UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION - DETROIT

IN THE MATTER OF:

Fieldstone A&E, LLC, d/b/a Fieldstone Architecture & Engineering, d/b/a Fieldstone A & E, d/b/a Fieldstone Engineering, d/b/a Fieldstone Architecture, Debtor.	Bankruptcy Case No. 26-48494-tjt Judge Thomas J. Tucker Chapter 11 Subchapter V

ORDER AUTHORIZING CONTINUED USE OF DEBTOR'S PREPETITION CASH MANAGEMENT SYSTEM, BANK ACCOUNTS, AND BUSINESS FORMS

This matter is before the Court on the Debtor's First Day Motion for Entry of Order Authorizing Continued Use of Debtor's Prepetition Cash Management System, Bank Account, and Business Forms (the "Motion")[1] filed by Fieldstone A&E, LLC, d/b/a Fieldstone Architecture & Engineering, d/b/a Fieldstone A&E, d/b/a Fieldstone Engineering, d/b/a Fieldstone Architecture (the "Debtor"). The Court having considered the Motion and finding that it has jurisdiction over this proceeding; that this is a core proceeding; that the service and notice of the Motion was sufficient under the circumstances; that no further notice is necessary; that the relief sought in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtor, its estate, and its creditors; and that good and sufficient cause exists for such relief.

[1] Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings as set forth in the Motion.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

1. The Motion is GRANTED.

2. Subject to further order of this Court, the Debtor is permitted to use its existing checking account at Bank of America ending in 9080 (the "Pre-Petition Bank Account"), pursuant to the terms of this Order. All other bank accounts will be closed.

3. As soon as possible, but no later than fourteen (14) days from the entry of this Order, the Debtor shall open a debtor-in-possession bank account that comports with the Chapter 11 Guidelines for Region 9, Operating Instructions and Reporting Requirements (the "DIP Bank Account").

4. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the UST Guidelines, until the DIP Bank Account is opened, the Debtor is permitted to disburse money from its Pre-Petition Bank Account by existing checks, ACH transfer, or debit.

5. Once the DIP Bank Account is opened, all disbursements from the Debtor shall be from the DIP Bank Account by check, ACH transfer, or debit. Any check issued by the Debtor from the DIP Bank Account shall have a debtor-in-possession designation and include this bankruptcy case number.

6. Once the DIP Bank Account is opened, the Debtor shall immediately sweep all funds in the Pre-Petition Bank Account into the DIP Bank Account. Thereafter, the Debtor shall sweep all funds from the Pre-Petition Bank Account into the DIP Account, but in no event less than two sweeps per week.

7. The Debtor may, but is not required, to open a separate Debtor in Possession bank account in which it may segregate funds for anticipated professional fees. These funds will remain property of the estate.

8. Bank of America: (a) is authorized to continue servicing and administering the Pre-Petition Bank Account without interruption and in the usual and ordinary course; (b) is authorized to accept and honor all representations and instructions from the debtor; (c) has no duty to inquire as to whether Debtor's account activity or disbursements are authorized by any order(s) of this Court; and (d) has no liability to any party on account of following the Debtor's instructions or if Debtor fails to comply with any order(s) of the Court. All other terms of the contractual arrangements between Debtor and Bank of America shall continue to apply.

9. Subject to further order of this Court, the Debtor is authorized to utilize and maintain all pre-petition Business Forms and related operational materials and practices as they existed as of the Petition Date, except as provided herein.

10. Notwithstanding the possible applicability of Bankruptcy Rules 6004(g), 7062, 9014, or otherwise, the terms and conditions of this Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon their entry.

11. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from the implementation of this Order.
