Cost basis information is not updated and may be incomplete until the day after any sales, purchases, or adjustments.

Due to rounding, there may be a small difference (pennies) between the total amounts that appear on this page and your tax forms for each account.

Your "cost basis" related to any security you hold refers to the price you paid for that security and can be adjusted by items such as return of capital, commission, or transaction fees. Please visit our website for more detailed information on cost basis. When "covered" securities are sold, Vanguard reports the cost basis to you and the IRS; however, when "noncovered" securities are sold, Vanguard does not report the cost basis to the IRS. You are responsible for tracking and reporting the cost basis of your securities. In cases where the cost basis of a security is unknown, Vanguard will assume a cost basis of zero; therefore, the lot's gain will be equal to the proceeds. Please visit our website for more detailed information on "covered" and "noncovered" securities. Vanguard does not provide tax advice. Please contact your tax advisor with questions related to cost basis or other tax matters.
