Background

1. Each of the Debtors commenced with this Court voluntary cases under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) on either June 15, 2009, or February 18, 2010 (as applicable, the “Commencement Date”). Other than the cases of the additional Debtors filed on February 18, 2010, the Debtors’ chapter 11 cases have been consolidated for procedural purposes only and are being jointly administered pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”). A motion seeking joint administration of the chapter 11 cases of the subsequently filed debtors with the original debtors will be filed shortly. The Debtors are authorized to operate their business and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. On June 19, 2009, the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the “U.S. Trustee”) appointed the statutory committee of unsecured creditors pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Creditors’ Committee”). On September 28, 2009, Ralph R. Mabey was appointed examiner in these chapter 11 cases (the “Examiner”) and by order dated September 29, 2009, the Court approved the appointment of the Examiner.

Extended Stay’s Business

3. Extended Stay is the largest owner and operator of mid-price extended stay hotels in the United States, holding one of the most geographically diverse portfolios in the lodging sector with properties located across 44 states and two provinces in Canada. Extended Stay’s portfolio encompasses over 666 properties, consisting of hotels directly owned or leased by Extended Stay or one of its affiliates. Extended Stay currently operates five hotel brands: (i) Crossland Economy Studios, (ii) Extended Stay America, (iii) Extended Stay Deluxe, (iv)

Homestead Studio Suites, and (v) StudioPLUS Deluxe Studios, each designed to appeal to value-conscious customers at different price points in their respective markets, and offering Extended Stay guests a range of amenities and services.

4. Extended Stay's business model is a hybrid between a hotel and an apartment, as it provides value-conscious guests seeking longer-term accommodations with an affordable, attractive alternative to traditional hotels and apartments. Extended Stay achieves lower operating costs than traditional hotels, which provide higher service levels such as room service and daily maid service, by eliminating these services and other amenities in exchange for a lower per night price and a fully equipped kitchen, cable TV, and wireless internet access in each of its available rooms, in addition to on site laundry facilities. Typical Extended Stay guests include government and business travelers, people on temporary work assignments or training programs, individuals relocating or purchasing a home and individuals with other short-term housing needs.

5. All Extended Stay hotels are managed by HVM L.L.C. ("HVM"), an entity that is affiliated with, but not owned by, the Extended Stay family of companies. HVM, on behalf of Extended Stay, pays all property level expenses of the hotels, contracts with service providers and purchases all goods and materials utilized in the operation of the business. HVM employs approximately 9,000 employees in connection with the operation of the hotels at any given point in time.

Jurisdiction and Venue

6. This Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

The Plan of Reorganization

7. Since the Commencement Date, negotiations regarding a chapter 11 plan of reorganization have been ongoing. The Debtors have participated in numerous discussions and negotiations with various parties in interest, regarding, among other things, the de-leveraging of the Debtors' debt structure, the business and economic points of a proposed reorganization and the mechanics and structure of the terms of a proposed plan. The Debtors set forth on "Exhibit B" annexed hereto (the "Plan Debtors") and Centerbridge Partners, L.P. ("Centerbridge") and Paulson & Co. Inc. ("Paulson," together with Centerbridge, the "Investors") have agreed on the terms of a proposed plan of reorganization (the "Plan") and the terms of an Investment and Standby Purchase Agreement (the "Investment Agreement"), pursuant to which the Investors would provide a $450 million cash infusion to the reorganized Debtors, consisting of a $225 million equity investment in the Debtors as well as a $225 million rights offering that is fully backstopped by the Investors.<sup>2</sup>

8. Concurrently with this Motion, the Debtors have filed their Motion Pursuant to Sections 105 and 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code Authorizing the Debtors to Enter into Investment and Standby Purchase Agreement (the "Investment Agreement Approval Motion") and the proposed Plan. The filing of the Plan represents a significant milestone in the Plan Debtors' emergence from chapter 11 and creates an immediate and significant benefit to the Debtors and their creditors by kicking off a process that might result in competitive bidding and additional proposals from other financial sponsors.

<sup>2</sup> For further information regarding the terms of the Investment Agreement, please refer to the Debtors' Motion Pursuant to Sections 105 and 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code Authorizing the Debtors to Enter into Investment and Standby Purchase Agreement, filed contemporaneously herewith.

Relief Requested

9. The Court has the authority to fix the time within which the Plan Debtors must file a proposed disclosure statement with respect to the Plan (the “Disclosure Statement”), under Bankruptcy Rule 3016(b), which provides: “In a chapter 9 or 11 case, a disclosure statement under § 1125 or evidence showing compliance with § 1126(b) of the Code shall be filed with the plan or within a time fixed by the court.” Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3016(b) (emphasis added).

10. By this Motion, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3016(b), the Debtors respectfully request an extension of the time to file the Disclosure Statement through and including March 17, 2010, without prejudice to the Debtors’ right to request additional time should it become necessary.

The Time to File a Disclosure Statement with Respect to the Plan Should be Extended

11. Over the past few months, the Debtors have been facilitating the plan process by engaging in discussions and negotiations with the Investors, as well as conducting meetings and being responsive to comprehensive diligence requests by other parties in interest. In addition to operating their business and addressing the concerns of numerous parties in interest resulting from the commencement of these chapter 11 cases (including the significant amount of time spent addressing the documents requests and cooperating with the Examiner and his professionals); the Debtors and their retained professionals have devoted considerable time, energy and resources to the preparation of a comprehensive Plan and Disclosure Statement.

12. As a result of the intense focus and efforts of the Debtors and their professionals, the Plan has been drafted, negotiated and, as stated above, was filed contemporaneously herewith, well in advance of the expiration of the Debtors' Exclusive Periods (as hereafter defined).<sup>3</sup>

13. In addition to the preparation of the Plan, the Debtors, their attorneys Weil, Gotshal & Manges, LLP, and their financial advisor Lazard Freres & Co. LLC, have been expending time preparing the Disclosure Statement and the relevant schedules thereto. However, given the complicated nature of the Debtors' debt structure and because the Debtors' efforts and resources have been consumed with finalizing the Investment Agreement and the Plan and addressing all of the issues associated therewith, the Debtors have not had a sufficient amount of time to complete the Disclosure Statement.

14. The Debtors are proceeding as expeditiously as possible with the completion of the Disclosure Statement and intend to file it with the Court promptly upon its completion. Although the Debtors originally anticipated that the Disclosure Statement would be filed concurrently with the Plan, the Debtors have realized that, in view of the scope and complexity of the proposed Plan and the time and resources devoted to the completion of the Plan, this timetable was unrealistic. Moreover, it is likely that the Investors will make some non-substantive changes to the structure of the reorganized Plan Debtors, which will be fully described in the Disclosure Statement. The Debtors have decided to file the Plan without the Disclosure Statement because the Debtors believe that doing so will expedite the conclusion of the cases and facilitate the process by which other investors may submit competitive proposals. In addition, the Debtors believe that the process of approval of the Disclosure Statement will be more efficient if the Debtors and the Investors have additional time to discuss, review and

<sup>3</sup> By order dated January 14, 2010, the Court extended the periods during which the Debtors have the exclusive right to file a chapter 11 plan and during which the Debtors may solicit acceptances thereof (collectively, the "Exclusive Periods") through and including April 2, 2010 and May 31, 2010, respectively [Docket No. 722].

finalize the Disclosure Statement. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that an extension of time to file the Disclosure Statement is necessary and appropriate.

15. The Debtors, therefore, respectfully request that the Court set March 17, 2010 as the date by which by which the Debtors must file the Disclosure Statement, without prejudice to the rights of the Debtors to request a further extension of time if the facts and circumstances warrant. Given the complexity of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, the Debtors submit that there is good and sufficient cause to grant the Debtors' request.

Notice

16. No trustee has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors have served notice of this Motion in accordance with the procedures set forth in the order entered on July 17, 2009 governing case management and administrative procedures for these cases [Docket No. 176] on (i) the U.S. Trustee; (ii) the attorneys for the Creditors' Committee; (iii) the attorneys for the Special Servicer and the Successor Trustee; and (iv) all parties who have requested notice in these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors submit that no other or further notice need be provided.

17. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by the Debtors to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter the Proposed Order annexed hereto as "Exhibit C" and grant the Debtors such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
