1 THE COURT: Let me ask Mr. Baker, he's the first one
2 I see, can you hear me?

3 MR. BAKER: I can, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right. Looks like we're, we have a
5 number of folks on here, 124 participants, and we're ready to 6 go. So, let me start with Debtors' counsel, if you would enter
7 your appearances, please.

8 MS. YUDKIN: Good morning, Your Honor, Felice Yudkin, 9 Cole Schotz, P.C., proposed co-counsel to the Debtors. And 10 Your Honor, I am here today with our co-counsel, the Kirkland
11 and Ellis team. And I'll defer to them to make their 12 introductions at the appropriate time.

13 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Ms. Yudkin. Mr.
14 Sponder or Ms. Bielskie, do you want to enter your appearance
15 on behalf of the US Trustee?

16 MS. BIELSKIE: Good morning, Your Honor, Lauren
17 Bielskie with the Office of the United States Trustee. And as 18 you noticed, Jeffrey Sponder is also on the line.

19 THE COURT: Okay, great, thank you. Mr. Sherman.

20 MR. SHERMAN: Good morning, Your Honor, Andrew
21 Sherman, Sills Cummis. WE are here, Your Honor, on behalf of 22 the ad hoc first lien group. And I'd like to introduce to the 23 Court the Gibson Dunn team of Joe Zujkowski, AnnElyse Gains and 24 Matt Rowe.

25 THE COURT: Okay, great, thank you. Mr. Martin.

1 MR. MARTIN: Good morning, Your Honor, Warren Martin
2 and Rachel Parisi, and I'd like to introduce the Court to,
3 actually you were already introduced, to Nicholas Baker from 4 Simpson Thacher Bartlett. We collectively serve as counsel to 5 the pre-petition first lien administrative agent. We filed pro
6 hacs for Mr. Baker and the Simpson Thacher team on Wednesday.
7 So those are pending.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Mr. Martin. I think,
9 Ms. Giglio are you on the telephone here, from Katten on behalf
10 of the disinterested directors? I don't see you, but if you can 11 hear me, you may want to check your phone in case you're on 12 mute on your own phone. Ms. Yudkin, can I ask you if you've 13 heard from Ms. Giglio?

14 MS. YUDKIN: I have not, and I don't --

15 MS. KWESKIN: Good morning, Your Honor, it's Lucy
16 Kweskin from Katten. I am partners with (indiscernible)
17 available here on behalf of the independent directors. I
18 apologize.

19 THE COURT: No problem, that's great. Thank you.
20 All right, so that's everyone who signed up to be a presenter
21 here. It seems to me we can -- Ms. Yudkin, I can turn the 22 microphone over to you. And fill me in on first days here.

23 MS. YUDKIN: Good morning, Your Honor. Felice
24 Yudkin, proposed co-counsel to the Debtors. Your Honor, I just 25 wanted to initially thank you for scheduling this hearing. On

1 an expedited basis. And working with your chambers to get this
2 scheduled for this morning. Your Honor, I would like at this 3 time to turn the podium over to our co-counsel, Kirkland and 4 Ellis. And specifically introduce Mr. Fagen to the Court.
5 He's going to lead off the presentation this morning.

6 Your Honor, I think they, the Kirkland team though
7 may have some issues with their camera. I know they're online,
8 but I'm not sure I can see them.

9 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, it's Matthew Fagen, from 10 Kirkland Ellis, proposed co-counsel to Thrasio and the other 11 Debtors. Your Honor, may I ask if you can hear me and see me?

12 THE COURT: I can hear you and see you, standing at a 13 podium even. Very impressive.

14 MR. FAGEN: Fantastic, well, it's a beautiful day
15 here in New York and again to echo Ms. Yudkin, thank you for 16 having us on short notice. We're happy to be in your court.
17 And we'd like to tell you a little bit about Thrasio, how it's 18 made its way to the Court today. And what we're intending to 19 accomplish through this Chapter 11 case. If you have a few 20 minutes and would allow us to share a screen to walk through a 21 quick presentation, we would appreciate that. Is that all
22 right, Your Honor?

23 THE COURT: I'm here for you guys.

24 MR. FAGEN: Fantastic, okay, I'm going to attempt to 25 share my screen. Okay, it looks like it's gone up. So Your

1 Honor, we're here to talk about Thrasio, and by way of 2 introduction, I'd like to introduce you to both several of the 3 management team members and several of the case parties that 4 you'll hear from today and throughout this case.

5 Your Honor, I'm going to -- sorry, I'm just having a
6 little bit of a technical difficulty here.

7 THE COURT: We're used to that at this point.

8 MR. FAGEN: Hold on one moment, please, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 MR. FAGEN: Fantastic, okay, it looks like it's all
11 working. So Your Honor, Thrasio has an elite management team.
12 We're highlighting here, Greg Greeley, the Chief Executive
13 Officer, who's got experience at Amazon, AirBnB, and Sun, 14 leadership experience. Along with Josh Burke, who's got 15 experience notably at UnderArmour and BackCountry.com. And the 16 general counsel Michael Fahey, who has experience at Simpson
17 Thacher and the Afinian (phonetic) Group.

18 You can see here that this is a new management team
19 and you probably read that in Mr. Burke's first day
20 declaration. They've all joined in the last several years to 21 right the ship and steer Thrasio in the right direction.

22 On the advisory side -- one moment, Your Honor, we're 23 just making our way through a couple of technical difficulties
24 again. I think we're going to get this resolved right away.

25 On the advisory side, as we're getting that ironed

1 out, we have Kirkland Ellis proposed co-counsel to the Debtors.
2 I'm joined by my partner, who you'll hear from next on the DIP,
3 Francis Petrie. Along with several other members of the 4 Kirkland team who you will hear from today, Mary Catherine
5 Young, Evan Swager and Tiffani Chanroo. And our litigation
6 partner, Casey McGushin.

7 From Centerview Partners, we have also as investment
8 banker to the company, we're joined by Sam Greene, who is also 9 a DIP declarant. From Alix Partners, who is the restructuring
10 advisor to the Debtor, we're joined by Terrence Grossman who is 11 also a DIP declarant. Your Honor, you heard from Ms. Yudkin of 12 Cole Schotz. Also noting KCC is the proposed claims agent to 13 the Debtors. And Joel Frank is the public relations firm to 14 the Debtors handling communications for the case.

15 On the main stakeholder front, our creditor
16 stakeholders, we have an Ad Hoc Group of lenders, they hold 88
17 percent of the first lien term loan. They are represented by 18 Gibson Dunn and Sills Cummis. Mr. Zujkowski, from the Gibson
19 Dunn team is on the line and you'll hear from him today.
20 They're represented by Evercore as their investment banker.

21 And the revolving credit facility lenders are 22 represented by Simpson Thacher and Porzio. And I'll just note
23 that the term loan lenders hold 88 percent of the first lien
24 term loan, and the revolving credit facility lenders, who are 25 part of the RSA, hold 81 percent of the revolving credit

1 facility. So we have overwhelming funded debt holder support
2 for our restructuring, our restructuring support agreement, and 3 our plan of reorganization.

4 I also do want to note on the company side, the 5 company appointed two disinterested directors in August 2023,
6 they're represented by the Katten firm. And Your Honor, you
7 heard from Ms. Kwestin who is here in the court today, and 8 several other Katten attorneys are participating in this case.

9 Turning Your Honor, to the company and the business,
10 and what Thrasio is about. Your Honor, Thrasio is the largest 11 operator and seller on Amazon. And also sells in other 12 channels. They own and operate over 200 brands that sell on 13 Amazon and other channels. I think it's notable Your Honor, 14 that Thrasio itself may not be a household name, but its 15 products certainly are. One in two households in the US have 16 ordered a product from Thrasio. So it's brands, Your Honor, 17 have broad appeal. And really broad market awareness of its 18 brands, some of which we're going to highlight for Your Honor
19 today.

20 In terms of its business, Your Honor, we call them,
21 we call Thrasio an Amazon aggregator. That means that it buys
22 businesses that sell on Amazon and other networks. It really 23 integrates those products and brands into its overall business.
24 It helps those products and brands optimize their business
25 models and make them more successful sellers on the online

1 marketplace. And appropriately scales them to maximize the 2 value of those brands, with the Thrasio backbone.

3 Your Honor, we have a model just demonstrating how it
4 works through those processes, from acquiring the businesses
5 and bring analysis on acquiring the right businesses. And then
6 setting those businesses up for success in the marketplace.

7 Just noting a couple of the types of products, and 8 again there are a couple hundred of products, but Angry Orange,
9 an air freshener and conditioner, it has had tremendous success
10 since being acquired by Thrasio, really a 15X revenue growth in 11 the two years since its acquisition. Thisworx, a car vacuum
12 cleaner, I know my car could probably use a vacuum, has had a 13 tax revenue growth in the one year since being acquired. And 14 Becky Cameron home, which manufactures and sells pillow sets, 15 has had a 2.3X revenue growth in just one year, and has 16 improved its rank on Amazon by over 95 percent since its 17 acquisition.

18 You can also see that there's been over 36 million
19 unique orders in 2023. Again demonstrating the predominance of 20 those products, on Amazon and other retail chains.

21 Now, Your Honor, despite these successes, and there
22 are many others, Thrasio has encountered, as you're well aware,
23 numerous headwinds in the past several years. And really, Your 24 Honor, I want to kind of pinpoint where those headwinds came 25 about, and really how they manifested. It really starts with

1 frankly a great story in 2019/2020, when really the consumer
2 behavior changed clearly with the onset of the Covid-19
3 pandemic. And customers were ordering online at a way higher
4 rate. Thrasio, as you would expect, to try to maximize its 5 value, went through tremendous growth during that Covid period
6 in 2020 and 2021, to try to maximize what it could do in the 7 marketplace and gain market share. And turned to the increased
8 profitability.

9 And you can see a lot of that growth happening in 10 2020 and 2021. A lot of financing went along at that time as 11 well, including a tremendous amount of equity financing.
12 Numerous series of common and preferred equity. And also a
13 fair amount of debt financing at the end of 2020 when Thrasio
14 executed the credit agreement under which the first lien term
15 loan and revolving credit facility loans were drawn, which are 16 totaling over $850 million today.

17 Unfortunately for Thrasio, at the end of 2021, a lot 18 of the consumer behavior changed and the growth that it was 19 seeing, and it was reacting to, and even trying to get ahead
20 of, was not sustained after that point. So you could see that 21 Thrasio was at 176 brands as of the end of 2021, and really was 22 projecting even more future growth in consumer behavior, the 23 demand for products in the online marketplace.

24 Unfortunately for Thrasio, Your Honor, consumer
25 preferences and behavior did change, and continued growth in

1 the online marketplace really didn't happen. And there was a
2 return really to brick and mortar shopping at a higher rate
3 than was projected.

4 So a lot of Your Honor, a lot of what appear to be at 5 this point in hindsight, operational missteps, really are a
6 product of Thrasio's reactions to, and attempts to get ahead of 7 consumer behavior, which didn't entirely manifest. That led to 8 really some business and financial problems at Thrasio. You
9 could see, Your Honor, we've tried to nail it down to four or 10 so key missteps, which are again are really missteps with the 11 benefit of hindsight in how the marketplace shifted.

12 You know, Thrasio over purchased, they had way too
13 much inventory at certain points, $425 million of inventory
14 sitting in warehouses. They overpaid because they were trying 15 to grow and trying to position themselves for success. But 16 they were doing so in a volatile marketplace. They became too
17 big, they over hired as well. And had to ultimately lean down.

18 And they overextended both in an acquisition capacity
19 and in really a funded debt capacity, which led to over $90
20 million of annual interest expense under the credit agreement,
21 it could be as high as 100, depending on what the predominant 22 rates were.

23 So Your Honor, this was a problem that had to be 24 addressed. And we're going to highlight the capital structure I 25 said, as of the petition date there's over $855 million of

1 secured funding debt, frankly with high interest rates. In 2 addition to an additional $2.5 billion of preferred stock,
3 which is, some of which is debt like. So clearly, Your Honor,
4 the balance sheet and the business at the end of 2021, and even 5 the balance sheet today, didn't make sense given the future of 6 the online marketplace under which Thrasio was operating.

7 So Your Honor, what did Thrasio attempt to do to 8 correct the ship. And how are they going to continue to do
9 that. One, they brought in the new management team who you're 10 seeing here today, to, with a tremendous amount of online 11 retail experience, to make a bunch of operational changes, and 12 also to help on the financial side.

13 They underwent a major operational turnaround which 14 we'll talk about in just a moment. And they took significant 15 attempts and steps to both raise new capital, and procure a
16 leaner capital structure which to go forward leaner business
17 service and turn to profitability. We're going to focus on each 18 of those three initiatives.

19 The management team, Your Honor, I've highlighted Mr.
20 Greeley, Mr. Burke and Mr. Fahey, but they're also joined by 21 several other best in class management team members on the 22 operational, technological and finance ends of the spectrum.
23 Many of which are very recent to Thrasio, to again, to right
24 the ship and enable a new business plan.

25 On the operational side, they did, they went through

1 many initiatives to save expenses, and to grow revenue, and to
2 return to profitability. Including increasing prices,
3 renegotiating carrier contracts, accelerating step sales,
4 decreasing their warehouse footprint. Stopping MNA
5 initiatives, we noted that there were 176 brands as of 6 December 2021, there are only today 200 today, so they've 7 really slowed their growth on MNA. And they've reduced their 8 headcount and stopped some hiring.

9 That's resulted in over $365 million of cost savings.
10 Which frankly have been pivotal to extending the runway and 11 enabling Thrasio to also to (indiscernible-audio skip)
12 negotiate the best go forward capital raise and capital
13 structure possible.

14 And that brings us really to what we're doing in this 15 Chapter 11 case, which is about raising new capital and working 16 toward a sustainable capital structure. And the good news is 17 that we have strong commitments from our existing stakeholders,
18 the lenders, you've heard about today, to allow us to achieve
19 both of those objectives.

20 Now Your Honor, it didn't start with a debt for 21 equity and DIP financing that we're here to present today. It
22 started with really a comprehensive financing process led by 23 Centerview, that began in the spring of 2023. Centerview
24 looked at potential sources of common of preferred equity, or 25 even debt, on an out of court basis. And did a targeted search

1 to raise all types of financing that were possible.
2 Unfortunately, Your Honor, over the summer it did become clear
3 that there was muted interest in transacting with Thrasio,
4 given its limitations, given its capital structure, and given
5 the volatility in the marketplace. And a preferred or common
6 or out of court debt raise just wasn't practical. Thrasio
7 required debt to be raised really on a super senior basis, was 8 the only way we could get traction.

9 Because of that, in August of 2023, coming out of the 10 summer, we pivoted to engage with the ad hoc lender group,
11 represented by the Gibson Dunn firm, that ultimately is our DIP
12 financing backstopper. That started because we knew coming
13 around the corner in September 2023, we had our next major
14 interest pay down of the term loan, that was going to hamper
15 liquidity. And there was a forbearance that was negotiated.
16 And we began diligencing with the Ad Hoc Group, and also 17 talking about potential restructuring options with that group,
18 in addition to the other options we were considering.

19 And Your Honor, it wasn't quite a straight line from 20 there to get here. We considered joint proposals with the Ad
21 Hoc Group and other parties. Several of which gained traction, 22 but none of which resulted in an actionable proposal, for 23 various reasons. Over the course of several months of 24 negotiations though, we did receive the commitments we needed
25 from the Ad Hoc Group and the revolving credit facility lenders

1 and agent, for a consensual structuring transaction. That 2 manifested in the restructuring support agreement that was
3 executed the day before we filed for Chapter 11 on February
4 27th. And I'm going to walk you through some of the key terms
5 of that restructuring support agreement.

6 One, we talked about the extreme amount of 7 stakeholder support that we have, with 88 percent of the term
8 loan, and 81 percent of the revolving credit facility. So more
9 than enough to confirm a Chapter 11 plan with those groups. WE 10 have support and commitments for a $90 million new money DIP
11 facility to be funded by those first lien lenders. It's going 12 to be available for participation to all first new lenders who 13 sign the restructuring support agreement, including after 14 today. So we're happy that it's open to all.

15 That $90 million is a lot of money for this company.
16 Especially when it's combined with the amount of deleveraging
17 that we're going to get. Your Honor, $495 million of secured
18 debt is going to be eliminated and converted to equity as part
19 of this transaction. We're going to be left with $360 million
20 of debt. That's basically the full amount of the DIP facility, 21 taking into account a roll up. That's going to convert to an 22 exit facility upon emergence we're hoping, with a $90 million
23 first out facility and a $270 million second out facility.

24 Also notable is the interest expense savings that's 25 going to come from having so much less debt. And in addition

1 to that, the debt is pick (phonetic) only for the first year,
2 and also has an option based on liquidity to pick for the 3 second year. So Thrasio could potentially save all cash
4 interest expense for up to two years after emergence. So a
5 tremendous amount of interest expense savings for the go
6 forward business.

7 Your Honor, the capital structure solution that we're 8 proposing is proposed to be implemented through a plan of 9 reorganization, on a prearranged time line. We're hoping to do
10 it within 100 days of the filing, to poise us for emergence in 11 just a few months.

12 There's also a $250,000 pot that's going to be made
13 available to holders of general unsecured claims. Clearly 14 we're going to have to demonstrate and carry our burden at 15 confirmation to show that that's fair and equitable and 16 appropriate.

17 And Your Honor, we're talking about a plan of 18 reorganization and disclosure statement, I'm just going to note
19 that those documents have already been filed on the petition
20 date, on February 28th. And we have a proposed time line to 21 get to confirmation. So we're happy that a lot of our 22 documents in support is fully buttoned up, really ready to 23 deploy on an appropriate but quick time line to get this 24 company on the path to emergence and on the path to success.

25 I would also like to note that in the restructuring

1 support agreement, you know, we do have a full fiduciary out
2 that allows the company and the board of the directors to 3 terminate the RSA if a better transaction comes along, or an 4 alternative transaction comes along. That's also actionable
5 and viable.

6 And I did mention to Your Honor that really with the 7 Ad Hoc Group of lenders, we did explore combined transactions
8 that would have involved other parties, at various points in 9 the capital structure, we haven't lost any hope that some of 10 those could materialize. We don't know that they will. And we 11 absolutely believe that the restructuring contemplated by the 12 restructuring support agreement is the best proposal that we 13 have right now. And will position Thrasio for success. But if 14 a better transaction does come along, we have full flexibility
15 to negotiate and ultimately if possible and viable, document
16 and commit to an alternative transaction.

17 I will also note, Your Honor, I referenced the 18 disinterested directors who were appointed in August 2023,
19 Stefan Selig and Anthony Horton, have a tremendous amount of 20 restructuring experience, have no affiliations or interests in 21 Thrasio, only in maximizing value through this restructuring
22 process. They've retained Katten Muchin as their counsel. They 23 are underway in an independent investigation on the 24 restructuring, on the releases that are proposed to be granted
25 upon confirmation of the plan in several months. So that

1 investigation is ongoing, I do expect that you'll hear more
2 from the Katten team as that investigation progresses. And 3 we'll all stay tuned on that.

4 Just to highlight -- excuse us, Your Honor, we're
5 just going to back a couple. And just highlight what that post
6 emergence capital structure is proposed to look like, we're 7 hoping will look like, you can see we're going to hopefully go
8 from $855 million of funded debt, really a $3.3 billion capital 9 structure, with nearly a billion dollars of funded debt, to 10 just $360 million of funded debt. So really putting the 11 company that didn't grow at the rate we thought, we're going to 12 give a way smaller balance sheet to position it for success,
13 along with again that substantially lower cash interest, 14 including in the first two years where it could be as little as 15 zero.

16 And then Your Honor, our case time line, given the 17 cost of the Chapter 11, given the commitments that we've 18 already obtained in that extensive refiling period, we're 19 looking to move at an appropriately quick pace, compliant with 20 all of the Bankruptcy Code rules and the local rules. Really 21 nothing novel here on a normal time line. We're looking to 22 have a disclosure statement hearing in early April. Hopefully
23 April 5th. And we're really looking to proceed to confirmation
24 on May 13th, in mid-May.

25 Your Honor, I'm going to pause there, I think to the

1 extent Your Honor has any questions about the business or the 2 transaction we're proposing, we're not proposing that 3 transaction to be approved today. I'd be happy to answer any 4 questions. I also believe that some of the other stakeholders
5 may want to make some statements, notably Mr. Zujkowski from 6 the ad hoc lenders, or Mr. Sponder from the US Trustee's
7 Office, who we've been interfacing with. And I understand that 8 Mr. Sponder may have a few objections to the proposed DIP
9 financing. We're going to get to that next on the agenda. So
10 we'll find the right time for those objections to come up. But 11 we think that we have a very valuable DIP financing of $90 12 million, $35 million of which is proposed to be accessed on the 13 interim draw.

14 I will note that Thrasio has just over $25 million of 15 cash as of the filing, really which is not a lot. Not a lot 16 for a business like Thrasio. And is really relying on the 17 interim DIP draw.

18 But Your Honor, I'm going to pause there. After any 19 other party makes introductions, I'm going to cede the podium
20 to my partner, Francis Petrie, who is going to take us through 21 the proposed DIP financing.

22 THE COURT: Okay, thank you, Mr. Fagen, I don't have 23 any questions. I think you covered everything that was in the 24 documents that have been filed so far. So thank you for the 25 presentation, that helps me to lay it out like that.

1 MR. FAGEN: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Does anyone else want to add to this
3 initial presentation?

4 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Good morning, Your Honor, Joe
5 Zujkowski of Gibson Dunn Crutcher, counsel for the ad hoc term
6 one lender group.

7 THE COURT: Good morning.

8 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Good morning. Your Honor, as Mr.
9 Fagen noted, our Ad Hoc Group is comprised of lenders that 10 collectively hold more than 88 percent of the company's 11 existing first lien term loans and our 2019 statement was filed
12 yesterday, it's located at document number 47.

13 Your Honor, I echo the company's appreciation for all 14 the work that chambers put in to this expedited hearing. And 15 would just like to make a few quick points before the company
16 proceeds with its first day motions, to build upon what you
17 heard from Mr. Fagen.

18 Your Honor, first, in late September members of our 19 Ad Hoc Group entered into a forbearance agreement with the 20 company, and a nondisclosure agreement with the company that 21 limited their ability to trade their term loans. These 22 agreements were each extended on numerous occasions through the 23 petition date, so that our clients could work with the company
24 on evaluating any and all possible restructuring alternatives.

25 Your Honor, this five month lender engagement process

1 was preceded by an additional six weeks of work that was done
2 by the Ad Hoc Group's advisors, in conjunction with Kirkland,
3 Centerview, the management team and the companies independent
4 directors, to understand the company's business plan and the 5 challenges that the company has been facing.

6 Your Honor, as a result of this process, which was 7 extremely deliberate, the Ad Hoc Group is confident that the 8 restructuring support agreement signed on Tuesday, which 9 contemplates a conversion of a significant portion of our 10 group's first lien term loan claims into equity, and an 11 infusion of new capital backstopped by our Ad Hoc Group, is the 12 best option available to maximize the value of this business
13 for the benefit of all stakeholders. And this is especially 14 true given the extremely company friendly terms of the exit
15 facility that Mr. Fagen highlighted.

16 Your Honor, a few quick points on the DIP. First the 17 DIP facility that is being presented to the Court today for 18 interim approval, was structured, as Mr. Fagen noted, to ensure 19 that all first lien lenders will have the opportunity to 20 participate on a pro rata basis. As you know, that's not 21 always the case. And said another way, there are no secured
22 creditors here with liens that will be subordinated to the 23 proposed DIP liens that will not have full and fair
24 participation rights.

25 Your Honor, we've been working closely, in addition

1 to counsel for the company, with counsel to the first lien
2 agent, to bring lenders under the company's RCF facility into
3 the fold, and we've structured the DIP to ensure that parties
4 that are first lien parties that are not presently bound by the 5 RSA, will have a full and fair opportunity to review the 6 proposed DIP terms, the proposed DIP credit agreement and sign 7 up for their pro rata share.

8 And I think as a result of this propose, we're 9 extremely hopeful that by the time we come back to present the 10 DIP for Court approval on a final basis, it will have nearly 11 unanimous support from first lien lenders.

12 Finally, Your Honor, we really do appreciate the 13 efforts of the US Trustee in respect of the DIP order and all 14 first day orders. We understand from Mr. Fagen that there are 15 a few open points on the DIP order, all of which are important 16 preconditions to our clients funding the first $35 million of 17 the DIP today. But I'll defer any further comment on the DIP
18 motion until it's presented to the Court for approval. And 19 thank you Your Honor again for your time today.

20 THE COURT: Okay, thank you, Mr. Zujkowski. Thanks
21 for the complements to our Clerk's Office, I know they worked 22 really hard to get all these petitions filed and I see how much 23 work has been done out there. So let's see, Mr. Fagen, you're 24 turning -- go ahead.

25 MR. BAKER: Your Honor, just very briefly, just to

1 formally introduce myself and my client. Nicholas Baker from 2 Simpson Thacher and Bartlett. We represent Royal Bank of 3 Canada, which is the administrative agent under the pre-
4 petition first lien facility.

5 Just one clarification on Mr. Fagen's excellent
6 presentation. RBC, Royal Bank of Canada, is the agent for all
7 the lenders, not just the RCF lenders. And in that capacity,
8 Your Honor, to echo the Ad Hoc Group's counsel, we do think 9 it's important to reemphasize that all lenders will have the 10 opportunity to participate in this DIP, in a meaningful
11 opportunity, and that there will be up to 20 days for lenders
12 to choose whether to do that or not.

13 And so just as a matter of housekeeping, Your Honor,
14 I will also want to note for the record that the agent will be 15 posting to the rest of the lender syndicate, the syndication
16 materials to be able to participate on the DIP. So if there's 17 any lenders on this call wondering how are they going to be 18 able to do this, the materials will be posted to intralink site
19 so that all lenders will have that opportunity.

20 With that, Your Honor, I'll cede the podium, but 21 again, very happy to be in front of you and thanks of your 22 Clerk and the US Trustee.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Baker, I just, one question. The 24 syndicated materials will be posted on which site?

25 MR. BAKER: It will be an intralink site that is

1 available to all of the lenders.

2 THE COURT: On your --

3 MR. BAKER: It's a platform that -- yeah, it's a
4 platform that the administrative agent runs.

5 THE COURT: Okay, good, that's great. Thank you, Mr.
6 Baker.

7 MR. BAKER: Thank you.

8 THE COURT: Anyone else before I go back to Mr.
9 Fagen? Okay. Next. Go back to Kirkland, right?

10 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, it's Matt Fagen, sorry. You
11 cut out on audio. We didn't hear what you just said.

12 THE COURT: I thanked Mr. Baker, did you hear Mr.
13 Baker's presentation?

14 MR. FAGEN: We hear you now, yeah, we totally did. We 15 hear you now. I was just noting that I was going to cede the 16 podium to my partner Francis Petrie who is taking my place. It
17 may have seemed that I became way better looking in the last 18 couple of minutes.

19 THE COURT: Okay, thanks. Mr. Petrie, go ahead,
20 thank you.

21 MR. PETRIE: Good morning, Your Honor, for the 22 record, Francis Petrie of Kirkland and Ellis proposed counsel
23 for the Debtors. It's a pleasure to appear in front of you
24 today.

25 We filed a number of declarations in support of the

1 motions that are up for hearing today. First is the first day
2 declaration by the Debtors' Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Josh
3 Burke, which is filed at docket number 38. The declaration of 4 Sam Greene, of Centerview Partners, was filed at docket number
5 43, which describes the marketing and negotiation process that 6 led to the proposed DIP financing. And the declaration of 7 Terrence Grossman of Alix Partners, filed at docket number 44,
8 describes the cash intensive nature of the Debtors' business
9 and the need for immediate funding.

10 Each of Mr. Burke, Mr. Greene and Mr. Grossman are 11 dialed into the hearing today and are available to testify if 12 needed. But at this time I'd like to ask that each of these 13 declarations be moved into evidence.

14 THE COURT: Any objections? So moved. They're all
15 entered into evidence.

16 MR. PETRIE: Thank you, Your Honor. So that brings 17 us to the agenda. As a threshold matter, the first item is the 18 motion for joint administration filed at docket number 16. The 19 purpose of this motion is allow for procedural consolidation of 20 the 241 Debtor cases that we have filed. The order is not 21 designed to be substantive. But we will have a revised 22 proposed order that we'll submit to the Court that amends some 23 language in one of the paragraphs at the request of the US
24 Trustee, which specifies that the Debtors will file monthly
25 operating reports for each Debtor on an individual basis, and

1 those reports will be docketed in the lead case.

2 Adherent to that on a case of this size will be quite 3 a lift with 241 Debtor entities, but we agreed to do so in the 4 interest of reaching consensus.

5 But aside from that we haven't received any comments,
6 formal or informal, to the joint administration order. So
7 unless Your Honor has any questions, we'd respectfully ask for 8 approval of this form.

9 THE COURT: I have no questions on that, the joint 10 administration, I'm sure there's no one objecting to this, so
11 that is granted.

12 MR. PETRIE: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: And I'm going to mark it order to be 14 submitted.

15 MR. PETRIE: Great. That brings us to the next item, 16 which is the Debtors' motion to approve DIP financing. This 17 motion was filed at docket number 42, and an initial proposed 18 interim order was filed yesterday at docket number 45. And 19 this morning a form of credit agreement was also filed on the 20 docket.

21 I prepared some slides to help us walk us through the 22 structure of the DIP financing, and to clear up any 23 ambiguities. But through this motion, the Debtors request that 24 the Court approve the continued use of cash collateral, as well
25 as what will overall be a $360 million super priority DIP to

1 exit facility. This facility is designed to provide the 2 Debtors with sufficient liquidity to operate throughout these 3 Chapter 11 cases, and through emergence.

4 And the proposed financing includes up to $90 million
5 in new money commitments. It's fully backstopped by the Ad Hoc
6 Group as you have heard by now, though participation in the DIP
7 will be open to additional holders of first lien claims under 8 the syndication procedures that Mr. Baker just described.

9 So the full 90 million is available in distinct
10 pieces. 35 million of the new money will be made available
11 upon entry of the interim order. 35 additional million will be 12 made available upon entry of the final order. And another 20 13 million will be committed upon entry of the final order, but 14 available to the Debtors around entry of the confirmation
15 order, or up to five days prior to that hearing if certain 16 conditions are met.

17 There is also a roll up of pre-petition debt, which 18 is a common feature in DIP financing arrangements, in the total 19 amount of 270 million that corresponds to the timing of the 20 funding of the new money commitments.

21 So 35 million of the roll up will be deemed funded
22 upon entry of the interim order, on a one to one basis, with 23 the money loans. And 235 million more will be deemed funded
24 upon entry of the final order.

25 The reason that we have this structure is that upon

1 exit it is anticipated that the new money tranche will convert
2 into that third lien term out facility that Mr. Fagen
3 describes, while the roll up portion will be convert it to a
4 second out.

5 The DIP also contains customary fees and expenses
6 which were bargained for at length, and we believe are 7 reasonable based on an analysis of comparable fees in financing
8 of this size.

9 This includes a backstop payment of 7.5 percent of 10 the new money loans in cash, or in equity, upon confirmation of 11 a plan, as consideration for the Ad Hoc Group providing a 12 backstop. This fee will be earned upon the interim funding,
13 but not payable until plan confirmation.

14 Some other key features of the DIP include a standard 15 and bargained for adequate protection package that includes 16 liens, claims, and reporting requirements, as well as the 17 Debtors' stipulations to the validity of the pre-petition debt.
18 Which is subject to a 60 day challenge period which will begin
19 for a Committee upon the day of their appointment.

20 There's also a standard carve out which does include 21 funding of a reserve that includes certain statutory and 22 professional fees.

23 And some other key features of the DIP, including 24 waivers for marshaling, surcharge and equities of the case,
25 and liens on proceeds of avoidance actions, are only affected

1 upon the final orders.

2 So in short, the relief that we seek under the 3 interim order is tailored to address the immediate needs of the 4 business. Our papers demonstrated that the Debtors require
5 immediate access to the DIP facility, and continued use of cash
6 collateral to fund their operations, and to operate in the 7 ordinary course in these Chapter 11 cases.

8 As evidenced by the declarations, the DIP financing
9 is critical to the Debtors' ability to satisfy their 10 obligations, to contract counter parties, vendors, suppliers,
11 employees, customers, and other stakeholders. And the terms of 12 the DIP facility are the result of extensive good faith
13 negotiation with the DIP lenders, and no better option is 14 available.

15 As a result, we do believe that entry into the DIP
16 facility is essential to preserve and maximize the value of the 17 Estates and responsibly administer these Chapter 11 cases.

18 So what we seek approval of today is summarized on 19 this slide and in our materials. But upon the interim stage,
20 we're seeking the necessary relief that will allow for a cash
21 infusion of $35 million in new money, and allow the Debtors to 22 continue to use their cash on hand in exchange for what we view
23 as a very reasonable and customary package that includes 24 approval of the stipulations, limited release provisions, and 25 granting adequate protection.

1           Your Honor, we were in touch with the Office of the 2 US Trustee on the terms of a form of order leading to this
3 hearing. And we did incorporate many of their requests add-ins.
4 I understand Mr. Sponder still wants to speak on the record to 5 the Court.

6           Based on our communications there were pieces of the 7 DIP that the US Trustee preferred to be effective on a final
8 order or subject to challenge by the Debtors themselves.
9 Though we don't believe that such a structure is commonplace
10 for DIPs of this size. But I'd also like Your Honor to be 11 aware that the agreed to stipulations regarding the pre-12 petition debt came only after an extensive collateral and 13 perfection review by each of the Kirkland, Gibson and Simpson
14 teams, and no material issues came out of that analysis.

15           And we did communicate the US Trustee's request to 16 the DIP lenders who were very accommodating to some of those,
17 but represented that the outstanding issues were impermissible
18 and these modifications to the bargained for deal would not be 19 accepted, in light of the need for funding.

20           What we were able to accept were certain notice
21 provisions in paragraphs 11 and 15 of the proposed interim
22 order. And other specific language that would allow for any 23 individual for cause to request a modification to the challenge 24 period.

25           So from what we understand, the UST still takes issue

1 with some of the fundamental parts of the business deal that 2 the Debtors have reached with the DIP lenders, but I'll allow 3 them to bring that up themselves.

4 That ends my presentation on the DIP. Unless Your 5 Honor has any questions I think at this time it would be 6 appropriate to allow Mr. Sponder to take the podium, provided
7 that I can reserve my ability to respond to his arguments.

8 THE COURT: Of course, thank you. Fast and furious
9 presentation. Thank you. Mr. Sponder.

10 MR. SPONDER: Good morning, and nice to see you, Your 11 Honor.

12 THE COURT: You too, Mr. Sponder.

13 MR. SPONDER: Jeff Sponder on behalf of the United
14 States Trustee. Your Honor, the United States Trustee
15 provided, as Mr. Petrie just said, certain comments and 16 revisions to the proposed interim order, to counsel to the 17 Debtors, and counsel to the DIP financing parties, some of 18 which have been incorporated in the proposed interim order
19 filed with the Court at docket number 45.

20 I appreciate the time and effort from counsel to the 21 Debtors and counsel to the DIP financing parties, as we've been 22 able to narrow the gap as late as a few minutes prior to this 23 hearing.

24 With that said, there were several requested
25 revisions which were not accepted by the Debtors and the DIP

1 financing parties, but we want to bring them to the Court's 2 attention.

3           Several of them involve the DIP financing parties
4 seeking specific relief as of the entry of the interim order,
5 instead of entry of a final order, when parties in interest,
6 including a Committee, have had the opportunity to review the 7 financing.

8           First, Your Honor, at paragraph 3(d) of the proposed
9 interim order, which is at page 26 of 81 of docket number 45,
10 entry of the interim order constitutes final approval of the 11 backstop payment to be paid to the backstop parties. In 12 addition, upon entry of the interim order, the terms and 13 conditions of the backstop payment are found to be fully 14 satisfied by the DIP lenders and backstop parties and the 15 backstop payment is deemed fully earned.

16           Although the restructuring support agreement provides 17 that the backstop commitment is fully earned and approved on a
18 final basis upon entry of the interim order, such approval 19 should not occur until after a Committee has been appointed and 20 upon entry of a final order.

21           In addition, the backstop commitment should also not 22 be found to be earned as of the entry of an interim order but 23 instead as of the entry of a final order. These cases were 24 only filed two days ago and parties in interest, including a 25 Committee, should have an opportunity to address whether the

1 backstop should be earned and approved at this time.

2 Next, Your Honor, at paragraph 7(a) of the proposed
3 interim order, at page 36 of 81, at docket number 45, the 4 Debtors are granting the DIP financing parties a senior 5 security interest and lien upon all property of the Debtors and 6 the Debtor non loan parties.

7 In addition, the Debtors are providing a 100 percent
8 equity pledge of all first tier foreign subsidiaries and a lien
9 on all unencumbered assets of the Debtors. This appears to 10 provide a change in ownership and provides a new lien against 11 unencumbered assets. At the very least, Your Honor, the 100
12 percent pledge and lien on unencumbered assets should be held 13 to the final hearing, allow a Committee to be appointed to 14 review that provision.

15 Next, Your Honor, at paragraph 7(c) of the proposed 16 interim order, starting at page 38 of 81, of docket number 45,
17 the DIP liens are not subject to Section 50(c) (sic) effective
18 as of the petition date and upon entry of a final order.
19 However, it appears that --

20 THE COURT: Wait, Mr. Sponder, say that again, 21 they're not subject to --

22 MR. SPONDER: They're not subject to Section 50(c)
23 which is effective as of the petition date, and then subject to 24 entry of a final order, so at the final order stage the 506(c)
25 waiver will become effective.

1           It appears that the DIP liens are also not subject to
2 Sections 510, 549, 550 of 551, as of the entry of the interim
3 order. Similar to the 506(c) wavier, we believe that such 4 relief should only be granted at the time of the entry of the 5 final order.

6           Next Your Honor, at paragraph 13 of the proposed
7 order, at page 54 of 81 of docket number 45, an event of a
8 default is an occurrence and an event of a default under the 9 terms of the DIP credit agreement. I think Mr. Petrie just 10 advised that the DIP credit agreement was just filed on the 11 docket. We were provided with it a little over an hour ago.
12 We did take a quick review of it and it appears that there are 13 25 events of default after a bankruptcy has been filed, spread 14 out over four pages of that agreement. We require more time to 15 review, but wanted to confirm that notice will be provided in 16 the event of a default, and understand that notice will be 17 provided in the event the DIP financing parties seek relief
18 from the automatic stay and/or to cease the Debtors' use of 19 cash collateral.

20           We do reserve all rights concerning any revisions
21 that we may have to the default language that is in the DIP
22 credit agreement that was just filed with the Court.

23           Next Your Honor, at paragraph 24 of the proposed
24 interim order at page 63 of 81, of docket number 45, the DIP
25 financing parties and related parties seek a release as of the

1 date the interim order is entered. Instead, as this case was 2 filed only two days ago without a Committee appointed, the 3 release should only be effective as of the entry of a final 4 order.

5           Next Your Honor, paragraph 27 of the proposed interim
6 order at page 71 of 81, of docket number 45, grants the 7 Committee the use of up to 50,000 to solely investigate or 8 prosecute within the challenge period the claims, causes of 9 action, adversary proceedings or other litigation against the 10 pre-petition first lien secured parties. In the same paragraph 11 the DIP financing parties seek to narrow the investigation or 12 prosecution even further by including the following language.
13 And I quote, solely concerning the legality, validity,
14 priority, perfection, enforceability or extent of the claims,
15 liens or interests including the pre-petition first priority
16 liens, held by or on behalf of each of the pre-petition first 17 lien secured parties related to the pre-petition first lien
18 obligations.

19           The US Trustee believes that the additional language
20 is not necessary as the prior language which limits the use of 21 funds to the challenge period concerning any claims, causes of 22 action, adversary proceedings or other litigation is 23 sufficient.

24           Last, Your Honor, the US Trustee wants to note that 25 the Debtors and the DIP financing parties have agreed to

1 language in paragraph 11 of the proposed interim order, at page
2 49 of docket number 45, that provides that the Court may 3 fashion an appropriate remedy to the extent a challenge to the 4 pre-petition first priority liens, including the roll ups
5 granted in this order.

6 Those were are remaining issues Your Honor. Again we 7 were able to resolve many of our issues and do appreciate
8 counsel for the Debtor as well as counsel for the DIP financing
9 parties reaching resolution on those matters. Thank you, Your 10 Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right, thank you Mr. Sponder. And I
12 want to express my appreciation to the United States Trustee's
13 Office here for putting so much work in, pre-filing or 14 immediate post-filing, because it makes my job a whole lot
15 easier. And I appreciate that, thank you, Mr. Sponder.

16 Let me go back to Kirkland, and tell me what your 17 position, I mean you told me a little bit. But tell me what 18 your position is on these issues.

19 MR. PETRIE: Your Honor, we have been in touch with 20 both the DIP lenders and the US Trustee about each of these 21 issues. Anything that regards notice we are very happy to 22 provide. The, we should turn this over to Mr. Zujkowski after 23 my presentation is done, just to confirm this. My understanding 24 is that the backstop payment is not something that can be 25 approved upon a final order. The backstopping is happening

1 today. The syndication is going to happen between now and the 2 final hearing. So to induce parties to actually be backstop
3 parties, that payment needs to happen and be approved now.

4 To the extent that this is an issue about payment at 5 the interim stage, this payment is not taking place at any 6 point even in the near future. It's going to take place upon
7 confirmation or the effective date of the plan. But the issues
8 that were raised there by the US Trustee is one of timing. And 9 the timing just won't work there.

10 Further, the other concerns about the equity pledges
11 and the validity of liens as of the interim order, is asking
12 the DIP lenders to provide a DIP loan on an unsecured basis.
13 Which we have been -- they just won't do. So those are 14 concerns that we would have been amenable to actually 15 discussing, but it has been represented to use that they cannot 16 actually -- they will not be willing to provide this loan on an 17 unsecured basis.

18 And the language regarding the challenge period, is 19 more clarifying language than anything. It's challenging the 20 Debtors' stipulations and our language is meant to show what 21 those stipulations encompass. That's the balance of what I
22 have to say in response.

23 THE COURT: Okay, so the challenge period language I
24 don't have a problem with either. Too much is fine with me.
25 It sounds like you've addressed Mr. Sponder's problem with the

1 events of default and the credit agreement, that you will add
2 the notice requested by the US Trustee.

3 MR. PETRIE: Correct.

4 THE COURT: Okay. I'm not sure with backstop,
5 wouldn't -- I don't know, if the backstop parties are saying
6 that they won't proceed, and we need the backstop for the 7 agreement, the backstop parties are the lenders. Right?

8 MR. PETRIE: Correct. It's the Ad Hoc Group of 9 lenders.

10 THE COURT: The Ad Hoc Group of lenders. So they 11 know they're getting this right?

12 MR. PETRIE: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Essentially, with that, why can't they 14 wait to final?

15 MR. PETRIE: I'm going to allow my colleague at 16 Gibson Dunn to take this on. This is a part of the bargained
17 for deal that we have here.

18 THE COURT: Understood. All right, thank you. Mr.
19 Zujkowski.

20 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Yes, thank you, Your Honor. Your 21 Honor, a few quick points on the points made by the US Trustee
22 and your questions. First, the proposed interim DIP order
23 that is supported by the company and the Ad Hoc Group, is 24 consistent with the interim DIP orders that have been entered 25 in recent large cases in this District, including Cyxtera and

1 Careismatic.

2 THE COURT: Understood.

3 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Your Honor, on the backstop point, we 4 are agreeing today, at the date of the interim DIP, or upon
5 entry of the interim DIP order, to backstop the full 90
6 million. That full 90 million is a cash injection into the 7 company, that is critical to insure and to communicate to 8 vendors, employees, customers, that the company has adequate 9 liquidity to finance these cases. And that full commitment is 10 coming in today.

11 And therefore we think it's appropriate and we think
12 it's consistent with recent DIP orders for the backstop
13 commitment to be approved upon entry of the interim order. And 14 as I mentioned it's consistent with Cxtera and with 15 Careismatic.

16 Your Honor, it's also our hope and expectation that 17 the backstop fee will be paid in equity. There is a cash out
18 option for the Debtors, you know, consistent with their 19 fiduciary out to pay this premium in cash if necessary. But 20 it's intended to be paid in equity. And the only parties that 21 are prejudiced as a result of the payment of this fee in 22 equity, are first lien lenders who have overwhelmingly agreed
23 to support the plan through entry into the restructuring
24 support agreement.

25 So given what our clients are being asked to fund and

1 commit to fund throughout these cases today, we think approval
2 of the backstop fee upon entry of the interim order is
3 appropriate.

4 THE COURT: Okay , thank you, Mr. Zujkowski. That
5 makes, that answers a couple of my questions. The thing that I
6 would be most concerned with is allowing the, allowing 7 Unsecured Creditors Committee to review a fee or perhaps there
8 may be a reason to wait. But in this case I find that there
9 certainly isn't. That --

10 MR. SPONDER: Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Go ahead, Jeff, go ahead, Mr. Sponder.

12 MR. SPONDER: I'm sorry, Your Honor, could I just 13 add, if Your Honor if going to allow the backstop, my thought
14 and suggestion would be that at the interim stage it's only 35
15 million that is going to be provided, 35 million at the final,
16 and then 20 million at confirmation or whatnot. Why can't the 17 backstop just be agreed to, you know, or allow the backstop up
18 to the 35 million, the new money being provided. Which gives 19 them, the Committee, an opportunity to at least look at the 20 rest of it at the time of the final. That would be my thought.

21 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Your Honor, respectfully, and with 22 all appropriate deference to the US Trustee, what we're arguing 23 to backstop is not the 35, right, the 35 is a check that's 24 going out the door upon entry of the order. What we're 25 agreeing to backstop is the remaining piece of the DIP.

1 THE COURT: Understood.

2 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: So what we think, I think we're in 3 agreement with the company that this is a reasonable fee for 4 our commitment to backstop the entire amount of the DIP.

5 THE COURT: Yes, and ai agree with you, I think it's,
6 I understand, I mean from what I see, it's not just, I can't --
7 it doesn't make sense to just give interim approval to a
8 portion of a backstop, when the whole backstop is being 9 proposed. So the US Trustee's objection is overruled on the 10 backstop issue.

11 Immediate payment, the interim relief allowing 12 immediate payment, I think that's necessary, that's a necessary
13 thing. And from what -- I forget his name, I'm sorry.

14 MR. PETRIE: Petrie.

15 THE COURT: Yes, sorry, I'm sorry about that. It's 16 unlikely that it's going to be paid anyway. That objection is 17 overruled. How about the 100 percent equity pledge?

18 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Your Honor, I'm happy to just address
19 the two open points on 7(a) and 7(c).

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: First on 7(c), you know, as Kirkland
22 noted, you know, the sustaining the US Trustee's objections
23 here would effectively require or ask our clients to be funding 24 this DIP during the interim period on an unsecure basis. Our 25 clients are unwilling to do it. We don't think any

1 institutional lenders would be willing to do it. Especially 2 under the construct of a restructuring support agreement that a
3 plan in which first lien debt will be converted to equity. So
4 we need full and fair DIP liens upon entry of the interim
5 order.

6 And again look, with respect to the equity of foreign 7 subs and unencumbered assets, our language I think is 8 substantially identical with the Cyxtera and Careismatic
9 interim DIP orders. And having this additional security on an 10 unencumbered assets while we don't believe there are material
11 unencumbered assets, for the reasons that Mr. Petrie noted, is 12 just customary in DIPs and a condition to our clients funding
13 in an interim basis.

14 THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Sponder.

15 MR. SPONDER: Thank you, Your Honor, Jeff Sponder
16 form the Officer of United States Trustee. I want to make 17 clear that just because something is entered in a prior order
18 in another case does not mean that it's correct. This is a lien
19 on unencumbered assets. I think a Committee when appointed
20 would want to look into any encumbered assets of the Debtor, 21 and that's all I'm asking, all we're asking for is the 22 opportunity to look at it at a final hearing. The 100 percent
23 equity pledge just seems to change ownership. So you know, that 24 just is a problem for us.

25 But if it was entered in other cases, so be it. But

1 here, we object and think it's an issue, but at least give an
2 opportunity for a Committee to review, thank you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Sponder. Let me just ask,
4 so I understand it. I mean this whole idea of change in equity
5 ownership, that would only happen if there was a default,
6 correct? Mr. Zujkowski?

7 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Yes, Your Honor, I'm sorry, I wasn't 8 sure if that question was to me or Mr. Sponder. But yes, that 9 would only happen if there was a default and there are -- you
10 know, we have protections, you know, through other provisions
11 of the DIP, and through other provisions of our existing first 12 lien security package, in the event of a default, you know,
13 pursuant to which a change ownership could occur.

14 So look I think this is belt and suspenders. We're 15 funding 35 million. We're only asking for a one to one roll up 16 on the amount that we're funding. So you know, our liens with 17 respect to the equity of foreign subs and unencumbered assets
18 only extends to that $70 million. The Committee will have the 19 ability to negotiate this provision and object to it at final,
20 at the final DIP hearing with respect to the balance of the 21 DIP. But you know, given what we're asking for in terms of a 22 one to one roll up at the interim stage, we feel that these 23 additional liens are necessary and appropriate.

24 THE COURT: All right. That's very helpful too, 25 thank you. So that is, Mr. Sponder, I'm overruling that

1 objection.

2 MR. SPONDER: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Did we cover everything? 506(c) waiver,
4 that's pretty typical, isn't it?

5 MR. SPONDER: Your Honor, Jeff Sponder from the 6 Office of US Trustee. The 506(c) waiver at the final order,
7 we're fine with that. However there is no, the DIP finance
8 parties are seeking basically a waiver of 510, 549, 550 and 551
9 at the time of the entry of the interim order. And typically 10 think that that's at the final order stage. So that's we 11 objected there, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Zujkowski.

13 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Your Honor, I couldn't -- I'm sorry,
14 I had an audio problem. I missed what Mr. Sponder just said
15 there.

16 THE COURT: His problem is not with 506, it's more 17 with the fraudulent transfer stuff, to waive all that.

18 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Your Honor, we can just take this on 19 offline with the company and see if we can come to an 20 appropriate resolution here.

21 THE COURT: Okay, thank you.

22 MR. PETRIE: Your Honor, this is Francis Petrie from 23 Kirkland. I will note that proceeds of avoidance actions will 24 remain unencumbered until the final order.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Perfect, thank you. And then the

1 last thing I think was the DIP parties' releases. Make then
2 effective at final. That was the US Trustee's position.

3 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Francis, I think this is you in first 4 instance.

5 MR. PETRIE: Yes, Your Honor, I mean this was 6 negotiated, there was a large back and forth that led to the 7 final DIP order that's before Your Honor today. This was one
8 of the heavily negotiated provisions. And the timing of the 9 release was one of those.

10 At the interim stage it is appropriate and 11 commonplace to grant a limited release that is tailored to this 12 -- in the language we have here. So we think it's appropriate
13 as part of the larger negotiations to include in this instance
14 as well.

15 MR. SPONDER: And Your Honor, Jeff Sponder from the 16 Office of United States Trustee. We don't think it's a limited
17 release. One, two, it's commonplace that it's at the final 18 stage when the release is agreed to after the Committee has had 19 a chance to review. And I know that this one actually had it
20 in there and as Mr. Petrie said, it was negotiated out to now
21 back to the interim order. So it's the US Trustee's position
22 that if any release is going to be granted, it should be 23 granted at the final stage after a Committee and other parties
24 in interest have had a chance to review it. Thank you, Your 25 Honor.

1 THE COURT: Anything else? Okay. I think just as a
2 practical matter, I'm going to overrule the US Trustee's
3 objection on this one. I don't see anything happening between 4 now and the 90 day period. Certainly bring it to my attention
5 if the Unsecured Creditors Committee comes up with something
6 crazy, I definitely want to know of that. But I'm going to 7 overrule the US Trustee's objection at this point.

8 MR. PETRIE: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: And I think that takes care of all of 10 the issues.

11 MR. PETRIE: Correct. So I think that we will need to 12 revise the proposed interim order. We'll plan to submit that 13 to chambers. And I would like to just reemphasize that thank 14 you to Mr. Sponder for working constructively with us to reach
15 the revised proposed order.

16 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: And we echo that appreciation, Your
17 Honor.

18 THE COURT: Okay, so I'm going to mark, it's number 19 16 on the first day motion, let me see wait a minute, on my 20 order allowing the first day motions on shortened time for the 21 first day motions, so that's number 16, I'm going to mark that 22 order to be submitted.

23 MR. PETRIE: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right, thank you. And what's up next?

25 MR. PETRIE: What's up next is the Debtor's cash

1 management motion, which was filed at docket number 4.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MR. PETRIE: So as described in this motion, the 4 Debtors have 341 bank accounts held at five separate banks.
5 Your Honor, this is a lot of accounts, but this cash management
6 system is structured like other similarly sized companies' cash
7 management systems. So in short, cash moves from one of 297
8 depository accounts, which received receipts from sales on a
9 daily basis, which are swept daily or weekly into one of 13
10 concentration accounts where the funds are pooled. And then 11 disbursed into either an operation or disbursement account, or 12 an investment account.

13 The cash management motion requests authority to 14 continue to operate this bank account system in the ordinary 15 course. Pay certain outstanding bank fees. Maintain existing 16 forms of books and records. And to continue the credit card
17 program, which is primarily used for marketing expenses, as 18 well as intercompany transfers in the ordinary course.

19 The proposed form of order has been circulated to the 20 US Trustee and will have slight change to paragraph 11, as 21 compared to the order that's on the docket. It's a change from 22 a three business day notice period to a three days notice or 23 visa versa. So we'll plan to submit a revised proposed order
24 to chambers that incorporates that edit.

25 On a related note, we understand that certain of the

1 Debtors' bank accounts are held at banks that are not
2 considered authorized depositories at this time. This is only
3 true for a minority of the Debtors' bank accounts. And any 4 money that's held in a non authorized depository, which 5 includes PayPal and Stripe, is swept into an authorized
6 depository on a daily or a weekly basis. But in any event, we 7 came to agreement with the US Trustee that will explore the 8 possibility of coming into compliance with Section 345(b) for a
9 period of 30 days. And as a result we understand the US
10 Trustee has no objection to entry of the cash management order
11 on an interim basis.

12 So unless, does Your Honor have any questions?

13 THE COURT: None. I did read through that motion,
14 and the certification in support. So that is granted. I'm 15 going to mark it order to be submitted.

16 MR. PETRIE: Thank you very much, Your Honor. And 17 with that I'll turn the podium over to my colleague, Ms. Young.

18 THE COURT: Thank you.

19 MS. YOUNG: Good morning, Your Honor, can you hear me
20 all right?

21 THE COURT: I can hear you fine.

22 MS. YOUNG: Thank you, Mary Catherine Young with 23 Kirkland and Ellis, proposed counsel for the Debtors. Your 24 Honor, the next item on today's agenda is the Debtors'
25 insurance motion, filed at docket number 7. Through this

1 motion the Debtors seek authority to continue their insurance
2 programs, to renew, amend or modify the insurance policies as 3 necessary in the ordinary course. And to maintain their surety
4 bond programs.

5 The Debtors also seek authority to maintain their 6 premium financing agreements and to enter into any new 7 financing agreements that the Debtors see necessary in the 8 ordinary course.

9 Finally, the Debtors seek authority to continue
10 paying their insurance and surety brokers throughout the cases.
11 The Debtors don't believe there's any outstanding pre-petition
12 obligations related to the foregoing programs. But the Debtors
13 do request authority to pay any pre-petition obligations if any 14 exist.

15 This motion is fully consensual. And the US
16 Trustee's comments have been incorporated. So unless Your 17 Honor has any questions we respectfully request entry of the 18 interim order.

19 THE COURT: No questions, thank you. Granted.

20 MS. YOUNG: Thank you, Your Honor. The next item on 21 today's agenda is the Debtors' application to retain Kurtzman
22 Carson Consultants, LLC. It was filed at docket number 11.

23 Your Honor, KCC has vast experience in cases of this 24 size and serving in this role. And the purpose of retaining 25 them is really to ease the administrative burden on the Debtors

1 in administering these Chapter 11 cases. We filed a
2 declaration of Evan Gershbein from KCC, and it's attached to
3 the retention application as Exhibit B. I'd like to move that 4 into evidence at this time.

5 THE COURT: That's so moved, it's entered into 6 evidence.

7 MS. YOUNG: Thank you, Your Honor. Your Honor, this
8 application is unopposed. We've incorporated the US Trustee's 9 comments to the order. And so we respectfully request entry of 10 the order retaining KCC.

11 THE COURT: That is granted. And I'm glad to have 12 them aboard.

13 MS. YOUNG: Thank you, Your Honor. Next item on the 14 agenda is the Debtors' creditor matrix motion, filed at docket
15 number 14. Through this motion the Debtors seek authority to 16 file a consolidated list of the Debtors top 30 unsecured
17 creditors, to file a consolidated creditor matrix in lieu of 18 filing a separate mailing matrix for each Debtor entity, and to 19 waive the requirement to file a list of all the Debtors' equity
20 holders. And we also seek authority to redact certain 21 personally identifiable information from the Debtors' filed
22 documents.

23 The motion again generally seeks to ease
24 administrative burden on both the Debtors and really all 25 parties in interest. With respect to the top 30 list we want to

1 insure that the US Trustee has the information that they need
2 to essentially seek to appoint a statutory Committee. And we
3 also think that the redaction of personally identifiable
4 information, to the extent it's set forth in the motion and the 5 order, is reasonable and necessary under the circumstances.

6 The US Trustee's comments again have been 7 incorporated into the interim order. I understand that they 8 will have a few comments relating to issues that will be kicked 9 to the final hearing.

10 THE COURT: Okay, and I noted in that motion that 11 you're filing a full disclosure with not -- without covering up
12 any information about the creditors with the Court, correct?

13 MS. YOUNG: That's correct.

14 THE COURT: The US Trustee has access to that.

15 MS. YOUNG: Yes, that's correct.

16 THE COURT: Perfect. Okay.

17 MS. BIELSKIE: Your Honor, this is Lauren Bielskie,
18 I'd like to be heard on this matter briefly.

19 THE COURT: Yes, go ahead, Ms. Bielskie.

20 MS. BIELSKIE: If Your Honor can hear me. Thank you.
21 Again Lauren Bielskie with the Office of the United States
22 Trustee for the record. Your Honor, I will start by saying we 23 recognize this is an interim order. And we did agree with the 24 Debtors that the redactions requested as part of the creditors
25 matrix motion could be addressed at a subsequent hearing after

1 schedules are filed so our office can see them unredacted and
2 not just talk about this in the abstract. But we did advise the 3 Debtors that we wanted to put our concerns on the record this 4 morning.

5           Your Honor, what's at issue here is the public filing
6 of bankruptcy schedules. And the Bankruptcy Code and the 7 Bankruptcy Rules tell us that Debtors shall file schedules
8 listing the names and addresses of their creditors. And that's 9 reading Section 521 and Rule 1007 together. There are of course
10 exceptions, but the exceptions should not be the norm. The US
11 Trustee's concern with the extent the Debtors seek to redact
12 (indiscernible-audio skip) slippery slope we may go down when 13 requests for redactions are too extensive or become 14 commonplace.

15           The Debtors seek an order that would redact the home
16 and email addresses and other personally identifiable
17 information, other than names and all the natural persons who 18 are US citizens in the US, and the names and home and email
19 addresses of a natural citizen in the UK or European Economic 20 area member state. And while we're not opposed to redacting
21 home, we do not agree that the names of individuals abroad
22 should be redacted.

23           Further we're all concerned that we reached a
24 slippery slope (indiscernible) Debtors redacted the business
25 contact information of individuals that are identified and the

1 contact person for corporation's listed on the top 30 list that 2 was filed with the petition. And again while we agree that the 3 extent of the redactions will be an issue for another day, we 4 did want to raise these concerns and respectfully reserve all
5 rights for the final hearing. Thank you, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Understood. Thank you Ms. Bielskie. So
7 the interim order will be entered on that, Ms. Young.

8 MS. YOUNG: Great. Thank you, Your Honor. So that 9 takes us to item number 7 on the agenda, which is the Debtors
10 case management motion filed at docket number 5. Through this 11 motion the Debtors seek to designate these cases as complex
12 Chapter 11 cases, as well as to implement certain standard
13 notice case management and administrative procedures.

14 Designating these cases as complex and adopting these 15 case management procedures, which are frequently adopted in 16 this District, will ensure that these cases are administered as 17 efficiently and as cost effectively as possible for the benefit
18 for all parties.

19 Once again we've incorporated the US Trustee's
20 comments to the order. And this motion is uncontested.

21 The one thing I'd like to note is that the form of 22 order currently has placeholders for the next three omnibus
23 hearing dates. I'm happy to talk that through with Your Honor
24 now or we can do it housekeeping at the end, whatever works
25 best for you.

1 THE COURT: I have dates that I can make available
2 certainly to you guys. The beginning on March 13th, every 3 second and fourth Wednesday of the month is free. We could put 4 you on those days. That would be 3/13, 3/27, I know 4/10 we
5 have a status conference. That's open. 4/24. I also have a
6 couple of Thursdays I'm not sure, is that enough for you, Ms.
7 Young? Or do you need more dates?

8 MS. YOUNG: No, I think that that's great. We had 9 previously thought, contemplated the second day hearing being 10 on or around March 29th. So the 27th seems to work great for 11 us.

12 THE COURT: Okay, perfect.

13 MS. YOUNG: And I know that we have our, we have a 14 hearing potentially scheduled for Friday April 5th for the 15 disclosure statement hearing.

16 THE COURT: That's set, yes.

17 MS. YOUNG: Great. And then I think for the third
18 omnibus hearing date we were currently contemplating a Monday
19 May 13 confirmation hearing.

20 THE COURT: You can put that in, that's open for me.

21 MS. YOUNG: Okay. Great. Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Let me just ask one question. Can this -- 23 are the second day, would the second days be good on April 1st
24 for you?

25 MS. YOUNG: Yes.

1 THE COURT: That's a Monday.

2 MS. YOUNG: That works for us, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay, let's put them on Monday, the 4 second days.

5 MS. YOUNG: Okay.

6 THE COURT: 4/1.

7 MR. SPONDER: Your Honor, this is Jeff Sponder from 8 the Office of the United States Trustee. Can we just -- if 9 counsel doesn't mind repeating the three dates that we're going
10 to be using. Thank you.

11 THE COURT: Sure, it's the second day hearing is on 12 April 1st at 10. Confirmation is 5/13 at 10. And the 13 disclosure statement hearing is April 5th. That's a -- is 14 April 5th a Monday?

15 MS. YOUNG: It's a Friday, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right, so no, I want to do the 17 Monday, April 1st.

18 MS. YOUNG: And that was for the disclosure
19 statement?

20 THE COURT: Yes, the -- right so let's -- I'm sorry, 21 I'm glad we went over this again. Let's do the second days on 22 March 27th like you said, what you originally said. We'll do
23 the disclosure statement hearing on April 1st. And that will 24 give time for notice to prepare for confirmation. Confirmation
25 is May 13th.

1 MS. YOUNG: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Are you good with that, Mr. Sponder?

3 Does anybody want me or Ms. Young to repeat that?

4 MR. SPONDER: We're fine.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MS. YOUNG: We did want to request, in addition to 7 those hearing dates actually, two other omnibus hearing dates.
8 Would March 10th and March 24th -- sorry April 10th and April
9 24th work for Your Honor?

10 THE COURT: April -- yes, April 10th and April 24th,
11 they're both the second Wednesdays of the month, so those are 12 open, those are your omnibus days.

13 MS. YOUNG: Okay, great. So we'll pencil those into 14 the order and submit a revised.

15 THE COURT: Great, thank you.

16 MS. YOUNG: Thank you. So with that we'd request,
17 once those dates are in, we'd request entry of the order.

18 THE COURT: That order -- that motion is granted.
19 And I will mark it order to be submitted.

20 MS. YOUNG: Great, thank you. Your Honor, the last
21 item for me on today's agenda is the Debtors schedules and SOFA
22 extension motion filed at docket number 3. And I think we can 23 keep this one especially short. The Debtors are seeking entry 24 of an order extending the time to file their schedules and 25 SOFAs by 16 days for a total of 30 days from the petition date.

1 That puts the deadline at March 29th 2024.

2 The Debtors also request in the motion that they have
3 the ability to request additional extensions as necessary.
4 Your Honor, we want to make sure that the schedules and SOFAs
5 are done correctly. And if possible only done once. And we 6 think that this extension allows us to do that.

7 The US Trust's comments once again have been
8 incorporated or otherwise resolved. And so we would request
9 that the Court enter the order extending the SOFAs and 10 schedules deadline.

11 THE COURT: That motion is granted, yes.

12 MS. YOUNG: Great. Thank you, Your Honor. And with 13 that, I'll let my colleague Evan Swager take over. Thank you 14 for your time.

15 THE COURT: Thank you.

16 MR. SWAGER: Good morning, Your Honor, can you hear
17 me?

18 THE COURT: I can. Good morning, Mr. Swager.

19 MR. SWAGER: Evan Swager, Kirkland and Ellis,
20 proposed co-counsel to the Debtors. I will be picking up where 21 Ms. Young left off. I'm going to do the wages motion on docket
22 number 13.

23 This motion seeks authority to honor the Debtors'
24 employee compensation and benefits programs in the ordinary 25 course of business. As of the petition date, the Debtors have

1 450 employees, all of which are essential not only to their
2 business but to their efforts to operate in the ordinary course
3 of business during these Chapter 11 cases.

4 Accordingly the Debtors seek entry of an interim
5 order allowing the Debtors to continue to honor their wage and 6 benefit obligations in the ordinary course. We share this form
7 of motion and order with the US Trustee and the Ad Hoc Group
8 prior to the hearing, and incorporated all of their comments
9 before this hearing.

10 Accordingly, we seek, specifically request entry of 11 this order on an interim basis and note that no other parties 12 objected to date.

13 THE COURT: Granted. I've seen no objections.

14 MR. SPONDER: Your Honor, this is Jeff Sponder from 15 the Office of the United States Trustee.

16 THE COURT: Whoops, sorry, Mr. Sponder.

17 MR. SPONDER: No, no, no, worries, Your Honor. I
18 understand that was a change made to this order, and that it
19 should be an order to be submitted, unless I'm wrong. But I do 20 recall that.

21 MR. SWAGER: That's correct. We negotiated with the 22 US Trustee prior to this and will submit a revised form of 23 order today to reflect a few cleanups.

24 THE COURT: Okay, so that will be order to be 25 submitted.

1 MR. SWAGER: Yes.

2 THE COURT: All right, thank you. Thank you Mr.
3 Sponder.

4 MR. SPONDER: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 MR. SWAGER: The next item on the Debtors' agenda is 6 the vendors motion at docket number 18. Debtors seek authority
7 to pay the pre-petition obligations associated with 8 (indiscernible-audio skip) foreign vendors, 503(b)(9) vendors,
9 and a limited number of vendors the Debtors deem critical. The 10 majority of the relief that the Debtors request today stem from 11 lien claimants. Although the Debtors also have a number of 12 foreign vendors due to the fact that they source some of their 13 products and materials from vendors overseas.

14 Some of the lien claimants and foreign vendors were 15 separately classified as 503(b)(9) claimants due to the fact
16 they provided materials to the Debtors within 20 days before
17 the petition date.

18 Finally, the Debtors have a small bucket of vendors
19 the Debtors deem critical to their operations that don't fall
20 into any other buckets listed in the motion. These vendors are 21 typically sole source vendors, who provide goods that are 22 either very unique or be extraordinarily difficult to replace,
23 if replaceable at all.

24 Any disruption to the relationships the Debtors have 25 with their vendors would have an acute and adverse effect on

1 the Debtors' business.

2 Accordingly, the Debtors seek entry of an interim
3 order authorizing the Debtors to pay the enumerated vendors in 4 this motion on an interim basis. We've incorporated comments
5 of the US Trustee and the Ad Hoc Group here as well, and no
6 other parties objected to date. Unless Your Honor has any 7 questions, we'd move for entry of the order, the interim order
8 requesting the relief to defined in the vendors' motion.

9 THE COURT: Okay, and that order can be entered as 10 submitted, the proposed order that you submitted along with the 11 motion?

12 MR. SWAGER: We're going to submit all of the orders
13 at the end of the hearing, to address all the cleanups we 14 received to date. Or we'll submit revised orders after the 15 conclusion of this today.

16 THE COURT: All right, so all the orders that are 17 entered today are going to be submitted, I shouldn't --

18 MR. SWAGER: Yes, correct.

19 THE COURT: Okay, that makes it easy. Thank you, Mr.
20 Swager, that motion is granted.

21 MR. SWAGER: Thank you, Your Honor. Next up on the 22 Debtors' agenda is docket number 12, request (indiscernible-23 audio skip)

24 THE COURT: I'm sorry, request for what?

25 MR. SWAGER: Request for approval to honor the

1 Debtors' pre-petition customer program obligations.

2 THE COURT: Go ahead.

3 MR. SWAGER: In the ordinary course of business, the 4 Debtors maintain marketing, warranty and refund programs.
5 These programs are essential not only to continuing engagement
6 with existing customers, but also a source of new customers in 7 the ordinary course of business. We've reflected a few edits
8 in the order that we'll submit. Note that this motion is 9 tailored only to the enumerated programs in the customer
10 motion, and we're only seek relief for these programs
11 specifically.

12 We also shared this motion and order with the Ad Hoc 13 Group and incorporated all of their comments herein. No other 14 parties objected to date. And we respectfully ask for entry of 15 this order as submitted on an interim basis.

16 THE COURT: I've seen no objections either. Any 17 objections made here? None. That's granted. Thank you.

18 MR. SWAGER: Thank you. And lastly, at least for my 19 portion of the agenda, is the Debtors' Amazon motion. This is 20 little unique and a little atypical obviously from the normal
21 suite of first day motions. The Debtors have an inextricable
22 relationship with Amazon. Amazon is critical to the Debtors'
23 business. As described in the petition, over 90 percent of the 24 Debtors' sales last year were through Amazon's platform and 25 Amazon storefront.

1           You will note however a lot of the relief we're
2 seeking in the motion is covered through other motions,
3 specifically the vendors motion and the customer programs
4 motion, and the cash management motion. However, due to the 5 odd nature that we have with Amazon, Amazon nets fees from the 6 Debtors' sales directly from Amazon's platform.

7           And we filed this motion to accomplish two things.
8 To honor that netting program in the ordinary course, as well
9 as send a strong message to all of the Debtors' vendors and 10 customers and (indiscernible-audio skip) that the Amazon
11 relationship that we have will continue in the ordinary course
12 of business during these cases.

13           We circulated this motion to the Trustee as well as 14 the Ad Hoc Group, and as well as counsel to Amazon, all parties
15 were signed off and agree to this relief requested in this 16 interim order. No other parties objected to this motion to 17 date. And as submitted we request entry of this order on an 18 interim basis.

19           THE COURT: Okay, yes, this seems almost ordinary 20 course to me, but yes, that's granted.

21           MR. SWAGER: Thank you, Your Honor. With that I will 22 turn over the podium to Ms. Chanroo.

23           MS. CHANROO: Good morning, Your Honor, can you hear
24 me okay?

25           THE COURT: I can hear you just fine (indiscernible-

1 audio skip), Ms. Chanroo, correct?

2 MS. CHANROO: Sorry, what was that?

3 THE COURT: You did the powerpoint, you had the 4 powerpoint up.

5 MS. CHANROO: I did. I did, yes.

6 THE COURT: Good job, thank you.

7 MS. CHANROO: Good memory, Your Honor. Tiffani
8 Chanroo from Kirkland and Ellis, proposed co-counsel for the 9 Debtors. I'll be taking you through the balance of the agenda
10 today. The next item on the agenda is the Debtors' utility
11 motion, which was filed at docket number 9.

12 In this motion, the Debtors are seeking entry of an 13 interim order to approve the Debtors' proposed adequate
14 assurance payment for future utility services, to prohibit 15 utility providers from altering or refusing or discontinuing
16 services, and to approve the proposed procedures for resolving 17 any adequate assurance requests and disputes.

18 As set forth in the motion, the Debtors directly pay
19 a small number of utility providers for internet and other
20 services. The Debtors propose a deposit of approximately half 21 of the Debtors' monthly utility expense in the amount of 22 $6,655, to serve as an adequate assurance deposit in these 23 Chapter 11 cases.

24 The Debtors' proposed procedures are set forth to 25 address any concerns utility providers may have with the

1 adequate assurance.

2 We have reviewed this order with the US Trustee and 3 believe the proposed order is mutually agreeable. Does Your 4 Honor have any questions?

5 THE COURT: No questions, that motion is granted as 6 well.

7 MS. CHANROO: Great, thank you so much Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Thank you.

9 MS. CHANROO: The next motion on the agenda, Your 10 Honor, is Debtors' motion for entry of an order approving 11 notification and hearing procedures for certain transfers of 12 declarations of worthlessness of the Debtors' common and 13 preferred stock. Your Honor, the Debtors generate various 14 valuable stock -- tax attributes during the course of their 15 operations, including net operating losses or NOLs. And the 16 ability to carry forward NOLs into future tax payments.

17 As of December 31st 2023, the Debtors had 18 approximately $1.1 billion of NOLs and approximately $200
19 million of carry forwards. Further the Debtors expect to 20 generate substantial additional tax attributes this current tax
21 year. By establishing and implementing the proposed procedures,
22 the Debtors will be able to monitor and object to ownership
23 changes that threaten their ability to preserve their tax
24 attributes of the benefits of the Estate.

25 To note, Your Honor, the procedures requested herein

1 are commonly approved in this District and do not effect any
2 party's substantive rights. We have worked with the US Trustee
3 on incorporating their comments to the proposed form of notice,
4 declarations and order.

5 Accordingly the Debtors will be uploading a revised
6 proposed order which will reflect revised proposed procedures
7 that state that the Debtors will notify certain parties before
8 the objection deadline in the event the Debtors do not object
9 to a declaration of proposed transfer or declaration of intent
10 to claim a worthless stock deduction. And revised proposed 11 declarations that state that if a redacted declaration is filed
12 an unredacted version of the declaration will be provided upon 13 request to the US Trustee and any statutorily appointed
14 Committee.

15 With these updates, we believe the proposed order is 16 agreeable to the US Trustee. Does Your Honor have any 17 questions?

18 THE COURT: No questions, thank you. That motion is 19 approved.

20 MR. SPONDER: Your Honor, this is Jeff Sponder from 21 the Office of the United States Trustee. I just note that 22 there was an email exchange from a third party from South
23 Africa that had sent some information this to Debtors' counsel, 24 I just want to confirm that it was resolved. And I see Mr.
25 Petrie.

1 MR. PETRIE: Mr. Sponder, that's in the DK (phonetic)
2 cases.

3 MR. SPONDER: Oh is it. Okay, thank you. Now I'm 4 getting my cases confused, Your Honor. Sorry about that.

5 THE COURT: Okay. So that's, we're good with that
6 motion.

7 MR. SPONDER: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right, thank you.

9 MS. CHANROO: Thank you, Your Honor. Next up is the 10 motion is another motion to designed to protect the Debtors tax
11 attributes. The motion is filed at docket number 17, and it
12 seeks to establish a record date for potential notice and sell
13 down procedures for trading claims above a certain threshold
14 against the Debtors. Establishment of a record date will endure
15 that the Debtors have the opportunity to seek a sell down order
16 if one is necessary to preserve the Debtors' tax attributes.

17 To be clear, the motion before us only seeks to 18 establish a record date and notify parties that trade claims
19 against the Debtors so that they may be subject to sell down.
20 The proposed order does not affect any party's ability to trade 21 claims, and will only serve as a placeholder in the event the 22 Debtors later decide to seek a sell down order.

23 In the event the order is entered, the Debtors will 24 provide all claim holders with notice of the record date, 25 within five days of entry of this proposed order. And the

1 Debtors will also publish the notice in the Wall Street
2 Journal, New York Times and on the KCC website.

3 We've also reviewed this proposed order with the US
4 Trustee and have addressed their comments. Unless Your Honor
5 has any questions, we respectfully request entry of the order.

6 THE COURT: No questions. No objections. Granted.

7 MS. CHANROO: Thanks very much, Your Honor. The next
8 item on the agenda is a taxes motion which was filed at docket
9 number 10. By this motion the Debtors seek entry of an interim
10 order authorizing the Debtors to negotiate, remit, and pay
11 their taxes and fees in the ordinary course during these 12 Chapter 11 cases, irrespective of whether such obligations
13 accrued or arose before, on or after the petition date. And 14 undertake certain tax planning activities.

15 In the ordinary course of business the Debtors incur,
16 collect and withhold certain taxes, including income taxes,
17 franchise taxes, sales and use taxes, and custom and import
18 duties that must be paid on a periodic basis. The Debtors
19 estimate that they have approximately $10 million in taxes and 20 fees outstanding as of the petition date.

21 We have also reviewed this proposed order with the US
22 Trustee and believe that it is in a mutually agreeable form.
23 Unless Your Honor has any questions, we'd also request entry of 24 this order.

25 THE COURT: That order will be entered, thank you.

1 MS. CHANROO: Thank you, Your Honor. And to conclude,
2 the final item on the agenda is the motion filed at docket
3 number 8. This motion seeks to entry of an order restating and 4 enforcing the worldwide automatic stay, anti-discrimination
5 provision and ipso facto protections of the Bankruptcy Code.

6 The Debtors understand that the automatic stay
7 provisions of the Bankruptcy Code are self executing as of the 8 petition date. However, given the Debtors' business
9 relationships globally, the Debtors are seeking approval of 10 this motion to communicate with vendors and other parties of 11 interest that may not understand the scope of the automatic 12 stay.

13 This motion does not seek to expand or enlarge the 14 provisions of the Code, it simply requests authority to put the 15 Court's stamp on what the Bankruptcy Code already says. We 16 shared this motion and proposed order with the US Trustee as 17 well and have incorporated their comments. And Your Honor,
18 unless you have any questions, we also request entry of this 19 order.

20 THE COURT: The order will be entered. Thank you.

21 MS. CHANROO: Well Your Honor, I think that closes
22 out our agenda and presentation today. Again we would like to 23 just restate on behalf of the Debtors, thank you very much for 24 your time today.

25 THE COURT: Of course. This is what we do. So you're

1 very welcome. And thank you for the, all the work that you all
2 did before coming here. I can see just by the things that I was
3 reading through to prepare for this hearing there was a
4 tremendous amount of work, a lot of people involved. So thank 5 you.

6 MS. CHANROO: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: I think we're finished for today. And 8 I'll see you next time, right. Thank you, anybody else have 9 anything? Okay, thanks everybody.

1 THE COURT: Good afternoon everyone, we're here for
2 the second days for Thrasio. I have a list of presenters here.
3 I guess we'll start with the Debtor's attorneys of whom there
4 are many, if you want to enter your appearances, please. Join
5 audio, they can't hear me. Join with computer.

6 ATTORNEYS: We can hear you, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Oh, good, now I can hear you too. Okay,
8 so why don't we start with Debtor's attorneys.

9 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, Good afternoon, it's Matt
10 Fagen from Kirkland Ellis, proposed counsel to Thrasio and the 11 other Debtors.

12 THE COURT: Okay, thank you. And I know we have a 13 number of Debtors' attorneys listed, but we'll just, we'll 14 count you for now, Mr. Fagen. And I know that Mr. Sponder, 15 you're on the telephone with Ms. Bielskie.

16 MR. SPONDER: Good afternoon, Your Honor, Jeff
17 Sponder, from the Office of United States Trustee. We are 18 both, Ms. Bielskie and I are both on Zoom I believe. I believe 19 she is as well.

20 THE COURT: Yes. Okay, there you are, I see you.
21 And how about Ms. Giglio or someone from that firm want to 22 enter an appearance on behalf of the disinterested directors of 23 Thrasio?

24 MR. SMITH: Yes, Your Honor, Robert Smith proposed --
25 Katten Muchin Rosenman, proposed counsel on behalf of Mr.

1 Horton and Mr. Selig, as disinterested directors.

2 THE COURT: Okay, thank you. And the Committee, the 3 Unsecured Creditors Committee.

4 MR. MARINUZZI: Good afternoon, Your Honor, Lorenzo
5 Marinuzzi from Morrison and Foerster, proposed lead co-counsel
6 for the Office Committee of Unsecured Creditors. I'm joined by 7 my partner Doug Mannal, and my partner Ben Butterfield, and I
8 believe co-counsel Jason Adams from Kelley Drye and Warren is 9 also on.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Great, thank you. And we've got 11 the Ad Hoc first lien group?

12 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Yes, Your Honor, Joe Zujkowski,
13 Gibson Dunn, on behalf of the Ad Hoc first lien group.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 MR. SHERMAN: Your Honor, and Andrew Sherman, Sills
16 Cummis, also counsel for the Ad Hoc Group. Thank you.

17 THE COURT: All right, thank you. Royal Bank of 18 Canada. Mr. Martin?

19 MR. BAKER: Good afternoon, Your Honor, Nicholas
20 Baker, Simpson Thacher and Bartlett, on behalf of Royal Bank of 21 Canada, the pre-petition administrative agent.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 MS. PARISI: Good afternoon, Your Honor, Porzio
24 Bromberg and Newman also here on behalf of Royal Bank of 25 Canada.

1 THE COURT: All right, thank you. ESR, LLC, Ms.
2 Parlin?

3 MS. PARLIN: Good afternoon, Your Honor, Barbra
4 Parlin, Holland and Knight, for ESR, LLC.

5 THE COURT: Thank you, and last but not least, GXO
6 Logistics Supply Chain.

7 MS. FLETCHER: Yes, Your Honor, Deborah Fletcher,
8 from Fisher Broyles appearing pro hac vice with my partner who 9 is barred in New Jersey, also with Fisher Broyles, Patricia 10 Fugee. Thank you.

11 THE COURT: All right, thank you. Mr. Fagen, you
12 want to get us going here?

13 MR. FAGEN: I would like to, Your Honor, thank you
14 very much. And I'd just like to give a couple of words about 15 the progress and process to date. We've made substantial
16 progress to date since this case was filed on February 28th.
17 We still have a long way to go, no doubt about that. We've 18 continued to make progress since the UCC was formed on March 19 12th and retained advisors, who I'm sure you'll hear from 20 today.

21 The hallmark of the initial progress has been focused
22 on the DIP, and the other motions before you today at our 23 second day hearing. And really as you can imagine, there were 24 a lot of issues that any unsecured creditor body would have 25 liked to see in the DIP. We were able to boil it down to a few

1 key issues. And able to get everyone, the Debtor, the 2 Committee, the secured lenders, of course the US Trustee as 3 well, at the table and to make progress on those key issues.
4 And that formed the basis for the compromise that's reflected 5 in the uncontested DIP order that's been, going to be put 6 before you in just a bit, by my partner, Mr. Petrie.

7           Coterminous with that, we've also decided to extend 8 the DS hearing a bit. And adjourn that from what would have 9 been Friday, in a couple of days, to April 18th, to allow a 10 little bit more time. So we'll look forward to being back in 11 front of Your Honor two weeks from tomorrow on our proposed 12 disclosure statement.

13           And Your Honor, the company is optimistic about using 14 the cooperation and progress that have been demonstrated and 15 embodied in the DIP, as a launching point to continued progress
16 in the broader case issues as it affects the Unsecured Creditor
17 body and the Unsecured Creditors Committee who we're obviously 18 interfacing with on a daily basis.

19           So I want to thank all the parties. I do want to 20 note at the outset that, you know, the basis for a lot of the 21 consensus that we've achieved, and hope to continue to achieve,
22 is the alternative, which is, this is an adversarial process.
23 And we understand that the Unsecured Creditor body has been 24 looking at a relatively small recovery based on the case that 25 was filed and the plan that was proposed. And we totally

1 understand that the Committee's got to do everything it can to 2 maximize the value for Unsecured Creditors, as was our mandate,
3 and is our mandate as well.

4 I do want to note that we hope that we can continue a
5 cooperative relationship as we try to forge consensus. I did
6 look at in the company, and the management team, you know,
7 these are people who have been working with the company for 8 years, or in some cases less than that, but have been working 9 every day on the restructuring, did feel that there were some 10 unconstructive comments in a statement that was filed by the 11 Committee yesterday afternoon, which really I would say took 12 some aim at the management team specifically, whether it's 13 current or former. And we can totally understand why the 14 creditors who are looking at a diminished recovery have issues.
15 We totally get that. Just like the lenders have issues, just 16 like the shareholders who lost money, have issues. But some of 17 the speculation inherent in the pleading and that has 18 potentially to leak into the process at whole, you know,
19 probably wasn't based on too much fact. And we would hope that 20 in the future there could be more measured and more tailored 21 for the issues at bay, and especially evidence.

22 So I do want to make note of that, that there was 23 some disappointment about that pleading, and it was a
24 statement, it wasn't a pleading or a motion.

25 And I also want to make note that many people have

1 looked at what happened to Thrasio in the couple of years
2 preceding the petition date. We talked about it at length in 3 the first day declaration of Mr. Burke, and in the presentation
4 of the first day hearing. We also mentioned and discussed, and 5 you'll hear more eventually, from the disinterested directors
6 who are doing their own independent investigation being led by 7 the Katten firm who is on the line today.

8           And so, Your Honor, this case could go a lot of ways.
9 There's a chance that we're unable to reach consensus. And you
10 know, we're going to be back before you on some of these 11 issues. Clearly we're not there today. We hope that it could 12 launch toward a cooperative framework on the case issues at 13 bay.

14           I did want to make note of that really on behalf of 15 the current and former management team who we've been working
16 with and got to know well. And I think deserve a little bit
17 more than pure speculation in terms of what happened.

18           So I'm going to pause there and turn it over to my 19 colleague Mr. Petrie who is ready to handle the next item on 20 the agenda. But I'll pause there, Your Honor.

21           THE COURT: All right, thank you, Mr. Fagen. I think 22 --

23           MR. MANNAL: Good afternoon, Your Honor, this is Doug 24 Mannal from Morrison and Foerster, proposed counsel for the 25 Unsecured Creditors Committee. I wasn't sure if this was the

1 right opportunity to address the Court, or if I should wait
2 until a break when we address some of the orders. I'll defer to
3 Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Why don't you -- well, do you want to 5 respond to Mr. Fagen, or do you want to just put --

6 MR. MANNAL: Unfortunately I can't hear you, Your
7 Honor.

8 THE COURT: -- your position on the record. I'm 9 sorry?

10 MR. MANNAL: I cannot hear you, I apologize. My 11 connection was such that I could not hear what you were saying.

12 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, I couldn't hear you for a 13 moment either. But I heard you say I'm sorry.

14 MR. MANNAL: I did hear you say you're sorry.

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 MR. MANNAL: I'm sorry too.

17 THE COURT: Can you hear me now?

18 MR. MANNAL: Yes.

19 THE COURT: I have no idea what's going on with that.
20 Okay, so did you want to respond to Mr. Fagen, or do you want 21 to put a statement, a general statement on the record for the 22 Unsecured Creditors?

23 MR. MANNAL: Your Honor, I think it would be 24 appropriate for me to address the Court and put a statement on 25 the record on behalf of the Committee. And I'm happy to do

1 that now.

2 THE COURT: That's --

3 MR. MANNAL: If it makes sense.

4 THE COURT: That's fine. Because, my understanding
5 is the matters that the Court, that are under consideration for 6 the Court today are not contested. So why don't we just get 7 people's positions in general.

8 MR. MANNAL: Great.

9 THE COURT: So I'd welcome your comments, Mr. Mannal.

10 MR. MANNAL: Thank you, Your Honor, for the record, 11 Doug Mannal of Morrison and Foerster proposed counsel for the 12 Unsecured Creditors Committee. Your Honor, we share Mr.
13 Fagen's remarks and are pleased to report that it has been 14 helpful to achieve a negotiated resolution of the Committee's
15 objections to certain of the Debtors' first and second day
16 motions. Including perhaps, most importantly, the proposed 17 final DIP financing order.

18 Not everyone got what they wanted. And everyone
19 appears equally disappointed. And that's suggests that 20 settlement is reasonable.

21 And clearly, Your Honor, this Committee understands
22 the import of being commercial and is fully capable of reaching 23 settlements where they're appropriate. I do take issue,
24 however, with some of Mr. Fagen's comments that our statement
25 wasn't entirely appropriate.

1 I think in the context of this case, it is the
2 Committee's perspective that this case has not been properly
3 presented to Your Honor. And I would like to take a few
4 moments before we get into the orders, and spend a few moments
5 introducing the Committee as well as discussing the Committee's
6 perspective of these cases.

7 The Committee was appointed on March 12th, Your 8 Honor. And it's comprised of seven members. And those members
9 reflect the general makeup of the general Unsecured Creditor
10 body in these cases. Six of the members are owners of small 11 businesses who sold their businesses to Thrasio, and who are 12 owed money under the sale agreements. The seventh member of 13 the Committee is a trade vendor to Thrasio, with outstanding 14 invoices.

15 On the first day of these cases, Your Honor, the 16 Debtor suggested that they found themselves in Bankruptcy Court
17 as a result of unforeseen factors outside of their control, 18 including the end of the pandemic, and a return to brick and 19 mortar shopping by consumers.

20 And I think the truth here is much more complicated.
21 And it's important to recognize on a macro perspective that the 22 rate at which consumers are choosing to shop online may have 23 slowed for periods during the pandemic. But the amount of 24 online transactions remains at historic highs. And today is 25 essentially doubled from what it was when Thrasio began its

1 life in 2018.

2           Your Honor should recognize that Thrasio was reported
3 to be valued worth more than $5 billion a little over two years
4 ago. And at the end of 2021 Thrasio raised more than a billion
5 dollars of fresh capital from equity investors. And when 6 combined with their prior debt and equity raises, Thrasio had 7 successfully tapped the capital markets for approximately $3
8 billion of fresh capital.

9           And I just want to pause on that for a second, Your 10 Honor. A little over two years ago Thrasio had raised $3
11 billion of cash. Yet they commenced these bankruptcy cases 12 with approximately $30 million. That means 99 percent of the 13 funds that they raised, 99 percent of the cash that they raised 14 is now gone.

15           In addition, the Debtors now estimate based on their 16 schedules that they filed, or exhibits they filed to their 17 disclosure statement, that the businesses that they're 18 currently managing are now only worth about $500 million. And 19 this Committee is simply asking where did the value go. In 20 about two years' time, what happened. Where did it go.

21           I think clearly the Debtor spent some of that money
22 purchasing businesses from small business owners like those 23 that sit on the Unsecured Creditors Committee. However we 24 believe that that's only a relatively small portion of where 25 the Debtors' cash went. And that would be consistent with the

1 way they structured the sales of, the purchases rather, of the 2 various businesses they acquired, because a lot of the 3 consideration was paid in deferred payments to the sellers of 4 the businesses. And the Debtors of course are now looking to 5 walk away from those obligations to the sellers.

6 And while the management team I think was very good
7 at convincing parties to sell their businesses to Thrasio,
8 clearly they weren't able to maintain the profitability of 9 those businesses once they acquired them.

10 And based on communications we've had with the 11 various sellers, we feel that there's a likelihood that will 12 ultimately determine that the Debtors did little to protect 13 their products from infringement. That they focused their 14 efforts exclusively on Amazon and got rid of any other channels
15 on which they were selling products.

16 And we are concerned about the internal controls at 17 the Debtors. And it appears over the last few years the 18 Debtors have been spending money hand over fist, clearly if 19 they entered this bankruptcy with only $30 million, having 20 raised 3 billion. But it's our job, and it's our view, that we 21 need to understand where the money went. Who made the 22 decisions to spend that money. And who was the beneficiary of 23 the corporate waste.

24 Your Honor, bankruptcy is expensive. And the 25 Committee understands that. And we understand that the lenders

1 want these cases to be over yesterday. We do. They want to 2 take their collateral and they want to rid themselves from any 3 obligation to make the deferred payment obligation to the 4 former business owners. All the while they want to use the 5 protection of your court to insure that these businesses remain
6 as a going concern.

7 But bankruptcy requires transparency. And to date
8 little of these cases has been transparent. The general
9 Unsecured Creditors are likely impaired and are going to be 10 required to vote on any Chapter 11 plan. And sitting today, 11 they don't know what they will be voting on. The Debtors have 12 a disclosure statement that they filed that says little about 13 where the money actually went. Nor does the value of the 14 potential Estate claims that may result from the answer to that 15 question anywhere contained in the disclosure statement. And 16 that disclosure statement hearing is on from two weeks from 17 today. As Mr. Fagen said, it's currently scheduled for the 18 18th.

19 It's important to note, Your Honor, that the 20 Committee, upon being appointed, immediately began delving into 21 this issue. And days after being retained, our firm served
22 several formal and informal document requests on the Debtors,
23 and the independent directors, and we expect additional 24 document requests in the near future.

25 And while the Debtors have begun to populate a data

1 room, and have started to answer some of the Committee's
2 questions, many of the questions today remain unanswered. And 3 many of the requests for information have not been responded 4 to.

5 The Committee needs sufficient time, Your Honor, and 6 an opportunity to avoid unfairly disenfranchising the Unsecured
7 Creditors of these Debtors, many of whom are still owed money
8 for the same businesses the secured lenders are now seeking 9 this Court's authority to take, free and clear.

10 We understand we have a lot of work cut out for us in 11 a very short period of time. And we are hopeful that we're 12 able to achieve an agreement with the Debtors on a reasonable
13 schedule for soliciting and presenting a Chapter 11 plan before
14 this Court. And if not, we'll be likely before Your Honor
15 requesting additional time to better understand why a company
16 with more than $3 billion of cash two years ago, crashed into 17 bankruptcy essentially penniless.

18 Thank you very much for your time, Your Honor. I'm 19 happy to answer any questions you may have.

20 THE COURT: All right thank you. Mr. Fagen, are you
21 prepared to address that, I'm just wondering what the Debtors
22 are doing about making sure the information is supplied to the 23 Committee.

24 MR. FAGEN: Yes, can you hear me, Your Honor?

25 THE COURT: I can.

1 MR. FAGEN: Okay, terrific. Your Honor, I'll respond
2 in part, I'm going to reserve some response for, I assume, the 3 disclosure statement hearing, or the next time we're before
4 you. But I would say that it has been critically important to 5 the Debtor, the Debtor and all of its professionals, to work to 6 get all discovery, all reasonable discovery, most of it being 7 informal, to the Creditors Committee on a timely basis, in 8 advance of the lead up to the DIP hearing that we have today,
9 which started out contested, got a ton of requests. We 10 provided, to my understanding all of the information that was 11 requested with respect to the DIP, which was extensive, and 12 allowed for a cooperative settlement, or an objection if that 13 was the way it went, it didn't go that way.

14 Same thing on the upcoming disclosure statement
15 hearing, which is two weeks away, two weeks from tomorrow. We 16 filed all of our disclosure statement exhibits, including a 17 comprehensive valuation, liquidation analysis, set of 18 (indiscernible-audio skip) projections, last week.

19 We've also provided a significant amount of discovery
20 to the (indiscernible) team and the Unsecured Creditors. There 21 have been follow-up requests, no doubt. We've attempted to 22 respond timely to those follow-up requests.

23 The question of where the value went, for instance,
24 is not new, that's a question that was asked to us by the 25 Committee over a week ago, I think it was probably more like

1 ten days ago. We followed that up shortly after that, that was 2 part of two information requests, one was about the claims pool
3 itself, one was about where the money went. There may have 4 been a couple of others. We filed followed those up with 5 presentations that we had updated to elaborate more. There were 6 offers of calls with the management team to explain, those 7 still stand.

8           So we're taking very seriously the responsibility to 9 share information with the Creditors Committee. We'd much
10 rather go that route than to have fights before you on 11 discovery. We think that giving the information is clearly the 12 more cost effective and case effective approach.

13           Mr. Mannal, frankly, I take at your word that you're 14 unhappy with the production or there's something you don't 15 want. I assume that if you call me after this hearing about 16 anything that you're missing, that you think that I would help
17 and we'd get that to you timely. If that's not the case, you 18 know, let me know, but that's certainly been not only our 19 intention, but our history of dealing to date.

20           THE COURT: Okay.

21           MR. FAGEN: I would only add that we -- I think we 22 said at the beginning, I want to be clear, in terms of the 23 facts, we do disagree with several of the facts that were 24 outlaid thereto. But I don't think that they're really up for 25 debate or for hearing today. So I would reserve on that for a

1 future hearing.

2 THE COURT: Okay, I'm sure I don't even really need
3 to say this, because you all have plenty of experience with 4 Chapter 11 cases and trying to get them to move quickly. But 5 obviously discovery and disclosure is the most important thing
6 at this point. And if there's any issue with anyone here that 7 feels as though they're being asked for information that they 8 shouldn't be providing or is not relevant, any issues like
9 that, please call chambers and we can set up a conference call
10 rather than -- I'd like to manage any problem like that 11 quickly. And not extend this any further out if we can 12 possibly help it. But I also want to make sure that the 13 Committee has access to all the information that they need in 14 order to present an effective case on behalf of their -- on 15 behalf of the Unsecureds. So thank you, thank you both.

16 MR. FAGEN: Thank you.

17 MR. MANNAL: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, I will now cede the podium to 19 my colleague, Mr. Petrie, if that's okay with you.

20 THE COURT: That's okay with me. Thank you, Mr.
21 Fagen.

22 MR. PETRIE: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

24 MR. PETRIE: It's a pleasure to appear before you
25 again. So I'll begin addressing the agenda items with the

1 Debtors' motion to approve the DIP financing on a final basis.
2 As noted previously in today's hearing, we are seeking approval
3 of a final DIP motion that is fully consensual, and strikes a
4 compromise between the Debtors, the Committee, the US Trustee
5 and the other parties in interest.

6           In the time since the first day hearing,
7 participation in the DIP was opened up to additional holders of 8 first lien claims under the syndication procedures that were 9 approved in the interim order. And between then and now there 10 was significant participation with approximately 97 percent of 11 eligible holders of first lien claims electing to participate
12 in the facility.

13           The order that we seek entry of today is similar in 14 many ways to the version that was approved on an interim basis
15 in the first days of the case. The structured of the DIP
16 remains the same.

17           In total the DIP is still $90 million in new money, 18 and the remaining amount is available in two additional 19 district draws. Today upon approval of the final order, 35
20 additional million will be made available, with 20 million more
21 committed upon entry of today's order, but available upon entry 22 of the confirmation order or up to five days prior to that 23 hearing if certain conditions are met.

24           The remaining 235 million of rollup amounts will be 25 deemed funded upon the availability of each of these two draws

1 at a 3 to 1 ratio. Which means that the final 60 million of 2 that rollup amount will only be deemed funded if and when there
3 is a draw on that final 20 million. This timing represented a
4 compromise between the DIP lenders, the Committee and the 5 Debtors.

6 The other major changes to the order represents 7 similar agreements between the Committee, the DIP lenders and 8 the Debtors, with the most significant being additional 9 language surrounding (indiscernible)

10 We see the language in the proposed order a couple of 11 times. But in summary, it provides that the Debtors, the DIP
12 secured parties, and the pre-petition first lien secured 13 parties shall use commercially reasonable efforts to repay the 14 DIP obligations or adequate protection amounts first, from the 15 proceeds of the DIP collateral, other than unencumbered
16 property before we can look to the proceeds of previously
17 unencumbered property.

18 Another material revision included the addition of a 19 tolling concept to the 60 day challenge period so that new 20 language provides that the period will be tolled by two days 21 until the resolution of any standing motion is filed by the 22 Committee.

23 The investigation budget has also been raised to 24 $250,000. And additional language clarifies the scope of the 25 challenge and what elements of the order are subject to the

1 challenge. Those changes, among other language modifications,
2 including reporting requirements and reservation of rights,
3 address the Committee's (indiscernible)

4 We did also receive one formal objection on the 5 docket from an individual creditor GXO. GXO sought to protect a
6 warehouse (indiscernible) it's entitled to though GXO and the 7 Debtors are currently engaged in a dispute surrounding the 8 extent of any such lien. We were able to work out language to 9 resolve GXO's objection, which is contained in the final
10 paragraphs of the proposed order. That language essentially 11 preserves the ability for GXO to prove up the extent of its 12 lien and a commitment by the Debtors to reach resolution on 13 GXO's claims and liens expeditiously following this hearing in 14 the coming weeks.

15 We hope to come to resolution consensually, though
16 it's possible that we will before Your Honor to determine the 17 dispute in the future. But either way, our understanding is 18 that GXO's objection is resolved insofar as the DIP order is 19 concerned.

20 So in sum, the relief that we seek under the final 21 order will address the immediate needs of the business,
22 including allowing the Debtors to satisfy their obligations to 23 employees, vendors, suppliers, customers, and other
24 stakeholders. And the terms of the DIP facility are the result
25 of extensive good faith negotiations with the DIP lenders,

1 Committee and the US Trustee.

2 This was the only financing option that is currently
3 available. And as noted this order will provide significant
4 liquidity to the Debtors. An addition 35 million immediately,
5 and another 20 million later in the cases, as well as the 6 ability for the Debtors to continue to use cash on hand a fully 7 consensual basis.

8 So unless Your Honor has any questions, or any other 9 party would like to be heard on this, we respectfully ask Your 10 Honor to enter the final DIP order today.

11 THE COURT: I have no questions. I did read over the 12 blackline copy or redline copy of the final DIP order that was 13 sent to me. I don't know, does anyone else who is at the 14 hearing today have questions for Mr. Petrie? All right, 15 hearing none. That, the final order will be entered.

16 MR. PETRIE: Thank you, Your Honor. For the 17 avoidance of doubt, we'll submit entry ready versions of every 18 order that gets approved at today's hearing to chambers
19 afterwards, to ensure that it contains all of these comments.
20 And for just running a good process.

21 THE COURT: All right, that would be great, that 22 would be very helpful, thank you.

23 MR. PETRIE: Thank you, Your Honor. So that brings
24 us to the next item on the agenda -- well I don't actually know
25 where it is on the agenda, but the next item I'm going to

1 present, which is entry of an order that will permit the 2 Debtors to continue to operate their cash management system.

3           As described on the first day of these cases, the 4 Debtors operate a fairly large bank complex cash management
5 system, which includes close to 350 distinct bank accounts.
6 The Debtors have spent time since the first day hearing
7 exploring the possibility of coming into strict compliance with 8 Section 345(b). We worked with the US Trustee to consensually
9 agree to extend the deadline through today, April 3rd.

10 However, case still moves through certain banks that are 11 considered non complaint, including RBC, Paypal, Payoneer, 12 Stripe and OFX. The majority of this cash is only at those 13 banks for a short period of time, and we do believe that these 14 banks are well capitalized institutions.

15           But nonetheless, as of the date of today's hearing,
16 we still need additional time to ascertain whether strict
17 compliance with 345(b) is possible for a cash management system
18 such as ours, which can occur either by these non compliant
19 banks executing uniform depository agreements with the Office
20 of the US Trustee, or for the Debtors to take other measures, 21 such as making modifications to our cash management system that 22 would not cause harm to the company or its business.

23           So Your Honor, the order that we're seeking today is 24 a second interim cash management order rather than a final
25 order. We're seeking to preserve the status quo for a limited

1 amount of time to make a determination on our next steps. And 2 as we told the US Trustee, we will provide an update to them in 3 two weeks as to where everything stands.

4 At some point in the next 30 days, we do believe
5 we're going to have a firm answer on 345(b) compliance. And if 6 we need Your Honor to provide a ruling to memorialize whatever
7 that result is, then we will be prepared to meet our 8 evidentiary burden at the appropriate time.

9 But we do anticipate moving to a final order
10 expeditiously, including as soon as the omnibus hearing
11 currently scheduled for April 24th. Until that time comes, we 12 do ask for Your Honor's approval of this second round of 13 interim relief to continue to allow access to the company's 14 cash management system in order to prevent irreparable harm to 15 the Estates.

16 The revised form of order incorporates comments by 17 each of the US Trustee and the Committee, which material
18 changes included additional standard reporting requirements,
19 including notice as to when the Debtors open and close accounts
20 and reservations of certain (indiscernible) So unless Your 21 Honor as any questions we do request entry of that order on an 22 interim basis today.

23 THE COURT: I have no questions. Anyone else? Any 24 of the other presenters have comments or questions on that?

25 MR. MANNAL: Your Honor, Doug Mannal, proposed

1 counsel for the Unsecured Creditors Committee, we have no
2 objection to the entry of the cash management.

3 THE COURT: All right, thank you. So that order --

4 MR. SPONDER: And, Your Honor, Jeff Sponder from the
5 Office of the United States Trustee, we did negotiate language
6 for the second interim order and have no objection to the 7 order, the second interim order that has been presented to Your
8 Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, thanks Mr. Sponder and 10 Mr. Mannal. So that order will also be entered when we receive 11 it.

12 MR. PETRIE: Great, thank you, Your Honor. I'm now
13 turning the podium over to my colleague, Mr. Swager.

14 MR. SWAGER: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

16 MR. SWAGER: Evan Swager, Kirkland Ellis on behalf of 17 the Debtors. Moving next to Debtors contract and lease 18 rejection motion, docketed at docket number 107, and on the 19 agenda as item 15.

20 This motion seeks to reject certain executory
21 contracts and expired leases (indiscernible) the schedule to 22 the order, and we'll submit that to chambers today.

23 The Debtors received two objections to this motion.
24 The first objection was for (indiscernible) the APA counter
25 party to which we adjourned that objection to a future hearing

1 date and will not be going forward with that objection today.

2           The other objection was from two -- one of the 3 Debtors' landlords, and we resolved that objection prior to 4 this hearing through inclusion language in the revised proposed
5 order. I want to note for the record regarding the 6 (indiscernible) objection and the language we added. We wanted
7 to clarify that the language in the new order says that if the 8 landlord seeks to assert damages in excess of the security
9 deposit the landlord is retaining, they will be entitled to do
10 so. The Debtors are entitled to --

11           THE COURT: I'm sorry, Mr. Swager, could you say that 12 again, just a little bit slower.

13           MR. SWAGER: Sure, of course. The Two Friends
14 (phonetic) objection includes the resolution of the Two Friends
15 objection (indiscernible) language to the proposed order. That 16 objection includes language saying that Two Friends can submit 17 a claim or damages in excess of the security deposit they are 18 retaining -- and we are free to dispute that claim on a future
19 day. We would note that our understanding of that language,
20 that we will do that through the formal claims objection
21 process in these cases.

22           THE COURT: Okay, thank you.

23           MR. SWAGER: We received and incorporated comments
24 from the Committee, the US Trustee and the Ad Hoc Group prior 25 to this hearing. And no other party has objected to this

1 motion. Unless Your Honor has any questions, we respectfully
2 request entry of the proposed order.

3 THE COURT: No questions, that will be -- and the 4 hearing -- are we moving the objection to a different date?

5 MR. SWAGER: Yeah, the (indiscernible) objection will
6 go forward on a different date. We haven't set that date,
7 although I think we discussed having it on the 18th with the 8 disclosure statement.

9 THE COURT: For calendar control purposes, that makes 10 sense. All right. So that will be on the -- remainder of the 11 motion will be heard on the 18th.

12 MR. SWAGER: Yes, that's correct.

13 THE COURT: I mean subject to change, depending on 14 what you guys decide between you.

15 MR. SWAGER: (indiscernible)

16 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

17 MR. SWAGER: Thank you, Your Honor. Moving next to 18 Debtor's bar date motion, which was filed at docket number 106.
19 It is on the agenda as item number 14. This motion seeks 20 authority to set a time for procedures for filing and 21 submitting proofs of claim.

22 Prior to the hearing we implemented comments to the 23 order from the US Trustee, the Committee and the Ad Hoc Group.
24 And no other party has objected to this motion. Unless Your 25 Honor has any questions, we respectfully request entry of the

1 order.

2 THE COURT: No questions. Order will be entered.

3 MR. SWAGER: Thank you, Your Honor. Turning next to 4 the final order approving the Debtors' wages motion, the motion
5 which was filed at docket number 13, and is on the agenda here
6 as item number 4.

7 We incorporated certain comments from the UCC, the US
8 Trustee and Ad Hoc Group prior to the hearing, mostly centering
9 on consent requirements of notice (indiscernible) to parties
10 here. No other party has objected to entry of the proposed
11 order. Unless Your Honor has any questions, we respectfully
12 request entry of the proposed order for the wage motion on a
13 final basis.

14 THE COURT: I have no questions. Just hang on one
15 second. Mike, are you picking that up?

16 THE CLERK: Some of it, not all of it.

17 THE COURT: Okay, I would just ask you to speak a 18 little slower so we can make sure that we pick up all the 19 comments that you're making on the record, Mr. Swager. But 20 number 4 is, the document number 13, the motion for entry of 21 the final order authorizing the Debtor to pay pre-petition
22 wages will be entered.

23 MR. SWAGER: Thank you.

24 THE COURT: All right, thank you.

25 MR. SWAGER: And finally, at least for my portion of 1 today's hearing, turning next to our order approving the 2 Debtors vendor motion. We filed that motion at docket number

3 13, and it's on the agenda here as item number 4. We received
4 an incorporated comments to the order from the UCC, the US
5 Trustee and the Ad Hoc Group prior to the hearing. And no
6 party has objected to the motion. Unless Your Honor has any 7 questions, we respectfully request entry of proposed order on a
8 final basis.

9 THE COURT: And that's -- that number 5 on the notice
10 of agenda, today's agenda?

11 MR. SWAGER: Yes, item number 5, correct.

12 THE COURT: Yes, 5, okay. I have no questions, that 13 will be entered.

14 MR. SWAGER: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Thank you.

16 MR. SWAGER: (indiscernible)

17 MS. FEENEY: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

19 MS. FEENEY: For the record, Megan Feeney from 20 Kirkland and Ellis on behalf of the Debtors. I'll be taking us
21 through the next four items on the agenda. The next item being 22 the Debtors' final utilities order, which was filed originally 23 at docket number 9, and is number 8 on the agenda.

24 Final order reflects comments from the United States
25 Trustee, the Creditors Committee, and the Ad Hoc Group. And

1 with these changes we are fully resolved. And so unless Your 2 Honor has any questions, we respectfully request entry of this
3 order.

4 THE COURT: The order will be entered when received.

5 MS. FEENEY: Thank you, Your Honor. The next item on 6 the agenda which is item number 3, apologies for going out of 7 order on these, is the Debtors insurance order, filed
8 originally at docket number 7. The proposed order reflects a
9 couple of comments from the United States Trustee, the 10 Creditors Committee and the Ad Hoc Group, which include a few 11 additional reporting obligations. But with these changes we 12 are fully consensual and unless Your Honor has any questions,
13 we respectfully request entry of this order.

14 THE COURT: No question, the order will be entered.

15 MS. FEENEY: Thank you. The next item on agenda,
16 which is item number 12, is the Debtors OCP order, originally 17 filed at docket number 198, which authorizes the Debtors to 18 employ and pay ordinary course professionals.

19 This order too is fully consensual and reflects
20 comments from the United States Trustee, the Creditors
21 Committee, and the Ad Hoc Group. So unless there are any 22 questions, we respectfully request entry of this order.

23 THE COURT: Your request is granted. No questions.

24 MS. FEENEY: So the last item that I'll be presenting 25 today is item 11 on today's agenda. And it was, it is the

1 Debtors' de minimus asset sales procedures order, originally 2 filed at docket number 103, which seeks authorization to 3 implement procedures for the Debtors to use, sell, transfer, or 4 abandon certain de minimus assets.

5           We incorporated comments from the United States
6 Trustee, the Creditors Committee, and the Ad Hoc Group. These 7 changes include additional noticing rights for certain parties
8 in interest, as well as additional details for the transaction
9 and abandonment notices that will be filed with Your Honor.
10 And they will also be sent to the notice parties, those 11 notices.

12           So with these changes we are fully resolved, but I
13 would like to note that prior to the hearing we did agree with 14 Mr. Sponder that the Debtors would separately notify the United 15 States Trustee and the Creditors Committee should any third 16 party be retained or employed in connection with any sort of 17 sale or abandonment of de minimus assets.

18           So unless Your Honor has any questions, respectfully
19 request entry of this order.

20           THE COURT: No questions. That makes sense. The 21 order will be entered.

22           MS. FEENEY: Thank you. So I will pass the balance of 23 the agenda off to my colleague, Mr. Eck.

24           THE COURT: Thank you.

25           MR. ECK: Good afternoon, Your Honor, Trevor Eck,

1 from Kirkland and Ellis, proposed counsel to the Debtors. I
2 will be walking us through the remaining items on today's
3 agenda. And all of which are (indiscernible) on an uncontested
4 basis.

5 First up is item number 6 on the agenda. It's the 6 Debtors' final customer programs order, which was originally 7 filed at docket number 12. This order allows the Debtors to 8 maintain their existing customer programs, including their 9 necessary marketing, refund and warranty programs in the 10 ordinary course.

11 This order is fully uncontested, as it incorporates
12 comments from the Committee, the US Trustee, and the Ad Hoc
13 Group regarding certain notice and reporting requirements.
14 Unless Your Honor has any questions, we request entry of the 15 final customer programs order.

16 THE COURT: No questions. The order will be entered.

17 MR. ECK: Thank you, Your Honor. Next up is item
18 number 7 on the agenda. That is the Debtors final Amazon
19 order, which was originally filed at docket number 6. This 20 order allows Debtors to maintain their crucial relationship
21 with Amazon and to continue to utilize their services.

22 This order is uncontested as it incorporates comments
23 from the Committee, the US Trustee and the Ad Hoc Group over 24 certain notice and reporting requirements and reservation of 25 rights. And unless Your Honor has any questions, we

1 respectfully request of the final Amazon order.

2 THE COURT: That is, that order is fine with me.

3 That will be entered. Thank you.

4 MR. ECK: And next up is item number 9 on the agenda.
5 That is the Debtors final NOL order, which was originally filed
6 at docket number 15. The order implements certain procedures
7 that protect the Debtors' valuable tax (indiscernible) during 8 these Chapter 11 cases. This order is fully consensual as it
9 incorporates comments from the Committee, the US Trustee, and 10 the Ad Hoc Group. And unless Your Honor has any questions, we 11 request entry of the final NOL order.

12 THE COURT: No questions, that order will be entered.

13 MR. ECK: Great, thank you, Your Honor. Next up is 14 item number 10 on the agenda. And that is the Debtors' final 15 taxes order, which was originally filed at docket number 10.
16 This order allows the Debtor to pay their pre-petition taxes,
17 interrelated governmental fees. And this order is uncontested
18 as it incorporates comments from the Committee, the US Trustee, 19 and the Ad Hoc Group. And unless you have any questions, Your 20 Honor, we respectfully entry of the final taxes order.

21 THE COURT: No questions, that final order will be 22 entered.

23 MR. ECK: Great, thank you, Your Honor. And last up
24 is item number 13 on the agenda, that is the Debtors'
25 administrative fee motion, which was filed at docket number

1 105. This motion seeks to implement standard procedures for
2 the compensation of retained professionals during the Chapter
3 11 cases. And is fully uncontested as it incorporates comments
4 from the Committee, the Ad Hoc Group, and the US Trustee. And 5 unless you have any questions, Your Honor, we respectfully
6 request entry of the admin fee order.

7 THE COURT: No questions. Pretty common order,
8 that's fine.

9 MR. ECK: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Thank you.

11 MR. ECK: And that concludes the balance of the 12 agenda. Thank you for your time, and I'll cede back to Mr.
13 Petrie.

14 THE COURT: All right, thank you.

15 MR. PETRIE: And Your Honor, we don't have very much 16 more to say, we'd just like to say thank you to you and your 17 chambers for accommodating us. We've moved several hearings in 18 the past couple of days and we really do appreciate your help
19 and willingness to be responsive. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: Of course, yes. They're good people in 21 there.

22 MR. PETRIE: Yes, we agree. Anyway, that concludes 23 the hearing from our perspective today, and thank you again,
24 Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. And so we have --

1 yes, I have the dates. I have the adjourned dates. All right,
2 would anyone else like to add anything here, anything on the 3 record? All right, thank you all. Nice to meet the new folks
4 who are joining this case for the first time. And we'll see
5 you again soon. Thank you.

6 ATTORNEYS: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: -- six hours 30 minutes. Okay. Good
2 morning everyone. Obviously we're here on Thrasio. We have a
3 number of, three different matters to record today. We can 4 start with appearances. Mr. Fagen, do you want to start with 5 your appearance? We weren't sure how many Debtors' attorneys
6 were going to be appearing in the courtroom today.

7 MR. FAGEN: That would be terrific, Your Honor, Matt
8 Fagen, Kirkland and Ellis, proposed counsel to the Debtors, 9 here at the disclosure statement hearing. Do you want to take 10 appearances from others?

11 THE COURT: No, go ahead, just who is here from 12 Kirkland for the Debtors?

13 MR. FAGEN: Yeah, from Kirkland it's my partner,
14 Francis Petrie, my colleague Evan Swager as well.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Evan is --

16 MR. FAGEN: Sitting right next to Mr. Petrie.

17 THE COURT: Okay. And I see Ms. Yudkin is here.
18 Okay. All right, thank you. Committee?

19 MR. MARINUZZI: Good morning, Lorenzo Marinuzzi,
20 Morrison and Foerster, proposed lead counsel for the Official
21 Committee. I'm joined today by my partner, Doug Mannal.

22 THE COURT: You look familiar.

23 MR. MANNAL: Good morning.

24 THE COURT: Welcome, good morning. Okay. And I don't 25 think we need to go through everyone who is on Zoom. I know

1 Mr. Sponder, do you want to enter your appearance? You're a
2 little busy today I think.

3 MR. SPONDER: Thank you, Your Honor, Jeff Sponder
4 from the Office of the United States Trustee. Good morning.

5 THE COURT: Good morning. And how about the Ad Hoc
6 lien -- yes, the Ad Hoc Lien Group.

7 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Good morning, Your Honor, Joe
8 Zujkowski, Gibson Dunn, on behalf of the Ad Hoc Group, with my 9 partner, Lee Wilson.

10 THE COURT: Okay, great, thank you.

11 MR. REISMAN: Good morning, Your Honor, Steven 12 Reisman with Katten Muchin Rosenman, on behalf of -- proposed 13 counsel, sorry, for Stefan Selig and Tony Horton, the 14 independent directors. I'm joined in the courtroom by my 15 partner, Rob Smith, a litigation partner of mine. And on Zoom
16 by Ms. Giglio, Cindi Giglio.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 MR. REISMAN: Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Great, thank you. All right, and then we 20 have on -- do we have anybody here from the Royal Bank of 21 Canada in person? I think just probably on Zoom. We should 22 have --

23 MR. MARTIN: Yes, just on Zoom, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay, and we should have Mr. Baker and 25 Mr. Martin.

1 MR. BAKER: Yes, Your Honor, Mr. Martin is here as
2 well.

3 THE COURT: And how about the PIC20 Group? Mr.
4 Gutfleish, are you on?

5 MR. GUTFLEISH: Good morning, Your Honor, Harry 6 Gutfleish.

7 THE COURT: And Bristol 6 on Zoom.

8 MS. BROOK: Your Honor, Anna Brook from Culhane
9 Meadows for Bristol Six. And my partner is also here.

10 THE COURT: Okay, great. Thank you. I think that is 11 good for me. Why don't we start. We do have the motion to 12 seal, the Committee's motion to seal, that came in early this 13 morning.

14 MR. MARINUZZI: Your Honor, for the record, Lorenzo
15 Marinuzzi, Morrison and Foerster. It came in at some point 16 after I went to bed to get up early for this hearing. But Your 17 Honor, if Your Honor recalls, the objection that we filed, the 18 supplemental objection, includes certain work product that was 19 prepared based on information provided by the Debtors in their 20 data room through discovery. And it involves audited financial 21 statements versus reported financial statements. And it also 22 involves various insider stock transactions, which has been 23 provided to the Committee on a confidential basis. We thought
24 it was important for the Court to see it, and so we filed it
25 under seal because the information, unless the company tells us

1 otherwise, is not for public consumption.

2 THE COURT: Understood, thank you. And I know there
3 was an application to shorten time.

4 MR. MARINUZZI: Correct.

5 THE COURT: Which is granted obviously.

6 MR. MARINUZZI: Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Because I'm asking you about it now. So
8 anybody have an objection to sealing the record? It seems to 9 me it's also been addressed by -- a lot of what you're asking
10 to seal has been addressed by the Debtor already. But Mr.
11 Sponder.

12 MR. SPONDER: Thank you, Your Honor. The United 13 States Trustee did file an objection probably six minutes
14 before this hearing, on the docket, so it is on the docket.
15 Your Honor, the UCC has not shown that the information to be 16 redacted falls within Section 107(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.
17 And an agreement reached among parties to the case is still, is 18 also not determinative.

19 The information sought to be protected does not 20 appear to be confidential information that is detrimental to 21 the business interests of the Debtors. None of that has been 22 explained why that would be detrimental, that release of that 23 information. I believe the information is in Exhibits C and D, 24 but I'm not 100 percent sure because the actual supplemental 25 objection was filed on the document I think two minutes before

1 the objection was filed. I received the unredacted one earlier
2 this morning.

3 Your Honor, to the extent the Court is inclined to 4 grant, grant the motion and overrule the objection, we just 5 want to make sure that the document that is filed on the docket
6 includes all the information, other than the redacted
7 information, not the entire document being redacted. I wasn't
8 sure because I hadn't, I didn't have time to open it when it
9 was filed this morning. So that's the United States Trustee's 10 position.

11 THE COURT: Yes, I think that the -- right now the 12 entire document would be sealed.

13 MR. SPONDER: Right.

14 THE COURT: Right.

15 MR. SPONDER: I understood -- my understanding was 16 that the objection would not be -- that the only parts that 17 would be redacted and sealed were Exhibits C and D. But O
18 could be wrong.

19 MR. MARINUZZI: Your Honor, that's correct.

20 THE COURT: Just Exhibits C and D.

21 MR. MARINUZZI: Just ran out of time.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. SPONDER: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Sponder. Mr. Fagen.

25 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, Matt Fagen, Kirkland and

1 Ellis, proposed counsel for the Debtor. One, we believe that 2 the information which talks about certain stock purchases and
3 other personal financial information from two former officers
4 or directors of the Debtor, we believe it's privileged, it is 5 confidential.

6 We also think that it would be harmful to put that 7 information out there now. At this stage, you know, the 8 Committee concedes that they're analyzing this information and 9 what to do with it. Frankly, Your Honor, I would ask that the 10 names of those two people be redacted as well. Because I think 11 it's premature to start naming names when an investigation is 12 nowhere near complete, as they're saying they're not complete.
13 You know, and there's personal reputational issues with naming
14 those names, I believe.

15 THE COURT: Well, I think there also, in the main
16 part of the document, there is discussion about settlement
17 negotiations.

18 MR. FAGEN: There are.

19 THE COURT: Is that something that you want on the 20 record at this point? I mean it seems to me that that should 21 all be part and parcel of preparing for confirmation. What do
22 you think, what do you guys think?

23 MR. MARINUZZI: Your Honor, so it's clear, the 24 request to seal is based on a contractual obligation, not 25 necessarily because we believe it's stop secret information.

1 We also think that the individuals' names are disclosed in the 2 disclosure statement as well, that you're going to be hearing
3 about in a second. So we're not sure what the big secret is 4 there.

5 The point of the exhibits really is to inform the 6 Court about the magnitude of what we understand happened in 7 this case and why we're doing what we're doing in objecting for 8 more time. We can redact the exhibits. The settlement offer
9 we were frankly surprised to see that there was a reference to 10 a settlement offer. We thought that we would illuminate the 11 amounts so --

12 THE COURT: What it was, okay.

13 MR. MARINUZZI: Which we -- we would not have 14 proposed including anything about a settlement offer, but for 15 the fact that the Debtors did. We can talk about the amount of 16 the settlement offer, but I'm not sure that that's appropriate.
17 But we can redact discussion of the settlement offer in the 18 objection to the extent -- I'm trying to recall various drafts,
19 if it made it into the final document.

20 THE COURT: Yes, I --

21 MS. McLOUGHLIN: Your Honor, this is Maeghan
22 McLoughlin, co-counsel to the Committee. I'd just like to make 23 a few clarifying remarks, if that's okay with you.

24 THE COURT: Yes, certainly.

25 MS. McLOUGHLIN: I just want to confirm for everyone,

1 I know there's been a lot of moving pieces. The Committee did
2 file the redacted objection on the docket this morning, shortly
3 before the hearing. So we filed the objection which has no
4 redactions, and then we filed Exhibits A, C and D, under seal.

5 So I think that may address Mr. Sponder's concerns,
6 as well as the Debtors' because we did file the purportedly
7 confidential information under seal. We're of course happy to 8 answer any questions Your Honor may have. I know there's a lot
9 going on and a lot happening right before the hearing. So I
10 can appreciate the confusion.

11 THE COURT: Okay, so you're talking about document --
12 well document 390 has 110 pages that are sealed.

13 MS. McLOUGHLIN: Correct. And then we just filed, I
14 believe it's 393.

15 THE COURT: The objection to the supplemental 16 objection of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors to 17 Debtors' disclosure statement. Yes.

18 MS. McLOUGHLIN: That must be --

19 THE COURT: Yes. Okay, so obviously I haven't read
20 any of that. I read a lot of it, I've been up since five, so I
21 read a lot of it, but not the stuff that came in just a few 22 minutes ago. Thank you, Ms. McLoughlin.

23 MS. McLOUGHLIN: So the version we just filed is what 24 I sent to you at around 2:30 this morning. So you have -- you
25 have the most up to date information.

1 THE COURT: Okay, and the one that was filed at 2:30
2 this morning I did read which is the one I'm referring to.

3 MR. MARINUZZI: Correct.

4 MS. McLOUGHLIN: Correct.

5 MR. MARINUZZI: And you read in the disclosure
6 statement the discussion about the offer and the counteroffer,
7 the offer that was rejected by the Committee. That's where it
8 is. And to the extent Your Honor believes it's appropriate, 9 we'll redact that in the ultimate filing that we make.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Yes, I mean, so your motion to 11 seal the exhibits that we talked about is granted.

12 MR. MARINUZZI: Okay.

13 THE COURT: Because of the statements put on the 14 record and you're telling me it's a contractual obligation,
15 right?

16 MR. MARINUZZI: Correct.

17 THE COURT: The rest of the document seemed to me most 18 of it was essentially a way for the Committee to set forth its 19 objections --

20 MR. MARINUZZI: Correct.

21 THE COURT: -- to the disclosure statement.

22 MR. MARINUZZI: Correct.

23 THE COURT: So that would not be sealed. And I don't 24 see a reason to keep the names out either. So that would not be 25 sealed.

1 MR. MARINUZZI: Okay. We'll do that, Your Honor,
2 thank you.

3 THE COURT: All right, and then I think that covers
4 that. Right. And then we've got, I think -- Mr. Sponder.

5 MR. SPONDER: I'm sorry, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: That's okay.

7 MR. SPONDER: Jeff Sponder from the Officer of the 8 United States Trustee. I don't recall what Exhibit A was on 9 the docket, so I did know about Exhibits C and D. So but I
10 understand your ruling, Your Honor. All I would ask is after 11 hearing from Debtors' counsel is that perhaps something be put 12 in the order that says that the information will be disclosed
13 after the investigation is concluded. I don't see why then the 14 information should still remain sealed based on what I heard.

15 THE COURT: Well my suggestion was going to be if 16 there's a reason to unseal it, if there's anyone wants to 17 unseal it later, what I would suggest is that something,
18 somebody file something to me, in front of me, to say why it
19 should be unsealed so that everybody who assumes the document
20 has been sealed, will have the opportunity to say why they want
21 to keep it sealed.

22 MR. SPONDER: Okay thank you, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right, so let's leave it that way.
24 We'll leave it as it is. And then the lease rejection, which 25 was ECF doc 107, Mr. Fagen, you want to put on the -- I think

1 we've adjourned --

2 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, that has been adjourned.

3 THE COURT: Yes. Okay, that's been adjourned. And 4 we don't have a date for that yet, do we?

5 MR. FAGEN: No, we're still finalizing, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay, that's fine. And then ECF document
7 number 42 is the disclosure statement. Which is what we're 8 here for today. So, Mr. Fagen, take it away.

9 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor. Your Honor, Matthew Fagen,
10 Kirkland Ellis, for the Debtor, proposed counsel. Very happy
11 to be here this morning. We have been working --

12 THE COURT: I don't believe you, but it's okay.

13 MR. FAGEN: It's my first time in this courthouse and 14 it's an experience, and I'm excited.

15 THE COURT: Well, it's nice to have you here.

16 MR. FAGEN: Absolutely. We have been working very 17 hard, since the hearing a week ago on April 10th, including 18 with the Committee, including with the Debtors and their other
19 advisors and principals, many of whom are in the room today.
20 I'd also just at the outset, like to highlight in person a few
21 other attendees.

22 THE COURT: Of course.

23 MR. FAGEN: We have from the Debtors' management
24 team, Greg Greeley, the Chief Executive Officer; Josh Burke, 25 the Chief Financial Officer; and Mike Fahey, the Chief Legal

1 Officer, general counsel. Josh Burke has signed the disclosure
2 statement before you today.

3 We also have from Alix Partners, we have Terence
4 Grossman, the Debtors' financial advisor, who worked to prepare
5 the liquidation analysis that's part of the disclosure
6 statement. And from Centerview Partners we have Whit Graham, 7 who worked to prepare the valuation analysis that's part of the 8 disclosure statement. So just wanted to point out the work
9 that went into this.

10 There's been extensive work since last week's 11 hearing, when we really talked about supplementing the 12 disclosure statement with three specific types of information.
13 And that is information related to the recovery available for 14 general Unsecured Creditors. The Committee wanted, and we all 15 discussed that there would be a more definitive number put in 16 there so that Unsecured Creditors knew not only the number that 17 they would share in in terms of the aggregate amount of the 18 pot, the $250,000 that's been proposed, but also the 19 denominator so they could have an estimate of their actual 20 recovery.

21 That's been provided, it's on page 4 of the 22 disclosure statement. It's a small number as we knew it would 23 be. But it's better than zero in our view. I believe it's .06
24 percent.

25 There's also information about the releases and what

1 a voting creditor should do in light of the fact the
2 investigation is ongoing. In light of the fact that as of now
3 there's a plan that there would be releases subject to the 4 conclusion of the independent investigation being done.

5 And on page 15 of the disclosure statement, in 6 addition to buttressing the information that we have about the 7 releases and the affect that those releases, both the direct
8 releases from the Debtors' Estates and the -- sorry, the Estate
9 causes of action and the releases of those, and direct releases
10 from third parties to which creditors can opt out. We have a 11 guidance that a creditor who is preparing to vote to accept or 12 reject the plan, or whether to object to the plan, should 13 assume that those releases should be granted. Right, that is 14 the default. To the extent that those are not approved by the 15 independent investigation as appropriate, then they won't be 16 granted. And in effect they'll be more retained, right, so
17 it's better for creditors. And they should assume that those 18 are granted because that's the worst case scenario for those 19 creditors. So we've given pretty clear guidance on that as 20 well.

21 The other aspect of the disclosure statement that's 22 been supplemented is the status, and even more than status, but 23 some next steps and some intermediate and preliminary 24 conclusions where appropriate of the Special Committee, the 25 independent investigation itself. Mr. Reisman from the Katten

1 firm will speak to that in more detail, Your Honor.

2 But I did want to highlight those at the outset, that
3 there's been a tremendous amount of work on the disclosure
4 statement. We believe that the information in that disclosure
5 statement is adequate, more than adequate, and very appropriate 6 for the case that we're putting on.

7 I have a presentation, it's really brief, I'd like to 8 just walk through it pretty quickly. It shouldn't take more
9 than a couple of minutes. And I also understand based on the 10 Committee's limited objections, supplemental limited objection,
11 I do believe, and we'll hear from the Committee, we'll hear from 12 the other parties that filed objections, I'm not sure that 13 there's a contest today on approval of the disclosure
14 statement. It does seem to be more to do with the schedule and 15 pointing out a couple other issues that the Creditors Committee 16 is looking at.

17 But I do want to just go over a couple of things on 18 the disclosure statement and our time line.

19 THE COURT: Yes, go ahead, Mr. Fagen.

20 MR. FAGEN: Absolutely. So I'm going to try to -- 21 perfect, my presentation is up here right now. So I'll just 22 point to, I talked about the Committee's objection. The other
23 parties, Mr. Sponder filed an objection on behalf of the US
24 Trustee. There were other objections between ESR, PIC20,
25 Bristol 6, I think I got all of them, in addition to the

1 Committee. I'm pretty confident that most of those other ones,
2 besides the Committee, have been agreed to adjourn to the 3 confirmation hearing. I believe that those were confirmation
4 issues, including about a purported substantive consolidation
5 in the plan, which we don't think is true. But we would
6 reserve on that, especially at confirmation. And Mr. Sponder
7 will probably want to speak. But I do think that most of the US
8 Trustee's issues also were confirmation issues.

9 We talked about it already, so I won't go through 10 each one of these. But we prepared responses and disclosures
11 to each of the Committee's objections, based on their filing,
12 and to the other parties. And in addition to those changes, the 13 other modifications we've made is that, yesterday evening
14 around the time that we got notice of the supplemental 15 objection from the Committee, the Committee provided pretty 16 extensive commentary on the disclosure statement, expressing
17 their viewpoints and recommendations to voting creditors.
18 Won't surprise you that a lot of the views were against the 19 views of the Debtors. And the Committee was recommending that 20 the creditors vote to reject the plan and vote to opt out --
21 and elect to opt out of the releases.

22 We've included almost all of those comments of the 23 Committee. In a few places we've qualified those just to make 24 it more clear that those are the Committee's beliefs not the 25 Debtors. And that the Debtors disagree with that information.

1 In a couple of places the Committee named potential litigation
2 targets and we softened the named, because I do think at this
3 preliminary stage in the Debtors' disclosure statement it's 4 inappropriate to name names of people. But that was in a
5 couple of places. And we've really kept that Committee
6 language in there to as large an extent as possible.

7 In addition, I reference that the Committee has a
8 suggested letter to voting creditors that they'd like to 9 disseminate with the solicitation packages. And we're okay
10 with that letter being included. And I know that that was 11 important to the Committee.

12 As far as really what I'll hit, the Committee's 13 objections for today I believe are focused on the, where we go
14 from here, assuming that solicitation commences, and the time
15 line. And the Committee is focused on an argument that the time
16 line is too short for them to conduct their investigation,
17 potentially launch a standing motion, and potentially challenge
18 the liens of the first lien lenders, as how I would kind of 19 view it.

20 What I would say Your Honor is that the proposed time 21 line is adequate. It's more than is required under the 22 Bankruptcy Rules and the process. These cases at the time of 23 the confirmation hearing that we're seeking, which is on May 24 22nd, will have been pending for 84 days. And we will be 34
25 days from this hearing today. So it's more than compliant with

1 the Rules.

2 A lot of the Committee's objection and requests for 3 more time had to do with the status of their investigation and 4 their diligence efforts to date. And Your Honor, the Debtors
5 have provided many thousands, more than 17,000, and frankly way
6 more than that, pages of documents to the Committee, in 7 response to an extensive list of diligence requests that the 8 Debtors have received.

9 In addition, the Debtors have turned over documents
10 and diligence on behalf of the independent investigation, the 11 Special Committee. The non privileged documents that the 12 Special Committee holds are being transferred to the Debtors in 13 real time. I believe that close to 30,000 documents have been 14 produced as part of that. And they're continuing to be 15 produced on a rolling basis. So even in the last day or two 16 more documents have been uploaded to the Committee. And those 17 will continue.

18 And I don't think that sitting here today it's fair
19 to say that the Committee will not be able to do its 20 investigation and potentially object to the plan if that's what 21 they're intent on, in an amount of time sufficient to file that 22 in advance of May 22nd.

23 I believe that the requested objection deadline for 24 the Committee and for any other party, it's not a week before
25 the confirmation hearing, it's on May 20th. So that's 32 days

1 away from today. And that's plenty of time that, for instance
2 if the Committee believes they haven't gotten what they needed,
3 in real time, and in adequate time, they could seek to adjourn
4 that confirmation hearing further. But I don't think that it's 5 a basis, sitting here today, to deny the appropriate
6 confirmation time line for now, and we'll be held to the burden
7 of cooperating and providing the Committee the information that 8 they say they need to do their investigation and to come to a 9 conclusion on whether to object to the plan and whether to take 10 some other legal actions, none of which are prejudiced by 11 setting a confirmation hearing.

12 And so believe that the schedule is appropriate. And 13 should be approved. And to say it very bluntly, we believe 14 that the disclosure statement has adequate information and 15 should be approved.

16 THE COURT: Okay, thank you, Mr. Fagen.

17 MR. FAGEN: So I'm going to pause there. I believe
18 Mr. Reisman wanted to give an update on the independent
19 investigation. So I would turn to him.

20 THE COURT: That would be great. Thank you.

21 MR. FAGEN: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 MR. REISMAN: Good morning, Your Honor, again, Steve 23 Reisman from Katten Muchin.

24 THE COURT: Good morning.

25 MR. REISMAN: I got less sleep than most last night,

1 actually I think for some reason. Apologies.

2 We're proposed counsel for Tony Horton and Stefan
3 Selig, who serve as the disinterested directors. Your Honor,
4 Mr. Horton and Mr. Selig are experienced independent directors
5 who take their responsibilities extremely seriously here. They 6 have been working to investigate potential claims and causes of 7 action that the Debtors might have against related parties,
8 including current and former directors and officers of the 9 Debtors.

10 Your Honor, I was before you eight days ago, with the 11 same individuals that are here. And we made clear then, and 12 we'll make it clear again now, that the investigation is 13 ongoing. We believe we will be in a position to provide Your 14 Honor and the parties with a further update on disclosure to 15 include in the disclosure statement. And for creditors to make 16 an informed decision based upon the best information that we 17 have available at that point in time, and at this point in 18 time.

19 THE COURT: So are you saying that you have more
20 information to add?

21 MR. REISMAN: No, we actually, and I just, I was, we 22 added three long pages of additional disclosure of 23 transactions, et cetera, this has been provided. It is 24 included in the disclosure statement that is on file, in the 25 amended version, we don't have any further update beyond what

1 has been filed with the Court in that regard.

2 But as you'll see, it's quite additional, robust
3 disclosure of what we're doing in connection with the 4 investigation and where we stand in that regard.

5 As I said to Your Honor then, on page 35 of the 6 transcript, right, I said, our hope is that the report will be 7 ready for the directors probably somewhere around the 16th or 8 17th, in that regard. We're continuing to get, I mean look, we 9 worked all weekend long in producing documents to Mr. Mannal in 10 that regard. And our hope is by the 18th, right -- and then I
11 went to say we'll have additional disclosure in that regard.

12 We've added that additional disclosure now. We're 13 still working in that regard. We're still reviewing emails,
14 we're still going through our investigation, we are not 15 prepared to report to the Court as to what our conclusions are 16 at this point in time. But we will be prepared by confirmation,
17 or -- our hope is before confirmation in that regard. There's 18 a lot of documentation and information that we are in fact 19 going through.

20 The revised disclosure statement we believe provides 21 adequate disclosure. We've made it even more robust to 22 highlight the specific transitions that we're analyzing and to 23 inform creditors where we have seen enough to assist the 24 disinterested directors in making an informed decision on 25 certain aspects of the release provisions.

1           The amended disclosure statement highlights the 2 potential related party transactions that require enhanced
3 scrutiny before the disinterested directors can make a final
4 recommendation, a recommendation that will be filed in a
5 revised plan at the appropriate point in time.

6           We believe that there's sufficient information now
7 for creditors to vote on the plan. The recommendation from the 8 Committee is that they vote the plan down in that regard. And 9 the assumption is that releases will be given. So it's only 10 going to get better for creditors, meaning releases will be in 11 fact taken away based upon the results of the investigation, or 12 that will be our recommendation to the Debtors.

13           We have, we've been working diligently since December 14 in that regard. Look I would say there has been, there's been 15 delay in getting emails because the Debtors were preparing for 16 a Chapter 11 filing. We got those emails, we went through them,
17 as I said, we worked all weekend, we had teams of lawyers going 18 through them. Almost 30,000 documents and emails have been 19 produced. Text messages, I mean this is not just a, give us
20 the documents that are in the file cabinet. This is going 21 layer by layer by layer down, down, down, to the point where 22 we're getting text messages from various parties.

23           And then once we get that information, we go further 24 one if we find something that we need to go further on, to get 25 that information.

1           It's a top down approach beginning with the areas of 2 the related party transactions and then drilling down on those
3 transactions. We follow the facts and the law to make informed
4 decisions. And to hopefully -- to report back to the Court
5 what our unbiased findings are and conclusions are.

6           As you can see from the amended disclosure statement
7 Your Honor, we've, we're analyzing whether the Debtors have 8 viable and valuable claims for breach of fiduciary duty or 9 fraudulent transfers in connections with inaccuracies in the 10 company's financial statements prior to or on or about February 11 2022. With respect to the company's accounting and financial 12 practices prior to, on or about February 2022. With respect to 13 certain sales of the company's stock to third party by company
14 insiders. And certain transactions related to Yardline, as 15 defined in the amended disclosure statement, as well as a 16 tender offer.

17           We want to make very clear to Your Honor that we've 18 now highlighted in the disclosure statement certain 19 transactions which require further review and analysis, as we 20 are continuing to do. We're analyzing not only whether these 21 matters can rise to viable and valuable claims for breach of 22 fiduciary duty, but also whether they may be, whether there may 23 be damages that the Debtors' Estates can recover.

24           These claims may be Debtors' Estates claims and there
25 also may be claims that are individual to particular creditors

1 in that regard.

2 THE COURT: You may not be the one to answer this.

3 MR. REISMAN: Sure.

4 THE COURT: Maybe Mr. Fagen. But if there are Estate
5 claims, assuming there are Estate claims, the disclosure
6 statement and plan proposes that the Estate claims remain with 7 the Estate?

8 MR. REISMAN: Yes.

9 THE COURT: And that the Estate will prosecute them?
10 That's what the current --

11 MR. FAGEN: That is what the current --

12 THE COURT: I know you disagree with that, but 13 that's what the --

14 MR. FAGEN: That is what the current plan provides.
15 If there are viable and valuable Estate claims, yes.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. FAGEN: They remain with the Estate.

18 THE COURT: Thank you.

19 MR. REISMAN: Your Honor, we've met with the 20 disinterested directors 13 times. We've had 13 separate 21 meetings since they've been appointed. That's like formal 22 meetings where there are minutes kept of those meetings, and 23 the work that we're doing, and the ongoing work streams. We 24 talk to them almost daily as to what our, what we're finding.
25 Where we're going, what the next steps are. This is not

1 lawyers running an investigation, this is disinterested
2 directors that are doing their job in that regard.

3 We believe that we will be in a position to report
4 back to Your Honor prior to the confirmation hearing and to the 5 parties, to sit down with the Committee in a constructive and 6 productive manner. What normally happens here, right, is that 7 when we find something we report it to the Debtors. We will 8 sit down with the Committee and we will see if there's a way
9 that we can either resolve it or carve it out or leave it with 10 the Debtors in that regard.

11 There are substantial undersecured creditors here
12 that have a large deficiency claim in this case. There are 13 potential valuable claims, viable and valuable claims. We did
14 not want to say on the 10th, when we were here eight days ago,
15 and I realize that there's a short period of time, ten days, 16 but we went through a boat load, is probably the proper way to 17 say it, a boat load of documents, a large boat, in that regard,
18 that we got from the Debtors. And we've made additional 19 disclosure in the disclosure statement that we believe a 20 creditor can make an informed decision.

21 The recommendation is that they not give releases
22 from the Committee in that regard, as we said, we believe it's 23 only going to get better for creditors in that regard. But I
24 don't want to make any conclusions in that regard. We are 25 trying to get to the bottom of the facts and make a

1 recommendation as to where we, what viable and valuable claims
2 there are here in that regard. And I don't want to get too far
3 ahead of myself in that regard. There's a team of litigators
4 that are looking at the documents and making those conclusions
5 in that regard.

6 And I'm happy to answer any questions that you have,
7 that the Committee may have in that regard or anyone else.

8 THE COURT: I have none. Mr. Reisman, I don't know if 9 the Committee counsel has questions for Mr. Reisman.

10 MR. MARINUZZI: I don't have any questions.

11 THE COURT: All right, thank you.

12 MR. SMITH: May I make a minor amendment?

13 MR. REISMAN: Oh sure, thank you.

14 MR. SMITH: Technical amendment, just that you spoke 15 of text messages. We have not reviewed text messages. We have 16 gotten access to Slack, which are instant messages, just a 17 distinction I wanted to make.

18 MR. REISMAN: Sorry. To me, and I'm --

19 THE COURT: I'm with you.

20 MR. REISMAN: I'm not 21 or 25, I'm 58 and to me
21 instant message, text message, I don't know the difference. So
22 but I appreciate the correction.

23 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, if may supplement my 24 statement just a bit. There was one thing I wanted to address
25 that I didn't.

1 THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Fagen.

2 MR. FAGEN: You know, which really is the, I talked
3 about why delay is inappropriate and why our time line is 4 appropriate. But there's a real cost of delay here, right.
5 The cases are very expensive. There's a lot of professionals
6 in this room and working on this matter, and appropriately so.
7 But it's important that we stay on an appropriate time line
8 before the case costs increase immensely, which a 30 day delay,
9 or even any delay would do.

10 The Debtors are paying for the case and they're 11 paying for it using the DIP facility provided by the lenders.
12 You know, that's the Gibson Dunn clients who are the lenders, 13 and the DIP financing is expensive. The lenders are to be the 14 new owners of the company under the proposed plan. And the use
15 of company funds through the case, you know, by definition,
16 will deplete availability for the company to have those funds
17 to run the business going forward. And so it would jeopardize
18 Thrasio, and there's a real cost to Thrasio of delay.

19 I'll also point out that the Gibson Dunn lenders, as 20 Mr. Reisman made a reference to, frankly from our very strong 21 belief, are the largest unsecured creditor constituency in the 22 case as well, through their deficiency claim. And there's a 23 range of what that deficiency claim would be sized at. The 24 midpoint is about $355 million. And it's very substantial,
25 it's about five times what we estimate the non deficiency

1 general unsecured claims pool to be. And we think that the 2 intention of those parties to move forward is relevant as well
3 and the cost borne by the Debtors' Estates.

4 To what Mr. Reisman said, I do want to just 5 supplement the, and this is a matter of potentially a matter to 6 be addressed at confirmation, whether those claims will be 7 released if there are valuable and viable claims. I think it's 8 also that are not appropriately compromised as well as part of 9 that. I just want to supplement the record there.

10 And again to highlight the loss of value here, which 11 I think that you're going to hear from the Committee on, you
12 know, tremendous loss of value by Committee members, no doubt.
13 But a tremendous loss of value as I have said before by every 14 part of the constituency, and every stake holder at Thrasio.
15 But it's also no reason to lose more value, you know, including 16 by extending the time line, right.

17 And we understand, it's frankly, it's an industry
18 wide thing, it's not just a Thrasio issue. But this entire 19 aggregator space is in a lot of distress. A lot of people put 20 investments into all these companies that didn't pan out. And 21 that's the nature of investing.

22 And if there are viable and valuable claims, that are 23 not appropriately compromised, those need to be addressed.
24 There's no doubt about it. But again not a reason to delay
25 confirmation by any stretch as far as we're concerned.

1                   Okay, I'm going to cede the podium now. Thank you,
2                   Your Honor.

3                   THE COURT: All right, thank you, Mr. Fagen. Mr.
4                   Marinuzzi.

5                   MR. MARINUZZI: Again Your Honor, for the record,
6                   Lorenzo Marinuzzi, Morrison and Foerster on behalf of the 7                   Committee. I thought Mr. Fagen was getting up to tell us that 8                   he miscalculated the value of the distribution and that it was 9                   actually 0.0012 percent and not 0.06.

10                  Transparency in process Your Honor, transparency in 11                  process are very important in bankruptcy. Unsecured creditors
12                  didn't choose to be in bankruptcy. The company chose to file
13                  for bankruptcy. And as Mr. Mannal went through with the Court 14                  during a prior hearing, there was a loss of $3 billion of value
15                  in this company in two years. And a lot of questions about 16                  what happened.

17                  Mr. Reisman, who I've known for a long time, and I
18                  don't doubt everybody is working very hard to deliver documents
19                  to us, they are. And I'll go through the production in a 20                  second. He's been at this for six months. He's not done. He 21                  still has other documents that are coming in. We're in place
22                  since March 14th, and we're expected to complete a document 23                  review that's still ongoing, where we have probably a third of 24                  the emails that Katten has had from the directors since they 25                  started. We only have a third. They're still coming in, we're

1 waiting for production logs, privilege logs, et cetera.
2 There's just not enough time for us to conclude that
3 investigation.

4 And when you think about what we filed in our 5 supplemental objection, and where the value went, and you think 6 about the unsecured creditors who didn't choose to make an 7 investment in Thrasio. They, six of our seven members had very 8 successful businesses, that they were selling through Amazon,
9 Walmart, direct to consumer, eBay, and making good money. For 10 many of them this was their life's work.

11 And they sold it to this company, to Thrasio. And in 12 most instances they had a payment on closing. And then had 13 earnout payments on the first, second, third anniversary. And 14 those earnout payments were based on profitability in many 15 cases. And many of them are still at a loss to understand how 16 companies that were generating significant profits when they 17 were operating them, all of a sudden lost a lot of value. We 18 can't pay you because your product didn't make any money.

19 And they're curious about the strategy of leaving the 20 direct to consumer market, et cetera. Things that we'll talk
21 about later. But they're also curious about whether in fact
22 these products generated profit or not. They've tried to get 23 audited financial statements from the company. They've tried to 24 figure out and get to the bottom of whether in fact the sales
25 were profitable for their products. And all I hear are tales

1 of frustration.

2 And then when you juxtapose that against what was 3 filed in our exhibit as far as the 2020 audited financial 4 statements that grossly overstated the -- or understated the 5 company's loss by more than $100 million, which is the subject
6 of documents that we've uncovered or have been produced to us
7 that reflect that people who bought what they thought was over
8 valued stock, are now very upset. And if that's the kind of 9 record keeping that some of these former officers and directors
10 kept when they were trying to liquidate their stock at 11 significant profits, then what else was the company doing. We 12 don't know, we don't have that evidence, as I've said we've 13 collected maybe a third of the emails that Mr. Reisman and his 14 group have collected. Haven't seen any Slack messages or text 15 messages.

16 In fact I think the production that's coming from the 17 independent directors has really been focused on five 18 individual directors and officers, and we've identified at 19 least another four that engaged in these insider stock
20 transactions. And no one has asked for those documents. We're 21 asking for them.

22 And to think that in 30 days when documents are still 23 being produced to us, in fact it sounds like they're still 24 being produced to the independent directors, we as a fiduciary
25 for unsecured creditors are going to be able to say everything

1 is okay. Or even be in a position to say that the independent
2 directors' investigation is okay or not okay, is I think
3 really, really prejudicing the unsecured creditors.

4 A couple of points, Mr. Reisman and Mr. Fagen said
5 that to the extent the independent directors conclude that 6 there are viable claims and they should get releases, that 7 doesn't help the unsecured creditors. Those claims stay with 8 the company. When the plan goes effective, all of our claims 9 get funneled into a pot of $250,000. To the extent that 10 independent directors are liable for tens, hundreds of millions 11 of dollars for breach of fiduciary duty, to the extent they 12 are, that stays with the company. That goes to the largest 13 constituent that's represented here in this room. But the 70
14 plus million dollars of unsecured creditors, those that sold
15 their life blood business to the company, get nothing. Nothing 16 out of that.

17 And so the extent there are claims that the Committee
18 uncovers, and we need the time to do that, those should be 19 shared with the unsecured creditors. The strategy of saying
20 assuming you don't get anything out of this, but to the extent
21 we do find claims, we keep them and you get nothing, it's just 22 the wrong strategy. It's just an insult to the unsecured
23 creditors.

24 THE COURT: I'm sorry, let me just ask you. Are you
25 -- do you have an objection to the disclosure statement?

1 MR. MARINUZZI: Your Honor, we take the Debtors at 2 their word, again they worked hard. It looks from our quick
3 scroll that they included all of our changes, with some 4 caveats. Someone in my office is reviewing it to tell us if in 5 fact that's the case. We'll reserve until after the hearing to 6 the extent there's any discrepancy we'll have a discussion
7 about it.

8 But yes, the disclosure statement, assuming it
9 includes our changes with some minor modifications, contains 10 adequate information to go out. The issue really is timing.
11 The issue is --

12 THE COURT: Okay, because it seems to me that 13 everything you're raising, which you guys did a great job, I
14 mean even though it was filed at 2:30 this morning, it gave me
15 a lot more information than I had before that was filed. So I 16 appreciate that.

17 MR. MARINUZZI: Transparency.

18 THE COURT: And I see a lot of the issues that are 19 going to be coming up at confirmation. So all right, go ahead, 20 I'm sorry, I don't mean to --

21 MR. MARINUZZI: No, no, so --

22 THE COURT: I don't mean to interrupt you with regard
23 to your request that you need more time.

24 MR. MARINUZZI: That's basically it, Your Honor. We 25 need more time. And we need more time to conclude the

1 investigation, determine whether there are viable claims. We
2 also need more time to react to the report of the independent
3 directors. As it stands right now, it could be filed an hour
4 before the confirmation hearing, how do we react to that. How 5 does the public react to that if the voting deadline is before
6 the report is issued.

7 We as a Committee need to have that at least a week
8 prior to our objection deadline for us to react, see if there
9 are holes in it. See if we agree. I mean for all we know we 10 may come to a settlement. We may be standing up here, Your 11 Honor, and we may be saying, we think this is a fair settlement
12 for those claims.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Reisman, were you able to share your 14 request, the full explanation of the request that you made on 15 behalf of the disinterested directors to the Debtor, were you
16 able to share the request, the questions with the Committee?

17 MR. REISMAN: I'm sorry, Your Honor, when you say the 18 request, you mean the document request that we've asked for?

19 THE COURT: Right.

20 MR. REISMAN: I don't have a problem with giving them
21 the requests that we made to them.

22 THE COURT: I mean it seems to me that would help.

23 MR. MARINUZZI: We've been asking Your Honor. We've 24 been asking. And we've asked about the scope of the 25 investigation. The first time we learned about the scope of

1 the investigation was when it was filed on the docket two days
2 ago.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MR. MARINUZZI: And we've been in here for a month.
5 So hence my frustration at needing more time to make sure that
6 we're able to do our job. Because for us to find out when a
7 document is filed what the scope of the independent
8 investigation is, when we've been asking for it for a month.

9 MR. REISMAN: It's a little disingenuous for Mr.
10 Marinuzzi to say that he doesn't know about something that he 11 clearly knows, he clearly knows about from his clients, from 12 what's going on there. So I'm not -- look I'm not questioning
13 it --

14 THE COURT: He went to sleep too early last night.

15 MR. REISMAN: I'm happy -- look he wants to talk to 16 me every day, we'll be happy to talk to him every day in that 17 regard. We have clients that we have to report to what our 18 findings are. We need to get responses from them in that 19 regard. And what we can share with the Committee in that 20 regard.

21 This is a -- these are Estate claims. Right, Estate
22 claims causes of action, they don't belong to the Committee in 23 that regard. They belong to the Estate for the benefit of 24 creditors in that regard. And that's -- and we're addressing --

25 THE COURT: I understand, and I understand that

1 Estate claims are a negotiating tool as well, right?

2 MR. REISMAN: Yes, they are.

3 THE COURT: So I'm 100 percent behind the Debtor
4 trying to get this through as quickly as possible. I
5 understand the costs involved. I mean it's scary seeing all
6 these people just in the courtroom and never mind on Zoom,
7 right, with the amount of money that's being spent. But it
8 seems to me if you've got disinterested directors who are 9 doing, it sounds like an in-depth, very thorough investigation,
10 that is what the Committee needs to do, that everything that 11 you can share, like to me I'd like to see what you're looking 12 at, like just a list of -- even a table of contents of here
13 what we've asked for, here's what we've gotten so far. Here's 14 what we're still waiting for.

15 MR. REISMAN: Again, we --

16 THE COURT: That would shorten their investigation
17 time a whole lot, it seems to me.

18 MR. REISMAN: And sorry, not to talk over Your Honor.
19 When we get them, what we do is we go through them, and then we 20 say we want to produce them. We represent the disinterested
21 directors, we don't know the privilege issues with respect to,
22 are attorneys on these emails or on these Slack messages in 23 that regard. So once we get them and we say, okay, this is 24 responsive. We turn it back over to Kirkland and Ellis, the 25 company counsel, they make a review and then it gets, we send

1 it.

2 THE COURT: I understand. I understand that part.

3 MR. REISMAN: I'm happy to give them our -- like our 4 document request, subject to talking about it with -- I mean
5 some of that does show what our thinking is in that regard.
6 Maybe attorney/client privilege. But to the extent that we pull
7 it back, we need to redact something, we'll do that, right.

8 THE COURT: Yes, there's no -- right, so I think that 9 give -- you could give that to them today.

10 MR. REISMAN: We're not giving them what our legal 11 analysis is.

12 THE COURT: Understood. No, I'm just thinking --

13 MR. REISMAN: They make their own conclusions.

14 THE COURT: -- give them what you've got --

15 MR. REISMAN: Facts.

16 THE COURT: -- tell them what you've asked for.

17 MR. MARINUZZI: Your Honor, they withheld that on the 18 basis of work product. I've just been informed.

19 MR. REISMAN: It is work product. Actually it is.
20 That's what it is.

21 THE COURT: It is work product, but I want you to 22 share it. I want you to share it with the Committee.

23 MR. REISMAN: I said -- I heard Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: And you're not --

25 MR. REISMAN: I said, I stood up and I said yes.

1 THE COURT: Yes, okay, good. All right.

2 MR. REISMAN: Thank you.

3 THE COURT: So that shortens your investigation.

4 MR. MARINUZZI: Well it helps.

5 THE COURT: I understand you have a tremendous amount
6 of work to do here.

7 MR. MARINUZZI: They're still doing it six months in 8 and they're still getting documents.

9 MR. REISMAN: He's good with math, four, let's be 10 clear.

11 MR. MARINUZZI: I thought it was October.

12 MR. REISMAN: December, December.

13 MR. MARINUZZI: Okay, my bad.

14 MR. REISMAN: So it's --

15 MR. MARINUZZI: We're all bad with numbers today,
16 we're lawyers, we're bad with numbers.

17 MR. REISMAN: Nothing but love for you.

18 MR. MARINUZZI: So Your Honor, we're asking for an 19 extension of three weeks from the current time table. We hope
20 that's enough time, we hope that Your Honor's admonition, not 21 admonition, that's too strong of a word, Your Honor's
22 encouragement for the independent directors to share with the 23 Committee what they've looked at, their requests, et cetera, is 24 going to streamline and expedite our investigation. But our 25 investigation has to happen. And it's not able to happen on 1 this time table.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

3 MR. MARINUZZI: Thank you.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Fagen, you look like you want to say
5 something.

6 MR. FAGEN: I would like to respond, Your Honor, Matt
7 Fagen, Kirkland Ellis, proposed counsel for the Debtor. I
8 would strongly, strongly urge not to grant what I view as a 9 premature adjournment. The Committee have shown themselves to 10 be more than capable for defending themselves and for 11 requesting adjournments even on an emergency basis which they 12 did last week to the disclosure statement.

13 And to the extent that in advance of that May 20th
14 objection deadline we proposed, and the May 22nd confirmation
15 hearing that we proposed, if they don't believe that they've 16 been able to conduct their investigation, I have no doubt that 17 they'll file another motion for an adjournment. No doubt.
18 Whether they get three weeks now or not, you know, they're 19 going to have every right to do that.

20 We'll have every right to contest it. And build the 21 record on what they've been provided, the manner in which 22 they've done it. We'll have the benefit of that time of the 23 independent directors' report and analysis as well.

24 But granting an adjournment now for three weeks,
25 which frankly is well more than dictated by the Rules, and it

1 would be premature in our very, very firm view.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Let me just ask you, the, assuming 3 we stick to this, the deadlines that we have set now --

4 MR. FAGEN: Yes.

5 THE COURT: -- if the plan supplement is expected to 6 be filed on May 13th, by May 13th, is Mr. Reisman telling me
7 that that's when the independent directors' investigation will 8 be concluded by May 13th in order to be included in a plan
9 supplement?

10 MR. FAGEN: Could I speak to Mr. Reisman for one
11 minute? One second, please.

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 MR. FAGEN: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 (Counsel confer)

15 MR. REISMAN: I want to -- I'll answer your questions
16 straight out, right. I couldn't even hear what Mr. Fagen was 17 saying to me by the way. It's 59 years of hearing or bad
18 hearing.

19 We're going to do our best to get it done by that 20 time period. We're going to work our hardest to get it done.
21 Can I promise you, right, honestly, I mean I can't even promise
22 my wife I'm going to be home Friday night for dinner, with what 23 we have. I'm going to do my best. We are going to do our best
24 to get it done by that time period. Right I give you my word 25 in that regard. And I give you our word in that regard that we

1 are going --

2 THE COURT: Well, okay, thank you. So that's --

3 MR. REISMAN: And by the way, I want to be -- it's 4 going to be conclusions. Right, it's going to be, that's what 5 the report is going to be.

6 THE COURT: Yes, good, good, that's what we're
7 waiting for. Okay, so that, I guess that's my problem here,
8 Mr. Fagen. I'm not, not that I'm not sympathetic to the 9 Committee, I certainly am, you have a lot of work to do. I'm 10 not, I'm sort of not in favor of extending the time for you to 11 do the research or to do the investigation, I'd rather keep the 12 deadlines that are here now and then see how everybody does.
13 Right.

14 But the -- practically speaking, Mr. Fagen, if, how 15 do you -- I mean I kind of felt like the disclosure statement 16 should say, don't vote or decide what you're going to do until 17 after the plan supplement. I mean it's sort of --

18 MR. FAGEN: Well, just to go to that in particular.
19 The disclosure statement says, vote assuming that the releases
20 are approved in full. Because from the perspective of 21 unsecured creditors, to the extent -- and again, there's debate
22 over whether these actions would have value. But it could only 23 potentially increase value for them, if they get that.

24 THE COURT: I understand about the releases.

25 MR. FAGEN: Yes.

1 THE COURT: What about the causes of action? The 2 causes of action are important to know about, and that's what's 3 going to come from the disinterested directors' investigation
4 and the Committee's investigation.

5 MR. FAGEN: When you say the causes of action, you
6 mean the Estate causes of action against --

7 THE COURT: Potential causes of action.

8 MR. FAGEN: -- potential parties.

9 THE COURT: Right.

10 MR. FAGEN: Well that, I believe it's kind of the 11 same thing. Because it's the releases of causes of action,
12 right, those are the causes of action that would be released.
13 There's detail in there right now about the potential causes of 14 action being examined.

15 THE COURT: Being investigated, got it.

16 MR. FAGEN: Being investigated. Whether or not those 17 are ultimately released or retained, or put into some other 18 mechanism, and available for unsecured creditors, that's going 19 to be determined in advance of confirmation. And through the 20 process of the independent investigation, and the Committee's 21 potential objections and their own investigation.

22 But the worst case scenario, which is the, call it
23 the voting default scenario is, assume that those are all
24 released. Or that they're at least not available to unsecured
25 creditors. Which is what we've advised unsecured creditors to

1 assume, as they consider whether to vote to accept or reject
2 the plan.

3 THE COURT: Okay, all right, one thought --

4 MR. FAGEN: Yes.

5 THE COURT: -- is what about if we said, if we moved 6 dates to say that the vote, the votes and objections to 7 confirmation are due one week after the independent directors'
8 investigations conclusions are provided to the Debtor.

9 MR. FAGEN: I think that would be -- I think that 10 sounds pretty reasonable. I think that would be okay, Your 11 Honor. I do, I just --

12 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: I'm going to need to check with my 13 clients, maybe if just get up quickly.

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Just chat for a minute, I can't agree 16 to that.

17 MR. FAGEN: Can we chat for one minute outside?
18 Okay, thank you.

19 MR. MARINUZZI: Your Honor, before they leave, just a 20 reminder, again process and transparency. We're on the 21 Debtors' motion to set a schedule. We're not asking for an 22 emergency adjournment of a confirmation hearing. They're 23 asking the Court to determine what appropriate schedule is.
24 They've made their argument why they believe their schedule is 25 correct, we've made our argument as to why we believe we need

1 more time.

2 So it's not like we're standing up here making an 3 emergency motion.

4 THE COURT: Understood.

5 MR. MARINUZZI: This is objection to their time
6 table. Second, I've heard now for at least the second time that 7 somehow if those causes of action are not released that 8 creditors benefit from them. They do not benefit from them.
9 And I think that's important that the disclosure statement
10 makes that clear.

11 THE COURT: Uh hum.

12 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Your Honor, if I can just briefly
13 address the Court. And we'll step outside.

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: For the record, Joe Zujkowski, Gibson
16 Dunn on behalf of the Ad Hoc Group. Your Honor, you've heard 17 very little from us over the first few weeks of this case. We 18 are respectful of the process that has played out. That's a 19 process that has built a lot of consensus and we are 20 appreciative of that process.

21 As you know, Your Honor, my clients agreed to provide 22 $90 million to finance these cases. They also agreed to a
23 substantial impairment of pre-petition secured claims in order
24 to preserve this business as a going concern. The $90 million
25 as you know is part of a financing, the financing includes

1 milestones. Those milestones are built into a DIP credit
2 agreement, into a DIP order, changes require consent of 50
3 percent of the DIP lenders, which why I can't unilaterally
4 agree to a milestone extension right now without checking with 5 the clients.

6 THE COURT: Understood, but isn't, didn't you leave
7 room, when we set the May 22nd confirmation date, didn't you
8 leave room in the --

9 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: I think there's a little wiggle room,
10 but I think what to -- I don't think, assuming that Mr. Reisman
11 hit his deadline, we'd be compliant with the milestones. You
12 know, as they're sort of incorporated into the DIP credit
13 agreement, I just need to check that I'm not unilaterally
14 agreeing to something that requires required lender consent
15 under the documents.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: So I need to briefly just chat with 18 Mr. Fagen and potentially chat with my clients.

19 THE COURT: That's fine.

20 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Your Honor, with respect to the 21 schedule generally, we provided a milestone extension to 22 facilitate an adjournment of the disclosure statement hearing.
23 We are extremely appreciative of all of the work that got us to 24 today, to a disclosure statement that has a narrow list of 25 disputes that are before the Court. And you know, Your Honor,

1 as Mr. Fagen made clear, our clients on account of their
2 deficiency claim are the largest unsecured creditor here. We
3 are extremely respectful of the process that's being run by Mr.
4 Reisman, with the assistance of the company, and subject to the 5 oversight of the Committee. You know, it is our hope and 6 expectation that given the three excellent law firms that are 7 running this process that we can make a lot of progress over
8 the next few weeks. And the Ad Hoc Group will do everything 9 that we can support that.

10 But let me speak to, briefly to Mr. Fagen and briefly
11 to my clients with respect to the Court's suggestion.

12 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. I think Mr.
13 Sponder wanted to speak. Mr. Sponder, before you step out.

14 MR. SPONDER: Thank you, Your Honor, Jeff Sponder,
15 the Office of the United States Trustee. Your Honor, you just 16 mentioned that votes and objections could be due one week after 17 the disinterested directors' investigation and report is 18 provided to the Debtors. And I think that should be provided to 19 the creditors, not the Debtors, if that's the way you're going.

20 If it's appropriate now, I can advise of the US
21 Trustee's objections to confirmation and how those have been 22 handled, or I can wait until after everything with the 23 Committee is concluded. It's up to you, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Tell me what you're objecting to -- when 25 I said when the independent directors or disinterested

1 directors' independent investigation is concluded, and provided
2 to the Debtor, I assumed that that would be the information is 3 available. Right, that can be --

4 MR. FAGEN: Would be filed.

5 THE COURT: Yes, to everyone. Otherwise it wouldn't 6 make any difference whether they concluded or not if only the 7 Debtor knew.

8 MR. SPONDER: Thank you, Your Honor. And with 9 respect to the United States Trustee's objections, they have 10 been resolved. So the objection was as to adequate
11 information, and that information was provided in Article 6,
12 Section 1, as well as Article 3, Section D and L of the plan.

13 We did resolve our solicitation issues outside of 14 filing an objection. I mean it was included in there that we 15 hopefully would resolve it, that has been resolved. So the 16 solicitation procedures include the many revisions that we 17 requested.

18 As to the last two points in our objection, which was 19 preservation of issues with respect to releases, and with 20 respect to the language in the plan as to statutory fees, that 21 is being put off to confirmation.

22 THE COURT: Understood.

23 MR. SPONDER: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right, thank you, Mr. Sponder. All
25 right, everybody set for now to let Mr. Fagen speak, okay.

1 MR. FAGEN: Thank you, Your Honor, we'll be back in a
2 little bit.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Did you want to say something?

4 MS. BROOK: Yes, I wanted to provide Your Honor --
5 Bristol 6.

6 THE COURT: Did you want -- let's hear from -- right.

7 MS. BROOK: Sorry about that. Good morning, Your 8 Honor, Anna Brook for Bristol 6 parties.

9 THE COURT: Good morning.

10 MS. BROOK: Good morning. So the Bristol 6 parties
11 are creditors of one of the operationally profitable subsidiary 12 entities, Autumn Ideas. And previously noted that we believe 13 that entity received no benefit from the parent level secured
14 debt that it was saddled with.

15 And we echo and support the Committee's comments with 16 respect to the impact on this case. Not only the Bristol 6
17 entities but other business founders that are now embroiled in 18 this bankruptcy.

19 So Bristol 6 is also concerned that clarity is 20 lacking as to what precisely is being investigated. And 21 whether subsidiary specific issues can be addressed in the 22 investigation structure that's contemplated.

23 THE COURT: All right, wait, I'm not sure I
24 understand that. Because the disclosure statement, the amended
25 disclosure statement had a section that laid out the issues

1 that were being investigated by the disinterested directors.
2 Right?

3 MS. BROOK: Yes.

4 THE COURT: And you're saying that there are more
5 than those, and more than the ones mentioned by the Committee?

6 MS. BROOK: We had concerns that, yes, the 7 investigation would not properly address all the issues. But I
8 -- and we've been discussing this with the Debtors, our 9 objections, and in response they added some language to 10 acknowledge these concerns.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MS. BROOK: And the concerns were generally that the 13 plan improperly treats Chapter 11 cases as substantively
14 consolidated. That the plan violates the Bankruptcy Code's
15 classification provision by classifying the general unsecured
16 claims of all the Debtors together for purposes of 17 distribution. And that the disclosure statement provides 18 insufficient details on the debt and value allocation.

19 So the new language notes that in effect we've agreed
20 to disagree on the rights of the Bristol 6 parties and others
21 to object to plan confirmation, is expressly preserved. As is 22 the Debtors' right to respond in defense of the plan.

23 So these are positive first steps that I wanted to 24 report. To be clear the independent investigation does not 25 resolve Bristol 6's concerns or cover many of the issues that

1 we raised. And we intend to continue to seek additional
2 information from the Debtors and pursue our confirmation
3 objects to ensure fair treatment of the Bristol 6 parties with 4 respect to their silo or business unit in the Thrasio universe.

5 But we believe that Bristol 6 and similarly situated
6 business owners would have benefitted from more robust
7 disclosures at this time. But we understand the desires of the 8 parties to move forward quickly to confirmation. And in the 9 interest of compromise we received confirmation just as this 10 hearing was getting started that Bristol 6 will accept the 11 Debtors language in the amended disclosure statement in 12 resolution of our disclosure statement objection.

13 And likewise, Bristol 6 intends to move forward
14 quickly with demanding the information specific to the Autumn
15 Ideas issues that were raised.

16 THE COURT: All right, thank you.

17 MS. BROOK: So I wanted to provide that update for 18 you before we --

19 MR. GUTFLEISH: Your Honor, while we're hearing from 20 objectors, may I have a quick two minutes. Harry Gutfleish on 21 behalf of PIC20 Group, LLC. And I'll --

22 THE COURT: Yes, go ahead, Mr. Gutfleish.

23 MR. GUTFLEISH: Good morning, Your Honor, nice to see 24 you again.

25 THE COURT: You too.

1 MR. GUTFLEISH: I'm pleased also to report that we've 2 resolved or agreed not to pursue our disclosure statement
3 objections filed at docket number 350 at this time. However we 4 reserve our rights to object to the plan on any grounds,
5 including, but not limited to, those asserted in our objection
6 to the potential assumption of our clients' agreement with the 7 Debtors, certain of the Debtors, in any other matter that comes 8 before the Court.

9 And with that said, we're happy to see that things
10 are moving forward. And since my clients don't have a stake in 11 the timing issues that are going to play out over the next few 12 minutes or hour or so, I'd ask that permission to leave the 13 hearing at this time, unless anyone has any further questions
14 for me or my clients.

15 THE COURT: Any questions for Mr. Gutfleish?

16 MR. FAGEN: No, Your Honor. Your Honor, I will just 17 state, appreciate both of the, the resolution of both of the 18 objections of Bristol 6 and PIC20. I hope I said that right.
19 We reserve all rights at confirmation and understand we have to 20 put on our case, and make the case.

21 THE COURT: Okay, understood. Mr. Gutfleish, you're 22 excused. Thank you for sharing your client's position.

23 MR. GUTFLEISH: Thank you so much, Your Honor. Be 24 well everyone.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Thanks, you too. All right, so

1 everybody okay to talk?

2 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Yes, we need about five minutes.

3 THE COURT: I'll step out, you let me know --

4 MR. FAGEN: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 (Recording paused @ 11:10:34)

6 (Recording resumed @ 11:16:07)

7 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, thank you for allowing the 8 recess.

9 THE COURT: You're welcome.

10 MR. FAGEN: Matt Fagen, proposed counsel for the 11 Debtor, Kirkland and Ellis. Your Honor, we've huddled outside, 12 spoken to Mr. Zujkowski on behalf of lenders. Your Honor, the 13 Debtors agree to your proposal, which is that objections to 14 confirmation and votes to confirmation will be due seven days
15 after the independent investigation of the Special Committee
16 has concluded. And the conclusions are filed so that they're 17 available on the docket.

18 So we'll agree to that. We don't think it requires
19 any adjournment of the schedule. But to the extent that's not 20 concluded by May 13th, for instance, then the voting deadline
21 and objection deadline would go day for day after May 20th.

22 THE COURT: Yes.

23 MR. FAGEN: The lenders have not agreed to extend the 24 milestones. But I don't think that that's necessary to be done
25 today because we have every intention of keeping those dates,

1 meeting those commitments, and not needing an extension. And 2 if we do, we'll come back and we'll go back to them. So that's 3 my report.

4 THE COURT: Okay. That's perfect, thank you.

5 MR. FAGEN: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: What I was thinking, to assist the 7 Committee, I'm sorry I didn't mean to --

8 ATTORNEY: No, we're debating, it's okay.

9 THE COURT: What about if we -- I'd like to keep the 10 confirmation on the 22nd. I understand the difficulties you're 11 facing. And I'm wondering if we just, does it make sense to 12 set a status conference, we can do it by Zoom, you don't have 13 to show up.

14 MR. MARINUZZI: That's a good idea, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Right, and then you don't have to file
16 anything, you can just tell me how you're doing and --

17 MR. MARINUZZI: That's a good idea.

18 THE COURT: Right. All right, so let's do that,
19 let's say, does May 2nd make sense, that's a couple of weeks
20 out, or should it be closer to -- I might need Gina to tell me,
21 or you got it, Mike?

22 THE CLERK: I have the schedule.

23 THE COURT: So if you want to go out further. I
24 don't even know what the weekdays are.

25 MR. MARINUZZI: The 2nd is a Thursday.

1 THE COURT: Okay. The 2nd is my brother's birthday,
2 and the 22nd is my parents' wedding anniversary.

3 MR. MARINUZZI: All the more reason not to have it on 4 the 22nd.

5 THE COURT: One of them is dead and the other one is 6 102 years old, so it's okay. I don't know.

7 MR. FAGEN: In terms of a status conference date?

8 THE COURT: Yes, status conference date, what do you
9 think, later than --

10 MR. REISMAN: Your Honor, may I suggest the 9th.
11 That's a week later.

12 THE COURT: On a Thursday?

13 MR. REISMAN: A Thursday.

14 THE COURT: That should work.

15 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, that works for the Debtor.
16 The only thing I would say, I do have -- we have an important
17 partners' meeting, so I will not be able to attend in person --

18 MR. REISMAN: It's a status conference, it --

19 MR. FAGEN: -- unfortunately, but I don't think it
20 needs to be -- if it could be before noon eastern, I don't know
21 what your availability is, that would be very helpful.

22 THE COURT: Yes, it would have to be --

23 MR. MARINUZZI: The 9th isn't the best for me, is 24 possible to do it on the 7th, on the Tuesday?

25 THE COURT: Yes. We can do it Tuesday. How about

1 Tuesday at noon?

2 MR. MARINUZZI: Works for me.

3 MR. FAGEN: That works for me, Your Honor.

4 (Court and Clerk confer)

5 THE COURT: So noon time should work on the 10th.

6 MR. MARINUZZI: Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Okay?

8 MR. FAGEN: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right we'll set that up.

10 MR. MARINUZZI: ON the 7th.

11 MR. FAGEN: 7th.

12 THE COURT: On --

13 MR. MARINUZZI: Tuesday the 7th.

14 MR. FAGEN: Tuesday the 7th.

15 THE COURT: Tuesday the 7th. At noon time.

16 MR. FAGEN: Thank you.

17 MR. MARINUZZI: Great.

18 THE COURT: Okay, so the disclosure statement with 19 all the revisions, that you agreed to do with the Committee and 20 everyone else is approved.

21 MR. FAGEN: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: So that will be sent out within the next
23 day or two, right.

24 MR. FAGEN: It will.

25 THE COURT: And then we'll go from there. Anything

1 else that we need to handle, take care of today?

2 MR. REISMAN: Your Honor, I just want to say, in the 3 few moments -- Steven Reisman on behalf of the disinterested
4 directors. In the few moments that we had while the Ad Hoc
5 lender group was talking, I had the opportunity to speak to Mr.
6 Marinuzzi, and the Committee has also agreed that they're going
7 to provide us -- they've been serving subpoenas and requests
8 out there, and they're going to give what they've been serving 9 out there to others to us and the document production in that 10 regard.

11 MR. MARINUZZI: Absolutely.

12 MR. REISMAN: So that way we don't have to duplicate.
13 Mr. Mannal is -- so the Committee has been helpful. We used
14 the time productively is my point.

15 THE COURT: Great.

16 MR. MARINUZZI: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Okay, great. Obviously it takes work
18 from everybody here to get this done, right. Okay.

19 MR. FAGEN: Absolutely, Your Honor, and just for 20 clarification, we're going to resubmit the proposed order
21 approving the disclosure statement just to make sure the final
22 one is entered. So we'll get that uploaded to you imminently.

23 THE COURT: That would be great. That would be 24 easier for us I'm sure. So there's no confusion.

25 MS. BROOK: Your Honor, just a quick comment.

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 MS. BROOK: On behalf of Bristol 6, we just wanted
3 to, given the time line, ask that the Debtor be responsive to 4 our discovery requests, to narrow the Autumn Ideas' issues.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Brook, thank you. Mr. Fagen.

6 MR. FAGEN: Thank you, Ms. Brook, we will consider
7 all discovery and engage with you constructively.

8 MS. BROOK: Thank you.

9 THE COURT: All right, thanks.

10 MR. MARINUZZI: Your Honor, just one final point. I
11 may have somewhere in my emails, an email from somebody in the 12 office telling me that the proposed modified disclosure
13 statement filed at this point this morning works for us. I
14 don't have that clarification in my brain yet. So just a little 15 of time for me to make sure with my office that the disclosure 16 statement that was filed today is the one that we're okay with.

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 MR. MARINUZZI: I assume it is. I just need to 19 clarify with the office.

20 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Same here, Your Honor.

21 MR. MARINUZZI: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Okay. That's fine. So just -- I mean if 23 it's not okay let us know --

24 MR. MARINUZZI: If it's not okay we'll have 25 discussion --

1 THE COURT: -- otherwise I'll be looking for a
2 disclosure --

3 MR. MARINUZZI: I don't assume that we're going to 4 turn around and come back here, as much as we love the drive.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 MR. MARINUZZI: Thank you.

7 THE COURT: It was nice having you here.

8 MR. MARINUZZI: Very nice to be here.

9 THE COURT: I know everybody would prefer Zoom, it's 10 easier for everyone else. But --

11 MR. MARINUZZI: I actually didn't mind coming down
12 here this morning for this hearing, so.

13 THE COURT: All right, good.

14 ATTORNEY: We may be back at the end of May, Your 15 Honor.

16 THE COURT: Yes, you're right. All right, thank you.

17 ATTORNEYS: Thank you.

18 THE COURT: Thanks everyone.

DECISION

32

1 THE COURT: Good afternoon everyone. We're on the 2 record on Thrasio Holdings, Inc. This is Judge Gravelle. Can
3 you hear me Mr. Fagen?

4 MR. FAGEN: We hear you Judge Gravelle.

5 ATTORNEY: Hear you Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 MR. FAGEN: Good afternoon.

8 THE COURT: Good afternoon. All right, so we've got 9 -- oh did I bring my list in, out here. No. I'm assuming Mr.
10 Fagen --

11 MR. FAGEN: I'm right here.

12 THE COURT: Maruzzi?

13 MR. MARINUZZI: Your Honor, Lorenzo Marinuzzi, from 14 Morrison and Foerster. I'm on, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: There we go, got it, thank you.

16 MR. MARINUZZI: You're welcome.

17 THE COURT: All right, thank you, Mr. Marinuzzi. And 18 Mr. Fagen, are you presenting?

19 MR. FAGEN: I would like to present, Your Honor, 20 absolutely.

21 THE COURT: All right. And then Ms. Bielskie, you're 22 on for the United States Trustee.

23 MS. WOLF: Your Honor, it's Rachel Wolf representing 24 the US Trustee today, thank you.

25 THE COURT: Okay, let me just make a note. Thank you,

1 Ms. Wolf. And then Ad Hoc lien group.

2 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Good afternoon, Your Honor, Joe
3 Zujkowski, Gibson Dunn, on behalf of the Ad Hoc Group.

4 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

5 ATTORNEY: (indiscernible-audio skip)

6 THE COURT: Mr. Wilson? I'm sorry, I missed that 7 last.

8 MR. SHERMAN: I'm sorry, Your Honor, Andrew Sherman,
9 Sills Cummis, also for the Ad Hoc Group.

10 THE COURT: Oh, thank you, Mr. Sherman.

11 MR. WILSON: And Mr. Wilson for the Ad Hoc Group too,
12 though I think Joe will be presenting. Thank you.

13 THE COURT: Okay, thank you. And the disinterested
14 directors.

15 MR. REISMAN: Good afternoon, Your Honor, Steve 16 Reisman, Katten Muchin, on behalf of Mr. Morton and Mr. Selig,
17 the disinterested directors. Joined by my partners, Cindi
18 Giglio, Bankruptcy restructuring partner, and my litigation
19 partner, J.J. Hodge.

20 THE COURT: Okay, thank you. I know there are a 21 number of other attorneys appearing for each party, but I think 22 we probably got the ones that I need to hear from right now.

23 I did read, if we want to start, Mr. Marinuzzi, do
24 you want to start us off. I did read your letter.

25 MR. MARINUZZI: Sure, Your Honor, happy to do so. By

1 the way, for the record, I'm joined today by my partners, my
2 litigation partners, Alex Lawrence and my bankruptcy partner
3 Doug Mannal.

4 Your Honor, we sent the letter late last night to 5 really update the Court on the process of discovery, both from 6 the perspective of what the Committee has been doing, and also 7 our observation concerning the process undertaken by the 8 disinterested directors, recognizing that we have a proposed 9 confirmation hearing looming and an objection deadline looming
10 as well.

11 And just to step back a second to remind the Court,
12 the plan proposed by the company, and supported by the first 13 lien lenders, provides releases, company releases to current 14 and former officers and directors. Nearly all of whom, as we 15 understand it, won't be with the company after the effective
16 date of the plan.

17 And as we think about the claims that we're 18 investigating, and they really fall into a couple of different 19 buckets, we've got gross mismanagement. For example, the 20 company's operations and lack of controls. Claims for cooking
21 the books or at a minimum knowingly allowing false and 22 incorrect financial information to be shared with investors.
23 Breach of fiduciary duty claims, for example for taking 24 advantage of parties' positions on the Board to improve their 25 finances, sell their stock. Claims of those natures, claims of

1 that nature, as well as various other questionable insider
2 transactions. We're looking at all of these claims.

3 And Your Honor I'm sure hears a lot that people think
4 and Committees think that there are viable claims, but here I
5 think we've seen enough to conclude that there are viable
6 claims here. And it concerns us that the plan proposes to 7 release them for effectively no consideration for the unsecured
8 creditors.

9 As a fiduciary, we take our responsibilities very 10 seriously. And as Your Honor knows, we hit the ground running.
11 We knew when we started that there was very little time, it was 12 short. We didn't sit back and wait for the disinterested
13 directors to share their materials with us or participate in 14 their investigation. We sought documents ourselves from a 15 number of parties, from insiders, outsiders, auditors, parties
16 who threaten litigation against former officers and directors.
17 We wanted to make sure that we could paint a complete picture
18 of the claims that existed to understand the value of what the 19 Debtors were purporting to give up.

20 And we start with the Debtors. And the most 21 important communications or documents you're going to review as 22 part of an investigation like this is really the 23 communications, like the emails and slack messages. And as of 24 last night, the Debtors produced about 63,000, 62,800 I think
25 is the number, of emails and slack messages, but critically

1 half of those arrived in the last two weeks. And we're still 2 evaluating them.

3 The Debtors haven't produced any documents from six
4 of the independent directors, nor have they produced any 5 documents from Google drive, or from other systems they use to 6 store documents.

7 We've also sought communications and documents from 8 third parties, including the investors that held Board seats at 9 the time of the activity that we think gives rise to claims,
10 including Advent and Oaktree and Peak6 and Silver Lake and 11 Salamere (phonetic) and Upper90. And we served subpoenas on 12 all of them a month ago. And it's important that they sat on 13 the Board when this happened, and they're important players in 14 this.

15 As understand it, the disinterested directors didn't 16 seek any documents from them. But we've agreed to share with 17 them what has been produced, or what will be produced to us.

18 Another third party that we think is critically
19 important here, PWC was one of the company's auditors, who 20 raised concerns with the company's financials. We served
21 document demands on them. Still waiting for their work papers.
22 We understand the disinterested directors didn't see documents
23 them, didn't seek out work papers. They spoke to a 24 representative but didn't speak to anybody that was involved
25 for the audit.

1           We also sought discovery from parties who really
2           were, sold stock or bought stock based on false financial 3           information. We think they got scammed. There are five parties,
4           we list them in our letter. We don't think the disinterested
5           directors actually sat down with any of them to get their side
6           of the story. We think their story is very important. That 7           includes a draft complaint, that includes lots of specific 8           allegations that we think warrant investigation. We've asked
9           them for documents. They're producing documents. But again
10          the disinterested directors haven't sat down with them, haven't 11          sought documents from them.

12           As far as depositions, Your Honor, the Debtors say we 13          want 14 depositions. That's not true. Our letter highlights on 14          page 6, who it is that we'd like to depose. There's eight or 15          nine parties depending upon whether we interview both of depose
16          both disinterested directors. One of the proposed witnesses is 17          a 30(b)(6) from the company. And three of the proposed 18          witnesses are former officers and former directors, including 19          the former CFO who resigned from his job in July of 2021 after 20          three months, and nobody can give us an explanation as to why.
21          He wasn't interviewed by the disinterested directors until five 22          days ago. We've been speaking with him, we've asked for 23          documents, hopefully he'll produce them.

24           And that's what we've been doing, Your Honor. And as 25          I mentioned in a couple of places, the disinterested directors

1 either haven't sought or haven't asked for interviews, and we 2 think that's concerning given that this plan is predicated upon
3 releases where the disinterested directors are asking, or are 4 being asked to chime in.

5 Now we know they're working hard. We're sure they 6 are. But the investigation they're conducting is in some 7 respects not as advanced as ours in certain topic. We're happy
8 to share our investigation, we're happy to share our documents.
9 We're happy to share interviews. We haven't gotten the same
10 sort of reciprocity. We've asked to sit in on interviews that 11 the disinterested directors are conducting, I've been told no.

12 Importantly, it wasn't until one month after the 13 petition date and when the UCC was already in place and had 14 already begun serving subpoenas, that the disinterested
15 directors got any emails from the very important company
16 witnesses, including Josh Silverstein and Carlos Cashman.
17 That's pretty critical. I mean they've been in place since 18 December, the documents for whatever reason took a long time to 19 get to them. And in the time frame since they started to get 20 the critical documents, to when they're expected to have the 21 conclusions filed, just not a lot of time to conduct the 22 investigation.

23 Outside directors, very important. There are at 24 least eight directors that served. They have not been 25 interviewed. No interviews have been sought. Only one outside

1 director has been interviewed as far as we can tell. You have
2 to talk to them, it's important and critical to understand
3 their side of the story. They were there on the Board when all
4 of these activities were taking place.

5 It's hard to imagine an investigation could be 6 thorough and conclusive without interviewing, at least
7 interviewing these people. And that's what we're trying to do.

8 Your Honor, we've asked for a modest, very modest
9 extension of two weeks, to allow this to continue, to allow us
10 to conduct our depositions, to allow us to get more documents.
11 I mean they're just beginning to come in. Not just for us but 12 for the disinterested directors in many respects. Let this 13 process play out.

14 When we were there for our road trip to Trenton a 15 couple of weeks ago, I wrote on my board, transparency and 16 process. They were important then, they're important now.
17 This process needs to have time. Give us two more weeks. Let 18 us use those two weeks to get smarter on the claims. Be able 19 to formulate a counter proposal to the company and the lenders.
20 And maybe avoid a contested and protracted confirmation
21 hearing. That's really our objective.

22 And I think it's important for the public to know
23 that the topics that I've outlined and are outlined in our 24 letter, are being investigated thoroughly. We're not looking to 25 give people a pass. To the extent there are valuable claims,

1 we intend to make sure that the unsecured creditors get value
2 for those claims. And a reminder, Your Honor, the plan as 3 proposed says, if the disinterested directors conclude that 4 it's inappropriate to release these claims, so they may 5 conclude not because they think the claims are good, they may 6 just conclude not to release them because they haven't gotten 7 enough information to actually validate whether their claims
8 are good or not. We don't get the benefit of that. It stays
9 with the company. And the company is owned by the lenders.
10 The unsecured creditors get $250,000, and all of these claims,
11 which we believe are valuable to the tune of hundred, $200
12 million, and are unencumbered, we get none of that value.

13 And so we can have a big fight at confirmation over
14 whether the plan satisfies the requirements of the Bankruptcy
15 Code and whether unencumbered value is being taken away from 16 the unsecured creditors, or we can get more time to conclude 17 this investigation, or at least get smart enough collectively,
18 all of us, to understand precisely what the claims are that are 19 provable and figure out how to properly allocate value for that 20 in advance of the confirmation hearing. We think the request
21 is modest and fair, Your Honor.

22 Unless the Court has any questions, that's my 23 presentation for the Court.

24 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Marinuzzi. Mr. Fagen,
25 where does the disinterested directors' investigation stand?

1 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, I -- Mr. Reisman is on the
2 line and can speak to that. I also, if you want to go right to 3 Mr. Reisman, that's great. I would like to give a status
4 update to the Court and respond to a lot of Mr. Marinuzzi's
5 argument. But if you want to go straight to Mr. Reisman, we'll 6 do that.

7 THE COURT: Yes, I'd like --

8 MR. REISMAN: I'm happy to answer your question, Your 9 Honor. You asked a simple question. I will give you a simple 10 answer.

11 THE COURT: Please.

12 MR. REISMAN: We'll be done, we will be done with our 13 report on time. Our report will be -- our report will have the 14 facts and the conclusions that we've reached. When I say we,
15 Katten on behalf of disinterested directors. Right. We, you
16 know, we've had the time --

17 THE COURT: What does one time mean? What day --

18 MR. REISMAN: The 13th, May 13th is when we said that 19 we would have it filed with the Court. We would have the 20 facts, and conclusions, recommendations, right, filed with the 21 Court. And we will have them filed with the Court on May 13th
22 in that regard.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Mr. Reisman. Go ahead,
24 Mr. Fagen.

25 MR. FAGEN: Thank you, Your Honor. So I'm just going

1 to back up and provide a status update very quickly. And then
2 I'm going to highlight, I'm going to respond to some of Mr.
3 Marinuzzi's arguments and statements. And then I'm going to 4 highlight some of the discovery issues that the Debtor is 5 having vis-a-vis the Committee, because this is a discovery
6 status conference as well. And there are some things that we 7 want to bring to your attention as we proceed to confirmation.

8 So just as a starting point, I want to highlight that 9 these cases are on track, proceeding to confirmation coming out
10 of that disclosure statement hearing that we had in July (sic).
11 We have confirmation set for May 22nd. The voting and 12 objection deadlines are on May 20th. And that is subject to the 13 disinterested director report being filed and available on May 14 13th. We just heard from Mr. Reisman that they are absolutely 15 on track for May 13th. And that was the agreement reached, or 16 the arrangement reached at that disclosure statement hearing to 17 provide time for the Committee and others, and frankly the 18 Debtor, to evaluate the contents of that report. I haven't
19 seen it, you know, the Debtors' attorneys and Debtors haven't 20 seen it. And to prepare for the confirmation hearing which 21 would be nine days later. That is all on track. And we are 22 looking forward to putting on our case at confirmation.

23 I think that that frankly, the accommodation that we 24 reached at that hearing is really relevant to a lot of what Mr.
25 Marinuzzi is saying at this status conference. Because the

1 Committee is looking -- it seems like the Committee is looking 2 to prejudge the disinterested directors' investigation and 3 report before that report has been made available, really to 4 anyone. It's in process and it's going to be available in six
5 days. And I am sure, I have zero doubt that the Morrison and 6 Foerster team is going to be ample position to contradict or 7 contest or attempt to do so, I should say, at the confirmation
8 hearing or in advance, once that report is available.

9 But from the Debtors' point of view, Your Honor, the 10 continued attempt to delay the process, this now being I
11 believe the third time in a matter of about a month, is frankly
12 not constructive and it's not allowing us -- it would not allow 13 to progress the case as was agreed, and as we're still on 14 track.

15 The other, you know, the other thing I want to 16 highlight, I highlighted it at the last hearing, Your Honor, at 17 the disclosure statement hearing, is that there's an enormous
18 cost of delay. And there's also an enormous cost and enormous 19 cost of the process itself, which is worth it, and that's the 20 cost of bankruptcy. And we fully are on board with the 21 Committee doing their investigation.

22 I think what we heard from Mr. Marinuzzi at the 23 outset, there's certainly a list of things that they don't yet
24 have that are in various stages of discovery, and they have the 25 ability to bring those to the Court's attention. And I'm sure

1 they may seek emergency relief from Your Honor on some 2 depositions and other discovery issues.

3           The fact is, from our perspective, Your Honor, I
4 think it's very telling how Mr. Marinuzzi began with the, is it
5 80,000 documents that have already been produced, the 6 extensive, extensive search terms used, document custodians
7 used, I believe there were about 35 that we used in our search
8 terms, among Kirkland, Centerview, Alix, and company personnel.
9 It's been very, very extensive. And there's still continued
10 requests for more information, although it does seem that the 11 Committee kind of knows where it's coming out based on what Mr.
12 Marinuzzi says about their conclusions that there are real,
13 legitimate valuable and valid claims that would garner
14 unencumbered value for unsecured creditors.

15           But, Your Honor, there are continued requests by the 16 Committee to the Debtor to expand search terms, to increase the 17 search review to include I believe dropbox and other types of 18 files. I believe our point of view is that that could amount 19 to potentially hundreds of thousands of new documents being 20 searched and going through our discovery process.

21           And then in terms of the deponents that they looking 22 in connection with confirmation. I'm highly confident that we 23 received an email from the Committee last week that noticed 24 subpoenas for 14 individuals. Now they're saying that it's 25 eight or nine. But it's been a, in our view, a

1 disproportionate and untargeted process leading up to 2 confirmation, for confirmation discovery.

3 And really, Your Honor, it's a continuation of a
4 theme that's been developed since the Committee was appointed
5 in connection with the DIP hearing that was resolved, in 6 connection with the disclosure statement hearing where a ton of 7 the discovery was completely about confirmation, and we didn't 8 have cooperation from narrowing or targeting or giving 9 priorities. And Your Honor, it's continued, and a lot of these 10 are new requests that are recent since the disclosure statement
11 hearing.

12 THE COURT: Well, but Mr. Fagen, let me just ask
13 this. You know that I want to move this case as quickly as 14 possible, I understand the cost. But I also want it to be a
15 fair proceeding. So can we come up with something. If, let's 16 see, May 13, Mr. Reisman says he's going to have the report May 17 13th. In Mr. Marinuzzi's letter he mentioned a few things that 18 made sense to me, that well how come this person wasn't spoken
19 to, or that person wasn't spoken to. And perhaps between now
20 and May 13th, you could produce a few people that might help
21 the Committee in its evaluation of the disinterested directors'
22 report. And some depositions can be conducted between now and 23 May 13th. And then we can give the Committee a little bit more
24 time to review the actual report and hopefully that will answer
25 a number of their questions, or most of their questions. And

1 then go from there.

2 MR. FAGEN: Yeah, I'm thinking about what you're
3 proposing, Your Honor. And I want to highlight at the outset
4 that the Debtors will be as cooperative as need be to keep that 5 date, to keep us on track for the plan objection deadline and 6 voting deadline, and for confirmation on May 22nd.

7 I'm going to actually try to just convene very 8 quickly with my litigation partner, Casey McGushin, who is also 9 on the line. And a couple of things that, again, I think that 10 there's a way to be accommodative at least of some of what 11 you're proposing. A lot of the deponents that have been 12 noticed are also former employees or people who we don't 13 control, and I don't think that the Debtors have the ability to 14 compel those people to sit for depositions in the next six 15 days. Obviously the Court has that ability if the Committee
16 seeks that relief.

17 So what I know we can commit to doing is working 18 earnestly -- sorry I heard a little bit of a noise, can you
19 still hear me, Your Honor?

20 THE COURT: I can hear you, can you see me?

21 MR. FAGEN: You're screen -- you're frozen, but 22 that's okay.

23 THE COURT: All right, I just got a message that the 24 device is going to restart. All right, so long as I can hear
25 you, that's fine, go ahead, Mr. Fagen, I'm sorry.

1 MR. FAGEN: Absolutely. What I think we can commit to
2 is to earnestly work with the Committee --

3 ATTORNEY: Excuse me, I think we may have lost the 4 Court.

5 THE COURT: I can hear you.

6 ATTORNEY: Okay, sorry, go ahead.

7 THE COURT: Yes, I can hear you.

8 MR. FAGEN: To earnestly work with the Committee --

9 THE COURT: Can somebody work on this?

10 (Court and Clerk confer)

11 MR. FAGEN: I'll pause, I'll just pause.

12 THE COURT: No, go ahead, Mr. Fagen.

13 MR. FAGEN: Okay. To earnestly work with the 14 Committee to be as accommodative as possible and as really as 15 commercially possible, to accommodate some depositions. And 16 maybe some will be before the 13th. The thing about the 17 depositions Your Honor, I think Mr. McGushin would be able to 18 speak to it, is that they're obviously going to require, all of 19 those people who have been proposed, a lot of them have their 20 own counsel, personal counsel, who will need to produce them.

21 THE COURT: Right.

22 MR. FAGEN: But we will work in earnest to do some,
23 if possible, before the 13th. Certainly well in advance of the 24 plan objection deadline.

25 And again, in terms of the search terms, I think Mr.

1 McGushin may be best to speak to, best position to speak to it.
2 But I think that going to dropbox files for instance, is not
3 going to be practicable to do in six days or frankly I don't 4 know if it's practicable in a couple of weeks.

5 And on some of these issues, Your Honor, we're happy
6 to file an emergency motion and pleading for relief on the 7 breadth of the discovery. Because again, it's not possible to 8 do all of it. We will in earnest work to do what is possible.
9 But it's not going to be possible to do everything.

10 THE COURT: All right, so then what I'd like to know
11 then I think from Mr. Marinuzzi is, what -- tell me what the 12 best -- what the best approach for you would be, to get to the 13 bottom of some of your concern?

14 MR. MARINUZZI: So and I'm going to highlight, my 15 partner Alex Lawrence, who has been undertaking a lot of the 16 discovery work here and the document production. I think 17 there's some key witnesses who we want to depose. Like to get 18 them under oath. Like to hear their side of the story. Maybe 19 they'll testify, maybe they won't. Some of them are still 20 current officers and directors of the Debtor, so it should be 21 pretty easy for them to be produced. We'll work offline with 22 Mr. Lawrence unless he has a list of names at the top of his 23 head who we're going to prioritize to try to get them to sit 24 down with us.

25 Then there are others who are not connected with the

1 company anymore, but I think they're super important. I think
2 we have the former CFO who resigned after three months, that
3 nobody spoke with. We'd like to know -- you know, before five
4 days ago, we'd like to know what he has to say. And I think
5 it's important to get him under oath about his observations and 6 the reasons for him leaving. The Debtors don't control him,
7 but we think he's critical witness.

8 THE COURT: Okay, so have you been in touch with him,
9 or his counsel, to try to determine when, his availability,
10 when he can appear, that kind of thing? You might not know,
11 Mr. Marinuzzi, I understand that.

12 MR. MARINUZZI: But I'm going to defer to Mr.
13 Lawrence. I know he's spoken with his counsel.

14 THE COURT: Okay, thank you. Mr. Lawrence.

15 MR. LAWRENCE: Yeah, apologies, Your Honor, this is 16 Alex Lawrence, of Morrison and Foerster. With respect to Mr.
17 Wafford, he is the former CFO who came in in early 2021. And 18 then three months later abruptly resigned. We have reached out
19 to him, we have subpoenaed him, giving the full two weeks
20 notice which is required under the Local Rules for a subpoena.
21 He is, he's subpoenaed for the week of the 13th to come in to 22 be deposed.

23 He's actually spoken to counsel for the disinterested
24 directors, they interviewed him. We were scheduled to speak him
25 that same day. He abruptly canceled our call with him on the

1 day that he spoke to counsel for the disinterested directors.
2 And Your Honor, he's actually not returning our calls or our
3 emails at this point. So I've been --

4 THE COURT: All right, can either Mr. Fagen or Mr.
5 Reisman give me some information on this guy, why he's not
6 working with the Committee but he worked with the disinterested
7 directors.

8 MR. REISMAN: I cannot, Your Honor, Steven Reisman,
9 on behalf of the disinterested directors. I can't answer why
10 he's not working with the Committee. We did interview him.
11 And I don't have a reason why -- I don't know why he's not 12 wanting to talk with or willing to talk with Morrison and 13 Foerster. No idea.

14 THE COURT: Did you record his interview or take 15 notes on his interview?

16 MR. REISMAN: I was not present for it. We do not 17 record interviews. We want people to feel as comfortable as 18 possible, as open as possible. I am sure that there were some 19 notes taken by the lawyers in the room, just knowing my team
20 and how thorough they are, that someone took some notes of what 21 was said and statements that were made.

22 THE COURT: Okay, so then it seems to me, if nobody 23 can get a hold of Mr. Wafford to speak to the Committee, or at 24 least for Mr. Wafford to be able to tell the Committee that 25 he's not going to be, he's going to claim whatever, why he's

1 not going to testify. Then I'd want you to share your notes
2 with that. And share with the Committee what your interview
3 was about. And I know you're going to say that that, you don't 4 have a right to do that, but you do if I order you.

5 MR. REISMAN: Your Honor, Your Honor, I hope you know
6 me by now, but if you don't, right, I look to cooperate and to 7 be as helpful as possible. What I would say to you in the 8 spirit of trying to, you know, accommodate what Your Honor is 9 asking for, just like you asked for us to produce the document
10 requests that we sent to the Debtors, which we did immediately,
11 produced them to the Committee in that regard. What I would say
12 is, we should sit down with, if that's what Your Honor wants,
13 we'll sit down with, or we'll get on the phone with MOFO and we 14 will tell them, right. But people put their sort of work
15 product, their thoughts, impressions, that type of stuff. But 16 we'll tell -- we'll say what was said.

17 And we met, I was just want to give you a little, we 18 met with the Committee. And we sat down -- with the Committee
19 counsel sorry, we sat down with Committee counsel and we told
20 them on April 30th essentially, we had an in-person meeting
21 with them, and also by Zoom, we told them our overview of our 22 factual findings and our initial impressions. Sort of above
23 and beyond what we would normally do in a case in that regard,
24 before we reached our conclusions in that regard. We did that 25 here and we told them what we were thinking. We told them, I

1 don't want to get into that here. But we said, are we missing
2 anything, is there anything else, right, that we should be -- 3 any other areas that you think that we should be looking at in 4 that regard.

5 We covered the bases, Your Honor. Right, we got,
6 first, second, third and home. There was nothing else that we 7 were told that we should also be looking at in that regard.
8 The transactions, the --

9 THE COURT: All right, okay, so --

10 MR. REISMAN: So I'm happy to sit with the Committee
11 and have the right person who did that interview, not me,
12 because I'm not the right person for that, have the right
13 person do that, in that regard.

14 MR. MARINUZZI: And Your Honor --

15 MR. REISMAN: You're back on screen by the way, just 16 so you know.

17 MR. MARINUZZI: And Your Honor, we'd love to see 18 those notes, it's nice to hear somebody tell us what they 19 thought, I'd really like to see --

20 MR. REISMAN: (indiscernible)

21 MR. MARINUZZI: -- present impressions were. Your 22 Honor noted that you can order that. We'd like that ordered.

23 THE COURT: I --

24 MR. REISMAN: We don't lie, we don't lie. We're not 25 going to lie. We --

1 MR. MARINUZZI: I'm not suggesting, would never
2 suggest you would lie, Steven Reisman, never.

3 THE COURT: I'm not going to order that he turnover,
4 they turnover their written documents because I know, I mean I
5 wouldn't want anybody to see what I wrote when I'm interviewing
6 somebody most of the time. So but I just -- I'm trying to make 7 this, you make a very good point in your 13 page submission,
8 Mr. Marinuzzi. And I'm trying to get to a point where we can 9 get this to confirmation as quickly as possible. Believe me,
10 I'm the last person who wants to go through some long, you
11 know, four or five day confirmation trial because people have 12 questions that -- legitimate questions that need to be 13 answered. So I'm really just trying to get to -- and that's why
14 I set this status conference up, to try, rather than having 15 motions filed, let's work together and try to get information
16 to the people who need it, right, so that they can make a
17 reasonable demand on the Debtor.

18 Because certainly, I know it's -- I mean I may be 19 very naive about this, but I'm assuming this ain't going to 20 forward with $250,000 to the unsecured creditors with releases
21 of everybody. Right? You don't have to --

22 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, I don't want to prejudge
23 that.

24 THE COURT: I know.

25 MR. FAGEN: I don't want to prejudge it.

1 THE COURT: Neither do I, but I have my --

2 MR. FAGEN: But I hear you loud and clear. And in 3 terms of Mr. Wafford, we will also reach out to him, we'll let 4 him know about this status conference and that the Committee is 5 looking for him.

6 THE COURT: I'd appreciate that, thank you, Mr.
7 Fagen.

8 MR. LAWRENCE: And Your Honor, if I may, it's not 9 just limited to Mr. Wafford. For instance --

10 THE COURT: Understood.

11 MR. LAWRENCE: -- we're deposing Mr. Mussafer later
12 this week. He was interviewed by the disinterested directors.
13 It would really, it could shorten that deposition for sure to 14 know what was discussed. So there's a number of interviews that 15 they've conducted and you know, we only have the instrument
16 basically of depositions, so get access to people for that one
17 on one type of contact.

18 THE COURT: Right, okay. So now we have the voting
19 deadline of May 20th.

20 MR. FAGEN: That's right, that's also the plan
21 objection deadline.

22 THE COURT: Right. So how much do you think you can 23 get done before then? I mean that really gives them only --
24 I'm willing to move that out a little bit, because if you don't 25 get the -- if you don't get the report until May 13th, I'd like

1 you to talk to the disinterested directors' counsel and find
2 out whatever other information you might be able to pin down.
3 Do your depositions. Then when you actually read -- so you're 4 ready, I mean you're not, this isn't going to be a brand new 5 thing when you see the disinterested directors' report. And 6 then I can -- I'll give you, we're May 22nd, it's hard to move
7 the date if we're going to keep on the May 22nd confirmation.

8 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, I say, if there's -- there's 9 15 days between now and May 22nd. It seems like we know where 10 the Committee is heading and they're going to have time to do
11 depositions. And frankly, I don't think it's that abbreviated a 12 process to do confirmation, depositions, you know, within a two 13 week period.

14 MR. MARINUZZI: Your Honor, it's an incredibly tight
15 time frame.

16 THE COURT: I agree.

17 MR. MARINUZZI: It's a lot that has to get done in a 18 very limited amount of time. We're still waiting for the 19 conclusion. The facts aren't changing today, there are a 20 number of people that were never interviewed, a number of 21 documents that weren't even sought. We're going to have seek 22 them ourselves. We don't want to fight with people who haven't 23 produced documents without knowing what those documents say.
24 These are valuable claims. If --

25 ATTORNEY: Sorry --

1 MR. MARINUZZI: No, go ahead.

2 THE COURT: What I'm thinking, I agree with you, Mr.
3 Marinuzzi, but I have a whole lot more faith in your ability to 4 make progress here, than if I were in your shoes, honestly. So
5 --

6 MR. MARINUZZI: I don't doubt we can make progress,
7 Your Honor. I don't doubt. But what I really want to do,
8 instead of -- look, we can have a knee jerk counteroffer with a 9 number that doesn't bear any sort of relationship to what the 10 claims are worth, right. We're going to have to wind up doing 11 the proper analysis of what the claims are worth and how we 12 split them. We're, I don't know, 30 percent of the claims pool, 13 25 to 30 percent of the claims pool, it's a pretty significant 14 amount of claims that we have with a deficiency claim, yes, we 15 recognize that. So every dollar matters here.

16 And it's not going to be 250. We're sure of that.
17 But it's going to be some number that we think makes sense.
18 And rather than have a five or six day contested confirmation
19 hearing, let's use the time to have the financial advisors run
20 their waterfalls. Let's sit down, let's look at the claims, 21 let's look at the deep pockets. And let's figure out how to 22 make this a very short hearing for Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Right.

24 MR. MARINUZZI: And that's the purpose of this 25 hearing today. It's not just the delay, it's to let the Court

1 know what we're thinking.

2 THE COURT: I got it. So what about leave all the 3 dates as they are right now. Schedule another status
4 conference after the disinterested directors' report comes out
5 on the 13th. Maybe the 17th or the 18th of that week. And if 6 it's convincing that you need more time to put together an 7 objection, I'm going to move the 20th, I'm going to move the 8 date.

9 MR. REISMAN: Your Honor, if I -- I'm okay with that.
10 Can I just be just, that works that regard. It's facts and the 11 conclusions that we're going to reach. You know, I hate to say
12 like I'm a crystal ball.

13 (Background voices)

14 MR. REISMAN: Look, I don't know that a settlement is 15 going to be reached here. That's beyond me, I'm not, that's not 16 our role. We're doing an investigation. There have been a lot 17 of -- there have been some statements that (indiscernible-audio 18 skip) you can always, you can always look at more documents.
19 You can always take another deposition of another person,
20 right. In the Knick game last night there were 18,000 people
21 in the arena. In order to determine that the Knicks won the 22 game, do you need to depose 18,000 people? Or make sure that 23 they were all there. No.

24 THE COURT: That's not --

25 MR. REISMAN: We're trying to do it effectively.

1 THE COURT: That's not all that helpful, Mr. Reisman.
2 I get it.

3 MR. REISMAN: I got it, we're trying to do it
4 effectively and efficiently. We're trying to do what we're 5 doing effectively and efficiently without spending millions and 6 millions. And I don't know that there's ever going to get to a
7 settlement here. We're just going to make our recommendation
8 as to the releases. And then it's up to the company to decide
9 what to do with it in that regard. Right and --

10 THE COURT: Understood. And I don't really need an 11 explanation about who needs to do what. I just want to know
12 what's being done. Right, so I'm just trying to --

13 MR. REISMAN: Got it.

14 THE COURT: -- keep us on track.

15 MR. MARINUZZI: And Your Honor, just a reminder, the 16 way this is going to work is, they're going to file their 17 report. If we disagree with the conclusions it's not simply a
18 plan objection. It's a motion for standing to bring the claims
19 that we believe the Debtors are wrongfully refusing to bring.
20 So it doesn't just end there. Which is why you know, thinking
21 about saving money and thinking about time, pushing everything
22 out two weeks, to give us the time to talk to the people we 23 believe we need to talk to. To really work hard on valuing the 24 claims and coming up with a proposal, is going to save a lot
25 more money and a lot more time, at the end of this.

1           And so I don't think people are properly recognizing
2 just what this is going to look like if there's a report filed
3 where we believe they haven't looked at, or spoken to the right
4 people, where we disagree with their conclusions, where we have 5 other information that maybe we think is important to bring to 6 the Court's attention. If nobody wants to listen to us then
7 we'll take it up with the Court to give us standing to bring
8 these claims, because we think they're valuable. Again we don't 9 want them being released for no consideration to the unsecured
10 creditors.

11           We're trying to save time, we're trying to save
12 money, instead of it being perceived the other way. So I would 13 encourage everybody to just think about the expense of the 14 delay that will result from the Committee filing a standing
15 motion. We don't want to bring it. But if we have to we will.

16           MR. FAGEN: And Your Honor, I mean, I really take 17 issue with Mr. Marinuzzi's continued request for delay. I did
18 like Your Honor's idea of having another status conference
19 potentially on the 17th, where we're going to have to show you
20 you know, why the schedule remains reasonable in light of the 21 report, in light of the discovery that has hopefully been made
22 even more available. A ton has been made available, just to be 23 very, very clear.

24           I thought it was a very good idea and I think that in 25 particular it avoids a premature delay, which is not without

1 cause. Then I believe you know, or I hear Mr. Marinuzzi that a
2 couple of weeks of delay could save money. I hear it, I
3 completely disagree with it based on the trajectory of the 4 case, the status of the discovery and especially the discovery
5 request to date. I just think that giving a couple of extra
6 weeks prematurely has a real cost, especially when Your Honor
7 has the ability to do it if we're not able to meet our burden
8 on the 22nd, and leading up to it on the 17th.

9 THE COURT: Yes, I think, I mean that's the way we'll 10 go. Mr. Marinuzzi, everything that you said is, I completely
11 agree with. I mean you're not going to get third party
12 releases if you can't prove why they should be given and that 13 there's value for them. And it sounds to me that you're not 14 quite sure what the value is yet. And I want you to be able to 15 explore that.

16 So it sounds like you've got a good plan for going
17 forward. And I know it's only, it's a short period of time, so 18 in the next week and a half, week and couple of days, let's get 19 back on see where we are. We don't need to argue about you
20 know, stuff that's not relevant, right, just tell me where you
21 are and what you need and why. And we'll see if more time is 22 necessary.

23 MR. MARINUZZI: Okay, Your Honor, so we're going to 24 set a status conference, we should pick a date and time I
25 guess.

1 THE COURT: Yes. I'm sorry, that is Mister?

2 MR. TILL: Good afternoon, Your Honor, James Till on
3 behalf of Bristol 6, one of the aggrieved sellers. While I
4 believe we are de minimus in nature to the global discussions
5 here, I think we are fundamental to this case. Bristol 6, as 6 far as we can tell, is one of the more profitable acquisitions
7 that the global Debtors made. And I will say that we've been 8 working with the K&E folks to get discovery. We participated
9 in the 341. But, and then we had an informal meeting, I
10 believe it was last week with Mr. McGushin.

11 But only as of this morning did we receive the 12 initial set of loan documents, which don't even appear to be 13 the full set of loan documents. And we have very targeted, I
14 and my team are no strangers to these types of cases. And we 15 have very targeted requests that are very focused on 16 confirmation related issues.

17 And given this time line, we're very concerned about 18 being able to even have information necessary to fully assess
19 our plan confirmation objections. Or potentially a settlement
20 with the Debtors that we're involved with, which are Autumn
21 Ideas, and Thrasio, LLC.

22 I echo much of what Mr. Marinuzzi said, we certainly 23 appreciate everything that the Committee is doing, although 24 our, as an aggrieved seller specific to two separate entities, 25 our interests do depart to some extent, because we have

1 different issues to an extent.

2 And again, from what we can tell, we are one of the 3 more profitable components of the Debtors' future cash flow.
4 And we're very concerned about a lot of these issues. And while 5 we appreciate the K&E at least speaking with us, we still have 6 a lot of documents to receive, and this is a very compressed
7 time line.

8 MR. FAGEN: And Your Honor, I'll just respond.

9 THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Fagen.

10 MR. FAGEN: I'll just respond and say that we'll 11 convene as a group at K&E and make sure that we're promptly
12 responding to proper discovery requests. And otherwise we'll 13 bring them to Your Honor's attention. So we're on this and 14 we'll make sure that we're doing everything that we're required
15 to do with respect to the document discovery.

16 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. So what is the 17 17th?

18 (Court and Clerk confer)

19 THE COURT: All right, so the assumption of the 20 executory contract for you, Mr. Till, for your client --

21 MR. TILL: Yes.

22 THE COURT: That's scheduled for the 15th. Do you
23 want to move -- are you ready to go forward on that? Or you
24 want to move it to --

25 MR. TILL: Your Honor, we have no problem dovetailing

1 that with the plan confirmation hearings. And I'm happy to get
2 into the weeds on that. But we've been in discussions with 3 Debtors' counsel on that. And we don't have a problem kicking
4 that out. Our biggest concern is this very compressed time
5 line. I mean May 22nd, and I'm not asking the Court to change
6 its mind at this juncture, because we can reassess this on the 7 17th. But all total, these cases were filed February 28th,
8 there was only about 14 days ago, give or take, that we had the 9 341 meeting. And if this were to go forward on the 22nd,
10 you're still, you know, seven days shy of 90 days from the date
11 of filing.

12 So it's a very compressed time line given the numbers
13 we're talking about. And some of the things that I'm just 14 hearing for the first time, because a lot of this is being done
15 between the Debtor as it always is in these type of cases, 16 between the Debtor and the Committee, we weren't even aware of 17 the depo notices that were going out. I'd love to attend some 18 of those deposition notices, some of those depositions.

19 So and again we're not trying to be a fly in the 20 ointment, we think we have very legitimate concerns here.

21 THE COURT: Understood.

22 MR. TILL: And we think we have a legitimate legal 23 basis to challenge confirmation, at least with respect to our 24 two Debtors.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MR. TILL: Because as far as I know, this is not a
2 substantive consolidation these are jointly administered cases.

3 THE COURT: Wait a minute, when is -- oh no, that's 4 the following week, okay. So how about the 17th at 2?

5 MR. MARINUZZI: Your Honor, could I just, an 6 accommodation, the 17th is a Friday. We're going to be well on 7 our way to preparing an objection assuming the deadline doesn't 8 move. Can we move it up to the 15th which is two days after 9 the report is filed.

10 THE COURT: We can.

11 MR. MARINUZZI: Please. Thank you.

12 THE COURT: All right, so the 15th at 2?

13 MR. FAGEN: That works here, Your Honor.

14 MR. MARINUZZI: Works here.

15 ATTORNEY: Works for me, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Works for me. All right, so good
17 luck over the next week.

18 ATTORNEYS: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Thanks for your cooperation everybody.
20 Anything else? Everybody good?

21 ATTORNEY: May we be excused?

22 THE COURT: Yes. You may be excused, thank you.

Colloquy

4

1 THE COURT: Good afternoon everyone.

2 MR. FAGEN: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

3 MR. MANNAL: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right. So we, I think we have
5 representatives from the debtor, United States Trustee's
6 Office, the committee, the committee of unsecured creditors,
7 the ad hoc first lien group, the disinterested directors are on 8 and Bristol 6. So rather than going through the whole list,
9 let's just get to the status and I also wanted to talk to you
10 guys about the motion to seal that the committee filed last 11 week.

12 MR. FAGEN: Appreciate that, Your Honor, it's Matt
13 Fagen of Kirkland Ellis, proposed counsel to the debtors. I 14 have a status update that would take a minute or two if we 15 could start with that.

16 THE COURT: That's perfect. Thank you. Go ahead,
17 Mr. Fagen.

18 MR. FAGEN: Absolutely. So recognizing that we had 19 the status conference scheduled for a little over a week, going 20 into the weekend it became clear to us from speaking to counsel
21 for the disinterested directors that they were going to need a
22 little bit more time to look at some more emails and documents
23 and conclude the independent investigation. That was slated to 24 be filed on Monday, May 13th was the assumed filing. Again,
25 there was a built in system to extend the objection deadline

Colloquy

5

1 and the voting deadline for every day that that report remains
2 outstanding after the 13th. And it became clear over the 3 weekend that the disinterested directors' counsel believed that 4 they need 10 more calendar days to conclude that investigation.

5 And so what we did is we spoke to the debtors' board
6 members and we spoke to the lenders and to the committee to 7 attempt to reach an accommodative schedule for that continued
8 investigation while also respecting the built in mechanism from 9 the disclosure statement order with respect to the plan
10 objection deadline, the voting deadline and the confirmation
11 hearing date.

12 It was originally going to be nine days in between 13 the filing of that voting report, I'm sorry, the filing of that 14 independent report and the confirmation hearing and we've moved 15 to a schedule pushing everything 10 days out. We've actually,
16 we have an extra four days, so 13 days under our proposed 17 schedule between the filing of the independent report on May 18 23rd and our sought after confirmation hearing on June 5th. So 19 there's an additional time built into that schedule, that was 20 thoughtful on our end in order to give the committee the time
21 that they had bargained for and received under your disclosure
22 statement order and guidance at the previous hearings that 23 we've dealt with.

24 And we believe that the schedule again it allows us
25 to proceed to confirmation quickly, which has always been our

Colloquy

6

1 stated goal but it does build in even an extra few days. I
2 think you're going to hear from the committee that for those 3 extra days, I set the schedules four days longer, for those
4 extra days are the Memorial Day weekend depending on how you
5 count that if you're going to count the Friday, Saturday,
6 Sunday and Monday. You know again, that's Your Honor.

7 I will say that while we recognize holidays and think
8 that they're important, you know I don't necessarily view that 9 as four nonworking days, would probably be a very generous
10 approach and it's important to us, Your Honor, to stick to an 11 appropriately expedited but also reasonable schedule as has 12 always been the case.

13 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Fagen, actually before I
14 hear from someone else, from anyone else, I did read the status
15 reports that you guys filed and I wanted to, I think the 16 committee is requesting June 10th for confirmation.

17 MR. FAGEN: Correct, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: And actually that fits my schedule.
19 That's easier for me. Tell me, Mr. Fagen, it doesn't seem to 20 be that far off of anything. Is there any problem with June 21 10th rather than June 5th?

22 MR. FAGEN: So I'm going to answer that directly and 23 then I'm going to answer a couple, there's a couple other 24 issues that we have with the committee schedule in terms of the 25 sequencing of the filing of the confirmation brief and the

Colloquy

7

1 committee's objection which they're proposing to be after so
2 I'm going to table that. In terms of June 5th verse June 10th,
3 we want to do what's best for the Court and it's your decision
4 when that happens. We're seeking June 5th and I do want to 5 note that you know every day of the case is certainly money of 6 the estate that's you know, that's being utilized for that. So
7 I would much prefer June 5th but I do recognize that Your Honor
8 has a calendar and it's Your Honor's discretion.

9 THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Fagen, I'm cognizant of the days
10 too. I really do want to keep this on a short lease because of 11 the costs here but I'm going to schedule the confirmation for 12 June 10th because that is definitely going to ease things up a 13 little bit for me, certainly it will make it much easier for 14 the Court.

15 MR. FAGEN: Understand, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right, I appreciate it. Thank you.
17 And then --

18 MR. FAGEN: I do -- sorry, I didn't want to cut you 19 off.

20 THE COURT: No, that's okay because I think there
21 were other dates that I wasn't sure where, what you wanted, 22 what you folks were disagreeing on with those.

23 MR. FAGEN: That's exactly right, Your Honor, and 24 that's what I was going to say. If we're doing June 10th, 25 we'll prepare for that but we need to figure out the

Colloquy

8

1 intervening dates and in particular it's important for us that
2 the committee's objection deadline is going to go, come before
3 and their objection is going to come before the debtors have to 4 file their confirmation brief and reply to objections. Just as 5 they need adequate time and you know expounded on that, it's 6 also fair and reasonable especially with a more adjourned
7 schedule for the debtor to have an ample opportunity to defend 8 against the committee's objections.

9 And so I would say, and of course Your Honor needs
10 time to read the papers, I would propose that the debtor's 11 confirmation brief and reply to objections is filed on or 12 around Friday, June 7th or even over the weekend because, you
13 know my team is going to look at me but we do work on weekends.
14 So maybe even we would take until, you know, until the weekend.
15 But we should have I believe Your Honor, at least four days if 16 not longer to respond to the committee's objection.

17 So on that schedule it would seem like a committee
18 objection deadline of June 3rd, no later than June 3rd would be 19 most reasonable.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Mannal?

21 MR. MANNAL: Good afternoon, Your Honor, Doug Mannal
22 from Morrison & Foerster, counsel for the committee. Just want
23 to thank the Court and its staff for making themselves
24 available for the status conference. It was the Court's 25 suggestion. I think it was a very good one. I had prepared

Colloquy

9

1 remarks but I think what I will do is just focus on the 2 question on the table.

3 I don't understand why the debtors think it's 4 appropriate for them to file a brief in support of confirmation
5 after the committee files its objection. Typically, you file a 6 motion and then you file an objection and there's an 7 opportunity to reply. I don't know why this case would be any 8 different.

9 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, I'll respond to that 10 directly. I only had a 13 year career so far but I've never 11 seen a schedule for confirmation where the debtor files their 12 confirmation brief and the committee responds to that. The 13 plan is the confirmation transaction that the debtors are 14 proposing and that's what every committee in the history of 15 committees that I've seen or heard about responds to and 16 objects to, not to the brief of the debtors' argument in 17 support of confirmation and response and reply to objections.

18 MR. MANNAL: Your Honor, for the record, Doug Mannal.
19 We have no idea what the declarations are going to be in 20 support of the Chapter 11 plan and when they're going to be 21 filed. The suggestion that the debtors file their confirmation
22 brief and declarations immediately prior to the hearing after 23 the committee files its objection is in my experience, and I'm 24 a little older than Mr. Fagen, not much, is that, you file your 25 confirmation brief. You have an opportunity to respond after

Colloquy

10

1 the committee files its objection.

2 THE COURT: Well, I see the benefits of both points
3 that the two of you are making. I'm okay with the committees'
4 objection coming in first, committees' brief first. Debtors'
5 confirmation brief after and I know it's going to be a
6 shortened timeline and I think everybody has to get ready.
7 June 10th, the full day is available. I can continue a
8 confirmation hearing if we have to if there are issues that 9 come up in the debtors' declaration that are a surprise or that 10 need to be investigated further, it's going to have to be, it's 11 probably evidentiary hearing I would think.

12 MR. MANNAL: So I was taking notes, Your Honor, just 13 to make sure I understand. The proposal is the confirmation
14 brief be filed on June 7th or June 6th?

15 THE COURT: I think it was June 7th, Mr. Fagen,
16 right?

17 MR. FAGEN: That's correct.

18 MR. MANNAL: Well, it would seem to me to make sense
19 to have the committees' objection deadline in this situation be 20 June 6th and have the confirmation brief be filed on June 7th.

21 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, I mean, Your Honor, it's 22 difficult to respond to that in a serious way. But I'm going
23 to say, I will respond (indiscernible) -- That is simply not 24 enough time and even what the committee was asking for last 25 week, they'll distinguish and say that in real life that the

Colloquy

11

1 report was going to come a little bit later. I understand
2 that. But there's still ample time in this calendar. The idea
3 that they would take 13 days, I believe it is, correct my math,
4 after the report to file their objection and we would have a
5 day to respond, is what I was struggling with to even
6 responding to. And that's why I thought that June 3rd which I
7 believe gives them, I believe it's 11 days, although my math is 8 on my calendar to respond, it's either 10 or 11 days and gives 9 us only four days, seem like frankly like us taking a lot of 10 the slack but we're willing to do that.

11 MR. MANNAL: Your Honor, if I may, Doug Mannal on 12 behalf of the committee. I understand Mr. Fagen's concerns.
13 However, this is a creation of his own making. This is, you
14 know his schedule that we're trying to adhere to . We have five 15 depositions that we will need to take after the report is 16 issued as well as a separate standing motion identifying claims 17 that the disinterested directors neglect to identify and want
18 to prosecute as well as a Chapter 11 plan confirmation
19 objection.

20 So I'm sympathetic to his concern but at the same
21 time, the committee does require the time. May I make a 22 suggestion? Perhaps we could go to June 5th and June 7th and 23 that would give the debtors the two days that they require.

24 THE COURT: That's what I was going to say. Let's do
25 the 5th and the 7th.

Colloquy

12

1 MR. FAGEN: So Your Honor, appreciate that. If it's 2 going to be 5th, I would ask to have the weekend to submit our 3 papers. That's a Friday. I would like my team to have the 4 ability to finalize our response in a little bit more than two 5 days and we're happy to work that weekend and to take until 6 Sunday to file our response. We don't need to go late on 7 Sunday either but I would like to have the benefit of that 8 weekend.

9 MR. MANNAL: And Your Honor, Doug Mannal --

10 THE COURT: I think that's Father's Day, isn't it?

11 UNIDENTIFIED: No, that's the 17th.

12 MR. FAGEN: It is, I believe Father's Day is the 13 following weekend.

14 THE COURT: Oh, okay. Then why don't you plan on 15 getting the brief filed by midday Saturday and then that will 16 give us all time to take a look at it before --

17 MR. SPONDER: Your Honor? Your Honor, this is Jeff
18 Sponder from the US Trustee's Office.

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 MR. SPONDER: And good afternoon.

21 THE COURT: Good afternoon, Mr. Sponder.

22 MR. SPONDER: I just want to note the original dates
23 proposed were the committee objection was due May 20th and the 24 deadline to file a confirmation brief was the next day, May 25 21st. That was the original. So now the debtor is asking for

Colloquy

13

1 more time even though they didn't put it in the last time for
2 that. So you know having a hearing, a contested confirmation
3 hearing on the Monday when papers had to be filed Saturday I
4 don't think is fair to everyone here including Your Honor.

5 MR. FAGEN: Well, Your Honor, I would just submit in 6 response that the only thing that's going to be filed is the 7 debtors' brief in response to the objections and so those 8 objections would have been lodged well in advance on the 5th if 9 I'm not mistaken and so I believe it would be a pretty discreet
10 set of pleadings filed by the debtor only in response to the 11 issues that were already raised and acknowledged.

12 THE COURT: Well, in that case then, let's get it
13 filed on the 7th if it's going to be limited, all right?

14 MR. FAGEN: Okay, if we're going to file it on the 15 7th, Your Honor, I would just like to have the entire day of 16 the 7th, you know, by 11:59 it will be filed, not to dig into 17 it too much but we'll file it that day but we are, we're 18 responding, I said limited because it's going to be limited by 19 what the committee and US Trustee object to, but as you know
20 and as we can hear, they have a comprehensive set of objections
21 that they're planning to launch.

22 MR. MANNAL: Your Honor, Doug Mannal for the 23 committee. Just briefly, Your Honor, we would like to see the 24 declarations well in advance of Friday at midnight. I don't 25 believe they are in response to the committee's objections that

Colloquy

14

1 the committee raised. I just fear Monday is going to be a very
2 difficult day if we're not getting the declarations until 3 midnight on Friday.

4 MR. FAGEN: And all due respect, Your Honor, in 5 response, the committee is already taking 30(b)(6) notices,
6 deposition notices of the debtor, depositions of one of the 7 disinterested directors has already been scheduled. I do
8 believe that they will have the information that they will need
9 from an evidentiary portion and an opportunity to do their own
10 depositions and take evidence well in advance. And also add 11 that again a limited set of cases, I've done over 13 years, but 12 I haven't seen a requirement that the declarations proceed to 13 confirmation or even response to objections.

14 THE COURT: Well, I mean I'm trying to be practical
15 about this but it is, we're all, I don't mind reading through 16 everything on Saturday and Sunday, I'm happy to do that. Well, 17 not happy to do that but will do that. But I mean why are we,
18 if we're moving it, I mean you wanted it on the 5th,
19 confirmation on the 5th, right? I moved it to the 10th. So
20 why, I'm not sure why you have to be so compacted here?

21 MR. FAGEN: Yeah, what I would say the evidence
22 that's put on in declarations in support of confirmation, it 23 necessarily follows from the objections put on by the 24 committee. We certainly have a confirmation case in chief to 25 prove and that's known but a lot of what we'll want to have in

Colloquy

15

1 those declarations may be informed by the objection that we 2 received.

3 I would propose as a compromise that we could file
4 initial declarations at some point, conterminous with or right
5 before the committee's objection deadline, with an opportunity
6 to supplement those declarations based on what's in the 7 objections.

8 THE COURT: That would be very helpful, Mr. Fagen,
9 thank you.

10 MR. FAGEN: Thank you, Your Honor. I do want to 11 raise one other issue, if we're ready to move off that, one
12 other issue is the voting report is distinct from the objection
13 deadline and I think we articulated in the disclosure statement
14 mechanism that follows the voting deadline from the independent
15 report. It was a seven day period and I think that was thought 16 out to allow voting creditors to see the results of the report
17 for that seven days.

18 We think it's important that that's honored, Your 19 Honor, and that continues the vote report is filed on May 23rd, 20 while the objection deadline for the committee and again, that 21 follows from the deposition and facts discovery that they're 22 doing and we just addressed that. The voting is different, it
23 follows, was just a piece of information to be supplied to 24 voting creditors. To the extent that that continues on May 25 23rd, with the independent report, the voting deadline we fully

Colloquy

16

1 believe should still be May 30th.

2 MR. SPONDER: And Your Honor, this is Jeff Sponder
3 from the Office of the United States Trustee. I think the 4 proposal was May 29th. Now, it's May 30th and seven days for 5 creditors to vote is very short, is a very short turnaround
6 time. But I understand for purposes of this case it,
7 everything is short. If June 10th is when confirmation is and 8 when June 7th is when the voting report needs to be filed, I
9 don't see why we have to have May 30th, why we can't have it
10 June 5th date. I don't know how long it will take the debtors'
11 agent, noticing agent to look through all the votes and I know
12 they normally tell me two to three days so I don't see why we 13 can't go two to three days prior to that one deadline.

14 That issue, Your Honor, I also want to just add that 15 we're talking about committee objection deadline. I think the 16 objection deadline should be for everyone, all parties
17 including the United States Trustee. It should all be the same 18 deadline which it normally is in every case that I've been in.
19 Thank you.

20 THE COURT: Okay. So, well, everyone, not just Mr.
21 Fagen, what I would suggest is votes would be due by the 3rd of 22 June which is that, the Monday of, it's one week before the 23 confirmation hearing and then all objections due the 5th. The 24 debtors' initial declaration in support can be, will be filed
25 on the 4th. The debtors' supplemental declaration in support

Colloquy

17

1 of confirmation would be filed on the 7th which is also when
2 you can file, I mean you can file the certificate of,
3 certification of voting then as well on the 7th or that can
4 come in over the weekend if you prefer.

5 MR. MANNAL: And the debtors' confirmation brief,
6 Your Honor?

7 THE COURT: And the debtors' confirmation brief, yes,
8 on the 7th. I see a number of hands raised here, but Mr.
9 Fagen, let me hear what you think about that.

10 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, I think that the schedule is 11 largely reasonable. I do want to stress one more time that,
12 you know and I heard the responses from the committee counsel
13 and from the US Trustee, that it's our schedule and we're 14 forcing this to happen quickly. And by the way, I acknowledge 15 that it is largely our schedule. We were seeking June 5th but 16 we are seeking a reasonably quick schedule.

17 You know we're being left, the one thing I take the 18 most issue with, really the only thing I would say I take any 19 issue with is you know the two days between the objection
20 deadline and our requirement to file an objection. And I said
21 previously that we're happy to work weekends. We're happy to 22 work as needed. It is extremely tight and the only thing I
23 would ask Your Honor to think about is would there be some sort 24 of a requirement that at least the objection which the 25 committee is getting the 5th, which is very close to what

Colloquy

18

1 they're asking for, could that be filed by, you know during the 2 business day or noon or something like that to allow a little 3 bit more time for us to respond. That's the only thing I would 4 really focus on, on the overall schedule.

5 MR. MANNAL: Your Honor, that may make sense if the 6 debtors are willing to not wait until midnight to file their 7 brief --

8 MR. FAGEN: Well, again -- sorry, I interrupt you.

9 THE COURT: No, that's okay. If the committee, the 10 brief will be filed by two o'clock on the 5th and then the 11 debtor will have until 11:59 on the 7th.

12 MR. FAGEN: Appreciate that, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: To file, all right. And let me just hear
14 before we go any further, Mr. Zujkowski on behalf of the ad hoc
15 first lien group. Hopefully, you're okay with the schedule. I
16 know you're paying this but go ahead.

17 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Yeah, Your Honor, I think you stole
18 my thunder but first off, thank you so much for the time today.
19 I think these status conferences have been extremely helpful in 20 hopefully moving these cases towards, you know towards a near 21 term conclusion. We will take back the 10th. I don't imagine
22 that it will be an issue for my clients. It will require a
23 milestone extension. We will take that back right after this 24 hearing perhaps.

25 Your Honor, our clients are extremely respectful and

Colloquy

19

1 understanding of the process that's being lead by Mr. Reisman
2 on account of the independent directors and you know, totally 3 understand and respectable of the work that's being done by the 4 committee. You've heard us say as the holder of the largest
5 deficiency claim here, you know we are the primary beneficiary
6 of any claims that are identified and any value associated with 7 those claims.

8 At the same time, Your Honor, our clients as you
9 noted are the ones paying for this case, both in the form of 10 DIP financing, additional money that would be funded prior to 11 emergence and through taking, you know a substantial haircut on 12 prepetition secured claims, all to insure that this company
13 continues and is able to restructure itself is a going concern.

14 Your Honor, our clients strongly believe that this 15 does not need to be a contested confirmation hearing. You know
16 I will take back, you know the request for a brief milestone
17 extension, but I think our clients, you know rightfully will 18 want to know that there are settlement discussions to hopefully 19 get us to a consensual hearing that can hopefully avoid the 20 need for a contested confirmation process that's going to cost
21 a lot of money and that is money that can ultimately should 22 stay in the business and you know, fund the turnaround that 23 we're all hopeful occurs here.

24 So totally respectful of folks' calendar and 25 obviously Your Honor's calendar. We'll go back to my clients

Colloquy

20

1 but it is our hope and expectation that there will be good
2 faith settlement discussions, you know now that Mr. Reisman is 3 just completing his work. The committee has had, you know
4 several weeks to review documents that are being produced.
5 Folks need to get into a room and kind of work towards a
6 consensual, you know, consensual process to the extent
7 possible. We recognize that that may not be possible but we 8 need to start trying.

9 THE COURT: Yes, I'm assuming that if there haven't 10 been settlement discussions so far, that the revelations or the 11 disclosure of the independent, the disinterested directors
12 report will prompt further and further productive discussions.
13 If there's anything I can do to help that, I mean I don't know
14 what, anyway, I'm here so let me know --

15 MR. FAGEN: I'm hoping the same thing, Your Honor and 16 I'm happy that Mr. Zujkowski brought that up. In the last 17 settlement discussions in earnest was in advance of the 18 disclosure statement hearing when the company and secured
19 lenders made the proposal to the committee and you know we're 20 eager to sit down with them and hear a counter proposal and 21 I'll let Mr. Mannal speak to that but we would absolutely like 22 to explore the possibility of settlement as well.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. MANNAL: Your Honor, this is Doug Mannal. I echo
25 the parties desire to try to work this out. It is frustrating

Colloquy

21

1 however, to again hear from debtors' counsel what has become 2 clear that the debtors didn't know what these claims were and
3 needed more time to figure it out. And I think that was sort
4 of a cart before the horse to have a settlement discussion
5 without knowing the scope and value of these claims. So I
6 think we are getting very close and we look forward to working 7 with the parties to try to resolve this.

8 THE COURT: Great. I appreciate that. Mr. Till, on 9 behalf of Bristol 6, how much involvement have you had, have 10 you been included in? I mean you raise a number of points that 11 I'm curious as to the answers to those too. I'm assuming 12 they'll come in from the debtor on the 5th or the 7th or 13 whatever date we had set for the debtors' disclosure to come
14 in. But let me, you know where do you guys stand?

15 MR. TILL: I appreciate that, Your Honor. Good
16 afternoon, Your Honor. We're okay with the schedule that's 17 being proposed. Although we would agree with Mr. Mannal's
18 statements that this is the bed the debtor has made for itself
19 in terms of the timing. They've been driving this schedule.
20 We're okay with the schedule provided we actually get the 21 information that we're requesting and we highlighted that and I
22 can go into painstaking detail if Your Honor wants, but I'm 23 sure Your Honor doesn't want us to do that.

24 But we are not getting the discovery we need. We 25 made a number of informal requests back on April 26. Again, I

Colloquy

22

1 can go into painstaking detail about what we've received and
2 not received. It's fair to say that we, there's a material
3 course and we have not received and given, we only wanted a
4 footnote in the debtors' statement in advance of this May 15
5 status conference but the fact is, my clients represent a 6 distinct entity that is highly profitable for this entire 7 enterprise but it is a legally distinct entity. And I just 8 feel like we're being overlooked. I hope I'm wrong on that.
9 But we're not being, I don't believe we're being taken
10 seriously (indiscernible -- connection) --

11 THE COURT: Mr. Till, do you have a contact person at 12 Kirkland?

13 MR. TILL: We've been dealing with a number of people
14 at Kirkland and I'm not stranger, I used to work in large law
15 firms so I understand these large cases, how the kind of chain
16 of command works and there's dockets and groups of people to 17 deal with certain issues so we've dealt with a number of 18 different people but we haven't had one specific point person.
19 It's my rate, at least between three and four different
20 individuals at Kirkland.

21 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, if I can respond to that,
22 briefly, I'll leave the substance of the (indiscernible)
23 objections from Bristol 6 aside, I'm going to reserve those for 24 confirmation. But I would respond to it very briefly by saying 25 that Mr. Till and his colleagues served their first request for

Colloquy

23

1 production of documents on the debtor. I'm looking at the 2 email right now so we are getting those emails,
3 (indiscernible) --

4 THE COURT: You aren't getting the emails?

5 MR. FAGEN: We are getting those.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 MR. FAGEN: I have them on my computer but that was 8 sent on Friday. it's Wednesday and it was a request for 9 production of documents that takes time but he will get a
10 response to. And then a set of interrogatories was served 11 yesterday at six p.m. Eastern. I understand that both of those 12 responses to both of those requests are in the works and so I
13 would disagree with the characterization that Bristol 6 is not 14 being taken seriously. You know we're talking about Friday and 15 Tuesday and now it's Wednesday and it's production, it's a
16 formal request for discovery --

17 THE COURT: I'm assuming Mr. Till, you're going to 18 say that you've been trying to get the information informally, 19 et cetera, et cetera. So what I'm hearing here is that the 20 debtor has a list of things they're supposed to provide to you
21 and they will be provided and I'm wondering, Mr. Fagen, if we 22 can say that, I know you probably don't have, you've talked to 23 other people there but is it possible to get those, for the 24 information that Bristol is seeking by the end of next week, by 25 the 24th of May.

Colloquy

24

1 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, I am just checking in with my
2 litigation colleague who's doing the work. I'm waiting for his
3 response on whether that's possible. I could respond but --

4 MR. TILL: Your Honor?

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 MR. FAGEN: But I should get a response very shortly.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. MCGUSHIN: Your Honor, Casey McGushin from 9 Kirkland. I am the litigator that Mr. Fagen was referring to.
10 That is not a problem having it out by next week. I will say,
11 and this is something we communicated to Mr. Till during the 12 meet and confer. The requests were very broad and we frankly 13 didn't understand what they were relevant to so that's what we 14 were asking for clarification on from Mr. Till. I think the 15 statement they filed this morning will help us understand
16 exactly what the theories they are, they're going after and you
17 know, we'll take that into account and if we have issues, we'll 18 certainly bring them to Your Honor about the scope of 19 discovery. But to the extent there are documents that are 20 relevant and that we have, we'll get them out to them by the 21 end of next week, no problem.

22 THE COURT: Okay, perfect. It sounds like that's 23 moving along. Mr. Till?

24 MR. TILL: Your Honor, I would only, I appreciate 25 Kirkland's reassurance that they're going to get us those

Colloquy

25

1 documents by date certain. I will only note that on April 26th
2 we asked for documents which included loan documents. It took
3 Kirkland 11 days to get us loan documents, loan documents. So
4 to say that they're --

5 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I don't think that's getting
6 us anywhere right now, right? We're getting closer and closer
7 to confirmation so let's get the information out to everyone.
8 I mean everybody knows there's still a lot of unanswered
9 questions, the plan is not going to get confirmed. So I think
10 that's where we are. Mr. Reisman, thank you for your patience.
11 I know you've had your hand raised.

12 MR. REISMAN: I'm going to put my hand down actually,
13 sorry, thanks. Your Honor, Steven Reisman on behalf of 14 disinterested directors. First off, no issue whatsoever with 15 respect to the timing and what Your Honor has in fact decided 16 today and thank you for that. We continue to work on doing our 17 diligence and analysis and disinterested directors are going to 18 a thoughtful and deliberative process with respect to the 19 State's releases of other parties.

20 I only rise or actually sit where I am or make a 21 comment to state that Mr. Mannal says that they're going to 22 point out and I'm going to quote him because the record it
23 might get it read back, that they're going to point out in the 24 standing motion that the disinterested directors have neglected
25 to identify certain claims or causes of action or releases.

Colloquy

26

1 And what I want to say is look, I've been doing this for 34
2 years now exclusively insolvency and restructuring since day
3 one, even before that as a summer associate and with a
4 Bankruptcy Judge and I believe in constructive and cooperative
5 process in that regard. And I took Your Honor to heart when 6 you asked for us to produce a document request to the committee
7 and we sent our request over, no objection whatsoever.

8 When Your Honor said hey, Mr. Reisman, you conducted 9 interviews, I don't want your analysis of it, but would you
10 mind sitting down and sitting down with both MoFo and spending
11 time with them and telling them what the questions were that 12 you asked and the answers that you got and we did that. We did 13 that. We did that last week with MoFo in a constructive and 14 cooperative manner.

15 And I want to be clear, you know my experiences, the 16 way these cases work, is that we get to where an agreement is 17 close to the end as possible. It would be nice if we could get 18 it beforehand so that we don't have to have fighting and war
19 and missiles coming back and forth and lots of fees and 20 expenses in that regard. And so this is not the UCC against 21 the disinterested directors or actually it isn't even the UCC
22 against the debtors and it should never really be that. It
23 should be everyone rowing in the same direction to maximize
24 recovery for the benefit of creditors in the context of a case.

25 So what I would ask is, and I have not made any

Colloquy

27

1 request of Your Honor in this case yet in that regard, what I
2 would ask is that the committee, there should be no surprises
3 here. We sat down with the committee. We told them what we 4 were thinking as to individuals. What we were thinking as to 5 potential claims, what our analysis was, et cetera. We sat
6 there in a room at a Katten's offices at 50 Rock and we talked
7 with them as professionals as you would expect us to do and you
8 would require of us to do as professionals for the estate and 9 we did that.

10 And so I just don't want any surprises here. So what 11 I would ask is that Mr. Mannal and his team, Mr. Marinuzzi, Ms.
12 Cooney (phonetic), et cetera, we will meet with them day or 13 night. There is no, in this practice many times, no weekends, 14 no Father's Day, no Mother's Day, it's unfortunate. It's the 15 career we've chosen in that regard but I'm happy to meet with 16 them. I just don't want any surprises.

17 So they say, and this is what Mr. Mannal has said
18 today, that the disinterested directors are going to 19 (indiscernible) identify and therefore they're going to file a 20 standing motion. And if we're going to get to a resolution 21 here, which is what 85, 90 percent of cases get to in that 22 regard based upon my 34 years, -- fortunately, we don't, we 23 resolve things and then we present that resolution to the Court
24 under the standards that are applicable. I would just like Mr.
25 Mannal and MoFo and the committee to present to us, to present

Colloquy

28

1 to Gibson Dunn in a coherent manner what they think it is that
2 we are going to, this is not about hitting the ball or getting 3 standing or creating a trust and having millions of dollars in 4 fees that professionals somewhere down the road.

5 This is about reorganizing a company, saving jobs,
6 maximizing recovery for creditors and there should be no hiding
7 the ball. We are not hiding the ball. We are going to say
8 what we did and the conclusions that we reached. We've already 9 shared a large portion of that with Mr. Mannal on a
10 confidential basis in an effort to reach resolution. We've 11 also met with the ad hoc committee. We've also spoken to the 12 debtors.

13 We want to get to resolution. And honestly, I want
14 to be the honest broker, but I feel like that, right. Having 15 done this for 34 years, I want to get to where we need to be 16 for this company to exit in a constructive and be a productive
17 company going forward without the overhang of potential
18 litigation claims and DINO (phonetic) and this and that in that 19 regard. And so therefore, I would like no hiding the ball.
20 Please sit down with us, Mr. Mannal, sit down with us, MoFo, in 21 a room and say this is what we know.

22 These are the claims, et cetera in that regard and 23 this is what we are concerned about. Because I don't want to 24 be fighting over a standing motion in four days before
25 confirmation or respond and having the fees just go wild. I

Colloquy

29

1 think they already are wild here, just to a large extent and I
2 want to try and control that. So enough said, I'm just trying
3 to be productive and constructive to get to a resolution here.

4 THE COURT: Thank you. I appreciate your comments,
5 Mr. Reisman. That's hopefully the way we're going and my 6 intent is to try to get everyone who's being affected here
7 enough information to put a value on what it's going to take to 8 confirm this plan. So --

9 MR. REISMAN: I just don't know what, I don't know
10 what Mr. Mannal said by quote, "the disinterested directors
11 neglected to identify". He said that in his hearing.

12 MR. MANNAL: Your Honor, I'm happy to respond if it's 13 appropriate.

14 MR. REISMAN: Please. Thanks, Doug.

15 THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Mannal, go ahead.

16 MR. MANNAL: If Mr. Reisman would like me to clarify
17 my comment, we don't know what the disinterested directors are 18 going to find or not find. We haven't seen a report. They've 19 asked for an additional 10 days to share their conclusions with 20 us and we look forward to what the conclusions are. We're 21 happy to sit with Mr. Reisman well in advance of him filing his 22 report and after he files his report.

23 But again we don't know. We do know and we are 24 continuing to do our investigation that there are likely 25 significant claims here. Let me just also clarify the record.

Colloquy

30

1 Mr. Reisman said that he sat down with our team and shared both
2 the questions they asked as well as the answers they received
3 from those that they interviewed. That's not accurate. We did
4 sit down with his team and we asked what they asked and who 5 they asked it to and they refused to tell us the questions that
6 they asked. So we did get their perception of what was said
7 but they were very clear that they would not tell us what
8 questions they asked, and I think that's important to clarify
9 the record.

10 And also the last time we sat down and had a 11 substantive conversation with Mr. Reisman regarding the 12 specific claims was several weeks ago and I take Mr. Reisman's
13 invitation to have a further meeting in the near term and I'm 14 happy to do so day or night, weekend, holiday it doesn't 15 matter. Thank you.

16 MR. REISMAN: My only comment and I'm not going to 17 argue with anything, I want to be productive and constructive.
18 I don't think it's right to argue over words and stuff like
19 that. The bottom line of it is, Mr. Mannal is willing to meet
20 with us and sit down and talk with us about and share with us.
21 We accept that. We will set that up. We think it's probably 22 best to do it, probably with the debtors or maybe one off with 23 them and then bring in Mr. Zujkowski on behalf of the ad hoc 24 group. This is about getting to a resolution before we get to 25 D Day. D Day is confirmation and fighting and there may well

Colloquy

31

1 be a fight at confirmation. But I've got to tell you in my
2 experiences, and I want to take every possible effort there is 3 to try to get to a resolution so we don't have to have that 4 fight and we don't have to incur those fees and we can get done
5 with this case and move on and let this company emerge from 6 bankruptcy, a constructive and productive company. Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Great. It sounds like you're inviting
8 everybody to a Memorial Day cookout at your house, Mr. Reisman.

9 MR. REISMAN: That's fine.

10 THE COURT: That might be the day.

11 MR. REISMAN: I'm a good barbequer. I can assure you
12 that, just based upon myself, my self being.

13 THE COURT: All right. And then please include Mr.
14 Till in all this. He's invited to the barbecue as well. And 15 I'm sure Mr. Sponder or Ms. Bielskie might be around but 16 anyway. All right. So is there anything else I can do here
17 for this case?

18 MR. FAGEN: Not from us, Your Honor.

19 MR. SPONDER: Your Honor, this is Jeff Sponder from 20 the US Trustee's office again. We appreciate the June 3rd date
21 for the voting deadline and then I heard from Mr. Reisman that 22 you know everyone in this profession works on weekends and the 23 like and I understand that's Memorial Day weekend. Just want 24 to make sure that these, the plan supplement and the 25 investigation results are going to go out either the Friday,

Colloquy

32

1 the 24th or over that holiday weekend because once we get
2 passed that to the 28th, if they go out, I mean people aren't 3 going to have much time to vote on this plan just because of 4 that weekend.

5 I do understand that the Kirtzman (phonetic) the 6 noticing agent probably will work over the weekend, I just want
7 to make sure that, or find out when this is going to go out.
8 Thank you.

9 MR. FAGEN: That's right, Your Honor, the plan
10 supplement and the investigation results report are going to be 11 filed on May 23rd, so well in advance of that date. The report
12 itself was required to be separately distributed, it will be 13 served in accordance with a filed document and the plan
14 supplement will be served in accordance with the disclosure
15 statement so that's exactly right.

16 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Sponder, does that answer
17 your question?

18 MR. SPONDER: I wasn't on the last, I think status
19 conference but I was under the impression that these were being 20 sent out to people for purposes of voting, which is why the 21 vote deadline was pushed back. If they're not going to get it
22 or if it's going to go in the normal course, they're not going
23 to get it before it's time to vote. My thought was that this 24 was, that the plan supplement and the independent investigation
25 results were going to go out to creditors so that they had it

Colloquy

33

1 so that they could vote. I thought that was the whole point.

2 THE COURT: Well, I'm assuming the committee is 3 taking care of some of this, committee counsel I would assume 4 would make recommendations with regard to the vote. I know
5 they did in the disclosure statement.

6 UNIDENTIFIED: They do.

7 THE COURT: And Mr. Fagen, is there a way, I mean I
8 assumed the same thing that creditors who are expected to vote
9 would at least have notice that the disinterested directors are 10 issuing an investigative report and that they can read that 11 before they vote.

12 MR. FAGEN: Right, Your Honor, my understanding, I'm 13 looking at my team here but my understanding how this works is,
14 the documents are filed publicly, both the plan supplement and 15 the independent results. They are emailed served on everyone
16 at that time as, that night that they're filed. Everyone gets 17 that in an email and then they're also, they're mailed as well
18 promptly, I believe overnight mail, going out by overnight
19 mail. So I don't know how it could be more prompt than that,
20 Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: No, that's good. And it seems to me if 22 you are a creditor who's going to be affected by this plan,
23 you're going to be on top of this case yourselves to be paying 24 attention and you're going to be required if I'm remembering 25 the terms of the plan correctly, you're going to be required to

Colloquy

34

1 opt out and make an affirmative, take affirmative action if you
2 don't want to be included in releases, et cetera in a confirmed
3 plan.

4 All right, so that sounds good. Thank you, Mr.
5 Fagen.

6 MR. MANNAL: Your Honor, Doug Mannal --

7 THE COURT: Mr. Mannal?

8 MR. MANNAL: -- on behalf of the committee. Just 9 confirming that every creditor is going to receive a copy on 10 the overnight of the investigation report. Is that what I'm 11 hearing?

12 MR. FAGEN: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Can't ask more than that.

14 MR. FAGEN: Every voting creditor will receive that 15 which I think is every creditor.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Anything, oh, the motion to seal.
17 That was, we did schedule, I'm sorry, are we done with the 18 status conference and deadlines, anybody have anything else to 19 add to that? The motion to seal I know was, this is the 20 committee's motion to seal the letter that they put on, that 21 the committee put on the docket with regard to the request for 22 an extension of time and we didn't, I didn't discuss at the 23 time, we discussed the extension of time, the last time, but I
24 didn't discuss the motion to seal. The document is sealed now.

25 The way that this should work if anyone has an

Colloquy

35

1 objection to sealing that document, please make your objection
2 now and if the Court decides that the document should not be
3 sealed, then I will give the committee time to withdraw that 4 document from the docket before we unseal it, so that's how it
5 works here, all right. Mr. Sponder, do you have any objection?

6 MR. SPONDER: Yes, Your Honor. We object as we 7 always do to sealing of the documents. With respect to this
8 one, we don't agree that the confidentiality agreement trumps
9 107. If Your Honor is going to make a finding under 107, that 10 it is commercial information so be it but we don't think that 11 the confidentiality agreement is what should do it. That's one
12 point.

13 If Your Honor is going to go forward with 107 and 14 allow it, I think within that motion the committee sets forth
15 that they would file a redacted version which only redacts what 16 they believe the commercial information is and we just ask that 17 if that's the way this goes, that that be filed as soon as 18 possible. Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Sponder. Mr. Mannal, do
20 you want to respond to any of that?

21 MR. MANNAL: Your Honor, I'm going to have to defer
22 to one of my colleagues on that or the folks in Kelley Drye &
23 Warren who are helping us with the sealing motion.

24 THE COURT: Right. All right, well, the way I look 25 at this too is that the letter, that letter that's sealed on

Colloquy

36

1 the docket was essentially a letter to help prepare me, the 2 Judge for the hearing and it doesn't even really need to be on 3 the docket. So I would say let's just take it off the docket.
4 If you would prefer to leave it on the docket as a sealed
5 document then I will make the 107 finding that it contains 6 confidential information and should be sealed.

7 MS. McLOUGHLIN: Your Honor, Maeghan J. McLoughlin,
8 Kelley Drye & Warren, co-counsel to the committee, can you hear
9 me?

10 THE COURT: Yes, Ms. McLoughlin, thank you.

11 MS. McLOUGHLIN: I would just like to clarify and 12 respond to Mr. Sponder. We did file a redacted document at 13 docket number 720 which redacts only what the committee views
14 as confidential information.

15 THE COURT: All right. So then which document, Ms.
16 McLoughlin, is the unredacted, do you know which number?

17 MS. McLOUGHLIN: Unredacted was filed completely
18 under seal and you have a copy. Mr. Sponder has a copy and the 19 Kirkland team has a copy.

20 THE COURT: All right. So, wait a minute, hold on.
21 So that document that was filed under seal can remain under 22 seal. The motion to seal is granted since the unredacted copy
23 is still on the record and the unredacted copy contains 24 confidential business information, okay? Anything else with 25 that?

Colloquy

37

1 MR. FAGEN: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right. I think and then we do, just 3 for scheduling purposes, we still have the debtor's first 4 omnibus motion for entry of the orders authorizing rejection of 5 certain contracts. I don't know where you stand with that, Mr.
6 Fagen.

7 MR. FAGEN: One moment to confer with my colleagues,
8 Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: And it includes abandonment of certain 10 personal property.

11 UNIDENTIFIED: I think that's just as to Bristol 6 --

12 THE COURT: Just to Bristol 6.

13 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, we don't need to have a 14 hearing on that in advance of confirmation. We can move that 15 to confirmation.

16 THE COURT: All right, perfect. So we'll adjourn
17 that to June 6th. I mean, sorry, June 10th.

18 MR. FAGEN: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Okay. I think that's it, unless anyone
20 else has an issue.

21 MR. FAGEN: Thank you for your time, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right, thank you all. Good luck.

23 ATTORNEYS: Thank you, Your Honor.

***Transcriber note: Due to poor phone connection some indiscernibles in transcript.

1 THE COURT: This is Judge Gravelle, we're on the 2 record, Rachel right? Mr. Fagen, I actually heard you from 3 chambers. So my court recorder had come out to set up the 4 Court Solutions for us, we were just waiting for everybody to 5 appear, and then I heard you talking to me. So I came on out.

6 MR. FAGEN: I didn't mean to call you, Your Honor, we 7 will proceed whenever you want us to, and thank you for having 8 us on short notice.

9 THE COURT: Oh of course, I need a little break from 10 what I'm working in there anyway. So this is perfect. Why
11 don't you start with appearances, Mr. Fagen, and include anyone
12 else who's appearing with you, please.

13 MR. FAGEN: Okay, great, yes. Matt Fagen, Kirkland
14 and Ellis, counsel for the Debtors, co-counsel for the Debtors.
15 I'm here with my partner Francis Petrie, colleague Evan Swager, 16 and my partner, Casey McGushin and Ben Woodring are also on the 17 line, I believe, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right, great, thank you. Mr.
19 Reisman.

20 MR. REISMAN: Thank you, Your Honor. Steven Reisman
21 on behalf of the disinterested directors, Stefan Selig and Tony 22 Horton. I'm not sure who from my firm is on. I believe Marc 23 Roitman and Cindy Giglio. I also believe that Mr. Selig and 24 Horton are also on, though they may be on listen only lines.
25 But that's it for the Katten side.

1 THE COURT: All right, thank you. Ms. Parisi, for 2 Royal Bank of Canada, do you want to tell me who is on, if 3 you're aware?

4 MS. PARISI: Yes, thank you, Your Honor, I should be
5 joined by lead counsel from Simpson Thacher and Bartlett,
6 although I don't know that I see them on yet. But it's 7 possible we might have one of three, Your Honor, so I
8 apologize. But it could be Philip DiDonato or Amy Zhou. And 9 again I don't see them. But likely going to be joining
10 momentarily by them or Nicholas Baker from Simpson Thacher.

11 THE COURT: All right. So do we want to wait?
12 Anybody else on the phone for Royal Bank of Canada?

13 MS. PARISI: I'm sorry, Your Honor, I will ping them
14 and let them know that I am on. But certainly don't hold it up
15 on our account.

16 THE COURT: All right, thank you. Then let's go to 17 the Ad Hoc Group of first lien creditors. Maybe --

18 MR. FAGEN: You guys go, I got some email from Joe
19 Zujkowski, counsel of Gibson Dunn, who is having difficulty
20 dialing in. Should be on in a minute, an didn't mean to stop
21 anyone who was about to speak.

22 MR. KOPACZ: No problem, thank you.

23 THE COURT: So -- Okay. Who was that that just 24 spoke?

25 MR. KOPACZ: Gregory Kopacz, from Sills Cummis, I --

1 oh Mr. Zujkowski just joined, fantastic, I'll cede the podium
2 to him, so to speak.

3 THE COURT: Okay, great.

4 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: I'm so sorry, Your Honor, I just had 5 dial in issues with my login information, apologies for being 6 late.

7 THE COURT: No problem. All right, we've got the Ad
8 Hoc. Who else do we have here? We have, Mr. Sponder, do you
9 want to enter your appearance, please.

10 MR. SPONDER: Good afternoon, Your Honor, Jeff
11 Sponder and Lauren Bielskie for the Office of the United States
12 Trustee.

13 THE COURT: All right. Ms. McLoughlin?

14 MS. McLOUGHLIN: Yes, Your Honor, Maeghan McLoughlin,
15 Kelley Drye and Warren, appearing for the Committee.

16 THE COURT: Okay, and --

17 MR. MARINUZZI: Good afternoon, also appearing for 18 the Committee, Lorenzo Marinuzzi and Doug Mannal from Morrison
19 and Foerster.

20 THE COURT: All right, thank you. And how about Ms.
21 Parlin.

22 MR. FAGEN: I think Ms. Parlin is listen only.

23 THE COURT: You're right, I have that on the list.
24 Who am I missing? Bristol 6, Mr. Till?

25 MR. SCHAFER: Good morning, Your Honor, John Schafer,

1 Till Law Firm. Mr. Till is having issues getting in, but I'll 2 be presenting today.

3 THE COURT: We can proceed?

4 MR. SCHAFER: Yes, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. How about -- oh that's a
6 listen only, listen only. Upper 90 is listen only. Anybody
7 I'm missing here? I know we have local counsel, Ms. Yudkin, I
8 believe is on the telephone, and Mr. Frumpkin. Anyone else want 9 to enter their appearance? I have the list, so it's just 10 whether you want it on the record here or not.

11 All right, let's proceed then. Mr. Fagen.

12 MR. FAGEN: Thank you, Your Honor, absolutely. It's 13 Matt Fagen of Kirkland and Ellis, again for the Debtors, for 14 the record. Called this status conference. We have really 15 fantastic news to share globally for the case. The Debtors,
16 the Ad Hoc Group of first lien creditors, and the Creditors
17 Committee have reached a global compromise of the plan issues
18 and of the case. That, I'm going to give some of the terms and 19 they'll be reflected in an amended plan. But with these 20 changes, we have a full consensual agreement between those 21 three parties, the Debtors, the Ad Hoc Group and the Creditors
22 Committee, will all be supportive of the same plan. I
23 anticipate that could be filed very shortly. A settlement term
24 sheet that we've agreed to could be filed even before that.

25 And I will read into the record some of the key terms

1 of this agreement and settlement. I am sure that Mr. Zujkowski
2 on behalf of the Ad Hoc Group, and Mr. Marinuzzi or Mr. Mannal
3 on behalf of the Creditors Committee will express the agreement
4 and their agreement as well. Maybe make a few comments.

5 But the Debtors, Your Honor, our Board approved the 6 global settlement a couple of hours ago. We are thrilled to 7 put Thrasio in a position to have a consensual confirmation
8 with respect to those parties on June 10th.

9 The main terms that I will kind of read into the 10 record here, is that there's going to be a creation of a new 11 entity as part of the effective date. Will be an entity that 12 retains certain claims and causes of action against certain 13 individuals who are not receiving a release. Your Honor likely 14 saw the independent investigation report that came out this 15 past Thursday, and recommended that certain parties not receive 16 a release. These will be reflected in the term sheet and the 17 plan itself who those parties are, but it's a limited universe
18 of, primarily of former officers of the company and one current 19 director, and certain transaction counter parties as well. It
20 will all be reflected in the plan and the term sheet.

21 That entity that will retain the right to pursue
22 those causes -- any causes of action that are not released will 23 also be funded with $5 million from the Debtors on the 24 effective date, to have the wherewithal to pursue any 25 litigation. And also to reconcile claims in Class 4, it's the

1 Unsecured Creditor claim class. And administer those claims
2 using its budget.

3 And so that will dispense with the Committee's
4 objection. There is a split of any proceeds that are shared
5 from that entity with different levels of recovery having 6 different splits. But for an initial investment, initial 7 distribution, it's the first six and a quarter million dollars
8 that are distributable. It will be 80 percent to reorganized
9 Thrasio and 20 percent to the Unsecured Creditor Class, the 10 trade Unsecured Creditor Class.

11 Of the next three and a half million after that, 70
12 percent will go to reorganized Thrasio and 30 percent will go
13 to the trade unsecured deficiency class. And after that, after 14 that $9.75 million, there will be a pro rata split between the 15 Ad Hoc Group of lenders and the trade Unsecured Creditors.

16 And so that's a full compromise. Certain individuals
17 will also cooperate with the litigation of this new FPD
18 (phonetic) that will be formed. And it will have a new Board
19 as well of two people selected by the Ad Hoc Group, two people
20 selected by the Creditors Committee, and an administrator
21 selected by the Creditors Committee, and acceptable to the Ad
22 Hoc Group.

23 And with that, Your Honor, the plan will be amended
24 consistent with the term sheet. Those re some of the material
25 terms. There were some other terms I'm not going to get into on

1 the record here. But there's again an agreed term sheet.

2 That will suspend all the active litigation with the 3 Creditors Committee. There were depositions scheduled for 4 today and the remainder of the week. The objection drama, the 5 lien challenge, and Committee standing threatened motion, that 6 will all be tolled. In the event that for some reason there's,
7 the amended plan is not confirmed as is, you know, those rights
8 to be back on the table. But I don't think that's going to 9 happen, Your Honor. I think that we have a real path forward 10 here.

11 We do still have the objection from Bristol 6,
12 clearly an unsecured creditor in this Class. You know, same
13 similarly situated from our vantage point to all the other
14 unsecured creditors. I think Bristol 6 asserts that the entity
15 that is the obligor to them is actually a valuable entity.
16 From our point of view, we think that that is actually wrong.
17 And we also think that Bristol 6 is not giving effect to the 18 $750 million plus term loan and revolving loan claims that 19 apply at that entity. But that's an issue that we're going to 20 have to contend with at confirmation if Bristol 6 objects and 21 doesn't withdraw their objection. But we think we have a -- 22 and again there may be some issues from the US Trustee that we 23 will of course work to resolve in advance. But hopefully it's 24 a discrete set of objections, if any, that we're dealing with 25 at the confirmation hearing on June 10th.

1           And again we're just thrilled on behalf of the 2 Debtors and their go forward team, their current team, to be 3 able to announce what we believe is a real tried and true and 4 solid path to emergence shortly after a June 10th confirmation
5 hearing, pending Your Honor's approval.

6           THE COURT: All right.

7           MR. FAGEN: I do also -- I do want to recognize that 8 it was a, one this was months of effort with everything that 9 was going on with the disinterested directors, led by the 10 Katten team, doing an investigation and report. And also on 11 behalf of the Creditors Committee and Mr. Mannal and Mr.
12 Marinuzzi, who did a lot of diligence in a short period of 13 time. And ultimately came to the table with their Committee 14 willing to deal. And also Mr. Zujkowski and Mr. Greenberg at 15 Gibson Dunn, whose lenders, having a substantial stake in the 16 funding of the cost of the bankruptcy, and wanting to see 17 Thrasio be successful upon exit. We all got together over the 18 last ten days, I believe four times in person and many times
19 over the phone and on Zoom, and we made a lot of progress in 20 those sessions. And just want to commend the efforts of 21 everyone to reach this global compromise.

22           THE COURT: Yes, absolutely. This is great news, Mr.
23 Fagen. Thank you very much. And I know just based on a few 24 status conferences that we've had here on the record, how much
25 time and effort people have been putting into this case. So

1 congratulations to the folks that are satisfied, or let's say
2 relatively satisfied with the settlement that you've reached so
3 far.

4 And let me ask though if there's anyone who has 5 anything to add to the terms that Mr. Fagen just put on the 6 record. And then we'll get to questions.

7 MR. MARINUZZI: Your Honor, Lorenzo Marinuzzi from 8 Morrison and Foerster. I don't know that I have anything to 9 add. I think the term sheet is going to turn into a plan, an 10 amended plan and some additional supporting documents like
11 trust agreements. And we think the term sheet, which Your Honor
12 hasn't seen, outlines the deal in broad strokes.

13 We're optimistic, we share Mr. Fagen's optimism that 14 we're going to get from here to definitive documents and 15 everything gets done. And we also share Mr. Fagen's view of the 16 professionals on all sides, as well as the principals, that 17 took the time to get this cut. It was not easy to cut. The 18 claims fortunately are valuable, we're excited about them. And 19 I think having kicked the depositions, and there was one
20 scheduled for today, I believe it was Mr. Horton, we're going 21 to work as hard as we can to get the documents done.

22 If things go sideways, and sometimes they do, and 23 maybe there's a hiccup and we have to get back into a room to 24 really crystalize a point that we all thought an agreement on,
25 but we don't. I'm not saying that's going to happen. Then we

1 would ask for an accommodation obviously to the extent we have
2 to go back and take these depositions and prepare an objection
3 and the standing motion, et cetera. We may have to come to 4 court, ask for a different hearing date. But hopefully that 5 never comes to fruition.

6 But again, thank you to the Court, thank you all the 7 parties. A lot of hard work went into this to get to this 8 point.

9 THE COURT: All right, understood, thank you. Let me
10 see, does anyone else -- comments on Mr. Fagen or, what Mr.
11 Fagen or Mr. Marinuzzi just shared? Okay, how about any 12 questions or further comments? From the US Trustee's Office
13 perhaps? Go ahead, Mr. Sponder.

14 MR. SPONDER: Thank you, Judge. This is Jeff Sponder, 15 from the Office of United States Trustee. Just with the 16 confirmation hearing scheduled for June 10th, and if that date
17 is still on, which I've heard, just that I think we need a date
18 when this amended plan will be filed so that there is enough
19 time for further objections if any. As well as if there's 20 going to be a change in voting for the unsecured class or -- I
21 don't know any of the -- just what I hear today. So just some 22 more clarification on that. Thank you, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Does that make sense Mr. Fagen?

24 MR. FAGEN: Yeah, yeah, that's fine, Your Honor. I am
25 looking at the calendar, just to go back to, you know, we have

1 this June 10th confirmation hearing. It's a June 5th I believe
2 objection deadline right now. And a June 3rd voting deadline.
3 I mean, Your Honor, what I propose, two things. I don't think
4 there's any reason why we can't file the settlement term sheet
5 this evening, this afternoon even, so that everyone has access
6 to the key terms.

7 The changes to the amended plan are really just going 8 to be incorporating the settlement terms into the plan that's 9 on file. I don't think it's going to take us long to get a --
10 it's always a draft until it's confirmed, to get a draft
11 amended plan on file. It does require definitive documentation
12 that (indiscernible-audio skip) speaks about.

13 And I'm just thinking out loud here. But I mean, 14 with those, with the term sheet on, with all the key terms, and 15 the plan already on file, you know, is there an issue from your 16 perspective? I mean are we okay to file that as soon as 17 possible? I will try to do it by the 4th, I think would be a 18 good deadline, to file the amended plan. Which again will just 19 be incorporating these settlement terms in the plan that's on 20 file.

21 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Marinuzzi, what do you think 22 about that?

23 MR. MARINUZZI: Sorry, Your Honor, struggled to get 24 the phone off mute. I think I want to think about it a little 25 bit. The 4th is -- and remind me, the objection deadline is

1 the 3rd?

2 MR. FAGEN: It's the 5th.

3 MR. MARINUZZI: It's the 5th, so it gives people one
4 day. Quite honestly the term sheet I think says enough about 5 the specific mechanics that people should be looking at the 6 term sheet and understanding what the final documents are going
7 to look like. So I think they will have adequate notice if it
8 gets filed on the 4th. I'm sorry, the plan supplement gets 9 filed on the 4th, but the term sheet gets filed today.

10 It's not very long, the term sheet. I think it's 11 something like seven pages. And it's easily digestible.

12 THE COURT: All right, and then the term sheet --

13 MR. FAGEN: It's actually three and a quarter, it's 14 very short.

15 ATTORNEY: -- so I can read it better.

16 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Just to level expectations, Your 17 Honor, I do need to give our group some time to review the 18 final draft before it gets finalized. So I do think tonight
19 and tomorrow morning is realistic --

20 THE COURT: And that was, that's Mr. Zujkowski --

21 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: -- it would give me --

22 THE COURT: That's Mr. Zujkowski.

23 MR. ZUJKOWSKI: Yes, Your Honor, thank you.

24 THE COURT: All right. I guess, yes, all right,
25 good. Thank you. What about notice to everyone? I know you

1 sent out the notice of the disinterested directors' report. And 2 I had approved the process there. I don't want to run up costs
3 unnecessarily, but what do you think about getting notice to 4 everybody affected here? I mean it's a --

5 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, I believe everyone --

6 THE COURT: -- I mean it's pretty dramatic change
7 from the plan that's been out there.

8 MR. FAGEN: There are material changes, but they are 9 also materially positive changes for unsecured creditors. So
10 it's actually, it's additive to what's out there. We want them
11 to get -- we want everyone to see this. Because I think it's 12 going to make them more likely to vote in favor of the plan.

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 MR. FAGEN: So we absolutely want them to see it. The 15 one issue that we encountered on the service of the plan
16 supplement documents and the report last week, is that it is 17 extremely costly to do personal overnight service, I think to 18 the tune of (indiscernible-audio skip), nearly a million
19 dollars, I think. I don't think this would be as much. But 20 we're talking real money.

21 Everyone gets the email service immediately, of all
22 of these, everyone on that service list. I do think it would 23 save the Estate resources not to have to do the hard copy by 24 overnight for an additive. I think (indiscernible-audio skip)
25 is going to get through the email anyway. And that the public

1 (indiscernible-audio skip) and on the KCC website.

2 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Sponder.

3 MR. SPONDER: Thank you, Your Honor, Jeff Sponder
4 from the Office of the United States Trustee. So what we're 5 contemplating here is a voting deadline of June 3rd, with an
6 amended plan being filed June 4th, that people are voting on a
7 day before the amended plan is actually filed. I know that 8 there's a term sheet, but the term sheet is not the amended
9 plan. I don't think it should work that way. I also don't 10 think one day for an objection deadline works.

11 I also have an issue with email versus overnight.
12 You know, for those that don't have an email, they should be 13 sent overnight just because of how condensed this time schedule
14 is. If we move out confirmation then I think it works to just 15 then email and then regular mail to those that don't have 16 email.

17 But this is a condensed schedule. They're trying to 18 get it done. You know, I understand the cost to the Estate.
19 But if that's what -- that's how they want to do it, you know,
20 still notice needs to go out to everyone, you know, the amended
21 plan needs to be filed before the voting deadline. And an 22 objection deadline shouldn't just be one day from when the 23 amended plan is filed. Thank you, Your Honor.

24 MR. FAGEN: And Your Honor, I have a response and I
25 have a, hopefully a compromise as well with this deal. Two

1 things. It's absolutely pivotal that we maintain the June 10th
2 confirmation. I mean that for Mr. Zujkowski's creditors,
3 lenders, I don't think there is a deal for them if we don't 4 move forward on June 10th.

5 June 5th is the current plan objection deadline.
6 June 3rd the voting deadline. With this there's no reason that
7 we can't move the voting deadline to June 5th as well. And so
8 we would absolutely be willing to move that deadline to June
9 5th. We would like to maintain the service that we discussed.
10 We think it's reasonable, we think everyone is going to get it
11 by email and on the website the KCC website in advance of that 12 deadline. And so we would be happy moving that voting deadline
13 from June 3rd to June 5th.

14 And again I will just stress that everyone received
15 service of the original plan. Yes, we are talking about 16 modifications, but again, these are additive only modifications
17 in the settlement.

18 THE COURT: Right, understood. I am, I'm trying to 19 think if they can -- because you need time to count the votes
20 and submit -- I mean is there a reason why you can't even move
21 it further in the week? Objections -- how about objections and 22 votes due on the 6th of June.

23 MR. FAGEN: Hold on, Your Honor, I'm just conferring
24 with my team very quickly.

25 THE COURT: Yes.

1 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, I've been informed that it
2 takes three business days to fully count votes and get a voting
3 declaration. And so that's -- we can't move further than the 4 5th for voting.

5 THE COURT: All right. All right, let's go with that 6 then, let's go with the 5th. We'll leave confirmation on the 7 10th. Email is fine -- I think I mean people who interested in 8 this case are interested in appearing and speaking in this case
9 have been here, and watched this as we go along. We'll see if 10 there's, perhaps there's something that we can do in, with 11 confirmation, to allow some kind of a rights or a chance to 12 speak to people who didn't receive notice. But it would be 13 hard to see how people wouldn't have received notice of this 14 case by now, that's for sure.

15 But let me hear from Mr. Schafer, Bristol 6, do you
16 have your hand raised.

17 MR. SCHAFFER: Good morning, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Schafer.

19 MR. SCHAFFER: Good morning, Your Honor, can you hear
20 me okay?

21 THE COURT: I can, yes.

22 MR. SCHAFFER: Thank you, Your Honor. First off, it's 23 always great news and I've done a lot of Debtor practice over 24 20 years, great news to have a global proposal between these 25 parties. Now that being said, you know, it doesn't change the

1 fact that, one, we (indiscernible-audio skip) in fact we
2 believe that we are essentially the voice for the Autumn Ideas
3 Debtor entity. Two, we think there's unique operational facts
4 that leave us to say we don't believe that we're being treated
5 as we should be treated appropriately. And in fact the Debtors
6 are electing to keep our treatment as is, that's their 7 decision. We plan to pursue our confirmation objection
8 wholeheartedly. And between now and then we'll continue to 9 have conversations.

10 I do want to give credit to Debtors' counsel, they've 11 been very -- we've had a lot of good communication going back
12 and forth. They've gotten us some information. It's not 13 complete. And we'd say it's inadequate for us to prepare our 14 confirmation objection. But those discussions are ongoing,
15 even emails during the last hour. We do plan to take a
16 30(b)(6) deposition that needs to be scheduled. We thought we'd 17 be able to get it in the end of this week. But we do need to 18 have that happen before our confirmation is due.

19 So Your Honor, that's just a quick update. And if 20 you have any questions I'd be happy to answer them, but I think 21 that summarizes where things are at in our eyes.

22 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

23 MR. FAGEN: And Your Honor, just in response to -- if 24 you wanted to hear from me, otherwise I'll pause, I was just 25 going to quickly respond.

1 THE COURT: No, why don't you make sure that you were 2 set, the Debtor was set with agreeing with the depositions and 3 getting them done before confirmation.

4 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, I don't think we got the 5 30(b)(6) yet. I'm looking at my team. Mr. McGushin, my 6 partner, is in conversation with Bristol 6's counsel. And 7 could also speak. But we are going to cooperate, you know, to a
8 reasonable extent. And if there's issues we're going to come to 9 Your Honor. So I'm not disagreeing with doing a deposition. We 10 are not -- we're going to evaluate their notice and if there's 11 an issue we'll come to Your Honor. But we are going to 12 cooperate.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

14 MR. SCHAFER: Your Honor, that's a fair
15 characterization, we gave them, I'll call an informal 30(b)(6), 16 we've been discussing about -- there were some issues raised
17 about the scope of it. So I think it's a fair discussion. And 18 so we haven't set it because, one it (indiscernible) sitting
19 back and allowing -- we knew that they were very, very busy. I
20 have to imagine they've spent a lot of time in the last couple 21 of days getting this done. So we want to recognize that.

22 We also, they had a deposition scheduled, was moving,
23 so we haven't set ours because we were waiting to see what 24 happens. I think we now know that this is the deck, I
25 understand has been cleared. So we will make sure that we

1 communicate with Debtors' on this.

2 THE COURT: Okay. You'll let me know --

3 MR. SCHAFFER: Appreciate that, and Your Honor --

4 THE COURT: Let me know as soon as possible if 5 something comes up, obviously if there's a problem. Mr.
6 Sponder?

7 MR. SPONDER: Thank you, Your Honor, Jeff Sponder
8 again from the Office of United States Trustee. Your Honor,
9 I'm not sure why three business days is necessary to count
10 votes. You know, I don't -- we want to do this quickly, I
11 think the entity that's doing that, the claims administrator,
12 or the like, can do that sooner.

13 With that said, if we can't move it forward, the 14 thought is that the amended plan get filed on the 3rd instead
15 of the 4th, which gives us the extra day. So a large two days
16 to file an objection to the plan. That would be my only 17 suggestion and request. Thank you, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Fagen.

19 MR. FAGEN: Your Honor, I think it's likely that we 20 will be able to file the amended plan on the 3rd if necessary.
21 But my only concern is, you know, in the event that we don't,
22 I just think it would be really rough to have to come back, you
23 know, for another status conference and figure out the voting.
24 And I mean the confirmation time line is, just the June 10th
25 can't -- and we need a little bit of time to respond to

1 objections as well because we just heard Bristol 6 say, you
2 know, that they intend to vigorously object.

3 So I just think that the fact that the plan is 4 becoming more favorable to the unsecured creditors, to me -- it
5 matters what you believe, Your Honor, but to me it's very, very 6 telling, I think it largely resolves the types of issues that 7 you deal with when you're talking about a material negative
8 amendment and modification. And so I think that our schedule
9 is reasonable based on the -- the value under the plan from 10 what we solicited.

11 THE COURT: I do agree with that, Mr. Fagen, that it
12 seems to me it's for, more for the benefit of the Debtor to get 13 this new plan out to everyone who is, who will potentially vote
14 on the plan, because it's more likely that they'll vote on this 15 than they certainly would have of the original one that went 16 out. So I do agree with that.

17 I think I'm looking more to any -- giving people a 18 chance to file objections, but I also am very aware that the 19 people who will be filing objections have been involved in this 20 process since the beginning.

21 So I am allowing the time line that we've set forth.
22 I will encourage, request, strongly encourage that the amended
23 plan get filed by the 3rd, which will give a week before
24 confirmation for things to sort out. But other than that we'll 25 proceed with the schedule that we're got set. All right?

1 MR. FAGEN: Appreciate that, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Anything, anyone else want to 3 offer anything? Okay. Thank you very much. Congratulations
4 again.

5 MR. FAGEN: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: And don't forget about Bristol 6.

7 MR. SCHAFER: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

9 ATTORNEY: Thank you, Your Honor

10 THE COURT: All right, good bye everybody

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Article VIII.F of the Plan contains the following Third-Party Release:

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors' in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors' in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party

From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Article VIII.F of the Plan contains the following Third-Party Release:

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors' in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300 El Segundo, CA 90245; or (d) e-mailing thrasioinfo@kccllc.com and referencing “Thrasio” in the subject line.

This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the Voting Record Date, the undersigned was the Holder of Class 4 General Unsecured Claim(s) in the following aggregate principal amount (please fill in the amount if not otherwise completed):

Amount of Claim(s):

$2,500.00

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a General Unsecured Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed General Unsecured Claim, each Holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim shall receive its pro rata share of the GUC Recovery Pool.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300 El Segundo, CA 90245; or (d) e-mailing thrasioinfo@kccllc.com and referencing “Thrasio” in the subject line.

This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the Voting Record Date, the undersigned was the Holder of Class 4 General Unsecured Claim(s) in the following aggregate principal amount (please fill in the amount if not otherwise completed):

Amount of Claim(s):

$2,655,626.26

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a General Unsecured Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed General Unsecured Claim, each Holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim shall receive its pro rata share of the GUC Recovery Pool.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

OPT OUT of the Third-Party Releases

Article VIII.F of the Plan contains the following Third-Party Release:

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors' in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party

releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Article VIII.F of the Plan contains the following Third-Party Release:

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors' in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party

releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

OPT OUT of the Third-Party Releases

Article VIII.F of the Plan contains the following Third-Party Release:

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors' in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party

releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

OPT OUT of the Third-Party Releases

Article VIII.F of the Plan contains the following Third-Party Release:

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors' in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party

releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 3 First Lien Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 3 First Lien Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300 El Segundo, CA 90245; or (d) e-mailing thrasioinfo@kccllc.com and referencing “Thrasio” in the subject line.

This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the Voting Record Date, the undersigned was the Holder of Class 4 General Unsecured Claim(s) in the following aggregate principal amount (please fill in the amount if not otherwise completed):

Amount of Claim(s):

$2,655,626.25

Item 2.Recovery.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 3 First Lien Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 3 First Lien Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. Amount of Claim(s):
$5,021,555.85

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a First Lien Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed First Lien Claim, each Holder of an Allowed First Lien Claim shall receive its pro rata share of 100% of the New Common Stock, subject to dilution by the (i) DIP Exit Fee, (ii) Backstop Payment, and (iii) Management Incentive Plan.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 3 First Lien Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 3 First Lien Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. Amount of Claim(s):

$2,118,548.61

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a First Lien Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed First Lien Claim, each Holder of an Allowed First Lien Claim shall receive its pro rata share of 100% of the New Common Stock, subject to dilution by the (i) DIP Exit Fee, (ii) Backstop Payment, and (iii) Management Incentive Plan.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 3 First Lien Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 3 First Lien Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 3 First Lien Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 3 First Lien Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. ## INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300 El Segundo, CA 90245; or (d) e-mailing thrasioinfo@kccllc.com and referencing “Thrasio” in the subject line.

This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the Voting Record Date, the undersigned was the Holder of Class 4 General Unsecured Claim(s) in the following aggregate principal amount (please fill in the amount if not otherwise completed):

Amount of Claim(s):

$2,054,481.04

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a General Unsecured Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed General Unsecured Claim, each Holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim shall receive its pro rata share of the GUC Recovery Pool.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Definitions Related to the Third-Party Release under the Plan:

The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300 El Segundo, CA 90245; or (d) e-mailing thrasioinfo@kccllc.com and referencing “Thrasio” in the subject line.

This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the Voting Record Date, the undersigned was the Holder of Class 4 General Unsecured Claim(s) in the following aggregate principal amount (please fill in the amount if not otherwise completed):

Amount of Claim(s):

$866,766.81

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a General Unsecured Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed General Unsecured Claim, each Holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim shall receive its pro rata share of the GUC Recovery Pool.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300 El Segundo, CA 90245; or (d) e-mailing thrasioinfo@kccllc.com and referencing “Thrasio” in the subject line.

This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the Voting Record Date, the undersigned was the Holder of Class 4 General Unsecured Claim(s) in the following aggregate principal amount (please fill in the amount if not otherwise completed):

Amount of Claim(s):

$1,964,975.00

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a General Unsecured Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed General Unsecured Claim, each Holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim shall receive its pro rata share of the GUC Recovery Pool.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 3 First Lien Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 3 First Lien Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. Amount of Claim(s):
$15,920,449.59

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a First Lien Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed First Lien Claim, each Holder of an Allowed First Lien Claim shall receive its pro rata share of 100% of the New Common Stock, subject to dilution by the (i) DIP Exit Fee, (ii) Backstop Payment, and (iii) Management Incentive Plan.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Definitions Related to the Third-Party Release under the Plan:

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 3 First Lien Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 3 First Lien Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. Amount of Claim(s):

$2,450,277.86

Item 2.Recovery.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Definitions Related to the Third-Party Release under the Plan:

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 3 First Lien Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 3 First Lien Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Amount of Claim(s):

Except to the extent that a Holder of a First Lien Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed First Lien Claim, each Holder of an Allowed First Lien Claim shall receive its pro rata share of 100% of the New Common Stock, subject to dilution by the (i) DIP Exit Fee, (ii) Backstop Payment, and (iii) Management Incentive Plan.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300 El Segundo, CA 90245; or (d) e-mailing thrasioinfo@kccllc.com and referencing “Thrasio” in the subject line.

This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the Voting Record Date, the undersigned was the Holder of Class 4 General Unsecured Claim(s) in the following aggregate principal amount (please fill in the amount if not otherwise completed):

Amount of Claim(s):

$6,513,571.26

Item 2.Recovery.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300 El Segundo, CA 90245; or (d) e-mailing thrasioinfo@kccllc.com and referencing “Thrasio” in the subject line.

This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the Voting Record Date, the undersigned was the Holder of Class 4 General Unsecured Claim(s) in the following aggregate principal amount (please fill in the amount if not otherwise completed):

Amount of Claim(s):

$695,959.80

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a General Unsecured Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed General Unsecured Claim, each Holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim shall receive its pro rata share of the GUC Recovery Pool.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. ## INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300 El Segundo, CA 90245; or (d) e-mailing thrasioinfo@kccllc.com and referencing “Thrasio” in the subject line.

This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the Voting Record Date, the undersigned was the Holder of Class 4 General Unsecured Claim(s) in the following aggregate principal amount (please fill in the amount if not otherwise completed):

Amount of Claim(s):

$3,769,594.21

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a General Unsecured Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed General Unsecured Claim, each Holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim shall receive its pro rata share of the GUC Recovery Pool.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Definitions Related to the Third-Party Release under the Plan:

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300 El Segundo, CA 90245; or (d) e-mailing thrasioinfo@kccllc.com and referencing “Thrasio” in the subject line.

This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the Voting Record Date, the undersigned was the Holder of Class 4 General Unsecured Claim(s) in the following aggregate principal amount (please fill in the amount if not otherwise completed):

Amount of Claim(s):

$1,002,487.99

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a General Unsecured Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed General Unsecured Claim, each Holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim shall receive its pro rata share of the GUC Recovery Pool.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300 El Segundo, CA 90245; or (d) e-mailing thrasioinfo@kccllc.com and referencing “Thrasio” in the subject line.

This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the Voting Record Date, the undersigned was the Holder of Class 4 General Unsecured Claim(s) in the following aggregate principal amount (please fill in the amount if not otherwise completed):

Amount of Claim(s):

$148,874.03

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a General Unsecured Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed General Unsecured Claim, each Holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim shall receive its pro rata share of the GUC Recovery Pool.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. Amount of Claim(s):

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Definitions Related to the Third-Party Release under the Plan:

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300 El Segundo, CA 90245; or (d) e-mailing thrasioinfo@kccllc.com and referencing “Thrasio” in the subject line.

This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the Voting Record Date, the undersigned was the Holder of Class 4 General Unsecured Claim(s) in the following aggregate principal amount (please fill in the amount if not otherwise completed):

Amount of Claim(s):

$1,948,308.05

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a General Unsecured Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed General Unsecured Claim, each Holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim shall receive its pro rata share of the GUC Recovery Pool.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

OPT OUT of the Third-Party Releases

Article VIII.F of the Plan contains the following Third-Party Release:

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors' in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party

releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

OPT OUT of the Third-Party Releases

Article VIII.F of the Plan contains the following Third-Party Release:

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors' in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party

releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Article VIII.F of the Plan contains the following Third-Party Release:

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors' in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party

From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 3 First Lien Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 3 First Lien Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Definitions Related to the Third-Party Release under the Plan:

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. ## INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 3 First Lien Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 3 First Lien Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. ## INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. ## INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 3 First Lien Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 3 First Lien Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300 El Segundo, CA 90245; or (d) e-mailing thrasioinfo@kccllc.com and referencing “Thrasio” in the subject line.

This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the Voting Record Date, the undersigned was the Holder of Class 4 General Unsecured Claim(s) in the following aggregate principal amount (please fill in the amount if not otherwise completed):

Amount of Claim(s):

$167,578.00

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a General Unsecured Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed General Unsecured Claim, each Holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim shall receive its pro rata share of the GUC Recovery Pool.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. ## INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300 El Segundo, CA 90245; or (d) e-mailing thrasioinfo@kccllc.com and referencing “Thrasio” in the subject line.

This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the Voting Record Date, the undersigned was the Holder of Class 4 General Unsecured Claim(s) in the following aggregate principal amount (please fill in the amount if not otherwise completed):

Amount of Claim(s):

$388,367.06

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a General Unsecured Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed General Unsecured Claim, each Holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim shall receive its pro rata share of the GUC Recovery Pool.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300 El Segundo, CA 90245; or (d) e-mailing thrasioinfo@kccllc.com and referencing “Thrasio” in the subject line.

This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the Voting Record Date, the undersigned was the Holder of Class 4 General Unsecured Claim(s) in the following aggregate principal amount (please fill in the amount if not otherwise completed):

Amount of Claim(s):

$330,112.00

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a General Unsecured Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed General Unsecured Claim, each Holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim shall receive its pro rata share of the GUC Recovery Pool.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300 El Segundo, CA 90245; or (d) e-mailing thrasioinfo@kccllc.com and referencing “Thrasio” in the subject line.

This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the Voting Record Date, the undersigned was the Holder of Class 4 General Unsecured Claim(s) in the following aggregate principal amount (please fill in the amount if not otherwise completed):

Amount of Claim(s):

$608,441.72

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a General Unsecured Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed General Unsecured Claim, each Holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim shall receive its pro rata share of the GUC Recovery Pool.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300 El Segundo, CA 90245; or (d) e-mailing thrasioinfo@kccllc.com and referencing “Thrasio” in the subject line.

This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the Voting Record Date, the undersigned was the Holder of Class 4 General Unsecured Claim(s) in the following aggregate principal amount (please fill in the amount if not otherwise completed):

Amount of Claim(s):

$243,152.34

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a General Unsecured Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed General Unsecured Claim, each Holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim shall receive its pro rata share of the GUC Recovery Pool.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.

Definitions Related to the Third-Party Release under the Plan:

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. ## INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS BALLOT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), are soliciting votes in accordance with title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), to accept or reject the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Plan”), attached as Exhibit A to the Second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Joint Plan of Reorganization of Thrasio Holdings, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time and including all exhibits or supplements thereto, the “Disclosure Statement”) from Holders of Claims in Class 3 and Class 4 (each, a “Voting Class” and collectively, the “Voting Classes”).

Once completed and returned in accordance with the attached instructions, your vote on the Plan will be counted as set forth herein. A Voting Class will accept the Plan if Holders of at least two thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims in that Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan, which contemplates effectuating the Restructuring Transactions, if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Plan then would be binding on all Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes, among others. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

You are receiving this ballot (the “Ballot”) because you are the Holder (as defined below) of a Class 4 General Unsecured Claim as of April 1, 2024 (the “Voting Record Date”). For additional discussion of the treatment of your Claims under the Plan and the rights of Holders of Class 4 General Unsecured Claims under the Plan, please read the Disclosure Statement.

The rights and treatment for each Class are described in the Disclosure Statement, which is included in the package (the “Solicitation Package”) you are receiving with this Ballot. If you have any questions regarding this Ballot or the voting procedures, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-0496 (domestic) or +1(310) 751-2696 (international) and asking for a member of the Solicitation Team; (b) submitting an inquiry to <http://www.kccllc.net/thrasio/inquiry>; (c) writing to Thrasio Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300 El Segundo, CA 90245; or (d) e-mailing thrasioinfo@kccllc.com and referencing “Thrasio” in the subject line.

This Ballot may not be used for any purpose other than for casting votes to accept or reject the Plan and making certain certifications with respect to the Plan. If you believe you have received this Ballot in error, please contact the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent immediately at the email address set forth above.

The Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan and thereby bind all Holders of Claims and Interests. To have your vote count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Ballot so that the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

THE VOTING DEADLINE IS ON MAY 20, 2024 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

Item 1.Amount of General Unsecured Claim.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the Voting Record Date, the undersigned was the Holder of Class 4 General Unsecured Claim(s) in the following aggregate principal amount (please fill in the amount if not otherwise completed):

Amount of Claim(s):

$462,156.80

Item 2.Recovery.

Except to the extent that a Holder of a General Unsecured Claim agrees to a less favorable treatment, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for each Allowed General Unsecured Claim, each Holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim shall receive its pro rata share of the GUC Recovery Pool.

Item 3.Vote on Plan.

Your vote on the Plan will be applied to each applicable Debtor in the same manner and in the same amount as indicated in Item 1 and Item 3 above.

Item 4. Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for a third-party release (the “Third-Party Release”). Important information regarding the Third-Party Release.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, as of the Effective Date, each Releasing Party is deemed to have released and discharged each Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, and Released Party from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors’ in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among the Debtors or between the Debtors and their non-Debtor Affiliates, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Preferred Equity Documents, the Exit Facilities, the Exit Facilities Documents, the DIP Facility, the DIP Orders, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the DIP Facility, the Exit Facilities, or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance or distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan, the Plan Supplement, any Definitive Document, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date; except for claims related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release (i) any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan or (ii) any Causes of Action specifically retained by the Debtors pursuant to a schedule of retained Causes of Action to be attached as an exhibit to the Plan Supplement.

Without limiting the foregoing, from and after the Effective Date, any Entity that is given the opportunity to opt out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and does not exercise such opt out may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, any Entity (i) that opted out of the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan or (ii) was deemed to reject the Plan may not assert any claim or other Cause of Action against any Released Party for which it is asserted or implied that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan without first obtaining a Final Order from the Bankruptcy Court (a) determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or Cause of Action is not subject to the releases contained in Article VIII.F of the Plan and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such claim or Cause of Action against any such Released Party. The Bankruptcy Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a claim or Cause of Action constitutes a direct or derivative claim, is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying claim or Cause of Action.
