FIRST SUPPLEMENTAL CURE NOTICE FOR EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES SUBJECT TO POSSIBLE ASSUMPTION AND ASSIGNMENT

On March 10, 2023, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas entered the Order Approving the Bid Procedures and Granting Related Relief (the "Bid Procedures Order") [Docket No. 208], which approves certain assumption and assignment procedures (the "Assumption and Assignment Procedures"). The Assumption and Assignment Procedures, among other things, requires the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") to file and serve an initial cure notice (the "Initial Cure Notice") of proposed cure amounts (the "Cure Amount") for executory contracts and real property leases potentially subject to assumption and assignment in connection with the sale of the Debtors' assets to a Winning Bidder(s)[2] to be identified at the conclusion of the auction of the Debtors' assets. The Initial Cure Notice was filed with the Court on April 11, 2023 [Docket No. 361]. The Assumption and Assignment Procedures also provide that the Debtors may file supplemental cure notices (the "First Supplemental Cure Notice"). This First Supplemental Cure Notice is solely for the purpose of resolving issues related to Cure Amounts. The Cure Amounts relate solely to amounts due and owing as of the date of this First Supplemental Cure Notice.

Cure Amounts. Attached hereto as Schedule 1 and Schedule 2 are schedules of unexpired leases and executory contracts, respectively, that may be included as part of the sale of the Debtors' assets, as proposed in the Bid Procedures Order, and the proposed Cure Amount for each.[3]

Cure Objection Deadline. Any objections to the Cure Amount listed in this First Supplemental Cure Notice or the potential assumption and assignment to a potential Winning Bidder (except for objections to adequate assurance of future performance) must be filed with the

[3] For the avoidance of doubt, the inclusion or exclusion of an unexpired lease or executory contract from this First Supplemental Cure Notice does not guarantee that the relevant agreement will be assumed, assumed and assigned, or rejected by the Debtors. Additional contracts may be identified through a later filed supplemental cure list as set forth in the Assumption and Assignment Procedures.

Cure Objection. Any objection to the Cure Amount must: (i) be in writing; (ii) comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, Bankruptcy Local Rules, and any order governing the administration of these chapter 11 cases; (iii) be filed on or before the Cure Objection Deadline, (a) with the Clerk of the Court, by electronic submission through PACER (Public Access to Court Electronic Records at https://ecf.txsb.uscourts.gov), or if submitted through non-electronic means, by U.S. Mail or (b) other hand delivery system at the following address: United States Bankruptcy Court, 515 Rusk Street, #5300, Houston, TX 77002; (iv) be served, so as to be actually received on or before the Cure Objection Deadline, upon the Objection Notice Parties[4] by email; and (v) state with specificity the legal and factual grounds for such objection, including, without limitation, the Cure Amounts the Counterparty believes is required to cure defaults under the relevant Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases (the "Cure Objection"). If no objection is timely received, the Cure Amount set forth in this First Supplemental Cure Notice shall be controlling notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any executory contract, unexpired lease, or other document as of the date of this First Supplemental Cure Notice; the non-debtor party to the executory contract or unexpired lease shall be deemed to have stipulated that the Cure Amount set forth in this First Supplemental Cure Notice is correct; the non-debtor party shall be forever barred, estopped and enjoined from asserting or claiming that any additional amounts are due or other defaults exist, that conditions to assignment must be satisfied under such contract or lease or that there is any objection or defense to the assumption and assignment of such contract or lease, including any argument that there exist conditions to assumption and assignment that must be satisfied under such contract or lease or that any required consent to assignment has not been given.

Dispute Resolution. To the extent the parties are unable to consensually resolve a timely filed Cure Objection, such objection may be heard in conjunction with the Sale Hearing (defined below) or at such later date and time as may be determined by the Debtors or Court.

Disclaimer. For the avoidance of doubt, the inclusion of an unexpired lease on Schedule 1 or executory contract on Schedule 2 to this First Supplemental Cure Notice, or any subsequent cure notice, shall not obligate the Debtors to assume and assign any unexpired lease or executory contract listed thereon or indicate that the unexpired lease or executory contract will be designated as a Designated Contract that will be assumed at any point by the Debtors or assumed and assigned pursuant to any Winning Bid. Only those contracts that are included on a schedule of assumed and acquired contracts attached to definitive documentation in the Sale, approved by the Sale Order, will be assumed and assigned. If an executory contract or unexpired lease is designated as a Designated Contract by the Winning Bidder, then unless a counterparty properly and timely files and serves a Cure Objection pursuant to this First Supplemental Cure Notice, or any subsequent cure notice, the counterparty will receive payment from the Winning Bidder of the Cure Amount (if any) as set forth in this First Supplemental Cure Notice consistent with the terms and procedures set forth in the Winning Bidder's asset purchase agreement. Service of this First Supplemental Cure Notice, or any subsequent cure notice, does not constitute any admission or agreement of the Debtors that the unexpired leases on Schedule 1 or executory contracts listed on Schedule 2 are executory contracts or unexpired leases within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code (all rights with respect thereto being expressly reserved).

Supplemental Cure Notices. The Debtors may serve additional Supplemental Cure Notices after this First Supplemental Cure Notice in accordance with the Assumption and Assignment Procedures.
