Case No. 24- 11054 (___)

(Joint Administration Requested)

DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF INTERIM AND FINAL ORDERS (I) AUTHORIZING, BUT NOT DIRECTING, THE DEBTORS TO (A) PAY PREPETITION WAGES, COMPENSATION, EMPLOYEE BENEFITS, AND OTHER EMPLOYEE OBLIGATIONS AND (B) CONTINUE CERTAIN EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PROGRAMS IN THE ORDINARY COURSE; (II) AUTHORIZING ALL BANKS TO HONOR PREPETITION CHECKS FOR PAYMENT OF PREPETITION EMPLOYEE OBLIGATIONS; AND (III) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), seek entry of interim and final orders, substantially in the forms attached hereto as Exhibit A and Exhibit B (the “Proposed Interim Order” and the “Proposed Final Order”, respectively), (i) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to (a) pay prepetition wages, compensation, employee benefits, and other employee obligations and (b) continue certain employee benefit programs in the ordinary course; (ii) authorizing all banks to honor prepetition checks for payment of prepetition employee obligations; and (iii) granting other related relief. In support of this motion (this “Motion”), the Debtors respectfully state as follows:

<sup>1</sup> The Debtors in these chapter 11 proceedings, together with the last four digits of each Debtor’s federal tax identification number, are: Supply Source Enterprises, Inc. (0842); SSE Acquisition Holdings, Inc. (2234); SSE Intermediate, Inc. (1772); Impact Products, LLC (7450); and The Safety Zone, LLC (4597). ## JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (this “Court”) has jurisdiction over the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (these “Chapter 11 Cases”), the Debtors, property of the Debtors’ estates, and these matters under 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

2. Pursuant to rule 9013-1(f) of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Local Rules”), the Debtors consent to the entry of a final judgment or order with respect to this Motion if it is determined that this Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue of these Chapter 11 Cases in this district is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

4. The statutory bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a), 362, 363, 363, 507(a), and 541 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), rules 6003 and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and Local Rule 9013-1.

GENERAL BACKGROUND

5. On the date hereof (the “Petition Date”), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief pursuant to chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors have also filed a motion requesting joint administration of these Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). The Debtors are operating their business and managing their properties, as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made, and no official committees have been appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases.

6. The Debtors are leading distributors of branded and private label personal protective equipment and janitorial, safety, hygiene, and sanitation products. The Debtors' key products fall into the categories of gloves, core cleaning, safety, and food service. Working directly with suppliers and vendors in the United States and Asia, the Debtors source, supply, and ship their products to a diverse customer base, including janitorial and sanitation providers, supply distributors, safety products resellers and wholesalers, and food service and food processing distributors and retailers. Additionally, the Debtors offer advanced customization capabilities, hot stamping, pad printing, and silk-screening labeling services for unique design, logo, or packaging specification requested by customers.

7. Additional factual background regarding the Debtors, including their business operations, their corporate and capital structure, and the events leading to the filing of these Chapter 11 Cases is set forth in detail in the Declaration of Thomas Studebaker in Support of Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Motions (the "First Day Declaration"), which is incorporated herein by reference.<sup>2</sup>

RELIEF REQUESTED

8. The Debtors seek entry of the Proposed Interim Order and the Proposed Final Order, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 105(a), 362, 363, 507(a), and 541, authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to (i) pay the Employee Obligations (as defined below) in an aggregate amount not to exceed $1,472,500 on an interim basis, and $1,492,500 on a final basis, (ii) honor and continue the Employee Programs (as defined below) in the ordinary course of business until further notice, and (iii) granting related relief.

---

9. To assist in implementing the relief requested, the Debtors also request an order (i) authorizing the Debtors' banks to receive, process, honor, and pay all of the Debtors' prepetition checks and to fund transfers on account of any Employee Obligations to the extent sufficient funds are available and (ii) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to issue new postpetition checks or effect new postpetition fund transfers on account of the Employee Obligations to replace any prepetition checks or fund transfers that may be dishonored or rejected.

FACTS RELEVANT TO THIS MOTION

10. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors employ 275 employees (the "Employees"), all of which are employed within the United States. Of this total, 96 Employees are full-time salaried employees and 179 are hourly Employees.

11. The Employees provide a variety of essential functions, including management and leadership, warehouse and logistics operations, sales and customer service, finance and accounting, IT and data management, human resources, and production and operations management. The Employees include personnel that are intimately familiar with the Debtors' business, many of whom have developed relationships with the Debtors' customers, suppliers, and key constituents essential to the Debtors' business. Thus, the Employees are essential to the effective operation of the Debtors' business and their ability to maximize value during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases.

12. In the ordinary course of their business, the Debtors maintain the following compensation and benefit programs and pay various administrative fees in connection therewith

(collectively, the “Employee Programs” and the obligations to the Employees thereunder are the “Employee Obligations,” as more fully described below).<sup>3</sup>

13. For an Employee to be eligible for most Employee Programs, the Employee must have worked an average of 30 hours per week, or 1,560 total hours, during a twelve month look back period (the “Benefits Threshold”). If an Employee meets the Benefits Threshold, they will be eligible for the next plan year. If an Employee does not meet the Benefits Threshold, they will not be eligible for benefits for the next plan year. If an Employee does not meet the Benefits Threshold, they are only eligible to participate in the 401(k) Plan, Employee Assistance Program, and Holiday Pay (as defined below).

14. To effectuate a successful chapter 11 process, and continue operating within these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors need the Employees’ continued commitment and support. Therefore, the Debtors are requesting the relief set forth in this Motion to minimize any hardship to the Employees resulting from the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors must take all necessary steps to retain the Employees and bolster their morale to preserve and maximize the value of the Debtors’ estates.

15. Accordingly, the Debtors seek authority to pay and honor their prepetition Employee Obligations, each as further detailed below, in the following amounts:

Employee Obligations	Interim Amount	Final Amount
Wages	$200,000	$200,000
Payroll Processor Fees	$30,000	$50,000
Withholdings	$175,000	$175,000
401(K) Plan	$100,000	$100,000

<sup>3</sup> The summary of the Employee Obligations provided herein is qualified entirely by the Debtors’ official policies or other practices, programs, or agreements, whether written or unwritten, evidencing an arrangement among the Debtors and their Employees (each, an “Official Policy”). In the event of any inconsistency or ambiguity between the summary contained herein and an Official Policy, the terms of such Official Policy shall govern, but, for the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall the Debtors make any prepetition payments or honor any prepetition obligations other than what is authorized by the Court after consideration of this Motion.

Contractors and Staffing Obligations	$25,000	$25,000
PTO Program	$750,000	$750,000
Severance Program	$35,000	$35,000
Reimbursable Expenses	$50,000	$50,000
Health Insurance Plans	$25,000	$25,000
Wellness Programs	$2,500	$2,500
Disability and Life and AD&D Programs	$5,000	$5,000
Incentive Programs	$75,000	$75,000
Total:	$1,472,500	$1,492,500

16. The Debtors will not pay any individual Employee an amount in excess of the $15,150 limit contained in section 507(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Priority Cap”) on account of prepetition Employee Obligations without further order of this Court.

A. Employee Compensation.

i. Employee Wages.

17. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors pay their Employees on a biweekly basis (the “Wages”). The Debtors’ payroll obligations are approximately $2,750,000 per month, including Withholdings (defined below). The Debtors’ next payroll is due May 24, 2024; however, the Debtors’ have prefunded payroll obligations through May 19, 2024.

18. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that there is approximately $200,000 outstanding in prepetition obligations owed on account of the Wages, all of which will become payable during the first 30 days in these Chapter 11 Cases (the “Interim Period”). The Debtors request authority to pay the prepetition Wages outstanding, as well as continue to pay Wages in the ordinary course of business.

ii. Payroll Processing Fees.

19. The Debtors’ payroll process is administered through Automatic Data Processing, Inc. (“ADP”). In the ordinary course, ADP draws the Wages from the Debtors’ bank account ending in 5539 (the “Payroll Account”) one day prior to distributing the funds to Employees. The next draw scheduled to be made from the Payroll Account for the Wages is scheduled for May 23, 2024.

20. The Debtors pay service fees of approximately $30,000 per month in arrears to ADP (the “Payroll Processor Fees”) on account of the administration of Employee payroll. The Debtors owe approximately $50,000 in prepetition arrears on account of the Payroll Processor Fees, $30,000 of which will come due during the Interim Period. The Debtors request authority to (i) pay the Payroll Processor Fees incurred prepetition and (ii) continue to pay the Payroll Processor Fees as they become due in the ordinary course.

iii. Social Security, Income Taxes, and Other Withholdings.

21. In connection with paying wages and salaries, the Debtors routinely withhold from Employees’ Wages amounts that the Debtors are required to transmit to third parties (“Withholdings”). Examples of such Withholdings include, without limitation, FICA (Social Security and Medicare), federal, state, and local income taxes, garnishments, health care payments, and certain voluntary payroll deductions. Typically, total Withholdings are approximately $500,000 per pay period, including both the Debtors’ obligations and the Employees’ obligations. Such Withholdings, to the extent that they remain in the Debtors’ possession, constitute monies held in trust and, therefore, are not property of the Debtors’ estates. Accordingly, the Debtors hereby request authority to continue deducting and remitting amounts to the appropriate third parties, as applicable, in a manner consistent with historical practice for any unpaid Withholdings, as of the Petition Date, and to continue to honor the Withholdings in the ordinary course on a postpetition basis and consistent with past practice.

22. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that there is approximately $175,000 outstanding in prepetition obligations owed on account of the Withholdings, all of which will become due during the Interim Period. The Debtors request authority to remit these amounts to the appropriate third parties, as applicable, on account of the unremitted prepetition Withholdings.

iv. The 401(k) Plan.

23. The Debtors sponsor a 401(k) retirement savings plan (the “401(k) Plan”) for eligible Employees. The 401(k) Plan provides for pre-tax salary deductions of compensation up to limits established under the Internal Revenue Code. The 401(k) Plan is administered by Transamerica Corporation (“Transamerica”).

24. Employee participants in the 401(k) Plan have contributions deducted from their payroll based on predetermined contribution amounts (the “401(k) Employee Contributions”). These amounts are held in trust by the Debtors until remitted to the 401(k) Plan by Transamerica.

25. The Debtors provide a safe harbor matching contribution (the “401(k) Debtor Contributions”) of up to 100% of an Employee’s 401(k) Employee Contribution, not to exceed 3% of an Employee’s total eligible compensation. The Employee’s 401(k) Employee Contribution vests upon contribution, whereas the 401(k) Debtor Contributions vest after 3 years.

26. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors anticipate approximately $100,000 in prepetition obligations are owed on account of the 401(k) Plan, all of which will become due during the Interim Period. The Debtors request authority to pay the accrued prepetition contributions and to continue to pay amounts on account of the 401(k) Plan as they become due in the ordinary course of business.

v. Contracting Obligations.

27. The Debtors utilize various independent contractors (the “Contractors”) to perform certain human resource, office maintenance, and delivery services important to the Debtors’ operations.<sup>4</sup> The Debtors occasionally rely on the support of the Contractors to complete discrete projects in furtherance of the Debtors’ business.

28. The average monthly expense for the Contractors is approximately $10,000 depending on the Debtors’ needs and the project (the “Contracting Obligations”). As of the Petition Date, the Debtors anticipate owing $25,000 in prepetition obligations on account of the Contracting Obligations, all of which will become due during the Interim Period. The Debtors request authority to (i) pay all prepetition amounts owed on account of the Contracting Obligations and (ii) continue paying the Contracting Obligations in the ordinary course of business.

B. Other Employee Compensation.

29. In addition to Wages, the Debtors offer their Employees other forms of compensation, including paid holidays and personal days (i.e., vacation or illness). The Debtors also reimburse certain business expenses incurred by Employees. These forms of compensation are usual, customary, and necessary if the Debtors are to retain qualified Employees to continue operating in the normal course during these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors request authority, but not direction, to honor outstanding prepetition obligations with respect to PTO and expense

<sup>4</sup> Certain independent contractors and requested relief to make certain prepetition payments on account of those independent contractors are covered by the Debtors’ Motion For Entry Of Interim And Final Orders (I) Authorizing The Debtors To (A) Honor Certain Prepetition Obligations To Customers And (B) Otherwise Continue Certain Customer Programs In The Ordinary Course Of Business;(II) Authorizing Banks To Honor Payments On Account Of Such Certain Prepetition Obligations Related To Customer Programs; And (III) Granting Related Relief, filed concurrently with this Motion.

reimbursements, as further described below, in the ordinary course of business, subject to the Debtors' discretion and applicable restrictions under the Debtors' policies.

i. Holiday Time Off.

30. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors grant eligible warehouse Employees eight days and non-warehouse Employees ten days of paid holidays per year ("Holiday Pay"). Full-time, non-exempt Employees are paid an amount equal to a full day of their regular pay for Holiday Pay. All regular, part-time non-exempt Employees are eligible to earn Holiday Pay if the holiday falls on their regularly scheduled workday. Holiday Pay does not accrue and cannot be carried over into following years. Accordingly, the Debtors request authority, but not direction, to honor their Holiday Pay program in the ordinary course of these Chapter 11 Cases.

ii. PTO Program.

31. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors grant eligible Employees between 40 hours and 240 hours of paid time off ("PTO") per year, depending on the Employee's organizational level and tenure with the Debtors (the "PTO Program"). The Debtors' PTO Program is an all-purpose time off policy and is in accordance with applicable local and federal laws.

32. The Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $750,000 in prepetition accrued obligations under the PTO Program, all of which may come due in the Interim Period. The Debtors' request authority to (i) out of an abundance of caution, pay the prepetition amounts accrued as they become payable under the PTO Program and (ii) continue to honor obligations under the PTO Program as they become due in the ordinary course of these Chapter 11 Cases.

iii. Other Time-Off Policies.

33. The Debtors maintain policies governing requests by eligible Employees for time off from work, whether paid or unpaid, as the result of, among other things, bereavement leave, voting time, jury duty, family and medical leave, and other leaves of absences in compliance with applicable federal and state laws. The Debtors seek authority, but not direction, to continue to honor their additional time-off policies in the ordinary course of business during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases.

iv. Severance Program.

34. The Debtors maintain a severance policy in the ordinary course of business (the “Severance Program”). An Employee’s Severance Program eligibility is based on the Employee’s length of employment with the Debtors. Employees may receive two weeks of base pay for every full year of service with the Debtors as of their termination date, less ordinary and necessary payroll deductions. Employees with less than one year of service receive a minimum of two weeks base pay and employees with more than one year of service receive a minimum of four weeks base pay. The maximum allowed severance is 26 weeks.

35. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors anticipate approximately $35,000 in prepetition Severance Program obligations to come due during the Interim Period. The Debtors request authority, but not direction, to pay the prepetition amounts and honor the Severance Program in the ordinary course of business during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases.

v. Reimbursable Expenses.

36. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors routinely reimburse eligible Employees for certain reasonable expenses incurred within the scope of their employment, including expenses for travel, lodging, ground transportation, meals, supplies, and other business expenses (collectively, the “Reimbursable Expenses”). The Debtors require Employees to submit claims for reimbursement within a timely manner after the expense is incurred. The Employees may charge the Reimbursable Expenses to their personal credit cards and submit a request for reimbursement from the Debtors. Additionally, the Debtors maintain 15 company credit cards, which are held by various Employees.

37. The Debtors believe that payment of the Reimbursable Expenses is important to the morale of the Debtors’ workforce, which, in turn, is critical to maintaining operations during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases. Absent payment of the Reimbursable Expenses, the Debtors would encounter difficulties with retention of their Employees, who are the key to the Debtors’ ability to continue operating during these Chapter 11 Cases. The Reimbursable Expenses represent a relatively minimal cost to the Debtors’ estates in light of the overall benefits achieved.

38. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $50,000 in Reimbursable Expenses, all of which will become payable during the Interim Period. Requiring Employees to personally bear the cost of any approved, business-related expenses incurred in furtherance of their responsibilities to the Debtors would significantly impair Employee morale. Accordingly, to avoid harm to the Debtors’ business, the Debtors seek authority, but not direction, to pay all outstanding prepetition Reimbursable Expenses and to continue honoring their expense reimbursement policy in the ordinary course of business.

C. Health and Welfare Programs.

39. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors have established standard and customary plans and policies to provide their eligible Employees with health benefits, including medical, prescription drug, dental, vision, access to a healthcare flexible spending account and health savings account, life insurance, workers' compensation insurance, and other ancillary benefits programs (collectively, the "Health and Welfare Programs").

i. Health Insurance Benefits.

40. The Debtors offer eligible Employees and their dependents with medical and prescription healthcare plans (the "Medical Plan") through Blue Cross Blue Shield of Tennessee, Inc. (the "Medical Insurance Provider"). The Debtors pay an average of approximately $250,000 per month to the Medical Insurance Provider for premiums and administration fees on account of the Medical Plan. Such amounts are usually paid by the Debtors at the beginning of each month. The Debtors also offer eligible Employees health, dependent, and limited flexible spending account plans through the Medical Insurance Provider (the "FSA Plans"), as well as a health savings account plan (the "HSA Plan") through Optum Bank.

41. In addition, the Debtors offer eligible Employees and their dependents a dental plan (the "Dental Plan") administered by Metropolitan Life Insurance Company ("MetLife"). The Debtors pay an average of approximately $15,000 on a monthly basis to MetLife for premiums in connection with the Dental Plan.

42. The Debtors also offer Employees and their dependents a vision plan (the "Vision Plan," and collectively with the Medical Plan and Dental Plan, the "Health Insurance Plans"), which is administered by EyeMed Vision Care ("EyeMed"). The Debtors pay approximately $2,000 on a monthly basis to EyeMed for premiums in connection with the Vision Plan.

43. Each of the Health Insurance Plans is important to the maintenance of Employee welfare and morale and is therefore critical to the uninterrupted operation of the Debtors' business. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors owe approximately $25,000 in prepetition amounts on account of the Health Insurance Plans, all of which will come due during the Interim Period. The Debtors request authority to (i) pay the outstanding prepetition obligations on account of the Health Insurance Plans and (ii) continue to honor the Health Insurance Plans in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis.

ii. Employee Wellness Programs.

44. In addition to the Health Insurance Plans, the Debtors offer various wellness and counseling resources to eligible Employees. The Debtors offer an Employee Assistance Program (the “Employee Assistance Program”) through Magellan Health, Inc. (“Magellan”), which provides Employees and their dependents access to mental health counselors, legal assistance, health education resources, and more. In addition to the Employee Assistance Program, the Debtors offer Employees access to a legal services plan through MetLife, auto and home insurance coverage through Farmers GroupSelect<sup>SM</sup>, student loan refinancing assistance through Social Finance, LLC, and an identity protection program through Allstate Identity Protection (together with the Employee Assistance Program, the “Wellness Programs”).

45. The Debtors pay an average of approximately $10,000 on a monthly basis for the Wellness Programs. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors anticipate approximately $2,500 in prepetition amounts are owed on account of the Wellness Programs, all of which will come due during the Interim Period. The Debtors request authority to (i) pay the outstanding prepetition obligations on account of the Wellness Programs, and (ii) continue to honor the Wellness Programs in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis.

iii. Disability and Life and AD&D Benefits.

46. The Debtors offer eligible Employees access to short and long-term disability plans (the “Disability Plans”) at no additional cost to the Employees. In addition to the Disability Plans, the Debtors offer eligible Employees the option to purchase (a) basic life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance that pays benefits to the Employee's beneficiary in the event of a covered accident or death and (b) optional life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance that provides additional coverage in the event of a covered accident or death (collectively with the Disability Plans, the "Disability and Life and AD&D Programs"). The provider for each of the Disability and Life and AD&D Programs is the Hartford Financial Services Group, Inc. ("Hartford"). The Debtors pay approximately $15,000 monthly to Hartford to administer the Disability and Life and AD&D Programs.

47. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors owe approximately $5,000 in prepetition obligations on account of the Disability and Life and AD&D Programs, all of which will come due during the Interim Period. The Debtors request authority to (i) pay the outstanding prepetition obligations on account of the Disability and Life and AD&D Programs and (ii) continue to honor the Disability and Life and AD&D Programs in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis.

D. Workers' Compensation Program.<sup>5</sup>

48. The Debtors also provide eligible Employees with workers' compensation insurance (the "Workers' Compensation Program"), which is provided by American Casualty Company of Reading, Pennsylvania and National Fire Insurance Company of Hartford, a Stock Insurance Company. The Debtors pay premiums and related fees on account of the Workers' Compensation Program on a monthly basis in arrears. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not believe there are any outstanding claims or prepetition obligations owed on account of the Workers' Compensation Program.

<sup>5</sup> Concurrently herewith, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry Of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing Them To (A) Maintain Insurance Policies and Surety Bonds and Honor Obligations Thereunder, and (B) Renew, Amend, Supplement, Extend, or Purchase New Insurance Policies and Surety Bonds, and (II) Granting Related Relief (the "Insurance Motion"). To the extent not covered under the Insurance Motion, the Debtors hereby reincorporate and restate the relief requested in the Insurance Motion only as it pertains to the Workers' Compensation Program and the ability to continue funding the Workers' Compensation insurance policy in the ordinary course of these Chapter 11 Cases.

49. The Debtors may be statutorily or contractually obligated to maintain the Workers' Compensation Program, and their inability to do so may result in adverse legal consequences that potentially could disrupt the reorganization process. The Workers' Compensation Program is similarly critical to maintaining Employee morale. The Debtors respectfully request authority to: (a) pay any prepetition amounts owed on account of the Workers' Compensation Program that may come due during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases; (b) modify the automatic stay solely to permit Employees to proceed with their workers' compensation claims in the appropriate judicial or administrative forum; and (c) pay all workers' compensation obligations, including any outstanding insurance premiums, as they become due in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business.

E. Non-Insider Incentives Programs.

i. Incentive Programs.

50. The Debtors offer a Sales Incentive Plan (the "SIP," and the obligations owed thereunder, the "Non-Insider Incentive Program") to incentivize sales related Employees (the "Sellers") with individual specified sales targets. Sellers are eligible to participate in the SIP after 90 days of employment. Sellers must have an assigned territory, complete the required training, and have a signed agreement with confidentiality and non-compete provisions on file with the Debtors' human resources department to participate in the SIP. Each Seller is assigned individual quarterly targets based on their territory. Bonuses under the SIP are awarded based on achievement of the Seller's quarterly and annual targets. A Seller must achieve 90% of their quarterly target to receive a bonus under the SIP.

51. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe $75,000 in prepetition obligations on account of the Non-Insider Incentive Program, all of which will become due and owing during the Interim Period. The Debtors request authority (i) to pay any amounts owed prepetition on account of the Non-Insider Incentive Program in the Interim Period and (ii) to continue the Non-Insider Incentive Program in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis.

BASIS FOR RELIEF

52. As a result of the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases and in the absence of an order of the Court providing otherwise, the Debtors will be prohibited from paying or otherwise satisfying their prepetition Employee Obligations, and the checks, wire transfers, and direct deposit transfers issued in respect of any such prepetition Employee Obligations would be dishonored. Failing to honor these obligations would have devastating consequences on the Debtors' business and, thus, these Chapter 11 Cases.

I. The Proposed Payment of Employee Obligations Is Warranted Under Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and the Doctrine of Necessity.

53. Under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, a bankruptcy court is empowered to authorize a chapter 11 debtor to expend funds in the Court's discretion outside the ordinary course of business. 11 U.S.C. § 363. Under section 363(b), courts require only that the debtor "show that a sound business purpose justifies such actions." In re Montgomery Ward Holding Corp., 242 B.R. 147, 153 (D. Del. 1999) (requiring that the debtor show a "sound business purpose" to justify its actions under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code) (internal citations omitted); see also In re Phx. Steel Corp., 82 B.R. 334, 335–36 (Bankr. D. Del. 1987) (requiring a "good business reason for a sale under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code”); In re Adelpia Commc’ns Corp., 2003 WL 22316543, at *30 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Mar. 4, 2003) (requiring a “good business reason” for disposition of assets outside of the ordinary course in bankruptcy).

54. Payment of prepetition wage and salary claims to preserve and protect a debtor’s business, maximize value of the estate, and maintain positive employee morale, even if such payments were deemed to be outside the ordinary course of business, is a sufficient business justification for such an authorization. See In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 98 B.R. 174, 175 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989). Accordingly, this Court should grant the requested relief herein under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

55. Even if a particular claim is not entitled to priority, payment is nonetheless justified under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and the well-established “necessity of payment doctrine.” Under the “necessity of payment doctrine” and section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, courts have consistently permitted immediate payment of prepetition obligations where necessary to preserve or enhance the value of a debtor’s estate for the benefit of all creditors, specifically including payment of prepetition employee claims. See, e.g., Miltenberger v. Logansport C. & S.W. Ry. Co., 106 U.S. 286, 312 (1882) (stating that payment of pre-receivership claim prior to reorganization permitted to prevent “stoppage of . . . [crucial] business relations”); see also Gregg v. Metro Trust Co., 197 U.S. 183, 187 (1905) (stating that “the payment of the employees of the [rail]road is more certain to be necessary in order to keep it running than the payment of any other class of previously incurred debts”); Ionosphere, 98 B.R. at 175-76 (finding that payment of prepetition wages, salaries, reimbursable business expenses, and health benefits to active employees of debtor airline authorized). The modern application of the doctrine of necessity is largely unchanged from the Supreme Court’s reasoning in Miltenberger. See In re Lehigh & New

Eng. Ry. Co., 657 F.2d 570, 581-82 (3d Cir. 1981) (“[I]n order to justify payment under the ‘necessity of payment’ rule, a real and immediate threat must exist that failure to pay will place the continued operation of the [debtor] in serious jeopardy.”); see also In re Just for Feet, Inc., 242 B.R. 821, 825 (Bankr. D. Del. 1999) (“The Supreme Court, the Third Circuit and the District of Delaware all recognize the court’s power to authorize payment of pre-petition claims when such payment is necessary for the debtor’s survival during chapter 11.”); In re Columbia Gas Sys., Inc., 171 B.R. 189, 191-92 (Bankr. D. Del. 1994).

56. As described above, the Employees are skilled and experienced, and without whom the Debtors could not operate. Thus, the Debtors’ ability to continue operating depends, in large part, upon the retention and motivation of the Employees. Most of the Debtors’ Employees (and their families) are dependent upon the wages, salaries, reimbursements, and other benefits they receive from the Debtors. Any disruption from Employee resignations or lack of morale could have devastating effects on the Debtors’ restructuring efforts. Indeed, payments which maintain the morale of the Debtors’ workforce add value to the estates because an unplanned reduction in the workforce or productivity could have significant effect on the Debtors’ business operations. Accordingly, it is critical that the Debtors be authorized to honor their Employee Obligations, subject to the limitations described herein.

II. The Proposed Payments of Employee Obligations Do Not Exceed the Statutory Caps Under Section 507 of the Bankruptcy Code.

57. The Debtors believe that all or substantially all of the amounts they seek to pay are entitled to priority under sections 507(a)(4) or (a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 507(a)(4)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code grants priority to employee claims for “wages, salaries, or commissions, including vacation, severance and sick leave pay” earned within 180 days before the filing of the applicable petition up to $15,150 per employee. 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(4). Similarly, section 507(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that claims for contributions to certain employee benefit plans are also afforded priority treatment to the extent of the number of employees covered by each plan multiplied by $15,150, less any amounts paid pursuant to section 507(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code. 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(5). Thus, granting the relief sought herein would affect only the timing, and not the amount, of payment of the Employee Obligations to the extent they constitute priority claims.

III. The Proposed Payment of Withholdings Is Authorized by Section 541 of the Bankruptcy Code.

58. Moreover, a portion of the Employee Obligations constitutes funds held in trust for payment to third parties. Specifically, under Bankruptcy Code section 541, all prepetition legal or equitable interests of a debtor are considered property of the estate subject to certain exclusions. Bankruptcy Code section 541(b)(7) explicitly excludes amounts withheld by an employer from employee wages as employee contributions to employee benefit plans under ERISA and health insurance plans under state law. Thus, the payment of the employee contribution component of the employer taxes or payment of garnished wages will not prejudice the Debtors' estates because such withholdings are held in trust for the benefit of the related payees and, thus, do not constitute property of the Debtors' estates under section 541 of the Bankruptcy Code. See Begier v. IRS, 496 U.S. 53, 57 (1990); In re Am. Int'l Airways, Inc., 70 B.R. 102, 103 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1987) (funds held in trust for federal excise and withholding taxes are not property of debtor's estate and, therefore, not available for distribution to creditors).

59. Courts in this district have routinely granted to chapter 11 debtors the same or similar relief requested in this Motion. See, e.g., In re Restoration Forest Prod. Group, LLC, No. 24-10120 (KBO) (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 22, 2024) (authorizing debtors to continue employee compensation and benefit programs and pay certain prepetition obligations related thereto on a postpetition basis); In re Humanigen Inc., No. 24-10003 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 8, 2024) (same); In re AN Global LLC, No. 23-11294 (JKS) (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 6, 2023) (same); In re The Rockport Co., LLC, No. 23-10774 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. July 10, 2023) (same); In re Tritex Int'l Inc., No. 23-10520 (TMH) (Bankr. D. Del. May 22, 2023) (same).<sup>6</sup>

IV. A Limited Waiver of the Automatic Stay for Workers' Compensation Claims is Appropriate Here.

60. Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code operates to stay:

[T]he commencement or continuation, including the issuance or employment of process, of a judicial, administrative, or other action or proceeding against the debtor that was or could have been commenced before the commencement of the case under this title, or to recover a claim against the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title[.]

11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(1). Section 362(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, however, permits a debtor or other parties in interest to request a modification or termination of the automatic stay for “cause.” Id. at § 362(d)(1).

61. In accordance with section 362(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors seek to modify the automatic stay to permit Employees to proceed with their workers' compensation claims, if any, in the appropriate judicial or administrative forum. Cause exists here to modify the automatic stay because staying the workers' compensation claims could have a detrimental effect on the financial wellbeing and morale of certain Employees and lead to the departure of Employees who are critical at this juncture. Such departures could cause a severe disruption in the Debtors' businesses, which would be to the detriment of all parties in interest.

<sup>6</sup> Because of the voluminous nature of the unreported orders cited herein, they are not annexed to this Motion. Copies of these orders are available upon request.

62. For all the reasons previously set forth herein, the Debtors submit that payment of the Employee Obligations and the continuation of the Employee Programs are necessary to the success of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases and should be authorized by this Court.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

63. Nothing contained herein is intended or shall be construed as (a) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any appropriate party-in-interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors or rights of setoff asserted against the Debtors; (c) a waiver of any claims or causes of action that may exist against any creditor or interest holder; or (d) an approval, assumption, adoption, or rejection of any agreement, contract, lease, program, or policy between the Debtors and any third party under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Likewise, if the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to the Court's order is not intended to be and should not be construed as an admission to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to dispute such claim subsequently.

IMMEDIATE AND UNSTAYED RELIEF IS NECESSARY

64. The Court may grant the relief requested in this Motion immediately if the "relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm." Fed. R. Bank. P. 6003; In re First NLC Fin. Servs., LLC, 382 B.R. 547, 549 (Bankr. S.D. Fla. 2008). The Third Circuit has interpreted the language "immediate and irreparable harm" in the context of preliminary injunctions. In that context, the Third Circuit has instructed that irreparable harm is that which "cannot be redressed by a legal or an equitable remedy following a trial." Instant Air Freight Co. v. C.F. Air Freight, Inc., 882 F.2d 797, 801 (3d Cir. 1989). The Debtors submit that, for the reasons already set forth herein, the relief requested in this Motion is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors and their estates.

65. Accordingly, the Debtors request that the Court waive the stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), which provides that “[a]n order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property other than cash collateral is stayed until the expiration of 14 days after entry of the order, unless the court orders otherwise.” Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6004(h). As described above, the relief that the Debtors seek in this Motion is necessary for the Debtors to operate without interruption and to preserve value for their estates. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court waive the 14-day stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), as the exigent nature of the relief sought herein justifies immediate relief.

NOTICE

66. Notice of this Motion will be provided to the following parties or their respective counsel: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee; (b) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors on a consolidated basis; (c) the DIP Lender; (d) the Prepetition Secured Parties; (e) the Internal Revenue Service; (f) the United States Attorney’s Office for the District of Delaware; (g) the state attorneys general for all states in which the Debtors conduct business; (h) banks and financial institutions where the Debtors maintain accounts; and (i) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. As this Motion is seeking “first day” relief, within forty-eight (48) hours of the entry of an order with respect to this Motion, the Debtors will serve copies of this Motion and any order entered with respect to this Motion as required by Local Rule 9013-1(m). The Debtors respectfully submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no further notice is necessary.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that this Court enter the Proposed Interim Order and the Proposed Final Order, substantially in the forms annexed hereto as Exhibit A and Exhibit B, respectively, granting the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as may be just and proper.

3. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay and honor in their discretion, all prepetition Employee Obligations, including processing and administrative fees, during the Interim Period, in aggregate amounts not to exceed the following:

Employee Obligations	Interim Amount
Wages	$200,000
Payroll Processor Fees	$30,000

401(K) Plan	$100,000

5. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, in their discretion, to honor and continue the Employee Programs that were in effect as of the Petition Date; provided, however, that such relief shall not constitute or be deemed an assumption or an authorization to assume any of such Employee Programs under section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, provided, further however, approval of the Non-Insider Incentive Program shall be subject to entry of a final order.

6. Nothing herein shall be deemed to authorize the payment of any amounts that would violate or implicate section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, including, for the avoidance of doubt, payment of any obligations related to the Severance Program to or on behalf of any “insider” (as defined by section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code).

7. The Debtors shall not make any cash-out payments to Employees on account of the PTO Program during the Interim Period unless the Debtors determine such payments are required by applicable state law, provided, however, the Debtors will continue to honor the PTO Program in the ordinary course.

8. Compensation Program in the appropriate judicial or administrative forum, and Employees are authorized to so proceed. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to continue the Workers' Compensation Program and pay all prepetition amounts relating thereto in the ordinary course of business. The modification of the automatic stay set forth in this paragraph pertains solely to claims under the Workers' Compensation Program.

10. The Debtors may pay any and all Withholdings, including social security, FICA, federal and state income taxes, garnishments, health care payments, retirement fund withholding, and other types of withholdings, whether these relate to the period prior to Petition Date or subsequent thereto.

12. Nothing contained herein is or should be construed as: (i) an implication or admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors, (ii) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party-in-interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors, (iii) a waiver of any claims or causes of action that may exist against any creditor or interest holder, (iv) a promise to pay any claim, (v) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory or otherwise) satisfied pursuant to this Interim Order are valid (and all rights to contest the extent, validity or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens are expressly reserved), (vi) an approval, assumption, adoption, or rejection of any agreement, contract, program, policy, or lease between the Debtors and any third party under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, (vii) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim, or (viii) otherwise affecting the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code to assume or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease. Any payment made pursuant to this Interim Order is not intended to be and should not be construed as an admission to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

15. The notice requirement of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) is waived.

16. This Interim Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry. The fourteen-day stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) is hereby waived.
