The modification is an adjustment after further review and analysis of the scheduled claim amount and a reasonable review of the Debtors' books and records.

Claims to be Modified as to Classification

1. The Debtors object to Claim 5 filed by Barbara A. Clott as a priority claim on the basis that the claim should be reclassified to general unsecured in the amount of $138,066.32. This claim is based on the claimant's 457 employer-sponsored retirement plan which the Debtors have no outstanding obligations, and therefore, the claim is not entitled to priority status. Assets of a 457(b) plan are available for creditors of the plan sponsor generally and not the employee or former employee. Leadbetter, In re; Sicherman v. Ohio Pub. Emps. Deferred Comp. Program, 992 F.2d 1216 (6th Cir. 1993) (noting that 457 funds "remain (until made available to the participant or other beneficiary) solely the property and rights of the employer ... subject only to the claims of the employer's general creditors.") (citing 26 U.S.C. § 457(b)(6)) (unpublished); see also Matter of Pedersen, 155 B.R. 750, 758 (Bankr. S.D. Iowa 1993) (finding debtor's interest in deferred compensation plan established pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 457 was property of the bankruptcy estate).
2. The Debtors object to Claim 200 filed by Beverly Neely as a priority claim on the basis that the claim should be reclassified to general unsecured in the amount of $250.00 and priority in the total amount of $3,350.00. The Debtors understand that there is $3,350.00 remaining in the [PRI] account. Under 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(7), the maximum priority amount for a deposit per individual is $3,350.
3. The Debtors object to Claim 80 filed by ComPsych Corporation as a secured claim on the basis that the claim should be reclassified to general unsecured in the amount of $0.00. The modification is an adjustment after a review of the proof of claim and attachments, which do not support that the claim is secured.
4. The Debtors object to Claim 100 filed by Diana Powell as a secured claim on the basis that the claim should be reclassified to general unsecured in the amount of $0.00. The modification is an adjustment after a review of the proof of claim and attachments, which do not support that the claim is secured.

5. The Debtors object to Claim 3, filed by EMCOR Hyre Electric Co of Indiana in the amount of $36,409.00, on the basis that the claim should be modified to a general unsecured claim in the amount of $7,811.21. The Debtors understand that with regards to the $36,409.00 amount, EMCOR has released its mechanics lien and agreed it only holds an unsecured claim. Based upon the books and records of the Debtors, the Debtors only owe EMCOR $7,811.21 on account of a separate project.

6. The Debtors object to Claim 65 filed by Futuramic Products as an administrative priority claim on the basis that the claim should be reclassified to general unsecured in the amount of $495.46. The modification is an adjustment after a review of the proof of claim and any attachments thereto and a reasonable review of the Debtors' books and records, which do not indicate that the claimant's goods were received by the Debtor within 20 days of the commencement of the bankruptcy cases, as required to constitute a valid 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(9) claim.

7. The Debtors object to Claim 24 filed by Gary Eades Trust DTD 2-28-96 on the basis that the claim should be reclassified to general unsecured in the amount of $2,403.00 and priority in the amount of $3,350.00. Under 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(7), the maximum priority amount for a deposit per individual is $3,350.

8. The Debtors object to Claim 28 filed by Hogan Grain Inc. as an administrative priority claim on the basis that the claim should be reclassified to general unsecured in the amount of $513.26. The modification is an adjustment after a review of the proof of claim and any attachments thereto and a reasonable review of the Debtors' books and records, which do not indicate that the claimant's goods were received by the Debtor within 20 days of the commencement of the bankruptcy cases, as required to constitute a valid 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(9) claim.

9. The Debtors object to Claim 4 filed by Sandra Bryant as a priority claim on the basis that the claim should be reclassified to general unsecured in the amount of $0.00. This claim is based on the claimant's 457 employer-sponsored retirement plan which the Debtors have no outstanding obligations, and therefore, the claim is not entitled to priority status. Assets of a 457(b) plan are available for creditors of the plan sponsor generally and not the employee or former employee. Leadbetter, In re; Sicherman v. Ohio Pub. Emps. Deferred Comp. Program, 992 F.2d 1216 (6th Cir. 1993) (noting that 457 funds "remain (until made available to the participant or other beneficiary) solely the property and rights of the employer ... subject only to the claims of the employer's general creditors.") (citing 26 U.S.C. § 457(b)(6)) (unpublished); see also Matter of Pedersen, 155 B.R. 750, 758 (Bankr. S.D. Iowa 1993) (finding debtor's interest in deferred compensation plan established pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 457 was property of the bankruptcy estate).

10. The Debtors object to Claim 60 filed by Sherrell Perry as a priority claim on the basis that the claim should be reclassified to general unsecured in the amount of $701.33 and priority in the amount of $3,350.00. Under 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(7), the maximum priority amount for a deposit per individual is $3,350.

11. The Debtors object to Claim 3 filed by Terrance R. Davis as a priority claim on the basis that the claim should be reclassified to general unsecured in the amount of $54,440.74. This claim is based on the claimant's 457 employer-sponsored retirement plan which the Debtors have no outstanding obligations, and therefore, the claim is not entitled to priority status. Assets of a 457(b) plan are available for creditors of the plan sponsor generally and not the employee or former employee. Leadbetter, In re; Sicherman v. Ohio Pub. Emps. Deferred Comp. Program, 992 F.2d 1216 (6th Cir. 1993) (noting that 457 funds “remain (until made available to the participant or other beneficiary) solely the property and rights of the employer ... subject only to the claims of the employer’s general creditors.”) (citing 26 U.S.C. § 457(b)(6)) (unpublished); see also Matter of Pedersen, 155 B.R. 750, 758 (Bankr. S.D. Iowa 1993) (finding debtor’s interest in deferred compensation plan established pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 457 was property of the bankruptcy estate).
