the best interests of the Debtors' estates, their creditors, and other parties in interest; and this Court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Motion and opportunity for a hearing on the Motion were appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the "Hearing"); and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the Hearing establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before this Court; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is granted on a final basis as set forth herein.
2. The Debtors are hereby authorized but not required to pay, in their sole discretion and without further order of this Court, the Critical Vendor Claims (inclusive of the Section 503(b)(9) Claims), provided that such payments shall not exceed $3,500,000 in the aggregate (inclusive of the amounts in the Interim Cap) absent further order of this Court. The Debtors are further authorized, but not directed, in their sole discretion, to settle and resolve all or some of the Prepetition Trade Claims for less than their face amount without further notice or hearing. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as requiring the Debtors to make a payment to a particular creditor or claimant. The Debtors shall provide a copy of this Order to any Prepetition Trade Claimant to whom a payment is made pursuant to this Order.
3. The Debtors are further authorized in their sole discretion, to undertake appropriate efforts to enter into Trade Agreements with the Prepetition Trade Claimants if the Debtors determine, in their discretion, that such an agreement is necessary to the Debtors' operations; provided, however, that the absence of such written verification or the Debtors' failure to request such an acknowledgement will not limit the Debtors' rights hereunder; provided further, however, that the Debtors' inability to obtain a commitment to provide Customary Trade Terms shall not preclude the Debtors from paying certain Prepetition Trade Claims if the Debtors determine, in the reasonable exercise of their business judgment, that payment of such Prepetition Trade Claims is nevertheless necessary to the Debtors' operations. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as requiring the Debtors to make a payment to a particular creditor or claimant.

4. Upon the payment of the Prepetition Trade Claim, the Debtors shall be deemed to have satisfied any and all prepetition claims held by the Critical Vendor and any and all liens, including, without limitation, mechanic's, shipper's and materialman's liens, against property of the Debtors for unpaid prepetition obligations will automatically be released and terminated without any further action on the part of the Debtors or Critical Vendors.

5. If any party accepts payment hereunder for a prepetition obligation of the Debtors premised on compliance with the Customary Trade Terms, and thereafter fails to comply with the Customary Trade Terms, or other such terms as agreed to by the Debtors, then the Debtors reserve all rights and remedies, including to assert on notice and a hearing: (a) to deem, in the Debtors' sole discretion, any payment on account of a prepetition claim received by such party an improper postpetition transfer and, therefore, immediately recoverable in cash upon written request by the Debtors; provided, that such party shall be provided reasonable opportunity to contest such request; (b) upon recovery by the Debtors, any prepetition claim of such party shall be reinstated as if the payment had not been made; and (c) if there exists an outstanding postpetition balance due from the Debtors to such party, the Debtors may elect to recharacterize and apply any payment made pursuant to the relief requested by the Motion to such outstanding postpetition balance and such supplier or vendor will be required to repay to the Debtors such paid amounts that exceed the postpetition obligations then outstanding, without the right of any setoffs, claims, provisions for payment of any claims, or otherwise.

6. If any Prepetition Trade Claimant accepts payment on account of a prepetition obligation of the Debtors and thereafter does not continue to provide goods or services to the Debtors on Customary Trade Terms (or such other terms as are agreed to by the parties, regardless of whether the parties have entered into a Trade Agreement), the Debtors reserve all rights and remedies, including to assert on notice and a hearing that such payments made constitute avoidable postpetition transfers pursuant to section 549 of the Bankruptcy Code and, as such, are recoverable by the Debtors.

7. The Banks are authorized, when requested by the Debtors, in the Debtors' discretion, to honor and process checks or electronic fund transfers drawn on the Debtors' bank accounts to pay prepetition obligations authorized to be paid hereunder, whether such checks or other requests were submitted prior to, or after, the Petition Date, provided that sufficient funds are available in the applicable bank accounts to make such payments. The Banks may rely on the representations of the Debtors with respect to whether any check or other transfer drawn or issued by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date should be honored pursuant to this Order, and any such Bank shall not have any liability to any party for relying on such representations by the Debtors, as provided for in this Order.

8. The Debtors are authorized to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of the chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with any Prepetition Trade Claims referenced herein.

9. For the avoidance of doubt, the authorization granted hereby to pay the Prepetition Trade Claims shall not create any obligation on the part of the Debtors or their officers, directors, attorneys, or agents to pay the Prepetition Trade Claims.

10. Nothing herein shall prejudice the Debtors' rights to request additional authority to pay Prepetition Trade Claims.

11. Nothing in this Order nor any actions taken hereunder: (a) is intended or shall be deemed to constitute an assumption of any agreement pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code or an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors or their estates; (b) shall impair, prejudice, waive, or otherwise affect the rights of the Debtors or their estates to contest the validity, priority, or amount of any claim against the Debtors or their estates; (c) shall impair, prejudice, waive, or otherwise affect the rights of the Debtors or their estates with respect to any and all claims or causes of action against any third party; (d) shall be construed as a promise to pay a claim or continue any applicable program postpetition, which decision shall be in the discretion of the Debtors; or (e) shall create, or is intended to create, any rights in favor of, or enhance the status of any claim held by, any person.

12. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) or any other procedural rule, this Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof and notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient pursuant to the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the Local Rules.

13. The Debtors are authorized and empowered to take all actions necessary to implement the relief granted in this Order.

14. This Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, or enforcement of this Order.
