Chapter 11

Case No. 23-[_____] ()

(Joint Administration Requested)

DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER (A) AUTHORIZING, BUT NOT DIRECTING, THE DEBTORS TO (I) CONFIRM, RESTATE, AND ENFORCE THE WORLDWIDE AUTOMATIC STAY, ANTI-DISCRIMINATION PROVISIONS, AND IPSO FACTO PROTECTIONS OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE AND (II) USE THE FORM AND MANNER OF NOTICE, AND (B) GRANTING OTHER RELATED RELIEF

The debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors” or the “Company”) in the above-captioned cases hereby file this motion (the “Motion”) for entry of an order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Order”) granting the relief described below. In support of this Motion, the Debtors rely upon and incorporate by reference the Declaration of Adam Kroll in Support of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Motions (the “First Day Declaration”),² filed concurrently herewith. In further support of the Motion, the Debtors, by and through their undersigned counsel, state as follows:

automatic stay, anti-discrimination provisions, and ipso facto protections of the Bankruptcy Code (as defined below), (ii) approve the form and manner of notice related thereto, substantially in the form attached as Exhibit 1 to the Order (the “Notice”), and (b) granting other related relief.

2. The Debtors further seek authority, but not direction, to translate the Order and the Notice to better inform creditors, governmental units, and interested parties or parties otherwise affected by this Order of the relief requested herein.

3. For the reasons set forth herein, the Debtors submit that the relief requested is in the best interest of the Debtors, their estates, creditors, and other parties in interest.

JURISDICTION, VENUE AND PREDICATES FOR RELIEF

4. This Court has jurisdiction to consider this Motion under 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference, dated February 29, 2012 (Sleet, C.J.). This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue of these Chapter 11 Cases (as defined below) and this Motion is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

5. The predicates for the relief requested by this Motion are sections 105(a), 362, 365, 525, and 541 of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(f) of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Local Rules”), the Debtors consent to the entry of a final judgment or order with respect to this Motion if it is determined that this Court lacks Article III jurisdiction to enter such final order or judgment absent consent of the parties.

BACKGROUND

I. Overview

7. On June 27, 2023 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtors each commenced with this Court a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, the “Chapter 11”).

Cases”). The Debtors have filed a separate procedural motion requesting that the Chapter 11 Cases be jointly administered. The Debtors continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No creditors’ committee has been appointed by the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware (the “U.S. Trustee”), nor has a trustee or examiner been appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases.

8. The Company develops, manufactures and sells electric vehicles (“EVs”) primarily to commercial fleet customers. It is one of the only original equipment manufacturers (“OEMs”) in North America focused solely on light-duty electric vehicles for commercial fleet customers. The Company’s flagship vehicle is the “Endurance,” a full-size, all-electric pickup truck. As of the Petition Date, with the Company still in its nascent stages, only approximately 65 Endurances have been manufactured, with a limited number of Endurances still in production.

9. On November 7, 2019, the Company purchased General Motors’ 6.2 million square foot automobile manufacturing facility (the “Plant”) in Lordstown, Ohio. Manufacturing operations at the Plant had ceased prior to the purchase. The Company’s business and vision for the Plant reinvigorated local industry. On October 23, 2020, the Debtor entity now known as Lordstown EV Corporation (“LEVC,” and then known as Lordstown Motors Corp.) completed a merger with a subsidiary (“MergerSub”) of DiamondPeak Holdings Corp. (“DiamondPeak”),³ pursuant to which MergerSub merged with and into LEVC, with LEVC surviving the merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of DiamondPeak. DiamondPeak is now known as Lordstown Motors Corp. (“LMC”), a Debtor in these Chapter 11 Cases.⁴

10. In September 2021, the Company began a partnership with an affiliate of Hon Hai Precision Industry Co., Ltd., also known as Foxconn (“Foxconn”), the world’s largest electronics manufacturer. The purpose of the Foxconn partnership was to allow the Company to shift its business strategy from a vertically integrated OEM to a less capital-intensive model, focused on developing, engineering, testing, and industrializing EVs. Since the inception of the partnership, however, Foxconn has repeatedly refused to honor its contractual promises to the Debtors. Foxconn has misled the Debtors about Foxconn’s ability or willingness to proceed with joint product development plans and repudiated its promise to invest additional equity capital in the business. Most recently, Foxconn has refused to complete its second purchase of common stock in accordance with the terms of the investment agreement between the Company and Foxconn. Foxconn’s actions have damaged the Company’s business relationships, employee morale and relations, and the Company’s future prospects, stripping it of its ability to continue as a going concern absent a strategic chapter 11 transaction.

11. The Debtors have filed these Chapter 11 Cases for the purpose of maximizing value for the benefit of their stakeholders given the ongoing, repeated breaches of contract and commitments by Foxconn. Among other things, as part of these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors intend to pursue claims against Foxconn, commence a sales process for their assets, reduce their expenses, centralize and rapidly resolve claims, and, ultimately, distribute maximum value to creditors and—if sufficient—equity security holders under a chapter 11 plan.

⁴ Lordstown EV Sales LLC was formed to sell vehicles directly to customers and is a subsidiary of LEVC, which is in turn a subsidiary of LMC.

12. Additional factual background and information regarding the Debtors, including their business operations, their corporate and capital structure, their restructuring activities, and the events leading to the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases, is set forth in detail in the First Day Declaration.

II. The Debtors' Foreign Suppliers and Creditors

13. Although the Debtors' operations are based in the United States, the Debtors receive products from certain vendors outside of the U.S. and have other dealings with such non-U.S. creditors. The Debtors' business depends on building high quality products—including its flagship vehicle, the Endurance. This requires high-quality, specifically designed components, that utilize certain tooling assets supplied by foreign entities located in, among other places, Canada, China, France, Mexico, Slovakia, the United Kingdom, and the Czech Republic. In addition, the Debtors license intellectual property related to the motor used in the Endurance from a Slovenian-based company that has limited or no other ties to the United States.

14. Given the international nature of the network comprising of the Debtors' supplier, creditor, and licensor base, the Debtors will continue to deal with non-U.S. parties after the Petition Date. However, these parties may be unfamiliar with the protections afforded chapter 11 debtors under the Bankruptcy Code necessitates the entry of the Order by this Court out of an abundance of caution. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors do not seek to expand or enlarge the rights afforded to them under the Bankruptcy Code. Instead, the Debtors seek to affirm those rights and assist their non-U.S. creditors and parties in interest to better understand them.

BASIS FOR RELIEFI. Confirming the Protections of Sections 362, 365, 525, and 541 of the Bankruptcy Code Is Authorized by the Bankruptcy Code

15. As a result of the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases, and by operation of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, the automatic stay enjoins all persons from, among other things, taking any action to obtain possession of property of or from the estate or to exercise control over property of the estate. See 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(3). The injunction contained in section 362 is a core protection for debtors, providing them with a “breathing spell” from their creditors, which, in combination with other provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, is essential to a debtor’s prospect of a successful case outcome. See, e.g., McCartney v. Integra Nat. Bank North, 106 F.3d 506, 509 (3d Cir. 1997) (citing Maritime Elec. Co., Inc. v. United Jersey Bank, 959 F.2d 1194, 1204 (3d Cir. 1991)); Cuffee v. Atl. Bus. & Cmty. Dev. Corp. (In re Atl. Bus. & Cmty. Corp.), 901 F.2d 325, 327 (3d Cir. 1990) (“The automatic stay is one of the fundamental debtor protections provided by the bankruptcy laws. It gives the debtor a breathing spell from his creditors.”) (internal citation omitted).

16. Given its fundamental importance, courts broadly construe the Bankruptcy Code’s automatic stay provisions. See, e.g., In re Fannie Askew, 312 B.R. 274, 280 (Bankr. D.N.J.) (citing Maritime Elec. Co. v. United Jersey Bank, 959 F.2d 1194, 1203 (3d Cir. 1991)). As such, the automatic stay has been held to preclude unilateral actions by non-debtor parties to terminate or otherwise interfere with contracts without court order, protecting a debtor’s property and contracts wherever located and by whoever held. See, e.g., Broadstripe, LLC v. Nat’l Cable Tel. Coop., Inc. (In re Broadstripe, LLC), 402 B.R. 646, 659 (Bankr. D. Del. 2009) (holding that the debtor’s interest in executory contracts and leases are property of the estate, “protected against termination or other interference that would have the effect of removing or hindering the debtor’s rights in violation of’ the automatic stay); In re Univ. Med. Ctr., 973 F.2d 1065, 1075 (3d Cir. 1992) (holding a nondebtor party to an executory contract cannot enforce contractual rights against a debtor without seeking relief from the automatic stay); see also ACandS, Inc. v. Travelers Cas. & Sur. Co., 435 F.3d 252, 259 (3d Cir. 2006) (“Section 362(a)(3) applies to actions against third parties as well as actions against the debtor.”).

17. Furthermore, section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code applies worldwide. See, e.g., Nortel Networks, Inc., 669 F.3d 128, 138 (3d Cir. 2011) (upholding the bankruptcy court’s decision to enforce the automatic stay extraterritorially); SIPC v. Bernard L. Madoff Secs. LLC (In re Bernard Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC), 474 B.R. 76 (S.D.N.Y. 2012) (upholding extraterritorial enforcement of the automatic stay and injunction barring foreign creditor’s lawsuit); Hong Kong & Shanghai Banking Corp. v. Simon (In re Simon), 153 F.3d 991, 996 (9th Cir. 1998). The Court has authority to fashion appropriate remedies for violations of the automatic stay. See 11 U.S.C. § 105(a); see also In re Odom, 570 B.R. 718, 722 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 2017) (holding that a bankruptcy court has considerable discretion in fashioning a remedy in connection with a violation of the automatic stay once a finding of civil contempt has been made).

18. The protections of the automatic stay apply to a debtor’s property wherever located and by whomever held. See 11 U.S.C. § 541(a); In re Allen, 768 F.3d 274, 276, 279 (3d Cir. 2014) (stating that “[b]ankruptcy jurisdiction, at its core, is in rem” and holding that actual possession by the debtor is not required for property to be part of the debtor’s estate) (internal citation and quotation marks omitted) (alteration and emphasis in original); Underwood v. Hilliard (In re Rimsat, Ltd.), 98 F.3d 956, 961 (7th Cir. 1996) (bankruptcy court’s in rem jurisdiction over property of estate permits injunctions against foreign proceedings pursuant to the automatic stay). The automatic stay, therefore, applies to the Debtors’ assets and operations around the world.

19. Furthermore, provisions in agreements, transfer instruments, or applicable nonbankruptcy law are unenforceable if such provision “restricts or conditions transfer of such interest by the debtor” or if any such provision:

is conditioned on the insolvency or financial condition of the debtor, on the commencement of a case under this title, or on the appointment of or taking possession by a trustee in a case under this title or a custodian before such commencement, and that effects or gives an option to effect a forfeiture, modification, or termination of the debtor’s interest in property.

11 U.S.C. § 541(c)(1).

20. Similarly, section 365(e)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code prohibits counterparties to debtor contracts from terminating or modifying such contracts, including rights or obligations thereunder, solely on account of a debtor’s bankruptcy filing—invalidating such “ipso facto” provisions. Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code also prohibits, absent court approval, third parties from enforcing the terms of a contract against the Debtors. See In re Broadstripe, LLC, 402 B.R. at 659 (holding that the debtor’s interest in executory contracts and leases are property of the estate, “protected against termination or other interference that would have the effect of removing or hindering the debtor’s rights in violation of” the automatic stay); In re Univ. Med. Ctr., 973 F.2d at 1075 (holding that a nondebtor party to an executory contract cannot enforce contractual rights against a debtor without seeking relief from the automatic stay).

21. In addition, section 525 of the Bankruptcy Code prohibits governmental units from, among other things: (a) denying, revoking, suspending, or refusing to renew any license, permit, charter, franchise, or other similar grant to the Debtors; (b) placing conditions upon such a grant to the Debtors; or (c) discriminating against the Debtors with respect to such a grant, solely because the Debtors are debtors under the Bankruptcy Code, may have been insolvent before the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases, or are insolvent during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases. 11 U.S.C. § 525(a); see also In re Exquisito Servs., Inc., 823 F.2d 151, 155 (5th Cir. 1987) (“[T]he impetus behind section 525(a) is to prevent governmental units from frustrating the policies of the Bankruptcy Code by discriminating against persons seeking relief under that Code.”).

22. The stay precludes acts against not only property of the estate but also property in the debtor’s possession. 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(3) (staying “any act to obtain possession of property of the estate or of property from the estate” (emphasis added)); see also Borman v. Raymark, 946 F.2d 1031, 1035 (3d Cir. 1991) (“[T]he automatic stay was intended to apply to actions that do not necessarily involve property of the estate.”).

23. Finally, pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court may issue “any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title.” Section 105(a) therefore authorizes a bankruptcy court to issue injunctions or take other necessary steps in aid of its jurisdiction. See In re Combustion Eng’g, Inc., 391 F.3d 190, 236 (3d Cir. 2004) (section 105(a) grants a bankruptcy court “broad authority” to provide equitable relief appropriate to assure the orderly conduct of the proceedings). Such orders are appropriate where they are crucial to the debtor’s value-maximizing efforts and do not unduly burden creditors. See id.

24. The application of the protections afforded a debtor by sections 362, 365, 525, and 541 of the Bankruptcy Code is automatic upon the filing of a chapter 11 petition. See, e.g., 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(3) (“[A] petition filed under section 301 . . . of this title . . . operates as a stay, applicable to all entities, of, [among other things,] any act to obtain possession of property of the estate or of property from the estate or to exercise control over property of the estate.”); 11 U.S.C. § 365(e)(1) (“[A]ny right or obligation under [an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor] may not be terminated or modified, at any time after the commencement of the case solely because” of an ipso facto provision); 11 U.S.C. § 525(a) (“[A governmental unit may not deny, revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew a license, permit, charter, franchise, or other similar grant to, condition such a grant to, discriminate with respect to such a grant against [. . .] a person that is or has been a debtor under this title.”).

25. Notwithstanding the self-executing and global effect of sections 363, 365, 541, and 525, not all parties affected, or potentially affected, by the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases are aware of these statutes and their significance and impact. Indeed, non-U.S. creditors or other parties unfamiliar with the Bankruptcy Code may attempt to proceed against the Debtors’ property outside the United States or take other actions against property of the Debtors or property in the Debtors’ possession, even after the Debtors file voluntary petitions triggering the automatic relief provided under the Bankruptcy Code. Such unilateral self-help, litigation, or collection actions could adversely impact the Debtors’ ordinary course operations, thereby jeopardizing the Debtors’ ability to maximize value for stakeholders and resulting in irreparable harm to the estates and interested parties.

26. This is particularly true in these Chapter 11 Cases given global nature of the Company’s supplier, creditor, and licensor base. As discussed above, in the ordinary course of business, the Debtors rely on, and incur obligations to, suppliers of goods and/or services and other creditors that are based outside the United States.⁵ These foreign vendors utilize the Debtor-owned tooling assets at their respective locations to manufacture parts for the Debtors' products, including the Endurance.

⁵ Concurrently herewith, the Debtors have filed the Debtors’ Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (A) Authorizing, But Not Directing, the Debtors to Pay Prepetition Claims of Critical Vendors (B) Confirming Administrative Expense Priority Status for Outstanding Prepetition Purchase Orders, and (C) Granting Other Related Relief (the “Critical Vendors Motion”). Pursuant to the Critical Vendors Motion, the Debtors seek authority to continue their business in the ordinary course and satisfy certain prepetition and postpetition claims of foreign trade creditors, among others, as and when they come due. The Debtors anticipate that such relief will help deter those parties in interest from attempting to exercise remedies or take adverse action against the Debtors in non-U.S. jurisdictions on account of the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases.

27. In addition, the Debtors are party to an intellectual property license agreement related to the motor used in the Endurance with a counterparty located in Slovenia, as well as other executory contracts with foreign suppliers. Non-U.S. counterparties to these contracts or affected third parties could attempt to terminate or otherwise interfere with them upon the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to ipso facto provisions in violation of sections 362 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

28. Granting the relief requested herein will also better enable the Debtors to inform non-U.S. creditors and interested or otherwise affected parties of debtor protections that may be unfamiliar to them. The relief requested herein will facilitate the Debtors' orderly transition into chapter 11 and minimize the disruption of their businesses. To that end, the Debtors submit that service of the Notice in appropriate circumstances will advance the efficient administration of these Chapter 11 Cases and that this Court's entry of the Order is necessary and appropriate to help enforce creditor compliance with the Bankruptcy Code.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

29. The Debtors reserve all rights. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, nothing contained herein is or should be construed as: (a) an admission as to the validity, extent, perfection, priority, allowability, enforceability, or character of any claim or any security interest which purportedly secures such claim or other asserted right or obligation, or a waiver or other limitation on the Debtors' ability to contest the same on any ground permitted by bankruptcy or applicable non-bankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any appropriate party in interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors; (c) a promise to pay any claim; (d) a waiver of any claims or causes of action which may exist against any creditor or interest holder; (e) an assumption or rejection of any executory contract or unexpired lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, and nothing herein otherwise affects the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code to assume or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease with any party subject to this Motion; (f) granting third-party beneficiary status or bestowing any additional rights on any third party; or (g) being otherwise enforceable by any third party.

NOTICE

30. Notice of this Motion has been provided to the following parties, or, in lieu thereof, their counsel: (i) the U.S. Trustee; (ii) Foxconn; (iii) holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (iv) the Internal Revenue Service; (v) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (vi) the United States Attorney for the District of Delaware; (vii) the state attorneys general for all states in which the Debtors conduct business; (viii) any such other party entitled to notice pursuant to Local Rule 9013-1(m); and (ix) any such other party entitled to receive notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. The Debtors submit that, in view of the facts and circumstances, such notice is sufficient and no other or further notice need be provided.

NO PRIOR REQUEST

31. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by the Debtors to this Court or any other court.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth herein, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court grant the relief requested in this Motion, the Order, and such other and further relief as is just and proper.

Rules, and it appearing that no other or further notice need be provided; and a hearing having been held to consider the relief requested in the Motion (the “Hearing”); and upon consideration of the First Day Declaration; and upon the record of the Hearing and all of the proceedings had before the Court; and the Court having found and determined that the relief sought in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, their stakeholders, and all other parties-in-interest, and that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED as set forth herein. Any objections or reservations of rights filed in respect of the Motion are overruled, with prejudice.

2. Pursuant to and to the extent set forth in section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases shall operate as a stay, applicable to all persons (including individuals, partnerships, corporations, and other entities and all those acting on their behalf) and all foreign and domestic governmental units (and all those acting on their behalf) of:

- (a) the commencement or continuation (including the issuance or employment of process) of a judicial, administrative, or other action or proceeding against the Debtors that was or could have been commenced before the commencement of the Debtors’ Chapter 11 Cases or to recover a claim against the Debtors that arose before the commencement of the Debtors’ Chapter 11 Cases;

This Order shall not affect the exceptions to the automatic stay contained in section 362(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or the right of any party in interest to seek relief from the automatic stay in accordance with section 362(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. Pursuant to and to the extent set forth in section 365(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, notwithstanding a provision in an executory contract or unexpired lease or any applicable law, any executory contracts or unexpired leases to which the Debtors are party or signatory may not be terminated or modified, and any right or obligation under such contract or lease may not be terminated or modified, at any time after the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases because of a provision in such contract or lease that is conditioned on the (a) insolvency or financial condition of any or all of the Debtors or (b) commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases.

5. Pursuant to and to the extent set forth in section 525 of the Bankruptcy Code, a foreign or domestic governmental unit may not deny, revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew any license, permit, charter, franchise, or other similar grant to, condition such a grant to, or discriminate with respect to any such grant against, the Debtors solely because the Debtors are debtors under the Bankruptcy Code, may have been insolvent before the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases, are insolvent during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases, or have not paid a debt that is dischargeable in these Chapter 11 Cases.
