BACKGROUND

3. On June 4, 2024 (the "Petition Date"), GLAS Trust Company LLC, in its capacity as administrative and collateral agent ("GLAS") under the November 24, 2021 Credit and Guaranty Agreement (the "Credit Agreement") and certain other lenders under the Credit Agreement (each a "Petitioning Lender Creditor" and collectively, the "Petitioning Lender Creditors") filed involuntary petitions under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in this Court against the Debtors (the "Chapter 11 Cases").

4. On September 16, 2024, this Court entered an Order for Relief in Involuntary Cases and Appointing Chapter 11 Trustee [D.I. 147]. On September 23, 2024 (the "Appointment Date"), the United States Trustee ("UST") filed an Application for Entry of An Order Approving the Appointment of Claudia Z. Springer, Esq. as Chapter 11 Trustee [D.I. 151] and filed a Notice of Appointment appointing Claudia Z. Springer, Esq. as Trustee of the Debtors [D.I. 152], attached hereto as Exhibit A. Since that time, the Trustee has managed the Debtors' affairs pursuant to section 1106 of the Bankruptcy Code. No official committee has been appointed in these Chapter

11 Cases.

5. A more detailed description of the background of the Debtors and these Chapter 11 Cases is set forth in the Declaration of Claudia Z. Springer in Support of First Day Motions. [D.I. 193].

6. Following her appointment, the Trustee assembled her own team of advisors including; (i) Jenner & Block LLP, as co-counsel; (ii) Pashman Stein Walder Hayden, P.C. as co-counsel; (iii) Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, LLP , as special counsel; (iv) Novo Advisors, LLC as accountants and financial advisors; (v) Law Offices of Panag and Babu, as Indian local counsel; (vi) FTI Consulting, Inc. as investigative and financial advisor; (vii) SC&H Group, Inc. ("SC&H") as investment banker and advisory services; and (viii) Moelis & Company LLC ("Moelis") as investment banker and financial advisor.

7. During this Statement Period, the Trustee and her retained professionals went right to work.

8. To start, the Trustee and her professionals worked diligently to (i) gather information about Debtors' business operations and management, operations that led to these Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) obtain reliable financial statements and accountings records, (iii) locate and regaining control over the Debtors' bank accounts, (iv) took exhaustive steps to regain control of the Debtors' applications (those located on Apple, Google, etc.) notwithstanding the insistent refusal to turn over such applications by T&L and the Voizzit Affiliates,[2] and (v) rehire employees in India who were integral to operations of the Debtors in order to efficiently and properly manage the Debtors to maximize value for the Debtors' creditors and other stakeholders.

[2] "Voizzit Affiliates" shall mean Voizzit Technology Private Ltd., Voizzit Information Technology LLC, Rajendran Vellapalath and Vinay Ravindra.

9. While working to endeavor the aforementioned, the Trustee was forced to deal with a litany of unauthorized post-petition interference with the Trustee's administration of the Estates, including acts to retain control over the Debtors' data storage accounts and transfers of funds from the Estates. This led to the prosecution of various adversary proceedings[3] to retain control over the Debtors' assets.

10. In addition to the foregoing, the Trustee conducted a vigorous and successful sale process. The Trustee undertook considerable effort, with the assistance of all of her professionals, to meet with and vet the significant interest from various parties as a result of the sale process. Such interest required the Trustee, and her professionals, to work around the clock to ensure that the Trustee chose the best and most appropriate offer to maximize the value of the Debtors' Estates. The sale efforts were incredibly successful the sales – for Saga's and Pajeau's assets –produced almost $100 million dollars that became property of the Debtors' estates to then distribute pursuant

BASIS FOR RELIEF

A. Standard for Interim Allowance of Fees and Expenses

21. Pursuant to § 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, a bankruptcy court may allow reasonable compensation for actual, necessary professional services rendered by a trustee, after determining the reasonableness of the compensation requested based upon the nature, extent, and value of such services. Specifically, § 330 provides in pertinent part:

> (A) [a]fter notice to the parties in interest and the United States Trustee and a hearing, and subject to sections 326, 238, and 329, the Court may award to a trustee…-
> (A) reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by the trustee. . . . professionals person, or attorney and by any paraprofessional person employed by such person; and
> (B) Reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses.
> ****
> (3) In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be award to …[a] trustee …, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including —
> (A) the time spent on such services;
> (B) the rates charged for such services;
> (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time which the services was rendered toward the completion of, a case under [the Bankruptcy Code]
> (D) whether the services performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
> (E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy fields; and

> (F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under [the Bankruptcy Code].

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1) and (3) (emphasis added).

B. Application of Standard to the Trustee's Request for Allowance of her Fees

22. The Trustee believes that the fees requested herein are reasonable and supported under the factors set forth in Bankruptcy Code § 330(a)(3). The Trustee submits that her efforts in the bankruptcy case have been both necessary and beneficial to the estate and the administration of these Chapter 11 Cases.

23. The Trustee has demonstrated skill and expertise in the bankruptcy field. In her forty years of practice, Ms. Springer represented major constituents in restructuring and bankruptcy cases including debtors, major creditors, shareholders, boards of directors, creditors' committees, landlords, buyers of assets, plan sponsors, bondholders, guarantors, and others.

24. Therefore, taking all relevant factors into consideration, the Trustee believes that the fees requested are reasonable considering the nature and extent of the services provided, and that such factors support the approval of the fees requested.

25. The Trustee also requests allowance of her expenses incurred during the Statement Period in the amount of $2,822.02. The Trustee's expenses were charged at the same rates applied to the Trustee's clients. For outside vendors utilized by the Trustee, such expenses were passed on at the actual cost incurred. A breakdown of expenses incurred by the Trustee during the Statement Period is attached hereto as Exhibit E.

26. To the best of the Trustee's knowledge, all of the expenses sought to be allowed and reimbursed are in compliance with the UST Guidelines.

engagement any interest adverse to the Estates, and has been at all times a disinterested party. The Trustee has made no agreement for the sharing of compensation for services rendered in or in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases with any other person, other than the individual members of her firm.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the Trustee respectfully prays that the Court: (i) approve, on an final basis, her fees in the amount of $3,980,155.56 based on Bankruptcy Code § 326 and expenses in the amount of $2,822.02; (ii) authorize payment of the Trustee for her allowed fees and expenses in the total amount of $3,982,977.58; and (iii) provide the Trustee all such other and further relief as to which she has shown herself to be justly entitled.
