⁵ See Memorandum Opinion [Docket No. 1027].

IT IS HEREBY FOUND AND DETERMINED THAT:⁶

A. Jurisdiction and Venue. This Court has jurisdiction to consider the Bid Procedures and Sale Motion and the relief requested therein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated as of February 29, 2012. This matter is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

B. Final Order. This order (this “Order”) constitutes a final order within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 158(a).

C. Statutory Predicates. The statutory and other legal predicates for the relief sought in the Bid Procedures and Sale Motion and granted herein are sections 105, 363 and 365 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 4001, 6004, 6006, 9007 and 9014, and Rules 2002-1, 6004-1 and 9006-1 of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Local Rules”).

D. Notice and Opportunity to Be Heard. The Debtors have provided proper, timely, adequate and sufficient notice of, and a fair and reasonable opportunity to object and be heard with respect to, the Bid Procedures and Sale Motion, the Stalking Horse Supplement, the Bid Procedures, the Bid Procedures Order, the Auction, the Sale Hearing, and the sale of the ⁶ The findings and conclusions of law set forth herein constitute the Court’s findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 7052 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”) made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014. To the extent any of the following findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such.

Derivative Rights pursuant to the APA (the “Transaction”) free and clear of any Interests (as defined below) (other than any Assumed Liabilities expressly assumed under, or expressly permitted by the APA or this Order) within the meaning of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Notice of (I) Successful Bidder for Derivative Rights and Studio Business and (II) Back-up Bidder for Derivative Rights [Docket No. 446], and the assumption and assignment of the executory contracts and unexpired leases to be assumed and assigned to the Buyer at Closing pursuant to this Order and the terms of the APA (collectively, the “Assumed Contracts”), in accordance with sections 102(1), 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 4001, 6004, 6006, 9007 and 9014, Local Rules 2002-1, 6004-1 and 9006-1 and the Bid Procedures Order, to all persons and entities entitled to such notice, including the Notice Parties and all other persons and entities as directed by the Court. Such notice was good, sufficient and appropriate under the circumstances, including but not limited to providing each counterparty a full and fair opportunity to object to the assumption and assignment of its Assumed Contract and its proposed Cure Amounts; and no other or further notice of any of the foregoing is required. The Debtors published the Bid Procedures and Sale Motion, the Stalking Horse Supplement, the Bid Procedures Order, the Bid Procedures, the APA (and all exhibits and schedules thereto), the Sale Notice, the Assumption and Assignment Notice, and certain other documents relevant to the Sale on the case website.

E. Sound Business Purpose. The Debtors have demonstrated good, sufficient and sound business purposes and justifications for approval of the Bid Procedures and Sale Motion. The approval of and entry into the APA and any ancillary agreements thereto (i) are a result of due deliberation by the Debtors and constitute a sound and reasonable exercise of the Debtors’ business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties; (ii) provide value and are beneficial to the Debtors' estates, and are in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and their stakeholders; and (iii) are reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances. Business justifications for entry into the Transaction and the APA include, without limitation, the following: (i) the APA constitutes the highest or best offer received for the Derivative Rights; (ii) the APA presents the best opportunity to maximize the value of the Derivative Rights; (iii) failure to consummate the Transaction expeditiously could materially diminish creditor recoveries; and (iv) the immediate consummation of the Transaction is necessary to maximize the value of the Debtors' estates.

F. Marketing Process. As demonstrated by the Sale Declaration, the Bid Procedures Hearing, and testimony adduced at the Sale Hearing, the Debtors and their advisors thoroughly marketed the Derivative Rights and conducted the marketing and sale process as set forth in and in accordance with the Bid Procedures and Sale Motion, the Stalking Horse Supplement, and the Bid Procedures Order. Based upon the record of these proceedings all prospective purchasers have been afforded a reasonable and fair opportunity to bid for the Derivative Rights.

G. Compliance with Bid Procedures. The Debtors conducted an open and fair sale process. The sale process was non-collusive in all respects, and the Debtors (a) afforded all interested parties a full, fair, and reasonable opportunity to qualify as a Qualified Bidder and make an offer to purchase the Derivative Rights, (b) provided Potential Bidders, upon request, sufficient information to enable them to make an informed judgment on whether to bid on the Derivative Rights, and (c) appropriately considered all Bids that were duly submitted in accordance with the Bid Procedures. The Debtors, the Buyer, and their respective counsel and other advisors have complied with the Bid Procedures and the Bid Procedures Order. The Buyer is the designated Successful Bidder, and the APA is designated the Successful Bid for the Purchased Assets enumerated therein, in each case, in accordance with the Bid Procedures Order. The Buyer and its professionals have complied in all material respects with the Bid Procedures Order, the Bid Procedures, the Assumption and Assignment Procedures, the Warner Bros. Assumption and Assignment Procedures, and all other applicable orders of this Court in negotiating and entering into the APA, and the Transaction and the APA likewise comply with the Bid Procedures Order and all other applicable orders of this Court.

H. Highest or Best Value. Consistent with their fiduciary duties, and in consultation with the Consultation Parties, the Debtors have demonstrated good, sufficient and sound business reasons and justifications for entering into the Transaction and the performance of their obligations under the APA, including, but not limited to, the fact that (a) the total consideration provided by the Buyer for the Derivative Rights as reflected in the APA is the highest or otherwise best offer for the Derivative Rights; (b) the consideration provided by the Buyer under the APA will provide a greater recovery for the Debtors' estates than would be provided by any other available alternative, including a separate liquidation of the Derivative Rights; (c) the Transaction contemplated by the APA presents the best opportunity to maximize the value of the Derivative Rights; and (d) unless the Transaction is concluded expeditiously as provided for in the Bid Procedures and Sale Motion and pursuant to the APA, creditor recoveries will be diminished.

I. Fair Consideration. The consideration the Buyer will pay under the APA constitutes (i) fair and reasonable consideration for the Derivative Rights; and (ii) reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration under the Bankruptcy Code, the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, the Uniform Voidable Transactions Act and other laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession thereof or the District of Columbia, or any other applicable jurisdiction with laws substantially similar to the foregoing.

J. Free and Clear Sale. The Debtors may sell the Derivative Rights free and clear of all Interests (other than any Assumed Liabilities expressly assumed under the APA or this Order, as applicable), and no such Interests may be asserted against the Buyer or any Buyer Related Person (as defined below) after the Closing Effective Date, because, in each case, one or more of the standards set forth in section 363(f)(1)-(5) of the Bankruptcy Code has been satisfied. Any holder of Interests that objected to the Transaction or the Bid Procedures and Sale Motion as it relates to the Derivative Rights and that has an Interest in the Derivative Rights could be compelled in a legal or equitable proceeding to accept money in satisfaction of such Interest pursuant to section 363(f)(5) or fall within one or more of the other subsections of section 363(f) and, therefore, are adequately protected by having their Interests in the Derivative Rights attach solely to the proceeds of the Transaction ultimately attributable to the sale of the property on which such holders have an Interest, in the same order of priority, and with the same validity, force and effect that such Interests had prior to the consummation of the Transaction, subject to any rights, claims or defenses of the Debtors and their estates. Any Interest holders that did not object, or that withdrew their objections, to the Bid Procedures and Sale Motion or the Transaction, are deemed to have consented to the sale of the Derivative Rights free and clear of their respective Interests in the Derivative Rights pursuant to section 363(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

K. Buyer Reliance on Free and Clear Sale. The Buyer would not have entered into the APA and would not consummate the Transaction if the sale of the Derivative Rights were not free and clear of all Interests (other than any Assumed Liabilities expressly assumed under the APA or this Order, as applicable), if the Buyer or any Buyer Related Person would, or in the future could, be liable for any such Interests, or if any such Interests would or could be asserted against the Buyer or any Buyer Related Person (as defined below) after the Closing Effective Date. A sale of the Derivative Rights other than one free and clear of all Interests (other than Assumed Liabilities expressly assumed under, or expressly permitted by, the APA or this Order, as applicable) would adversely impact the Debtors, their estates and their creditors, and would yield substantially less value for the Derivative Rights and the Debtors' estates, with less certainty than that which is provided by the Transaction. The total consideration to be provided under the APA reflects the Buyer's reliance on this Order to provide it, pursuant to sections 105(a) and 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, with title to, and possession of, the Derivative Rights free and clear of all Interests (other than any Assumed Liabilities expressly assumed under the APA or this Order, as applicable), including, without limitation, to the greatest extent permitted by applicable law, and any potential derivative, vicarious, transferee or successor liability Interests.

L. "Interests". As used in this Order, the term "Interest" includes, in each case to the extent against or with respect to any of the Debtors or in, on, or against or with respect to any of the Derivative Rights: Adverse Claims (as defined in the APA), liens (as defined in section 101(37) of the Bankruptcy Code), claims (as defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code), debts (as defined in section 101(12) of the Bankruptcy Code), encumbrances, obligations, Liabilities, any defect or imperfection in title, demands, guarantees, actions, suits, defenses, license grant by any Seller, deposits, credits, allowances, options, rights, restrictions, limitations, contractual commitments, rights, or interests of any kind or nature whatsoever, whether known or unknown, inchoate or not, filed or unfiled, scheduled or unscheduled, noticed or unnoticed, recorded or unrecorded, perfected or unperfected, allowed or disallowed, contingent or non-contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, matured or unmatured, material or non-material, disputed or undisputed, whether arising prior to or subsequent to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, and whether imposed by agreement, understanding, law, equity, or otherwise, including, but not limited to, (i) mortgages, deeds of trust, pledges, charges, security interests, hypothecations, encumbrances, easements, servitudes, leases, subleases, rights-of-way, encroachments, restrictive covenants, restrictions on transferability or other similar restrictions, rights of offset or recoupment, rights of use or possession, leases, conditional sale arrangements, or any similar rights, (ii) all claims, including, without limitation, all rights or causes of action under contract, tort, declaratory relief, intellectual property rights or otherwise (and whether in law or equity), proceedings, warranties, guarantees, indemnities, rights of recovery, setoff, recoupment, indemnity or contribution, obligations, demands, restrictions, indemnification claims, or liabilities relating to any act or omission of the Debtors or any other person, consent rights, options, contract rights, covenants, and interests of any kind or nature whatsoever (known or unknown, matured or unmatured, accrued, or contingent and regardless of whether currently exercisable), whether arising prior to or subsequent to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, and whether imposed by agreement, understanding, law, equity or otherwise; (iii) all debts, liabilities, obligations, contractual or tort rights and claims, and labor, employment, and pension claims; (iv) any rights that purport to give any party a right or option to impose any liability or effect any forfeiture, modification, right of first offer or first refusal, or consents, or termination of the Debtors', the Buyer's or any Buyer Related Person's interest in the Derivative Rights, or any similar rights; (v) any rights under labor or employment agreements; (vi) any rights under pension, multiemployer plan (as such term is defined in section 3(37) or section 4001(a)(3) of the Employment Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (as amended, "ERISA"), health or welfare, compensation or other employee benefit plans, agreements, practices, and programs, including, without limitation, any pension plans of the Debtors or any multiemployer plan to which the Debtors have at any time contributed to or had any liability or potential liability; (vii) any other employee, worker's compensation, occupation disease, or unemployment or temporary disability claims, including, without limitation, claims that might otherwise arise under or pursuant to (a) ERISA, (b) the Fair Labor Standards Act, (c) Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, (d) the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973, (e) the National Labor Relations Act, (f) the Age Discrimination and Employment Act of 1967 and Age Discrimination in Employment Act, each as amended, (g) the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, (h) the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 ("COBRA"), as amended, including, without limitation, the requirements of Part 6 of Subtitle B of Title I of ERISA and Section 4980B of the Internal Revenue Code of any similar state law, (i) state discrimination laws, (j) state unemployment compensation laws or any other similar state laws, (k) any other state or federal benefits or claims relating to any employment with the Debtors or any of their predecessors, or (l) the WARN Act (29 U.S.C. §§ 2101, et seq.) or any state or other laws of similar effect; (viii) any bulk sales or similar law; (ix) any tax statutes or ordinances, including, without limitation, the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and any taxes arising under or out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to the operation of the assets or businesses of the Debtors prior to the Closing; (x) any unexpired and executory or non-executory contract or unexpired lease to which a Debtor is a party that is not an Assumed Contract; (xi) any environmental liabilities, debts, claims, fines, penalties, or obligations arising from conditions, facts, or circumstances first existing or occurring prior to Closing (including, without limitation, the presence of or exposure to chemical, hazardous, toxic, polluting, or contaminating substances or wastes), which may be asserted on any basis and at any time, including, without limitation, any liabilities, debts, claims, fines, penalties, or obligations arising under the Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act (“CERCLA”), or any other environmental, health, and safety laws; and (xii) Interests arising under or in connection with any acts, or failures to act, of any of the Debtors or any of the Debtors’ predecessors, Affiliates, or Subsidiaries, including, but not limited to, Interests arising under any theory, law, or doctrines of successor, transferee, or vicarious liability, violation of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, or other applicable securities laws or regulations, breach of fiduciary duty, or aiding or abetting breach of fiduciary duty, or any similar theories under applicable Law or otherwise.

M. No Successor or Other Derivative Liability. By consummating the Transaction pursuant to the APA, the Buyer is not a mere continuation of any of the Debtors or any Debtor’s estate, and there is no continuity of enterprise or otherwise or common identity between the Buyer, on the one hand, and any Debtor, on the other. The Buyer is not holding itself out as a continuation of any Debtor. The Buyer is not a successor to any Debtor or any Debtor’s estate by reason of any theory of law or equity, and the Transaction does not amount to a consolidation, merger or de facto merger of the Buyer and the Debtors or any of the Debtors’ estates. Neither the Buyer, nor its Affiliates or their respective predecessors, designees, successors, assigns, members, partners, principals, officers, directors, or direct or indirect shareholders (or the equivalent thereof), in their capacities as such (collectively, the “Buyer Related Persons”) shall assume or in any way be responsible for any obligation or liability of any Debtor (or any affiliate of any Debtor) or any Debtor’s estate, except as expressly provided in the APA. The sale and transfer of the Derivative Rights to the Buyer, including the assumption by the Debtors and assignment, transfer and/or sale to the Buyer of any of the Assumed Contracts, will not subject the Buyer or any Buyer Related Persons to any Interests or any liability with respect to the operation of the Debtors’ businesses prior to the Closing or by reason of such transfer, except that, upon the Closing, the Buyer shall remain liable for the applicable Assumed Liabilities.

N. Arm’s-Length Sale. The sale process engaged in by the Debtors and the Buyer, including, without limitation, the Auction, was conducted in accordance with the Bid Procedures and the Bid Procedures Order. The APA was negotiated, proposed, and entered into by the Sellers and the Buyer in good faith, without collusion of any kind, and from arm’s-length bargaining positions, and is substantively and procedurally fair to all parties in interest. The Debtors and the Buyer and their respective advisors have complied, in good faith, in all material respects with the Bid Procedures Order and the Bid Procedures. The Debtors and their management, board of directors, employees, agents, advisors, and representatives, and the Buyer and its employees, agents, advisors and representatives, each acted in good faith and without collusion or fraud of any kind. The Buyer subjected its bid to competitive bidding in accordance with the Bid Procedures and was designated the Successful Bidder for the Derivative Rights in accordance with the Bid Procedures and the Bid Procedures Order. All payments to be made by the Buyer and other agreements or arrangements entered into by the Buyer in connection with the Transaction have been disclosed. The form and total consideration to be realized by the Debtors under the APA constitutes fair and reasonably equivalent value, full and adequate consideration, and reasonable market value for the Derivative Rights.

O. Good Faith. The Debtors, the Buyer and their respective counsel and other advisors have negotiated and entered into the APA and each of the transactions contemplated thereby in good faith, without collusion, from arm's-length bargaining position, and substantively and procedurally fair to all entities. The Buyer is a good faith purchaser and is acting in good faith within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, and, as such, is entitled to all of the protections afforded thereby. The Debtors were free to deal with any other party interested in acquiring some or all of the Derivative Rights. Neither the Debtors nor the Buyer have engaged in any conduct that would cause or permit the Transaction, the APA, or any of the transactions contemplated thereby to be avoided or subject to monetary damages under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code, or that would prevent the application of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Buyer has not violated section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code by any action or inaction. The Buyer has not acted in a collusive manner with any person or entity. The Buyer has complied with the Bid Procedures and all provisions of the Bid Procedures Order. All payments to be made or caused to be made by the Buyer and all agreements entered into by the Buyer and the Debtors under the APA in connection with the Transaction have been disclosed and are appropriate. The APA was not entered into, and the Transaction is not being consummated, for the purpose of hindering, delaying or defrauding creditors under laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession thereof or the District of Columbia, or any other applicable law. Neither the Debtors nor the Buyer have entered into the APA or are consummating the Transaction with any fraudulent or otherwise improper purpose.

P. No Collusion. The APA was not controlled by an agreement between potential bidders within the meaning of section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors and the Buyer have not engaged in any conduct that would cause or permit the APA or the consummation of the Sale to be avoided, or costs or damages to be imposed, under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code. Neither the Debtors nor the Buyer has entered into the APA or is consummating the Transaction with any fraudulent or otherwise improper purpose.

Q. Assumption and Assignment of Assumed Contracts. The assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts is an integral part of the Transaction, is in the best interests of the Debtors and their estates, and represents the valid and reasonable exercise of the Debtors' sound business judgment. Specifically, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts (i) is necessary to sell the Derivative Rights to the Buyer as contemplated by the APA, (ii) limits the losses suffered by counterparties to the Assumed Contracts, and (iii) maximizes the recoveries of other creditors of the Debtors by eliminating claims against the Debtors' estates. Any counterparty to any Assumed Contract that has not actually filed with the Court and served on the Notice Parties (as defined in the Bid Procedures Order) an Assumption and Assignment Objection, as of the date specified in the Bid Procedures Order (as such date may have been modified or extended in accordance with the terms of the Bid Procedures Order) is deemed to have consented to the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contract, and to the applicable Cure Amounts. Such counterparty shall forever be barred and estopped from objecting to the assumption, assignment, and transfer of such Assumed Contract to Buyer and to the Cure

Amount as the amount to cure all defaults to satisfy section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and from asserting that any additional amounts are due or defaults exist.

R. Compliance with Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors have met all requirements of section 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the assumption and assignment of each of the Assumed Contracts. The Debtors and Buyer have provided adequate assurance of future performance (within the meaning of section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code) of cure of any default existing under any of the Assumed Contracts on or before the Closing Effective Date. The Buyer has demonstrated adequate assurance of future performance of and under the Assumed Contracts within the meaning of sections 365(b) and 365(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to section 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Assumed Contracts shall be assigned and transferred to, and remain in full force and effect for the benefit of, the Buyer, notwithstanding any provision in the Assumed Contracts or other restrictions prohibiting their assignment or transfer.

S. Property of the Estates. The Derivative Rights constitute property of the Sellers' estates within the meaning of section 541(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Sellers are the sole and lawful owners of the Sellers' right, title and interest in the Derivative Rights, and no other person has any ownership right, title, or interest therein.

T. Validity of the Transaction. The consummation of the Transaction is legal, valid and properly authorized under all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including sections 105(a), 363(b), 363(f), 363(m), 363(n), 365(b) and 365(f) and all of the applicable requirements of such sections have been complied with in all respects in connection with the Transaction. As of the Closing, the sale and assignment of the Derivative Rights, including the Assumed Contracts, to the Buyer will be a legal, valid and effective transfer of the Assumed Contracts and the other Purchased Assets, and will vest the Buyer with all right, title and interest of the Debtors in and to the Derivative Rights, including the Assumed Contracts, free and clear of all Interests (other than any Assumed Liabilities expressly assumed under, or expressly permitted by, the APA or this Order, as applicable). The Debtors have full corporate or other applicable authority to execute the APA and all other documents contemplated thereby, and the Transaction has been duly and validly authorized by all necessary corporate action of the Debtors. Upon entry of this Order, other than any consents identified in the APA, no consent or approval from any other person, entity or legal authority is required to consummate the Transaction.

No Sub Rosa Plan. Neither the Transaction nor the APA impermissibly restructures the rights of any of the Debtors' creditors or impermissibly dictates the terms of a liquidating plan of reorganization of the Debtors. Neither the Transaction nor the APA constitutes a sub rosa or de facto plan of reorganization or liquidation. NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

1. Sale Motion Granted. The Bid Procedures and Sale Motion as it relates to the Derivative Rights and the relief requested therein (to the extent not previously granted by the Court pursuant to the Bid Procedures Order or otherwise) is GRANTED and approved as set forth herein. The Buyer is hereby approved as the Successful Bidder for the Derivative Rights in accordance with the Bid Procedures Order and this Order.

2. Objections Overruled. Unless otherwise provided for herein or in the Bid Procedures Order, any Objections to or reservation of rights against the Bid Procedures and Sale Motion as it relates to the Derivative Rights or the relief requested therein that have not been withdrawn, waived, or settled are hereby OVERRULED on the merits with prejudice. All persons and entities that failed to timely object thereto and to the consummation of the Transaction are deemed to consent to the relief sought therein and to the sale of the Derivative Rights, including assumption, assignment, and transfer of the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer. All objections to the entry of this Order or to the relief granted herein that were not timely filed are hereby forever barred.

3. Transaction Approved. The APA and all transactions contemplated thereby, including the Transaction, are hereby APPROVED. The Debtors are authorized to enter into the APA (and all ancillary documents), and all of the terms and conditions thereof, and all of the Transactions contemplated therein are approved in all respects, including, without limitation, any amendment to the APA that the Debtors and the Buyer determine is necessary or desirable in connection with the Transaction. The consummation of the Transaction is hereby approved and authorized under sections 363(b) and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. Prior Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. The Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law in the Bid Procedures Order, including the record of the Bid Procedures Hearing, and the findings of fact recited above are incorporated herein by reference. In the event that the terms of this Order and the Bid Procedures Order are in conflict, this Order will control.

5. Adequate and Reasonable Notice. Notice of the Bid Procedures, the Auction, the Transaction, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts pursuant to the APA, the Cure Amounts, the Sale Hearing, and all deadlines related thereto was good, sufficient, and appropriate under the circumstances and complied in all respects with section 102(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004, and 6006.

6. Debtors' Performance Authorized. The Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to enter into and perform their obligations under the APA, and to take such other actions as may be necessary or desirable to effectuate the terms of the APA, including providing transition services, if needed, and other instruments or documents that may be reasonably necessary or desirable to implement and effectuate the terms of the APA, the Transaction, or this Order, including, without limitation, deeds, assignments, stock powers, transfers of membership interests and any other instruments of transfer, without further order of the Court. The Debtors are hereby further authorized to take all other actions as may reasonably be requested by the Buyer or otherwise for the purpose of assigning, transferring, granting, conveying and conferring to the Buyer, possession of any or all of the Assumed Contracts and the other Purchased Assets, as may be necessary or appropriate for the Debtors to perform their obligations under the APA and consummate the Transaction, including, without limitation, providing transition services, and assisting in the transfer of bank accounts and similar services without further order of the Court.

7. The Debtors are hereby authorized and empowered to cause to be executed and filed such statements, instruments, releases and other documents with respect to the Derivative Rights that are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the APA, the Transaction, or this Order, including, as applicable, directions to banks, amended and restated certificates or articles of incorporation and by-laws or certificates or articles of amendment, and all such other actions, filings or recordings as may be required under appropriate provisions of the applicable laws of all applicable governmental units or as any of the officers of the Debtors may determine are necessary or appropriate.

8. Valid Transfer and Assignment. Effective as of the Closing Effective Date, the sale and assignment of the Assumed Contracts and the other Purchased Assets by the Debtors to the Buyer shall constitute a legal, valid and effective transfer and assignment of the Assumed Contracts and the other Purchased Assets, notwithstanding any requirement for approval or consent by any person, and will vest in the Buyer with all right, title and interest of the Debtors and their respective estates in and to the Assumed Contracts and the other Purchased Assets, free and clear of all Interests (other than any Assumed Liabilities expressly assumed under, or expressly permitted by, the APA or this Order, as applicable), pursuant to section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code.

9. Free and Clear Sale. Except to the extent specifically provided in the APA, upon the Closing Effective Date, the Debtors shall be, and hereby are, authorized and empowered, pursuant to sections 105, 363(b) and 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, to sell and transfer to the Buyer the Derivative Rights. The sale and transfer of the Derivative Rights to the Buyer shall vest in the Buyer with all right, title, and interest of the Debtors in and to the Derivative Rights free and clear of any and all Interests of any person or entity to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law (other than any Assumed Liabilities expressly assumed under, or expressly permitted by, the APA or this Order, as applicable), with all such Interests to attach to the net proceeds of the Transaction ultimately attributable to the sale of the property on which such holders have an Interest, in the same order of priority, and with the same validity, force and effect that such Interests had prior to the consummation of the Transaction, subject to any rights, claims or defenses of the Debtors or their estates. Following the Closing, no holder of any Interest on any of the Derivative Rights shall interfere with the Buyer's or any Buyer Related Person's use or enjoyment of any of the Derivative Rights based on or related to such Interest or any actions that the Debtors have taken or may take in their chapter 11 cases and no interested party may take any action to prevent or interfere with consummation of the Transaction.

10. The provisions of this Order authorizing the sale and transfer of the Derivative Rights free and clear of Interests (other than Assumed Liabilities expressly assumed under, or expressly permitted by, the APA or this Order, as applicable) shall be self-executing, and neither the Debtors, on one hand, nor the Buyer, on the other, shall be required to execute or file releases, termination statements, assignments, consents or other instruments in order to effectuate, consummate, or implement the provisions of this Order. For the avoidance of doubt, on or after the Closing Effective Date, the Debtors and the Buyer shall be authorized, but not directed, to file any such releases, termination statements, assignments, consents or other instruments in any jurisdiction to record the release, discharge and termination of Interests in the Derivative Rights pursuant to the terms of this Order.

11. Direction to Creditors. This Order shall be (a) effective as a determination that, as of the Closing Effective Date, all Interests in the Derivative Rights (except as otherwise expressly assumed under, or expressly permitted by, the APA) shall be unconditionally released, discharged and terminated as to the Buyer and the Derivative Rights; and (b) binding upon all persons and entities, including all the Debtors' creditors and any holder of an Interest in any of the Derivative Rights, and all such persons and entities are hereby authorized and directed to execute such documents and take all other actions as may be reasonably necessary to release their respective Interests on the Derivative Rights, if any. If any person or entity that has filed a financing statement, mortgage, mechanics lien, lis pendens or other document, instrument, notice or agreement evidencing any Interest on the Derivative Rights has not delivered to the Debtors on or before the Closing, in proper form for filing and executed by the appropriate parties, termination statements, releases or instruments of satisfaction that the person or entity has with respect to the Derivative Rights, the Debtors and the Buyer are authorized to (x) execute and file such termination statements, releases, instruments of satisfaction or other documents with respect to the Derivative Rights on behalf of the applicable person or entity, and (y) file, register or otherwise record a certified copy of this Order which, once filed, registered or otherwise recorded, shall constitute conclusive evidence of the release of all Interests in the Derivative Rights. This Order is deemed to be in recordable form sufficient to be placed in the filing or recording system of each and every federal, state, local, tribal or foreign government agency, department or office.

12. Authorization of Recording Officers. This Order shall be binding upon all persons and entities, including filing agents or officers, title agents or companies, recorders of mortgages or deeds, registrars, administrative agencies, governmental units or departments, secretaries of state, governmental officials and all other persons or entities that may be required by operation of law, the duties of their office or contract to accept, file, register or otherwise record or release any documents or instruments regarding the Derivative Rights or who may be required to report or insure any title or state of title in or to the Derivative Rights, (collectively, the “Recording Officers”). All Recording Officers are hereby authorized to (a) accept any and all documents or instruments necessary and appropriate to consummate the Transaction or to record and reflect that the Buyer is the owner of the Derivative Rights free and clear of all Interests (other than Assumed Liabilities expressly assumed under, or expressly permitted by, the APA or this Order, as applicable) and (b) strike all recorded Interests in the Derivative Rights from their records.

13. Direction to Surrender. All persons or entities in possession or control of any of the assets that comprise the Derivative Rights, either presently or on or before the Closing Effective Date, are authorized to surrender possession or control of such assets to the Buyer on the Closing Effective Date.

14. Direction to Make Payments to Buyer. Upon occurrence of the Closing Effective Date, any Contract counterparty or other party that is required, by agreement, contract or applicable law to make royalty or similar payments to Sellers on account of the Derivative Rights shall instead make any such payments to the Buyer directly to the account or accounts designated by the Buyer.

15. No Successor Liability. The Buyer and the Buyer Related Persons are not and shall not be (a) deemed a “successor” in any respect to any of the Debtors or any of their estates as a result of the consummation of the Transaction or any other event occurring in the Debtors’ chapter 11 cases under any theory of law or equity; (b) deemed to have, de facto or otherwise, merged or consolidated with or into any of the Debtors or any of their estates; (c) deemed to be an alter ego of or have a common identity with any of the Debtors; (d) deemed to have a continuity of enterprise with any of the Debtors; (e) deemed to be a continuation or substantial continuation of any of the Debtors or any enterprise of any of the Debtors, including (with respect to clause (a) through (e) of this paragraph) within the meaning of any foreign, federal, state or local revenue, pension, ERISA, tax, labor, employment, environmental, health, products liability, safety laws, or other law, doctrine rule or regulation (including any filing requirements under any such laws, rules or regulations) with respect to the Debtors’ liability under such law, doctrine, rule or regulation including, without limitation, under COBRA, CERCLA, the Fair Labor Standard Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (as amended), the Age Discrimination and Employment Act of 1967 and Age Discrimination in Employment Act, each as amended, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (as amended), the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (as amended), and the National Labor Relations Act, 29 U.S.C. § 151, et seq.; or (f) other than any Assumed Liabilities expressly assumed under, or expressly permitted by, the APA or this Order, be liable for (i) any environmental liabilities, debts, claims, fines, penalties, or obligations arising from conditions, facts, or circumstances first existing or occurring prior to Closing (including, without limitation, the presence of or exposure to chemical, hazardous, toxic, polluting, or contaminating substances or wastes), which may be asserted on any basis and at any time, including, without limitation, any liabilities, debts, claims, fines, penalties, or obligations arising under CERCLA, or any other environmental, health, and safety laws, or (ii) any liabilities, debts, claims, fines, penalties, or obligations of or required to be paid by the Debtors (A) for any taxes of any kind for any period, (B) under any labor, employment, or other law, rule, or regulation (including, without limitation, filing requirements under any such laws, rules, or regulations), or (C) under any products liability or intellectual property law or doctrine, or any other law or doctrine, with respect to the Debtors' liability under any law, rule, regulation, or doctrine.

16. Except as expressly provided in the APA or this Order with respect to the Assumed Liabilities, as applicable, the Buyer and the Buyer Related Persons, in such capacities, shall not (a) assume, nor be deemed to have assumed or in any way be responsible for (i) any liability, Interest or obligation (of any kind, character, or description, whether known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, matured or unmatured, liquidated or unliquidated, disputed or undisputed, accrued or unaccrued, due or to become due, fixed, absolute, contingent or otherwise) of any of the Debtors or any of their estates or related to the Derivative Rights including, but not limited to, any Excluded Liabilities, any bulk sales law, successor or vicarious liability, liability or responsibility for any claim against any of the Debtors or against any related person of the Debtors, or any similar liability or obligation, (ii) any remaining claims (as defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code) or liens against the Debtors or any of their predecessors or affiliates, (iii) liabilities on account of any taxes arising, accruing, or payable under, out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to, the ownership of the Derivative Rights prior to Closing, or (b) have any liability whatsoever with respect to the Debtors' (or their predecessors' or affiliates') respective businesses or operations or product lines or any of the Debtors' (or their predecessors' or affiliates') obligations based, in whole or part, directly or indirectly, on any theory of successor or vicarious liability of any kind or character, or based upon any theory of antitrust, environmental, successor, or transferee liability, de facto merger or substantial continuity, labor and employment, infringement or products liability, whether known or unknown as of such Closing, now existing or hereafter arising, asserted or unasserted, fixed or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, including, without limitation, (i) liabilities or obligations under the CERCLA or any other environmental, health, and safety laws, (ii) liabilities or obligations under ERISA, COBRA, or other similar state or local laws with respect to any pension plan, welfare plan, or other employee benefit plan, (iii) liabilities or obligations under any collective bargaining agreement or employment agreement, or (iv) any liabilities or obligations or any foreign, federal, state, or local labor, employment, or environmental law whether of similar import or otherwise by virtue of such Buyer's purchase of any assets or assumption of the Assumed Liabilities. The Bid Procedures and Sale Motion and notices provided in accordance with the Bid Procedures contain sufficient notice of such limitation in accordance with applicable law. Except for the Buyer's assumption of the Assumed Liabilities pursuant to the APA and this Order, as applicable, and claims brought by the Debtors to enforce the express terms of the APA and this Order, the transfer of the Assumed Contracts and the other Purchased Assets to the Buyer under the APA will not result in (a) the Buyer or the Buyer Related Persons having any liability or obligation for any Interest made or asserted against any of the Debtors (or their respective affiliates, together with their respective predecessors, successors, assigns, members, partners, officers, directors, principals or direct or indirect equityholders), including without limitation in respect of the Excluded Liabilities, nor in any such liability or obligation attaching to the Derivative Rights; (b) the Buyer or any Buyer Related Person having any liability or obligation with respect to or be required to satisfy in any manner, whether at law or in equity, whether by payment, setoff, recoupment or otherwise, directly or indirectly, any Interests or Excluded Liabilities, nor in any such liability or obligation attaching to the Derivative Rights; or (c) the Buyer or any Buyer Related Person having any liability or obligation to any of the Debtors.

17. Effective upon the Closing Effective Date, all persons and entities are forever prohibited from commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding, whether in law or equity, in any judicial, administrative, arbitral or other proceeding against the Buyer, the Buyer Related Persons, or their assets (including the Derivative Rights) with respect to any (a) Interest in the Derivative Rights or (b) successor, transferee, vicarious or other similar liability or theory of liability, including (i) commencing or continuing any action or other proceeding pending or threatened with respect to the Derivative Rights, in any manner or place, that does not comply with, or is inconsistent with, the provisions of this Order or other orders of the Court or the agreements or actions contemplated or taken in respect hereof or thereof; (ii) enforcing, attaching, collecting or recovering in any manner any judgment, award, decree or order; (iii) creating, perfecting or enforcing any Interest; (iv) asserting any setoff, right of subrogation or recoupment of any kind; or (v) revoking, terminating or failing or refusing to renew any license, permit or authorization to utilize any of the Derivative Rights. Following the Closing Effective Date, no holder of any Interest shall interfere with the Buyer's title to or use and enjoyment of the Derivative Rights based on or related to any such Interest, or based on any action the Debtors may take in their chapter 11 cases.

18. Assumption and Assignment of the Assumed Contracts. Under sections 105(a), 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, and subject to and conditioned upon the closing of the Transaction, the Debtors' assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer free and clear of all Interests (other than any Assumed Liabilities expressly assumed under, or expressly permitted by, the APA or this Order, as applicable) pursuant to the terms of the APA, as modified by the terms of any amendments reached by the Buyer and the respective Contract counterparty, is hereby approved, and the Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer in accordance with the APA and this Order, and the requirements of sections 365(b) and 365(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect thereto are hereby deemed satisfied. Any counterparty to an Assumed Contract that has not filed with the Court an objection to the assumption or assignment of such Assumed Contract as of the date specified in the Bid Procedures Order is deemed to have consented to such assumption and assignment.

19. Upon the Debtors' assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer, each applicable counterparty to an Assumed Contracts shall be forever barred, estopped, and permanently enjoined from (i) raising or asserting against the Debtors, the Buyer or any Buyer Related Person, or their respective property, any assignment fee, default, breach, claim, pecuniary loss, liability or obligation (whether legal or equitable, secured or unsecured, matured or unmatured, contingent or non-contingent, known or unknown, liquidated or unliquidated senior or subordinate), counterclaim, defense, setoff or any other matter arising under or out of, in connection with or in any way related to, the Assumed Contracts existing prior to or as of the Closing Effective Date or arising by reason of the Closing, or (ii) taking any other action against the Buyer or any Buyer Related Person as a result of any Debtor's financial condition, bankruptcy, or failure to perform any of its obligations under the Assumed Contracts based on acts or occurrences existing prior to or as of the Closing Effective Date or arising by reason of the Closing. Each Contract counterparty hereby is also forever barred, estopped, and permanently enjoined from (A) asserting against the Debtors, the Buyer or any Buyer Related Person, or the property of any of them, any default or claim arising out of any indemnity or other obligation or warranties for acts or occurrences arising prior to or existing as of the Closing Effective Date and (B) imposing or charging against the Buyer or the Buyer Related Persons any assignment fees, increases, or any other fees as a result of the Debtors' assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts.

20. Upon the Debtors' assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer, the Buyer shall be fully and irrevocably vested with all right, title and interest of the Debtors in and to the Assumed Contracts and the Assumed Contracts shall be deemed to be valid and binding and in full force and effect and enforceable in accordance with their terms for the benefit of the Buyer, as applicable, notwithstanding any provision in any of the Assumed Contracts that prohibits, restricts, or conditions such assignment or transfer. The Debtors' assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer shall not constitute a default under or a termination of any Assumed Contract.

21. Cure Amounts. Any defaults or other obligations under the Assumed Contracts shall be deemed cured by the payment or other satisfaction of the Cure Amounts, if any, associated with the Assumed Contracts.

22. Assumption and Assignment Objections. Except as provided herein, all Assumption and Assignment Objections to the Debtors' calculation of Cure Amounts with respect to any of the Assumed Contracts have been overruled, withdrawn, waived, settled or otherwise resolved. Any Assumption and Assignment Objections as to applicable Cure Amounts that have not been resolved by the parties may be heard at a later date as set by the Court. The pendency of a dispute relating to a particular Assumed Contract shall not prevent or delay the assumption or assignment of any other Assumed Contract or the closing of the Transaction. To the extent a counterparty to any of the Assumed Contracts fails to timely object to the Cure Amounts for any Assumed Contract in accordance with the Bid Procedures Order, such Cure Amounts shall be deemed to be finally determined and any such counterparty shall be prohibited from challenging, objecting to, or denying the validity and finality of the Cure Amounts at any time.

23. Adequate Assurance. The Buyer has provided adequate assurance of future performance under the Assumed Contracts within the meaning of sections 365(b) and 365(f)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any Assumption and Assignment Objections related to the adequate assurance of future performance by the Buyer that have not been withdrawn, waived or settled and all reservations of rights included in such objections are hereby overruled on the merits with prejudice. All other requirements and conditions under sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code for the Debtors' assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer have been satisfied.

24. Anti-Assignment Provisions Unenforceable. No section or provision of any Assumed Contract that purports to (a) prohibit, restrict or condition the assignment of an Assumed Contract, including, but not limited to, the conditioning of such assignment on the consent of any counterparty to such Contract; (b) authorize the termination, cancellation or modification of an Assumed Contract based on the filing of a bankruptcy case, the financial condition of the Debtors or similar circumstances; (c) declare a breach or default as a result of a change in control in respect of the Debtors; or (d) provide for additional payments, profit sharing, penalties, conditions, renewals, extensions, charges or other financial accommodations in favor of the counterparty to an Assumed Contract, or modification of any term or condition upon the assignment of a contract or the occurrence of the conditions set forth in subsection (b) above, shall have any force or effect, and any such section or provision constitutes an unenforceable anti-assignment provision under section 365(f) or 363(l), as applicable, of the Bankruptcy Code or is otherwise unenforceable under section 365(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

25. Direction to Assumed Contract Counterparties. All counterparties to Assumed Contracts assigned or otherwise transferred to the Buyer in accordance with the terms of this Order and the APA shall cooperate with, and expeditiously execute and deliver upon, any reasonable request of the Buyer, and shall not charge the Buyer for any instruments, applications, consents or other documents that may be required or requested by any governmental unit or other public or quasi-public authority or other party to effectuate the applicable transfers in connection with the Debtors' assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer.

26. Licenses and Permits. To the extent provided in the APA and available under applicable law, the Buyer shall be authorized, as of the Closing Effective Date, to operate under any license, permit, registration and any other governmental authorization or approval of the Debtors with respect to the Assumed Contracts and the other Purchased Assets, and all such licenses, permits, registrations and governmental authorizations and approvals are deemed to have been, and hereby are, directed to be transferred to the Buyer as of the Closing Effective Date. To the extent any license or permit necessary for the utilization of the Derivative Rights is determined not to be an executory contract that may be assumed and assigned under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Buyer shall apply for and obtain any necessary license or permit promptly after the Closing Effective Date, and such license or permit of the Debtors shall remain in place for the Buyer's benefit until a new license or permit is obtained (or, in the case of licenses or permits of Debtors of which the assignment to Buyer is pending as of the Closing Effective Date (whether pursuant to a notice period that has not expired as of the Closing Effective Date or a required consent from an applicable governmental authority that has not been received as of the Closing Effective Date), shall transfer to Buyer upon the expiration of such notice period or the receipt of such consent).

27. To the extent provided by section 525 of the Bankruptcy Code, no governmental unit may revoke or suspend any permit or license relating to the utilization of the Derivative Rights that are sold, transferred or conveyed to the Buyer on account of the filing or pendency of these chapter 11 cases or the consummation of the Transaction.

28. Fair Consideration. The consideration provided by the Buyer for the Derivative Rights under the APA constitutes reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration under the Bankruptcy Code, the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, the Uniform Voidable Transactions Act, and any other applicable laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia. The APA was not entered into, and the Transaction is not being consummated, for the purpose of hindering, delaying, or defrauding creditors of the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession thereof, or the District of Columbia, or any other applicable law. Neither the Sellers nor the Buyer have entered into the APA, any Transaction Document, or any agreement contemplated thereby or are consummating the Transaction with any fraudulent or otherwise improper purpose. No other person or entity or group of persons or entities has offered to purchase the Derivative Rights for an amount that would provide greater value to the Debtors and their estates than the value provided by the Buyer. This Court's approval of the Bid Procedures and Sale Motion and the APA are in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and all other parties in interest.

29. Good-Faith Buyer. The Buyer is a good-faith purchaser within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code and is entitled to all of the protections afforded thereby. The Transaction and the APA are undertaken and entered into by the Debtors and the Buyer without collusion and in good faith, as that term is defined in section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code. As such, the reversal or modification on appeal of this Order shall not affect the validity of the Transaction or any term of the APA, and shall not permit the unwinding of the Transaction, whether or not the Buyer knew of the pendency of the appeal, unless this Order and the Transaction were duly and properly stayed pending appeal.

30. Section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Transaction approved by this Order is not subject to avoidance and no party is entitled to any recovery of damages pursuant to section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise.

31. Bulk Sales. No bulk sales law, bulk transfer law or similar law of any state or other jurisdiction shall apply in any way to the Transaction.

32. Amendments. (f) To the extent required to comply with any applicable Law relating to Tax, Buyer and the Sellers shall consult with each other to reasonably determine that portion of the Purchase Price that is properly attributable to any Purchased Assets sold by VRF to Buyer hereunder; provided, that the Parties agree that not more than one percent (1%) of the Purchase Price shall be considered as so attributable to any such Purchased Assets.

Section 6.06 Further Assurances. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, from and after the date hereof, each Party hereto agrees to, and to cause their Affiliates to, as applicable, to use commercially reasonable efforts to (a) furnish upon request to each other Party such further information in connection with the Transaction, (b) execute and deliver to each other Party such other documents consistent herewith (after a reasonable period to review and discuss such documents) and (c) do such other acts and things consistent herewith, in each case as another Party may reasonably request for the purpose of carrying out the intent of this Agreement, the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party and the Transactions. To the extent any Purchased Assets are in the name of an Affiliate of a Seller, the Sellers shall cause such Affiliate to sell, assign, transfer, convey and deliver to Buyer the applicable Purchased Assets and further cause their respective Affiliates to comply with the terms of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to the extent such terms purport to bind such Affiliate. Following the Closing, each Seller shall take any actions and execute any documents as reasonably requested by Buyer in furtherance of this Section 6.06 relating to the Purchased Assets. In the event that such Seller does not take such actions or deliver such executed documents to Buyer within five (5) business days following Buyer's request therefor, Buyer shall have the authority as such Seller's true and lawful attorney-in-fact to take any such actions and execute any such documents on behalf of such Seller relating to the Purchased Assets. In such event, Buyer shall provide such Seller with a copy of any document so executed; provided, that the inadvertent failure to do so shall not be deemed a breach hereof.

Section 6.07 Books and Records. Promptly following the Closing Effective Date, and in no event later than ten (10) business days thereafter (with respect to any Books and Records provided to Buyer in the Dataroom as of the Closing Effective Date) or sixty (60) days thereafter (with respect to all other Books and Records), Sellers shall use commercially reasonable efforts to deliver to Buyer, via a cloud-based server or another electronic format reasonably acceptable to Buyer, copies of all Books and Records, in the Sellers' possession in an electronic format. No later than sixty (60) days following the Closing Effective Date, Sellers shall use commercially reasonable efforts to deliver to Buyer, or otherwise make accessible to Buyer via a cloud-based server or another electronic format reasonably acceptable to Buyer, copies of all Books and Records, in the Sellers' possession in a physical format. Section 6.08 Wonka Dispute and PM2 Dispute. From and after the Closing Effective Date, the Sellers shall, in coordination with Buyer, use commercially reasonable efforts to (a) facilitate the substitution of Buyer (or its designated Affiliate) in place of VRF, VRFNA and VRPNA (as respondents and counter-claimants), as the real party in interest in connection with the Wonka Dispute and the PM2 Dispute, including without limitation, taking all actions and executing all documents necessary to remove all bars, restrictions, or impediments that may prevent Buyer from viewing or obtaining any pleadings, filings, served documents, correspondence with third parties and/or opposing counsel, research memos or other summaries, deposition transcripts, deposition summaries or witness interview notes/summaries, expert reports or summaries, discovery requests, discovery responses, orders, or any other documents produced or provided in the Wonka Dispute or the PM2 Dispute (this includes assisting in making Buyer or its designated Affiliate a party to any protective order), (b) facilitate the substitution of Buyer's designated counsel in place of VRF, VRFNA and VRPNA's current counsel of record in the Wonka Dispute and the PM2 Dispute, (c) provide introductions to relevant third parties (such as experts, witnesses, consultants, or external counsel previously engaged by Sellers), (d) provide to Buyer any documents, information and/or other materials in Seller's possession or control reasonably necessary to support such substitutions or otherwise facilitate Buyer's assumption and continued defense, prosecution and/or resolution of the Wonka Dispute and the PM2 Dispute, which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall be at Buyer's cost and expense, (e) facilitate the transfer, to the extent necessary and permissible, of access credentials, login information, or any other tools required for Buyer to fully participate in the Wonka Dispute and the PM2 Dispute, (f) upon the substitution of Buyer (or its designated Affiliate) in place of VRF, VRFNA and VRPNA as the real party in interest in connection with the Wonka Dispute and the PM2 Dispute, and subject to Buyer or its designated Affiliate becoming a party to any protective order, facilitate the transfer to Buyer of Seller's entire client litigation file in customary form, including without limitation, unredacted documents produced or provided by any party in the Wonka Dispute or the PM2 Dispute, unredacted copies of pleadings, filings, served documents, discovery requests, discovery responses, orders, correspondence with third parties and/or opposing counsel, research memos or other summaries, deposition transcripts, deposition summaries or witness interview notes/summaries, expert reports or summaries, or any other document produced or provided to Seller in the Wonka Dispute or the PM2 Dispute, (g) make reasonably available to Buyer, during normal business hours, any employees or personnel of VRF, VRFNA, and VRPNA for purposes of information interviews and testimony (including preparation for the same), and for signing declarations, affirmations, affidavits, or similar statements as Buyer may reasonably request from time to time or provide Buyer with such employee's or personnel's last known contact information; (h) make prior counsel for Sellers reasonably available to assist with the transition to Buyer's counsel and cooperate with any requests from Buyer or its counsel, which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall be subject to counsel's availability and at Buyer's cost and expense; and (i) for any insurance policies that may provide coverage for any claims made against Sellers, provide such policies to Buyer along with all communications with any such insurance companies and take all necessary steps to ensure continuity of coverage. For the avoidance of doubt, from and after the Closing Effective Date, Buyer shall have sole and exclusive control over, and shall be entitled to assert or waive, any and all client privileges or legal doctrines that permit the withholding of documents or information in connection with the Wonka Dispute or the PM2 Dispute, including, without limitation, the attorney-client privilege. Sellers shall preserve and not destroy, delete, or alter any documents, files, or evidence related to the Wonka Dispute or the PM2 Dispute until Buyer confirms in writing that such materials may be released or destroyed. Sellers confirm that all appropriate "litigation hold" notices have been circulated and implemented.

ARTICLE VII BANKRUPTCY COURT MATTERS

Section 7.01 Sale Motion, Bankruptcy Procedures Hearing, Bid Procedures and Sale Order.

The Sellers shall use their reasonable best efforts to seek entry of the Sale Order, and appropriate supporting declarations, in form and substance acceptable to the Sellers and Buyer, on or prior to December 15, 2025. The Sellers shall affix a true and complete copy of this Agreement to the Sale Motion filed with the Bankruptcy Court. The Sellers shall comply with all notice requirements (a) of the Bankruptcy Code and the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedures and/or (b) imposed by the Sale Order, in each case, in connection with any pleading, notice or motion to be filed in connection herewith. In the event the entry of the Sale Order is appealed, the Sellers shall use commercially reasonable efforts to defend such appeal. Sellers shall have timely served a cure notice (the "Cure Notice") by first class mail on all non-debtor counterparties to Contracts. The Cure Notice shall inform each recipient that its respective Contract may be designated as either assumed or rejected, and the timing and procedures relating to such designations, and, to the extent applicable (i) the title of the Contract, (ii) the name of the counterparty to the Contract, (iii) the Sellers' good faith estimates of the cure amounts required in connection with such Contract, (iv) the identity of Buyer, (v) the deadline by which any such Contract counterparty may file an objection to the proposed assumption and assignment and/or cure, and the procedures relating thereto, and (vi) that such Contract counterparty's failure to object timely to the proposed assumption or cure amount will be deemed to be consent to such assumption to cure amount.

Section 7.02 Auction. The Parties acknowledge and agree that (a) the Auction for the Purchased Assets was conducted on May 28, 2025 in accordance with the Bidding Procedures Order, and (b) at such Auction, the Debtors selected (i) Buyer as the Successful Bidder with respect to the Purchased Assets and (ii)

WBEI as the Backup Bidder with respect to the Purchased Assets, in each case, in accordance with the Bidding Procedures Order.

Section 7.03 Bankruptcy Filings. From and after the Effective Date and until the Closing Effective Date, to the extent reasonably practicable, the Sellers shall deliver to Buyer drafts of any material pleadings, motions, notices, statements, schedules, applications, reports and other papers to be filed or submitted in connection with this Agreement and the operation of the Sellers for Buyer's prior review and comment at least two (2) business days prior to the filing or submission thereof, and such filings shall be acceptable to Buyer to the extent they relate to the Purchased Assets, the Assumed Liabilities, or any of Buyer's obligations hereunder. Each of the Sellers and Buyer shall appear formally or informally in the Bankruptcy Court if reasonably requested by the other Party or required by the Bankruptcy Court in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and keep the other Party reasonably apprised of the status of material matters related to this Agreement, including, upon reasonable request promptly furnishing the other Party with copies of notices or other communications received by such Party from the Bankruptcy Court or any third party or any Governmental Authority with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Buyer agrees that it will use its commercially reasonable efforts to assist the Sellers in obtaining Bankruptcy Court approval of the Sale Order, including furnishing affidavits or other documents or information for filing with the Bankruptcy Court for purposes, among others, of (x) demonstrating that Buyer is a "good faith" purchaser under section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, and (y) establishing adequate assurance of future performance within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

Section 7.04 Sale Free and Clear. The Sellers acknowledge and agree, and the Sale Order shall provide that, on the Closing Effective Date and concurrently with the Closing, all then existing or thereafter arising obligations, Adverse Claims (other than the Assumed Liabilities) of, against or created by the Sellers or their bankruptcy estate, pursuant to section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall be fully released from, and with respect to, the Purchased Assets and may not be asserted against Buyer after the Closing Effective Date. On the Closing Effective Date, the Purchased Assets shall be transferred to Buyer free and clear of all Adverse Claims (other than the Assumed Liabilities), pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. Sellers shall ensure that the Sale Order becomes effective immediately upon entry thereof and that the provisions of Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 6004(g) and 6006(d) shall be waived for cause.

Section 7.05 Excluded Assets. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Agreement will restrict Sellers or their Affiliates from selling, disposing of or otherwise transferring any Excluded Assets, or from settling, delegating or otherwise transferring any Excluded Liabilities, in each case, with the approval of the Bankruptcy Court, or from entering into discussions or agreements with respect to the foregoing.

ARTICLE VIII TERMINATION

Section 8.01 Termination. This Agreement and the obligations of the Parties to consummate the Transactions may, by written notice given on or prior to the Closing Effective Date, in the manner provided in this Section 8.01, be terminated at any time prior to the Closing only as follows:

(a) by mutual written consent of Buyer and the Seller Representative, at which point the Buyer Deposit shall be returned to Buyer;

(b) by Buyer if at any time (i) any of the representations or warranties of any Seller in Section 4.01 is or becomes untrue or inaccurate such that the condition set forth in Section 3.01(a) would not be satisfied (treating such time as if it were the Closing for purposes of this Section 8.01(b)), (ii) the condition set forth in Section 3.01(e) cannot be satisfied (treating such time as if it were the Closing for purposes of this Section 8.01(b)) or (iii) there has been a breach on the part of any Seller or Parent of any of its covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement such that the condition set forth in Section 3.01(b) would not be satisfied (treating such time as if it were the Closing for purposes of this Section 8.01(b)), and in the case of (i) through (iii) above, such breach or failure to satisfy such condition cannot be cured by the Sellers or Parent or, if capable of being cured, has not been cured by the applicable Sellers or Parent by the date that is three (3) business days prior to the Outside Date, at which point the Buyer Deposit shall be returned to Buyer; provided that Buyer shall not be entitled to terminate pursuant to this Section 8.01(b) if the consummation of the Transactions is then being prevented by the willful and material breach by Buyer of any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in the Agreement;

(c) by the Sellers if at any time (i) any of the representations or warranties of Buyer in Section 4.02 is or becomes untrue or inaccurate such that the condition set forth in Section 3.02(a) would not be satisfied (treating such time as if it were the Closing for purposes of this Section 8.01(c)), or (ii) there has been a breach on the part of Buyer of any of its covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement such that the condition set forth in Section 3.02(b) would not be satisfied (treating such time as if it were the Closing for purposes of this Section 8.01(c)), and in the case of both (i) and (ii) above, such breach cannot be cured by Buyer or, if capable of being cured, has not been cured by Buyer by the date that is three (3) business days prior to the Outside Date, at which point the Buyer Deposit shall be retained by the Sellers; provided that the Sellers shall not be entitled to terminate pursuant to this Section 8.01(c) if the consummation of the Transactions is then being prevented by the willful and material breach by Sellers or Parent of any of their representations, warranties or covenants contained in the Agreement;

(d) by Buyer if the Closing has not occurred on or before December 31, 2025, or such later date, if any, as Buyer may agree upon in writing (as such date may be extended by the written consent of Buyer, the “Outside Date”), at which point the Buyer Deposit shall be returned to Buyer; provided that Buyer shall not be entitled to terminate pursuant to this Section 8.01(c) if the failure to consummate the Transactions by the Outside Date was primarily caused by the willful and material breach by Buyer of any of Buyer’s representations, warranties or covenants contained in the Agreement;

(e) by either Buyer or the Sellers if consummation of the Transactions is enjoined or prohibited by the terms of any Law or a final, non-appealable Order of any Governmental Authority having competent jurisdiction, at which point the Buyer Deposit shall be returned to Buyer; provided, however, that the party seeking to terminate shall not be entitled to terminate pursuant to this Section 8.01(e) if the imposition of such Order or the failure of such Order to be resisted, resolved or lifted, as applicable, was proximately caused by a breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of Buyer (if it is seeking to terminate) or any Seller (if the Sellers are seeking to terminate);

(f) by Buyer if any of the Bankruptcy Cases of a Seller are dismissed or converted to a case or cases under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, or if a trustee or examiner with expanded powers to operate or manage the financial affairs, the business or the reorganization of the Sellers is appointed in the Bankruptcy Case of a Seller, at which point the Buyer Deposit shall be returned to Buyer;

(g) Buyer, if (i) the Sale Order acceptable to Buyer shall not have been entered by the Bankruptcy Court by 11:59 p.m. (New York Time) on or before December 15, 2025, or (ii) following the entry of the Sale Order, the Sale Order shall (A) fail to be in full force and effect, (B) have been reversed, (C) have been stayed and such stay shall continue to be in effect for more than fourteen (14) days or (D) have been modified or amended in any manner adverse to Buyer without the prior written consent of Buyer. Under any such circumstance, the Buyer Deposit shall be returned to Buyer; or

(h) by Buyer or Sellers upon the consummation of an Alternative Transaction, at which point the Buyer Deposit shall be returned to Buyer.

The Party seeking to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.01 (other than pursuant to Section 8.01(a)) shall give prompt written notice of such termination to the other Parties hereto.

Section 8.02 Effect of Termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement as provided above, this Agreement shall immediately terminate and have no further force and effect and there shall be no Liability on the part of any Party to any other Party under this Agreement, except that (a) the covenants and agreements set forth in this Section 8.02 and Article IX and all definitions herein necessary to interpret any of the foregoing provisions shall remain in full force and effect and survive such termination indefinitely, (b) if applicable, the Buyer Deposit shall be released or retained in accordance with the terms of Section 8.01, and (c) nothing in this Section 8.02 shall release any Party from any Liability for any breach by such Party of this Agreement before the effective date of such termination, or otherwise affect any of the rights or remedies (whether under this Agreement, or at Law, in equity or otherwise) available to any Party with respect to the breach of this Agreement by any Party before the effective date of such termination.

Section 8.03 [Reserved].

ARTICLE IX REMEDIES

Section 9.01 Remedies. Except as contemplated by Section 2.06(b) or as otherwise provided in Section 9.02, the Parties agree that the remedies and/or the termination of this Agreement in accordance with the provisions of Article VIII shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Sellers (if the breaching party is Buyer) or Buyer (if the breaching party is a Seller) under this Agreement for any breach of representation and warranty made or any covenant or agreement to be performed on or prior to Closing.

Section 9.02 Specific Performance. The parties agree that irreparable damage for which monetary damages, even if available, would not be an adequate remedy, would occur in the event that any party does not perform the provisions of this Agreement (including failing to take such actions as are required of it hereunder to consummate the Transaction) in accordance with its specified terms or otherwise breaches such provisions. It is accordingly agreed that Buyer shall be entitled to an injunction or other equitable relief to prevent breaches of this Agreement by the Sellers and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof, and the Sellers shall be entitled to an injunction or other equitable relief to prevent breaches of this Agreement by Buyer and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof, this being in addition to any other remedy to which a non-breaching party is entitled at Law or in equity.

ARTICLE X MISCELLANEOUS

Section 10.01 Assignments. This Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns except to the extent that it is hereafter superseded or modified by subsequent written agreements between the Parties. This Agreement may not be assigned or otherwise transferred (including by operation of Law) by Buyer, without the prior written consent of the Seller Representative, or by any Seller or Seller Representative, without the prior written consent of Buyer; provided, however, that nothing in this Agreement or any other Transaction Document shall or is intended to limit the ability of Buyer to assign (a) its right, title and interest in and to this Agreement and/or the Purchased Assets to any Affiliate of Buyer or to any entity acquiring or succeeding to all or substantially all of the assets of Buyer or into which Buyer is merged; (b) this Agreement and Buyer's rights hereunder to one or more financiers (or a collateral agent or security trustee for and on behalf of any such financiers) for security purposes; and (c) all or any portion of the Purchased Assets to any Person after the Closing Effective Date; provided, further, no assignment or delegation shall relieve the assigning or delegating party of any of its obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the other Parties. Any attempted assignment in violation of this Section 10.01 is void ab initio.

Section 10.02 Notices. All notices and other communications provided for or required hereunder shall be in writing (including e-mail communication) and e-mailed or delivered at each party's address set forth below, or at such other address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice to the other parties. All such notices and communications shall be effective two (2) business days after delivery to a recognized overnight courier service, or when delivered, if sent by other means.

Section 10.03 Confidentiality. Following the Closing, the Parties shall, and shall cause their respective Affiliates and representatives to, treat all non public information and trade secrets relating to the other Parties, their respective Affiliates, the terms of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents, as confidential, preserve the confidentiality thereof, and not use such information and trade secrets for any reason or purpose whatsoever (other than any purposes permitted under this Agreement) or disclose to any Person such information or trade secrets unless such information or trade secret is (a) now or hereafter disclosed, through no act or omission of the applicable Party or its Affiliates or their respective representatives in breach of this Agreement, in a manner making it available to the general public, (b) required by Law to be disclosed, (c) received by any Party or its representatives after the Closing Effective Date from a third party who is not, to the knowledge of such Party, its Affiliates or their respective representatives, known to be under an obligation of nondisclosure or in breach of an obligation of confidentiality, in each case, to the other Party, (d) independently developed by any Party or its representatives after the Closing Effective Date without the use of or reference to any such information or trade secret, (e) reasonably necessary to defend or prosecute a Proceeding, or (f) approved in advance for use or disclosure via written authorization of the applicable Party. If the disclosure of such information or trade secrets is required by Law or is reasonably necessary to defend or prosecute a Proceeding, the Parties, their Affiliates and their respective representatives shall (i) cooperate with and provide the other Party an opportunity to object to the disclosure and shall, to the extent legally permissible, give the other Party as much prior written notice as is practicable under the circumstances, (ii) only disclose such information or trade secrets to the minimum extent required by Law to be disclosed or reasonably necessary to defend or prosecute such Proceeding, and (iii) use reasonable efforts to procure that confidential treatment will be accorded to any such information or trade secrets so disclosed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (x) each Party shall have the right to communicate and discuss with, and provide to, its Affiliates and its and their legal advisors, financial or accounting advisors, representatives, officers or employees, directors, consultants and agents, any information regarding the terms and status of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents and the Transactions who are under professional duty or contractual obligation to maintain the confidentiality of such information, and (y) Buyer and its Affiliates may make customary disclosures (which are made subject to customary confidentiality obligations), including the key economic terms of the Transactions and the return realized as a result thereof, to its current or prospective investors or lenders in connection with its fundraising and reporting activities.

Section 10.04 Amendment; Waiver. This Agreement shall not be amended, modified or waived in any manner except by an agreement in writing duly executed and delivered by each of Buyer and the Sellers. No failure or delay of any Party to exercise any right or remedy given to such Party under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document or otherwise available to such Party, or to insist upon strict compliance by any other Party with its or his obligations hereunder, no single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such right or power, and no custom or practice of the Parties in variance with the terms hereof, shall constitute a waiver of any Party's right to demand exact compliance with the terms hereof. Any written waiver shall be limited to those items specifically waived therein and shall not be deemed to waive any future breaches or violations or other non- specified breaches or violations unless, and to the extent, expressly set forth therein.

Section 10.05 Binding Effect; No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term, and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective permitted successors, transferees and assigns. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer on any Person (other than the Parties or their respective successors and permitted assigns) any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, the Sellers' permitted successors include, without limitation, any trustee appointed in the Bankruptcy Cases and the Sellers' other successors in the Bankruptcy Cases.

Section 10.06 Rules of Construction. The following rules of construction shall govern the interpretation of this Agreement:

- (a) all references to Articles, Sections, Exhibits or Schedules are to Articles, Sections, Exhibits or Schedules in this Agreement;
- (b) unless the context otherwise requires, words in the singular or plural include the singular and plural, and pronouns stated in either the masculine, the feminine or neuter gender shall include the masculine, feminine and neuter;
- (c) whenever the words "include," "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "but not limited to";
- (d) the word "extent" in the phrase "to the extent" shall mean the degree to which a subject or other thing extends, and such phrase shall not simply mean "if";
- (e) references to a Person herein are also to its permitted successors and permitted assigns;
- (f) references to any statute, rule, regulation or form (including in the definition thereof) shall be deemed to include references to such statute, rule, regulation or form as amended, modified, supplemented or replaced from time to time (and, in the case of any statute, include any rules and regulations promulgated under such statute), and all references to any section of any statute, rule, regulation or form include any successor to such section;
- (g) in computing any period of time pursuant to this Agreement, the day of the act, event or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included, but the time shall begin to run on the next succeeding day. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is not a business day, in which event the period shall run until the end of the next business day;
- (h) time is of the essence with regard to all dates and time periods set forth or referred to in this Agreement;
- (i) Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define, or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof;

required by applicable Law (in which case, the exchange rate shall be determined in accordance with such Law);

(m) the Parties intend that each representation, warranty, covenant and agreement contained herein shall have independent significance, and if any Party has breached any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained herein in any respect, the fact that there exists another representation, warranty, covenant or agreement relating to the same or similar subject matter that the Party has not breached shall not detract from or mitigate the fact that the Party is in breach of the first representation, warranty, covenant or agreement;

(n) any drafts of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document circulated by or among the Parties prior to the final fully executed drafts shall not be used for purposes of interpreting any provision of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, and each of the Parties agrees that no Party shall make any claim, assert any defense or otherwise take any position inconsistent with the foregoing in connection with any dispute or Proceeding among any of the foregoing or for any other purpose; and

(o) the Parties have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents; in the event an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents shall be construed as if drafted jointly by the Parties, and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any Party by virtue of the authorship of any of the provisions of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document and the language used in it will be deemed to be the language chosen by the Parties to express their mutual intent.

Section 10.07 Severability. Except as otherwise provided in the succeeding sentence, every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable, and, if any term or provision of this Agreement is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement. The preceding sentence of this Section shall be of no force or effect if the consequence of enforcing the remainder of this Agreement without such illegal or invalid term or provision would be to cause any Party to lose the material benefit of its economic bargain.

Section 10.08 Incorporation by Reference. Every Exhibit, annex and schedule (including the Disclosure Schedules) attached to this Agreement and referred to herein is incorporated fully into this Agreement by reference.

Section 10.09 Governing Law; Submission to Jurisdiction.

(a) THIS AGREEMENT IS TO BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH FEDERAL BANKRUPTCY LAW, TO THE EXTENT APPLICABLE, AND WHERE STATE LAW IS IMPLICATED, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK SHALL GOVERN, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO THE CHOICE OF LAW PRINCIPLES THEREOF, INCLUDING ALL MATERS OF CONSTRUCTION, VALIDITY AND PERFORMANCE.

(b) THE BANKRUPTCY COURT WILL HAVE JURISDICTION OVER ANY AND ALL DISPUTES BETWEEN OR AMONG THE PARTIES, WHETHER AT LAW OR IN EQUITY, ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY ANCILLARY AGREEMENT; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT IF THE BANKRUPTCY COURT IS UNWILLING OR UNABLE TO HEAR ANY SUCH DISPUTE, THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK AND THE FEDERAL COURTS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA LOCATED IN NEW YORK WILL HAVE SOLE JURISDICTION OVER ANY AND ALL DISPUTES BETWEEN OR AMONG THE PARTIES, WHETHER AT LAW OR

IN EQUITY, ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY AGREEMENT CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

Section 10.10 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH OF THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY WAIVES TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW ALL RIGHTS TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT, STATUTE OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, THE TRANSACTIONS OR THE ACTIONS OF SUCH PARTY IN THE NEGOTIATION, ADMINISTRATION, PERFORMANCE AND ENFORCEMENT HEREOF. EACH PARTY FURTHER WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO SEEK TO CONSOLIDATE ANY PROCEEDING IN WHICH A JURY TRIAL HAS BEEN WAIVED WITH ANY OTHER PROCEEDING IN WHICH A JURY TRIAL CANNOT OR HAS NOT BEEN WAIVED. EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (a) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED OR WARRANTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (b) EACH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (c) EACH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY AND (d) EACH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 10.10.

Section 10.11 Expenses. Except as otherwise expressly stated herein, each Party shall be responsible for the payment of its own fees and expenses (including legal, accounting and investment banking fees and expenses) incurred in connection with the Transaction Documents and in the negotiation and preparation for and consummation of the Transactions.

Section 10.12 Counterpart Execution. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original and when taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument. The words "execution," "signed," "signature," and words of like import in this Agreement shall be deemed to include electronic signatures or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the extent and as provided for in any applicable law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, or any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act.

Section 10.13 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including all annexes, schedules (including the Disclosure Schedules) and the Exhibits attached hereto) and the other Transaction Documents constitute the entire agreement and understanding between the Parties in respect of the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof.

Section 10.14 Relationship of the Parties. Nothing in this Agreement creates any partnership, employment, joint venture, franchise or agency relationship between the parties; rather, the parties acknowledge that their relationship under this Agreement is one of independent contracting parties.

Section 10.15 Seller Representative.

(a) For purposes of this Agreement, each Seller hereby irrevocably appoints and designates Seller Representative to serve as such Seller's true and lawful representative, agent, and attorney-in-fact, with full power of substitution and re-substitution, to act for and on behalf of such Seller for the purpose of taking any and all actions by such Seller specified in or contemplated by this Agreement or the other Transaction

Documents; provided, that if Kevin Berg at any time is unable, due to incapacity or otherwise, to serve as Seller Representative or resigns as Seller Representative, then the Sellers shall designate a successor Seller Representative in writing. Each successor Seller Representative, if required to serve, shall sign an acknowledgment in writing agreeing to perform and be bound by all of the provisions of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents applicable to Seller Representative. Each successor Seller Representative shall have all of the power, authority, rights and privileges conferred by this Agreement upon the original Seller Representative, and the term "Seller Representative" as used herein shall be deemed to include any successor Seller Representative.

(b) Seller Representative is hereby constituted and appointed as agent and attorney-in-fact for and on behalf of each Seller with respect to the performance of its duties as Seller Representative as set forth herein. This power of attorney and all authority hereby conferred is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable and shall not terminate or otherwise be affected by the death, disability, incompetence, bankruptcy or insolvency of any Seller and shall be binding upon the successors, assigns, heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, and beneficiaries, as applicable, of each Seller. Seller Representative shall promptly deliver to each Seller any notice received by Seller Representative concerning this Agreement that Seller Representative deems is material.

(c) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Seller Representative has full power and authority, on behalf of each Seller and such Seller's successors and assigns, to: (i) interpret the terms and provisions of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to be executed and delivered by the Sellers in connection herewith, (ii) execute and deliver and receive deliveries of all agreements, certificates, statements, notices, approvals, extensions, waivers, undertakings, amendments, and other documents required or permitted to be given in connection with the consummation of the Transactions, (iii) receive service of process in connection with any claims under this Agreement or the other Transaction Documents, (iv) agree to, negotiate, enter into settlements and compromises of, assume the defense of claims, and demand arbitration and comply with orders of courts and awards of arbitrators with respect to such claims, and to take all actions necessary or appropriate in the judgment of Seller Representative for the accomplishment of the foregoing, (v) give and receive notices and communications, (vi) authorize delivery to Buyer of the Buyer Deposit, (vii) object to such delivery, (viii) distribute the Buyer Deposit to which Sellers are entitled, and any earnings and proceeds thereon, (ix) to assert the attorney-client privilege on behalf of the Sellers with respect to any communications that relate in any way to the transactions contemplated hereby, (x) deliver to Buyer any and all Transaction Documents to which any Seller is a party executed by such Seller and deposited with Seller Representative, upon Seller Representative's determination that the conditions to Closing have been satisfied or waived, (xi) grant any consent, approval or waiver under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document and (xii) take all actions necessary or appropriate in the sole judgment of Seller Representative on behalf of the Sellers for the accomplishment of the foregoing or otherwise specifically required or in connection with this Agreement or the other Transaction Documents. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event of a claim hereunder against a single Seller, and not any other Seller, such affected Seller shall be entitled to control the defense of such claim.

(d) Service by Seller Representative shall be without compensation except for the reimbursement by the Sellers of out-of-pocket expenses and indemnification specifically provided herein.

(e) Seller Representative shall have no duties or responsibilities except those expressly set forth herein, and no implied covenants, functions, responsibilities, duties, obligations or liabilities on behalf of any Seller shall otherwise exist against Seller Representative. Seller Representative shall not be liable to any Seller relating to the performance of Seller Representative's duties or exercise of any rights under this Agreement for any errors in judgment, negligence, oversight, breach of duty or otherwise except to the extent it is finally determined in a court of competent jurisdiction by clear and convincing evidence that the actions taken or not taken by Seller Representative constituted actual fraud or were taken or not taken, as applicable, in bad faith. Seller Representative shall be protected in acting upon any notice, statement or certificate believed by Seller Representative to be genuine and to have been furnished by the appropriate Person and in acting or refusing to act in good faith on any matter. Seller Representative shall not be liable to Buyer or any Affiliate of Buyer by reason of this Agreement or the performance of Seller Representative's duties hereunder or otherwise.

(f) The Sellers shall indemnify and hold harmless Seller Representative against all losses, including costs of defense, paid or incurred in connection with any action, suit, proceeding or claim to which Seller Representative is made a party by reason of the fact that Seller Representative was acting as Seller Representative pursuant to this Agreement; provided, that Seller Representative shall not be entitled to indemnification hereunder to the extent it is finally determined in a court of competent jurisdiction by clear and convincing evidence that the actions taken or not taken by Seller Representative constituted actual fraud or were taken or not taken, as applicable, in bad faith.

(g) Buyer shall be entitled to rely conclusively without inquiry upon any decision, action, consent or instruction of Seller Representative as the duly authorized decision, action, consent or instruction of Seller Representative on behalf of each Seller with respect to any matters set forth in this Agreement or any other Transaction Document and Buyer is hereby relieved from any liability to any Person for any acts done by it in accordance with any such decision, action, consent or instruction.

(h) The provisions of this Section 10.15 will survive the Closing, the resignation or removal of Seller Representative or the termination of this Agreement.

WBEI filed its arbitration demand related to Village Roadshow’s alleged failure to pay its co-financing share of Matrix 4 aka The Matrix Resurrections on February 2, 2022. This arbitration remains active and has not yet reached a final resolution.

3. Warner Bros. Entertainment Inc., et al. v. Village Roadshow Films (BVI) Limited, et al. (JAMS Confidential Arbitration before Judge Otero – Wonka/Derivative Rights Arbitration). WBEI filed its arbitration demand in respect of Wonka in connection with Village Roadshow’s rights to co-finance the motion picture Wonka and the parties’ rights and obligations with respect to derivative works based on WBEI/VR co-financed library titles on February 2, 2022. WBEI relinquished its challenge to Village Roadshow’s right to co-finance Wonka and issued a project notice to Village Roadshow on June 17, 2022, and Village Roadshow accepted WBEI’s project notice. However, WBEI maintained its claims that could significantly restrict Village Roadshow’s derivative rights. The parties have ongoing disputes with respect to future, slated derivative works and the parties’ rights and obligations. This arbitration has been effectively “paused” until resolution of the Matrix Arbitration is first achieved.

4. Fraudulent Conveyance Claim (All Pictures). In a series of letters in early 2024, Warner Bros. Entertainment Inc. has alleged that assignments of certain of the Derivative Rights with respect to the Pictures from Village Roadshow Films (BVI) Limited and (“VRF”) Village Roadshow Films North America Inc. (“VRFNA”) to certain of their affiliates constituted fraudulent conveyances and a breach of VREG’s Amended and Restated Consolidated Undertaking and Indemnity dated as of November 10, 2020.

5. Practical Magic 2 Dispute. On September 4, 2025, VREG IP Global LLC (“VREG IP Global”), as successor-in-interest to VRF and VRFNA, delivered to WBEI written notice (the “Project Acceptance Notice”) of its acceptance of the opportunity to participate in the motion picture titled “Practical Magic 2” (“PM2”), a derivative work based on the Picture titled “Practical Magic”, subject and pursuant to the Co-Ownership Agreement with Respect to Remakes and Sequels of “Practical Magic” (the “PM2 Co-Ownership Agreement”), dated as of June 26, 2000, by and between Warner Bros., a division of Time Warner Entertainment Company, L.P., and VRF, as amended. The Project Acceptance Notice was expressly subject to entry by the Bankruptcy Court in the Bankruptcy Cases of (a) an order approving the Project Acceptance Notice and (b) the Sale Order. In a letter dated September 8, 2025, WBEI disputed the validity of the Project Acceptance Notice on various grounds. In such letter, WBEI expressly reserved all rights in connection with the Project Acceptance Notice, including the right to seek affirmative relief from the Bankruptcy Court presiding over the Bankruptcy Cases.

Chapter 11

Case No. 25-10475 (TMH)

(Jointly Administered)

MEMORANDUM OPINION

This is the opinion regarding the Debtors’ motion to approve the sale and assumption and assignment of certain derivative rights to Alcon Media Group, LLC under sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Warner Brothers Entertainment Inc. and Regency Entertainment (USA), Inc., who are counterparties to various derivative rights agreements, have objected to the sale. For the reasons set forth below, those objections are overruled and the sale to Alcon is approved.

I. Background

On March 17, 2025, Village Roadshow Entertainment Group USA Inc. and certain of its affiliates (collectively the “Debtors”) filed petitions under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are seeking to sell the rights to participate in motion picture projects that are derivative of certain films (the “Derivative Rights”), including those that the Debtors co-produced with Warner Bros. Entertainment Inc. and its affiliates (collectively, “Warner Bros.”) and Regency Entertainment (USA), Inc. (“Regency”).² The Derivative Right for each film is governed by its own co-ownership agreement, as such agreement may have been amended (collectively the “DRAs”).

On April 22, 2025, this court approved bidding procedures for the sale of the Debtors’ assets.³ The bidding procedures order established ground rules for the sale of three types of assets – the Library Assets, the Studio Business, and the Derivative Rights.

² See Debtors’ Motion for Entry of Orders (I)(A) Approving Bid Procedures for the Sale of the Debtors’ Assets, (B) Authorizing the Debtors’ Entry Into the Stalking Horse APA and Approving Bid Protections Thereunder, (C) Scheduling an Auction for, and Hearing to Approve, Sale of the Debtors’ Assets, (D) Approving Form and Manner of Notices of Sale, Auction, and Sale Hearing, and (E) Approving Assumption and Assignment Procedures; (II)(A) Approving the Sale of the Debtors’ Assets Free and Clear of all Liens, Claims, Interests, and Encumbrances, and (B) Approving Assumption and Assignment of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; and (III) Granting Related Relief [D.I. 11]

In accordance with the bidding procedures order, on May 22, 2025, the Debtors filed notice that Alcon Media Group, LLC (“Alcon”) was the successful bidder for the Library Assets.⁴

On May 28, 2025, the Debtors conducted an auction for the Derivative Rights and the Studio Business. After spirited bidding for the Derivative Rights, the Debtors designated Alcon as the successful bidder with a bid of $18.5 million, and Warner Bros. as the backup bidder with a bid of $17.5 million.⁵ Alcon made the lone conforming bid for Studio Assets and was designated as the successful bidder for those assets. On August 26, 2025, this court entered an order approving the sale of the Studio Assets to Alcon.⁶

Warner Bros. and Regency objected to the sale of Derivative Rights. The sale of the Derivative Assets proceeded on a separate track because the sale of those assets raised issues not pertinent to the sale of the Library Assets and Studio Assets, requiring substantial discovery and further briefing. The court scheduled a hearing on the Derivative Rights for October 20, 2025.

⁴ Notice of Successful Bidder for Library Assets [D.I. 396]. On June 20, 2025, the court entered its Order (I) Approving the Sale of Library Assets Free and Clear of Liens, Claims, Interests, and Encumbrances, (II) Approving the Assumption and Assignment of Certain Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases in Connection Therewith, and (III) Granting Related Relief [D.I. 562], Ex. 78.

⁶ Order (I) Approving the Sale of the Studio Business Free and Clear of Liens, Claims, Interests, and Encumbrances, (II) Approving the Assumption and Assignment of Certain Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases In Connection Therewith, and (III) Granting Related Relief [D.I. 782].

On August 22, 2025, this court held a status conference where counsel for the Debtors stated “[w]e would be more than happy to welcome a bid in amount greater than $18.5 million. I think that we would have an obligation to consider any such bid.”⁷

Warner Bros. then submitted a revised bid to the Debtors for $18.5 million plus additional consideration in the form of releasing $10 million from the Warner Bros. Reserve,⁸ and dismissing and releasing claims for certain disputes.⁹ The Debtors declined this offer and, instead, submitted a counteroffer to Warner Bros. for a purchase price of $30 million, along with the settlement of claims for certain disputes, including the ones for which cash is being held in the Warner Bros. Reserve.¹⁰ On October 19, 2025, the day before the Derivative Rights sale hearing, Warner Bros. added $1 million to its revised offer, making the cash component of its offer $19.5 million.¹¹ The Debtors did not accept this offer and are seeking approval of the sale of the Derivative Rights to Alcon.

Regency objects on the grounds that the DRA between the Debtors and Regency is a non-assignable personal service contract.

II. Discussion

A. Warner Bros.

1. The Debtors have exercised their business judgment appropriately in selecting Alcon's bid as the highest and best bid.

Bankruptcy Code section 363(b)(1) provides that a debtor may sell property of the estate outside the ordinary course of business after notice and a hearing. In determining whether to approve such a sale, courts consider broad range of factors to demonstrate “that a sound business purpose justifies” the sale under the “business judgment test.”¹² The business judgment test is deferential to debtors and courts will not “substitute [their] views for those of the [debtor] if the latter’s decision can be attributed to any rational business purpose.”¹³

The auction here was conducted according to court-approved bidding procedures, and Warner Bros. actively participated in the auction. It made the baseline bid for the Derivative Assets.¹⁴ It bid through round ten of the auction,¹⁵ and its representatives bid up to the amount they were authorized to bid.¹⁶ After round ten, the Debtors determined that Alcon's $18.5 million bid (the "Alcon Bid") was the highest and best offer after primarily considering the bids' cash value¹⁷ and Warner Bros. declined to submit a higher bid in the next round.¹⁸

Warner Bros. has no objection to the integrity or procedures of the auction.¹⁹ Months after the auction,²⁰ Warner Bros. submitted two additional bids, including one for $19.5 million and additional consideration which it submitted the night

Supp. Derivative Rights Sale); Oct. 20, 2025 Hr'g Tr. 78:14–19. While the evidence shows that the Debtors primarily considered the cash value of the offers, Mr. Maib, the Debtor's Chief Restructuring Officer, testified that the Debtors also considered other relevant factors such as the buyers' ability to close and the reputation of the parties. ²⁰ Warner Bros. contends that a statement by the Debtors' counsel during a status conference to the effect of welcoming higher offers and believing the Debtors would have an obligation to consider any offers reopened bidding, but the Court finds that the statement was consistent with the Debtors' fiduciary duties and did not reopen the bidding procedures. See Tr. of Status Conference 08/22/25 Ex. 61, at 12:3–5; Oct. 20, 2025 Hr'g Tr. 211:4–15.

before the Derivative Rights sale hearing.²¹ The Debtors considered these bids, but determined that the first bid was not higher or better than the Alcon bid, and that the second was insufficient to exercise their fiduciary out.²² After Warner Bros.’ first post-auction bid, the Debtors submitted a counteroffer asking for $30 million along with additional consideration, reflecting their judgment on what would be sufficient to justify the exercise of their fiduciary out.²³

The Debtors have determined that the Alcon Bid is the highest and best offer considering the cash value of the competing bids and balancing their obligation to maximize the value to the estate with the Debtors’ obligation to comply with the bidding procedures and honor the bid chosen at the auction. The evidence supports that the Debtors exercised appropriate business judgment in selecting the Alcon Bid for the sale of the Derivative Rights and that there are no exceptional circumstances here that would warrant the extraordinary act of this court substituting its judgment for that of the Debtors.

To maintain the integrity of the auction process, the finality of an auction should only be undone in exceptional circumstances.²⁴ There are numerous reasons why this is so. The auction process here was established by an order of this court. Not only are the parties bound to respect that order, but bidders acknowledge they are bound by it when they undertake to participate. An orderly bidding process and auction has the effect of getting all qualified bidders in one room with the debtor and any consultation parties and encourages the parties to lay their cards on the table.

There may be reasons why a debtor might determine it is an appropriate exercise of its business judgment to exercise a fiduciary out after the close of an auction. However, Warner Bros. waited until the evening before the Derivative Rights sale hearing to enhance its offer in any meaningful respect. Such a course of conduct not only leaves a debtor and its consultation parties with inadequate opportunity to assess a late bid, but it also appears engineered to run down the clock by effectively preventing a debtor from counteroffering or going back to its designated successful bidder to see if there is yet a better deal to be had.

This court will not substitute its judgment for that of the Debtors. There is no basis upon which this court can find that the Alcon bid was inadequate or that there was any infirmity in the sale process, much less one amounting to unfairness, fraud, to the contrary, we are in accord with the established rule that it is an abuse of discretion for a bankruptcy court to refuse to confirm an adequate bid received in a properly and fairly conducted sale merely because a slightly higher offer has been received after the bidding is closed.”); In re Bigler, LP, 443 B.R. 101, 115 (Bankr. or mistake. The Debtors have established that it properly used its business judgment in selecting Alcon as the successful bidder and in going forward at the October 20, 2025 hearing to seek approval of the sale to Alcon.

2. The DRAs are assignable under 11 U.S.C. § 365.

The Bankruptcy Code allows for debtors to accept and assign executory contracts, subject to some exceptions, under Bankruptcy Code section 365.²⁵ “[E]xceptions to assignability are narrowly construed” in favor of free assignability.²⁶ Warner Bros. argues that the DRAs are unassignable under section 365 because they are financial accommodations, personal service contracts, and because Alcon has not provided adequate assurance of future performance.

a. The Derivative Rights Agreements are not financial accommodations, and therefore are assignable, under 11 U.S.C. § 365(c)(2).

Section 365(c)(2) prohibits a debtor from assuming or assigning an executory contract or lease if “such contract is a contract to make a loan, or extend other debt financing or financial accommodations, to or for the benefit of the debtor” The statute prevents a debtor from assuming financing agreements and “thus compel[ling] its lender to continue to advance funds during reorganization” or liquidation.²⁷ In determining whether a contract is one to extend financial accommodations, the whole contract must be considered because “[a] contract is not a ‘financial accommodations’ contract if the extension of credit is merely incidental to the broader contractual arrangement involving the debtor.”²⁸ Additionally, courts have found that the term “financial accommodations” is to be interpreted narrowly to mean “the extension of money or credit to accommodate another.”²⁹

The DRAs between the Debtors and Warner Bros. are components of a set of contracts outlining the rights and responsibilities of each party and incorporated through the DRAs. For example, the terms of Amendment I to the 2017 Omnibus Amendment to the Co-Ownership Agreements³⁰ incorporate the terms of the 2014 Motion Picture Rights Purchase Agreement (the “2014 MPRPA”)³¹ for derivative projects while giving the parties freedom to adopt other agreements.³² In broad strokes, the structure of the agreements, taken together, provides that if Warner Bros. decides to exploit a derivative right, it must provide the Debtors with notice of the project (a “Project Notice”), which includes information about the project such as the script, director, confirmed cast, and a proposed budget, which the Debtors then have fifteen days to accept.³³ If the Debtors accept within the fifteen-day timetable, they become co-producers and are obligated to pay for their share of the project.³⁴

Warner Bros. pays all the costs related to the project as they come due, and the Debtors pay Warner Bros. their percentage, plus interest, shortly before the movie is distributed, on the “pickup date.”³⁵ While there is no set length of time, the pickup date is often one to two years after the Project Notice was sent out.³⁶

Warner Bros. contends that this structure, which requires that they pay all costs up front and are repaid with interest later, is a financial accommodation under section 365(c)(2). It is unnecessary to decide whether the up-front payment term of the agreement is a financial accommodation, because even if it is, the “nature of the entire transaction” is not one of financial accommodation.³⁷ The DRAs primarily involve the underlying intellectual property rights and a structure, including a financial structure, for the counterparties to exploit the derivative rights together. The purpose is not for Warner Bros. to provide financing to the Debtors, but for the Debtors to provide financing to Warner Bros. to mitigate the risk (or share in the profit) of the project. Essentially, they are an investment for the Debtors.³⁸ While the terms of this investment do not require that the Debtors pay their share until later into the development of the project, that does not change that this overall agreement is not one intended to financially accommodate the Debtors so much as to provide funding to Warner Bros. for the project. Because the DRAs are not contract for financial accommodations, they are assignable under section 365(c)(2).

b. The DRAs are not contracts for personal services.

Under section 365(c)(1), when an executory contract cannot be assigned under applicable non-bankruptcy law, it may not be assumed or assigned in bankruptcy without permission of the other contracting party.³⁹ Under California law, which the parties agree is the applicable nonbankruptcy law, “contracts involving relationships of personal confidence and trust or personal services are not assignable by either party without the consent of the other party.”⁴⁰ Such a contract would consequently be non-assignable without consent in bankruptcy under section 365(c)(1). The test for whether a contract is such a personal service contract is “whether the contract involves a personal relation of confidence between the parties or relies on the character and personal ability of a party.”⁴¹ Additionally, “there must be a special relationship between the parties or the party to perform must possess special knowledge or a unique skill, such that no performance save that of the contracting party could be meet the obligations of the contract.”⁴²

“Courts applying California law have found the fact that a party contracted with a corporation as evidence that a contract is not for personal services.”⁴³ The situation between the Debtors and Warner Bros. highlights why this is true, especially in cases like this where the agreements are contemplated to be ongoing over years. The parties originally began working together in 1998 when they had what has been characterized as a close relationship built on trust, but over the years both companies have been bought and sold and have experienced a large amount of turnover in personnel that has affected the manner in which they have conducted business together.⁴⁴ Both parties have changed significantly from when the DRAs were entered into but, as contemplated at the time, the DRAs are still in effect between the parties. This is strong evidence that the DRAs are not based on any personal services or attributes of either party.⁴⁵

The contracts being between corporate entities is a strong indication that the contracts are not personal service contracts, but it is not conclusive. However, the assignability of the DRAs is further supported because they also do not contain nondelegable obligations for either party. The Debtors’ primary obligation under the contract is to co-finance the derivative projects for which they have accepted a Project Notice. The Debtors may also give input into the projects, but nothing in the DRAs obligates Warner Bros. to accept any of the Debtors’ suggestions.⁴⁶ Conversely, Warner Bros.’ primary duty under the DRAs is to give the Debtors the opportunity to co-finance derivative projects that it chooses to undertake. None of these obligations is a non-delegable personal service.⁴⁷

While Warner Bros. describes the relationship, or at least the earlier years of the relationship, as being close and built on trust, “[a] ‘close personal working relationship’ does not automatically equate to personal services as defined by law.”⁴⁸ The nature and obligations of the underlying contracts here are not those of personal service contracts, and the contracts are assignable under section 365(c)(1).

c. Alcon has provided adequate assurance of future performance.

11 U.S.C. § 365(f)(2)(B) provides that a debtor seeking to assign an executory contract must provide “adequate assurance of future performance by the assignee of such contract.”⁴⁹ The meaning of “adequate assurance of future performance” depends on the facts and circumstances of each case, but should be given “practical, pragmatic construction.”⁵⁰ The primary focus of determining whether an assignee has given adequate assurance of future performance is “the assignee’s ability to satisfy the financial obligations imposed by the [contract].”⁵¹ However the non-financial obligations, while “less significant,” may also be considered.⁵²

Here, Alcon has shown that it can satisfy the financial obligations of the DRAs. Alcon has shown that it has the funds to close on the sale and, while Debtors have not yet sought to assign their purported acceptance of the Project Notice for Practical Magic 2 so Alcon’s obligations as to this project are uncertain, Alcon has also given sufficient assurance that it will be able to raise the money to fund the project if and when the amount comes due.

Alcon has $39.6 million available to it under its credit facility with Bank of America and $15.39 million available to it under its credit facility with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.⁵³ Broderick Johnson, the co-founder and co-CEO of Alcon testified that, in the past, Alcon has been able to increase the size of these credit facilities and in the past that he reasonably anticipates being able to do so in the future if the need arises.⁵⁴ He also testified as to Alcon’s relationship with the Smith family, the majority owners of Alcon, which has previously helped Alcon fund projects, and has committed to continue funding projects, including Practical Magic II, for Alcon.⁵⁵ The Smith family is not obligated to provide this funding, but Molly Smith, a member of the Smith family and an Alcon board member, offered uncontroverted testimony as to the family's support of Alcon's purchase of the Derivative Rights and commitment to continue funding projects for Alcon.⁵⁶

Beyond the expenses to close the sale and co-finance Practical Magic 2, the DRAs do not obligate Alcon to fund other projects unless they accept a Project Notice, and Alcon has indicated it will not accept Project Notices unless it has the ability to fund them.⁵⁷ There is no evidence that Alcon has ever defaulted on any contract with Warner Bros. or with any other party.⁵⁸

Warner Bros. has also discussed non-financial concerns in relation to separate litigation Alcon has initiated against Warner Bros. This litigation is unrelated to the DRAs, and the Court is satisfied that it will have no bearing on Alcon's ability to perform under the DRA contracts.

B. Regency

1. The DRA is not a contract for personal services and is otherwise freely assignable under 11 U.S.C. § 365.

Regency has one DRA with the Debtors. It has notable differences from the Warner Bros. DRAs. Unlike the Warner Bros. agreements, under which only Warner Bros. can initiate exploitation of a Derivative Right, under the Regency DRA, either party is able to initiate such an exploitation. Also, the Regency DRA identifies certain individuals (or their successors in their respective roles) employed by Regency and the Debtors who must work together to settle disputes. Regency argues that these differences present a stronger case that its DRA is a personal services contract.

Because either party can initiate exploitation of the Derivative Rights and subsequently develop a derivative project on their own if the other party does not accept a Project Notice, Regency argues that its DRAs are built on trust in one another's skills and abilities such that neither party would devalue the Derivative Rights of the other through the development of a project.⁵⁹ Regency claims that this trust along with provisions of the Co-ownership Agreement that names employees for each company that must negotiate with one another in the event of a dispute are evidence that this DRA is a non-assignable personal services contract.

Neither feature creates a personal services contract. The terms that name specific employees also allow for their successors to negotiate in place of the named employees. In fact, David Friedman, the Executive Vice President and General Counsel of Regency, testified that only one of the four named individuals still works at their respective companies, and he does so in a more limited capacity.⁶⁰

⁵⁹ See Am. Decl. David C. Friedman Supp. Obj. Regency Ent., Inc. to Sale of Debtors' Assets and Assumption and Assignment of Co-Ownership Agreement Ex. 89, at 3 (hereinafter Am. Friedman Decl.); Oct. 20, 2025 Hr'g Tr. 242:13–243:8.

Moreover, the contract only names individuals for dispute resolution clauses, not for any of the central roles or responsibilities of either party under the contract.⁶¹ The contract was entered into between two corporations and was intended to continue into the future, beyond when any individual would be working at either party.

The fact that the Debtors may initiate an exploitation of derivative rights and engage in that exploitation alone if the other declines to participate⁶² similarly does not create a personal services contract. This clause provides an extra right in comparison to the Warner Bros. DRAs, not an obligation to Regency that could be found to be a personal service.⁶³ While the Debtor's or assignee's exercise of this right could affect the value of Regency's Derivative Rights, this does not create a personal services contract.

III. Conclusion

The Debtors have sustained their burden of showing that it is an appropriate exercise of their business judgment to convey the DRAs to Alcon. The DRAs can be assumed and assigned to Alcon under Bankruptcy Code section 365 because they are executory contracts that are not financial accommodations or contracts for personal services and because Alcon has given adequate assurance of future performance. The Derivative Rights sale is therefore approved. The parties are
