The allowance, classification, and treatment of all Allowed Claims and Allowed Interests and the respective distributions and treatments under the Plan take into account and conform to the relative priority and rights of the Claims and Interests in each Class in connection with any contractual, legal, and equitable subordination rights relating thereto, whether arising under general principles of equitable subordination, section 510(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise. Pursuant to section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors reserve the right to re-classify any Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest in accordance with any contractual, legal, or equitable subordination relating thereto.

ARTICLE IV
MEANS FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PLAN

A. NOLA Sale Transaction, Restructuring Transactions, and Sources of Consideration for Plan Distributions.

The Confirmation Order shall be deemed to authorize the Debtors, among other things, to take all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effect any transaction described in, approved by, contemplated by, or necessary to effectuate the Plan, including the Restructuring Transactions and, to the extent not approved pursuant to a Sale Order, the NOLA Sale Transaction. With respect to the Plan, all amounts of Cash necessary for the Debtors to make payments or distributions pursuant to the Plan shall be obtained from the Sale Proceeds, the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and the Wind-Down Assets.

1. NOLA Sale Transaction.

To the extent not approved pursuant to a Sale Order, on the Effective Date, the Debtors shall be authorized to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction and, among other things, the NOLA Properties shall be transferred to and vest in the NOLA Purchaser free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges, or other encumbrances pursuant to the terms of the NOLA Purchase Agreement and the Confirmation Order. On and after the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors or the NOLA Purchaser, as applicable, may operate their businesses and may use, acquire, or dispose of property and compromise or settle any Claims, Interests, or Causes of Action without supervision or approval by the Bankruptcy Court and free of any restrictions of the Bankruptcy Code or Bankruptcy Rules. Neither the NOLA Purchaser nor any of its Affiliates shall be deemed to be a successor to the Debtors.

2. Payment of Sale Proceeds by NOLA Purchaser.

To the extent the NOLA Sale Transaction is not approved pursuant to a Sale Order, on the Effective Date, the NOLA Purchaser shall pay to the Debtors the Sale Proceeds as and to the extent provided for in the NOLA Purchase Agreement.

3. Restructuring Transactions.

On the Effective Date, the Debtors and the NOLA Purchaser, to the extent applicable, shall implement the Restructuring Transactions. The actions to implement the Restructuring Transactions may include: (a) the execution and delivery of appropriate agreements or other documents of merger, amalgamation, consolidation, restructuring, conversion, disposition, transfer, arrangement, continuance, dissolution, sale, purchase, or liquidation containing terms that are consistent with the terms of the Plan and that satisfy the applicable requirements of applicable law and any other terms to which the applicable Entities may agree; (b) the execution and delivery of appropriate instruments of transfer, assignment, assumption, or delegation of any asset, property, right, liability, debt, or obligation on terms consistent with the terms of the Plan and having other terms for which the applicable parties agree; (c) the filing of appropriate certificates or articles of incorporation, reincorporation, merger, consolidation, conversion, amalgamation, arrangement, continuance, or dissolution pursuant to applicable state or provincial law; and (d) all other actions that the Debtors or the NOLA Purchaser, to the extent applicable, determine to be necessary or appropriate, including making filings or recordings that may be required by applicable law in connection with the Plan.

B. General Settlement of Claims.

Pursuant to section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019, and in consideration for the classification, distributions, releases, and other benefits provided under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the provisions of the Plan shall constitute a good-faith compromise and settlement of all Claims, Interests, and controversies resolved pursuant to the Plan.

C. Wind Down and Dissolution of the Debtors.

1. Appointment of the Wind-Down Officer.

On the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer appointed under the CBRM Plan shall be appointed by the Debtors for the purpose of conducting the Wind-Down and shall have all powers, privileges, and responsibilities provided to the Wind-Down Officer under Article IV.C of the CBRM Plan with respect to these Debtors.

2. Termination of Wind-Down Officer's Duties; Dissolution of Debtors.

Upon a certification to be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court by the Wind-Down Officer of all distributions having been made and completion of all its duties under the Plan and entry of a final decree closing the last of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Wind-Down Officer shall be discharged without any further action, including the filing of any documents with the secretary of state for the state in which the Debtors are formed or any other jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Wind-Down Officer shall retain the authority to take all necessary actions to dissolve the Debtors in, and withdraw the Debtors from, applicable states and provinces to the extent required by applicable law, without the necessity for any other or further actions to be taken by or on behalf of such dissolving Entity or any payments to be made in connection therewith, other than the filing of a certificate of dissolution with the appropriate governmental authorities. Any funds remaining in the Debtors at the time of dissolution shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, subject to any reversionary interests of the NOLA DIP Lender in the Fee Escrow solely to the extent that the Bankruptcy Court determines that the NOLA DIP Facility has not been indefeasibly repaid in full in Cash or otherwise satisfied in full by the NOLA Sale Transaction.

D. Creditor Recovery Trust.

1. Appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be automatically appointed as a representative of the Debtors' Estates pursuant to sections 1123(a)(5), (a)(7), and (b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. From and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall succeed to all rights, privileges, and powers of the Debtors and their Estates with respect to the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, which NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets shall, upon such transfer, become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan). The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be substituted and will replace the Debtors and their Estates in all NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, whether or not such claims are pending in filed litigation. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall operate as set forth in the CBRM Plan.

2. Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts shall be deemed assumed by the Debtors and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code. Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving such assumption and assignment. Except as otherwise set forth herein, the assumption and assignment of a Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract pursuant to the Plan shall be effective as of the Effective Date. Any monetary defaults under each Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract to be assumed pursuant to the Plan shall be satisfied, pursuant to section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, by payment of the Cure Amount in Cash by the Creditor Recovery Trust.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors shall, on or before the date of filing of the Plan Supplement, cause the Cure and Assumption Notices to be served on counterparties to Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts to be assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan. Any objection by a non-Debtor counterparty to an Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract to the assumption and assignment, the related Cure Amount, or adequate assurance must be filed, served, and actually received by the Debtors on or prior to the deadline for filing objections to the Plan (or such later date as may be provided in the applicable Cure and Assumption Notice); provided that each counterparty to a Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract (a) that the Debtors later determine to assume and assign or (b) as to which the Debtors modify the applicable Cure Amount, must object to the assumption and assignment or Cure Amount, as applicable, by the earlier of: (i) fourteen (14) days after the Debtors serve such counterparty with a corresponding Cure and Assumption Notice; and (ii) the Confirmation Hearing.

Any counterparty to a Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract that fails to timely object to the proposed assumption of any Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from contesting the Debtors' assumption and assignment of the applicable Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract and from requesting payment of a Cure Amount that differs from the amount paid or proposed to be paid by the Creditor Recovery Trust, without the need for any objection by the Creditor Recovery Trust or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. The Creditor Recovery Trust may settle any dispute regarding a Cure Amount without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, to the extent any provision in any Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan restricts or prevents, or purports to restrict or prevent, or is breached or would be deemed breached by, the assumption and assignment of such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract (including any change of control or similar provision), then such provision shall be deemed pre-empted and modified such that neither the Debtors' assumption and assignment of the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract nor any of the transactions contemplated by the Plan shall entitle the non-Debtor counterparty to terminate or modify such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract or to exercise any other purported default-related rights thereunder.

The Debtors' assumption and assignment of any Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract pursuant to the Plan or otherwise, and payment of any applicable Cure Amount in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article IV.D, shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any Claims or defaults, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any assumed and assigned Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract at any time prior to the effective date of assumption and assignment.

In the event of a timely filed objection regarding: (1) a Cure Amount; (2) the ability of the Creditor Recovery Trust or any assignee to provide adequate assurance of future performance within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code under the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract to be assumed and assigned; or (3) any other matter pertaining to assumption and assignment or the requirements of section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, such dispute shall be resolved by a

Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court (which may be the Confirmation Order) or as may be agreed upon by the Creditor Recovery Trust and the counterparty to the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall pay the applicable Cure Amount as soon as reasonably practicable after entry of a Final Order resolving such dispute and approving such assumption and assignment, or as may otherwise be agreed upon by the Creditor Recovery Trust and the counterparty to the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract. To the extent that a dispute regarding the applicable Cure Amount is resolved or determined unfavorably to the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trust may, in its discretion, reject the applicable Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract after such determination, which rejection shall supersede, nullify, and render of no force or effect any earlier assumption and assignment. Under no circumstances shall the status of payment of a Cure Amount required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code following the entry of a Final Order resolving the dispute and approving the assumption and assignment prevent or delay implementation of the Plan or the occurrence of the Effective Date.

E. Cancellation of Securities and Agreements.

On the Effective Date, except to the extent otherwise provided in the Plan, all notes, instruments, certificates, and other documents evidencing, or in any way related to, Claims or Interests shall be canceled as against the Debtors and each Released Party and the obligations of the Debtors thereunder or in any way related thereto shall be released, settled, and compromised.

F. Corporate Action.

Notwithstanding any requirements under applicable nonbankruptcy law, upon the Effective Date, all actions contemplated by the Plan shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, including the implementation of the Restructuring Transactions and, to the extent not approved pursuant to a Sale Order, the NOLA Sale Transaction. All matters provided for in the Plan involving the corporate structure of the Debtors, and any corporate action required by the Debtors in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have occurred and shall be in effect, without any requirement of further action by any Person or Entity or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors and their directors, managers, partners, officers, authorized persons, and members thereof (including the Independent Fiduciary) are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, securities, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan and the securities issued pursuant to the Plan in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors, without the need for any approvals, authorizations, or consents, except for those expressly required pursuant to the Plan, or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

G. Independent Fiduciary.

As of the Effective Date, the Independent Fiduciary may in her reasonable discretion authorize another Person or Entity to act on behalf of the Independent Fiduciary or assume the powers of the Independent Fiduciary.

H. Exemption from Certain Taxes and Fees.

Pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers of property or any Interests, including the Transferred Subsidiaries, pursuant to the Plan, including, to the extent applicable, the NOLA Sale Transaction, the recording of any amendments to such transfers, or any new mortgages or liens placed on the property in connection with such transfers, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, registration tax, mortgage tax, stamp act, real estate, transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, or other similar tax, fees, charges, or governmental assessment (including any penalties and interest), and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment to the maximum extent covered by section 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code.

I. Preservation of Rights of Action.

On the Effective Date, (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall vest in the post-Effective Date Debtors under the authority of the Wind-Down Officer, in each case free and clear of all Claims, Liens, Encumbrances and other interests. The NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust and shall, upon such transfer, become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan) and the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall become Wind-Down Assets. On and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue and dispose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action (including the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action) and the Wind-Down Officer shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action. No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan or Disclosure Statement as to any Cause of Action as any indication that the Debtor, and on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action against them. No preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation. Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, subject to the oversight, approval, consultation and consent of the Trust Advisory Committee as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, shall retain and shall have, through their authorized agents or representatives, the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or the Disclosure Statement to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee or the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action. Unless and until any such Causes of Action against any Person or Entity are expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or assigned, or settled under the Plan or a Final Order, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, expressly reserve all such Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation or Consummation.

J. Election to Contribute Claims.

Because aggregating all Contributed Claims may enable the pursuit and settlement of such litigation claims in a more efficient and effective manner, each Holder of a Claim or Interest may agree, by electing on its Ballot, to contribute its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Holders that elected to contribute such Claims. Contributed Claims and the proceeds thereof will not be included within the Distributable Value (as defined in the CBRM Plan) of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Rather, as provided in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, any value attributable to such Contributed Claims will be segregated and only available for disbursement to those Holders that elected to contribute such Claims. By electing such option on its Ballot, each Contributing Claimant agrees that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, it will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and

(ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

K. Contribution of Contributed Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Contributed Claims will be irrevocably contributed to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Holders of Claims entitled to receive the Distributable Value (as defined in the CBRM Plan) of the Creditor Recovery Trust and shall thereafter be Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan) for all purposes. No Person may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Confirmation Order, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Plan Supplement, or any other document as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee will or will not pursue any and all available Contributed Claims against such Person. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all Contributed Claims fully to the same extent that the Contributing Claimants could have asserted such claims prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contributed Claims shall not include the rights of any of the Contributing Claimants to receive the Distributions under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests and shall not include any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law.

ARTICLE V
TREATMENT OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

A. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, all Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases (including all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List) will be deemed rejected, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than those that previously were assumed or rejected by the Debtors or those that are subject to a pending motion to assume or assign such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such rejections.

B. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

Unless otherwise provided by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within 30 days after entry of the Confirmation Order. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to this Plan not filed within such time shall be disallowed, forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against, as applicable, the Debtors, the Estates, or property thereof, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged. All Allowed Claims arising from the rejection of any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases shall constitute and be treated as Unsecured Claims. Nothing herein shall constitute an extension of any Claims Bar Date otherwise applicable to a Claim arising from an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously rejected by the Debtors.

C. Treatment of Insurance Policies.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each of the Insurance Policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto issued to or entered into by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date shall not be considered Executory Contracts and shall neither be assumed nor rejected by the Debtors; provided, however, that to the extent any such Insurance Policy is determined by Final Order to be an Executory Contract, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the Plan will constitute a motion to assume such Insurance Policy and assign the same to the Creditor

Recovery Trust. Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, the entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute approval of such assumption and assignment pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Unless otherwise determined by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed by the parties thereto prior to the Effective Date, no payments are required to cure any defaults of the Debtor existing as of the Confirmation Date with respect to any Insurance Policy, and prior payments for premiums or other charges made prior to the Petition Date under or with respect to any Insurance Policy shall be indefeasible.

D. Effect of Confirmation on D&O Liability Insurance Policies.

From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall remain in place on terms for coverage and amounts no less favorable than the Debtors' current directors' and officers' insurance policies. From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust and, upon such transfer, shall become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan), which D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be maintained for the benefit of the beneficiaries thereunder. The Debtors and the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policies (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect on or prior to the Effective Date, and any current and former directors, officers, managers, and employees of the Debtors and their Affiliates who served in such capacity at any time before or after the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy or policies for the full term of such policy or policies regardless of whether such directors, officers, managers, and employees remain in such positions after the Effective Date.

ARTICLE VI
PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISTRIBUTIONS

A. Timing and Calculation of Amounts to Be Distributed.

Except as (1) otherwise provided herein, (2) directed by a Final Order, or (3) as otherwise agreed to by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Officer, as the case may be, and the Holder of the applicable Claim, on the Effective Date (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Distribution Date after such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive the full amount of distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class from the Distribution Agent. In the event that any payment or distribution under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or distribution may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. Except as specifically provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

B. Distribution Agent.

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under the Plan and the Plan Supplement; (b) make all distributions contemplated under the Plan; (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan and the Plan Supplement, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of the Plan and the Plan Supplement.

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Distribution Agent on or after the Effective Date (including taxes) and any reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement claims (including reasonable attorney and/or other professional fees and expenses) made by the Distribution Agent shall be paid in Cash by the Wind-Down Officer from the Wind-Down Account.

C. Delivery of Distributions and Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Distribution Agent shall make all distributions required under the Plan. The Distribution Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Additionally, in the event that the Distribution Agent is so otherwise ordered, all costs and expenses of procuring any such bond or surety shall be paid from the Wind-Down Account.

In the event that either (a) a distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable, (b) the Holder of an Allowed Claim does not respond in writing to a request by the Debtors or the Distribution Agent for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution within sixty (60) days or otherwise complete the actions necessary to facilitate a distribution as identified to the Holder within ninety (90) days of the Distribution Agent's request, no distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Distribution Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder or received the necessary information to facilitate a particular distribution, at which time such distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest, dividends, or other accruals of any kind; provided that such distributions shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code on the date that is six months after (a) the date of the distribution, if a distribution is made, or (b) the date that a request for information or action is sent by the Distribution Agent. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Creditor Recovery Trust automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable local, state, federal, or foreign escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and the Claim or Interest of any Holder to such property or interest in property shall be released and forever barred.

D. Claims Payable by Third Parties.

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to one of the Debtors' insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable insurance policy, including any D&O Liability Insurance Policy. Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Cause of Action that the Debtors or any Entity may hold against any other Entity, including insurers under any policies of insurance, nor shall anything contained in the Plan constitute or be deemed a waiver by such insurers of any defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such insurers.

E. Distributions to Unsecured Claims.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, all Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims shall be administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to and in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

F. Allocation Between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided herein, the aggregate consideration paid to Holders on account of their Allowed Claims pursuant to the Plan shall be treated as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof and as determined for federal income tax purposes) and second, to the extent the consideration exceeds the principal amount of the Allowed Claims, to the remaining portion of such Allowed Claim, if any.

ARTICLE VII
PROCEDURES FOR RESOLVING CONTINGENT, UNLIQUIDATED, AND DISPUTED CLAIMS

A. Allowance of Claims.

After the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have and shall retain any and all available rights and defenses the applicable Debtor had with respect to any Claim immediately before the Effective Date, including, without limitation, the right to assert any objection to Claims based on the limitations imposed by section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that neither the Wind-Down Officer nor the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to any Professional Fee Claims or fees of the Independent Fiduciary. For the avoidance of doubt, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to and otherwise reconcile any and all Claims that seek recovery from the Creditor Recovery Trust other than Professional Fee Claims and fees of the Independent Fiduciary. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases before the Effective Date (including the Confirmation Order), no Claim against any Debtor shall become an Allowed Claim unless and until such Claim or Interest is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Court has entered a Final Order, including the Confirmation Order (when it becomes a Final Order), in the Chapter 11 Cases allowing such Claim.

No payment or distribution provided under the Plan shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim or portion thereof unless and until such Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

B. Automatic Disallowance and Expungement of Certain Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Claims Filed after the Claims Bar Date that were required to be Filed in advance of the Claims Bar Date under its terms shall be expunged and disallowed without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

C. Distributions After Allowance.

To the extent a Disputed Claim ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, as soon as practicable, the Debtors shall provide to the Holder of such Claim the Distribution (if any) to which such Holder is entitled under the Plan as of the Effective Date, less any previous Distribution (if any) that was made on account of the undisputed portion of such Claim, without any interest, dividends, or accruals to be paid on account of such Claim.

ARTICLE VIII
SETTLEMENT, RELEASE, INJUNCTION, AND RELATED PROVISIONS

A. Settlement, Compromise, and Release of Claims and Interests.

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and in consideration for the distributions and other benefits provided pursuant to the Plan, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, the distributions, rights, and treatment that are provided in the Plan shall be in complete settlement, compromise, and release, effective as of the Effective Date, of Claims, Interests, and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever, including any interest accrued on Claims or Interests from and after the Petition Date, whether known or unknown, against, liabilities of, Liens on, obligations of, rights against, and Interests in, the Debtors or any of their assets or properties, regardless of whether any property shall have been distributed or retained pursuant to the Plan on account of such Claims and Interests, including demands, liabilities, and Causes of Action that arose before the Effective Date, any liability (including withdrawal liability) to the extent such Claims or Interests relate to services performed by agents or representatives of the Debtors before the Effective Date and that arise from a termination of employment, any contingent or non-contingent liability on account of representations or warranties issued on or before the Effective Date, and all debts of the kind specified in sections 502(g), 502(h), or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, in each case whether or not: (1) a Proof of Claim based upon such debt, right, Claim, or Interest is Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code; (2) a Claim or Interest based upon such debt, right, or Interest is Allowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (3) the Holder of such a Claim or Interest has accepted the Plan. Any default by the Debtors or their Affiliates with respect to any Claim or Interest that existed immediately before or on account of the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases shall be deemed cured on the Effective Date. The Confirmation Order shall be a judicial determination of the settlement, compromise, and release of all Claims and Interests subject to the Effective Date occurring.

B. Release of Liens.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, on the Effective Date and concurrently with the applicable distributions made pursuant to the Plan and, in the case of a Secured Claim, satisfaction in full of the portion of the Secured Claim that is Allowed as of the Effective Date, all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estate shall be fully released, settled, and compromised.

C. Releases by the Debtors.

Pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, for good and valuable consideration, on and after the Effective Date, each Released Party is deemed released by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Claims, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies, and liabilities whatsoever, including any derivative Claims, asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that the Debtors or their Estates would have been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the Holder of any Claim or Interest or other Entity, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Chapter 11 Cases, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date.

D. Releases by Holders of Claims and Interests.

As of the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Releasing Parties are deemed to have released the Debtors, their Estates, and the Released Parties from any and all Claims, Interests, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies and liabilities whatsoever, including any direct Claims held by any of the Releasing Parties against the Debtors, their Estates, and/or the Released Parties or derivative Claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that each Releasing Party would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Debtors' restructuring, the Chapter 11 Cases, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents, or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan.

E. Exculpation.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, each Debtor and each Exculpated Party is hereby released and exculpated from any Claim, obligation, Cause of Action, or liability for any Exculpated Claim, except for gross negligence or willful misconduct, but in all respects each Debtor and each Exculpated Party shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to its duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan. The Debtors, their Estates, and the Exculpated Parties have, and upon completion of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of the Plan and distributions pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

F. Injunction.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan or for obligations issued or required to be paid pursuant to the Plan, all Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that have been released pursuant to Article VIII.B of the Plan or Article VIII.D of the Plan, compromised and settled pursuant to Article VIII.A of the Plan, or are subject to exculpation pursuant to Article VIII.E of the Plan are permanently enjoined, from and after the Effective Date, from taking any of the following actions against, as applicable, the Debtors or the Released Parties: (1) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claim or Interest; (2) enforcing, attaching, collecting, or recovering by any manner or means any judgment, award, decree, or order against such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (3) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any encumbrance of any kind against such Entities or the property or the Estates of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (4) asserting any right of setoff, subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due from such Entities or against the property of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; and (5) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests.

ARTICLE IX

It shall be a condition to Consummation that the following conditions shall have been satisfied or waived pursuant to the provisions of Article IX.B of the Plan:

1. the Bankruptcy Court shall have entered the Confirmation Order and it shall have become a Final Order; provided, however, that in accordance with Bankruptcy Rules 3020(e), 6004(h), and 6006(d) (and notwithstanding any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Rules), the Confirmation Order shall not be stayed and shall be effective immediately upon its entry;

2. all documents and agreements necessary to implement the Plan, including any documents related to the NOLA Sale Transaction and Restructuring Transactions shall have (a) all conditions precedent to the effectiveness of such documents and agreements satisfied or waived pursuant to the terms of such documents or agreements, (b) been tendered for delivery, and (c) been effected or executed;

ARTICLE X
MODIFICATION, REVOCATION, OR WITHDRAWAL OF THE PLAN

A. Modification and Amendments.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors reserve the right to modify the Plan, whether materially or immaterially, including by adding a non-Debtor entity that becomes a debtor and debtor in possession under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code to, or removing a Debtor from, the Plan, and seek Confirmation, in each instance, to the extent permitted under the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to certain restrictions and requirements set forth in section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3019 and those restrictions on modifications set forth in the Plan, the Debtors reserve their right to alter, amend, or modify materially the Plan, one or more times, after Confirmation, and, to the extent necessary, may initiate proceedings in the Bankruptcy Court to so alter, amend, or modify the Plan, or remedy any defect or omission, or reconcile any inconsistencies in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, or the Confirmation Order, in such matters as may be necessary to carry out the purposes and intent of the Plan.

B. Effect of Confirmation on Modifications.

I. INTRODUCTION

Reference is made to the Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates (the "Plan"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Plan. Crown Capital Holdings LLC ("Crown Capital"), RH Chenault Creek LLC ("Chenault"), RH Windrun LLC ("Windrun"), RH Copper Creek LLC ("Copper Creek"), RH Lakewind East LLC ("Lakewind"), RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC, and Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC (collectively, the "Debtors") submit this disclosure statement (the "Disclosure Statement"), pursuant to section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, to holders of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors in connection with the solicitation of votes for acceptance of the Plan. The Plan constitutes a separate chapter 11 plan for each Debtor.

II. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The Debtors own and operate four multifamily affordable housing complexes located in New Orleans, Louisiana (the "NOLA Properties"): Carmel Brook Apartments, owned by Chenault; Carmel Spring Apartments, owned by Windrun; Laguna Reserve Apartments, owned by Lakewind; and Laguna Creek Apartments, owned by Copper Creek. The NOLA Properties provide rent restricted housing to low-income residents and are supported in part by government housing programs. Preserving the NOLA Properties is critical not only to maximizing the value of the Debtors' estates, but also to protecting vital affordable housing resources in the local community.

The Debtors, along with their affiliates CBRM Realty Inc. ("CBRM"), Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC, and Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC ("Kelly Hamilton," together with CBRM and Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC, the "CBRM Debtors"), commenced these chapter 11 cases on May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date").[2] These chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") were filed amid severe operational, financial, and governance challenges stemming from mismanagement of the broader Crown Capital Portfolio (defined below) and the criminal conviction of its ultimate equity owner, Mark "Moshe" Silber. These issues contributed to liquidity constraints, declining property performance, and creditor enforcement actions. Since the Petition Date, and under the leadership of an independent fiduciary (the "Independent Fiduciary"), the Debtors have stabilized operations, obtained postpetition financing, and initiated a court-supervised marketing process aimed at maximizing value for the benefit of all stakeholders.

To support this process, Crown Capital, Chenault Creek, Windrun, Copper Creek, and Lakewind obtained $17,422,728 in postpetition financing (the "NOLA DIP Facility") from DH1 Holdings LLC ("DH1"), CKD Funding LLC ("CKD Funding"), and CKD Investor Penn LLC ("CKD Penn" and, together with DH1 and CKD Funding, collectively, the "NOLA DIP Lenders"), investors with deep experience in the multifamily and affordable housing sectors. Of that amount, approximately $8,461,524 was funded through new money loans, while the remaining $8,961,204 reflected a roll-up of prepetition obligations. Prior to the Petition Date, the NOLA DIP Lenders held the senior secured mortgage loans encumbering the NOLA Properties and were the Debtors' primary secured creditors. The NOLA DIP Facility has served as a critical bridge to fund operations and support a dual-track strategy for sale and plan confirmation.

Operational stability has been further supported by the Debtors' continued engagement of Lynd Management Group LLC ("Lynd Management") as property manager and LAGSP LLC ("LAGSP") as asset manager. Both firms are affiliates of The Lynd Group, a Texas-based real estate organization with a national platform and demonstrated experience managing affordable housing assets. The Debtors initially engaged Lynd Management and LAGSP pursuant to prepetition service agreements, and subsequently moved to assume and amend those agreements postpetition to ensure continuity of operations and to enhance oversight during the chapter 11 process.

The Debtors are now advancing a chapter 11 plan that contemplates a court-approved sale of the NOLA Properties (the "NOLA Sale Transaction"). On August 15, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving: (a) bidding procedures, including the sale timeline and form and manner of notice for the potential sale of one or more of the NOLA Properties; (b) a process for selecting a stalking horse bidder and approving bid protections; and (c) procedures for the potential assumption and assignment of executory contracts and unexpired leases [Docket No. 382] (the "NOLA Bidding Procedures Order"). In accordance with the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order, the NOLA Sale Transaction may be implemented either pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or through consummation of the Plan.

The Plan contemplates the following stakeholder recoveries:

- All Allowed Other Priority Claims will be paid in full in Cash on the Effective Date, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable;

- All Allowed Other Secured Claims will be (a) paid in full in Cash, (b) reinstated, (c) receive the return of applicable collateral securing such Allowed Other Secured Claims, or (d) otherwise receive treatment that renders such Claims Unimpaired under the Bankruptcy Code;

- Each Holder of an Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claim will receive, (a) Sale Proceeds that are proceeds of the sale of the Lakewind Property to the extent set forth in and subject to the waterfall provisions of the NOLA DIP Order; or (b) to the extent the Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claim is not satisfied by the applicable Sale Proceeds in full as set forth in clause (i), its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution to Holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan;

- Each Holder of an Allowed NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claim will receive a treatment determined by the NOLA Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the NOLA Purchase Agreement;

- Each Holder of an Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan;

- Each Holder of an Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan);

- Each Holder of an Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan);

- Except as otherwise provided in the Plan Supplement, all Intercompany Claims will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Claims; provided, however, that any such Intercompany Claim shall not be canceled, released or extinguished and shall remain in force to the extent necessary to allow the Creditor Recovery Trustee to seek recovery from any non-Debtor;

- Except as otherwise provided in the Plan Supplement, all Intercompany Interests will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Interests;

- On the Effective Date, each Crown Capital Interest shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust as provided in the Plan; provided, however, that the Crown Capital Interests shall remain subject to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed to by Spano Investor LLC; provided, further, however, that Spano Investor LLC shall not directly or indirectly seek to exercise any legal, equitable, or other rights against such Crown Capital Interests or other assets of any Debtor or subsidiary of any Debtor that may constitute collateral of Spano Investor LLC with respect to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. pending further order of the Bankruptcy Court or a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court in the Spano Adversary Proceeding; provided, further, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Plan shall limit or affect Spano Investor LLC's rights to enforce its prepetition judgment and exercise any remedies against non-Debtors Fox Capital LLC, CBCC 1 LLC, CBCC 2 LLC, CBCC 3 LLC, CBCC 4 LLC, CBCC 5 LLC, Westwood Jackson Apts MM LLC, or Westwood Jackson Apts LLC, or any assets of such non-Debtor entities;

- All Interests in RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust without any distribution on account of such Interests; and

- All Section 510(b) Claims, if any, will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Claims.

The Debtors strongly believe that the Plan is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, and represents the best available alternative at this time. For these reasons, the Debtors strongly recommend that Holders of Claims and Interests entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan vote to accept the Plan.

III. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS REGARDING THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT AND THE PLAN

A. What is chapter 11?

Chapter 11 is the principal business reorganization chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition to permitting debtor rehabilitation, chapter 11 promotes equality of treatment for creditors and similarly situated equity interest holders, subject to the priority of distributions prescribed by the Bankruptcy Code.

The commencement of a chapter 11 case creates an estate that comprises all of the legal and equitable interests of the debtor as of the date the chapter 11 case is commenced. The Bankruptcy Code provides that the debtor may continue to operate its business and remain in possession of its property as a "debtor in possession."

Consummating a chapter 11 plan is the principal objective of a chapter 11 case. A bankruptcy court's confirmation of a chapter 11 plan binds the debtor, any person acquiring property under the plan, any creditor or equity interest holder of the debtor (whether or not such creditor or equity interest holder voted to accept the plan), and any other entity as may be ordered by the bankruptcy court. Subject to certain limited exceptions, the order issued by a bankruptcy court confirming a plan provides for the treatment of the debtor's liabilities in accordance with the terms of the confirmed plan.

B. Why are the Debtors sending me this Disclosure Statement?

The Debtors are seeking to obtain Bankruptcy Court approval of the Plan. Before soliciting acceptances of the Plan, section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Debtors to prepare a disclosure statement containing adequate information of a kind, and in sufficient detail, to enable a hypothetical reasonable investor to make an informed judgment regarding acceptance of the Plan and to share such disclosure statement with all holders of Claims and Interests whose votes on the Plan are being solicited. This Disclosure Statement is being submitted in accordance with these requirements.

C. Am I entitled to vote on the Plan?

Your ability to vote on, and your distribution under, the Plan, if any, depends on what type of Claim or Interest you hold. Each category of holders of Claims or Interests, as set forth in Article III of the Plan pursuant to section 1122(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, is referred to as a "Class." Each Class's respective voting status is set forth below:

Class	Claims and Interests	Status	Voting Rights
Class 1	Other Priority Claims	Unimpaired	Note Entitled to Vote (Presumed to Accept)
Class 2	Other Secured Claims	Unimpaired	Not Entitled to Vote (Presumed to Accept)
Class 3	CIF Mortgage Loan Claims	Impaired	Entitled to Vote
Class 4	NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims	Impaired	Entitled to Vote
Class 5	Other NOLA Unsecured Claims	Impaired	Entitled to Vote

Class 7	RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims	Impaired	Entitled to Vote
Class 8	Intercompany Claims	Impaired	Not Entitled to Vote

Class 12	Section 510(b) Claims	Impaired	Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject)

D. What will I receive from the Debtors if the Plan is consummated?

The following chart provides a summary of the anticipated recovery to Holders of Claims and Interests under the Plan. Any estimates of Claims or Interests in this Disclosure Statement may vary from the final amounts allowed by the Bankruptcy Court. Your ability to receive distributions under the Plan depends upon the ability of the Debtors to obtain Confirmation and meet the conditions necessary to consummate the Plan.

Each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive under the Plan the treatment described below in full and final satisfaction of and in exchange for such Holder's Claim, except to the extent different treatment is agreed to by the Debtors and the Holder of such Allowed Claim. Unless otherwise indicated, the Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive such treatment on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. Projected recoveries included in the summary table below reflect the Debtors' analysis of anticipated Claims.

E. What will I receive from the Debtors if I hold a General Administrative Claim or a Priority Tax Claim?

General Administrative Claims and Priority Tax Claims have not been placed in a Class in the Plan, consistent with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. Article II.A of the Plan sets forth the treatment for General Administrative Claims and provides in part that such Claims will be satisfied in full in an amount of Cash equal to the amount of such Allowed General Administrative Claim. Article II.E of the Plan sets forth the treatment for Priority Tax Claims, which states that an Allowed Priority Tax Claim will be treated in accordance with section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code.

F. Are any regulatory approvals required to consummate the Plan?

Other than approvals that may be required in the ordinary course of business in connection with the continued operation of the NOLA Properties, the Debtors are not aware of any material U.S. regulatory approvals required to consummate the Plan. However, the sale of the NOLA Properties pursuant to the Plan or under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code is subject to entry of a final, non-appealable order of the Bankruptcy Court confirming the Plan or sale under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

G. What happens if the NOLA Sale Transaction is not consummated?

The Plan is premised on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, which the Debtors believe will represent the best available path to maximize value and facilitate an orderly Wind-Down of the Estates. However, if the NOLA Sale Transaction is not consummated, the Debtors would work expeditiously to evaluate and pursue an alternative transaction structure, which could include, if required and feasible, a reorganization of one or more Debtors, though no such transaction has been proposed or developed to date and may not be viable given the Debtors' financial condition.

While no such alternative restructuring has been negotiated or proposed as of the date of this Disclosure Statement, the Debtors believe there may be value-preserving alternatives that could be developed and implemented through a revised chapter 11 plan, subject to further diligence, market conditions, and creditor support. In such a scenario, the treatment of Claims and Interests could differ from that set forth in the current Plan and would be determined based on the structure of any such alternative transaction.

If no viable transaction can be implemented, the Debtors may need to consider a conversion to chapter 7, which could result in lower recoveries than those estimated under the Plan.

H. What happens to my recovery if the Plan is not confirmed or does not go effective?

If the Plan is not confirmed or does not go effective, there is no assurance that the Debtors will be able to implement an alternative transaction that would provide recoveries equal to or greater than those contemplated by the Plan. The Plan is based on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' Estates. The Debtors do not have an alternative transaction or plan of reorganization currently negotiated or proposed.

If the NOLA Sale Transaction cannot be completed and the Plan cannot be confirmed, the Debtors would evaluate potential alternatives. However, there can be no assurance that a viable alternative transaction could be identified, negotiated, and implemented in a timely or cost-effective manner. In such a scenario, the Debtors may be required to convert these Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, which the Debtors believe would likely result in significantly lower recoveries for Holders of Allowed Claims.

For a more detailed description of the potential consequences of a failure to confirm or consummate the Plan, see Article XI.B of this Disclosure Statement, entitled "Best Interests of Creditors Test," which begins on page 48.

I. If the Plan provides that I get a distribution, do I get it upon Confirmation or when the Plan goes effective, and what is meant by "Confirmation," "Effective Date," and "Consummation"?

"Confirmation" of the Plan refers to approval of the Plan by the Bankruptcy Court. Confirmation of the Plan does not guarantee that you will receive the distribution indicated under the Plan. After Confirmation of the Plan by the Bankruptcy Court, there are conditions that need to be satisfied or waived so that the Plan can go effective. Initial distributions to holders of Allowed Claims and Interests will only be made on the date the Plan becomes effective—the "Effective Date"—or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, as specified in the Plan. See Article IX of the Plan. "Consummation" means the occurrence of the Effective Date.

J. What are the sources of Cash and other consideration required to fund the Plan?

The Debtors intend to fund distributions under the Plan through a combination of (a) the Sale Proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction; (b) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to be transferred in accordance with the CBRM Plan and this Plan; and (c) other available assets, as further described in the Plan.

The NOLA Sale Transaction contemplates the sale of the NOLA Properties pursuant to one or more purchase agreements with the successful bidder(s) following conclusion of the sale process.

In addition to the proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction, distributions under the Plan will be funded from: (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, consisting of, to the extent not expended prior to the Effective Date solely with respect to the development and investigation of Claims and Causes of Action held by the Debtors or their Estates to be pursued for the benefit of creditors, Cash in an amount equal to $1,000,000 of the proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility, which shall be funded on the Effective Date; (ii) any recoveries from the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, Contributed Claims, and NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, which will be pursued and administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust; and (iii) the Interests of RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC and Crown Capital. Distributions from the Creditor Recovery Trust will be made to Holders of Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claims (Class 6) and Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims (Class 7), with each Holder receiving its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan).

For the avoidance of doubt, the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall include any Claim or Cause of Action, including any Avoidance Action, held by the Debtors or their Estates and the proceeds thereof, against any of the following (each, an "Excluded Party" and collectively, the "Excluded Parties"): (a) Moshe (Mark) Silber; (b) Frederick Schulman; (c) Piper Sandler & Co.; (d) Mayer Brown LLP; (e) Rhodium Asset Management LLC; (f) Syms Construction LLC; (g) Rapid Improvements LLC; (h) NB Affordable Foundation Inc.; (i) any title agencies; (j) any independent real estate appraisal firms; (k) any rating agencies; (l) any accounting firms; (m) other current or former Insiders of the Debtors; (n) any party on the Schedule of Excluded Parties; and (o) with respect to each of the foregoing, each Person's or Entity's Affiliates, partners, members, managers, officers, directors, employees, and agents that are not specifically identified in this Plan as a Released Party.

Certain administrative expenses, including Allowed Professional Compensation Claims, will be funded from a dedicated Fee Escrow Account. The specific allocation of consideration and other assets to the various Classes of Claims and Interests will be set forth in the Plan Supplement.

K. Will there be releases and exculpation granted to parties in interest as part of the Plan?

Yes, the Plan provides for releases and exculpation of the Debtors and other parties in interest as set forth in Article VIII of the Plan.

Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors faced escalating operational and financial distress stemming from broader issues within the Crown Capital Portfolio (as defined below), including the criminal conviction of its ultimate equity owner, disputes among insiders, and a breakdown in governance and oversight. These failures contributed to cash flow shortfalls, unpaid obligations, and deterioration in property performance, placing the long-term viability of the NOLA Properties at serious risk. Following the appointment of the Independent Fiduciary in April 2024, the Debtors and their professionals undertook an extensive review of potential estate claims, insider transactions, and restructuring alternatives.

As part of that assessment, the Independent Fiduciary and the Debtors' professionals evaluated prepetition financial dealings involving insiders and affiliated entities, as well as the conduct surrounding the historical governance and financial condition of the Debtors. Based on that review, the Independent Fiduciary directed the Debtors to preserve all potential Claims and Causes of Action—including, without limitation, Avoidance Actions under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code and any claims for breach of fiduciary duty, mismanagement, or other actionable misconduct—against each Excluded Party. These parties are expressly excluded from the definitions of both "Released Parties" and "Exculpated Parties" under the Plan. Accordingly, the Plan does not, and shall not be construed to, release, exculpate, or otherwise impair any Claims or Causes of Action against these parties, all of which are expressly preserved. The Debtors, through the Independent Fiduciary and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, retain and reserve all such Causes of Action for the benefit of the Debtors' Estates and their stakeholders, and such

Causes of Action will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust for potential pursuit by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in accordance with the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

In contrast, the Independent Fiduciary has determined that releases are appropriate for the following parties: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the NOLA Purchaser; (c) LAGSP; (d) Lynd Management; (e) the NOLA DIP Lenders; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (h) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. These parties are collectively defined in the Plan as the "Released Parties."

In addition to the estate releases, the Plan includes a customary third-party release that applies only to Holders of Claims or Interests who affirmatively consent to grant such release. A Holder of a Claim in Class 3, Class 4, Class 5, Class 6, or Class 7 affirmatively consents to grant the third-party release set forth in Article VIII of the Plan if the Holder either (a) votes to accept the Plan, or (b) abstains or does not affirmatively vote to accept the Plan but checks the box on the Holder's Ballot indicating that the Holder opts to grant the release. Holders of Claims or Interests in Class 1, Class 2, Class 8, Class 9, Class 10, Class 11 or Class 12, which are not entitled to vote, may affirmatively consent to grant the release by submitting a completed Opt-In Form and checking the box indicating their consent. Only those Holders who take one of these specified affirmative actions will grant the third-party release under the Plan.

The Plan also includes an exculpation provision that applies to (a) each Debtor solely in its capacity as a debtor and debtor in possession following the Petition Date and excluding such Debtor for the period prior to the Petition Date, (b) the Independent Fiduciary, (c) LAGSP, (d) Lynd Management, and (e) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. These parties are exculpated from any liability for any act or omission arising as of or following the Petition Date through the Effective Date in connection with, relating to, or arising out of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan, the NOLA Sale Transaction, or Restructuring Transactions, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation of any document in connection with the Plan, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Plan, the pursuit of Consummation, the Restructuring Transactions, the administration and implementation of the Plan, or the distribution of property pursuant to the Plan.

The Debtors believe that the release, exculpation, and related injunction provisions are necessary and appropriate in light of the contributions made by the Released and Exculpated Parties, and consistent with applicable law, including precedent established by the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. The Debtors intend to present evidence at the Confirmation Hearing in support of the necessity and propriety of these Plan provisions.

IMPORTANTLY, ONLY HOLDERS OF CLAIMS OR INTERESTS THAT AFFIRMATIVELY OPT TO GRANT THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASES CONTAINED IN THE PLAN WILL BE SUBJECT TO SUCH RELEASES. A HOLDER WILL BE CONSIDERED TO HAVE AFFIRMATIVELY CONSENTED TO THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASES ONLY IF THAT HOLDER: (A) IS A HOLDER OF A CLAIM IN CLASS 3, CLASS 4, CLASS 5, CLASS 6 OR CLASS 7 AND VOTES TO ACCEPT THE PLAN; (B) IS A HOLDER OF A CLAIM IN CLASS 3, CLASS 4, CLASS 5, CLASS 6 OR CLASS 7, ABSTAINS OR DOES NOT AFFIRMATIVELY VOTE TO ACCEPT THE PLAN, AND CHECKS THE BOX ON THE BALLOT INDICATING THAT SUCH

HOLDER OPTS TO GRANT THE RELEASES; OR (C) IS A HOLDER OF A CLAIM OR INTEREST IN CLASS 1, CLASS 2, CLASS 8, CLASS 9, CLASS 10, CLASS 11 OR CLASS 12 AND CHECKS THE BOX ON THE OPT-IN FORM INDICATING THAT SUCH HOLDER OPTS TO GRANT THE RELEASES. HOLDERS WHO DO NOT AFFIRMATIVELY OPT TO GRANT THE RELEASES WILL NOT BE BOUND BY THEM. THE RELEASES ARE AN INTEGRAL ELEMENT OF THE PLAN.

L. What are the potential claims and causes of action against Silber and his affiliates?

The Debtors, through their Independent Fiduciary, are continuing to investigate potential Estate Claims and Causes of Action against Mark Silber, Frederick Schulman, and other individuals and entities associated with their historical control, management, or influence over the Debtors prior to the Petition Date. These investigations include potential claims for breach of fiduciary duty, mismanagement, corporate waste, fraudulent transfers, and other conduct that may have harmed the Debtors or their stakeholders.

With the assistance of advisors, the Independent Fiduciary is reviewing numerous prepetition transactions and governance actions involving these insiders. The areas of focus include the mismanagement of the Debtors' real estate assets, the potential misuse of financing proceeds, neglect of regulatory obligations, and other conduct potentially involving self-dealing, fraud, or improper diversion of estate value. The Debtors are also evaluating whether the misconduct that formed the basis of Silber's and Schulman's criminal convictions may have impacted the Debtors or their creditors.

As a result of this ongoing review, the Independent Fiduciary has directed the Debtors to preserve all related Claims and Causes of Action, including those against Silber, Schulman, entities they owned or controlled, and any other individuals or firms that may have facilitated or benefited from the conduct in question. These individuals and entities are expressly excluded from the Plan's definitions of "Released Parties" and "Exculpated Parties," and therefore are not receiving any release or exculpation under the Plan.

All such Claims and Causes of Action are being preserved under the Plan and, as of the Effective Date, will vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust and may be pursued by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The Creditor Recovery Trustee will serve as the post-effective date fiduciary responsible for investigating and, where appropriate, prosecuting such retained Claims and Causes of Action for the benefit of unsecured creditors.

M. How does this Plan relate to and interact with the CBRM Plan?

This Plan has been developed in coordination with the Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 469] (as amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time, the "CBRM Plan"). Pursuant to the CBRM Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan to assume all liability of the CBRM Debtors and their estates for, and to administer, all CBRM Unsecured Claims.

Under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the Debtors will transfer to the Creditor Recovery Trust (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any) to be administered for and distributed to the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims in accordance with the waterfall provisions of the CBRM Plan.

If the CBRM Plan is not confirmed or does not become effective, the Debtors will implement an alternative, court-approved mechanism to administer and distribute the assets that would otherwise have been transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such mechanism may include establishing a similar trust under the Plan or another structure designed to maximize value for stakeholders.

N. What is the Creditor Recovery Trust?

The Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan for the benefit of Holders of Class 6 Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, Class 7 Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims, and Allowed CBRM Unsecured Claims (as defined in the CBRM Plan).

Pursuant to the Plan, certain assets will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, including: (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, consisting of, to the extent not expended prior to the Effective Date solely with respect to the development and investigation of Claims and Causes of Action held by the Debtors or their Estates to be pursued for the benefit of creditors, Cash in an amount equal to $1,000,000 of the proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility, which shall be funded on the Effective Date; (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any).

In addition, as set forth in the Plan, the Debtors will include in the Plan Supplement a schedule of executory contracts to be assumed by the applicable Debtor and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts"). On the Effective Date, such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts shall be deemed assumed and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and any associated Cure Amounts shall be satisfied in accordance with the Plan and the Confirmation Order.

The Creditor Recovery Trust will be administered by one or more trustees selected by the CBRM Debtors, in consultation with the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, the NOLA DIP Lenders, and Spano Investor LLC ("Spano"). The Creditor Recovery Trustee will be responsible for administering, prosecuting, settling, or monetizing the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and making distributions in accordance with the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The Creditor Recovery Trust is intended to maximize recoveries for unsecured creditors.

O. What is the Wind-Down and who is responsible?

Following the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the Effective Date of the Plan, the Debtors will no longer operate an ongoing business and will instead wind down their affairs. The Wind-Down Officer appointed under the CBRM Plan shall be appointed by the Debtors to oversee the wind down, dissolution, and liquidation of the Estates following the Effective Date in accordance with Article IV.C of the Plan.

P. What is the deadline to vote on the Plan?

The Voting Deadline is October 10, 2025, at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

Q. How do I vote for or against the Plan?

Detailed instructions regarding how to vote on the Plan are contained on the ballots distributed to Holders of Claims and Interests that are entitled to vote on the Plan. For your vote to be counted, you must submit your ballot in accordance with the instructions provided in Article IV.D of this Disclosure Statement. BALLOTS SENT BY FAX OR EMAIL ARE NOT ALLOWED AND WILL NOT BE COUNTED.

R. Why is the Bankruptcy Court holding a Confirmation Hearing?

Section 1128(a) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Bankruptcy Court to hold a hearing on confirmation of the Plan and recognizes that any party in interest may object to Confirmation of the Plan. The Confirmation Hearing will be scheduled by the Bankruptcy Court shortly after the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases. All parties in interest will be served notice of the time, date, and location of the Confirmation Hearing once scheduled.

S. What is the purpose of the Confirmation Hearing?

The confirmation of a plan of reorganization by a bankruptcy court binds the debtor, any issuer of securities under a plan of reorganization, any person acquiring property under a plan of reorganization, any creditor or equity interest holder of a debtor, and any other person or entity as may be ordered by the bankruptcy court in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to certain limited exceptions, the order issued by the bankruptcy court confirming a plan of reorganization discharges a debtor from any debt that arose before the confirmation of such plan of reorganization and provides for the treatment of such debt in accordance with the terms of the confirmed plan of reorganization.

The deadline by which all objections to the Plan must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served so as to be actually received by the appropriate notice parties is October 10, 2025, at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

T. Who do I contact if I have additional questions with respect to this Disclosure Statement or the Plan?

If you have any questions regarding this Disclosure Statement or the Plan, please contact the Debtors' Claims and Noticing Agent, Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global ("Verita"), by submitting an inquiry to https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm/inquiry (with "CBRM Solicitation Inquiry" in the subject line).

Copies of the Plan and the Disclosure Statement: (a) are available on the Debtors' restructuring website, free of charge, at https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm; (b) may be obtained upon request of the Claims and Noticing Agent by writing to CBRM Realty Inc., et al. Ballot Processing, c/o KCC dba Verita Global, 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300, El Segundo, CA 90245 or by submitting an inquiry to https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm/inquiry (with "CBRM Solicitation Inquiry" in the subject line); and (c) will be available for inspection for a fee on the Bankruptcy Court's website at https://www.njb.uscourts.gov.

U. Do the Debtors recommend voting in favor of the Plan?

Yes. The Debtors strongly recommend that all eligible creditors vote to accept the Plan. The Plan contemplates the sale of the NOLA Properties through a competitive, court-supervised Sale Process, the transfer of designated assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust to administer and distribute recoveries, and the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' Estates following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction.

This structure is designed to maximize value and ensure fair and efficient distributions to creditors. The Debtors believe that the Plan is in the best interests of all Holders of Claims and Interests under the circumstances. Alternative paths would likely involve significant delays, increased administrative costs, and lower recoveries. In contrast, the Plan offers a clear, actionable, and creditor-focused approach to monetize remaining assets, preserve and pursue potential litigation claims, and bring these Chapter 11 Cases to a prompt and value-maximizing conclusion for the benefit of all stakeholders.

IV. SOLICITATION AND VOTING PROCEDURES

This Disclosure Statement, which is accompanied by a ballot (the "Ballot") to be used for voting on the Plan, is being distributed to the Holders of Claims in the Classes entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

A. Holders of Claims and Interests Entitled to Vote on the Plan

The Debtors are soliciting votes to accept or reject the Plan only from Holders of Claims and Interests in Classes 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 (the "Voting Classes"). The Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes are Impaired under the Plan and may, in certain circumstances, receive a distribution under the Plan. Accordingly, Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes have the right to vote to accept or reject the Plan. The Debtors are not soliciting votes from Holders of Claims or Interests in Classes 1, 2, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12.

B. Votes Required for Acceptance by a Class

Under the Bankruptcy Code, acceptance by a class of claims requires an affirmative vote of more than one-half in number of total allowed claims that have voted and an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds in dollar amount of the total allowed claims that have voted. Acceptance by a class of interests requires an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds in amount of the total allowed interests that have voted.

If a Class contains Claims or Interests eligible to vote and no Holders of Claims or Interests eligible to vote in such Class vote to accept or reject the Plan, then such Class shall be deemed to have accepted the Plan.

C. Certain Factors to Be Considered Prior to Voting

There are a variety of factors that all Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan should consider prior to voting to accept or reject the Plan. These factors may impact recoveries under the Plan and include, among other things:

- unless otherwise specifically indicated, the financial information contained in the Disclosure Statement has not been audited and is based on an analysis of data available at the time of the preparation of the Plan and the Disclosure Statement;

- although the Debtors believe that the Plan complies with all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors can neither assure such compliance nor that the Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan;

- the Debtors may request Confirmation without the acceptance of the Plan by all Impaired Classes in accordance with section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; and

- any delays of either Confirmation or Consummation could result in, among other things, increased Administrative Claims and Professional Fee Claims.

While these factors could affect distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests under the Plan, the occurrence or impact of such factors may not necessarily affect the validity of the vote of the Voting Classes or necessarily require a re-solicitation of the votes of Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes pursuant to section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code.

For a further discussion of risk factors, please refer to "Risk Factors" described in Article X of this Disclosure Statement.

D. Solicitation Procedures

1. Claims and Noticing Agent

The Debtors have retained the Claims and Noticing Agent, Verita, to act as, among other things, the Claims and Noticing Agent in connection with the solicitation of votes to accept or reject the Plan.

2. Solicitation Package

The following materials constitute the solicitation package (collectively, the "Solicitation Package") distributed to Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes:

- notice of the Confirmation Hearing;
- a customized paper Ballot;
- the Disclosure Statement (including the Plan and all exhibits) and the Disclosure Statement Order; and
- any other materials ordered by the Bankruptcy Court to be included as part of the Solicitation Package.

3. Distribution of the Solicitation Package and Plan Supplement

V. OVERVIEW OF THE COMPANY'S OPERATIONS

A. The Debtors' Business Operations

The Debtors are part of a larger real estate portfolio formed by real estate investor Moshe "Mark" Silber and certain affiliated parties (the "Crown Capital Portfolio"). The Crown Capital Portfolio holds dozens of multifamily housing projects across the United States, including the NOLA Properties, and has been historically funded, at least in part, by the federal government's housing assistance programs, such as Section 8.

Among the assets in the Crown Capital Portfolio are the NOLA Properties. These properties serve low-income tenants and participate in various government-supported housing programs. The NOLA Properties serve as a critical source of affordable housing for low-income residents in the New Orleans community. Rent payments from tenants (including subsidies paid directly by government programs) represent the Debtors' primary source of revenue. The Debtors do not have employees of their own and instead rely on third-party professionals to manage and operate the NOLA Properties.

B. Property Management and Operations

Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors engaged Lynd Management to serve as the Property Manager for the NOLA Properties, pursuant to certain Amended and Restated Property Management Agreements dated as of September 16, 2019. Lynd Management provides on-site personnel and oversees all day-to-day property-level functions, including leasing, maintenance, compliance with regulatory obligations, and the coordination of services for residents.

In addition, LAGSP serves as asset manager for the Debtors pursuant to that certain Asset Management Agreement dated as of September 19, 2024. LAGSP provides strategic oversight of the NOLA Properties' operations, ensures compliance with financing and regulatory obligations, and assists in capital planning and financial reporting.

All rent and subsidy collections are deposited into operating accounts controlled by the Debtors. In the ordinary course, these funds are used to pay property-level operating expenses, taxes, insurance, and debt service obligations. Prior to the Petition Date, limited liquidity, capital needs, and the legacy deferred maintenance burden impaired the Debtors' ability to stabilize operations and maintain compliance with regulatory standards.

C. Founder Misconduct and Breakdown in Governance

Prior to the Petition Date, the Crown Capital Portfolio raised hundreds of millions of dollars of financing, including (i) over $200 million from the sale of bonds issued by Crown Capital and guaranteed by CBRM (the "Notes") and (ii) approximately $450 million of property-level mortgage loans provided by an array of different financing sources.

Moshe "Mark" Silber and certain of his co-investors, including Frederick Schulman, have been targets of extensive investigations by the federal government and certain state authorities. On April 17, 2024, Silber entered into a plea agreement in connection with defrauding the federal government in connection with an affordable housing project (which does not have a presently-identified connection to the Debtors or their past or present activities) (the "Silber Prosecution-Related Property"). The plea agreement was entered into with the Fraud Section of the Department of Justice and the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey for conspiracy to commit wire fraud affecting an institution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 371. Schulman also entered into a plea agreement around the same time. Silber was sentenced to 30 months in prison and Schuman was sentenced to 12 months and one day in prison, to be followed by nine months of home confinement. Both have agreed to pay restitution.

A considerable share of the Debtors' distress arises from the fact that many, if not all, of the properties of the Debtors and their affiliates are likely worth much less today than the appraised values which supported the issuance of the Notes and certain of the property-level mortgage loans. Although the reasons for this depreciation remain the subject of active investigation, it may be explained by three factors alone or in combination. First, commencing in 2023, if not earlier, perhaps in part or in whole due to the distraction of the government investigations and eventual prosecution, Silber and Schulman neglected the management of the Crown Capital Portfolio, causing numerous properties or property-holding Debtors or their affiliates to fall into operational and/or physical disarray, jeopardize their eligibility for affordable housing programs which pay or subsidize all or most of the rent rolls, suffer declining occupancy rates, default on their obligations under their respective loan agreements, allow property-level mortgage loans to mature, fail to defend lawsuits (including the Acquiom litigation discussed infra) and become subject to default judgments, and/or become subject to receivership proceedings. Second, the government successfully prosecuted Silber and Schulman in connection with the Silber Prosecution-Related Property for using false or misleading property-level information to obtain inflated appraisals for certain properties, obtaining excessive financing, and then siphoning the surplusage out of Crown Capital. The Debtors are investigating what relevance, if any, this misconduct has to them. Third, many of the properties of the Debtors and their affiliates were valued for the purposes of the issuance of the Notes and some of the property-level mortgages in a period of time — 2021 and 2022 — when multi-family projects such as the Debtors' were at all-time high values in part due to low interest rates and high investor demand during and after the COVID pandemic — and those properties would likely be worth less today even in the absence of management negligence or intentional misconduct.

D. Appointment of Independent Fiduciary

Once Silber's plea became public, Silber, as a convicted felon, was effectively disqualified from continuing to manage the Crown Capital Portfolio. The Crown Capital Portfolio's stakeholders, including investors who purchased the Notes (the "Noteholders"), expressed concern about these developments because the Crown Capital Portfolio's value supported the payment of principal and interest under the Notes.

Following discussions between Mr. Silber's counsel and the Noteholders' counsel (Faegre Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP) and financial advisers (at the time, IslandDundon), on August 29, 2024, the parties entered into a forbearance agreement (the "Forbearance Agreement"). The Forbearance Agreement addressed various matters involving pending defaults under the Notes and Mr. Silber's go-forward involvement with the portfolio and established a process to ensure the Crown Capital Portfolio had sufficient fiduciary oversight. The Forbearance Agreement, among other things, required Mr. Silber to appoint an independent fiduciary acceptable to the Noteholders as the sole director of CBRM and Crown Capital and provide that individual with an irrevocable proxy for so long as the obligations under the Forbearance Agreement remained pending.

Thereafter, the Noteholders' advisors identified numerous potential candidates to serve as independent fiduciary as required by the Forbearance Agreement. On September 26, 2024, the bondholders party to the Forbearance Agreement consented to the appointment of Ms. Elizabeth A. LaPuma—a restructuring professional who for over 20 years has worked as an investment banker and corporate director, including for companies in distress—as the Independent Fiduciary for CBRM and Crown Capital. Since that time, Ms. LaPuma has acted in a fiduciary capacity for those entities and the dozens of other entities directly or indirectly owned by CBRM, including the Debtors.

E. Factors Precipitating the Debtors' Chapter 11 Filings

Following her appointment, the Independent Fiduciary immediately got to work to maximize the value of the portfolio. The Independent Fiduciary ordered a review of all litigation involving the portfolio, including the systematic identification of defaults, lawsuits, and judgments entered against the properties. In addition, the Independent Fiduciary, with the assistance of entities within Lynd Management, began the process of ensuring that each property owned by the portfolio had sufficient staffing and other resources, with the goal of ensuring that residents had safe, clean homes.

The Independent Fiduciary also took steps to ensure that she and the portfolio had the internal resources to maximize value for all stakeholders. Among other things, she obtained director and officer insurance (which the Crown Capital Portfolio inexplicably never obtained prior to the Independent Fiduciary's appointment) to enable her to fulfill her duties. The Independent Fiduciary also began providing periodic updates to the Noteholder advisers and steering committee (including weekly calls), engaged an investment advisor to seek refinancing and new capital opportunities for certain portfolio properties, and engaged with other creditors.

These efforts, however, required a pause in any negative enforcement actions contemplated by creditors of the Crown Capital Portfolio, including the Noteholders. Thus, following her appointment, the Independent Fiduciary worked constructively with her advisors and the Noteholders' advisors to extend the Forbearance Agreement in order to allow additional time to restructure the portfolio in a manner which would maximize value for all stakeholders. The Noteholders agreed to extend the Forbearance Agreement through April 14, 2025. However, prior to the expiration of that extension, the Noteholders informed the Independent Fiduciary's advisors that they would not extend the Forbearance Agreement any further.

Around the same time, one of the Debtors' judgment creditors similarly expressed its intent to execute on the Debtors' assets. Specifically, in June 2022, Mr. Silber purportedly entered into that certain Credit Agreement, dated June 2, 2022, between UBS O'Connor LLC, as lender ("UBS"), and Acquiom Agency Services LLC ("Acquiom"), as administrative agent (the "Silber Credit Agreement"). The Silber Credit Agreement was purportedly guaranteed by, among others, CBRM, and was purportedly secured by a pledge by CBRM of its equity in Crown Capital. On March 6, 2024, Acquiom sent a letter to Mr. Silber asserting that a default had occurred under the Silber Credit Agreement resulting from Mr. Silber's failure to timely make certain interest payments which Acquiom asserted were properly due under the Silber Credit Agreement. On May 2, 2024, after failing to receive a response to its letter, Acquiom filed a lawsuit against, among others, Silber and CBRM (the "UBS Defendants") to recover the total aggregate principal balance under the Silber Credit Agreement in a suit captioned Acquiom Agency Services LLC v. Fox Capital LLC et. al., Index No. 652265/2024, Supreme Court of the State of New York County of New York, Commercial Division Part 45 (May 2, 2024).

On August 2, 2024, the Supreme Court of the State of New York (the "New York Court") granted Acquiom's summary judgment motion and required that Silber repay the amounts outstanding under the Silber Credit Agreement in an amount totaling $19,185,000 plus interest. On September 5, 2024, the New York Court entered a judgment against the UBS Defendants in the amount of $21,020,452.60. On September 9, 2024, Acquiom assigned the right to collect on this judgment to Spano. After the assignment, on December 14, 2024, the New York Court entered a property execution order requiring the UBS Defendants to satisfy the judgment and authorizing the Spano to foreclose and collect upon certain assets in satisfaction of its judgment, including CBRM's right, title, and interest in Crown Capital. The Rockland County sheriff was scheduled to conduct a sheriff's sale of certain assets of CBRM, including its equity interest in Crown Capital, on Thursday, May 22, 2025. The sheriff's sale, had it proceeded, would have allowed a prepetition creditor to exercise remedies against CBRM's interest in Crown Capital, the entity overseen by the Independent Fiduciary (a) that issued the Notes, (b) holds significant potential claims and causes of action against Silber and other affiliates, and (c) holds CBRM's interests in the Crown Capital Portfolio. The sheriff's sale, if it had proceeded, would have, therefore, allowed a single prepetition judgment creditor receive a recovery at the expense of other creditors (particularly the Noteholders). The Debtors commenced these Chapter 11 Cases to maximize value for all of CBRM's creditors.

F. The Debtors' Prepetition Secured Indebtedness

As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were obligated under several prepetition secured credit facilities related to the NOLA Properties. CKD Funding is the holder of first-priority lien obligations arising under two loan facilities (together, the "Prepetition First Lien Loans"). The first facility originated with DH1, which made a loan to Chenault on or about April 4, 2024. This loan was initially in the principal amount of $7.5 million, later increased to $10 million by amendment on the same day, and subsequently increased to $25 million pursuant to a second amendment dated July 5, 2024 (the "DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan"). The loan was secured by a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Lease and Rents and Security Agreement dated April 4, 2024, encumbering Carmel Brook Apartments (the "DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage"). On March 10, 2025, DH1 assigned its rights under the DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan and DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage to CKD Funding, and the assignment was recorded in the Parish of Orleans, Louisiana, on March 12, 2025.

The second facility was made by CKD Funding directly to Windrun, Lakewind, and Copper Creek on or about July 8, 2024, in the principal amount of up to $10 million. This loan was secured by a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents and Security Agreement dated July 8, 2024, covering Carmel Spring Apartments, Laguna Reserve Apartments, and Laguna Creek Apartments. Together, the obligations under these two facilities comprise the Prepetition First Lien Loans. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were liable to CKD Funding in an amount not less than $8,961,204, secured by valid, perfected first-priority liens on substantially all of their assets.

In addition, CKD Funding acquired a junior loan originally made by Akiri Funds, LLC ("Akiri") to Chenault Creek on or about January 21, 2024, in the original principal amount of $3,635,475. That loan was amended and restated on March 12, 2024, to reflect a revised principal amount of $4,060,875.87 (the "Akiri Loan"), and was secured by a Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents, and Security Agreement dated March 13, 2024 (the "Akiri Mortgage"). The Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage were expressly subordinated to the DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan and DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage pursuant to a Subordination and Intercreditor Agreement dated April 4, 2024. Akiri sold and assigned the Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage to DH1 on September 6, 2024, who ultimately assigned the Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage to CKD Funding as part of the same March 2025 assignment from DH1 CKD Funding.

CKD Penn, LLC holds a junior mortgage on each of the NOLA Properties pursuant to a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and rents and Security Agreement dated August 16, 2024, which secures its guaranty of certain obligations owed by non-debtor affiliates of the Debtors.

Finally, Lakewind granted a mortgage on Laguna Reserve Apartments in favor of Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge Ltd. ("CIF") to secure a $4.5 million credit facility originally extended by CIF to Laguna Reserve pursuant to a Credit Agreement dated April 25, 2023. The mortgage was granted following a default by Laguna Reserve and was recorded on December 13, 2024. The CIF Lakewind Mortgage (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) is recognized by the Debtors, the Independent Fiduciary, CKD Funding, and CKD Penn as a valid, properly perfected lien, but only to the extent and subject to the conditions set forth in the NOLA DIP Order. Specifically, the CIF Lakewind Mortgage is junior to the Prepetition First Priority Liens (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) and the CKD Penn Junior Liens (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) and is recognized solely in accordance with the stipulations and reservations of rights contained in the NOLA DIP Order.

G. Prepetition Unsecured Obligations

As of the Petition Date, the Debtors' prepetition unsecured indebtedness consisted of: (a) the Notes, which are a series of three bond issuances, each made under a purported exemption from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, each of which is structured as a series of economically-identical bilateral agreements between the issuer and guarantor thereof, on the one hand, and each note purchaser (principally consisting of insurance companies and wealth management firms), on the other hand, and none of which possesses a trust indenture nor indenture trustee; (b) operating trade obligations; and (c) obligations to Lynd Management, LAGSP, and providers of professional services to or the payment of which was guaranteed by the Debtors.

VI. OVERVIEW OF THE CHAPTER 11 CASES

A. Commencement of Chapter 11 Cases

On the Petition Date, the Debtors commenced the Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors continue to manage their properties and operate their businesses as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. Joint Administration of the Chapter 11 Cases

On May 20, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking joint administration of their Chapter 11 Cases for procedural purposes only [Docket No. 7]. On May 27, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order granting the motion and directing that the cases be jointly administered under the lead case, In re CBRM Realty Inc., Case No. 25-15343 [Docket No. 51].

C. Complex Chapter 11 Case Designation and Procedures

On May 20, 2025, the Debtors submitted an application to designate the Chapter 11 Cases as complex Chapter 11 cases [Docket No. 10]. On May 28, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order granting the designation [Docket No. 57]. Subsequently, on June 9, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order implementing the Chapter 11 Complex Case Procedures [Docket No. 122].

D. Cash Management System

On May 23, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking authority to continue using their existing cash management system, maintain their existing bank accounts and business forms, honor related obligations in the ordinary course of business, and continue conducting intercompany transactions. The motion also requested that postpetition intercompany balances be granted superpriority administrative expense status pursuant to sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 30].

On May 28, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an interim order approving the requested relief on an interim basis [Docket No. 60]. Following a final hearing, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order on June 18, 2025, authorizing the Debtors to continue operating their cash management system and related practices on a final basis [Docket No. 165]. Pursuant to the final order, the Debtors were authorized to maintain their prepetition cash management structure, including all bank accounts and intercompany funding arrangements, and to continue using their existing checks and business forms, provided that they include a "Debtor in Possession" designation.

E. Authorization of Tenant Reimbursement and Business Operations

On May 23, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking authority to continue to operate their businesses in the ordinary course, including authority to pay certain prepetition obligations that are essential to ongoing operations and necessary to preserve the value of the estates [Docket No. 34] (the "Ordinary Course Motion"). This relief was critical to maintaining stable operations during the early stages of the Chapter 11 Cases and ensuring continuity of services across the Debtors' real estate portfolio.

Included within the scope of the Ordinary Course Motion was authorization for the Debtors to honor prepetition obligations to tenants, including obligations related to tenant reimbursements. Many of the Debtors' commercial leases contain provisions requiring the landlords to reimburse tenants for specific capital expenditures or tenant improvements, subject to defined lease terms and conditions. These reimbursements, while prepetition in origin, were viewed as essential to maintaining positive tenant relationships, avoiding litigation, and preserving the ongoing viability of tenancy arrangements that are foundational to the Debtors' revenue stream.

On June 18, 2025, following notice and a hearing, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order granting the Debtors authority to make tenant reimbursement payments consistent with the terms of applicable leases, and to continue administering and satisfying those obligations on a go-forward basis without the need for further Court approval [Docket No. 166]. On June 27, 2025, the Court entered a final order granting the Debtors authority to continue their prepetition business operations, policies, and practices, including the authorization to pay taxes and fees, vendor claims, and insurance obligations in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis [Docket No. 226].

F. Retention of Chapter 11 Professionals

The Debtors have obtained authority to retain various professionals to assist them in carrying out their duties under the Bankruptcy Code during these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors' professionals include: (i) White & Case LLP as bankruptcy counsel; (ii) Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey special counsel; and (iii) Verita as claims and noticing agent and administrative agent. In addition, the Debtors have filed applications to retain: (i) IslandDundon Partners LLC as restructuring advisor and investment banker; (ii)

Hilco Real Estate, LLC, as real estate advisor for the Kelly Hamilton Property (as defined below) and the NOLA Properties; and (iii) Larry G. Schedler & Associates, Inc.., as real estate broker for the NOLA Properties. The Debtors may seek to retain additional professionals.

G. DIP Financing Motion

On May 28, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 61] seeking authority to obtain two senior secured superpriority debtor-in-possession ("DIP") financing facilities from the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and the NOLA DIP Lenders, respectively.

On June 19, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court approved the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility on a final basis [Docket No. 178] (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Order"). Pursuant to the Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement, dated June 23, 2025, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility provides up to $9,705,162 in postpetition financing to the Debtors. The proceeds are to be used, among other things, to pay accrued and unpaid prepetition obligations to the prior secured lender, fund working capital, pay administrative and professional expenses in these Chapter 11 Cases, and preserve the value of low-income, HUD-subsidized multifamily housing owned by the Debtors.

The Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility is secured by first-priority, priming liens on substantially all assets of the Debtors (excluding certain litigation trust assets) and includes superpriority administrative expense claims under section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The facility provides that the obligations owed to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender are subject only to a defined Carve-Out and a limited reservation of rights respecting the Purported Spano Judgment Lien (as defined in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order).

On July 2, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court approved the NOLA DIP Facility on a final basis [Docket No. 251] (the "NOLA DIP Order"). Pursuant to the Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement, the NOLA DIP Facility provides for up to $17,422,728 in postpetition financing to Debtors Crown Capital, RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Windrun LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, and RH Lakewind East LLC. Of that amount, approximately $8,461,524 constitutes new money loans, with the remaining $8,961,204 representing a roll-up of obligations under the prepetition first lien loan facilities. The proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility are to be used to fund working capital, pay administrative and professional expenses in these Chapter 11 Cases, satisfy critical prepetition obligations, and preserve and stabilize the value of the NOLA Properties.

The NOLA DIP Facility is secured by first-priority, priming liens and includes superpriority administrative expense claims under section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The obligations under the NOLA DIP Facility are subject only to a defined Carve-Out and are governed by a budget and reporting protocol similar to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility. The final DIP order also provides for the roll-up of prepetition debt upon entry of the final order, without a novation or impairment of existing liens, and reserves certain rights with respect to potential litigation trust assets. For the avoidance of doubt, except to the extent that the NOLA DIP Facility has been indefeasibly repaid in full in Cash or the NOLA DIP Lenders and the Independent Fiduciary otherwise agree in writing, the Plan does not modify or otherwise affect any obligations of the Debtors arising under or related to the NOLA DIP Facility.

H. Utilities Motion

On June 10, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking entry of interim and final orders to establish adequate assurance procedures and to prevent utility companies from altering, refusing, or discontinuing service due to the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases [Docket No. 125] (the "Utilities Motion"). The Utilities Motion was critical to ensuring uninterrupted utility services to the Debtors' affordable housing projects across multiple states. The Debtors proposed to deposit approximately $67,025 into a segregated account as adequate assurance for utility providers, in addition to maintaining their historical payment practices.

On July 10, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order granting the relief requested in the Utilities Motion [Docket No. 279].

I. Lynd Management and LAGSP Contract Assumption

On June 11, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 128] seeking authority to assume critical prepetition property management and staffing contracts with Lynd Management and LAGSP, which provided essential onsite and centralized services to the Debtors' multifamily housing portfolio. The Debtors determined that assumption of these contracts was necessary to preserve value and maintain operational stability, particularly given Lynd Management and LAGSP's provision of critical property management and asset management services that are essential to maintaining compliance with regulatory requirements (including HUD requirements) and safeguarding resident health and safety. Continued engagement of Lynd Management and LAGSP was also integral to preserving the value of the Kelly Hamilton Property and the NOLA Properties and ensuring uninterrupted, compliant operations throughout the chapter 11 process.

On June 18, 2025, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 171] authorizing assumption of the contracts. In connection with that assumption, the Debtors agreed to pay a total cure amount of $953,000 to Lynd Management and LAGSP. Of that amount, $328,000 was payable in cash upon entry of the order, with the remaining $625,000 to be treated as an allowed administrative expense under sections 365(b) and 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and paid in accordance with the Plan's treatment of General Administrative Claims.

This arrangement provided immediate liquidity to Lynd Management and LAGSP and preserved its continued postpetition services while deferring the balance of the cure costs in a manner that aligned with the Debtors' liquidity constraints. The assumption of the Lynd Management and LAGSP contracts helped ensure continuity in essential property operations while supporting the Debtors' broader restructuring efforts.

J. Schedules and Statements and Claims Bar Dates

On June 27, 2025, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 227] approving the establishment of deadlines for filing proofs of claim. The order established: (i) 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on July 28, 2025, as the general bar date for all non-governmental creditors to file proofs of claim against the Debtors (the "Claims Bar Date"); (ii) 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on November 17, 2025, as the deadline for governmental units to file claims (the "Governmental Bar Date"); (iii) the later of (a) the Claims or Governmental Bar Date, as applicable, or (b) 30 days after entry of an order authorizing rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease, as the deadline for claims arising from such rejection (the "Rejection Damages Bar Date"); and (iv) the later of (a) the Claims or Governmental Bar Date, as applicable, or (b) 21 days following service of an amendment to a Debtor's Schedules, as the deadline for affected creditors to file claims in response (the "Amended Schedules Bar Date").

The Debtors intend to serve all required Bar Date Notices promptly upon entry of the Bar Date Order and have engaged Verita to facilitate notice and claims administration.

On June 24, 2025, the Debtors filed their Schedules of Assets and Liabilities and Statements of Financial Affairs (the "Schedules and Statements") pursuant to section 521 of the Bankruptcy Code. These filings included individual Schedules and Statements for Chenault, Windrun, Copper Creek, Lakewind, RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, and RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC [Docket Nos. 192-197].[6] The Schedules and Statements were prepared based on information available to the Debtors as of the Petition Date and are subject to further amendment or supplementation as discovery continues. Laguna Reserve anticipates filing its Schedules and Statements within the time permitted under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(c).

K. Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 11 Case of RH Lakewind East LLC

On June 1, 2025, CIF filed a motion to dismiss the Chapter 11 case of Lakewind pursuant to sections 1112(b) and 305(a) of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 87]. CIF alleged that Lakewind's bankruptcy petition was not filed in good faith and that dismissal was warranted based on purported bad faith and lack of legitimate reorganization purpose.

Following negotiations among the Debtors, CIF, and other stakeholders, and in connection with the settlement embodied in the NOLA DIP Order, CIF agreed to withdraw the motion with prejudice. Pursuant to paragraph 9 of the NOLA DIP Order, entry of that order constituted CIF's agreement to permanently withdraw its motion to dismiss and to waive further litigation or objection concerning the subject matter of that motion. Accordingly, the motion to dismiss was deemed withdrawn with prejudice upon entry of the NOLA DIP Order.

L. Adversary Proceeding Commenced by Cleveland International Fund

On June 25, 2025, CIF commenced the adversary proceeding styled Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge Ltd. and Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC v. CKD Funding, LLC and CKD Investor Penn LLC, Adv. Proc. No. 25-01269, asserting claims related to the financing structure of certain Crown Capital Portfolio entities.

The Debtors and other stakeholders disputed CIF's standing to prosecute the claims asserted in the adversary proceeding. Before any responsive pleadings were filed, CIF voluntarily dismissed the adversary proceeding on the basis that it lacked standing to pursue the asserted claims.

Thereafter, as part of the settlement embodied in the NOLA DIP Order, CIF agreed to waive and release any further challenges related to the subject matter of the adversary proceeding. Pursuant to paragraph 9 of the NOLA DIP Order, CIF also agreed not to initiate or pursue further litigation or objections concerning the Debtors' governance structure or restructuring process to the extent addressed in the adversary proceeding or resolved in connection with the settlement.

M. Retention and Compensation of Professionals

On July 8, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order Authorizing Employment and Payment of Professionals Utilized in the Ordinary Course of Business [Docket No. 270] (the "Ordinary Course Professionals Motion"). Pursuant to the Ordinary Course Professionals Motion, the Debtors sought authority to retain and compensate certain professionals utilized in the ordinary course of business without the need to file individual retention applications for each such professional, subject to certain procedures and monthly payment caps. On July 24, 2025, the Court entered an order granting the relief requested in the Ordinary Course Professionals Motion [Docket No. 270].

[6] The Schedules and Statements for Chenault Creek, Copper Creek, Lakewind, and Windrun were amended on July 31, 2025 [Docket Nos. 341-344] to reflect updates to Schedule E/F. On September 2, 2025, Lakewind, Windrun, Copper Creek, RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, and Chenault Creek filed further amended Schedules and Statements [Docket Nos. 474–478] to reflect additional updates to Schedule E/F, and, with respect to Chenault Creek, to Schedule A/B. Additional amendments may be made as necessary.

Also on July 8, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Administrative Fee Order Establishing Procedures for the Allowance and Payment of Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals Retained by Order of the Court [Docket No. 272] (the "Interim Compensation Motion"). The Interim Compensation Motion requested approval of procedures for the interim allowance and payment of fees and reimbursement of expenses of professionals retained pursuant to sections 327 and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code. On July 24, 2025, the Court entered an order granting the relief requested in the Interim Compensation Motion [Docket No. 324].

N. The CBRM Plan

On June 30, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed the initial CBRM Plan [Docket No. 246] and related disclosure statement [Docket No. 247] (the "CBRM Disclosure Statement"), in accordance with milestones set forth in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order.

On July 11, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed a motion seeking approval of procedures for the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Apartments, a multifamily affordable housing complex located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (the "Kelly Hamilton Property"), including a proposed stalking horse purchase agreement and related bid protections [Docket No. 281] (the "Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion"). That same day, the CBRM Debtors filed a motion seeking conditional approval of the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement and associated voting and solicitation procedures (the "Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion") [Docket No. 283].

On July 24, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed revised versions of the CBRM Plan and CBRM Disclosure Statement [Docket Nos. 320, 321], and the Bankruptcy Court held a hearing to consider approval of both the Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion and the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion. The Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the relief sought in the Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion [Docket No. 325] that same day, and on August 1, 2025, entered an order approving the revised relief requested in the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion [Docket No. 347], following submission of updated solicitation documents filed on July 30, 2025 and August 5, 2025, including the CBRM Disclosure Statement and CBRM Plan [Docket Nos. 339, 340, 360].

The bid deadline was August 14, 2025, and no additional qualified bids were received. Accordingly, the auction scheduled for August 18, 2025 will not be held. On August 15, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed a notice designating the stalking horse purchaser as the successful bidder [Docket No. 383]. Under the CBRM Plan, the Kelly Hamilton Property will be sold to the stalking horse purchaser, subject to Bankruptcy Court approval at the confirmation hearing set for September 4, 2025.

Distributions under the CBRM Plan will be funded from, among other sources, the proceeds of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction (as defined in the CBRM Plan) and the Creditor Recovery Trust. The CBRM Debtors are currently soliciting votes on the CBRM Plan, with a voting deadline of August 26, 2025.

O. Disputed Spano CBRM Claim and Spano Adversary Proceeding

As described in greater detail above, Acquiom obtained a prepetition judgment against CBRM in connection with guarantees provided under the Silber Credit Agreement, which judgment was subsequently assigned to Spano. That judgment included, among other actions, a scheduled sheriff's sale of CBRM's equity interests in Crown Capital that was stayed by the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases.

On July 15, 2025, Spano filed a proof of claim against CBRM (Claim No. 4), asserting a secured claim in the amount of approximately $21.1 million based on the prepetition judgment and a purported lien. In response, on July 18, 2025, CBRM filed a complaint in the Bankruptcy Court against Spano and Acquiom, initiating an adversary proceeding captioned CBRM Realty Inc. v. Spano Investor LLC (In re CBRM Realty Inc.), Adv. Pro. No. 25-01295, Case No. 25-15343 (Bankr. D.N.J. July 18, 2025) (the "Spano Adversary Proceeding") [Adv. Dkt. No. 1] (the "Complaint").

The Complaint alleges, among other things, that in June 2022, Mr. Silber entered into a credit agreement with Acquiom and certain lenders and subsequently received an aggregate amount of $19 million of loan proceeds prior to November 2023. In November 2023, Mr. Silber caused CBRM to become a guarantor under the credit agreement via an amendment to the governing guaranty agreement. Mr. Silber also received an additional $7.75 million of loan proceeds under the credit agreement. In May 2025, Acquiom filed suit against the guarantors in New York state court under the relevant loan documents. On September 5, 2024, Acquiom received a judgment against the guarantors, including CBRM, in the amount of approximately $21 million. Acquiom subsequently assigned the judgment to Spano. On or around December 13, 2024, Spano delivered a property execution letter to the Rockland County Sheriff, resulting in a purported judgment lien on CBRM's property. The corresponding levy was served on CBRM's counsel, White & Case LLP, on January 15, 2025. The Complaint alleges that the levy expired 90 days after service if CBRM's property was not transferred to the sheriff—and that no such transfer occurred.

The Complaint seeks to avoid CBRM's guaranty as a constructively fraudulent transfer pursuant to sections 544 and 548 of the Bankruptcy Code and to avoid the purported judgment lien as unperfected as of the Petition Date under section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition, the Complaint seeks disallowance of Spano's proof of claim in its entirety or, in the alternative, a determination that Spano holds only an unsecured claim.

The Complaint asserts five causes of action, including: (i) avoidance and recovery of the guaranty as a constructively fraudulent transfer under sections 544, 548, 550, and 551, against Spano and Acquiom; (ii) avoidance and recovery of the purported lien under sections 544, 550, and 551, against Spano and Acquiom; (iii) disallowance of the defendants' claims under section 502(d), against Spano and Acquiom; (iv) disallowance of Spano's claim under section 502(b), against Spano; and (v) recharacterization and/or disallowance of Spano's claim as unsecured under sections 502 and 506, against Spano.

Spano disputes all of the allegations asserted in the Spano Adversary Proceeding and has expressly reserved all rights, claims, and defenses in connection therewith.

On July 30, 2025, the Debtors, Spano, and Acquiom executed the Stipulation and Agreed Order Among the Debtors, Spano Investor LLC, and Acquiom Agency Services LLC to Stay Adversary Proceeding and Resolve Certain Claims Treatment Issues, which was filed with the Bankruptcy Court and was entered on July 31, 2025 [Docket No. 345] (the "Spano Stipulation"). Pursuant to the Spano Stipulation, the Spano CBRM Claim (as defined in the CBRM Plan) shall be deemed Allowed in the amount of $21,118,881.01 solely for voting purposes under section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, without prejudice to Spano's position that its Claim is secured and supported by valid, enforceable liens and security interests. The CBRM Plan was amended to provide for a separate class for the Spano CBRM Claim, and Spano has agreed to vote to accept the CBRM Plan in that class. The Spano Stipulation expressly reserves all parties' rights with respect to the classification, allowability, priority, and secured status of the Spano CBRM Claim.

The Spano Adversary Proceeding and related claim objections have been stayed in their entirety and may resume only if, after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee makes a good-faith determination that value is available for distribution to creditors of CBRM after the payment in full of all Allowed Claims against CBRM's subsidiaries. Spano will receive thirty (30) days' advance written notice of such determination and may file an objection with the Bankruptcy Court within thirty (30) days of receiving such notice. If the Creditor Recovery Trustee determines no such value is available, the Spano Adversary Proceeding shall be dismissed with prejudice. If value is determined to be available, the Spano Adversary Proceeding shall resume in accordance with a mutually agreed-upon schedule, unless otherwise resolved.

On August 7, 2025, the Debtors filed the Notice of Entry of Stipulation and Agreed Order Among the Debtors, Spano Investor LLC, and Acquiom Agency Services LLC to Stay Adversary Proceeding and Resolve Certain Claims Treatment Issues [Adv. Dkt. No. 5].

P. Pleadings Relating to Moshe (Mark) Silber

On July 18, 2025, Mr. Silber, acting pro se, filed the Motion of Party in Interest Moshe ("Mark") Silber for Issuance of a Subpoena Duces Tecum Pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004(C) and 9016 [Docket No. 298] (the "Silber Rule 2004 Motion") for an order compelling discovery under Rule 2004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure from Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, and LAGSP. The Silber Rule 2004 Motion seeks records from Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, and LAGSP relating to a range of topics relating to the Debtors and non-Debtor affiliates, as well as all communications regarding these topics between or among Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, LAGSP, and IslandDundon LLC. The hearing on the Silber Rule 2004 Motion was originally scheduled for August 14, 2025.

On July 25, 2025, Mr. Silber, acting pro se, filed the Motion of Party in Interest Moshe ("Mark") Silber for Appointment of an Equity Security Holders Committee or, in the Alternative, Appointment of Counsel [Docket No. 348] (the "Silber Equity Committee Motion") seeking appointment of an equity committee in these Chapter 11 Cases or, in the alternative, the appointment of counsel for Mr. Silber pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(1). Upon the filing of the Silber Equity Committee Motion, the Court adjourned the hearing on the Silber Rule 2004 Motion to August 21, 2025, to hear both motions on the same day.

On July 29, 2025, the Debtors served a Subpoena for Rule 2004 Examination on Mr. Silber, which had a response deadline of August 15, 2025. See Notice of Service of Subpoena Pursuant to L.R. 2004-1 [Docket No. 337].

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed objections to the Silber Rule 2004 Motion [Docket No. 374] and the Silber Equity Committee Motion [Docket No. 375]. The Debtors have offered to produce limited documents responsive to Mr. Silber's proposed requests.

On August 14, 2025, the U.S. Trustee also objected to the Silber Equity Committee Motion. Docket No. 377.

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 378] (the "Motion for Leave") seeking entry of an order granting the Debtors leave to depose Mr. Silber, who is currently confined in prison, at the site of his incarceration between August 25, 2025, and August 29, 2025. The Motion for Leave will be heard on August 21, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Objection to Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230 of Moshe Mark Silber [Docket No. 372] (the "Silber Claim Objection") and Declaration of Matthew Dundon, Principal of IslandDundon LLC, in Support of the Debtors' Objection to Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230 of Moshe Mark Silber [Docket No. 373], seeking entry of an order disallowing the three Proofs of Claim filed by Mr. Silber (i.e., Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230) (collectively, the "Silber Claims"). Each of the Silber Claims asserts a purported unsecured claim of $3,989,175.00 for tax liabilities allegedly arising from the sale of a property. Proof of Claim No. 216 was superseded by a later filing and Proof of Claim No. 230 is duplicative. As to the remaining Proof of Claim No. 229, Mr. Silber did not attach sufficient support to the claim to constitute prima facie validity of a claim and the claim seeks amounts for which the Debtors are not liable. Accordingly, the Debtors seek to disallow the Silber Claims in their entirety to avoid duplicative or unwarranted recoveries. A hearing to consider the Silber Claim Objection is set for September 22, 2025, at 11:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

Q. NOLA Bidding Procedures

On July 30, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 350] seeking entry of the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order approving bidding procedures (the "NOLA Bidding Procedures")[7] in connection with a potential sale of one or more of the NOLA Properties. Such sale may be implemented either under a chapter 11 plan or as a standalone transaction pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. The NOLA Bidding Procedures are intended to facilitate a competitive and value-maximizing process through which interested parties may submit bids to acquire one or more of the NOLA Properties. The process ensures that all qualified bids are solicited, reviewed, and evaluated in a manner consistent with the milestones and confirmation timeline outlined in this Disclosure Statement and the associated solicitation procedures. To date, the Debtors have not entered into a stalking horse agreement with a stalking horse bidder for the NOLA Properties, and the Debtors may consider proposals for one or more of the NOLA Properties.

The Court entered the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order on August 15, 2025 [Docket No. 382]. Pursuant to the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order, the Bid Deadline is September 11, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). If one or more Qualifying Bids are received, the Debtors will conduct an auction on September 15, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Debtors will file and serve a notice of any Successful Bidder and Back-Up Bidder no later than September 16, 2025. To the extent applicable, the hearing to consider approval of a sale pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code is scheduled for September 22, 2025 at 11:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). Alternatively, if the potential sale is to be consummated through the Plan, the confirmation and sale hearing is scheduled for October 22, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

R. Chapter 11 Filing for Laguna Reserve

Following the Petition Date, Debtors' counsel, in coordination with LAGSP, determined that Lakewind is a subsidiary of Laguna Reserve and that Debtor Crown Capital Holdings LLC owns 100% of the equity interests in Laguna Reserve. Accordingly, on August 17, 2025, the Debtors filed a voluntary petition under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code for Laguna Reserve. Concurrently therewith, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for an Order (A) Applying Certain Orders in Initial Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases to Debtor Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC and (B) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 387] (the "Omnibus First Day Motion"). The Omnibus First Day Motion seeks to apply to Laguna Reserve's chapter 11 case certain orders previously entered in the chapter 11 cases, in order to avoid duplicative filings, reduce administrative burdens on the Bankruptcy Court and parties in interest, and streamline case administration.

Bankruptcy Code as set forth in the NOLA Purchase Agreement. The Debtors are conducting the sale process in accordance with the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order.

No stalking horse bidder has been designated. If one or more qualified bids are received, the Debtors will conduct an auction to determine the highest or otherwise best offer. The successful bidder may acquire one or more of the NOLA Properties.

VIII. SUMMARY OF THE RELEASES, INJUNCTION, EXCULPATION, AND DISCHARGE CONTEMPLATED BY THE PLAN

A. Settlement, Compromise, and Release of Claims and Interests

To the extent provided for by the Bankruptcy Code, and in consideration for the distributions and other benefits provided pursuant to the Plan, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, the distributions, rights, and treatment that are provided in the Plan shall be in complete satisfaction, effective as of the Effective Date, of Claims, Interests, and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever, including any interest accrued on Claims or Interests from and after the Petition Date, whether known or unknown, against, liabilities of, Liens on, obligations of, rights against, and Interests in, the Debtors or any of their assets or properties, regardless of whether any property shall have been distributed or retained pursuant to the Plan on account of such Claims and Interests, including demands, liabilities, and Causes of Action that arose before the Effective Date, any liability (including withdrawal liability) to the extent such Claims or Interests relate to services performed by agents or representatives of the Debtors before the Effective Date and that arise from a termination of employment, any contingent or non-contingent liability on account of representations or warranties issued on or before the Effective Date, and all debts of the kind specified in sections 502(g), 502(h), or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, in each case whether or not: (1) a Proof of Claim based upon such debt, right, Claim, or Interest is Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code; (2) a Claim or Interest based upon such debt, right, or Interest is Allowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (3) the Holder of such a Claim or Interest has accepted the Plan. Any default by the Debtors or their Affiliates with respect to any Claim or Interest that existed immediately before or on account of the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases shall be deemed cured on the Effective Date.

B. Release of Liens

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, on the Effective Date and concurrently with the applicable distributions made pursuant to the Plan and, in the case of a Secured Claim, satisfaction in full of the portion of the Secured Claim that is Allowed as of the Effective Date, all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estate shall be fully released, settled, and compromised.

or Interest or other Entity, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Chapter 11 Cases, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (1) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan and (2) except as to any member of the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes who opted to grant the releases contained in Article VIII.D of the Plan, the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members (whether or not any such member affirmatively voted to accept the Plan) shall not release nor be deemed to release any claim or cause of action that any such holders may hold against the Asset Manager or the Property Manager and such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals.

E. Exculpation

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, each Debtor and each Exculpated Party is hereby released and exculpated from any Claim, obligation, Cause of Action, or liability for any Exculpated Claim, except for gross negligence or willful misconduct, but in all respects each Debtor and each Exculpated Party shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to its duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan. The Debtors, their Estates, the Independent Fiduciary, and the Debtors' professionals including White & Case LLP, IslandDundon LLC, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, and Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global have, and upon completion of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of the Plan and distributions pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

F. Injunction

Pursuant to section 362(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the automatic stay of an act against property of the Debtors' estates will continue until such property is no longer property of the Debtors' estates, and pursuant to section 362(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, the stay of any other act described in section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code continues until the earlier of the closure or dismissal of these Chapter 11 Cases. In addition, as of the Effective Date and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Plan or the Confirmation Order, all Persons and Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that are fully satisfied pursuant to the Plan or any Claim or Interest that is subject to the releases and exculpations set forth in the Plan shall be precluded and permanently enjoined on and after the Effective Date from enforcing, pursuing, or seeking any setoff or relief with respect to such Claims or Interests, except for the receipt of the payments or Distributions that are contemplated by the Plan.

For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing relief may include (but is not limited to): (1) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claim or Interest; (2) enforcing, attaching, collecting, or recovering by any manner or means any judgment, award, decree, or order against such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (3) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any encumbrance of any kind against such Entities or the property or the Estates of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (4) asserting any right of setoff, subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due from such Entities or against the property of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; and (5) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests.

For the avoidance of doubt, this Article VIII.F shall not constitute a discharge under section 1141(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

IX. CERTAIN TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN

A. General Tax Considerations

The following discussion is a summary of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences from the consummation of the Plan to Holders entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust, is for general information purposes only, and should not be relied upon for purposes of determining the specific tax consequences of the Plan with respect to a particular Holder of a Claim. This discussion does not purport to be a complete analysis or listing of all potential tax considerations. This discussion does not address aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to a particular Holder of a Claim subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws (such as broker dealers; traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting for securities holdings; banks; thrifts; insurance companies; financial institutions; regulated investment companies; real estate investment trusts; pension plans; partnerships (or other entities or arrangements treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) or a partner, member or owner therein; persons that hold a Claim as part of a straddle or a hedging, conversion or constructive sale transaction; persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar and other tax exempt investors). This summary does not discuss any aspects of state, local or foreign tax laws or any U.S. federal estate or gift tax considerations. Furthermore, this summary does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to a Holder of a Claim, such as the potential application of the alternative minimum tax.

This discussion is based on existing provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "IRC"), existing and proposed Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, and current administrative rulings and court decisions. Legislative, judicial, or administrative changes or interpretations enacted or promulgated after the date hereof could alter or modify the analyses set forth below with respect to the federal income tax consequences of the Plan. Any such changes or interpretations may be retroactive and could significantly affect the federal income tax consequences of the Plan.

No ruling has been or will be requested or obtained from the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") with respect to any tax aspects of the Plan and no opinion of counsel has been or will be sought or obtained with respect thereto. No representations or assurances are being made to the Holders of Claims or Interests with respect to the U.S. federal income tax consequences described herein.

B. U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to Holders of Claims

1. Consequences of U.S. Holders of Claims

For purposes of this discussion, a "U.S. Holder" is a beneficial owner of a Claim that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

- an individual citizen or resident of the United States;

- a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state therein or the District of Columbia;
- an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or
- a trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over its administration and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or otherwise if the trust has a valid election in effect under current Treasury regulations to be treated as a United States person.

A "Non-U.S. Holder" is any Holder that is not a U.S. Holder or a partnership (or other entity treated as a partnership or other pass-through entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes). If a partnership (or other entity treated as a partnership or other pass-through entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is a Holder of a Claim, the tax treatment of a partner (or other beneficial owner) generally will depend upon the status of the partner (or other beneficial owner) and the activities of the partner (or other beneficial owner) and the entity. Partners (or other beneficial owners) of partnerships (or other pass-through entities) that are Holders of Claims should consult their respective tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Plan.

The federal income tax consequences of the implementation of the Plan to a U.S. Holder of Claims will depend, among other things, upon the origin of the Holder's Claim, when the Holder receives payment in respect of such Claim, whether the Holder reports income using the accrual or cash method of tax accounting, whether the Holder acquired its Claim at a discount and whether the Holder has taken a bad debt deduction with respect to such Claim.

(a) CIF Mortgage Loan Claims

Each Holder of a CIF Mortgage Loan Claim will be entitled to receive proceeds from the sale of the Lakewind Property in excess of the amount necessary to satisfy all Allowed NOLA DIP Claims, Allowed General Administrative Claims, Allowed Priority Tax Claims, Allowed Other Priority Claims, and Allowed Other Secured Claims in full in Cash on the Effective Date, and, to the extent such excess cash is insufficient to satisfy the Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claims in full, each holder's pro rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution to holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan.

Holders of CIF Mortgage Loan Claims generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the amount of any Cash received by the Holder (other than any consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income).

(b) NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims

Each Holder of a NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claim will be entitled to receive substantially all assets of Debtors Chenault Creek, Copper Creek, Lakewind, and Windrun pursuant to the NOLA Purchase Agreement. The NOLA Purchase Agreement will set forth the specific terms of the transaction, which may include the assumption of certain liabilities and the payment of cure amounts for assigned executory contracts, among other provisions.

Holders of NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims generally will recognize gain or loss on the receipt of such assets in exchange for their Claims in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the fair market value on the date of the exchange of such assets, less any liabilities (other than in consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income). Holders of NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims are expected to have a fair market value tax basis in the assets acquired.

(c) Other NOLA Unsecured Claims

Each Holder of an Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan.

Holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the amount of any Cash received by the Holder (other than any consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income).

(d) Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims

Each Holder of an Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claim and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan).

As described more fully below, Holders of Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claim and Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the fair market value of each Holder's Pro Rata Share of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (other than any consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income).

When gain or loss is recognized, such gain or loss may be long-term capital gain or loss if the Claim disposed of is a capital asset in the hands of the U.S. Holder and has been held for more than one year (subject to the rules discussed below regarding market discount). Each U.S. Holder of a Claim should consult its own tax advisor to determine whether gain or loss recognized by such Holder will be long-term capital gain or loss and the specific tax effect thereof on such Holder.

(i) Character of Gain or Loss

When gain or loss is recognized by a U.S. Holder, the character of such gain or loss as long-term or short-term capital gain or loss or as ordinary income or loss is determined by a number of factors, including the tax status of the U.S. Holder, whether the U.S. Holder's Claim constitutes a capital asset in the hands of the U.S. Holder and how long it has been held, whether such Claim was acquired at a market discount, and whether and to what extent the U.S. Holder previously claimed a bad debt deduction in respect of the Claim. Each U.S. Holder of a Claim should consult its own tax advisor to determine whether gain or loss recognized by such Holder will be long-term capital gain or loss and the specific tax effect thereof on such Holder.

(ii) Accrued but Unpaid Interest

Pursuant to Article VI.F of the Plan, all distributions in respect of Allowed Claims will be allocated first to the principal amount of the Allowed Claim (as determined for federal income tax purposes), with any excess allocated to accrued but unpaid interest. There is no assurance, however, that such allocation would be respected by the IRS for federal income tax purposes. In general, to the extent any amount received (whether cash or other property) by a U.S. Holder of a debt instrument is received in satisfaction of accrued interest during its holding period, such amount will be taxable to the Holder as interest income (if not previously included in the Holder's gross income under the Holder's normal method of accounting). Conversely, a U.S. Holder generally recognizes a deductible loss to the extent any accrued interest claimed was previously included in its gross income and is not paid in full. Each U.S. Holder of Claims is urged to consult its own tax advisor regarding the allocation of consideration and the taxation or deductibility of unpaid interest for tax purposes.

(iii) Market Discount

U.S. Holders of Claims receive Cash or other property in respect of their Claims may be affected by the "market discount" provisions of the sections 1276 through 1278 of the IRC. Under these rules, some or all of the gain realized by a U.S. Holder may be treated as ordinary income (instead of capital gain), to the extent of the amount of "market discount" on such Claims.

In general, a debt obligation with a fixed maturity of more than one year that is acquired by a holder on the secondary market (or, in certain circumstances, upon original issuance) is considered to be acquired with "market discount" as to that holder if the debt obligation's stated redemption price at maturity (or revised issue price, in the case of a debt obligation issued with original issue discount) exceeds the tax basis of the debt obligation in the holder's hands immediately after its acquisition. However, a debt obligation will not be a "market discount bond" if such excess is less than a statutory de minimis amount (equal to 0.25 percent of the debt obligation's stated redemption price at maturity or revised issue price, in the case of a debt obligation issued with original issue discount).

Any gain recognized by a U.S. Holder on the taxable disposition of Claims (determined as described above) that were acquired with market discount should be treated as ordinary income to the extent of the market discount that accrued thereon while the Claims were considered to be held by a U.S. Holder (unless the U.S. Holder elected to include market discount in income as it accrued).

(iv) Limitation on Use of Capital Losses

A U.S. Holder who recognizes capital losses will be subject to limits on their use of capital losses. For a non-corporate U.S. Holder, capital losses may be used to offset any capital gains (without regard to holding periods) plus ordinary income to the extent of the lesser of (a) $3,000 ($1,500 for married individuals filing separate returns) or (b) the excess of the capital losses over the capital gains. A non-corporate U.S. Holder may carry over unused capital losses and apply them to capital gains and a portion of their ordinary income for an unlimited number of years. For corporate U.S. Holders, losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets may only be used to offset capital gains. A corporate U.S. Holder who has more capital losses than can be used in a tax year may be allowed to carry over the excess capital losses for use in succeeding tax years. Corporate U.S. Holders may only carry over unused capital losses for the five years following the capital loss year, but are allowed to carry back unused capital losses to the three years preceding the capital loss year.

(v) Medicare Tax

Certain U.S. Holders that are individuals, estates, or trusts are required to pay an additional 3.8 percent tax on, among other things, interest, dividends and gains from the sale or other disposition of capital assets. U.S. Holders that are individuals, estates, or trusts should consult their own tax advisors regarding the effect, if any, of this tax provision on their ownership and disposition of any consideration to be received under the Plan.

2. Consequences to Non-U.S. Holders of Claims.

The following discussion addresses some of the U.S. federal income tax consequences to a beneficial owner of a Claim is a Non-U.S. Holder. The following discussion includes only certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Plan to Non-U.S. Holders. This discussion does not include any non-U.S. tax considerations. The rules governing the U.S. federal income tax consequences to Non-U.S. Holders are complex. Each Non-U.S. Holder is urged to consult its own tax advisor regarding the U.S. federal, state, local, non-U.S., and non-income tax consequences of the consummation of the Plan to such Non-U.S. Holder.

(a) Gain Realized / Income Allocated to Non-U.S. Holders

Whether a non-U.S. Holder realizes gain or loss on the exchange and the amount of such gain or loss is generally determined in the same manner as set forth above in connection with U.S. Holders.

(b) Gain/Income Recognition by Non-U.S. Holders

Any gain realized by a Non-U.S. Holder on the exchange of its Claim generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income taxation unless: (a) except as otherwise covered by clause (b) below, (i) with respect to capital gains, the Non-U.S. Holder is an individual who was present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year in which the Plan becomes effective and certain other conditions are met or (ii) with respect to income other than capital gains, the income is otherwise deemed to be derived from U.S. sources, or (b) such gain and/or income is effectively connected with the conduct by such Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business in the United States (and, if an income tax treaty applies, such gain is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by such Non-U.S. Holder in the United States).

If the first exception applies, the Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a rate of 30 percent (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty) on the amount by which such Non-U.S. Holder's capital gains allocable to U.S. sources exceed capital losses allocable to U.S. sources during the taxable year of the exchange. If the second exception applies, the Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax with respect to any gain realized on the exchange if such gain is effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States in the same manner as a U.S. Holder. In order to claim an exemption from withholding tax, such Non-U.S. Holder will be required to provide a properly executed IRS Form W-8ECI (or such successor form as the IRS designates). In addition, if such a Non-U.S. Holder is a corporation, it may be subject to a "branch profits tax" equal to 30 percent (or such lower rate provided by an applicable income tax treaty) of its effectively connected earnings and profits for the taxable year, subject to certain adjustments.

(c) Accrued Interest

Subject to the discussion of backup withholding and FATCA below, payments to a Non-U.S. Holder that are attributable to accrued but unpaid interest with respect to the Claims generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax; provided that the withholding agent has received or receives, prior to payment, appropriate documentation (generally, IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E) establishing that the Non-U.S. Holder is not a U.S. person, unless:

- the Non-U.S. Holder actually or constructively owns 10 percent or more of the capital or profits interest in the "regarded" owner of the applicable Debtor for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- the Non-U.S. Holder is a "controlled foreign corporation" that is a "related person" with respect to the Owner (each, within the meaning of the IRC);
- the Non-U.S. Holder is a bank receiving interest described in IRC Section 881(c)(3)(A); or
- such interest is effectively connected with the conduct by the Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business within the United States (in which case, provided the Non-U.S. Holder provides a properly executed IRS Form W-8ECI (or successor form) to the withholding agent, the Non-U.S. Holder (x) generally will not be subject to withholding tax, but (y) will be subject to U.S. federal income tax in the same manner as a U.S. Holder (unless an applicable income tax treaty provides otherwise), and a Non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes may also be subject to a branch profits tax with respect to such Non-U.S. Holder's effectively connected earnings and profits that are attributable to the accrued interest at a rate of 30% (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty)).

A Non-U.S. Holder that does not qualify for the exemption from withholding tax with respect to accrued but unpaid interest that is not effectively connected income generally will be subject to withholding of U.S. federal income tax at a 30% rate (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty) on any payments that are attributable to accrued but unpaid interest. For purposes of providing a properly executed IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E, special procedures are provided under applicable Treasury Regulations for payments through qualified foreign intermediaries or certain financial institutions that hold customers' securities in the ordinary course of their trade or business. In addition, a corporate Non-U.S. Holder may, under certain circumstances, be subject to an additional "branch profits tax" at a 30 percent rate (or such lower rate provided by an applicable income tax treaty) on its effectively connected earnings and profits attributable to such interest (subject to adjustments).

The certifications described above must be provided to the applicable withholding agent prior to the payment of interest. Non-U.S. Holders that do not timely provide the applicable withholding agent with the required certification, but that qualify for a reduced rate under an applicable income tax treaty, may obtain a refund of any excess amounts withheld by timely filing an appropriate claim for refund with the IRS. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding their entitlement to benefits under any applicable income tax treaty.

Under the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA"), foreign financial institutions and certain other foreign entities must report certain information with respect to their U.S. account holders and investors or be subject to withholding at a rate of 30 percent on the receipt of "withholdable payments."

For this purpose, "withholdable payments" are generally U.S.-source payments of fixed or determinable, annual or periodical income. FATCA withholding will apply even if the applicable payment would not otherwise be subject to U.S. federal nonresident withholding. Each Non-U.S. Holder should consult its own tax advisor regarding the possible impact of these rules on such Non-U.S. Holder's exchange of its Claim.

3. Creditor Recovery Trust

Subject to any applicable law or definitive guidance from the IRS or a court of competent jurisdiction to the contrary, the Debtors expect to treat the Creditor Recovery Trust as a "liquidating trust" under section 301.7701-4(d) of the Treasury Regulations and a grantor trust under section 671 of the IRC, and the trustee of the Creditor Recovery Trust will take a position on the Creditor Recovery Trust's tax return accordingly. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the transfer of assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust will be deemed to occur as (a) a first-step transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Holders of the applicable Claims, and (b) a second-step transfer by such Holders to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

No request for a ruling from the IRS is expected to be sought on the classification of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the IRS would not take a contrary position regarding the classification of the Creditor Recovery Trust. If the IRS were to successfully challenge the classification of the Creditor Recovery as a grantor trust, the federal income tax consequences to the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries could vary from those discussed in the Plan (including the potential for an entity-level tax). For example, the IRS could characterize the Creditor Recovery Trust as a so-called "complex trust" subject to a separate entity-level tax on its earnings, except to the extent that such earnings are distributed during the taxable year.

As soon as possible after the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, the trustee(s) of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall make a good faith valuation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. This valuation will be made available from time to time, as relevant for tax reporting purposes. Each of the Debtors, the trustee(s) of the Creditor Recovery Trust, and the Holders of Claims receiving interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust shall take consistent positions with respect to the valuation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and such valuations shall be utilized for all U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Allocations of taxable income and loss of the Creditor Recovery Trust among the Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries shall be determined, as closely as possible, by reference to the amount of distributions that would be received by each such beneficiary if the Creditor Recovery Trust had sold all of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets at their tax book value and distributed the proceeds to the Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries, adjusted for prior taxable income and loss and taking into account all prior and concurrent distributions from the Creditor Recovery Trust. The tax book value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets shall equal their fair market value on the date of the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, adjusted in accordance with tax accounting principles prescribed by the IRC, applicable Treasury Regulations, and other applicable administrative and judicial authorities and pronouncements.

The Creditor Recovery Trust shall in no event be dissolved later than five (5) years from the creation of such Creditor Recovery Trust unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion within the six (6) month period prior to the fifth (5th) anniversary (or within the six (6) month period prior to the end of an extension period), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed five (5) years, together with any prior extensions, without a favorable private letter ruling from the IRS or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the trustee(s) of the Creditor Recovery Trust that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of the trust as a Creditor Recovery trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the recovery and liquidation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

The Creditor Recovery Trust will file annual information tax returns with the IRS as a grantor trust pursuant to section 1.671-4(a) of the Treasury Regulations that will include information concerning certain items relating to the holding or disposition (or deemed disposition) of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (e.g., income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit). Each Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiary holding a beneficial interest in the Creditor Recovery Trust will receive a copy of the information returns and must report on its federal income tax return its share of all such items. The information provided by the Creditor Recovery Trust will pertain to Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries who receive their interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust in connection with the Plan.

4. Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Under the backup withholding rules, a Holder of a Claim may be subject to backup withholding with respect to Distributions or payments made pursuant to the Plan unless that Holder: (a) comes within certain exempt categories (which generally include corporations) and, when required, demonstrates that fact, or (b) provides a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies under penalty of perjury that the taxpayer identification number is correct and that the Holder is not subject to backup withholding because of a failure to report all dividend and interest income. Backup withholding is not an additional tax, but merely an advance payment that may be refunded to the extent it results in an overpayment of tax.

The foregoing discussion is intended only as a summary of certain income tax consequences of the Plan and is not a substitute for careful tax planning with a tax professional. The above discussion is for informational purposes only and is not tax advice. The tax consequences are in many cases uncertain and may vary depending on a Holder's particular circumstances. Accordingly, Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors about the United States federal, state and local, and applicable foreign income and other tax consequences of the Plan.

X. RISK FACTORS

Before voting to accept or reject the Plan, Holders of Claims or Interests entitled to vote should read and carefully consider the risk factors set forth below, in addition to the information set forth in this Disclosure Statement together with any attachments, exhibits, or documents incorporated by reference hereto. The factors below should not be regarded as the only risks associated with the Plan or its implementation.

A. Risks Relating to the Debtors' Business Operations and Financial Condition

1. General Economic Conditions

The Debtors' ability to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction may be affected by broader macroeconomic conditions, including rising interest rates, inflationary pressures, labor market disruptions, volatility in the housing market, investor sentiment, and geopolitical instability. Such factors may negatively impact real estate valuations, the availability of financing, and the willingness of potential purchasers to consummate transactions on favorable terms. While the Plan assumes a relatively stable economic environment, no assurance can be given that such conditions will continue through the expected closing.

2. Risk of Failure to Consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction

The Plan is based on the successful execution of the NOLA Sale Transaction in accordance with the Court-approved Bidding Procedures, which may be implemented either under a chapter 11 plan or as a standalone transaction pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. To date, the Debtors have not entered into a stalking horse agreement for the NOLA Properties, and there is no assurance that a qualified bid will be submitted or that the auction process will yield a value-maximizing transaction.

If the Debtors are unable to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction—whether due to a lack of qualified bids, termination of a purchase agreement, failure to satisfy closing conditions, or failure to obtain necessary Bankruptcy Court approval—the Debtors may face significant liquidity constraints. In that event, the Debtors may be forced to pursue an alternative restructuring strategy or, if none is viable, convert these Chapter 11 Cases to chapter 7 liquidation. Any such alternative could result in delayed, diminished, or uncertain recoveries for creditors compared to those anticipated under the Plan.

3. Limited Continuing Operations

Following the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, the Debtors do not expect to continue operations as going concerns. As a result, many risks typically associated with ongoing business activities—such as tenant turnover, market competition, or long-term access to capital—are less relevant. However, operational issues arising prior to the Effective Date, including delays in closing or transitional disruptions, could adversely impact Plan implementation and creditor recoveries.

4. Performance of Property Manager

The Debtors rely on their property manager, Lynd Management, to manage day-to-day operations of the NOLA Properties. Any failure by Lynd Management to perform its obligations under the property management agreements—whether due to operational, financial, or staffing issues—could impair property performance, impact tenant relations, and reduce the attractiveness of the NOLA Properties to potential buyers. Such issues could, in turn, delay or reduce proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction.

B. Risks Related to Bankruptcy Law

1. Risk of Non-Confirmation of the Plan

Although the Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies all requirements necessary for confirmation by the Bankruptcy Court, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion or that modifications to the Plan will not be required for confirmation or that such modifications would not necessitate re-solicitation of votes. Moreover, the Debtors can make no assurances that they will receive the requisite acceptances to confirm the Plan, and even if all Voting Classes vote in favor of the Plan or the requirements for "cram down" are met with respect to any Class that rejects or is deemed to reject the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court may exercise discretion as a court of equity and choose not to confirm the Plan. If the Plan is not confirmed, it is unclear what distributions Holders of Claims or Interests would ultimately receive with respect to their Claims or Interests in a subsequent plan of reorganization or otherwise.

2. Non-Consensual Confirmation

If any impaired class of Claims or Interests does not accept or is deemed not to accept a plan of reorganization, a Bankruptcy Court may nevertheless confirm such plan at the proponent's request if at least one impaired class has accepted the plan (with such acceptance being determined without including the vote of any "insider" in such class), and as to each impaired class that has not accepted the plan, the Bankruptcy Court determines that the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" with respect to the dissenting impaired classes. If any Class votes to reject or is deemed to reject the Plan, then these requirements must be satisfied with respect to such rejecting Class. The Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies these requirements.

3. Risk Related to Wind-Down and Plan Implementation

The Plan contemplates a Wind-Down of the Debtors' Estates following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, including the creation of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Execution of the Wind-Down and administration of post-Effective Date responsibilities depends on various factors, including sufficient funding and the ability of the Creditor Recovery Trustee to realize value from retained causes of action. Delays, disputes, or unforeseen liabilities could reduce the proceeds ultimately available to distribute to creditors.

4. Risk That the CBRM Plan Will Not Be Confirmed and Become Effective

This Plan has been developed in coordination with the CBRM Plan. Pursuant to the CBRM Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan to assume all liability of the CBRM Debtors and their estates for, and to administer, all CBRM Unsecured Claims.

Under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the Debtors will transfer to the Creditor Recovery Trust (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any).

If the CBRM Plan is not confirmed or does not become effective, the Debtors will implement an alternative, court-approved mechanism to administer and distribute the assets that would otherwise have been transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such mechanism may include establishing a similar trust under the Plan or another structure designed to maximize value for stakeholders. This could result in delays, increased administrative costs, and reduced recoveries for creditors, as well as potential changes to the priority and allocation of distributions compared to the structure contemplated under the CBRM Plan.

5. Allowed Claims Could Exceed Estimates

There can be no assurance that the Allowed amount of Claims participating in distributions will not be significantly more than projected, which in turn, could cause the value of distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims whose treatment is limited to distributions from a specified recovery source to be reduced. Inevitably, some assumptions will not materialize, and unanticipated events and circumstances may affect the ultimate results and total amount of Claims against the Debtors' Estates. Therefore, the actual amount of Allowed Claims may vary from the Debtors' projections and feasibility analysis, and the variation may be material.

6. U.S. Federal Income Tax Risks

The tax consequences of the Plan to the Debtors and to Holders of Claims and Interests may vary depending on the individual's tax situation and are subject to significant uncertainties. Parties in interest should consult their own tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal, state, local, and non-U.S. income and other tax consequences of the Plan, including any income that may arise from the receipt of distributions or interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust.

7. Risk of Non-Occurrence of the Effective Date

Although the Debtors believe that the Effective Date will occur soon after the Confirmation Date, there can be no assurance as to the timing of the Effective Date. If the conditions precedent to the Effective Date set forth in the Plan have not occurred or have not been waived as set forth in Article IX.B of the Plan, then the Confirmation Order may be vacated, in which event no distributions would be made under the Plan, the Debtors and all Holders of Claims or Interests would be restored to the status quo as of the day immediately preceding the Confirmation Date, and the Debtors' obligations with respect to Claims and Interests would remain unchanged.

8. Conversion into Chapter 7 Cases

If no plan of reorganization can be confirmed, or if the Bankruptcy Court otherwise finds that it would be in the best interest of Holders of Claims and Interests, some or all of the Chapter 11 Cases may be converted to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, pursuant to which a trustee would be appointed or elected to liquidate the Debtors' assets for distribution in accordance with the priorities established by the Bankruptcy Code.

9. Parties in Interest May Object to the Plan's Classification of Claims and Interests

Section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a plan may place a claim or an equity interest in a particular class only if such claim or equity interest is substantially similar to the other claims or equity interests in such class. The Debtors believe that the classification of the Claims and Interests under the Plan complies with the requirements set forth in the Bankruptcy Code because the Debtors created Classes of Claims and Interests each encompassing Claims or Interests, as applicable, that are substantially similar to the other Claims or Interests, as applicable, in each such Class. Nevertheless, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion.

10. The Debtors May Fail to Satisfy Vote Requirements

If votes are received in number and amount sufficient to enable the Bankruptcy Court to confirm the Plan, the Debtors intend to seek, as promptly as practicable thereafter, Confirmation of the Plan. In the event that sufficient votes are not received, the Debtors may seek to confirm an alternative chapter 11 plan. There can be no assurance that the terms of any such alternative chapter 11 plan would be similar or as favorable to the Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests as those proposed in the Plan.

11. Continued Risk upon Confirmation

Following the NOLA Sale Transaction, the Debtors will not continue operating as a going concern. Instead, their primary role will be to implement the Wind-Down and transfer assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust. The cessation of operations may limit the Debtors' ability to address unanticipated claims, disputes, or liabilities that arise post-Effective Date.

12. Contingencies Could Affect Votes of Impaired Classes to Accept or Reject the Plan

The distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan can be affected by a variety of contingencies, including whether the Bankruptcy Court orders certain Allowed Claims to be subordinated to other Allowed Claims. The occurrence of any and all such contingencies, which could affect distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan, will not affect the validity of the vote taken by the Impaired Classes to accept or reject the Plan or require any sort of revote by the Impaired Classes. The estimated Claims and creditor recoveries set forth in this Disclosure Statement are based on various assumptions, and the actual Allowed amounts of Claims may significantly differ from the estimates. Should one or more of the underlying assumptions ultimately prove to be incorrect, the actual Allowed amounts of Claims may vary from the estimated Claims contained in this Disclosure Statement. Moreover, the Debtors cannot determine with any certainty at this time, the number or amount of Claims that will ultimately be Allowed. Such differences may materially and adversely affect, among other things, the percentage recoveries to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan.

13. Disruption from Competing Plans or Proposals

Although no competing plan has been proposed to date, parties in interest may seek to propose an alternative chapter 11 plan. The pursuit of such a competing plan could delay Confirmation, increase administrative costs, or result in lower recoveries for creditors.

14. Releases, Injunctions, and Exculpations Provisions May Not Be Approved

Article VIII of the Plan provides for certain releases, injunctions, and exculpations, including a release of liens and third-party releases. The releases, injunctions, and exculpations provided in the Plan are subject to objection by parties in interest and may not be approved. If the releases are not approved, certain Released Parties may withdraw their support for the Plan.

C. Additional Factors

1. The Debtors Could Withdraw the Plan

Subject to, and without prejudice to, the rights of any party in interest, the Plan may be revoked or withdrawn before the Confirmation Date by the Debtors.

2. The Debtors Have No Duty to Update

The statements contained in this Disclosure Statement are made by the Debtors as of the date hereof, unless otherwise specified herein, and the delivery of this Disclosure Statement after that date does not imply that there has been no change in the information set forth herein since that date. Additionally, the Debtors have no duty to update this Disclosure Statement unless otherwise ordered to do so by the Bankruptcy Court.

3. No Representations Outside this Disclosure Statement Are Authorized

No representations concerning or related to the Debtors, the Chapter 11 Cases, or the Plan are authorized by the Bankruptcy Court or the Bankruptcy Code, other than as set forth in this Disclosure Statement. Any representations or inducements made to secure your acceptance or rejection of the Plan that are other than those contained in, or included with, this Disclosure Statement should not be relied upon in making the decision to accept or reject the Plan.

4. No Legal or Tax Advice Is Provided by this Disclosure Statement

The contents of this Disclosure Statement should not be construed as legal, business, or tax advice. Each Holder of a Claim or Interest should consult its own legal counsel and accountant as to legal, tax, and other matters concerning their Claim or Interest.

This Disclosure Statement is not legal advice to you. This Disclosure Statement may not be relied upon for any purpose other than to determine how to vote on the Plan or object to confirmation of the Plan.

5. No Admission Made

Nothing contained herein or in the Plan shall constitute an admission of, or shall be deemed evidence of, the tax or other legal effects of the Plan on the Debtors or Holders of Claims or Interests.

XI. CONFIRMATION OF THE PLAN

The Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan only if all of the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code are met. Among the requirements for confirmation are that the plan is (a) accepted by all impaired classes of claims and interests entitled to vote or, if rejected or deemed rejected by an impaired class, that the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" as to such class; (b) in the "best interests" of the holders of claims and interests impaired under the plan; and (c) feasible.

A. Acceptance of the Plan

The Bankruptcy Code defines "acceptance" of a plan by a class of (i) claims as acceptance by creditors in that class that hold at least two-thirds (2/3) in dollar amount and more than one-half (1/2) in number of the claims that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the plan and (ii) interests as acceptance by interest holders in that class that hold at least two-thirds (2/3) in amount of the interests that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the plan. Holders of claims or interests that fail to vote are not counted in determining the thresholds for acceptance of the plan.

If any impaired class of claims or interests does not accept the plan (or is deemed to reject the plan), the Bankruptcy Court may still confirm the plan at the request of the Debtors if, as to each impaired class of claims or interests that has not accepted the plan (or is deemed to reject the plan), the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" under the so-called "cram down" provisions set forth in section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The "unfair discrimination" test applies to classes of claims or interests that are of equal priority and are receiving different treatment under the plan. A chapter 11 plan does not discriminate unfairly, within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code, if the legal rights of a dissenting class are treated in a manner consistent with the treatment of other classes whose legal rights are substantially similar to those of the dissenting class and if no class of claims or interests receives more than it legally is entitled to receive for its claims or interests. The test does not require that the treatment be the same or equivalent, but that such treatment be "fair." The "fair and equitable" test applies to classes of different priority and status (e.g., secured versus unsecured; claims versus interests) and includes the general requirement that no class of claims receive more than 100% of the allowed amount of the claims in such class. As to the dissenting class, the test sets different standards that must be satisfied in order for the Plan to be confirmed, depending on the type of claims or interests in such class. The following sets forth the "fair and equitable" test that must be satisfied as to each type of class for a plan to be confirmed if such class rejects the plan:

- Secured Creditors. Each holder of an impaired secured claim either (a) retains its liens on the property, to the extent of the allowed amount of its secured claim, and receives deferred cash payments having a value, as of the effective date of the plan, of at least the allowed amount of such secured claim, (b) has the right to credit bid the amount of its claim if its property is sold and retains its lien on the proceeds of the sale, or (c) receives the "indubitable equivalent" of its allowed secured claim.

- Unsecured Creditors. Either (a) each holder of an impaired unsecured claim receives or retains under the plan, property of a value, as of the effective date of the plan, equal to the amount of its allowed claim or (b) the holders of claims and interests that are junior to the claims of the dissenting class will not receive any property under the plan.

- Interests. Either (a) each equity interest holder will receive or retain under the plan property of a value equal to the greater of (i) the fixed liquidation preference or redemption price, if any, of such equity interest and (ii) the value of the equity interest or (b) the holders of interests that are junior to the interests of the dissenting class will not receive or retain any property under the plan.

The Debtors believe the Plan satisfies the "fair and equitable" requirement with respect to any rejecting Class.

IF ALL OTHER CONFIRMATION REQUIREMENTS ARE SATISFIED AT THE CONFIRMATION HEARING, THE DEBTORS WILL ASK THE BANKRUPTCY COURT TO RULE THAT THE PLAN MAY BE CONFIRMED ON THE GROUNDS THAT THE SECTION 1129(B) REQUIREMENTS HAVE BEEN SATISFIED.

B. Best Interests of Creditors Test

The Bankruptcy Code requires that each holder of an impaired claim or interest either (1) accepts the plan or (2) receives or retains under the plan property of a value, as of the effective date, that is not less than the value such holder would receive if the debtor were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. This requirement is customarily referred to as the "best interests of creditors" test. As demonstrated in the liquidation analysis attached hereto as Exhibit C, the Debtors believe that liquidation under chapter 7 would result in smaller distributions to creditors than those provided for in the Plan.

C. Feasibility

The Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies the feasibility requirement set forth in section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan is predicated on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the subsequent Wind-Down of the Debtors' Estates. Following the sale closing and transfer of the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets on the Effective Date, the Debtors will no longer engage in business operations and will instead proceed with an orderly Wind-Down consistent with the terms of the Plan.

The Debtors do not anticipate the need for any further reorganization or restructuring of their affairs following Confirmation. Moreover, the Debtors expect to have sufficient resources—including the proceeds of the NOLA Sale Transaction, Cash on hand, and other Plan funding sources—to satisfy all obligations required to be performed under the Plan and to fund the Wind-Down and the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust. As such, the Debtors believe that Confirmation of the Plan is not likely to be followed by liquidation (other than as expressly contemplated), or by the need for further financial reorganization of the Debtors or any successor thereto under the Plan.

D. Confirmation Hearing

Section 1128(a) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Bankruptcy Court to hold a confirmation hearing upon appropriate notice to all required parties. The Confirmation Hearing is scheduled for October 22, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Confirmation Hearing may be adjourned from time to time by the Bankruptcy Court without further notice except for the announcement of the continuation date made at the Confirmation Hearing, at any subsequent continued Confirmation Hearing, or pursuant to a notice filed on the docket for the Chapter 11 Cases.

Section 1128(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that any party in interest may object to the confirmation of a plan. Any objection to confirmation of the Plan must be in writing, must conform to the Bankruptcy Rules and the local rules of the Bankruptcy Court, must set forth the name of the objector, the nature and amount of Claims or Interests held or asserted by the objector against the Debtors' estates or properties, the basis for the objection and the specific grounds therefor, and must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served no later than the Confirmation Objection Deadline.

XII. CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATION

The Debtors believe the Plan is in the best interests of all stakeholders and urge the Holders of Claims and Interests entitled to vote on the Plan to vote in favor thereof.

ARTICLE IV
MEANS FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PLAN

A. NOLA Sale Transaction, Restructuring Transactions, and Sources of Consideration for Plan Distributions.

The Confirmation Order shall be deemed to authorize the Debtors, among other things, to take all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effect any transaction described in, approved by, contemplated by, or necessary to effectuate the Plan, including the Restructuring Transactions and, to the extent not approved pursuant to a Sale Order, the NOLA Sale Transaction. With respect to the Plan, all amounts of Cash necessary for the Debtors to make payments or distributions pursuant to the Plan shall be obtained from the Sale Proceeds, the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and the Wind-Down Assets.

1. NOLA Sale Transaction.

To the extent not approved pursuant to a Sale Order, on the Effective Date, the Debtors shall be authorized to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction and, among other things, the NOLA Properties shall be transferred to and vest in the NOLA Purchaser free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges, or other encumbrances pursuant to the terms of the NOLA Purchase Agreement and the Confirmation Order. On and after the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors or the NOLA Purchaser, as applicable, may operate their businesses and may use, acquire, or dispose of property and compromise or settle any Claims, Interests, or Causes of Action without supervision or approval by the Bankruptcy Court and free of any restrictions of the Bankruptcy Code or Bankruptcy Rules. Neither the NOLA Purchaser nor any of its Affiliates shall be deemed to be a successor to the Debtors.

2. Payment of Sale Proceeds by NOLA Purchaser.

To the extent the NOLA Sale Transaction is not approved pursuant to a Sale Order, on the Effective Date, the NOLA Purchaser shall pay to the Debtors the Sale Proceeds as and to the extent provided for in the NOLA Purchase Agreement.

3. Restructuring Transactions.

On the Effective Date, the Debtors and the NOLA Purchaser, to the extent applicable, shall implement the Restructuring Transactions. The actions to implement the Restructuring Transactions may include: (a) the execution and delivery of appropriate agreements or other documents of merger, amalgamation, consolidation, restructuring, conversion, disposition, transfer, arrangement, continuance, dissolution, sale, purchase, or liquidation containing terms that are consistent with the terms of the Plan and that satisfy the applicable requirements of applicable law and any other terms to which the applicable Entities may agree; (b) the execution and delivery of appropriate instruments of transfer, assignment, assumption, or delegation of any asset, property, right, liability, debt, or obligation on terms consistent with the terms of the Plan and having other terms for which the applicable parties agree; (c) the filing of appropriate certificates or articles of incorporation, reincorporation, merger, consolidation, conversion, amalgamation, arrangement, continuance, or dissolution pursuant to applicable state or provincial law; and (d) all other actions that the Debtors or the NOLA Purchaser, to the extent applicable, determine to be necessary or appropriate, including making filings or recordings that may be required by applicable law in connection with the Plan. Without limiting the foregoing, prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors, acting at the sole and exclusive direction of the Independent Fiduciary, shall have the right to establish a trust, special purpose vehicle, or other Entity to hold Crown Capital and any Entity directly or indirectly owned by Crown Capital.

B. General Settlement of Claims.

To the extent provided for by the Bankruptcy Code, and in consideration for the classification, Distributions, releases, and other benefits provided under the Plan, on the Effective Date, certain of the provisions of the Plan shall constitute a good-faith compromise and settlement of certain Claims, Interests, Causes of Action, and controversies released, settled, compromised, or otherwise resolved pursuant to the Plan.

C. Wind Down and Dissolution of the Debtors.

1. Appointment of the Wind-Down Officer.

On the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer appointed under the CBRM Plan shall be appointed by the Debtors for the purpose of conducting the Wind-Down and shall have all powers, privileges, and responsibilities provided to the Wind-Down Officer under Article IV.C of the CBRM Plan with respect to these Debtors subject to the provisions of Article IV.A.3 and Article IV.G herein with respect to Crown Capital and any Entity directly or indirectly owned by Crown Capital.

2. Termination of Wind-Down Officer's Duties; Dissolution of Debtors.

Upon a certification to be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court by the Wind-Down Officer of all distributions having been made and completion of all its duties under the Plan and entry of a final decree closing the last of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Wind-Down Officer shall be discharged without any further action, including the filing of any documents with the secretary of state for the state in which the Debtors are formed or any other jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Wind-Down Officer shall retain the authority to take all necessary actions to dissolve the Debtors in, and withdraw the Debtors from, applicable states and provinces to the extent required by applicable law, without the necessity for any other or further actions to be taken by or on behalf of such dissolving Entity or any payments to be made in connection therewith, other than the filing of a certificate of dissolution with the appropriate governmental authorities. Any funds remaining in the Debtors at the time of dissolution shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, subject to any reversionary interests of the NOLA DIP Lender in the Fee Escrow solely to the extent that the Bankruptcy Court determines that the NOLA DIP Facility has not been indefeasibly repaid in full in Cash or otherwise satisfied in full by the NOLA Sale Transaction.

D. Creditor Recovery Trust.

1. Appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be automatically appointed as a representative of the Debtors' Estates pursuant to sections 1123(a)(5), (a)(7), and (b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. From and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall succeed to all rights, privileges, and powers of the Debtors and their Estates with respect to the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, which NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets shall, upon such transfer, become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan); provided, however, that the transfer of the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not (i) affect nor be deemed to affect the corporate governance actions or other actions of Crown Capital nor (ii) divest the Independent Fiduciary of her control of Crown Capital and any Entity directly or indirectly owned by Crown Capital. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be substituted and will replace the Debtors and their Estates in all NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, whether or not such claims are pending in filed litigation. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall operate as set forth in and be subject to the tax provisions of the CBRM Plan.

2. Vesting of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

As of the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, Encumbrances, charges or other interests to the extent permitted by section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided, however, that the Crown Capital Interests shall remain subject to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed to by Spano Investor LLC; provided, further, however, that Spano Investor LLC shall not directly or indirectly seek to exercise any legal, equitable, or other rights against such Crown Capital Interests or other assets of any Debtor or subsidiary of any Debtor that may constitute collateral of Spano Investor LLC with respect to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. pending further order of the Bankruptcy Court or a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court in the Spano Adversary Proceeding; provided, further, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Plan shall limit or affect Spano Investor LLC's rights to enforce its prepetition judgment and exercise any remedies against non-Debtors Fox Capital LLC, CBCC 1 LLC, CBCC 2 LLC, CBCC 3 LLC, CBCC 4 LLC, CBCC 5 LLC, Westwood Jackson Apts MM LLC, or Westwood Jackson Apts LLC, or any assets of such non-Debtor entities.

For the avoidance of doubt, subject to the provisions of this Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets will not be deemed property of the Debtors or their Estates and the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not be deemed to be a successor of the Debtors for purposes of any Distribution made by the Creditor Recovery Trust.

3. Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts shall be deemed assumed by the Debtors and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code. Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving such assumption and assignment. Except as otherwise set forth herein, the assumption and assignment of a Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract pursuant to the Plan shall be effective as of the Effective Date. Any monetary defaults under each Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract to be assumed pursuant to the Plan shall be satisfied, pursuant to section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, by payment of the Cure Amount in Cash by the Creditor Recovery Trust.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors shall, on or before the date of filing of the Plan Supplement, cause the Cure and Assumption Notices to be served on counterparties to Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts to be assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan. Any objection by a non-Debtor counterparty to an Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract to the assumption and assignment, the related Cure Amount, or adequate assurance must be filed, served, and actually received by the Debtors on or prior to the deadline for filing objections to the Plan (or such later date as may be provided in the applicable Cure and Assumption Notice); provided that each counterparty to a Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract (a) that the Debtors later determine to assume and assign or (b) as to which the Debtors modify the applicable Cure Amount, must object to the assumption and assignment or Cure Amount, as applicable, by the earlier of: (i) fourteen (14) days after the Debtors serve such counterparty with a corresponding Cure and Assumption Notice; and (ii) the Confirmation Hearing.

Any counterparty to a Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract that fails to timely object to the proposed assumption of any Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from contesting the Debtors' assumption and assignment of the applicable Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract and from requesting payment of a Cure Amount that differs from the amount paid or proposed to be paid by the Creditor Recovery Trust, without the need for any objection by the Creditor Recovery Trust or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. The Creditor Recovery Trust may settle any dispute regarding a Cure Amount without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, to the extent any provision in any Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan restricts or prevents, or purports to restrict or prevent, or is breached or would be deemed breached by, the assumption and assignment of such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract (including any change of control or similar provision), then such provision shall be deemed pre-empted and modified such that neither the Debtors' assumption and assignment of the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract nor any of the transactions contemplated by the Plan shall entitle the non-Debtor counterparty to terminate or modify such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract or to exercise any other purported default-related rights thereunder.

The Debtors' assumption and assignment of any Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract pursuant to the Plan or otherwise, and payment of any applicable Cure Amount in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article IV.D, shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any Claims or defaults, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any assumed and assigned Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract at any time prior to the effective date of assumption and assignment.

In the event of a timely filed objection regarding: (1) a Cure Amount; (2) the ability of the Creditor Recovery Trust or any assignee to provide adequate assurance of future performance within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code under the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract to be assumed and assigned; or (3) any other matter pertaining to assumption and assignment or the requirements of section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, such dispute shall be resolved by a

Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court (which may be the Confirmation Order) or as may be agreed upon by the Creditor Recovery Trust and the counterparty to the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall pay the applicable Cure Amount as soon as reasonably practicable after entry of a Final Order resolving such dispute and approving such assumption and assignment, or as may otherwise be agreed upon by the Creditor Recovery Trust and the counterparty to the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract. To the extent that a dispute regarding the applicable Cure Amount is resolved or determined unfavorably to the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trust may, in its discretion, reject the applicable Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract after such determination, which rejection shall supersede, nullify, and render of no force or effect any earlier assumption and assignment. Under no circumstances shall the status of payment of a Cure Amount required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code following the entry of a Final Order resolving the dispute and approving the assumption and assignment prevent or delay implementation of the Plan or the occurrence of the Effective Date.

E. Cancellation of Securities and Agreements.

On the Effective Date, except to the extent otherwise provided in the Plan, all notes, instruments, certificates, and other documents evidencing, or in any way related to, Claims or Interests shall be canceled as against the Debtors and each Released Party and the obligations of the Debtors thereunder or in any way related thereto shall be released, settled, and compromised.

F. Corporate Action.

Notwithstanding any requirements under applicable nonbankruptcy law, upon the Effective Date, all actions contemplated by the Plan shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, including the implementation of the Restructuring Transactions and, to the extent not approved pursuant to a Sale Order, the NOLA Sale Transaction. All matters provided for in the Plan involving the corporate structure of the Debtors, and any corporate action required by the Debtors in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have occurred and shall be in effect, without any requirement of further action by any Person or Entity or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors and their directors, managers, partners, officers, authorized persons, and members thereof (including the Independent Fiduciary) are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, securities, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan and the securities issued pursuant to the Plan in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors, without the need for any approvals, authorizations, or consents, except for those expressly required pursuant to the Plan, or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

G. Independent Fiduciary.

As of the Effective Date, notwithstanding any agreement, proxy, resolution, shareholders' agreement, or other document to the contrary or the transfer of the Crown Capital Interests to the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Independent Fiduciary shall have the sole authority and power to control the corporate governance actions of Crown Capital and any Entity directly or indirectly owned by Crown Capital.

H. Exemption from Certain Taxes and Fees.

Pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers of property or any Interests, including the Transferred Subsidiaries, pursuant to the Plan, including, to the extent applicable, the NOLA Sale Transaction, the recording of any amendments to such transfers, or any new mortgages or liens placed on the property in connection with such transfers, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, registration tax, mortgage tax, stamp act, real estate, transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, or other similar tax, fees, charges, or governmental assessment (including any penalties and interest), and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment to the maximum extent covered by section 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code.

I. Preservation of Rights of Action.

On the Effective Date, (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall vest in the post-Effective Date Debtors under the authority of the Wind-Down Officer, in each case free and clear of all Claims, Liens, Encumbrances and other interests. The NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust and shall, upon such transfer, become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan) and the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall become Wind-Down Assets. On and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue and dispose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action (including the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action) and the Wind-Down Officer shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action. No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan or Disclosure Statement as to any Cause of Action as any indication that the Debtor, and on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action against them. No preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation. Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, subject to the oversight, approval, consultation and consent of the Advisory Committee as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, shall retain and shall have, through their authorized agents or representatives, the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or the Disclosure Statement to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee or the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action. Unless and until any such Causes of Action against any Person or Entity are expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or assigned, or settled under the Plan or a Final Order, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, expressly reserve all such Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation or Consummation.

J. Election to Contribute Claims.

Because aggregating all Contributed Claims may enable the pursuit and settlement of such litigation claims in a more efficient and effective manner, each Holder of a Claim or Interest may agree, by electing on its Ballot, to contribute its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of Contributing Claimants. Rather, as provided in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, any value attributable to such Contributed Claims will be segregated and only available for disbursement to those Holders that elected to contribute such Claims. By electing such option on its Ballot, each Contributing Claimant agrees that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, it will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

K. Contribution of Contributed Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Contributed Claims will be irrevocably contributed to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of Contributing Claimants. No Person may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Confirmation Order, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Plan Supplement, or any other document as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee will or will not pursue any and all available Contributed Claims against such Person. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all Contributed Claims fully to the same extent that the Contributing Claimants could have asserted such claims prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contributed Claims shall not include the rights of any of the Contributing Claimants to receive the Distributions under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests and shall not include any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law.

ARTICLE V

A. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, all Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases (including all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List) will be deemed rejected, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than those that previously were assumed or rejected by the Debtors or those that are subject to a pending motion to assume or assign such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such rejections.

B. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

Unless otherwise provided by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within 30 days after entry of the Confirmation Order. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to this Plan not filed within such time shall be disallowed, forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against, as applicable, the Debtors, the Estates, or property thereof, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged. All Allowed Claims arising from the rejection of any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases shall constitute and be treated as Unsecured Claims. Nothing herein shall constitute an extension of any Claims Bar Date otherwise applicable to a Claim arising from an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously rejected by the Debtors.

C. Treatment of Insurance Policies.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each of the Insurance Policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto issued to or entered into by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date shall not be considered Executory Contracts and shall neither be assumed nor rejected by the Debtors; provided, however, that to the extent any such Insurance Policy is determined by Final Order to be an Executory Contract, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the Plan will constitute a motion to assume such Insurance Policy and assign the same to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, the entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute approval of such assumption and assignment pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy

Code. Unless otherwise determined by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed by the parties thereto prior to the Effective Date, no payments are required to cure any defaults of the Debtor existing as of the Confirmation Date with respect to any Insurance Policy, and prior payments for premiums or other charges made prior to the Petition Date under or with respect to any Insurance Policy shall be indefeasible.

D. Effect of Confirmation on D&O Liability Insurance Policies.

From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall remain in place on terms for coverage and amounts no less favorable than the Debtors' current directors' and officers' insurance policies. From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be maintained for the benefit of the beneficiaries thereunder and shall not be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust nor become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan). The Debtors shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policies (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect on or prior to the Effective Date, and the Independent Fiduciary shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy or policies for the full term of such policy or policies.

ARTICLE VI

A. Timing and Calculation of Amounts to Be Distributed.

Except as (1) otherwise provided herein, (2) directed by a Final Order, or (3) as otherwise agreed to by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Officer, as the case may be, and the Holder of the applicable Claim, on the Effective Date (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Distribution Date after such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive the full amount of distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class from the Distribution Agent. In the event that any payment or distribution under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or distribution may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. Except as specifically provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

B. Distribution Agent.

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under the Plan and the Plan Supplement; (b) make all distributions contemplated under the Plan; (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan and the Plan Supplement, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of the Plan and the Plan Supplement.

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Distribution Agent on or after the Effective Date (including taxes) and any reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement claims (including reasonable attorney and/or other professional fees and expenses) made by the Distribution Agent shall be paid in Cash by the Wind-Down Officer from the Wind-Down Account.

C. Delivery of Distributions and Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Distribution Agent shall make all distributions required under the Plan. The Distribution Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Additionally, in the event that the Distribution Agent is so otherwise ordered, all costs and expenses of procuring any such bond or surety shall be paid from the Wind-Down Account.

In the event that either (a) a distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable, (b) the Holder of an Allowed Claim does not respond in writing to a request by the Debtors or the Distribution Agent for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution within sixty (60) days or otherwise complete the actions necessary to facilitate a distribution as identified to the Holder within ninety (90) days of the Distribution Agent's request, no distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Distribution Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder or received the necessary information to facilitate a particular distribution, at which time such distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest, dividends, or other accruals of any kind; provided that such distributions shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code on the date that is six months after (a) the date of the distribution, if a distribution is made, or (b) the date that a request for information or action is sent by the Distribution Agent. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Creditor Recovery Trust automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable local, state, federal, or foreign escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and the Claim or Interest of any Holder to such property or interest in property shall be released and forever barred.

D. Claims Payable by Third Parties.

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to one of the Debtors' insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable insurance policy, including any D&O Liability Insurance Policy. Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Cause of Action that the Debtors or any Entity may hold against any other Entity, including insurers under any policies of insurance, nor shall anything contained in the Plan constitute or be deemed a waiver by such insurers of any defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such insurers.

E. Distributions to Unsecured Claims.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, all Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims shall be administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to and in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

F. Allocation Between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided herein, the aggregate consideration paid to Holders on account of their Allowed Claims pursuant to the Plan shall be treated as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof and as determined for federal income tax purposes) and second, to the extent the consideration exceeds the principal amount of the Allowed Claims, to the remaining portion of such Allowed Claim, if any.

ARTICLE VII

A. Allowance of Claims.

After the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have and shall retain any and all available rights and defenses the applicable Debtor had with respect to any Claim immediately before the Effective Date, including, without limitation, the right to assert any objection to Claims based on the limitations imposed by section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that neither the Wind-Down Officer nor the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to any Professional Fee Claims or fees of the Independent Fiduciary. For the avoidance of doubt, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to and otherwise reconcile any and all Claims that seek recovery from the Creditor Recovery Trust other than Professional Fee Claims and fees of the Independent Fiduciary. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases before the Effective Date (including the Confirmation Order), no Claim against any Debtor shall become an Allowed Claim unless and until such Claim or Interest is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Court has entered a Final Order, including the Confirmation Order (when it becomes a Final Order), in the Chapter 11 Cases allowing such Claim.

No payment or distribution provided under the Plan shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim or portion thereof unless and until such Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

B. Automatic Disallowance and Expungement of Certain Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Claims Filed after the Claims Bar Date that were required to be Filed in advance of the Claims Bar Date under its terms shall be expunged and disallowed without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

C. Distributions After Allowance.

To the extent a Disputed Claim ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, as soon as practicable, the Debtors shall provide to the Holder of such Claim the Distribution (if any) to which such Holder is entitled under the Plan as of the Effective Date, less any previous Distribution (if any) that was made on account of the undisputed portion of such Claim, without any interest, dividends, or accruals to be paid on account of such Claim.

ARTICLE VIII
SETTLEMENT, RELEASE, INJUNCTION, AND RELATED PROVISIONS

A. Settlement, Compromise, and Release of Claims and Interests.

To the extent provided for by the Bankruptcy Code, and in consideration for the distributions and other benefits provided pursuant to the Plan, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, the distributions, rights, and treatment that are provided in the Plan shall be in complete satisfaction, effective as of the Effective Date, of Claims, Interests, and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever, including any interest accrued on Claims or Interests from and after the Petition Date, whether known or unknown, against, liabilities of, Liens on, obligations of, rights against, and Interests in, the Debtors or any of their assets or properties, regardless of whether any property shall have been distributed or retained pursuant to the Plan on account of such Claims and Interests, including demands, liabilities, and Causes of Action that arose before the Effective Date, any liability (including withdrawal liability) to the extent such Claims or Interests relate to services performed by agents or representatives of the Debtors before the Effective Date and that arise from a termination of employment, any contingent or non-contingent liability on account of representations or warranties issued on or before the Effective Date, and all debts of the kind specified in sections 502(g), 502(h), or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, in each case whether or not: (1) a Proof of Claim based upon such debt, right, Claim, or Interest is Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code; (2) a Claim or Interest based upon such debt, right, or Interest is Allowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (3) the Holder of such a Claim or Interest has accepted the Plan. Any default by the Debtors or their Affiliates with respect to any Claim or Interest that existed immediately before or on account of the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases shall be deemed cured on the Effective Date.

B. Release of Liens.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, on the Effective Date and concurrently with the applicable distributions made pursuant to the Plan and, in the case of a Secured Claim, satisfaction in full of the portion of the Secured Claim that is Allowed as of the Effective Date, all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estate shall be fully released, settled, and compromised.

C. Releases by the Debtors.

Pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, for good and valuable consideration, on and after the Effective Date, each Released Party is deemed released by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Claims, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies, and liabilities whatsoever, including any derivative Claims, asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that the Debtors or their Estates would have been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the Holder of any Claim or Interest or other Entity, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Chapter 11 Cases, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date.

D. Releases by Holders of Claims and Interests.

As of the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Releasing Parties are deemed to have released the Debtors, their Estates, and the Released Parties from any and all Claims, Interests, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies and liabilities whatsoever, including any direct Claims held by any of the Releasing Parties against the Debtors, their Estates, and/or the Released Parties or derivative Claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that each Releasing Party would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Debtors' restructuring, the Chapter 11 Cases, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents, or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (1) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan and (2) except as to any member of the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes who opted to grant the releases contained in Article VIII.D of the Plan, the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members (whether or not any such member affirmatively voted to accept the Plan) shall not release nor be deemed to release any claim or cause of action that any such holders may hold against the Asset Manager or the Property Manager and such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals.

E. Exculpation.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, each Debtor and each Exculpated Party is hereby released and exculpated from any Claim, obligation, Cause of Action, or liability for any Exculpated Claim, except for gross negligence or willful misconduct, but in all respects

each Debtor and each Exculpated Party shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to its duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan. The Debtors, their Estates, the Independent Fiduciary, and the Debtors' professionals including White & Case LLP, IslandDundon LLC, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, and Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global have, and upon completion of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of the Plan and distributions pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

F. Injunction.

Pursuant to section 362(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the automatic stay of an act against property of the Debtors' estates will continue until such property is no longer property of the Debtors' estates, and pursuant to section 362(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, the stay of any other act described in section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code continues until the earlier of the closure or dismissal of these Chapter 11 Cases. In addition, as of the Effective Date and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Plan or the Confirmation Order, all Persons and Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that are fully satisfied pursuant to the Plan or any Claim or Interest that is subject to the releases and exculpations set forth in the Plan shall be precluded and permanently enjoined on and after the Effective Date from enforcing, pursuing, or seeking any setoff or relief with respect to such Claims or Interests, except for the receipt of the payments or Distributions that are contemplated by the Plan.

For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing relief may include (but is not limited to): (1) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claim or Interest; (2) enforcing, attaching, collecting, or recovering by any manner or means any judgment, award, decree, or order against such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (3) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any encumbrance of any kind against such Entities or the property or the Estates of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (4) asserting any right of setoff, subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due from such Entities or against the property of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; and (5) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests.

For the avoidance of doubt, this Article VIII.F shall not constitute a discharge under section 1141(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO THE EFFECTIVE DATE

A. Conditions Precedent to the Effective Date.

It shall be a condition to Consummation that the following conditions shall have been satisfied or waived pursuant to the provisions of Article IX.B of the Plan:

1. the Bankruptcy Court shall have entered the Confirmation Order and it shall have become a Final Order;

2. all documents and agreements necessary to implement the Plan, including any documents related to the NOLA Sale Transaction and Restructuring Transactions shall have (a) all conditions precedent to the effectiveness of such documents and agreements satisfied or waived pursuant to the terms of such documents or agreements, (b) been tendered for delivery, and (c) been effected or executed;

3. all governmental and material third-party approvals and consents, including Bankruptcy Court approval, necessary in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Plan shall have been obtained, not be subject to unfulfilled conditions and be in full force and effect, and all applicable waiting periods shall have expired without any action being taken or threatened by any competent authority that would restrain, prevent, or otherwise impose materially adverse conditions on such transactions; and

4. all conditions precedent to implementation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and Restructuring Transactions, including any conditions precedent under the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any auction, if necessary, shall have occurred.

B. Waiver of Conditions.

MODIFICATION, REVOCATION, OR WITHDRAWAL OF THE PLAN

A. Modification and Amendments.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors reserve the right to modify the Plan, whether materially or immaterially, including by adding a non-Debtor entity that becomes a debtor and debtor in possession under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code to, or removing a Debtor from, the Plan, and seek Confirmation, in each instance, to the extent permitted under the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to certain restrictions and requirements set forth in section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3019 and those restrictions on modifications set forth in the Plan, the Debtors reserve their right to alter, amend, or modify materially the Plan, one or more times, after Confirmation, and, to the extent necessary, may initiate proceedings in the Bankruptcy Court to so alter, amend, or modify the Plan, or remedy any defect or omission, or reconcile any inconsistencies in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, or the Confirmation Order, in such matters as may be necessary to carry out the purposes and intent of the Plan.

B. Effect of Confirmation on Modifications.

Entry of a Confirmation Order shall mean that all modifications or amendments to the Plan occurring after the solicitation thereof and before the Confirmation Date are approved pursuant to section 1127(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and do not require additional disclosure or resolicitation under Bankruptcy Rule 3019.

C. Revocation or Withdrawal of the Plan.

The Debtors reserve the right to revoke or withdraw the Plan before the Confirmation Date or the Effective Date and to File subsequent plans of reorganization, in which case the Plan shall be null and void in all respects.

The Plan shall have no force or effect unless the Bankruptcy Court shall enter the Confirmation Order. Neither the Plan, any statement or provision contained in the Plan, nor any action taken or not taken by the Debtors with respect to the Restructuring Documents shall be or shall be deemed to be an admission or waiver of any rights of the Debtors with respect to the Holders of Claims or Interests before the Effective Date.

Liquidation Analysis

LIQUIDATION ANALYSIS

A. Overview

Section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that each Holder of an Impaired Allowed Claim or Impaired Allowed Interest either (a) accepts the Plan or (b) receives or retains under the Plan property of a value, as of the Effective Date, that is not less than the value such Holder would receive or retain if the Debtors were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code ("Chapter 7") on the Effective Date. This legal standard is known as the "best interests" test.

The Debtors have prepared this liquidation analysis ("Liquidation Analysis")[1] based on a hypothetical liquidation under Chapter 7. It is assumed, among other things, that the Debtors' estates are not substantively consolidated and that the hypothetical liquidation under Chapter 7 would commence under the direction of a court-appointed trustee (the "Liquidating Trustee" or the "Trustee") and would continue for a period of time, during which all of the Debtors' material assets would be sold or tendered to their respective lien holders, and the cash proceeds, net of liquidation-related costs, would be distributed to creditors in accordance with applicable law.

The Liquidation Analysis has been prepared assuming that the Debtors filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy on May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date"), and the cases were subsequently converted to a Chapter 7 liquidation on or about October 22, 2025 (the "Conversion Date").

The determination of the costs of, and proceeds from, the liquidation of the Debtors' assets in Chapter 7 is an uncertain process involving the extensive use of estimates and assumptions that, although considered reasonable by the Debtors, are inherently subject to significant business, economic, and competitive uncertainties, and contingencies beyond the control of the Debtors, their management, and their advisors. Inevitably, some assumptions in the Liquidation Analysis would not materialize in an actual Chapter 7 liquidation, and unanticipated events and circumstances could affect the ultimate results in an actual Chapter 7 liquidation.

All limitations and risk factors set forth in the Disclosure Statement are applicable to this Liquidation Analysis and are incorporated by reference herein. The underlying financial information in the Liquidation Analysis was not compiled or examined by independent accountants or auditors.

THE LIQUIDATION ANALYSIS IS NOT INTENDED AND SHOULD NOT BE USED FOR ANY OTHER PURPOSE. THE LIQUIDATION ANALYSIS DOES NOT PURPORT TO BE A VALUATION OF THE DEBTORS' ASSETS AS A GOING CONCERN, AND THERE MAY BE A SIGNIFICANT DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE LIQUIDATION ANALYSIS AND THE VALUES THAT MAY BE REALIZED IN AN ACTUAL LIQUIDATION. THIS LIQUIDATION ANALYSIS ASSUMES "LIQUIDATION VALUES" BASED ON THE DEBTORS' BUSINESS JUDGMENT.

THE UNDERLYING FINANCIAL INFORMATION IN THE LIQUIDATION ANALYSIS WAS NOT COMPILED OR EXAMINED BY ANY INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS. NEITHER THE DEBTORS NOR THEIR ADVISORS MAKE ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES THAT THE ACTUAL RESULTS WOULD OR WOULD NOT APPROXIMATE THE ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS REPRESENTED IN THE LIQUIDATION ANALYSIS. ACTUAL RESULTS COULD VARY MATERIALLY.

[1] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the Plan and Disclosure Statement to which this Liquidation Analysis is attached.

In this Liquidation Analysis, it is assumed that a Chapter 7 trustee would promptly market and sell the Debtors' assets, including the NOLA Properties, following conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases on or about October 22, 2025. Given the nature of the Debtors' assets, which primarily consist of the NOLA Properties and related rights, the liquidation process is assumed to occur over a relatively short period. The analysis contemplates a sale of the NOLA Properties and subsequent resolution of claims, with distributions made following the payment of administrative and wind-down expenses. No assumptions are made regarding continued business operations.

Further, no value is attributed in this Liquidation Analysis to potential recoveries from retained causes of action, including claims for avoidance, breach of fiduciary duty, or other litigation rights preserved under the Plan or assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Although such claims may be pursued post-Effective Date for the benefit of creditors, their value in a hypothetical Chapter 7 liquidation is speculative and dependent on numerous factors, including cost, collectability, and legal outcomes. Accordingly, for purposes of this analysis, potential recoveries from such actions are excluded.

B. Summary Notes to Liquidation Analysis

1. Dependence on assumptions. The Liquidation Analysis depends on estimates and assumptions that, although developed and considered reasonable by the Debtors and their advisors, are subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies beyond their control. The analysis reflects the Debtors' best judgment regarding the hypothetical resolution of various matters in a Chapter 7 liquidation. Actual results could differ materially, positively or negatively, from those presented in this analysis.

2. Additional claims. A Chapter 7 liquidation could give rise to additional claims not present under the Plan, including administrative expenses, rejection damages, and litigation-related claims. Such claims could be significant, potentially reducing recoveries to creditors.

3. Dependence on unaudited financial statements. This Liquidation Analysis is based on financial data and estimates as of the Petition Date. The underlying information has not been audited or reviewed by independent accountants, and actual results may vary.

4. Preference or fraudulent transfers. No value has been attributed to potential recoveries from avoidance actions under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code (including preference or fraudulent transfer claims) due to uncertainty regarding their outcome, cost, and timing. The Liquidation Analysis excludes any litigation recoveries related to such claims.

5. Chapter 7 liquidation costs and process duration. The Liquidation Analysis assumes that a Chapter 7 trustee would be appointed shortly after conversion of the cases on or about October 22, 2025, and would oversee the monetization of the Debtors' primary assets — the NOLA Properties — along with any remaining cash or value. The process is expected to be relatively short given the limited scope of assets and operations. Chapter 7 administrative expenses (including trustee fees and professional costs) are estimated in accordance with applicable guidelines and based on assumed sale proceeds. The actual costs and timing of liquidation could vary and materially impact creditor recoveries.

6. Claims estimates. Claims are estimated based on known or projected liabilities as of the Petition Date and reflect adjustments for known developments and filed claims as of the Claims Bar Date, unless otherwise noted. The estimates used in this Liquidation Analysis are for illustrative purposes only and should not be relied upon for any other purpose, including, without limitation, determining the value of any distribution to be made under the Plan. Where applicable, the analysis presents a range of low to high estimates. The actual amount of Allowed Claims could differ materially from the estimates set forth herein.

7. Chapter 11 Recoveries. The Chapter 11 recoveries reflected in this Liquidation Analysis are based on IslandDundon's professional judgment, review of the Debtors' assets, and the indications of interest received to date. These recoveries necessarily depend on estimates and assumptions that, although developed and considered reasonable by the Debtors and their advisors, are subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies beyond their control. The analysis represents the Debtors' best judgment regarding a hypothetical resolution through the sale of the properties, and actual results may differ materially, positively or negatively, from those presented.

8. Distribution of net proceeds. In a Chapter 7 liquidation, the proceeds from the sale of the Debtors' assets would first be used to pay Chapter 7 administrative expenses, including trustee commissions and professional fees. Trustee fees are calculated in accordance with section 326(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, based on a percentage of disbursements, subject to statutory caps. Chapter 7 professional fees—including legal, financial advisory, accounting, and brokerage services—are assumed to be capped at 1.5% of gross asset proceeds, consistent with customary liquidation practice. After payment of administrative expenses and DIP financing obligations, any remaining proceeds would be distributed in accordance with the priority scheme set forth in the Bankruptcy Code. Based on the Liquidation Analysis, the Debtors project insufficient proceeds in a Chapter 7 liquidation to fully satisfy administrative expenses and DIP financing obligations, and no recoveries are projected for any junior classes of claims or interests. The Liquidation Analysis thus reflects the application of the absolute priority rule, under which no junior class receives any distribution unless all senior claims are paid in full.

Conclusion: Based on the Liquidation Analysis, the Debtors have determined that confirmation of the Plan will result in each holder of an Allowed Claim in an Impaired Class receiving or retaining value that is not less than the amount such holder would receive or retain in a hypothetical liquidation of the Debtors under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the "best interests" test set forth in section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Specific Notes to Liquidation Analysis

1. Cash Balance. Estimated cash balance as of October 22, 2025, based on the current Approved Budget (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order). The estimated cash balance is inclusive of all forecasted operating costs and professional fees.

2. Proceeds Generated from Sale of the NOLA Properties. Both the low and high Chapter 11 recovery scenarios reflect estimated Sale Proceeds of the NOLA Properties based on IslandDundon's professional judgment, review of the assets, and the indications of interest received to date. IslandDundon has concluded that a forced sale of the Debtors' assets (excluding RH Windrun LLC) in the compressed timeframe that typically occur during a chapter 7 liquidation would likely result in a 40% to 60% discount relative to "fair value." These assumptions are based on empirical evidence related to how the liquidation value of land, buildings, and equipment are typically valued at a discount to brokers' opinion of value for these types of assets.

3. Deposits and Prepayments. Debtors are not expected to collect these amounts.

4. NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. As defined in the Plan, the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets include (a) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, (b) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (c) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (d) the Contributed Claims (if any), (e) the Crown Capital Interests, (f) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (g) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any). Except for the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, these assets have not been ascribed a value for the purposes of the Liquidation Analysis.

5. Broker Fees. The Broker Fees shall be calculated as follows: Hilco Real Estate, LLC ("Hilco") shall be entitled to a fee equal to 1% of the aggregate cash consideration received by the Debtors on account of the sale of the NOLA Properties. Larry G. Schedler & Associates, Inc. ("LGSA") shall be entitled to a flat fee of $250,000, payable in cash or certified funds upon entry of an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving the sale of the first NOLA Property, and, with respect to each subsequent NOLA Property sale approved by the Bankruptcy Court, a flat fee of $50,000 per property, payable in cash or certified funds. No Broker Fees shall be payable in connection with the sale of any NOLA Property to the NOLA DIP Lenders or any affiliate thereof, unless such sale (1) indefeasibly satisfies (through a credit bid or otherwise) the outstanding obligations under the NOLA DIP Facility and (2) includes additional cash consideration in an amount at least equal to any commission payable to LGSA.

6. Chapter 7 Trustee Fees. Chapter 7 trustee fees are calculated under Section 326(a) of the Bankruptcy Code reflecting a $53,350 fee on the first $1,000,000 of disbursements, plus 3% on the net distributions thereafter. The calculation shown is not inclusive of the value of the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and therefore is significantly lower than such fees that will be realized in Chapter 7.

7. Chapter 7 Professional Fees. Chapter 7 professional fees, which are assumed not to exceed 1.5% of the gross asset proceeds, consistent with customary liquidation practice, include the cost of attorneys, financial advisors, accountants, brokers and other professionals retained by a chapter 7

trustee. The calculation shown is not inclusive of the value of the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and therefore is significantly lower than such fees that will be realized in Chapter 7.

8. UST Fees. Accrued and unpaid fees of the U.S. Trustee as of the Conversion Date are assumed to be paid using cash on hand and proceeds from the NOLA DIP Facility in accordance with the NOLA DIP Order.

9. Chapter 11 Professional Fees. Accrued and unpaid Chapter 11 professional fees as of the Conversion Date were budgeted for and reserved with the use of proceeds from the NOLA DIP Facility in accordance with the NOLA DIP Order. Payment of these claims does not affect Net Proceeds Available for Creditors.

10. Priority Tax Claims & Class 1 – Other Priority Claims. All known Priority Tax Claims and Other Priority Claims as of the Petition Date were paid in full with the use of proceeds from the NOLA DIP Facility in accordance with the NOLA DIP Order.

11. Class 2 – Other Secured Claims. The Prepetition First Lien Obligations (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) were deemed converted into and exchanged for Roll-Up Term Loans (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) in accordance with the NOLA DIP Order. Other than the CKD Penn Mortgage Claim and Akiri Mortgage Loan Claim, no other known Other Secured Claims remain as of the Conversion Date. The Estimated Claim Amount for Class 2 – Other Secured Claims reflects only the Akiri Mortgage Loan Claim; however, the total amount may be higher depending on recoveries realized by CKD Investor Penn LLC under the CKD Penn Guaranty in respect of the obligations of the non-Debtor Affiliates.

12. Class 3 – CIF Mortgage Loan Claims. CIF Mortgage Loan Claims consists of any Claim against the Debtors arising or related to the CIF Credit Agreement and CIF Lakewind Mortgage, which primarily consists of claims against Debtors RH Lakewind East LLC and Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC. Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claims shall receive: (i) Sale Proceeds that are proceeds of the sale of the Lakewind Property to the extent set forth in and subject to the waterfall provisions of the NOLA DIP Order; or (ii) to the extent the Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claim is not satisfied by the applicable Sale Proceeds in full as set forth in clause (i), its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution to Holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan.

13. Class 4 - NOLA Go-Forward Trade. Each Holder of an Allowed NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claim shall receive a treatment determined by the NOLA Purchaser(s) in accordance with the terms of the NOLA Purchase Agreement(s).

14. Class 5 - Other NOLA Unsecured Claims. Estimated Claim Allowed is net of all tenant reimbursement claims as of the Petition Date which were paid in full with the use of proceeds from the NOLA DIP Facility in accordance with the NOLA DIP Order.

15. Consideration of NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. The recovery rates and values displayed do not take into consideration the value of the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

16. Class 8 – Intercompany Claims. The Debtors continue to reconcile and determine the validity of Intercompany Claims at Debtors Crown Capital Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC, Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC, RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, RH Lakewind East LLC, and RH Windrun LLC.

I. INTRODUCTION

Reference is made to the Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates (the "Plan"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Plan. Crown Capital Holdings LLC ("Crown Capital"), RH Chenault Creek LLC ("Chenault"), RH Windrun LLC ("Windrun"), RH Copper Creek LLC ("Copper Creek"), RH Lakewind East LLC ("Lakewind"), RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC, and Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC (collectively, the "Debtors") submit this disclosure statement (the "Disclosure Statement"), pursuant to section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, to holders of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors in connection with the solicitation of votes for acceptance of the Plan. The Plan constitutes a separate chapter 11 plan for each Debtor.

II. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The Debtors own and operate four multifamily affordable housing complexes located in New Orleans, Louisiana (the "NOLA Properties"): Carmel Brook Apartments, owned by Chenault; Carmel Spring Apartments, owned by Windrun; Laguna Reserve Apartments, owned by Lakewind; and Laguna Creek Apartments, owned by Copper Creek. The NOLA Properties provide rent restricted housing to low-income residents and are supported in part by government housing programs. Preserving the NOLA Properties is critical not only to maximizing the value of the Debtors' estates, but also to protecting vital affordable housing resources in the local community.

The Debtors, along with their affiliates CBRM Realty Inc. ("CBRM"), Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC, and Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC ("Kelly Hamilton," together with CBRM and Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC, the "CBRM Debtors"), commenced these chapter 11 cases on May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date").[2] These chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") were filed amid severe operational, financial, and governance challenges stemming from mismanagement of the broader Crown Capital Portfolio (defined below) and the criminal conviction of its ultimate equity owner, Mark "Moshe" Silber. These issues contributed to liquidity constraints, declining property performance, and creditor enforcement actions. Since the Petition Date, and under the leadership of an independent fiduciary (the "Independent Fiduciary"), the Debtors have stabilized operations, obtained postpetition financing, and initiated a court-supervised marketing process aimed at maximizing value for the benefit of all stakeholders.

To support this process, Crown Capital, Chenault Creek, Windrun, Copper Creek, and Lakewind obtained $17,422,728 in postpetition financing (the "NOLA DIP Facility") from DH1 Holdings LLC ("DH1"), CKD Funding LLC ("CKD Funding"), and CKD Investor Penn LLC ("CKD Penn" and, together with DH1 and CKD Funding, collectively, the "NOLA DIP Lenders"), investors with deep experience in the multifamily and affordable housing sectors. Of that amount, approximately $8,461,524 was funded through new money loans, while the remaining $8,961,204 reflected a roll-up of prepetition obligations. Prior to the Petition Date, the NOLA DIP Lenders held the senior secured mortgage loans encumbering the NOLA Properties and were the Debtors' primary secured creditors. The NOLA DIP Facility has served as a critical bridge to fund operations and support a dual-track strategy for sale and plan confirmation.

Operational stability has been further supported by the Debtors' continued engagement of Lynd Management Group LLC ("Lynd Management") as property manager and LAGSP LLC ("LAGSP") as asset manager. Both firms are affiliates of The Lynd Group, a Texas-based real estate organization with a national platform and demonstrated experience managing affordable housing assets. The Debtors initially engaged Lynd Management and LAGSP pursuant to prepetition service agreements, and subsequently moved to assume and amend those agreements postpetition to ensure continuity of operations and to enhance oversight during the chapter 11 process.

The Debtors are now advancing a chapter 11 plan that contemplates a court-approved sale of the NOLA Properties (the "NOLA Sale Transaction"). On August 15, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving: (a) bidding procedures, including the sale timeline and form and manner of notice for the potential sale of one or more of the NOLA Properties; (b) a process for selecting a stalking horse bidder and approving bid protections; and (c) procedures for the potential assumption and assignment of executory contracts and unexpired leases [Docket No. 382] (the "NOLA Bidding Procedures Order"). In accordance with the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order, the NOLA Sale Transaction may be implemented either pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or through consummation of the Plan.

The Plan contemplates the following stakeholder recoveries:

- All Allowed Other Priority Claims will be paid in full in Cash on the Effective Date, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable;

- All Allowed Other Secured Claims will be (a) paid in full in Cash, (b) reinstated, (c) receive the return of applicable collateral securing such Allowed Other Secured Claims, or (d) otherwise receive treatment that renders such Claims Unimpaired under the Bankruptcy Code;

- Each Holder of an Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claim will receive, (a) Sale Proceeds that are proceeds of the sale of the Lakewind Property to the extent set forth in and subject to the waterfall provisions of the NOLA DIP Order; or (b) to the extent the Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claim is not satisfied by the applicable Sale Proceeds in full as set forth in clause (i), its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution to Holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan;

- Each Holder of an Allowed NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claim will receive a treatment determined by the NOLA Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the NOLA Purchase Agreement;

- Each Holder of an Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan;

- Each Holder of an Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan);

- Each Holder of an Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan);

- Except as otherwise provided in the Plan Supplement, all Intercompany Claims will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Claims; provided, however, that any such Intercompany Claim shall not be canceled, released or extinguished and shall remain in force to the extent necessary to allow the Creditor Recovery Trustee to seek recovery from any non-Debtor;

- Except as otherwise provided in the Plan Supplement, all Intercompany Interests will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Interests;

- On the Effective Date, each Crown Capital Interest shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust as provided in the Plan; provided, however, that the Crown Capital Interests shall remain subject to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed to by Spano Investor LLC; provided, further, however, that Spano Investor LLC shall not directly or indirectly seek to exercise any legal, equitable, or other rights against such Crown Capital Interests or other assets of any Debtor or subsidiary of any Debtor that may constitute collateral of Spano Investor LLC with respect to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. pending further order of the Bankruptcy Court or a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court in the Spano Adversary Proceeding; provided, further, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Plan shall limit or affect Spano Investor LLC's rights to enforce its prepetition judgment and exercise any remedies against non-Debtors Fox Capital LLC, CBCC 1 LLC, CBCC 2 LLC, CBCC 3 LLC, CBCC 4 LLC, CBCC 5 LLC, Westwood Jackson Apts MM LLC, or Westwood Jackson Apts LLC, or any assets of such non-Debtor entities;

- All Interests in RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust without any distribution on account of such Interests; and

- All Section 510(b) Claims, if any, will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Claims.

The Debtors strongly believe that the Plan is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, and represents the best available alternative at this time. For these reasons, the Debtors strongly recommend that Holders of Claims and Interests entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan vote to accept the Plan.

A. What is chapter 11?

Chapter 11 is the principal business reorganization chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition to permitting debtor rehabilitation, chapter 11 promotes equality of treatment for creditors and similarly situated equity interest holders, subject to the priority of distributions prescribed by the Bankruptcy Code.

The commencement of a chapter 11 case creates an estate that comprises all of the legal and equitable interests of the debtor as of the date the chapter 11 case is commenced. The Bankruptcy Code provides that the debtor may continue to operate its business and remain in possession of its property as a "debtor in possession."

Consummating a chapter 11 plan is the principal objective of a chapter 11 case. A bankruptcy court's confirmation of a chapter 11 plan binds the debtor, any person acquiring property under the plan, any creditor or equity interest holder of the debtor (whether or not such creditor or equity interest holder voted to accept the plan), and any other entity as may be ordered by the bankruptcy court. Subject to certain limited exceptions, the order issued by a bankruptcy court confirming a plan provides for the treatment of the debtor's liabilities in accordance with the terms of the confirmed plan.

B. Why are the Debtors sending me this Disclosure Statement?

The Debtors are seeking to obtain Bankruptcy Court approval of the Plan. Before soliciting acceptances of the Plan, section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Debtors to prepare a disclosure statement containing adequate information of a kind, and in sufficient detail, to enable a hypothetical reasonable investor to make an informed judgment regarding acceptance of the Plan and to share such disclosure statement with all holders of Claims and Interests whose votes on the Plan are being solicited. This Disclosure Statement is being submitted in accordance with these requirements.

C. Am I entitled to vote on the Plan?

Your ability to vote on, and your distribution under, the Plan, if any, depends on what type of Claim or Interest you hold. Each category of holders of Claims or Interests, as set forth in Article III of the Plan pursuant to section 1122(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, is referred to as a "Class." Each Class's respective voting status is set forth below:

Class	Claims and Interests	Status	Voting Rights
Class 1	Other Priority Claims	Unimpaired	Note Entitled to Vote (Presumed to Accept)
Class 2	Other Secured Claims	Unimpaired	Not Entitled to Vote (Presumed to Accept)
Class 3	CIF Mortgage Loan Claims	Impaired	Entitled to Vote
Class 4	NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims	Impaired	Entitled to Vote
Class 5	Other NOLA Unsecured Claims	Impaired	Entitled to Vote
Class 6	Crown Capital Unsecured Claims	Impaired	Entitled to Vote
Class 7	RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims	Impaired	Entitled to Vote
Class 8	Intercompany Claims	Impaired	Not Entitled to Vote
Class 9	Intercompany Interests	Impaired	Not Entitled to Vote
Class 10	Crown Capital Interests	Impaired	Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject)
Class 11	RH New Orleans Interests	Impaired	Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject)
Class 12	Section 510(b) Claims	Impaired	Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject)

D. What will I receive from the Debtors if the Plan is consummated?

The following chart provides a summary of the anticipated recovery to Holders of Claims and Interests under the Plan. Any estimates of Claims or Interests in this Disclosure Statement may vary from the final amounts allowed by the Bankruptcy Court. Your ability to receive distributions under the Plan depends upon the ability of the Debtors to obtain Confirmation and meet the conditions necessary to consummate the Plan.

Each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive under the Plan the treatment described below in full and final satisfaction of and in exchange for such Holder's Claim, except to the extent different treatment is agreed to by the Debtors and the Holder of such Allowed Claim. Unless otherwise indicated, the Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive such treatment on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. Projected recoveries included in the summary table below reflect the Debtors' analysis of anticipated Claims.

THE PROJECTED RECOVERIES SET FORTH IN THE TABLE BELOW ARE ESTIMATES ONLY AND THEREFORE ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE. FOR A COMPLETE DESCRIPTION

Such value is largely dependent on the successful prosecution of Claims and Causes of Action, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, by the Creditor Recovery Trust. There can be no assurance of the validity of, the amount of, or the chance of recovery on account of these Claims and Causes of Action. Defenses may also be available. E. What will I receive from the Debtors if I hold a General Administrative Claim or a Priority Tax Claim?

General Administrative Claims and Priority Tax Claims have not been placed in a Class in the Plan, consistent with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. Article II.A of the Plan sets forth the treatment for General Administrative Claims and provides in part that such Claims will be satisfied in full in an amount of Cash equal to the amount of such Allowed General Administrative Claim. Article II.E of the Plan sets forth the treatment for Priority Tax Claims, which states that an Allowed Priority Tax Claim will be treated in accordance with section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code.

F. Are any regulatory approvals required to consummate the Plan?

Other than approvals that may be required in the ordinary course of business in connection with the continued operation of the NOLA Properties, the Debtors are not aware of any material U.S. regulatory approvals required to consummate the Plan. However, the sale of the NOLA Properties pursuant to the Plan or under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code is subject to entry of a final, non-appealable order of the Bankruptcy Court confirming the Plan or sale under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

G. What happens if the NOLA Sale Transaction is not consummated?

The Plan is premised on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, which the Debtors believe will represent the best available path to maximize value and facilitate an orderly Wind-Down of the Estates. However, if the NOLA Sale Transaction is not consummated, the Debtors would work expeditiously to evaluate and pursue an alternative transaction structure, which could include, if required and feasible, a reorganization of one or more Debtors, though no such transaction has been proposed or developed to date and may not be viable given the Debtors' financial condition.

While no such alternative restructuring has been negotiated or proposed as of the date of this Disclosure Statement, the Debtors believe there may be value-preserving alternatives that could be developed and implemented through a revised chapter 11 plan, subject to further diligence, market conditions, and creditor support. In such a scenario, the treatment of Claims and Interests could differ from that set forth in the current Plan and would be determined based on the structure of any such alternative transaction.

If no viable transaction can be implemented, the Debtors may need to consider a conversion to chapter 7, which could result in lower recoveries than those estimated under the Plan.

H. What happens to my recovery if the Plan is not confirmed or does not go effective?

If the Plan is not confirmed or does not go effective, there is no assurance that the Debtors will be able to implement an alternative transaction that would provide recoveries equal to or greater than those contemplated by the Plan. The Plan is based on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' Estates. The Debtors do not have an alternative transaction or plan of reorganization currently negotiated or proposed.

If the NOLA Sale Transaction cannot be completed and the Plan cannot be confirmed, the Debtors would evaluate potential alternatives. However, there can be no assurance that a viable alternative transaction could be identified, negotiated, and implemented in a timely or cost-effective manner. In such a scenario, the Debtors may be required to convert these Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, which the Debtors believe would likely result in significantly lower recoveries for Holders of Allowed Claims.

For a more detailed description of the potential consequences of a failure to confirm or consummate the Plan, see Article XI.B of this Disclosure Statement, entitled "Best Interests of Creditors Test," which begins on page 48.

I. If the Plan provides that I get a distribution, do I get it upon Confirmation or when the Plan goes effective, and what is meant by "Confirmation," "Effective Date," and "Consummation"?

"Confirmation" of the Plan refers to approval of the Plan by the Bankruptcy Court. Confirmation of the Plan does not guarantee that you will receive the distribution indicated under the Plan. After Confirmation of the Plan by the Bankruptcy Court, there are conditions that need to be satisfied or waived so that the Plan can go effective. Initial distributions to holders of Allowed Claims and Interests will only be made on the date the Plan becomes effective—the "Effective Date"—or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, as specified in the Plan. See Article IX of the Plan. "Consummation" means the occurrence of the Effective Date.

J. What are the sources of Cash and other consideration required to fund the Plan?

The Debtors intend to fund distributions under the Plan through a combination of (a) the Sale Proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction; (b) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to be transferred in accordance with the CBRM Plan and this Plan; and (c) other available assets, as further described in the Plan.

The NOLA Sale Transaction contemplates the sale of the NOLA Properties pursuant to one or more purchase agreements with the successful bidder(s) following conclusion of the sale process.

In addition to the proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction, distributions under the Plan will be funded from: (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, consisting of, to the extent not expended prior to the Effective Date solely with respect to the development and investigation of Claims and Causes of Action held by the Debtors or their Estates to be pursued for the benefit of creditors, Cash in an amount equal to $1,000,000 of the proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility, which shall be funded on the Effective Date; (ii) any recoveries from the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, Contributed Claims, and NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, which will be pursued and administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust; and (iii) the Interests of RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC and Crown Capital. Distributions from the Creditor Recovery Trust will be made to Holders of Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claims (Class 6) and Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims (Class 7), with each Holder receiving its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan).

For the avoidance of doubt, the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall include any Claim or Cause of Action, including any Avoidance Action, held by the Debtors or their Estates and the proceeds thereof, against any of the following (each, an "Excluded Party" and collectively, the "Excluded Parties"): (a) Moshe (Mark) Silber; (b) Frederick Schulman; (c) Piper Sandler & Co.; (d) Mayer Brown LLP; (e) Rhodium Asset Management LLC; (f) Syms Construction LLC; (g) Rapid Improvements LLC; (h) NB Affordable Foundation Inc.; (i) any title agencies; (j) any independent real estate appraisal firms; (k) any rating agencies; (l) any accounting firms; (m) other current or former Insiders of the Debtors; (n) any party on the Schedule of Excluded Parties; and (o) with respect to each of the foregoing, each Person's or Entity's Affiliates, partners, members, managers, officers, directors, employees, and agents that are not specifically identified in this Plan as a Released Party.

Certain administrative expenses, including Allowed Professional Compensation Claims, will be funded from a dedicated Fee Escrow Account. The specific allocation of consideration and other assets to the various Classes of Claims and Interests will be set forth in the Plan Supplement.

K. Will there be releases and exculpation granted to parties in interest as part of the Plan?

Yes, the Plan provides for releases and exculpation of the Debtors and other parties in interest as set forth in Article VIII of the Plan.

Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors faced escalating operational and financial distress stemming from broader issues within the Crown Capital Portfolio (as defined below), including the criminal conviction of its ultimate equity owner, disputes among insiders, and a breakdown in governance and oversight. These failures contributed to cash flow shortfalls, unpaid obligations, and deterioration in property performance, placing the long-term viability of the NOLA Properties at serious risk. Following the appointment of the Independent Fiduciary in April 2024, the Debtors and their professionals undertook an extensive review of potential estate claims, insider transactions, and restructuring alternatives.

As part of that assessment, the Independent Fiduciary and the Debtors' professionals evaluated prepetition financial dealings involving insiders and affiliated entities, as well as the conduct surrounding the historical governance and financial condition of the Debtors. Based on that review, the Independent Fiduciary directed the Debtors to preserve all potential Claims and Causes of Action—including, without limitation, Avoidance Actions under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code and any claims for breach of fiduciary duty, mismanagement, or other actionable misconduct—against each Excluded Party. These parties are expressly excluded from the definitions of both "Released Parties" and "Exculpated Parties" under the Plan. Accordingly, the Plan does not, and shall not be construed to, release, exculpate, or otherwise impair any Claims or Causes of Action against these parties, all of which are expressly preserved. The Debtors, through the Independent Fiduciary and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, retain and reserve all such Causes of Action for the benefit of the Debtors' Estates and their stakeholders, and such

Causes of Action will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust for potential pursuit by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in accordance with the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

In contrast, the Independent Fiduciary has determined that releases are appropriate for the following parties: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the NOLA Purchaser; (c) LAGSP; (d) Lynd Management; (e) the NOLA DIP Lenders; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (h) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. These parties are collectively defined in the Plan as the "Released Parties."

In addition to the estate releases, the Plan includes a customary third-party release that applies only to Holders of Claims or Interests who affirmatively consent to grant such release. A Holder of a Claim in Class 3, Class 4, Class 5, Class 6, or Class 7 affirmatively consents to grant the third-party release set forth in Article VIII of the Plan if the Holder either (a) votes to accept the Plan, or (b) abstains or does not affirmatively vote to accept the Plan but checks the box on the Holder's Ballot indicating that the Holder opts to grant the release. Holders of Claims or Interests in Class 1, Class 2, Class 8, Class 9, Class 10, Class 11 or Class 12, which are not entitled to vote, may affirmatively consent to grant the release by submitting a completed Opt-In Form and checking the box indicating their consent. Only those Holders who take one of these specified affirmative actions will grant the third-party release under the Plan.

The Plan also includes an exculpation provision that applies to (a) each Debtor solely in its capacity as a debtor and debtor in possession following the Petition Date and excluding such Debtor for the period prior to the Petition Date, (b) the Independent Fiduciary, (c) LAGSP, (d) Lynd Management, and (e) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. These parties are exculpated from any liability for any act or omission arising as of or following the Petition Date through the Effective Date in connection with, relating to, or arising out of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan, the NOLA Sale Transaction, or Restructuring Transactions, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation of any document in connection with the Plan, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Plan, the pursuit of Consummation, the Restructuring Transactions, the administration and implementation of the Plan, or the distribution of property pursuant to the Plan.

The Debtors believe that the release, exculpation, and related injunction provisions are necessary and appropriate in light of the contributions made by the Released and Exculpated Parties, and consistent with applicable law, including precedent established by the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. The Debtors intend to present evidence at the Confirmation Hearing in support of the necessity and propriety of these Plan provisions.

IMPORTANTLY, ONLY HOLDERS OF CLAIMS OR INTERESTS THAT AFFIRMATIVELY OPT TO GRANT THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASES CONTAINED IN THE PLAN WILL BE SUBJECT TO SUCH RELEASES. A HOLDER WILL BE CONSIDERED TO HAVE AFFIRMATIVELY CONSENTED TO THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASES ONLY IF THAT HOLDER: (A) IS A HOLDER OF A CLAIM IN CLASS 3, CLASS 4, CLASS 5, CLASS 6 OR CLASS 7 AND VOTES TO ACCEPT THE PLAN; (B) IS A HOLDER OF A CLAIM IN CLASS 3, CLASS 4, CLASS 5, CLASS 6 OR CLASS 7, ABSTAINS OR DOES NOT AFFIRMATIVELY VOTE TO ACCEPT THE PLAN, AND CHECKS THE BOX ON THE BALLOT INDICATING THAT SUCH

HOLDER OPTS TO GRANT THE RELEASES; OR (C) IS A HOLDER OF A CLAIM OR INTEREST IN CLASS 1, CLASS 2, CLASS 8, CLASS 9, CLASS 10, CLASS 11 OR CLASS 12 AND CHECKS THE BOX ON THE OPT-IN FORM INDICATING THAT SUCH HOLDER OPTS TO GRANT THE RELEASES. HOLDERS WHO DO NOT AFFIRMATIVELY OPT TO GRANT THE RELEASES WILL NOT BE BOUND BY THEM. THE RELEASES ARE AN INTEGRAL ELEMENT OF THE PLAN.

L. What are the potential claims and causes of action against Silber and his affiliates?

The Debtors, through their Independent Fiduciary, are continuing to investigate potential Estate Claims and Causes of Action against Mark Silber, Frederick Schulman, and other individuals and entities associated with their historical control, management, or influence over the Debtors prior to the Petition Date. These investigations include potential claims for breach of fiduciary duty, mismanagement, corporate waste, fraudulent transfers, and other conduct that may have harmed the Debtors or their stakeholders.

With the assistance of advisors, the Independent Fiduciary is reviewing numerous prepetition transactions and governance actions involving these insiders. The areas of focus include the mismanagement of the Debtors' real estate assets, the potential misuse of financing proceeds, neglect of regulatory obligations, and other conduct potentially involving self-dealing, fraud, or improper diversion of estate value. The Debtors are also evaluating whether the misconduct that formed the basis of Silber's and Schulman's criminal convictions may have impacted the Debtors or their creditors.

As a result of this ongoing review, the Independent Fiduciary has directed the Debtors to preserve all related Claims and Causes of Action, including those against Silber, Schulman, entities they owned or controlled, and any other individuals or firms that may have facilitated or benefited from the conduct in question. These individuals and entities are expressly excluded from the Plan's definitions of "Released Parties" and "Exculpated Parties," and therefore are not receiving any release or exculpation under the Plan.

All such Claims and Causes of Action are being preserved under the Plan and, as of the Effective Date, will vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust and may be pursued by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The Creditor Recovery Trustee will serve as the post-effective date fiduciary responsible for investigating and, where appropriate, prosecuting such retained Claims and Causes of Action for the benefit of unsecured creditors.

M. How does this Plan relate to and interact with the CBRM Plan?

This Plan has been developed in coordination with the Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 469] (as amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time, the "CBRM Plan"). Pursuant to the CBRM Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan to assume all liability of the CBRM Debtors and their estates for, and to administer, all CBRM Unsecured Claims.

Under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the Debtors will transfer to the Creditor Recovery Trust (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any) to be administered for and distributed to the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims in accordance with the waterfall provisions of the CBRM Plan.

If the CBRM Plan is not confirmed or does not become effective, the Debtors will implement an alternative, court-approved mechanism to administer and distribute the assets that would otherwise have been transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such mechanism may include establishing a similar trust under the Plan or another structure designed to maximize value for stakeholders.

N. What is the Creditor Recovery Trust?

The Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan for the benefit of Holders of Class 6 Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, Class 7 Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims, and Allowed CBRM Unsecured Claims (as defined in the CBRM Plan).

Pursuant to the Plan, certain assets will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, including: (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, consisting of, to the extent not expended prior to the Effective Date solely with respect to the development and investigation of Claims and Causes of Action held by the Debtors or their Estates to be pursued for the benefit of creditors, Cash in an amount equal to $1,000,000 of the proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility, which shall be funded on the Effective Date; (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any).

In addition, as set forth in the Plan, the Debtors will include in the Plan Supplement a schedule of executory contracts to be assumed by the applicable Debtor and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts"). On the Effective Date, such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts shall be deemed assumed and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and any associated Cure Amounts shall be satisfied in accordance with the Plan and the Confirmation Order.

The Creditor Recovery Trust will be administered by one or more trustees selected by the CBRM Debtors, in consultation with the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, the NOLA DIP Lenders, and Spano Investor LLC ("Spano"). The Creditor Recovery Trustee will be responsible for administering, prosecuting, settling, or monetizing the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and making distributions in accordance with the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The Creditor Recovery Trust is intended to maximize recoveries for unsecured creditors.

O. What is the Wind-Down and who is responsible?

Following the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the Effective Date of the Plan, the Debtors will no longer operate an ongoing business and will instead wind down their affairs. The Wind-Down Officer appointed under the CBRM Plan shall be appointed by the Debtors to oversee the wind down, dissolution, and liquidation of the Estates following the Effective Date in accordance with Article IV.C of the Plan.

P. What is the deadline to vote on the Plan?

The Voting Deadline is October 10, 2025, at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

Q. How do I vote for or against the Plan?

Detailed instructions regarding how to vote on the Plan are contained on the ballots distributed to Holders of Claims and Interests that are entitled to vote on the Plan. For your vote to be counted, you must submit your ballot in accordance with the instructions provided in Article IV.D of this Disclosure Statement. BALLOTS SENT BY FAX OR EMAIL ARE NOT ALLOWED AND WILL NOT BE COUNTED.

R. Why is the Bankruptcy Court holding a Confirmation Hearing?

Section 1128(a) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Bankruptcy Court to hold a hearing on confirmation of the Plan and recognizes that any party in interest may object to Confirmation of the Plan. The Confirmation Hearing will be scheduled by the Bankruptcy Court shortly after the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases. All parties in interest will be served notice of the time, date, and location of the Confirmation Hearing once scheduled.

S. What is the purpose of the Confirmation Hearing?

The confirmation of a plan of reorganization by a bankruptcy court binds the debtor, any issuer of securities under a plan of reorganization, any person acquiring property under a plan of reorganization, any creditor or equity interest holder of a debtor, and any other person or entity as may be ordered by the bankruptcy court in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to certain limited exceptions, the order issued by the bankruptcy court confirming a plan of reorganization discharges a debtor from any debt that arose before the confirmation of such plan of reorganization and provides for the treatment of such debt in accordance with the terms of the confirmed plan of reorganization.

The deadline by which all objections to the Plan must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served so as to be actually received by the appropriate notice parties is October 10, 2025, at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

T. Who do I contact if I have additional questions with respect to this Disclosure Statement or the Plan?

If you have any questions regarding this Disclosure Statement or the Plan, please contact the Debtors' Claims and Noticing Agent, Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global ("Verita"), by submitting an inquiry to https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm/inquiry (with "CBRM Solicitation Inquiry" in the subject line).

Copies of the Plan and the Disclosure Statement: (a) are available on the Debtors' restructuring website, free of charge, at https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm; (b) may be obtained upon request of the Claims and Noticing Agent by writing to CBRM Realty Inc., et al. Ballot Processing, c/o KCC dba Verita Global, 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300, El Segundo, CA 90245 or by submitting an inquiry to https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm/inquiry (with "CBRM Solicitation Inquiry" in the subject line); and (c) will be available for inspection for a fee on the Bankruptcy Court's website at https://www.njb.uscourts.gov.

U. Do the Debtors recommend voting in favor of the Plan?

Yes. The Debtors strongly recommend that all eligible creditors vote to accept the Plan. The Plan contemplates the sale of the NOLA Properties through a competitive, court-supervised Sale Process, the transfer of designated assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust to administer and distribute recoveries, and the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' Estates following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction.

This structure is designed to maximize value and ensure fair and efficient distributions to creditors. The Debtors believe that the Plan is in the best interests of all Holders of Claims and Interests under the circumstances. Alternative paths would likely involve significant delays, increased administrative costs, and lower recoveries. In contrast, the Plan offers a clear, actionable, and creditor-focused approach to monetize remaining assets, preserve and pursue potential litigation claims, and bring these Chapter 11 Cases to a prompt and value-maximizing conclusion for the benefit of all stakeholders.

IV. SOLICITATION AND VOTING PROCEDURES

This Disclosure Statement, which is accompanied by a ballot (the "Ballot") to be used for voting on the Plan, is being distributed to the Holders of Claims in the Classes entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

A. Holders of Claims and Interests Entitled to Vote on the Plan

The Debtors are soliciting votes to accept or reject the Plan only from Holders of Claims and Interests in Classes 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 (the "Voting Classes"). The Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes are Impaired under the Plan and may, in certain circumstances, receive a distribution under the Plan. Accordingly, Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes have the right to vote to accept or reject the Plan. The Debtors are not soliciting votes from Holders of Claims or Interests in Classes 1, 2, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12.

B. Votes Required for Acceptance by a Class

Under the Bankruptcy Code, acceptance by a class of claims requires an affirmative vote of more than one-half in number of total allowed claims that have voted and an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds in dollar amount of the total allowed claims that have voted. Acceptance by a class of interests requires an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds in amount of the total allowed interests that have voted.

If a Class contains Claims or Interests eligible to vote and no Holders of Claims or Interests eligible to vote in such Class vote to accept or reject the Plan, then such Class shall be deemed to have accepted the Plan.

C. Certain Factors to Be Considered Prior to Voting

There are a variety of factors that all Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan should consider prior to voting to accept or reject the Plan. These factors may impact recoveries under the Plan and include, among other things:

- unless otherwise specifically indicated, the financial information contained in the Disclosure Statement has not been audited and is based on an analysis of data available at the time of the preparation of the Plan and the Disclosure Statement;

- although the Debtors believe that the Plan complies with all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors can neither assure such compliance nor that the Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan;

- the Debtors may request Confirmation without the acceptance of the Plan by all Impaired Classes in accordance with section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; and

- any delays of either Confirmation or Consummation could result in, among other things, increased Administrative Claims and Professional Fee Claims.

While these factors could affect distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests under the Plan, the occurrence or impact of such factors may not necessarily affect the validity of the vote of the Voting Classes or necessarily require a re-solicitation of the votes of Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes pursuant to section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code.

For a further discussion of risk factors, please refer to "Risk Factors" described in Article X of this Disclosure Statement.

D. Solicitation Procedures

The Debtors have retained the Claims and Noticing Agent, Verita, to act as, among other things, the Claims and Noticing Agent in connection with the solicitation of votes to accept or reject the Plan.

2. Solicitation Package

The following materials constitute the solicitation package (collectively, the "Solicitation Package") distributed to Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes:

- notice of the Confirmation Hearing;
- a customized paper Ballot;
- the Disclosure Statement (including the Plan and all exhibits) and the Disclosure Statement Order; and
- any other materials ordered by the Bankruptcy Court to be included as part of the Solicitation Package.

3. Distribution of the Solicitation Package and Plan Supplement

V. OVERVIEW OF THE COMPANY'S OPERATIONS

A. The Debtors' Business Operations

The Debtors are part of a larger real estate portfolio formed by real estate investor Moshe "Mark" Silber and certain affiliated parties (the "Crown Capital Portfolio"). The Crown Capital Portfolio holds dozens of multifamily housing projects across the United States, including the NOLA Properties, and has been historically funded, at least in part, by the federal government's housing assistance programs, such as Section 8.

Among the assets in the Crown Capital Portfolio are the NOLA Properties. These properties serve low-income tenants and participate in various government-supported housing programs. The NOLA Properties serve as a critical source of affordable housing for low-income residents in the New Orleans community. Rent payments from tenants (including subsidies paid directly by government programs) represent the Debtors' primary source of revenue. The Debtors do not have employees of their own and instead rely on third-party professionals to manage and operate the NOLA Properties.

B. Property Management and Operations

Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors engaged Lynd Management to serve as the Property Manager for the NOLA Properties, pursuant to certain Amended and Restated Property Management Agreements dated as of September 16, 2019. Lynd Management provides on-site personnel and oversees all day-to-day property-level functions, including leasing, maintenance, compliance with regulatory obligations, and the coordination of services for residents.

In addition, LAGSP serves as asset manager for the Debtors pursuant to that certain Asset Management Agreement dated as of September 19, 2024. LAGSP provides strategic oversight of the NOLA Properties' operations, ensures compliance with financing and regulatory obligations, and assists in capital planning and financial reporting.

All rent and subsidy collections are deposited into operating accounts controlled by the Debtors. In the ordinary course, these funds are used to pay property-level operating expenses, taxes, insurance, and debt service obligations. Prior to the Petition Date, limited liquidity, capital needs, and the legacy deferred maintenance burden impaired the Debtors' ability to stabilize operations and maintain compliance with regulatory standards.

C. Founder Misconduct and Breakdown in Governance

Prior to the Petition Date, the Crown Capital Portfolio raised hundreds of millions of dollars of financing, including (i) over $200 million from the sale of bonds issued by Crown Capital and guaranteed by CBRM (the "Notes") and (ii) approximately $450 million of property-level mortgage loans provided by an array of different financing sources.

Moshe "Mark" Silber and certain of his co-investors, including Frederick Schulman, have been targets of extensive investigations by the federal government and certain state authorities. On April 17, 2024, Silber entered into a plea agreement in connection with defrauding the federal government in connection with an affordable housing project (which does not have a presently-identified connection to the Debtors or their past or present activities) (the "Silber Prosecution-Related Property"). The plea agreement was entered into with the Fraud Section of the Department of Justice and the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey for conspiracy to commit wire fraud affecting an institution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 371. Schulman also entered into a plea agreement around the same time. Silber was sentenced to 30 months in prison and Schuman was sentenced to 12 months and one day in prison, to be followed by nine months of home confinement. Both have agreed to pay restitution.

A considerable share of the Debtors' distress arises from the fact that many, if not all, of the properties of the Debtors and their affiliates are likely worth much less today than the appraised values which supported the issuance of the Notes and certain of the property-level mortgage loans. Although the reasons for this depreciation remain the subject of active investigation, it may be explained by three factors alone or in combination. First, commencing in 2023, if not earlier, perhaps in part or in whole due to the distraction of the government investigations and eventual prosecution, Silber and Schulman neglected the management of the Crown Capital Portfolio, causing numerous properties or property-holding Debtors or their affiliates to fall into operational and/or physical disarray, jeopardize their eligibility for affordable housing programs which pay or subsidize all or most of the rent rolls, suffer declining occupancy rates, default on their obligations under their respective loan agreements, allow property-level mortgage loans to mature, fail to defend lawsuits (including the Acquiom litigation discussed infra) and become subject to default judgments, and/or become subject to receivership proceedings. Second, the government successfully prosecuted Silber and Schulman in connection with the Silber Prosecution-Related Property for using false or misleading property-level information to obtain inflated appraisals for certain properties, obtaining excessive financing, and then siphoning the surplusage out of Crown Capital. The Debtors are investigating what relevance, if any, this misconduct has to them. Third, many of the properties of the Debtors and their affiliates were valued for the purposes of the issuance of the Notes and some of the property-level mortgages in a period of time — 2021 and 2022 — when multi-family projects such as the Debtors' were at all-time high values in part due to low interest rates and high investor demand during and after the COVID pandemic — and those properties would likely be worth less today even in the absence of management negligence or intentional misconduct.

D. Appointment of Independent Fiduciary

Once Silber's plea became public, Silber, as a convicted felon, was effectively disqualified from continuing to manage the Crown Capital Portfolio. The Crown Capital Portfolio's stakeholders, including investors who purchased the Notes (the "Noteholders"), expressed concern about these developments because the Crown Capital Portfolio's value supported the payment of principal and interest under the Notes.

Following discussions between Mr. Silber's counsel and the Noteholders' counsel (Faegre Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP) and financial advisers (at the time, IslandDundon), on August 29, 2024, the parties entered into a forbearance agreement (the "Forbearance Agreement"). The Forbearance Agreement addressed various matters involving pending defaults under the Notes and Mr. Silber's go-forward involvement with the portfolio and established a process to ensure the Crown Capital Portfolio had sufficient fiduciary oversight. The Forbearance Agreement, among other things, required Mr. Silber to appoint an independent fiduciary acceptable to the Noteholders as the sole director of CBRM and Crown Capital and provide that individual with an irrevocable proxy for so long as the obligations under the Forbearance Agreement remained pending.

Thereafter, the Noteholders' advisors identified numerous potential candidates to serve as independent fiduciary as required by the Forbearance Agreement. On September 26, 2024, the bondholders party to the Forbearance Agreement consented to the appointment of Ms. Elizabeth A. LaPuma—a restructuring professional who for over 20 years has worked as an investment banker and corporate director, including for companies in distress—as the Independent Fiduciary for CBRM and Crown Capital. Since that time, Ms. LaPuma has acted in a fiduciary capacity for those entities and the dozens of other entities directly or indirectly owned by CBRM, including the Debtors.

E. Factors Precipitating the Debtors' Chapter 11 Filings

Following her appointment, the Independent Fiduciary immediately got to work to maximize the value of the portfolio. The Independent Fiduciary ordered a review of all litigation involving the portfolio, including the systematic identification of defaults, lawsuits, and judgments entered against the properties. In addition, the Independent Fiduciary, with the assistance of entities within Lynd Management, began the process of ensuring that each property owned by the portfolio had sufficient staffing and other resources, with the goal of ensuring that residents had safe, clean homes.

The Independent Fiduciary also took steps to ensure that she and the portfolio had the internal resources to maximize value for all stakeholders. Among other things, she obtained director and officer insurance (which the Crown Capital Portfolio inexplicably never obtained prior to the Independent Fiduciary's appointment) to enable her to fulfill her duties. The Independent Fiduciary also began providing periodic updates to the Noteholder advisers and steering committee (including weekly calls), engaged an investment advisor to seek refinancing and new capital opportunities for certain portfolio properties, and engaged with other creditors.

These efforts, however, required a pause in any negative enforcement actions contemplated by creditors of the Crown Capital Portfolio, including the Noteholders. Thus, following her appointment, the Independent Fiduciary worked constructively with her advisors and the Noteholders' advisors to extend the Forbearance Agreement in order to allow additional time to restructure the portfolio in a manner which would maximize value for all stakeholders. The Noteholders agreed to extend the Forbearance Agreement through April 14, 2025. However, prior to the expiration of that extension, the Noteholders informed the Independent Fiduciary's advisors that they would not extend the Forbearance Agreement any further.

Around the same time, one of the Debtors' judgment creditors similarly expressed its intent to execute on the Debtors' assets. Specifically, in June 2022, Mr. Silber purportedly entered into that certain Credit Agreement, dated June 2, 2022, between UBS O'Connor LLC, as lender ("UBS"), and Acquiom Agency Services LLC ("Acquiom"), as administrative agent (the "Silber Credit Agreement"). The Silber Credit Agreement was purportedly guaranteed by, among others, CBRM, and was purportedly secured by a pledge by CBRM of its equity in Crown Capital. On March 6, 2024, Acquiom sent a letter to Mr. Silber asserting that a default had occurred under the Silber Credit Agreement resulting from Mr. Silber's failure to timely make certain interest payments which Acquiom asserted were properly due under the Silber Credit Agreement. On May 2, 2024, after failing to receive a response to its letter, Acquiom filed a lawsuit against, among others, Silber and CBRM (the "UBS Defendants") to recover the total aggregate principal balance under the Silber Credit Agreement in a suit captioned Acquiom Agency Services LLC v. Fox Capital LLC et. al., Index No. 652265/2024, Supreme Court of the State of New York County of New York, Commercial Division Part 45 (May 2, 2024).

On August 2, 2024, the Supreme Court of the State of New York (the "New York Court") granted Acquiom's summary judgment motion and required that Silber repay the amounts outstanding under the Silber Credit Agreement in an amount totaling $19,185,000 plus interest. On September 5, 2024, the New York Court entered a judgment against the UBS Defendants in the amount of $21,020,452.60. On September 9, 2024, Acquiom assigned the right to collect on this judgment to Spano. After the assignment, on December 14, 2024, the New York Court entered a property execution order requiring the UBS Defendants to satisfy the judgment and authorizing the Spano to foreclose and collect upon certain assets in satisfaction of its judgment, including CBRM's right, title, and interest in Crown Capital. The Rockland County sheriff was scheduled to conduct a sheriff's sale of certain assets of CBRM, including its equity interest in Crown Capital, on Thursday, May 22, 2025. The sheriff's sale, had it proceeded, would have allowed a prepetition creditor to exercise remedies against CBRM's interest in Crown Capital, the entity overseen by the Independent Fiduciary (a) that issued the Notes, (b) holds significant potential claims and causes of action against Silber and other affiliates, and (c) holds CBRM's interests in the Crown Capital Portfolio. The sheriff's sale, if it had proceeded, would have, therefore, allowed a single prepetition judgment creditor receive a recovery at the expense of other creditors (particularly the Noteholders). The Debtors commenced these Chapter 11 Cases to maximize value for all of CBRM's creditors.

F. The Debtors' Prepetition Secured Indebtedness

As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were obligated under several prepetition secured credit facilities related to the NOLA Properties. CKD Funding is the holder of first-priority lien obligations arising under two loan facilities (together, the "Prepetition First Lien Loans"). The first facility originated with DH1, which made a loan to Chenault on or about April 4, 2024. This loan was initially in the principal amount of $7.5 million, later increased to $10 million by amendment on the same day, and subsequently increased to $25 million pursuant to a second amendment dated July 5, 2024 (the "DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan"). The loan was secured by a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Lease and Rents and Security Agreement dated April 4, 2024, encumbering Carmel Brook Apartments (the "DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage"). On March 10, 2025, DH1 assigned its rights under the DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan and DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage to CKD Funding, and the assignment was recorded in the Parish of Orleans, Louisiana, on March 12, 2025.

The second facility was made by CKD Funding directly to Windrun, Lakewind, and Copper Creek on or about July 8, 2024, in the principal amount of up to $10 million. This loan was secured by a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents and Security Agreement dated July 8, 2024, covering Carmel Spring Apartments, Laguna Reserve Apartments, and Laguna Creek Apartments. Together, the obligations under these two facilities comprise the Prepetition First Lien Loans. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were liable to CKD Funding in an amount not less than $8,961,204, secured by valid, perfected first-priority liens on substantially all of their assets.

In addition, CKD Funding acquired a junior loan originally made by Akiri Funds, LLC ("Akiri") to Chenault Creek on or about January 21, 2024, in the original principal amount of $3,635,475. That loan was amended and restated on March 12, 2024, to reflect a revised principal amount of $4,060,875.87 (the "Akiri Loan"), and was secured by a Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents, and Security Agreement dated March 13, 2024 (the "Akiri Mortgage"). The Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage were expressly subordinated to the DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan and DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage pursuant to a Subordination and Intercreditor Agreement dated April 4, 2024. Akiri sold and assigned the Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage to DH1 on September 6, 2024, who ultimately assigned the Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage to CKD Funding as part of the same March 2025 assignment from DH1 CKD Funding.

CKD Penn, LLC holds a junior mortgage on each of the NOLA Properties pursuant to a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and rents and Security Agreement dated August 16, 2024, which secures its guaranty of certain obligations owed by non-debtor affiliates of the Debtors.

Finally, Lakewind granted a mortgage on Laguna Reserve Apartments in favor of Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge Ltd. ("CIF") to secure a $4.5 million credit facility originally extended by CIF to Laguna Reserve pursuant to a Credit Agreement dated April 25, 2023. The mortgage was granted following a default by Laguna Reserve and was recorded on December 13, 2024. The CIF Lakewind Mortgage (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) is recognized by the Debtors, the Independent Fiduciary, CKD Funding, and CKD Penn as a valid, properly perfected lien, but only to the extent and subject to the conditions set forth in the NOLA DIP Order. Specifically, the CIF Lakewind Mortgage is junior to the Prepetition First Priority Liens (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) and the CKD Penn Junior Liens (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) and is recognized solely in accordance with the stipulations and reservations of rights contained in the NOLA DIP Order.

G. Prepetition Unsecured Obligations

As of the Petition Date, the Debtors' prepetition unsecured indebtedness consisted of: (a) the Notes, which are a series of three bond issuances, each made under a purported exemption from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, each of which is structured as a series of economically-identical bilateral agreements between the issuer and guarantor thereof, on the one hand, and each note purchaser (principally consisting of insurance companies and wealth management firms), on the other hand, and none of which possesses a trust indenture nor indenture trustee; (b) operating trade obligations; and (c) obligations to Lynd Management, LAGSP, and providers of professional services to or the payment of which was guaranteed by the Debtors.

VI. OVERVIEW OF THE CHAPTER 11 CASES

A. Commencement of Chapter 11 Cases

On the Petition Date, the Debtors commenced the Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors continue to manage their properties and operate their businesses as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. Joint Administration of the Chapter 11 Cases

On May 20, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking joint administration of their Chapter 11 Cases for procedural purposes only [Docket No. 7]. On May 27, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order granting the motion and directing that the cases be jointly administered under the lead case, In re CBRM Realty Inc., Case No. 25-15343 [Docket No. 51].

C. Complex Chapter 11 Case Designation and Procedures

On May 20, 2025, the Debtors submitted an application to designate the Chapter 11 Cases as complex Chapter 11 cases [Docket No. 10]. On May 28, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order granting the designation [Docket No. 57]. Subsequently, on June 9, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order implementing the Chapter 11 Complex Case Procedures [Docket No. 122].

D. Cash Management System

On May 23, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking authority to continue using their existing cash management system, maintain their existing bank accounts and business forms, honor related obligations in the ordinary course of business, and continue conducting intercompany transactions. The motion also requested that postpetition intercompany balances be granted superpriority administrative expense status pursuant to sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 30].

On May 28, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an interim order approving the requested relief on an interim basis [Docket No. 60]. Following a final hearing, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order on June 18, 2025, authorizing the Debtors to continue operating their cash management system and related practices on a final basis [Docket No. 165]. Pursuant to the final order, the Debtors were authorized to maintain their prepetition cash management structure, including all bank accounts and intercompany funding arrangements, and to continue using their existing checks and business forms, provided that they include a "Debtor in Possession" designation.

E. Authorization of Tenant Reimbursement and Business Operations

On May 23, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking authority to continue to operate their businesses in the ordinary course, including authority to pay certain prepetition obligations that are essential to ongoing operations and necessary to preserve the value of the estates [Docket No. 34] (the "Ordinary Course Motion"). This relief was critical to maintaining stable operations during the early stages of the Chapter 11 Cases and ensuring continuity of services across the Debtors' real estate portfolio.

Included within the scope of the Ordinary Course Motion was authorization for the Debtors to honor prepetition obligations to tenants, including obligations related to tenant reimbursements. Many of the Debtors' commercial leases contain provisions requiring the landlords to reimburse tenants for specific capital expenditures or tenant improvements, subject to defined lease terms and conditions. These reimbursements, while prepetition in origin, were viewed as essential to maintaining positive tenant relationships, avoiding litigation, and preserving the ongoing viability of tenancy arrangements that are foundational to the Debtors' revenue stream.

On June 18, 2025, following notice and a hearing, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order granting the Debtors authority to make tenant reimbursement payments consistent with the terms of applicable leases, and to continue administering and satisfying those obligations on a go-forward basis without the need for further Court approval [Docket No. 166]. On June 27, 2025, the Court entered a final order granting the Debtors authority to continue their prepetition business operations, policies, and practices, including the authorization to pay taxes and fees, vendor claims, and insurance obligations in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis [Docket No. 226].

F. Retention of Chapter 11 Professionals

The Debtors have obtained authority to retain various professionals to assist them in carrying out their duties under the Bankruptcy Code during these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors' professionals include: (i) White & Case LLP as bankruptcy counsel; (ii) Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey special counsel; and (iii) Verita as claims and noticing agent and administrative agent. In addition, the Debtors have filed applications to retain: (i) IslandDundon Partners LLC as restructuring advisor and investment banker; (ii)

Hilco Real Estate, LLC, as real estate advisor for the Kelly Hamilton Property (as defined below) and the NOLA Properties; and (iii) Larry G. Schedler & Associates, Inc.., as real estate broker for the NOLA Properties. The Debtors may seek to retain additional professionals.

G. DIP Financing Motion

On May 28, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 61] seeking authority to obtain two senior secured superpriority debtor-in-possession ("DIP") financing facilities from the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and the NOLA DIP Lenders, respectively.

On June 19, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court approved the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility on a final basis [Docket No. 178] (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Order"). Pursuant to the Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement, dated June 23, 2025, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility provides up to $9,705,162 in postpetition financing to the Debtors. The proceeds are to be used, among other things, to pay accrued and unpaid prepetition obligations to the prior secured lender, fund working capital, pay administrative and professional expenses in these Chapter 11 Cases, and preserve the value of low-income, HUD-subsidized multifamily housing owned by the Debtors.

The Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility is secured by first-priority, priming liens on substantially all assets of the Debtors (excluding certain litigation trust assets) and includes superpriority administrative expense claims under section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The facility provides that the obligations owed to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender are subject only to a defined Carve-Out and a limited reservation of rights respecting the Purported Spano Judgment Lien (as defined in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order).

On July 2, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court approved the NOLA DIP Facility on a final basis [Docket No. 251] (the "NOLA DIP Order"). Pursuant to the Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement, the NOLA DIP Facility provides for up to $17,422,728 in postpetition financing to Debtors Crown Capital, RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Windrun LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, and RH Lakewind East LLC. Of that amount, approximately $8,461,524 constitutes new money loans, with the remaining $8,961,204 representing a roll-up of obligations under the prepetition first lien loan facilities. The proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility are to be used to fund working capital, pay administrative and professional expenses in these Chapter 11 Cases, satisfy critical prepetition obligations, and preserve and stabilize the value of the NOLA Properties.

The NOLA DIP Facility is secured by first-priority, priming liens and includes superpriority administrative expense claims under section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The obligations under the NOLA DIP Facility are subject only to a defined Carve-Out and are governed by a budget and reporting protocol similar to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility. The final DIP order also provides for the roll-up of prepetition debt upon entry of the final order, without a novation or impairment of existing liens, and reserves certain rights with respect to potential litigation trust assets. For the avoidance of doubt, except to the extent that the NOLA DIP Facility has been indefeasibly repaid in full in Cash or the NOLA DIP Lenders and the Independent Fiduciary otherwise agree in writing, the Plan does not modify or otherwise affect any obligations of the Debtors arising under or related to the NOLA DIP Facility.

H. Utilities Motion

On June 10, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking entry of interim and final orders to establish adequate assurance procedures and to prevent utility companies from altering, refusing, or discontinuing service due to the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases [Docket No. 125] (the "Utilities Motion"). The Utilities Motion was critical to ensuring uninterrupted utility services to the Debtors' affordable housing projects across multiple states. The Debtors proposed to deposit approximately $67,025 into a segregated account as adequate assurance for utility providers, in addition to maintaining their historical payment practices.

On July 10, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order granting the relief requested in the Utilities Motion [Docket No. 279].

I. Lynd Management and LAGSP Contract Assumption

On June 11, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 128] seeking authority to assume critical prepetition property management and staffing contracts with Lynd Management and LAGSP, which provided essential onsite and centralized services to the Debtors' multifamily housing portfolio. The Debtors determined that assumption of these contracts was necessary to preserve value and maintain operational stability, particularly given Lynd Management and LAGSP's provision of critical property management and asset management services that are essential to maintaining compliance with regulatory requirements (including HUD requirements) and safeguarding resident health and safety. Continued engagement of Lynd Management and LAGSP was also integral to preserving the value of the Kelly Hamilton Property and the NOLA Properties and ensuring uninterrupted, compliant operations throughout the chapter 11 process.

On June 18, 2025, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 171] authorizing assumption of the contracts. In connection with that assumption, the Debtors agreed to pay a total cure amount of $953,000 to Lynd Management and LAGSP. Of that amount, $328,000 was payable in cash upon entry of the order, with the remaining $625,000 to be treated as an allowed administrative expense under sections 365(b) and 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and paid in accordance with the Plan's treatment of General Administrative Claims.

This arrangement provided immediate liquidity to Lynd Management and LAGSP and preserved its continued postpetition services while deferring the balance of the cure costs in a manner that aligned with the Debtors' liquidity constraints. The assumption of the Lynd Management and LAGSP contracts helped ensure continuity in essential property operations while supporting the Debtors' broader restructuring efforts.

J. Schedules and Statements and Claims Bar Dates

On June 27, 2025, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 227] approving the establishment of deadlines for filing proofs of claim. The order established: (i) 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on July 28, 2025, as the general bar date for all non-governmental creditors to file proofs of claim against the Debtors (the "Claims Bar Date"); (ii) 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on November 17, 2025, as the deadline for governmental units to file claims (the "Governmental Bar Date"); (iii) the later of (a) the Claims or Governmental Bar Date, as applicable, or (b) 30 days after entry of an order authorizing rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease, as the deadline for claims arising from such rejection (the "Rejection Damages Bar Date"); and (iv) the later of (a) the Claims or Governmental Bar Date, as applicable, or (b) 21 days following service of an amendment to a Debtor's Schedules, as the deadline for affected creditors to file claims in response (the "Amended Schedules Bar Date").

The Debtors intend to serve all required Bar Date Notices promptly upon entry of the Bar Date Order and have engaged Verita to facilitate notice and claims administration.

On June 24, 2025, the Debtors filed their Schedules of Assets and Liabilities and Statements of Financial Affairs (the "Schedules and Statements") pursuant to section 521 of the Bankruptcy Code. These filings included individual Schedules and Statements for Chenault, Windrun, Copper Creek, Lakewind, RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, and RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC [Docket Nos. 192-197].[5] The Schedules and Statements were prepared based on information available to the Debtors as of the Petition Date and are subject to further amendment or supplementation as discovery continues. Laguna Reserve anticipates filing its Schedules and Statements within the time permitted under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(c).

K. Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 11 Case of RH Lakewind East LLC

On June 1, 2025, CIF filed a motion to dismiss the Chapter 11 case of Lakewind pursuant to sections 1112(b) and 305(a) of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 87]. CIF alleged that Lakewind's bankruptcy petition was not filed in good faith and that dismissal was warranted based on purported bad faith and lack of legitimate reorganization purpose.

Following negotiations among the Debtors, CIF, and other stakeholders, and in connection with the settlement embodied in the NOLA DIP Order, CIF agreed to withdraw the motion with prejudice. Pursuant to paragraph 9 of the NOLA DIP Order, entry of that order constituted CIF's agreement to permanently withdraw its motion to dismiss and to waive further litigation or objection concerning the subject matter of that motion. Accordingly, the motion to dismiss was deemed withdrawn with prejudice upon entry of the NOLA DIP Order.

On June 25, 2025, CIF commenced the adversary proceeding styled Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge Ltd. and Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC v. CKD Funding, LLC and CKD Investor Penn LLC, Adv. Proc. No. 25-01269, asserting claims related to the financing structure of certain Crown Capital Portfolio entities.

The Debtors and other stakeholders disputed CIF's standing to prosecute the claims asserted in the adversary proceeding. Before any responsive pleadings were filed, CIF voluntarily dismissed the adversary proceeding on the basis that it lacked standing to pursue the asserted claims.

Thereafter, as part of the settlement embodied in the NOLA DIP Order, CIF agreed to waive and release any further challenges related to the subject matter of the adversary proceeding. Pursuant to paragraph 9 of the NOLA DIP Order, CIF also agreed not to initiate or pursue further litigation or objections concerning the Debtors' governance structure or restructuring process to the extent addressed in the adversary proceeding or resolved in connection with the settlement.

M. Retention and Compensation of Professionals

On July 8, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order Authorizing Employment and Payment of Professionals Utilized in the Ordinary Course of Business [Docket No. 270] (the "Ordinary Course Professionals Motion"). Pursuant to the Ordinary Course Professionals Motion, the Debtors sought authority to retain and compensate certain professionals utilized in the ordinary course of business without the need to file individual retention applications for each such professional, subject to certain procedures and monthly payment caps. On July 24, 2025, the Court entered an order granting the relief requested in the Ordinary Course Professionals Motion [Docket No. 270].

Also on July 8, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Administrative Fee Order Establishing Procedures for the Allowance and Payment of Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of

[5] The Schedules for Chenault Creek, Copper Creek, Lakewind, and Windrun were amended on July 31, 2025 [Docket Nos. 341-344] to reflect updates to Schedule E/F. Additional amendments may be made as necessary.

Expenses of Professionals Retained by Order of the Court [Docket No. 272] (the "Interim Compensation Motion"). The Interim Compensation Motion requested approval of procedures for the interim allowance and payment of fees and reimbursement of expenses of professionals retained pursuant to sections 327 and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code. On July 24, 2025, the Court entered an order granting the relief requested in the Interim Compensation Motion [Docket No. 324].

N. The CBRM Plan

On June 30, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed the initial CBRM Plan [Docket No. 246] and related disclosure statement [Docket No. 247] (the "CBRM Disclosure Statement"), in accordance with milestones set forth in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order.

On July 11, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed a motion seeking approval of procedures for the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Apartments, a multifamily affordable housing complex located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (the "Kelly Hamilton Property"), including a proposed stalking horse purchase agreement and related bid protections [Docket No. 281] (the "Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion"). That same day, the CBRM Debtors filed a motion seeking conditional approval of the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement and associated voting and solicitation procedures (the "Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion") [Docket No. 283].

On July 24, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed revised versions of the CBRM Plan and CBRM Disclosure Statement [Docket Nos. 320, 321], and the Bankruptcy Court held a hearing to consider approval of both the Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion and the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion. The Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the relief sought in the Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion [Docket No. 325] that same day, and on August 1, 2025, entered an order approving the revised relief requested in the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion [Docket No. 347], following submission of updated solicitation documents filed on July 30, 2025 and August 5, 2025, including the CBRM Disclosure Statement and CBRM Plan [Docket Nos. 339, 340, 360].

The bid deadline was August 14, 2025, and no additional qualified bids were received. Accordingly, the auction scheduled for August 18, 2025 will not be held. On August 15, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed a notice designating the stalking horse purchaser as the successful bidder [Docket No. 383]. Under the CBRM Plan, the Kelly Hamilton Property will be sold to the stalking horse purchaser, subject to Bankruptcy Court approval at the confirmation hearing set for September 4, 2025.

Distributions under the CBRM Plan will be funded from, among other sources, the proceeds of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction (as defined in the CBRM Plan) and the Creditor Recovery Trust. The CBRM Debtors are currently soliciting votes on the CBRM Plan, with a voting deadline of August 26, 2025.

O. Disputed Spano CBRM Claim and Spano Adversary Proceeding

As described in greater detail above, Acquiom obtained a prepetition judgment against CBRM in connection with guarantees provided under the Silber Credit Agreement, which judgment was subsequently assigned to Spano. That judgment included, among other actions, a scheduled sheriff's sale of CBRM's equity interests in Crown Capital that was stayed by the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases.

On July 15, 2025, Spano filed a proof of claim against CBRM (Claim No. 4), asserting a secured claim in the amount of approximately $21.1 million based on the prepetition judgment and a purported lien. In response, on July 18, 2025, CBRM filed a complaint in the Bankruptcy Court against Spano and Acquiom, initiating an adversary proceeding captioned CBRM Realty Inc. v. Spano Investor LLC (In re CBRM Realty Inc.), Adv. Pro. No. 25-01295, Case No. 25-15343 (Bankr. D.N.J. July 18, 2025) (the "Spano Adversary Proceeding") [Adv. Dkt. No. 1] (the "Complaint").

The Complaint alleges, among other things, that in June 2022, Mr. Silber entered into a credit agreement with Acquiom and certain lenders and subsequently received an aggregate amount of $19 million of loan proceeds prior to November 2023. In November 2023, Mr. Silber caused CBRM to become a guarantor under the credit agreement via an amendment to the governing guaranty agreement. Mr. Silber also received an additional $7.75 million of loan proceeds under the credit agreement. In May 2025, Acquiom filed suit against the guarantors in New York state court under the relevant loan documents. On September 5, 2024, Acquiom received a judgment against the guarantors, including CBRM, in the amount of approximately $21 million. Acquiom subsequently assigned the judgment to Spano. On or around December 13, 2024, Spano delivered a property execution letter to the Rockland County Sheriff, resulting in a purported judgment lien on CBRM's property. The corresponding levy was served on CBRM's counsel, White & Case LLP, on January 15, 2025. The Complaint alleges that the levy expired 90 days after service if CBRM's property was not transferred to the sheriff—and that no such transfer occurred.

The Complaint seeks to avoid CBRM's guaranty as a constructively fraudulent transfer pursuant to sections 544 and 548 of the Bankruptcy Code and to avoid the purported judgment lien as unperfected as of the Petition Date under section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition, the Complaint seeks disallowance of Spano's proof of claim in its entirety or, in the alternative, a determination that Spano holds only an unsecured claim.

The Complaint asserts five causes of action, including: (i) avoidance and recovery of the guaranty as a constructively fraudulent transfer under sections 544, 548, 550, and 551, against Spano and Acquiom; (ii) avoidance and recovery of the purported lien under sections 544, 550, and 551, against Spano and Acquiom; (iii) disallowance of the defendants' claims under section 502(d), against Spano and Acquiom; (iv) disallowance of Spano's claim under section 502(b), against Spano; and (v) recharacterization and/or disallowance of Spano's claim as unsecured under sections 502 and 506, against Spano.

Spano disputes all of the allegations asserted in the Spano Adversary Proceeding and has expressly reserved all rights, claims, and defenses in connection therewith.

On July 30, 2025, the Debtors, Spano, and Acquiom executed the Stipulation and Agreed Order Among the Debtors, Spano Investor LLC, and Acquiom Agency Services LLC to Stay Adversary Proceeding and Resolve Certain Claims Treatment Issues, which was filed with the Bankruptcy Court and was entered on July 31, 2025 [Docket No. 345] (the "Spano Stipulation"). Pursuant to the Spano Stipulation, the Spano CBRM Claim (as defined in the CBRM Plan) shall be deemed Allowed in the amount of $21,118,881.01 solely for voting purposes under section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, without prejudice to Spano's position that its Claim is secured and supported by valid, enforceable liens and security interests. The CBRM Plan was amended to provide for a separate class for the Spano CBRM Claim, and Spano has agreed to vote to accept the CBRM Plan in that class. The Spano Stipulation expressly reserves all parties' rights with respect to the classification, allowability, priority, and secured status of the Spano CBRM Claim.

The Spano Adversary Proceeding and related claim objections have been stayed in their entirety and may resume only if, after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee makes a good-faith determination that value is available for distribution to creditors of CBRM after the payment in full of all Allowed Claims against CBRM's subsidiaries. Spano will receive thirty (30) days' advance written notice of such determination and may file an objection with the Bankruptcy Court within thirty (30) days of receiving such notice. If the Creditor Recovery Trustee determines no such value is available, the Spano Adversary Proceeding shall be dismissed with prejudice. If value is determined to be available, the Spano Adversary Proceeding shall resume in accordance with a mutually agreed-upon schedule, unless otherwise resolved.

On August 7, 2025, the Debtors filed the Notice of Entry of Stipulation and Agreed Order Among the Debtors, Spano Investor LLC, and Acquiom Agency Services LLC to Stay Adversary Proceeding and Resolve Certain Claims Treatment Issues [Adv. Dkt. No. 5].

P. Pleadings Relating to Moshe (Mark) Silber

On July 18, 2025, Mr. Silber, acting pro se, filed the Motion of Party in Interest Moshe ("Mark") Silber for Issuance of a Subpoena Duces Tecum Pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004(C) and 9016 [Docket No. 298] (the "Silber Rule 2004 Motion") for an order compelling discovery under Rule 2004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure from Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, and LAGSP. The Silber Rule 2004 Motion seeks records from Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, and LAGSP relating to a range of topics relating to the Debtors and non-Debtor affiliates, as well as all communications regarding these topics between or among Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, LAGSP, and IslandDundon LLC. The hearing on the Silber Rule 2004 Motion was originally scheduled for August 14, 2025.

On July 25, 2025, Mr. Silber, acting pro se, filed the Motion of Party in Interest Moshe ("Mark") Silber for Appointment of an Equity Security Holders Committee or, in the Alternative, Appointment of Counsel [Docket No. 348] (the "Silber Equity Committee Motion") seeking appointment of an equity committee in these Chapter 11 Cases or, in the alternative, the appointment of counsel for Mr. Silber pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(1). Upon the filing of the Silber Equity Committee Motion, the Court adjourned the hearing on the Silber Rule 2004 Motion to August 21, 2025, to hear both motions on the same day.

On July 29, 2025, the Debtors served a Subpoena for Rule 2004 Examination on Mr. Silber, which had a response deadline of August 15, 2025. See Notice of Service of Subpoena Pursuant to L.R. 2004-1 [Docket No. 337].

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed objections to the Silber Rule 2004 Motion [Docket No. 374] and the Silber Equity Committee Motion [Docket No. 375]. The Debtors have offered to produce limited documents responsive to Mr. Silber's proposed requests.

On August 14, 2025, the U.S. Trustee also objected to the Silber Equity Committee Motion. Docket No. 377.

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 378] (the "Motion for Leave") seeking entry of an order granting the Debtors leave to depose Mr. Silber, who is currently confined in prison, at the site of his incarceration between August 25, 2025, and August 29, 2025. The Motion for Leave will be heard on August 21, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Objection to Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230 of Moshe Mark Silber [Docket No. 372] (the "Silber Claim Objection") and Declaration of Matthew Dundon, Principal of IslandDundon LLC, in Support of the Debtors' Objection to Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230 of Moshe Mark Silber [Docket No. 373], seeking entry of an order disallowing the three Proofs of Claim filed by Mr. Silber (i.e., Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230) (collectively, the "Silber Claims"). Each of the Silber Claims asserts a purported unsecured claim of $3,989,175.00 for tax liabilities allegedly arising from the sale of a property. Proof of Claim No. 216 was superseded by a later filing and Proof of Claim No. 230 is duplicative. As to the remaining Proof of Claim No. 229, Mr. Silber did not attach sufficient support to the claim to constitute prima facie validity of a claim and the claim seeks amounts for which the Debtors are not liable. Accordingly, the Debtors seek to disallow the Silber Claims in their entirety to avoid duplicative or unwarranted recoveries. A hearing to consider the Silber Claim Objection is set for September 22, 2025, at 11:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

Q. NOLA Bidding Procedures

On July 30, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 350] seeking entry of the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order approving bidding procedures (the "NOLA Bidding Procedures")[6] in connection with a potential sale of one or more of the NOLA Properties. Such sale may be implemented either under a chapter 11 plan or as a standalone transaction pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. The NOLA Bidding Procedures are intended to facilitate a competitive and value-maximizing process through which interested parties may submit bids to acquire one or more of the NOLA Properties. The process ensures that all qualified bids are solicited, reviewed, and evaluated in a manner consistent with the milestones and confirmation timeline outlined in this Disclosure Statement and the associated solicitation procedures. To date, the Debtors have not entered into a stalking horse agreement with a stalking horse bidder for the NOLA Properties, and the Debtors may consider proposals for one or more of the NOLA Properties.

The Court entered the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order on August 15, 2025 [Docket No. 382]. Pursuant to the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order, the Bid Deadline is September 11, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). If one or more Qualifying Bids are received, the Debtors will conduct an auction on September 15, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Debtors will file and serve a notice of any Successful Bidder and Back-Up Bidder no later than September 16, 2025. To the extent applicable, the hearing to consider approval of a sale pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code is scheduled for September 22, 2025 at 11:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). Alternatively, if the potential sale is to be consummated through the Plan, the confirmation and sale hearing is scheduled for October 22, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

R. Chapter 11 Filing for Laguna Reserve

Following the Petition Date, Debtors' counsel, in coordination with LAGSP, determined that Lakewind is a subsidiary of Laguna Reserve and that Debtor Crown Capital Holdings LLC owns 100% of the equity interests in Laguna Reserve. Accordingly, on August 17, 2025, the Debtors filed a voluntary petition under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code for Laguna Reserve. Concurrently therewith, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for an Order (A) Applying Certain Orders in Initial Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases to Debtor Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC and (B) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 387] (the "Omnibus First Day Motion"). The Omnibus First Day Motion seeks to apply to Laguna Reserve's chapter 11 case certain orders previously entered in the chapter 11 cases, in order to avoid duplicative filings, reduce administrative burdens on the Bankruptcy Court and parties in interest, and streamline case administration.

VII. SUMMARY OF THE MATERIAL TERMS OF THE PLAN

The Plan provides for the implementation of the NOLA Sale Transaction—a court-supervised sale of one or more of the NOLA Properties pursuant to the Plan or as a standalone sale under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code as set forth in the NOLA Purchase Agreement. The Debtors are conducting the sale process in accordance with the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order.

No stalking horse bidder has been designated. If one or more qualified bids are received, the Debtors will conduct an auction to determine the highest or otherwise best offer. The successful bidder may acquire one or more of the NOLA Properties.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (1) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan and (2) except as to any member of the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes who opted to grant the releases contained in Article VIII.D of the Plan, the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members (whether or not any such member affirmatively voted to accept the Plan) shall not release nor be deemed to release any claim or cause of action that any such holders may hold against the Asset Manager or the Property Manager and such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals.

Pursuant to section 362(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the automatic stay of an act against property of the Debtors' estates will continue until such property is no longer property of the Debtors' estates, and pursuant to section 362(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, the stay of any other act described in section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code continues until the earlier of the closure or dismissal of these Chapter 11 Cases. In addition, as of the Effective Date and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Plan or the Confirmation Order, all Persons and Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that are fully satisfied pursuant to the Plan or any Claim or Interest that is subject to the releases and exculpations set forth in the Plan shall be precluded and permanently enjoined on and after the Effective Date from enforcing, pursuing, or seeking any setoff or relief with respect to such Claims or Interests, except for the receipt of the payments or Distributions that are contemplated by the Plan.

IX. CERTAIN TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN

A. General Tax Considerations

The following discussion is a summary of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences from the consummation of the Plan to Holders entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust, is for general information purposes only, and should not be relied upon for purposes of determining the specific tax consequences of the Plan with respect to a particular Holder of a Claim. This discussion does not purport to be a complete analysis or listing of all potential tax considerations. This discussion does not address aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to a particular Holder of a Claim subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws (such as broker dealers; traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting for securities holdings; banks; thrifts; insurance companies; financial institutions; regulated investment companies; real estate investment trusts; pension plans; partnerships (or other entities or arrangements treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) or a partner, member or owner therein; persons that hold a Claim as part of a straddle or a hedging, conversion or constructive sale transaction; persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar and other tax exempt investors). This summary does not discuss any aspects of state, local or foreign tax laws or any U.S. federal estate or gift tax considerations. Furthermore, this summary does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to a Holder of a Claim, such as the potential application of the alternative minimum tax.

This discussion is based on existing provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "IRC"), existing and proposed Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, and current administrative rulings and court decisions. Legislative, judicial, or administrative changes or interpretations enacted or promulgated after the date hereof could alter or modify the analyses set forth below with respect to the federal income tax consequences of the Plan. Any such changes or interpretations may be retroactive and could significantly affect the federal income tax consequences of the Plan.

No ruling has been or will be requested or obtained from the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") with respect to any tax aspects of the Plan and no opinion of counsel has been or will be sought or obtained with respect thereto. No representations or assurances are being made to the Holders of Claims or Interests with respect to the U.S. federal income tax consequences described herein.

B. U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to Holders of Claims

1. Consequences of U.S. Holders of Claims

For purposes of this discussion, a "U.S. Holder" is a beneficial owner of a Claim that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

- an individual citizen or resident of the United States;
- a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state therein or the District of Columbia;
- an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or
- a trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over its administration and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or otherwise if the trust has a valid election in effect under current Treasury regulations to be treated as a United States person.

A "Non-U.S. Holder" is any Holder that is not a U.S. Holder or a partnership (or other entity treated as a partnership or other pass-through entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes). If a partnership (or other entity treated as a partnership or other pass-through entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is a Holder of a Claim, the tax treatment of a partner (or other beneficial owner) generally will depend upon the status of the partner (or other beneficial owner) and the activities of the partner (or other beneficial owner) and the entity. Partners (or other beneficial owners) of partnerships (or other pass-through entities) that are Holders of Claims should consult their respective tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Plan.

The federal income tax consequences of the implementation of the Plan to a U.S. Holder of Claims will depend, among other things, upon the origin of the Holder's Claim, when the Holder receives payment in respect of such Claim, whether the Holder reports income using the accrual or cash method of tax accounting, whether the Holder acquired its Claim at a discount and whether the Holder has taken a bad debt deduction with respect to such Claim.

(a) CIF Mortgage Loan Claims

Each Holder of a CIF Mortgage Loan Claim will be entitled to receive proceeds from the sale of the Lakewind Property in excess of the amount necessary to satisfy all Allowed NOLA DIP Claims, Allowed General Administrative Claims, Allowed Priority Tax Claims, Allowed Other Priority Claims, and Allowed Other Secured Claims in full in Cash on the Effective Date, and, to the extent such excess cash is insufficient to satisfy the Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claims in full, each holder's pro rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution to holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan.

Holders of CIF Mortgage Loan Claims generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the amount of any Cash received by the Holder (other than any consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income).

(b) NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims

Each Holder of a NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claim will be entitled to receive substantially all assets of Debtors Chenault Creek, Copper Creek, Lakewind, and Windrun pursuant to the NOLA Purchase Agreement. The NOLA Purchase Agreement will set forth the specific terms of the transaction, which may include the assumption of certain liabilities and the payment of cure amounts for assigned executory contracts, among other provisions.

Holders of NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims generally will recognize gain or loss on the receipt of such assets in exchange for their Claims in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the fair market value on the date of the exchange of such assets, less any liabilities (other than in consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income). Holders of NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims are expected to have a fair market value tax basis in the assets acquired.

(c) Other NOLA Unsecured Claims

Each Holder of an Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan.

Holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the amount of any Cash received by the Holder (other than any consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income).

(d) Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims

Each Holder of an Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claim and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan).

As described more fully below, Holders of Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claim and Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the fair market value of each Holder's Pro Rata Share of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (other than any consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income).

When gain or loss is recognized, such gain or loss may be long-term capital gain or loss if the Claim disposed of is a capital asset in the hands of the U.S. Holder and has been held for more than one year (subject to the rules discussed below regarding market discount). Each U.S. Holder of a Claim should consult its own tax advisor to determine whether gain or loss recognized by such Holder will be long-term capital gain or loss and the specific tax effect thereof on such Holder.

(i) Character of Gain or Loss

When gain or loss is recognized by a U.S. Holder, the character of such gain or loss as long-term or short-term capital gain or loss or as ordinary income or loss is determined by a number of factors, including the tax status of the U.S. Holder, whether the U.S. Holder's Claim constitutes a capital asset in the hands of the U.S. Holder and how long it has been held, whether such Claim was acquired at a market discount, and whether and to what extent the U.S. Holder previously claimed a bad debt deduction in respect of the Claim. Each U.S. Holder of a Claim should consult its own tax advisor to determine whether gain or loss recognized by such Holder will be long-term capital gain or loss and the specific tax effect thereof on such Holder.

(ii) Accrued but Unpaid Interest

Pursuant to Article VI.F of the Plan, all distributions in respect of Allowed Claims will be allocated first to the principal amount of the Allowed Claim (as determined for federal income tax purposes), with any excess allocated to accrued but unpaid interest. There is no assurance, however, that such allocation would be respected by the IRS for federal income tax purposes. In general, to the extent any amount received (whether cash or other property) by a U.S. Holder of a debt instrument is received in satisfaction of accrued interest during its holding period, such amount will be taxable to the Holder as interest income (if not previously included in the Holder's gross income under the Holder's normal method of accounting). Conversely, a U.S. Holder generally recognizes a deductible loss to the extent any accrued interest claimed was previously included in its gross income and is not paid in full. Each U.S. Holder of Claims is urged to consult its own tax advisor regarding the allocation of consideration and the taxation or deductibility of unpaid interest for tax purposes.

(iii) Market Discount

U.S. Holders of Claims receive Cash or other property in respect of their Claims may be affected by the "market discount" provisions of the sections 1276 through 1278 of the IRC. Under these rules, some or all of the gain realized by a U.S. Holder may be treated as ordinary income (instead of capital gain), to the extent of the amount of "market discount" on such Claims.

In general, a debt obligation with a fixed maturity of more than one year that is acquired by a holder on the secondary market (or, in certain circumstances, upon original issuance) is considered to be acquired with "market discount" as to that holder if the debt obligation's stated redemption price at maturity (or revised issue price, in the case of a debt obligation issued with original issue discount) exceeds the tax basis of the debt obligation in the holder's hands immediately after its acquisition. However, a debt obligation will not be a "market discount bond" if such excess is less than a statutory de minimis amount (equal to 0.25 percent of the debt obligation's stated redemption price at maturity or revised issue price, in the case of a debt obligation issued with original issue discount).

Any gain recognized by a U.S. Holder on the taxable disposition of Claims (determined as described above) that were acquired with market discount should be treated as ordinary income to the extent of the market discount that accrued thereon while the Claims were considered to be held by a U.S. Holder (unless the U.S. Holder elected to include market discount in income as it accrued).

(iv) Limitation on Use of Capital Losses

A U.S. Holder who recognizes capital losses will be subject to limits on their use of capital losses. For a non-corporate U.S. Holder, capital losses may be used to offset any capital gains (without regard to holding periods) plus ordinary income to the extent of the lesser of (a) $3,000 ($1,500 for married individuals filing separate returns) or (b) the excess of the capital losses over the capital gains. A non-corporate U.S. Holder may carry over unused capital losses and apply them to capital gains and a portion of their ordinary income for an unlimited number of years. For corporate U.S. Holders, losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets may only be used to offset capital gains. A corporate U.S. Holder who has more capital losses than can be used in a tax year may be allowed to carry over the excess capital losses for use in succeeding tax years. Corporate U.S. Holders may only carry over unused capital losses for the five years following the capital loss year, but are allowed to carry back unused capital losses to the three years preceding the capital loss year.

(v) Medicare Tax

Certain U.S. Holders that are individuals, estates, or trusts are required to pay an additional 3.8 percent tax on, among other things, interest, dividends and gains from the sale or other disposition of capital assets. U.S. Holders that are individuals, estates, or trusts should consult their own tax advisors regarding the effect, if any, of this tax provision on their ownership and disposition of any consideration to be received under the Plan.

2. Consequences to Non-U.S. Holders of Claims.

The following discussion addresses some of the U.S. federal income tax consequences to a beneficial owner of a Claim is a Non-U.S. Holder. The following discussion includes only certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Plan to Non-U.S. Holders. This discussion does not include any non-U.S. tax considerations. The rules governing the U.S. federal income tax consequences to Non-U.S. Holders are complex. Each Non-U.S. Holder is urged to consult its own tax advisor regarding the U.S. federal, state, local, non-U.S., and non-income tax consequences of the consummation of the Plan to such Non-U.S. Holder.

(a) Gain Realized / Income Allocated to Non-U.S. Holders

Whether a non-U.S. Holder realizes gain or loss on the exchange and the amount of such gain or loss is generally determined in the same manner as set forth above in connection with U.S. Holders.

(b) Gain/Income Recognition by Non-U.S. Holders

Any gain realized by a Non-U.S. Holder on the exchange of its Claim generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income taxation unless: (a) except as otherwise covered by clause (b) below, (i) with respect to capital gains, the Non-U.S. Holder is an individual who was present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year in which the Plan becomes effective and certain other conditions are met or (ii) with respect to income other than capital gains, the income is otherwise deemed to be derived from U.S. sources, or (b) such gain and/or income is effectively connected with the conduct by such Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business in the United States (and, if an income tax treaty applies, such gain is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by such Non-U.S. Holder in the United States).

If the first exception applies, the Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a rate of 30 percent (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty) on the amount by which such Non-U.S. Holder's capital gains allocable to U.S. sources exceed capital losses allocable to U.S. sources during the taxable year of the exchange. If the second exception applies, the Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax with respect to any gain realized on the exchange if such gain is effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States in the same manner as a U.S. Holder. In order to claim an exemption from withholding tax, such Non-U.S. Holder will be required to provide a properly executed IRS Form W-8ECI (or such successor form as the IRS designates). In addition, if such a Non-U.S. Holder is a corporation, it may be subject to a "branch profits tax" equal to 30 percent (or such lower rate provided by an applicable income tax treaty) of its effectively connected earnings and profits for the taxable year, subject to certain adjustments.

(c) Accrued Interest

Subject to the discussion of backup withholding and FATCA below, payments to a Non-U.S. Holder that are attributable to accrued but unpaid interest with respect to the Claims generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax; provided that the withholding agent has received or receives, prior to payment, appropriate documentation (generally, IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E) establishing that the Non-U.S. Holder is not a U.S. person, unless:

- the Non-U.S. Holder actually or constructively owns 10 percent or more of the capital or profits interest in the "regarded" owner of the applicable Debtor for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- the Non-U.S. Holder is a "controlled foreign corporation" that is a "related person" with respect to the Owner (each, within the meaning of the IRC);
- the Non-U.S. Holder is a bank receiving interest described in IRC Section 881(c)(3)(A); or
- such interest is effectively connected with the conduct by the Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business within the United States (in which case, provided the Non-U.S. Holder provides a properly executed IRS Form W-8ECI (or successor form) to the withholding agent, the Non-U.S. Holder (x) generally will not be subject to withholding tax, but (y) will be subject to U.S. federal income tax in the same manner as a U.S. Holder (unless an applicable income tax treaty provides otherwise), and a Non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes may also be subject to a branch profits tax with respect to such Non-U.S. Holder's effectively connected earnings and profits that are attributable to the accrued interest at a rate of 30% (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty)).

A Non-U.S. Holder that does not qualify for the exemption from withholding tax with respect to accrued but unpaid interest that is not effectively connected income generally will be subject to withholding of U.S. federal income tax at a 30% rate (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty) on any payments that are attributable to accrued but unpaid interest. For purposes of providing a properly executed IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E, special procedures are provided under applicable Treasury Regulations for payments through qualified foreign intermediaries or certain financial institutions that hold customers' securities in the ordinary course of their trade or business. In addition, a corporate Non-U.S. Holder may, under certain circumstances, be subject to an additional "branch profits tax" at a 30 percent rate (or such lower rate provided by an applicable income tax treaty) on its effectively connected earnings and profits attributable to such interest (subject to adjustments).

The certifications described above must be provided to the applicable withholding agent prior to the payment of interest. Non-U.S. Holders that do not timely provide the applicable withholding agent with the required certification, but that qualify for a reduced rate under an applicable income tax treaty, may obtain a refund of any excess amounts withheld by timely filing an appropriate claim for refund with the IRS. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding their entitlement to benefits under any applicable income tax treaty.

Under the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA"), foreign financial institutions and certain other foreign entities must report certain information with respect to their U.S. account holders and investors or be subject to withholding at a rate of 30 percent on the receipt of "withholdable payments."

For this purpose, "withholdable payments" are generally U.S.-source payments of fixed or determinable, annual or periodical income. FATCA withholding will apply even if the applicable payment would not otherwise be subject to U.S. federal nonresident withholding. Each Non-U.S. Holder should consult its own tax advisor regarding the possible impact of these rules on such Non-U.S. Holder's exchange of its Claim.

3. Creditor Recovery Trust

Subject to any applicable law or definitive guidance from the IRS or a court of competent jurisdiction to the contrary, the Debtors expect to treat the Creditor Recovery Trust as a "liquidating trust" under section 301.7701-4(d) of the Treasury Regulations and a grantor trust under section 671 of the IRC, and the trustee of the Creditor Recovery Trust will take a position on the Creditor Recovery Trust's tax return accordingly. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the transfer of assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust will be deemed to occur as (a) a first-step transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Holders of the applicable Claims, and (b) a second-step transfer by such Holders to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

No request for a ruling from the IRS is expected to be sought on the classification of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the IRS would not take a contrary position regarding the classification of the Creditor Recovery Trust. If the IRS were to successfully challenge the classification of the Creditor Recovery as a grantor trust, the federal income tax consequences to the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries could vary from those discussed in the Plan (including the potential for an entity-level tax). For example, the IRS could characterize the Creditor Recovery Trust as a so-called "complex trust" subject to a separate entity-level tax on its earnings, except to the extent that such earnings are distributed during the taxable year.

As soon as possible after the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, the trustee(s) of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall make a good faith valuation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. This valuation will be made available from time to time, as relevant for tax reporting purposes. Each of the Debtors, the trustee(s) of the Creditor Recovery Trust, and the Holders of Claims receiving interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust shall take consistent positions with respect to the valuation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and such valuations shall be utilized for all U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Allocations of taxable income and loss of the Creditor Recovery Trust among the Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries shall be determined, as closely as possible, by reference to the amount of distributions that would be received by each such beneficiary if the Creditor Recovery Trust had sold all of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets at their tax book value and distributed the proceeds to the Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries, adjusted for prior taxable income and loss and taking into account all prior and concurrent distributions from the Creditor Recovery Trust. The tax book value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets shall equal their fair market value on the date of the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, adjusted in accordance with tax accounting principles prescribed by the IRC, applicable Treasury Regulations, and other applicable administrative and judicial authorities and pronouncements.

The Creditor Recovery Trust shall in no event be dissolved later than five (5) years from the creation of such Creditor Recovery Trust unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion within the six (6) month period prior to the fifth (5th) anniversary (or within the six (6) month period prior to the end of an extension period), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed five (5) years, together with any prior extensions, without a favorable private letter ruling from the IRS or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the trustee(s) of the Creditor Recovery Trust that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of the trust as a Creditor Recovery trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the recovery and liquidation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

The Creditor Recovery Trust will file annual information tax returns with the IRS as a grantor trust pursuant to section 1.671-4(a) of the Treasury Regulations that will include information concerning certain items relating to the holding or disposition (or deemed disposition) of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (e.g., income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit). Each Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiary holding a beneficial interest in the Creditor Recovery Trust will receive a copy of the information returns and must report on its federal income tax return its share of all such items. The information provided by the Creditor Recovery Trust will pertain to Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries who receive their interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust in connection with the Plan.

4. Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Under the backup withholding rules, a Holder of a Claim may be subject to backup withholding with respect to Distributions or payments made pursuant to the Plan unless that Holder: (a) comes within certain exempt categories (which generally include corporations) and, when required, demonstrates that fact, or (b) provides a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies under penalty of perjury that the taxpayer identification number is correct and that the Holder is not subject to backup withholding because of a failure to report all dividend and interest income. Backup withholding is not an additional tax, but merely an advance payment that may be refunded to the extent it results in an overpayment of tax.

The foregoing discussion is intended only as a summary of certain income tax consequences of the Plan and is not a substitute for careful tax planning with a tax professional. The above discussion is for informational purposes only and is not tax advice. The tax consequences are in many cases uncertain and may vary depending on a Holder's particular circumstances. Accordingly, Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors about the United States federal, state and local, and applicable foreign income and other tax consequences of the Plan.

X. RISK FACTORS

Before voting to accept or reject the Plan, Holders of Claims or Interests entitled to vote should read and carefully consider the risk factors set forth below, in addition to the information set forth in this Disclosure Statement together with any attachments, exhibits, or documents incorporated by reference hereto. The factors below should not be regarded as the only risks associated with the Plan or its implementation.

A. Risks Relating to the Debtors' Business Operations and Financial Condition

1. General Economic Conditions

The Debtors' ability to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction may be affected by broader macroeconomic conditions, including rising interest rates, inflationary pressures, labor market disruptions, volatility in the housing market, investor sentiment, and geopolitical instability. Such factors may negatively impact real estate valuations, the availability of financing, and the willingness of potential purchasers to consummate transactions on favorable terms. While the Plan assumes a relatively stable economic environment, no assurance can be given that such conditions will continue through the expected closing.

2. Risk of Failure to Consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction

The Plan is based on the successful execution of the NOLA Sale Transaction in accordance with the Court-approved Bidding Procedures, which may be implemented either under a chapter 11 plan or as a standalone transaction pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. To date, the Debtors have not entered into a stalking horse agreement for the NOLA Properties, and there is no assurance that a qualified bid will be submitted or that the auction process will yield a value-maximizing transaction.

If the Debtors are unable to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction—whether due to a lack of qualified bids, termination of a purchase agreement, failure to satisfy closing conditions, or failure to obtain necessary Bankruptcy Court approval—the Debtors may face significant liquidity constraints. In that event, the Debtors may be forced to pursue an alternative restructuring strategy or, if none is viable, convert these Chapter 11 Cases to chapter 7 liquidation. Any such alternative could result in delayed, diminished, or uncertain recoveries for creditors compared to those anticipated under the Plan.

3. Limited Continuing Operations

Following the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, the Debtors do not expect to continue operations as going concerns. As a result, many risks typically associated with ongoing business activities—such as tenant turnover, market competition, or long-term access to capital—are less relevant. However, operational issues arising prior to the Effective Date, including delays in closing or transitional disruptions, could adversely impact Plan implementation and creditor recoveries.

4. Performance of Property Manager

The Debtors rely on their property manager, Lynd Management, to manage day-to-day operations of the NOLA Properties. Any failure by Lynd Management to perform its obligations under the property management agreements—whether due to operational, financial, or staffing issues—could impair property performance, impact tenant relations, and reduce the attractiveness of the NOLA Properties to potential buyers. Such issues could, in turn, delay or reduce proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction.

B. Risks Related to Bankruptcy Law

1. Risk of Non-Confirmation of the Plan

Although the Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies all requirements necessary for confirmation by the Bankruptcy Court, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion or that modifications to the Plan will not be required for confirmation or that such modifications would not necessitate re-solicitation of votes. Moreover, the Debtors can make no assurances that they will receive the requisite acceptances to confirm the Plan, and even if all Voting Classes vote in favor of the Plan or the requirements for "cram down" are met with respect to any Class that rejects or is deemed to reject the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court may exercise discretion as a court of equity and choose not to confirm the Plan. If the Plan is not confirmed, it is unclear what distributions Holders of Claims or Interests would ultimately receive with respect to their Claims or Interests in a subsequent plan of reorganization or otherwise.

2. Non-Consensual Confirmation

If any impaired class of Claims or Interests does not accept or is deemed not to accept a plan of reorganization, a Bankruptcy Court may nevertheless confirm such plan at the proponent's request if at least one impaired class has accepted the plan (with such acceptance being determined without including the vote of any "insider" in such class), and as to each impaired class that has not accepted the plan, the Bankruptcy Court determines that the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" with respect to the dissenting impaired classes. If any Class votes to reject or is deemed to reject the Plan, then these requirements must be satisfied with respect to such rejecting Class. The Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies these requirements.

3. Risk Related to Wind-Down and Plan Implementation

The Plan contemplates a Wind-Down of the Debtors' Estates following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, including the creation of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Execution of the Wind-Down and administration of post-Effective Date responsibilities depends on various factors, including sufficient funding and the ability of the Creditor Recovery Trustee to realize value from retained causes of action. Delays, disputes, or unforeseen liabilities could reduce the proceeds ultimately available to distribute to creditors.

4. Risk That the CBRM Plan Will Not Be Confirmed and Become Effective

This Plan has been developed in coordination with the CBRM Plan. Pursuant to the CBRM Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan to assume all liability of the CBRM Debtors and their estates for, and to administer, all CBRM Unsecured Claims.

Under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the Debtors will transfer to the Creditor Recovery Trust (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any).

If the CBRM Plan is not confirmed or does not become effective, the Debtors will implement an alternative, court-approved mechanism to administer and distribute the assets that would otherwise have been transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such mechanism may include establishing a similar trust under the Plan or another structure designed to maximize value for stakeholders. This could result in delays, increased administrative costs, and reduced recoveries for creditors, as well as potential changes to the priority and allocation of distributions compared to the structure contemplated under the CBRM Plan.

5. Allowed Claims Could Exceed Estimates

There can be no assurance that the Allowed amount of Claims participating in distributions will not be significantly more than projected, which in turn, could cause the value of distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims whose treatment is limited to distributions from a specified recovery source to be reduced. Inevitably, some assumptions will not materialize, and unanticipated events and circumstances may affect the ultimate results and total amount of Claims against the Debtors' Estates. Therefore, the actual amount of Allowed Claims may vary from the Debtors' projections and feasibility analysis, and the variation may be material.

6. U.S. Federal Income Tax Risks

The tax consequences of the Plan to the Debtors and to Holders of Claims and Interests may vary depending on the individual's tax situation and are subject to significant uncertainties. Parties in interest should consult their own tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal, state, local, and non-U.S. income and other tax consequences of the Plan, including any income that may arise from the receipt of distributions or interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust.

7. Risk of Non-Occurrence of the Effective Date

Although the Debtors believe that the Effective Date will occur soon after the Confirmation Date, there can be no assurance as to the timing of the Effective Date. If the conditions precedent to the Effective Date set forth in the Plan have not occurred or have not been waived as set forth in Article IX.B of the Plan, then the Confirmation Order may be vacated, in which event no distributions would be made under the Plan, the Debtors and all Holders of Claims or Interests would be restored to the status quo as of the day immediately preceding the Confirmation Date, and the Debtors' obligations with respect to Claims and Interests would remain unchanged.

8. Conversion into Chapter 7 Cases

If no plan of reorganization can be confirmed, or if the Bankruptcy Court otherwise finds that it would be in the best interest of Holders of Claims and Interests, some or all of the Chapter 11 Cases may be converted to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, pursuant to which a trustee would be appointed or elected to liquidate the Debtors' assets for distribution in accordance with the priorities established by the Bankruptcy Code.

9. Parties in Interest May Object to the Plan's Classification of Claims and Interests

Section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a plan may place a claim or an equity interest in a particular class only if such claim or equity interest is substantially similar to the other claims or equity interests in such class. The Debtors believe that the classification of the Claims and Interests under the Plan complies with the requirements set forth in the Bankruptcy Code because the Debtors created Classes of Claims and Interests each encompassing Claims or Interests, as applicable, that are substantially similar to the other Claims or Interests, as applicable, in each such Class. Nevertheless, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion.

10. The Debtors May Fail to Satisfy Vote Requirements

If votes are received in number and amount sufficient to enable the Bankruptcy Court to confirm the Plan, the Debtors intend to seek, as promptly as practicable thereafter, Confirmation of the Plan. In the event that sufficient votes are not received, the Debtors may seek to confirm an alternative chapter 11 plan. There can be no assurance that the terms of any such alternative chapter 11 plan would be similar or as favorable to the Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests as those proposed in the Plan.

11. Continued Risk upon Confirmation

Following the NOLA Sale Transaction, the Debtors will not continue operating as a going concern. Instead, their primary role will be to implement the Wind-Down and transfer assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust. The cessation of operations may limit the Debtors' ability to address unanticipated claims, disputes, or liabilities that arise post-Effective Date.

12. Contingencies Could Affect Votes of Impaired Classes to Accept or Reject the Plan

The distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan can be affected by a variety of contingencies, including whether the Bankruptcy Court orders certain Allowed Claims to be subordinated to other Allowed Claims. The occurrence of any and all such contingencies, which could affect distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan, will not affect the validity of the vote taken by the Impaired Classes to accept or reject the Plan or require any sort of revote by the Impaired Classes. The estimated Claims and creditor recoveries set forth in this Disclosure Statement are based on various assumptions, and the actual Allowed amounts of Claims may significantly differ from the estimates. Should one or more of the underlying assumptions ultimately prove to be incorrect, the actual Allowed amounts of Claims may vary from the estimated Claims contained in this Disclosure Statement. Moreover, the Debtors cannot determine with any certainty at this time, the number or amount of Claims that will ultimately be Allowed. Such differences may materially and adversely affect, among other things, the percentage recoveries to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan.

13. Disruption from Competing Plans or Proposals

Although no competing plan has been proposed to date, parties in interest may seek to propose an alternative chapter 11 plan. The pursuit of such a competing plan could delay Confirmation, increase administrative costs, or result in lower recoveries for creditors.

14. Releases, Injunctions, and Exculpations Provisions May Not Be Approved

Article VIII of the Plan provides for certain releases, injunctions, and exculpations, including a release of liens and third-party releases. The releases, injunctions, and exculpations provided in the Plan are subject to objection by parties in interest and may not be approved. If the releases are not approved, certain Released Parties may withdraw their support for the Plan.

C. Additional Factors

1. The Debtors Could Withdraw the Plan

Subject to, and without prejudice to, the rights of any party in interest, the Plan may be revoked or withdrawn before the Confirmation Date by the Debtors.

2. The Debtors Have No Duty to Update

The statements contained in this Disclosure Statement are made by the Debtors as of the date hereof, unless otherwise specified herein, and the delivery of this Disclosure Statement after that date does not imply that there has been no change in the information set forth herein since that date. Additionally, the Debtors have no duty to update this Disclosure Statement unless otherwise ordered to do so by the Bankruptcy Court.

3. No Representations Outside this Disclosure Statement Are Authorized

No representations concerning or related to the Debtors, the Chapter 11 Cases, or the Plan are authorized by the Bankruptcy Court or the Bankruptcy Code, other than as set forth in this Disclosure Statement. Any representations or inducements made to secure your acceptance or rejection of the Plan that are other than those contained in, or included with, this Disclosure Statement should not be relied upon in making the decision to accept or reject the Plan.

4. No Legal or Tax Advice Is Provided by this Disclosure Statement

The contents of this Disclosure Statement should not be construed as legal, business, or tax advice. Each Holder of a Claim or Interest should consult its own legal counsel and accountant as to legal, tax, and other matters concerning their Claim or Interest.

This Disclosure Statement is not legal advice to you. This Disclosure Statement may not be relied upon for any purpose other than to determine how to vote on the Plan or object to confirmation of the Plan.

5. No Admission Made

Nothing contained herein or in the Plan shall constitute an admission of, or shall be deemed evidence of, the tax or other legal effects of the Plan on the Debtors or Holders of Claims or Interests.

XI. CONFIRMATION OF THE PLAN

The Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan only if all of the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code are met. Among the requirements for confirmation are that the plan is (a) accepted by all impaired classes of claims and interests entitled to vote or, if rejected or deemed rejected by an impaired class, that the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" as to such class; (b) in the "best interests" of the holders of claims and interests impaired under the plan; and (c) feasible.

A. Acceptance of the Plan

The Bankruptcy Code defines "acceptance" of a plan by a class of (i) claims as acceptance by creditors in that class that hold at least two-thirds (2/3) in dollar amount and more than one-half (1/2) in number of the claims that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the plan and (ii) interests as acceptance by interest holders in that class that hold at least two-thirds (2/3) in amount of the interests that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the plan. Holders of claims or interests that fail to vote are not counted in determining the thresholds for acceptance of the plan.

If any impaired class of claims or interests does not accept the plan (or is deemed to reject the plan), the Bankruptcy Court may still confirm the plan at the request of the Debtors if, as to each impaired class of claims or interests that has not accepted the plan (or is deemed to reject the plan), the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" under the so-called "cram down" provisions set forth in section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The "unfair discrimination" test applies to classes of claims or interests that are of equal priority and are receiving different treatment under the plan. A chapter 11 plan does not discriminate unfairly, within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code, if the legal rights of a dissenting class are treated in a manner consistent with the treatment of other classes whose legal rights are substantially similar to those of the dissenting class and if no class of claims or interests receives more than it legally is entitled to receive for its claims or interests. The test does not require that the treatment be the same or equivalent, but that such treatment be "fair." The "fair and equitable" test applies to classes of different priority and status (e.g., secured versus unsecured; claims versus interests) and includes the general requirement that no class of claims receive more than 100% of the allowed amount of the claims in such class. As to the dissenting class, the test sets different standards that must be satisfied in order for the Plan to be confirmed, depending on the type of claims or interests in such class. The following sets forth the "fair and equitable" test that must be satisfied as to each type of class for a plan to be confirmed if such class rejects the plan:

- Secured Creditors. Each holder of an impaired secured claim either (a) retains its liens on the property, to the extent of the allowed amount of its secured claim, and receives deferred cash payments having a value, as of the effective date of the plan, of at least the allowed amount of such secured claim, (b) has the right to credit bid the amount of its claim if its property is sold and retains its lien on the proceeds of the sale, or (c) receives the "indubitable equivalent" of its allowed secured claim.

- Unsecured Creditors. Either (a) each holder of an impaired unsecured claim receives or retains under the plan, property of a value, as of the effective date of the plan, equal to the amount of its allowed claim or (b) the holders of claims and interests that are junior to the claims of the dissenting class will not receive any property under the plan.

- Interests. Either (a) each equity interest holder will receive or retain under the plan property of a value equal to the greater of (i) the fixed liquidation preference or redemption price, if any, of such equity interest and (ii) the value of the equity interest or (b) the holders of interests that are junior to the interests of the dissenting class will not receive or retain any property under the plan.

The Debtors believe the Plan satisfies the "fair and equitable" requirement with respect to any rejecting Class.

IF ALL OTHER CONFIRMATION REQUIREMENTS ARE SATISFIED AT THE CONFIRMATION HEARING, THE DEBTORS WILL ASK THE BANKRUPTCY COURT TO RULE THAT THE PLAN MAY BE CONFIRMED ON THE GROUNDS THAT THE SECTION 1129(B) REQUIREMENTS HAVE BEEN SATISFIED.

B. Best Interests of Creditors Test

The Bankruptcy Code requires that each holder of an impaired claim or interest either (1) accepts the plan or (2) receives or retains under the plan property of a value, as of the effective date, that is not less than the value such holder would receive if the debtor were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. This requirement is customarily referred to as the "best interests of creditors" test. As demonstrated in the liquidation analysis attached hereto as Exhibit C, the Debtors believe that liquidation under chapter 7 would result in smaller distributions to creditors than those provided for in the Plan.

C. Feasibility

The Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies the feasibility requirement set forth in section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan is predicated on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the subsequent Wind-Down of the Debtors' Estates. Following the sale closing and transfer of the NOLA

Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets on the Effective Date, the Debtors will no longer engage in business operations and will instead proceed with an orderly Wind-Down consistent with the terms of the Plan.

The Debtors do not anticipate the need for any further reorganization or restructuring of their affairs following Confirmation. Moreover, the Debtors expect to have sufficient resources—including the proceeds of the NOLA Sale Transaction, Cash on hand, and other Plan funding sources—to satisfy all obligations required to be performed under the Plan and to fund the Wind-Down and the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust. As such, the Debtors believe that Confirmation of the Plan is not likely to be followed by liquidation (other than as expressly contemplated), or by the need for further financial reorganization of the Debtors or any successor thereto under the Plan.

D. Confirmation Hearing

Section 1128(a) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Bankruptcy Court to hold a confirmation hearing upon appropriate notice to all required parties. The Confirmation Hearing is scheduled for October 22, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Confirmation Hearing may be adjourned from time to time by the Bankruptcy Court without further notice except for the announcement of the continuation date made at the Confirmation Hearing, at any subsequent continued Confirmation Hearing, or pursuant to a notice filed on the docket for the Chapter 11 Cases.

Section 1128(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that any party in interest may object to the confirmation of a plan. Any objection to confirmation of the Plan must be in writing, must conform to the Bankruptcy Rules and the local rules of the Bankruptcy Court, must set forth the name of the objector, the nature and amount of Claims or Interests held or asserted by the objector against the Debtors' estates or properties, the basis for the objection and the specific grounds therefor, and must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served no later than the Confirmation Objection Deadline.

XII. CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATION

The Debtors believe the Plan is in the best interests of all stakeholders and urge the Holders of Claims and Interests entitled to vote on the Plan to vote in favor thereof.

ARTICLE IV
MEANS FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PLAN

A. NOLA Sale Transaction, Restructuring Transactions, and Sources of Consideration for Plan Distributions.

The Confirmation Order shall be deemed to authorize the Debtors, among other things, to take all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effect any transaction described in, approved by, contemplated by, or necessary to effectuate the Plan, including the Restructuring Transactions and, to the extent not approved pursuant to a Sale Order, the NOLA Sale Transaction. With respect to the Plan, all amounts of Cash necessary for the Debtors to make payments or distributions pursuant to the Plan shall be obtained from the Sale Proceeds, the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and the Wind-Down Assets.

1. NOLA Sale Transaction.

To the extent not approved pursuant to a Sale Order, on the Effective Date, the Debtors shall be authorized to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction and, among other things, the NOLA Properties shall be transferred to and vest in the NOLA Purchaser free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges, or other encumbrances pursuant to the terms of the NOLA Purchase Agreement and the Confirmation Order. On and after the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors or the NOLA Purchaser, as applicable, may operate their businesses and may use, acquire, or dispose of property and compromise or settle any Claims, Interests, or Causes of Action without supervision or approval by the Bankruptcy Court and free of any restrictions of the Bankruptcy Code or Bankruptcy Rules. Neither the NOLA Purchaser nor any of its Affiliates shall be deemed to be a successor to the Debtors.

2. Payment of Sale Proceeds by NOLA Purchaser.

To the extent the NOLA Sale Transaction is not approved pursuant to a Sale Order, on the Effective Date, the NOLA Purchaser shall pay to the Debtors the Sale Proceeds as and to the extent provided for in the NOLA Purchase Agreement.

3. Restructuring Transactions.

On the Effective Date, the Debtors and the NOLA Purchaser, to the extent applicable, shall implement the Restructuring Transactions. The actions to implement the Restructuring Transactions may include: (a) the execution and delivery of appropriate agreements or other documents of merger, amalgamation, consolidation, restructuring, conversion, disposition, transfer, arrangement, continuance, dissolution, sale, purchase, or liquidation containing terms that are consistent with the terms of the Plan and that satisfy the applicable requirements of applicable law and any other terms to which the applicable Entities may agree; (b) the execution and delivery of appropriate instruments of transfer, assignment, assumption, or delegation of any asset, property, right, liability, debt, or obligation on terms consistent with the terms of the Plan and having other terms for which the applicable parties agree; (c) the filing of appropriate certificates or articles of incorporation, reincorporation, merger, consolidation, conversion, amalgamation, arrangement, continuance, or dissolution pursuant to applicable state or provincial law; and (d) all other actions that the Debtors or the NOLA Purchaser, to the extent applicable, determine to be necessary or appropriate, including making filings or recordings that may be required by applicable law in connection with the Plan. Without limiting the foregoing, prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors, acting at the sole and exclusive direction of the Independent Fiduciary, shall have the right to establish a trust, special purpose vehicle, or other Entity to hold Crown Capital and any Entity directly or indirectly owned by Crown Capital.

B. General Settlement of Claims.

To the extent provided for by the Bankruptcy Code, and in consideration for the classification, Distributions, releases, and other benefits provided under the Plan, on the Effective Date, certain of the provisions of the Plan shall constitute a good-faith compromise and settlement of certain Claims, Interests, Causes of Action, and controversies released, settled, compromised, or otherwise resolved pursuant to the Plan.

C. Wind Down and Dissolution of the Debtors.

1. Appointment of the Wind-Down Officer.

On the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer appointed under the CBRM Plan shall be appointed by the Debtors for the purpose of conducting the Wind-Down and shall have all powers, privileges, and responsibilities provided to the Wind-Down Officer under Article IV.C of the CBRM Plan with respect to these Debtors subject to the provisions of Article IV.A.3 and Article IV.G herein with respect to Crown Capital and any Entity directly or indirectly owned by Crown Capital.

2. Termination of Wind-Down Officer's Duties; Dissolution of Debtors.

Upon a certification to be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court by the Wind-Down Officer of all distributions having been made and completion of all its duties under the Plan and entry of a final decree closing the last of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Wind-Down Officer shall be discharged without any further action, including the filing of any documents with the secretary of state for the state in which the Debtors are formed or any other jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Wind-Down Officer shall retain the authority to take all necessary actions to dissolve the Debtors in, and withdraw the Debtors from, applicable states and provinces to the extent required by applicable law, without the necessity for any other or further actions to be taken by or on behalf of such dissolving Entity or any payments to be made in connection therewith, other than the filing of a certificate of dissolution with the appropriate governmental authorities. Any funds remaining in the Debtors at the time of dissolution shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, subject to any reversionary interests of the NOLA DIP Lender in the Fee Escrow solely to the extent that the Bankruptcy Court determines that the NOLA DIP Facility has not been indefeasibly repaid in full in Cash or otherwise satisfied in full by the NOLA Sale Transaction.

D. Creditor Recovery Trust.

1. Appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trust.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall be automatically appointed as a representative of the Debtors' Estates pursuant to sections 1123(a)(5), (a)(7), and (b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. From and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust shall succeed to all rights, privileges, and powers of the Debtors and their Estates with respect to the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, which NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets shall, upon such transfer, become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan); provided, however, that the transfer of the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not (i) affect nor be deemed to affect the corporate governance actions or other actions of Crown Capital nor (ii) divest the Independent Fiduciary of her control of Crown Capital and any Entity directly or indirectly owned by Crown Capital. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be substituted and will replace the Debtors and their Estates in all NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action and NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, whether or not such claims are pending in filed litigation. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall operate as set forth in and be subject to the tax provisions of the CBRM Plan.

2. Vesting of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

As of the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, Encumbrances, charges or other interests to the extent permitted by section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided, however, that the Crown Capital Interests shall remain subject to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed to by Spano Investor LLC; provided, further, however, that Spano Investor LLC shall not directly or indirectly seek to exercise any legal, equitable, or other rights against such Crown Capital Interests or other assets of any Debtor or subsidiary of any Debtor that may constitute collateral of Spano Investor LLC with respect to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. pending further order of the Bankruptcy Court or a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court in the Spano Adversary Proceeding; provided, further, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Plan shall limit or affect Spano Investor LLC's rights to enforce its prepetition judgment and exercise any remedies against non-Debtors Fox Capital LLC, CBCC 1 LLC, CBCC 2 LLC, CBCC 3 LLC, CBCC 4 LLC, CBCC 5 LLC, Westwood Jackson Apts MM LLC, or Westwood Jackson Apts LLC, or any assets of such non-Debtor entities.

For the avoidance of doubt, subject to the provisions of this Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets will not be deemed property of the Debtors or their Estates and the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not be deemed to be a successor of the Debtors for purposes of any Distribution made by the Creditor Recovery Trust.

3. Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts.

On the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts shall be deemed assumed by the Debtors and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code. Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving such assumption and assignment. Except as otherwise set forth herein, the assumption and assignment of a Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract pursuant to the Plan shall be effective as of the Effective Date. Any monetary defaults under each Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract to be assumed pursuant to the Plan shall be satisfied, pursuant to section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, by payment of the Cure Amount in Cash by the Creditor Recovery Trust.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors shall, on or before the date of filing of the Plan Supplement, cause the Cure and Assumption Notices to be served on counterparties to Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts to be assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan. Any objection by a non-Debtor counterparty to an Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract to the assumption and assignment, the related Cure Amount, or adequate assurance must be filed, served, and actually received by the Debtors on or prior to the deadline for filing objections to the Plan (or such later date as may be provided in the applicable Cure and Assumption Notice); provided that each counterparty to a Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract (a) that the Debtors later determine to assume and assign or (b) as to which the Debtors modify the applicable Cure Amount, must object to the assumption and assignment or Cure Amount, as applicable, by the earlier of: (i) fourteen (14) days after the Debtors serve such counterparty with a corresponding Cure and Assumption Notice; and (ii) the Confirmation Hearing.

Any counterparty to a Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract that fails to timely object to the proposed assumption of any Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from contesting the Debtors' assumption and assignment of the applicable Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract and from requesting payment of a Cure Amount that differs from the amount paid or proposed to be paid by the Creditor Recovery Trust, without the need for any objection by the Creditor Recovery Trust or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. The Creditor Recovery Trust may settle any dispute regarding a Cure Amount without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, to the extent any provision in any Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan restricts or prevents, or purports to restrict or prevent, or is breached or would be deemed breached by, the assumption and assignment of such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract (including any change of control or similar provision), then such provision shall be deemed pre-empted and modified such that neither the Debtors' assumption and assignment of the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract nor any of the transactions contemplated by the Plan shall entitle the non-Debtor counterparty to terminate or modify such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract or to exercise any other purported default-related rights thereunder.

The Debtors' assumption and assignment of any Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract pursuant to the Plan or otherwise, and payment of any applicable Cure Amount in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article IV.D, shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any Claims or defaults, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any assumed and assigned Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract at any time prior to the effective date of assumption and assignment.

In the event of a timely filed objection regarding: (1) a Cure Amount; (2) the ability of the Creditor Recovery Trust or any assignee to provide adequate assurance of future performance within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code under the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract to be assumed and assigned; or (3) any other matter pertaining to assumption and assignment or the requirements of section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, such dispute shall be resolved by a

Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court (which may be the Confirmation Order) or as may be agreed upon by the Creditor Recovery Trust and the counterparty to the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall pay the applicable Cure Amount as soon as reasonably practicable after entry of a Final Order resolving such dispute and approving such assumption and assignment, or as may otherwise be agreed upon by the Creditor Recovery Trust and the counterparty to the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract. To the extent that a dispute regarding the applicable Cure Amount is resolved or determined unfavorably to the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trust may, in its discretion, reject the applicable Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract after such determination, which rejection shall supersede, nullify, and render of no force or effect any earlier assumption and assignment. Under no circumstances shall the status of payment of a Cure Amount required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code following the entry of a Final Order resolving the dispute and approving the assumption and assignment prevent or delay implementation of the Plan or the occurrence of the Effective Date.

E. Cancellation of Securities and Agreements.

On the Effective Date, except to the extent otherwise provided in the Plan, all notes, instruments, certificates, and other documents evidencing, or in any way related to, Claims or Interests shall be canceled as against the Debtors and each Released Party and the obligations of the Debtors thereunder or in any way related thereto shall be released, settled, and compromised.

F. Corporate Action.

Notwithstanding any requirements under applicable nonbankruptcy law, upon the Effective Date, all actions contemplated by the Plan shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, including the implementation of the Restructuring Transactions and, to the extent not approved pursuant to a Sale Order, the NOLA Sale Transaction. All matters provided for in the Plan involving the corporate structure of the Debtors, and any corporate action required by the Debtors in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have occurred and shall be in effect, without any requirement of further action by any Person or Entity or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors and their directors, managers, partners, officers, authorized persons, and members thereof (including the Independent Fiduciary) are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, securities, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan and the securities issued pursuant to the Plan in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors, without the need for any approvals, authorizations, or consents, except for those expressly required pursuant to the Plan, or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

G. Independent Fiduciary.

As of the Effective Date, notwithstanding any agreement, proxy, resolution, shareholders' agreement, or other document to the contrary or the transfer of the Crown Capital Interests to the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Independent Fiduciary shall have the sole authority and power to control the corporate governance actions of Crown Capital and any Entity directly or indirectly owned by Crown Capital.

H. Exemption from Certain Taxes and Fees.

Pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers of property or any Interests, including the Transferred Subsidiaries, pursuant to the Plan, including, to the extent applicable, the NOLA Sale Transaction, the recording of any amendments to such transfers, or any new mortgages or liens placed on the property in connection with such transfers, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, registration tax, mortgage tax, stamp act, real estate, transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, or other similar tax, fees, charges, or governmental assessment (including any penalties and interest), and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment to the maximum extent covered by section 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code.

I. Preservation of Rights of Action.

On the Effective Date, (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall vest in the post-Effective Date Debtors under the authority of the Wind-Down Officer, in each case free and clear of all Claims, Liens, Encumbrances and other interests. The NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust and shall, upon such transfer, become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan) and the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall become Wind-Down Assets. On and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue and dispose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action (including the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action) and the Wind-Down Officer shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action. No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan or Disclosure Statement as to any Cause of Action as any indication that the Debtor, and on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action against them. No preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation. Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, subject to the oversight, approval, consultation and consent of the Advisory Committee as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, shall retain and shall have, through their authorized agents or representatives, the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or the Disclosure Statement to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee or the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action. Unless and until any such Causes of Action against any Person or Entity are expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or assigned, or settled under the Plan or a Final Order, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, expressly reserve all such Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation or Consummation.

J. Election to Contribute Claims.

Because aggregating all Contributed Claims may enable the pursuit and settlement of such litigation claims in a more efficient and effective manner, each Holder of a Claim or Interest may agree, by electing on its Ballot, to contribute its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of Contributing Claimants. Rather, as provided in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, any value attributable to such Contributed Claims will be segregated and only available for disbursement to those Holders that elected to contribute such Claims. By electing such option on its Ballot, each Contributing Claimant agrees that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, it will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

K. Contribution of Contributed Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Contributed Claims will be irrevocably contributed to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of Contributing Claimants. No Person may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Confirmation Order, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Plan Supplement, or any other document as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee will or will not pursue any and all available Contributed Claims against such Person. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all Contributed Claims fully to the same extent that the Contributing Claimants could have asserted such claims prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contributed Claims shall not include the rights of any of the Contributing Claimants to receive the Distributions under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests and shall not include any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law.

ARTICLE V

A. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, all Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases (including all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List) will be deemed rejected, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than those that previously were assumed or rejected by the Debtors or those that are subject to a pending motion to assume or assign such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such rejections.

B. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

Unless otherwise provided by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within 30 days after entry of the Confirmation Order. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to this Plan not filed within such time shall be disallowed, forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against, as applicable, the Debtors, the Estates, or property thereof, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged. All Allowed Claims arising from the rejection of any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases shall constitute and be treated as Unsecured Claims. Nothing herein shall constitute an extension of any Claims Bar Date otherwise applicable to a Claim arising from an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously rejected by the Debtors.

C. Treatment of Insurance Policies.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each of the Insurance Policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto issued to or entered into by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date shall not be considered Executory Contracts and shall neither be assumed nor rejected by the Debtors; provided, however, that to the extent any such Insurance Policy is determined by Final Order to be an Executory Contract, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the Plan will constitute a motion to assume such Insurance Policy and assign the same to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, the entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute approval of such assumption and assignment pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy

Code. Unless otherwise determined by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed by the parties thereto prior to the Effective Date, no payments are required to cure any defaults of the Debtor existing as of the Confirmation Date with respect to any Insurance Policy, and prior payments for premiums or other charges made prior to the Petition Date under or with respect to any Insurance Policy shall be indefeasible.

D. Effect of Confirmation on D&O Liability Insurance Policies.

From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall remain in place on terms for coverage and amounts no less favorable than the Debtors' current directors' and officers' insurance policies. From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be maintained for the benefit of the beneficiaries thereunder and shall not be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust nor become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan). The Debtors shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policies (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect on or prior to the Effective Date, and the Independent Fiduciary shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy or policies for the full term of such policy or policies.

ARTICLE VI

A. Timing and Calculation of Amounts to Be Distributed.

Except as (1) otherwise provided herein, (2) directed by a Final Order, or (3) as otherwise agreed to by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Officer, as the case may be, and the Holder of the applicable Claim, on the Effective Date (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Distribution Date after such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive the full amount of distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class from the Distribution Agent. In the event that any payment or distribution under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or distribution may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. Except as specifically provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

B. Distribution Agent.

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under the Plan and the Plan Supplement; (b) make all distributions contemplated under the Plan; (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan and the Plan Supplement, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of the Plan and the Plan Supplement.

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Distribution Agent on or after the Effective Date (including taxes) and any reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement claims (including reasonable attorney and/or other professional fees and expenses) made by the Distribution Agent shall be paid in Cash by the Wind-Down Officer from the Wind-Down Account.

C. Delivery of Distributions and Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Distribution Agent shall make all distributions required under the Plan. The Distribution Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Additionally, in the event that the Distribution Agent is so otherwise ordered, all costs and expenses of procuring any such bond or surety shall be paid from the Wind-Down Account.

In the event that either (a) a distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable, (b) the Holder of an Allowed Claim does not respond in writing to a request by the Debtors or the Distribution Agent for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution within sixty (60) days or otherwise complete the actions necessary to facilitate a distribution as identified to the Holder within ninety (90) days of the Distribution Agent's request, no distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Distribution Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder or received the necessary information to facilitate a particular distribution, at which time such distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest, dividends, or other accruals of any kind; provided that such distributions shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code on the date that is six months after (a) the date of the distribution, if a distribution is made, or (b) the date that a request for information or action is sent by the Distribution Agent. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Creditor Recovery Trust automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable local, state, federal, or foreign escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and the Claim or Interest of any Holder to such property or interest in property shall be released and forever barred.

D. Claims Payable by Third Parties.

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to one of the Debtors' insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable insurance policy, including any D&O Liability Insurance Policy. Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Cause of Action that the Debtors or any Entity may hold against any other Entity, including insurers under any policies of insurance, nor shall anything contained in the Plan constitute or be deemed a waiver by such insurers of any defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such insurers.

E. Distributions to Unsecured Claims.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, all Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims shall be administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to and in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

F. Allocation Between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided herein, the aggregate consideration paid to Holders on account of their Allowed Claims pursuant to the Plan shall be treated as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof and as determined for federal income tax purposes) and second, to the extent the consideration exceeds the principal amount of the Allowed Claims, to the remaining portion of such Allowed Claim, if any.

ARTICLE VII

A. Allowance of Claims.

After the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have and shall retain any and all available rights and defenses the applicable Debtor had with respect to any Claim immediately before the Effective Date, including, without limitation, the right to assert any objection to Claims based on the limitations imposed by section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that neither the Wind-Down Officer nor the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to any Professional Fee Claims or fees of the Independent Fiduciary. For the avoidance of doubt, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to and otherwise reconcile any and all Claims that seek recovery from the Creditor Recovery Trust other than Professional Fee Claims and fees of the Independent Fiduciary. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases before the Effective Date (including the Confirmation Order), no Claim against any Debtor shall become an Allowed Claim unless and until such Claim or Interest is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Court has entered a Final Order, including the Confirmation Order (when it becomes a Final Order), in the Chapter 11 Cases allowing such Claim.

No payment or distribution provided under the Plan shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim or portion thereof unless and until such Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

B. Automatic Disallowance and Expungement of Certain Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Claims Filed after the Claims Bar Date that were required to be Filed in advance of the Claims Bar Date under its terms shall be expunged and disallowed without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

C. Distributions After Allowance.

To the extent a Disputed Claim ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, as soon as practicable, the Debtors shall provide to the Holder of such Claim the Distribution (if any) to which such Holder is entitled under the Plan as of the Effective Date, less any previous Distribution (if any) that was made on account of the undisputed portion of such Claim, without any interest, dividends, or accruals to be paid on account of such Claim.

ARTICLE VIII
SETTLEMENT, RELEASE, INJUNCTION, AND RELATED PROVISIONS

A. Settlement, Compromise, and Release of Claims and Interests.

To the extent provided for by the Bankruptcy Code, and in consideration for the distributions and other benefits provided pursuant to the Plan, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, the distributions, rights, and treatment that are provided in the Plan shall be in complete satisfaction, effective as of the Effective Date, of Claims, Interests, and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever, including any interest accrued on Claims or Interests from and after the Petition Date, whether known or unknown, against, liabilities of, Liens on, obligations of, rights against, and Interests in, the Debtors or any of their assets or properties, regardless of whether any property shall have been distributed or retained pursuant to the Plan on account of such Claims and Interests, including demands, liabilities, and Causes of Action that arose before the Effective Date, any liability (including withdrawal liability) to the extent such Claims or Interests relate to services performed by agents or representatives of the Debtors before the Effective Date and that arise from a termination of employment, any contingent or non-contingent liability on account of representations or warranties issued on or before the Effective Date, and all debts of the kind specified in sections 502(g), 502(h), or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, in each case whether or not: (1) a Proof of Claim based upon such debt, right, Claim, or Interest is Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code; (2) a Claim or Interest based upon such debt, right, or Interest is Allowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (3) the Holder of such a Claim or Interest has accepted the Plan. Any default by the Debtors or their Affiliates with respect to any Claim or Interest that existed immediately before or on account of the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases shall be deemed cured on the Effective Date.

B. Release of Liens.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, on the Effective Date and concurrently with the applicable distributions made pursuant to the Plan and, in the case of a Secured Claim, satisfaction in full of the portion of the Secured Claim that is Allowed as of the Effective Date, all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estate shall be fully released, settled, and compromised.

C. Releases by the Debtors.

Pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, for good and valuable consideration, on and after the Effective Date, each Released Party is deemed released by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Claims, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies, and liabilities whatsoever, including any derivative Claims, asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that the Debtors or their Estates would have been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the Holder of any Claim or Interest or other Entity, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Chapter 11 Cases, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date.

D. Releases by Holders of Claims and Interests.

As of the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Releasing Parties are deemed to have released the Debtors, their Estates, and the Released Parties from any and all Claims, Interests, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies and liabilities whatsoever, including any direct Claims held by any of the Releasing Parties against the Debtors, their Estates, and/or the Released Parties or derivative Claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that each Releasing Party would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Debtors' restructuring, the Chapter 11 Cases, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents, or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (1) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan and (2) except as to any member of the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes who opted to grant the releases contained in Article VIII.D of the Plan, the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members (whether or not any such member affirmatively voted to accept the Plan) shall not release nor be deemed to release any claim or cause of action that any such holders may hold against the Asset Manager or the Property Manager and such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals.

E. Exculpation.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, each Debtor and each Exculpated Party is hereby released and exculpated from any Claim, obligation, Cause of Action, or liability for any Exculpated Claim, except for gross negligence or willful misconduct, but in all respects

each Debtor and each Exculpated Party shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to its duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan. The Debtors, their Estates, the Independent Fiduciary, and the Debtors' professionals including White & Case LLP, IslandDundon LLC, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, and Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global have, and upon completion of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of the Plan and distributions pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

F. Injunction.

Pursuant to section 362(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the automatic stay of an act against property of the Debtors' estates will continue until such property is no longer property of the Debtors' estates, and pursuant to section 362(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, the stay of any other act described in section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code continues until the earlier of the closure or dismissal of these Chapter 11 Cases. In addition, as of the Effective Date and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Plan or the Confirmation Order, all Persons and Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that are fully satisfied pursuant to the Plan or any Claim or Interest that is subject to the releases and exculpations set forth in the Plan shall be precluded and permanently enjoined on and after the Effective Date from enforcing, pursuing, or seeking any setoff or relief with respect to such Claims or Interests, except for the receipt of the payments or Distributions that are contemplated by the Plan.

For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing relief may include (but is not limited to): (1) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claim or Interest; (2) enforcing, attaching, collecting, or recovering by any manner or means any judgment, award, decree, or order against such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (3) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any encumbrance of any kind against such Entities or the property or the Estates of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (4) asserting any right of setoff, subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due from such Entities or against the property of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; and (5) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests.

I. INTRODUCTION

Reference is made to the Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates (the "Plan"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Plan. Crown Capital Holdings LLC ("Crown Capital"), RH Chenault Creek LLC ("Chenault"), RH Windrun LLC ("Windrun"), RH Copper Creek LLC ("Copper Creek"), RH Lakewind East LLC ("Lakewind"), RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC, and Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC (collectively, the "Debtors")[2] submit this disclosure statement (the "Disclosure Statement"), pursuant to section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, to holders of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors in connection with the solicitation of votes for acceptance of the Plan. The Plan constitutes a separate chapter 11 plan for each Debtor.

II. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The Debtors own and operate four multifamily affordable housing complexes located in New Orleans, Louisiana (the "NOLA Properties"): Carmel Brook Apartments, owned by Chenault; Carmel Spring Apartments, owned by Windrun; Laguna Reserve Apartments, owned by Lakewind; and Laguna Creek Apartments, owned by Copper Creek. The NOLA Properties provide rent restricted housing to low-income residents and are supported in part by government housing programs. Preserving the NOLA Properties is critical not only to maximizing the value of the Debtors' estates, but also to protecting vital affordable housing resources in the local community.

The Debtors, along with their affiliates CBRM Realty Inc. ("CBRM"), Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC, and Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC ("Kelly Hamilton," together with CBRM and Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC, the "CBRM Debtors"), commenced these chapter 11 cases on May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date").[3] These chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") were filed amid severe operational, financial, and governance challenges stemming from mismanagement of the broader Crown Capital Portfolio (defined below) and the criminal conviction of its ultimate equity owner, Mark "Moshe" Silber. These issues contributed to liquidity constraints, declining property performance, and creditor enforcement actions. Since the Petition Date, and under the leadership of an independent fiduciary (the "Independent Fiduciary"), the Debtors have stabilized operations, obtained postpetition financing, and initiated a court-supervised marketing process aimed at maximizing value for the benefit of all stakeholders.

To support this process, Crown Capital, Chenault Creek, Windrun, Copper Creek, and Lakewind obtained $17,422,728 in postpetition financing (the "NOLA DIP Facility") from DH1 Holdings LLC ("DH1"), CKD Funding LLC ("CKD Funding"), and CKD Investor Penn LLC ("CKD Penn" and, together with DH1 and CKD Funding, collectively, the "NOLA DIP Lenders"), investors with deep experience in the multifamily and affordable housing sectors. Of that amount, approximately $8,461,524

[2] ~~The CBRM Plan provides that Crown Capital Holdings LLC shall constitute a Debtor for purposes of the CBRM Plan solely to the extent that a NOLA Restructuring Transaction (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) has been consummated or the NOLA DIP Lenders and the Independent Fiduciary agree in writing or as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Subsequent to the filing of the CBRM Plan, the Debtors determined that a NOLA Restructuring Transaction would not occur prior to Confirmation of the CBRM Plan. Accordingly, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the CBRM Plan, Crown Capital Holdings LLC shall not be a Debtor under the CBRM Plan and this Plan shall constitute the sole plan for Crown Capital Holdings LLC. The Debtors shall modify the CBRM Plan to remove Crown Capital Holdings LLC as a Debtor prior to the Confirmation Hearing scheduled for the CBRM Plan.~~

was funded through new money loans, while the remaining $8,961,204 reflected a roll-up of prepetition obligations. Prior to the Petition Date, the NOLA DIP Lenders held the senior secured mortgage loans encumbering the NOLA Properties and were the Debtors' primary secured creditors. The NOLA DIP Facility has served as a critical bridge to fund operations and support a dual-track strategy for sale and plan confirmation.

Operational stability has been further supported by the Debtors' continued engagement of Lynd Management Group LLC ("Lynd Management") as property manager and LAGSP LLC ("LAGSP") as asset manager. Both firms are affiliates of The Lynd Group, a Texas-based real estate organization with a national platform and demonstrated experience managing affordable housing assets. The Debtors initially engaged Lynd Management and LAGSP pursuant to prepetition service agreements, and subsequently moved to assume and amend those agreements postpetition to ensure continuity of operations and to enhance oversight during the chapter 11 process.

The Debtors are now advancing a chapter 11 plan that contemplates a court-approved sale of the NOLA Properties (the "NOLA Sale Transaction"). On August 15, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving: (a) bidding procedures, including the sale timeline and form and manner of notice for the potential sale of one or more of the NOLA Properties; (b) a process for selecting a stalking horse bidder and approving bid protections; and (c) procedures for the potential assumption and assignment of executory contracts and unexpired leases [Docket No. 382] (the "NOLA Bidding Procedures Order"). In accordance with the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order, the NOLA Sale Transaction may be implemented either pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or through consummation of the Plan.

The Plan contemplates the following stakeholder recoveries:

- All Allowed Other Priority Claims will be paid in full in Cash on the Effective Date, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable;

- All Allowed Other Secured Claims will be (a) paid in full in Cash, (b) reinstated, (c) receive the return of applicable collateral securing such Allowed Other Secured Claims, or (d) otherwise receive treatment that renders such Claims Unimpaired under the Bankruptcy Code;

- Each Holder of an Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claim will receive, (a) ~~to the extent there are Sale Proceeds that are proceeds of the sale of the Lakewind Property in excess of the amount necessary to satisfy all Allowed NOLA DIP Claims, Allowed General Administrative Claims, Allowed Priority Tax Claims, Allowed Other Priority Claims, and Allowed Other Secured Claims in full in Cash on the Effective Date, payment in Cash of the amount of the excess Sale Proceeds attributable to the sale of the Lakewind Property on the Effective Date or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable; or (b) to the extent there are not sufficient~~ Sale Proceeds that are proceeds of the sale of the Lakewind Property to ~~satisfy~~ the extent set forth in and subject to the waterfall provisions of the NOLA DIP Order; or (b) to the extent the Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claim ~~in full, on account of the remaining unpaid CIF Mortgage Loan Claim~~is not satisfied by the applicable Sale Proceeds in full as set forth in clause (i), its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution to Holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan;

- Each Holder of an Allowed NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claim will receive a treatment determined by the NOLA Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the NOLA Purchase Agreement;

- Each Holder of an Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan;

- Each Holder of an Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan);

- Each Holder of an Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan);

- Except as otherwise provided in the Plan Supplement, all Intercompany Claims will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Claims; provided, however, that any such Intercompany Claim shall not be canceled, released or extinguished and shall remain in force to the extent necessary to allow the Creditor Recovery Trustee to seek recovery from any non-Debtor;

- Except as otherwise provided in the Plan Supplement, all Intercompany Interests will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Interests;

- On the Effective Date, each Crown Capital Interest shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust as provided in the Plan; provided, however, that the Crown Capital Interests shall remain subject to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed to by Spano Investor LLC; provided, further, however, that Spano Investor LLC shall not directly or indirectly seek to exercise any legal, equitable, or other rights against such Crown Capital Interests or other assets of any Debtor or subsidiary of any Debtor that may constitute collateral of Spano Investor LLC with respect to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. pending further order of the Bankruptcy Court or a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court in the Spano Adversary Proceeding; provided, further, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Plan shall limit or affect Spano Investor LLC's rights to enforce its prepetition judgment and exercise any remedies against non-Debtors Fox Capital LLC, CBCC 1 LLC, CBCC 2 LLC, CBCC 3 LLC, CBCC 4 LLC, CBCC 5 LLC, Westwood Jackson Apts MM LLC, or Westwood Jackson Apts LLC, or any assets of such non-Debtor entities;

- All Interests in RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust without any distribution on account of such Interests; and

- All Section 510(b) Claims, if any, will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Claims.

The Debtors strongly believe that the Plan is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, and represents the best available alternative at this time. For these reasons, the Debtors strongly recommend that Holders of Claims and Interests entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan vote to accept the Plan.

A. What is chapter 11?

Chapter 11 is the principal business reorganization chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition to permitting debtor rehabilitation, chapter 11 promotes equality of treatment for creditors and similarly situated equity interest holders, subject to the priority of distributions prescribed by the Bankruptcy Code.

The commencement of a chapter 11 case creates an estate that comprises all of the legal and equitable interests of the debtor as of the date the chapter 11 case is commenced. The Bankruptcy Code provides that the debtor may continue to operate its business and remain in possession of its property as a "debtor in possession."

Consummating a chapter 11 plan is the principal objective of a chapter 11 case. A bankruptcy court's confirmation of a chapter 11 plan binds the debtor, any person acquiring property under the plan, any creditor or equity interest holder of the debtor (whether or not such creditor or equity interest holder voted to accept the plan), and any other entity as may be ordered by the bankruptcy court. Subject to certain limited exceptions, the order issued by a bankruptcy court confirming a plan provides for the treatment of the debtor's liabilities in accordance with the terms of the confirmed plan.

B. Why are the Debtors sending me this Disclosure Statement?

The Debtors are seeking to obtain Bankruptcy Court approval of the Plan. Before soliciting acceptances of the Plan, section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Debtors to prepare a disclosure statement containing adequate information of a kind, and in sufficient detail, to enable a hypothetical reasonable investor to make an informed judgment regarding acceptance of the Plan and to share such disclosure statement with all holders of Claims and Interests whose votes on the Plan are being solicited. This Disclosure Statement is being submitted in accordance with these requirements.

C. Am I entitled to vote on the Plan?

Your ability to vote on, and your distribution under, the Plan, if any, depends on what type of Claim or Interest you hold. Each category of holders of Claims or Interests, as set forth in Article III of the Plan pursuant to section 1122(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, is referred to as a "Class." Each Class's respective voting status is set forth below:

Class	Claims and Interests	Status	Voting Rights
Class 1	Other Priority Claims	Unimpaired	Note Entitled to Vote (Presumed to Accept)
Class 2	Other Secured Claims	Unimpaired	Not Entitled to Vote (Presumed to Accept)
Class 3	CIF Mortgage Loan Claims	Impaired	Entitled to Vote
Class 4	NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims	Impaired	Entitled to Vote
Class 5	Other NOLA Unsecured Claims	Impaired	Entitled to Vote

Class 7	RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims	Impaired	Entitled to Vote
Class 8	Intercompany Claims	~~Unimpaired /~~ Impaired	Not Entitled to Vote
Class 9	Intercompany Interests	~~Unimpaired /~~ Impaired	Not Entitled to Vote
Class 10	Crown Capital Interests	Impaired	Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject)
Class 11	RH New Orleans Interests	Impaired	Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject)
Class 12	Section 510(b) Claims	Impaired	Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject)

D. What will I receive from the Debtors if the Plan is consummated?

The following chart provides a summary of the anticipated recovery to Holders of Claims and Interests under the Plan. Any estimates of Claims or Interests in this Disclosure Statement may vary from the final amounts allowed by the Bankruptcy Court. Your ability to receive distributions under the Plan depends upon the ability of the Debtors to obtain Confirmation and meet the conditions necessary to consummate the Plan.

Each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive under the Plan the treatment described below in full and final satisfaction~~, settlement, release, and discharge~~ of and in exchange for such Holder's Claim, except to the extent different treatment is agreed to by the Debtors and the Holder of such Allowed Claim. Unless otherwise indicated, the Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive such treatment on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. Projected recoveries included in the summary table below reflect the Debtors' analysis of anticipated Claims.

[43] Recoveries to Holders of Class 6 Crown Capital Unsecured Claims are dependent upon the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such value is largely dependent on the successful prosecution of Claims and Causes of Action, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, by the Creditor Recovery Trust. There can be no assurance of the validity of, the amount of, or the chance of recovery on account of these Claims and Causes of Action. Defenses may also be available. Accordingly, recoveries are uncertain.

[54] Recoveries to Holders of Class 7 RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims are dependent upon the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such value is largely dependent on the successful prosecution of Claims and Causes of Action, including the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, by the Creditor Recovery Trust. There can be no assurance of the validity of, the amount of, or the chance of recovery on account of these Claims and Causes of Action. Defenses may also be available. Accordingly, recoveries are uncertain.

E. What will I receive from the Debtors if I hold a General Administrative Claim or a Priority Tax Claim?

General Administrative Claims and Priority Tax Claims have not been placed in a Class in the Plan, consistent with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. Article II.A of the Plan sets forth the treatment for General Administrative Claims and provides in part that such Claims will be satisfied in full in an amount of Cash equal to the amount of such Allowed General Administrative Claim. Article II.E of the Plan sets forth the treatment for Priority Tax Claims, which states that an Allowed Priority Tax Claim will be treated in accordance with section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code.

F. Are any regulatory approvals required to consummate the Plan?

Other than approvals that may be required in the ordinary course of business in connection with the continued operation of the NOLA Properties, the Debtors are not aware of any material U.S. regulatory approvals required to consummate the Plan. However, the sale of the NOLA Properties pursuant to the Plan or under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code is subject to entry of a final, non-appealable order of the Bankruptcy Court confirming the Plan or sale under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

G. What happens if the NOLA Sale Transaction is not consummated?

The Plan is premised on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, which the Debtors believe will represent the best available path to maximize value and facilitate an orderly Wind-Down of the Estates. However, if the NOLA Sale Transaction is not consummated, the Debtors would work expeditiously to evaluate and pursue an alternative transaction structure, which could include, if required and feasible, a reorganization of one or more Debtors, though no such transaction has been proposed or developed to date and may not be viable given the Debtors' financial condition.

While no such alternative restructuring has been negotiated or proposed as of the date of this Disclosure Statement, the Debtors believe there may be value-preserving alternatives that could be developed and implemented through a revised chapter 11 plan, subject to further diligence, market conditions, and creditor support. In such a scenario, the treatment of Claims and Interests could differ from that set forth in the current Plan and would be determined based on the structure of any such alternative transaction.

If no viable transaction can be implemented, the Debtors may need to consider a conversion to chapter 7, which could result in lower recoveries than those estimated under the Plan.

H. What happens to my recovery if the Plan is not confirmed or does not go effective?

If the Plan is not confirmed or does not go effective, there is no assurance that the Debtors will be able to implement an alternative transaction that would provide recoveries equal to or greater than those contemplated by the Plan. The Plan is based on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' Estates. The Debtors do not have an alternative transaction or plan of reorganization currently negotiated or proposed.

If the NOLA Sale Transaction cannot be completed and the Plan cannot be confirmed, the Debtors would evaluate potential alternatives. However, there can be no assurance that a viable alternative transaction could be identified, negotiated, and implemented in a timely or cost-effective manner. In such a scenario, the Debtors may be required to convert these Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, which the Debtors believe would likely result in significantly lower recoveries for Holders of Allowed Claims.

For a more detailed description of the potential consequences of a failure to confirm or consummate the Plan, see Article XI.B of this Disclosure Statement, entitled "Best Interests of Creditors Test," which begins on page ~~41~~48.

I. If the Plan provides that I get a distribution, do I get it upon Confirmation or when the Plan goes effective, and what is meant by "Confirmation," "Effective Date," and "Consummation"?

"Confirmation" of the Plan refers to approval of the Plan by the Bankruptcy Court. Confirmation of the Plan does not guarantee that you will receive the distribution indicated under the Plan. After Confirmation of the Plan by the Bankruptcy Court, there are conditions that need to be satisfied or waived so that the Plan can go effective. Initial distributions to holders of Allowed Claims and Interests will only be made on the date the Plan becomes effective—the "Effective Date"—or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, as specified in the Plan. See Article IX of the Plan. "Consummation" means the occurrence of the Effective Date.

J. What are the sources of Cash and other consideration required to fund the Plan?

The Debtors intend to fund distributions under the Plan through a combination of (a) the Sale Proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction; (b) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to be transferred in accordance with the CBRM Plan and this Plan; and (c) other available assets, as further described in the Plan.

The NOLA Sale Transaction contemplates the sale of the NOLA Properties pursuant to one or more purchase agreements with the successful bidder(s) following conclusion of the sale process.

In addition to the proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction, distributions under the Plan will be funded from: (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, consisting of, to the extent not expended prior to the Effective Date solely with respect to the development and investigation of Claims and Causes of Action held by the Debtors or their Estates to be pursued for the benefit of creditors, Cash in an amount equal to $1,000,000 of the proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility, which shall be funded on the Effective Date; (ii) any recoveries from the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, Contributed Claims, and NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, which will be pursued and administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust; and (iii) the Interests of RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC and Crown Capital. Distributions from the Creditor Recovery Trust will be made to Holders of Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claims (Class 6) and Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims (Class 7), with each Holder receiving its Pro Rata share of the Distributable

Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust ~~provided to such Holder on account of its Allowed CBRM Unsecured Claim~~ (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan).

For the avoidance of doubt, the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall include any Claim or Cause of Action, including any Avoidance Action, held by the Debtors or their Estates and the proceeds thereof, against any of the following (each, an "Excluded Party" and collectively, the "Excluded Parties"): (a) Moshe (Mark) Silber; (b) Frederick Schulman; (c) Piper Sandler & Co.; (d) Mayer Brown LLP; (e) Rhodium Asset Management LLC; (f) Syms Construction LLC; (g) Rapid Improvements LLC; (h) NB Affordable Foundation Inc.; (i) any title agencies; (j) any independent real estate appraisal firms; (k) any rating agencies; (l) any accounting firms; (m) other current or former Insiders of the Debtors; (~~l~~n) any party ~~listed~~ on the Schedule of Excluded Parties~~, which shall be filed as part of the Plan Supplement (as the same may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time)~~; and (~~m~~o) with respect to each of the foregoing, each Person's or Entity's Affiliates, partners, members, managers, officers, directors, employees, and agents that are not specifically identified in ~~the~~this Plan as a Released Party.

Certain administrative expenses, including Allowed Professional Compensation Claims, will be funded from a dedicated Fee Escrow Account. The specific allocation of consideration and other assets to the various Classes of Claims and Interests will be set forth in the Plan Supplement.

K. Will there be releases and exculpation granted to parties in interest as part of the Plan?

Yes, the Plan provides for releases and exculpation of the Debtors and other parties in interest as set forth in Article VIII of the Plan.

Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors faced escalating operational and financial distress stemming from broader issues within the Crown Capital Portfolio (as defined below), including the criminal conviction of its ultimate equity owner, disputes among insiders, and a breakdown in governance and oversight. These failures contributed to cash flow shortfalls, unpaid obligations, and deterioration in property performance, placing the long-term viability of the NOLA Properties at serious risk. Following the appointment of the Independent Fiduciary in April 2024, the Debtors and their professionals undertook an extensive review of potential estate claims, insider transactions, and restructuring alternatives.

As part of that assessment, the Independent Fiduciary and the Debtors' professionals evaluated prepetition financial dealings involving insiders and affiliated entities, as well as the conduct surrounding the historical governance and financial condition of the Debtors. Based on that review, the Independent Fiduciary directed the Debtors to preserve all potential Claims and Causes of Action—including, without limitation, Avoidance Actions under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code and any claims for breach of fiduciary duty, mismanagement, or other actionable misconduct—against each Excluded Party. These parties are expressly excluded from the definitions of both "Released Parties" and "Exculpated Parties" under the Plan. Accordingly, the Plan does not, and shall not be construed to, release, exculpate, or otherwise impair any Claims or Causes of Action against these parties, all of which are expressly preserved. The Debtors, through the Independent Fiduciary and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, retain and reserve all such Causes of Action for the benefit of the Debtors' Estates and their stakeholders, and such Causes of Action will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust for potential pursuit by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in accordance with the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

In contrast, the Independent Fiduciary has determined that releases are appropriate for the following parties: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the NOLA Purchaser; (c) LAGSP; (d) Lynd Management; (e) the NOLA DIP Lenders; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former ~~Affiliates, and such Entity's and its current and former Affiliates'~~ subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (h) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. These parties are collectively defined in the Plan as the "Released Parties."

In addition to the estate releases, the Plan includes a customary third-party release that applies only to Holders of Claims or Interests who affirmatively consent to grant such release. A Holder of a Claim in Class 3, Class 4, Class 5, Class 6, or Class 7 affirmatively consents to grant the third-party release set forth in Article VIII of the Plan if the Holder either (a) votes to accept the Plan, or (b) abstains or does not affirmatively vote to accept the Plan but checks the box on the Holder's Ballot indicating that the Holder opts to grant the release. Holders of Claims or Interests in Class 1, Class 2, Class 8, Class 9, Class 10, Class 11 or Class 12, which are not entitled to vote, may affirmatively consent to grant the release by submitting a completed Opt-In Form and checking the box indicating their consent. Only those Holders who take one of these specified affirmative actions will grant the third-party release under the Plan.

The Plan also includes an exculpation provision that applies to (a) each Debtor solely in its capacity as a debtor and debtor in possession following the Petition Date and excluding such Debtor for the period prior to the Petition Date, (b) the Independent Fiduciary, (c) LAGSP, (d) Lynd Management, and (e) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. These parties are exculpated from any liability for any act or omission arising as of or following the Petition Date through the Effective Date in connection with, relating to, or arising out of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan, the NOLA Sale Transaction, or Restructuring Transactions, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation of any document in connection with the Plan, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Plan, the pursuit of Consummation, the Restructuring Transactions, the administration and implementation of the Plan, or the distribution of property pursuant to the Plan.

The Debtors believe that the release, exculpation, and related injunction provisions are necessary and appropriate in light of the contributions made by the Released and Exculpated Parties, and consistent with applicable law, including precedent established by the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. The Debtors intend to present evidence at the Confirmation Hearing in support of the necessity and propriety of these Plan provisions.

IMPORTANTLY, ONLY HOLDERS OF CLAIMS OR INTERESTS THAT AFFIRMATIVELY OPT TO GRANT THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASES CONTAINED IN THE PLAN WILL BE SUBJECT TO SUCH RELEASES. A HOLDER WILL BE CONSIDERED TO HAVE AFFIRMATIVELY CONSENTED TO THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASES ONLY IF THAT HOLDER: (A) IS A HOLDER OF A CLAIM IN CLASS 3, CLASS 4, CLASS 5, CLASS 6 OR CLASS 7 AND VOTES TO ACCEPT THE PLAN; (B) IS A HOLDER OF A CLAIM IN CLASS 3, CLASS 4, CLASS 5, CLASS 6 OR CLASS 7, ABSTAINS OR DOES NOT AFFIRMATIVELY VOTE TO ACCEPT THE PLAN, AND CHECKS THE BOX ON THE BALLOT INDICATING THAT SUCH HOLDER OPTS TO GRANT THE RELEASES; OR (C) IS A HOLDER OF A CLAIM OR INTEREST IN CLASS 1, CLASS 2, CLASS 8, CLASS 9, CLASS 10, CLASS 11 OR CLASS 12 AND CHECKS THE BOX ON THE OPT-IN FORM INDICATING THAT SUCH HOLDER OPTS TO GRANT THE RELEASES. HOLDERS WHO DO NOT AFFIRMATIVELY

OPT TO GRANT THE RELEASES WILL NOT BE BOUND BY THEM. THE RELEASES ARE AN INTEGRAL ELEMENT OF THE PLAN.

L. What are the potential claims and causes of action against Silber and his affiliates?

The Debtors, through their Independent Fiduciary, are continuing to investigate potential Estate Claims and Causes of Action against Mark Silber, Frederick Schulman, and other individuals and entities associated with their historical control, management, or influence over the Debtors prior to the Petition Date. These investigations include potential claims for breach of fiduciary duty, mismanagement, corporate waste, fraudulent transfers, and other conduct that may have harmed the Debtors or their stakeholders.

With the assistance of advisors, the Independent Fiduciary is reviewing numerous prepetition transactions and governance actions involving these insiders. The areas of focus include the mismanagement of the Debtors' real estate assets, the potential misuse of financing proceeds, neglect of regulatory obligations, and other conduct potentially involving self-dealing, fraud, or improper diversion of estate value. The Debtors are also evaluating whether the misconduct that formed the basis of Silber's and Schulman's criminal convictions may have impacted the Debtors or their creditors.

As a result of this ongoing review, the Independent Fiduciary has directed the Debtors to preserve all related Claims and Causes of Action, including those against Silber, Schulman, entities they owned or controlled, and any other individuals or firms that may have facilitated or benefited from the conduct in question. These individuals and entities are expressly excluded from the Plan's definitions of "Released Parties" and "Exculpated Parties," and therefore are not receiving any release or exculpation under the Plan.

All such Claims and Causes of Action are being preserved under the Plan and, as of the Effective Date, will vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust and may be pursued by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The Creditor Recovery Trustee will serve as the post-effective date fiduciary responsible for investigating and, where appropriate, prosecuting such retained Claims and Causes of Action for the benefit of unsecured creditors.

M. How does this Plan relate to and interact with the CBRM Plan?

This Plan has been developed in coordination with the Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. ~~338~~469] (as amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time, the "CBRM Plan"). Pursuant to the CBRM Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan to assume all liability of the CBRM Debtors and their estates for, and to administer, all CBRM Unsecured Claims.

Under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the Debtors will transfer to the Creditor Recovery Trust (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any) to be administered for and distributed to the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims in accordance with the waterfall provisions of the CBRM Plan.

If the CBRM Plan is not confirmed or does not become effective, the Debtors will implement an alternative, court-approved mechanism to administer and distribute the assets that would otherwise have been transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such mechanism may include establishing a similar trust under the Plan or another structure designed to maximize value for stakeholders.

N. What is the Creditor Recovery Trust?

The Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan for the benefit of Holders of Class 6 Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, Class 7 Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims, and Allowed CBRM Unsecured Claims (as defined in the CBRM Plan).

Pursuant to the Plan, certain assets will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, including: (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, consisting of, to the extent not expended prior to the Effective Date solely with respect to the development and investigation of Claims and Causes of Action held by the Debtors or their Estates to be pursued for the benefit of creditors, Cash in an amount equal to $1,000,000 of the proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility, which shall be funded on the Effective Date; (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any).

In addition, as set forth in the Plan, the Debtors will include in the Plan Supplement a schedule of executory contracts to be assumed by the applicable Debtor and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts"). On the Effective Date, such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts shall be deemed assumed and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and any associated Cure Amounts shall be satisfied in accordance with the Plan and the Confirmation Order.

The Creditor Recovery Trust will be administered by one or more trustees selected by the CBRM Debtors, in consultation with the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, the NOLA DIP Lenders, and Spano Investor LLC ("Spano"). The Creditor Recovery Trustee will be responsible for administering, prosecuting, settling, or monetizing the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and making distributions in accordance with the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The Creditor Recovery Trust is intended to maximize recoveries for unsecured creditors.

O. What is the Wind-Down and who is responsible?

Following the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the Effective Date of the Plan, the Debtors will no longer operate an ongoing business and will instead wind down their affairs. The Wind-Down Officer appointed under the CBRM Plan shall be appointed by the Debtors to oversee the wind down, dissolution, and liquidation of the Estates following the Effective Date in accordance with Article IV.C of the Plan.

P. What is the deadline to vote on the Plan?

The Voting Deadline is ~~[●]~~October 10, 2025, at ~~[●] [a.m. / p.m.]~~4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

Q. How do I vote for or against the Plan?

Detailed instructions regarding how to vote on the Plan are contained on the ballots distributed to Holders of Claims and Interests that are entitled to vote on the Plan. For your vote to be counted, you must submit your ballot in accordance with the instructions provided in Article IV.D of this Disclosure Statement. BALLOTS SENT BY FAX OR EMAIL ARE NOT ALLOWED AND WILL NOT BE COUNTED.

R. Why is the Bankruptcy Court holding a Confirmation Hearing?

Section 1128(a) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Bankruptcy Court to hold a hearing on confirmation of the Plan and recognizes that any party in interest may object to Confirmation of the Plan. The Confirmation Hearing will be scheduled by the Bankruptcy Court shortly after the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases. All parties in interest will be served notice of the time, date, and location of the Confirmation Hearing once scheduled.

S. What is the purpose of the Confirmation Hearing?

The confirmation of a plan of reorganization by a bankruptcy court binds the debtor, any issuer of securities under a plan of reorganization, any person acquiring property under a plan of reorganization, any creditor or equity interest holder of a debtor, and any other person or entity as may be ordered by the bankruptcy court in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to certain limited exceptions, the order issued by the bankruptcy court confirming a plan of reorganization discharges a debtor from any debt that arose before the confirmation of such plan of reorganization and provides for the treatment of such debt in accordance with the terms of the confirmed plan of reorganization.

The deadline by which all objections to the Plan must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served so as to be actually received by the appropriate notice parties is ~~[●]~~October 10, 2025, at ~~[●] [a.m. / p.m.]~~4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

T. Who do I contact if I have additional questions with respect to this Disclosure Statement or the Plan?

If you have any questions regarding this Disclosure Statement or the Plan, please contact the Debtors' Claims and Noticing Agent, Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global ("Verita"), by submitting an inquiry to https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm/inquiry (with "CBRM Solicitation Inquiry" in the subject line).

Copies of the Plan and the Disclosure Statement: (a) are available on the Debtors' restructuring website, free of charge, at https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm; (b) may be obtained upon request of the Claims and Noticing Agent by writing to CBRM Realty Inc., et al. Ballot Processing, c/o KCC dba Verita Global, 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300, El Segundo, CA 90245 or by submitting an inquiry to https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm/inquiry (with "CBRM Solicitation Inquiry" in the subject line); and (c) will be available for inspection for a fee on the Bankruptcy Court's website at https://www.njb.uscourts.gov.

U. Do the Debtors recommend voting in favor of the Plan?

Yes. The Debtors strongly recommend that all eligible creditors vote to accept the Plan. The Plan contemplates the sale of the NOLA Properties through a competitive, court-supervised Sale Process, the transfer of designated assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust to administer and distribute recoveries, and the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' Estates following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction.

This structure is designed to maximize value and ensure fair and efficient distributions to creditors. The Debtors believe that the Plan is in the best interests of all Holders of Claims and Interests under the circumstances. Alternative paths would likely involve significant delays, increased administrative costs, and lower recoveries. In contrast, the Plan offers a clear, actionable, and creditor-focused approach to monetize remaining assets, preserve and pursue potential litigation claims, and bring these Chapter 11 Cases to a prompt and value-maximizing conclusion for the benefit of all stakeholders.

IV. SOLICITATION AND VOTING PROCEDURES

This Disclosure Statement, which is accompanied by a ballot (the "Ballot") to be used for voting on the Plan, is being distributed to the Holders of Claims in the Classes entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

A. Holders of Claims and Interests Entitled to Vote on the Plan

The Debtors are soliciting votes to accept or reject the Plan only from Holders of Claims and Interests in Classes 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 (the "Voting Classes"). The Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes are Impaired under the Plan and may, in certain circumstances, receive a distribution under the Plan. Accordingly, Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes have the right to vote to accept or reject the Plan. The Debtors are not soliciting votes from Holders of Claims or Interests in Classes 1, 2, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12.

B. Votes Required for Acceptance by a Class

Under the Bankruptcy Code, acceptance by a class of claims requires an affirmative vote of more than one-half in number of total allowed claims that have voted and an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds in dollar amount of the total allowed claims that have voted. Acceptance by a class of interests requires an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds in amount of the total allowed interests that have voted.

If a Class contains Claims or Interests eligible to vote and no Holders of Claims or Interests eligible to vote in such Class vote to accept or reject the Plan, then such Class shall be deemed to have accepted the Plan.

C. Certain Factors to Be Considered Prior to Voting

There are a variety of factors that all Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan should consider prior to voting to accept or reject the Plan. These factors may impact recoveries under the Plan and include, among other things:

- unless otherwise specifically indicated, the financial information contained in the Disclosure Statement has not been audited and is based on an analysis of data available at the time of the preparation of the Plan and the Disclosure Statement;
- although the Debtors believe that the Plan complies with all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors can neither assure such compliance nor that the Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan;
- the Debtors may request Confirmation without the acceptance of the Plan by all Impaired Classes in accordance with section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; and
- any delays of either Confirmation or Consummation could result in, among other things, increased Administrative Claims and Professional Fee Claims.

While these factors could affect distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests under the Plan, the occurrence or impact of such factors may not necessarily affect the validity of the vote of the Voting Classes or necessarily require a re-solicitation of the votes of Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes pursuant to section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code.

For a further discussion of risk factors, please refer to "Risk Factors" described in Article X of this Disclosure Statement.

D. Solicitation Procedures

The Debtors have retained the Claims and Noticing Agent, Verita, to act as, among other things, the Claims and Noticing Agent in connection with the solicitation of votes to accept or reject the Plan.

The following materials constitute the solicitation package (collectively, the "Solicitation Package") distributed to Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes:

- notice of the Confirmation Hearing;
- a customized paper Ballot;
- the Disclosure Statement (including the Plan and all exhibits) and the Disclosure Statement Order; and
- any other materials ordered by the Bankruptcy Court to be included as part of the Solicitation Package.

3. Distribution of the Solicitation Package and Plan Supplement

V. OVERVIEW OF THE COMPANY'S OPERATIONS

A. The Debtors' Business Operations

The Debtors are part of a larger real estate portfolio formed by real estate investor Moshe "Mark" Silber and certain affiliated parties (the "Crown Capital Portfolio"). The Crown Capital Portfolio holds dozens of multifamily housing projects across the United States, including the NOLA Properties, and has been historically funded, at least in part, by the federal government's housing assistance programs, such as Section 8.

Among the assets in the Crown Capital Portfolio are the NOLA Properties. These properties serve low-income tenants and participate in various government-supported housing programs. The NOLA Properties serve as a critical source of affordable housing for low-income residents in the New Orleans community. Rent payments from tenants (including subsidies paid directly by government programs) represent the Debtors' primary source of revenue. The Debtors do not have employees of their own and instead rely on third-party professionals to manage and operate the NOLA Properties.

B. Property Management and Operations

Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors engaged Lynd Management to serve as the Property Manager for the NOLA Properties, pursuant to certain Amended and Restated Property Management Agreements dated as of September 16, 2019. Lynd Management provides on-site personnel and oversees all day-to-day property-level functions, including leasing, maintenance, compliance with regulatory obligations, and the coordination of services for residents.

In addition, LAGSP serves as asset manager for the Debtors pursuant to that certain Asset Management Agreement dated as of September 19, 2024. LAGSP provides strategic oversight of the NOLA Properties' operations, ensures compliance with financing and regulatory obligations, and assists in capital planning and financial reporting.

All rent and subsidy collections are deposited into operating accounts controlled by the Debtors. In the ordinary course, these funds are used to pay property-level operating expenses, taxes, insurance, and debt service obligations. Prior to the Petition Date, limited liquidity, capital needs, and the legacy deferred maintenance burden impaired the Debtors' ability to stabilize operations and maintain compliance with regulatory standards.

C. Founder Misconduct and Breakdown in Governance

Prior to the Petition Date, the Crown Capital Portfolio raised hundreds of millions of dollars of financing, including (i) over $200 million from the sale of bonds issued by Crown Capital and guaranteed by CBRM (the "Notes") and (ii) approximately $450 million of property-level mortgage loans provided by an array of different financing sources.

Moshe "Mark" Silber and certain of his co-investors, including Frederick Schulman, have been targets of extensive investigations by the federal government and certain state authorities. On April 17, 2024, Silber entered into a plea agreement in connection with defrauding the federal government in connection with an affordable housing project (which does not have a presently-identified connection to the Debtors or their past or present activities) (the "Silber Prosecution-Related Property"). The plea agreement was entered into with the Fraud Section of the Department of Justice and the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey for conspiracy to commit wire fraud affecting an institution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 371. Schulman also entered into a plea agreement around the same time. Silber was sentenced to 30 months in prison and Schuman was sentenced to 12 months and one day in prison, to be followed by nine months of home confinement. Both have agreed to pay restitution.

A considerable share of the Debtors' distress arises from the fact that many, if not all, of the properties of the Debtors and their affiliates are likely worth much less today than the appraised values which supported the issuance of the Notes and certain of the property-level mortgage loans. Although the reasons for this depreciation remain the subject of active investigation, it may be explained by three factors alone or in combination. First, commencing in 2023, if not earlier, perhaps in part or in whole due to the distraction of the government investigations and eventual prosecution, Silber and Schulman neglected the management of the Crown Capital Portfolio, causing numerous properties or property-holding Debtors or their affiliates to fall into operational and/or physical disarray, jeopardize their eligibility for affordable housing programs which pay or subsidize all or most of the rent rolls, suffer declining occupancy rates, default on their obligations under their respective loan agreements, allow property-level mortgage loans to mature, fail to defend lawsuits (including the Acquiom litigation discussed infra) and become subject to default judgments, and/or become subject to receivership proceedings. Second, the government successfully prosecuted Silber and Schulman in connection with the Silber Prosecution-Related Property for using false or misleading property-level information to obtain inflated appraisals for certain properties, obtaining excessive financing, and then siphoning the surplusage out of Crown Capital. The Debtors are investigating what relevance, if any, this misconduct has to them. Third, many of the properties of the Debtors and their affiliates were valued for the purposes of the issuance of the Notes and some of the property-level mortgages in a period of time — 2021 and 2022 — when multi-family projects such as the Debtors' were at all-time high values in part due to low interest rates and high investor demand during and after the COVID pandemic — and those properties would likely be worth less today even in the absence of management negligence or intentional misconduct.

D. Appointment of Independent Fiduciary

Once Silber's plea became public, Silber, as a convicted felon, was effectively disqualified from continuing to manage the Crown Capital Portfolio. The Crown Capital Portfolio's stakeholders, including investors who purchased the Notes (the "Noteholders"), expressed concern about these developments because the Crown Capital Portfolio's value supported the payment of principal and interest under the Notes.

Following discussions between Mr. Silber's counsel and the Noteholders' counsel (Faegre Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP) and financial advisers (at the time, IslandDundon), on August 29, 2024, the parties entered into a forbearance agreement (the "Forbearance Agreement"). The Forbearance Agreement addressed various matters involving pending defaults under the Notes and Mr. Silber's go-forward involvement with the portfolio and established a process to ensure the Crown Capital Portfolio had sufficient fiduciary oversight. The Forbearance Agreement, among other things, required Mr. Silber to appoint an independent fiduciary acceptable to the Noteholders as the sole director of CBRM and Crown Capital and provide that individual with an irrevocable proxy for so long as the obligations under the Forbearance Agreement remained pending.

Thereafter, the Noteholders' advisors identified numerous potential candidates to serve as independent fiduciary as required by the Forbearance Agreement. On September 26, 2024, the bondholders party to the Forbearance Agreement consented to the appointment of Ms. Elizabeth A. LaPuma—a restructuring professional who for over 20 years has worked as an investment banker and corporate director, including for companies in distress—as the Independent Fiduciary for CBRM and Crown Capital. Since that time, Ms. LaPuma has acted in a fiduciary capacity for those entities and the dozens of other entities directly or indirectly owned by CBRM, including the Debtors.

E. Factors Precipitating the Debtors' Chapter 11 Filings

Following her appointment, the Independent Fiduciary immediately got to work to maximize the value of the portfolio. The Independent Fiduciary ordered a review of all litigation involving the portfolio, including the systematic identification of defaults, lawsuits, and judgments entered against the properties. In addition, the Independent Fiduciary, with the assistance of entities within Lynd Management, began the process of ensuring that each property owned by the portfolio had sufficient staffing and other resources, with the goal of ensuring that residents had safe, clean homes.

The Independent Fiduciary also took steps to ensure that she and the portfolio had the internal resources to maximize value for all stakeholders. Among other things, she obtained director and officer insurance (which the Crown Capital Portfolio inexplicably never obtained prior to the Independent Fiduciary's appointment) to enable her to fulfill her duties. The Independent Fiduciary also began providing periodic updates to the Noteholder advisers and steering committee (including weekly calls), engaged an investment advisor to seek refinancing and new capital opportunities for certain portfolio properties, and engaged with other creditors.

These efforts, however, required a pause in any negative enforcement actions contemplated by creditors of the Crown Capital Portfolio, including the Noteholders. Thus, following her appointment, the Independent Fiduciary worked constructively with her advisors and the Noteholders' advisors to extend the Forbearance Agreement in order to allow additional time to restructure the portfolio in a manner which would maximize value for all stakeholders. The Noteholders agreed to extend the Forbearance Agreement through April 14, 2025. However, prior to the expiration of that extension, the Noteholders informed the Independent Fiduciary's advisors that they would not extend the Forbearance Agreement any further.

Around the same time, one of the Debtors' judgment creditors similarly expressed its intent to execute on the Debtors' assets. Specifically, in June 2022, Mr. Silber purportedly entered into that certain Credit Agreement, dated June 2, 2022, between UBS O'Connor LLC, as lender ("UBS"), and Acquiom Agency Services LLC ("Acquiom"), as administrative agent (the "Silber Credit Agreement"). The Silber Credit Agreement was purportedly guaranteed by, among others, CBRM, and was purportedly secured by a pledge by CBRM of its equity in Crown Capital. On March 6, 2024, Acquiom sent a letter to Mr. Silber asserting that a default had occurred under the Silber Credit Agreement resulting from Mr. Silber's failure to timely make certain interest payments which Acquiom asserted were properly due under the Silber Credit Agreement. On May 2, 2024, after failing to receive a response to its letter, Acquiom filed a lawsuit against, among others, Silber and CBRM (the "UBS Defendants") to recover the total aggregate principal balance under the Silber Credit Agreement in a suit captioned Acquiom Agency Services LLC v. Fox Capital LLC et. al., Index No. 652265/2024, Supreme Court of the State of New York County of New York, Commercial Division Part 45 (May 2, 2024).

On August 2, 2024, the Supreme Court of the State of New York (the "New York Court") granted Acquiom's summary judgment motion and required that Silber repay the amounts outstanding under the Silber Credit Agreement in an amount totaling $19,185,000 plus interest. On September 5, 2024, the New York Court entered a judgment against the UBS Defendants in the amount of $21,020,452.60. On September 9, 2024, Acquiom assigned the right to collect on this judgment to Spano. After the assignment, on December 14, 2024, the New York Court entered a property execution order requiring the UBS Defendants to satisfy the judgment and authorizing the Spano to foreclose and collect upon certain assets in satisfaction of its judgment, including CBRM's right, title, and interest in Crown Capital. The Rockland County sheriff was scheduled to conduct a sheriff's sale of certain assets of CBRM, including its equity interest in Crown Capital, on Thursday, May 22, 2025. The sheriff's sale, had it proceeded, would have allowed a prepetition creditor to exercise remedies against CBRM's interest in Crown Capital, the entity overseen by the Independent Fiduciary (a) that issued the Notes, (b) holds significant potential claims and causes of action against Silber and other affiliates, and (c) holds CBRM's interests in the Crown Capital Portfolio. The sheriff's sale, if it had proceeded, would have, therefore, allowed a single prepetition judgment creditor receive a recovery at the expense of other creditors (particularly the Noteholders). The Debtors commenced these Chapter 11 Cases to maximize value for all of CBRM's creditors.

F. The Debtors' Prepetition Secured Indebtedness

As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were obligated under several prepetition secured credit facilities related to the NOLA Properties. CKD Funding is the holder of first-priority lien obligations arising under two loan facilities (together, the "Prepetition First Lien Loans"). The first facility originated with DH1, which made a loan to Chenault on or about April 4, 2024. This loan was initially in the principal amount of $7.5 million, later increased to $10 million by amendment on the same day, and subsequently increased to $25 million pursuant to a second amendment dated July 5, 2024 (the "DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan"). The loan was secured by a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Lease and Rents and Security Agreement dated April 4, 2024, encumbering Carmel Brook Apartments (the "DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage"). On March 10, 2025, DH1 assigned its rights under the DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan and DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage to CKD Funding, and the assignment was recorded in the Parish of Orleans, Louisiana, on March 12, 2025.

The second facility was made by CKD Funding directly to Windrun, Lakewind, and Copper Creek on or about July 8, 2024, in the principal amount of up to $10 million. This loan was secured by a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents and Security Agreement dated July 8, 2024, covering Carmel Spring Apartments, Laguna Reserve Apartments, and Laguna Creek Apartments. Together, the obligations under these two facilities comprise the Prepetition First Lien Loans. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were liable to CKD Funding in an amount not less than $8,961,204, secured by valid, perfected first-priority liens on substantially all of their assets.

In addition, CKD Funding acquired a junior loan originally made by Akiri Funds, LLC ("Akiri") to Chenault Creek on or about January 21, 2024, in the original principal amount of $3,635,475. That loan was amended and restated on March 12, 2024, to reflect a revised principal amount of $4,060,875.87 (the "Akiri Loan"), and was secured by a Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents, and Security Agreement dated March 13, 2024 (the "Akiri Mortgage"). The Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage were expressly subordinated to the DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan and DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage pursuant to a Subordination and Intercreditor Agreement dated April 4, 2024. Akiri sold and assigned the Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage to DH1 on September 6, 2024, who ultimately assigned the Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage to CKD Funding as part of the same March 2025 assignment from DH1 CKD Funding.

CKD Penn, LLC holds a junior mortgage on each of the NOLA Properties pursuant to a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and rents and Security Agreement dated August 16, 2024, which secures its guaranty of certain obligations owed by non-debtor affiliates of the Debtors.

Finally, Lakewind granted a mortgage on Laguna Reserve Apartments in favor of Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge Ltd. ("CIF") to secure a $4.5 million credit facility originally extended by CIF to Laguna Reserve pursuant to a Credit Agreement dated April 25, 2023. The mortgage was granted following a default by Laguna Reserve and was recorded on December 13, 2024. The CIF Lakewind Mortgage (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) is recognized by the Debtors, the Independent Fiduciary, CKD Funding, and CKD Penn as a valid, properly perfected lien, but only to the extent and subject to the conditions set forth in the NOLA DIP Order. Specifically, the CIF Lakewind Mortgage is junior to the Prepetition First Priority Liens (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) and the CKD Penn Junior Liens (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) and is recognized solely in accordance with the stipulations and reservations of rights contained in the NOLA DIP Order.

G. Prepetition Unsecured Obligations

As of the Petition Date, the Debtors' prepetition unsecured indebtedness consisted of: (a) the Notes, which are a series of three bond issuances, each made under a purported exemption from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, each of which is structured as a series of economically-identical bilateral agreements between the issuer and guarantor thereof, on the one hand, and each note purchaser (principally consisting of insurance companies and wealth management firms), on the other hand, and none of which possesses a trust indenture nor indenture trustee; (b) operating trade obligations; and (c) obligations to Lynd Management, LAGSP, and providers of professional services to or the payment of which was guaranteed by the Debtors.

VI. OVERVIEW OF THE CHAPTER 11 CASES

A. Commencement of Chapter 11 Cases

On the Petition Date, the Debtors commenced the Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors continue to manage their properties and operate their businesses as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. Joint Administration of the Chapter 11 Cases

On May 20, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking joint administration of their Chapter 11 Cases for procedural purposes only [Docket No. 7]. On May 27, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order granting the motion and directing that the cases be jointly administered under the lead case, In re CBRM Realty Inc., Case No. 25-15343 [Docket No. 51].

C. Complex Chapter 11 Case Designation and Procedures

On May 20, 2025, the Debtors submitted an application to designate the Chapter 11 Cases as complex Chapter 11 cases [Docket No. 10]. On May 28, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order granting the designation [Docket No. 57]. Subsequently, on June 9, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order implementing the Chapter 11 Complex Case Procedures [Docket No. 122].

D. Cash Management System

On May 23, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking authority to continue using their existing cash management system, maintain their existing bank accounts and business forms, honor related obligations in the ordinary course of business, and continue conducting intercompany transactions. The motion also requested that postpetition intercompany balances be granted superpriority administrative expense status pursuant to sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 30].

On May 28, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an interim order approving the requested relief on an interim basis [Docket No. 60]. Following a final hearing, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order on June 18, 2025, authorizing the Debtors to continue operating their cash management system and related practices on a final basis [Docket No. 165]. Pursuant to the final order, the Debtors were authorized to maintain their prepetition cash management structure, including all bank accounts and intercompany funding arrangements, and to continue using their existing checks and business forms, provided that they include a "Debtor in Possession" designation.

E. Authorization of Tenant Reimbursement and Business Operations

On May 23, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking authority to continue to operate their businesses in the ordinary course, including authority to pay certain prepetition obligations that are essential to ongoing operations and necessary to preserve the value of the estates [Docket No. 34] (the "Ordinary Course Motion"). This relief was critical to maintaining stable operations during the early stages of the Chapter 11 Cases and ensuring continuity of services across the Debtors' real estate portfolio.

Included within the scope of the Ordinary Course Motion was authorization for the Debtors to honor prepetition obligations to tenants, including obligations related to tenant reimbursements. Many of the Debtors' commercial leases contain provisions requiring the landlords to reimburse tenants for specific capital expenditures or tenant improvements, subject to defined lease terms and conditions. These reimbursements, while prepetition in origin, were viewed as essential to maintaining positive tenant relationships, avoiding litigation, and preserving the ongoing viability of tenancy arrangements that are foundational to the Debtors' revenue stream.

On June 18, 2025, following notice and a hearing, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order granting the Debtors authority to make tenant reimbursement payments consistent with the terms of applicable leases, and to continue administering and satisfying those obligations on a go-forward basis without the need for further Court approval [Docket No. 166]. On June 27, 2025, the Court entered a final order granting the Debtors authority to continue their prepetition business operations, policies, and practices, including the authorization to pay taxes and fees, vendor claims, and insurance obligations in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis [Docket No. 226].

F. Retention of Chapter 11 Professionals

The Debtors have obtained authority to retain various professionals to assist them in carrying out their duties under the Bankruptcy Code during these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors' professionals include: (i) White & Case LLP as bankruptcy counsel; (ii) Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey special counsel; and (iii) Verita as claims and noticing agent and administrative agent. In addition, the Debtors have filed applications to retain: (i) IslandDundon Partners LLC as restructuring advisor and investment banker; (ii) Hilco Real Estate, LLC, as real estate advisor for the Kelly Hamilton Property (as defined below) and the NOLA Properties; and (iii) Larry G. Schedler & Associates, Inc.., as real estate broker for the NOLA Properties. The Debtors may seek to retain additional professionals.

G. DIP Financing Motion

On May 28, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 61] seeking authority to obtain two senior secured superpriority debtor-in-possession ("DIP") financing facilities from the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and the NOLA DIP Lenders, respectively.

On June 19, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court approved the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility on a final basis [Docket No. 178] (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Order"). Pursuant to the Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement, dated June 23, 2025, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility provides up to $9,705,162 in postpetition financing to the Debtors. The proceeds are to be used, among other things, to pay accrued and unpaid prepetition obligations to the prior secured lender, fund working capital, pay administrative and professional expenses in these Chapter 11 Cases, and preserve the value of low-income, HUD-subsidized multifamily housing owned by the Debtors.

The Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility is secured by first-priority, priming liens on substantially all assets of the Debtors (excluding certain litigation trust assets) and includes superpriority administrative expense claims under section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The facility provides that the obligations owed to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender are subject only to a defined Carve-Out and a limited reservation of rights respecting the Purported Spano Judgment Lien (as defined in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order).

On July 2, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court approved the NOLA DIP Facility on a final basis [Docket No. 251] (the "NOLA DIP Order"). Pursuant to the Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement, the NOLA DIP Facility provides for up to $17,422,728 in postpetition financing to Debtors Crown Capital, RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Windrun LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, and RH Lakewind East LLC. Of that amount, approximately $8,461,524 constitutes new money loans, with the remaining $8,961,204 representing a roll-up of obligations under the prepetition first lien loan facilities. The proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility are to be used to fund working capital, pay administrative and professional expenses in these Chapter 11 Cases, satisfy critical prepetition obligations, and preserve and stabilize the value of the NOLA Properties.

The NOLA DIP Facility is secured by first-priority, priming liens and includes superpriority administrative expense claims under section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The obligations under the NOLA DIP Facility are subject only to a defined Carve-Out and are governed by a budget and reporting protocol similar to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility. The final DIP order also provides for the roll-up of prepetition debt upon entry of the final order, without a novation or impairment of existing liens, and reserves certain rights with respect to potential litigation trust assets. For the avoidance of doubt, except to the extent that the NOLA DIP Facility has been indefeasibly repaid in full in Cash or the NOLA DIP Lenders and the Independent Fiduciary otherwise agree in writing, the Plan does not modify or otherwise affect any obligations of the Debtors arising under or related to the NOLA DIP Facility.

H. Utilities Motion

On June 10, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking entry of interim and final orders to establish adequate assurance procedures and to prevent utility companies from altering, refusing, or discontinuing service due to the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases [Docket No. 125] (the "Utilities Motion"). The Utilities Motion was critical to ensuring uninterrupted utility services to the Debtors' affordable housing projects across multiple states. The Debtors proposed to deposit approximately $67,025 into a segregated account as adequate assurance for utility providers, in addition to maintaining their historical payment practices.

On July 10, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order granting the relief requested in the Utilities Motion [Docket No. 279].

I. Lynd Management and LAGSP Contract Assumption

On June 11, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 128] seeking authority to assume critical prepetition property management and staffing contracts with Lynd Management and LAGSP, which provided essential onsite and centralized services to the Debtors' multifamily housing portfolio. The Debtors determined that assumption of these contracts was necessary to preserve value and maintain operational stability, particularly given Lynd Management and LAGSP's provision of critical property management and asset management services that are essential to maintaining compliance with regulatory requirements (including HUD requirements) and safeguarding resident health and safety. Continued engagement of Lynd Management and LAGSP was also integral to preserving the value of the Kelly Hamilton Property and the NOLA Properties and ensuring uninterrupted, compliant operations throughout the chapter 11 process.

On June 18, 2025, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 171] authorizing assumption of the contracts. In connection with that assumption, the Debtors agreed to pay a total cure amount of $953,000 to Lynd Management and LAGSP. Of that amount, $328,000 was payable in cash upon entry of the order, with the remaining $625,000 to be treated as an allowed administrative expense under sections 365(b) and 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and paid in accordance with the Plan's treatment of General Administrative Claims.

This arrangement provided immediate liquidity to Lynd Management and LAGSP and preserved its continued postpetition services while deferring the balance of the cure costs in a manner that aligned with the Debtors' liquidity constraints. The assumption of the Lynd Management and LAGSP contracts helped ensure continuity in essential property operations while supporting the Debtors' broader restructuring efforts.

J. Schedules and Statements and Claims Bar Dates

On June 27, 2025, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 227] approving the establishment of deadlines for filing proofs of claim. The order established: (i) 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on July 28, 2025, as the general bar date for all non-governmental creditors to file proofs of claim against the Debtors (the "Claims Bar Date"); (ii) 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on November 17, 2025, as the deadline for governmental units to file claims (the "Governmental Bar Date"); (iii) the later of (a) the Claims or Governmental Bar Date, as applicable, or (b) 30 days after entry of an order authorizing rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease, as the deadline for claims arising from such rejection (the "Rejection Damages Bar Date"); and (iv) the later of (a) the Claims or Governmental Bar Date, as applicable, or (b) 21 days following service of an amendment to a Debtor's Schedules, as the deadline for affected creditors to file claims in response (the "Amended Schedules Bar Date").

The Debtors intend to serve all required Bar Date Notices promptly upon entry of the Bar Date Order and have engaged Verita to facilitate notice and claims administration.

On June 24, 2025, the Debtors filed their Schedules of Assets and Liabilities and Statements of Financial Affairs (the "Schedules and Statements") pursuant to section 521 of the Bankruptcy Code. These filings included individual Schedules and Statements for Chenault, Windrun, Copper Creek, Lakewind, RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, and RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC [Docket Nos. 192-197].[65] The Schedules and Statements were prepared based on information available to the Debtors as of the Petition Date and are subject to further amendment or supplementation as discovery continues. Laguna Reserve anticipates filing its Schedules and Statements within the time permitted under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(c).

K. Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 11 Case of RH Lakewind East LLC

On June 1, 2025, CIF filed a motion to dismiss the Chapter 11 case of Lakewind pursuant to sections 1112(b) and 305(a) of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 87]. CIF alleged that Lakewind's bankruptcy petition was not filed in good faith and that dismissal was warranted based on purported bad faith and lack of legitimate reorganization purpose.

Following negotiations among the Debtors, CIF, and other stakeholders, and in connection with the settlement embodied in the NOLA DIP Order, CIF agreed to withdraw the motion with prejudice. Pursuant to paragraph 9 of the NOLA DIP Order, entry of that order constituted CIF's agreement to permanently withdraw its motion to dismiss and to waive further litigation or objection concerning the subject matter of that motion. Accordingly, the motion to dismiss was deemed withdrawn with prejudice upon entry of the NOLA DIP Order.

On June 25, 2025, CIF commenced the adversary proceeding styled Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge Ltd. and Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC v. CKD Funding, LLC and CKD Investor Penn LLC, Adv. Proc. No. 25-01269, asserting claims related to the financing structure of certain Crown Capital Portfolio entities.

The Debtors and other stakeholders disputed CIF's standing to prosecute the claims asserted in the adversary proceeding. Before any responsive pleadings were filed, CIF voluntarily dismissed the adversary proceeding on the basis that it lacked standing to pursue the asserted claims.

Thereafter, as part of the settlement embodied in the NOLA DIP Order, CIF agreed to waive and release any further challenges related to the subject matter of the adversary proceeding. Pursuant to paragraph 9 of the NOLA DIP Order, CIF also agreed not to initiate or pursue further litigation or objections concerning the Debtors' governance structure or restructuring process to the extent addressed in the adversary proceeding or resolved in connection with the settlement.

M. Retention and Compensation of Professionals

On July 8, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order Authorizing Employment and Payment of Professionals Utilized in the Ordinary Course of Business [Docket No. 270] (the "Ordinary Course Professionals Motion"). Pursuant to the Ordinary Course Professionals Motion, the Debtors sought authority to retain and compensate certain professionals utilized in the ordinary course of business without the need to file individual retention applications for each such professional, subject to certain procedures and monthly payment caps. On July 24, 2025, the Court entered an order granting the relief requested in the Ordinary Course Professionals Motion [Docket No. 270].

[65] The Schedules for Chenault Creek, Copper Creek, Lakewind, and Windrun were amended on July 31, 2025 [Docket Nos. 341-344] to reflect updates to Schedule E/F. Additional amendments may be made as necessary.

Also on July 8, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Administrative Fee Order Establishing Procedures for the Allowance and Payment of Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals Retained by Order of the Court [Docket No. 272] (the "Interim Compensation Motion"). The Interim Compensation Motion requested approval of procedures for the interim allowance and payment of fees and reimbursement of expenses of professionals retained pursuant to sections 327 and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code. On July 24, 2025, the Court entered an order granting the relief requested in the Interim Compensation Motion [Docket No. 324].

N. The CBRM Plan

On June 30, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed the initial CBRM Plan [Docket No. 246] and related disclosure statement [Docket No. 247] (the "CBRM Disclosure Statement"), in accordance with milestones set forth in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order.

On July 11, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed a motion seeking approval of procedures for the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Apartments, a multifamily affordable housing complex located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (the "Kelly Hamilton Property"), including a proposed stalking horse purchase agreement and related bid protections [Docket No. 281] (the "Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion"). That same day, the CBRM Debtors filed a motion seeking conditional approval of the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement and associated voting and solicitation procedures (the "Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion") [Docket No. 283].

On July 24, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed revised versions of the CBRM Plan and CBRM Disclosure Statement [Docket Nos. 320, 321], and the Bankruptcy Court held a hearing to consider approval of both the Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion and the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion. The Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the relief sought in the Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion [Docket No. 325] that same day, and on August 1, 2025, entered an order approving the revised relief requested in the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion [Docket No. 347], following submission of updated solicitation documents filed on July 30, 2025 and August 5, 2025, including the CBRM Disclosure Statement and CBRM Plan [Docket Nos. 339, 340, 360].

The bid deadline was August 14, 2025, and no additional qualified bids were received. Accordingly, the auction scheduled for August 18, 2025 will not be held. On August 15, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed a notice designating the stalking horse purchaser as the successful bidder [Docket No. 383]. Under the CBRM Plan, the Kelly Hamilton Property will be sold to the stalking horse purchaser, subject to Bankruptcy Court approval at the confirmation hearing set for September 4, 2025.

Distributions under the CBRM Plan will be funded from, among other sources, the proceeds of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction (as defined in the CBRM Plan) and the Creditor Recovery Trust. The CBRM Debtors are currently soliciting votes on the CBRM Plan, with a voting deadline of August 26, 2025.

O. Disputed Spano CBRM Claim and Spano Adversary Proceeding

As described in greater detail above, Acquiom obtained a prepetition judgment against CBRM in connection with guarantees provided under the Silber Credit Agreement, which judgment was subsequently assigned to Spano. That judgment included, among other actions, a scheduled sheriff's sale of CBRM's equity interests in Crown Capital that was stayed by the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases.

On July 15, 2025, Spano filed a proof of claim against CBRM (Claim No. 4), asserting a secured claim in the amount of approximately $21.1 million based on the prepetition judgment and a purported lien. In response, on July 18, 2025, CBRM filed a complaint in the Bankruptcy Court against Spano and Acquiom, initiating an adversary proceeding captioned CBRM Realty Inc. v. Spano Investor LLC (In re CBRM Realty Inc.), Adv. Pro. No. 25-01295, Case No. 25-15343 (Bankr. D.N.J. July 18, 2025) (the "Spano Adversary Proceeding") [Adv. Dkt. No. 1] (the "Complaint").

The Complaint alleges, among other things, that in June 2022, Mr. Silber entered into a credit agreement with Acquiom and certain lenders and subsequently received an aggregate amount of $19 million of loan proceeds prior to November 2023. In November 2023, Mr. Silber caused CBRM to become a guarantor under the credit agreement via an amendment to the governing guaranty agreement. Mr. Silber also received an additional $7.75 million of loan proceeds under the credit agreement. In May 2025, Acquiom filed suit against the guarantors in New York state court under the relevant loan documents. On September 5, 2024, Acquiom received a judgment against the guarantors, including CBRM, in the amount of approximately $21 million. Acquiom subsequently assigned the judgment to Spano. On or around December 13, 2024, Spano delivered a property execution letter to the Rockland County Sheriff, resulting in a purported judgment lien on CBRM's property. The corresponding levy was served on CBRM's counsel, White & Case LLP, on January 15, 2025. The Complaint alleges that the levy expired 90 days after service if CBRM's property was not transferred to the sheriff—and that no such transfer occurred.

The Complaint seeks to avoid CBRM's guaranty as a constructively fraudulent transfer pursuant to sections 544 and 548 of the Bankruptcy Code and to avoid the purported judgment lien as unperfected as of the Petition Date under section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition, the Complaint seeks disallowance of Spano's proof of claim in its entirety or, in the alternative, a determination that Spano holds only an unsecured claim.

The Complaint asserts five causes of action, including: (i) avoidance and recovery of the guaranty as a constructively fraudulent transfer under sections 544, 548, 550, and 551, against Spano and Acquiom; (ii) avoidance and recovery of the purported lien under sections 544, 550, and 551, against Spano and Acquiom; (iii) disallowance of the defendants' claims under section 502(d), against Spano and Acquiom; (iv) disallowance of Spano's claim under section 502(b), against Spano; and (v) recharacterization and/or disallowance of Spano's claim as unsecured under sections 502 and 506, against Spano.

Spano disputes all of the allegations asserted in the Spano Adversary Proceeding and has expressly reserved all rights, claims, and defenses in connection therewith.

On July 30, 2025, the Debtors, Spano, and Acquiom executed the Stipulation and Agreed Order Among the Debtors, Spano Investor LLC, and Acquiom Agency Services LLC to Stay Adversary Proceeding and Resolve Certain Claims Treatment Issues, which was filed with the Bankruptcy Court and was entered on July 31, 2025 [Docket No. 345] (the "Spano Stipulation"). Pursuant to the Spano Stipulation, the Spano CBRM Claim (as defined in the CBRM Plan) shall be deemed Allowed in the amount of $21,118,881.01 solely for voting purposes under section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, without prejudice to Spano's position that its Claim is secured and supported by valid, enforceable liens and security interests. The CBRM Plan was amended to provide for a separate class for the Spano CBRM Claim, and Spano has agreed to vote to accept the CBRM Plan in that class. The Spano Stipulation expressly reserves all parties' rights with respect to the classification, allowability, priority, and secured status of the Spano CBRM Claim.

The Spano Adversary Proceeding and related claim objections have been stayed in their entirety and may resume only if, after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee makes a good-faith determination that value is available for distribution to creditors of CBRM after the payment in full of all Allowed Claims against CBRM's subsidiaries. Spano will receive thirty (30) days' advance written notice of such determination and may file an objection with the Bankruptcy Court within thirty (30) days of receiving such notice. If the Creditor Recovery Trustee determines no such value is available, the Spano Adversary Proceeding shall be dismissed with prejudice. If value is determined to be available, the Spano Adversary Proceeding shall resume in accordance with a mutually agreed-upon schedule, unless otherwise resolved.

P. Pleadings Relating to Moshe (Mark) Silber

On July 18, 2025, Mr. Silber, acting pro se, filed the Motion of Party in Interest Moshe ("Mark") Silber for Issuance of a Subpoena Duces Tecum Pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004(C) and 9016 [Docket No. 298] (the "Silber Rule 2004 Motion") for an order compelling discovery under Rule 2004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure from Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, and LAGSP. The Silber Rule 2004 Motion seeks records from Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, and LAGSP relating to a range of topics relating to the Debtors and non-Debtor affiliates, as well as all communications regarding these topics between or among Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, LAGSP, and IslandDundon LLC. The hearing on the Silber Rule 2004 Motion was originally scheduled for August 14, 2025.

On July 25, 2025, Mr. Silber, acting pro se, filed the Motion of Party in Interest Moshe ("Mark") Silber for Appointment of an Equity Security Holders Committee or, in the Alternative, Appointment of Counsel [Docket No. 348] (the "Silber Equity Committee Motion") seeking appointment of an equity committee in these Chapter 11 Cases or, in the alternative, the appointment of counsel for Mr. Silber pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(1). Upon the filing of the Silber Equity Committee Motion, the Court adjourned the hearing on the Silber Rule 2004 Motion to August 21, 2025, to hear both motions on the same day.

On July 29, 2025, the Debtors served a Subpoena for Rule 2004 Examination on Mr. Silber, which had a response deadline of August 15, 2025. See Notice of Service of Subpoena Pursuant to L.R. 2004-1 [Docket No. 337].

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed objections to the Silber Rule 2004 Motion [Docket No. 374] and the Silber Equity Committee Motion [Docket No. 375]. The Debtors have offered to produce limited documents responsive to Mr. Silber's proposed requests.

On August 14, 2025, the U.S. Trustee also objected to the Silber Equity Committee Motion. Docket No. 377.

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 378] (the "Motion for Leave") seeking entry of an order granting the Debtors leave to depose Mr. Silber, who is currently confined in prison, at the site of his incarceration between August 25, 2025, and August 29, 2025. The Motion for Leave will be heard on August 21, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Objection to Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230 of Moshe Mark Silber [Docket No. 372] (the "Silber Claim Objection") and Declaration of Matthew Dundon, Principal of IslandDundon LLC, in Support of the Debtors' Objection to Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230 of Moshe Mark Silber [Docket No. 373], seeking entry of an order disallowing the three Proofs of Claim filed by Mr. Silber (i.e., Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230) (collectively, the "Silber Claims"). Each of the Silber Claims asserts a purported unsecured claim of $3,989,175.00 for tax liabilities allegedly arising from the sale of a property. Proof of Claim No. 216 was superseded by a later filing and Proof of Claim No. 230 is duplicative. As to the remaining Proof of Claim No. 229, Mr. Silber did not attach sufficient support to the claim to constitute prima facie validity of a claim and the claim seeks amounts for which the Debtors are not liable. Accordingly, the Debtors seek to disallow the Silber Claims in their entirety to avoid duplicative or unwarranted recoveries. A hearing to consider the Silber Claim Objection is set for September 22, 2025, at 11:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

Q. NOLA Bidding Procedures

On July 30, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 350] seeking entry of the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order approving bidding procedures (the "NOLA Bidding Procedures")[76] in connection with a potential sale of one or more of the NOLA Properties. Such sale may be implemented either under a chapter 11 plan or as a standalone transaction pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. The NOLA Bidding Procedures are intended to facilitate a competitive and value-maximizing process through which interested parties may submit bids to acquire one or more of the NOLA Properties. The process ensures that all qualified bids are solicited, reviewed, and evaluated in a manner consistent with the milestones and confirmation timeline outlined in this Disclosure Statement and the associated solicitation procedures. To date, the Debtors have not entered into a stalking horse agreement with a stalking horse bidder for the NOLA Properties, and the Debtors may consider proposals for one or more of the NOLA Properties.

The Court entered the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order on August 15, 2025 [Docket No. 382]. Pursuant to the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order, the Bid Deadline is September 11, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). If one or more Qualifying Bids are received, the Debtors will conduct an auction on September 15, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Debtors will file and serve a notice of any Successful Bidder and Back-Up Bidder no later than September 16, 2025. To the extent applicable, the hearing to consider approval of a sale pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code is scheduled for September 22, 2025 at 11:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). Alternatively, if the potential sale is to be consummated through the Plan, the confirmation and sale hearing is scheduled for October 22, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

R. Chapter 11 Filing for Laguna Reserve

Following the Petition Date, Debtors' counsel, in coordination with LAGSP, determined that Lakewind is a subsidiary of Laguna Reserve and that Debtor Crown Capital Holdings LLC owns 100% of the equity interests in Laguna Reserve. Accordingly, on August 17, 2025, the Debtors filed a voluntary petition under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code for Laguna Reserve. Concurrently therewith, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for an Order (A) Applying Certain Orders in Initial Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases to Debtor Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC and (B) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 387] (the "Omnibus First Day Motion"). The Omnibus First Day Motion seeks to apply to Laguna Reserve's chapter 11 case certain orders previously entered in the chapter 11 cases, in order to avoid duplicative filings, reduce administrative burdens on the Bankruptcy Court and parties in interest, and streamline case administration.

~~The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be structured in a manner consistent with U.S. federal tax law as determined by the Debtors prior to the Confirmation Hearing.~~

A. General Tax Considerations

The following discussion is a summary of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences from the consummation of the Plan to Holders entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust, is for general information purposes only, and should not be relied upon for purposes of determining the specific tax consequences of the Plan with respect to a particular Holder of a Claim. This discussion does not purport to be a complete analysis or listing of all potential tax considerations. This discussion does not address aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to a particular Holder of a Claim subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws (such as broker dealers; traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting for securities holdings; banks; thrifts; insurance companies; financial institutions; regulated investment companies; real estate investment trusts; pension plans; partnerships (or other entities or arrangements treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) or a partner, member or owner therein; persons that hold a Claim as part of a straddle or a hedging, conversion or constructive sale transaction; persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar and other tax exempt investors). This summary does not discuss any aspects of state, local or foreign tax laws or any U.S. federal estate or gift tax considerations. Furthermore, this summary does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to a Holder of a Claim, such as the potential application of the alternative minimum tax.

This discussion is based on existing provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "IRC"), existing and proposed Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, and current administrative rulings and court decisions. Legislative, judicial, or administrative changes or interpretations enacted or promulgated after the date hereof could alter or modify the analyses set forth below with respect to the federal income tax consequences of the Plan. Any such changes or interpretations may be retroactive and could significantly affect the federal income tax consequences of the Plan.

No ruling has been or will be requested or obtained from the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") with respect to any tax aspects of the Plan and no opinion of counsel has been or will be sought or obtained with respect thereto. No representations or assurances are being made to the Holders of Claims or Interests with respect to the U.S. federal income tax consequences described herein.

ACCORDINGLY, THE FOLLOWING SUMMARY OF CERTAIN U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN IS FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY AND IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR CAREFUL TAX PLANNING OR ADVICE BASED UPON THE INDIVIDUAL CIRCUMSTANCES PERTAINING TO A PARTICULAR HOLDER OF A CLAIM OR INTEREST. EACH HOLDER OF A CLAIM OR INTEREST IS STRONGLY URGED TO CONSULT WITH ITS OWN TAX ADVISORS REGARDING THE U.S. FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND NON-U.S. INCOME, ESTATE, AND OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN.

B. U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to Holders of Claims

1. Consequences of U.S. Holders of Claims

For purposes of this discussion, a "U.S. Holder" is a beneficial owner of a Claim that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

- an individual citizen or resident of the United States;
- a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state therein or the District of Columbia;
- an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or
- a trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over its administration and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or otherwise if the trust has a valid election in effect under current Treasury regulations to be treated as a United States person.

A "Non-U.S. Holder" is any Holder that is not a U.S. Holder or a partnership (or other entity treated as a partnership or other pass-through entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes). If a partnership (or other entity treated as a partnership or other pass-through entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is a Holder of a Claim, the tax treatment of a partner (or other beneficial owner) generally will depend upon the status of the partner (or other beneficial owner) and the activities of the partner (or other beneficial owner) and the entity. Partners (or other beneficial owners) of partnerships (or other pass-through entities) that are Holders of Claims should consult their respective tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Plan.

The federal income tax consequences of the implementation of the Plan to a U.S. Holder of Claims will depend, among other things, upon the origin of the Holder's Claim, when the Holder receives payment in respect of such Claim, whether the Holder reports income using the accrual or cash method of tax accounting, whether the Holder acquired its Claim at a discount and whether the Holder has taken a bad debt deduction with respect to such Claim.

(a) CIF Mortgage Loan Claims

Each Holder of a CIF Mortgage Loan Claim will be entitled to receive proceeds from the sale of the Lakewind Property in excess of the amount necessary to satisfy all Allowed NOLA DIP Claims, Allowed General Administrative Claims, Allowed Priority Tax Claims, Allowed Other Priority Claims, and Allowed Other Secured Claims in full in Cash on the Effective Date, and, to the extent such excess cash is insufficient to satisfy the Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claims in full, each holder's pro rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution to holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan.

Holders of CIF Mortgage Loan Claims generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the amount of any Cash received by the Holder (other than any consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income).

(b) NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims

Each Holder of a NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claim will be entitled to receive substantially all assets of Debtors Chenault Creek, Copper Creek, Lakewind, and Windrun pursuant to the NOLA Purchase Agreement. The NOLA Purchase Agreement will set forth the specific terms of the transaction, which may include the assumption of certain liabilities and the payment of cure amounts for assigned executory contracts, among other provisions.

Holders of NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims generally will recognize gain or loss on the receipt of such assets in exchange for their Claims in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the fair market value on the date of the exchange of such assets, less any liabilities (other than in consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income). Holders of NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims are expected to have a fair market value tax basis in the assets acquired.

(c) Other NOLA Unsecured Claims

Each Holder of an Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan.

Holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the amount of any Cash received by the Holder (other than any consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income).

(d) Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims

Each Holder of an Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claim and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan).

As described more fully below, Holders of Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claim and Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the fair market value of each Holder's Pro Rata Share of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (other than any consideration attributable to a Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the adjusted tax basis of the Claim exchanged therefor (other than basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in the Holder's taxable income).

When gain or loss is recognized, such gain or loss may be long-term capital gain or loss if the Claim disposed of is a capital asset in the hands of the U.S. Holder and has been held for more than one year (subject to the rules discussed below regarding market discount). Each U.S. Holder of a Claim should consult its own tax advisor to determine whether gain or loss recognized by such Holder will be long-term capital gain or loss and the specific tax effect thereof on such Holder.

(i) Character of Gain or Loss

When gain or loss is recognized by a U.S. Holder, the character of such gain or loss as long-term or short-term capital gain or loss or as ordinary income or loss is determined by a number of factors, including the tax status of the U.S. Holder, whether the U.S. Holder's Claim constitutes a capital asset in the hands of the U.S. Holder and how long it has been held, whether such Claim was acquired at a market discount, and whether and to what extent the U.S. Holder previously claimed a bad debt deduction in respect of the Claim. Each U.S. Holder of a Claim should consult its own tax advisor to determine whether gain or loss recognized by such Holder will be long-term capital gain or loss and the specific tax effect thereof on such Holder.

(ii) Accrued but Unpaid Interest

Pursuant to Article VI.F of the Plan, all distributions in respect of Allowed Claims will be allocated first to the principal amount of the Allowed Claim (as determined for federal income tax purposes), with any excess allocated to accrued but unpaid interest. There is no assurance, however, that such allocation would be respected by the IRS for federal income tax purposes. In general, to the extent any amount received (whether cash or other property) by a U.S. Holder of a debt instrument is received in satisfaction of accrued interest during its holding period, such amount will be taxable to the Holder as interest income (if not previously included in the Holder's gross income under the Holder's normal method of accounting). Conversely, a U.S. Holder generally recognizes a deductible loss to the extent any accrued interest claimed was previously included in its gross income and is not paid in full. Each U.S. Holder of Claims is urged to consult its own tax advisor regarding the allocation of consideration and the taxation or deductibility of unpaid interest for tax purposes.

(iii) Market Discount

U.S. Holders of Claims receive Cash or other property in respect of their Claims may be affected by the "market discount" provisions of the sections 1276 through 1278 of the IRC. Under these rules, some or all of the gain realized by a U.S. Holder may be treated as ordinary income (instead of capital gain), to the extent of the amount of "market discount" on such Claims.

In general, a debt obligation with a fixed maturity of more than one year that is acquired by a holder on the secondary market (or, in certain circumstances, upon original issuance) is considered to be acquired with "market discount" as to that holder if the debt obligation's stated redemption price at maturity (or revised issue price, in the case of a debt obligation issued with original issue discount) exceeds the tax basis of the debt obligation in the holder's hands immediately after its acquisition. However, a debt obligation will not be a "market discount bond" if such excess is less than a statutory de minimis amount (equal to 0.25 percent of the debt obligation's stated redemption price at maturity or revised issue price, in the case of a debt obligation issued with original issue discount).

Any gain recognized by a U.S. Holder on the taxable disposition of Claims (determined as described above) that were acquired with market discount should be treated as ordinary income to the extent of the market discount that accrued thereon while the Claims were considered to be held by a U.S. Holder (unless the U.S. Holder elected to include market discount in income as it accrued).

(iv) Limitation on Use of Capital Losses

A U.S. Holder who recognizes capital losses will be subject to limits on their use of capital losses. For a non-corporate U.S. Holder, capital losses may be used to offset any capital gains (without regard to holding periods) plus ordinary income to the extent of the lesser of (a) $3,000 ($1,500 for married individuals filing separate returns) or (b) the excess of the capital losses over the capital gains. A non-corporate U.S. Holder may carry over unused capital losses and apply them to capital gains and a portion of their ordinary income for an unlimited number of years. For corporate U.S. Holders, losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets may only be used to offset capital gains. A corporate U.S. Holder who has more capital losses than can be used in a tax year may be allowed to carry over the excess capital losses for use in succeeding tax years. Corporate U.S. Holders may only carry over unused capital losses for the five years following the capital loss year, but are allowed to carry back unused capital losses to the three years preceding the capital loss year.

(v) Medicare Tax

Certain U.S. Holders that are individuals, estates, or trusts are required to pay an additional 3.8 percent tax on, among other things, interest, dividends and gains from the sale or other disposition of capital assets. U.S. Holders that are individuals, estates, or trusts should consult their own tax advisors regarding the effect, if any, of this tax provision on their ownership and disposition of any consideration to be received under the Plan.

2. Consequences to Non-U.S. Holders of Claims.

The following discussion addresses some of the U.S. federal income tax consequences to a beneficial owner of a Claim is a Non-U.S. Holder. The following discussion includes only certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Plan to Non-U.S. Holders. This discussion does not include any non-U.S. tax considerations. The rules governing the U.S. federal income tax consequences to Non-U.S. Holders are complex. Each Non-U.S. Holder is urged to consult its own tax advisor regarding the U.S. federal, state, local, non-U.S., and non-income tax consequences of the consummation of the Plan to such Non-U.S. Holder.

(a) Gain Realized / Income Allocated to Non-U.S. Holders

Whether a non-U.S. Holder realizes gain or loss on the exchange and the amount of such gain or loss is generally determined in the same manner as set forth above in connection with U.S. Holders.

(b) Gain/Income Recognition by Non-U.S. Holders

Any gain realized by a Non-U.S. Holder on the exchange of its Claim generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income taxation unless: (a) except as otherwise covered by clause (b) below, (i) with respect to capital gains, the Non-U.S. Holder is an individual who was present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year in which the Plan becomes effective and certain other conditions are met or (ii) with respect to income other than capital gains, the income is otherwise deemed to be derived from U.S. sources, or (b) such gain and/or income is effectively connected with the conduct by such Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business in the United States (and, if an income tax treaty applies, such gain is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by such Non-U.S. Holder in the United States).

If the first exception applies, the Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a rate of 30 percent (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty) on the amount by which such Non-U.S. Holder's capital gains allocable to U.S. sources exceed capital losses allocable to U.S. sources during the taxable year of the exchange. If the second exception applies, the Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax with respect to any gain realized on the exchange if such gain is effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States in the same manner as a U.S. Holder. In order to claim an exemption from withholding tax, such Non-U.S. Holder will be required to provide a properly executed IRS Form W-8ECI (or such successor form as the IRS designates). In addition, if such a Non-U.S. Holder is a corporation, it may be subject to a "branch profits tax" equal to 30 percent (or such lower rate provided by an applicable income tax treaty) of its effectively connected earnings and profits for the taxable year, subject to certain adjustments.

(c) Accrued Interest

Subject to the discussion of backup withholding and FATCA below, payments to a Non-U.S. Holder that are attributable to accrued but unpaid interest with respect to the Claims generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax; provided that the withholding agent has received or receives, prior to payment, appropriate documentation (generally, IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E) establishing that the Non-U.S. Holder is not a U.S. person, unless:

- the Non-U.S. Holder actually or constructively owns 10 percent or more of the capital or profits interest in the "regarded" owner of the applicable Debtor for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- the Non-U.S. Holder is a "controlled foreign corporation" that is a "related person" with respect to the Owner (each, within the meaning of the IRC);
- the Non-U.S. Holder is a bank receiving interest described in IRC Section 881(c)(3)(A); or
- such interest is effectively connected with the conduct by the Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business within the United States (in which case, provided the Non-U.S. Holder provides a properly executed IRS Form W-8ECI (or successor form) to the withholding agent, the Non-U.S. Holder (x) generally will not be subject to withholding tax, but (y) will be subject to U.S. federal income tax in the same manner as a U.S. Holder (unless an applicable income tax treaty provides otherwise), and a Non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes may also be subject to a branch profits tax with respect to such Non-U.S. Holder's effectively connected earnings and profits that are attributable to the accrued interest at a rate of 30% (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty)).

A Non-U.S. Holder that does not qualify for the exemption from withholding tax with respect to accrued but unpaid interest that is not effectively connected income generally will be subject to withholding of U.S. federal income tax at a 30% rate (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty) on any payments that are attributable to accrued but unpaid interest. For purposes of providing a properly executed IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E, special procedures are provided under applicable Treasury Regulations for payments through qualified foreign intermediaries or certain financial institutions that hold customers' securities in the ordinary course of their trade or business. In addition, a corporate Non-U.S. Holder may, under certain circumstances, be subject to an additional "branch profits tax" at a 30 percent rate (or such lower rate provided by an applicable income tax treaty) on its effectively connected earnings and profits attributable to such interest (subject to adjustments).

The certifications described above must be provided to the applicable withholding agent prior to the payment of interest. Non-U.S. Holders that do not timely provide the applicable withholding agent with the required certification, but that qualify for a reduced rate under an applicable income tax treaty, may obtain a refund of any excess amounts withheld by timely filing an appropriate claim for refund with the IRS. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding their entitlement to benefits under any applicable income tax treaty.

Under the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA"), foreign financial institutions and certain other foreign entities must report certain information with respect to their U.S. account holders and investors or be subject to withholding at a rate of 30 percent on the receipt of "withholdable payments."

For this purpose, "withholdable payments" are generally U.S.-source payments of fixed or determinable, annual or periodical income. FATCA withholding will apply even if the applicable payment would not otherwise be subject to U.S. federal nonresident withholding. Each Non-U.S. Holder should consult its own tax advisor regarding the possible impact of these rules on such Non-U.S. Holder's exchange of its Claim.

3. Creditor Recovery Trust

Subject to any applicable law or definitive guidance from the IRS or a court of competent jurisdiction to the contrary, the Debtors expect to treat the Creditor Recovery Trust as a "liquidating trust" under section 301.7701-4(d) of the Treasury Regulations and a grantor trust under section 671 of the IRC, and the trustee of the Creditor Recovery Trust will take a position on the Creditor Recovery Trust's tax return accordingly. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the transfer of assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust will be deemed to occur as (a) a first-step transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Holders of the applicable Claims, and (b) a second-step transfer by such Holders to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

No request for a ruling from the IRS is expected to be sought on the classification of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the IRS would not take a contrary position regarding the classification of the Creditor Recovery Trust. If the IRS were to successfully challenge the classification of the Creditor Recovery as a grantor trust, the federal income tax consequences to the Creditor Recovery Trust and the Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries could vary from those discussed in the Plan (including the potential for an entity-level tax). For example, the IRS could characterize the Creditor Recovery Trust as a so-called "complex trust" subject to a separate entity-level tax on its earnings, except to the extent that such earnings are distributed during the taxable year.

As soon as possible after the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, the trustee(s) of the Creditor Recovery Trust shall make a good faith valuation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. This valuation will be made available from time to time, as relevant for tax reporting purposes. Each of the Debtors, the trustee(s) of the Creditor Recovery Trust, and the Holders of Claims receiving interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust shall take consistent positions with respect to the valuation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and such valuations shall be utilized for all U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Allocations of taxable income and loss of the Creditor Recovery Trust among the Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries shall be determined, as closely as possible, by reference to the amount of distributions that would be received by each such beneficiary if the Creditor Recovery Trust had sold all of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets at their tax book value and distributed the proceeds to the Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries, adjusted for prior taxable income and loss and taking into account all prior and concurrent distributions from the Creditor Recovery Trust. The tax book value of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets shall equal their fair market value on the date of the transfer of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust, adjusted in accordance with tax accounting principles prescribed by the IRC, applicable Treasury Regulations, and other applicable administrative and judicial authorities and pronouncements.

The Creditor Recovery Trust shall in no event be dissolved later than five (5) years from the creation of such Creditor Recovery Trust unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion within the six (6) month period prior to the fifth (5th) anniversary (or within the six (6) month period prior to the end of an extension period), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed five (5) years, together with any prior extensions, without a favorable private letter ruling from the IRS or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the trustee(s) of the Creditor Recovery Trust that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of the trust as a Creditor Recovery trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the recovery and liquidation of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

The Creditor Recovery Trust will file annual information tax returns with the IRS as a grantor trust pursuant to section 1.671-4(a) of the Treasury Regulations that will include information concerning certain items relating to the holding or disposition (or deemed disposition) of the Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (e.g., income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit). Each Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiary holding a beneficial interest in the Creditor Recovery Trust will receive a copy of the information returns and must report on its federal income tax return its share of all such items. The information provided by the Creditor Recovery Trust will pertain to Creditor Recovery Trust beneficiaries who receive their interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust in connection with the Plan.

4. Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Under the backup withholding rules, a Holder of a Claim may be subject to backup withholding with respect to Distributions or payments made pursuant to the Plan unless that Holder: (a) comes within certain exempt categories (which generally include corporations) and, when required, demonstrates that fact, or (b) provides a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies under penalty of perjury that the taxpayer identification number is correct and that the Holder is not subject to backup withholding because of a failure to report all dividend and interest income. Backup withholding is not an additional tax, but merely an advance payment that may be refunded to the extent it results in an overpayment of tax.

The foregoing discussion is intended only as a summary of certain income tax consequences of the Plan and is not a substitute for careful tax planning with a tax professional. The above discussion is for informational purposes only and is not tax advice. The tax consequences are in many cases uncertain and may vary depending on a Holder's particular circumstances. Accordingly, Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors about the United States federal, state and local, and applicable foreign income and other tax consequences of the Plan.

X. RISK FACTORS

Before voting to accept or reject the Plan, Holders of Claims or Interests entitled to vote should read and carefully consider the risk factors set forth below, in addition to the information set forth in this Disclosure Statement together with any attachments, exhibits, or documents incorporated by reference hereto. The factors below should not be regarded as the only risks associated with the Plan or its implementation.

A. Risks Relating to the Debtors' Business Operations and Financial Condition

1. General Economic Conditions

The Debtors' ability to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction may be affected by broader macroeconomic conditions, including rising interest rates, inflationary pressures, labor market disruptions, volatility in the housing market, investor sentiment, and geopolitical instability. Such factors may negatively impact real estate valuations, the availability of financing, and the willingness of potential purchasers to consummate transactions on favorable terms. While the Plan assumes a relatively stable economic environment, no assurance can be given that such conditions will continue through the expected closing.

2. Risk of Failure to Consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction

The Plan is based on the successful execution of the NOLA Sale Transaction in accordance with the Court-approved Bidding Procedures, which may be implemented either under a chapter 11 plan or as a standalone transaction pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. To date, the Debtors have not entered into a stalking horse agreement for the NOLA Properties, and there is no assurance that a qualified bid will be submitted or that the auction process will yield a value-maximizing transaction.

If the Debtors are unable to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction—whether due to a lack of qualified bids, termination of a purchase agreement, failure to satisfy closing conditions, or failure to obtain necessary Bankruptcy Court approval—the Debtors may face significant liquidity constraints. In that event, the Debtors may be forced to pursue an alternative restructuring strategy or, if none is viable, convert these Chapter 11 Cases to chapter 7 liquidation. Any such alternative could result in delayed, diminished, or uncertain recoveries for creditors compared to those anticipated under the Plan.

3. Limited Continuing Operations

Following the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, the Debtors do not expect to continue operations as going concerns. As a result, many risks typically associated with ongoing business activities—such as tenant turnover, market competition, or long-term access to capital—are less relevant. However, operational issues arising prior to the Effective Date, including delays in closing or transitional disruptions, could adversely impact Plan implementation and creditor recoveries.

4. Performance of Property Manager

The Debtors rely on their property manager, Lynd Management, to manage day-to-day operations of the NOLA Properties. Any failure by Lynd Management to perform its obligations under the property management agreements—whether due to operational, financial, or staffing issues—could impair property performance, impact tenant relations, and reduce the attractiveness of the NOLA Properties to potential buyers. Such issues could, in turn, delay or reduce proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction.

B. Risks Related to Bankruptcy Law

1. Risk of Non-Confirmation of the Plan

Although the Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies all requirements necessary for confirmation by the Bankruptcy Court, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion or that modifications to the Plan will not be required for confirmation or that such modifications would not necessitate re-solicitation of votes. Moreover, the Debtors can make no assurances that they will receive the requisite acceptances to confirm the Plan, and even if all Voting Classes vote in favor of the Plan or the requirements for "cram down" are met with respect to any Class that rejects or is deemed to reject the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court may exercise discretion as a court of equity and choose not to confirm the Plan. If the Plan is not confirmed, it is unclear what distributions Holders of Claims or Interests would ultimately receive with respect to their Claims or Interests in a subsequent plan of reorganization or otherwise.

2. Non-Consensual Confirmation

If any impaired class of Claims or Interests does not accept or is deemed not to accept a plan of reorganization, a Bankruptcy Court may nevertheless confirm such plan at the proponent's request if at least one impaired class has accepted the plan (with such acceptance being determined without including the vote of any "insider" in such class), and as to each impaired class that has not accepted the plan, the Bankruptcy Court determines that the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" with respect to the dissenting impaired classes. If any Class votes to reject or is deemed to reject the Plan, then these requirements must be satisfied with respect to such rejecting Class. The Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies these requirements.

3. Risk Related to Wind-Down and Plan Implementation

The Plan contemplates a Wind-Down of the Debtors' Estates following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, including the creation of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Execution of the Wind-Down and administration of post-Effective Date responsibilities depends on various factors, including sufficient funding and the ability of the Creditor Recovery Trustee to realize value from retained causes of action. Delays, disputes, or unforeseen liabilities could reduce the proceeds ultimately available to distribute to creditors.

4. Risk That the CBRM Plan Will Not Be Confirmed and Become Effective

This Plan has been developed in coordination with the CBRM Plan. Pursuant to the CBRM Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan to assume all liability of the CBRM Debtors and their estates for, and to administer, all CBRM Unsecured Claims.

Under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the Debtors will transfer to the Creditor Recovery Trust (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any).

If the CBRM Plan is not confirmed or does not become effective, the Debtors will implement an alternative, court-approved mechanism to administer and distribute the assets that would otherwise have been transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such mechanism may include establishing a similar trust under the Plan or another structure designed to maximize value for stakeholders. This could result in delays, increased administrative costs, and reduced recoveries for creditors, as well as potential changes to the priority and allocation of distributions compared to the structure contemplated under the CBRM Plan.

5. Allowed Claims Could Exceed Estimates

There can be no assurance that the Allowed amount of Claims participating in distributions will not be significantly more than projected, which in turn, could cause the value of distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims whose treatment is limited to distributions from a specified recovery source to be reduced. Inevitably, some assumptions will not materialize, and unanticipated events and circumstances may affect the ultimate results and total amount of Claims against the Debtors' Estates. Therefore, the actual amount of Allowed Claims may vary from the Debtors' projections and feasibility analysis, and the variation may be material.

6. U.S. Federal Income Tax Risks

The tax consequences of the Plan to the Debtors and to Holders of Claims and Interests may vary depending on the individual's tax situation and are subject to significant uncertainties. Parties in interest should consult their own tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal, state, local, and non-U.S. income and other tax consequences of the Plan, including any income that may arise from the receipt of distributions or interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust.

7. Risk of Non-Occurrence of the Effective Date

Although the Debtors believe that the Effective Date will occur soon after the Confirmation Date, there can be no assurance as to the timing of the Effective Date. If the conditions precedent to the Effective Date set forth in the Plan have not occurred or have not been waived as set forth in Article IX.B of the Plan, then the Confirmation Order may be vacated, in which event no distributions would be made under the Plan, the Debtors and all Holders of Claims or Interests would be restored to the status quo as of the day immediately preceding the Confirmation Date, and the Debtors' obligations with respect to Claims and Interests would remain unchanged.

8. Conversion into Chapter 7 Cases

If no plan of reorganization can be confirmed, or if the Bankruptcy Court otherwise finds that it would be in the best interest of Holders of Claims and Interests, some or all of the Chapter 11 Cases may be converted to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, pursuant to which a trustee would be appointed or elected to liquidate the Debtors' assets for distribution in accordance with the priorities established by the Bankruptcy Code.

9. Parties in Interest May Object to the Plan's Classification of Claims and Interests

Section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a plan may place a claim or an equity interest in a particular class only if such claim or equity interest is substantially similar to the other claims or equity interests in such class. The Debtors believe that the classification of the Claims and Interests under the Plan complies with the requirements set forth in the Bankruptcy Code because the Debtors created Classes of Claims and Interests each encompassing Claims or Interests, as applicable, that are substantially similar to the other Claims or Interests, as applicable, in each such Class. Nevertheless, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion.

10. The Debtors May Fail to Satisfy Vote Requirements

If votes are received in number and amount sufficient to enable the Bankruptcy Court to confirm the Plan, the Debtors intend to seek, as promptly as practicable thereafter, Confirmation of the Plan. In the event that sufficient votes are not received, the Debtors may seek to confirm an alternative chapter 11 plan. There can be no assurance that the terms of any such alternative chapter 11 plan would be similar or as favorable to the Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests as those proposed in the Plan.

11. Continued Risk upon Confirmation

Following the NOLA Sale Transaction, the Debtors will not continue operating as a going concern. Instead, their primary role will be to implement the Wind-Down and transfer assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust. The cessation of operations may limit the Debtors' ability to address unanticipated claims, disputes, or liabilities that arise post-Effective Date.

12. Contingencies Could Affect Votes of Impaired Classes to Accept or Reject the Plan

The distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan can be affected by a variety of contingencies, including whether the Bankruptcy Court orders certain Allowed Claims to be subordinated to other Allowed Claims. The occurrence of any and all such contingencies, which could affect distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan, will not affect the validity of the vote taken by the Impaired Classes to accept or reject the Plan or require any sort of revote by the Impaired Classes. The estimated Claims and creditor recoveries set forth in this Disclosure Statement are based on various assumptions, and the actual Allowed amounts of Claims may significantly differ from the estimates. Should one or more of the underlying assumptions ultimately prove to be incorrect, the actual Allowed amounts of Claims may vary from the estimated Claims contained in this Disclosure Statement. Moreover, the Debtors cannot determine with any certainty at this time, the number or amount of Claims that will ultimately be Allowed. Such differences may materially and adversely affect, among other things, the percentage recoveries to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan.

13. Disruption from Competing Plans or Proposals

Although no competing plan has been proposed to date, parties in interest may seek to propose an alternative chapter 11 plan. The pursuit of such a competing plan could delay Confirmation, increase administrative costs, or result in lower recoveries for creditors.

14. Releases, Injunctions, and Exculpations Provisions May Not Be Approved

Article VIII of the Plan provides for certain releases, injunctions, and exculpations, including a release of liens and third-party releases. The releases, injunctions, and exculpations provided in the Plan are subject to objection by parties in interest and may not be approved. If the releases are not approved, certain Released Parties may withdraw their support for the Plan.

C. Additional Factors

1. The Debtors Could Withdraw the Plan

Subject to, and without prejudice to, the rights of any party in interest, the Plan may be revoked or withdrawn before the Confirmation Date by the Debtors.

2. The Debtors Have No Duty to Update

The statements contained in this Disclosure Statement are made by the Debtors as of the date hereof, unless otherwise specified herein, and the delivery of this Disclosure Statement after that date does not imply that there has been no change in the information set forth herein since that date. Additionally, the Debtors have no duty to update this Disclosure Statement unless otherwise ordered to do so by the Bankruptcy Court.

3. No Representations Outside this Disclosure Statement Are Authorized

No representations concerning or related to the Debtors, the Chapter 11 Cases, or the Plan are authorized by the Bankruptcy Court or the Bankruptcy Code, other than as set forth in this Disclosure Statement. Any representations or inducements made to secure your acceptance or rejection of the Plan that are other than those contained in, or included with, this Disclosure Statement should not be relied upon in making the decision to accept or reject the Plan.

4. No Legal or Tax Advice Is Provided by this Disclosure Statement

The contents of this Disclosure Statement should not be construed as legal, business, or tax advice. Each Holder of a Claim or Interest should consult its own legal counsel and accountant as to legal, tax, and other matters concerning their Claim or Interest.

This Disclosure Statement is not legal advice to you. This Disclosure Statement may not be relied upon for any purpose other than to determine how to vote on the Plan or object to confirmation of the Plan.

5. No Admission Made

Nothing contained herein or in the Plan shall constitute an admission of, or shall be deemed evidence of, the tax or other legal effects of the Plan on the Debtors or Holders of Claims or Interests.

XI. CONFIRMATION OF THE PLAN

The Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan only if all of the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code are met. Among the requirements for confirmation are that the plan is (a) accepted by all impaired classes of claims and interests entitled to vote or, if rejected or deemed rejected by an impaired class, that the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" as to such class; (b) in the "best interests" of the holders of claims and interests impaired under the plan; and (c) feasible.

A. Acceptance of the Plan

The Bankruptcy Code defines "acceptance" of a plan by a class of (i) claims as acceptance by creditors in that class that hold at least two-thirds (2/3) in dollar amount and more than one-half (1/2) in number of the claims that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the plan and (ii) interests as acceptance by interest holders in that class that hold at least two-thirds (2/3) in amount of the interests that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the plan. Holders of claims or interests that fail to vote are not counted in determining the thresholds for acceptance of the plan.

If any impaired class of claims or interests does not accept the plan (or is deemed to reject the plan), the Bankruptcy Court may still confirm the plan at the request of the Debtors if, as to each impaired class of claims or interests that has not accepted the plan (or is deemed to reject the plan), the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" under the so-called "cram down" provisions set forth in section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The "unfair discrimination" test applies to classes of claims or interests that are of equal priority and are receiving different treatment under the plan. A chapter 11 plan does not discriminate unfairly, within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code, if the legal rights of a dissenting class are treated in a manner consistent with the treatment of other classes whose legal rights are substantially similar to those of the dissenting class and if no class of claims or interests receives more than it legally is entitled to receive for its claims or interests. The test does not require that the treatment be the same or equivalent, but that such treatment be "fair." The "fair and equitable" test applies to classes of different priority and status (e.g., secured versus unsecured; claims versus interests) and includes the general requirement that no class of claims receive more than 100% of the allowed amount of the claims in such class. As to the dissenting class, the test sets different standards that must be satisfied in order for the Plan to be confirmed, depending on the type of claims or interests in such class. The following sets forth the "fair and equitable" test that must be satisfied as to each type of class for a plan to be confirmed if such class rejects the plan:

- Secured Creditors. Each holder of an impaired secured claim either (a) retains its liens on the property, to the extent of the allowed amount of its secured claim, and receives deferred cash payments having a value, as of the effective date of the plan, of at least the allowed amount of such secured claim, (b) has the right to credit bid the amount of its claim if its property is sold and retains its lien on the proceeds of the sale, or (c) receives the "indubitable equivalent" of its allowed secured claim.

- Unsecured Creditors. Either (a) each holder of an impaired unsecured claim receives or retains under the plan, property of a value, as of the effective date of the plan, equal to the amount of its allowed claim or (b) the holders of claims and interests that are junior to the claims of the dissenting class will not receive any property under the plan.

- Interests. Either (a) each equity interest holder will receive or retain under the plan property of a value equal to the greater of (i) the fixed liquidation preference or redemption price, if any, of such equity interest and (ii) the value of the equity interest or (b) the holders of interests that are junior to the interests of the dissenting class will not receive or retain any property under the plan.

The Debtors believe the Plan satisfies the "fair and equitable" requirement with respect to any rejecting Class.

IF ALL OTHER CONFIRMATION REQUIREMENTS ARE SATISFIED AT THE CONFIRMATION HEARING, THE DEBTORS WILL ASK THE BANKRUPTCY COURT TO RULE THAT THE PLAN MAY BE CONFIRMED ON THE GROUNDS THAT THE SECTION 1129(B) REQUIREMENTS HAVE BEEN SATISFIED.

B. Best Interests of Creditors Test

The Bankruptcy Code requires that each holder of an impaired claim or interest either (1) accepts the plan or (2) receives or retains under the plan property of a value, as of the effective date, that is not less than the value such holder would receive if the debtor were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. This requirement is customarily referred to as the "best interests of creditors" test. As demonstrated in the liquidation analysis attached hereto as Exhibit C, the Debtors believe that liquidation under chapter 7 would result in smaller distributions to creditors than those provided for in the Plan.

C. Feasibility

The Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies the feasibility requirement set forth in section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan is predicated on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the subsequent Wind-Down of the Debtors' Estates. Following the sale closing and transfer of the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets on the Effective Date, the Debtors will no longer engage in business operations and will instead proceed with an orderly Wind-Down consistent with the terms of the Plan.

The Debtors do not anticipate the need for any further reorganization or restructuring of their affairs following Confirmation. Moreover, the Debtors expect to have sufficient resources—including the proceeds of the NOLA Sale Transaction, Cash on hand, and other Plan funding sources—to satisfy all obligations required to be performed under the Plan and to fund the Wind-Down and the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust. As such, the Debtors believe that Confirmation of the Plan is not likely to be followed by liquidation (other than as expressly contemplated), or by the need for further financial reorganization of the Debtors or any successor thereto under the Plan.

D. Confirment Hearing

Section 1128(a) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Bankruptcy Court to hold a confirmation hearing upon appropriate notice to all required parties. The Confirmation Hearing is scheduled for ~~[●]~~October 22, 2025 at ~~[__]:[__] [__].m~~11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Confirmation Hearing may be adjourned from time to time by the Bankruptcy Court without further notice except for the announcement of the continuation date made at the Confirmation Hearing, at any subsequent continued Confirmation Hearing, or pursuant to a notice filed on the docket for the Chapter 11 Cases.

Section 1128(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that any party in interest may object to the confirmation of a plan. Any objection to confirmation of the Plan must be in writing, must conform to the Bankruptcy Rules and the local rules of the Bankruptcy Court, must set forth the name of the objector, the nature and amount of Claims or Interests held or asserted by the objector against the Debtors' estates or properties, the basis for the objection and the specific grounds therefor, and must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served no later than the Confirmation Objection Deadline.

XII. CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATION

The Debtors believe the Plan is in the best interests of all stakeholders and urge the Holders of Claims and Interests entitled to vote on the Plan to vote in favor thereof.

Dated: ~~August 17~~September 3, 2025

Respectfully submitted,

CROWN CAPITAL HOLDINGS LLC, on behalf of itself and each other Debtor

I. INTRODUCTION

Reference is made to the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates (the "Plan"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Plan. Crown Capital Holdings LLC ("Crown Capital"), RH Chenault Creek LLC ("Chenault"), RH Windrun LLC ("Windrun"), RH Copper Creek LLC ("Copper Creek"), RH Lakewind East LLC ("Lakewind"), RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC, and Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC (collectively, the "Debtors")[2] submit this disclosure statement (the "Disclosure Statement"), pursuant to section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, to holders of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors in connection with the solicitation of votes for acceptance of the Plan. The Plan constitutes a separate chapter 11 plan for each Debtor.

II. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The Debtors own and operate four multifamily affordable housing complexes located in New Orleans, Louisiana (the "NOLA Properties"): Carmel Brook Apartments, owned by Chenault; Carmel Spring Apartments, owned by Windrun; Laguna Reserve Apartments, owned by Lakewind; and Laguna Creek Apartments, owned by Copper Creek. The NOLA Properties provide rent restricted housing to low-income residents and are supported in part by government housing programs. Preserving the NOLA Properties is critical not only to maximizing the value of the Debtors' estates, but also to protecting vital affordable housing resources in the local community.

The Debtors, along with their affiliates CBRM Realty Inc. ("CBRM"), Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC, and Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC ("Kelly Hamilton," together with CBRM and Kelly Hamilton Apts MM LLC, the "CBRM Debtors"), commenced these chapter 11 cases on May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date").[3] These chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") were filed amid severe operational, financial, and governance challenges stemming from mismanagement of the broader Crown Capital Portfolio (defined below) and the criminal conviction of its ultimate equity owner, Mark "Moshe" Silber. These issues contributed to liquidity constraints, declining property performance, and creditor enforcement actions. Since the Petition Date, and under the leadership of an independent fiduciary (the "Independent Fiduciary"), the Debtors have stabilized operations, obtained postpetition financing, and initiated a court-supervised marketing process aimed at maximizing value for the benefit of all stakeholders.

[2] The CBRM Plan provides that Crown Capital Holdings LLC shall constitute a Debtor for purposes of the CBRM Plan solely to the extent that a NOLA Restructuring Transaction (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) has been consummated or the NOLA DIP Lenders and the Independent Fiduciary agree in writing or as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Subsequent to the filing of the CBRM Plan, the Debtors determined that a NOLA Restructuring Transaction would not occur prior to Confirmation of the CBRM Plan. Accordingly, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the CBRM Plan, Crown Capital Holdings LLC shall not be a Debtor under the CBRM Plan and this Plan shall constitute the sole plan for Crown Capital Holdings LLC. The Debtors shall modify the CBRM Plan to remove Crown Capital Holdings LLC as a Debtor prior to the Confirmation Hearing scheduled for the CBRM Plan.

the Petition Date, the NOLA DIP Lenders held the senior secured mortgage loans encumbering the NOLA Properties and were the Debtors' primary secured creditors. The NOLA DIP Facility has served as a critical bridge to fund operations and support a dual-track strategy for sale and plan confirmation.

Operational stability has been further supported by the Debtors' continued engagement of Lynd Management Group LLC ("Lynd Management") as property manager and LAGSP LLC ("LAGSP") as asset manager. Both firms are affiliates of The Lynd Group, a Texas-based real estate organization with a national platform and demonstrated experience managing affordable housing assets. The Debtors initially engaged Lynd Management and LAGSP pursuant to prepetition service agreements, and subsequently moved to assume and amend those agreements postpetition to ensure continuity of operations and to enhance oversight during the chapter 11 process.

The Debtors are now advancing a chapter 11 plan that contemplates a court-approved sale of the NOLA Properties (the "NOLA Sale Transaction"). On August 15, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving: (a) bidding procedures, including the sale timeline and form and manner of notice for the potential sale of one or more of the NOLA Properties; (b) a process for selecting a stalking horse bidder and approving bid protections; and (c) procedures for the potential assumption and assignment of executory contracts and unexpired leases [Docket No. 382] (the "NOLA Bidding Procedures Order"). In accordance with the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order, the NOLA Sale Transaction may be implemented either pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or through consummation of the Plan.

The Plan contemplates the following stakeholder recoveries:

- All Allowed Other Priority Claims will be paid in full in Cash on the Effective Date, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable;

- All Allowed Other Secured Claims will be (a) paid in full in Cash, (b) reinstated, (c) receive the return of applicable collateral securing such Allowed Other Secured Claims, or (d) otherwise receive treatment that renders such Claims Unimpaired under the Bankruptcy Code;

- Each Holder of an Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claim will receive, (a) to the extent there are Sale Proceeds that are proceeds of the sale of the Lakewind Property in excess of the amount necessary to satisfy all Allowed NOLA DIP Claims, Allowed General Administrative Claims, Allowed Priority Tax Claims, Allowed Other Priority Claims, and Allowed Other Secured Claims in full in Cash on the Effective Date, payment in Cash of the amount of the excess Sale Proceeds attributable to the sale of the Lakewind Property on the Effective Date or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable; or (b) to the extent there are not sufficient Sale Proceeds that are proceeds of the sale of the Lakewind Property to satisfy the Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claim in full, on account of the remaining unpaid CIF Mortgage Loan Claim, its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution to Holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan;

- Each Holder of an Allowed NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claim will receive a treatment determined by the NOLA Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the NOLA Purchase Agreement;

- Each Holder of an Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan;

- Each Holder of an Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan);

- Each Holder of an Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claim will receive its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan);

- Except as otherwise provided in the Plan Supplement, all Intercompany Claims will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Claims;

- Except as otherwise provided in the Plan Supplement, all Intercompany Interests will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Interests;

- On the Effective Date, each Crown Capital Interest shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust as provided in the Plan; provided, however, that the Crown Capital Interests shall remain subject to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed to by Spano Investor LLC; provided, further, however, that Spano Investor LLC shall not directly or indirectly seek to exercise any legal, equitable, or other rights against such Crown Capital Interests or other assets of any Debtor or subsidiary of any Debtor that may constitute collateral of Spano Investor LLC with respect to the alleged lien arising from the prepetition judgment, levy and property execution of Spano Investor LLC against CBRM Realty Inc. pending further order of the Bankruptcy Court or a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court in the Spano Adversary Proceeding; provided, further, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Plan shall limit or affect Spano Investor LLC's rights to enforce its prepetition judgment and exercise any remedies against non-Debtors Fox Capital LLC, CBCC 1 LLC, CBCC 2 LLC, CBCC 3 LLC, CBCC 4 LLC, CBCC 5 LLC, Westwood Jackson Apts MM LLC, or Westwood Jackson Apts LLC, or any assets of such non-Debtor entities;

- All Interests in RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust without any distribution on account of such Interests; and

- All Section 510(b) Claims, if any, will be canceled, released, and extinguished as of the Effective Date without any distribution on account of such Claims.

The Debtors strongly believe that the Plan is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, and represents the best available alternative at this time. For these reasons, the Debtors strongly recommend that Holders of Claims and Interests entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan vote to accept the Plan.

A. What is chapter 11?

Chapter 11 is the principal business reorganization chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition to permitting debtor rehabilitation, chapter 11 promotes equality of treatment for creditors and similarly situated equity interest holders, subject to the priority of distributions prescribed by the Bankruptcy Code.

The commencement of a chapter 11 case creates an estate that comprises all of the legal and equitable interests of the debtor as of the date the chapter 11 case is commenced. The Bankruptcy Code provides that the debtor may continue to operate its business and remain in possession of its property as a "debtor in possession."

Consummating a chapter 11 plan is the principal objective of a chapter 11 case. A bankruptcy court's confirmation of a chapter 11 plan binds the debtor, any person acquiring property under the plan, any creditor or equity interest holder of the debtor (whether or not such creditor or equity interest holder voted to accept the plan), and any other entity as may be ordered by the bankruptcy court. Subject to certain limited exceptions, the order issued by a bankruptcy court confirming a plan provides for the treatment of the debtor's liabilities in accordance with the terms of the confirmed plan.

B. Why are the Debtors sending me this Disclosure Statement?

The Debtors are seeking to obtain Bankruptcy Court approval of the Plan. Before soliciting acceptances of the Plan, section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Debtors to prepare a disclosure statement containing adequate information of a kind, and in sufficient detail, to enable a hypothetical reasonable investor to make an informed judgment regarding acceptance of the Plan and to share such disclosure statement with all holders of Claims and Interests whose votes on the Plan are being solicited. This Disclosure Statement is being submitted in accordance with these requirements.

C. Am I entitled to vote on the Plan?

Your ability to vote on, and your distribution under, the Plan, if any, depends on what type of Claim or Interest you hold. Each category of holders of Claims or Interests, as set forth in Article III of the Plan pursuant to section 1122(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, is referred to as a "Class." Each Class's respective voting status is set forth below:

Class	Claims and Interests	Status	Voting Rights
Class 1	Other Priority Claims	Unimpaired	Note Entitled to Vote (Presumed to Accept)
Class 2	Other Secured Claims	Unimpaired	Not Entitled to Vote (Presumed to Accept)
Class 3	CIF Mortgage Loan Claims	Impaired	Entitled to Vote
Class 4	NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims	Impaired	Entitled to Vote
Class 5	Other NOLA Unsecured Claims	Impaired	Entitled to Vote
Class 6	Crown Capital Unsecured Claims	Impaired	Entitled to Vote
Class 7	RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims	Impaired	Entitled to Vote
Class 8	Intercompany Claims	Unimpaired / Impaired	Not Entitled to Vote
Class 9	Intercompany Interests	Unimpaired / Impaired	Not Entitled to Vote
Class 10	Crown Capital Interests	Impaired	Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject)
Class 11	RH New Orleans Interests	Impaired	Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject)
Class 12	Section 510(b) Claims	Impaired	Not Entitled to Vote (Deemed to Reject)

D. What will I receive from the Debtors if the Plan is consummated?

The following chart provides a summary of the anticipated recovery to Holders of Claims and Interests under the Plan. Any estimates of Claims or Interests in this Disclosure Statement may vary from the final amounts allowed by the Bankruptcy Court. Your ability to receive distributions under the Plan depends upon the ability of the Debtors to obtain Confirmation and meet the conditions necessary to consummate the Plan.

Each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive under the Plan the treatment described below in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release, and discharge of and in exchange for such Holder's Claim, except to the extent different treatment is agreed to by the Debtors and the Holder of such Allowed Claim. Unless otherwise indicated, the Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive such treatment on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. Projected recoveries included in the summary table below reflect the Debtors' analysis of anticipated Claims.

Class	Claim or Interest	Treatment of Claim or Interest	Projected Amount of Claims	Estimated Recovery Under the Plan

[4] Recoveries to Holders of Class 6 Crown Capital Unsecured Claims are dependent upon the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Accordingly, recoveries are uncertain.

[5] Recoveries to Holders of Class 7 RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims are dependent upon the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust. There can be no assurance of the validity of, the amount of, or the chance of recovery on account of these Claims and Causes of Action. Defenses may also be available. E. What will I receive from the Debtors if I hold a General Administrative Claim or a Priority Tax Claim?

General Administrative Claims and Priority Tax Claims have not been placed in a Class in the Plan, consistent with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. Article II.A of the Plan sets forth the treatment for General Administrative Claims and provides in part that such Claims will be satisfied in full in an amount of Cash equal to the amount of such Allowed General Administrative Claim. Article II.E of the Plan sets forth the treatment for Priority Tax Claims, which states that an Allowed Priority Tax Claim will be treated in accordance with section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code.

F. Are any regulatory approvals required to consummate the Plan?

Other than approvals that may be required in the ordinary course of business in connection with the continued operation of the NOLA Properties, the Debtors are not aware of any material U.S. regulatory approvals required to consummate the Plan. However, the sale of the NOLA Properties pursuant to the Plan or under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code is subject to entry of a final, non-appealable order of the Bankruptcy Court confirming the Plan or sale under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

G. What happens if the NOLA Sale Transaction is not consummated?

The Plan is premised on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, which the Debtors believe will represent the best available path to maximize value and facilitate an orderly Wind-Down of the Estates. However, if the NOLA Sale Transaction is not consummated, the Debtors would work expeditiously to evaluate and pursue an alternative transaction structure, which could include, if required and feasible, a reorganization of one or more Debtors, though no such transaction has been proposed or developed to date and may not be viable given the Debtors' financial condition.

While no such alternative restructuring has been negotiated or proposed as of the date of this Disclosure Statement, the Debtors believe there may be value-preserving alternatives that could be developed and implemented through a revised chapter 11 plan, subject to further diligence, market conditions, and creditor support. In such a scenario, the treatment of Claims and Interests could differ from that set forth in the current Plan and would be determined based on the structure of any such alternative transaction.

If no viable transaction can be implemented, the Debtors may need to consider a conversion to chapter 7, which could result in lower recoveries than those estimated under the Plan.

H. What happens to my recovery if the Plan is not confirmed or does not go effective?

If the Plan is not confirmed or does not go effective, there is no assurance that the Debtors will be able to implement an alternative transaction that would provide recoveries equal to or greater than those contemplated by the Plan. The Plan is based on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' Estates. The Debtors do not have an alternative transaction or plan of reorganization currently negotiated or proposed.

If the NOLA Sale Transaction cannot be completed and the Plan cannot be confirmed, the Debtors would evaluate potential alternatives. However, there can be no assurance that a viable alternative transaction could be identified, negotiated, and implemented in a timely or cost-effective manner. In such a scenario, the Debtors may be required to convert these Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, which the Debtors believe would likely result in significantly lower recoveries for Holders of Allowed Claims.

For a more detailed description of the potential consequences of a failure to confirm or consummate the Plan, see Article XI.B of this Disclosure Statement, entitled "Best Interests of Creditors Test," which begins on page 41.

I. If the Plan provides that I get a distribution, do I get it upon Confirmation or when the Plan goes effective, and what is meant by "Confirmation," "Effective Date," and "Consummation"?

"Confirmation" of the Plan refers to approval of the Plan by the Bankruptcy Court. Confirmation of the Plan does not guarantee that you will receive the distribution indicated under the Plan. After Confirmation of the Plan by the Bankruptcy Court, there are conditions that need to be satisfied or waived so that the Plan can go effective. Initial distributions to holders of Allowed Claims and Interests will only be made on the date the Plan becomes effective—the "Effective Date"—or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, as specified in the Plan. See Article IX of the Plan. "Consummation" means the occurrence of the Effective Date.

J. What are the sources of Cash and other consideration required to fund the Plan?

The Debtors intend to fund distributions under the Plan through a combination of (a) the Sale Proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction; (b) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets to be transferred in accordance with the CBRM Plan and this Plan; and (c) other available assets, as further described in the Plan.

The NOLA Sale Transaction contemplates the sale of the NOLA Properties pursuant to one or more purchase agreements with the successful bidder(s) following conclusion of the sale process.

In addition to the proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction, distributions under the Plan will be funded from: (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, consisting of, to the extent not expended prior to the Effective Date solely with respect to the development and investigation of Claims and Causes of Action held by the Debtors or their Estates to be pursued for the benefit of creditors, Cash in an amount equal to $1,000,000 of the proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility, which shall be funded on the Effective Date; (ii) any recoveries from the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, Contributed Claims, and NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, which will be pursued and administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust; and (iii) the Interests of RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC and Crown Capital. Distributions from the Creditor Recovery Trust will be made to Holders of Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claims (Class 6) and Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims (Class 7), with each Holder receiving its Pro Rata share of the Distributable Value of the Creditor Recovery Trust provided to such Holder on account of its Allowed CBRM Unsecured Claim (as such terms are defined in, and subject to the terms of, the CBRM Plan).

For the avoidance of doubt, the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall include any Claim or Cause of Action, including any Avoidance Action, held by the Debtors or their Estates and the proceeds thereof, against any of the following (each, an "Excluded Party" and collectively, the "Excluded Parties"): (a) Moshe (Mark) Silber; (b) Frederick Schulman; (c) Piper Sandler & Co.; (d) Mayer Brown LLP; (e) Rhodium Asset Management LLC; (f) Syms Construction LLC; (g) Rapid Improvements LLC; (h) NB Affordable Foundation Inc.; (i) any title agencies; (j) any independent real estate appraisal firms; (k) any other current or former Insiders of the Debtors; (l) any party listed on the Schedule of Excluded Parties, which shall be filed as part of the Plan Supplement (as the same may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time); and (m) with respect to each of the foregoing, each Person's or Entity's Affiliates, partners, members, managers, officers, directors, and agents that are not specifically identified in the Plan as a Released Party.

Certain administrative expenses, including Allowed Professional Compensation Claims, will be funded from a dedicated Fee Escrow Account. The specific allocation of consideration and other assets to the various Classes of Claims and Interests will be set forth in the Plan Supplement.

K. Will there be releases and exculpation granted to parties in interest as part of the Plan?

Yes, the Plan provides for releases and exculpation of the Debtors and other parties in interest as set forth in Article VIII of the Plan.

Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors faced escalating operational and financial distress stemming from broader issues within the Crown Capital Portfolio (as defined below), including the criminal conviction of its ultimate equity owner, disputes among insiders, and a breakdown in governance and oversight. These failures contributed to cash flow shortfalls, unpaid obligations, and deterioration in property performance, placing the long-term viability of the NOLA Properties at serious risk. Following the appointment of the Independent Fiduciary in April 2024, the Debtors and their professionals undertook an extensive review of potential estate claims, insider transactions, and restructuring alternatives.

As part of that assessment, the Independent Fiduciary and the Debtors' professionals evaluated prepetition financial dealings involving insiders and affiliated entities, as well as the conduct surrounding the historical governance and financial condition of the Debtors. Based on that review, the Independent Fiduciary directed the Debtors to preserve all potential Claims and Causes of Action—including, without limitation, Avoidance Actions under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code and any claims for breach of fiduciary duty, mismanagement, or other actionable misconduct—against each Excluded Party. These parties are expressly excluded from the definitions of both "Released Parties" and "Exculpated Parties" under the Plan. Accordingly, the Plan does not, and shall not be construed to, release, exculpate, or otherwise impair any Claims or Causes of Action against these parties, all of which are expressly preserved. The Debtors, through the Independent Fiduciary and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, retain and reserve all such Causes of Action for the benefit of the Debtors' Estates and their stakeholders, and such Causes of Action will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust for potential pursuit by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in accordance with the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

In contrast, the Independent Fiduciary has determined that releases are appropriate for the following parties: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the NOLA Purchaser; (c) LAGSP; (d) Lynd Management; (e) the NOLA DIP Lenders; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former Affiliates, and such Entity's and its current and former Affiliates' subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (h) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. These parties are collectively defined in the Plan as the "Released Parties."

In addition to the estate releases, the Plan includes a customary third-party release that applies only to Holders of Claims or Interests who affirmatively consent to grant such release. A Holder of a Claim in Class 3, Class 4, Class 5, Class 6, or Class 7 affirmatively consents to grant the third-party release set forth in Article VIII of the Plan if the Holder either (a) votes to accept the Plan, or (b) abstains or does not affirmatively vote to accept the Plan but checks the box on the Holder's Ballot indicating that the Holder opts to grant the release. Holders of Claims or Interests in Class 1, Class 2, Class 8, Class 9, Class 10, Class 11 or Class 12, which are not entitled to vote, may affirmatively consent to grant the release by submitting a completed Opt-In Form and checking the box indicating their consent. Only those Holders who take one of these specified affirmative actions will grant the third-party release under the Plan.

The Plan also includes an exculpation provision that applies to (a) each Debtor solely in its capacity as a debtor and debtor in possession following the Petition Date and excluding such Debtor for the period prior to the Petition Date, (b) the Independent Fiduciary, (c) LAGSP, (d) Lynd Management, and (e) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. These parties are exculpated from any liability for any act or omission arising as of or following the Petition Date through the Effective Date in connection with, relating to, or arising out of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan, the NOLA Sale Transaction, or Restructuring Transactions, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation of any document in connection with the Plan, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Plan, the pursuit of Consummation, the Restructuring Transactions, the administration and implementation of the Plan, or the distribution of property pursuant to the Plan.

The Debtors believe that the release, exculpation, and related injunction provisions are necessary and appropriate in light of the contributions made by the Released and Exculpated Parties, and consistent with applicable law, including precedent established by the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. The Debtors intend to present evidence at the Confirmation Hearing in support of the necessity and propriety of these Plan provisions.

IMPORTANTLY, ONLY HOLDERS OF CLAIMS OR INTERESTS THAT AFFIRMATIVELY OPT TO GRANT THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASES CONTAINED IN THE PLAN WILL BE SUBJECT TO SUCH RELEASES. A HOLDER WILL BE CONSIDERED TO HAVE AFFIRMATIVELY CONSENTED TO THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASES ONLY IF THAT HOLDER: (A) IS A HOLDER OF A CLAIM IN CLASS 3, CLASS 4, CLASS 5, CLASS 6 OR CLASS 7 AND VOTES TO ACCEPT THE PLAN; (B) IS A HOLDER OF A CLAIM IN CLASS 3, CLASS 4, CLASS 5, CLASS 6 OR CLASS 7, ABSTAINS OR DOES NOT AFFIRMATIVELY VOTE TO ACCEPT THE PLAN, AND CHECKS THE BOX ON THE BALLOT INDICATING THAT SUCH HOLDER OPTS TO GRANT THE RELEASES; OR (C) IS A HOLDER OF A CLAIM OR INTEREST IN CLASS 1, CLASS 2, CLASS 8, CLASS 9, CLASS 10, CLASS 11 OR CLASS 12 AND CHECKS THE BOX ON THE OPT-IN FORM INDICATING THAT SUCH HOLDER OPTS TO GRANT THE RELEASES. HOLDERS WHO DO NOT AFFIRMATIVELY OPT TO GRANT THE RELEASES WILL NOT BE BOUND BY THEM. THE RELEASES ARE AN INTEGRAL ELEMENT OF THE PLAN.

L. What are the potential claims and causes of action against Silber and his affiliates?

The Debtors, through their Independent Fiduciary, are continuing to investigate potential Estate Claims and Causes of Action against Mark Silber, Frederick Schulman, and other individuals and entities associated with their historical control, management, or influence over the Debtors prior to the Petition Date. These investigations include potential claims for breach of fiduciary duty, mismanagement, corporate waste, fraudulent transfers, and other conduct that may have harmed the Debtors or their stakeholders.

With the assistance of advisors, the Independent Fiduciary is reviewing numerous prepetition transactions and governance actions involving these insiders. The areas of focus include the mismanagement of the Debtors' real estate assets, the potential misuse of financing proceeds, neglect of regulatory obligations, and other conduct potentially involving self-dealing, fraud, or improper diversion of estate value. The Debtors are also evaluating whether the misconduct that formed the basis of Silber's and Schulman's criminal convictions may have impacted the Debtors or their creditors.

As a result of this ongoing review, the Independent Fiduciary has directed the Debtors to preserve all related Claims and Causes of Action, including those against Silber, Schulman, entities they owned or controlled, and any other individuals or firms that may have facilitated or benefited from the conduct in question. These individuals and entities are expressly excluded from the Plan's definitions of "Released Parties" and "Exculpated Parties," and therefore are not receiving any release or exculpation under the Plan.

All such Claims and Causes of Action are being preserved under the Plan and, as of the Effective Date, will vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust and may be pursued by the Creditor Recovery Trustee in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The Creditor Recovery Trustee will serve as the post-effective date fiduciary responsible for investigating and, where appropriate, prosecuting such retained Claims and Causes of Action for the benefit of unsecured creditors.

M. How does this Plan relate to and interact with the CBRM Plan?

This Plan has been developed in coordination with the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of CBRM Realty Inc. and Certain of Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 338] (as amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time, the "CBRM Plan"). Pursuant to the CBRM Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan to assume all liability of the CBRM Debtors and their estates for, and to administer, all CBRM Unsecured Claims.

Under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the Debtors will transfer to the Creditor Recovery Trust (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any) to be administered for and distributed to the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims in accordance with the waterfall provisions of the CBRM Plan.

If the CBRM Plan is not confirmed or does not become effective, the Debtors will implement an alternative, court-approved mechanism to administer and distribute the assets that would otherwise have been transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such mechanism may include establishing a similar trust under the Plan or another structure designed to maximize value for stakeholders.

N. What is the Creditor Recovery Trust?

The Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan for the benefit of Holders of Class 6 Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, Class 7 Allowed RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims, and Allowed CBRM Unsecured Claims (as defined in the CBRM Plan).

Pursuant to the Plan, certain assets will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust, including: (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, consisting of, to the extent not expended prior to the Effective Date solely with respect to the development and investigation of Claims and Causes of Action held by the Debtors or their Estates to be pursued for the benefit of creditors, Cash in an amount equal to $1,000,000 of the proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility, which shall be funded on the Effective Date; (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any).

In addition, as set forth in the Plan, the Debtors will include in the Plan Supplement a schedule of executory contracts to be assumed by the applicable Debtor and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts"). On the Effective Date, such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts shall be deemed assumed and assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and any associated Cure Amounts shall be satisfied in accordance with the Plan and the Confirmation Order.

The Creditor Recovery Trust will be administered by one or more trustees selected by the CBRM Debtors, in consultation with the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, the NOLA DIP Lenders, and Spano Investor LLC ("Spano"). The Creditor Recovery Trustee will be responsible for administering, prosecuting, settling, or monetizing the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and making distributions in accordance with the Plan and the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement. The Creditor Recovery Trust is intended to maximize recoveries for unsecured creditors.

O. What is the Wind-Down and who is responsible?

Following the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the Effective Date of the Plan, the Debtors will no longer operate an ongoing business and will instead wind down their affairs. The Wind-Down Officer appointed under the CBRM Plan shall be appointed by the Debtors to oversee the wind down, dissolution, and liquidation of the Estates following the Effective Date in accordance with Article IV.C of the Plan.

P. What is the deadline to vote on the Plan?

The Voting Deadline is [●], 2025, at [●] [a.m. / p.m.] (prevailing Eastern Time).

Q. How do I vote for or against the Plan?

Detailed instructions regarding how to vote on the Plan are contained on the ballots distributed to Holders of Claims and Interests that are entitled to vote on the Plan. For your vote to be counted, you must submit your ballot in accordance with the instructions provided in Article IV.D of this Disclosure Statement. BALLOTS SENT BY FAX OR EMAIL ARE NOT ALLOWED AND WILL NOT BE COUNTED.

R. Why is the Bankruptcy Court holding a Confirmation Hearing?

Section 1128(a) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Bankruptcy Court to hold a hearing on confirmation of the Plan and recognizes that any party in interest may object to Confirmation of the Plan. The Confirmation Hearing will be scheduled by the Bankruptcy Court shortly after the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases. All parties in interest will be served notice of the time, date, and location of the Confirmation Hearing once scheduled.

S. What is the purpose of the Confirmation Hearing?

The confirmation of a plan of reorganization by a bankruptcy court binds the debtor, any issuer of securities under a plan of reorganization, any person acquiring property under a plan of reorganization, any creditor or equity interest holder of a debtor, and any other person or entity as may be ordered by the bankruptcy court in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to certain limited exceptions, the order issued by the bankruptcy court confirming a plan of reorganization discharges a debtor from any debt that arose before the confirmation of such plan of reorganization and provides for the treatment of such debt in accordance with the terms of the confirmed plan of reorganization.

The deadline by which all objections to the Plan must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served so as to be actually received by the appropriate notice parties is [●], 2025, at [●] [a.m. / p.m.] (prevailing Eastern Time).

T. Who do I contact if I have additional questions with respect to this Disclosure Statement or the Plan?

U. Do the Debtors recommend voting in favor of the Plan?

Yes. The Debtors strongly recommend that all eligible creditors vote to accept the Plan. The Plan contemplates the sale of the NOLA Properties through a competitive, court-supervised Sale Process, the transfer of designated assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust to administer and distribute recoveries, and the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' Estates following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction.

This structure is designed to maximize value and ensure fair and efficient distributions to creditors. The Debtors believe that the Plan is in the best interests of all Holders of Claims and Interests under the circumstances. Alternative paths would likely involve significant delays, increased administrative costs, and lower recoveries. In contrast, the Plan offers a clear, actionable, and creditor-focused approach to monetize remaining assets, preserve and pursue potential litigation claims, and bring these Chapter 11 Cases to a prompt and value-maximizing conclusion for the benefit of all stakeholders.

IV. SOLICITATION AND VOTING PROCEDURES

This Disclosure Statement, which is accompanied by a ballot (the "Ballot") to be used for voting on the Plan, is being distributed to the Holders of Claims in the Classes entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

A. Holders of Claims and Interests Entitled to Vote on the Plan

The Debtors are soliciting votes to accept or reject the Plan only from Holders of Claims and Interests in Classes 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 (the "Voting Classes"). The Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes are Impaired under the Plan and may, in certain circumstances, receive a distribution under the Plan. Accordingly, Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes have the right to vote to accept or reject the Plan. The Debtors are not soliciting votes from Holders of Claims or Interests in Classes 1, 2, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12.

B. Votes Required for Acceptance by a Class

Under the Bankruptcy Code, acceptance by a class of claims requires an affirmative vote of more than one-half in number of total allowed claims that have voted and an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds in dollar amount of the total allowed claims that have voted. Acceptance by a class of interests requires an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds in amount of the total allowed interests that have voted.

C. Certain Factors to Be Considered Prior to Voting

There are a variety of factors that all Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan should consider prior to voting to accept or reject the Plan. These factors may impact recoveries under the Plan and include, among other things:

- unless otherwise specifically indicated, the financial information contained in the Disclosure Statement has not been audited and is based on an analysis of data available at the time of the preparation of the Plan and the Disclosure Statement;

- although the Debtors believe that the Plan complies with all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors can neither assure such compliance nor that the Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan;

- the Debtors may request Confirmation without the acceptance of the Plan by all Impaired Classes in accordance with section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; and

- any delays of either Confirmation or Consummation could result in, among other things, increased Administrative Claims and Professional Fee Claims.

While these factors could affect distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests under the Plan, the occurrence or impact of such factors may not necessarily affect the validity of the vote of the Voting Classes or necessarily require a re-solicitation of the votes of Holders of Claims and Interests in the Voting Classes pursuant to section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code.

For a further discussion of risk factors, please refer to "Risk Factors" described in Article X of this Disclosure Statement.

V. OVERVIEW OF THE COMPANY'S OPERATIONS

A. The Debtors' Business Operations

The Debtors are part of a larger real estate portfolio formed by real estate investor Moshe "Mark" Silber and certain affiliated parties (the "Crown Capital Portfolio"). The Crown Capital Portfolio holds dozens of multifamily housing projects across the United States, including the NOLA Properties, and has been historically funded, at least in part, by the federal government's housing assistance programs, such as Section 8.

Among the assets in the Crown Capital Portfolio are the NOLA Properties. These properties serve low-income tenants and participate in various government-supported housing programs. The NOLA Properties serve as a critical source of affordable housing for low-income residents in the New Orleans community. Rent payments from tenants (including subsidies paid directly by government programs) represent the Debtors' primary source of revenue. The Debtors do not have employees of their own and instead rely on third-party professionals to manage and operate the NOLA Properties.

B. Property Management and Operations

Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors engaged Lynd Management to serve as the Property Manager for the NOLA Properties, pursuant to certain Amended and Restated Property Management Agreements dated as of September 16, 2019. Lynd Management provides on-site personnel and oversees all day-to-day property-level functions, including leasing, maintenance, compliance with regulatory obligations, and the coordination of services for residents.

In addition, LAGSP serves as asset manager for the Debtors pursuant to that certain Asset Management Agreement dated as of September 19, 2024. LAGSP provides strategic oversight of the NOLA Properties' operations, ensures compliance with financing and regulatory obligations, and assists in capital planning and financial reporting.

All rent and subsidy collections are deposited into operating accounts controlled by the Debtors. In the ordinary course, these funds are used to pay property-level operating expenses, taxes, insurance, and debt service obligations. Prior to the Petition Date, limited liquidity, capital needs, and the legacy deferred maintenance burden impaired the Debtors' ability to stabilize operations and maintain compliance with regulatory standards.

C. Founder Misconduct and Breakdown in Governance

Prior to the Petition Date, the Crown Capital Portfolio raised hundreds of millions of dollars of financing, including (i) over $200 million from the sale of bonds issued by Crown Capital and guaranteed by CBRM (the "Notes") and (ii) approximately $450 million of property-level mortgage loans provided by an array of different financing sources.

Moshe "Mark" Silber and certain of his co-investors, including Frederick Schulman, have been targets of extensive investigations by the federal government and certain state authorities. On April 17, 2024, Silber entered into a plea agreement in connection with defrauding the federal government in connection with an affordable housing project (which does not have a presently-identified connection to the Debtors or their past or present activities) (the "Silber Prosecution-Related Property"). The plea agreement was entered into with the Fraud Section of the Department of Justice and the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey for conspiracy to commit wire fraud affecting an institution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 371. Schulman also entered into a plea agreement around the same time. Silber was sentenced to 30 months in prison and Schuman was sentenced to 12 months and one day in prison, to be followed by nine months of home confinement. Both have agreed to pay restitution.

A considerable share of the Debtors' distress arises from the fact that many, if not all, of the properties of the Debtors and their affiliates are likely worth much less today than the appraised values which supported the issuance of the Notes and certain of the property-level mortgage loans. Although the reasons for this depreciation remain the subject of active investigation, it may be explained by three factors alone or in combination. First, commencing in 2023, if not earlier, perhaps in part or in whole due to the distraction of the government investigations and eventual prosecution, Silber and Schulman neglected the management of the Crown Capital Portfolio, causing numerous properties or property-holding Debtors or their affiliates to fall into operational and/or physical disarray, jeopardize their eligibility for affordable housing programs which pay or subsidize all or most of the rent rolls, suffer declining occupancy rates, default on their obligations under their respective loan agreements, allow property-level mortgage loans to mature, fail to defend lawsuits (including the Acquiom litigation discussed infra) and become subject to default judgments, and/or become subject to receivership proceedings. Second, the government successfully prosecuted Silber and Schulman in connection with the Silber Prosecution-Related Property for using false or misleading property-level information to obtain inflated appraisals for certain properties, obtaining excessive financing, and then siphoning the surplusage out of Crown Capital. The Debtors are investigating what relevance, if any, this misconduct has to them. Third, many of the properties of the Debtors and their affiliates were valued for the purposes of the issuance of the Notes and some of the property-level mortgages in a period of time — 2021 and 2022 — when multi-family projects such as the Debtors' were at all-time high values in part due to low interest rates and high investor demand during and after the COVID pandemic — and those properties would likely be worth less today even in the absence of management negligence or intentional misconduct.

D. Appointment of Independent Fiduciary

Once Silber's plea became public, Silber, as a convicted felon, was effectively disqualified from continuing to manage the Crown Capital Portfolio. The Crown Capital Portfolio's stakeholders, including investors who purchased the Notes (the "Noteholders"), expressed concern about these developments because the Crown Capital Portfolio's value supported the payment of principal and interest under the Notes.

Following discussions between Mr. Silber's counsel and the Noteholders' counsel (Faegre Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP) and financial advisers (at the time, IslandDundon), on August 29, 2024, the parties entered into a forbearance agreement (the "Forbearance Agreement"). The Forbearance Agreement addressed various matters involving pending defaults under the Notes and Mr. Silber's go-forward involvement with the portfolio and established a process to ensure the Crown Capital Portfolio had sufficient fiduciary oversight. The Forbearance Agreement, among other things, required Mr. Silber to appoint an independent fiduciary acceptable to the Noteholders as the sole director of CBRM and Crown Capital and provide that individual with an irrevocable proxy for so long as the obligations under the Forbearance Agreement remained pending.

Thereafter, the Noteholders' advisors identified numerous potential candidates to serve as independent fiduciary as required by the Forbearance Agreement. On September 26, 2024, the bondholders party to the Forbearance Agreement consented to the appointment of Ms. Elizabeth A. LaPuma—a restructuring professional who for over 20 years has worked as an investment banker and corporate director, including for companies in distress—as the Independent Fiduciary for CBRM and Crown Capital. Since that time, Ms. LaPuma has acted in a fiduciary capacity for those entities and the dozens of other entities directly or indirectly owned by CBRM, including the Debtors.

E. Factors Precipitating the Debtors' Chapter 11 Filings

Following her appointment, the Independent Fiduciary immediately got to work to maximize the value of the portfolio. The Independent Fiduciary ordered a review of all litigation involving the portfolio, including the systematic identification of defaults, lawsuits, and judgments entered against the properties. In addition, the Independent Fiduciary, with the assistance of entities within Lynd Management, began the process of ensuring that each property owned by the portfolio had sufficient staffing and other resources, with the goal of ensuring that residents had safe, clean homes.

The Independent Fiduciary also took steps to ensure that she and the portfolio had the internal resources to maximize value for all stakeholders. Among other things, she obtained director and officer insurance (which the Crown Capital Portfolio inexplicably never obtained prior to the Independent Fiduciary's appointment) to enable her to fulfill her duties. The Independent Fiduciary also began providing periodic updates to the Noteholder advisers and steering committee (including weekly calls), engaged an investment advisor to seek refinancing and new capital opportunities for certain portfolio properties, and engaged with other creditors.

These efforts, however, required a pause in any negative enforcement actions contemplated by creditors of the Crown Capital Portfolio, including the Noteholders. Thus, following her appointment, the Independent Fiduciary worked constructively with her advisors and the Noteholders' advisors to extend the Forbearance Agreement in order to allow additional time to restructure the portfolio in a manner which would maximize value for all stakeholders. The Noteholders agreed to extend the Forbearance Agreement through April 14, 2025. However, prior to the expiration of that extension, the Noteholders informed the Independent Fiduciary's advisors that they would not extend the Forbearance Agreement any further.

Around the same time, one of the Debtors' judgment creditors similarly expressed its intent to execute on the Debtors' assets. Specifically, in June 2022, Mr. Silber purportedly entered into that certain Credit Agreement, dated June 2, 2022, between UBS O'Connor LLC, as lender ("UBS"), and Acquiom Agency Services LLC ("Acquiom"), as administrative agent (the "Silber Credit Agreement"). The Silber Credit Agreement was purportedly guaranteed by, among others, CBRM, and was purportedly secured by a pledge by CBRM of its equity in Crown Capital. On March 6, 2024, Acquiom sent a letter to Mr. Silber asserting that a default had occurred under the Silber Credit Agreement resulting from Mr. Silber's failure to timely make certain interest payments which Acquiom asserted were properly due under the Silber Credit Agreement. On May 2, 2024, after failing to receive a response to its letter, Acquiom filed a lawsuit against, among others, Silber and CBRM (the "UBS Defendants") to recover the total aggregate principal balance under the Silber Credit Agreement in a suit captioned Acquiom Agency Services LLC v. Fox Capital LLC et. al., Index No. 652265/2024, Supreme Court of the State of New York County of New York, Commercial Division Part 45 (May 2, 2024).

On August 2, 2024, the Supreme Court of the State of New York (the "New York Court") granted Acquiom's summary judgment motion and required that Silber repay the amounts outstanding under the Silber Credit Agreement in an amount totaling $19,185,000 plus interest. On September 5, 2024, the New York Court entered a judgment against the UBS Defendants in the amount of $21,020,452.60. On September 9, 2024, Acquiom assigned the right to collect on this judgment to Spano. After the assignment, on December 14, 2024, the New York Court entered a property execution order requiring the UBS Defendants to satisfy the judgment and authorizing the Spano to foreclose and collect upon certain assets in satisfaction of its judgment, including CBRM's right, title, and interest in Crown Capital. The Rockland County sheriff was scheduled to conduct a sheriff's sale of certain assets of CBRM, including its equity interest in Crown Capital, on Thursday, May 22, 2025. The sheriff's sale, had it proceeded, would have allowed a prepetition creditor to exercise remedies against CBRM's interest in Crown Capital, the entity overseen by the Independent Fiduciary (a) that issued the Notes, (b) holds significant potential claims and causes of action against Silber and other affiliates, and (c) holds CBRM's interests in the Crown Capital Portfolio. The sheriff's sale, if it had proceeded, would have, therefore, allowed a single prepetition judgment creditor receive a recovery at the expense of other creditors (particularly the Noteholders). The Debtors commenced these Chapter 11 Cases to maximize value for all of CBRM's creditors.

F. The Debtors' Prepetition Secured Indebtedness

As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were obligated under several prepetition secured credit facilities related to the NOLA Properties. CKD Funding is the holder of first-priority lien obligations arising under two loan facilities (together, the "Prepetition First Lien Loans"). The first facility originated with DH1, which made a loan to Chenault on or about April 4, 2024. This loan was initially in the principal amount of $7.5 million, later increased to $10 million by amendment on the same day, and subsequently increased to $25 million pursuant to a second amendment dated July 5, 2024 (the "DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan"). The loan was secured by a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Lease and Rents and Security Agreement dated April 4, 2024, encumbering Carmel Brook Apartments (the "DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage"). On March 10, 2025, DH1 assigned its rights under the DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan and DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage to CKD Funding, and the assignment was recorded in the Parish of Orleans, Louisiana, on March 12, 2025.

The second facility was made by CKD Funding directly to Windrun, Lakewind, and Copper Creek on or about July 8, 2024, in the principal amount of up to $10 million. This loan was secured by a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents and Security Agreement dated July 8, 2024, covering Carmel Spring Apartments, Laguna Reserve Apartments, and Laguna Creek Apartments. Together, the obligations under these two facilities comprise the Prepetition First Lien Loans. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were liable to CKD Funding in an amount not less than $8,961,204, secured by valid, perfected first-priority liens on substantially all of their assets.

In addition, CKD Funding acquired a junior loan originally made by Akiri Funds, LLC ("Akiri") to Chenault Creek on or about January 21, 2024, in the original principal amount of $3,635,475. That loan was amended and restated on March 12, 2024, to reflect a revised principal amount of $4,060,875.87 (the "Akiri Loan"), and was secured by a Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and Rents, and Security Agreement dated March 13, 2024 (the "Akiri Mortgage"). The Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage were expressly subordinated to the DH1 Prepetition First Lien Loan and DH1 Prepetition First Lien Mortgage pursuant to a Subordination and Intercreditor Agreement dated April 4, 2024. Akiri sold and assigned the Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage to DH1 on September 6, 2024, who ultimately assigned the Akiri Loan and Akiri Mortgage to CKD Funding as part of the same March 2025 assignment from DH1 CKD Funding.

CKD Penn, LLC holds a junior mortgage on each of the NOLA Properties pursuant to a Multiple Indebtedness Mortgage, Pledge of Leases and rents and Security Agreement dated August 16, 2024, which secures its guaranty of certain obligations owed by non-debtor affiliates of the Debtors.

Finally, Lakewind granted a mortgage on Laguna Reserve Apartments in favor of Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge Ltd. ("CIF") to secure a $4.5 million credit facility originally extended by CIF to Laguna Reserve pursuant to a Credit Agreement dated April 25, 2023. The mortgage was granted following a default by Laguna Reserve and was recorded on December 13, 2024. The CIF Lakewind Mortgage (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) is recognized by the Debtors, the Independent Fiduciary, CKD Funding, and CKD Penn as a valid, properly perfected lien, but only to the extent and subject to the conditions set forth in the NOLA DIP Order. Specifically, the CIF Lakewind Mortgage is junior to the Prepetition First Priority Liens (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) and the CKD Penn Junior Liens (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) and is recognized solely in accordance with the stipulations and reservations of rights contained in the NOLA DIP Order.

G. Prepetition Unsecured Obligations

As of the Petition Date, the Debtors' prepetition unsecured indebtedness consisted of: (a) the Notes, which are a series of three bond issuances, each made under a purported exemption from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, each of which is structured as a series of economically-identical bilateral agreements between the issuer and guarantor thereof, on the one hand, and each note purchaser (principally consisting of insurance companies and wealth management firms), on the other hand, and none of which possesses a trust indenture nor indenture trustee; (b) operating trade obligations; and (c) obligations to Lynd Management, LAGSP, and providers of professional services to or the payment of which was guaranteed by the Debtors.

VI. OVERVIEW OF THE CHAPTER 11 CASES

A. Commencement of Chapter 11 Cases

On the Petition Date, the Debtors commenced the Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors continue to manage their properties and operate their businesses as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. Joint Administration of the Chapter 11 Cases

On May 20, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking joint administration of their Chapter 11 Cases for procedural purposes only [Docket No. 7]. On May 27, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order granting the motion and directing that the cases be jointly administered under the lead case, In re CBRM Realty Inc., Case No. 25-15343 [Docket No. 51].

C. Complex Chapter 11 Case Designation and Procedures

On May 20, 2025, the Debtors submitted an application to designate the Chapter 11 Cases as complex Chapter 11 cases [Docket No. 10]. On May 28, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order granting the designation [Docket No. 57]. Subsequently, on June 9, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order implementing the Chapter 11 Complex Case Procedures [Docket No. 122].

D. Cash Management System

On May 23, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking authority to continue using their existing cash management system, maintain their existing bank accounts and business forms, honor related obligations in the ordinary course of business, and continue conducting intercompany transactions. The motion also requested that postpetition intercompany balances be granted superpriority administrative expense status pursuant to sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 30].

On May 28, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an interim order approving the requested relief on an interim basis [Docket No. 60]. Following a final hearing, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order on June 18, 2025, authorizing the Debtors to continue operating their cash management system and related practices on a final basis [Docket No. 165]. Pursuant to the final order, the Debtors were authorized to maintain their prepetition cash management structure, including all bank accounts and intercompany funding arrangements, and to continue using their existing checks and business forms, provided that they include a "Debtor in Possession" designation.

E. Authorization of Tenant Reimbursement and Business Operations

On May 23, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking authority to continue to operate their businesses in the ordinary course, including authority to pay certain prepetition obligations that are essential to ongoing operations and necessary to preserve the value of the estates [Docket No. 34] (the "Ordinary Course Motion"). This relief was critical to maintaining stable operations during the early stages of the Chapter 11 Cases and ensuring continuity of services across the Debtors' real estate portfolio.

Included within the scope of the Ordinary Course Motion was authorization for the Debtors to honor prepetition obligations to tenants, including obligations related to tenant reimbursements. Many of the Debtors' commercial leases contain provisions requiring the landlords to reimburse tenants for specific capital expenditures or tenant improvements, subject to defined lease terms and conditions. These reimbursements, while prepetition in origin, were viewed as essential to maintaining positive tenant relationships, avoiding litigation, and preserving the ongoing viability of tenancy arrangements that are foundational to the Debtors' revenue stream.

On June 18, 2025, following notice and a hearing, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order granting the Debtors authority to make tenant reimbursement payments consistent with the terms of applicable leases, and to continue administering and satisfying those obligations on a go-forward basis without the need for further Court approval [Docket No. 166]. On June 27, 2025, the Court entered a final order granting the Debtors authority to continue their prepetition business operations, policies, and practices, including the authorization to pay taxes and fees, vendor claims, and insurance obligations in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis [Docket No. 226].

F. Retention of Chapter 11 Professionals

The Debtors have obtained authority to retain various professionals to assist them in carrying out their duties under the Bankruptcy Code during these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors' professionals include: (i) White & Case LLP as bankruptcy counsel; (ii) Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey special counsel; and (iii) Verita as claims and noticing agent and administrative agent. In addition, the Debtors have filed applications to retain: (i) IslandDundon Partners LLC as restructuring advisor and investment banker; (ii) Hilco Real Estate, LLC, as real estate advisor for the Kelly Hamilton Property (as defined below) and the NOLA Properties; and (iii) Larry G. Schedler & Associates, Inc.., as real estate broker for the NOLA Properties. The Debtors may seek to retain additional professionals.

G. DIP Financing Motion

On May 28, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 61] seeking authority to obtain two senior secured superpriority debtor-in-possession ("DIP") financing facilities from the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender and the NOLA DIP Lenders, respectively.

On June 19, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court approved the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility on a final basis [Docket No. 178] (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Order"). Pursuant to the Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement, dated June 23, 2025, the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility provides up to $9,705,162 in postpetition financing to the Debtors. The proceeds are to be used, among other things, to pay accrued and unpaid prepetition obligations to the prior secured lender, fund working capital, pay administrative and professional expenses in these Chapter 11 Cases, and preserve the value of low-income, HUD-subsidized multifamily housing owned by the Debtors.

The Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility is secured by first-priority, priming liens on substantially all assets of the Debtors (excluding certain litigation trust assets) and includes superpriority administrative expense claims under section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The facility provides that the obligations owed to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender are subject only to a defined Carve-Out and a limited reservation of rights respecting the Purported Spano Judgment Lien (as defined in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order).

On July 2, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court approved the NOLA DIP Facility on a final basis [Docket No. 251] (the "NOLA DIP Order"). Pursuant to the Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement, the NOLA DIP Facility provides for up to $17,422,728 in postpetition financing to Debtors Crown Capital, RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Windrun LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, and RH Lakewind East LLC. Of that amount, approximately $8,461,524 constitutes new money loans, with the remaining $8,961,204 representing a roll-up of obligations under the prepetition first lien loan facilities. The proceeds of the NOLA DIP Facility are to be used to fund working capital, pay administrative and professional expenses in these Chapter 11 Cases, satisfy critical prepetition obligations, and preserve and stabilize the value of the NOLA Properties.

The NOLA DIP Facility is secured by first-priority, priming liens and includes superpriority administrative expense claims under section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The obligations under the NOLA DIP Facility are subject only to a defined Carve-Out and are governed by a budget and reporting protocol similar to the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility. The final DIP order also provides for the roll-up of prepetition debt upon entry of the final order, without a novation or impairment of existing liens, and reserves certain rights with respect to potential litigation trust assets. For the avoidance of doubt, except to the extent that the NOLA DIP Facility has been indefeasibly repaid in full in Cash or the NOLA DIP Lenders and the Independent Fiduciary otherwise agree in writing, the Plan does not modify or otherwise affect any obligations of the Debtors arising under or related to the NOLA DIP Facility.

H. Utilities Motion

On June 10, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking entry of interim and final orders to establish adequate assurance procedures and to prevent utility companies from altering, refusing, or discontinuing service due to the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases [Docket No. 125] (the "Utilities Motion"). The Utilities Motion was critical to ensuring uninterrupted utility services to the Debtors' affordable housing projects across multiple states. The Debtors proposed to deposit approximately $67,025 into a segregated account as adequate assurance for utility providers, in addition to maintaining their historical payment practices.

On July 10, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered a final order granting the relief requested in the Utilities Motion [Docket No. 279].

I. Lynd Management and LAGSP Contract Assumption

On June 11, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 128] seeking authority to assume critical prepetition property management and staffing contracts with Lynd Management and LAGSP, which provided essential onsite and centralized services to the Debtors' multifamily housing portfolio. The Debtors determined that assumption of these contracts was necessary to preserve value and maintain operational stability, particularly given Lynd Management and LAGSP's provision of critical property management and asset management services that are essential to maintaining compliance with regulatory requirements (including HUD requirements) and safeguarding resident health and safety. Continued engagement of Lynd Management and LAGSP was also integral to preserving the value of the Kelly Hamilton Property and the NOLA Properties and ensuring uninterrupted, compliant operations throughout the chapter 11 process.

On June 18, 2025, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 171] authorizing assumption of the contracts. In connection with that assumption, the Debtors agreed to pay a total cure amount of $953,000 to Lynd Management and LAGSP. Of that amount, $328,000 was payable in cash upon entry of the order, with the remaining $625,000 to be treated as an allowed administrative expense under sections 365(b) and 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and paid in accordance with the Plan's treatment of General Administrative Claims.

This arrangement provided immediate liquidity to Lynd Management and LAGSP and preserved its continued postpetition services while deferring the balance of the cure costs in a manner that aligned with the Debtors' liquidity constraints. The assumption of the Lynd Management and LAGSP contracts helped ensure continuity in essential property operations while supporting the Debtors' broader restructuring efforts.

J. Schedules and Statements and Claims Bar Dates

On June 27, 2025, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 227] approving the establishment of deadlines for filing proofs of claim. The order established: (i) 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on July 28, 2025, as the general bar date for all non-governmental creditors to file proofs of claim against the Debtors (the "Claims Bar Date"); (ii) 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on November 17, 2025, as the deadline for governmental units to file claims (the "Governmental Bar Date"); (iii) the later of (a) the Claims or Governmental Bar Date, as applicable, or (b) 30 days after entry of an order authorizing rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease, as the deadline for claims arising from such rejection (the "Rejection Damages Bar Date"); and (iv) the later of (a) the Claims or Governmental Bar Date, as applicable, or (b) 21 days following service of an amendment to a Debtor's Schedules, as the deadline for affected creditors to file claims in response (the "Amended Schedules Bar Date").

The Debtors intend to serve all required Bar Date Notices promptly upon entry of the Bar Date Order and have engaged Verita to facilitate notice and claims administration.

On June 24, 2025, the Debtors filed their Schedules of Assets and Liabilities and Statements of Financial Affairs (the "Schedules and Statements") pursuant to section 521 of the Bankruptcy Code. These filings included individual Schedules and Statements for Chenault, Windrun, Copper Creek, Lakewind, RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, and RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC [Docket Nos. 192-197].[6] The Schedules and Statements were prepared based on information available to the Debtors as of the Petition Date and are subject to further amendment or supplementation as discovery continues. Laguna Reserve anticipates filing its Schedules and Statements within the time permitted under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(c).

K. Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 11 Case of RH Lakewind East LLC

On June 1, 2025, CIF filed a motion to dismiss the Chapter 11 case of Lakewind pursuant to sections 1112(b) and 305(a) of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 87]. CIF alleged that Lakewind's bankruptcy petition was not filed in good faith and that dismissal was warranted based on purported bad faith and lack of legitimate reorganization purpose.

Following negotiations among the Debtors, CIF, and other stakeholders, and in connection with the settlement embodied in the NOLA DIP Order, CIF agreed to withdraw the motion with prejudice. Pursuant to paragraph 9 of the NOLA DIP Order, entry of that order constituted CIF's agreement to permanently withdraw its motion to dismiss and to waive further litigation or objection concerning the subject matter of that motion. Accordingly, the motion to dismiss was deemed withdrawn with prejudice upon entry of the NOLA DIP Order.

L. Adversary Proceeding Commenced by Cleveland International Fund

On June 25, 2025, CIF commenced the adversary proceeding styled Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge Ltd. and Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC v. CKD Funding, LLC and CKD Investor Penn LLC, Adv. Proc. No. 25-01269, asserting claims related to the financing structure of certain Crown Capital Portfolio entities.

The Debtors and other stakeholders disputed CIF's standing to prosecute the claims asserted in the adversary proceeding. Before any responsive pleadings were filed, CIF voluntarily dismissed the adversary proceeding on the basis that it lacked standing to pursue the asserted claims.

Thereafter, as part of the settlement embodied in the NOLA DIP Order, CIF agreed to waive and release any further challenges related to the subject matter of the adversary proceeding. Pursuant to paragraph 9 of the NOLA DIP Order, CIF also agreed not to initiate or pursue further litigation or objections concerning the Debtors' governance structure or restructuring process to the extent addressed in the adversary proceeding or resolved in connection with the settlement.

M. Retention and Compensation of Professionals

On July 8, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order Authorizing Employment and Payment of Professionals Utilized in the Ordinary Course of Business [Docket No. 270] (the "Ordinary Course Professionals Motion"). Pursuant to the Ordinary Course Professionals Motion, the Debtors sought authority to retain and compensate certain professionals utilized in the ordinary course of business without the need to file individual retention applications for each such professional, subject to certain procedures and monthly payment caps. On July 24, 2025, the Court entered an order granting the relief requested in the Ordinary Course Professionals Motion [Docket No. 270].

Also on July 8, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Administrative Fee Order Establishing Procedures for the Allowance and Payment of Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of

[6] The Schedules for Chenault Creek, Copper Creek, Lakewind, and Windrun were amended on July 31, 2025 [Docket Nos. 341-344] to reflect updates to Schedule E/F. Additional amendments may be made as necessary.

Expenses of Professionals Retained by Order of the Court [Docket No. 272] (the "Interim Compensation Motion"). The Interim Compensation Motion requested approval of procedures for the interim allowance and payment of fees and reimbursement of expenses of professionals retained pursuant to sections 327 and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code. On July 24, 2025, the Court entered an order granting the relief requested in the Interim Compensation Motion [Docket No. 324].

N. The CBRM Plan

On June 30, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed the initial CBRM Plan [Docket No. 246] and related disclosure statement [Docket No. 247] (the "CBRM Disclosure Statement"), in accordance with milestones set forth in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Order.

On July 11, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed a motion seeking approval of procedures for the sale of the Kelly Hamilton Apartments, a multifamily affordable housing complex located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (the "Kelly Hamilton Property"), including a proposed stalking horse purchase agreement and related bid protections [Docket No. 281] (the "Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion"). That same day, the CBRM Debtors filed a motion seeking conditional approval of the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement and associated voting and solicitation procedures (the "Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion") [Docket No. 283].

On July 24, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed revised versions of the CBRM Plan and CBRM Disclosure Statement [Docket Nos. 320, 321], and the Bankruptcy Court held a hearing to consider approval of both the Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion and the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion. The Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the relief sought in the Kelly Hamilton Bidding Procedures Motion [Docket No. 325] that same day, and on August 1, 2025, entered an order approving the revised relief requested in the Kelly Hamilton Disclosure Statement Motion [Docket No. 347], following submission of updated solicitation documents filed on July 30, 2025 and August 5, 2025, including the CBRM Disclosure Statement and CBRM Plan [Docket Nos. 339, 340, 360].

The bid deadline was August 14, 2025, and no additional qualified bids were received. Accordingly, the auction scheduled for August 18, 2025 will not be held. On August 15, 2025, the CBRM Debtors filed a notice designating the stalking horse purchaser as the successful bidder [Docket No. 383]. Under the CBRM Plan, the Kelly Hamilton Property will be sold to the stalking horse purchaser, subject to Bankruptcy Court approval at the confirmation hearing set for September 4, 2025.

Distributions under the CBRM Plan will be funded from, among other sources, the proceeds of the Kelly Hamilton Sale Transaction (as defined in the CBRM Plan) and the Creditor Recovery Trust. The CBRM Debtors are currently soliciting votes on the CBRM Plan, with a voting deadline of August 26, 2025.

O. Disputed Spano CBRM Claim and Spano Adversary Proceeding

As described in greater detail above, Acquiom obtained a prepetition judgment against CBRM in connection with guarantees provided under the Silber Credit Agreement, which judgment was subsequently assigned to Spano. That judgment included, among other actions, a scheduled sheriff's sale of CBRM's equity interests in Crown Capital that was stayed by the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases.

On July 15, 2025, Spano filed a proof of claim against CBRM (Claim No. 4), asserting a secured claim in the amount of approximately $21.1 million based on the prepetition judgment and a purported lien. In response, on July 18, 2025, CBRM filed a complaint in the Bankruptcy Court against Spano and Acquiom, initiating an adversary proceeding captioned CBRM Realty Inc. v. Spano Investor LLC (In re CBRM Realty Inc.), Adv. Pro. No. 25-01295, Case No. 25-15343 (Bankr. D.N.J. July 18, 2025) (the "Spano Adversary Proceeding") [Adv. Dkt. No. 1] (the "Complaint").

The Complaint alleges, among other things, that in June 2022, Mr. Silber entered into a credit agreement with Acquiom and certain lenders and subsequently received an aggregate amount of $19 million of loan proceeds prior to November 2023. In November 2023, Mr. Silber caused CBRM to become a guarantor under the credit agreement via an amendment to the governing guaranty agreement. Mr. Silber also received an additional $7.75 million of loan proceeds under the credit agreement. In May 2025, Acquiom filed suit against the guarantors in New York state court under the relevant loan documents. On September 5, 2024, Acquiom received a judgment against the guarantors, including CBRM, in the amount of approximately $21 million. Acquiom subsequently assigned the judgment to Spano. On or around December 13, 2024, Spano delivered a property execution letter to the Rockland County Sheriff, resulting in a purported judgment lien on CBRM's property. The corresponding levy was served on CBRM's counsel, White & Case LLP, on January 15, 2025. The Complaint alleges that the levy expired 90 days after service if CBRM's property was not transferred to the sheriff—and that no such transfer occurred.

The Complaint seeks to avoid CBRM's guaranty as a constructively fraudulent transfer pursuant to sections 544 and 548 of the Bankruptcy Code and to avoid the purported judgment lien as unperfected as of the Petition Date under section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition, the Complaint seeks disallowance of Spano's proof of claim in its entirety or, in the alternative, a determination that Spano holds only an unsecured claim.

The Complaint asserts five causes of action, including: (i) avoidance and recovery of the guaranty as a constructively fraudulent transfer under sections 544, 548, 550, and 551, against Spano and Acquiom; (ii) avoidance and recovery of the purported lien under sections 544, 550, and 551, against Spano and Acquiom; (iii) disallowance of the defendants' claims under section 502(d), against Spano and Acquiom; (iv) disallowance of Spano's claim under section 502(b), against Spano; and (v) recharacterization and/or disallowance of Spano's claim as unsecured under sections 502 and 506, against Spano.

Spano disputes all of the allegations asserted in the Spano Adversary Proceeding and has expressly reserved all rights, claims, and defenses in connection therewith.

On July 30, 2025, the Debtors, Spano, and Acquiom executed the Stipulation and Agreed Order Among the Debtors, Spano Investor LLC, and Acquiom Agency Services LLC to Stay Adversary Proceeding and Resolve Certain Claims Treatment Issues, which was filed with the Bankruptcy Court and was entered on July 31, 2025 [Docket No. 345] (the "Spano Stipulation"). Pursuant to the Spano Stipulation, the Spano CBRM Claim (as defined in the CBRM Plan) shall be deemed Allowed in the amount of $21,118,881.01 solely for voting purposes under section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, without prejudice to Spano's position that its Claim is secured and supported by valid, enforceable liens and security interests. The CBRM Plan was amended to provide for a separate class for the Spano CBRM Claim, and Spano has agreed to vote to accept the CBRM Plan in that class. The Spano Stipulation expressly reserves all parties' rights with respect to the classification, allowability, priority, and secured status of the Spano CBRM Claim.

The Spano Adversary Proceeding and related claim objections have been stayed in their entirety and may resume only if, after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee makes a good-faith determination that value is available for distribution to creditors of CBRM after the payment in full of all Allowed Claims against CBRM's subsidiaries. Spano will receive thirty (30) days' advance written notice of such determination and may file an objection with the Bankruptcy Court within thirty (30) days of receiving such notice. If the Creditor Recovery Trustee determines no such value is available, the Spano Adversary Proceeding shall be dismissed with prejudice. If value is determined to be available, the Spano Adversary Proceeding shall resume in accordance with a mutually agreed-upon schedule, unless otherwise resolved.

On August 7, 2025, the Debtors filed the Notice of Entry of Stipulation and Agreed Order Among the Debtors, Spano Investor LLC, and Acquiom Agency Services LLC to Stay Adversary Proceeding and Resolve Certain Claims Treatment Issues [Adv. Dkt. No. 5].

P. Pleadings Relating to Moshe (Mark) Silber

On July 18, 2025, Mr. Silber, acting pro se, filed the Motion of Party in Interest Moshe ("Mark") Silber for Issuance of a Subpoena Duces Tecum Pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004(C) and 9016 [Docket No. 298] (the "Silber Rule 2004 Motion") for an order compelling discovery under Rule 2004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure from Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, and LAGSP. The Silber Rule 2004 Motion seeks records from Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, and LAGSP relating to a range of topics relating to the Debtors and non-Debtor affiliates, as well as all communications regarding these topics between or among Elizabeth LaPuma, Lynd Management, LAGSP, and IslandDundon LLC. The hearing on the Silber Rule 2004 Motion was originally scheduled for August 14, 2025.

On July 25, 2025, Mr. Silber, acting pro se, filed the Motion of Party in Interest Moshe ("Mark") Silber for Appointment of an Equity Security Holders Committee or, in the Alternative, Appointment of Counsel [Docket No. 348] (the "Silber Equity Committee Motion") seeking appointment of an equity committee in these Chapter 11 Cases or, in the alternative, the appointment of counsel for Mr. Silber pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(1). Upon the filing of the Silber Equity Committee Motion, the Court adjourned the hearing on the Silber Rule 2004 Motion to August 21, 2025, to hear both motions on the same day.

On July 29, 2025, the Debtors served a Subpoena for Rule 2004 Examination on Mr. Silber, which had a response deadline of August 15, 2025. See Notice of Service of Subpoena Pursuant to L.R. 2004-1 [Docket No. 337].

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed objections to the Silber Rule 2004 Motion [Docket No. 374] and the Silber Equity Committee Motion [Docket No. 375]. The Debtors have offered to produce limited documents responsive to Mr. Silber's proposed requests.

On August 14, 2025, the U.S. Trustee also objected to the Silber Equity Committee Motion. Docket No. 377.

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 378] (the "Motion for Leave") seeking entry of an order granting the Debtors leave to depose Mr. Silber, who is currently confined in prison, at the site of his incarceration between August 25, 2025, and August 29, 2025. The Motion for Leave will be heard on August 21, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

On August 14, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Objection to Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230 of Moshe Mark Silber [Docket No. 372] (the "Silber Claim Objection") and Declaration of Matthew Dundon, Principal of IslandDundon LLC, in Support of the Debtors' Objection to Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230 of Moshe Mark Silber [Docket No. 373], seeking entry of an order disallowing the three Proofs of Claim filed by Mr. Silber (i.e., Proofs of Claim Nos. 216, 229, and 230) (collectively, the "Silber Claims"). Each of the Silber Claims asserts a purported unsecured claim of $3,989,175.00 for tax liabilities allegedly arising from the sale of a property. Proof of Claim No. 216 was superseded by a later filing and Proof of Claim No. 230 is duplicative. As to the remaining Proof of Claim No. 229, Mr. Silber did not attach sufficient support to the claim to constitute prima facie validity of a claim and the claim seeks amounts for which the Debtors are not liable. Accordingly, the Debtors seek to disallow the Silber Claims in their entirety to avoid duplicative or unwarranted recoveries. A hearing to consider the Silber Claim Objection is set for September 22, 2025, at 11:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

Q. NOLA Bidding Procedures

On July 30, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 350] seeking entry of the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order approving bidding procedures (the "NOLA Bidding Procedures")[7] in connection with a potential sale of one or more of the NOLA Properties. Such sale may be implemented either under a chapter 11 plan or as a standalone transaction pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. The NOLA Bidding Procedures are intended to facilitate a competitive and value-maximizing process through which interested parties may submit bids to acquire one or more of the NOLA Properties. The process ensures that all qualified bids are solicited, reviewed, and evaluated in a manner consistent with the milestones and confirmation timeline outlined in this Disclosure Statement and the associated solicitation procedures. To date, the Debtors have not entered into a stalking horse agreement with a stalking horse bidder for the NOLA Properties, and the Debtors may consider proposals for one or more of the NOLA Properties.

The Court entered the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order on August 15, 2025 [Docket No. 382]. Pursuant to the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order, the Bid Deadline is September 11, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). If one or more Qualifying Bids are received, the Debtors will conduct an auction on September 15, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Debtors will file and serve a notice of any Successful Bidder and Back-Up Bidder no later than September 16, 2025. To the extent applicable, the hearing to consider approval of a sale pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code is scheduled for September 22, 2025 at 11:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). Alternatively, if the potential sale is to be consummated through the Plan, the confirmation and sale hearing is scheduled for October 22, 2025 at 11:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

R. Chapter 11 Filing for Laguna Reserve

Following the Petition Date, Debtors' counsel, in coordination with LAGSP, determined that Lakewind is a subsidiary of Laguna Reserve and that Debtor Crown Capital Holdings LLC owns 100% of the equity interests in Laguna Reserve. Accordingly, on August 17, 2025, the Debtors filed a voluntary petition under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code for Laguna Reserve. Concurrently therewith, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for an Order (A) Applying Certain Orders in Initial Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases to Debtor Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC and (B) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 387] (the "Omnibus First Day Motion"). The Omnibus First Day Motion seeks to apply to Laguna Reserve's chapter 11 case certain orders previously entered in the chapter 11 cases, in order to avoid duplicative filings, reduce administrative burdens on the Bankruptcy Court and parties in interest, and streamline case administration.

VII. SUMMARY OF THE MATERIAL TERMS OF THE PLAN

The Plan provides for the implementation of the NOLA Sale Transaction—a court-supervised sale of one or more of the NOLA Properties pursuant to the Plan or as a standalone sale under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code as set forth in the NOLA Purchase Agreement. The Debtors are conducting the sale process in accordance with the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order.

No stalking horse bidder has been designated. If one or more qualified bids are received, the Debtors will conduct an auction to determine the highest or otherwise best offer. The successful bidder may acquire one or more of the NOLA Properties.

[7] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order.

VIII. SUMMARY OF THE RELEASES, INJUNCTION, EXCULPATION, AND DISCHARGE CONTEMPLATED BY THE PLAN

Any default by the Debtors or their Affiliates with respect to any Claim or Interest that existed immediately before or on account of the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases shall be deemed cured on the Effective Date. The Confirmation Order shall be a judicial determination of the settlement, compromise, and release of all Claims and Interests subject to the Effective Date occurring.

B. Release of Liens

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, on the Effective Date and concurrently with the applicable distributions made pursuant to the Plan and, in the case of a Secured Claim, satisfaction in full of the portion of the Secured Claim that is Allowed as of the Effective Date, all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estate shall be fully released, settled, and compromised.

C. Releases by the Debtors

Documents or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date.

D. Releases by Holders of Claims and Interests

As of the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Releasing Parties[8] are deemed to have released the Debtors, their Estates, and the Released Parties from any and all Claims, Interests, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies and liabilities whatsoever, including any direct Claims held by any of the Releasing Parties against the Debtors, their Estates, and/or the Released Parties or derivative Claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that each Releasing Party would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Debtors' restructuring, the Chapter 11 Cases, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents, or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan.

E. Exculpation

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, each Debtor and each Exculpated Party is hereby released and exculpated from any Claim, obligation, Cause of Action, or liability for any Exculpated Claim, except for gross negligence or willful misconduct, but in all respects each Debtor and each Exculpated Party shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to its duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan. The Debtors, their Estates, and the Exculpated Parties have, and upon completion of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of the Plan and distributions pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

F. Injunction

Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan or for obligations issued or required to be paid pursuant to the Plan, all Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that have been released pursuant to Article VIII.B of the Plan or Article VIII.D of the Plan, compromised and settled pursuant to Article VIII.A of the Plan, or are subject to exculpation pursuant to Article VIII.E of the Plan are permanently enjoined, from and after the Effective Date, from taking any of the following actions against, as applicable, the Debtors or the Released Parties: (1) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claim or Interest; (2) enforcing, attaching, collecting, or recovering by any manner or means any judgment, award, decree, or order against such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (3) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any encumbrance of any kind against such Entities or the property or the Estates of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (4) asserting any right of setoff, subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due from such Entities or against the property of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; and (5) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests.

IX. CERTAIN TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN

The Creditor Recovery Trust shall be structured in a manner consistent with U.S. federal tax law as determined by the Debtors prior to the Confirmation Hearing.

X. RISK FACTORS

Before voting to accept or reject the Plan, Holders of Claims or Interests entitled to vote should read and carefully consider the risk factors set forth below, in addition to the information set forth in this Disclosure Statement together with any attachments, exhibits, or documents incorporated by reference hereto. The factors below should not be regarded as the only risks associated with the Plan or its implementation.

A. Risks Relating to the Debtors' Business Operations and Financial Condition

1. General Economic Conditions

The Debtors' ability to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction may be affected by broader macroeconomic conditions, including rising interest rates, inflationary pressures, labor market disruptions, volatility in the housing market, investor sentiment, and geopolitical instability. Such factors may negatively impact real estate valuations, the availability of financing, and the willingness of potential purchasers to consummate transactions on favorable terms. While the Plan assumes a relatively stable economic environment, no assurance can be given that such conditions will continue through the expected closing.

2. Risk of Failure to Consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction

The Plan is based on the successful execution of the NOLA Sale Transaction in accordance with the Court-approved Bidding Procedures, which may be implemented either under a chapter 11 plan or as a standalone transaction pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. To date, the Debtors have not entered into a stalking horse agreement for the NOLA Properties, and there is no assurance that a qualified bid will be submitted or that the auction process will yield a value-maximizing transaction.

If the Debtors are unable to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction—whether due to a lack of qualified bids, termination of a purchase agreement, failure to satisfy closing conditions, or failure to obtain necessary Bankruptcy Court approval—the Debtors may face significant liquidity constraints. In that event, the Debtors may be forced to pursue an alternative restructuring strategy or, if none is viable, convert these Chapter 11 Cases to chapter 7 liquidation. Any such alternative could result in delayed, diminished, or uncertain recoveries for creditors compared to those anticipated under the Plan.

3. Limited Continuing Operations

Following the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, the Debtors do not expect to continue operations as going concerns. As a result, many risks typically associated with ongoing business activities—such as tenant turnover, market competition, or long-term access to capital—are less relevant. However, operational issues arising prior to the Effective Date, including delays in closing or transitional disruptions, could adversely impact Plan implementation and creditor recoveries.

4. Performance of Property Manager

The Debtors rely on their property manager, Lynd Management, to manage day-to-day operations of the NOLA Properties. Any failure by Lynd Management to perform its obligations under the property management agreements—whether due to operational, financial, or staffing issues—could impair property performance, impact tenant relations, and reduce the attractiveness of the NOLA Properties to potential buyers. Such issues could, in turn, delay or reduce proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction.

B. Risks Related to Bankruptcy Law

1. Risk of Non-Confirmation of the Plan

Although the Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies all requirements necessary for confirmation by the Bankruptcy Court, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion or that modifications to the Plan will not be required for confirmation or that such modifications would not necessitate re-solicitation of votes. Moreover, the Debtors can make no assurances that they will receive the requisite acceptances to confirm the Plan, and even if all Voting Classes vote in favor of the Plan or the requirements for "cram down" are met with respect to any Class that rejects or is deemed to reject the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court may exercise discretion as a court of equity and choose not to confirm the Plan. If the Plan is not confirmed, it is unclear what distributions Holders of Claims or Interests would ultimately receive with respect to their Claims or Interests in a subsequent plan of reorganization or otherwise.

2. Non-Consensual Confirmation

If any impaired class of Claims or Interests does not accept or is deemed not to accept a plan of reorganization, a Bankruptcy Court may nevertheless confirm such plan at the proponent's request if at least one impaired class has accepted the plan (with such acceptance being determined without including the vote of any "insider" in such class), and as to each impaired class that has not accepted the plan, the Bankruptcy Court determines that the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" with respect to the dissenting impaired classes. If any Class votes to reject or is deemed to reject the Plan, then these requirements must be satisfied with respect to such rejecting Class. The Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies these requirements.

3. Risk Related to Wind-Down and Plan Implementation

The Plan contemplates a Wind-Down of the Debtors' Estates following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, including the creation of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Execution of the Wind-Down and administration of post-Effective Date responsibilities depends on various factors, including sufficient funding and the ability of the Creditor Recovery Trustee to realize value from retained causes of action. Delays, disputes, or unforeseen liabilities could reduce the proceeds ultimately available to distribute to creditors.

4. Risk That the CBRM Plan Will Not Be Confirmed and Become Effective

This Plan has been developed in coordination with the CBRM Plan. Pursuant to the CBRM Plan, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be established on the Effective Date of the CBRM Plan to assume all liability of the CBRM Debtors and their estates for, and to administer, all CBRM Unsecured Claims.

Under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the Debtors will transfer to the Creditor Recovery Trust (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, (ii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (iii) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (iv) the Contributed Claims (if any), (v) the Crown Capital Interests, (vi) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (vii) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any).

If the CBRM Plan is not confirmed or does not become effective, the Debtors will implement an alternative, court-approved mechanism to administer and distribute the assets that would otherwise have been transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Such mechanism may include establishing a similar trust under the Plan or another structure designed to maximize value for stakeholders. This could result in delays, increased administrative costs, and reduced recoveries for creditors, as well as potential changes to the priority and allocation of distributions compared to the structure contemplated under the CBRM Plan.

5. Allowed Claims Could Exceed Estimates

There can be no assurance that the Allowed amount of Claims participating in distributions will not be significantly more than projected, which in turn, could cause the value of distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims whose treatment is limited to distributions from a specified recovery source to be reduced. Inevitably, some assumptions will not materialize, and unanticipated events and circumstances may affect the ultimate results and total amount of Claims against the Debtors' Estates. Therefore, the actual amount of Allowed Claims may vary from the Debtors' projections and feasibility analysis, and the variation may be material.

6. U.S. Federal Income Tax Risks

The tax consequences of the Plan to the Debtors and to Holders of Claims and Interests may vary depending on the individual's tax situation and are subject to significant uncertainties. Parties in interest should consult their own tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal, state, local, and non-U.S. income and other tax consequences of the Plan, including any income that may arise from the receipt of distributions or interests in the Creditor Recovery Trust.

7. Risk of Non-Occurrence of the Effective Date

Although the Debtors believe that the Effective Date will occur soon after the Confirmation Date, there can be no assurance as to the timing of the Effective Date. If the conditions precedent to the Effective Date set forth in the Plan have not occurred or have not been waived as set forth in Article IX.B of the Plan, then the Confirmation Order may be vacated, in which event no distributions would be made under the Plan, the Debtors and all Holders of Claims or Interests would be restored to the status quo as of the day immediately preceding the Confirmation Date, and the Debtors' obligations with respect to Claims and Interests would remain unchanged.

8. Conversion into Chapter 7 Cases

If no plan of reorganization can be confirmed, or if the Bankruptcy Court otherwise finds that it would be in the best interest of Holders of Claims and Interests, some or all of the Chapter 11 Cases may be converted to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, pursuant to which a trustee would be appointed or elected to liquidate the Debtors' assets for distribution in accordance with the priorities established by the Bankruptcy Code.

9. Parties in Interest May Object to the Plan's Classification of Claims and Interests

Section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a plan may place a claim or an equity interest in a particular class only if such claim or equity interest is substantially similar to the other claims or equity interests in such class. The Debtors believe that the classification of the Claims and Interests under the Plan complies with the requirements set forth in the Bankruptcy Code because the Debtors created Classes of Claims and Interests each encompassing Claims or Interests, as applicable, that are substantially similar to the other Claims or Interests, as applicable, in each such Class. Nevertheless, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion.

10. The Debtors May Fail to Satisfy Vote Requirements

If votes are received in number and amount sufficient to enable the Bankruptcy Court to confirm the Plan, the Debtors intend to seek, as promptly as practicable thereafter, Confirmation of the Plan. In the event that sufficient votes are not received, the Debtors may seek to confirm an alternative chapter 11 plan. There can be no assurance that the terms of any such alternative chapter 11 plan would be similar or as favorable to the Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests as those proposed in the Plan.

11. Continued Risk upon Confirmation

Following the NOLA Sale Transaction, the Debtors will not continue operating as a going concern. Instead, their primary role will be to implement the Wind-Down and transfer assets to the Creditor Recovery Trust. The cessation of operations may limit the Debtors' ability to address unanticipated claims, disputes, or liabilities that arise post-Effective Date.

12. Contingencies Could Affect Votes of Impaired Classes to Accept or Reject the Plan

The distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan can be affected by a variety of contingencies, including whether the Bankruptcy Court orders certain Allowed Claims to be subordinated to other Allowed Claims. The occurrence of any and all such contingencies, which could affect distributions available to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan, will not affect the validity of the vote taken by the Impaired Classes to accept or reject the Plan or require any sort of revote by the Impaired Classes. The estimated Claims and creditor recoveries set forth in this Disclosure Statement are based on various assumptions, and the actual Allowed amounts of Claims may significantly differ from the estimates. Should one or more of the underlying assumptions ultimately prove to be incorrect, the actual Allowed amounts of Claims may vary from the estimated Claims contained in this Disclosure Statement. Moreover, the Debtors cannot determine with any certainty at this time, the number or amount of Claims that will ultimately be Allowed. Such differences may materially and adversely affect, among other things, the percentage recoveries to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan.

13. Disruption from Competing Plans or Proposals

Although no competing plan has been proposed to date, parties in interest may seek to propose an alternative chapter 11 plan. The pursuit of such a competing plan could delay Confirmation, increase administrative costs, or result in lower recoveries for creditors.

14. Releases, Injunctions, and Exculpations Provisions May Not Be Approved

Article VIII of the Plan provides for certain releases, injunctions, and exculpations, including a release of liens and third-party releases. The releases, injunctions, and exculpations provided in the Plan are subject to objection by parties in interest and may not be approved. If the releases are not approved, certain Released Parties may withdraw their support for the Plan.

C. Additional Factors

1. The Debtors Could Withdraw the Plan

Subject to, and without prejudice to, the rights of any party in interest, the Plan may be revoked or withdrawn before the Confirmation Date by the Debtors.

2. The Debtors Have No Duty to Update

The statements contained in this Disclosure Statement are made by the Debtors as of the date hereof, unless otherwise specified herein, and the delivery of this Disclosure Statement after that date does not imply that there has been no change in the information set forth herein since that date. Additionally, the Debtors have no duty to update this Disclosure Statement unless otherwise ordered to do so by the Bankruptcy Court.

3. No Representations Outside this Disclosure Statement Are Authorized

No representations concerning or related to the Debtors, the Chapter 11 Cases, or the Plan are authorized by the Bankruptcy Court or the Bankruptcy Code, other than as set forth in this Disclosure Statement. Any representations or inducements made to secure your acceptance or rejection of the Plan that are other than those contained in, or included with, this Disclosure Statement should not be relied upon in making the decision to accept or reject the Plan.

4. No Legal or Tax Advice Is Provided by this Disclosure Statement

The contents of this Disclosure Statement should not be construed as legal, business, or tax advice. Each Holder of a Claim or Interest should consult its own legal counsel and accountant as to legal, tax, and other matters concerning their Claim or Interest.

This Disclosure Statement is not legal advice to you. This Disclosure Statement may not be relied upon for any purpose other than to determine how to vote on the Plan or object to confirmation of the Plan.

5. No Admission Made

Nothing contained herein or in the Plan shall constitute an admission of, or shall be deemed evidence of, the tax or other legal effects of the Plan on the Debtors or Holders of Claims or Interests.

XI. CONFIRMATION OF THE PLAN

The Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan only if all of the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code are met. Among the requirements for confirmation are that the plan is (a) accepted by all impaired classes of claims and interests entitled to vote or, if rejected or deemed rejected by an impaired class, that the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" as to such class; (b) in the "best interests" of the holders of claims and interests impaired under the plan; and (c) feasible.

A. Acceptance of the Plan

The Bankruptcy Code defines "acceptance" of a plan by a class of (i) claims as acceptance by creditors in that class that hold at least two-thirds (2/3) in dollar amount and more than one-half (1/2) in number of the claims that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the plan and (ii) interests as acceptance by interest holders in that class that hold at least two-thirds (2/3) in amount of the interests that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the plan. Holders of claims or interests that fail to vote are not counted in determining the thresholds for acceptance of the plan.

If any impaired class of claims or interests does not accept the plan (or is deemed to reject the plan), the Bankruptcy Court may still confirm the plan at the request of the Debtors if, as to each impaired class of claims or interests that has not accepted the plan (or is deemed to reject the plan), the plan "does not discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" under the so-called "cram down" provisions set forth in section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The "unfair discrimination" test applies to classes of claims or interests that are of equal priority and are receiving different treatment under the plan. A chapter 11 plan does not discriminate unfairly, within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code, if the legal rights of a dissenting class are treated in a manner consistent with the treatment of other classes whose legal rights are substantially similar to those of the dissenting class and if no class of claims or interests receives more than it legally is entitled to receive for its claims or interests. The test does not require that the treatment be the same or equivalent, but that such treatment be "fair." The "fair and equitable" test applies to classes of different priority and status (e.g., secured versus unsecured; claims versus interests) and includes the general requirement that no class of claims receive more than 100% of the allowed amount of the claims in such class. As to the dissenting class, the test sets different standards that must be satisfied in order for the Plan to be confirmed, depending on the type of claims or interests in such class. The following sets forth the "fair and equitable" test that must be satisfied as to each type of class for a plan to be confirmed if such class rejects the plan:

- Secured Creditors. Each holder of an impaired secured claim either (a) retains its liens on the property, to the extent of the allowed amount of its secured claim, and receives deferred cash payments having a value, as of the effective date of the plan, of at least the allowed amount of such secured claim, (b) has the right to credit bid the amount of its claim if its property is sold and retains its lien on the proceeds of the sale, or (c) receives the "indubitable equivalent" of its allowed secured claim.

- Unsecured Creditors. Either (a) each holder of an impaired unsecured claim receives or retains under the plan, property of a value, as of the effective date of the plan, equal to the amount of its allowed claim or (b) the holders of claims and interests that are junior to the claims of the dissenting class will not receive any property under the plan.

- Interests. Either (a) each equity interest holder will receive or retain under the plan property of a value equal to the greater of (i) the fixed liquidation preference or redemption price, if any, of such equity interest and (ii) the value of the equity interest or (b) the holders of interests that are junior to the interests of the dissenting class will not receive or retain any property under the plan.

The Debtors believe the Plan satisfies the "fair and equitable" requirement with respect to any rejecting Class.

IF ALL OTHER CONFIRMATION REQUIREMENTS ARE SATISFIED AT THE CONFIRMATION HEARING, THE DEBTORS WILL ASK THE BANKRUPTCY COURT TO RULE THAT THE PLAN MAY BE CONFIRMED ON THE GROUNDS THAT THE SECTION 1129(B) REQUIREMENTS HAVE BEEN SATISFIED.

B. Best Interests of Creditors Test

The Bankruptcy Code requires that each holder of an impaired claim or interest either (1) accepts the plan or (2) receives or retains under the plan property of a value, as of the effective date, that is not less than the value such holder would receive if the debtor were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. This requirement is customarily referred to as the "best interests of creditors" test. As demonstrated in the liquidation analysis attached hereto as Exhibit C, the Debtors believe that liquidation under chapter 7 would result in smaller distributions to creditors than those provided for in the Plan.

C. Feasibility

The Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies the feasibility requirement set forth in section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan is predicated on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the subsequent Wind-Down of the Debtors' Estates. Following the sale closing and transfer of the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets on the Effective Date, the Debtors will no longer engage in business operations and will instead proceed with an orderly Wind-Down consistent with the terms of the Plan.

The Debtors do not anticipate the need for any further reorganization or restructuring of their affairs following Confirmation. Moreover, the Debtors expect to have sufficient resources—including the proceeds of the NOLA Sale Transaction, Cash on hand, and other Plan funding sources—to satisfy all obligations required to be performed under the Plan and to fund the Wind-Down and the administration of the Creditor Recovery Trust. As such, the Debtors believe that Confirmation of the Plan is not likely to be followed by liquidation (other than as expressly contemplated), or by the need for further financial reorganization of the Debtors or any successor thereto under the Plan.

D. Confirmation Hearing

Section 1128(a) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Bankruptcy Court to hold a confirmation hearing upon appropriate notice to all required parties. The Confirmation Hearing is scheduled for [●], 2025 at [__]:[__] [_].m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Confirmation Hearing may be adjourned from time to time by the Bankruptcy Court without further notice except for the announcement of the continuation date made at the Confirmation Hearing, at any subsequent continued Confirmation Hearing, or pursuant to a notice filed on the docket for the Chapter 11 Cases.

Section 1128(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that any party in interest may object to the confirmation of a plan. Any objection to confirmation of the Plan must be in writing, must conform to the Bankruptcy Rules and the local rules of the Bankruptcy Court, must set forth the name of the objector, the nature and amount of Claims or Interests held or asserted by the objector against the Debtors' estates or properties, the basis for the objection and the specific grounds therefor, and must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served no later than the Confirmation Objection Deadline.

XII. CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATION

The Debtors believe the Plan is in the best interests of all stakeholders and urge the Holders of Claims and Interests entitled to vote on the Plan to vote in favor thereof.

Any monetary defaults under each Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract to be assumed pursuant to the Plan shall be satisfied, pursuant to section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, by payment of the Cure Amount in Cash by the Creditor Recovery Trust.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors shall, on or before the date of filing of the Plan Supplement, cause the Cure and Assumption Notices to be served on counterparties to Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contracts to be assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan. Any objection by a non-Debtor counterparty to an Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract to the assumption and assignment, the related Cure Amount, or adequate assurance must be filed, served, and actually received by the Debtors on or prior to the deadline for filing objections to the Plan (or such later date as may be provided in the applicable Cure and Assumption Notice); provided that each counterparty to a Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract (a) that the Debtors later determine to assume and assign or (b) as to which the Debtors modify the applicable Cure Amount, must object to the assumption and assignment or Cure Amount, as applicable, by the earlier of: (i) fourteen (14) days after the Debtors serve such counterparty with a corresponding Cure and Assumption Notice; and (ii) the Confirmation Hearing.

Any counterparty to a Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract that fails to timely object to the proposed assumption of any Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from contesting the Debtors' assumption and assignment of the applicable Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract and from requesting payment of a Cure Amount that differs from the amount paid or proposed to be paid by the Creditor Recovery Trust, without the need for any objection by the Creditor Recovery Trust or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. The Creditor Recovery Trust may settle any dispute regarding a Cure Amount without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, to the extent any provision in any Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan restricts or prevents, or purports to restrict or prevent, or is breached or would be deemed breached by, the assumption and assignment of such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract (including any change of control or similar provision), then such provision shall be deemed pre-empted and modified such that neither the Debtors' assumption and assignment of the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract nor any of the transactions contemplated by the Plan shall entitle the non-Debtor counterparty to terminate or modify such Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract or to exercise any other purported default-related rights thereunder.

The Debtors' assumption and assignment of any Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract pursuant to the Plan or otherwise, and payment of any applicable Cure Amount in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article IV.D, shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any Claims or defaults, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any assumed and assigned Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract at any time prior to the effective date of assumption and assignment.

In the event of a timely filed objection regarding: (1) a Cure Amount; (2) the ability of the Creditor Recovery Trust or any assignee to provide adequate assurance of future performance within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code under the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract to be assumed and assigned; or (3) any other matter pertaining to assumption and assignment or the requirements of section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, such dispute shall be resolved by a

Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court (which may be the Confirmation Order) or as may be agreed upon by the Creditor Recovery Trust and the counterparty to the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract. The Creditor Recovery Trust shall pay the applicable Cure Amount as soon as reasonably practicable after entry of a Final Order resolving such dispute and approving such assumption and assignment, or as may otherwise be agreed upon by the Creditor Recovery Trust and the counterparty to the Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract. To the extent that a dispute regarding the applicable Cure Amount is resolved or determined unfavorably to the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trust may, in its discretion, reject the applicable Creditor Recovery Trust Executory Contract after such determination, which rejection shall supersede, nullify, and render of no force or effect any earlier assumption and assignment. Under no circumstances shall the status of payment of a Cure Amount required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code following the entry of a Final Order resolving the dispute and approving the assumption and assignment prevent or delay implementation of the Plan or the occurrence of the Effective Date.

E. Cancellation of Securities and Agreements.

On the Effective Date, except to the extent otherwise provided in the Plan, all notes, instruments, certificates, and other documents evidencing, or in any way related to, Claims or Interests shall be canceled as against the Debtors and each Released Party and the obligations of the Debtors thereunder or in any way related thereto shall be released, settled, and compromised.

F. Corporate Action.

Notwithstanding any requirements under applicable nonbankruptcy law, upon the Effective Date, all actions contemplated by the Plan shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, including the implementation of the Restructuring Transactions and, to the extent not approved pursuant to a Sale Order, the NOLA Sale Transaction. All matters provided for in the Plan involving the corporate structure of the Debtors, and any corporate action required by the Debtors in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have occurred and shall be in effect, without any requirement of further action by any Person or Entity or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors and their directors, managers, partners, officers, authorized persons, and members thereof (including the Independent Fiduciary) are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, securities, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan and the securities issued pursuant to the Plan in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors, without the need for any approvals, authorizations, or consents, except for those expressly required pursuant to the Plan, or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

G. Independent Fiduciary.

As of the Effective Date, the Independent Fiduciary may in her reasonable discretion authorize another Person or Entity to act on behalf of the Independent Fiduciary or assume the powers of the Independent Fiduciary.

H. Exemption from Certain Taxes and Fees.

Pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers of property or any Interests, including the Transferred Subsidiaries, pursuant to the Plan, including, to the extent applicable, the NOLA Sale Transaction, the recording of any amendments to such transfers, or any new mortgages or liens placed on the property in connection with such transfers, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, registration tax, mortgage tax, stamp act, real estate, transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, or other similar tax, fees, charges, or governmental assessment (including any penalties and interest), and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment to the maximum extent covered by section 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code.

I. Preservation of Rights of Action.

On the Effective Date, (i) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall vest in the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall vest in the post-Effective Date Debtors under the authority of the Wind-Down Officer, in each case free and clear of all Claims, Liens, Encumbrances and other interests. The NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust and shall, upon such transfer, become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan) and the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action shall become Wind-Down Assets. On and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue and dispose of the Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action (including the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action) and the Wind-Down Officer shall have sole and exclusive discretion to pursue the Wind-Down Retained Causes of Action. No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan or Disclosure Statement as to any Cause of Action as any indication that the Debtor, and on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, or Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action against them. No preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation. Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors and, on and after the Effective Date, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, subject to the oversight, approval, consultation and consent of the Trust Advisory Committee as set forth in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, and the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, shall retain and shall have, through their authorized agents or representatives, the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or the Disclosure Statement to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee or the Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action. Unless and until any such Causes of Action against any Person or Entity are expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or assigned, or settled under the Plan or a Final Order, the Creditor Recovery Trustee and Wind-Down Officer, as applicable, expressly reserve all such Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation or Consummation.

J. Election to Contribute Claims.

Because aggregating all Contributed Claims may enable the pursuit and settlement of such litigation claims in a more efficient and effective manner, each Holder of a Claim or Interest may agree, by electing on its Ballot, to contribute its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Holders that elected to contribute such Claims. Contributed Claims and the proceeds thereof will not be included within the Distributable Value (as defined in the CBRM Plan) of the Creditor Recovery Trust. Rather, as provided in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, any value attributable to such Contributed Claims will be segregated and only available for disbursement to those Holders that elected to contribute such Claims. By electing such option on its Ballot, each Contributing Claimant agrees that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the appointment of the Creditor Recovery Trustee, it will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed its Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and

(ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Creditor Recovery Trustee to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

K. Contribution of Contributed Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Contributed Claims will be irrevocably contributed to the Creditor Recovery Trust for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute on behalf of the Holders of Claims entitled to receive the Distributable Value (as defined in the CBRM Plan) of the Creditor Recovery Trust and shall thereafter be Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan) for all purposes. No Person may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Confirmation Order, the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement, the Plan Supplement, or any other document as any indication that the Creditor Recovery Trustee will or will not pursue any and all available Contributed Claims against such Person. The Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all Contributed Claims fully to the same extent that the Contributing Claimants could have asserted such claims prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contributed Claims shall not include the rights of any of the Contributing Claimants to receive the Distributions under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests and shall not include any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law.

ARTICLE V

A. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, all Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases (including all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List) will be deemed rejected, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than those that previously were assumed or rejected by the Debtors or those that are subject to a pending motion to assume or assign such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such rejections.

B. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

Unless otherwise provided by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within 30 days after entry of the Confirmation Order. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to this Plan not filed within such time shall be disallowed, forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against, as applicable, the Debtors, the Estates, or property thereof, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged. All Allowed Claims arising from the rejection of any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases shall constitute and be treated as Unsecured Claims. Nothing herein shall constitute an extension of any Claims Bar Date otherwise applicable to a Claim arising from an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously rejected by the Debtors.

C. Treatment of Insurance Policies.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each of the Insurance Policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto issued to or entered into by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date shall not be considered Executory Contracts and shall neither be assumed nor rejected by the Debtors; provided, however, that to the extent any such Insurance Policy is determined by Final Order to be an Executory Contract, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the Plan will constitute a motion to assume such Insurance Policy and assign the same to the Creditor

Recovery Trust. Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, the entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute approval of such assumption and assignment pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Unless otherwise determined by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to a Final Order or agreed by the parties thereto prior to the Effective Date, no payments are required to cure any defaults of the Debtor existing as of the Confirmation Date with respect to any Insurance Policy, and prior payments for premiums or other charges made prior to the Petition Date under or with respect to any Insurance Policy shall be indefeasible.

D. Effect of Confirmation on D&O Liability Insurance Policies.

From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall remain in place on terms for coverage and amounts no less favorable than the Debtors' current directors' and officers' insurance policies. From and after the Effective Date, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust and, upon such transfer, shall become Creditor Recovery Trust Assets (as defined in the CBRM Plan), which D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall be maintained for the benefit of the beneficiaries thereunder. The Debtors and the Creditor Recovery Trust shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policies (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect on or prior to the Effective Date, and any current and former directors, officers, managers, and employees of the Debtors and their Affiliates who served in such capacity at any time before or after the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy or policies for the full term of such policy or policies regardless of whether such directors, officers, managers, and employees remain in such positions after the Effective Date.

ARTICLE VI

A. Timing and Calculation of Amounts to Be Distributed.

Except as (1) otherwise provided herein, (2) directed by a Final Order, or (3) as otherwise agreed to by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Officer, as the case may be, and the Holder of the applicable Claim, on the Effective Date (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Distribution Date after such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive the full amount of distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class from the Distribution Agent. In the event that any payment or distribution under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or distribution may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. Except as specifically provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

B. Distribution Agent.

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under the Plan and the Plan Supplement; (b) make all distributions contemplated under the Plan; (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan and the Plan Supplement, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of the Plan and the Plan Supplement.

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Distribution Agent on or after the Effective Date (including taxes) and any reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement claims (including reasonable attorney and/or other professional fees and expenses) made by the Distribution Agent shall be paid in Cash by the Wind-Down Officer from the Wind-Down Account.

C. Delivery of Distributions and Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Distribution Agent shall make all distributions required under the Plan. The Distribution Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Additionally, in the event that the Distribution Agent is so otherwise ordered, all costs and expenses of procuring any such bond or surety shall be paid from the Wind-Down Account.

In the event that either (a) a distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable, (b) the Holder of an Allowed Claim does not respond in writing to a request by the Debtors or the Distribution Agent for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution within sixty (60) days or otherwise complete the actions necessary to facilitate a distribution as identified to the Holder within ninety (90) days of the Distribution Agent's request, no distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Distribution Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder or received the necessary information to facilitate a particular distribution, at which time such distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest, dividends, or other accruals of any kind; provided that such distributions shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code on the date that is six months after (a) the date of the distribution, if a distribution is made, or (b) the date that a request for information or action is sent by the Distribution Agent. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Creditor Recovery Trust automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable local, state, federal, or foreign escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and the Claim or Interest of any Holder to such property or interest in property shall be released and forever barred.

D. Claims Payable by Third Parties.

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to one of the Debtors' insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable insurance policy, including any D&O Liability Insurance Policy. Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Cause of Action that the Debtors or any Entity may hold against any other Entity, including insurers under any policies of insurance, nor shall anything contained in the Plan constitute or be deemed a waiver by such insurers of any defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such insurers.

E. Distributions to Unsecured Claims.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, all Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims shall be administered by the Creditor Recovery Trust pursuant to and in accordance with the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

F. Allocation Between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided herein, the aggregate consideration paid to Holders on account of their Allowed Claims pursuant to the Plan shall be treated as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof and as determined for federal income tax purposes) and second, to the extent the consideration exceeds the principal amount of the Allowed Claims, to the remaining portion of such Allowed Claim, if any.

ARTICLE VII

A. Allowance of Claims.

After the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Officer and the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have and shall retain any and all available rights and defenses the applicable Debtor had with respect to any Claim immediately before the Effective Date, including, without limitation, the right to assert any objection to Claims based on the limitations imposed by section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that neither the Wind-Down Officer nor the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to any Professional Fee Claims or fees of the Independent Fiduciary. For the avoidance of doubt, the Creditor Recovery Trustee shall have the right to object to and otherwise reconcile any and all Claims that seek recovery from the Creditor Recovery Trust other than Professional Fee Claims and fees of the Independent Fiduciary. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases before the Effective Date (including the Confirmation Order), no Claim against any Debtor shall become an Allowed Claim unless and until such Claim or Interest is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Court has entered a Final Order, including the Confirmation Order (when it becomes a Final Order), in the Chapter 11 Cases allowing such Claim.

No payment or distribution provided under the Plan shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim or portion thereof unless and until such Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

B. Automatic Disallowance and Expungement of Certain Claims.

On the Effective Date, all Claims Filed after the Claims Bar Date that were required to be Filed in advance of the Claims Bar Date under its terms shall be expunged and disallowed without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

C. Distributions After Allowance.

To the extent a Disputed Claim ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, as soon as practicable, the Debtors shall provide to the Holder of such Claim the Distribution (if any) to which such Holder is entitled under the Plan as of the Effective Date, less any previous Distribution (if any) that was made on account of the undisputed portion of such Claim, without any interest, dividends, or accruals to be paid on account of such Claim.

ARTICLE VIII
SETTLEMENT, RELEASE, INJUNCTION, AND RELATED PROVISIONS

A. Settlement, Compromise, and Release of Claims and Interests.

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and in consideration for the distributions and other benefits provided pursuant to the Plan, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, the distributions, rights, and treatment that are provided in the Plan shall be in complete settlement, compromise, and release, effective as of the Effective Date, of Claims, Interests, and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever, including any interest accrued on Claims or Interests from and after the Petition Date, whether known or unknown, against, liabilities of, Liens on, obligations of, rights against, and Interests in, the Debtors or any of their assets or properties, regardless of whether any property shall have been distributed or retained pursuant to the Plan on account of such Claims and Interests, including demands, liabilities, and Causes of Action that arose before the Effective Date, any liability (including withdrawal liability) to the extent such Claims or Interests relate to services performed by agents or representatives of the Debtors before the Effective Date and that arise from a termination of employment, any contingent or non-contingent liability on account of representations or warranties issued on or before the Effective Date, and all debts of the kind specified in sections 502(g), 502(h), or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code, in each case whether or not: (1) a Proof of Claim based upon such debt, right, Claim, or Interest is Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code; (2) a Claim or Interest based upon such debt, right, or Interest is Allowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (3) the Holder of such a Claim or Interest has accepted the Plan. Any default by the Debtors or their Affiliates with respect to any Claim or Interest that existed immediately before or on account of the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases shall be deemed cured on the Effective Date. The Confirmation Order shall be a judicial determination of the settlement, compromise, and release of all Claims and Interests subject to the Effective Date occurring.

B. Release of Liens.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, on the Effective Date and concurrently with the applicable distributions made pursuant to the Plan and, in the case of a Secured Claim, satisfaction in full of the portion of the Secured Claim that is Allowed as of the Effective Date, all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estate shall be fully released, settled, and compromised.

C. Releases by the Debtors.

Pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, for good and valuable consideration, on and after the Effective Date, each Released Party is deemed released by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Claims, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies, and liabilities whatsoever, including any derivative Claims, asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that the Debtors or their Estates would have been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the Holder of any Claim or Interest or other Entity, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Chapter 11 Cases, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date.

D. Releases by Holders of Claims and Interests.

As of the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Releasing Parties are deemed to have released the Debtors, their Estates, and the Released Parties from any and all Claims, Interests, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies and liabilities whatsoever, including any direct Claims held by any of the Releasing Parties against the Debtors, their Estates, and/or the Released Parties or derivative Claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that each Releasing Party would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Debtors' restructuring, the Chapter 11 Cases, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents, or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan.

E. Exculpation.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, each Debtor and each Exculpated Party is hereby released and exculpated from any Claim, obligation, Cause of Action, or liability for any Exculpated Claim, except for gross negligence or willful misconduct, but in all respects

each Debtor and each Exculpated Party shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to its duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan. The Debtors, their Estates, and the Exculpated Parties have, and upon completion of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of the Plan and distributions pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

F. Injunction.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan or for obligations issued or required to be paid pursuant to the Plan, all Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that have been released pursuant to Article VIII.B of the Plan or Article VIII.D of the Plan, compromised and settled pursuant to Article VIII.A of the Plan, or are subject to exculpation pursuant to Article VIII.E of the Plan are permanently enjoined, from and after the Effective Date, from taking any of the following actions against, as applicable, the Debtors or the Released Parties: (1) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claim or Interest; (2) enforcing, attaching, collecting, or recovering by any manner or means any judgment, award, decree, or order against such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (3) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any encumbrance of any kind against such Entities or the property or the Estates of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (4) asserting any right of setoff, subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due from such Entities or against the property of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; and (5) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests.

ARTICLE IX

A. Conditions Precedent to the Effective Date.

It shall be a condition to Consummation that the following conditions shall have been satisfied or waived pursuant to the provisions of Article IX.B of the Plan:

1. the Bankruptcy Court shall have entered the Confirmation Order and it shall have become a Final Order; provided, however, that in accordance with Bankruptcy Rules 3020(e), 6004(h), and 6006(d) (and notwithstanding any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Rules), the Confirmation Order shall not be stayed and shall be effective immediately upon its entry;

2. all documents and agreements necessary to implement the Plan, including any documents related to the NOLA Sale Transaction and Restructuring Transactions shall have (a) all conditions precedent to the effectiveness of such documents and agreements satisfied or waived pursuant to the terms of such documents or agreements, (b) been tendered for delivery, and (c) been effected or executed;

3. all governmental and material third-party approvals and consents, including Bankruptcy Court approval, necessary in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Plan shall have been obtained, not be subject to unfulfilled conditions and be in full force and effect, and all applicable waiting periods shall have expired without any action being taken or threatened by any competent authority that would restrain, prevent, or otherwise impose materially adverse conditions on such transactions; and

4. all conditions precedent to implementation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and Restructuring Transactions, including any conditions precedent under the NOLA Bidding Procedures Order, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any auction, if necessary, shall have occurred.

B. Waiver of Conditions.

The conditions to Consummation set forth in Article IX of the Plan may be waived only by consent of the Debtors without notice, leave, or order of the Bankruptcy Court or any formal action other than proceedings to confirm or consummate the Plan.

ARTICLE X

A. Modification and Amendments.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors reserve the right to modify the Plan, whether materially or immaterially, including by adding a non-Debtor entity that becomes a debtor and debtor in possession under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code to, or removing a Debtor from, the Plan, and seek Confirmation, in each instance, to the extent permitted under the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to certain restrictions and requirements set forth in section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3019 and those restrictions on modifications set forth in the Plan, the Debtors reserve their right to alter, amend, or modify materially the Plan, one or more times, after Confirmation, and, to the extent necessary, may initiate proceedings in the Bankruptcy Court to so alter, amend, or modify the Plan, or remedy any defect or omission, or reconcile any inconsistencies in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, or the Confirmation Order, in such matters as may be necessary to carry out the purposes and intent of the Plan.

B. Effect of Confirmation on Modifications.

Entry of a Confirmation Order shall mean that all modifications or amendments to the Plan occurring after the solicitation thereof and before the Confirmation Date are approved pursuant to section 1127(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and do not require additional disclosure or resolicitation under Bankruptcy Rule 3019.

EXHIBIT 70

LIQUIDATION ANALYSIS

A. Overview

Section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that each Holder of an Impaired Allowed Claim or Impaired Allowed Interest either (a) accepts the Plan or (b) receives or retains under the Plan property of a value, as of the Effective Date, that is not less than the value such Holder would receive or retain if the Debtors were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code ("Chapter 7") on the Effective Date. This legal standard is known as the "best interests" test.

The Debtors have prepared this liquidation analysis ("Liquidation Analysis")[1] based on a hypothetical liquidation under Chapter 7. It is assumed, among other things, that the Debtors' estates are not substantively consolidated and that the hypothetical liquidation under Chapter 7 would commence under the direction of a court-appointed trustee (the "Liquidating Trustee" or the "Trustee") and would continue for a period of time, during which all of the Debtors' material assets would be sold or tendered to their respective lien holders, and the cash proceeds, net of liquidation-related costs, would be distributed to creditors in accordance with applicable law.

The Liquidation Analysis has been prepared assuming that the Debtors filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy on May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date"), and the cases were subsequently converted to a Chapter 7 liquidation on or about October 22, 2025 (the "Conversion Date").

The determination of the costs of, and proceeds from, the liquidation of the Debtors' assets in Chapter 7 is an uncertain process involving the extensive use of estimates and assumptions that, although considered reasonable by the Debtors, are inherently subject to significant business, economic, and competitive uncertainties, and contingencies beyond the control of the Debtors, their management, and their advisors. Inevitably, some assumptions in the Liquidation Analysis would not materialize in an actual Chapter 7 liquidation, and unanticipated events and circumstances could affect the ultimate results in an actual Chapter 7 liquidation.

All limitations and risk factors set forth in the Disclosure Statement are applicable to this Liquidation Analysis and are incorporated by reference herein. The underlying financial information in the Liquidation Analysis was not compiled or examined by independent accountants or auditors.

THE LIQUIDATION ANALYSIS IS NOT INTENDED AND SHOULD NOT BE USED FOR ANY OTHER PURPOSE. THE LIQUIDATION ANALYSIS DOES NOT PURPORT TO BE A VALUATION OF THE DEBTORS' ASSETS AS A GOING CONCERN, AND THERE MAY BE A SIGNIFICANT DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE LIQUIDATION ANALYSIS AND THE VALUES THAT MAY BE REALIZED IN AN ACTUAL LIQUIDATION. THIS LIQUIDATION ANALYSIS ASSUMES "LIQUIDATION VALUES" BASED ON THE DEBTORS' BUSINESS JUDGMENT.

THE UNDERLYING FINANCIAL INFORMATION IN THE LIQUIDATION ANALYSIS WAS NOT COMPILED OR EXAMINED BY ANY INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS. NEITHER THE DEBTORS NOR THEIR ADVISORS MAKE ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES THAT THE ACTUAL RESULTS WOULD OR WOULD NOT APPROXIMATE THE ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS REPRESENTED IN THE LIQUIDATION ANALYSIS. ACTUAL RESULTS COULD VARY MATERIALLY.

[1] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the Plan and Disclosure Statement to which this Liquidation Analysis is attached.

In this Liquidation Analysis, it is assumed that a Chapter 7 trustee would promptly market and sell the Debtors' assets, including the NOLA Properties, following conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases on or about October 22, 2025. Given the nature of the Debtors' assets, which primarily consist of the NOLA Properties and related rights, the liquidation process is assumed to occur over a relatively short period. The analysis contemplates a sale of the NOLA Properties and subsequent resolution of claims, with distributions made following the payment of administrative and wind-down expenses. No assumptions are made regarding continued business operations.

Further, no value is attributed in this Liquidation Analysis to potential recoveries from retained causes of action, including claims for avoidance, breach of fiduciary duty, or other litigation rights preserved under the Plan or assigned to the Creditor Recovery Trust. Although such claims may be pursued post-Effective Date for the benefit of creditors, their value in a hypothetical Chapter 7 liquidation is speculative and dependent on numerous factors, including cost, collectability, and legal outcomes. Accordingly, for purposes of this analysis, potential recoveries from such actions are excluded.

B. Summary Notes to Liquidation Analysis

1. Dependence on assumptions. The Liquidation Analysis depends on estimates and assumptions that, although developed and considered reasonable by the Debtors and their advisors, are subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies beyond their control. The analysis reflects the Debtors' best judgment regarding the hypothetical resolution of various matters in a Chapter 7 liquidation. Actual results could differ materially, positively or negatively, from those presented in this analysis.

2. Additional claims. A Chapter 7 liquidation could give rise to additional claims not present under the Plan, including administrative expenses, rejection damages, and litigation-related claims. Such claims could be significant, potentially reducing recoveries to creditors.

3. Dependence on unaudited financial statements. This Liquidation Analysis is based on financial data and estimates as of the Petition Date. The underlying information has not been audited or reviewed by independent accountants, and actual results may vary.

4. Preference or fraudulent transfers. No value has been attributed to potential recoveries from avoidance actions under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code (including preference or fraudulent transfer claims) due to uncertainty regarding their outcome, cost, and timing. The Liquidation Analysis excludes any litigation recoveries related to such claims.

5. Chapter 7 liquidation costs and process duration. The Liquidation Analysis assumes that a Chapter 7 trustee would be appointed shortly after conversion of the cases on or about October 22, 2025, and would oversee the monetization of the Debtors' primary assets — the NOLA Properties — along with any remaining cash or value. The process is expected to be relatively short given the limited scope of assets and operations. Chapter 7 administrative expenses (including trustee fees and professional costs) are estimated in accordance with applicable guidelines and based on assumed sale proceeds. The actual costs and timing of liquidation could vary and materially impact creditor recoveries.

6. Claims estimates. Claims are estimated based on known or projected liabilities as of the Petition Date and reflect adjustments for known developments and filed claims as of the Claims Bar Date, unless otherwise noted. The estimates used in this Liquidation Analysis are for illustrative purposes only and should not be relied upon for any other purpose, including, without limitation, determining the value of any distribution to be made under the Plan. Where applicable, the analysis presents a range of low to high estimates. The actual amount of Allowed Claims could differ materially from the estimates set forth herein.

7. Chapter 11 Recoveries. The Chapter 11 recoveries reflected in this Liquidation Analysis are based on IslandDundon's professional judgment, review of the Debtors' assets, and the indications of interest received to date. These recoveries necessarily depend on estimates and assumptions that, although developed and considered reasonable by the Debtors and their advisors, are subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies beyond their control. The analysis represents the Debtors' best judgment regarding a hypothetical resolution through the sale of the properties, and actual results may differ materially, positively or negatively, from those presented.

8. Distribution of net proceeds. In a Chapter 7 liquidation, the proceeds from the sale of the Debtors' assets would first be used to pay Chapter 7 administrative expenses, including trustee commissions and professional fees. Trustee fees are calculated in accordance with section 326(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, based on a percentage of disbursements, subject to statutory caps. Chapter 7 professional fees—including legal, financial advisory, accounting, and brokerage services—are assumed to be capped at 1.5% of gross asset proceeds, consistent with customary liquidation practice. After payment of administrative expenses and DIP financing obligations, any remaining proceeds would be distributed in accordance with the priority scheme set forth in the Bankruptcy Code. Based on the Liquidation Analysis, the Debtors project insufficient proceeds in a Chapter 7 liquidation to fully satisfy administrative expenses and DIP financing obligations, and no recoveries are projected for any junior classes of claims or interests. The Liquidation Analysis thus reflects the application of the absolute priority rule, under which no junior class receives any distribution unless all senior claims are paid in full.

Conclusion: Based on the Liquidation Analysis, the Debtors have determined that confirmation of the Plan will result in each holder of an Allowed Claim in an Impaired Class receiving or retaining value that is not less than the amount such holder would receive or retain in a hypothetical liquidation of the Debtors under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the "best interests" test set forth in section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code.

C. Summary Notes to Liquidation Analysis

Presented below is a summary of estimated asset recoveries and distributions to various classes of claims resulting from the hypothetical Liquidation Analysis as compared to estimated recoveries under Chapter 11. Specific Notes to Liquidation Analysis

1. Cash Balance. Estimated cash balance as of October 22, 2025, based on the current Approved Budget (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order). The estimated cash balance is inclusive of all forecasted operating costs and professional fees.

2. Proceeds Generated from Sale of the NOLA Properties. Both the low and high Chapter 11 recovery scenarios reflect estimated Sale Proceeds of the NOLA Properties based on IslandDundon's professional judgment, review of the assets, and the indications of interest received to date. IslandDundon has concluded that a forced sale of the Debtors' assets (excluding RH Windrun LLC) in the compressed timeframe that typically occur during a chapter 7 liquidation would likely result in a 40% to 60% discount relative to "fair value." These assumptions are based on empirical evidence related to how the liquidation value of land, buildings, and equipment are typically valued at a discount to brokers' opinion of value for these types of assets.

3. Deposits and Prepayments. Debtors are not expected to collect these amounts.

4. NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. As defined in the Plan, the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets include (a) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, (b) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, (c) the NOLA Debtor Contributed Insurance Causes of Action, (d) the Contributed Claims (if any), (e) the Crown Capital Interests, (f) the RH New Orleans Interests, and (g) the Transferred Subsidiaries (if any). Except for the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Amount, these assets have not been ascribed a value for the purposes of the Liquidation Analysis.

5. Broker Fees. The Broker Fees shall be calculated as follows: Hilco Real Estate, LLC ("Hilco") shall be entitled to a fee equal to 1% of the aggregate cash consideration received by the Debtors on account of the sale of the NOLA Properties. Larry G. Schedler & Associates, Inc. ("LGSA") shall be entitled to a flat fee of $250,000, payable in cash or certified funds upon entry of an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving the sale of the first NOLA Property, and, with respect to each subsequent NOLA Property sale approved by the Bankruptcy Court, a flat fee of $50,000 per property, payable in cash or certified funds. No Broker Fees shall be payable in connection with the sale of any NOLA Property to the NOLA DIP Lenders or any affiliate thereof, unless such sale (1) indefeasibly satisfies (through a credit bid or otherwise) the outstanding obligations under the NOLA DIP Facility and (2) includes additional cash consideration in an amount at least equal to any commission payable to LGSA.

6. Chapter 7 Trustee Fees. Chapter 7 trustee fees are calculated under Section 326(a) of the Bankruptcy Code reflecting a $53,350 fee on the first $1,000,000 of disbursements, plus 3% on the net distributions thereafter. The calculation shown is not inclusive of the value of the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and therefore is significantly lower than such fees that will be realized in Chapter 7.

7. Chapter 7 Professional Fees. Chapter 7 professional fees, which are assumed not to exceed 1.5% of the gross asset proceeds, consistent with customary liquidation practice, include the cost of attorneys, financial advisors, accountants, brokers and other professionals retained by a chapter 7

trustee. The calculation shown is not inclusive of the value of the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets and therefore is significantly lower than such fees that will be realized in Chapter 7.

8. UST Fees. Accrued and unpaid fees of the U.S. Trustee as of the Conversion Date are assumed to be paid using cash on hand and proceeds from the NOLA DIP Facility in accordance with the NOLA DIP Order.

9. Chapter 11 Professional Fees. Accrued and unpaid Chapter 11 professional fees as of the Conversion Date were budgeted for and reserved with the use of proceeds from the NOLA DIP Facility in accordance with the NOLA DIP Order. Payment of these claims does not affect Net Proceeds Available for Creditors.

10. Priority Tax Claims & Class 1 – Other Priority Claims. All known Priority Tax Claims and Other Priority Claims as of the Petition Date were paid in full with the use of proceeds from the NOLA DIP Facility in accordance with the NOLA DIP Order.

11. Class 2 – Other Secured Claims. The Prepetition First Lien Obligations (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) were deemed converted into and exchanged for Roll-Up Term Loans (as defined in the NOLA DIP Order) in accordance with the NOLA DIP Order. Other than the CKD Penn Mortgage Claim and Akiri Mortgage Loan Claim, no other known Other Secured Claims remain as of the Conversion Date. The Estimated Claim Amount for Class 2 – Other Secured Claims reflects only the Akiri Mortgage Loan Claim; however, the total amount may be higher depending on recoveries realized by CKD Investor Penn LLC under the CKD Penn Guaranty in respect of the obligations of the non-Debtor Affiliates.

12. Class 3 – CIF Mortgage Loan Claims. CIF Mortgage Loan Claims consists of any Claim against the Debtors arising or related to the CIF Credit Agreement and CIF Lakewind Mortgage, which primarily consists of claims against Debtors RH Lakewind East LLC and Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC. Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claims shall receive: (i) Sale Proceeds that are proceeds of the sale of the Lakewind Property to the extent set forth in and subject to the waterfall provisions of the NOLA DIP Order; or (ii) to the extent the Allowed CIF Mortgage Loan Claim is not satisfied by the applicable Sale Proceeds in full as set forth in clause (i), its Pro Rata share of the Debtors' Cash on hand (if any) and the Cash proceeds (if any) of any other property available for distribution to Holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims that is not otherwise distributed or transferred under this Plan or the CBRM Plan.

13. Class 4 - NOLA Go-Forward Trade. Each Holder of an Allowed NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claim shall receive a treatment determined by the NOLA Purchaser(s) in accordance with the terms of the NOLA Purchase Agreement(s).

14. Class 5 - Other NOLA Unsecured Claims. Estimated Claim Allowed is net of all tenant reimbursement claims as of the Petition Date which were paid in full with the use of proceeds from the NOLA DIP Facility in accordance with the NOLA DIP Order.

15. Consideration of NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. The recovery rates and values displayed do not take into consideration the value of the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets.

16. Class 8 – Intercompany Claims. The Debtors continue to reconcile and determine the validity of Intercompany Claims at Debtors Crown Capital Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC, Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC, RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, RH Lakewind East LLC, and RH Windrun LLC.

Background

I. Company Background

1. The Debtors are part of a larger real estate portfolio indirectly owned by Debtor CBRM Realty Inc. and formed by real estate investor Moshe (Mark) Silber and certain affiliated parties (the "Crown Capital Portfolio"). The Crown Capital Portfolio holds dozens of multifamily housing projects across the United States, including the NOLA Properties, and has been historically funded, at least in part, by the federal government's housing assistance programs, such as Section 8. Ultimately, the Crown Capital Portfolio raised hundreds of millions of dollars of financing, including (i) over $200 million from the sale of bonds issued by Crown Capital and guaranteed by CBRM (the "Notes") and (ii) approximately $450 million of property-level mortgage loans provided by an array of different financing sources.

2. Among the assets in the Crown Capital Portfolio are the NOLA Properties—a group of multi-family housing assets owned by the NOLA Debtors. The NOLA Properties provide housing to low-income residents. Preserving the NOLA Properties is critical not only to maximizing the value of the Debtors' estates, but also to protecting vital affordable housing resources in the local community.

II. Founder Misconduct and Breakdown in Governance

3. Prior to the Petition Date, Mr. Silber was the target of an extensive investigation by the federal government in connection with a multi-year conspiracy to fraudulently induce a financial institution to issue a $74 million loan to BRC Williamsburg Holdings, LLC, a shell company controlled by Mr. Silber.[3] On April 17, 2024, Mr. Silber entered into a plea agreement with the Fraud Section of the Department of Justice and the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey for conspiracy to commit wire fraud affecting an institution under 18 U.S.C. § 371.[4]

4. During the course of the investigations and plea negotiations, Mr. Silber neglected the management of the Crown Capital Portfolio, leading to numerous properties falling into default or becoming subject to receivership proceedings.[5] Indeed, as set forth in the First Day Declaration, a considerable share of the Debtors' distress arises from the fact that many, if not all, of the properties of the Debtors and their affiliates are likely worth much less today than the appraised values which supported the issuance of the Notes and certain of the property-level mortgage loans, largely as a result of Mr. Silber's negligence and mismanagement of the Crown Capital Portfolio.[6]

5. Once the plea became public, Mr. Silber was disqualified from continuing to manage the Crown Capital Portfolio.[7] By Mr. Silber's own admission, "[m]y guilty plea precipitated a crisis for my real estate business by making CBRM, Crown, and their dozens of subsidiaries unbankable while I remained in control of them. This left the business unable to access capital and credit it needed to perform day-to-day operations and pay expenses such as maintenance, repairs, utilities, wages, salaries, and debt service."[8]

6. Crown Capital Portfolio's stakeholders, including certain investors (the "Noteholders") who purchased the Notes from Debtor Crown Capital, as issuer, with Debtor CBRM as guarantor, were concerned about these developments because Crown Capital Portfolio's value supported the payment of principal and interest under the Notes.[9] On August 29, 2024, following discussions between Mr. Silber's counsel and the Noteholders' counsel and financial advisor, the parties entered into a forbearance agreement (the "Forbearance Agreement").[10] The Forbearance Agreement addressed various matters involving pending defaults under the Notes and Mr. Silber's go-forward involvement with the portfolio, and established a process to ensure that the Crown Capital Portfolio had sufficient fiduciary oversight.[11] The Forbearance Agreement, among other things, required "Mr. Silber to appoint an independent fiduciary" of CBRM and Crown Capital, and provided "that individual with an irrevocable proxy for so long as the obligations under the Forbearance Agreement remained pending."[12]

7. Mr. Silber and the Noteholders entered into the Forbearance Agreement because the Debtors and the Crown Capital Portfolio did not have sufficient capital and liquidity to manage the portfolio or pay interest payments to the Noteholders.[13] Many of the properties were in a state of disrepair and required substantial capital to improve and maintain.[14]

8. On September 26, 2024, the Noteholders party to the Forbearance Agreement consented to the appointment of Elizabeth A. LaPuma—a restructuring professional with over 20 years' experience as an investment banker and corporate director, including for companies in distress—as the independent fiduciary for CBRM and Crown Capital (the "Independent Fiduciary").[15] However, soon after Ms. LaPuma's appointment, Mr. Silber began to unwind the existing management structure for the Crown Capital Portfolio, including laying off many of his employees.[16] Mr. Silber's actions caused turnover issues, a lack of continuity in (or, in some cases, a complete absence of) employees, and a lapse in company recordkeeping, thus undermining the portfolio's ability to maintain its value.[17] For example, for certain entities, LAGSP LLC ("LAGSP")—the Debtors' asset manager—received organizational charts that were inaccurate or did not receive any organizational charts at all.[18] This lapse in information made it difficult for the new advisors to manage the Crown Capital Portfolio.[19]

9. In light of this situation, following Ms. LaPuma's appointment, Lynd created an asset recovery plan.[20] In connection with that plan, Lynd conducted a thorough analysis of the Debtors' properties to determine which, if any, had value in excess of their mortgage balances that could support unsecured creditor recoveries or even dividends upon equity.[21] Lynd Management Group LLC—the Debtors' property manager—determined, as a result of its analysis, that most of the properties in the Crown Capital Portfolio, potentially worth more than their respective mortgage balances, could only realize that incremental value with substantial additional capital investment.[22] Any rent collections within the portfolio exceeding day-to-day operating costs were used to maintain units.[23] IslandDundon LLC ("IslandDundon") reviewed Lynd's analyses, conducted its own analyses, and reached the same conclusions.[24]

10. This situation was exacerbated by the guilty pleas by Mr. Silber and his co-conspirator, Frederick Schulman, which made obtaining financing for the Debtors and the Crown Capital Portfolio nearly impossible.[25] As a general matter, lenders and other financing parties do not want to provide capital or financing to counterparties controlled by parties with felony convictions.[26] Mr. Silber is the sole equity holder of CBRM, which is the parent entity of the Crown Capital Portfolio.[27]

11. On December 9, 2024, Ms. LaPuma was appointed as manager of the Debtors through an omnibus written consent. However, Mr. Silber, and in some instances, Mr. Schulman, had direct or indirect equity interests in many of the entities of the Crown Capital Portfolio.[28] As such, Mr. Silber's and Mr. Schulman's felony convictions and refusal to forfeit their equity interests made it impossible for the Debtors and other entities within the Crown Capital Portfolio to obtain prepetition financing.[29] Additionally, Mr. Silber and Mr. Schulman still retained control of multiple managing member entities within the Crown Capital Portfolio and did not give that control of such entities to the Independent Fiduciary.[30] This retention of control by Mr. Silber and Mr. Schulman caused serious issues with obtaining financing from lenders and funding from the Department of Housing and Urban Development with respect to certain properties within the Crown Capital Portfolio.[31] In March 2025, Mr. Silber was sentenced to a term of imprisonment of 30 months.[32]

III. The Chapter 11 Cases

12. On May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date"), with no viable out-of-court restructuring alternatives and facing the imminent sheriff's sale in Rockland County, New York of certain CBRM assets—including its equity interest in Crown—the Debtors commenced these chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases"). On August 18, 2025, Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC filed a voluntary petition with this Court under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. These Chapter 11 Cases are being jointly administered pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these Chapter 11 Cases and no official committees have been appointed or designated.

13. Additional factual information regarding the Debtors' business, their capital structure, and the circumstances leading to these chapter 11 filings is contained in the First Day Declaration.

IV. The NOLA DIP Credit Agreement

14. Prior to commencing these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors pursued refinancing and restructuring efforts outside of court; however, these efforts were severely impaired by Silber's prosecution and the nature of the allegations against him.[33] With the assistance of their advisors, the Debtors engaged numerous parties regarding potential out-of-court financing initiatives, all of which proved to be unsuccessful.[34] The Debtors ultimately concluded that financing outside a court-supervised restructuring process was not feasible.[35]

15. At that time, the Debtors began to engage with a Noteholder regarding a potential financing facility secured by the assets of both Kelly Hamilton Apts LLC (the "Kelly Hamilton Debtor") and the NOLA Debtors (the "Noteholder DIP Proposal").[36]

16. While attempting to finalize documentation of the Noteholder DIP Proposal, the Debtors also recommenced discussions with Lynd and 3650 REIT regarding a revised financing proposal for the Kelly Hamilton Debtor (the "Kelly Hamilton DIP Proposal").[37] Following extensive negotiations among the Debtors, the Noteholder steering committee, the Kelly Hamilton

DIP Lender, and the prepetition lenders to the other Debtors, the Debtors ultimately finalized terms with the Kelly Hamilton DIP Lender, resulting in the Kelly Hamilton DIP Facility.[38]

17. Still needing to secure financing for the NOLA Debtors, the Debtors continued to explore options to secure much needed funding. The Debtors received unsolicited outreach from prepetition lenders DH1 Holdings LLC, CKD Funding LLC, and CKD Investor Penn LLC (collectively, the "NOLA DIP Lenders") regarding their interest in providing a consensual DIP facility secured by the NOLA Debtors' assets.[39] These investors possessed deep experience in the multifamily and affordable housing sectors.

18. On May 26, 2025, the Debtors and the NOLA DIP Lenders entered into that certain NOLA Debtors Binding Term Sheet for Senior Secured, Superpriority Debtor-in Possession Financing. On May 28, 2025, the Debtors filed the Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Postpetition Financing, (II) Granting Liens and Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (III) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (IV) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 61] (the "NOLA DIP Motion"). The Court held a hearing on interim approval of the NOLA DIP Motion on June 2, 2025. On June 5, 2025, the Court entered an order granting interim approval of the NOLA DIP Facility [Docket No. 110].

19. On June 26, 2025, the Court held a hearing on final approval of the NOLA DIP Facility. On July 2, 2025, the Court entered an order approving the NOLA DIP Facility on a final basis [Docket No. 251].

20. On July 1, 2025, entered into that certain Superpriority Secured Promissory Note and Security Agreement with the NOLA DIP Lenders.[40] The financing provided $17,422,728 in postpetition financing to the Debtors. Of that amount, approximately $8,461,524 was funded through new money loans, while the remaining $8,961,204 reflected a roll-up of prepetition obligations. Prior to the Petition Date, the NOLA DIP Lenders held the senior secured mortgage loans encumbering the NOLA Properties and were the Debtors' primary secured creditors. The NOLA DIP Facility has served as a critical bridge to fund operations and support a dual-track strategy for sale and plan confirmation.

V. The NOLA Sale Transaction

21. In May 2025, the Debtors retained IslandDundon as their financial advisor and investment banker. Among other things, IslandDundon advised the Debtors in connection with one or more postpetition transaction(s) concerning the NOLA Properties with the goal of maximizing their value for the Debtors' stakeholders. Following the Petition Date, IslandDundon, as the Debtors' financial advisor, assisted in structuring the sales process, coordinating marketing efforts, and leveraging its extensive real estate experience to identify potential bidders and facilitate the sale of the NOLA Properties. Likewise, the Debtors retained Larry G. Schedler & Associates, Inc. ("L&A") as the Debtors' exclusive real estate broker for the NOLA Properties. L&A provided on-the-ground support in connection with the marketing process and ensured that the NOLA Properties were effectively marketed to the appropriate buyer universe. The Debtors also retained Hilco Real Estate, LLC ("Hilco") as their real estate advisor. Hilco provided outreach to the distressed investment community and assisted L&A with describing the bankruptcy sales process to potential bidders. These efforts resulted in a thorough sales and marketing effort given a short time frame.

22. In order to further a bidding and sale process and preserve the value of the Debtors' estates—and to offer the Debtors a chance to increase the ultimate value provided by the monetization and disposition of the NOLA Properties—the Debtors sought approval of certain bidding and sale procedures for the NOLA Properties.[41] On August 15, 2025, the Court entered the Bidding Procedures Order.[42]

23. Pursuant to the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors and their advisors pursued a robust marketing process to test the market and secure the highest and best offer for the NOLA Properties. Specifically, the Debtors and IslandDundon, with the assistance of Hilco and L&A conducted an extensive marketing process which included reaching out to 249 potentially interested parties, distributed a non-confidential marketing overview to those parties, and provided further diligence materials to 48 parties who executed confidentiality agreements. Additionally, Larry G. Schedler & Associates, Inc. conducted 12 property tours. At the conclusion of this marketing process, 10 parties submitted offers including some providing offers on the whole portfolio, some providing offers on subsets of assets and some providing both. The Debtors encouraged bidders to provide offers in both forms in order to maximize proceeds of the asset sale. Parties in interest were afforded approximately six weeks between the filing of the Debtors'

Bidding Procedures Motion [Docket No. 350] and the bid deadline of September 12, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) to diligence and formulate bids for the NOLA Properties.

24. The Debtors also filed the Notice of Proposed Sale of NOLA Properties, Bidding Procedures, Auction, Sale Hearing, and Confirmation and Sale Hearing (the "Sale Notice") [Docket No. 386] and served this notice on interested parties in accordance with the Bidding Procedures Order. The Sale Notice, among other things, provided the bid deadline and the date of the auction for the NOLA Properties (if any). The Debtors also published the Sale Notice in the New Orleans Advocate.[43]

25. On or prior to the Bid Deadline of September 11, 2025, the Debtors received a Qualifying Bid from Lynd Acquisitions Group (the "NOLA Purchaser") to purchase all four of the Debtors' NOLA Properties for a purchase price of $26,125,000 to be implemented pursuant to the Plan, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in that certain Purchase and Sale Agreement dated September 12, 2025. The NOLA Sale Transaction is expected to satisfy the NOLA DIP Facility in full in cash and reflects a comprehensive resolution of key issues in these Chapter 11 Cases involving the Debtors, the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, Lynd Management Group LLC and its affiliated entities, and Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge, Ltd. Specifically, the NOLA Sale Transaction will provide for the resolution of the disputed mortgage granted by RH Lakewind East LLC to Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge, Ltd. and the opportunity for the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims to receive thirty percent (30%) of the distributable cash proceeds from any future sale of the NOLA Properties.

[43] See Affidavit of Publication of Notice of Proposed Sale of NOLA Properties, Bidding Procedures, Auction, Sale Hearing, and Confirmation and Sale Hearing [Docket No. 529].

26. On September 12, 2025, the Debtors filed the Notice of Cancellation of Auction and Designation of Successful Bid for the NOLA Properties (the "Notice of Successful Bid").[44] As set forth in the Notice of Successful Bid, although the Debtors received other bids on or before the Bid Deadline, the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, determined that the NOLA Purchaser submitted the only Qualifying Bid for all four of the NOLA Properties and that there was no reasonable probability that any other bidder could provide such significant value to the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and, accordingly, the Independent Fiduciary directed the Debtors to enter into the Purchase and Sale Agreement with the NOLA Purchaser.

VI. Plan Solicitation and Notification Process

27. On August 17, 2025, the Debtors filed a motion seeking conditional approval of the Disclosure Statement and associated voting and solicitation procedures [Docket No. 391] (the "Disclosure Statement Motion"). On September 5, 2025, the Court entered the Disclosure Statement Order. In compliance with the Disclosure Statement Order and the Bankruptcy Code, only Holders of Claims in Class 3 (CIF Mortgage Loan Claim), Class 4 (NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims), Class 5 (Other NOLA Unsecured Claims), Class 6 (Crown Capital Unsecured Claims), and Class 7 (RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims) (the "Voting Classes") were entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.[45] The following Classes of Claims and Interests were not entitled to vote on the Plan, and the Debtors did not solicit votes from the Holders of such Claims and Interests:

VII. The Objections

29. On October 10, 2025, the Sewerage and Water Board of New Orleans ("SWBNO") filed the Sewerage Objection. On October 15, 2025, a formal objection was filed by the U.S. Trustee. To the extent the Debtors are unable to consensually resolve the Sewerage Objection and U.S. Trustee Objection prior to the Combined Hearing Date, the Debtors request that the Court overrule the objections.

Argument

30. For the reasons set forth herein, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court overrule the remaining Objection and (a) approve the adequacy of the Disclosure Statement on a final basis and (b) confirm the Plan.

I. The Disclosure Statement Contains "Adequate Information" as Required by Section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Debtors Complied with the Applicable Notice Requirements

A. The Disclosure Statement Contains Adequate Information

31. The purpose of a disclosure statement is to provide "adequate information" that allows parties entitled to vote on a proposed plan to make an informed decision as to whether to vote to accept or reject the plan.[47] "Adequate information" is a flexible standard, based on the facts and circumstances of each case.[48] Courts within the Third Circuit and elsewhere acknowledge that determining what constitutes "adequate information" for the purpose of satisfying section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code resides within the broad discretion of the court.[49]

32. Courts look for certain information when evaluating the adequacy of the disclosures in a proposed disclosure statement, including:

a. the events which led to the filing of a bankruptcy petition;

b. the relationship of a debtor with its affiliates;

c. a description of the available assets and their value;

34. As discussed above, section 1125(a) requires only "adequate information" sufficient for parties entitled to vote on a proposed plan to make an informed decision about whether to vote to accept or reject the plan. Accordingly, the Disclosure Statement contains adequate information within the meaning of section 1125(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and should be approved on a final basis.

B. The Disclosure Statement Complied with the Applicable Notice and Solicitation Requirements

35. In addition to conditionally approving the adequacy of the Disclosure Statement, the Disclosure Statement Order granted final relief regarding solicitation and noticing procedures and materials including, among other things: (a) approving the Solicitation and Voting Procedures; (b) approving the Ballots; (c) approving the Notice of Non-Voting Status; (d) approving the Cover Letter; (e) approving the Combined Hearing Notice; (f) approving the Plan Supplement Notice; (g) approving the Assumption Notice; (h) approving the manner and form of the Solicitation

The Debtors have complied with the procedures approved by the Disclosure Statement Order and the timeline approved therein. No objections to compliance with respect to any dates and deadlines set forth in the Disclosure Statement Order were filed or received by the Debtors.

C. Solicitation of the Plan Complied with the Bankruptcy Code and Was in Good Faith

36. Section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that "a person that solicits acceptance or rejection of a plan, in good faith and in compliance with the applicable provisions of this title . . . is not liable" on account of such solicitation for violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing solicitation of acceptance or rejection of a plan.[61]

37. As set forth in the Disclosure Statement and Disclosure Statement Motion, and as demonstrated by the Debtors' compliance with the Disclosure Statement Order, the Debtors at all times took appropriate actions in connection with the solicitation of the Plan in compliance with section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, the Debtors request that the Court grant the parties the protections provided under section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

38. For the foregoing reasons, the Court should enter an order approving the Disclosure Statement on a final basis.

II. The Plan Satisfies Each Requirement for Confirmation

39. To confirm the Plan, the Court must find that the Debtors have satisfied the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code.[62] As described in detail below, the Plan complies with all relevant provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and all other applicable law.

A. The Plan Complies with the Applicable Provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (Section 1129(a)(1))

40. Under section 1129(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, a plan must "compl[y] with the applicable provisions of [the Bankruptcy Code]."[63] The legislative history of section 1129(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code explains that this provision also encompasses and incorporates the requirements of sections 1122 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, which govern the classification of claims and the contents of a plan, respectively.[64] As explained below, the Plan complies with the requirements of sections 1122 and 1123 in all respects.

1. The Plan Satisfies the Classification Requirements of Section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code

41. The classification requirement of section 1122(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in pertinent part, as follows:

> Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, a plan may place a claim or an interest in a particular class only if such claim or interest is substantially similar to the other claims or interests of such class.[65] basis to do so.[66] Moreover, the requirement of substantial similarity does not mean that claims or interests within a particular class must be identical or that all similarly situated claims must receive the same treatment under a plan.[67]

43. The Plan's classification of Claims and Interests satisfies the requirements of section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code because the Plan places Claims and Interests into fourteen separate Classes, with Claims and Interests in each Class differing from the Claims and Interests in each other Class in a legal or factual way or based on other relevant criteria.[68] Specifically, the Plan provides for the separate classification of Claims and Interests into the following Classes:

Courts have identified grounds justifying separate classification, including: (a) where members of a class possess different legal rights, and (b) where there are good business reasons for separate classification. *See John Hancock Mut. Class 12 Section 510(b) Claims

44. Except for General Administrative Claims, Professional Compensation Claims, NOLA DIP Claims, and Priority Tax Claims, which need not be designated as Classes under the Plan, the Plan's classification scheme is rational and was not proposed to create a consenting impaired Class and thereby manipulate voting. Valid business, factual, and legal reasons exist for separately classifying the various Classes of Claims and Interests created under the Plan, and such Classes do not unfairly discriminate between Holders of Claims and Interests. The Plan also provides for the separate classification of Claims against and Interests in each Debtor based upon the differences in legal nature and/or priority of such Claims and Interests.

45. Accordingly, the Claims or Interests assigned to each particular Class described above are substantially similar to the other Claims or Interests in each such Class, and the distinctions among Classes are based on valid business, factual, and legal distinctions. The Debtors submit that the Plan fully complies with and satisfies section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code, and no party has asserted otherwise.

2. The Plan Satisfies the Mandatory Plan Requirements of Section 1123(a) of the Bankruptcy Code

46. Section 1123(a) of the Bankruptcy Code sets forth seven criteria that every chapter 11 plan must satisfy.[69] The Plan satisfies each of these requirements.[70]

i. Designation of Classes of Claims and Equity Interests: § 1123(a)(1)

47. For the reasons set forth above, Article III of the Plan properly designates Classes of Claims, other than Claims of the type described in sections 507(a)(2), 507(a)(3), and 507(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code, and Classes of Interests, as required by section 1123(a)(1), and thus satisfies the requirement of section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code.

ii. Specification of Unimpaired Classes: § 1123(a)(2)

48. Section 1123(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that the Plan "specify any class of claims or interests that is not impaired under the plan." The Plan meets this requirement by identifying each Class in Article III that is Unimpaired.

iii. Treatment of Impaired Classes: § 1123(a)(3)

69 11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(1)–(7).

70 See 11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(1)–(8). Section 1123(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code is only applicable to individual debtors.

49. Section 1123(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that the Plan "specify the treatment of any class of claims or interests that is impaired under the plan." The Plan meets this requirement by setting forth the treatment of each Class in Article III that is Impaired.

iv. Equal Treatment Within Classes: § 1123(a)(4)

50. Section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that the Plan "provide the same treatment for each claim or interest of a particular class, unless the holder of a particular claim or interest agrees to a less favorable treatment of such particular claim or interest."[71] The Plan meets this requirement because the treatment of each Claim or Interest in each particular Class is the same as the treatment of each other Claim or Interest in such Class (except as otherwise agreed to by a Holder of a particular Claim or Interest). Stated another way, all Holders of Allowed Claims or Interests in each Class will receive the same rights and treatment as other Holders of Allowed Claims or Interests within such Holders' respective Class.

v. Means for Implementation: § 1123(a)(5)

51. Section 1123(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that the Plan provide "adequate means" for its implementation. The Plan satisfies this requirement because Article IV of the Plan, as well as other provisions thereof, provide for the means by which the Plan will be implemented. Among other things, Article IV of the Plan provides for: (i) consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction;[72] (ii) identification of the sources of consideration for Distributions under the Plan;[73] (iii) appointment of the Wind-Down Officer;[74] and (iv) appointment of the Creditor Recovery

Trustee.[75] The definitive terms governing the implementation of these transactions are set forth in the Plan and in the applicable agreements, instruments, and documents included in the Plan Supplement. Collectively, these measures establish the structure necessary to consummate the Plan, facilitate the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' Estates, and maximize recoveries for creditors in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code.

52. The terms governing the execution of these transactions are set forth in greater detail in the Plan and the Plan Supplement, as applicable. Thus, the Plan satisfies section 1123(a)(5).

B. The Debtors Have Complied with the Applicable Provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (Section 1129(a)(2))

53. The principal purpose of section 1129(a)(2) is to ensure that a plan proponent has complied with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code regarding solicitation of acceptances of a plan.[76] The legislative history to section 1129(a)(2) provides that section 1129(a)(2) is intended to encompass the disclosure and solicitation requirements set forth in section 1125 and the plan acceptance requirements set forth in section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code.[77] As discussed in more detail in Section III herein, and as set forth below, the Debtors have complied with these provisions, including sections 1125 and 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, as well as Bankruptcy Rules

3017 and 3018, by distributing the Disclosure Statement and soliciting acceptances of the Plan through their Claims and Noticing Agent in accordance with the Disclosure Statement Order.

1. The Debtors Have Complied with the Disclosure and Solicitation Requirements of Section 1125

54. Section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code prohibits the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of a plan "unless, at the time of or before such solicitation, there is transmitted to such holder the plan or a summary of the plan, and a written disclosure statement approved, after notice and a hearing, by the court as containing adequate information."[78] Section 1125 ensures that parties in interest are fully informed regarding the debtor's condition so that they may make an informed decision whether to approve or reject the plan.[79]

55. Section 1125 is satisfied here. Before the Debtors solicited votes on the Plan, the Court conditionally approved the Disclosure Statement.[80] The Court also approved the Solicitation Packages provided to Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan, the non-voting materials provided to parties not entitled to vote on the Plan, and the relevant dates for voting on the Plan and objecting to the Plan and the Disclosure Statement.[81] As stated in the Voting Report, the Debtors, through the Claims and Noticing Agent, complied with the content and delivery requirements of the Disclosure Statement Order, satisfying sections 1125(a) and 1125(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.[82] The Debtors also satisfied section 1125(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, which provides that the same disclosure statement must be transmitted to each holder of a claim or interest in a particular Class.

56. Based on the foregoing, the Debtors submit that they have complied in all respects with the solicitation requirements of section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code and the Disclosure Statement Order, and no party has asserted otherwise.

2. The Debtors Have Satisfied the Plan Acceptance Requirements of Section 1126

57. Section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that only holders of allowed claims and equity interests in impaired classes that will receive or retain property under a plan on account of such claims or equity interests may vote to accept or reject a plan.[83] The Debtors did not solicit votes on the Plan from the following Classes:

- Classes 1, 2A, 2B, and 2C, which are not impaired under the Plan and, therefore, are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code.[84]

- Classes 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12, which pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy are deemed to have rejected the Plan.[85]

58. Accordingly, the Debtors solicited votes only from Holders of Allowed Claims in the Voting Classes—Class 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7—because these Classes are Impaired and entitled to receive a distribution under the Plan.[86] With respect to the Voting Classes of Claims, section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that:

> A class of claims has accepted a plan if such plan has been accepted by creditors, other than any entity designated under subsection (e) of [section 1126], that hold at least two-thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of the allowed claims > of such class held by creditors, other than any entity designated under subsection (e) of [section 1126], that have accepted or rejected such plan.[87]

59. The Voting Report, summarized above, demonstrates that the Plan has been accepted by the Voting Classes in accordance with section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code.[88] Based on the foregoing, the Debtors submit that they have satisfied the requirements of section 1129(a)(2), and no party has asserted otherwise.

C. The Debtors Proposed the Plan in Good Faith and Not by Any Means Forbidden by Law (Section 1129(a)(3))

60. Section 1129(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that a chapter 11 plan be "proposed in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law."[89] Where a plan satisfies the purposes of the Bankruptcy Code and has a good chance of succeeding, the good faith requirement of section 1129(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code is satisfied.[90] To determine whether a plan seeks relief consistent with the Bankruptcy Code, courts consider the totality of the circumstances surrounding the development of the Plan.[91]

61. The Plan was proposed with integrity, good intentions, and with the goal of maximizing stakeholder recoveries. The Plan is the product of extensive, arm's-length negotiations among the Debtors, the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, Lynd Management Group LLC and its affiliated entities, and Cleveland International Fund – NRP West

Edge, Ltd., and other key stakeholders. These negotiations resulted in a consensual framework that resolved competing creditor interests and provided a clear path to maximize value through the NOLA Sale Transaction and the Wind-Down of the Debtors' Estates following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction. The Debtors worked constructively with their stakeholders throughout the process, incorporating their comments into both the Plan and the Confirmation Order. The overwhelming support for the Plan by the creditors that voted in favor of it is strong evidence that the Plan has a proper purpose and enjoys broad stakeholder support.

62. Importantly, the Plan reflects hard-fought but constructive compromises. For example, it provides for the release of certain Released Parties in exchange for substantial contributions that facilitated the Plan's implementation, while at the same time preserving other causes of action to be pursued for the benefit of unsecured creditors through the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Plan also equitably balances the treatment of creditor groups by, among other things, providing the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims with access to monetized litigation recoveries through the Creditor Recovery Trust and ensuring that Wind-Down Claims are reconciled and satisfied under the Wind-Down structure. These features demonstrate that the Plan was designed not only to maximize recoveries, but also to ensure fairness and transparency in the treatment of claims.

63. In exchange for the releases granted under the Plan, the Released Parties made meaningful and valuable contributions to these Chapter 11 Cases, including by providing financing, support, and concessions that were critical to enabling the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction. Without these efforts, creditors likely would have faced the lower recoveries of a piecemeal liquidation under chapter 7. As a result, the Plan will provide Holders of Allowed Unsecured Claims with materially greater recoveries than they would receive in any alternative restructuring scenario.

64. The acceptance of the Plan by the Holders of Claims that voted on the Plan and the support of the Plan further reflects the Plan's fairness and the good faith efforts of the parties to achieve the objectives of chapter 11. Accordingly, the Debtors have acted in good faith and with the best intentions for creditors in proposing the Plan, in accordance with section 1129(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.

D. The Plan Provides That the Debtors' Payment of Professional Fees and Expenses Are Subject to Bankruptcy Court Approval (Section 1129(a)(4))

65. Section 1129(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that certain fees and expenses paid by the plan proponent, by the debtor, or by a person receiving distributions of property under the plan, be subject to approval by the Court as reasonable.[92] Courts in this district and elsewhere have construed this section to require that all payments of professional fees paid out of estate assets be subject to review and approval by the Court as to their reasonableness.[93]

66. The Plan satisfies section 1129(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan provides that all Professional Compensation Claims must be approved by the Court pursuant to final fee applications in accordance with section 1129(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code. Further, the Plan provides that the Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all Professional Compensation Claims. Therefore, it is my understanding that the Plan complies with the requirements of section 1129(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the Debtors' professionals.

E. The Plan Does Not Require Additional Disclosures Regarding Directors, Officers, and Insiders (§ 1129(a)(5))

67. The Bankruptcy Code requires the plan proponent to disclose the affiliation of any individual proposed to serve as a director or officer of the debtor or a successor to the debtor under the plan.[94] Section 1129(a)(5)(A)(ii) further requires that the appointment or continuance of such officers and directors be consistent with the interests of creditors and equity security holders and with public policy.[95]

68. In accordance with section 1129(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code, the identity of the Creditor Recovery Trustee and the Wind-Down Officer was disclosed in the Notice of Filing of Plan Supplement [Docket No. 411] in connection with the CBRM Plan.

69. Therefore, the requirements under section 1129(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code are satisfied, and no party has asserted otherwise.

F. The Plan Does Not Require Governmental Regulatory Approval (§ 1129(a)(6))

70. Section 1129(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code permits confirmation only if any regulatory commission that has or will have jurisdiction over a debtor after confirmation has approved any rate change provided for in the plan. The Plan does not provide for any rate changes and the Debtors are not subject to any such regulation. Section 1129(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable to these Chapter 11 Cases, and no party has asserted otherwise.

95 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(5)(A)(ii).

G. The Plan Is in the Best Interests of All the Debtors' Creditors (§ 1129(a)(7))

71. The "best interests test" of section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that, with respect to each impaired class of claims or interests, each individual holder of a claim or interest has either accepted the plan or will receive or retain property having a present value, as of the effective date of the plan, of not less than that which such holder would receive if the debtor were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code at that time. The best interests test is satisfied where the estimated recoveries for a debtor's stakeholders in a hypothetical chapter 7 liquidation are less than or equal to the estimated recoveries for a holder of an impaired claim or interest under the debtor's chapter 11 plan that rejects the plan.[96]

72. To determine whether the Plan satisfies the best interests of creditors test, the Debtors, with the assistance of IslandDundon, prepared the Liquidation Analysis. The Liquidation Analysis represents a good-faith estimate of what creditors would recover in a hypothetical liquidation under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. The analysis, methodology, and assumptions applied as part of the Liquidation Analysis are set out in greater detail therein.

73. For all of the reasons set forth in the Liquidation Analysis, and subject to the limitations and assumptions contained therein, the Liquidation Analysis demonstrates that the Plan will provide each Holder of an Allowed Claim or Interest in an impaired class an amount that is not less than what such Holder would otherwise receive or retain through a liquidation of the Debtors under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

[96] See Bank of Am. Nat'l Trust & Sav. Ass'n v. 203 N. LaSalle St. P'ship, 526 U.S. 434, 441 n.13 (1999) ("The 'best interests' test applies to individual creditors holding impaired claims, even if the class as a whole votes to accept the plan."); In re Cypresswood Land Partners, I, 409 B.R. 396, 428 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2009) ("This provision is known as the 'best-interest-of-creditors-test' because it ensures that reorganization is in the best interest of individual claimholders who have not voted in favor of the plan.").

74. The Liquidation Analysis represents a good-faith estimate of recoveries in a hypothetical chapter 7 case, taking into account the limited assets of the Debtors, primarily consisting of the NOLA Properties, as well as remaining cash on hand. The analysis assumes that a chapter 7 trustee would be appointed shortly after conversion of the cases, that the trustee would conduct a sale of the NOLA Properties, and that the chapter 7 estates would incur additional administrative expenses, including trustee fees and professional costs, in connection with such process.

75. As set forth in the Liquidation Analysis, recoveries for Holders of Claims in a hypothetical chapter 7 liquidation are projected to be materially lower than under the Plan. In particular, Holders of Allowed Other NOLA Unsecured Claims, Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims would receive no recovery in a chapter 7 scenario, as compared to potential recoveries of up to 100% under the Plan.

76. The estimates regarding the Debtors' assets and liabilities that are incorporated into the Liquidation Analysis are based upon the knowledge and familiarity of the Debtors' advisors with the Debtors' business and their relevant experience in chapter 11 proceedings. As such, the Debtors' Liquidation Analysis is reasonable and should be afforded deference.

77. Based on the Liquidation Analysis, no Holder of Claims or Interests would receive more in a hypothetical chapter 7 liquidation than it would receive under the Plan. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of the best interests of creditors test under section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code.

H. The Bankruptcy Code's Voting Requirements of Section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code

78. Section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that each class of claims or interests must either accept a plan or be unimpaired under a plan.[97] If any class of claims or interests rejects the plan, the plan must satisfy the "cramdown" requirements with respect to the claims or interests in that class.[98]

79. As set forth in the Voting Report, Holders of Claims in Classes 1, 2A, 2B, and 2C are not impaired under the Plan and, therefore, are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, and Holders of Claims in Classes 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 are impaired and deemed to reject the Plan. Additionally, as evidenced by the Voting Report, the Plan has been accepted by well in excess of two-thirds in amount and one-half in number of Holders of the CIF Mortgage Loan Claim, Other NOLA Unsecured Claims, Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims entitled to vote and who voted on the Plan.

80. However, the Plan has not been accepted by the requisite number of Holders of Claims in Class 4 (NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims). As to Class 4, the Plan may be confirmed over their dissent under the "cram down" provisions of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Debtors will seek confirmation under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, rather than section 1129(a)(8). For the reasons set forth below, the Plan does not discriminate unfairly and is fair and equitable. Therefore, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and is confirmable.

I. The Plan Provides for Payment in Full of All Allowed Priority Claims (§ 1129(a)(9))

81. Section 1129(a)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that certain priority claims be paid in full on the effective date of a plan and that the holders of certain other priority claims receive deferred cash payments.[99] In particular, pursuant to section 1129(a)(9)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, holders of claims of a kind specified in section 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code—administrative claims allowed under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code—must receive on the effective date cash equal to the allowed amount of such claims.[100] Section 1129(a)(9)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that each holder of a claim of a kind specified in section 507(a)(1) or (4) through (7) of the Bankruptcy Code—generally wage, employee benefit, and deposit claims entitled to priority—must receive deferred cash payments of a value, as of the effective date of the plan, equal to the allowed amount of such claim (if such class has accepted the plan), or cash of a value equal to the allowed amount of such claim on the effective date of the plan (if such class has not accepted the plan). Finally, section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that the holder of a claim of a kind specified in section 507(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code—i.e., priority tax claims—must receive cash payments over a period not to exceed five years from the petition date, the present value of which equals the allowed amount of the claim. The Plan satisfies all of these requirements.

82. The Plan provides that, unless otherwise agreed to by the Holder of an Allowed General Administrative Claim and the Debtors, each Holder of an Allowed General Administrative Claim will receive, in full and final satisfaction of, and, in exchange for such General

Administrative Claim, treatment as is consistent with the provisions of section 1129(a)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code or an amount of Cash equal to the unpaid amount of such Allowed General Administrative Claims in accordance with the following: (a) if such General Administrative Claim is Allowed as of the Effective Date, on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter (or, if not then due, when such Allowed General Administrative Claim is due or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter); (b) if such General Administrative Claim is not Allowed as of the Effective Date, no later than sixty (60) days after the date on which an order Allowing such General Administrative Claim becomes a Final Order, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter; (c) if such Allowed General Administrative Claim is based on liabilities incurred by the Debtors in the ordinary course of their business after the Petition Date in accordance with the terms and conditions of the particular transaction giving rise to such Allowed General Administrative Claim without any further action by the Holder of such Allowed General Administrative Claim, when such Allowed General Administrative Claim is due or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter; or (d) at such time and upon such terms as set forth in a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court.

83. Moreover, the Plan provides that, pursuant to section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code, unless otherwise agreed by the Holder of an Allowed Priority Tax Claim and the Debtors, prior to the Effective Date, each Holder of an Allowed Priority Tax Claim will receive, at the option of the Debtor, in full and final satisfaction of, and in exchange for, its Allowed Priority Tax Claim, (a) Cash in an amount equal to the amount of such Allowed Priority Tax Claim or (b) Cash in an aggregate amount of such Allowed Priority Tax Claim payable in instalment payments over a period of time not to exceed five (5) years after the Petition Date, pursuant to section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(a)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code.

J. At Least One Impaired Class of Claims Has Accepted the Plan (Section 1129(a)(10))

84. Section 1129(a)(10) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that, to the extent there is an impaired class of claims, at least one impaired class of claims must accept the plan, "without including any acceptance of the plan by any insider," as an alternative to the requirement under section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code that each class of claims or interests must either accept the plan or be unimpaired under the plan.[101]

85. As set forth in the Voting Report, Classes 3, 5, 6 and 7 are entitled to vote on the Plan, are Impaired, and have accepted the Plan, without including the acceptance of the Plan by any Insiders in such Class. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies section 1129(a)(10) of the Bankruptcy Code.

K. The Plan Is Feasible and Is Not Likely to Be Followed by the Need for Further Financial Reorganization (Section 1129(a)(11))

86. Section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that the Court determine, in relevant part, that confirmation is not likely to be followed by the liquidation or further financial reorganization of the Debtors (or any successor thereto), unless such liquidation or reorganization is proposed in the Plan. The debtor bears the burden of demonstrating the feasibility of the plan by a preponderance of the evidence.[102] The Court need not require a guarantee of success to find the Plan feasible.[103] Instead, the Court must find that the "plan offers a reasonable expectation of success.[104]

87. In determining standards of feasibility, courts have identified the following probative factors:

- the adequacy of the capital structure;
- the earning power of the business;
- the economic conditions;
- the ability of management;
- the probability of the continuation of the same management; and
- any other related matter which determines the prospects of a sufficiently successful operation to enable performance of the provisions of the plan.[105]

88. The Plan proposes the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and an orderly wind-down of the Debtors' remaining affairs. The Plan's means of implementation authorize all actions necessary to effectuate the NOLA Sale Transaction and related transactions, and identifies sources of cash for distribution—namely, Sale Proceeds, the NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Assets, and Wind-Down Assets.

89. To carry out this wind-down, the Plan establishes a Wind-Down Officer, who is empowered to (a) liquidate any remaining assets after the NOLA Sale Transaction, (b) resolve disputed wind-down claims, (c) make Plan distributions, (d) file final tax returns, and (e) oversee the ultimate dissolution of the Debtors. This centralized post-Effective Date administration provides a clear path to promptly conclude the Estates.[106] Thus, the Plan satisfies the feasibility requirement under section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code.

90. In sum, the Plan's implementation provisions, funding sources, wind-down framework, and distribution mechanics establish that confirmation will not be followed by the need for further reorganization. Instead, the Plan provides a practical, fully articulated path to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction, administer and distribute the remaining assets (including through the Creditor Recovery Trust), and promptly close these cases.

L. The Plan Provides for the Payment of All Fees Under 28 U.S.C. § 1930 (Section 1129(a)(12))

91. Section 1129(a)(12) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the payment of "[a]ll fees payable under section 1930 of title 28 [of the United States Code], as determined by the court at the hearing on confirmation of the plan." Section 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that "any fees and charges assessed against the estate under [section 1930 of] chapter 123 of title 28" are afforded priority as administrative expenses. The Plan satisfies section 1129(a)(12) of the Bankruptcy Code because the Debtors have paid all chapter 11 statutory and operating fees required to be paid during these Chapter 11 Cases. Further, pursuant to the Plan, all Quarterly Fees payable on or before the Effective Date shall be paid by the Debtors in full in Cash on the Effective Date. After the Effective Date, the Debtors, the Creditor Recovery Trust, the Creditor Recovery Trustee, and the Wind-Down Officer shall pay any and all Quarterly Fees in full in cash when due in each Chapter 11 Case for each quarter (including any fraction thereof) until the earliest of such Chapter 11 Case being closed, dismissed, or converted to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies section 1129(a)(12) of the Bankruptcy Code.

M. Sections 1129(a)(13) Through 1129(a)(16) of the Bankruptcy Code Do Not Apply to the Plan

92. Several of the Bankruptcy Code's confirmation requirements are inapplicable to the Plan. Section 1129(a)(13) requires that all retiree benefits continue post-effective date at any levels established in accordance with section 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code.[107] The Debtors do not have any remaining obligations to pay retiree benefits (as defined in section 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code) or will not have any such obligations as of the Effective Date. Section 1129(a)(14) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable to the Plan because the Debtors are not subject to any domestic support obligations.[108] Section 1129(a)(15) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable to the Plan because none of the Debtors are "individuals" as that term is defined in the Bankruptcy Code.[109] Section 1129(a)(16) of the Bankruptcy Code is also inapplicable because the Plan does not provide for any property transfers by a corporation or trust that is not a moneyed, business, or commercial corporation or trust.[110]

N. The Plan Satisfies the Cramdown Requirements (Section 1129(b))

93. Section 1129(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that, if all applicable requirements of section 1129(a) of the Bankruptcy Code are met other than section 1129(a)(8) of [107] 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(13). Section 1114(a) of the Bankruptcy Code defines "retiree benefits" as: "[P]ayments to any entity or person for the purpose of providing or reimbursing payments for retired employees and their spouses and dependents, for medical, surgical, or hospital care benefits, or benefits in the event of sickness, accident, disability, or death under any plan, fund, or program (through the purchase of insurance or otherwise) maintained or established in whole or in part by the debtor prior to filing a petition commencing a case under this title." 11 U.S.C. § 1114(a).

the Bankruptcy Code, a plan may be confirmed so long as the requirements set forth in section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code are satisfied. To confirm a plan that has not been accepted by all impaired classes (thereby failing to satisfy section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code), the plan proponent must show that the plan does not "discriminate unfairly" and is "fair and equitable" with respect to the non-accepting impaired classes.[111]

94. As set forth above, Classes 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 are deemed to reject the Plan, and Class 4 voted to reject the Plan. As set forth below, the Plan satisfies the requirements under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and no party has asserted otherwise.

1. The Plan Is Fair and Equitable (§ 1129(b)(2)(B)(ii))

95. A plan is "fair and equitable" with respect to an impaired class of claims or interests that rejects a plan (or is deemed to reject a plan) if it follows the "absolute priority" rule.[112] This requires that an impaired rejecting class of claims or interests either be paid in full or that a class junior to the impaired accepting class not receive any distribution under a plan on account of its junior claim or interest.[113] The Plan satisfies section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Notwithstanding the fact that Classes 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 are deemed to have rejected the Plan and that Class 4 rejected the Plan, the Plan is confirmable.

That latter condition is the core of what is known as the 'absolute priority rule.'").

[113] 11 U.S.C. § 1129(b)(2)(B)(ii).

96. Pursuant to section 1129(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan distributes value to Holders of Claims and Interests pursuant to the priority scheme set forth in the Bankruptcy Code, and, with respect to Classes 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 (each of which is deemed to have rejected the Plan), and Class 4, which has rejected the Plan, no Holder of a Claim or Interest in a class junior to such Impaired Classes will receive or retain any property under the Plan on account of such junior Claim or Interest. Accordingly, the Plan may still be confirmed under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. The Plan Does Not Unfairly Discriminate with Respect to the Impaired Classes That Have Not Voted to Accept the Plan (§ 1129(b)(1))

97. Unlike the concept of "fair and equitable," which is defined under the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Code does not provide a standard for determining when "unfair discrimination" exists. Courts typically examine the facts and circumstances of the particular case to make the determination.[114] In general, courts have held that a plan unfairly discriminates in violation of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code only if it provides materially different treatment for creditors and interest holders with similar legal rights without compelling justifications for doing so.[115] A threshold inquiry to assessing whether a proposed chapter 11 plan unfairly discriminates against a dissenting class is whether the dissenting class is equally situated to a class allegedly receiving more favorable treatment.[116]

98. Class 4 includes all Unsecured Claims against Debtors RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, RH Lakewind East LLC, and RH Windrun LLC held by a Holder that provides, and will continue to provide following the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, goods and services necessary to the operation of the NOLA Properties. Class 8 includes Claims held by a Debtor or Affiliate of a Debtor against another Debtor or Affiliate of a Debtor. Class 9 includes Interests in one Debtor held by another Debtor or Affiliate of a Debtor. Class 10 includes the equity interests in Crown Capital. Class 11 encompasses the equity interests of Moshe (Mark) Silber in RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC. Finally, Class 12 includes all Section 510(b) Claims subject to subordination pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code.

99. The Plan's treatment of Classes 4, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 is proper and does not represent unfair discrimination because no similarly situated Class of Claims or Interests will receive more favorable treatment under the Plan. Specifically, the Plan classifies all similarly-situated Holders of Claims and Interests together and all similarly-situated Holders of Claims and Interests will receive the same treatment. In fact, there are no similarly situated Classes or Interests pursuant to the Plan, so the Plan does not discriminate unfairly.

O. The Plan Complies with the Other Provisions of Section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code (Sections 1129(c)–(e))

100. The Plan satisfies the remaining provisions of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code. First, section 1129(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, which prohibits confirmation of multiple plans, is not implicated because there is only one proposed plan. Second, the purpose of the Plan is not to avoid taxes or the application of section 5 of the Securities Act of 1933. Moreover, no governmental unit or any other party has requested that the Court decline to confirm the Plan on such grounds. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(d) of the Bankruptcy Code. Finally, section 1129(e) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable because none of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases is a "small business case." Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(c), (d), and (e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and no party has asserted otherwise.

III. The Plan Complies with the Discretionary Provisions of Section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code

101. Finally, the Plan contains provisions implementing certain releases and exculpations, compromising claims and interests, and enjoining certain causes of action. These provisions are substantially consistent with those approved by the Court in precedent chapter 11 plans.[117] Each of these provisions is appropriate because, as applicable, they (a) are the product of arm's-length negotiations, (b) were critical to obtaining the support of the various constituencies for the Plan, (c) are given for valuable consideration, (d) are fair and equitable and in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and these Chapter 11 Cases, and (e) are consistent with the relevant provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and Third Circuit law. Such provisions are discussed in turn below, but, in summary, satisfy the requirements of section 1123(b).

A. The Plan Complies with Section 1123(d) of the Bankruptcy Code

102. Section 1123(d) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that "if it is proposed in a plan to cure a default the amount necessary to cure the default shall be determined in accordance with the underlying agreement and nonbankruptcy law."[118] With respect to the Debtors' Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, the Plan provides for the assumption or rejection by the Debtors or the assumption and assignment thereof to the NOLA Purchaser in accordance with the NOLA Purchase Agreement, which satisfies section 1123(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. Further, as contemplated by section 1123(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors filed and served certain notices of cure costs and potential assumption and assignment of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, which set forth a list of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases that may be assumed and assigned to the NOLA Purchaser in connection with the NOLA Sale Transaction.[119]

103. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, and no party has asserted otherwise.

B. The Plan Appropriately Incorporates Settlements of Certain Claims and Interests

104. The Bankruptcy Code states that a plan may "provide for . . . the settlement or adjustment of any claim or interest belonging to the debtor or to the estate."[120] The Plan provides for a settlement of certain Claims and Interests to the extent provided for by the Bankruptcy Code.

105. Settlements are favored in chapter 11 because they minimize litigation and expedite the administration of the bankruptcy case.[121] Settlements are considered a "normal part of the process of reorganization" and a "desirable and wise method[] of bringing to a close proceedings" that would otherwise be "lengthy, complicated, and costly."[122] Ultimately, approval of a compromise is within the "sound discretion" of the Court.[123]

106. The standards for approval of a settlement under section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code are generally the same as those under Bankruptcy Rule 9019.[124] Generally, courts in the Third Circuit will approve a settlement by the debtors if the settlement "exceed[s] the lowest point in the range of reasonableness."[125] The Third Circuit has provided the following four criteria that a Court should consider when approving a settlement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019: (a) the probability of success in litigation; (b) the likely difficulties in collection; (c) the complexity of the litigation involved, and the expense, inconvenience, and delay necessarily attending it; and (d)

the paramount interest of creditors.[126] In addition, the court must determine whether the proposed settlement is fair and equitable, and in the best interests of the estate.[127]

107. The Plan incorporates the settlement or adjustment of certain Claims or Interests belonging to the Debtors or to the Estates in consideration for the classification, Distributions, releases, and other benefits provided under the Plan. The settlements embodied in the Plan are fair and equitable and consistent with the Bankruptcy Code.

108. Among the compromises embodied in the Plan is the Crown Capital Noteholder Settlement, a global resolution among the Debtors, the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, and the NOLA Purchaser, as implemented through the Plan and the NOLA Purchase Agreement. See Plan Art. IV.C. Under this settlement, the NOLA Purchaser has agreed to provide the Crown Capital Noteholder Settlement Amount—cash equal to 30 percent of the net proceeds realized by the NOLA Purchaser from any future sale—to the Holders of Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claims in accordance with Article III.B.6 of the Plan.

109. In consideration for these distributions and related benefits, each Holder of an Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claim is deemed to hold an Allowed Claim against each Debtor in an amount equal to the amount of such Holder's Allowed Crown Capital Unsecurred Claim and shall be deemed and to have voted to accept the Plan on account of such Allowed Claim against each Debtor. The Plan further provides that, pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Crown Capital Noteholder Settlement constitutes a good-faith compromise and settlement of all Claims, Interests, and controversies among the Debtors, the NOLA Purchaser, and the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims arising from the Crown Capital Notes or related guarantees. Confirmation of the Plan will therefore constitute the Court's approval of the Crown Capital Noteholder Settlement as fair, equitable, and reasonable and in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, the NOLA Purchaser, and the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims. See Plan Art. III.C.

110. The Crown Capital Noteholder Settlement satisfies the Martin factors and easily exceeds the "lowest point in the range of reasonableness." First, litigation regarding the Crown Capital Notes and related guarantees would have been complex, fact-intensive, and expensive, potentially delaying confirmation and impairing the NOLA Sale Transaction. Second, the settlement eliminates significant uncertainty regarding the allocation of sale proceeds and potential noteholder claims against the Debtors and the NOLA Purchaser. Third, the resolution was negotiated among sophisticated parties represented by experienced counsel in a transparent, arm's-length process and was integral to achieving the overall restructuring embodied in the Plan. Finally, the settlement is squarely in the best interests of creditors: it facilitates a sale expected to satisfy Allowed Other Priority Claims, Other Secured Claims, Akiri Mortgage Loan Claims, CKD Penn Mortgage Claims, and up to 100% of outstanding CIF Mortgage Claims, NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims, Other NOLA Unsecured Claims, and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims; establishes a Creditor Recovery Trust for the benefit of certain creditors; resolves disputes that could otherwise erode estate value; and provides a defined recovery mechanism for noteholders tied to future value creation at the NOLA Properties.

111. Accordingly, the Plan's settlements—including the Crown Capital Noteholder Settlement—satisfy the standards of section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and are in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and all parties in interest.

C. The Plan Provides for the Sale of Estate Assets

112. Section 1123(b)(4) provides that a plan may provide for the sale of all or substantially all of the property of the estate, and the distribution of the proceeds of such sale among holders of claims or interests.[128] As permitted by section 1123(b)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan provides for the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction pursuant to the NOLA Purchase Agreement, which will effectuate a value-maximizing sale of the Debtors' NOLA Properties.

113. As discussed in the Disclosure Statement, during these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors pursued a Court-approved, public, and transparent process for a value-maximizing sale transaction. The Debtor cast a wide net to prospective purchasers and conducted a fair marketing process in accordance with the Bankruptcy Court-approved Bidding Procedures. The NOLA Sale Transaction effectuated through the Plan is the result of those immense efforts.

114. The NOLA Sale Transaction is the result of a heavily negotiated, arm's length bargaining process. As set forth more fully in the Dundon Declaration, the NOLA Sale Transaction was proposed in good faith and appropriate under the circumstances. Accordingly, the Plan is consistent with Bankruptcy Code section 1123(b)(4).

D. Modifications of Rights of Holders of Claims and Interests

115. Section 1123(b)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a plan may "modify the rights of holders of secured claims, other than a claim secured only by a security interest in real property that is the debtor's principal residence, or of holder of unsecured claims, or leave unaffected the rights of holders of any class of claims."[129]

[129] 11 U.S.C. § 1123(b)(5).

116. As permitted by section 1123(b)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan modifies, or may modify, the rights of Holders of Claims and Interests in Classes 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12, and leaves unaffected the rights of Holders of Claims in Classes 1, 2A, 2B, and 2C.

E. The Plan's Release, Exculpation, and Injunction Provisions Satisfy Section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code

117. The Plan includes consensual and customary releases of Claims held by the Debtors and parties in interest, an exculpation provision, and an injunction provision. These provisions are the product of good-faith, arm's-length negotiations among the Debtors and their key stakeholders, informed by the extensive investigation and review undertaken by the Independent Fiduciary and the Debtors' professionals. The releases are narrowly tailored, supported by valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties—including their efforts to negotiate and implement the Plan and their contributions that enabled the NOLA Sale Transaction and establishment of the Creditor Recovery Trust—and are critical to achieving the settlements embodied in the Plan. Moreover, the approval of the Plan by the Debtors' stakeholders strongly supports the conclusion that these Plan provisions are appropriate. The Debtors and their stakeholders believe these provisions are fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of creditors, and they are consistent with the Bankruptcy Code.

1. The Release by Holders of Claims and Interests Is Appropriate

118. The Plan provides for certain consensual third-party releases granted by Releasing Parties. The Disclosure Statement and solicitation materials clearly disclosed the third-party release in conspicuous terms and explained the consent mechanics.

119. Courts in the Third Circuit routinely approve such release provisions if, as here, they are consensual and appropriately tailored.[130] Here, Holders of Claims or Interests were afforded the opportunity to affirmatively consent to the third-party release through their Ballots or opt-in forms; only those parties who provided affirmative consent are treated as Releasing Parties under the Plan. Specifically, a Holder of a Claim in Class 3, Class 4, Class 5, or Class 6 affirmatively consented to grant the third-party release set forth in Article VIII.D of the Plan if the Holder either (a) voted to accept the Plan, or (b) abstained or did not affirmatively vote to accept the Plan but checked the box on the Holder's Ballot indicating that the Holder opts to grant the release. Holders of Claims or Interests in Class 1, Class 2A, Class 2B, Class 2C, Class 8, Class 9, Class 10, Class 11, and Class 12, which were not entitled to vote, could affirmatively consent to grant the release by submitting a completed Opt-In Form and checking the box on the form indicating their consent.

120. In addition to being consensual, the third-party release is (a) specific in scope, (b) a key inducement for stakeholder concessions, and (c) supported by valuable consideration of all of the Released Parties that will allow the Debtors to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction, establish the Creditor Recovery Trust, and facilitate the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' affairs. The consensual third-party release provides a substantial level of finality that is fair, reasonable, and appropriate.

2. The Debtor Release Is Appropriate

121. The releases are limited in scope and supported by consideration, including the Released Parties' support for the Plan, the NOLA Sale Transaction, and the creation and funding of the Creditor Recovery Trust. The Released Parties include: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the NOLA Purchaser; (c) the Asset Manager; (d) the Property Manager; (e) the NOLA DIP Lenders; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (h) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. For the avoidance of any doubt, no Person or Entity identified on the Schedule of Excluded Parties shall constitute a Released Party for purposes of the Plan.

122. Section 1123(b)(3)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a chapter 11 plan may provide for "the settlement or adjustment of any claim or interest belonging to the debtor or to the estate."[131] A debtor may release claims under section 1123(b)(3)(A) "if the release is a valid

123. Courts in this jurisdiction and elsewhere generally analyze five factors when determining the propriety of a debtor release, commonly known as the Zenith or Master Mortgage factors.[133] The analysis includes an inquiry into whether there is: (1) identity of interest between the debtor and non-debtor; (2) contribution to the plan by the non-debtor; (3) the necessity of the release to the plan; (4) overwhelming acceptance of the plan and release by creditors and interest holders; and (5) payment of all or substantially all of the claims of the creditors and interest holders.[134] These factors are "neither exclusive nor conjunctive requirements" but rather serve as guidance to courts in determining fairness of a debtor's releases.[135] The Debtor Releases easily meet the applicable standard and should be approved.[136]

124. First, an identity of interest exists between the Debtors and the proposed Released Parties. All of the Debtors' Released Parties engaged as crucial participants in the Plan process and share a common goal with the Debtors in seeing the Plan succeed. The Released Parties seek to confirm the Plan and implement the transactions contemplated thereunder, and that each [136] A further discussion of the Debtor Releases, including the facts and circumstances leading up to these Chapter 11 Cases which warrant the approval of such releases, is set forth below in Section IV.F herein.

Released Party has worked constructively with the Debtors to promote their wind-down efforts, both prior to and following the Petition Date.

125. Specifically, since September 26, 2024, the Independent Fiduciary has acted in a fiduciary capacity for the Debtors and other non-debtor entities owned by Debtors CBRM Realty Inc. and Crown Capital Holdings LLC.[137] Prior to the Petition Date, the Independent Fiduciary took steps to revitalize the Debtors' portfolio, including by ensuring that each property owned by the portfolio had sufficient staffing and other resources, with the goal of ensuring that residents had safe, clean homes, as well as providing periodic updates to the Noteholders. Since the Petition Date, the Independent Fiduciary has engaged with the Debtors' professionals and stakeholders to promote the Debtors' restructuring efforts, including by directing and overseeing the negotiation and execution of the NOLA Purchase Agreement, the marketing of the NOLA Properties, and the proposed Plan.

126. Similarly, the NOLA DIP Lender and the NOLA Purchaser are active participants in these Chapter 11 Cases, providing both the debtor-in-possession financing needed to reach confirmation and the successful bid for the NOLA Properties. Accordingly, the NOLA DIP Lender and the NOLA Purchaser maintain a strong interest in seeing the Plan confirmed and the NOLA Sale Transaction contemplated therein be consummated. Moreover, as set forth in the in the NOLA DIP Order, the Debtors may be required to indemnify the NOLA DIP Lender for certain claims. I have been advised that, where such indemnification obligations exist, there is an identity of interest between the indemnitor and the indemnitee.

[137] See First Day Decl.

127. The Noteholders also played a crucial role in the Plan process. As stakeholders, the Noteholders share the common goal of confirming the Plan, which includes the creation of the Creditor Recovery Trust for the benefit of, among others, Noteholders with Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claims. In the absence of an official unsecured creditors' committee, the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes served as the primary voice and coordinating constituency for unsecured creditors in these Chapter 11 Cases.

128. Finally, as explained in greater detail below, the Debtors' Asset Manager and Property Manager were also integral parties to the Plan process, including the negotiation and execution of the Plan. Indeed, the services provided by these parties were necessary to preserve the value of the NOLA Properties, which is central to the Debtors' restructuring efforts. Accordingly, these parties share the common goal of ensuring the Plan's success and consummation.

129. Second, the Released Parties have each made a substantial contribution to the Debtors' Estates, as each Released Party played an integral role in the formulation of the Plan and the administration of these Chapter 11 Cases. As courts in this jurisdiction have recognized, a wide variety of acts may illustrate a substantial contribution to a debtor's bankruptcy efforts.[138] As explained above, the Independent Fiduciary has negotiated with critical stakeholders, overseen the administration of these Chapter 11 Cases, and managed the negotiation, drafting, and execution of the Plan, including the NOLA Sale Transaction pursuant to the terms of the NOLA Purchase Agreement. Moreover, the Independent Fiduciary has agreed to forego payment of certain fees that arose prior to the Petition Date and/or may be forced to forego payment of certain fees and expenses incurred postpetition in exchange for the releases contemplated in the Plan. As a result, the Independent Fiduciary has provided substantial monetary and non-monetary contributions to the Debtors' wind-down efforts.

130. Moreover, the NOLA DIP Lender and the NOLA Purchaser have affirmatively contributed value that was necessary to consummate the Plan. Indeed, as set forth above, the NOLA DIP Lender provided the financing needed to fund these Chapter 11 Cases, including to market, auction, and sell the NOLA Properties, and the NOLA Purchaser invested the time and resources to negotiate the NOLA Purchase Agreement.[139] Accordingly, the NOLA DIP Lender and the NOLA Purchaser have made substantial contributions to the Debtors' wind-down efforts.

131. The Noteholders also provided substantial contributions to the Debtors and their Estates and were instrumental in negotiating the terms of the Plan on behalf of a key group of Holders of Unsecured Claims. Indeed, certain of the Noteholders have agreed to serve on the Advisory Committee (as defined in the Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement), which will ensure that the Creditor Recovery Trust is managed by a body with a fiduciary responsibility to its beneficiaries.

Colo. 2017) (finding that without the contributions of the third parties being granted releases by the debtors, which include the provision of financing for the chapter 11 cases and consent to the use of their cash collateral by the debtors, the chapter 11 cases would not likely have reached confirmation); In re Premier Int'l Holdings, Inc., 2010 WL 2745964, at *10 ("[T]he releases are an integral part of the agreement with the [non-debtor parties] to finance the chapter 11 cases and to fund the [p]lan.").

132. The Debtors' professionals have made significant contributions to the Debtors' efforts in these Chapter 11 Cases. With respect to Debtors' counsel, White & Case LLP played an instrumental role in the Debtors' bankruptcy proceedings, including by (i) facilitating the commencement of the chapter 11 cases through the filing of the Debtors' voluntary petitions, (ii) securing, revising, and filing motions that, among other things, secured the necessary postpetition financing needed to administer these Chapter 11 Cases, and (iii) negotiating and filing the proposed Plan and Disclosure Statement.[140] Similarly, the Debtors' New Jersey counsel, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, has provided vital contributions to the Debtors throughout these Chapter 11 Cases, including by assisting the Debtors as New Jersey counsel with respect to matters and proceedings in the Chapter 11 Cases.

133. IslandDundon has similarly made substantial contributions to the Debtors' bankruptcy efforts. Indeed, as set forth above, IslandDundon advised the Debtors in connection with the NOLA Purchaser's proposed terms to purchase the NOLA Properties.

134. The Debtors' Claims and Noticing Agent provided valuable services that have allowed the Debtors to propose and seek to confirm the Plan. For example, the Claims and Noticing Agent solicited votes from each class of creditors entitled to vote on the Plan, tabulated these votes, and published the Voting Report setting forth the results of the vote, along with ensuring that the Disclosure Statement and Plan were properly noticed.

135. In addition to the Independent Fiduciary, the Debtors' professionals, including White & Case LLP, IslandDundon LLC, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, and Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global, have agreed to forego payment of certain fees that arose prior to the Petition Date and/or may be forced to forego payment of certain fees and expenses incurred postpetition, in exchange for the releases contemplated in the Plan.

136. As explained above, the NOLA Sale Transaction is a crucial cornerstone of the proposed Plan. The Debtors' Property Manager was charged with day-to-day operations, tenant relations, staffing, and maintenance of the Debtors' properties, including the NOLA Properties, while the Asset Manager's duties included contracting with professionals, including property managers and contractors, and monitoring their performance, managing and disbursing funds, establishing reserves, and recommending cash resource investment strategies, reviewing and monitoring the property manager's operations, preparing strategic asset and marketing plans, recommending and overseeing major repairs, replacements, and critical improvements at the Debtors' properties, and providing information for annual financial statements and tax returns.[141] These services helped obtain the highest and best bid for the NOLA Properties and kept the Debtors operational during the course of these Chapter 11 Cases. Accordingly, the Asset Manager and Property Manager and the Claims and Noticing Agent provided substantial value to the Debtors, and thus the Debtor Releases are appropriate with respect to these parties.

137. Third, the Debtor Releases are essential to the success of the Debtors' Plan because they constitute an integral term of the Plan. Absent the Debtor Releases, it is highly unlikely that the Released Parties would have agreed to support the Plan. As described above, each Released Party contributed substantial value to these Chapter 11 Cases and did so with the understanding that they would receive releases from the Debtors. In the absence of the Released Parties' support, the Debtors would not be in a position to confirm the Plan, implement the Plan, and maximize value for creditors. The Debtor Releases, therefore, are essential to the Debtors' Restructuring Transactions.

138. For example, the NOLA DIP Lender insisted on these Debtor Releases during the negotiation of the NOLA DIP Credit Agreement, as evidenced by that certain NOLA Debtors Binding Term Sheet for Senior Secured, Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Financing dated as of May 26, 2025, attached as Exhibit 1 to the NOLA DIP Order.[142]

139. Importantly, the Debtor Releases are the product of arm's-length negotiations between the Debtors and their key stakeholders, all of which was overseen by the Debtors' Independent Fiduciary. In consideration for the Debtor Releases, the Debtors and their Estates will receive releases from each of the Releasing Parties, along with the substantial contributions made by each Released Party as set forth above. The Debtor Releases provide finality, and underpin the settlement and compromise of issues achieved by the Plan. Therefore, the inclusion of the Debtor Releases is appropriate and inures to the benefit of all the Debtors' stakeholders.

140. Fourth, a substantial majority of the Debtors' creditors voted to accept the plan with the proposed releases. As reflected in the Voting Report, all but one of the classes entitled to vote on the Plan voted to accept it. Further, apart from the U.S. Trustee—who is not an affected creditor under the Plan—no party has objected specifically to the Debtor Releases. Accordingly, there is overwhelming support of the Debtor Releases by the parties affected by such releases.

3. The Exculpation Provision Is Appropriate

141. Article VIII.E of the Plan provides that each Exculpated Party shall be released and exculpated from any Cause of Action for acts or omissions in connection with these Chapter 11

[142] See Kelly Hamilton Final DIP Order, Ex. 1.

Cases, the Plan, and related transactions, except for acts or omissions determined by Final Order to constitute actual fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence. The exculpation is narrowly tailored in time and scope.

142. Courts evaluate the appropriateness of exculpation provisions based on a number of factors, including whether the plan was proposed in good faith, whether liability is limited, and whether the exculpation provision was necessary for plan negotiations.[143] Exculpation provisions that are limited to claims not involving a criminal act, actual fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence, are customary and generally approved in this district under appropriate circumstances.[144] Unlike third-party releases, exculpation provisions do not affect the liability of third parties per se but rather set a standard of care of gross negligence or willful misconduct in future litigation by a non-releasing party against an "Exculpated Party" for acts arising out of the Debtors' restructuring.[145] Exculpation for parties participating in the Plan process is appropriate where Plan negotiations could not have occurred without protection from liability.[146]

S.D.N.Y. 2019) ("I believe that an appropriate exculpation provision should say that it bars claims against the exculpated parties based on the negotiation, execution, and implementation of agreements and transactions that were approved by the Court.").

143. The Exculpated Parties have participated in good faith in formulating and negotiating the Plan as it relates to the Debtors, and they should be entitled to protection from exposure to any lawsuits related to this chapter 11 process filed by unsatisfied parties. Moreover, the Exculpation provision and the liability standard it sets represent a conclusion of law that flows logically from certain findings of fact that the Court must reach in confirming the Plan as it relates to the Debtors. As discussed above, this Court must find, under section 1129(a)(2), that the Debtors have complied with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Additionally, this Court must find, under section 1129(a)(3), that the Plan has been proposed in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law. These findings apply to the Debtors and, by extension, their Related Parties. Further, these findings imply that the Plan was negotiated at arm's-length and in good faith.

144. Here, the estate fiduciaries and professionals acted in good faith and in reliance on the Bankruptcy Code and orders of the Court, which is consistent with sections 105, 1125, and 1129(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The exculpation provision is an integral component of the Plan and supports an efficient conclusion of these Chapter 11 Cases while preserving accountability for wrongful conduct.

4. The Injunction Provision Is Appropriate

145. Article VIII.F of the Plan implements the Plan's release and exculpation provisions by permanently enjoining all Persons and Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that are fully satisfied pursuant to the Plan or any Claim or Interest that is subject to the releases and exculpations set forth in the Plan from enforcing, pursuing, or seeking any setoff or relief with respect to such Claims or Interests, except for the receipt of the payments or Distributions that are contemplated by the Plan. Thus, the Injunction Provision is a necessary part of the Plan precisely because it enforces the discharge, release, and exculpation provisions that are centrally important to the Plan.[147] Further, the injunction provided for in the Plan is narrowly tailored to achieve its purpose.

IV. The Remaining Objections to Confirmation of the Plan and Final Approval of the Adequacy of the Disclosure Statement Should be Overruled

146. The Debtors received two objections: the U.S. Trustee Objection and the Sewerage Objection. To the extent the Debtors are unable to consensually resolve such objections prior to the Confirmation Hearing, the Debtors request that the Court overrule such objections for the reason set forth herein.

A. The Court Should Overrule the U.S. Trustee's Objection to the Debtor Releases Under the Plan

147. While the Debtors and the U.S. Trustee have resolved several informal objections to the Plan, the U.S. Trustee objects to the releases granted by the Debtors and their Estates pursuant to Article VIII.C of the Plan.[148] Specifically, the U.S. Trustee argues that: (i) it is inappropriate for estate fiduciaries to receive both an exculpation and a release, (ii) the Plan does not establish that each of the Releasing Parties are providing adequate consideration in exchange for receiving such releases, and (iii) there are "many individuals and entities included in n the definition of Released Parties that are unknown parties."[149] For the following reasons, the U.S. Trustee Objection should be overruled.

1. Estate Fiduciaries Are Entitled to Receive a Release in Addition to an Exculpation

148 See U.S. Trustee Objection.

149 U.S. Trustee Obj. ¶ 29-36.

148. The U.S. Trustee takes issue with the estate fiduciaries receiving the Debtor Releases when they "are being exculpated for their actions or inactions between the Petition Date and the Effective Date" under the Plan.[150] As an initial matter, the U.S. Trustee offers no support for this argument. In fact, courts within the Third Circuit have approved releases in favor of exculpated parties—even where such releases were contested.[151] Although some courts have questioned, in dicta, whether it is necessary for fiduciaries to receive both a release and exculpation, those courts have granted both where the record demonstrated that the releases were necessary and the result of substantial contributions.[152]

149. Here, it is appropriate for the estate fiduciaries to receive a release, as each party has contributed to the Plan process and waived significant prepetition claims.[153] Further, the estate

fiduciaries would not have been willing to take on this matter but for the assurance of obtaining the Debtor Releases given the unique circumstances that led to these Chapter 11 Cases.[154]

150. These Chapter 11 Cases were filed to restructure the Crown Capital Portfolio following Mr. Silber's fraud and conviction. Since September 2024, estate professionals have worked diligently to revitalize the Crown Capital Portfolio—a challenging endeavor due to the severe mismanagement and neglect attributable to Mr. Silber and his co-conspirator.[155] As a result of this history, it is particularly appropriate for the estate fiduciaries to be granted a release as well as an exculpation. In accordance with applicable law, the exculpations provided under the Plan apply to conduct throughout these Chapter 11 Cases.[156] However, the estate fiduciaries and professionals have been working on this matter before the Petition Date and were appointed in the midst of extreme turmoil. The Debtor Releases are therefore necessary to protect the Released Parties from potential claims arising prior to the Petition Date that stem from no fault of their own, but rather from Mr. Silber's misconduct. Without these releases, fiduciaries and professionals who played no role in the fraud could nonetheless face ongoing litigation related to Mr. Silber's actions. Accordingly, the Debtor Releases should be approved as to these parties.

2. Estate Fiduciaries Are Entitled to Receive a Release in Addition to an Exculpation

151. As explained above in Section III.E.2 herein, all estate fiduciaries and professionals are entitled to the Debtor Releases because (1) an identity of interest between the parties exists; (2) each party has made a substantial contribution to the plan; (3) the Debtor Releases are necessary to the reorganization; and (4) the Plan and Debtor Releases have been accepted by creditors and interest holders.

3. The Scope of the Debtor Releases Is Appropriate

152. The U.S. Trustee briefly notes that the Debtor Releases are improper to the extent that "unknown parties" are included in the definition of Released Parties.[157] But that is not the case. Instead, the releases extend only to narrowly defined categories of parties affiliated with the primary Released Parties—namely, current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals. The U.S. Trustee offers no additional support or explanation for its objection. This Court has previously approved plans that included debtor releases in favor of similarly situated parties.[158]

153. Further, the unique facts and circumstances leading up to the Chapter 11 Cases, discussed above (see supra at ¶¶ 3-11), support the inclusion of related parties of the NOLA Purchaser, the Asset Manager, the Property Manager, the NOLA DIP Lenders, and the Noteholders (such named parties, the "Primary Released Parties"), including their "representatives" and "other professionals" for purposes of the Debtor Releases.[159] As described above (see supra ¶¶ 120–137), each Primary Released Party is entitled to the Debtor Releases under the standard set forth in Zenith. Each has worked constructively with the Debtors to facilitate their efforts during these cases, both before and after the Petition Date, and has made substantial contributions to the Debtors' Estates—whether through their roles in financing these Chapter 11 Cases, waiving certain claims against the Debtors, advancing the Plan process, supporting the NOLA Sale Transaction, or assisting in the overall administration of the cases. These critical efforts would not have been possible without the support of their respective representatives, professionals, and other related parties. Without the inclusion of these related parties in the Debtor Release, the Primary Released Parties would not have agreed to support the Plan. Accordingly, the Zenith analysis justifying the Debtor Releases for each Primary Released Party likewise supports extending those releases to their affiliated representatives, professionals, and related parties. For the reasons set forth above, the Debtor Releases should extend to all Released Parties, including the estate fiduciaries, their respective representatives, professionals, and other related parties identified therein.

B. The Court Should Overrule the Sewerage Objection to the Plan

154. The SWBNO objects to confirmation of the Plan on several grounds, asserting that (i) the Plan unfairly discriminates against Class 5 vis-à-vis Classes 6 and 7, (ii) the NOLA Sale Transaction fails to maximize value for the Debtors' estates, (iii) the Debtors have not satisfied the business judgment standard in connection with rejection of the SWBNO Contracts, and (iv) the Plan lacks sufficient clarity regarding classification, contract treatment, and SWBNO's potential administrative expense rights. Each of these arguments lacks merit.

155. As set forth herein, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code and fully comports with applicable law governing classification, sale transactions, and executory contract treatment. The Sewerage Objection reflects a misunderstanding of both the structure of the Plan and the distinct nature of the Debtors' estates. The Plan's classification scheme, sale process, and contract provisions are the product of extensive negotiations, a robust marketing process, and sound business judgment—all of which are supported by the evidentiary record.

156. The Debtors respectfully submit that the Sewerage Objection should be overruled in its entirety. The Plan is fair, equitable, and proposed in good faith. It maximizes value for all creditors, provides for equal treatment among similarly situated claimants, and satisfies all confirmation requirements under the Bankruptcy Code.

1. The Plan Does Not Unfairly Discriminate Against Class 5

157. Although the Bankruptcy Code does not provide a standard for determining when "unfair discrimination" exists, courts typically examine the facts and circumstances of the particular case to make the determination.[160]

158. In general, courts have held that a plan unfairly discriminates in violation of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code only if it provides materially different treatment for creditors and interest holders with similar legal rights without compelling justifications for doing so.[161] A threshold inquiry in assessing whether a proposed plan of reorganization unfairly discriminates against a dissenting class is whether the dissenting class is equally situated to the class allegedly receiving more favorable treatment.[162]

159. Applying these standards, the Plan does not unfairly discriminate against Class 5. Class 5 consists of all Unsecured Claims against Debtors RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, RH Lakewind East LLC, RH Windrun LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, and Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC that are not NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims. By contrast, Class 6 Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and Class 7 RH New Orleans Claims arise under a distinct set of prepetition financing instruments—specifically, the approximately $201.5 million in unsecured notes issued by Crown Capital and guaranteed by RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC. These note obligations were undertaken as part of a capital markets financing, not in the ordinary course of trade or operations, and thus reflect a different credit profile, risk allocation, and recourse structure than the general unsecured claims comprising Class 5. Because the note obligations are supported by separate debt instruments, obligors, and asset pools, their classification apart from general unsecured claims is both appropriate and consistent with section 1122(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

160. Indeed, as mentioned herein, to satisfy section 1122 not all substantially similar claims or interests must be placed in the same class, nor must all similarly situated claims receive identical treatment under a plan.[163] Courts in this jurisdiction and other jurisdictions have recognized that that debtors have significant flexibility in placing similar claims into different classes, provided there is a rational basis to do so.[164] Courts have accepted various independent grounds for separate classification, including differences in the legal rights of claimholders[165] or a debtor's consideration of non-creditor interests.[166] Consistent with that principle, courts have repeatedly approved plans that separately classify noteholder claims from general unsecured claims, recognizing that capital markets debt and trade or operational liabilities arise from fundamentally different transactions and relationships.[167]

161. The differing recoveries among Classes 5, 6, and 7 therefore result not from discriminatory treatment, but from the distinct nature of the underlying claims and the discrete sources of recovery available to each. Class 5 claims generally consist of trade and operating liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of business and are limited to the Cash proceeds of the sale of the NOLA Properties. By contrast, Classes 6 and 7 represent noteholder claims arising from prepetition financing transactions and are entitled, under the Plan, to share in additional recoveries distributed through the Creditor Recovery Trust—including, for example, Claims and Causes of Action against Mark Silber, Frederick Shulman, Piper Sandler & Co., and other Excluded Parties—because those recoveries stem from the same transactions and capital structures that gave rise to the notes themselves. All Class 5 creditors receive equal treatment within their class, and no junior class receives or retains any property under the Plan until Class 5 has received its full pro rata share of the proceeds from the NOLA Sale Transaction. Accordingly, the Plan does not unfairly discriminate against Class 5 and satisfies section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. The NOLA Sale Transaction Maximizes Estate Value

162. SWNBO objects to the outcome of the sale, asserting that excluding the Noteholder Recovery in the NOLA Sale Transaction structure "would likely" have produced more cash.[168] That is speculation unsupported by the record.

[Docket No. 2060] (approving plan that separately classified and provided different treatment to general unsecured claims and unsecured noteholder claims); In re Invitae Corp., No. 24-11362 (MBK) (Bankr. [168] SWBNO Obj. ¶¶ 10.b, 17-20.

163. The legal standard focuses on value maximization through a fair process and the Debtors' sound business judgment, not on a litigant's hindsight preference for a particular form of consideration.[169] Here, the Debtors complied with Court-approved procedures, negotiated at arm's length, consulted with the Consultation Parties, and acted at the direction of the Independent Fiduciary with respect to the NOLA Properties. Although the Debtors received multiple bids by the September 11, 2025 bid deadline, the Debtors received only one Qualifying Bid for all four of the NOLA Properties—the bid from the NOLA Purchaser—for consideration of $26,125,000, on terms consistent with the Bidding Procedures. This record demonstrates good faith and sound business judgment.

164. In any event, SWBNO's critique of "non-cash" consideration ignores the Bidding Procedures, which expressly permit value in forms beyond cash.[170] SWNBO did not file an objection to the Bidding Procedures, did not appear at the hearing, did not appeal the Bidding Procedures Order, and did not seek an extension of time to file an appeal.[171] SWBNO cannot

[171] Pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 8002(a) and (c), a party seeking to appeal the Bidding Procedures Order must: (a) have filed a notice of appeal on or before August 29, 2025, (b) have sought to extend the appeal period on or before August 29, 2025, (c) file a motion seeking an extension of time upon a showing of "excusable neglect" on or before September 18, 2025.

collaterally attack the Bidding Procedures Order now in connection with plan confirmation.[172] The Noteholder Recovery is a bargained-for term that resolved complex intercreditor disputes and aligned stakeholders to enable the transaction. The proper question is whether, in the aggregate, the proposal represents the highest and best offer; here, it does.

165. The Noteholder Recovery forms part of a comprehensive settlement embedded in the Plan to resolve Crown Noteholder disputes and clear the path to closing. The Sale Transaction (i) delivers $26,125,000 in consideration, (ii) is expected to satisfy the DIP Facility in full in cash, (iii) resolves the Cleveland International Fund–NRP West Edge mortgage dispute, and (iv) provides a defined sharing mechanism for Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims through the Noteholder Recovery. Collectively, these features maximize creditor recoveries.

166. SWBNO's claim that, absent the Noteholder Recovery, the Purchaser "would almost certainly" have paid more cash is conjecture that contradicts the bid results and asks the Court to replace evidence with speculation.[173] The Noteholder Recovery does not represent cash currently held by the NOLA Purchaser and does not divert any cash from the Debtors' Estates. It is a contingent obligation of the NOLA Purchaser payable only from its future net proceeds realized from any sale of the NOLA Properties. Stripping out that term would not magically convert it into incremental cash to the Estates upon closing. SWBNO does not identify a single higher and better bid the Debtors declined to pursue, nor does it challenge the fairness of access, timing, or information. Instead, it improperly asks the Court to re-trade a negotiated, arm's-length term. That is not the standard.[174] Where, as here, the Debtors ran a robust process and produced a transaction expected to pay the DIP in full and resolve key disputes, the sale reflects sound business judgment and value maximization.

167. Furthermore, courts in this Circuit have consistently held that a completed, court-sanctioned sale should not be reopened absent clear evidence of fraud, unfairness, mistake, or a gross inadequacy of price.[175] This principle is particularly strong where the proposed sale was conducted pursuant to Court-approved procedures.[176] Here, SWBNO offers no such evidence. There is no showing of fraud, unfairness, or an inadequate price—indeed, SWBNO has not demonstrated that a viable competing bid for all four of the NOLA Properties even exists.

168. Accordingly, the inclusion of the Noteholder Recovery is a reasonable, value-enhancing component of the overall consideration that enabled the Debtors to maximize value for the benefit of their estates and creditors, and the Court should overrule SWBNO's objection.

3. Rejection of SWBNO Contracts Satisfies the Business Judgment Standard

169. Section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a debtor in possession, "subject to the court's approval, may . . . reject any executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor." The decision to assume or reject an executory contract or unexpired lease is a matter within the "business judgment" of the debtor.[177] Application of the business judgment standard requires a court to approve a debtor's business decision unless the decision is the product of bad faith, whim, or caprice.[178] Further, "[t]his provision allows a trustee to relieve the bankruptcy estate of burdensome agreements which have not been completely performed."[179]

170. Rejection of a contract or unexpired lease is appropriate where such rejection would benefit the estate.[180] Upon finding that a debtor has exercised its sound business judgment in determining that rejection of certain contracts or leases is in the best interests of its creditors and all parties in interest, a court should approve the rejection under section 365(a).[181]

171. Rejection of the SWBNO Contracts represents a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment and will materially benefit the estates. Continuing to perform under the SWBNO Contracts would require the Debtors—or any successor purchaser—to recognize and potentially satisfy approximately $2,031,670.31 in asserted prepetition obligations.[182] The Debtors, in consultation with their advisors, have reviewed these asserted amounts and understand that a substantial portion of the claim arises from excessive water usage charges attributable to a leak on the properties for which SWBNO failed to mitigate. Accordingly, the Debtors believe the asserted amounts materially overstate any legitimate prepetition liability.

172. Moreover, under the NOLA Purchase Agreement and the Plan, any obligation to pay cure costs associated with executory contracts designated for assumption and assignment would rest with the NOLA Purchaser—not the Debtors. The NOLA Purchaser has determined that assumption of the SWBNO Contracts would require an unjustified cure payment and has therefore elected not to assume or take assignment of those contracts. The Debtors, in turn, have determined that rejection is the most prudent and value-maximizing course, as the SWBNO Contracts no longer serve a legitimate economic purpose for the estates and continued performance would impose unnecessary administrative burdens and legacy liabilities. This conclusion is further supported by the fact that the properties to which these contracts relate are being sold and the Debtors' Estates are being wound down following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction. Rejecting the SWBNO Contracts will avoid a significant and immediate drain on liquidity, reduce administrative costs, and preserve resources for the benefit of creditors. Importantly, rejection will not result in any disruption of essential utility services: the NOLA Purchaser will be able to enter into new agreements directly with SWBNO upon closing of the NOLA Sale Transaction to ensure that water and sewer services for the properties continue uninterrupted. Rejection thus eliminates uneconomic prepetition exposure while preserving operational continuity for the underlying assets.

173. The Debtors' decision to reject the SWBNO Contracts is not the product of bad faith, whim, or caprice, but a reasoned, value-maximizing determination consistent with their fiduciary duties and the objectives of chapter 11. Here, rejection will (i) eliminate an inflated and disputed prepetition liability, (ii) avoid unnecessary cure obligations that neither the Debtors nor the NOLA Purchaser are willing to bear, (iii) prevent further accrual of administrative expenses, and (iv) ensure that available funds are preserved for distribution to legitimate creditor claims. At the same time, the NOLA Purchaser retains the ability to establish new commercial arrangements directly with SWBNO to ensure continued service to the properties. Accordingly, rejection of the SWBNO Contracts pursuant to section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code is appropriate and should be approved.

4. Clarifications Regarding SWBNO Classification and Treatment

174. SWBNO objects to the timing of the Debtors' decision to assume or reject its contracts and asserts that the Plan does not clearly describe the resulting treatment of any claims arising therefrom. Both concerns are unfounded.

175. First, the Bankruptcy Code expressly permits a debtor to assume or reject executory contracts at any time before confirmation of a plan.[183] The Plan appropriately preserves that flexibility. Specifically, Article V of the Plan provides that the Debtors and the NOLA Purchaser may determine whether to assume or reject executory contracts up to the date of confirmation, consistent with sections 365(d)(2) and 1123(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. This approach is necessary in complex chapter 11 cases involving multiple properties, where assumption and rejection decisions often depend on ongoing negotiations with the purchaser.

176. Second, the Plan and Plan Supplement provide ample clarity regarding the treatment of the SWBNO contracts. As disclosed in the Plan Supplement filed on September 30, 2025 [Docket No. 587], the Debtors currently intend to reject the SWBNO contracts in connection with the NOLA Sale Transaction. The Plan further specifies the treatment of any claims arising from such rejection. Specifically, it provides:

> Unless otherwise provided by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within 30 days after entry of the Confirmation Order. . . . All Allowed Claims arising from the rejection of any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases shall constitute and be treated as Unsecured Claims. Nothing herein shall constitute an extension of any Claims Bar Date otherwise applicable to a Claim arising from an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously rejected by the Debtors.

Thus, any rejection-damage claim asserted by SWBNO must be filed within thirty (30) days after entry of the Confirmation Order and, once allowed, will be treated as a general unsecured claim in Class 5 under the Plan. For the avoidance of doubt, however, the Debtors have filed a revised Plan contemporaneously herewith to make clear that any such claim will be treated as Class 5 Other NOLA Unsecured Claims.

177. Separately, to the extent SWBNO provided postpetition water and sewer services prior to the effective date of rejection, SWBNO retains its right to seek allowance and payment of an administrative expense claim pursuant to section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and in accordance with the procedures established in the Plan for the assertion of administrative expense claims.

178. Accordingly, no modification of the Plan is required. The Plan fully complies with sections 365(d)(2) and 1123(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, provides clear notice of the proposed rejection through the Plan Supplement, and preserves all rights available to SWBNO under both the Bankruptcy Code and the Plan—including the right to file a timely administrative expense request for postpetition services and to file any rejection-damage claim within the period specified by the Plan.[184]

Reservation of Rights

179. The Debtors reserve all rights with respect to the subject matter of this Memorandum, including, without limitation, the right to amend or supplement this response or the arguments made herein at the Confirmation Hearing. The Debtors also reserve all rights, claims and causes of action against the U.S. Trustee and SWBNO, including in connection with the matters set forth herein.

Conclusion

180. For the reasons set forth herein, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court overrule the Sewerage Objection, provide final approval of the Disclosure Statement, and confirm the Plan for Debtors Crown Capital Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC, Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC, RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, RH Lakewind East LLC, and RH Windrun LLC.

AND CONFIRMATION OF THE MODIFIED JOINT CHAPTER 11 PLAN OF CROWN CAPITAL HOLDINGS LLC AND CERTAIN OF ITS DEBTOR AFFILIATES

I, Matthew Dundon, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, hereby declare that the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief:

1. I am a Principal of Dundon Advisers LLC ("Dundon") and its real estate restructuring affiliate IslandDundon LLC ("IslandDundon"), the proposed financial advisor for the above-captioned debtors and debtors-in-possession (collectively, the "Debtors"). Based on my work with the Debtors, my review of relevant documents, and my discussions with members of the Debtors' management team and other professionals, including the Independent Fiduciary,[2] I am familiar with the Debtors' day-to-day operations, business affairs, capital structure, and the claims filed against the estates. I submit this declaration (this "Declaration") in support of final approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan for Crown Capital Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings LLC, RH New Orleans Holdings MM LLC, Laguna Reserve

[2] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 501] (including all exhibits and supplements thereto and as may be modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time, the "Plan"), Disclosure Statement for the Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 503, Ex. Apts Investor LLC, RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, RH Lakewind East LLC, and RH Windrun LLC.

2. Except where specifically noted, the statements in this Declaration are based upon: (a) my personal knowledge of the Debtors' operations, business affairs, financial performance, and restructuring efforts; (b) information learned from my review of relevant documents; and (c) information I have received from members of the Debtors' management or the Debtors' advisors. This Declaration is intended to supplement, and does not overlap with the factual content set forth in, the Declaration of Andres A. Estrada of Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global Regarding the Solicitation of Votes and Tabulation of Ballots Cast on Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 617] (the "Voting Report"), filed contemporaneously herewith.

3. I am over the age of 18 and authorized to submit this Declaration on behalf of the Debtors. I am not being compensated for this testimony other than through payments received by IslandDundon as a professional engaged by the Debtors; none of those payments are specifically payable on account of this testimony. If called upon to testify, I could and would testify competently to the statements set forth in this Declaration, as the information in this Declaration is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge.

I. Background and Qualifications

4. I have been a principal of Dundon since 2016 and of IslandDundon and its predecessor joint venture vehicles with Island Capital Group LLC ("Island") since 2019. Dundon provides financial restructuring and asset management advice and places loans and other nonsecurities financings on the primary and secondary markets. Island invests in real estate transactions and holds interests in real estate services concerns. I previously worked as a credit hedge fund portfolio manager (2010 to 2016), an institutional brokerage fixed income analyst and head of research (2003 to 2010), and a securities and leveraged finance attorney (1998 to 2003).

5. I have worked directly with the Debtors, their management, and other advisors to provide services in connection with the preparation, filing, and implementation of the above-captioned chapter 11 cases. Among other things, I have personally been involved in or oversaw the preparation of the liquidation analysis attached to the Disclosure Statement as Exhibit C (the "Liquidation Analysis") and the Debtors' analysis of the claims filed in these Chapter 11 Cases.

6. I received a Juris Doctor from the University of Chicago Law School and a Bachelor of Arts from the University of California at Berkeley. My testimony and declarations in relation to complex chapter 11 matters are regularly accepted by bankruptcy courts in this and many other districts.

II. Preliminary Statement

7. The Debtors own and operate the "NOLA Properties," consisting of multifamily housing assets owned by Debtors RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Windrun LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, and RH Lakewind East LLC. The NOLA Properties provide housing to low-income residents. Preserving these properties is essential not only to maximizing the value of the Debtors' Estates, but also to maintaining a critical affordable housing resource for the New Orleans community.

8. On May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors filed these chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases"). On August 18, 2025, Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC filed a voluntary petition with this Court under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. These filings were necessitated by severe operational, financial, and governance challenges stemming from mismanagement of the broader Crown Capital Portfolio and the criminal conviction of its ultimate equity owner, Mark "Moshe" Silber. These issues precipitated liquidity constraints, declining property performance, and increasing creditor enforcement actions across the portfolio.

9. Since the Petition Date, and under the direction of the Independent Fiduciary, the Debtors have stabilized operations, secured postpetition financing, and conducted a robust Court-supervised marketing and sale process designed to maximize value for stakeholders. Upon completing that marketing process, the Debtors are prepared to confirm the Plan that provides for the implementation of the sale of the NOLA Properties (the "NOLA Sale Transaction") to Lynd Acquisitions Group (the "NOLA Purchaser"), in accordance with the Purchase and Sale Agreement dated September 12, 2025 (the "NOLA Purchase Agreement").

10. I believe that confirmation of the Plan is the best available path to conclude the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases and maximize creditor recoveries. The Plan implements the NOLA Sale Transaction, provides for the satisfaction of Allowed Other Priority Claims and Other Secured Claims, and up to 100% of outstanding CIF Mortgage Claims, NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims, Other NOLA Unsecured Claims, and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims, and establishes a Creditor Recovery Trust for the benefit of certain creditors as set forth in the Plan (such creditors, the "Trust Beneficiaries").[3] In addition, pursuant to the Crown Capital Noteholder Settlement and as reflected in the NOLA Purchase Agreement, Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims are to receive thirty percent (30%) of the distributable cash proceeds from any future sale of the NOLA Properties (the "Noteholder Recovery"). The Creditor Recovery Trustee will be responsible for administering, prosecuting, settling, or monetizing the Creditor Recovery Trust

[3] The Trust Beneficiaries shall include Holders of all Allowed Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims.

Assets for the benefit of the Trust Beneficiaries as set forth in the Plan, and making distributions in accordance with the Plan and Creditor Recovery Trust Agreement.

11. Following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the Effective Date of the Plan, the Debtors will no longer operate an ongoing business and will wind down their affairs. A Wind-Down Officer selected by the Debtors will oversee the wind down, dissolution, and liquidation of the Debtors' Estates in accordance with the Plan.

12. The Plan ensures that the Debtors' Estates can be wound down efficiently and maximizes creditor recoveries through three sources: (i) the cash consideration from the NOLA Sale Transaction, (ii) the Noteholder Recovery profits-participation for Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, and (iii) monetization of Creditor Recovery Trust Assets. As set forth in the Voting Report, Holders of Other NOLA Unsecured Claims, Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims voted in the requisite number and amount to accept the Plan. I believe that confirmation of the Plan is in the best interests of the Debtors' Estates.

III. The Sale of the NOLA Properties

13. It is my understanding that certain objectors to the Plan have asserted that the NOLA Sale Transaction does not maximize the value of the Debtors' assets and instead represents a depressed cash value of the NOLA Properties. As explained below, I believe that the Debtors ran a comprehensive marketing and competitive bidding process to ensure that the NOLA Properties were sold for the highest and best bid.

14. Specifically, as set forth in the Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Approving (A) Bidding Procedures, the Sale Timeline, and the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof for the NOLA Properties, (B) Process for Selecting a Stalking Horse Bidder and Offering Bid Protections, and (C) Assumption and Assignment Procedures, and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 350] (the "Bidding Procedures Motion"), the Debtors, with the assistance of Hilco Real Estate, LLC

("Hilco") and Larry G. Schedler & Associates, Inc. ("L&A"), launched a comprehensive marketing process to solicit proposals for the sale of one or more of the NOLA Properties. IslandDundon, as the Debtors' financial advisor, assisted in structuring the sales process, coordinating marketing efforts, and leveraging its extensive real estate experience to identify potential bidders and facilitate the sale of the NOLA Properties. L&A, as the Debtors' exclusive real estate broker for the NOLA Properties, provided on-the-ground support, ensuring the properties were effectively marketed to the appropriate buyer universe and that value was maximized for the benefit of the Debtors' estates. Hilco provided outreach to the distressed investment community and assisted L&A with describing the bankruptcy sales process to potential bidders. These efforts resulted in a thorough sales and marketing effort given a short time frame.

A. The NOLA Sale Transaction Was Entered Into in Good Faith

15. Following entry of the Bidding Procedures Order and prior to the Bid Deadline of September 11, 2025, the Debtors received multiple bids but only one Qualifying Bid from the NOLA Purchaser to purchase all four of the Debtors' NOLA Properties for a purchase price of $26,125,000 (the "Purchase Price") to be implemented pursuant to the Plan, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in that certain Purchase and Sale Agreement dated September 12, 2025 (the "NOLA Purchase Agreement").

16. The Purchase Price includes cash and non-cash components. Specifically, the Purchase Price consists of: (a) assumption of all "Assumed Liabilities," as that term is defined in the NOLA Purchase Agreement, (b) cash at closing, and (c) agreement to fund a monetary amount equal to the "Noteholder Recovery." I understand that, as set forth in the NOLA Purchase Agreement, the "Noteholder Recovery" consists of an amount equal to thirty (30) percent of future Net Proceeds from any disposition of the NOLA Properties payable to the Noteholders, as incorporated into the Plan pursuant to the Crown Capital Noteholder Settlement." I understand that, as set forth in the NOLA Purchase Agreement, the "Noteholder Recovery" consists of an amount equal to thirty (30) percent of future net proceeds from any disposition of the NOLA Properties payable to the Noteholders. In addition, as part of the NOLA Purchase Agreement, the NOLA Purchaser agreed to forgive approximately $475,000 of its roughly $600,000 postpetition administrative claim, thereby reducing administrative expenses and increasing cash available to the Estates

17. I understand that one party has objected to the Noteholder Recovery component of the Purchase Price, arguing that, absent this mechanism, the NOLA Purchaser would have offered a higher, cash bid for the NOLA Properties. However, I believe that the Purchase Price represents the highest and best bid for the NOLA Properties. Specifically, I understand that the Noteholder Recovery was a key, arm's-length negotiated term designed to resolve disputes with the Noteholders and achieve a comprehensive global settlement that facilitated the sale of the NOLA Properties. Indeed, I understand the Noteholder Recovery does not represent cash currently held by the NOLA Purchaser and does not divert any cash from the Debtors' Estates. It is a contingent obligation of the NOLA Purchaser payable only from its future net proceeds realized from any sale, refinancing, or other capital transaction with respect to the NOLA Properties. Accordingly, without the Noteholder Recovery feature, I believe that the NOLA Purchaser would not have offered a higher cash bid for the NOLA Properties, but instead would have likely required a reduced purchase price to account for the lack of support from the Noteholders or, more likely, would have elected to decline to proceed with the NOLA Sale Transaction.

18. The NOLA Purchase Agreement was negotiated at arm's length, without collusion or fraud, and in good faith. On September 12, 2025, the Debtors filed the Notice of Cancellation of Auction and Designation of Successful Bid for the NOLA Properties (the "Cancellation Notice") [Docket No. 554]. As set forth in the Cancellation Notice, although the Debtors received other bids on or before the Bid Deadline, the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, determined that the NOLA Purchaser submitted the only Qualifying Bid for all four of the NOLA Properties and that there was no reasonable probability that any other bidder could provide such significant value to the Holders of Crown Capital Unsecured Claims and, accordingly, the Independent Fiduciary directed the Debtors to enter into the Purchase and Sale Agreement with the NOLA Purchaser. Notably, the other bids received offered no meaningful upside to the unsecured creditor body, were materially below the Purchase Price proposed by the NOLA Purchaser, and would not have reduced administrative expenses. Moreover, the Noteholder Recovery is a value-enhancing component of the overall consideration that (i) aligned key stakeholders, (ii) enabled confirmation-path consensus, and (iii) produced the highest and best offer when considered in the aggregate with cash and assumed liabilities. The mechanism does not divert cash from the Estates; it is a contingent, non-recourse share of post-closing Net Proceeds payable only if and when such proceeds exist. Further, the NOLA Purchaser's forgiveness of approximately $475,000 of its postpetition administrative claim was a negotiated component of the overall consideration and provided incremental estate value by lowering projected administrative costs at closing.

B. The Debtors Complied with the Bidding Procedures Order and Pursued a Robust Marketing Process

19. Pursuant to the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors and their advisors pursued a robust marketing process to test the market and secure the highest and best offer for the NOLA Properties. Specifically, the Debtors and IslandDundon, with the assistance of Hilco L&A conducted an extensive marketing process which included reaching out to 249 potentially interested parties, distributed a non-confidential marketing overview to those parties, and provided further diligence materials to 48 parties who executed confidentiality agreements. Additionally, Larry G. Schedler & Associates, Inc. conducted 12 property tours. At the conclusion of this marketing process, 10 parties submitted offers including some providing offers on the whole portfolio, some providing offers on subsets of assets and some providing both. The Debtors encouraged bidders to provide offers in both forms in order to maximize proceeds of the asset sale.

20. Parties in interest were afforded approximately six weeks between the filing of the Debtors' Bidding Procedures Motion [Docket No. 350] and the bid deadline of September 12, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) to diligence and formulate bids for the NOLA Properties, which I believe was reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances of these Chapter 11 Cases. I believe the bidding procedures approved by the Court ensured that all qualified bids could be solicited, reviewed, and evaluated in a manner consistent with the milestones and confirmation timeline outlined in the Debtors' solicitation procedures.

21. As explained above, although the Debtors received other bids on or before the Bid Deadline, the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, determined that the Purchaser submitted the only Qualifying Bid for all four of the NOLA Properties. Accordingly, I believe the NOLA Purchaser's bid represents the highest and best offer for the NOLA Properties. As a result, on September 12, 2025, the Debtors cancelled the auction and designated the bid submitted by the NOLA Purchaser as the successful bid. The Debtors determined that the NOLA Purchaser's bid was in the best interest of the Estates, especially considering the drastic impact to the Estates of being unable to consummate the sale of the NOLA Properties. The Debtors now seek to effectuate the terms of the NOLA Sale Transaction through the Plan.

22. If the Plan is not confirmed or does not go effective, I believe there is no assurance that the Debtors will be able to implement an alternative transaction that would provide recoveries equal to or greater than those contemplated by the Plan. The Plan is based on the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction and the orderly wind-down of the Debtors' Estates. It is my understanding that the Debtors do not have an alternative transaction or plan of reorganization currently negotiated or proposed. If the NOLA Sale Transaction is not consummated, I believe the Debtors may be required to convert these Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, which would likely result in significantly lower recoveries for Holders of Allowed Claims.

C. The Debtors Gave Proper Notice of the Confirmation and Sale Hearing

23. It is my understanding that, in order for the Debtors to consummate the NOLA Sale Transaction, proper notice must be provided to interested parties. I believe the Debtors complied with their notice obligations by filing the Notice of Proposed Sale of NOLA Properties, Bidding Procedures, Auction, Sale Hearing, and Confirmation and Sale Hearing (the "Sale Notice") [Docket No. 386] and serving this notice on interested parties in accordance with this Court's Bidding Procedures Order. The Sale Notice, among other things, provided the date of the auction for the NOLA Properties (if any) and set the deadline to object to the sale of the NOLA Properties. The Debtors also published the Sale Notice in the New Orleans Advocate. See Affidavit of Publication of Notice of Proposed Sale of NOLA Properties, Bidding Procedures, Auction, Sale Hearing, and Confirmation and Sale Hearing [Docket No. 529].

IV. The Plan

24. The Plan is the product of extensive, arm's-length negotiations among the Debtors, the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes, Lynd Management Group LLC and its affiliated entities, Cleveland International Fund – NRP West Edge, Ltd., and other key stakeholders. These negotiations resulted in a consensual framework that resolved competing creditor interests and provided a clear path to maximize value through the NOLA Sale Transaction and the Wind-Down of the Debtors' Estates following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction, including the creation of a Creditor Recovery Trust. The Debtors worked constructively with their stakeholders throughout the process, incorporating their comments into both the Plan and the Confirmation Order. The overwhelming support for the Plan by the creditors that voted in favor of it is strong evidence that the Plan has a proper purpose and enjoys broad stakeholder support.

25. Importantly, the Plan reflects hard-fought but constructive compromises. For example, it provides for the release of certain Released Parties in exchange for substantial contributions that facilitated the Plan's implementation, while at the same time preserving other causes of action to be pursued for the benefit of unsecured creditors through the Creditor Recovery Trust.

26. As set forth below, in exchange for the releases granted under the Plan, the Released Parties made meaningful and valuable contributions to these Chapter 11 Cases, including by providing financing, support, and concessions that were critical to enabling the consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction. Without these efforts, creditors likely would have faced the lower recoveries of a piecemeal liquidation under chapter 7. I believe that, as a result, the Plan will provide Holders of Allowed Unsecured Claims with materially greater recoveries than they would receive in any alternative restructuring scenario.

27. Additionally, IslandDundon, with the assistance of the Debtors and White & Case LLP, prepared the Liquidation Analysis. The Liquidation Analysis represents a good-faith estimate of what creditors would recover in a hypothetical liquidation under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. The analysis, methodology, and assumptions applied as part of the Liquidation Analysis are set out in greater detail therein. Based on my experience with the Debtors, my review of their books and records, and my experience as a restructuring advisor, I believe that the methodology used to prepare the Liquidation Analysis is appropriate and the assumptions and conclusions set forth therein are fair and reasonable under the circumstances.

A. The Debtor Releases Were Hard Fought and Are Narrowly Tailored

28. Article VIII.C of the Plan sets forth certain releases granted by the Debtors and their Estates (the "Debtor Releases"). These provisions are the product of good-faith, arm's-length negotiations among the Debtors and their key stakeholders, informed by the extensive investigation and review undertaken by the Independent Fiduciary and the Debtors' professionals. The releases are narrowly tailored, supported by valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties—including their efforts to negotiate and implement the Plan and their contributions that enabled the NOLA Sale Transaction and the establishment of the Creditor Recovery Trust—and are critical to achieving the settlements embodied in the Plan. I believe that the Debtor Releases included in the Plan constitute an appropriate exercise of the Debtors' business judgment and are fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Debtors and their Estates.

29. I believe that each of the Released Parties has been an active participant in these Chapter 11 Cases and has provided a significant and substantial contribution warranting the release of claims embodied in the Debtor Releases. All of the Debtors' Released Parties engaged as crucial participants in the Plan process and share a common goal with the Debtors in seeing the Plan succeed. During Plan negotiations and related discussions, the Released Parties demonstrated a desire to seek to confirm the Plan and implement the transactions contemplated thereunder. Each Released Party has worked constructively with the Debtors and their advisors, including IslandDundon, to promote their wind-down efforts, both prior to and following the Petition Date.

30. Since September 26, 2024, the Independent Fiduciary has acted in a fiduciary capacity for the Debtors and other non-debtor entities owned by Debtors CBRM Realty Inc. and Crown Capital Holdings LLC. See Declaration of Matthew Dundon, Principal of IslandDundon LLC, in Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Pleadings [Docket No. 44]. Prior to the Petition Date, the Independent Fiduciary took steps to revitalize the Debtors' portfolio, including by ensuring that each property owned by the portfolio had sufficient staffing and other resources, with the goal of ensuring that residents had safe, clean homes, as well as providing periodic updates to the Ad Hoc Group of Crown Capital Notes (the "Noteholders"). Since the Petition Date, the Independent Fiduciary has engaged with the Debtors' professionals and stakeholders to promote the Debtors' restructuring efforts, including by directing and overseeing the negotiation and execution of the NOLA Purchase Agreement, the marketing of the NOLA Properties, and the proposed Plan.

31. Similarly, the NOLA DIP Lender and the NOLA Purchaser are active participants in these Chapter 11 Cases, providing both the debtor-in-possession financing needed to reach confirmation and the successful bid for the NOLA Properties. Accordingly, the NOLA DIP Lender and the NOLA Purchaser maintain a strong interest in seeing the Plan confirmed and the NOLA Sale Transaction contemplated therein be consummated. Moreover, as set forth in the in the NOLA DIP Order, the Debtors may be required to indemnify the NOLA DIP Lender for certain claims. I have been advised that, where such indemnification obligations exist, there is an identity of interest between the indemnitor and the indemnitee.

32. I understand that, based on my review of relevant documents and conversations with the Noteholders, the Noteholders also played a crucial role in the Plan process. As stakeholders, the Noteholders share the common goal of confirming the Plan, which includes the creation of the Creditor Recovery Trust for the benefit of, among others, Noteholders with Allowed Unsecured Claims.

33. Finally, as explained in greater detail below, the Debtors' professionals, including the Debtors' Asset Manager and Property Manager, were also integral parties to the Plan process, including the negotiation and execution of the Plan. Accordingly, these parties share the common goal of ensuring the Plan's success and consummation.

34. I believe that the Released Parties have each made a substantial contribution to the Debtors' Estates, as each Released Party played an integral role in the formulation of the Plan and the administration of these Chapter 11 Cases. As explained above, the Independent Fiduciary has negotiated with critical stakeholders, overseen the administration of these Chapter 11 Cases, and managed the negotiation, drafting, and execution of the Plan, including the NOLA Sale Transaction pursuant to the terms of the NOLA Purchase Agreement. Moreover, it is my understanding that certain of the Released Parties, including the Independent Fiduciary, have agreed to forego payment of certain fees that arose prior to the Petition Date, in exchange for the releases contemplated in the Plan. As a result, I believe that the Independent Fiduciary has provided substantial monetary and non-monetary contributions to the Debtors' wind-down efforts.

35. Moreover, the NOLA DIP Lender and the NOLA Purchaser have affirmatively contributed value that was necessary to consummate the Plan. Indeed, as set forth above, the NOLA DIP Lender provided the financing needed to fund these Chapter 11 Cases, including to market, auction, and sell the NOLA Properties, and the NOLA Purchaser invested the time and resources to negotiate the NOLA Purchase Agreement. Accordingly, I believe that the NOLA DIP Lender and the NOLA Purchaser have made substantial contributions to the Debtors' wind-down efforts.

36. The Noteholders also provided substantial contributions to the Debtors and their Estates and were instrumental in negotiating the terms of the Plan on behalf of a key group of Holders of unsecured Claims. Indeed, certain of the Noteholders have agreed to serve on the Creditor Recovery Trust Advisory Committee, which will ensure that the Creditor Recovery Trust is managed by a body with a fiduciary responsibility to its beneficiaries.

37. I further believe that the Debtors' professionals have made significant contributions to the Debtors' efforts in these Chapter 11 Cases. With respect to Debtors' counsel, based on my review of relevant documents, I believe that White & Case LLP played an instrumental role in the Debtors' bankruptcy proceedings, including by (i) facilitating the commencement of the chapter 11 cases through the filing of the Debtors' voluntary petitions, (ii) securing, revising, and filing motions that, among other things, secured the necessary postpetition financing needed to administer these Chapter 11 Cases, and (iii) negotiating and filing the proposed Plan and Disclosure Statement. See Attorney Monthly Fee Statement for the Period May 19, 2025 Through May 31, 2025 [Docket No. 369]; Attorney Monthly Fee Statement for the Period August 1, 2025 Through August 31, 2025 [Docket No. 591]. Similarly, I believe that the Debtors' New Jersey counsel, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, has provided vital contributions to the Debtors throughout these Chapter 11 Cases, including by assisting the Debtors as New Jersey counsel with respect to matters and proceedings in the Chapter 11 Cases.

38. Based on IslandDundon's work in these Chapter 11 Cases, I also believe that IslandDundon has made substantial contributions to the Debtors' bankruptcy efforts. Indeed, as set forth above and in the Bidding Procedures Declaration, IslandDundon advised the Debtors in connection with the NOLA Purchaser's proposed terms to purchase the NOLA Properties and the parallel process by which the Debtors pursued a marketing process to obtain the highest and best offer for the NOLA Properties.

39. Finally, I believe that the Debtors' Asset Manager, Property Manager and Claims and Noticing Agent provided valuable services that have allowed the Debtors to propose and seek to confirm the Plan. For example, I understand that the Claims and Noticing Agent solicited votes from each class of creditors entitled to vote on the Plan, tabulated these votes, and published the Voting Report setting forth the results of the vote, along with ensuring that the Disclosure Statement and Plan were properly noticed.

40. In addition to the Independent Fiduciary, it is my understanding that the Debtors' professionals, including White & Case LLP, IslandDundon LLC, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, and Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global, have agreed to forego payment of certain fees that arose prior to the Petition Date and/or may be forced to forego payment of certain fees and expenses incurred postpetition, in exchange for the releases contemplated in the Plan, each of which could be fairly considered to be additional consideration for the benefit of the releases the Plan would grant them.

41. Finally, I believe that the Debtors' Asset Manager and Property Manager provided valuable services that have allowed the Debtors to propose and seek to confirm the Plan. As explained above, the NOLA Sale Transaction is a crucial cornerstone of the proposed Plan. I understand that the Debtors' Property Manager was charged with day-to-day operations, tenant relations, staffing, and maintenance of the Debtors' properties, including the NOLA Properties, while the Asset Manager's duties included contracting with professionals, including property managers and contractors, and monitoring their performance, managing and disbursing funds, establishing reserves, and recommending cash resource investment strategies, reviewing and monitoring the property manager's operations, preparing strategic asset and marketing plans, recommending and overseeing major repairs, replacements, and critical improvements at the Debtors' properties, and providing information for annual financial statements and tax returns. See Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order Authorizing the Debtors to Assume Certain Amended and Restated Property Management and Asset Management Agreements [Docket No. 128]. I believe that these services helped obtain the highest and best bid for the NOLA Properties and kept the Debtors operational during the course of these Chapter 11 Cases. Accordingly, I believe that the Asset Manager, Property Manager and the Claims and Noticing Agent provided substantial value to the Debtors, and thus the Debtor Releases are appropriate with respect to these parties.

42. I believe that the Debtor Releases are essential to the success of the Debtors' Plan because they constitute an integral term of the Plan. Absent the Debtor Releases, the Released Parties would not have agreed to support the Plan. As described above, each Released Party contributed substantial value to these Chapter 11 Cases and did so with the understanding that they would receive releases from the Debtors. In the absence of the Released Parties' support, the Debtors would not be in a position to confirm the Plan, implement the Plan, and maximize value for creditors. The Debtor Releases, therefore, are essential to the Debtors' Restructuring Transaction.

43. For example, I understand that the NOLA DIP Lender insisted on these Debtor Releases during the negotiation of the NOLA DIP Credit Agreement, as evidenced by that certain NOLA Debtors Binding Term Sheet for Senior Secured, Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Financing dated as of May 26, 2025, attached as Exhibit 1 to the NOLA DIP Order.

44. It is equally important to note that the Plan does not release Mark Silber; his conspirators, indicted, convicted or otherwise; any of his family; or any of their respective transferees, or any of the professionals associated with the issuance of the Crown Capital Notes and the borrowing of the various mortgage loans with which the Debtors and their affiliates financed the purchase of their respective properties from any of their respective liabilities to the Debtors' Estates or to any third party. To the contrary, the Plan carefully preserves the Estates Causes of Action against such non-releasees, establishes the Creditor Recovery Trust to, among other things, efficiently and effectively investigate and prosecute preserved Causes of Action for investigation and prosecution.

V. The Debtors' Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

45. It is my understanding that the Sewerage and Water Board of New Orleans ("SWBNO") was objected to the Plan, asserting that the Debtors failed to provide sufficient evidentiary support to satisfy the business judgment rule to reject the Debtors' four executory contracts with the SWBNO (collectively, the "SWBNO Contracts"). I believe that the Debtors have a sufficient business reason to reject the SWBNO Contracts.

46. On August 15, 2025, the Court entered the Bidding Procedures Order. The Bidding Procedures Order approved, among other things, certain procedures for the assumption and assignment of certain of the Debtors' executory contracts and unexpired leases (the "Assumption and Assignment Procedures").

47. Pursuant to the Assumption and Assignment Procedures, on August 21, 2025, the Debtors filed the Notice of Possible Assumption and Assignment with Respect to Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases of the Debtors [Docket No. 419] (the "Assumption Notice"). The Assumption Notice set forth a list of executory contracts and unexpired leases that, at the time, the Debtors sought to potentially assume and assign to the successful purchaser of the NOLA Properties. I understand that the Assumption Notice further stated that the "Debtors' inclusion of an executory contract or unexpired lease" in the Assumption Notice is "not a guarantee that such executory contract or unexpired lease will ultimately be assumed and assigned to the" ultimate purchaser of the NOLA Properties. Assumption Notice at 3.

48. On October 6, 2025, following a careful and thorough examination of the contracts originally included in the Assumption Notice (including all associated cure costs and ultimate benefit to the estate of maintaining such contracts), and following discussions with the NOLA Purchase regarding the executory contracts and unexpired leases that it selected to be assumed and assigned at confirmation, the Debtors—with the assistance of IslandDundon as financial advisor—filed the First Notice of Removal of Certain Executory Contracts Designated for Assumption and Assignment in Connection with the Sale of the NOLA Properties [Docket No. 597] (the "Removal Notice"). The Removal Notice set forth the executory contracts or unexpired leases that the Debtors, upon consultation with their advisors, determined should no longer be designated for assumption and assignment to the NOLA Purchaser. The SWBNO Contracts were included in the Removal Notice.

49. Based on IslandDundon's analysis of all outstanding executory contracts and unexpired leases, including the SWBNO Contracts, I believe that rejection of the SWBNO Contracts is in the best interests of the Estates. I determined that continuing to perform under the SWBNO Contracts would be burdensome and would not yield a concrete, ongoing benefit to the Estates. In particular, continuing to perform under the SWBNO Contracts would require the Debtors—or any successor purchaser—to recognize and potentially satisfy approximately $2,031,670.31 in asserted prepetition obligations. Based on our analysis, a substantial portion of these asserted amounts appears to arise from excessive water usage charges attributable to a leak on the properties that SWBNO did not mitigate.

50. Moreover, I understand that, under the NOLA Purchase Agreement, any obligation to pay cure costs associated with executory contracts designated for assumption and assignment would rest with the NOLA Purchaser. The NOLA Purchaser determined that assumption of the SWBNO Contracts would require an unjustified cure payment and therefore elected not to assume or take assignment of those contracts. As a result, rejection of the SWBNO Contracts will avoid payment of disputed and inflated prepetition amounts, reduce administrative costs, and preserve resources for the benefit of creditors. This conclusion is further supported by the fact that the properties to which these SWBNO Contracts relate to are being sold and the Debtors Estates are being wound down following consummation of the NOLA Sale Transaction.

51. Importantly, rejection of the SWBNO Contracts will not result in any disruption of essential utility services. The NOLA Purchaser is able to enter into new agreements directly with SWBNO upon closing of the NOLA Sale Transaction to ensure that water and sewer services for the properties continue uninterrupted. Rejection thus eliminates uneconomic prepetition exposure while preserving continuity of operations for the underlying assets. Accordingly, I believe that the Debtors have a valid business judgment for rejecting the SWBNO Contracts.

VI. Conclusion

52. In conclusion, based on the foregoing, I believe that final approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan is in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, Holders of Claims and Interests, and other parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

entered July 23, 1984, and amended on September 18, 2012 (Simandle, C.J.) and consideration of the Motion and the relief requested therein being a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b); and this Court having found that venue of this proceeding and the Motion in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Motion was appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the "Hearing"); and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before the Court and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED as set forth herein.

2. All objections that have not been withdrawn, waived, or settled, or not otherwise resolved pursuant to the terms hereof, if any, are hereby DENIED and OVERRULED on the merits with prejudice.

I. Conditional Approval of the Disclosure Statement

3. The Disclosure Statement is approved on a conditional basis as providing Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan with adequate information to make an informed judgment as to whether to vote to accept or reject the Plan in accordance with section 1125(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. This approval is without prejudice to the right of any party in interest to argue at the Combined Hearing that the Disclosure Statement does not contain adequate information within the meaning of section 1125(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, and this Order shall be without preclusive effect as to any determination by the Court at the Combined Hearing solely regarding the adequacy of the information contained in the Disclosure Statement within the meaning of section 1125(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the burden shall remain on the Debtors to demonstrate at the Combined Hearing that the Disclosure Statement contains adequate information within the meaning of section 1125(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

5. The notice of the Hearing filed by the Debtors and served upon parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases constitutes adequate and sufficient notice of the hearing to consider the conditional approval of the Disclosure Statement (and exhibits thereto, including the Plan) and the deadline for filing objections to the conditional approval of the Disclosure Statement and responses thereto is hereby approved.

6. The Disclosure Statement (including all applicable exhibits thereto) provides Holders of Claims or Interests, and other parties in interest, with sufficient notice of, and the identities of the entities subject to, the injunction, exculpation, and release provisions contained in Article VIII of the Plan, in satisfaction of the requirements of Bankruptcy Rules 2002(c)(3) and 3016(b)–(c).

12. The Solicitation Package provides the Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan with adequate information to make an informed judgment as to whether to vote to accept or reject the Plan in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2002(b) and 3017(d), and the Local Rules.

13. The Debtors are authorized to cause electronic copies of the Solicitation Package to be distributed through the Claims Agent via email (using the email address maintained by the Debtors as of the Voting Record Date) to Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes. To the extent (i) (a) an email address is not on file for any such Holders of Claims or (b) distribution of the Solicitation Package via email as set forth in the previous sentence is returned as undeliverable; and (ii) the Debtors are in possession of a physical mailing address for such Holders, the Claims Agent shall serve the Solicitation Package on such Holders in electronic format (i.e., USB flash drive format) (except for the Solicitation and Voting Procedures and Ballots, which shall be provided in paper format) via first-class mail; provided, however, that any party that receives a Solicitation Package via email or for which service in electronic format (i.e., USB flash drive format) imposes a hardship may receive a Solicitation Package in paper format by contacting the Claims Agent and requesting paper copies of the corresponding materials previously received via email or electronic format (i.e., USB flash drive format).

14. The Debtors and the Claims Agent are authorized to rely on the address information (including email addresses for voting and non-voting parties alike) maintained by the Debtors and provided to the Claims Agent. Any obligation for the Debtors or the Claims Agent to conduct any additional research for updated addresses based on undeliverable solicitation materials (including undeliverable Ballots) is hereby waived. Furthermore, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, neither the Debtors nor the Claims Agent shall be required to distribute a Solicitation Package or any other materials related to voting or confirmation of the Plan to any person or entity from which the notice of the Motion or other mailed notice in these cases was returned as undeliverable unless the Claims Agent is provided with accurate mailing addresses for such persons or entities on or prior to the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable. In no event shall any Holder of a Claim be entitled to submit a Ballot after the Voting and Opt-In Deadline without the Debtors' express written consent or by a separate order of the Court after notice and a hearing.

15. The form of letter (the "Cover Letter"), substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 5, describing the contents of the Solicitation Package and recommending that Holders of Claims in each of the Voting Classes vote in favor of the Plan, is approved.

16. The Ballots, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 3A, 3B, 3C, 3D, and 3E are hereby approved and comply with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules.

17. The Debtors are authorized to cause copies of the Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form to be delivered via email and/or first-class mail, as applicable, through the Claims Agent to Holders of Claims or Interests in the Non-Voting Classes and Holders of Disputed Claims.

18. On or before the Solicitation Mailing Deadline, the Debtors (through the Claims Agent) shall provide the Solicitation Package (other than Ballots and the Cover Letter) via email to the U.S. Trustee and all parties on the Master Service List as of the Voting Record Date.

19. The Claims Agent is authorized to assist the Debtors in all of the actions set forth herein, as applicable, including: (i) distributing copies of the Solicitation Package (including the Combined Hearing Notice) and Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form; (ii) receiving, tabulating, and reporting on Ballots cast to accept or reject the Plan by Holders of Claims; (iii) receiving, tabulating, and reporting on the Opt-In Forms received by Holders of Claims or Interests; (iv) responding to inquiries from Holders of Claims or Interests and other parties in interest relating to the conditionally-approved Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Ballots, the Solicitation Package, the Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form, and all other related documents and matters related thereto, including the procedures and requirements for voting to accept or reject the Plan, opting to grant the Releases provided by the Releasing Parties, and for objecting to confirmation of the Plan; (v) soliciting votes on the Plan; and (vi) if necessary, contacting parties in interest regarding the Plan and/or the Disclosure Statement.

20. The Claims Agent is authorized to accept Ballots and Opt-In Forms via electronic online transmission through an online balloting portal on the Debtors' case website (the "E-Ballot Portal") as set forth in the Solicitation and Voting Procedures. The encrypted ballot data and audit trail created by such electronic submission shall become part of the record of any Ballot or Opt-In Form submitted in this manner and the creditor's electronic signature shall be deemed to be immediately legally valid and effective. The Ballots and Opt-In Forms submitted online via the E-Ballot Portal shall be deemed to contain an original signature. E-Ballot is the sole manner in which Ballots shall be accepted via electronic or online transmission. Ballots submitted by facsimile, email, or other means of electronic transmission shall not be counted.

21. All votes to accept or reject the Plan must be cast using the appropriate Ballot. All Ballots must be properly executed, completed, and delivered according to their applicable voting instructions via: (i) first-class mail; (ii) overnight delivery; (iii) personal delivery; or (iv) the E-Ballot Portal. For the avoidance of any doubt, Ballots submitted to the Claims Agent by any means other than as expressly provided in this Order or in the Solicitation and Voting Procedures shall not be valid and shall not count as a vote to accept or reject the Plan. The Debtors are authorized to extend the Voting and Opt-In Deadline in their discretion without further order of the Court.

D. Approval of the Form of Notice to Non-Voting Classes and Holders of Disputed Claims and Opt-In Form.

22. Except to the extent the Debtors determine otherwise, the Debtors are not required to provide the Solicitation Package to Holders of Claims or Interests in Non-Voting Classes or Holders of Disputed Claims, as such Holders are not entitled to vote on the Plan. Instead, on or before the Solicitation Mailing Deadline or as soon as reasonably practicable following the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, the Claims Agent shall distribute the Notice of Non-Voting Status (via email or via first-class mail, as applicable) in lieu of the Solicitation Package, the form of each of which, including the mechanisms for opting to grant the releases contained in Article VIII of the Plan, to Classes 1, 2, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 who are not entitled to vote on the Plan or Holders of Disputed Claims; provided that the Debtors shall also distribute the Combined Hearing Notice on or before the Combined Hearing Notice Deadline to Holders of Claims or Interests in Non-Voting Classes or Holders of Disputed Claims.

23. Service of the Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form and Combined Hearing Notice via email (using the email address maintained by the Debtors as of the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable) or via first-class mail in paper or electronic format (i.e., USB flash drive format), as applicable, is reasonably calculated to provide notice to Holders of Claims or Interests that are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan of the hearing and constitutes adequate and sufficient notice of the hearing to consider confirmation of the Plan and final approval of the Disclosure Statement.

24. The Debtors are not required to distribute the Solicitation Package, other solicitation materials, or a Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form to: (i) Holders of Claims that (a) have already been paid in full during the chapter 11 cases or that are otherwise paid in full in the ordinary course of business pursuant to an order previously entered by this Court or (b) are scheduled to be paid in the ordinary course prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline; or (ii) any party to whom the notice of the Motion was sent but was subsequently returned as undeliverable without a physical forwarding address by the Voting Record Date.

25. The Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form shall include, among other things: (i) instructions as to how to view or obtain copies of the Disclosure Statement (including the Plan and the other exhibits attached thereto), this Order, and all other materials in the Solicitation Package (excluding Ballots) from the Claims Agent and/or the Court's website via PACER; (ii) notice to recipients of their status as Holders or potential Holders of Claims or Interests in Non-Voting Classes or Holders of Disputed Claims; (iii) a disclosure regarding the settlement, release, exculpation, and injunction language set forth in Article VIII of the Plan; (iv) the Opt-In Form by which Holders may elect to opt to grant the releases set forth in Article VIII of the Plan; (v) notice of the Combined Objection Deadline; and (vi) notice of the Combined Hearing Date and information related thereto. The Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form are hereby approved and comply with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules.

Subject to the foregoing, the Debtors are authorized to solicit, receive, and tabulate votes to accept or reject the Plan in accordance with this Order and the Solicitation and Voting Procedures without further order of the Court.

III. Approval of the Procedures for Filing Objections to the Final Approval of the Adequacy of the Information Contained in the Disclosure Statement and Confirmation of the Plan

A. The Voting Record Date.

The Court has established September 4, 2025 as the record date for purposes of determining which Holders of Claims in Class 3 CIF Mortgage Loan Claims, Class 4 NOLA Go-Forward Trade Claims, Class 5 Other NOLA Unsecured Claims, Class 6 Crown Capital Unsecured Claims, and Class 7 RH New Orleans Unsecured Claims (each a "Voting Class," and collectively, the "Voting Classes") are entitled to vote on the Plan (the "Voting Record Date").

Only with respect to Debtor Laguna Reserve Apts Investor LLC (the "Laguna Debtor"), to accommodate the bar date for this Debtor which the Debtors have set as 5:00 p.m. prevailing Eastern Time on the date that is twenty-one (21) days from the date the Debtors file schedules of assets and liabilities for the Laguna Debtor (the "Laguna Claims Bar Date"), the Voting Record Date applicable to any creditor who holds a Claim against the Laguna Debtor and who files a Proof of Claim after the Voting Record Date (i.e., September 4, 2025), but on or before the Laguna Claims Bar Date, shall be the date that such Proof of Claim is filed (any such date a "Supplemental Voting Record Date"). If, however, the Claims Agent previously provided such creditor with a Ballot on account of a scheduled Claim or previous Proof of Claim filed in advance of any such Supplemental Voting Record Date, the Claims Agent shall update the creditors' voting amount internally to comport with the amount reflected in Proof of Claim, except as otherwise provided herein, but shall not be obligated to send a new Ballot.

B. The Voting and Opt-In Deadline.

The Court has approved October 10, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) as the deadline for Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes to vote to accept or reject the Plan and the deadline by which the Opt-In Form must be properly executed, completed, and submitted (the "Voting and Opt-In Deadline"). The Debtors may extend the Voting and Opt-In Deadline without further order of the Court by filing a notice on the Court's docket. To be counted as votes to accept or reject the Plan, all ballots (the "Ballots") must be executed, completed, and delivered pursuant to the instructions set forth on the applicable Ballot, and all Opt-In Forms must be properly executed, completed, and delivered so that they are actually received by Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC (d/b/a Verita Global) (the "Claims Agent") no later than the Voting and Opt-In Deadline. Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes should submit their Ballots in accordance with the instructions provided on the applicable Ballot.

[2] Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, or the Disclosure Statement Order, as applicable.

C. Form, Content, and Manner of Notices.

1. The Solicitation Package.

The following materials shall constitute the solicitation package (the "Solicitation Package"):

a. a copy of these Solicitation and Voting Procedures;

b. the applicable forms of Ballots, together with detailed voting instructions and instructions on how to submit the Ballots;

c. the Cover Letter, which describes the contents of the Solicitation Package and recommends that Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes vote to accept the Plan;

d. the Disclosure Statement (and exhibits thereto, including the Plan);

e. the Disclosure Statement Order (without exhibits, except for the Solicitation and Voting Procedures);

f. the Combined Hearing Notice; and

g. any additional documents that the Court has ordered to be made available to Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes.

2. Distribution of the Solicitation Package.

Within five (5) Business Days following entry of the Disclosure Statement Order or as soon as reasonably practicable following the Supplemental Voting Record Date (such date, as applicable, the "Solicitation Mailing Deadline"), the Claims Agent shall serve, or cause to be served, via email copies of the Solicitation Package to Holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan and other parties in interest. To the extent (i) (a) an email address is not on file for any such Holders of Claims or (b) distribution of the Solicitation Package via email as set forth in the previous sentence is returned as undeliverable; and (ii) the Debtors are in possession of a physical mailing address for such Holders, the Claims Agent shall serve the Solicitation Package on such Holders in electronic format (i.e., USB flash drive format) (except for the Solicitation and Voting Procedures and Ballots, which shall be provided in paper format) via first-class mail. Any party that receives a Solicitation Package via email or for which USB flash drive imposes a hardship, as applicable, may request a Solicitation Package in paper format from the Claims Agent by submitting an inquiry to https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm/inquiry (with "CBRM" in the subject line). In addition, these Solicitation and Voting Procedures, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Disclosure Statement Order, and all pleadings filed with the Court are available on the Debtors' case website at https://www.veritaglobal.net/cbrm.

The Claims Agent shall serve, or cause to be served, via email, electronic versions of the Solicitation Package (excluding Ballots and the Cover Letter) on the U.S. Trustee and all parties who have requested service of papers in this case pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 as of the Solicitation Mailing Deadline.

The Claims Agent will not distribute the Solicitation Package to: (i) Holders of Claims that (a) have already been paid in full during the Chapter 11 Cases or that are otherwise paid in full in the ordinary course of business pursuant to an order previously entered by the Court or (b) are scheduled to be paid in the ordinary course prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline; or (ii) any party to whom the notice of the Disclosure Statement was sent but was subsequently returned as undeliverable without a forward address on or prior to the Voting Record Date or Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable.

3. Resolution of Disputed Claims for Voting Purposes; Resolution Event.

The Claim amounts established herein shall control for voting purposes only and shall not constitute the Allowed amount of any Claim for any other purpose, including distributions under the Plan. Any amounts pre-populated on a Ballot by the Debtors through the Claims Agent are not binding for purposes of allowance and distribution. In resolving disputed Claims for voting purposes, the following principles shall apply:

a. Absent a further order of the Court, the Holder of a Claim in a Voting Class that is the subject of a pending objection on a "reduce and allow" basis shall be entitled to vote such Claim in the reduced amount contained in such objection;

b. If a Claim in a Voting Class is subject to an objection, other than a "reduce and allow" objection, that is filed with the Court on or prior to September 23, 2025: (i) the Debtors shall cause the applicable Holder to be served with the Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form (which Notice shall be served with such objection); and (ii) the applicable Holder shall not be entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan on account of such Claim unless a Resolution Event (as defined herein) occurs as provided herein;

c. If a Claim in a Voting Class is subject to an objection, other than a "reduce and allow" objection, that is filed with the Court on or after September 23, 2025, the applicable Claim shall be deemed temporarily allowed in its original amount for voting purposes only, without further action by the Holder of such Claim and without further order of the Court, unless the Court orders otherwise;

d. A "Resolution Event" means the occurrence of one or more of the following events no later than two (2) Business Days prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline:

i. an order of the Court is entered allowing such Claim pursuant to section 502(b) of the Bankruptcy Code;

ii. an order of the Court is entered temporarily allowing such Claim for voting purposes only pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a), after notice and a hearing;

iii. a stipulation or other agreement is executed between the Holder of such Claim and the Debtors resolving the objection and allowing such Claim, which allowance may be for voting purposes only, in an agreed-upon amount and such agreement (or notice of such agreement) is conveyed by the Debtors to the Claims Agent by electronic mail or otherwise; or

iv. the pending objection is voluntarily withdrawn by the objecting party;

e. No later than one (1) Business Day following the occurrence of a Resolution Event, the Debtors shall cause the Claims Agent to distribute to the relevant Holder via hand delivery, first-class mail, or email, a Solicitation Package to the relevant Holder; and

f. Claims that have been paid, scheduled to be paid in the ordinary course prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline, or otherwise satisfied prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline, shall not be provided with a ballot and shall not be allowed to vote.

4. Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form for Unimpaired Classes, Deemed Rejecting Classes, and Distribution of Opt-In Forms.

The following Holders of Claims or Interests will receive (i) the Notice of Non-Voting Status and Opt-In Form, which will instruct such Holders as to how they may obtain copies of the documents contained in the Solicitation Package (excluding Ballots), as well as how they may opt to grant the releases in the Plan; and (ii) the Opt-In Form by which such Holders of Claims or Interests may opt to grant the releases and, if applicable, make certain elections:

a. certain Holders of Claims or Interests that are not classified in accordance with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code or who are not entitled to vote because they are Unimpaired or otherwise presumed to accept the Plan under section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code; and

b. certain Holders of Claims or Interests who are not entitled to vote because they are deemed to reject the Plan under section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code.

5. Deadline for Filing Proofs of Claim Arising from the Rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases Under the Plan.

The Plan provides that each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease (including all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List) will be deemed rejected, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than those that previously were assumed or rejected by the Debtors or those that are subject to a pending motion to assume or assign such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such rejections. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan not filed within such time shall be disallowed, forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against, as applicable, the Debtors, the Estates, or property thereof, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged.

For the avoidance of doubt, a Holder will only be entitled to receive the Solicitation Package on account of a Claim arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease if the Claim is filed by the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable.

D. Voting and Tabulation Procedures.

1. Holders of Filed and Scheduled Claims Entitled to Vote.

Only the following Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes shall be entitled to vote with respect to such Claims.

a. Unless otherwise provided, Holders of Claims who, on or before the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, have timely filed a Proof of Claim (or an untimely Proof of Claim that has been Allowed as timely by the Court under applicable law on or before the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable) that: (i) has not been expunged, disallowed, disqualified, withdrawn, or superseded prior to the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable; and (ii) is not the subject of a pending objection filed with the Court on or before September 23, 2025, pending a Resolution Event as provided herein; provided that a Holder of a Claim that is the subject of a pending objection on a "reduce and allow" basis shall receive a Solicitation Package and be entitled to vote such Claim in the reduced amount contained in such objection absent a further order of the Court;

b. Holders of Claims that are listed in the Debtors' Schedules of Assets and Liabilities (the "Schedules"); provided that Claims that are scheduled as contingent, unliquidated, or disputed (excluding such scheduled disputed, contingent, or unliquidated Claims that have been paid or superseded by a timely Filed Proof of Claim) shall be allowed to vote only in the amounts set forth in Section D.2 of the Solicitation and Voting Procedures;

c. Holders whose Claims arise: (i) pursuant to an agreement or settlement with the Debtors, as reflected in a document filed with the Court; (ii) from an order entered by the Court; or (iii) from a document executed by the Debtors pursuant to authority granted by the Court, in each case regardless of whether a Proof of Claim has been filed or the Claim was scheduled as contingent, unliquidated, or disputed;

d. Holders of any Claim that has been temporarily allowed to vote on the Plan pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3018; and

e. with respect to any Entity described in subparagraphs (a) through (d) above, who, on or before the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, has transferred such Entity's Claim to another Entity, the assignee of such Claim; provided that such transfer or assignment has been fully effectuated pursuant to the procedures set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e) and such transfer is reflected on the Claims Register on the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable.

2. Establishing Claim Amounts for Voting Purposes.

The Claim amounts established herein shall control for voting purposes only and shall not constitute the Allowed amount of any Claim. Moreover, any amounts filled in on Ballots by the Debtors through the Claims Agent, as applicable, are not binding for purposes of allowance and distribution.

a. In tabulating votes, the following hierarchy shall be used to determine the amount of the Claim associated with each claimant's vote:

i. the Claim amount (i) settled and/or agreed upon by the Debtors, as reflected in a document filed with the Court, (ii) set forth in an order of the Court, (iii) set forth in a document executed by the Debtors pursuant to authority granted by the Court, or (iv) set forth in e-mailed instructions from the Debtors' counsel to the Claims Agent with the applicable voter copied;

ii. the Claim amount Allowed (temporarily or otherwise) pursuant to a Resolution Event under these Solicitation and Voting Procedures;

iii. the Claim amount contained in a Proof of Claim that is not subject to an objection and that has been timely filed by the applicable bar date (or deemed timely filed by the Court under applicable law), except for any amounts asserted on account of any interest accrued after the Petition Date; provided that any Ballot cast by a holder of a Claim who timely files a Proof of Claim in respect of (i) a contingent Claim or a Claim in a wholly-unliquidated or undetermined or unknown amount (as indicated on the face of the Claim or based on a reasonable review by the Debtors and/or the Claims Agent) that is not the subject of an objection will count toward satisfying the numerosity requirement of section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code and will count as a Ballot for a Claim in the amount of $1.00 solely for the purposes of satisfying the dollar amount provisions of section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, and (ii) a partially liquidated and partially unliquidated Claim will be Allowed for voting purposes only in the liquidated amount; provided, further, that to the extent the Claim amount contained in the Proof of Claim is different from the Claim amount set forth in a document filed with the Court as referenced in subparagraph (a)(i) above, the Claim amount in the document filed with the Court shall supersede the Claim amount set forth on the respective Proof of Claim for voting purposes;

iv. the Claim amount listed in the Schedules (to the extent such Claim is not superseded by a timely filed Proof of Claim); provided that such Claim is not scheduled as contingent, disputed, or unliquidated and/or has not been paid; provided, further, that if the applicable Claims Bar Date has not expired prior to the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, a Claim listed in the Schedules as contingent, disputed, or unliquidated shall vote at $1.00;

b. Proofs of Claim filed for $0.00 or Claims scheduled for $0.00 are not eligible to vote;

c. notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any creditor who has filed or purchased duplicate Claims within the same Voting Class shall be provided with only one Solicitation Package and one Ballot for voting a single Claim in such Class, regardless of whether the Debtors have objected to such duplicate Claims;

d. to the extent a Holder of a Claim files a Proof of Claim prior to the Voting Record Date or Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, and during the solicitation period that amends or supersedes a Claim for which a Solicitation Package was previously distributed to the same Holder, the Debtors are not obligated to cause the Claims Agent to distribute an additional Solicitation Package to such Holder;

e. if a Proof of Claim has been amended by a later Proof of Claim that is filed on or prior to the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, the later-filed amending Claim shall be entitled to vote in a manner consistent with these Solicitation and Voting Procedures, and the earlier-filed Claim shall be disallowed for voting purposes, regardless of whether the Debtors have objected to such amended Claim. Except as otherwise ordered by the Court, any amendments to Proofs of Claim after the Voting Record Date or the Supplemental Voting Record Date, as applicable, shall not be considered for purposes of these Solicitation and Voting Procedures; and

f. in the absence of any of the foregoing, such Claim shall be disallowed for voting purposes.

3. Voting and Ballot Tabulation Procedures.

The following voting procedures and standard assumptions shall be used in tabulating Ballots, subject to the Debtors' right to waive any of the below specified requirements for completion and submission of Ballots so long as (i) such waiver is noted in the Voting Report, and (ii) such requirement is not otherwise required by the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules, or Local Rules:

a. except as otherwise provided in these Solicitation and Voting Procedures, unless the Ballot being furnished is timely submitted and actually received by the Claims Agent on or prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline (as the same may be extended by the Debtors), the Debtors, in their sole discretion, shall be entitled to reject such Ballot as invalid and, therefore, not count it in connection with confirmation of the Plan;

b. the Claims Agent will date-stamp all Ballots when received;

c. the Claims Agent shall retain copies of Ballots and all solicitation-related correspondence for two (2) years following the closing of the Chapter 11 Cases, whereupon the Claims Agent is authorized to destroy and/or otherwise dispose of: (i) all copies of Ballots; (ii) printed solicitation materials, including unused copies of the Solicitation Package; and (iii) all solicitation-related correspondence (including undeliverable mail), in each case unless otherwise directed by the Debtors or the Clerk of the Court in writing within such two (2) year period;

d. the Debtors will file the Voting Report by no later than three (3) calendar days prior to the Combined Hearing;

e. the Voting Report shall, among other things, delineate every Ballot that was excluded from the voting results (each, an "Irregular Ballot"), including, but not limited to, those Ballots that are late or (in whole or in material part) illegible, unidentifiable, lacking signatures or other necessary information, or damaged, and the Voting Report shall indicate the Debtors' decision regarding such Irregular Ballots;

f. the Debtors, subject to a contrary order of the Court, may waive any defects or irregularities as to any particular Irregular Ballot at any time, either before or after the close of voting, and any such waivers will be documented in the Voting Report or a supplemental voting report, as applicable;

g. neither the Debtors nor any other Entity will be under any duty to provide notification of defects or irregularities with respect to delivered Ballots other than as provided in the Voting Report nor will any of them incur any liability for notification or failure to provide such notification;

h. unless waived or as ordered by the Court, any defects or irregularities in connection with submissions of Ballots must be cured prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline or such Ballots will not be counted; provided that a valid opt-in election on an otherwise defective or Irregular Ballot submitted prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline shall be honored as a valid opt-in election;

i. the method of delivery of Ballots to be sent to the Claims Agent is at the election and risk of each Holder, and except as otherwise provided, a Ballot will be deemed delivered only when the Claims Agent actually receives the executed Ballot;

j. an executed Ballot is required to be submitted by the Entity or its authorized representative submitting such Ballot;

k. delivery of a Ballot to the Claims Agent by email, facsimile, or any electronic means, other than expressly provided in the applicable Ballot or these Solicitation and Voting Procedures, will not be valid;

l. no Ballot should be sent to the Debtors, the Debtors' agents (other than the Claims Agent) or the Debtors' financial or legal advisors, and, if so sent, such Ballot will not be counted unless the same is otherwise validly submitted by other means;

m. if multiple Ballots are received from the same Holder with respect to the same Claim prior to the Voting and Opt-In Deadline, the last dated, properly submitted, valid Ballot timely received will be deemed to reflect that voter's intent and will supersede and revoke any prior received Ballot;

n. Holders must vote all of their Claims within a particular Class either to accept or reject the Plan and may not split any votes; accordingly, a Ballot that partially rejects and partially accepts the Plan will not be counted, and to the extent there are multiple Claims within the same Class, the applicable Debtor may, in its discretion, aggregate the Claims of any particular Holder within a Class for the purpose of tabulating votes;

o. Holders of Claims against multiple Debtors must vote such Claims either to accept or reject the Plan at each such Debtor and may not vote any such Claim to accept at one Debtor and reject at another Debtor; accordingly, a Ballot that rejects the Plan for a Claim at one Debtor and accepts the Plan for a Claim held by the same Holder at another Debtor will not be counted;

p. a person signing a Ballot in their capacity as a trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, attorney in fact, officer of a corporation, or otherwise acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity of a Holder of Claims must indicate such capacity when signing, and if required or requested by the Claims Agent, the Debtors, or the Court, must submit proper evidence of such fiduciary or representative capacity to the requesting party to so act on behalf of such Holder;

q. in the event a designation of lack of good faith is requested by a party in interest under section 1126(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court will determine whether any vote to accept and/or reject the Plan cast with respect to that Claim will be counted for purposes of determining whether the Plan has been accepted or rejected;

r. subject to any order of the Court, the Debtors reserve the right to reject any and all Ballots not in proper form, the acceptance of which, in the opinion of the Debtors, would not be in accordance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Rules; provided that any such rejections will be documented in the Voting Report;

s. if a Claim has been estimated or otherwise Allowed only for voting purposes by order of the Court, such Claim shall be temporarily Allowed in the amount so estimated or Allowed by the Court for voting purposes only and not for purposes of allowance or distribution;

t. if an objection to a Claim is filed, such Claim shall be treated in accordance with the procedures set forth herein;

u. the following Ballots shall not be counted in determining the acceptance or rejection of the Plan:

i. any Ballot that is illegible or contains insufficient information to permit the identification of the Holder of such Claim;

ii. any Ballot cast by any Entity that does not hold a Claim in a Voting Class;

iii. any unsigned Ballot or Ballot lacking an original signature (for the avoidance of doubt, a Ballot submitted via the Claims Agent's online balloting portal shall be deemed to contain an original signature);

iv. any Ballot not marked to accept or reject the Plan or marked both to accept and reject the Plan;

v. any Ballot transmitted by any other means not specifically approved pursuant to the Disclosure Statement Order or contemplated by these Solicitation and Voting Procedures or by separate order of the Court;

vi. any Ballot sent to any of the Debtors, the Debtors' agents or representatives, or the Debtors' advisors (other than the Claims Agent) unless such Ballot is otherwise submitted by proper means; and

vii. any Ballot submitted by any Entity not entitled to vote pursuant to the procedures described herein;

v. after the Voting and Opt-In Deadline, no Ballot may be withdrawn or modified without the prior written consent of the Debtors or further order of the Court;

w. the Debtors are authorized to enter into stipulations with the Holder of any Claim, an email agreement between such Holder or its representatives and Debtors' counsel being sufficient, agreeing to the amount of a Claim for voting purposes;

x. where any portion of a single Claim has been transferred to a transferee, all Holders of any portion of such single Claim will be (i) treated as a single creditor for purposes of the numerosity requirements in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code (and for the other solicitation and voting procedures set forth herein) and (ii) required to vote every portion of such Claim collectively to accept or reject the Plan;

y. in the event that (i) a Ballot, (ii) a group of Ballots within a Voting Class received from a single creditor, or (iii) a group of Ballots received from the various Holders of multiple portions of a single Claim partially reject and partially accept the Plan, such Ballots shall not be counted; and

z. for purposes of the numerosity requirement of section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, separate Claims held by a single creditor in a particular Class will be aggregated and treated as if such creditor held one Claim in such Class, and all votes related to such Claim will be treated as a single vote to accept or reject the Plan; provided, however, that if separate affiliated entities, including any funds or accounts that are advised or managed by the same entity or by affiliated entities, hold Claims in a particular Class, these Claims will not be aggregated and will not be treated as if such Holders held one Claim in such Class, and the votes of each affiliated entity or managed fund or account will be counted separately for numerosity purposes as votes to accept or reject the Plan.

E. Amendments to the Plan and Solicitation and Voting Procedures.

The Debtors reserve the right to make non-substantive or immaterial changes to the Plan, Disclosure Statement, Solicitation and Voting Procedures, Ballots, Solicitation Package, Notice of Non-Voting Status, Opt-In Form, Combined Hearing Notice, Publication Notice, Cover Letter, Plan Supplement Notice, Rejection Notice, and any other notice attached hereto and any related documents without further order of the Court, including formatting changes, changes to correct typographical and grammatical errors, if any, and to make conforming changes to the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, and any other materials (including any appendices thereto) in the Solicitation Package before distribution.

You are receiving this Ballot because the Debtors' books and records indicate you are the Holder of a Class 3 CIF Mortgage Loan Claim as of September 4, 2025 (the "Voting Record Date") or filed a Proof of Claim reflecting a Class 3 CIF Mortgage Loan Claim on or before the date that is twenty-one (21) days from the date the Debtors file schedules of assets and liabilities for the Laguna Debtor (the "Supplemental Voting Record Date"). A Voting Class shall be deemed to have accepted the Plan if Holders of at least two-thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of Claims that submit votes in such Voting Class vote to accept the Plan. The Court may confirm the Plan if the Plan otherwise satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code. If the Plan is confirmed by the Court, the Plan will be binding on all Holders of Claims or Interests, among others, regardless of whether such Holders voted to or were presumed to accept, voted to or were deemed to reject, or abstained from voting on the Plan. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan, you will receive the treatment identified in Item 1 of this Ballot.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (1) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan and (2) except as to any member of the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes who opted to grant the releases contained in Article VIII.D of the Plan, the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members (whether or not any such member affirmatively voted to accept the Plan) shall not release nor be deemed to release any claim or cause of action that any such holders may hold against the Asset Manager or the Property Manager and such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals.

releases and exculpations set forth in the Plan shall be precluded and permanently enjoined on and after the Effective Date from enforcing, pursuing, or seeking any setoff or relief with respect to such Claims or Interests, except for the receipt of the payments or Distributions that are contemplated by the Plan.

Article VIII.D of the Plan provides for the following Third-Party Release:

As of the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Releasing Parties are deemed to have released the Debtors, their Estates, and the Released Parties from any and all Claims, Interests, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies and liabilities whatsoever, including any direct Claims held by any of the Releasing Parties against the Debtors, their Estates, and/or the Released Parties or derivative Claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that each Releasing Party would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Debtors' restructuring, the Chapter 11 Cases, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents, or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (1) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan and (2) except as to any member of the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes who opted to grant the releases contained in Article VIII.D of the Plan, the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members (whether or not any such member affirmatively voted to accept the Plan) shall not release nor be deemed to release any claim or cause of action that any such holders may hold against the Asset Manager or the Property Manager and such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals.

Article VIII.E of the Plan provides for the following exculpation (the "Exculpation"):

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, each Debtor and each Exculpated Party is hereby released and exculpated from any Claim, obligation, Cause of Action, or liability for any Exculpated Claim, except for gross negligence or willful misconduct, but in all respects each Debtor and each Exculpated Party shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to its duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan. The Debtors, their Estates, the Independent Fiduciary, and the Debtors' professionals including White & Case LLP, IslandDundon LLC, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, and Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global have, and upon completion of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of the Plan and distributions pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for the following injunction (the "Injunction"):

In addition, as of the Effective Date and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Plan or the Confirmation Order, all Persons and Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that are fully satisfied pursuant to the Plan or any Claim or Interest that is subject to the releases and exculpations set forth in the Plan shall be precluded and permanently enjoined on and after the Effective Date from enforcing, pursuing, or seeking any setoff or relief with respect to such Claims or Interests, except for the receipt of the payments or Distributions that are contemplated by the Plan.

For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing relief may include (but is not limited to): (1) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claim or Interest; (2) enforcing, attaching, collecting, or recovering by any manner or means any judgment, award, decree, or order against such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (3) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any encumbrance of any kind against such Entities or the property or the Estates of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (4) asserting any right of setoff, subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due from such Entities or against the property of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; and (5) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (1) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan and (2) except as to any member of the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes who opted to grant the releases contained in Article VIII.D of the Plan, the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members (whether or not any such member affirmatively voted to accept the Plan) shall not release nor be deemed to release any claim or cause of action that any such holders may hold against the Asset Manager or the Property Manager and such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, each Debtor and each Exculpated Party is hereby released and exculpated from any Claim, obligation, Cause of Action, or liability for any Exculpated Claim, except for gross negligence or willful misconduct, but in all respects each Debtor and each Exculpated Party shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to its duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan. The Debtors, their Estates, the Independent Fiduciary, and the Debtors' professionals including White & Case LLP, IslandDundon LLC, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, and Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global have, and upon completion of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of the Plan and distributions pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for the following injunction (the "Injunction"):

Pursuant to section 362(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the automatic stay of an act against property of the Debtors' estates will continue until such property is no longer property of the Debtors' estates, and pursuant to section 362(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, the stay of any other act described in section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code continues until the earlier of the closure or dismissal of these Chapter 11 Cases. In addition, as of the Effective Date and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Plan or the Confirmation Order, all Persons and Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that are fully satisfied pursuant to the Plan or any Claim or Interest that is subject to the releases and exculpations set forth in the Plan shall be precluded and permanently enjoined on and after the Effective Date from enforcing, pursuing, or seeking any setoff or relief with respect to such Claims or Interests, except for the receipt of the payments or Distributions that are contemplated by the Plan.

For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing relief may include (but is not limited to): (1) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claim or Interest; (2) enforcing, attaching, collecting, or recovering by any manner or means any judgment, award, decree, or order against such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (3) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any encumbrance of any kind against such Entities or the property or the Estates of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (4) asserting any right of setoff, subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due from such Entities or against the property of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; and (5) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests.

For the avoidance of doubt, this Article VIII.F shall not constitute a discharge under section 1141(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Definitions related to the Third-Party Release, Exculpation, and Injunction:

Under the Plan, "Released Party" means each of the following in its capacity as such: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the NOLA Purchaser; (c) the Asset Manager; (d) the Property Manager; (e) the NOLA DIP Lenders; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (h) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. For the avoidance of any doubt, no Person or Entity identified on the Schedule of Excluded Parties shall constitute a Released Party for purposes of the Plan.

Under the Plan, "Releasing Parties" means each of the following in its capacity as such: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the NOLA Purchaser; (c) the Asset Manager; (d) the Property Manager; (e) the NOLA DIP Lenders; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) each Holder of a Claim that affirmatively votes to accept the Plan; (h) each Holder of a Claim in Class 3, Class 4, Class 5, Class 6, and Class 7 who abstains or does not affirmatively vote to accept the Plan but checks the box on such Holder's Ballot indicating that such Holder opts to grant the releases contained in Article VIII of the Plan; (i) each Holder of a Claim in Class 1, Class 2, Class 8, Class 9, Class 10, Class 11, and Class 12 who checks the box on such Holder's Opt-In Form indicating that such Holder opts to grant the releases contained in Article VIII of the Plan; (j) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (k) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent.

Under the Plan, "Exculpated Party" means, each of, and in each case, in its capacity as such, (a) each Debtor solely in its capacity as a debtor and debtor in possession following the Petition Date and excluding such Debtor for the period prior to the Petition Date, (b) the Independent Fiduciary, (c) the Asset Manager, (d) the Property Manager, and (e) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. For the avoidance of any doubt, no Person or Entity identified on the Schedule of Excluded Parties shall constitute an Exculpated Party for purposes of the Plan.

Under the Plan, "Exculpated Claim" means any Claim related to any act or omission arising as of or following the Petition Date through the Effective Date in connection with, relating to, or arising out of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan, the NOLA Sale Transaction, or Restructuring Transactions, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation of any document in connection with the Plan, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Plan, the pursuit of Consummation, the Restructuring Transactions, the administration and implementation of the Plan, or the distribution of property pursuant to the Plan.

Item 4. Contributed Claims

If the Plan is confirmed, all Claims or Causes of Action, including Avoidance Actions, held by the Debtors or their Estates as of the Effective Date and the proceeds thereof, other than any Claims or Causes of Action against the Released Parties that are released under Article VIII of the Plan (collectively, the "NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action") will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

In addition to these NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, certain creditors may have direct Causes of Action against certain third parties associated with the Debtors, their predecessors, or respective Affiliates that are not released under the Plan. However, it may be difficult and expensive for individual creditors to sue third parties for losses. Accordingly, creditors can elect to contribute direct Causes of Action to the Creditor Recovery Trust. By opting to contribute Causes of Action to the Creditor Recovery Trust, you are giving the Creditor Recovery Trust the right to pursue those direct Causes of Action on your behalf together with other creditors. As a result, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be able to use trust resources to sue on account of those direct Causes of Action, and all recoveries will inure to the benefit of all Holders that agreed to contribute their Claims. In other words, if the Creditor Recovery Trust prevails on any Claims that you contribute, those recoveries will be distributed among all creditors that elected to contribute their Contributed Claims and will not be distributed solely to you. For the avoidance of doubt, the decision to "opt in" to contribute Claims is entirely voluntary, and the failure to "opt in" does not prejudice any electing creditors' rights.

By electing such option, you agree that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, you will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed your Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Debtors or the Creditor Recovery Trust to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

☐ CONTRIBUTED CLAIM ELECTION: By checking this box, you elect to contribute your Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust

Definitions related to the Contributed Claims

Under the Plan, "Contributed Claim" means any direct Cause of Action that any Contributing Claimant has against any Person (other than a Debtor) that had a direct relationship with the Debtors, their predecessors, or respective Affiliates and that harmed such Contributing Claimant in the claimant's capacity as a creditor of the Debtors, including (a) any Cause of Action based on, arising out of, or related to the alleged misrepresentation of any of the Debtors' financial information, business operations, or related internal controls; and (b) any Cause of Action based on, arising out of, or related to any alleged failure to disclose, or actual or attempted cover up or obfuscation of, any of the Debtors' conduct prior to the Petition Date; provided, however, that Contributed Claims do not include (i) any derivative claims of the Debtors, (ii) any direct claims against the Released Parties, (iii) any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law, (iv) any claim of a Holder of a Crown Capital Unsecured Claim against Piper Sandler & Co. or any of its Affiliates or representatives, and (v) any claim or cause of action against the Asset Manager or the Property Manager and such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals.

Under the Plan, "Contributing Claimant" means any Holder of a Claim or Interest that elects through its Ballot to contribute their Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust in order for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute such Contributed Claims for their benefit.

☐ OPT-IN ELECTION: The undersigned elects to grant the Third-Party Release contained in Article VIII.D of the Plan.

Article VIII.D of the Plan provides for the following Third-Party Release:

As of the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Releasing Parties are deemed to have released the Debtors, their Estates, and the Released Parties from any and all Claims, Interests, obligations, rights, suits, damages, Causes of Action, remedies and liabilities whatsoever, including any direct Claims held by any of the Releasing Parties against the Debtors, their Estates, and/or the Released Parties or derivative Claims asserted on behalf of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, whether for tort, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws, or otherwise, that each Releasing Party would have been legally entitled to assert (whether individually or collectively), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors or their Affiliates, the Debtors' restructuring, the Chapter 11 Cases, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between the Debtors and any Released Party, the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or in the Chapter 11 Cases, the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Restructuring Documents, or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence relating to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (1) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement) executed to implement the Plan and (2) except as to any member of the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes who opted to grant the releases contained in Article VIII.D of the Plan, the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members (whether or not any such member affirmatively voted to accept the Plan) shall not release nor be deemed to release any claim or cause of action that any such holders may hold against the Asset Manager or the Property Manager and such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals.

Article VIII.E of the Plan provides for the following exculpation (the "Exculpation"):

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, each Debtor and each Exculpated Party is hereby released and exculpated from any Claim, obligation, Cause of Action, or liability for any Exculpated Claim, except for gross negligence or willful misconduct, but in all respects each Debtor and each Exculpated Party shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to its duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan. The Debtors, their Estates, the Independent Fiduciary, and the Debtors' professionals including White & Case LLP, IslandDundon LLC, Ken Rosen Advisors PC, and Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC dba Verita Global have, and upon completion of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of the Plan and distributions pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

Article VIII.F of the Plan provides for the following injunction (the "Injunction"):

Pursuant to section 362(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the automatic stay of an act against property of the Debtors' estates will continue until such property is no longer property of the Debtors' estates, and pursuant to section 362(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, the stay of any other act described in section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code continues until the earlier of the closure or dismissal of these Chapter 11 Cases. In addition, as of the Effective Date and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Plan or the Confirmation Order, all Persons and Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that are fully satisfied pursuant to the Plan or any Claim or Interest that is subject to the releases and exculpations set forth in the Plan shall be precluded and permanently enjoined on and after the Effective Date from enforcing, pursuing, or seeking any setoff or relief with respect to such Claims or Interests, except for the receipt of the payments or Distributions that are contemplated by the Plan.

For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing relief may include (but is not limited to): (1) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claim or Interest; (2) enforcing, attaching, collecting, or recovering by any manner or means any judgment, award, decree, or order against such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (3) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any encumbrance of any kind against such Entities or the property or the Estates of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; (4) asserting any right of setoff, subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due from such Entities or against the property of such Entities on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests; and (5) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind on account of or in connection with or with respect to any such released, compromised, settled, or exculpated Claims or Interests.

For the avoidance of doubt, this Article VIII.F shall not constitute a discharge under section 1141(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Definitions related to the Third-Party Release, Exculpation, and Injunction:

Under the Plan, "Released Party" means each of the following in its capacity as such: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the NOLA Purchaser; (c) the Asset Manager; (d) the Property Manager; (e) the NOLA DIP Lenders; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (h) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. For the avoidance of any doubt, no Person or Entity identified on the Schedule of Excluded Parties shall constitute a Released Party for purposes of the Plan.

Under the Plan, "Releasing Parties" means each of the following in its capacity as such: (a) the Independent Fiduciary; (b) the NOLA Purchaser; (c) the Asset Manager; (d) the Property Manager; (e) the NOLA DIP Lenders; (f) the Ad Hoc Group of Holders of Crown Capital Notes and each of its members; (g) each Holder of a Claim that affirmatively votes to accept the Plan; (h) each Holder of a Claim in Class 3, Class 4, Class 5, Class 6, and Class 7 who abstains or does not affirmatively vote to accept the Plan but checks the box on such Holder's Ballot indicating that such Holder opts to grant the releases contained in Article VIII of the Plan; (i) each Holder of a Claim in Class 1, Class 2, Class 8, Class 9, Class 10, Class 11, and Class 12 who checks the box on such Holder's Opt-In Form indicating that such Holder opts to grant the releases contained in Article VIII of the Plan; (j) with respect to each of the foregoing entities in clauses (b) through (f), such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals; and (k) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent.

Under the Plan, "Exculpated Party" means, each of, and in each case, in its capacity as such, (a) each Debtor solely in its capacity as a debtor and debtor in possession following the Petition Date and excluding such Debtor for the period prior to the Petition Date, (b) the Independent Fiduciary, (c) the Asset Manager, (d) the Property Manager, and (e) with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' non-Debtor subsidiaries, White & Case LLP as counsel, IslandDundon LLC as financial advisor, Ken Rosen Advisors PC as New Jersey counsel and co-counsel, and the Claims and Noticing Agent. For the avoidance of any doubt, no Person or Entity identified on the Schedule of Excluded Parties shall constitute an Exculpated Party for purposes of the Plan.

Under the Plan, "Exculpated Claim" means any Claim related to any act or omission arising as of or following the Petition Date through the Effective Date in connection with, relating to, or arising out of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan, the NOLA Sale Transaction, or Restructuring Transactions, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation of any document in connection with the Plan, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Plan, the pursuit of Consummation, the Restructuring Transactions, the administration and implementation of the Plan, or the distribution of property pursuant to the Plan.

Item 4. Contributed Claims

If the Plan is confirmed, all Claims or Causes of Action, including Avoidance Actions, held by the Debtors or their Estates as of the Effective Date and the proceeds thereof, other than any Claims or Causes of Action against the Released Parties that are released under Article VIII of the Plan (collectively, the "NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action") will be transferred to the Creditor Recovery Trust.

In addition to these NOLA Debtor Contributed Creditor Recovery Trust Causes of Action, certain creditors may have direct Causes of Action against certain third parties associated with the Debtors, their predecessors, or respective Affiliates that are not released under the Plan. However, it may be difficult and expensive for individual creditors to sue third parties for losses. Accordingly, creditors can elect to contribute direct Causes of Action to the Creditor Recovery Trust. By opting to contribute Causes of Action to the Creditor Recovery Trust, you are giving the Creditor Recovery Trust the right to pursue those direct Causes of Action on your behalf together with other creditors. As a result, the Creditor Recovery Trust will be able to use trust resources to sue on account of those direct Causes of Action, and all recoveries will inure to the benefit of all Holders that agreed to contribute their Claims. In other words, if the Creditor Recovery Trust prevails on any Claims that you contribute, those recoveries will be distributed among all creditors that elected to contribute their Contributed Claims and will not be distributed solely to you. For the avoidance of doubt, the decision to "opt in" to contribute Claims is entirely voluntary, and the failure to "opt in" does not prejudice any electing creditors' rights.

By electing such option, you agree that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, you will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed your Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Debtors or the Creditor Recovery Trust to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

☐ CONTRIBUTED CLAIM ELECTION: By checking this box, you elect to contribute your Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust

Definitions related to the Contributed Claims

Under the Plan, "Contributed Claim" means any direct Cause of Action that any Contributing Claimant has against any Person (other than a Debtor) that had a direct relationship with the Debtors, their predecessors, or respective Affiliates and that harmed such Contributing Claimant in the claimant's capacity as a creditor of the Debtors, including (a) any Cause of Action based on, arising out of, or related to the alleged misrepresentation of any of the Debtors' financial information, business operations, or related internal controls; and (b) any Cause of Action based on, arising out of, or related to any alleged failure to disclose, or actual or attempted cover up or obfuscation of, any of the Debtors' conduct prior to the Petition Date; provided, however, that Contributed Claims do not include (i) any derivative claims of the Debtors, (ii) any direct claims against the Released Parties, (iii) any claims that cannot be assigned under applicable law, (iv) any claim of a Holder of a Crown Capital Unsecured Claim against Piper Sandler & Co. or any of its Affiliates or representatives, and (v) any claim or cause of action against the Asset Manager or the Property Manager and such Entity's current and former subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, principals, members, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, and other professionals.

Under the Plan, "Contributing Claimant" means any Holder of a Claim or Interest that elects through its Ballot to contribute their Contributed Claims to the Creditor Recovery Trust in order for the Creditor Recovery Trustee to prosecute such Contributed Claims for their benefit.

RE: CBRM Realty Inc., et al.
Chapter 11 Case No. 25-15343 (MBK) (Jointly Administered)

TO ALL HOLDERS OF CLAIMS ENTITLED TO VOTE ON THE PLAN:

CBRM Realty Inc. and its affiliated debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors")[1] each filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court") on May 19, 2025 (the "Petition Date").

You have received this letter (the "Cover Letter") and the enclosed materials because you are entitled to vote on the Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 501] (as modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time, the "Plan"). On [●], 2025, the Court entered an order [Docket No. [●]] (the "Disclosure Statement Order"): (i) authorizing the Debtors to solicit acceptances for the Plan; (ii) conditionally approving the Disclosure Statement for the Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Crown Capital Holdings LLC and Certain of its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 503] (as modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time, the "Disclosure Statement")[2] as containing "adequate information" pursuant to section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code; (iii) approving the solicitation materials and documents to be included in the solicitation packages (the "Solicitation Package"); (iv) approving procedures for soliciting, noticing, receiving, and tabulating votes on the Plan; (v) establishing certain deadlines to opt to grant the releases set forth in the Plan; and (vi) approving procedures for filing objections to confirmation of the Plan.

YOU ARE RECEIVING THIS LETTER BECAUSE YOU ARE ENTITLED TO VOTE ON THE PLAN. YOU SHOULD READ THIS LETTER CAREFULLY AND DISCUSS IT WITH YOUR ATTORNEY. IF YOU DO NOT HAVE AN ATTORNEY, YOU MAY WISH TO CONSULT ONE.

In addition to this letter, the enclosed materials comprise your Solicitation Package and were approved by the Court for distribution to Holders of Claims in connection with the solicitation of votes to accept or reject the Plan. Please review these materials carefully and follow the instructions contained therein. The Solicitation Package consists of the following, as applicable:

d. the Combined Hearing Notice;

e. the Disclosure Statement as approved by the Court (and exhibits thereto, including the Plan);

f. the Disclosure Statement Order (without exhibits); and

g. any additional documents that the Court has ordered to be made available to Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes.

The Debtors have approved the filing of the Plan and the solicitation of votes to accept or reject the Plan. The Debtors believe that the acceptance of the Plan is in the best interests of their estates, Holders of Claims and Interests, and all other parties in interest. Moreover, the Debtors believe that any alternative to confirmation of the Plan could result in extensive delays and increased administrative expenses, which, in turn, likely would result in smaller distributions on account of Claims asserted in the Chapter 11 Cases.

THE DEBTORS STRONGLY URGE YOU TO PROPERLY AND TIMELY SUBMIT YOUR BALLOT CASTING A VOTE TO ACCEPT THE PLAN AND MAKING CERTAIN ELECTIONS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INSTRUCTIONS ON YOUR BALLOT.

THE DEADLINE TO VOTE TO ACCEPT OR REJECT THE PLAN AND OPT TO GRANT THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASE IS OCTOBER 10, 2025 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME).

NOTICE OF CANCELLATION OF AUCTION AND DESIGNATION OF SUCCESSFUL BID FOR THE NOLA PROPERTIES

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT, on August 15, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order (I) Approving (A) Bidding Procedures, the Sale Timeline, and the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof for the NOLA Properties, (B) Process for Selecting a Stalking Horse Bidder and Offering Bid Protections, and (C) Assumption and Assignment Procedures, and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 382] (the "Bidding Procedures Order")[2] that, among other things, (i) approved the (a) Debtors' bidding procedures (the "Bidding Procedures") in connection with the sale (the "Sale Transaction") of substantially all of the multi-family housing assets (the "NOLA Properties") owned by Debtors RH Chenault Creek LLC, RH Windrun LLC, RH Copper Creek LLC, and RH Lakewind East LLC to be implemented pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or pursuant to a chapter 11 plan and, in the event the Debtors received competing Qualifying Bids, scheduled an auction for the sale of the NOLA Properties (the "Auction"); (b) form and manner of the Sale Notice; and (c) procedures for the Debtors to potentially assume and assign executory contracts or unexpired leases to the successful bidder (the "Assumed Contracts") in connection with the Sale Transaction; and (ii) granted related relief.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT, on August 15, 2025, the Debtors filed the Notice of Proposed Sale of NOLA Properties, Bidding Procedures, Auction, Sale Hearing, and Confirmation and Sale Hearing [Docket No. 386] that, among other things, provided notice (i) of the potential Sale Transaction, the Auction, and applicable key dates and deadlines in connection with each of the foregoing, and (ii) that the Sale Transaction will be free and clear of liens, claims, and encumbrances, to the maximum extent permissible under applicable law and the order approving the Sale Transaction.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT, on August 21, 2025, the Debtors filed the Notice of Possible Assumption and Assignment with Respect to Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases of the Debtors [Docket No. 419], which provided notice that the Debtors sought to potentially assume and assign certain Assumed Contracts.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall Buyer's representations and warranties under this Section 7.1(b) apply to any person or entity which owns, has owned, or may hereafter own any publicly traded stock or other publicly traded securities of (i) Buyer (if any), or (ii) any Person which directly or indirectly owns an interest in Buyer.

Buyer's representations and warranties contained in this Section 7.1 shall survive the Closing and not be merged therein.

7.2 Seller's Representations and Warranties. Seller represents and warrants to Buyer as follows:

(a) Seller's Authorization. The obligations of Seller under this Agreement constitute and, as of the Closing Date, the obligations of Seller under the Closing Documents to be executed and delivered by Seller pursuant to this Agreement shall constitute, the valid and binding obligations of Seller enforceable in accordance with their respective terms, subject to entry of the Sale Order. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, but subject to entry of the Sale Order, neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement and Closing Documents to be executed and delivered by Seller pursuant to this Agreement nor the performance by Seller of the obligations of Seller hereunder or under such Closing Documents will (i) result in the violation of any applicable Laws or any provision of Seller's organizational documents, (ii) conflict with any order of any Governmental Authority binding upon Seller, or (iii) conflict or be inconsistent with, or result in any default under, any contract, agreement or commitment by which Seller is bound.

(b) Patriot Act Compliance. Seller is not acting, directly or indirectly for, or on behalf of, any person, group, entity or nation named by any Executive Order (including the September 24, 2001, Executive Order Blocking Property and Prohibiting Transactions With Persons Who Commit, Threaten to Commit, or Support Terrorism) or the United States Treasury Department as a terrorist, "Specially Designated National and Blocked Person," or other banned or blocked person, group, entity, or nation pursuant to any Law that is enforced or administered by the Office of Foreign Assets Control and Seller is not engaging in this Transaction, directly or indirectly, on behalf of, or instigating or facilitating this Transaction, directly or indirectly, on behalf of, any such person, group, entity or nation. Seller is not engaging in this Transaction, directly or indirectly, in violation of any Laws relating to drug trafficking, money laundering or predicate crimes to money laundering. None of the funds of Seller have been or will be derived from any unlawful activity with the result that the investment of direct or indirect equity owners in Seller is prohibited by Law or that the Transaction or this Agreement is or will be in violation of Law. Seller has and will continue to implement procedures, and has consistently and will continue to consistently apply those procedures, to ensure the foregoing representations and warranties remain true and correct at all times prior to Closing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall Seller's representations and warranties under this Section 7.2(b) apply to any person or entity which owns, has owned, or may hereafter own any publicly traded stock or other publicly traded securities of (a) Seller (if any), or (b) any entity which directly or indirectly owns an interest in Seller.

7.2.2 Personal Property. Except for the liens and security interests created in favor of the NOLA DIP Lender under the DIP Facility Documents and as provided in the Sale Order, the Personal Property to be transferred to Buyer is free and clear of liens, security interests and other encumbrances.

7.2.3 Rents. Except for the assignments of the interest of Seller in the Leases and Rents to the NOLA DIP Lender pursuant to the DIP Facility Documents, Seller has not assigned, transferred or hypothecated its interest in the Leases and Rents.

7.2.4 Third-Party Rights. Seller has not entered into any agreements currently in effect pursuant to which Seller has granted any Person any option to purchase, right of first refusal to purchase, right of first option to purchase or other preferential right to purchase all or any part of the Property.

7.2.5 Litigation. Except for the Bankruptcy Proceedings and those matters listed in Exhibit K attached hereto and by this reference made a part hereof, there is not currently or threatened in writing any pending action, claim, suit, litigation or other proceeding to which Seller is a party or which otherwise relates to the Property (including any condemnation proceedings).

7.2.6 Contracts. As of the Execution Date, Seller has not entered into or assumed any leases or other executory contracts affecting the Property which will be binding upon Buyer after the Closing other than Scheduled Contracts.

ARTICLE 8 - COVENANTS

Seller shall at all times comply with the requirements of the DIP Facility Documents until Closing and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the rights or obligations of the Parties under the DIP Facility Documents prior to Closing.

8.2 Compliance with Requirements of Orders. Seller shall comply with the requirements of all Orders.

ARTICLE 9 - DEFAULTS

9.1 SELLER'S REMEDIES FOR BUYER DEFAULTS. IF THE SALE OF THE PROPERTY IS NOT CONSUMMATED DUE TO ANY DEFAULT BY BUYER HEREUNDER, THEN SELLER SHALL BE ENTITLED, AS ITS SOLE REMEDY TO TERMINATE THIS AGREEMENT BY DELIVERY OF WRITTEN NOTICE TO BUYER AND OBTAIN AND RETAIN THE DEPOSIT AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES, WHEREUPON NEITHER PARTY HERETO SHALL HAVE ANY FURTHER OBLIGATION OR LIABILITY TO THE OTHER HEREUNDER EXCEPT WITH RESPECT TO SURVIVING OBLIGATIONS. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT SELLER'S ACTUAL DAMAGES, IN THE EVENT OF A DEFAULT BY BUYER ARE DIFFICULT TO DETERMINE AND THAT THE FOREGOING LIQUIDATED DAMAGES ARE REASONABLE. IN ADDITION, UPON SUCH TERMINATION, SELLER SHALL BE ENTITLED TO SELL THE PROPERTY TO ANY OTHER BIDDER.

9.2 BUYER'S REMEDIES FOR SELLER DEFAULTS. IF THE SALE OF THE PROPERTY IS NOT CONSUMMATED DUE TO SELLER'S DEFAULT HEREUNDER, BUYER SHALL BE ENTITLED, AS ITS SOLE REMEDY, TO TERMINATE THIS AGREEMENT BY DELIVERY OF WRITTEN NOTICE TO SELLER AND THE RETURN OF THE DEPOSIT, WHEREUPON NEITHER PARTY HERETO SHALL HAVE ANY FURTHER OBLIGATION OR LIABILITY TO THE OTHER EXCEPT WITH RESPECT TO SURVIVING OBLIGATIONS. BUYER SHALL HAVE NO RIGHT TO SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE TO THE EXTENT THAT ANY OTHER BIDDER IS AVAILABLE TO PURCHASE THE PROPERTY.

ARTICLE 10 - CASUALTY/CONDEMNATION

10.1 Right to Terminate. If, after the Execution Date, (a) any portion of the Property is taken by condemnation or eminent domain (or is the subject of a pending taking), or (b) any portion of the Property is damaged or destroyed (excluding routine wear and tear and damage caused by any of Buyer's Representatives), Seller shall notify Buyer in writing of such fact promptly after obtaining knowledge thereof. If the Property is the subject of a Major Casualty/Condemnation that occurs after the Execution Date, Buyer shall have the right to terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to Seller no later than ten (10) Business Days after the giving of Seller's notice, and the Closing Date shall be extended, if necessary, to provide sufficient time for Buyer to make such election. The failure by Buyer to terminate this Agreement within such ten (10) Business Day period shall be deemed an election by Buyer not to terminate this Agreement.

10.2 Allocation of Proceeds and Awards. If a condemnation or casualty occurs after the Execution Date and this Agreement is not terminated as permitted pursuant to the terms of Section 10.1 hereof, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Buyer shall acquire the Property or, if applicable, the remainder thereof, upon the terms and conditions set forth herein. Any Casualty/Condemnation Proceeds shall be allocated between Buyer and Seller as follows in respect of a Closing hereunder:

(a) Seller shall be entitled to be reimbursed from the Casualty/Condemnation Proceeds for proceeds of any rental loss, business interruption or similar insurance, or other compensation for loss of use or income, that are allocable to the period prior to the Closing Date, such sums to be applied in accordance with the requirements of the DIP Facility Documents; and

ARTICLE 11 - MISCELLANEOUS

11.1 Survival/Merger. Except for the provisions of this Agreement which are explicitly stated to survive the Closing, (a) none of the terms of this Agreement shall survive the Closing, and (b) the delivery of the Purchase Price, the Deed and the other Closing Documents and the acceptance thereof shall effect a merger, and be deemed the full performance and discharge of every obligation on the part of Buyer and Seller to be performed hereunder.

11.2 Integration; Waiver. This Agreement and the Sale Order embody and constitute the entire understanding between the Parties with respect to the Transaction and all prior agreements, understandings, representations and statements, oral or written, are merged into this Agreement. Neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof may be waived, modified, amended, discharged or terminated except by an instrument signed by the Party against whom the enforcement of such waiver, modification, amendment, discharge or termination is sought, and then only to the extent set forth in such instrument. No waiver by either Party hereto of any failure or refusal by the other Party to comply with its obligations hereunder shall be deemed a waiver of any other or subsequent failure or refusal to so comply.

11.3 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Laws of the State of Louisiana, without application of its choice of laws.

11.4 Captions Not Binding; Exhibits. The captions in this Agreement are inserted for reference only and in no way limit the scope or intent of this Agreement or of any of the provisions hereof. All Exhibits attached hereto shall be incorporated by reference as if set out herein in full.

11.5 Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

11.6 Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any persons or circumstances shall, to any extent, be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such term or provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable shall not be affected thereby, and each term and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.
