PLAN ADMINISTRATOR'S MOTION FOR AN ORDER ENFORCING THE PLAN INJUNCTION AGAINST NATIONWIDE INDEMNITY CO. AND EMPLOYERS INSURANCE OF WAUSAU, CENTURY INDEMNITY CO., TRANSPORTATION INSURANCE CO. AND CONTINENTAL CASUALTY CO.

COMES NOW Alan D. Halperin as Plan Administrator (the "Plan Administrator") under the Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Briggs & Stratton Corporation and its Affiliated Debtors, dated November 9, 2020 (the "Plan", Docket No. 1226),[1] and respectfully represents as follows in support of this motion (the "Motion") for an order enforcing the Plan Injunction against Nationwide Indemnity Co. and Employers Insurance of Wausau (collectively "Nationwide"), Century Indemnity Co., ("Century"), Transportation Insurance Co. and Continental Casualty Co. (collectively "CNA") (Nationwide, Century and CNA are collectively referred to herein as the "Insurers" or "Defendants").[2] In support of the Motion, the Plan Administrator respectfully submits the following:

[1] Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the Plan.

[2] The Insurers in this case are generally referred to as "Nationwide," "CNA," and "Century." Each of those names, however, refers to a group of entities that includes affiliates, predecessors, successors, parents, reinsurers, and claims administrators related to those three companies–names

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This Motion asks the Court to enforce the Confirmed Plan and its injunction against an attempted end-run by the Insurers around indisputably applicable bankruptcy law. Briggs holds a pre-petition claim for insurance underpayments arising from the Insurers' failure to pay covered asbestos losses during 2013-2018, and in litigation filed by Briggs against the Insurers in a Wisconsin court (the "State Court Litigation"). That court entered summary judgment on January 21, 2025, in favor of Briggs, holding that the Insurers are liable to Briggs for breach of their insurance contracts, and leaving only the amount of damages (including damages for bad faith) to be determined. A copy of the Wisconsin court's order granting summary judgment in favor of Briggs is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

2. The Insurers now seek to reduce that pre-petition liability by asserting credit or "netting" rights based on payments they made between 2018 and 2024, many of them after Briggs filed its chapter 11 petition on July 20, 2020 (the "Petition Date"). In substance, the Insurers' theory treats Briggs as owing them money for supposed later "overpayments" arising from alleged obligations to Briggs from a third party, described below, and then applies that amount against what the Insurers owe Briggs for earlier underpayments. At best, this is an unauthorized setoff in violation of Section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code and the Plan as confirmed in these Chapter 11 cases. It is not merely a dispute over damages methodology, and it is not recoupment.

that are all variously used throughout the historical record in this case. The related entities break down into the following three groups: (1) Nationwide Indemnity Co., including Employers Insurance of Wausau; (2) CNA Insurance Company, including Transportation Insurance Co., Continental Insurance Co., Continental Casualty Co., National Indemnity Co., Resolute Management, Inc., and Resolute Midwest; and (3) Century Indemnity Co., including Chubb/ACE Insurance Group, Brandywine, Insurance Company of America ("INA"), and Resolute Mid-Atlantic.

3. The timing of the Insurers' theory is what makes relief necessary now. The Wisconsin court has already resolved liability on Briggs's 2013-2018 breach of contract claim. The only issue remaining is damages. Yet in a November 2025 expert report, the Insurers for the first time advanced a theory under which they would subtract alleged 2018-2024 "overpayments" to Briggs and to Briggs' post-petition estate from the amount they owe Briggs for the 2013-2018 underpayments.[3] Their expert confirmed this theory in his recent deposition. Absent relief by this Court, the Insurers will attempt to recover in another forum a self-help reduction of Briggs' estate claim through a setoff that crosses the Petition Date and was never preserved, allowed, or authorized in the Confirmed Plan or associated proceedings. In fact, the Plan itself expressly precludes such setoffs.

4. This Motion presents a bankruptcy issue, not just a state-court damages dispute. The Insurers' theory necessarily crosses the Petition Date, was first disclosed years after the bankruptcy filing and after the Plan was confirmed, and would allow the Insurers to diminish a pre-petition claim through an alleged credit theory that the Confirmed Plan specifically prohibits.

5. The Court should enforce the Plan Injunction, declare that the Insurers may not use their proposed "credit," "netting," or reimbursement theory to reduce Briggs' claim in the State Court Litigation, and enjoin further pursuit of that theory there. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a), 553(a); Plan § 10.4; Confirmation Order ¶ 65; Travelers Indem. Co. v. Bailey, 557 U.S. 137, 151 (2009).

6. In a good-faith effort to avoid filing this motion, Briggs' counsel in the State Court Litigation sent the Insurers' counsel a letter requesting that they voluntarily withdraw their setoff claims and outlining the reasons why their claims are improper. A copy of Briggs' January 27, 2026, letter is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

[3] For the Court's reference, a copy of the expert report served on November 21, 2025, by the Insurers in the State Court Litigation—the Expert Report of Benjamin I. Mermelstein, PHD, FACS—is attached as Exhibit D to this Motion.

7. On February 6, 2026, the Insurers responded to Briggs' letter and refused to back down from their newly alleged setoff application ("Insurers' Letter"). A copy of the Insurers' Letter is attached as Exhibit C to this motion.

8. Since then, the Parties have been involved in completing discovery, including deposing the Insurers' expert to confirm their damages theory and violation of the Plan Injunction.

BACKGROUND AND JURISDICTION

A. Relevant Bankruptcy Background.

9. On July 20, 2020 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each commenced a voluntary case under title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in this Court. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their business and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

10. Pursuant to an order dated August 24, 2020 (the "General Bar Date Order") [Docket No. 564], this Court established October 7, 2020 (the "General Bar Date") as the last day for non-governmental entities to file pre-petition claims against the Debtors and their estates.

11. The Effective Date of the Plan occurred on January 6, 2021, and the Notice of Entry of Order Confirming the Plan and Occurrence of the Effective Date [Docket No. 1538].

12. On the Effective Date, pursuant to the Plan, Alan D. Halperin was appointed as Plan Administrator to "serve as the initial director or manager, as applicable, and sole officer of each Wind-Down Estate." See Plan, § 5.4(c).

13. The Plan Administrator is in the process of implementing the Plan, including resolving Claims disputes and making distributions to creditors.

B. The Wisconsin Case.

14. For decades, Briggs purchased commercial general liability ("CGL") insurance policies from the Insurers. Among other things, these policies covered asbestos-related liabilities arising from occurrences during the Insurers' respective policy periods. After asbestos claimants asserted product-exposure claims against Briggs, Briggs tendered the claims to the Insurers under the CGL policies. The CGL policies require the Insurers to pay "all sums" for defense costs and liability in connection with covered claims made against Briggs. (See Exhibit A, at 1.)

15. Rather than paying "all sums," the Insurers imposed on Briggs a formula under which they and Briggs would share responsibility for defense and indemnity costs. Under this formula, Briggs ultimately paid the largest share of the costs incurred for each claim. (See Exhibit A, at 1-2.)

16. In January 2009, the Wisconsin Supreme Court held that "all sums" language, such as that included by the Insurers in Briggs' CGL policies, require that insurers must pay 100% of all damages and defense costs incurred by an insured in connection with covered asbestos claims. Plastics Engineering Co. v. Liberty Mutual Ins. Co., 2009 WI 13, 315 Wis.2d 556, 758 N.W.2d 613 (Wis. 2009) ("Plenco").

17. In early 2018, Briggs first learned of the Plenco decision that the Insurers had known about for years. Working with its insurance broker, Briggs came to understand the implications of that decision and that it had, for years, paid a very large share of costs for asbestos claims that, according to settled Wisconsin law, should have been borne entirely by its Insurers. (See Exhibit A, at 2.)

18. In mid-2018, Briggs demanded the Insurers assume full payment on a going-forward basis and reimburse Briggs for all prior underpayments, as required under Wisconsin law.

The Insurers agreed to pay all sums prospectively beginning in mid-2018 but refused to repay the amounts previously paid by Briggs. (See Exhibit A, at 2.)

19. Briggs then commenced the State Court Litigation in Milwaukee County, Wisconsin to recover those underpayments. In that action, the Wisconsin court adjudicated liability in Briggs's favor on its contract claim for underpayments during the 2013-2018 period, leaving damages for later determination.[4] Because the Petition Date is July 20, 2020, the underpayments at issue in that ruling are pre-petition obligations owed by the Insurers to Briggs.

20. The present dispute arose only after the Insurers served a November 2025 expert report that, for the first time, attempted to reduce Briggs's recovery for those pre-petition underpayments by asserting alleged "overpayments" made between 2018 and 2024. Under their expert's approach, the Insurers paid approximately $3.4 million during that later period. They argue now, though, that if, rather than breaching the policies they had paid "all sums" during the 2013-2018 period as Wisconsin law required of them, roughly $794,662 to $2,107,324 of the post-2018 payments would have been made to Briggs by excess or umbrella insurers rather than the Insurers. According to the Insurers' new theory, the amount of the 2018-2024 payments that should have been made by excess or umbrella carriers should be credited against the damages the Insurers owe Briggs for 2013-2018, and that Briggs—and not the Insurers—should be forced to seek contribution from those excess or umbrella carriers. In substance, the Insurers' methodology treats Briggs as owing the Insurers reimbursement for later payments that the Insurers could have collected from other third-party carriers. As such, the Insurers assert that those supposed

[4] The State Court litigation was bifurcated into two phases. The first phase is liability and damages for breach of contract. The second phase is for bad faith. Although the Insurers have already been found liable to Briggs for breach of contract, the bad faith phase cannot proceed until after damages have been determined on the breach of contract claims.

"overpayments" from 2018-2024 should be offset against the separate damages the Insurers already owe to Briggs.

21. The Insurers' position concerns more than the calculation of a damages figure for the 2013-2018 period. As presented, the theory would reduce Briggs' pre-petition claim by reference to alleged "reimbursement" or "credit" amounts arising from payments made after the Petition Date, which violates the clear and unambiguous terms of the Plan Injunction in the Confirmed Plan.

C. Jurisdiction and Retained Authority.

22. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and pursuant to Section 11 of the Confirmed Plan and paragraph 65 of the Confirmation Order. This motion is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. The statutory predicate for the relief requested herein is section 105 of title 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq. (the "Bankruptcy Code").

23. The Court has authority to decide this motion, as bankruptcy courts have "jurisdiction to interpret and enforce its own prior orders." Travelers, 557 U.S. 137, 165 (2009). This Court expressly reserved this authority to itself by, in paragraph 65 of the Confirmation Order, retaining exclusive jurisdiction over all matter arising from or related to the Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan, the implementation of the Confirmation Order, including, without limitation, those matters set forth in Section 11 of the Plan. Section 11 of the Plan provides that this Court shall retain jurisdiction over certain matters, including specifically:

(a) to determine any motion, adversary proceeding, application, contested matter, and other litigated matter pending on or commenced after the Confirmation Date;

(b) to issue injunctions, enter and implement other orders, and take such other actions as may be necessary or appropriate to restrain interference by any Entity with the consummation, implementation, or enforcement of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or any other order of the Bankruptcy Court;

(c) to hear and determine disputes arising in connection with the interpretation, implementation, or enforcement of the Plan, the Plan Supplement and the Confirmation Order, or any agreement, instrument, or other document governing or relating to any of the foregoing;

(d) to take any action and issue such orders as may be necessary to construe, interpret, enforce, implement, execute, and consummate the Plan;

(e) to hear and determine such other matters and for such other purposes as may be provided in the Confirmation Order; and

(f) to hear, adjudicate, decide, or resolve any and all matters related to Section 10 of the Plan, including, without limitation, the releases, exculpations, discharge, and injunctions issued thereunder.

Plan, at § 11.1(b), (f), (i), (j), (k), (m).

24. The Court need not resolve the merits of the Wisconsin damages calculation to act now. It need only determine whether the Insurers may present in that forum a theory that, as pleaded and modeled, functions as a prohibited setoff or other barred reduction of Briggs' claim under the Bankruptcy Code, the Confirmed Plan and the Confirmation Order. This Court retained jurisdiction to interpret and enforce the Plan and Confirmation Order, and a motion to stop conduct that violates the Plan Injunction falls squarely within that authority. Travelers, 557 U.S. at 165; Plan § 11; Confirmation Order ¶ 65.

25. This Court is familiar with the Plan and the post-confirmation Debtors, as well as the purpose of the discharge and Plan Injunction. Accordingly, this Court should exercise its authority and discretion to decide this motion.

RELIEF REQUESTED

26. The Plan Administrator requests this Court enter an order: (i) finding that the Insurers' alleged defense set forth in their expert report in the State Court Litigation is that of a setoff and violates the Plan Injunction and the Confirmation Order; and (ii) enjoining the Insurers from pursuing such defense in the State Court Litigation.

ARGUMENT

I. THE INSURERS SEEK AN UNAUTHORIZED SETOFF

27. The Bankruptcy Code does not create a federal right of setoff, but in certain circumstances, 11 U.S.C. § 553(a) preserves in bankruptcy whatever right to setoff that would otherwise exist. Citizens Bank of Maryland v. Strumpf, 516 U.S. 16, 18 (1995). Section 553 "preserves the right of a creditor to offset a mutual debt owing by such creditor to the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title against a claim of such creditor against the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case." 11 U.S.C. § 553.

A. The Insurers' Own Modeling Shows a Netting of "Debts."

28. The Insurers' expert states that between 2018 and 2024, the Insurers paid $3.4 million in asbestos costs for covered asbestos actions against Briggs. He then, however, speculates and calculates that the Insurers could have received between $795,000 and $2.1 million of that $3.4 million from third parties (i.e., the excess/umbrella insurers, who are not parties to the State Court Litigation) in contribution during the 2018-2024 period had the Insurers not breached their policies and previously paid 100% of Briggs' pre-2018 asbestos costs, as required by Plenco. On that basis, he takes the $795,000-$2.1 million that the Insurers allegedly could have received in contribution from third parties from 2018-2024 and subtracts it from the total amount the Insurers owe Briggs for the 2013-2018 pre-petition underpayments. In other words, the Insurers use an alleged 2018-2024 credit that would only even theoretically exist due to the Debtors' contract rights with third-parties, to reduce liability on a 2013-2018 claim. (See Exhibit D, at 8-13 and Attachments 4-7.)

29. The Insurers creatively seek to characterize that their damages theory is not a setoff, but the framing in the Insurers' Letter shows that they are treating the 2013-2018 damages they owe to Briggs in the State Court Litigation and the 2018-2024 alleged "overpayments" as mutual debts that may be offset against one another: the Insurers admit that their expert "credits" one of the Insurers for certain amounts already paid (Exhibit C, at 2); they admit that they view the amounts they are "crediting" against Briggs's damages as "unrecoverable" by Briggs (Exhibit C, at 1); and they admit that they believe "Briggs should not be able to recover [the already-paid] amounts that would have been allocated to [umbrella/excess] policies," and may be recovered by the Insurers from those umbrella/excess carriers in contribution actions (Exhibit C, at 2-3).

30. The "credits" the Insurers' expert applies are not about calculating the original 2013-2018 liability owed to Briggs. Instead, they are about subtracting later payments from the original, pre-petition 2013-2018 liability owed to Briggs via an alleged reimbursement right that is grounded in an equitable contribution theory the Insurers believe they have against third parties, not Briggs.

31. In the Insurers' Letter, the Insurers argue that they are not engaging in "setoff" but are rather accounting for limits and allocating to excess/umbrella insurers. In doing so, they argue, there is a chunk of 2018-2024 money that Briggs "cannot recover"—at least not from the Insurers. (Exhibit C, at 2-3.) But they seek to distract this Court and the state court from the point. The Insurers already paid the money that they deem "unrecoverable," and now they want it back. To get it back, they are deducting it from Briggs's 2013-2018 damages resulting from the Insurers' breaches of the policies. They are asserting an overpayment/reimbursement claim against Briggs/the estate and offsetting it against what they owe. This is a classic setoff, regardless of how the Insurers characterize it. Not only does this setoff improperly transcend the Petition Date, as discussed below, but it necessarily and impermissibly invokes third parties, thus failing the mutuality requirements of Section 553.

B. The Netting of "Debts" Crosses the Petition Date.

32. Further, the setoff that the Insurers seek to impose improperly crosses the Petition Date. Briggs filed its bankruptcy petition in 2020. All of the underpayments for which the Insurers owe Briggs occurred between 2013 and 2018. Consequently, those damages are all pre-petition amounts.

33. But the amounts the Insurers want a "credit" for were paid between 2018 and 2024. These amounts are partially pre-petition and partially post-petition. It is therefore plain that the Insurers intend to ask the Wisconsin court to net post-petition obligations in their favor against a pre-petition debt. (See, e.g., Exhibit C, at 4.)

II. THE SETOFF IS IMPERMISSIBLE UNDER THE CONFIRMED PLAN AND RELEVANT LAW

A. The Setoff Does Not Satisfy § 553's Requirements for Preservation.

34. While 11 U.S.C. § 553(a) preserves certain setoff rights, it does so only if both obligations are (i) mutual and (ii) arose before the bankruptcy petition date. In re Davidovich, 901 F.2d 1533, 1537 (10th Cir. 1990). "Setoff, in effect, elevates an unsecured claim to secured status, to the extent that the debtor has a mutual, pre-petition claim against the creditor." Lee v. Schweiker, 739 F.2d 870, 875 (3d Cir.1984). Generally, the mutual debt and claim are the product of different transactions. 4 Collier on Bankruptcy § 553.03, at 553–14 (Lawrence P. King ed., 15th ed. 1992). Pursuant to the limitations imposed by Bankruptcy Code §553, a creditor's pre-petition claims against the debtor cannot be set off against post-petition debts owed to the debtor. Id.

35. Here, Briggs' 2013-18 all-sums damages are entirely pre-petition (July 20, 2020), whereas the alleged "overpayments" that Defendants want to offset against those damages were primarily paid after the Petition Date (and largely after Plan confirmation). That is the textbook scenario of an impermissible post-petition/post-confirmation setoff against a pre-petition debt that bankruptcy law forbids. Cf. In re Kleather, 208 B.R. 406, 413-15 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1997); In re Garcia, 23 B.R. 266, 267-68 (N.D. Ill. 1982).

36. Second, the Insurers' proposed setoff also fails to comply with Bankruptcy Code §553's mutuality requirement. The mutuality requirement is satisfied if the debts at issue are "owing between the same parties, in the same right or capacity, and ... [are] of the same kind or quality." In re Braniff Airways, Inc., 42B.R. 443, 449 (Bankr. N.D. Texas 1984); see also OPM Leasing Services, Inc., 68 B.R. 979, 986 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1987)) (stating that obligations owing between a creditor and a pre-petition debtor may not be setoff against obligations owing between that same creditor and the debtor's estate since the requisite mutuality of obligations is absent).

37. Here, the Insurers owed 2013-18 all-sums damages to debtor Briggs & Stratton before the July 2020 Petition Date. Upon confirmation, that claim vested in the Wind-Down Estate and the Plan Administrator "free and clear of all Claims … and other interests." Plan § 10.1. By contrast, any alleged "refund" right the Insurers claim concerns supposed overpayments made after the Petition Date when Briggs and Stratton became a debtor-in-possession and/or after Plan confirmation (the majority of the payments at issue), would be against the post-confirmation Wind-Down Estate. The obligations the Insurers seek to net out are thus not "between the same parties, in the same right or capacity." See id; see also In re Braniff Airways, Inc., 42 B.R. 443 (Bankr. N.D. Texas 1984) (holding that pre-petition claims of a debtor cannot be setoff against the debts of the debtor-in-possession because of a lack of mutuality of the parties). Thus, the Insurers here cannot meet the requisite mutuality to engage in a setoff.

B. Any Reimbursement Right was Discharged and is Enjoined.

38. Third, even as to alleged "overpayments" made pre-petition (from 2018-20), the Insurers' setoff is barred by the express terms of the Plan Injunction. Upon the filing of Briggs' bankruptcy petition, 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(7) stayed the exercise of any and all setoff rights. Later, when this Court approved the Plan and entered its Confirmation Order, the Plan Injunction took effect. It broadly enjoins anyone with an affected claim or interest from "taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan" or asserting claims against the Debtors. See Plan § 10.4(a), (b). The prohibited actions also expressly include "asserting any right of setoff, directly or indirectly" unless it is "contemplated or Allowed by the Plan." Id. § 10(b)(iv).

39. The Insurers neither sought nor obtained relief from the Plan Injunction. Instead, they now attempt to exercise a unilateral "self-help" setoff in the State Court Litigation years after the Petition Date and Plan confirmation. That is precisely what the Plan Injunction forbids. And because the Insurers did not file a proof of claim timely or otherwise assert any setoff right in the bankruptcy case, their alleged "overpayment" claim is not an "Allowed Claim" under Plan § 1.5 and cannot be charged to the Estate.

40. Fourth, the Insurers' attempt to retroactively deny full coverage for post-confirmation asbestos claims violates the procedures for handling Insured Claims in Section 7.9 of the Plan.

41. Thus, setoff of the nature the Insurers are seeking to unilaterally impose here is improper and a violation of the Confirmed Plan and the Plan Injunction.

III. THE INSURERS MISCHARACTERIZE THEIR SETOFF THEORY AS RECOUPMENT

A. The Doctrine of Recoupment Requires that Both Debts Arise From a Single Integrated Transaction.

42. In the Insurers' Letter, the Insurers re-characterize their proposed setoff as defensive recoupment. (Exhibit C, at 3.) "The doctrines of recoupment and setoff are similar but distinct." In re Advanced Tissue, LLC, 649 B.R. 326, 329 (Bankr. E.D. Ark. 2023). As "long as the creditor's claim arises out of the identical transaction as the debtor's, that claim may be offset against the debt owed to the debtor, without concern for the limitations put on the doctrine of setoff by section 553." In re University Medical Ctr., 973 F.2d 1065, 1081 (3d Cir. 1992).

43. "Recoupment does not appear in the Bankruptcy Code but is still important in bankruptcy." Advanced Tissue, 649 B.R. at 330. "Recoupment is a narrow exception to the general principle of bankruptcy law that once a petition in bankruptcy is filed, debts that arose before the petition may not be satisfied through post-petition transactions." In re O'Neil, 408 B.R. 823, 827 (Bankr. Neb. 2008). "The prepetition and mutuality requirements for setoff are not requirements for recoupment." Advanced Tissue, 649 B.R. at 330.

44. "To justify recoupment in bankruptcy, both debts must arise out of a single integrated transaction so that it would be inequitable for the debtor to enjoy the benefits of that transaction without also meeting its obligations." Id. at 623, quoting University Medical Ctr., 973 F.2d at 1081. "[T]he only issue in the context of recoupment is whether the obligations arise out of a single integrated transaction." In re Meyer, 521 B.R. 918, 925 (Bankr. W.D. Mo. 2014).

45. "For the purposes of recoupment, a mere logical relationship is not enough: the fact that the same two parties are involved and that a similar subject matter gave rise to both claims ... does not mean that the two arose from the same transaction." In re University Medical Center, 973 F.2d at 1081 (citation and internal quotation marks omitted). "The focus of the analysis is whether the claims arise out of the same transaction, not whether they arise out of the same contract." Advanced Tissue, 649 B.R. at 330 (emphasis in original).

46. Although it is an equitable doctrine, recoupment should be narrowly construed as an exception to the rule against preferring one creditor over another. In re Public Service Co. of New Hampshire, 107 B.R. 441, 444 (Bankr. N.H. 1989); Electronic Metal Prod., Inc. v. Honeywell, Inc., 95 B.R. 768, 770 (D. Colo. 1989).

B. The Amounts the Insurers Contend is Equitable Recoupment Do Not Arise From a Single Integrated Transaction.

47. The Insurers issued multiple primary CGL policies spanning 1940 to 1977. Each policy constitutes separate coverage, each with its own (a) policy period, (b) policy limits, and (c) policy premium. Each "claim" under the policies is filed and maintained separately, with different occurrences, different coverage and allocation issues, and different combinations of triggered policies.

48. The 2013-2018 damages flow from claims filed pre-petition while the alleged "overpayments" the Insurers are seeking to offset against the pre-petition debt to Briggs correspond to different claims from a different time period. Moreover, the payments for which the Insurers seek reimbursement do not even arise out of the policies that underlie the debt they owe to Briggs. Rather, they arise out of an equitable contribution theory they believe they have.

49. When invoking defensive recoupment in the Insurers' Letter, the Insurers simply state that "[c]ourts hold that the recoupment arises out of the same transaction when the demands arise out of the same contract." (Exhibit C, at 3.) That position fails.

50. Courts within the Eighth Circuit construe recoupment narrowly, requiring that the two debts arise from a "single integrated transaction." In re Terry, 687 F.3d 961, 963 (8th Cir. 2012); see also Advanced Tissue, 649 B.R. at 330 (explaining that the proper analysis of recoupment requires that the debts "arise out of the same transaction, not whether they arise out of the same contract").

51. Briggs and the Insurers have an ongoing relationship, covering nearly four decades. But the 2013-2018 damages are "completely distinct" from the 2018-2024 alleged "overpayments." They span different dates, are comprised of different insurance claims spawned by different occurrences, and the 2013-2018 damages arise from the primary insurance policies whereas the 2018-2024 amounts arise from an equitable contribution theory the Insurers believe they have against the umbrella/excess policy carriers and that the Insurers are attempting to collect via setoff from Briggs.

52. Thus, the amounts the Insurers seek to "net" are not eligible for recoupment because they are not part of the "same integrated transaction." The only applicable theory for the Insurers' netting is setoff, and such setoff is improper for the reasons discussed above.

Notice of this Application will be provided to (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Eastern District of Missouri (Attn: Paul Randolph, Esq.); (ii) the known Claimants; (iii) any other party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002; and (iv) any other party entitled to notice pursuant to the Omnibus Procedures Order (collectively, the "Notice Parties").

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the Plan Administrator respectfully requests entry of the Proposed Order granting the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

DECISION and ORDER

Parties

Plaintiff is Alan D. Halperin, as Plan Administrator for the Wind-Down Estate of the original plaintiff, Briggs & Stratton Corporation ("Briggs")

Defendants (collectively "the Defendants") are Nationwide Indemnity Company and Employers Insurance of Wausau (collectively, "Nationwide"), Century Indemnity Company ("Century"), and Transportation Insurance Company Inc. and Continental Casualty Company (Continental) (collectively, "CNA").

Background

Many of the facts of this case will be set forth in greater detail in this court's discussion of the issues presented by Briggs' and the Defendants' Motions for Summary Judgment.

The Defendants issued to Briggs multiple primary commercial general liability policies of insurance between 1940 and 1977. The Defendants' policies contained policy language that required the Defendants to pay "all sums" incurred by Briggs because of injury claims made against Briggs by parties injured by exposure to asbestos from Briggs' products. A Timeline[1] drafted by Briggs illustrates the years of coverage by the policies, examples of the date of first exposure (D.O.F.E.), the 2003 email by Peggy

[1] Exhibit A.

Dorfschmidt, the date of the Plastics Engineering Co. v. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co. (Plenco) decision (2009) and the date the Defendants began to make for all sums payments (2018). After Briggs found out about Plenco and its all sums allocation method in 2018, Briggs demanded reimbursement (based upon the all sums method) for underpayments (based upon the 2003 email outlining a pro rata cost sharing method by the Defendants) for settlements of asbestos lawsuits against Briggs.

Procedural History Regarding
Briggs' and Defendants' Motions for Summary Judgment

On 1/17/24, Briggs filed its Motion for Summary Judgment[2] on Count One (breach of contract) of the Amended Complaint[3], Brief in Support,[4] Affidavit of Thomas Reynolds,[5] Exhibits[6] and Plaintiff's Statement of Undisputed Facts.[7] On the same date, the Defendants filed their Motion for Summary Judgment[8] on Count One of the Amended Complaint, Brief in Support,[9] Affidavit of James Sanders[10] and Exhibits.[11]

On 8/15/24, Briggs filed its Brief in Opposition to Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment on Count One,[12] Declaration of Thomas Reynolds[13] and Exhibits.[14] On the same date, the Defendants filed their Response Brief in Opposition to Plaintiff's motion for Summary Judgment.[15]

On 9/13/24, Briggs filed its Reply Brief,[16] Unsworn Declaration of Thomas Reynolds[17] and Exhibits.[18] On the same date, Defendants filed their Reply Brief,[19] Declaration of Christopher Hemphill[20] and Exhibits.[21]

The Defendants' filed their Motion for Sur-Reply[22] and Sur-Reply[23] on 11/4/24. Briggs filed its Response to the Insurer's Sur-Reply,[24] Declaration of Thomas Reynolds[25] and Exhibit[26] on 12/3/24.

Summary Judgment

Summary judgment is appropriate where "the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law." Wis. Stat. § 802.08(2). Summary judgment "is designed to eliminate unnecessary trials" because "there is no triable issue of fact" to present to a jury. Maynard v. Port Publ'ns., Inc., 98 Wis. 2d 555, 562-63 (1980).

Courts apply a two-step test to determine whether summary judgment is appropriate. In re Garza, 2017 WI 35, ¶ 21.

First, the court looks at the pleadings to determine if the plaintiffs have stated a claim for relief. Id. "If proof of the well-pleaded facts in a complaint would satisfy each element of a cause of action, then the complaint has stated a claim upon which relief may be granted." Cattau v. Nat'l Ins. Servs. of Wis., Inc., 2019 WI 46, ¶ 6.

Then, if there is a claim for relief, the court looks at the evidence to decide whether any factual issues exist and applies the summary judgment statute. Id. Once the moving party has satisfied the initial burden, the nonmoving party "may not rest upon the mere allegations or denials of the pleadings but . . . must set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial." Wis. Stat. § 802.08(3).

A party that opposes summary judgment cannot just rest on its mere denials or pleadings. Dawson v. Goldammer, 2006 WI App 158, ¶ 31. This is because the "the allegations of the pleadings may not be considered as evidence or other proof on a disposition of the motion." Kavon Enterprises, Inc. v. Am. Universal Ins. Co., 74 Wis. 2d 53, 56-57 (1976). Instead, an opposing party "must affirmatively counter with evidentiary materials demonstrating there is a dispute." Dawson, 2006 WI App 158, ¶ 31. (Citations omitted).

The court takes "evidentiary facts in the record as true if not contradicted by opposing proof." Lambrecht v. Estate of Kaczmarczyk, 2001 WI 25, ¶ 23. However, "inferences to be drawn from the underlying facts," "should be viewed in the light most favorable to the party opposing the motion, and doubts as to the existence of a genuine issue of material fact are resolved against the moving party." Id.

The moving party has the burden of showing the absence of genuine issues of material fact. Cent. Corp. v. Research Prods. Corp., 2004 WI 76, ¶ 19. "A 'material fact' is one that is of consequence to the merits of the litigation." Schmidt v. N. States Power

Co., 2007 WI 136, ¶ 24. A factual issue is "genuine" "if the evidence is such that a reasonable jury could return a verdict for the nonmoving party." Baxter v. Wis. Dep't of Natural Res., 165 Wis. 2d 298, 312 (Ct. App. 1991). If the court is satisfied that there is no genuine issue of material fact, the court shall enter judgment as a matter of law. Wis. Discussion

Both plaintiff Briggs and insurer defendants have moved for summary judgment. This court will examine each parties' motion and discuss the respective merits of their arguments.

Brigg's Prima Facie Case

Under the Summary Judgment methodology, this court first examines the pleadings to determine whether claims have been stated and a material factual issue is presented. If so, this court then examines the moving party's submissions to determine whether they sufficiently establish a prima facie case for summary judgment. Summary judgment is appropriate where there are no material facts in dispute and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. See WIS. STAT. § 802.08(2).

A prima facie case is established only when evidentiary facts are stated which if they remain uncontradicted by the opposing party's affidavits resolve all factual issues in the moving party's favor. WALTER KASSUBA, INC., v. Bauch, 38 Wis. 2d 648, 655 (1968).

Brigg's Amended Complaint and the Undisputed Facts in Support

Briggs pled a cause of action for breach of contract in Count One of its Amended Complaint.[27] It is undisputed that the Defendants issued to Briggs multiple primary commercial general liability policies of insurance between 1940 and 1977.[28] It is undisputed that the Defendants' policies contained policy language that required the Defendants to pay "all sums" incurred by Briggs because of injury claims made against Briggs by parties injured by exposure to asbestos from Briggs' products.[29]

The Wisconsin Supreme Court in Plastics Engineering Co. v. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co. (Plenco), 2009 WI 13, held:

> Under the language of this policy - once a policy is triggered by bodily injury, Liberty Mutual is responsible for "all sums" that arise out of the injury, up to that policy's limits.[30]

[27] Document 72. ¶¶ 14-45, ¶¶ 66-73. Judge Foley previously held that "Briggs' complaint states a cause of action for breach of contract." See Document 98, p. 1.
[28] See Documents 621-623. For exemplar copies see Documents 618-620.
[29] See Document 754, ¶¶ 2-7.
[30] Plenco, 2009 WI 13, ¶ 58.

> Thus, to insert the pro rata language, we would have to rewrite the insurance policy.[31]
> We conclude that under the language in this policy and the facts of this case, … once this policy is triggered, Liberty Mutual must fully defend the lawsuit in its entirety and pay for all sums up to the policy limits that Plenco is obligated to pay because of the injury. The policy language here does not support a pro rata allocation of damages.[32]

Therefore, as a matter of law, the Defendants, in this case, are jointly and severally liable for 100% of defense and indemnity costs because their insurance policies contain the same "all sums" language.[33]

Brigg's complaint pled a breach of contract by the Defendants under their insurance policies after Plenco because the Defendants continued to pay claims on a pro rata basis, not all sums[34] until 2018. Despite Briggs' demand for 100% of its defense and settlement costs, the Defendants made pro rata cost share underpayments until 2018.[35] Briggs has pled and adduced facts to support its claim against Defendants based upon breach of contract. Judge Foley decided how the statute of limitations applied in this case.[36] Therefore, Briggs has pled and adduced undisputed facts to support its prima facie case against the defendants for claims arising from 2013 to 2018 for breach of contract.

The next step in the summary judgment methodology is to examine the opposing party's affidavits and other proof to determine if any genuine issue exists as to any material fact or whether reasonable conflicting inferences may be drawn from undisputed facts. This analysis requires this court to examine the Defendants' factual opposition to Briggs's motion for summary judgment. (See discussion below.)

Because the Defendants have also moved for summary judgment, this court will apply the same summary judgment methodology. If there is a legal basis for the Defendants to prevail on their motion for summary judgment then this court will grant the Defendants' motion for summary judgment and deny Briggs' motion. If the Defendants raise a genuine issue of material fact in opposition to Briggs' motion for summary judgment then Briggs' motion for summary judgment fails. Likewise, if Briggs raises a genuine issue of material fact in opposition to the Defendants motion for summary judgment then the Defendants' motion for summary judgment fails.

> In reviewing whether (a defendant) is entitled to summary judgment, we apply well-established methodology. A court initially examines the pleadings to determine whether claims have been stated and material factual issues presented. To make a prima facie case for summary judgment, a moving defendant must show a defense that would defeat the plaintiff. If the moving party has made a prima facie case for summary judgment, the court must examine the affidavits and other proof of the opposing party to determine whether a genuine issue exists as to any material fact or whether reasonable conflicting inferences may be drawn from undisputed facts. The Defendants' Affirmative Defenses

All the Defendants pled as affirmative or other defenses[37] that the 2003 email or Cost Sharing Agreement (CSA) was a contract between the Defendants and Briggs that governed the parties conduct before and after Plenco. The Defendants also pled affirmative defenses of waiver, laches and/or estoppel.[38]

Briggs's Interpretation of the CSA[39]

Discussion about the CSA began in 2003. In its brief, Briggs provided this background:

> Briggs was facing a number of lawsuits alleging bodily injury due to asbestos in Briggs' products. Until then, Briggs was "bearing the whole costs" of defending and resolving those claims on its own. After locating the Insurers' Policies, Briggs, via its insurance broker, Willis Towers Watson, approached the Insurers to seek coverage for the asbestos claims under the Policies.[40] (References omitted).
> In response to Briggs' inquiries, the Insurers' representatives held a conference call among themselves to coordinate and determine what coverage Briggs was entitled to under the Policies, and what share of that coverage each Defendant was responsible for. The Insurers "unanimous(ly)" decided to exclude Briggs' insurance broker from the call, with the intention that the Insurers would determine the cost-share and "advise (the broker) of the group's decision." As Nationwide's Peggy Dorfschmidt testified, Briggs and its broker/liaison were > excluded from the conference call and the process of calculating coverage percentages because it was simply a matter of determining in which years the Insurers provided policies and what share they were, therefore, responsible for under those policies. That coverage determination was to be made exclusively by the Insurers.[41] (References omitted).

> After the Insurers unilaterally determined the respective shares they would pay under the Policies, they advised Briggs of their decision during a conference call held on December 3, 2003. Briggs' broker (but not Briggs) participated in the call as a liaison with no authority to bind Briggs. After the call, Nationwide's Dorfschmidt sent an email to Briggs' insurance broker, copying the other Insurers, purporting to memorialize the call (the "2003 email"). Among other things, she delineated the shares the Insurers had previously and unilaterally determined they would pay under their respective Policies.[42]
> The author of the 2003 email confirmed that it was part of an ongoing and open-ended conversation, the terms of which were "not written in stone." In fact, she stated that other than the insurance policies, there was "no definitive agreement" governing the parties' duties to one another. The lack of agreement in the 2003 email is further apparent from the email itself, which states that the discussion will continue and, among other things, that Century's Lilly Cowan did not agree how shares would be calculated in cases with vague asbestos exposure dates. Furthermore, Dorfschmidt asked in her 2003 email that the recipients confirm their assent to the proposed percentages. No one—not any of the Insurers and not Briggs—ever provided such confirmation. Dorfschmidt wrote at the end of the email that "we will attempt to continue our discussions via email." (References omitted).[43]

The Defendants do not dispute the facts contained in Briggs' argument, rather they have a different interpretation and outcome based upon the CSA.

The Defendants' Interpretation of the CSA

The Defendants' maintained that:

> Under Wisconsin Law, the 2003 Cost-Share Agreement Was a Valid, Binding, and Enforceable Express or Implied-In-Fact Contract Between Briggs and the Insurers.[44] ... The 2003 Cost-Share Agreement had two material terms: (i) that Briggs and the Insurers would each pay a share of defense and indemnity costs; (ii) in exchange for Briggs paying the highest share, the Insurers would cede their right to control the defense and permit Briggs to control its own defense ....[45]

[43] Id., pp. 12-13.
[44] Document 581, p. 31.
[45] Id., p. 34.

Here, the 2003 Dorfshmidt email establishes an express contract between the parties that was further ratified by the parties 15-year course of dealing, at the very least. Rather, "(a)n implied contract may be established by the parties' conduct without any words being expressed in writing or orally, if from such conduct it can be fairly inferred that the parties mutually intended to agree on all the terms."[46] (References omitted).

The 2003 Cost-Share Agreement satisfies every element needed to create a valid contract, including a meeting of the minds. Here, the agreement satisfies either an express contract standard or, at minimum, an implied contract standard.[47]

Express Contract or Implied in Fact Contract

A contract is an "express contract" when the parties reach an agreement by words, oral or written. Formation of an express contract requires an offer encompassing its essential terms, an unequivocal acceptance of the terms by the offeree, consideration and an intent to be bound. An "implied contract" occurs where there is no express agreement but the conduct of the parties implied an agreement from which an obligation in contract exists. An "implied in fact contract" is the same as an express contract, except that assent is not expressed in words, but is implied from the conduct of the parties. An "implied-in-fact contract" is one that may be found to exist as a matter of fact and is dependent upon the parties' intent. An implied-in-fact contract arises from mutual agreement and intent to promise, when the agreement and promise have simply not been expressed in words. An "implied in fact contract" is an agreement gleaned from the parties' conduct, actions, and correspondence rather than their words. (Footnotes omitted). 1 Williston on Contracts § 1:5 (4th ed.).

The Defendants rely on the 2003 email (the CSA) (written words) and the 15 year course of conduct by Briggs for their argument that an implied in fact contract existed. Both parties rely on depositions (oral words) of those involved to determine meaning of the terms. However, the Defendants' reliance on the either/or alternative of express contract language or implied in fact contract language is not helpful. This court concludes that there is no hybrid of an express contract and a contract implied in fact in Wisconsin law. Either there is an express contract or a contract implied in fact but not both.[48]

The CSA in this Case

[47] Document 860, p. 6.
[48] "The law may recognize an implied contract in the absence of an express contract on the same subject matter, but not where there is an express contract …. An express contract and an implied contract cannot coexist with respect to the same subject matter, and the former supersedes the latter." 1 Williston on Contracts § 1:5 (4th ed.). "Where a valid express contract is proven, no recovery can be had on an implied contract." Schultz v. Andrus' Estate, 178 Wis. 358 (1922).

The 2003 email (CSA) in this case set forth the percentages that each of the Defendants was to pay for their share of defense and indemnity costs.[49] The CSA concluded, "We are all parties to today's conference call"[50] It is clear from Brigg's recitation of facts (above) that the Defendants (insurers) had determined their cost share percentages based upon their years of coverage (determined in months). In years where there was no coverage, Briggs was responsible (e.g. 296 months). The subject matter of the CSA was the pro rata cost sharing percentages for the Defendants and Briggs set forth in the email. Briggs was self-insured. The Defendants were insurers liable to Briggs for coverage under their insurance policies.

Wisconsin Contract Law

The elements of an enforceable contract are offer, acceptance, and consideration. Runzheimer Intern., Ltd. v. Friedlen, 2015 WI 45, ¶ 20.

Offer

Under Wisconsin law, an offer is a communication by a party of what it will give or do in return for some act by another. In re Lube's Estate, 225 Wis. 365, 368 (1937).

An offer must be so definite in its terms, or require such definite terms in the acceptance, that the promises and performances to be rendered by each party are reasonably certain. Goebel v. National Exchangors, Inc., 88 Wis.2d 596, 615 (1979).

No particular form of communication is required - an offer may be made in writing, orally or implied in fact from the conduct of the parties and other circumstantial evidence. Goetz v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 31 Wis.2d 267, 272, 142 N.W.2d 804, 807 (Wis.1966); see also Theuerkauf v. Sutton, 102 Wis.2d 176, 184-85, 306 N.W.2d 651, 657-58 (Wis.1981) (contract implied in fact arises from agreement circumstantially proved and requires showing that there was a request to perform services of value); Household Utils., Inc. v. Andrews Co., 71 Wis.2d 17, 29, 236 N.W.2d 663, 669 (Wis.1976) (intent of parties "derived from consideration of their words, written and oral, and their actions"). Carroll v. Stryker Corp., 670 F. Supp. 2d 891, 898 (W.D. Wis. 2009).

Acceptance

Acceptance of an offer requires "a meeting of the minds, a factual condition that can be demonstrated by word or deed." Zeige Distributing Co., Inc. v. All Kitchens, Inc., 63 F.3d 609, 612 (7th Cir. 1995) (citing Household Utils., 71 Wis.2d at 29, 236 N.W.2d at 669). Like an offer, an acceptance can be communicated in writing, orally or implied from the parties conduct. Morris F.

[49] See The Defendants' Document 581, p. 6. Briggs' Document 616, p. 21-24. Document 624.

Consideration

Consideration is "a detriment incurred by the promisee or a benefit received by the promisor at the request of the promisor. . . ." Runzheimer, 2015 WI 45, ¶ 21.

The CSA was not an Express Contract

The CSA, itself, was not an express (written or oral) contract. It was an email by the Defendants representatives to the insurance broker of Briggs. Briggs was not a party to the group discussion by the Defendants before the email was written. Briggs was not a party to the calculations. Briggs did not have knowledge of the contents of the email until it was received.

> For the parties to come to an agreement, it is necessary that there be a meeting of the minds of the parties upon the essential terms and conditions of the subject about which they are agreeing; that is, they must be in accord upon the essential terms and conditions. There must be a mutual assent. (Emphasis supplied). Wis. JI-Civil 3010.

There was no agreement, meeting of the minds, mutual assent or confirmation by Briggs to the subject matter (pro rata cost sharing) in the CSA. There was no mutual intention to contract. None of the elements of an express contract was present in the CSA.

However, the Defendants maintained that the combination of the CSA and Briggs' 15-year course of conduct created an enforceable implied in fact contract[51] that might be established by the parties' conduct.

Implied in Fact Contracts in Wisconsin

The Theuerkauf Line of Cases

The Defendants relied on Theuerkauf v. Sutton, 102 Wis.2d 176 (1981) for their theory that there was an implied in fact contract between the Defendants and Briggs.

An article in Wisconsin Lawyer[52] recapitulated this area of the law:

> A lodestar case on implied-in-fact contracts is Wojahn v. National Union Bank,[53] in which the Wisconsin Supreme Court recognized a plaintiff's recovery under [51] See Wis. JI-Civil 3024, "An agreement may be established by the conduct of the parties without any words being expressed in writing or orally, if from such conduct it can fairly be inferred that the parties mutually intended to agree on all the terms. This type of agreement is known as an implied contract. An implied contract may rest partially on words expressed in connection with conduct or solely upon conduct."

> that theory for services provided in supervising one of the bank's debtors. There was no written agreement and the plaintiff had not even submitted a bill for his services nor demanded payment prior to commencement of suit. The court recognized the general rule that "if a person performs valuable services for another at that other's request, the law implies, as matter of fact, the making of a promise by the latter and acceptance thereof by the former to pay the one performing the service the reasonable value thereof."[54] (Footnotes omitted).
> Implied-in-Fact Contract ... The Prima Facie Elements. To recover under this theory, a plaintiff must show that: 1) the defendant requested services, 2) the services were performed, and 3) the services were valuable.[55] Unlike an express written or oral agreement, proof is circumstantial (hence the name "implied-in-fact contract"). A plaintiff must prove that the parties, "by their words, their conduct, or course of dealing, came to a mutual agreement."[56] Proof of the prima facie elements creates a "rebuttable presumption that the parties mutually intended fair payment."[57] [58]
> There is a rule that if a person performs valuable services for another at his request the law implies the making of a promise by the latter and acceptance thereof by the former to pay the one performing the service the reasonable value thereof. In re Ansell's Estate, 2 Wis. 2d 1 (1957).

These principles remain sound law today.[59] Applying the Theuerkauf line of cases to this case, this court notes that the position of the parties is reversed. In most implied in fact contract cases, it is the plaintiff that asserts the existence of an implied in fact contract to recover against a defendant. In this case, the Defendants maintained the existence of the implied in fact contract as an affirmative defense to Briggs' enforcement of their express contracts (i.e. the commercial general liability policies of insurance issued by the Defendants to Briggs). Therefore, in this case, this court substitutes the Defendants for the plaintiff and Briggs for the defendant in the Theuerkauf line of cases.

Applying the prima facie elements of an implied in fact contract to this case, the elements would read, one, the defendant (Briggs) requested services. Two, the services were performed by plaintiff (the Defendants in this case). The Theuerkauf line of cases contemplated the performance of some services by plaintiff (the Defendants). The

Thus, Wisconsin recognizes two types of 'implied contracts,' but only implied-in-fact contracts rely on contract-formation and breach principles."

Defendants establishing a pro rata cost share percentage and then underpaying Briggs (pro rata share payments versus all sums payments) does not look like performance of services. Moreover, it is not plausible to argue that Briggs requested the underpayments from the Defendants. The undisputed facts show that the pro rata cost share percentages were unilaterally determined by the Defendants and then the Defendants proceeded to underpay Briggs. Three, the services were valuable. Again, the underpayment by the Defendants does not fit with the idea that the services were valuable.

This court concludes that the Theuerkauf line of cases presents a dubious basis for the Defendants' argument for the existence of an implied in fact contract in this case.

The Insurance Policies (as Contracts) Expressly Prohibited a Subsequent Implied in Fact Contract

> Courts will not infer an implied-in-fact contract where an express contractual provision already exists on the same point. 1 Williston on Contracts § 1:5 (4th ed.).

There can be no implied contract where an express contract exists between the same parties in reference to the same subject matter. Maynard v. Tidball, 2 Wis. 34 (1853).

This court agrees with and adopts Briggs' factual references and conclusions that the policies preclude the Defendants' attempt to interpose the CSA as subsequent implied in fact contract. Briggs' headings, arguments and conclusions are listed below:

> Briggs and the Insurers Consistently Affirmed that the Policies (and not the 2003 email) Governed the Relationship between Briggs and the Insurers.
> The Insurers Acknowledged Coverage and Routinely Reserved Their Rights Under the Policies.
> The Insurers Continued to Assert their Rights under the Policies.[60]
> There is no evidence that anyone, including the Insurers, intended for the 2003 email to modify Briggs' coverage rights. To the contrary, multiple Defendant representatives have admitted that neither Briggs nor the Insurers waived any rights under the Policies as a result of the 2003 email. (Ex. H, at 103:6-25; Ex. SSS, at 126:24-127:17; Ex. F, at 87:15-88:19; Ex. G, at 166:3-167:6, 66:16-67:6.)[61]

This court concludes that Briggs' insurance policies (as express contracts that lacked the necessary endorsements for any changes) precluded a subsequent implied in fact contract.

Plenco Obliterates the Pro Rata Cost Sharing Subject Matter of the CSA as a Matter of Law

Assuming that the Defendants were to argue that the subject matter of Briggs' insurance policies and the CSA were different, the Defendants' argument still fails. The assumption would be that the insurance policies subject matter was insurance coverage and that the subject matter of the CSA was the pro rata cost sharing between the Defendants and Briggs.

The Wisconsin Supreme Court in Plenco concluded:

> Liberty Mutual must fully defend the lawsuit in its entirety and pay for all sums up to the policy limits that Plenco is obligated to pay because of the injury. The policy language here does not support a pro rata allocation of damages.[62]

After Plenco, Wisconsin courts followed "the rejection of a pro rata allocation in multiple year occurrence cases."[63] "The majority opinion in Plastics Eng'g Co., authored by Justice Ziegler, explained: 'In our analysis, we are again driven by the policy language. Liberty Mutual's policy contains no language that limits its obligation to a pro rata share. Thus, to insert the pro rata language, we would have to rewrite the insurance policy.'"[64] (Citations omitted). Therefore, the Defendants' argument that before Plenco, the Defendants might have had a possible implied in fact contract (pro rata cost share) based upon parties' conduct is no longer controlling or relevant in this case.

After Plenco, this court concludes that the Defendants did not have an implied in fact contract because as a matter of law the subject matter of the CSA (pro rata cost share allocation) was replaced by the all sums method based upon the language of the insurance policies. Therefore, Briggs' insurance policies all sums language (express contract) precluded an implied in fact contract.

After _Plenco_, There was No Meeting of the Minds or Intention to Contract to Create an Implied in Fact Contract

> The essence of a contract implied in fact is that it arises from an agreement circumstantially proved. It requires, like an express contract, the element of mutual meeting of minds and of intention to contract; it is established by proof of circumstances from which the intention is implied as a matter of fact. Such circumstances may include the conduct of the parties. But an implied contract must arise under circumstances which, "according to ordinary course of dealing and common understanding of men, show a mutual intention to contract." (Citations omitted). (Emphasis supplied). Schaller v. Marine Nat. Bank, 131 Wis.2d 389, 398 (Ct. App. 1986).

[63] Westport Ins. Corp. v. Appleton Papers Inc., 2010 WI App 86, ¶ 74.
[64] Id., ¶ 70.

An implied in fact contract requires a mutual meeting of the minds. There can be no mutual meeting of the minds by Briggs after Plenco because the result of the Wisconsin Supreme Court decision replacing pro rata cost share with the all sums method created a situation where pro rata cost sharing (a fact) no longer existed under the Defendants' insurance policies. The Defendants argued that Briggs' conduct amount to an agreement (implied in fact contract) to the pro rata cost share method. There cannot be a mutual meeting of the minds implied as a matter of fact based upon the pro rata cost sharing method because the pro rata cost sharing method based upon the Defendants' insurance policies no longer existed as a basis from which to imply a fact. That is, pursuant to the Defendants' insurance policies the pro rata cost sharing method no longer applied. Briggs could not create an implied in fact contract regarding a term that no longer existed. Briggs could not agree to a factual outcome (pro rata cost share allocation) that no longer existed under the insurance policies.

> "A contract implied in fact may arise from an agreement circumstantially proved, but even an implied contract must arise under circumstances which show a mutual intention to contract. The minds of the parties must meet on the same thing." (Emphasis supplied). Kramer v. Hayward, 57 Wis.2d 302, 306-307 (1973).

Briggs' conduct after Plenco did not show a mutual intention to contract based upon the pro rata cost sharing for allocation of damages because the minds of the parties did not meet on the same thing[65] (pro rata cost share vis a vis all sums allocation of damages).

Reversing the position of the parties, another failure of the mutual meeting of the minds and failure of mutual intention to contract is that the Defendants knew that the all sums allocation of damages was the court-approved method after Plenco and Briggs did not.[66] The minds of the parties did not meet on the same thing.

The Defendants Argued that Briggs' Lack of Knowledge Regarding Plenco was a Mistake of Law, not a Mistake of Fact[67]

[65] See Gahl v. Aurora Health Care, Inc., 2022 WI App 29, ¶ 44.

[66] "Knowledge by one party of the other's mistake regarding the expression of the contract is equivalent to mutual mistake. Reformation (and ordinarily rescission or cancellation) is only granted where there is a mutual mistake. However, there are exceptions where the mistake of one party is either known to the other party or is so obvious, under the circumstances, that it must have been known and the mistake concerns a matter so vital that it can be said that the parties, because of miscalculation or false information, never actually agreed to the same proposition. For example, if one party mistakenly offers to pay a consideration out of proportion to the subject of negotiation and the other party, realizing that a foolish mistake must have been made, takes advantage of the situation by refusing to correct the mistake once discovered, this party cannot abuse the mistaken other party, given these conditions, and claim an enforceable contract. (Footnotes omitted) (Emphasis supplied). 1 Williston on Contracts § 70.105 (4th ed.).

The Defendants contended that Briggs' conduct after the Plenco decision was a mistake of law and that therefore Briggs' conduct should be considered to determine whether there was sufficient conduct to support an implied in fact contract. The Defendants' position was necessary for the Defendants' to argue that Briggs' conduct after Plenco filled in the gaps of the CSA and that Briggs' subsequent conduct amounted to an implied in fact contract.

This court held (above) that there was no agreement, meeting of the minds, mutual assent or confirmation by Briggs to the subject matter (pro rata cost sharing) in the CSA, itself. This court held (above) that the conduct by Briggs and surrounding circumstances before Plenco were at best a dubious basis for an implied in fact contract. This court held (above) that Briggs' insurance policies expressly prohibited a subsequent implied in fact contract. This court concluded (above) that Plenco removed the basis for even a dubious implied in fact contract because the subject matter of the CSA had been obliterated by Plenco (i.e. no more pro rata cost sharing under Briggs' insurance policies). In order for the Defendants to have any basis for an implied in fact contract, they must interpret Briggs' conduct after Plenco to be a mistake of law and therefore support their argument that Brigg's conduct (i.e. mistake of law) constituted a sufficient factual basis for an implied in fact contract.

Mistake of Law

> The mistake of law doctrine states that every person is presumed to know the law and cannot claim ignorance of the law as a defense. See Hurd v. Hall, 12 Wis. 125, 137-38 (1860); see also Black's Law Dictionary 1017 (7th ed. 1999) (defining a mistake of law as a "mistake about the legal effect of known fact or situation"); Restatement of Restitution § 7 ("a 'mistake of law' means a mistake as to the legal consequences of an assumed set of facts"). Long ago this court declared that "A mistake of law happens when a party, having full knowledge of the facts, comes to an erroneous conclusion as to their legal effect. It is a mistaken opinion or inference, arising from an imperfect or incorrect exercise of the judgment, upon facts as they really are ...." Hurd, 12 Wis. at 138. Wisconsin has recognized that a mistake of law generally precludes relief, but the doctrine is not without limitation." (Emphasis supplied). Putnam v. Time Warner Cable, 2002 WI 108, ¶ 13, n. 4.

Mistake of Fact

> Mistake of fact goes to the "unconscious ignorance or forgetfulness of ... a fact ... material to the contract." Kowalke v. Milwaukee Elec. Ry. & Light Co., 103 Wis. 472, 476, 79 N.W. 762 (1899). Putnam, 2002 WI 108, ¶ 19, n. 6.

It is undisputed that Briggs did not know about the Plenco decision until 2018.[68] This absence of knowledge about the decision and the consequent rights it conferred (all sums) was a mistake of fact. That is, the lack of knowledge was an unconscious ignorance of a fact material to the contract. Briggs did not have full knowledge of the facts regarding the Plenco decision. The lack of knowledge was not a mistake of law because a mistake of law required, one, a full knowledge of the facts (which Briggs did not have), and two, an imperfect or incorrect exercise of the judgment upon the facts as they really were. There is no evidence in this case the Briggs exercised judgment or incorrectly interpreted the Plenco decision.

Because the lack of knowledge about Plenco by Briggs was a mistake of fact, Briggs' conduct cannot become a basis to infer a fact.[69] There was no meeting of the minds, mutual assent or tacit understanding to a material term of the implied in fact contract.[70] The Defendants' argument that Briggs' conduct may be inferred to become a factual basis for an implied in fact contract fails because the conduct was based upon a mistake. Mistake of fact, by its nature, indicates a lack mutual understanding or mutual intent to contract on the subject matter.

Mistake of Fact Case Law

The Defendants cited Kowalke v. Milwaukee Elec. Ry. & Light Co., 103 Wis. 472 (1899) to argue that despite Briggs' mistake of fact, this court should find an implied in fact contract and enforce it. In Kowalke, the court upheld a settlement contract where the plaintiff had signed a release pursuant to a settlement. The court decided that there was an absence of bad faith and that there was a mutual mistake of fact (whether or not plaintiff was pregnant). The court noted that whether or not plaintiff was pregnant was an uncertain or contingent event. The court also noted that the mistake of fact must be a material part of the contract, not merely incidental. The court upheld the settlement of doubtful claims arising from subsequent events despite the mutual mistake of fact.

Kowalke is distinguishable on several points. One, Kowalke was a mutual mistake of fact. Both parties contracted to overlook the uncertainty of whether or not plaintiff was pregnant and purposely entered into a subsequent settlement of injury claims. In this case, Briggs did not know about Plenco's all sums, while the Defendants did. Two, the Kowalke court concluded that the material term (whether or not plaintiff was pregnant) was incidental, i.e., not material to the subsequent settlement of injury claims. In this case, the term of allocation of damages (all sums vis a vis pro rata cost share) was a critical and material term to any implied in fact contract. Three, in Kowalke, the court decided that there was an absence of bad faith. In this case, the circumstances were very different. There was a unilateral mistake by Briggs and that the Defendants knew about Briggs' mistake.

(Emphasis supplied).

Unilateral Mistake by Briggs and the Defendants Knew about Briggs' Mistake

It is undisputed that the Defendants knew about Plenco in 2011;[71] that the Plenco decision replaced pro rata cost share with all sums allocation under the insurance policies; and that Briggs did not know of the decision.[72] The Defendants knew that once Briggs discovered Plenco, Briggs would invoke its rights to receive all sums rights under its insurance policies.[73] Therefore, the Defendants knew of Briggs' mistake and decided not to correct it.[74]

Generally, in proper case, equity will grant rescission of instrument for unilateral mistake, even in the absence of fraud.

> It is well settled that equity, in a proper case, will relieve against mistake. The instant case is not one of settlement or compromise of a disputed right or claim. … It is not necessary that fraud be shown. Nor is it necessary that the mistake be mutual in all cases.
> An application for cancellation of a contract is addressed to the sound discretion of a court of equity. Intentional fraud is not an essential. Substantial mistake on the part of the party seeking relief may be sufficient, if such course is in accordance with established rules of equity and seems reasonable and just to the court, in view of all the circumstances of the case. (Citation omitted).
> Miller v. Stanich, 202 Wis. 539 (1930).

> It is sufficient for contract reformation that one party is mistaken as to a material term of a writing and that the other knows of this mistake and fails to point it out. (Citation omitted). Henning v. Ahearn, 230 Wis. 2d 149 (Ct. App. 1999).

This case law[75] regarding rescission of contracts where one party made a unilateral mistake and the other knew about it is important in this case because the case law demonstrated either the defects in contract formation or the circumstances under which this purported contract may be rescinded. These principles illustrate the difficulty the Defendants have in showing that the conduct of Briggs amounted to facts that constituted a sufficient basis to infer an implied in fact contract. That is, after Plenco, Briggs conduct was insufficient to form an implied in fact contract in the first instance, or if one existed, there were equitable grounds for rescission. The circumstances in this case do not support the inference that Briggs' conduct constituted an implied in fact contract after Plenco.

Briggs was not Intentionally Negligent nor did Briggs Waive their Investigation into their Mistake of Fact

The Defendants argued (based upon Kowalke) that "for the 'mistake of fact' doctrine to apply, any 'ignorance (of facts) must not be due to negligence."[76] However, subsequent case law has clarified and relaxed this negligence standard.

> The next question is whether plaintiff is precluded from recovery by reason of a negligent failure properly to investigate the facts. There is some uncertainty in the cases on this subject, but we think a careful consideration of the case of Hurd v. Hall, supra, makes clear the precise relation of negligence to the subject. In that case it was stated: "This ignorance of facts must be excusable, that is, it must not arise from the intentional neglect of the party to investigate them. The rule which formerly prevailed, that if a party might, by the exercise of reasonable diligence, have ascertained the facts, he would not, on the ground of ignorance or mistake, be relieved from his contract, has of late been very much relaxed. The later cases establish the doctrine, that whenever there is a clear bona fide mistake, ignorance or forgetfulness of facts, the contract may, on that account, be avoided. (Emphasis supplied). Grand Trunk Western R. Co. v. Lahiff, 218 Wis. 457 (1935).

This case is unlike Kowalke where the court said, "Where a party enters into a contract, ignorant of a fact, but meaning to waive all inquiry into it, or waives an investigation after his attention has been called to it, he is not in mistake, in the legal sense." That is, in Kowalke, the mistake of fact (whether or not plaintiff was pregnant) was uncertain, contingent and purposely overlooked in contracting a settlement for a subsequent injury.

It is undisputed that Briggs never waived any inquiry into their mistake of fact (pro rata cost share vis a vis all sums allocation). The Defendants never called it to their attention[77] and Briggs did not waive any investigation of it. Briggs could not waive what it did not know. There are no facts in this record that show Briggs demonstrated an intentional neglect to investigate.

Ignorantia Legis Neminem Excusat

The Defendants argued that the above maxim, "Ignorance of the law excuses no one," applied to Briggs' conduct after Plenco. The Defendants characterized Briggs' conduct as a mistake of law;[78] that Briggs was presumed to know about Plenco; and that because Briggs knew the legal effect of Plenco, Briggs' post-Plenco conduct amounted to an implied in fact contract.

> The maxim, "Every one is presumed to know the law," does not obtain literally and generally; it is limited by the reason for the rule, viz.: to prevent violators of the Criminal Code from escaping punishment on the ground of ignorance of the law and violators of private rights, escaping liability for actual loss thereby inflicted on such ground.
> The maxim, "Every one is presumed to know the law," does not prevail against the real truth as to any particular situation, except as regards punishment for a criminal offense, or responsibility for actual damages for violation of private rights. (Emphasis supplied). Topolewski v. Plankinton Packing Co., 143 Wis. 52 1910).

The maxim "Ignorance of the law excuses no one," has no application to this case. This case was not a criminal prosecution where a defendant sought to escape punishment or civil case where a violator of private rights sought to escape liability.

As discussed above, Briggs' conduct was a mistake of fact, not a mistake of law. Not only does the maxim, "Ignorance of the law excuses no one," not apply to this case but as a legal presumption it's application cannot become a factual basis for an inference of fact to support an implied in fact contract.

Judge Foley's 2020 Ruling on the Application of the Statute of Limitations

The Defendants asserted that Judge Foley's prior ruling in this case (that "Briggs knew or should have known of Plenco as of, or about the time of, its issuance ...."[79]) presumed[80] that Briggs knew or was aware of Plenco and its consequences.[81] Therefore, the Defendants argued that Briggs' post-Plenco conduct was consistent with that knowledge and provided a basis to infer an implied in fact contract.

Judge Foley's ruling was:

> The insurers maintain the claim (the second cause of action of bad faith) is barred by the statute of limitations. While the discovery rule applies in tort claims, Hansen, 113 Wis. 2d 550, claims accrue, and the statute of limitation begins running, when the injured party knew or in the exercise of reasonable diligence should have known of the wrongful conduct and resultant injury/damage. Id.; Jacobs, 217 Wis. 2d 625. As at least implied above, Briggs knew or should have known of Plenco as of, or about the time of, its issuance and thereby knew of should have known of the underpayments. Hence, any portion of the bad faith claim based on underpayments occurring prior to January 25, 2016, are barred by the three year statute of limitations. 893.57.

It is clear that Judge Foley's ruling was in the context of his analysis of the application of the statute of limitations to the tort claim (i.e. the bad faith claim) on defendant's motion to dismiss in this case. The legal standard, known as the discovery rule, is that "a claim does not accrue until the injury is discovered or in the exercise of reasonable diligence should be discovered."[82]

The legal issue in the parties' motion for summary judgment is contract law, not tort law. Earlier in his decision, Judge Foley discussed the contract law (breach of contract) claim:

> The contract breach as plead occurred when, after the Plenco decision, the insurers reimbursed Briggs on a pro rata rather than an all sums basis for asbestos related claims. There is no discovery rule as to contract claims and the claim accrues regardless of whether the injured party knew or should have known of the breach. (Citation omitted). As to the contract claims, the cause of action accrued as "underpayments" were made anytime after the Plenco decision in 2009.[83]

This court agrees that the discovery rule in contract law is that accrual occurs regardless of Briggs' knowledge. Judge Foley made no ruling regarding Briggs' knowledge of Plenco under contract law. He only applied the contract law statute of limitations.[84]

Because Judge Foley's ruling applied only to the tort law claim, not the contract law claim, the ruling did not create a factual presumption that Briggs' knew about Plenco for the purpose of an implied in fact contract. The Defendants assumed that there was proof of Briggs' discovery of Plenco or that Briggs should have discovered Plenco through the exercise of reasonable diligence. The undisputed facts are that Briggs did not know about Plenco until 2018. Briggs did not need to exercise reasonable diligence regarding the discovery rule under contract law.

As discussed above, the contract law standard for contract formation or rescission under unilateral mistake of fact when the other party knew of the mistake is intentional neglect or waiver of investigation of the fact. As discussed above, there is no evidence of Briggs' intentional neglect or waiver of investigation.

The Defendants argument fails because their argument would have to one, use the tort law (not contract law) standard for knowledge to presume that Briggs knew about Plenco. Two, the Defendants would have to use this presumption (that Briggs knew about Plenco) to establish the fact (that Briggs knew about Plenco). Three, the use of the presumed fact (that Briggs knew about Plenco) would have to be used to infer that Briggs' conduct based upon the presumed fact created the necessary elements for an implied in fact contract. The Defendants' argument fall short because of the wrong standard (tort law not contract law), inadequate presumption (knowledge), insufficient inference (knowledge inferred for a factual basis) and wrong conclusion (existence of an implied in fact contract post-Plenco).

The Defendants' Conduct did not Support their Implied in Fact Contract Theory

The discussion so far has dealt primarily with Briggs' conduct. However, there are undisputed facts that the Defendants' conduct did not support an implied in fact contract.[85] After Plenco, the Defendants discussed the possibility adjusting their pro rata shares based upon the years of exposure.[86] After Plenco, the Defendants ignored, varied and calculated different cost shares[87] for themselves on different settlements. After Plenco, the Defendants disregarded the all sums allocation of damages and continued varying pro rata cost share allocations despite their acknowledgement of their repeated reservation of rights under Briggs' insurance policies.[88] This court adopts Briggs' position that Briggs' insurance "(p)olicies always continued in force and ultimately governed the parties' relationship, rights, and duties."[89]

The 2003 Email did not Provide Consideration

As discussed above, the CSA, itself, was not an express contract. However, the Defendants contended that the CSA provided consideration in that the second material term of the 2003 email (the CSA) was that the Defendants relinquished their right to control the defense.[90] The Defendants argued that the right to control the defense was a valuable right that the Defendants would have had under their insurance policies.[91]

The pertinent portion of the 2003 email reads:

> We all agreed to leave the Briggs & Stratton continue to act as lead in assigning counsel to complaints as they are received.

The plain language "agreed to leave (Briggs) to continue to act as lead" shows that Briggs was supposed to continue its practice to act as lead in assigning new counsel to new asbestos cases. The language does not set forth a sudden change in practice or a declaration of rights of the parties. There is no definite language that the Defendants are ceding or surrendering their rights to control their defense under the insurance policies.

Ms. Dorfschmidt, the author of the email, testified that the email meant "Lead and assigning counsel, not controlling defense."[92] The email confirmed, "that Briggs was already acting in that role as lead"[93] and Briggs should continue to do so. Ms. Dorfschmidt made clear that the 2003 email did not confer the right on Briggs to control the defense.[94]

The 2003 email was a summary of a discussion by the Defendants and Briggs' insurance broker. Any material term, such as the right to control the defense, could not have come at the request of Briggs. There was no assent by Briggs to the relinquishment of control of defense by the Defendants.

The Defendants never agreed to cede or relinquish the right to control the defense of claims to Briggs as expressed in an email dated 12/1/06:[95]

> … (A)s a general matter the carriers simply cannot agree to pay claimants who cannot at minimum establish some exposure to BASCO products. The carriers cannot agree to simply acquiesce to any and all settlements below a certain dollar value. The insurance policies issued by the carriers vest the carriers with certain rights, such as the right to control the insured's defense, the right to reasonable and prompt cooperation from the insured, and the right to approve all settlements before the insured enters into them. The right to approve settlements complements the right to control the defense, and ensures that the carriers shall not be obligated to indemnify the insured for settlements that they believe to be unwise or unwarranted. The carriers will not forfeit this right.

After reviewing the above 2006 email, Ms. Dorfschmidt agreed that the Defendants had their rights to control the defense and that the Defendants had not forfeited those rights pursuant to the 2003 email.[96]

Assuming the 2003 email was an offer, the language was not definite by its terms to provide the parties with reasonable certainty of what the terms actually were. Nor does the 2003 email provide any definite terms for Briggs' acceptance. There was no agreement, meeting of the minds, mutual assent or confirmation by Briggs to this second material term (control of defense) in the 2003 email.

There is no clear or definite expression of whether this material term (control of defense) was a quid pro quo,[97] an exchange for something else. The 2003 email does not contain clear and definite language indicating what was exchanged for the control of defense.

The Defendants always retained the right to control defense.[98] There was no detriment to the Defendants or request by Briggs. Therefore, this court concludes that the 2003 email did not provide consideration.

There was No Implied in Fact Contract

This court finds, as a matter of law, that the CSA (2003 email) along with Briggs' subsequent conduct did not create and implied in fact contract that superseded Briggs' insurance policies. The insurance policies always controlled.

Briggs Need Not Make an Affirmative and Contemporaneous All Sums Selection[99] when Tendering a Claim.

The Defendants contended that because Briggs had to affirmatively and contemporaneously select the policy or policies it wanted to respond to a particular claim[100] and that because Briggs had accepted the cost share payments for settlements in this case, that Briggs could not go back to rewrite history for a different allocation (i.e. all sums). The Defendants relied on Cleaver Brooks, Inc. v. AIU Ins. Co., 2013 WI App 135 to support their position.

The issue in Cleaver Brooks was the joint and several liability of concurrent policies within a single policy year.[101] The issue in this case is the joint and several liability of successive policies (all sums liability) over different years as addressed in Plenco.[102] The Cleaver Brooks' court noted that the question presented in Cleaver Brooks was a very different question than presented in Plenco.[103]

The Cleaver Brooks' decision dealt with whether insurers could sequentially make payments at their choosing such that exhaustion of their policies deprived Cleaver Brooks of more than $30 million in defense coverage.[104] The appellate court held that the insurers' joint and several liability created simultaneous,[105] not sequential obligations. The appellate court also affirmed the trial court's rejection of the pro rata time on the risk.[106] Therefore, Cleaver Brooks, although dealing with a different question, followed Plenco's all sums method when discussing joint and several liability of multiple insurers and how their policies were exhausted in a particular policy year.

The Defendants next argued that Cleaver Brooks created an all sums tender requirement. That is, Briggs had to make an affirmative and contemporaneous policy selection including an all sums selection. The Defendants discuss Justice Gableman's concurring/dissenting opinion in Plenco extrapolating a tender selection requirement because Justice Gableman said, "an insured 'can choose one solvent insurer from which to seek payment quickly and with a minimum of litigation complexity.'"[107]

Justice Gableman wrote:

> This case does not present the proper factual basis for the majority to apply joint and several allocation because, unlike many of the cases on which the majority relies, there are no successive insurers from which Liberty Mutual can seek contribution. Typically the joint and several approach is utilized for the convenience and protection of the insured, who can choose one solvent insurer from which to seek payment quickly and with a minimum of litigation complexity. That chosen insurer then later seeks contribution, either through litigation or negotiation, from other insurers on the risk during portions of the occurrence. Therefore, joint and several allocation is really just a two-step version of the pro rata allocation method because under joint and several allocation the insured gets paid in the first step and the insurers fight over contribution in the second step. The biggest difference in the present case, however, is that the majority is imposing coverage for periods when the insured bargained for none, whereas a pro rata allocation would allocate the loss among all insurers, including self-insurers, for the time each was on the risk.[108] (Footnotes omitted). (Emphasis supplied).

Justice Gableman dissented from the majority's all sums ruling.[109] He wrote, "a time-on-the-risk pro rata allocation of defense costs is practical, desirable, and reasonable."[110] Justice Gableman explained his view of the joint and several approach. The Cleaver Brooks court cited Justice Gableman's words ("his statement is consistent with our assertion that joint and several liability is '(l)iability that may be apportioned either among two or more parties or to only one or a few select members of the group, at the adversary's discretion.'"). This court does not agree with the Defendants that Justice Gableman's words (about an argument involving a different topic, i.e. joint and several liability) can be construed to create a selection requirement. Plenco and Cleaver Brooks were about joint and several liability, not about a selection requirement. His dissenting argument about joint and several liability did not create a selection requirement in this case. Cleaver Brooks does not support the Defendants' argument.

In this case, Briggs followed Wisconsin law regarding any tender requirement.[111] Once Briggs tendered their claims, the Defendants were liable for all sums under their policies because the policies of insurance between Briggs and the Defendants controlled.

Eaton Corporation v. Westport Insurance Company[112] Does Not Support the Defendants' Argument Regarding No Reallocation of Claims

The Defendants parsed a rule from Eaton (preventing reallocation of claims to different years when an insured had aggregated claims in a single year from multiple insurers and then exhausted those insurers' policies to reach excess insurance policies) and argued that the rule applied to this case.[113]

Eaton's procedural history was that Eaton sought a declaratory judgment against its insurers clarifying the policy language regarding "trigger" and "allocation of damages."

The federal court recited the applicable law:

> … Wisconsin law applied to their policies and that, under such law, the so-called "continuous trigger" and "all sums" allocation method applied. Under the continuous-trigger theory, an asbestos claim triggers all policies in force from the time of the claimant's first exposure to asbestos through the time of manifestation of the claimant's disease. Under the all-sums allocation method, an insurer must pay for all damages resulting from an injury (up to the policy limit) so long as the injury triggered the policy. (Citation omitted).
> When both the continuous-trigger rule and the all-sums allocation method apply to a group of insurance policies issued over a series of years, the insured has the right to allocate all asbestos losses to a single triggered year and then work its way up the layers of insurance for that year, starting with the primary policy and spiking upward through the umbrella and all excess layers for that year. Once the limits of all policies for the year are exhausted, the insured may then repeat the process and work its way up the coverage tower for another year.[114] (Citation omitted).

The Eaton court denied declaratory judgment because the issue was not ripe, i.e. a classic request about remote contingencies.[115]

In support of its decision, the court set forth in part its analysis:

> As explained, under the all-sums allocation method, Eaton may select a policy year, allocate its covered losses to that year, and work its way up the coverage tower for that year. But once Eaton allocates a loss to a policy year, it cannot reallocate those same losses to a different year. If Eaton could allocate the same loss to multiple policy years, then Eaton would be recovering twice for the same loss. Yet the all-sums allocation method does not entitle Eaton to a double recovery.[116] (Citation omitted).

The situation in this case is different from Eaton. Eaton provides little guidance for this court's analysis. Briggs was not trying to aggregate multiple insurers into a single year to exhaust those limits and reach excess insurance coverage. The underlying rationale in Eaton of the no reallocation to a different year after allocation to a single year was to prevent the insured from double recovery. Briggs did not seek double recovery but only a single recovery (all sums) from the Defendants who had the responsibility for the asbestos losses.[117] The Defendants' underpayments to Briggs based upon pro rata cost share do not fit the situation in Eaton, especially when the case law made it clear that Briggs was entitled to all sums pursuant to the insurance policies post-Plenco. Finally, Briggs disputed the application of the Eaton no reallocation rule to this case because where appropriate to ensure a full recovery, Wisconsin law permitted the reallocation of losses among insurers who share liability for the same losses.[118] This court rejects the Defendants' argument regarding reallocation of claims.

The Defendants' Equitable Defenses

Waiver

Waiver "requires the intentional relinquishment of a known right."[119] The first element of waiver is that the right existed at the time of the claimed waiver. In this case, the Defendants claimed that Briggs waived the right to have the Defendants "pay 100% (all sums) of defense and indemnity costs for claims that trigger their policies."[120] After Plenco, the Defendants conceded that this right existed.[121]

The next element of waiver is that the party "knew of the right at issue."[122] The court explained:

> (I)t must be shown by the party claiming a waiver that the person against whom the waiver is asserted had at the time knowledge ... of the existence of his rights....

> Ignorance of a material fact negatives a waiver. Waiver cannot be established by a consent given under a mistake of fact. (Citation omitted). Stated differently, a valid waiver that intentionally relinquishes a right must be done with actual knowledge of the right being waived.[123]

It is undisputed that Briggs did not know about the Plenco decision until 2018.[124] The Defendants knew that once Briggs discovered Plenco, Briggs would invoke its rights to receive all sums rights under its insurance policies.[125] Therefore, the Defendants knew of Briggs' mistake and decided not to correct it.[126]

Based upon the undisputed fact that Briggs did not know about Plenco until 2018 and that their lack of knowledge was a mistake of fact or unconscious ignorance, this court concludes as a matter of law that the second element of waiver is lacking. That is, ignorance of a material fact (Plenco) negatives a waiver by Briggs. This court has already decided (above) that Briggs did not have constructive or imputed knowledge of Plenco.

The third element of waiver is that the waiver must be knowing, intelligent and voluntary[127] and be an intentional relinquishment of a known right.[128] Briggs did not know about Plenco and therefore any waiver by Briggs was not knowing, intelligent or voluntary. Briggs lacked actual knowledge of Plenco and therefore Briggs could not intentionally relinquished a right without actual knowledge of the right being waived. This court concludes as a matter of law that the third element of waiver is lacking.

Moreover, this court adopts Briggs' argument that the policies prohibited any waiver.

> Every Policy at issue in this case expressly states that its terms cannot be "waived or changed" without a formal, written endorsement. The Insurers admit there was no such endorsement issued in connection with any of the Policies. This language is enforceable. In the absence of any written endorsement to any of the Policies, Briggs could not have waived any Policy rights, including the term requiring the Insurers to pay "all sums," as that phrase was interpreted by the Wisconsin Supreme Court in Plenco, given their own admissions.[129] (Citations and references omitted).

The Defendants' waiver argument fails.

Laches

The Wisconsin Supreme Court set forth the law on laches.

> Laches is an affirmative, equitable defense designed to bar relief when a claimant's failure to promptly bring a claim causes prejudice to the party having to defend against that claim. (Citation omitted). While formulated differently across cases and jurisdictions, the laches doctrine is broadly understood to ask whether a party delayed without good reason in raising a claim, and whether that delay prejudiced the party seeking to defend against that claim. See State ex rel. Wren v. Richardson, 2019 WI 110, ¶14, 389 Wis. 2d 516, 936 N.W.2d 587 (explaining that laches "is founded on the notion that equity aids the vigilant, and not those who sleep on their rights to the detriment of the opposing party" (quoted source omitted)).
> In Wisconsin, application of laches is premised on proof of three elements: (1) a party unreasonably delays in bringing a claim; (2) a second party lacks knowledge that the first party would raise that claim; and (3) the second party is prejudiced by the delay. The party seeking application of laches bears the burden of proving each element. Whether that burden is carried is a question of law. Even if all three elements are satisfied, application of laches is left to the sound discretion of the court asked to apply this equitable bar. (Citations omitted). Wis. Small Businesses United, Inc. v. Brennan, 2020 WI 69, ¶¶ 11-12.

Unreasonable Delay

> The first element requires the respondents to prove (plaintiff) unreasonably delayed in bringing the suit. What constitutes a reasonable time will vary and depends on the facts of a particular case. … ("Whether a delay is reasonable is case specific; we look at the totality of circumstances.")[130] (Citations omitted).

The Defendants contended that Briggs waited approximately nine years after Plenco to assert its rights under Plenco. This court has recited (above) the undisputed facts that Briggs did not know about Plenco and that Briggs did not have constructive or imputed knowledge of Plenco. Briggs demanded all sums payment in 2018 upon learning about Plenco. This court concludes that Briggs did not unreasonably delay in raising their claim.

Did the Second Party (the Defendants) Lack Knowledge that the First Party (Briggs) Would Raise that Claim?

The second element of laches is that "a second party lacks knowledge that the first party would raise that claim." Or stated more fully, "lack of knowledge on the part of the party asserting the defense that the other party would assert the right on which he bases his suit ...."[131] The second party in this case is the Defendants because the Defendants are asserting the laches defense.

The undisputed fact is that the Defendants had actual knowledge of Brigg's lack of knowledge about Plenco and the ramification of that knowledge to this case in 2011.[132] That is, the Defendants knew that if Briggs knew about Plenco, then Briggs would invoke its rights all sums rights under Plenco and not have to contribute to the cost share at all.[133]

Based upon the undisputed facts, the Defendants failed to show that they had a lack of knowledge about Plenco and Briggs' all sums rights. The Defendants had full knowledge that Briggs could assert its rights under Plenco as of 2011. Therefore, as a matter of law, the Defendants failed to show[134] after 2011 that they lacked knowledge that Briggs would assert their all sums rights under Plenco.

Prejudice

The third element of laches is that the second party (the Defendants) was prejudiced by the delay. "The final element of laches requires proof of prejudice resulting from the claimant's unreasonable delay."[135] This court has held (above) that Briggs did not unreasonably delay. Therefore, any prejudice claimed by the Defendants did not result from Briggs' actions.

Courts have discussed evidentiary and economic prejudice.[136] "Evidentiary prejudice ... may arise where a plaintiff's delay in bringing an action has curtailed the defendant's ability to present a full and fair defense on the merits due to the loss of evidence, the death of a witness, or the unreliability of memories."[137] The Defendants do not have an argument for evidentiary prejudice.

"Economic prejudice occurs when 'the costs to the defendant have significantly increased due to the delay.'"[138] The Defendants contended that they were prejudiced because they paid excessive costs to law firms when they ceded their right to control the defense to Briggs.[139] This court has already rejected (above) the Defendants' argument that they ceded or relinquished their right to control the defense. The argument also fails for lack of proof. There was no showing by the Defendants that the legal fees by various law firms were excessive. "(T)he court cannot assume that … a party faces 'significantly increased' costs."[140]

Finally, the Defendants have failed to show that their underpayments placed them "in a less favorable position."[141] The Defendants benefitted by making underpayments to Briggs despite the fact that Briggs was owed the all sums payments and the Defendants underpaid them. The Defendants cannot claim now (because of this lawsuit) that prejudice has accrued due to Briggs' lawful claims for all sums payment that Briggs was entitled to under the insurance policies after Plenco.

Equitable Discretion

A court may choose not to apply laches "if it determines that application of the defense is not appropriate and equitable."[142] The Defendants have failed as a matter of law on all three elements of laches. The equities in this case are on Briggs' side. The equities do not favor the Defendants when it is clear that the Defendants took unfair advantage of Briggs by not disclosing to Briggs their rights under Plenco.[143]

Equitable Estoppel

> There are four elements of equitable estoppel: (1) action or non-action; (2) on the part of one against whom estoppel is asserted; (3) which induces reasonable reliance thereon by the other, either in action or non-action; (4) which is to the relying party's detriment. Affordable Erecting v. Neosho Trompler, 2006 WI 67, ¶ 33.

The Defendants theory for equitable estoppel is that Briggs' combination of action and non-action (by accepting underpayments based upon pro rata cost share allocation) after Plenco, induced reasonable reliance by the Defendants on Briggs' action and non-action that was to the Defendants' detriment.[144]

This court discussed (above) the nature of Briggs' action or non-action and held that it was a mistake of fact. This court concluded, for many reasons, that Briggs' conduct did not give rise to an implied in fact contract after Plenco. This court rejected (above) the Defendants' objections regarding policy selection and reallocation requirements. The fundamental, undisputed fact was that Briggs' conduct was consistent with the insurance policies that after Plenco required the all sums payment method.

[139] Document 581, pp. 47-48.
[140] Trump, 2020 WI 91, ¶ 127.
[141] Id., ¶ 124.
[142] WI SMALL BUSINESSES UNITED, 2020 WI 69, ¶ 26.
[143] This court adopts Briggs' argument about the Defendants' conduct in this case. See Document 753, pp. 64-67.
[144] See Document 581, pp. 48-49.

The Defendants recast Briggs' conduct as Briggs' attempt to induce reliance by the Defendants because of Briggs' accepting underpayments. The undisputed facts show that the Defendants knew about Plenco and Briggs did not. The undisputed fact is that the Briggs' conduct (accepting underpayments) could not have induced[145] the Defendants at all because the underpayments were previously determined and presented by the Defendants. While the concept of inducement in equitable estoppel does not necessarily require intentional fraud, inducement can be satisfied by unconscientious or inequitable action.[146] In this case, it is the Defendants, not Briggs, who arguably engaged in unconscientious or inequitable action by continuing to present pro rata cost share payments rather than all sums payments after Plenco. The Defendants' conduct created the underpayments and the underpayments only stopped when Briggs found out about Plenco.

The Defendants' theory for estoppel also fails because the Defendants could not have reasonably relied on Briggs' conduct in accepting the underpayments. Briggs did not know (unconscious ignorance) about Plenco. The Defendants knew about Plenco and knew that if Briggs found out about Plenco that Briggs would demand all sums payment. There is nothing reasonable about presenting pro rata cost share payments when after Plenco the law required all sums payments. This court concludes that there was no reasonable reliance by the Defendants on Briggs' conduct.

Finally, there was no reliance on Briggs' conduct to the Defendants' detriment. "(E)quitable estoppel requires that 'the party (Briggs) against whom estoppel is asserted caused another party (the Defendants) to change position to his or her detriment.'"[147] The Defendants, despite the decision in Plenco, did not change their position but continued to make underpayments based upon the pro rata cost share.

"Our supreme court has stated that "(i)n the context of ... equitable estoppel, 'detriment' has been equated with 'prejudice,' and (has been) commonly understood to mean 'injury or damage.'"[148] Not only did the Defendants not change their position after Plenco, they cannot claim any injury or damage. The result of the Defendants' conduct was that they underpaid Briggs by millions of dollars. The Defendants cannot claim now (because of this lawsuit) that prejudice or damage has accrued due to Briggs' lawful claims for all sums payment that Briggs was entitled to under the insurance policies after Plenco. This court concludes that the Defendants' request for relief under equitable estoppel fails as a matter of law.

The Insured's Right to be Treated Fairly

[145] See Merriam-Webster Dictionary, (https://www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/induce#) definition of induce: a: to move by persuasion or influence b: to call forth or bring about by influence or stimulation.
[146] See Dunn v. Pertzsch Construction Co., 38 Wis.2d 433, 437 (1968). "The concept of intentional fraud or inducement in respect to estoppel does not require necessarily what will ground an action in fraud but is satisfied by unconscientious or inequitable action." (Citations omitted).
[147] Affordable Erecting, id., ¶ 20.
[148] Id.

This court has rejected (above) all of the Defendants' equitable defenses as a matter of law. In the context of equitable defenses, this court agrees with Briggs' argument[149] that Briggs was not treated fairly pursuant to the insurance policies (contracts).

> Where a person contracts with an insurance company for coverage in case of particular losses, the insured has a right to expect to be treated fairly and to have legitimate claims paid promptly. … The insured's right to be treated fairly (and his recourse to the courts if he is not) is rooted in the contract of insurance to which he and the insurer are parties. (Emphasis supplied). Kranzush v. Badger State Mut. Cas. Co., 103 Wis.2d 56, 64 (1981).

The Defendants failed to communicate about their knowledge of Plenco and Plenco's consequences.

> We pause to emphasize the importance of insurers communicating with their insureds. … This principle underlies the expansive duty for insurers to defend their insureds and to communicate with their insureds in the event it is unclear whether an insured has tendered the defense of a suit to the insurer. Communication on other critical issues is strongly encouraged. (Citations and footnotes omitted). Maxwell v. Hartford Union High School Dist., 2012 WI 58, ¶ 60.

While these cases discussed the tort of bad faith,[150] the principles are rooted in contract law through the insurance policies. Under contract law, the Defendants' conduct did not demonstrate fair and equitable treatment of Briggs. Therefore, the Defendants may not seek equitable relief where their own conduct caused the harm.[151]

There are No Genuine Disputes of Fact that Defeat Briggs' Motion for Summary Judgment

Both parties presented their respective arguments, with supporting factual documentation, through their Motions for Summary Judgment. While their positions were divergent and opposing, their positions were presented as matters of law. Neither party presented or raised genuine issues of material fact. Because this court decided as a matter of law that the Defendants did not have an affirmative defense of an implied in fact contract and this court decided the Defendants had no equitable defenses, the Defendants Motion for Summary Judgment is denied. Because this court decided as a matter of law that Briggs' insurance policies (contracts) controlled, that the Defendants have breached those contracts, and that there are no genuine issues of material fact, this court grants Briggs' Motion for Summary Judgment.

Conclusion

Based upon this court's discussion, this court concludes as a matter of law that the Defendants did not have an affirmative defense of an implied in fact contract and that the Defendants' equitable defenses fail. Therefore, the defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment is denied.

This court concludes that because Briggs adduced a prima facie case for summary judgment and there are no genuine issues of material fact, this court grants Briggs' Motion for Summary Judgment on Count One of the Amended Complaint.

Re: Halperin v. Nationwide, et al., Milwaukee County 19-cv-795: Demand to Withdraw Defendants' Improper Setoff Claim

Dear Counsel:

I'm writing on behalf of the Plan Administrator to object to the Insurers' attempt to use newly alleged overpayments of asbestos costs from 2018-24 to reduce and offset Briggs' 2013-18 "all-sums" damages in the Wisconsin coverage action.

Briggs' 2013-18 all-sums damages are a pre-petition claim of Briggs & Stratton Corp. As you know, under the Plan confirmed by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Missouri, the Plan Administrator, acting on behalf of the Wind-Down Estate, is the proper party to pursue Briggs' pre-petition coverage claims. See https://www.veritaglobal.net/Briggs, ECF 1485. The Insurers' attempt to reduce Briggs' damages using credits/refunds for different, post-2018 asbestos costs—which were predominantly incurred and paid post-petition—is an improper setoff in violation of the Bankruptcy Code and the Plan Injunction.

Please confirm in writing within seven days of this letter that the Insurers will withdraw their setoff claim. Otherwise, the Plan Administrator intends to seek all appropriate relief from the Bankruptcy Court, including enforcement of the Plan Injunction.

The Insurers' Attempted Setoff

In the summer of 2018, Briggs demanded that the Insurers pay "all sums"—that is, 100% of its historical asbestos costs. The Insurers refused, and this lawsuit followed. Briggs seeks to recover roughly $4.2 million in base damages (not including interest or bad-faith enhancements) for the 2013-18 period.

With respect to ongoing, future asbestos costs from mid-2018 forward, however, the Insurers immediately agreed to honor their all-sums policy obligations. Until now, that has never been in dispute. As Mr. Cohen told the Court during the October 2024 MSJ hearing, "the insurers agreed to pay the 100 percent." (Tr. 68:16-17.)

From July 2018 through September 2024, according to the Insurers' expert, the Insurers paid roughly $3.4 million in defense costs and settlements for covered asbestos actions against Briggs. This includes both pre-bankruptcy-petition and post-petition payments. Consistent with the all-sums policies and Wisconsin law, Briggs and the estate did not pay any portion of these 2018-24 costs.

Yet in November 2025, the Insurers served a new expert report of Dr. Benjamin Mermelstein that seeks to walk back their agreement (and obligation) to pay 100% since 2018. Defendants' theory, as explained in the Mermelstein report, appears to be that if the Insurers are forced to make any all-sums payments to Briggs for the 2013-18 period, then they should be entitled to reduce Briggs' damages based on alleged overpayments which the Insurers supposedly made from 2018-24. These "overpayments" are based on hypothetical contribution shares that the Insurers say they should have received from excess/umbrella insurers. Mermelstein claims the amount of the overpayments is between roughly $795K (in his attachment 4) and roughly $2.1 million (in his attachment 7).

In effect, Defendants' expert treats those supposed "overpayments" as amounts that Briggs allegedly owes back to the Insurers, and he nets that alleged debt against Briggs' 2013-18 damages. Put differently, defendants seek a refund of much or most of the roughly $3.4 million in all-sums payments they've made since 2018. And they impermissibly engage in self-help by crediting that "refund" against the all-sums damages owed to Briggs in the Wisconsin action for the 2013-18 period.

The table below summarizes Mermelstein's calculations and illustrates his "netting" approach:

	Defendants' Damages Calculations in Mermelstein's 2025 Report
	Main Allocation (Attachment 4)	Sensitivity #1 (Attachment 5)	Sensitivity #2 (Attachment 6)	Sensitivity #3 (Attachment 7)
A. Admitted Underpayments to Briggs during the Relevant Period (2013-18)	$2,391,486	$3,206,628	$3,315,743	$3,844,218
B. Alleged Insurer Overpayments after the Relevant Period (2018-24)	-$794,662	-$1,435,253	-$1,603,416	-$2,107,324
Net Amount Owed to Briggs [A minus B]	$1,596,824	$1,771,375	$1,712,327	$1,736,894

The Insurers' attempt to claim the post-2018 refunds/credits in row B and offset them against Briggs' all-sums damages for the relevant period in row A, is improper and must be withdrawn.

The Insurers' Setoff Violates the Bankruptcy Code and the Plan Injunction

What the Insurers' expert alleges is a classic setoff theory: the Insurers owe Briggs a debt (all-sums damages for 2013-18, as shown [though understated] in row A above), but they allege that Briggs also owes the Insurers a debt for their alleged overpayments from 2018-24 (shown in row B), and they seek to net the two amounts (as shown in row C).

The Bankruptcy Code and the Confirmation Order bar this attempted setoff for at least four reasons.

First, while 11 U.S.C. § 553(a) preserves certain setoff rights, it does so only if both obligations are (i) mutual and (ii) arose before the bankruptcy petition date. Here, Briggs' 2013-18 all-sums damages are entirely pre-petition (July 20, 2020), whereas the alleged "overpayments" that Defendants want to net out were overwhelmingly paid after the petition date (and largely after confirmation). That is the textbook scenario of an impermissible post-petition/ post-confirmation setoff against a pre-petition debt that bankruptcy law forbids. Cf. In re Kleather, 208 B.R. 406, 413-15 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1997); In re Garcia, 23 B.R. 266, 267-68 (N.D. Ill. 1982).

Second, the Insurers' proposed setoff also fails Section 553's mutuality requirement. The Insurers owed 2013-18 all-sums damages to Briggs & Stratton before the July 2020 petition date. Upon confirmation, that claim vested in the Wind-Down Estate "free and clear of all Claims … and other interests." Plan § 10.1. By contrast, any alleged "refund" right the Insurers claim for supposed overpayments since July 2020 would be against the post-confirmation Wind-Down Estate. The obligations the Insurers seek to net out are thus not "between the same parties, in the same right or capacity." See Matter of O.P.M. Leasing Servs., Inc., 68 B.R. 979, 985–86 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1987) (prohibiting setoff). They are not mutual.

Third, even as to alleged "overpayments" made pre-petition (from 2018-20), the Insurers' setoff is barred by the Plan Injunction. Upon the filing of Briggs' bankruptcy petition, 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(7) stayed the exercise of any and all setoff rights. Later, when the bankruptcy court approved the Plan and entered its Confirmation Order, the Plan Injunction took effect. It broadly enjoins anyone with an affected claim or interest from "taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan" or asserting claims against the Debtors. See Plan § 10.4(a), (b). The prohibited actions include "asserting any right of setoff, directly or indirectly" unless it is "contemplated or Allowed by the Plan." Id. § 10(b)(iv).

The Insurers never sought relief from the automatic stay to exercise any setoff; nor did they obtain relief from the Plan Injunction. Instead, they now attempt to exercise a unilateral "self-help" setoff in state court years after the petition date and the confirmation date. That is precisely what Section 362 and the Plan Injunction forbid. And because the Insurers did not file a proof of claim or otherwise assert any setoff right in the bankruptcy case, their alleged "overpayment" claim is not an "Allowed Claim" under Plan § 1.5 and cannot be charged to the Estate.

Fourth, the Insurers' attempt to retroactively deny full coverage for post-confirmation asbestos claims violates the procedures for handling Insured Claims in Section 7.9 of the Plan.

The Insurers' Setoff Is also Improper under Wisconsin Law

Additionally, the insurers' attempted setoff is independently prohibited by Wisconsin law. Among other reasons, Defendants did not plead any claim or affirmative defense asserting their supposed right to reimbursement or setoff for any portion of the asbestos costs they paid from 2018-24. Wis. Stat. § 802.02(3) requires that a party affirmatively set forth in a pleading any matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense on pain of waiver. Hertlein v. Huhthausen, 133 Wis. 2d 67, 70 (Ct. App. 1986). Affirmative claims and counterclaims must also be pled. Wis. Stat. § 802.02. Including a new theory in an expert report as the Insurers have done is not a pleading and does not amend a pleading. This is a brand-new claim that was never pled.

The Insurers' setoff theory is also inconsistent with Wisconsin insurance law. As you know, Wisconsin applies an "all sums" allocation rule. Under that rule, an insured may collect all sums (100%) of its covered losses from any one or more triggered policies, up to limits, leaving contribution issues to be resolved among insurers afterward. See Plastics Eng'g Co. v. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co., 315 Wis.2d 556 (2009). Any contribution takes place between insurers on the back end after they have paid the insured; it does not diminish the insured's all-sums rights on the front end. See 16 Couch on Ins. § 222:98. The Insurers' damages calculations violate this principle.

This is not the first time the Insurers have tried to shift part of their all-sums burden back onto Briggs' shoulders. In the decision dismissing the Insurers' counterclaims, the Court held that "[t]argeted insurers have a right to seek contribution from other insurers on the risk" but that Wisconsin and other all-sums states "reject the proposition such can be allocated to the insured." (Doc. 141, emphasis added.) The same principle applies here. Defendants cannot accomplish indirectly, through a supposed "refund" or setoff, what the Court already barred them from doing directly—i.e., shifting their all-sums burden back onto Briggs. The Insurers must instead pay their full all-sums damages to Briggs in the first instance. After they have made Briggs whole, they may separately seek contribution among each other or against other insurers on the risk.

Reservation of Rights

The Insurers have an ongoing obligation to adjust and pay covered asbestos claims in good faith, consistent with their policies, Wisconsin law, and the Court's rulings. The Insurers' current efforts to reduce or avoid those payments through an improper setoff theory are inconsistent with their good-faith obligations. The Plan Administrator reserves all rights and remedies.

Re: Halperin v. Nationwide, et al., Milwaukee County 19-cv-795: "Demand to Withdraw Defendants' Improper Setoff Claim"

Dear Mr. Reynolds,

This letter is being sent on behalf of the Insurers[1] in response to your January 27, 2026 letter ("Letter"). The Letter argues that Dr. Mermelstein's November 2025 expert report violates the Bankruptcy Plan because it seeks an improper "set off."

Dr. Mermelstein's Report was served on November 21, 2025. The Letter was sent over two months later on January 27, 2026. The Insurers have endeavored to respond as quickly as possible to your contentions given your demand for a reply within one week. Nevertheless, the Insurers write to respond to your contentions. Given the time constraints, this is not intended to be an exhaustive recitation of all reasons the Insurers disagree with your Letter, and they reserve the right to assert any additional arguments. In summary, the Insurers do not agree to ask Dr. Mermelstein to modify or withdraw his expert report, because your Letter suffers from a fatal analytical flaw—the Insurers are not making a setoff claim. Instead, Briggs fundamentally misconstrues the nature of Dr. Mermelstein's Report.

1. Dr. Mermelstein's Report Properly Shows the Position Briggs and the Insurers Would Have Been In Had Briggs Tendered Claims in Real Time and the Insurers Paid 100% and Sought Contribution, While Accounting for Policy Limits.

As an initial matter, Dr. Mermelstein's Report is not, in any sense of the word, a "setoff" claim. Under the doctrine of setoff, "entities that owe each other money … apply their mutual debts against each other, thereby avoiding 'the absurdity of making A pay B when B owes A.'" Citizens Bank of Maryland v. Strumpf, 116 S. Ct. 286, 289 (1995). In contrast, Insurers are not seeking any recovery against their insured or the liquidating trust as successor or contending that Briggs or the liquidating trust owes them money. What you refer to as a "setoff" are amounts that are unrecoverable from the Insurers because (a) the amounts are in excess of the limits of the CNA policies or (b) are amounts that would have been allocated to umbrella policies issued by non-party insurers had the Insurers been seeking contribution in real time.

Dr. Mermelstein's Report shows how claim payments would have been allocated had Briggs tendered the claims for 100% reimbursement in real time. The only non-stayed claim remaining in this case is Briggs' breach of contract claim, and it is blackletter Wisconsin law that the purpose of a breach of contract claim is to put the parties in the position they would have been had the alleged breach not occurred. See, e.g., Schubert v. Midwest Broad. Co., 1 Wis. 2d 497, 502, 85 N.W.2d 449, 452 (1957) ("The fundamental idea in allowing damages for breach of contract is to put the plaintiff in as good a position financially as he would have been in but for the breach."); Material Serv. Corp. v. Michels Pipe Line Const., 204 Wis. 2d 110, 552 N.W.2d 898 (Ct. App. 1996) (citing Schubert) ("Damages for breach of contract are recoverable to place the non-breaching claimant in the same position it would have been in had the breach not occurred.") ("The claimant is not to profit from the breach, however; it is merely to receive the benefit of the contract as if the contract had been performed.").

[1] For the avoidance of doubt, this includes the Defendants Nationwide Indemnity Company, Employers Insurance of Wausau (collectively "Wausau"), Century Indemnity Company ("Century"), and Transportation Insurance Company and Continental Casualty Company (collectively "CNA") (Wausau, Century, and CNA are collectively referred to herein as the "Insurers")

Dr. Mermelstein's Report shows the position the parties would have been in had Briggs' tendered claims on an all sums basis in real time and the Insurers paid 100% and then sought contribution. The mere fact that Briggs declared bankruptcy does not alter this fundamental concept or permit its bankruptcy estate to recover damages above and beyond what Briggs otherwise would be entitled to recover.

a. Accounting for Limits is Not a "Setoff"

It is beyond dispute that during the breach of contract phase of this matter, damages cannot be allocated to policies in excess of their limits. Exhaustion was raised as a defense from the outset, and Briggs's own expert concedes that he must "respect[ ] policy limits." Makuc Second Supplemental Report at 5. Dr. Mermelstein explains as follows: "[t]o properly take into account CNA's limits, in my reallocation I do not allocate amounts to CNA policies in excess of their limits and I credit CNA for any amounts they paid after their policies would have exhausted." Report at p. 11. Stated differently, Briggs cannot recover from the Insurers in this case amounts that are in excess of the limits of the CNA policies. This is not a "setoff"—it is simply abiding by the terms of the policies and the undisputed legal principle that no insurer can be required to pay breach of contract damages in excess of their limits.

b. Accounting for Amounts that Would Have Been Allocated to Umbrella and Excess Insurers is Not a "Setoff."

Dr. Mermelstein's Report explains that it is necessary to account for sums allocable to umbrella and excess insurers to ensure that the breach of contract damages put the parties in the position they would have been had the Insurers' paid 100% of the claims in real time. Dr Mermelstein explains "I understand from documents produced in this case that there are solvent umbrella/excess policies above five of the seven CNA primary years. CNA_00045689 is an American Home policy which provides $10M of umbrella limits over the first three years of the CNA primaries from 12/31/1970 to 12/31/1973. Briggs00042561 is a Harbor umbrella policy which provides $5M of umbrella limits over the last two years of the CNA primaries from 12/31/1975 to 12/31/1977. In my allocation, I assume that the carriers would have been able to obtain contribution, and Briggs would have been able to obtain coverage, from these umbrellas once the underlying CNA primaries exhausted. I assume payments made by CNA on these primaries after they would have exhausted would instead have been made by the umbrella carriers. I have not found solvent policies above the 1974 and 1975 CNA primaries. I assume that amounts paid by CNA on these primaries after they would have exhausted are covered by the other triggered and available policy years in proportion to their time on risk, which is consistent with an all sums reallocation." November 2025 Report at fn. 11.

Stated differently, Briggs should not be able to recover amounts that would have been allocated to umbrella policies had the Insurers been seeking contribution in real time. You concede in the Letter that "the Court held that '[t]argeted insurers have a right to seek contribution from other insurers on the risk.'" Letter at p. 4. In other words, you concede that it is consistent with an all-sums allocation for the Insurers to seek contribution from other carriers, including umbrella carriers. Wisconsin law is in accord. As a result, it is proper for Dr. Mermelstein to account for amounts that would have been allocated to umbrella policies had the Insurers been seeking contribution in real time. This is entirely consistent with the Wisconsin legal principles above holding that breach of contract damages cannot put a party in a better position than it would have been if the alleged breach never occurred.

2. Defensive Recoupment is Expressly Permitted

If resort to any doctrine outside of the four corners of the insurance contract is required (and it is not), this situation is more akin to defensive recoupment, which is a fundamentally different concept. The equitable application of the recoupment doctrine is "in the nature of a defense" and is intended to "permit … judgment to be rendered that does justice in view of the one transaction as a whole." United Structures of Am., Inc. v. G.R.G. Eng'g, S.E., 9 F.3d 996, 999 (1st Cir. 1993) (citing Rothensies v. Electric Storage Battery Co., 329 U.S. 296, 299 (1946)).

"Recoupment means 'the setting up of a demand arising from the same transaction as the plaintiff's claim or cause of action, strictly for the purpose of abatement or reduction of such claim.'" In re Revel AC Inc., 2018 WL 6259316, *5 (3d Cir. Nov. 30, 2018) (quoting In re Univ. Med. Ctr., 973 F.2d 1065, 1079 (3d Cir. 1992)). Courts hold that the recoupment arises out of the same transaction when the demands arise out of the same contract. See, e.g., In re Davidovich, 901 F.2d 1533, 1537 – 38 (10th Cir. 1990). Notably, the proper application of recoupment may involve both prepetition and post-petition obligations. See, e.g., Sims v. U.S. Dep't of Health and Human Services (In re TLC Hosps., Inc.), 224 F.3d 1008, 1011 (9th Cir. 2000) (citing Collier). Moreover, defensive use of recoupment (as with setoff) cannot be cut off by a chapter 11 plan or the failure to file a proof of claim. See generally, In re SVB Fin. Grp., 662 B.R. 53 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2024) (discussing arguments and authorities addressing the purported bar to equitable defenses through the chapter 11 process). Further, setting up the demand for equitable recoupment post-confirmation is not subject to the automatic stay (which has terminated by operation of law), nor was stay relief required for Insurers to retain their recoupment rights during the bankruptcy proceedings. See, e.g., In re Ditech Holding Corp., 606 B.R. 544, 600 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2019).

3. The Plan is Insurance Neutral

The Letter also suggests that Dr. Mermelstein's Report somehow violates the terms of the Plan entered into during the course of Briggs bankruptcy proceeding. The Letter; however, fails to acknowledge that the Plan is insurance neutral and expressly provides as follows:

> 10.13. Insurance Neutrality.
> (a) Nothing contained in the Disclosure Statement, Plan, the Plan Supplement, the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Confirmation Order, any other order of the Bankruptcy Court, any bar date notice. . . including any provision that purports to be preemptory or supervening, shall in any way operate to, or have the effect of, impairing, altering, supplementing, changing, expanding, decreasing, or modifying (i) the rights or obligations of any Insurer, or (ii) any rights or obligations of the Debtors arising out of or under any Insurance Policy. For all other issues relating to insurance coverage, the provisions, terms, conditions, and limitations of the Insurance Policies shall control. For the avoidance of doubt. . . (y) nothing contained in the Plan, the Plan Administrator Agreement, or the Confirmation Order shall operate to require any Insurer to indemnify or pay the liability of any Allowed Claim that is an Insured Claim that it would not have been required to pay in the absence of the Plan. . . .

> (b) For the avoidance of doubt, nothing contained in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Confirmation Order, or any other order of the Bankruptcy Court shall operate to require any Insurer to indemnify or pay the liability in connection with an Insured Claim that it would not have been required to pay in the absence of this Plan.

As is outlined above, the Plan expressly states that the Insurers do not pay any claim that they would not be required to pay in the absence of the Plan—for example, (a) amounts in excess of the limits of the CNA policies or (b) amounts that would have been allocated to umbrella policies issued by non-party insurers had the Insurers been seeking contribution in real time.

CONCLUSION

This case involves fifteen years of underlying asbestos cases and hundreds of payments. The court has decided that the parties should have been proceeding as if Briggs was exercising its all-sums rights during those fifteen years. Dr. Mermelstein's Report merely quantifies what would have happened in real time had Briggs exercised its all-sums rights over those fifteen years. According to Dr. Mermelstein, two factors would cause amounts to be unrecoverable from the Insurers in this case had Briggs exercised its all-sums rights over those fifteen years—(a) Briggs would be unable to recover the amounts in excess of the limits of the CNA policies, and (b) Briggs would be unable to recover amounts that would have been allocated to umbrella policies had the Insurers been seeking contribution in real time.

The Insurers are not seeking recovery from the Trust and this is not "setoff claim" as that term is used in the context of the cases you cite. It is simply Dr. Mermelstein's effort to show the amounts that Briggs would have recovered had the parties conducted themselves as the court says they should have.

For these reasons, the Insurers do not agree to withdraw or amend Dr. Mermelstein's Report.

HighRock Analytics, LLC

Alan Halperin, as Plan Administrator for the Wind-Down Estate of Briggs & Stratton Corporation v. Nationwide Indemnity Company, et al.,

Milwaukee County Circuit Court, Wisconsin

Case No. 2019CV000795

November 21, 2025

1. Introduction

a. Scope of charge

I was charged with reviewing and offering opinions on three expert reports submitted by Mr. Christopher Makuc in this matter. In the first report dated August 31, 2022 ("Makuc Report"), he describes his intention to quantify the amount of asbestos expenditure paid by Briggs & Stratton Corporation ("Briggs") between January 2013 and early 2019 ("Relevant Period") that otherwise would have been paid by its primary insurers under an all sums allocation methodology ("Makuc Allocation"). I prepared a report dated November 2, 2022 ("Initial Report") in which I reviewed the Makuc Report for accuracy and reliability; contrasted the Makuc Allocation with the 2003 Cost Sharing Agreement the parties had previously operated under; and offered opinions based on my experience working on other long-tail claims involving all sums allocations and/or cost sharing agreements.

In response to some of the criticisms in my initial report, Mr. Makuc submitted a second report dated March 21, 2023 ("Makuc First Supplemental Report") with a second attempt at quantifying the amount of asbestos expenditure paid by Briggs during the Relevant Period that otherwise would have been paid by its primary insurers under an all sums allocation methodology ("Makuc Revised Reallocation"). Finally, Mr. Makuc submitted a third report on June 16, 2023 ("Makuc Second Supplemental Report") in which he used additional information to respond to other criticisms in my initial report.

HighRock Analytics, LLC ("HighRock") was asked by counsel for defendants Nationwide Indemnity Company and Employers Insurance of Wausau (collectively, "Wausau"); Century Indemnity Company ("Century" or "INA"); and Transportation Insurance Company, Inc. and Continental Casualty (collectively, "CNA") (Wausau, Century and CNA collectively are referred to as the "Insurers") to review the Makuc First Supplemental Report and Makuc Second Supplemental Report in order to assess their accuracy and reliability and adjust for any errors and methodological differences. Counsel asked that I calculate how much more (or less) the Insurers would have paid to cover Briggs claims if Briggs had started tendering claims to the Insurers in 2013 rather than 2018.

HighRock is compensated at a rate of $525 per hour for my time on this matter. In addition to my own time, I was assisted by others at HighRock. HighRock's compensation generally and my compensation specifically are in no way contingent upon the opinions I am offering or the outcome of this matter.

b. Summary of opinions

Based on my work detailed in this report, I am offering the following supplemental opinions:

1. For 23 claims representing $1,009,605 of defense payments, Mr. Makuc did not correctly identify the date of first exposure ("DOFE") contained in the complaint.
2. For 39 claims representing $989,000 of indemnity payments, the evidence Mr. Makuc relies upon does not contain any primary source evidence of a Briggs specific DOFE. If, as defense counsel contends, satisfactory primary source evidence is required to support an all sums reallocation to the Insurers, then the Makuc Revised Reallocation overstates the indemnity allocable to the Insurers by at least $989,000. Further, assuming defense counsel prevails in their argument that the Soucy claim does not trigger any of the Insurers' policies, then the Makuc Revised Reallocation overstates the indemnity allocable to the Insurers by an additional $600,000.
3. If Briggs actually had been tendering claims to the Insurers on an all sums basis during the Relevant Period as Mr. Makuc models, then Wausau and Century would have sought contribution contemporaneously, which Mr. Makuc does not model. When contribution is factored in, the amounts allocated to the Insurers differ substantially from the Makuc Revised Reallocation.
4. The Makuc Revised Reallocation would require CNA's primary policies to pay indemnity in excess of their $2.3M of limits.
5. Assuming reallocation is ultimately required, taking into account the above adjustments to the Makuc Revised Allocation, the Insurers would owe $2,608,808 less than what Mr. Makuc calculates:

Insurer	Difference between actual and should-have-been-paid amounts		Makuc overstatement of amounts owed
	Makuc Revised Reallocation	After adjustments
Wausau	$2,284,096	($135,726)	$2,419,822
Century	$803,532	$140,656	$662,876
CNA	$1,118,003	$1,591,893	($473,890)
Insurer Total	$4,205,631	$1,596,823	$2,608,808

c. Qualifications of Benjamin I. Mermelstein, PhD, FCAS

Dr. Benjamin Mermelstein is a Partner at the economic consulting firm of HighRock Analytics. He has dedicated his career to performing quantitative analysis in the context of complex long-tail losses and mass torts. Prior to joining HighRock, he worked in-house for a top-10 commercial insurance company as an Actuarial Director, annually reviewing the Mass Tort and Asbestos books of business, providing analysis of existing and potential settlement agreements, as well as performing reserve estimates for the highest profile losses. He began his career working in economic consulting, with a focus on insurance allocation and liability forecasting.

Dr. Mermelstein has developed software to handle complex insurance allocation in the context of litigation and in-house reserving analysis. He has assisted both policyholders and insurers in their modeling of complicated insurance allocation questions and liability projections. He has additional experience supporting antitrust experts in litigation pertaining to mergers, price-fixing, and anti-competitive behavior.

Dr. Mermelstein is a Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society ("CAS"), a leading international actuarial organization focusing exclusively on property and casualty risks. CAS members are experts in, among other things, property and casualty insurance, risk management, and estimating claim and policy liabilities. He has served as a Syllabus Chair on the CAS Exam Committee. He also holds a PhD in Economics from Northwestern University, where he specialized in behavioral economics, industrial organization, and game theory. His full curriculum vitae is included as Attachment 1.

2. Dates of first exposure

Counsel asked me to assess the accuracy and reliability of Attachment 11 to the Makuc First Supplemental Report, titled "Summary of Claimants' Alleged Dates of First Exposure from the Relevant Period." Specifically, Attachment 11 offers a "Complaint DOFE" and a "Briggs/Secondary DOFE" for 254 claimants from the Relevant Period. The attachment also contains the Bates number associated with the cover page of the claim file Mr. Makuc used to determine the alleged trigger dates. Mr. Makuc uses the complaint DOFE to establish the trigger for defense costs, and the Briggs-specific DOFE to establish the trigger for indemnity costs.[1]

a. Complaint DOFE

I was instructed by counsel that the Insurers agreed to accept Mr. Makuc's representation of the complaint DOFE for 203 matters, based on a summary of evidence offered as part of a pre-trial reconciliation process between plaintiff and defense counsel. For the remaining 51 matters, counsel asked me to review the availability and contents of the complaint to assess the accuracy of the purported complaint DOFE from Attachment 11. Figure 2 below shows the results of my review: Mr. Makuc and I find different trigger dates evidenced by the complaint for 23 matters totaling $1M in defense costs and agree on the trigger dates for 28 matters totaling $497,883 in defense costs.

Complaint DOFE	Number of matters	Total defense paid
Stipulated by counsel	203	$2,599,080
Makuc and Mermelstein agree	28	$497,883
Makuc and Mermelstein disagree	23	$1,009,605
Total	254	$4,106,568

My reallocation uses the DOFEs I found in the complaints when they differ from those identified by Mr. Makuc. Attachment 2 to this report provides a list of the 51 matters I reviewed and Complaint DOFE dates found by Mr. Makuc and me, both where we differ and where we agree.

[1] For a handful of claims, Mr. Makuc uses the Briggs-specific DOFE for some or all of the defense associated with the claim. "In instances where the alleged dates of first exposure were changed or revised during the life cycle of the claim and the pattern was recognizable in the payment records, the allocation to the earliest policy was changed to correspond to the new alleged date of first exposure." Makuc First Supplemental Report, p. 5. I adopt the same rule in my allocation of defense expenditure.

b. Evidence for Briggs-specific DOFE

There was no pretrial reconciliation process for the Briggs-specific DOFEs used to establish trigger for the 43 out of 254 claims that have an indemnity payment amount. Counsel asked me to review the claim files cited by Mr. Makuc for claimants with indemnity payments and to classify the available exposure evidence into three categories with respect to alleged Briggs-specific DOFEs: (1) those with primary source evidence, (2) those with secondary source evidence, and (3) those with no evidence for a Briggs-specific DOFE.

The first category reflects claim files containing primary source documents of claimant testimony, such as deposition transcripts and interrogatories in which plaintiffs specifically attest to exposure to asbestos stemming from Briggs products. The second category reflects those with all other evidence, such as emails from Briggs employees or defense counsel that describe alleged exposure via Briggs products, but do not contain any primary source evidence. The last category reflects claims for which no Briggs-specific DOFE exists in the claim files cited by Mr. Makuc.

Figure 3 below shows that most claim files only contain secondary evidence, while four matters contain primary source evidence and two do not contain any evidence of a Briggs-specific DOFE. Attachment 3 to this report provides the evidentiary categories and relevant citations for all claimants with indemnity payments.

Category	Number of matters	Total indemnity paid
Primary source evidence	4	$1,340,000
Secondary source evidence	37	$839,000
No evidence	2	$150,000
Total	43	$2,329,000

The vast majority of claim files have only secondary DOFE evidence, such as emails summarizing allegations or claimant information forms prepared by defense counsel. Mr. Makuc appears to rely on emails from a paralegal at Briggs & Stratton Corporation (Ms. Traci Doering) or outside defense counsel for Briggs (Mr. Trevor Will) as evidence of exposure dates for many claims. These emails do not provide direct evidence of the DOFEs, even though they sometimes refer to claimant testimony without providing the primary source evidence itself. As Mr. Makuc and I each discussed in our initial reports, cost share agreements such as the one implemented by Briggs from 2003 to 2018 allow for "simplified methods," "ease of administration," and "mitigation of disagreements."[2] These allegations of Briggs-specific DOFEs unsubstantiated by primary source evidence could have been further scrutinized had the parties not been operating under a simplified cost-share agreement that mitigated disagreements.

There are four settled matters for which there is at least some primary source evidence of Briggs-specific exposure, together comprising just over half of the total indemnity paid. The Soucy matter, which was settled for $600,000, is one of these four. The primary source documentation for this claim is an incomplete deposition transcript in which Mr. Soucy claims to have put a Briggs engine on a Radio Flyer wagon when he was 14.[3] Counsel for the Insurers argue Mr. Soucy's true Briggs DOFE would be in 1978 which he identified in his complaint and testified to as when he began employment at a Briggs & Stratton dealer.[4] I am not offering an opinion on whether 1973 or 1978 is the appropriate DOFE. In my allocation, I use the 1978 DOFE as instructed by Insurers' counsel.

I discussed the Soucy matter in my original report beyond the question of what is the appropriate trigger date, pointing out how the CNA claims handler had to get authority from more senior members of the company to authorize a total settlement of $320,000 of which CNA's share would have been $32,000 based on a 1973 DOFE.[5] Mr. Makuc now allocates $600,000 to the CNA policies, an amount that would have received additional scrutiny from CNA had Briggs tendered the entire Soucy claim to CNA contemporaneously. That additional scrutiny may have resulted in the same dispute counsel is currently having over whether the DOFE should be 1973 or 1978. Whereas CNA was content to mitigate the potential disagreement when paying 5% of the claim under the cost-share agreement, if paying 100% of the claim they are being asked to pay now, they would have insisted on certainty regarding the DOFE that is more difficult to establish now given the passage of time.

Lastly, the materials cited for two settled matters, the Demaria and Johnston claims, do not contain evidence of a Briggs-specific DOFE. Mr. Makuc appears to rely upon generic allegations contained in the complaints to support Briggs-specific DOFEs for these matters. In my allocation, I assume that (i) indemnity without primary source evidence of DOFEs is not eligible to be allocated to the Insurers, and (ii) the DOFE for the Soucy matter is 1978.

3. Contemporaneous contribution

In his reallocations, Mr. Makuc calculates an allocation assuming that Briggs had been tendering claims to specific policies in an all sums manner. But he does not model insurer contribution, a key element of such an all sums hypothetical. As acknowledged in Mr. Makuc's First Supplemental Report, "amounts allocated under an all-sums allocation methodology are often subject to contribution claims between and among the insurers to which costs were initially allocated and other insurers that may have also been triggered by the losses."[6] Indeed, it is evident that the Insurers have been operating in this manner since Briggs actually started to tender claims to the Insurers on an all sums basis in 2018.[7]

Mr. Makuc does not model contribution in any of his reallocations, presumably leaving it up to the insurers to deal with contribution after his reallocation. This delay of contribution may not have been material if none of the policies had limits that could be reached. However, as acknowledged in his Second Supplemental Report, CNA has policy limits that can be reached. Attachment 13 to his Second Supplemental Report reallocates claims to the CNA policies, including claims after the Relevant Period and finds that in March 2023, CNA would have had only $11,030.43 in remaining limits.

Mr. Makuc uses this analysis to show that his allocation to CNA does not exceed the policies' limits. However, the analysis also shows that if his proposed reallocation were accepted by the Court and Wausau and Century subsequently had sought contribution from CNA in March of 2023, CNA could contribute only $11K of indemnity before exhausting, leaving Wausau and Century unable to obtain additional contribution from CNA. This prejudices Wausau and Century and results in much less contribution from the CNA policies at issue in this case than if Briggs had actually been tendering claims to Wausau and Century throughout the Relevant Period. In that case, Wausau and Century could have sought contribution from CNA contemporaneously and before CNA limits were eroded by claims Mr. Makuc allocates to CNA after the Relevant Period.

In both my reallocation and Mr. Makuc's reallocation, if his methodology is applied beyond March 2023, CNA's limits would exhaust from historical indemnity amounts. Briggs benefits

[7] This contribution arrangement is evident in the contribution data postdating mid-2018. For example, the records contained in Briggs00121887 and in Briggs00121870 exhibit the expected cost-sharing methodology under which each Insurer contributes to the total amount paid in proportion to its time on risk. I also observe this expected pattern in the Century and CNA payment data. Consider, for example, the Richard Allen matter. A document containing screenshots of CNA's claim system interface during 2023 and 2024 shows that CNA paid 87.5% of the total $75,000 settlement, allocating the payment equally across the seven triggered policies: $9,376 per policy, totaling $65,632 (See CENTURY0041646). Accordingly, a Century document showing payments since September 2021 contains a record for the Richard Allen claim for one triggered year of $9,367, labeled "12.49% of Richard Allen Settlement." (CNA_00046059 at -6062). This split is consistent with a time-on-risk allocation of a claim with a 1970 DOFE.

from using CNA's limits for claims with DOFEs later than 1971 that Wausau and Century do not cover, while Wausau and Century benefit from CNA paying contribution on claims tendered to them with earlier DOFEs but which also trigger CNA's policies.

Had these claims been tendered and contribution sought in real time, then both contribution on claims tendered to Wausau/Century and coverage of Briggs claims with DOFEs later than 1971 would have eroded CNA's limits. However, the Makuc Revised Reallocation creates a staggered allocation where Briggs tenders claims in real time but where Wausau and Century cannot seek contribution. In the Makuc Second Supplemental Report, CNA's limits are used for claims with late DOFEs paid up through 2023 without CNA's limits eroding for contribution on claims hypothetically tendered to Wausau and Century a decade earlier. At the end of the reallocation, Wausau and Century would want to seek contribution from CNA on amounts totaling over $4.6M, however Mr. Makuc leaves only eleven thousand dollars of CNA limits remaining.

Further, there was a period of time after the Relevant Period and before the parties agreed on how to split tendered claims in 2020, that the Insurers were paying 100% of the claims tendered to them without receiving contribution. I understand that the Insurers have agreed in principle to contribution on those claims ("true-up" agreement), but the payments have yet to be made as CNA wants assurances Briggs will respect the true-up payments as eroding their policies. I have reviewed the true-up calculations and confirmed that the methodology matches the contribution methodology used by the parties after the true-up period and the contribution methodology I use in the contemporaneous contribution during the Relevant Period. I maintain the analogous opinion regarding the true-up payments as I do regarding contemporaneous contribution during the Relevant Period: Had Briggs begun tendering claims to the Insurers in 2013, then Wausau and Century would have sought and received contemporaneous contribution during the true-up period. Figure 4 shows the net contribution agreed to for the true-up period.

Figure 4: Net contribution agreed to by each Insurer for the true-up period[8]

Category	Indemnity	Defense	Total
Wausau	($136,258)	($323,004)	($459,262)
Century	($467,885)	($195,871)	($663,756)
CNA	$604,143	$518,875	$1,123,018

In my allocation, when Mr. Makuc spikes a claim to a particular policy, I implement contemporaneous contribution by assuming that all triggered policies reimburse the targeted policy proportional to their time on risk. I also assume that the true-up payments would have been paid in real time. This contemporaneous contribution mirrors the assumption Mr. Makuc uses in his Revised Reallocation that amounts should be allocated in the order in which the claims were paid.[9]

4. The Makuc Revised Reallocation exceeds the CNA policy limits

In his Second Supplemental Report, Mr. Makuc presents in Attachment 13 a reallocation that purportedly shows all the amounts from his Revised Reallocation, and all claims tendered to CNA after the Relevant Period up through March 2023, can fit within CNA's limits. The analysis in this attachment does not account for two key factors. First, Briggs continued tendering claims to CNA after March 2023 and CNA primaries paid an additional $220,448 of indemnity on claims after the Cozza claim, the last one Mr. Makuc considered.

Second, even before March 2023 but after the Relevant Period, CNA was paying a share on claims that also triggered Wausau and Century. However, Mr. Makuc does not include these payments in his analysis of the available limits in CNA's policies: "For purposes of our post-Relevant Period reallocation, we only considered indemnity claims with dates of first exposure between 1971 and 1977. We did not include amounts paid by CNA on claims that trigger earlier primary policies issued by Wausau and/or INA."[10]

It is unclear why Mr. Makuc does not include these payments. Even if he considers these payments to be contribution payments, he acknowledges in his First Supplemental Report that contribution payments erode the limits of the policies providing the contribution.[11] Had Mr. Makuc included these amounts, he would have found that CNA policies did not, in fact, have enough limits to cover all the claims he allocated to CNA prior to March 2023.[12] Mr. Makuc's reallocations not only do not allow for contemporaneous contribution in the hypothetical reallocations of the Relevant Period, but they also ignore actual contemporaneous contributions made after the Relevant Period.

[9] "This is why any reallocation of claim costs to insurance should incorporate the timing of the actual losses. It is only by doing it this way that exhaustion can be properly tracked and known." Makuc First Supplemental Report, p.8.

[10] Makuc Second Supplemental Report, p. 5.

[11] Makuc First Supplemental Report, pg. 8.

[12] For example, consider the $42,003.28 paid on the Gilling matter identified in Attachment 12 of the Makuc First Supplemental Report. Mr. Makuc does not consider this payment to erode CNA limits in Attachment 13 of his Second Supplemental report, even though this payment was made in May of 2021 (see CNA_00045794 at -5944).

To properly take into account CNA's limits, in my reallocation I do not allocate amounts to CNA policies in excess of their limits and I credit CNA for any amounts they paid after their policies would have exhausted.[13]

5. The Insurers would owe $2.6M less than Mr. Makuc calculates if these adjustments are made to the Makuc Revised Reallocation

I performed a reallocation of Relevant Period payments and made the following adjustments to the Makuc Revised Reallocation:

1. Used the DOFEs I found in complaints for defense allocation where they differed from those identified by Mr. Makuc;
2. Only allocated indemnity for claims with primary source evidence of DOFE and assumed the Soucy claim has a DOFE of 1978;
3. Implemented contemporaneous contribution where Wausau and Century receive contribution at the time the claim expenditures are paid;
4. Respected CNA limits by not allocating indemnity in addition to limits and crediting the policies for any indemnity and defense they actually paid after they would have exhausted in the reallocation.

I compare the results of the Relevant Period reallocation with what was actually paid during the Relevant Period to get the difference of what was paid and what should have been paid in the same manner Mr. Makuc presents. Figure 5 below shows the Relevant Period should-have-been paid amounts in my reallocation; Figure 6 shows the Relevant Period actual amounts paid; and Figure 7 shows the difference of actual and should-have-been amounts paid during the Relevant Period.

[13] I understand from documents produced in this case that there are solvent umbrella/excess policies above five of the seven CNA primary years. CNA_00045689 is an American Home policy which provides $10M of umbrella limits over the first three years of the CNA primaries from 12/31/1970 to 12/31/1973. Briggs00042561 is a Harbor umbrella policy which provides $5M of umbrella limits over the last two years of the CNA primaries from 12/31/1975 to 12/31/1977. In my allocation, I assume that the carriers would have been able to obtain contribution, and Briggs would have been able to obtain coverage, from these umbrellas once the underlying CNA primaries exhausted. I assume payments made by CNA on these primaries after they would have exhausted would instead have been made by the umbrella carriers. I have not found solvent policies above the 1974 and 1975 CNA primaries. I assume that amounts paid by CNA on these primaries after they would have exhausted are covered by the other triggered and available policy years in proportion to their time on risk, which is consistent with an all sums reallocation.

Insurer	Indemnity	Defense	Total
Wausau	$106,063	$889,770	$995,833
Century	$317,190	$1,129,747	$1,446,937
CNA	$316,747	$1,673,694	$1,990,441

Insurer Total	$238,480	$2,153,006	$2,391,486

However, in the hypothetical world in which Briggs started tendering claims to the Insurers in 2013, the difference of what was paid and what should have been paid is not restricted to the Relevant Period. Two types of differences would have occurred after the Relevant Period. First, the true-up payments agreed to by the Insurers would have happened contemporaneously with each Insurer contributing its own share. Second, the CNA policies would have exhausted before they actually stopped making payments.[14] Figure 8 shows the total difference in actual and should-have-been paid amounts when taking into account the impact both in the Relevant Period and the post-Relevant Period. These are the amounts the Insurers would owe if Briggs were entitled to the allocation results of the hypothetical world where they started tendering claims in 2013.

[14] Attachment 4 to this report contains the full invoice/payment level reallocation of the Relevant Period amounts, the CNA true-up shares, and the actual CNA payments after the Relevant Period.

Insurer Total	$2,391,486	($794,663)	$1,596,823

The total amounts owed after making these adjustments to the Makuc Revised Reallocation are $2.6M less than the total amount Mr. Makuc claims the Insurers owe. Figure 9 shows how much Mr. Makuc overstated the amounts owed for each Insurer.

6. Alternative reallocations

Counsel asked me to perform three alternative reallocations where I do not include my first and/or second adjustment to the Makuc Revised Reallocation.

Sensitivity 1 does not include my first adjustment to the Makuc Revised Reallocation where I correct for the complaint DOFE differences I found relative to Mr. Makuc. Sensitivity 2 does not include my second adjustment to the Makuc Revised Reallocation where I do not allocate indemnity without primary source evidence and assume the Soucy matter has a DOFE of 1978. Sensitivity 3 does not include my first or second adjustment. The results of these sensitivities are shown in Figure 10.[15]

[15] For Sensitivities 1, 2, and 3 respectively, Attachments 5, 6, and 7 to this report contain the full invoice/payment level reallocation of the Relevant Period amounts, the CNA true-up shares, and the actual CNA payments after the Relevant Period.
