MOTION OF DEBTORS FOR ENTRY OF ORDERS ESTABLISHING
NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES AND APPROVING RESTRICTIONS ON CERTAIN TRANSFERS OF INTERESTS IN AND CLAIMS AGAINST THE DEBTOR

Briggs & Stratton Corporation and its debtor affiliates in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases, as debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), respectfully represent as follows in support of this motion (the “Motion”):

Background

1. On the date hereof (the “Petition Date”), the Debtors each commenced with this Court a voluntary case under title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”). The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their business and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or statutory committee of creditors has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors have also filed a motion requesting joint administration of their chapter 11 cases pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”) and

Rule 1015(b) of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure for the Eastern District of Missouri (the “Local Rules”).

2. The Debtors, combined with their non-Debtor affiliates (collectively, the “Company”), are the world’s largest producer of gasoline engines for outdoor power equipment and a leading designer, manufacturer and marketer of power generation, pressure washer, lawn and garden, turf care and job site products. The Company’s products are marketed and serviced in more than 100 countries on six continents through 40,000 authorized dealers and service organizations. Additional information regarding the Debtors’ business and capital structure and the circumstances leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases is set forth in the Declaration of Jeffrey Ficks, Financial Advisor of Briggs & Stratton Corporation, in Support of the Debtors’ Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief, sworn to on the date hereof (the “Ficks Declaration”),² which has been filed with the Court contemporaneously herewith and is incorporated by reference herein.

Jurisdiction

3. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Relief Requested

4. By this Motion, the Debtors seek entry of an interim order (the “Proposed Interim Order”) and, pending a final hearing on the relief requested herein, a final order (the “Proposed Final Order”) and, together with the Proposed Interim Order, the “Proposed

² Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Ficks Declaration. All dollar ($) references in this Motion are to the U.S. dollar, unless stated otherwise.

Orders”),³ pursuant to sections 105(a) and 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, authorizing the Debtors to establish procedures (the “Procedures,” including the Stock Procedures and the Claims Procedures, each as defined below) to protect the potential value of the Debtors’ carryforwards of disallowed business interest expense, carryovers of unused general business credits (including research credits), consolidated federal net operating losses (“NOLs”), carryovers of unused foreign tax credits, and certain other tax benefits (including tax basis in excess of liabilities, so-called “Built-In Losses”) (collectively, the “Tax Attributes”).

5. For purposes of the Proposed Orders, the Procedures would apply to the beneficial ownership (including direct and indirect ownership) of the common stock of Briggs & Stratton Corporation (the “Common Stock”) and any options or similar rights (within the meaning of applicable Treasury Regulations, as defined herein) to acquire such stock (the “Options”). In addition, for purposes of the Proposed Final Order (but not the Proposed Interim Order), the Procedures also would apply to the beneficial ownership (including direct and indirect ownership) of prepetition claims (as defined more specifically below, the “Claims”) against one or more of the Debtors, under certain circumstances. The Debtors request that the Court enter the Proposed Orders granting the relief requested herein, effective as of the Petition Date.

Debtors’ Tax Attributes

6. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors’ Tax Attributes include approximately $82 million in consolidated federal disallowed business interest expense carryforwards, approximately $28 million in unused general business credit carryovers, approximately $17 million in consolidated federal NOLs, a significant amount of Built-In Losses, and certain other Tax Attributes.⁴ The Tax Attributes are valuable assets of the Debtors' estates.

7. Title 26 of the United States Code (the "Tax Code") generally permits a corporation to carry forward (to the extent not carried back) its NOLs and tax credits to reduce future taxable income and taxes, thereby reducing such corporation's tax liability in future periods. See, e.g., 26 U.S.C. §§ 39, 163(j), 172, and 904(c). Accordingly, absent any intervening limitations and depending on future operating results, the Tax Attributes are valuable assets that could reduce the Debtors' U.S. federal income tax liability for current and future periods, including during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases, in connection with the implementation of the Debtors' chapter 11 plan, and in taxable years thereafter. The Tax Attributes, therefore, could translate into future tax savings over time that enhance the Debtors' cash position for the benefit of all parties in interest.

8. The Debtors' ability to utilize the Tax Attributes to reduce future tax liability is subject to certain potential statutory limitations. Sections 382 and 383 of the Tax Code limit a corporation's ability to utilize its NOLs, tax credits, and certain other tax benefits to offset future income or tax liability once that corporation has undergone an "ownership change" within the meaning of section 382 of the Tax Code (an "Ownership Change"). These limitations also can apply to the use of certain of the Built-In Losses recognized after an Ownership Change.⁵ Pursuant to section 382 of the Tax Code, an Ownership Change generally occurs when the percentage of a corporation's equity held by one or more of its "5-percent shareholders" (each, as that term is used in section 382 of the Tax Code, a “5-Percent Shareholder”) increases by more than fifty (50) percentage points above the lowest percentage of the corporation’s equity owned by such shareholder(s) at any time during the relevant testing period (usually three years). See id. § 382(g).

⁵ Section 382 of the Tax Code generally applies the same limitation to pre-change economic losses recognized prior to the Ownership Change (in the form of an NOL or deferred interest carryforward) and an economic loss attributable to the pre-change period that is recognized for a period of time subsequent to the Ownership Change (in the form of a recognized Built-In Loss).

9. The Debtors do not believe that Briggs & Stratton Corporation has undergone an Ownership Change prior to the Petition Date. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that they have Tax Attributes that would be adversely affected by the occurrence of an Ownership Change during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases. If such an Ownership Change were to occur, the availability and value of such Tax Attributes would be adversely impacted. Therefore, it is in the best interests of the Debtors and their stakeholders to restrict transfers of the beneficial ownership of Common Stock that could result in an Ownership Change occurring before the effective date of a chapter 11 plan or any applicable bankruptcy court order. Such a restriction would protect the Debtors’ ability to use the Tax Attributes during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases, in connection with a reorganization transaction, or, potentially, in the event of a future transaction, to offset gain or other income recognized in connection with the Debtors’ sale or ownership of their assets, or, potentially, in taxable years following the effective date of a chapter 11 plan.

10. Although (as described below) the limitations imposed by section 382 of the Tax Code may be significantly less restrictive when an Ownership Change occurs pursuant to a confirmed chapter 11 plan (or any applicable bankruptcy court order), the benefits available under section 382 of the Tax Code in connection with a confirmed chapter 11 plan (or any applicable bankruptcy court order) are not applied retroactively to reduce the limitations imposed on a corporation’s ability to utilize its tax benefits resulting from a previous Ownership Change

(such as an Ownership Change occurring during the pendency of a chapter 11 case). See, e.g., id. § 382(l)(5), (6). Accordingly, pursuant to this Motion, the Debtors seek to put in place in the Proposed Orders procedures to monitor and potentially restrict acquisitions, dispositions, and trading with respect to the beneficial ownership (including direct and indirect ownership) of the Common Stock and Options to acquire beneficial ownership of the Common Stock.

11. A chapter 11 plan that contemplates a reorganization of the Debtors may involve the issuance of new common stock in Briggs & Stratton Corporation (or any successor to Briggs & Stratton Corporation) and the distribution of such stock to certain creditors on account, in whole or in part, of their respective Claims. Such an issuance and distribution could also potentially result in an Ownership Change. In such event, it is possible that the special relief afforded by section 382(l)(5) of the Tax Code could be both available and beneficial to the Debtors; the Debtors, in that circumstance, may seek to qualify the restructuring for such relief. Such relief, however, may become unavailable to the Debtors if certain procedures relating to the trading and accumulation of certain Claims after the Petition Date and prior to the effective date of a chapter 11 plan are not effective as of the Petition Date. Accordingly, the Debtors also seek in the Proposed Final Order to establish procedures to monitor and potentially restrict the trading and accumulation of Claims against the Debtors.

Proposed Procedures Relating to Common Stock

12. By establishing the following procedures for monitoring transfers of any direct or indirect interest in Common Stock (including Options to acquire beneficial ownership of Common Stock) (the “Stock Procedures”), the Debtors can preserve their ability to seek necessary relief if it appears that any such transfer(s) may impair the Debtors’ ability to utilize their Tax Attributes. Therefore, the Debtors propose the following Stock Procedures that would become effective upon the entry of the Proposed Interim Order:

(a) Definitions. For purposes of these Stock Procedures, the following terms have the following meanings:

(i) “Common Stock” shall mean any common stock issued by Briggs & Stratton Corporation.

(ii) “Option” shall mean any contingent purchase, warrant, convertible debt, put, stock subject to risk of forfeiture, contract to acquire stock, or similar interest regardless of whether it is contingent, subject to vesting or otherwise not currently exercisable.

(iii) “Beneficial ownership” of Common Stock and Options to acquire Common Stock shall be determined in accordance with section 382 of the Tax Code, the regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of the Treasury under the Tax Code (the “Treasury Regulations”), rulings issued by the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”), and the rules described herein, and thus shall include, without limitation, (A) direct and indirect ownership, determined without regard to any rule that treats stock of an entity as to which the constructive ownership rules apply as no longer owned by that entity (e.g., a holding company would be considered to beneficially own all stock owned or acquired by its subsidiaries), (B) ownership by a holder’s family members, (C) ownership by any group of persons acting pursuant to a formal or informal understanding among themselves to make a coordinated acquisition of stock, and (D) to the extent set forth in Treasury Regulations section 1.382-4, the ownership of an Option to acquire beneficial ownership of Common Stock.

(iv) “Entity” shall mean any “entity” as such term is defined in Treasury Regulations section 1.382-3(a), including a group of persons who have a formal or informal understanding among themselves to make a coordinated acquisition of stock.

(v) “Substantial Stockholder” shall mean any Entity or person that beneficially owns at least 1,980,000 shares of Common Stock (representing approximately 4.7% of all issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock as of June 30, 2020).

(b) Notice of Substantial Ownership. Any person or Entity that beneficially owns, at any time on or after the Petition Date, Common Stock in an amount sufficient to qualify such person or Entity as a Substantial Stockholder shall file with this Court and serve upon (i) Briggs & Stratton Corporation, 12301 West Wirth Street, Wauwatosa, Wisconsin 53222 (Attn: Kathryn M. Buono, Esq.); (ii) proposed attorneys for the Debtors, (x) Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, 767 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10153 (Attn: Debora A. Hoehne, Esq., and Martha E. Martir, Esq.); and (y) Carmody MacDonald P.C., 120 S. Central Avenue, Suite 1800, St. Louis, Missouri 63105 (Attn: Robert E. Eggmann, Esq. and Christopher J. Lawhorn, Esq.); and (iii) Office of the United States Trustee for the Eastern District of Missouri, 111 South 10th Street, Suite 6.353, St. Louis, Missouri 63102 (Attn: Sirena T. Wilson, Esq.), (collectively, the “Disclosure Parties”) a notice of such person’s or Entity’s substantial ownership (a “Substantial Stock Ownership Notice”), in substantially the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A1 (in the case of the Proposed Interim Order) and Exhibit A2 (in the case of the Proposed Final Order), which describes specifically and in detail such person's or Entity's beneficial ownership of Common Stock, on or before the date that is the later of (x) twenty (20) calendar days after the entry of the order granting the requested relief or (y) ten (10) business days after such person or Entity qualifies as a Substantial Stockholder. At the election of the Substantial Stockholder, the Substantial Stock Ownership Notice to be filed with this Court (but not the Substantial Stock Ownership Notice that is served upon the Disclosure Parties) may be redacted to exclude the Substantial Stockholder's taxpayer identification number and the amount of Common Stock that the Substantial Stockholder beneficially owns.

(c) Acquisition of Common Stock. At least twenty-five (25) calendar days prior to the proposed date of any transfer in the beneficial ownership of Common Stock (including directly or indirectly, and including the grant or other acquisition of Options to acquire beneficial ownership of Common Stock) or exercise of any Option to acquire beneficial ownership of Common Stock that would result in an increase in the amount of Common Stock beneficially owned by any person or Entity that currently is or, as a result of the proposed transaction, would be a Substantial Stockholder (a "Proposed Acquisition Transaction"), such acquiring or increasing person or Entity or Substantial Stockholder (a "Proposed Transferee") shall file with this Court and serve upon the Disclosure Parties a notice of such Proposed Transferee's intent to purchase, acquire, or otherwise accumulate beneficial ownership of Common Stock (an "Acquisition Notice"), in substantially the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A3 (in the case of the Proposed Interim Order) and Exhibit A4 (in the case of the Proposed Final Order), which describes specifically and in detail the Proposed Acquisition Transaction. At the election of the Proposed Transferee, the Acquisition Notice to be filed with this Court (but not the Acquisition Notice that is served upon the Disclosure Parties) may be redacted to exclude the Proposed Transferee's taxpayer identification number and the amount of Common Stock that the Proposed Transferee beneficially owns.

(d) Disposition of Common Stock. At least twenty-five (25) calendar days prior to the proposed date of any transfer or other disposition in the beneficial ownership of Common Stock (including directly and indirectly, and Options to acquire beneficial ownership of Common Stock) that would result in either a decrease in the amount of Common Stock beneficially owned by a Substantial Stockholder or a person or Entity ceasing to be a Substantial Stockholder (a "Proposed Disposition Transaction" and, together with a Proposed Acquisition Transaction, a "Proposed Transaction"), such selling or decreasing person or Entity or Substantial Stockholder (a "Proposed Transferor") shall file with this Court and serve upon the Disclosure Parties a notice of such Proposed Transferor's intent to sell, trade, or otherwise transfer beneficial ownership of Common Stock (a "Disposition Notice" and, together with an Acquisition Notice, a "Trading Notice"), in substantially the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A5 (in the case of the Proposed Interim Order) and Exhibit A6 (in the case of the Proposed Final Order), which describes specifically and in detail the Proposed Disposition Transaction. At the election of the Proposed Transferor, the Disposition Notice to be filed with this Court (but not the Disposition Notice that is served upon the Disclosure Parties) may be redacted to exclude the Proposed Transferor's taxpayer identification number and the amount of Common Stock that the Proposed Transferor beneficially owns.

(e) Objection Procedures. The Debtors shall have twenty-one (21) calendar days after the filing of a Trading Notice (the “Objection Period”) to file with this Court and serve on a Proposed Transferee or a Proposed Transferor, as the case may be, an objection (each, an “Objection”) to any Proposed Transaction described in such Trading Notice. If the Debtors file an Objection by the expiration of the Objection Period (the “Objection Deadline”), then the applicable Proposed Transaction shall not be effective unless approved by a final and nonappealable order of this Court. If the Debtors do not file an Objection by the Objection Deadline or if the Debtors provide written authorization to the Proposed Transferee or the Proposed Transferor, as the case may be, approving the Proposed Transaction prior to the Objection Deadline, then such Proposed Transaction may proceed solely as specifically described in the applicable Trading Notice. Any further Proposed Transaction must be the subject of an additional Trading Notice and Objection Period.

(f) Noncompliance with the Procedures. Any acquisition, disposition, or trading in the beneficial ownership of Common Stock (including directly and indirectly, and Options to acquire beneficial ownership of Common Stock) in violation of the Procedures shall be null and void ab initio pursuant to the Bankruptcy Court’s equitable powers under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and an act in violation of the automatic stay under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code. Furthermore, any person or Entity that acquires, disposes of, or trades in the beneficial ownership of Common Stock (including directly and indirectly, and Options to acquire beneficial ownership of Common Stock) in violation of the Procedures shall be subject to sanctions as provided by law.

(g) Debtors’ Right to Waive. The Debtors may, in their sole discretion, waive, in writing, any and all restrictions, stays, and notification requirements contained in the procedures.

Proposed Procedures Relating to Claims

13. By establishing Procedures described below with respect to Claims (the “Claims Procedures”), the Debtors can preserve their ability to determine and, if applicable, preserve the availability of the special relief afforded by section 382(l)(5) of the Tax Code. Therefore, the Debtors propose the Claims Procedures to become effective as of the Petition Date upon entry of the Proposed Final Order.

14. As described in further detail below, the Claims Procedures would permit the full trading of Claims until the Debtors or another Plan Proponent (as hereinafter defined) file a chapter 11 plan of reorganization (or any amendment thereof) or otherwise file notice with the Court to indicate that the Debtors are contemplating the potential utilization of section 382(l)(5) of the Tax Code, at which point, the described procedures would apply, and would permit, if necessary for the Debtors to utilize that provision, the Debtors to seek to require that a purchaser of certain Claims (after the Petition Date) resell some or all of such Claims. The Claims Procedures apply to all claims, as defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code, against any of the Debtors arising out of or relating to the period prior to the Petition Date, whether secured or unsecured (which, for the avoidance of doubt, excludes any claims under or in connection with the Debtors' proposed debtor in possession financing facility). The following are certain principal provisions of the proposed Claims Procedures:⁶

(a) Disclosure of 382(l)(5) Plan. If the proponent of a Plan (a "Plan Proponent") determines that the reorganized Debtors likely will qualify for and benefit from the application of section 382(l)(5) of the Tax Code and reasonably anticipates that the reorganized Debtors (or any successors thereto) (the "Post-Emergence Briggs & Stratton") will invoke such section (a "382(l)(5) Plan"), then the Plan Proponent, in proposing a 382(l)(5) Plan, shall disclose the following in a disclosure statement or, in the case of items (iii) through (v) described below, a later, separate notice (collectively, the "Proposed 382(l)(5) Disclosure Statement"):

(i) Adequate information about the incremental tax benefits anticipated to be realized through the use of section 382(l)(5) of the Tax Code that, taking into account the Debtors' anticipated net unrealized built-in gains or net unrealized built-in losses, would not otherwise be available;

(ii) A summary of any restrictions expected to be imposed on the transferability of securities issued under the Plan in order to preserve such incremental tax benefits;

(iii) The (A) dollar amount of Claims (by class or other applicable classification) expected to result in a one-percent (1%) interest in the equity of Post-Emergence Briggs & Stratton (the "New Stock") and (B) number of any specified interests (the "Owned Interests") in the Debtors, including but not necessarily limited to Common Stock, expected to result in a one-percent (1%) interest in the New Stock, in each case based upon then-available information;

(iv) A specified date (the "Determination Date") that is not less than ten (10) calendar days after the service of the notice of the hearing with respect to the Proposed 382(l)(5) Disclosure Statement; and

(v) A specified date (the "Reporting Deadline") that is not less than five (5) calendar days after the Determination Date, by which persons or Entities (as such term is defined in the Stock Procedures, an "Entity") must serve on various parties the "Notice of Substantial

⁶ The complete proposed Claims Procedures are set forth in Exhibit A to this Motion, and incorporated herein by reference.

Claim Ownership” (as defined in paragraph B(2)(v) of Exhibit A to this Motion) required by these Claims Procedures.

(b) Claims Trading Before and After the Determination Date.

(i) Any person or Entity generally may trade freely and make a market in Claims until the Determination Date.

(ii) After the Determination Date, any acquisition of Claims by a person or Entity who filed or is or was required to file a Notice of Substantial Claim Ownership or by a person or Entity who would be required to file a Notice of Substantial Claim Ownership as a result of the consummation of the contemplated transaction if the proposed acquisition date had been the Determination Date (each such person or Entity, a “Proposed Claims Transferee”), shall not be effective unless consummated in compliance with the Claims Procedures.

(iii) After the Determination Date, at least twenty (20) business days prior to the proposed date of any acquisition of Claims by a Proposed Claims Transferee (each acquisition, a “Proposed Claims Acquisition Transaction”), such Proposed Claims Transferee shall serve upon the Plan Proponent and its attorneys (and the Debtors and their attorneys if not the Plan Proponent) and attorneys for any statutory committees appointed in the chapter 11 cases (each, an “Official Committee”) a notice of such Proposed Claims Transferee’s request to purchase, acquire, or otherwise accumulate a Claim (a “Claims Acquisition Request”), in substantially the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A7, which describes specifically and in detail the Proposed Claims Acquisition Transaction, regardless of whether such transfer would be subject to the filing, notice, and hearing requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 3001. At the election of the Substantial Claimholder, the Claims Acquisition Request to be filed with the Court (but not the Claims Acquisition Request that is served upon the Plan Proponent and its attorneys (and the Debtors and their attorneys if not the Plan Proponent) and attorneys for any Official Committee) may be redacted to exclude the Substantial Claimholder’s taxpayer identification number.

(iv) The Plan Proponent may determine, in consultation with the Debtors (if not the Plan Proponent) and attorneys for any Official Committee, whether to approve a Claims Acquisition Request. If the Plan Proponent does not approve a Claims Acquisition Request in writing within eight (8) business days after the Claims Acquisition Request is filed with the Court, the Claims Acquisition Request shall be deemed rejected.

(c) Creditor Conduct and Sell-Downs.

(i) To permit reliance by the Debtors on Treasury Regulations section 1.382-9(d)(3), upon the entry of the Proposed Final Order, any “Substantial Claimholder” (as defined in paragraph B(1)(i) of Exhibit A to this Motion) that participates in formulating any chapter 11 plan of or on behalf of the Debtors (which shall include, without limitation, making any suggestions or proposals to the Debtors or their advisors with regard to such a Plan) shall not disclose or otherwise make evident to the Debtors that any Claims in which such Substantial Claimholder has a beneficial ownership are “Newly Traded Claims” (as defined in paragraph B(1)(m) of Exhibit A to this Motion), unless compelled to do so by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction or some other applicable legal requirement, provided, however, that the following activities shall not constitute participation in formulating a Plan if, in pursuing such activities, the Substantial Claimholder does not disclose or otherwise make evident (unless compelled to do so by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction or some other applicable legal requirement) to the Debtors that such Substantial Claimholder has beneficial ownership of Newly Traded Claims: filing an objection to a proposed disclosure statement or to confirmation of a proposed Plan; voting to accept or reject a proposed Plan; reviewing or commenting on a proposed business plan; providing information on a confidential basis to attorneys for the Debtors; holding general membership on an official committee or an ad hoc committee; or taking any action required by an order of the Court.

(ii) Following the Determination Date, if the Plan Proponent determines that certain persons or Entities must sell or transfer all or a portion of their beneficial ownership of Claims acquired on or after the Petition Date so that the requirements of section 382(l)(5) of the Tax Code will be satisfied, the Plan Proponent may file a motion with the Court for entry of an order—after notice to attorneys for the Debtors (if not the Plan Proponent), attorneys for any Official Committee and the relevant claimholder(s) and a hearing—approving the issuance of a notice (each, a “Sell-Down Notice”) that such claimholder(s) must sell, cause to sell, or otherwise transfer a specified amount of its beneficial ownership of Claims.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Motion, no claimholder shall be required to sell, cause to sell, or otherwise transfer any beneficial ownership of Claims if such sale or transfer would result in the claimholder’s beneficial ownership of an aggregate amount of Claims (by class or other applicable classification) that is less than such Substantial Claimholder’s “Protected Amount” (as defined in paragraph B(1)(o) of Exhibit A to this Motion).

(iv) Each Sell-Down Notice shall direct the claimholder to sell, cause to sell, or otherwise transfer its beneficial ownership of the amount of Claims specified in the Sell-Down Notice to “Permitted Transferees” (as defined in paragraph B(1)(n) of Exhibit A to this Motion).

(v) Any person or Entity that violates its obligations under these Claims Procedures shall be precluded from receiving, directly or indirectly, any consideration consisting of a beneficial ownership of New Stock that is attributable to the “Excess Amount” of Claims (as defined in paragraph B(5)(b) of Exhibit A to this Motion) for such person or Entity, including any consideration in lieu thereof, provided, however, that such person or Entity may be entitled to receive any other consideration to which such person or Entity may be entitled by virtue of holding Claims.

(d) Noncompliance with the Procedures. Any acquisition, disposition, or trading in the beneficial ownership of Claims against the Debtors, in violation of these Procedures shall be null and void ab initio pursuant to the Bankruptcy Court’s equitable powers under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and as an act in violation of the automatic stay under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code. Furthermore, any person or Entity that acquires, disposes of, or trades in the beneficial ownership of Claims against the Debtors, in violation of these Procedures shall be subject to sanctions as provided by law.

(e) Debtors’ Right to Waive. The Debtors may, in their sole discretion, waive, in writing, any and all restrictions, stays, and notification requirements contained in the procedures; provided, however, that after a 382(l)(5) Plan has been properly filed by a Plan Proponent (other than by, or jointly with, the Debtors) and is still actively being pursued before the Court, the consent of such Plan Proponent also shall be necessary for any subsequent waiver to be effective.

Relief Requested Should Be Granted

A. Automatic Stay Bars Any Equity Transfer that Would Diminish or Limit the Debtors' Interests in the Tax Attributes

15. In furtherance of the automatic stay provisions of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code and pursuant to section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors seek authority in the Proposed Orders to monitor and approve (or disapprove) certain changes in the beneficial ownership of Common Stock to protect against the occurrence of an Ownership Change during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases, and thereby to preserve the potential value of the Tax Attributes. The Debtors also seek in the Proposed Final Order to implement certain procedures that would provide for the monitoring of ownership of Claims, including imposing certain restrictions on transfers of Claims, and for the authorization to seek the sell-down of certain Claims acquired during these chapter 11 cases in order to preserve the Debtors' ability to avail themselves of relief under section 382(l)(5) of the Tax Code, if such relief is ultimately determined to be desirable and otherwise available.

16. Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code enjoins all entities from, among other things, taking any action to obtain possession of property of or from the estate or to exercise control over property of the estate. Section 541 of the Bankruptcy Code defines "property of the estate" to include all legal or equitable interests of a debtor in property as of the commencement date of a chapter 11 case, including tax benefits.

17. The Tax Attributes are valuable property of the Debtors' estates and thus are protected, by operation of the automatic stay, from actions that would diminish or eliminate their value, including direct or indirect transfers that would result in an Ownership Change. It is well established that a debtor's NOLs are property of the debtor's estate protected by the automatic stay. See In re Russell, 927 F.2d 413, 417 (8th Cir. 1991) ("The property interest at issue here is . . . the right to carry forward the NOLs."); Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors v. PSS S.S. Co. (In re Prudential Lines Inc.), 928 F.2d 565, 574 (2d Cir. 1991) ("[W]here a non-debtor's action with respect to an interest that is intertwined with that of a bankrupt debtor would have the legal effect of diminishing or eliminating property of the bankrupt estate, such action is barred by the automatic stay."); Nisselson v. Drew Indus., Inc. (In re White Metal Rolling & Stamping Corp.), 222 B.R. 417, 424 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998) ("It is beyond peradventure that NOL carrybacks and carryovers are property of the estate of the loss corporation that generated them."); In re Grossman's Inc., No. 97-695 (PJW), 1997 WL 33446314 (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 9, 1997). The United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, in its seminal decision, In re Prudential Lines Inc., affirmed the application of the automatic stay to a debtor's tax benefits and upheld a permanent injunction prohibiting a parent corporation from taking a worthless stock deduction that would have adversely affected the ability of the parent corporation's subsidiary to utilize its NOLs under the special relief provisions of section 382 of the Tax Code. See 928 F.2d at 573. As the Second Circuit stated:

Including NOL carryforwards as property of a corporate debtor's estate is consistent with Congress' intention to "bring anything of value that the debtors have into the estate." Moreover, . . . [i]ncluding the right to a NOL carryforward as property of [a debtor's] bankruptcy estate furthers the purpose of facilitating the reorganization of [the debtor].

Id. (quoting H.R. Rep. No. 95-595, at 176 (1978)) (citations omitted); see also Gibson v. United States (In re Russell), 927 F.2d 413, 417 (8th Cir. 1991) (concluding that the "right to carry forward the [debtor's] NOLs" was a "property interest" of the estate); In re Fruehauf Trailer Corp., 444 F.3d 203, 211 (3d Cir. 2006) ("Property of the estate 'includes all interests, such as . . . contingent interests and future interests, whether or not transferable by the debtor.” (quoting Prudential Lines, 928 F.2d at 572) (alteration in original)).

18. In Prudential Lines, the Second Circuit determined that, if the parent corporation were permitted to take a worthless stock deduction, its subsidiary’s ability to carry forward its NOLs would be adversely impacted. The Second Circuit concluded that “despite the fact that the [parent corporation’s] action [was] not directed specifically at [the debtor subsidiary], it [nonetheless was] barred by the automatic stay as an attempt to exercise control over property of the estate.” Prudential Lines, 928 F.2d at 573–574.

19. In addition to finding that a debtor’s NOLs are protected by the automatic stay, the Second Circuit also held that, pursuant to its equitable powers under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, a bankruptcy court may issue a permanent injunction to protect such NOLs. Prudential Lines, 928 F.2d at 574.

20. In In re Phar-Mor, Inc., 152 B.R. 924 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1993), the bankruptcy court applied similar reasoning and granted the debtors’ motion to prohibit transfers of their stock that could have had an adverse effect on their ability to utilize their NOLs, even though the debtors’ stockholders had not stated any intent to sell their stock and the debtors had not shown that a sale that would trigger an Ownership Change was pending. See id. at 927. Despite the “ethereal” nature of the situation, the court observed that “[w]hat is certain is that the NOL has a potential value, as yet undetermined, which will be of benefit to creditors and will assist debtors in their reorganization process. This asset is entitled to protection while [the d]ebtors move forward toward reorganization.” Id. (emphasis added).

21. The bankruptcy court in Phar-Mor also concluded that, because the debtors were seeking to enforce the automatic stay, they did not have to meet the more stringent requirements for preliminary injunctive relief:

The requirements for enforcing an automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(3) do not involve such factors as lack of an adequate remedy at law, or irreparable injury, or loss and a likelihood of success on the merits. The key elements for a stay . . . are the existence of property of the estate and the enjoining of all efforts by others to obtain possession or control of property of the estate.

Id. at 926 (quoting In re Golden Distributions, Inc., 122 B.R. 15, 19 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1990)).

22. Restrictions on equity and/or claims trading to protect a debtor against the possible loss of valuable tax attributes are regularly approved by this and other courts. See, e.g., In re Payless Holdings LLC, No. 19-040883-659 (Bankr. April 3, 2019) [Docket No. 782] (approving notification procedures and restrictions on certain transfers of equity interests in and claiming a worthless stock deduction with respect to the debtors); In re Noranda Aluminum, Inc., No. 16-10083-399 (BSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 10, 2019) [Docket No. 205] (same); In re Claire's Stores, Inc., No. 18-10584 (Bankr. D. Del. Apr. 17, 2018) [Docket No. 284] (same); In re Aéropostale, Inc., No. 16-11275 (SHL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. June 3, 2016) [Docket No. 240] (approving notification procedures and restrictions on certain transfers of equity interests in and claims against the debtors); In re SunEdison, Inc., No. 16-1992 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 12, 2016) [Docket No. 253] (approving notification procedures and restrictions on certain transfers of equity interests in the debtors); In re The Great Atl. & Pac. Tea Co., No. 15-23007 (RDD) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Aug. 11, 2015) [Docket No. 501] (approving notification procedures and restrictions on certain transfers of equity interests in and claims against the debtors); In re AMR Corp., No. 11-15463 (SHL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Jan. 27, 2012) [Docket No. 890] (same); In re NewPage Corp., No. 11-12804 (KG) (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 4, 2011) [Docket No. 307] (approving notification procedures and restrictions on certain transfers of equity interests in and claims against, and claiming a worthless stock deduction with respect to, the debtors).

23. As these cases demonstrate, it is well settled that, pursuant to section 362(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, the automatic stay enjoins actions that would adversely affect a debtor's ability to utilize its NOLs and other tax benefits.

B. The Procedures Are Necessary and in the Best Interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and their Creditors

24. The Procedures are necessary to preserve the Debtors' ability to utilize their Tax Attributes, while providing certain latitude for trading. The Debtors' ability to preserve their Tax Attributes may be jeopardized unless the Stock Procedures are established immediately and effective as of the Petition Date to ensure that trading in the beneficial ownership of Common Stock (including Options to acquire beneficial ownership of Common Stock) is either precluded or closely monitored and made subject to Court approval. Further, the Debtors' ability to implement a restructuring that qualifies under section 382(l)(5) of the Tax Code could be seriously impaired unless the Claims Procedures are established.

25. Depending on the Debtors' tax profile during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases, the extent of any gain or other income recognized in connection with the Debtors' ownership or disposition of their assets, and the consequences of any restructuring, the Debtors' ability to utilize the Tax Attributes may enhance the Debtors' prospects for a successful emergence from chapter 11. The relief requested herein is narrowly tailored to permit certain equity and Claims trading to continue, subject to applicable securities, corporate, and other laws.

26. The Debtors respectfully submit that the Procedures must be implemented as soon as possible. Even if a transfer were to be null and void under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code or as a result of a final order of the Court that prohibited such a transfer retroactively to the Petition Date, under federal income tax law, such transfer nevertheless may be regarded as having occurred for tax purposes, in which event the Debtors' estates could suffer an irrevocable loss of value. Accordingly, if a transfer occurs that limits the Debtors' ability to utilize their Tax Attributes under section 382 of the Tax Code, the Debtors' ability to realize the value of their Tax Attributes may be permanently diminished. The relief requested, therefore, is crucial to prevent an irrevocable diminution of the value of the Debtors' estates.

27. It is in the best interests of the Debtors and their stakeholders to restrict trading in the beneficial ownership of Common Stock that could result in an Ownership Change before the effective date of a chapter 11 plan or any applicable bankruptcy court order. This restriction would permit the Debtors to utilize the Tax Attributes, if necessary, to offset gain or other income recognized in connection with the Debtors' ownership or disposition of their assets, including the operation of their businesses. If such an Ownership Change were to occur, however, the valuation for determining the annual amount of usable Tax Attributes is expected to be adversely affected and, possibly, effectively eliminated.

28. With respect to an Ownership Change that occurs pursuant to a confirmed chapter 11 plan or any applicable bankruptcy court order, the limitations imposed by section 382 of the Tax Code can be significantly less restrictive than those applicable to an Ownership Change that occurs before the effective date of (or otherwise outside of) a chapter 11 plan. See, e.g., 26 U.S.C. §§ 382(l)(5), (6).

29. The Claims Procedures permit the full trading of Claims until the Debtors or another Plan Proponent files a plan of reorganization (or any amendment thereof) or otherwise files notice with the Court to indicate that the Debtors are contemplating the utilization of section 382(l)(5) of the Tax Code, at which point, if necessary for the Debtors' ability to utilize that provision, a purchaser of certain Claim on or after the Petition Date may be required to resell some or all of such Claims.

30. Under section 382(l)(5) of the Tax Code (the "Section 382(l)(5) Safe Harbor"), a corporation is not subject to the annual limitation ordinarily imposed by section 382 of the Tax Code with respect to an Ownership Change, provided that the Ownership Change resulted from the consummation of a chapter 11 plan or pursuant to any applicable court order and that the debtor's pre-Ownership Change shareholders and/or "Qualified Creditors" (as defined below) emerge from the reorganization owning at least fifty percent (50%) of the total value and voting power of the reorganized debtor's stock immediately after the Ownership Change. See id. § 382(l)(5)(A).

31. Under section 382(l)(5)(E) of the Tax Code and the applicable Treasury Regulations, a creditor whose Claim is exchanged for stock of the reorganized debtor under a chapter 11 plan or pursuant to any applicable court order is, for purposes of section 382 of the Tax Code, a "qualified creditor" (each, a "Qualified Creditor") if (a) such creditor's Claim either has been owned by such creditor for eighteen (18) or more months prior to the Petition Date, or arose in the ordinary course of the debtor's business and at all times such creditor had beneficial ownership of it, or (b) despite not satisfying such holding period requirements, if such creditor meets the criteria set forth in Treasury Regulations section 1.382-9(d)(3) (the latter, the "De Minimis Rule"). Certain "qualified transfers" may allow for a creditor that acquired its Claim to be treated as having held its Claim for the period in which it was held by a transferor. See 26 C.F.R. § 1.382-9(d)(5)(ii). Similarly, to the extent a debtor satisfies its indebtedness with new indebtedness (e.g., through an exchange of new indebtedness for old indebtedness), the owner of the new indebtedness is treated as having held that indebtedness for the period that it owned the old indebtedness. See id. § 1.382-9(d)(5)(iv).

32. Under the De Minimis Rule, a debtor may, for purposes of the Section 382(l)(5) Safe Harbor, "treat indebtedness as always having been owned by the beneficial owner of the indebtedness immediately before the ownership change if the beneficial owner is not, immediately after the ownership change, either a 5-percent shareholder or an entity through which a 5-percent shareholder owns an indirect ownership interest" in the debtor, so long as the holder does not make evident to the debtor in connection with the formulation of the plan that it has not owned the indebtedness for the requisite holding period. See id. § 1.382-9(d)(3). If a creditor is treated as having continuously owned its Claim(s) under the De Minimis Rule, such creditor will be regarded as a Qualified Creditor so long as the particular Claim(s) that it holds either (a) arose in the ordinary course of the debtor's business or (b) came into existence (or is treated under the applicable tax rules as having come into existence) at least eighteen (18) months prior to the Petition Date.

33. Although there can be no assurance that the Section 382(l)(5) Safe Harbor ultimately will be available to the Debtors, it is important that the Debtors preserve their ability to propose a chapter 11 plan that could take advantage of the Section 382(l)(5) Safe Harbor. Because the determination of whether a creditor is a Qualified Creditor, in whole or in part, depends on the nature of its Claims and whether it has held its Claims (within the meaning of the applicable Treasury Regulations) until the effective date of the chapter 11 plan, transfers of Claims by creditors before such date could impair or preclude Debtors' ability to satisfy the requirements of the Section 382(l)(5) Safe Harbor (assuming those requirements would otherwise be satisfied). The requested relief will ensure that the Debtors will retain flexibility, if the Debtors determine it to be desirable, to structure a chapter 11 plan or other distributions to comply with the requirements of the Section 382(l)(5) Safe Harbor and thus to preserve the Tax Attributes to the fullest extent possible.

34. Even if it is ultimately determined that either the Section 382(l)(5) Safe Harbor is unavailable to the Debtors or the relief provided thereby would not materially benefit the Debtors in the context of their restructuring, section 382(l)(6) of the Tax Code provides a second, alternative rule that applies when an Ownership Change occurs pursuant to a confirmed chapter 11 plan or any applicable court order. Specifically, section 382(l)(6) of the Tax Code provides that, if a debtor undergoes an Ownership Change pursuant to a chapter 11 plan (and section 382(l)(5) does not apply), then the appropriate value of the debtor for purposes of calculating the annual limitation under section 382 of the Tax Code shall reflect the increase in value of the debtor resulting from any surrender or cancellation of creditors' Claims. Generally, under section 382 of the Tax Code, the taxable income of a loss corporation available for offset by pre-Ownership Change Tax Attributes is annually limited to an amount equal to the long-term tax-exempt bond rate times the value of the loss company's stock immediately before the Ownership Change. Thus, were the equity value of the Debtors to increase as a result of a reorganization, section 382(I)(6) of the Tax Code would provide for a higher (and therefore less restrictive) annual limitation than would result under the general rules of section 382 of the Tax Code, thereby preserving the Debtors' ability to utilize a greater portion of their otherwise available Tax Attributes to offset any post-Ownership Change income.

35. In all circumstances, it is in the best interest of the Debtors and their stakeholders for the Court to grant the requested relief to prevent an Ownership Change prior to the effective date of a chapter 11 plan or any applicable bankruptcy court order.

Interim Relief Should be Granted

36. Granting the Stock Procedures on an interim basis will benefit the Debtors and their stakeholders by preventing the loss of the Debtors' ability to utilize the Tax Attributes pending final approval of the Procedures, while allowing holders of direct or indirect interests in Common Stock and other parties in interest ample time to consider the Procedures. Absent the interim relief, the Debtors may be irreparably harmed due to transfers in the beneficial ownership of Common Stock that may follow immediately after persons or Entities (as defined in the Stock Procedures) receive notice of this Motion. Persons or Entities may rush to acquire or dispose of their beneficial ownership of Common Stock (including Options to acquire beneficial ownership of Common Stock) before the Court imposes the requested procedures, and such transfers or actions may be regarded as occurring for tax purposes even if such trades were to be null and void under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code or as a result of a final order of this Court prohibiting such trading effective as of the Petition Date. Such transfers would jeopardize the Debtors' ability to utilize the Tax Attributes and would be counterproductive to the Debtors' objectives in seeking the relief requested herein. Accordingly, the Debtors request that the Stock Procedures proposed herein be approved on an interim basis and that a hearing be scheduled to consider entry of the Proposed Final Order.

The Notice Provisions in the Procedures Satisfy Due Process

37. The notice provisions in the Procedures satisfy due process and the strictures of Bankruptcy Rule 9014 by providing the relevant counterparties with notice and an opportunity to object and attend a hearing. See, e.g., In re Villarreal, 304 B.R. 882, 886 (B.A.P. 8th Cir. 2004) (notice under 9014 is sufficient if it provides “adequate notice and an opportunity for hearing”); In re Atamian, 368 B.R. 375, 378 (Bankr. D. Del. 2007) (“Rule 9014 does not require a hearing, only an opportunity for a hearing.” (citation omitted)), aff’d, No. 05-20040 (MFW), 2008 WL 853462 (D. Del. Mar. 31, 2008), 300 F. App’x 175 (3d Cir. 2008); Flynn v. Eley (In re Colo. Mountain Cellars, Inc.), 226 B.R. 244, 246 (D. Colo. 1998) (noting that a hearing is not required to satisfy Bankruptcy Rule 9014).

Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) Has Been Satisfied

38. Rule 6003(b) of the Bankruptcy Rules provides that, to the extent relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, the Court may issue an order granting “a motion to use, sell, lease, or otherwise incur an obligation regarding property of the estate, including a motion to pay all or part of a claim that arose before the filing of the petition” before 21 days after filing of the petition. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003(b). The Debtors respectfully submit that Bankruptcy Rule 6003 does not apply to the relief requested herein because the Debtors are not, by this Motion, seeking to use, sell, or lease property of their estates. See Fed. Bankr. R. P. 6004 Advisory Comm.’s note to 2011 amend. (“[T]he rule does not prohibit the court from entering orders in the first 21 days of the case that may relate to the motion and applications set out in (a), (b), and (c) of Bankruptcy Rule 6003; it is only prohibited from granting the relief requested by those motions or applications” (emphasis added)). Notwithstanding the foregoing, even if the Court were to find that Bankruptcy Rule 6003 applied to this Motion, the relief requested herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm and, therefore, Bankruptcy Rule 6003 is satisfied.

39. As discussed herein, the Tax Attributes are a valuable asset of the Debtors' estates. In addition, once a Tax Attribute is limited under section 382 of the Tax Code, its use is limited forever. Absent granting the relief requested herein on an interim basis, at the outset of these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors may be irreparably harmed by any equity trading that occurs prior to the Court's entry of an order granting this Motion on a final basis. By this Motion, the Debtors seek to implement Procedures that would protect against such irreparable harm. Accordingly, to the extent that Bankruptcy Rule 6003 applies to the relief requested herein, it does not require the Court to wait 21 days before entering the Proposed Interim Order.

Compliance with Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and Waiver of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h)

40. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors request that the Court find that notice of the Motion satisfies Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and that the Court waive the 14-day period under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

Reservation of Rights

41. Nothing contained herein is intended to be or shall be deemed as (i) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors, (ii) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors' or any party in interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim, (iii) a waiver of the Debtors' rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable nonbankruptcy law, (iv) an agreement or obligation to pay any claims, (v) a waiver of any claims or causes of action which may exist against any creditor or interest holder, or (vi) an approval, assumption, adoption, or rejection of any agreement, contract, lease, program, or policy under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Likewise, if the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to the Court's order is not intended to be and should not be construed as an admission to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to dispute such claim subsequently.

Notice

42. Notice of this Motion will be provided to (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Eastern District of Missouri; (ii) the holders of the 30 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors on a consolidated basis; (iii) Latham & Watkins LLP (Attn: Peter P. Knight, Esq. and Jonathan C. Gordon, Esq.), as counsel to JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as the administrative agent and collateral agent under the ABL Credit Facility and DIP Facility; (iv) Pryor Cashman LLP (Attn: Seth H. Lieberman, Esq. and David W. Smith, Esq.), as counsel to Wilmington Trust, N.A., as successor indenture trustee under the Unsecured Notes; (v) the Internal Revenue Service; (vi) the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Missouri; (vii) the Securities and Exchange Commission; and (viii) any other party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 (collectively, the "Notice Parties"). Notice of this Motion and any order entered hereon will be served in accordance with Local Rule 9013-3(A)(1).

No Previous Request

43. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by the Debtors to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE the Debtors respectfully request entry of the Proposed Orders granting the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

Exhibit A

A. Common Stock Procedures

(1) Definitions. For purposes of these Procedures, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) “Common Stock” shall mean any common stock issued by Briggs & Stratton Corporation.

(b) “Option” shall mean any contingent purchase, warrant, convertible debt, put, stock subject to risk of forfeiture, contract to acquire stock, or similar interest regardless of whether it is contingent, subject to vesting or otherwise not currently exercisable.

(c) “Beneficial ownership” of Common Stock and Options to acquire Common Stock shall be determined in accordance with section 382 of the title 26 of the United States Code (the “Tax Code”), the regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of the Treasury under the Tax Code (the “Treasury Regulations”), rulings issued by the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”), and the rules described herein, and thus shall include, without limitation, (i) direct and indirect ownership, determined without regard to any rule that treats stock of an entity as to which the constructive ownership rules apply as no longer owned by that entity (e.g., a holding company would be considered to beneficially own all stock owned or acquired by its subsidiaries), (ii) ownership by a holder’s family members, (iii) ownership by any group of persons acting pursuant to a formal or informal understanding among themselves to make a coordinated acquisition of stock, and (iv) to the extent set forth in Treasury Regulations section 1.382-4, the ownership of an Option to acquire beneficial ownership of Common Stock.

(d) “Entity” shall mean any “entity” as such term is defined in Treasury Regulations section 1.382-3(a), including a group of persons who have a formal or informal understanding among themselves to make a coordinated acquisition of stock.

(e) “Substantial Stockholder” shall mean any Entity or person that beneficially owns at least 1,980,000 shares of Common Stock (representing approximately 4.7% of all issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock as of June 30, 2020).

(2) Notice of Substantial Ownership. Any person or Entity that beneficially owns, at any time on or after the Petition Date, Common Stock in an amount sufficient to qualify such person or Entity as a Substantial Stockholder shall file with this Court and serve upon (i) Briggs & Stratton Corporation, 12301 West Wirth Street, Wauwatosa, Wisconsin 53222 (Attn: Kathryn M. Buono, Esq.); (ii) proposed attorneys for the Debtors, (x) Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, 767 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10153 (Attn: Debora A. Hoehne, Esq., and Martha E. Martir, Esq.); and (y) Carmody MacDonald P.C., 120 S. Central Avenue, Suite 1800, St. Louis, Missouri 63105 (Attn: Robert E. Eggmann, Esq. and Christopher J. Lawhorn, Esq.); and (iii) Office of the United States Trustee for the Eastern District of Missouri, 111 South 10th Street, Suite 6.353, St. Louis, Missouri 63102 (Attn: Sirena T. Wilson, Esq.), (collectively, the “Disclosure Parties”) a notice of such person’s or Entity’s substantial ownership (a “Substantial Stock Ownership Notice”), in substantially the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A1 (in the case of the Proposed Interim Order) and Exhibit A2 (in the case of the Proposed Final Order), which describes specifically and in detail such person's or Entity's beneficial ownership of Common Stock, on or before the date that is the later of (x) twenty (20) calendar days after the entry of the order granting the requested relief or (y) ten (10) business days after such person or Entity qualifies as a Substantial Stockholder (unless such a Substantial Stock Ownership Notice has already been filed and served pursuant to that certain Interim Order Establishing Notification Procedures and Approving Restrictions on Certain Transfers of Interests in the Debtors of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Missouri, dated [●], Docket No. [●]). At the election of the Substantial Stockholder, the Substantial Stock Ownership Notice to be filed with the Bankruptcy Court (but not the Substantial Stock Ownership Notice that is served upon the Disclosure Parties) may be redacted to exclude the Substantial Stockholder's taxpayer identification number and the amount of Common Stock that the Substantial Stockholder beneficially owns.

- (3) Acquisition of Common Stock. At least twenty-five (25) calendar days prior to the proposed date of any transfer in the beneficial ownership of Common Stock (including directly and indirectly, and including the grant or other acquisition of Options to acquire beneficial ownership of Common Stock) or exercise of any Option to acquire beneficial ownership of Common Stock that would result in an increase in the amount of Common Stock beneficially owned by any person or Entity that currently is or, as a result of the proposed transaction, would be a Substantial Stockholder (a "Proposed Acquisition Transaction"), such acquiring or increasing person or Entity or Substantial Stockholder (a "Proposed Transferee") shall file with the Bankruptcy Court and serve upon the Disclosure Parties a notice of such Proposed Transferee's intent to purchase, acquire, or otherwise accumulate beneficial ownership of Common Stock (an "Acquisition Notice"), in substantially the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A3 (in the case of the Proposed Interim Order) and Exhibit A4 (in the case of the Proposed Final Order), which describes specifically and in detail the Proposed Acquisition Transaction. At the election of the Proposed Transferee, the Acquisition Notice to be filed with the Bankruptcy Court (but not the Acquisition Notice that is served upon the Disclosure Parties) may be redacted to exclude the Proposed Transferee's taxpayer identification number and the amount of Common Stock that the Proposed Transferee beneficially owns.
- (4) Disposition of Common Stock. At least twenty-five (25) calendar days prior to the proposed date of any transfer or other disposition in the beneficial ownership of Common Stock (including directly and indirectly, and including Options to acquire beneficial ownership of Common Stock) that would result in either a decrease in the amount of Common Stock beneficially owned by a Substantial Stockholder or a person or Entity ceasing to be a Substantial Stockholder (a "Proposed Disposition Transaction" and, together with a Proposed Acquisition Transaction, a "Proposed Transaction"), such selling or decreasing person or Entity or Substantial Stockholder (a "Proposed Transferor") shall file with the Bankruptcy Court and serve upon the Disclosure Parties a notice of such Proposed Transferor's intent to sell, trade, or otherwise transfer beneficial ownership of Common Stock (a "Disposition Notice" and, together with an Acquisition Notice, a "Trading Notice"), in substantially the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A5 (in the case of the Proposed Interim Order) and Exhibit A6 (in the case of the Proposed Final Order), which describes specifically and in detail the Proposed Disposition Transaction. At the election of the Proposed Transferor, the Disposition Notice to be filed with the Bankruptcy Court (but not the Disposition Notice that is served upon the Disclosure Parties) may be redacted to exclude the Proposed Transferor's taxpayer identification number and the amount of Common Stock that the Proposed Transferor beneficially owns.

- (5) Objection Procedures. The Debtors shall have twenty-one (21) calendar days after the filing of a Trading Notice (the "Objection Period") to file with this Court and serve on a Proposed Transferee or a Proposed Transferor, as the case may be, an objection (each, an "Objection") to any Proposed Transaction described in such Trading Notice. If the Debtors file an Objection by the expiration of the Objection Period (the "Objection Deadline"), then the applicable Proposed Transaction shall not be effective unless approved by a final and nonappealable order of this Court. If the Debtors do not file an Objection by the Objection Deadline or if the Debtors provide written authorization to the Proposed Transferee or the Proposed Transferor, as the case may be, approving the Proposed Transaction prior to the Objection Deadline, then such Proposed Transaction may proceed solely as specifically described in the applicable Trading Notice. Any further Proposed Transaction must be the subject of an additional Trading Notice and Objection Period.

B. Claims Procedures

- (1) Definitions. For purposes of these Procedures, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Post-Emergence Briggs & Stratton" means the reorganized Debtors or any successor thereto.

(b) "New Stock" means the common stock and any other equity securities (including securities that are treated as equity securities for U.S. federal income tax purposes) of Post-Emergence Briggs & Stratton, including Options to acquire the same.

(c) "Entity" shall mean any "entity" as such term is defined in section 1.382-3(a) of Title 26 of the Code of Federal Regulations (the "Treasury Regulations"), including any group of persons acting pursuant to a formal or informal understanding among themselves to make a coordinated acquisition of Claims or New Stock.

(d) A "Claim" means any claim, as defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code, against any of the Debtors arising out of or relating to the period prior to the Petition Date, whether secured or unsecured (which, for the avoidance of doubt, excludes any claims under or in connection with the Debtors' proposed debtor in possession financing facility (the "DIP Loan")).

(e) An "Option" includes any contingent purchase, warrant, convertible debt, put, stock subject to risk of forfeiture, contract to acquire stock, or similar interest, regardless of whether it is contingent, subject to vesting or otherwise not currently exercisable.

(f) A "382(l)(5) Plan" means a plan of reorganization (a "Plan") or amended Plan that (i) indicates that the Debtors contemplate or (ii) otherwise allows for the use of section 382(l)(5) of the title 26 of the United States Code (the "Tax Code") by a reorganized debtor to obtain certain incremental tax benefits.

(g) “Beneficial ownership” of a Claim or Owned Interest means:

(i) the beneficial ownership of a Claim or Owned Interest (as hereinafter defined) as determined in accordance with applicable rules under section 382 of the Tax Code, the Treasury Regulations, rulings issued by the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”), and the rules described herein (for such purpose, a Claim or Owned Interest is treated as if it were stock) and, thus shall include, without limitation, (A) direct and indirect ownership, determined without regard to any rule that treats stock of an entity as to which the constructive ownership rules apply as no longer owned by that entity (e.g., a holding company would be considered to have beneficial ownership of all Claims or Owned Interests owned or acquired by its subsidiaries), (B) ownership by a holder’s family members, and (C) ownership by any group of persons acting pursuant to a formal or informal understanding among themselves to make a coordinated acquisition of Claims, Owned Interests, and/or stock; and

(ii) the beneficial ownership of an Option (irrespective of the purpose for which such Option was issued, created, or acquired) with respect to a Claim or Owned Interest.

(iii) For the avoidance of doubt, beneficial ownership of a Claim or Owned Interests also includes the beneficial ownership of any right to receive any equity consideration to be distributed in respect of a Claim or Owned Interests pursuant to a Plan or any applicable bankruptcy court order.

(h) “Threshold Amount” means an amount of Claims that, when taking into account the Owned Interests that a holder of Claims has beneficial ownership of (including under the applicable aggregation rules), could result in such holder of Claims holding the Applicable Percentage (as hereinafter defined) of New Stock. For this purpose, the beneficial ownership of an Option to acquire Owned Interests shall be considered beneficial ownership of Owned Interests.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a beneficial owner of Claims does not agree to refrain from acquiring beneficial ownership of additional Owned Interests (and Options to acquire the same) or to dispose of immediately any such Owned Interests or Options (if acquired on or after the Petition Date but prior to submitting its Notice of Substantial Claim Ownership (as hereinafter defined)), the Threshold Amount for such beneficial owner of Claims shall be the amount of Claims a holder of Claims has beneficial ownership of continuously from the Petition Date to the Sell-Down Date (as hereinafter defined).

(i) A “Substantial Claimholder” means any person or Entity that has beneficial ownership of an aggregate dollar amount of Claims against the Debtors, or any Entity controlled by such person or Entity through which such person or Entity has beneficial ownership of Claims against the Debtors, of more than the Threshold Amount.

For the avoidance of doubt, section 382 of the Tax Code, the Treasury Regulations, and all relevant IRS and judicial authority shall apply in determining whether the Claims of several persons and/or Entities must be aggregated when determining a person’s (including an Entity’s) status as a Substantial Claimholder (for such purpose, a Claim is treated as if it were stock).

(j) “Applicable Percentage” means, if only one class of New Stock is to be issued pursuant to the terms of a 382(l)(5) Plan and holders within each class of Claims receiving New Stock will receive a pro rata distribution of the New Stock, 4.75% of the number of shares of New Stock that the Debtors reasonably estimate will be outstanding immediately after the effective date of such 382(l)(5) Plan, as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If more than one class of New Stock is to be distributed pursuant to the terms of a 382(l)(5) Plan or if holders within a class of Claims may receive a disproportionate distribution of New Stock relative to other holders in the same class, the Applicable Percentage shall be determined by the Debtors in their reasonable judgment, in consultation with the DIP Financing lenders, in a manner consistent with the estimated range of values for the equity to be distributed (as reflected in the valuation analysis set forth in the 382(l)(5) Plan and disclosure statement) and shall be expressed in a manner that makes clear the number of shares or other interests in each class of New Stock that would constitute the Applicable Percentage.

(k) “Holdings Report” means a Notice of Substantial Claim Ownership (as hereinafter defined) received by the Debtors with respect to the Determination Date.

(l) “Maximum Amount” means the maximum amount of Claims (by class or other applicable classification of Claims) that may be held, as of the effective date of the 382(l)(5) Plan, by a Substantial Claimholder that was a Substantial Claimholder as of the Determination Date, which the Debtors shall calculate as follows:

(i) Based upon the information provided by the Substantial Claimholders in the Holdings Reports, the Debtors shall calculate the aggregate amount of Claims that all such Substantial Claimholders must sell as a group to effectuate the 382(l)(5) Plan (the “Sell-Down Amount”);

(ii) The Debtors shall calculate for each Substantial Claimholder the amount of such Substantial Claimholder’s pro rata share of the Sell-Down Amount (i.e., the Sell-Down Amount multiplied by a fraction, (x) the numerator of which is the excess, if any, of the amount of Claims identified in such Substantial Claimholder’s Holdings Report over the greater of (A) the applicable Threshold Amount and (B) the Protected Amount for such Substantial Claimholder, and (y) the denominator of which is the sum of the numerators computed for all Substantial Claimholders; and

(iii) For each such Substantial Claimholder, the Debtors shall subtract from the total Claims held by such Substantial Claimholder (as reported in the Holdings Report) such Substantial Claimholder’s pro rata share of the Sell-Down Amount. The result shall be the Maximum Amount.

(m) “Newly Traded Claims” means Claims (i) with respect to which a person or Entity acquired beneficial ownership after the date that was eighteen (18) months prior to the Petition Date and (ii) that are not “ordinary course” Claims, within the meaning of Treasury Regulations section 1.382-9(d)(2)(iv), of which the same person or Entity always has had beneficial ownership.

(n) A “Permitted Transferee” with respect to a Substantial Claimholder is a person or Entity whose holding of a Claim would not result in such Substantial Claimholder having beneficial ownership of such Claim.

(o) “Protected Amount” means the amount of Claims (by class or other applicable classification) of which a holder had beneficial ownership on the Petition Date plus the amount of Claims of which such holder acquires, directly or indirectly, beneficial ownership pursuant to trades entered into prior to the Petition Date, but that had not yet closed as of the Petition Date, and the amount of Claims of which such holder acquires, directly or indirectly, beneficial ownership pursuant to trades entered into after the Petition Date that have been approved by the Debtors in accordance with these Procedures minus the amount of Claims of which such holder sells, directly or indirectly, beneficial ownership pursuant to trades entered into prior to the Petition Date, but that had not yet closed as of the Petition Date. For the avoidance of doubt, there shall be included in the Protected Amount of a claimant that is an insurer under an insurance policy, a guarantor or an issuer of a letter of credit or similar security arrangement as described in Treasury Regulations section 1.382-9(d)(5)(ii)(G) on the Petition Date, any Claims transferred to such claimant pursuant to a subrogation under such insurance policy or such guarantee, letter of credit or similar security arrangement on or after the Petition Date (without the need for any prior approval by the Debtors), so long as such transfer is not for a principal purpose of obtaining New Stock or permitting the transferee to benefit from the losses of the Debtors within the meaning of Treasury Regulations section 1.382-9(d)(5)(iii).

(2) Disclosure of 382(l)(5) Plan. If the proponent of a Plan (a “Plan Proponent”) determines that the reorganized Debtors likely will qualify for and benefit from the application of section 382(l)(5) of the Tax Code and reasonably anticipates that Post-Emergence Briggs & Stratton will invoke such section, then the Plan Proponent, in proposing a 382(l)(5) Plan, shall disclose the following in its proposed disclosure statement or, in the case of items (iii) through (v) below, a later, separate notice (collectively, the “Proposed 382(l)(5) Disclosure Statement”):

(i) Adequate information about the incremental tax benefits anticipated to be realized through the use of section 382(l)(5) of the Tax Code that, taking into account the Debtors’ anticipated net unrealized built-in gains or net unrealized built-in losses, would not otherwise be available;

(ii) A summary of any restrictions expected to be imposed on the transferability of securities issued under the Plan in order to preserve such incremental tax benefits;

(iii) The (i) dollar amount of Claims (by class or other applicable classification) expected to result in a one-percent (1%) interest in New Stock and (ii) number of any specified interests (“Owned Interests”) in the Debtors which shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, Common Stock expected to result in a one-percent (1%) interest in New Stock, in each case based upon then-available information;

(iv) A specified date (the “Determination Date”) that is not less than ten (10) calendar days after the service of the notice of the hearing with respect to the Proposed 382(l)(5) Disclosure Statement; and

(v) A specified date (the “Reporting Deadline”) that is not less than five (5) calendar days after the Determination Date, by which persons or Entities must serve on various parties the notice required by these Procedures (the “Notice of Substantial Claim Ownership”).

In the event that items (iii) through (v) above are disclosed in a separate notice after the filing of the proposed disclosure statement, such items shall also be disclosed in a separate filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission on Form 8-K.

(3) Notice of Substantial Claim Ownership.

(a) Any person or Entity that has beneficial ownership of either (i) more than a specified amount of Claims¹ or (ii) a lower amount of Claims that (based on the applicable information set forth in the Proposed 382(l)(5) Disclosure Statement), when taking into account any Owned Interests that a holder of Claims has beneficial ownership of (including pursuant to the applicable aggregation rules), could result in such holder of Claims holding the Applicable Percentage of New Stock, in each case as of the Determination Date, shall serve upon the Plan Proponent and its attorneys (and the Debtors and their attorneys if not the Plan Proponent) and attorneys for any statutory committees appointed in the chapter 11 cases (each, an “Official Committee”) a Notice of Substantial Claim Ownership, in substantially the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A8 (or as adjusted and annexed to the Proposed 382(l)(5) Disclosure Statement) on or before the Reporting Deadline. Such person or Entity also shall set forth in the Notice of Substantial Claim Ownership its beneficial ownership, if any, of any Owned Interests and whether it agrees to refrain from acquiring beneficial ownership of additional Owned Interests (and Options to acquire the same) until after the effective date of the 382(l)(5) Plan and to immediately dispose of any Owned Interests or Options (if acquired on or after the Petition Date and prior to submitting its Notice of Substantial Claim Ownership). A person or Entity that is required to file a Notice of Substantial Claim Ownership may or may not be a Substantial Claimholder. The standard for a person’s or Entity’s being required to file a Notice of Substantial Claim Ownership is different than the definition of a Substantial Claimholder. At the election of the filer, the Notice of Substantial Claim Ownership to be filed with the Bankruptcy Court (but not the Notice of Substantial Claim Ownership that is served upon the Debtors, the attorneys for the Debtors, and the attorneys for any Official Committee) may be redacted to exclude the filer’s taxpayer identification number.

(b) In order to assist in determining their eligibility to avail themselves of the relief set forth in section 382(l)(5) of the Tax Code, the Debtors may request² from any person or Entity that has beneficial ownership of either (i) more than a specified amount of Claims (which may be expressed by class or type of Claim(s), if applicable) or (ii) a lower amount of Claims that, when taking into account the Owned Interests that a holder of Claims has beneficial ownership of (including pursuant to the applicable aggregation rules), could result in such holder of Claims holding the Applicable Percentage of New Stock, in each case as of the date specified in such request, information regarding its beneficial ownership of Claims and Owned Interests (and Options to acquire the same) prior to the filing of the Proposed 382(l)(5) Disclosure Statement, in a manner consistent with these Procedures. In addition, the Debtors shall disclose such request in a separate filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission on Form 8-K.

¹ This “specified amount” is to be reasonably established by the Plan Proponent, taking into account the terms of the 382(l)(5) Plan, and disclosed in the Proposed 382(l)(5) Disclosure Statement. The “specified amount” may be expressed by class or type of Claim(s), if applicable.

² For purposes of making this determination, such request shall include information comparable to the information that would be required in a Proposed 382(l)(5) Disclosure Statement pursuant to these Procedures.

(c) Any person or Entity that fails to comply with its notification obligations set forth in this paragraph shall, in addition to the consequences set forth in paragraph B(5)(g) below, be subject to such remedy as the Bankruptcy Court may find appropriate upon motion by the Debtors, after service of the motion upon such person or Entity and a hearing on the motion in accordance with the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, including, without limitation, ordering such noncompliant person or Entity to divest itself promptly of any beneficial ownership of Claims to the extent of such person's or Entity's ownership of an Excess Amount and imposing monetary damages for any costs reasonably incurred by the Debtors that were caused by the violation and enforcement of this paragraph.

(4) Claims Trading Before and After the Determination Date.

(a) Any person or Entity generally may trade freely and make a market in Claims until the Determination Date.

(b) After the Determination Date, any acquisition of Claims by a person or Entity who filed or is or was required to file a Notice of Substantial Claim Ownership or by a person or Entity who would be required to file a Notice of Substantial Claim Ownership as a result of the consummation of the contemplated transaction if the proposed acquisition date had been the Determination Date (each such person or Entity, a "Proposed Claims Transferee") shall not be effective unless consummated in compliance with these Procedures.

(c) After the Determination Date, at least ten (10) business days prior to the proposed date of any acquisition of Claims by a Proposed Claims Transferee (each acquisition, a "Proposed Claims Acquisition Transaction"), such Proposed Claims Transferee shall serve upon the Disclosure Parties a notice of such Proposed Claims Transferee's request to purchase, acquire, or otherwise accumulate a Claim (a "Claims Acquisition Request"), in substantially the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A7, which describes specifically and in detail the Proposed Claims Acquisition Transaction, regardless of whether such transfer would be subject to the filing, notice, and hearing requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 3001. At the election of the Proposed Claims Transferee, the Claims Acquisition Request to be filed with the Bankruptcy Court (but not the Claims Acquisition Request that is served upon the Debtors, the attorneys for the Debtors, and the attorneys for the Official Committee) may be redacted to exclude the Proposed Claims Transferee's taxpayer identification number.

(d) The Plan Proponent may determine, in consultation with the Debtors (if not the Plan Proponent) and attorneys for any Official Committee, whether to approve a Claims Acquisition Request. If the Plan Proponent does not approve a Claims Acquisition Request in writing within eight (8) business days after the Claims Acquisition Request is filed with the Court, the Claims Acquisition Request shall be deemed rejected.

(5) Creditor Conduct and Sell-Downs.

(a) To permit reliance by the Debtors on Treasury Regulations section 1.382-9(d)(3), upon the entry of the Final Order, any Substantial Claimholder that participates in formulating any chapter 11 plan of or on behalf of the Debtors (which shall include, without limitation, making any suggestions or proposals to the Debtors or their advisors with regard to such a Plan) shall not disclose or otherwise make evident to the Debtors that any Claims in which such Substantial Claimholder has a beneficial ownership are Newly Traded Claims, unless compelled to do so by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction or some other applicable legal requirement, provided, however, that the following activities shall not constitute participation in formulating a Plan if, in pursuing such activities, the Substantial Claimholder does not disclose or otherwise make evident (unless compelled to do so by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction or some other applicable legal requirement) to the Debtors that such Substantial Claimholder has beneficial ownership of Newly Traded Claims: filing an objection to a proposed disclosure statement or to confirmation of a proposed Plan; voting to accept or reject a proposed Plan; reviewing or commenting on a proposed business plan; providing information on a confidential basis to attorneys for the Debtors; holding general membership on an official committee or an ad hoc committee; or taking any action required by an order of the Bankruptcy Court.

(b) Following the Determination Date, if the Plan Proponent determines that Substantial Claimholders must sell or transfer all or a portion of their beneficial ownership of Claims acquired on or after the Petition Date so that the requirements of section 382(l)(5) of the Tax Code will be satisfied, the Plan Proponent may file a motion with the Bankruptcy Court for entry of an order—after notice to attorneys for the Debtors (if not the Plan Proponent), any Official Committee, and the relevant Substantial Claimholder(s) and a hearing—approving the issuance of a notice (each, a “Sell-Down Notice”) that such Substantial Claimholder must sell, cause to sell, or otherwise transfer a specified amount of its beneficial ownership of Claims (by class or other applicable classification) equal to the excess of (x) the amount of Claims that such Substantial Claimholder has beneficial ownership of over (y) the Maximum Amount for such Substantial Claimholder (such excess amount, an “Excess Amount”). The motion shall be heard on expedited basis such that the Bankruptcy Court can render a decision on the motion at or before the hearing on confirmation of the 382(l)(5) Plan. If the Bankruptcy Court approves the Plan Proponent’s motion for the issuance of a Sell-Down Notice, the Plan Proponent shall provide the Sell-Down Notice to the relevant Substantial Claimholder(s).

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Procedures, no Substantial Claimholder shall be required to sell, cause to sell, or otherwise transfer any beneficial ownership of Claims if such sale or transfer would result in the Substantial Claimholder’s beneficial ownership of an aggregate amount of Claims (by class or other applicable classification) that is less than such Substantial Claimholder’s Protected Amount.

(d) Each Sell-Down Notice shall direct the Substantial Claimholder to sell, cause to sell, or otherwise transfer its beneficial ownership of the amount of Claims specified in the Sell-Down Notice to Permitted Transferees, provided, however, that such Substantial Claimholder shall not have a reasonable basis to believe that any such Permitted Transferee would own, immediately after the contemplated transfer, an Excess Amount of Claims and provided, further, that a Substantial Claimholder that has properly notified the Permitted Transferee of its Claims under these Procedures shall not be treated as having such reasonable basis in the absence of notification or actual knowledge that such Permitted Transferee would own, after the transfer, an Excess Amount of Claims.

(e) By the date that is the later of (i) five (5) business days after the entry of an order confirming the 382(l)(5) Plan and (ii) such other date specified in the Sell-Down Notice, as applicable, but before the effective date of the 382(l)(5) Plan (the “Sell-Down Date”), each Substantial Claimholder subject to a Sell-Down Notice shall, as a condition to receiving New Stock, serve upon the Plan Proponent and its attorneys (and the Debtors and their attorneys if not the Plan Proponent) and attorneys for any Official Committee a notice substantially in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A9 that such Substantial Claimholder has complied with the terms and conditions set forth in these Procedures and that such Substantial Claimholder does not and will not hold an Excess Amount of Claims as of the Sell-Down Date and at all times through the effective date of the 382(l)(5) Plan (each, a “Notice of Compliance”). Any Substantial Claimholder who fails to comply with this provision shall not receive New Stock with respect to any Excess Amount of Claims. At the election of the Substantial Claimholder, the Notice of Compliance to be filed with the Bankruptcy Court (but not the Notice of Compliance that is served upon the Debtors, the attorneys for the Debtors, and the attorneys for any Official Committee) may be redacted to exclude the Substantial Claimholder’s taxpayer identification number.

(f) Other than information that is public or in connection with an audit or other investigation by the IRS or other taxing authority, the Plan Proponent shall keep all Notices of Compliance and any additional information provided by a Substantial Claimholder pursuant to these Procedures (the “Confidential Information”) strictly confidential and shall not disclose the Confidential Information to any other person or Entity, provided, however, that the Plan Proponent may disclose the identity of the Substantial Claimholder to its attorneys and professional financial advisors, attorneys for and the professional financial advisors of any Official Committee, and of any other person(s) that are subject to a nondisclosure agreement with the Plan Proponent, each of whom shall keep all Confidential Information strictly confidential, subject to further order of the Bankruptcy Court, and provided, further, that to the extent the Plan Proponent reasonably determines such Confidential Information is necessary to demonstrate to the Bankruptcy Court the need for the issuance of a Sell-Down Notice, such Confidential Information (determined by, among other things, whether such information was redacted in any public filing) shall be filed with the Bankruptcy Court under seal.

(g) Any person or Entity that violates its obligations under these Procedures applicable to Claims or, if applicable, its agreement not to acquire beneficial ownership of Owned Interests (and Options to acquire the same) or to immediately dispose of any Owned Interests (if acquired on or after the Petition Date but prior to submitting its Notice of Substantial Claim Ownership) in its Notice of Substantial Claim Ownership shall, pursuant to these Procedures, be precluded from receiving, directly or indirectly, any consideration consisting of a beneficial ownership of New Stock that is attributable to the Excess Amount of Claims for such person or Entity and, if applicable, to the Owned Interests acquired (or not immediately disposed of) in violation of such agreement by such person or Entity (or if the Owned Interests acquired (or not immediately disposed of) in violation of such agreement become beneficial ownership of New Stock without the need to receive new equity interests, such person or Entity shall be precluded as a result of such violation (and, thus, in addition to any other amounts otherwise precluded hereunder) from receiving, directly or indirectly, any consideration consisting of a beneficial ownership of New Stock attributable to such person's or Entity's Claims up to and including an amount equivalent to that represented by such Owned Interests), in each case including any consideration in lieu thereof, provided, however, that such person or Entity may be entitled to receive any other consideration to which such person or Entity may be entitled by virtue of holding Claims (this provision, the "Equity Forfeiture Provision"). Any purported acquisition of, or other increase in the beneficial ownership of, New Stock that is precluded by the Equity Forfeiture Provision will be an acquisition of "Forfeited Equity." Any acquirer of Forfeited Equity shall, promptly upon becoming aware of such fact, return or cause to return the Forfeited Equity to the Debtors (or any successor to the Debtors, including Post-Emergence Briggs & Stratton) or, if all of the equity consideration properly issued to such acquirer and all or any portion of such Forfeited Equity have been sold prior to the time such acquirer becomes aware of such fact, such acquirer shall return or cause to return to the Debtors (or any successor to the Debtors, including Post-Emergence Briggs & Stratton) (i) any Forfeited Equity still held by such acquirer and (ii) the proceeds attributable to the sale of Forfeited Equity, calculated by treating the most recently sold equity as Forfeited Equity. Any acquirer that receives Forfeited Equity and deliberately fails to comply with the preceding sentence shall be subject to such additional sanctions as the Bankruptcy Court may determine. Any Forfeited Equity returned to the Debtors, including Post-Emergence Briggs & Stratton, shall be distributed (including a transfer to charity) or extinguished, in the Debtors' sole discretion and, in consultation with the DIP Financing lenders, in furtherance of the 382(l)(5) Plan.

(h) In effecting any sale or other transfer of Claims pursuant to a Sell-Down Notice, a Substantial Claimholder shall, to the extent that it is reasonably feasible to do so within the normal constraints of the market in which such sale takes place, notify the acquirer of such Claims of the existence of these Procedures and the Equity Forfeiture Provision (it being understood that, in all cases in which there is direct communication between a salesperson and a customer, including, without limitation, communication via telephone, e-mail, and instant messaging, the existence of these Procedures and the Equity Forfeiture Provision shall be included in such salesperson's summary of the transaction).

(6) Exceptions.

(a) No person or Entity shall be subject to the approval provisions of paragraph B(4)(b)–(d) above or, in the case of Claims that are part of the transferor's Protected Amount, the sell-down provisions of paragraph B(5) above with respect to any transfer described in Treasury Regulations section 1.382-9(d)(5)(ii) so long as such transfer is not for a principal purpose of obtaining New Stock or permitting the transferee to benefit from the losses of the Debtors within the meaning of Treasury Regulations section 1.382-9(d)(5)(iii), provided, however, that any such transferee who becomes a Substantial Claimholder following the filing of a Proposed 382(l)(5) Disclosure Statement shall serve upon the Plan Proponent and its attorneys (and the Debtors and their attorneys if not the Plan Proponent) and attorneys for any Official Committee, a notice of such status, substantially in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A8, as provided in these Procedures.

(b) For the avoidance of doubt, the trustee of any trust, any indenture trustee, subordination agent, registrar, paying agent, transfer agent, loan or collateral agent, or any other entity serving in a similar capacity however designated, in each case for any Claim or any Owned

Interests, notes, bonds, debentures, property, or other debt securities or obligations (i) issued by any of the Debtors, (ii) secured by assets of any of the Debtors or agreements with respect to such assets, or (iii) secured by assets leased to any of the Debtors shall not be treated as a Substantial Claimholder solely to the extent that such entities are acting in the capacity described above, provided, however, that neither any transferee of Claims nor any equity or beneficial owner of a trust shall be excluded from these Procedures solely by reason of this provision.

C. Noncompliance with the Procedures

Any acquisition, disposition, or trading in the beneficial ownership of Common Stock (including directly and indirectly, and Options to acquire beneficial ownership of Common Stock), or the beneficial ownership of Claims against the Debtors, in violation of these Procedures shall be null and void ab initio pursuant to the Bankruptcy Court's equitable powers under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and as an act in violation of the automatic stay under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code. Furthermore, any person or Entity that acquires, disposes of, or trades in the beneficial ownership of Common Stock (including directly and indirectly, and Options to acquire beneficial ownership of Common Stock), or the beneficial ownership of Claims against the Debtors, in violation of these Procedures shall be subject to sanctions as provided by law.

D. Debtors' Right to Waive

The Debtors may, in their sole discretion, waive, in writing, any and all restrictions, stays, and notification requirements contained in the procedures; provided, however, that after a 382(l)(5) Plan has been properly filed by a Plan Proponent (other than by, or jointly with, the Debtors) and is still actively being pursued before the Court, the consent of such Plan Proponent also shall be necessary for any subsequent waiver to be effective.
