INSTRUCTIONS FOR ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSE PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, there may be exceptions to these general rules.

ITEMS TO BE COMPLETED IN ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSE PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the federal judicial district where the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, District of Delaware), the bankruptcy Debtor's name, and the bankruptcy case number. If the creditor received a notice of the case from the bankruptcy court, all of this information is located at the top of the notice.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

1. Basis for Claim:

State the type of debt for which the administrative expense proof of claim is being filed. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card.

2. Last Four Digits of Any Number by Which Creditor Identifies Debtor:

State only the last four digits of the Debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the Debtor.

3. Total Amount of Administrative Expense Claim:

Fill in the applicable amounts of the entire administrative expense proof of claim. If interest or other charges in addition to the principal amount of the administrative expense proof of claim are included, check the appropriate place on the form and attach an itemization of interest and charges.

4. Brief Description of Claim

Describe the Administrative Expense Claim including, but not limited to, the actual and necessary costs and expenses of operating one or more of the Debtors' estates or any actual and necessary costs and expenses of operating one or more of the Debtors' businesses.

5. Credits:

An authorized signature on this administrative expense proof of claim serves as an acknowledgement that when calculating the amount of the administrative expense proof of claim, the creditor gave the Debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

6. Supporting Documents:

Attach redacted copies of any documents that show the debt exists and a lien secures the debt. You may also attach a summary in addition to the documents themselves. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit disclosing confidential health care information. Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning.

7. Date and Signature:

The individual completing this administrative expense proof of claim must sign and date it. FRBP 9011. If the claim is filed electronically, FRBP 5005(a)(2) authorizes courts to establish local rules specifying what constitutes a signature. If you sign this form, you declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information, and reasonable belief. Your signature is also a certification that the claim meets the requirements of FRBP 9011(b). Whether the claim is filed electronically or in person, if your name is on the signature line, you are responsible for the declaration. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. If the claim is filed by an authorized agent, provide both the name of the individual filing the claim and the name of the agent. If the authorized agent is a servicer, identify the corporate servicer as the company. Criminal penalties apply for making a false statement on a proof of claim.

DEFINITIONS

Name of Debtor and Case Number:

A complete list of Debtors with corresponding case numbers is listed above. You MUST fill in the specific Debtor against which your claim is being asserted and the case number of the Debtor's bankruptcy case. If you are asserting claims against more than one Debtor, you MUST file a separate administrative expense proof of claim for each Debtor.

Creditor

A creditor is the person, corporation, or other entity owed a debt by the Debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing.

Administrative Expense Claim

Any right to payment constituting a cost or expense of administration of any of the Reorganized Cases allowed under sections 503(b) and 507(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, any actual and necessary costs and expenses of operating one or more of the Debtors' Estates, any actual and necessary costs and expenses of operating one or more of the Debtors' businesses, and any fees or charges assessed against one or more of the Debtors' Estates, any actual and necessary costs and expenses of operating one or more of the Debtors' businesses, and any fees or charges assessed against one or more of the Estates of the Debtors under section 1930 of chapter 123 of title 28 of the United States Code.

Administrative Expense Creditor

An Administrative Expense Creditor is any person, corporation, or other entity to whom the Debtor owes a debt for an administrative expense.

Administrative Expense Proof of Claim

A form telling the Bankruptcy Court how much the Debtor owes a creditor for administrative expenses.

Submitting Administrative Expense Proof of Claim

Submit a signed original claim request with any attachments via United States mail, overnight courier service or hand delivery to:

Emerge Energy Claims Processing Center

INFORMATION

Acknowledgement of Filing a Claim

To receive acknowledgment of your filing, enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this administrative expense proof of claim or you may view your claim information by visiting the website of the Claims Agent (www.kcc11c.net/emergeenergy).

Offers to Purchase a Claim

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the Debtors. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the Debtors. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.
