NOTICE OF CONSTRUCTION DEFECT CLAIM PURSUANT TO CHAPTER 558, FLORIDA STATUTES

RE: PARKVIEW AT LONG LAKE RANCH HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION, INC.

To Whom It May Concern:

We represent Parkview at Long Lake Ranch Homeowners Association, Inc. ("Association"). The Association operates the Parkview at Long Lake Ranch townhome community located in Pasco County, Florida ("Community"). This letter will serve as the Association's Notice of Claim pursuant to Chapter 558, Florida Statutes, of the existence of design and construction defects in the approximately 32 buildings, containing 234 townhome units, developed and/or constructed by Mattamy Tampa/Sarasota LLC ("Townhomes"), upon which you performed work. To the extent you relied on subcontractors to complete the construction of the Townhomes, you are vicariously liable for your subcontractors' negligence and building code violations.

The Association discovered numerous defects and resulting property damage associated with the design and construction of the Community, affecting the common areas of the Townhomes and matters of common interest. Specifically, the Association, through visual and destructive inspection, discovered defects with respect to the exterior walls, windows, sliding glass doors, framing, stucco, roofs, waterproofing, and sitework at the Community.

The defects are systemic, exist Community wide, and are summarized as follows, without limitation:

a. Roofs:
   i. Improper installation of roofs;
   ii. Improper installation of roof vents; and
   iii. Improper installation of flashing and roof diverters.

b. Windows:
   i. Improper design and installation of windows and related components;
   ii. Inadequate design and installation of flashing around window perimeters;
   iii. Improper design and weatherproofing of windows.

c. Walls:
   i. Improper design and installation of stucco;
   ii. Improper design and installation of wood framing;
   iii. Improper design and installation of CMU;
   iv. Improper design and installation of paint/sealants;
   v. Improper design and installation of weather resistant barrier;
   vi. Improper design and installation of siding; and
   vii. Improper design and installation of flashing.

d. Sitework:
   i. Inadequate stormwater management;
   ii. Improper design and installation of irrigation system; and
   iii. Improper site grading.

The defects constitute violations of, among other things, applicable building codes, manufacturer's recommendations, and standards in the industry. Further, the defects are causing damage to the roofs, walls, drywall, paint, sheathing, framing, grading, drainage, other work of other trades, and other components of the building. The defects are significant and widespread, such that their locations cannot be identified with more particularly other than to state the defects are systemic and exist throughout all of the Townhomes. Exemplar photographs depicting the damage uncovered during destructive testing performed by the Association and its consultants are included below:

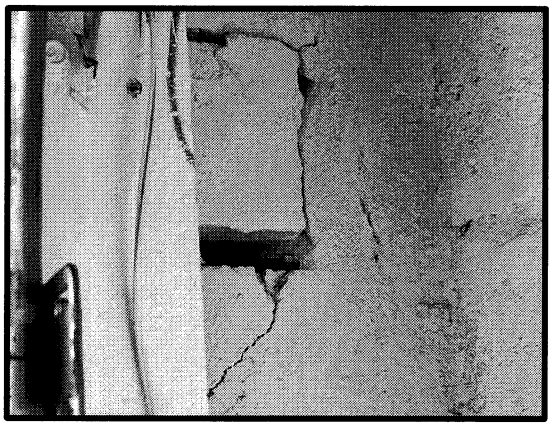

Pursuant to Chapter 558, Florida Statutes, the Association expects you to contact the undersigned counsel to schedule a mutually convenient time for inspections which are to occur within fifty (50) days after receipt of this Notice of Claim. Additionally, within thirty (30) days after receipt of this Notice of Claim, you should forward a copy of this Notice of Claim to each contractor, subcontractor, supplier, design professional, or consultant whom you reasonably believe is responsible for each defect specified above and shall note the specific defect for which you believe the particular contractor, subcontractor, supplier, design professional, or consultant is responsible.

The Association expects you, within seventy-five (75) days after receipt of this Notice of Claim, to serve a written response to the undersigned, providing the following:

a. A written offer to remedy the alleged defects at no cost to the Association, a detailed description of the proposed repairs necessary to remedy the defects, and a timetable for the completion of such repairs;

b. A written offer to compromise and settle the claim by monetary payment, which will not obligate the person's insurer and a timetable for making payments;

c. A written offer to compromise and settle the claim by combination of repairs and monetary payment that will not obligate the person's insurer, and that includes a detailed description of the proposed repairs and a timetable for completion of such repairs and making payments;

d. A written statement that the person disputes the claim and will not remedy the alleged defects or comprise and settle the claim; or

e. A written statement that a monetary payment, including insurance proceeds, if any, will be determined by the person's insurer within thirty (30) days after notification to the Insurer by means of forwarding the claim which, notification shall occur at the same time the Association is notified of this settlement option, which the Association can accept or reject. A written statement under this paragraph may also include an offer under Paragraph (c) above, but such offer shall be contingent upon the Association also accepting the determination of the insurer whether to make any monetary payment, in addition thereto. If the insurer of the person receiving the claim makes no response within the 30 days following notification, then the Association shall be deemed to have met all conditions precedent to commencing an action.

Association's Request to Provide All Available Discoverable Records

You are hereby notified not to destroy, conceal, or alter any paper or electronic files, or any other information generated by and/or stored on any computer system or any storage media in your possession, custody, or control, including the possession, custody, and control of affiliated companies that were involved in the development, construction, management, and sale of the Townhomes or Community in any manner. Electronic documents and the storage media on which they reside contain relevant, discoverable information beyond what may be found in printed documents. Therefore, even where a paper copy exists, you must maintain all documents in their electronic form along with metadata or information about those documents contained on the media. The laws and rules prohibiting destruction of evidence apply to electronically stored information in the same manner that they apply to other evidence. Due to its format, electronic information is easily deleted, modified, or corrupted. Accordingly, you must take every reasonable step to preserve this information until the final resolution of this matter. You have an obligation to discontinue all routine document and data destruction. You should also save all documents and electronic data created after you receive this letter.

Pursuant to section 558.004(15), Florida Statutes, this Notice of Claim also serves as a request for you to produce all of your records related to your services at the Project. Failure to comply with this request within the time period provided by Section 558.004(15), Fla. Stat. may result in sanctions against you in subsequent litigation. The Association will pay the reasonable costs of reproduction for any of the foregoing materials. The discoverability and admissibility of any materials shared with this Notice of Claim or in response to the above request shall be governed by section 558.004(15), Fla. Stat. The request includes, but is not limited to:

a. All design plans, specifications, and as-built plans;

b. All photographs and videos of the alleged defects identified in this Notice of Claim;

c. Expert reports that describe any and all of the defects specified in this Notice of Claim and any reports attached hereto;

d. All subcontracts for work performed or materials supplied with regard to each item described in this Notice of Claim and any report attached hereto;

e. All purchase orders for any and all the items described in this Notice of Claim and any reports attached hereto;

f. Maintenance records and all other documents related to the discovery, investigation, causation, and extent of all the items described in this Notice of Claim and any reports attached hereto; and

g. All information received by the you as a result of its forwarding of a copy of this Notice of Claim to any person or entity, whom you reasonably believe is responsible for each defect specified in this Notice of Claim.

Association's Request to Mediate and/or Arbitrate

To the extent required by any governing documents and/or contract, please consider this letter the Association's formal request and demand to try and resolve this dispute through mediation within the time frames set forth within the governing documents and/or contract. Additionally, if you contend that this claim is subject to any arbitration provision, we demand that you notify the Association of each agreement that you contend govern this claim and that you provide copies of each such agreement within thirty (30) days. If you fail to comply with this request, we will consider such failure a waiver of any such mediation or arbitration requirement.

Association's Demand for Insurance Information

Pursuant to Section 627.4137, Florida Statutes and/or Section 626.9372, Florida Statutes the Association demands that you:

1. immediately forward this request for information to all affected insurers;

2. direct the insurers to supply the information required by § 627.4137, Fla. Stat. and/or § 626.9372, Fla. Stat. to our office within 30 days of receipt of this Notice of Claim, and

3. disclose the name and coverage of each known insurer to our office within 30 days of receipt of this Notice of Claim.

Based upon the foregoing, demand is hereby made that you contact the undersigned to discuss the opportunity to cure the defects or for payment of the Association's damages. The Association intends to commence legal action against you if the defects and the resulting damage cannot be corrected without legal action.

We look forward to receiving your response.

Sincerely,

/s/ Victoria E. Anderson
