ORIGINAL COMPLAINT

This matter concerns grave accounts of self-dealing and deception and seeks redress for violation of federal law including, but not limited to, violations of the Advisers Act of 1940, and other state causes of action.

I.

PARTIES

1. Plaintiff, The Dugaboy Investment Trust (“Plaintiff”), is a Delaware perpetual non-revocable trust with its principal place of business in Dallas County, Texas.

2. Defendant Highland Capital Management LP (“Highland” or “HCMLP”) is a Delaware limited partnership, whose principal place of business is in Dallas, Texas.

II.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. Subject matter jurisdiction is proper in this court under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, and under 28 U.S.C. § 1334 because the suit arises out of post-petition acts or omissions of the debtor and certain of its principals.

4. This Court has general personal jurisdiction over Defendant Highland Capital Management, LP, because it has continuously done business in this state, and the causes of action arise from the acts or omissions committed in this state.

5. Venue is proper in this Court because a substantial number of the acts or omissions giving rise to this lawsuit and the causes of action asserted herein occurred in Dallas County.

III.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

6. HCMLP is a registered investment advisor (“RIA”) subject to the regulations of the Securities Exchange Commission.

7. HCMLP is both the advisor of and investor in Highland Multi Strategy Credit Fund, LP (“Multistrat”), a Delaware limited partnership. Highland Multi Strategy Credit Fund GP, L.P., itself a Delaware limited partnership, is the general partner of Multistrat, and HCMLP is the sole member of the general partner of Highland Multi Strategy Credit Fund GP, L.P.

8. HCMLP’s advisory capacity is governed, or at all relevant times was governed, by the Third Amended and Restated Investment Management Agreement, effective November 1, 2013 (the “IMA”).

9. The purpose of Multistrat as a vehicle was stated as such: “The Fund's investment objective is to seek attractive risk-adjusted returns, consistent with the preservation of capital and prudent investment management.”

10. The Confidential Private Placement Memorandum for Multistrat disclosed that “[t]he Investment Manager is registered as an investment adviser with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the U.S. Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the ‘Advisers Act’).

Each prospective investor will be required to make a representation to indicate that it is a 'qualified client' as defined in the Advisers Act.”

11. Because of these agreements and roles as the General Partner and RIA, Highland owed contractual and fiduciary duties to Plaintiff, as an investor in Multistrat.

12. James Seery, the principal, CEO, and CRO of HCMLP in its capacity as a debtor, admitted under oath that HCMLP owes fiduciary duties to the investors of the funds HCMLP manages—which would include Multistrat—and therefore, has admitted under oath that HCMLP and its governed persons owe fiduciary duties to the investors in Multistrat, which includes Plaintiff, the Charitable DAF Fund, Ltd., and Highland Capital Management Services, Inc., among others.

13. As an investment vehicle advised at all times and controlled at all times by HCMLP, Multistrat purchased and owned a pool of viaticals—investments in life insurance policies keyed to the lives of other persons. When a person passes away, the life insurance money is paid to the owner of the policy—in this case, Multistrat.

14. The notional value of the viatical pool was approximately $145 million.

15. In or around August 2020, HCMLP sold the entire viatical pool for approximately $35,000,000 – less than one quarter of the insured value.

16. The policies insured people aged 90 on average, suggesting that the policies were highly likely to pay off in the ensuing few years given the age and life expectancies of the insureds, as well as considering the actuarial impact of the COVID pandemic.

17. In the spring of 2020, Multistrat raised funds specifically for the purpose of paying the premiums on the viatical pool—amounts raised, borrowing availability, and liquid securities provided enough cash to pay the premiums. But HCMLP did not pursue this path as promised.

Instead, it sold the assets. To this day it is unclear why the policies were sold, and why, just prior to a planned mediation.

18. Furthermore, the process of selling was severely flawed. For example, the health assessments used to determine the likelihood and timeline for the payout were two years old. HCMLP did not cause new, up-to-date health assessments to be performed, and instead was content to rely on stale information or worse, no information at all.

19. Furthermore, HCMLP made no effort to adjust the projected life expectancies due to the increasing age of the insureds during a process that stretched over seven months, nor for the potential impact of COVID on people over the age of 90, which would have impacted the price..

20. Equally troubling is that Multistrat obtained the funds to pay the premiums from another investor—yet, it apparently did not use the funds for that purpose.

21. HCMLP apparently used the proceeds of the sale to pay itself, notwithstanding the fact that there were redeemed interests waiting to be paid—interests to whom HCMLP also owed fiduciary duties.

22. In short, HCMLP caused Multistrat to sell the viatical pool at a substantially discounted amount to curry favor with the brokers and buyers in the marketplace for no apparent benefit to Multistrat’s investors or the debtor’s estate.

III.

CAUSES OF ACTION

First Cause of Action Breach of Fiduciary Duty

23. Plaintiff incorporates the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth herein.

24. As an RIA, HCMLP is subject to the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

25. The contracts set forth above—the subscription agreement and the IMA—impose and incorporate the duties and obligations of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

26. Under this federal law, an investment adviser is a fiduciary.<sup>1</sup> This includes a duty of care, a duty of loyalty, and a duty to refrain from engaging in transactions in which it is not a disinterested person.

27. The duty of loyalty imposed by the Advisers Act of 1940 is not specifically defined in the Advisers Act or in Commission rules, but reflects a Congressional recognition “of the delicate fiduciary nature of an investment advisory relationship” as well as a Congressional intent to “eliminate, or at least to expose, all conflicts of interest which might incline an investment adviser—consciously or unconsciously—to render advice which was not disinterested.”

28. To meet its duty of loyalty, an adviser must make full and fair disclosure to its clients of all material facts relating to the advisory relationship, including disclosing transactions in which the advisor has an interest, and to disclose all pertinent facts of a transaction that could affect the client or the client’s interest.<sup>2</sup> In order for disclosure to be full and fair, it should be sufficiently specific so that a client is able to understand the material fact or conflict of interest and make an informed decision whether to provide consent.

<sup>1</sup> SEC v. Capital Gains Research Bureau, Inc., 375 U.S. 180, 194 (1963). Santa Fe Indus. v. Green, 430 U.S. 462, 471, n.11 (1977) (in discussing SEC v. Capital Gains, stating that the Supreme Court’s reference to fraud in the “equitable” sense of the term was “premised on its recognition that Congress intended the Investment Advisers Act to establish federal fiduciary standards for investment advisers”); Investment Advisers Act Release No. 3060 (July 28, 2010) (“Under the Advisers Act, an adviser is a fiduciary whose duty is to serve the best interests of its clients, which includes an obligation not to subrogate clients’ interests to its own,” citing Proxy Voting by Investment Advisers, Investment Advisers Act Release No. IA2106 (Jan. 31, 2003) (“Investment Advisers Act Release 2106”)).

<sup>2</sup> SEC v. Capital Gains, supra, at 200 (“Failure to disclose material facts must be deemed fraud or deceit within its intended meaning.”). Investment Advisers Act Release 3060, supra, footnote 15 (“as a fiduciary, an adviser has an ongoing obligation to inform its clients of any material information that could affect the advisory relationship”); see also General Instruction 3 to Part 2 of Form ADV (“Under federal and state law, you are a fiduciary and must make full disclosure to your clients of all material facts relating to the advisory relationship.”).

29. This fiduciary duty also requires an adviser “to adopt the principal’s goals, objectives, or ends.” This means the adviser must, at all times, serve the best interest of its client and not subordinate its client’s interest to its own. In other words, the investment adviser cannot place its own interests ahead of the interests of its client and must at all times act for the interests of its investors.<sup>3</sup>

30. Here, the goals of Multistrat included “to seek attractive risk adjusted returns, consistent with the preservation of capital and prudent investment management.”

31. The duty of care includes, among other things: (i) the duty to provide advice that is in the best interest of the client, (ii) the duty to seek best execution of a client’s transactions where the adviser has the responsibility to select broker-dealers to execute client trades, and (iii) the duty to provide advice and monitoring over the course of the relationship.

32. These fiduciary duties are unwaivable, and any agreement made in derogation of the obligations under the Advisers Act is void.

33. HCMLP’s CEO testified under oath that he and HCMLP were aware of these duties and had to comply with them.

34. Section 204 of the Advisers Act requires HCMLP to carry written policies and procedures that must be followed in order to adhere to its federal obligations.

35. Section 206 of the Advisers Act prohibits transactions by an adviser that were accomplished via a “deceit” on a client or prospective client, e.g., by concealing the role and interest the adviser has in the transaction, or via engaging in a course of conduct that has a tendency to mislead a client or which is manipulative.

36. These breaches include, but are not limited to (1) selling the viatical pool at a distressed price when it was not in distress and there was no need for Multistrat to sell; (2) concealing the information about the transaction from the Plaintiff; (3) failing to advise the Plaintiff of the opportunity to purchase the viatical pool—especially when it knew the Plaintiff had an interest in the pool and had the means of purchasing it for more cash than $35 million; (4) concealing the purpose behind the sale of the viatical pool and the conflicts of interest that inhere in the transaction; (5) causing the viatical pool to be sold in a manner that violated the rights of the Plaintiff as an investor in Multistrat (e.g., by failing to conduct an auction, obtaining competitive bids, and taking the pool to market); and (6) utilizing the sale proceeds for its own ends—namely, to enrich itself.

37. The Advisors Act declares any contract that was made in violation of its provisions or regulations, or any contract that has been performed in violation of the Advisors Act, void.

38. The Advisors Act created a private right of action to void unlawful agreements and acts and to seek such equitable relief as accompanies such claims.

39. Texas law allows a fiduciary plaintiff to seek damages for breaches of fiduciary duty and to seek disgorgement of all ill-gotten gains obtained by a fiduciary.

40. Plaintiff has been damaged due to the breaches of fiduciary duty outlined herein, and it is entitled to recover damages, punitive damages, and attorneys' fees.

41. To the extent this claim must be brought as a derivative action, it is plain that the demand requirement under Delaware law could not be met because serving a demand on Highland or to sue Highland would have been futile.

Second Cause of Action
Breach of Contract

42. Plaintiff incorporates the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth herein.

43. The contracts set forth above—the subscription agreement and the IMA—impose a duty of prudent investment management for the benefit of the investors in Multistrat and incorporate the duties and obligations of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

44. The violations set forth above constitute a breach of each or both of these agreements.

45. These breaches include, but are not limited to (1) selling the viatical pool at a distressed price when it was not in distress and there was no need for Multistrat to sell; (2) concealing the information about the transaction from the Plaintiff; (3) failing to advise the Plaintiff of the opportunity to purchase the viatical pool—especially when it knew the Plaintiff had an interest in the pool and had the means of purchasing it for more cash than $35 million; (4) concealing the purpose behind the sale of the viatical pool and the conflicts of interest that inhere in the transaction; (5) causing the viatical pool to be sold in a manner that violated the rights of the Plaintiff as an investor in Multistrat (e.g., by failing to conduct an auction, obtaining competitive bids, and taking the pool to market); and (6) utilizing the sale proceeds for its own ends—namely, to enrich itself.

46. Plaintiff has been damaged by the breaches of contract outlined herein.

47. Plaintiff is entitled to recover damages and attorneys' fees.

JURY DEMAND AND PRAYER

48. Plaintiff demands trial by jury.

49. Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment and an order:

- Disgorging all ill-gotten gains in an amount to be determined at trial;

- Voiding the IMA agreements herein with HCMLP pursuant to the Advisers Act;
- Awarding damages in an amount to be determined at trial;
- Awarding punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial;
- Awarding attorneys' fees and costs in an amount to be determined at trial;
- Awarding all interim and final relief to which Plaintiff is legally or equitably entitled under the facts and circumstances raised herein.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

- I.(a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.
- (b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)
- (c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".
- II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.Cv.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.
 United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here. United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.
 Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.
 Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; NOTE: federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)
- III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.
- IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If there are multiple nature of suit codes associated with the case, pick the nature of suit code that is most applicable. Click here for: Nature of Suit Code Descriptions.
- V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.
 Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.
 Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441.
 Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.
 Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.
 Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.
 Multidistrict Litigation – Transfer. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407.
 Multidistrict Litigation – Direct File. (8) Check this box when a multidistrict case is filed in the same district as the Master MDL docket.
PLEASE NOTE THAT THERE IS NOT AN ORIGIN CODE 7. Origin Code 7 was used for historical records and is no longer relevant due to changes in statute.
- VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553 Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service.
- VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.
 Demand. In this space enter the actual dollar amount being demanded or indicate other demand, such as a preliminary injunction.
 Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.
- VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related cases, if any. If a related case exists, whether pending or closed, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases. A case is related to this filing if the case: 1) involves some or all of the same parties and is based on the same or similar claim; 2) involves the same property, transaction, or event; 3) involves substantially similar issues of law and fact; and/or 4) involves the same estate in a bankruptcy appeal.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.

Seery, Jr., the Debtor’s Chief Executive Officer and Chief Restructuring Officer and a member of the Board of Directors of Strand Advisors, Inc. (“Strand”), the Debtor’s general partner; (ii) John S. Dubel, a member of the Board of Strand; (iii) Marc Tauber, a Vice President at Aon Financial Services; and (iv) Robert Jason Post, the Chief Compliance Officer of NexPoint Advisors, LP (collectively, the “Witnesses”); (c) the credibility of the Witnesses; and (d) the Voting Certifications.

NOW, THEREFORE, after due deliberation thereon and good cause appearing therefor, the Bankruptcy Court hereby makes and issues the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

<sup>3</sup> Unless otherwise indicated, use of the term “filed” herein refers also to the service of the applicable document filed on the docket in this Chapter 11 Case, as applicable.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. The findings and conclusions set forth herein, together with the findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth in the record during the Confirmation Hearing, constitute the Bankruptcy Court’s findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 52, made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 7052 and 9014. To the extent any of the following findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent that any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such.

2. Introduction and Summary of the Plan. Prior to addressing the specific requirements under the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules with respect to the confirmation of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court believes it would be useful to first provide the following background of the Debtor’s Chapter 11 Case, the parties involved therewith, and some of the major events that have transpired culminating in the filing and solicitation of the Plan of this very unusual case. Before the Bankruptcy Court is the Debtor’s Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P., filed on November 24, 2020, as modified on January 22, 2021 and again on February 1, 2021. The parties have repeatedly referred to the Plan as an “asset monetization plan” because it involves the orderly wind-down of the Debtor’s estate, including the sale of assets and certain of its funds over time, with the Reorganized Debtor continuing to manage certain other funds, subject to the oversight of the Claimant Trust Oversight Board. The Plan provides for a Claimant Trust to, among other things, manage and monetize the Claimant Trust Assets for the benefit of the Debtor’s economic stakeholders. The Claimant Trustee is responsible for this process, among other duties specified in the Plan’s Claimant Trust Agreement. There is also anticipated to be a Litigation Sub-trust established for the purpose of pursuing certain avoidance or other causes of action for the benefit of the Debtor’s economic constituents.

3. Confirmation Requirements Satisfied. The Plan is supported by the Committee and all claimants with Convenience Claims (i.e., general unsecured claims under $1 million) who voted in Class 7. Claimants with Class 8 General Unsecured Claims, however, voted to reject the Plan because, although the Plan was accepted by 99.8% of the amount of Claims in that class, only 17 claimants voted to accept the Plan while 27 claimants voted to reject the Plan. As a result of such votes, and because Mr. Dondero and the Dondero Related Entities (as defined below) objected to the Plan on a variety of grounds primarily relating to the Plan’s release, exculpation and injunction provisions, the Bankruptcy Court heard two full days of evidence on February 2 and 3, 2021, and considered testimony from five witnesses and thousands of pages of documentary evidence in determining whether the Plan satisfies the confirmation standards required under the Bankruptcy Code. The Bankruptcy Court finds and concludes that the Plan meets all of the relevant requirements of sections 1123, 1124, and 1129, and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, as more fully set forth below with respect to each of the applicable confirmation requirements.

4. Not Your Garden Variety Debtor. The Debtor’s case is not a garden variety chapter 11 case. The Debtor is a multibillion-dollar global investment adviser registered with the SEC, pursuant to the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. It was founded in 1993 by James Dondero and Mark Okada. Mark Okada resigned from his role with Highland prior to the bankruptcy case being filed on October 16, 2019 (the “Petition Date”). Mr. Dondero controlled the Debtor as of the Petition Date but agreed to relinquish control of it on or about January 9, 2020, pursuant to an agreement reached with the Committee, as described below. Although Mr. Dondero remained with the Debtor as an unpaid employee/portfolio manager after January 9, 2020, his employment with the Debtor terminated on October 9, 2020. Mr. Dondero continues to work for and/or control numerous non-debtor entities in the complex Highland enterprise.

5. The Debtor. The Debtor is headquartered in Dallas, Texas. As of the Petition Date, the Debtor employed approximately 76 employees. The Debtor is privately-owned: (a) 99.5% by the Hunter Mountain Investment Trust; (b) 0.1866% by The Dugaboy Investment Trust, a trust created to manage the assets of Mr. Dondero and his family; (c) 0.0627% by Mark Okada, personally and through family trusts; and (d) 0.25% by Strand, the Debtor’s general partner.

6. The Highland Enterprise. Pursuant to various contractual arrangements, the Debtor provides money management and advisory services for billions of dollars of assets, including collateralized loan obligation vehicles (“CLOs”), and other investments. Some of these assets are managed by the Debtor pursuant to shared services agreements with certain affiliated entities, including other affiliated registered investment advisors. In fact, there are approximately 2,000 entities in the byzantine complex of entities under the Highland umbrella. None of these affiliated entities filed for chapter 11 protection. Most, but not all, of these entities are not subsidiaries (direct or indirect) of the Debtor. Many of the Debtor’s affiliated companies are offshore entities, organized in jurisdictions such as the Cayman Islands and Guernsey. See Disclosure Statement, at 17-18.

7. Debtor’s Operational History. The Debtor’s primary means of generating revenue has historically been from fees collected for the management and advisory services provided to funds that it manages, plus fees generated for services provided to its affiliates. For additional liquidity, the Debtor, prior to the Petition Date, would sell liquid securities in the ordinary course, primarily through a brokerage account at Jefferies, LLC. The Debtor would also, from time to time, sell assets at non-Debtor subsidiaries and cause those proceeds to be distributed to the Debtor in the ordinary course of business. The Debtor’s current Chief Executive Officer, James P. Seery, Jr., credibly testified at the Confirmation Hearing that the Debtor was “run at a deficit for a long time and then would sell assets or defer employee compensation to cover its deficits.” The Bankruptcy Court cannot help but wonder if that was necessitated because of enormous litigation fees and expenses incurred by the Debtor due to its culture of litigation—as further addressed below.

8. Not Your Garden Variety Creditor’s Committee. The Debtor and this chapter 11 case are not garden variety for so many reasons. One of the most obvious standouts in this case is the creditor constituency. The Debtor did not file for bankruptcy because of any of the typical reasons that large companies file chapter 11. For example, the Debtor did not have a large, asset-based secured lender with whom it was in default; it only had relatively insignificant secured indebtedness owing to Jeffries, with whom it had a brokerage account, and one other entity, Frontier State Bank. The Debtor also did not have problems with its trade vendors or landlords.

The Debtor also did not suffer any type of catastrophic business calamity. In fact, the Debtor filed for Chapter 11 protection six months before the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic. Rather, the Debtor filed for Chapter 11 protection due to a myriad of massive, unrelated, business litigation claims that it faced—many of which had finally become liquidated (or were about to become liquidated) after a decade or more of contentious litigation in multiple forums all over the world. The Committee in this case has referred to the Debtor—under its former chief executive, Mr. Dondero—as a “serial litigator.” The Bankruptcy Court agrees with that description. By way of example, the members of the Committee (and their history of litigation with the Debtor and others in the Highland complex) are as follows:

- a. The Redeemer Committee of the Highland Crusader Fund (the “Redeemer Committee”). This Committee member obtained an arbitration award against the Debtor in the amount of $190,824,557, inclusive of interest, approximately five months before the Petition Date, from a panel of the American Arbitration Association. It was on the verge of having that award confirmed by the Delaware Chancery Court immediately prior to the Petition Date, after years of disputes that started in late 2008 (and included legal proceedings in Bermuda). This creditor’s claim was settled during this Chapter 11 Case in the amount of approximately $137,696,610 (subject to other adjustments and details not relevant for this purpose).
- b. Acis Capital Management, L.P., and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC (“Acis”). Acis was formerly in the Highland complex of companies, but was not affiliated with Highland as of the Petition Date. This Committee member and its now-owner, Joshua Terry, were involved in litigation with the Debtor dating back to 2016. Acis was forced by Mr. Terry (who was a former Highland portfolio manager) into an involuntary chapter 11 bankruptcy in the Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division before the Bankruptcy Court in 2018, after Mr. Terry obtained an approximately $8 million arbitration award and judgment against Acis. Mr. Terry ultimately was awarded the equity ownership of Acis by the Bankruptcy Court in the Acis bankruptcy case. Acis subsequently asserted a multi-million dollar claim against Highland in the Bankruptcy Court for Highland’s alleged denuding of Acis to defraud its creditors—primarily Mr. Terry. The litigation involving Acis and Mr. Terry dates back to mid-2016 and has continued on with numerous appeals of Bankruptcy Court orders, including one appeal still pending at the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals. There was also litigation involving Mr. Terry and Acis in the Royal Court of the Island of Guernsey and in a state court in New York. The Acis claim was settled during this Chapter 11 Case, in Bankruptcy Court-ordered mediation, for approximately $23 million (subject to other details not relevant for this purpose), and is the subject of an appeal being pursued by Mr. Dondero.

- c. UBS Securities LLC and UBS AG London Branch (“UBS”). UBS is a Committee member that filed a proof of claim in the amount of $1,039,957,799.40 in this Chapter 11 Case. The UBS Claim was based on a judgment that UBS received from a New York state court in 2020. The underlying decision was issued in November 2019, after a multi-week bench trial (which had occurred many months earlier) on a breach of contract claim against non-Debtor entities in the Highland complex. The UBS litigation related to activities that occurred in 2008 and 2009. The litigation involving UBS and Highland and affiliates was pending for more than a decade (there having been numerous interlocutory appeals during its history). The Debtor and UBS recently announced an agreement in principle for a settlement of the UBS claim (which came a few months after Bankruptcy Court-ordered mediation) which will be subject to a 9019 motion to be filed with the Bankruptcy Court on a future date.
- d. Meta-E Discovery (“Meta-E”). Meta-E is a Committee member that is a vendor who happened to supply litigation and discovery-related services to the Debtor over the years. It had unpaid invoices on the Petition Date of more than $779,000.

It is fair to say that the members of the Committee in this case all have wills of steel. They fought hard before and during this Chapter 11 Case. The members of the Committee, all of whom have volunteered to serve on the Claimant Trust Oversight Board post-confirmation, are highly sophisticated and have had highly sophisticated professionals representing them. They have represented their constituency in this case as fiduciaries extremely well.

9. Other Key Creditor Constituents. In addition to the Committee members who were all embroiled in years of litigation with Debtor and its affiliates in various ways, the Debtor has been in litigation with Patrick Daugherty, a former limited partner and employee of the Debtor, for many years in both Delaware and Texas state courts. Mr. Daugherty filed an amended proof of claim in this Chapter 11 Case for $40,710,819.42 relating to alleged breaches of employment-related agreements and for defamation arising from a 2017 press release posted by the Debtor. The Debtor and Mr. Daugherty recently announced a settlement of Mr. Daugherty's claim pursuant to which he will receive $750,000 in cash on the Effective Date of the Plan, an $8.25 million general unsecured claim, and a $2.75 million subordinated claim (subject to other details not relevant for this purpose). Additionally, entities collectively known as "HarbourVest" invested more than $70 million with an entity in the Highland complex and asserted a $300 million proof of claim against the Debtor in this case, alleging, among other things, fraud and RICO violations. HarbourVest's claim was settled during the bankruptcy case for a $45 million general unsecured claim and a $35 million subordinated claim, and that settlement is also being appealed by a Dondero Entity.

10. Other Claims Asserted. Other than the Claims just described, most of the other Claims in this Chapter 11 Case are Claims asserted against the Debtor by: (a) entities in the Highland complex—most of which entities the Bankruptcy Court finds to be controlled by Mr. Dondero; (b) employees who contend that are entitled to large bonuses or other types of deferred compensation; and (c) numerous law firms that worked for the Debtor prior to the Petition Date and had outstanding amounts due for their prepetition services.

11. Not Your Garden Variety Post-Petition Corporate Governance Structure. Yet another reason this is not your garden variety chapter 11 case is its post-petition corporate governance structure. Immediately from its appointment, the Committee's relationship with the Debtor was contentious at best. First, the Committee moved for a change of venue from Delaware to Dallas. Second, the Committee (and later, the United States Trustee) expressed its then-desire for the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee due to its concerns over and distrust of Mr. Dondero, his numerous conflicts of interest, and his history of alleged mismanagement (and perhaps worse).

12. Post-Petition Corporate Governance Settlement with Committee. After spending many weeks under the threat of the potential appointment of a trustee, the Debtor and Committee engaged in substantial and lengthy negotiations resulting in a corporate governance settlement approved by the Bankruptcy Court on January 9, 2020.<sup>5</sup> As a result of this settlement, among other things, Mr. Dondero relinquished control of the Debtor and resigned his positions as an officer or director of the Debtor and its general partner, Strand. As noted above, Mr. Dondero agreed to this settlement pursuant a stipulation he executed,<sup>6</sup> and he also agreed not to cause any Related Entity (as defined in the Settlement Motion) to terminate any agreements with the Debtor. The January 9 Order also (a) required that the Bankruptcy Court serve as “gatekeeper” prior to the commencement of any litigation against the three independent board members appointed to oversee and lead the Debtor’s restructuring in lieu of Mr. Dondero and (b) provided for the exculpation of those board members by limiting claims subject to the “gatekeeper” provision to those alleging willful misconduct and gross negligence.

<sup>5</sup> This order is hereinafter referred to as the “January 9 Order” and was entered by the Court on January 9, 2020 [Docket No. 339] pursuant to the Motion of the Debtor to Approve Settlement with Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors Regarding the Governance of the Debtor and Procedures for Operation in the Ordinary Course [Docket No. 281] (the “Settlement Motion”).

<sup>6</sup> See Stipulation in Support of Motion of the Debtor for Approval of Settlement With the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors Regarding Governance of the Debtor and Procedures for Operations in Ordinary Course [Docket No. 338] (the “Stipulation”).

13. Appointment of Independent Directors. As part of the Bankruptcy Court-approved settlement, three eminently qualified independent directors were chosen to lead Highland through its Chapter 11 Case. They are: James P. Seery, Jr., John S. Dubel (each chosen by the Committee), and Retired Bankruptcy Judge Russell Nelms. These three individuals are each technically independent directors of Strand (Mr. Dondero had previously been the sole director of Strand and, thus, the sole person in ultimate control of the Debtor). The three independent board members' resumes are in evidence. The Bankruptcy Court later approved Mr. Seery's appointment as the Debtor's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Restructuring Officer, and Foreign Representative. Suffice it to say that this settlement and the appointment of the independent directors changed the entire trajectory of the case and saved the Debtor from the appointment of a trustee. The Bankruptcy Court and the Committee each trusted the independent directors. They were the right solution at the right time. Because of the unique character of the Debtor's business, the Bankruptcy Court believed the appointment of three qualified independent directors was a far better outcome for creditors than the appointment of a conventional chapter 11 trustee. Each of the independent directors brought unique qualities to the table. Mr. Seery, in particular, knew and had vast experience at prominent firms with high-yield and distressed investing similar to the Debtor's business. Mr. Dubel had 40 years of experience restructuring large complex businesses and serving on boards in this context. And Retired Judge Nelms had not only vast bankruptcy experience but seemed particularly well-suited to help the Debtor maneuver through conflicts and ethical quandaries. By way of comparison, in the chapter 11 case of Acis, the former affiliate of Highland that the Bankruptcy Court presided over and which company was much smaller in size and scope than Highland (managing only 5-6 CLOs), the creditors elected a chapter 11 trustee who was not on the normal trustee rotation panel in this district but, rather, was a nationally known bankruptcy attorney with more than 45 years of large chapter 11 experience. While the Acis chapter 11 trustee performed valiantly, he was sued by entities in the Highland complex shortly after he was appointed (which the Bankruptcy Court had to address). The Acis trustee was also unable to persuade the Debtor and its affiliates to agree to any actions taken in the case, and he finally obtained confirmation of Acis' chapter 11 plan over the objections of the Debtor and its affiliates on his fourth attempt (which confirmation was promptly appealed).

14. Conditions Required by Independent Directors. Given the experiences in Acis and the Debtor's culture of constant litigation, it was not as easy to get such highly qualified persons to serve as independent board members and, later, as the Debtor's Chief Executive Officer, as it would be in an ordinary chapter 11 case. The independent board members were stepping into a morass of problems. Naturally, they were worried about getting sued no matter how defensible their efforts—given the litigation culture that enveloped Highland historically. Based on the record of this Case and the proceedings in the Acis chapter 11 case, it seemed as though everything always ended in litigation at Highland. The Bankruptcy Court heard credible testimony that none of the independent directors would have taken on the role of independent director without (1) an adequate directors and officers' ("D&O") insurance policy protecting them; (2) indemnification from Strand that would be guaranteed by the Debtor; (3) exculpation for mere negligence claims; and (4) a gatekeeper provision prohibiting the commencement of litigation against the independent directors without the Bankruptcy Court's prior authority. This gatekeeper provision was also included in the Bankruptcy Court’s order authorizing the appointment of Mr. Seery as the Debtor’s Chief Executive Officer, Chief Restructuring Officer, and Foreign Representative entered on July 16, 2020.<sup>7</sup> The gatekeeper provisions in both the January 9 Order and July 16 Order are precisely analogous to what bankruptcy trustees have pursuant to the so-called “Barton Doctrine” (first articulated in an old Supreme Court case captioned Barton v. Barbour, 104 U.S. 126 (1881)). The Bankruptcy Court approved all of these protections in the January 9 Order and the July 16 Order, and no one appealed either of those orders. As noted above, Mr. Dondero signed the Stipulation that led to the settlement that was approved by the January 9 Order. The Bankruptcy Court finds that, like the Committee, the independent board members have been resilient and unwavering in their efforts to get the enormous problems in this case solved. They seem to have at all times negotiated hard and in good faith, which culminated in the proposal of the Plan currently before the Bankruptcy Court. As noted previously, they completely changed the trajectory of this case.

15. Not Your Garden Variety Mediators. And still another reason why this was not your garden variety case was the mediation effort. In the summer of 2020, roughly nine months into the chapter 11 case, the Bankruptcy Court ordered mediation among the Debtor, Acis, UBS, the Redeemer Committee, and Mr. Dondero. The Bankruptcy Court selected co-mediators because mediation among these parties seemed like such a Herculean task—especially during COVID-19 where people could not all be in the same room. Those co-mediators were: Retired

Seery, Jr., as Chief Executive Officer, Chief Restructuring Officer, and Foreign Representative Nunc Pro Tunc to March 15, 2020* [Docket No. 854] entered on July 16, 2020 (the “July 16 Order”)

Bankruptcy Judge Alan Gropper from the Southern District of New York, who had a distinguished career presiding over complex chapter 11 cases, and Ms. Sylvia Mayer, who likewise has had a distinguished career, first as a partner at a preeminent law firm working on complex chapter 11 cases, and subsequently as a mediator and arbitrator in Houston, Texas. As noted earlier, the Redeemer Committee and Acis claims were settled during the mediation—which seemed nothing short of a miracle to the Bankruptcy Court—and the UBS claim was settled several months later and the Bankruptcy Court believes the ground work for that ultimate settlement was laid, or at least helped, through the mediation. And, as earlier noted, other significant claims have been settled during this case, including those of HarbourVest (who asserted a $300 million claim) and Patrick Daugherty (who asserted a $40 million claim). The Bankruptcy Court cannot stress strongly enough that the resolution of these enormous claims—and the acceptance by all of these creditors of the Plan that is now before the Bankruptcy Court—seems nothing short of a miracle. It was more than a year in the making.

16. Not Your Garden Variety Plan Objectors (That Is, Those That Remain). Finally, a word about the current, remaining objectors to the Plan before the Bankruptcy Court. Once again, the Bankruptcy Court will use the phrase “not your garden variety”, which phrase applies to this case for many reasons. Originally, there were over a dozen objections filed to the Plan. The Debtor then made certain amendments or modifications to the Plan to address some of these objections, none of which require further solicitation of the Plan for reasons set forth in more detail below. The only objectors to the Plan left at the time of the Confirmation Hearing were Mr. Dondero [Docket No. 1661] and entities that the Bankruptcy Court finds are owned and/or controlled by him and that filed the following objections:

- a. Objection to Confirmation of the Debtor's Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization (filed by Get Good Trust and The Dugaboy Investment Trust) [Docket No. 1667];
- b. Objection to Confirmation of Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. (filed by Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P., Highland Fixed Income Fund, Highland Funds I and its series, Highland Funds II and its series, Highland Global Allocation Fund, Highland Healthcare Opportunities Fund, Highland Income Fund, Highland Merger Arbitrate Fund, Highland Opportunistic Credit Fund, Highland Small-Cap Equity Fund, Highland Socially Responsible Equity Fund, Highland Total Return Fund, Highland/iBoxx Senior Loan ETF, NexPoint Advisors, L.P., NexPoint Capital, Inc., NexPoint Real Estate Strategies Fund, NexPoint Strategic Opportunities Fund) [Docket No. 1670];
- c. A Joinder to the Objection filed at 1670 by: NexPoint Real Estate Finance Inc., NexPoint Real Estate Capital, LLC, NexPoint Residential Trust, Inc., NexPoint Hospitality Trust, NexPoint Real Estate Partners, LLC, NexPoint Multifamily Capital Trust, Inc., VineBrook Homes Trust, Inc., NexPoint Real Estate Advisors, L.P., NexPoint Real Estate Advisors II, L.P., NexPoint Real Estate Advisors III, L.P., NexPoint Real Estate Advisors IV, L.P., NexPoint Real Estate Advisors V, L.P., NexPoint Real Estate Advisors VI, L.P., NexPoint Real Estate Advisors VII, L.P., NexPoint Real Estate Advisors VIII, L.P., and any funds advised by the foregoing [Docket No. 1677];
- d. NexPoint Real Estate Partners LLC's Objection to Debtor's Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization (filed by NexPoint Real Estate Partners LLC f/k/a HCRE Partners LLC) [Docket No. 1673]; and
- e. NexBank's Objection to Debtor's Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization (filed by NexBank Title, Inc., NexBank Securities, Inc., NexBank Capital, Inc., and NexBank) [Docket No. 1676]. The entities referred to in (i) through (v) of this paragraph are hereinafter referred to as the "Dondero Related Entities").

17. Questionability of Good Faith as to Outstanding Confirmation

Objections. Mr. Dondero and the Dondero Related Entities technically have standing to object to the Plan, but the remoteness of their economic interests is noteworthy, and the Bankruptcy Court questions the good faith of Mr. Dondero's and the Dondero Related Entities' objections. In fact, the Bankruptcy Court has good reason to believe that these parties are not objecting to protect economic interests they have in the Debtor but to be disruptors. Mr. Dondero wants his company back. This is understandable, but it is not a good faith basis to lob objections to the Plan. As detailed below, the Bankruptcy Court has slowed down plan confirmation multiple times and urged the parties to talk to Mr. Dondero in an attempt to arrive at what the parties have repeatedly referred to as a "grand bargain," the ultimate goal to resolve the Debtor's restructuring. The Debtor and the Committee represent that they have communicated with Mr. Dondero regarding a grand bargain settlement, and the Bankruptcy Court believes that they have.

18. Remote Interest of Outstanding Confirmation Objectors. To be specific about the remoteness of Mr. Dondero's and the Dondero Related Entities' interests, the Bankruptcy Court will address them each separately. First, Mr. Dondero has a pending objection to the Plan. Mr. Dondero's only economic interest with regard to the Debtor is an unliquidated indemnification claim (and, based on everything the Bankruptcy Court has heard, his indemnification claims would be highly questionable at this juncture). Mr. Dondero owns no equity in the Debtor directly. Mr. Dondero owns the Debtor's general partner, Strand, which in turn owns a quarter percent of the total equity in the Debtor. Second, a joint objection has been filed by The Dugaboy Trust ("Dugaboy") and the Get Good Trust ("Get Good"). The Dugaboy Trust was created to manage the assets of Mr. Dondero and his family and owns a 0.1866% limited partnership interest in the Debtor. See Disclosure Statement at 7, n.3. The Bankruptcy Court is not clear what economic interest the Get Good Trust has, but it likewise seems to be related to Mr. Dondero. Get Good filed three proofs of claim relating to a pending federal tax audit of the Debtor's 2008 return, which the Debtor believes arise from Get Good's equity security interests and are subject to subordination as set forth in its Confirmation Brief. Dugaboy filed three claims against the Debtor: (a) an administrative claim relating to the Debtor's alleged postpetition management of Multi-Strat Credit Fund, L.P., (b) a prepetition claim against a subsidiary of the Debtor for which it seeks to pierce the corporate veil, each of which the Debtor maintains are frivolous in the Confirmation Brief, and (c) a claim arising from its equity security interest in the Debtor, which the Debtor asserts should be subordinated. Another group of objectors that has joined together in one objection is what the Bankruptcy Court will refer to as the "Highland Advisors and Funds." See Docket No. 1863. The Bankruptcy Court understands they assert disputed administrative expense claims against the estate that were filed shortly before the Confirmation Hearing on January 23, 2021 [Docket No. 1826], and during the Confirmation Hearing on February 3, 2021 [Docket No. 1888]. At the Confirmation Hearing, Mr. Post testified on behalf of the Highland Advisors and Funds that the Funds have independent board members that run the Funds, but the Bankruptcy Court was not convinced of their independence from Mr. Dondero because none of the so-called independent board members have ever testified before the Bankruptcy Court and all have been engaged with the Highland complex for many years. Notably, the Court questions Mr. Post's credibility because, after more than 12 years of service, he abruptly resigned from the Debtor in October 2020 at the exact same time that Mr. Dondero resigned at the Board of Directors' request, and he is currently employed by Mr. Dondero. Moreover, Dustin Norris, a witness in a prior proceeding (whose testimony was made part of the record at the Confirmation Hearing), recently testified on behalf of the Highland Advisors and Funds in another proceeding that Mr. Dondero owned and/or controlled these entities. Finally, various NexBank entities objected to the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court does not believe they have liquidated claims against the Debtor. Mr. Dondero appears to be in control of these entities as well.

19. Background Regarding Dondero Objecting Parties. To be clear, the Bankruptcy Court has allowed all these objectors to fully present arguments and evidence in opposition to confirmation, even though their economic interests in the Debtor appear to be extremely remote and the Bankruptcy Court questions their good faith. Specifically, the Bankruptcy Court considers them all to be marching pursuant to the orders of Mr. Dondero. In the recent past, Mr. Dondero has been subject to a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction by the Bankruptcy Court for interfering with Mr. Seery's management of the Debtor in specific ways that were supported by evidence. Around the time that this all came to light and the Bankruptcy Court began setting hearings on the alleged interference, Mr. Dondero's company phone, which he had been asked to turn in to Highland, mysteriously went missing. The Bankruptcy Court merely mentions this in this context as one of many reasons that the Bankruptcy Court has to question the good faith of Mr. Dondero and his affiliates in raising objections to confirmation of the Plan.

20. Other Confirmation Objections. Other than the objections filed by Mr. Dondero and the Dondero Related Entities, the only other pending objection to the Plan is the United States Trustee's Limited Objection to Confirmation of Debtor's Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization [Docket No. 1671], which objected to the Plan's exculpation, injunction, and Debtor release provisions. In juxtaposition, to these pending objections, the Bankruptcy Court notes that the Debtor resolved the following objections to the Plan:

- a. CLO Holdco, Ltd.'s Joinder to Objection to Confirmation of Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. and Supplemental Objections to Plan Confirmation [Docket No. 1675]. This Objection has been resolved pursuant to mutually agreed language by the parties set forth in paragraph VV of the Confirmation Order;
- b. Objection of Dallas County, City of Allen, Allen ISD, City of Richardson, and Kaufman County to Confirmation of the Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. [Docket No. 1662]. This Objection has been resolved pursuant to mutually agreed language by the parties set forth in paragraph QQ of the Confirmation Order;
- c. Senior Employees' Limited Objection to Debtor's Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization (filed by Scott Ellington, Thomas Surgent, Frank Waterhouse, Isaac Leventon) [Docket No. 1669]. This Objection has been resolved pursuant to mutually agreed language by the parties set forth in paragraph 82 and paragraphs RR and SS of the Confirmation Order;
- d. Limited Objection of Jack Yang and Brad Borud to Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. [Docket No. 1666] and the amended joinder filed by Davis Deadman, Paul Kauffman and Todd Travers [Docket No. 1679]. This Objection and the amended joinder were resolved by agreement of the parties pursuant to modifications to the Plan filed by the Debtor;
- e. United States' (IRS) Limited Objection to Debtor's Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization [Docket No. 1668]. This Objection has been resolved pursuant to mutually agreed language by the parties set forth in paragraphs TT and UU of the Confirmation Order; and
- f. Patrick Hagaman Daugherty's Objection to Confirmation of Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization [Docket No. 1678]. This objection was resolved by the parties pursuant to the settlement of Mr. Daugherty's claim announced on the record of the Confirmation Hearing.

21. Capitalized Terms. Capitalized terms used herein, but not defined herein, shall have the respective meanings attributed to such terms in the Plan and the Disclosure Statement, as applicable.

22. Jurisdiction and Venue. The Bankruptcy Court has jurisdiction over the Debtor’s Chapter 11 Case pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). Venue of this proceeding and this Chapter 11 Case is proper in this district and in the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

23. Chapter 11 Petition. On the Petition Date, the Debtor commenced a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware, which case was transferred to the Bankruptcy Court on December 19, 2019. The Debtor continues to operate its business and manage its property as debtor in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in this Chapter 11 Case. The Office of the United States Trustee appointed the Committee on October 29, 2019.

24. Judicial Notice. The Bankruptcy Court takes judicial notice of the docket in this Chapter 11 Case maintained by the clerk of the Bankruptcy Court and the court-appointed claims agent, Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC (“KCC”), including, without limitation, all pleadings, notices, and other documents filed, all orders entered, and all evidence and arguments made, proffered or adduced at the hearings held before the Bankruptcy Court during this Chapter 11 Case, including, without limitation, the hearing to consider the adequacy of the Disclosure Statement and the Confirmation Hearing, as well as all pleadings, notices, and other documents filed, all orders entered, and all evidence and arguments made, proffered, or adduced at hearings held before the Bankruptcy Court or the District Court for the Northern District of Texas in connection with an adversary proceeding or appellate proceeding, respectively, related to this Chapter 11 Case.

25. Plan Supplement Documents. Prior to the Confirmation Hearing, the Debtor filed each of the Plan Supplements. The Plan Supplements contain, among other documents, the Retained Causes of Action, the Claimant Trust Agreement, the Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement, the Senior Employee Stipulation, the Related Entity List, the Schedule of Employees, the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement, supplements to the Liquidation Analysis/Financial Projections, the Schedule of Contracts and Leases to be Assumed, and the other Plan Documents set forth therein (collectively, the “Plan Supplement Documents”).

26. Retained Causes of Action Adequately Preserved. The Bankruptcy Court finds that the list of Retained Causes of Action included in the Plan Supplements sufficiently describes all potential Retained Causes of Action, provides all persons with adequate notice of any Causes of Action regardless of whether any specific claim to be brought in the future is listed therein or whether any specific potential defendant or other party is listed therein, and satisfies applicable law in all respects to preserve all of the Retained Causes of Action. The definition of the Causes of Action and Schedule of Retained Causes of Action, and their inclusion in the Plan, specifically and unequivocally preserve the Causes of Action for the benefit of the Reorganized Debtor, the Claimant Trust, or the Litigation Sub-Trust, as applicable.

27. Plan Modifications Are Non-Material. In addition to the Plan Supplements, the Debtor made certain non-material modifications to the Plan, which are reflected in (i) the Redline of Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P.

(as Modified) filed on January 22, 2021 [Docket No. 1809], and (ii) Exhibit B to the Debtor's Notice of Filing of Plan Supplement to Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. (as Modified) filed on February 1, 2021 [Docket No. 1875] (collectively, the "Plan Modifications"). Section 1127(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a plan proponent may modify its plan at any time before confirmation so long as such modified plan meets the requirements of sections 1122 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code. None of the modifications set forth in the Plan Supplements or the Plan Modifications require any further solicitation pursuant to sections 1125, 1126, or 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3019, because, among other things, they do not materially adversely change the treatment of the claims of any creditors or interest holders who have not accepted, in writing, such supplements and modifications. Among other things, there were changes to the projections that the Debtor filed shortly before the Confirmation Hearing (which included projected distributions to creditors and a comparison of projected distributions under the Plan to potential distributions under a hypothetical chapter 7 liquidation). The Plan Supplements and Plan Modifications did not mislead or prejudice any creditors or interest holders nor do they require that Holders of Claims or Equity Interests be afforded an opportunity to change previously cast votes to accept or reject the Plan. Specifically, the Amended Liquidation Analysis/Financial Projections filed on February 1, 2021 [Docket No. 1875] do not constitute any material adverse change to the treatment of any creditors or interest holders but, rather, simply update the estimated distributions based on Claims that were settled in the interim and provide updated financial data. The filing and notice of the Plan Supplements and Plan Modifications were appropriate and complied with the requirements of section 1127(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules, and no other solicitation or disclosure or further notice is or shall be required. The Plan Supplements and Plan Modifications each became part of the Plan pursuant section 1127(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, is authorized to modify the Plan or Plan Supplement Documents following entry of this Confirmation Order in a manner consistent with section 1127(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan, and, if applicable, the terms of the applicable Plan Supplement Document.

28. Notice of Transmittal, Mailing and Publication of Materials. As is evidenced by the Voting Certifications and the Affidavits of Service and Publication, the transmittal and service of the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, Ballots, and Confirmation Hearing Notice were adequate and sufficient under the circumstances, and all parties required to be given notice of the Confirmation Hearing (including the deadline for filing and serving objections to the confirmation of the Plan) have been given due, proper, timely, and adequate notice in accordance with the Disclosure Statement Order and in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and applicable non-bankruptcy law, and such parties have had an opportunity to appear and be heard with respect thereto. No other or further notice is required. The publication of the Confirmation Hearing Notice, as set forth in the Notice of Affidavit of Publication dated December 3, 2020 [Docket No. 1505], complied with the Disclosure Statement Order.

29. Voting. The Bankruptcy Court has reviewed and considered the Voting Certifications. The procedures by which the Ballots for acceptance or rejection of the Plan were distributed and tabulated, including the tabulation as subsequently amended to reflect the settlement of certain Claims to be Allowed in Class 7, were fairly and properly conducted and complied with the Disclosure Statement Order, the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules.

30. Bankruptcy Rule 3016(a). In accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 3016(a), the Plan is dated and identifies the Debtor as the proponent of the Plan.

31. Plan Compliance with Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(1)). As set forth below, the Plan complies with all of the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, thereby satisfying section 1129(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

32. Proper Classification (11 U.S.C. §§ 1122, 1123(a)(1)). Section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a plan may place a claim or interest in a particular class only if such claim or interest is substantially similar to the other claims or interest of such class. The Claims and Equity Interests placed in each Class are substantially similar to other Claims and Equity Interests, as the case may be, in each such Class. Valid business, factual, and legal reasons exist for separately classifying the various Classes of Claims and Equity Interests created under the Plan, and such Classes do not unfairly discriminate between Holders of Claims and Equity Interests.

33. Classification of Secured Claims. Class 1 (Jefferies Secured Claim) and Class 2 (Frontier Secured Claim) each constitute separate secured claims held by Jefferies LLC and Frontier State Bank, respectively, and it is proper and consistent with section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code to separately classify the claims of these secured creditors. Class 3 (Other Secured Claims) consists of other secured claims (to the extent any exist) against the Debtor, are not substantially similar to the Secured Claims in Class 1 or Class 2, and are also properly separately classified.

34. Classification of Priority Claims. Class 4 (Priority Non-Tax Claims) consists of Claims entitled to priority under section 507(a), other than Priority Tax Claims, and are properly separately classified from non-priority unsecured claims. Class 5 (Retained Employee Claims) consists of the potential claims of employees who may be retained by the Debtor on the Effective Date, which claims will be Reinstated under the Plan, are not substantially similar to other Claims against the Debtor, and are properly classified.

35. Classification of Unsecured Claims. Class 6 (PTO Claims) consists solely of the claims of the Debtor's employees for unpaid paid time off in excess of the $13,650 statutory cap amount under sections 507(a)(4) and (a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code and are dissimilar from other unsecured claims in Class 7 and Class 8. Class 7 (Convenience Claims) allows holders of eligible and liquidated Claims (below a certain threshold dollar amount) to receive a cash payout of the lesser of 85% of the Allowed amount of the creditor's Claim or such holder's pro rata share of the Convenience Claims Cash Pool. Class 7 (Convenience Claims) are provided for administrative convenience purposes in order to allow creditors, most of whom are either trade creditors or holders of professional claims, to receive treatment provided under Class 7 in lieu of the treatment of Class 8 (General Unsecured Claims). The Plan also provides for reciprocal "opt out" mechanisms to allow holders of Class 7 Claims to elect to receive the treatment for Class 8 Claims. Class 8 creditors primarily constitute the litigation claims of the Debtor. Class 8 Creditors will receive Claimant Trust Interests which will be satisfied pursuant to the terms of the Plan. Class 8 also contains an “opt out” mechanism to allow holders of liquidated Class 8 Claims at or below a $1 million threshold to elect to receive the treatment of Class 7 Convenience Claims. The Claims in Class 7 (primarily trade and professional Claims against the Debtor) are not substantially similar to the Claims in Class 8 (primarily the litigation Claims against the Debtor), and are appropriately separately classified. Valid business reasons also exist to classify creditors in Class 7 separately from creditors in Class 8. Class 7 creditors largely consist of liquidated trade or service providers to the Debtor. In addition, the Claims of Class 7 creditors are small relative to the large litigation claims in Class 8. Furthermore, the Class 8 Claims were overwhelmingly unliquidated when the Plan was filed. The nature of the Class 7 Claims as being largely liquidated created an expectation of expedited payment relative to the largely unliquidated Claims in Class 8, which consists in large part of parties who have been engaged in years, and in some cases over a decade of litigation with the Debtor. Separate classification of Class 7 and Class 8 creditors was the subject of substantial arm’s-length negotiations between the Debtor and the Committee to appropriately reflect these relative differences.

36. Classification of Equity Interests. The Plan properly separately classifies the Equity Interests in Class 10 (Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests) from the Equity Interests in Class 11 (Class A Limited Partnership Interests) because they represent different types of equity security interests in the Debtor and different payment priorities.

37. Elimination of Vacant Classes. Section III.C of the Plan provides for the elimination of Classes that do not have at least one holder of a Claim or Equity Interest that is Allowed in an amount greater than zero for purposes of voting to accept or reject the Plan, and are disregarded for purposes of determining whether the Plan satisfies section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to such Class. The purpose of this provision is to provide that a Class that does not have voting members shall not be included in the tabulation of whether that Class has accepted or rejected the Plan. Pursuant to the Voting Certifications, the only voting Class of Claims or Equity Interests that did not have any members is Class 5 (Retained Employees). As noted above, Class 5 does not have any voting members because any potential Claims in Class 5 would not arise, except on account of any current employees of the Debtor who may be employed as of the Effective Date, which is currently unknown. Thus, the elimination of vacant Classes provided in Article III.C of the Plan does not violate section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code. Class 5 is properly disregarded for purposes of determining whether or not the Plan has been accepted under Bankruptcy Code section 1129(a)(8) because there are no members in that Class. However, the Plan properly provides for the treatment of any Claims that may potentially become members of Class 5 as of the Effective Date in accordance with the terms of the Plan. The Plan therefore satisfies section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code.

38. Classification of Claims and Designation of Non-Classified Claims (11 U.S.C. §§ 1122, 1123(a)(1)). Section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that the Plan specify the classification of claims and equity security interests pursuant to section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than claims specified in sections 507(a)(2), 507(a)(3), or 507(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition to Administrative Claims, Professional Fee Claims, and Priority Tax Claims, each of which need not be classified pursuant to section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy

Code, the Plan designates eleven (11) Classes of Claims and Equity Interests. The Plan satisfies sections 1122 and 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

39. Specification of Unimpaired Classes (11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(2)). Article III of the Plan specifies that each of Class 1 (Jefferies Secured Claim), Class 3 (Other Secured Claims), Class 4 (Priority Non-Tax Claims), Class 5 (Retained Employee Claims), and Class 6 (PTO Claims) are Unimpaired under the Plan. Thus, the requirement of section 1123(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code is satisfied.

40. Specification of Treatment of Impaired Classes (11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(3)). Article III of the Plan designates each of Class 2 (Frontier Secured Claim), Class 7 (Convenience Claims), Class 8 (General Unsecured Claims), Class 9 (Subordinated Claims), Class 10 (Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests), and Class 11 (Class A Limited Partnership Interests) as Impaired and specifies the treatment of Claims and Equity Interests in such Classes. Thus, the requirement of section 1123(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code is satisfied.

41. No Discrimination (11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(4)). The Plan provides for the same treatment by the Plan proponent for each Claim or Equity Interest in each respective Class unless the Holder of a particular Claim or Equity Interest has agreed to a less favorable treatment of such Claim or Equity Interest. The Plan satisfies this requirement because Holders of Allowed Claims or Equity Interests in each Class will receive the same rights and treatment as other Holders of Allowed Claims or Equity Interests within such holder's respective class, subject only to the voluntary "opt out" options afforded to members of Class 7 and Class 8 in accordance with the terms of the Plan. Thus, the requirement of section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code is satisfied.

42. Implementation of the Plan (11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(5)). Article IV of the Plan sets forth the means for implementation of the Plan which includes, but is not limited to, the establishment of: (i) the Claimant Trust; (ii) the Litigation Sub-Trust; (iii) the Reorganized Debtor; and (iv) New GP LLC, in the manner set forth in the Plan Documents, the forms of which are included in the Plan Supplements.

- a. The Claimant Trust. The Claimant Trust Agreement provides for the management of the Claimant Trust, as well as the Reorganized Debtor with the Claimant Trust serving as the managing member of New GP LLC (a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Claimant Trust that will manage the Reorganized Debtor as its general partner). The Claimant Trust, the Claimant Trustee, the management and monetization of the Claimant Trust Assets, and the management of the Reorganized Debtor (through the Claimant Trust's role as managing member of New GP LLC) and the Litigation Sub-Trust will all be managed and overseen by the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee. Additionally, the Plan provides for the transfer to the Claimant Trust of all of the Debtor's rights, title, and interest in and to all of the Claimant Trust Assets in accordance with section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code and for the Claimant Trust Assets to automatically vest in the Claimant Trust free and clear of all Claims, Liens, encumbrances, or interests subject only to the Claimant Trust Interests and the Claimant Trust Expenses, as provided for in the Claimant Trust Agreement. The Claimant Trust will administer the Claimant Trust Assets as provided under the Plan and the Claimant Trust Agreement contained in the Plan Supplements.
- b. The Litigation Sub-Trust. The Plan and the Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement provide for the transfer to the Litigation Sub-Trust all of the Claimant Trust's rights, title, and interest in and to all of the Estate Claims (as transferred to the Claimant Trust by the Debtor) in accordance with section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code and for the Estate Claims to automatically vest in the Litigation Sub-Trust free and clear of all Claims, Liens, encumbrances, or interests subject only to the Litigation Sub-Trust Interests and the Litigation Sub-Trust Expenses, as provided for in the Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement. The Litigation Trustee is charged with investigating, pursuing, and otherwise resolving any Estate Claims (including those with respect to which the Committee has standing to pursue prior to the Effective Date pursuant to the January 9 Order) pursuant to the terms of the Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement and the Plan, regardless of whether any litigation with respect to any Estate Claim was commenced by the Debtor or the Committee prior to the Effective Date.

- c. The Reorganized Debtor. The Reorganized Debtor will administer the Reorganized Debtor Assets, which includes managing the wind down of the Managed Funds.

The precise terms governing the execution of these restructuring transactions are set forth in greater detail in the applicable definitive documents included in the Plan Supplements, including the Claimant Trust Agreement, the Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement, and the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action. The Plan, together with the documents and forms of agreement included in the Plan Supplements, provides a detailed blueprint for the transactions contemplated by the Plan. The Plan's various mechanisms provide for the Debtor's continued management of its business as it seeks to liquidate the Debtor's assets, wind down its affairs, and pay the Claims of the Debtor's creditors. Upon full payment of Allowed Claims, plus interest as provided in the Plan, any residual value would then flow to the holders of Class 10 (Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests), and Class 11 (Class A Limited Partnership Interests). Finally, Mr. Seery testified that the Debtor engaged in substantial and arm's length negotiations with the Committee regarding the Debtor's post-Effective Date corporate governance, as reflected in the Plan. Mr. Seery testified that he believes the selection of the Claimant Trustee, Litigation Trustee, and members of the Claimant Trust Oversight Board are in the best interests of the Debtor's economic constituents. Thus, the requirements of section 1123(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code are satisfied.

43. Non-Voting Equity Securities (11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(6)). The Debtor is not a corporation and the charter documents filed in the Plan Supplements otherwise comply with section 1123(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, the requirement of section 1123(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code is satisfied.

44. Selection of Officers and Directors (11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(7)). Article IV of the Plan provides for the Claimant Trust to be governed and administered by the Claimant Trustee. The Claimant Trust, the management of the Reorganized Debtor, and the management and monetization of the Claimant Trust Assets and the Litigation Sub-Trust will be managed by the Claimant Trust Oversight Board. The Claimant Trust Oversight Board will consist of: (1) Eric Felton, as representative of the Redeemer Committee; (2) Joshua Terry, as representative of Acis; (3) Elizabeth Kozlowski, as representative of UBS; (4) Paul McVoy, as representative of Meta-E Discovery; and (5) David Pauker. Four of the members of the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee are the holders of several of the largest Claims against the Debtor and/or are current members of the Committee. Each of these creditors has actively participated in the Debtor's case, both through their fiduciary roles as Committee members and in their individual capacities as creditors. They are therefore intimately familiar with the Debtor, its business, and assets. The fifth member of the Claimant Trust Oversight Board, David Pauker, is a disinterested restructuring advisor and turnaround manager with more than 25 years of experience advising public and private companies and their investors, and he has substantial experience overseeing, advising or investigating troubled companies in the financial services industry and has advised or managed such companies on behalf of boards or directors, court-appointed trustees, examiners and special masters, government agencies, and private investor parties. The members of the Claimant Trust Oversight Board will serve without compensation, except for Mr. Pauker, who will receive payment of $250,000 for his first year of service, and $150,000 for subsequent years.

45. Selection of Trustees. The Plan Supplements disclose that Mr. Seery will serve as the Claimant Trustee and Marc Kirschner will serve as the Litigation Trustee. As noted above, Mr. Seery has served as an Independent Board member since January 2020, and as the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Restructuring Officer since July 2020, and he has extensive management and restructuring experience, as evidenced from his curriculum vitae which is part of the record. The evidence shows that Mr. Seery is intimately familiar with the Debtor's organizational structure, business, and assets, as well as how Claims will be treated under the Plan. Accordingly, it is reasonable and in the Estate's best interests to continue Mr. Seery's employment post-emergence as the Claimant Trustee. Mr. Seery, upon consultation with the Committee, testified that he intends to employ approximately 10 of the Debtor's employees to enable him to manage the Debtor's business until the Claimant Trust effectively monetizes its remaining assets, instead of hiring a sub-servicer to accomplish those tasks. Mr. Seery testified that he believes that the Debtor's post-confirmation business can most efficiently and cost-effectively be supported by a sub-set of the Debtor's current employees, who will be managed internally. Mr. Seery shall initially be paid $150,000 per month for services rendered after the Effective Date as Claimant Trustee; however, Mr. Seery's long-term salary as Claimant Trustee and the terms of any bonuses and severance are subject to further negotiation by Mr. Seery and the Claimant Trust Oversight Board within forty-five (45) days after the Effective Date. The Bankruptcy Court has also reviewed Mr. Kirschner's curriculum vitae. Mr. Kirschner has been practicing law since 1967 and has substantial experience in bankruptcy litigation matters, particularly with respect to his prior experience as a litigation trustee for several litigation trusts, as set forth on the record of the Confirmation Hearing and in the Confirmation Brief. Mr. Kirschner shall be paid $40,000 per month for the first three months and $20,000 per month thereafter, plus a success fee related to litigation recoveries. The Committee and the Debtor had arm's lengths negotiations regarding the post-Effective Date corporate governance structure of the Reorganized Debtor and believe that the selection of the Claimant Trustee, the Litigation Trustee, and the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee are in the best interests of the Debtor's economic stakeholders. Section 1123(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code is satisfied.

Pursuant to section 1129(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtor has complied with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including sections 1122, 1123, 1124, 1125, and 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Disclosure Statement Order governing notice, disclosure, and solicitation in connection with the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan Supplements, and all other matters considered by the Bankruptcy Court in connection with this Chapter 11 Case.

47. Debtor's Solicitation Complied with Bankruptcy Code and Disclosure

Statement Order. Before the Debtor solicited votes on the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Disclosure Statement Order. In accordance with the Disclosure Statement Order and evidenced by the Affidavits of Service and Publication, the Debtor appropriately served (i) the Solicitation Packages (as defined in the Disclosure Statement Order) on the Holders of Claims in Classes 2, 7, 8 and 9 and Holders of Equity Interests in Classes 10 and 11 who were entitled to vote on the Plan; and (ii) the Notice of Nonvoting Status (as defined in the Disclosure Statement Order) and the Confirmation Hearing Notice to the Holders of Claims in Classes 1, 3, 4, 5 and 6, who were not entitled to vote on the Plan pursuant to the Disclosure Statement Order. The Disclosure Statement Order approved the contents of the Solicitation Packages provided to Holders of Claims and Equity Interests entitled to vote on the Plan, the notices provided to parties not entitled to vote on the Plan, and the deadlines for voting on and objecting to the Plan. The Debtor and KCC each complied with the content and delivery requirements of the Disclosure Statement Order, thereby satisfying sections 1125(a) and (b) of the Bankruptcy Code, as evidenced by the Affidavits of Service and Publication. The Debtor also satisfied section 1125(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, which provides that the same disclosure statement must be transmitted to each holder of a claim or interest in a particular class. The Debtor caused the same Disclosure Statement to be transmitted to all holders of Claims and Equity Interests entitled to vote on the Plan. The Debtor has complied in all respects with the solicitation requirements of section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code and the Disclosure Statement Order. The Bankruptcy Court rejects the arguments of the Mr. Dondero and certain Dondero Related Entities that the changes made to certain assumptions and projections from the Liquidation Analysis annexed as Exhibit C to the Disclosure Statement (the “Liquidation Analysis”) to the Amended Liquidation Analysis/Financial Projections require resolicitation of the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court heard credible testimony from Mr. Seery regarding the changes to the Liquidation Analysis as reflected in the Amended Liquidation Analysis/Financial Projections. Based on the record, including the testimony of Mr. Seery, the Bankruptcy Court finds that the changes between the Liquidation Analysis and the Amended Liquidation Analysis/Financial Projections do not constitute materially adverse change to the treatment of Claims or Equity

Interests. Instead, the changes served to update the projected distributions based on Claims that were settled after the approval of the Disclosure Statement and to otherwise incorporate more recent financial data. Such changes were entirely foreseeable given the large amount of unliquidated Claims at the time the Disclosure Statement was approved and the nature of the Debtor's assets. The Bankruptcy Court therefore finds that holders of Claims and Equity Interests were not misled or prejudiced by the Amended Liquidation Analysis/Financial Projections and the Plan does not need to be resolicited.

48. Plan Proposed in Good Faith and Not by Means Forbidden by Law (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(3)). The Debtor has proposed the Plan in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law, thereby satisfying section 1129(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code. In determining that the Plan has been proposed in good faith, the Bankruptcy Court has examined the totality of the circumstances surrounding the filing of this Chapter 11 Case, the Plan itself, and the extensive, unrebutted testimony of Mr. Seery in which he described the process leading to Plan's formulation. Based on the totality of the circumstances and Mr. Seery's testimony, the Bankruptcy Court finds that the Plan is the result of extensive arm's-length negotiations among the Debtor, the Committee, and key stakeholders, and promotes the objectives and purposes of the Bankruptcy Code. Specifically, the Debtor's good faith in proposing the Plan is supported by the following facts adduced by Mr. Seery:

- a. The Independent Board determined that it should consider all potential restructuring alternatives, including pursuit of a traditional restructuring and the continuation of the Debtor's business, a potential sale of the Debtor's assets in one or more transactions, an asset monetization plan similar to that described in the Plan, and a so-called "grand bargain" plan that would involve Mr. Dondero's sponsorship of a plan with a substantial equity infusion.

- b. The Debtor subsequently engaged in arm's-length, good faith negotiations with the Committee over an asset monetization Plan commencing in June 2020, which negotiations occurred over the next several months.
- c. Negotiations between the Debtor and the Committee were often contentious over disputes, including, but not limited to, the post-confirmation corporate governance structure and the scope of releases contemplated by the Plan.
- d. While negotiations with the Committee progressed, the Independent Board engaged in discussions with Mr. Dondero regarding a potential "grand bargain" plan which contemplated a significant equity infusion by Mr. Dondero, and which Mr. Seery personally spent hundreds of hours pursuing over many months.
- e. On August 3, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order Directing Mediation [Docket No. 912] pursuant to which the Bankruptcy Court ordered the Debtor, the Committee, UBS, Acis, the Redeemer Committee, and Mr. Dondero into mediation. As a result of this mediation, the Debtor negotiated the settlement of the claims of Acis and Mr. Terry, which the Bankruptcy Court approved on October 28, 2020 [Docket No. 1302].
- f. On August 12, 2020, the Debtor filed its Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. [Docket No. 944] (the "Initial Plan") and related disclosure statement (the "Initial Disclosure Statement") which were not supported by either the Committee or Mr. Dondero. The Independent Board filed the Initial Plan and Initial Disclosure Statement in order to act as a catalyst for continued discussions with the Committee while it simultaneously worked with Mr. Dondero on the "grand bargain" plan.
- g. The Bankruptcy Court conducted a contested hearing on the Initial Disclosure Statement on October 27, 2020. The Committee and other parties objected to approval of the Disclosure Statement at the Initial Disclosure Statement hearing, which was eventually continued to November 23, 2020.
- h. Following the Initial Disclosure Statement hearing, the Debtor continued to negotiate with the Committee and ultimately resolved the remaining material disputes and led to the Bankruptcy Court's approval of the Disclosure Statement on November 23, 2020.
- i. Even after obtaining the Bankruptcy Court's approval of the Disclosure Statement, the Debtor and the Committee continued to negotiate with Mr. Dondero and the Committee over a potential "pot plan" as an alternative to the Plan on file with the Bankruptcy Court, but such efforts were unsuccessful. This history conclusively demonstrates that the Plan is being proposed in good faith within the meaning of section 1129(a)(3).

49. Payments for Services or Costs and Expenses (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(4)).

Article II.B of the Plan provides that Professionals will file all final requests for payment of Professional Fee Claims no later than 60 days after the Effective Date, thereby providing an adequate period of time for interested parties to review such claims. The procedures set forth in the Plan for the Bankruptcy Court's approval of the fees, costs, and expenses to be paid in connection with this chapter 11 Case, or in connection with the Plan and incident to this Chapter 11 Case, satisfy the objectives of and are in compliance with section 1129(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

50. Directors, Officers, and Insiders (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(5)). Article IV.B

of the Plan provides for the appointment of the Claimant Trustee, Litigation Trustee, and the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee and the members thereto. For the reasons more fully explained in paragraphs 44-45 of this Confirmation Order with respect to the requirement of section 1123(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtor has disclosed the nature of compensation of any insider to be employed or retained by the Reorganized Debtor, if applicable, and compensation for any such insider. The appointment of such individuals is consistent with the interests of Claims and Equity Interests and with public policy. Thus, the Plan satisfies section 1129(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code.

51. No Rate Changes (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(6)). The Plan does not provide for any rate change that requires regulatory approval. Section 1129(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code is thus not applicable.

52. Best Interests of Creditors (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(7)). The “best interests” test is satisfied as to all Impaired Classes under the Plan, as each Holder of a Claim or Equity Interest in such Impaired Classes will receive or retain property of a value, as of the Effective Date of the Plan, that is not less than the amount that such Holder would so receive or retain if the Debtor were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. On October 15, 2020, the Debtor filed the Liquidation Analysis [Docket 1173], as prepared by the Debtor with the assistance of its advisors and which was attached as Exhibit C to the Disclosure Statement. On January 29, 2021, in advance of Mr. Seery’s deposition in connection with confirmation of the Plan, the Debtor provided an updated version of the Liquidation Analysis to the then-objectors of the Plan, including Mr. Dondero and the Dondero Related Entities. On February 1, 2021, the Debtor filed the Amended Liquidation Analysis/Financial Projections. The Amended Liquidation Analysis/Financial Projections included updates to the Debtor’s projected asset values, revenues, and expenses to reflect: (1) the acquisition of an interest in an entity known as “HCLOF” that the Debtor will acquire as part of its court-approved settlement with HarbourVest and that was valued at $22.5 million; (2) an increase in the value of certain of the Debtor’s assets due to changes in market conditions and other factors; (3) expected revenues and expenses arising in connection with the Debtor’s continued management of the CLOs pursuant to management agreements that the Debtor decided to retain; (4) increases in projected expenses for headcount (in addition to adding two or three employees to assist in the management of the CLOs, the Debtor also increased modestly the projected headcount as a result of its decision not to engage a Sub-Servicer) and professional fees; and (5) an increase in projected recoveries on notes resulting from the acceleration of term notes owed to the Debtor by the following Dondero Related Entities: NexPoint Advisors, L.P.; Highland Capital Management Services, Inc.; and HCRE Partners, LLC (n/k/a NexPoint Real Estate Partners, LLC). Under the Plan, as of the Confirmation Date, (a) Class 7 General Unsecured Creditors are projected to receive 85% on account of their claims; and (b) Class 8 General Unsecured Creditors are projected to receive at least approximately 71% on account of their Claims. Under a hypothetical chapter 7 liquidation, all general unsecured creditors are projected to receive approximately 55% on account of their Claims. The Bankruptcy Court finds that the distributions that Class 7 and 8 General Unsecured Creditors are projected to receive under the Plan substantially exceeds that which they would receive under a chapter 7 liquidation based on Mr. Seery's testimony, including the following credible reasons he posited, among others:

- a. The nature of the Debtor's assets is complex. Certain assets relate to complicated real estate structures and private equity investments in operating businesses. Mr. Seery's extensive experience with the Debtor during the thirteen months since his appointment as an Independent Director and later Chief Executive Officer and Chief Restructuring Officer, provides him with a substantial learning curve in connection with the disposition of the Debtor's assets and are reasonably expected to result in him being able to realize tens of millions of dollars more value than would a chapter 7 trustee.
- b. Assuming that a hypothetical chapter 7 trustee could even operate the Debtor's business under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code and hire the necessary personnel with the relevant knowledge and experience to assist him or her in selling the Debtor's assets, a chapter 7 trustee would likely seek to dispose of the Debtor's assets in a forced sale liquidation which would generate substantially less value for the Debtor's creditors than the asset monetization plan contemplated by the Plan.
- c. A chapter 7 trustee would be unlikely to retain the Debtor's existing professionals to assist in its efforts to monetize assets, resulting in delays, increased expenses, and reduced asset yields for the chapter 7 estate.

- d. The chapter 7 estate would be unlikely to maximize value as compared to the asset monetization process contemplated by the Plan because potential buyers are likely to perceive a chapter 7 trustee as engaging in a quick, forced “fire sale” of assets; and
- e. The Debtor’s employees, who are vital to its efforts to maximum value and recoveries for stakeholders, may be unwilling to provide services to a chapter 7 trustee.

Finally, there is no evidence to support the objectors’ argument that the Claimant Trust Agreement’s disclaimed liability for ordinary negligence by the Claimant Trustee compared to a chapter 7 trustee’s liability has any relevance to creditor recoveries in a hypothetical chapter 7 liquidation. Thus, section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code is satisfied.

53. Acceptance by Certain Classes (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(8)). Classes 1, 3, 4, 5 and 6 are Unimpaired under the Plan. Class 2 (Frontier Secured Claim), Class 7 (Convenience Claims), and Class 9 (Subordinated Claims) have each voted to accept the Plan in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, thereby satisfying section 1129(a)(8) as to those Classes. However, Class 8 (General Unsecured Claims), Class 10 (Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests), and Class 11 (Class A Limited Partnership Interests) have not accepted the Plan. Accordingly, section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code has not been satisfied. The Plan, however, is still confirmable because it satisfies the nonconsensual confirmation provisions of section 1129(b), as set forth below.

54. Treatment of Administrative, Priority, Priority Tax Claims, and Professional Fee Claims (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(9)). The treatment of Administrative Claims, Priority Claims, and Professional Fee Claims pursuant to Article III of the Plan, and as set forth below with respect to the resolution of the objections filed by the Internal Revenue Service and certain Texas taxing authorities satisfies the requirements of sections 1129(a)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code.

55. Acceptance by Impaired Class (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(10)). Class 2 (Frontier Secured Claims) and Class 7 (Convenience Claims) are each Impaired Classes of Claims that voted to accept the Plan, determined without including any acceptance of the Plan by any insider. Therefore, the requirement of section 1129(a)(10) of the Bankruptcy Code is satisfied.

56. Feasibility (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(11)). Article IV of the Plan provides for the implementation of the Plan through the Claimant Trust, the Litigation Sub-Trust, and the Reorganized Debtor. The Plan provides that the Claimant Trust, among other things, will monetize and distribute the Debtor's remaining assets. The Disclosure Statement, the Amended Liquidation Analysis/Financial Projections, and the other evidence presented at the Confirmation Hearing provide a reasonable probability of success that the Debtor will be able to effectuate the provisions of the Plan. The Plan contemplates the establishment of the Claimant Trust upon the Effective Date, which will monetize the Estate's assets for the benefit of creditors. Mr. Seery testified that the Class 2 Frontier Secured Claim will be paid over time pursuant to the terms of the New Frontier Note and the Reorganized Debtor will have sufficient assets to satisfy its obligations under this note. The Claims of the Holders of Class 7 Claims (as well as those Class 8 creditors who validly opted to receive the treatment of Class 7 Claims) are expected to be satisfied shortly after the Effective Date. Holders of Class 8 Claims (including any holders of Class 7 Claims who opted to receive the treatment provided to Class 8 Claims) are not guaranteed any recovery and will periodically receive pro rata distributions as assets are monetized pursuant to the Plan and the Claimant Trust Agreement. Thus, section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code is satisfied.

57. Payment of Fees (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(12)). All fees payable under 28 U.S.C. § 1930 have been paid or will be paid on or before the Effective Date pursuant to Article XII.A of the Plan, thus satisfying the requirement of section 1129(a)(12) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtor has agreed that the Reorganized Debtor, the Claimant Trust, and the Litigation Sub-Trust shall be jointly and severally liable for payment of quarterly fees to the Office of the United States Trustee pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930 through the entry of the Final Decree for the Debtor or the dismissal or conversion of the Chapter 11 Case.

58. Retiree Benefits. The Plan provides for the assumption of the Pension Plan (to the extent such Pension Plan provides “retiree benefits” and is governed by section 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code). Thus, the Plan complies with section 1129(a)(13) of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent applicable.

59. Miscellaneous Provisions (11 U.S.C. §§ 1129(a)(14)-(16)). Sections 1129(a)(14)-(16) of the Bankruptcy Code are inapplicable as the Debtor (i) has no domestic support obligations (section 1129(a)(14)), (ii) is not an individual (section 1129(a)(15)), and (iii) is not a nonprofit corporation (section 1129(a)(16)).

60. No Unfair Discrimination; Fair and Equitable Treatment (11 U.S.C. § 1129(b)). The classification and treatment of Claims and Equity Interests in Classes 8, 10 and 11, which have not accepted the Plan, is proper pursuant to section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code, does not discriminate unfairly, and is fair and equitable pursuant to section 1129(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

- a. Class 8. The Plan is fair and equitable with respect to Class 8 General Unsecured Claims. While Equity Interests in Class 10 and Class 11 will receive a contingent interest in the Claimant Trust under the Plan (the “Contingent Interests”), the Contingent Interests will not vest unless and until holders of Class 8 General Unsecured Claims and Class 9 Subordinated Claims receive distributions equal to 100% of the amount of their Allowed Claims plus interest as provided under the Plan and Claimant Trust Agreement. Accordingly, as the holders of Equity Interests that are junior to the Claims in Class 8 and Class 9 will not receive or retain under the Plan on account of such junior claim interest any property unless and until the Claims in Class 8 and Class 9 are paid in full plus applicable interest, the Plan is fair and equitable with respect to holders of Class 8 General Unsecured Claims pursuant to section 1129(b)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code and the reasoning of In re Introgen Therapeutics 429 B.R 570 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. 2010).
- b. Class 10 and Class 11. There are no Claims or Equity Interests junior to the Equity Interests in Class 10 and Class 11. Equity Interests in Class 10 and 11 will neither receive nor retain any property under the Plan unless Allowed Claims in Class 8 and Class 9 are paid in full plus applicable interest pursuant to the terms of the Plan and Claimant Trust Agreement. Thus, the Plan does not violate the absolute priority rule with respect to Classes 10 and 11 pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 1129(b)(2)(C). The Plan does not discriminate unfairly as to Equity Interests. As noted above, separate classification of the Class B/C Partnership Interests from the Class A Partnerships Interests is appropriate because they constitute different classes of equity security interests in the Debtor, and each are appropriately separately classified and treated.

Accordingly, the Plan does not violate the absolute priority rule, does not discriminate unfairly, and is fair and equitable with respect to each Class that has rejected the Plan. Thus, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to Classes 8, 10, and 11.

61. Only One Plan (11 U.S.C. § 1129(c)). The Plan is the only chapter 11 plan confirmed in this Chapter 11 Case, and the requirements of section 1129(c) of the Bankruptcy Code are therefore satisfied.

62. Principal Purpose (11 U.S.C. § 1129(d)). Mr. Seery testified that the principal purpose of the Plan is neither the avoidance of taxes nor the avoidance of the application of section 5 of the Securities Act of 1933, and no governmental unit has objected to the confirmation of the Plan on any such grounds. Accordingly, section 1129(d) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable.

63. Satisfaction of Confirmation Requirements. Based upon the foregoing, the Plan satisfies the requirements for confirmation set forth in section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code and should be confirmed.

64. Good Faith Solicitation (11 U.S.C. § 1125(e)). The Debtor, the Independent Directors, and the Debtor's employees, advisors, Professionals, and agents have acted in good faith within the meaning of section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules in connection with all of their respective activities relating to the solicitation of acceptances of the Plan and their participation in the activities described in section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, and they are entitled to the protections afforded by section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

65. Discharge (11 U.S.C. § 1141(d)(3)). The Debtor is entitled to a discharge of debts pursuant to section 1141(d)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. Under the Plan, the Claimant Trust or Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, will continue to manage funds and conduct business in the same manner as the Debtor did prior to Plan confirmation, which includes the management of the CLOs, Multi-Strat, Restoration Capital, the Select Fund and the Korea Fund. Although the Plan projects that it will take approximately two years to monetize the Debtor's assets for fair value, Mr. Seery testified that while the Reorganized Debtor and Claimant Trust will be monetizing their assets, there is no specified time frame by which this process must conclude. Mr. Seery's credible testimony demonstrates that the Debtor will continue to engage in business after consummation of the Plan, within the meaning of Section 1141(d)(3)(b) and that the Debtor is entitled to a discharge pursuant to section 1141(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

66. Retention of Jurisdiction. The Bankruptcy Court may properly retain jurisdiction over the matters set forth in Article XI of the Plan and/or section 1142 of the Bankruptcy Code to the maximum extent under applicable law.

67. Additional Plan Provisions (11 U.S.C. § 1123(b)). The Plan's provisions are appropriate, in the best interests of the Debtor and its Estate, and consistent with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules, and Local Rules.

68. Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases (11 U.S.C. § 1123(b)(2)). The Debtor has exercised reasonable business judgment with respect to the rejection of the Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases pursuant the terms of the Plan and this Confirmation Order, and such rejections are justified and appropriate in this Chapter 11 Case. The Debtor also filed the List of Assumed Contracts, which contain notices to the applicable counterparties to the contracts set forth on Exhibit "FF" to Plan Supplement filed on February 1, 2021 [Docket No. 1875] and which exhibit sets forth the list of executory contracts and unexpired leases to be assumed by the Debtor pursuant to the Plan (collectively, the “Assumed Contracts”). With respect to the Assumed Contracts, only one party objected to the assumption of any of the Assumed Contracts, but that objection was withdrawn.<sup>8</sup> Any modifications, amendments, supplements, and restatements to the Assumed Contracts that may have been executed by the Debtor during the Chapter 11 Case shall not be deemed to alter the prepetition nature of the Assumed Contracts or the validity, priority, or amount of any Claims that may arise in connection therewith. Assumption of any Assumed Contract pursuant to the Plan and full payment of any applicable Cure pursuant to the Plan shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any Cures, Claims, or defaults, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease at any time prior to the effective date of assumption.

69. Compromises and Settlements Under and in Connection with the Plan (11 U.S.C. § 1123(b)(3)). All of the settlements and compromises pursuant to and in connection with the Plan, comply with the requirements of section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019.

70. Debtor Release, Exculpation and Injunctions (11 U.S.C. § 1123(b)). The Debtor Release, Exculpation, and Injunction provisions provided in the Plan (i) are within the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court under 28 U.S.C. § 1334; (ii) are integral elements of the transactions incorporated into the Plan, and inextricably bound with the other provisions of the Plan; (iii) confer material benefit on, and are in the best interests of, the Debtor, its Estate, and its creditors; (iv) are fair, equitable, and reasonable; (v) are given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; (vi) satisfy the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 9019; and (vii) are consistent with the Bankruptcy Code and other applicable law, and as set forth below.

71. Debtor Release. Section IX.D of the Plan provides for the Debtor's release of the Debtor's and Estate's claims against the Released Parties. Releases by a debtor are discretionary and can be provided by a debtor to persons who have provided consideration to the Debtor and its estate pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code. Contrary to the objections raised by Mr. Dondero and certain of the Dondero Related Entities, the Debtor Release is appropriately limited to release claims held by the Debtor and does not purport to release the claims held by the Claimant Trust, Litigation Sub-Trust, or other third parties. The Plan does not purport to release any claims held by third parties and the Bankruptcy Court finds that the Debtor Release is not a "disguised" release of any third party claims as asserted by certain objecting parties. The limited scope of the Debtor Release in the Plan was extensively negotiated with the Committee, particularly with the respect to the Debtor's conditional release of claims against employees, as identified in the Plan, and the Plan's conditions and terms of such releases. The Plan does not release (i) any obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement executed to implement the Plan, (ii) the rights or obligations of any current employee of the Debtor under any employment agreement or plan, (iii) the rights of the Debtor with respect to any confidentiality provisions or covenants restricting competition in favor of the Debtor under any employment agreement with a current or former employee of the Debtor, (iv) any Avoidance Actions, or (v) any Causes of Action arising from willful misconduct, criminal misconduct, actual fraud, or gross negligence of such applicable Released Party as determined by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction. The Debtor Release also contains conditions to such releases as set forth in Article X.D of the Plan with respect to employees (the “Release Conditions”). Until the an employee satisfies the Release Conditions or the Release Conditions otherwise terminate, any claims against such employee will be tolled so that if the Release Conditions are not met the Litigation Trustee may pursue claims against an employee at a later date. The evidence before the Bankruptcy Court, including, but not limited to Mr. Seery’s testimony, demonstrates that the Debtor is not aware of any claims against any of the Released Parties, that the Released Parties have been instrumental in assisting the Debtor’s efforts toward confirmation of the Plan and that, therefore, the releases are a quid pro quo for the Released Parties’ significant contributions to a highly complex and contentious restructuring. The Committee, whose members hold approximately $200 million in claims against the Estate, is highly sophisticated and is represented by highly sophisticated professionals, and has actively and vigorously negotiated the terms of the Debtor Release, which was the subject of significant controversy at the Initial Disclosure Statement hearing held by the Bankruptcy Court on October 27, 2020.

72. Exculpation. Section IX.C of the Plan provides for the exculpation of certain Exculpated Parties to the extent provided therein (the “Exculpation Provision”). As explained below, the Exculpation Provision is appropriate under the unique circumstances of this litigious Chapter 11 Case and consistent with applicable Fifth Circuit precedent. First, with respect to the Independent Directors, their agents, and their advisors, including any employees acting at their direction, the Bankruptcy Court finds and concludes that it has already exculpated these parties for acts other than willful misconduct and gross negligence pursuant to the January 9 Order. The January 9 Order was specifically agreed to by Mr. Dondero, who was in control of the Debtor up until entry of the January 9 Order. The January 9 Order was not appealed. In addition to the appointment of the Independent Directors in an already contentious and litigious case, the January 9 Order set the standard of care for the Independent Directors and specifically exculpated them for negligence. Mr. Seery and Mr. Dubel each testified that they had input into the contents of the January 9 Order and would not have agreed to their appointment as Independent Directors if the January 9 Order did not include the protections set forth in paragraph 10 of the January 9 Order. Paragraph 10 of the January 9 Order (1) requires that parties wishing to sue the Independent Directors or their agents and advisors must first seek approval from the Bankruptcy Court before doing so; (2) sets the standard of care for the Independent Directors during the Chapter 11 Case and exculpated the Independent Directors for acts other than willful misconduct or gross negligence; (3) only permits suits against the Independent Directors to proceed for colorable claims of willful misconduct and gross negligence upon order of the Bankruptcy Court; and (4) does not expire by its terms.

73. Existing Exculpation of Independent Directors. The Bankruptcy Court also finds and concludes that it has already exculpated Mr. Seery acting in the capacity as Chief Executive Officer and Chief Restructuring Officer pursuant to the July 16 Order. The Bankruptcy Court concludes its previous approval of the exculpation of the Independent Directors, their agents, advisors and employees working at their direction pursuant to the January 9 Order, and the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Restructuring Officer pursuant to the July 16 Order constitutes the law of this case and are res judicata pursuant to In re Republic Supply Co. v. Shoaf, 815 F.2d 1046 (5th Cir.1987). The January 9 Order and July 16 Order cannot be collaterally attacked based on the objectors’ objection to the exculpation of the Independent Directors, their agents, and advisors, including any employees acting at their direction, as well as the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Restructuring Officer, that the Bankruptcy Court already approved pursuant to the January 9 Order and the July 16 Order.

74. The Exculpation Provision Complies with Applicable Law. Separate and apart from the res judicata effect of the January 9 Order and the July 16 Order, the Bankruptcy Court also finds and concludes that the Exculpation Provision is consistent with applicable law, including In re Pacific Lumber Co., 584 F.3d 229 (5th Cir. 2009), for several reasons:

- a. First, the statutory basis for Pacific Lumber’s denial of exculpation for certain parties other than a creditors’ committee and its members is that section 524(e) of the Bankruptcy Code “only releases the debtor, not co-liable third parties.” Pacific Lumber, 253 F.3d. at 253. However, Pacific Lumber does not prohibit all exculpations under the Bankruptcy Code and the court in such case specifically approved the exculpations of a creditors’ committee and its members on the grounds that “11 U.S.C. § 1103(c), which lists the creditors’ committee’s powers, implies committee members have qualified immunity for actions within the scope of their duties.... [I]f members of the committee can be sued by persons unhappy with the committee’s performance during the case or unhappy with the outcome of the case, it will be extremely difficult to find members to serve on an official committee.” Pacific Lumber, 253 F.3d at 253 (quoting Lawrence P. King, et al, Collier on Bankruptcy, ¶ 1103.05[4][b] (15th Ed. 2008)). Pacific Lumber’s rationale for permitted exculpation of creditors’ committees and their members (which was clearly policy-based and based on a creditors’ committee qualified immunity flowing from their duties under section 1103(c) of the Bankruptcy Code and their disinterestedness and importance in chapter 11 cases) does not preclude exculpation to other parties in a particular chapter 11 case that perform similar roles to a creditors’ committee and its members. The Independent Directors, and by extension the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Restructuring Officer, were not part of the Debtor's enterprise prior to their appointment by the Bankruptcy Court under the January 9 Order. The Bankruptcy Court appointed the Independent Directors in lieu of a chapter 11 trustee to address what the Bankruptcy Court perceived as serious conflicts of interest and fiduciary duty concerns with the then-existing management prior to January 9, 2020, as identified by the Committee. In addition, the Bankruptcy Court finds that the Independent Directors expected to be exculpated from claims of negligence, and would likely have been unwilling to serve in contentious cases absent exculpation. The uncontroverted testimony of Mr. Seery and Mr. Dubel demonstrates that the Independent Directors would not have agreed to accept their roles without the exculpation and gatekeeper provision in the January 9 Order. Mr. Dubel also testified as to the increasing important role that independent directors are playing in complex chapter 11 restructurings and that unless independent directors could be assured of exculpation for simple negligence in contentious bankruptcy cases they would be reluctant to accept appointment in chapter 11 cases which would adversely affect the chapter 11 restructuring process. The Bankruptcy Court concludes that the Independent Directors were appointed under the January 9 Order in order to avoid the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee and are analogous to a creditors' committee rather than an incumbent board of directors. The Bankruptcy Court also concludes that if independent directors cannot be assured of exculpation for simple negligence in contentious bankruptcy cases, they may not be willing to serve in that capacity. Based upon the foregoing, the Bankruptcy Court concludes that Pacific Lumber's policy of exculpating creditors' committees and their members from "being sued by persons unhappy with the committee's performance during the case or unhappy with the outcome of the case" is applicable to the Independent Directors in this Chapter 11 Case.<sup>9</sup>

- b. Second, the Bankruptcy Court also concludes that Pacific Lumber does not preclude the exculpation of parties if there is a showing that "costs [that] the released parties might incur defending against such suits alleging such negligence are likely to swamp either the Exculpated Parties or the reorganization." Pacific Lumber, 584 F.3d at 252. If ever there was a risk of that happening in a chapter 11 reorganization, it is this one. Mr. Seery credibly testified that Mr. Dondero stated outside the courtroom that if Mr. Dondero's pot plan does not get approved, that Mr. Dondero will "burn the place down." The Bankruptcy Court can easily expect that the proposed Exculpated Parties might expect to incur costs that could swamp them and the reorganization based on the prior litigious conduct of Mr. Dondero and his controlled entities that justify their inclusion in the Exculpation Provision.

75. Injunction. Section IX.D of the Plan provides for a Plan injunction to implement and enforce the Plan’s release, discharge and release provisions (the “Injunction Provision”). The Injunction Provision is necessary to implement the provisions in the Plan. Mr. Seery testified that the Claimant Trustee will monetize the Debtor’s assets in order to maximize their value. In order to accomplish this goal, the Claimant Trustee needs to be able to pursue this objective without the interference and harassment of Mr. Dondero and his related entities, including the Dondero Related Entities. Mr. Seery also testified that if the Claimant Trust was subject to interference by Mr. Dondero, it would take additional time to monetize the Debtor’s assets and those assets could be monetized for less money to the detriment of the Debtor’s creditors. The Bankruptcy Court finds and concludes that the Injunction Provision is consistent with and permissible under Bankruptcy Code sections 1123(a), 1123(a)(6), 1141(a) and (c), and 1142. The Bankruptcy Court rejects assertions by certain objecting parties that the Injunction Provision constitutes a “third-party release.” The Injunction Provision is appropriate under the circumstances of this Chapter 11 Case and complies with applicable bankruptcy law. The Bankruptcy Court also concludes that the terms “implementation” and “consummation” are neither vague nor ambiguous

76. Gatekeeper Provision. Section IX.F of the Plan contains a provision contained in paragraph AA of this Confirmation Order and which the Debtor has referred to as a gatekeeper provision (the “Gatekeeper Provision”). The Gatekeeper Provision requires that Enjoined Parties first seek approval of the Bankruptcy Court before they may commence an action against Protected Parties. Thereafter, if the Bankruptcy Court determines that the action is colorable, the Bankruptcy Court may, if it has jurisdiction, adjudicate the action. The Bankruptcy Court finds that the inclusion of the Gatekeeper Provision is critical to the effective and efficient administration, implementation, and consummation of the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court also concludes that the Bankruptcy Court has the statutory authority as set forth below to approve the Gatekeeper Provision.

77. Factual Support for Gatekeeper Provision. The facts supporting the need for the Gatekeeper Provision are as follows. As discussed earlier in this Confirmation Order, prior to the commencement of the Debtor's bankruptcy case, and while under the direction of Mr. Dondero, the Debtor had been involved in a myriad of litigation, some of which had gone on for years and, in some cases, over a decade. Substantially all of the creditors in this case are either parties who were engaged in litigation with the Debtor, parties who represented the Debtor in connection with such litigation and had not been paid, or trade creditors who provided litigation-related services to the Debtor. During the last several months, Mr. Dondero and the Dondero Related Entities have harassed the Debtor, which has resulted in further substantial, costly, and time-consuming litigation for the Debtor. Such litigation includes: (i) entry of a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction against Mr. Dondero [Adv. Proc. No. 20-03190 Docket No. 10 and 59] because of, among other things, his harassment of Mr. Seery and employees and interference with the Debtor's business operations; (ii) a contempt motion against Mr. Dondero for violation of the temporary restraining order, which motion is still pending before the Bankruptcy Court [Adv. Proc. No. 20-03190 Docket No. 48]; (iii) a motion by Mr. Dondero's controlled investors in certain CLOs managed by the Debtor that the Bankruptcy Court referred to as frivolous and a waste of the Bankruptcy Court’s time [Docket No. 1528] which was denied by the Court [Docket No. 1605]; (iv) multiple plan confirmation objections focused on ensuring the Dondero Related Entities be able to continue their litigation against the Debtor and its successors post-confirmation [Docket Nos. 1661, 1667, 1670, 1673, 1676, 1677 and 1868]; (v) objections to the approval of the Debtor’s settlements with Acis and HarbourVest and subsequent appeals of the Bankruptcy Court’s order approving each of those settlements [Docket Nos. 1347 and 1870]; and (vi) a complaint and injunction sought against Mr. Dondero’s affiliated entities to prevent them from violating the January 9 Order and entry of a restraining order against those entities [Adv Proc. No. 21-03000 Docket No 1] (collectively, the “Dondero Post-Petition Litigation”).

78. Findings Regarding Dondero Post-Petition Litigation. The Bankruptcy Court finds that the Dondero Post-Petition Litigation was a result of Mr. Dondero failing to obtain creditor support for his plan proposal and consistent with his comments, as set forth in Mr. Seery’s credible testimony, that if Mr. Dondero’s plan proposal was not accepted, he would “burn down the place.” The Bankruptcy Court concludes that without appropriate protections in place, in the form of the Gatekeeper Provision, Mr. Dondero and his related entities will likely commence litigation against the Protected Parties after the Effective Date and do so in jurisdictions other than the Bankruptcy Court in an effort to obtain a forum which Mr. Dondero perceives will be more hospitable to his claims. The Bankruptcy Court also finds, based upon Mr. Seery’s testimony, that the threat of continued litigation by Mr. Dondero and his related entities after the Effective Date will impede efforts by the Claimant Trust to monetize assets for the benefit of creditors and result in lower distributions to creditors because of costs and distraction such litigation or the threats of such litigation would cause.

79. Necessity of Gatekeeper Provision. The Bankruptcy Court further finds that unless the Bankruptcy Court approves the Gatekeeper Provision, the Claimant Trustee and the Claimant Trust Oversight Board will not be able to obtain D&O insurance, the absence of which will present unacceptable risks to parties currently willing to serve in such roles. The Bankruptcy Court heard testimony from Mark Tauber, a Vice President with AON Financial Services, the Debtor's insurance broker ("AON"), regarding his efforts to obtain D&O insurance. Mr. Tauber credibly testified that of all the insurance carriers that AON approached to provide D&O insurance coverage after the Effective Date, the only one willing to do so without an exclusion for claims asserted by Mr. Dondero and his affiliates otherwise requires that this Order approve the Gatekeeper Provision. Based on the foregoing, the Bankruptcy Court finds that the Gatekeeper Provision is necessary and appropriate in light of the history of the continued litigiousness of Mr. Dondero and his related entities in this Chapter 11 Case and necessary to the effective and efficient administration, implementation and consummation of the Plan and is appropriate pursuant to Carroll v. Abide (In re Carroll) 850 F.3d 811 (5th Cir. 2017). Approval of the Gatekeeper Provision will prevent baseless litigation designed merely to harass the post-confirmation entities charged with monetizing the Debtor's assets for the benefit of its economic constituents, will avoid abuse of the court system and preempt the use of judicial time that properly could be used to consider the meritorious claims of other litigants. Any suit against a Protected Party would effectively be a suit against the Debtor, and the Debtor may be required to indemnify the Protected

Parties under the Limited Partnership Agreement, which will remain in effect through the Effective Date, or those certain Indemnification and Guaranty Agreements, dated January 9, 2020, between Strand, the Debtor, and each Independent Director, following the Confirmation Date as each such agreement will be assumed pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 365 pursuant to the Plan.

80. Statutory Authority to Approve Gatekeeper Provision. The Bankruptcy Court finds it has the statutory authority to approve the Gatekeeper Provision under sections 1123(a)(5), 1123(b)(6), 1141, 1142(b), and 105(a). The Gatekeeper Provision is also within the spirit of the Supreme Court’s “Barton Doctrine.” Barton v. Barbour, 104 U.S. 126 (1881). The Gatekeeper Provision is also consistent with the notion of a prefiling injunction to deter vexatious litigants, that has been approved by the Fifth Circuit in such cases as Baum v. Blue Moon Ventures, LLC, 513 F.3d 181, 189 (5th Cir. 2008), and In re Carroll, 850 F.3d 811 (5th Cir. 2017).

81. Jurisdiction to Implement Gatekeeper Provision. The Bankruptcy Court finds that it will have jurisdiction after the Effective Date to implement the Gatekeeper Provision as post-confirmation bankruptcy court jurisdiction has been interpreted by the Fifth Circuit under United States Brass Corp. v. Travelers Ins. Group, Inc. (In re United States Brass Corp.), 301 F.3d 296 (5th Cir. 2002) and EOP-Colonnade of Dallas Ltd. P’Ship v. Faulkner (In re Stonebridge Techs., Inc.), 430 F.3d 260 (5th Cir. 2005). Based upon the rationale of the Fifth Circuit in Villegas v. Schmidt, 788 F.3d 156, 158-59 (5th Cir. 2015), the Bankruptcy Court’s jurisdiction to act as a gatekeeper does not violate Stern v. Marshall. The Bankruptcy Court’s determination of whether a claim is colorable, which the Bankruptcy Court has jurisdiction to determine, is distinct from whether the Bankruptcy Court would have jurisdiction to adjudicate any claim it finds colorable.

82. Resolution of Objections of Scott Ellington and Isaac Leventon. Each of Scott Ellington (“Mr. Ellington”) and Isaac Leventon (“Mr. Leventon”) (each, a “Senior Employee Claimant”) has asserted certain claims for liquidated but unpaid bonus amounts for the following periods: 2016, 2017, and 2018, as set forth in Exhibit A to that certain Senior Employees’ Limited Objection to Debtor’s Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization [Docket No. 1669] (the “Senior Employees’ Objection”) (for each of Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon, the “Liquidated Bonus Claims”).

- a. Mr. Ellington has asserted Liquidated Bonus Claims in the aggregate amount of $1,367,197.00, and Mr. Leventon has asserted Liquidated Bonus Claims in the aggregate amount of $598,198.00. Mr. Ellington received two Ballots<sup>10</sup> – a Ballot for Class 7 of the Plan and a Ballot for Class 8 of the Plan. Mr. Ellington completed and timely returned both of such Ballots, voted to reject the Plan, and elected to have his Class 8 Liquidated Bonus Claims treated under Class 7 of the Plan, subject to the objections and reservations of rights set forth in the Senior Employees’ Objection. If Mr. Ellington is permitted to elect Class 7 treatment for his Liquidated Bonus Claims, then the maximum amount of his Liquidated Bonus Claims will be $1,000,000.
- b. Mr. Leventon received two Ballots—a Ballot for Class 7 of the Plan and a Ballot for Class 8 of the Plan. Mr. Leventon completed and timely returned both of such Ballots and voted each such Ballots to rejected the Plan.
- c. The Senior Employees’ Objection, among other things, objects to the Plan on the grounds that the Debtor improperly disputes the right of Mr. Ellington to elect Class 7 treatment for his Liquidated Bonus Claims and Mr. Leventon’s entitlement to receive Class 7 Convenience Class treatment for his Liquidated Bonus Claims. The Debtor contended that neither Mr. Ellington or Mr. Leventon were entitled to elect to receive Class 7 Convenience Class treatment on account of their Liquidated

<sup>10</sup> As defined in the Plan, “Ballot” means the forms(s) distributed to holders of Impaired Claims or Equity Interests entitled to vote on the Plan on which to indicate their acceptance or rejection of the Plan.

Bonus Claims under the terms of the Plan, the Disclosure Statement Order or applicable law.

- d. The Debtor and Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon negotiated at arms' length in an effort to resolve all issues raised in the Senior Employee's Objection, including whether or not Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon were entitled to Class 7 Convenience Class treatment of their Liquidated Bonus Claims. As a result of such negotiation, the Debtor, Mr. Ellington, and Mr. Leventon have agreed to the settlement described in paragraphs 82(e) through 82(k) below and approved and effectuated pursuant to decretal paragraphs RR through SS (the "Senior Employees' Settlement").
- e. Under the terms of the Senior Employees' Settlement, the Debtor has the right to elect one of two treatments of the Liquidated Bonus Claims for a Senior Employee Claimant. Under the first treatment option ("Option A"), the Liquidated Bonus Claims will be entitled to be treated in Class 7 of the Plan, and the Liquidated Bonus Claims will be entitled to receive payment in an amount equal to 70.125% of the Class 7 amount of the Liquidated Bonus Claims, subject to the Liquidated Bonus Claims becoming Allowed Claims under the terms of the Plan. Under this calculation, Mr. Ellington would be entitled to receive $701,250.00 on account of his Class 7 Convenience Class Claim when and as Allowed under the Plan, and Mr. Leventon would be entitled to receive $413,175.10 on account of his Class 7 Convenience Class Claim when and as Allowed under the Plan. If, however, any party in interest objects to the allowance of the Senior Employee Claimant's Liquidated Bonus Claims and does not prevail in such objection, then such Senior Employee Claimant will be entitled to a payment in an amount equal to 85% of his Allowed Liquidated Bonus Claims (subject, in the case of Mr. Ellington, to the cap imposed on Class 7 Claims). In addition, under Option A, each of Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon would retain their respective rights to assert that the Liquidated Bonus Claims are entitled to be treated as Administrative Expense Claims, as defined in Article I.B.2. of the Plan, in which case the holder of such Liquidated Bonus Claims would be entitled to payment in full of the Allowed Liquidated Bonus Claims. Under Option A, parties in interest would retain the right to object to any motion seeking payment of the Liquidated Bonus Amounts as Administrative Expenses.
- f. Under the second treatment option ("Option B"), the Debtor would agree that the Senior Employee Claimant has Allowed Liquidated Bonus Claims, no longer subject to objection by any party in interest, in the amounts of the Liquidated Bonus Claims (subject, in the case of Mr. Ellington, to the cap imposed by Class 7). If the Debtor elects Option B as to a Senior Employee Claimant, then such Senior Employee Claimant would be entitled to a payment on account of his Allowed Liquidated Bonus Claims in an amount equal to 60% of the amount of the Liquidated Bonus Claims (which, in Mr. Ellington's case, would be $600,000 and in Mr. Leventon's case, would be $358,918.80), and such payment would be the sole recovery on account of such Allowed Liquidated Bonus Claims.

- g. The Debtor may, with the consent of the Committee, elect Option B with respect to a Senior Employee Claimant at any time prior to the occurrence of the Effective Date. If the Debtor does not make an election, then Option A will apply.
- h. Under either Option A or Option B, Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon will retain all their rights with respect to all Claims other than the Liquidated Bonus Amounts, including, but not limited to, their Class 6 PTO Claims, other claims asserted as Class 8 General Unsecured Claims, the Senior Employees' claims for indemnification against the Debtor, and any other claims that they may assert constitute Administrative Expense Claims, and any other such Claims are subject to the rights of any party in interest to object to such Claims, and the Debtor reserves any all of its rights and defenses in connection therewith.
- i. Subject to entry of this Confirmation Order and as set forth and announced on the record at the hearing on confirmation of the Plan and no party objecting thereto, Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon agreed to change the votes in their respective Ballots from rejection to acceptance of the Plan and to withdraw the Senior Employees' Objection.
- j. The Senior Employees' Settlement represents a valid exercise of the Debtor's business judgment and satisfies the requirements for a compromise under Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a).
- k. For the avoidance of doubt, neither Mr. Leventon nor Mr. Ellington shall be a Released Party under the Plan regardless of how the Senior Employee Claimants' Claims are to be treated hereunder.

Based upon the foregoing findings, and upon the record made before the Bankruptcy Court at the Confirmation Hearing, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor, it is hereby

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

A. Confirmation of the Plan. The Plan is approved in its entirety and CONFIRMED under section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code. The terms of the Plan, including the sufficient notice thereof. Accordingly, pursuant to section 1127(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3019, the Plan Modifications and the Plan Supplements do not require additional disclosure under section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code or resolicitation of votes under section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, nor do they require that Holders of Claims or Equity Interests be afforded an opportunity to change previously cast acceptances or rejections of the Plan. The Plan Modifications and the Plan Supplements constitute the Plan pursuant to section 1127(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Plan, as modified, is properly before the Bankruptcy Court and all votes cast with respect to the Plan prior to such modification shall be binding and shall apply with respect to the Plan.

E. Deemed Acceptance of Plan. In accordance with section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3019, all Holders of Claims and Equity Interests who voted to accept the Plan (or whom are conclusively presumed to accept the Plan) are deemed to have accepted the Plan as modified by the Plan Modifications. No holder of a Claim shall be permitted to change its vote as a consequence of the Plan Modifications.

F. Vesting of Assets in the Reorganized Debtor. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or this Confirmation Order, on or after the Effective Date, all Reorganized Debtor Assets will vest in the Reorganized Debtor, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges or other encumbrances pursuant to section 1141(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, except with respect to such Liens, Claims, charges, and other encumbrances that are specifically preserved under the Plan upon the Effective Date. The Reorganized Debtor shall be the exclusive trustee of the Reorganized Debtor Assets for purposes of 31 U.S.C. § 3713(b) and 26 U.S.C. § 6012(b)(3), as well as the representative of the Estate appointed pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the Reorganized Debtor Assets.

G. Effectiveness of All Actions. All actions contemplated by the Plan, including all actions in connection with the Claimant Trust Agreement, the Senior Employee Stipulation, the New GP LLC Documents, the New Frontier Note, the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement, the Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement, and the other Plan Documents, are authorized to be taken on, prior to, or after the Effective Date, as applicable, under this Confirmation Order, without further application to or order of the Bankruptcy Court, or further action by the directors, managers, officers or partners of the Debtor or the Reorganized Debtor and with the effect that such actions had been taken by unanimous action of such parties.

H. Restructuring Transactions. The Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, are authorized to enter into and effectuate the Restructuring provided under the Plan, including, without limitation, the entry into and consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Claimant Trust Agreement, the Senior Employee Stipulation, the New GP LLC Documents, the New Frontier Note, the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement, the Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement, and the other Plan Documents, and may take any actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effect a corporate restructuring of its business or a corporate restructuring of the overall corporate structure of the Reorganized Debtor, as and to the extent provided in the Plan. Any transfers of assets or equity interests effected or any obligations incurred through the Restructuring pursuant to the Plan are hereby approved and shall not constitute fraudulent conveyances or fraudulent transfers or otherwise be subject to avoidance.

I. Preservation of Causes of Action. Unless a Cause of Action against a Holder of a Claim or an Equity Interest or other Entity is expressly waived, relinquished, released, compromised or settled in the Plan or any Final Order (including, without limitation, this Confirmation Order), such Cause of Action is expressly reserved for later adjudication by the Reorganized Debtor, the Litigation Sub-Trust, or the Claimant Trust, as applicable (including, without limitation, Causes of Action not specifically identified or of which the Debtor may presently be unaware or that may arise or exist by reason of additional facts or circumstances unknown to the Debtor at this time or facts or circumstances that may change or be different from those the Debtor now believes to exist) and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including, without limitation, the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, waiver, estoppel (judicial, equitable or otherwise) or laches will apply to such Causes of Action as a consequence of the confirmation, effectiveness, or consummation of the Plan based on the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, or this Confirmation Order, except where such Causes of Action have been expressly released in the Plan or any other Final Order (including, without limitation, this Confirmation Order). In addition, the right of the Reorganized Debtor, the Claimant Trust, or the Litigation Sub-Trust to pursue or adopt any claims alleged in any lawsuit in which the Debtor is a plaintiff, defendant or an interested party, against any Entity, including, without limitation, the plaintiffs or co-defendants in such lawsuits, is expressly reserved.

J. Independent Board of Directors of Strand. The terms of the current Independent Directors shall expire on the Effective Date without the need for any further or other action by any of the Independent Directors. For avoidance of doubt, the Assumed Contracts include the Indemnification and Guaranty Agreement between Highland Capital Management, Strand Advisors, Inc. and James Seery; the Indemnification and Guaranty Agreement between Highland Capital Management, Strand Advisors, Inc. and John Dubel and Indemnification and Guaranty Agreement between Highland Capital Management, Strand Advisors, Inc. and Russell Nelms and shall each remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the expiration of the terms of any Independent Directors.

K. Cancellation of Equity Interests and Issuance of New Partnership

Interests. On the Effective Date, all Class A Limited Partnership Interests, including the Class A Limited Partnership Interests held by Strand, as general partner, and Class B/C Limited Partnerships in the Debtor will be deemed cancelled, and all obligations or debts owed by, or Claims against, the Debtor on account of, or based upon, such Class A Limited Partnership Interests and Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests shall be deemed as cancelled, released, and discharged, including all obligations or duties by the Debtor relating to the Equity Interests in any of the Debtor's formation documents, including the Limited Partnership Agreement. As of the Effective Date and pursuant to the Plan, new Class A Limited Partnership Interests in the Reorganized Debtor will be issued to the Claimant Trust and New GP LLC. The Claimant Trust, as limited partner, will ratify New GP LLC's appointment as general partner of the Reorganized Debtor, and on and following the Effective Date, the Claimant Trust will be the Reorganized Debtor's limited partner and New GP LLC will be its general partner. The Claimant Trust, as limited partner, and New GP LLC, as general partner, will execute the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement, which will amend and restate, in all respects, the Debtor's current Limited

Partnership Agreement. Following the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtor will be managed consistent with the terms of the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement by New GP LLC. The sole managing member of New GP LLC will be the Claimant Trust, and the Claimant Trustee will be the sole officer of New GP LLC on the Effective Date.

L. Transfer of Assets to Claimant Trust. On or prior to the Effective Date, the Debtor shall irrevocably transfer and shall be deemed to have irrevocably transferred to the Claimant Trust all of its rights, title, and interest in and to all of the Claimant Trust Assets, and in accordance with section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Claimant Trust Assets shall automatically vest in the Claimant Trust free and clear of all Claims, Liens, encumbrances, or interests subject only to the Claimant Trust Interests and the Claimant Trust Expenses, as provided for in the Claimant Trust Agreement, and such transfer shall be exempt from any stamp, real estate transfer, mortgage from any stamp, transfer, reporting, sales, use, or other similar tax. Following the Effective Date, the Claimant Trust will administer the Claimant Trust Assets pursuant to the Plan and the Claimant Trust Agreement.

M. Transfer of Estate Claims to Litigation Sub-Trust. On or prior to the Effective Date, the Claimant Trust shall irrevocably transfer and shall be deemed to have irrevocably transferred to the Litigation Sub-Trust all of the Claimant Trust's rights, title, and interest in and to all of the Estate Claims as successor in interest to the Debtor, and in accordance with section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Estate Claims shall automatically vest in the Litigation Sub-Trust free and clear of all Claims, Liens, encumbrances, or interests subject only to the Litigation Sub-Trust Interests and Litigation Sub-Trust Expenses. The Litigation Trustee will be authorized to investigate, pursue, and otherwise resolve the Estate Claims pursuant to the terms of the Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement and the Plan, including as successor in interest to the Debtor or Committee, as applicable, in any litigation commenced prior to the Effective Date in which Estate Claims are asserted.

N. Compromise of Controversies. In consideration for the distributions and other benefits, including releases, provided under the Plan, the provisions of the Plan constitute a good faith compromise and settlement of all Claims, Equity Interests, and controversies resolved under the Plan and the entry of this Confirmation Order constitutes approval of such compromise and settlement under Bankruptcy Rule 9019.

O. Objections to Claims. The Claims Objection Deadline shall be the date that is 180 days after the Effective Date, provided, however, that the Claims Objection Deadline may be extended by the Bankruptcy Court upon a motion by the Claimant Trustee and as otherwise provided under the Plan.

P. Assumption of Contracts and Leases. Effective as of the date of this Confirmation Order, each of the Assumed Contracts shall be assumed by the Debtor without the need for any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and the payment of Cures, if any, shall be paid in accordance with the Plan. Each Assumed Contract shall include all modifications, amendments, supplements, restatements, or other agreements related thereto, and all rights related thereto, if any, including all easements, licenses, permits, rights, privileges, immunities, options, rights of first refusal, and any other interests. Modifications, amendments, supplements, and restatements to any of the Assumed Contracts that have been executed by the Debtor during the Chapter 11 Case shall not be deemed to alter the prepetition nature of such Assumed Contracts or the validity, priority, or amount of any Claims that may arise in connection therewith. Assumption of the Assumed Contracts pursuant to Article V.A of the Plan and full payment of any applicable Cure pursuant to the Plan shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any Cures, Claims, or defaults, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition, or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any Assumed Contracts.

Q. Rejection of Contracts and Leases. Unless previously assumed during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Case or pursuant to the Plan, all other Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases are rejected as of the date of the entry of this Confirmation Order and pursuant to the terms of the Plan. To the extent that any party asserts any damages resulting from the rejection of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, such claim must be filed within thirty (30) days following entry of this Confirmation Order, or such claim will be forever barred and disallowed against the Reorganized Debtor.

R. Assumption of Issuer Executory Contracts. On the Confirmation Date, the Debtor will assume the agreements set forth on Exhibit B hereto (collectively, the “Issuer Executory Contracts”) pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Article V of the Plan. In full and complete satisfaction of its obligation to cure outstanding defaults under section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtor or, as applicable, any successor manager under the Issuer Executory Contracts (collectively, the “Portfolio Manager”) will pay to the Issuers<sup>12</sup> a cumulative amount of $525,000 (the “Cure Amount”) as follows:

- a. $200,000 in cash on the date that is five business days from the Effective Date, with such payment paid directly to Schulte Roth & Zabel LLP (“SRZ”) in the amount of $85,714.29, Jones Walker LLP (“JW”) in the amount of $72,380.95, and Maples Group (“Maples” and collectively with SRZ and JW, the “Issuers’ Counsel”) in the amount of $41,904.76 as reimbursement for the attorney’s fees and other legal expenses incurred by the Issuers in connection with the Debtor’s bankruptcy case; and
- b. $325,000 in four equal quarterly payments of $81,250.00 (each, a “Payment”), which amounts shall be paid to SRZ in the amount of $34,821.43, JW in the amount of $29,404.76, and Maples in the amount of $17,023.81 as additional reimbursement for the attorney’s fees and other legal expenses incurred by the Issuers in connection with the Debtor’s bankruptcy case (i) from any management fees actually paid to the Portfolio Manager under the Issuer Executory Contracts (the “Management Fees”), and (ii) on the date(s) Management Fees are required to be paid under the Issuer Executory Contracts (the “Payment Dates”), and such obligation shall be considered an irrevocable direction from the Debtor and the Bankruptcy Court to the relevant CLO Trustee to pay, on each Payment Date, the Payment to Issuers’ Counsel, allocated in the proportion set forth in such agreement; provided, however, that (x) if the Management Fees are insufficient to make any Payment in full on a Payment Date, such shortfall, in addition to any other amounts due hereunder, shall be paid out of the Management Fees owed on the following Payment Date, and (y) nothing herein shall limit either Debtor’s liability to pay the amounts set forth herein, nor the recourse of the Issuers or Issuers’ Counsel to the Debtor, in the event of any failure to make any Payment.

S. Release of Issuer Claims. Effective as of the Confirmation Date, and to the maximum extent permitted by law, each Issuer on behalf of itself and each of its current and former advisors, trustees, directors, officers, managers, members, partners, employees, beneficiaries, shareholders, agents, participants, subsidiaries, parents, successors, designees, and assigns hereby forever, finally, fully, unconditionally, and completely releases, relieves, acquits, remises, and exonerates, and covenants never to sue, (i) the Debtor and (ii) the Professionals retained by the Debtor and the Committee in the Chapter 11 Case, the Independent Directors, the CEO/CRO, and with respect to the Persons listed in this subsection (ii), such Person's Related Persons (collectively, the "Debtor Released Parties"), for and from any and all claims, debts, liabilities, demands, obligations, promises, acts, agreements, liens, losses, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, attorney's fees and related costs), damages, injuries, suits, actions, and causes of action of whatever kind or nature, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, matured or unmatured, liquidated or unliquidated, contingent or fixed, at law or in equity, statutory or otherwise, including, without limitation, any claims, defenses, and affirmative defenses, whether known or unknown, including, without limitation, those which were or could have been asserted in, in connection with, or with respect to the Bankruptcy Case (collectively, the "Issuer Released Claims").

T. Release of Debtor Claims against Issuer Released Parties. Upon entry of this Order, and to the maximum extent permitted by law, the Debtor hereby forever, finally, fully, unconditionally, and completely releases, relieves, acquits, remises, and exonerates, and covenants never to sue [(i) each Issuer and (ii) Wendy Ebanks, (iii) Yun Zheng, (iv) Laura Chisholm, (v) Mora Goddard, (vi) Stacy Bodden, (vii) Suzan Merren (viii) Scott Dakers, (ix) Samit Ghosh, (x) Inderjit Singh, (xi) Ellen Christian, (xii) Andrew Dean, (xiii) Betsy Mortel, (xiv) David Hogan, (xv) Cleveland Stewart, (xvi) Rachael Rankin, (xvii) Otelia Scott, (xviii) Martin Couch, (xx) Feronia Bartley-Davis, (xxi) Charlotte Cloete, (xxii) Christina McLean, (xxiii) Karen Ellerbe, (xxiv) Gennie Kay Bigord, (xxv) Evert Brunekreef, (xxvii) Evan Charles Burtton (collectively, the “Issuer Released Parties”),] for and from any and all claims, debts, liabilities, demands, obligations, promises, acts, agreements, liens, losses, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, attorney’s fees and related costs), damages, injuries, suits, actions, and causes of action of whatever kind or nature, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, matured or unmatured, liquidated or unliquidated, contingent or fixed, at law or in equity, statutory or otherwise, including, without limitation, any claims, defenses, and affirmative defenses, whether known or unknown, which were or could have been asserted in, in connection with, or with respect to the Bankruptcy Case (collectively, the “Debtor Released Claims”); provided, however, that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the release contained herein will apply to the Issuer Released Parties set forth in subsection (ii) above only with respect to Debtor Released Claims arising from or relating to the Issuer Executory Contracts. Notwithstanding anything in this Order to the contrary, the releases set forth in paragraphs S and T hereof will not apply with respect to the duties, rights, or obligations of the Debtor or any Issuer hereunder.

U. Authorization to Consummate. The Debtor is authorized to consummate the Plan after the entry of this Confirmation Order subject to satisfaction or waiver of the conditions precedent to the Effective Date of the Plan set forth in Article VIII.A of the Plan. The Plan shall not become effective unless and until the conditions set forth in Article VIII.A of the Plan have been satisfied, or otherwise waived pursuant to Article VIII.B of the Plan.

V. Professional Compensation. All requests for payment of Professional Fee Claims for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred prior to the Effective Date must be filed no later than sixty (60) days after the Effective Date. The Bankruptcy Court shall determine the Allowed amounts of such Professional Fee Claims after notice and an opportunity for hearing in accordance with the procedures established by the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Court. The Debtor shall fund the Professional Fee Reserve as provided under the Plan. The Reorganized Debtor shall pay Professional Fee Claims in Cash in the amounts the Bankruptcy Court allows. The Debtor is authorized to pay the pre-Effective Date fees and expenses of all ordinary course professionals in the ordinary course of business without the need for further Bankruptcy Court order or approval. From and after the Effective Date, any requirement that Professionals comply with sections 327 through 331 and 1103 (if applicable) of the Bankruptcy Code in seeking retention or compensation for services rendered after such date shall terminate, and the Reorganized Debtor or Claimant Trustee, as applicable, may employ and pay any Professional or Entity employed in the ordinary course of the Debtor's business without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

W. Release, Exculpation, Discharge, and Injunction Provisions. The following release, exculpation, discharge, and injunction provisions set forth in the Plan are approved and authorized in their entirety, and such provisions are effective and binding on all parties and Entities to the extent provided therein.

X. Discharge of Claims and Termination of Interests. To the fullest extent provided under section 1141(d)(1)(A) and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, except as otherwise expressly provided by the Plan or this Confirmation Order, all consideration distributed under the Plan will be in exchange for, and in complete satisfaction, settlement, discharge, and release of, all Claims and Equity Interests of any kind or nature whatsoever against the Debtor or any of its Assets or properties, and regardless of whether any property will have been distributed or retained pursuant to the Plan on account of such Claims or Equity Interests. Except as otherwise expressly provided by the Plan or this Confirmation Order, upon the Effective Date, the Debtor and its Estate will be deemed discharged and released under and to the fullest extent provided under section 1141(d)(1)(A) and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code from any and all Claims and Equity Interests of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, but not limited to, demands and liabilities that arose before the Confirmation Date, and all debts of the kind specified in section 502(g), 502(h), or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Y. QQ. Resolution of Objection of Texas Taxing Authorities. Dallas County, Kaufman County, City of Allen, Allen ISD and City of Richardson (collectively, the “Tax Authorities”) assert that they are the holders of prepetition and administrative expense claims for 2019, 2020 and 2021 ad valorem real and business personal property taxes. The ad valorem property taxes for tax year 2020 shall be paid in accordance with and to the extent required under applicable nonbankruptcy law. In the event the 2020 taxes are paid after February 1, 2021, the Tax Authorities may assert any rights and amounts they claim are owed with respect to penalties and interest that have accrued through the date of payment and the Debtor and Reorganized Debtor reserve any all rights and defenses in connection therewith.

- a. The Debtor/Reorganized Debtor shall pay all amounts owed to the Tax Authorities for tax year 2021 in accordance with and to the extent required under applicable nonbankruptcy law. The Tax Authorities shall not be required to file and serve an administrative expense claim and request for payment as a condition of allowance of their administrative expense claims pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 503(b)(1)(D). With regard to year 2019 ad valorem property taxes, the Tax Authorities will receive payment of their prepetition claims within 30 days of the Effective Date of the Plan. The payment will include interest from the Petition Date through the Effective Date and from the Effective Date through payment in full at the state statutory rate pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Sections 506(b), 511, and 1129, if applicable, subject to all of the Debtor's and Reorganized Debtor's rights and defenses in connection therewith. Notwithstanding any other provision in the Plan, the Tax Authorities shall (i) retain the liens that secure all prepetition and postpetition amounts ultimately owed to them, if any, as well as (ii) the state law priority of those liens until the claims are paid in full.
- b. The Tax Authorities' prepetition claims and their administrative expense claims shall not be discharged until such time as the amounts owed are paid in full. In the event of a default asserted by the Taxing Authorities, the Tax Authorities shall provide notice Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, and may demand cure of any such asserted default. Subject to all of its rights and defenses, the Debtor or Reorganized Debtor shall have fifteen (15) days from the date of the notice to cure the default. If the alleged default is not cured, the Tax Authorities may exercise any of their respective rights under applicable law and pursue collection of all amounts owed pursuant to state law outside of the Bankruptcy Court, subject in all respects to the Debtor's and Reorganized Debtor's applicable rights and defenses. The Debtor/Reorganized Debtor shall be entitled to any notices of default required under applicable nonbankruptcy law and each of the Taxing Authorities, the Debtor and the Reorganized Debtor reserve any and all of their respective rights and defenses in connection therewith. The Debtor's and Reorganized Debtor's rights and defenses under Texas Law and the Bankruptcy Code with respect to this provision of the Confirmation Order, including their right to dispute or object to the Tax Authorities' Claims and liens, are fully preserved.

RR. Resolution of Objections of Scott Ellington and Isaac Leventon.

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a), the Senior Employees' Settlement is approved in all respects. The Debtor may, only with the consent of the Committee, elect Option B for a Senior Employee Claimant by written notice to such Senior Employee Claimant on or before the occurrence of the Effective Date. If the Debtor does not elect Option B, then Option A will govern the treatment of the Liquidated Bonus Claims.

- a. Notwithstanding any language in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, or this Confirmation Order to the contrary, if Option A applies to the Liquidated Bonus Claims of a Senior Employee Claimant, then the Liquidated Bonus Claims of such Senior Employee Claimant will receive the treatment described in paragraph 82(e) hereof, and if the Debtor timely elects Option B with respect to the Liquidated Bonus Claims of a Senior Employee Claimant, then the Liquidated Bonus Claims of such Senior Employee will receive the treatment described in paragraph 82(f) hereof.
- b. The Senior Employees' Settlement is hereby approved, without prejudice to the respective rights of Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon to assert all their remaining Claims against the Debtor's estate, including, but not limited to, their Class 6 PTO Claims, their remaining Class 8 General Unsecured Claims, any indemnification claims, and any Administrative Expense Claims that they may assert and is without prejudice to the rights of any party in interest to object to any such Claims.
- c. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a), Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon were permitted to change their votes on the Plan. Accordingly, Mr. Ellington's votes on his Ballots in Class 7 and Class 8 of the Plan were changed from a rejection of the Plan to acceptance of the Plan, and Mr. Leventon's votes on his Ballots in Class 7 and Class 8 of the Plan were, changed from rejections of the Plan to acceptances of the Plan.
- d. The Senior Employees' Objection is deemed withdrawn.

SS. No Release of Claims Against Senior Employee Claimants. For the

TT. Resolution of Objection of Internal Revenue Service. Notwithstanding any other provision or term of the Plan or Confirmation Order, the following Default Provision shall control as to the United States of America, Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) and all of its claims, including any administrative claim (the “IRS Claim”):

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision in the Plan, if the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or any successor in interest fails to pay when due any payment required to be made on federal taxes, the IRS Claim, or other payment required to be made to the IRS under the terms and provisions of this Plan, the Confirmation Order, or the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C.), or fails to timely file any required federal tax return, or if any other event of default as set forth in the Plan occurs, the IRS shall be entitled to give the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor and/or any successor in interest and their counsel of record, by United States Certified Mail, written notice of the failure and/or default with demand that it be cured, and if the failure and/or default is not cured within 14 days of the date of said notice and demand, then the following shall apply to the IRS:

(1) The administrative collection powers and the rights of the IRS shall be reinstated as they existed prior to the filing of the bankruptcy petition, including, but not limited to, the assessment of taxes, the filing of a notice of Federal tax lien and the powers of levy, seizure, and collection as provided under the Internal Revenue Code;

(2) The automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. § 362 and any injunction of the Plan or in the Confirmation Order shall, with regard to the IRS only, lift or terminate without further notice or hearing by the Bankruptcy Court, and the entire prepetition liability owed to the IRS, together with any unpaid postpetition tax liabilities, may become due and payable immediately; and

(3) The IRS shall have the right to proceed to collect from the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor or any successor in interest any of the prepetition tax liabilities and related penalties and interest through administrative or judicial collection procedures available under the United States Code as if no bankruptcy petition had been filed and as if no plan had been confirmed.

(b) If the IRS declares the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or any successor-in-interest to be in default of the Debtor’s, the Reorganized Debtor’s and/ or any successor- in-interest’s obligations under the Plan, then entire prepetition liability of an IRS’ Allowed Claim, together with any unpaid postpetition tax liabilities shall become due and payable immediately upon written demand to the Debtor, Reorganized Debtor and/or any successor-in-interest. Failure of the IRS to declare a failure and/or default does not constitute a waiver by the United States or its agency the IRS of the right to declare that the Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and/or any successor in interest is in default.

(c) The IRS shall only be required to send two notices of failure and/or default, and upon the third event of a failure and/or default, the IRS shall be entitled to proceed as set out in paragraphs (1), (2), and/or (3) herein above without further notice to the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or any successor in interest, or its counsel. The collection statute expiration date for all unpaid federal tax liabilities shall be extended pursuant to non-bankruptcy law.

(d) The Internal Revenue Service shall not be bound by any release provisions in the Plan that would release any liability of the responsible persons of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, and/or any successor in interest to the IRS. The Internal Revenue Service may take such actions as it deems necessary to assess any liability that may be due and owing by the responsible persons of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor and/or any successor in interest to the Internal Revenue Service.

(e) Nothing contained in the Plan or the Confirmation Order shall be deemed to be a waiver or relinquishment of any rights, claims, causes of action, rights of setoff or recoupment, rights to appeal tax assessments, or other legal or equitable defenses that the Debtor or Reorganized Debtor have under non-bankruptcy law in connection with any claim, liability or cause of action of the United States and its agency the Internal Revenue Service.

(f) The term “any payment required to be made on federal taxes,” as used herein above, is defined as: any payment or deposit required by the Internal Revenue Code to be made by the Debtor from and after the Confirmation Date, or the Reorganized Debtor and/or any successor in interest from and after the Effective Date, to the date the IRS Claim is together with interest paid in full. The term “any required tax return,” as used herein above, is defined as: any tax return or report required by the Internal Revenue Code to be made by the Debtor from and after the Confirmation Date, or the Reorganized Debtor and/or any successor in interest from and after the Effective Date, to the date the IRS Claim is together with interest paid in full.

UU. IRS Proof of Claim. Notwithstanding anything in the Plan or in this Confirmation Order, until all required tax returns are filed with and processed by the IRS, the IRS’s proof of claim will not be deemed fixed for purposes of Section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code and may be amended in order to reflect the IRS’ assessment of the Debtor’s unpaid priority and general unsecured taxes, penalties and interest.

VV. CLO Holdco, Ltd. Settlement Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, nothing in this Order is or is intended to supersede the rights and obligations of either the Debtor or CLO Holdco contained in that certain Settlement Agreement between CLO Holdco, Ltd., and Highland Capital Management, L.P., dated January 25, 2021 [Docket No. 1838-1] (the “CLOH Settlement Agreement”). In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Order and the terms of the CLOH Settlement Agreement, the terms of the CLOH Settlement Agreement will govern.

WW. Retention of Jurisdiction. The Bankruptcy Court may properly, and upon the Effective Date shall, to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, retain jurisdiction over all matters arising out of, and related to, this Chapter 11 Case, including the matters set forth in Article XI of the Plan and section 1142 of the Bankruptcy Code.

XX. Payment of Statutory Fees; Filing of Quarterly Reports. All fees payable pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930 shall be paid on or before the Effective Date. The Reorganized Debtor, the Claimant Trust, and the Litigation Sub-Trust shall be jointly and severally liable for payment of quarterly fees to the Office of the United States Trustee pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930 through the entry of the Final Decree for the Debtor or the dismissal or conversion of the Chapter 11 Case. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the U.S. Trustee shall not be required to file any proofs of claim with respect to quarterly fees payable pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930.

YY. Dissolution of the Committee. On the Effective Date, the Committee will dissolve, and the members of the Committee and the Committee’s Professionals will cease to have any role arising from or relating to the Chapter 11 Case, except in connection with final fee applications of Professionals for services rendered prior to the Effective Date (including the right to object thereto). Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Committee member or Professional may serve following the Effective Date with respect to the Claimant Trust Oversight Board or Litigation Sub-Trust. The Professionals retained by the Committee and the members thereof will not be entitled to assert any fee claims for any services rendered to the Committee or expenses incurred in the service of the Committee after the Effective Date, except for reasonable fees for services rendered, and actual and necessary costs incurred, in connection with any applications for allowance of Professional Fees pending on the Effective Date or filed and served after the Effective Date pursuant to the Plan. ZZ. Miscellaneous. After the Effective Date, the Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, shall have no obligation to file with the Bankruptcy Court or serve on any parties reports that the Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, were obligated to file under the Bankruptcy Code or a court order, including monthly operating reports (even for those periods for which a monthly operating report was not filed before the Effective Date), ordinary course professional reports, reports to any parties otherwise required under the "first" and "second" day orders entered in this Chapter 11 Case (including any cash collateral financing orders entered in this Chapter 11 Case) and monthly or quarterly reports for Professionals; provided, however, that

ARTICLE IV. MEANS FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF THIS PLAN

A. Summary

As discussed in the Disclosure Statement, the Plan will be implemented through (i) the Claimant Trust, (ii) the Litigation Sub-Trust, and (iii) the Reorganized Debtor.

On the Effective Date, all Class A Limited Partnership Interests, including the Class A Limited Partnership Interests held by Strand, as general partner, and Class B/C Limited Partnerships in the Debtor will be cancelled, and new Class A Limited Partnership Interests in the Reorganized Debtor will be issued to the Claimant Trust and New GP LLC – a newly-chartered limited liability company wholly-owned by the Claimant Trust. The Claimant Trust, as limited partner, will ratify New GP LLC's appointment as general partner of the Reorganized Debtor, and on and following the Effective Date, the Claimant Trust will be the Reorganized Debtor's limited partner and New GP LLC will be its general partner. The Claimant Trust, as limited partner, and New GP LLC, as general partner, will execute the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement, which will amend and restate, in all respects, the Debtor's current Limited Partnership Agreement. Following the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtor will be managed consistent with the terms of the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement by New GP LLC. The sole managing member of New GP LLC will be the Claimant Trust, and the Claimant Trustee will be the sole officer of New GP LLC on the Effective Date.

Following the Effective Date, the Claimant Trust will administer the Claimant Trust Assets pursuant to this Plan and the Claimant Trust Agreement, and the Litigation Trustee will pursue, if applicable, the Estate Claims pursuant to the terms of the Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement and the Plan. The Reorganized Debtor will administer the Reorganized Debtor Assets and, if needed, with the utilization of a Sub-Servicer, which administration will include, among other things, managing the wind down of the Managed Funds.

Although the Reorganized Debtor will manage the wind down of the Managed Funds, it is currently anticipated that neither the Reorganized Debtor nor the Claimant Trust will assume or assume and assign the contracts between the Debtor and certain Related Entities pursuant to which the Debtor provides shared services and sub-advisory services to those Related Entities. The Debtor believes that the continued provision of the services under such contracts will not be cost effective.

The Reorganized Debtor will distribute all proceeds from the wind down to the Claimant Trust, as its limited partner, and New GP LLC, as its general partner, in each case in accordance with the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement. Such proceeds, along with the proceeds of the Claimant Trust Assets, will ultimately be distributed to the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries as set forth in this Plan and the Claimant Trust Agreement.

The Claimant Trust Agreement generally will provide for, among other things:

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the Claimant Trust Expenses shall be paid from the Claimant Trust Assets in accordance with the Plan and Claimant Trust Agreement. The Claimant Trustee may establish a reserve for the payment of Claimant Trust Expense (including, without limitation, any reserve for potential indemnification claims as authorized and provided under the Claimant Trust Agreement), and shall periodically replenish such reserve, as necessary.

In furtherance of, and consistent with the purpose of, the Claimant Trust and the Plan, the Trustees, for the benefit of the Claimant Trust, shall, subject to reporting and oversight by the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee as set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement: (i) hold the Claimant Trust Assets for the benefit of the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries, (ii) make Distributions to the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries as provided herein and in the Claimant Trust Agreement, and (iii) have the sole power and authority to prosecute and resolve any Causes of Action and objections to Claims and Equity Interests (other than those assigned to the Litigation Sub-Trust), without approval of the Bankruptcy Court. The Claimant Trust Agreement and Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement may include reasonable and customary provisions that allow for indemnification by the Claimant Trust in favor of the Claimant Trustee, Litigation Trustee, and the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee. Any such indemnification shall be the sole responsibility of the Claimant Trust and payable solely from the Claimant Trust Assets.

6. Compensation and Duties of Trustees.

The salient terms of each Trustee's employment, including such Trustee's duties and compensation shall be set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement and the Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement, as appropriate. The Trustees shall each be entitled to reasonable compensation in an amount consistent with that of similar functionaries in similar types of bankruptcy cases.

7. Cooperation of Debtor and Reorganized Debtor.

The Debtor and Reorganized Debtor shall preserve all records, documents or work product (including all electronic records, documents, or work product) related to the Claims and Causes of Action, including Estate Claims, until the earlier of (a) the dissolution of the Reorganized Debtor or (b) termination of the Claimant Trust and Litigation Sub-Trust.

8. United States Federal Income Tax Treatment of the Claimant Trust.

Unless the IRS requires otherwise, for all United States federal income tax purposes, the parties shall treat the transfer of the Claimant Trust Assets to the Claimant Trust as: (a) a transfer of the Claimant Trust Assets (other than the amounts set aside in the Disputed Claims Reserve, if the Claimant Trustee makes the election described in Section 7 below) directly to the applicable Claimant Trust Beneficiaries followed by (b) the transfer by the such Claimant Trust Beneficiaries to the Claimant Trust of such Claimant Trust Assets in exchange for the Claimant Trust Interests. Accordingly, the applicable Claimant Trust Beneficiaries shall be treated for United States federal income tax purposes as the grantors and owners of their respective share of the Claimant Trust Assets. The foregoing treatment shall also apply, to the extent permitted by applicable law, for state and local income tax purposes.

9. Tax Reporting.

(a) The Claimant Trustee shall file tax returns for the Claimant Trust treating the Claimant Trust as a grantor trust pursuant to Treasury Regulation section 1.671-4(a). 14. Dissolution of the Claimant Trust and Litigation Sub-Trust.

no extension, together with any prior extensions, shall exceed three years without a favorable letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or an opinion of counsel that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of the Claimant Trust as a liquidating trust for federal income tax purposes.

Upon dissolution of the Claimant Trust, and pursuant to the Claimant Trust Agreement, any remaining Claimant Trust Assets that exceed the amounts required to be paid under the Plan will be transferred (in the sole discretion of the Claimant Trustee) in Cash or in-kind to the Holders of the Claimant Trust Interests as provided in the Claimant Trust Agreement.

The holders of or parties to such cancelled instruments, Securities, and other documentation will have no rights arising from or related to such instruments, Securities, or other documentation or the cancellation thereof, except the rights provided for pursuant to this Plan, and the obligations of the Debtor thereunder or in any way related thereto will be fully released, terminated, extinguished and discharged, in each case without further notice to or order of the Bankruptcy Court, act or action under applicable law, regulation, order, or rule or any requirement of further action, vote or other approval or authorization by any Person. For the avoidance of doubt, this section is in addition to, and shall not be read to limit in any respects, ARTICLE IV.C.2.

Upon the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtor shall be deemed to have assumed the Pension Plan and shall comply with all applicable statutory provisions of ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code (the “IRC”), including, but not limited to, satisfying the minimum funding standards pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §§ 412, 430, and 29 U.S.C. §§ 1082, 1083; paying the PBGC premiums in accordance with 29 U.S.C. §§ 1306 and 1307; and administering the Pension Plan in accordance with its terms and the provisions of ERISA and the IRC. The Debtor reserves the right to contest any such liability or responsibility.

ARTICLE V.
TREATMENT OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

A. Assumption, Assignment, or Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

Unless an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease: (i) was previously assumed or rejected by the Debtor pursuant to this Plan on or prior to the Confirmation Date; (ii) previously expired or terminated pursuant to its own terms or by agreement of the parties thereto; (iii) is the subject of a motion to assume filed by the Debtor on or before the Confirmation Date; (iv) contains a change of control or similar provision that would be triggered by the Chapter 11 Case (unless such provision has been irrevocably waived); or (v) is specifically designated as a contract or lease to be assumed in the Plan or the Plan Supplement, on the Confirmation Date, each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease shall be deemed rejected pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, without the need for any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, unless such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease is listed in the Plan Supplement.

At any time on or prior to the Confirmation Date, the Debtor may (i) amend the Plan Supplement in order to add or remove a contract or lease from the list of contracts to be assumed or (ii) assign (subject to applicable law) any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as determined by the Debtor in consultation with the Committee, or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable.

The Confirmation Order will constitute an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving the above-described assumptions, rejections, and assumptions and assignments. Except as otherwise provided herein or agreed to by the Debtor and the applicable counterparty, each assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall include all modifications, amendments, supplements, restatements, or other agreements related thereto, and all rights related thereto. Modifications, amendments, supplements, and restatements to prepetition Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases that have been executed by the Debtor during the Chapter 11 Case shall not be deemed to alter the prepetition nature of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or the validity, priority, or amount of any Claims that may arise in connection therewith. To the extent applicable, no change of control (or similar provision) will be deemed to occur under any such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

If certain, but not all, of a contract counterparty's Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases are rejected pursuant to the Plan, the Confirmation Order shall be a determination that such counterparty's Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases that are being assumed pursuant to the Plan are severable agreements that are not integrated with those Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases that are being rejected pursuant to the Plan. Parties seeking to contest this finding with respect to their Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases must file a timely objection to the Plan on the grounds that their agreements are integrated and not severable, and any such dispute shall be resolved by the Bankruptcy Court at the Confirmation Hearing (to the extent not resolved by the parties prior to the Confirmation Hearing).

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Debtor shall assume or reject that certain real property lease with Crescent TC Investors L.P. ("Landlord") for the Debtor's headquarters located at 200/300 Crescent Ct., Suite #700, Dallas, Texas 75201 (the "Lease") in accordance with the notice to Landlord, procedures and timing required by 11 U.S.C. §365(d)(4), as modified by that certain Agreed Order Granting Motion to Extend Time to Assume or Reject Unexpired Nonresidential Real Property Lease [Docket No. 1122].

B. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases

Any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease not assumed or rejected on or before the Confirmation Date shall be deemed rejected, pursuant to the Confirmation Order. Any Person asserting a Rejection Claim shall File a proof of claim within thirty days of the Confirmation Date. Any Rejection Claims that are not timely Filed pursuant to this Plan shall be forever disallowed and barred. If one or more Rejection Claims are timely Filed, the Claimant Trustee may File an objection to any Rejection Claim.

Rejection Claims shall be classified as General Unsecured Claims and shall be treated in accordance with ARTICLE III of this Plan.

C. Cure of Defaults for Assumed or Assigned Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

Any monetary amounts by which any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to be assumed or assigned hereunder is in default shall be satisfied, under section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, by the Debtor upon assumption or assignment thereof, by payment of the default amount in Cash as and when due in the ordinary course or on such other terms as the parties to such Executory Contracts may otherwise agree. The Debtor may serve a notice on the Committee and parties to Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases to be assumed or assigned reflecting the Debtor's or Reorganized Debtor's intention to assume or assign the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease in connection with this Plan and setting forth the proposed cure amount (if any).

If a dispute regarding (1) the amount of any payments to cure a default, (2) the ability of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or any assignee to provide "adequate assurance of future performance" (within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code) under the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to be assumed or assigned or (3) any other matter pertaining to assumption or assignment, the cure payments required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code will be made following the entry of a Final Order or orders resolving the dispute and approving the assumption or assignment.

Assumption or assignment of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan or otherwise and full payment of any applicable cure amounts pursuant to this ARTICLE V.C shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any cure amounts, Claims, or defaults, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any assumed or assigned Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease at any time prior to the effective date of assumption or assignment. Any and all Proofs of Claim based upon Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases that have been assumed or assigned in the Chapter 11 Case, including pursuant to the Confirmation Order, and for which any cure amounts have been fully paid pursuant to this ARTICLE V.C, shall be deemed disallowed and expunged as of the Confirmation Date without the need for any objection thereto or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

ARTICLE VI.
PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISTRIBUTIONS

A. Dates of Distributions

Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest on the Effective Date, on the date that such Claim or Equity Interest becomes an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter), each Holder of an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest against the Debtor shall receive the full amount of the distributions that this Plan provides for Allowed Claims or Allowed Equity Interests in the applicable Class and in the manner provided herein. If any payment or act under this Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not on a Business Day, then the making of such payment or the performance of such act may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. If and to the extent there are Disputed Claims or Equity Interests, distributions on account of any such Disputed Claims or Equity Interests shall be made pursuant to the provisions provided in this Plan. Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, Holders of Claims and Equity Interests shall not be entitled to interest, dividends or accruals on the distributions provided for therein, regardless of whether distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

Upon the Effective Date, all Claims and Equity Interests against the Debtor shall be deemed fixed and adjusted pursuant to this Plan and none of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust will have liability on account of any Claims or Equity Interests except as set forth in this Plan and in the Confirmation Order. All payments and all distributions made by the Distribution Agent under this Plan shall be in full and final satisfaction, settlement and release of all Claims and Equity Interests against the Debtor and the Reorganized Debtor.

At the close of business on the Distribution Record Date, the transfer ledgers for the Claims against the Debtor and the Equity Interests in the Debtor shall be closed, and there shall be no further changes in the record holders of such Claims and Equity Interests. The Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, the Trustees, and the Distribution Agent, and each of their respective agents, successors, and assigns shall have no obligation to recognize the transfer of any Claims against the Debtor or Equity Interests in the Debtor occurring after the Distribution Record Date and shall be entitled instead to recognize and deal for all purposes hereunder with only those record holders stated on the transfer ledgers as of the close of business on the Distribution Record Date irrespective of the number of distributions to be made under this Plan to such Persons or the date of such distributions.

B. Distribution Agent

Except as provided herein, all distributions under this Plan shall be made by the Claimant Trustee, as Distribution Agent, or by such other Entity designated by the Claimant Trustee, as a Distribution Agent on the Effective Date or thereafter. The Reorganized Debtor will be the Distribution Agent with respect to Claims in Class 1 through Class 7.

The Claimant Trustee, or such other Entity designated by the Claimant Trustee to be the Distribution Agent, shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of such Distribution Agent's duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court.

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under this Plan; (b) make all distributions contemplated hereby; (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to this Plan, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions hereof.

The Distribution Agent shall not have any obligation to make a particular distribution to a specific Holder of an Allowed Claim if such Holder is also the Holder of a Disputed Claim.

C. Cash Distributions

Distributions of Cash may be made by wire transfer from a domestic bank, except that Cash payments made to foreign creditors may be made in such funds and by such means as the Distribution Agent determines are necessary or customary in a particular foreign jurisdiction.

D. Disputed Claims Reserve

On or prior to the Initial Distribution Date, the Claimant Trustee shall establish, fund and maintain the Disputed Claims Reserve(s) in the appropriate Disputed Claims Reserve Amounts on account of any Disputed Claims.

E. Distributions from the Disputed Claims Reserve

The Disputed Claims Reserve shall at all times hold Cash in an amount no less than the Disputed Claims Reserve Amount. To the extent a Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim pursuant to the terms of this Plan, within 30 days of the date on which such Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim pursuant to the terms of this Plan, the Claimant Trustee shall distribute from the Disputed Claims Reserve to the Holder thereof any prior distributions, in Cash, that would have been made to such Allowed Claim if it had been Allowed as of the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, each Holder of a Disputed Claim that subsequently becomes an Allowed Claim will also receive its Pro Rata share of the Claimant Trust Interests. If, upon the resolution of all Disputed Claims any Cash remains in the Disputed Claims Reserve, such Cash shall be transferred to the Claimant Trust and be deemed a Claimant Trust Asset.

F. Rounding of Payments

Whenever this Plan would otherwise call for, with respect to a particular Person, payment of a fraction of a dollar, the actual payment or distribution shall reflect a rounding of such fraction to the nearest whole dollar (up or down), with half dollars being rounded down. To the extent that Cash to be distributed under this Plan remains undistributed as a result of the aforementioned rounding, such Cash or stock shall be treated as "Unclaimed Property" under this Plan.

G. De Minimis Distribution

Except as to any Allowed Claim that is Unimpaired under this Plan, none of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Distribution Agent shall have any obligation to make any Plan Distributions with a value of less than $100, unless a written request therefor is received by the Distribution Agent from the relevant recipient at the addresses set forth in ARTICLE VI.J hereof within 120 days after the later of the (i) Effective Date and (ii) the date such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim. De minimis distributions for which no such request is timely received shall revert to the Claimant Trust. Upon such reversion, the relevant Allowed Claim (and any Claim on account of missed distributions) shall be automatically deemed satisfied, discharged and forever barred, notwithstanding any federal or state escheat laws to the contrary.

H. Distributions on Account of Allowed Claims

Except as otherwise agreed by the Holder of a particular Claim or as provided in this Plan, all distributions shall be made pursuant to the terms of this Plan and the Confirmation Order. Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, distributions to any Holder of an Allowed Claim shall, to the extent applicable, be allocated first to the principal amount of any such Allowed Claim, as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes and then, to the extent the consideration exceeds such amount, to the remainder of such Claim comprising accrued but unpaid interest, if any (but solely to the extent that interest is an allowable portion of such Allowed Claim).

I. General Distribution Procedures

The Distribution Agent shall make all distributions of Cash or other property required under this Plan, unless this Plan specifically provides otherwise. All Cash and other property held by the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust, as applicable, for ultimate distribution under this Plan shall not be subject to any claim by any Person.

J. Address for Delivery of Distributions

Distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims, to the extent provided for under this Plan, shall be made (1) at the addresses set forth in any written notices of address change delivered to the Debtor and the Distribution Agent; (2) at the address set forth on any Proofs of Claim Filed by such Holders (to the extent such Proofs of Claim are Filed in the Chapter 11 Case), (2), or (3) at the addresses in the Debtor's books and records.

If there is any conflict or discrepancy between the addresses set forth in (1) through (3) in the foregoing sentence, then (i) the address in Section (2) shall control; (ii) if (2) does not apply, the address in (1) shall control, and (iii) if (1) does not apply, the address in (3) shall control.

K. Undeliverable Distributions and Unclaimed Property

If the distribution to the Holder of any Allowed Claim is returned to the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust as undeliverable, no further distribution shall be made to such Holder, and Distribution Agent shall not have any obligation to make any further distribution to the Holder, unless and until the Distribution Agent is notified in writing of such Holder's then current address.

Any Entity that fails to claim any Cash within six months from the date upon which a distribution is first made to such Entity shall forfeit all rights to any distribution under this Plan and such Cash shall thereafter be deemed an Claimant Trust Asset in all respects and for all purposes. Entities that fail to claim Cash shall forfeit their rights thereto and shall have no claim whatsoever against the Debtor's Estate, the Reorganized Debtor, the Claimant Trust, or against any Holder of an Allowed Claim to whom distributions are made by the Distribution Agent.

In connection with this Plan, to the extent applicable, the Distribution Agent shall comply with all tax withholding and reporting requirements imposed on them by any Governmental Unit, and all distributions made pursuant to this Plan shall be subject to such withholding and reporting requirements. The Distribution Agent shall be entitled to deduct any U.S. federal, state or local withholding taxes from any Cash payments made with respect to Allowed Claims, as appropriate. As a condition to receiving any distribution under this Plan, the Distribution Agent may require that the Holder of an Allowed Claim entitled to receive a distribution pursuant to this Plan provide such Holder's taxpayer identification number and such other information and certification as may be deemed necessary for the Distribution Agent to comply with applicable tax reporting and withholding laws. If a Holder fails to comply with such a request within one year, such distribution shall be deemed an unclaimed distribution. Any amounts withheld pursuant hereto shall be deemed to have been distributed to and received by the applicable recipient for all purposes of this Plan.

M. Setoffs

The Distribution Agent may, to the extent permitted under applicable law, set off against any Allowed Claim and any distributions to be made pursuant to this Plan on account of such Allowed Claim, the claims, rights and causes of action of any nature that the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Distribution Agent may hold against the Holder of such Allowed Claim that are not otherwise waived, released or compromised in accordance with this Plan; provided, however, that neither such a setoff nor the allowance of any Claim hereunder shall constitute a waiver or release by the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trustee of any such claims, rights and causes of action that the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or Claimant Trustee possesses against such Holder. Any Holder of an Allowed Claim subject to such setoff reserves the right to challenge any such setoff in the Bankruptcy Court or any other court with jurisdiction with respect to such challenge.

N. Surrender of Cancelled Instruments or Securities

As a condition precedent to receiving any distribution pursuant to this Plan on account of an Allowed Claim evidenced by negotiable instruments, securities, or notes canceled pursuant to ARTICLE IV of this Plan, the Holder of such Claim will tender the applicable negotiable instruments, securities, or notes evidencing such Claim (or a sworn affidavit identifying the negotiable instruments, securities, or notes formerly held by such Holder and certifying that they have been lost), to the Distribution Agent unless waived in writing by the Distribution Agent.

O. Lost, Stolen, Mutilated or Destroyed Securities

In addition to any requirements under any applicable agreement and applicable law, any Holder of a Claim or Equity Interest evidenced by a security or note that has been lost, stolen, mutilated, or destroyed will, in lieu of surrendering such security or note to the extent required by this Plan, deliver to the Distribution Agent: (i) evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Distribution Agent of such loss, theft, mutilation, or destruction; and (ii) such security or indemnity as may be required by the Distribution Agent to hold such party harmless from any damages, liabilities, or costs incurred in treating such individual as a Holder of an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest. Upon compliance with ARTICLE VI.O of this Plan as determined by the Distribution Agent, by a Holder of a Claim evidenced by a security or note, such Holder will, for all purposes under this Plan, be deemed to have surrendered such security or note to the Distribution Agent.

PROCEDURES FOR RESOLVING CONTINGENT,
UNLIQUIDATED AND DISPUTED CLAIMS

A. Filing of Proofs of Claim

Unless such Claim appeared in the Schedules and is not listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, or such Claim has otherwise been Allowed or paid, each Holder of a Claim was required to file a Proof of Claim on or prior to the Bar Date.

B. Disputed Claims

Following the Effective Date, each of the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trustee, as applicable, may File with the Bankruptcy Court an objection to the allowance of any Disputed Claim or Disputed Equity Interest, request the Bankruptcy Court subordinate any Claims to Subordinated Claims, or any other appropriate motion or adversary proceeding with respect to the foregoing by the Claims Objection Deadline or, at the discretion of the Reorganized Debtor or Claimant Trustee, as applicable, compromised, settled, withdrew or resolved without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, and (ii) unless otherwise provided in the Confirmation Order, the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust, as applicable, are authorized to settle, or withdraw any objections to, any Disputed Claim or Disputed Equity Interests following the Effective Date without further notice to creditors (other than the Entity holding such Disputed Claim or Disputed Equity Interest) or authorization of the Bankruptcy Court, in which event such Claim or Equity Interest shall be deemed to be an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest in the amount compromised for purposes of this Plan.

C. Procedures Regarding Disputed Claims or Disputed Equity Interests

No payment or other distribution or treatment shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim or Disputed Equity Interest unless and until such Disputed Claim or Disputed Equity Interest becomes an Allowed Claim or Equity Interests and the amount of such Allowed Claim or Equity Interest, as applicable, is determined by order of the Bankruptcy Court or by stipulation between the Reorganized Debtor or Claimant Trust, as applicable, and the Holder of the Claim or Equity Interest.

D. Allowance of Claims and Equity Interests

Following the date on which a Disputed Claim or Disputed Equity Interest becomes an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest after the Distribution Date, the Distribution Agent shall make a distribution to the Holder of such Allowed Claim or Equity Interest in accordance with the Plan.

1. Allowance of Claims

After the Effective Date and subject to the other provisions of this Plan, the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust, as applicable, will have and will retain any and all rights and defenses under bankruptcy or nonbankruptcy law that the Debtor had with respect to any Claim. Except as expressly provided in this Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Case prior to the Effective Date (including, without limitation, the Confirmation Order), no Claim or Equity Interest will become an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest unless and until such Claim or Equity Interest is deemed Allowed under this Plan or the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Court has entered an order, including, without limitation, the Confirmation Order, in the Chapter 11 Case allowing such Claim or Equity Interest.

2. Estimation

All of the aforementioned objection, estimation and resolution procedures are cumulative and not exclusive of one another. Claims or Equity Interests may be estimated and subsequently compromised, settled, withdrawn or resolved by any mechanism approved by the Bankruptcy Court. The rights and objections of all parties are reserved in connection with any such estimation proceeding.

3. Disallowance of Claims

Any Claims or Equity Interests held by Entities from which property is recoverable under sections 542, 543, 550, or 553 of the Bankruptcy Code, or that are a transferee of a transfer avoidable under sections 522(f), 522(h), 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, or 724(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall be deemed disallowed pursuant to section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, and holders of such Claims or Interests may not receive any distributions on account of such Claims or Interests until such time as such Causes of Action against that Entity have been settled or a Bankruptcy Court Order with respect thereto has been entered and all sums due, if any, to the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust, as applicable, by that Entity have been turned over or paid to the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust, as applicable.

ARTICLE VIII.

The failure to satisfy or waive a condition to the Effective Date may be asserted by the Debtor regardless of the circumstances giving rise to the failure of such condition to be satisfied. The failure of the Debtor to exercise any of the foregoing rights will not be deemed a waiver of any other rights, and each right will be deemed an ongoing right that may be asserted at any time by the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust, as applicable.

On the Effective Date, the Committee will dissolve, and the members of the Committee and the Committee's Professionals will cease to have any role arising from or relating to the Chapter 11 Case, except in connection with final fee applications of Professionals for services rendered prior to the Effective Date (including the right to object thereto). The Professionals retained by the Committee and the members thereof will not be entitled to assert any fee claims for any services rendered to the Committee or expenses incurred in the service of the Committee after the Effective Date, except for reasonable fees for services rendered, and actual and necessary costs incurred, in connection with any applications for allowance of Professional Fees pending on the Effective Date or filed and served after the Effective Date pursuant to the Plan. Nothing in the Plan shall prohibit or limit the ability of the Debtor's or Committee's Professionals to represent either of the Trustees or to be compensated or reimbursed per the Plan and the Claimant Trust Agreement in connection with such representation.

ARTICLE IX.
EXCULPATION, INJUNCTION AND RELATED PROVISIONS

A. General

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the allowance, classification and treatment of all Allowed Claims and Equity Interests and their respective distributions and treatments under the Plan shall take into account the relative priority and rights of the Claims and the Equity Interests in each Class in connection with any contractual, legal and equitable subordination rights relating thereto whether arising under general principles of equitable subordination, section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise.

B. Discharge of Claims

To the fullest extent provided under section 1141(d)(1)(A) and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, except as otherwise expressly provided by this Plan or the Confirmation Order, all consideration distributed under this Plan will be in exchange for, and in complete satisfaction, settlement, discharge, and release of, all Claims and Equity Interests of any kind or nature whatsoever against the Debtor or any of its Assets or properties, and regardless of whether any property will have been distributed or retained pursuant to this Plan on account of such Claims or Equity Interests. Except as otherwise expressly provided by this Plan or the Confirmation Order, upon the Effective Date, the Debtor and its Estate will be deemed discharged and released under and to the fullest extent provided under section 1141(d)(1)(A) and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code from any and all Claims and Equity Interests of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, but not limited to, demands and liabilities that arose before the Confirmation Date, and all debts of the kind specified in section 502(g), 502(h), or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code.

C. Exculpation

Subject in all respects to ARTICLE XII.D of this Plan, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, no Exculpated Party will have or incur, and each Exculpated Party is hereby exculpated from, any claim, obligation, suit, judgment, damage, demand, debt, right, Cause of Action, remedy, loss, and liability for conduct occurring on or after the Petition Date in connection with or arising out of (i) the filing and administration of the Chapter 11 Case; (ii) the negotiation and pursuit of the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, or the solicitation of votes for, or confirmation of, the Plan; (iii) the funding or consummation of the Plan (including the Plan Supplement) or any related agreements, instruments, or other documents, the solicitation of votes on the Plan, the offer, issuance, and Plan Distribution of any securities issued or to be issued pursuant to the Plan, including the Claimant Trust Interests, whether or not such Plan Distributions occur following the Effective Date; (iv) the implementation of the Plan; and (v) any negotiations, transactions, and documentation in connection with the foregoing clauses (i)-(iv); provided, however, the foregoing will not apply to (a) any acts or omissions of an Exculpated Party arising out of or related to acts or omissions that constitute bad faith, fraud, gross negligence, criminal misconduct, or willful misconduct or (b) Strand or any Employee other than with respect to actions taken by such Entities from the date of appointment of the Independent Directors through the Effective Date. This exculpation shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, all other releases, indemnities, exculpations, any other applicable law or rules, or any other provisions of this Plan, including ARTICLE IV.C.2, protecting such Exculpated Parties from liability.

D. Releases by the Debtor

On and after the Effective Date, each Released Party is deemed to be, hereby conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever released and discharged by the Debtor and the Estate, in each case on behalf of themselves and their respective successors, assigns, and representatives, including, but not limited to, the Claimant Trust and the Litigation Sub-Trust from any and all Causes of Action, including any derivative claims, asserted on behalf of the Debtor, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, matured or unmatured, existing or hereafter arising, in law, equity, contract, tort or otherwise, that the Debtor or the Estate would have been legally entitled to assert in their own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the holder of any Claim against, or Interest in, a Debtor or other Person.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the foregoing release does not release: (i) any obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement executed to implement the Plan, (ii) the rights or obligations of any current employee of the Debtor under any employment agreement or plan, (iii) the rights of the Debtor with respect to any confidentiality provisions or covenants restricting competition in favor of the Debtor under any employment agreement with a current or former employee of the Debtor, (iv) any Avoidance Actions, or (v) any Causes of Action arising from willful misconduct, criminal misconduct, actual fraud, or gross negligence of such applicable Released Party as determined by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any release provided pursuant to this ARTICLE IX.D (i) with respect to a Senior Employee, is conditioned in all respects on (a) such Senior Employee executing a Senior Employee Stipulation on or prior to the Effective Date and (b) the reduction of such Senior Employee's Allowed Claim as set forth in the Senior Employee Stipulation (such amount, the "Reduced Employee Claim"), and (ii) with respect to any Employee, including a Senior Employee, shall be deemed null and void and of no force and effect (1) if there is more than one member of the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee who does not represent entities holding a Disputed or Allowed Claim (the "Independent Members"), the Claimant Trustee and the Independent Members by majority vote determine or (2) if there is only one Independent Member, the Independent Member after discussion with the Claimant Trustee, determines (in each case after discussing with the full Claimant Trust Oversight Committee) that such Employee (regardless of whether the Employee is then currently employed by the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trustee):

- sues, attempts to sue, or threatens or works with or assists any entity or person to sue, attempt to sue, or threaten the Reorganized Debtor, the Claimant Trust, the Litigation

Sub-Trust, or any of their respective employees or agents, or any Released Party on or in connection with any claim or cause of action arising prior to the Effective Date,

- has taken any action that, impairs or harms the value of the Claimant Trust Assets or the Reorganized Debtor Assets, or
- (x) upon the request of the Claimant Trustee, has failed to provide reasonable assistance in good faith to the Claimant Trustee or the Reorganized Debtor with respect to (1) the monetization of the Claimant Trust Assets or Reorganized Debtor Assets, as applicable, or (2) the resolution of Claims, or (y) has taken any action that impedes or frustrates the Claimant Trustee or the Reorganized Debtor with respect to any of the foregoing.

Provided, however, that the release provided pursuant to this ARTICLE IX.D will vest and the Employee will be indefeasibly released pursuant to this ARTICLE IX.D if such Employee's release has not been deemed null and void and of no force and effect on or prior to the date that is the date of dissolution of the Claimant Trust pursuant to the Claimant Trust Agreement.

By executing the Senior Employee Stipulation embodying this release, each Senior Employee acknowledges and agrees, without limitation, to the terms of this release and the tolling agreement contained in the Senior Employee Stipulation.

The provisions of this release and the execution of a Senior Employee Stipulation will not in any way prevent or limit any Employee from (i) prosecuting its Claims, if any, against the Debtor's Estate, (ii) defending him or herself against any claims or causes of action brought against the Employee by a third party, or (iii) assisting other persons in defending themselves from any Estate Claims brought by the Litigation Trustee (but only with respect to Estate Claims brought by the Litigation Trustee and not collection or other actions brought by the Claimant Trustee).

E. Preservation of Rights of Action

1. Maintenance of Causes of Action

Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust will retain all rights to commence, pursue, litigate or settle, as appropriate, any and all Causes of Action included in the Reorganized Debtor Assets or Claimant Trust Assets, as applicable, whether existing as of the Petition Date or thereafter arising, in any court or other tribunal including, without limitation, in an adversary proceeding Filed in the Chapter 11 Case and, as the successors in interest to the Debtor and the Estate, may, and will have the exclusive right to, enforce, sue on, settle, compromise, transfer or assign (or decline to do any of the foregoing) any or all of the Causes of Action without notice to or approval from the Bankruptcy Court.

2. Preservation of All Causes of Action Not Expressly Settled or Released

Unless a Cause of Action against a Holder of a Claim or an Equity Interest or other Entity is expressly waived, relinquished, released, compromised or settled in this Plan or any Final Order (including, without limitation, the Confirmation Order), such Cause of Action is expressly reserved for later adjudication by the Reorganized Debtor or Claimant Trust, as applicable (including, without limitation, Causes of Action not specifically identified or of which the Debtor may presently be unaware or that may arise or exist by reason of additional facts or circumstances unknown to the Debtor at this time or facts or circumstances that may change or be different from those the Debtor now believes to exist) and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including, without limitation, the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, waiver, estoppel (judicial, equitable or otherwise) or laches will apply to such Causes of Action as a consequence of the confirmation, effectiveness, or consummation of this Plan based on the Disclosure Statement, this Plan or the Confirmation Order, except where such Causes of Action have been expressly released in this Plan or any other Final Order (including, without limitation, the Confirmation Order). In addition, the right of the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust to pursue or adopt any claims alleged in any lawsuit in which the Debtor is a plaintiff, defendant or an interested party, against any Entity, including, without limitation, the plaintiffs or co-defendants in such lawsuits, is expressly reserved.

F. Injunction

Upon entry of the Confirmation Order, all Enjoined Parties are and shall be permanently enjoined, on and after the Effective Date, from taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan.

Except as expressly provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or a separate order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Enjoined Parties are and shall be permanently enjoined, on and after the Effective Date, with respect to any Claims and Equity Interests, from directly or indirectly (i) commencing, conducting, or continuing in any manner any suit, action, or other proceeding of any kind (including any proceeding in a judicial, arbitral, administrative or other forum) against or affecting the Debtor or the property of the Debtor, (ii) enforcing, levying, attaching (including any prejudgment attachment), collecting, or otherwise recovering, enforcing, or attempting to recover or enforce, by any manner or means, any judgment, award, decree, or order against the Debtor or the property of the Debtor, (iii) creating, perfecting, or otherwise enforcing in any manner, any security interest, lien or encumbrance of any kind against the Debtor or the property of the Debtor, (iv) asserting any right of setoff, directly or indirectly, against any obligation due to the Debtor or against property or interests in property of the Debtor, except to the limited extent permitted under Sections 553 and 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, and (v) acting or proceeding in any manner, in any place whatsoever, that does not conform to or comply with the provisions of the Plan.

The injunctions set forth herein shall extend to, and apply to any act of the type set forth in any of clauses (i)-(v) of the immediately preceding paragraph against any successors of the Debtor, including, but not limited to, the Reorganized Debtor, the Litigation Sub-Trust, and the Claimant Trust and their respective property and interests in property.

Subject in all respects to ARTICLE XII.D, no Enjoined Party may commence or pursue a claim or cause of action of any kind against any Protected Party that arose or arises from or is related to the Chapter 11 Case, the negotiation of the Plan, the administration of the Plan or property to be distributed under the Plan, the wind down of the business of the Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, the administration of the Claimant Trust or the Litigation Sub-Trust, or the transactions in furtherance of the foregoing without the Bankruptcy Court

(i) first determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or cause of action represents a colorable claim of any kind, including, but not limited to, negligence, bad faith, criminal misconduct, willful misconduct, fraud, or gross negligence against a Protected Party and (ii) specifically authorizing such Enjoined Party to bring such claim or cause of action against any such Protected Party; provided, however, the foregoing will not apply to a claim or cause of action against Strand or against any Employee other than with respect to actions taken, respectively, by Strand or by such Employee from the date of appointment of the Independent Directors through the Effective Date. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or cause of action is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in ARTICLE XI, shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying colorable claim or cause of action.

G. Duration of Injunctions and Stays

ARTICLE II. Unless otherwise provided in this Plan, in the Confirmation Order, or in a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, (i) all injunctions and stays entered during the Chapter 11 Case and in existence on the Confirmation Date shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms; and (ii) the automatic stay arising under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code shall remain in full force and effect subject to Section 362(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, and to the extent necessary if the Debtor does not receive a discharge, the Court will enter an equivalent order under Section 105.

ARTICLE X.

All Claims and Debts shall be fixed and adjusted pursuant to this Plan. The Plan shall also bind any taxing authority, recorder of deeds, or similar official for any county, state, Governmental Unit or parish in which any instrument related to the Plan or related to any transaction contemplated thereby is to be recorded with respect to any taxes of the kind specified in Bankruptcy Code section 1146(a).

B. Modification of Plan

MEANS FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF THIS PLAN

The Debtor believes that the continued provision of the services under such contracts will not be cost effective.

The Reorganized Debtor will distribute all proceeds from the wind down to the Claimant Trust, as its limited partner, and New GP LLC, as its general partner, in each case in accordance with the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement. Accordingly, the applicable Claimant Trust Beneficiaries shall be treated for United States federal income tax purposes as the grantors and owners of their respective share of the Claimant Trust Assets. The foregoing treatment shall also apply, to the extent permitted by applicable law, for state and local income tax purposes.

9. Tax Reporting.

(a) The Claimant Trustee shall file tax returns for the Claimant Trust treating the Claimant Trust as a grantor trust pursuant to Treasury Regulation section 1.671-4(a). Parties seeking to contest this finding with respect to their Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases must file a timely objection to the Plan on the grounds that their agreements are integrated and not severable, and any such dispute shall be resolved by the Bankruptcy Court at the Confirmation Hearing (to the extent not resolved by the parties prior to the Confirmation Hearing).

Interest, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter), each Holder of an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest against the Debtor shall receive the full amount of the distributions that this Plan provides for Allowed Claims or Allowed Equity Interests in the applicable Class and in the manner provided herein. If any payment or act under this Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not on a Business Day, then the making of such payment or the performance of such act may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. If and to the extent there are Disputed Claims or Equity Interests, distributions on account of any such Disputed Claims or Equity Interests shall be made pursuant to the provisions provided in this Plan. Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, Holders of Claims and Equity Interests shall not be entitled to interest, dividends or accruals on the distributions provided for therein, regardless of whether distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

At the close of business on the Distribution Record Date, the transfer ledgers for the Claims against the Debtor and the Equity Interests in the Debtor shall be closed, and there shall be no further changes in the record holders of such Claims and Equity Interests. The Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, the Trustees, and the Distribution Agent, and each of their respective agents, successors, and assigns shall have no obligation to recognize the transfer of any Claims against the Debtor or Equity Interests in the Debtor occurring after the Distribution Record Date and shall be entitled instead to recognize and deal for all purposes hereunder with only those record holders stated on the transfer ledgers as of the close of business on the Distribution Record Date irrespective of the number of distributions to be made under this Plan to such Persons or the date of such distributions.

B. Distribution Agent

Except as provided herein, all distributions under this Plan shall be made by the Claimant Trustee, as Distribution Agent, or by such other Entity designated by the Claimant Trustee, as a Distribution Agent on the Effective Date or thereafter. The Reorganized Debtor will be the Distribution Agent with respect to Claims in Class 1 through Class 7.

To the extent a Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim pursuant to the terms of this Plan, within 30 days of the date on which such Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim pursuant to the terms of this Plan, the Claimant Trustee shall distribute from the Disputed Claims Reserve to the Holder thereof any prior distributions, in Cash, that would have been made to such Allowed Claim if it had been Allowed as of the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, each Holder of a Disputed Claim that subsequently becomes an Allowed Claim will also receive its Pro Rata share of the Claimant Trust Interests. If, upon the resolution of all Disputed Claims any Cash remains in the Disputed Claims Reserve, such Cash shall be transferred to the Claimant Trust and be deemed a Claimant Trust Asset.

F. Rounding of Payments

Whenever this Plan would otherwise call for, with respect to a particular Person, payment of a fraction of a dollar, the actual payment or distribution shall reflect a rounding of such fraction to the nearest whole dollar (up or down), with half dollars being rounded down. To the extent that Cash to be distributed under this Plan remains undistributed as a result of the aforementioned rounding, such Cash or stock shall be treated as “Unclaimed Property” under this Plan.

G. De Minimis Distribution

Except as to any Allowed Claim that is Unimpaired under this Plan, none of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Distribution Agent shall have any obligation to make any Plan Distributions with a value of less than $100, unless a written request therefor is received by the Distribution Agent from the relevant recipient at the addresses set forth in ARTICLE VI.J hereof within 120 days after the later of the (i) Effective Date and (ii) the date such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim. De minimis distributions for which no such request is timely received shall

H. Distributions on Account of Allowed Claims

Except as otherwise agreed by the Holder of a particular Claim or as provided in this Plan, all distributions shall be made pursuant to the terms of this Plan and the Confirmation Order. Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, distributions to any Holder of an Allowed Claim shall, to the extent applicable, be allocated first to the principal amount of any such Allowed Claim, as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes and then, to the extent the consideration exceeds such amount, to the remainder of such Claim comprising accrued but unpaid interest, if any (but solely to the extent that interest is an allowable portion of such Allowed Claim).

I. General Distribution Procedures

The Distribution Agent shall make all distributions of Cash or other property required under this Plan, unless this Plan specifically provides otherwise. All Cash and other property held by the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust, as applicable, for ultimate distribution under this Plan shall not be subject to any claim by any Person.

J. Address for Delivery of Distributions

Distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims, to the extent provided for under this Plan, shall be made (1) at the addresses set forth in any written notices of address change delivered to the Debtor and the Distribution Agent; (2) at the address set forth on any Proofs of Claim Filed by such Holders (to the extent such Proofs of Claim are Filed in the Chapter 11 Case), (2), or (3) at the addresses in the Debtor's books and records.

If there is any conflict or discrepancy between the addresses set forth in (1) through (3) in the foregoing sentence, then (i) the address in Section (2) shall control; (ii) if (2) does not apply, the address in (1) shall control, and (iii) if (1) does not apply, the address in (3) shall control.

K. Undeliverable Distributions and Unclaimed Property

If the distribution to the Holder of any Allowed Claim is returned to the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust as undeliverable, no further distribution shall be made to such Holder, and Distribution Agent shall not have any obligation to make any further distribution to the Holder, unless and until the Distribution Agent is notified in writing of such Holder's then current address.

Any Entity that fails to claim any Cash within six months from the date upon which a distribution is first made to such Entity shall forfeit all rights to any distribution under this Plan and such Cash shall thereafter be deemed an Claimant Trust Asset in all respects and for all purposes. Entities that fail to claim Cash shall forfeit their rights thereto and shall have no claim whatsoever against the Debtor's Estate, the Reorganized Debtor, the Claimant Trust, or against any Holder of an Allowed Claim to whom distributions are made by the Distribution Agent.

In connection with this Plan, to the extent applicable, the Distribution Agent shall comply with all tax withholding and reporting requirements imposed on them by any Governmental Unit, and all distributions made pursuant to this Plan shall be subject to such withholding and reporting requirements. The Distribution Agent shall be entitled to deduct any U.S. federal, state or local withholding taxes from any Cash payments made with respect to Allowed Claims, as appropriate. As a condition to receiving any distribution under this Plan, the Distribution Agent may require that the Holder of an Allowed Claim entitled to receive a distribution pursuant to this Plan provide such Holder's taxpayer identification number and such other information and certification as may be deemed necessary for the Distribution Agent to comply with applicable tax reporting and withholding laws. If a Holder fails to comply with such a request within one year, such distribution shall be deemed an unclaimed distribution. Any amounts withheld pursuant hereto shall be deemed to have been distributed to and received by the applicable recipient for all purposes of this Plan.

M. Setoffs

The Distribution Agent may, to the extent permitted under applicable law, set off against any Allowed Claim and any distributions to be made pursuant to this Plan on account of such Allowed Claim, the claims, rights and causes of action of any nature that the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Distribution Agent may hold against the Holder of such Allowed Claim that are not otherwise waived, released or compromised in accordance with this Plan; provided, however, that neither such a setoff nor the allowance of any Claim hereunder shall constitute a waiver or release by the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trustee of any such claims, rights and causes of action that the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or Claimant Trustee possesses against such Holder. Any Holder of an Allowed Claim subject to such setoff reserves the right to challenge any such setoff in the Bankruptcy Court or any other court with jurisdiction with respect to such challenge.

N. Surrender of Cancelled Instruments or Securities

As a condition precedent to receiving any distribution pursuant to this Plan on account of an Allowed Claim evidenced by negotiable instruments, securities, or notes canceled pursuant to ARTICLE IV of this Plan, the Holder of such Claim will tender the applicable negotiable instruments, securities, or notes evidencing such Claim (or a sworn affidavit identifying the negotiable instruments, securities, or notes formerly held by such Holder and certifying that they have been lost), to the Distribution Agent unless waived in writing by the Distribution Agent.

O. Lost, Stolen, Mutilated or Destroyed Securities

In addition to any requirements under any applicable agreement and applicable law, any Holder of a Claim or Equity Interest evidenced by a security or note that has been lost, stolen, mutilated, or destroyed will, in lieu of surrendering such security or note to the extent required by this Plan, deliver to the Distribution Agent: (i) evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Distribution Agent of such loss, theft, mutilation, or destruction; and (ii) such security or indemnity as may be required by the Distribution Agent to hold such party harmless from any damages, liabilities, or costs incurred in treating such individual as a Holder of an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest. Upon compliance with ARTICLE VI.O of this Plan as determined by the Distribution Agent, by a Holder of a Claim evidenced by a security or note, such Holder will, for all purposes under this Plan, be deemed to have surrendered such security or note to the Distribution Agent.

ARTICLE VII.
PROCEDURES FOR RESOLVING CONTINGENT,

D. Allowance of Claims and Equity Interests

Following the date on which a Disputed Claim or Disputed Equity Interest becomes an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest after the Distribution Date, the Distribution Agent shall make a distribution to the Holder of such Allowed Claim or Equity Interest in accordance with the Plan.

1. Allowance of Claims

After the Effective Date and subject to the other provisions of this Plan, the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust, as applicable, will have and will retain any and all rights and defenses under bankruptcy or nonbankruptcy law that the Debtor had with respect to any Claim. All of the aforementioned objection, estimation and resolution procedures are cumulative and not exclusive of one another. Claims or Equity Interests may be estimated and subsequently compromised, settled, withdrawn or resolved by any mechanism approved by the Bankruptcy Court. The rights and objections of all parties are reserved in connection with any such estimation proceeding.

3. Disallowance of Claims

Any Claims or Equity Interests held by Entities from which property is recoverable under sections 542, 543, 550, or 553 of the Bankruptcy Code, or that are a transferee of a transfer avoidable under sections 522(f), 522(h), 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, or 724(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall be deemed disallowed pursuant to section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, and holders of such Claims or Interests may not receive any distributions on account of such Claims or Interests until such time as such Causes of Action against that Entity have been settled or a Bankruptcy Court Order with respect thereto has been entered and all sums due, if any, to the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust, as applicable, by that Entity have been turned over or paid to the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust, as applicable.

LATE PROOF OF CLAIM HAS BEEN DEEMED TIMELY FILED BY A FINAL ORDER.

ARTICLE VIII.

The failure to satisfy or waive a condition to the Effective Date may be asserted by the Debtor regardless of the circumstances giving rise to the failure of such condition to be satisfied. The failure of the Debtor to exercise any of the foregoing rights will not be deemed a waiver of any other rights, and each right will be deemed an ongoing right that may be asserted at any time by the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust, as applicable.

C. Dissolution of the Committee

On the Effective Date, the Committee will dissolve, and the members of the Committee and the Committee's Professionals will cease to have any role arising from or relating to the Chapter 11 Case, except in connection with final fee applications of Professionals for services rendered prior to the Effective Date (including the right to object thereto). ARTICLE IX.

A. General

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the allowance, classification and treatment of all Allowed Claims and Equity Interests and their respective distributions and treatments under the Plan shall take into account the relative priority and rights of the Claims and the Equity Interests in each Class in connection with any contractual, legal and equitable subordination rights relating thereto whether arising under general principles of equitable subordination, section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise.

B. Discharge of Claims

To the fullest extent provided under section 1141(d)(1)(A) and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, except as otherwise expressly provided by this Plan or the Confirmation Order, all consideration distributed under this Plan will be in exchange for, and in complete satisfaction, settlement, discharge, and release of, all Claims and Equity Interests of any kind or nature whatsoever against the Debtor or any of its Assets or properties, and regardless of whether any property will have been distributed or retained pursuant to this Plan on account of such Claims or Equity Interests. Except as otherwise expressly provided by this Plan or the Confirmation Order, upon the Effective Date, the Debtor and its Estate will be deemed discharged and released under and to the fullest extent provided under section 1141(d)(1)(A) and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code from any and all Claims and Equity Interests of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, but not limited to, demands and liabilities that arose before the Confirmation Date, and all debts of the kind specified in section 502(g), 502(h), or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code.

C. Exculpation

Subject in all respects to ARTICLE XII.D of this Plan, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, no Exculpated Party will have or incur, and each Exculpated Party is hereby exculpated from, any claim, obligation, suit, judgment, damage, demand, debt, right, Cause of Action, remedy, loss, and liability for conduct occurring on or after the Petition Date in connection with or arising out of (i) the filing and administration of the Chapter 11 Case; (ii) the negotiation and pursuit of the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, or the solicitation of votes for, or confirmation of, the Plan; (iii) the funding or consummation of the Plan (including the Plan Supplement) or any related agreements, instruments, or other documents, the solicitation of votes on the Plan, the offer, issuance, and Plan Distribution of any securities issued or to be issued pursuant to the Plan, including the Claimant Trust Interests, whether or not such Plan Distributions occur following the Effective Date; (iv) the implementation of the Plan; and (v) any negotiations, transactions, and documentation in connection with the foregoing clauses (i)-(iv); provided, however, the foregoing will not apply to (a) any acts or omissions of an Exculpated Party arising out of or related to acts or omissions that constitute bad faith, fraud, gross negligence, criminal misconduct, or willful misconduct or (b) Strand or any Employee other than with respect to actions taken by such Entities from the date of appointment of the Independent Directors through the Effective Date. This exculpation shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, all other releases, indemnities, exculpations, any other applicable law or rules, or any other provisions of this Plan, including ARTICLE IV.C.2, protecting such Exculpated Parties from liability.

On and after the Effective Date, each Released Party is deemed to be, hereby conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever released and discharged by the Debtor and the Estate, in each case on behalf of themselves and their respective successors, assigns, and representatives, including, but not limited to, the Claimant Trust and the Litigation Sub-Trust from any and all Causes of Action, including any derivative claims, asserted on behalf of the Debtor, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, matured or unmatured, existing or hereafter arising, in law, equity, contract, tort or otherwise, that the Debtor or the Estate would have been legally entitled to assert in their own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the holder of any Claim against, or Interest in, a Debtor or other Person.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the foregoing release does not release: (i) any obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement executed to implement the Plan, (ii) the rights or obligations of any current employee of the Debtor under any employment agreement or plan, (iii) the rights of the Debtor with respect to any confidentiality provisions or covenants restricting competition in favor of the Debtor under any employment agreement with a current or former employee of the Debtor, (iv) any Avoidance Actions, or (v) any Causes of Action arising from willful misconduct, criminal misconduct, actual fraud, or gross negligence of such applicable Released Party as determined by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any release provided pursuant to this ARTICLE IX.D (i) with respect to a Senior Employee, is conditioned in all respects on (a) such Senior Employee executing a Senior Employee Stipulation on or prior to the Effective Date and (b) the reduction of such Senior Employee's Allowed Claim as set forth in the Senior Employee Stipulation (such amount, the "Reduced Employee Claim"), and (ii) with respect to any Employee, including a Senior Employee, shall be deemed null and void and of no force and effect (1) if there is more than one member of the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee who does not represent entities holding a Disputed or Allowed Claim (the "Independent Members"), the Claimant Trustee and the Independent Members by majority vote determine or (2) if there is only one Independent Member, the Independent Member after discussion with the Claimant Trustee, determines (in each case after discussing with the full Claimant Trust Oversight Committee) that such Employee (regardless of whether the Employee is then currently employed by the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trustee):

- sues, attempts to sue, or threatens or works with or assists any entity or person to sue, attempt to sue, or threaten the Reorganized Debtor, the Claimant Trust, the Litigation

Sub-Trust, or any of their respective employees or agents, or any Released Party on or in connection with any claim or cause of action arising prior to the Effective Date,

- has taken any action that, impairs or harms the value of the Claimant Trust Assets or the Reorganized Debtor Assets, or
- (x) upon the request of the Claimant Trustee, has failed to provide reasonable assistance in good faith to the Claimant Trustee or the Reorganized Debtor with respect to (1) the monetization of the Claimant Trust Assets or Reorganized Debtor Assets, as applicable, or (2) the resolution of Claims, or (y) has taken any action that impedes or frustrates the Claimant Trustee or the Reorganized Debtor with respect to any of the foregoing.

Provided, however, that the release provided pursuant to this ARTICLE IX.D will vest and the Employee will be indefeasibly released pursuant to this ARTICLE IX.D if such Employee's release has not been deemed null and void and of no force and effect on or prior to the date that is the date of dissolution of the Claimant Trust pursuant to the Claimant Trust Agreement.

By executing the Senior Employee Stipulation embodying this release, each Senior Employee acknowledges and agrees, without limitation, to the terms of this release and the tolling agreement contained in the Senior Employee Stipulation.

The provisions of this release and the execution of a Senior Employee Stipulation will not in any way prevent or limit any Employee from (i) prosecuting its Claims, if any, against the Debtor's Estate, (ii) defending him or herself against any claims or causes of action brought against the Employee by a third party, or (iii) assisting other persons in defending themselves from any Estate Claims brought by the Litigation Trustee (but only with respect to Estate Claims brought by the Litigation Trustee and not collection or other actions brought by the Claimant Trustee).

1. Maintenance of Causes of Action

Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust will retain all rights to commence, pursue, litigate or settle, as appropriate, any and all Causes of Action included in the Reorganized Debtor Assets or Claimant Trust Assets, as applicable, whether existing as of the Petition Date or thereafter arising, in any court or other tribunal including, without limitation, in an adversary proceeding Filed in the Chapter 11 Case and, as the successors in interest to the Debtor and the Estate, may, and will have the exclusive right to, enforce, sue on, settle, compromise, transfer or assign (or decline to do any of the foregoing) any or all of the Causes of Action without notice to or approval from the Bankruptcy Court.

2. Preservation of All Causes of Action Not Expressly Settled or Released

Unless a Cause of Action against a Holder of a Claim or an Equity Interest or other Entity is expressly waived, relinquished, released, compromised or settled in this Plan or any Final

Order (including, without limitation, the Confirmation Order), such Cause of Action is expressly reserved for later adjudication by the Reorganized Debtor or Claimant Trust, as applicable (including, without limitation, Causes of Action not specifically identified or of which the Debtor may presently be unaware or that may arise or exist by reason of additional facts or circumstances unknown to the Debtor at this time or facts or circumstances that may change or be different from those the Debtor now believes to exist) and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including, without limitation, the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, waiver, estoppel (judicial, equitable or otherwise) or laches will apply to such Causes of Action as a consequence of the confirmation, effectiveness, or consummation of this Plan based on the Disclosure Statement, this Plan or the Confirmation Order, except where such Causes of Action have been expressly released in this Plan or any other Final Order (including, without limitation, the Confirmation Order). In addition, the right of the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust to pursue or adopt any claims alleged in any lawsuit in which the Debtor is a plaintiff, defendant or an interested party, against any Entity, including, without limitation, the plaintiffs or co-defendants in such lawsuits, is expressly reserved.

F. Injunction

Upon entry of the Confirmation Order, all Enjoined Parties are and shall be permanently enjoined, on and after the Effective Date, from taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan.

Except as expressly provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or a separate order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Enjoined Parties are and shall be permanently enjoined, on and after the Effective Date, with respect to any Claims and Equity Interests, from directly or indirectly (i) commencing, conducting, or continuing in any manner any suit, action, or other proceeding of any kind (including any proceeding in a judicial, arbitral, administrative or other forum) against or affecting the Debtor or the property of the Debtor, (ii) enforcing, levying, attaching (including any prejudgment attachment), collecting, or otherwise recovering, enforcing, or attempting to recover or enforce, by any manner or means, any judgment, award, decree, or order against the Debtor or the property of the Debtor, (iii) creating, perfecting, or otherwise enforcing in any manner, any security interest, lien or encumbrance of any kind against the Debtor or the property of the Debtor, (iv) asserting any right of setoff, directly or indirectly, against any obligation due to the Debtor or against property or interests in property of the Debtor, except to the limited extent permitted under Sections 553 and 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, and (v) acting or proceeding in any manner, in any place whatsoever, that does not conform to or comply with the provisions of the Plan.

The injunctions set forth herein shall extend to, and apply to any act of the type set forth in any of clauses (i)-(v) of the immediately preceding paragraph against any successors of the Debtor, including, but not limited to, the Reorganized Debtor, the Litigation Sub-Trust, and the Claimant Trust and their respective property and interests in property.

Subject in all respects to ARTICLE XII.D, no Enjoined Party may commence or pursue a claim or cause of action of any kind against any Protected Party that arose or arises from or is related to the Chapter 11 Case, the negotiation of the Plan, the administration of the Plan or property to be distributed under the Plan, the wind down of the business of the Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, the administration of the Claimant Trust or the Litigation Sub-Trust, or the transactions in furtherance of the foregoing without the Bankruptcy Court (i) first determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or cause of action represents a colorable claim of any kind, including, but not limited to, negligence, bad faith, criminal misconduct, willful misconduct, fraud, or gross negligence against a Protected Party and (ii) specifically authorizing such Enjoined Party to bring such claim or cause of action against any such Protected Party; provided, however, the foregoing will not apply to a claim or cause of action against Strand or against any Employee other than with respect to actions taken, respectively, by Strand or by such Employee from the date of appointment of the Independent Directors through the Effective Date. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or cause of action is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in ARTICLE XI, shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying colorable claim or cause of action.

G. Duration of Injunctions and Stays

ARTICLE II. Unless otherwise provided in this Plan, in the Confirmation Order, or in a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, (i) all injunctions and stays entered during the Chapter 11 Case and in existence on the Confirmation Date shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms; and (ii) the automatic stay arising under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code shall remain in full force and effect subject to Section 362(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, and to the extent necessary if the Debtor does not receive a discharge, the Court will enter an equivalent order under Section 105.

B. Modification of Plan

Effective as of the date hereof and subject to the limitations and rights contained in this Plan: (a) the Debtor reserves the right, in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules, to amend or modify this Plan prior to the entry of the Confirmation Order with the consent of the Committee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; and (b) after the entry of the Confirmation Order, the Debtor may, after notice and hearing and entry of an order of the Bankruptcy Court, amend or modify this Plan, in accordance with section 1127(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or remedy any defect or omission or reconcile any inconsistency in this Plan in such manner as may be necessary to carry out the purpose and intent of this Plan.

C. Revocation of Plan

The Debtor reserves the right to revoke or withdraw this Plan prior to the Confirmation Date and to File a subsequent chapter 11 plan with the consent of the Committee. If the Debtor revokes or withdraws this Plan prior to the Confirmation Date, then: (i) this Plan shall be null and void in all respects; (ii) any settlement or compromise embodied in this Plan, assumption of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases effected by this Plan and any document or agreement executed pursuant hereto shall be deemed null and void except as may be set forth in a separate order entered by the Bankruptcy Court; and (iii) nothing contained in this Plan shall: (a) constitute a waiver or release of any Claims by or against, or any Equity Interests in, the Debtor or any other Entity; (b) prejudice in any manner the rights of the Debtor or any other Entity; or (c) constitute an admission, acknowledgement, offer or undertaking of any sort by the Debtor or any other Entity.

D. Obligations Not Changed

Notwithstanding anything in this Plan to the contrary, nothing herein will affect or otherwise limit or release any non-Debtor Entity's (including any Exculpated Party's) duties or obligations, including any contractual and indemnification obligations, to the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or any other Entity whether arising under contract, statute, or otherwise.

E. Entire Agreement

Neither the filing of this Plan, any statement or provision contained herein, nor the taking of any action by the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, the Claimant Trustee, or any other Entity with respect to this Plan shall be or shall be deemed to be an admission or waiver of any rights of: (1) the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trustee with respect to the Holders of Claims or Equity Interests or other Entity; or (2) any Holder of a Claim or an Equity Interest or other Entity prior to the Effective Date.

Neither the exclusion or inclusion by the Debtor of any contract or lease on any exhibit, schedule, or other annex to this Plan or in the Plan Documents, nor anything contained in this

Except as explicitly provided in this Plan, nothing herein shall waive, excuse, limit, diminish, or otherwise alter any of the defenses, claims, Causes of Action, or other rights of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trustee under any executory or non-executory contract.

If there is a dispute regarding whether a contract or lease is or was executory at the time of its assumption under this Plan, the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trustee, as applicable, shall have thirty (30) days following entry of a Final Order resolving such dispute to alter their treatment of such contract.

Notwithstanding any such holding, alteration or interpretation, the remainder of the terms and provisions of this Plan will remain in full force and effect and will in no way be affected, impaired, or invalidated by such holding, alteration, or interpretation. The Confirmation Order will constitute a judicial determination and will provide that each term and provision of this Plan, as it may have been altered or interpreted in accordance with the foregoing, is valid and enforceable pursuant to its terms.

EXHIBIT 5

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION

THE CHARITABLE DAF FUND, LP., §
Plaintiff, §
v. § Cause No. _____
HIGHLAND CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, §
L.P., §

ORIGINAL COMPLAINT

This matter concerns self-dealing and seeks redress for violation of state and federal law, including, but not limited to, violations of the Advisers Act of 1940, and other state causes of action.

I.

PARTIES

1. Plaintiff The Charitable DAF Fund, L.P. (“Plaintiff” or “DAF”) is a limited partnership formed under the laws of the Cayman Islands.

2. Defendant Highland Capital Management L.P. (“Highland” or “HCMLP”) is a Delaware limited partnership, whose principal place of business is in Dallas, Texas, at 300 Crescent Court, Suite 700, Dallas, Texas 75201.

II.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. Subject matter jurisdiction is proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and under 28 U.S.C. § 1334 because the suit arises out of post-petition acts or omissions of the debtor and certain of its principals.

4. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant Highland Capital Management, L.P. because it has continuously done business in this state, and the causes of action arise from the acts or omissions committed in this state.

5. Venue is proper in this Court because a substantial number of the acts or omissions giving rise to this lawsuit and the causes of action asserted herein occurred in Dallas County.

III.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

6. HCMLP is a registered investment advisor (“RIA”) subject to the regulations of the Securities Exchange Commission.

7. HCMLP is both the advisor of and investor in Highland Multi Strategy Credit Fund, L.P. (“Multistrat”), a Delaware limited partnership. Highland Multi Strategy Credit Fund GP, L.P., itself a Delaware limited partnership, is the general partner of Multistrat, and HCMLP is the sole member of the general partner of Highland Multi Strategy Credit Fund GP, L.P.

8. HCMLP’s advisory capacity is governed, or at all relevant times was governed, by the Third Amended and Restated Investment Management Agreement, effective November 1, 2013 (the “IMA”).

9. The purpose of Multistrat as a vehicle was stated as such: “The Fund's investment objective is to seek attractive risk-adjusted returns, consistent with the preservation of capital and prudent investment management.”

10. The Confidential Private Placement Memorandum for Multistrat disclosed that “[t]he Investment Manager is registered as an investment adviser with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the U.S. Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the ‘Advisers Act’).

Each prospective investor will be required to make a representation to indicate that it is a ‘qualified client’ as defined in the Advisers Act.”

11. Because of these agreements and roles as the General Partner and RIA, Highland owed contractual and fiduciary duties to Plaintiff as an investor in Multistrat.

12. James Seery, the principal, CEO, and CRO of HCMLP, in its capacity as a debtor, admitted under oath that HCMLP owes fiduciary duties to the investors of the funds HCMLP manages—which would include Multistrat—and therefore, has admitted under oath that HCMLP and its governed persons owe fiduciary duties to the investors in Multistrat, which include Plaintiff, The Charitable DAF Fund, and Highland Capital Management Services, Inc., among others.

13. As an investment vehicle advised at all times and controlled at all times by HCMLP, Multistrat purchased and owned a pool of viaticals—investments in life insurance policies keyed to the lives of other persons. When a person passes away, the life insurance money is paid to the owner of the policy—in this case, Multistrat.

14. The notional value of the viatical pool was approximately $145 million.

15. In or around August 2020, HCMLP sold the entire viatical pool for approximately $35,000,000—less than one quarter of the insured value.

16. The policies insured people aged 90 on average, suggesting that the policies were highly likely to pay off in the ensuing few years given the age and life expectancies of the insureds, as well as considering the actuarial impact of the COVID pandemic.

17. In the spring of 2020, Multistrat raised funds specifically for the purpose of paying the premiums on the viatical pool—amounts raised, borrowing availability, and liquid securities provided enough cash to pay the premiums. But HCMLP did not pursue this path as promised.

Instead, it sold the assets. To this day, it is unclear why the policies were sold, and why, just prior to a planned mediation.

18. Furthermore, the process of selling was severely flawed. For example, the health assessments used to determine the likelihood and timeline for the payout were two years old. HCMLP did not cause new, up-to-date health assessments to be performed, and instead was content to rely on stale information or worse, no information at all.

19. Furthermore, HCMLP made no effort to adjust the projected life expectancies due to the increasing age of the insureds during a process that stretched over seven months, nor for the potential impact of COVID on people over the age of 90, which would have impacted the price..

20. Equally troubling is that Multistrat obtained the funds to pay the premiums from another investor—yet, it apparently did not use the funds for that purpose.

21. HCMLP apparently used the proceeds of the sale to pay itself, notwithstanding the fact that there were redeemed interests waiting to be paid—interests to whom HCMLP also owed fiduciary duties.

22. In short, HCMLP caused Multistrat to sell the viatical pool at a substantially discounted amount to curry favor with the brokers and buyers in the marketplace for no apparent benefit to Multistrat’s investors or the debtor’s estate.

CAUSES OF ACTION

First Cause of Action Breach of the Advisers Act

23. Plaintiff incorporates the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth herein.
24. Highland’s actions violate the Advisers Act.
25. As an RIA, HCMLP is subject to the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

26. The IMA imposes and incorporates the duties and obligations of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

27. Under this federal law, an investment adviser is a fiduciary.<sup>1</sup> This includes a duty of care, a duty of loyalty, and a duty to refrain from engaging in transactions in which it is not a disinterested person.

28. The duty of loyalty imposed by the Advisers Act of 1940 is not specifically defined in the Advisers Act or in Commission rules but reflects a Congressional recognition “of the delicate fiduciary nature of an investment advisory relationship” as well as a Congressional intent to “eliminate, or at least to expose, all conflicts of interest which might incline an investment adviser—consciously or unconsciously—to render advice which was not disinterested.”

29. To meet its duty of loyalty, an adviser must make full and fair disclosure to its clients of all material facts relating to the advisory relationship, including disclosing transactions in which the advisor has an interest, and to disclose all pertinent facts of a transaction that could affect the client or the client’s interest.<sup>2</sup> In order for disclosure to be full and fair, it should be sufficiently specific so that a client is able to understand the material fact or conflict of interest and make an informed decision whether to provide consent.

Capital Gains*, stating that the Supreme Court’s “references to fraud in the “equitable” sense of the term was “premised on its recognition that Congress intended the Investment Advisers Act to establish federal fiduciary standards for investment advisers”); Investment Advisers Act Release No. 3060 (July 28, 2010) (“Under the Advisers Act, an adviser is a fiduciary whose duty is to serve the best interests of its clients, which includes an obligation not to subrogate clients’ interests to its own,” citing Proxy Voting by Investment Advisers, Investment Advisers Act Release No. 2106 (Jan. 31, 2003) (“Investment Advisers Act Release 2106”).

30. This fiduciary duty also requires an adviser “to adopt the principal’s goals, objectives, or ends.” This means the adviser must, at all times, serve the best interest of its client and not subordinate its client’s interest to its own. In other words, the investment adviser cannot place its own interests ahead of the interests of its client and must at all times act for the interests of its investors.<sup>3</sup>

31. Here, the goals of Multistrat included “to seek attractive risk adjusted returns, consistent with the preservation of capital and prudent investment management.”

32. The duty of care includes, among other things: (i) the duty to provide advice that is in the best interest of the client, (ii) the duty to seek best execution of a client’s transactions where the adviser has the responsibility to select broker-dealers to execute client trades, and (iii) the duty to provide advice and monitoring over the course of the relationship.

33. These fiduciary duties are unwaivable, and any agreement made in derogation of the obligations under the Advisers Act is void.

34. Therefore, Plaintiff seeks to declare the sale of the viaticals void because they were accomplished in violation of the Advisers Act.

35. Plaintiff further seeks to declare the agreement(s) between Highland and Multistrat void because they were continued in violation of the Advisers Act.

Second Cause of Action
Breach of Fiduciary Duty

36. Plaintiff incorporates the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth herein.

45. These fiduciary duties are unwaivable, and any agreement made in derogation of the obligations under the Advisers Act is void.

46. HCMLP’s CEO testified under oath that he and HCMLP were aware of these duties and had to comply with them.

47. Section 204 of the Advisers Act requires HCMLP to carry written policies and procedures that must be followed in order to adhere to its federal obligations.

48. Section 206 of the Advisers Act prohibits transactions by an adviser that were accomplished via a “deceit” on a client or prospective client, e.g., by concealing the role and interest the adviser has in the transaction, or via engaging in a course of conduct that has a tendency to mislead a client or which is manipulative.

49. These breaches include, but are not limited to (1) selling the viatical pool at a distressed price when it was not in distress and there was no need for Multistrat to sell; (2) concealing the information about the transaction from the Plaintiff; (3) failing to advise the Plaintiff of the opportunity to purchase the viatical pool—especially when it knew the Plaintiff had an interest in the pool and had the means of purchasing it for more cash than $35 million; (4) concealing the purpose behind the sale of the viatical pool and the conflicts of interest that inhere in the transaction; (5) causing the viatical pool to be sold in a manner that violated the rights of the Plaintiff as an investor in Multistrat (e.g., by failing to conduct an auction, obtaining competitive bids and taking the pool to market); and (6) utilizing the sale proceeds for its own ends—namely, to enrich itself.

50. The Advisers Act declares any contract that was made in violation of its provisions or regulations, or any contract that has been performed in violation of the Advisers Act, void.

51. The Advisers Act created a private right of action to void unlawful agreements and acts and to seek such equitable relief as accompanies such claims.

52. Texas law allows a fiduciary plaintiff to seek damages for breaches of fiduciary duty and to seek disgorgement of all ill-gotten gains obtained by a fiduciary.

53. Plaintiff has been damaged due to the breaches of fiduciary duty outlined herein, and it is entitled to recover damages, punitive damages, and attorneys’ fees.

54. To the extent this claim must be brought as a derivative action, it is plain that the demand requirement under Delaware law could not be met because serving a demand on Highland or to sue Highland would have been futile.

Third Cause of Action
Breach of Contract

55. Plaintiff incorporates the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth herein.

56. The IMA imposes a duty of prudent investment management for the benefit of the investors in Multistrat and incorporate the duties and obligations of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

57. The violations set forth above constitute a breach of each or both of these agreements.

58. These breaches include, but are not limited to (1) selling the viatical pool at a distressed price when it was not in distress and there was no need for Multistrat to sell; (2) concealing the information about the transaction from the Plaintiff; (3) failing to advise the Plaintiff of the opportunity to purchase the viatical pool—especially when it knew the Plaintiff had an interest in the pool and had the means of purchasing it for more cash than $35 million; (4) concealing the purpose behind the sale of the viatical pool and the conflicts of interest that inhere in the transaction; (5) causing the viatical pool to be sold in a manner that violated the rights of the Plaintiff as an investor in Multistrat (e.g., by failing to conduct an auction, obtaining competitive bids, and taking the pool to market); and (6) utilizing the sale proceeds for its own ends—namely, to enrich itself.

59. Plaintiff has been damaged by the breaches of contract outlined herein.

60. Plaintiff is entitled to recover damages and attorneys' fees.

JURY DEMAND AND PRAYER

61. Plaintiff demands trial by jury.
62. Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment and an order:
  - Disgorging all ill-gotten gains in an amount to be determined at trial;
  - Voiding the sale and other relevant agreements herein with HCMLP pursuant to the Advisers Act;
  - Awarding damages in an amount to be determined at trial;
  - Awarding punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial;
  - Awarding attorneys’ fees and costs in an amount to be determined at trial;
  - Awarding all interim and final relief to which Plaintiff is legally or equitably entitled under the facts and circumstances raised herein.

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

THE CHARITABLE DAF FUND, LP.,

Plaintiff,

v.

L.P.,

Cause No. 3:21-cv-01710-N

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION TO STAY ALL PROCEEDINGS

I.

NECESSITY OF MOTION

Plaintiff submits this Motion as a result of the effective date, August 11, 2021, of Defendant Highland Capital Management L.P.’s Chapter 11 plan of reorganization (the “Plan”). The Plan purports to exculpate Defendant from liability and enjoin Plaintiff from pursuing actions against them. It also contains an assertion of exclusive jurisdiction by the bankruptcy court.

An appeal of the Plan, which the Fifth Circuit certified for direct appeal under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d), is now before the Court of Appeals and captioned In re Highland Capital Management, L.P., No. 21-10449 (the “Fifth Circuit Appeal”). Each of the issues noted above is raised in the appeal. If successful, the appeal will overturn the exculpation, injunction, and assertion of exclusive jurisdiction in the Plan, allowing Plaintiff to proceed with this action in this Court.

In the meantime, however, Plaintiff is enjoined from participating further in this pending case and therefore asks that it be stayed pending the outcome of the Fifth Circuit Appeal.

II.

BACKGROUND

On August 9, 2021, Plaintiff received notice that the Plan was now effective. In re Highland Capital Management, L.P., No. 19-34054, Doc. 2700. Although one condition precedent to the effectiveness of the Plan is finality of the confirmation order, which can only happen once all appeals are resolved, that and all other conditions are waivable by the Debtor. Id., Doc. 1943 at pdf 142-43 (Art. VIII at pp. 45-46). The Debtor's notice, which waived finality and any other unsatisfied conditions, makes the Plan's exculpation provisions and injunctions immediately effective.

As to exculpation, the Plan states,

Subject in all respects to ARTICLE XII.D of this Plan, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, no Exculpated Party will have or incur, and each Exculpated Party is hereby exculpated from, any claim, obligation, suit, judgment, damage, demand, debt, right, Cause of Action, remedy, loss, and liability for conduct occurring on or after the Petition Date in connection with or arising out of (i) the filing and administration of the Chapter 11 Case; (ii) the negotiation and pursuit of the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, or the solicitation of votes for, or confirmation of, the Plan; (iii) the funding or consummation of the Plan (including the Plan Supplement) or any related agreements, instruments, or other documents, the solicitation of votes on the Plan, the offer, issuance, and Plan Distribution of any securities issued or to be issued pursuant to the Plan, including the Claimant Trust Interests, whether or not such Plan Distributions occur following the Effective Date; (iv) the implementation of the Plan; and (v) any negotiations, transactions, and documentation in connection with the foregoing clauses (i)-(iv); provided, however, the foregoing will not apply to (a) any acts or omissions of an Exculpated Party arising out of or related to acts or omissions that constitute bad faith, fraud, gross negligence, criminal misconduct, or willful misconduct or (b) Strand or any Employee other than with respect to actions taken by such Entities from the date of appointment of the Independent Directors through the Effective Date. This exculpation shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, all other releases, indemnities, exculpations, any other applicable law or rules, or any other provisions of this Plan, including ARTICLE IV.C.2, protecting such Exculpated Parties from liability.

Id. at pdf 144-45 (Art. IX.C at pp. 47-48 (emphasis added)). “Exculpated Parties” is a defined term in the Plan that includes the Defendant in this action. Id. at pdf 106 (Art. I at p. 9).

As to the injunction, the Plan states,

Except as expressly provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or a separate order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Enjoined Parties are and shall be permanently enjoined, on and after the Effective Date, with respect to any Claims and Equity Interests, from directly or indirectly (i) commencing, conducting, or continuing in any manner any suit, action, or other proceeding of any kind (including any proceeding in a judicial, arbitral, administrative or other forum) against or affecting the Debtor or the property of the Debtor, (ii) enforcing, levying, attaching (including any prejudgment attachment), collecting, or otherwise recovering, enforcing, or attempting to recover or enforce, by any manner or means, any judgment, award, decree, or order against the Debtor or the property of the Debtor, (iii) creating, perfecting, or otherwise enforcing in any manner, any security interest, lien or encumbrance of any kind against the Debtor or the property of the Debtor, (iv) asserting any right of setoff, directly or indirectly, against any obligation due to the Debtor or against property or interests in property of the Debtor, except to the limited extent permitted under Sections 553 and 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, and (v) acting or proceeding in any manner, in any place whatsoever, that does not conform to or comply with the provisions of the Plan.

The injunctions set forth herein shall extend to, and apply to any act of the type set forth in any of clauses (i)-(v) of the immediately preceding paragraph against any successors of the Debtor, including, but not limited to, the Reorganized Debtor, the Litigation SubTrust, and the Claimant Trust and their respective property and interests in property.

Subject in all respects to ARTICLE XII.D, no Enjoined Party may commence or pursue a claim or cause of action of any kind against any Protected Party that arose or arises from or is related to the Chapter 11 Case, the negotiation of the Plan, the administration of the Plan or property to be distributed under the Plan, the wind down of the business of the Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, the administration of the Claimant Trust or the Litigation Sub-Trust, or the transactions in furtherance of the foregoing without the Bankruptcy Court (i) first determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or cause of action represents a colorable claim of any kind, including, but not limited to, negligence, bad faith, criminal misconduct, willful misconduct, fraud, or gross negligence against a Protected Party and (ii) specifically authorizing such Enjoined Party to bring such claim or cause of action against any such Protected Party; provided, however, the foregoing will not apply to a claim or cause of action against Strand or against any Employee other than with respect to actions taken, respectively, by Strand or by such Employee from the date of appointment of the Independent Directors through the Effective Date. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or cause of action is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in ARTICLE XI, shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying colorable claim or cause of action.

Id. at pdf 147-48 (Art. IX.F at pp. 50-51 (emphasis added)). “Enjoined Parties” is a defined term in the Plan that includes Plaintiff. Id. at pdf 105 (Art. I; ¶ 56 at p.8).

Because these provisions are currently in force and prohibits Plaintiff from continuing this action, and because the Fifth Circuit Appeal includes direct challenges to the validity of these very provisions, Plaintiff respectfully submits that the most efficient course of action is for this Court to stay this action until the Fifth Circuit Appeal is resolved. Plaintiff expects that any resolution of the Fifth Circuit Appeal will necessarily determine that the Plan’s exculpation and injunction provisions absolves Defendant of any liability or, alternatively, that this action can proceed.

III.

ARGUMENT

This Court should exercise its inherent powers to stay all proceedings in the case until the Fifth Circuit Appeal is decided.

The Fifth Circuit has long held that “[t]he district court possesses the inherent power to control its docket.” Marine Chance Shipping v. Sebastian, 143 F.3d 216, 218 (5th Cir. 1998). The exercise of that power is a discretionary one. E.g., Petrus v. Bowen, 833 F.2d 581, 583 (5th Cir. 1987) (“A trial court has broad discretion and inherent power to stay discovery until preliminary questions that may dispose of the case are determined.”)

Here, Plaintiff asks this Court to exercise discretion in favor of efficiency and to stay all proceedings. Plaintiff respectfully submits that, until the appeal is resolved, many complex legal questions exist that may affect the viability of this action or the forum in which it should be litigated. Those questions—including the validity of the exculpation and injunction provisions quoted above—will likely be resolved by the Fifth Circuit Appeal. And therefore, Plaintiff submits, judicial economy may be gained by staying all proceedings in this action pending that appeal.

IV.

CONCLUSION

Plaintiff appears to be wholly prohibited from participating further in this action by the now-effective terms of the Plan that purport to enjoin Plaintiff and exculpates Defendant. In light of its inability to conduct the litigation and the pending Fifth Circuit Appeal, which that court has certified for direct appeal, Plaintiff respectfully submits that the most appropriate course for this Court is to stay all proceedings until the appeal is decided. Plaintiff therefore respectfully requests a stay and all further relief to which it may be entitled.

ORDER

This Order addresses Defendant Highland Capital Management, L.P.’s (“HCM”) motion for reconsideration of this Court’s earlier order staying this case [8]. This case challenges a transaction consummated in the course of a consolidated bankruptcy proceeding and names as the sole defendant the debtor in that bankruptcy. The Court therefore concludes that this case constitutes a matter “related to” a case in the bankruptcy court under the meaning of this District’s Miscellaneous Order No. 33. Accordingly, the Court grants Defendant’s motion, lifts the stay, and refers this case to Judge Stacey G.C. Jernigan of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas, to be adjudicated as a matter related to the Chapter 11 Bankruptcy of HCM., Chapter 11 Case No. 19-34054. The Clerk of this Court and the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court to which this case is referred are directed to take such actions as are necessary to docket this matter as an Adversary Proceeding associated with the aforementioned consolidated bankruptcy case.

“Partner” means the General Partner or any of the Limited Partners, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, and “Partners” means the General Partner and all of the Limited Partners.

“Partnership” means the limited partnership governed by this Agreement.

“Partnership Minimum Gain” has the meaning set forth in Regulations Section 1.704-2(b)(2) and (d).

“Partnership Percentage” means a percentage established for each Capital Account on the Partnership’s books as of the first day of each Accounting Period. The Partnership Percentage of a Capital Account for an Accounting Period is determined by dividing the amount of such Capital Account as of the beginning of the Accounting Period by the sum of the Capital Accounts of all of the Partners as of the beginning of the Accounting Period. The numerator and denominator of the above shall be calculated after crediting all capital contributions to the Capital Account or Partnership, as appropriate, which are effective as of such date, net of all deductions, including Management Fees. The sum of the Partnership Percentages of all Capital Accounts for each Accounting Period shall equal 100%.

“Performance Allocation” means, for each Capital Account of a Limited Partner, 20% of the amount by which (a) the Positive Performance Change for such Calculation Period for such Capital Account, if any, exceeds (b) any positive balance in the Carryforward Account for such Capital Account as of the most recent prior date as of which any adjustment has been made thereto.

“Performance Change” means, with respect to each Capital Account of a Limited Partner for each Calculation Period, the difference between:

(a) the sum of (i) the balance of such Capital Account as of the close of the Calculation Period (after giving effect to Management Fees and all allocations to be made to such Capital Account as of such date, including such Capital Account’s allocable share of any profits or losses pursuant to Section 3.8 and any credits or debits of any applicable carrying charge associated therewith other than any Performance Allocation to be debited against such Capital Account), plus (ii) any debits to such Capital Account during the Calculation Period to reflect any actual or deemed distributions or withdrawals with respect to such Capital Account, plus (iii) any debits to such Capital Account during the Calculation Period to reflect any items allocable to such Capital Account pursuant to Section 3.5(b) or (c); and

(b) the balance of such Capital Account as of the commencement of the Calculation Period.

If the amount specified in clause (a) exceeds the amount specified in clause (b) such difference is a “Positive Performance Change,” and if the amount specified in clause (b) exceeds the amount specified in clause (a), such difference is a “Negative Performance Change.”

The Performance Change will be computed separately for each Capital Account (and thus each separately maintained capital sub-account created to reflect an additional contribution to a Capital Account). Thus, if a Limited Partner has multiple Capital Accounts, the Performance Change will be calculated separately for each Capital Account and the resulting “Positive Performance Change” and “Negative Performance Change” shall be separately allocated to each such Capital Account and shall not be netted against each other.

“Positive Basis” means, with respect to any Partner and as of any time of calculation, the excess of the amount that such Partner is entitled to receive upon withdrawal from or liquidation of the Partnership over such Partner’s “adjusted tax basis” in its Interest for U.S. federal income tax purposes at such time (determined without regard to any adjustments made to such adjusted tax basis by reason of any Transfer of such Interest).

2.1 Continuation of Limited Partnership

- (a) The General Partner and the Limited Partners hereby agree to continue the Partnership as a limited partnership under and pursuant to the Act and this Agreement.
- (b) The General Partner has executed and filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware a Certificate, and shall execute, acknowledge and file with the Secretary any amendments thereto as may be required by the Act, and any other instruments, documents and certificates which, in the opinion of the Partnership’s legal counsel, may from time to time be required by the laws of the United States of America, the State of Delaware or any other jurisdiction in which the Partnership determines to do business, or any political subdivision or agency thereof, or which such legal counsel may deem necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement and continue the valid and subsisting existence and business of the Partnership. The General Partner shall cause any required amendment to the Certificate to be filed promptly following the event requiring such amendment. All amendments may be signed by the General Partner (as required by the Act) and may be signed either personally or by an attorney-in-fact.
- (c) The parties hereto agree to operate the Partnership as a limited partnership pursuant to the provisions of the Act and of this Agreement and agree that the rights and liabilities of the Limited Partners and the General Partner are as provided in the Act, for limited partners and the general partner except as provided herein.
- (d) The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that the Partnership shall be classified as a “partnership” and not as an association taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes. No election may be made by the Partners or the Partnership to treat the Partnership as other than a “partnership” for U.S. federal, state and/or local income tax purposes and, to the extent necessary, the Partners or Partnership shall make any election to treat the Partnership as a “partnership.” The Partners shall treat the Partnership consistently with its status as a “partnership” for U.S. federal income tax purposes and agree to undertake any further action which is necessary to treat the Partnership as such, and shall not undertake any action that is inconsistent with the Partnership’s status as a “partnership” for U.S. federal, state and/or local income tax purposes.
- (e) The General Partner may change the domicile of the Partnership to another state, country or other jurisdiction where advisable due to legal, tax or other considerations; provided that no such change of domicile would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Limited Partners.

2.2 Name of Partnership

- (a) The name of the Partnership is Highland Multi Strategy Credit Fund, L.P. or such other name as the General Partner may hereafter adopt, subject to causing an amendment to the Certificate to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware in accordance with the Act. The General Partner shall send a notice of any change of name to the Limited Partners. All business of the Partnership shall be conducted under such name or under such other name as the General Partner deems appropriate.
- (b) The Partnership shall have the exclusive ownership and right to use the Partnership name so long as the Partnership continues, despite the withdrawal, expulsion, resignation or removal of any Limited Partner, but upon the Partnership's termination or at such time as there ceases to be a general partner, the Partnership shall assign the name and the goodwill attached thereto to the General Partner without payment by the assignee(s) of any consideration therefor.

In no event shall any Limited Partner (or former Limited Partner) be obligated to make any contribution to the Partnership in addition to its agreed capital contribution (or other payments provided for herein) or have any liability for the repayment or discharge of the debts and obligations of the Partnership except to the extent provided herein or as required by the Act.

2.7 Actions by Partnership

The Partnership may execute, deliver and perform all contracts, agreements and other undertakings and engage in all activities and transactions as may in the opinion of the General Partner be necessary or advisable to carry out its objects.

2.8 Reliance by Third Parties

Persons dealing with the Partnership are entitled to rely conclusively upon the power and authority of the General Partner as herein set forth.

2.9 UCC Status of Limited Partner Interests

- (a) For purposes of the grant, pledge, attachment or perfection of a security interest in an Interest or otherwise, the Interests are deemed to be “securities” within the meaning of Section 8-102(a)(15) and as provided by Section 8-103(c) of the Uniform Commercial Code as in effect from time to time in the State of Delaware or analogous provisions in the Uniform Commercial Code in effect in any other jurisdiction.
- (b) Any Interest may be evidenced by a certificate of partnership interest issued by the Partnership in such form as the General Partner may approve. Every certificate representing an Interest shall bear a legend substantially in the following form:

“For the purposes of Section 8-103 of the Uniform Commercial Code of the United States of America in effect in any relevant jurisdiction, the certificates representing an interest in the Limited Partnership constitute “securities” within the meaning of Section 8-102 and Section 8-103 of the Uniform Commercial Code.”

2.10 Series of Interests

- (a) The General Partner, at any time, may without notification to or consent of the other Limited Partners, create and offer different Series of Interests in the Partnership with such rights, obligations, liabilities, privileges, designations and preferences (including different investment strategies, underlying investments, degrees of leverage, Management Fees, Performance Allocations, brokerage commissions, transparency, withdrawal rights, co-investment opportunities, and other differences) as the General Partner may determine upon the issuance of such Series; provided that such Series would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the existing Limited Partners. The terms and rights of such Series may be set forth in a supplement to the Partnership's offering memorandum or a "side letter" or other agreement, which the General Partner may incorporate by reference.

- (b) All Interests in the Partnership held by Limited Partners (including Affiliated Investors) as of the Effective Date are hereby designated as Series A Interests.

Article III CAPITAL

3.1 Contributions to Capital

- (a) The minimum required initial capital contribution of each Limited Partner is the amount determined by the General Partner. The General Partner may change the required minimum initial contribution amount at any time with respect to any, all or less than all Limited Partners.
- (b) The Partnership may accept additional contributions at such times as the General Partner may permit, but no Limited Partner shall be obligated to make any additional capital contribution to the Partnership, subject to the provisions of Section 3.5(b) and any contrary provision of the Act. The minimum required additional capital contribution of any existing Limited Partner to the Partnership shall be the amount the General Partner may determine. The General Partner may change the required minimum additional contribution amount at any time with respect to any, all or less than all Limited Partners.
- (c) The General Partner or an Affiliate has made a capital contribution to the Partnership as set forth in the Schedule of Partners. Except as required by the Act, the General Partner is not required to make any additional capital contributions to the Partnership. The General Partner may, however, make capital contributions to the Partnership in such amounts and at such times as it may determine. The General Partner or any of its Affiliates have the right at any time to make additional capital contributions as a Limited Partner or General Partner. If the General Partner or any of its Affiliates (including their associated Persons, such as officers, directors, partners, members or employees or any of their family members) makes a capital contribution as a Limited Partner, the General Partner or the Investment Manager shall have authority to waive the Management Fee and/or Performance Allocation with respect to such Limited Partner.
- (d) Except as otherwise permitted by the General Partner (i) initial or additional capital contributions by each Partner shall be paid in one installment with cash and/or Investments having an aggregate value as set forth in the Partnership's books and records, and (ii) initial contributions are due as of the date of admission of such Person as a Limited Partner of the Partnership. Whether Investments may be accepted as a contribution to the capital of the Partnership is determined by the General Partner.

3.2 Rights of Partners in Capital

- (a) No Partner shall be entitled to interest on its capital contributions to the Partnership. For the avoidance of doubt, interest income, if any, earned on subscription amounts remitted to the Partnership prior to the date that an Interest is issued to a Partner shall be payable to the Partnership and not applied toward the purchase of an Interest.
- (b) No Partner shall have the right to the return of any capital contribution to the Partnership except (i) upon withdrawal of such Partner pursuant to Section 5.5 or (ii) upon the dissolution of the Partnership pursuant to Section 6.1. The entitlement to any such return is limited to the value of the Capital Account(s) of the Partner. The General Partner shall not be liable for the return of any such amounts.

3.3 Capital Accounts

- (a) The Partnership shall maintain a separate Capital Account for each Partner. In the event a Limited Partner invests in more than one Series of Interests, the Partnership will maintain a separate Capital Account with respect to each Series of Interests held by such Limited Partner, with each such Capital Account being treated as if it were the Capital Account of a separate Partner for purposes of computing the Performance Allocation, the Management Fee and the withdrawal rights attributable to the Series.
- (b) The General Partner may, in its discretion, maintain a separate sub-account for such purposes as the General Partner may determine appropriate, including for recordkeeping, accounting or reporting or to otherwise give effect to the provisions of this Agreement. Each Capital Account shall reflect the aggregate sum of the balances in such Partner's Capital Account.
- (c) If a Partner makes an additional capital contribution to an existing Capital Account, the Capital Account will be sub-divided into separate capital sub-accounts attributable to each separate capital contribution, with each capital sub-account treated as if it were the Capital Account of a separate Partner for purposes of determining the Management Fee, the Performance Allocation and withdrawal rights and restrictions applicable to each capital sub-account. References herein to a Partner's "Capital Account" include any such separately maintained capital sub-accounts.
- (d) The Partnership will issue to the Offshore Fund an Interest and maintain capital sub-accounts that correspond to each Sub-Series of Shares and each capital sub-account is treated separately for determining Management Fees, the Performance Allocations and withdrawal rights.

- (e) Each Capital Account has an initial balance equal to the amount of any cash and the net value of any property constituting the relevant Partner's initial capital contribution to such Capital Account.
- (f) Each Capital Account shall be increased by such Capital Account's allocable share of the Net Profits allocated by the Partnership to such Capital Account pursuant to Section 3.4.
- (g) Each Capital Account shall be reduced by (i) the amount of any cash and the net value of any property withdrawn by or distributed to the relevant Partner pursuant to Sections 5.5 or 6.3, including any amount deducted from any such withdrawal or distribution pursuant to Section 5.5(h), (ii) such Capital Account's allocable share of the Net Losses allocated by the Partnership to such Capital Account pursuant to Section 3.4, (iii) such Capital Account's pro rata portion of the expenses allocable (or specially allocable) by the Partnership pursuant to Section 3.5, (iv) such Capital Account's allocable share of the Performance Allocation allocable pursuant to Section 3.7, and (v) such Capital Account's pro rata portion of the expenses payable by the Partnership pursuant to Section 4.2(b).
- (h) The Capital Account of the Investment Manager, as a special Limited Partner of the Partnership, shall be increased by the amount of the Performance Allocation allocated to such Capital Account and the investment gains therein.
- (i) Each Capital Account shall also be adjusted to reflect all other allocations and other changes in the value of such Capital Account not otherwise described in this Section 3.3 in the manner specified in the remaining provisions of this Article III.

3.4 Allocations of Net Profit and Net Loss

Subject to Sections 3.5 through 3.10, as of the last day of each Accounting Period, any Net Profit or Net Loss of such Accounting Period shall be separately allocated among and credited to or debited against the Capital Accounts of the Partners in proportion to their respective Partnership Percentages for such Accounting Period.

3.5 Allocation of Management Fees, Withholding Taxes and Certain Other Expenditures

- (a) As of the first Business Day of each calendar quarter, each Capital Account's Management Fee for such calendar quarter shall be debited against such Capital Account and paid by the Partnership to the Investment Manager. Capital contributions accepted after the commencement of the calendar quarter shall be subject to a prorated Management Fee reflecting the time remaining during that quarter. The Investment Manager may reduce or eliminate the Management Fee with respect to any Partner (or Capital Account) in its sole discretion; provided that such reduction or elimination shall not increase the Management Fee payable by any other Partner (or Capital Account).
- (b) To the extent the General Partner or the Partnership is required by law (including under circumstances where the General Partner or the Partnership is unable to rely conclusively on any withholding certification provided by a Partner) to withhold or to make tax payments on behalf of or with respect to any Partner or Partners (including backup withholding or withholding under FATCA), the General Partner or the Partnership may withhold such amounts and make such tax payments as so required. If the Partnership pays or incurs any withholding tax or other tax obligation (including under FATCA) with respect to the income allocable or distributable to one or more Partners, then the amount of such withholding tax or tax obligation shall be treated as a distribution to such Partner or Partners, as applicable, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Such amount shall be debited against the Capital Account(s) of such Partner or Partners as of the close of the Accounting Period during which the Partnership so withholds, pays or incurs such obligation. If the amount so withheld, paid or incurred is greater than the balance of the Capital Account(s) of the relevant Partner or Partners, as applicable, then such Partner or Partners and any successors shall make a contribution to the capital of the Partnership, within 10 days following request by the General Partner, the amount of such excess. The General Partner is not obligated to apply for or obtain a reduction of or exemption from withholding tax on behalf of any Partner that may be eligible for such reduction or exemption, or be otherwise obligated to structure Investments so as to reduce or avoid any such withholding tax.

- (c) Except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement, any expenditures payable by the Partnership, to the extent determined by the General Partner to have been paid or withheld on behalf of, or by reason of particular circumstances applicable to, one or more but fewer than all of the Partners, shall be specially allocated only to the Capital Accounts of those Partners on whose behalf such payments are made or whose particular circumstances gave rise to such payments. Such allocations shall be debited from the relevant Capital Accounts of such Partners as of the close of the Accounting Period during which any such items were accrued by the Partnership.

3.6 Reserves; Adjustments for Certain Future Events

- (a) The General Partner may cause appropriate reserves to be created, accrued and charged against Net Assets and proportionately against the Capital Accounts for contingent liabilities or probable losses, such reserves to be in the amounts which the General Partner deems necessary or appropriate. The General Partner may increase or reduce any such reserve from time to time by such amounts as the General Partner deems necessary or appropriate. The amount of any such reserve, or any increase or decrease therein, may, at the election of the General Partner, be debited or credited, as the General Partner deems appropriate, to the Capital Accounts of current Partners that (i) are Partners at the time when such reserve is created, increased, or decreased, as the case may be, or (ii) were Partners, or are transferees from Persons who were Partners, at the time of the act or omission giving rise to the contingent liability for which the reserve has been established by the General Partner.

- (b) If the General Partner determines that it is equitable to treat an amount to be paid or received as being applicable to one or more prior periods, then all or a portion of such amount may be proportionately debited or credited, as appropriate, in proportion to the Capital Account balances of the current Partners as such balances existed during any such prior period.

3.7 Performance Allocation

- (a) The Performance Allocation shall be debited against each Capital Account of each Limited Partner as of the last day of each Calculation Period with respect to such Capital Account, and the amount so debited shall simultaneously be credited to the Capital Account of the Investment Manager, as a special Limited Partner of the Partnership.
- (b) The Investment Manager may waive or alter the Performance Allocation with respect to any Limited Partner.

3.8 Limited Participation Investments and New Issues

- (a) If the General Partner determines that for legal, tax, regulatory or bona fide other reasons as to which the General Partner and any Partner may agree such Partner should not participate (or should receive a reduced participation) in the Net Profit or Net Loss with respect to any Investment, the General Partner may allocate Net Profit or Net Loss, if any, with respect to such Investment only to Partners to whom the restrictions on participating in that Investment do not apply. In order to allocate Net Profit or Net Loss accordingly, the General Partner may establish and maintain a memorandum account in the accounting records of the Partnership on a Partner-by-Partner basis with respect to each such Investment. The Net Profit and Net Loss and expenses relating to such Investment will be separately calculated and allocated based on each participating Partner's balance in such memorandum account for such Investment divided by the sum of the balances of all memorandum accounts for all participating Partners. In order to compensate a Limited Partner who is not participating in an Investment pursuant to this Section 3.8 for the use of such Partner's share of Partnership capital to purchase the Investment, the General Partner may credit the non-participating Partner's Capital Account (and correspondingly debit the Capital Account of the participating Partners with a carrying charge). Any distributions from the memorandum account will be based on the participating Partner's respective percentage interest in such Investment.
- (b) Pursuant to certain rules of FINRA ("New Issue Rules"), members of FINRA are permitted to sell to the Partnership certain publicly-offered securities ("Restricted Issues") only if the Capital Accounts of Partners connected with the securities industry or executive officers or directors of investment banking clients of underwriters ("Restricted Capital Accounts") are not restricted from sharing a beneficial interest in such Restricted Issues in accordance with the provisions of the New Issue Rules. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 3.4, if the Partnership chooses to invest in Restricted Issues, the Partnership shall not allocate any items of income, gain, loss, deduction and credit that relate to investments in Restricted Issues to Restricted Capital Accounts except to the extent permitted by the New Issue Rules, and shall instead allocate such items among the other Capital Accounts on a pro rata basis. To the extent the New Issue Rules permit certain Persons with Restricted Capital Accounts to participate in profits and losses from Restricted Issues, the General Partner shall allocate such profits and losses from Restricted Issues among such Restricted Capital Accounts on a pro rata basis or on such other basis that the General Partner reasonably determines ensures compliance with the New Issue Rules. To the extent consistent with the New Issue Rules, the General Partner shall determine when all Capital Accounts may participate in the Net Profit and Net Loss from any Restricted Issue. The General Partner shall value any Restricted Issue at such time at the then-current price of the security in the secondary market.

3.9 Allocation to Avoid Capital Account Deficits

To the extent that any debits pursuant to this Article III would reduce the balance of the Capital Account of any Limited Partner below zero, that portion of any such debits shall instead be allocated to the Capital Account of the General Partner. Any credits in any subsequent Accounting Period which would otherwise be allocable pursuant to this Article III to a Capital Account of any Limited Partner previously affected by the application of this Section 3.9 shall instead be allocated to the Capital Account of the General Partner in such amounts as are necessary to offset all previous debits attributable to such Limited Partner pursuant to this Section 3.9 not previously recovered.

3.10 Regulatory Allocations

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement:

- (a) Qualified Income Offset. In the event any Limited Partner unexpectedly receives any adjustments, allocations, or distributions described in Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(5), or 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(6) of the Regulations, items of Partnership income and gain shall be specially allocated to each such Limited Partner in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate, to the extent required by the Regulations, the deficit balance in the Capital Account of such Limited Partner as quickly as possible; provided that an allocation pursuant to this Section 3.10(a) may be made only if and to the extent that such Limited Partner would have a deficit balance in its Capital Account after all other allocations provided for in this Article III have been tentatively made as if this Section 3.10(a) were not in this Agreement. This Section 3.10(a) is intended to constitute a “qualified income offset” within the meaning of Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii) of the Regulations and is to be interpreted consistently therewith.
- (b) Minimum Gain Chargeback. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 3.10, if there is a net decrease in Partnership Minimum Gain during any Fiscal Year, the Partners shall be specially allocated items of Partnership income and gain for such Fiscal Year (and, if necessary, subsequent Fiscal Years) in an amount equal to the portion of any such Partner's share of the net decrease in Partnership Minimum Gain, determined in accordance with Regulations Sections 1.704-2(f) and (g). This Section 3.10(b) is intended to comply with the minimum gain chargeback requirement in such Sections of the Regulations and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

- (c) Gross Income Allocation. In the event any Limited Partner has a deficit Capital Account at the end of any Fiscal Year that is in excess of the sum of (i) the amount such Limited Partner is obligated to restore pursuant to any provision of this Agreement and (ii) the amount such Limited Partner is deemed to be obligated to restore pursuant to the penultimate sentences of Sections 1.704-2(g)(1) and 1.704-2(i)(5) of the Regulations, each such Limited Partner shall be specially allocated items of Partnership gross income and gain in the amount of such excess as quickly as possible; provided that an allocation pursuant to this Section 3.10(c) may be made only if and to the extent that such Limited Partner would have a deficit Capital Account in excess of such sum after all other allocations provided for in this Article III have been made as if Section 3.10(a) and this Section 3.10(c) were not in this Agreement.
- (d) Curative Allocations. The allocations set forth this Section 3.10 (the "Regulatory Allocations") are intended to comply with certain requirements of the Regulations. It is the intent of the Partners that, to the extent possible, all Regulatory Allocations shall be offset either with other Regulatory Allocations or with special allocations of other items of Partnership income, gain, loss, or deduction pursuant to this Section 3.10. Therefore, notwithstanding any other provision of this Article III (other than the Regulatory Allocations), the General Partner shall make such offsetting special allocations of the Partnership income, gain, loss, or deduction in whatever manner it determines appropriate so that, after such offsetting allocations are made, each Partner's Capital Account balance is, to the extent possible, equal to the Capital Account balance such Partner would have had if the Regulatory Allocations were not part of this Partnership Agreement and all Partnership items were allocated pursuant to other provisions of this Article III (other than the Regulatory Allocations).
- (e) Nonrecourse Deductions. Any Nonrecourse Deductions for any Fiscal Year or other period shall be allocated to the Partners in accordance with their Partnership Percentages.
- (f) Section 704(b) Compliance. The allocations provided in this Section 3.10 are intended to comply with the Regulations under Section 704(b) of the Code and may, as determined by the General Partner, be interpreted and applied in a manner consistent therewith.

3.11 Allocations for Income Tax Purposes

- (a) Income Tax Allocations. Except as otherwise required by Code Section 704(c), items of income, gain, deduction, loss, or credit that are recognized for U.S. federal income tax purposes in each Fiscal Year shall be allocated among the Partners in such manner as to reflect equitably amounts credited to or debited against each Partner's Capital Account, whether in such Fiscal Year or in prior Fiscal Years. To this end, the Partnership shall establish and maintain records which shall show the extent to which the Capital Account of each Partner comprises amounts that have not been reflected in the taxable income of such Partner as of the last day of each Fiscal Year. To the extent deemed by the General Partner to be feasible and equitable, taxable income and gains in each Fiscal Year shall be allocated among the Partners who have enjoyed the related credits to their Capital Accounts, and items of deduction, loss and credit in each Fiscal Year shall be allocated among the Partners who have borne the burden of the related debits to their Capital Accounts. Foreign tax credits attributable to taxes incurred by the Partnership shall be allocated in a manner consistent with Section 1.704-1(b)(4)(viii) of the Regulations. All matters concerning allocations for U.S. federal, state and/or local income tax purposes, including accounting procedures, not expressly provided for in this Agreement shall be determined by the General Partner.

- (b) Basis Adjustments. To the extent an adjustment to the adjusted tax basis of any Partnership asset pursuant to Section 734(b) of the Code or Section 743(b) of the Code is required under Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m) of the Regulations to be taken into account in determining Capital Accounts, the amount of such adjustment to the Capital Accounts shall be treated as an item of gain (if the adjustment increases the basis of the asset) or loss (if the adjustment decreases such basis) and such gain or loss shall be specially allocated to the Partners in a manner consistent with the manner in which their Capital Accounts are required to be adjusted pursuant to such Section of the Regulations; provided that in the event that an adjustment to the book value of Partnership property is made as a result of an adjustment pursuant to Section 734(b) of the Code, items of income, gain, loss, or deduction, as computed for book and tax purposes, shall be specially allocated among the Partners so that the effect of any such adjustment shall benefit (or be borne by) the Partner(s) receiving the distribution that caused such adjustment.
- (c) Positive Basis Allocations. If the Partnership recognized gains or items of gross income (including short-term capital gain) from the sale of Partnership assets for U.S. federal income tax purposes for any Fiscal Year in which one or more Positive Basis Partners withdraws from the Partnership pursuant to Section 5.5, the General Partner may elect: (i) to allocate such gains or items of gross income among such Positive Basis Partners, pro rata in proportion to the respective Positive Basis of each such Positive Basis Partner, until either the full amount of such gains or items of gross income shall have been so allocated or the Positive Basis of each such Positive Basis Partner shall have been eliminated; and (ii) to allocate any gains or items of gross income not so allocated to Positive Basis Partners to the other Partners in such manner that reflects equitably the amounts credited to such Partners' Capital Accounts pursuant to Section 3.3; provided, however, that if, following such Fiscal Year, the Partnership recognizes gains or items of gross income from a sale of an Investment the proceeds of which are designated on the Partnership's books and records as being used to effect payment of all or part of the liquidating share of any Positive Basis Partner, that continues to be a Partner in the Partnership following such withdrawal (i.e., such Positive Basis Partner effected a partial, and not a complete, withdrawal of its Interest), then such Positive Basis Partner may be allocated an amount of such gains or items of gross income equal to the amount, if any, by which its or its Positive Basis as of the Withdrawal Date exceeds the amount allocated to such Partner pursuant to clause (i) of this Section 3.11(c).

- (d) Negative Basis Allocations. If the Partnership recognizes net losses or items of gross loss or deduction (including short-term capital loss) from the sale of Partnership assets for U.S. federal income tax purposes for any Fiscal Year in which one or more Negative Basis Partners withdraws from the Partnership pursuant to Section 5.5, the General Partner may elect: (i) to allocate such net losses or items of gross loss or deduction among such Negative Basis Partners, pro rata in proportion to the respective Negative Basis of each such Negative Basis Partner, until either the full amount of such losses or items of loss or deduction shall have been so allocated or the Negative Basis of each such Negative Basis Partner has been eliminated; and (ii) to allocate any net losses or items of gross loss or deduction not so allocated to Negative Basis Partners to the other Partners in such manner that reflects equitably the amounts credited to such Partners' Capital Accounts pursuant to Section 3.3; provided, however, that if, following such Fiscal Year, the Partnership recognizes net losses or items of gross loss and deduction from a sale of an Investment the proceeds of which are designated on the Partnership's books and records as being used to effect payment of all or part of the liquidating share of any Negative Basis Partner that continues to be a Partner in the Partnership following such withdrawal (i.e., such Negative Basis Partner effected a partial, and not a complete, withdrawal of its Interest), there may be allocated to such Negative Basis Partner an amount of such net losses or items of gross loss or deduction equal to the amount, if any, by which its or its Negative Basis as of the Withdrawal Date exceeds the amount allocated to such Partner pursuant to clause (i) of this Section 3.11(d).

3.12 Individual Partner's Tax Treatment

Each Partner agrees not to treat, on any U.S. federal, state, local and/or non-U.S. income tax return or in any claim for a refund, any item of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit in a manner inconsistent with the treatment of such item by the Partnership or which would result in inconsistent treatment, and each Partner further agrees to treat, on any U.S. federal, state, local and/or non-U.S. income tax return in any claim for a refund, any item of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit in a manner consistent with the treatment of such item by the Partnership.

3.13 Distributions

- (a) The Partnership shall make distributions in respect of withdrawals in accordance with Section 5.5 and liquidation in accordance with Section 6.3. In addition, the General Partner may make other distributions at the times and in the amounts the General Partner determines. Any distributions may be paid in cash, in kind or partly in cash and partly in kind.

- (b) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Partnership, and the General Partner on behalf of the Partnership, may not make a distribution to any Partner on any account of its Interest if such distribution would violate Section 17-607 of the Act or other applicable law.

Article IV MANAGEMENT

4.1 Duties and Powers of the General Partner

- (a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the General Partner has complete and exclusive power and responsibility, to the fullest extent permitted by the Act, for (i) all investment and investment management decisions to be undertaken on behalf of the Partnership and (ii) managing and administering the affairs of the Partnership, and shall have the power and authority to do all things that the General Partner considers necessary or desirable to carry out its duties hereunder and to achieve the purposes of the Partnership, whether or not such action or authority is expressly provided for in this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing generality, the General Partner's powers include the power to borrow, obtain leverage or otherwise incur indebtedness with respect to the Partnership's capital.
- (b) Without limiting the generality of the General Partner's duties and powers hereunder and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the General Partner has full power and authority, subject to the other terms and provisions of this Agreement, to execute, deliver and perform such contracts, agreements and other undertakings on behalf of the Partnership, without the consent or approval of any other Person, and to engage in all activities and transactions, as it may deem necessary or advisable for, or as may be incidental to, the conduct of the business contemplated by this Section 4.1.
- (c) The General Partner may delegate to any other Person, including the Investment Manager, any power and authority vested in the General Partner pursuant to this Agreement.
- (d) The General Partner is the "tax matters partner" for purposes of Section 6231(a)(7) of the Code. The General Partner has the exclusive authority in its determination to make any elections required or permitted to be made by the Partnership under any provisions of the Code or any other revenue laws. The General Partner shall be entitled to be reimbursed by the Partnership for all costs and expenses incurred by it in connection with any administrative or judicial proceeding affecting tax matters of the Partnership and/or the Partners in their capacity as such and to be indemnified by the Partnership (solely out of Partnership assets) with respect to any action brought against it in connection with any judgment in or settlement of any such proceeding.

- (e) Every power vested in the General Partner pursuant to this Agreement and any decision or determination that it is permitted to make is to be construed as a power to act (or not to act) in its sole and absolute discretion, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, and the General Partner shall be entitled to consider in making such decisions or determinations only such interests and factors as it desires, including its own interests. No provision of this Agreement is to be construed to require the General Partner to violate the Act, the Advisers Act, or any other law, regulation or rule of any self-regulatory organization. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, whenever in this Agreement, the General Partner is permitted or required to make a decision in its “good faith” or under another expressed standard, the General Partner must act under such express standard and will not be subject to any other or different standards.
- (f) Each Limited Partner shall deliver to the General Partner, upon a reasonable request, (i) an affidavit or certificate in form satisfactory to the General Partner that is sufficient to establish that the applicable Partner (and its partners, members, and/or beneficial owners, as the case may be) is not subject to withholding under the provisions of any U.S. federal, state, local, non-U.S. or other tax laws, or with respect to such Partner’s tax status under such laws, and (ii) any information or documentation prescribed under FATCA or as may be necessary, as reasonably determined by the General Partner, for the Partnership to comply with its obligations under FATCA (including, but not limited to, information with respect to citizenship, residency, ownership or control of such Partner). Each Limited Partner shall reasonably cooperate with the General Partner in connection with any tax audit of the Partnership, or any existing or former Investment.

4.2 Expenses

- (a) Except as otherwise provided herein, and in consideration of the Management Fee, the General Partner and the Investment Manager shall each pay all of its own operating and overhead costs, without reimbursement by the Partnership.
- (b) The Partnership shall pay, or reimburse the General Partner and the Investment Manager for, all other reasonable costs, fees and expenses arising in connection with the Partnership’s operations. Such expenses payable by the Partnership include the following:
  - (i) all costs, fees and expenses directly related to Investments or prospective Investments (whether or not consummated) of the Partnership, including research and due diligence costs related to an Investment; brokerage commissions and other execution and transaction costs, interest on, and commitment fees and expenses arising out of, debit balances or borrowings; exchange, clearing and settlement charges; fees and expenses of any third-party providers of “back office” and “middle office” services relating to trade settlement; travel expenses; appraisal fees; investment banking fees and expenses; borrowing charges on Investments sold short; custody fees; and fees of consultants and finders relating to Investments or prospective Investments of the Partnership; the costs, fees and expenses of any appraisers, accountants or other experts engaged by the General Partner or the Investment Manager as well as other expenses directly related to the Partnership's Investments;

- (ii) any withholding, transfer or other taxes imposed on the Partnership;
- (iii) the reasonable, out-of-pocket fees, costs and expenses (including legal fees and expenses) incurred to comply with any applicable law, rule or regulation (including regulatory filings or other expenses of the Partnership and the pro rata portion of any regulatory and other expenses of the General Partner or the Investment Manager, which benefit or are attributable to the Partnership);
- (iv) the reasonable, out-of-pocket costs, fees and expenses for financial and tax accounting, bookkeeping and reporting services, and administrative services performed by any Person on behalf of the Partnership (e.g., the administrator of the Partnership), including the cost of any audit of the Partnership's financial statements and the preparation of its tax returns (including with respect to FATCA compliance);
- (v) Management Fees;
- (vi) the reasonable, out-of-pocket costs, fees and expenses of legal counsel and any other litigation or investigation involving Partnership activities;
- (vii) specific expenses incurred in obtaining, maintaining or performing systems, research and other information, including information service subscriptions, utilized with respect to the Partnership's Investments including without limitation for portfolio management, valuations and accounting purposes, including the costs of statistics and pricing services, service contracts for quotation equipment and related hardware, software, phone and internet charges;
- (viii) the reasonable, out-of-pocket costs, fees and expenses associated with the Recent Amendments, including legal and accounting fees, printing costs, reporting and providing information to existing and prospective Partners, obtaining requisite consent from Limited Partners, travel fees and expenses related to the Partnership's offering, filing fees (including any "blue sky" filing fees) and other out-of-pocket expenses and compliance with any applicable federal and state laws;
- (ix) the costs and expenses associated with meetings of Partners;

- (x) the expenses of the Advisory Committee and the members thereof, including any indemnification expenses;
  - (xi) the costs associated with maintaining “directors and officers” or similar liability insurance for the benefit of the Partnership, the General Partner, the Investment Manager, or any other Indemnified Person; and
  - (xii) any costs or expenses of winding up and liquidating the Partnership and
  - (xiii) all costs, fees and expenses associated with the ongoing offering of Limited Partner Interests.
- (c) Expenses with respect to Section 4.2(b)(viii) above will be amortized by the Partnership over a period of 36 months from the Effective Date; however, the General Partner may limit the amount of expenses amortized so that the Partnership’s audited financial statements do not contain qualification.
- (d) Except as otherwise provided elsewhere in this Agreement, including Sections 3.4, 3.5, 3.6, 3.8 and 5.5(i), expenses are generally borne pro rata by the Partners in accordance with their respective Partnership Percentages.
- (e) If the General Partner or the Investment Manager, as appropriate, incurs any Partnership expenses for the account or for the benefit of, or in connection with its activities or those of its Affiliates on behalf of, both the Partnership and any Other Account, the General Partner or the Investment Manager, as appropriate, shall allocate such expense among the Partnership and each such Other Account in proportion to the size of the Investment made by each in the activity or entity to which the expense relates, or in such other manner as the General Partner considers fair and reasonable.
- (f) The General Partner and the Investment Manager may, to the extent disclosed in the Partnership’s offering memorandum or otherwise disclosed to the Limited Partners, use “soft dollars” generated by the Partnership. Use of “soft dollars” by the General Partner or the Investment Manager as disclosed herein shall not constitute a breach by either the General Partner or the Investment Manager of any fiduciary or other duty which the General Partner or the Investment Manager may be deemed to owe to the Partnership or its Partners.

4.3 Rights of Limited Partners

The Limited Partners may not take any part in the management, control or operation of the Partnership’s business, and have no right or authority to act for the Partnership or to vote on matters other than the matters set forth in this Agreement or as required by applicable law.

4.4 Other Activities of Partners

- (a) The General Partner is not required to devote any specific amount of its time to the affairs of the Partnership, but shall devote such of its time to the business and affairs of the Partnership as it may determine to be necessary to conduct the affairs of the Partnership for the benefit of the Partnership and the Partners.

- (b) Each Partner acknowledges and agrees that the General Partner, its Affiliates and their respective partners, managers, directors, officers, shareholders, members or employees may engage in or possess an interest in other business ventures or commercial dealings of every kind and description, independently or with others, including, but not limited to, management of other accounts, investment in, or financing, acquisition and disposition of, Investments, investment and management counseling, brokerage services, serving as directors, officers, advisers or agents of other issuers, partners of any partnership, or trustee of any trust, or entering into any other commercial arrangements, whether or not any such activities may conflict with any interest of the parties with respect to the Partnership. Without in any way limiting the foregoing, each Partner hereby acknowledges that none of the General Partner, its Affiliates or their respective partners, managers, directors, officers, shareholders, members or employees shall have any obligation or responsibility to disclose or refer any of the investment or other opportunities obtained through activities contemplated by this Section 4.4(b) to the Partnership, but may refer the same to any other party or keep such opportunities for their own benefit.
- (c) The General Partner and its Affiliates shall act in a manner that each considers fair, reasonable and equitable on an overall basis in allocating investment opportunities to the Partnership and any Other Account. The General Partner and its Affiliates shall allocate investment opportunities as set forth in their policies and procedures, as may be amended from time to time, and as communicated to Limited Partners through the Partnership's private offering memorandum for Interests or otherwise.
- (d) Each of the Partners hereby waives and covenants not to sue on the basis of any law (statutory, common law or otherwise) respecting the rights and obligations of the Partners inter se which is or may be inconsistent with this Section 4.4.

4.5 Exculpation; Indemnification

- (a) The General Partner, the Investment Manager, any of their Affiliates, each direct or indirect member, manager, partner, director, officer, shareholder and employee of any of the foregoing and, with the approval of the General Partner, any agent of any of the foregoing (including their respective executors, heirs, assigns, successors or other legal representatives) (each an "Indemnified Person") shall not be liable to the Partnership or to any of the Limited Partners for any loss or damage occasioned by any acts or omissions in the performance of services under this Agreement or the Investment Management Agreement, or otherwise in connection with the Partnership, its Investments or operations, unless such loss or damage has occurred by reason of the willful misconduct, fraud or gross negligence of such Indemnified Person or as otherwise required by law; provided that nothing in this Agreement is to be construed as waiving any legal rights or remedies which the Partnership may have under state or federal securities laws.

- (b) The Partnership (but not the Partners individually) shall indemnify each Indemnified Person to the fullest extent permitted by law against any cost, expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgment or liability incurred by or imposed upon it in connection with any action, suit or proceeding (including any proceeding before any judicial, administrative or legislative body or agency) to which it may be made a party or otherwise be involved or with which it shall be threatened by reason of being or having been General Partner, having been the Investment Manager pursuant to the Investment Management Agreement or its having provided services to the Partnership; provided that the Indemnified Person is not so indemnified to the extent such cost, expense, judgment or liability has been finally determined (i) in a non-appealable decision on the merits in any such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) on a plea of nolo contendere, to have been incurred or suffered by the Indemnified Person solely by reason of willful misconduct, fraud or gross negligence by the Indemnified Person.
- (i) The right to indemnification granted by this Section 4.5 shall be in addition to any rights to which the Indemnified Person may otherwise be entitled and shall inure to the benefit of the successors or assigns of such Indemnified Person. The Partnership shall pay the expenses incurred by the Indemnified Person in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by the Indemnified Person to repay such payment if there is an adjudication or determination that it is not entitled to indemnification as provided herein; provided that no such advance shall be made in connection with any action brought by a Majority-in-Interest of the Limited Partners.
- (ii) In any suit in the name of the Partnership to recover expenses advanced pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Partnership shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that the Indemnified Person or other Person claiming a right to indemnification hereunder has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 4.5(a). In any such suit brought to enforce a right to indemnification or to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the Indemnified Person or other Person claiming a right to indemnification shall not be entitled to be indemnified, or to an advancement of expenses, hereunder shall be on the Partnership (or any Limited Partner acting derivatively or otherwise on behalf of the Partnership or the Limited Partners) unless otherwise required by applicable law.
- (iii) Each Indemnified Person may not satisfy any right of indemnity or reimbursement granted in this Section 4.5 or to which it may be otherwise entitled except out of the assets of the Partnership, and no Partner shall be personally liable with respect to any such claim for indemnity or reimbursement. The General Partner may obtain appropriate insurance on behalf, and at the expense, of the Partnership to secure the Partnership's obligations hereunder.

- (iv) Nothing in this Agreement is to be construed as to provide for the indemnification of an Indemnified Person for any liability (including liability under U.S. federal securities laws) to the extent that such indemnification would be in violation of applicable law but is to be construed so as to effectuate this Section 4.5 to the fullest extent permitted by law.
- (v) Each Indemnified Person shall be deemed a third-party beneficiary (to the extent not a direct party hereto) of this Agreement and, in particular, the provisions of this Section 4.5. The General Partner and/or the Investment Manager may enter into agreements on behalf of the Partnership with an Indemnified Person to provide an indemnity to the same extent provided in this Section 4.5.

4.6 Advisory Committee

- (a) The General Partner and/or the Investment Manager may appoint a committee (the “Advisory Committee”) composed of one or more individuals selected from time to time by the General Partner. No member of the Advisory Committee may be an Affiliate of the General Partner and/or the Investment Manager (except as a Limited Partner or as an investor in an Affiliate of the Partnership).
- (b) If established, the Advisory Committee will meet with the General Partner and/or the Investment Manager from time to time as requested by and deemed appropriate by the General Partner and/or the Investment Manager to consult with and advise the General Partner and/or the Investment Manager on any matter deemed appropriate by the General Partner and/or the Investment Manager, including any circumstances involving conflicts of interest between the General Partner and/or the Investment Manager (and their Affiliates), on the one hand, and the Limited Partners and the Partnership, on the other.
- (c) The General Partner and/or the Investment Manager may in its discretion seek the approval of the Advisory Committee or establish any other reasonable mechanism in connection with (i) approvals that are or would be required under the Investment Advisers Act (including Section 206(3)) or (ii) any other matter deemed appropriate by the General Partner and/or the Investment Manager. Each Limited Partner agrees that, except as otherwise specifically provided herein and to the extent permitted by applicable law, the approval of a majority of the members of the Advisory Committee at such time is binding upon the Partnership and each Partner with respect to any approval sought under this Section 4.6(c).
- (d) As determined by the General Partner and/or the Investment Manager, meetings of the Advisory Committee may be held in person or by telephone. Approval of the Advisory Committee is deemed to have been given if given by a majority of those members present at a meeting or by a majority of all members of the Advisory Committee if given pursuant to a written consent without a meeting.

- (e) The Partnership agrees to reimburse members of the Advisory Committee for their out-of-pocket expenses relating to their services as Advisory Committee members and to indemnify each Advisory Committee member to the maximum extent permitted by law
- (f) In the event an Advisory Committee is not appointed, the General Partner and/or the Investment Manager may obtain the approval of an unaffiliated third party, as is determined advisable by the General Partner and/or the Investment Manager, and any such approval by such third party shall, to the extent permitted under applicable law, serve as the approval of the Advisory Committee and shall be binding on the Partnership and the Limited Partners.

4.7 Alternative Investment Vehicles

The General Partner shall have the right in connection with any Investment to direct the capital contributions of some or all of the Partners to be made through one or more alternative investment vehicles (“Alternative Investment Vehicles”) and to exchange a portion of the Interests of one or more Limited Partners for similar equity interests in one or more Alternative Investment Vehicles if, in the judgment of the General Partner, the use of such vehicle or vehicles would allow the Partnership to overcome legal or regulatory constraints or invest in a more tax efficient manner and/or would facilitate participation in certain types of Investments; provided that the General Partner shall not employ the use of an Alternative Investment Vehicle in any manner that would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the participating Limited Partners. Any Alternative Investment Vehicle shall contain terms and conditions substantially similar to those of the Partnership and shall be managed by the General Partner or an Affiliate thereof, and such controlling Person is required to comply with the provisions of this Agreement applicable to Alternative Investment Vehicles. Expenses related to an Alternative Investment Vehicle on behalf of less than all of the Partners shall not be borne by the Partners that do not participate in such Alternative Investment Vehicle.

Article V ADMISSIONS, TRANSFERS AND WITHDRAWALS

5.1 Admission of Limited Partners

The General Partner may, at such times as the General Partner may determine, without advance notice to or consent from the Limited Partners, admit to the Partnership any Person who executes this Agreement or any other writing evidencing the intent of such Person to become a Limited Partner. Such admission shall be effective when the General Partner enters the name of such Person on the books and records of the Partnership as a Partner and does not require the consent or approval of any other Partner. The General Partner has the authority to reject subscriptions for Interests in whole or in part.

5.2 Admission of Additional General Partners

- (a) Except as provided in Section 5.2(b), the General Partner may admit one or more Persons as additional general partners to the Partnership. No additional general partner shall be added unless such additional general partner agrees to be bound by all of the terms of this Agreement.

- (b) Any Person to whom the General Partner has transferred its general partner interest in accordance with Section 5.4 shall be admitted to the Partnership as a substitute General Partner without the consent of the Limited Partners unless otherwise provided for in Section 5.4.

5.3 Transfer of Interests of Limited Partners

- (a) No Transfer of any Limited Partner's Interest, whether voluntary or involuntary, shall be valid or effective, and no transferee may become a substituted Limited Partner, unless the prior written consent of the General Partner has been obtained, which consent may be granted, withheld or conditioned for any reason by the General Partner. Any attempted Transfer not made in accordance with this Section 5.3, to the fullest extent permitted by law, shall be void ab initio.
- (b) Prior to recognizing any Transfer in accordance with this Section 5.3, the General Partner may require the transferring Limited Partner to execute and acknowledge an instrument of Transfer in form and substance satisfactory to the General Partner, and may require the transferee to make certain representations and warranties to the Partnership and Partners and to accept, adopt and approve in writing all of the terms and provisions of this Agreement.
- (c) In the event of a Transfer of a Partner's Interest or in the event of a distribution of assets of the Partnership to any Partner, the Partnership may, but shall not be required to, file an election under Section 754 of the Code and in accordance with the applicable Regulations, to cause the basis of the Partnership's assets to be adjusted for U.S. federal income tax purposes as provided by Section 734 or 743 of the Code.
- (d) In the event of a Transfer at any time other than the end of a Fiscal Year, items of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit recognized by the Partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes shall be allocated between the transferring parties, as determined by the General Partner, using any permissible method under Code Section 706(d) and the Regulations thereunder. To the extent the transferring parties have given the General Partner written notice prior to the consent by the General Partner pursuant to Section 5.3(a) of their agreement to apply a particular and reasonable method, then the General Partner may elect to use such method. The transferring parties agree to reimburse the General Partner and the Partnership for any incidental accounting fees and other expenses incurred by the General Partner and the Partnership in making allocations pursuant to this Section 5.3(d).

5.4 Transfer of Interest of the General Partner

The General Partner may Transfer its Interest as a General Partner in the Partnership; provided that if any such proposed Transfer would result in an "assignment" (as such term is defined under the Advisers Act), the General Partner shall obtain the consent of Limited Partners constituting a Majority-in-Interest of Limited Partners that are not Affiliated Investors.

5.5 Withdrawal of Interests of Partners

- (a) The Interest of a Limited Partner may not be withdrawn from the Partnership prior to its dissolution except as provided in this Section 5.5.
- (b) Withdrawal rights are determined separately with respect to each Capital Account (and each capital sub-account, if applicable). Each capital contribution shall be accounted for using a separate capital sub-account, and, in the case of a Limited Partner for which more than one capital sub-account is maintained, the withdrawals from any such capital sub-accounts shall be processed on a “first-in, first-out” basis based upon the date on which each capital contribution was made, unless otherwise agreed between the General Partner and such Partner. Each capital sub-account relating to a contribution of capital from a Limited Partner will be treated as if it were the separate Capital Account of a separate Partner for the purposes of applying the withdrawal provisions of this Section 5.5.
- (c) Subject to a Suspension and the other provisions of this Section 5.5:
  - (i) A Limited Partner may make a complete or partial withdrawal from its Series A Capital Account effective on the last Business Day of each calendar quarter occurring at least 36 calendar months after the contribution of the capital to be withdrawn (each, a “Series A Withdrawal Date”) by providing written notice to the General Partner at least 90 days prior to the proposed Series A Withdrawal Date (such restriction, the “Series A Lock-Up”). For purposes of calculating the Series A Lock-Up, each Limited Partner holding Series A Interests on of the Effective Date is deemed to have made its initial contribution for Series A Interests as of the Effective Date. Additional contributions for Series A Interests after the Effective Date will also be subject to the Series A Lock-Up, which lock-up period shall commence on the date of each such additional contribution.
  - (ii) A Limited Partner may make a complete or partial withdrawal from its Series B Capital Account upon written notice to the General Partner at least 180 days prior to the applicable Series B Withdrawal Date. The “Series B Withdrawal Date” means: (i) the end of the day on the last Business Day of the calendar month that immediately precedes the one-year anniversary of the contribution of the capital to be withdrawn; and thereafter (ii) the end of the day on each one-year anniversary of the preceding Series B Withdrawal Date (or the last Business Day of such month).
  - (iii) A Limited Partner may make a complete or partial withdrawal from its Series C Capital Account upon written notice to the General Partner at least 180 days prior to the applicable Series C Withdrawal Date. The “Series C Withdrawal Date” means: (i) the end of the day on the last Business Day of the calendar month that immediately precedes the two-year anniversary of the contribution of the capital to be withdrawn; and thereafter (ii) the end of the day on each two-year anniversary of the preceding Series C Withdrawal Date (or the last Business Day of such month).

- (iv) A Limited Partner may make a complete or partial withdrawal from its Series D Capital Account effective on the last Business Day of each calendar quarter (each, a “Series D Withdrawal Date”) occurring at least 12 calendar months after the contribution of the capital to be withdrawn by providing written notice to the General Partner at least 90 days prior to the proposed Series D Withdrawal Date.
- (d) Any notice of withdrawal shall be irrevocable by the Limited Partner, unless otherwise agreed by the General Partner. For the avoidance of doubt, if a Limited Partner notifies the General Partner of its intent to withdraw and later chooses not to withdraw (with the General Partner’s consent), any transaction costs incurred by the Partnership or the General Partner in connection therewith may be charged to such withdrawing Limited Partner. The General Partner may refuse to honor any Limited Partner’s request for a full or partial withdrawal if such request is not accompanied by such additional information as the General Partner may reasonably require, including any information required to determine the “adjusted basis” for U.S. federal income tax purposes in the Limited Partner’s Interest withdrawn.
- (e) With respect to any amounts withdrawn, a withdrawing Partner shall not share in the income, gains and losses of the Partnership or have any other rights as a Partner (in the case of a complete withdrawal) after the applicable Withdrawal Date, and withdrawn amounts will be fixed as of the applicable Withdrawal Date, except as provided in Section 3.6. For the avoidance of doubt, none of the Partnership, the General Partner or the Investment Manager shall be liable to a Limited Partner for interest on the proceeds of any withdrawal.
- (f) At least 90% of the estimated amount due with respect to the Partnership’s marketable investments is normally settled in cash or, subject to the sole discretion of the General Partner, wholly or partially with securities or other assets of the Partnership, within 30 Business Days after the Withdrawal Date, provided that the General Partner may delay such payment if such delay is reasonably necessary to prevent such withdrawal from having a material adverse impact on the Partnership or the remaining Capital Accounts. The General Partner is entitled to deduct from such settlement payment an amount equal to the pro rata portion of any Performance Allocation (based on the portion of the withdrawal being settled) payable to the Investment Manager with respect to such withdrawn amount. Any balance will be held back and distributed, without interest thereon, promptly following completion of the audit of the Partnership’s financial statements for such Fiscal Year, or sooner in the General Partner’s discretion.
- (g) In the case of a complete withdrawal, or a partial withdrawal that cannot be fully funded out of the Limited Partner’s interest in the Partnership’s marketable investments, no settlements occur with respect to any of such Limited Partner's interest in the Partnership's non-marketable investments until the occurrence of liquidity events with respect to such non-marketable investments after the scheduled payment date for the withdrawal (without interest thereon). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the General Partner may, however, make settlements in such cases prior to the occurrence of a liquidity event if such settlement would, in the good faith opinion of the General Partner, not have a material adverse effect on the Partnership. Generally, a liquidity event will be a sale of the relevant investment for cash, in which case the settlement will be funded in cash within 90 days after the liquidity event (without interest). If the liquidity event is not a sale for cash, the General Partner may effect the settlement either by making a distribution in kind of the Limited Partner's ratable share of the relevant investment or by distributing the net proceeds derived from a sale of such investment. The General Partner is entitled to withdraw from each such settlement an amount equal to the remaining portion of any Performance Allocation (pro rata based on the portion of such withdrawal being distributed) to be credited to the Investment Manager at the same time and in the same form (in cash or in kind) as the distribution to the withdrawing Limited Partner.

- (h) The General Partner may effect withdrawal payments (i) in cash, (ii) in kind, by transfer of marketable or non-marketable Investments to the Limited Partner, the value of which, as determined in accordance with Section 7.2, would satisfy the Limited Partner's request for withdrawal, or (iii) in any combination of the foregoing.
- (i) The General Partner may deduct from any withdrawal proceeds due to any Limited Partner pursuant to this Section 5.5 an amount representing the Partnership's actual or estimated expenses, as determined by the General Partner, associated with processing the withdrawal. Any such withdrawal deduction shall be retained by the Partnership for the benefit of the remaining Limited Partners.
- (j) The right of any Partner to withdraw or receive distributions pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5.5 is subject to all Capital Account allocations and adjustments contemplated by this Agreement and to the provision by the General Partner for all Partnership liabilities and for reserves and holdbacks for contingencies provided in Section 3.6.
- (k) The General Partner may suspend or limit, in whole or in part, (i) the right of the Partners to withdraw or receive distributions from the Partnership and/or (ii) the valuation of the Partnership's Net Assets:
  - (i) during any period when any exchange or over-the-counter market on which the Partnership's Investments are quoted, traded or dealt in is closed, other than for ordinary holidays and weekends, or during periods in which dealings are restricted or suspended;

- (ii) during the existence of any state of affairs as a result of which, in the reasonable opinion of the General Partner, disposal of, or withdrawals or redemptions from, Investments by the Partnership, or the determination of the value of the assets of the Partnership, would not be reasonably practicable;
  - (iii) during any breakdown in the means of communication normally employed in determining the price or value of the Partnership's assets or liabilities, or of current prices in any market as aforesaid, or when for any other reason the prices or values of any assets or liabilities of the Partnership cannot reasonably be accurately ascertained within a reasonable time frame;
  - (iv) during any period when the transfer of funds involved in the realization or acquisition of any Investments cannot, in the reasonable opinion of the General Partner, be effected at normal rates of exchange;
  - (v) in other circumstances where the General Partner is unable to fairly value the Partnership's assets due to extreme market conditions; or
  - (vi) automatically upon liquidation of the Partnership.
- (l) In the event of any such suspension or limitation described above in Section 5.5(k) (a "Suspension"), the General Partner shall promptly notify each Limited Partner. Any Limited Partner who has submitted a withdrawal request and to whom payment in full of the amount being withdrawn has not yet been remitted is not given any priority with respect to the withdrawal of such Interests or portions thereof after the cause for such Suspension ceases to exist. The General Partner may, however, allow any such Partners to rescind their withdrawal requests to the extent of any portion thereof for which withdrawal proceeds have not yet been remitted. Upon the reasonable determination by the General Partner that conditions leading to Suspension no longer apply, withdrawal rights for all Limited Partners shall be promptly reinstated, and any pending withdrawal requests (or new, timely withdrawal requests) shall be honored as of the last Business Day of the calendar quarter in which withdrawals have recommenced, subject to the application of the withdrawal limitations described herein.
- (m) The General Partner may, notwithstanding any Suspension, upon not less than five days' prior written notice (or immediately if the General Partner determines in its sole discretion that such Limited Partner's continued participation in the Partnership may cause the Partnership, the Investment Manager or the General Partner to violate any applicable law), require any Limited Partner's Interest to be withdrawn in part or in its entirety from the Partnership (including, but not limited to, for reasons relating to FATCA) and for the Limited Partner to cease to be a Limited Partner of the Partnership (in the case of a withdrawal of a Limited Partner's Interest in its entirety) pursuant to this Section 5.5(m). Except as otherwise provided herein, settlements of withdrawals pursuant to this Section 5.5(m) are made in the same manner as voluntary withdrawals.

- (n) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the General Partner may waive any restrictions on any Limited Partner's ability to withdraw.

Article VI
SOFT WIND DOWN, DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION

6.1 Soft Wind Down

- (a) The General Partner may, in consultation with the Investment Manager, make a determination that the investment strategy should no longer be continued (whether or not the General Partner has implemented a Suspension). Having made such determination, the Investment Manager may recommend to the General Partner to cause the Partnership to return the Partnership's assets to Limited Partners in an orderly manner (without proceeding with a liquidation of the Partnership) (an "Orderly Realization"). The General Partner may, in such circumstances, resolve to effect an Orderly Realization should it determine that doing so is in the best interests of the Partnership as a whole. Such Orderly Realization shall not constitute a dissolution or winding up of the Partnership for any purposes, but rather only the continued management of the Partnership's portfolio so as to reduce such portfolio to cash (to the extent reasonably practicable, as advised by the Investment Manager) and return such cash as well as all other assets of the Partnership to the Limited Partners.
- (b) The General Partner will notify the Limited Partners of any decision to proceed with an Orderly Realization of the Partnership. During an Orderly Realization, the Investment Manager may, in consultation with the General Partner, take such steps as are considered appropriate in the best interests of the Partnership as a whole to effect the Orderly Realization. The General Partner, in consultation with the Investment Manager, shall establish what they consider to be a reasonable time by which the Orderly Realization should be effected (the "Realization Period"). Any resolution to undertake an Orderly Realization and the process thereof shall be deemed to be integral to the business of the Partnership and may be carried out without recourse to a formal process of liquidation under Delaware law or any other applicable bankruptcy or insolvency regime.
- (c) The General Partner, in consultation with the Investment Manager, may resolve to cease the Orderly Realization within the Realization Period and recommence active trading if the circumstances permit a lifting of any applicable Suspension or, where no Suspension is in effect, if the circumstances are such that the investment strategy can then be continued.
- (d) Management Fees, and all other fees and expenses, shall be payable and Performance Allocations shall be made during an Orderly Realization on the same basis as provided herein.

6.2 Dissolution of Partnership

- (a) The Partnership shall be dissolved upon the first to occur of the following dates:
  - (i) any date on which the General Partner shall elect in writing to dissolve the Partnership; or
  - (ii) the occurrence of any other event causing (A) the General Partner (or a successor to its business) to cease to be the general partner of the Partnership or (B) the dissolution of the Partnership under the Act.
- (b) In the event an Orderly Realization lasts longer than three years, a Super-Majority-in-Interest of the Limited Partners may seek a court decree of dissolution or seek the appointment by the court of a liquidator for the Partnership. The Limited Partners will not have any other right to bring an action in court to dissolve the Partnership. The parties agree that irreparable damage would be done to the goodwill and reputation of the Partners if any Limited Partner should bring an action in court to dissolve the Partnership. Care has been taken in this Agreement to provide for fair and just payment in liquidation of the Interests of all Partners. Accordingly, each Limited Partner hereby waives and renounces its right to such a court decree of dissolution or to seek the appointment by the court of a liquidator for the Partnership except as provided herein.

6.3 Liquidation of Assets

- (a) Upon dissolution of the Partnership, the General Partner shall promptly liquidate the business and administrative affairs of the Partnership to the extent feasible, except that if the General Partner is unable to perform this function, a liquidator elected by a Majority-in-Interest of Limited Partners shall liquidate the business and administrative affairs of the Partnership. Net Profit and Net Loss during any Accounting Period, which includes the period of liquidation, shall be allocated pursuant to Article III. The proceeds from liquidation shall be divided in the following manner, subject to the Act:
  - (i) the debts, liabilities and obligations of the Partnership, other than any debts to the Partners as Partners, and the expenses of liquidation (including legal, administrative and accounting expenses incurred in connection therewith), up to and including the date that distribution of the Partnership's assets to the Partners has been completed, shall first be satisfied (whether by payment or the making of reasonable provision for payment thereof);
  - (ii) such debts as are owing to the Partners as Partners are next paid; and
  - (iii) the Partners shall next be paid liquidating distributions (in cash or in securities or other assets, whether or not readily marketable) pro rata in accordance with, and up to the positive balances of their respective Capital Accounts, as adjusted pursuant to Article III to reflect allocations for the Accounting Period ending on the date of the distributions under this Section 6.1(a)(iii).

- (b) Notwithstanding this Section 6.3 and the priorities set forth in the Act, the General Partner or liquidator may distribute ratably in kind rather than in cash, upon dissolution, any assets of the Partnership; provided, however, that if any in kind distribution is to be made, (i) the assets distributed in kind shall be valued pursuant to Section 7.2, and charged as so valued and distributed against amounts to be paid under Section 6.3(a) and (ii) any gain or loss (as computed for book purposes) attributable to property distributed in kind shall be included in the Net Profit or Net Loss for the Accounting Period ending on the date of such distribution.

Article VII

ACCOUNTING AND VALUATION; BOOKS AND RECORDS

7.1 Accounting and Reports

- (a) The Partnership may adopt for tax accounting purposes any accounting method that the General Partner shall decide is in the best interests of the Partnership and that is permissible for U.S. federal income tax purposes.
- (b) As soon as practicable after the end of each Fiscal Year thereafter, the General Partner shall cause an audit of the financial statements of the Partnership as of the end of each such period to be made by a firm of independent accountants selected by the General Partner. As soon as is practicable thereafter, but subject to Section 7.4, the General Partner shall furnish to each Limited Partner a copy of the set of financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP, with such adjustments thereto as the General Partner determines appropriate, including the report of such independent accountants.
- (c) As soon as practicable after the end of each taxable year, the General Partner shall furnish to each Limited Partner such information as may be required to enable each Limited Partner properly to report for U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes its distributive share of each Partnership item of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit for such year. The General Partner shall have discretion as to how to report Partnership items of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit on the Partnership's tax returns, and the Limited Partners shall treat such items consistently on their own tax returns.
- (d) As soon as practicable after the end of each calendar month, but subject to Section 7.5, the General Partner shall arrange for the preparation and delivery to each Limited Partner of an interim report containing such information concerning the affairs of the Partnership (which need not include any financial statements) as the General Partner considers appropriate.

7.2 Valuation of Partnership Assets and Interests

- (a) The General Partner (or its delegate, including the Investment Manager or the administrator of the Partnership) shall value the assets of the Partnership as of the close of business on the last day of each Accounting Period. Such valuations will generally be in accordance with GAAP, with such adjustments thereto as the General Partner reasonably determines appropriate. In addition, the General Partner shall value the assets which are being distributed in kind as of the close of the Business Day immediately preceding the distribution date in accordance with Section 5.5(c) or Section 6.3(b). In determining the value of the assets of the Partnership, no value shall be placed on the goodwill or name of the Partnership, or the office records, files, statistical data or any similar intangible assets of the Partnership not normally reflected in the Partnership's accounting records, but there shall be taken into consideration any related items of income earned but not received, expenses incurred but not yet paid, liabilities fixed or contingent, prepaid expenses to the extent not otherwise reflected in the books of account, and the value of options or commitments to purchase or sell securities pursuant to agreements entered into on or prior to such valuation date.
- (b) To the extent readily available, valuations will be based on independent market quotations obtained by the General Partner from recognized pricing services, market participants or other sources. In the case of any Investment for which a quotation from an independent source is not available or is determined by the General Partner to be unreliable or inadequate, the General Partner (i) shall be authorized, to the extent permitted by applicable law, to value such positions at their fair value in such manner as the General Partner determines in good faith, or (ii) may (but shall not be required to) obtain an appraisal, at the expense of the Partnership, by an independent third party selected by the General Partner. Except as otherwise determined by or at the direction of the General Partner, investment and trading transactions shall be accounted for on the trade date.
- (c) Accounts shall be maintained in U.S. dollars, and except as otherwise determined by or at the direction of the General Partner: (i) assets and liabilities denominated in currencies other than U.S. dollars shall be translated at the rates of exchange quoted by an independent pricing service as in effect as of the close of business on the relevant valuation dates (and exchange adjustments shall be recorded in the results of operations); and (ii) investment and trading transactions and income and expenses shall be translated at the rates of exchange in effect at the time of each transaction.

7.3 Determinations by the General Partner

- (a) All matters concerning the determination and allocation among the Partners of the amounts to be determined and allocated pursuant to this Agreement, including Article III and accounting procedures applicable thereto, shall be determined by the General Partner, unless specifically and expressly otherwise provided for by the provisions of this Agreement, and such determinations and allocations shall be final and binding on all the Partners; provided, however, that all calculations of the Performance Allocation will be made on the basis of, or subject to correction based on, the annual audit of the Partnership's financial statements and appropriate adjustments will be made to all such calculations and related allocations to the extent necessary as a result of that audit.

- (b) The General Partner may make such adjustments to the computation of Net Profit or Net Loss or any other allocations with respect to any Limited Partner, or any component items comprising any of the foregoing, as it considers appropriate to reflect the financial results of the Partnership and the intended allocation thereof among the Partners in a reasonably accurate, fair and efficient manner. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any provision of this Agreement that requires an adjustment to be made to any Capital Account or sub-account as of any mid-month or mid-quarter date may be made as of the most recent preceding or succeeding date when a regular valuation is being conducted.

7.4 Books and Records

- (a) The General Partner shall keep books and records pertaining to the Partnership's affairs showing all of its assets and liabilities, receipts and disbursements, realized income, gains, deductions and losses, Partners' Capital Accounts and all transactions entered into by the Partnership. The General Partner shall afford to the Partnership's independent auditors reasonable access to such documents during customary business hours and shall permit the Partnership's auditors to make copies thereof or extracts therefrom at the expense of the Partnership.
- (b) The General Partner shall establish such standards as it deems appropriate regarding the access of Limited Partners to the books and records of the Partnership and shall not be obliged to permit access by a Limited Partner to the name or address of any other Limited Partner.

7.5 Confidentiality

- (a) Each Limited Partner agrees to keep confidential, and not to make any use of (other than for purposes reasonably related to its Interest or for purposes of filing such Limited Partner's tax returns) or disclose to any Person, any information or matter relating to the Partnership and its affairs and any information or matter related to any Investment (other than disclosure to such Limited Partner's directors, employees, agents, advisors, or representatives responsible for matters relating to the Partnership or to any other Person approved in writing by the General Partner (each such Person being hereinafter referred to as an "Authorized Representative")); provided that (i) such Limited Partner and its Authorized Representatives may make such disclosure to the extent that (A) the information to be disclosed is publicly available at the time of proposed disclosure by such Limited Partner or Authorized Representative, (B) the information otherwise is or becomes legally available to such Limited Partner other than through disclosure by the Partnership or the General Partner, or (C) such disclosure is required by law or in response to any governmental agency request or in connection with an examination by any regulatory authorities; provided that such governmental agency, regulatory authorities or association is aware of the confidential nature of the information disclosed; (ii) such Limited Partner and its Authorized Representatives may make such disclosure to its beneficial owners to the extent required under the terms of its arrangements with such beneficial owners; and (iii) each Limited Partner will be permitted, after written notice to the General Partner, to correct any false or misleading information which becomes public concerning such Limited Partner's relationship to the Partnership or the General Partner. Prior to making any disclosure required by law, each Limited Partner shall use its best efforts to notify the General Partner of such disclosure. Prior to any disclosure to any Authorized Representative or beneficial owner, each Limited Partner shall advise such Authorized Representative or beneficial owner of the obligations set forth in this Section 7.5(a) and each such Authorized Representative or beneficial owner shall agree to be bound by such obligations.

- (b) The General Partner may keep confidential from the Limited Partners, for such period of time as the General Partner deems reasonable, any information, including the identity of the Partners or information regarding the Partners or Investments, which the General Partner reasonably believes to be in the nature of trade secrets or other information the disclosure of which the General Partner believes is not in the best interests of the Partnership or could damage the Partnership or its business or which the Partnership is required by law or agreement with a third party to keep confidential.
- (c) Subject to applicable legal and regulatory considerations, the General Partner shall use reasonable efforts to keep confidential any information relating to a Limited Partner obtained by the General Partner in connection with or arising out of the Partnership which the Limited Partner requests to be kept confidential.
- (d) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 7.5, Partners (and their employees, representatives and other agents) may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the Partnership and its transactions and all materials of any kind (including tax opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to such Person by, or on behalf of the Partnership. For this purpose, "tax treatment" is the purported or claimed U.S. federal income tax treatment of a transaction and "tax structure" is limited to any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. federal income tax treatment of a transaction. For this purpose, the names of the Partnership, the Partners, their affiliates, the names of their partners, members or equity holders and the representatives, agents and tax advisors of any of the foregoing are not items of tax structure.
- (e) The General Partner may disclose to prospective investors such information relating to the Partnership or the Investments as it believes in good faith will benefit the Partnership and facilitate investment in the Partnership by such prospective investors.

- (f) The Investment Manager and a Person acting as a service provider to the Partnership shall have the right to access all information belonging to the Partnership.

Article VIII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

8.1 Amendment of Partnership Agreement

- (a) Except as otherwise provided in this Section 8.1, this Agreement may be amended, in whole or in part, with the written consent of (i) the General Partner and (ii) the consent of a Majority-in-Interest of Limited Partners (which approval may be obtained by negative consent affording the Limited Partners at least 30 calendar days to object).
- (b) Any amendment that would:
  - (i) increase the obligation of a Partner to make any contribution to the capital of the Partnership;
  - (ii) reduce the Capital Account of a Partner other than in accordance with Article III;
  - (iii) adversely alter any Partner's rights with respect to the allocation of Net Profit or Net Loss or with respect to distributions and withdrawals; or
  - (iv) change the respective liabilities of the General Partner and the Limited Partners; may only be made if the consent of each Partner adversely affected thereby is obtained (which consent may be obtained by negative consent affording the Partner at least 30 calendar days to object).

- (c) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Section 8.1, this Agreement may be amended by the General Partner without the consent of the Limited Partners, at any time and without limitation, if any Limited Partner whose contractual rights as a Limited Partner would be materially and adversely changed by such amendment has an opportunity to withdraw from the Partnership as of a date determined by the General Partner that is not less than 30 calendar days after the General Partner has furnished written notice of such amendment to each affected Limited Partner and that is prior to the effective date of the amendment. The admission and withdrawal of Limited Partners will not require notice or disclosure to, or the approval of, the other Limited Partners.
- (d) The General Partner may at any time without the consent of the other Partners:

- (i) add to the representations, duties or obligations of the General Partner or surrender any right or power granted to the General Partner under this Agreement, for the benefit of the Limited Partners;
  - (ii) cure any ambiguity or correct or supplement any conflicting provisions of this Agreement;
  - (iii) change the name of the Partnership;
  - (iv) make any changes required by a governmental body or agency which is deemed to be for the benefit or protection of the Limited Partners, provided, however, that no such amendment may be made unless such change (A) is for the benefit of, or not adverse to, the interests of Limited Partners, (B) does not affect the right of the General Partner to manage and control the Partnership's business, (C) does not affect the allocation of profits and losses among the Partners and (D) does not affect the limited liability of the Limited Partners;
  - (v) amend this Agreement to reflect a change in the identity of the General Partner which has been made in accordance with this Agreement;
  - (vi) amend this Agreement (other than with respect to the matters set forth in Section 8.1(b)) to effect compliance with any applicable laws, regulations or administrative actions;
  - (vii) subject to Section 8.1(b), amend this Agreement to reflect the creation, and terms, of any new Series of Interests;
  - (viii) effect any other amendment which would not, in the good faith judgment of the General Partner, adversely affect any of the existing Limited Partners; and
  - (ix) restate this Agreement together with any amendments hereto which have been duly adopted in accordance herewith to incorporate such amendments in a single, integrated document.
- (e) Following the adoption of any amendments to this Agreement pursuant to 8.1(d), the General Partner shall promptly deliver a copy of such amendments to this Agreement to the Limited Partners.
- (f) The General Partner may agree with a Limited Partner to waive or modify the application of any provision of this Agreement with respect to such Limited Partner without notifying or obtaining the consent of any other Limited Partner (other than a Limited Partner whose rights as a Limited Partner pursuant to this Agreement would be materially and adversely changed by such waiver or modification). Any such waiver or modification may be evidenced by a "side letter" or other document which will govern with respect to the applicable Limited Partner and be incorporated as part of this Agreement.

8.2 Special Power-of-Attorney

- (a) Each Limited Partner hereby irrevocably makes, constitutes and appoints the General Partner (and each of its successors and permitted assigns), with full power of substitution, the true and lawful representative and attorney-in-fact of, and in the name, place and stead of, such Limited Partner with the power from time to time to make, execute, sign, acknowledge, swear to, verify, deliver, record, file or publish:
- (i) an amendment to this Agreement that complies with the provisions of this Agreement (including the provisions of Section 8.1);
  - (ii) the Certificate and any amendment thereof required because this Agreement is amended, including an amendment to effectuate any change in the membership of the Partnership or in the capital contributions of the Partners;
  - (iii) any financing statement or other filing or document required or permitted to perfect the security interests contemplated by any provision hereof; and
  - (iv) all such other instruments, documents and certificates which, in the opinion of legal counsel to the Partnership, may from time to time be required by the laws of the United States of America, the State of Delaware, or any other jurisdiction in which the Partnership determines to do business, or any political subdivision or agency thereof, or which such legal counsel may deem necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement and continue the valid and subsisting existence and business of the Partnership as a limited partnership, exchange a portion of a Limited Partner's Interest for similar equity interests in an Alternative Investment Vehicle, or to effect the dissolution or termination of the Partnership.
- (b) Each Limited Partner is aware that the terms of this Agreement permit certain amendments to this Agreement to be effected and certain other actions to be taken or omitted by or with respect to the Partnership without that Limited Partner's consent. If an amendment of the Certificate or this Agreement or any action by or with respect to the Partnership is taken by the General Partner in the manner contemplated by this Agreement, each Limited Partner agrees that, notwithstanding any objection which such Limited Partner may assert with respect to such action, the General Partner in its sole discretion is authorized and empowered, with full power of substitution, to exercise the authority granted above in any manner which may be necessary or appropriate to permit such amendment to be made or action to be lawfully taken or omitted. Each Partner is fully aware that each other Partner relies on the effectiveness of this special power-of-attorney with a view to the orderly administration of the affairs of the Partnership. This power-of-attorney is a special power-of-attorney and is coupled with an interest in favor of the General Partner and as such:
- (i) is irrevocable and continues in full force and effect notwithstanding the subsequent death or incapacity of any party granting this power-of-attorney, regardless of whether the Partnership or the General Partner has had notice thereof; and

- (ii) survives the delivery of an assignment by a Limited Partner of the whole or any portion of such Limited Partner's Interest, except that where the assignee thereof has been approved by the General Partner for admission to the Partnership as a substituted Limited Partner, this power-of-attorney given by the assignor survives the delivery of such agreement for the sole purpose of enabling the General Partner to execute, acknowledge and file any instrument necessary to effect such substitution.

8.3 Notices

Notices which may be or are required to be given under this Agreement by any party to another shall be given by hand delivery, transmitted by facsimile, transmitted electronically to an address that has been previously provided or verified through another form of notice or sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested or internationally recognized courier service, and shall be addressed to the respective parties hereto at their addresses as set forth on the register of Partners maintained by the General Partner or to such other addresses, facsimile numbers or electronic addresses as may be designated by any party hereto by notice addressed to (a) the General Partner, in the case of notice given by any Limited Partner, and (b) each of the Limited Partners, in the case of notice given by the General Partner. Notices will be deemed to have been given (i) when delivered by hand, transmitted by facsimile or transmitted electronically or (ii) on the date indicated as the date of receipt on the return receipt when delivered by mail or courier service.

8.4 Agreement Binding Upon Successors and Assigns; Delegation

This Agreement is binding upon and inures to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, but the rights and obligations of the Partners hereunder are not assignable, transferable or delegable except as provided in Sections 4.1(c), 5.3 and 5.4, and any attempted assignment, transfer or delegation thereof which is not made pursuant to the terms of such Sections will be null and void ab initio.

8.5 Governing Law

This Agreement is, and the rights of the Partners hereunder are, governed by and shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to the conflict of laws rule thereof which would result in the application of the laws of a different jurisdiction. The parties hereby consent to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue for any action arising out of this Agreement in the courts located in Dallas County, Texas. Each Partner consents to service of process in any action or proceeding involving the Partnership by the mailing thereof by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, to such Partner's mailing address set forth in the register of Partners maintained by the General Partner.

8.6 Not for Benefit of Creditors

The provisions of this Agreement are intended only for the regulation of relations among Partners and between Partners and former or prospective Partners and the Partnership. Except for the rights of the Indemnified Persons hereunder, this Agreement is not intended for the benefit of non-Partner creditors and no rights are granted to non-Partner creditors under this Agreement.

8.7 Dispute Resolution

The following procedures shall be used to resolve any controversy or claim (“Dispute”) arising out of, relating to or in connection with the Agreement or otherwise involving the Partnership, its Partners and/or any Indemnified Person. If any of these provisions are determined to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in effect and binding on the parties to the fullest extent permitted by law.

(a) Mediation

- (i) Any Dispute shall be submitted to mediation by written notice to the other party or parties. In the mediation process, the parties will try to resolve their differences voluntarily with the aid of an impartial mediator, who will attempt to facilitate negotiations. The mediator will be selected by agreement of the parties. If the parties cannot agree on a mediator, a mediator shall be designated by JAMS/Endispute at the request of a party using, if necessary, strike and rank procedures then in effect.
- (ii) The mediation will be conducted as specified by the mediator and agreed upon by the parties. The parties agree to discuss their differences in good faith and to attempt, with the assistance of the mediator, to reach an amicable resolution of the dispute.
- (iii) The mediation will be treated as a settlement discussion and therefore will be confidential. The mediator may not testify for either party in any later proceeding relating to the dispute. No recording or transcript shall be made of the mediation proceedings.
- (iv) Each party will bear its own costs in the mediation. The fees and expenses of the mediator will be shared equally by the parties.

(b) Arbitration

- (i) If a Dispute has not been resolved within 90 days after the written notice beginning the mediation process (or a longer period, if the parties agree to extend the mediation), the mediation shall terminate and the dispute will be settled by arbitration. A party who files a suit in court regarding a Dispute rather than in arbitration waives its claim and must pay all attorney’s fees and costs incurred by the other party in seeking to have such suit dismissed. Under no circumstances will a party maintain its right to pursue his/her/its Dispute if that party initiates a judicial suit instead of complying with the mediation and arbitration provisions herein. The arbitration will be conducted through JAMS/Endispute in accordance with the procedures in this document and the commercial dispute arbitration rules then in effect (“Arbitration Rules”). In the event of a conflict, the provisions of this document will control.

- (ii) The arbitration will be conducted before a panel of three arbitrators, regardless of the size of the dispute, to be selected as provided in the Arbitration Rules. Any issue concerning the extent to which any dispute is subject to arbitration, or concerning the applicability, interpretation, or enforceability of these procedures, including any contention that all or part of these procedures are invalid or unenforceable, shall be governed by the U.S. Federal Arbitration Act (“FAA”), and resolved by the arbitrators, provided, however, that the Partnership or such applicable affiliate thereof may pursue a temporary restraining order and/or preliminary injunctive relief in connection with confidentiality, non-competition, non-solicitation or non-recruitment covenants or agreements binding on any party, with related expedited discovery for the parties, in a court of law, and, thereafter, require arbitration of all issues of final relief. Under no circumstances will a state arbitration act preclude application of the FAA, including any choice of law provisions in this Agreement, or any other agreement. No potential arbitrator may serve on the panel unless he or she has agreed in writing to abide and be bound by these procedures.
- (iii) The arbitrators may not award non-monetary or equitable relief of any sort. They shall have no power to award punitive damages or any other damages not measured by the prevailing party’s actual damages, and the parties expressly waive their right to obtain such damages in arbitration or any in other forum. In no event, even if any other portion of these provisions is held to be invalid or unenforceable, shall the arbitrators have power to make an award or impose a remedy that could not be made or imposed by a court deciding the matter in the same jurisdiction. The arbitrator(s) shall be required to state in a written opinion all facts and conclusions of law relied upon to support any decision rendered. Any dispute over whether the arbitrator(s) has failed to comply with the foregoing will be resolved by summary judgment in a court of law.
- (iv) The party initiating arbitration shall pay all arbitration costs and arbitrator’s fees, subject to a final arbitration award on who should bear costs and fees. All proceedings shall be conducted in Dallas, Texas, or another mutually agreeable site. Each party shall bear its own attorneys fees, costs and expenses, including any costs of experts, witnesses and/or travel, subject to a final arbitration award on who should bear costs and fees. The duty to arbitrate described above shall survive the termination of this Agreement.
- (v) No discovery will be allowed in connection with the arbitration unless the arbitration panel, upon a showing of substantial need, expressly authorizes it. In any event, there shall be no more than (a) two party depositions of six hours each. Each deposition is to be taken pursuant to the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure; (b) one non-party deposition of six hours; (c) twenty-five interrogatories; (d) twenty-five requests for admission; (e) ten requests for production. In response, the producing party shall not be obligated to produce in excess of 5,000 total pages of documents. The total pages of documents shall include electronic documents; and (f) one request for disclosure pursuant to the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. Any discovery not specifically provided for in this paragraph, whether to parties or non-parties, shall not be permitted.

- (vi) All aspects of the arbitration shall be treated as confidential, including its institution and/or settlement. Neither the parties nor the arbitrators may disclose the existence, content or results of the arbitration, except as necessary to comply with legal or regulatory requirements. Before making any such disclosure, a party shall give written notice to all other parties and shall afford such parties a reasonable opportunity to protect their interests. In the event a party who recovered monies by settlement, award by the arbitration panel, or otherwise in connection with the Dispute violates this confidentiality term, he, she, or it shall refund all such sums recovered. The parties expressly intend to waive the right to retain any monies received through settlement, award by the arbitration panel, or otherwise in connection with the Dispute in the event that that party violates the aforementioned confidentiality term.
- (vii) The result of the arbitration will be binding on the parties, and judgment on the arbitrators' award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

8.8 Consents and Voting

- (a) Except as provided in Section 5.4, Limited Partners do not have any right to vote for the admission or removal of any General Partner and, except for the right to vote on certain amendments proposed by the General Partner and as otherwise expressly set out herein, have no other voting rights. Upon the request of any Limited Partner, the General Partner may designate an Interest as a Non-Voting Interest, in which case the Limited Partner shall not have the right to vote on any matter including amendments.
- (b) Any and all consents, agreements or approvals provided for or permitted by this Agreement shall be in writing and a copy thereof shall be filed and kept with the books of the Partnership. For the avoidance of doubt, an amendment made pursuant to Section 8.1(c) or pursuant to negative consent under Section 8.1(a) or Section 8.1(b) shall not require any affirmative written response by any Limited Partner who is not electing to withdraw from the Partnership.
- (c) In the event the Partnership seeks the approval, vote or consent of the Offshore Fund with respect to any matter to which it would be entitled to vote as a Limited Partner of the Partnership under this Agreement, the Offshore Fund will: (i) submit such matter for the consent of the shareholders and (ii) shall vote its Limited Partner interest proportionally for and against such matter in the same proportion that the shareholders voted for and against such matter.

8.9 Merger and Consolidation

- (a) The Partnership may merge or consolidate with or into one or more limited partnerships formed under the Act or other business entities pursuant to an agreement of merger or consolidation which has been approved in the manner contemplated by Section 17-211(b) of the Act.
- (b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained elsewhere in this Agreement, an agreement of merger or consolidation approved in accordance with Section 17-211(b) of the Act may, to the extent permitted by Section 17-211(g) of the Act, (i) effect any amendment to this Agreement, (ii) effect the adoption of a new limited partnership agreement for the Partnership if it is the surviving or resulting limited partnership in the merger or consolidation, or (iii) provide that the limited partnership agreement of any other constituent partnership to the merger or consolidation (including a limited partnership formed for the purpose of consummating the merger or consolidation) shall be the limited partnership agreement of the surviving or resulting limited partnership.

8.10 Miscellaneous

- (a) The captions and titles preceding the text of each Section hereof shall be disregarded in the construction of this Agreement. Use of the word “including” in this Agreement means in each case “without limitation,” whether or not such term is explicitly stated.
- (b) This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original hereof.
- (c) If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, the other provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. Any provision of this Agreement held invalid or unenforceable only in part or degree shall remain in full force and effect to the extent not held invalid or unenforceable.

8.11 BHCA Subject Persons

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary:

- (a) Solely for purposes of any provision of this Agreement that confers voting rights on the Limited Partners and any other provisions hereof regarding consents of or action by the Limited Partners, any BHCA Subject Person that shall have given the General Partner an Election Notice and shall not thereafter have given the General Partner a Revocation Notice, and that at any time has a Partnership Percentage in excess of 4.9% of the aggregate Partnership Percentages of the Limited Partners entitled to participate in such voting or the giving of any consent or the taking of any action, shall be deemed to hold a Partnership Percentage of only 4.9% of the aggregate Partnership Percentages of the Limited Partners (after giving effect to the limitations imposed by this Section 8.11 on all such Limited Partners), and such Partnership Percentage in excess of said 4.9% shall be deemed held by the Limited Partners who are not BHCA Subject Persons, pro rata in proportion to their respective Partnership Percentages; provided that this limitation shall not prohibit a Limited Partner from voting or participating in giving or withholding consent or taking any action under any provision of this Agreement up to the full amount of its Partnership Percentage in situations where such Limited Partner's vote or consent or action is of the type customarily provided by statute or stock exchange rules with regard to matters that would significantly and adversely affect the rights or preference of the Limited Partner's Interest. The foregoing voting restriction shall continue to apply with respect to any assignee or other transferee of such BHCA Subject Person's Interest; provided, however, that the foregoing voting restriction shall not continue to apply if the Interest is transferred: (i) to the Partnership; (ii) to the public in an offering registered under the Securities Act; (iii) in a transaction pursuant to Rule 144 or Rule 144A under the Securities Act in which no Person acquires more than 2% of the Partnership's outstanding Interests; or (iv) in a single transaction to a third party who acquires at least a majority of the Partnership's outstanding Interests without regard to the Transfer of such Interests.

- (b) Except as specifically provided otherwise in this Agreement, a Limited Partner that is a BHCA Subject Person that shall have given the General Partner an Election Notice, and shall not thereafter have given the General Partner a Revocation Notice, shall not be entitled to exercise any rights to consent to actions to be taken with respect to the Partnership, including rights conferred by any applicable law. Such right to consent shall be deemed granted to the Limited Partners who are not BHCA Subject Persons, pro rata in proportion to their respective Partnership Percentages.
- (c) A Limited Partner that is a BHCA Subject Person and that elects to be subject to Section 8.11(a) and (b) shall notify the General Partner thereof (an "Election Notice") and, on the General Partner's receipt of such Election Notice, such Limited Partner shall be subject to Section 8.11(a) and (b) until 10 calendar days after such Limited Partner notifies the General Partner that it elects no longer to be subject to Section 8.11(a) and (b) (a "Revocation Notice"), which period may be reduced by the General Partner.

8.12 RIC Limited Partners

An Interest of a RIC Limited Partner does not entitle the RIC Limited Partner to vote or consent with respect to any Partnership matter unless the RIC Limited Partner's vote or consent with respect to its Interest would not be considered to be "voting securities" as defined under Section 2(a)(42) of the Investment Company Act. Except as provided in this Section 8.12, an Interest held by a RIC Limited Partner as a Non-Voting Interest is identical in all regards to all other Interests held by Limited Partners.

8.13 Bad Actor Limited Partners

Under Rule 506(d) under the Securities Act, the Partnership may be banned from selling Interests under Rule 506 if a Limited Partner beneficially owning 20% or more of the Partnership's voting securities engages in a "bad act" set forth in Rule 506. Accordingly, each Limited Partner agrees that the General Partner may deem the portion of any Bad Actor Limited Partner's Interests to be, or convert any Bad Actor Limited Partner's Interests into, Non-Voting Interests (except for the purposes of voting on any amendment to this Agreement that would materially and adversely change the Bad Actor Limited Partner's rights and preferences as a Limited Partner other than pursuant to an amendment under Section 8.1(c)) to the extent that the General Partner determines that such portion is in excess of 19.99% of the outstanding aggregate voting Interests of all Partners excluding any Interests that are Non-Voting Interests.

8.14 Entire Agreement

The parties acknowledge and agree that, this Agreement, together with any other agreement with a Limited Partner pursuant to Section 8.1(e), constitutes the entire agreement among the parties hereto pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings pertaining thereto.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such service providers may include managers, investment advisers, administrators, registrars, transfer agents, custodians and prime brokers.
- 3.2 Without prejudice to the generality of the preceding Article, the Directors may appoint any person, firm or corporation to act as the Investment Manager with respect to the assets of the Company (whether in general or in respect of any Class and/or Series of Shares). The Directors may entrust to and confer upon the Investment Manager any of the functions, duties, powers and discretions exercisable by them as Directors upon such terms and conditions (including as to remuneration payable by the Company) and with such powers of delegation, but subject to such restrictions, as they think fit.

  - (b) as to capital: a Management Share shall confer upon the holder the right in a winding up to repayment of capital as provided in these Articles but shall confer no other right to participate in the profits or assets of the Company; and
  - (c) as to income: no dividends shall be payable on the Management Shares.
- 4.2 The Participating Shares shall have the following rights:

- (a) as to voting: the holder of a Participating Share shall not (in respect of such Participating Share) have the right to receive notice of, attend at or vote as a Member at any general meeting of the Company, but may vote at a separate Class meeting convened in accordance with these Articles; and

- (c) as to income: the Participating Shares shall confer on the holders thereof the right to receive dividends as provided in these Articles.

4.3 Notwithstanding Articles 4.1(a) and 4.2(a), if the Company, in its capacity as a limited partner of the Master Fund, is called upon to approve, vote or consent to any matter to which it would be entitled to vote as a limited partner of the Master Fund and is required to seek the consent of the holders of Participating Shares in connection with any such approval, vote or consent pursuant to the constitutional documents of the Master Fund (a "Master Fund Consent Transaction"), each holder of a Participating Share shall have the right (in respect of such Participating Share), to the exclusion of the holders of the Management Shares (in respect of such Management Shares), to receive notice of, and vote on, the Master Fund Consent Transaction (the "Special Voting Right"). The voting rights attributable to each Participating Share shall be calculated by reference to the Net Asset Value per Participating Share (calculated as at the most recent Valuation Date) and not on the basis of one Participating Share, one vote. For every Master Fund Consent Transaction, the Directors shall cause the Company to vote its limited partnership interest in the Master Fund proportionally for and against such matter in the same proportion that the Members holding Participating Shares voted for and against such matter pursuant to the Special Voting Right.

4.4 In relation to any Special Voting Right pursuant to Article 4.3, unless otherwise determined by the Directors in their sole discretion, the procedure in this Article 4.4 shall be invoked. ## 5 Share Capital

5.1 Subject to these Articles, the Directors may allot, issue, grant options or warrants over, or otherwise dispose of Shares in separate classes and/or series with different terms, preferences, privileges or special rights including, without limitation, with respect to investment strategy and/or policy, participation in assets, profits and losses of the Company, voting, fees charged (including management, performance and incentive fees), redemption privileges, allocation of costs and expenses (including, without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in any hedging activities and any profits and losses arising therefrom) as they think proper. Subject to the Statute, these Articles and any applicable subscription agreement, any Share Rights (other than those set out in these Articles or set out in a Special Resolution) may be varied by either the Directors or by Ordinary Resolution. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Subscriber shall have the power to:

- (a) issue one Share to itself;
- (b) transfer that Share by an instrument of transfer to any person; and
- (c) update the Register of Members in respect of the issue and transfer of that Share.

5.2 On or before the allotment of any Participating Share the Directors shall resolve the Class and/or Series to which such Participating Share shall be classified and may, prior to the issue of any Participating Share, reclassify such Participating Share. Each Class and/or Series shall be specifically identified. Subject to the Statute and these Articles, the Directors may at any time re-name any Participating Share.

5.3 Notwithstanding the currency in which the par value of the Participating Shares is denominated, the Directors may specify any currency as the currency in which the Subscription Price, Redemption Price and Net Asset Value of Participating Shares of a Class and/or Series is calculated.

5.4 The Company shall not issue Shares to bearer.

5.5 Fractional Shares may be issued.

5.6 Shares shall only be issued as fully paid-up.

5.7 No right of pre-emption or first refusal shall attach to any Shares.

5.8 New Issue Shares shall not be issued to a Prohibited Person.

6 Allotment and Issue of Participating Shares

6.1 The Directors may from time to time allot and issue Participating Shares of any Class and/or Series. The Directors may, in their discretion, refuse to allot and issue any Participating Shares, and shall not issue any Participating Shares to or for the account of an investor who is not an Eligible Investor. If the Directors have declared a Calculation Suspension or Issue Suspension, no Participating Shares of that Class or Series (as appropriate) shall be issued until the relevant Suspension has ended.

6.2 The Directors shall determine the Subscription Price at the time of issue of the first issue of Participating Shares of any Class and/or Series. Thereafter, the Directors may allot and issue

Participating Shares of the same Class and/or Series on any Subscription Date provided that such additional Participating Shares are issued at a Subscription Price equal to not less than the Net Asset Value per Participating Share of such Class and/or Series calculated on the relevant Subscription Date (or if the Subscription Date is not also a Valuation Date then on the immediately preceding Valuation Date).

- 6.3 The Directors may add to the Subscription Price per Participating Share (before making any rounding adjustment) an amount which they consider to be an appropriate allowance to reflect fiscal and purchase charges which would be incurred for the account of the Company in investing an amount equal to the Subscription Price. The Directors may also add, in their discretion, a Sales Charge and/or an amount equal to any stamp duty and any other governmental taxes or charges payable by the Company with respect to the issue of such Participating Shares.
- 6.4 An applicant for Participating Shares shall pay for such Participating Shares in such currencies, in such manner, at such time, in such place and to such person acting on behalf of the Company as the Directors may from time to time determine.
- 6.5 Subject to the terms of any subscription agreement, an application for Participating Shares shall be irrevocable by an applicant for Participating Shares once it has been received by the Company. Participating Shares shall be treated as having been issued with effect from the relevant Subscription Date notwithstanding that the subscriber for those Participating Shares may not be entered in the Register of Members until after the Subscription Date.
- 6.6 Participating Shares shall be issued in such minimum numbers as the Directors may specify either generally or in any particular case; likewise the Directors may from time to time prescribe an amount as the minimum subscription amount.
- 6.7 The Directors may resolve to accept non-cash assets in satisfaction (in whole or in part) of the Subscription Price.
- 6.8 The Directors may require an applicant for Participating Shares to pay to the Company for the benefit of any selling agent such selling commissions or such organisational charges as may have been disclosed to such applicant. The Directors may differentiate between applicants as to the amount of such selling commissions or such organisational charges.
- 6.9 The Company may, in so far as the Statute permits, pay a commission to any person in consideration of that person subscribing or agreeing to subscribe whether absolutely or conditionally for any Participating Shares. Such commissions may be satisfied by the payment of cash and/or the issue of fully or partly paid-up Participating Shares. The Company may also on any issue of Participating Shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

7 Separate Accounts

- 7.1 The Directors shall have the power to establish and maintain, with respect to Participating Shares of any Class and/or Series, a Separate Account, to record (purely as an internal accounting matter) the allocation, on a differentiated basis, of the assets and liabilities of the Company to the holders of Participating Shares of any such Class and/or a Series in a manner consistent with the methodology set forth in the Offering Memorandum and the rights otherwise attaching to the Participating Shares.

- 7.2 The proceeds from the issue of Participating Shares of any Class and/or Series shall be applied in the books of the Company to the Separate Account established for Participating Shares of that Class and/or Series. The assets and liabilities and income and expenditure attributable to that Separate Account shall be applied to such Separate Account and, subject to the provisions of these Articles, to no other Separate Account. In the event that the assets of a Separate Account referable to any Class and/or Series are exhausted, any and all unsatisfied claims which any Members or former Members referable to that Class and/or Series have against the Company shall be extinguished. The Members or former Members referable to a Class and/or Series shall have no recourse against the assets of any other Separate Account established by the Company.
- 7.3 Where any asset is derived from another asset (whether cash or otherwise), such derivative asset shall be applied in the books of the Company to the same Separate Account as the asset from which it was derived, and on each revaluation of an asset the increase or diminution in value shall be applied to the same Separate Account and, subject to the provisions of these Articles, to no other Separate Account.
- 7.4 In the case of any asset or liability of the Company which the Directors do not consider is attributable to a particular Separate Account, the Directors shall have discretion to determine the basis upon which any such asset or liability shall be allocated between or among Separate Accounts.
- 7.5 The Directors may, in the books of the Company, allocate assets and liabilities to and from Separate Accounts if, as a result of a creditor proceeding against certain of the assets of the Company or otherwise, a liability would be borne in a different manner from that in which it would have been borne if applied under the foregoing Articles.
- 7.6 The Directors may from time to time transfer, allocate or exchange an asset or liability from one Separate Account to another Separate Account provided that at the time of such transfer, allocation or exchange the Directors form the opinion (in good faith) that the value in money or money's worth of each such asset or liability transferred, allocated or exchanged is not significantly less or more than the value in money or money's worth (referred to in these Articles as "proper value") received by the Separate Account from which such asset or liability is transferred, allocated or exchanged except only as is otherwise provided by these Articles.

8 Determination of Net Asset Value

- 8.1 The Net Asset Value and Net Asset Value per Participating Share of each Class and/or Series shall be determined by or on behalf of the Directors as at the relevant Valuation Point on each relevant Valuation Date.

- 8.2 In calculating the Net Asset Value and the Net Asset Value per Participating Share, the Directors shall apply such generally accepted accounting principles as they may determine.
- 8.3 The assets and liabilities of the Company shall be valued in accordance with such policies as the Directors may determine. Absent bad faith or manifest error, any valuation made pursuant to these Articles shall be binding on all persons.
- 8.4 Unless otherwise determined by the Directors in any resolution creating a Class and/or Series of Participating Shares or as otherwise disclosed in any Offering Memorandum, the Net Asset Value per Participating Share of each Class (or Series) shall be determined by allocating pro rata the Net Asset Value, as at the relevant Valuation Point, of the Company and/or of the relevant Separate Account among each Class and/or Series, adjusting the amount so calculated to reflect any fees, costs, foreign exchange items or other assets or liabilities which are properly attributable to a specific Class and/or Series and then by dividing the resultant amount by the number of Participating Shares of such Class and/or Series then in issue.
- 8.5 The Directors may determine that the Net Asset Value of any Class and/or Series shall be definitively determined on the basis of estimates and that such determination shall not be modified to reflect final valuations.
- 8.6 Any expense or liability may be amortised over such period as the Directors may determine.
- 8.7 The Directors may establish such reserves as they deem reasonably necessary for Company expenses and any other contingent Company assets or liabilities, and may, upon the reversal or release of such reserves, apply any monies resulting therefrom in such manner as they may, in their absolute discretion, determine.
- 8.8 Net Asset Value per Participating Share shall be rounded to the nearest cent or such other amount as the Directors may determine and the benefit of any such roundings may be retained by the Company.
- 8.9 The Directors may cause the Company to issue new Participating Shares at par or to compulsorily redeem at par such number of Participating Shares as they consider necessary to address, in such manner as they consider equitable, any prior miscalculation of Net Asset Value or Net Asset Value per Participating Share. The Company shall not be required to pay to the holder the redemption proceeds of any such compulsorily redeemed Participating Shares, which proceeds shall be retained by the Company.

9 Suspensions

- 9.1 The Directors may, from time to time, in the circumstances disclosed in the Offering Memorandum, declare a Suspension with respect to any one or more Classes and/or Series of Participating Shares.

9.2 The Directors shall promptly notify all affected Members of any such Suspension and shall promptly notify such Members upon termination of such Suspension.

10 Transfer of Shares

10.1 Subject to Article 5.1, Shares may not be Transferred without the prior written approval of the Directors (which may be withheld for any or no reason) provided that the Directors may waive this requirement to the extent that they deem appropriate in connection with the listing of any Class or Series of Share on a stock exchange.

10.2 The Directors shall not register any Transfer of any Share to any person who is, in the opinion of the Directors, not an Eligible Investor.

10.3 Any proposed transferee shall provide to the Directors such information and documents as the Directors may request, including, without limitation, such documents or information as the Directors deem necessary or desirable:

- (a) to enable the Directors to determine that the proposed transferee is an Eligible Investor; and
- (b) to enable the Company to comply with all applicable laws, including anti-money laundering laws.

10.4 The instrument of Transfer of any Share shall be in writing and shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor (and, if the Directors so require, signed by or on behalf of the transferee). The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of a Share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members.

11 Transmission of Shares

11.1 If a Member dies, the survivor or survivors (where the Member was a joint holder) or his or her legal personal representatives (where the Member was a sole holder) shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the Member's interest in the Company. The death of any Member shall not operate to relieve, waive or reduce any liabilities attaching to the Member's Shares at the time of death and such liabilities shall continue to bind any survivor or survivors, or any personal representative, as the case may be.

11.2 Any person becoming entitled to a Share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy, or the liquidation or dissolution, of a Member (or in any other way than by Transfer) and who is an Eligible Investor may, upon delivery to the Directors of such evidence as may from time to time be required by them of:

- (a) such person's entitlement to such Shares; and/or
- (b) such person's status as an Eligible Investor, elect, either to become the holder of such Share or to have such Share Transferred to another Eligible Investor nominated by such person. If such person elects to become the holder of such Share, such person shall give notice in writing to the Directors to that effect, but the Directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline registration of such person as a holder of such Share as they would have had in the case of a Transfer of the Share by that Member before his or her death or bankruptcy, or liquidation or dissolution, as the case may be.

- 11.3 Any person becoming entitled to a Share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy, or the liquidation or dissolution, of a Member (or in any other way than by Transfer) and who is not an Eligible Investor shall not be registered as the holder of such Share and shall promptly Transfer such Share to an Eligible Investor in accordance with these Articles.
- 11.4 A person becoming entitled to a Share by reason of the death or bankruptcy or liquidation or dissolution of the holder (or in any other case than by Transfer), and who is an Eligible Investor, shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which such person would be entitled if such person were the registered holder of such Share. However, the person shall not, before becoming a Member in respect of a Share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company and the Directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to have some person nominated by him become the holder of the Share (but the Directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the Share by the relevant Member before his death or bankruptcy or liquidation or dissolution or any other case than by transfer, as the case may be). If the notice is not complied with within ninety days the Directors may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the Share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

12 Redemption of Shares

- 12.1 Subject to any provisions relating to a specific Class and/or Series as set out in the Offering Memorandum or these Articles or in any resolution constituting a Class and/or Series or otherwise forming part of the special rights of such Participating Shares, a Member may require the redemption of all or any of such Member's Participating Shares by serving a Redemption Notice on the Company. Unless timely receipt is waived by the Directors in a particular case, a Redemption Notice shall be required to be received on or before a Redemption Date with respect to such Participating Shares (or such number of days prior to such Redemption Date as may be determined by the Directors). Any Member redeeming Participating Shares shall submit to the Directors the share certificate (if any) issued in respect of those Participating Shares. The Company shall redeem such Participating Shares at the Redemption Price, being an amount equal to the Net Asset Value per Participating Share of the relevant Class and/or Series prevailing on the relevant Redemption Date (or if the Redemption Date is not a Valuation Date then on the immediately preceding Valuation Date) subject to any deductions, holdbacks or adjustments provided for in these Articles and/or the Offering Memorandum.

- 12.2 The Directors may deduct any Redemption Fee from the Redemption Price. The Directors may also deduct such amount which they consider to be an appropriate allowance to reflect fiscal and sale charges which would be incurred for the account of the Company in realising assets or closing out positions to provide funds to meet any redemption request.
- 12.3 A Member may not withdraw a Redemption Notice once submitted to the Company unless (a) the Directors shall have declared a Calculation Suspension or Redemption Suspension or (b) the Directors determine (in their sole discretion) to permit the withdrawal of such redemption request (which they may do in whole or in part). If a relevant Suspension has been declared by the Directors, the right of a Member to have its Participating Shares redeemed shall be suspended and during the period of Suspension the Member may withdraw its Redemption Notice. Any withdrawal of the Redemption Notice shall be made in writing and shall only be effective if actually received by the Company before the termination of the period of the Redemption Suspension or Calculation Suspension, as applicable. If the Redemption Notice is not withdrawn, any Participating Shares the redemption of which has been suspended shall be redeemed once the relevant Suspension has ended at the Redemption Price for Participating Shares of the relevant Class and/or Series calculated on the next Redemption Date following the end of the relevant Suspension.
- 12.4 The Directors may impose a gate the effect of which is to limit the redemptions of Participating Shares of any Class and/or Series or to limit the redemptions of Participating Shares held by any Member or Members as of any Redemption Date to such extent and in such manner as is disclosed in the Offering Memorandum. If the Directors determine to limit redemptions, the Directors may determine the manner in which such gated redemption requests will be dealt with on any subsequent Redemption Date.
- 12.5 If the Company is required by the laws of any relevant jurisdiction to make a withholding from any redemption monies payable to the holder of Participating Shares the amount of such withholding shall be deducted from the redemption monies otherwise payable to such person.
- 12.6 No redemption of part of a Member's holding of Participating Shares of any one Class and/or Series may be made if, as a result thereof, such Member would hold fewer Participating Shares of such Class and/or Series than such minimum number or value of Participating Shares of such Class and/or Series as may from time to time be specified (either generally or in any particular case or cases) by the Directors. If such partial redemption would reduce such Member's holding of Participating Shares to less than such minimum holding, the Directors may, in their discretion, elect to compulsorily redeem all of such Member's Participating Shares.
- 12.7 The Company may, in the absolute discretion of the Directors, refuse to make a redemption payment to a Member if the Directors suspect or are advised that the payment of any redemption proceeds to such Member may result in a breach or violation of any anti-money laundering law by any person in any relevant jurisdiction, or if such refusal is necessary to ensure the compliance by the Company, its Directors, the Administrator or any other service provider of the Company with any anti-money laundering law in any relevant jurisdiction.

- 12.8 Any amount payable to a Member for the redemption of Participating Shares shall be paid in such currency or currencies as the Directors may determine. Subject to any Payment Suspension, the Company shall remit redemption proceeds (net of the costs of remittance) by cheque or wire transfer within such period or periods as the Directors shall have disclosed to the Member at the time of its subscription for Participating Shares or, in the absence of any such disclosure, within such period or periods as the Directors shall determine. In the absence of directions as to payment the Company may remit redemption proceeds by cheque to the address of the Member appearing on the Register of Members or by wire transfer to such account as the Directors deem appropriate in the circumstances. The Company shall not be liable for any loss resulting from this procedure.
- 12.9 On any redemption of Participating Shares the Directors shall have the power to satisfy (in whole or in part) the Redemption Price (and any other sums payable on redemption as provided in these Articles) owing on the redemption of such Participating Shares by dividing in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the Company (including, without limitation, shares, debentures, or securities of any other company whether or not held by the Company on the Redemption Date in question) and either (i) distributing such assets directly to the redeeming shareholder, and/or (ii) distributing or allocating such assets to a liquidating account or other similar mechanism to be managed and/or liquidated at the discretion of the Directors.
- 12.10 Participating Shares shall be treated as having been redeemed with effect from the relevant Redemption Date irrespective of whether or not a Member has been removed from the Register of Members or the Redemption Price has been determined or remitted. Accordingly, on and from the relevant Redemption Date, Members in their capacity as such will not be entitled to or be capable of exercising any rights arising under these Articles with respect to Participating Shares being redeemed (including any right to receive notice of, attend or vote at any meeting of the Company) save the right to receive the Redemption Price and any dividend which has been declared prior to the relevant Redemption Date but not yet paid (in each case with respect to the Participating Shares being redeemed). Such Members will be treated as creditors of the Company with respect to the Redemption Price and will rank accordingly in the priority of the Company's creditors.
- 12.11 Once a Participating Share is redeemed it shall be available for re issue and, until re issue, shall form part of the authorised and unissued share capital of the Company.
- 12.12 Upon the written request of a Member or prospective Member in a form acceptable to the Directors, the Company may, in the discretion of the Directors, accept a standing redemption request from such Member or prospective Member pursuant to which the Company shall agree (without assuming any liability for failing to do so) to use its commercially reasonable efforts to redeem such Member's Participating Shares to the extent necessary to ensure that such Member does not own over a specified percentage of the outstanding Participating Shares of the Company or any Class and/or Series thereof; such percentage to be the percentage identified by such Member or prospective Member in such written request as being the percentage which such Member's or prospective Member's ownership cannot exceed without material risk of such Member or prospective Member being in violation of applicable law or regulation. Any such written request may be revoked by notice in writing to the Company from the affected Member.

- 12.13 No amendment to these Articles made after a Redemption Date shall affect a Member with respect to Participating Shares of that Member which have been redeemed, or are being treated as redeemed, on or prior to that Redemption Date.
- 12.14 Unless otherwise provided in the Offering Memorandum, unremitted redemption proceeds shall not bear interest against the Company and redeemed Participating Shares shall not participate in the profits and losses of the Company with effect from the relevant Redemption Date.

13 Compulsory Redemption

- 13.1 The Directors may cause the Company to redeem any or all of the Participating Shares held by any person at the appropriate Redemption Price in the circumstances disclosed in the Offering Memorandum. If the Directors determine compulsorily to redeem any Participating Shares under this Article they shall give the holder of the Participating Shares such notice of the redemption as they shall have disclosed to the Member at the time of its subscription for Participating Shares or, in the absence of any such disclosure, within such period as the Directors shall determine.
- 13.2 The Directors may cause a compulsory redemption during any period for which a Redemption Suspension has been declared.
- 13.3 Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Company may (without notice) compulsorily redeem the Participating Shares of any Member and, on behalf of such Member, apply the proceeds of redemption in paying for new Participating Shares to give effect to any exchange, conversion or roll-up policy disclosed to Members pursuant to which Participating Shares of one Class or Series (the "Old Shares") may, at the option of the Company, be exchanged for Participating Shares of another Class or Series (the "New Shares") by means of the redemption of the Old Shares and the immediate re-subscription of the redemption proceeds in paying up the New Shares.

14 FATCA

- 14.1 Notwithstanding any other Article, in order to comply with FATCA, any Director shall be entitled to release and/or disclose on behalf of the Company to the Cayman Islands Tax Information Authority or equivalent authority (the "TIA") and any other foreign government body as required by FATCA, any information in its or its agents' or delegates' possession regarding a Member including, without limitation, financial information concerning the Member's investment in the Company, and any information relating to any shareholders, principals, partners, beneficial owners (direct or indirect) or controlling persons (direct or indirect) of such Member. Any such Director may also authorise any third party agent, including but not limited to, the Investment Manager or Administrator, to release and/or disclose such information on behalf of the Company.

- 14.2 In order to comply with FATCA and, if necessary, to reduce or eliminate any risk that the Company or its Members are subject to withholding taxes pursuant to FATCA or incur any costs or liabilities associated with FATCA, the Directors may cause the Company to undertake any of the following actions:
- (a) compulsorily redeem any or all of the Shares held by a Member either (i) where the Member fails to provide (in a timely manner) to the Company, or any agent or delegate of the Company, including but not limited to, the Investment Manager or the Administrator, any information requested by the Company or such agent or delegate pursuant to FATCA; or (ii) where there has otherwise been non-compliance by the Company with FATCA whether caused, directly or indirectly, by the action or inaction of such Member, or any related person, or otherwise;
  - (b) deduct from, or hold back, redemption or repurchase proceeds, dividend payments or any other distributions, in order to:
    - (i) comply with any requirement to apply and collect withholding tax pursuant to FATCA;
    - (ii) allocate to a Member an amount equal to any withholding tax imposed on the Company as a result of the Member's, or any related person's, action or inaction (direct or indirect), or where there has otherwise been non-compliance by the Company with FATCA;
    - (iii) ensure that any FATCA related costs, debts, expenses, obligations or liabilities (whether external, or internal, to the Company) are recovered from the Member(s) whose action or inaction (directly or indirectly, including the action or inaction of any person related to such Member) gave rise or contributed to such costs or liabilities;
  - (c) in order to give effect to the requirements imposed upon the Company by FATCA, including the actions contemplated by articles 14.2(a) and 14.2(b), the Directors may:
    - (i) create separate classes and/or series of Shares ("FATCA Shares"), with such rights and terms as the Directors may in their sole discretion determine, and following the compulsory redemption of some or all of a Member's Shares may immediately apply such redemption proceeds in subscribing for such number of FATCA Shares as the Directors determine; and/or
    - (ii) may re-name any number of Shares (whether issued or unissued) as FATCA Shares, create a Separate Account with respect to such FATCA Shares and apply any FATCA related costs, debts, expenses, obligations or liabilities (whether external, or internal, to the Company) to such Separate Account; and/or

- (iii) allocate any FATCA costs, debts, expenses, obligations, liabilities or withholding tax among Separate Accounts on a basis determined solely by the Directors; and/or
- (iv) adjust the Net Asset Value per Share of any relevant Shares (including any FATCA Share).

15 Designated Investments

- 15.1 The Directors may, in their discretion, classify certain of the Company's investments which are deemed by the Directors or the Investment Manager to be illiquid or the value of which is not readily or reliably ascertainable or which may have a relatively long-term investment horizon as "Designated Investments". Once so classified, Designated Investments may, in the discretion of the Directors, be represented by a separate Class and/or Series of Participating Shares which, unless otherwise determined by the Directors, shall be allotted only to those Members who are holders of Participating Shares at the time of such designation. The gains and losses attributable to Designated Investments may, in the discretion of the Directors, be segregated and separately calculated and attributed amongst Members holding Shares of the relevant Class or Series in such manner as is consistent with the relevant provisions of the Offering Memorandum. Participating Shares of any such separate Class and/or Series may be issued by way of bonus or by way of conversion or exchange of all or part of a Member's holding of Participating Shares of another Class and/or Series. Similarly, Shares of a Designated Investment Class and/or Series may be converted or exchanged back into Participating Shares of the original Class and/or Series upon the Directors making a determination that the relevant investment no longer qualifies as a Designated Investment. The power to convert or exchange Participating Shares of one Class and/or Series into Participating Shares of another Class and/or Series may be effected by the Directors in any manner permitted by the Statute and the Articles, including the compulsory redemption of Participating Shares of one Class and/or Series and the application of the proceeds of redemption in subscribing for Participating Shares of the other Class and/or Series or by redesignating a portion of the Participating Shares of any existing Class and/or Series as thereafter belonging to a new Class and/or Series. Shares of a Class or Series of Shares which represent Designated Investments shall not, unless the Directors otherwise determine, be redeemable at the option of the Members holding such Participating Shares. Where investments are classified as Designated Investments and Participating Shares of a separate Class and/or Series are issued by way of bonus, the requirement of these Articles to ensure proper value is transferred to the Separate Account of the Participating Shares of the original Class and/or Series to which such investments were originally allocated shall not apply.

16 Purchase and Surrender of Shares

- 16.1 Subject to the provisions of the Statute and without prejudice to these Articles, the Company may purchase its own Shares (including any redeemable Shares) in such manner and on such other terms as the Directors may agree with the relevant Member.

16.2 The Company may make a payment in respect of the redemption or purchase of its own Shares in any manner permitted by the Statute, including out of capital.

16.3 The Directors may accept the surrender for no consideration of any fully paid Share.

17 Treasury Shares

17.1 The Directors may, prior to the purchase, redemption or surrender of any Share, determine that such Share shall be held as a Treasury Share.

17.2 The Directors may determine to cancel a Treasury Share or transfer a Treasury Share on such terms as they think proper (including, without limitation, for nil consideration).

18 Variation of Share Rights

18.1 Subject to the Statute, these Articles and any applicable subscription agreement, all or any of the Share Rights applicable to any Class or Series of Participating Shares in issue (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of those Participating Shares) may (whether or not the Company is being wound up) be varied without the consent of the holders of the issued Participating Shares of that Class or Series where such variation is considered by the Directors not to have a material adverse effect upon such holders' Share Rights; otherwise, any such variation may be made with the prior consent in writing of the holders of not less than two-thirds by Net Asset Value of such Participating Shares, or with the sanction of a resolution passed by a majority of at least two-thirds of the votes cast in person or by proxy at a separate meeting of the holders of such Participating Shares. For the avoidance of doubt, the Directors reserve the right, notwithstanding that any such variation may not have a material adverse effect, to obtain consent from the holders of such Participating Shares. To any such meeting all the provisions of these Articles as to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that any holder of a Participating Share present in person or by proxy may demand a poll, and the quorum for any such meeting shall be Members holding not less than twenty per cent. by Net Asset Value of the issued Participating Shares of the relevant Class or Series. At any Class meeting, the voting rights attributable to each Participating Share shall be calculated by reference to the Net Asset Value per Participating Share (calculated as at the most recent Valuation Date) and not on the basis of one Participating Share, one vote.

18.2 For the purposes of a Class consent, the Directors may treat two or more or all the Classes or Series of Participating Shares as forming one Class or Series if the Directors consider that such Classes or Series would be affected in the same way by the proposals under consideration, but in any other case shall treat them as separate Classes or Series.

18.3 Where the Shares of any Class or Series (the "First Class") rank, or will on issue rank, pari passu with the Shares of another Class or Series (the "Second Class") with respect to participation in the same pool of profits or assets of the Company on a winding up, the rights of the First Class shall be deemed to be varied by any variation of or creation of rights in the Second Class (including on initial issue) which gives the Second Class priority over the First Class on a winding up of the Company.

- 18.4 Subject to the foregoing Articles, the Share Rights applicable to any Class or Series of Shares in issue shall (unless otherwise expressly provided by the conditions of issue of such Shares) be deemed not to be varied by:
- (a) the creation, allotment or issue of further Shares ranking pari passu therewith and which may be issued with the benefit of the terms referred to below;
  - (b) the purchase or redemption of any Shares;
  - (c) the exercise of the powers to allocate assets and charge liabilities to the various Separate Accounts or any of them and to transfer the same to and from the various Separate Accounts or any of them, as provided for in these Articles;
  - (d) any reduction or waiver of any fees (including early redemption, management or performance fees) chargeable or allocable to any Class or Series of Shares;
  - (e) any reduction or waiver of any redemption notice, gate or lock-up period applicable to any Class or Series of Shares; or
  - (f) any variation or waiver contemplated by or provided for in the Offering Memorandum applicable to the relevant Class and/or Series.
- 18.5 In relation to any Class or Series consent required pursuant to Article 18.1, the Directors in their discretion may invoke the following procedure (the "Negative Consent Procedure"). The Directors shall provide written notice of the proposed variation (the "Proposal") to the Members of the affected Class or Series and shall specify a deadline (the "Redemption Request Date"), which shall be no earlier than 30 days after the date of giving such notice, by which date such Members may submit a written request for redemption of some or all of their Participating Shares of the affected Class and/or Series on the Redemption Date (the "Specified Redemption Date") specified by the Directors in such notice. The terms of the Proposal shall be such that its specified effective date (the "Effective Date") shall not be on or prior to the Specified Redemption Date. Such notice shall further provide that the holders of any Participating Shares in respect of which a request for redemption has not been received by the Redemption Request Date (the "Affected Shares") shall, in the absence of express written refusal to consent, be deemed to have consented in writing to the Proposal (such Affected Shares being the "Negative Consent Shares"). In the event that the Negative Consent Procedure is followed, only the Affected Shares shall be considered for the purposes of determining whether the written consent majority has been obtained under Article 18.1 with the holders of the Negative Consent Shares being deemed to have submitted a written consent in favour of the Proposal on the Effective Date.

19 Variation of Terms

The Directors, with the consent of the Investment Manager, shall have the absolute discretion to agree with a Member to waive or modify the terms applicable to such Member's subscription for Participating Shares (including those relating to management and performance fees and redemption terms) without obtaining the consent of any other Member; provided that such waiver or modification does not amount to a variation of the rights attaching to the Participating Shares of such other Members.

20 Certificates for Shares

- 20.1 A Member shall only be entitled to a share certificate if the Directors resolve that share certificates shall be issued. Share certificates representing Shares, if any, shall be in such form as the Directors may determine. Share certificates shall be signed by one or more Directors or another person authorised by the Directors. The Directors may authorise certificates to be issued with the authorised signature(s) affixed by mechanical process. All certificates for Shares shall be consecutively numbered or otherwise identified and shall specify the Shares to which they relate. All certificates surrendered to the Company for transfer shall be cancelled and, subject to these Articles, no new certificate shall be issued until the former certificate representing a like number of relevant Shares shall have been surrendered and cancelled.
- 20.2 The Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate for Shares held jointly by more than one person and delivery of a certificate to one joint holder shall be a sufficient delivery to all of them.
- 20.3 If a share certificate is defaced, worn out, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and on the payment of such expenses reasonably incurred by the Company in investigating evidence, as the Directors may prescribe, and (in the case of defacement or wearing out) on delivery up of the old certificate.

21 Register of Members

- 21.1 The Company shall maintain or cause to be maintained the Register of Members.
- 21.2 The Directors may determine that the Company shall maintain one or more branch registers of Members in accordance with the Statute. The Directors may also determine which register of Members shall constitute the principal register and which shall constitute the branch register or registers, and to vary such determination from time to time.

22 Closing Register of Members and Fixing Record Date

- 22.1 For the purpose of determining Members entitled to notice of, or to vote at any meeting of Members or any adjournment thereof, or Members entitled to receive payment of any dividend, or in order to make a determination of Members for any other proper purpose, the Directors may provide that the Register of Members shall be closed for transfers for a stated period which shall not in any case exceed thirty days.

- 22.2 In lieu of, or apart from, closing the Register of Members, the Directors may fix in advance or arrears a date as the record date for any such determination of Members entitled to notice of, or to vote at any meeting of the Members or any adjournment thereof, or for the purpose of determining the Members entitled to receive payment of any dividend or in order to make a determination of Members for any other proper purpose.
- 22.3 If the Register of Members is not so closed and no record date is fixed for the determination of Members entitled to notice of, or to vote at, a meeting of Members or Members entitled to receive payment of a dividend, the date on which notice of the meeting is sent or the date on which the resolution of the Directors declaring such dividend is passed, as the case may be, shall be the record date for such determination of Members. When a determination of Members entitled to vote at any meeting of Members has been made as provided in this Article, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof.

23 Non Recognition of Trusts

The Company shall not be bound by or compelled to recognise in any way (even when notified) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any Share, or (except only as is otherwise provided by these Articles or the Statute) any other rights in respect of any Share other than an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

- 23.1 if it is not paid all the provisions of these Articles shall apply as if that amount had become due and payable by virtue of a call.
- 23.2 The Directors may issue Shares with different terms as to the amount and times of payment of calls, or the interest to be paid.
- 23.3 The Directors may, if they think fit, receive an amount from any Member willing to advance all or any part of the monies uncalled and unpaid upon any Shares held by it, and may (until the amount would otherwise become payable) pay interest at such rate as may be agreed upon between the Directors and the Member paying such amount in advance.
- 23.4 No such amount paid in advance of calls shall entitle the Member paying such amount to any portion of a dividend declared in respect of any period prior to the date upon which such amount would, but for such payment, become payable.

24 Lien on Shares

- 24.1 The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on all Shares (whether fully paid-up or not) registered in the name of a Member (whether solely or jointly with others) for all debts, liabilities or engagements to or with the Company (whether presently payable or not) by such Member or such Member's estate, either alone or jointly with any other person, whether a Member or not, but the Directors may at any time declare any Share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article. The registration of a Transfer of any such Share shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien thereon. The Company's lien on a Share shall also extend to any amount payable in respect of that Share.

- 24.2 The Company may sell, in such manner as the Directors think fit, any Shares on which the Company has a lien, if a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, and is not paid within fourteen clear days after notice has been given to the holder of the Shares, or to the person entitled to it in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of the holder, demanding payment and stating that if the notice is not complied with the Shares may be sold.
- 24.3 To give effect to any such sale the Directors may authorise any person to execute an instrument of Transfer of the Shares sold to, or in accordance with the directions of, the purchaser. The purchaser or such purchaser's nominee shall be registered as the holder of the Shares comprised in any such Transfer, and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall the purchaser's title to the Shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the sale or the exercise of the Company's power of sale under these Articles.
- 24.4 The net proceeds of such sale after payment of costs, shall be applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable and any balance shall (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the Shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the Shares at the date of the sale.

25 Amendments of Memorandum and Articles and Alteration of Capital

- 25.1 The Company may, by Ordinary Resolution:
- (a) increase its share capital by such sum and with such rights, priorities and privileges annexed thereto, as the resolution shall prescribe;
  - (b) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into Shares of larger amount than its existing Shares;
  - (c) by subdivision of its existing Shares or any of them divide the whole or any part of its share capital into Shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum; and
  - (d) cancel any Shares that at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.
- 25.2 All new Shares created in accordance with the provisions of the preceding Article shall be subject to the same provisions of these Articles with reference to liens, Transfer, transmission and otherwise as the Shares in the original share capital.
- 25.3 Subject to the provisions of the Statute and the provisions of these Articles as regards the matters to be dealt with by Ordinary Resolution the Company may, by Special Resolution:
- (a) change its name;
  - (b) alter or add to these Articles;

- (c) alter or add to the Memorandum with respect to any objects, powers or other matters specified therein; and
- (d) reduce its share capital or any capital redemption reserve fund.

26 Registered Office

Subject to the provisions of the Statute, the Company may by resolution of the Directors change the location of its Registered Office. The Company may, in addition to its Registered Office, maintain such other offices or places of business as the Directors determine.

27 General Meetings

- 27.1 All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings. The Directors may call general meetings.
- 27.2 The Company may but shall not be obliged to hold a general meeting in each year as its annual general meeting, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notice calling it. Any annual general meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Directors shall determine.

28 Notice of General Meetings

- 28.1 At least five Business Days' notice shall be given of any general meeting. Every notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is given or deemed to be given and of the day on which the meeting is to be held and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of the meeting and the general nature of the business and shall be given in the manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner if any as may be prescribed by the Company, provided that a general meeting of the Company shall, whether or not the notice specified in this Article has been given and whether or not the provisions of these Articles regarding general meetings have been complied with, be deemed to have been duly convened if it is so agreed:
  - (a) in the case of an annual general meeting, by all the Members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
  - (b) in the case of an extraordinary general meeting, by a majority in number of the Members having the right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than ninety five per cent. in par value of the Shares giving that right.
- 28.2 The accidental omission to give notice of a general meeting to, or the non receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice thereof shall not invalidate the proceedings of that meeting.

29 Proceedings at General Meetings

- 29.1 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present. A quorum shall be one or more Members (present in person, by proxy or authorised corporate representative, as the case may be) entitled to attend and vote and representing not less than twenty per cent. in par value of all of the Shares in issue and carrying the right to vote at the meeting.

- 29.2 A person may, with the consent of the Directors, participate at a general meeting by conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all the persons participating in the meeting can communicate with each other. Participation by a person in a general meeting in this manner is treated as presence in person at that meeting.
- 29.3 A resolution (including a Special Resolution) in writing (in one or more counterparts) signed by all Members for the time being entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at general meetings (or, being corporations or other non-natural persons, signed by their duly authorised representatives) shall be as valid and effective as if the resolution had been passed at a general meeting of the Company duly convened and held.
- 29.4 If a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting or if during such a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved and in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such other day, time or such other place as the Directors may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the Members present shall be a quorum.
- 29.5 The chairman, if any, of the board of Directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Company, or if there is no such chairman, or if the chairman shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting, or is unwilling to act, the Directors present shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
- 29.6 If no Director is willing to act as chairman, or if no Director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
- 29.7 The chairman may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a general meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.
- 29.8 A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands, the chairman or any Member present in person or by proxy (or in the case of a non-natural person, by its duly authorised representative or by proxy) demands a poll.
- 29.9 Unless a poll is duly demanded a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost or not carried by a particular majority, an entry to that effect in the minutes of the proceedings of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of that fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

- 29.10 The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- 29.11 Except on a poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment, a poll shall be taken as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the general meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 29.12 A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the general meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded or is contingent thereon may proceed pending the taking of the poll.
- 29.13 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote.

30 Votes of Members

- 30.1 Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any Shares, on a show of hands every Member holding Shares carrying the right to vote on the matter in question who (being an individual) is present in person or by proxy or (if a corporation or other non-natural person) is present by its duly authorised representative or by proxy, shall have one vote and on a poll every such Member shall have one vote for every Share of which he is the holder.
- 30.2 In the case of joint holders of record, the vote of the senior holder who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders. Seniority among joint holders shall be determined by the order in which the names of the holders stand in the Register of Members.
- 30.3 A Member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court or authority having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by the Member's committee, receiver, curator bonis, or other similar person appointed on such Member's behalf by that court or authority and any such committee, receiver, curator bonis or other similar person may vote by proxy.
- 30.4 No person shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless such person is registered as a Member on the record date for such meeting, nor unless all calls or other monies then payable by such person in respect of such Shares have been paid.
- 30.5 No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the general meeting or adjourned general meeting at which the vote objected to is purported to be given or tendered and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

- 30.6 On a poll or on a show of hands votes may be cast either personally or by proxy. A Member may appoint more than one proxy or the same proxy under one or more instruments to attend and vote at a meeting. Where a Member appoints more than one proxy the instrument of proxy shall state which proxy is entitled to vote on a show of hands.
- 30.7 A Member holding more than one Share need not cast the votes in respect of its Shares in the same way on any resolution and therefore may vote a Share or some or all such Shares either for or against a resolution and/or abstain (any such abstentions to count neither for nor against the resolution) from voting a Share or some or all of the Shares and, subject to the terms of the instrument appointing it, a proxy appointed under one or more instruments may vote a Share or some or all of the Shares in respect of which such proxy is appointed either for or against a resolution and/or abstain from voting.

31 Proxies

- 31.1 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing, be executed under the hand of the appointor or of such appointor's attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointor is a corporation or other non-natural person, under the hand of an officer or other person duly authorised for that purpose. A proxy need not be a Member of the Company.
- 31.2 The Directors may, in the notice convening any meeting or adjourned meeting, or in an instrument of proxy sent out by the Company, specify the place and the time (being not later than the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting to which the proxy relates) at which the instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited. In the absence of any such direction from the Directors in the notice convening any meeting or adjourned meeting, the instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at the Registered Office not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote.
- 31.3 The chairman may in any event, at the chairman's discretion, declare that an instrument of proxy shall be deemed to have been duly deposited. An instrument of proxy that is not deposited in the manner permitted and which has not been declared to have been duly deposited by the chairman, shall be invalid.
- 31.4 The instrument appointing a proxy may be in any usual or common form and may be incorporated within any subscription agreement or other document signed by or on behalf of the Member. An instrument appointing a proxy may be expressed to be for a particular meeting or any adjournment thereof or generally until revoked. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to include the power to demand or join or concur in demanding a poll.
- 31.5 Votes given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the Transfer of the Share in respect of which the proxy is given unless notice in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or Transfer was received by the Company at the Registered Office before the commencement of the general meeting, or adjourned meeting at which it is sought to use the proxy.

32 Corporate Members

Any corporation or other non-natural person which is a Member of the Company may in accordance with its constitutional documents, or in the absence of such provision by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or of any Class of Members, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which such person represents as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual Member.

33 Shares Beneficially Owned by the Company

Shares of the Company that are beneficially owned by the Company shall not be voted, directly or indirectly, at any meeting and shall not be counted in determining the total number of outstanding Shares at any given time.

34 Directors

There shall be a board of Directors consisting of not less than one person (exclusive of alternate Directors) provided however that the Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution increase or reduce the limits in the number of Directors. The first Directors of the Company shall be determined in writing by, or appointed by a resolution of, the Subscriber.

35 Powers of Directors

- 35.1 Subject to the provisions of the Statute, the Memorandum and the Articles and to any directions given by Special Resolution, the business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors who may exercise all the powers of the Company. No alteration of the Memorandum or these Articles and no such direction shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given. A duly convened meeting of Directors at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the Directors.
- 35.2 All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments and all receipts for monies paid to the Company shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed as the case may be in such manner as the Directors shall determine by resolution.
- 35.3 The Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money and to mortgage or charge its undertaking, property and uncalled capital or any part thereof and to issue debentures, debenture stock, mortgages, bonds and other such securities whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Directors shall not exercise the powers specified in this Article in breach of any limits or restrictions specified in the Offering Memorandum.

36 Appointment and Removal of Directors

- 36.1 The Company may, by Ordinary Resolution, appoint any person to be a Director and may, by Ordinary Resolution, remove any Director.
- 36.2 The Directors may appoint any person to be a Director, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional Director provided that the appointment does not cause the number of Directors to exceed any number fixed by or in accordance with these Articles as the maximum number of Directors.

37 Vacation of Office of Director

The office of a Director shall be vacated if:

- (a) the Director gives notice in writing to the Company that such Director resigns the office of Director;
- (b) the Director is absent (without being represented by proxy or an alternate Director appointed by such Director) from three consecutive meetings of the board of Directors without special leave of absence from the Directors, and they pass a resolution that such Director has by reason of such absence vacated office;
- (c) the Director dies, becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with such Director's creditors generally;
- (d) the Director is or becomes of unsound mind;
- (e) the Director ceases to be a Director by virtue of, or is prohibited from being a Director by, an order made pursuant to any law or regulation binding on the Company; or
- (f) all the other Directors of the Company (being not less than two in number) resolve that such Director should be removed as a Director.

38 Proceedings of Directors

- 38.1 The quorum for the transaction of the business of the Directors may be fixed by the Directors, and unless so fixed shall be two if there are two or more Directors, and shall be one if there is only one Director. A person who holds office as an alternate Director shall, if such person's appointor is not present, be counted in the quorum. A Director who also acts as an alternate Director shall, if such Director's appointor is not present, count twice towards the quorum.
- 38.2 Subject to the provisions of these Articles, the Directors may regulate their proceedings as they think fit. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman shall not have a second or casting vote. A Director who is also an alternate Director shall be entitled in the absence of such Director's appointor to a separate vote on behalf of such Director's appointor in addition to such Director's own vote.

- 38.3 A person may participate in a meeting of the Directors or any committee of Directors by conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all the persons participating in the meeting can communicate with each other at the same time. Participation by a person in a meeting in this manner is treated as presence in person at that meeting. Unless otherwise determined by the Directors, the meeting shall be deemed to be held at the place where the chairman is located at the start of the meeting.
- 38.4 A resolution in writing (in one or more counterparts) signed by all the Directors or all the members of a committee of Directors (an alternate Director being entitled to sign such a resolution on behalf of such alternate Director's appointor) shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Directors, or committee of Directors as the case may be, duly convened and held.
- 38.5 A Director or alternate Director may, or other officer of the Company at the direction of a Director or alternate Director may call a meeting of the Directors by at least two days' notice in writing to every Director and alternate Director which notice shall set forth the general nature of the business to be considered unless notice is waived by all the Directors (or their alternates) either at, before or after the meeting is held.
- 38.6 The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, but if and so long as their number is reduced below the number fixed by or pursuant to these Articles as the necessary quorum of Directors the continuing Directors or Director may act for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to that number, or of summoning a general meeting of the Company, but for no other purpose.
- 38.7 The Directors may elect a chairman of their board and determine the period for which the chairman is to hold office; but if no such chairman is elected, or if at any meeting the chairman is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the Directors present may choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
- 38.8 All acts done by any meeting of the Directors or of a committee of Directors (including any person acting as an alternate Director) shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any Director or alternate Director, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and qualified to be a Director or alternate Director as the case may be.
- 38.9 A Director but not an alternate Director may be represented at any meetings of the board of Directors by a proxy appointed in writing by such Director. The proxy shall count towards the quorum and the vote of the proxy shall for all purposes be deemed to be that of the appointing Director.

39 Presumption of Assent

A Director who is present at a meeting of the board of Directors at which action on any Company matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless the Director's dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless the Director shall file such

Director's written dissent from such action with the person acting as the chairman or secretary of the meeting before the close or adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by personal delivery, courier or registered post to such person immediately after the close or adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a Director who voted in favour of such action.

40 Directors' Interests

- 40.1 A Director may hold any other office or place of profit under the Company (other than the office of Auditor) in conjunction with such Director's office of Director for such period and on such terms as to remuneration and otherwise as the Directors may determine.
- 40.2 A Director may act alone or by such Director's firm in a professional capacity for the Company and the Director or such Director's firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if such Director were not a Director or alternate Director.
- 40.3 A Director or alternate Director of the Company may be or become a director or other officer of or otherwise interested in any company promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested as shareholder or otherwise, and no such Director or alternate Director shall be accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefits received by such Director or alternate Director as a director or officer of, or from such Director or alternate Director's interest in, such other company.
- 40.4 No person shall be disqualified from the office of Director or alternate Director or prevented by such office from contracting with the Company, either as vendor, purchaser or otherwise, nor shall any such contract or any contract or transaction entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director or alternate Director shall be in any way interested be or be liable to be avoided, nor shall any Director or alternate Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any such contract or transaction by reason of such Director holding office or of the fiduciary relationship thereby established. A Director (or such Director's alternate Director in such Director's absence) shall be at liberty to vote in respect of any contract or transaction in which such Director is interested provided that the nature of the interest of any Director or alternate Director in any such contract or transaction shall be disclosed by such Director at or prior to such Director's consideration and any vote thereon.
- 40.5 A general notice that a Director or alternate Director is a shareholder, director, officer or employee of any specified firm or company and is to be regarded as interested in any transaction with such firm or company shall be sufficient disclosure for the purposes of voting on a resolution in respect of a contract or transaction in which such Director has an interest, and after such general notice it shall not be necessary to give special notice relating to any particular transaction.

41 Minutes

The Directors shall cause minutes to be made in books kept for the purpose of recording all appointments of officers made by the Directors, all proceedings at meetings of the Company or the holders of any Class of Shares and of the Directors, and of committees of Directors including the names of the Directors or alternate Directors present at each meeting.

42 Delegation of Directors' Powers

- 42.1 The Directors may delegate any of their powers to any committee consisting of one or more Directors or such other persons as the Directors may designate. They may also delegate to any managing director or any Director holding any other executive office such of their powers as they consider desirable to be exercised by such managing director or any Director provided that an alternate Director may not act as managing director and the appointment of a managing director shall be revoked forthwith if such managing director ceases to be a Director. Any such appointment may be made subject to any conditions the Directors may impose, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers, and may be revoked or altered. Subject to any such conditions, the proceedings of a committee of Directors shall be governed by these Articles regulating the proceedings of Directors, so far as they are capable of applying.
- 42.2 The Directors may establish any committees, local boards or agencies or appoint any person to be a manager or agent for managing the affairs of the Company and may appoint any person to be a member of such committees or local boards. Any such appointment may be made either collaterally with or to the exclusion of the Directors' powers, shall be subject to any conditions the Directors may impose, and may be revoked or altered. Subject to any such conditions, the proceedings of any such committee, local board or agency shall be governed by these Articles regulating the proceedings of Directors, so far as they are capable of applying.
- 42.3 The Directors may by power of attorney or otherwise appoint any company, firm, person or body of persons to be the attorney or authorised signatory of the Company for such purpose and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Directors under these Articles) and for such period and subject to such conditions as they may think fit, and any such powers of attorney or other appointment may contain such provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with any such attorneys or authorised signatories as the Directors may think fit and may also authorise any such attorney or authorised person to delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in such attorney or authorised person.
- 42.4 The Directors may appoint such officers as they consider necessary on such terms, at such remuneration (if any) and to perform such duties, and subject to such provisions as to disqualification and removal as the Directors may think fit. Unless otherwise specified in the terms of such officer's appointment an officer may be removed by resolution of the Directors or Members.

43 Alternate Directors

- 43.1 Any Director (other than an alternate Director) may by written notice to the Company appoint any other Director, or any other person willing to act, to be an alternate Director and by written notice to the Company may remove from office an alternate Director so appointed by the Director.

- 43.2 An alternate Director shall be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of Directors and of meetings of committees of Directors of which such alternate Director's appointor is a member, to attend and vote at every such meeting at which the Director appointing such alternate Director is not personally present, and generally to perform all the functions of such alternate Director's appointor as a Director in such Director's absence.
- 43.3 An alternate Director shall cease to be an alternate Director if such alternate Director's appointor ceases to be a Director.
- 43.4 Any appointment or removal of an alternate Director shall be by notice to the Company signed by the Director making or revoking the appointment or in any other manner approved by the Directors.
- 43.5 Subject to the provisions of the Articles, an alternate Director shall be deemed for all purposes to be a Director and shall alone be responsible for such alternate Director's own acts and defaults and shall not be deemed to be the agent of the Director appointing such alternate Director.

44 No Minimum Shareholding for Directors

The Company in general meeting may fix a minimum shareholding required to be held by a Director, but unless and until such a shareholding qualification is fixed a Director shall not be required to hold Shares.

45 Remuneration of Directors

- 45.1 The remuneration to be paid to the Directors, if any, shall be such remuneration as the Directors shall determine. The Directors shall also be entitled to be paid all travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of Directors or committees of Directors, or general meetings of the Company, or separate meetings of the holders of any Class of Shares or debentures of the Company, or otherwise in connection with the business of the Company, or to receive a fixed allowance in respect thereof as may be determined by the Directors, or a combination partly of one such method and partly the other.
- 45.2 The Directors may by resolution approve additional remuneration to any Director for any services other than such Director's ordinary routine work as a Director. Any fees paid to a Director who is also counsel to the Company, or otherwise serves it in a professional capacity, shall be in addition to such Director's remuneration as a Director.

46 Seal

The Company may, if the Directors so determine, have a Seal, which shall only be used by the authority of the Directors or of a committee of the Directors authorised by the Directors. Every instrument to which the Seal has been affixed shall be signed by at least one person who shall be either a Director or some officer or other person authorised by the Directors for the purpose.

47 Dividends, Distributions and Reserves

- 47.1 Subject to the Statute, these Articles, and the special rights attaching to Participating Shares of any Class and/or Series, the Directors may, in their absolute discretion, declare dividends and distributions on Participating Shares of any Class and/or Series in issue and authorise payment of the dividends or distributions out of the relevant Separate Account in respect of such Participating Shares. No dividend or distribution shall be paid except out of the realised or unrealised profits of the Company, or out of the share premium account attributable to Participating Shares of the Class and/or Series in respect of which the dividend or distribution is proposed to be paid, or as otherwise permitted by law.
- 47.2 Except as otherwise provided by the rights attached to Participating Shares, or as otherwise determined by the Directors, all dividends and distributions in respect of Participating Shares of a particular Class and/or Series shall be declared and paid according to Net Asset Value of the Participating Shares of the Class and/or Series that a Member holds. If any Participating Share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend or distribution as from a particular date, that Participating Share shall rank for dividend or distribution accordingly.
- 47.3 The Directors may deduct and withhold from any dividend or distribution otherwise payable to any Member all sums of money (if any) then payable by it to the Company on account of calls or otherwise or any monies which the Company is obliged by law to pay to any taxing or other authority.
- 47.4 Under no circumstances may the assets (or the income derived from such assets) attributed to a Separate Account in respect of any Class and/or Series be used to pay a dividend in respect of a Separate Account that is attributed to any other Class and/or Series.
- 47.5 The Directors may declare that any dividend or distribution be paid wholly or partly by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of shares, debentures or securities of any other company or in any one or more of such ways and, where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution, the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient and in particular may issue fractional Shares and fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Members upon the basis of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all Members and may vest any such specific assets in trustees as may seem expedient to the Directors.
- 47.6 Any dividend, distribution, interest or other monies payable in cash in respect of Participating Shares may be paid by wire transfer to the holder or by cheque or warrant sent through the post directed to the registered address of the holder or, in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of the holder who is first named on the Register of Members or to such person and to such address as such holder or joint holders may in writing direct. Every such cheque or warrant shall (unless the Directors in their sole discretion otherwise determine) be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent. Any one of two or more joint holders may give effectual receipts for any dividends, bonuses, or other monies payable in respect of the Participating Share held by them as joint holders.

- 47.7 Any dividend or distribution which cannot be paid to a Member and/or which remains unclaimed after six months from the date of declaration of such dividend or distribution may, in the discretion of the Directors, be paid into a separate account in the Company's name, provided that the Company shall not be constituted as a trustee in respect of that account and the dividend or distribution shall remain as a debt due to the Member. Any dividend or distribution which remains unclaimed after a period of six years from the date of declaration of such dividend or distribution shall be forfeited and shall revert to the Company.
- 47.8 No dividend or distribution shall bear interest against the Company.

48 Capitalisation

The Directors may capitalise any sum standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts (including share premium account and capital redemption reserve) or any sum standing to the credit of profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution and to appropriate such sum to Members of any Class and/or Series in the proportions in which such sum would have been divisible amongst them had the same been a distribution of profits by way of dividend and to apply such sum on their behalf in paying up in full unissued Participating Shares for allotment and distribution credited as fully paid-up to and amongst them in the proportion aforesaid. In such event the Directors shall do all acts and things required to give effect to such capitalisation, with full power to the Directors to make such provisions as they think fit for the case of Participating Shares becoming distributable in fractions (including provisions whereby the benefit of fractional entitlements accrue to the Company rather than to the Members concerned). The Directors may authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the Company, on behalf of all of the Members interested, providing for such capitalisation and matters incidental thereto and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all concerned.

49 Books of Account

- 49.1 The Directors shall cause proper books of account (including, where applicable, material underlying documentation including contracts and invoices) to be kept with respect to all sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matters in respect of which the receipt or expenditure takes place, all sales and purchases of goods by the Company and the assets and liabilities of the Company. Such books of account must be retained for a minimum period of five years from the date on which they are prepared. Proper books shall not be deemed to be kept if there are not kept such books of account as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs and to explain its transactions.
- 49.2 The Directors shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations the accounts and books of the Company or any of them shall be open to the inspection of Members not being Directors and no Member (not being a Director) shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the Company except as conferred by Statute, or authorised by the Directors or by the Company in general meeting.

- 49.3 The Directors may from time to time cause to be prepared and to be laid before the Company in general meeting profit and loss accounts, balance sheets, group accounts (if any) and such other reports and accounts as may be required by law.

50 Audit

- 50.1 The Directors may appoint an Auditor of the Company who shall hold office on such terms as the Directors determine.
- 50.2 Every Auditor of the Company shall have a right of access at all times to the books and accounts and vouchers of the Company and shall be entitled to require from the Directors and officers of the Company such information and explanation as may be necessary for the performance of the duties of the Auditor.
- 50.3 Any Auditors of the Company shall, if so required by the Directors, make a report on the accounts of the Company during their tenure of office at the next annual general meeting following their appointment in the case of a company which is registered with the Registrar of Companies as an ordinary company, and at the next extraordinary general meeting following their appointment in the case of a company which is registered with the Registrar of Companies as an exempted company, and at any other time during their term of office, upon request of the Directors or any general meeting of the Members.

51 Notices

- 51.1 Notices shall be in writing and may be given by the Company to any Member either personally or by sending it by courier, post, cable, telex, fax or e-mail to the Member or to the address as shown in the Register of Members (or where the notice is given by e-mail by sending it to the e-mail address provided by such Member). Any notice, if posted from one country to another, is to be sent airmail.
- 51.2 Where a notice is sent by courier, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by delivery of the notice to a courier company, and shall be deemed to have been received on the third day (not including Saturdays or Sundays or public holidays) following the day on which the notice was delivered to the courier. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, pre paying and posting a letter containing the notice, and shall be deemed to have been received on the fifth day (not including Saturdays or Sundays or public holidays in the Cayman Islands) following the day on which the notice was posted. Where a notice is sent by cable, telex or fax, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing and sending such notice and shall be deemed to have been received on the same day that it was transmitted. Where a notice is given by e-mail service shall be deemed to be effected by transmitting the e-mail to the e-mail address provided by the intended recipient and shall be deemed to have been received on the same day that it was sent, and it shall not be necessary for the receipt of the e-mail to be acknowledged by the recipient.

- 51.3 A notice may be given by the Company to the person or persons which the Company has been advised are entitled to a Share or Shares in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member in the same manner as other notices which are required to be given under these Articles and shall be addressed to them by name, or by the title of representatives of the deceased, or trustee of the bankrupt, or by any like description at the address supplied for that purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled, or at the option of the Company by giving the notice in any manner in which the same might have been given if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred.
- 51.4 Notice of every general meeting shall be given in the manner authorised by these Articles to every person shown as holding Shares carrying an entitlement to receive such notice in the Register of Members on the record date for such meeting except that in the case of joint holders the notice shall be sufficient if given to the joint holder first named in the Register of Members and every person upon whom the ownership of a Share devolves by reason of such person being a legal personal representative or a trustee in bankruptcy of a Member where the Member but for such Member's death or bankruptcy would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting, and no other person shall be entitled to receive notices of general meetings.

52 Winding Up

- 52.1 If the Company shall be wound up the liquidator shall apply the assets of the Company in satisfaction of creditors' claims in such manner and order as such liquidator thinks fit. The liquidator shall in relation to the assets available for distribution among the Members make in the books of the Company such transfers thereof to and from Separate Accounts as may be necessary in order that the effective burden of such creditors' claims may be shared among the holders of Participating Shares of different Classes and/or Series in such proportions as the liquidator in such liquidator's absolute discretion may think equitable.
- 52.2 Subject to the special rights attaching to Participating Shares of any Class or Series, the balance shall then be applied in the following priority:
- (a) first, to the holders of Management Shares, an amount equal to the par value of such Management Shares; and
  - (b) second, the balance shall be paid to the holders of Participating Shares in proportion to the Net Asset Value of Participating Shares held, subject to a deduction from those Participating Shares in respect of which there are monies due, of all monies due to the Company for unpaid calls, or otherwise.
- 52.3 If the Company shall be wound up (whether the liquidation is voluntary or by or under the supervision of the Court) the liquidator may, with the authority of a resolution or resolutions passed by the holders of Participating Shares (whether as a whole or at separate Class meetings), divide among the Members in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the Company, and whether or not the assets shall consist of property of one kind or shall consist of property of different kinds, and may for such purposes set such value as the liquidator deems fair upon any one or more class or classes of property, and may determine how such division shall be carried out as between the Members or different classes of Members. The liquidator may, with the like authority, vest any part of the assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of Members as the liquidator, with the like authority, shall think fit, and the liquidation of the Company may be closed and the Company dissolved, but so that no Member shall be compelled to accept any shares or other property in respect of which there is a liability.

53 Indemnity and Insurance

- 53.1 Every Director and officer of the Company (which for the avoidance of doubt, shall not include any Auditor), together with every former Director and former officer of the Company (each an "Indemnified Person") shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against any liability, action, proceeding, claim, demand, costs, damages or expenses, including legal expenses, whatsoever which they or any of them may incur as a result of any act or failure to act in carrying out their functions other than such liability (if any) that they may incur by reason of their own actual fraud, wilful default or Gross Negligence. No Indemnified Person shall be liable to the Company for any loss or damage incurred by the Company as a result (whether direct or indirect) of the carrying out of their functions unless that liability arises through the actual fraud, wilful default or Gross Negligence of such Indemnified Person. No person shall be found to have committed actual fraud, wilful default or Gross Negligence under this Article unless or until a court of competent jurisdiction shall have made a finding to that effect.
- 53.2 The Company shall advance to each Indemnified Person reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs and expenses incurred in connection with the defence of any action, suit, proceeding or investigation involving such Indemnified Person for which indemnity will or could be sought. In connection with any advance of any expenses hereunder, the Indemnified Person shall execute an undertaking to repay the advanced amount to the Company if it shall be determined by final judgment or other final adjudication that such Indemnified Person was not entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Article. If it shall be determined by a final judgment or other final adjudication that such Indemnified Person was not entitled to indemnification with respect to such judgment, costs or expenses, then such party shall not be indemnified with respect to such judgment, costs or expenses and any advancement shall be returned to the Company (without interest) by the Indemnified Person.
- 53.3 The Directors, on behalf of the Company, may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of any Director or other officer of the Company against any liability which, by virtue of any rule of law, would otherwise attach to such person in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust of which such person may be guilty in relation to the Company.
- 53.4 Pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Company may enter into a service or other agreement with any Director (or any entity providing one or more persons to the Company to act as Directors) upon such terms and conditions (including as to indemnification and exculpation) as the Directors shall, in their absolute discretion, determine. Any such indemnification and exculpation provisions may be specified to a standard equal to or more favourable (but not less favourable) to the Company than any standard specified in these Articles.

54 Disclosure

If required to do so under the laws of any jurisdiction to which the Company, the Investment Manager, the Administrator or any other service provider is subject, or in compliance with the rules of any stock exchange upon which the Company's Shares are listed, or to ensure the compliance by any person with any anti-money laundering law in any relevant jurisdiction, any Director, Officer, the Investment Manager, the Administrator or Auditor of the Company shall be entitled to release or disclose any information in its possession regarding the affairs of the Company or a Member including, without limitation, any information contained in the Register of Members or subscription documentation of the Company relating to any Member.

55 Financial Year

Unless the Directors otherwise prescribe, the financial year of the Company shall end on 31st December in each year and, following the year of incorporation, shall begin on 1st January in each year.

56 Transfer by way of Continuation

The Company shall, subject to the provisions of the Statute and with the approval of a Special Resolution, have the power to register by way of continuation as a body corporate under the laws of any jurisdiction outside the Cayman Islands and to be deregistered in the Cayman Islands.

57 Mergers and Consolidations

The Company shall, with the approval of a Special Resolution, have the power to merge or consolidate with one or more constituent companies (as defined in the Statute), upon such terms as the Directors may determine.

1. Appointment.

The Clients hereby appoint the Investment Manager as investment manager with respect to the assets and liabilities of the Domestic Fund and the Investment Manager hereby accepts such appointment and agrees to perform its obligations in accordance with the terms hereof and of the Fourth Amended and Restated Limited Partnership Agreement of the Domestic Fund, dated effective as of November 1, 2014, as amended from time to time (the “Domestic Fund Partnership Agreement”), and the investment objectives, policies,

2. Authority and Duties of the Investment Manager.

- (a) All of the investable assets of the Offshore Fund must be invested in, and the investment program of the Offshore Fund is to be conducted by the Investment Manager through, the Domestic Fund. The Investment Manager will exercise no discretion with respect to the investment of the assets of the Offshore Fund and the investment activities of the Investment Manager will be conducted at the Domestic Fund level as the investment manager to the Domestic Fund.
- (b) The Domestic Fund’s investment program will be conducted by the Investment Manager in accordance with the PPM.
- (c) The Investment Manager serves as the investment manager to the Domestic Fund and in that capacity has full discretion and authority, without obtaining the prior approval of any officer or other agent of the Domestic Fund:
  - (i) to continuously supervise the investment program of the Domestic Fund and the composition of its investment portfolio including, without limitation, determining from time to time what investments will be purchased, retained or sold, what contracts will be entered into by the Domestic Fund and what portion of its assets will be retained as cash, and to engage consultants and analysts in connection therewith; to cause the Domestic Fund to purchase or sell any asset, enter into any other investment-related transaction, including (directly or through subsidiaries or affiliates of the Domestic Fund) borrowing money, entering into swap transactions, lending securities, exercising control over a company, exercising voting or approval rights and selecting brokers and dealers for execution of portfolio transactions; and to undertake to do anything incidental to the foregoing to facilitate the performance of its obligations hereunder;
  - (ii) to invest within or outside the United States of America in “Investments” (as defined in, and subject to the provisions of, the Domestic Fund Limited Partnership Agreement);
  - (iii) to effect any and all transactions in Investments, including collateralized loan obligations, asset-backed securities, commodities, total return swaps, credit default swaps, synthetic securities and other financial instruments and assets (and options and other contracts thereon), and everything connected therewith in the broadest sense, including, without limitation, the full discretion and authority to make short sales, to purchase or write options (including uncovered options) and to trade on margin;

- (iv) to, on behalf of the Clients, exercise all rights, powers, privileges and other incidents of ownership or possession with respect to the Investments and other property and funds held or owned by the Domestic Fund, including without limitation the right to possess, lend, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise deal in, and to secure the payment of obligations of the Domestic Fund by mortgage upon, or hypothecation or pledge of, all or part of the property of the Domestic Fund, whether at the time owned or thereafter acquired, and to vote Investments, participate in arrangements with creditors, institute and settle or compromise suits and administrative proceedings and other similar matters;
- (v) to select brokers, dealers, banks and other intermediaries by or through whom such transactions will be executed or carried out and to open, maintain and close accounts with brokers, which power shall include the authority to issue all instructions and authorizations to brokers regarding securities and money therein and to cause the Domestic Fund to pay, or authorize the payment and reimbursement of, brokerage commissions;
- (vi) to open, maintain and close bank accounts and authorize the drawing of checks or other orders for the payment of monies;
- (vii) to borrow or raise monies or utilize any other forms of leverage and to issue, accept, endorse and execute promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange, warrants, bonds, debentures and other negotiable or non-negotiable instruments and evidences of indebtedness and otherwise to utilize any lines of credit, credit balances or overdraft privileges available to the Domestic Fund;
- (viii) to value the Client's assets as of the close of each fiscal period and any other date selected by the respective Client;
- (ix) to direct any administrator of the Clients, banks, brokers or other custodians to effect deliveries of funds or assets, but only in the course of effecting portfolio transactions for the account of the Clients;
- (x) to remove or replace any administrator of the Clients and/or any accountant of the Clients at any time; and
- (xi) to make and execute all such documents and to take all such other actions as the Investment Manager considers necessary or appropriate to carry out its investment management duties hereunder.

- (d) In furtherance of the foregoing, the Board of Directors, on behalf of the Offshore Fund, and the General Partner, on behalf of the Domestic Fund, has delegated certain rights and responsibilities with respect to the operation of their respective partnerships and funds to the Investment Manager, as more fully set forth in the Governing Documents.
- (e) Each Client hereby designates the Investment Manager as the commodity pool operator (the “CPO”) for such Client with complete authority and responsibility for compliance with the U.S. Commodity Exchange Act and the regulations promulgated thereunder, including to perform any and all duties required of a CPO (i) that is exempt from registration under the regulations of the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission (the “CFTC”) and (ii) that is in compliance with CFTC Rule 4.13(a)(3), including the filing of a notice of exemption under said Rule 4.13(a)(3) with the CFTC.
- (f) Additionally, each of the Clients hereby designates and appoints the Investment Manager as its agent and attorney-in-fact, with full power and authority and without the need for further approval of the Clients (except as may be required by law) to complete and execute all such documents and to take any and all actions that the Investment Manager, in its discretion, may deem advisable to carry out the foregoing with respect to the assets of the Clients; provided, however, that the Investment Manager is not intended to have actual or constructive custody of any assets of the Clients. In connection with any of the foregoing, the Investment Manager is further authorized to transfer or tender for cash or exchange such assets. In all such purchases, sales or trades the Clients authorize the Investment Manager to act for the Clients, and at their risk, and in their name and on their behalf, in the same manner and with the same force and effect as the Clients might or could do with respect to such purchases, sales or trades without prior consultation with the Clients. The Clients also appoint the Investment Manager as their agent and attorney-in-fact to vote, and to execute proxies, waivers, consents and other instruments with respect to, the assets of the Clients.
- (g) At the request of a Client, in any wind down of such Client, the Investment Manager will manage the realization of the Client’s assets and the distribution thereof to investors.
- (h) In connection with the execution of transactions on behalf of the Domestic Fund, the Domestic Fund hereby acknowledges and agrees that in the course of selecting brokers, dealers, futures commission merchants, banks and financial intermediaries to effect transactions for the Domestic Fund’s account, the Investment Manager may agree to such commissions, fees and other charges on behalf of the Domestic Fund’s account as it may deem reasonable in the circumstances, taking into consideration all such factors as the Investment Manager deems relevant, including the following: the ability to effect prompt and reliable executions at favorable prices; the operational efficiency with which transactions are effected; the financial strength, integrity and stability of the broker; the quality, comprehensiveness and frequency of available research and other services considered to be of value; and the competitiveness of commission rates in comparison with other brokers satisfying the Investment Manager's other selection criteria. It is understood that the costs of such services will not necessarily represent the lowest costs available and that the Investment Manager is under no obligation to combine or arrange orders so as to obtain reduced charges.

3. Fees and Expenses.

- (a) For its services to the Domestic Fund, the Domestic Fund will pay the Investment Manager the Management Fee (as defined in the Domestic Fund Partnership Agreement), calculated and payable monthly in advance. The Investment Manager may waive or reduce the management fees with respect to capital account and capital sub-accounts of the Domestic Fund in its discretion.
- (b) The Clients will pay, or will reimburse the Investment Manager, for all costs and expenses arising in connection with their operations, including without limitation, with respect to the Domestic Fund, all costs and expenses directly related to portfolio investments or prospective investments (whether or not consummated) of the Domestic Fund.
- (c) The Clients will not have their own separate employees or office, and they will not reimburse the Investment Manager for salaries, office rent and other general overhead costs of the Investment Manager. The Investment Manager will pay all of its own operating and overhead costs (except liability insurance) without reimbursement by the Clients. The Investment Manager is entitled to reimbursement from the Clients for any expenses paid by it on behalf of the Clients; provided that, the Investment Manager in its sole discretion may absorb any or all of such expenses incurred on behalf of the Clients. If the Investment Manager incurs any such expenses for the account of the Clients and any Customers (as defined below), the Investment Manager will allocate such expenses among the Clients and each such Customer in proportion to the size of the investment made by each in the activity or entity to which the expense relates, or in such other manner as the Investment Manager in its sole discretion considers fair and reasonable.

4. Other Activities and Investments.

- (a) The Investment Manager is not required to devote its full time to the affairs of the Clients, but must devote such of its time to the business and affairs of the Clients as it may determine, in its discretion exercised in good faith, to be necessary to conduct the affairs of the Clients for the benefit of the Clients, the shareholders of the Offshore Fund and the partners of the Domestic Fund. Subject to this limitation, the Investment Manager, its partners and principals and their affiliates are not precluded from engaging in or owning an interest in other business ventures or investment activities of any kind. It is expressly understood that the Investment Manager and its affiliates may effect investment transactions for their own accounts and for the accounts of other customers (generally, "Customers"), and the Clients further understand and agree that nothing herein restricts the ability of the Investment Manager and its affiliates to engage in any such transactions notwithstanding the fact that the Clients may enter into or engage in such transactions so long as such transactions are in the best interests of the Clients.

- (b) The Investment Manager will act in a manner that it considers fair, reasonable and equitable in allocating investment opportunities to the Clients. It is understood that when the Investment Manager determines that it would be appropriate for the Clients and one or more of the Customers to participate in an investment opportunity, the Investment Manager will seek to execute orders for, or otherwise allocate such opportunities to, the Clients and such Customers on an equitable basis. In such situations, the Investment Manager may place orders for the Clients and each Customer simultaneously, and if all such orders are not filled at the same price, the Investment Manager may cause the Clients and each Customer to pay or receive the average of the prices at which such orders were filled for the Clients and all other Customers. If all such orders cannot be fully executed under prevailing market conditions, the Investment Manager may allocate among the Clients and the Customers the investments traded in a manner which the Investment Manager considers equitable, taking into account the size of the order placed for the Clients and each such Customer as well as any other factors which the Investment Manager deems relevant.

5. Account and Other Information.

- (a) The Investment Manager must furnish such information concerning activities undertaken for the account of the Clients as the Clients may reasonably request.
- (b) The Clients agree to keep confidential and not to disclose to any person any information or matter relating to the Clients' investments (other than disclosure to the Clients' shareholders, partners, directors and employees, legal counsel, administrator, registrar and accountant in connection with the preparation and review of financial statements and with the filing of any tax returns or to any other person approved in writing by the Investment Manager (each such person being hereinafter referred to as an "Authorized Representative")); provided that the Clients and their Authorized Representatives may make such disclosure to the extent that (x) the information to be disclosed is publicly known at the time of proposed disclosure by the Clients or Authorized Representative, (y) the information otherwise is or becomes legally known to the Clients other than through disclosure by the Investment Manager or (z) such disclosure is required by law or in response to any governmental agency request or in connection with an examination by any regulatory authorities, provided that such agency, regulatory authorities or association is aware of the confidential nature of the information disclosed. Prior to making any disclosure required by law, the Clients will use their best efforts to notify the Investment Manager of such disclosure. Prior to any disclosure to any Authorized Representative, the Clients must advise such Authorized Representative of the obligations set forth in this Section 5(b) and are responsible for any breach of these obligations made by an Authorized Representative.

- (c) The Investment Manager retains, or arranges for the retention of, for a period of at least 5 years, copies of any documents generated or received by the Investment Manager in the ordinary course of business pertaining to the financial condition of the account of the Clients or to the compensation payable to the Investment Manager. At the request of the Clients, the Investment Manager will afford to the Clients' independent auditors reasonable access to such documents during customary business hours and will permit the Clients' auditors to make copies thereof or extracts therefrom at the expense of the Clients.

6. Custody.

The assets of the Clients must be held in the custody of one or more custodians (or other independent institutions performing the functions of custodian, with respect to the assets which are held by such institutions) selected by the Investment Manager. The Investment Manager will notify the Clients promptly of the proposed selection of any custodians.

7. Scope of Liability.

The Clients agree that the Investment Manager is not liable to the Clients or any of their partners or shareholders for any losses, damages, expenses or claims occasioned by any act or omission of the Investment Manager in connection with the performance of its services hereunder, other than as a result of the Investment Manager's willful misconduct, fraud or gross negligence, or as otherwise prescribed by applicable law. The Clients explicitly recognize that the investment advisory opinions, recommendations and actions of the Investment Manager will be based on advice and information deemed to be reliable but not guaranteed by or to the Investment Manager.

8. Indemnification.

- (a) The Clients must indemnify and hold harmless the Investment Manager, each member, shareholder, partner, manager or director of, or any person who controls, the Investment Manager, each of the respective affiliates of the foregoing and each of the respective executors, heirs, assigns, successors or other legal representatives of the foregoing (each, an "indemnitee") from and against any expense, loss, liability or damage arising out of any claim asserted or threatened to be asserted against such indemnitee in connection with the Investment Manager's serving or having served as such pursuant to this Agreement; provided, however, that the indemnitee is not entitled to any such indemnification with respect to any expense, loss, liability or damage that was caused by the indemnitee's willful misconduct, fraud or gross negligence.
- (b) In the event that the Investment Manager or any other indemnitee entitled to indemnification pursuant to paragraph (a) above is or becomes a party to any action or proceeding in respect of which, or there otherwise exists a claim pursuant to which, it may be entitled to seek indemnification hereunder, the indemnitee must promptly notify the respective Client thereof. The respective Client is entitled to participate in any such suit or proceeding and, to the extent that it may wish, to assume the defense thereof with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the indemnitee. After notice of an election by the Client so to assume the defense thereof, the Client will not be liable to the indemnitee hereunder for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by the indemnitee in connection with the defense thereof other than reasonable costs of investigation or reasonable legal expenses incurred as a result of (i) potential conflicts of interest between the indemnitee and the Client or (ii) the protection of proprietary or privacy interests of other clients of or parties in interest with the indemnitee. The Client must advance to the indemnitee the reasonable costs and expenses of investigating and/or defending such claim, subject to receiving a written undertaking from the indemnitee to repay such amounts if and to the extent of any subsequent determination by a court or other tribunal of competent jurisdiction that the indemnitee was not entitled to indemnification hereunder.

- (c) A Client is not liable hereunder for any settlement of any action or claim effected without its written consent thereto.

9. Independent Contractor.

For all purposes of this Agreement, the Investment Manager is an independent contractor and not an employee or dependent agent of any Client. Nothing herein is to be construed as making any Client a partner or co-venturer with the Investment Manager or any of its affiliates or Customers. Except as provided in this Agreement, the Investment Manager has no authority to bind, obligate or represent the Clients.

10. Term; Termination; Renewal.

- (a) This Agreement will remain in full force and effect for a period commencing on the date first above written and ending on December 31, 2014, and thereafter will renew automatically for successive one-year periods. This Agreement may be terminated by any party hereto, without penalty, upon 75 days' prior written notice to the other parties.
- (b) The termination of this Agreement does not extinguish the obligations of the Clients for the payment of fees and expenses in respect of services rendered by the Investment Manager prior to the effective date of such termination.

11. Acknowledgement.

Each of the Clients certifies and acknowledges to the Investment Manager that it:

- (i) has fully disclosed to potential investors the fee provisions and other arrangements relating to the Client's account with the Investment Manager and is satisfied that the potential investors have received sufficient information from the Investment Manager to enable them to evaluate the terms of this Agreement; and
- (ii) fully understands the method of compensation provided herein and its associated risks, including the risk that the performance compensation arrangements with affiliates of the Investment Manager may create an incentive for the Investment Manager to engage in transactions that are riskier or more speculative than would be the case in the absence of performance compensation and that such risk has been disclosed to potential investors.

12. Amendment; Modification; Waiver.

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, this Agreement may not be amended, nor may any provision of this Agreement be considered modified or waived, unless evidenced by a writing signed by the party to be charged with such amendment, waiver or modification.

13. Binding Effect; Assignment.

This Agreement is binding upon and inures to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors, but the rights and obligations hereunder are not, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, assignable, transferable or delegable without the written consent of the other parties hereto and any attempted assignment, transfer or delegation thereof without such consent is null and void, except that the Investment Manager may assign its rights and obligations hereunder to an entity that controls, is controlled by or is under common control with the Investment Manager; provided, however, that such entity assumes the obligations of the Investment Manager hereunder.

14. Governing Law.

This Agreement is governed by and construed in accordance with the substantive laws of the State of Delaware which are applicable to contracts made and entirely to be performed therein, without regard to the place of performance hereunder.

CAYMAN HOTEL AND GOLF INCORPORATED v. RESORT GEMS LIMITED

GRAND COURT (Smellie, Ag. J.): July 6th, 1993

Civil Procedure—joinder of parties—party who “ought to have been joined”—Grand Court (Civil Procedure) Rules, r.26 permits joinder of defendant who ought to have been joined at commencement of proceedings only if established link between original cause of action and that against party to be joined—joinder not permitted for purpose of expanding original cause, e.g. to join party not privy to contract forming subject of original cause Civil Procedure—pleading—amendment—application to amend under Rules of Supreme Court, O.20, r.5 to be decided on merits and effect on action against original defendant—normally allowed unless applicant causing injury for which no compensation or acting mala fide—inconsistent, useless or futile claims or those constituting new cause of action not permitted

Landlord and Tenant—characteristics of relationship—exclusivity—if landlord/tenant relationship and remedy for breach comprehensively covered by lease agreement, court will not impose equitable or agency relationship—court will also not impose duties not strictly and necessarily incidental to relationship expressly created by parties

Landlord and Tenant—breach of covenant—forfeiture—notice—Registered Land Law (Revised), s.56 requirements for notice before forfeiture applicable only if breach capable of remedy

The plaintiff sought leave to amend its writ and statement of claim in an action against the defendant for breach of a lease.

The plaintiff leased premises to the defendant for the operation of its jewellery retail business. The form of lease was based on a Canadian model and provided for the payment of an annual basic rent and an annual percentage rent based on sales. The lease contained extensive provisions dealing with the defendant’s obligations to report and account to the plaintiff and specified the relief available in the event of breach of those provisions.

The defendant failed to keep full and faithful records and refused to comply with the directions of an independent auditor engaged by the plaintiff to obtain a reconstruction or compilation of those records. The plaintiff also obtained evidence of at least one sale of a valuable item which had not been recorded. The plaintiff claimed forfeiture of the lease and gave notice to that effect. It brought proceedings for recovery of possession and for rent claiming that the defendant had repudiated the lease.

The plaintiff subsequently sought leave to amend its writ and statement of claim (a) to add four more defendants who it alleged conspired with and facilitated or assisted the defendant in its falsification of accounts and disclosures; (b) to plead claims against those defendants; and (c) to effect substantial amendments of the pleadings against the primary defendant to include inter alia a claim for an account from the defendant to ascertain the amount owed to it, a claim for a declaration that the lease was duly forfeited and a claim in the alternative for damages for breach of the covenant to pay rent.

The plaintiff submitted that (a) the joinder of the additional defendants was permitted under r.26 of the Grand Court (Civil Procedure) Rules because the proper test was whether they could have been joined in some way at the time the original action was brought irrespective of whether they could have been joined in the action as it was actually brought. Accordingly, though the original action sought recovery of possession and mesne profits from the defendant, it could have instituted proceedings in damages at the same time against the other parties for having procured and conspired with the defendant to breach the lease; (b) the justification for giving leave to amend to include a claim for an account from the defendant consisted in the fiduciary relationship of principal and agent which should be implied as existing between it and the defendant having regard to the lease agreement which demanded a duty of trust from the defendant as tenant; further, an action for an account was an established remedy available to a principal against his agent in lieu of damages; (d) it was entitled to forfeit the lease on the basis that the breach was incapable of being remedied; and (e) it was entitled to make an alternative claim for damages for breach of the covenant to pay rent.

The defendant submitted in reply that (a) the joinder of the proposed defendants under r.26 was not permissible as they were not party to any contract with the plaintiff; (b) the court had no jurisdiction to permit the plaintiff to amend its writ and statement of claim to include new causes of action or inconsistent or useless amendments; (c) no fiduciary relationship existed between itself and the plaintiff; theirs was strictly a relationship of landlord and tenant to be governed by the clearly express terms of the lease; and (d) the plaintiff’s application should be dismissed in its entirety for the most important reason that the cause of action was bound to fail, for though it might have breached the lease, that breach was not irremediable. Accordingly, by virtue of s.56 of the Registered Land Law (Revised) it was entitled to notice requiring it to remedy the breach. As there had been no such proper notice nor any proper demand to remedy, the forfeiture was wrong in law and the cause of action based on it, for recovery of possession, rent and, latterly, damages, could not succeed. Further, the lease was still intact despite the plaintiff's claim to forfeiture.

Held, granting the application in part:

(1) The Grand Court (Civil Procedure) Rules, r.26 provided for the

joinder of defendants who ought to have been joined at the commencement of the proceedings where there was an established link between the original cause and the cause against those to be joined. It did not permit joinder for the purpose of expanding the original cause of action. Since the original action between the plaintiff and the defendant was based on the lease agreement between them as landlord and tenant and the plaintiff's claim to recovery of possession and mesne profits arising from the defendant's breach, there could have been no other parties to the action as instituted because privity of contract existed only between those two (page 381, lines 13–15; lines 21–28; page 383, line 37 – page 384, line 9).

(2) In general, a plaintiff's application to amend pleadings to vary or add claims was to be decided on the merits to the extent that they might affect the action brought against the original defendant. The applicable principles were embodied in the Rules of the Supreme Court, O.20, r.5, by which amendments should normally be allowed unless it was apparent that the plaintiff applicant was acting mala fide or that by his omission or by the amendment he had done or would cause injury to his opponent which could not be compensated for by costs or otherwise; a plaintiff would not be permitted to raise entirely new claims amounting to a new cause of action or those that were inconsistent or useless or which sought to support a case that was bound to fail (page 385, line 27 – page 386, line 26).

(3) The court should not search for liability in tort or in equity where the parties were in a contractual relationship and this was particularly so in commercial relationships. More specifically it should not impose duties which were not strictly and necessarily incidental to that relationship. Since the lease agreement between the parties was a commercial transaction and it specified expressly and comprehensively their intentions with regard to the defendant's duties as well as an appropriate remedy for breach of the agreement, the court would not invoke the rules of equity so as to impose a relationship where there was no true need for the special protection that equity afforded. Similarly, no relationship of principal and agent could be found in what was strictly a landlord and tenant relationship. Furthermore, the proposition that the court should impose a fiduciary duty on the defendant because of the self-dealing manner in which he had breached the agreement was not acceptable since the equitable rules about self-dealing were based on a pre-existing fiduciary duty. Accordingly, no separate fiduciary duty on the defendant to account was to be implied from their relationship and the plaintiff's application to amend the pleadings on this basis would therefore be refused (page 387, lines 12–30; page 388, line 28 – page 389, line 36).

(4) The plaintiff had satisfied the court that it had a good, arguable case for forfeiture on the merits since even though it had omitted to address the question of whether the defendant's breach could be remedied, it was at least objectively arguable that it should be entitled to treat the circumstances existing at the time it purported to forfeit the case as irremediable because (a) the defendant's falsifications were deliberate; (b) its failure to assist the independent auditor betrayed an intention to continue its dissemblance; and (c) the continued performance of the lease depended on the good faith and willingness of the defendant, not only to remedy the breach but also to keep faithful accounts and make full and frank disclosure of sales and income. Although s.56 of the Registered Land Law (Revised) and its requirements for proper notice superseded any provisions in the lease to the contrary, the section would apply only if it were to be determined on the facts that the breaches were capable of remedy. Since the plaintiff's contention was that the breach was irremediable and repudiatory and entitled him to repudiate the lease without notice, it should be allowed to present that claim for determination on its merits. Given the interlocutory nature of these proceedings, the plaintiff needed to show no more than that it had a good, arguable case in this respect. Accordingly, the leave to amend would be granted to include the claim for a declaration that the lease had been duly forfeited (page 390, lines 3–10; page 390, line 21 – page 392, line 20; page 392, lines 33–41).

(5) Leave would also be granted to include a claim in the alternative for damages for breach of the covenant to pay rent. This was sustainable in light of the evidence of at least one instance in which the defendant had failed to declare the sale of a valuable item which would have generated income to be assessed for percentage rent (page 393, lines 14–19).

10 SMELLIE, Ag. J.: By summons dated March 1st, 1993 the landlord/plaintiff sought leave to re-amend its writ and statement of claim in this matter to achieve three main objectives. The first was to add parties—the proposed second to fifth defendants. The second was to plead claims against those additional defendants and the third, to effect consequential amendments of the pleadings against the original defendant. Submissions were taken on March 31st, April 1st and April 5th and an order made on April 16th, 1993 with written reasons to be delivered at a later date. These are the reasons.

15 The original parties stand in the position of landlord and tenant by virtue of a lease dated August 16th, 1990. In the action the plaintiff’s case is that the tenant/defendant has falsified records of accounts and disclosures required to be respectively kept and made by the defendant pursuant to the lease and that the defendant has falsified those records in order to deprive the plaintiff of rents lawfully due under the lease. The proposed additional defendants are parties who, the plaintiff alleges, conspired with and actually facilitated or assisted the defendant in 20 its falsification of the accounts and disclosures.

25 The lease is not typical of the forms in use in this jurisdiction and I am informed by counsel that it follows a Canadian model. It is unusual in that, among other things, it includes a provision for “annual percentage rent” as well as a provision for “basic rent.” Central to the dispute is the issue whether the defendant has made full and frank disclosure as to its income from sales as the basis for arriving at the annual percentage rent.

30 Article III of the lease contains the following provisions:

“3.01 Basic rent

35 The tenant shall pay to the landlord in each lease year $45,000 per annum (in this lease referred to as ‘basic rent’) by equal monthly instalments in advance, commencing upon the commencement date and on the first day of each calendar month thereafter during the term (provided that if the term commences on a day which is not the first day of a calendar month, then the instalment of basic rent payable on the commencement date for the broken portion of the calendar month at the beginning of the term shall be calculated at a rate per day of 1/365 of the annual basic rent).

3.02 Percentage rent

5 The tenant shall pay to the landlord in each lease year during the term the annual percentage rent for such lease year. Such annual percentage rent shall be payable in monthly instalments of estimated monthly percentage rent which shall be payable 20 days after the close of each 10 calendar month in each and every lease year (including any portion of a calendar month at the commencement of the term if the term commences on a day other than the first day of a calendar month) the amount of such estimated monthly percentage rent to be calculated by the tenant and accom 15 panied by a statement certified as correct by the tenant showing in such detail as the landlord shall reasonably require, the amount of gross revenue for such calendar month and the amount of estimated monthly percentage rent payable.

3.03 Adjustment of annual percentage rent

20 Within 120 days after the end of each lease year the tenant shall deliver to the landlord a statement in writing and certified by the tenant, and which shall also be certified as being audited by an independent chartered accountant acceptable to the landlord, setting forth accurately and with reasonable 25 detail and particulars and in such form as the landlord may require the gross revenue both monthly and in the aggregate, for such lease year and its annual percentage rent payable for such lease year. If the aggregate annual percentage rent set forth in such statement differs from the annual percentage 30 rent set forth in such statement, the tenant shall pay or the landlord shall refund the difference within 30 days after such statement is provided.” [Emphasis supplied.]

In the definitions in Article I, the following appears:

35 “ ‘Annual percentage rent’ means 6% of gross revenue plus 1.5% of extraordinary off premises revenue (derived from sales by the tenant of stock kept on the leased premises or sold off-premises having been placed for display on the leased premises) minus the basic rent. Annual percentage rent shall only be payable in the event such calculation from 40 time to time produces a net positive figure.”

By virtue of those provisions the plaintiff claims that special duties and responsibilities are created and are owed to him by the defendant and that they give rise to an implied relationship of trust which is not to be found in an ordinary lease where liabilities for rent are essentially stipulated as a pre-determined sum. Here 5 the plaintiff argues that the lease contains covenants that the tenant must keep proper accounts of its income in order to ensure that the proper amounts of annual percentage rent are known and payable to the plaintiff.

A most important issue centered on this argument. It is 10 whether this implied relationship of trust is so germane to the landlord/tenant relationship in this lease that the manner in which it was dishonoured by the tenant gave rise to an irremediable breach of the lease. If so the consequence would be that the plaintiff should be entitled to claim that the lease has been duly 15 forfeited and in the manner which the plaintiff has purported to do so in a letter and notice which it sent to the defendant dated November 17th, 1992.

The plaintiff having raised these allegations of breach of contract and breach of faith, the court was invited by counsel for 20 the defendant to reject any suggestion of fraudulent conduct on the part of the defendant as fraud had not been specifically pleaded at the outset. Instead, and without any admission on the part of his client, counsel for the defendant invited the court to make the following assumptions for the purposes of the hearing
25 of this summons that (a) there is no dispute as to the tenant’s contractual obligations to pay basic rent and annual percentage rent, although the amount owed may be disputed; (b) there is no dispute that the tenant is in breach of the lease in not having kept full and faithful records as required by Articles 3:03, 3:04 and
30 3:05 of the lease; (c) despite efforts on the part of the landlord to obtain a reconstruction or compilation of the records of the revenue of the defendant, through an independent auditor engaged for the purpose by the landlord, the tenant had failed to comply with the directions of the auditor to provide names and
35 addresses of customers from whom verification of sales transactions might be obtained, and that such verification was essential to that exercise of reconstruction or compilation of the records; and (d) in at least one instance a certain named customer had purchased an expensive item of jewellery from the tenants’ on-
40 premises shop and that the tenant had failed to declare that item of revenue for the purposes of the accounting records.

Despite those assumptions which I was invited to make, counsel for the defendant submitted ultimately that the plaintiff’s application on his summons should be dismissed in its entirety for the most important reason that the cause of action was bound to fail. This submission was based on the position taken by the defendant that though it may have breached the lease, those breaches were not irremediable; it was entitled to notice requiring it to remedy them; and as there was no such proper notice nor any proper demand to remedy, the forfeiture was wrong in law and the cause of action based on it, for recovery of possession, rent and, latterly, damages, could not succeed. Further, that the lease was still intact despite the landlord’s claim to forfeiture. The landlord’s claim was therefore bound to fail.

For the reasons which will follow, I was unable to accept the defendant’s submissions that the plaintiff will inevitably fail to establish that it was entitled to forfeit the lease. Although that is the central issue underlying the action as it stands between the plaintiff and the defendant, the plaintiff sought leave by its summons to do a number of things, some of which were allowed by my order of April 16th and others disallowed. I will proceed to set out my reasons for the order in respect of each issue separately.

(A) Application for leave to re-amend to join the proposed second, third, fourth and fifth defendants. Leave refused.

For the purposes of joinder of defendants to an existing cause of action, rr. 25 and 26 of the Grand Court (Civil Procedure) Rules are applicable. The text of the rules is as follows:

“25. All persons may be joined as defendants against whom the right of any relief is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally or in the alternative, and any judgment may be given against such one or more of the defendants as may be found to be liable, according to their respective liabilities, without any amendment.

26. No cause or matter shall be defeated by reason of the misjoinder or nonjoinder of parties and the Court may in every cause or matter deal with the matter in controversy so far as regards the rights and interests of the parties actually before it. The Court may, at any stage of the proceedings, either upon or without the application of any party and upon such terms as may seem just, order the names of any parties improperly joined, whether as plaintiffs or defendants, to be struck out and the names of any parties added who ought to have been joined, whether as plaintiffs or defendants, or whose presence before the Court may be necessary to enable the Court effectually and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions involved in the cause or matter:

Provided that no person shall be added as a plaintiff, or as the next friend of a plaintiff under a disability, without his own consent in writing thereto.” [Emphasis supplied.]

Rule 25 deals with the joinder of defendants in a single action. Rule 26 addresses the principles and circumstances which determine the joinder of a party to proceedings already instituted. As to joinder of plaintiffs or defendants, r.26 provides for the addition of two categories of persons: (a) those who ought to have been joined at the commencement of the proceedings, and (b) those whose presence may be necessary to enable the court effectually and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions involved in the cause or matter. Mr. Parkinson sought the joinder of the additional defendants on the basis that they came within the first category of persons.

The original action is between the landlord and tenant based on the lease agreement between them. The claim at the time that action was brought was against the tenant for recovery of possession, for rent and for mesne profits and arose from the tenant’s alleged repudiation of the lease. Privity of contract existed only between those parties and in the cause of action as it was thus framed, there could have been no other parties to the action as originally instituted. Notwithstanding those circumstances Mr. Parkinson submitted that amendments ought to be allowed to add the proposed second to fifth defendants because the proper test is whether they could have been joined as defendants in some way, at the time the original action was brought, irrespective of whether they could have been joined as defendants in the action as it was actually brought.

The plaintiff’s claim against the proposed second to fifth defendants was, inter alia, for damages for having procured and conspired with the defendant to breach the lease. As such a claim could have been brought originally and at the same time as the original action, Mr. Parkinson submitted the requirements of rr. 25 and 26 were met, notwithstanding that the rules of privity of contract would have precluded joinder of the proposed defendants in the action as originally framed. He relied primarily on the judgment of the Court of Appeal in Executive Air Servs. Ltd. v. MacDonald (5).

5 In that case the Court of Appeal upheld the decision of this court in allowing amendments to join a party as a joint tortfeasor in a statement of claim which originally raised allegations of tortious conduct as well as of breach of contract. In so doing it is significant that the court disallowed amendments seeking to join the same party as defendant to the claim based on allegations of 10 breach of contract. In that case it was urged that the additional defendant was someone who fell within the first of the two categories of persons covered by r.26 of those who ought to have been joined at the commencement of the proceedings. From my reading of that case it appears clear that the court regarded the
15 additional defendant as a party who “ought to have been joined” in the original action as framed in tort and within the meaning of that expression as it appears within r.26. It follows that the Court of Appeal disallowed the further pleadings as the additional defendant was not a party who ought to have been joined in the 20 contractual claim as originally pleaded; as such an amendment would have been contrary to the principles of privity of contract, the additional defendant not having been a party to the contract and therefore against the principles established by Salomon v. A. Salomon & Co. Ltd. (16). I therefore did not think the case
25 supported Mr. Parkinson’s position.

Although rr. 25 and 26 may be outmoded, they still apply and I consider that the applicable principles were settled by the Court of Appeal in the earlier case of Bank of Nova Scotia v. Becker (2) which was cited in argument by Mr. Lamontagne on behalf of 30 the proposed defendants.

In that case, the applicant and third defendant, a company in liquidation which had been joined as a party in the suit between the plaintiff bank and the other defendants, applied for an order to join its own receivers as parties. The company had been 35 granted a loan by the plaintiff bank for which collateral had been provided by the other defendants. It had defaulted in payment and the bank had appointed receivers who took possession of the company’s property. In an action by the bank against the other defendants as guarantors, the company was itself made a 40 co-defendant upon the successful application of one of the other defendants. It was joined for the purpose of setting off any damages it might recover for the wrongful acts of the receivers (whom it alleged to be agents or servants of the bank) against any relief granted to the bank in relation to it as principal debtor and the other defendants as guarantors.

5 The company then sought to counterclaim against the bank alleging that the receivers, as the bank’s agents or servants, had trespassed upon the company’s land, wrongfully taken possession of it and wrongfully converted the company’s chattels. The company also applied for leave to join the receivers as added parties in the counterclaim contending that (a) as it was entitled to damages from the bank or the receivers or both, the receivers were, under the Grand Court (Civil Procedure) Rules, r.26 “necessary parties to the proceedings”; and (b) in any event, since by virtue of r.25 it could have initiated proceedings against the bank and joined the receivers as co-defendants, it was “only just and convenient” that it should be able to counterclaim against them both at the same time.

10 The Court of Appeal, in refusing to order the joinder of the receiver, held (a) the court was obliged to have regard to the terms of the Grand Court (Civil Procedure) Rules and was only entitled to consider whether joinder was “just and convenient” as an aspect of the application of those rules. It was not entitled to use the “just and convenient” principles to give itself an unfettered discretion to order joinder; (b) as the bank had originally made no claim against the receivers they could not be added as defendants in the bank’s writ against the guarantors. Consequently, so far as that action was concerned, the receivers could not qualify as persons who “ought to have been joined” at the beginning of the proceedings. Nor did they so qualify when the company was introduced into the proceedings as an added party and counterclaimed against the bank. The application had therefore failed the first criterion for joinder in r.26; and (c) nor did the receivers qualify under the second criterion as parties “whose presence before the court may be necessary to enable the court effectually and completely to adjudicate upon the issue involved within the meaning of r.26. . . .”

20 From the second head of the ratio decidendi of the case as extracted above from the report and from the judgment itself, it seems to me that parties can only be joined pursuant to r.26 as persons “who ought to have been joined” if that nexus is established with the action as originally commenced. It is impermissible to join parties for the purpose of expanding the original cause of action.

In the case before me, there was no privity of contract between the proposed additional defendants and the plaintiff. The action based on the lease for recovery of possession and mesne profits as commenced could have joined no other parties. It rested entirely between the plaintiff as landlord and the defendant as tenant. For those reasons I was unable to allow the joinder of the proposed second to fifth defendants.

I should also mention in passing that Mr. Parkinson also placed great reliance on the case of Molnlycke AB v. Procter & Gamble Ltd. (12) as authority for two propositions. The first was that other members of a corporate group besides the defendant (as were the proposed second and third defendants in relation to the defendant herein) may be brought in as defendants in the same action if they are in some way shown to have facilitated the conspiracy whereby the original defendant was able to commit the wrongdoing complained of and that is so whether or not the others are willing parties to the conspiracy. The second proposition was that the Molnlycke case confirms it is not an abuse of process to join other parties for the purpose only of obtaining discovery where that discovery will assist in proving the claims against the original defendant and assist in the later claim against the added defendants and further that that approach would not be in breach of the principles laid down in Norwich Pharmacal Co. v. Customs & Excise Commrs. (13).

My reading of the Molnlycke case leads me to a different view of it. To my mind it deals with a situation where a plaintiff sought to join as an alleged tortfeasor a German company which was an affiliate of the defendant company. By virtue of certain provisions of the Convention on Jurisdiction and the Enforcement of Civil and Commercial Judgments 1968, joinder in the circumstances of that case was as of right provided the plaintiff met the preliminary criterion of showing it had a good arguable case against the alleged defendant by satisfying the court that there was a serious question which called for a trial for its proper determination in respect of an alleged defendant company domiciled in a country which was party (as was Germany) to the convention. That criterion is premised on a basis entirely distinct from those criteria laid down by rr. 25 and 26 of the Grand Court (Civil Procedure) Rules and which are clearly set out in the judgment of the Court of Appeal in Bank of Nova Scotia v. Becker (2) which I regard as applicable here. It follows I did not regard the Molnlycke case as persuasive authority for either proposition in the circumstances of this case.

5 I should also make it clear that leave to amend to join the additional defendants was not refused on the basis that the plaintiff's case was doomed to failure in its entirety. Had that been my view of the case I would have been obliged to invoke also the principles stated in Raleigh v. Goschen (15) that leave should not be given to add parties to an action which is bound to fail and where such leave would allow the plaintiff to mount a substantially different cause of action against added parties.

10 (B) Leave for consequential re-amendments in respect of the proposed additional defendants, including an amendment seeking orders for discovery against them. Leave refused.

It followed from the refusal of leave to join the proposed additional defendants that leave for consequential re-amendments to plead claims against them had also to be refused. I note further that in any event Mr. Parkinson for the plaintiff indicated he would have been prepared to seek discovery from them separately had they been joined as defendants and to have done so by separate process. As joinder was refused, on the merits, that recourse would also fail to materialize. I have set out above the reasons for the decision not to allow further amendments which sought to add new parties.

The remaining issues related to the application to re-amend the pleadings to vary or add claims. Such applications still fell to be decided on the merits to the extent that they might affect the action brought against the original defendant. There was no dispute as to the general principles which the court should apply in deciding on an application to amend pleadings for the purposes of adding or varying claims. They are set out at O.20, r.5 of the Rules of the Supreme Court and, as they apply to this case, I summarize them as follows:

30

35

(b) Leave should be given to amend unless the court is satisfied that the party applying was acting mala fide, or that, by his blunder, he had done some injury to his opponent which could not be compensated for by costs or otherwise. However negligent or careless may have been the omission, and however late the proposed amendment, the amendment should be allowed if it can be made without injustice to the other side. There is no injustice if the other side can be compensated by costs (per Bramwell, L.J. in Tildesley v. Harper (18) (10 Ch. D. at 397) and per Brett, M.R. in Clarapede v. Commercial Union Assn. (4) (32 W.R. at 263).

(c) An amendment ought to be allowed if thereby “the real substantial question” can be raised between the parties and multiplicity of legal proceedings avoided: see Kurtz v. Spence (10).

(d) On the other hand, it should be remembered that there is a clear difference between allowing amendments to clarify the issues in dispute and those that provide distinct defences or claims to be raised for the first time (per Lord Griffiths in Ketteman v. Hansel Properties Ltd. (9) ([1987] A.C. at 220)).

(e) Furthermore, the court will always look at the materiality of the proposed amendment; inconsistent or useless amendments will not be allowed nor will amendments be allowed to raise a case which must fail: see 1 The Supreme Court Practice 1991, para. 20/5 – 8/23; Jones v. Hughes (8) ([1905] 1 Ch. at 187 per Vaughan Williams, L.J.) and the judgment of the Court of Appeal of the Cayman Islands in Iorgulescu v. Swiss Bank & Trust Corp. Ltd. (7).

I now turn to deal with the application for re-amendments to the claims.

(C) Leave to re-amend the writ and the statement of claim to include a claim for an account from the defendant to be taken in order to ascertain the ultimate amount which the defendant owes the plaintiff by way of annual percentage rent. Leave refused.

This aspect of the application had proceeded on the basis that a fiduciary relationship of principal and agent should be implied as existing between the plaintiff and defendant having regard to the lease arrangement which demanded a duty of trust from the defendant as tenant. Mr. Parkinson had submitted further that an action for an account is an established remedy available to a principal against his agent (in lieu of damages) and that such an action arose here. I need not provide reasons at length for this correct the principles cited by Mr. Lamontagne in his response but as considerable time was taken on it and as a distinction needs to be struck between the duty to account prescribed by the lease and the remedy in equity which was sought here, I will provide a brief minute of reasons.

Two considerations were paramount bearing in mind that the lease agreement embodies a commercial arm's length transaction between the parties. It contains extensive provisions as set out in Articles 3:01 – 3:05 as to the tenant's obligations to report and account to the landlord. It also specifies the relief available in the event of breach of those provisions. The two questions which arose were (a) whether there was the necessity and therefore a basis for implying as between the parties, a term or condition of the lease that there existed a further fiduciary relationship and arising from it that there should be accounting, as a separate remedy, beyond that expressly provided in the lease in the event the tenant acted in breach of the lease; and (b) could there be a need or basis for finding a relationship of principal and agent and a resulting duty to account, where the written agreement between the parties is a complete code of the intentions of the parties.

The decision of the Privy Council in Tai Hing Cotton Mill Ltd. v. Liu Chong Hing Bank Ltd. (17) was cited in opposition to Mr. Parkinson's submissions and is clear authority for the proposition that the court should not search for a liability in tort or in equity where the parties are in a contractual relationship and that this is particularly so in commercial relationships. It is not permissible, on the contractual analysis of the relationship between the parties, to imply duties which are not strictly and necessarily incidental to that relationship.

Mr. Parkinson had conceded there was no English authority directly on point to support his submissions but had cited extracts from Underhill & Hayton, Law relating to Trusts & Trustees, 14th ed., at 14 (1987), 1(2) Halsbury's Laws of England, 4th ed., para. 86, at 62, and from 1 Atkin's Court Forms, 2nd ed., at 601 et seq. (1992 Issue) in support of his general submissions that the categories of circumstances which may give rise to a fiduciary relationship are not closed and that a principal/agent relationship might be inferred from the nature of the relationship between the parties as was evident in this case from the lease. Further, that an action for an account is a remedy arising from that relationship.

Mr. Lamontagne in opposition relied also on the decision of the Supreme Court of Canada in Lac Minerals Ltd. v. Interna

5 tional Corona Resources Ltd. (11) for the following statement of principles which are extracted from the headnote to the case in the Canada Supreme Court Reports ([1989] 2 R.C.S. at 577–578):

10 “The following common features provide a rough and ready guide to whether or not a fiduciary obligation should be imposed on a new relationship: (1) the fiduciary has scope for the exercise of some discretion or power; (2) the fiduciary can unilaterally exercise that power or discretion so as to affect the beneficiary’s legal or practical interests; and (3) the beneficiary is peculiarly vulnerable to or at the mercy of the fiduciary holding the discretion or power.”

15 This description of the fiduciary relationship accords with the treatment of the subject in the textbooks which were cited in argument and especially as regards the relationship of principal and agent the following definition of agency is to be found in Fridman’s Law of Agency, 6th ed., at 9 (1990):

20 “Agency is the relationship that exists between two persons when one, called the agent, is considered in law to represent the other, called the principal, in such a way as to be able to affect the principal’s legal position in respect of strangers to the relationship by the making of contracts or the disposition of property.”

25 That definition does not accord with the relationship created between the landlord and tenant in the context of the lease which is the subject of this action.

30 The very helpful and exhaustive treatment of the subject in the Lac Minerals case also demonstrates that no relationship of principal and agent could properly be implied into the commercial arm’s length transaction which was the lease agreement between the parties herein. It would not be appropriate to invoke the rules of equity so as to impose a relationship in a situation such as this where there is no true need for the special protection that equity affords.

35 I also observe that the plaintiff’s submissions were based not on any suggestion of a pre-existing fiduciary duty but on the proposition that the court might find one having regard to the self-dealing manner in which the contractual duties of the defendant 40 had been breached. In that regard I was specifically guided by the opinion of Megarry, V.-C. in Tito v. Waddell (No. 2) (19) in

commenting on this approach to identifying a fiduciary obligation

([1977] 3 All E.R. at 232):

“I cannot see why the imposition of a statutory duty to perform certain functions, or the assumption of such a duty, should as a general rule impose fiduciary obligations, or even be presumed to impose any. Of course, the duty may be of such a nature as to carry with it fiduciary obligations. . . .

Impose a fiduciary duty and you impose fiduciary obligations. But apart from such cases, it would be remarkable indeed if in each of the manifold cases in which statute imposes a duty, or imposes a duty relating to property, the person on whom the duty is imposed were thereby to be put in a fiduciary relationship with those interested in the property, or towards whom the duty could be said to be owed. . . .

Furthermore, I cannot see that coupling the job to be performed with self-dealing in the performance of it makes any difference. If there is a fiduciary duty, the equitable rules about self-dealing apply: but self-dealing does not impose the duty. Equity bases its rules about self-dealing on some pre-existing fiduciary duty: it is a disregard of this pre-existing duty that subjects the self-dealer to the consequences of the self-dealing rules. I do not think that one can take a person who is subject to no pre-existing fiduciary duty and then say that because he self-deals he is thereupon subjected to a fiduciary duty.”

Notwithstanding the assumptions I was invited by Mr. Lamontagne to make and which lead irresistibly to the conclusion that the defendant was in breach of the lease and thereby guilty of “self-dealing,” I was unable to conclude, having regard to the foregoing statements of principles, that there could be found to be a principal/agent relationship between the landlord and tenant as parties to the lease. Accordingly, no separate fiduciary duty to account was to be implied. The plaintiff had no arguable case for a claim in that regard and the re-amendments could not have been allowed.

(D) Application for leave to re-amend to include a claim for a declaration that the lease was properly rescinded. Leave refused.

This aspect of the application was abandoned by Mr. Parkinson and I see no need to comment further on it.

1992–93 CILR 390

(E) Leave to re-amend to include a claim for a declaration against the defendant that the lease was duly forfeited. Leave granted.

Having regard to the assumptions which I should make for present purposes that the defendant was in breach of the lease, the real point in dispute, as I earlier mentioned, was whether the breaches committed by the defendant were repudiatory, that is irremediable breaches giving rise to a right in the plaintiff to repudiate the lease without first giving notice as required by the lease and more importantly as required by ss. 55 and 56 of the Registered Land Law (Revised).

Mr. Lamontagne submitted that leave should not be granted because the plaintiff's claim for a declaration that the lease was duly forfeited was bound to fail. This was so, he urged, because in purporting to forfeit the lease the plaintiff treated as irremediable breaches which were patently capable of being remedied and because it failed to give notice to remedy as mandatorily prescribed by s.56 of the Law. Furthermore, he submitted, it was not for the plaintiff unilaterally and subjectively to decide whether the breach was remediable; it was obliged to give notice and see whether the defendant complied within the reasonable time to be set in the notice. Acceptance of Mr. Lamontagne's submissions in this regard would result in the disallowance of the plaintiff's application to re-amend to include a claim for a declaration that the lease was duly forfeited as, having regard to the principles earlier cited, amendments should not be allowed in aid of futile claims. This would be the result as no right of action in forfeiture could have accrued to the plaintiff, if the breach had been capable of remedy.

I was satisfied the plaintiff had at least an arguable case that the breaches complained of were not capable of remedy. On the basis of the authorities the plaintiff need not show more than that, at this stage, in order to render his claim strike-out proof. In arriving at that conclusion I was guided by the following passage from the judgment of the English Court of Appeal given by Slade, L.J. in Empire Clothing Serv. & Sales Ltd. v. Hillgate House Ltd. (6) ([1985] 2 All E.R. at 1010):

"In my judgment, on the remediability issue, the ultimate question for the court was this: if the s.146 notice had required the lessee to remedy the breach and the lessors had then allowed a reasonable time to elapse to enable the lessee fully to comply with the relevant covenant, would such

compliance, coupled with the payment of any appropriate monetary compensation, have effectively remedied the harm which the lessors had suffered or were likely to suffer from the breach? If, but only if, the answer to this question was 5 No would the failure of the s.146 notice to require remedy of the breach have been justifiable. In the Rugby School,

Esplanade and Hoffman cases the answer to this question plainly would have been No. In the present case, however, for the reasons already stated, I think the answer to it must 10 have been Yes.”

Essentially, given the interlocutory nature of the proceedings before me, the issue is whether the plaintiff has an arguable case.
The answer to that question is No. There is no dispute that the plaintiff’s notice did not afford an opportunity to the defendant to 15 remedy the breach.

I took the view, in the light of the assumptions I was invited to draw by the defendant and having regard to the affidavit of Mr.
Mark Chapman, the independent auditor engaged by the plaintiff to examine the records of the defendant, in which Mr. Chapman 20 expressed the view that there had been no proper records of accounts at all maintained by the defendant, that the plaintiff had at least an arguable case that the harm had been irretrievably done and that the breaches of the positive covenants to keep and maintain proper accounts and to enable full disclosure of income 25 are breaches which in the context of this case may be shown to be incapable of remedy. This is, in my view, arguable notwithstanding that Mr. Chapman’s affidavit dealt with the situation as he found it and did not specifically address the question whether it would be possible for the defendant to rectify the breach by 30 reconstruction of the records.

To my mind it must be at least objectively arguable that the plaintiff should be entitled to treat the circumstances existing at the time it purported to forfeit the lease as irremediable because the defalcations were deliberate, because the defendant’s failure 35 to assist Mr. Chapman’s audit betrayed its intention to continue its dissemblance and because the continued performance of the lease depended on the good faith, willingness and ability of the defendant not only to remedy the breach but also to keep faithful accounts and make full and final disclosure of sales and income.

40 Put another way, it will be an arguable matter whether a notice in keeping with s.56 of the Law, specifying the breach and

1992–93 CILR 392

requiring remedy, should have been issued in circumstances where it would have been clear no proper records existed and that their creation would depend upon the recall and co-operation of the officers or employees of the defendant which, from all 5 indications, would likely be convenient to the defendant’s own interests and which records may have therefore been predisposed to falsification. Whether the plaintiff as landlord could reasonably

and objectively apprehend such an outcome as the inevitable result of a notice to remedy is an issue to be tried.

10 On account of the unusual nature of this lease, none of the cases cited in argument provided a full answer by way of precedent to these factual issues which remain to be resolved on the question whether the plaintiff was entitled to forfeit this lease.
It should also be clear that in arriving at this view of the matter I 15 proceeded on the basis that the requirements of ss. 55 and 56 of the Registered Land Law (Revised), in respect of the exercise of the right of forfeiture of leases, are paramount, and specifically as regards the requirements set out in s.56 for proper notice, this is so regardless whether there are provisions to the contrary 20 contained in the lease itself.

The primacy of the s.56 requirements is confirmed by the pronouncements of this court in Cayman Arms (1982) Ltd. v.
English Shoppe Ltd. (3) and by their confirmation by the Court of Appeal. Moreover, s.37(1) of the Registered Land Law (Revised) 25 also expressly states that “no land, lease or charge registered under this Law shall be capable of being disposed of except in accordance with this Law. . . .” Henry, J.A. stated in the Court of Appeal case of Paradise Manor Ltd. v. Bank of Nova Scotia
(14) (1984–85 CILR at 480) that under s.37 of the Registered
30 Land Law (Revised), “no right of a proprietor in or over his land, lease or charge registered under the Law shall be capable of being affected except in accordance with the Law. . . .”

Nonetheless, as the plaintiff’s primary contention is that it was entitled to forfeit the lease on the basis that the breaches were 35 incapable of being remedied and as I decided it should be allowed to present that claim for determination on its merits, there was no need for me to consider whether the requirements of s.56 as to notice had been met, as those requirements would apply in the factual circumstances of this case only if it is determined that the 40 breach is capable of remedy or that the defendant should have been afforded an opportunity to remedy.

(F) Leave to re-amend to include a claim in respect of auditor’s

fees. Leave granted.

5 The lease in Article 3:04 provides that the cost of “any special audit or an examination by an accountant designated by the landlord pursuant to this section shall be chargeable to and paid by the tenant” in circumstances like those which led to Mr. Chapman’s audit. Accordingly Mr. Lamontagne for the defendant conceded that the plaintiff’s claim in that regard was not prone to being struck out and did not oppose the amendment.

(G) Leave to re-amend to include a claim, in the alternative to the claim for a declaration of forfeiture, for damages for breach of the covenant to pay rent. Leave granted.

15 In light of the proof of at least one instance where the defendant failed to declare the sale of a valuable item which would have generated income which would be subject to being assessed for percentage rent, a claim in the alternative for damages for breach of the covenant to pay rent is sustainable.

This re-amendment was therefore allowed without opposition.

Order accordingly.

Application

3. (1) This Law shall apply to any contract which, on or after the date on which this Law comes into force, includes terms which comply with section 4.

(2) A contract made on, before or after the date on which this Law comes into force may be amended to include terms which comply with section 4.

(3) If, after this Law comes into force, a contract is amended to include terms which comply with section 4, a third party may only enforce a right which accrues on or after the date on which the contract is amended.

(4) If, prior to the date on which this Law comes into force, a contract included terms which comply with section 4, a third party may only enforce a right which accrues on or after the date on which this Law comes into force.

Rights of third party to enforce contractual term

4. (1) Subject to section 9, a third party may in his own right enforce a term of the contract if -

- (a) he is expressly identified in the contract by name, as a member of a class or as answering a particular description, which includes a person nominated or otherwise identified pursuant to the terms of the contract but the third party need not be in existence when the contract is entered into; and
- (b) the contract expressly provides in writing that he may.

(2) This section does not confer a right on a third party to enforce a term of a contract otherwise than subject to and in accordance with any other relevant terms of the contract.

(3) For the purpose of exercising his right to enforce a term of the contract, there shall be available to the third party any remedy that would have been available to him in an action for breach of contract if he had been a party to the contract and the rules relating to damages, injunctions, specific performance and other relief shall apply accordingly.

(4) Where a term of a contract excludes or limits liability in relation to any matter, references in this Law to the third party enforcing the term shall be construed as references to his availing himself of the exclusion or limitation.

Variation and rescission of contract

5. (1) Where a third party has a right under section 4 to enforce a term of the contract, the parties to the contract may not, by agreement, rescind the contract, or vary it so as to extinguish or alter his entitlement under that right, without his consent if -

- (a) the third party has communicated his assent to the term to the promisor;
- (b) the promisor is aware that the third party has relied on the term; or
- (c) the promisor can reasonably be expected to have foreseen that the third party would rely on the term and the third party has in fact relied on it.

(2) The assent referred to in subsection (1)(a) -

- (a) may be by words or conduct; and
- (b) if sent to the promisor by post or other means, shall not be regarded as communicated to the promisor until received by him.

(3) Subsection (1) is subject to any express term of the contract under which -

- (a) the contract may be rescinded or varied without the consent of the third party; or
- (b) the consent of the third party is required in circumstances specified in the contract instead of those set out in subsection (1)(a) to (c).

(4) Where the consent of a third party is required under subsection (1) or (3), the court may, on the application of one or more of the parties to the contract, dispense with his consent if satisfied that it is just and equitable to do so having regard to all the circumstances.

(5) The court may, on the application of one or more of the parties to a contract, dispense with any consent that may be required under subsection (1)(c) if satisfied that it cannot reasonably be ascertained whether or not the third party has in fact relied on the term.

(6) If the court dispenses with a third party's consent, it may impose the conditions it thinks fit, including a condition requiring the payment of compensation to the third party.

6. (1) Subsections (2) to (5) apply where, in reliance on section 4, proceedings for the enforcement of a term of a contract are brought by a third party. Defences

(2) The promisor shall have available to him by way of defence or set-off any matter that -

- (a) arises from or in connection with the contract and is relevant to the term; and
- (b) would have been available to him by way of defence or set-off if the proceedings had been brought by the promisee.

(3) The promisor shall also have available to him by way of defence or set-off any matter if -

- (a) an express term of the contract provides for it to be available to him in proceedings brought by the third party; and
- (b) it would have been available to him by way of defence or set-off if the proceedings had been brought by the promisee.

(4) The promisor shall also have available to him -

- (a) by way of defence or set-off any matter; and
- (b) by way of counterclaim any matter not arising from the contract, that would have been available to him by way of defence or set-off or, as the case may be, by way of counterclaim against the third party if the third party had been a party to the contract.

(5) Subsections (2) and (4) are subject to any express term of the contract as to the matters that are not to be available to the promisor by way of defence, set-off or counterclaim.

(6) Where in any proceedings brought against him a third party seeks in reliance on section 4 to enforce a term of a contract including, in particular, a term purporting to exclude or limit liability, he may not do so if he could not have done so, whether by reason of any particular circumstances relating to him or otherwise, had he been a party to the contract.

Enforcement of contract
by promisee

7. Section 4 does not affect any right of the promisee to enforce any term of the contract.

Protection of promisor from double liability

8. Where under section 4 a term of a contract is enforceable by a third party and a promisee has recovered from the promisor a sum in respect of -

- (a) the third party's loss in respect of the term; or
- (b) the expense to the promisee of making good to the third party the default of the promisor, then, in any proceedings brought in reliance on that section by the third party, the court shall reduce any award to the third party to the extent it thinks appropriate to take account of the sum recovered by the promisee.

9. (1) Section 4 confers no rights on a third party in the case of a contract on a bill of exchange, promissory note or other negotiable instrument. Exceptions
- (2) Section 4 confers no rights on a third party in the case of any contract binding on a company and its members under sections 12 and 25 of the Companies Law (2013 Revision). (2013 Revision)

Cohen , Asquith and Birkett , L.JJ.

1951 March 16.

Road Traffic—Omnibus company—100 per cent. subsidiary of British Transport Commission—Company's application to vary fares made to licensing authority—Jurisdiction of authority— Road Traffic Act, 1930 (20 & 21 Geo. 5, c. 43), s. 72 — Transport Act, 1947 (10 & 11 Geo. 6, c. 49), ss. 2, sub—ss. 1, 2 (f) (g) (i), 3, 63—5, 76 .

By s. 65, sub-s. 1, of the Transport Act, 1947 , ss. 72 to 76 of the Road Traffic Act, 1930 , do not apply to any passenger road transport service provided by the British Transport Commission or by any person acting as agent for the commission.

The commission, acting under the Transport Act, 1947 , acquired all the shares of a passenger road transport company with power to appoint and dismiss all their directors, the company thus becoming a 100 per cent. subsidiary of the commission. There was no evidence that the commission had in fact appointed the company to act as their agent. The company applied to a licensing authority for public service vehicles under s. 72, sub-ss. 1 and 4, of the Road Traffic Act, 1930 , to vary the conditions of road service licences then held by them, i.e., to increase the existing scale of fares.

*367

Held, that the licensing authority had jurisdiction to hear the application of the company, since the service in question was not a passenger road transport service provided by the commission or by any person acting as agent for the commission. The commission, in acquiring the shares of the company in the exercise of their general duty as stated in s. 3 of the British Transport Act, 1947 , were not "providing", but "securing or promoting" the provision of, an efficient, adequate, economical and properly integrated system of public inland transport.

Salomon v. Salomon & Co. LD.[1897] A. C. 22 followed.

Observations of Tomlin, J., in British Thomson-Houston Co. LD. v. Sterling Accessories LD.[1924] 2 Ch. 33 , 38, 40, referred to.

Decision of the Divisional Court reversed.

Appeal from the Divisional Court.

The applicants, Ebbw Vale Urban District Council, sought an order to prohibit the licensing authority for public service vehicles for the South Wales Traffic Area from hearing and determining an application by Red and White Services Ld. under s. 72 of the Road Traffic Act, 1930 <sup>1</sup>, to vary the conditions of road service licences then held by them, that was, to increase their existing scale of fares. The ground for the application was that the licensing authority had no jurisdiction to hear the application by the omnibus company by reason of s. 65 of the Transport Act, 1947 <sup>2</sup>.

The Divisional Court (Lord Goddard, C.J., Hilbery and Hallett, JJ.) held that s. 72 of the Act of 1930 on the facts of the case had ceased to apply, because the services afforded by the omnibus company were provided "by the commission" or by a "person acting as agent for the commission" within the meaning of sub-s. 1 of s. 65 of the Transport Act, 1947.

The omnibus company had been a private enterprise concern when, under the Transport Act, 1947, the British Transport Commission had acquired all their shares and the power to appoint and dismiss all their directors. The omnibus company, therefore, became a 100 per cent. subsidiary of the British Transport Commission. Lord Goddard, C.J., said that the commission were providing the road passenger service of the omnibus company, though he was rather inclined to think that the omnibus company in the circumstances were acting as agents for the commission. The British Transport Commission and the omnibus company appealed.

Before the Court of Appeal, counsel for the urban district council did not see fit to support the order of prohibition made by the Divisional Court on the ground that the omnibus company provided the services as agents of the British Transport Commission: he contended that the services were provided by the commission.

Heald, K.C., and R. J. Parker for the commission.

Fox-Andrews, K.C., and King-Hamilton for the omnibus company.

Cyril Morgan for the urban district council.

The argument, based on the relevant sections of the Transport Act, 1947, appears fully from the judgment of Cohen, L.J. Counsel for the appellants cited Salomon v. Salomon & Co. LD. <sup>3</sup>; the speech of Lord Buckmaster in Rainham Chemical Works LD. (In Liquidation) v. Belvedere Fish Guano Co. LD. <sup>4</sup>; the judgment of Tomlin, J., in British Thomson-Houston Co. LD. v. Sterling Accessories LD. <sup>5</sup>; Railway Executive v. Henson <sup>6</sup>; and Smith v. London Transport Executive <sup>7</sup>.

COHEN, L.J.

This appeal raises a question as to the jurisdiction of the licensing authority under s. 72 of the Road Traffic Act, 1930, to hear an application by Red and White Services Ld. for the modification of the conditions of their licence in such a way as to enable them to increase the fares which they are entitled to charge for the services that they supply in a district in South Wales.

Section 72, sub-s. 1, provides: "Subject to the provisions of this section the commissioners may grant to any person applying therefor a licence (in this Act referred to as a 'road service licence') to provide such a road service as may be specified therein, and a vehicle shall not be used as a stage carriage or an express carriage except under such a licence". Under sub-s. 6 power is given to the commissioners, subject to the provisions of the section, to fix such fares and make it a condition of the licence that fares shall not be charged under or in excess of the minimum or maximum. Under sub-s. 4 the commissioners may from time to time vary, in such manner as they think fit, the conditions attached to a road service licence. It is under that last provision that Red and White Services Ld. made the application which gives rise to the present proceedings.

When the application came before the authority, the suggestion was made, and it has since been decided by the Divisional Court, that the jurisdiction of the authority had been taken away, so far as the point then under discussion was concerned, by s. 65 of the Transport Act, 1947. [His Lordship read sub-s. 1 of s. 65]. The Divisional Court decided that s. 72 of the Road Traffic Act, 1930, had ceased to apply on the facts of this case, because the services in question were services provided "by the commission", or by a "person acting as agent for the commission", within the meaning of s. 65.

I will refer to two passages in the judgment of Lord Goddard, C.J., in order to explain the ratio decidendi of the court. He said: "It seems to me, when one gives s. 65 the ordinary meaning of the English language, that the transport commission, having acquired the whole of the undertaking and share-holding of this company, and running the omnibuses of that company for the purpose of providing a passenger service through the Ebbw Vale, are providing a road transport service. The vehicles are not their own: they still belong to the legal entity which is the company; but it seems to me that the commission are in effect providing the road passenger transport, though I am rather inclined to think that the omnibus company in the circumstances are acting as agents for the commission". Then, in the last paragraph he said: "Mr. *370 Heald has relied on the well-known case of Salomon v. Salomon & Co. LD.<sup>8</sup>, which decided that in what is commonly called a one-man company, the company is a different entity from the man who holds the whole of the shares. and I have no doubt here that the omnibus company are a different entity from the commission; but it seems to me that the commission are providing this road passenger transport service, because the company are put there by the Transport Commission to do what otherwise it is the privilege of the commission to do. For these reasons I think that the order of prohibition must go".

Colloquially speaking, it may be true to say that the British Transport Commission are running the omnibuses of the company; but I am unable to agree, with all respect to the Divisional Court, that so broad a construction can properly be placed on the material phrase in s. 65: "any passenger road transport service provided ... by the commission or by any person acting as agent for the commission".

Under the ordinary rules of law, a parent company and a subsidiary company, even a 100 per cent. subsidiary company, are distinct legal entities, and in the absence of an agency contract between the two companies one cannot be said to be the agent of the other. That seems to me to be clearly established by Salomon v. Salomon & Co. LD.<sup>9</sup>, and by the observations of Tomlin, J., in British Thomson-Houston Co. LD. v. Sterling Accessories LD.<sup>10</sup>.

Tomlin, J., said<sup>11</sup>: "I do not think that any such inference" - that is, an inference of agency between the directors and the company - "can be or ought to be drawn. It has been made plain by the House of Lords that for the purpose of establishing contractual liability it is not possible, even in the case of the so-called one-man companies, to go behind the legal corporate entity of the company and treat the creator and controller of the company as the real contractor merely because he is the creator and controller. If he is to be fixed with liability as principal, the agency of the company must be established substantively and cannot be inferred from the holding of director's office and the control of the shares alone: see Salomon v. Salomon & Co. LD.<sup>12</sup>. Any other conclusion would have nullified the purpose for which the creation of limited companies was authorized by the legislature".

Tomlin, J., continued: "Nor does the matter stand otherwise in regard to liability for tortious acts". and later<sup>13</sup>: "There is no evidence from which it ought or can be inferred that the defendant directors have authorized the wrongful acts. To draw that inference from the fact that they are sole directors and shareholders of the defendant company would be manifestly wrong and contrary to the principles enunciated by the House of Lords in the cases already referred to, and there is no evidence of any other facts at all in relation to the matter".

So I think that it can clearly be said here that there is no evidence to justify the inference which apparently Lord Goddard, C.J., was inclined to draw, that the omnibus company in the circumstances of the case are acting as agents for the British Transport Commission. In fairness to Mr. Morgan I add that he did not seek to support the order on the ground of agency. He did, however, strongly urge that, on a business view of the matter, the services which were provided in South Wales by the company were services provided by the commission.

I can find nothing in the Act to negative or exclude the ordinary rules of law so far as this question is concerned. I think that the proper approach to the question is to construe s. 65, sub-s. 1, in the light of the other relevant provisions of the Act; and, as Mr. Fox-Andrews said, the proper starting point is s. 3, which lays down the general duty of the commission and states the objects, as distinct from the powers, which the commission was incorporated to perform. By sub-s. 1: "It shall be the general duty of the commission so to exercise their powers under this Act as to provide, or secure or promote the provision of, an efficient, adequate, economical and properly integrated system of public inland transport and port facilities within Great Britain for passengers and goods with due regard to safety of operation".

I would emphasize the distinction that is plainly drawn there between "providing", on the one hand, and "securing or promoting" on the other, the provision of an efficient system of transport. It seems to me that those words clearly visualize that the commission may either provide the system themselves or may secure or promote its provision by others. With that in mind I turn back to s. 2, which concerns the powers which the commission are to *372 have to enable them to fulfil their object. Section 2, sub-s. 1, provides: "Subject to the provisions of this Act, the commission shall have power - (a) to carry goods and passengers by rail, road and inland waterway, within Great Britain". By sub-s. 2: "Subject to the provisions of this Act, the powers conferred by sub-s. 1 of this section include power", and then follow a series of powers lettered in paragraphs from (a) to (i). I need only refer to paragraphs (f), (g) and (i). Paragraph (f): "to acquire by agreement (whether absolutely or for any period) the whole or any part of any undertaking of any other person, being an undertaking, or a part of an undertaking, the activities whereof are wholly or mainly such activities as are specified in the said sub-s. 1". Paragraph (g): "to enter into and carry out agreements with any person for the carrying on by that person, whether as agent for the commission or otherwise, of any of the activities specified in the said sub-s. 1, or for the provision by that person, whether as agent for the commission or otherwise, of clearing house facilities in connexion with the transport of goods". Paragraph (i): "to lend money to, or give guarantees for the benefit of, any person carrying on or about to carry on any of the activities specified in the said sub-s. 1", and then, omitting immaterial words, "and to acquire by agreement any securities of any body corporate which is carrying on or about to carry on or which directly or indirectly controls another body corporate which is carrying on or about to carry on any such activities".

I pause here to observe that it is plain as regards the omnibus company that it is under this latter power to acquire the securities of a body corporate which is carrying on transport activities that the acquisition was made. I pause also to observe that both sub-s. 1 and sub-s. 2 are subject to provisos prohibiting the commission from doing certain things which might otherwise be within the wide words of the enabling power.

Sub-s. 3 provides: "Where, whether by agreement or otherwise, the commission acquire the whole or any part of any undertaking of any other person, they may, subject to the provisions of this Act, carry on any activities, whether mentioned in sub-s. 1 of this section or not, which were theretofore carried on for the purposes of that undertaking or part of an undertaking or were authorized by any statutory provision to be carried on for the purposes thereof". There again that is followed by a proviso restricting the generality of the foregoing Sub-s. 4 also contains certain restrictive powers.

It is clear from that section, and I think that it also appears clear from ss. 63 and 64, which concern the preparation and approval of area road transport schemes and the contents of area road transport schemes, that the Act contemplates that the commission may either provide services itself or may secure the provision of those services by or through other bodies, and not only by or through agents of the commission. That being so, prima facie, it would seem necessary to see whether what is being done in any particular case is an act done to provide transport facilities, or is an act done to secure the provision of transport facilities. Where a service is provided through a subsidiary company of the commission, it seems to me that prima facie, having regard to the general rule of law, what the commission are doing is to secure the provision of road transport facilities, and not to provide them.

That the commission can act by providing them themselves is made clear by the decision of this court to which our attention was called by Mr. Heald and Mr. Morgan, namely, Smith v. London Transport Executive <sup>14</sup>.

That the commission can act through an agent is also clear under the express provisions of sub-s. (2) (g); but, as I have said, there is no question of agency here. It seems to me quite plain that it can also arrange with independent concerns to provide a service, in which case it will be performing its function of securing or promoting the provision of an efficient, adequate, economical and properly integrated system of public inland transport. In the present case, I think, the commission were securing the provision of an efficient, adequate, economical and properly integrated system of public inland transport within the meaning of s. 3, sub-s. 1, of the Act, through the omnibus company - not an independent concern, but a separate legal entity.

That conclusion, it seems to me, is rendered more certain by sub-s. 6 of s. 2 of the Act. That provides: "For the purposes of sub-s. 4 and of the provisos to sub-ss. 2 and 3 of this section, where a body corporate is directly or indirectly controlled by the commission, anything done by that body shall be deemed to be done by the commission, and the undertaking of the body shall be deemed to form part of the undertaking of the commission". The importance of that provision seems to me to be that it is quite plain that Parliament when it passed this Act had in mind the general rule of law to which I have *374 referred as laid down in Salomon v. Salomon & Co. LD. <sup>15</sup>, and many other cases, that a subsidiary company is not the agent of the parent company, but is an entirely separate entity. Its acts are not the acts of the parent company, and the parent company is not responsible for its acts or defaults, in the absence of special provisions in some contract between the parties. Parliament, with that in mind, has gone out of its way to prescribe that for certain limited purposes the acts of the subsidiary company shall be deemed to be the acts of the commission. It seems to me an inevitable inference from that provision that, except to that extent, the intention was that the ordinary rule of law should prevail and that the acts of the subsidiary company should be its own acts and not the acts of the commission.

Mr. Morgan was compelled to admit that if there were a road accident the victim would have a remedy, if he had a remedy at all, not against the commission, but only against the omnibus company. That seems to me to lead to, or support, the conclusion that the services here were provided, not by the commission, but by the company.

There is another argument of Mr. Morgan's to which I ought to refer. He laid some stress on the words in sub-s. 1 of s. 65, "any passenger road transport service provided, whether under a scheme under the preceding provisions of this Part of this Act or otherwise". He relied upon those words as in some way enlarging the meaning to be given to the word "provided". I am unable to follow him in this part of his argument. It seems to me that, in the context in which they appear, the words "or otherwise" are merely in contrast to the words "under a scheme", and mean no more than "provided, whether or not under a scheme under the preceding provisions of this Part of this Act". It does not assist us in determining whether or not as a matter of fact any particular service is provided by the commission.

There is still one other argument to which I must refer. It was said that it would lead to a ridiculous, or at any rate to an artificial, situation if there were to be two bodies dealing with the same subject-matter. Section 76 of the Transport Act, 1947, contains the provisions under which the commission "shall from time to time prepare, and submit to the transport tribunal for confirmation, drafts of schemes (hereafter in this Act referred to as 'charges schemes') for determining, as respects the *375 services and facilities provided by the commission to which the schemes respectively relate - (a) the charges which are to be made by the commission". So, said Mr. Morgan, it is plain that in one case not the licensing authority under the Road Traffic Act, 1930, but the transport tribunal under the Transport Act, 1947, will have to determine the fares and charges which are to be made by the commission. Is it not, he said, most unlikely that the legislature intended that, as regards other cases, where in substance the service was provided by the commission, the reference should be to the licensing authority? It does not seem to me that that objection really has any substance, and in a sense it begs the question, because it is only where the services are provided by the commission that the obligation to set up a charging scheme arises; and it seems to me that Parliament, having, as it clearly had, in mind the prospect that the commission might discharge their obligations either by providing or by securing provision of the requisite services, should have visualized a different method of settling the charges according to whether the commission provided the services themselves or secured their provision. It seems to me quite natural that the charging scheme should only apply where the commission were providing the services themselves, leaving the matter to be dealt with under the Road Traffic Act, 1930, in cases where the part played by the commission was merely to secure the provision of the services.

For these reasons, I think that the proper inference from the facts proved before the Divisional Court was that this was a case where the services were not provided by the commission but the commission merely secured their provision. I therefore think that it is not a case for prohibition, and I would allow the appeal.

ASQUITH, L.J.

I agree, and I would add only a word or two out of deference to the judgment from which we are differing. The case originally raised two distinct issues: did the commission within the meaning of sub-s. 1 of s. 65 "provide" these services? Or, short of that, did the omnibus company provide them as agents for the commission?

Mr. Morgan has not pressed the second point on the appeal, but, as the Divisional Court based its judgment partly on an affirmative answer to it, it is desirable to glance at it briefly. The only relevant fact before the court is that the commission own substantially all the shares in the company. The two bodies are admittedly separate legal personæ. Admittedly a subsidiary is not necessarily, as such, an agent for the controlling corporation. *376 There is, of course, nothing to prevent a controlling body from constituting a controlled body its agent if it chooses to do so, but there is no evidence of any such thing having happened here.

I turn, therefore, to the other question: did the commission provide these services themselves? The Divisional Court took a broad, common-sense view of the meaning of the word "provide", but in my view it has to be construed in the light of its context and the general structure of the Act. The other sections of the Act do draw a firm and sharp distinction between services "provided by" the commission themselves, and services of which they "secure the provision", presumably by other people. My Lord has read the first two or three lines of s. 3, sub-s. 1, of the Transport Act, 1947, in support of that proposition, and I will not repeat them, but the same distinction reappears in a salient form in ss. 63 and 64, concerning schemes. Sub-s. 1 of s. 63 provides: "(1) The commission may, at any time, prepare and submit to the Minister a scheme". Sub-s. 1 of s. 64 provides: "A scheme under the last preceding section may provide for all or any of the following matters, that is to say - (a) for constituting or specifying the body or bodies who are to provide passenger road transport services operating within or partly within the area ...". Then by sub-s. 2: "The commission may be the body specified, or one of the bodies specified, in a provision included in a scheme by virtue of paragraph (a) of sub-s. 1 of this section"; so that it is not to be assumed that the distinction between services provided by the commission themselves and services which they cause other bodies to provide - a distinction which is so clearly present in the draftsman's mind when drafting ss. 63 and 64 - has entirely escaped his mind when he passes on to draft s. 65. It would appear to me that the commission have not in fact themselves provided passenger road services up to this time; but it is quite clear that they could, if they wished to do so, purchase a fleet of omnibuses tomorrow and run them themselves under powers given by s. 2, sub-s. 1 (a) and sub-s. 2 : see Smith. v. London Transport Executive <sup>16</sup> . If the commission in this case had bought, not shares in the omnibus company, but the physical assets of that company, and had engaged the company's staff to run the undertaking, in that case the commission would have been "providing" the services themselves. But it is, in my view, only if and to the extent that the commission do provide such services by themselves (or by an *377 "agent" within the meaning of sub-s. 1 of s. 65 ) that the jurisdiction as to fares of the licensing authority is displaced; and as neither of these conditions is fulfilled in the present case I agree with my Lord that the appeal ought to be allowed.

BIRKETT, L.J.

I agree with both the judgments which have just been delivered. The point in this case was described by the Lord Chief Justice in the Divisional Court as being a short point, and a short point it assuredly is.

The Lord Chief Justice said: "I think, therefore, for the reasons which I have endeavoured to express - it is a very short point - that this is a road transport service provided by the commission, or by persons acting as agents for the commission, and that accordingly the Road Traffic Act no longer applies". Also, in the Divisional Court the grounds upon which this order for prohibition was asked were these: "The relief sought is an order of prohibition that the licensing authority for public service vehicles for the South Wales Traffic Area be prohibited from hearing and determining an application by Red and White Services Ltd. to vary the conditions attached to road service licences now held by the Red and White Services Ltd., that is to say, to increase their present scale of fares. The grounds upon which relief is sought are that the said licensing authority has no jurisdiction to hear and determine the said application".

The short question, therefore, is: is it shown, on the true construction of the statutes, and on the facts which have been proved, that the British Transport Commission are providing these road services in South Wales so that ss. 72 to 76 of the Road Traffic Act, 1930 , no longer apply?

Mr. Morgan invited the court to take a broad view, as he termed it, of the word "provide" in sub-s. 1 of s. 65, and, of course, that, I think, is the gist of the whole matter. Section 65, sub-s. 1, of the Transport Act, 1947 , provides: " Sections 72 to 76 of the Road Traffic Act, 1930 (which relate to road service licences) shall not apply to any passenger road transport service provided, whether under a scheme under the preceding provisions of this Part of this Act or otherwise, by the commission or by any person acting as agent for the commission". Quite naturally, Mr. Morgan said that you must take a broad view of that word "provide". If I may say so, with all respect, it was the acceptance of that invitation in the Divisional Court which led to error. The meaning of the word "provide" cannot be interpreted quite on those lines, but must be ascertained with *378 some precision, having regard to the wording of the various sections of the Transport Act, 1947 .

I think that Mr. Fox-Andrews was quite right in saying that the section which sheds most light on this matter is s. 3. There the general duty of the commission is set out. Sub-section 1 provides: "It shall be the general duty of the commission so to exercise their powers under this Act as to provide, or secure or promote the provision of, an efficient, adequate, economical and properly integrated system of public inland transport and port facilities within Great Britain for passengers and goods with due regard to safety of operation; and for that purpose it shall be the duty of the commission to take such steps as they consider necessary for extending and improving the transport and port facilities within Great Britain in such manner as to provide most efficiently and conveniently for the needs of the public, agriculture, commerce and industry". That is the general duty of the commission, and it is to be observed that one can conceive all sorts of matters as within the power of the Transport Commission under that section: they can provide services themselves; they can, in lieu of providing services themselves, secure the provision of services; or they can, instead of doing that, promote services, all to the end that their general duty under the section shall be fulfilled.

In this case it was shown that the commission in fact controlled the omnibus company, in this sense, that they owned all the shares, with the possible exception of two, and that they had the controlling power over the appointment and the dismissal of directors. In relation to that, sub-s. 6 of s. 2 is very important, because it is contemplated that the commission shall control, directly or indirectly, corporate bodies. The sub-section provides: "For the purposes of sub-s. 4 and of the provisoes to sub-ss. 2 and 3 of this section, where a body corporate is directly or indirectly controlled by the commission, anything done by that body shall be deemed to be done by the commission", thus limiting this provision most carefully to the matters which are set out in the section, i.e., for the purposes of sub-s. 4 and the provisoes of sub-ss. 2 and 3 of s. 2. Therefore, in this case, although the commission do control the omnibus company, though they do own the shares, though they have the power to control the appointment and dismissal of directors, they do not own the property of the company and the vehicles which actually run upon the roads. As my Lord pointed out, there is no power to sue the commission either in contract or in tort. Therefore, popularly, *379 or, if I may use Mr. Morgan's phrase, "in a broad sense", one may say, of course, that the commission provide the services, as one man might say to another, because they control the company, they own the shares; yet in fact what they are really doing here is, not to provide the services, but, as my Lord has already stated, to secure that those services are provided.

Asquith, L.J., discussed the matter of agency, which clearly influenced the Divisional Court, but which is no longer relied upon here; and Cohen, L.J., disposed of the argument raised on the use of the words "or otherwise" in the words of sub-s. 1 of s. 65: "any passenger road transport service provided whether under a scheme under the preceding provisions of this Part of this Act or otherwise".

In all these circumstances, I am clearly of opinion that this was not a case where the commission in fact provided the services, and, that being so, sub-s. 1 of s. 65, which eliminated ss. 72 to 76 of the Road Traffic Act, 1930, in the case of any passenger road transport service provided by the commission, has no application, and I agree that this appeal should be allowed.

25 Proceedings recorded by electronic sound recording; transcript produced by transcription service.

1 provision that's at issue here. We submit that change is an
2 admission or at least a strong indication that the unmodified
3 order, at least as applied in some instances, contains
4 legally-impermissible provisions. The entire argument today
5 from our side is about what's not legally permissible in that 6 order.

7       And that starts with our concerns regarding the 8 application of 28 U.S.C. § 959(a). As Your Honor knows well, 9 959(a) is a provision of law that the Fifth Circuit and 10 Collier on Bankruptcy call an exception to the Barton
11 doctrine. I know from the last time we were here that the 12 Court is already aware of what 959(a) says. It's the second 13 sentence, I understand, which the Court pointed to in our 14 previous hearing that creates general equity powers or 15 authorizes the Court to use its general equity powers to 16 exercise some jurisdiction, some control over actions that 17 fall within the first sentence of 959(a). But that second
18 sentence also prohibits explicitly the Court's using general 19 equity powers to deprive a litigant of his right to trial by 20 jury.

21       Here, we're not under Barton, the statutory exception to 22 Barton applies, because Mr. Seery is a manager of hundreds of 23 millions of third-party investor property. Instead, we're 24 here under the Court's general equity powers, as authorized by 25 959(a). And those equity powers cannot deprive the right to 1 trial by jury.

2 But the order does deprive trials by jury, first by 3 asserting sole jurisdiction here, where jury trials are 4 unavailable, and secondly, by abolishing any trial rights for 5 claims that do not involve gross negligence or intentional
6 misconduct.

7 Movants' third cause of action in the District Court case
8 is for ordinary negligence. It comes with a Seventh Amendment
9 jury right. But it's barred by the order because the order
10 only allows colorable claims involving gross negligence or 11 intentional conduct, not ordinary negligence.

12 Movants' second cause of action in the District Court case
13 is for breach of contract. That comes with a Seventh 14 Amendment jury right, but it's barred by the order because the 15 order only allows colorable claims of gross negligence or 16 intentional misconduct, not negligent or faultless breaches of 17 contractual obligations.

18 Movants' first cause of action in the District Court case,
19 breach of Advisers Act fiduciary duties, comes with a jury
20 right. It's also barred by the order because the order only 21 allows colorable claims involving gross negligence or 22 intentional misconduct.

23 You see there what I mean. Congress couldn't have been 24 clearer. Courts cannot deprive litigants of their day in 25 court before a jury of their peers by invoking general equity

1 powers. Those powers don't trump the constitutional right to 2 a jury trial.

3 Yet this Court's order purports to do precisely that, not
4 only for the Movants, but also for future potential litigants
5 who may have claims that have not even accrued yet. If those 6 claims are for ordinary negligence or breach of contract or 7 breach of fiduciary duties and don't rise to the level of 8 gross negligence or intentional misconduct, this order says
9 that those claims are barred, and it would deprive them of 10 their day in court.

11 The Court's general equity powers are simply not broad 12 enough to uphold such an order.

13 This issue is even more problematic when the causes of 14 action at issue fall within the mandatory withdrawal of the 15 reference provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 157(d). As this Court
16 knows, it lacks jurisdiction over proceedings that require
17 consideration of non-bankruptcy federal law regulating
18 interstate commerce. Some such claims -- Movants' Advisers
19 Act claim, for instance -- do not involve culpability rising
20 to the level of gross negligence or intentional misconduct,
21 but the order purports to bar them nonetheless, despite this 22 Court's lacking jurisdiction over the subject matter of those 23 claims.

24 Even if there is gross negligence or intentional
25 misconduct, the order states that this Court will have sole

1 jurisdiction over such claims. And that can't be right if 2 withdrawal of the reference is mandatory.

3 Opposing counsel will tell you that 157(d) is inapplicable
4 here because they think our claims in the District Court won't
5 require substantial consideration of the Advisers Act or any 6 other federal laws regulating interstate commerce. But their 7 cases don't come anywhere close to making that showing, as the 8 briefing demonstrates.

9 And in any case, that argument is beside the point. This 10 order is contrary to 157(d) because it asserts jurisdiction
11 over claims that 157(d) does not apply -- I'm sorry, does 12 apply to. And that's true regardless of whether Movants'
13 claims are among those.

14 The idea that there's no substantial consideration of 15 federal law, however, in the District Court case is undermined
16 by Mr. Seery's testimony in support of his appointment in 17 which he confirmed that the Advisers Act applies to him and 18 that he has fiduciary duties under that Act to the investors 19 of the funds he manages.

20 Your Honor, importantly, the Advisers Act isn't the 21 typical federal statute with loads of case law under it. It's 22 actually an underdeveloped, less-relied-upon statute, and most 23 -- most of the law under that Act is promulgated by regulation
24 and supervised by the SEC. As a registered investment
25 advisor, Mr. Seery is bound by that Act, which he admits, he

1 agrees to. But to flesh out what his duties are requires a
2 close exam of more than three dozen regulations under 17
3 C.F.R. Part 275.

4 The obligations include robust duties of transparency and 5 disclosure, as well as duties against self-dealing and the 6 necessity of obtaining informed consent, none of which are 7 waivable, these duties.

8 The proceedings here in this Court reflect an effort to 9 have those unwaivable duties waived. The allegations in the 10 District Court are essentially insider trading allegations
11 that the Debtor and Mr. Seery knew or should have known 12 information that they had a duty under the Advisers Act to 13 disclose to their advisees. Both under the Act and 14 contractually, they had those duties. And, instead, they did
15 not disclose and consummated a transaction that benefited
16 themselves nonetheless.

17 In considering those claims, the presiding court will have 18 to consider and apply the Advisers Act and the many 19 regulations promulgated under it, in addition to other federal 20 laws regulating interstate commerce. For that reason,
21 withdrawal of the reference on the District Court action is 22 mandatory. That's the two major -- that's two major problems
23 out of four with the order that we're here on today.

24 First, it deprives litigants of their right to trial, to a 25 jury trial, when Section 959(a) says that can't be done. And,

1 two, the order asserts jurisdiction -- sole jurisdiction, even 2 -- over proceedings in which withdrawal of the reference is 3 mandatory under 157(d).

4 The fourth major problem is what the Court called
5 specificity at the previous hearing. The Fifth Circuit's
6 Applewood Chair case holds that the rule from Shoaf does not 7 apply without a "specific discharge or release," and that that 8 release has to be enumerated and approved by the Bankruptcy
9 Court. Thus, the order here can't exculpate Mr. Seery of 10 liability for ordinary negligence and the like in a blanket
11 fashion. The claims being released must be identified.

12 That's what happened in Shoaf. Shoaf's guaranty
13 obligation was explicitly released. That's also what happened
14 in Espinosa. Espinosa's plan listed his student loan as his 15 only specific indebtedness. But it's not what happened here.
16 And it couldn't happen here, because the ordinary negligence
17 and similar claims being discharged by the order had not yet 18 accrued and thus were not even in existence at the time the 19 order issued.

20 Instead, what we have here is a nonconsensual, nondebtor
21 injunction or release that's precisely what the Fifth Circuit
22 refused to enforce in the Pacific Lumber case.

23 So, lack of specificity is the third major problem with 24 the order. And that brings us to the fourth problem, which is 25 the Barton doctrine. Barton is the only possible basis for

1 this Court to assert exclusive or sole jurisdiction over
2 anything. Outside of Barton, it's plain black letter law that
3 the District Court's jurisdiction is equal to and includes 4 anything that this Court's derivative jurisdiction would also 5 reach.

6 But the exception to the Barton doctrine in 959(a) plainly
7 applies here, leaving no basis for exclusivity with regards to 8 jurisdiction and the District Court. That's because Mr. Seery
9 is carrying on the business of a debtor and managing the 10 property of others, rather than merely administering the 11 bankruptcy estate. The exclusive jurisdiction function of the 12 Barton doctrine has no applicability because 959(a) creates 13 that exception here.

14 Under its general equity powers, yes, 959(a) still 15 authorizes this Court to exercise some control over actions
16 against Mr. Seery, but short of depriving litigants of their 17 day in court. And nothing in 959(a), that exception to 18 Barton, says that the Court can nonetheless exercise
19 exclusivity in that jurisdiction. Those general equity powers
20 do not create exclusive or sole jurisdiction. They do not 21 deprive the District Court of its Congressionally-granted
22 original jurisdiction.

23 Moreover, Mr. Seery is not an appointed trustee entitled 24 to the protections of the Barton doctrine in any case. His 25 appointment was a corporate decision that the Court was asked

1 not to interfere with. The Court was asked to defer under the 2 business judgment rule to the Debtor's appointment of Mr.
3 Seery. And the Court did so.

4 As we asserted last time, no authority that we can find
5 combines these two unrelated doctrines, the Barton doctrine
6 and the business judgment rule. And they don't go together.
7 None of the testimony or the briefing or argument, in the July
8 order, in the January order that preceded it, none of that 9 indicated that Mr. Seery would be a trustee or the functional
10 equivalent of a trustee. The word "trustee" does not appear
11 in any of those briefs or transcripts.

12 Opposing -- and because of that, the District Court suit
13 is not about -- well, not because of that. The District Court
14 suit simply is not about any trustee-like role that Mr. Seery
15 may have played anyway. Opposing counsel will try to convince 16 you otherwise, will tell you that the District Court case is a 17 collateral attack on the settlement, but it's not. Wearing 18 his estate administrator hat, Mr. Seery can settle claims in 19 this court. Wearing his advisor hat, he has to fulfill his 20 Advisers Act duties and properly advise his clients.

21 He doesn't have to wear both hats, and it seems highly 22 unusual that he would choose to fill both of those roles
23 simultaneously. But he has chosen both roles. And the 24 District Court case is a hundred percent about his role as an 25 advisor. Did he comply with the Act? Did he do the things

1 that his advisor role obligated him to do as a manager of that 2 property?

3 The District Court suit really is only being used to 4 illustrate the issues that we're raising here. It's 5 important, it's timely to address those issues now because of 6 the District Court action, but that's an illustration of the 7 problems with the order. It is not exclusively that that 8 action is what we're attempting to address. Rather, the order
9 exculpating Mr. Seery from ordinary negligence liability and 10 similar liability is problematic, is contrary to the law. On 11 top of that, the Court is asserting jurisdiction over gross
12 negligence and intentional misconduct claims. To the extent 13 that 157(d) applies, it is problematic and contrary to law as 14 well.

15 THE COURT: Okay. We're occasionally getting some 16 breakup of your sound. So please -- I don't know what you can 17 do to adjust, but it was just now, and intermittently we get a 18 little bit of garbly. So if you could just say your last 19 sentence one more time, and we'll see if it improves.

20 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, I'm not sure I can say this 21 last sentence again.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. BRIDGES: I was -- I was mentioning that the 24 District Court case is an illustration of our argument. Our 25 argument is not merely that the District Court case should be

1 exempted or excepted from the order. Our argument is that the 2 order is legally infirm and that the District Court case and 3 the claims there illustrate some of those infirmities, but 4 that the infirmities go beyond just what's at issue in the 5 District Court case.

6 In sum, there are four problems with the order that render
7 parts of it legally infirm. It deprives the right of a jury
8 trial -- in fact, of any trial -- in contravention of 959(a)
9 for some causes of action.

10 It asserts jurisdiction -- two, it asserts jurisdiction
11 over claims that are subject to the mandatory withdrawal of 12 the reference provision (garbled) 157(d).

13 And three, it lacks the specificity required to discharge
14 future claims under Applewood.

15 Finally, Your Honor, number four, the order relies on the 16 Barton doctrine, which doesn't apply and which 959(a) creates 17 an exception to.

18 Movants respectfully submit the order should be modified
19 for those reasons.

20 MR. SBAITI: Tell him Mark Patrick is here, for the 21 record.

22 THE COURT: All right. I have a couple of follow-up
23 questions for you. I want to drill down on the issue of your 24 client not having appealed the July 2020 order. Or the 25 HarbourVest settlement order, for that matter. Tell me as

1 directly as possible why you don't view that as a big problem.
2 Because it's high on my list of possible problems here.

3 MR. BRIDGES: I understand, Your Honor. The 4 Applewood Chair case is our -- our defense to that argument,
5 that without providing specifics as to the claims being 6 discharged in the July order, that Shoaf cannot apply to 7 create a res judicata effect from the failure to appeal that 8 order.

9 THE COURT: But is that really what we're talking
10 about, a discharge of certain claims? We're talking about a 11 protocol that the Court established which wasn't appealed.

12 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, your order does many 13 things. We're talking about a few of them in one paragraph of 14 the order. And in that order -- in that paragraph, yes, it
15 creates a protocol for determining the colorability of some 16 claims, claims that rise to the level of gross negligence or 17 intentional misconduct. It does not create a protocol for 18 claims that fall below that threshold, claims for ordinary 19 negligence, as an example.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MR. BRIDGES: For breach of contract that's not 22 intentional, is not grossly negligent, it's just a breach of 23 contract. It can even be faultless. There's still liability.
24 There's still a jury right under the Seventh Amendment for 25 faultless breach of contract.

1           The protocols in the order do not address such claims
2 other than to bar them. To discharge them. And thus, yes,
3 it's a release, it's a discharge of those claims. It can be 4 viewed as a permanent injunction against bringing such claims.
5 It's what's -- it's what's not allowed by the Applewood Chair
6 case and by Pacific Lumber.

7           THE COURT: All right. So you're arguing that was --
8 the wording of the order was not specific enough to apprise
9 affected parties of what they were releasing, they're 10 releasing claims based on ordinary negligence against Mr.
11 Seery? That's not specific enough?

12           MR. BRIDGES: Correct. Future unproved claims, the 13 factual basis for which has not happened yet. Those cannot be 14 and were not disclosed with any specificity in this order.

15           If we compare it to Shoaf and to Espinosa, in Shoaf what 16 we had was a guaranty, Shoaf's guaranty on a transaction that 17 was listed in the actual release, describing what the 18 transaction was that was being -- that the guaranty was being 19 released for.

20           In Espinosa, what we had was a student loan --

21           THE COURT: Right.

22           MR. BRIDGES: -- that was listed in the plan
23 specifically, as the only specific indebtedness.

24           Here, we don't have any of that specificity. What we have 25 is a notice to the entire world, Your Honor, that for an

1 unlimited period of time any claim for ordinary negligence,
2 for ordinary breach of contract or fiduciary duty against Mr.
3 Seery is barred if it relates to his CEO role. And his CEO
4 role means as a manager of property, exactly precisely what 5 959(a) is talking about.

6 Those jury rights (garbled) claims cannot be released,
7 discharged, expunged, done away with, in an order that isn't 8 explicit.

9 On top of that, even in an explicit order, 959(a) tells 10 the Court it cannot deprive a litigant of its jury trial
11 right.

12 THE COURT: Well, as anyone knows who's been around a 13 while in this case, my brain sometimes goes down an unexpected
14 trail, and maybe this one is one of those situations. Are 15 there contracts that your clients would rely on in potential
16 litigation?

17 MR. BRIDGES: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: What are those contracts?

19 MR. BRIDGES: It is a management contract. I don't 20 think I can give you the specifics at this moment, but I
21 probably can before we're done here today. A management
22 contract in which the Debtor provides advisory and management
23 services to the DAF --

24 THE COURT: Well, you know, the shared services
25 agreements that we heard so much about in this case? A shared

1 service agreement? I can't remember, you know, which entities
2 have them and which do not at times. So, --

3 MR. BRIDGES: The shared services agreement is one of 4 those contracts, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MR. BRIDGES: It's not the only one.

7 THE COURT: And what are the others?

8 MR. BRIDGES: There's -- the other is the investment
9 advisory agreement.

10 THE COURT: Those two?

11 MR. BRIDGES: (no response)

12 THE COURT: Those are the only two?

13 MR. BRIDGES: There may be one other, Your Honor.
14 I'm not sure.

15 THE COURT: Are they in evidence?

16 MR. BRIDGES: I can find out shortly.

17 THE COURT: Are they in evidence? We haven't talked 18 about evidence yet, but are they going to be in evidence, 19 potentially?

20 MR. BRIDGES: They are referenced in the District
21 Court case, the complaint, which is in evidence.

22 THE COURT: I'm asking, are --

23 MR. BRIDGES: But those contracts I don't believe are 24 listed as exhibits here in this motion, no.

25 THE COURT: They are not? Okay.

1 Well, what my brain is thinking about here is, of the 2 umpteen agreements I've seen -- more than umpteen -- of the 3 many, many agreements I've seen over time in this case, so
4 often there's a waiver of jury trial rights, as I recall, as 5 well as an arbitration clause. I just was curious, hmm, you
6 know, you talked a lot about your clients' jury trial rights:
7 do we know that these agreements have not waived those?

8 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, I think I can answer that 9 by the end of our hearing. I don't have an answer off the top 10 of my head. What I can tell you is a jury right has been 11 demanded in the federal court complaint, which is in evidence,
12 and that opposing counsel has brought no evidence indicating 13 that they have the defense of our having waived the right to a 14 jury trial here.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I just --

16 MR. BRIDGES: Or arbitra...

17 THE COURT: -- would think that you would know that.
18 Does anyone know that on the Debtor's side off the top of your 19 head?

20 MR. POMERANTZ: I do not, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

22 MR. POMERANTZ: And to Mr. Bridges' last point, we 23 have filed a motion to dismiss. We have not answered the 24 complaint. So any time to object to their jury trial right
25 would be in the context of the answer. So the implication

1 that we have not raised the issue and therefore it doesn't
2 exist is just not a correct implication and connection he's 3 trying to draw.

4 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

5 Well, let me also ask you about this. I'm obsessing a
6 little over the Barton doctrine and your insistence that it
7 does not provide authority or an analogy here.

8 Well, for one thing, is there anything in the Fifth
9 Circuit case Sherman v. Ondova that you think either helps you
10 or hurts you on that point? I'm intimately familiar with it,
11 although I haven't read it in a while, because it was my 12 opinion that the Fifth Circuit affirmed. And I spent a lot of 13 time thinking about that. It was a trustee, a traditional -- 14 well, no, a Chapter 11 trustee and his counsel. But anything
15 from that case that you think is worthy of pointing out here?

16 MR. BRIDGES: No, Your Honor. I'm not -- nothing
17 comes to mind. That case is not fresh on my mind.

18 What I would tell you is that Barton doctrine and the 19 business judgment rule are incompatible, and the appointment
20 of a trustee never involves application of the business
21 judgment rule or deference to the Debtor or another party in 22 terms of making that appointment.

23 The Barton doctrine, as it applies to trustees, is viewed 24 as an extension, to some extent, of judicial immunity to the 25 trustee, who is chosen by, selected by the Court and assigned

1 by the Court to carry out certain functions. That --

2 THE COURT: Well, let me --

3 MR. BRIDGES: -- quasi-immunity --

4 THE COURT: -- stop you there. You say it's an 5 extension of immunity. But isn't it, by nature, really a
6 gatekeeping provision? It's a gatekeeping provision, right?
7 Before you even get to immunity, maybe, in a lawsuit, it's a
8 gatekeeping function that the Supreme Court has blessed, you
9 know, obviously in the context of a receiver, but appellate 10 courts have blessed it in the bankruptcy context. The 11 Bankruptcy Court can be the gatekeeper on whether the trustee
12 or someone I think in a similar position can get sued or not.

13 And then we had that Fifth Circuit case after Ondova. It
14 begins with a V, Villegas or something like that. Didn't 15 that, I don't know, further ratify, if you will, the whole
16 Barton doctrine by saying, oh, just because they're noncore
17 claims, state law or non-bankruptcy law claims, doesn't mean, 18 after Stern, the Bankruptcy Court still cannot serve the 19 gatekeeper function.

20 Tell me what you disagree. That's my kind of combined
21 reading of all of that.

22 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, I have to parse it out.
23 There's a lot to unpack there. If I can make sure to get in 24 the follow-ups, I can start with saying it's okay for the 25 Court in many instances to act as a gatekeeper.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 MR. BRIDGES: Both under Barton -- under Barton, or 3 when the Barton exception in 959(a) applies, under the Court's
4 general equitable powers, that gatekeeping functions are not
5 across-the-board prohibited, --

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 MR. BRIDGES: -- and we aren't trying to argue that 8 they're prohibited across the board.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 MR. BRIDGES: Now, to try to dig into that a little 11 deeper, the order does two things: gatekeeping as to some 12 claims, and, frankly, discharging or barring other claims.
13 Those are two separate functions.

14 The first one, the gatekeeping, may be, in some 15 circumstances, which we'll come to, many circumstances, may be 16 allowable, may be even mandatory under Barton, not even 17 requiring an order from this Court, for the gatekeeping of 18 Barton to apply. But nonetheless, allowable in many instances
19 under the Court's general equity powers under 959(a). That 20 part is right about gatekeeping.

21 It does not create jurisdiction in this Court where 157(d)
22 deprives this Court of jurisdiction. Just because it's 23 related to bankruptcy isn't enough to say that the Court
24 therefore has jurisdiction if, one, if mandatory withdrawal of 25 the reference is required.

1           Furthermore, Your Honor, that gatekeeping function, under
2 the equity powers authorized by 959(a), will not allow a court
3 to discharge or -- or deprive, is the word I'm looking for --
4 deprive a litigant of their right to a trial -- a specific
5 kind of trial, a jury trial -- but a trial. And by crafting
6 an order that says certain kinds of claims that do (garbled)
7 jury rights are barred, rather than just providing a 8 gatekeeper provision, flat-out bars them, that doesn't -- that 9 doesn't comply with 959.

10           THE COURT: Okay.

11           MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, if I could add one last 12 thing.

13           THE COURT: Go ahead.

14           MR. BRIDGES: The Supreme Court's Stern case points
15 out that -- that it's -- well, actually, it's the Villegas
16 case from the Fifth Circuit --

17           THE COURT: The one I mentioned.

18           MR. BRIDGES: -- points out that Stern -- Stern --
19 yes, you did. Stern did not create an exception to the Barton
20 doctrine. And that gives -- that endorses a Barton court's 21 ability to perform gatekeeping, even over claims that Stern
22 says there would not be jurisdiction over.

23           Contrast that with 959(a), which Collier on Bankruptcy and 24 the Fifth Circuit have held is an exception to the Barton
25 doctrine. Because of that exception, Barton no longer

1 applies, and what you're using in invoking a gatekeeper order
2 is the Court's inherent equitable powers, its general powers
3 in equity. And those equity powers are cabined. They're 4 broad, but they're cabined by 959(a)'s prohibition of doing
5 away with a litigant's right to a trial, a jury trial.

6 Now, I also -- counsel is telling me I should note for the 7 record that Mr. Mark Patrick is here as a representative of 8 our clients. But Your Honor, I'll -- I will quit now unless 9 you have further questions for me.

10 THE COURT: All right. I do not at this time. Mr.
11 Morris or Mr. Pomerantz, who's going to make the argument?

12 MR. POMERANTZ: It's me, Your Honor.

13 OPENING STATEMENT ON BEHALF OF THE DEBTOR

14 MR. POMERANTZ: And I'll start with the jury trial
15 right. In the last few minutes, we have been able to 16 determine that the Second Amended and Restated Investment
17 Advisory Agreement between the DAF and the Debtor has a broad 18 jury trial waiver under 14(f). And in addition, as I will 19 include in my discussion, there is no private right of action
20 under the Investment Advisers Act.

21 I think those two points are fatal to Movants' argument,
22 and probably I can get away with not even responding to the 23 others. But since I prepared a lengthy presentation to 24 address the issues that were raised today, and also the half 25 hour that Mr. Bridges spent with Your Honor on June 8th in

1 which was his first opening statement on the motion for 2 reconsideration, I'll now proceed.

3 THE COURT: All right.

4 MR. POMERANTZ: The arguments that the Movants made
5 in the original motion essentially boil down to one legal 6 proposition, that the Court did not have jurisdiction to enter
7 the July 16th order because those orders impermissibly
8 stripped the District Court from jurisdiction, in violation of 9 (inaudible) Supreme Court precedent and 28 U.S.C. Section
10 157(d).

11 As with all things Dondero, the arguments continue to 12 morph, and you heard argument at the contempt hearing on June
13 8th and further argument today that now the prospective
14 exculpation for negligence in the order is also unenforceable
15 and should be modified.

16 Movants continue to try to distance themselves from the 17 January 9th order and argue that it is not relevant because 18 they seek to pursue claims against Mr. Seery as CEO and not as 19 an independent director. Movants ignore, however, that the 20 January 9th order not only protects Mr. Seery in his role as 21 the independent director, but also as an agent of the board.
22 I will walk the Court through my arguments on that issue in a
23 few moments.

24 Of course, the Movants had no explanation, Your Honor, for 25 the question of why it took them until May of 2021, 10 months

1 after the entry of the July 16th order that appointed Mr.
2 Seery as CEO and CRO, and 16 months after the Court appointed
3 the independent board, with Mr. Dondero's blessing and 4 consent, as a substitute for what would have surely been the 5 imminent appointment of a Chapter 11 trustee.

6 Movants try to distance themselves from the prior orders
7 by essentially arguing that the DAF is a newcomer to the 8 Chapter 11 and is not under Mr. Dondero's control but is 9 rather managed separately and independently by Mr. Patrick,
10 who recently replaced Mr. Scott.

11 The Movants admit, as they must, that the DAF is the 12 parent and the sole shareholder of CLO Holdco and conducts its 13 business through CLO Holdco, and both entities conduct their 14 business through one individual. It was Grant Scott then;
15 it's Mark Patrick now. So even if Mr. Dondero does not 16 control the DAF and CLO Holdco, which issue was the subject of 17 lengthy testimony in connection with the DAF hearing, both the 18 DAF and the CLO Holdco are bound by the Debtor's res judicata
19 argument, which I will discuss shortly.

20 In any event, I really doubt the Court is convinced that 21 the DAF operates truly independently of Mr. Dondero any more 22 than the Court has been convinced that the Advisors, the 23 Funds, Dugaboy and Get Good, all operate independently from 24 Mr. Dondero. The only explanation for the delay is that Mr.
25 Dondero has been and continues to be unhappy with the Court's

1 rulings and has now hired a new set of lawyers in a desperate
2 attempt to evade this Court's jurisdiction. Having failed in 3 their attempt to recuse Your Honor from the case, this is 4 essentially their last hope.

5 And these new lawyers, Your Honor, have not only filed
6 this DAF lawsuit in the District Court which is the subject of 7 the contempt motion and today's motion, but they also filed
8 another lawsuit in the District Court on behalf of an entity
9 called PCMG, another Dondero entity, challenging yet another
10 of Mr. Seery's postpetition decisions.

11 And there's no doubt that this is only the beginning. Mr.
12 Dondero recently told Your Honor at a hearing that there were 13 many more sets of lawyers waiting in the wings. And as the 14 Court remarked at the hearing on the Trusts' motion to compel
15 compliance with Rule 2015.3, the Trusts were trying through 16 that motion to obtain information about the Debtor's control
17 entities so that they could file more lawsuits against the 18 Debtor, a concern that Mr. Draper unconvincingly denied.

19 I would like to focus the Court preliminarily on exactly
20 what the January 9th and July 16th orders do, because Movants
21 try to confuse things by casting the entire order with a broad 22 brush of their jurisdictional overreach arguments, and they 23 misinterpret Supreme Court and Fifth Circuit precedent.

24 I would like to put up on the screen the language of 25 Paragraph 10 of the January 9th order and Paragraph 35

1 (garbled) of the July 16th.

2 Your Honor is very familiar with these orders, I'm sure,
3 having dealt with them in connection with confirmation and in 4 prior proceedings. But to recap, the orders essentially do
5 three things.

6 First, they require the parties to first come to the 7 Bankruptcy Court before commencing or pursuing a claim against 8 certain parties.

9 Second, they provided the Court with the sole jurisdiction
10 to make a finding of whether the party has asserted a 11 colorable claim of negligence -- of willful misconduct or 12 gross negligence.

13 And lastly, the orders provided the Court with exclusive
14 jurisdiction over any claims that the Court determined were 15 colorable.

16 The protected parties under the January 9th order are the 17 independent directors, their agents and advisors, which, as I 18 mentioned earlier, includes Mr. Seery -- who, at least as of 19 March 2020, was acting as the agent on the board's behalf as 20 the CEO -- for any actions taken under their direction.

21 The protected parties under the July 16th order are Mr.
22 Seery, as the CEO and CRO, and his agents and advisors.

23 Movants spend a lot of time in their moving papers and 24 reply arguing that the Court may not assert exclusive 25 jurisdiction over any claims that pass through the gate. They

1 also spend a lot of time arguing that the Bankruptcy Court
2 does not even have jurisdiction at all to assert -- to 3 adjudicate claims against Mr. Seery because such claims are 4 subject to mandatory withdrawal under Section 157(d).

5 The Debtor doesn't agree, and has briefed why mandatory
6 withdrawal of the reference is inapplicable. The Debtor has 7 also filed in the District Court a motion to enforce the 8 reference in effect in this district which refers cases in 9 this district arising under, arising in, or related to Chapter
10 11 to the Bankruptcy Court.

11 The motion to enforce the reference, Your Honor, which 12 extensively briefs this issue, is contained in Exhibit 3 of 13 the Debtor's exhibits.

14 We were somewhat surprised that the complaint filed in the 15 District Court wasn't automatically referred to this Court 16 under the standing order in effect in this district, given the 17 related bankruptcy case, the Court's prior approval of the 18 HarbourVest settlement, and the appeal in the District Court
19 of the HarbourVest settlement.

20 When we dug a little further, we found out that Movants
21 filed a civil case cover sheet accompanying the complaint in 22 the District Court. They neglected in that initial filing to 23 point out that there was any related case to the lawsuit they 24 filed.

25 Mr. Bridges fell on his sword at the contempt hearing on

1 June 8th and took complete responsibility for the oversight.
2 I commend him for not trying to argue that the bankruptcy
3 case, the HarbourVest settlement, and the District Court
4 appeal are not related cases that would require disclosure, an 5 argument that surely would have been unsupportable.

6 But as I said at the contempt hearing, I find it curious
7 that such an important issue was overlooked, an issue which 8 would have likely changed the entire trajectory of the 9 proceedings and landed the DAF lawsuit in this Court rather 10 than the District Court.

11 And this Tuesday, Your Honor, Movants filed a revised 12 civil cover sheet with the District Court. Although they 13 referenced the bankruptcy case as a related case, they didn't
14 bother to mention the appeal already pending in the District
15 Court regarding the HarbourVest settlement -- surely, a 16 related case.

17 Your Honor also asked Mr. Bridges at the June 8th hearing
18 whether it was an oversight or intentional that he didn't 19 mention 28 U.S.C. Section 1334 as a basis for jurisdiction in 20 his complaint. Mr. Bridges had no answer for Your Honor then,
21 and has given no answer now. His only comment at the hearing
22 last time was that it must have been Ms. Sbaiti that wrote it
23 because he had no recollection of it.

24 So, Your Honor, it's no surprise that Movants conveniently
25 found themselves in the District Court, which was their

1 ultimate strategy from the get go.

2 In any event, Your Honor, we have briefed the withdrawal
3 of the reference issue. A response by the Movants is due --
4 CLO Holdco and DAF is due on June 29th. And we hope the 5 District Court will decide soon thereafter whether to enforce 6 the reference.

7 While I'm happy to argue why Movants' mandatory withdrawal
8 of the reference argument is [not] persuasive, I don't think
9 it's necessary, but I do, again, want to highlight that there
10 is no private right of action under the Investment Advisers
11 Act.

12 Your Honor, it's not really relevant to today's hearing, 13 since we have argued in opposition to the motion before Your 14 Honor that resolving the issue of the Bankruptcy Court's 15 jurisdiction to adjudicate claims contained in the complaint
16 as they relate to Mr. Seery is premature at this point. The 17 January 9th and July 16th orders first require the Court to 18 determine whether a claim is colorable. It's not until this 19 Court determines if a claim is colorable that the decision on 20 where the lawsuit should be tried is relevant.

21 Having said that, Your Honor, we read the Movants' reply
22 brief very carefully and noticed in Footnote 6 that the 23 Movants state that modifying the exclusive grant of 24 jurisdiction to adjudicate any claims that pass through the 25 gate to include the language "to the extent permissible by

1 law," in the same way the Debtor modified the plan, would
2 resolve the motion. So let's look at the provision as it
3 exists in the plans.

4 Ms. Canty, if you can put up the next demonstrative,
5 please.

6 This provision provides that the Bankruptcy Court will 7 have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a
8 claim or cause of action is colorable, and, only to the extent
9 legally permissible and provided in Article XI, shall have 10 jurisdiction to determine -- to adjudicate the underlying 11 colorable claim or cause of action.

12 The Movants request in their reply brief in Footnote 6
13 that the July 16th order be given the plan treatment. That 14 treatment: sole authority to determine colorability and 15 jurisdiction, and, to the extent legally permissible, to 16 adjudicate underlying claim, only if jurisdiction existed.

17 After reviewing the reply brief and prior to the June 8th
18 hearing, we decided that we would agree to modify both the 19 January 9th and the July 16th orders to provide that the 20 Bankruptcy Court would only have jurisdiction to adjudicate
21 claims that pass through the colorability gate to the extent
22 permissible by law.

23 Prior to the June 8th hearing, Mr. Morris and I had a 24 conversation with Mr. Bridges. We conferred about a potential
25 resolution and a proposed modification. Mr. Bridges indicated

1 they were interested in exploring a resolution and wanted to 2 --

3 MR. BRIDGES: Objection, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: There's an objection?

5 MR. BRIDGES: Objection, Your Honor. There's a Rule
6 408 settlement discussion. He's welcome to talk about the 7 results, but he shouldn't be talking about what was -- what 8 was proposed by opposing counsel in a settlement conversation.

9 THE COURT: Okay. I overrule.

10 MR. POMERANTZ: Your Honor, this was not --

11 THE COURT: I don't think this is a 408 issue.

12 Continue.

13 MR. BRIDGES: Thank you.

14 MR. POMERANTZ: The stipulation and order which we 15 provided to counsel is attached to my declaration, which is 16 found at Document 2418, and it was filed in connection with a
17 Notice of Revised Proposed Orders that we filed at Docket
18 2417. And I would like to put up on the screen the relevant
19 paragraphs of the order that we provided to the Movants.

20 So, you see, we agreed to modify each of the orders at the 21 end to do what the plan says. The Court would only have 22 jurisdiction for claims passing through the gate if the Court
23 had jurisdiction and it was legally permissible.

24 Movants' counsel, however, responded with a mark-up that 25 went beyond -- went beyond what Movants proposed in Footnote 6

1 and sought to fundamentally change the January 9th and July
2 16th orders in ways that were not acceptable to the Debtor and 3 not even contemplated by the original motion.

4 Ms. Canty, can you put up on the screen the relevant
5 paragraphs of the response we received?

6 Specifically, Your Honor, you see at the first part they 7 wanted to provide that the only -- the order only applied to 8 claims involving injury to the Debtor, presumably as opposed
9 to alleged injuries to affiliated funds or third parties.
10 They also provided that the Court's ability to make the 11 initial colorability determination was also qualified by "to 12 the extent permissible by law" in the way that the Court --
13 that the Debtor agreed to modify the ultimate adjudication
14 jurisdiction provision.

15 Your Honor, Movants haven't even talked about this back
16 and forth. They haven't talked about their about-face. And 17 I'll leave it for Your Honor to read their Footnote 6 that 18 said it would resolve their motion, the back and forth, our 19 proposal, and now Mr. Bridges' modified, morphed arguments
20 that now point out other issues.

21 In any event, Your Honor, we made the change, and we think 22 it should resolve the motion, or at least it resolves part of 23 the motion. There can't be any argument that the Court is 24 trying to exert exclusive jurisdiction on claims that pass
25 through the gate.

1           What apparently remains from the arguments raised by the 2 Movants is the argument that the Court does not even have 3 jurisdiction to act as a gatekeeper in the first place because 4 it doesn't have jurisdiction of the underlying lawsuit. And 5 on June 8th and today, they've added a new argument, that the 6 orders impermissibly exculpate Mr. Seery and others, violate
7 their jury trial rights, and are contrary to the Fifth Circuit
8 precedent.

9           Movants claims that the orders are a jurisdictional
10 overreach, a violation of constitutional proportions, a
11 violation of due process, and inconsistent with several U.S.
12 Supreme Court cases. But, of course, they cite no cases whose 13 facts are even remotely similar to this one. Instead, they 14 are content to rely on general statements regarding bankruptcy
15 jurisdiction, how it is derived from district court
16 jurisdiction and is constitutionally limited, legal 17 propositions which are not terribly controversial or even 18 applicable to these facts.

19           There are several arguments -- I mean, there are several 20 reasons, Your Honor, why Movants' arguments fail. Initially,
21 Movants have not cited any authority, any statute, or any rule 22 which would allow this Court to revisit the January 9th and 23 July 16th orders. As I will discuss in a moment, Your Honor, 24 Republic v. Shoaf, a case the Court is very familiar in and 25 relied on in connection with plan confirmation, bars a

1 collateral attack on these orders under the doctrine of res
2 judicata.

3 Similarly, as the Court remarked on June 8th, the Supreme 4 Court's Espinosa decision, which rejected an attack based upon
5 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(4) to a prior order that 6 may have been unlawful, prohibits the Court from now
7 reconsidering the January 9th and July 16th orders.

8 But even if Your Honor rules that res judicata does not 9 apply, there are two independent reasons why the orders were 10 not an unlawful extension of the Court's jurisdiction. The 11 first is because the Court had jurisdiction to enter both of 12 those orders as the ability to determine the colorability of 13 claims is within the jurisdiction of the Court. The second is 14 because the orders are justified by the Barton doctrine.

15 Lastly, Your Honor, Movants' argument that the Court may 16 not act as a gatekeeper to determine the colorability of a 17 claim for which it may not have jurisdiction is incorrect, and 18 as Your Honor has mentioned and as Mr. Bridges unconvincingly
19 tried to distinguish, the Fifth Circuit Villegas v. Schmidt
20 case is a case on point and resolves that issue.

21 Turning to res judicata, Your Honor, it prevents the Court
22 from revisiting these governance orders. CLO Holdco had 23 formal notice of the Seery CEO motion and the opportunity to 24 respond. It failed to do so. It is clearly bound.

25 As reflected on Debtor's Exhibit 4, CLO Holdco is a

1 wholly-owned subsidiary of the DAF. The DAF is its sole
2 shareholder. There is no dispute about that. Importantly, at 3 the time of both the January and July orders, Grant Scott was 4 the only human being authorized to act on behalf of CLO Holdco
5 and the DAF. The DAF did not respond to the Seery CEO motion, 6 either.

7 And why is that important, Your Honor? It's because 8 Movants argue in their reply that the DAF cannot be bound by 9 res judicata because they did not receive notice of the July
10 16th order. However, Your Honor, that is not the law. Res
11 judicata binds parties to the dispute and their privies, and 12 the DAF is bound to the prior orders even though it did not 13 receive notice.

14 There are several cases, Your Honor, that stand for this 15 unremarkable proposition. First I would point Your Honor to 16 the Fifth Circuit's opinion of Astron Industrial Associates v.
17 Chrysler, found at 405 F.2d 958, a Fifth Circuit case from 18 1968. In that case, Your Honor, the Fifth Circuit held that 19 the appellant was barred by the doctrine of res judicata from 20 bringing a claim because its parent, which was its sole
21 shareholder, would have been bound by res judicata.

22 Astron is consistent with the 1978 Fifth Circuit case of 23 Pollard v. Cockrell, 578 F.2d 1002 (1978). And the Northern 24 District of Texas in 2000 case of Bank One v. Capital
25 Associates, 2000 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 11652, found that a parent

1 and a sole shareholder of an entity couldn't assert res
2 judicata as a defense when those claims could have been 3 brought against its wholly-owned subsidiary.

4 And lastly, Your Honor, the 2011 Southern District of 5 Texas case, West v. WRH Energy Partners, 2011 LEXIS 5183, held
6 that res judicata applied with respect to a partnership's
7 general partner because the general partner was in privity
8 with the partnership.

9 These cases are spot on and make sense. DAF is CLO
10 Holdco's parent. Grant Scott was the only live person to 11 represent these entities in any capacity at the relevant 12 times. Accordingly, just as CLO Holdco is bound, DAF is 13 bound.

14 Allowing DAF to assert a claim when its wholly-owned and 15 controlled subsidiary is barred would allow entities to 16 transfer claims amongst their related entities in order to 17 relitigate them and they would never be finality. And, of 18 course, Jim Dondero, as we know, consented to the January 9th 19 order, which provided Mr. Seery protection in a variety of 20 capacities.

21 And as Your Honor has pointed out, and as Mr. Bridges
22 didn't have an answer for, neither CLO Holdco nor the DAF or 23 any other party appealed any of the governance orders. And 24 nobody challenged the validity of these orders at the 25 confirmation hearing, where the terms of these orders were

1 front and center.

2 And importantly, Your Honor, the orders are clear and 3 unambiguous. They require a Bankruptcy Court [sic] to seek 4 Bankruptcy Court approval before they commence or pursue an 5 action against the independent board, the CEO, CRO, or their 6 agents. And they clearly and unambiguously set the standard
7 of care for actions prospectively: gross negligence or 8 willful misconduct.

9 The Bankruptcy Court had jurisdiction to enter the 10 governance orders, which, as expressly indicated in the 11 orders, were core proceedings dealing with the administration
12 of the estate. No one challenged this finding of core 13 jurisdiction. And as I will discuss later, the failure to 14 challenge core jurisdiction is waived under applicable Supreme 15 Court and Fifth Circuit precedent.

16 Your Honor, the Court [sic] does not argue that Movants
17 have waived their right to seek adjudication of a lawsuit that 18 passes through the colorability gate by an Article III Court.
19 The issue is not before the Court, but the changes to the 20 order that the Debtor agreed to make clearly -- clearly will 21 provide Mr. Bridges' clients the ability to make that 22 determination.

23 The Debtor is, however, arguing that the Movants have 24 waived their right to contest the core jurisdiction of the 25 Bankruptcy Court to make the determination that the claims are

1 colorable in the first place, and to challenge the exculpation
2 provisions provided to the beneficiaries of those orders.

3 Accordingly, Your Honor, the elements of res judicata are 4 satisfied. Both proceedings involve the same parties. The 5 prior judgment was entered by a court of competent 6 jurisdiction. The prior order was a final judgment on its 7 merits. And they involved the same causes of action.

8 Importantly, the members of the independent board,
9 including Jim Seery, relied on the protections contained in 10 the January 9th and July 16th orders and would not have 11 accepted these appointments if the protections weren't 12 included. And how do we know this? Because each of them, 13 both Mr. Seery and Mr. Dubel, both testified at the 14 confirmation hearing on this very topic.

15 And I would like to put up on the screen an excerpt from 16 Mr. Seery's testimony at confirmation, which is testimony
17 included in the February 2nd, 2021 transcript, which is 18 Exhibit 2 of the Debtor's exhibits.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. POMERANTZ: And I would like to just read this,
21 Your Honor.

22 "Q Okay. You mentioned that there were certain
23 provisions of the January 9th order that were important
24 to you and the other independent directors. Do I have 25 that right?"

1 MR. POMERANTZ: A little bit later on, Mr. Seery
2 testifies:

3 "A And then ultimately there'll be another provision
4 in the agreement here, I don't see it off the top of my 5 head, but a gatekeeper provision. And that provision"
6 --

7 "Q Hold on one second, Mr. Seery."

8 MR. POMERANTZ: Please scroll.

9 "Q So, Paragraph 4 and 5, were those -- were those -- 10 were those provisions put in there at the insistence of 11 the prospective independent directors?

12 "A Yes.

13 "Q Okay. Can we go to Paragraph 10, please? There 14 you go."

15 Mr. Morris: Is this the other provision that you were 16 referring to?

17 "A This is -- it's become to be known as the 18 gatekeeper provision, but it's a provision that I 19 actually got from other cases -- again, another very 20 litigious case -- that I thought it was appropriate to 21 bring it into this case. And the concept here is that 22 when you are dealing with parties that seem to be 23 willing to engage in decade-long litigation and 24 multiple forums, not only domestically but even 25 throughout the world, it seemed important and prudent

1 to me and a requirement that I set out that somebody
2 would have to come to this Court, the Court with 3 jurisdiction over these matters, and determine whether
4 there was a colorable claim. And that colorable claim
5 would have to show gross negligence and willful
6 misconduct -- i.e., something that would not otherwise
7 be indemnifiable" --

8 MR. POMERANTZ: Hold on one second.

9 "A So, basically, it set an exculpation standard for 10 negligence. It exculpates the directors from 11 negligence, and if somebody wants to bring a cause
12 against the directors, they have to come to this Court
13 first to get a finding that there's a colorable claim
14 for gross negligence or willful misconduct."

15 "Q Would you have accepted the engagement as an 16 independent director without the Paragraphs 4, 5, and 17 10 that we just looked at?

18 "A No, these were very specific requests. The 19 language here has been smithed, to be sure, but I 20 provided the original language for Paragraph 10 and 21 insisted on the guaranty provisions above to ensure 22 that the indemnity would have some support.

23 "Q And ultimately did the Committee and the Debtor 24 agree to provide all the protections afforded by 25 Paragraphs 4, 5, and 10?

1 "A Yes."

2 MR. POMERANTZ: So, Your Honor, these -- this
3 testimony also applied to as well as the CEO.

4 The testimony was echoed by Mr. Dubel, another member of 5 the board. And I'm not going to put his testimony on the 6 screen, but it can be found at Pages 272 to 281 of Exhibit 2,
7 which is the February 2nd transcript.

8 Movants argue, however, that res judicata doesn't apply
9 because the Court didn't have jurisdiction to enter these 10 orders. And they argue that the order stripped the District
11 Court of this jurisdiction. As I previously described, the 12 Debtor is prepared to modify the governance orders to provide 13 that the Court shall retain jurisdiction to -- on claims that 14 pass through the gate only to the extent legally permissible.
15 The modification does not appear to be good enough for the 16 Movants. They continue to argue that the Bankruptcy Court
17 can't even act as the exclusive gatekeeper to determine 18 whether such actions are colorable as a prerequisite for 19 commencing or pursuing an action.

20 The problem Movants run into is the Fifth Circuit's
21 opinion of Republic v. Shoaf and various Supreme Court
22 decisions, including Espinosa.

23 In Shoaf, the Fifth Circuit held that a party cannot 24 subsequently challenge a confirmed plan that clearly and 25 unambiguously released a third party, even if the Bankruptcy

1 Court lacked jurisdiction to approve the release in the first
2 place. Movants' proper recourse was to appeal the governance
3 orders, not to seek to collaterally attack them.

4 In Shoaf, the Fifth Circuit held that the confirmed plan
5 was res judicata with respect to a suit by the creditor
6 against the guarantor. And in so ruling, the Fifth Circuit
7 says that the prong of res judicata standard that requires an 8 order, prior order to be made by a court of competent 9 jurisdiction is satisfied regardless of whether the issue was 10 actually litigated. This is because whenever a court enters 11 an order, it does so by implicitly making a finding of its 12 jurisdiction, a determination that can't be attacked. And in 13 fact, in the January 9th and the July 16th orders, it wasn't 14 implicit, the Court's jurisdiction; it was set out that the 15 Court had core jurisdiction.

16 Movants try to brush Shoaf aside, arguing that is the only 17 case the Debtor cites to support res judicata argument and is 18 a narrow opinion that has been questioned and distinguished.
19 That's just not correct, Your Honor. Movants ignore that we 20 have cited two United States Supreme Court cases, Stoll v.
21 Gottlieb and Chicot County Drainage District, upon which the 22 Fifth Circuit based its Shoaf decision. In each case, the 23 U.S. Supreme Court gave res judicata effect to a Bankruptcy
24 Court order that made a ruling party -- that a ruling party
25 later claimed was beyond the Court's jurisdiction to do so.

1 In Stoll, it was a release of guaranty without jurisdiction,
2 like Shoaf. In Chicot, it was an extinguishment of a bond
3 claim without jurisdiction.

4 Similarly, Your Honor, the U.S. Supreme Court held in 5 Espinosa that a party was not entitled to reconsideration of a
6 Bankruptcy Court order under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
7 60(b)(4) discharging a student loan without making the 8 required statutory finding of undue hardship in an adversary
9 proceeding. And the Supreme Court reasoned in that opinion as 10 follows: A judgment is not void, for example, simply because 11 it may have been erroneous. Similarly, a motion under 12 60(b)(4) is not a substitute for a timely appeal. Instead, 13 60(b)(4) applies only in the rare instance where a judgment is 14 premised either on a certain type of jurisdictional error or a 15 violation of due process that deprives a party of notice or 16 the opportunity to be heard.

17 Federal courts considering Rule 60(b)(4) motions that 18 assert a judgment is void because of a jurisdictional defect
19 generally have reserved it only for the exceptional case in 20 which the court that rendered the judgment lacked even an 21 arguable basis for jurisdiction. This case is not the 22 exceptional -- exceptional circumstance that was referred to 23 by Espinosa.

24 In addition, we argue in our brief, and I'll get to in a 25 few moments, that both of the orders are justified under the

1 Barton doctrine.

2       Actually, before I go to that, Your Honor, I think Movants
3 are really trying to distinguish Espinosa by arguing that the 4 Court's order exculpating Mr. Seery for negligence liability
5 did not provide people, mom-and-pop investors, with the due
6 process informing them that they would not be able to assert
7 duty claims based upon mere negligence. I think that's the 8 core of Mr. Bridges' argument, that, hey, you entered an 9 order, you gave this exculpation, it was inappropriate, and it
10 couldn't be done.

11       There are several problems with Movants' argument. First, 12 Movants mischaracterize both the facts and the law in 13 connection with the Debtor's relationship with its investors.
14 The Debtor is the registered investment advisor for HCLOF as 15 well as approximately 15 to 18 CLOs. The only investor in 16 HCLOF other than the Debtor is CLO Holdco. The investors in 17 the CLOs are the retail funds advised by the Dondero advisors
18 and the other -- and other institutional investors.
19 Accordingly, the thousands of investors, the mom-and-pop 20 investors whose due process rights have allegedly been 21 trampled by the January 9th and July 16th orders, are not 22 investors in any funds managed by the Debtor.

23       And, of course, I have mentioned, as I've mentioned
24 before, no non -- non-Dondero investor, be it a mom-and-pop
25 investor, another institutional investor, anyone unrelated to

1 Mr. Dondero, has ever appeared in this Court to challenge the 2 Debtor's activities.

3 But more fundamentally, Your Honor, the Debtor does not 4 owe fiduciary duties to investors in any of the funds that the 5 Debtor advises. The fiduciary duty that the Debtor owes is to 6 the funds themselves, not the investors in the funds.

7 And while Movants point to Mr. Seery's prior testimony to 8 support the argument that the Debtor owes a duty to investors,
9 Mr. Seery was not testifying as a lawyer and his testimony
10 just cannot change the law.

11 As to each of the funds that the Debtor manages, HCLOF and 12 the CLOs, they were each provided with actual notice of the 13 January 16th -- the July 16th order and didn't object. And as 14 Your Honor will recall, the Trustees for the CLOs, the party
15 that could potentially have claims for breach of fiduciary
16 duty, they participated in the January 9th hearing. They came 17 to the Court and were concerned about the protocols that the 18 Debtor was agreeing to with the Committee. We revised them.
19 The Trustees didn't object. They didn't object then; they 20 didn't object now. And, in fact, they consented to the 21 assumption of the contracts between the Debtor and the CLOs.

22 So the argument that the orders, by having this 23 exculpation for future conduct, violated due process rights of 24 anyone and is the type -- essentially, the type of order that 25 Espinosa would have contemplated could be attacked, is --

1 relies on faulty legal and factual premises. No duty to 2 investors. No private right of action. And both -- and all
3 the funds received due process.

4 In addition, Your Honor, as we argue in our brief and I'll 5 get to in a few moments, both of the orders are justified
6 under the Barton doctrine, as Mr. Seery is entitled to 7 protection based upon how courts around the country have 8 interpreted the Barton doctrine. As such, Mr. Seery is 9 performing his role both as an agent of the independent board
10 under the January 9th order, as a CEO under the July 16th
11 order, as a quasi-judicial officer. And as Your Honor
12 examined in the Ondova opinion which you mentioned, trustees
13 are entitled to qualified immunity for damage to third parties 14 resulting from simple negligence, provided that the trustee is 15 operating within the scope of his duties and is not acting in 16 an ultra vires manner.

17 So, exculpating the independent directors, their agents,
18 and the CEO in the January 9th and July 16th orders was a 19 recognition by this Court that they would be entitled to 20 qualified immunity, much in the same way trustees are.

21 No doubt that Movants contend that this was error and that 22 the Court overreached. However, the remedy for that overreach
23 was an appeal, not a reconsideration 16 months later. The 24 Court's orders based upon the determination that in this 25 highly contentious case that these court officers needed to be

1 protected from negligence suits is not the exceptional case
2 where the Court lacked any arguable basis for jurisdiction.
3 Accordingly, this Court must follow Espinosa, Shoaf, Stoll,
4 and Chicot and reject the attack on the prior court orders.

5 The only case Movants cite to challenge the Supreme 6 Court's decision -- to challenge the Supreme Court precedent I
7 mentioned and the Fifth Circuit's Shoaf decision is the 8 Applewood case. Applewood is totally consistent with Shoaf.
9 Applewood also involved a plan that purported to release a 10 guaranty claim that the guarantor argued was res judicata in 11 subsequent litigation regarding the guaranty. The Fifth
12 Circuit held in that case that the plan was not res judicata.
13 It made that ruling because the plan did not contain clear and 14 unambiguous language releasing the guaranty. In that way, the 15 Fifth Circuit distinguished Shoaf.

16 Applewood and Shoaf are consistent. A Bankruptcy Court
17 order will be given res judicata effect, even if the Court
18 didn't have jurisdiction to enter it, if the order was clear
19 and unambiguous. In Shoaf, the release was. In Applewood, it 20 wasn't.

21 Movants argued on June 8th and argue now that the 22 Applewood case really argues -- really deals with prospective
23 exculpation of claims. I went back and read Mr. Bridges'
24 comments carefully of June 8th. He said Applewood,
25 exculpation. Well, that's just not correct. Applewood is all

1 about requiring specificity of a (garbled) to give it res
2 judicata effect. Claims that existed at that time, were they
3 described clearly and unambiguously? Yes? Shoaf applies.
4 No? Applewood does -- applies.

5 So how should the Court apply these principles here? The 6 Court approved a procedure for certain claims in the 7 governance orders. The procedure: come to Bankruptcy Court
8 before pursuing a claim against the independent directors and 9 Seery or their agents so that the Court can make a 10 colorability determination. Clear and unambiguous. The 11 governance orders each provide that the Bankruptcy Court had 12 jurisdiction to enter the orders, and the orders were not 13 appealed.

14 Movants attempt to confuse the Court and argue Applewood
15 is on point because the January 9th and July 16th orders do
16 not clearly identify specific claims that Movants now have 17 that are being released. And because they're not specific,
18 then basically it's an ambiguous release and Applewood
19 applies.

20 The problem with the Movants' argument is that neither the 21 January 9th or July 16th orders released claims that existed
22 at that time. If they did, and if there wasn't an adequate
23 description, I might agree with Mr. Bridges that Applewood
24 applied. But there were no claims. It was prospective. It
25 was a standard of care. The Court clearly and unambiguously

1 said what the standard of care would be going forward.

2 Clearly, under Shoaf and Supreme Court precedent, they are
3 entitled to res judicata because it's a clear and unambiguous
4 provision. Applewood just simply doesn't apply.

5 Mr. Phillips at the last hearing made an impassioned plea
6 to the Court for a narrow interpretation of the exculpation
7 provisions in the January 9th and July 16th orders, and he 8 argued that the Court could not possibly have intended for the 9 exculpation for negligence to apply on a go forward basis. He 10 thus argued to the Court that the Court should construe the 11 exculpation narrowly and only apply it to potential claims of 12 harm caused to the Debtor, as opposed to harm caused to third
13 parties, which he said included thousands of innocent
14 investors.

15 Of course, Mr. Phillips made those arguments unburdened by 16 the actual facts and the prior proceedings which led to the 17 entry of these orders, because, as he was the first to admit,
18 he only became involved in the case a month ago.

19 As the Court recalls, and as reinforced by Mr. Seery's and 20 Mr. Dubel's testimony I just mentioned, the exculpation
21 provisions were included precisely to prevent Mr. Dondero, 22 through any one of the entities he's owned and controlled, the 23 Movants being two of those, from asserting baseless claims 24 against the beneficiaries of those orders, exactly the 25 situation Mr. Seery now finds himself in.

1           And, again, it bears emphasizing: throughout this case,
2 not one of the purported public investors Mr. Phillips
3 lamented would be prevented from holding Mr. Seery responsible
4 for his conduct has ever appeared in this case to object about
5 anything. And none of the directors of the funds, the funds
6 where the Debtor acts as an investment adviser, have ever
7 stepped foot in this court, either.

8           Even if the Court declines to apply res judicata, Your 9 Honor, to prevent challenges to the governance orders, the 10 Court has the jurisdiction, had the jurisdiction to include
11 the gatekeeping provisions in those orders. The Bankruptcy 12 Court derives its jurisdiction from 28 U.S.C. Section 157, and 13 bankruptcy jurisdiction is divided into two parts: core
14 matters, which are those arising in or arising under Title 11,
15 and noncore matters, those matters which are related to a 16 Chapter 11 case.

17           Bankruptcy Courts may enter final orders in core
18 proceedings, and with the consent of parties, noncore
19 proceedings. If a party does not consent to a final judgment
20 in the noncore matters or waives its right to consent, then 21 the Bankruptcy Court -- or does not waive its right to 22 consent, then the Bankruptcy Court issues a report and 23 recommendation to the District Court.

24           The seminal Fifth Circuit case on bankruptcy court
25 jurisdiction is the 1987 case of Wood v. Wood, 825 F.2d 90.

1 There, the Fifth Circuit held that the Bankruptcy Court has 2 related to jurisdiction over matters if the outcome of that
3 proceeding could conceivably have any effect on the estate
4 being administered in the bankruptcy.

5 More recently, the Fifth Circuit, in the 2005 case, in 6 Stonebridge Tech's, elaborated on when a matter has a
7 conceivable effect on the estate such as to confer Bankruptcy
8 Court jurisdiction. There, the Fifth Circuit held that an 9 action is related to bankruptcy if the outcome could alter the 10 debtor's rights, liabilities, options, or freedom of action,
11 either positively or negatively, and which in any way impacts
12 upon the handling and the administration of the bankruptcy
13 estate. It is against this backdrop, Your Honor, that the 14 Court should evaluate its jurisdiction to have entered the 15 orders.

16 So, again, what did the orders do? They established
17 governance over the Chapter 11 debtor with new independent 18 directors being approved. They established the procedures and 19 protocols of how transactions were going to be presented to 20 and approved by the Committee. They vested in the Committee
21 certain related-party claims, and they provided for the 22 procedures parties would have to follow to assert any claims
23 against the independent directors and the CRO and the agents
24 and advisors.

25 Your Honor, it's hard to imagine that there is a more core

1 order than the entry of these orders. At the time the orders
2 were entered, the Court was well aware of the potential for 3 acrimony from Mr. Dondero and his related entities, and 4 included the gatekeeper provisions to prevent the Debtor's
5 estate from being embroiled in frivolous litigation against 6 the board and the CEO.

7 Such protections were clearly within the Court's
8 jurisdiction, both to protect the administration of the estate
9 but also under applicable Fifth Circuit law dealing with 10 vexatious litigants, as set forth in the Baum and Carroll
11 cases that the Court cited in its confirmation order.

12 Not that it was hard to predict, but the last several 13 months have reinforced how important the gatekeeping
14 provisions in the order are and how important similar 15 provisions in the plan are.

16 The Court heard extensive testimony at the confirmation
17 hearing regarding the havoc continued litigation by Mr.
18 Dondero and his related entities would cause, which 19 predictions have unfortunately been borne out by the 20 unprecedented blizzard of litigation involving Mr. Dondero and 21 his related entities that has consumed the Court over the last 22 several months and caused the estate to incur millions of 23 dollars in fees that could have been used to pay its 24 creditors.

25 And these attacks are continuing. As I mentioned before,

1 in addition to the DAF lawsuit, Sbaiti & Co. filed an action
2 against the Debtor on behalf of PCMG, another related entity,
3 alleging postpetition mismanagement of the Select Fund.

4 And to complete the hat trick, they are the lawyers
5 seeking to sue Acis in the Southern District of New York for 6 allegedly post-confirmation matters.

7 The Court knew then and certainly knows now that the 8 potential for sizable indemnification claims could consume the 9 estate. The Court used that as the potential basis for 10 determining that the orders were within its jurisdiction, just 11 as it used that potential to justify the exculpation
12 provisions in the plan as being consistent with Pacific
13 Lumber.

14 Movants also ignore the cases -- and we cited in our 15 opposition -- where courts in this district, including Judge
16 Lynn in Pilgrim's Pride in 2010 and Judge Houser in the CHC
17 Group in 2016, approved gatekeeper provisions that provided
18 the Bankruptcy Court with exclusive jurisdiction to adjudicate
19 claims against postpetition fiduciaries.

20 Movants also ignore cases outside this district, including 21 General Motors and Madoff, which we cited in our brief as 22 examples of cases where Bankruptcy Courts have been used as 23 gatekeepers to determine if claims are colorable or being 24 asserted against the correct entity.

25 And there's another reason, Your Honor, why Movants may

1 now not contest the Court's jurisdiction to have entered those
2 orders. Each of those orders, as I said before, include a
3 finding that the Court had core jurisdiction to enter the 4 orders. No party contested that finding or refused to consent
5 to the core jurisdiction.

6 Under well-established Supreme Court precedent, parties
7 can waive their right to challenge the Bankruptcy Court's 8 jurisdiction, core jurisdiction, by failing to object. In 9 Wellness v. Sharif in 2015, the Supreme Court expressly held 10 that Article III was not violated if parties knowingly and 11 voluntarily consented to adjudication of Stern v. Marshall-
12 type alter ego claims, and that the consent need not be 13 express, so long as it was knowing and voluntary.

14 And Wellness confirmed the pre-Stern opinion of the Fifth
15 Circuit in the 1995 McFarland case, which held that a person
16 who fails to object to the Bankruptcy Court's assumption of 17 core jurisdiction is deemed to have consented to the entry of 18 a final order by the Bankruptcy Court.

19 Your Honor, I'd now like to turn to the Barton doctrine.
20 The Court also has jurisdiction to have entered the orders
21 based upon the Barton doctrine. The Barton doctrine dates
22 back to an old United States Supreme Court case and provides 23 as a general rule that, before a suit may be brought against a 24 trustee, consent from the appointing court must be obtained.

25 Movants essentially make two arguments why the Barton

1 doctrine doesn't apply.

2 First, Movants, without citing any authority, argue that 3 it does not apply to Mr. Seery because he is not a trustee or 4 receiver and was not appointed by the Court. Although the 5 doctrine was originally applied to receivers, it has been 6 extended over time to cover various court-appointed
7 fiduciaries and their agents in bankruptcy cases, including
8 debtors in possession, officers and directors of the debtor,
9 and the general partner of the debtor. And although Mr.
10 Bridges says he couldn't find one case that applied the Barton
11 doctrine to a court-retained professional, I will now talk
12 about several such cases.

13 In Helmer v. Pogue, a 2012 case cited in our brief, the 14 District Court for the Northern District of Alabama
15 extensively analyzed the Barton doctrine jurisprudence from 16 the Eleventh Circuit and beyond and concluded that it applied
17 to debtors in possession. The Helmer Court relied in part on 18 a prior 2000 decision of the Eleventh Circuit in Carter v.
19 Rodgers, which held that the doctrine applies to both court-
20 appointed and court-approved officers of the debtor, which is 21 consistent with the law in other circuits.

22 And subsequently, the Eleventh Circuit again considered --
23 and in that case, the distinction of a court-appointed as a 24 court-retained professional was -- was not persuasive to the 25 Court, and the Court held that a court-retained professional

1 can still have Barton protection, notwithstanding that he
2 wasn't appointed, the argument that Mr. Bridges tries to make.

3 And subsequently, --

4 THE COURT: I wonder, was that -- was that Judge
5 Clifton Jessup, by chance? Or maybe Bennett?

6 MR. POMERANTZ: Your Honor, this was -- this was the 7 Eleventh Circuit Carter v. Rodgers, so I think Judge Jessup
8 was --

9 THE COURT: Oh, I thought you were still talking
10 about the Alabama case. No?

11 MR. POMERANTZ: Yeah, the Alabama -- well, the 12 Alabama case referred to the Eleventh Circuit case, Carter v.
13 Rodgers, --

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. POMERANTZ: -- and the appointment and -- or 16 retention issue was discussed in the Carter v. Rodgers case.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. POMERANTZ: And subsequently, the Eleventh
19 Circuit again considered the contours of the Barton doctrine
20 in CDC Corp., a 2015 case, 2015 U.S. App. LEXIS 9718. In that 21 case, which Your Honor referenced in your Ondova opinion,
22 which I will discuss in a few moments, the Eleventh Circuit
23 held that a debtor's general counsel who had been approved by 24 the Court, who was appointed by a chief restructuring officer
25 who was also approved by the Court, was covered by the Barton

1 doctrine for acts taken in furtherance of the administration
2 of the estate and the liquidation of the assets.

3 And the Eleventh Circuit last year, in Tufts v. Hay, 977
4 F.3d 204, reaffirmed that court-approved counsel who function
5 as the equivalent of court-appointed officers are entitled to 6 protection under Barton. While the Court in that case
7 ultimately ruled that counsel could be sued without first
8 going to the Bankruptcy Court, it did so because it determined
9 that the suit between two sets of lawyers would not have any 10 effect on the administration of the estate.

11 So, Your Honor, not only is there authority, there is 12 overwhelming authority that Mr. Seery is entitled to the 13 protections.

14 In Gordon v. Nick, a District -- a case from 1998 from the 15 Fourth Circuit, the Court that the Barton doctrine applied to 16 a lawsuit against a general partner who was responsible for 17 administering the bankruptcy estate.

18 And as I mentioned, Your Honor, and as Your Honor
19 mentioned, Your Honor had reason to look at the Barton
20 doctrine in length and in depth in the 2017 Ondova opinion.
21 And in the course of the opinion, Your Honor discussed one of 22 the policy rationales for the doctrine, which you took from 23 the Seventh Circuit's Linton opinion, and you said as follows:
24 "Finally, another policy concern underlying the doctrine is a
25 concern for the overall integrity of the bankruptcy process

1 and the threat of trustees being distracted from or 2 intimidated from doing their jobs. For example, losers in the 3 bankruptcy process might turn to other courts to try to become 4 winners there by alleging the trustee did a negligent job."

5 Here, the independent board was approved by the Court as 6 an alternative to the appointment of a Chapter 11 trustee.
7 And it and its agent, including Mr. Seery as the CEO, even 8 before the July 16th order, were provided protections in the 9 form of the gatekeeper order and exculpation.

10 I'm sure the Court has a good recollection of the January
11 9th hearing -- we've talked about it a lot in the proceedings
12 before Your Honor -- where the Debtor and the Committee
13 presented the governance resolution to Your Honor. And as 14 Your Honor will recall, the appointment of the board was a 15 hotly-contested issue among the Debtor and the Committee and 16 was heavily negotiated. And the appointment of the 17 independent board was even contested by the United States
18 Trustee at a hearing on January 20th, 2020.

19 I refer the Court to the transcripts of the hearings on 20 January 9th and January 20th of 2020, which clearly 21 demonstrate that appointing this board and giving it the 22 rights and protections and its agents the rights and 23 protections was not your typical corporate governance issue,
24 but it was essentially the Court's alternative to appointing a 25 trustee. And recognizing that the members of the independent

1 board were essentially officers of the Court, the Court
2 approved the gatekeeper provision, requiring parties first to 3 come and seek the Court's permission before suing them, in 4 order to prevent them from being harassed by frivolous
5 litigation.

6 And the independent board was given the responsibility in 7 the January 9th order to retain a CEO it deemed appropriate,
8 and it did so by retaining Mr. Seery.

9 Recognizing the Barton doctrine as it applies to Mr. Seery
10 is consistent with a legion of cases throughout the United 11 States, and Movants' argument that Mr. Seery is not court-
12 appointed is just wrong.

13 Second, Your Honor, Movants cite without any authority,
14 argue that even if the Barton doctrine applied there is an 15 exception which would allow it to pursue a claim against Mr.
16 Seery without leave of the Court.

17 The Debtor agrees the 28 U.S.C. § 959 is an exception to 18 the Barton doctrine. Section 959(a) provides that trustees, 19 receivers, or managers of any property, including debtors in 20 possession, may be sued without leave of the court appointing 21 them with respect to any of their acts or transactions in 22 carrying on business connected with such property.

23 As the Court also pointed out at the June 8th hearing, and 24 Mr. Bridges alluded to in his argument, the last sentence of 25 959(a) provides that such actions -- clearly referring to

1 actions that may be pursued without leave of the appointing
2 court -- shall be subject to the general equity power of such 3 court, so far as the same may be necessary to the ends of 4 justice.

5 And Mr. Bridges made a plea, saying you can't take away my 6 jury trial right there. You just cannot do that. Well, I
7 have two answers to that, Your Honor. One, they relinquished
8 their jury trial right. We've established that. Okay?

9 The second is allowing Your Honor to act as a gatekeeper 10 has nothing to do with their jury trial right. Allowing Your 11 Honor to act as a gatekeeper allows you to determine whether 12 the action could go forward, and it'll either go forward in 13 Your Honor's court or some other court.

14 And the argument that the exculpation was essentially a 15 violation of 959 is just -- is just -- it just is twisting
16 what happened. You have an exculpation provision. We already 17 went through the authority the Court had to give an 18 exculpation. With respect to these litigants who are before
19 Your Honor -- we're not talking about anyone else who's coming
20 in to try to get relief from the order; we're talking about 21 these litigants -- we've already established that they were 22 here, they're bound by res judicata. So their 959 argument
23 goes away.

24 And as the Court -- and separate and apart from that, the 25 issue at issue in the District Court litigation is -- is not

1 even subject to 959.

2 Mr. Bridges says, well, of course it is because it deals
3 with the administration of the estate. I'd like to refer to 4 what the Court said -- this Court said in its Ondova opinion:
5 The exception generally applies to situations in which the 6 trustee is operating a business and some stranger to the 7 bankruptcy process might be harmed, such as a negligence claim
8 in a slip-and-fall case, and is inapplicable to suits based 9 upon actions taken to further the administering or liquidating
10 the bankruptcy estate.

11 And your Ondova opinion is consistent with the Third and 12 Eleventh Circuit opinions Your Honor cited in your opinion, as 13 well as numerous other --

14 (Interruption.)

15 MR. POMERANTZ: -- from the -- from around the 16 country, including cases from the First, Second, Sixth,
17 Seventh, and Ninth Circuits. And I'm not going to give all 18 the cites to those cases, but it's not a -- it's not a 19 remarkable proposition that Your Honor relied on in Ondova.

20 In addition, several of these cases, including the 21 Eleventh Circuit's Carter opinion, have been cited with 22 approval by the Fifth Circuit in National Business Association
23 v. Lightfoot, a 2008 unpublished opinion for this very point.
24 The Barton exception of 959 does not apply to actions taken in 25 the administration of the case and the liquidation of assets

1 in the estate.

2 Suffice it to say that it's clear that the Section 959
3 exception to Barton has no applicability in this case.
4 Movants, hardly strangers to the bankruptcy case, want to sue
5 Mr. Seery for acts taken relating to a settlement of very 6 complex and significant claims against the estate. They want
7 to sue a court-appointed fiduciary for doing his job,
8 resolving claims against the estate and his management of the 9 bankruptcy estate. And they want to do this outside of the 10 Bankruptcy Court.

11 Settlement of the HarbourVest claim, which is where this 12 claim arises under -- whether it's a collateral attack now or 13 not, and we say it is, is for another issue -- but it clearly
14 arises in the context of settlement of the HarbourVest claim, 15 is the quintessential act to further the administration and 16 liquidation of the bankruptcy estate, and certainly doesn't 17 fall within the 959 exception.

18 Movants seem to be arguing that 959(a) makes a distinction
19 between claims against Mr. Seery that damaged the Debtor and 20 claims against Mr. Seery that damaged third parties. However, 21 the Movants make up that distinction, and it's not in the 22 statute, it's not in the case law. The focus is not on who 23 the conduct damages, but it's rather on whether the conduct
24 was taken in connection with the administration or the 25 liquidation of the estate.

1           And even if the Debtor is wrong, Your Honor, which it's 2 not, the savings clause allows the Court to determine whether
3 leave to be -- sue will be granted. Given that these claims
4 are asserted by Dondero-related entities, if not controlled
5 entities, no serious argument exists that the equities do not
6 permit this Court to determine if leave to sue is appropriate.

7           Accordingly, Movants' argument that the orders create this 8 tension with 959 is simply an over-dramatization. And in any 9 event, Your Honor, there's a basis independent of Barton that 10 supports the jurisdiction to enter the orders, as I mentioned.

11           But even if the orders only relied on Barton, there is an 12 easy fix to Movants' concerns: let them come to court and 13 argue that the type of suit they are bringing allegedly falls
14 within the exception of 959.

15           Your Honor, Movants argue that the Bankruptcy Court may 16 not act as a gatekeeper if it would not have jurisdiction to 17 deal with the underlying action. They essentially argue that 18 an Article I judge may not pass on the colorability of a 19 claim, that it should be decided by an Article III judge.
20 This is the same argument, Your Honor, that Your Honor
21 rejected in connection with plan confirmation and which I
22 touched on earlier.

23           And the reason why Your Honor rejected it is because 24 there's no law to support it. In fact, there is Fifth Circuit
25 law that holds to the contrary. And we talked about a little

1 bit the Fifth Circuit case decided is Villegas v. Schmidt in 2 2015. And Villegas is a simple case. Schmidt was appointed 3 trustee over a debtor and liquidated its estate and the 4 Bankruptcy Court approved his final fees. Four years later,
5 Villegas and the prior debtor sued Schmidt in District Court,
6 the district in which the Bankruptcy Court was pending,
7 arguing that he was negligent in the performance of his 8 duties. The District Court dismissed the case because 9 Villegas failed to obtain Bankruptcy Court approval to bring 10 the suit under the Barton doctrine.

11 On appeal, Villegas argued Barton didn't apply for two 12 reasons. First, that Stern v. Marshall created an exception
13 to the Barton doctrine for claims that the Bankruptcy Court
14 would not have the jurisdiction to adjudicate. And second,
15 that Barton did not apply if the suit is brought in the 16 District Court, which exercises supervisory authority over the 17 Bankruptcy Court that appointed the trustee. Pretty much the 18 argument that was made by Movants at the contempt hearing.

19 The Fifth Circuit rejected both arguments. It held that 20 the existence of a Stern claim does not impact the Bankruptcy
21 Court's authority because Stern did not overrule Barton and 22 the Supreme Court had cautioned circuit courts against 23 interpreting later cases as impliedly overruling prior cases.

24 More importantly, the Fifth Circuit pointed to a post-
25 Stern 2014 case, Executive Benefits v. Arkison, 573 U.S. 25

1 (2014), which held that Stern does not decide how a Bankruptcy
2 Court or District Courts should proceed when a Stern creditor
3 is identified, as support for the argument that Barton is 4 still good law, even dealing with a Stern claim.

5 Second, the Fifth Circuit, joining every circuit to have 6 addressed the issue, ruled that the District Court and the 7 Bankruptcy Court are distinct from one another and the 8 Bankruptcy Court has the exclusive authority to determine the 9 colorability of Barton claims and that the supervisory
10 District Court does not.

11 Movants didn't address Villegas in their reply. Briefly
12 tried to distinguish it, unconvincingly, today. The bottom
13 line is Villegas is directly applicable. Your Honor cited it
14 in the Ondova opinion for precisely the proposition that 15 Barton applies whether or not the Court has authority to 16 adjudicate the claim.

17 Accordingly, Your Honor, it was within the Court's 18 jurisdiction to require a party to seek approval of Your Honor
19 on the colorability of a claim before an action may be 20 commenced or pursued against the protected parties, even if 21 Your Honor wouldn't have authority to adjudicate the claim at 22 the end of the day.

23 In fact, some courts have even addressed the proper 24 procedure for doing so, requiring the putative plaintiff to 25 not only seek leave of Bankruptcy Court but also to provide a

1 draft complaint and a basis for the Court to determine if the 2 claim is colorable.

3 Movants have done neither, and they should not be 4 permitted to modify the final orders of the Court as a 5 workaround.

6 Your Honor, that concludes my presentation. I'm happy to 7 answer any questions Your Honor may have.

8 THE COURT: All right. Not at this time. All right.
9 I'm going to figure out, do we need a break or not, depending 10 on what Mr. Bridges tells me. I assume we're just doing this 11 on argument today. I think that's what I heard. No witnesses
12 or exhibits.

13 MR. BRIDGES: That is correct, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Bridges, how long do you 15 expect your rebuttal to take so I can figure out does the 16 Court need a break?

17 MR. BRIDGES: Fifteen minutes plus whatever it takes 18 to submit agreed-to exhibits.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Let's take a five-minute bathroom
20 break. We'll come back. It's -- what time is it? It's 1:11
21 Central time. We'll come back in five minutes.

22 THE CLERK: All rise.

23 (A recess ensued from 1:11 p.m. until 1:17 p.m.)

24 THE CLERK: All rise.

25 THE COURT: All right. Please be seated. We're

1 going back on the record in the Highland matters.

2 Mr. Bridges, time for your rebuttal. I want to ask you a
3 question right off the bat. Mr. Pomerantz pointed out
4 something that was on my list that I forgot to ask you when 5 you made your initial presentation. What is the authority
6 you're relying on? You did not cite a statute or a rule per
7 se, but I guess we can probably all agree that Bankruptcy Rule
8 9024 and Federal Rule 60 is the authority that would govern
9 your motion, correct?

10 MR. BRIDGES: I don't agree, Your Honor. I don't 11 believe this is a final order that we're contesting here. And 12 I think that's demonstrated by the Court's final confirmation
13 -- plan -- plan confirmation order that seeks to modify this 14 order or will modify this order upon being -- being effective.
15 So I don't think so.

16 In the alternative, if we are challenging a final order,
17 then I think you're right as to the rules that would be 18 controlling.

19 THE COURT: All right. Well, let me back up. Why 20 exactly do you say this would be an interlocutory order as 21 opposed to a final order?

22 MR. BRIDGES: Because of its nature, Your Honor.
23 While the appointment in the order or the approval of the 24 appointment in the order might, as a separate component of the 25 order, have -- have finality, the provisions -- the provisions

1 in it relating to gatekeeping and exculpation are, we think,
2 by their very nature, quite obviously interlocutory and not
3 permanent. They don't seem to indicate an intention by any of 4 the parties that, 30 years from now, if Mr. Seery is still CEO
5 at Highland, long after the bankruptcy case has ended, that 6 nonetheless parties would be prohibited from bringing claims,
7 strangers to this action would be prohibited from bringing 8 claims related to his CEO role.

9 I think the nature of it demonstrates that, the 10 modifications to it, and even the inclusion of it in the final 11 plan confirmation, as well as -- can't read that.

12 THE COURT: Can you give me some authority? Because 13 as we know, there's a lot of authority out there in the 14 bankruptcy universe on what discrete orders are interlocutory
15 in nature that a bankruptcy judge might routinely enter and 16 which ones are final. You know, it would just probably, if I
17 flipped open Collier's, I could -- you know, it would be mind-
18 numbing.

19 So what authority can you rely on? I mean, is there any 20 authority that says an employment order is not a final order?
21 That would be shocking to me if you have cases to that effect,
22 but, I mean, of course, sometimes we do interim on short 23 notice and then final. But this would be shocking to me if 24 there is case authority to support the argument this is not a
25 final order. But I learn something new every day, so maybe I

1 would be shocked and there is.

2 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, I'd point you to In re
3 Smyth, 207 F.3d 758, and In re Royal Manor, 525 B.K. 338
4 [sic], for the proposition that retaining a bankruptcy
5 professional is an interlocutory order.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Stop for a moment. The Smyth
7 case. Which court is that?

8 MR. BRIDGES: Fifth Circuit.

9 THE COURT: Okay. So tell me the facts. I'm 10 surprised I don't know about this case. But, again, I don't 11 know every case. So, it held that an employment order is an 12 interlocutory order?

13 MR. BRIDGES: Appointing counsel. A professional in 14 the bankruptcy context, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Counsel for a debtor-in-possession? An 16 order approving counsel was an interlocutory order?

17 MR. BRIDGES: Yes, or the Trustee's counsel.

18 THE COURT: Or the Trustee's counsel? Okay. What 19 were the circumstances? Was this on an expedited basis and 20 there wasn't a follow-up final order, or what?

21 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, I don't have -- I don't 22 have that at the tip of my memory. I'm sorry.

23 THE COURT: Okay. And the other one, 525 B.R. 338, 24 what court was that?

25 MR. BRIDGES: It's a Bankruptcy Court within the

1 Sixth Circuit. I'm not certain which district.

2 THE COURT: All right. Well, maybe one of you two 3 over there can look them up and give me the context, because 4 that is surprising authority. Or other lawyers on the WebEx
5 maybe can do some quickie research.

6 Okay. We'll come back to that. But assuming that this 7 was a final order, which I have just been presuming it was,
8 Rule 60 is the authority you're going under? 9024 and Rule
9 60, correct?

10 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, we have not invoked those 11 rules. Alternatively, I think you're right that they would 12 control if we are wrong about the interlocutory nature of the 13 order.

14 THE COURT: Well, you have to be going under certain 15 -- some kind of authority when you file a motion. So I'm --

16 MR. BRIDGES: As an alternative --

17 THE COURT: I'm approaching this exactly, I assure 18 you, as the District Court or a Court of Appeals would. You 19 know, you start out, what is the legal authority that is being 20 invoked here?

21 MR. BRIDGES: Well, --

22 THE COURT: So I just assume Rule 60. I can't, you
23 know, come up with anything else that would be the authority.

24 MR. BRIDGES: Yes, Your Honor. You also have 25 inherent power to modify orders that are in violation of the

1 law. And we pointed you to --

2 THE COURT: Now, is that right? Is that really
3 right? Why do we have Rule 60 if I can just willy-nilly, oh,
4 I feel like I got that wrong two years ago? I can't do that,
5 can I? Rule 60 is the template for when a court can do that.
6 Parties are entitled to rely on orders of courts. And that's 7 why we have Rule 60, right? So, --

8 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, I think -- I think that 9 we're miscommunicating. I'm trying not to rely on Rule 60 in 10 the first instance because in the first instance we view this 11 as not a final order. So, in the first instance, --

12 THE COURT: I got that. And I've got my law clerks
13 looking up your cases to see if they convince me. But I'm 14 asking you to go to layer two. Assuming I don't agree with 15 you these are final orders, what is your authority for the 16 relief you're seeking?

17 MR. BRIDGES: Yes, Your Honor. Rule 60 would apply
18 in the alternative.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 MR. BRIDGES: That's correct.

21 THE COURT: So, which provision? Which provision of 22 Rule 60? (b) what?

23 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, I'm not prepared to concede
24 any of them. I don't have the rule in front of me.

25 THE COURT: You're not prepared to concede what?

1 MR. BRIDGES: Any of the provisions of Rule 60. Just 2 (b) (1), (b) (2), especially, but I'm -- I'm -- Rule 60 is our
3 basis, as is the particulars (b) (1), (2), (6) --

4 (Garbled audio.)

5 THE COURT: Okay. You're breaking up. Can you
6 restate?

7 MR. BRIDGES: (b) (1), (2), and (6), as -- as well as 8 any other provision, Your Honor, of Rule 60.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Well, so (1), mistake,
10 inadvertence, surprise, excusable neglect. Which one of 11 those?

12 MR. BRIDGES: All of the above, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Surprise? Who's surprised?

14 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, I think every potential
15 litigant who discovers that your order purports to bar
16 prospective unaccrued claims at the time the order issued
17 would be surprised.

18 Frankly, I think Mr. Seery would be surprised, given his 19 testimony that he owes fiduciary duty -- duties that he must 20 abide by and that he appears to have, as I continue to 21 represent to clients, to advisees, and to the SEC, that those 22 duties are owing.

23 THE COURT: Okay. I'm giving you one more chance
24 here to make clear on the record what provision of Rule 60(b)
25 are you relying on, okay? I need to know. It's not in your

1 pleading.

2 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, --

3 THE COURT: So tell me specifically. I can only --

4 MR. BRIDGES: -- (b) (1) --

5 THE COURT: -- come up with a result here if I know
6 exactly what's being presented.

7 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, (b) (1), (b) (2), and (b) (6)

8 --

9 THE COURT: Which, okay, there are multiple parts to 10 (1). You're saying somebody's surprised by the ruling. I 11 don't know who. Really, all that matters is your client, the 12 Movants. You're saying, even though they participated, --

13 MR. BRIDGES: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: -- got notice, they're somehow surprised?
15 Why are they surprised?

16 MR. BRIDGES: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Do you have evidence of their surprise?

18 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, our brief shows the 19 intentions of all involved were not the interpretation of that 20 order being advanced at this -- at this point in time. And 21 so, yes, I believe that is evidence. The transcripts of the 22 hearings I believe evidence that as well, that the 23 understanding of everyone involved was not that future --
24 unspecified future claims that had not accrued yet would be 25 released under (b) (1). Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 MR. BRIDGES: Under (b) (2), --

3 THE COURT: I don't have any evidence of that. All I
4 have is the clear wording of the order. Okay. Let me just -- 5 just let me go through this.

6 Assuming Rule 60 (1) through (6) are what you're arguing
7 here, what about Rule 60(c): a motion under Rule 60(b) must 8 be made within a reasonable time? We're now 11 months --

9 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, --

10 THE COURT: We're now 11 months past the July 2020
11 order. What is your authority for this being a reasonable 12 time?

13 MR. BRIDGES: Yes, Your Honor. If I may back up one
14 step before answering your question. Under (b) (2), we're 15 relying on newly-discovered evidence that was discovered in 16 late March and caused both the filing of this motion and the 17 filing of the District Court action.

18 Under (b) (4), we believe that the order is --

19 THE COURT: Let me stop. Let me stop. What is my 20 evidence that you're putting in the record that's newly 21 discovered?

22 MR. BRIDGES: The evidence is detailed in the 23 complaint that is in the record. You know, --

24 THE COURT: That's not evidence.

25 MR. BRIDGES: -- honestly, Your Honor, --

1 THE COURT: That is not evidence. Okay? A lawyer-
2 drafted complaint in another court is not evidence. Okay?

3 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, I think, to be technical,
4 that there is not a record yet, that we have evidence yet to 5 be admitted on our exhibit list. I believe in this 6 circumstance -- I understand that, in general, allegations in 7 a pleading are not evidence. In this instance, when we're 8 talking about whether or not new facts led to the filing of a 9 lawsuit, I do believe that the allegations in the lawsuit are 10 evidence of those new facts.

11 THE COURT: All right. Go on.

12 MR. BRIDGES: Under (b) (4), we believe the order is,
13 in part, void. It is void because of the jurisdictional and 14 other defects noted in our argument.

15 And also, under (b) (6) (garbled) ground for relief that 16 we're appealing to the equitable powers of this Court to 17 correct errors and manifest injustice towards not just the 18 litigants here but to correct the order of the Court to make 19 it comply with -- with the law, with the statutes promulgated 20 by Congress and to respect the jurisdiction of the District
21 Court.

22 THE COURT: All right. Do you agree with Mr.
23 Pomerantz that the case law standard for Rule 60(b) (4) is 24 exceptional circumstances? It's only applied so that a 25 judgment is voided in exceptional circumstances. Do you

1 disagree with that case authority?

2 MR. BRIDGES: I would -- I would agree, in part, that
3 unusual circumstances is not the ordinary case. I'm not 4 entirely sure what you mean by exceptional, but I think we're 5 on the same page.

6 THE COURT: Okay. It's not what I mean. That's just 7 the case law standard. And I'm asking, do you agree with Mr.
8 Pomerantz that that is the standard set forth in case law when 9 applying 60(b)(4)? There have to be some sort of exceptional
10 circumstances where there's just basically no chance the Court
11 had authority to do what it did.

12 MR. BRIDGES: Out of the ordinary would be the phrase
13 I would use, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So I guess then I'll go from 15 there. Is it your argument that gatekeeping provisions in the 16 bankruptcy world are out of the ordinary?

17 MR. BRIDGES: The exculpation of Mr. Seery for 18 liability falling short of gross negligence or intentional
19 wrongdoing in connection with his continuing to conduct the 20 business of the Debtor as an investment advisor subject to the 21 Advisers Act, yes, I would say that is out of the ordinary,
22 that it is extraordinary, that it is --

23 THE COURT: Okay. What is your authority or evidence
24 on that? Because this Court approves exculpation provisions
25 regularly in connection with employment orders, and pretty

1 much every judge I know does. In fact, I'm wondering why this
2 isn't just a term of compensation. You know, he's going to do
3 x, y, z in the case. His compensation is going to be a, b, c, 4 d, e. And by the way, we're going to set a standard of 5 liability for his performance as CEO or investment banker,
6 financial advisor, whatever, so that no one can sue him
7 regarding his performance of his job duties unless it rises to 8 the level of gross negligence, willful misconduct.

9 It's a term of employment that, from my vantage point,
10 seems to be employed all the time. So it would be anything 11 but exceptional circumstances. Do you have authority or 12 evidence --

13 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, frankly, --

14 THE COURT: -- to the contrary?

15 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, frankly, I'm astonished at 16 your view of that situation, that it would merely be a term of 17 his employment, that vitiates the entire fiduciary duty
18 standard created by the Advisers Act that tells him, with 19 hundreds of millions of dollars of assets under management for 20 people he's advising as a registered investment advisor,
21 people he's advising who believe that he has a fiduciary duty
22 to them and that it's enforceable, that the SEC, who monitors,
23 believes he has an enforceable fiduciary duty to those people,
24 and that he's testified that he has fiduciary duties to those 25 people, and that Your Honor is saying no, just as a regular

1 term of employment we have undone the Advisers Act's
2 imposition of an unwaivable fiduciary duty.

3 Your Honor, the order is void to the extent that it
4 attempts to do so.

5 This is not an ordinary employment agreement, Your Honor.
6 This is an attempt to exculpate someone from the key thing
7 that our entire investment system depends upon, regulation by 8 the SEC and the requirement in investment advisors to act as 9 fiduciaries when they manage the money of another.

10 It would be the equivalent of telling lawyers who are 11 appointed in a bankruptcy proceeding that they don't have any 12 duties to their client, or at least not fiduciary duties.
13 That the lawyers merely owe a duty not to be grossly negligent
14 to their clients. That's not an ordinary term of employment,
15 Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. So I guess we're back to my 17 question, was this brought within a reasonable time under Rule 18 60(c)?

19 MR. BRIDGES: It was brought very quickly after the 20 new evidence was discovered at the end of March, Your Honor, 21 yes.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I guess I'll just ask you
23 one more question before you continue on with your rebuttal
24 argument. I mean, again, I want your best argument of why
25 Villegas doesn't absolutely permit the gatekeeping provisions

1 that you're challenging. And many cases were cited by Mr.
2 Pomerantz in his brief where courts have extended the Barton
3 doctrine to persons other than trustees. And so what is your 4 best rebuttal to that?

5 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, we've already given it.
6 I'm afraid --

7 THE COURT: Okay. If you don't want to say more, --

8 MR. BRIDGES: -- what I have is not --

9 THE COURT: -- I'm not going to make you say more.

10 MR. BRIDGES: I --

11 THE COURT: I'm just telling you what's on my brain.

12 MR. BRIDGES: I do. I want to -- I am apologizing in 13 advance for repeating, but yes, Villegas, Villegas, however 14 that case is pronounced, says that Stern is not an exception
15 to the Barton doctrine.

16 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

17 MR. BRIDGES: 959(a) is an exception to the Barton
18 doctrine. You are not operating under the Barton doctrine
19 here. Even counsel's brief, the Debtor's brief, doesn't say
20 Barton applies. It says it's consistent with Barton.

21 Your Honor, in our previous hearing, you directed me to 22 the second sentence of 959(a) because you believe it's what 23 empowers you to do the gatekeeping. It limits the gatekeeping
24 that you can do by protecting jury rights, the right to trial,
25 says you cannot discharge, undo, deprive a litigant of their

1 right to a trial, a jury trial.

2 THE COURT: Well, you mentioned it again, jury trial
3 rights. Do you have any argument --

4 MR. BRIDGES: Yes, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: -- of why that hasn't flown out the 6 window?

7 MR. BRIDGES: Yes, Your Honor. I am told that 8 Section 14(f) that counsel for the Debtor referred to is not a
9 waiver of jury rights at all. It is an arbitration agreement.
10 Your Honor is probably familiar how arbitration agreements
11 work, is that they need not be elected. They need not be 12 invoked by the parties. When they are, they create a 13 situation where arbitration may be required. But a waiver of 14 a jury right outside of arbitration is not part of this 15 arbitration clause, or of any. The issue is not briefed or in 16 evidence before the Court. We're relying on representations
17 of counsel as to what that provision contains. That Mr. Seery
18 wasn't even a party to that agreement, the advisory agreement,
19 with the Charitable DAF. The arbitration agreement is subject
20 to defenses that are not at issue here before the Court. That 21 Movants' rights, their contractual rights to invoke the 22 arbitration clause, also appear to be terminated by the 23 orders' assertion of sole jurisdiction in this matter.

24 Your Honor, yes, our jury rights survive Section 14(f) in 25 the advisory agreement with the DAF for all of those potential

1 reasons.

2 On top of that, it doesn't go to all of our causes of 3 action. It goes to the contract cause of action. And to the 4 extent they can argue that the other claims are subject to 5 arbitration, that also is a defense and -- defensible and 6 complex issue requiring the application of the Federal 7 Arbitration Act, requiring consideration of the Federal 8 Arbitration Act, which this Court doesn't have jurisdiction to 9 do under 157(d).

10 THE COURT: What? Repeat that.

11 MR. BRIDGES: Yes. This Court does not have 12 jurisdiction to determine whether or not arbitration --
13 arbitration is enforceable due to the mandatory withdrawal of 14 the reference provisions of 157(d).

15 THE COURT: That's just not consistent with Fifth 16 Circuit authority. National Gypsum. What are some of these 17 other arbitration cases? I've written an article on it. I
18 can't remember them. That's just not right. Bankruptcy
19 courts look at arbitration clauses all the time. Motions to 20 compel arbitration.

21 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, under 157(d), in the 22 circumstances of this case, if the Court is going to take into 23 consideration an arbitration clause under the Federal 24 Arbitration Act, when that clause is not in evidence and is 25 not before the Court, then Movants respectfully move to

1 withdraw the reference of your consideration of that issue and 2 of any proceeding and ask that you would issue only a report
3 and recommendation rather than an order on that issue.

4 THE COURT: Okay. I regret that we even got off on 5 this trail. I'm sorry. So just proceed with your rebuttal
6 argument as you had envisioned it, Mr. Bridges.

7 MR. BRIDGES: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 Debtor's counsel says there's no private right of action
9 under the Advisers Act. That is both inaccurate and 10 misleading. The Advisory Act creates, imposes fiduciary 11 duties that state law provides the cause of action for. It is 12 a state law breach of fiduciary duty claim regarding -- 13 regarding fiduciary duties imposed as a matter of law by the 14 Investment Advisers Act that is Count One in the District
15 Court action.

16 Furthermore, that Act does create a private right of 17 action for rescission. That would be rescission of the 18 advisory agreement with the Charitable DAF, not rescission of 19 the HarbourVest settlement.

20 Second, Your Honor, the notion that this Court has related 21 to jurisdiction is irrelevant and beside the point. I would 22 like to note for the record that the District Court civil 23 cover sheet that omitted to state that this was a related 24 action has been corrected, has been amended, and that that has 25 taken place.

1 Counsel for the Debtor also appears to agree with us that
2 the order ought to be modified for having asserted exclusive
3 jurisdiction over colorable claims to the extent it's not 4 legally permissible to do. And in trying to invoke the 5 discussions between us as to how the orders might be fixed,
6 what counsel does is tries to cabin the legally-permissible
7 caveat to just the second half of the paragraph at issue. It
8 is both -- both portions, the gatekeeping and the subsequent 9 hearing of the claims, that should be limited to the extent it
10 would be impermissible legally for this Court to make those 11 decisions.

12 On top of that, Your Honor, merely stating "to the extent 13 legally permissible" would result in a considerable amount of 14 ambiguity in the order that would lead it, I fear, to be 15 unenforceable as a matter of law.

16 Next, Your Honor, when Debtor's counsel talks about the 17 authority in this case, it feels like we're ships passing in 18 the night. He says that we're wrong in asserting that no case
19 we can find involves both the Barton doctrine and the 20 application of the business judgment rule where the Court is 21 asked to defer, and he mentions cases that apply the Barton
22 doctrine to an approval rather than an appointment. The Court
23 is asked to --

24 (Garbled audio.)

25 THE COURT: I lost you for a moment. Could you

1 repeat the last 30 seconds?

2 MR. BRIDGES: Thank you, Your Honor. Yes. He points
3 -- opposing counsel points us to case law where the Barton
4 doctrine has been applied despite the Bankruptcy Court having 5 merely approved rather than appointed the trustee or the, I'm 6 sorry, the professional. But in doing so, he doesn't
7 reference any case that has done so in the context of business
8 judgment rule deference. It's like we're ships passing in the 9 night.

10 What we're saying isn't that a mere approval can never 11 rise to the level of the Barton doctrine. What we're saying
12 is that, in combination with the business judgment rule
13 deference, the two cannot go together. There's no authority
14 for saying that they do.

15 We -- I further feel like we're ships passing in the night
16 when he talks about Shoaf. Counsel says that in Shoaf there 17 was a confirmed final plan and it specifically identified the 18 released guaranty. And yeah, that distinguishes it from this 19 case, just as it distinguished -- just as the Applewood Chair
20 case distinguished it when there's not that specific 21 identification. And here, we don't even have a final plan
22 confirmation at the time these orders are being issued.
23 Without that express -- express notion of what the claims are 24 being discharged, Shoaf doesn't apply.

25 There, there was a guaranty to a party on a specific

1 indebtedness that was listed, identified with specificity, and 2 disappeared as a result of the judgment, as a result of the 3 judgment in the underlying case. Here, we're talking about 4 any potential claim that might arise in the future. As of the 5 July order's issuance, it didn't apply on its -- either it
6 didn't apply to future claims that had not yet accrued or else
7 in violation of Applewood Chair, it was releasing claims
8 without identifying them.

9       Who does Seery owe a fiduciary duty to? Is it, as 10 Debtor's counsel says, only to the funds and not to the 11 investors, or does he also owe those duties to the investors
12 as well? Your Honor, that is going to be a hotly-contested
13 issue in this litigation, and it involves -- it requires 14 consideration of the Advisers Act and the multitude of 15 accompanying regulations. To just state that his fiduciary 16 duties are limited in a way that couldn't affect anyone that 17 is -- whose claims are precluded by the July order is both 18 wrong on the law and is invoking something that will be a
19 hotly-contested issue that falls under 157(d), where, again,
20 this Court doesn't have the jurisdiction to decide that, other
21 than in a report and recommendation.

22       The order is legally infirm because it's issued without 23 jurisdiction for doing that as well.

24       Finally, Your Honor, I think (garbled) wrong direction
25 with a statement that suggests that Mr. Seery is an agent of

1 the independent directors under the January order. He is, in 2 fact, not an independent agent -- not an agent of any of the 3 independent directors, but, at most, of the company that is 4 controlled by the board, not -- not of individual directors
5 who could confer on him -- who could confer on him any 6 immunity that they have obtained from the January order just 7 by having appointed him.

8 The proposed order from the other side failed to address
9 either the ambiguity in the order or its attempt to exculpate
10 Mr. Seery from the liability, including liability for which 11 there is a jury trial right, and it is not a fix to the 12 problem for that reason.

13 In order to make the order enforceable and to fix its 14 infirmities, the Court would have to do significantly more.
15 It would have to both apply the caveat from the final 16 confirmation plan order, rope that caveat to the first part of 17 the relevant paragraph, as well as the second part, and it
18 would have to provide directive clarity to be enforceable
19 rather than too vague.

20 Your Honor, I think that's all I have.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Just FYI, my law clerk pulled the 22 Smyth case from 21 years ago from the Fifth Circuit. And 23 while it more prominently deals with the issue of whether 24 trustees -- in this case, it was a Chapter 11 trustee -- could 25 be subjected to personal liability for damages to the

1 bankruptcy estate --

2 (Echoing.)

3 THE COURT: Someone, put your phone on mute. I don't 4 know who that is.

5 It dealt with, you know, the standard of liability, that 6 the trustee could not be sued for matters not to the level of 7 gross negligence.

8 But it does say, in the very last paragraph, to my shock
9 and amazement, that -- it's just one sentence in a 10-page
10 opinion -- orders appointing counsel -- and it was talking 11 about the trustee's lawyer he hired to handle appeals to the 12 Fifth Circuit -- orders appointing counsel under the 13 Bankruptcy Code are interlocutory and are not generally
14 considered final and appealable. And it cites one case from 15 1993, the Middle District of Florida. Live and learn. There
16 is one sentence in that opinion that says that. But I don't 17 know that it's hugely impactful here, but I did not know about 18 that opinion and I'm rather surprised.

19 All right. You were going to walk me through evidence,
20 you said?

21 MR. BRIDGES: Well, do I -- Your Honor, do you want
22 to do that first before I submit --

23 THE COURT: Yes, please.

24 MR. BRIDGES: -- my rebuttal argument?

25 THE COURT: Please.

1 MR. BRIDGES: Okay.

2 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

3 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, we would submit and offer
4 Exhibits 1 through 44, with the exception of those that have 5 been withdrawn, that are 2, 13 --

6 THE COURT: Okay. Slow down. Slow down. I need to 7 get to the docket entry number we're talking about. Are we 8 talking -- are your -- the Debtor's exhibits are at 2412. But 9 Nate, I misplaced my notes. Where are Charitable DAF and 10 Holdco's?

11 THE CLERK: I have 2411.

12 THE COURT: 2411? Is that it?

13 MR. BRIDGES: 2420, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: 2420? Okay. Give me a minute. (Pause.)
15 2420?

16 MR. BRIDGES: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Okay, I'm there. And it's which 18 exhibits?

19 MR. BRIDGES: It's Exhibits 1 through 44, Your 20 Honor, with four exceptions. We have agreed to withdraw
21 Exhibit 2, 13, 14, and 29.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 MR. BRIDGES: Also, Your Honor, we'd like to submit
24 Debtor's Exhibit 1, which is under Exhibit 49 on our list,
25 would be anything offered by the other side. But we'd like

1 to make sure that Debtor's Exhibit 1 gets in the record as
2 well.

3 THE COURT: Let me back up. When I pull up the 4 docket entry you just told me, I have Exhibits 44, 45, and 46
5 only. Am I misreading this?

6 MR. BRIDGES: I have a chart showing Exhibits 1
7 through 49 titled Docket 2420 filed 6/7/21.

8 THE COURT: Okay. The docket entry number you told 9 me, 2420, it only has three exhibits: 44, 45, and 46. So,
10 first off, I understand -- are you offering 45 and 46 or not?

11 MR. BRIDGES: No, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Okay. So you said you were offering 1
13 through 44 minus certain ones. 44 is here.

14 MR. BRIDGES: Yes.

15 THE COURT: But I've got to go back to a different
16 docket number.

17 THE CLERK: It's actually 2411.

18 THE COURT: It's at 2411. That has all the others?

19 THE CLERK: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 So, Mr. Pomerantz, do you have any objection to Exhibits
22 1 through 44, which he's excepted out 2, 13, 14, and 29, and 23 then he's added Debtor's Exhibit 1? Any objection?

24 MR. POMERANTZ: I don't believe so. I just would 25 confirm with John Morris, who has been focused on the

1 exhibits, just to confirm.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Morris?

3 MR. MORRIS: No objection, Your Honor. It's fine.

4 THE COURT: Okay. They're admitted.

5 (Movants' Exhibits 1, 3 through 12, 15 through 28, and 30
6 through 44 are received into evidence. Debtor's Exhibit 1 is 7 received into evidence.)

8 THE COURT: So, any --

9 MR. BRIDGES: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Anything you wanted to call to my 11 attention about these?

12 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, the things that we 13 mentioned in the argument, for sure, but especially that the 14 word "trustee" is not used in the January hearing's
15 transcript, nor is it under discussion in that transcript
16 that it would be a trustee-like role being played by the 17 Strand directors, as well as the transcript of the July 18 hearing on the order at issue here, Your Honor, where you are 19 asked to defer both in that transcript and in the motion, the 20 motion that was at issue in that hearing, you are asked to 21 defer to the business judgment of the company.

22 And finally, Your Honor, I'd ask you to look at the 23 allegations in the District Court complaint.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 Mr. Pomerantz or Morris, let's see what exhibits you're

1 wanting the Court to consider. Your exhibits, it looks like,
2 are at Docket Entry 2412.

3 MR. MORRIS: As subsequently amended at 2423.

4 THE COURT: Oh. All right. So which ones are you
5 offering?

6 MR. MORRIS: We're offering all of the exhibits on 7 2423, which is 1 through 17.

8 (Echoing.)

9 THE COURT: Whoops. We got some distortion there.
10 Say again?

11 MR. MORRIS: Yeah. All of the exhibits that are on 12 2423, which are Exhibits 1 through 17. But I want to make 13 sure that, as I did earlier, that that has the exhibits that 14 we're relying on. Does that --

15 (Pause.)

16 THE COURT: Okay. Let me make sure I know what's 17 going on here. You're double-checking your exhibits, Mr.
18 Morris?

19 MR. MORRIS: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 (Pause.)

22 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, we start with Docket No.
23 2419, --

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. MORRIS: -- which was the amended exhibit list.

1 And that actually had Exhibits 1 through 17. And then that 2 was amended at Docket 2423. So, the exhibits on both of 3 those lists.

4 THE COURT: Well, they're one and the same, it looks
5 like, right?

6 MR. MORRIS: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Okay. So you're offering those?

8 MR. MORRIS: I think -- yeah.

9 THE COURT: Any objection?

10 MR. BRIDGES: No objection.

11 THE COURT: All right. They're admitted.

12 (Debtor's Exhibits 1 through 17 are received into 13 evidence.)

14 MR. POMERANTZ: Your Honor, if I may take a few
15 moments to respond to Mr. Bridges' reply?

16 THE COURT: All right. Is he still within his hour
17 and a half?

18 THE CLERK: At an hour and one minute.

19 THE COURT: Okay. All right. You have a little 20 time left, so go ahead.

21 MR. POMERANTZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 So look, I -- it sort of was really not fair to us. Mr.
23 Bridges was really making things up on the fly. He was 24 changing the theories of his case and responding to Your 25 Honor. But I'm going to do my best to respond to the

1 arguments made, many of which I sort of anticipated.

2 I'll first start with the issue that Your Honor raised,
3 which was whether this is under Rule 60 or not. Mr. Bridges
4 identified a couple of cases, said that the order was 5 interlocutory, said that somehow the orders have anything to 6 do with a plan confirmation order. They do not. Your Honor
7 didn't hear that argument at the plan confirmation. The 8 January 9th and July 16th orders are old and cold. There's 9 an exculpation provision in the plan. There's a gatekeeper 10 in the plan. The provisions do not overlap entirely. The 11 gatekeeper applies prospectively. The exculpation provision
12 includes additional parties.

13 So the arguments that basically the plan had anything to 14 do -- and the fact that the plan is not a final order -- has 15 anything to do with the January 9th and July 16th orders is 16 just wrong. It's just wrong.

17 More fundamentally, Your Honor, as Your Honor pointed 18 out, the Smyth case is a professional employment order. And 19 ironically, if you abide by the Smyth case, that order is 20 never appealable because it's interlocutory.

21 But more fundamentally, Your Honor, that's dealing with 22 327 professionals. And again, there's not much analysis in 23 the Smyth case, but we're not dealing with a 327
24 professional. We're dealing with orders that were approved
25 under 363.

1           So the premise of the argument that Rule 60(b) -- 60
2 doesn't apply and they have other arguments just doesn't make 3 any sense.

4           Okay. So now that gets us to Rule 60. And Your Honor,
5 Your Honor hit the nail on the head. They haven't presented
6 any evidence. Allegations in a complaint aren't evidence.
7 They can't stand up there and say surprise evidence. They 8 had the opportunity -- and this hearing's been continued a 9 few weeks -- they had the opportunity to bring it up, and 10 it's -- they had the opportunity to claim that there was 11 surprise, but they just didn't. Okay?

12           So to go on to the Rule 60 arguments. Surprise.
13 Surprise and reasonable delay are really -- go hand in hand
14 with Mr. Bridges' argument. He says, well, we didn't find 15 out that -- months after the order was entered that he 16 violated a duty to us, so we are surprised by that, and it's 17 a reasonable time. Well, Your Honor, the order provided for 18 an exculpation. CLO Holdco and DAF knew that it applied to 19 an exculpation. They were bound. They knew based upon that 20 order that they would not be able to bring claims for normal
21 negligence. There is no surprise.

22           If you take Mr. Bridges' argument to its conclusion, he 23 could wait until the end of the statute of limitations after 24 an order and have come in four years from now and say, Your 25 Honor, we just found out facts so we should go back four

1 years before. That, Your Honor, that's not how the surprise
2 works. That's not how the reasonable time works.

3 Mr. Bridges did not contest that they're bound by res
4 judicata. He did not contest that the exculpation itself was 5 clear and unambiguous. Of course he argued Your Honor
6 couldn't enter an order saying there was exculpation, again,
7 with no authority. And he seemed surprised, as I suspect he 8 should, since he's not a bankruptcy lawyer, that retention
9 orders, whether it's investment bankers, financial advisors,
10 include exculpations all the time. So there's no grounds
11 under surprise.

12 There's no grounds -- the motions are late under 60(c).

13 And they're not void. I went through a painstaking
14 analysis, Your Honor, and I described in detail what the 15 Espinosa case held, and the exceptional circumstances which 16 Mr. Bridges tried to get away from as much as he could.
17 Maybe he can try to get away from language in a district
18 Court opinion, in a Bankruptcy Court opinion, in a Circuit
19 Court opinion. You can't get away from language in a Supreme 20 Court opinion. The Supreme Court opinion said exceptional 21 circumstances, where there was arguably no basis for 22 jurisdiction for what the Court did. They have not even come
23 close to convincing Your Honor that there was absolutely no
24 basis.

25 Now, they disagree. We granted, we think it's a good-

1 faith disagreement, but they haven't come close to 2 establishing the Espinosa standard, so their motion under 60
3 does not -- it fails.

4 And I don't think -- look, these are good lawyers. Mr.
5 Bridges and Mr. Sbaiti are good lawyers. They didn't just 6 inadvertently not mention Rule 60. They never mentioned it
7 because they knew they had no claim under Rule 60.

8 Your Honor, Mr. Bridges has made comments about the 9 fiduciary duty of Mr. Seery, about what the Investor's Act
10 provides. He's just wrong on the law. Now, Your Honor 11 doesn't have to decide that. Whichever court adjudicates the 12 DAF lawsuit will have to decide it. But there is no private 13 cause of action for damages. There are no fiduciary duties to 14 the investors.

15 And what Mr. Bridges doesn't even mention, in that the 16 investment agreement that's so prominent in his complaint,
17 they waived claims other than willful misconduct and gross
18 negligence against Highland. They waived those claims. So 19 for Mr. Bridges to come in here and argue that there's some 20 surprise, when he hasn't even bothered to look at the document
21 that's underlying the contractual relationship between the DAF
22 and the Debtor, is -- you know, I'll just say it's 23 inadvertence.

24 Your Honor, Mr. Bridges tried to argue that Mr. Seery is 25 not a beneficiary of the January 9th order. He's not an

1 agent. Well, again, Your Honor, Mr. Bridges wasn't there.
2 Your Honor and we were. On January 9th, an independent board
3 was picked, and at the time Mr. Dondero ceased to become the 4 CEO. So you have three gentlemen coming in -- Mr. Seery, Mr.
5 Dubel, and Mr. Nelms -- coming in to run Highland, in a very
6 chaotic time. They had to act through their agents. There
7 was no expectation that this board was going to actually run
8 the day-to-day operations of the Debtor. Of course not. They 9 needed someone to run. And they picked Mr. Seery. And the 10 argument that well, he's an agent of the company, he's not an 11 agent of the board, that just doesn't make sense. The 12 independent board had to act. The directors had to act. And 13 the directors, how do they deal with that? They acted through 14 Mr. Seery. So he is most certainly governed by the January 15 9th order.

16 Your Honor, I want to talk about the jury trial right.
17 Mr. Bridges said that Paragraph 14 is an arbitration clause
18 and not a jury trial waiver. Now, again, I will forgive Mr.
19 Bridges because I assume he didn't read the provision, okay,
20 and he -- somebody told him that, and that person just got it
21 wrong. But what I would like to do is read for Your Honor
22 Paragraph 14(f). It doesn't have to do with arbitration.
23 It's a waiver of jury trial. 14(f), Jurisdiction Venue, 24 Waiver of Jury Trial. The parties hereby agree that any 25 action, claim, litigation, or proceeding of any kind

1 whatsoever against any other party in any way arising from or 2 relating to this agreement and all contemplated transactions,
3 including claims sounding in contract, equity, tort, fraud,
4 statute defined as a dispute shall be submitted exclusively to 5 the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas, or 6 if such court does not have subject matter jurisdiction, the 7 courts of the State of Texas, City of Dallas County, and any 8 appellate court thereof, defined as the enforcement court.

9 Each party ethically and unconditionally submits to the 10 exclusive personal and subject matter jurisdiction of the 11 enforcement court for any dispute and agrees to bring any 12 dispute only in the enforcement court. Each party further 13 agrees it shall not commence any dispute in any forum,
14 including administrative, arbitration, or litigation, other
15 than the enforcement court. Each party agrees that a final 16 judgment in any such action, litigation, or proceeding is 17 conclusive and may be enforced through other jurisdictions by 18 suit on the judgment or in any manner provided by law.

19 And then the kick, Your Honor, all caps, as jury trial
20 waiver always are: Each party irrevocably and unconditionally
21 waives to the fullest extent permitted by law any right it may 22 have to a trial by jury in any legal action, proceeding, cause
23 of action, or counterclaim arising out of or relating to this
24 agreement, including any exhibits, schedules, and appendices
25 attached to this agreement or the transactions contemplated

1 hereby. Each party certifies and acknowledges that no
2 representative of the owner of the other party has represented
3 expressly or otherwise that the other party won't seek to 4 enforce the foregoing waiver in the event of a legal action.
5 It has considered the implications of this waiver, it makes 6 this waiver knowingly and voluntarily, and it has been induced
7 to enter into this agreement by, among other things, the 8 mutual waivers and certifications in this section.

9 Your Honor, I will forgive Mr. Bridges. I assume he just 10 did not read that. But to represent to the Court that that 11 language does not contain a jury trial waiver is -- is just 12 wrong.

13 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to stop right
14 there. And you were reading from the Second Amended and 15 Restated Shared Services Agreement between Highland --

16 MR. POMERANTZ: Not shared services. I'm reading
17 from the Second Amended and Restated Investment Advisory
18 Agreement --

19 THE COURT: Investment --

20 MR. POMERANTZ: -- between the Charitable DAF, the 21 Charitable DAF GP, and Highland Capital Management. The 22 agreement whereby the Debtor was the investment advisor to the 23 Charitable DAF Fund and the Charitable DAF GP.

24 THE COURT: All right. Well, Mr. Bridges, I'm going 25 to bounce quickly back to you. This is your chance to defend

1 your honor.

2 MR. BRIDGES: Yeah, we're -- we're looking at a
3 different agreement, where -- where literally the words that 4 were read to you are not in the agreement in front of us and 5 it is news to me. So, Your Honor, this is a problem --

6 THE COURT: What is the agreement you're looking at?

7 MR. BRIDGES: It is the Amended -- I assume that 8 means First Amended -- Restated Advisory Agreement.

9 MR. POMERANTZ: Your Honor, we are happy to file this 10 agreement with the Court so the Court has the benefit of it in 11 connection with Your Honor's ruling.

12 THE COURT: Okay. I would like you to do that. Uh-13 huh.

14 MR. BRIDGES: I'd like -- I'd like to request -- I'll 15 withdraw that.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Go on, Mr. Pomerantz.

17 MR. POMERANTZ: Mr. Bridges, if you could put us on 18 mute. If you could put us on mute, Mr. Bridges, so I don't 19 hear your feedback. Thank you.

20 Mr. Bridges also complains about the language "to the 21 extent permissible by law." As Your Honor knows and as has 22 been my practice over 30 years, that language is probably in 23 every plan where there's a retention of jurisdiction: to the 24 extent permissible by law. And Mr. Bridges says that this 25 will create ambiguity in the order that couldn't be enforced.

1 There's no basis for that. Our including the language "to the 2 extent permissible by law" in the orders, as we are prepared
3 to do, is consistent with the plan confirmation order where we 4 addressed that issue. And we addressed that issue because we 5 didn't want to put Your Honor in a position where thereby Your 6 Honor may have an action before Your Honor that passes the 7 colorability gate that Your Honor may not be able to assert
8 jurisdiction. And since jurisdiction can't be waived in that 9 regard, we will agree to amend that.

10 There's nothing ambiguous about that, and there's no
11 reason, though, that clause has to modify the Court's ability
12 to act as a gatekeeper, because, as we've argued ad nauseam,
13 gatekeeper provisions where the Court has that ability is not 14 only part of general bankruptcy jurisprudence but also part of 15 the Bankruptcy Code.

16 Counsel says that Barton doesn't apply because the 17 business judgment of Your Honor was used in retaining Mr.
18 Seery as opposed to in some other capacity. There's no basis
19 for that, Your Honor. A court-appointed -- a court-approved
20 CEO, CRO, professional, they are all entitled to protection
21 under the Barton act. And the argument -- and again, this is 22 separate and apart from whether he's entitled to protection
23 under the January 9th order. But the argument that because it
24 was the business judgment -- again, business judgment in doing
25 something that Your Honor expressly contemplated under the

1 January 9th corporate governance order -- there's just no law
2 to support that. And I guess he's trying to get around the 3 plethora of cases that deal with the situation where Barton
4 has been extended.

5 Your Honor, Mr. Bridges, again, in arguing that we're 6 ships passing in the night on Shoaf and Applewood and 7 Espinosa, no, we're not ships passing in the night. We have a
8 difference in agreement on what these cases stand for. These 9 cases stand for the proposition that a clear and unambiguous
10 provision, plain and simple, if it's clear and unambiguous, it
11 will be given res judicata effect. The release in Shoaf, 12 clear and unambiguous. The release in Applewood, not. The 13 issue here is the exculpation language. That was clear and 14 unambiguous. It applied prospectively. The argument makes no
15 sense that we didn't identify -- we didn't identify claims
16 that might arise in the future, so therefore an exculpation
17 clause doesn't apply? That doesn't make any sense.

18 Your Honor clearly exculpated parties. Mr. Dondero knew 19 it. CLO Holdco knew it. The DAF knew it. So the issue Your 20 Honor has to decide is whether that exculpation was a clear 21 and unambiguous provision such that it should be entitled to 22 res judicata effect. And we submit that the answer is 23 unequivocally yes.

24 That's all I have, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. Well, --

1 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor? I apologize.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MR. MORRIS: This is John Morris.

4 THE COURT: Yes?

5 MR. MORRIS: I just want to, with respect to the 6 exhibits, I know there was no objection, but I had cited to 7 Docket Nos. 2419 and 2423. The original exhibit list is at 8 Docket No. 2412. So it's the three of those lists together.
9 2412, as amended by 2419, as amended by 2423. Thank you very 10 much.

11 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. All right.

12 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, I still have no objection
13 to that, but may I have the last word on my motion?

14 THE COURT: Is there time left?

15 THE CLERK: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

17 MR. BRIDGES: I just need a minute, Your Honor. They 18 agreed to change the order. They proposed it to us. They 19 proposed it in a proposed order to you. They can't also say
20 that it cannot be changed.

21 Secondly, Your Honor, in Milic v. McCarthy, 469 F.Supp.3d
22 580, the Eastern District of Virginia points out that the 23 Fourth Circuit treats appointment of estate professionals as 24 interlocutory orders as well.

25 That's all. Thank you, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right. Here's what we're going to 2 do. We've been going a very long time. I'm going to take a
3 break to look through these exhibits, see if there's anything
4 in there that I haven't looked at before and that might affect
5 the decision here. So we will come back at 3:00 o'clock
6 Central Time -- it's 2:22 right now -- and I will give you my 7 bench ruling on this. All right.

8 So, Mike, they can all stay on the line, right?

9 Okay. You can stay on, and we'll be back at 3:00 o'clock.

10 THE CLERK: All rise.

11 (A recess ensued from 2:22 p.m. to 3:04 p.m.)

12 THE CLERK: All rise.

13 THE COURT: All right. Please be seated. All right.
14 Everyone presented and accounted for. We're going back on the 15 record.

16 MR. POMERANTZ: Your Honor, before you start, this is 17 Jeff Pomerantz. We had sent to your clerk, and hopefully it
18 got to you, a copy of the Second Amended and Restated
19 Investment Advisory Agreement. We also copied Mr. Sbaiti with 20 it as well. And we would also like to move that into 21 evidence, just so that it's part of the Court's record.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 MR. BRIDGES: We would object to that, Your Honor.
24 We haven't had an opportunity to even verify its authenticity
25 yet.

1 THE COURT: All right. Well, I'll tell you what.
2 I'm going to address this in my ruling. So it's not going to 3 be part of the record for this decision, and yet -- well, I'll 4 get to it.

5 All right. So we're back on the record in Case Number 19-
6 34054, Highland Capital. The Court has deliberated, after 7 hearing a lot of argument and allowing in a lot of documentary
8 evidence, and the Court concludes that the motion of CLO
9 Holdco, Ltd. and The Charitable DAF to modify the retention
10 order of James Seery, which was entered almost a year ago, on 11 July 16th, 2020, should be denied.

12 This is the Court's oral bench ruling, but the Court
13 reserves discretion to supplement or amend in a more fulsome
14 written order what I'm going to announce right now, pursuant 15 to Rule 7052.

16 First, what is the Movants' authority to request the 17 modification of a bankruptcy court order that has been in 18 place for so many months, which was issued after reasonable
19 notice to the Movants, and after a hearing, which was not 20 objected to by the Movants, or appealed, when the Movants were 21 represented by sophisticated counsel, I might add, and which 22 order was relied upon by parties in this case, most notably 23 Mr. Seery and the Debtor, and in fact was entered after 24 significant negotiations involving a sophisticated court-
25 appointed Unsecured Creditors' Committee with sophisticated

1 professionals and sophisticated members, and after negotiation
2 with an independent board of directors, court-appointed, one
3 of whose members is a retired bankruptcy judge? What is the 4 Movants' authority?

5 Movants fumbled a little on that question, in that the 6 exact authority wasn't set forth in the motion. But Movants'
7 primary argument is that Movants think the Seery retention
8 order was an interlocutory order and that the Court simply has 9 the inherent authority to modify it as an interlocutory order.

10 The Court disagrees with this analysis. I do not think 11 the Fifth Circuit's Smyth case dictates that the Seery
12 retention order is still interlocutory. The Seery retention 13 order was an order entered pursuant to Section 363 of the 14 Bankruptcy Code, not a Section 327 professionals to a debtor-
15 in-possession, professionals to a trustee employment order
16 such as the one involved in the Smyth case.

17 But even if the Seery retention order is interlocutory --
18 the Court feels strongly that it's not, but even if it is -- 19 the Court believes it would be an abuse of this Court's 20 inherent discretion or authority to modify that order almost a 21 year after the fact and under the circumstances of this case.

22 Now, assuming Rule 60(b) applies to the Movants' request, 23 the Court determines that the Movants have not made their 24 motion anywhere close to within a reasonable time, as Rule
25 60(c) requires, nor do I think the Movants have demonstrated

1 any exceptional circumstances to declare the order or any of 2 its provisions void. The Movants have put on no evidence that 3 constitutes surprise or constitutes newly-disputed evidence.
4 So why are there no exceptional circumstances here such that 5 the Court might find, you know, a void order or void
6 provisions of an order?

7 First, this Court concludes that there's no credible
8 argument that the Court overreached its jurisdiction with the 9 gatekeeping provisions in the order. Gatekeeping provisions
10 are not only very common in the bankruptcy world -- in 11 retention orders and in plan confirmation orders, for example
12 -- but they are wholly consistent with the Barton case, the 13 U.S. Supreme Court's Barton's case, and its progeny that has 14 become known collectively as the Barton doctrine. Gatekeeping
15 provisions are wholly consistent with 28 U.S.C. Section
16 959(a)'s complete language.

17 The Fifth Circuit has blessed gatekeeping provisions in 18 all sorts of contexts. It has blessed them in the situation
19 of when Stern claims are involved in the Villegas case. It
20 even blessed Bankruptcy Courts' gatekeeping functions a long
21 time ago, in 1988, in a case that I don't think anyone
22 mentioned in the briefing, but as I've said, my brain
23 sometimes goes down trails, and I'm thinking of the Louisiana
24 World Exposition case in 1988, when the Fifth Circuit blessed
25 there a procedure where an unsecured creditors' committee can

1 bring causes of action against persons, such as officers and 2 directors or other third parties, if they first come to the 3 Bankruptcy Court and show a colorable claim. They have to 4 come to the Bankruptcy Court, show they have a colorable claim
5 and they're the ones that should be able to pursue them. Not 6 exactly on point, but it's just one of many cases that one
7 could cite that certainly approve gatekeeper functions of 8 various sorts of Bankruptcy Courts.

9 It doesn't matter which court might ultimately adjudicate
10 the claims; the Bankruptcy Court can be the gatekeeper.

11 And the Court agrees with the many cases cited from 12 outside this circuit, such as the case in Alabama, in the 13 Eleventh Circuit, and there was another circuit-level case, at 14 least one other, that have held that the Barton doctrine
15 should be extended to other types of case fiduciaries, such as 16 debtor-in-possession management, among others.

17 Finally, as I pointed out in my confirmation ruling in 18 this case, gatekeeping provisions are commonplace for all
19 types of courts, not just Bankruptcy Courts, when vexatious
20 litigants are involved. I have commented before that we seem 21 to have vexatious litigation behavior with regard to Mr.
22 Dondero and his many controlled entities.

23 Now, as far as the Movants' argument that there was not
24 just improper gatekeeping provisions but actually an improper
25 discharge in the Seery retention order of negligence claims or

1 other claims that don't rise to the level of gross negligence
2 or willful misconduct, again, I reiterate there's nothing
3 exceptional in the bankruptcy world about exculpation
4 provisions like this. They absolutely are a term of 5 employment very often. Just like compensation, they're 6 frequently requested, negotiated, and approved. They are 7 normal in the corporate governance world, generally. They are 8 normal in corporate contracts between sophisticated parties.
9 And most importantly of all, even if this Court overreached
10 with the exculpation provisions in the Seery retention order, 11 even if it did, res judicata bars the attack of these 12 provisions at this late stage, under cases such as Shoaf,
13 Republic Supply v. Shoaf from the Fifth Circuit, the Espinosa
14 case from the U.S. Supreme Court, and even Applewood, since 15 the Court finds the language in this order was clear,
16 specific, and unambiguous with regard to the gatekeeping
17 provisions and the exculpation provisions.

18 Last, and this is the part where I said I'm going to get 19 to this agreement that has been submitted, the Second Amended
20 and Restated Investment Advisor Agreement or whatever the 21 title is. I am more than a little disturbed that so much of 22 the theme of the Movants' pleadings and arguments, and I think 23 even representations to the District Court, have been they 24 have these sacred jury trial rights, these inviolate jury
25 trial rights, and an Article I Court like this Court should

1 have no business through a gatekeeping provision impinging on 2 the possible pursuit of an action where there's a jury trial
3 right.

4 I was surprised initially when I thought about this. I
5 thought, wow, I've seen so many agreements over the months. I
6 can't say every one of them waived the jury trial right, but I
7 just remembered seeing that a lot, and seeing arbitration
8 provisions, and so that's why I asked. It just was lingering
9 in my brain. So I'm going to look at what is submitted. I'm 10 not relying on that as part of my ruling. As you just heard,
11 I had a multi-part ruling, and whether there's a jury trial
12 right or not is irrelevant to how I'm choosing to rule on this 13 motion. But I do want to see the agreement, and then I want
14 Movants within 10 days to respond with a post-hearing trial
15 brief either saying you agree that this is the controlling 16 document or you don't agree and explain the oversight, okay?
17 Because it feels like a gross omission here to have such a
18 strong theme in your argument -- we have a jury trial right,
19 we have a jury trial right, by God, the gatekeeping
20 provisions, among other things, impinge on our sacred pursuit
21 of our jury trial right -- and then maybe it was very 22 conspicuous in the controlling agreement that you'd waived
23 that, the Movants had waived that.

24 So, anyway, I'm requiring some post-hearing briefing, if 25 you will, on whether omissions, misrepresentations were made

1 to the Court.

2           Anyway, so I reserve the right to supplement or amend this
3 ruling with a more fulsome written order. I am asking Mr.
4 Pomerantz to upload a form of order that is consistent with 5 this ruling, and --

6           MR. POMERANTZ: Your Honor, we will do so. I do have 7 one thing to bring to the Court's attention, unrelated to the 8 motion, before Your Honor leaves the bench.

9           THE COURT: All right. So just a couple of follow-up
10 things. Have you -- I'm not clear I heard what you said about 11 this agreement. Did you email it to my courtroom deputy or 12 did you file it on the docket?

13           MR. POMERANTZ: We emailed it to your courtroom
14 deputy. We're happy to file it on the docket. And we also 15 provided a copy to Mr. Sbaiti.

16           I would note for the Court that it's signed both by The 17 Charitable DAFs by Grant Scott, just for what it's worth.

18           THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well, I'm trying to 19 think what I want -- I do want you to file it on the docket,
20 and I'm trying to think of what you label it. Just call it
21 Post-Hearing Submission or something and link it to the motion
22 that we adjudicated here today. And then, again, you've got 23 10 days, Mr. Bridges, to say whatever you want to say about 24 that agreement.

25           I guess the last thing I wanted to say is we sure devoted

1 a lot of time to this motion today. We have -- this is a
2 recurring pattern, I guess you can say. We have a lot of 3 things that we devote a lot of time to in this case that I get
4 surprised, but it is what it is. You file a motion. I'm 5 going to give it all the attention Movants and Respondents
6 think it warrants. I'm going to develop a full record,
7 because, you know, there's a recurring pattern of appeals
8 right now, 11 or 12 appeals, I think, not to mention motions
9 to withdraw the reference. If we're going to have higher
10 courts involved in the administration of this case, I'm going 11 to make a very thorough record so nobody is confused about 12 what we did, what I considered, what my reasoning was.

13 So I kind of think it's unfortunate for us to have to 14 spend case resources and so much time and fees on things like 15 this, but I'm going to make sure a Court of Appeals is not 16 ever confused about what happened and what we did. So that's 17 just the way it's going to be. And I feel like we have no
18 choice, given, again, the pattern of appeals.

19 All right. So, with that, Mr. Pomerantz, you had one
20 other case matter, you said?

21 MR. POMERANTZ: Yes. But before I get to that, Your 22 Honor, I assume that, in response to the Movants' submission
23 on the agreement, that we would have right at four or seven 24 days to respond if we deem it's appropriate?

25 THE COURT: I think that's reasonable. That's

1 reasonable.

2 MR. POMERANTZ: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: So let me think of how I want to do this.
4 I'll just do a short scheduling order of sorts that just, it
5 says in one or two paragraphs, at the hearing on this motion,
6 the Court raised questions about the jury trial rights and the 7 Debtor has now submitted the controlling agreements, I'm 8 giving the Movants 10 days to respond to whether this is 9 indeed a controlling agreement, and why, if it is, the Movants
10 have heretofore taken the position they have jury trial
11 rights. And then I will give you seven days thereafter to 12 reply, and then the Court will set a further status conference
13 if it determines it's necessary. Okay?

14 So, Nate, we'll do a short little order to that effect.
15 Okay?

16 MR. POMERANTZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 I -- again, before I raise the other issue, I want to pick 18 up on a comment Your Honor just made towards the end. I know
19 the Court has been frustrated with the time and effort we've 20 been spending. The Debtor and the creditors have been 21 extremely frustrated, because in addition to the time and 22 effort everyone's spending, we're spending millions of 23 dollars, millions of dollars on litigation that --

24 THE COURT: It's one of the reasons you needed an 25 exit loan, right?

1 MR. POMERANTZ: Right. No, exactly. That's
2 frivolous, that we think is made in bad faith.

3 And Your Honor, and everyone else who's hearing this on 4 behalf of Mr. Dondero, should understand we're looking into 5 what appropriate authority Your Honor would have to shift some 6 of the costs. Your Honor did that in the contempt motion.
7 Your Honor can surely do that in connection with the notes
8 litigation. But all this other stuff that is requiring us to 9 spend hundreds and hundreds of hours and spend millions of 10 dollars, we are clearly looking into whether it would be 11 appropriate and what authority there is. I just wanted to let 12 Your Honor know that.

13 And in connection with that, the last point, Your Honor, I 14 can't actually even believe I'm saying this, but there was 15 another lawsuit filed -- we just found out in the break -- on 16 Wednesday night by the Sbaiti firm on behalf of Dugaboy in the 17 District Court.

18 Now, to make matters worse, Your Honor, the litigation
19 relates to alleged improper management by the Debtor of Multi-20 Strat. If Your Honor will recall, at many times I've told 21 this Court what Dugaboy's claims they filed in this case.
22 Dugaboy has a claim that is filed in this case for 23 mismanagement postpetition of Multi-Strat. Now the Sbaiti
24 firm, in addition to representing CLO Holdco, in addition to 25 representing the DAF, and whatever the Plaintiffs' lawyers are

1 in that other District Court, PCMG, and in connection with the 2 Acis matter, they've decided they haven't had enough. They've
3 now filed another motion that -- you know, why they filed it
4 in District Court and there's a proof of claim on the same
5 issues, I don't know. But I thought Your Honor should know.
6 I'm not asking Your Honor to do anything about it. But we 7 will act aggressively, strongly, and promptly.

8 Thank you, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. Well, you've reminded me of 10 what came out earlier today about the entity -- I left my 11 notepad in my chambers -- PMC or PMG or something.

12 Mr. Bridges, we're not going to have a hearing right now
13 on me doing anything, but what are you thinking? What are you 14 doing?

15 MR. BRIDGES: Your Honor, I'm not trying to duck your 16 question. I literally have no involvement with any other 17 claim, and we would have to ask Mr. Sbaiti to answer your 18 questions.

19 THE COURT: All right. Is he there?

20 MR. BRIDGES: He is.

21 THE COURT: I'll listen.

22 MR. BRIDGES: I'll switch seats and give him this 23 chair.

24 MR. SBAITI: Sorry, Your Honor. We had two computers
25 going and weren't able to use the sound on one, so we ended up

1 turning that off.

2 Your Honor, I'm not sure what the question is about when
3 you say what are we thinking. We have a client that's asked
4 us to file something, and when we're advised by bankruptcy
5 counsel that it's not prohibited for us to do so, and don't 6 know why we're precluded from doing so, and when the time
7 comes I'm sure we'll be able to explain to Your Honor --
8 someone will be able to explain to Your Honor why what we're 9 doing, despite Mr. Pomerantz's exacerbation, or excuse me,
10 exasperation, why that wasn't improper. It's our belief that 11 it wasn't improper or a violation of the Court's rule.

12 THE COURT: Just give me a quick shorthand Readers'
13 Digest of why you don't think it's improper.

14 MR. SBAITI: Sure. My understanding is, Your Honor, 15 there's not a rule that says we can't file it against the 16 Debtor for postpetition actions. So that, that's as -- that's 17 as much as I understand. And I'm going to -- I'm not trying 18 to duck it, either. And if I'm wrong about that and someone 19 wants to correct me on our side offline and if we have to 20 explain to the Court why that's so or what rule has been 21 violated, I'm sure we'll be able to put together something for 22 that. But that's what I've been advised.

23 THE COURT: Have you done thorough --

24 MR. POMERANTZ: Your Honor, I think what --

25 MR. SBAITI: (garbled), Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Have you done thorough research yourself?
2 Your Rule 11 signature is on the line, not some bankruptcy
3 counsel you talked to. Have you done the research yourself?

4 MR. SBAITI: Well, Your Honor, I've relied on the 5 research and advice of people who are experts, and I believe
6 my Rule 11 obligations also allow me to do that, so yes.

7 MR. POMERANTZ: Your Honor, I think we're entitled to 8 know if it's Mr. Draper's firm who has been representing 9 Dugaboy. He's the bankruptcy counsel. I don't think it's an 10 attorney-client privilege issue. If Mr. Sbaiti is going to be 11 here and sort of say, hey, bankruptcy counsel said it was 12 okay, I think we would like to know and I'm sure Your Honor
13 would like to know who is that bankruptcy counsel.

14 THE COURT: Yes. Fair enough. Mr. Sbaiti?

15 MR. SBAITI: Your Honor, in consultation with Mr.
16 Draper and with consultation with other counsel that we've 17 spoken to, that has been our understanding.

18 THE COURT: Who's the other counsel?

19 MR. SBAITI: Well, we've talked to Mr. Rukavina about 20 some of these things for the PCMG and the Acis case. We've 21 talked to the people who, when they tell us you can't do this 22 because they're bankruptcy counsel for our client, then we 23 don't do something. So, and I'm not trying to throw anybody
24 under the bus, but my understanding of what goes on in 25 Bankruptcy Court is incredibly limited, so, you know, and if

1 it's a mistake then I'll own it, if I have a mistaken
2 understanding, but I also wasn't anticipating having to make a
3 presentation about this right here right now, so --

4 THE COURT: Well, you're filing lawsuits that involve
5 this bankruptcy case during the hearing, so --

6 MR. SBAITI: Oh, we didn't file it during the 7 hearing, Your Honor. It was filed last night, I believe.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I assume that you're going 9 to go back and hit the books, hit the computer, and be 10 prepared to defend your actions, because your bankruptcy
11 experts, they may think they know a lot, but the judge is not 12 very happy about what she's hearing.

13 MR. POMERANTZ: Your Honor, if I may ask when Your 14 Honor intends to issue the contempt ruling in connection with 15 the June 8th hearing? I strongly believe -- and, obviously,
16 this has nothing to do with the contempt hearing; this 17 happened after -- but I strongly believe that sending a 18 message that Your Honor is inclined to hold counsel in 19 contempt, which obviously is one of the violators we said
20 should be held in contempt, it may be important to do that 21 sooner rather than later so that people know that Your Honor
22 is serious.

23 THE COURT: All right. Well, I understand and 24 respect that request. And let me tell you all, I had a seven-
25 day -- okay. You all were here on that motion June 8th. I

1 had a seven-day, all-day, every-day, 9:00 to 5:00, 45-minute
2 lunch break, in-person hearing with a dozen or so live
3 witnesses that I just finished Tuesday at 5:00 o'clock. So
4 you all were here on the 8th, and then -- what day was that --
5 what was -- Tuesday, I finished. Tuesday was the 22nd. So I
6 started on the 14th, okay? So you all were here on the 8th
7 and I had a live jury trial -- I mean, not jury trial, a live
8 bench trial -- live human beings in the courtroom, beginning
9 June 14th. So you're here the 8th. June 14th through 22nd, I
10 did my trial. And here we are on the 25th. And guess what, I
11 have another live human-being bench trial next week, Monday
12 through Friday.

13 So we've been working in other things like this in between 14 those two. So I'm telling you that not to whine, I'm just 15 telling you that, that's the only reason I didn't get out a 16 quick ruling on this, okay?

17 MR. POMERANTZ: And Your Honor, I was not at all
18 making that comment to imply anything about the Court.

19 THE COURT: Well, --

20 MR. POMERANTZ: The time and effort that you have 21 given to this case is extraordinary, --

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. POMERANTZ: -- so please don't misunderstand my 24 comment.

25 THE COURT: Okay. And I didn't mean to express

1 annoyance or anything like that. I guess what I'm trying to 2 do is I don't want anyone to mistake the delay in ruling on 3 the contempt motion to mean I'm just not that -- you know, I'm 4 not prioritizing it, other things are more serious to me or 5 important to me, or I'm going to take two months to get to it.
6 It's literally been I've been in trial almost all day long
7 every day since you were here. But trust me, I'm about as 8 upset as upset can be about what I heard on June 8th, and I'm 9 going to get to that ruling, and I know what I'm going to do.
10 And, well, like I said, it's just a matter of figuring out
11 dollars and whom, okay? There's going to be contempt. I just 12 haven't put it on paper because I've been in court all day and 13 I haven't come up with a dollar figure. Okay?

14 So I hope -- I don't know if that matters very much, but 15 it should.

16 All right. We stand adjourned.

DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO DISMISS COMPLAINT (26) Court's Ruling - Under Advisement	103

1 THE COURT: Good morning. Please be seated.

2 All right. We have a setting in the Charitable DAF
3 Fund, et al., v. Highland, Adversary 21-3067. We have three 4 motions that are set.

5 Let me get appearances from the Plaintiffs' counsel
6 first. Go ahead.

7 MR. SBAITI: Good morning, Your Honor. This is Mazin
8 Sbaiti for the Plaintiffs.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

10 Now for the Defendants, who do we have appearing?

11 MR. POMERANTZ: Good morning, Your Honor. It's Jeff
12 Pomerantz and John Morris from Pachulski Stang Ziehl & Jones.
13 Your Honor, before -- I understand Your Honor is going to take 14 up the motion to stay first.

15 Before Your Honor does so, I have a procedural issue
16 relating to that motion that I would like to address the Court
17 after appearances are made.

18 THE COURT: All right. I assume that's all the 19 lawyer appearances for this adversary.

20 MR. JORDAN: Your Honor?

21 THE COURT: Oh, go ahead.

22 MR. JORDAN: Your Honor, we are a nominal defendant,
23 but John Jordan on behalf of Highland CLO Funding, Ltd.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Sorry about that.

25 MR. BESSETTE: And, Your Honor, Paul Bessette, Mr.

1 Jordan's colleague is on the phone, as well.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

3 All right. Anyone else I missed?

4 (No audible response)

5 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Pomerantz, your 6 procedural issue?

7 MR. POMERANTZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 Your Honor, I must once again bring to this Court's 9 attention a violation of the Court Rules by the various counsel
10 representing Mr. Dondero. This time it's by Mr. Sbaiti.

11 When the district court entered its order granting 12 Highland's motion to enforce the reference and referring this 13 matter to Your Honor, there were three matters on the Court's 14 docket, district court's docket that got transferred. First 15 was the motion to dismiss, second was the motion to stay, and 16 third was the motion to strike, which essentially has been 17 rendered moot.

18 The briefing was complete with respect to the first 19 two matters, the motion to dismiss and the motion to stay. And 20 all that remained for the Court to do was to set a hearing and 21 have oral argument. Your Honor, on October 13th, Your Honor
22 set a hearing for today for each of those two motions.
23 Nevertheless, on November 10th, almost a month after the Court
24 set the matters for hearing and after pleadings were closed,
25 Plaintiffs filed what they called their amended motion to stay.

1           As an initial matter, Your Honor, the amended motion
2 was not even filed in this adversary proceeding initially. It
3 was filed in the main case, and there was an error that Mr.
4 Sbaiti corrected on November 18th, five days before this 5 hearing. Plaintiff did not ask for leave of court to file any 6 further pleadings. They did not provide the time under the 7 local rules for response. And, in fact, they raised additional 8 arguments in their amended motion.

9           Well, Your Honor, we can certainly argue to the Court
10 that the amended motion constitutes a new motion, is untimely,
11 and the hearing should be continued to allow us to file a 12 response. We're not going to do that, Your Honor. As I will 13 discuss when it's my time to respond substantively to the 14 motion, the new arguments to stay the proceedings, the amended 15 motion are equally as frivolous as the arguments contained in 16 the original motion.

17           But I bring this to the Court's attention because,
18 again, it's extremely frustrating to have the lawyers
19 representing Mr. Dondero's related entities continue to act as 20 if the rules do not apply to them. Your Honor will recall just 21 a week or so ago, Your Honor made a -- we had a similar issue
22 in connection with the motion to dismiss. Failure to follow
23 the rules is unprofessional, and it's disrespectful not only to 24 Highland's professionals but also to the Court and it
25 interferes with Your Honor's ability to control your docket and

1 sufficiently prepare for contested matters.

2 At some point, Your Honor, there should be real
3 consequences for the continued violation of the rules. Having 4 said that, Your Honor, we are prepared to go forward with the 5 motion to stay today.

6 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Sbaiti, what say you?
7 I'm looking at Docket Entry Number 69 in the adversary
8 proceeding that was filed last Thursday. So, obviously, very,
9 very late in the game, shall we say. What is your response to 10 this?

11 MR. SBAITI: Your Honor, that was not filed in the 12 adversary as an error. When we asked one of our paralegals to 13 file it, we're not as familiar with the bankruptcy court system
14 and it was an error. It was corrected once the lawyers
15 realized it, which was last -- which was on November the 18th.
16 It was filed in, I guess in the main case. But it was simply 17 an inadvertent error, Your Honor.

18 MR. POMERANTZ: I would add, Your Honor, the original
19 motion filed inadvertently was November 10th. It still was not 20 timely. I think Mr. Sbaiti needs to answer the question of why
21 that was filed untimely, okay.

22 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Sbaiti.

23 So, one of my pet peeves in life is people blaming
24 paralegals, by the way. But be that as it may, as Mr.
25 Pomerantz points out that it was still untimely the motion

1 filed in the underlying bankruptcy case November 10th. So what 2 is your --

3 MR. SBAITI: Your Honor, when we looked at the motion
4 and looked at the progression of the case, we filed an amended
5 motion simply to clarify our position. And really I don't 6 think we've changed our arguments all that much. We simply 7 clarified our position. We've seen amended motions filed in 8 the bankruptcy in our prior dealings, and so at that point, we 9 felt like there wasn't a rule explicitly saying we couldn't 10 have an amended motion.

11 But if it's untimely, Your Honor, you know, we don't 12 think it changes the underlying arguments. As Mr. Pomerantz
13 said, we don't think there's any prejudice to Highland either.

14 THE COURT: All right. Well, just to be clear, you
15 know, it's one thing in an underlying bankruptcy case to file
16 an amended motion after you've gotten a motion set for hearing
17 that might slightly adjust, you know, facts or relief sought.
18 And, of course, we independently look at it when it happens in 19 an underlying case to see do we need more notice to affected
20 parties.

21 But in an adversary proceeding, you know, you just 22 don't do this. All right? If you have some sort of 23 exceptional circumstances, you can file I guess a motion to 24 amend because I got to include this new information that didn't 25 exist. But you just don't do this, okay?

1           So I don't -- could you be clear what was the new
2 information? What was the new information that had to be
3 brought before the Court suddenly?

4           MR. SBAITI: Your Honor, there wasn't new
5 information. We were simply giving notice of our understanding
6 of where the legal arguments were going. The reason being is 7 that after those motions were filed and recently, the debtor
8 took the position in two other cases that they should be 9 dismissed pursuant to the permanent injunction.

10           And so that clarified for us at least a couple of 11 arguments that were unclear to us where the debtor stood on 12 whether or not the permanent injunction would be a basis to 13 dismiss or stay any of the claims that were pending. There are 14 two other claims pending in district court. Since we had filed
15 that motion, the debtor filed a motion to reconsider the stays
16 that were granted in those two courts. And then they also 17 moved to dismiss on the basis of the permanent injunction.

18           And so given that the debtor took the position that 19 they were willing to dismiss those cases based upon the 20 permanent injunction, it in many ways contravenes the position
21 they took in response to our motion which is that the -- for 22 example, they somewhat take the position in Paragraph 22, it
23 wasn't as clear then but it's clear -- it seems clearer now
24 that the permanent injunction is not relevant to whether or not 25 the case can go forward in any capacity.

1           And so we simply wanted to incorporate that, but it's 2 mainly legal argument about the choices that are before the 3 Court. That was really it. I mean, theoretically, I would 4 have made them for the first time during oral argument and we 5 thought we were doing something good by giving -- apprising the 6 Court in writing and giving notice of these arguments to the 7 other side by filing an amended motion. We didn't add new 8 evidence or anything like that.

9           MR. POMERANTZ: Your Honor, that argument is 10 completely disingenuous because our motion to dismiss and 11 motion for reconsideration that Mr. Sbaiti refers to is several 12 weeks ago, okay. It wasn't November 10th. It was several 13 weeks ago.

14           I will respond substantively why Mr. Sbaiti is wrong
15 and there's no inconsistent positions when it's my time to 16 speak. But for Mr. Sbaiti to say he was doing us a favor and 17 he was reacting to recent new information is just wrong, Your 18 Honor. And they should just not be continued to allowed to get 19 away with flouting the rules.

20           THE COURT: All right. Well, let me just say I'm 21 confused, maybe I should say baffled, about this amended
22 motion. You know, the motion to dismiss that is before the 23 Court for oral argument today isn't about the injunction, isn't 24 about the plan injunction. It's about res judicata and other
25 12(b)(6) arguments.

1           So I'm confused and I think, you know, it's been 2 clear for many months in this adversary proceeding, in 3 particular, the debtor's position on the plan injunction,
4 particularly, you know, in the whole argument on the motion to 5 leave to add Mr. Seery as a defendant.

6           So I'm confused, but we're going to go forward on the 7 argument today, whatever argument you want to make. And you've 8 been, I guess, forewarned. I will say that these last-minute 9 amended motions are not going to be tolerated, are not going to 10 be considered. And so, you know, I hope you won't do it again.
11 Your firm has already been sanctioned once in this adversary
12 proceeding. I'm sure we all remember.

13           So, you know, I'm just kind of baffled why you would 14 take a chance filing an amended motion without leave or somehow 15 getting it to the attention of the Court or running it by the 16 other parties for their consent to you doing it. But we're 17 going to go forward and just hear the arguments, okay. And so 18 --

19           MR. SBAITI: Thank you.

20           THE COURT: -- I'll hear your argument.

21           I'm letting people know I don't know where this time
22 estimate came on the calendar today, three hours. I don't know
23 if someone specifically expressed that. But I'm letting you
24 know at noon I have a swearing-in ceremony that I'm doing back
25 in my chambers. So I will stop at noon Central time.

1           And so does anyone think that's going to be a
2 problem?

3           MR. SBAITI: It should not be, Your Honor, from our 4 perspective.

5           THE COURT: Mr. Pomerantz?

6           MR. POMERANTZ: I don't believe so. Mr. Morris is 7 going to handle the motion to dismiss which is going to be the 8 bulk. My presentation on the motion to stay is only going to 9 be around ten minutes or so.

10          THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

11          Mr. Sbaiti, your argument on the motion for stay.

12          MR. SBAITI: Thank you, Your Honor.

13          Your Honor, may I share my screen?

14          THE COURT: You may.

15          MR. SBAITI: I have a PowerPoint that can kind of --

16          THE COURT: Okay. You may.

17          MR. SBAITI: -- walk us through. Thank you.

18          Is Your Honor able to see my screen?

19          THE COURT: I can, yes.

20          MR. SBAITI: Thank you, Your Honor.

21          Your Honor, what I would point you to is, first, the 22 injunction language. This is what Your Honor's permanent 23 injunction says, and this is really what animates our motion to 24 stay. Our motion to stay is derived specifically because my 25 clients and I feel like our case has been enjoined by this

1 injunction, if not completely disposed of.

2 The language says that we're enjoined:

3 "An enjoined party is permanently enjoined from 4 commencing, conducting, or continuing in any manner
5 any suit, action, or other proceeding of any kind
6 including any proceeding in a judicial, arbitral,
7 administrative, or other forum against or affecting 8 the debtor or the property of the debtor."

9 And then (v) of that injunction says:

10 "or acting or proceeding in any manner in any place
11 whatsoever that does not conform to or comply with 12 the provisions of the plan."

13 One of the things that was suggested in Paragraph 22
14 of their response was that the DAF and Holdco are not enjoined
15 parties. But the final plan defines an enjoined party in 16 Article 1(b) (56) as any entity who has or -- all entities who 17 have held, hold, or may hold claims against the debtor; any 18 entity that has appeared and/or filed any motion, objection, or 19 other pleading in this Chapter 11 case regardless of the 20 capacity in which such entity appeared and any other party in 21 interest. And, five, the related persons of each of the 22 foregoing.

23 Article 1(b) (22) defines a claim as any claim that's 24 defined in Section 1015 of the Bankruptcy Code. And Section 25 1015 of the Bankruptcy Code defines a claim as a right to

1 payment whether or not such right is reduced to judgment,
2 liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured,
3 unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured, or 4 unsecured.

5           So given this definition, when we've read this
6 injunction, we believed that we were enjoined parties, the DAF
7 and Holdco were both enjoined parties. They had appeared in 8 the -- they have claims. Obviously, those are the claims being 9 asserted here.

10           And so going back to the injunction language, we 11 believe this lawsuit has been disposed of by this permanent 12 injunction. We believe there's really only one or two things
13 that should probably happen with this lawsuit. Either it could 14 be dismissed based upon the permanent injunction or what we 15 proposed in our motion to stay is that the Court exercise its 16 inherent authority to simply stay the case pending the appeal
17 of this language, which is up on appeal in the Fifth Circuit
18 right now.

19           If that language, and if the injunction gets affirmed
20 by the Fifth Circuit, then certainly the dismissal can happen
21 once that affirmance happens and there's no harm, no foul, and 22 no one's wasted any time.

23           If they're not, if it's overturned, then, obviously,
24 the injunction would be vacated, presumably by the Fifth
25 Circuit. And at some point, if the Court decides not to enter

1 a similar injunction that would likewise dispose of this case,
2 then the case could proceed on the merits.

3           The issue we've identified both in our original
4 motion and as we fleshed out in our -- as a matter of law in 5 our amended motion to simply put a finer point on it is that 6 the merits are now -- have been disposed of. This injunction
7 ends this case, at least as far as we read it. It ends this 8 case irrespective of the underlying merits of the lawsuit,
9 which means that the lawsuit merits themselves have become moot
10 and any opinion or any attempt to resolve it is obviously an 11 advisory opinion by the Court.

12           So we really only see two ways that this could go
13 right now without either gutting the injunction or 14 circumventing it completely, which is to say that either the 15 case should be dismissed based upon the permanent injunction or 16 the case should be stayed based upon the permanent injunction.

17           Mr. Pomerantz or the debtors' brief suggests that,
18 well, the injunction doesn't prevent hearing pending motions.
19 But I would respectfully disagree with that. If you look at 20 the language, "commencing, conducting, or continuing in any 21 manner in any suit, action, or other proceeding against or 22 affecting the debtor."

23           As 12(b)(6) hearing, I would imagine, was intended to 24 fall under the umbrella of a proceeding. And us arguing a 25 12(b)(6) motion would us be conducting and maybe even

1 continuing the suit because we're trying to protect the merits
2 of the suit, which as I said are at this juncture already moot.

3           And so it comes down to I think a very simple
4 question, which is what do we do at this juncture. Do we just 5 simply dismiss the lawsuit in light of this permanent
6 injunction or stay the lawsuit in light of this permanent
7 injunction?

8           The debtor makes a lot of hay out of the fact that,
9 well, there are special rules that apply when you're trying to 10 stay a case pending appeal. But if you look at all of their 11 case law, it has to do with different circumstances where an 12 appeal -- where there's a matter on appeal that could 13 substantially affect the resolution of the case, which here we 14 think it actually could. But in those cases, those appeals 15 would affect the resolution of the case on the merits; whereas,
16 here, the question goes to whether or not a permanent
17 injunction that really has stopped us all in our tracks.

18           As soon as we understood this injunction and its 19 scope, we're the ones who reached out to the debtor's counsel
20 and asked them on a meet-and-confer whether or not they would 21 just agree to stay the matter. And we were a little bit 22 surprised by their reaction when they first didn't think that 23 this applied to our case, and we didn't understand how. And 24 then they changed their mind, said it did apply to our case but 25 they didn't think that we should stay the case. And they

1 didn't suggest let's just dismiss it based upon the permanent
2 injunction.

3           So it kind of comes down to the same small -- same
4 simple issue, Your Honor. There's this permanent injunction,
5 and I don't think there's any way for us to get around it at 6 this juncture.

7           THE COURT: Mr. Pomerantz:

8           MR. POMERANTZ: Yes, Your Honor.

9           I'm going to respond to several of the arguments Mr.
10 Sbaiti made in his motion, which apparently he's abandoned
11 because he only is focused on the injunction. And I'm also 12 going to tell Your Honor, what our arguments are because 13 despite Mr. Sbaiti's efforts, he's completely misquoted them.

14           So in the motion and the amended motion, the 15 Plaintiffs make several arguments why this Court should stay
16 the matter. First, they argue they're entitled to a stay
17 because the exculpation provision in the plan prohibits them
18 from proceeding against the Defendants in the action. And 19 there are several problems with that argument.

20           First, Mr. Sbaiti and the Plaintiffs don't even 21 attempt to meet the Fifth Circuit's standards for a stay
22 pending appeal because, of course, they can't. Mr. Sbaiti's
23 trying to sidestep the grounds for a stay pending appeal by 24 arguing it doesn't apply just is incorrect.

25           They would have to show that there is a likelihood of 1 success on the merits, they would suffer irreparable harm, the 2 debtor wouldn't suffer irreparable harm, and there is -- public

3 interest supports a stay. They can't do any of them.

4 In fact, as Your Honor is well aware, Your Honor
5 denied the actual appellants in that suit, in that order, the 6 confirmation order, a stay pending appeal and that was denied
7 by the district court and also denied by the Fifth Circuit
8 Court of Appeals.

9 The Plaintiffs didn't object to the plan, they are 10 not parties to the appeal, and they never sought a stay pending
11 appeal. So they really can't explain why they as really 12 strangers to the appeal are entitled to a stay of the 13 effectiveness of the plan when the actual appellants to that 14 order were denied a stay pending appeal up through the 15 appellate ladder.

16 Second, notwithstanding Mr. Sbaiti's arguments in the 17 motion, the exculpation provision is neither as broad nor does 18 it affect all the parties that are subject to this litigation.
19 There are three Defendants in the complaint. The only 20 Defendant that is covered by the exculpation provision is the 21 debtor. The exculpation provision does not apply HCF Advisors,
22 and it does not apply to Highland CLO Funding.

23 Also, while the exculpation provision does apply to 24 the debtor, it only exculpates the debtor from claims of 25 negligence. The complaint raises a variety of causes of action

1 that have nothing to do with negligence and would not be
2 covered by the exculpation provision.

3           But, Your Honor, the biggest problem with their 4 argument that the exculpation provision supports a stay is that 5 the exculpation -- the appeal of the exculpation provision has 6 nothing to do with this case. Why? Because the Fifth Circuit
7 appeal concerns whether the exculpation provision is 8 appropriate for parties other than the debtor. The debtor is 9 the only Defendant in this case that obtains the benefit of the 10 exculpation.

11           And there is no dispute, there was no dispute at 12 confirmation, there's no dispute in the case law, there's no
13 dispute in Pacific Lumber, there's no dispute in the appeal
14 that a plan can exculpate the debtor. So the Fifth Circuit
15 appeal doesn't implicate the exculpation provision and cannot 16 support a basis for a stay.

17           The next argument Mr. Sbaiti makes is the injunction 18 provision, and the injunction provision is on appeal to the 19 Fifth Circuit. But the aspect of the appeal of the injunction 20 is not the provision that Mr. Sbaiti points to.

21           And, again, as with the exculpation provision, the 22 same arguments about failure to obtain a stay, failure to be 23 party to the appeals, and failure to object to the plan apply,
24 as well. But as is the case with the exculpation provision,
25 the resolution of the appeal of the injunction provision will

1 not affect this case in any way.

2           They point to the portion of the injunction that
3 prohibits enjoined parties from directly or indirectly
4 continuing, commencing, or conducting in any manner any suit or 5 action proceeding against the debtor. They argue that they 6 cannot proceed without violating the injunction because the 7 injunction was intended to put all litigation against the 8 debtor to an end.

9           But, of course, Your Honor, that is not true. That 10 is not what the injunction is. The issue on appeal before the 11 Fifth Circuit as it relates to the injunction is whether the 12 injunction impermissibly enjoins parties from enforcing their 13 rights with respect to post-effective date commercial 14 relationships with the reorganized debtor. And, of course, we 15 argue that it's appropriate, but it has nothing to do with the 16 provision Mr. Sbaiti identified.

17           The appeal does not impact in any way whether a plan
18 can enjoin prosecution of claims that arose prior to the 19 effective date. And, of course, such a plan provision is 20 completely appropriate and is customary. The plan provided the 21 debtor as the plan provides all debtors with a fresh start and 22 enjoins litigation against the debtor.

23           But importantly, Your Honor, that does not mean as 24 Plaintiffs argue that any liability for pre-effective date
25 conduct just goes away and that creditors are left without a

1 remedy to pursue claims against the debtor for pre-effective
2 date conduct.

3           Rather, if they have a pre-petition claim in lieu of 4 their litigation that's pending, they file a pre-petition claim
5 against the estate and that matter is resolved in the claims
6 objection procedure. Or, as in the case here, when they make 7 an allegation that there is a post-petition claim, what do they 8 do? They file a request for payment of an administrative 9 claim, and this Court addresses the validity of the 10 administration claim. The lawsuit pending in another 11 jurisdiction stops, but the claim has to be resolved in the 12 bankruptcy court.

13           The only conduct that the injunction really prohibits 14 is them from proceeding with actions in other courts. It does 15 not deny them a remedy. Accordingly, their argument that they 16 cannot proceed with claims against the debtor because of the 17 injunction provision just lacks any merit and can't form the 18 basis for a stay.

19           Plaintiffs' next argument in their briefing is that 20 if the Court refuses to stay the complaint, they will file a 21 motion to withdraw the reference of this matter to the district
22 court. Your Honor, this is the biggest head-scratcher of them
23 all given how this complaint ended up before Your Honor. This 24 exact issue and Plaintiffs' arguments as to why the reference
25 should be withdrawn have already been fully briefed and decided

1 by the district court.

2 As Your Honor may recall, the Plaintiff filed this
3 action in the district court, conveniently failing to include
4 the bankruptcy case as a related case or mentioning that the 5 bankruptcy courts have related jurisdiction in the filings.
6 Your Honor may have had occasion to review the underlying 7 complaint when the debtor brought a motion for contempt against 8 counsel for Plaintiffs for pursuing a claim against Mr. Seery
9 in violation of Your Honor's January 9th, 2020 and July 16th,
10 2020 orders.

11 Your Honor issued an order finding counsel and 12 various parties in contempt which order is, of course, subject
13 to appeal. At the time we were litigating the contempt motion,
14 we filed two motions in district court. The first was a motion
15 to enforce the reference and have the district court send that 16 complaint to Your Honor. And that motion to enforce the 17 reference is now on Your Honor's docket at Number 22 and 23.

18 The second was the motion to dismiss which is before 19 Your Honor today. Plaintiffs oppose the motion to enforce the 20 reference arguing that mandatory withdrawal was required
21 because the matter involved consideration of non-bankruptcy
22 federal law, specifically federal securities laws and the 23 Investment Advisors' Act.

24 Plaintiffs further argue to the district court why
25 would you refer the case to the bankruptcy court if it's only

1 going to end up back in the district court upon mandatory
2 withdrawal of the reference. They argue to the district court
3 that would be a complete waste of time.

4           We filed our reply at Docket Number 42 explaining to 5 the district court why mandatory withdrawal of the reference
6 did not apply and why this case should be referred to Your 7 Honor. And what did the district court subsequently do? It
8 entered an order referring this action to Your Honor which is 9 why we are here today.

10           Plaintiffs now flout the district court's order of 11 reference by telling the Court that if the Court does not stay
12 the matter, they will file a motion to withdraw the reference
13 before Your Honor, and they attach virtually identical pleading 14 that they filed in opposition to our motion to enforce the 15 reference.

16           Plaintiffs did not disclose in their amended motion
17 that there was a fully-briefed motion to enforce the reference
18 before the district court. Plaintiffs' argument is 19 disingenuous and designed to mislead the Court.

20           The district court has only agreed that mandatory
21 withdrawal of the reference does not apply and this case
22 belongs in Your Honor. And while we cannot stop the Plaintiffs
23 from filing any motion before this Court, we want to put them
24 on notice that if they do file a motion for withdrawal of the 25 reference in light of the facts as I just stated them, we will

1 seek sanctions.

2 In any event, Your Honor, the fact that they may file
3 a motion for withdrawal of the reference at some point in the 4 future is not grounds to stay the matter.

5 Lastly, Your Honor, Plaintiffs argued in the opening
6 that Highland's position today in opposing the motion to stay
7 is inconsistent with positions Highland has taken in two other
8 lawsuits commenced by the Sbaiti firm. Like all of their other
9 arguments, they misrepresent the facts and are frivolous.

10 The Sbaiti firm filed a complaint on behalf of the 11 DAF in the district court arguing that Highland mismanaged
12 (audio drop). That complaint followed in the heels of an 13 almost identical complaint filed by Dugaboy asserting the same
14 claims.

15 And Your Honor may recall questioning Mr. Sbaiti at a 16 hearing in June how Dugaboy could pursue such a claim in the 17 district court if Dugaboy had a pending proof of administrative 18 claim on file in the bankruptcy case. Well, soon after that 19 hearing, Your Honor, the Dugaboy complaint was dismissed, and a 20 few days later the DAF complaint was filed. That complaint has 21 never been served on Highland.

22 The second lawsuit is also a lawsuit filed by the 23 Sbaiti firm on behalf of an entity called PCMG in the district
24 court. And PCMG previously held less than five one-hundredths
25 of a percent interest in a certain fund managed by highland.

1 The lawsuit alleges that Highland acted improperly to sell
2 certain assets of the fund, thereby damaging PCMG. That 3 complaint has also never been served on Highland.

4 The Plaintiffs sought a stay of those matters before
5 Highland could file a response, and the court -- the district
6 court's entered stays in those matters. And Highland has filed 7 motions for reconsideration and the motions to dismiss because 8 they violate the injunction.

9 But, importantly, Your Honor, if you read the 10 motions, Highland does not argue that Plaintiffs do not have a 11 remedy for the alleged wrongs they say they suffer. Rather,
12 Highland's argument is that any claims alleged in those 13 lawsuits, just like any claims alleged in the lawsuit before 14 Your Honor today, must proceed in bankruptcy court as part of 15 the claims objection process. That's where they will have 16 their day in court. The lawsuits don't go away. The 17 injunction prevents them from continuing on in district court.

18 Accordingly, Highland is being totally consistent in 19 all matters, and the litigations may not proceed there but must 20 proceed before Your Honor. And, of course, none of these three 21 matters are implicated by the Fifth Circuit appeal.

22 Your Honor, the amended motion was procedurally
23 improper and is substantively without merit. And for all these 24 reasons, we request that the Court deny the stay motion and 25 proceed with the hearing on the motion to dismiss.

1 Thank you, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right.

3 Mr. Sbaiti, you get the last word.

4 MR. SBAITI: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 Your Honor, the administrative claim process that was 6 described as being the way that these claims were supposed to 7 proceed, by the language of the order that we read, does not
8 allow for these claims. Those claims are limited to a specific 9 category of claims that don't include the claims that are 10 alleged in this lawsuit.

11 And in any event, this lawsuit wasn't filed as an 12 administrative claim. So if that's the case and it needs to be 13 refiled or reasserted as an administrative claim, then I think 14 that's a subject for another day. All I know is that we have 15 this injunction right now that either should stay this case
16 pending the appeal, which I'll address the issue on appeal in a 17 moment, or it should be dismissed, perhaps without prejudice so 18 that it can be refiled properly as an administrative claim if 19 that's what's supposed to happen, because I guess this converts
20 the matter.

21 The appeal, the subject of the appeal as to the 22 injunction, Your Honor, the appeal actually encompasses many of 23 the issues that we're talking about in this case. Now Mr.
24 Pomerantz tries to narrow the scope of what's up on appeal, and 25 that may indeed be the argument that they're going to present

1 to the Fifth Circuit or that they've presented to the Fifth
2 Circuit.

3 But the actual issue up on appeal is the 4 enforceability and validity of the order for a variety of 5 reasons which includes the provision that we're talking about 6 and the enforceability of the provision that we're talking
7 about because it gets rid of particular claims. And I guess
8 the argument back is, no, it doesn't because there's now an 9 alternative means of going there.

10 Mr. Pomerantz says that we shouldn't have proffered a 11 motion to enforce the reference. That proffer, however, was 12 because Judge Boyle's reference to this Court didn't deal with 13 our motion to -- our cross-motion to withdraw the reference.
14 All it dealt with was their motion to enforce the reference as 15 a -- to enforce the standing order in the district court. And 16 that's all she ordered was she cited the standing order and the 17 statutes, I think it's 157(a), and that's really all it did.

18 So it left open the question of whether she wanted
19 Your Honor to deal with the withdrawal of the reference 20 specifically as to the 12(b)(6) issue in the first instance.
21 It didn't resolve the question. It doesn't purport to resolve
22 that question. And it's not unheard of for the district court
23 then to send the matter to the bankruptcy court and then to 24 piecemeal which proceedings the withdrawal of the reference is 25 applicable to and then all the other proceedings would stay

1 with Your Honor or with the bankruptcy court.

2           So we weren't flouting the district court's order,
3 and we certainly weren't flouting any of the previous orders.
4 And the threat of a sanction for simply exercising our rights
5 in due course is not well taken.

6           Now Mr. Pomerantz says, well, the DAF and CLO Holdco
7 are not parties to the appeal. I don't think that's relevant
8 because if the provision is struck by the Fifth Circuit, it's 9 not only struck for the appellants, it's struck as to all.
10 It's either valid or it's invalid. And even if it's declared
11 to be invalid only as to the appellants, it's not suddenly
12 valid as to everyone else who didn't appeal. That's not 13 generally how these appeals have worked.

14           If the Court doesn't stay this matter, Your Honor,
15 and doesn't dismiss it, we still maintain, Your Honor, that as 16 it stands today, the question on the merits have been mooted
17 and we cannot proceed. I think what Mr. Pomerantz is hoping 18 for or the debtor is hoping for is a provision where our hands
19 are potentially tied to argue the motion.

20           And if the Court tells us they're not, then we'll 21 certainly argue the 12(b)(6). But what I don't want to do is 22 argue a 12(b)(6) motion that on its face appears to violate the 23 permanent injunction and then be held in contempt for violating 24 that injunction.

25           And so that's why we've asked for the Court to either

1 stay the matter under its inherent jurisdiction or to -- if 2 you're going to -- if it's not going to be stayed, then we 3 believe it has to be dismissed according to the permanent
4 injunction as it stands right now.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 The motion to stay is denied. The amended motion to 7 stay is likewise denied. This is an odd argument. I guess one
8 might say the traditional four-factor test for a stay of a 9 proceeding has really not been the subject of the argument here
10 for a stay.

11 So suffice it to say the four-prong test for a stay,
12 you know, hasn't been met here. There hasn't been a showing of 13 substantial likelihood of success on the merits or irreparable
14 injury if the stay's not granted or a stay will not 15 substantially harm others or the stay would serve a public
16 interest.

17 But going on to the arguments that were focused on by 18 movant, I just don't think that you have shown that, you know,
19 either the exculpation clause or the injunction provisions of 20 the plan somehow tie your hands in arguing the 12(b)(6) motion,
21 defending against the 12(b)(6) motion today or I just think 22 that your arguments reflect, frankly, a misunderstanding of how 23 the injunction language and exculpation language applies here.

24 So the motion for stay is denied, and I will ask Mr.
25 Pomerantz to submit an order reflecting the Court's ruling.

1           So it looks like we have another procedural matter,
2 Mr. Sbaiti. You filed a motion to strike reply appendix of the 3 Plaintiffs quite a while back. So did you want to present
4 that?

5           MR. SBAITI: Yes, Your Honor. I think it's a very 6 simple procedural issue.

7           Generally, a party that files a 12(b)(6) is limited
8 to the four corners of the complaint. And if there's a 9 contract incorporated or a document incorporated as an 10 intrinsic part of the complaint, you know, that's usually 11 considered under the 12(b)(6) motion.

12           What the Defendants did, what the debtor here did is 13 they filed a bunch of evidence in their 12(b)(6), essentially 14 attempting to argue it as a summary judgment. We raised that 15 in our response. So as part of our response, we objected to 16 all the evidence. But then on the reply, they filed a bunch
17 more evidence both without leave and improperly, basically
18 sandbagged us.

19           And so we raised two points for striking that 20 evidence. One was akin to the first argument, which is it's 21 not an evidentiary hearing. It's not an evidentiary process in 22 the first instance. A 12(b)(6) motion has to assume that the 23 facts pled are true, and then the question is whether they 24 state a claim.

25           And, secondly, adding them to the reply is especially

1 egregious because the reply is the last word. And we didn't
2 have an opportunity to respond, and we also don't think it's 3 relevant nor should we have to respond to a whole bunch of 4 extra evidence that was attached.

5 That's essentially the basis of our motion, Your 6 Honor.

7 MR. POMERANTZ: Your Honor, the simple answer to the 8 issue is we filed the reply of the appendix in connection with 9 the motion to enforce the reference. We didn't file it in 10 connection with the motion to dismiss. The motion to enforce 11 the reference is moot. So what Mr. Sbaiti, his whole argument
12 doesn't make any sense.

13 As a substantive matter, just there wasn't any 14 evidence. It was pointing to court pleadings, orders, and 15 stuff. So it's irrelevant. I don't know why it's still on the 16 docket. It shouldn't be on the docket since it related to the 17 motion to enforce the reference.

18 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Sbaiti, did you just 19 simply --

20 MR. SBAITI: Your Honor, much of that evidence was --

21 THE COURT: -- misunderstand or what?

22 MR. SBAITI: I think we might have because it was 23 filed as a separate item, and it may have been miscalendared or 24 misapplied on our system. But the way it was presented to us 25 when we got it was it appeared to be evidence in support of,

1 well, I guess both, but certainly evidence that was averted to 2 in the reply.

3 But if they're saying that the Court's not going to 4 consider it, then that moots the motion and I think we can move
5 on.

6 MR. POMERANTZ: Yes, Your Honor. I had nothing to do
7 with his motion. I guess there was another mistake on their 8 end. I guess that stuff happens occasionally.

9 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So I'll deny it as 10 based on a mistake that's been acknowledged here. And so with 11 that, let's have an order cleaning that up, as well, Mr.
12 Pomerantz, please.

13 With that, we'll move on to the Defendants' motion to 14 dismiss complaint. I think, Mr. Pomerantz, you said Mr. Morris
15 will be making this argument?

16 MR. POMERANTZ: That is correct, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 Mr. Morris, I'll hear your argument.

19 MR. MORRIS: Good morning, Your Honor. John Morris
20 for Pachulski Stang Ziehl & Jones for the reorganized debtor.
21 Can you hear me okay?

22 THE COURT: I can. Thank you.

23 MR. MORRIS: Okay.

24 Your Honor, this is a bit like Groundhog's Day. I
25 believe that we're going to spend the next half hour or an hour

1 discussing the very issues that were before the Court earlier
2 this year on the HarbourVest 9019 motion.

3           As the Court will recall from the June 8 hearing,
4 there is a complaint that's been filed ostensibly by the DAF
5 and CLO Holdco. As Your Honor will recall, the testimony
6 established that Mark Patrick had just been installed as the 7 trustee, had no knowledge of the prior events, and Mr. Dondero
8 and Mr. Sbaiti spent quite some time together formulating this 9 particular complaint that is nothing less than a collateral
10 attack on the Court's prior order.

11           I'd like to, if I can, just walk through a PowerPoint 12 presentation to try to make the debtor's position quite clear,
13 if I may.

14           THE COURT: You may.

15           MR. MORRIS: And I would ask my assistant, Ms. Canty
16 (phonetic), to put up the first slide.

17           Your Honor, you'll recall that last December, the 18 debtor filed its motion under Rule 9019 for court approval of a 19 settlement. The debtor was completely and utterly transparent
20 in what the terms of the settlement were.

21           Very briefly, as set forth in Appendix 2 or Exhibit 2
22 which was the motion itself, in Paragraph 32, Your Honor, the 23 debtor set forth the terms of the transaction for which it was 24 seeking approval. Those terms included in the very first 25 bullet point a statement that HarbourVest shall transfer its

1 entire interest in CLOF to an entity to be designated by the 2 debtor.

3           And that's an important point that we'll talk about
4 in a number of different contexts, Your Honor. The debtor made
5 it very clear at the very first moment of this matter that it
6 was not going to acquire the asset but the asset was going to 7 be transferred to an entity to be designated by the debtor.
8 The debtor's motion filed last December clearly stated the 9 value of the interest that it would be acquiring in return.
10 That was also set forth in Paragraph 32 in a footnote.

11           It didn't say that it was the fair market value. It
12 said the method of valuation was the net asset value and gave a 13 valuation date of December 1st so that all parties in interest
14 who received the motion understood the economics of the deal.
15 And the deal that the debtor was asking the Court to approve 16 was one whereby HarbourVest would receive certain claims and in 17 exchange for those claims, they were going to transfer their 18 interest in CLO -- HCLOF.

19           The debtor also filed on the docket for all to see a 20 copy of the settlement agreement. The settlement agreement
21 sets forth the terms of the deal, including again the statement 22 that HarbourVest "will transfer all of its rights, title, and 23 interest in HCLOF." It actually says to an affiliate or an 24 entity to be designated by the debtor. And the transfer
25 agreement itself was also put on the docket.

1           So that's where things stood just before Christmas.
2 I know that there's some due process and other type arguments
3 that are in the Plaintiffs' opposition to the motion. But, of 4 course, the undisputed facts are that the debtor timely filed
5 the motion. The time period was consistent with all applicable
6 rules. Nobody ever asked the debtor for an extension of time.
7 Nobody ever filed a motion for an extension of time. And so
8 those due process arguments I think carry no weight at all.

9           So the debtor filed the motion. And if we can go to 10 the next slide, we see what the responses were, and there were 11 several. All of the responses, the only responses were 12 objections to the motion filed by Mr. Dondero and his certain 13 of his affiliated entities.

14           Mr. Dondero's objection can be summarized as follows.
15 He made the following observations and asserted the following
16 objections to the proposed settlement. The first thing he said
17 is that the settlement far exceeds the bounds of 18 reasonableness. Now, of course, one cannot make a 19 determination of reasonableness without having an understanding 20 of value. The debtor was giving something and it was getting 21 something.

22           And so Mr. Dondero understood that the issue of value
23 was front and center. If there was any mistake about it, he 24 also noted that he understood that as part of the settlement
25 and, again, I've written this incorrectly, HarbourVest will

1 transfer its entire interest in HCLOF to the debtor. That is 2 not what Mr. Dondero understood. In fact, Mr. Dondero
3 understood that it would transfer its entire interest in HCLOF
4 "to an entity to be designated by the debtor," again, making it
5 clear that he knew exactly what the debtor was doing here. And 6 that can be found at Appendix 4 in Footnote 3 on Page 1 if you
7 want the exact quote from Mr. Dondero's pleading.

8           In the same footnote, he also specifically
9 acknowledges that he understood the valuation. He understood
10 the method valuation. He understood the valuation date of 11 December 1st. And he urged the Court in his pleading to 12 scrutinize the settlement to make clear that the available
13 value of the investment should be realized by the debtor's
14 estate.

15           And this is such a critical point, Your Honor. His 16 concern was that by placing the value in an entity other than 17 the debtor itself, that the Court wouldn't have jurisdiction
18 over that asset. That was his concern. So not only did he 19 understand that the asset was going to be transferred to an 20 affiliate, he wanted to make sure that this Court had 21 jurisdiction over the asset.

22           And, of course, Mr. Seery in his testimony and 23 otherwise, we provided the Court with all the comfort it needed
24 to know that even though it was being assigned to a special-25 purpose vehicle wholly-owned by the debtor, it would

1 nevertheless be subject to the Court's jurisdiction.

2           Mr. Dondero's trusts also filed an objection if we
3 can go to the next slide.

4           Dugaboy and Get Good represented by Douglas Draper
5 made the following observations and asserted the following
6 objections to the HarbourVest Settlement. They, too, made
7 clear that they understood that the asset was going to be 8 transferred to an entity designated by the debtor. They, too,
9 acknowledge that they understood that the debtor was valuing
10 the asset at approximately $22 million as of December 1st. And 11 their objection was that the Court couldn't evaluate the 12 settlement without knowing how the asset was valued, without 13 knowing whether the debtor could acquire the asset, very 14 critical point.

15           These are the points that are made in the complaint.
16 These are the exact same points that are made in the complaint.
17 And also the Court couldn't evaluate the settlement unless they 18 understood that the value would be inure to the benefit of the 19 debtor's estate, again, mimicking Mr. Dondero's concern that by 20 placing the asset in an affiliate of the debtor, that it might 21 not be subject to the Court's jurisdiction.

22           Finally, and most importantly, if we can go to the 23 next slide. The Plaintiff, CLO Holdco, filed an objection to 24 the 9019 motion. And this is just so critical. And this is 25 the Groundhog Day aspect that I specifically speak of. CLO

1 Holdco's objection was based solely on its assertion that it
2 had a superior right to the opportunity to acquire the asset
3 that was being transferred by HarbourVest. It only made one
4 argument in support of its contention that it had a superior
5 right, but that argument was specifically premised on the 6 membership agreement, Section 6.1 and 6.2 of the membership
7 agreement.

8 CLO Holdco, the Plaintiff in the underlying action,
9 argued to this Court that HarbourVest had no authority to 10 transfer the asset without complying with the right of first 11 refusal that would give CLO Holdco the opportunity to take the 12 asset for itself. That's what this Court was told. CLO Holdco
13 didn't make this argument fleetingly. They provided an 14 extraordinarily detailed analysis of Sections 6.1 and 6.2 of 15 the membership agreement and concluded "that HarbourVest must 16 effectuate the right of first refusal before it can transfer
17 its interest in HCLOF. That was the objection. Objections
18 have consequences, as Your Honor knows.

19 If we can go to the next slide.

20 By filing an objection, CLO Holdco and the trusts and 21 Mr. Dondero became participants in the litigation.
22 Notwithstanding the Plaintiffs' arguments to the contrary, when 23 they file the objections, they participate in what's called a 24 contested matter. And in a contested matter, they had every 25 right to take all discovery on any issue that was related to

1 the 9019 motion, including the transfer, the disposition of the 2 asset to an affiliate of the debtor, the valuation of the asset
3 that's being received, the merits of the settlement itself, the 4 causes of action, whether, you know, what communications that
5 were, the negotiations, what did Mr. Seery and Mr. Pugatch
6 discuss? Right?

7           They could have taken any discovery they wanted. And 8 they did avail themselves of discovery, in fact. They did -- I
9 don't know why they did what they did, but they chose to take 10 one deposition, and that was Mr. Pugatch, okay.

11           His deposition transcript, I think is at Exhibit 7, 12 or Appendix Number 7, and it was a long deposition. It really 13 was. And they asked Mr. Pugatch at the deposition if he knew 14 what the value of the asset that was being transferred was.
15 And he said $22.5 million. So it wasn't just Mr. Seery or the 16 debtor who was subscribing to this valuation. The party on the 17 other side of an arm's length negotiation was subscribing to 18 the exact same valuation.

19           The Plaintiffs could have taken whatever discovery
20 they wanted. This is a full and fair opportunity to 21 participate in the litigation. We proceeded to trial. Before
22 we got there, actually, the debtor filed its response to CLO
23 Holdco's objection and proffered its own very detailed and 24 apparently very persuasive analysis that CLO Holdco's objection
25 was without merit, that CLO Holdco had no right of first

1 refusal under the facts and circumstances as they existed, and
2 with Grant Scott, Mr. Dondero's childhood friend at the helm,
3 we got to Court for the contested hearing on the debtor's 9019
4 motion, and CLO Holdco withdrew their objection.

5           And I've put up on the screen just an excerpt of the 6 transcript because, you know, when we talk about whether or res
7 judicata should apply, because was there a hearing on the 8 merits? Was there a decision on the merits? Just look at the 9 words of CLO Holdco's lawyer. "CLO Holdco has had an 10 opportunity to review the reply briefing and after doing so has 11 gone back and scrubbed the HCLOF corporate documents based on 12 our analysis of Guernsey law."

13           And some of the arguments of counsel in those 14 pleadings and our review of the appropriate documents, counsel
15 obtained the authority from Mr. Scott to withdraw the CLO
16 Holdco objection based on the interpretation of the member
17 agreement. We were grateful for that and the Court 18 specifically said in response, "That eliminates one of the 19 major arguments that we had anticipated this morning."

20           Apparently, the Plaintiffs believe that those events
21 have no meaning and that this Court's reliance on CLO Holdco's
22 substantive withdrawal of its objection has no meaning. I
23 think they're wrong, and we'll get to that in a moment.

24           We proceeded with the hearing. Mr. Seery and 25 Mr. Pugatch testified at length. If you look at Footnote 3,

1 you'll see Mr. Seery testified for almost 70 pages of 2 testimony. Mr. Pugatch testified for almost 45 pages of 3 testimony. His testimony was exhaustive. And, again, any of 4 the objecting parties had the right to ask whatever questions
5 they want.

6 But I do want to just note a few things that aren't 7 up on the screen right now. If you go to Appendix 9, Your 8 Honor, which is the transcript of the hearing, at Page 13, you
9 will see that the very first thing I discussed in my opening
10 statement was the economics and how with a valuation of $22.5
11 million this deal made sense for the debtor.

12 You will see from Pages 30 to 42 there is extensive 13 testimony from Mr. Seery about the amount and the value of the 14 asset. But the most important part of Mr. Seery's testimony is 15 that he explains how it came to be that HarbourVest agreed to 16 transfer its interest in HCLOF to an affiliate of the debtor.
17 And that came about, not because Mr. Seery or the debtor was 18 initially at all interested in doing this. The whole idea
19 originated with HarbourVest.

20 They wanted to extract themselves from the Highland
21 platform. They wanted to give this piece up. So there's no
22 conspiracy going on here. The unrebutted testimony that all of 23 the objecting parties had an opportunity to challenge was that 24 the whole idea originated with Mr. Pugatch and with 25 HarbourVest. I think that's an important point to take into

1 account.

2           And finally, again, from the hearing, if you look at 3 at Appendix 9, you'd also find that Mr. Pugatch, again,
4 testified, as he had in his deposition, as to the value of the 5 interest being transferred. So we completed the testimony. We 6 rested our case having had a full and fair opportunity to 7 contest the motion. The objecting parties rested as well. And 8 we got to the point where we had to prepare the notice, and we 9 were discussing that at the hearing, if we can go to the next 10 slide.

11           And it's very important, because again, this was all 12 done transparently, and it was all done on the record. And 13 after the close of evidence, I addressed the order that was 14 going to be prepared. I specifically said that I wanted to 15 make clear that we were going to include a provision, "that 16 specifically authorizes the debtor to engage in, to receive 17 HarbourVest the asset, you know, the HCLOF interest," right. I 18 wanted everybody to know that was what was going to happen, and 19 then I said, "The objection has been withdrawn." I think the 20 evidence is what it is and we want to make sure that nobody 21 thinks they're going to go to a different court somehow to 22 challenge the transfer. But yet, that is exactly what the 23 complaint seeks to do.

24           Having put everybody on notice as to where we were 25 going, as to what the evidence showed, the debtor drafted and

1 the Court adopted an order, and the order says, among other 2 things, that HarbourVest was authorized to transfer its 3 interest to the debtor. Actually, it says, "to a wholly owned 4 and controlled subsidiary of the debtor," pursuant to the 5 transfer agreement, "without the need to obtain the consent of 6 any party or to offer such interest first to any other investor
7 in HCLOF." So the Court heard the 9019 motion pursuant to a
8 Bankruptcy Rule and entered an order that was unambiguous and 9 that the Plaintiffs did not appeal from.

10 We can go to the next slide.

11 At a very high level, Your Honor, it is just crystal
12 clear that the complaint is just inextricably intertwined with 13 the 9019 proceedings and the order itself. I think Mr. Sbaiti
14 would agree with me that but for the order that approved the 15 transfer of the asset and the testimony about the value of that 16 asset, they have no claims.

17 Every single claim is predicated on what happened in 18 the 9019 hearing. Every single claim is predicated on the 19 Court's order approving the transfer of the asset and the 20 testimony and evidence that was adduced in relation to that 21 asset.

22 There were really only two issues that the Court -- I
23 mean, if you want to think about it at its most simplistic
24 level, the Court was being asked to assess, is it fair, is it
25 reasonable, is it legally permissible for the debtor to give

1 something. In this case, allowed claims and releases, and to 2 get something in return. In this case, HarbourVest's interest
3 in HCLOF and releases in return. And that is really the 4 gravamen of the complaint.

5           The complaint is based whether it's breach of 6 fiduciary duty or RICO or breach of contract or tortious
7 interference, whatever the claim is, none of them exist if the 8 debtor doesn't get this. They just don't exist. And that is 9 why the complaint and the proceeding are inextricably
10 intertwined. And if you just take a look at just one paragraph 11 of the pleading, it says at the core of this lawsuit is the 12 fact that HCM, that's the then debtor, purchased the 13 HarbourVest interests in HCLOF for $22.5 million knowing that 14 they were worth far more than that. There's not a cause of 15 action that exists in the complaint that isn't dependent on 16 Paragraph 36.

17           So if we can go to the next slide with that 18 background, I'd like to argue why under 12(b), the complaint
19 should be dismissed because the claim should be barred under 20 the doctrine of res judicata. Luckily, Your Honor, there is at 21 least one area of agreement between the parties here, and that 22 is the purpose of the doctrine and the elements that have to be 23 satisfied in order to meet the burden of proof necessary to 24 have the claims barred. And in Footnote 1, you can -- I've 25 tried to just be helpful to the Court to show that we may not

1 cite to the exact same cases, but the parties agree that the 2 doctrine is intended to foreclose the re-litigation of claims
3 that were or could have been raised in a prior action and that 4 there's four elements that have to be satisfied for the 5 doctrine to apply.

6           The parties have to be either identical or at least 7 in privity, the judgment in the prior action had to have been 8 rendered by a court of competent jurisdiction. Number three,
9 the prior action had to have been concluded by a judgment on 10 the merits. And the last one is that the same claim or cause
11 of action was involved in both suits. So I just want to spend 12 a few minutes now, Your Honor, going through those four 13 elements to show the Court how easily the reorganized debtor
14 meets this standard.

15           If we can go to the next slide, I can take care of 16 the first two elements very quickly.

17           The first element, the debtor asserted that the 18 Plaintiffs were parties or in privity with parties to the prior 19 proceeding. That's at Paragraph 17 of the motion to dismiss.
20 The debtor relies on the deposition testimony of Grant Scott,
21 who was then the trustee of the DAF.

22           CLO Holdco is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the DAF,
23 or wholly controlled, in any event, and Mr. Scott's testimony
24 was that he was the only director and there were no employees
25 of either entity. So we, in our motion, put forth evidence to

1 establish the first element, and I don't believe, maybe I've
2 missed it. I don't believe that the Plaintiffs have contested
3 that element. If they have, I think Mr. Scott's testimony will 4 carry the day, in any event.

5           The second element as to whether or not a court of 6 competent jurisdiction is the entity or the court that rendered
7 the ruling. Of course, that's been met, too. The Plaintiffs,
8 in their opposition to the motion to dismiss, suggested that 9 the bankruptcy court would have lacked jurisdiction if their 10 cross motion to withdraw the reference was granted. They said
11 if the district court decides that mandatory withdrawal
12 applies, then it cannot find that the bankruptcy courts already 13 entered final judgment was rendered on Plaintiffs' causes of 14 action and had jurisdiction to do so. I think that's just a 15 clear misstatement of the law.

16           But in any event, Your Honor, at this point, I
17 believe it's irrelevant because the district court, in fact,
18 sent the case back to Your Honor and back to this Court. And 19 so, at the end of the day, Plaintiffs' argument doesn't hold 20 water because of the district court's ruling, which can be 21 found -- the order of reference can be found at Docket
22 Number 64. And so I think that easily takes care of the second 23 prong.

24           The third prong is whether -- if we can go to the 25 next slide -- the prior proceeding resulted in a judgment on

1 the merits. And this is really the critical point, Your Honor.
2 As the Court knows, the whole doctrine of res judicata is 3 designed to prevent, as the parties agree, the re-litigation of 4 claims. Stated another way, it's to bring finale. It's to 5 make sure that the Court doesn't hear the same claims and the 6 same issues that either were brought or that could have been 7 brought in a prior proceeding. And so, we believe that we 8 easily meet the standards set forth in the third prong. The 9 9019 order necessarily determined that the quid pro quo that I
10 described earlier was fair, reasonable, and legally
11 permissible.

12           Notwithstanding their assertions to the contrary, the 13 Plaintiffs are most definitely seeking to unwind at least one 14 half of the Court's order by belatedly claiming that they are 15 entitled to the benefit of the bargain while leaving Highland 16 burdened, frankly, with the claims that HarbourVest got as part 17 of the deal. I will tell you, Your Honor, and this is 18 argument, the debtor would never have asked for, and I don't
19 believe that the Court would ever have granted, the 9019 motion
20 if they thought that there was a risk in the future that 21 Highland wouldn't get the benefit of the bargain and it was 22 incumbent upon CLO Holdco and the DAF, and frankly, any party
23 in interest, to stand up and be counted and tell the Court and 24 the debtor, why the debtor was not entitled to do this deal and 25 CLO Holdco did that. They actually did.

1           They stood up and they filed an objection and they
2 said we have a superior right to this asset in the form of a
3 right of first refusal. They wound up folding in the face of 4 persuasive argument, and I respect the lawyer who did that. I
5 just do. But that was the time to speak up, and that's why it
6 is on the merits because that is exactly what res judicata is 7 intended to do. It's intended to have everybody put your cards
8 on the table. You don't put one card on the table and say, I'm 9 going to challenge this under 6.2 of the members agreement, but 10 I'm not going to tell you that I also think you owe me a
11 fiduciary duty under the Advisors Act or as the control party
12 or under any other theory that they had. They can't do that.
13 That's exactly what the problem is here.

14           If we can go to the next slide. Is it a judgment on 15 the merits? The debtor and the Court relied on CLO Holdco's
16 representation that it was withdrawing its argument, its claim, 17 its contention, its assertion that it had a superior right to 18 obtain the HarbourVest interest in HCLOF. Again, they did so 19 not whimsically, not because Mr. Kane was going to be out of 20 town and he couldn't make the hearing. He did it after, and I
21 don't think this matters frankly, but I think it's worth noting 22 that he did it after an extremely careful analysis. I would 23 tell you, Your Honor, that -- well, I would argue, Your Honor, 24 that even if Mr. Kane at CLO Holdco had never filed an 25 objection, if they'd never filed -- if they'd gotten notice

1 that this was happening and they sat silently, that would have
2 been enough for res judicata because the issue before the Court
3 was whether it was legally permissible for the debtor to 4 acquire this asset.

5           And if they had an obligation, if they owed a duty to 6 another party, it wouldn't have been legally permissible. And 7 if somebody believed that it wasn't legally permissible because 8 a duty was owed to them, they had an obligation to speak up.
9 And so I think it's very important, particularly for the 10 collateral estoppel argument that I'll make in a moment, that 11 CLO Holdco did in fact file an objection. It was based on the 12 breach of contract claim that's in their complaint. It's the 13 exact same claim. And they withdrew it. I think it's very,
14 very important. I think it highlights why res judicata
15 applies. I think it is the linchpin of the collateral estoppel
16 argument.

17           But at the end of the day, I think if they say
18 nothing, they should be estopped or precluded under res
19 judicata from now asserting -- it would be like -- I was 20 thinking about this earlier, Your Honor. If you'll remember
21 earlier this year, Mr. Dondero and his entities have kind of a
22 habit of withdrawing objections at the last minute. We had a 23 couple of sale hearings earlier this year. And the issue was 24 valuation, you know, and the process, and could the debtor meet
25 its burden of proving that the sale outside of the ordinary

1 course of business was in the debtor's best interest. And they
2 sold that restaurant. And Mr. Dondero objected. And at the 3 last second, they withdrew the objection. Did they sue
4 tomorrow? Does Your Honor really think that they could bring a
5 lawsuit tomorrow and say they just found a document or theory
6 on which the debtor had an obligation to give them a right of 7 first refusal, even though we've already closed on the 8 transaction, even though they were given notice of the 9 transaction, even though they filed an objection to the 10 transaction, even though they withdrew the objection? Would 11 the Court tolerate for one second a new pleading tomorrow from 12 Mr. Dondero that the debtor actually had a fiduciary duty to 13 give him a right of first refusal to buy that asset under 14 whatever theory, just because he pleads it and the Court has to 15 accept as true the allegations in the complaint? I think not.
16 And I think it's worth thinking about that to highlight just 17 how -- just how wrong this is.

18           Continuing on. You know, the Plaintiffs in 19 opposition say it can't be a trial on the merits because we 20 weren't parties. Of course they were parties. Again, they 21 filed an objection. They were the parties to the contested 22 matter, full stop. They rely on a case called Applewood and 23 they say, this is the very first point they make in their 24 brief. Applewood, if it wasn't res judicata in Applewood, how 25 could it possibly be res judicata here? But the facts are just

1 so inapposite, right?

2           In Applewood, you had a garden variety plan and
3 release where the debtor and the officers and directors got a 4 discharge. No objection to it. And a secured lender later on 5 sought to sue guarantors who happened to be officers and 6 directors. And the court, not surprisingly, said that the 7 confirmation order wouldn't prevent the secured lender from 8 going after the officers and directors, not in their 9 capacities, as such, but in their capacity as guarantors, which 10 were never part of the confirmation order. That just doesn't 11 apply here because here, we have the debtor making a motion
12 before the Court in which it sought permission and authority to 13 acquire a particular asset. Anybody who had a claim to that 14 asset should have stepped forward and put their cards on the 15 table.

16           And again, CLO Holdco put their cards on the table
17 and they lost, and they folded. To use the poker analogy, they 18 folded. And to hear them come into Court today and say we're 19 going to sue you because I reshuffled the deck, it's not right
20 and Applewood has no relevance.

21           Finally, Your Honor, you know, it's not on the 22 merits, they say, because you know, Mr. Seery and the debtor
23 hid the true value of the asset, and had we only known the true
24 value of the asset, we would have made all of these other
25 claims. The fact of the matter is, you either have a fiduciary

1 duty or you don't. And if you had a fiduciary duty, they 2 should have spoken up and they did only under 6.2, but they 3 did.

4 But here's the important part, Your Honor. Take the 5 allegations as true. You have to take all of the allegations
6 as true, not just some of them. And if you look at 7 Paragraph 127 of the complaint, and I would ask Ms. Canty to go
8 to Appendix 11 and let's just put Paragraph 127 up on the 9 board.

10 Here's the irony of the whole thing, right. The 11 whole complaint is based on the fact that somehow Mr. Seery was 12 engaged in insider trading. They accused him of insider
13 trading, and they say he didn't disclose the full value of the 14 asset. Just read Paragraph 127. James Dondero, who was on the 15 board of MGM, is the tippee. You've got an insider trading
16 case -- I mean, I don't represent MGM. I'm not with the SEC.
17 I don't know why Mr. Dondero thought he should be telling 18 Mr. Seery in December, 2020. It's not clear if it was before 19 or after the 9019 motion was filed. But Mr. Dondero is the 20 very source of information -- you can't make this up. He's the 21 very source of the information that he now complains Mr. Seery
22 didn't disclose.

23 Of course, Mr. Dondero, the trust, CLO Holdco could 24 have asked Mr. Seery at any time, how did you come up with your 25 valuation? Mr. Dondero, knowing that he had supplied to

1 Mr. Seery, according to Paragraph 27, please take it as true
2 for purposes of this motion only. He's the source of the 3 inside information. And now he has the audacity to come to 4 this Court, notwithstanding the Court's approval, all of the 5 time and money and effort spent in the 9019 process, and say,
6 Mr. Seery was wrong because he didn't tell CLO Holdco and the 7 DAF about the information that Mr. Dondero gave to Mr. Seery.
8 It's not right.

9           It was a judgment on the merits. And if Mr. Dondero
10 or the DAF or CLO Holdco or the trust wanted to challenge the 11 valuation, they had every opportunity to do so. And based on 12 Paragraph 127, if the Court accepts it as true, shame on them.
13 Shame on them for not pursuing this issue before. The guy gave 14 Mr. Seery, according to this allegation, and I'm just going to 15 leave it there, inside information. And he sits there in 16 silence, right? It says, look at the last sentence: "The news
17 of the MGM purchase should have caused Seery to revalue HCLOF's
18 investment." Seriously?

19           The third element is (indiscernible). The fourth
20 element, if we can go to the next slide.

21           Are they the same claims? Did the claims arise from 22 the same set of operative facts? I've addressed this pretty 23 clearly already, so I don't want to belabor the point. But 24 obviously, both the 9019 motion and the complaint arise solely 25 from the debtor's settlement with HarbourVest. The debtor's

1 acquisition of HarbourVest's interest in HCLOF and the debtor's
2 valuation of that interest. Without those three facts, there
3 is no complaint. It's just not credible to argue that the 4 fourth element is not met.

5           The case law is clear. It's quoted in the 6 Plaintiffs' opposition. It's not just the test of whether the 7 claims are the same. It's whether the claim is the same as 8 that which was brought or could have been brought.

9           In their opposition, the Plaintiffs contend that the 10 claims "did not write them until after the settlement was 11 consummated," and that the first time the plaintiffs heard 12 about the valuation of HarbourVest's interests was at the 13 January 14, 2021, hearing. I think I quoted that. If you
14 look, I don't know if it's Page 10 or Paragraph 10; the way I
15 wrote it, it's probably Page 10. I think that's a quote right
16 out of there. But of course, as we saw the debtor disclosed
17 the valuation in its very initial motion, CLO Holdco's counsel
18 elicited valuation testimony directly from Mr. Pugatch, so that 19 was before the hearing.

20           And of course, Mr. Dondero and the trusts both cited
21 in their objections the valuation. The notion that this was 22 not right, just -- it's contradicted by their own conduct,
23 their objections, their questions in deposition, the 24 information that was contained in the motion that they objected
25 to.

1 I do want to go off-script for just a minute, if we
2 could just take that down because I know that this is probably
3 something that Mr. Sbaiti may argue. And that is, well, gee,
4 but you have to take the allegation as true that Mr. Seery
5 wasn't honest, that Mr. Seery lied to the court. I don't 6 understand why there's not a fraud cause of action in there,
7 but there's not. But that's their theory.

8 And gee, how does he get to skate away Scott free if 9 he's allowed to do that with impunity, right? I will tell you,
10 Your Honor, of course you've seen Mr. Seery many times. You've 11 made your own assessments of his credibility. I'm not here to 12 argue the merits, but I will just say that the Defendants, if 13 ever forced to, will contest the allegation.

14 But here's the thing, and here's the important point
15 about, you know, whether or not he could lie with impunity and 16 say, I suspect that's where Mr. Sbaiti is going to want to go.

17 Mr. Seery said what he said. And he had a reason to 18 speak, and he spoke, and he said what he said and he told 19 everybody who would listen exactly what he was doing and how he 20 was doing it. For whatever reason, the objectors put the 21 valuation front and center. It's right in their objections.
22 They noted the objections. But for whatever reason, they did
23 nothing.

24 Whether they were negligent or whether they were 25 lying in wait is kind of irrelevant. They had a full and fair

1 opportunity to contest this issue. And if they had done so,
2 and the evidence proved what they're now alleging, they can't
3 tell you what would have happened. So, you know, HarbourVest
4 may have taken a different position. The Court may have done
5 something.

6           We're never going to know now because Mr. Seery and 7 the debtor are getting away with something, but because they 8 put in evidence that went unchallenged by Mr. Dondero and the 9 Plaintiffs. It simply went unchallenged. And they say, oh,
10 gee, that's because we didn't know. Well first of all, you
11 didn't ask. And second of all, again, the source of the inside 12 information, the reason that Mr. Seery should have known the 13 asset was worth more. The reason that he should have refrained 14 from trading and not engaged in insider information was 15 Paragraph 127. It was Mr. Dondero.

16           Here's another thing. If -- if again Mr. Seery had 17 not been honest with the Court and that was ever brought out,
18 Maybe HarbourVest -- maybe HarbourVest would have had a right
19 to complain. There's a lot in the complaint about oh, 20 HarbourVest was misled. The actual evidence that's in the 21 record, and this is part of res judicata, Mr. Seery testified
22 very clearly to the arm's length negotiation that took place.
23 He told the Court under oath that the negotiations were 24 contentious.

25           He told the Court under oath that in order to try to

1 resolve the case, he and Mr. Pugatch went off and had their own
2 private conversation without lawyers. They could have taken
3 discovery on any of that, right. What did you guys talk about?
4 It's certainly not privileged. They had every opportunity.
5 But what we do know is that Mr. Pugatch under oath, in 6 deposition, and at trial, said the value is $22.5 million.

7           So I don't think Mr. Pugatch or HarbourVest is ever,
8 ever, every going to complain about the transaction they did.
9 Because of what the evidence simply shows. But again, you've 10 got the Plaintiffs in their complaint saying that somehow the 11 debtor and Mr. Seery in negotiating this transaction has now
12 exposed the debtor to liability. It just makes no sense.

13           So there was a time and there was a place to 14 challenge Mr. Seery. Somebody, you know, maybe HarbourVest
15 could have done something, maybe they could still do something.
16 I don't know. If they really think that there's a problem,
17 maybe we'll hear from HarbourVest someday. But the Plaintiffs 18 have no right to complain. They just don't. They knew 19 everything. They were the source of the inside information.
20 They sat on their hands, and they shouldn't be allowed to do
21 what they're doing now.

22           If we can go to the next slide. I want to move to 23 the next theory and try to finish this up. The next theory is 24 that the Plaintiffs' claims are barred by judicial estoppel.
25 The judicial estoppel argument is really, really very

1 straight-forward. And it's important because if the Court
2 thinks about this the way I do, it's that the whole issue of 3 valuation is completely irrelevant to the Plaintiffs unless 4 they can show that they were owed some kind of duty, that they
5 had some superior right to acquire the asset. But that's 6 exactly the issue that CLO Holdco relied upon and withdrew and 7 should now be estopped from pursuing. Right.

8           The legal standard, again the parties agree on, that 9 in order to be estopped, the party must take an inconsistent
10 position. And the party must have convinced the Court to 11 accept that position. Again, both prongs are easily met here
12 in just a few sentences from the January 14 hearing. You have 13 Mr. Kane saying that he understands and acknowledges and admits 14 that they have no superior right to the investment. And the 15 Court relying on that very representation in declining to 16 conduct a hearing and render a ruling on the merits of the 17 claim that was withdrawn. The objection that was withdrawn.

18           And for the avoidance of doubt, after Mr. Draper
19 spoke on behalf of the Trust, the Court, at Page 22 engaged in 20 the following colloquy. The Court asked Mr. Draper:

21           "THE COURT: Were you saying that the Court still 22 needs to drill down on the issue of whether the 23 debtor can acquire HarbourVest's interest in HCLOF.

24           "MR. DRAPER: No.

25           "THE COURT: Okay. I was confused whether you were

1 saying I needed to take an independent look of that.

2 Now that the objection has been withdrawn of CLO

3 Holdco, you're not pressing the issue.

4 "MR. DRAPER: No. I am not."

5 Okay. You can call it res judicata, you can call it
6 judicial estoppel, collateral estoppel, the two prongs are 7 easily met. They're taking an inconsistent position today and 8 through all kinds of different theories, including the one that 9 they withdrew, the Plaintiffs assert that they had a superior
10 right to acquire the interest from HarbourVest.

11 And they should have asserted those rights at the 12 hearing. That was the time. And they should be estopped now
13 from taking a completely inconsistent position from the one
14 that was before the Court. And I just do want to point out, 15 the statement from a case called Hall vs. G.E. Plastic. And 16 it's interesting, Your Honor, because there's only a few cases
17 that I focused on, because this is really more fact intensive.
18 And there isn't a dispute as to the, you know, the elements of 19 these matters.

20 But it is interesting that the Plaintiffs, you know,
21 generally ignore all of the cases that we cite to. One which 22 is Hall vs. G.E. Plastic, where the Court said that the focus 23 on the prior success or judicial acceptance requirements is to 24 minimize the degree of a party contradicting a Court's 25 determination, based on a party's prior position. That's the

1 whole point of the exercise. You can't do this. You can't do
2 this.

3 Just quickly, that leaves the individual arguments as to 4 each of the five causes of action and I just want to go through 5 some highlights. There's a negligence claim, Your Honor. And 6 we did not file a pleading, but the Court can certainly take 7 judicial notice of the fact that the effective date has 8 occurred. Under the effective date, the plan is now effective.
9 That includes the exculpation clause, as Mr. Pomerantz, I think 10 accurately and without contradiction pointed out earlier, the 11 exculpation clause applies specifically to the debtor and to 12 negligence claims. And that's not a matter that's at all 13 subject to appeal.

14 So I think just to add to the arguments that we have 15 in our papers, which I adopt and do not abandon for any 16 purpose, I would add to the argument on negligence, that it's 17 now precluded, as a result of the plan becoming effective.

18 The fiduciary duty count suffers from numerous defects. I
19 just want to point out a couple of them. They don't respond to 20 the argument under Corwin, that under the Advisor's Act, there
21 is no private right of action to sue for damages arising from a 22 breach of fiduciary duty. This claim rears its head in 23 virtually every single complaint. They've never addressed
24 Corwin. Corwin is binding on this Court, and it is unambiguous
25 that there is no private right of action to sue for damages for

1 breach of fiduciary duty under the Advisor's Act.

2           They ignore Goldstein. Goldstein is not from the 3 Fifth Circuit, but it's very persuasive authority that advisors
4 do not owe fiduciary duties to their individual investors.
5 Instead, they owe fiduciary duty to their client. Their client
6 is the entity with whom they're in contractual privity. And so
7 in this case, there's no fiduciary duty there, either.

8           The breach of contract claim. Again I just -- I
9 would just say quickly, Your Honor, it's barred under judicial 10 estoppel. Even if it wasn't, it's clear based on Mr. James'
11 analysis and admission that the debtor's, or the reorganized
12 debtor's interpretation of 6.2 is accurate. And you know, I 13 said this in the beginning. Now let me tie it in a bow because 14 the breach of contract claim, and the tortuous interference
15 claim are both tied to the same thing. And that is the 16 assertion that the Plaintiffs had a right under the membership
17 agreement, a right of first refusal.

18           And they basically say that the debtor was playing 19 games. That they shouldn't be able to get through 6.2 by 20 assigning it to an affiliate. And that's where I go back, Your 21 Honor, and just remind the Court that the debtor told the whole
22 world exactly what they were doing in their motion. And their 23 objections, Mr. Dondero and the Trusts both acknowledge to the 24 whole world that they understood exactly what was happening.

25           In fact, their concern was not that it was going to

1 the debtor, but that it might be going to an affiliate outside
2 of the bankruptcy court's jurisdiction. And for them to now
3 say, having taken all of those positions -- talk about
4 inconsistent positions. They should be barred from saying
5 today, that the use of an affiliate to effectuate the 6 transaction was wrongful, because they actually told the Court
7 that they needed to -- that the Court needed to make sure that 8 it had jurisdiction over the very entity they now say somehow
9 shouldn't have been allowed to get the asset.

10           It's a bit much. So that takes care of the tortuous
11 interference.

12           The RICO claim, Your Honor, again is a motion.
13 There's so many different aspects to it. But I don't think the 14 Court needs to get past the Supreme Court holdings in HJ, Inc.
15 Again, just simply ignored by the Plaintiffs in their 16 opposition to the motion to dismiss. In HJ, Inc., the Court --
17 the Supreme Court did an exhaustive analysis to try to 18 determine and ultimately did determine, what a pattern of 19 racketeering activity meant. And the Supreme Court came to the 20 following formulation. That it had to have two or more 21 predicate related offenses that amounted to a threat of 22 continued criminal activities.

23           You know, the notion here is that the debtor and Mr.
24 Seery engaged in insider trading. We've already -- I've 25 already mentioned that according to the complaint, which the

1 Court can take as true. Mr. Dondero, himself, was the tippee.
2 But be that as it may, they don't come close to meeting the 3 very high standards set forth by the Supreme Court in HJ, Inc.
4 to show that whatever conduct Mr. Seery and the debtor engaged
5 in, and if you take the allegations as true, in not telling
6 what the fair value of the asset was, that that doesn't amount
7 to a hill of beans for purposes of RICO. That you don't have 8 any, I think predicate acts. I think here's the Court,
9 predicate acts extending over a few weeks or months,
10 threatening no future criminal conduct, do not meet RICO
11 pleading grounds. Right.

12 Security fraud claims cannot be predicate acts for 13 purposes of RICO. That is also clear. And that is really, I
14 mean they say mail, wire and fraud. But what's really at heart
15 is the 10(b)(5). Okay, it's the 10(b)(5) claim. Again, Mr.
16 Seery being -- I mean Mr. Dondero being the tippee. But those 17 are just some of the reasons.

18 None of, you know, that the RICO claim fails. You 19 know, I'll otherwise rely on the papers, unless the Court has 20 specific questions as to any of the other pieces of the motion
21 to dismiss the RICO claim, or any other aspect of the 22 Defendants' motion. I think this is clear. I think we win, no
23 matter how you slice it. It's just wrong. It's just wrong.

24 This Court will never, ever have a final order if Mr.
25 Dondero is able to engineer complaints such as this, which seek

1 to assert claims that absolutely positively could have and 2 should have been brought at the time the debtor made its 3 motion.

4 Unless the Court has any questions, I have nothing
5 further.

6 THE COURT: I do not. All right.

7 Mr. Sbaiti, I'm going to let you have as much time as 8 Mr. Morris. He took 55 minutes. As I mentioned, I have a hard 9 stop at 12:00 to do a swearing in ceremony. So if you're not 10 finished in 40 minutes, then I'm going to have to take a break
11 and come back and let you finish. All right?

12 MR. SBAITI: Thank you, Your Honor. Although I don't 13 think I'm going to be much longer than 35-ish minutes.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. SBAITI: if not less.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. SBAITI: I think you'll be able to be done by -- 18 we'll be able to be done by noon.

19 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

20 MR. SBAITI: Thank you, Your Honor. Your Honor, may I
21 share my screen?

22 THE COURT: You may.

23 MR. SBAITI: Thank you, Your Honor. Do you see my 24 Power Point, Your Honor?

25 THE COURT: I do.

1 MR. SBAITI: Thank you, Your Honor. I don't know
2 what which one you see. Is it the --

3 THE COURT: I see presentation.

4 MR. SBAITI: With the full page?

5 THE COURT: Yes, uh-huh.

6 MR. SBAITI: Okay, yeah, great. I just want to make 7 sure we're on the right page. Thank you, Your Honor. So Your 8 Honor, the defendant debtor is a registered investment advisor.
9 And it all begins with that. And this where the distinctions
10 between what happened in the 9019 and I'll get to the elements
11 of res judicata through argument.

12 But the first thing that has to be identified is that 13 the Defendant is a registered investment advisor. The 14 objection filed by Holdco back during the 9019 was an objection
15 against HarbourVest selling its interest by filing the right of 16 first refusal. It did not deal with the investment advisor
17 feature of Highland's relationship. And I'll get to why the 18 9019 doesn't preclude these arguments today.

19 This is essentially the structure. Highland was the 20 investment advisor of HCLOF, and Holdco is an investor in 21 HCLOF. And so Highland would owe a fiduciary duty under the 22 Advisor's Act against -- to CLO Holdco.

23 Highland also had a direct advisor relationship with 24 the DAF. And so under the Investment Advisor's Act, it owed
25 fiduciary duties to both of those entities. The law governing

1 registered investment advisors is that it's a federally
2 recognized and defined fiduciary duties. The fiduciary duty to 3 there's a fiduciary duty to affirmatively keep the advisee
4 informed and the fiduciary duty not to self-deal, i.e., not to 5 trade ahead of an advisee and opportunity that an advisee would 6 want or expect and without the advisee's expressed informed 7 consent.

8           This is a federally recognized and defined fiduciary
9 duty and it's actionable under state fiduciary duty laws.
10 While Mr. Morris ended his argument by saying we didn't deal 11 with their case law saying that there's no private right of 12 action under the Advisor's Act, the fact of the matter is that 13 Judge Boyle, about ten years ago, found that a state -- the 14 breach of fiduciary duty claim can be predicated on breaches of 15 federally imposed fiduciary duties under the Advisor's Act.
16 And that's what Douglass v. Beakley held. And that's actually 17 what we cited in our response. So I'm not sure why he would 18 argue that we haven't addressed the issue of where does this 19 private right of action come from.

20           Federal Law supplies the rules of the relationship
21 and State Law provides the cause of action for those breaches.
22 Now the scope of that has been expounded upon by many cases.
23 The Fifth Circuit held in Laird, as a fiduciary, the standard
24 of care to which an investment advisor must adhere imposes an 25 affirmative duty of utmost good faith and full and fair

1 disclosure to all material facts, as well as an affirmative
2 obligation to employ reasonable care to avoid misleading his 3 clients.

4           The word "affirmative" there is important because it
5 means the investment advisor is not supposed to wait to be 6 asked. The investment advisor as an affirmative duty to 7 proactively provide the information to the client.

8           The next standard comes from the SEC. We call it the 9 SEC interpretation letter. It's a release that came out in 10 2019. And to meet it's duty of loyalty, an advisor must make 11 full and fair disclosure to its clients of all material facts
12 relating to the advisor relationship. Material facts relating 13 to the advisor relationship include the capacity at which the 14 firm is acting with respect to the advice provided.

15           The SEC had another release in 2000 -- or excuse me,
16 in that same release, the SEC said the duty of loyalty requires 17 that an advisor not subordinate its clients interests to its 18 own. In other word, an investment advisor must not place its 19 own interest ahead of its clients' interests. An advisor has a 20 duty to act in the client's best interest, not its own.

21           The SEC general instruction three to part 2 of Form
22 ADV, that every investment advisor has to pull out. And this 23 is cited in our papers. As a fiduciary, you must also seek to 24 avoid conflicts of interest with your clients, and at a 25 minimum, make full disclosure of all material conflicts of

1 interest between you and your clients that could affect the 2 advisor relationship. This obligation requires that you provide
3 the client with sufficiently specific facts, so that the client
4 is able to understand the conflicts of interest you have, and 5 the business practices in which you engage, and can give 6 informed consent to such conflicts or practices or reject them.

7 And, finally, the Third Circuit in Belmont said:

8 "Under the best interest test, an advisor may benefit
9 from a transaction recommended to a client if, and 10 only if, that benefit, and all related details of the 11 transaction are fully disclosed."

12 These fiduciary duties are unwaivable by the advisor.
13 Any condition, stipulation or provision binding any person to 14 waive compliance with any provision of this subchapter, or with 15 any rule, regulation or order thereunder shall be void.

16 So the lawsuit does not allege that the HarbourVest
17 settlement should be undone or unwound. I'd like to move to 18 that point. Mr. Morris says well, you have to unwind half of 19 the settlement. Maybe HarbourVest doesn't have to give back
20 what it got, but Highland would still be saddled with the cost
21 of the settlement, but not with the benefit of the settlement.

22 Well, actually that's not true. There's two points
23 that we would make on that. Number one, our suit is a suit for 24 damages. In other words, the suit would be a suit for money
25 damages, based on the difference between the value of the asset

1 and what HarbourVest or what the actual value of the asset that
2 was represented, $22.5 million. So the second point, though,
3 is that even under a situation where CLO or Holdco or the DAF,
4 or even HCLOF were to purchase the HarbourVest suit, the 5 expectation would obviously be that they'd pay the $22.5
6 million that Highland paid for it.

7           So Highland is -- so it's not unwinding, and there's 8 no saddling Highland with a burden that they didn't otherwise
9 have, I think that's a misrepresentation. But we're not 10 seeking to unwind the lawsuit -- or excuse me, unwind the 11 settlement.

12           Now Mr. Morris is correct, the representation of 13 value by Mr. Seery is -- is one of the main points here. And 14 the representation was that the value of the entire asset. Not 15 just the shares of MGM, but the value of the entire asset was 16 $22.5 million. So in other word, nearly half of HCLOF was 17 represented to be worth $22.5 million. It was argued by 18 counsel on Page 14 of the January 14th transcript, and then on 19 Page 112 of that transcript, Mr. Seery specifically says the 20 current value is right around $22.5 million.

21           Now that was also in some of the filing papers and 22 Mr. Morris put up the evidence to Your Honor that Mr. Pugatch, 23 on behalf of HarbourVest also parroted that number. But 24 there's not any evidence today about where that number came
25 from, or whether he was simply relying on Highland's

1 representation of that value.

2           Now as a general rule, in these 12(B)(6) motions, as
3 I said before, we don't look at the evidence because the whole
4 point of discovery is to find out what's behind a lot of the 5 evidence. That's been quoted. The amount of evidence that 6 went into the 9019 motion as not necessarily full-blown
7 discovery.

8           I understand Mr. Morris saying well, they could have 9 asked the question. But as I just showed you, they shouldn't 10 have to ask the question. There should be fair and full 11 disclosure of all the material facts. And if it turns out, 12 which we believe it is true, that by January, the value of 13 HCLOF was twice what it was represented, or the HarbourVest
14 portion of HCLOF was twice as to what it was represented,
15 that's a material omission that Highland had an affirmative
16 duty to not misrepresent. Irrespective of the questions being 17 asked.

18           The DAF found out later on that the representation of 19 the value wasn't true. Now Mr. Morris talked for a very long
20 time about all the opportunities that somebody, Mr. Dondero,
21 somebody other than CLO Holdco. In addition to CLO Holdco,
22 could have asked the magic question to find out whether or not 23 they were telling the truth. But that runs right in the face
24 of the standards set forth by the SEC and by the Courts as to 25 the affirmative obligation of an advisor to disclose all the

1 material benefits that they're going to get as part of a trade.
2 The idea being that when you're a registered investment advisor
3 and you want to engage in a transaction, you make a full 4 disclosure and say this is the transaction. It's worth 41, but 5 I'm paying 22-1/2. But here's why I'd like to be able to do
6 it. And then that's the discussion that happens.

7           That clearly didn't happen here. And when it turned 8 out that there was this entirely huge upside that they were 9 gaining the benefit of, and maybe HarbourVest didn't care, that 10 that was a false statement. Now the reason we don't have a 11 common law fraud claim, or that we don't necessarily hang our 12 hat on a fraud claim is we don't have enough evidence as it
13 stands today, to specifically say that Mr. Seery intentionally
14 misrepresented that. Although we believe that it was grossly
15 reckless of him to do so. But we don't really need a fraud
16 claim with a gross recklessness standard. We have a breach of 17 fiduciary duty, which basically gets us to the same place.

18           So the timeline we have is September 30th was the 19 last valuation of HCLOF assets provided by HCMLP. And the 20 value of HCLOF, at that time, or the HarbourVest of that value, 21 would have been about 22.5 million. So what it appears to be 22 is that in January or in late December, the valuation that was 23 being done -- what was being reported, wasn't the current 24 valuation. It was the valuation as of the end of the third
25 quarter of 2020.

1           On December 22nd, the motion to approve the 2 settlement with HarbourVest was filed. HCMLP should have had 3 or would have had up-to-date valuations of the HCLOF assets,
4 but didn't necessarily disclose them as being different than 5 the 22.5 million. On January the 14th, Your Honor, held the 6 9019 hearing. And then that same day, Your Honor entered the 7 approval order.

8           And finally, in March, the DAF learns the true value
9 of HLOF assets as of January 2021 and starts to look into it.
10 Now Mr. Morris makes much of the fact that well, Mr. Dondero at 11 least knew that he had tipped them off, Mr. Seery. And if you
12 actually read Paragraph 127, you'll see specifically what it's 13 purported that he said. He said stop trading in the MGM
14 assets, because MGM might be in play. So you can't trade 15 because I'm an advisor, Mr. Dondero's an insider, he's the 16 tipper, not the tippee. Mr. Seery becomes the tippee under 17 that theory of the case, and he has to, and is required to,
18 because of their affiliation at the time, he's required to 19 cease trading. And that was the purpose of saying that.

20           The collateral issue that we point is that he at the 21 very least knew about that, and that should have caused him to 22 revalue, if he hadn't done so at the time. Not that, knowing
23 that alone is sufficient to know what the value of HCLOF
24 actually was on that date. That's a complete misrepresentation
25 of the point and purpose of that allegation.

1           And as Your Honor knows, under 12(B)(6)
2 jurisprudence, the way this is supposed to go is we get the 3 benefit of every inference based upon the allegations, not the 4 movant. So the first violation is that the debtor as an IRA
5 failed to affirmatively disclose the true current valuation of 6 HCLOF and failed to keep the DAF and CLO Holdco reasonably
7 informed of the value of the assets.

8           And the debtor as an IRA, failed to obtain CLO
9 Holdco's with the DAF's informed consent before it traded in 10 the asset, because it didn't have all of the information. The 11 typical remedy for breach of fiduciary duty is typically 12 damages for any loss suffered by the Plaintiff as a result of 13 the breach. I don't think there's a debate there.

14           So now we get to Mr. Morris' key argument. His key 15 argument is that we should be talking about res judicata. The 16 elements of res judicata and I think we agree is you have to 17 have identical parties in the action; the prior judgment was 18 rendered by a Court of competent jurisdiction; the final 19 judgment was final on the merits, and the cases involved the 20 same causes of action or the same transaction and nexus of 21 facts.

22           Now I'm going to skip to three, because I think 23 that's one of the key points that we disagree with them on.
24 There is no case, Your Honor, that we could find, and no case
25 that I read them citing that says an order on an 9019 has

1 preclusive effect under res judicata under an objector to the 2 settlement. We looked. We looked in the Fifth Circuit. We 3 looked outside of the Fifth Circuit. No District Court, no
4 Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals' opinion we could find held that
5 a 9019 order has res judicata effect on an objector's
6 objection. And I think the reason is pretty simple. Is it
7 doesn't.

8           Because the Plaintiff's claims, here our claims
9 hadn't even accrued. We have a four year statute of 10 limitations, but I think more importantly is that, as the Fifth
11 Circuit said, the 9019 motion grants the Court discretion.
12 It's not supposed to be a mini trial. The Court can approve a 13 settlement over even the valid objection of an objector. It's 14 not a trial on the merits. It's not supposed to be a trial on 15 the merits. It's not supposed to be a disposition on the 16 merits.

17           So the fact that Your Honor could have approved the 18 9019 settlement with HarbourVest, even if we had a valid
19 objection, means this isn't a disposition on the merits, as res
20 judicata would envision. It wasn't a trial on the merits, even 21 though it was withdrawn.

22           The other elements that we would point out to is that 23 neither the DAV nor Holdco were parties to the dispute between 24 HarbourVest and Highland. And this keys off of the issue that 25 I just raised. The cases that are cited by the debtor to Your

1 Honor all have to do with where one of the settling parties is 2 trying to undo the settlement for some collateral reason. And 3 the Courts have held, no, that's res judicata, because you were 4 a party to the action. HarbourVest brought the claims against 5 Highland. Highland settled those claims.

6 CLO Holdco was collateral to that settlement, it's 7 not a -- excuse me, collateral to that dispute. It's not a 8 party to that dispute. Its claims weren't being resolved by 9 the settlement. And while you have a notice to all creditors
10 and those objections can be raised, there was not inherently 11 any manner for resolving those objections on their own merits.
12 Only -- it was only resolved in so far as deciding whether or 13 not the settlement was in the best interest of the debtor, 14 which Your Honor decided, and we don't challenge that. But we 15 do argue that it caused damages and the debtor shouldn't get 16 off for those damages.

17 The fourth element is that the --

18 THE COURT: Just for the record, the standard in a 19 9019 context is not best interest of the debtor, right?

20 MR. SBAITI: Your Honor, I mean that's what the rule
21 says and Your Honor's order --

22 THE COURT: That is not what the rule says. The rule
23 is actually very sparsely worded and then we have Fifth Circuit
24 case law and U.S. Supreme Court law that talk about what the 25 standard is.

1 MR. SBAITI: Yes, Your Honor. And there are five --

2 THE COURT: And it's -- is it fair?

3 MR. SBAITI: There are five elements.

4 THE COURT: Is it fair and equitable and in the best
5 interest of the estate given a long list --

6 MR. SBAITI: Correct, Your Honor. And I didn't mean
7 to --

8 THE COURT: -- of considerations that the Court is 9 supposed to consider that "bear on the wisdom of the 10 settlement." Okay. So it's actually much more involved, is my 11 point, than is it in the best interest of the estate. Is it in 12 the best interest of the estate and fair and equitable given 13 all factors bearing on the wisdom of the compromise? And then 14 we have a long laundry list of things the Court should consider 15 as part of that analysis.

16 MR. SBAITI: That's a --

17 THE COURT: I just bring that up because if I'm still 18 -- my brain is still stuck five minutes ago on your comment
19 that you can't find any case saying that an order approving a 20 9019 compromise has res judicata effect on creditors. And it's 21 -- let me just say it's shocking to me that someone would argue
22 otherwise. Bankruptcy is a collective proceeding --

23 MR. SBAITI: Your Honor --

24 THE COURT: -- where creditors can weigh in and 25 object and raise whatever arguments they think the Court should

1 consider that bear on the wisdom of the compromise. And the 2 Fifth Circuit in Foster Mortgage has said the Court should give 3 great deference to the views of the creditors, the paramount
4 interest of creditors.

5           So it's a really sort of shocking proposition that 6 the order approving a 9019 compromise wouldn't have res
7 judicata effect on all parties and interests who got notice of 8 that. So if you have any elaboration on that, I'd like to hear 9 it.

10           MR. SBAITI: Your Honor, we looked at the Fifth
11 Circuit cases that they cited, which I believe included that 12 case. And even in that case, the point that we made in our 13 papers and the point I was trying to arrive at is that among 14 the factors, yes, the Court should give great deference to the 15 creditors. But among the factors is not that the objections
16 lack merit or are meritless or that they wouldn't be winnable
17 if they were simply standalone claims.

18           And that was really the only point I was trying to 19 make is that Your Honor has discretion. Granted it's -- as you 20 mentioned, it's not unfettered discretion. It's bounded by 21 standards and there are -- there is, I know, about five 22 standards Your Honor has to consider or the Court has to 23 consider. But among those, that laundry list of standards, is 24 not that the Court finds that any objection lacks merit. And 25 that was really the only point I was making.

1           And in terms of the case law, we looked at the Fifth
2 Circuit. We looked, frankly, outside the Fifth Circuit as much
3 as we could, and because this is actually not an easy one to 4 research, as it turned out, despite the language. And we also 5 looked for district court opinions in the Fifth Circuit to see
6 did any district court or did any court of appeals give this
7 type of approval to the standard that a 9019 order has res
8 judicata effect on a claim raised in an objection by a 9 creditor.

10           And we couldn't find any and I read all the cases
11 that Mr. Morris cited in his papers, and they didn't cite one 12 that explicitly said that. They tried to drive at it through 13 insinuation that, well, if the Court has to give great 14 deference or if the Court has to take into account the 15 underlying facts and the fact that there is discovery, surely 16 that must mean this is akin to the trial on the merits. And I
17 think that's where we simply disagree in good faith. I'm not 18 ascribing any bad intention. But we disagree that that's where 19 the law goes.

20           Res judicata is not -- while it's supposed to stop 21 the relitigation of issues, it is predicated on there having 22 been actual litigation of those issues. And when HarbourVest
23 and Highland settle a case and my clients show up with an 24 objection, even though they withdraw an objection, that, in our 25 opinion -- and we're asking the Court to see it our way -- is

1 not trial on the merits. It's not a disposition on the merits
2 of the objection in and of itself. Some objections we can --

3 THE COURT: But the context matters. In the context
4 of a 9019 compromise, the hearing is about look at the bonafide
5 ease of the settlement. And it's either fair and equitable and 6 in the best interest of the estate or not. And an objector can 7 say this is a terrible settlement and here's why it's a 8 terrible settlement and let me cross-examine the movant and let 9 me put on my own witness that will enlighten the Court as to 10 why this is a terrible settlement, why I say terrible, why it's 11 not fair and equitable.

12 That's your chance to convince the Court, don't 13 approve this settlement because there are, you know, 14
14 problems with it. And if you convince the Court, then you
15 convince the Court and it's not approved. If you don't, you
16 appeal, and we do have an appeal of the settlement order.

17 So, again, I'm not understanding the "res judicata
18 doesn't apply" argument.

19 MR. SBAITI: Your Honor, if I could riff on two 20 points based upon what you just said, if I could address those.

21 The first is there are clearly two kinds of 22 objections that get -- at least two kinds of objections that 23 get raised in these 9019 approval hearings. The two that you
24 heard recounted, some were this is bad for the estate. There's 25 reasons why we don't think the estate will benefit from it and

1 it will be harmed from it.

2           And those types of objections, which I believe mostly
3 comprise the objections that Mr. Morris was talking about 4 because they are concerns for the estate. And so creditors who 5 want to get money from the estate are concerned that the 6 settlement will not enter (phonetic) to the benefit of the 7 estate, and therefore, not enter to their benefit as creditors.
8 That's number one.

9           But those don't adhere in a lawsuit. Those aren't 10 claims for damages that the settlement is going to create for 11 the person objection or for the party objecting. There's a 12 whole separate set of objections similar to the ones HCLCO
13 Holdco raised where that what inheres in the objection is this 14 is actually going to cause us some kind of damage.

15           And so, the factors though, don't require the Court
16 in those second set of instances to say, well, you know what?
17 Not only do I think you're wrong, but I think that your 18 lawsuit, the underlying causes of action that give rise to this 19 objection, have no merit on their own face, that the discovery
20 is not there to support them, that a jury is not going to find 21 there. I am now the trier or the Court is now the trier of 22 fact on the merits of the underlying causes of action that 23 animate the objection.

24           And that's where I believe we're diverging with the 25 debtor on the law. It goes too far to say that a 9019 hearing

1 where the Court in the end has discretion to approve it, even 2 over a meritorious objection by any party, regardless of what
3 bucket of objections the objection falls into. It goes -- our 4 argument today, Your Honor, and we're asking the Court to see
5 it our way, is that that would go too far. That an actual 6 cause of action shouldn't be eradicated simply because of the 7 9019 process because, as you pointed out, the Court does have 8 to go through a litany of factors.

9           And if the Court determines that it's fair and it's 10 more equitable to overrule the objection, the Court has that 11 discretion. And we're not here to unwind that discretion.

12           But the settlement process did violate certain 13 obligations and did cause my client damages. And that's what 14 we're saying isn't precluded.

15           THE COURT: Okay.

16           MR. SBAITI: The fourth element, Your Honor, which I
17 guess in many ways maps on to the argument I just made to Your 18 Honor is that the cases, the underlying cases, do not involve
19 the same claims. Plaintiffs' claims arise from the settlement
20 process itself and not from the underlying issues being settled
21 between HarbourVest and Highland. So that's why we think at 22 least three of the four elements aren't met here. And we'll 23 reserve on the papers, you know, whether jurisdiction was 24 applicable because I think that's probably water under the 25 bridge at this point in the oral argument.

1 Now, Mr. Morris attacks the case that we cite,
2 Applewood Chair vs. Three Rivers Planning. And he argues that,
3 well, this is not applicable. And the argument he made however 4 was he put it in the context of, well, the parties there, the 5 issue was you had guarantors who were not parties in their 6 capacity as guarantors. But that's not actually what the Court
7 held.

8 The Court didn't say that the release wasn't 9 applicable to them because they didn't appear as parties in 10 their guarantee capacities. They -- the Court held that, well, 11 the specific discharge language doesn't enumerate those 12 specific guarantees, and so therefore it's not released.

13 And where this dovetails, we believe, as closely as 14 we can, this isn't a 9019 case. This is a final confirmed
15 plan. But where it dovetails with what our argument is, is 16 that the Court there as well was essentially saying the 17 underlying causes of action weren't really presented to us, so
18 we're not -- we -- and the confirmation of the plan didn't 19 involve disposing of them, so we're not going to say that they 20 are precluded. And we think that that's as close an analogy as 21 we've found in the Fifth Circuit to the issues here today.

22 So I would say, Your Honor, that we believe that 23 dispenses with the res judicata argument. The judicial 24 estoppel argument, they conflate the language. I'll go back to 25 this for a second. They conflate the language of judicial

1 estoppel on the success of the claim. None of the cases they
2 cite on judicial estoppel involved where a party took a
3 position, withdrew their argument, and then the Court moved on.

4           Mr. Morris tries to convert a judicial estoppel claim
5 into a judicial reliance claim, which is not the purpose of the 6 doctrine and is not the doctrine at all. The doctrine is that 7 if you take a successful position in one court, you can't take 8 the opposite position in another court. CLO Holdco didn't take 9 a successful position in one court and then change its position
10 later on. In fact, its positions, as Mr. Morris stated, are 11 remarkably similar. They're not inconsistent, which is the 12 problem with their judicial estoppel argument. And we -- I
13 think we fairly briefed that in our papers and we'll otherwise
14 rest on the papers.

15           To deal -- to address the actual claims, again, I 16 come back to the idea of a fiduciary duty claim, which is our 17 lead claim. And to be clear, it's a state claim predicated on 18 the violation of federally imposed fiduciary duties.

19           And I'm looking for a clock to make sure I'm not 20 abusing Your Honor's time, and I don't have one right in front
21 of me because my screen -- my screen is up.

22           Your Honor, the Douglass v. Beakley case is, like I
23 said, is Judge Boyle's case. It specifically provides a cause
24 of action based upon violations of the Advisers Act. We also 25 cite about four or five other cases in footnote 8 of our

1 response from other circuits, including the Third Circuit, the 2 Belton case that I referred to earlier, all of which held that,
3 yes, a state fiduciary duty claim can be predicated on breaches
4 of a federal Advisers Act violation.

5           The other point that they make on the fiduciary duty
6 claim is they argue HCMLP doesn't owe fiduciary duties to CLO
7 Holdco. And the cases they cite, Your Honor, we dealt with in 8 the papers why they were distinguishable, because in those 9 cases they were dealing with the fact that there wasn't any 10 harm or any direct relationship. But what they ignore is the 11 actual language of the Advisers Act, which is important.

12           Well, first of all, Mr. Seery admitted in his own 13 testimony during the approval hearing in July of 2019 that he 14 says, "We owe." He says, "There are third party investors in 15 the fund -- in these funds who have no relation whatsoever to 16 Highland, and we owe them a fiduciary duty both to manage their 17 assets prudently, but also to seek to maximize value." I think 18 Mr. Seery was absolutely correct when he said that. Highland 19 owes fiduciary duties to the investors in the funds that 20 Highland manages. The core of our case is that Highland is 21 using or abusing the assets of the funds it managed in HCLOF
22 for its own enrichment, which is a classic breach of fiduciary
23 duty case under the Advisers Act.

24           Now -- excuse me. The other point that I would say,
25 Your Honor, is that there is a statutory basis for us to argue

1 a breach of fiduciary duty. Excuse me. I didn't mean to stop
2 sharing. I apologize.

3 Are you back with me, Your Honor, on my --

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 MR. SBAITI: -- PowerPoint?

6 THE COURT: Yes.

7 MR. SBAITI: Sorry about that, Your Honor. I just 8 hit the wrong thing. I'm not very technologically savvy. Here
9 we go.

10 So Holdco is an investor in HCLOF, which is a pooled
11 investment vehicle. A pooled investment vehicle under the case
12 law we cite is simply defined as an investment vehicle that 13 doesn't publicly solicit investors and has few than 100
14 investors. Highland advises it. That's the same holding in 15 TransAmerica Mortgage, by the way, which we also cite.

16 15 U.S. C. Section 80(b)(6) establishes the federal 17 fiduciary standards to govern the conduct of registered
18 investment advisers. That's also the TransAmerica case. 15
19 U.S.C. Section 80(b)(6)(D) delegated to the SEC the power to 20 decide the scope of those duties that are imposed under the 21 statute. And so the SEC enacted 17 C.F.R. Section 275.206(4)- 22 8.

23 And it expressly states, and we cite the statute or 24 the regular in full in our papers, that the fiduciary duties
25 are owed to investors in the pooled investment vehicles. It

1 specifically says that. It talks about two different duties
2 owed and they're owed to the investors in the vehicles, which 3 means they're owed to Holdco as an investor in HCLOF, which is 4 the vehicle that Highland manages.

5           It's black and white in the regulation. And we 6 haven't seen any response. There was no response of that in 7 the reply that was filed, Your Honor. And so the argument that 8 there's not a fiduciary duty owed to Holdco because it's merely 9 an investor in HCLOF simply doesn't comport with the law.

10           And finally, the petition lays out the basis for our 11 claims including the applicable federal and state law.
12 Plaintiffs' response lays out why the legal arguments aren't 13 opposite at the 12(b)(6) stage and Rule 9(b) is met where 14 necessary under the federal claim. And I'm trying to unshare
15 so that I can get back to regular argument.

16           I'd like to briefly address Mr. Morris' argument,
17 Your Honor. Your Honor, I re-raise my argument that I made 18 before, which is that a 12(b)(6) motion and hearing is not the 19 appropriate time for all the evidence that was poured in here.
20 And I understand Mr. Morris' contention, well, it's really hard 21 to ignore all the history of this case. But a lot of that 22 history really boils down to things that were actually admitted
23 in the complaint. The complaint recognized there was a 9019.
24 But what Mr. Morris wants to do is go beyond that and to go to 25 what people said and what they must have meant. What Mr.

1 Dondero must have meant in his objection, what Dugaboy must
2 have meant by their objection, what Mr. Pugatch must have meant
3 by his testimony.

4 All of that is highly improper at this stage of the 5 proceeding, Your Honor. It's outside of the 12(b)(6) confines.
6 It's outside the four corners of the complaint. And we object
7 to all of that evidence being considered.

8 THE COURT: Let me --

9 MR. SBAITI: The question we --

10 THE COURT: Let me ask you about that procedural 11 point.

12 MR. SBAITI: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: As we know, 12(d) provides that if 14 matters outside the pleadings are presented to and not excluded
15 by the Court in a 12(b)(6) motion, the motion must be treated
16 as one for a summary judgment under Rule 56 and all parties
17 must be given a reasonable opportunity to present all the 18 material that is pertinent to the motion.

19 Are you -- what are you arguing? That I should treat 20 it as a motion for summary judgment and give you more time to 21 present other materials? I mean, you both presented an 22 appendix, okay. And I'm telling you we're seeing this more and 23 more, I've noticed. People are going beyond the four corners
24 of a motion to dismiss and attaching things. And there's some,
25 you know, Fifth Circuit authority that says, well, if what is

1 attached is integral to understanding, you know, an allegation
2 or whatever in the pleading, you know, there is some discretion
3 to go outside the four corners.

4           So I'm trying to understand the point you're making
5 with this. Are you saying I should treat it as a motion for 6 summary judgment or do these attachments really -- you know, do
7 I have authority under the Fifth Circuit to consider them as 8 part of the 12(b)(6) motion or not?

9           MR. SBAITI: Typically, in our experience, Your 10 Honor, is when a summary or when a 12(b)(6) is going to be 11 treated as summary judgment under 12(d), the Court says that 12 and then the parties are given an opportunity, as you said, to 13 go do some discovery in order to put together the evidence and 14 materials to then come back and respond as a summary judgment.
15 We responded to a 12(b)(6) and objected to the evidence. If 16 the Court wants to treat it as a summary judgment, then we 17 would ask for an opportunity for -- to conduct discovery in 18 order to be able to respond as a summary judgment motion, but 19 we didn't -- because we responded to a 12(b)(6) --

20           THE COURT: You did the same thing though. You did 21 the same thing in your response. You submitted an appendix of 22 evidence, if you want to call it evidence. As someone pointed 23 out, it's stuff from the bankruptcy court record. I don't 24 think it went beyond what was already in the bankruptcy court.

25           MR. MORRIS: And if I -- can I be heard on this, Your

1 Honor?

2 THE COURT: You can. You can.

3 MR. MORRIS: Just to respond. This is really quite
4 simple. The motion to dismiss is based on res judicata. Res
5 judicata necessarily requires a review of what happened in 6 connection with the prior hearing. There's nothing that we 7 have identified or put forth in the appendix or on our exhibit
8 list except for the pleadings in the 9019, the transcripts, the 9 one deposition transcript, the one trial transcript, the 10 settlement agreement, the transfer agreement. I'd love to know
11 what the Court couldn't or shouldn't take judicial notice of.
12 There is no emails. There is no -- there is no -- there is no
13 extrinsic evidence, if you will. All of this is either on the 14 docket or was presented as part of the hearing.

15 THE COURT: Yeah. I'm just trying to ferret --

16 MR. MORRIS: And it's necessary. And it's necessary
17 for the motion.

18 THE COURT: Yeah. I'm just trying to ferret out the 19 procedural position that's being asserted here. And I don't 20 have the case cites off the top of my brain, but there is 21 authority from at least the Northern District judges, if not 22 the Fifth Circuit, saying in a 12(b)(6) motion I can take 23 judicial notice of items in the record. And then, you know,
24 there -- I know there's Fifth Circuit authority saying I can go
25 beyond the four corners in a 12(b) context if it's just basic,

1 you know, explaining things that are in allegations. You know,
2 such as --

3 MR. SBAITI: May I address that, Your Honor?

4 THE COURT: -- such as if a contract is in dispute,
5 okay. Like there's no way you can have a cause of action under 6 the contract and here's the contract. So I'm just trying to 7 nail down your procedural position here.

8 MR. SBAITI: Your Honor, the distinction I was trying 9 to make that I don't think I put as artfully as I might be able 10 to put now is in a 12(b)(6) if there's a contract, as you said,
11 if there's a legal document, a contract and order that's 12 integral to the case, Your Honor can take judicial notice of 13 that. Generally, a court can take judicial notice of filings
14 in a bankruptcy, the fact that they were filed.

15 So the transcripts, which Your Honor can't take 16 judicial notice of, is the truth of those. And that was what I
17 was objecting to is it's one thing for him to say an objection
18 was filed and therefore, because an objection was filed, that 19 should be it. That was your only chance. I'm not saying Mr.
20 Morris can't make that argument.

21 But when he goes beyond the fact of the filing or the 22 fact that there was a transcript or the fact that there was a 23 deposition and starts to read from the depositions or read from 24 the filings and say this is what those mean, that goes against 25 the 12(b)(6) parameters because, number one, now it's

1 substantive evidence and not simply a judicial notice of 2 something that's right there in front of the Court, i.e., 3 something on its own docket. Because those statements and the 4 interpretation of those statements are subject to credibility
5 findings. They're subject to clarification. They're subject
6 to rebuttal. That's the purpose of discovery.

7           And so if Your Honor -- and Mr. Morris is right.
8 Usually, res judicata involves knowing what happened in the 9 prior proceedings. So if all he wants to do is rest on the 10 fact that an objection was filed by CLO Holdco and maybe even 11 other people, and that should be it and he thinks that's enough
12 for Your Honor to say res judicata applies, then I don't think 13 we have a problem. It's when he goes beyond that and says, 14 Your Honor, these people must have known and this is what they 15 meant by their argument, that's what I'm asking Your Honor not 16 to consider. And if Mr. Morris wants you to consider that, 17 that's a summary judgment motion and we should have the 18 opportunity to do discovery at the very least into the issues
19 he has now raised as supporting his res judicata defense which 20 he has the burden of proof on.

21           MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, this is one of the strangest
22 arguments I have ever heard. I'm allowed to offer the Court
23 and the Court is allowed to accept the documents, but I'm not 24 allowed to read them. I'm not allowed to make arguments. I
25 don't understand what that even means. If it were a contract,

1 I would be allowed to put the contract in front of Your Honor,
2 but I wouldn't be able to argue why the contract doesn't say
3 what the Plaintiff says. I don't get it.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. MORRIS: That's --

6 THE COURT: Just I've heard enough on this. I don't 7 think we have moved into Rule 12(e), that realm of me needing 8 to treat this as a motion for summary judgment. I think the 9 so-called evidence, the appendix that was attached to the 10 motion as well as the appendix that was attached to Plaintiffs'
11 response, it's stuff that I can take judicial notice of that's 12 in the record of this Court and I can look at it. You know, it
13 is what it is, the record of this Court.

14 All right. So I have nine people waiting in 15 chambers. I'm trying to figure out should I take a break now
16 or are you fairly close to wrapping up. Either answer is fine,
17 Mr. Sbaiti. I just need to figure out who I make wait here.

18 MR. SBAITI: I have -- oh, I'm sorry. I didn't mean
19 to interrupt you, Your Honor. I was just going to say I have 20 five minutes left, but I know Mr. Morris probably wants to come 21 back. So if you want to break now and we can come back at 22 whenever the Court wants us to, we can do so.

23 THE COURT: All right. Why don't you make your final 24 five minutes and then we'll take a break?

25 MR. SBAITI: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

1 I just wanted to address some of the arguments that
2 Mr. Morris raised in his argument. The first thing is -- and I
3 addressed this in part -- but Mr. Morris makes a big deal about 4 paragraph 127 of the complaint and essentially suggests that 5 we're the -- or that Mr. Dondero is the perpetrator of a
6 nefarious scheme. Whereas, what the pleading actually says,
7 and I again encourage Your Honor to re-read -- to read it
8 specifically, is that Mr. Dondero warned Mr. Seery not to trade
9 in the stock and not to make any transactions because the stock
10 was going to appreciate in value.

11 That has two implications for us, Your Honor. Number 12 one, it means Mr. Seery was a tippee of insider information, 13 and number two, it means that Mr. Seery, if he did trade on 14 that information or if he did pass that information on to 15 someone else, that is a problem from the Advisers Act
16 standpoint, which is really the only purpose of saying that.

17 While paragraph 127 also says that that should have 18 caused Mr. Seery to revalue the NAV of HCLOF, it does not state 19 and we did not plead that the entire value of HCLOF is tied to 20 the MGM stock. So the insinuation that that somehow gave us 21 inside information about what the true value of HCLOF was and 22 we should have known or that Mr. Dondero should have known is 23 simply untrue.

24 The other argument Mr. -- that Mr. Morris likes to 25 harp on is that CLO Holdco withdrew its argument, but he

1 characterizes Mr. Kane's withdrawal testimony -- as he says,
2 Mr. Kane admitted that CLO Holdco lacked the superior right to 3 obtain the HarbourVest. If you read the very language that was 4 highlighted on Mr. Morris' slide, that's not what Mr. Kane
5 says. Mr. Kane says, "We've gone back to the drawing board.
6 We've read your reply. And my client has given me permission
7 to withdraw the argument or withdraw the objection." That's 8 all he said. There was not an admission that he was wrong.
9 There was not an admission that they had made a mistake. There 10 was simply an admission that they decided to withdraw the 11 objection for whatever reason.

12           Lastly, on the specific claims --

13           THE COURT: That's not an accurate description of the 14 record. He said he looked at --

15           MR. SBAITI: Your Honor, I was reading it along with 16 him.

17           THE COURT: -- Guernsey Law. And I don't know if his 18 words were deep dive.

19           MR. SBAITI: Yeah.

20           THE COURT: But he had looked at the agreements
21 extensively. That's just not what he said.

22           MR. SBAITI: And he said he was with -- Your Honor,
23 he said he was withdrawing. He didn't say we were wrong. He 24 didn't say we don't have a claim. What he said was, "We're 25 withdrawing the objection."

1 THE COURT: After doing an extensive look at the 2 agreements in Guernsey Law, okay, so.

3 MR. SBAITI: Sure. But, Your Honor, he might have --
4 he could just as easily thought we have a chance, but it's not
5 a good one. And frankly, we'll be here for 20 days and we're 6 withdrawing it for that reason because we'll live to fight
7 another day. Your Honor, there's an innumerable number. To 8 simply say that he admitted that they didn't have a correct
9 claim, it's just he didn't say that. That's all. That's the 10 only point I'm making.

11 Your Honor, I don't disagree with the debtor that the 12 Court's exculpation clause gets rid of the negligence claim 13 which was obviously filed before the effective date, so that 14 claim is gone.

15 And I think the last argument that Mr. Morris makes 16 on the RICO claim is the federal court, the Supreme Court
17 standard for pleading a RICO claim, that acts that only 18 continue for a few weeks are not -- don't set out a RICO claim.
19 Your Honor, in our response to that, we actually submitted an 20 amended complaint that shows that the type of acts we're 21 talking about, the pattern of the debtor using its investor
22 vehicles assets to liquidate is a long pattern and practice
23 than simply the HarbourVest suit. And so, we move to amend on 24 that basis to satisfy that pleading defect, which is the main 25 one that they focused on.

1           That's all I have, Your Honor.

2           THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

3           We're going to take a 15 minute break and come back.

4 I'll ask Mr. Jordan and Mr. Bessette did they have anything
5 they wanted to say today. I know they joined in the debtor's
6 motion. And then we'll let Mr. Morris have rebuttal.

7           All right. So we'll be back in 15 minutes.

8           THE CLERK: All rise.

9           MR. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

10           (Recess at 12:05 p.m./Reconvened at 12:23 p.m.)

11           THE CLERK: All rise.

12           THE COURT: All right. Please be seated.

13           We're back on the record in Charitable DAF v.
14 Highland Capital. All right. So I promised I was going to go
15 back to counsel for Highland CLO Funding, Ltd. So Mr. Jordan,
16 Mr. Bessette, is there anything you wanted to say for oral
17 argument?

18           MR. JORDAN: Thank you, Your Honor. John Jordan on 19 behalf of HCLOF.

20           Our points are two procedural points. The first is 21 as the Court anticipated, in our motion to dismiss filed back
22 in August, we joined in the motion to dismiss of Highland. And 23 so to the extent that the Court after deliberation is inclined 24 to grant that motion, we would ask that as a joining party,
25 HCLOF be pulled along with that.

1           The second procedural point is that back in our
2 motion to dismiss, we pointed out that the complaint does not
3 actually allege anything against HCLOF. In the story, we're 4 essentially the football and neither Oklahoma nor UT. And we
5 pointed that out as an additional argument to what you've heard
6 today. That motion was never responded to. The deadline by 7 agreement was extended to October 11th. And the lack of 8 response was, we believe, not inadvertent but simply an 9 acknowledgment that HCLOF is not a party that anything is being 10 claimed against.

11           It particularly makes sense since effectively and in 12 rough numbers, they're half owned by both sides. So for every 13 dollar that HCLOF spends hanging around the case, the parties 14 are paying essentially 100 cents collectively. So for that 15 reason, we would ask, and subject to Mr. Sbaiti's input,
16 whether the Court would ask us or direct us to upload an order
17 granting our motion as unopposed. We just feel like we don't 18 have any role in this case.

19           THE COURT: All right.

20           Mr. Sbaiti, what about that?

21           MR. SBAITI: Your Honor, they were originally added
22 as a nominal party. And as a nominal party, because of the 23 potential need to have a derivative action, I think that based 24 upon Highland's arguments and the arguments that we had, I 25 don't think the derivative action is necessary for us to

1 maintain on a go-forward basis. And so we don't oppose them
2 being dismissed.

3 THE COURT: All right. Then I assume, Mr. Morris,
4 you don't have any problem with this, correct?

5 MR. MORRIS: No, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay. So I'll look for the parties to 7 submit an agreed order of dismissal of HCLOF after the hearing.
8 All right?

9 MR. JORDAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Morris, you get the last 11 word.

12 MR. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor. I hope to be 13 relatively brief. I really just want to focus on the arguments
14 concerning whether or not the order that was entered by this 15 Court was an order that was entered on the merits.

16 As the Court is well aware, a 9019 motion filed by a 17 debtor is done so on notice. It is to give all parties in 18 interest an opportunity to be heard, not just as to whether or 19 not the debtor meets its burden of proof under Rule 9019 but 20 whether or not the Court can find, as it must, that the 21 proposed settlement is in the best interest of the estate.

22 The purpose of -- I mean that is the purpose of the 23 giving notice so that everybody has a chance to be heard. The 24 questions that the Court asked, the questions that every 25 bankruptcy court asks in a 9019 is can the debtor do this deal,

1 should the debtor do this deal, is it in the best interest of 2 the estate to do this deal.

3           And, you know, the idea that a 9019 order is somehow
4 res judicata only to the parties to a settlement is just 5 something that doesn't make any sense to me because it
6 abrogates so many rules that exist that allows and encourages
7 and requires parties who have objections to be heard.

8           Mr. Sbaiti's clients filed an objection. They 9 initiated a contested matter. They obtained rights. They were 10 litigants. They are litigants in a contested matter where 11 they're required to tell the Court what objections they have to 12 the settlement, and they did that.

13           Mr. Sbaiti, you know, told me that I wasn't allowed 14 to characterize the words that are used in the documents that 15 have now been admitted by the Court. And, yet, I heard him say
16 that maybe Mr. Kane (phonetic) really meant to tell Your Honor
17 that he was withdrawing the claim because he was going to save
18 it for another day.

19           I'd just ask the Court to look at the transcript. I 20 don't have to interpret it at all. And I'd ask the Court to 21 read the words. I can put them back up on the screen, but 22 they're pretty short. It's at Pages 7 and 8 of the transcript
23 of what Mr. Kane told you and what you said in response. It's 24 on the page, not my interpretation, and what the import of that 25 was.

1           Mr. Sbaiti believes, I guess, if one is allowed to 2 engage in such conduct without consequence, that one is allowed
3 to allow to file objections, cause the Court and the litigants
4 to participate, to give discovery, to write briefs, to do
5 analyses, withdraw it on the basis of their own good faith
6 analysis of Guernsey law of the documents and somehow say it's 7 irrelevant. Not what the law is, not what res judicata is 8 intended to do.

9           He should have put all of his cards on the table. In 10 fact, I think that Mr. Kane believed he was putting all of his 11 cards on the table because that's what he did. He filed a very 12 comprehensive objection. He asserted a right to the 13 opportunity that the debtor was proposing to take in the 9019
14 motion. That's what he was doing. He was objecting on the 15 basis that he claimed his client had a superior right to this 16 asset.

17           And he didn't -- like I said earlier, Your Honor, I
18 don't think he would be permitted, I don't think these claims
19 would fly today if no objection was filed. But the fact that 20 there was renders, I think, indisputable that there was a 21 finding on the merits, right. And the only reason that the 22 Court didn't rule on Mr. Kane's motion, the only reason the 23 Court didn't rule on it is because Mr. Kane withdrew it.

24           Is that really the way this process is supposed to 25 work, that one can tell the Court that after a review of the

1 documents, I'm going to withdraw the objection and then file a
2 claim for damages three months later with a different client,
3 with a different control person, with a different lawyer?

4 That's okay under doctrine of res judicata? I don't think so.

5           They had a full and fair opportunity. The fact that 6 this was somehow -- you know, they're denigrating the fact that 7 this was a 9019 motion. There's not supposed to be a mini-
8 trial. Your Honor had discretion as to what to do. Every 9 court in every bench trial has discretion as to what to do and 10 whether or not to overrule objections and whether or not to 11 sustain [sic] objections. That's what judges to.

12           And there's nothing offensive about the fact that it
13 happened in the context of a 9019 motion. They don't get to 14 sit on their hands and wait to fight another day. If they 15 believed that the debtor was exposing itself to liability, and 16 that's what they actually say in the opposition, that's what I
17 actually think they say in the complaint, accept it as true,
18 they believe that the debtor created liability for itself by 19 rendering -- by entering into this transaction.

20           Shouldn't they have raised their hand and said you
21 can't do this deal, right? And the only response to that -- 22 they have to that is they had no idea about value. Paragraph 23 127, Your Honor, Mr. Dondero, the architect of this complaint,
24 as was proven on June 8th, knew very well about value. And it
25 doesn't matter that it was only MGM. Your Honor commented on

1 that at the June 8th hearing in a different context. But
2 everybody knows, right, it is. He sits on the board of MGM.

3 And I'm sorry if I called him a tippee instead of a
4 tipper. But if this complaint goes forward, we'll dig into 5 that real deep. But there's no reason it ought to, Your Honor.
6 This case ought to be dismissed on res judicata grounds. It
7 should be dismissed on judicial estoppel grounds. And it
8 should be dismissed for all the reasons that I said in my 9 argument in my brief.

10 But I do just want to close with one point, and that 11 is to read from a case called Goldstein, which I think I
12 alluded to earlier on this issue of whether there's a fiduciary
13 duty that's owed by an advisor to an investor and a fund:

14 "At best, it is counterintuitive to characterize the 15 investors in a hedge fund as the clients of the 16 advisors. The advisor owes fiduciary duties only to 17 the fund, not to the fund's investors."

18 There's a lot of discussion about fiduciary duties,
19 Your Honor. But to the extent that they have any basis to 20 defeat the motion to dismiss on res judicata or collateral
21 estoppel grounds, we hope and we trust and we know the Court
22 will review the case law vigorously to test some of the 23 assertions to that.

24 I have nothing further, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. Well, thank you to all of 1 you.

2           As a reminder, I don't think you need it, but as a
3 reminder, I am essentially acting as a magistrate for Judge
4 Boyle in this action. And whichever way I go on whichever
5 theories, I think she would expect a thorough write-up. It
6 would, of course, be in the form of a report and recommendation
7 for her to either adopt or not if I dispose of some or all of 8 the counts in the lawsuit.

9           Even to the extent I deny dismissal, even though the 10 rule typically does not require a court to make detailed 11 findings and conclusions in connection with a denial of a
12 motion to dismiss, again, since I'm sitting as a magistrate, I 13 think Judge Boyle would expect some thorough explanations and 14 reasoning from me.

15           So that's my way of saying I'm taking this under 16 advisement. I am going to drill down on some of the cases that 17 have been argued. I think some important issues are raised
18 here that need some thorough reasoning.

19           So I will do the best to get this out without too
20 much delay. I think there's probably zero chance, zero chance 21 I'm going to get it done by the end of the year. We're just 22 too behind with some of our under-advisements. But I will try 23 earnestly to get it out fairly soon after the first of the 24 year. All right?

25           Thank you. You all have a good holiday.

1 THE CLERK: All rise.
