4. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Seventh Interim Order, all parties to the following lawsuits are allowed to proceed against Insurers other than the Certain Settling Insurers<sup>3</sup> to the extent permitted by applicable non-bankruptcy law:

- Gomez v. Lamons Gasket Company, et al, 2:23-cv-02850 (E.D. La.);
- Morgan v. Huntington Ingalls Inc., et al., 2:25-cv-00612 (E.D. La.);

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Seventh Interim Order, any party asserting any asbestos-related claim related to or against the Debtor, Wayne and/or a current or former director or officer of either, including, without limitation, against any of the Protected Parties, may take reasonable steps during the Extended Stay Period, without leave of the Court, to perpetuate the testimony of any person subject to this Seventh Interim Order who is not expected to survive the Extended Stay Period or who otherwise is expected to be unable to provide testimony if it is not perpetuated during the Extended Stay Period. If such a need arises, notice shall be provided to the Debtor and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (“Committee”; together, the “Notice Parties”) by notifying counsel for each Notice Party of the need for perpetuation of such testimony. The Notice Parties shall have the right to object to the notice on any grounds they would have had if they were parties to the underlying proceeding and not subject to the terms of this Seventh Interim Order, and the Notice Parties may raise any such objection with this Court. The use of such testimony in any appropriate jurisdiction shall be subject to the applicable procedural and evidentiary rules of such jurisdiction. All parties reserve and do not waive any and all objections with respect to such testimony.

7. Nothing herein (a) alters, amends or otherwise modifies the terms and conditions of any of the Debtor’s insurance policies or related agreements, or (b) precludes or limits, in any way, the right of any Insurer to contest and/or litigate the existence, primacy and/or scope of available coverage under any alleged applicable policy or to otherwise assert any defenses to coverage.

8. To the extent the Debtor requests that the Court extend the relief granted in this Seventh Interim Order beyond the Extended Stay Period, the Debtor must file a motion with this Court to be considered by the Court on or before the Extended Stay Expiration Date or by such other date as the Court may order.

9. Entry of this Seventh Interim Order is without prejudice to the rights of any party to oppose any extension of the Extended Stay Period that the Debtor may seek or to seek to appeal the granting of any such extension without having appealed this Seventh Interim Order.

10. The requirement under Local Rule 9013-1(F) to file a memorandum of law in connection with the Motion is waived.

11. The Debtor is authorized to take all actions necessary or appropriate to implement the relief granted in this Order in accordance with the Motion, including without limitation seeking additional relief from this Court to enforce the terms of this Seventh Interim Order.

12. The Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation and/or interpretation of this Seventh Interim Order.
