MOTION TO WITHDRAW INDIVIDUAL ATTORNEY AND TO DESIGNATE SUBSTITUTE LEAD COUNSEL

The law firm of Carruthers & Roth, P.A., counsel of record for ECS Southeast, LLC, a creditor in the above-captioned matter, moves this Court for an Order allowing the withdrawal of Trisha L. Barfield as an individual attorney of record, and in support shows the Court the following:

1. Carruthers & Roth, P.A. (the "Firm") is, and remains, the counsel of record for Creditor ECS Southeast, LLC (the "Client") in the above-captioned matter.

2. Trisha L. Barfield ("Mrs. Barfield"), an attorney previously employed by the Firm who was counsel of record for this case, voluntarily departed from the firm effective August 14, 2026.

3. The Client's legal representation remains with the Firm. The Client has been notified of Mrs. Barfield's departure and has consented to continued representation by the Firm.

4. Rachel S. Decker, a licensed North Carolina attorney, in good standing, and a member of the Firm, has been assigned to assume primary responsibility for this case and is designated as substitute lead counsel of record for the Client in this case.

5. This withdrawal and substitution of individual counsel will not result in any delay of the proceedings, nor will it cause any prejudice to the Client or any other party to this action.

WHEREFORE, Carruthers & Roth, P.A., requests the Court enter an Order allowing Trisha L. Barfield to withdraw as individual counsel of record, and formally designate Rachel S. Decker, as substitute lead counsel for Creditor ECS Southeast, LLC in this case.

This 1st day of September, 2026.
