Schedule to Proof of Claim

In re: iPass, Inc.
Case No. 22-10618

United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York

Creditor: Comcast Cable Communications Management, LLC (“Comcast”)

This Schedule supplements the information stated in the accompanying Proof of Claim and shall constitute part of the Proof of Claim.

I. Basis for the Claim

On March 15, 2022 (the “Petition Date”), iPass, Inc. (the “Debtor”) and its affiliated debtors each filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”). Prior to the Petition Date, Comcast provided, among other things, high speed Internet Broadband access at various locations to the Debtor pursuant to a Broadband Supply Agreement dated July 16, 2013, as amended, (the “Broadband Agreement”). The Broadband Agreement was terminated prior to the Petition Date, however, a balance remains due.

Also prior to the Petition Date, Comcast provided internet, video, voice and other services (the “Services”) to the Debtor, as well as the equipment or devices necessary for the Services (the “Comcast Equipment”) pursuant to various service agreements (the “Service Agreements”) between Comcast and the Debtor. The Service Agreements govern the provision of the Services for several hundreds of individual accounts. The Debtor rejected the Service Agreements effective as of July 11, 2022.

II. Calculation of the Claim

As of the Petition Date, the Debtor owed Comcast $109,601.00 for charges due under the Broadband Agreement.

Also as of the Petition Date, the Debtor owed Comcast $158,283.41 on account of unpaid charges for Services provided to the Debtor under the Service Agreements (the “Prepetition Charges”). The invoices for the Services provided under the Service Agreements are voluminous, as they include the information for several hundred accounts, and will be provided upon request.

In addition, as the Debtor rejected the Service Agreements effective July 11, 2022, the Debtor is responsible to pay Early Termination Charges (“ETFs”) pursuant to the Service Agreements. Because of the volume of the accounts governed by the Service Agreements, Comcast has not completed the calculation of the ETFs for the several hundred accounts. Comcast asserts an unliquidated claim against the Debtor for the ETFs and reserves the right to amend this Proof of Claim to include the amount of the ETFs once they are liquidated.

Finally, the Debtor is required to return all Comcast Equipment, which equipment remains Comcast's property. Comcast also asserts a contingent and unliquidated claim against the Debtor for the value of any Comcast Equipment that is not returned to Comcast.

Taken together, Comcast asserts a general unsecured claim in the aggregate amount of at least $267,884.41. Comcast further asserts a contingent and unliquidated claim against the Debtor for the value of any Comcast equipment that is not returned to Comcast.

III. Notices

All notices and pleadings concerning this proof of claim should be sent to the following:

IV. Reservation of Rights

Comcast reserves the right to amend this proof of claim to include amounts not stated above, including, without limitation, costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, and any other charges or amounts due, as appropriate, under applicable bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy law. Comcast reserves all of its rights and remedies, including, without limitation, the right to amend this claim from time to time to reflect additional charges, adjustments and the like, as the same become quantified, known or available. Comcast further reserves the right to assert administrative claims for postpetition charges and other amounts that are or become due. The inclusion of any amount in this proof of claim shall not waive Comcast's right to assert an administrative claim based on the same amounts, or a portion thereof, and shall not constitute an admission that any amount included herein that is entitled to administrative priority is an unsecured claim.
