4. The Debtors rights to contest the amounts of any Taxes and Fees on any grounds they deem appropriate are reserved and extend to the payment of Taxes and Fees relating to tax audits that have been completed, are in progress, or arise from prepetition periods.

5. The Debtors may seek additional relief from this Court in the future in the event that the Debtors subsequently determine that additional prepetition Taxes and Fees are owed by the Debtors.

6. The Debtors shall promptly provide notice to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors of any subsequently identified entities to which the Debtors owe Taxes and Fees and the amounts owed.

7. Nothing in the Motion or this Final Order shall be construed as impairing the Debtors' right to contest the validity, amount, or priority of any Taxes and Fees allegedly due or owing to any Taxing Authorities or the other Debtors, or any claim or lien against the Debtors and all Debtors' rights with respect thereto are hereby reserved.

8. Any and all payments made by the Debtors for which the Debtors' directors and officers may be liable shall only be paid to the extent that the director or officer's liability arises in connection with his or her capacity as a director or officer of the Debtors.

9. The Debtors' banks and financial institutions shall be, and are hereby authorized, when requested by the Debtors in their sole discretion, to process, honor, pay and, if necessary, reissue any and all checks or electronic fund transfers, including prepetition checks and electronic payment and transfer requests that the Debtors reissue or re-request postpetition, drawn on the Debtors' bank accounts relating to the prepetition Taxes and Fees, whether those checks were presented prior to or after the Petition Date, provided that sufficient funds are available in the applicable accounts to make the payments.

10. The Debtors' banks and financial institutions may rely on the representations of the Debtors with respect to whether any check or other transfer drawn or issued by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date should be honored pursuant to this Final Order, and any such bank or financial institution shall not have any liability to any party for relying on such representations by the Debtors as provided for in this Final Order.

11. Nothing in the Motion or this Final Order, or the Debtors' payment of any claims pursuant to this Final Order, shall be construed as: (i) an admission as to the validity of any claim against any Debtor or the existence of any lien against the Debtors' properties; (ii) a waiver of the Debtors' rights to dispute any claim or lien on any grounds; (iii) a promise to pay any claim; (iv) an implication or admission that any particular claim would constitute an allowed claim; (v) an assumption or rejection of any executory contract or unexpired lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (vi) a limitation on the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code to assume or reject any executory contract with any party subject to this Final Order. Nothing contained in this Final Order shall be deemed to increase, decrease, reclassify, elevate to an administrative expense status, or otherwise affect any claim to the extent it is not paid.

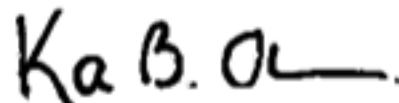

12. Neither the provisions contained herein, nor any actions or payments made by the Debtors pursuant to this Final Order, shall be deemed an admission as to the validity of any underlying obligation or a waiver of any rights the Debtors may have to dispute such obligation on any ground that applicable law permits.

13. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent applicable, this Final Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

14. The Debtors are hereby authorized to take such actions and to execute such documents as may be necessary to implement the relief granted by this Final Order.

15. The Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Final Order.
