RECITALS

A. The Debtors were a clinical stage biotechnology company that marketed and sold a product to treat complex wounds.

B. Due to U.S. Food and Drug Administration’s (“FDA”) guidance, the Debtors were no longer able to sell their product without FDA approval which required expensive clinical trials.

C. The Debtors were unable to continue to fund the clinical trials.

D. Rather than abandon the clinical trials and their promising product, on June 6, 2023 (the “Petition Date”), each Debtor filed a petition for relief under its Chapter 11 Case in the Bankruptcy Court.

E. After the Petition Date, the Debtors sought and obtained approval from the Bankruptcy Court to run a sale process for the sale of substantially all their assets. On July 31, 2023, the Court approved the sale of substantially all the Debtors’ operating assets to Grandeur Acquisition LLC (“Grandeur” and the “Grandeur Sale”) (ECF 107) for the price of $6,500,000.

F. On January 27, 2025, the Court confirmed (the “Confirmation Order”) (ECF 190) Debtors’ liquidating plan of reorganization (the “Plan”).

G. Under the Plan the Effective Date occurred on February 26, 2025, at which time John Curtis was appointed as the Liquidating Trustee.

H. Claimant filed proof of claim no. 9-1 in Case No. 23-22358, asserting an unsecured claim in the amount of $445,655.37 based on “Severance and related amounts”.

I. Claimant also a duplicate filed proof of claim no. 11-1 in Case No. 23-22358 for the same amount and basis as claim no. 9-1 (together, the “Claims”).

J. The Debtors have paid the sum of $15,150 to Claimant in full satisfaction of pre-petition amounts due to Claimant for unpaid wages and PTO, as permitted by the Court (ECF 70).

K. The Parties have negotiated in good faith and at arms-length, and desire to resolve the treatment of all Claims accordance with the terms of this Stipulation.

NOW, THEREFORE, UPON THE FOREGOING RECITALS, WHICH ARE INCORPORATED AS THOUGH FULLY SET FORTH HEREIN, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, BY AND BETWEEN THE PARTIES, THAT

1. The Stipulation shall have no force or effect unless and until the date it is approved by the Bankruptcy Court (the “Stipulation Effective Date”) pursuant to an order of the Bankruptcy Court (the “Stipulation Order”).

2. Proof of claim no. 9-1 in Case No. 23-22358 shall be reduced to an allowed unsecured claim of $299,103.13, reflecting an amount equal to 12-months’ salary ($275,000), unpaid wages and PTO ($14,726.87), and healthcare benefits ($9,376.26), of which $15,150 is allowed as a priority unsecured claim (the “Allowed Claim”).

3. The Debtors’ post-petition payment of $15,150 shall be treated as a payment in full satisfaction of the allowed priority unsecured claim.

4. The duplicative proof of claim no. 11-1 in Case No. 23-22358 shall be disallowed and reduced to $0.

5. In summary, the remaining amount to be paid on the Allowed Claim is $283,953.13.

6. John Curtis is authorized and directed to adjust the claims register in accordance with this Stipulation.

7. In consideration of the mutual agreements and covenants contained herein, and except to the extent of the duties and obligations set forth in the Stipulation and required of the Parties, upon the Stipulation Effective Date, the Parties each expressly knowledgeably waive and mutually release and forever discharge one another, their respective affiliates, predecessors in interest, successors, trustees, shareholders, members, directors, officers, affiliates, employees, agents, attorneys, advisors, consultants, professionals, designees (including any professionals retained by such persons), and assigns in their capacities as such, of any and all liabilities, obligations, claims (with the limited exception of any claims that are not related to the Claims that the Debtors may have arising under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code that the Debtors and/or the Liquidating Trustee, on behalf of the Debtors, may seek to bring), defenses, rights, causes of action, choses in action, setoffs, recoupments and demands of any kind whatsoever, at law or in equity, direct or indirect, known or unknown, discovered or undiscovered, asserted or unasserted, fixed or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, relating in any way whatsoever to the Debtors' Claims, and any transactions or courses of dealing between the Parties during the Chapter 11 Cases. 8. By entering into this Stipulation, the Parties acknowledge and agree that this Stipulation constitutes a negotiated compromise of factual and legal issues in dispute; is entered into without admission or determination of the merits, but with prejudice as to the allowed amount of the Claim; and is entered into for the sole purpose of resolving this matter and avoiding the risk, time and expense incident to litigation. entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and all prior understandings or agreements with respect thereto, if any, are merged into this Stipulation. No term or provision of this Stipulation may be altered or changed in any respect except by a written agreement executed by the Parties.

10. This Stipulation may be signed in counterparts, each of which shall be an original, with the same effect as if all signature pages were on the same instrument. In the event that any signature page is delivered by facsimile transmission or as a PDF (or other generally available commercial imaging format) to an email, the electronic delivery of such executed signature page shall create a valid binding obligation of the Party executing such signature (or on whose behalf such signature is executed) with the same force and effect as if such electronically delivered signature page were an original thereof.

11. The Court shall retain sole jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters from or related to this Stipulation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Stipulation is entered into as of the Stipulation

Effective Date.
