DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER
AUTHORIZING THE EMPLOYMENT AND PAYMENT OF PROFESSIONALS UTILIZED IN THE ORDINARY COURSE OF BUSINESS

TO THE HONORABLE MICHAEL B. KAPLAN, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Powin, LLC and the above-referenced affiliated debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”) in these chapter 11 cases (the “Chapter 11 Cases”) hereby submit this motion (this “Motion”) for entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Proposed Order”), pursuant to sections 105(a), 363(b), and 503(b) of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), rules 6003 and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and rule 9013-1 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the District of New Jersey (the “Local Rules”) (a) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors (i) to retain both the Initial Ordinary Course Professionals and Additional Ordinary Course Professionals (each as defined below, and together with the Initial Ordinary Course Professionals, the “Ordinary Course Professionals,” and each, an “Ordinary Course Professional”), without the necessity of a separate, formal retention application approved by this Court for each Ordinary Course Professional, and (ii) to pay each Ordinary Course Professional for post-petition services rendered and expenses incurred, subject to certain limits, without the necessity of additional Court approval; and (b) granting related relief. In support of this Motion, the Debtors respectfully state as follows:

I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the “Court”) has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey dated as of September 18, 2012. The Debtors confirm their consent, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7008, to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

2. Venue of the Chapter 11 Cases and related proceedings is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

3. The predicates for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a), 363(b), and 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 6003 and 6004, and Local Rule 9013-1.

II. BACKGROUND

4. On June 9, 2025 (the “Petition Date”),² the Debtors each commenced a voluntary case for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to continue operating and managing their businesses and properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. On June 13, 2025, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 58] authorizing procedural consolidation and joint administration of these Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). On June 27, 2025 the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey (the “U.S. Trustee”) appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Committee”) [Docket No. 174]. No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases.

5. Additional information regarding the Debtors, including their business and the events leading to the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases is set forth in the Declaration of Gerard Uzzi in Support of Emergency First Day Motions of the Debtors [Docket No. 13] (the “First Day Declaration”).

² Lead Debtor Case No. 25-16137 (MBK) for Debtor Powin Project LLC was filed on June 9, 2025, and the remaining Debtors were filed shortly thereafter on June 10, 2025 and June 22, 2025.

6. Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors employed the professionals identified on Exhibit 1, attached to the Proposed Order (the “Initial Ordinary Course Professionals”). The Initial Ordinary Course Professionals perform services, including legal and accounting matters that are not intrinsically related to these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors require the services of the Initial Ordinary Course Professionals regardless of the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases, and these services do not significantly impact the direction of the Debtors’ reorganization. To the best of the Debtors’ knowledge, the Initial Ordinary Course Professionals have no interest materially adverse to the Debtors and their estates.

III. RELIEF REQUESTED

7. The Debtors seek entry of the Proposed Order: (a) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors (i) to retain the Initial Ordinary Course Professionals and Additional Ordinary Course Professionals (as defined below, together with the Initial Ordinary Course Professionals, the “Ordinary Course Professionals”) without the necessity of a separate, formal retention application approved by this Court for each Ordinary Course Professional, and (ii) to pay each Ordinary Course Professional for post-petition services rendered and expenses incurred, including, if necessary, advancing any reasonable post-petition retainer to the applicable Ordinary Course Professional, subject to certain limits set forth below, without the necessity of additional Court approval; and (b) granting related relief.

8. The Ordinary Course Professionals have a great deal of knowledge, expertise, and familiarity with the Debtors and their operations. Although the Debtors anticipate that the Ordinary Course Professionals will want to continue to represent the Debtors on an ongoing basis, some may not do so if the Debtors cannot meet their payment obligations on a regular basis. Without the Ordinary Course Professionals’ knowledge, expertise, and familiarity in certain matters, the Debtors undoubtedly would incur additional and unnecessary expenses in educating and retaining replacement professionals. The continued employment and compensation of the Ordinary Course Professionals is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, creditors, and other parties in interest. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors are not requesting authority to pay prepetition amounts owed to any Ordinary Course Professional.

9. For the sake of clarity, individual retention applications will be required for any professionals that the Debtors seek to employ in connection with the conduct of these Chapter 11 Cases or in connection with special matters not appropriate for ordinary course treatment (such individuals, the "Chapter 11 Professionals"). Moreover, the Chapter 11 Professionals will be permitted to be compensated and reimbursed only in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and any orders entered in these Chapter 11 Cases governing the Chapter 11 Professional's compensation and reimbursement for services rendered and expenses incurred.

A. Proposed Ordinary Course Professional Procedures

10. The proposed retention of the Ordinary Course Professionals and the payment of monthly compensation pursuant to the procedures set forth below is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates and creditors. The relief requested will save the Debtors the expense and time associated with applying separately to retain each Ordinary Course Professional and will avoid the incurrence of additional fees for the preparation and prosecution of interim and final fee applications during these Chapter 11 Cases. Accordingly, the Debtors propose the following procedures in recognition of the importance of providing information regarding the Ordinary Course Professionals to the Court and the U.S. Trustee.

- (i) Within seven (7) days following the date of entry of the Proposed Order, the Debtors shall serve the Proposed Order upon each Initial Ordinary Course Professional. Thereafter, at least fourteen (14) days before submitting invoices to the Debtors and no later than (a) forty-five (45) days after the date of entry of the Proposed Order or (b) the date on which each retained Initial Ordinary Course Professional commences services for the Debtors, each Initial Ordinary Course Professional shall provide to the Debtors and the Debtors' counsel a declaration pursuant to section 1746 of title 28 of the United States Code, substantially in the form attached to the Proposed Order as Exhibit 2 (the "OCP Declaration") and a completed retention questionnaire, substantially in the form attached to the Proposed Order as Exhibit 3 (the "Retention Questionnaire") for filing with the Court. Upon receipt of an OCP Declaration and Retention Questionnaire, the Debtors will file such documents with the Court and serve a copy upon the following parties (the "Notice Parties"):

- A. Powin, LLC, 20550 SW 115th Avenue Tualatin, OR 97062; Attn: Chad Paulson (chad.paulson@powin.com), and Gerard Uzzi (guzzi@uzzilall.com);
- B. The United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey, One Newark Center, Suite 2100, Newark, New Jersey 07102, Attn: Jeffrey M. Sponder, Esq. (Jeffrey.m.sponder@usdoj.gov) and Lauren Bielskie, Esq. (lauren.bielskie@usdoj.gov);
- C. Proposed counsel to the Debtors, Dentons US LLP, 602 S. Figueroa Street #2500, Los Angeles, CA 90017 Attn: Van C. Durrer II, Esq. (van.durrer@dentons.com) and Tania M. Moyron, Esq. (tanya.moyron@dentons.com);
- D. Proposed counsel to the Debtors, Togut, Segal & Segal LLP, One Penn Plaza, Suite 3335, New York, NY 10119, Attn: Frank A. Oswald, Esq. (foswald@teamtogut.com);
- E. Proposed counsel to the Committee, Brown Rudnick LLP, (i) Seven Times Square, New York, NY 10036, Attn: Robert J. Stark, Esq. (rstark@brownrudnick.com) and Kenneth J. Aulet, Esq. (kaulet@brownrudnick.com), (ii) 601 Thirteenth Street, NW Suite 600, Washington, DC 20005, Attn: Eric R. Goodman, Esq. (egoodman@brownrudnick.com);
- F. Proposed local counsel to the Committee, Genova Burns LLC, 110 Allen Road, Suite 304, Basking Ridge, NJ 07920, Attn: Daniel M. Stolz, Esq. (dstolz@genovaburns.com) and Donald W. Clarke, Esq. (dclarke@genovaburns.com);
- G. Proposed financial advisor to the Committee, Alvarez & Marsal North America, LLC, 540 W. Madison St., Suite

1800, Chicago, IL, 60661, Attn: Seth A. Waschitz and Rich Newman;

- H. any other secured creditor and counsel, to the extent known;
- I. any party requesting notice of all proceedings; and
- J. any other party designated by the Court.

- ii. The Notice Parties shall have fourteen (14) days after service of each OCP Declaration and Retention Questionnaire to object to the retention of the applicable Ordinary Course Professional (the “Objection Deadline”) and any such objection shall be filed with the Court and served upon the Debtors, the relevant Ordinary Course Professional, and the Notice Parties. If no objection is filed prior to the Objection Deadline, the Debtors’ request that the employment and retention of the Ordinary Course Professional be deemed approved without further order of the Court. If an objection is filed by the Objection Deadline and such objection cannot be resolved within twenty (20) days, the Debtors will schedule the matter for a hearing before the Court, and the Debtors and/or the relevant Ordinary Course Professional will have the right to file a reply with respect to any objection prior to the scheduled hearing.

11. The Debtors also request that they be authorized to employ and retain additional ordinary course professionals not currently listed as Initial Ordinary Course Professionals as future circumstances may require (the “Additional Ordinary Course Professionals”), by filing with the Court a supplement to the list of Initial Ordinary Course Professionals, (a “Supplement”), as applicable, and serving a copy of the Supplement upon the Notice Parties.

12. The Debtors propose that, as with the Initial Ordinary Course Professionals, each Additional Ordinary Course Professional be required to provide to the Debtors and their counsel, for filing with the Court and service upon the Notice Parties, both an OCP Declaration and a Retention Questionnaire, within thirty (30) days of the filing of the relevant Supplement. The Notice Parties will have fourteen (14) days after service of each required OCP Declaration to object to the retention of the Additional Ordinary Course Professional in question. Any objection would be handled as set forth in paragraph 10 above. If no objection is timely submitted, or if the objection is withdrawn or timely resolved, the Debtors will be authorized to retain the Additional Ordinary Course Professional as a final matter without further order, effective as of the date of filing the Supplement or the applicable date of engagement.

13. The Debtors will not pay any fees nor expenses to any Ordinary Course Professional (nor shall any such Ordinary Course Professional draw down on any existing retainer) unless: (a) the Ordinary Course Professional has submitted its OCP Declaration and Retention Questionnaire to the Debtors; (b) such OCP Declaration and Retention Questionnaire have been filed with the Court and served on the Notice Parties; (c) the Objection Deadline has expired; and (d) no timely objection is pending. If a timely objection is received, the Debtors will schedule the matter for a hearing before the Court and no payment shall be made until such objection is either resolved, withdrawn, or otherwise overruled by the Court.

B. Proposed Payment Procedures

14. Once the Debtors retain an Ordinary Course Professional in accordance with the procedures above, the Debtors propose to pay such Ordinary Course Professional 100% of the fees and 100% of the disbursements incurred with respect to the postpetition services they render, upon the submission to, and approval by, the Debtors of an appropriate invoice setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of the services rendered and expenses actually incurred during the invoiced period, without prejudice and subject to (i) the Debtors' right to dispute any such invoice in the ordinary course and (ii) the rights of the Notice Parties to file an Ordinary Course Professional Fee Objection (defined below); provided, however, that each Ordinary Course Professional's total compensation and reimbursement shall not exceed the monthly fee cap (the "Monthly Fee Cap") as set forth in the list of Initial Ordinary Course Professionals attached to the Proposed Order as Exhibit 1, or in any Supplement, as applicable, on average over any three month period on a rolling basis; provided, further, that the Debtors shall not pay any Ordinary Course Professional in excess of their applicable aggregate fee cap (the “Aggregate Fee Cap”) listed in Exhibit 1, or in any Supplement, during the course of these Chapter 11 Cases except as otherwise authorized by the Court.

15. The Debtors request the authority to change the Monthly Fee Cap and Aggregate Fee Cap applicable to any given Ordinary Course Professional upon seven (7) calendar days’ notice to the Notice Parties, subject to objection by the Notice Parties. In addition, in the event the duration of these Chapter 11 Cases is longer than seven (7) months from the date of entry of the Proposed Order, the Aggregate Fee Cap for each Ordinary Course Professional that has been retained, may be increased by agreement of the U.S. Trustee, the Committee or by order of the Court. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the aggregate fees to be paid to Ordinary Course Professionals pursuant to the Order shall not exceed $1,000,000 (the “Overall Aggregate Case Cap”). The Overall Aggregate Case Cap may be increased by agreement of the U.S. Trustee and the Committee or by order of the Court.

16. Furthermore, if an Ordinary Course Professional’s fees and expenses exceed the applicable Monthly Fee Cap over a three-month rolling basis, such Ordinary Course Professional shall file a fee application in compliance with sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code and the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed under 11 U.S.C. § 330 by Attorneys in Larger Chapter 11 Cases, effective as of November 1, 2013 (the “U.S. Trustee Fee Guidelines”) and any other procedures and orders of the Court. Such applicable Ordinary Course Professional shall be entitled to interim payment of their requested fees and expenses up to the Monthly Fee Cap pending the Court’s allowance of those requested fees and expenses in excess of the Monthly Fee Cap. Each Ordinary Course Professional that is a law firm and exceeds the Monthly Fee Cap shall agree to make a reasonable effort to comply with the U.S. Trustee's requests for information and additional disclosures, as set forth in the U.S. Trustee Fee Guidelines.

17. If an Ordinary Course Professional seeks payment of fees in excess of the Aggregate Fee Cap, such Ordinary Course Professional shall be required to (a) file a separate retention application to be retained as a professional person pursuant to section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (b) apply for compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases in accordance with sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code and applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the U.S. Trustee Fee Guidelines, and any other procedures and orders of the Court. Such applicable Ordinary Course Professional shall be entitled to interim payment of its requested fees and expenses pursuant to any order granting the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Administrative Fee Order Establishing Procedures for the Allowance and Payment of Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals Retained by Order of this Court, [Docket No. 235]. Each Ordinary Course Professional that is a law firm and exceeds the Aggregate Fee Cap shall agree to make a reasonable effort to comply with the U.S. Trustee Fee Guidelines.

18. In the ordinary course of business, as a routine matter, the Debtors review all bills received from the Ordinary Course Professionals to assess the reasonableness of the fees charged and the necessity of the expenses incurred. This type of review will continue postpetition and, coupled with the proposed Monthly Fee Cap, Aggregate Fee Cap, and Overall Aggregate Case Cap, will protect the Debtors' estates against excessive and improper billing.

C. Periodic Payment Statements

19. Within thirty (30) days after the end of, and with respect to, each full three-month period after entry of the Order (including any initial partial month in the first period), the Debtors shall file with this Court, and serve upon the Notice Parties, a summary statement that includes the following information for each Ordinary Course Professional: (a) the name of the Ordinary Course Professional; (b) the aggregate amounts paid as compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred by such Ordinary Course Professional during the statement period; (c) the aggregate amount of postpetition payments made to the Ordinary Course Professional through the end of the statement period; and (d) a general description of the services rendered by such Ordinary Course Professional during the statement period. The obligation to file summary statements shall terminate upon confirmation of a plan in these Chapter 11 Cases.

20. On the date that is established in these Chapter 11 Cases for Chapter 11 professionals to file final fee applications and pursuant to D.N.J. LBR 2016-4, the Debtors will file a statement (the “Final Statement”) for each of the Ordinary Course Professionals. The Final Statement shall include the following information for each Ordinary Course Professional: (i) the name of the Ordinary Course Professional; (ii) the aggregate amount paid to the Ordinary Course Professional during the previous ninety (90) days; (iii) the total amount paid postpetition to each Ordinary Course Professional; and (iv) a reasonably detailed description of the services rendered by the Ordinary Course Professional during these Chapter 11 Cases. The Final Statement shall be served upon the Notice Parties, who shall have twenty (20) calendar days to file an objection with the Court pursuant to section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code (an “Ordinary Course Professional Fee Objection”).

IV. BASIS FOR RELIEF

21. The Debtors seek the relief requested in this Motion to avoid any later controversy about employing and paying the Ordinary Course Professionals during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors believe that their decision to employ the Ordinary Course Professionals is appropriate under section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code because the employment and compensation of the Ordinary Course Professionals are matters that relate to the ordinary course of the Debtors' business. "The Code takes cognizance of the fact that if a debtor had to seek court approval to pay for every expense incurred during the normal course of its affairs, the debtor would be in court more than in business." Bagus v. Clark (In re Buyer's Club Markets), 5 F.3d 455, 457–58 (10th Cir. 1993). By this Motion, the Debtors are not requesting to pay prepetition amounts owed to any of the Ordinary Course Professionals.

A. The Debtors Employ the Ordinary Course Professionals in the Ordinary Course of the Debtors' Business.

22. Pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors, as debtors in possession, are authorized to operate their businesses. Section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code further defines the scope of a debtor's authority and provides that, unless the court orders otherwise, a debtor in possession may enter into transactions, including the use, sale, or lease of estate property in the ordinary course of business without notice and a hearing. "The framework of section 363 is designed to allow a trustee (or a debtor-in-possession) the flexibility to engage in ordinary transactions without unnecessary creditor and bankruptcy court oversight, while protecting creditors by giving them an opportunity to be heard when transactions are not ordinary." In re Roth American, Inc., 975 F.2d 949, 952 (3d Cir. 1992). "Neither the Bankruptcy Code nor its legislative history provide a framework for analyzing whether particular transactions are in the ordinary course of a debtor's business for the purpose of section 363." Id.

23. To determine whether or not a transaction falls in the ordinary course of business, many courts have adopted a two-step inquiry: the "vertical dimension" or "creditor's expectation" test, and the "horizontal dimension" or "industry-wide" test. See id. (citations omitted); see also N.J. Mobile Dental Practice, P.A. v. Cont'l Assocs. Ltd. (In re N.J. Mobile Dental Practice, P.A.), No. 05-17772 (DHS), Adv. No. 07-1988 (DHS), 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 1184, at *14 (Bankr. D.N.J. Apr. 7, 2008) (explaining that "the Third Circuit adopted a two-step approach consisting of a horizontal and a vertical dimension").

24. Under the vertical dimension test, courts "analyze the transactions from the vantage point of a hypothetical creditor and the inquiry is whether the transaction subjects a creditor to economic risk of a nature different from those he accepted when he decided to extend credit." In re Roth Am., Inc., 975 F.2d at 953 (citations omitted). A debtor's "pre-petition business practices and conduct" are the primary focus of the vertical analysis. Id. Under the horizontal dimension test, courts analyze "whether, from an industry-wide perspective, the transaction is of the sort commonly undertaken by companies in that industry." Id.

25. Application of the vertical and horizontal tests to the Debtors' employment and compensation of the Ordinary Course Professionals demonstrates that the Debtors' actions should be considered ordinary course transactions pursuant to section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. With regard to the vertical dimension test, the Debtors' employment and compensation of the Ordinary Course Professionals is consistent with the Debtors' pre-petition business practices. The Debtors utilize the services of each of the Initial Ordinary Course Professionals in connection with the day-to-day operation of the Debtors' businesses. Further, the Debtors' creditors may reasonably assume that the operation of the Debtors' businesses requires the assistance of various nonbankruptcy professionals in connection with legal, tax, accounting, regulatory, and other matters.

26. With regard to the horizontal dimension test, it is standard practice for companies in the energy industry to utilize the services provided by the Ordinary Course Professionals in connection with day-to-day operations. Therefore, employment and compensation of the Ordinary Course Professionals satisfies both the horizontal and vertical tests and is therefore consistent with section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. The Ordinary Course Professionals Are Not Professionals Under Section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code.

27. The Ordinary Course Professionals are not "professional persons" within the meaning of section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and, therefore, should not be subject to its requirements. Under section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor "with the court's approval, may employ one or more attorneys, accountants, appraisers, auctioneers, or other professional persons . . . to represent or assist the [debtor] in carrying out the [debtor's] duties under this title." 11 U.S.C. § 327(a) (emphasis added).

28. "[N]ot all individuals normally considered as professionals are deemed professionals for purposes of section 327." U.S. ex rel. Kraft v. Aetna Cas. & Sur. Co., 43 B.R. 119, 121 (M.D. Tenn. 1984); see also, e.g., In re Napoleon, 233 B.R. 910, 913 (Bankr. D.N.J. 1999) (explaining that "it is not enough that the party be a professional by education or training" but that "he or she must also play an integral role in the administration of the bankruptcy case" to be considered a "professional person" under section 327(a)). Section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code only requires the court's approval of a professional "to represent or assist the trustee in carrying out the trustee's duties under this title." Therefore, courts have required that the professional person's employment must specifically relate to the administration of the bankruptcy case, as opposed to the ordinary course operation of the debtor's business. See, e.g., In re Napoleon, 233 B.R. at 913.

29. Furthermore, the professional person's employment must be "central" to the administration of the estate, and section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code should only apply if the professional will play an intimate role in the reorganization of the debtor's estate. In re Napoleon, 233 B.R. at 913; see also, e.g., In re Livore, 473 B.R. 864, 870 (Bankr. D.N.J. 2012) (holding that the employed party was not a professional person requiring retention under section 327(a) because he "did not play an integral role in the administration of the bankruptcy case"); In re Zais Inv. Grade Ltd. VII, No. 11-20243 (RTL), 2011 WL 4543215, at *2 (Bankr. D.N.J. Sept. 26, 2011) ("This court is of the opinion that court approval is not required for the Debtor to engage Cayman Islands counsel for such non-bankruptcy legal services and to compensate the professional in accordance with prior practices.").

30. If the debtor is not seeking to employ a professional because of a need that arose incident to the bankruptcy, section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code should not apply, regardless of whether the professional's services are important to the debtor's business. See In re Livore, 473 B.R.at 870; In re Zais Inves. Grade Ltd. VII, at *2; see also In re Johns–Manville Corp., 60 B.R. 612, 621 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986) (lobbyists retained to perform services in the ordinary course of debtor's business "performed a function completely external to the reorganization process" and therefore were not professional persons requiring retention under section 327(a)); In re Seatrain Lines, Inc., 13 B.R. 980 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1981) (holding that maritime engineers employed in the course of Debtor's business would "play an important role in the mechanics of [Debtor's] operation,” but were not professionals requiring retention under section 327(a) because their retention would not “affect the administration of [Debtor’s] reorganization.”).

31. Although the Ordinary Course Professionals provide valuable services for the Debtors, their employment is not central to the Debtors’ reorganization process. Furthermore, it could hinder the administration of the Debtors’ estates if the Debtors were required (a) to submit to the Court an application, declaration, and proposed retention order for each Ordinary Course Professional, (b) to wait until such order is approved before such Ordinary Course Professional continues to render services, or (c) to withhold payment of the normal fees and expenses of the Ordinary Course Professionals until they comply with the compensation and reimbursement procedures applicable to Chapter 11 Professionals.

32. Under such conditions, there is a risk that some Ordinary Course Professionals would be unwilling to provide services, and that others would suspend services, pending a specific court order authorizing the services. Since many of the matters for which the Ordinary Course Professionals provide services are active on a day-to-day basis, any delay or need to replace professionals could have adverse consequences on the Debtors’ estates. For example, if the expertise and background knowledge of the Ordinary Course Professionals with respect to the particular matters for which they were responsible prior to the Petition Date were lost, the estates undoubtedly would incur additional and unnecessary expenses because the Debtors would have to retain other professionals without such background and expertise, at potentially higher rates. It is therefore in the best interest of the Debtors’ estates to avoid any disruption to the professional services required.

33. Moreover, the requested relief will allow the Debtors to avoid additional fees that such Ordinary Course Professionals would charge in connection with preparing and prosecuting numerous interim fee applications. Likewise, the procedures set forth above will relieve the Court, the U.S. Trustee, and other interested parties of the burden of reviewing a multitude of fee applications involving relatively small amounts of fees and expenses.

34. To the best of the Debtors' knowledge, none of the Initial Ordinary Course Professionals represents or holds any interest materially adverse to the Debtors or to their estates with respect to the matter in which the Debtors employ such Ordinary Course Professional(s). Although certain of the Initial Ordinary Course Professionals may hold unsecured claims against one or more of the Debtors, the Debtors do not believe that any of such claims constitute interests materially adverse to the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, or other parties in interest.

35. Courts in this district have consistently granted similar relief in other chapter 11 cases. See e.g., In re New Rite Aid, LLC., No. 25-14861 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. June, 9, 2025) [Docket No. 770]; In re Sam Ash Music Corp., No. 24-14727 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 5, 2024) [Docket No. 199]; In re Invitae Corp., No. 24-11362 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. May 9, 2024) [Docket No. 466]; In re Thrasio Holdings, Inc., No. 24-11840 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. Apr. 4, 2024) [Docket No. 300]; In re Careismatic Brands, LLC, No. 24-10561 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 29, 2024) [Docket No. 329]; In re Rite Aid Corp., No. 23-18993 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Dec. 20, 2023) [Docket No. 1138].

C. Retroactive Relief is Appropriate.

36. The Debtors request that the employment of the Ordinary Course Professionals be approved retroactively to the Petition Date, or in the case of Additional Ordinary Course Professionals, retroactively to the date of the filing of the Supplement or the applicable date of the engagement. The Debtors filed this Motion as a precautionary measure to avoid any later controversy about employing and paying the Ordinary Course Professionals during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases. Therefore, granting the relief requested in this Motion retroactive to the Petition Date will not prejudice any party in interest. Furthermore, even if the Ordinary Course Professionals were subject to the requirements of section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court would have the authority to approve retroactive relief. See, e.g., In re Arkansas Co., Inc., 798 F.2d 645, 648 (3d Cir. 1986) (holding “that the bankruptcy courts have the power to authorize retroactive employment of counsel and other professionals under their broad equity power”). The Debtors acknowledge that the Arkansas case limits nunc pro tunc approval to cases involving extraordinary circumstances, courts have recognized that such “heightened showing” of extraordinary circumstances only applies “when there has been a months-long delay before seeking approval.” City of Rockford v. Mallinckrodt Plc (In re Mallinckrodt Plc), No. 21-398-LPS, 2022 WL 906451, at *22 (Bankr. D. Del. March 28, 2022); see also, e.g., In re Sound Radio, Inc., 145 B.R. 193, 205 n.18 (Bankr. D.N.J. 1992) (explaining that another court “held that thirty days from the commencement of the case . . . is the outer limit” for obtaining court approval and after that, “the applicant must show a reasonable explanation for the delay”) (citing In re Martin, 102 B.R. 653 (Bankr. W.D. Tenn. 1989)).

37. As this Court is aware, the Debtors have been working around the clock since the Petition Date to stabilize their operations, maintain client relations both in the U.S. and abroad, and to negotiate the terms of both a stalking horse offer and emergency DIP financing. The Debtors have also had to address multiple emergency motions which included, among others, the Emergency Adequate Protection Motion [Docket Nos. 117, 119] and the Ad Hoc Customer Group Emergency Adequate Protection Motion [Docket Nos. 297, 299] and worked tirelessly to timely prepare and file the schedules and statements [Docket Nos. 414-437] in advance of the section 341 meeting that was conducted on July 23, 2025. As a result, it has taken some time for the Debtors’ to gather the relevant information needed to complete this Motion and to explain the Ordinary Course Professionals procedures to the Ordinary Course Professionals, some of which have not been involved in a Chapter 11 case before. Accordingly, for these reasons, the Debtors submit that retroactive relief is appropriate and just in these circumstances.

38. Based on the foregoing facts and circumstances, the Debtors submit that the employment and compensation of the Ordinary Course Professionals in the manner set forth above and in the Proposed Order is supported by sound business judgment, and is necessary, prudent, and in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and their creditors.

V. WAIVER OF BANKRUPTCY RULE 6004(A) AND (H)

39. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors seek a waiver of the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the 14-day stay of an order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

VI. WAIVER OF MEMORANDUM OF LAW

40. The Debtors respectfully request that the Court waive the requirement to file a separate memorandum of law pursuant to Local Rule 9013-1(a)(3) because the legal basis upon which the Debtors rely is set forth herein and the Motion does not raise any novel issues of law.

VII. NO PRIOR REQUEST

41. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this Court or any other court.

VIII. NOTICE

42. Pursuant to Local Rule 9013-5(c), notice of this Motion shall be given to the following parties: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee; (b) counsel for the Debtors' Prepetition Secured Parties; (c) counsel to the Committee; and (d) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. . The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

IX. CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request entry of the Proposed Order (i) granting the relief requested herein; and (ii) granting the Debtors such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

2. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to employ and retain the Ordinary Course Professionals listed on Exhibit 1 attached hereto (the “Initial Ordinary Course Professionals” or, the “Initial OCP Lists”), and any Additional Ordinary Course Professional (as defined in the Motion and paragraph 4 of this Order, and collectively with the Initial Ordinary Course Professionals, the “Ordinary Course Professionals”), without the need to file individual retention applications and obtain retention orders for each such Ordinary Course Professional. The Debtors are further authorized, but not directed, to pay such Ordinary Course Professionals’ fees, including, if necessary, advancing any reasonable postpetition retainer to the Ordinary Course Professional, and to reimburse expenses incurred pursuant to the terms of this Order. Any advancement of a reasonable postpetition retainer to an Ordinary Course Professional shall be subject to notice being provided to the Notice Parties (defined below) prior to any advancement with an opportunity to object within seven (7) days of service of such notice. the applicable Objection Deadline (as defined below) has passed before submitting invoices to the Debtors.

4. Debtors are authorized, after consultation with the Committee, without need for further hearing or order from the Court, to employ and retain ordinary course professionals not currently listed on the Initial OCP Lists (the “Additional Ordinary Course Professionals”) by filing with the Court, and serving on the Notice Parties, a supplement to the Initial OCP Lists (the “Supplement”), which shall list the name of the Additional Ordinary Course Professional and provide a brief description of the services to be rendered by and the Monthly Fee Cap applicable to such professional, and by otherwise complying with the terms of this Order. Such authorization is effective retroactive to the date of the filing of the Supplement or the applicable date of engagement. At least fourteen (14) days before submitting invoices to the Debtors, and within thirty (30) days of the filing of such Supplement, each Additional Ordinary Course Professional shall provide to the Debtors and the Debtors’ Counsel an OCP Declaration and Retention Questionnaire, and the Debtors will file such documents with the Court and serve a copy upon the Notice Parties.

5. All parties in interest shall have fourteen (14) days after the later of (i) the entry of this Order, or (ii) the service of any OCP Declaration and Retention Questionnaire (the “Objection Deadline”) to object to the retention of any Ordinary Course Professional. Any such objections shall be filed with the Court and served upon the Debtors, the Notice Parties, and the Ordinary Course Professional subject to such objection by the Objection Deadline. If a timely filed objection cannot be resolved or withdrawn within fourteen (14) days of service of such objection (or on such earlier date as determined by the Debtors in their discretion), then, upon request by the Debtors, such objection shall be scheduled for hearing before the Court on the next regularly scheduled hearing date or such other date that may be agreeable to the Ordinary Course Professional, the Debtors, and the objecting party. If no objection is received on or before the Objection Deadline, or if any submitted objection is timely withdrawn or resolved, the Debtors shall be authorized to retain the Ordinary Course Professional as a final matter without further order of the Court, as of the Petition Date or the applicable date of engagement.

6. The Debtors shall not pay any fees nor reimburse any expenses (nor shall any Ordinary Course Professional draw down any previously provided retainer) to any Ordinary Course Professional unless and until (a) the Ordinary Course Professional has submitted its OCP Declaration and Retention Questionnaire to the Debtors; (b) such OCP Declaration and Retention Questionnaire have been filed with the Court and served on the Notice Parties; (c) the Objection Deadline has expired; and (d) no timely objection is pending. If a timely objection is received, no payment nor reimbursement shall be made until such objection is either resolved, withdrawn, or otherwise overruled by the Court.

7. Debtors are authorized to pay each Ordinary Course Professional retained in accordance with the procedures outlined above 100% of the fees and 100% of the disbursements incurred with respect to postpetition services, upon the submission to, and approval by, the Debtors of an appropriate invoice, a copy of which shall be promptly provided to the U.S. Trustee and counsel to the Committee upon request, setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of the services rendered and expenses actually incurred during the month, without prejudice and subject to (i) the Debtors' right to dispute any such invoices in the ordinary course and (ii) the rights of the Notice Parties to file an Ordinary Course Professional Fee Objection (defined below) in accordance with paragraph 12 hereof; provided, however, that each Ordinary Course Professional's total compensation and reimbursement shall not exceed the Monthly Fee Cap set forth in the Initial OCP Lists, or in any Supplement, as applicable, on average over any three month period on a rolling basis; provided, further, that the Debtors shall not pay any Ordinary Course Professional in excess of their applicable aggregate fee cap set forth in Exhibit 1 hereto (the "Aggregate Fee Cap") during the course of these Chapter 11 Cases except as otherwise authorized by the Court under the procedures outlined in paragraphs 8–10 of this Order.

8. The Debtors shall have the authority to change the Monthly Fee Cap and Aggregate Fee Cap applicable to any given Ordinary Course Professional upon fourteen (14) calendar days' notice to the Notice Parties, subject to objection by the Notice Parties. In addition, in the event the duration of these Chapter 11 Cases is longer than seven (7) months from the date of entry of the Order, the Aggregate Fee Cap for each Ordinary Course Professional that has been retained, may be increased by agreement of the U.S. Trustee and the Committee or by order of the Court. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the aggregate fees to be paid to Ordinary Course Professionals pursuant to the Order shall not exceed $1,000,000 (the "Overall Aggregate Case Cap"). The Overall Aggregate Case Cap may be increased by agreement of the U.S. Trustee and the Committee or by order of the Court.

9. If an Ordinary Course Professional's fees and expenses exceed the applicable Monthly Fee Cap over a three-month rolling basis, such Ordinary Course Professional shall file a fee application in compliance with sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code and applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the U.S. Trustee Fee Guidelines (defined below) and any other procedures and orders of the Court. Such Ordinary Course Professional shall
