[1] The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases and the last four digits of each Debtor's taxpayer identification number are: Ample, Inc. (4015) and Ample Texas EV, LLC (6832). A copy of this Application is available on (a) the Court's website, at www.txs.uscourts.gov and (b) the website maintained by the Debtors' claims and noticing agent, Verita Global at https://veritaglobal.net/ample.

2. The bases for relief requested herein are sections 330 and 331 of Title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), Bankruptcy Rule 2016, and Rule 2016-1 of the Bankruptcy Local Rules for the Southern District of Texas (the "Bankruptcy Local Rules").

II. BACKGROUND

3. On December 16, 2025 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in this Court. See ECF No. 1. On December 18, 2025, the Court ordered joint-administration of the Debtors' respective cases, thereby creating these chapter 11 cases (the "Cases"). See ECF No. 23. On October 14, 2026, the Court entered the Agreed Motion by the Debtors, the Official Committee, and Twelve Bridge Capital, LLC Converting These Cases to Chapter 7 Pursuant to Section 1112(A) of the Bankruptcy Code and Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 347] (the "Conversion Order").

4. On December 30, 2025, pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Office of the United States Trustee for Region 7 (the "U.S. Trustee") appointed the Committee, consisting of the following members: (i) Qindao Huari Hardware Product Co., Ltd; (ii) Avalon Technologies Limited; (iii) MingChing Industrial; and, (iv) Sabrina Ohanian. See ECF No. 53.

5. On January 7, 2026 (the "Retention Date"), the Committee, in connection with the exercise of its powers and the performance of the duties conferred upon it pursuant to section 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code, selected Dykema to serve as its counsel in connection with these Cases, subject to Court approval.

6. On February 18, 2026, the Court entered the Order Approving Procedures for the Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals [ECF No. 178] (the "Interim Compensation Order").

7. On February 2, 2026, the Committee filed an application to employ Dykema as Attorneys for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors [ECF No. 151] (the "Application to Employ").

8. On February 24, 2026 the Court entered the Order Authorizing the Employment and Retention of Dykema Gossett, LLC as Co-Counsel to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors Effective as of January 7, 2026 [ECF No. 191] (the "Retention Order").

9. The terms and conditions of Dykema's employment and compensation are set forth in the Application to Employ, as modified by the Retention Order. Dykema has no agreement of any kind, express or implied, to divide with any person or entity any portion of the compensation sought or to be received by it in these Cases.

10. Dykema has submitted to the relevant parties monthly fee statements (collectively, the "Fee Statements") consisting of a brief statement as to the fees and costs incurred in approximately one-month periods, including the associated detailed time entries, pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Interim Compensation Order.

III. ITEMIZATION OF SERVICES PROVIDED BY DYKEMA

11. In support of this Application, attached are the following exhibits:

13. Although every effort has been made to include all fees and expenses incurred during the Application Period, some fees and expenses might not be included in this Application due to delays caused by accounting and processing during the Application Period. Dykema reserves the right to make further application to the Court for allowance of such fees and expenses not included herein. Subsequent fee applications will be filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the Procedures and the Interim Compensation Order.

IV. SUMMARY OF SERVICES PROVIDED

14. During the Application Period, Dykema provided complex and intricate services to the Committee, including:

a. B110 - Case Administration (5.50 hours). These fees include time spent by Dykema attorneys providing services in connection with the day-to-day administrative and other miscellaneous tasks not covered by other categories including, among other things, (i) review and analyzing the Debtors' schedules and statements of financial affairs, monthly operating reports, and other filings, (ii) reviewing communications, filings, and notices regarding events in the Cases, (iii) coordination and communications among Dykema, the Debtors' professionals, and other parties in these Cases, (iv) preparing various administrative filings to the extent not included in other categories, (v) addressing requests from the U.S. Trustee, and (vi) preparing, finalizing, and serving various pleadings and other documents file with the Court.

b. B120 - Asset Analysis and Recovery (1.90 hours). Specifically, Dykema spent time on, among other things discussing (i) the value from the sale of certain assets, (ii) strategy for duty buy back, and (iii) issues with the sale of certain assets.

c. B130 - Asset Disposition (2.60 hours). Among other things, Dykema communicated with the Debtors team and co-counsel to the Committee regarding the sale of certain assets.

d. B150 - Meetings and Communications with Creditors (3.30 hours). Among other things, Dykema participated in meetings with the Committee.

e. B160 - Fee/Employment Applications (31.8 hours). Among other things, Dykema reviewed information to determine disclosures required for Porzio's retention application; coordinated with Dykema's in drafting Dykema's retention application and the Committee's financial advisor's retention application; reviewed the Debtors' counsel, financial advisor, and investment banker retention applications and drafted summaries of fee structures; prepared monthly fee statements.

f. B190 - Other Contested Matters (0.90 hours). These fees included time spent by Dykema attorneys on matters related to, among other things, (i) the Committee's 2004 Notice, and (ii) preparing for and attending numerous hearings related the foregoing matters, to the extent not included in another project category.

V. REQUEST FOR FINAL ALLOWANCE OF FEES AND EXPENSES

15. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the Court to award professional persons employed pursuant to section 327 reasonable compensation for actual and necessary services rendered and reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 327 and 330. As more fully stated below, Dykema submits that the elements governing awards of compensation pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code justify the allowance of the fees and expenses incurred in its representation of the Committee during the Application Period.

16. In 1974, the Fifth Circuit established a set of guidelines for use by lower courts when ruling on attorneys' fee requests. See Johnson v. Ga. Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714, 717-19 (5th Cir. 1974). The Johnson court found the following factors necessary to consider:

a. the time and labor required;
b. the novelty and difficulty of the questions presented;
c. the skill requisite to perform the legal services properly;
d. the preclusion of other employment due to the acceptance of the case;
e. the customary fee;
f. whether the fee is fixed or contingent;
g. time limitations imposed by the client with the circumstances of the case;
h. the amount involved and the results obtained;
i. the experience, reputation and ability of the attorney;
j. the undesirability of the case;
k. the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and
l. awards in similar cases.

Id.

17. In In re First Colonial Corporation of America, 544 F.2d 1291, 1298-99 (5th Cir. 1977), cert. denied, 431 U.S. 904 (1977), the Fifth Circuit applied the Johnson factors to the analysis of fee awards in bankruptcy cases.

18. As analyzed below, Dykema believes that the elements governing awards of compensation justify the allowance prayed for herein.

A. Time and Labor Required

19. As more specifically described in the Application, at total of 46.0 hours of professional services were rendered by Dykema on behalf of the Committee during the Application Period. Dykema respectfully submits that its time spent performing services for the Committee was reasonable.

20. Dykema's representation of the Committee has required it to balance the need to provide quality services with the need to act quickly and to represent the Committee in an effective, efficient, and timely manner. Dykema submits that the hours spent were reasonable given the size and complexity of these Cases, the significant (and often times urgent) issues raised, and the numerous pleadings filed in these cases. All of the services performed were performed in good faith and necessary to assist the Committee in fulfilling its duties through these Cases in an expeditious and efficient manner.

B. Novelty and Difficulty of Questions Presented

21. These Cases involve a significant number of novel issues, especially regarding tariff and tax refunds, duty drawback, intellectual property, and industry specific issues. During these Cases, Dykema provided assistance to the Committee and worked closely with the Debtors on each of these issues, among others, in order to assist the Debtors with working toward a recovery for unsecured creditors and a successful sale process.

C. Skill Requisite to Perform the Legal Services Properly

22. Due to the nature and complexity of the legal issues presented in these cases, a high degree of legal skill related to bankruptcy law and other issues was required by Dykema in representing the Committee. These skills exceeded those of the average practitioner because they included, among others, finance, restructuring, and litigation skills. Dykema believes that its attorneys have been used effectively and efficiently to meet the requirements of the tasks assigned, and have benefited the Debtors, their estates, and parties in interest during the Application Period, as discussed above.

D. Preclusion of Other Employment

23. Although Dykema's representation of the Committee often involved matters that were time-critical and required substantial efforts, Dykema's representation of the Committee did not materially preclude Dykema from accepting other engagements. However, when working on these Cases at any given time, Dykema's professionals and paraprofessionals necessarily could not be working on other matters.

E. Customary Fee

24. The rates charged by Dykema in these Cases are similar to the rates charged by Dykema in other Cases previously and currently pending before bankruptcy courts in this and other districts.

F. Whether the Fee is Fixed or Contingent

25. The fees requested in this Application represent fees incurred based upon a fixed hourly rate basis. As is true for counsel in every bankruptcy case, Dykema's compensation is contingent upon the Court's final allowance of all requested fees.

G. Time Limitations

26. Dykema provided capable legal representation in good faith and in the best interests of the Committee within the time limitations imposed under the unique circumstances of these Cases, the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Bankruptcy Rules, and counsel for various parties in interest. During these Cases, there were numerous instances in which it was necessary for Dykema to deliver services on very short notice and under significant time constraints.

H. Amounts Involved and Results Obtained

27. Dykema has requested final approval of the total amount of $26,082.60 for this Application. Dykema has played an active and constructive role in advancing these cases. Committee counsel has also been actively engaged with the Debtors, their advisors, and key stakeholders to help maximize value through the sale process and ensure that asset recoveries are optimized for the benefit of creditors. Committee counsel was ultimately instrumental in a global deal that allowed for the sale process to proceed.

I. Experience, Reputation and Ability of Counsel

28. As demonstrated in the Application to Employ, each of Dykema's attorneys who performed services possesses a reputation for skill, quality, integrity, and ability. Dykema's attorneys have represented numerous debtors, banks, creditors, bidders for estate assets, trustees, and official committees in some of the largest and most sophisticated bankruptcy cases in the country.

J. Undesirability of the Cases

29. These Cases are not undesirable.

K. Nature and Length of the Professional Relationship

30. Dykema has represented the Committee since its formation, and that relationship continues to date.

L. Awards in Similar Cases

31. The fees and expenses for which Dykema seeks compensation and reimbursement are not excessive and are substantially similar to or below the rates awarded in similar cases in this district for similar services rendered and results obtained.

VI. SECTION 504(B) COMPLIANCE

32. No agreement or understanding exists between Dykema and any third person for the sharing of compensation, except as allowed by section 504(b) and Bankruptcy Rule 2016 with respect to sharing of compensation between and amongst shareholders at Dykema.

33. All services for which compensation is requested hereunder were rendered at the request of and solely on behalf of the Committee and not on behalf of any other entity.

VII. NOTICE

34. Notice of this Application will be provided in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Interim Compensation Order.

VIII. CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Dykema respectfully requests that the Court enter an order, in substantially the form attached hereto, allowing final compensation of fees in the total amount of $25,628.00 and reimbursement of expenses in the total amount of $454.60 for the Application Period set forth herein.

amounts, in connection with its previously delivered Monthly Fee Statements and (ii) the Dykema Invoice as set forth as follows:

14. Although every effort has been made to include all fees and expenses incurred during the Application Period, some fees and expenses might not be included in this Application due to delays caused by accounting and processing during the Application Period. Dykema reserves the right to make further application to the Court for allowance of such fees and expenses not included herein. Subsequent fee applications will be filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the Procedures and the Interim Compensation Order.

IV. SUMMARY OF SERVICES PROVIDED

15. During the Application Period, Dykema provided complex and intricate services to the Committee, including:

a. Asset Disposition (2.60 hours). Among other things, Dykema communicated with the Debtors team and co-counsel to the Committee regarding the sale of certain assets.

b. Fee/Employment Applications (11.70 hours). Among other things, Dykema reviewed information to determine disclosures required for Porzio's retention application; coordinated with Dykema's in drafting Dykema's retention application and the Committee's financial advisor's retention application; reviewed the Debtors' counsel, financial advisor, and investment banker retention applications and drafted summaries of fee structures; prepared monthly fee statements.

c. Meetings and Communications with Creditors (1.50 hours). Among other things, Dykema participated in meetings with the Committee.

d. Case Administration (4.40 hours). These fees include time spent by Dykema attorneys providing services in connection with the day-to-day administrative and other miscellaneous tasks not covered by other categories including, among other things, (i) review and analyzing the Debtors' schedules and statements of financial affairs, monthly operating reports, and other filings, (ii) reviewing communications, filings, and notices regarding events in the Cases, (iii) coordination and communications among Dykema, the Debtors' professionals, and other parties in these Cases, (iv) preparing various administrative filings to the extent not included in other categories, (v) addressing requests from the U.S. Trustee, and (vi) preparing, finalizing, and serving various pleadings and other documents file with the Court.

e. Asset Analysis and Recovery (1.90 hours). Specifically, Dykema spent time on, among other things discussing (i) the value from the sale of certain assets, (ii) strategy for duty buy back, and (iii) issues with the sale of certain assets.

f. Other Contested Matters (0.70 hours). These fees included time spent by Dykema attorneys on matters related to, among other things, (i) the Committee's 2004 Notice, and (ii) preparing for and attending numerous hearings related the foregoing matters, to the extent not included in another project category.

V. REQUEST FOR INTERIM ALLOWANCE OF FEES AND EXPENSES

16. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the Court to award professional persons employed pursuant to section 327 reasonable compensation for actual and necessary services rendered and reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 327 and 330. As more fully stated below, Dykema submits that the elements governing awards of compensation pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code justify the allowance of the fees and expenses incurred in its representation of the Committee during the Application Period.

17. In 1974, the Fifth Circuit established a set of guidelines for use by lower courts when ruling on attorneys' fee requests. See Johnson v. Ga. Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714, 717-19 (5th Cir. 1974). The Johnson court found the following factors necessary to consider:

a. the time and labor required;

b. the novelty and difficulty of the questions presented;
c. the skill requisite to perform the legal services properly;
d. the preclusion of other employment due to the acceptance of the case;
e. the customary fee;
f. whether the fee is fixed or contingent;
g. time limitations imposed by the client with the circumstances of the case;
h. the amount involved and the results obtained;
i. the experience, reputation and ability of the attorney;
j. the undesirability of the case;
k. the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and
l. awards in similar cases.

Id.

18. In In re First Colonial Corporation of America, 544 F.2d 1291, 1298-99 (5th Cir. 1977), cert. denied, 431 U.S. 904 (1977), the Fifth Circuit applied the Johnson factors to the analysis of fee awards in bankruptcy cases.

19. As analyzed below, Dykema believes that the elements governing awards of compensation justify the allowance prayed for herein.

A. Time and Labor Required

20. As more specifically described in the Application, at total of 15.80 hours of professional services were rendered by Dykema on behalf of the Committee during the Application Period. Dykema respectfully submits that its time spent performing services for the Committee was reasonable.

21. Dykema's representation of the Committee has required it to balance the need to provide quality services with the need to act quickly and to represent the Committee in an effective, efficient, and timely manner. Dykema submits that the hours spent were reasonable given the size and complexity of these Chapter 11 Cases, the significant (and often times urgent) issues raised, and the numerous pleadings filed in these cases. All of the services performed were performed in good faith and necessary to assist the Committee in fulfilling its duties through these Chapter 11 Cases in an expeditious and efficient manner.

B. Novelty and Difficulty of Questions Presented

22. These Chapter 11 Cases involve a significant number of novel issues, especially regarding tariff and tax refunds, duty drawback, intellectual property, and industry specific issues. During these Chapter 11 Cases, Dykema provided assistance to the Committee and worked closely with the Debtors on each of these issues, among others, in order to assist the Debtors with working toward a recovery for unsecured creditors and a successful sale process.

C. Skill Requisite to Perform the Legal Services Properly

23. Due to the nature and complexity of the legal issues presented in these cases, a high degree of legal skill related to bankruptcy law and other issues was required by Dykema in representing the Committee. These skills exceeded those of the average practitioner because they included, among others, finance, restructuring, and litigation skills. Dykema believes that its attorneys have been used effectively and efficiently to meet the requirements of the tasks assigned, and have benefited the Debtors, their estates, and parties in interest during the Application Period, as discussed above.

D. Preclusion of Other Employment

24. Although Dykema's representation of the Committee often involved matters that were time-critical and required substantial efforts, Dykema's representation of the Committee did not materially preclude Dykema from accepting other engagements. However, when working on these Chapter 11 Cases at any given time, Dykema's professionals and paraprofessionals necessarily could not be working on other matters.

E. Customary Fee

25. The rates charged by Dykema in these Chapter 11 Cases are similar to the rates charged by Dykema in other Chapter 11 Cases previously and currently pending before bankruptcy courts in this and other districts.

F. Whether the Fee is Fixed or Contingent

26. The fees requested in this Application represent fees incurred based upon a fixed hourly rate basis. As is true for counsel in every bankruptcy case, Dykema's compensation is contingent upon the Court's final allowance of all requested fees.

G. Time Limitations

27. Dykema provided capable legal representation in good faith and in the best interests of the Committee within the time limitations imposed under the unique circumstances of these Chapter 11 Cases, the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Bankruptcy Rules, and counsel for various parties in interest. During these Chapter 11 Cases, there were numerous instances in which it was necessary for Dykema to deliver services on very short notice and under significant time constraints.

H. Amounts Involved and Results Obtained

28. Dykema has requested a total amount of $11,685.90 for this Application. Dykema has played an active and constructive role in advancing these cases. Committee counsel has also been actively engaged with the Debtors, their advisors, and key stakeholders to help maximize value through the sale process and ensure that asset recoveries are optimized for the benefit of creditors. Committee counsel was ultimately instrumental in a global deal that allowed for the sale process to proceed.

I. Experience, Reputation and Ability of Counsel

29. As demonstrated in the Application to Employ, each of Dykema's attorneys who performed services possesses a reputation for skill, quality, integrity, and ability. Dykema's attorneys have represented numerous debtors, banks, creditors, bidders for estate assets, trustees, and official committees in some of the largest and most sophisticated bankruptcy cases in the country.

J. Undesirability of the Cases

30. These Chapter 11 Cases are not undesirable.

K. Nature and Length of the Professional Relationship

31. Dykema has represented the Committee since its formation, and that relationship continues to date.

L. Awards in Similar Cases

32. The fees and expenses for which Dykema seeks compensation and reimbursement are not excessive and are substantially similar to or below the rates awarded in similar cases in this district for similar services rendered and results obtained.

VI. SECTION 504(B) COMPLIANCE

33. No agreement or understanding exists between Dykema and any third person for the sharing of compensation, except as allowed by section 504(b) and Bankruptcy Rule 2016 with respect to sharing of compensation between and amongst shareholders at Dykema.

34. All services for which compensation is requested hereunder were rendered at the request of and solely on behalf of the Committee and not on behalf of any other entity.

VII. NOTICE

35. Notice of this Application will be provided in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Interim Compensation Order.

VIII. CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Dykema respectfully requests that the Court enter an order, in substantially the form attached hereto, allowing interim compensation and reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $9,342.90 for the Application Period set forth herein.
