In re:
AFH Air Pros, LLC
Chapter 11
Case No. 25-10356 (PMB)

My name is India N. McAfee. I am responding to the objection to my claim for unpaid overtime wages.

I did not receive notice of the claim filing deadline in June 2025. I did not become aware that I needed to file a claim until November 2025. Once I became aware, I filed my claim as soon as possible.

I did not intentionally miss the deadline and respectfully ask the Court to allow my claim to proceed.

I was a salaried employee, but I was not an exempt employee. I was required to work from approximately 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., five days a week, which is about 60 hours per week. I was also expected to remain available outside of those hours, including nights and emergencies.

Even while I was in the emergency room, I was still expected to respond and remain available for work matters.

I was not paid overtime for hours worked over 40 per week.

All time records, payroll information, and communications were kept by the company. When I was laid off, my company phone was taken from me and I lost access to all work systems and documentation.

Because those records are in the company's possession, I do not currently have copies. I respectfully request that payroll and time records be reviewed to determine the actual overtime hours worked.

The amount listed in my claim is based on my regular weekly schedule and the overtime hours worked beyond 40 hours per week.

The amount listed in my claim is based on my annual salary of $52,000, which equals approximately $1,000 per week. Based on a regular 40-hour workweek, that equals about $25 per hour. I regularly worked approximately 60 hours per week, which is about 20 overtime hours weekly. Using the overtime rate of time and a half, the unpaid overtime comes to approximately $750 per week. The total amount in my claim reflects the weeks I worked under this schedule.

After receiving the Objection to my claim, I took time to try to seek legal advice so that I could properly understand the process and my rights. As someone who is not an attorney and is unfamiliar with bankruptcy court procedures, I wanted to make sure I responded correctly.

Any delay in responding was not intentional and was made in good faith while attempting to obtain guidance. I respectfully ask the Court to consider this in allowing my claim to proceed.

Thank you for your consideration.

Signed,

India N. McAfee
