12. As of the date hereof, PwC has been paid $1,862,771.35 in connection with post-petition services rendered to the Debtor, as requested in the Monthly Fee Applications, inclusive the $423,116.00 pre-petition retainer balance held by PwC as of the Petition Date. <sup>3</sup> This payment includes application of the $423,116 pre-petition retainer balance held by PwC as of the Petition Date.

RELIEF REQUESTED

13. By this Application, and in accordance with the Interim Compensation Order, PwC requests the entry of an order granting allowance on a final basis and payment, to the extent not previously paid, in the amount of $2,019,195.85, which is equal to the sum of (a) 100% of the $2,019,021.30 of total compensation earned by PwC during the Final Application Period for its services to the Debtor; and (b) 100% of the $174.55 of necessary expenses incurred by PwC during the Final Application Period in connection with its services to the Debtor.

SUMMARY OF SERVICES RENDERED BY PWC

14. The services rendered by PwC during the Final Application Period are categorized as set forth in Exhibit A and in the summary cover sheet submitted with this Application. The professionals who provided services to the Debtor during the Final Application Period are also identified, by billing category and project category, respectively, in Exhibit B and Exhibit C and in the summary cover sheet submitted with this Application. PwC's professionals expended a total of 2,136.80 hours in connection with this Chapter 11 Case during the Final Application Period, which resulted in a blended hourly billing rate for professionals of approximately $944.88. All services for which PwC is requesting compensation were performed for or on behalf of the Debtor.

15. Detailed statements of the time expended and compensation earned by PwC during the Final Application Period are attached to the Monthly Fee Applications. The Monthly Fee Applications also each contained a detailed summary of the services performed by PwC during the Final Application Period. The following is a brief summary of the service performed by PwC during the Final Application Period:<sup>4</sup>

<sup>4</sup> In addition to the hours and compensation summarized below, PwC professionals may also have incurred non-working travel time in connection with its performance of financial advisory services to the Debtor. Notwithstanding Local Rule 2016-2(d)(ix), which allows professionals to request compensation for non-working travel at a rate of no

(a) Financial Advisory Services. Hours: 2,081.70, Fees: $1,996,286.30

Pursuant to the Engagement Letter and as more fully summarized in the Monthly Fee Applications and detailed in the exhibit thereto, during the Final Application Period, PwC professionals provided certain financial advisory services to the Debtor pursuant to the Engagement Letter including, without limitation, cash and liquidity management services, strategic alternative analyses, and bankruptcy advisory services.

(b) Bankruptcy Compliance Services. Hours: 55.10, Fees: $22,735.00

During the Final Application Period, PwC professionals providing services to the Debtor consulted with internal PwC bankruptcy retention and billing advisors to ensure compliance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Bankruptcy Rules and the Interim Compensation Order. The services provided by these bankruptcy retention and billing advisors included, but was not limited to: assistance with preparation of the bankruptcy retention documents, assistance with the disinterestedness disclosures, and assistance with preparation of fee applications. All of the services are incremental to the normal billing procedures by PwC for its non-bankruptcy clients.

16. As set forth above, detailed descriptions of these services, the amount of fees incurred, and the amount of hours spent providing such services throughout the Final Application Period are summarized and detailed in the Monthly Fee Applications. All entries itemized in PwC's time records (i) are categorized in accordance with the appropriate project categories, (ii) include a description of each activity or service that each individual performed, and (iii) identify the number of hours (in increments of one-tenth of an hour) spent by each individual providing the services. However, in some instances, services overlap between project categories. Thus, some services may appear under more than one project category; however, in no instance is a specific time entry recorded or charged more than once.

more than 50% of regular hourly rates, PwC has voluntarily decided not to request compensation from the Debtor related to non-working travel incurred by PwC. Accordingly, any non-working travel time and related compensation incurred by PwC during the Application Period is excluded from this Application.

SUMMARY OF EXPENSES INCURRED

17. As summarized on Exhibit D hereto, PwC incurred $174.55 in expenses in connection with providing professional services during the Final Application Period, including expenses in the following categories: transportation and working meals. PwC did not charge for photocopying, facsimile or other document production expenses. The expenses requested herein are expenses, which are customarily charged to PwC's clients outside of bankruptcy. The expenses incurred in providing professional services to the Debtors were actual, reasonable, and necessary.<sup>5</sup>

ALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION

18. The professional time expended by PwC, the value of said time in fees, and the value of the actual expenses incurred by the firm were actual, reasonable, and necessary. In all respects, PwC's fees and expenses meet the standards for allowance under Bankruptcy Code section 330, as well as the standards that govern the review and allowance of bankruptcy professionals' fees. See, e.g., In re Busy Beaver Bldg. Ctrs., Inc., 19 F.3d 833 (3d Cir. 1994).

19. Bankruptcy Code section 331 provides for interim compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of Bankruptcy Code section 330 to govern the Court's award of such compensation. See 11 U.S.C. § 331. Bankruptcy Code section 330 provides that a court may award a professional employed under Bankruptcy Code section 327 the "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered . . . and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1)(A)-(B). Bankruptcy Code section 330 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

<sup>5</sup> PwC's standard practice is to treat certain expenses as having been incurred when such obligations are recorded and reflected as payable in PwC's accounting system. Accordingly, reimbursement for certain disbursements incurred during the Application Period may still be pending submission and will be requested in future Application Periods.

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded . . . the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including –

(A) the time spent on such services;

(B) the rates charged for such services;

(C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;

(D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed

(E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and

(F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

20. The reasonable value of the services rendered by PwC for the Final Application Period as financial advisor to the Debtor in this Chapter 11 Case is $2,019,021.30. The hourly rates reflected on Exhibit B and Exhibit C are PwC's customary rates for work of this nature. The professional services performed by PwC were in the best interests of the Debtor and its estate and other parties in interest. Compensation for the foregoing services as requested is commensurate with the complexity, importance, and time-sensitive nature of the problems, issues, or tasks involved. The professional services were performed with expedition and in an efficient manner.

21. In accordance with section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, the fees requested are reasonable in light of factors including, among other things, (a) the complexity of this Chapter 11 Case, (b) the time expended, (c) the nature and extent of the services rendered, (d) the value of such services, and (e) the costs of comparable services other than in a case under this title. Accordingly, allowance and payment of the compensation for professional services and reimbursement of expenses sought herein is warranted.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

22. Although PwC has made every effort to include all fees and expenses incurred during the Final Application Period in this Application, some fees and expenses may inadvertently be omitted from this Application, including as a result of accounting and processing delays in the Final Application Period. PwC reserves the right to submit an amended or supplemental application to the Court for allowance of such fees and expenses not included herein. Any subsequent fee application will be filed in accordance with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and the Interim Compensation Order.

CERTIFICATION OF COMPLIANCE AND WAIVER

23. To the best of its knowledge, PwC believes that this Application, together with the exhibits attached hereto, and the description of services set forth herein of work performed are in compliance with the requirements of the Retention Order. To the extent that this Application does not comply in all respects with those requirements, PwC believes that such deviations are not material and respectfully requests that such requirements be waived.

NOTICE

24. In accordance with the Interim Compensation Order, this Application will be served upon the Notice Parties (as defined in the Interim Compensation Order). Notice of this Application will be served upon all parties requesting notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. In light of the nature of the relief requested, PwC submits that no other or further notice is necessary.

WHEREFORE, PwC requests (i) the entry of an order granting allowance on a final basis and payment, to the extent not previously paid, in the amount of $2,019,195.85, which is equal to the sum of (a) 100% of the $2,019,021.30 of total compensation earned by PwC during the Final Application Period for its services to the Debtor; and (b) 100% of the $174.55 of necessary expenses incurred by PwC during the Final Application Period in connection with its services to the Debtor; and (ii) such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
