by the LTGO Parties relating to the Prior LTGO Bonds) is undertaken or commenced inconsistent with seeking a stay of and maintaining the status quo of the Ambac Action as it pertains to the Prior LTGO Bonds; provided, however, that any such stay shall terminate on the first (1st) business day following termination of this Agreement.

(c) In the event (i) an Approval Motion is made by the City and denied by the Bankruptcy Court, (ii) an Approval Order is issued but is not consistent with this Agreement in any material respect or is overturned on appeal, (iii) a Plan consistent with this Agreement in all material respects is not confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court, or (iv) a Plan Confirmation Order is entered by the Bankruptcy Court but is not consistent in all material respects with this Agreement, or is overturned on appeal, then Ambac may resume the Ambac Action and terminate this Agreement by written notice to the other Parties.

(d) The LTGO Parties agree that all proofs of claims filed by any of them with respect to Prior LTGO Bonds shall be deemed resolved and fully satisfied by approval of this Agreement in the Confirmation Order or an Approval Order, as applicable, which is a Final Order.

Section 2.6 Additional Covenants

(a) Paying Agent and Distribution Agent. The City shall pay the reasonable and customary fees and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) of (i) the paying agent with respect to the Prior LTGO Bonds, (ii) the paying agent in respect of all transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (iii) the Distribution Agent pursuant to the Distribution Agreement.

(b) Further Action. To the extent that the City has not taken all necessary action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement, it will do so.

ARTICLE III PLAN OF ADJUSTMENT AND PLAN SUPPORT

Section 3.1 Plan Commitment Regarding Voting and Abstention From Objection. From and after the date hereof, and so long as the City has complied, and is complying, with its covenants and obligations under this Agreement, each LTGO Party shall withdraw its objections to the Plan regarding the treatment of the Prior LTGO Bonds no later than August 1, 2014. The Plan shall provide that such treatment, consistent with this Agreement, is the treatment for all LTGO Claim Holders. The Uninsured Bondholder will vote its Prior LTGO Bonds and Ambac will vote its Prior LTGO Bonds and reimbursement claims in support of such Plan treatment promptly following the execution of this Agreement or as otherwise agreed by the City. Upon the finalization of the terms of this Agreement, the Parties will file a stipulation and proposed order with the Bankruptcy Court that will permit each LTGO Party to modify its previous vote(s) and submit a vote in support of the Plan, pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3018. For the absence of doubt, nothing contained in this Agreement shall require any LTGO Party to vote for the treatment of any class of claims under the Plan other than the LTGO Bonds, or refrain from objecting to the Plan with respect to issues other than the treatment of the LTGO Bonds.

Section 3.2 Solicitation Required in Connection with Plan. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article III or elsewhere in this Agreement to the contrary, this Agreement is not, and shall not be deemed to be, a solicitation of acceptances of the Plan.

Section 3.3 Plan Document Provisions. All Plan Documents, as they relate to the settlement embodied in this Agreement must (i) be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the LTGO Parties and to the City and be consistent with this Agreement, (ii) provide that the Plan treatment for Prior LTGO Bonds is part of a settlement of the pending Ambac Action as it pertains to the Prior LTGO Bonds.

ARTICLE IV DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

Section 4.1 Events of Default. The breach by any Party of any material agreement or covenant set forth in this Agreement will be an event of default (“Event of Default”) under this Agreement.

Section 4.2 Remedies. The Parties acknowledge and agree that a breach of the provisions of this Agreement by any Party would cause irreparable damage to the other Parties and that such other Parties would not have an adequate remedy at law for such damage. Therefore, the obligations of the Parties set forth in this Agreement shall be enforceable by an order compelling specific performance issued by the Bankruptcy Court, and appropriate injunctive relief may be applied for and granted in connection therewith. Such remedies shall be cumulative and not exclusive and shall be in addition to any other remedies that the Parties may have under this Agreement or otherwise. Any LTGO Party may exercise its rights hereunder on its own. Consistent with Section 904 of the Bankruptcy Code, the City hereby consents to the Bankruptcy Court enforcing the terms of this Agreement.

Section 4.3 Termination.

(a) This Agreement may be terminated by the mutual agreement of all of the LTGO Parties upon an Event of Default caused by the City. This Agreement may be terminated by less than all of the LTGO Parties as to such LTGO Party or LTGO Parties upon an Event of Default caused by the City if (i) an action or proceeding seeking to enforce the material agreement or covenant purported to be breached is brought by one or more LTGO Parties before the Bankruptcy Court, (ii) the Bankruptcy Court, after notice and a hearing, finds that an Event of Default caused by the City has occurred and (iii) either (A) the Bankruptcy Court declines to issue an order compelling specific performance by the City of the applicable agreement or covenant purported to be breached or (B) the Bankruptcy Court issues such an order compelling specific performance but the City fails to comply with the order.

(b) This Agreement may be terminated by the City if (i) any of the LTGO Parties fails to withdraw its objections to the Plan regarding the treatment of the Prior LTGO Bonds on or before August 1, 2014, or (ii) any of the LTGO Parties fails to submit a ballot to vote its Class 7 Claims to accept the Plan promptly following the execution of this Agreement or as otherwise agreed by the City. This Agreement may be terminated by the City upon an Event of Default caused by the LTGO Parties, or any of them, if (i) an action or proceeding seeking to enforce the material agreement or covenant purported to be breached is brought by the City before the Bankruptcy Court, (ii) the Bankruptcy Court finds, after notice and a hearing, that an Event of Default caused by the applicable LTGO Party has occurred and (iii) either (A) the Bankruptcy Court declines to issue an order compelling specific performance by the applicable LTGO Party of this Agreement or the applicable covenant purported to be breached or (B) the Bankruptcy Court issues such an order compelling specific performance but the applicable LTGO Party fails to comply with the order.

(c) Upon any such termination, Ambac may resume the Ambac Action unless it has been previously dismissed with prejudice or has been previously deemed dismissed with prejudice.

ARTICLE V
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Section 5.1 Representations and Warranties of the City. The City represents and warrants to the LTGO Parties that:

(a) It is a municipal corporation of the State of Michigan.

(b) It has the power to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder and it has taken or will take all necessary action to authorize such execution, delivery and performance.

(c) Such execution, delivery and performance do not violate or conflict with any law applicable to it, any order or judgment of any court or other agency of government applicable to it, or any material agreements specifically applicable to it or any of its assets.

(d) Other than (i) approvals of the State Treasurer, the Emergency Loan Board and the City Council to be obtained prior to delivery of the New LTGO Bonds, which the City reasonably expects to be obtained prior to the Effective Date, and (ii) the approval of the Bankruptcy Court, all governmental and Emergency Manager consents and approvals that are required to have been obtained by it as of the date of execution of this Agreement with respect to the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement have been obtained and are in full force and effect and all conditions of any such consents and approvals have been complied with.

Section 5.2 Representations and Warranties of the LTGO Parties. Each of the LTGO Parties represents to the City that:

(a) It is duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization or incorporation.

(b) It has the power to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations under this Agreement and it has taken all necessary corporate action to authorize such execution, delivery and performance.

(c) Such execution, delivery and performance do not violate or conflict with any law applicable to it, any provision of its constitutional documents, any order or judgment of any court or other agency of government applicable to it, or any agreements specifically applicable to it or any of its assets.

(d) All corporate or governmental consents and approvals that are required to have been obtained by it with respect to this Agreement have been obtained and are in full force and effect and all conditions of any such consents and approvals have been complied with.

Section 5.3 Representations and Warranties of Ambac. Ambac had and has standing to bring and resolve the Ambac Action as it pertains to the Prior LTGO Bonds that it insures.

Section 5.4 Mutual Representations and Warranties. Unless otherwise noted, each Party makes the following representations, warranties and covenants (on a several basis, with respect to such Party only) to each of the other Parties:

(a) Each person signing this Agreement warrants that he or she is legally competent and authorized to execute this Agreement on behalf of the Party whose name is subscribed at or above such person's signature.

(b) The Parties have not made any statement or representation to each other regarding any facts relied upon by them in entering into this Agreement, and each of them specifically does not rely upon any statement, representation or promise of the other Parties hereto or any other person in entering into this Agreement, except as expressly stated herein or in the exhibits hereto. Each party has relied upon its own investigation and analysis of the facts and not on any statement or representation made by any other party in choosing to enter into this Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein.

(c) The Parties and their respective attorneys have made such investigation of the facts pertaining to this Agreement and all of the matters pertaining thereto as they deem necessary.

ARTICLE VI EXCULPATION

Section 6.1 Exculpation. The Plan will include the LTGO Exculpated Parties as exculpated parties for acts and omissions (other than those constituting gross negligence or willful misconduct) in connection with the Plan as it relates to this Agreement and this Agreement.

Section 6.2 Releases. Upon the dismissal with prejudice or deemed dismissal with prejudice of the Ambac Action as it pertains to the Prior LTGO Bonds, Ambac and the City shall be deemed to have released each other, and each of their respective officials, officers, directors, employees and representatives, of and from any and all claims and causes of action related to the Prior LTGO Bonds and the Ambac Action.

ARTICLE VII DISMISSAL OF CASE AND TERMINATION

Section 7.1 Effect of Dismissal of the Bankruptcy Case. In the event the Bankruptcy Case is dismissed, any Party may at any time within 60 days after such dismissal immediately terminate this Agreement by written notice to the other Parties.

Section 7.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement by any Party pursuant to any provisions of this Agreement, this Agreement shall become null and void and be deemed of no force and effect, with no liability on the part of any Party hereto (or of any of its elected or appointed officials, directors, officers, employees, consultants, contractors, agents, legal and financial advisors or other representatives) arising from such termination, and no Party shall have any obligations to any other Party arising out of this Agreement. Upon termination, neither this Agreement nor any terms or provisions set forth herein shall be admissible in any dispute, litigation, proceeding or controversy among the Parties and nothing contained herein shall constitute or be deemed to be an admission by any Party as to any matter, it being understood that the statements and resolutions reached herein were as a result of negotiations and compromises of the respective positions of the Parties. If the Ambac Action is reinstated, and this Agreement is terminated, then no Party hereto may (i) use this Agreement, any of its terms or any discussions or negotiations conducted in respect of this Agreement, or any part of the foregoing, in the Ambac Action; (ii) seek discovery with respect to any of the matters described in subsection (i) in the Ambac Action; or (iii) seek to admit any of the matters described in subsection (i) into evidence in the Ambac Action.

ARTICLE VIII MISCELLANEOUS

Section 8.1 Amendments. This Agreement may not be modified, amended or supplemented except by a written agreement executed by each Party to be affected by such modification, amendment or supplement.

Section 8.2 No Admission of Liability.

(a) The execution of this Agreement is not intended to be, nor shall it be construed as, an admission or evidence in any pending or subsequent suit, action, proceeding or dispute of any liability, wrongdoing, or obligation whatsoever (including as to the merits of any claim or defense) by any Party to any other Party or any other person with respect to any of the matters addressed in this Agreement.

(b) None of this Agreement (including, without limitation, the recitals and exhibits hereto), the settlement or any act performed or document executed pursuant to or in furtherance of this Agreement or the settlement: (i) is or may be deemed to be or may be used as an admission or evidence of the validity of any claim or of any wrongdoing or liability of any Party; or (ii) is or may be deemed to be or may be used as an admission or evidence of any liability, fault or omission of any Party in any civil, criminal or administrative proceeding in any court, administrative agency or other tribunal. None of this Agreement, the settlement, or any act performed or document executed pursuant to or in furtherance of this Agreement or the settlement shall be admissible in any proceeding for any purposes, except to enforce the terms of the Agreement, and except that any Party may file this Agreement in any action for any purpose, including, but not limited to, in order to support a defense or counterclaim based on the principles of res judicata, collateral estoppel, release, good faith settlement, judgment bar or reduction or any other theory of claim preclusion or issue preclusion or similar defense of counterclaim.

Section 8.3 Good Faith Negotiations. The Parties recognize and acknowledge that each of the Parties hereto is represented by counsel, and such Party received independent legal advice with respect to the advisability of entering into this Agreement. Each of the Parties acknowledges that the negotiations leading up to this Agreement were conducted regularly and at arm's length; this Agreement is made and executed by and of each Party's own free will; that each knows all of the relevant facts and his or its rights in connection therewith, and that it has not been improperly influenced or induced to make this settlement as a result of any act or action on the part of any party or employee, agent, attorney or representative of any party to this Agreement. The Parties further acknowledge that they entered into this Agreement because of their desire to avoid the further expense and inconvenience of litigation and other disputes, and to compromise permanently and settle the claims between the Parties settled by the execution of this Agreement.

Section 8.4 Rights and Remedies. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to augment, impair any rights, remedies and interests, including without limitation, liens, of any of the Parties hereto other than with respect to the Prior LTGO Bonds.

Section 8.5 Third Party Beneficiaries. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon, or to give to, any Person other than the Parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns, any right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement or any covenant, condition or stipulation thereof; and the covenants, stipulations and agreements contained in this Agreement are and shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 8.6 Governing Law; Retention of Jurisdiction; Service of Process. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Michigan, without giving effect to any principles of conflicts of law and applicable federal law. By its execution and delivery of this Agreement, each of the Parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees for itself that any legal action, suit or proceeding between any or all of the foregoing with respect to any matter under or arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment rendered in any such action, suit or proceeding, shall be brought in the Bankruptcy Court for that purpose only, and, by execution and delivery of this Agreement, each hereby irrevocably accepts and submits itself to the jurisdiction of such court, generally and unconditionally, with respect to any such action, suit or proceeding. In the event any such action, suit or proceeding is commenced, the Parties hereby agree and consent that service of process may be made, and personal jurisdiction over any Party hereto in any such action, suit or proceeding may be obtained, by service of a copy of the summons, complaint and other pleadings required to commence such action, suit or proceeding upon the Party at the address of such Party set forth in Section 8.11 hereof, unless another address has been designated by such Party in a notice given to the other Parties in accordance with Section 8.11 hereof. The City agrees that the Bankruptcy Court will have exclusive post-confirmation authority and power to enforce this Agreement and all Settlement-Related Documents and to hear and adjudicate any challenge, action, suit or proceeding brought by any third party challenging the validity or enforceability of any provision of this Agreement, until all New LTGO Bonds have been paid in full and all Plan Instruments are no longer outstanding. Pursuant to Section 904 of the Bankruptcy Code, the City hereby consents to the Bankruptcy Court enforcing the terms of this Agreement.

Section 8.7 Headings. The headings of the Articles and Sections of this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and are not part of this Agreement and do not in any way limit or modify the terms or provisions of this Agreement and shall not affect the interpretation hereof.

Section 8.8 Binding Agreement Successors and Assigns; Joint and Several Obligations. This Agreement shall be binding upon the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Parties listed on the signature pages hereto. This Agreement is intended to bind and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors, assigns, administrators, constituents and representatives. The agreements, representations, covenants and obligations of the Parties under this Agreement are several only and not joint in any respect and none shall be responsible for the performance or breach of this Agreement by another.

Section 8.9 Entire Agreement. This Agreement shall constitute the full and entire agreement among the Parties with regard to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior negotiations, representations, promises or warranties (oral or otherwise) made by any Party with respect to the subject matter hereof. ### DETERMINATIONS

Section 201. Finding, and Declaration of Need to Issue Bonds. The Emergency Manager hereby finds and declares that it is necessary for the City to issue the Bonds hereunder in such sum as shall be determined and approved by the Emergency Manager, not in excess of $55,000,000 as of the Date of Original Issue (the “Maximum Aggregate Principal Amount”), and to evidence such debt by the issuance of the Bonds in one or more series not in excess of the Maximum Aggregate Principal Amount, in Authorized Denominations, pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions of Section 36a of Act 279, for the purpose of satisfying a portion of the LTGO Claims. The Maximum Aggregate Principal Amount shall not include the accretion of principal at the Accretion Rate as provided in this Order.

ARTICLE III

AUTHORIZATION, REDEMPTION AND ASSIGNMENT OF THE BONDS

Section 301. Authorization of Bonds to Satisfy the Claims and Pledge. The City hereby authorizes the issuance of the Bonds as hereinafter defined in such principal amount as shall be confirmed in the Supplemental Order to satisfy the LTGO Claims. The principal of and interest on the Bonds shall hereby be secured by the limited tax full faith and credit pledge of the City. The City pledges to pay the principal of and interest on the Bonds as a first budget obligation from its general funds and in case of insufficiency thereof, from the proceeds of an annual levy of ad valorem taxes on all taxable property of the City, subject to applicable constitutional, statutory and charter tax rate limitations.

Section 302. Designations, Date, Interest, Maturity and Other Terms of the Bonds to Satisfy the Claims. (a) The Bonds shall be designated “FINANCIAL RECOVERY BONDS (LIMITED TAX GENERAL OBLIGATION), SERIES 2014” and may bear such later or earlier dates and additional or alternative designations, series or subseries as the Authorized Officer may determine in the Supplemental Order, shall be issued in fully registered form and shall be consecutively numbered from “R-1” upwards, unless otherwise provided by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order. The Bonds shall be dated and issued in such denominations all as determined by the Authorized Officer and confirmed by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order.

(b) The Bonds of each series shall mature on the April 1, 2037 or such other April 1 which is not in excess of 23 years from the Date of Original Issue and shall accrete in principal amount, bear interest at the Interest Rate on a taxable or tax exempt basis, payable on the Interest

Payment Dates, all as shall be determined and confirmed by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order. The Bonds shall be subject to mandatory sinking fund redemption on April 1 in the years and in the Accretion Values set forth in the form of Bond provided in Section 307 hereof. Unless otherwise provided by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order, interest on the Bonds shall be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in a 360 day year. The Bonds shall be payable, as to principal and interest, in lawful money of the United States of America.

(c) The Bonds shall also accrete in principal amount at the Accretion Rate starting from the Date of Original Issue and compounded semiannually on each Accretion Date until the Conversion Date. Thereafter, the Bonds at their Accretion Value shall bear interest at the Interest Rate on a taxable or tax exempt basis, payable on a current basis on the Interest Payment Dates, all as shall be determined and confirmed by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order.

(d) Except as may be otherwise determined by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order, interest on the Bonds shall be payable to the Registered Owner as of the 15th day of the month, whether or not a Business Day (a "Regular Record Date"), prior to each Interest Payment Date. Interest on the Bonds shall be payable to such Registered Owners by check or draft drawn on the Paying Agent on each Interest Payment Date and mailed by first class mail or, upon the written request of the Owner of $1,000,000 or more in aggregate principal amount of Bonds (with complete wiring instructions no later than the Regular Record Date for such Interest Payment Date), by wire transfer by the Paying Agent to such Owner. Such a request may provide that it will remain in effect with respect to subsequent Interest Payment Dates unless and until changed or revoked at any time prior to a Regular Record Date by subsequent written notice to the Paying Agent.

(e) Interest on Bonds not punctually paid or duly provided for on an Interest Payment Date shall forthwith cease to be payable to the Registered Owners on the Regular Record Date established for such Interest Payment Date, and may be paid to the Registered Owners as of the close of business on a date fixed by the Paying Agent (a "Special Record Date") with respect to the payment of such defaulted interest to be fixed by the Paying Agent, or may be paid at any time in any other lawful manner. The Paying Agent shall give notice to the Registered Owners at least seven days before any such Special Record Date.

(f) The principal of the Bonds shall be payable to the Registered Owners of the Bonds upon the presentation of the Bonds to the Paying Agent at the principal corporate trust office of the Paying Agent.

(g) The Bonds shall be subject to redemption prior to maturity or shall not be subject thereto, upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined by the Authorized Officer and confirmed in the Supplemental Order, provided, however, that redemption at the option of the City prior to maturity may occur on any Interest Payment Date for which notice is given as provided herein and such redemption shall be in whole.

Unless waived by any registered owner of Bonds to be redeemed, official notice of redemption shall be given by the Paying Agent on behalf of the City. Such notice shall be dated and shall contain at a minimum the following information: original issue date; maturity dates; interest rates, CUSIP numbers, if any; certificate numbers, and in the case of partial redemption, the called amounts of each certificate; the redemption date; the redemption price or premium; the place where Bonds called for redemption are to be surrendered for payment; and that interest on Bonds or portions thereof called for redemption shall cease to accrue from and after the redemption date.

In addition, further notice shall be given by the Paying Agent in such manner as may be required or suggested by regulations or market practice at the applicable time, but no defect in such further notice nor any failure to give all or any portion of such further notice shall in any manner defeat the effectiveness of a call for redemption if notice thereof is given as prescribed herein.

Section 303. Execution, Authentication and Delivery of Bonds. The Bonds shall be executed in the name of the City by the manual or facsimile signatures of the Emergency Manager and the Finance Director of the City and authenticated by the manual signature of the Finance Director or an authorized representative of the Paying Agent, as the case may be, and a facsimile of the seal of the City shall be imprinted on the Bonds. Additional Bonds bearing the manual or facsimile signatures of the Emergency Manager or Mayor of the City and the Finance Director, and upon which the facsimile of the seal of the City is imprinted may be delivered to the Paying Agent for authentication and delivery in connection with the exchange or transfer of Bonds. The Paying Agent shall indicate on each Bond the date of its authentication.

Section 304. Authentication of the Bonds. (a) No Bond shall be entitled to any benefit under this Order or be valid or obligatory for any purpose unless there appears on such Bond a Certificate of Authentication substantially in the form provided for in Section 307 of this Order, executed by the manual or facsimile signature of the Finance Director or by an authorized signatory of the Paying Agent by manual signature, and such certificate upon any Bond shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Bond has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder.

(b) The Paying Agent shall manually execute the Certificate of Authentication on each Bond upon receipt of a written direction of the Authorized Officer of the City to authenticate such Bond.

Section 305. Transfer of Registration and Exchanges on the Bonds. (a) The registration of each Bond is transferable only upon the Bond Registry by the Registered Owner thereof, or by his attorney duly authorized in writing, upon the presentation and surrender thereof at the designated corporate trust office of the Paying Agent together with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Paying Agent, duly executed by the Registered Owner thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing, and thereupon one or more fully executed and authenticated Bonds in any authorized denominations of like maturity and tenor, in equal aggregate principal amount shall be issued to the transferee in exchange therefor.

(b) Each Bond may be exchanged for one or more Bonds in equal aggregate principal amount of like maturity and tenor in one or more authorized denominations, upon the presentation and surrender thereof at the principal corporate trust office of the Paying Agent together with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Paying Agent, duly executed by the Registered Owner hereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

Section 306. Regulations with Respect to Exchanges and Transfers. (a) In all cases in which the privilege of exchanging Bonds or transferring the registration of Bonds is exercised, the City shall execute and the Paying Agent shall authenticate and deliver Bonds in accordance with the provisions of this Order. All Bonds surrendered in any such exchanges or transfers shall be forthwith canceled by the Paying Agent.

(b) For every exchange or transfer of Bonds, the City or the Paying Agent may make a charge sufficient to reimburse it for any tax, fee or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to such exchange or transfer and, except as otherwise provided in this Order, may charge a sum sufficient to pay the costs of preparing each new Bond issued upon such exchange or transfer, which shall be paid by the person requesting such exchange or transfer as a condition precedent to the exercise of the privilege of making such exchange or transfer.

(c) The Paying Agent shall not be required (i) to issue, register the transfer of or exchange any Bond during a period beginning at the opening of business 15 days before the day of the giving of a notice of redemption of Bonds selected for redemption as described in the form of Bonds contained in Section 307 of this Order and ending at the close of business on the day of that giving of notice, or (ii) to register the transfer of or exchange any Bond so selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of Bonds being redeemed in part. The City shall give the Paying Agent notice of call for redemption at least 20 days prior to the date notice of redemption is to be given.

Section 307. Form of the Bonds. The Bonds shall be in substantially the following form with such insertions, omissions, substitutions and other variations as shall not be inconsistent with this Order or as approved by an Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order:

[Forms of Bonds]

[Unless this certificate is presented by an authorized representative of The Depository Trust Company, a New York corporation (“DTC”) to the City (as hereinafter defined), or its agent for registration of transfer, exchange, or payment and any certificate issued is registered in the name of Cede & Co. or in such other name as is requested by an authorized representative of DTC (and any payment is made to Cede & Co. or to such other entity as is requested by an authorized representative of DTC), ANY TRANSFER, PLEDGE, OR OTHER USE HEREOF FOR VALUE OR OTHERWISE BY OR TO ANY PERSON IS WRONGFUL inasmuch as the registered owner hereof, Cede & Co., has an interest herein.]

The Accretion Value of the Bonds to be redeemed on the dates set forth above shall be reduced by the Accretion Value of Term Bonds that has been redeemed (other than by mandatory sinking fund redemption) or otherwise acquired by the City and delivered to the Paying Agent prior to giving the notice of redemption described below. The City may satisfy any mandatory redemption requirement by the purchase and surrender of Term Bonds of the same maturity and interest rate in lieu of calling such Term Bonds for mandatory redemption.

General Redemption Provisions. In case less than the full amount of an outstanding bond is called for redemption, the Paying Agent, upon presentation of the bond called for redemption, shall register, authenticate and deliver to the registered owner of record a new bond in the principal amount of the portion of the original bond not called for redemption.

Notice of redemption shall be given to the registered owners of Bonds or portions thereof called for redemption by mailing of such notice not less than thirty (30) days but not more than sixty (60) days prior to the date fixed for redemption to the registered address of the registered owner of record. Bonds or portions thereof so called for redemption shall not bear interest after the date fixed for redemption, whether presented for redemption or not, provided funds are on hand with the Paying Agent to redeem such Bonds.

Reference is hereby made to the Order for the provisions with respect to the nature and extent of the security for the Bonds, the manner and enforcement of such security, the rights, duties and obligations of the City, and the rights of the Paying Agent and the Registered Owners of the Bonds. As therein provided, the Order may be amended in certain respects without the consent of the Registered Owners of the Bonds. A copy of the Order is on file and available for inspection at the office of the Finance Director and at the principal corporate trust office of the Paying Agent.

The City and the Paying Agent may treat and consider the person in whose name this Bond is registered on the Bond Registry as the absolute owner hereof, whether this Bond shall be overdue or not, for the purpose of receiving payment of, or on account of, the principal hereof and interest hereon and for all other purposes whatsoever, and all such payments so made to such person or upon his order shall be valid and effectual to satisfy and discharge the liability hereon to the extent of the sum or sums so paid.

The registration of this Bond is transferable only upon the Bond Registry by the Registered Owner hereof or by his attorney duly authorized in writing upon the presentation and surrender hereof at the designated corporate trust office of the Paying Agent together with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Paying Agent, duly executed by the Registered Owner hereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing, and thereupon one or more fully executed and authenticated Bonds in any authorized denominations of like maturity and tenor, in equal aggregate principal amount shall be issued to the transferee in exchange therefor as provided in the Order upon the payment of the charges, if any, therein prescribed.

It is hereby certified, recited and declared that all acts, conditions and things required by law to exist, happen and to be performed, precedent to and in the issuance of the Bonds do exist, have happened and have been performed in due time, form and manner as required by the Constitution and statutes of the State of Michigan, and that the total indebtedness of the City, including the Bonds does not exceed any constitutional, statutory or charter limitation.

This Bond is not valid or obligatory for any purpose until the Paying Agent's Certificate of Authentication on this Bond has been executed by the Paying Agent.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the City of Detroit, by its Emergency Manager, has caused this bond to be signed in the name of the City by the facsimile signatures of its Emergency Manager and Finance Director of the City, and a facsimile of its corporate seal to be printed hereon, all as of the Date of Original Issue.

The City and the Paying Agent may treat and consider the Registered Owner of any Bond as the absolute owner of such Bond, whether such Bond shall be overdue or not, for the purpose of receiving payment of, or on account of, the principal (and premium, if any) thereof and interest thereon and for all other purposes whatsoever, and all such payments so made to such Bondowner or upon his order shall be valid and effectual to satisfy and discharge the liability upon such Bond to the extent of the sum or sums so paid.

Section 309. Mutilated, Destroyed, Stolen or Lost Bonds. (a) Subject to the provisions of Act 354, Public Acts of Michigan, 1972, as amended and any other applicable law, if (i) any mutilated Bond is surrendered to the Paying Agent or the City and the Paying Agent and the City receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Bond and (ii) there is delivered to the City and the Paying Agent such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless, then, in the absence of notice to the City or the Paying Agent that such Bond has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the City shall execute and the Paying Agent shall authenticate and deliver in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Bond, a new Bond of like tenor and principal amount, bearing a number not contemporaneously outstanding.

(b) If any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Bond has become or is about to become due and payable, the City in its discretion may, instead of issuing a new Bond, pay such Bond.

(c) Any new Bond issued pursuant to this Section in substitution for a Bond alleged to be mutilated, destroyed, stolen or lost shall constitute an original additional contractual obligation on the part of the City, and shall be equally secured by and entitled to equal proportionate benefits with all other Bonds issued under this Order.

Section 310. Book-Entry-Only System Permitted. (a) If determined by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order, the Bonds or portions of the Bonds shall be issued to a securities depository selected by the Authorized Officer (the "Security Depository") to be held pursuant to the book-entry-only system maintained by the Security Depository and registered in the name of the Security Depository or its nominee. Ownership interests in Bonds held under such book-entry-only system shall be determined pursuant to the procedures of the Security Depository and Article 8 of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code (such persons having such interests, "Beneficial Owners").

(b) If (i) the City and the Paying Agent receive written notice from the Security Depository to the effect that the Security Depository is unable or unwilling to discharge its responsibilities with respect to the Bonds under the book-entry-only system maintained by it or (ii) the Authorized Officer determines that it is in the best interests of the Beneficial Owners that they be able to obtain Bonds in certificated form, then the City may so notify the Security Depository and the Paying Agent, and, in either event, the City and the Paying Agent shall take appropriate steps to provide the Beneficial Owners with Bonds in certificated form to evidence their respective ownership interests in the Bonds. Whenever the Security Depository requests the City and the Paying Agent to do so, the Authorized Officer on behalf of the City and the Paying Agent will cooperate with the Security Depository in taking appropriate action after reasonable notice to make available Bonds registered in whatever name or names the Beneficial Owners transferring or exchanging Bonds shall designate.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Order to the contrary, so long as the Bonds are held pursuant to the book-entry-only system maintained by the Security Depository:

(i) all payments with respect to the principal and interest on such Bonds and all notices with respect to such Bonds shall be made and given, respectively, to the Security Depository as provided in the representation letter from the City and the Paying Agent to the Security Depository with respect to such Bonds; and

(ii) all payments with respect to principal of the Bonds and interest on the Bonds shall be made in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Security Depository.

DETERMINATIONS

Section 201. Finding, and Declaration of Need to Issue Bonds. The Emergency Manager hereby finds and declares that it is necessary for the City to issue the Bonds hereunder in such sum as shall be determined and approved by the Emergency Manager, not in excess of $632,000,000 (the “Maximum Aggregate Principal Amount”), and to evidence such debt by the issuance of the Bonds in one or more series not in excess of the Maximum Aggregate Principal Amount, in Authorized Denominations, pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions of Section 36a of Act 279, for the purpose of satisfying the Claims.

ARTICLE III

AUTHORIZATION, REDEMPTION AND ASSIGNMENT OF THE BONDS

Section 301. Authorization of Bonds to Satisfy the Claims and Pledge. The City hereby authorizes the issuance of the Bonds as hereinafter defined in such principal amount as shall be confirmed in the Supplemental Order to satisfy the Claims as determined by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order or subsequently confirmed by the Authorized Officer to Bond Counsel. The principal of and interest on the Bonds shall hereby be secured by the limited tax full faith and credit pledge of the City.

The City pledges to pay the principal of and interest on the Bonds as a first budget obligation from its general funds and in case of insufficiency thereof, from the proceeds of an annual levy of ad valorem taxes on all taxable property of the City, subject to applicable constitutional, statutory and charter tax rate limitations.

Section 302. Designations, Date, Interest, Maturity and Other Terms of the Bonds to Satisfy the Claims. (a) The Bonds shall be designated “FINANCIAL RECOVERY BONDS, SERIES 2014B” and may bear such later or earlier dates and additional or alternative designations, series or subseries as the Authorized Officer may determine in the Supplemental Order, shall be issued in fully registered form and shall be consecutively numbered from “R-1” upwards, unless otherwise provided by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order. The Bonds shall be dated and issued in such denominations all as determined by the Authorized Officer and confirmed by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order.

(b) The Bonds of each series shall mature on such Maturity Dates not in excess of 30 years from the Date of Original Issue and shall bear interest at the Interest Rate on a taxable basis, payable on the Interest Payment Dates, all as shall be determined and confirmed by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order. Unless otherwise provided by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order, interest on the Bonds shall be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in a 360 day year. The Bonds shall be payable, as to principal and interest, in lawful money of the United States of America.

(c) Except as may be otherwise determined by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order, interest on the Bonds shall be payable to the Registered Owner as of the 15th day of the month, whether or not a Business Day (a “Regular Record Date”), prior to each Interest Payment Date. Interest on the Bonds shall be payable to such Registered Owners by check or draft drawn on the Paying Agent on each Interest Payment Date and mailed by first class mail or, upon the written request of the Owner of $1,000,000 or more in aggregate principal amount of Bonds (with complete wiring instructions no later than the Regular Record Date for such Interest Payment Date), by wire transfer by the Paying Agent to such Owner. Such a request may provide that it will remain in effect with respect to subsequent Interest Payment Dates unless and until changed or revoked at any time prior to a Regular Record Date by subsequent written notice to the Paying Agent.

(d) Interest on Bonds not punctually paid or duly provided for on an Interest Payment Date shall forthwith cease to be payable to the Registered Owners on the Regular Record Date established for such Interest Payment Date, and may be paid to the Registered Owners as of the close of business on a date fixed by the Paying Agent (a “Special Record Date”) with respect to the payment of such defaulted interest to be fixed by the Paying Agent, or may be paid at any time in any other lawful manner. The Paying Agent shall give notice to the Registered Owners at least seven days before any such Special Record Date.

(e) The principal of the Bonds shall be payable to the Registered Owners of the Bonds upon the presentation of the Bonds to the Paying Agent at the principal corporate trust office of the Paying Agent.

(f) The Bonds shall be subject to redemption and/or tender for purchase prior to maturity or shall not be subject thereto, upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined by the Authorized Officer and confirmed in the Supplemental Order.

Unless waived by any registered owner of Bonds to be redeemed, official notice of redemption shall be given by the Paying Agent on behalf of the City. Such notice shall be dated and shall contain at a minimum the following information: original issue date; maturity dates; interest rates, CUSIP numbers, if any; certificate numbers, and in the case of partial redemption, the called amounts of each certificate; the redemption date; the redemption price or premium; the place where Bonds called for redemption are to be surrendered for payment; and that interest on Bonds or portions thereof called for redemption shall cease to accrue from and after the redemption date.

In addition, further notice shall be given by the Paying Agent in such manner as may be required or suggested by regulations or market practice at the applicable time, but no defect in such further notice nor any failure to give all or any portion of such further notice shall in any manner defeat the effectiveness of a call for redemption if notice thereof is given as prescribed herein.

Section 303. Execution, Authentication and Delivery of Bonds. The Bonds shall be executed in the name of the City by the manual or facsimile signatures of the Emergency Manager and the Finance Director of the City and authenticated by the manual signature of the Finance Director or an authorized representative of the Paying Agent, as the case may be, and a facsimile of the seal of the City shall be imprinted on the Bonds. Additional Bonds bearing the manual or facsimile signatures of the Emergency Manager or Mayor of the City and the Finance Director, and upon which the facsimile of the seal of the City is imprinted may be delivered to the Paying Agent for authentication and delivery in connection with the exchange or transfer of Bonds. The Paying Agent shall indicate on each Bond the date of its authentication.

Section 304. Authentication of the Bonds. (a) No Bond shall be entitled to any benefit under this Order or be valid or obligatory for any purpose unless there appears on such Bond a Certificate of Authentication substantially in the form provided for in Section 307 of this Order, executed by the manual or facsimile signature of the Finance Director or by an authorized signatory of the Paying Agent by manual signature, and such certificate upon any Bond shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Bond has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder.

(b) The Paying Agent shall manually execute the Certificate of Authentication on each Bond upon receipt of a written direction of the Authorized Officer of the City to authenticate such Bond.

Section 305. Transfer of Registration and Exchanges on the Bonds. (a) The registration of each Bond is transferable only upon the Bond Registry by the Registered Owner thereof, or by his attorney duly authorized in writing, upon the presentation and surrender thereof at the designated corporate trust office of the Paying Agent together with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Paying Agent, duly executed by the Registered Owner thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing, and thereupon one or more fully executed and authenticated Bonds in any authorized denominations of like maturity and tenor, in equal aggregate principal amount shall be issued to the transferee in exchange therefor.

(b) Each Bond may be exchanged for one or more Bonds in equal aggregate principal amount of like maturity and tenor in one or more authorized denominations, upon the presentation and surrender thereof at the principal corporate trust office of the Paying Agent together with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Paying Agent, duly executed by the Registered Owner hereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

Section 306. Regulations with Respect to Exchanges and Transfers. (a) In all cases in which the privilege of exchanging Bonds or transferring the registration of Bonds is exercised, the City shall execute and the Paying Agent shall authenticate and deliver Bonds in accordance with the provisions of this Order. All Bonds surrendered in any such exchanges or transfers shall be forthwith canceled by the Paying Agent.

(b) For every exchange or transfer of Bonds, the City or the Paying Agent may make a charge sufficient to reimburse it for any tax, fee or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to such exchange or transfer and, except as otherwise provided in this Order, may charge a sum sufficient to pay the costs of preparing each new Bond issued upon such exchange or transfer, which shall be paid by the person requesting such exchange or transfer as a condition precedent to the exercise of the privilege of making such exchange or transfer.

(c) The Paying Agent shall not be required (i) to issue, register the transfer of or exchange any Bond during a period beginning at the opening of business 15 days before the day of the giving of a notice of redemption of Bonds selected for redemption as described in the form of Bonds contained in Section 307 of this Order and ending at the close of business on the day of that giving of notice, or (ii) to register the transfer of or exchange any Bond so selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of Bonds being redeemed in part. The City shall give the Paying Agent notice of call for redemption at least 20 days prior to the date notice of redemption is to be given.

Section 307. Form of the Bonds. The Bonds shall be in substantially the following form with such insertions, omissions, substitutions and other variations as shall not be inconsistent with this Order or as approved by an Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order:

[Forms of Bonds]

[Unless this certificate is presented by an authorized representative of The Depository Trust Company, a New York corporation (“DTC”) to the City (as hereinafter defined), or its agent for registration of transfer, exchange, or payment and any certificate issued is registered in the name of Cede & Co. or in such other name as is requested by an authorized representative of DTC (and any payment is made to Cede & Co. or to such other entity as is requested by an authorized representative of DTC), ANY TRANSFER, PLEDGE, OR OTHER USE HEREOF FOR VALUE OR OTHERWISE BY OR TO ANY PERSON IS WRONGFUL inasmuch as the registered owner hereof, Cede & Co., has an interest herein.]

The City of Detroit, County of Wayne, State of Michigan (the “City”), acknowledges itself to owe and for value received hereby promises to pay to the Registered Owner specified above, or registered assigns, the Principal Amount specified above, in lawful money of the United States of America, on the Maturity Date specified above, unless prepaid prior thereto as hereinafter provided, with interest thereon at the Interest Rate of 4.0% per annum from the Date of Original Issue specified above until the twentieth (20th) anniversary of the Date of Original Issue, and thereafter at 6.0% per annum, until the Maturity Date specified above or until the Principal Amount specified above is paid in full. Interest is payable semiannually on April 1 and October 1 in each year commencing on _____ (each an “Interest Payment Date”). The interest so payable, and punctually paid or duly provided for, will be paid, as provided in the hereinafter defined Order, to the person in whose name this Bond is registered on the books maintained for such purpose by the hereinafter defined Paying Agent (the “Bond Registry”), on the close of business on the Regular Record Date for such interest payment, which shall be the fifteenth day (whether or not a Business Day) of the calendar month immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date. Any such interest not so punctually paid or duly provided for shall herewith cease to be payable to the Registered Owner on such Regular Record Date, and may be paid to the person in whose name this Bond is registered at the close of business on a Special Record Date for the payment of such defaulted interest to be fixed by the Paying Agent, notice of which shall be given to Registered Owners at least seven days before such Special Record Date, or may be paid at any time in any other lawful manner. Capitalized terms used herein but not defined herein, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Order.

The principal of this Bond is payable in lawful money of the United States of America upon presentation and surrender of this Bond at the designated corporate trust office of _____, _____, _____, as registrar, transfer agent and paying agent under the Order (such bank and any successor as paying agent, the “Paying Agent”). Interest on this Bond is payable in like money by check or draft drawn on the Paying Agent and mailed to the Registered Owner entitled thereto, as provided above, by first class mail or, upon the written request of a Registered Owner of at least $1,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of Bonds (with complete wiring instructions no later than the Regular Record Date for such Interest Payment Date), by wire transfer by the Paying Agent to such Registered Owner, and such request may provide that it will remain in effect with respect to subsequent Interest Payment Dates unless and until changed or revoked at any time prior to a Regular Record Date by subsequent written notice to the Paying Agent. Interest shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30 day months. For prompt payment of this Bond, both principal and interest, the full faith, credit and resources of the City are hereby irrevocably pledged.

This bond is one of a series of bonds aggregating the principal sum of $_____, issued under and in full compliance with the Constitution and statutes of the State of Michigan, and particularly Section 36a of Act No. 279, Public Acts of Michigan, 1909, as amended (“Act 279”), for the purpose of satisfying certain Claims, as defined in the Order. Pursuant to the Order, the bonds of this series (the “Bonds”) are limited tax general obligations of the City, and the City is obligated to levy annually ad valorem taxes on all taxable property in the Issuer, subject to applicable constitutional, statutory and charter tax rate limitations.

The “Order” is an Order of the Emergency Manager issued on _____, 2014, supplemented by a Supplemental Order of an Authorized Officer of the City issued on _____, 2014, authorizing the issuance of the Bonds.

The bonds of this series shall be subject to redemption prior to maturity as follows:

(a) Optional Redemption. Bonds or portions of bonds in Authorized Denominations of multiples of $1,000 or integral multiples of $1.00 in excess thereof are subject to redemption prior to maturity, at the option of the Issuer, in such order as the Issuer may determine, and by lot within a maturity on any date after the Date of Original Issue, at a redemption price of par plus accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption.

(b) Mandatory Redemption. [TO BE DETERMINED]

General Redemption Provisions. In case less than the full amount of an outstanding bond is called for redemption, the Paying Agent, upon presentation of the bond called for redemption, shall register, authenticate and deliver to the registered owner of record a new bond in the principal amount of the portion of the original bond not called for redemption.

Notice of redemption shall be given to the registered owners of Bonds or portions thereof called for redemption by mailing of such notice not less than thirty (30) days but not more than sixty (60) days prior to the date fixed for redemption to the registered address of the registered owner of record. Bonds or portions thereof so called for redemption shall not bear interest after the date fixed for redemption, whether presented for redemption or not, provided funds are on hand with the Paying Agent to redeem such Bonds.

Reference is hereby made to the Order for the provisions with respect to the nature and extent of the security for the Bonds, the manner and enforcement of such security, the rights, duties and obligations of the City, and the rights of the Paying Agent and the Registered Owners of the Bonds. As therein provided, the Order may be amended in certain respects without the consent of the Registered Owners of the Bonds. A copy of the Order is on file and available for inspection at the office of the Finance Director and at the principal corporate trust office of the Paying Agent.

The City and the Paying Agent may treat and consider the person in whose name this Bond is registered on the Bond Registry as the absolute owner hereof, whether this Bond shall be overdue or not, for the purpose of receiving payment of, or on account of, the principal hereof and interest hereon and for all other purposes whatsoever, and all such payments so made to such person or upon his order shall be valid and effectual to satisfy and discharge the liability hereon to the extent of the sum or sums so paid.

The registration of this Bond is transferable only upon the Bond Registry by the Registered Owner hereof or by his attorney duly authorized in writing upon the presentation and surrender hereof at the designated corporate trust office of the Paying Agent together with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Paying Agent, duly executed by the Registered Owner hereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing, and thereupon one or more fully executed and authenticated Bonds in any authorized denominations of like maturity and tenor, in equal aggregate principal amount shall be issued to the transferee in exchange therefor as provided in the Resolution upon the payment of the charges, if any, therein prescribed.

It is hereby certified, recited and declared that all acts, conditions and things required by law to exist, happen and to be performed, precedent to and in the issuance of the Bonds do exist, have happened and have been performed in due time, form and manner as required by the Constitution and statutes of the State of Michigan, and that the total indebtedness of the City, including the Bonds does not exceed any constitutional, statutory or charter limitation.

This Bond is not valid or obligatory for any purpose until the Paying Agent's Certificate of Authentication on this Bond has been executed by the Paying Agent.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the City of Detroit, by its Emergency Manager, has caused this bond to be signed in the name of the City by the facsimile signatures of its Emergency Manager and Finance Director of the City, and a facsimile of its corporate seal to be printed hereon, all as of the Date of Original Issue.

Section 308. Registration. The City and the Paying Agent may treat and consider the Registered Owner of any Bond as the absolute owner of such Bond, whether such Bond shall be overdue or not, for the purpose of receiving payment of, or on account of, the principal (and premium, if any) thereof and interest thereon and for all other purposes whatsoever, and all such payments so made to such Bondowner or upon his order shall be valid and effectual to satisfy and discharge the liability upon such Bond to the extent of the sum or sums so paid.

Section 309. Mutilated, Destroyed, Stolen or Lost Bonds. (a) Subject to the provisions of Act 354, Public Acts of Michigan, 1972, as amended and any other applicable law, if (i) any mutilated Bond is surrendered to the Paying Agent or the City and the Paying Agent and the City receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Bond and (ii) there is delivered to the City and the Paying Agent such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless, then, in the absence of notice to the City or the Paying Agent that such Bond has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the City shall execute and the Paying Agent shall authenticate and deliver in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Bond, a new Bond of like tenor and principal amount, bearing a number not contemporaneously outstanding.

(b) If any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Bond has become or is about to become due and payable, the City in its discretion may, instead of issuing a new Bond, pay such Bond.

(c) Any new Bond issued pursuant to this Section in substitution for a Bond alleged to be mutilated, destroyed, stolen or lost shall constitute an original additional contractual obligation on the part of the City, and shall be equally secured by and entitled to equal proportionate benefits with all other Bonds issued under this Order.

Section 310. Book-Entry-Only System Permitted. (a) If determined by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order, the Bonds or portions of the Bonds shall be issued to a securities depository selected by the Authorized Officer (the "Security Depository") to be held pursuant to the book-entry-only system maintained by the Security Depository and registered in the name of the Security Depository or its nominee. Ownership interests in Bonds held under such book-entry-only system shall be determined pursuant to the procedures of the Security Depository and Article 8 of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code (such persons having such interests, "Beneficial Owners").

(b) If (i) the City and the Paying Agent receive written notice from the Security Depository to the effect that the Security Depository is unable or unwilling to discharge its responsibilities with respect to the Bonds under the book-entry-only system maintained by it or (ii) the Authorized Officer determines that it is in the best interests of the Beneficial Owners that they be able to obtain Bonds in certificated form, then the City may so notify the Security Depository and the Paying Agent, and, in either event, the City and the Paying Agent shall take appropriate steps to provide the Beneficial Owners with Bonds in certificated form to evidence their respective ownership interests in the Bonds. Whenever the Security Depository requests the City and the Paying Agent to do so, the Authorized Officer on behalf of the City and the Paying Agent will cooperate with the Security Depository in taking appropriate action after reasonable notice to make available Bonds registered in whatever name or names the Beneficial Owners transferring or exchanging Bonds shall designate.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Order to the contrary, so long as the Bonds are held pursuant to the book-entry-only system maintained by the Security Depository:

(i) all payments with respect to the principal and interest on such Bonds and all notices with respect to such Bonds shall be made and given, respectively, to the Security Depository as provided in the representation letter from the City and the Paying Agent to the Security Depository with respect to such Bonds; and

(ii) all payments with respect to principal of the Bonds and interest on the Bonds shall be made in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Security Depository.

DETERMINATIONS

Section 201. Finding, and Declaration of Need to Issue Bonds. The Emergency Manager hereby finds and declares that it is necessary for the City to issue the Bonds hereunder in such sum as shall be determined and approved by the Emergency Manager, not in excess of $88,430,021 (the “Maximum Aggregate Principal Amount”), and to evidence such debt by the issuance of the Bonds in one or more series not in excess of the Maximum Aggregate Principal Amount, in Authorized Denominations, pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions of Section 36a of Act 279, for the purpose of satisfying the Claims.

ARTICLE III

AUTHORIZATION, REDEMPTION AND ASSIGNMENT OF THE BONDS

Section 301. Authorization of Bonds to Satisfy the Claims and Pledge. The City hereby authorizes the issuance of the Bonds as hereinafter defined in such principal amount as shall be confirmed in the Supplemental Order to satisfy a portion of the COP Claims as determined by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order or subsequently confirmed by the Authorized Officer to Bond Counsel. The principal of and interest on the Bonds shall hereby be payable from (i) the City Parking Revenues and (ii) secured by the limited tax full faith and credit pledge of the City.

In the event of insufficient City Parking Revenues, the City pledges to pay the principal of and interest on the Bonds as a first budget obligation from its general funds and in case of insufficiency thereof, from the proceeds of an annual levy of ad valorem taxes on all taxable property of the City, subject to applicable constitutional, statutory and charter tax rate limitations.

Section 302. Designations, Date, Interest, Maturity and Other Terms of the Bonds to Satisfy the Claims. (a) The Bonds shall be designated “FINANCIAL RECOVERY BONDS, SERIES 2014C” and may bear such later or earlier dates and additional or alternative designations, series or subseries as the Authorized Officer may determine in the Supplemental Order, shall be issued in fully registered form and shall be consecutively numbered from “R-1” upwards, unless otherwise provided by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order. The Bonds shall be dated and issued in Authorized Denominations all as determined by the Authorized Officer and confirmed by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order.

(b) The Bonds of each series shall mature on the Maturity Date not more than 13 years from the Date of Original Issue and shall bear interest at the Interest Rate on a taxable basis, payable on the Interest Payment Dates, all as shall be determined and confirmed by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order. Unless otherwise provided by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order, interest on the Bonds shall be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year and twelve 30-day months. The Bonds shall be payable, as to principal and interest, in lawful money of the United States of America.

(c) Except as may be otherwise determined by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order, interest on the Bonds shall be payable to the Registered Owner as of the 15th day of the month, whether or not a Business Day (a “Regular Record Date”), prior to each Interest Payment Date. Interest on the Bonds shall be payable to such Registered Owners by check or draft drawn on the Paying Agent on each Interest Payment Date and mailed by first class mail or, upon the written request of the Owner of $1,000,000 or more in aggregate principal amount of Bonds (with complete wiring instructions no later than the Regular Record Date for such Interest Payment Date), by wire transfer by the Paying Agent to such Owner. Such a request may provide that it will remain in effect with respect to subsequent Interest Payment Dates unless and until changed or revoked at any time prior to a Regular Record Date by subsequent written notice to the Paying Agent.

(d) Interest on Bonds not punctually paid or duly provided for on an Interest Payment Date shall forthwith cease to be payable to the Registered Owners on the Regular Record Date established for such Interest Payment Date, and may be paid to the Registered Owners as of the close of business on a date fixed by the Paying Agent (a "Special Record Date") with respect to the payment of such defaulted interest to be fixed by the Paying Agent, or may be paid at any time in any other lawful manner. The Paying Agent shall give notice to the Registered Owners at least seven days before any such Special Record Date.

(e) The principal of the Bonds shall be payable to the Registered Owners of the Bonds upon the presentation of the Bonds to the Paying Agent at the principal corporate trust office of the Paying Agent.

(f) The Bonds shall be subject to optional, mandatory sinking fund and mandatory redemption prior to maturity or shall not be subject thereto, upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined by the Authorized Officer and confirmed in the Supplemental Order.

Unless waived by any registered owner of Bonds to be redeemed, official notice of redemption shall be given by the Paying Agent on behalf of the City. Such notice shall be dated and shall contain at a minimum the following information: original issue date; maturity dates; interest rates, CUSIP numbers, if any; certificate numbers, and in the case of partial redemption, the called amounts of each certificate; the redemption date; the redemption price or premium; the place where Bonds called for redemption are to be surrendered for payment; and that interest on Bonds or portions thereof called for redemption shall cease to accrue from and after the redemption date.

In addition, further notice shall be given by the Paying Agent in such manner as may be required or suggested by regulations or market practice at the applicable time, but no defect in such further notice nor any failure to give all or any portion of such further notice shall in any manner defeat the effectiveness of a call for redemption if notice thereof is given as prescribed herein.

Section 303. Execution, Authentication and Delivery of Bonds. The Bonds shall be executed in the name of the City by the manual or facsimile signatures of the Mayor and the Finance Director of the City and authenticated by the manual signature of the Finance Director or an authorized representative of the Paying Agent, as the case may be, and a facsimile of the seal of the City shall be imprinted on the Bonds. The Bonds shall be delivered to the Litigation Trust for the Benefit of the Settling COP Claimants as described in the Plan of Adjustment. Additional Bonds bearing the manual or facsimile signatures of the Mayor of the City and the Finance Director, and upon which the facsimile of the seal of the City is imprinted may be delivered to the Paying Agent for authentication and delivery in connection with the exchange or transfer of Bonds. The Paying Agent shall indicate on each Bond the date of its authentication.

Section 304. Authentication of the Bonds. (a) No Bond shall be entitled to any benefit under this Order or be valid or obligatory for any purpose unless there appears on such Bond a Certificate of Authentication substantially in the form provided for in Section 307 of this Order, executed by the manual or facsimile signature of the Finance Director or by an authorized signatory of the Paying Agent by manual signature, and such certificate upon any Bond shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Bond has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder.

(b) The Paying Agent shall manually execute the Certificate of Authentication on each Bond upon receipt of a written direction of the Authorized Officer of the City to authenticate such Bond.

Section 305. Transfer of Registration and Exchanges on the Bonds. (a) The registration of each Bond is transferable only upon the Bond Registry by the Registered Owner thereof, or by his attorney duly authorized in writing, upon the presentation and surrender thereof at the designated corporate trust office of the Paying Agent together with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Paying Agent, duly executed by the Registered Owner thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing, and thereupon one or more fully executed and authenticated Bonds in any authorized denominations of like maturity and tenor, in equal aggregate principal amount shall be issued to the transferee in exchange therefor.

(b) Each Bond may be exchanged for one or more Bonds in equal aggregate principal amount of like maturity and tenor in one or more authorized denominations, upon the presentation and surrender thereof at the principal corporate trust office of the Paying Agent together with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Paying Agent, duly executed by the Registered Owner hereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

Section 306. Regulations with Respect to Exchanges and Transfers. (a) In all cases in which the privilege of exchanging Bonds or transferring the registration of Bonds is exercised, the City shall execute and the Paying Agent shall authenticate and deliver Bonds in accordance with the provisions of this Order. All Bonds surrendered in any such exchanges or transfers shall be forthwith canceled by the Paying Agent.

(b) For every exchange or transfer of Bonds, the City or the Paying Agent may make a charge sufficient to reimburse it for any tax, fee or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to such exchange or transfer and, except as otherwise provided in this Order, may charge a sum sufficient to pay the costs of preparing each new Bond issued upon such exchange or transfer, which shall be paid by the person requesting such exchange or transfer as a condition precedent to the exercise of the privilege of making such exchange or transfer.

(c) The Paying Agent shall not be required (i) to issue, register the transfer of or exchange any Bond during a period beginning at the opening of business 15 days before the day of the giving of a notice of redemption of Bonds selected for redemption as described in the form of Bonds contained in Section 307 of this Order and ending at the close of business on the day of that giving of notice, or (ii) to register the transfer of or exchange any Bond so selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of Bonds being redeemed in part. The City shall give the Paying Agent notice of call for redemption at least 20 days prior to the date notice of redemption is to be given.

Section 307. Form of the Bonds. The Bonds shall be in substantially the following form with such insertions, omissions, substitutions and other variations as shall not be inconsistent with this Order or as approved by an Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order:

[Form of Bonds]

[Unless this certificate is presented by an authorized representative of The Depository Trust Company, a New York corporation (“DTC”) to the City (as hereinafter defined), or its agent for registration of transfer, exchange, or payment and any certificate issued is registered in the name of Cede & Co. or in such other name as is requested by an authorized representative of DTC (and any payment is made to Cede & Co. or to such other entity as is requested by an authorized representative of DTC), ANY TRANSFER, PLEDGE, OR OTHER USE HEREOF FOR VALUE OR OTHERWISE BY OR TO ANY PERSON IS WRONGFUL inasmuch as the registered owner hereof, Cede & Co., has an interest herein.]

Interest shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30 day months. For prompt payment of this Bond, both principal and interest, the full faith, credit and resources of the City are hereby irrevocably pledged.

In the event that the City fails to make a principal and interest payment when due (a “Payment Default”), the City shall have 30 days, following written notice of such default (the “Cure Period”), to cure such Payment Default. Section 308. Registration. The City and the Paying Agent may treat and consider the Registered Owner of any Bond as the absolute owner of such Bond, whether such Bond shall be overdue or not, for the purpose of receiving payment of, or on account of, the principal (and premium, if any) thereof and interest thereon and for all other purposes whatsoever, and all such payments so made to such Bondowner or upon his order shall be valid and effectual to satisfy and discharge the liability upon such Bond to the extent of the sum or sums so paid.

Section 309. Mutilated, Destroyed, Stolen or Lost Bonds. (a) Subject to the provisions of Act 354, Public Acts of Michigan, 1972, as amended and any other applicable law, if (i) any mutilated Bond is surrendered to the Paying Agent or the City and the Paying Agent and the City receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Bond and (ii) there is delivered to the City and the Paying Agent such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless, then, in the absence of notice to the City or the Paying Agent that such Bond has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the City shall execute and the Paying Agent shall authenticate and deliver in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Bond, a new Bond of like tenor and principal amount, bearing a number not contemporaneously outstanding.

(b) If any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Bond has become or is about to become due and payable, the City in its discretion may, instead of issuing a new Bond, pay such Bond.

(c) Any new Bond issued pursuant to this Section in substitution for a Bond alleged to be mutilated, destroyed, stolen or lost shall constitute an original additional contractual obligation on the part of the City, and shall be equally secured by and entitled to equal proportionate benefits with all other Bonds issued under this Order.

Section 310. Book-Entry-Only System Permitted. (a) If determined by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order, the Bonds or portions of the Bonds shall be issued to a securities depository selected by the Authorized Officer (the "Security Depository") to be held pursuant to the book-entry-only system maintained by the Security Depository and registered in the name of the Security Depository or its nominee. Ownership interests in Bonds held under such book-entry-only system shall be determined pursuant to the procedures of the Security Depository and Article 8 of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code (such persons having such interests, "Beneficial Owners").

(b) If (i) the City and the Paying Agent receive written notice from the Security Depository to the effect that the Security Depository is unable or unwilling to discharge its responsibilities with respect to the Bonds under the book-entry-only system maintained by it or (ii) the Authorized Officer determines that it is in the best interests of the Beneficial Owners that they be able to obtain Bonds in certificated form, then the City may so notify the Security Depository and the Paying Agent, and, in either event, the City and the Paying Agent shall take appropriate steps to provide the Beneficial Owners with Bonds in certificated form to evidence their respective ownership interests in the Bonds. Whenever the Security Depository requests the City and the Paying Agent to do so, the Authorized Officer on behalf of the City and the Paying Agent will cooperate with the Security Depository in taking appropriate action after reasonable notice to make available Bonds registered in whatever name or names the Beneficial Owners transferring or exchanging Bonds shall designate.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Order to the contrary, so long as the Bonds are held pursuant to the book-entry-only system maintained by the Security Depository:

(i) all payments with respect to the principal and interest on such Bonds and all notices with respect to such Bonds shall be made and given, respectively, to the Security Depository as provided in the representation letter from the City and the Paying Agent to the Security Depository with respect to such Bonds; and

(ii) all payments with respect to principal of the Bonds and interest on the Bonds shall be made in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Security Depository.

COMPONENT I

ARTICLE 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 1.1. General Retirement System Established; Adoption of 2014 Combined Plan Document; Amendment and Restatement of 2014 Combined Plan Document

Effective July 1, 1938, a General Retirement System for the employees of the City of Detroit was established for the purpose of providing retirement and survivor benefits for eligible City employees and their beneficiaries. The provisions of the Detroit General Retirement System, as in effect July 1, 2014, were set forth in a Combined Plan Document. As provided in Ordinance 19-14 and Ordinance 20-14 and Section 47-1-1 of the Detroit City Code, this Combined Plan Document replaced in its entirety Chapter 47 of the Detroit City Code as in effect on June 30, 2014 and any conflicting provisions in any collective bargaining agreements covering Members (including, without limitation, the City Employment Terms that applied to Members effective July 18, 2012). All resolutions and policies of the Retirement Board previously adopted which were inconsistent with the provisions of the Combined Plan Document were also repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

The Combined Plan Document is hereby amended and restated effective July 1, 2014, in the form of this instrument. Component I of the Combined Plan Document applies to benefits accrued by Members on and after July 1, 2014 and to operation of the Detroit General Retirement System on and after July 1, 2014. Component II of the Combined Plan Document applies to benefits accrued by Members prior to July 1, 2014. Except as specifically provided in Component II, benefits provided under Component II of the Combined Plan Document are frozen effective June 30, 2014.

Sec. 1.2. Retirement System Intended to be Tax-Qualified

The Retirement System is a governmental plan under Section 414(d) of the Internal Revenue Code which is intended to be a qualified plan and trust pursuant to applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. The Board shall construe and administer the provisions of the Retirement System in a manner that gives effect to the tax-qualified status of the Retirement System.

Sec. 1.3. Compliance With Plan of Adjustment

The Retirement System is intended to comply with all relevant provisions (including Exhibits) of the Plan for the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit, as approved by the United States Bankruptcy Court in In re City of Detroit, Michigan, Case No. 13-53846 ("Plan of Adjustment"). Component I and Component II of the Combined Plan shall be interpreted and construed by the City, the Board of Trustees and the Retirement System to give full effect to the Plan of Adjustment. To the extent that a conflict arises between the Combined Plan Document and the Plan of Adjustment, the City, the Board of Trustees, the Investment Committee and the Retirement System are directed to interpret any inconsistency or ambiguity to give full effect to the Plan of Adjustment.

Sec. 1.4. Board of Trustees

Effective July 1, 1938, a Board of Trustees of the Detroit General Retirement System was created. The Board is vested with responsibility for the general administration, management and operation of the Detroit General Retirement System and with the trust and investment powers conferred in this Combined Plan Document.

Sec. 1.5. Board of Trustees – Membership; Appointment

The Board of Trustees of the Detroit General Retirement System shall consist of ten Trustees, as follows:

- (1) The Mayor, ex officio, or the Mayor’s designee;

In the event of the death of the designated Beneficiary during the lifetime of the Retiree, the amount of the Retirement Allowance shall be changed to the amount that would have been payable had the Retiree elected the Straight Life Retirement Allowance Form of Payment.
- (3) Coordination of Benefits. According to such rules and regulations as the Board shall adopt, until the first payment of a Retirement Allowance becomes due, but not thereafter, a Member under Age sixty-five may elect to have the Member's Straight Life Retirement Allowance provided for under Component I equated on an Actuarial Equivalent basis to provide an increased Retirement Allowance payable to Age sixty-two or Age sixty-five, and to provide a decreased Retirement Allowance thereafter. The increased Retirement Allowance payable to such Age shall approximate the total of the decreased Retirement Allowance payable thereafter and the estimated social security benefit. If a Member elects to receive increased and then decreased Retirement Allowance payments provided for in this paragraph, he or she may also elect to have such payments reduced by electing one of the optional forms of payment provided for in paragraph (1) of this Section 8.1. This coordination of benefits option shall not create any additional actuarial costs to the City.

Sec. 8.2. Disposition of Surplus Benefits upon Death of Retiree and Beneficiary

If under a Joint and One Hundred Percent Survivor allowance, a Joint and Seventy-Five Percent Survivor allowance, a Joint and Fifty Percent Survivor allowance, or a Joint and Twenty-Five Percent Survivor allowance as provided for under Section 8.1(1), both a Retiree and his Beneficiary die before they have received in Retirement Allowance payments an aggregate amount equal to the Retiree's Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions at the time of retirement, the difference between the said Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions and the aggregate amount of Retirement Allowances paid to the Retiree and Beneficiary, shall be paid in a single lump sum to such person or persons nominated by written designation of the Retiree duly executed and filed with the Board. If there are no such person or persons surviving the Retiree and the Beneficiary, any such difference shall be paid to the estate of the second to die of the Retiree or Beneficiary.

ARTICLE 9. FUNDING AND RESERVES

Sec. 9.1. Funding Objective of the Retirement System

The funding objective of Component I of the Retirement System is to establish and receive Employer and Member contributions during each Plan Year that are sufficient to fully cover the actuarial cost of benefits anticipated to be paid on account of Credited Service rendered by Members during the Plan Year (the normal cost requirements of the Retirement System), and to amortize the unfunded actuarial costs of benefits likely to be paid on account of Credited Service rendered on or after July 1, 2014 and before the first day of the Plan Year (the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of Component I of the Retirement System).

Sec. 9.2. Funds

Component I of the Retirement System shall consist of the Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contribution Fund, the Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contribution Fund, the Pension Accumulation Fund, the Rate Stabilization Fund, the Medical Benefit Fund, the Expense Fund, and the Income Fund, as follows:

- (1) The Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contribution Fund shall be the Fund in which shall be accumulated the contributions of Members to provide their Retirement Allowances. Upon the Retirement, termination, or death of a Member with a vested Retirement Allowance, the Member's Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions shall be deemed to be part of the Pension Reserve which shall be used to pay the Member's Retirement Allowance.
- (2) The Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contribution Fund shall be the Fund in which shall be accumulated the voluntary after-tax contributions of Members together with earnings thereon.
- (3) The Pension Accumulation Fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated reserves for the Retirement Allowances and other benefits payable from that portion of the Employer's annual contribution that is not credited to the Rate Stabilization Fund and amounts transferred to Component I as provided in Section E-16(c) of Component II, and from which shall be paid Retirement Allowances and other benefits on account of Members.
- (4) The Rate Stabilization Fund shall be the Fund to which shall be credited Employer annual contributions in excess of the amount of the Employer's contribution which is credited to the Pension Accumulation Fund and amounts transferred to Component I as provided in Section E-16(c) of Component II.
- (5) The Medical Benefit Fund shall be the Fund to which shall be credited contributions made for the purpose of funding Medical Benefits.
- (6) The Expense Fund shall be the fund to which shall be credited any money provided by the Employers to pay the administrative expenses of the Retirement System, and from which shall be paid certain expenses incurred in connection with the administration and operation of the Retirement System.

- (7) The Income Fund shall be the Fund to which shall be credited all interest, dividends, and other income derived from the investments of Component I of the Retirement System and any earnings thereon, all gifts and bequests received by Component I of the Retirement System, and all other moneys credited to Component I of the Retirement System, the disposition of which is not specifically provided for in this Article 9. There shall be paid or transferred from the Income Fund, all amounts required to credit earnings and losses to the various Funds of the Retirement System in accordance with the provisions of Component I of this Combined Plan Document. Amounts credited to the Income Fund in excess of amounts needed to credit earnings and losses of the Retirement System as provided in this Component I for any Plan Year shall be transferred to the Pension Accumulation Fund and used to pay Retirement Allowances and other benefits on account of Members.

Sec. 9.3. Method of Financing Retirement System Benefits

- (1) The pension liabilities for Members shall be determined by the Plan's Actuary using the entry-age normal cost method of actuarial valuation.
- (2) The Employer's annual contribution to finance the prospective pension liabilities for the nine Plan Year period commencing July 1, 2014 and ending June 30, 2023 shall be five percent (5%) of the base Compensation of active Members for the applicable Plan Year. A portion of the Employer's annual contribution for each Plan Year as determined by the City shall be credited to the Rate Stabilization Fund. The remainder of the City's annual contribution shall be allocated to the Pension Accumulation Fund.
- (3) Except as provided in Section 9.5, for each Plan Year, a Member shall contribute to the Retirement System an amount equal to four percent (4%) of his or her base Compensation for such Plan Year. A Member's Mandatory Employee Contributions for the Plan Year beginning July 1, 2014 and ending June 30, 2015 shall commence as of the Member's first payroll date occurring in August 2014. The officer or officers responsible for processing the payroll shall cause a Member's Mandatory Employee Contributions to be deducted from the Member's Compensation on each and every payroll, for each and every payroll period, from the later of (i) the Member's first payroll date occurring in August 2014, and (ii) the Member's date of hire to the date he ceases to be an Employee. The contribution shall be deducted from a Member's Compensation, notwithstanding that the minimum compensation provided by law for the Member shall be reduced thereby. Payment of compensation, less said Mandatory Employee Contributions, shall be a complete discharge of all claims and demands whatsoever for the services rendered by the said Member during the period covered by such payment. Member Mandatory Employee Contributions will be used for the purpose of funding the normal cost of the Retirement System.

Sec. 9.4. Member Contributions Picked-Up

- (1) The Employer shall pick up Member Mandatory Employee Contributions required pursuant to Sections 9.3(3) and 9.5 in accordance with Code Section 414(h).
- (2) The picked-up contributions, although designated as employee contributions shall be treated as City contributions for the purpose of determining a Member's tax treatment under the Internal Revenue Code. The City shall pay the contributions picked-up on behalf of a Member from the same source of funds that are used for paying compensation to the Member.
- (3) The Employer shall pick up Member Mandatory Employee Contributions by a reduction in the Member's cash salary or an offset against a future salary increase, or both. The Employer shall designate Mandatory Employee Contributions that are picked-up and paid to the Retirement System as employer contributions and not as employee contributions. No Member who participates in the Retirement System shall have the option of choosing to receive the contributed amounts directly instead of having those amounts paid by the City to the Retirement System.

Sec. 9.5. Fiscal Responsibility: Increased Funding Obligations and Benefit Reductions

- (1) To safeguard the long-term actuarial and financial integrity of the Retirement System, in the event the funding level of Component I of the Retirement System projected over a five year period falls below one hundred percent (100%), the following remedial action shall be required in the order set forth below, beginning with the Plan Year following the Plan Year in which such determination is made and continuing until the funding level is restored to not less than one hundred percent (100%):
  - (a) the Trustee may not award the variable pension improvement factor (escalator) described in Section 6.2 to any Retiree;
  - (b) all amounts credited to the Rate Stabilization Fund shall be transferred to the Pension Accumulation Fund for the purposes of funding benefits payable under Component I of the Retirement System; and
  - (c) Member Mandatory Employee Contributions shall be increased from four percent (4%) of Compensation to five percent (5%) of Compensation for up to the next following five Plan Years.
- (2) In the event the funding level of Component I of the Retirement System determined as provided in Section 9.5(1) is projected to fall below eighty percent (80%), the following remedial action shall be required in the order set forth below, beginning with the Plan Year following the Plan Year in which such determination is made and continuing until the funding level is restored to not less than eighty percent (80%):
  - (a) the remedial action required in Section 9.5(1) shall be implemented or continued;

- (b) the Retirement Allowance payable to a Retiree shall not include the variable pension improvement factor (escalator) that was most recently added to the Retiree's Retirement Allowance for a Plan Year;
- (c) Member Mandatory Employee Contributions shall be increased from five percent (5%) of Compensation to six percent (6%) of Compensation for up to the next following five Plan Years;
- (d) the Retirement Allowance payable to a Retiree shall not include the variable pension improvement factor (escalator) that was most recently added to the Retiree's Retirement Allowance for the Plan Year preceding the Plan Year referenced in paragraph (b) above; and
- (e) the Retirement Allowance accrued by Members for up to the next five Plan-Year-period shall be determined as provided in Section 6.1, except that one percent (1%) shall be substituted for one and one-half percent (1.5%) wherever it appears in said Section 6.1.

In determining whether the eighty percent (80%) funding level under this Section 9.5(2) has been achieved, the Plan's Actuary shall calculate the funding percentage of the Retirement System after taking into account the elimination of the variable pension improvement factor (escalator) pursuant to Section 9.5(1)(a) but prior to taking into account the remedial steps provided in Sections 9.5(1)(b) and (c).

- (3) For purposes of this Section 9.5, the "funding level" of Component I of the Retirement System shall mean the ratio of the market value of the assets of Component I of the Retirement System to the actuarial accrued liability of Component I of the Retirement System. The actuarial accrued liability shall be calculated by the Plan's Actuary utilizing an interest rate assumption of six and three-quarters percent (6.75%) and other reasonable assumptions as directed by the Board upon the recommendation of the Investment Committee. The market value of assets shall be determined on the basis of a three-year look back period of smoothed investment returns.

ARTICLE 10. VOLUNTARY EMPLOYEE CONTRIBUTIONS

Sec. 10.1. Voluntary Employee Contributions; Amount; Vesting

Subject to procedures established by the Board, a Member may elect to reduce his Compensation for any Plan Year by a whole percentage equal to three percent (3%), five percent (5%) or seven percent (7%) and have such amount contributed by the Employer to a Voluntary Employee Contribution Account maintained on his behalf under Component I of the Retirement System. Voluntary Employee Contributions shall be made to the Retirement System on an after-tax basis. Amounts credited to a Member's Voluntary Employee Contribution Account shall be one hundred percent (100%) vested at all times.

Sec. 10.2. Changing an Election to Contribute

A Member may change or revoke an election to make Voluntary Employee Contributions to the Retirement System pursuant to this Article 10 in such manner and with such advance notice as the City shall determine. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Member shall be permitted to change such election not less frequently than annually.

Sec. 10.3. Individual Member Accounting; Crediting of Earnings

The Board shall maintain a Voluntary Employee Contribution Account on behalf of each Member who elects to make Voluntary Employee Contributions to the Retirement System. Each Plan Year, a Member's Voluntary Employee Contribution Account shall be credited with earnings at a rate equal to the actual net investment rate of return on the assets of the Retirement System for the second Plan Year immediately preceding the Plan Year in which the earnings are credited; in no event, however, shall the earnings rate credited to a Member's Voluntary Employee Contribution Account for any Plan Year be less than zero percent (0%) nor greater than five and one-quarter percent (5.25%).

Sec. 10.4. Distribution of Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions

- (1) If a Member ceases to be an Employee other than by reason of death, the Member may elect to receive distribution of the Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions made to the Retirement System by such Member. If a Member elects to receive his Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions, such amounts shall be paid to the Member in a lump sum payment or in equal monthly installments for a period not to exceed three years, according to such rules and regulations as the Board may adopt from time to time.
- (2) In lieu of receiving distribution of his Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions as provided in Section 10.4(1), a Member may elect to have the actuarial equivalent value of his Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions added to his Retirement Allowance and paid in the form of an annuity described in Section 8.1.
- (3) If a Member dies while employed by the Employer or following termination of employment but prior to receiving distribution of the Member's Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions, the amounts credited to the Member's Voluntary Employee

Contribution Account at the time of death shall be paid to the Beneficiary nominated in a written designation duly executed by the Member and filed with the Board. In the event there is no such designated Beneficiary surviving the Member, the Member's Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions shall be paid to the Member's estate. If a Member who dies without a legal will has not nominated a Beneficiary, the Member's Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions at the time of death may be used to pay burial expenses if the Member leaves no other estate sufficient for such purpose. Such expenses shall not exceed a reasonable amount as determined by the Board.

ARTICLE 11. LOAN PROGRAM FOR VOLUNTARY EMPLOYEE CONTRIBUTIONS

Sec. 11.1. The Loan Program

A loan program shall be available to Members who have amounts credited to a Voluntary Employee Contributions Account under Component I of the Retirement System. The Board is authorized to adopt rules and regulations, from time to time, to govern the administration and the operation of the loan program. Copies of the rules shall be made available to eligible Members in the offices of the Retirement System. Any loans granted or renewed under the Retirement System shall be made and administered pursuant to and in compliance with Section 72(p) of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations thereunder.

Sec. 11.2. Eligibility for Loan

Subject to the rules and procedures established by the Board, loans may be made to eligible Members from such Member's Voluntary Employee Contribution Account. An eligible Member is any Member who has participated in the Retirement System for twelve months or more. Former Members, Spouses and Beneficiaries are not eligible to receive any loans from the Retirement System. No Member shall have more than two outstanding loans from the Retirement System (Component I and/or Component II) at any time. A Member who has previously defaulted on a loan (under either Component I or Component II) shall not be eligible for a loan from the Retirement System.

Sec. 11.3. Amount of Loan

An eligible Member who has satisfied applicable rules and procedures established by the Board may borrow from his Voluntary Employee Contribution Account an amount which does not exceed the lesser of (i) fifty percent (50%) of the Member's Voluntary Employee Contribution Account balance, and (ii) Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), in each case reduced by the excess, if any, of: (1) the Member's highest outstanding loan balance under the Retirement System (both Component I and Component II) during the one (1) year period ending on the day before the date on which the loan is made, or (2) the outstanding loan balance under the Retirement System (both Component I and Component II) on the date on which the loan is made, whichever is less. The minimum loan amount shall be One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00).

Sec. 11.4. Terms and Conditions

In addition to such rules and procedures that are established by the Board, all loans shall comply with the following terms and conditions:

- (a) Each loan application shall be made in writing.
- (b) All loans shall be memorialized by a collateral promissory note for the amount of the loan, including interest, payable to the order of the Retirement System and properly executed by the Member.

- (c) Each loan shall be repaid by substantially equal payroll deductions over a period not to exceed five years, or, where the loan is for the purpose of buying a principal residence, a period not to exceed fifteen years. In no case shall the amount of the payroll deduction be less than Twenty Dollars ($20.00) for any two-week pay period. A Member receiving a loan will be required to authorize payroll deductions from his compensation in an amount sufficient to repay the loan over its term.
- (d) An amount equal to the principal amount of the loan to a Member (but not more than one half of the Member's vested interest in the Defined Contribution Plans of the Retirement System) will be designated as collateral for guaranteeing the loan.
- (e) Each loan shall bear interest at a rate determined by the Board. The Board shall not discriminate among Members in its determination of interest rates on loans. However, loans initiated at different times may bear different interest rates, where, in the opinion of the Board, the difference in rates is supported by a change in market interest rates or a change in the Retirement System's current assumed rate of return. The loan interest rate shall bear a reasonable relationship to market rates for secured loans of a similar duration and shall bear a reasonable relationship to the costs to the Retirement System of administering the loan. The loan interest rate shall be calculated in a manner that will not negatively affect either the Employers' costs with respect to the Retirement System or the investment return allocated to Members.
- (f) Loan repayments shall be suspended during a period of military service, as permitted by Section 414(u)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code. A Member who has an outstanding loan balance from the Retirement System who is absent from employment with the City, and who has satisfied the requirements of Section 414(u) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be required to make loan repayments to the Retirement System during said periods of absence.

Sec. 11.5. Loan Balance

A Member's outstanding loan balance shall be considered a directed investment by the Member and interest payments shall be credited to the Member's Voluntary Employee Contribution Account (provided that the interest credited to the Member's Voluntary Employee Contribution Account shall be reduced appropriately to cover the administrative costs of the loan program and avoid negatively affecting the Employers' costs or the Retirement System's investment returns), and shall not be part of the Retirement System's net investment income or part of the Member's Voluntary Employee Contribution Account balance for the purpose of allocation of net investment income under the Retirement System.

Sec. 11.6. Default

In the event a Member defaults on a loan before the loan is repaid in full, the unpaid balance thereof will become due and payable and, to the extent that the outstanding amount is not repaid by the end of the calendar quarter which follows the calendar quarter in which the last payment was received, such amount shall be deemed to have been distributed to the Member for tax purposes, consistent with Section 72(p) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Sec. 11.7. Distribution

No distribution shall be made to a Member, former Member, Spouse or Beneficiary from the Retirement System until all outstanding loan balances and applicable accrued interest have been repaid or offset against amounts distributable to the individual from the Retirement System.

Sec. 11.8. Annual Report

The Retirement System shall include, in its annual report to all Members, an accounting of the Loan Program established by this Article 11, which contains the number and amount of loans made, the costs of administering the Loan Program maintained under this Component I, the amount of payments made including interest received by Component I of the Retirement System, the amount of loans outstanding, including any defaults or delinquencies, and an evaluation as to whether the interest charged in that Fiscal Year covered the costs of administering the Loan Program under Component I.

ARTICLE 12. LIMITATION ON BENEFITS AND CONTRIBUTIONS

Sec. 12.1. Compliance With Code Section 415(b) And Regulations

- (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Combined Plan Document, the defined benefit component of the Retirement System shall be administered in compliance with the provisions of Code Section 415(b) and regulations thereunder that are applicable to governmental plans.
- (2) The maximum annual benefit accrued by a Member during a “limitation year” (which shall be the Plan Year) and the maximum annual benefit payable under the Retirement System to a Member at any time within a Plan Year, when expressed as an annual benefit in the form of a straight life annuity (with no ancillary benefits), shall be equal to $160,000 (as such amount is adjusted pursuant to Code Section 415(d) for such Plan Year).
- (3) Notwithstanding the foregoing:
  - (a) if the benefit under the Retirement System is payable in any form other than a straight life annuity, the determination as to whether the limitation described in Section 12.1(2) has been satisfied shall be made, in accordance with the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, by adjusting such benefit to the Actuarially Equivalent straight life annuity beginning at the same time, in accordance with Section 12.1(8) or (9);
  - (b) if the benefit under the Retirement System commences before Age sixty-two, the determination of whether the limitation set forth in Section 12.1(2) (the “Dollar Limit”) has been satisfied shall be made, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, by reducing the Dollar Limit so that the Dollar Limit (as so reduced) is equal to an annual benefit payable in the form of a straight life annuity, commencing when such benefit under the Retirement System commences, which is Actuarially Equivalent to a benefit in the amount of the Dollar Limit commencing at Age sixty-two; provided, however, if the Retirement System has an immediately commencing straight life annuity commencing both at Age sixty-two and the age of benefit commencement, then the Dollar Limit (as so reduced) shall equal the lesser of (i) the amount determined under this Section 12.1(3)(b) without regard to this proviso, or (ii) the Dollar Limit multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the annual amount of the immediately commencing straight life annuity under the Retirement System and the denominator of which is the annual amount of the straight life annuity under the Retirement System, commencing at Age sixty-two; and
  - (c) if the benefit under the Retirement System commences after Age sixty-five, the determination of whether the Dollar Limit has been satisfied shall be made, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, by increasing the Dollar Limit so that the Dollar Limit (as so increased) is equal to an annual benefit payable in the form of a straight life annuity, commencing when the benefit under the Retirement System commences, which is Actuarially Equivalent to a benefit in the amount of the Dollar Limit commencing at Age sixty-five; provided, however, if the Retirement System has an immediately commencing straight life annuity commencing both at Age sixty-five and the Age of benefit commencement, the Dollar Limit (as so increased) shall equal the lesser of (i) the amount determined under this Section 12.1(3)(c) without regard to this proviso, or (ii) the Dollar Limit multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the annual amount of the immediately commencing straight life annuity under the Retirement System and the denominator of which is the annual amount of the immediately commencing straight life annuity under the Retirement System, commencing at Age sixty-five.

- (4) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 12.1, except as provided in Section 12.1(5), the maximum annual benefit specified in Section 12.1(2) above shall not apply to a particular Retirement System benefit if (a) the annual amount of such Retirement System benefit, together with the aggregate annual amount of any other pensions payable with respect to such Member under all other defined benefit plans maintained by an Employer, does not exceed $10,000 for the Plan Year or any prior Plan Year and (b) the Member was not at any time a participant in a defined contribution plan maintained by an Employer.
- (5) In the case of a Member who has less than ten years of participation in the Retirement System, the limitation set forth in Section 12.1(2) shall be such limitation (without regard to this Section 12.1(5)), multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of years of participation in the Retirement System (or parts thereof) credited to the Member and the denominator of which is ten. In the case of a Member who has less than ten years of Vesting Service, the limitations set forth in Paragraph (b) of Section 12.1(2) and in Section 12.1(4) shall be such limitations (determined without regard to this Section 12.1(5)) multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of years of Vesting Service, or parts thereof, credited to the Member and the denominator of which is ten.
- (6) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 12.1 to the contrary, if the annual benefit of a Member who has terminated employment with the Employer is limited pursuant to the limitations set forth in Section 12.1(2), such annual benefit shall be increased in accordance with the cost-of-living adjustments of Code Section 415(d).
- (7) For purposes of determining actuarial equivalence under Paragraph (b) or (c) of Section 12.1(3), the interest rate assumption shall be five percent (5%) and the mortality table used shall be the applicable mortality table specified by the Board.
- (8) The actuarially equivalent straight life annuity for purposes of adjusting any benefit payable in a form to which Code Section 417(e)(3) does not apply, as required by Paragraph (a) of Section 12.1(3), is equal to the greater of (a) the annual amount of the straight life annuity payable under the Retirement System commencing at the same annuity starting date as the form of benefit payable to the Member, or (b) the annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the same annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the form of benefit payable to the Member, computed using the interest rate and mortality assumptions set forth in Section 12.1(7).

- (9) The actuarially equivalent straight life annuity for purposes of adjusting any benefit payable in a form to which Code Section 417(e)(3) applies, as required by Paragraph (a) of Section 12.1(3), is equal to the greatest of (a) the annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the same annuity starting date that has the same Actuarial Equivalent present value as the form of benefit payable to the Member, (b) the annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the same annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the form of benefit payable to the Member, computed using a five and one-half percent (5.5%) interest rate assumption and the applicable mortality table specified by the Board, or (c) the annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the same annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the form of benefit payable to the Member, computed using the applicable interest rate and the applicable mortality table, both as specified by the Board, divided by 1.05.
- (10) For purposes of applying the limitations set forth in this Section 12.1, all qualified defined benefit plans (whether or not terminated) ever maintained by an Employer shall be treated as one defined benefit plan.
- (11) For purposes of this Section 12.1, the term “compensation” shall include those items of remuneration specified in Treasury Regulation § 1.415(c)-2(b) and shall exclude those items of remuneration specified in Treasury Regulation § 1.415(c)-2(c), taking into account the timing rules specified in Treasury Regulation § 1.415(c)-2(e), but shall not include any amount in excess of the limitation under Code Section 401(a)(17) in effect for the year. The term “compensation” as defined in the preceding sentence shall include any payments made to a Member by the later of (a) two and one-half months after the date of the Member’s severance from employment with an Employer or (b) the end of the limitation year that includes the date of the Member’s severance from employment with an Employer, provided that, absent a severance from employment, such payments would have been paid to the Member while the Member continued in employment with the Employer and are regular compensation for services performed during the Member’s regular working hours, compensation for services outside the Member’s regular working hours (such as overtime or shift differential pay), commissions, bonuses or other similar compensation.
- (12) This Section 12.1 shall be administered in conformity with the regulations issued by the Secretary of the Treasury interpreting Code Section 415 including, but not limited to, any regulation providing for the “grandfathering” of any benefit accrued prior to the effective date of such regulations or statutory provision.

Sec. 12.2. Compliance with Code Section 415(c) and Regulations

- (1) The “Annual Addition” with respect to a Member for a limitation year (which shall be the Plan Year) shall in no event exceed the lesser of:

- (a) $40,000 (adjusted as provided in Code Section 415(d)); or
  - (b) One hundred percent (100%) of the Member's compensation, as defined in Code Section 415(c)(3) and regulations issued thereunder, for the limitation year.
- (2) The Annual Addition with respect to a Member for a limitation year means the sum of his Voluntary Employee Contributions for such limitation year to the Retirement System, and the employer contributions, employee contributions and forfeitures allocated to his accounts under any other qualified defined contribution plan (whether or not terminated) maintained by an Employer, and the amounts described in Code Sections 415(1)(2) and 419A(d)(2) allocated to his account.
- (3) In the event the Annual Addition to the Retirement System on behalf of a Member would otherwise exceed the amount that may be applied for his benefit under the limitation contained in this Section 12.2, the limitation shall be satisfied by reducing the Member's Voluntary Employee Contributions to the extent necessary and distributing such amounts to the Member.

ARTICLE 13. RETIREMENT SYSTEM ADMINISTRATION

Sec. 13.1. Board of Trustees as Retirement System Administrator

- (1) The Retirement Board shall have the power and authority to manage and administer the Retirement System in accordance with the provisions of the Combined Plan Document.
- (2) The Retirement Board shall provide procedures for the processing and review of benefit claims, corrections of errors, and similar matters, as further described in Section 13.2.
- (3) The Retirement Board and the Retirement System shall not make any payment to active or retired Members or Beneficiaries other than payments that are required by the Retirement System as established by this Combined Plan Document. This prohibition applies to all payments that are not authorized by this Combined Plan Document, whether such payments are those commonly referred to as a “thirteenth check” or payments by any other name.

Sec. 13.2. Powers and Duties of Board

- (1) The Board shall have the following powers and duties:
  - (a) exclusive authority regarding the administration, management and operation of the Retirement System, including, but not limited to, the right to contract for office space, computer hardware and software, and human resource services (any or all of which may be obtained from the City), and to make rules and regulations with respect to the operation of the Retirement System not inconsistent with the terms of the Combined Plan Document and applicable law, and to amend or rescind such rules and regulations;
  - (b) to determine questions of law or fact that may arise as to the rights of any person claiming rights under the Retirement System;

  - (e) to perform ministerial functions, whether or not expressly authorized, which the Board may deem necessary or desirable in carrying out its duties under the Retirement System;
  - (f) except to the extent authority is vested in the Investment Committee, authority to employ, contract and pay for professional services including, but not limited to, actuarial, investment, legal, accounting, medical, and any other services that the Board considers necessary for the proper operation of the Retirement System;

- (g) except to the extent authority or responsibility is vested in the Investment Committee, to arrange for annual audits of the records and accounts of the Retirement System by a certified public accountant or by a firm of certified public accountants pursuant to generally accepted auditing standards;
- (h) to prepare an annual report for the Retirement System for each Fiscal Year in compliance with generally accepted accounting principles. The report shall contain information regarding the financial, actuarial, and other activities of the Retirement System during the Fiscal Year. The report shall also contain a review of the latest actuarial valuation of the Retirement System;
- (i) to maintain or cause to be maintained such separate funds and accounts as are required to be maintained under the provisions of Components I and II of the Combined Plan Document and such additional accounts as the Board deems necessary or expedient for the proper administration of the Retirement System and the administration and investment of the assets of the Retirement System. The Board shall maintain suitable records, data and information in connection with the performance of its functions, including, but not limited to, accurate and detailed accounts of all investments, receipts, disbursements, and other actions, including the proportionate interest therein and Accumulated Contributions of each Member who has made contributions to the Retirement System;
