I know it's the tail wagging the dog, I'm embarrassed to be up here arguing about legal fees when I have constituents with $150 million of refund claims in their homes and health and welfare at risk, we're proud of the result of the bankruptcy proceeding. It was ugly, it was difficult, it was hard to watch, but I think the results, quite honestly, extremely beneficial to all the creditors of the estate, but I just don't think the bondholders should be allowed to limit administrative expenses in the plan. Thank you.

THE COURT: Mr. McCartin, and I'll have the same question for UMB, which is, you know, I'm faced with a, I mean, it may be the tail wagging the dog in the bigger plan but I'm faced with a bit of a conundrum. If I were to agree with the Committee that this is an 1129(a)(9) issue and, essentially, this provision has to be stricken, then what then? I guess my question is going to be for both parties, what hill do you want to die on? And I used that analogy and I'm already rethinking it, of course, but that's the question. Does the Committee believe I can excise this and say, no, it doesn't comply with 1129 and strike it, or do I send you back to the, do I sent the parties back to the drawing table? And then the question -- because I think what the bondholders are going to tell me, I'm rewriting their deal. I am rewriting the deal that they, as plan sponsors, agreed to because, you know, and I read between the lines of Mr. Bleck's statement, the days are running together, I think it was the end of the day yesterday, where he said, essentially, we need to know what the pecuniary loss is because at the end of the day they need to know what dollars they're playing with. And that's a perfectly acceptable statement from UMB because I do believe that we need to know what dollars we're dealing with, but I need to know what you guys are asking me to do. Are you asking me to not confirm the plan with this in it? And then I'll ask Mr. Bleck the same thing. If they're willing die on the hill of, you know, this is the plan, then I want to know what the parties are asking of the Court.

MR. McCARTIN: I have a legal answer and a practical answer, I think, for that.

THE COURT: I'll take them both.

MR. McCARTIN: Yes. I think legally the Court can't control and neither can the Committee control what the plan proponents write in their plan and if they write a clause in their plan that violates a Congressional statute for confirmation of a plan, that's their problem and if the Court says to them, your plan you brought to the Court is not confirmable under the law, it's just not and they have a decision to make, fix it or run the risk that the Court won't confirm their plan.

The practical guidance I think the parties need, would be for the Court to indicate its opinion about this provision and allow the parties to resolve it as we resolve thousands of other disputes in a Chapter 11. I don't have any power in this proceeding because, quite honestly, I feel stuck in the middle. The Committee feels that its professionals are stuck in the middle between the real issues, are the debtors' professionals. The debtors' professionals haven't been filing, well, Polsinelli hasn't been filing a lot of monthly fee invoices, so there hasn't been a lot of transparency, but I think they just filled last week, January, that was alone $560,000. The entire cap is a million five, for a five month period. We don't want to be diluted by a pro rata share of the million five, with debtors' counsel who's clearly running up a lot of fees.

I think there's a deal to be made there. The real issues, debtors' professionals and the bondholders and we're just -- I just wish they wouldn't have thrown the Committee professionals into this chess move, if you will. And the parties, if I were the court, you know, if the Court doesn't feel it has the legal authority to confirm this plan if it doesn't comply with the 1129, I would suggest, for case management, that the Court let the parties know and tell them they have an hour to go figure this out. But right now, it's a game of chicken, isn't it? Hey, Mr. McCartin --

THE COURT: Exactly the words that were in my head.

MR. McCARTIN: -- your clients are getting a result that you've supported and you negotiated hard for and you did a lot of work along with Committee members to formulate and paper and support, do you really, do you really want to risk that for three or four thousand, hundred thousand dollars for Foley and the answer is, I shouldn't be asked to pay for the cost of this bankruptcy proceeding, unless my fees aren't reasonable. If I didn't add value don't pay me, but if I added value, and I did my job, why should I have to pay for this plan? And I'll play that game with the bondholders or Lifespace. I'm not sure which of those parties ended up agreeing to pay the fees, clearly they didn't come to an agreement or they don't agree that they came to an agreement, but I think they all knew the fees were going to be closer to $3 million in the aggregate and they talked about a million five for the bondholders and a million five for Lifespace but, they just never came to an agreement, but we shouldn't be punished for that. I wasn't in the room, I wasn't involved. It's difficult, but, you know, if this works, you know, if this works on behalf of the bondholders, if they can propose a plan and throw in a paragraph that allowed administrative expense claims are capped for payment, that's going to change Chapter 11 throughout this country, I think. I think we're going to see it in every plan.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. McCartin.

MR. McCARTIN: Thank you.

MR. WALKER: Good afternoon, again, Your Honor. Eric Walker on behalf of Lifespace Community Bank.

I want to start my closing by echoing some of the comments that some of the other parties made and thanking the Court and the staff for your accommodations throughout this case. This has not been an easy case. We've had a lot of very long days here, but you, Your Honor, and your staff have been extraordinarily accommodating to all of the parties here and I just want to make sure that we expressed that gratitude for the Court's time and hard work throughout this process.

Lifespace does support confirmation of this plan which has been overwhelmingly approved by every class of creditors that was entitled to vote on the plan.

At the beginning of this case, Lifespace made it clear that it was committed to supporting Edgemere through this Chapter 11 process. As the Court knows, it's not been an easy case. There have been a lot of pivots along the way, there have been a lot of twists and turns over the past ten months, but throughout that process Lifespace never wavered in its support. Even now, where the plan proposes that Edgemere will be sold to a third party buyer, Bay 9, Lifespace has agreed to contribute more than $160 million to support the Chapter 11 plan, provide or augment the recovery to bondholders, pay resident refund claims in full and provide a mechanism to continue life care benefits for the residents of Edgemere and even pay the administrative costs for administering the payment of these refunds and benefits to residents.

Lifespace was not legally required to make those payments, but it had become clear in this case that Edgemere could not continue operating a life care community under a ground lease with a finite term. That is the extraordinary problem presented by this case. And that problem was compounded by a recalcitrant landlord that has been unwilling to negotiate. Consequently, the best and only available option for Edgemere, moving forward, is to convert from and entrance fee life care community to a rental community.

Despite these significant challenges, Lifespace has stepped in to provide an extraordinary solution. Residents will be protected by this plan in the sale of Edgemere to Bay 9. They can remain in their homes that they have grown to love at the Edgemere, albeit, under new ownership and new management and Lifespace has agreed to the settlement and contribution agreement that will provide funding to a residence trust, that will pay resident claims and subsidize their life care benefits moving forward for the duration of their stay at the Edgemere.

Now, Your Honor, the Court heard testimony from Nick Harshfield, the CFO of Lifespace, that Lifespace is committed to following through on its obligations under the settlement agreement and that Lifespace has the financial wherewithal to do it. The Committee and the residents, who have an economic interest in the settlement agreement, unanimously support its approval. You heard testimony today from Mr. McCartin, Committee counsel, that the settlement is fair and reasonable and should be approved in exchange for consensual releases under the standards of Rule 9019. All current and former residents who voted on the plan and the settlement agreement voted to approve it. No resident with an entrance fee refund claim elected to opt out of these consensual releases under the plan. This is a 100 percent unanimous approval of the plan and settlement agreement from those creditors and residents that have an actual economic interest in the success of the settlement agreement and of the plan.

The only party that's complaining about approval of settlement agreement is the landlord who has no economic interest in a settlement agreement. By now it's become clear that their objection is just the last in a long line of obstructionist tactics intended to derail the successful outcome for residents so that the landlord can take over the community for their own economic benefit. Their objection should be overruled.

We think this plan represents the best possible outcome for Edgemere, for its residents and the best possible exit from this Chapter 11 case and we join the plan proponents in requesting that the Court confirm this plan.

THE COURT: Thank you, very much, Mr. Walker.

MR. WALKER: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Mr. Bleck?

MR. BLECK: I can safely say, Your Honor, good afternoon. It's been a long day, it's been a long week, it's been a long 11 months. It's been quite the process over the last 11 months, as well. I think I've told you that I've been involved in senior living distressed facilities for the past 15 years. Actually have one more year over Mr. Johnson pre-dating Erickson.

And I would say this is the most difficult case we've ever faced as a bondholder, as a resident population, as creditors dealing with this particular issue which I think everybody has said stems from the structure of this transaction, its dealing with the ground lease. But, in addition, it's the motivation of the landlord's advisors and business partner associated with how this case was approached.

So we heard from the beginning that ICI, the landlord, was that their biggest fear from the beginning of this case was that the community was insolvent, it would not be able to resolve its issues, and that somehow the community and its residents would be hoisted upon the landlord to deal with. And the landlord said it had never faced such a situation before. They're a commercial landlord. They deal with commercial properties. So they needed some guidance to deal with this particular problem in the senior living space.

And so they retained their experts to guide them through this process. And through these industry experts led by Kong Capital, the landlord and its advisors have engaged in a 24-hour, 7-day a week process of planning for, as what we've heard, the contingency and to otherwise game plan the chance to maximize its interest in the ground lease.

Now we heard testimony in the prior proceeding before this Court that Kong Capital is an offshoot of a private equity firm in which two of its employees, quote, lifted out to wander out into the forest to find something for us to work on. As further noted by Mr. Schlicher, we like finding something that is a little bit broken and then understanding and seeing if we can get involved in it.

Well, Kong wandered around and found its next and apparently only project. It was the Edgemere. We heard testimony that Kong was investigating a, quote, opportunity at another Texas CCRC, The Buckingham in Houston, when counsel at the Attorney General's Office, the regulators, apparently alerted Mr. Schlicher to a, quote, bigger problem at the Edgemere. So then Kong then searched on the Internet to find out who owns ICI and then reached out to ICI. And Mr. Schlicher testified that ICI had, quote, just decided they didn't understand what to do when he called.

So, from the beginning, ICI, at the direction and advice of its advisors, undertook a path to create an atmosphere that the Edgemere was a sinking ship and hopelessly insolvent. Indeed, we heard right from the beginning on day one of this case that Mr. Schlicher from Kong was quoted in the Daily -- Daily, excuse me, the Dallas Morning News that, quote, I fear that the residents are in a sinking ship and some of them may not even know it.

Additionally, and as this Court highlighted, prior to the bankruptcy, ICI sent a letter on February 22nd to a number of parties, including the regulators and the Edgemere resident association, with the re line, quote, Edgemere, need for immediate attention. And this letter was recently highlighted in this Court's order on the motion to compel. This letter, among other things, expressly noted that the landlord believed that the Edgemere was on the verge of defaulting under its lease, that the lease would be terminated, and the property would revert to the landlord.

The letter went on to state that its expert industry consultant Kong has the necessary expertise and personnel to convert this community to a rental model. Of course, what the letter failed to address was what would the impact have been on the residents upon such a conversion relating to the refunds. And this narrative of insolvency, the sinking ship and the all out effort to terminate the lease continued through this bankruptcy process itself.

Time and time again ICI, through its advisors, proclaimed that it was, quote, indisputable that the debtors are or about to become administratively insolvent. And this was all in the context of public filings and during hearings as the residents and former residents listened and most likely not even understanding the context. Rather, these residents only heard the constant drumbeat that the Edgemere was hopelessly insolvent and it was just a matter of time.

In fact, we hear today from the ombudsman that once against tensions are very high at the Edgemere and understandably so. I mean, this has been an extremely difficult and long case. And what's the most frustrating thing about this case is that although things have changed dramatically for the best, dramatically, the landlord's advisors continue to pursue the strategy of suggesting there's no hope for the Edgemere.

This is despite the fact that the plan that's before the Court for confirmation resolves all of the issues that the Edgemere has faced. The plan is the culmination of various negotiations, adversarial positions, and separate and distinct plans. The Court has heard once exclusivity was lifted, there were competing plans and ultimately the parties, as typically works in a bankruptcy proceeding, get together, talk through the issues and come to a solution that works for everybody and that's exactly what happened in this case.

The UCC and the debtors abandoned their plan, the debtors became a joint proponent of the bond trustee and the bondholders plan and the UCC became a plan supporter. Additionally, Lifespace became the major contributor to fund the plan in which 100 percent of the refund obligations will be paid to residents. And, more importantly, the plan provides for the transfer of the community to an entity formed by Lapis Advisors which you've heard has deep experience in the senior living sector and has retained Long Hill as its manager/operator with also extremely deep experience in managing rental communities in the senior living sector and in particular Texas.

And on top of that, Bay 9, through the adequate assurance trial, has shown adequate assurance of future performance here, showing $57.5 million on its balance sheet. It's clearly sufficient to cover the $48.5 million of the purchase price and leaving 9 million in cash after the closing to address ongoing operating capital needs of the facility. And then, in addition, the sponsor behind Bay 9 has provided a further capital commitment of up to $15 million as additional insurance, as well as another million dollars placed in an escrow for rent under the ground lease.

But that wasn't the end of the story. As everybody said, this was a sale case. So we did retain, the bond trustee and bondholders retained RBC Capital to do a comprehensive market test. And as reported, RBC Capital Markets, which is one of the premier investment banking firms in the country in the senior living sector, ran a complete and fulsome process as provided for in Mr. Fields' declaration reaching out to more than 800 groups, including more than 1,500 individual contacts and 15 interested parties actually executed NDAs and various parties conducted due diligence and toured the facility.

Ultimately, no one submitted a bid, but it was widely marketed and offers solicited. And as Mr. Fields has said in his declaration, the ultimate indication of fair market value is a market test which is exactly what we had here. Ultimately, as I said, there were no offers received which we're a bit disappointed about because it goes directly to our recovery. Believe me, we would have loved to have seen a higher and better offer. We simply weren't able to obtain it. And we're here to confirm a plan where this community will be transferred over to Bay 9.

Notwithstanding that, we've heard arguments that somehow this sale process is tainted because the Plante Moran report, which put it in perspective here, the Plante Moran report was commissioned 18 months ago by the debtors in connection with a completely different purpose which was to negotiate a restructuring among the bondholders and the landlord and that was specifically testified to by Mr. Harshfield.

And as further testified by Mr. Fields, potential bidders were notified of a more recent property inspection report and he specifically said that that entity was available to bidders if they so desired. But he further testified that a potential bidder, if they were going to decide to move forward with an acquisition of this project, especially given all of the noise that was created by the landlord regarding the capital expense needs at the facility, they were going to hire their own independent party to do that assessment. They weren't going to rely on an assessment 18 months ago, let alone an assessment done fairly recently. They were going to have to do their own investigation.

And then I think, lastly, as this Court noted, the Plante Moran report would have only possibly suppressed a bid as opposed to help create a higher bid at the end of the day. So this noise about the fact that the sale process was somehow tainted, the evidence suggests completely the opposite. And, once again, we're trying to simply leverage any fact we can to jeopardize this process.

So I'm going to step back and talk about where we are with this plan and you've heard it from everybody else. But it solves $144 million of refund obligations. And it's not just solving it in terms of paying percentages on the dollar. The expectation is that they will be paid in full which is an extraordinary remedy here.

The plan also deals with the secure creditor of the bond trustee. It also deals with the unsecured creditors. But, more importantly, for the landlord, it deals with the basic structure of the community by converting this community to a rental community which is exactly what their advisors recommended and suggested from the beginning.

And, lastly, the community is being transferred to an entity that has the experience and knowledge in the senior living sector, but in addition is bringing on an owner and operator. But that wasn't good enough, Your Honor, associated with this how we reach this global settlement and resolved all of these issues. And I remember standing before the podium when we were proposing the plan, the joint plan among everybody and I shouldn't have, but I kind of joked that I said I think we're done with this case.

We're going to be assuming and signing the lease, the obligations will be cured, we'll be moving forward and I think that was my biggest mistake in the case and my biggest underestimation of this case because despite this I'm going to say eloquent because it was an eloquent solution and a universal solution to each and every one of these issues, ICI through its advisors continued its campaign of attempting to disrupt and otherwise avoid the outcome that everybody worked so hard to.

And what did they do? First, they provided an all out effort to destroy the economics of this deal which I'll get into in a second. Then it was a full court press relating to the question of the purchaser's ability to provide adequate assurance of future performance. And then the final point was a 42-page objection to confirmation of a sale case, a sale plan.

So first on the economics and I apologize for going through this again, Your Honor, but it just puts everything in perspective here. First, as you know, we developed this and I think people kind of look back and say maybe we shouldn't have done it this way, but we set up this tri-party process regarding the assumption and assignment of the lease. So we first started with the non-monetary cure costs, then we went to the monetary cure costs, then the adequate assurance of future performance.

And, as the Court knows, we set a bar date. We specifically set a bar date for the cure amount associated with the obligations outstanding under the lease because we needed to understand what the extent of the liabilities were. And on December 23rd the landlord filed a cure claim in excess of $63 million . And I'm going to choose my words very carefully. I know Your Honor has chosen her words very carefully. But I think it was a strategic move on the part of the landlord. Because if you look at the $63 million if that was truly the extent of the cure claim it would be impossible to confirm this plan. There's simply not enough dollars.

So when they filed that cure claim we filed -- we sent a letter saying we don't think you have the basis to assert this cure claim, at least the $52 million you're suggesting with CapX and they simply said no, we have a legal basis, we're moving forward with it. So we had to file that motion to strike. And it was probably one of the first times I had to file an emergency motion to strike which is almost like a Rule 11 over the holidays working through the end of December through January. And then ultimately we had a hearing on that motion to strike in the beginning of January, as the Court recalls. In that motion to strike --

THE COURT: One moment.

MR. BLECK: Yes.

MS. VANDESTEEG: Your Honor, I'm not one to stand up to object to closings, but this sounds a lot to me like relitigation of issues that have already been done and decided and determined in connection with the other two hearings. And I thought that we were here for closing on sale and adequate assurance and confirmation. And this seems to be going pretty far afield, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Ms. Vandesteeg. Again, the Court perceives this as the wrap up. This is the closing of the case.

MR. BLECK: Oh, I'm sorry.

THE COURT: And so what I'm going to allow, because again, I do recognize that we've had this trifurcated process and we've had closings on all these issues, but at the end of the day this is the sale hearing and this is a confirmation hearing. So I'm going to give UMB a little bit of leeway here. And I think that at every part of the case there's been various arguments that bleed to the litigation. They bleed, you know, to different parts. So given where we are, and this is confirmation, and we didn't have openings I'm going to allow some leeway here in terms of the argument. And I'll give the landlord the same.

MR. BLECK: Thank you, Your Honor. So as I said we were at the motion to strike stage and at the end of that hearing I think the Court, I'm going to choose my words carefully again, gave a give to ICI and said I'm going to give you a second chance to amend it. I'm going to give you that opportunity to amend because we heard from counsel that oh, no, no, that $52 million that we asserted as a cure isn't due today. It's a continuum of obligations.

So based upon that they filed an amended cure cost claim of $15.68 million. So a reduction of almost 70 percent. And then we went to a trial on it, on that $15.68 million. And then ultimately as the Court is aware you found that there was very limited amount of non-monetary damages that have incurred under the lease. In fact, you noted, Your Honor, that the landlord has all but abandoned the cure statement and closing likely based on the actual evidence adduced in favor of asking the Court to simply have the estate cure in the abstract without putting any number to the cure. So we got through that issue. I will say that it was minimal cost. We went from 52 million to 15.6 million to maybe a couple million dollars at the most.

And then we turned to the monetary portion of the claim. And you've heard these numbers before. They're astronomical. We started at an amount at the end of November of $8 million, they climbed to over $12 million at the end of January, and I think as I repeated yesterday I don't know where they are today. But it's an astronomical amount.

THE COURT: And I will ask that of ICI. I recognize it's a bit of an unknown, but I will ask essentially where the pecuniary loss is today. Because, again, I think that it bleeds into the overall issue of the amount of sale proceeds, the feasibility of the plan, and candidly I'm not unaware of how deals are struck.

MR. BLECK: And I appreciate that. I will also say that, and I think you've taken a look at my closing relative to the feasibility and some of the other issues, but there was an expectation on the part of the bondholders here with respect to a recovery. And as I started yesterday I had mentioned to the Court residents are being paid a hundred percent, bondholders are recovering. It was an estimate of 40 percent which is a 60 percent reduction which is a significant reduction. But every dollar that's included in the cure cost is a dollar reduction for the bondholders. And I'll just say it this way it does put the plan at risk because there is the option to withdraw the plan by the initial plan sponsors.

So I won't go through the trial and the adequate assurance of what the result was. But it was another four day trial in the adequate assurance as well. And then we turned to the 42 page objection, the confirmation. Which once again was just simply -- it's a sale plan. And most of the objections, and other people have raised this as well, are issues that have no impact on the landlord, but they continue to raise them.

With respect to the issues regarding the settlement reached with Life Space and the fact that the Committee stood behind that settlement, supports that settlement, there's a hundred percent unanimous consent to that settlement, and somehow we're taking testimony regarding that settlement.

We have these technical issues about the classification that Mr. Johnson addressed. We have an issue regarding the value of our secured claim in which there was uncontroverted testimony from Mr. Fields relative to what's the best indication of market value is which is a market test. And it went so far as to calling the claims agent, to cross examine the claims agent relative to modification of the plan itself and whether there was any discussion on the resolicitation. It's almost like we were in a law school exam where someone gives you a hypothetical and says tell me every single issue you possibly could think of regarding this plan.

So I'm going to go back to the beginning. We have a landlord who's professed that their biggest fear is that the community is going to be hoisted upon them and they're not going to know what to do. And as I said, Your Honor, we solved each and every one of their issues. And it's supported by each and every constituent except for essentially one. And why is that? As I said we heard testimony before where the landlord said that they have never been faced with a situation like this before and they're relying on their advisors. Indeed, they say they're on the phone with their advisors and Kong who's their industry expert on a daily basis to discuss the issues.

And who are these industry experts? Two individuals from a private equity firm who likes finding something that's a bit broken and then understanding and seeing if we can get involved in it. And it's an advisor and they've testified to the fact they've never been a consultant, whose only project appears to be the Edgemere, and whose role has been, and as this Court has found, more of a business joint venture relationship.

So sometimes when I get to the end of a case I always reflect on whether the plan on the table is a fair deal. No one's ever going to get everything they want. But you look at it and you say okay, was it a fair resolution? And no one can argue that this is not a fair resolution. The residents and former residents' refunds will be paid by the sponsor, the community will be preserved and otherwise maintained as a going concern. The bondholders, depending upon the results of the cure issue will receive a 40 percent return which is not a fantastic return here, but as I said given the circumstances I think it's a fair return.

But the fundamental issue is that the structure of the community will change to a rental model, the model that everybody including Kong has been pushing for to avoid the pitfalls of an entrance fee community with this ground lease and a defying term. ICI will receive a well capitalized tenant with a motivation -- and this is the key -- a motivation to be as successful as possible so that they can capture a return on their investment. As they've testified previously they're investment going forward is significantly greater than the investment they made in purchasing the bonds.

So the only way they get a return is if this community is successful. And that only occurs if there's no default going forward under the lease. And I'm going to be very frank, and the resident population is happy. Because growing up in this space we understand that the best investors and sellers of a community are the residents.

So, Your Honor, I would request that you overrule the objection and allow us to move forward to confirm this plan and be able to transfer this community and we can all move on from here.

Now with that I'll deal with the cap issue. I hate these issues. I really, really hate these issues. But we knew when we were negotiating the deal and we knew that when we had competing plans that we never thought that -- and I'll be very frank -- we never thought the debtor UCC plan was going to be confirmable. And we moving forward with our plan we were more than happy to go forward with our plan. And it was approached to us and said we can't confirm our plan. And you've heard this testimony by Mr. McCartin, and we're going to abandon our plan, we want to join your plan. And it made sense, because it consolidated the issues, it streamlined the process.

But we were also concerned about all the costs and expenses that were being incurred in this case, because once again, it's coming from the recovery from the bondholders. And so as part of that settlement, and I know that this is uncontroverted as well, the structure was that there was a cap on professional fees from December 1st going forward. Because we looked at it and said okay, what has to be done going forward relative to this case? And we said okay, we can afford another $1.5 million associated with this. And that was part of the global structure in which we agreed to invite the debtors into our plan and make the Committee a plan supporter.

Now Mr. McCartin says he always objected to that settlement, but he didn't object to it until the first amended plan had been filed. And even then it was only after January 10th when he filed his objection. And I understand that I don't think that this is the --- an issue where oh my God in every single plan now a debtor or a plan proponent can do this. This was a global settlement with an agreed to structure going forward including putting a box around the professional fees as opposed to all the other admin claims which we knew weren't at the table we would have to pay.

Now to your question about what do we do with this? No one wants to play a game of chicken on something like this. And I'm the last person that wants to do something like this with respect to what's hanging in the balance. So what I'm going to suggest, and it's not in my best interest, is that with respect to this -- if this is the only issue holding up confirmation give us an opportunity to see if we can work through this issue. I still think that there was a global settlement that everybody agreed to, that that was the deal that was on the table. But we're willing to have a discussion to see if we can resolve this issue. Because like I said, Your Honor, it is not my practice to play a game of chicken with respect to a case like this. So that's what I would suggest.

THE COURT: Thank you very much, Mr. Bleck.

MR. BLECK: Thank you.

THE COURT: And can I assume you stole Mr. Blythe's time?

MR. BLECK: I did, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. BLYTHE: Objection to that, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Exception noted. Mr. Williams.

MR. WILLIAMS: Good afternoon, Your Honor. A quick point of order. Mr. William Siegel who's not here with us today because he has COVID is remote and asked whether he could have one moment --

THE COURT: Of course.

MR. WILLIAMS: -- following me to just speak on behalf of his clients who are also former residents.

THE COURT: Please.

MR. WILLIAMS: Thank you, Your Honor. Benton Williams on behalf of the Estate of Patricia Adams, Pamela Siviglia, and Andrew L. Adams, former resident claimants. Your Honor, the former resident claimants they are creditors in this case. But first and foremost they are families mourning the loss of a loved one who deserve closure. These families made tremendous financial sacrifices so that their loved ones could move to what they believed was the best care facility possible. They did that. And for years, long before any attorney in this courtroom was involved, for years these families have been mourning the loss and have been in search of closure.

At dinner tables throughout the city and in homes across this country and certainly with us today in the remote courtroom many, many families do not know whether the financial sacrifices that they made from their own bank account will be returned to them so that they can pay for their own life care.

This plan is not perfect. It does present -- Your Honor, it does present the best effort that these parties have to move on and to receive the money that they are owed so that they can pay for their own life care. Lifespace has agreed to make the $52 million payment on the effective date and has agreed to make an additional nondiscretionary 11 plus million dollar payment the following year.

Mr. Harshfield, under penalty of perjury testified before Your Honor yesterday that regardless of whether these bonds close next month he will pay the effective date payment and the payment the year after that. We trust that Mr. Harshfield will honor the oath that he made to this Court. We do believe that this is in the best interest of these families. We respectfully ask, Your Honor, that you confirm this plan. I want to, and my clients as well want to thank Your Honor specifically for the thoughtful attention and great effort that you've given throughout this case taking time off from your time off as Ms. Green mentioned just to hear us. Especially for families that are mourning that means the world to them. Because for many years, and I mean that, for many years they've not had that. So we thank you, Your Honor, we thank the Court staff. And with that I would yield my time to Mr. Siegel.

THE COURT: Thank you very much Mr. Williams.

MR. WILLIAMS: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Mr. Siegel.

MR. SIEGEL: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you. I really wasn't planning on saying anything, but when I heard there may be an issue on solicitation, I don't know how strong that argument is, but I felt at least I just want to be brief and say something relevant to that. The refund trigger date definition and the treatment of the former residents and the fourth amendment plan is a substantial improvement from the third amended plans. The payment to former residents allowed, a claim being made no later than 60 days after October 31, 2025 even if the resident has not been leased. And I just remind the Court under the third amended plan the former residents stood to be paid in 18 years. And this was a huge concern that we raised at the disclosure statement hearing.

I'll also point out that negotiations for this language took place over a significant period of time. And Ms. McCartin was very much involved and assisted in the enhancement of the treatment of the former and current residents. We support the confirmation of the plan. Thank you.

THE COURT: You're very welcome. And best wishes on a speedy recovery.

MR. SIEGEL: Thanks, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I'm beginning to believe I'm bad luck for Mr. Siegel. I've seen him now in a walking boot, now he's got COVID. It's not me.

MR. SIEGEL: You're right, Your Honor, it's not you. I'm breaking down.

THE COURT: Have a good day.

MR. GOLD: People say it' a tough case. This is a new definition. Good afternoon, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Good afternoon, Mr. Gold.

MR. GOLD: Again, Ivan Gold, Allen Matkins, co-counsel for ICI. Today was, for me, as a relatively new entrant into the case. It was a trip down memory lane that I didn't travel previously and there were moments where I wondered what case I was delivering my closing argument in. A lot of the history of this case is not particularly relevant today. Some of it is, but a lot of it isn't. We heard about events that occurred prior to the filing, we heard about negotiations and posture that was taken in the early stages of the case. I'd like to spend most of my time talking about the actual ground lease, the actual provisions of the bankruptcy code, and the actual evidence before the Court.

There are 16 requirements of Section 1129A that are the focus of all confirmation hearings. It's unquestioned that the plan proponent or proponents bear the burden of proof of establishing that each of these requirements has been satisfied and indeed the current form of proposed order acknowledges that. The Court is charged also with the responsibility for determining whether the debtor has proven each of the required elements of 1129.

The plan sponsor's ongoing and continued attempts at demonization of the landlord and ad hominem attacks on the professionals do not modify the plan requirements in Rule 1129. As this Court knows the landlord did not default on the ground lease. The landlord did not cause the lease to come within termination three weeks prior to the petition. The landlord did not file this bankruptcy proceeding. They are an involuntary participant. ICI was not included in any consensual plan process because of the adversary proceeding.

Indeed, you heard this morning from Mr. McCartin how difficult it was to even get permission for the landlord to speak to the Committee. It's also important to remember some positions the plan sponsors and the debtors took relative to we'll just pick on assignment and assumption of a lease. Let's not forget the debtor's original position was that the cure was zero. Let's not forget that the debtor and the buyer agreed to an APA that did not include a complete assignment of the lease going out of its way to exclude certain liabilities that would otherwise been part of a complete assumption.

Yes, the second APA -- the second amended APA filed Monday morning fixed most of that. But that was Monday morning. The issues regarding the AP were the subject of multiple pre-hearing briefs, multiple days of testimony, Your Honor's comments at the conclusion of my motion during the adequate assurance hearing, and it still took over a week.

We heard today from a number of the attorneys on how long they've been practicing in various areas. So I'm going to do it, too. I've been basing my practice around Section365 for over 30 years. My first appearance in this courthouse was over 20 years ago in front of a new Judge, Harlin Hale in the Gadzucks (phonetic) case. And in that case we actually tried one day trial -- I know that seems quaint in the context of this case -- we had a one day adequate assurance hearing.

THE COURT: Not surprising for Hale.

MR. GOLD: But, Your Honor, the adequate assurance issues relating to the form of APA and the scope of assumed liabilities had been resolved before the hearing even started, because that's what usually happens. So everybody talks ab out how usual through their lens this case is. I'm telling you through my lens this case is very unusual. But all the same our focus today which is the sale and confirmation hearing must be on the ground lease and the applicable provisions of the code. And that focus must be on what are the legal standards that must be met for the lease to be assumed and assigned, and the standards for confirmation of a plan that is premised on that sale?

So let's start with 1129. We'll look primarily at 1129(A)(1). The plan complies with the applicable provisions of this title. 1129(a)(3) the plan has been proposed in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law. And 1129(a)(11) confirmation of the plan is not likely to be filed by a liquidation, the need for further financial reorganization of the debtor or any successor to the debtor under the plan unless such liquidation or reorganization is proposed in the plan.

There'll be a couple other code sections we'll talk about.

And also we heard a lot of good faith/bad faith prior to me going to the podium. I want to talk about good faith. Good faith is an inherent requirement which runs throughout the entire bankruptcy code. Because as the practitioners even older than I am like to say, because the bankruptcy court is a court of equity, but we must remember it's also a court of law. But also because of the fluidity of bankruptcy proceedings. And certainly we've heard from counsel on the other table this case has been fluid. Equity demands a balancing of the competing needs of the various constituencies. And that takes us to 365. Section 1123(b)(2) says a plan may provide for the assumption and assignment of a lease, quote, subject to Section 365 of this title.

So even though we're trying to confirm a plan through a sale the requirements of 365 still apply. This is about the ground lease exhibit 5(e). It's about the com honoree or as is assignment of the ground lease as it is. Not as the debtors or Bay 9 wished it to be. It's not about the adversary proceeding. So we know before assigning the lease the debtor must assume it first. And if the debtor wants to assume the lease and Bay 9 wants to step into the debtor's shoes through assignment it must comply with 365.

So the Court has already addressed cure and I'm not going to relive that except as it relates to the proposed order at the end of my argument. But now we're here with respect to adequate assurance of future performance. And as I mentioned we've taken a big step through the second amended asset purchase agreement. The so-called donut hole which I'll thank Ms. Walker for it, proved she read our brief. The donut hole was filled. And that's great. She also addressed, and it was the second half of your comments and one we'd all been thinking of, how to deal with the fear, and I think it was fear, of the default the next day and the material change, language that's found there is satisfactory.

I was working on something very similar. But I think that was kind of obvious because the fact is Your Honor's ruling well not yet final, because things anew being submitted to you that will require supplementation of your thoughts, but never the less there was enough collateral estoppel in there that stuff would have had to change for us to declare a default. So it's a satisfactory solution.

There are some technical aspects. We mentioned the typos. Those have been fixed. There are a few minor issues I'll mention, again, at the end when we're talking about the proposed order. But that part of adequate assurance is largely satisfied as we sit here this afternoon. But while the structural issues are resolved we're still left with the more conventional financial aspect of adequate assurance. And Ms. Walker cited, we've all cited it, and Judge Jernigan and senior care centers 2019 case that the primary determinate of adequate assurance, a further performance is whether an assignee can meet its rental -- the keys words -- and other leases obligations. It's not just limited to room.

And as I previously argued to you adequate assurance is a facts and circumstances evaluation that's determined on a case-by-case basis. And the Fifth Circuit opinion in Texas Health Enterprises -- another healthcare case, stands for that proposition. But we've cited other materials in our brief. And the parties also agree adequate assurance can take many forms. But as we've stated previously the facts and circumstances of this case is this is not your ordinary garden variety lease. This is a long-term ground lease that has almost 32 years left on it's term. The lease premises are aver 16 acres, we have a multi building continuous care retirement community, CCRC that current has over 300 residents. This isn't in a box in a shopping center or a ware house or logistics facility or a multi-family apartment building. This is a large complex campus under a long-term ground lease where the annual rent is over $4 million a year. That's our context.

When we look at cases talking about oh, you know, a security deposit of $50,000 some bankruptcy judges help us and actually tell us how big that lease is somewhere in the beginning of the opinion. You'll be hard pressed to find many cases involving property this big and leases this substantial and leases with this much remaining term. So those are our facts and circumstances. And that's the lens of adequate assurance in this case.

You previously heard evidence of the condition of the property, the deferred maintenance, some of it gives rise to a default, some of it doesn't, but everyone agrees that the property needs work. Maybe not today, maybe not tomorrow, but soon. And those are part of the lease obligation. I have a demonstrative, Your Honor. There's a lot on here, Your Honor, and I'm not going to read it all to the Court. In fact, just a window, the decision to put the highlights in red that was my recommendation to make it easier to read.

But this tries to incorporate Your Honor's ruling factually. And we've seen it expressed in other ways in some of the charts. Indeed the attachment to the second amended APA just does in a different format. So the left side of the line is the stuff, the conditions that are underway that you identified. The ones that are highlighted in gray are things that require further investigation, and a further report to the Court. But this is what's underway. That's the cure.

But let's move to the right. On the right side of the line are things that were identified, and we picked the Terracon report for purposes of this chart, these are things that are coming. Not necessarily tomorrow, not the day after closing, but these are closing. One we focused a lot on was the roof. Roofs have fixed lived. They can be extended with good maintenance. But at some point, like a car, it just needs to be replaced. There's 32 years left on the lease. It's not inconceivable the roof will have to be replaced twice.

There are other things that were identified as in approaching the end of their useful life. This is the to do list. Again, is it tomorrow? No. Is it the day after closing? No. But is it over the term of the lease, or as we saw from Terracon they estimated $24 million over the next ten years subject to further investigation. We might find new stuff. There could be surprises. I once represented a landlord in a little bankruptcy called General Motors where in the middle of the cure process there was a good North Texas hale storm and some designer decided that it would be great to have natural light in a giant warehouse so in North Texas the property had 200 skylights. I don't think they'd do that anymore. Things happen.

So we also, let's not forget over a shorter period Arch projected 18 million. So these are among the obligations. These are among the obligations of the lease being assumed that the assignee will be responsible for in addition to over $4 million in rent. Because leasing a property is different from owning a property. An owner can postpone stuff a lot more than a tenant can because a lease has obligations to maintain the property and do certain things at certain times. An owner -- we've all had neighbors whose heat's been broken for a year or their air-conditioning is out for two months. We've all -- you can do that as an owner. But it's your responsibility to maintain as a tenant. If you're going to comply with the terms of the lease you have less flexibility.

So who is our assignee here? It's Bay 9 Holdings, LLC. And it is undisputed that Bay 9 is a newly formed special purpose entity, a new co, and I agree with Ms. Walker that that is a frequent vehicle used to buy stuff in bankruptcy. But while a new co might work in certain contexts does a new co work when you are assuming liabilities of the magnitude of this ground lease? Applying a new co to adequate assurance of future performance and the standards articulated by Section 365 and the cases Bay 9 has no operating history, it has no employees.

Now, its principles are affiliated with Lapis Advisors, LP. And there is no question that Lapis has a history of investing in distressed debt in special situations in over 40 senior living projects. We heard the testimony of Mrs. Hatch who's certainly experienced in that field. That field. But investing through bank or bond debt in the owners of 18,000 or more units, which was her testimony, is not the same as being a tenant under a ground lease with 32 years to go. How does her experience translate here?

Lapis first became involved in the Edgemere by buying a portion of its bond debt At a discount because that's what Lapis does. That's their business. But Mrs. Hatch testified that she'd been monitoring and was familiar with the Edgemere for over six years. And through the SPE structure there's actually multiple entities, Grenelle Holdings, LLC is the sole member of Bay 9 and its parent. And then Grenelle is in turn owned by Lapis Municipal Opportunities Fund IV. We call them Fund IV and I'll continue to do so.

It is Fund IV that acquired approximately $22 million of debt, the bond debt of the debtor earlier last year. Mrs. Hatch testified it was approximately 22/23 percent of the bond debt. But it's also important to remember that Fund IV became part of the DIP lender here. So notwithstanding those roles here is it equally important to remember that Lapis has only once been a direct owner and operator of a senior living community. Mrs. Hatch identified a property called the Heritage of Green Hills in Shillington, Pennsylvania. And I know Pennsylvania pretty well. I had to look up that it's near Reading. And it was bought in 2019. And I think it's really important to note that Lapis sold it within three years.

Now Mrs. Hatch testified that they built new facilities, they invested in the property, but, Your Honor, that's a flip. That's their one experience in owning and managing a piece of property in the senior living space rather than investing in bank or bond debt. And it's important to note as well that during that time Lapis did switch managers. It went through two managers during that process.

So given their relative lack of operating experience Lapis, through Bay 9, turns to the Long Hill at Edgemere, LLC. Another new co, but affiliated with the Long Hill Company. And the Long Hill Company is an experienced operator. Although there is testimony that while they are reputable and experienced operator they have never been in a situation like this where we are moving from an entry fee CCRC to a rental model.

And it's important to remember that Long Hill who was initially retained by other parties assisted Bay 9 with financial projections and those projections appeared in the document we talked about a lot, the infamous Bate stamp Bay 29 which is Bay 9's Exhibit 10. And that report used two sources, the Long Hill's model and the property condition report prepared by Arch Consultants. You heard about Arch quite a but in the cure phase. They were initially retained by the plan sponsors. But we also know that Bay 9 had the benefit of the Plante & Moran report and you now have the testimony of Mr. DeHenau.

So Bay 9 synthesized this material into the projections we see in Bay 29 and they lost almost under those projections if everything goes according to script, everything goes according to plan they lose $8 million in year-one, 7.9 in change more accurately. So again, as part of the process this gets back to my earlier comment. Originally the capitalization of the buyer was to be 48 5. And through the process nine million was added to the capitalization. Didn't start that way, but that's where we are today. Just like we didn't start with the second amended APA.

And if everything goes according to plan under Long Hill's projections Bay 29, it's a negative nine million. It's almost $8 million in that first year, almost taking down the entirety of that capitalization, the working capital the new co starts with. But that's their plan. There's no wiggle room. There's no flexibility, and its questionable whether they have the resources to deal with -- to use Your Honor's term -- a black swan event that could occur in this type of community.

Now, in response you heard the testimony of Mr. Polsky who again agreed while Long Hill was a reputable operator their assumptions he described as not only overly conservative, but fundamentally flawed considering some market realities. Operating expenses appear to be understated compared to historical averages, his inflation rate was unrealistically optimistic. All we do is look at CNN yesterday. The turnover projections were far lower than industry averages for rental independent living communities. The move-in projections were aggressive according to Mr. Polsky's testimony.

But you also heard from Mr. Polsky how Lifespace's ability to fund the settlement under the plan and whether the funds are truly going to be available on the effective date would impact those projections. So given those projections and those projected operating losses part of the adequate assurance due, what was landlord offered? Again, two versions. We saw the first Lapis commitment letter was vague, but we do have the second Lapis commitment letter, and it had two elements. The first was a million dollar commitment across three years for the payment of rent. And it's important to remember again context, that's three months rent, not even. That's big number, but so is the rent.

So that's the highest amount of stress they can handle, three months rent? So there's a separate commitment in this letter, the $15 million commitment. It's described as the CapX commitment, but the text of the letter does say that it's available for working capital. And Mrs. Hatch testified that in fact rent is included potentially. It's a second source of rent. But if you follow the Long Hill projections they're already taking a dip into this letter in year two, right out of the box.

And again, remember, Mr. Winnecke testified that his 18 million over five years which becomes part of the Long Hill model did not even include unit turnover remodeling expenses. So is there enough money? But is this commitment real? It's a commitment from Lapis -- a Lapis entity Fund IV to Bay 9. It's not a commitment to the landlord. It's not a guarantee. What happens if Fund IV refuses to pay its subsidiary? Is that skin in the game? Is that commitment enforceable by any other party? The document expressly disclaims third party beneficiary status to anyone.

Among the cases we've cited to the Court is Res Tech which can be found at 624 F.3d 376. It's a Seventh Circuit case from 2010. And there the Court denied the assignment of four executory contracts to a third party. And in the Seventh Circuit opinion Res Tech talks about the fact that the assignee needed financing to perform under the lease and had received a commitment from a party that intended to provide it, but the assignee had, quote, no enforceable right to demand this financing. And the Seventh Circuit under those circumstances observed that the bankruptcy judge was, quote, understandably skeptical, close quote, that the assignee would sue its one affiliates. That's the commitment letter here.

Another element of adequate assurance of future performance is the outlook in the industry. And here that's not particularly favorable. A few examples, a non-exhaustive list, the Buckingham in Houston just emerged in 2022 and is already potentially in default. The Amsterdam at Harborside filed a bankruptcy in 2021. We heard from Mr. Harshfield about the Stayton which had a pre-packaged bankruptcy in late 2019 emerging in 2020. And we heard about the financial condition at the Stayton as well as reference to it in some of the reports to the bondholders. We have the Mirador in Corpus Christi filed in February of 2019.

So all the adequate assurance factors point to something is necessary to provide adequate assurance here given the magnitude of the lease obligations, given that the status the new co status of the proposed assignee, given the operating projections, their own projections. They've even of right shown negative numbers. But nothing is offered beyond the commitment letter.

So Ms. Walker talks about what I call the four corners rule. You got to stay within the boundaries of the lease. The answer to that is no. That's not what the code says. Because if we were staying within the four corners of the lease the landlord would have a consent right. But 365(f) replaces that with this. But just as the code section taketh, it giveth. I talked at the beginning about balancing. That's the job of the code and the job of the Court. 365 represents a series of competing measures that provide the balance in the assignment process.

Remember as I said previously assignment is a judicially compelled novation. This is not a transaction. The landlord did not choose to have its tenant in bankruptcy, and the landlord did not choose to have its lease assigned and have its consent right taken away. So we're already outside the four corners of the lease. So we have 365(b) which has cure. We've bot (b)(1)(B) pecuniary loss. We've got (b)(1)(C) adequate assurance. We have (f)(2) adequate assurance in the event of an assignment even if there's no default. Another interesting provision, of course, is 365(k) which again modifies the lease by saying that if we assign the debtor's off the hook. The estate has no lingering liability. That's the underpinning of the complete assignment requirement. But again, that's contrary to a provision of the ground lease.

So while the code taketh it giveth back with adequate assurance. But there's also 365(l). And 365(l) is pretty plain. 365(l) simply says that in the case of an assignment the lessor may require a deposit for the performance substantially the same, quote, as would have been required by the landlord upon the initial leasing to a similar tenant. The best attack on 365(l) is can't find any cases. It's in Colliers. It's in the code. The language is pretty straightforward. There's not an excuse to ignore it. And it's part of the balance that's provided by 365.

Interesting as part of the four corners argument Ms. Walker also said she attacked the 2300 Xtra Wholesalers case. And she said the parties agreed there. And candidly, Your Honor, she must be reading a different opinion than I am, because the language is pretty clear in the text of the opinion that the bankruptcy court ordered, ordered an additional security deposit and funds to be escrowed. That case is at 445 B.R. 113. That's an appeal to the District Court of the SDNY from the Bankruptcy Court. There they ordered a five year security deposit. Now, that was only a 35,000 square foot lease. The rent was lower, there was lower exposure. But that case, and we've cited others in our briefs.

So you heard the testimony from Mr. Hannon who testified that if Bay 9 was presented as a tenant outside of bankruptcy context probably wouldn't do the deal in the first instance, that the situation today is different than it was in 1999. Graystone's level of experience is different than what's being presented today. The building was backed by bonds. It was new or was going to be new, because they were using some of that money to rebuild some of the buildings there. But today in 2023 we have a distressed operation --

THE COURT: How is being backed by bonds more financially secure than not being levered?

MR. GOLD: Because the question is by how much? And given the model at the time. I think it's unfortunately --

THE COURT: Weren't the bonds to build the improvements?

MR. GOLD: Primarily. Not exclusively, but primarily. But that only increases the value of the property.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. GOLD: Makes the property more secure would be the -- in terms of security for the ground lease performance. New buildings are skin in the game, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Well, I understand. The buildings are there now, right?

MR. GOLD: Yes. But you also heard from Mr. Hannon that ICI regularly requires that its future and potential tenants provide security for leases. And he identified multiple types of things that he would look to that included deposits, parent guarantees, third party guarantees, personal guarantees from a principle, letters of credit, prepaid rent. But something the landlord could enforce. If there was a failure performance something the landlord could enforce. And Bay 9 is not proposing that.

It's also important to remember just like there's no four corners rule there's also no only game in town rule. You don't change the requirements of 365 just because there's only one party before you. The requirements need to be met. And the fact that someone is the only bidder can't be leveraged to get a better deal under the code. The requirements are there for a reason, because we're not using the four corners of the lease. Just for that reason you can do what you've been told you cannot. The cases allow you to order stuff. You will see examples in our brief of cases pre-paid rent, escrow. These things have been ordered. Yes, most of the time parties offer and parties agree. But that doesn't mean that you can't order or you can order it conditionally. I will not approve it unless you do X. The case law permits that. There are too many examples.

So we have other issues with the plan and I will tie them to adequate assurance and future performance. First, Lifespace is contributing $16.5 million to the bondholders. Why? What is that payment for? The third amended disclosure statement which you approved says Lifespace has further agreed to pay 16.5 million to the Trustee on the effective date for distribution to current holders of the original bonds pursuant to the terms of the original bond documents as a settlement of any potential claims the Trustee may have against Lifespace.

The Fifth Circuit says in order to approve a compromise under Rule 9019 the settlement must be fair, equitable and the best interest of the estate. That's Jackson Brewing at 624 F.2d 605, a venerable 1980 Fifth Circuit decision. But newer case law teaches us that there are five factors that the Fifth Circuit has considered in the fair and equitable analysis, the probability of success of the litigation, the complexity and likely duration of the litigation and resulting expense and convenience and delay. Also related to that is difficulty in collection. The paramount interest of the creditors and a proper deference to their respective views, the extent to which the settlement is the product of arms length bargaining and not fraud or collusion and any other factors bearing on the wisdom of the compromise. That's In re Moore, 608 F.3d 253.

With respect to this compromise you heard no evidence to support those findings. You heard testimony from Mr. Harshfield that he was unaware of any potential litigation claims against Lifespace. We certainly didn't hear what those potential claims were. We didn't hear what exactly was being settled. The debtors and the plan sponsors didn't offer any evidence. Compare that to what we heard from Mr. McCartin this morning with respect to the residents' trust settlement where he went through each and everyone of those factors. We didn't hear any of that from Mr. Harshfield. This supposedly, according to disclosure statement, is a payment to the bondholders pursuant to terms of the original bond documents. But the bondholders were classified in this plan without regard to the value of their collateral. Why are the bondholders not unsecured creditors at least as to the portion of their claim on the bonds? Ordinarily classification is based on the face amount of the bonds.

Does this comply with Section 1122? Does this comply with Section 506(a) that requires that allowed secured claims are only secured to the extent of the value of such creditor's interest in the estate's interest in the property? And undersecured claim is to be bifurcated.

Look at Exhibit 27. That's the 2017 series bond indenture official statement at Pages 17 and 18. And it says right there, and Mr. Bleck referred to this, security interest securing the notes is of limited value. The lien on the leasehold estate and lien on the property granted under the master indenture provides limited security. Little property that is subject to the liens consists of the general purpose buildings suitable for industrial or commercial use. Consequently it would be difficult to find a buyer or lessee for the property and upon default the bond trustee or the mast trustee may not obtain an amount equal to the aggregate liabilities of the obligated group including liabilities with respect to -- in respect of the bonds then outstanding from the sale or lease of the property.

Yes, there was 48 5 acquired or to be acquired through the sale. Was any effort made to value the respective interest? The bondholders didn't have a lien on everything. And it certainly wasn't the lease that was driving the value, because you've heard from day one in this case that the lease is above market. But there was no appraisal. There was no valuation. Mr. Harshfield's declaration at Docket Number 1243 in support of the plan contained no description of that. And my questioning of him also we discussed the fact that the debtors filed previously in connection with an earlier plan such a motion in connection with an earlier plan proposal and later withdrew it. Those are Dockets 824 and 886. The withdrawal was in December.

This is also not a payment to the estate. This is not going into the estate to be distributed according to the code. This is a sweetheart deal with the bondholders. This is a direct payment. We heard one description of it was effectively the price of participating in the plan. Does that elevate the bondholders to a greater recovery than they might be entitled to applying the bankruptcy code? The debtors aren't a party to the agreement. Mr. McCartin testified the Committee had no role in that settlement. Yet Lifespace is a released party under the plan. They're defined as such in Section 1.135.

It's important to look at that. So they're making -- a non-debtor is making a payment to a non-debtor, yet getting a release. And the other part of the plan release that includes Lifespace is the fact that they're getting a release even though they're not required to make a payment to the resident trust.

THE COURT: So explain to me, Mr. Gold, it seems to me there are a variety of affected parties under the lease. A variety of parties that may not be made whole in some way. Is the landlord one of them?

MR. GOLD: Yes. Let me tell you why.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. GOLD: And this is why even -- and this is a problem of the debtor's own making. Even if -- it's 365 requires us to be made whole with respect to the categories that are there. But the adversary turns that on its head. Because if the landlord wins the adversary the landlord -- first, it's stayed right now. The landlord could have a contractual entitlement to recovery of attorney's fees. The landlord could have, once the action is unstayed, a counterclaim for which it would have damages. So the landlord -- that could or could not be, again, depending on your ruling, outside the scope of pecuniary loss because pecuniary loss you could determine it is included, you could determine it's not included. But if it's not included we are just as much a potential creditor as anybody else. There's no place to go.

THE COURT: And you were going to sue Lifespace?

MR. GOLD: Potentially.

THE COURT: Okay. Is your counterclaim against Lifespace?

MR. GOLD: I don't believe it is now.

MR. VANDESTEEG: No.

MR. GOLD: But it would be precluded. But it's also it's not just --

THE COURT: So what are the landlord's objection to the bondholder settlement? Where is the effect on the landlord to the bondholders receiving funds as part of the settlement?

MR. GOLD: Two. One is the Lifespace release, and two, to the extent the bondholders are getting more than they would be if the debtor engaged in the valuation process which has been abdicated. Those would flow to unsecured creditors. Yes, the bondholders would become unsecured creditors, too, but at least the landlord has a right to recovery of that enhanced pool. But all that was avoided through whatever the 16.5 million is. And we heard no evidence about it. Nothing. Nothing.

So given -- can I continue? Do you have any more --

THE COURT: Please.

MR. GOLD: Okay. Thank you. So Lifespace is getting a plan release that is not conditioned on a payment to the estate, it's not conditioned on a payment to the resident trust. Because we heard from Mr. Harshfield that they're independent. So if Lifespace under Fifth Circuit law getting a release because it gave money to the bondholders?

THE COURT: Isn't Lifespace obligating itself to the tune of $143 million? Don't quote me on that number.

MR. GOLD: No. The question is is the contractual commitment which is not the same as payment, is the contractual commitment sufficient consideration to warrant the third party release? I'll address that in a moment.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. GOLD: According to Mr. McCartin the benefits of the settlement were fixing Lifespace's liability to the residents. Privity was his value. But what happens if Lifespace defaults? Mr. McCartin and his constituents, the residents trust have causes of action under the trust agreement, but no money to prosecute any of those claims. There is no funding as a practical matter to go get it.

THE COURT: Is that your deal to criticize, Mr. Gold?

MR. GOLD: Well, again, Your Honor, we're about half a page away from me saying why does the landlord care?

MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, this might be a time, I don't know what we're doing on time, but we've been up in front of the Court now for three hours approximately, we got back on the bench. I thought they only needed about 40 minutes. I think --

MR. GOLD: I said 45 to an hour, but that's fine.

MR. JOHNSON: Okay. Well, I'm just saying there's a -- I appreciate that. I'm just sorry, I didn't want to jump in in the middle of the flow.

THE COURT: No, I appreciate that, Mr. Johnson. I think that my preference would be to get through ICI's closing and then we'll take a break, we'll measure time. It looks to me like we'll still have time for the Donosky closings as well and still have, I think, sufficient time for rebuttal.

MR. JOHNSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: You're welcome.

MR. GOLD: So we have a different problem or related problem to can Lifespace perform? Does Lifespace really have firm commitments? We heard about the bond offering, but when we went for details we heard about NDAs. It's a secret. And I would just refer you to case law we've cited without evidence of a firm commitment. That's not feasibility. So without the firm commitments Lifespace said they may -- they would dip into their operating funds. But we heard about Lifespace's precarious financial condition highlighted by its own financials that were admitted into evidence. And the discussion in the Fitch warning, Exhibit 20A. So we're just supposed to trust Lifespace that they'll make the payment.

So why does the landlord care? First is we heard from Mr. Hannon separate and apart from the bankruptcy code. The landlord cares as the property owner and a member of the community. But now I'm back to the bankruptcy code. This is where feasibility and the plan provisions bleed into adequate assurance. Because you heard from Mr. Polsky that the Lifespace settlement contributions are assumed in Long Hill's revenue projections.

The residents who voted in favor of the plan in reliance on receiving these entrance fee refund claim payments through the residents' trust are entitled through a mechanism, some people casually called it a setoff, but it's not really a setoff. And that structure's important. It's more of a reimbursement. It's a reimbursement to the residents to provide them with as, I think Mr. McCartin very well described this life care subsidy is a form of an advanced payment of the refund claim payments. It's an economic substitute for the life care benefit as a resident at the Edgemere moves from independent living to higher levels of care. Covering the delta.

Now Mrs. Hatch testified that if those Lifespace settlement funds are not received the residents will just absorb higher costs. Mr. Polsky, on the other hand, testified that the failure to pay the Lifespace settlement funds and the loss of this cover for the delta in accordance with the contribution settlement agreement would have a negative impact on the residents and by extension a negative impact on the Long Hill projections. People may have to leave. People may feel they've been betrayed one time too many and leave. People may be forced to leave economically. Mr. Polsky testified that there would be a negative impact.

We heard from the Committee that that benefit could be as much as 1.2 million a year. That shortfall potentially triggers a series of events to make the skinny Long Hill projections even worse. And we also -- Mr. McCartin also testified as part of his fulsome 9019 presentation the risk of default or deferral which is consistent with what you heard from Mr. Polsky.

But what's really interesting here is we also learned today that Bay 9 was involved in the structure of that settlement. So that takes us back to hats. There's an expression I'll borrow from the law of equitable servitude. It only proves I paid attention in first year property, but my grade didn't reflect it. Lapis touches and concerns versus every aspect of this case directly or through Bay 9. There are multiple relationships that have been going on for over a year. Lapis started monitoring this property and project over six years ago. They purchased the bond debt. It's the largest single bondholder. It's part of the DIP. And through these roles Lapis had access to multiple consultants retained by other stakeholders. That's Arch. That's Long Hill. That's RBC. Were all initially retained either by UMB or themselves -- among themselves. For a while RBC retained Long Hill. So Bay 9, Lapis enjoyed access to a lot more information than anybody else in the sale process. They had all of this stuff.

We even learn today that Bay 9 met with Committee members in early November. We learn there were irregularities in the data room even though Bay 9 already had all this stuff through other channels. So when you start to look at this relationship you start to look at the bondholder payment. What is that 16.5 million, the lack of valuation. Bay 9's not an infant here. Lapis is the debtor's favorite uncle. And whether there has been good faith and arms length dealing in the creation of this sale and the formulation of this plan is a serious question when you start to examine all the various roles that are being played out here.

One note before I just jump to the order. There were several accusations the landlord is trying to get the property for free. Nothing could be further from the truth. We've heard from Bay 9 what would it take to get up and running and stabilize this project? What would be required to pay a manager, invest in CapX. It's not free. It's an undertaking. It's a series of new liabilities. So if a landlord continues planning for a defaulted tenant is trying to get it for free that's not my definition of free.

So you've been asked to make a lot of findings in the order and there are provisions of the order I want to highlight for you. Some permeate the whole order, some are specific. We don't believe you can make the finding in recital Paragraph MM regarding the Lifespace bondholder's settlement because you simply have no evidence. If the tension between the expectation of payment and Lifespace's position and the finding in QQ needs to be modified. I think the no objection finding in SS-11 is probably the most obvious of all of them. But there are a number that also relate to the modified APA.

I would urge you to look at SS-23 where free and clear language still has a hangover. SS-29, the insurance carve out reflected in the second amended APA needs to be fixed. Paragraph 19, the 365(k) release needs to be modified to reference the carve out for third party indemnification that's provided for in the second amended APA. Paragraph 20 needs a reference to your property condition ruling and the ultimate outcome.

Paragraph 23 which is among the more problematic relating to the plan injunction. The plan injunction is simply over broad, Your Honor. Literally the plan injunction as written today would preclude us from tendering the insurance claims that we're providing for in the second amended APA. But it certainly needs to also reference carve outs for your property condition cure ruling as ultimately implemented and any ruling you would make on pecuniary loss and probably the adversary complaint.

Paragraphs 27 through 30 all need to be modified to address new carve outs based on the new assumptions of liabilities in the second amended APA. Paragraph 32 needs to address care and pecuniary loss reserves before distributing that sale proceeds.

So those are among the provisions for how you choose to deal with a cure escrow and pecuniary loss permeate the entire order because there's a lot of -- I mean, where it's clearly going to need maybe a notwithstanding paragraph would be the easiest way to do it, but the order needs that stuff. The order will need to address the plan injunction, the order will need to address the discharge of claims provision in Section 8.5 of the fourth amended plan. How do you reconcile that with a deferred cure ruling and reservations on pecuniary loss?

As part of this you raised the question about the waterfall and are there enough sale proceeds which itself is an independent feasibility issue. And it's interesting Mr. Harshfield did not know the amount or even had an estimate of the accrued administrative claims in the case. And obviously you've got the pending ruling on the cap and that to deal with as well. So there's the question of are there appropriate reserves? And Mr. Johnson in his comments earlier said the waterfall is a moving target and could be entering the danger zone. So let's remember all the things that have to feed at the trough of this plan. We have th DIP, that's unquestioned. We have the economic results, I'll call it, whether through payment reserve funds or contract payments for the debtor side of the cure coming out of the property condition. Some of that is ongoing, some of that will continue. We have pecuniary loss. We have ordinary course administrative expense claims. That's 2.1.

We have 2.2 which is the professional fees subject to the cap dispute. There's an employee benefit component. There's the direct payments to residents. And then there is the question, also part of pecuniary loss, whether there's going to be anything for potentially things coming out of the adversary. Whether there's fees, counterclaims, whatever. So how that works is not in the order. We are devoid of detail on how that works.

Your Honor, Mr. Bleck somehow tried to tell us the bondholders are the victims here. Let's remember most of them bought distressed debt at a discount. But it's important to remember that what this case has been about and really about the last couple months is a lot of people trying to avoid liability. We have provisions of the APA that sought to shield liability. We sought the fee cap. We see overbroad release and injunction language. We see the lack of carve outs for acknowledged issues. There was a lot of stuff going on that was about just trying to avoid liability. From our perspective the lease has to be assumed and assigned with a full assumption of liability. It has to be done so with adequate assurance of future performance, because we will not have the debtor, we will not have the estate, we will have Bay 9. We did not choose Bay 9. Bay 9 is not offering us anything meaningful other than their experience in bond investing and a series of projections that have a lot of negative numbers.

As I said in my brief comments yesterday we're not saying there's no plan that can be confirmed in this case. And we know -- I mean this is their fourth try. But --

THE COURT: It's the first time they've attempted confirmation.

MR. GOLD: Okay, first confirmation hearing. And fairly the third and fourth amended plan are so close to each other I'll count them as one. This is the third effort, the first one to get to confirmation hearing. But just because you make this far still doesn't mean it's right, and it still doesn't mean it complies with the code. And there are fixes, but they're not present or haven't been suggested yet. So we understand the plight of the resident. We do not believe we created it. And the biggest threat that's being made to the residents comes from the expiration of the DIP, another bondholder -- set of bondholders that we're supposed to feel sorry for.

The code is the code, these requirements are there for a reason. And just because we've made it this far, or just because a lot of people support it doesn't mean we get to write those provisions out of the code or ignore the applicable case law. So we would ask Your Honor to take -- it's a tough look at a lot of issues, but we do not believe the standard under 365 have been met and as a result the ripple effect, because 1129(a)(1) is the plan complies with the code and Section 365's in the code. So if for no other reason you could deny confirmation on that reason alone, Your Honor. Thank you. And again, echoing the patience and hard work of the Court and staff is definitely deserving to be recognized and the friendliness and grace of your staff in working through a lot of overworked lawyers has been noticed by all of us and we thank you for that.

THE COURT: Thank you very much, Mr. Gold. Before I lose you in terms of your comment to the proposed form of order were those comments being made to the latest proposed form of order that was filed by --

MR. GOLD: I believe my paragraph numbering tracks the latest form of order. Yes.

THE COURT: Okay. And so if you could go back to your list, because I'm assuming you didn't do that off the top of your head, but if not, you know, golf clap.

MR. GOLD: No, not happening, Your Honor. I will return to my list.

THE COURT: So I think you told me that your issues were in MM, QQ, SS-23 and 29.

MR. GOLD: Yes. And don't forget SS-11 which says there's no objection.

THE COURT: And 11. Okay.

MR. GOLD: That's the easy one.

THE COURT: And then you went to ordered paragraphs, I believe, 19, 20, 23, 27 through 30 and 32.

MR. GOLD: Just one last proof of my list. Yeah, 19, 20, 23. I want to make sure you didn't miss that one.

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. GOLD: 27 through 30, 32. Yes, Your Honor, then anything relating to the waterfall.

THE COURT: Exactly, anything relating to the waterfall.

MR. GOLD: The desperate need for a notwithstanding in there somewhere.

THE COURT: Right. And have you supplied these comments to the other side at all?

MR. GOLD: I have supplied several of them but not a total list, because many of these only arose because of the second amended APA which takes some of the free and clear and all that stuff out. But I'm -- and I'm happy to, I mean, I'm happy to do that while that's pending.

THE COURT: Right. I do believe that after the hearing there would be some benefit, I mean, to the extent that there is a further form of order and it synthesizes any of the comments that the landlord has I would like to see that. But again, in recognizing I'll still turn to these particular provisions in any event.

MR. GOLD: Just a simple example, Your Honor, the one that we have been working on is the debtor, as part of second amended APA creatively Mr. Johnson had suggested this a little while back we're using the litigation trust as a vehicle as a successor to the debtor so there's a place to tender insurance policies, it's a current space. But that requires not only a tweak to the 365(k) language and the like, but also even the litigation trust which provides it can be dissolved earlier. We need to keep it open a minimum period of time to accommodate the statute of limitation. So each one of these --

THE COURT: I'm sure there's ripples to the confirmation order through the plan itself and then through the plan supplement documents.

MR. GOLD: Yes. But those are one of the things we're already working on and I think there'll be a few others shortly.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. GOLD: Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you very much. And one other thing and whether it is you, Mr. Gold, or Ms. Vandesteeg. As I recall and don't quote me on the number, but I recall the pecuniary loss at the time only went through a certain date and I want to say was in the neighborhood of $12 million. And so I'm wondering -- and one of the reasons frankly Mr. Bleck that I haven't come back to you in earnest on pecuniary loss is because I knew the number was still -- the clock was still running from the landlord's perspective.

MS. VANDESTEEG: It is, Your Honor. It has continued to run since it was last updated for the Court and will continue to run through effective date and potentially through adversary. Per your request earlier we did reach out to various different professionals to put together some estimates. These will -- these are through February 28th and they are not down to the dollar.

THE COURT: I have no expectation that they are.

MS. VANDESTEEG: All rights reserved our current estimate through February 28th is approximately 14 million.

THE COURT: And that's hopefully in with the 12 million?

MS. VANDESTEEG: Correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

MS. VANDESTEEG: That's cumulative not additional. That's total through February 28th.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much. Before I have a revolt from the staff members that you gave all the compliments to we are going to take a brief recess. And then when we come back I'll hear rebuttals and then we'll turn to Donosky because I'm hoping that we can get through that as well today. So we'll be in recess until five.

COURTROOM DEPUTY: All rise.

(Recess at 4:50 p.m., recommencing at 5:01 p.m.)

COURTROOM DEPUTY: All rise. We're back on the record in Case No. 22-30659.

THE COURT: Please be seated. You must be seated, Mr. Walker.

MR. WALKER: Thank you.

THE COURT: All right. So, rebuttals?

MR. JOHNSON: Thank you, Your Honor. Jeremy Johnson from Polsinelli, on behalf of the Debtors. I'll try and keep this fairly short. First, I want to correct one of my statements with respect to the U.S. Trustee's comments. I had said, on the record, and I -- I mistakenly said something, and I want to clear it up. Ms. Lambert did email me.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. JOHNSON: Ms. Lambert had reached out to us and said she wanted exculpations and the gatekeeper language consistent with Highland Capital and other cases, and we made those changes, and then asked, I believe, for the discharge language, and we made that change, and then said, because Highland Capital was a reorganization as opposed to liquidation, I don't think you need releases either.

So, she did -- it's not the first time we heard about the releases today. It was after the objection deadline. It was, I think, the 27th of February, but she emailed me afterwards, and I had said earlier, it's the first time I heard of the release comment, but I didn't -- we did not take the release comment, obviously. And, for the record, I would just stand on, you know, there was limited testimony from Mr. Harshfield regarding the releases being integral to the Plan, because we didn't think we had an active objection to the nature of the releases or the consideration thereunder, so there is testimony in Mr. Harshfield's declaration regarding that. And we put law in our -- in our brief in support of it, and would stand on Mr. Harshfield's declaration in the law. But just for clarification, I did, inadvertently misrepresent that, and I want to make sure I was clear.

So, Your Honor, we'll try and address a few of the issues in ICI's presentation, if we can. But the first thing I'd like to start off with is, we heard an awful lot of new arguments today, and that's been a little frustrating, and we deal with this issue before in the case.

The objection deadline was February 14th. There was a supplemental objection filed by Lifespace on March 3rd. I'm not sure under what authority the supplemental objection came in. We didn't raise a fuss about it, because it was --

THE COURT: ICI?

MR. JOHNSON: Yes, ICI, because ICI was making, sort of, we think, similar arguments to their prior one. But we heard a lot of arguments today that were very new, and I understand that some of them can relate to the second amendment, which is a new document, but fundamentally, the objections regarding Lapis and the demonstrative regarding who Lapis is and their connections and the potential web of collusion that may be happening behind the scenes, Lapis has been the stalking horse, has been the buyer, has been a bondholder. This has been the case for months. These were all brand new arguments, and I don't think anything came out as part of the testimony that would have inspired these sort of new arguments at this stage.

So, we're at somewhat of a disadvantage in terms of, A, making a record to respond to the arguments, or, B, even answering them. Similarly, with the Lifespace settlement agreement, Your Honor, the terms of the Lifespace settlement agreement have been more or less the same. There were some changes. There was testimony regarding the changes, primarily regarding the amount and primarily adjusting the Lifespace subsidy that was inside that documentation. Those were changes to the document.

But at the end of the day, it's always fundamentally been a deal between Lifespace, the resident trust. The Debtors are signatories to it. And the concept of this 16.5 million dollar distribution going directly from Lifespace to the bondholders has also been in the Plan since the Third Amended Plan that was approved with the disclosure statement in December.

So we got a lot of brand new arguments today, and we're going to do our best to respond to them on the fly, but we think it's -- it's -- ICI has had sufficient time to make these arguments by the objection deadline. They even filed a supplement that didn't even include many of these arguments. So we think the goal posts have to stop moving, and the Debtors need to be able to respond to it.

So, as an initial matter, Your Honor, with respect to, Mr. Gold first testified that the Debtor's original -- first testified -- first argued, I apologize -- that the Debtor's position was that the cure claim was zero from the outset of these cases, and that is exactly right, because the cure -- the Debtors and Lifespace and the bondholders paid the cure amount in March prior to the bankruptcy filing.

And they paid the April rent to ICI prior to the bankruptcy filing. This is a landlord, who, yes, they got sued on day one of the case, has been paid every month of their rent prior to the bankruptcy, including substantial professional files, not quite these post-petition fees, but substantial professional fees. So that's why we started at zero, and we fully recognize that there would be some dispute regarding that. But at the end of the day, there isn't, really, truly a cure amount owed here. It's all professional fees and whatever part of the property condition is being addressed.

Now, there were several issues in the property condition motion that were being addressed, non-monetary at all, and there may or may not be a monetary cure related to the two inspection issues, so that's why we started where we started.

Second, Your Honor, we get back into the valuation issues again, and I don't know why, but I don't think it was -- any of our testimony or evidence was addressed from our prior presentation including the presentation that the fair market value of the collateral, the amount that a third party is willing to pay freely to acquire the collateral is the best evidence of the value of it.

They said there was no valuation; there was no appraisal, and that's right. We didn't pay for an appraiser because it was a market test, and the market test was an extensive one. Hundreds of people contacted through RBC. That was in UMB's presentation. It was also in the evidence. But at the end of the day, the uncontroverted testimony of Mr. Fields is that this is the best value for the collateral, and that was at 48.5. That wasn't addressed.

They start talking about -- they read the risk factor into the record, which said, warning, bondholders; you may not get 100 cents on the dollar in this particular situation because you have a lien on a leasehold mortgage, and you don't necessarily have control of all of those assets. And guess what's happening? They're not getting 100 cents on the dollar; they're taking a significant reduction. So, at the end of the day, Your Honor, I don't understand that objection. I think the valuation has been clearly established by the record.

With respect to the Lifespace settlement, Your Honor, I would say this. Number one, there is a component of the Lifespace settlement that involves non-debtor transactions.

This is Lifespace agreeing to contribute to the bondholders' recovery of 16.5 million dollars. Now, I don't think there has been any allegation that, somehow, it's a compromising of an estate asset. I don't know that that argument or claim has been made.

I think, Your Honor, that that is a transaction between two non-estate parties. And it's part of the settlement agreement. And the Lifespace settlement agreement, itself, does involve parties to the estate. Specifically, it involves Lifespace agreeing to pay the creditors of Edgemere, the current and former residents. So that is -- that is a transaction. So, I understand why part of that transaction may not be governed by 9019 because it's non-debtor or non-estate fiduciaries, but part of it certainly does implicate the estate and the estate's claims.

I think Mr. Walker mentioned this, at least in one of the presentations. Effectively, a subrogation of the residents' claims against Edgemere and Lifespace steps into the shoes of those by paying them off, so I -- I don't exactly get the point of this, Your Honor. But at the end of the day, I think there's two, sort of, overriding considerations. Number one, they complain about the release that Lifespace is getting, however, Your Honor, I think the solicitation -- the solicitation certificate provided by KCC that was admitted into evidence, I believe that certificate shows a schedule of the opt-outs.

ICI opted-out of the releases under the Plan, so there is no release for Lifespace under the Plan. ICI can still sue them if they believe they have a claim or whatever their rights may be. I don't think the release is going to apply to Lifespace in that particular situation. So, Your Honor, I think that, number one, that's the case.

And, number two, it sort of comes down to, you know, the fundamental issue, and I don't think we had an answer, is, why do they care, except for being a member of the community, and they care what's happening at the Edgemere. I don't know that that's been sufficiently articulated, Your Honor. This was a transaction. There's been multiple parties testifying as to how this transaction came about. This is effectively the parties cooperating, combining the two plans together, and there was a price to that.

There was a price for that involvement, and the bondholders said, the price to that is Lifespace, you have to agree to help our recovery here, because we're going to agree to take -- we're going to take a substantial hit as part of this process. And that was agreed to between those parties. It did not compromise an estate claim. It didn't involve an estate claim.

Ultimately, Your Honor, I think that's all I have unless you have any questions for me. I don't know that there was anything else in there that we failed to address. I think that's the primary response, unless you have some questions for me.

I think some other parties may have a very short rebuttal, as well, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Nothing further. Thank you, Mr. Johnson.

MS. WALKER: Your Honor, Adrienne Walker, again, for Bay 9. I think we'll go in the order that we started. Your Honor, just very briefly to the issue of what Bay 9's commitments are for adequate assurance, and the argument was, there's not enough skin in the game because there's not a direct to the landlord. But that misses the point.

Bay 9 is putting $50,000,000 into this project. It has a business plan to put many, many, many millions of cap-X dollars into this project. It has set up reserves to make it a thriving project. It does not make business sense. It does not make common sense to not have the sponsor support the community we're investing in.

We understand the landlord wants more, and the landlord's counsel says, you know, in a Newco situation, this is not what you do. However, this was a Newco situation in 1999. It's the same structure. They had a sponsor. They had a Newco. It was fine for ICI then. They got less than they are getting today, and that's also what the Bankruptcy Code says.

I'm not saying, you only look to the four corners of the lease. What I'm saying is, when they did the deal originally, what was adequate? When they had the opportunities to revisit it, what was adequate? We're saying, we have presented something adequate. It doesn't mean there's a guarantee. It doesn't mean you get more, but what is adequate. And we have put forward, I think, a very compelling program and a project that's based on the experience and expertise.

As to the Long Hill model, two points. There was some suggestion -- argument that the Lifespace settlement was such a critical aspect to the Long Hill model, completely opposite of what Mr. Lawlor testified to. At most, when pushed, perhaps because he's a bit of a gentleman, and I applaud him for that, he said, gave him a rosy outlook to the residents. That's what the evidence suggests.

So, the fact that Mr. Polsky might have an opinion that it was baked in is his own, and it's based on some -- some, you know, his timing core in his thoughts. I -- that is to his opinion, but to the weight of that, I think Your Honor should look to the evidence of what Mr. Lawlor said when he built out the model.

Second, on the Lifespace settlement, Your Honor, Lapis wasn't involved in that. There was a suggestion to that fact. And to the overall -- actually, I'm going to stick to that at the end, because that, really, quite honestly, made us a little bit heated.

Back to adequate assurance, so we have skin in the game, too, whether or not 365(l), where that stands and what part of it, I get that 365 is a balancing. I don't dispute that. But what I am saying is, look to our brief and look to Colliers and look to the legislative history. The legislative history is pretty clear, because there's not a lot of cases. We all admit that.

But the legislative history, itself, says, okay, what did you get at the time. If you have a security deposit, and perhaps that's not transferred with the lease, you get to ask for that. Maybe there was a letter of credit that got drawn down, you can ask for that. Those are the kinds of things that we think 365(l) was there to do.

You know, I can only speculate so much of really what's in the Code besides the plain language and what the legislative history says. That's what we think it means. I wish we had more to give us instruction. But what I don't think it means is that, you can now have a menu of what you want today. It has to be what is adequate. So if something needs to be adequate, again, I think that -- what that provision and what the history said is, you look to see what you got.

Now, one quick point as to the 2300 Wholesale case,

Your Honor, this went to our point in our argument and to the cases that said, you don't need to -- you know, what courts have otherwise ordered this before. If Your Honor had some time in your otherwise busy schedule to go look at that case and pull back Docket 61, not actually the decision, Docket 61.

Docket 61 is the reply to the opposition to the application to approve the sale. Paragraphs 11 and 12 deal precisely where the Debtor and purchaser added and agreed and consented to the escrow and to the additional security, then that the Court ordered. So, yes, maybe the Court ordered it, but what you've got to do is peel it back just a little bit, Docket 61, paragraphs 11 and 12, I think you'll find your answer.

Okay. Lastly for me for this, this web of Lapis, we have been transparent from day one of what the roles are, what the hats people wear, how they navigate it, and the suggestion that something untoward has happened at this last minute, to me, candidly, not in evidence. Nothing is in evidence. So, even my -- smacks of a little bit of offense, still not in evidence, but that's not what the -- there was no evidence to suggest otherwise. They have known about Lapis's role. They've known about, from day one, who Bay 9 was. We had conversations. It was there.

The evidence of Mrs. Hatch, straight up, first thing she talked about, what are the different hats in her roles. So this idea today that you would bring into argument something that was never introduced into evidence should just be nothing more than a speculation, but is not before the record. It's inappropriate. It's inaccurate, and it's not evidence.

That's all I have, unless you have questions.

THE COURT: No questions.

MS. WALKER: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you very much, Ms. Walker.

Mr. Bleck?

MR. BLECK: Yes, Your Honor. Just a couple of points to follow-up with Mr. Johnson. First, with respect to valuation, I think, as we mentioned before, Mr. Fields' declaration specifically dealt with valuation. There was no contesting that testimony. So the only testimony in the record is Mr. Fields's declaration. And I would refer the Court to paragraph 17 of the declaration, which specifically says, the best indication of value is to market test the assets, determine the amount a third party is willing to pay in order to attain the statement of value. The sale process was such a market test. So we have marked tested. That's to valuation.

The second issue is with respect to the Lifespace bond contribution, which is actually a specific defined term in the Plan, and it's under 1.87 of the Plan. And it specifically says, means the 16.5 million dollar payment to the bond trustee on the effective date to distribution to holders of the original bonds.

So this was, as Mr. Johnson pointed out, an arrangement, a transaction between two unrelated -- or two non-debtor third parties.

Lastly, with respect to the extent of the liens, that time period has come and gone in terms of the challenge. Under the terms of the DIP order, there was a specific challenge period with respect to anyone contesting the extent of the liens. That challenge period has expired. We have one pending adversary proceeding by the Committee, which is going to be dismissed upon the -- hopefully, the confirmation of this Plan. But no other party has challenged the validity, extent or priority of the liens. And the indication was that the bond trustee has a lien against, substantially, all of the assets.

Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Bleck.

So nothing further from the Committee. Nothing further from Lifespace. Anything further from the residents?

(No audible response)

THE COURT: No? Okay. Any final words from -- yes?

MR. GOLD: Good evening, Your Honor. Ivan Gold from the Allen, Matkins firm, co-counsel for ICI. I guess I've got to start off by saying, I never said collusion.

Your Honor, at the beginning of the lease in 1999, the evidence was, the landlord received $100,000,000 in new buildings from the bond offering. But that bond offering provided that land financing provided significant working capital. I think the documents that are in evidence show it was about $30,000,000, those ancient documents.

Lifespace's ability to raise funds was always an issue in this case. That has been in our objections. The 16.5, for whatever it's for, is a dilution of Lifespace's financial capabilities. We still don't know what --

MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I'd object to this. I apologize for interrupting. This is outside the scope of everything, I think, Your Honor. That was not in ICI's argument. I don't think it was in any of the rebuttals, Lifespace's ability to raise the funds. I think the only person who has addressed that is Mr. Walker, on behalf of Lifespace.

MR. GOLD: It's not in evidence? What was my cross-examination of Mr. Harshfield? What was that in my -- it was in my closing.

MR. JOHNSON: It wasn't in your -- in your arguments today or --

MR. GOLD: Yes, it was.

MR. JOHNSON: -- anybody's redirect.

MR. GOLD: It was in my argument today, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Are you saying that in your argument today that you argued that the payments that Lifespace was going to make under the Plan would be a dilution?

MR. GOLD: No, I think it's just a natural extension of the facts, that that's just more money leaking out the door for somebody who can barely raise the funds to make the payment.

MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, again, I know you've got your own notes on this. I have my notes on this, and I'm trying to read Ms. Green's notes on this very fast. I don't think he got into this in his argument at all. And, in fact, Your Honor, there wasn't really any real discussion about the bond markets or the ability to raise money or anything along those lines.

THE COURT: I mean, I'm going to sustain what I believe to be an objection, and the biggest reason, Mr. Gold, is not to cut the landlord off, but it's that I have -- I have a particular expertise in reading financial statements, so I heard both the direct and the cross, and I will take all of the evidence and review the financial statements at length as part of my decision. And so, I think that all of the evidence that you propounded in terms of Lifespace's financial capabilities and, you know, the Fitch reports, et cetera, I think it's all in evidence, so --

MR. GOLD: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: -- that's why I'm going to ask you to move on from that one.

MR. GOLD: Your Honor, Bay 9 alleged that Mr. Lawlor, in his testimony, I guess the allegation was, I said it was critical. I never used the word critical. I said that it was factored into -- it was assumed in the Bay 9 projections prepared by Long Hill. And I'm looking at the transcript from the February 22nd testimony of Mr. Lawlor, and this appears in the transcript at page 87, starting at line 13.

My question -- the question, "Didn't having that understanding that that settlement and contribution available factor in at all to any of your projections in terms of occupancy or attrition or anything of that nature?"

"Answer: To some degree, you know, some of our revenue assumptions are based on adjustments to the elimination of the entry fee contract, and, you know, the signing of new rental agreements, so, yeah."

Well, we can debate what he meant, but that's his testimony that it is in his assumptions, so that's not made up evidence.

We also heard that, from Mr. McCartin this morning that Bay 9 was, indeed, involved in the Lifespace settlement, that they had an opinion as to how it was going to be structured, and they asserted it. And it was structured in response to that. So that no role accusation is not born out by the evidence we heard today.

With respect to the challenge on the collateral, you have Exhibit 27. Look at the scope of the collateral. It doesn't include everything they bought. So even if nobody challenged it, that doesn't mean they get a lien on something they don't have a lien on.

THE COURT: And so what is --

MR. GOLD: There are other --

THE COURT: -- what do you believe they don't have a lien on?

MR. GOLD: Well, first, I would -- well, I'll start with the leases. They said the lease is zero. We all get that. That's certainly our allegation. But there are other intellectual property assets, the brand, which the goodwill, which -- the Edgemere. You know, we could make some sort of game out of how often we heard, it's the Ritz Carlton of senior living, and it's a deserved-so reputation.

THE COURT: Okay. So, let me stop you, Mr. Gold, and so you can explain something to me. So, the bondholders, pursuant to the various cash collateral and DIP orders, have a lien on substantially all of the assets of the Debtor. Now, we recognize that there is the leasehold interest. They don't own the land, and there's issues with respect to, certainly, the improvements, and I know it's the landlord's position that, essentially, once you affix it to their land, that is the landlord's property, as well.

But I've got a bidder that paid $48,000,000 for whatever the Debtor owns, including to buy into your client's lease. Okay. So, if bondholders have substantially an interest in everything the Debtor owns, and they just sold it for $48,000,000, what did they buy?

MR. GOLD: The DIP has an interest in everything the landlord -- the DIP gets paid. It's the --

THE COURT: So -- so, you don't believe the bondholders were secured?

MR. GOLD: No, they are secured, but they're secured to the extent of the original loan documents. The DIP gets paid --

THE COURT: And they didn't have a security interest?

MR. GOLD: Not in everything. Then why did the Debtor make the motion, Your Honor? The Debtor, at one point in this case, thought there was something else the bondholders didn't have. They filed the motion.

THE COURT: But it was never prosecuted.

MR. GOLD: It -- well, it was -- but it never went to hearing. It was withdrawn in December. But the fact is, is they -- the extent of the original bond collateral does not include certain, you know, non-tangible assets. The brand, here, we've been hearing about since day one.

THE COURT: I believe the testimony was, right now, there is a big giant bogey as to who owns the intellectual property, and Lifespace and the buyer are figuring that out of how to transfer that.

MR. GOLD: That was the website. The website is only part of that.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. GOLD: I'm talking about the brand.

THE COURT: So the brand?

MR. GOLD: That's one element of it, is the brand. No effort was made to how much of this, when somebody pays 48.5 for an aging project with a finite lease, part of what they're buying is the cache of the brand, the Edgemere, the premier senior living community in North Texas. You've heard that.

THE COURT: And you said the bondholders never had a security interest --

MR. GOLD: Take a look at Exhibit 27.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. BLECK: Your Honor, I'm sorry to interrupt. Just one second, I just want to clarify something. In addition to substantially all of the assets, and this is a completely new argument, under the DIP order, we had a lien -- we were granted a lien for the DIP against all of the assets and the diminution claim for any priming associated with our pre-petition claim. So, first, the DIP is paid. The 16.5 has nothing to do with the DIP. It's paid directly to the bond trustee for payment under the original bonds. Then the balance of the proceeds go to pay the DIP, and then any additional funds after that are paid to the bond trustee for the balance of the secured claim.

So, the fact is, it's either paid to the DIP or it's paid to the bond trustee as part of its secured claim or in connection with its diminution claim, based upon the priming that occurred here.

MR. GOLD: We're mixing and matching, Your Honor. The 16.5 is separate from the 48.5. The 48.5 is the sales proceeds.

MR. BLECK: That is correct.

MR. GOLD: Okay.

MR. BLECK: I agree with that.

MR. GOLD: From the sales proceeds, the DIP gets paid in full. That is --

THE COURT: Right.

MR. GOLD: -- one of the short list of completely undisputed things in this case.

THE COURT: Right.

MR. GOLD: It's the residual. What attaches to the residuary? The 16.5 is a completely different matter.

MR. BLECK: Right. But the residual goes to the balance of the bond trustee's secured claim, and the bond trustee has a secured claim against substantially all the assets, pre-petition, and to the extent that it didn't, it picks up through the diminution claim, because that claim was primed as part of the DIP financing.

So, it has an allowed diminution claim up to the extent of the DIP financing. I'm sorry.

THE COURT: I'm listening.

MR. BLECK: No, I was getting motioned to go closer to the microphone.

THE COURT: Oh, okay.

MR. BLECK: So, but once again, Your Honor, this is a brand new argument we heard for the first time, in closing, relative to the extent of it.

MR. GOLD: Your Honor, our classification and treatment of the proceeds was briefed --

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. GOLD: -- in previous stuff with the Court, so it's not a new argument, and I will leave it at that. I would encourage you, as you look at the order, also look at Exhibit 27.

THE COURT: Got it.

MR. BLECK: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. GOLD: And, Your Honor, there is no evidence before the Court on diminution, so let's not forget that fact. The Plan provides for it; there's no evidence, which is part of the whole valuation tied together, so Your Honor, you've heard a lot of argument. I'll end it here. Thank you very much.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Gold.

MR. GOLD: Have a nice evening.

THE COURT: You too. You too. All right. I will now turn to the Donosky argument. So, as I anticipate I'll hear other argument from Mr. Hendricks, and I believe from Bay 9 and from the Debtors? Okay.

(Pause)

MR. HENDRICKS: Charles Hendricks on behalf of Stephan Donosky Company.

THE COURT: Thank you for your patience, Mr. Hendricks.

MR. HENDRICKS: I do feel a bit like the flea on the tail of the dog, here. I appreciate the Court's finding a few minutes for us.

I did hear the Court suggest an hour, believe me, you're not going to -- we're not going to use that.

THE COURT: I have already primed the pump and told them that you would be anything, if not brief.

MR. HENDRICKS: Your Honor, and I do have, not to disappoint anyone, a demonstrative, and it is purple to go with my exhibits, and if I may approach?

THE COURT: Please. You have one Horned Frog over there who is really appreciating the purple.

(Pause)

MR. HENDRICKS: Your Honor, to get to the heart of this, the question is whether there is one contract or two, whether the lease includes the commission obligation or it's a separate obligation. And I think there has been a fair amount of briefing on it, including ours.

I will point out that the -- one of the reply briefs pointed out that we had misquoted Section 918 of the Exhibit 6, and that's correct. It wasn't intentional. I don't think it made any difference, but we did -- we did misquote it. I appreciate the -- that.

Your Honor, how does the Court, again, determine whether we've got one contract or two? I think the state law applies. I think it's the intent of the parties. The Court should look at the four corners, as we've heard earlier today, of the document.

If it's ambiguous, I think the Court has a responsibility to look outside to parol evidence and other evidence of the intention of the parties. I think that the documents -- and it's a bit like two people looking at the same car, saying that's a blue car; no, that's a black car. And I think the documents aren't in dispute.

And I would walk, real briefly, the Court through the exhibits that are part of our -- in evidence. Just going down my purple demonstrative, we've got the joint venture agreement that started off, and it referred to a ground lease option agreement right there at the beginning. The letter of intent, Exhibit 2, was the same day. It referred to a three-year option agreement and the 55 year ground lease.

And right there, on that first day, the ground lease will provide that a real estate commission will be paid under the ground lease, the terms of which will be negotiated under a separate agreement between the lessee, and Stephan Donosky as broker. And I think the terms is, how much is it going to be, because it wasn't being paid by the landlord; it was being paid by the tenant.

Now, Exhibit 3 is the ground lease option agreement, and 13.8 says that, upon closing, the optionee will be obligated to pay to Donosky, a brokerage fee. 14.6 says, the optionee may assign its rights and obligations, and the optionee's assignee shall become fully liable for all obligations thereunder, signed and acknowledged that Donosky was part of that process. And even attached to that was a substantially completed form of the final ground lease that had the same terminology, two years later, the final lease signed contained.

Exhibit 4 is the commission agreement, which, of course, somebody's got to spell out how much it is, and it's tied to the lease. The base rentals of the lease, payable contemporaneously with the base rental of the lease. And as anticipated exactly, the assignment of the ground lease option, itself, in May of '99, and there, the assignee expressly assumed all of the terms, covenants, conditions and obligations under the option.

And the ground lease, itself, referred to the option agreement in Section 120. And, by the way, it does have, in the event of default, failure to observe or perform payment of any money to persons other than the lessee -- I'm sorry, the lessor -- no, the lessee, the landlord.

And then finally, this integration provision that they say makes it clear it's not part of it, and I would argue just the opposite, that it makes it clear that it is part of it. It says, the lease and the provisions of the option agreement continue -- continue thereunder as provided therein and ought to be expressly a part of the lease agreement.

The option agreement, itself, expressly says they're paying Donosky, and they just tie right in. And I think it's a fair reading of the agreements that all of this was a process of baking into the ultimate ground lease everything that the parties worked so hard on for several years to put this together. And I think the final evidence is those checks, themselves. For 22 years, that's exactly the way they treated it. And even in those checks, they often noted on the check stubs, themselves, that it was the lease.

The Court heard Mr. Gregory and Mr. Donosky -- they're the two that really were around back then -- their understanding. And Mr. Gregory's clear testimony is that's exactly why they put the 918 into it, because that's what they all intended to be a part of the liability of the lessor.

And with that, I'll sit down.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Mr. Hendricks.

Ms. Green?

MS. GREEN: I will not be quite as brief as Mr. Hendricks, but I do think that this is a straightforward matter. We did hear live testimony from Mr. Donosky and Mr. Gregory, both of whom stand to gain financially if this commission agreement is assumed in conjunction with the assumption of the lease.

But if we look at the facts, including the documents and the law, which has been cited not only in our confirmation brief, in our reply to the Donosky objection, but also in these surreplys, I think there is really only one possible conclusion. The commission agreement is a standalone contract. I said it before, and I will briefly just mention, for the record, it's not an executory contract, and even if it is, it's irrefutably not beneficial to the estate, and it would not be an exercise of sound judgment for the Debtors to assume it.

So, I agree with Mr. Hendricks on a couple of points. One is that this outcome, really, will hinge on whether the Court finds that it is a standalone contract or whether it is indivisible and integral to, sort of, all of the contracts that have been admitted into evidence and that are outlined in this demonstrative.

I also agree that we do need to look at state law. The bankruptcy cases that we initially cited did not apply state law, but the state law was very -- the state law that was applied in those bankruptcy cases initially cited was very similar to the Texas state law that I have cited in my surreply.

So, while we do agree that that four corners of the document is what you look at to find out if its ambiguous or not, we, of course, take the position that the contracts are --

THE COURT: Unambiguous.

MS. GREEN: Thank you. I'm very tired.

Okay. So, let's start with the letter of intent. I think this is probably the best evidence, written evidence, of what the parties actually intended. So, I agree that we should look back to this document dated June 9th, 1997. I am going to just -- for now, I think it makes sense to work with the demonstrative that the Court has before her.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. GREEN: If you look at the language from page three, the ground lease will provide that a real estate commission will be paid under the ground lease, the terms of which will be negotiated under a separate agreement between the lessee and David Stephen Donosky as broker.

I also think it's important to note that this non-binding letter of intent was delivered by Donosky to Mr. Burt Jordan. We heard testimony to that effect, so he was certainly aware of it, but he was not a party. He was not a party. And the contracts that were laid out within the letter of intent, he wasn't anticipated to be a party to any of those contracts, except for this separate agreement, the brokerage agreement.

The next document is Donosky Exhibit 3, the ground lease option agreement. Again, Your Honor, consistent with the letter of intent, Section 13.8, if you look at this demonstrative, not all of the language is there, so I will read what actually is in 13.8.

It provided that, "Upon the closing of the transaction" -- and I think it's important to note that the transaction that it's referring to is the lease. That is a separate transaction. They were, yes, anticipating, we're going to enter into a number of different agreements. Ultimately, we're going to, hopefully, have a lease agreement, but that doesn't make them all one transaction.

The goal is to get to a lease, but a brokerage agreement is not the same transaction as a lease agreement. It was just one of a series of transactions. And the letter of intent actually makes that very clear in, I believe, the first paragraph. But going back to 13.8.

It provided that, "Upon the closing of the transaction" -- i.e. the consummation of the lease contemplated by the option agreement -- "the optionee" -- so the predecessor to Edgemere -- "would be obligated to pay a brokerage fee, arising" -- and I'm quoting -- "in connection with the option agreement, pursuant to a separate commission agreement or arrangement between the optionee and broker," who was Donosky.

And I also think it's important for us to keep in mind, because of what the state law says, the purpose of the option agreement. The purpose of the option agreement was spelled out in a recital. And I'm not going to read it to the Court, but it certainly had nothing to do with a brokerage agreement or anything to do with Donosky.

So, the commission agreement came next, November 5th, 1997. This is the first and only contract that was admitted into evidence where Donosky was a party. And consistent with what was contemplated per the letter of intent, it was a separate agreement. The purpose of the contract is obvious, provides commission payment to Donosky, if the lease transaction, this separate transaction, is ultimately entered into.

And Section 9 of the commission agreement actually states, "The commission agreement constituted the entire agreement between the parties hereto, and no amendment or modification hereof shall be effective unless made by agreement, in writing, executed by Northwest and broker."

Donosky Exhibit 6, now, we're two years later. We're at November, 1999, and the lease was finally entered into. And the purpose, although obvious, because it's a lease agreement, was expressly stated, once again, in the preamble. And that's important to the Court's analysis of this. And, again, it didn't mention anything about a brokerage agreement or Donosky.

And Section 9.8 expressly integrates the option agreement, but it does not expressly integrate commission agreement. And where it says, "This lease and those provisions of the option agreement continuing thereunder, as provided therein, and those leases and service contracts to be assumed by the lessee", in the surreply, I -- we included in the surreply what the service contracts is referring to. This is a defined term under the option agreement, and it's very clear that it would not include the brokerage agreement.

I don't have that definition in front of me, but it is in our surreply. And it's basically talking about utilities and the types of service agreements that you -- service contracts you would think they would assume. Okay.

Oh. Also, I think it's important to remember that sophisticated parties, they were represented by counsel, and so, if they had wanted to include the commission agreement and integrate it into the lease, that counsel would have made sure to add that in.

And with respect to the copies of checks that were admitted at Exhibit 7, this just proves that payments were made in accordance with the commission agreement. The commission agreement said, payments will be 2.5 percent of base rental. So, yes, the commission agreement is, in some way, related to the lease, because it determines the commission payment amount, and it also said that payments would be made contemporaneously with the lease payments. It's just proof that Donosky was paid in accordance with the terms of his contract.

And then, there was also evidence about evidence to indicate what Donosky's current understanding is with respect to the commission agreement and whether it is actually part of a bundle of agreements or a stand alone, and that's the proof of claim. There were actually two claims filed. The first claim did not include any documentation.

MR. HENDRICKS: Well, Your Honor, I believe the proof of claim is part of the record.

MS. GREEN: We elicited testimony with respect to the proof of claim, and I also think that the Court could take judicial notice of the claims numbers 166 and 179.

THE COURT: I think the proof of claim was addressed as part of cross-examination if I recall.

MS. GREEN: So, although the claims weren't admitted into evidence, the testimony showed that Mr. Donosky reviewed the amended proof of claim before it was filed. And that claim, just like the original claim, stated, "This claim is not based on a lease."

And the supporting documentation that was attached to the amended proof of claim, which asserted a 2.4 million dollar general unsecured claim did not include the lease agreement.

So those are the facts. And, now, briefly, I know that the Court, if she hasn't already, will carefully read our papers, but I do want to highlight some of the cases, because, well, the law is kind of important.

We cited a number of persuasive, applicable and instructive cases. And, actually, the cases that we cited in our initial reply are consistent with Texas law. And it is true that Texas law says that in certain situations, courts may construe separate contracts as a single contract. But, also, Texas law, in the Texas Supreme Court on multiple occasions has cautioned courts to be careful in doing so.

And I will cite to Woods, 603 S.W. 3d 86. Of importance is whether the parties are the same, whether the purpose is the same, whether the transactions are the same or whether they're different.

And, as I noted earlier, the Texas jurisprudence that we cited in our surreply, I checked today, and I believe it's consistent with the decisions that we initially cited in our brief. So I would refer the Court to pages -- to paragraph 120, where the Court has found that documents should be treated as one because they were executed at the same time, by the same parties, for the same purpose, for the same transaction.

The 11th Circuit actually said that a commission agreement that was contained within the purchase and sale agreement, so one document, it was a separate and distinct contract from the purchase and sale agreement, because -- and I'm quoting -- "the nature and purpose of the agreements were different, and a consideration for each agreement was separate and distinct." And that is 831 F.2d 974.

I need espresso.

So, even if --

THE COURT: Same.

MS. GREEN: -- Donosky's commission agreement was embedded within the lease, itself, the Debtors would have authoritative support to still reject the commission agreement, while assuming the lease. So the fact that the parties entered into a series of transactions that, ultimately, would culminate into a lease agreement is not evidence that all of these contracts must be bundled together and treated as one.

So, the documents do truly speak for themselves. The merger and integration clause in the lease, sort of answers -- answers the question all by itself, in our view. And, in fact, the case that Donosky relies on -- I believe it's pronounced Labe (phonetic) -- is informative here, as well. This is discussed in paragraph 28 of the Plan's sponsor's surreply.

So, no parol evidence is needed, but even if the Court does look outside the corners of the document to consider the parol evidence that has been offered, it's actually even clearer that the parties never intended for the commission agreement to be integral or indivisible with the lease, and that they don't believe that that is the case now, at least with respect to Mr. Donosky.

I have nothing further unless the Court has questions for me.

THE COURT: I don't. Thank you very much.

MS. GREEN: Thank you.

THE COURT: I appreciate that, Ms. Green.

Ms. Walker?

MS. WALKER: Adrienne Walker for Bay 9, and, Your Honor, I think Ms. Green did an exceptional job, and I don't think I have much more to add. I do think, though, in our -- in our brief that we submitted, we did point out, and I do take counsel's word exactly at that -- we all make typos -- I think, actually, Mr. Gold pointed to my inadvertence on the APA, so I don't take that, but I do think it's material.

And I think it's material, because the integration language at 9.18 speaks of, not only are there leases and services contracts that Ms. Green pointed to, but it's the integration of agreements between the lessor and the lessee. It's not all -- even if you were to think that, you know, it's a package deal, even in their integration language that they chose doesn't bring in the Donosky commission or any agreement with Mr. Donosky. So, I think that that's important to point out.

And I actually think the fact that Mr. Gregory, who I think was phenomenal as a witness, and I wish to have him as a witness the next case I have, he said, this is the key point. So, if you were to look at parol evidence, you know, you've got to go back to what did they think and intend? They thought that was the key integration. So, okay, it's keeping to your word. I actually think, just, the documents speak for themselves.

One other point on the -- and just, it supports it, on the option agreement, itself, at 13.8, and I got a little fancy and highlighted stuff when I cut and pasted this into the brief. I was very impressed with that. And I note that at the end of 13.8, it says, "The execution or failure of the broker to enter into its own agreement" isn't going to be binding on the other agreement.

So, I think there is two parts intended. It's going to be a separate agreement, and if you fail to enter into it, it's not going to have an effect on the other aspects of the agreement. It think that's basically saying, you have your own deal. And this happens every day when I do a closing. When we do the closing for this sale, which I'm very confident and enthusiastic for, we're going to have a table full of paper if we still print all this stuff out now. But, because every deal has so many little pieces to it.

So you have to take it, what was really intended to be integrated, what was intended to be part of the same -- bigger part of the transaction, and those pieces stand on their own. I think the Donosky commission just stands on its own. It doesn't mean it wasn't discussed or a part of it. But just like any other deal, you're going to have a lot of side ancillaries. And you need to be -- and this is what Texas law instructs -- very particular on what's to be integrated and divisible.

And the documents, each of them, are important, but they do stand on their own. They say they're separate agreements, but also, I highlighted some additional language within them, just like I had mentioned at 13.8 that does say, you know, you're going to do for you. And that makes, actually, common sense, because I would think, if I'm the landlord, I wouldn't want the Donosky commission in my lease, because, what, is he going to go look to the landlord? They don't want that.

You're saying, in these deals, they say, broker, you're the only broker to this deal. That's what you want. So that's what these agreements say, Donosky, I'm the only broker. And then, smartly, I would think -- again, don't have the parol evidence -- but my argument is, there's a reason why the integration says lessor and lessees, because in the typical commission deal, you don't want to be having some third party beneficiary argument.

Again, that's my argument. I'm not saying you need to read that. But I think, when you read the language, the plain four corners of the document, there is a reason why you say lessor and lessee. And so, I'm not trying to poke at anyone with a typo, because that's truly not the intent, but rather, what does 9.18 say?

And with that, I'm going to actually say, Ms. Green did an excellent job, and I'm going to rest on all of her arguments, her brief that was far better than mine, and inasmuch as mine can support and supplement, I'd ask Your Honor to look at that, too.

Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you very much. Thank you, Ms. Walker.

Anything further?

MR. HENDRICKS: Could I get a last word?

THE COURT: Sure.

MR. HENDRICKS: Your Honor, I certainly understand why neither the Debtor nor Bay 9 wants this obligation, and I feel pretty much alone in the courtroom on that position. But the point is, you can't cherry-pick your obligations under a lease agreement under 365. You can't say, well, we don't want this building. We'll take these 15, but not this building. We don't want to -- you know, I know the Court is tired of hearing about repairs, but they don't get to say, well, we don't want to do these repairs. We don't want to pay the taxes. We don't want to pay the commission obligation that comes with this lease.

And I just don't think you get to pick and choose, and I think it's a fair reading of this document that it was intended by the parties that the lease commission owed to Mr. Donosky was intended to be part of the lease obligation, and that's the way the parties treated it for 22 years, Your Honor. And they can't just come in and say, gee, time out; 22 years into 55, and we change our mind, and we're not going to do it that way anymore.

And I would urge the Court -- I don't disagree with the legal analysis -- read the contracts carefully. And I urge the Court to look at the big picture here and the testimony and the actions of the parties and find that this is all one package.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Hendricks.

MR. HENDRICKS: Thank you.

THE COURT: All right. It is -- it is late in the day. I'm sure folks have planes to catch or at least dinners to get to, if nothing else, so I won't keep you very long.

I just wanted -- I wanted to commend all of the professionals in the case on the quality of their arguments, both the technical and aesthetic prowess that I saw in the court and the professionalism that the Court witnessed.

While I clearly recognize bare-knuckled fighting was probably going on outside of this courtroom, I can't but commend everything that I saw within the courtroom, and that would include the courtesies over the course of the case that were shown to my staff, all of which I consider exceptional.

If something, as I've said before, something has gone right in the case, you can thank them. If you disagree, you can blame me, because that's why I get these fancy shoulder pads.

I certainly want to express my appreciation to the residents who have watched this case with great interest over the last year. I'm sure a lot of them had to learn some pretty new technology, you know, to get into the courtroom. I had to do the same thing a couple years ago, so I feel for you.

I, personally, do think about the residents every day, and realize that they probably -- how they hang on every decision in this courtroom. And what I want to express to those that are listening is that I truly do believe that all of the parties in this room, although, you know, fighting and litigating, have the best interest of the Edgemere and the residents at heart, and I certainly intend to work day and night to get the parties their rulings just as soon as I can. But I also have to, as part of my duty, to give due consideration to the time and the efforts of the lawyers on both sides and to fully consider all of the arguments and the evidence that's been put before me.

It was a hard call for the Court to not extend exclusivity. It was a hard call for this Court to watch as the litigation at the beginning of the case, to know that there was no way that that was going to be able to be completed in the time in which either a restructure or a sale of anything needed to happen for the sake of the case.

And, certainly, you know, I think in terms of residents, I think that the Court is lucky to be where we are. We do have a Plan before us, and we have light at the end of the tunnel, but I do have a lot to consider, like I said, to protect everyone's rights, those of the Debtor, those of the creditors, and those of, I would just say, the primary, you know, objector to the Plan, that of the landlord, who, no matter what, is, again, going to have this tenant for 32 more years.

So, I, obviously, have a lot to think about, but I will do it just as soon as I possibly can. And so, with that, again I thank the parties. It's been -- although I know it's been tough for everyone, it's been a pleasure to preside over the case. It's, like I said, a group of very exceptional lawyers, and I was luck to preside over the case.

So, thank you very much, and the Court will stand adjourned for the day. Thank you.

(End of proceeding at 6:06 p.m.)

GLOBAL NOTES, METHODOLOGY, AND SPECIFIC DISCLOSURES REGARDING THE DEBTORS' SCHEDULES OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES AND STATEMENTS OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

Introduction

Northwest Senior Housing Corporation d/b/a Edgemere ("Edgemere") and its affiliate Senior Quality Lifestyles Corporation ("SQLC"), as debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (collectively, the "Debtors"), with the assistance of their advisors, have filed their respective Schedules of Assets and Liabilities (the "Schedules") and Statements of Financial Affairs (the "Statements," and together with the Schedules, the "Schedules and Statements") with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division, (the "Bankruptcy Court"), under section 521 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), Rule 1007 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and Rule 1007-1 of the Bankruptcy Local Rules for the Southern District of Texas (the "Bankruptcy Local Rules").

These Global Notes, Methodology, and Specific Disclosures Regarding the Debtors' Schedules of Assets and Liabilities and Statements of Financial Affairs (the "Global Notes") pertain to, are incorporated by reference in, and comprise an integral part of all of the Debtors' Schedules and Statements. The Global Notes should be referred to, considered, and reviewed in connection with any review of the Schedules and Statements.

The Schedules and Statements do not purport to represent financial statements prepared in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States ("GAAP"), nor are they intended to be fully reconciled with the financial statements of each Debtor. Additionally, the Schedules and Statements contain unaudited information that is subject to further review and potential adjustment and reflects the Debtors' reasonable efforts to report the assets and liabilities of each Debtor on an unconsolidated basis.

[1] The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, are Northwest Senior Housing Corporation (1278) and Senior Quality Lifestyles Corporation (2669). The Debtors' mailing address is 8523 Thackery Street, Dallas, Texas 75225.

The Debtors and their agents, attorneys, and advisors do not guarantee or warrant the accuracy or completeness of the data that is provided herein and shall not be liable for any loss or injury arising out of or caused in whole or in part by the acts, errors, or omissions, whether negligent or otherwise, in procuring, compiling, collecting, interpreting, reporting, communicating, or delivering the information contained herein. While reasonable efforts have been made to provide accurate and complete information herein, inadvertent errors or omissions may exist. The Debtors and their agents, attorneys, and advisors expressly do not undertake any obligation to update, modify, revise, or re-categorize the information provided herein, or to notify any third party should the information be updated, modified, revised, or re-categorized. In no event shall the Debtors or their agents, attorneys, and advisors be liable to any third party for any direct, indirect, incidental, consequential, or special damages (including damages arising from the disallowance of a potential claim against the Debtors or damages to business reputation, lost business, or lost profits), whether foreseeable or not and however caused, even if the Debtors or their agents, attorneys, and advisors are advised of the possibility of such damages.

Mr. Nick Harshfield signed each set of the Schedules and Statements. Mr. Harshfield is a Director, Vice Chair and Treasurer of the Debtors and is an authorized signatory for each Debtor. In reviewing and signing the Schedules and Statements, Mr. Harshfield necessarily relied upon the efforts, statements, and representations of various personnel employed by the Debtors and their advisors. Mr. Harshfield has not (and could not have) personally verified the accuracy of each statement and representation contained in the Schedules and Statements, including statements and representations concerning amounts owed to creditors, classification of such amounts, and creditor addresses.

Global Notes and Overview of Methodology

1. Reservation of Rights. Reasonable efforts have been made to prepare and file complete and accurate Schedules and Statements, but inadvertent errors or omissions may exist. The Debtors reserve all rights to: (a) amend or supplement the Schedules and Statements from time to time, in all respects, as may be necessary or appropriate, including the right to amend the Schedules and Statements with respect to the description, designation, or Debtor against which any claim against a Debtor ("Claim")[2] is asserted; (b) dispute or otherwise assert offsets or defenses to any Claim reflected in the Schedules and Statements as to amount, liability, priority, status, or classification; (c) subsequently designate any Claim as "disputed," "contingent," or "unliquidated;" or (d) object to the extent, validity, enforceability, priority, or avoidability of any Claim (regardless of whether of such Claim is designated in the Schedules and Statements as "disputed," "contingent," or "unliquidated"). Any failure to designate a Claim in the Schedules and Statements as "disputed," "contingent," or "unliquidated" does not constitute an admission by the Debtors that such Claim or amount is not "disputed," "contingent," or "unliquidated."

[2] For the purposes of these Global Notes, the term Claim shall have the meaning as defined under Bankruptcy Code section 101(5).

Listing a Claim does not constitute an admission of liability by the Debtor against which the Claim is listed or against any of the Debtors. Furthermore, nothing contained in the Schedules and Statements shall constitute a waiver of rights with respect to the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, including, issues involving Claims, substantive consolidation, defenses, equitable subordination, and/or causes of action arising under the provisions of chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code and any other relevant non-bankruptcy laws to recover assets or avoid transfers. Any specific reservation or rights contained elsewhere in the Global Notes does not limit in any respect the general reservation of rights contained in this paragraph. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors shall not be required to update the Schedules and Statements.

2. Description of Cases and "As Of" Information Date. On April 14, 2022 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

The asset information provided herein represents the asset data of the Debtors as of the Petition Date, except as otherwise noted. The liability information provided herein represents the outstanding pre-petition liabilities as of the Petition Date.

3. Net Book Value of Assets. It would be prohibitively expensive, unduly burdensome, and an inefficient use of estate resources for the Debtors to obtain current market valuations for all of their assets. Unless otherwise indicated, the asset data contained in the Schedules and Statements reflect net book value as of the Petition Date. Book values of assets prepared in accordance with GAAP generally do not reflect the current performance of the assets and may differ materially from the actual value of the underlying assets. Furthermore, values for assets that have been fully depreciated or were expenses for accounting purposes may not appear in these Schedules and Statements as they have no net book value.

4. Recharacterization. Notwithstanding the Debtors' reasonable efforts to properly characterize, classify, categorize, or designate certain Claims, assets, executory contracts, unexpired leases, and other items reported in the Schedules and Statements, the Debtors may nevertheless have improperly characterized, classified, categorized, designated, or omitted certain items due to the complexity and size of the Debtors' businesses. Accordingly, the Debtors reserve all of their rights to recharacterize, reclassify, recategorize, redesignate, add, or delete items reported in the Schedules and Statements at a later time as is necessary or appropriate as additional information becomes available, including, whether contracts or leases listed herein were deemed executory or unexpired as of the Petition Date and remain executory and unexpired postpetition.

5. Liabilities. The Debtors have sought to allocate liabilities between the prepetition and postpetition periods and by Debtor based on the information and research conducted in connection with the preparation of the Schedules and Statements. As additional information becomes available and further research is conducted, the allocation of liabilities between the prepetition and postpetition periods may change. Accordingly, the Debtors reserve all of their rights to amend, supplement, or otherwise modify the Schedules and Statements as is necessary or appropriate.

6. Excluded Assets and Liabilities[3]. The Debtors have excluded certain categories of assets, tax accruals, and liabilities from the Schedules and Statements, including, employee benefit accruals, and in some instances accrued accounts payable. In addition, certain immaterial assets and liabilities may have been excluded.

   The Bankruptcy Court has authorized (but not directed) the Debtors to pay, in their discretion, certain outstanding Claims on a postpetition basis. As discussed below, prepetition liabilities that the Debtors have paid postpetition pursuant to relief granted by the court may not be listed in the Schedules and Statements.

7. Insiders. For purposes of the Schedules and Statements, the Debtors defined "insiders" pursuant to section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code as: (a) directors; (b) officers; (c) persons in control of the Debtors; (d) relatives of the Debtors' directors, officers, or persons in control of the Debtors; and (e) debtor/non-debtor affiliates of the foregoing. Persons listed as "insiders" have been included for informational purposes only and by including them in the Schedules, shall not constitute an admission that those persons are insiders for purposes of section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code. Moreover, the Debtors do not take any position with respect to: (a) any insider's influence over the control of the Debtors; (b) the management responsibilities or functions of any such insider; (c) the decision making or corporate authority of any such insider; or (d) whether the Debtors or any such insider could successfully argue that he or she is not an "insider" under applicable law or with respect to any theories of liability or for any other purpose.

8. Intellectual Property Rights. Exclusion of certain intellectual property shall not be construed as an admission that such intellectual property rights have been abandoned, terminated, assigned, expired by their terms, or otherwise transferred pursuant to a sale, acquisition, or other transaction. Conversely, inclusion of certain intellectual property shall not be construed to be an admission that such intellectual property rights have not been abandoned, have not been terminated or otherwise expired by their terms, or have not been assigned or otherwise transferred pursuant to a sale, acquisition, or other transaction. The Debtors have made every effort to attribute intellectual property to the rightful Debtor owner. However, in some instances intellectual property owned by one Debtor may, in fact, be owned by another. Accordingly, the Debtors reserve all of their rights with respect to the legal status of any and all such intellectual property rights.

9. Executory Contracts. Although the Debtors made reasonable efforts to attribute an executory contract to its rightful Debtor, in certain instances, the Debtors may have inadvertently failed to do so due to the complexity and size of the Debtors' businesses. Accordingly, the Debtors reserve all of their rights with respect to the named parties of any and all executory contracts, including the right to amend Schedule G.

10. Classifications. Listing (a) a Claim on Schedule D as "secured," (b) a Claim on Schedule E/F as "priority," (c) a Claim on Schedule E/F as "unsecured," or (d) a contract on Schedule G as "executory" or "unexpired," does not constitute an admission by the Debtors of the legal rights of the claimant or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to recharacterize or reclassify such Claims or contracts or to setoff of such Claims.

[3] Personal property of Residents situated on the Debtors' premises, is not the property of the Debtors' estates, and is, therefore, a category of an excluded asset.

11. Claims Description. Schedules D and E/F permit each of the Debtors to designate a Claim as "disputed," "contingent," and/or "unliquidated." Any failure to designate a Claim on a given Debtor's Schedules and Statements as "disputed," "contingent," or "unliquidated" does not constitute an admission by that Debtor that such amount is not "disputed," "contingent," or "unliquidated," or that such Claim is not subject to objection. The Debtors reserve all of their rights to dispute, or assert offsets or defenses to, any Claim reflected on their respective Schedules and Statements on any grounds, including liability or classification. Additionally, the Debtors expressly reserve all of their rights to subsequently designate such Claims as "disputed," "contingent," or "unliquidated." Moreover, listing a Claim does not constitute an admission of liability by the Debtors.

12. Causes of Action. Despite their reasonable efforts to identify all known assets, the Debtors may not have listed all of their causes of action or potential causes of action against third parties as assets in the Schedules and Statements, including causes of action that are required to be kept confidential and causes of action arising under the provisions of chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code and any other relevant non-bankruptcy laws to recover assets or avoid transfers. The Debtors reserve all of their rights with respect to any cause of action (including avoidance actions), controversy, right of setoff, cross claim, counterclaim, or recoupment, and any claim on contracts or for breaches of duties imposed by law or in equity, demand, right, action, lien, indemnity, guaranty, suit, obligation, liability, damage, judgment, account, defense, power, privilege, license, and franchise of any kind or character whatsoever, known, unknown, fixed or contingent, matured or unmatured, suspected or unsuspected, liquidated or unliquidated, disputed or undisputed, secured or unsecured, assertable directly or derivatively, whether arising before, on, or after the Petition Date, in contract or in tort, in law or in equity, or pursuant to any other theory of law (collectively, "Causes of Action") they may have, and neither these Global Notes nor the Schedules and Statements shall be deemed a waiver of any claims or Causes of Action or in any way prejudice or impair the assertion of such claims or Causes of Action.

13. Summary of Significant Reporting Policies. The following is a summary of significant reporting policies:

    a. Undetermined Amounts. The description of an amount as "unknown," "TBD," "NA", or "undetermined" is not intended to reflect upon the materiality of such amount.

    b. Totals. All totals that are included in the Schedules and Statements represent totals of all known amounts. To the extent there are unknown or undetermined amounts, the actual total may be different than the listed total.

    c. Paid Claims. The Debtors were authorized (but not directed) to pay certain outstanding prepetition Claims pursuant to various orders entered by the Bankruptcy Court. Accordingly, certain outstanding liabilities may have been reduced or satisfied by post-petition payments made on account of prepetition liabilities. The Debtors reserve all of their rights to amend or supplement the Schedules and Statements or take other action as is necessary or appropriate to avoid over-payment of or duplicate payments for any such liabilities.

d. Liens. Property and equipment listed in the Schedules and Statements are presented without consideration of any liens that may attach (or have attached) to such property and equipment.

14. Currency. All amounts are reflected in U.S. dollars.

15. Intercompany Payables and Receivables. Intercompany payables between the Debtors and non-Debtor affiliates as of the Petition Date are set forth on Schedule E/F.

The listing by the Debtors of any account between a Debtor and another Debtor or between a Debtor and a non-Debtor affiliate is a statement of what appears in a particular Debtor's books and records and does not reflect any admission or conclusion of the Debtors regarding the allowance, classification, characterization, validity, or priority of such account. The Debtors take no position in these Schedules and Statements as to whether such accounts would be allowed as a Claim, an Interest, or not allowed at all. The Debtors reserve all rights with respect to such accounts and reserve all rights with respect to the treatment or characterization of such items.

16. Setoffs. The Debtors periodically incur certain setoffs in the ordinary course of business. Setoffs in the ordinary course can result from various items including, but not limited to, intercompany transactions, pricing discrepancies, returns, warranties, credits, refunds, negotiations, and/or disputes between the Debtors and their vendors or customers, and other disputes between the Debtors and their customers and/or suppliers. These normal setoffs are consistent with the ordinary course of business in the Debtors' industry and can be particularly voluminous, making it unduly burdensome and costly for the Debtors to list such ordinary course setoffs. Therefore, although such setoffs and other similar rights may have been accounted for when scheduling certain amounts, these ordinary course setoffs are not independently accounted for, and as such, are or may be excluded from the Debtors' Schedules and Statements.

17. Global Notes Control. In the event that the Schedules and Statements differ from these Global Notes, the Global Notes shall control.

Specific Disclosures with Respect to the Debtors' Schedules

Schedules Summary. Except as otherwise noted, the asset and liability information provided herein represents the Debtors' assets and liabilities as of the Petition Date.

For financial reporting purposes, the Debtors and certain of their non-Debtor affiliates ordinarily prepare consolidated financial statements. Unlike the consolidated financial statements, the Schedules reflect the assets and liabilities of each Debtor on a nonconsolidated basis. Accordingly, the totals listed in the Schedules will likely differ, at times materially, from the consolidated financial reports prepared by the Debtors for financial reporting purposes or otherwise.

The Schedules do not purport to represent financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP, nor are they intended to be fully reconciled with the financial statements of each Debtor. Certain write-downs, impairments, and other accounting adjustments may not be reflected in the Schedules. Additionally, the Schedules contain unaudited information that is subject to further review and potential adjustment and reflect the Debtors' reasonable best efforts to report the assets and liabilities of each Debtor on an unconsolidated basis. Moreover, given, among other things, the uncertainty surrounding the collection and ownership of certain assets and the valuation and nature of certain liabilities, to the extent that a Debtor shows more assets than liabilities, this is not an admission that the Debtor was solvent as of the Petition Date or at any time before the Petition Date. Likewise, to the extent a Debtor shows more liabilities than assets, this is not an admission that the Debtor was insolvent as of the Petition Date or at any time before the Petition Date.

Schedule A/B – Real and Personal Property

Part 1 – Cash and Cash Equivalents. Amounts listed reflect the bank balance as of April 14, 2022, and not the net book value. Accounts listed as Restricted are not part of the Debtor's general operating funds and cash collateral. The restricted cash in the Trustee-held accounts is held in trust by the Trustee as collateral for the benefit of the holders of the secured claims listed in Schedule D. The parties holding those claims have a validly perfected possessory security interest in the Trustee-held funds and, as such, the Trustee-held accounts are not property of the Debtors' bankruptcy estate.

Part 2 – Deposits and Prepayments. The Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Final Order (I) Prohibiting Utility Providers from Altering, Refusing, or Discontinuing Service, (II) Deeming the Utility Providers Adequately Assured of Future Performance, and (III) Establishing Procedures for Determining Requests for Additional Adequate Assurance [Docket No. 224], has authorized the Debtors to provide adequate assurance of payment for postpetition utility services, including a deposit in the amount of approximately $52,850. Such deposit is not listed on Schedule A/B 7, which reflects deposits as of the Petition Date.

Part 3 – Accounts Receivable. Gross accounts receivable is stated as of April 14, 2022. The allowance for doubtful accounts is estimated based on the aging of accounts receivable, historical collections data, review of specific accounts and other factors. Other Receivables where noted are as of the Petition Date.

Part 4 – Investments. Investment in subsidiary represents a 50% membership interest as of March 31, 2022. Investment in the private equity fund holding is valued at cost as of December 31, 2021. Nothing in these Schedules is an admission by or conclusion of the Debtors regarding the value of such subsidiary or other investment holdings, which, under certain fair market or enterprise valuation analyses, may differ materially from the value than what is presented.

Part 5 – Inventory. The Debtors hold inventory, which is turned over on a frequent basis, including perishables, such as raw food, and medical supplies. The Debtors perform periodic physical reviews of inventory.

Parts 7, 8 and 9 – Fixed Assets. Fixed Assets are presented at book value and are presented net of accumulated depreciation and other adjustments pursuant to the Debtors' books as of March 31, 2022. For purposes of these Schedules, accumulated depreciation has been allocated to fixtures, furniture, and office equipment due to the Debtors' financial recordkeeping practices. The Debtors have not completed a physical inventory or appraisal of their owned equipment, medical supply inventory or other physical assets. Further, nothing in the Schedules or SOFAs (including, without limitation, the failure to list leased property or equipment as owned property or equipment) is or shall be construed as an admission as to the determination of legal status of any lease (including whether any lease is a true lease or financing arrangement), and the Debtors reserve all their rights with respect to such issues.

Debtor Northwest Senior Housing Corporation reserves all rights, claims and causes of action against Intercity Investment Properties, Inc. and Kong Capital, LLC in the Adversary Proceeding (22-30660-MVL).

Part 10 – Intangibles and Intellectual Property. Intangibles and intellectual property are presented at book value, net of accumulated amortization and other adjustments pursuant to the Debtors' books as of April 14, 2022.

Part 11 – All Other Assets. Despite exercising their reasonable efforts to identify all known assets, the Debtors may not have listed all of their causes of action or potential causes of action against third parties as assets in their Schedules including, but not limited to, avoidance actions arising under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code and actions under other relevant non-bankruptcy laws to recover assets. Unless otherwise noted on specific responses, items reported on Schedule A/B are reported from the Debtors' book and records as of the Petition Date. The Debtors reserve all of their rights with respect to any claims and causes of action they may have. Neither these Global Notes nor the Schedules shall be deemed a waiver of any such claims or causes of action or to prejudice or impair the assertion thereof in any way.

Schedule D – Creditors Who Have Claims Secured by Property. Except as otherwise agreed pursuant to a stipulation or order entered by the Bankruptcy Court, the Debtors reserve their rights to dispute or challenge the validity, perfection or immunity from avoidance of any lien purported to be granted or perfected in any specific asset to a secured creditor listed on Schedule D. Moreover, although the Debtors have schedule claims of various creditors as secured, the Debtors reserve all rights to dispute or challenge the secured nature of any such creditor's claim or the characterization of the structure of any such transaction or any document or instrument related to such creditor's claim.

The Debtors have not included parties that may believe their Claims are secured through setoff rights, inchoate statutory lien rights, or other lien rights created by the laws of the various jurisdictions in which the Debtors operate.

While reasonable efforts have been made, determination of the date upon which each claim in Schedule D was incurred or arose would be unduly burdensome or cost prohibitive, and therefore the Debtor may not list a date for each claim listed on Schedule D. Finally, the Debtor is taking no position on the extent or priority of any particular creditor's lien in this document.

The amounts outstanding under the Debtors' prepetition secured debt reflect approximate principal and interest amounts as of the Petition Date.

Descriptions provided on Schedule D are intended only to be a summary. Reference to the applicable loan agreements and related documents is necessary for a complete description of the collateral and the nature, extent, and priority of any liens.

Schedule E/F – Creditors Who Have Unsecured Claims. The listing by the Debtors of any account between a Debtor and a non-debtor affiliate is a statement of what appears in a particular Debtor's books and records and does not reflect any admission or conclusion of the Debtors regarding the allowance, classification, characterization, validity, or priority of such account. The Debtors take no position in these Schedules and Statements as to whether such accounts would be allowed as a Claim, an Interest, or not allowed at all. The Debtors and all parties in interest reserve all rights with respect to such accounts. Various Debtors are borrowers, and certain of the other Debtors are guarantors, under prepetition funded obligations.

The claims of individual creditors for, among other things, goods, products, services, customer refunds, or taxes are listed as the amounts entered on the Debtors' books and records and may not reflect credits, allowances, or other adjustments due from such creditors to the Debtors. The Debtors reserve all of their rights with regard to such credits, allowances, and other adjustments, including the right to assert claims objections and/or setoffs with respect to the same.

Schedule E/F does not include certain deferred charges, deferred liabilities, accruals, or general reserves. Such amounts are, however, reflected on the Debtors' books and records as required in accordance with GAAP. Such accruals are general estimates of liabilities and do not represent specific Claims as of the Petition Date. The Debtors have made every effort to include as contingent, unliquidated, or disputed the Claim of any vendor not included on the Debtors' open accounts payable that is associated with an account that has an accrual.

Under the Final Order Authorizing Payment of Prepetition Taxes and Fees [Docket No. 220] (the "Tax Order"), the Bankruptcy Court granted the Debtors authority to pay the prepetition Claims of regulatory authorities on account of taxes and fees.

Under the Final Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Maintain Existing Insurance Policies and Pay All Obligations Arising Thereunder, (B) Renew, Revise, Extend, Supplement, Change or Enter into New Insurance Policies, (C) Pay Brokerage Fees and (II) Granting Certain Related Relief [Docket No. 221] (the "Insurance Order"), the Bankruptcy Court granted the Debtors authority to pay the prepetition Claims of insurers on account of insurance premiums, claims and other related obligations.

Under the Final Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Pay Prepetition Wages, Salaries, Commissions, Employee Benefits, Prepetition Payroll Taxes, and Other Obligations, (B) Maintain Compensation and Benefits Programs, and Pay Related Administrative Obligations, and (C) Make Payroll Deductions, (II) Authorizing Applicable Banks and Other Financial Institutions to Honor and Process Related Checks and Transfers, and (III) Granted Related Relief [Docket No. 223] (the "Wages Order"), the Bankruptcy Court granted the Debtors authority to pay or honor certain prepetition obligations for employee wages, salaries, and other compensation, reimbursable employee expenses, and employee medical and similar benefits. The Debtors have not listed on Schedule E/F any wage or wage-related obligations that the Debtors have paid postpetition pursuant to relief granted by court order entered by the Bankruptcy Court.

Schedule G – Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases. Although reasonable efforts have been made to ensure the accuracy of Schedule G regarding executory contracts and unexpired leases, inadvertent errors, omissions or over-inclusion may have occurred in preparing Schedule G. Additionally, as it would be prohibitively expensive, unduly burdensome, and an inefficient use of estate resources for the Debtors to list the term length of each executory contract, only selected contracts' terms have been disclosed. The Debtors hereby expressly reserve the right to revise the expiration date disclosed. Certain of the instruments reflected on Schedule G may contain renewal options, guarantees of payments, options to purchase, rights of first refusal, and other miscellaneous rights. Such rights, powers, duties, and obligations are not separately set forth on Schedule G. The Debtors hereby expressly reserve the right to assert that any instrument listed on Schedule G is an executory contract within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors reserve all of their rights, claims, and causes of action with respect to claims associated with any contracts and agreements listed on Schedule A/B, including their right to dispute or challenge the characterization or the structure of any transaction, document, or instrument (including any intercompany agreement) related to a creditor's claim.

Certain confidentiality, hold harmless, and non-compete agreements may not be listed on Schedule G. In addition, agreements and underlying documentation related to the Debtors' prepetition debt is not included in Schedule G. The Debtors reserve all of their rights with respect to such agreements.

Certain of the contracts and agreements listed on Schedule G may consist of several parts, including purchase orders, amendments, restatements, waivers, letters, and other documents that may not be listed on Schedule G or that may be listed as a single entry.

The contracts, agreements, and leases listed on Schedule G may have expired or may have been modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time by various amendments, restatements, waivers, estoppel certificates, letters, memoranda, and other documents, instruments, and agreements that may not be listed therein despite the Debtors' use of reasonable efforts to identify such documents. Further, unless otherwise specified on Schedule G, each executory contract or unexpired lease listed thereon shall include all exhibits, schedules, riders, modifications, declarations, amendments, supplements, attachments, restatements, or other agreements made directly or indirectly by any agreement, instrument, or other document that in any manner affects such executory contract or unexpired lease, without respect to whether such agreement, instrument, or other document is listed thereon. In some cases, the same supplier or provider appears multiple times on Schedule G. This multiple listing is intended to reflect distinct agreements between the applicable Debtor and such supplier or provider.

Debtor Northwest Senior Housing Corporation reserves all rights, claims and causes of action against Intercity Investment Properties, Inc. and Kong Capital, LLC in the Adversary Proceeding (22-30660-MVL).

Specific Disclosures with Respect to the Debtors' Statements

Statement 3. In Statement 3, disbursements made on account of multiple invoices may be reflected as a single payment.

All disbursements listed in Statement 3 are made through the Debtors' cash management system, more fully described in the Cash Management Motion. Dates listed in Statement 3 reflect the dates upon which the Debtor transferred funds to the relevant payee or disbursing agent. Certain disbursements may be excluded from Statement 3, including disbursements to insiders and disbursements to certain retained professionals (reported elsewhere).

Statement 4. Transfers of cash or assets are listed on a transfer basis between Debtors. Intercompany payable balances as of the Petition Date can be found on Schedule E/F.

Statement 26. In addition to the Debtors' issuing financial statements to the specific entities disclosed, in the ordinary course of their business, the Debtors have posted their financial statements on the Electronic Municipal Market Access website and have provided financial statements or certain financial information to various parties for business, statutory, credit, financing and other commercial purposes.

5. I am generally familiar with the contents of each First Day Motion and believe that the relief sought therein allows the Debtors to, among other things, fulfill their duties as debtors in possession and minimize the disruption to the Debtors' business operations that may be caused by the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases. Additionally, I believe that the relief requested in the First Day Motions is important to ensure that the Debtors can continue to deliver necessary care and services to their residents as further described herein.

6. Except as otherwise indicated, all facts set forth in this Declaration are based upon my personal knowledge, my review of relevant documents, my opinion based upon my experience and knowledge of the Debtors' operations and financial condition, and information provided to me by advisors or other representatives of the Debtors. If called as a witness, I would testify consistently with the facts set forth in this Declaration.

7. The purpose of these Chapter 11 Cases is to implement a comprehensive balance sheet restructuring to address the Debtors' short- and long-term liquidity needs, as well as to resolve Edgemere's obligations under the Ground Lease (as defined below) that will in turn advance Edgemere's long-term viability, and redress damages suffered by Edgemere as a result of the Landlord's (as defined below) bad faith actions. Critically, the Debtors intend to assume all Residency Agreements (as defined below) for existing residents and honor the refund obligations to former residents while maintaining future obligations to current and prospective residents. Entrance Fees paid by New Residents and Prospective Residents who signed their New Residency Agreements or paid their Reservation Deposit on or after September 27, 2021, have been and will continue to be maintained in escrow pending confirmation of a plan, for the benefit of each Resident.

8. To familiarize the Court with the Debtors and the relief the Debtors seek early in these Chapter 11 Cases, this Declaration is organized into three sections. Section I provides an overview of the Debtors' operations and capital structure. Section II describes the events that have led to these bankruptcy filings and an overview of the Debtors' restructuring objectives. Section III sets forth the relevant facts in support of each First Day Motions filed in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases, which the Debtors believe are critical to administering these Chapter 11 Cases and preserving and maximizing the value of the Debtors' Estates.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

9. Edgemere was formed in 1998 as a Texas non-profit corporation to construct, own, and operate a best-in-class senior living community situated on a 16.25-acre site in Dallas, Texas (the "Community"). Since 2001, Edgemere has operated a Type A "life care" entrance-fee model CCRC, which offers its senior residents (the "Residents") a continuum of care in a campus-style setting, as well as health care and support services to its target market of seniors. Unlike other CCRC models, a life care model provides that the residents receive care and services offered by the Community throughout their lifetime at the same monthly service fee regardless of their level of care needs. Although there may be periodic increases to the monthly service fees, those increases are relatively minor and apply to all residents.

10. CCRCs enable seniors to remain on the same campus as they age and their needs change by providing various levels of support and care at the same community. Upon entering a CCRC, Residents are provided spacious apartments and a broad range of social and recreational activities creating an unmatched quality of life. With the passage of time and as Residents require additional assistance with everyday activities or health care services, they have access to assisted living, memory support, skilled nursing facilities and rehabilitation located on the same campus. As their new home, CCRC Residents entrust their health, safety, and well-being to CCRCs for the duration of their lives. In addition, CCRCs provide Residents with multiple entertainment outlets and other social benefits for all stages of their retirement living.

11. For many seniors, moving into a CCRC is an attractive option for them and their families because it minimizes the burdens and costs associated with the aging process. "Entrance fee model" CCRCs require residents to pay an entrance fee upon moving into a community, but there are other models that do not include an entrance fee and are "rental" in nature. Typically within the industry a portion of this entrance fee is refundable to the resident or the resident's estate when the resident leaves the community or passes away. Prospective residents will often sell their homes, liquidate significant assets or invest a significant portion of their life savings to become a member of a CCRC like Edgemere.

12. CCRCs are operationally and financially complex. CCRCs require the operational framework to provide a broad range of services to seniors in varying stages of life. Additionally, there are substantial capital needs involved in building and maintaining the necessary infrastructure. Financial viability requires a stable resident population and a steady flow of new residents to generate the revenue necessary to fund day-to-day operations and to remain current on financial obligations, including obligations to current and former Residents. As has become common in the senior living industry, and in particular among CCRCs, Edgemere has faced financial challenges. Furthermore, like many CCRCs and other providers of senior living, Edgemere has been challenged by the COVID-19 Pandemic. Occupancy rates in all levels of living have declined and the Community faces financial challenges, the effect of which threaten Edgemere's ability to honor its long-term debt obligations and maintain its operational stability.

13. In addition to the strain caused by reductions in occupancy rates over the past two years, the above market Ground Lease (as defined below) and its termination date not only challenge Edgemere financially but also threaten the viability of the Community that over 400 Residents call home.

14. The Debtors have engaged and continue engaging in extensive arm's length negotiations with (a) Lifespace Communities, Inc. ("Lifespace"), the current not-for-profit sole corporate member of Edgemere and SQLC; and (b) UMB Bank, N.A. as successor master trustee and successor bond trustee (in either capacity, as applicable, the "Trustee") with the goal of achieving a global, consensual restructuring and implementing such restructuring through a restructuring support agreement and plan of reorganization. The Debtors will continue negotiating in the hopes of reaching a consensual restructuring among the Debtors, the Trustee, and Lifespace (the "Parties"). The Debtors' financial condition combined with the automatic stay and other protections provided under the Bankruptcy Code affords them with the opportunity to continue arm's length negotiations with key stakeholders to develop an exit strategy that preserves Residents' quality of life while maximizing the value of the Debtors' estates. The Parties are progressing toward reaching an agreement on the restructuring of the Debtors' secured debt, which includes a significant contribution from Lifespace.

15. Unfortunately, as discussed in greater detail below, the Debtors' extensive attempts to negotiate a long-term solution with Intercity Investment Properties, Inc. (the "Landlord"), Edgemere's landlord under that certain Ground Lease dated November 17, 1999 (as amended, the "Ground Lease") have failed due to the Landlord's bad faith and attempts to terminate the Ground Lease.

I. COMPANY HISTORY AND OPERATIONS

A. Company Structure and History

16. Debtor Northwest Senior Housing Corporation d/b/a Edgemere is a Texas nonprofit corporation and is exempt from federal income taxation as a charitable organization described under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("IRC"). Northwest Senior Housing Corporation was formed for the purpose of developing, owning and operating a senior living community now known as Edgemere.[3]

17. Lifespace is Edgemere's sole member. Lifespace is an Iowa not-for-profit corporation exempt from Federal income taxes under IRC Section 501(c)(3). Lifespace is authorized to do business in Texas and other states. Lifespace's mission is to create communities that celebrate the lives of seniors. Lifespace, directly or through affiliates, owns and operates fourteen (14) other communities in seven (7) states. In addition to my roles with Edgemere, I am also the Chief Financial Officer of Lifespace. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a demonstrative chart, which illustrates the corporate structure of the Debtors and their non-debtor affiliates.

18. In June 2019, Lifespace affiliated with and became the sole member of Debtor Senior Quality Lifestyles Corporation pursuant to that certain affiliation agreement, dated as of

[3] In 2011, Edgemere and Augustine Management Texas, Inc. formed Augustine Home Health Texas, LLC ("AHHT"), a Texas limited liability company. AHHT operates as a licensed home and community support services agency that offers private nursing services to residents of the Community. This is a joint venture.

May 10, 2019, by and between Lifespace and SQLC (the "Affiliation Agreement"). SQLC was formerly the sole owner of Seniority Inc., a California corporation which specialized in developing, operating, and managing CCRCs. Previously, Seniority managed the day-to-day operations of Edgemere and other CCRCs affiliated with SQLC. Under the Affiliation Agreement Lifespace took over the management of three communities, including Edgemere.

B. Overview of Operations

19. Edgemere has been operating since December 2001 on an expansive 16.25-acre site located in Dallas, Texas. Specifically, on or around November 5, 1999, Edgemere entered into the Ground Lease with the Landlord. As explained more fully herein, the Ground Lease has proven to be extremely problematic and precipitated the filing of these Chapter 11 Cases. Edgemere operates a Type A "life care" entrance-fee model CCRC that offers its senior residents a continuum of care in a luxury campus-style setting, providing living accommodations and related health care and support services to a target market of seniors.

20. The Community has 504 total available units and offers ornate Mediterranean inspired architectural and design flourishes on lush grounds. The units are separated into (a) an independent living unit and (b) a Health Center ("The Plaza"). The Community contains two courtyards and provides a high level of staffing and specialists to the independent living building and The Plaza.

21. The Community consists of 304 independent living ("IL") residences in one-, two-, and three-bedroom configurations. The IL unit functions as a prototypical retirement community where all of the residents are at similar stages of life and can engage in shared interests within the safe confines of the community.

22. The Plaza consists of three floors that offer assisted living ("AL"), memory care/memory support ("MC" or "MS"), and skilled nursing options ("SNF"). The Community houses

68 one-bedroom AL suites, 45 one-bedroom MC units, 87 SNF beds, and guest suites. AL offers more independent residents extra assistance with daily tasks. MC focuses on providing for those residents suffering from dementia, Alzheimer's or similar conditions that make more independent living impractical and potentially dangerous. Finally, the SNF provides for those who require constant monitoring or medical care. As of April 11, 2022, 232 IL units were occupied (76.3% occupancy), 43 AL units were occupied (63.2% occupancy), 24 MS units were occupied (53.3% occupancy), and 54 SNF units were occupied (62.1% occupancy).

23. A resident interested in occupying an IL unit in Edgemere must enter into a Life Care Agreement (a "Residency Agreement") with the Community. Under a Residency Agreement, a resident pays a one-time entrance fee and then fixed monthly fees (subject to periodic rate increases) for the community's commitment to provide assisted living, memory, or nursing care upon permanent transfer to AL, MC, or SNF, should the need for such service arise during the duration of the resident's life, regardless of whether the resident's needs change over time. The Residency Agreement is unlike the contractual arrangement used in rental retirement communities, where residents pay monthly fees for services with fees significantly increasing with the resident's need for higher levels of care.

24. Before a potential IL resident (a "Prospective Resident") moves into the Edgemere, the person must execute a Residency Agreement.[4] Among other things, the Residency Agreements set forth the Resident's obligation to pay a fee to the Debtors to occupy the Prospective Resident's unit (an "Entrance Fee"), which may be fully or partially refunded to the Resident,

[4] Only IL residents pay Entrance Fees. Edgemere admits private pay and third-party payor related residents directly to AL, MC and SNF; however, these care options do not involve the payment of entrance fees. Residents admitted directly to AL and MC pay Monthly Service Fees only. Residents admitted directly to SNF pay per diem fees only.

and the amount of the monthly service fees (the "Monthly Service Fees") which the Resident must pay while living at the Community.

25. Edgemere currently offers Prospective Residents the choice of four residency plans, each evidenced by a different Residency Agreement.[5] The residency plans primarily differ with regard to the required Entrance Fee, the Monthly Service Fees, and the amount that can potentially be refunded thereunder. The types of Residency Agreement are:

a. 90% Refundable Plan. Under this plan, the Resident pays a standard Entrance Fee and a Monthly Service Fee. Ninety percent (90%) of the Entrance Fee is refunded to the Resident or to the Resident's estate when the Resident leaves Edgemere, and the unit is re-sold, a new resident entrance fee is received by Edgemere, and the new resident has taken occupancy of the unit.

b. 70% Refundable Plan. Under this plan, the Resident pays a standard Entrance Fee, the Monthly Service Fee is reduced by 20% for a single person (or the Monthly Service Fee for a second person removed), and the Life Care Rate[6] begins when residents transition to The Plaza. Seventy percent (70%) of the Entrance Fee is refunded to the Resident or to the Resident's estate when the Resident leaves Edgemere and the unit is re-sold, a new resident entrance fee is received by Edgemere, and the new resident has taken occupancy of the unit.

c. 50% Refundable Plan. This plan applies to one-bedroom floor plans only and is amortized (2% per month). Under this plan, the Resident's Monthly Service Fee is reduced by $1,000 for life (with annual increases applicable) through the continuum of care. The Monthly Service Fee for a second person remains the same through continuum of care (with annual increases applicable). Fifty percent (50%) of the entrance fee is refunded to the Resident or to the Resident's estate when the Resident leaves Edgemere and the unit is re-sold, a new resident entrance fee is received by Edgemere, and the new resident has taken occupancy of the unit.

d. 0% or "Traditional" Plan. The Resident receives a forty percent (40%) saving from the standard Entrance Fee. No money is refunded to the Resident or the Resident's estate when the Resident leaves Edgemere.

[5] The description of the Residency Agreement terms is a high-level summary. To the extent anything contained herein is inconsistent or conflicts with the terms of a Residency Agreement, the Residency Agreement terms shall govern. Further, the mechanics of Entrance Fee refunds are discussed at length in the Escrow Motion.

[6] As of January 1, 2022, the Lifecare Rate is $6,284, which represents the current Monthly Service Fee for a two-bedroom classic IL unit.

26. Generally, the funds received from Entrance Fees are used to pay refunds to Residents upon termination of a Residency Agreement in accordance with its terms, pay certain project costs, retire debt, cover operating expenses, and generate investment income for the benefit of the CCRC and its Residents. A Prospective Resident typically pays ten percent (10%) of the Entrance Fee upon execution of a Residency Agreement (the "Reservation Deposit") and the remaining balance of the Entrance Fee prior to occupancy (the "Resident Deposit Balance" and together, with the Reservation Deposit an Entrance Fee).

27. As of January 1, 2022, the Entrance Fees range from $345,000 for the smallest one-bedroom apartment to $1,454,000 for the largest three-bedroom apartment. By its terms the Residency Agreement terminates in the event of a Resident's death or if the Resident vacates the CCRC by giving the Debtors written notice. The Debtors intend to assume all Residency Agreements in these Chapter 11 Cases, including obligations under terminated Residency Agreements.

28. The Residency Agreements also require residents to pay Monthly Service Fees. The Debtors use the Monthly Service Fees to fund their operations, service their debt obligations and make capital improvements to the Community. Monthly Service Fees are not static, they vary over time, and are fully described within individual Residency Agreements. As of January 1, 2022, the Debtors' Monthly Service Fee is as follows:

a. IL. For residents who execute Lifecare Contracts and begin their residency at the Community in IL, the Monthly Service Fees range from $4,176 to $8,933. Should a resident permanently transfer from IL to a higher level of care, then the resident's Monthly Service Fee will be adjusted to the Lifecare Rate for Monthly Service Fees.

b. AL. Depending on the unit type selected, direct entrants to AL are charged a Monthly Service Fee ranging from $7,102 to $10,486. An Entrance Fee is not required for direct entrants to AL.

c. MC. Depending on the unit type selected, direct entrants to MC are charged a Monthly Service Fee of $7,034 to $9,402 for single occupancy of a MC unit. An Entrance Fee is not required for direct entrants to MC; however, a security deposit may be required.

29. SNF fees are calculated on a per diem basis. For SNF, private pay rates range from $389 per day to $475 per day. An Entrance Fee is not required for direct entrants to the SNF.

C. Corporate Governance

30. Edgemere and SQLC are each governed by a separate board of directors. Lifespace is the sole corporate member of Edgemere and is also the sole corporate member of SQLC.

D. Management by Lifespace

31. Edgemere was developed by Greystone (a full-service senior living community developer and manager) as a high-end community and in late 2017 and early 2018 management switched from Greystone to Seniority. After the execution of the Affiliation Agreement between Lifespace and SQLC in May 2019, Lifespace became the sole member and manager of Edgemere and two other CCRCs located in Texas. Pursuant to that certain Management Services Agreement, dated as of August 15, 2019 (the "MSA"), Lifespace served as the exclusive manager of its day-to-day operations. The services provided by Lifespace include: (a) determining operating policies, procedures, and standards; (b) developing and executing a sales plan; (c) establishing food and beverage policies; (d) establishing all employment policies, including wage and salary terms, benefits, retirement plans, and bonuses; (e) hiring, promoting, supervising, directing, training, transferring, and discharging all of Edgemere's employees; (f) negotiating and consummating such agreements as Lifespace deems necessary or advisable for furnishing all utilities, services, supplies, food, beverages, equipment, and other materials and supplies for the maintenance and operation of the Community; and (g) establishing advertising and public relations policies.

32. Under the MSA, Edgemere pays Lifespace an annual fee (the "Corporate Overhead Fee"), which approximates eight percent (8%) of the monthly revenues. Presently, without waiving its rights to accept or demand future payment, Lifespace is voluntarily deferring the Corporate Overhead Fee owed to it under the MSA. Edgemere also pays or reimburses Lifespace for direct or allocated monthly charges such as those related to marketing, insurance, employee benefits, IT, and certain software licenses and services that support the Community. Lifespace also provides an executive management team for Edgemere, which includes an executive director, an assistant executive director, and a health care administrator, the costs of which are charged to Edgemere in addition to the Corporate Overhead Fees and direct monthly charges/reimbursements described in the previous sentence.

E. Regulators

33. The CCRC industry nationwide is regulated by various state and federal agencies. Each state has a different regulatory scheme governing CCRCs. As a Medicare-certified CCRC operating in the State of Texas, Edgemere is regulated by, among others, the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, the State of Texas Department of Health, and the Texas Department of Insurance.

34. Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors and Lifespace engaged with the Office of the Attorney General for the State of Texas and the Texas Department of Insurance in connection with financial issues at Edgemere.

F. Prepetition Capital Structure

35. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors owe a total of approximately $112 million consisting of bond obligations and unsecured obligations (the "Bond Obligations").

36. The following is an approximate overview of the Debtors' consolidated capital structure as of the Petition Date:

Series	Principal	Unpaid Interest
2015	$87,500,000	$1,987,162
2017	$21,685,000	$556,757
Subtotals	$109,185,000	$2,543,919
Total Secured Debt		$111,728,919

1. Bond Obligations

37. For the benefit of Edgemere, the Tarrant County Cultural Education Facilities Finance Corporation (the "Issuer") issued the following bonds: (a) pursuant to the Indenture of Trust dated as of May 1, 2015 (the "2015 Indenture") between the Issuer and UMB Bank, N.A., as trustee: (ii) Retirement Facility Revenue Bonds (Northwest Senior Housing Corporation – Edgemere Project) Series 2015 A (the "Series 2015A Bonds") and (ii) Retirement Facility Revenue Bonds (Northwest Senior Housing Corporation – Edgemere Project) Series 2015B (the "Series 2015B Bonds"); and pursuant to the Indenture of Trust dated as of March 1, 2017 (the "2017 Indenture") and (b) pursuant to the Indenture of Trust dated as of March 1, 2017 (the "2017 Indenture") between the Issuer and UMB Bank, N.A., as trustee, the Retirement Facility Revenue Bonds (Northwest Senior Housing Corporation – Edgemere Project) Series 2017 (the "Series 2017 Bonds" and together with the Series 2015A Bonds and Series 2015 Bonds, the "Bonds").

2. Edgemere's Ground Lease

38. As set forth above, Edgemere operates on a property that is subject to the Ground Lease. As discussed further below, Edgemere has simultaneously filed an adversary complaint against the Landlord alleging significant damages resulting from the Landlord's bad acts over the last year. Further, although the Ground Lease was executed with the intent to operate the CCRC, its unconventional terms are unsuitable for this purpose and have proven extremely problematic for Edgemere and all constituents in these Chapter 11 Cases. For example, the Ground Lease is scheduled to expire in 2054 (the "Lease Term") and does not provide for meaningful extensions of the term despite the fact that, by their nature, CCRCs need to be able to assure residents that their tenancies will not be disturbed. Furthermore, the Ground Lease gives the Landlord the right to assume the residency agreements and operate the facility as a CCRC despite not being licensed, thus violating Texas law. Additionally, the Ground Lease purports to give the Landlord the right to terminate those same agreements even though the residents and Residency Agreement counter-parties have not consented to this treatment. The economic terms are similarly problematic and provide for annual rent increases of up to 5.00% per annum, subjecting Edgemere to the risk of rent increases that could outpace increases in revenue

3. Resident Refund Obligations

39. As previously discussed, upon the occurrence of certain conditions, a portion of a Resident's Entrance Fee is refundable under Residency Agreements. Refundable percentages for other plans are stated in the terms of those agreements.[7] Once a Residency Agreement is terminated as described above, and a new resident's entrance fee has been received by Edgemere for the respective unit and the new resident has taken occupancy of that unit, the refund is paid ten (10) days after the later of the termination of the Residency Agreement, or receipt of the new resident's entrance fee by Edgemere and re-occupancy of the unit (the "Refund Condition"). As of April 13, 2022, Edgemere had contingent entrance fee liabilities to current Residents totaling $122,823,059. Edgemere has $25,549,457 in untriggered Entrance Fee refund liabilities to former

[7] Only IL Residents pay Entrance Fees, and therefore, only IL Residents receive refunds; residents who move directly into AL, MC, or SNF pay Monthly Service Fees or per diem, they do not pay Entrance Fees, and are not entitled to refunds.

Residents (the "Untriggered Entrance Fee Refunds"), which will become due upon the resale and re-occupancy of related units and after Edgemere has received the new entrance fee from the new resident.

II. EVENTS LEADING TO BANKRUPTCY

A. Management Turnover and Employee Retention

40. Turnover at all levels of the Edgemere organization has taken place over the last five years. Edgemere has had three different managers, five different executive directors, three reorganizations of its sales and marketing team, new department heads for dining, nursing, plant operations, and resident services, as well as turnover in dining and nursing staff. In addition, in 2017, Edgemere's former Executive Director moved to a different CCRC as its plans to open were being developed and implemented and many employees followed him there as his new CCRC prepared to open; in July 2021, he returned to Edgemere in the Executive Director role.

41. The COVID-19 pandemic that began in the first quarter of 2020, severely disrupted most industries in our nation, and the senior living industry has been hit especially hard.[8] The Residents that the Debtors care for are the population at the greatest risk of this virus, and the Debtors are committed to the health and safety of all their Residents and staff. The Debtors incurred significant costs as a direct result of the COVID-19 pandemic, including but not limited to those necessary to retain qualified staff. Expenses have increased due to dramatically higher labor costs and costs for additional personal protective equipment. Labor pressures not only persist but appear to be worsening.[9]

[8] In March 2020, the World Health Organization declared COVID-19 to be a pandemic. The extent to which COVID-19 has affected all aspects of life cannot be understated, but older adults are acutely susceptible to its effects. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention ("CDC") has found that:

> Older adults are more likely to get very sick from COVID-19. Getting very sick means that older adults with COVID-19 might need hospitalization, intensive care, or a ventilator to help them breathe, or they might even die. The risk increases for people in their 50s and increases in 60s, 70s, and 80s. People 85 and older are the most likely to get very sick.

Of the more than 600,000 deaths attributed to COVID-19 in the United States, it is estimated that 92% of all deaths occurred among those aged 50 or older and 31% are related to residents and employees associated with senior living. See THE NEW YORK TIMES, Nearly One-Third of U.S. Coronavirus Deaths Are Linked to Nursing Homes, https://www.nytimes.com/interactive/2020/us/coronavirus-nursing-homes.html (last visited July 23, 2021).

B. Increased Competition

42. There are nine CCRCs within ten miles of Edgemere. One existing CCRC is planning to expand in 2022. Two other high-end CCRCs opened within five miles of Edgemere – Ventana by Buckner opened in 2019, one and a half miles from Edgemere, and Legacy Senior Communities opened in August 2020, about four miles from Edgemere.

43. Compared to its competitors, Edgemere offers a higher-end-experience with larger units and beautiful grounds, and, accordingly, is priced higher than its competitors. Edgemere's entrance fees range between $345,000 for the smallest one-bedroom unit to $1,454,000 for the largest three-bedroom unit. The average CCRC entrance fee in the Dallas market was $435,254. Edgemere's monthly service fees start at approximately $4,000 per month, where other CCRC's service fees typically fall between $2,000 and $3,000 per month in the Dallas market.

C. COVID-19 Pandemic and Declining Occupancy Rates

44. The global COVID-19 Pandemic put substantial pressure on Edgemere, drove occupancy down, and drained cash, as revenues declined and refunds paid exceeded Entrance Fees collected. IL revenue is down 9.3% from 2020 driven by declining occupancy, despite increases in Monthly Service Fees of 1% of January 1, 2021, and 3% as of January 1, 2022. Edgemere's IL

[9] According to an April 2022, American Healthcare Association and National Center for Assisted Living publication, which summarized the Bureau of Labor March 2022 Jobs Report, the entire long term care industry is facing a 15-year labor low and has lost over 400,000 jobs during the COVID-19 Pandemic. See Historic Workforce Crisis in the Long Term Care Industry is Only Getting Worse, AHCA/NCAL (April 2022), https://www.ahcancal.org/News-and-Communications/Press-Releases/Pages/Historic-Workforce-Crisis-In-The-Long-Term-Care-Industry-Is-Only-Getting-Worse.aspx; citing BLS March 2022 Jobs Report, (March 2022) https://www.ahcancal.org/News-and-Communications/Fact-Sheets/FactSheets/BLS-MARCH2022-JOBS-REPORT.pdf.

occupancy rate dropped from 92% in 2018 to 73% in April 2021. Between 2017 and 2020, IL sales declined from fifty-five (55), to forty-one (41), to twenty-seven (27) to seventeen (17). IL sales rose to forty-eight (48) in 2021, but sales leads have plummeted due to negative publicity, and to date, there have only been three (3) IL sales in 2022. Further, many Residents are choosing to remain in their IL units instead of moving into AL units and are opting to hire home health aides instead of moving to The Plaza.

D. Negotiations with the Landlord

45. Edgemere is developed on land subject to the Ground Lease, which will expire in 2054. The pressures of the declining occupancy driven by the COVID-19 pandemic, caused Edgemere to breach certain covenants and, therefore, events of default were triggered under the Bonds and the Lease. The Landlord's bad faith actions over the last year have substantially exacerbated those factors.

46. In December 2021, the Debtors, the Trustee, the Landlord and Lifespace, solely in its capacity as manager pursuant to the MSA (collectively with the Debtors, the Trustee, and the Landlord, the "Parties"), entered into a Forbearance (the "First Forbearance"). Pursuant to the First Forbearance, Edgemere paid the Landlord the September 2021 rent and reimbursed substantial professional fee expenses. Throughout the negotiation period the Landlord would go silent for periods of time.

47. On December 28, 2021, counsel for the Trustee circulated a draft extension of the Forbearance through March 31, 2022 as the Parties had previously discussed. The Landlord did not respond. After several attempts to contact the Landlord through counsel, a conference call was held with Landlord's counsel on January 7, 2022, where counsel for the Landlord stated that his client was considering whether or not they would extend the Forbearance. On January 12, 2022, counsel for Edgemere set forth the position that among other things, the Landlord had acted in bad faith. On January 14, 2022, the new counsel for the Landlord informed Edgemere that its client would not consider a forbearance extension, would not sell the real property, and would not negotiate the terms of the Ground Lease. At or about the same time an individual purporting to be a consultant for the Landlord reached out to at least one Resident of the Community, and subsequently began communicating with the press about Edgemere.

48. The First Forbearance terminated on December 31, 2021, due to inaction by the Landlord. On March 7, 2022, the Debtors, the Trustee, and Lifespace executed the Second Forbearance Agreement (the "Second Forbearance").

49. On March 7, 2022, the Landlord executed the Ground Lessor's Landlord Estoppel (the "Landlord Estoppel") for the benefit of Edgemere and the Trustee. Pursuant to the Landlord Estoppel, the Landlord certified that as of March 7, 2022, Edgemere cured the monetary events of default under the Lease and that Landlord was unaware of any other defaults under the Lease.

III. FACTS IN SUPPORT OF FIRST DAY MOTIONS

50. Contemporaneously with the filing of their chapter 11 petitions, the Debtors have filed the First Day Motions. The Debtors request that the First Day Motions described below be granted, as they constitute a critical element in ensuring the stabilization of the Debtors' business operations at the outset of these Chapter 11 Cases. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this section shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the relevant First Day Motion.

A. Joint Administration Motion

51. Pursuant to the Joint Administration Motion, the Debtors seek the joint administration of their Chapter 11 Cases for procedural purposes only. Many of the motions, hearings and other matters involved in the Chapter 11 Cases will affect both Debtors. Therefore, I believe that the joint administration of these Chapter 11 Cases will avoid the unnecessary time and expense of duplicative motions, applications and orders, which will thereby save considerable time and expense for the Debtors and result in substantial savings for their estates. Accordingly, I believe the Court should approve the joint administration of these Chapter 11 Cases.

B. KCC Retention Application

52. Pursuant to the KCC Retention Application, the Debtors seek authorization to retain KCC as their claims and noticing agent ("Claims and Noticing Agent") with respect to these Chapter 11 Cases. Upon information and belief, KCC is an experienced Claims and Noticing Agent and is frequently used by debtors in large chapter 11 cases. I believe the professionals at KCC are well-qualified to provide such services, expertise, consultation and assistance to the Debtors and serve as Claims and Noticing Agent in these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors believe KCC is capable of handling the requisite noticing responsibilities, thereby relieving the Clerk or, in the alternative, the Debtors of such burden. The employment of KCC will provide efficient management of the claims and noticing processes in these Chapter 11 Cases, thereby allowing the Debtors' management and advisors to focus on the Debtors' reorganization efforts. Accordingly, I believe such experience, knowledge, and assistance will be valuable to the Debtors during these Chapter 11 Cases and the KCC Retention Application should be approved.

C. Consolidated Creditor Motion

53. Pursuant to the Consolidated Creditor Motion, the Debtors request entry of an order authorizing the Debtors to file one consolidated list of their thirty (30) largest unsecured creditors. Given the circumstances, the Debtors submit that it is appropriate for them to file one consolidated mailing matrix and one consolidated list of their thirty (30) largest unsecured creditors. The consolidated list of creditors will provide good and sufficient notice to all creditors and parties in interest in an efficient manner. Accordingly, on behalf of the Debtors, I respectfully submit that the Consolidated Credit Motion should be approved.

D. Schedules Extension Motion

54. In the Schedules Extension Motion, the Debtors request that the Court enter an order (i) extending the time by which the Debtors must file their Schedules of Assets and Liabilities, Schedules of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, and Statement of Financial Affairs (collectively, the "Schedules and Statements") until forty-five (45) days after the Petition Date, through and including May 30, 2022 (the "Extended Deadline"); and (ii) extending the time by which the Debtors must file their initial reports of financial information with respect to entities in which Debtors hold a controlling or substantial interest as set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 2015.3 (the "Rule 2015.3 Reports") to the later of thirty (30) days after the 341 Meeting or (b) ninety (90) days from the Petition Date.

55. The Court's grant of an extension of time to file the Schedules and Statements through and including the Extended Deadline is necessary and appropriate under the circumstances of these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors have many potential creditors. The ordinary operation of the Debtors' business requires the Debtors to maintain voluminous books and records. Substantial time would be required for the Debtors to complete the Schedules and Statements. No party in interest will be prejudiced by the Court granting the Debtors' request for an extension through and including the Extended Deadline. Similarly, providing the Debtors with an extension of the deadline to file the Rule 2015.3 Reports, is appropriate here and permits the Debtors to coordinate with their financial advisors and the United States Trustee for the Northern District of Texas (the "U.S. Trustee") to determine the appropriate nature and scope of the reports.

56. Accordingly, I believe that the additional extension until forty-five (45) days after the Petition Date will provide sufficient time to prepare and file the Schedules and Statements. I also believe the requested extension of time to file the Bankruptcy Rule 2015.3 will provide the Debtors sufficient time to prepare and file these periodic reports. Extending these deadlines is in the best interests of the Debtors. Therefore, I believe the Schedules Extension Motion should be approved.

E. Resident and Patient Care Confidentiality Motion

57. By the Resident and Patient Confidentiality Motion, the Debtors request entry of an order authorizing the implementation of procedures to protect confidential information of the Debtors' Residents and Patients as may be required by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPPA").

58. As detailed herein, the Debtors are in the business of operating a CCRC. In the ordinary course of providing care for their Residents and Patients, the Debtors have access to and receive "protected health information" related to the Residents and Patients and the Debtors are required to maintain the confidentiality of patient information pursuant to HIPPA. However, the Debtors recognize that such requirements may conflict with their duty to disclose certain information under the Bankruptcy Code.

59. To comply with both federal statutes, the Debtors propose certain procedures to maintain Resident and Patient confidentiality during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases (the "Resident and Patient Confidentiality Procedures"). I believe the Resident and Patient Confidentiality Procedures and the relief requested in the Resident and Patient Confidentiality Motion appropriately balance the need to maintain confidential patient information under HIPPA with the need for adequate disclosure under the Bankruptcy Code.

F. Cash Management Motion

60. By the Cash Management Motion, the Debtors seek entry of an order authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to (a) continue to use the Debtors' existing Cash Management System, including existing bank accounts, (b) honor certain prepetition obligations related thereto, (c) continue intercompany transactions, and (d) maintain the Debtors' existing business forms.

61. The Debtors maintain an integrated Cash Management System to collect, transfer and disburse funds generated by their operations. The Cash Management System facilitates the Debtors' cash monitoring, forecasting and reporting functions, enabling the Debtors to administer cash through two (2) bank accounts (together with any other bank accounts that the Debtors may open in the ordinary course of their business or in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, the "Bank Accounts"). The Bank Accounts are maintained at Bankers Trust Company.

62. Pursuant to the MSA, Lifespace maintains daily oversight of the Cash Management System and implements controls for the collection, management and disbursement of funds. Through the Debtors' Cash Management System, the Debtors process a large number of transactions and, in connection therewith, maintain current and accurate records. The Cash Management System is similar to other cash management systems commonly employed by continuing care retirement communities.

63. The Debtors maintain (a) a Revenue Account (as defined below) at Bankers Trust to receive funds from governmental, private pay, and insurance payors, and (b) a Disbursement Account (as defined below), which is used to make substantially all disbursements for the Debtors. Together, the Revenue and Disbursement Accounts function as the Debtors' operating account. The Debtors' Bank Accounts are summarized below.

Accounts	Description of Accounts
Revenue Account Bankers Trust account ended 6121	The Debtors maintain a deposit account at Bankers Trust (the "Revenue Account") that is used to receive payment of the monthly and ancillary charges to Residents, including private payments, Medicare reimbursements, Hospice payments, and private insurance reimbursements.
Disbursement Account Bankers Trust account ended 1479	The Debtors maintain a disbursement account at Bankers Trust (the "Disbursement Account") that is used to pay all of the Debtors' ordinary business disbursements, including, without limitation, payroll obligations, operating disbursements, taxes, and employee deductions and benefits. The Disbursement Account is funded from the Revenue Account via manual transfer on an as-needed basis.

64. The main components of the Cash Management System are the receipt of cash by the Debtors in the Revenue Account, the funding of the Disbursement Account from the Revenue Account, and the disbursement of cash from the Disbursement Account. In the ordinary course of their businesses, the Debtors receive payments and reimbursements from Residents, private pay insurance, Medicare and hospice on account of the goods and services the Debtors render to Residents. All such received payments are deposited into the Revenue Account.

65. The Debtors make substantially all payments out of the Disbursement Account including, without limitation, rent payments to the Landlord, payments to vendors, payment of Insurance Obligations, payroll obligations, benefits program obligations, debt service payments, payments to affiliates, Taxes and Fees, and other obligations and expenses. Disbursements are made by check, ACH transfer, or wire transfer. Most disbursements are initiated by Lifespace, although certain ACH transfers are initiated automatically or by third parties, including, without limitation, payroll obligations and payments to certain utilities.

66. The Debtors currently use software from SAP Concur to manage most invoices. Invoices are uploaded to the system by the Debtors or vendors, after which such invoices are routed for payment approval by the appropriate Lifespace and Debtors' team members. Once approved, SAP Concur initiates the check writing or ACH transfer process from the Disbursement Account. ACH transfers can also be initiated, and checks written, outside of the SAP Concur system by Lifespace as needed to, among other things, satisfy refund obligations and/or meet emergency timetables for payment. Lifespace is in the process of transitioning itself and the communities it manages from the SAP Concur system to as system provided by Coupa Software Inc. The Debtors request authority to move to the Coupa system before the Debtors' contract with SAP Concur is terminated, in accordance with the Debtors' and Lifespace's pre-restructuring intent.

67. Under the MSA, Lifespace provides administrative services to Edgemere. Similarly, pursuant to substantially similar management services agreements, Lifespace provides administrative services to non-Debtor affiliates (such non-Debtor affiliates, collectively with Lifespace and the Debtors, the "Lifespace Group"). Edgemere pays Lifespace an annual Corporate Overhead Fee under the MSA. The aggregate amount of the annual Corporate Overhead Fee across the Lifespace Group is determined on an annual basis by Lifespace based on its historical and anticipated operating costs. Lifespace then allocates the Corporate Overhead Fee to Lifespace Group members based on such entity's projected revenue for the upcoming year. The members of the Lifespace Group then pay their portion of the annual Corporate Overhead Fee to Lifespace on a monthly basis. At the end of each year, if Lifespace is under budget for such year, the allocation is adjusted to reflect the difference and payments are made among the Lifespace Group to account for such adjustment.

68. Lifespace also procures certain goods and services for the entirety of the Lifespace Group. In turn, the members of the Lifespace Group reimburse or prepay Lifespace for the cost of such goods and services using various methodologies based on the particular goods or services procured, or in some cases directly pay their allocated share to the third-party providing goods or services (such allocation and payment system, collectively with the determination, allocation, and payment of the Corporate Overhead Fee, the "Intercompany Accounting Protocol"). Lifespace allocates the:

- Salaries and related obligations for the Debtors' Executive Director, Associate Director, and Administrator to such entity at cost;
- Cost of certain third-party vendors for the Lifespace Group, including marketing, audit, and cost reporting vendors that invoice by entity, to the applicable entity at cost;
- Cost of the Lifespace Group's network security, crime, fiduciary, environmental, and workers' compensation insurance by the employee head count at each community;
- Cost of the Lifespace Group's property, and auto insurance by the relative value of the property covered by the insurance;
- Cost of accounts payable-related software based on the number of invoices processed for such member of the Lifespace Group in the rolling prior 12 months;
- Cost of software charged by the vendor based on the number of communities covered, evenly among such communities;
- Cost of software charged by the vendor based on the number of residents covered, based on the number of units in each community;
- Cost of all other software based on the number of budgeted full time employees for each member of the Lifespace Group;
- Cost of certain IT and HR services, including IT support and retirement plan administration, by the number of budgeted full-time employees for each member of the Lifespace Group;
- Cost of the marketing department maintained by Lifespace for the Lifespace Group by the number of budgeted closings for Lifespace Group members; and
- Cost of internet service to Lifespace Group members based on an estimate of usage completed by Lifespace's IT team.

69. Under the Intercompany Accounting Protocol, each member of the Lifespace Group (a) directly pays third-party vendors that invoice by specific Lifespace Group entity for the amounts invoiced to it by such third-party vendor, and (b) reimburses or prepays Lifespace for the remainder of costs allocated to such member of the Lifespace Group. The Debtors make such payments from the Disbursement Account.

70. The Cash Management System is an ordinary course, customary, and essential business practice, the continued use of which is essential to the Debtors' business operations during the Chapter 11 Cases and their goal of maximizing value for the benefit of all parties in interest Given the nature of the Debtors' businesses, I believe that any disruption of the accounting and cash management procedures would be enormously burdensome and disruptive, and could adversely impact the Debtors' efforts to transition into chapter 11 smoothly and operations during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases, which would impact the Debtors' ability to provide the necessary care to Residents. Any disruption in the collection of funds as currently implemented would adversely affect the Debtors' ability to maximize estate value. Moreover, such a disruption would be wholly unnecessary because the Cash Management System provides a valuable and efficient means for the Debtors to address their cash management requirements. Each of the Bank Accounts is maintained at a bank that is an authorized depository under the UST Guidelines, and the Bank Accounts are each insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. For the aforementioned reasons, I believe that maintaining the existing Cash Management System without disruption is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and all interested parties. Accordingly, the Debtors request that they be allowed to maintain and continue to use the Cash Management System including maintenance of their existing Debtor Bank Accounts.

G. Escrow Motion

71. By the Escrow Motion, the Debtors seek entry of an order (i) authorizing the Debtors to continue (a) escrowing Entrance Fees paid by Residents who move into the Community in the Debtors' escrow accounts during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases in the ordinary course and (b) refunding certain entrance fees during these Chapter 11 Cases. All Entrance Fees and Reservation Deposits the Debtors receive after September 27, 2021 (respectively, "New Entrance Fees" and "New Reservation Deposits"), including those received after the Petition Date, will remain in the escrow accounts during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases; they are not property of the Debtors' estates. Under the Escrow Agreement dated September 27, 2021 (the "Escrow Agreement"), New Entrance Fees cannot be disbursed to the Debtors until the date on which a restructuring or refinancing of substantially all of the Bonds and a restatement of the Ground Lease is consummated (the "Trigger Date").

72. Further, the Debtors seek approval from the Court to permit the escrow agent to make refunds in accordance with the Residency Agreements of those Residents who join the Community on or after September 27, 2021. The Escrow Agreement provides New Residents with the ability to terminate their Residency Agreements and receive a refund of New Entrance Fees, less costs incurred, held in the escrow accounts (a "Refund Event").

73. Entrance Fees are critical to the Debtors' operations and any negative publicity suggesting that a CCRC is in bankruptcy will necessarily deter prospective residents from entering into a Residency Agreement. Additionally, the Entrance Fees are relatively large sums of money paid by each individual resident and would likely be necessary for the resident to secure alternative housing upon a Refund Event. If prospective residents were not certain that their New Entrance Fees would be returned upon a Refund Event, such resident would be discouraged from choosing to reside at the Community. However, the Debtors are hopeful that the relief sought in this Motion will provide New Residents with comfort that, should a Refund Event occur, such Residents will receive a refund of their New Entrance Fees. The Debtors believe that the relief requested is critical to obtaining New Entrance Fees during these Chapter 11 Cases.

74. The deposit of New Entrance Fees in the escrow accounts during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases is necessary to protect New Residents' interests in their New Entrance Fees. However, after the Trigger Date, such protection will no longer be necessary because the Debtors will no longer be chapter 11 debtors. New Residents will receive the Pre-Trigger Date Notice, which will provide them an opportunity to terminate their Residency Agreements before the escrowed funds are released by the Escrow Agent to the control of the Debtors. The Debtors also propose to continue escrowing and refunding Reservation Deposits and Entrance Fees consistent with the prepetition practices described in the Escrow Motion.

75. I believe that the Escrow Motion provides a practical approach to protect the interests of prospective residents in their New Reservation Deposits and New Residents in their New Entrance Fees during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases, while providing for the proper refund of the New Reservation Deposit or New Entrance Fee under certain circumstances. Accordingly, I believe the Escrow Motion should be granted.

H. Wage Motion

76. Pursuant to the Wage Motion, the Debtors request entry of interim and final orders authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to (a) pay all prepetition wages, salaries, commissions, certain other compensation, and related administration obligations to third parties in connection therewith and other costs incidental to the foregoing (the "Compensation Obligations"), (b) maintain all prepetition employee benefits, including paid time off, health and medical benefits and insurance, retirement savings accounts, workers' compensation, reimbursable business expenses, and other welfare benefits, and related administration obligations to third parties in connection therewith and other costs incidental to the foregoing (the "Employee Benefit Obligations"), (c) pay all employment, unemployment, Social Security, and similar federal, state, and local taxes relating to the Compensation Obligations and Employee Benefit Obligations, whether withheld from wages or paid directly by the Debtors to governmental authorities (the "Payroll Taxes"), and make other payroll deductions, including retirement and other employee benefit plan contributions, garnishments, child support, and voluntary (the "Payroll Deduction Obligations"), as well as authorizing (d) applicable banks and other financial institutions to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks drawn on and transfers made from the Debtors' accounts to the extent such checks or transfers relate to any of the foregoing.

77. The Debtors employ approximately 283 employees (the "Employees"), of which approximately 250 are full-time Employees, 9 are part-time Employees, and 22 are per diem Employees. None of the Employees are union employees. Approximately 25 Employees are salaried and 258 are paid hourly.

78. The Employees are critical to the Debtors' businesses, and their value cannot be overstated. Indeed, the loss of the Employees would not only impede the Debtors' business operations and the Debtors' ability to successfully implement their bankruptcy strategy but would seriously threaten the Debtors' ability to provide critical care to Residents.

79. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors incur payroll and other compensation obligations to the Employees. They also provide other benefits to their Employees for the performance of services. Employees are compensated two (2) weeks in arrears. On average, per pay date, the Debtors' gross payroll obligations total approximately $470,000, which includes applicable employer payroll taxes of approximately $43,000. The Debtors estimate that as of the Petition Date approximately $413,000 is accrued and unpaid, which includes gross wages and compensation earned, as well as employer payroll taxes related thereto. The Debtors do not request authority to pay – and will not pay – any Employee more than $13,650 in accordance with Bankruptcy Code section 507(a)(4) on account of prepetition amounts owed pursuant to salaries, wages, commissions, PTO and/or any similar policy or program.

80. The Debtors use ADP, LLC ("ADP") as their third-party payroll administrator to coordinate and transmit payment to Employees. One day prior to the Employees receiving compensation on a given Friday, ADP initiates an automated clearing house deposit to the Debtors' operating account for the net payroll amount due to the Employees.

81. The Debtors maintain a sales incentive program (the "Sales Incentive Program") for approximately eight (8) Employees who work in the Debtors' sales and marketing department, and none of whom are directors or C-suite executives. The Sales Incentive Program is based on established criteria and sales metrics and is an important aspect of sales and marketing Employees' overall compensation. Maintaining historical prepetition practices is essential to ensuring that the Debtors can retain their Employees and continue to operate the businesses and maximize value through the duration of the Chapter 11 Cases. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $30,000 in earned but unpaid commissions under the Sales Incentive Program.

82. In 2021, certain Employees earned a short-term incentive that is scheduled to be paid no sooner than April 22, 2022, and the Debtors estimate that the amount due and owing is $5,500. In connection with the services provided by ADP, as discussed above, the Debtors pay ADP approximately $20,000 per month.

83. The Debtors withhold approximately $36,400 per month in the aggregate from Employees' wages related to pre- and after-tax deductions payable pursuant to certain of the Employees' benefit plans, policies and arrangements, including, but not limited to, those discussed herein, including an Employee's share of health care benefits and insurance premiums, court-ordered deductions, and other miscellaneous deductions. Accordingly, ADP, on behalf of the Debtors, withholds amounts from certain Employees' paychecks related to Garnishments and remits approximately $6,400 to the appropriate governmental authorities on a monthly basis.

84. With respect to Payroll Taxes, the Debtors withhold an average of $148,000 per month related to Medicare, Social Security, federal, state, and local taxes and on average the Debtors contribute $86,000 per month to fund the Debtors' employer portion of Social Security, Medicare and state unemployment taxes. The Debtors estimate that they are obligated to remit to taxing authorities approximately (a) $35,000 for the Debtors' employer portion of the Payroll Taxes and (b) $60,000 for the Employees' portion of the Payroll Taxes, which are withheld by ADP.

85. The Debtors provide eligible Employees PTO, which is essential to the Employees and any failure to provide PTO benefits could harm Employee morale and encourage the premature departure of Employees. The Debtors offer vacation PTO, sick PTO, flexible holidays, bereavement leave, jury and witness duty, and voluntary community service benefits. In total, the Debtors estimate that as of the Petition Date the value of accrued PTO hours is $436,000, consisting of vacation and sick PTO in the amount of approximately $300,000 and $136,000, respectively.

86. Further, the Debtors offer Employees Health Benefits, including Medical Plans, a Dental Plan, a Vision Plan, a Life Insurance Plan, Short-Term Disability Insurance Plan, and a Long-Term Disability Plan. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that approximately $103,000 is outstanding on account of the Medical Plans, $6,000 is outstanding on account of their obligations under the Dental Plan, $1,000 in obligations under the Life Insurance Plan, approximately $2,100 in obligations under the Short-Term Disability Insurance Plan, and approximately $275 in obligations under the Long-Term Disability Insurance Plan. Although the Debtors believe no amount is outstanding at this time related to the Vision Plan, they seek the authority to pay any amounts that may arise and become due and payable in the ordinary course of business.

87. The Debtors offer eligible Employees an opportunity to participate in a 401(k) plan and they estimate their average monthly contributions on account of the 401(k) Plan are approximately $6,000. The Debtors seek authority to continue to maintain the 401(k) Plan and pay any accrued but unpaid matching contributions and any fees and costs associated with the 401(k) Plan.

88. The Debtors provide Workers' Compensation Program through Sentry Casualty Corporation, and the insurance carrier is Security Casualty Company. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that approximately $6,200 is due and owing under the Workers' Compensation Program.

89. The Debtors reimburse certain Employees for expenses incurred in connection with their employment and limited to activities related to the operations of the Debtors' businesses. As of the Petition Date, there was no outstanding balance on account of any business expenses, however the Debtors seek the authority to pay any amounts that may arise and become due and payable in the ordinary course of business. Approximately fourteen (14) Employees are authorized to use Lifespace credit cards for travel and other business expenses. Lifespace pays the credit card bills associated with such expenses and is reimbursed by the Debtors. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that $106,000 is owing on account of credit card charges and, thus, request authority to pay such amount and any additional amounts that may arise and become due and payable in the ordinary course of business.

90. Although as of the Petition Date there are no amounts outstanding on account of the Education/Tuition Assistance program, out of an abundance of caution, the Debtors request authority to pay any such amounts that may arise and become due and payable in the ordinary course of business. They also seek authorization to pay any prepetition amounts owed in connection with these De Minimus Employee Benefits and to continue such benefits post-petition in the ordinary course, consistent with prepetition practices.

91. Continuing to honor Compensation Obligations and Employee Benefit Obligations is critical to the Debtors' ability to retain their Employees and continue providing high quality services to the Residents. Similarly, it is essential to the success of these Chapter 11 Cases that the Debtors be able to remit payment to ADP and honor Payroll Taxes and Payroll Deduction Obligations. Accordingly, on behalf of the Debtors, I respectfully submit that the Wages Motion should be approved.

I. Tax Motion

92. Pursuant to the Tax Motion, the Debtors request entry of interim and final orders authorizing the Debtors to pay any prepetition property taxes, sales and use taxes, business license fees, provider fees, and other similar taxes and fees subsequently determined to be owed (collectively, the "Taxes and Fees") that accrued or that arose before the Petition Date that will become due during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases to the applicable federal, state, provincial, and local governmental entities in the United States (collectively, the "Taxing Authorities") in the ordinary course of business, without prejudice to the Debtors' right to contest the amounts and/or priority of any Taxes and Fees on any grounds they deem appropriate.

93. The Debtors, in the ordinary course of business, incur various tax and fee liabilities. Although as of the Petition Date, the Debtors were substantially current in the payment of assess and undisputed Taxes and Fees, certain of Taxes and Fees attributable to the prepetition period may not yet have become due. Certain Taxes and Fees may not become due until the applicable, monthly, quarterly, or annual payment dates.

94. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that there is less than $1,000 in prepetition Taxes and Fees that will become due and payable within the first twenty-one (21) days of these Chapter 11 Cases. Similarly, as of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that there is approximately $5,000 of Taxes and Fees relating to the prepetition period that have accrued and will become payable to the Taxing Authorities during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases, which the Debtors also seek to pay.

95. The Debtors are subject to the following Taxes and Fees:

a. Sales and Use Taxes: In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors collect sales and use taxes ("Sales and Use Taxes") from the (i) sale of food and beverage to customers (usually visiting guests of Residents) sold on the premises and (ii) occupancy of guest rooms on the premises by the Residents' visitors. The Debtors typically pay Sales and Use Taxes to the Applicable Taxing Authorities on a monthly basis which average less than $1,000 per month. The Debtors estimate that less than $1,000 in prepetition Sales and Use Taxes will become due and payable following the Petition Date.

b. Property Taxes: The Ground Lease requires the Debtors to pay real and personal property taxes and fees and assessments assessed during the term of the Ground Lease. In January 2022, the Debtors paid $1,925,733.43 related to the property taxes, which accrued during 2021, but did not become payable until January 2022. The 2022 Property Taxes will become due in 2023.

c. Licensing Fees and Other Taxes. Due to the nature of the Debtors' business, the Debtors incur licensing and permit fees to various government and regulatory agencies which are de minimis in amount. The Debtors do not believe that any such fees are due, but, out of an abundance of caution, seek to pay such fees if due with the first twenty-one (21) days of the Petition Date and thereafter as necessary in the ordinary course of business.

d. Provider Fees. Every four (4) years, the Debtors pay a re-validation fee (the "Provider Fees") calculated by the number of Medicare-certified beds at its Community. The last payment was made in 2020 (so the next payment is not anticipated to become due until 2024), but out of an abundance of caution, to the extent the Debtors any unexpected Provider Fees that must be paid post-petition, the Debtors seek authority to do so.

96. The continued payment of Taxes and Fees on their normal due dates will ultimately preserve the resources of the Debtors' estates. If such obligations are not timely paid, the Debtors will be required to expend time and money to resolve a multitude of issues related to such obligations, each turning on the particular terms of each Taxing Authority' applicable laws, including (i) whether the obligations are priority, secured, or unsecured in nature, (ii) whether they should be prorated or treated as fully prepetition or post-petition, and (iii) whether penalties, interest, attorneys' fees, and costs can continue to accrue on a post-petition basis, and if so, whether such penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs are priority, secured, or unsecured in nature. The Debtors' desire to avoid unnecessary disputes with the Taxing Authorities – and expenditures of time and money resulting from such disputes – over a myriad of issues that are typically raised by such entities as they attempt to enforce their rights to collect taxes.

97. The Debtors may suffer immediate and irreparable harm if the prepetition Taxes and Fees are not paid when they become due and payable. If the Debtors do not pay such amounts in a timely manner, the Taxing Authorities may attempt to revoke the Debtors' licenses, suspend their operation, impose fees and penalties, or pursue other remedies that will harm the estates. In all cases, the Debtors' failure to pay Taxes and Fees could have a material adverse impact on their ability to operate in the ordinary course of business.

98. Failure to pay the Taxes and Fees to the Taxing Authorities in full and on time, thereby risking the cessation of normal relations between the Taxing Authorities and the Debtors, will make these estates worse off than they will be having paid the Taxes and Fees. It is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates that the Taxes and Fees be paid on time so as to avoid administrative difficulties. Failure to timely pay, or a precautionary withholding by the Debtors of payment of, the Taxes and Fees may cause the Taxing Authorities to take precipitous action, including an increase in audits, a flurry of lien filings, and significant administrative maneuvering at the expense of the Debtors' time and resources. Prompt and regular payment of the Taxes and Fees will avoid this unnecessary governmental action and allow the Debtors to focus on their reorganization efforts.

99. Any disputes that could impact their ability to conduct business could have a wide-ranging and adverse effect on the Debtors' operations as a whole. Accordingly, I respectfully submit that the Tax Motion should be granted.

E. Utilities Motion

100. By the Utilities Motion, the Debtors request interim and final order (i) prohibiting Utility Providers (as defined below) from altering, refusing or discontinuing service to the Debtors, (ii) deeming the Utility Providers adequately assured of future performance, and (iii) establishing procedures for determining requests for additional adequate assurance by the Utility Providers.

101. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors obtain various utility services, including, but not limited to electricity, gas, water, sewer, telephone, other telecommunications services such as cable, and other similar types of services (each, a "Utility Service" and collectively, the "Utility Services") from approximately nine (9) utility providers (each, a "Utility Provider" and collectively, the "Utility Providers"). A list of the Utility Providers is attached to the proposed interim and final orders as Schedule 1 (the "Utilities Services List"). On average, the Debtors spend approximately $105,700 in the aggregate each month on account of Utility Services.

102. At all relevant times, the Debtors have attempted to remain current with regard to their utility bills. Furthermore, to the best of my knowledge, the Debtors are current on all amounts owing to the Utility Providers, other than payment interruptions that may be caused by the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases.

103. I believe that uninterrupted utility services are essential to the ongoing operations of the Debtors, and therefore, to the successful resolution of these Chapter 11 Cases. Any interruption of Utility Services, even for a brief period of time would put the health, safety and welfare of the Residents at risk. It is, therefore, critical that utility services continue uninterrupted during these Chapter 11 Cases.

104. The Debtors propose to put an amount equal to $52,850 (the "Deposit") into a separate account (the "Utility Deposit Account"), which is equal to two weeks' worth of payments to each Utility Provider, to be held for the exclusive purpose of paying the Utility Services. They have also budgeted for post-petition obligations of the Utility Providers. The Debtors submit that the establishment of the Utility Deposit Account, in conjunction with the Debtors' ability to pay for future Utility Services in the ordinary course of business, constitutes adequate assurance of payment to the Utility Providers.

105. Further, the Debtors propose to protect the Utility Providers by establishing the procedures provided in the Utilities Motion, whereby any Utility Provider can request additional adequate assurance in the event that it believes there are facts and circumstances with respect to its providing post-petition services to the Debtors that would merit greater protection.

106. Therefore, I believe that the Utility Providers have adequate assurance of future performance, and the relief sought in the Utility Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their residents, and all stakeholders, and, therefore, should be approved.

F. Insurance Motion

107. By the Insurance Motion, the Debtors seek entry of an order authorizing the Debtors (a) to maintain existing insurance policies and pay all obligations arising thereunder, (b) renew, revise, extend, supplement, change or enter into new insurance policies as needed in their business judgment, and (c) pay brokerage fees arising on account of their insurance policies. The Debtors further request that financial institutions be directed to receive, process, honor and pay all checks presented for payment and electronic payment requests related to the Insurance Obligations, whether such checks were presented, or electronic requests submitted prior to or after the Petition Date.

108. Under the MSA, Lifespace provides certain risk management, insurance administration, and other administrative services to the Debtors the Lifespace Group. In turn, the members of the Lifespace Group reimburse or prepay Lifespace for the cost of such goods and services using various methodologies based on the particular good or service procured, or in some cases directly pay their allocated share to the third-party providing goods or services (such allocation and payment system, collectively with the determination, allocation, and payment of a corporate overhead fee to Lifespace, the "Intercompany Accounting Protocol").

109. In the ordinary course of the Lifespace Group's businesses, Lifespace procures various insurance policies (each, an "Insurance Policy," and, collectively, the "Insurance Policies") through several third-party insurance carriers (each an "Insurance Carrier," and, collectively, the "Insurance Carriers"). The Debtors are covered under the applicable Insurance Policies as additional named insureds. The Debtors participate in and are covered by the Lifespace-procured property, commercial auto, cyber liability, directors and officers, fiduciary, crime, terrorism and sabotage, environmental, wind, and commercial general liability Insurance Policies.

110. Lifespace pays insurance premiums for each Insurance Policy, then allocates the cost to the members of the Lifespace Group and seeks reimbursement in the allocated amount under the Intercompany Accounting Protocol. The Premiums for the Lifespace Group's all-risk property Insurance Policy are financed through a premium financing agreement, (the "Premium Financing Agreement") with IPFS Corporation ("IPFS"). As of the Petition Date, there is approximately $612,000 outstanding on account of the Premium Financing Agreement, of which approximately $148,000 is attributable to Edgemere.

111. With respect to non-financed premiums, those are paid in advance by Lifespace and reimbursed under the Intercompany Accounting Protocol by the members of the Lifespace Group on either a monthly or quarterly basis. The total cost of the non-financed premiums for Insurance Policies purchased by Lifespace for 2022 is approximately $2,824,000, of which approximately $153,000 is attributable to Edgemere.

112. Lifespace obtains the Insurance Policies through a broker (the "Insurance Broker") who assists Lifespace in obtaining comprehensive insurance coverage for the Lifespace Group's operations. Lifespace's total Brokerage Fees for 2021 were approximately $385,000, of which approximately $20,000 was allocated to the Debtors.

113. The Debtors seek authority to pay any premiums, intercompany reimbursements, or other obligations incidental to the Insurance Policies, including the Brokerage Fees (the "Insurance Obligations"). To protect and safeguard the Debtors' ongoing operations and ensure compliance with the United States Trustee's Guidelines, it is critical that the Debtors be allowed to pay their Insurance Obligations on an ongoing and uninterrupted basis and renew, revise, extend, supplement, or change its existing Insurance Policies and enter into new insurance policies as needed in the Debtors' business judgment.

114. Failure to timely pay amounts due under the Insurance Policies will harm the Debtors' estates as non-payment of premiums may cause an insurance company to terminate coverage. Such termination would (a) cause the Debtors to be out of compliance with UST Guidelines as well as applicable regulatory requirements to maintain insurance, (b) place additional strains on the Debtors' relationships with employees and Residents who benefit from the Debtors' insurance coverage, and (c) eviscerate the Debtors' ability to prevent loss in value

115. The continuation of the Debtors' Insurance Policies is especially important because if any of the Insurance Policies are discontinued, the Debtors would be exposed to substantial liability, to the detriment of Residents, creditors, and all interested parties. In the event of termination of insurance coverage, the Debtors would need to obtain replacement insurance, likely at higher prices than they currently pay. Therefore, I believe that the relief requested in the Insurance Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their residents, and all stakeholders and should, therefore, be approved.

G. DIP and Cash Collateral Motion

116. As set forth in detail within the DIP and Cash Collateral Motion, the Debtors seek authority to use Cash Collateral, obtain post-petition financing, on a priming, super-priority basis, by entering into the DIP Facility, grant adequate protection to the Trustee, modify the automatic stay to the extent necessary, and schedule a Final Hearing and approval of the form and method of notice of the Final Hearing. Although the Debtors intend to restructure or refinance their existing Bond Obligations, they do not have sufficient unencumbered assets to satisfy all of their financial obligations while continuing to provide the exceptional service and high-quality care to their Residents. Similarly, if they are consistently unable to maintain their business and demonstrate financial stability, they may lose current Residents and Employees and struggle to attract new Residents. The DIP Facility will enable the Debtors to pay the administrative costs of the Chapter 11 Cases while continuing to provide Residents, Employees, vendors, creditors, Bondholders, and other stakeholders with assurances that the Debtors will emerge from these Chapter 11 Cases successfully. The Debtors have an immediate need for Cash Collateral; without the use of the Trustee's Cash Collateral, the Debtors would be unable to continue to operate their businesses and administer their estates. The DIP Facility and immediate use of Cash Collateral are necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors, their estates, and their stakeholders.

117. As of the Petition Date, the Bond Obligations are approximately $112 million. The Debtors are in default of the Bonds. Ample cause exists for entry of the proposed DIP Order approving the Debtors' request to use Cash Collateral and enter into the DIP Facility. The Debtors need to be able to use Cash Collateral and post-petition financing; both are essential to the success of the Chapter 11 Cases and to the Residents who depend on the Debtors for personal and healthcare services. The requests for relief contained in the DIP and Cash Collateral Motion should be approved. They are essential to the Debtors' operations and will enhance the Debtors' ability to emerge successfully from these Chapter 11 Cases.

CONCLUSION

118. For all the foregoing reasons, I respectfully request that the Court grant the relief requested in the First Day Motions and such other and further relief as is appropriate.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

In re:	Chapter 11
Northwest Senior Housing Corporation, et al.,[1]	Case No. 22-30659 (MVL)

APPLICATION OF DEBTORS FOR AUTHORITY TO EMPLOY AND RETAIN GRAY ROBINSON, P.A. AS SPECIAL COUNSEL TO THE BOARDS OF DIRECTORS OF THE DEBTORS NUNC PRO TUNC TO THE PETITION DATE

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (the "Debtors") hereby file this application (the "Application") for entry of an order, substantially in the form of Exhibit A attached hereto (the "Proposed Order"), pursuant to sections 327(a), 328(a), 329, and 330 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), Rules 2014(a) and 2016(a) of Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure ("Bankruptcy Rules"), and Rules 2014-1 and 2016-1 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas (the "Local Rules"), authorizing the employment and retention of Gray Robinson, P.A. ("GR") as special counsel to the separate boards of directors of each of the Debtors (together, the "Boards") nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date. In support of this Application, the Debtors rely upon and incorporate by reference the Declaration of Steven J. Solomon in Support of Application of the Debtors to Authorize the Retention and Employment of Gray Robinson, P.A. as Special Counsel to the Boards of Directors of the Debtors Nunc Pro Tunc to the Petition Date (the "Solomon Declaration"), attached hereto as Exhibit B, and respectfully state as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has jurisdiction to consider this Application under 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). The Debtors consent to entry of a final order under Article III of the United States Constitution.

2. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

3. The statutory predicates for the relief requested herein are Bankruptcy Code Sections 105(a), 327, 328, 330, and 331, Bankruptcy Rules 2014 and 2016, and Local Rules 2014-1.

BACKGROUND

4. On April 14, 2022 (the "Petition Date"), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas (the "Court").

5. The Debtors continue to operate and manage their businesses as debtors in possession pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Sections 1107(a) and 1108.

6. No trustee, examiner, or official committee of unsecured creditors has been appointed.

7. The factual background regarding the Debtors and the events leading to the filing of the above-referenced chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") is set forth in the Declaration of Nick Harshfield in Support of Chapter 11 Petition and First Day Pleadings [Docket No. 7] (the "First Day Declaration"), which is incorporated herein by reference.

RELIEF REQUESTED

8. By this Application, the Debtors seek to employ and retain GR nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date to represent the Boards as their special counsel in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request entry of an order, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 327(e), substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, authorizing the Debtors to employ and retain GR as special counsel in the Chapter 11 Cases nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date.

BASIS FOR RELIEF

9. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 327(e), the debtor in possession is authorized to employ counsel "for a specified special purpose, other than to represent the trustee in conducting the case…if in the best interest of the estate, and if such attorney does not represent or hold any interest adverse to the debtor or the estate with respect to the matter on which such attorney is to be employed." 11 U.S.C. § 327(e); see In re Woodworkers Warehouse, Inc., 323 B.R. 403 (D. Del. 2005).

10. Under Bankruptcy Code Section 328(a), with the Court's approval, a debtor in possession may employ professional persons under Bankruptcy Code Section 327(e) "on any reasonable terms and conditions of employment, including on a retainer, on an hourly basis, on a fixed or percentage fee basis, or on a contingent fee basis." 11 U.S.C. § 328(a).

11. As required by Bankruptcy Rule 2014(a), this Application sets forth the following: (a) the specific facts showing the necessity for GR's employment, (b) the reasons for the selection of GR as special counsel to the Boards in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases, (c) the professional services to be provided by GR to the Boards, (d) the arrangement among the Boards, the Debtors and GR with respect to GR's compensation, and (e) to the best of the Debtors' knowledge, as established by the Declaration, the extent of GR's connections, if any, to certain parties-in-interest in the Chapter 11 Cases.

RETENTION OF GR IS WARRANTED

12. The Debtors believe that GR is well suited to assist and advise the Boards in these Chapter 11 Cases. Importantly, GR is the law firm that each of the Boards itself selected. The Debtors believe that the Boards selected GR as special counsel in the Chapter 11 Cases because, among other reasons, GR has extensive knowledge of and experience in bankruptcy, restructuring and corporate governance, among many other legal practice areas. In addition, GR attorneys have represented debtors, creditors and fiduciaries in multiple complex Chapter 11 cases and have frequently advised fiduciaries in connection with insolvencies and restructurings, including before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas.

13. GR attorneys to be engaged in these Chapter 11 Cases are each members in good standing in the jurisdictions in which such attorneys are admitted. Though the Debtors do not believe that GR, if retained as counsel to the Boards, will be required to regularly appear before this Court, the Debtors have been informed that all attorneys from GR who appear before this Court in connection with matter shall, as necessary, seek to be admitted pro hac vice in accordance with the Local Rules.

14. Because of its activities as counsel to the Board of Directors of Northwest Senior Housing Corporation, the Restructuring Committee of the Board of Directors of Northwest Senior Housing Corporation (which is composed of only independent directors), and the Board of Directors of Senior Quality Lifestyles Corporation prior to the Petition Date, GR is familiar with the Boards' activities, its members, matters of the Debtors' corporate governance and is well-qualified to provide the services required by the Boards in the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases.

15. Pursuant to the request of the Boards, GR has served as counsel in these Chapter 11 Cases since the Petition Date with assurances that the Debtors would seek approval of its employment and retention, effective nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date, so that GR may be compensated for its pre-application services rendered on behalf of the Boards. The Debtors believe that no party in interest will be prejudiced by the granting of the nunc pro tunc employment, as provided herein, because GR has provided and continues to provide valuable services to the Debtors' Boards and the Debtors' estates since the Petition Date.

SCOPE OF SERVICES

16. The Debtors filed the Chapter 11 Cases to, among other things, achieve a recapitalization, restructuring and/or refinancing of obligations and business relationships. The Debtors desire to utilize the services of GR to enable the Boards to faithfully execute their duties to the Debtors and their stakeholders in a manner that will help guide and move the Chapter 11 Cases toward a successful confirmation and reorganization. Subject to further order of this Court, it is proposed that GR be employed to render such legal services as may be requested by the Boards and able to be performed GR. The principal focus of the proposed engagement is on the duties of the Boards in connection with the discharge of their fiduciary duties as governing bodies of the Debtors as debtors in possession and facilitating a successful reorganization through a recapitalization of the Debtors. GR's engagement does not include advice with respect to tax or regulatory matters.

17. The Debtors and the Boards believe it is necessary and desirable to employ GR to render the foregoing professional services. Therefore, the Debtors have requested that GR perform the services set forth herein and, subject to this Court's approval of this Application, GR has stated its willingness and ability to render the necessary professional services as special counsel to the Boards.

GR'S CONNECTIONS WITH POTENTIAL PARTIES-IN-INTEREST

18. In reliance on the Declaration and subject to the disclosures made therein, the Debtors believe that GR neither has nor represents an interest materially adverse to the interest of the Debtors or their respective estates or of any class of creditors or equity interest holders by reason of any direct or indirect relationship to, connection with or interest in, the Debtors or for any other reason as required by Bankruptcy Code Section 327(e).

19. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 327(e), GR is not disqualified from acting as special counsel to the Boards merely because it previously represented or currently represents certain of the Debtors' creditors or other parties-in-interest in matters wholly unrelated to the Debtors or the Chapter 11 Cases.

20. The Debtors understand that GR intends to apply to this Court for allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses in accordance with applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and orders of this Court.

21. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 329, Bankruptcy Rule 2016, and Local Rule 2016-1, GR discloses that $100,641.55 in aggregate fees and expenses have been paid (exclusive of retainers) in the twelve (12) months preceding the Petition Date.

22. Upon retention, Debtor Northwest Senior Housing Corporation paid GR an initial retainer of $25,000. Shortly before the Petition Date, GR received an additional retainer of $47,318.50, bringing the total retainer to $72,318.50, and GR separately received a retainer of $24,640.50 to represent the Board of Directors of Debtor Senior Quality Lifestyles Corporation. All of GR's fees and expenses incurred prior to the Petition Date were paid in full prior to the Petition Date.

23. The Debtors, subject to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules, propose to pay GR its customary hourly rates for services rendered. GR has advised the Debtors that GR's hourly rates for professionals that will be primarily responsible for this matter range from $450-$975 per hour for shareholders, from $195-$325 per hour for associates, and from $95-$210 per hour for paraprofessionals. All rates are commensurate with the standard hourly rates charged by GR to the Boards prior to the Petition Date. Steven J. Solomon has been principally responsible for providing legal services to the Boards at a rate of $620.00 per hour. These hourly rates are subject to periodic adjustment to reflect economic and other conditions.

24. The Debtors also submit that such rates are reasonable and should be approved by this Court at this time, subject to a determination of the amounts to be paid to GR upon applications for allowance. Moreover, the Debtors, subject to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules, propose to reimburse GR for its actual and necessary expenses.

NOTICE

25. Notice of this Application will be provided to: (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors on an aggregate basis or any committee appointed herein, (c) UMB Bank, N.A., as Trustee and counsel thereto, (d) Lifespace Communities, Inc. and counsel thereto, (e) the United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of Texas, (f) the Internal Revenue Service, (g) the United States Department of Justice, (h) the Texas State Attorney General, (i) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, and (j) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002.

26. The Debtors respectfully submit that such notice is sufficient and that no further notice of this Application is required.

NO PRIOR REQUEST

27. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made to this Court or any other court.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter an order, substantially similar to the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, granting (i) the relief requested herein and (ii) such other and further relief as it deems just and proper.

DALLAS DIVISION

In re:	Chapter 11
Northwest Senior Housing Corporation, et al.,[1]	Case No. 22-30659 (MVL)

DECLARATION OF STEVEN J. SOLOMON IN SUPPORT OF THE APPLICATION OF DEBTORS FOR AUTHORITY TO EMPLOY AND RETAIN GRAY ROBINSON, P.A. AS SPECIAL COUNSEL TO THE BOARDS OF DIRECTORS OF THE DEBTORS' NUNC PRO TUNC TO THE PETITION DATE

Steven J. Solomon, a shareholder of Gray Robinson, P.A., makes this Declaration pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 and states:

1. I am a Shareholder in the Miami, Florida office of GRAY ROBINSON, P.A. ("GR"), which maintains offices for the practice of law at 333 S.E. 2nd Avenue, Suite 3200, Miami, Florida 33131, among 11 other locations. I am an attorney-at-law, duly admitted and in good standing to practice in the State of Florida, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Florida and the United States District Courts for the Southern and the Middle Districts of Florida.

2. I submit this Declaration (the "Declaration") in connection with the Debtors' application (the "Application")[2] for authority to employ and retain GR as special counsel to the boards of directors of the Debtors (together, the "Boards") nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date, and to provide the disclosures required under Rules 2014(a) and 2016(b) of the Federal Rules of

[1] The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, are Northwest Senior Housing Corporation (1278) and Senior Quality Lifestyles Corporation (2669). The Debtors' mailing address is 8523 Thackery Street, Dallas, Texas 75225.
[2] Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Application.

Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules") and Local Rule 2014-1 of the Local Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas (the "Local Rules").

12. Unless otherwise stated in this Declaration, I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth below. To the extent that any information disclosed in this Declaration requires amendment or modification upon GR's completion of further analysis or as additional creditor information becomes available to GR, a supplemental declaration will be submitted to this Court.

13. Insofar as I have been able to ascertain, neither I, nor GR, nor any shareholder, counsel, of counsel, or associate of GR, represents any other party-in-interest in the Chapter 11 Cases, or its attorneys or accountants, except as set forth herein. Further, GR has no connection (as such term is used in Bankruptcy Code Section 101(14) and Bankruptcy Rule 2014(a)) with the Debtors, the Debtors' creditors, any other party-in-interest herein, the Debtors' current respective attorneys or professionals, the United States Trustee, or any person employed in the Office of the United States Trustee, or any bankruptcy judge currently serving on the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas, nor does GR hold any adverse interest or represent any entity having an adverse interest in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, except as disclosed below.

14. GR maintains and updates its conflict check system in the ordinary course of its business. The system includes every matter on which the firm is currently or was previously engaged, including details related to the identity of the client, adverse parties, dates of representation, and the attorney(s) at GR with responsibility for the engagement. This database is updated for every new matter opened by GR. Before the firm takes on a new engagement, the list of interested parties is run through the conflicts system, and any hits are reviewed by in-house conflicts counsel as well as the attorneys responsible for the engagement.

15. GR represents many entities and service providers that may be creditors in the Chapter 11 Cases. However, GR is not representing any of those entities or service providers in the Chapter 11 Cases and will not represent any entities or parties it currently represents with regard to any claims that they may have collectively or individually against the Debtors.

16. To the extent set forth on Exhibit 1 (the "Disclosures") attached to this Declaration, I, GR, and certain of its shareholders, counsel, of counsel, and associates may currently represent, or may have previously represented, and may in the future represent, persons, entities, and their affiliates that are claimants, interest holders, other parties-in-interest, or professionals of the Debtors (and other professionals to be retained in the Chapter 11 Cases) in matters totally unrelated to the Debtors or the Chapter 11 Cases. Attached as Exhibit 1 is a list of parties that GR has represented in the past, currently represents, or may in the future continue to represent in matters wholly unrelated to the Chapter 11 Cases. In the event litigation between any of the parties listed on Exhibit 1 and the Debtors is necessary and such litigation presents a conflict, the litigation will be handled by conflicts counsel in the Chapter 11 Cases. To the best of my knowledge and information, no entity listed on Exhibit 1 accounted for 1% or more of GR's annual revenue for fiscal year 2021.

17. Except as set forth in this Declaration, neither I, nor GR, nor any shareholder, counsel, of counsel, or associate thereof, insofar as I have been able to ascertain, holds or represents any entity having an adverse interest to the Debtors or the estates.

18. GR is a "disinterested person" as that term is defined in Bankruptcy Code Section 101(14) in that GR, its shareholders, counsel, and associates:

a. are not creditors, equity security holders, or insiders;

b. are not and were not, within two (2) years before the date of the filing of the petition, directors, officers, or employees of the Debtors; and

c. do not have interests materially adverse to the interests of the estate or of any class of creditors or equity security holders, by reason of any direct or indirect relationship to, connection with, or interest in, the Debtors, or for any other reason.

19. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 327(c), GR is not disqualified from acting as counsel to the Boards merely because it previously represented or currently represents the Debtors' creditors or other parties in interest in matters unrelated to the Debtors or the Chapter 11 Cases. To the extent that GR is determined to have a conflict with respect to a particular client or matter, the Debtors will utilize separate conflicts counsel as necessary. In addition, to the extent necessary and appropriate, GR will implement an ethical wall, screening attorneys working on any such matters from interacting with attorneys working on the Chapter 11 Cases.

20. As part of its customary practice, GR is retained in cases, proceedings, and transactions involving many different parties throughout the United States, some of whom may represent or be employed by the Debtors, claimants, and/or parties in interest in the Chapter 11 Cases. It is my understanding that the entities listed below had and/or continue to have a relationship with the Debtors. GR does not, however, provide services to these entities in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors, or the Debtors' estates.

21. By reason of the foregoing, I believe that GR is eligible for employment and retention by the Debtors pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 327 and the applicable Bankruptcy Rules.

22. The Debtors understand that GR intends to apply to this Court for allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses in accordance with applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and orders of this Court.

3. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 329, Bankruptcy Rule 2016, and Local Rule 2016-1, GR discloses that no fees and expenses have been paid by or on behalf of the Debtors to GR in the twelve (12) months preceding the Petition Date except as disclose. The Debtors, subject to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules, propose to pay GR its customary hourly rates for services rendered. GR has advised the Debtors that GR's hourly rates for professionals that will be primarily responsible for this matter range from $450-$815 per hour for shareholders, from $250-$450 per hour for associates, and from $200-$250 per hour for paraprofessionals. All rates are commensurate with the standard hourly rates charged by GR to other similarly situated clients and on similar matters. These hourly rates are subject to periodic adjustment to reflect economic and other conditions.

23. The hourly rates set forth above are GR's standard hourly rates for work of this nature. These rates are set at a level designed to fairly compensate GR for the work of its attorneys and paralegals, and to cover fixed and routine overhead expenses. It is GR's policy to charge its clients in all areas of practice for all other expenses incurred in connection with the client's case. The expenses charged to clients include, among other things, telephone and telecopier charges, printing and scanning charges, toll charges, mail and express mail charges, special or hand delivery charges, document processing, photocopying charges, travel expenses, expenses for "working meals," computerized research, and transcription costs, as well as non-ordinary overhead expenses such as overtime for secretarial personnel and other staff. GR will charge for these expenses in a manner and at rates consistent with charges made generally to the firm's other clients and within the Local Rules.

24. The Debtors have agreed to pay the above listed compensation to GR for legal services rendered in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases by its various attorneys and paralegals. The Debtors also have agreed to reimburse GR for its actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases.

25. No promises have been received by GR or by any shareholder, counsel, of counsel, or associate thereof as to payment or compensation in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases other than in accordance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules. GR has no agreement with any other entity to share with such entity any compensation received by GR in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, other than with the shareholders, counsel, and associates of GR.

26. Although GR has taken reasonable steps to ascertain whether past and current clients are creditors of the Debtors, affiliated with the Debtors, or are otherwise parties-in-interest, GR's analysis is ongoing. Accordingly, GR will supplement this Declaration as appropriate and necessary.

27. The foregoing constitutes the statement of GR pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 327 and Bankruptcy Rules 2014(a) and 2016(b).

I certify under penalty of perjury in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1746 that to the best of my knowledge and after reasonable inquiry, the foregoing is true and correct.

5. Lifespace's interests have been consistently aligned with the interests of Edgemere and the Plaintiff in this Adversary Proceeding to hold Defendants accountable for their unlawful actions in breaching the NDA and attempting to destroy the Edgemere community for their own financial gain.

6. Likewise, the interests of the board of directors of Edgemere have been consistently aligned with the interests of Lifespace, Edgemere and the Plaintiff in this Adversary Proceeding.

7. On June 28, 2022, Defendants propounded document requests on Edgemere in connection with this Adversary Proceeding. Two days later, Defendants served a Rule 45 subpoena on Lifespace ("Subpoena"). The documents requests propounded by Defendants on Edgemere and Lifespace were substantially similar.

8. Because of the similarities in the overlapping document requests propounded by Defendants on Lifespace and Edgemere and the fact that all of the information responsive to these requests were likely to reside on the cloud-based information technology infrastructure operated by Lifespace, I understand that Lifespace coordinated its response to the Subpoena with Edgemere's counsel. Specifically, Lifespace and its counsel coordinated with Edgemere's counsel to identify and collect potentially responsive information from the Lifespace Server, review that information for responsiveness and privilege, make a production of responsive, non-privileged information to Defendants and prepare a detailed privilege and redaction log for information withheld from production on the basis of privilege and/or work product.

9. I understand that Lifespace's counsel, in coordination with Edgemere's counsel, identified and withheld from the production to Defendants documents that consisted of (a) confidential communications made for the purpose of facilitating the rendition of legal professional legal services to Lifespace (the "Lifespace Privileged Communications"); (b) documents reflecting the legal research, analysis, mental impressions, memoranda, correspondence and/or notes of Lifespace's counsel that were prepared in anticipation of, or to aid in, possible future litigation (the "Lifespace Work Product"); (c) confidential communications made for the purpose of facilitating the rendition of legal professional legal services to the Edgemere Board (the "Edgemere Board Privileged Communications"); and (d) documents reflecting the legal research, analysis, mental impressions, memoranda, correspondence and/or notes of counsel to the Edgemere Board that were prepared in anticipation of, or to aid in, possible future litigation (the "Edgemere Board Work Product" and together with the Lifespace Privileged Communications, the Lifespace Work Product and the Edgemere Board Privileged Communications, the "Privileged Information").

10. To my knowledge, none of the Privileged Information has been disclosed to a third party with interests adverse to Lifespace in the Adversary Proceeding.

11. Except as otherwise indicated, all facts set forth in this Declaration are based upon my personal knowledge, my opinion based upon my experience and knowledge of this Adversary Proceeding, and information provided to me by counsel. If called as a witness, I would testify consistently with the facts set forth in this Declaration.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS

In re: Northwest Senior Housing Corporation, et al.,[1] Debtors.	Chapter 11 Case No. 22-30659 (MVL)
Northwest Senior Housing Corporation, Plaintiff, v. Intercity Investment Properties, Inc., and Kong Capital, LLC, Defendants.	Adv. No. 22-03040 (MVL)
Intercity Investment Properties, Inc., Counter-Plaintiff, v. Northwest Senior Housing Corporation, Counter-Defendant.

[1] The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, are Northwest Senior Housing Corporation (1278) and Senior Quality Lifestyles Corporation (2669). The Debtors' mailing address is 8523 Thackery Street, Dallas, Texas 75225.

DECLARATION OF NICK HARSHFIELD

I, Nick Harshfield, declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746:

1. My name is Nick Harshfield. I am over the age of 21 years, of sound mind, and competent to testify. I swear that all the matters contained herein are true and correct and are based upon my personal knowledge.

2. I make this Declaration on behalf of Debtor Northwest Senior Housing Corporation ("Edgemere") and Lifespace Communities, Inc. ("Lifespace") relating to the following motions filed in this adversary proceeding (this "Adversary Proceeding") by Intercity Investment Properties, Inc. and Kong Capital, LLC (collectively, "Defendants"): (a) Motion to Compel Plaintiff's Production of Documents [Dkt. No. 226] (the "Edgemere Motion"); and (b) Motion to Compel Lifespace Communities, Inc.'s Production of Documents [Dkt. No. 238] (the "Lifespace Motion" and, together with the Edgemere Motion, the "Motions"). The Motions are set for hearing on January 25, 2023.

3. I obtained my B.S.B.A from the University of Louisville in 1993.

4. I am currently a Director, Vice Chair and Treasurer of Edgemere, the Plaintiff in this Adversary Proceeding. I am also Chief Financial Officer of Lifespace. I have over fifteen years of experience in elder healthcare, including with continuing care retirement communities ("CCRCs"). I have served as a Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, and Chief Compliance Officer for multiple CCRCs for over a decade. I have experience serving as an officer of non-profit multistate healthcare service providers that cater to senior adults. The organizations I have worked with have included CCRCs, and have offered skilled nursing, assisted living, adult day centers, home health, and multi-level retirement to seniors. I also have experience in developing strategic growth and capital plans for CCRCs.

5. In my capacity as Director, Vice Chair and Treasurer of Edgemere and as Chief Financial Officer of Lifespace, I have personal knowledge of, and am familiar with, the business affairs, day-to-day operations, books and records and organizational structure of both Lifespace and Edgemere, and I am authorized to submit this Declaration.

6. Edgemere is a Texas nonprofit corporation and is exempt from federal income taxation as a charitable organization described under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Edgemere owns and operates a best-in-class senior living community known as Edgemere located in Dallas, Texas (the "Community").

7. Lifespace is Edgemere's sole member. Lifespace is an Iowa not-for-profit corporation exempt from Federal income taxes under IRC Section 501(c)(3). Lifespace is authorized to do business in Texas and other states. Lifespace, directly or through affiliates, owns and operates 17 other senior living communities in seven states. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a chart reflecting the corporate structure of Edgemere and its affiliates.

8. In June 2019, Lifespace affiliated with and became the sole member of Debtors Edgemere and Senior Quality Lifestyles Corporation ("SQLC"), among other entities, pursuant to an affiliation agreement, dated as of May 10, 2019, by and between Lifespace and SQLC (the "Affiliation Agreement"). SQLC was formerly the sole owner of Seniority Inc. ("Seniority"), a California corporation that specialized in developing, operating, and managing CCRCs. Previously, Seniority managed the day-to-day operations of Edgemere and other CCRCs affiliated with SQLC. Under the Affiliation Agreement, Lifespace took over the management of Edgemere.

9. Pursuant to a Management Services Agreement, dated as of August 15, 2019 (the "MSA"), Lifespace serves as the exclusive manager of Edgemere's day-to-day operations. The services provided by Lifespace include: (a) determining operating policies, procedures, and standards; (b) developing and executing a sales plan; (c) establishing food and beverage policies; (d) establishing all employment policies, including wage and salary terms, benefits, retirement plans, and bonuses; (e) hiring, promoting, supervising, directing, training, transferring, and discharging all of Edgemere's employees; (f) negotiating and consummating such agreements as Lifespace deems necessary or advisable for furnishing all utilities, services, supplies, food, beverages, equipment, and other materials and supplies for the maintenance and operation of the Community; (g) establishing bank accounts as needed for the operation and maintenance of the Community; (h) developing annual business plans and budgets; (i) managing and overseeing the Community's investment portfolio; (j) providing cash management, accounting, bookkeeping, and record keeping software and services for the Community; (k) risk management and compliance services; and (l) any other services as may be required by the Community and mutually agreed by Edgemere and Lifespace from time to time in connection with the development and operations of the Community's business. A copy of the MSA is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

10. In connection with the management services Lifespace provides to Edgemere under the MSA, Lifespace maintains all information relating to Edgemere's operations and finances. For example, Lifespace provides and maintains the exclusive email and document management and storage system used by Edgemere. All Edgemere employees are provided with a "lifespacecommunities.com" email address with which to conduct business. Those emails, and all other electronic information relating to Edgemere, are stored on cloud-based information technology infrastructure operated by Lifespace. In my experience, it is typical and customary in the senior living industry for a management company to provide and maintain all information relating to the operations and finances of the senior living community that it manages.

11. In connection with this Adversary Proceeding, I understand that both Edgemere (a party to this litigation) and Lifespace (a non-party) were each served with similar written discovery requests seeking the production of documents relevant to the issues in this Adversary Proceeding (i.e., information relating to the historical operations and financials of Edgemere). Because Lifespace maintains all of the information that would potentially be responsive to both of these overlapping discovery requests for Edgemere under the MSA, Edgemere coordinated with Lifespace to conduct a reasonable search for potentially responsive documents and timely made a production of responsive, non-privileged documents to Defendants in response to the overlapping discovery requests. All of the documents produced to Defendants were in the possession, custody and control of Lifespace and Edgemere, pursuant to the terms of the MSA. As a result of the fact that Lifespace maintains all of the electronic records for Edgemere, all of the documents responsive to Defendants' discovery requests made to Lifespace were produced by Edgemere. I understand that no responsive documents collected in response to these discovery requests were withheld on the basis that they belonged to Lifespace rather than Edgemere.

12. Both Edgemere and Lifespace have retained a number of outside law firms to provide legal advice and counsel at different times for different issues:

- Polsinelli PC was retained by Edgemere to provide counsel regarding the potential restructuring, the Chapter 11 cases, and this Adversary Proceeding.

- Before Polsinelli PC was engaged, Edgemere was represented by DLA Piper and Sidley Austin LLP regarding the potential restructuring, including the potential Chapter 11 filings.
- Perkins Coie LLP and Cooley LLP represent Lifespace in connection with the Chapter 11 cases and this Adversary Proceeding.
- Dorsey & Whitney previously represented Lifespace with respect to general legal advice and counseling, including outside general counsel services, and currently represents Lifespace in various financing and acquisition matters.
- Norton Rose Fulbright previously represented SQLC and Edgemere in connection with the Affiliation Agreement with Lifespace.
- Locke Lord LLP was retained by both Lifespace and Edgemere to provide joint counsel regarding issues involving Texas Department of Insurance arising from Lifespace's affiliation with Edgemere and other SQLC communities.
- Thompson Knight (n/k/a as Holland & Knight LLP) was retained by Edgemere in connection with its development through the time of Lifespace's affiliation with Edgemere. Thompson & Knight provided general legal advice and counsel to Edgemere regarding its operations, and provided legal advice and counsel to SQLC and Edgemere with respect to Lifespace's affiliation with Edgemere.
- Ropes & Gray LLP was retained by Lifespace in connection with its affiliation with Edgemere. In connection therewith, Ropes & Gray retained Houlihan Lokey to provide advice in connection with Lifespace's affiliation with Edgemere.
- Stewart Wiegland & Owens PC was retained by both Lifespace and Edgemere at various points to represent those entities in litigation.

13. Sandra Parker and Abdul Shakoor were in-house counsel to Lifespace during certain periods of time relevant to this Adversary Proceeding, bondholder and lease restructuring negotiations, pre-filing disputes with Defendants, and general restructuring.

14. The above-mentioned firms and attorneys communicated with representatives of Lifespace and/or Edgemere to provide legal advice and counsel to Edgemere concerning matters relevant to the present litigation, bondholder and lease restructuring negotiations, pre-filing disputes with Defendants, and general restructuring. After Lifespace's affiliation with Edgemere, Lifespace and Edgemere have shared common legal, financial and other interests with respect to the matters discussed between them and their respective counsel.

15. A chart containing the names of titles of the representatives that communicated with in-house and outside counsel regarding matters relevant to the present litigation, bondholder and lease restructuring negotiations, pre-filing disputes with Defendants, and general restructuring is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

16. Based on my experience and familiarity with Lifespace's and Edgemere's respective operations, the individuals and roles identified on Edgemere's privilege and redaction logs primarily include senior executives, finance management and personnel, and other similar personnel that would be expected to be involved in attorney-client communications.

17. As Edgemere's sole member, Lifespace employs numerous people that serve in dual roles for both Edgemere and Lifespace. Although Defendants have not identified any specific communications they are challenging on Edgemere's privilege or redaction logs, I personally reviewed many of the communications between representatives of Lifespace and/or Edgemere and their respective counsel. Based on my experience with the operations of both Lifespace and Edgemere, it is my understanding and belief that these conversations were consistent with typical communications soliciting and obtaining legal advice and attorney work product.

18. Except as otherwise indicated, all facts set forth in this Declaration are based upon my personal knowledge, my review of relevant documents, my opinion based upon my experience and knowledge of the Edgemere's and Lifespace's respective operations and financial condition, and information provided to me by advisors or other representatives of Edgemere and/or Lifespace. If called as a witness, I would testify consistently with the facts set forth in this Declaration.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Counsel,

Following up on the status of discussions with your client regarding the production of certain financial documents. The two options outlined on the call on September 2 were:

1. Designation of all documents as AEO, for production and subsequent use in accordance with the Stipulated Protective Order entered by the Court; or
2. Counsel-made deletions of non-responsive or privileged information in the native file; produced with an explanation of what changes were made to the document by counsel and why, the metadata of that document, and a detailed certificate of completeness and explanation of how the documents were created and stored in the normal course of business and that there is no non-burdensome alternative to provide the requested information, etc.

Please let us know which option your client has selected so we can move forward. Let me know if you have any questions.

Best,
Elizabeth

Subject: Northwest Senior Housing Corporation v. Intercity Investment Properties, Inc., et al*, Case No. 22-AP-03040 (MVL)

Dear Lisa:

This letter responds to your letter dated November 7, 2022, in which you contend that third-party Lifespace Communities, Inc. ("Lifespace") failed to respond to the subpoena propounded by adversary defendants Intercity Investment Properties, Inc. and Kong Capital LLC (together, "Defendants"), failed to produce any documents in response to the subpoena and failed to provide a privilege log. As explained below, none of those contentions is true.

On August 1, 2022—the date agreed upon by Defendants for Lifespace to respond to the subpoena—Lifespace served Defendants with its responses and objections to the subpoena. In its response, Lifespace agreed to produce non-privileged information responsive to the subpoena and produce a witness to be examined, subject to objections. The production of non-privileged information responsive to the subpoena commenced on July 21, 2022, and was substantially completed by September 14, 2022. Finally, a privilege log relating to the production was provided to Defendants on September 16, 2022.

As stated in Lifespace's response to the subpoena, the Lifespace production was made by way of Edgemere, who was served with identical discovery requests from Defendants in the adversary proceeding, to avoid duplication and imposing an undue burden or expense on Lifespace as required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(d)(1). As you know, Lifespace is the third-party manager of Edgemere pursuant to a Management Services Agreement, through which Lifespace provides, among other things, employees and IT infrastructure to support the operations of Edgemere. This is a common arrangement in the senior living industry and does not undermine the separate legal status of Lifespace and Edgemere. Your November 7 letter contains numerous mischaracterizations and unsupported allegations relating to the relationship and separate legal status of Lifespace and Edgemere unrelated to Lifespace's response to the subpoena. Lifespace categorically rejects these allegations.

Information responsive to both (a) the discovery requests propounded by Defendants on Edgemere, and (b) identical discovery requests propounded by Defendants on Lifespace through the subpoena are derived from the same source. Edgemere, as a party to the adversary proceeding, collected information potentially responsive to these duplicative discovery requests, reviewed that information for responsiveness and privilege and timely produced all responsive non-privileged information, together with a complete privilege log, to Defendants. The production to Defendants by Edgemere includes information collected from Lifespace after a reasonable search in response to the subpoena.

Cooley

Despite the length of your November 7 letter, Defendants do not challenge any of the objections raised in the Lifespace response to the subpoena, nor do they contend that Defendants have not received information responsive to the duplicative discovery requests propounded on both Edgemere and Lifespace. Instead, Defendants only complain that Lifespace did not produce a separate copy of the information or privilege log already produced to Defendants by Edgemere with separate bates labels. It is difficult to understand how forcing Lifespace to reproduce documents with different bates labels or provide another duplicative privilege log could advance the adversary proceeding in any meaningful way. Instead, your November 7 letter simply imposes additional burden and expense on third-party Lifespace without any meaningful benefit for Defendants.

None of your other arguments regarding Lifespace's response to the subpoena have any merit. First, the information produced to Defendants in response to the subpoena includes metadata and complies with all ESI requirements. Second, the information produced to Defendants does not create any evidentiary issues; the production contains sufficient information to establish both authenticity and foundation; and the documents can be used to examine witnesses, including for impeachment. Again, your November 7 letter fails to explain how reproduction of the same information with different bates labels or a new privilege log could resolve any of those alleged concerns.

In the event Defendants insist that Lifespace consider incurring the additional time and expense to reproduce the same information already produced to Defendants by Edgemere with different bates labels, or reproduce the privilege log already provided to Defendants, we suggest a telephone meet and confer to discuss Defendants' position further.

Sincerely,

/s/ Eric Walker

ATTACHMENT TO PROOF OF CLAIM OF LIFESPACE COMMUNITIES, INC.

In Re: Northwest Senior Housing Corporation, et al.

Case No. 22-30659

This proof of claim, including this rider, is filed on behalf of Lifespace Communities, Inc. ("Lifespace" or "Claimant"). Lifespace asserts a claim in the amount of $4,998,413.08, comprised of (i) unpaid amounts owed by Northwest Senior Housing Corporation ("Edgemere" or the "Debtor") to Lifespace as reflected on Lifespace's books and records, and (ii) payments made on behalf of Edgemere related to cure of the Ground Lease, each as more fully set forth below.

INTERCOMPANY TRANSACTIONS

Lifespace provides general administrative and corporate services to Edgemere pursuant to that certain Management Services Agreement dated August 15, 2019 (the "MSA").[1] Under the MSA, Edgemere is obligated to pay Lifespace an annual fee (the "Corporate Overhead Fee"), which reflects Lifespace's estimated annual operating allocatable to Edgemere. Lifespace collects the assessed Corporate Overhead Fee on a monthly basis and records those transactions in Lifespace's books and records as the "Home Office Allocation."

As described in the Debtor's Cash Management Motion,[2] Edgemere and Lifespace are party to an integrated cash management system. As part of the cash management system, Lifespace frequently pays or prepays certain expenses for Edgemere related to marketing, insurance, employee benefits, IT, certain software licenses and other services that support Edgemere's operations. Lifespace either directly charges Edgemere or seeks reimbursement from

[1] The Management Agreement has been omitted from this proof of claim to protect confidential and commercially sensitive information. Lifespace will provide the Management Agreement upon request to the Debtor, the United States Trustee, or the Bankruptcy Court.

[2] See Docket No. 19.

Edgemere for such services. Lifespace also pays the salaries and related obligations for Edgemere's Executive Director, Associate Director, and Administrator, and then allocates those costs to Edgemere.

Lifespace also pays for corporate credit cards used by Edgemere employees for business and travel expenses. Lifespace then seeks reimbursement for those charges from Edgemere on a monthly basis.

GROUND LEASE CURE

Edgemere is party to that certain Ground Lease dated November 17, 1999, with Intercity Investment Properties (the "Ground Lease"). Prior to the Petition Date, defaults occurred under the Ground Lease. On March 7, 2022, Lifespace transferred $3,500,000 to UMB Bank, N.A. (the "Bond Trustee") on behalf of and for the benefit of Edgemere and then the Bond Trustee provided for a cure of the default pursuant to the terms of the Ground Lease. Following the cure of the Ground Lease, the Bond Trustee refunded $473,409.83 of unused funds to Lifespace. Accordingly, Lifespace asserts a claim for $3,026,591.17 for funds used to cure the Ground Lease. In addition to curing the default under the Ground Lease, Lifespace also paid unpaid brokerage fees that Edgemere was liable for under the Ground Lease in the amount of $58,751.90. On March 31, 2022, Lifespace transferred an additional $341,612.34 for additional amounts due under the Ground Lease and an additional $8,540.31 for amounts due on related brokerage fees.

11 Cases. The aggregate amount billed by these 26 timekeepers was approximately $65,118.50. Polsinelli submits that the overall voluntary reduction notated herein effectively resolves any objection to these relatively small amounts of time billed.

[4] This amount was voluntarily reduced by Polsinelli before submission of this fee application and thus the reduction is already reflected in the amount sought herein. Additionally, although Polsinelli earned fees in the amount of $1,666,258.81 for the period of December 1, 2022 to March 31, 2023, Polsinelli requests allowance of only $1,184,642.02, for this period, which is 59.23% of $2,000,000, as contemplated by the Plan and required by the Confirmation Order (each as defined herein) as discussed more fully in paragraph 11 of this Application. Thus, Polsinelli has reduced its fees by a total of $1,196,929.83, which is comprised of the voluntary reduction of $715,313.04 and the Plan compromise reduction of $481,616.79. Upon information and belief the pro rata shares of the $2,000,000 amount are as follows: (i) Polsinelli, 59.23%; (ii) FTI Consulting Inc., 18.51%; (iii) Foley & Lardner, 22.23%; and (iv) Ankura, 0.02%. To the extent that the fees requested by the other professionals are allowed in an amount lower than the requested amounts, Polsinelli's pro-rata share would increase, and Polsinelli requests that the Court allow Polsinelli such increased fees, on a final basis.

POLSINELLI'S REQUESTED COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES SHOULD BE ALLOWED

26. Bankruptcy Code section 330 governs compensation of professionals in a bankruptcy case and provides that, when determining the amount of reasonable compensation to award to a professional, the Court should consider the nature, extent, and value of the services to the bankrupt estate and all other relevant factors, including the following:

(a) the time spent on such services;

(b) the rates charged for such services;

(c) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;

(d) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;

(e) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and

(f) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

27. In determining the reasonableness of a professional's requested fee award, courts in the Fifth Circuit and in other districts have considered the following twelve factors articulated in Johnson v. Georgia Highway Exp., Inc., 488 F.2d 714, 717 (5th Cir. 1974) (collectively, the "Johnson Factors"):

> (1) the time and labor required; (2) the novelty and difficulty of the questions; (3) the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly; (4) the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to acceptance of the case; (5) the customary fee; (6) whether the fee is fixed or contingent; (7) time limitations imposed by the client or the circumstances; (8) the amount involved and the results obtained; (9) the experience, reputation and ability of the attorneys; (10) the "undesirability" of the case; (11) the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and (12) awards in similar cases.

28. Polsinelli respectfully submits that the services rendered and expenses incurred during the Second Interim Period for which Polsinelli seeks compensation and reimbursement are reasonable based on the standard set forth in Bankruptcy Code section 330 and the Johnson Factors.

(a) Time and labor required: Polsinelli expended 10,383.9 hours of professional time on behalf of the Debtors during the Second Interim Period that Polsinelli is seeking compensation for. Polsinelli's complete time records for the Second Interim Period arranged in chronological order and by activity code category are attached hereto as Exhibit F. The exhibits and narrative descriptions in this Application evidence the time and labor employed in representing the Debtors.

(b) Novelty and difficulty of questions and matters resolved: The Chapter 11 Cases and the legal issues presented therein were complex and required a high level of professional skill and expertise from professionals within Polsinelli's insolvency and other groups.

(c) The reputation and skill of the attorneys providing the services: As noted above, Polsinelli has drawn upon the skill of some of its most experienced attorneys in rendering its services to the Debtors during the Second Interim Period.

(d) Preclusion of other employment: Given Polsinelli's size, Polsinelli's representation of the Debtors has not precluded employment by other clients. These Chapter 11 Cases have, however, required considerable time commitments from several Polsinelli's attorneys and paraprofessionals.

(e) Fees charged and fees awarded in similar cases: The fees sought by Polsinelli in this Application are commensurate with fees awarded to Polsinelli in other cases and the fees charges by comparable law firms.

(f) Time limitations: These Chapter 11 Cases have required Polsinelli to perform an extensive variety of services and to address a range of issues on behalf of the Debtors, often under significant time constraints.

(g) Whether the fee is fixed or contingent: All fees sought by professionals under sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code are contingent prior to approval by the Court.

(h) The "undesirability" of the case: Representation of the Debtors in these Chapter 11 Cases is not undesirable. As noted above, however, Polsinelli's representation of the Debtors in these Chapter 11 Cases has required a significant commitment of time and effort by several of Polsinelli's staff.

(i) Awards in Similar Cases: As set forth above, the Court has the ability and power to award fees and costs to Polsinelli. Bankruptcy courts around the country have awarded similar fees for the same time and quality of work performed.

29. Further, Polsinelli has assigned the work performed in these Chapter 11 Cases to attorneys having the experience and specialization to perform the services required efficiently and properly. The shareholders and associates providing the services for which compensation is sought pursuant to this Application specialize in the fields of insolvency, litigation and corporate finance. Moreover, Polsinelli, as a general practice, seeks to use the services of paraprofessionals and legal assistants supervised by attorneys whenever appropriate in order to limit costs and more efficiently utilize the services of attorneys. Polsinelli has followed this practice with respect to the services rendered to the Debtors wherever possible.

30. Finally, in rendering services to and on behalf of the Debtors, Polsinelli has taken every care to provide the legal services as efficiently as possible and to avoid duplication of services. In this regard, as much as possible, day-to-day legal work, including, but not limited to, drafting of pleadings, memoranda, stipulations, agreements and correspondence has been performed by junior to mid-level associates.

31. With respect to Polsinelli's requested expenses reimbursement, Bankruptcy Code section 330(a)(1)(B) provides for reimbursement to approved professionals for all "actual, necessary expenses." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1)(B). Polsinelli submits that the expenses incurred in these Chapter 11 Cases were all necessary in the rendition of services for the Debtors.

32. As stated in Polsinelli's First Interim Application, as of the Petition Date, Polsinelli held an advance payment retainer of $250,000.00. In accordance with the Retention Order, Polsinelli applied its advance payment retainer to amounts approved by order of this Court.

AMENDED DECLARATION OF STEVEN J. SOLOMON IN SUPPORT OF THE APPLICATION OF DEBTORS FOR AUTHORITY TO EMPLOY AND RETAIN GRAYROBINSON, P.A. AS SPECIAL COUNSEL TO THE BOARDS OF DIRECTORS OF THE DEBTORS' NUNC PRO TUNC TO THE PETITION DATE

Steven J. Solomon, a shareholder of GrayRobinson, P.A., makes this Declaration pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 and states:

1. I am a Shareholder in the Miami, Florida office of GRAY ROBINSON, P.A. ("GR"), which maintains offices for the practice of law at 333 S.E. 2nd Avenue, Suite 3200, Miami, Florida 33131, among 11 other locations. I am an attorney-at-law, duly admitted and in good standing to practice in the State of Florida, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Florida and the United States District Courts for the Southern and the Middle Districts of Florida.

2. I submit this Declaration (the "Declaration") in connection with the Debtors' application (the "Application")[2] for authority to employ and retain GR as special counsel to the boards of directors of the Debtors (together, the "Boards") nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date, and to provide the disclosures required under Rules 2014(a) and 2016(b) of the Federal Rules of

[1] The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, are Northwest Senior Housing Corporation (1278) and Senior Quality Lifestyles Corporation (2669). The Debtors' mailing address is 8523 Thackery Street, Dallas, Texas 75225.
[2] Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Application.

Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules") and Local Rule 2014-1 of the Local Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas (the "Local Rules").

1. Unless otherwise stated in this Declaration, I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth below. To the extent that any information disclosed in this Declaration requires amendment or modification upon GR's completion of further analysis or as additional creditor information becomes available to GR, a supplemental declaration will be submitted to this Court.

2. Insofar as I have been able to ascertain, neither I, nor GR, nor any shareholder, counsel, of counsel, or associate of GR, represents any other party-in-interest in the Chapter 11 Cases, or its attorneys or accountants, except as set forth herein. Further, GR has no connection (as such term is used in Bankruptcy Code Section 101(14) and Bankruptcy Rule 2014(a)) with the Debtors, the Debtors' creditors, any other party-in-interest herein, the Debtors' current respective attorneys or professionals, the United States Trustee, or any person employed in the Office of the United States Trustee, or any bankruptcy judge currently serving on the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas, nor does GR hold any adverse interest or represent any entity having an adverse interest in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, except as disclosed below.

3. GR maintains and updates its conflict check system in the ordinary course of its business. The system includes every matter on which the firm is currently or was previously engaged, including details related to the identity of the client, adverse parties, dates of representation, and the attorney(s) at GR with responsibility for the engagement. This database is updated for every new matter opened by GR. Before the firm takes on a new engagement, the list of interested parties is run through the conflicts system, and any hits are reviewed by in-house conflicts counsel as well as the attorneys responsible for the engagement.

4. GR represents many entities and service providers that may be creditors in the Chapter 11 Cases. However, GR is not representing any of those entities or service providers in the Chapter 11 Cases and will not represent any entities or parties it currently represents with regard to any claims that they may have collectively or individually against the Debtors.

5. To the extent set forth on Exhibit 1 (the "Disclosures") attached to this Declaration, I, GR, and certain of its shareholders, counsel, of counsel, and associates may currently represent, or may have previously represented, and may in the future represent, persons, entities, and their affiliates that are claimants, interest holders, other parties-in-interest, or professionals of the Debtors (and other professionals to be retained in the Chapter 11 Cases) in matters totally unrelated to the Debtors or the Chapter 11 Cases. Attached as Exhibit 2 is a list of parties reviewed and searched, and, as noted above, attached as Exhibit 1 is a list of parties that GR has represented in the past, currently represents, or may in the future continue to represent in matters wholly unrelated to the Chapter 11 Cases. In the event litigation between any of the parties listed on Exhibit 1 and the Debtors is necessary and such litigation presents a conflict, the litigation will be handled by conflicts counsel in the Chapter 11 Cases. To the best of my knowledge and information, no entity listed on Exhibit 1 accounted for 1% or more of GR's annual revenue for fiscal year 2021.

6. Except as set forth in this Declaration, neither I, nor GR, nor any shareholder, counsel, of counsel, or associate thereof, insofar as I have been able to ascertain, holds or represents any entity having an adverse interest to the Debtors or the estates.

7. GR is a "disinterested person" as that term is defined in Bankruptcy Code Section 101(14) in that GR, its shareholders, counsel, and associates:

a. are not creditors, equity security holders, or insiders;

b. are not and were not, within two (2) years before the date of the filing of the petition, directors, officers, or employees of the Debtors; and

c. do not have interests materially adverse to the interests of the estate or of any class of creditors or equity security holders, by reason of any direct or indirect relationship to, connection with, or interest in, the Debtors, or for any other reason.

8. Attached hereto as Exhibit 3 and Exhibit 4 are true and correct copies of the engagement agreements between GR and Debtor Northwest Senior Housing Corporation and Debtor Senior Quality Lifestyles Corporation, respectively.

9. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 327(c), GR is not disqualified from acting as counsel to the Boards merely because it previously represented or currently represents the Debtors' creditors or other parties in interest in matters unrelated to the Debtors or the Chapter 11 Cases. To the extent that GR is determined to have a conflict with respect to a particular client or matter, the Debtors will utilize separate conflicts counsel as necessary. In addition, to the extent necessary and appropriate, GR will implement an ethical wall, screening attorneys working on any such matters from interacting with attorneys working on the Chapter 11 Cases.

10. As part of its customary practice, GR is retained in cases, proceedings, and transactions involving many different parties throughout the United States, some of whom may represent or be employed by the Debtors, claimants, and/or parties in interest in the Chapter 11 Cases. It is my understanding that the entities listed below had and/or continue to have a relationship with the Debtors. GR does not, however, provide services to these entities in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors, or the Debtors' estates.

11. By reason of the foregoing, I believe that GR is eligible for employment and retention by the Debtors pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 327 and the applicable Bankruptcy Rules.

12. The Debtors understand that GR intends to apply to this Court for allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses in accordance with applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and orders of this Court.

13. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 329, Bankruptcy Rule 2016, and Local Rule 2016-1, GR discloses that $100,641.55 in aggregate fees and expenses have been paid (exclusive of retainers) in the twelve (12) months preceding the Petition Date.[3]

14. Upon retention, Debtor Northwest Senior Housing Corporation paid GR an initial retainer of $25,000. Shortly before the Petition Date, GR received an additional retainer of $47,318.50, bringing the total retainer to $72,318.50, and GR separately received a retainer of $24,640.50 to represent the Board of Directors of Debtor Senior Quality Lifestyles Corporation. All of GR's fees and expenses incurred prior to the Petition Date were paid in full prior to the Petition Date.

15. The Debtors, subject to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules, propose to pay GR its customary hourly rates for services rendered. GR has advised the Debtors that GR's hourly rates for professionals that will be primarily responsible for this matter range from $450-$815 per hour for shareholders, from $250-$450 per hour for associates, and from $200-$250 per hour for paraprofessionals. All rates are commensurate with the standard hourly rates charged by GR to other similarly situated clients and on similar matters. These hourly rates are subject to periodic adjustment to reflect economic and other conditions.

[3] The fees incurred and paid in connection with representation of the boards of Northwest Senior Housing Corporation and Senior Quality Lifestyles Corporation, respectively, total $93,191 and $6,263. Expenses of $1,187.55 were paid to GR in connection with representation of the board of Northwest Senior Housing Corporation.

16. The hourly rates set forth above are GR's standard hourly rates for work of this nature. These rates are set at a level designed to fairly compensate GR for the work of its attorneys and paralegals, and to cover fixed and routine overhead expenses. It is GR's policy to charge its clients in all areas of practice for all other expenses incurred in connection with the client's case. The expenses charged to clients include, among other things, telephone and telecopier charges, printing and scanning charges, toll charges, mail and express mail charges, special or hand delivery charges, document processing, photocopying charges, travel expenses, expenses for "working meals," computerized research, and transcription costs, as well as non-ordinary overhead expenses such as overtime for secretarial personnel and other staff. GR will charge for these expenses in a manner and at rates consistent with charges made generally to the firm's other clients and within the Local Rules.

17. The Debtors have agreed to pay the above listed compensation to GR for legal services rendered in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases by its various attorneys and paralegals. The Debtors also have agreed to reimburse GR for its actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases.

18. No promises have been received by GR or by any shareholder, counsel, of counsel, or associate thereof as to payment or compensation in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases other than in accordance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules. GR has no agreement with any other entity to share with such entity any compensation received by GR in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, other than with the shareholders, counsel, and associates of GR.

19. Although GR has taken reasonable steps to ascertain whether past and current clients are creditors of the Debtors, affiliated with the Debtors, or are otherwise parties-in-interest, GR's analysis is ongoing. Accordingly, GR will supplement this Declaration as appropriate and necessary.

20. The foregoing constitutes the statement of GR pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 327 and Bankruptcy Rules 2014(a) and 2016(b).

I certify under penalty of perjury in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1746 that to the best of my knowledge and after reasonable inquiry, the foregoing is true and correct.

Re: Engagement Letter

Dear Mr. Jantzen:

You have asked that we provide advice and counsel to the Board of Directors of Northwest Senior Housing Corporation (the "Edgemere Board") concerning their duties and responsibilities relative to proposed restructuring alternatives for Northwest Senior Housing Corporation ("NSHC"), NSHC's creditors and NSHC's stakeholders. In an abundance of caution, this confirms we are serving as counsel to the Edgemere Board and not to NSHC.

Over the years, it has been our experience that things go more smoothly if we have a clear understanding of your needs and the role we need to play. The purpose of this engagement letter is to confirm an agreement concerning representation and the payment of our fees and expenses. This engagement letter will govern all subsequent matters in which we may become involved on your behalf unless a separate arrangement is made.

We will do our very best to meet your needs in any matter we undertake for you, but as you know, we cannot and do not make any representations or warranties concerning the outcome. We will give you our best advice, render opinions, and seek to obtain the desired result. In this regard, it is most important that we communicate regularly.

We have attached a copy of the firm's Policy Regarding Fees and Expenses. All conditions in that document are incorporated by reference as part of this engagement letter, unless modified herein.

The following arrangement is proposed regarding fees and costs:

Our firm will charge for services on an hourly basis. At the present time, our rates vary from $140.00 to $975.00 per hour for attorneys and $110.00 to $195.00 per hour for paralegals.

I will be primarily responsible for this engagement and my time is billed at $620.00 per hour. We reserve the right to utilize other members of the firm whenever, in our discretion, we deem it appropriate. Our hourly rates are subject to change in the future and are generally subject to review in

GRAYROBINSON
PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATION

August of each year. Further, paralegal, staff, computer research, and other technology may also be utilized if and when appropriate and in your best interest. You will be billed for the use of the same.

In connection with the services our firm will provide, we require a reduced fee and cost retainer equal to $25,000 (the "Retainer"). The Retainer will be applied against our final invoice. In lieu of an increased retainer, we will invoice NSHC each week on a calendar week basis. Payment will be due by the firm on or before the 10th day following the invoice date.

Because of the relatively large size of our firm and our representation of many other clients, it is possible that there may arise in the future a dispute between another client and you. Our acceptance of the current representation of you will preclude us from accepting future representations adverse to you, which involve matters substantially related to the work we perform in the course of this engagement. However, as a condition to our undertaking the representation described in this letter, you and we agree that our acceptance of this engagement shall not preclude us from representing other clients in the future who may have interests adverse to you, with respect to matters not substantially related to the particular matters for which you have engaged our services. This engagement contemplates a collaborative working relationship with NSHC and its professionals, like Polsinelli PC and FTI Consultants. Unless the Edgemere Board instructs otherwise, we will share information, recommendations and strategy with NSHC to the extent the Edgemere Board and NSHC remain aligned.

If this meets with your approval, please indicate by having the extra copy of this letter signed in the space provided below, and return it to our offices with the Retainer. Your approval of this letter will include agreement regarding the fees and costs arrangement and the conflict waiver.

We appreciate the confidence and trust you have reposed in us in asking us to represent you and encourage you to communicate with me if at any time you have questions on the status or progress of your matters.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

/s/ Steven J. Solomon

POLICY REGARDING FEES AND EXPENSES

FEES:

Quality legal services and good results require ability and effort. These are our "stock in trade." Generally, our fees are based on our skill, the time expended, and the responsibility involved. While our fee in most cases will be based mainly on the time devoted to the matter and the professional skill involved, the Supreme Court of Florida has ruled that where a favorable result has been obtained for a client, a reasonable attorney's fee may include consideration of that favorable result and may result in a fee greater than one based solely on a normal hourly rate. We will charge such a fee where we believe it is justified and in accordance with the Supreme Court's guidelines. Those guidelines involve factors other than the amount of time required, such as the uniqueness and complexity of the questions involved, the skill required to provide proper legal representation, familiarity with the specific area of law involved the preclusion of other engagements caused by acceptance of this engagement, the magnitude of the matter, the results achieved, customary fees for similar legal services, and the nature and length of our relationship. All these factors have a significant bearing on the reasonable value of the services performed.

EXPENSES:

You will be charged a reasonable rate for computerized document production, postage, reproduction, telecopies, couriers, express mail, long-distance telephone, travel costs and other costs. We may also use computerized research services to assist in handling your matters. This service will be used when we believe that it will save you money to do so. Expenses incurred or advanced on your behalf will be itemized on the statement.

BILLING

You will be billed periodically, usually monthly. There will be a service charge of 1-1/2% per month on all accounts not paid within 30 days of the date the statement is mailed to you. Interest charges will be added on to any outstanding balance and will be reflected in subsequent statements.

In the event you should disagree with or question any amount due under an invoice, you agree to communicate such disagreement to us, in writing, within thirty (30) days of the invoice date. Any disagreement you may have with a bill that is not communicated to us within that period shall be deemed waived.

COMMENCEMENT OF REPRESENTATION:

Our representation will not commence until we receive a signed copy of the letter to which this statement is attached, together with payment of any retainer specified therein.

WITHDRAWAL FROM REPRESENTATION:

We reserve the right to withdraw as your counsel in the event you fail to honor your agreement with respect to our legal fees or for any just reason as permitted or required under the Florida Code of Professional Responsibility or as permitted by the rules of courts of the State of Florida. In the event of our withdrawal, you will promptly pay for all services rendered by us prior to the date of withdrawal.

FILE RETENTION:

You should be aware of our file retention policy. Once your case is concluded, the file will be officially closed. Once the file is closed, it may be sent to off-site storage, and there may be costs associated with retrieval of information from the file. We retain stored and closed files for a period of ten (10) years after which time they may be destroyed. Thus, if there are any documents which you need from the documents we possess, we recommend that you obtain them at the conclusion of your case.

Also, as you know, our firm represents the Board of Directors of Northwest Senior Housing Corporation (the "Edgemere Board"). While we do not believe our representation of the SQLC Board and the Edgemere Board is a conflict of interest, in the event a conflict should arise between these two clients, we reserve the right to resign as counsel to the SQLC Board in favor of representing the Edgemere Board. Moreover, by signing below, Northwest Senior Housing Corporation is agreeing to remain jointly and severally liable for the fees and expenses incurred by our firm with respect to services provided to the SQLC Board. Notwithstanding this pledge of financial responsibility, our clients remain the SQLC Board and the Edgemere Board, and not Northwest Senior Housing Corporation.

If this meets with your approval, please indicate by having the extra copy of this letter signed in the space provided below, and return it to our offices with the Retainer. Your approval of this letter will include agreement regarding the fees and costs arrangement and the conflict waiver.
