1. Margin calculations are based on the previous day's closing bid for equities and closing value for other marginable securities.

Please Note:

- Total values reflect previous trading day's closing prices. If however, there has been no market activity during the previous trading day, then the market value shown is based on the last available closing bid.
- Mutual fund positions will update after 2 business days. Refer to Order Status for more details.
- Change represents the change in the value of the position from last business day's close vs previous trading session's close, including any quantity changes.
- Asset Types are categorized generally, and therefore may not reflect the true nature of the individual holdings.
