ASCEND ELEMENTS, INC.

ADDENDUM TO PROOF OF CLAIM OF
COLLIERS INTERNATIONAL NEW ENGLAND, LLC

The claim arises pursuant to an engagement agreement between Claimant and the Debtor, whereby Claimant was to be compensated upon the disposition of the Debtor's space at 39 Jackson Road, Devens, Massachusetts "by sublease, assignment, license, recapture, release, buyout, surrender, termination, cancellation or otherwise." Claimant identified a replacement tenant for the property, which resulted in the landlord terminating the lease in order to enter into a new lease with the tenant that Claimant identified. The termination gives rise to a commission "equal to $1.00 per SF per year of the applicable term and square footage that Ascend Elements is relieved from the current lease obligation."

The engagement agreement is dated May 20, 2024 and provides for a term of one year with an extension of up to one additional year. The agreement was in full force and effect when the landlord terminated the lease on December 22, 2025, relieving the Debtor of 10.5 years of rent. At 101,383 square feet, the Debtor owes Claimant $1,064,521.50, calculated as follows:

101,383 SQFT * 10.5 Years Relieved * $1/sf = $1,064,521.50

Attached are the following documents:

Exhibit A – Invoice from Claimant to the Debtor
Exhibit B – Engagement agreement
Exhibit C – Email from the Debtor confirming termination of lease

Team,
We just caught up with the brokers and the update is the legal side continues to move very quickly. They had a 2+ hour principal to principal call this past Friday and they got the redraft from KSP last night. They are progressing to where they are likely in position to sign at some point over "the next couple of days." Vulcan Forms continues to maintain that they prefer 39 Jackson but will not wait on the uncertainty in order to not miss the date for their client and plan to plug in 75 Jackson as the building unless things change in a hurry.
