Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)
(made applicable in bankruptcy cases by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure)

(c) Place of compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
  - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
  - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, or electronically stored information, or things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises, at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt. The court for the district where compliance is required — and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court — may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Unless otherwise indicated, all documents shall be produced for the relevant time period, including any documents having an earlier origin and in use during the relevant time period.

2. Each request solicits all Documents in Your possession, custody, or control, including, but not limited to, all information available to You or obtainable by You, including but not limited to, all Documents in any database or data room.

3. The obligation to produce documents responsive to these Requests shall be continuing in nature, and You are required promptly to produce any document requested herein that You locate or obtain after responding to these Requests, up to the conclusion of the proceedings herein.

4. All responsive documents are to be produced in the same file or other organizational environment in which they are maintained, with a clear indication of where each document ends and the next begins. For example, a document that is part of a file, docket, or other grouping should be physically produced together with all other responsive documents from said file, docket, or grouping, in the same order or manner of arrangement as the original.

5. The response to each and every one of the requests should be separately identified in such a manner as would readily permit determination of the request, or sub-portion thereof, to which they purport to be responsive, including identifying the request for production in response to which the document or thing is being produced.

6. Electronic records and computerized information must be produced in an intelligible format or together with a description of the system from which it was derived sufficient to permit rendering the materials intelligible.

7. Each item produced should bear unique identifying control numbers (e.g., Bates labels) on each item or page if the item is a document, and other documents maintained in electronic form should be produced in machine-readable electronic form.

8. In the event a document is withheld or redacted on a claim of attorney-client or work-product privilege, You shall provide a detailed privilege log that describes the privilege being claimed and the information withheld in a manner that is sufficient to disclose facts upon which You rely in asserting Your claim.

9. The Committee specifically requests production of electronic or magnetic data and ESI. All Documents and image files shall be produced in their native formats, such as Microsoft Word, Word Perfect, Microsoft Excel, PowerPoint, TIF, GIF, JPEG, or PDF. With respect to all other electronic or magnetic data and ESI, produce in ASCII format and for any file-based data, produce in an ASCII delimited text format, identifying the delimiters.

10. Any and all electronically stored documents being produced in response to these requests shall be produced in load file which includes Natives, Text (Doc-Level) and a .dat file with at least the following metadata fields: BEGDOC; ENDDOC; ATTACHMENT RANGE; PARENTID; ATTACHIDS; CUSTODIAN; AUTHOR; TO; FROM; CC; BCC; SUBJECT; TITLE; DOCDATE; DOCTIME; SENTDATE; SENTTIME; RECEIVEDDATE; RECEIVEDTIME; LASTMODDATE; LASTMODTIME; CREATEDATE; CREATETIME; SORTDATE; SORTTIME; FILEPATH; FOLDER; FILENAME; FILEEXT; FULLFILE; DOCTYPE; FILESIZE; MD5HASH; MSGID; CONVINDX; NATIVELINK; TEXTLINK.

11. In the event that any document called for has been lost, destroyed, discarded, or otherwise disposed of, identify the document by identifying: (i) its author or preparer; (ii) all persons to whom distributed or shown; (iii) date; (iv) subject matter; (v) attachments or appendices; (vi) date, manner, and reason for destruction or other disposition; (vii) person authorizing destruction or other disposition; (viii) the document request or requests to which the document is responsive.

12. Produce all responsive documents as they are kept in the usual course of business, or organize and label them to correspond with the Request to which they are responsive.

13. Unless otherwise indicated in a particular request, these discovery requests seek all Documents and Communications from January 1, 2018 to the present.
