

ATTENTION DIRECT AND INDIRECT HOLDERS OF, AND PROSPECTIVE HOLDERS OF (I) STOCK ISSUED BY BRIGGS & STRATTON CORPORATION AND (II) CERTAIN CLAIMS AGAINST BRIGGS & STRATTON CORPORATION OR ITS AFFILIATED COMPANIES:

Upon the motion (the “Motion”) of Briggs & Stratton Corporation and its affiliated companies (the “Debtors”), on August 20, 2020, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Missouri (the “Bankruptcy Court”), having jurisdiction over the chapter 11 cases of the Debtors, captioned as In re Briggs & Stratton Corporation, No. 20-43597-399 (the “Chapter 11 Cases”), entered a final order establishing procedures (the “Procedures”) with respect to transfers in the beneficial ownership (including directly and indirectly) of (i) common stock of the Debtors (“Common Stock”) and options to acquire beneficial ownership of Common Stock and (ii) claims against the Debtors.

In certain circumstances, the Procedures restrict transactions involving, and require notices of the holdings of and proposed transactions by, any person, group of persons, or entity that either (i) is a Substantial Stockholder of the Common Stock (including options to acquire Common Stock) or (ii) as a result of such a transaction, would become a Substantial Stockholder of the Common Stock (including options to acquire Common Stock). For purposes of the Procedures, a “Substantial Stockholder” is any person or entity (within the meaning of applicable regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of the Treasury, including certain persons making a coordinated acquisition of stock) that beneficially owns (including options to acquire and direct or indirect ownership) at least 1,980,000 shares of Common Stock (representing approximately 4.7% of all issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock as of June 30, 2020). Any prohibited acquisition or other transfer of Common Stock (including options to acquire beneficial ownership of Common Stock) will be null and void ab initio and may lead to contempt, compensatory damages, punitive damages, or sanctions being imposed by the Bankruptcy Court.

In addition, the Procedures set forth certain future circumstances under which any person, group of persons, or entity that has acquired, or as a result of a proposed transaction would acquire, beneficial ownership of a substantial amount of claims against the Debtors can be required (i) to file notice of their holdings of such claims and of such proposed transaction, which transaction may be restricted, and (ii) upon a subsequent order of the Bankruptcy Court, after notice and hearing, to sell, by a specified date following the confirmation of a chapter 11 plan of the Debtors, all or a portion of such claims. Any acquisition or transfer of claims against the Debtors in violation of the Procedures will be null and void ab initio and any action in violation of the Procedures may lead to sanctions being imposed by the Bankruptcy Court.

The Procedures are available on the website of Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC, the Debtors’ Court-approved claims agent, located at <http://www.kccllc.net/Briggs>, and on the docket of the Chapter 11 Cases, Docket No. 535, which can be accessed via PACER at <https://www.pacer.gov>.

The requirements set forth in the Procedures are in addition to the requirements of applicable securities, corporate, and other laws and do not excuse noncompliance therewith.

A direct or indirect holder of, or prospective holder of, Common Stock that may be or become a Substantial Stockholder, or a direct or indirect holder of, or prospective holder of, a substantial amount of claims against the Debtors, should consult the Procedures.
