THE FOLLOWING FEES RELATE TO BENEFICIAL PROCESSING ONLY AND ARE NOT INTENDED TO REPRESENT CONTRACTUAL FEES FOR REGISTERED PROCESSING

PROCESSING UNIT AND INTERMEDIARY UNIT FEES: As set forth in the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) Rules 451 and 465 for its member firms and other self regulatory organizations who follow NYSE guidelines, these fees include processing related to obtaining all beneficial shareowner records, producing material requests, receiving materials to be distributed, coordinating the timing and method of distribution/delivery of such materials, distributing material, tabulating votes and issuing vote reports (if appropriate, as set forth by the NYSE) for your beneficial shareowners whose shares are held in accounts with banks or brokers represented by Broadridge.

Proxy Distribution (Non-Contested) – The combined Processing Unit & Intermediary Unit Fees will be billed incrementally as follows:

	Processing & Intermediary	Processing & Intermediary (Special*)
Positions 1 – 10,000:	$0.64	$0.69
Positions 10,001 – 100,000:	$0.60	$0.65
Positions 100,001 – 300,000:	$0.50	$0.55
Positions 300,001 – 500,000:	$0.43	$0.48
Positions ≥ 500,001:	$0.39	$0.44

Reminder Proxy Distribution Fees (Non-Contested)

$0.20 per position for Annual Meetings	$0.40 per position for Special Meetings*

*A special meeting is defined as a meeting other than the issuer ' s meeting for the election of directors.

Contests: Proxy distribution related to a meeting for which an opposition proxy has been furnished to shareholders. The Processing Unit Fee is $1.00 per position. There is an additional $0.25 per position Intermediary Unit Fee with a minimum of $5,000 per soliciting entity.

Interims: Communications that do not require voting (e.g. Quarterly Reports) are billed at $.15 for each shareowner position.

There is no charge for any nominee account that contains only a fractional (less than one) share of issuers ' securities or for any nominee account that is a managed account and contains five or fewer shares of issuers ' securities.

PREFERENCE MANAGEMENT FEE: As set forth by the NYSE, each beneficial account for which the nominee has eliminated physical proxy distributions through E-mail, Householding, Consolidation and ProxyEdge will incur a fee of $0.32 per elimination, and for physical proxy distributions for Managed Account positions eliminated the fee will be $0.16 per elimination. Eliminations for non-proxy distributions will be $0.10 for all eliminations. The Preference Management Fees are in addition to, and not in lieu of, the other fees.

There is no charge for any nominee account that contains only a fractional (less than one) share of issuers ' securities or for any nominee account that is a managed account and contains five or fewer shares of issuers ' securities.

ELECTRONIC BROKER INTERNET PLATFORM (EBIP): As set forth by the NYSE, there is a one-time success fee of $0.99 per full-package conversion to electronic distribution.

INTERMEDIARY NOMINEE COORDINATION FEE: As set forth by the NYSE, this fee relates to the coordination and consolidation of several processes on behalf of multiple nominees. This coordination results in a single search card, a single material request, a single record date confirmation, one shipment of material, greater occurrence of postage discounts, consolidated vote reporting (in time frames set forth by the NYSE) and issuance of one consolidated invoice. The fee charged is $22 for each nominee served by the intermediary that has at least one account beneficially owning shares of the issuer.

POSTAGE (OUTBOUND): (Canada, Domestic, Foreign, Priority, Standard, BPM, etc.). These charges represent rates established by the United States Postal Service (USPS) for the size and class of packages mailed. The number of pieces mailed may be less than the number of accounts passed to us from bank or broker clients: (i) if our clients ask us to suppress mailing to some investor accounts; (ii) if we do not receive sufficient material from you or your agent; (iii) if we transmit the material electronically; or (iv) if we combine material for multiple shareowners or accounts into one envelope. Broadridge will use alternatives to the postal service such as UPS Mail Innovations (UPSMI) if such alternatives provide equal or greater assurance of timely delivery. Further, at the expense of Broadridge, presort services may be employed to minimize postal service processing and therefore achieve postal discounts; provided that such presort services do not delay delivery. Broadridge passes through to the issuer a portion of the postal discounts, dependent on job size, realized by the use of alternative delivery or presort services.

BULK PROCESSING FEE: Represents processing costs incurred by Broadridge to prepare mail for Standard or Bound Printed Matter (BPM) postage. Standard and BPM postage is used only when expressly requested.

ENVELOPES AND FORMS: This represents Broadridge's cost for the type and quantity of envelopes and forms used to process your mailing. Typically, a proxy mailing will include a voting instruction form (Broadridge's version of an issuer proxy card), an outbound envelope and a business reply envelope (for vote returns). An interim mailing will typically include a name and address form and an outbound envelope.

VOTE REPORTING: Represents a charge to provide voting reports to you or your designee.

VOTE RETURNS: This charge includes all votes received through the period ending two weeks after the meeting date. Votes received by mail are charged at the lowest available cost from the USPS, and Broadridge passes along any available discounts (e.g. BRMAS). Votes received via telephone are charged at the lesser of $0.18 or Broadridge's cost. Votes received through ProxyEdge or through the internet are charged at Broadridge ' s cost.

NOTICE AND ACCESS PROCESSING FEE: This fee, as set forth by the NYSE, relates to services Broadridge must provide its bank and broker clients to support an issuer ' s adoption of the SEC Notice and Access rule for beneficial shareowners. Services provided by Broadridge to its clients to accommodate Notice and Access include creation of the " notice ", access to a standard landing page and shareowner portal, an Internet link allowing shareholders to view material, standard vote options, on-demand shareowner fulfillment and all related data processing.

There is no charge for any nominee account that contains only a fractional (less than one) share of issuers ' securities or for any nominee account that is a managed account and contains five or fewer shares of issuers ' securities.

This coordination results in a single search card, a single material request, a single record date confirmation, one shipment of material, greater occurrence of postage discounts, consolidated vote reporting (in time frames set forth by the NYSE) and issuance of one consolidated invoice. The fee charged is $22 for each nominee served by the intermediary that has at least one account beneficially owning shares of the issuer.

POSTAGE (OUTBOUND): (Canada, Domestic, Foreign, Priority, Standard, BPM, etc.). These charges represent rates established by the United States Postal Service (USPS) for the size and class of packages mailed. The number of pieces mailed may be less than the number of accounts passed to us from bank or broker clients: (i) if our clients ask us to suppress mailing to some investor accounts; (ii) if we do not receive sufficient material from you or your agent; (iii) if we transmit the material electronically; or (iv) if we combine material for multiple shareowners or accounts into one envelope. Broadridge will use alternatives to the postal service such as UPS Mail Innovations (UPSMI) if such alternatives provide equal or greater assurance of timely delivery. Further, at the expense of Broadridge, presort services may be employed to minimize postal service processing and therefore achieve postal discounts; provided that such presort services do not delay delivery. Broadridge passes through to the issuer a portion of the postal discounts, dependent on job size, realized by the use of alternative delivery or presort services.

BULK PROCESSING FEE: Represents processing costs incurred by Broadridge to prepare mail for Standard or Bound Printed Matter (BPM) postage. Standard and BPM postage is used only when expressly requested.

ENVELOPES AND FORMS: This represents Broadridge's cost for the type and quantity of envelopes and forms used to process your mailing. Typically, a proxy mailing will include a voting instruction form (Broadridge's version of an issuer proxy card), an outbound envelope and a business reply envelope (for vote returns). An interim mailing will typically include a name and address form and an outbound envelope.

VOTE REPORTING: Represents a charge to provide voting reports to you or your designee.

VOTE RETURNS: This charge includes all votes received through the period ending two weeks after the meeting date. Votes received by mail are charged at the lowest available cost from the USPS, and Broadridge passes along any available discounts (e.g. BRMAS). Votes received via telephone are charged at the lesser of $0.18 or Broadridge's cost. Votes received through ProxyEdge or through the internet are charged at Broadridge ' s cost.

NOTICE AND ACCESS PROCESSING FEE: This fee, as set forth by the NYSE, relates to services Broadridge must provide its bank and broker clients to support an issuer ' s adoption of the SEC Notice and Access rule for beneficial shareowners. Services provided by Broadridge to its clients to accommodate Notice and Access include creation of the " notice ", access to a standard landing page and shareowner portal, an Internet link allowing shareholders to view material, standard vote options, on-demand shareowner fulfillment and all related data processing.

There is no charge for any nominee account that contains only a fractional (less than one) share of issuers ' securities or for any nominee account that is a managed account and contains five or fewer shares of issuers ' securities.

ANCILLARY SERVICES: These fees relate to the issuer having chosen Broadridge to provide certain services.
