Section 1001. Applicability of Article. Notes of or within any series that are redeemable (including in connection with an Optional Purchase Offer) in whole or in part before their Stated Maturity shall be redeemable in accordance with their terms and (except as otherwise specified for Notes of any series in the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture, as contemplated by Section 301) in accordance with this Article X.

Section 1002. [Reserved].

Section 1003. Election to Redeem; Notice to Trustee. In case of any redemption at the election of the Company or Intermediate Holdings of less than all of the Notes of any series, the Issuers shall, at least two Business Days (but not more than 60 days (except that such notice may be delivered more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date if the Redemption Date is delayed as provided in Section 6 of the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture)), prior to the date on which notice is required to be sent or caused to be sent to Holders pursuant to Section 1005, notify the Trustee of such Redemption Date and of the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed, but failure to so notify the Trustee shall not invalidate any notice given in accordance with Section 1005 and shall not constitute a Default or Event of Default by the Issuers.

Section 1004. Selection by Trustee of Notes to Be Redeemed. Unless otherwise specified for Notes of any series in the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture, as contemplated by Section 301, in the case of any partial redemption, selection of the Notes for redemption will be made by the Trustee not more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date (except that such notice may be delivered more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date if the Redemption Date is delayed as provided in Section 6 of the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture) on a pro rata basis, by lot or by such other method as the Trustee in its sole discretion shall deem to be fair and appropriate (provided, however, that any redemption of Global Notes shall be in accordance with the applicable procedures of DTC), in integral multiples of $1 or integral multiple of $1 in excess thereof, although no Note of the Minimum Denomination in original principal amount or less will be redeemed in part.

The Trustee shall promptly notify the Company and Intermediate Holdings in writing of the Notes selected for redemption and, in the case of any Note selected for partial redemption, the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. On and after the Redemption Date, interest will cease to accrue on Notes or portions thereof called for redemption.

For all purposes of this Indenture, unless the context otherwise requires, all provisions relating to the redemption of Notes shall relate, in the case of any Note redeemed or to be redeemed only in part, to the portion of the principal amount of such Note that has been or is to be redeemed.

Section 1005. Notice of Redemption. Subject to the final paragraph of Section 110, unless otherwise specified for Notes of any series in the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture, as contemplated by Section 301, notice of redemption or purchase as provided in Section 1001 shall be given electronically or, at the Company's or Intermediate Holdings' option, by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not less than 10 nor more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date (except that such notice may be delivered more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date if such notice is issued in connection with the defeasance of Notes pursuant to Section 1201 or a satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture pursuant to Section 1101 or of such Notes pursuant to Section 1102, or if the Redemption Date is delayed as provided in Section 6 of the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture), to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at such Holder's address appearing in the Note Register.

Any such notice shall state:

(1) the expected Redemption Date,

(2) the redemption price (or the formula by which the redemption price will be determined),

(3) if less than all Outstanding Notes are to be redeemed, the identification (and, in the case of partial redemption, the portion of the respective principal amounts) of the Notes to be redeemed,

(4) that, on the Redemption Date, the redemption price will become due and payable upon each such Note, and that, unless the Issuers default in making such redemption payment or the Paying Agent is prohibited from making such payment pursuant to the terms of this Indenture, interest thereon shall cease to accrue from and after said date, and

(5) the place where such Notes are to be surrendered for payment of the redemption price.

In addition, if such redemption, purchase or notice is subject to satisfaction (or, waiver by the Company or Intermediate Holdings in its sole discretion) of one or more conditions precedent, as permitted by Section 6 of the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture, such notice shall describe each such condition, and if applicable, shall state that, in the Company's or Intermediate Holdings' discretion, the Redemption Date may be delayed until such time as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied (or waived by the Company or Intermediate Holdings in its sole discretion), or such redemption or purchase may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been (or, in the Company's or Intermediate Holdings' sole determination, may not be) satisfied (or waived by the Company in its sole discretion) by the Redemption Date, or by the Redemption Date as so delayed.

The Company or Intermediate Holdings may provide in such notice that payment of the redemption price and the performance of the Issuers' obligations with respect to such redemption may be performed by another Person.

Notice of such redemption or purchase of Notes to be so redeemed or purchased at the election of the Company or Intermediate Holdings shall be given by the Company or Intermediate Holdings or, at the Company's or Intermediate Holdings' request (made to the Trustee at least 15 days (or such shorter period as shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee) prior to the Redemption Date), by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Issuers. Any such request will set forth the information to be stated in such notice, as provided by this Section 1005.

The notice if mailed in the manner herein provided shall be conclusively presumed to have been given, whether or not the Holder receives such notice. In any case, failure to give such notice by mail or any defect in the notice to the Holder of any Note designated for redemption as a whole or in part shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for the redemption of any other Note.

Section 1006. Deposit of Redemption Price. Unless otherwise specified for Notes of any series in the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture, as contemplated by Section 301, on or prior to 12:00 p.m., New York City time, on any Redemption Date, the Company shall deposit or cause to be deposited with the Trustee or with a Paying Agent (or, if the Company is acting as its own Paying Agent, the Company shall segregate and hold in trust as provided in Section 403) an amount of money sufficient to pay the redemption price of, and any accrued and unpaid interest on, all the Notes or portions thereof which are to be redeemed on that date.

Section 1007. Notes Payable on Redemption Date. Notice of redemption having been given as provided in this Article X or in the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture, the Notes so to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become due and payable at the redemption price specified herein or in the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture and from and after such date (unless the Issuers shall default in the payment of the redemption price or the Paying Agent is prohibited from paying the redemption price pursuant to the terms of this Indenture) such Notes shall cease to bear interest. Upon surrender of such Notes for redemption in accordance with such notice, such Notes shall be paid by or on behalf of the Issuers at the redemption price. Installments of interest whose Interest Payment Date is on or prior to the Redemption Date shall be payable to the Holders of such Notes registered as such on the relevant Regular Record Dates according to their terms and the provisions of Section 307.

On and after any Redemption Date, if money sufficient to pay the redemption price of and any accrued and unpaid interest on Notes called for redemption shall have been made available in accordance with Section 1006, the Notes (or the portions thereof) called for redemption will cease to accrue interest and the only right of the Holders of such Notes (or portions thereof) will be to receive payment of the redemption price of and, subject to the last sentence of the preceding paragraph, any accrued and unpaid interest on such Notes (or portions thereof) to but not including the Redemption Date. If any Note (or portion thereof) called for redemption shall not be so paid upon surrender thereof for redemption, the principal (and premium, if any) shall, until paid, bear interest from the Redemption Date at the rate borne by the Note (or portion thereof).

Section 1008. Notes Redeemed in Part. Any Note that is to be redeemed only in part shall be surrendered at the Place of Payment (with due endorsement by, or a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Company duly executed by, the Holder thereof or its attorney duly authorized in writing) and the Issuers shall execute and (upon receipt of an Authentication Order) the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver to the Holder of such Note without service charge, a new Note or Notes, of any authorized denomination as requested by such Holder in aggregate principal amount equal to and in exchange for the unredeemed portion of the principal of the Note so surrendered (or if the Note is a global note, an adjustment shall be made to the schedule attached thereto).

Section 1009. Mandatory Redemption.

(a) Within five Business Days following the day on which financial statements in respect of the immediately preceding Fiscal Year are delivered pursuant to Section 405(a)(i) (commencing with the fiscal year ending on or about December 31, 2026) (or, if later, the date on which such financial statements are required to be delivered) (each, an "ECF Date"), the Issuers shall, at their option, redeem (an "ECF Redemption") or offer to purchase (any such offer, an "ECF Offer") the Notes, in each case in an amount equal to the Excess Cash Flow Sweep Payment (if any), minus the portion of such Excess Cash Flow Sweep Payment applied or offered (to the extent the Issuers or any of their Subsidiaries are required by the terms thereof) to prepay, redeem, repay or purchase Pari Passu Indebtedness on no more than a pro rata basis with the Notes (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Exit Term Loans), in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Indenture and in Section 1009(b) below.

(b) The Issuers shall give notice to the Holders (with a copy to the Trustee) of (i) in the case of an ECF Redemption, at least three Business Days or (ii) in the case of an ECF Offer at least ten calendar days prior to the applicable ECF Date. Such notice shall state that the Issuers are offering to make or will make such ECF Redemption (or ECF Offer, as applicable) on or before the applicable ECF Date. Subject to the following sentence, once given, such notice shall be irrevocable and all amounts subject to such notice shall be due and payable on the ECF Date (except as otherwise provided in the last sentence of this Section 1009(b)). Any such notice of ECF Redemption may state that such notice is conditioned upon the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event specified therein (including the effectiveness of other credit facilities), in which case such notice may be revoked or extended by the Issuers (by written notice to the Holders, with a copy to the Trustee, on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied or waived. Upon request by the Issuers at least two (2) Business Days prior to the requested date of delivery (or such shorter period as the Trustee may reasonably agree), the Trustee shall immediately give notice prepared by the Issuers to each Holder of the ECF Redemption (or ECF Offer, as applicable) and the ECF Date. In the case of an ECF Offer, the Issuers shall give each Noteholder the option to require the Issuers to purchase their Notes by giving notice of such election in writing to the Issuers (or Paying Agent on their behalf) by 11:00 A.M., New York City time, on the date that is one Business Day prior to the ECF Date. Any amounts not required to be used in connection with an ECF Offer (the "ECF Declined Amounts") may, at the option of Intermediate Holdings, be applied to the payment or prepayment of Indebtedness, including any Junior Debt, or otherwise be retained by Intermediate Holdings and its Restricted Subsidiaries and/or applied by Intermediate Holdings or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries in any manner not inconsistent with this Indenture.

(c) Except as provided in this Section 1009, any ECF Redemption shall comply with the provisions of this Article X applicable to redemptions. Any ECF Offer shall comply with clause (d) below.

(d) The Issuers will comply, to the extent applicable, with the requirements of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and any other securities laws or regulations in connection with the repurchase of Notes pursuant to this Section 1009. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with the provisions of this Section 1009, the Issuers will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this Section 1009 by virtue thereof.

Section 1010. Optional Redemption and Optional Offer to Purchase.

(a) In connection with any optional redemption effected pursuant to this Indenture, including as supplemented by any Notes Supplemental Indenture, the Notes eligible for redemption in connection with any optional redemption shall be selected by the Trustee pursuant to Section 1004; provided that the Issuer shall cause that any optional redemption shall be pro rata with the Exit Term Loans.

(b) The Issuer shall also be entitled to commence at its option at any time, subject to the requirements of this Section 1010 and of the Pari Passu Intercreditor Agreement, an optional offer to purchase any Notes (an "Optional Purchase Offer") which shall be effected as described in clause (c) below; provided that any optional redemption or Optional Purchase Offer (subject to Section 1010(c)) shall be pro rata with the Exit Term Loans.

(c) In the case of an Optional Purchase Offer, The Issuers shall give notice to the Holders (with a copy to the Trustee) at least ten (10) Business Days prior to the date the Issuers propose to purchase Notes (such date, the "Optional Purchase Date"). Such notice shall state that the Issuers are offering to purchase Notes on or before the applicable Optional Purchase Date. Subject to the following sentence, once given, such notice shall be irrevocable and all amounts subject to such notice shall be due and payable on the Optional Purchase Date (except as otherwise provided in the last sentence of this Section 1010(c)). Any such notice may state that such notice is conditioned upon the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event specified therein (including the effectiveness of other credit facilities), in which case such notice may be revoked or extended by the Issuers (by written notice to the Holders, with a copy to the Trustee, on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied or waived. Upon request by the Issuers at least two (2) Business Days prior to the requested date of delivery (or such shorter period as the Trustee may reasonably agree), the Trustee shall immediately give notice prepared by the Issuers to each Holder of the Optional Purchase Offer and the Optional Purchase Date. In such notice given by the Issuers (or Trustee or other Paying Agent on their behalf), the Issuers shall give each Noteholder the option to require the Issuers to purchase their Notes by giving notice of such election in writing to the Issuers (or Paying Agent on their behalf) by 11:00 A.M., New York City time, on the date that is one Business Day prior to the Optional Purchase Date. (d) The Issuers will comply, to the extent applicable, with the requirements of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and any other securities laws or regulations in connection with the repurchase of Notes pursuant to this Section 1010. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with the provisions of this Section 1010, the Issuers will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this Section 1010 by virtue thereof.

Section 1102. Satisfaction and Discharge of Notes of a Series. The Outstanding Notes of any series shall be discharged and shall cease to be of further effect (except as to any surviving rights of registration of transfer or exchange of such Notes herein expressly provided for), and the Trustee, on demand of and at the expense of the Company, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging satisfaction and discharge of the Outstanding Notes of such series, when:

ARTICLE XII

DEFEASANCE OR COVENANT DEFEASANCE

Section 1201. The Company's Option to Effect Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance. The Company or Intermediate Holdings may, at their option, at any time, elect to have terminated the obligations of the Issuers with respect to Outstanding Notes, each Parent Guarantors with respect to its Parent Guarantee and each Subsidiary Guarantor with respect to the Subsidiary Guarantees, to have released any and all Liens on the Collateral securing the Indebtedness evidenced by the Notes and to have terminated the Note Security Documents, in each case, as set forth in this Article XII, and elect to have either Section 1202 or Section 1203 be applied to all of the Outstanding Notes (the "Defeased Notes"), upon compliance with the conditions set forth below in Section 1204. Either Section 1202 or Section 1203 may be applied to the Defeased Notes to any Redemption Date or the Stated Maturity of the Notes.

Section 1202. Defeasance and Discharge. Upon the Company's or Intermediate Holdings' exercise under Section 1201 of the option applicable to this Section 1202, the Issuers shall be deemed to have been released and discharged from their obligations with respect to the Defeased Notes, each Parent Guarantor shall be deemed to have been released and discharged from its obligations with respect to the Parent Guarantee, and the Subsidiary Guarantors shall be deemed to have been released and discharged from their obligations with respect to the Subsidiary Guarantees and the Issuers and the Guarantors shall have released any and all Liens on the Collateral securing the Indebtedness evidenced by the Notes and to have terminated the Note Security Documents on the date the relevant conditions set forth in Section 1204 are satisfied (hereinafter, "Defeasance"). For this purpose, such Defeasance means that the Issuers shall be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire Indebtedness represented by the Defeased Notes, which shall thereafter be deemed to be "Outstanding" only for the purposes of Section 1205 and the other Sections of this Indenture referred to in clauses (a) and (b) below, and an Issuer, a Parent Guarantor and each of the Subsidiary Guarantors shall be deemed to have satisfied all other obligations under such Notes, the Parent Guarantees, the Subsidiary Guarantees and this Indenture insofar as such Notes are concerned (and the Trustee, at the expense of the Issuers, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging the same), except for the following, which shall survive until otherwise terminated or discharged hereunder: (a) the rights of Holders of Defeased Notes to receive, solely from the trust fund described in Section 1204 and as more fully set forth in such Section, payments in respect of principal of and premium, if any, and interest on such Notes when such payments are due, (b) the Issuers' obligations with respect to such Defeased Notes under Sections 304, 305, 306, 402 and 403, (c) the rights, powers, trusts, duties and immunities of the Trustee hereunder, including the Trustee's rights (and the Issuers' obligations) under Section 707, and (d) this Article XII. If the Issuers exercise their option under this Section 1202, payment of the Notes may not be accelerated because of an Event of Default with respect thereto. Subject to compliance with this Article XII, the Company or Intermediate Holdings may, at their option and at any time, exercise their option under this Section 1202 notwithstanding the prior exercise of their option under Section 1203 with respect to the Notes.

Section 1203. Covenant Defeasance. Upon the Company's or Intermediate Holdings' exercise under Section 1201 of the option applicable to this Section 1203, (a) each Issuer and the Guarantors shall be released from their respective obligations under any covenant or provision contained in Section 405, Sections 407 through 415 and Section 1503, and the provisions of clauses (iii), (iv) and (v) and the second paragraph of Section 501(a) shall not apply, and (b) the occurrence of any event specified in clause (iv), (v) (with respect to Section 405, Sections 407 through 415, inclusive and Section 1503), (vi), (vii), (viii) (with respect to Subsidiaries), (ix) (with respect to Subsidiaries), (x), (xi) or (xii) of Section 601 shall be deemed not to be or result in an Event of Default, in each case with respect to the Defeased Notes on and after the date the conditions set forth below are satisfied (hereinafter, "Covenant Defeasance"), and the Notes shall thereafter be deemed not to be "Outstanding" for the purposes of any direction, waiver, consent or declaration or Act of Holders (and the consequences of any thereof) in connection with such covenants or provisions, but shall continue to be deemed "Outstanding" for all other purposes hereunder. For this purpose, such Covenant Defeasance means that, with respect to the Outstanding Notes, the Issuers and the Guarantors may omit to comply with and shall have no liability in respect of any term, condition or limitation set forth in any such covenant or provision, whether directly or indirectly, by reason of any reference elsewhere herein to any such covenant or provision or by reason of any reference in any such covenant or provision to any other provision herein or in any other document and such omission to comply shall not constitute a Default or an Event of Default under Section 601, but, except as specified above, the remainder of this Indenture and such Outstanding Notes shall be unaffected thereby.

Section 1204. Conditions to Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance. The following shall be the conditions to application of either Section 1202 or Section 1203 to the Outstanding Notes:

(1) The Issuers shall have irrevocably deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee, in trust, money or U.S. Government Obligations, or a combination thereof, in amounts as will be sufficient (without reinvestment), to pay and discharge the principal of, and premium, if any, and interest on the Defeased Notes issued by the Issuers to the Stated Maturity or relevant Redemption Date in accordance with the terms of this Indenture and the Notes (provided that if such redemption is made pursuant to Section 6(d) of the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture, (x) the amount of money or U.S. Government Obligations or a combination thereof that the Issuers must irrevocably deposit or cause to be deposited shall be determined using an assumed Applicable Premium calculated as of the date of such deposit, as calculated by the Company in good faith and (y) the Issuers must irrevocably deposit or cause to be deposited additional money in trust on or prior to the Redemption Date, as required by Section 1006, as necessary to pay the Applicable Premium as determined on such Redemption Date);

(2) No Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit;

(3) Such deposit shall not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a Default or Event of Default under, this Indenture or any other material agreement or instrument to which the Issuers is a party or by which either of them is bound;

(4) In the case of an election under Section 1202, the Company or Intermediate Holdings shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel from Debevoise & Plimpton LLP or other counsel in the United States to the effect that (x) the Issuers have received from, or there has been published by, the Internal Revenue Service a ruling or (y) since the Issue Date, there has been a change in the applicable Federal income tax law, in either case to the effect that, and based thereon such opinion shall confirm to the effect that, the Holders of the Outstanding Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such Defeasance and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Defeasance had not occurred; provided that such Opinion of Counsel need not be delivered if all Notes theretofore authenticated and delivered (other than (i) Notes that have been destroyed, lost or stolen and that have been replaced or paid as provided in Section 306, and (ii) Notes for whose payment money has theretofore been deposited in trust or segregated and held in trust by the Issuers and thereafter repaid to the Issuers or discharged from such trust, as provided in Section 403) not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation have become due and payable, will become due and payable at their Stated Maturity within one year, or have been called for redemption or are to be called for redemption within one year under arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee for the giving of notice of redemption by the Trustee in the name, and at the expense, of the Issuers;

(5) In the case of an election under Section 1203, the Company or Intermediate Holdings shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel from Debevoise & Plimpton LLP or other counsel in the United States to the effect that the Holders of the Outstanding Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such Covenant Defeasance and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Covenant Defeasance had not occurred; and

(6) The Company or Intermediate Holdings shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel from Debevoise & Plimpton LLP or other counsel in the United States, each to the effect that all conditions precedent provided for in this Section 1204 relating to either the Defeasance under Section 1202 or the Covenant Defeasance under Section 1203, as the case may be, have been complied with. In rendering such Opinion of Counsel, counsel may rely on an Officer's Certificate as to compliance with the foregoing clauses (1), (2) and (3) of this Section 1204 or as to any matters of fact.

Section 1205. Deposited Money and U.S. Government Obligations to Be Held in Trust; Other Miscellaneous Provisions. Subject to the provisions of the last paragraph of Section 403, all money and U.S. Government Obligations (including the proceeds thereof) deposited with the Trustee (or such other Person that would qualify to act as successor trustee under Article VII, collectively and solely for purposes of this Section 1205, the "Trustee") pursuant to Section 1204 in respect of the Defeased Notes shall be held in trust and applied by the Trustee, in accordance with the provisions of such Notes and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through any Paying Agent as the Trustee may determine, to the Holders of such Notes of all sums due and to become due thereon in respect of principal, premium, if any, and interest, but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

The Issuers shall pay and indemnify the Trustee and its agents and hold them harmless against any tax, fee or other charge imposed on or assessed against the U.S. Government Obligations deposited by the Issuers pursuant to Section 1204, or the principal, premium, if any, and interest received in respect thereof, other than any such tax, fee or other charge that by law is for the account of the Holders of the Defeased Notes.

Anything in this Article XII to the contrary notwithstanding, the Trustee shall deliver to the Issuers from time to time, upon Issuer Request, any money or U.S. Government Obligations held by it as provided in Section 1204 that, in the opinion of a nationally recognized accounting or investment banking firm expressed in a written certification thereof to the Trustee, are in excess of the amount thereof that would then be required to be deposited to effect an equivalent Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance. Subject to Article VII, the Trustee shall not incur any liability to any Person by relying on such opinion.

Section 1206. Reinstatement. If the Trustee or Paying Agent is unable to apply any money or U.S. Government Obligations in accordance with Section 1202 or 1203, as the case may be, by reason of any order or judgment of any court or governmental authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting such application, then the obligations of the Issuers, Holdings and the Subsidiary Guarantors under this Indenture, the Notes, the Parent Guarantee and the Subsidiary Guarantees shall be revived and reinstated as though no deposit had occurred pursuant to Section 1202 or 1203, as the case may be, until such time as the Trustee or Paying Agent is permitted to apply all such money and U.S. Government Obligations in accordance with Section 1202 or 1203, as the case may be; provided, however, that if the Issuers, the Parent Guarantors or any Subsidiary Guarantor makes any payment of principal, premium, if any, or interest on any Note following the reinstatement of its obligations, the Issuers, the Parent Guarantors or Subsidiary Guarantor, as the case may be, shall be subrogated to the rights of the Holders of such Notes to receive such payment from the money and U.S. Government Obligations held by the Trustee or Paying Agent.

Section 1207. Repayments to the Issuers. The Trustee shall pay to the Issuers upon Issuer Request any money held by it for the payment of principal or interest that remains unclaimed for two years after the Stated Maturity or the Redemption Date, as the case may be. After payment to the Issuers, Holders entitled to money must look to the Issuers for payment as general creditors unless an applicable abandoned property law designates another Person and all liability of the Trustee or Paying Agent with respect to such money shall thereupon cease.

ARTICLE XIII

SUBSIDIARY GUARANTEES

Section 1301. Guarantees Generally.

(a) Guarantee of Each Subsidiary Guarantor. Each Subsidiary Guarantor, as primary obligor and not merely as surety, hereby jointly and severally, irrevocably and fully and unconditionally Guarantees, on a senior secured basis, the punctual payment when due, whether at Stated Maturity, by acceleration or otherwise, of all monetary obligations of the Issuers under this Indenture and the Notes, whether for principal of or interest on the Notes, expenses, indemnification or otherwise (all such obligations guaranteed by such Subsidiary Guarantors being herein called the "Subsidiary Guaranteed Obligations").

The obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor will be limited to the maximum amount as will, after giving effect to all other contingent and fixed liabilities of such Subsidiary Guarantor (including, but not limited to, any Guarantee by it of any Credit Facility Indebtedness) and after giving effect to any collections from or payments made by or on behalf of any other Subsidiary Guarantor in respect of the obligations of such other Subsidiary Guarantor under its Subsidiary Guarantee or pursuant to its contribution obligations under this Indenture, result in the obligations of such Subsidiary Guarantor under the Subsidiary Guarantee not constituting a fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer under applicable law, or being void or unenforceable under any law relating to insolvency of debtors.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the obligations of each German Subsidiary Guarantor are subject to the additional provisions set forth in Schedule 1301(i), to the extent applicable to such German Subsidiary Guarantor.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the obligations of each Irish Subsidiary Guarantor are subject to the additional provisions set forth in Schedule 1301(ii), to the extent applicable to such Irish Subsidiary Guarantor.

(b) Further Agreements of Each Subsidiary Guarantor. (i) Each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby agrees that (to the fullest extent permitted by law) its obligations hereunder shall be unconditional, irrespective of the validity, regularity or enforceability of this Indenture, the Notes or the obligations of the Issuers or any other Subsidiary Guarantor to the Holders or the Trustee hereunder or thereunder, the absence of any action to enforce the same, any waiver or consent by any Holder with respect to any provisions hereof or thereof, any release of any other Subsidiary Guarantor, the recovery of any judgment against any Issuer, any action to enforce the same, whether or not a notation concerning its Subsidiary Guarantee is made on any particular Note, or any other circumstance that might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a Subsidiary Guarantor.

(ii) Each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby waives (to the fullest extent permitted by law) the benefit of diligence, presentment, demand of payment, filing of claims with a court in the event of insolvency or bankruptcy of any Issuer, any right to require a proceeding first against any Issuer, protest, notice and all demands whatsoever and covenants that (except as otherwise provided in Section 1303) its Subsidiary Guarantee will not be discharged except by complete performance of the obligations contained in the Notes, this Indenture, the Note Security Documents and this Subsidiary Guarantee. Such Subsidiary Guarantee is a guarantee of payment and not of collection. Each Subsidiary Guarantor further agrees (to the fullest extent permitted by law) that, as between it, on the one hand, and the Holders of Notes and the Trustee, on the other hand, subject to this Article XIII, (1) the maturity of the obligations guaranteed by its Subsidiary Guarantee may be accelerated as and to the extent provided in Article VI for the purposes of such Subsidiary Guarantee, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such acceleration in respect of the obligations guaranteed by such Subsidiary Guarantee, and (2) in the event of any acceleration of such obligations as provided in Article VI, such obligations (whether or not due and payable) shall forthwith become due and payable by such Subsidiary Guarantor in accordance with the terms of this Section 1301 for the purpose of such Subsidiary Guarantee. Neither the Trustee nor any other Person shall have any obligation to enforce or exhaust any rights or remedies or to take any other steps under any security for the Subsidiary Guaranteed Obligations or against the Issuers or any other Person or any property of the Issuers or any other Person before the Trustee is entitled to demand payment and performance by any or all Subsidiary Guarantors of their obligations under their respective Subsidiary Guarantees or under this Indenture.

(iii) Until terminated in accordance with Section 1303, each Subsidiary Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect and continue to be effective should any petition be filed by or against any Issuer for liquidation or reorganization, should any Issuer become insolvent or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors or should a receiver, receiver and manager, interim receiver, monitor or trustee be appointed for all or any significant part of any Issuer's assets, and shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, continue to be effective or to be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment and performance of the obligations of the Loan Parties under the Notes are, pursuant to applicable law, rescinded or reduced in amount, or must otherwise be restored or returned by any obligee of the obligations, whether as a "voidable preference," "fraudulent transfer" or otherwise, all as though such payment or performance had not been made. In the event that any payment, or any part thereof, is rescinded, reduced, restored or returned, the Notes shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be reinstated and deemed reduced only by such amount paid and not so rescinded, reduced, restored or returned.

(c) Each Subsidiary Guarantor that makes a payment or distribution under its Subsidiary Guarantee shall have the right to seek contribution from the Issuers or any non-paying Subsidiary Guarantor that has also Guaranteed the relevant Subsidiary Guaranteed Obligations in respect of which such payment or distribution is made, so long as the exercise of such right does not impair the rights of the Holders under the Subsidiary Guarantees.

(d) Each Subsidiary Guarantor acknowledges that it will receive direct and indirect benefits from the financing arrangements contemplated by this Indenture and that its Subsidiary Guarantee, and the waiver set forth in Section 1305, are knowingly made in contemplation of such benefits.

(e) Each Subsidiary Guarantor, pursuant to its Subsidiary Guarantee, also hereby agrees to pay any and all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including reasonable counsel fees and expenses) incurred by the Trustee, the Note Collateral Agent or the Holders in enforcing any rights under its Subsidiary Guarantee.

(f) Each Brazilian Subsidiary Guarantor hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives all benefits under Articles 301, 333 (sole paragraph), 364, 366, 821, 827, 830, 834, 835, 837, 838 and 839 of the Brazilian Civil Code and under Articles 130, 131 and 794 of the Brazilian Code of Civil Procedure, to the extent applicable.

Section 1302. Continuing Guarantees. (a) Each Subsidiary Guarantee shall be a continuing Guarantee and shall (i) subject to Section 1303, remain in full force and effect until payment in full of the principal amount of all Outstanding Notes (whether by payment at maturity, purchase, repurchase, redemption, defeasance, retirement or other acquisition) and all other Subsidiary Guaranteed Obligations then due and owing unless earlier terminated as described below, (ii) be binding upon such Subsidiary Guarantor and (iii) inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Trustee, the Note Collateral Agent, the Holders and their permitted successors, transferees and assigns.

(b) The obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder shall continue to be effective or shall be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time any payment which would otherwise have reduced or terminated the obligations of any Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder and under its Subsidiary Guarantee (whether such payment shall have been made by or on behalf of the Issuers, or by or on behalf of a Subsidiary Guarantor) is rescinded or reclaimed from any of the Holders upon the insolvency, winding-up, bankruptcy, liquidation or reorganization of an Issuer, or any Subsidiary Guarantor or otherwise, all as though such payment had not been made.

Section 1303. Release of Subsidiary Guarantees. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1302, Subsidiary Guarantees will be subject to termination and discharge under the circumstances described in this Section 1303. Any Subsidiary Guarantor will automatically and unconditionally be released from all obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee, and such Subsidiary Guarantee shall thereupon terminate and be discharged and of no further force or effect, (i) concurrently with any direct or indirect sale or disposition (by merger or otherwise) of any Subsidiary Guarantor or any interest therein, or any other transaction, in accordance with the terms of this Indenture (including Section 411 and Section 501), following which such Subsidiary Guarantor is no longer a Restricted Subsidiary of Intermediate Holdings, (ii) subject to the Release Requirement, at any time that such Subsidiary Guarantor is (or, substantially concurrently with the release of the Subsidiary Guarantee of such Subsidiary Guarantor or if as a result of the release of the Subsidiary Guarantee of such Subsidiary Guarantor, will be) released from all of its obligations under its Guarantee of payment by the Issuers and all other Subsidiary Guarantors of any Indebtedness under the Senior Credit Facilities (including by reason of ceasing to be a borrower under the Senior ABL Facility) (it being understood that a release subject to contingent reinstatement is still a release, and that if any such Guarantee is so reinstated, such Subsidiary Guarantee shall be reinstated to the extent that such Subsidiary Guarantor would then be required to provide a Subsidiary Guarantee pursuant to Section 414), (iii) upon the merger, amalgamation or consolidation of any Subsidiary Guarantor with and into an Issuer or another Subsidiary Guarantor that is the surviving Person in such merger or consolidation, or upon the liquidation of such Subsidiary Guarantor following the transfer of all of its assets to any of the Issuers and the other Subsidiary Guarantors, (iv) concurrently with any Subsidiary Guarantor ceasing to constitute a Wholly Owned Subsidiary of Intermediate Holdings (provided that Holdings shall not permit any Subsidiary to consummate a transaction in which such Subsidiary Guarantor shall cease to be a Wholly Owned Subsidiary of the Company except in connection with a bona-fide joint venture with an unaffiliated third party for a bona fide business purpose, using available Investment capacity), (v) [reserved], (vi) upon Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance of the Issuers' obligations, or satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture pursuant to Section 1101, or (vii) subject to Section 1302(b), upon payment in full of the aggregate principal amount of all Notes then Outstanding and all other Subsidiary Guaranteed

Obligations then due and owing. In addition, the Company will have the right, upon 10 days' notice to the Trustee (or such shorter period as agreed to by the Trustee), to cause any Subsidiary Guarantor that has not guaranteed payment by the Company or another Subsidiary Guarantor of any Indebtedness of the Company or such other Subsidiary Guarantor under the Senior Credit Facilities to be unconditionally released from all obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee, and such Subsidiary Guarantee shall thereupon terminate and be discharged and of no further force or effect.

Upon any such occurrence specified in this Section 1303, the Trustee shall upon receipt of an Officer's Certificate, at the Issuers' expense, execute any documents reasonably requested by the Company or Intermediate Holdings in order to evidence such release, discharge and termination in respect of the applicable Subsidiary Guarantee. The Company or Intermediate Holdings shall deliver notice to the Trustee and the Note Collateral Agent of any release or termination contemplated under this Section 1303, but failure to so notify the Trustee or the Note Collateral Agent shall not invalidate such release or termination or constitute a Default or Event of Default by the Company or Intermediate Holdings.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Holder expressly and irrevocably agrees that it will not hinder, or direct the Trustee to take any action that will hinder, the automatic release of any Subsidiary Guarantee provided for by this Section 1303 to the extent the Company or Intermediate Holdings determines in good faith that the applicable transaction is permitted under this Indenture (including, without limitation, in connection with any disposition to Persons other than an Issuer or a Subsidiary Guarantor permitted under this Indenture), and each Holder expressly and irrevocably agrees that the Trustee shall be authorized to, and shall, take any necessary action to release any such Subsidiary Guarantee to the extent authorized to do so by this Section 1303 without any obligation or requirement to notify or obtain consent from any Holder (and the Trustee shall not condition any such actions on providing notice to, or obtaining consent from, the Holders).

Section 1304. [Reserved].

Section 1305. Waiver of Subrogation. Each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby irrevocably waives any claim or other rights that it may now or hereafter acquire against the Issuers that arise from the existence, payment, performance or enforcement of the Issuers' obligations under the Notes and this Indenture or such Subsidiary Guarantor's obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee and this Indenture, including any right of subrogation, reimbursement, exoneration, indemnification, and any right to participate in any claim or remedy of any Holder of Notes against the Issuers, whether or not such claim, remedy or right arises in equity, or under contract, statute or common law, until this Indenture is discharged and all of the Notes are discharged and paid in full. If any amount shall be paid to any Subsidiary Guarantor in violation of the preceding sentence and the Notes shall not have been paid in full, such amount shall be deemed to have been paid to such Subsidiary Guarantor for the benefit of, and held in trust for the benefit of, the Holders of the Notes, and shall forthwith be paid to the Trustee for the benefit of such Holders to be credited and applied upon the Notes, whether matured or unmatured, in accordance with the terms of this Indenture.

Section 1306. Notation Not Required. Neither an Issuer nor any Subsidiary Guarantor shall be required to make a notation on the Notes to reflect any Subsidiary Guarantee or any release, termination or discharge thereof.

Section 1307. Successors and Assigns of Subsidiary Guarantors. All covenants and agreements in this Indenture by each Subsidiary Guarantor shall bind its respective successors and assigns, whether so expressed or not.

Section 1308. Execution and Delivery of Subsidiary Guarantees. The Issuers shall cause each Restricted Subsidiary that is required to become a Subsidiary Guarantor pursuant to Section 414, and each Subsidiary of the Company that the Issuers cause to become a Subsidiary Guarantor pursuant to Section 414, to promptly execute and deliver to the Trustee a Guarantor Supplemental Indenture, or a supplemental indenture otherwise in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, evidencing its Subsidiary Guarantee on substantially the terms set forth in this Article XIII.

Section 1309. Notices. Notice to any Subsidiary Guarantor shall be sufficient if addressed to such Subsidiary Guarantor care of the Company or Intermediate Holdings at the address, place and manner provided in Section 109.

ARTICLE XIV

PARENT GUARANTEE

Section 1401. Guarantees Generally

(a) Guarantee of Parent Guarantor. Each of Holdings and Intermediate Holdings (together, the "Parent Guarantors"), as primary obligor and not merely as surety, hereby irrevocably and fully and unconditionally Guarantees (the "Parent Guarantee"), on a senior secured basis, the punctual payment when due, whether at Stated Maturity, by acceleration or otherwise, of all monetary obligations of the Issuers under this Indenture and the Notes, whether for principal of or interest on the Notes, expenses, indemnification or otherwise (all such obligations guaranteed by Holdings and Intermediate Holdings being herein called the "Parent Guaranteed Obligations").

The obligations of the Parent Guarantors will be limited to the maximum amount as will, after giving effect to all other contingent and fixed liabilities of the Parent Guarantors (including, but not limited to, any Guarantee by it of any Credit Facility Indebtedness), result in the obligations of each of the Parent Guarantors under the Parent Guarantee not constituting a fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer under applicable law, or being void or unenforceable under any law relating to insolvency of debtors.

(b) Further Agreements of Parent Guarantors. (i) Each Parent Guarantor hereby agrees that (to the fullest extent permitted by law) its obligations hereunder shall be unconditional, irrespective of the validity, regularity or enforceability of this Indenture, the Notes or the obligations of the Issuers or any other Guarantor to the Holders or the Trustee hereunder or thereunder, the absence of any action to enforce the same, any waiver or consent by any Holder with respect to any provisions hereof or thereof, any release of any other Guarantor, the recovery of any judgment against an Issuer, any action to enforce the same, whether or not a notation concerning the Parent Guarantee is made on any particular Note, or any other circumstance that might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of Holdings.

(ii) Each Parent Guarantor hereby waives (to the fullest extent permitted by law) the benefit of diligence, presentment, demand of payment, filing of claims with a court in the event of insolvency or bankruptcy of an Issuer, any right to require a proceeding first against an Issuer, protest, notice and all demands whatsoever and covenants that (except as otherwise provided in Section 1403) its Parent Guarantee will not be discharged except by complete performance of the obligations contained in the Notes, this Indenture, the Note Security Documents and this Parent Guarantee. The Parent Guarantee is a guarantee of payment and not of collection. Each Parent Guarantor further agrees (to the fullest extent permitted by law) that, as between it, on the one hand, and the Holders of Notes and the Trustee, on the other hand, subject to this Article XIV, (1) the maturity of the obligations guaranteed by the Parent Guarantee may be accelerated as and to the extent provided in Article VI for the purposes of the Parent Guarantee, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such acceleration in respect of the obligations guaranteed by the Parent Guarantee, and (2) in the event of any acceleration of such obligations as provided in Article VI, such obligations (whether or not due and payable) shall forthwith become due and payable by the applicable Parent Guarantor in accordance with the terms of this Section 1401 for the purpose of the Parent Guarantee. Neither the Trustee nor any other Person shall have any obligation to enforce or exhaust any rights or remedies or to take any other steps under any security for the Parent Guaranteed Obligations or against the Issuers or any other Person or any property of an Issuer or any other Person before the Trustee is entitled to demand payment and performance by the applicable Parent Guarantor of its obligations under the Parent Guarantee or under this Indenture.

(iii) Until terminated in accordance with Section 1403, the Parent Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect and continue to be effective should any petition be filed by or against an Issuer for liquidation or reorganization, should an Issuer become insolvent or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors or should a receiver or trustee be appointed for all or any significant part of an Issuer's assets, and shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment and performance of the Notes are, pursuant to applicable law, rescinded or reduced in amount, or must otherwise be restored or returned by any obligee on such Notes, whether as a "voidable preference," "fraudulent transfer" or otherwise, all as though such payment or performance had not been made. In the event that any payment, or any part thereof, is rescinded, reduced, restored or returned, the Notes shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be reinstated and deemed reduced only by such amount paid and not so rescinded, reduced, restored or returned.

(c) If a Parent Guarantor makes a payment or distribution under its Parent Guarantee, it shall have the right to seek contribution from an Issuer or any non-paying Subsidiary Guarantor that has also Guaranteed the relevant Parent Guaranteed Obligations in respect of which such payment or distribution is made, so long as the exercise of such right does not impair the rights of the Holders under the Parent Guarantee.

(d) Each Parent Guarantor acknowledges that it will receive direct and indirect benefits from the financing arrangements contemplated by this Indenture and that its Parent Guarantee, and the waiver set forth in Section 1405, are knowingly made in contemplation of such benefits.

(e) Each Parent Guarantor, pursuant to its Parent Guarantee, also hereby agrees to pay any and all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including reasonable counsel fees and expenses) incurred by the Trustee, the Note Collateral Agent or the Holders in enforcing any rights under its Parent Guarantee.

(b) The obligations of each Parent Guarantor hereunder shall continue to be effective or shall be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time any payment which would otherwise have reduced or terminated the obligations of such Parent Guarantor hereunder and under its Parent Guarantee (whether such payment shall have been made by or on behalf of the Company, Intermediate Holdings or by or on behalf of Holdings) is rescinded or reclaimed from any of the Holders upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, liquidation or reorganization of either Issuer or either Parent Guarantor or otherwise, all as though such payment had not been made.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1402, the Parent Guarantee will be subject to termination and discharge under the circumstances described in this Section 1403. Any Parent Guarantor will automatically and unconditionally be released from all obligations under the Parent Guarantee, and the Parent Guarantee shall thereupon terminate and be discharged and of no further force or effect, (i) at any time that such Parent Guarantor is (or, substantially concurrently with the release of its Parent Guarantee or if as a result of the release of its Parent Guarantee, will be) released from all of its obligations under its Guarantee of payment by the Issuers of any Indebtedness of the Issuers under the Senior Credit Facilities (it being understood that a release subject to contingent reinstatement is still a release, and that if any such Guarantee is so reinstated, such Parent Guarantee shall be reinstated to the extent that such Parent Guarantor would then be required to provide such Parent Guarantee) (provided that if any a Parent Guarantee is provided in connection with any Credit Facility, the Parent Guarantee will be provided or reinstated, as applicable, under this Indenture), (ii) upon the merger, amalgamation or consolidation of such Parent Guarantor with and into an Issuer or a Subsidiary Guarantor that is the surviving Person in such merger, amalgamation or consolidation, or upon the liquidation of such Parent Guarantor following the transfer of all of its assets to any of the Issuers and the Subsidiary Guarantors, (iii) [reserved], (iv) upon Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance of the Issuers' obligations, or satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture pursuant to Section 1101, or (v) subject to Section 1402(b), upon payment in full of the aggregate principal amount of all Notes then Outstanding and all other Parent Guaranteed Obligations then due and owing.

Upon any such occurrence specified in this Section 1403, the Trustee shall upon receipt of an Officer's Certificate, at the Issuers' expense, execute any documents reasonably requested by the Company or Intermediate Holdings in order to evidence such release, discharge and termination in respect of the Parent Guarantee. The Issuers shall deliver notice to the Trustee and the Note Collateral Agent of any release or termination contemplated under this Section 1403, but failure to so notify the Trustee or the Note Collateral Agent shall not invalidate such release or termination or constitute a Default or Event of Default by the Issuers.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Holder expressly and irrevocably agrees that it will not hinder, or direct the Trustee to take any action that will hinder, the automatic release of any Parent Guarantee provided for by this Section 1403 to the extent the Company or Intermediate Holdings determines in good faith that the applicable transaction is permitted under this Indenture, and each Holder expressly and irrevocably agrees that the Trustee shall be authorized to, and shall, take any necessary action to release the applicable Parent Guarantor to the extent authorized to do so by this Section 1403 without any obligation or requirement to notify or obtain consent from any Holder (and the Trustee shall not condition any such actions on providing notice to, or obtaining consent from, the Holders).

Section 1404. [Reserved].

Section 1405. Waiver of Subrogation. Each Parent Guarantor hereby irrevocably waives any claim or other rights that it may now or hereafter acquire against the Issuers that arise from the existence, payment, performance or enforcement of the Issuers' obligations under the Notes and this Indenture or such Parent Guarantor's obligations under the Parent Guarantee and this Indenture, including any right of subrogation, reimbursement, exoneration, indemnification, and any right to participate in any claim or remedy of any Holder of Notes against the Issuers, whether or not such claim, remedy or right arises in equity, or under contract, statute or common law, until this Indenture is discharged and all of the Notes are discharged and paid in full. If any amount shall be paid to a Parent Guarantor in violation of the preceding sentence and the Notes shall not have been paid in full, such amount shall be deemed to have been paid to such Parent Guarantor for the benefit of, and held in trust for the benefit of, the Holders of the Notes, and shall forthwith be paid to the Trustee for the benefit of such Holders to be credited and applied upon the Notes, whether matured or unmatured, in accordance with the terms of this Indenture.

The punctual payment when due, whether at Stated Maturity, by acceleration or otherwise, of all monetary obligations of the Issuers and any Guarantor under this Indenture, the Notes and the Note Security Documents, whether for principal of or interest on the Notes, expenses, indemnification or otherwise, shall be secured as provided in the Note Security Documents, which define the terms of the Liens that secure the Secured Obligations, subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements. The Trustee and the Issuers hereby acknowledge and agree that the Note Collateral Agent holds the Collateral in trust for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in each case pursuant and subject to the terms of the Note Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements. Each Holder, by accepting a Note, consents and agrees to the terms of the Note Security Documents (including the provisions providing for the possession, use, release and foreclosure of Collateral), this Indenture and the Intercreditor Agreements, in each case as the same may be in effect or may be amended, supplemented, waived or otherwise modified from time to time in accordance with their terms, and authorizes and directs the Note Collateral Agent to enter into the Note Security Documents (including any Note Security Documents entered into after the Issue Date) and the Intercreditor Agreements and to perform its obligations and exercise its rights thereunder in accordance therewith. Pursuant and subject to the terms of the Note Security Documents and the

Intercreditor Agreements, the Company shall deliver to the Note Collateral Agent copies of all documents and will do or cause to be done all such acts and things as may be reasonably required by the next sentence of this Section 1501, to reasonably assure and confirm to the Note Collateral Agent the security interest in the Collateral contemplated hereby, by the Note Security Documents or any part thereof, as from time to time constituted, so as to render the same available for the security and benefit of this Indenture and of the Notes secured hereby, according to the intent and purposes herein expressed. The Issuers shall, and shall cause each of the Guarantors to, use commercially reasonable efforts to take any and all actions reasonably necessary to cause the Note Security Documents to create and maintain, as security for the Secured Obligations, a valid and enforceable perfected Lien and security interest in and on all of the Collateral in favor of the Note Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties, as and to the extent contemplated by the Note Security Documents and subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements, including making all filings and recordings (including filings of continuation statements, financing change statements and amendments to financing statements that may be necessary to continue the effectiveness of such financing statements) or recordings and taking all other similar actions as are reasonably necessary or required by the Note Security Documents or that the Note Collateral Agent may reasonably request (to the extent required under the Note Security Documents) in order to create, preserve, validate, maintain and perfect (at the sole cost and expense of the Issuers and the Guarantors) the security interest and liens created by the Note Security Documents in the Collateral as a perfected security interest, in each case other than with respect to any Collateral the lien or security interest in or on which is not required to be maintained or perfected under the Note Security Documents, and subject to Liens permitted under this Indenture, including Permitted Liens and other Liens permitted by Section 413. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Loan Party has created a valid and enforceable perfected Lien and security interest in any Collateral in favor of the Collateral Agent (as defined in the Exit Credit Agreement) for the benefit of the Secured Parties (as defined in the Exit Credit Agreement) then the Issuers shall, and shall cause each of the Guarantors to, to take any and all actions reasonably necessary to cause the Note Security Documents to create and maintain, as security for the Secured Obligations, a valid and enforceable perfected Lien and security interest in and on all of the applicable Collateral in favor of the Note Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties as and to the extent contemplated by the Note Security Documents and subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements, including making all filings and recordings (including filings of continuation statements and amendments to financing statements that may be necessary to continue the effectiveness of such financing statements) or recordings and taking all other similar actions as are reasonably necessary or required by the Note Security Documents or that the Note Collateral Agent may reasonably request (to the extent required under the Note Security Documents) in order to create, preserve, validate, maintain and perfect (at the sole cost and expense of the Issuers and the Guarantors) the security interest and liens created by the Note Security Documents in the Collateral as a perfected security interest. In addition, the Trustee and Note Collateral Agent shall have no responsibility or liability (i) in connection with the acts or omissions of the Issuers in respect of the foregoing or (ii) for or with respect to the legality, validity and enforceability of any security interest created in the Collateral or the perfection and priority of such security interest. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company and each Guarantor shall deliver or cause to be delivered the Real Estate Documents in accordance with Section 5.4 of the U.S. Collateral Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, if any Guarantor shall not so maintain the security interest and liens created by the Note Security Documents as a perfected security interest as described therein (in the case of the U.S. Collateral Agreement, as described in Subsection 4.2.2, 4.3.4 or 4.3.5 thereof, as applicable) notwithstanding its use of commercially reasonable efforts, such failure shall not (by reason of the use of commercially reasonable efforts) be deemed to be in accordance with the terms of this Indenture or any of the Note Security Documents for purpose of clause (i) of the first parenthetical in Section 601(xii). The Issuers and the Guarantors shall continue to have the right to possess and control their property and assets constituting Collateral and exercise all rights with respect thereto, subject to the terms of the Note Security Documents.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Issuers and the Guarantors are unable to complete on or prior to the Issue Date all filings and other similar actions required in connection with the perfection of such liens and security interests (other than the filing of UCC or PPSA financing statements), the Issuers and the Guarantors shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to complete such actions as soon as reasonably practicable (but no later than 180 days) after the Issue Date; provided that if any property and other assets securing any (i) Parity Lien Obligations remains unperfected at such time, perfection of such property and other assets under the Note Security Documents will only be required, if and to the extent that such assets and other property securing the Parity Lien Obligations becomes perfected substantially concurrently therewith and (ii) ABL Obligations remains unperfected at such time, perfection of such property and other assets under the Note Security Documents will only be required, if and to the extent that such assets and other property securing the ABL Obligations becomes perfected substantially concurrently therewith.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Holdings, any of the Issuers and the Guarantors will not be required to (v) except in the case of any assets of, or Capital Stock in, any Foreign Subsidiary that is a Guarantor, take any action in any jurisdiction other than the United States of America, or required by the laws of any such non-U.S. jurisdiction, in order to create any security interests (or other Liens) in assets located or titled outside of the United States of America or to perfect any security interests (or other Liens) in any Collateral (it being understood that there shall be no security agreements or pledge agreements governed under the laws of any non-U.S. jurisdiction (other than in the event any Foreign Subsidiary becomes a Loan Party pursuant to the last sentence of Section 414) in each case other than Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, France, Germany, Ireland, Mexico, New Zealand, Poland, Scotland, the United Kingdom and any Other Designated Primary Jurisdiction as and to the extent provided herein and in the Note Security Documents), (w) deliver control agreements with respect to, or confer perfection by "control" over, any deposit accounts, bank or securities account or other Collateral, except in the case of Collateral that constitutes Capital Stock or intercompany notes in certificated form, delivering such Capital Stock or intercompany notes to the Note Collateral Agent (or another Person as contemplated by the Intercreditor Agreements), (x) take any action in order to perfect any security interests in any assets specifically requiring perfection through control (including cash, cash equivalents, deposit accounts or securities accounts) (except, in each case, to the extent consisting of proceeds perfected automatically or by the filing of a financing statement under the Uniform Commercial Code or PPSA or, in the case of pledged Capital Stock or pledged intercompany notes, by being held by the Note Collateral Agent (or another Person as contemplated by the Intercreditor Agreements)), (y) deliver landlord lien waivers, estoppels or collateral access letters or (z) file any fixture filing with respect to any security interest in fixtures affixed to or attached to any real property constituting Excluded Assets.

The Collateral shall not at any time include any Excluded Assets. Without limiting the foregoing, to the extent constituting Excluded Assets, the Collateral shall not include any Capital Stock and other securities of a Subsidiary of the Company to the extent that the pledge of or grant of any other Lien on such Capital Stock and other securities for the benefit of any holders of securities results in the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries being required to file separate financial statements for such Subsidiary with the SEC (or any other governmental authority) pursuant to either Rule 3-10 or 3-16 of Regulation S-X under the Securities Act, or any other law, rule or regulation as in effect from time to time, but only to the extent necessary to not be subject to such requirement.

Collateral of each Issuer will secure the Obligations of such Issuer under the Notes, Collateral of each Parent Guarantor will secure the Obligations of such Parent Guarantor under the Parent Guarantee and Collateral of each Subsidiary Guarantor will secure the Obligations of such Subsidiary Guarantor under its Subsidiary Guarantee.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the obligations of each Polish Subsidiary Guarantor are subject to the additional provisions set forth in Schedule 1501(i), to the extent applicable to such Polish Subsidiary Guarantor.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the obligations of each Irish Subsidiary Guarantor are subject to the additional provisions set forth in Schedule 1501(ii), to the extent applicable to such Irish Subsidiary Guarantor.

Section 1502. Release of Collateral. The Collateral shall be released from the Lien and security interest created by the Note Security Documents, all without delivery of any instrument or performance of any act by any party, at any time or from time to time in accordance with the provisions of the Note Security Documents or as provided by this Section 1502. Upon such release, all rights in the Collateral shall revert to the Issuers and the Guarantors, as applicable. The Collateral shall be released under any one or more of the following circumstances (subject to Release Requirements):

(i) so long as any Parity Lien Obligations are outstanding, upon the release of all Liens thereon securing all the Parity Lien Obligations; provided that it being understood that such Liens are subject to reinstatement if Liens on the Collateral are incurred in connection with any Credit Facility;

(ii) so long as any ABL Obligations are outstanding, upon the release of all Liens thereon securing ABL Obligations;

(iii) to enable the disposition (as defined under Section 101 in the "Asset Disposition" definition and including any sale, conveyance, issuance, transfer or other disposition described in the parenthetical exclusion to such definition) of such property or assets to any Person (other than the Company or a Subsidiary Guarantor) to the extent not prohibited under Section 411;

(iv) the release of Excess Collateral Proceeds, Excess Other Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow Sweep Payments that remain unexpended after the conclusion of an applicable Offer or ECF Offer conducted in accordance with Section 411 or Section 1009, as applicable;

(vi) the release of the property or assets that at any time constitute Excluded Assets;

(vii) pursuant to an amendment or waiver in accordance with Article IX of this Indenture;

(viii) payment in full of the principal of (and premium, if any), together with accrued and unpaid interest on, the Notes and all other Obligations under this Indenture, the Guarantees under this Indenture and the Note Security Documents that are due and payable at or prior to the time such principal, together with accrued and unpaid interest, is paid;

(ix) if the Notes have been discharged or defeased pursuant to Article XI or Article XII of this Indenture; or

(x) as provided in the Intercreditor Agreements.

The Note Collateral Agent and, if necessary, the Trustee shall, upon receipt of an Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel, at the Issuers' expense, execute, deliver or acknowledge such instruments or releases to evidence and shall do or cause to be done all other acts reasonably requested by the Company or Intermediate Holdings to effect, in each case as soon as is reasonably practicable, the release of any Collateral permitted to be released pursuant to this Indenture, the Note Security Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements. Neither the Trustee nor the Note Collateral Agent shall be liable for any such release undertaken in good faith and in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Holder expressly and irrevocably agrees that it will not hinder, or direct the Trustee to take any action that will hinder, the automatic release of the Collateral provided for by this Section 1502 to the extent the Company or Intermediate Holdings determines in good faith that the applicable transaction is permitted under this Indenture, and each Holder expressly and irrevocably agrees that the Trustee shall be authorized to, and shall, take any necessary action to release any Parent Guarantor to the extent authorized to do so by this Section 1502 without any obligation or requirement to notify or obtain consent from any Holder (and the Trustee shall not condition any such actions on providing notice to, or obtaining consent from, the Holders).

Section 1503. After-Acquired Property. Promptly, but in no event later than 90 days, following the acquisition by an Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor of any After Acquired Property, such Issuer or Subsidiary Guarantor shall execute and deliver such Note Security Document supplements, security instruments and financing statements (including, with respect to any Real Property constituting After Acquired Property, in accordance with Section 5.4 of the U.S. Collateral Agreement) as shall be reasonably necessary to cause such After Acquired Property to be made subject to a perfected Lien (subject to Liens permitted under this Indenture, including Permitted Liens) in favor of the Note Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Trustee, the Note Collateral Agent and the Holders of the Notes, and thereupon all provisions of this Indenture and the Note Security Documents relating to the Collateral shall be deemed to relate to such After Acquired Property to the same extent and with the same force and effect; provided that (a)(i) if any Parity Lien Obligations are outstanding at such time, in the case of After Acquired Property constituting Fixed Asset Collateral (as defined in the ABL/Cash Flow Intercreditor Agreement), the execution and delivery of such documents will only be required, and such After Acquired Property will only become part of the Collateral securing the Notes, if and to the extent that such After Acquired Property becomes part of the Collateral securing the Parity Lien Obligations substantially concurrently therewith and (ii) if any ABL Obligations are outstanding at such time, in the case of After Acquired Property constituting Current Asset Collateral (as defined in the ABL/Cash Flow Intercreditor Agreement), the execution and delivery of such documents will only be required, and such After Acquired Property will only become part of the Collateral securing the Notes, if and to the extent that such After Acquired Property becomes part of the Collateral securing the ABL Obligations substantially concurrently therewith, (b) the Collateral in any event will exclude Excluded Assets and (c) in any event such Issuer or such Guarantor will not be required to (v) take any action in any jurisdiction other than the United States of America, or required by the laws of any such non-U.S. jurisdiction, in order to create any security interests (or other Liens) in assets located or titled outside of the United States of America or to perfect any security interests (or other Liens) in any Collateral (it being understood that there shall be no security agreements or pledge agreements governed under the laws of any non-U.S. jurisdiction (other than in the event any Foreign Subsidiary becomes a Loan Party pursuant to the last sentence of Section 414) in each case other than Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, France, Germany, Ireland, Mexico, New Zealand, Poland, the United Kingdom and any Other Designated Primary Jurisdiction as and to the extent provided herein and in the Note Security Documents), (w) deliver control agreements with respect to, or confer perfection by "control" over, any deposit accounts, bank or securities account or other Collateral, except in the case of Collateral that constitutes Capital Stock or intercompany notes in certificated form, delivering such Capital Stock or intercompany notes to the Note Collateral Agent (or another Person as required under the Intercreditor Agreements), (x) take any action in order to perfect any security interests in any assets specifically requiring perfection through control (including cash, cash equivalents, deposit accounts or securities accounts) (except, in each case, to the extent consisting of proceeds perfected automatically or by the filing of a financing statement under the Uniform Commercial Code or PPSA or, in the case of pledged Capital Stock or pledged intercompany notes, by being held by the Note Collateral Agent (or another Person as contemplated by the Intercreditor Agreements)), (y) deliver landlord lien waivers, estoppels or collateral access letters or (z) file any fixture filing with respect to any security interest in fixtures affixed to or attached to any real property constituting Excluded Assets.

Section 1504. Suits to Protect the Collateral. Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default and subject to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreements, the Trustee in its sole discretion and without the consent of the Holders, on behalf of the Holders, may or may direct the Note Collateral Agent to take all actions it deems necessary or appropriate in order to:

(a) enforce any of the terms of the Note Security Documents; and

(b) collect and receive any and all amounts payable in respect of the obligations hereunder.

Subject to the provisions of the Note Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements, the Trustee shall have the power to, or direct the Note Collateral Agent to, institute and to maintain such suits and proceedings as it may deem expedient to prevent any impairment of the Collateral by any acts that the Trustee reasonably believes are unlawful or in violation of any of the Note Security Documents or this Indenture, and such suits and proceedings as the Trustee, in its sole discretion, may reasonably deem expedient to preserve or protect the interests of the Note Collateral Agent and the Trustee and the interests of the Holders in the Collateral (including power to institute and maintain suits or proceedings to restrain the enforcement of or compliance with any legislative or other governmental enactment, rule or order that may be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid if the enforcement of, or compliance with, such enactment, rule or order would impair the Lien on the Collateral or be prejudicial to the interests of the Holders or the Trustee). Nothing in this Section 1504 shall be considered to impose any such duty or obligation to act on the part of the Trustee or the Note Collateral Agent.

Section 1505. Authorization of Receipt of Funds by the Trustee under the Note Security Documents. Subject to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreements, the Trustee is authorized to receive any funds for the benefit of the Holders distributed by the Note Collateral Agent under the Note Security Documents, and to make further distributions of such funds to the Holders according to the provisions of this Indenture.

Section 1506. Purchaser Protected. In no event shall any purchaser or other transferee in good faith of any property or assets purported to be released hereunder be bound to ascertain the authority of the Note Collateral Agent or the Trustee to execute the release or to inquire as to the satisfaction of any conditions required by the provisions hereof for the exercise of such authority or to see to the application of any consideration given by such purchaser or other transferee; nor shall any purchaser or other transferee of any property or assets be under any obligation to ascertain or inquire into the authority of the Issuers or the applicable Guarantor to make any such sale or other transfer.

Section 1507. Powers Exercisable by Receiver or Trustee. In case the Collateral shall be in the possession of a receiver, interim receiver, receiver and manager, monitor or trustee, lawfully appointed, the powers conferred in this Article XV upon an Issuer or a Guarantor with respect to the release, sale or other disposition of such property or assets may be exercised by such receiver, interim receiver, receiver and manager, monitor or trustee, and an instrument signed by such receiver, interim receiver, receiver and manager, monitor or trustee shall be deemed the equivalent of any similar instrument of an Issuer or a Guarantor or of any officer or officers thereof required by the provisions of this Article XV; and if the Trustee shall be in the possession of the Collateral under any provision of this Indenture, then such powers may be exercised by the Trustee.

Section 1508. Reports and Certificates Relating to Collateral. Any release of Collateral permitted by Section 1502 shall be deemed not to impair the Liens under this Indenture and the U.S. Collateral Agreement and the other Note Security Documents in contravention thereof.

Each of the Issuers and the Guarantors may, subject to the other provisions of this Indenture, among other things, without any release or consent by the Trustee, the Note Collateral Agent, the Holders or any other Secured Party, conduct ordinary course activities with respect to the Collateral, including, (i) selling or otherwise disposing of, in any transaction or series of related transactions, any property or assets that is or has become worn out, defective, obsolete or not used or useful in the business of the Issuers and the Guarantors; (ii) abandoning, terminating, canceling, releasing or making alterations in or substitutions for any leases, contracts or other agreements or instruments; (iii) surrendering or modifying any franchise, license or permit that it may hold or own or under which it may be operating; (iv) altering, repairing, replacing, changing the location or position of or adding to its structures, machinery, systems, equipment, fixtures and appurtenances; (v) granting a license of any intellectual property; (vi) selling, transferring or otherwise disposing of inventory in the ordinary course of business; (vii) collecting accounts receivable in the ordinary course of business; (viii) making cash payments (including for the repayment of Indebtedness or payment of interest) from cash that is at any time part of the Collateral in the ordinary course of business; and (ix) abandoning any intellectual property that is no longer used or useful in the business of the Issuers and the Guarantors.

Section 1509. Note Collateral Agent. (a) The Trustee and each of the Holders by acceptance of the Notes hereby designates and appoints the Note Collateral Agent as its collateral agent under this Indenture and the Note Security Documents and the Trustee and each of the Holders by acceptance of the Notes hereby irrevocably authorizes the Note Collateral Agent to take such action on its behalf under the provisions of this Indenture and the Note Security Documents to exercise such powers and perform such duties as are expressly delegated to the Note Collateral Agent by the terms of this Indenture and the Note Security Documents, together with such powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. The Note Collateral Agent agrees to act as such on the express conditions contained in this Section 1509. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained elsewhere in this Indenture and the Note Security Documents, the Note Collateral Agent shall not have any duties or responsibilities, except those expressly set forth herein, nor shall the Note Collateral Agent have or be deemed to have any fiduciary relationship with the Trustee, any Holder or the Company or any Guarantor, and no implied covenants, functions, responsibilities, duties, obligations or liabilities shall be read into this Indenture and the Note Security Documents or otherwise exist against the Note Collateral Agent. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing sentence, the use of the term "agent" in this Indenture with reference to the Note Collateral Agent is not intended to connote any fiduciary or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable law, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between independent contracting parties. Except as expressly otherwise provided in this Indenture, the Note Collateral Agent shall have and may use its sole discretion with respect to exercising or refraining from exercising any discretionary rights or taking or refraining from taking any actions that the Note Collateral Agent is expressly entitled to take or assert under this Indenture and the Note Security Documents, including the exercise of remedies pursuant to Article VI, and any action so taken or not taken shall be deemed consented to by the Trustee and the Holders.

(b) The Note Collateral Agent may execute any of its duties under this Indenture or the Note Security Documents by or through agents or attorneys-in-fact and shall be entitled to advice of counsel concerning all matters pertaining to such duties and the Note Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney-in-fact appointed with due care by it hereunder.

(c) No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Note Collateral Agent from liability for its own grossly negligent action, its own grossly negligent failure to act, or its own willful misconduct, except that (i) this paragraph does not limit the effect of the third and fourth sentences of Section 1509(a); and (ii) the Note Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by the Chairman of the Board, the President or any other officer or assistant officer of the Note Collateral Agent assigned by the Note Collateral Agent to administer its collateral agency functions, unless it is proved that the Note Collateral Agent was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts. The recitals contained herein and in the Notes, shall be taken as the statements of the Issuers, and the Note Collateral Agent assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Note Collateral Agent makes no representations as to the validity or sufficiency of this Indenture or of the Notes, except that the Note Collateral Agent represents that it is duly authorized to execute and deliver this Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreements and the Note Security Documents and perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder. The Note Collateral Agent shall not be accountable for the use or application by the Company of the Notes or the proceeds thereof. None of the Note Collateral Agent or any of its agents shall be under any obligation to the Trustee or any Holder to ascertain or inquire as to the observance or performance by an Issuer or any Guarantor of any agreements contained in, or conditions of, this Indenture or the Note Security Documents, or to inspect the properties, books or records of the Company or any Guarantor.

(d) The Note Collateral Agent shall not be deemed to have knowledge or notice of the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default, unless the Note Collateral Agent shall have received written notice from the Trustee or the Issuers referring to this Indenture, describing such Default or Event of Default and stating that such notice is a "notice of default." The Note Collateral Agent shall take such action with respect to such Default or Event of Default as may be directed by the Trustee in accordance with Article VI (subject to this Section 1509 and the Intercreditor Agreements); provided, however, that unless and until the Note Collateral Agent has received any such direction, the Note Collateral Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) take such action, or refrain from taking such action, with respect to such Default or Event of Default as it shall deem advisable, subject to the Intercreditor Agreements.

(e) A resignation or removal of the Note Collateral Agent and appointment of a successor Note Collateral Agent shall become effective only upon the successor Note Collateral Agent's acceptance of appointment as provided in this Section 1509(e). The Note Collateral Agent may resign in writing at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Company and the Trustee at least 30 days prior to the proposed date of resignation. The Company may remove the Note Collateral Agent if: (i) the Note Collateral Agent is removed as Trustee under this Indenture; (ii) the Note Collateral Agent fails to meet the requirements for being a Trustee under Section 709; or (iii) the Note Collateral Agent shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver of the Note Collateral Agent or of its property shall be appointed or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Note

Collateral or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation. If the Note Collateral Agent resigns or is removed or is incapable of acting, or if a vacancy exists in the office of Note Collateral Agent for any reason, the Company shall promptly appoint a successor Note Collateral Agent that complies with the eligibility requirements contained in this Indenture. If a successor Note Collateral Agent does not take office within 10 days after the retiring Note Collateral Agent resigns or is removed, the retiring Note Collateral Agent, the Company or the Holders of at least 10.0% in principal amount of the then outstanding principal amount of the Notes may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Note Collateral Agent. A successor Note Collateral Agent shall deliver a written acceptance of its appointment to the retiring Note Collateral Agent and to the Company. Thereupon, the resignation or removal of the retiring Note Collateral Agent shall become effective, and the successor Note Collateral Agent shall have all the rights, powers and the duties of the Note Collateral Agent under this Indenture and the Note Security Documents. The successor Note Collateral Agent shall mail a notice of its succession to the Trustee. The retiring Note Collateral Agent shall promptly transfer all property and assets held by it as Note Collateral Agent to the successor Note Collateral Agent, provided that all sums owing to the Note Collateral Agent hereunder have been paid. Notwithstanding replacement of the Note Collateral Agent pursuant to this Section 1509(e), the Company's obligations under this Section 1509 and Section 1511 shall continue for the benefit of the retiring Note Collateral Agent and the retiring Note Collateral Agent shall not by reason of such resignation be deemed to be released from liability as to any actions taken or omitted to be taken by it while it was the Note Collateral Agent under this Indenture. Any corporation into which the Note Collateral Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Note Collateral Agent shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all the corporate trust business of the Note Collateral Agent, shall be the successor of the Note Collateral Agent hereunder; provided such corporation shall be otherwise qualified and eligible under this Article XV, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

(f) The Note Collateral Agent shall be authorized to appoint co-note collateral agents as necessary in its sole discretion. Except as otherwise explicitly provided herein or in the Note Security Documents, neither the Note Collateral Agent nor any of its officers, directors, employees or agents shall be liable for failure to demand, collect or realize upon any of the Collateral or for any delay in doing so or shall be under any obligation to sell or otherwise dispose of any Collateral upon the request of any other Person or to take any other action whatsoever with regard to the Collateral or any part thereof. The Note Collateral Agent shall be accountable only for amounts that it actually receives as a result of the exercise of such powers, and neither the Note Collateral Agent nor any of its officers, directors, employees or agents shall be responsible for any act or failure to act hereunder, except for its own willful misconduct or gross negligence.

(g) The Note Collateral Agent and the Trustee, as applicable, are authorized and directed to (i) enter into the Note Security Documents, the ABL/Cash Flow Intercreditor Agreement and the Pari Passu Intercreditor Agreement, (ii) execute and deliver any other Intercreditor Agreement, and any amendments, amendments and restatements, restatements or waivers of or supplements to or other modifications to the Note Security Documents, the ABL/Cash Flow Intercreditor Agreement, the Pari Passu Intercreditor Agreement and any other Intercreditor Agreement, and to make or consent to any filings or take any other actions in connection therewith, as may be reasonably determined by the Company to be necessary or reasonably desirable for any Lien on the Collateral permitted under this Indenture to secure any Indebtedness to become a valid perfected Lien (with such priority as may be designated by the Company, to the extent that such priority is permitted by this Indenture), (iii) bind the Holders on the terms as set forth in the Note Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements and (iv) perform and observe its obligations under the Note Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements.

(h) The Trustee agrees that it shall not (and shall not be obliged to), and shall not instruct the Note Collateral Agent to, unless specifically requested to do so by a majority of the Holders and subject to the Intercreditor Agreements, take or cause to be taken any action to enforce its rights under this Indenture or against the Issuers and the Guarantors, including the commencement of any legal or equitable proceedings, to foreclose any Lien on, or otherwise enforce any security interest in, any of the Collateral.

(i) The Note Collateral Agent shall have no obligation whatsoever to the Trustee or any of the Holders to assure that the Collateral exists or is owned by the Issuers and the Guarantors or is cared for, protected or insured or has been encumbered, or that the Liens securing the Collateral have been properly or sufficiently or lawfully created, perfected, protected, maintained or enforced or are entitled to any particular priority, or to determine whether all of any Granting Party's property constituting Collateral intended to be subject to the Lien and security interest of the Note Security Documents has been properly and completely listed or delivered, as the case may be, or the genuineness, validity, marketability or sufficiency thereof or title thereto, or to exercise at all or in any particular manner or under any duty of care, disclosure or fidelity, or to continue exercising, any of the rights, authorities and powers granted or available to the Note Collateral Agent pursuant to this Indenture or any Note Security Document, it being understood and agreed that in respect of the Collateral, or any act, omission or event related thereto, the Note Collateral Agent may act in any manner it may in good faith deem appropriate, in its sole discretion and in accordance with this Indenture and the Intercreditor Agreements, and that the Note Collateral Agent shall have no other duty or liability whatsoever to the Trustee or any Holder as to any of the foregoing.

(j) The Note Collateral Agent and the Trustee, as applicable, are hereby directed and authorized to enter into any intercreditor agreement on behalf of, and binding with respect to, the Holders and their interest in the designated assets, in connection with the Incurrence of any Additional Fixed Asset Debt (as defined in the ABL/Cash Flow Intercreditor Agreement), including to clarify the respective rights of all parties in and to designated assets, including the ABL/Cash Flow Intercreditor Agreement and the Pari Passu Intercreditor Agreement. The Note Collateral Agent and the Trustee shall enter into the ABL/Cash Flow Intercreditor Agreement and the Pari Passu Intercreditor Agreement and any other Intercreditor Agreement at the request of the Company or Intermediate Holdings, provided that (in the case of such other Intercreditor Agreement) the Company or Intermediate Holdings will have delivered to the Note Collateral Agent and the Trustee an Officer's Certificate to the effect that such other Intercreditor Agreement complies with the provisions of this Indenture, the Notes, the other Note Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements. The Note Collateral Agent and the Trustee, as applicable, each agrees at the expense of the Company or Intermediate Holdings to execute and deliver any amendment to, waiver of, or supplement to any Note Security Document or Intercreditor Agreement authorized pursuant to Article IX.

(k) The Note Collateral Agent (i) shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith which it reasonably believes to be authorized or within its rights or powers, or for any error of judgment made in good faith by an authorized officer, unless it is proved that the Note Collateral Agent was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts, (ii) shall not be liable for interest on any money received by it except as the Note Collateral Agent may agree in writing with the Company (and money held in trust by the Note Collateral Agent need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law), and (iii) may consult with counsel of its selection and the advice or opinion of such counsel as to matters of law shall be full and complete authorization and protection from liability in respect of any action taken, omitted or suffered by it in good faith and in accordance with the advice or opinion of such counsel. The grant of permissive rights or powers to the Note Collateral Agent shall not be construed to impose duties to act.

(l) If at any time the Trustee shall receive (i) by payment, foreclosure, set-off or otherwise, any proceeds of Collateral or any payment with respect to the Obligations arising under, or relating to, this Indenture, except for any such proceeds or payment received by the Trustee from the Note Collateral Agent pursuant to the terms of this Indenture, or (ii) any payment from the Note Collateral Agent in excess of the amount required to be paid to the Trustee pursuant to Article VI, the Trustee shall promptly turn the same over to the Note Collateral Agent, in kind, and with any such endorsement as may be required to negotiate the same to the Note Collateral Agent.

(m) The Trustee and the Note Collateral Agent are each Holder's agents for the purpose of perfecting the Holders' security interest in assets that can be perfected only by possession. Should the Trustee obtain possession of any such Collateral, upon request from the Company or Intermediate Holdings, the Trustee shall notify the Note Collateral Agent thereof, and shall deliver such Collateral to the Note Collateral Agent or otherwise deal with such Collateral in accordance with the Note Collateral Agent's instructions.

(n) The Note Collateral Agent and its Affiliates may make loans to, issue letters of credit for the account of, accept deposits from, acquire equity interests in and generally engage in any kind of banking, trust, financial advisory, underwriting or other business with the Issuers and the Guarantors as though the Note Collateral Agent was not the Note Collateral Agent hereunder and without notice to or consent of the Trustee. The Trustee and the Holders acknowledge that, pursuant to such activities, the Note Collateral Agent and its Affiliates may receive information regarding the Issuers and the Guarantors (including information that may be subject to confidentiality obligations in favor of the Issuers or any Guarantor) and acknowledge that the Note Collateral Agent shall not be under any obligation to provide such information to the Trustee or the Holders. name, as a representative and for the benefit of itself, the Trustee and each of the Holders by acceptance of the Notes hereby, all actions described herein relating to the Brazilian Security Documents. Any reference in 853-A of the Brazilian Civil Code to the Note Collateral Agent's fiduciary duty and liability to Secured Parties shall be interpreted to reflect solely the duties and liabilities of the Note Collateral Agent set forth under this Indenture, and any proceeds received by the Note Collateral Agent shall be distributed at such times as the Note Collateral Agent shall determine without giving effect to Section 6 of 853-A of the Brazilian Civil Code.

(p) Beyond the exercise of reasonable care in the custody thereof, the Note Collateral Agent shall have no duty as to any Collateral in its possession or control or in the possession or control of any agent or bailee or any income thereon or as to preservation of rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining thereto and the Note Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for filing any financing or continuation statements or recording any documents or instruments in any public office at any time or times or otherwise perfecting or maintaining the perfection of any security interest in the Collateral. The Note Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody of the Collateral in its possession if the Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which it accords its own property and shall not be liable or responsible for any loss or diminution in the value of any of the Collateral, by reason of the act or omission of any carrier, forwarding agency or other agent or bailee selected by the Note Collateral Agent in good faith. The Note Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for the existence, genuineness or value of any of the Collateral or for the validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of the Liens in any of the Collateral, for the validity or sufficiency of the Collateral or any agreement or assignment contained therein, for the validity of the title of the Company to the Collateral, for insuring the Collateral or for the payment of taxes, charges, assessments or Liens upon the Collateral or otherwise as to the maintenance of the Collateral (except as set forth in this paragraph). The Note Collateral Agent shall have no duty to ascertain or inquire as to the performance or observance of any of the terms of this Indenture or other Note Security Documents. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture or in any Note Security Document or any Intercreditor Agreement, in no event shall the Note Collateral Agent or the Trustee be responsible for, or have any duty or obligation with respect to, the recording, filing, registering, perfection, protection or maintenance of the security interests or Liens intended to be created by this Indenture, the other Senior Secured Notes Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements (including without limitation the filing or continuation of any Uniform Commercial Code financing or continuation statements or similar documents or instruments), nor shall the Note Collateral Agent or Trustee be responsible for, or makes any representation regarding, the validity, effectiveness or priority of any of the Note Security Documents or the security interests or Liens intended to be created thereby.

Section 1510. Compensation and Indemnification. The Note Collateral Agent shall be entitled to the compensation and indemnification set forth in Section 707 (with the references to the Trustee therein applying herein to refer to the Note Collateral Agent); provided that, references to negligence shall be replaced with references to gross negligence.

Section 1511. The Intercreditor Agreements and the Note Security Documents. Each of the Trustee and the Note Collateral Agent is hereby directed and authorized to execute and deliver the Intercreditor Agreements and any Note Security Documents in which it is named as a party. It is hereby expressly acknowledged and agreed that, in doing so, the Trustee and the Note Collateral Agent are not responsible for the terms or contents of such agreements, or for the validity or enforceability thereof, or the sufficiency thereof for any purpose. Whether or not so expressly stated therein, in entering into, or taking (or forbearing from) any action under or pursuant to, the Intercreditor Agreements or any Note Security Documents, the Trustee and Note Collateral Agent each shall have all of the rights, immunities, indemnities and other protections granted to it under this Indenture (in addition to those that may be granted to it under the terms of such other agreement or agreements).

Section 1512. [Reserved].

Section 1513. Confidentiality. The Note Collateral Agent agrees to keep any information supplied by the Issuers or any Guarantor or any of their respective Subsidiaries or on behalf of the Issuers or any Guarantor or any of their respective Subsidiaries or obtained by it based on a review of books and records relating to an Issuer or any Guarantor or any of their respective Subsidiaries confidential from anyone other than its Affiliates (provided that each such Affiliate keeps such information confidential in accordance herewith) and to use (and cause such Affiliate to use) such information only in connection with the duties specifically set forth in this Indenture and the Note Security Documents; provided that nothing herein shall prevent the Note Collateral Agent or any such Affiliate from disclosing such information (a) upon the order of any court or administrative agency, (b) upon the request or demand of any regulatory agency or authority having jurisdiction over the Note Collateral Agent or any such Affiliate, (c) that had been publicly disclosed other than as a result of a disclosure by the Note Collateral Agent or any such Affiliate that is prohibited by the terms of this Section 1513, (d) already in the Note Collateral Agent's or any such Affiliate's possession (other than information provided to the Note Collateral Agent or any such Affiliate known by the Note Collateral Agent or such Affiliate to be subject to any confidentiality agreement or undertaking in favor of the Issuers or any Guarantor or any of their respective Subsidiaries) prior to its receipt of such information from the Issuers or any Guarantor or any of their respective Subsidiaries or from another Person supplying it on behalf of the Issuers or any Guarantor or any of their respective Subsidiaries or from its review of books and records described above (as the case may be), (e) in connection with any litigation to which the Note Collateral Agent or any such Affiliate may be a party, to the extent compelled by legal process in such litigation, (f) to the extent necessary or advisable in connection with the exercise of any remedy hereunder, (g) to the Note Collateral Agent's or any such Affiliate's legal counsel and independent auditors; provided that such counsel and auditors keep such information confidential in accordance herewith, or (h) to the Trustee (if not the same entity as the Note Collateral Agent); provided that the Trustee, as the case may be, agrees to keep all such information confidential pursuant to a written agreement for the benefit of and enforceable by the Issuers and Guarantors and their respective Subsidiaries, on terms and conditions substantially identical to (and in any event no less favorable to the Issuers and Guarantors and their respective Subsidiaries than) the provisions of this section (which agreement shall be executed and delivered to the Issuers prior to any such disclosure to the Trustee); provided that, in the case of clause (a), (b) or (e), the Note Collateral Agent shall, to the extent practicable and in accordance with its reasonable business practice, notify the Issuers of the proposed disclosure as far in advance of such disclosure as practicable and use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any information so disclosed is accorded confidential treatment.

Section 1514. Parallel Debt.

(a) Each Loan Party hereby irrevocably and unconditionally undertakes (and to the extent necessary undertakes in advance) to pay to the Note Collateral Agent, as creditor in its own right and not as representative of any other Secured Party, with respect to its Parallel Debt Security an amount equal to the aggregate amount owing from time to time by such Loan Party to any Secured Party under this Indenture and any other Senior Secured Notes Document as and when those amounts are due under any Senior Secured Notes Document (such payment undertakings under this Section 1514 and the obligations and liabilities resulting therefrom being the "Parallel Debt").

(b) The Note Collateral Agent shall have its own independent right to demand payment of the Parallel Debt by each Loan Party. Each Loan Party and the Note Collateral Agent acknowledges that the obligations of each Loan Party under this Section 1514 are several, separate and independent (selbständiges Schuldanerkenntnis) from, and shall not in any way limit or affect, the corresponding obligations of each Loan Party to any Secured Party under this Indenture or any other Senior Secured Note Document (the "Corresponding Debt") nor shall the amounts for which each Loan Party is liable under this Section 1514 be limited or affected in any way by its Corresponding Debt, except that (i) the Parallel Debt shall be decreased to the extent that the Corresponding Debt has been irrevocably paid or discharged (other than, in each case, contingent obligations), (ii) the Corresponding Debt shall be decreased to the extent that the Parallel Debt has been irrevocably paid or discharged, (iii) the amount of the Parallel Debt shall at all times be equal to (and shall in no event exceed) the amount of the Corresponding Debt, (iv) the Parallel Debt will be payable in the currency or currencies of the Corresponding Debt and (v) for the avoidance of doubt, the Parallel Debt will become due and payable at the same time when the Corresponding Debt becomes due and payable.

(c) The relevant Parallel Debt Security with respect to a Parallel Debt is granted to the Note Collateral Agent in its capacity as sole creditor of such Parallel Debt.

(d) Without limiting or affecting the Note Collateral Agent's rights against any Loan Party (whether under this Indenture or any other Senior Secured Note Document), each Loan Party acknowledges that (i) nothing in this Indenture shall impose any obligation on the Note Collateral Agent to advance any sum to any Loan Party or otherwise under any Senior Secured Note Document and (ii) for the purpose of any vote taken under any Senior Secured Note Document, the Note Collateral Agent shall not be regarded as having any participation or commitment.

(e) The Parallel Debt shall remain effective in case a third person should assume or be entitled, partially or in whole, to any rights of any of the Secured Parties under any Senior Secured Note Documents, be it by virtue of assignment, assumption or otherwise.

(f) All monies received or recovered by the Note Collateral Agent in respect of Parallel Debt, including all amounts received or recovered by the Note Collateral Agent from or by the enforcement of any Parallel Debt Security, shall be applied in accordance with this Indenture and the Intercreditor Agreements, as applicable.

Section 1515. French Security Agent Appointment

It is specified that, if the French Security Agent does not consent, any judicial attribution or private foreclosure will be made directly to the benefit of the Secured Parties, notwithstanding any contrary indications.

(e) The French Security Agent shall credit all proceeds of enforcement (or notification, as applicable) of the French Security in a separate dedicated account.

(f) Each other Secured Party acknowledges that (i) the French Security Agent (acting in such capacity) shall not be liable on its own estate (patrimoine propre) for the payment of any soulte that would be payable by any Debtor as a result of the enforcement of any French Security and (ii) the payment of any sums in respect of any soulte (if any) shall be borne by each other Secured Party in accordance with this Indenture.

Certain amendments, supplements and waivers under the Indenture require the consent of the Required Exit Investors or Required Supermajority Exit Investors, which includes holders of the Exit Term Loans and the Notes voting together as a single class. The terms of the Notes include those stated in the Indenture and Holders are referred to the Indenture for a statement of such terms. To the maximum extent permitted by law, in the case of any conflict between the provisions of this Note and the Indenture, the provisions of the Indenture shall control. Additional Notes may be issued from time to time in one or more series under the Indenture and (except as provided in Section 902 of the Indenture) will vote as a class with the Notes and otherwise be treated as Notes for purposes of the Indenture.

All terms used in this Note that are defined in the Indenture shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Indenture.

This Note is entitled to the benefit of the Parent Guarantee of Holdings and Intermediate Holdings and may hereafter be entitled to certain other senior Subsidiary Guarantees made for the benefit of the Holders. Reference is made to Article XIII of the Indenture for terms relating to such Subsidiary Guarantees, including the release, termination and discharge thereof. Neither the Issuers nor any Guarantor shall be required to make any notation on this Note to reflect any Subsidiary Guarantee or Parent Guarantee or any such release, termination or discharge.

This Note is secured by a security interest in the Collateral, subject to the terms of the Note Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements, subject to release or termination as provided in the Indenture and the Note Security Documents.

The Notes are redeemable, at the Issuers' option, in whole or in part, as provided in the Indenture and the [ ] Supplemental Indenture, dated as of [ ], 20[ ],

[between][among] the Issuers [, the Guarantors party thereto] [and] the Trustee [and the Note Collateral Agent].[8]

The Indenture provides (as, to the extent and subject to the exceptions set forth therein) that, Intermediate Holdings shall not and shall not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, in the event of the occurrence of a Change of Control, repurchase or repay any Indebtedness then outstanding pursuant to any Junior Debt or any portion thereof, unless the Issuers shall have, at their option, (i) made payment in full of the Notes and any other amounts then due and owing to any Holder or the Trustee thereunder or (ii) made an offer to pay the Notes and any amounts then due and owing to each Holder and the Trustee thereunder and shall have made payment in full thereof to each such Holder which has accepted such offer or the Trustee.

The Notes will not be entitled to the benefit of a sinking fund.

The Indenture contains provisions for defeasance at any time of the entire Indebtedness of this Note or certain restrictive covenants and certain Events of Default with respect to this Note, in each case upon compliance with certain conditions set forth in the Indenture.

Any such consent or waiver by the Holder of this Note shall be conclusive and binding upon such Holder and upon all future Holders of this Note and of any Note issued upon the registration of transfer hereof or in exchange here for or in lieu hereof, whether or not notation of such consent or waiver is made upon this Note.]

If any record date is set pursuant to this paragraph, the Holders of Outstanding Notes on such record date (or their duly designated proxies), and no other Holders, shall be entitled to take the relevant action, whether or not such Persons remain Holders after such record date; provided that no such action shall be effective hereunder unless taken on or prior to the applicable Expiration Date by Holders of the requisite principal amount of Outstanding Notes on such record date. Promptly after any record date is set pursuant to this paragraph, the Issuers, at their expense, shall cause notice of such record date, the proposed action by Holders and the applicable Expiration Date to be given to the Trustee in writing and to each Holder of Notes in the manner set forth in Section 110.

If any record date is set pursuant to this paragraph, the Holders of Outstanding Notes on such record date, and no other Holders, shall be entitled to join in such notice, declaration, request or direction, whether or not such Holders remain Holders after such record date; provided that no such action shall be effective hereunder unless taken on or prior to the applicable Expiration Date by Holders of the requisite principal amount of Outstanding Notes on such record date. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prevent the Trustee from setting a new record date for any action for which a record date has previously been set pursuant to this paragraph (whereupon the record date previously set shall automatically and with no action by any Person be cancelled and of no effect), and nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to render ineffective any action taken by Holders of the requisite principal amount of Outstanding Notes on the date such action is taken. Promptly after any record date is set pursuant to this paragraph, the Trustee, at the Issuers' expense, shall cause notice of such record date, the proposed action by Holders and the applicable Expiration Date to be given to the Issuers in writing and to each Holder of Notes in the manner set forth in Section 110.

(iii) With respect to any record date set pursuant to this Section 108, the party hereto that sets such record dates may designate any day as the "Expiration Date" and from time to time may change the Expiration Date to any earlier or later day; provided that no such change shall be effective unless notice of the proposed new Expiration Date is given to the Issuers or the Trustee, whichever such party is not setting a record date pursuant to this Section 108(e) in writing, and to each Holder of Notes in the manner set forth in Section 110, on or prior to the existing Expiration Date. If an Expiration Date is not designated with respect to any record date set pursuant to this Section 108, the party hereto that set such record date shall be deemed to have initially designated the 180th day after such record date as the Expiration Date with respect thereto, subject to its right to change the Expiration Date as provided in this paragraph. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Expiration Date shall be later than the 180th day after the applicable record date.

(iv) Without limiting the foregoing, a Holder entitled hereunder to take any action hereunder with regard to any particular Note may do so with regard to all or any part of the principal amount of such Note or by one or more duly appointed agents each of which may do so pursuant to such appointment with regard to all or any part of such principal amount.

(v) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a Holder, including the Depositary, that is the Holder of a Global Note, may make, give or take, by a proxy or proxies duly appointed in writing, any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided in this Indenture to be made, given or taken by Holders, and the Depositary, as the Holder of a Global Note, may provide its proxy or proxies to the beneficial owners of interests in any such Global Note through such depositary's standing instructions and customary practices.

(vi) The Issuers may fix a record date for the purpose of determining the persons who are beneficial owners of interests in any Global Note held by the Depositary entitled under the procedures of such depositary to make, give or take, by a proxy or proxies duly appointed in writing, any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided in this Indenture to be made, given or taken by Holders. If such a record date is fixed, the Holders on such record date or their duly appointed proxy or proxies, and only such persons, shall be entitled to make, give or take such request, demand, authorization direction, notice consent, waiver or other action, whether or not such Holders remain Holders after such record date. No such request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action shall be valid or effective if made, given or taken more than 90 days after such record date.

In any case where notice to Holders is given by mail, neither the failure to mail such notice, nor any defect in any notice so mailed, to any particular Holder shall affect the sufficiency of such notice with respect to other Holders.

Where this Indenture provides for notice in any manner, such notice may be waived in writing by the Person entitled to receive such notice, either before or after the event, and such waiver shall be the equivalent of such notice. Waivers of notice by Holders shall be filed with the Trustee, but such filing shall not be a condition precedent to the validity of any action taken in reliance upon such waiver.

In case, by reason of the suspension of regular mail service, or by reason of any other cause, it shall be impossible to mail notice of any event as required by any provision of this Indenture, then such notification as shall be made with the approval of the Trustee (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld) shall constitute a sufficient notification for every purpose hereunder.

In connection with any action being taken in connection with a Limited Condition Transaction, for purposes of:

(i) determining compliance with any provision of this Indenture which requires the calculation of the Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio or the Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio or any other financial measure;

(ii) testing baskets set forth in this Indenture (including baskets based on Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (or a percentage thereof)); or

(iii) any other determination as to whether any such Limited Condition Transaction and any related transactions (including any financing thereof) complies with the covenants or agreements contained in this Indenture;

in each case, at the option of Intermediate Holdings (Intermediate Holdings' election to exercise such option in connection with any Limited Condition Transaction, an "LCT Election"), the date of determination of whether any such action is permitted hereunder, shall be deemed to be the date (x) a definitive agreement for such Limited Condition Transaction is entered into, (y) in connection with an acquisition to which the United Kingdom City Code on Takeovers and Mergers (or any equivalent thereof under the laws, rules or regulations in any other applicable jurisdiction) applies, on which a "Rule 2.7 announcement" of a firm intention to make an offer in respect of a target of a Limited Condition Transaction is made (or the equivalent notice under such equivalent laws, rules or regulations in such other applicable jurisdiction) or (z) notice of redemption, repurchase, defeasance, satisfaction and discharge or repayment of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock is given, as applicable (the "LCT Test Date"), and if, after giving pro forma effect to the Limited Condition Transaction and the other transactions to be entered into in connection therewith (including any Incurrence or Discharge of Indebtedness and Liens and the use of proceeds thereof) as if they had occurred at the beginning of the most recent four consecutive Fiscal Quarters of Intermediate Holdings ending prior to the LCT Test Date for which consolidated financial statements of Intermediate Holdings (or, any Parent Entity whose financial statements satisfy Intermediate Holdings' reporting obligations under Section 405) are available, Intermediate Holdings could have taken such action on the relevant LCT Test Date in compliance with such ratio, basket or amount, such ratio, basket or amount shall be deemed to have been complied with; provided that (a) (I) if financial statements for one or more subsequent Fiscal Quarters or fiscal years shall have been delivered pursuant to Intermediate Holdings' reporting obligations under Section 405, Intermediate Holdings may elect, in its sole discretion, to re-determine all such ratios, baskets or amounts on the basis of such financial statements, in which case, such date of redetermination shall thereafter be deemed to be the applicable effective date for purposes of such ratios, baskets or amounts and (II) solely with respect to the making of Restricted Payments of the type described in clauses (i) and (ii) of the definition thereof, Intermediate Holdings shall be required to re-determine such ratios, baskets or amounts used to make such Restricted Payments upon the date that is 91 days following the applicable LCT Test Date; and (b) except as contemplated in the foregoing clause (1), compliance with such ratios, baskets or amounts (and any related requirements and conditions) shall not be determined or tested at any time after the applicable effective date for such Limited Condition Transaction and any actions or transactions related thereto (including any Incurrence or Discharge of Indebtedness and Liens and the use of proceeds thereof). For the avoidance of doubt, if Intermediate Holdings has made an LCT Election and any of the ratios, baskets or amounts for which compliance was determined or tested as of the LCT Test Date are exceeded as a result of fluctuations in any such ratio, basket or amount, including due to fluctuations in exchange rates or in Consolidated EBITDA of Intermediate Holdings or the Person subject to such Limited Condition Transaction or any applicable currency exchange rate, at or prior to the consummation of the relevant transaction or action, such ratios, baskets or amounts will not be deemed to have been exceeded as a result of such fluctuations. If Intermediate Holdings has made an LCT Election for any Limited Condition Transaction, then in connection with any subsequent calculation of any ratio, basket or amount with respect to the Incurrence or Discharge of Indebtedness or Liens, or the making of Restricted Payments, Asset Dispositions, mergers, the conveyance, lease or other transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of Intermediate Holdings on or following the relevant LCT Test Date and prior to the earlier of the date on which (1) such Limited Condition Transaction is consummated, (2) the definitive agreement for, or firm offer in respect of, such Limited Condition Transaction (in the case of an acquisition or Investment) is terminated or expires without consummation of such Limited Condition Transaction or (3) such notice of redemption, repurchase, defeasance, satisfaction and discharge or repayment of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock is revoked or expires without consummation, any such ratio, basket or amount shall be calculated on a pro forma basis assuming such Limited Condition Transaction and other transactions in connection therewith (including any Incurrence or Discharge of Indebtedness and Liens and the use of proceeds thereof) have been consummated.

Section 122. Division. Any reference herein to (i) a transfer, assignment, sale, disposition or transfer, or similar term, shall be deemed to apply to a division of or by a limited liability company or a limited partnership or an allocation of assets to a series of a limited liability company or a limited partnership (collectively, a "Division"), as if it were a transfer, assignment, sale or transfer, or similar term, as applicable, to a separate Person, and (ii) a merger, amalgamation or consolidation, or similar term, shall be deemed to apply to the division of or by a limited liability company or a limited partnership, or an allocation of assets to a series of a limited liability company or a limited partnership, or the unwinding of such a division or allocation, as if it were a merger, amalgamation or consolidation or similar term, as applicable, with a separate Person.

Section 123. Intercreditor Agreements. Each Holder, by its acceptance of Notes, (a) consents to the subordination of Liens on Collateral provided for in the ABL/Cash Flow Intercreditor Agreement (if and to the extent applicable), (b) agrees that it will be bound by and will take no actions contrary to the provisions of any Intercreditor Agreement and (c) authorizes and instructs the Note Collateral Agent to enter into (i) the ABL/Cash Flow Intercreditor Agreement as a "Additional Fixed Asset Collateral Agent" thereunder and (ii) the Pari Passu Intercreditor Agreement as an "Additional First Lien Secured Party" thereunder, in each case, on behalf of such Holder.

This Indenture, any supplemental indenture hereto, the Notes and the Note Security Documents represent the entire agreement of each of the Issuers, the Guarantors party hereto, the Trustee, the Note Collateral Agent and the Holders with respect to the subject matter hereof, and there are no promises, undertakings, representations or warranties by any of the Issuers, the Guarantors party hereto, the Trustee, the Note Collateral Agent or any Holder relative to the subject matter hereof not expressly set forth or referred to herein, in any supplemental indenture hereto, in the Notes or the Note Security Documents.

Section 126. Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH OF THE ISSUERS, THE GUARANTORS, THE HOLDERS (BY THEIR ACCEPTANCE OF THE NOTES), THE NOTE COLLATERAL AGENT AND THE TRUSTEE HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING RELATING TO THIS INDENTURE, ANY SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURE HERETO, ANY NOTES OR ANY NOTE SECURITY DOCUMENT AND FOR ANY COUNTERCLAIM THEREIN.

Section 127. Calculation Determinations. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in calculating any Incurrence Based Amounts (including any Financial Incurrence Tests), any (x) ABL Facility Loans (or loans under any other revolving facility) concurrently incurred, (y) Indebtedness concurrently incurred to fund original issue discount and/or upfront fees and (z) amounts incurred or utilized, or transactions entered into or consummated, in reliance on a Fixed Amount (including under Section 407(b)(i)(I)~~(B)~~) in a concurrent transaction, a single transaction or a series of related transactions with the amount incurred or utilized, or transaction entered into or consummated, under the applicable Incurrence Based Amount, in each case of the foregoing clauses (x), (y) and (z), shall not be given effect in calculating the applicable Incurrence Based Amount (but giving pro forma effect to all applicable and related transactions (including the use of proceeds of all Indebtedness to be incurred and any repayments, repurchases and redemptions of Indebtedness, and the making of any Investment, other Restricted Payment and any Asset Disposition (or any disposition specifically excluded from the definition of "Asset Disposition")) and all other pro forma adjustments). Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, if the Issuers, at their option, have elected to Incur Indebtedness, incur any Lien, make any Investment or other Restricted Payment, in each case, on the date of determination (x) in part under a Financial Incurrence Test that requires compliance with a Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio and/or Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio, as applicable, and (y) in part under a separate Financial Incurrence Test (which, for the avoidance of doubt, may not be based on the same Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio and/or Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio, as applicable, as the Financial Incurrence Test described in clause (x) above) that requires compliance with a Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio and/or Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio, as applicable, any such Indebtedness Incurred, Lien incurred or Investment and other Restricted Payment made in reliance on the Financial Incurrence Test described in clause (y) above, shall be disregarded for purposes of determining compliance with the Financial Incurrence Test described in clause (x) above. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, if any financial ratios or tests (including, without limitation, any Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio and Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio tests) which require compliance in connection with the Incurrence of any Indebtedness, incurrence of any Lien or the making of any Investment or other Restricted Payment ("Financial Incurrence Tests") would be satisfied in any subsequent Fiscal Quarter following the utilization of either (x) fixed baskets, exceptions or thresholds (including baskets measured by reference to Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (or a percentage thereof)) that do not require compliance with a financial ratio or test ("Fixed Amounts") or (y) baskets, exceptions and thresholds that require compliance with a financial ratio or test (including, without limitation, any Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio and Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio tests) (any such amounts, "Incurrence Based Amounts"), then the reclassification of actions or transactions (or portions thereof), including the reclassification of utilization of any Fixed Amounts as incurred or utilized under any available Incurrence Based Amounts, shall be deemed to have automatically occurred even if not elected by Intermediate Holdings (unless Intermediate Holdings otherwise notifies the Trustee in writing). ARTICLE III

THE NOTES

Section 301. Amount Unlimited; Issuable in Series. The aggregate principal amount of Notes that may be authenticated and delivered and Outstanding under this Indenture is not limited. The Notes may be issued from time to time in one or more series. Except as provided in Section 902, all Notes will vote (or consent) as a single class with the other Notes and otherwise be treated as Notes for all purposes of this Indenture.

The following matters shall be established with respect to each series of Notes issued hereunder in a Notes Supplemental Indenture:

(1) the title of the Notes of the series (which title shall distinguish the Notes of the series from all other series of Notes);

(2) any limit (if any) upon the aggregate principal amount of the Notes of the series that may be authenticated and delivered under this Indenture (which limit shall not pertain to Notes authenticated and delivered upon registration of, transfer of, or in exchange for, or in lieu of, other Notes of the series pursuant to Section 304, 305, 306, 312(d), 312(e) or 1008);

(3) the date or dates on which the principal of and premium, if any, on the Notes of the series is payable or the method of determination and/or extension of such date or dates, and the amount or amounts of such principal and premium, if any, payments and methods of determination thereof;

(4) the rate or rates at which the Notes of the series shall bear interest, if any, or the method of calculating and/or resetting such rate or rates of interest, the date or dates from which such interest shall accrue or the method by which such date or dates shall be determined, and the Interest Payment Dates on which any such interest shall be payable;

(5) the period or periods within which, the price or prices at which, and other terms and conditions upon which Notes of the series (i) may be redeemed, in whole or in part, at the option of the Issuers, if the Issuers are to have the option or (ii) shall be redeemed, in whole or in part, upon the occurrence of specified events, if the Notes shall be subject to a mandatory redemption provision;

(6) if other than the principal amount thereof, the portion of the principal amount of Notes of the series that shall be payable upon declaration of acceleration of maturity thereof pursuant to Section 602 or the method by which such portion shall be determined;

(7) in the case of any Notes, other than Initial Notes, any addition to or change in the Events of Default which apply to any Notes of the series and any change in the right of the Trustee or the requisite Holders of such Notes to declare the principal amount thereof due and payable pursuant to Section 602;

(8) in the case of any Notes, other than Initial Notes, any addition to or change in the covenants set forth in Articles IV and V; and

(9) in the case of any Notes, other than Initial Notes, any addition to or change in the definitions in Section 101 related to additions or changes contemplated by the foregoing clauses (7) and (8).

The form of the Notes of such series, as set forth in Exhibit A, may be modified to reflect such matters as so established in such Notes Supplemental Indenture.

Such matters may also be established in a Notes Supplemental Indenture for any Additional Notes issued hereunder that are to be of the same series as any Notes previously issued hereunder. Notes that have the same terms described in the foregoing clauses (1) through (9) will be treated as the same series, unless otherwise designated by any Issuer or Intermediate Holdings.

Section 302. Denominations. The Notes shall be issuable only in fully registered form, without coupons, and only in minimum denominations of $1.00 (the "Minimum Denomination") and integral multiples of $1.00 in excess thereof.

Section 303. Execution, Authentication and Delivery and Dating. The Notes shall be executed on behalf of each Issuer by one Officer of each such Issuer. The signature of any such Officer on the Notes may be manual, electronic or by facsimile.

Notes bearing the manual, electronic or facsimile signature of an individual who was at any time an Officer of an Issuer shall bind such Issuer, notwithstanding that such individual has ceased to hold such office prior to the authentication and delivery of such Notes or did not hold such office at the date of such Notes.

At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Issuers may deliver Notes executed by the Issuers to the Trustee for authentication; and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver (i) Initial Notes (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Emergence Exchange Notes) for original issue in the aggregate principal amount not to exceed $500.0 million and (ii) subject to Section 407 and Section 413, Additional Notes in one or more series (which may be of the same series as any Notes previously issued hereunder, or of a different series) from time to time for original issue in aggregate principal amounts specified by the Issuers, in each case specified in clauses (i) and (ii) above, upon a written order of the Company in the form of an Officer's Certificate of the Company (an "Authentication Order"). Such Officer's Certificate shall specify the amount of Notes to be authenticated and the date on which the Notes are to be authenticated, the "CUSIP," "ISIN," "Common Code" or other similar identification numbers of such Notes, if any, whether the Notes are to be Initial Notes or Additional Notes and whether the Notes are to be issued as one or more Global Notes or Physical Notes and such other information as the Company may include or the Trustee may reasonably request.

All Notes shall be dated the date of their authentication.

No Note shall be entitled to any benefit under this Indenture or be valid or obligatory for any purpose, unless there appears on such Note a certificate of authentication substantially in the form provided for herein executed by the Trustee by manual signature, and such certificate upon any Note shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Note has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder.

Section 304. Temporary Notes. Until definitive Notes are ready for delivery, the Issuers may prepare and upon receipt of an Authentication Order the Trustee shall authenticate temporary Notes. Temporary Notes shall be substantially in the form of definitive Notes but may have variations that the Issuers consider appropriate for temporary Notes. If temporary Notes are issued, the Issuers will cause definitive Notes to be prepared without unreasonable delay. After the preparation of definitive Notes, the temporary Notes shall be exchangeable for definitive Notes upon surrender of the temporary Notes at the office or agency of the Issuers in a Place of Payment, without charge to the Holder. Upon surrender for cancellation of any one or more temporary Notes, the Issuers shall execute and upon receipt of an Authentication Order the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver in exchange therefor a like principal amount of definitive Notes of authorized denominations. Until so exchanged the temporary Notes shall in all respects be entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture as definitive Notes of the same series and tenor.

Section 305. Note Registrar and Paying Agent.[15] The Issuers shall cause to be kept at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee a register (the register maintained in such office and in any other office or agency of the Issuers in a Place of Payment being herein sometimes collectively referred to as the "Note Register") in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Issuers shall provide for the registration of Notes and of transfers of Notes. The Issuers may have one or more co-registrars. The term "Note Registrar" includes any co-registrars.

The Issuers initially appoint the Trustee as "Note Registrar" and "Paying Agent" in connection with the Notes, until such time as it has resigned or a successor has been appointed. The Issuers may have one or more additional paying agents, and the term "Paying Agent" shall include any additional Paying Agent. The Issuers may change the Paying Agent or Note Registrar without prior notice to the Holders of Notes. The Issuers may enter into an appropriate agency agreement with any Note Registrar or Paying Agent not a party to this Indenture. Any such agency agreement shall implement the provisions of this Indenture that relate to such agent. The Issuers or Intermediate Holdings shall notify the Trustee in writing of the name and address of any such agent. If the Issuers fail to appoint or maintain a Note Registrar or Paying Agent, the Trustee shall act as such and shall be entitled to appropriate compensation therefor pursuant to Section 707. The Issuers, Intermediate Holdings or any Wholly-Owned Domestic Subsidiary of Intermediate Holdings may act as Paying Agent (except for purposes of Section 1103 or Section 1205) or Note Registrar.

Upon surrender for transfer of any Note at the office or agency of the Issuers in a Place of Payment, in compliance with all applicable requirements of this Indenture and applicable law, the Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Notes of the same series, of any authorized denominations and of a like aggregate principal amount.

At the option of the Holder, Notes may be exchanged for other Notes of the same series, of any authorized denominations and of a like tenor and aggregate principal amount, upon surrender of the Notes to be exchanged at such office or agency. Whenever any Notes are so surrendered for exchange, the Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, the Notes that the Holder making the exchange is entitled to receive.

All Notes issued upon any transfer or exchange of Notes shall be the valid obligations of the Issuers, evidencing the same debt, and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Notes surrendered upon such transfer or exchange.

[15] NTD: Due to the nature of the process for electing to receive notes, K&E and AB have discussed logistics and are aligned on setting up each of the 144A and Reg S global notes at emergence with a zero balance note (with the supplemental indenture authorizing the full potential amount), with the schedule to each note increasing for each DWAC that is received in connection with the elections. The authorization order will specify this concept and permit seamless updating, as applicable.

Every Note presented or surrendered for transfer or exchange shall be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Issuers duly executed, by the Holder thereof or such Holder's attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge shall be made for any registration, transfer or exchange of Notes, but the Issuers may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any transfer tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection therewith.

The Issuers shall not be required (i) to issue, transfer or exchange any Note during a period beginning at the opening of business 15 Business Days before the day of the sending of a notice of redemption (or purchase) of Notes selected for redemption (or purchase) under Section 1004 and ending at the close of business on the day of such sending, or (ii) to transfer or exchange any Note so selected for redemption (or purchase) in whole or in part.

Section 306. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost and Stolen Notes. If a mutilated Note is surrendered to the Note Registrar or if the Holder of a Note claims that the Note has been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken, the Issuers shall issue and the Trustee shall authenticate a replacement Note if the requirements of Section 8-405 of the Uniform Commercial Code are met, such that the Holder (a) notifies the Issuers or the Trustee within a reasonable time after such Holder has notice of such loss, destruction or wrongful taking and the Note Registrar does not register a transfer prior to receiving such notification, (b) makes such request to the Issuers or the Trustee prior to the Note being acquired by a protected purchaser as defined in Section 8-303 of the Uniform Commercial Code and (c) satisfies any other reasonable requirements of the Issuers. If required by the Trustee or the Issuers, such Holder shall furnish an indemnity bond sufficient in the judgment of (i) the Trustee to protect the Trustee and (ii) the Issuers to protect the Issuers, the Trustee, a Paying Agent and the Note Registrar, from any loss that any of them may suffer if a Note is replaced.

In case any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Note has become or is about to become due and payable, the Issuers in their discretion may, instead of issuing a new Note, pay such Note.

Upon the issuance of any new Note under this Section 306, the Issuers may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Trustee) connected therewith.

Every new Note issued pursuant to this Section 306 in lieu of any destroyed, lost or stolen Note shall constitute an original additional contractual obligation of the Issuers, whether or not the destroyed, lost or stolen Note shall be at any time enforceable by anyone, and shall be entitled to all the benefits of this Indenture equally and ratably with any and all other Notes duly issued hereunder.

The provisions of this Section 306 are exclusive and shall preclude (to the extent lawful) all other rights and remedies with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Notes.

Section 307. Payment of Interest Rights Preserved. Interest on any Note that is payable, and is punctually paid or duly provided for, on any Interest Payment Date shall be paid to the Person in whose name that Note (or one or more Predecessor Notes) is registered at the close of business on the Regular Record Date for such interest specified in Section 4 of the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture.

Unless otherwise specified for Notes of any series in the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture, as contemplated by Section 301, any interest on any Note that is payable, but is not punctually paid or duly provided for, on any Interest Payment Date (herein called "Defaulted Interest") shall forthwith cease to be payable to the registered Holder on the relevant Regular Record Date by virtue of having been such Holder; and such Defaulted Interest may be paid by the Issuers, at their election, as provided in clause (1) or clause (2) below:

(1) The Issuers may elect to make payment of any Defaulted Interest to the Persons in whose names the Notes (or their respective Predecessor Notes) are registered at the close of business on a Special Record Date for the payment of such Defaulted Interest, which shall be fixed in the following manner. The Issuers shall notify the Trustee and Paying Agent in writing of the amount of Defaulted Interest proposed to be paid on each Note and the date of the proposed payment, and the Issuers shall deposit with the Trustee or Paying Agent an amount of money equal to the aggregate amount proposed to be paid in respect of such Defaulted Interest or shall make arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee or Paying Agent for such deposit prior to the date of the proposed payment, such money when deposited to be held in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled to such Defaulted Interest as provided in this clause (1). Thereupon the Trustee shall fix a Special Record Date for the payment of such Defaulted Interest which shall be not more than 15 nor less than 10 days prior to the date of the proposed payment and not less than 10 days after the receipt by the Trustee and the Paying Agent of the notice of the proposed payment. The Trustee shall promptly notify the Issuers of such Special Record Date and, in the name and at the expense of the Issuers, shall cause notice of the proposed payment of such Defaulted Interest and the Special Record Date therefor to be mailed, first class postage prepaid, to each Holder at such Holder's address as it appears in the Note Register, not less than 10 days prior to such Special Record Date. Notice of the proposed payment of such Defaulted Interest and the Special Record Date therefor having been so mailed, such Defaulted Interest shall be paid to the Persons in whose names the Notes (or their respective Predecessor Notes) are registered on such Special Record Date and shall no longer be payable pursuant to the following clause (2).

(2) The Issuers may make payment of any Defaulted Interest in any other lawful manner not inconsistent with the requirements of any securities exchange on which the Notes may be listed, and upon such notice as may be required by such exchange.

Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Section 307, each Note delivered under this Indenture upon transfer of or in exchange for or in lieu of any other Note shall carry the rights to interest accrued and unpaid, and to accrue, that were carried by such other Note.

Section 308. Persons Deemed Owners. An Issuer, any Guarantor, the Trustee, the Paying Agent and any agent of any of them may treat the Person in whose name any Note is registered as the owner of such Note for the purpose of receiving payment of principal of (and premium, if any), and (subject to Section 307) interest on, such Note and for all other purposes whatsoever, whether or not such Note be overdue, and neither an Issuer, any Guarantor, the Trustee, the Paying Agent nor any agent of any of them shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Section 309. Cancellation. All Notes surrendered for payment, redemption, transfer, exchange or conversion shall, if surrendered to any Person other than the Trustee, be delivered to the Trustee and, if not already cancelled, shall be promptly cancelled by it. The Issuers may at any time deliver to the Trustee for cancellation any Notes previously authenticated and delivered hereunder that the Issuers may have acquired in any manner whatsoever, and all Notes so delivered shall be promptly cancelled by the Trustee. No Notes shall be authenticated in lieu of or in exchange for any Notes cancelled as provided in this Section 309, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture. All cancelled Notes held by the Trustee shall be disposed of by the Trustee in accordance with its customary procedures (subject to the record retention requirements of the Exchange Act).

Section 310. Computation of Interest. Unless otherwise specified for Notes of any series in the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture, as contemplated by Section 301, interest on the Notes shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months.

Section 311. CUSIP Numbers, ISINs, Etc. The Issuers in issuing the Notes may use "CUSIP" numbers, ISINs and "Common Code" numbers (if then generally in use), and if so, the Trustee may use the CUSIP numbers, ISINs and "Common Code" numbers in notices of redemption or exchange as a convenience to Holders; provided, however, that any such notice may state that no representation is made as to the correctness or accuracy of such numbers printed in the notice or on the Notes; that reliance may be placed only on the other identification numbers printed on the Notes; and that any redemption shall not be affected by any defect in or omission of such numbers.

Section 312. Book-Entry Provisions for Global Notes. (a) Each Global Note initially shall (i) be registered in the name of the Depositary for such Global Note or the nominee of such Depositary, in each case for credit to the account of an Agent Member, and (ii) be delivered to the Trustee as custodian for such Depositary. None of the Issuers, any agent of any Issuer or the Trustee shall have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments made on account of beneficial ownership interests of a Global Note, or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such beneficial ownership interests.

(b) Members of, or participants in, the Depositary ("Agent Members") shall have no rights under this Indenture with respect to any Global Note held on their behalf by the Depositary, or its custodian, or under such Global Notes. The Depositary may be treated by the Issuers, any other obligor upon the Notes, the Trustee and any agent of any of them as the absolute owner of the Global Notes for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prevent an Issuer, any other obligor upon the Notes, the Trustee or any agent of any of them from giving effect to any written certification, proxy or other authorization furnished by the Depositary or impair, as between the Depositary and its Agent Members, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a beneficial owner of any Note. The Holder of a Global Note may grant proxies and otherwise authorize any Person, including Agent Members and Persons that may hold interests through Agent Members, to take any action that a Holder is entitled to take under this Indenture (including the Note Security Documents) or the Notes.

(c) Transfers of a Global Note shall be limited to transfers of such Global Note in whole, but, subject to the immediately succeeding sentence, not in part, to the Depositary, its successors or their respective nominees. Interests of beneficial owners in a Global Note may not be transferred or exchanged for Physical Notes unless (i) the Issuers have consented thereto in writing, or such transfer or exchange is made pursuant to the next sentence, and (ii) such transfer or exchange is in accordance with the applicable rules and procedures of the Depositary and the provisions of Section 305 and Section 313. Subject to the limitation on issuance of Physical Notes set forth in Section 313(3), Physical Notes shall be transferred to all beneficial owners in exchange for their beneficial interests in the relevant Global Note, if (i) the Depositary notifies the Issuers at any time that it is unwilling or unable to continue as Depositary for the Global Notes and a successor depositary is not appointed within 120 days; (ii) the Depositary ceases to be registered as a "Clearing Agency" under the Exchange Act and a successor depositary is not appointed within 120 days; (iii) the Company or Intermediate Holdings, at its option, notifies the Trustee that the Issuers elect to cause the issuance of Physical Notes; or (iv) an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing with respect to the Notes and the Trustee has received a written request from the Depositary to issue Physical Notes.

(d) In connection with any transfer or exchange of a portion of the beneficial interest in any Global Note to beneficial owners for Physical Notes pursuant to Section 312(c), the applicable Note Registrar shall record on its books and records the date and a decrease in the principal amount of such Global Note in an amount equal to the beneficial interest in the Global Note being transferred, and the Issuers shall execute, and upon receipt of an Authentication Order the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, one or more Physical Notes of like tenor and principal amount of authorized denominations.

(e) In connection with a transfer of an entire Global Note to beneficial owners for Physical Notes pursuant to Section 312(c), the applicable Global Note shall be deemed to be surrendered to the Trustee for cancellation, and the Issuers shall execute, and upon receipt of an Authentication Order the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, to each beneficial owner identified by the Depositary, in exchange for its beneficial interest in the applicable Global Note, an equal aggregate principal amount of Rule 144A Physical Notes (in the case of any Rule 144A Global Note) or Regulation S Physical Notes (in the case of any Regulation S Global Note), as the case may be, of authorized denominations.

(f) The transfer and exchange of a Global Note or beneficial interests therein shall be effected through the Depositary, in accordance with this Indenture (including applicable restrictions on transfer set forth in Section 313) and the procedures therefor of the Depositary. Any beneficial interest in one of the Global Notes that is transferred to a Person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a different Global Note will, upon transfer, cease to be an interest in such Global Note and become an interest in the other Global Note and, accordingly, will thereafter be subject to all transfer restrictions, if any, and other procedures applicable to beneficial interests in such other Global Note for as long as it remains such an interest. A transferor of a beneficial interest in a Global Note shall deliver to the Note Registrar a written order given in accordance with the Depositary's procedures containing information regarding the participant account of the Depositary to be credited with a beneficial interest in the relevant Global Note. Subject to Section 313, the Note Registrar shall, in accordance with such instructions, instruct the Depositary to credit to the account of the Person specified in such instructions a beneficial interest in such Global Note and to debit the account of the Person making the transfer the beneficial interest in the Global Note being transferred.

(g) Any Physical Note delivered in exchange for an interest in a Global Note pursuant to Section 312(c) shall, unless such exchange is made on or after the Resale Restriction Termination Date applicable to such Note and except as otherwise provided in Section 203 and Section 313, bear the Private Placement Legend.

(h) Notwithstanding the foregoing, through the Restricted Period, a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Note may be held only through designated Agent Members holding on behalf of Euroclear or Clearstream unless delivery is made in accordance with the applicable provisions of Section 313.

Section 313. Special Transfer Provisions.

(1) Transfers to Non-U.S. Persons. The following provisions shall apply with respect to the registration of any proposed transfer of a Note that is a Restricted Security to any Non-U.S. Person: The Note Registrar shall register such transfer if it complies with all other applicable requirements of this Indenture (including Section 305) and,

(a) if (x) such transfer is after the relevant Resale Restriction Termination Date with respect to such Note or (y) the proposed transferor has delivered to the Note Registrar, Intermediate Holdings and the Issuers and the Trustee a Regulation S Certificate and, unless otherwise agreed by the Company, an opinion of counsel, certifications and other information satisfactory to the Company or Intermediate Holdings, and

(b) if the proposed transferor is or is acting through an Agent Member holding a beneficial interest in a Global Note, upon receipt by the Note Registrar and the Issuers or Intermediate Holdings and the Trustee of (x) the certificate, opinion, certifications and other information, if any, required by clause (a) above and (y) written instructions given in accordance with the procedures of the Note Registrar and of the Depositary;

whereupon (i) the Note Registrar shall reflect on its books and records the date and (if the transfer does not involve a transfer of any Outstanding Physical Note) a decrease in the principal amount of the relevant Global Note in an amount equal to the principal amount of the beneficial interest in the relevant Global Note to be transferred, and (ii) either (A) if the proposed transferee is or is acting through an Agent Member holding a beneficial interest in a relevant Regulation S

Global Note, the Note Registrar shall reflect on its books and records the date and an increase in the principal amount of such Regulation S Global Note in an amount equal to the principal amount of the beneficial interest being so transferred or (B) otherwise the Issuers shall execute and (upon receipt of an Authentication Order) the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver one or more Physical Notes of like tenor and amount.

(2) Transfers to QIBs. The following provisions shall apply with respect to the registration of any proposed transfer of a Note that is a Restricted Security to a QIB (excluding transfers to Non-U.S. Persons): The Note Registrar shall register such transfer if it complies with all other applicable requirements of this Indenture (including Section 305) and,

(a) if such transfer is being made by a proposed transferor who has checked the box provided for on the form of such Note stating, or has otherwise certified to the Note Registrar, Intermediate Holdings and the Issuers and the Trustee in writing, that the sale has been made in compliance with the provisions of Rule 144A to a transferee who has signed the certification provided for on the form of such Note stating, or has otherwise certified to the Note Registrar, Intermediate Holdings and the Issuers and the Trustee in writing, that it is purchasing such Note for its own account or an account with respect to which it exercises sole investment discretion and that it and any such account is a QIB within the meaning of Rule 144A, and is aware that the sale to it is being made in reliance on Rule 144A and acknowledges that it has received such information regarding the Issuers as it has requested pursuant to Rule 144A or has determined not to request such information and that it is aware that the transferor is relying upon its foregoing representations in order to claim the exemption from registration provided by Rule 144A; and

(b) if the proposed transferee is an Agent Member, and the Note to be transferred consists of a Physical Note that after transfer is to be evidenced by an interest in a Global Note or consists of a beneficial interest in a Global Note that after the transfer is to be evidenced by an interest in a different Global Note, upon receipt by the Note Registrar of written instructions given in accordance with the Depositary's and the Note Registrar's procedures, whereupon the Note Registrar shall reflect on its books and records the date and an increase in the principal amount of the transferee Global Note in an amount equal to the principal amount of the Physical Note or such beneficial interest in such transferor Global Note to be transferred, and the Trustee shall cancel the Physical Note so transferred or reflect on its books and records the date and a decrease in the principal amount of such transferor Global Note, as the case may be.

(3) Limitation on Issuance of Physical Notes. No Physical Note shall be exchanged for a beneficial interest in any Global Note, except in accordance with Section 312 and this Section 313.

A beneficial owner of an interest in a Temporary Regulation S Global Note (and, in the case of any Additional Notes for which no Temporary Regulation S Global Note is issued, any Regulation S Global Note) shall not be permitted to exchange such interest for a Physical Note or (in the case of such interest in a Temporary Regulation S Global Note) an interest in a Permanent Regulation S Global Note until a date, which must be after the end of the Restricted Period, on which the Issuers or Intermediate Holdings receives a certificate of beneficial ownership substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C from such beneficial owner (a "Certificate of Beneficial Ownership"). Such date, as it relates to a Regulation S Global Note, is herein referred to as the "Regulation S Note Exchange Date."

(4) Private Placement Legend. Upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Notes not bearing the Private Placement Legend, the Note Registrar shall deliver Notes that do not bear the Private Placement Legend. Upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Notes bearing the Private Placement Legend, the Note Registrar shall deliver only Notes that bear the Private Placement Legend unless (i) the requested transfer is after the relevant Resale Restriction Termination Date with respect to such Notes, (ii) upon written request of the Issuers or Intermediate Holdings after there is delivered to the Note Registrar an opinion of counsel (which opinion and counsel are satisfactory to the Issuers or Intermediate Holdings) to the effect that neither such legend nor the related restrictions on transfer are required in order to maintain compliance with the provisions of the Securities Act, (iii) with respect to a Regulation S Global Note (on or after the Regulation S Note Exchange Date with respect to such Regulation S Global Note) or Regulation S Physical Note, in each case with the agreement of the Issuers or Intermediate Holdings, or (iv) such Notes are sold or exchanged pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act.

(5) Other Transfers. The Note Registrar shall effect and register, upon receipt of a written request from the Issuers or Intermediate Holdings to do so, a transfer not otherwise permitted by this Section 313, such registration to be done in accordance with the otherwise applicable provisions of this Section 313, upon the furnishing by the proposed transferor or transferee of a written opinion of counsel (which opinion and counsel are satisfactory to the Issuers or Intermediate Holdings) to the effect that, and such other certifications or information as the Issuers or Intermediate Holdings may require (including, in the case of a transfer to an Accredited Investor (as defined in Rule 501(a)(1), (2), (3) or (7) under Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act), a certificate substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit F) to confirm that, the proposed transfer is being made pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

A Note that is a Restricted Security may not be transferred other than as provided in this Section 313. A beneficial interest in a Global Note that is a Restricted Security may not be exchanged for a beneficial interest in another Global Note other than through a transfer in compliance with this Section 313.

(6) General. By its acceptance of any Note bearing the Private Placement Legend, each Holder of such a Note acknowledges the restrictions on transfer of such Note set forth in this Indenture and in the Private Placement Legend and agrees that it will transfer such Note only as provided in this Indenture.

The Note Registrar shall retain copies of all letters, notices and other written communications received pursuant to Section 312 or this Section 313 (including all Notes received for transfer pursuant to this Section 313). The Issuers and Intermediate Holdings shall have the right to require the applicable Note Registrar to deliver to the Issuers, at the Issuers's expense, copies of all such letters, notices or other written communications at any reasonable time upon the giving of reasonable written notice to the Note Registrar.

In connection with any transfer of any Note, the Trustee, the Note Registrar, the Issuers shall be entitled to receive, shall be under no duty to inquire into, may conclusively presume the correctness of, and shall be fully protected in relying upon the certificates, opinions and other information referred to herein (or in the forms provided herein, attached hereto or to the Notes, or otherwise) received from any Holder and any transferee of any Note regarding the validity, legality and due authorization of any such transfer, the eligibility of the transferee to receive such Note and any other facts and circumstances related to such transfer. Furthermore, the Trustee and Note Registrar shall have no liability or responsibility to monitor any such transfer for compliance with the provisions hereunder and/or governing securities laws or otherwise.

~~(B)~~ (C) third, to the extent of the balance of such Net Available Cash Amount or equivalent amount after application in accordance with clauses (A) and (B) above (including, an amount equal to the amount of any purchase, redemption or repayment contemplated by clause (B) above that is declined or not accepted by any applicable holder) (the amount of such balance, "Declined Other Excess Proceeds," together with Declined Collateral Excess Proceeds, "Declined Excess Proceeds"), to fund (to the extent consistent with any other applicable provision of this Indenture) any general corporate purpose; provided that such purposes shall not include the making of any Restricted Payment or the repurchase, repayment or other acquisition or retirement of any unsecured Senior Indebtedness or Junior Debt; provided, however, that (1) in connection with any prepayment, repayment, purchase or redemption of Indebtedness pursuant to clause (A)(x) or (B) above, Intermediate Holdings or such Restricted Subsidiary will retire such Indebtedness and will cause the related loan commitment (if any) to be permanently reduced in an amount equal to the principal amount so prepaid, repaid, purchased or redeemed; and (2) Intermediate Holdings (or any Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be) may elect to invest in Additional Assets prior to receiving the Net Available Cash attributable to any given Asset Disposition (provided that such investment shall be made no earlier than the earliest of notice ~~to the Trustee~~ of the relevant Asset Disposition to the Trustee, execution of a definitive agreement for the relevant Asset

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 411, Intermediate Holdings and ~~the~~its Restricted Subsidiaries shall not be required to apply any Net Available Cash or equivalent amount in accordance with this Section 411 except to the extent that the aggregate Net Available Cash from all Asset Dispositions and Recovery Events in respect of Collateral or equivalent amount that is not applied in accordance with this Section 411 exceeds the greater of $40.0 million and 10.0% of Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA, ("Excess Proceeds") in which case Intermediate Holdings and the Restricted Subsidiaries shall apply all of such Net Available Cash from such Asset Dispositions and Recovery Events or equivalent amount from such Asset Dispositions in excess of ~~this~~such threshold in accordance with this Section 411. If the aggregate principal amount of Notes and/or other Indebtedness of any Issuer or a Restricted Subsidiary validly tendered and not withdrawn (or otherwise subject to purchase, redemption or repayment) in connection with an offer pursuant to Section 411(b)(~~iii)(~~B) and Section 411(c)~~(iii)~~(B) exceeds the Excess Proceeds, the Excess Proceeds will be apportioned between such Notes and such other Indebtedness of Intermediate Holdings or a Restricted Subsidiary, with the portion of the Excess Proceeds payable in respect of such Notes to equal the lesser of (x) the Excess Proceeds amount multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the outstanding principal amount of such Notes and the denominator of which is the sum of the outstanding principal amount of the Notes and the outstanding principal amount of the relevant other Indebtedness of Intermediate Holdings or a Restricted Subsidiary, and (y) the aggregate principal amount of Notes validly tendered and not withdrawn.

(d) For the purposes of Section 411(a)(ii), the following are deemed to be cash: (1) Temporary Cash Investments and Cash Equivalents; (2) [reserved]; (3) Indebtedness of any Restricted Subsidiary that is no longer a Restricted Subsidiary as a result of such Asset Disposition, to the extent that Intermediate Holdings and each other Restricted Subsidiary are released from any Guarantee of payment of the principal amount of such Indebtedness in connection with such Asset Disposition; (4) securities received by Intermediate Holdings or any Restricted Subsidiary from the transferee that are converted by Intermediate Holdings or such Restricted Subsidiary into cash within 180 days; (5) consideration consisting of Indebtedness of Intermediate Holdings or any Restricted Subsidiary; (6) Additional Assets; and (7) any Designated Noncash Consideration received by Intermediate Holdings or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries in an Asset Disposition having an aggregate fair market value (as determined by Intermediate Holdings in good faith, which determination shall be conclusive), taken together with all other Designated Noncash Consideration received pursuant to this clause (7), not to exceed an aggregate amount at any time outstanding equal to the greater of $30.0 million and 7.5% of Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (with the fair market value (as determined by Intermediate Holdings in good faith, which determination shall be conclusive) of each item of Designated Noncash Consideration being measured on the date a legally binding commitment for such Asset Disposition (or, if later, for the payment of such item) was entered into and without giving effect to subsequent changes in value).

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, Intermediate Holdings shall not, nor shall it permit any Subsidiary to, dispose, sell or engage in any transaction or series of transactions (including any Investment) that results in the transfer (including by way of exclusive licensing) of any Material Assets from the Loan Parties to Persons that are not Loan Parties, except in connection with (i) a bona-fide sale for cash or cash equivalents to an unaffiliated third party, (ii) a bona-fide joint venture with an unaffiliated third party in the ordinary course of business, using available Investment capacity, or (iii) a non-exclusive lease, sublicense or licensing arrangement.

(f) In the event of an Asset Disposition that requires the purchase of Notes pursuant to Section 411(b)(~~iii)(~~B) and Section 411(c)(~~iii)(~~B), the Issuers will be required to purchase Notes tendered pursuant to an offer by the Issuers for the Notes (the "Offer") at a purchase price of 100.0% of their principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest to but not including the date of purchase in accordance with the procedures (including prorating in the event of oversubscription) set forth in Section 411(c). If the aggregate purchase price of the Notes tendered pursuant to the Offer is less than the Net Available Cash allotted to the purchase of Notes, the remaining Net Available Cash will be available to Intermediate Holdings and the Restricted Subsidiaries for use in accordance with Section 411(b)(~~iii)(~~B) and Section 411(c~~)(iii~~)(B) (to repay other Indebtedness of Intermediate Holdings, any Issuer or a Subsidiary Guarantor) or Section 411(b)(~~iii)(~~C) and Section 411(c)(~~iii)(~~C). An Issuer shall not be required to make an Offer for Notes pursuant to this Section 411 if the Net Available Cash available therefor (after application of the proceeds as provided in Section 411(b)(~~iii)(~~A) and Section 411(c)(~~iii)(~~A), as applicable) is less than the greater of $40.0 million and 10.0% of Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA for any particular Asset Disposition (which lesser amounts shall be carried forward for purposes of determining whether an Offer is required with respect to the Net Available Cash from any subsequent Asset Disposition). No Note will be repurchased in part if less than the Minimum Denomination in original principal amount of such Note would be left outstanding. The provisions under this Indenture relating to the Issuers' obligation to make an Offer for Notes pursuant to this Section 411 may be waived or modified with the written consent of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Notes.

(g) For the purposes of Section 411(b) and Section 411(c), (i) in the event of any Asset Disposition of Capital Stock of a Person that has any right, title or interest to or in assets constituting both Collateral and Other Assets, such Asset Disposition shall instead be deemed to be an Asset Disposition of such assets, and Intermediate Holdings shall allocate the Net Available Cash from such Asset Disposition between the Collateral and the Other Assets in proportion to their respective fair market values as determined by Intermediate Holdings in good faith (which determination shall be conclusive), (ii) any Asset Disposition of Capital Stock of any Person that has any right, title or interest to or in assets constituting only Other Assets will be subject to Section 411(c) and not Section 411(b), and (iii) any Asset Disposition of Capital Stock of any Person that has any right, title or interest to or in assets constituting only Collateral will be subject to Section 411(b) and not Section 411(c).

(h) The Issuers shall, not later than 45 days after the Issuers become obligated to make an Offer pursuant to this Section 411, send a notice to each Holder with a copy to the Trustee stating: (1) that an Asset Disposition that requires the purchase of a portion of the Notes has occurred and that such Holder has the right (subject to the prorating described below) to require the Issuers to purchase a portion of such Holder's Notes at a purchase price in cash equal to 100.0% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to but not including the date of purchase (subject to the right of Holders of record on a record date to receive interest on the relevant Interest Payment Date falling prior to or on the purchase date); (2) the repurchase date (which shall be no earlier than 10 days nor later than 60 days from the date such notice is sent, except that such notice may be delivered more than 60 days prior to the purchase date if the purchase date is delayed as provided in clause (5) of this Section 411(~~e~~h)); (3) the instructions determined by the Company, consistent with this Section 411, that a Holder must follow in order to have its Notes purchased; (4) the amount of the Offer, which amount may be contingent upon the Net Available Cash remaining following the application of Net Available Cash pursuant to Section 411(~~a)(iii~~b)(A); and (5) if such notice is sent prior to the date the Net Available Cash attributable to such Asset Disposition is received, that such offer is conditioned upon receipt of such Net Available Cash and that the purchase date may, in the Company's discretion, be delayed until such time as the Net Available Cash is received. If, upon the expiration of the period for which the Offer remains open, the aggregate principal amount of Notes surrendered by Holders exceeds the amount of the Offer, the Company shall select the Notes to be purchased on a pro rata basis (with such adjustments as may be deemed appropriate by the Company so that only Notes in denominations of $1 or integral multiples of $1 in excess thereof shall be purchased).

(i) If Holders of not less than 90.0% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes of any series validly tender and do not withdraw such Notes in an Offer and the Issuers purchase all of the Notes of such series validly tendered and not withdrawn by such Holders, the Issuers will have the right, upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior notice, given not more than 30 days following such purchase pursuant to such Offer, to redeem all Notes of such series that remain outstanding following such purchase at a price in cash equal to 100.0% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest to but excluding the date of such redemption (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date falling prior to or on the Redemption Date). In determining whether the Holders of at least 90% in the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes have validly tendered and not validly withdrawn the Notes in an offer, Notes owned by an Issuer, an Affiliate of the Company or by funds controlled or managed by an Affiliate of the Company, or any successor thereof, shall be deemed to be outstanding for the purposes of such offer.

(j) The Issuers will comply, to the extent applicable, with the requirements of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and any other securities laws or regulations in connection with the repurchase of Notes pursuant to this Section 411. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with the provisions of this Section 411, the Issuers will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached their obligations under this Section 411 by virtue thereof.

(k) Notwithstanding any provision in this Section 411 to the contrary, Intermediate Holdings and its Restricted Subsidiaries shall not be restricted from (x) making any Asset Disposition that is required in order to comply with the requirements of Section 7f of the Fourth Book of the German Social Code (Sozialgesetzbuch IV) or Section 4 of the German Company Pensions Act (Gesetz zur Verbesserung der betrieblichen Altersversorgung) or (y) with respect to any real estate located in Germany, making any Asset Disposition of real estate to (xiii) Subject to the Issuers' option to make a payment in full of all of the Notes, or to make a Change of Control Offer, each in accordance with Section 415 (whether or not in connection with any repayment or repurchase of Indebtedness outstanding pursuant to any Junior Debt), a Change of Control shall have occurred.

The foregoing will constitute Events of Default whatever the reason for any such Event of Default and whether it is voluntary or involuntary or is effected by operation of law or pursuant to any judgment, decree or order of any court or any order, rule or regulation of any administrative or governmental body.

The term "Bankruptcy Law" means Title 11, United States Code, or any similar Federal, state or foreign law for the relief of debtors. The term "Custodian" means any receiver, interim receiver, receiver and manager, monitor, trustee, assignee, liquidator, administrator, controller, receiver manager, statutory manager, custodian or similar official under any Bankruptcy Law.

However, a Default under Section 601(iv), Section 601(v), Section 601(vi) or Section 601(xii) will not constitute an Event of Default until the Trustee or the Required Exit Investors notify the Company and Intermediate Holdings (and the Trustee in the case of notice from the Required Exit Investors) in writing of the Default and the Company or Intermediate Holdings does not cure such Default within the time specified in such clause after receipt of such notice; provided that a notice of Default with respect to any action taken, and reported publicly or to Holders more than two years prior to such notice of Default, may not be given and any such notice shall be invalid and have no effect; provided that such Default shall automatically constitute an Event of Default if the Required Lenders (as defined in the Exit Credit Agreement) have taken all actions necessary for the occurrence giving rise to such Default to constitute an Event of Default (as defined in the Exit Credit Agreement) under the Exit Credit Agreement. Such notice must specify the Default, demand that it be remedied and state that such notice is a "Notice of Default." When a Default or an Event of Default is cured, it ceases.

The Company or Intermediate Holdings shall deliver to the Trustee, within 30 days after the occurrence thereof, written notice in the form of an Officer's Certificate of any Event of Default under Section 601(vii), Section 601(x) or Section 601(xii) and any event that with the giving of notice or the lapse of time would become an Event of Default under Section 601(iv), Section 601(v) or Section 601(vi), its status and what action the Company ~~[~~or Intermediate Holdings, as applicable~~]~~ is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto.

Section 602. Acceleration of Maturity; Rescission and Annulment. If an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default specified in Section 601(viii) or Section 601(ix) with respect to the Company or Intermediate Holdings) occurs and is continuing, unless otherwise specified for Notes of any series in the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture, as contemplated by Section 301, the Trustee, by written notice to the Company and Intermediate Holdings, or the Required Exit Investors or the Holders of not less than 35.0% in principal amount of the Notes at the time Outstanding by written notice to the Company, Intermediate Holdings and the Trustee, in either case specifying in such notice the respective Event of Default and that such notice is a "notice of acceleration," may declare the principal of and accrued but unpaid interest on all the Notes to be due and payable; provided that such notice of acceleration shall be deemed automatically delivered if the Required Lenders (as defined in the Exit Credit Agreement) have validly submitted a notice of acceleration under the Exit Credit Agreement with respect to the Event of Default (as defined in the Exit Credit Agreement) relating to the same occurrence giving rise to such Event of Default hereunder. Upon the effectiveness of such a declaration, such principal and interest will be due and payable immediately.

~~Furthermore, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, to the extent that an analogous Event of Default has not occurred or is not continuing (unless such analogous Event of Default has been waived or cured) under the Exit Credit Agreement, then either the Trustee or at least 35.00% of Holders in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may, by written notice to the Company and Intermediate Holdings and in either case specifying in such notice the respective Event of Default and that such notice is a "notice of acceleration," declare the principal of and accrued but unpaid interest on all the Notes to be due and payable.~~

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if an Event of Default specified in Section 601(viii) or Section 601(ix) with respect to the Company or Intermediate Holdings occurs and is continuing, unless otherwise specified for Notes of any series in the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture, as contemplated by Section 301, the principal of and accrued but unpaid interest on all the Outstanding Notes will ipso facto become immediately due and payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustee or any Holders.

The Required Exit Investors, by notice to the Company or Intermediate Holdings and the Trustee may rescind an acceleration and its consequences if the rescission would not conflict with any judgment or decree and if all existing Events of Default have been cured or waived except non-payment of principal or interest that has become due solely because of such acceleration; provided that the Required Exit Investors may not rescind an acceleration or its consequences unless, to the extent the applicable Event of Default has resulted in acceleration under the Exit Credit Agreement, acceleration under such Exit Credit Agreement has been (or concurrently will be) rescinded. No such rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right consequent thereto.

Any time period in this Indenture to cure any actual or alleged Default or Event of Default may be extended or stayed by a court of competent jurisdiction to the extent such actual or alleged Default or Event of Default is the subject of litigation.

Section 603. Other Remedies; Collection Suit by Trustee. If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee and the Note Collateral Agent may, but are not obligated under this Section 603 to, pursue any available remedy to collect the payment of principal of or interest on the Notes or to enforce the performance of any provision of the Notes, this Indenture or the Note Security Documents. If an Event of Default specified in Section 601(i) or 601(ii) occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may recover judgment in its own name and as trustee of an express trust against the Company for the whole amount then due and owing (together with interest on any unpaid interest to the extent lawful) and the amounts provided for in Section 707, and may enforce the Parent Guarantee and any Subsidiary Guarantee against Intermediate Holdings and the Subsidiary Guarantors, respectively, in accordance with their terms.

Section 604. Trustee May File Proofs of Claim. The Trustee may file such proofs of claim and other papers or documents, in accordance with the terms of any applicable Intercreditor Agreements as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee, the Note Collateral Agent and the Holders allowed in any judicial proceedings relative to an Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes, its creditors or its property and, unless prohibited by law or applicable regulations, may vote on behalf of the Holders in any election of a trustee in bankruptcy or other Person performing similar functions, and any Custodian in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Holder to make payments to the Trustee and, in the event that the Trustee shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Holders, to pay to the Trustee any amount due it for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and its counsel, and any other amounts due the Trustee under Section 707.

No provision of this Indenture shall be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Holder any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Notes or the rights of any Holder thereof or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Holder in any such proceeding.

Section 605. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Notes. All rights of action and claims under this Indenture or the Notes may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Notes or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto, and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall, after provision for the payment of the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, be for the ratable benefit of the Holders of the Notes in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Section 606. Application of Money Collected. Any money or property collected by the Trustee or the Note Collateral Agent pursuant to this Article VI shall be applied in the following order, at the date or dates fixed by the Trustee and, in case of the distribution of such money or property on account of principal (or premium, if any) or interest, upon presentation of the Notes and the notation thereon of the payment if only partially paid and upon surrender thereof if fully paid:

First: to the payment of all amounts due the Trustee under Section 707;

Second: to the payment of all amounts due the Note Collateral Agent under Section 1510;

Third: to the payment of the amounts then due and unpaid upon the Notes for principal (and premium, if any) and interest, in respect of which or for the benefit of which such money has been collected, ratably, without preference or priority of any kind, according to the amounts due and payable on such Notes for principal (and premium, if any) and interest, respectively; and Fourth: to the Company, or to the extent collected from assets of Intermediate Holdings, to Intermediate Holdings.

The foregoing provisions of this Section 606 are subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements~~, to Subsection 6.5 of the U.S. Collateral Agreement~~, to any corresponding provision of any other Note Security Document relating to application of such money or property, and to Section 1509(l).

Section 607. Limitation on Suits. No Holder may pursue any remedy (including taking or instituting any actions or proceedings, judicial or otherwise, for any right or remedy or asserting any other cause of action against an Issuer or any Guarantor (including the exercise of any right of set-off, rights on account of any banker's lien or similar claim or other rights of self-help), or instituting any actions or proceedings or any other cause of action, or otherwise commencing any remedial procedures) with respect to this Indenture, the Note Security Documents or the Notes unless:

(1) such Holder has previously given the Trustee written notice that an Event of Default is continuing;

(2) the Required ~~Exit Investors~~Holders have requested the Trustee in writing to pursue the remedy, or the Required Lenders (as defined in the Exit Credit Agreement) have elected to pursue the same remedy under the Exit Credit Agreement;

(3) such Holders have offered the Trustee security or indemnity satisfactory to it against any loss, liability or expense;

(4) the Trustee has not complied with such request within 60 days after receipt of the request and the offer of security or indemnity; and

(5) Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes have not given the Trustee a written direction inconsistent with such request within such 60-day period.

For the avoidance of doubt, this provision may be enforced against any Holder by the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Notes, the Trustee, the Issuers (or any of their Affiliates) and each Holder expressly acknowledges that this provision shall be available as a defense of the Issuers (or any of their Affiliates) in any action, proceeding, cause of action or remedial procedure.

A Holder may not use this Indenture to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of another Holder, to obtain a preference or priority over another Holder or to enforce any right under this Indenture except in the manner herein provided and for the equal and ratable benefit of all Holders.

For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 607 shall be subject to the Pari Passu Intercreditor Agreement in all respects.

Section 608. [Reserved].

Section 609. Restoration of Rights and Remedies. If the Trustee or any Holder has instituted any proceeding to enforce any right or remedy under this Indenture or any Note and such proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee or to such Holder, then and in every such case an Issuer, any other obligor upon the Notes, the Trustee and the Holders shall, subject to any determination in such proceeding, be restored severally and respectively to their former positions hereunder, and thereafter all rights and remedies of the Trustee and the Holders shall continue as though no such proceeding had been instituted.

Section 610. Rights and Remedies Cumulative. No right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or to the Holders is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every right and remedy shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right or remedy.

Section 611. Delay or Omission Not Waiver. No delay or omission of the Trustee, the Note Collateral Agent or of any Holder of any Note to exercise any right or remedy accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver of any such Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every right and remedy given by this Article VI or by law to the Trustee, the Note Collateral Agent or to the Holders may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by the Trustee, the Note Collateral Agent or by the Holders, as the case may be.

Section 612. Control by Holders. The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes (which contain the Event of Default for which a remedy is being enforced) shall have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or of exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee; provided that:

(1) such direction shall not be in conflict with any rule of law or with this Indenture; and

(2) the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee which is not inconsistent with such direction.

However, the Trustee may refuse to follow any direction that conflicts with law or this Indenture or, subject to Section 701, that the Trustee determines is unduly prejudicial to the rights of any other Holder or that would involve the Trustee in personal liability. Prior to taking any action under this Indenture, the Trustee shall be entitled to indemnification satisfactory to it in its sole discretion against all losses and expenses caused by taking or not taking such action.

Section 613. Waiver of Past Defaults. The Required Exit Investors may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes waive any past Default hereunder and its consequences, except a Default:

(1) in the payment of principal of or interest on any Note (which may only be waived with the consent of each Holder of Notes affected), or

(2) in respect of a covenant or provision hereof that pursuant to the second paragraph of Section 902 cannot be modified or amended without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note affected.

Upon any such waiver, such Default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising therefrom shall be deemed to have been cured, for every purpose of this Indenture; but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or Event of Default or impair any right consequent thereon. In case of any such waiver, an Issuer, any other obligor upon the Notes, the Trustee and the Holders shall be restored to their former positions and rights hereunder and under the Notes, respectively.

Section 614. Undertaking for Costs. All parties to this Indenture agree, and each Holder of any Note by such Holder's acceptance thereof shall be deemed to have agreed, that any court may in its discretion require, in any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Indenture or the Notes, or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it as Trustee, the filing by any party litigant in such suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of such suit, and that such court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in such suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by such party litigant. This Section 614 shall not apply to any suit instituted by the Trustee, to any suit instituted by any Holder, or group of Holders, holding in the aggregate more than 10.0% in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes (which contain the applicable Event of Default), or to any suit instituted by any Holder for the enforcement of the payment of principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any Note on or after the respective Stated Maturity or Interest Payment Dates expressed in such Note.

Section 615. Waiver of Stay, Extension or Usury Laws. Each Issuer agrees (to the extent that it may lawfully do so) that it shall not at any time insist upon, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension law or any usury or other similar law wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, that would prohibit or forgive the Issuers from paying all or any portion of the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on the Notes contemplated herein or in the Notes or would prohibit or forgive Intermediate Holdings from performing its obligations under the Parent Guarantee or this Indenture or that may affect the covenants or the performance of this Indenture; and each Issuer (to the extent that it may lawfully do so) hereby expressly waives all benefit or advantage of any such law, and shall not hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power herein granted to the Trustee, but will suffer and permit the execution of every such power as though no such law had been enacted.

ARTICLE VII

THE TRUSTEE

Section 701. Certain Duties and Responsibilities. (a) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default,

(1) the Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; and

(2) in the absence of bad faith on its part, the Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Indenture; but in the case of any such certificates or opinions that by any provision hereof are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee, the Trustee shall be under a duty to examine the same to determine whether or not they conform to the requirements of this Indenture, but need not verify the contents thereof.

(b) In case an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture, and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise as a prudent person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of such person's own affairs.

(c) No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act, or its own willful misconduct, except that (i) this paragraph does not limit the effect of Section 701(a); (ii) the Trustee shall not be liable for any action taken or error of judgment made in good faith by it or any of its officers, employees or agents, unless it is proved that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts; and (iii) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in accordance with a direction received by it pursuant to Section 612.

(d) No provision of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, if repayment of such funds or adequate indemnity against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it.

(e) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 701 and Section 703.

Section 702. Notice of Defaults. If a Default occurs and is continuing and is actually known to a Trust Officer of the Trustee, the Trustee must send to each Holder notice of the Default within 90 days after a Trust Officer of the Trustee has obtained actual knowledge thereof, unless such Default shall have been cured or waived. Except in the case of a Default in the payment of principal of, or premium, if any, or interest on, any Note, the Trustee may withhold notice if and so long as the Trustee in good faith determines that the withholding of such notice is in the interests of the Holders. The Trustee shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any Defaults, accelerations or Events of Default unless a Trust Officer of the Trustee shall have obtained actual knowledge thereof and a written notice of such an event has been received by the Trustee at its Corporate Trust Office and such notice references the Notes and this Indenture and states that it is a "Notice of Default."

Section 703. Certain Rights of Trustee. Subject to the provisions of Section 701:

(1) the Trustee may rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(2) any request or direction of the Company or Intermediate Holdings, mentioned herein shall be sufficiently evidenced by an Issuer Request or Issuer Order thereof or comparable written request or order of Intermediate Holdings, and any resolution of any Person's board of directors shall be sufficiently evidenced if certified by an Officer of such Person as having been duly adopted and being in full force and effect on the date of such certificate;

(3) whenever in the administration of this Indenture the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder, the Trustee (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, rely upon an Officer's Certificate of the Company or Intermediate Holdings;

(4) the Trustee shall be entitled to request and receive written instructions from the Issuers and shall have no responsibility or liability for any losses or damages of any nature that may arise from any action taken or not taken by the Trustee in accordance with the written direction of the Issuers;

(5) the Trustee may consult with counsel and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection from liability in respect of any action taken, suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in reliance thereon;

(6) the Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request or direction of any of the Holders pursuant to this Indenture, unless such Holders shall have offered, and if requested, provided to the Trustee security or indemnity satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might be incurred by it in compliance with such request or direction;

(7) the Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document;

(8) the Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers hereunder or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents or attorneys and the Trustee shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any such agent or attorney appointed with due care by it hereunder;

(9) to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Trustee shall not be liable to any Person for special, punitive, indirect, consequential or incidental loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action; ~~and~~

(10) the permissive rights of the Trustee to do things enumerated in this Indenture shall not be construed as a duty unless so specified herein~~.~~; and

(1) The Trustee shall neither be responsible for nor chargeable with, knowledge of any of the terms and conditions of any document to which it is not a party, including, without limitation, the Exit Credit Agreement.

The rights, protections and indemnities afforded the Trustee hereunder shall equally apply to it acting as Note Collateral Agent (or any other role) hereunder or under any Note Security Document; provided that, with respect to acting as the Note Collateral Agent, references to the Note Collateral Agent being liable to the extent of its negligence shall be replaced with references to the Note Collateral Agent being liable to the extent of its gross negligence.

Section 704. Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Notes. The recitals contained herein and in the Notes, except the Trustee's certificates of authentication, shall be taken as the statements of the Issuers, and neither the Trustee nor any Authenticating Agent assumes any responsibility for their correctness. The Trustee makes no representations as to the validity or sufficiency of this Indenture or of the Notes, except that the Trustee represents that it is duly authorized to execute and deliver this Indenture, authenticate the Notes and perform its obligations hereunder and that the statements made by it in a Statement of Eligibility and Qualification on Form T-1 supplied to an Issuer and any other obligor upon the Notes in connection with the registration of any Notes, Parent Guarantee or Subsidiary Guarantees issued hereunder, if applicable, are and will be true and accurate subject to the qualifications set forth therein. Neither the Trustee nor any Authenticating Agent shall be accountable for the use or application by any Issuer of any series of Notes or the proceeds thereof.

Section 705. May Hold Notes. The Trustee, any Authenticating Agent, any Paying Agent, any Note Registrar or any other agent of the Issuers, in its individual or any other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Notes and, subject to Section 708 and Section 713, may otherwise deal with the Company or its Affiliates with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee, Authenticating Agent, Paying Agent, Note Registrar or such other agent.

Section 706. Money Held in Trust. Money held by the Trustee in trust hereunder need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law. The Trustee shall be under no liability for interest on any money received by it hereunder except as otherwise agreed in writing with the Company.

Section 707. Compensation and Reimbursement. The Issuers jointly and severally agree,

(1) to pay to the Trustee from time to time the reasonable compensation agreed to by the Company and Intermediate Holdings in writing for all services rendered by the

Trustee hereunder (which compensation shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust);

(2) except as otherwise expressly provided herein, to reimburse the Trustee upon its request for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Trustee in accordance with any provision of this Indenture (including the reasonable compensation and the expenses and disbursements of its agents and counsel), except any such expense, disbursement or advance as may be attributable to its negligence or willful misconduct; and

(3) to indemnify the Trustee for, and to hold it harmless against, any loss, liability, suit, action, proceeding at law or in equity, tax, levy, fee or expense (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and expenses and the costs of enforcement of this Indenture, any Note Security Documents or Intercreditor Agreement or any provision hereof or thereof) incurred without negligence or willful misconduct on the Trustee's part as finally adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction, arising out of or in connection with the administration of the trust or trusts hereunder or in connection with any Note Security Document or Intercreditor Agreement, including the costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder or thereunder, including enforcement of this Section 707.

The Company and Intermediate Holdings need not pay for any settlement made without its consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld). The provisions of this Section 707 shall survive the termination of this Indenture or the resignation and removal of the Trustee.

The Trustee shall have a claim prior to the Notes for payment of all amounts due the Trustee under this Section 707 on all money or property held or collected by the Trustee, other than money or property held in trust to pay the principal of and interest on any Notes.

Section 708. Conflicting Interests. If the Trustee has or shall acquire a conflicting interest within the meaning of the TIA, the Trustee shall eliminate such interest, apply to the SEC for permission to continue as Trustee with such conflict or resign, to the extent and in the manner provided by, and subject to the provisions of, the TIA and this Indenture. The Trustee shall not be deemed to have a conflicting interest by virtue of being a trustee under this Indenture with respect to Initial Notes and Additional Notes, or a trustee under any other indenture between the Issuers and the Trustee.

Section 709. Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility. There shall at all times be one (and only one) Trustee hereunder. The Trustee shall be a Person that is eligible pursuant to the TIA to act as such and has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50.0 million. If any such Person publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of its supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section 709 and to the extent permitted by the TIA, the combined capital and surplus of such Person shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of condition so published. If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section 709, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect hereinafter specified in this Article.

Section 710. Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor. No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee in accordance with the applicable requirements of Section 711.

The Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Issuers. If the instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee required by Section 711 shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within 30 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may at the expense of the Company and Intermediate Holdings petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

The Trustee may be removed at any time by Act of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes delivered to the Trustee and to the Company.

If at any time:

(1) the Trustee shall fail to comply with Section 708 after written request therefor by the Company, Intermediate Holdings or by any Holder who has been a bona fide Holder of a Note for at least six months, or

(2) the Trustee shall cease to be eligible under Section 709 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by the Company, Intermediate Holdings or by any such Holder, or

(3) the Trustee shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then, in any such case, (A) the Company or Intermediate Holdings may remove the Trustee, or (B) subject to Section 614, any Holder who has been a bona fide Holder of a Note for at least six months may, on behalf of itself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

If the Trustee shall resign, be removed or become incapable of acting, or if a vacancy shall occur in the office of Trustee for any cause, the Company or Intermediate Holdings shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee and shall comply with the applicable requirements of Section 711. If, within one year after such resignation, removal or incapability, or the occurrence of such vacancy, a successor Trustee shall be appointed by Act of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes delivered to the Company, Intermediate Holdings and the retiring Trustee, the successor Trustee so appointed shall, forthwith upon its acceptance of such appointment in accordance with the applicable requirements of Section 711, become the successor Trustee and to that extent supersede the successor Trustee appointed by the Company or Intermediate Holdings. If no successor Trustee shall have been so appointed by the Company, Intermediate Holdings or the Holders and accepted appointment in the manner required by Section 711, then, subject to Section 614, any Holder who has been a bona fide Holder of a Note for at least six months may, on behalf of itself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

The Company or Intermediate Holdings shall give notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee to all Holders in the manner provided in Section 110. Each notice shall include the name of the successor Trustee and the address of its Corporate Trust Office.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 710, the Issuers' obligations under Section 707 shall continue for the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

Section 711. Acceptance of Appointment by Successor. In case of the appointment hereunder of a successor Trustee, every such successor Trustee so appointed shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Company, Intermediate Holdings and to the retiring Trustee an instrument accepting such appointment, and thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective and such successor Trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all the rights, powers, trusts and duties of the retiring Trustee; but, on the request of the Company, Intermediate Holdings or the successor Trustee, such retiring Trustee shall, upon payment of its charges, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Trustee all the rights, powers and trusts of the retiring Trustee and shall duly assign, transfer and deliver to such successor Trustee all property and money held by such retiring Trustee hereunder.

Upon request of any such successor Trustee, the Issuers shall execute any and all instruments for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to such successor Trustee all such rights, powers and trusts referred to above.

No successor Trustee shall accept its appointment unless at the time of such acceptance such successor Trustee shall be qualified and eligible under this Article VII.

Section 712. Merger, Conversion, Consolidation or Succession to Business. Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee hereunder; provided such corporation shall be otherwise qualified and eligible under this Article VII, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto. In case any Notes shall have been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor by merger, conversion or consolidation to such authenticating Trustee may adopt such authentication and deliver the Notes so authenticated with the same effect as if such successor Trustee had itself authenticated such Notes.

Section 713. Preferential Collection of Claims Against the Issuers. If and when the Trustee shall be or become a creditor of any Issuer (or any other obligor upon the Notes), the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of the TIA regarding the collection of claims against the Company (or any such other obligor) or realizing on certain property received by it in respect of such claims.

Section 714. Appointment of Authenticating Agent. With respect to Notes of any series, the Trustee may appoint an Authenticating Agent acceptable to the Company or Intermediate Holdings to authenticate such Notes. Any such appointment shall be evidenced by an instrument in writing signed by a Trust Officer, a copy of which instrument shall be promptly furnished to the Company and Intermediate Holdings. Unless limited by the terms of such appointment, an Authenticating Agent may authenticate Notes whenever the Trustee may do so. Each reference in this Indenture to authentication (or execution of a certificate of authentication) by the Trustee includes authentication (or execution of a certificate of authentication) by such Authenticating Agent. An Authenticating Agent has the same rights as any Note Registrar, Paying Agent or agent for service of notices and demands.

Section 715. Appointment of Common Collateral Agent. The Trustee is hereby authorized and directed to execute and deliver a supplemental indenture appointing Acquiom Agency Services LLC as a Common Collateral Agent. The Trustee shall have no liability for the actions or omissions of the Common Collateral Agent acting under the Note Security Documents.

ARTICLE VIII

HOLDERS' LISTS AND REPORTS BY TRUSTEE AND THE ISSUERS

Section 801. The Company to Furnish Trustee Names and Addresses of Holders. The Company or Intermediate Holdings will furnish or cause to be furnished to the Trustee:

(1) semi-annually, not more than 10 days after each Regular Record Date, a list, in such form as the Trustee may reasonably require, of the names and addresses of the Holders of such series as of such Regular Record Date, and

(2) at such other times as the Trustee may request in writing, within 30 days after the receipt by the Company or Intermediate Holdings of any such request, a list of similar form and content as of a date not more than 15 days prior to the time such list is furnished; provided, however, that if and to the extent and so long as the Trustee shall be the Note Registrar, no such list need be furnished pursuant to this Section 801.

Section 802. Preservation of Information; Communications to Holders. The Trustee shall preserve, in as current a form as is reasonably practicable, the names and addresses of Holders contained in the most recent list, if any, furnished to the Trustee as provided in Section 801 and the names and addresses of Holders received by the Trustee in its capacity as Note Registrar; provided, however, that if and so long as the Trustee shall be the Note Registrar, the Note Register shall satisfy the requirements relating to such list. None of the Issuers, Holdings, any Subsidiary Guarantor or the Trustee or any other Person shall be under any responsibility with regard to the accuracy of such list. The Trustee may destroy any list furnished to it as provided in Section 801 upon receipt of a new list so furnished.

The rights of Holders to communicate with other Holders with respect to their rights under this Indenture or under the Notes, and the corresponding rights and privileges of the Trustee, shall be as provided by the TIA.

Every Holder of Notes, by receiving and holding the same, agrees with the Issuers and the Trustee that neither the Company, nor the Trustee, nor any agent of any of them, shall be held accountable by reason of any disclosure of information as to names and addresses of Holders made pursuant to the TIA.

Section 803. Reports by Trustee. Within 60 days after each April 1, beginning with the first April 1 after the Issue Date, the Trustee shall transmit to Holders such reports concerning the Trustee and its actions under this Indenture as may be required pursuant to the TIA at the times and in the manner provided pursuant thereto for so long as any Notes remain outstanding. A copy of each such report shall, at the time of such transmission to Holders, be filed by the Trustee or any applicable listing agent with each stock exchange upon which any Notes are listed, with the SEC and with the Company and Intermediate Holdings. The Company or Intermediate Holdings shall notify the Trustee when any Notes are listed on any stock exchange, but any failure to so notify the Trustee shall not constitute a Default or Event of Default by the Issuers.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT, SUPPLEMENT OR WAIVER

Section 901. Without Consent of Holders. Without the consent of (or notice to) any Holder, the Company, Intermediate Holdings, the Trustee, the Note Collateral Agent and (as applicable) any Guarantor may amend or supplement this Indenture, the Notes, the Note Security Documents and any Intercreditor Agreement for any of the following purposes:

(1) to cure any ambiguity, mistake, omission, defect or inconsistency,

(2) to provide for the assumption by a successor of the obligations of any of the Issuers or a Guarantor under this Indenture or any Note,

(3) to provide for uncertificated Notes in addition to or in place of certificated Notes,

(4) to secure the Notes or to add to the Collateral (including to mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or grant any other Lien in favor of the Note Collateral Agent or the Hypothecary Representative for the benefit of the Trustee, the Note Collateral Agent or the Hypothecary Representative, as applicable, and the Holders of the Notes, as additional security for the payment and performance of all or any portion of the Secured Obligations, in any property or assets, including any that are required to be mortgaged, pledged or hypothecated, or in which a Lien is required to be granted, to or, for the benefit of the Note Collateral Agent pursuant to this Indenture, any of the Note Security Documents or otherwise),

(5) to evidence a successor Trustee or Note Collateral Agent,

(6) to provide for Parity Lien Obligations otherwise permitted under this Indenture pursuant to any Intercreditor Agreement, add Guarantees with respect to the Notes or appoint the Common Collateral Agent on the Issue Date, or to confirm and evidence the release, termination or discharge of any Guarantee or Lien with respect to or securing the Notes when such release, termination or discharge is provided for under this Indenture, the Notes or any of the Note Security Documents,

(7) to add to the covenants of the Issuers for the benefit of the Noteholders or to surrender any right or power conferred upon the Issuers,

(8) to provide for or confirm the issuance of the Initial Notes or any Additional Notes otherwise permitted under this Indenture,

(9) [reserved],

(10) to make any change that does not materially adversely affect the rights of any Holder under the Notes, this Indenture or the Note Security Documents, or

(11) to comply with any requirement of the SEC in connection with the qualification of this Indenture under the TIA or otherwise,

In addition, the Note Security Documents and any Intercreditor Agreement may be amended in accordance with the terms thereof. The Guarantors already party to this Indenture need not sign any Guarantor Supplemental Indenture to the extent that such Guarantor Supplemental Indenture only (i) adds additional Subsidiary Guarantors or (ii) evidences the appointment of the Common Collateral Agent on the Issue Date.

Section 902. With Consent of Required Exit Investors. (a) The Company, Intermediate Holdings, the Trustee, the Note Collateral Agent and (as applicable) any Guarantor may amend or supplement this Indenture, the Notes, the Note Security Documents and any Intercreditor Agreement with the consent of the Required Exit Investors, and the Required Exit Investors by notice to the Trustee may waive any existing Default or Event of Default or compliance by the Company, Intermediate Holdings or any Guarantor with any provision of this Indenture, the Notes, the Parent Guarantee, any Subsidiary Guarantee, any Note Security Documents or any Intercreditor Agreement; provided that ~~that~~ (x) if any such amendment or waiver will only affect one series of Notes (or less than all series of Notes) then outstanding under this Indenture, then ~~only~~ the consent of the Required Holders with respect to such series then outstanding~~, together with the holders of a majority in principal amount of the Exit Term Loans that are eligible to vote under the definition of "Required Lenders" (as defined in the Exit Credit Agreement)~~ shall also be required and (y) if any such amendment or waiver by its terms will affect the Notes in a manner different and materially adverse relative to the manner such amendment or waiver affects the Lenders under the Exit Credit Agreement, then the consent of the Required Holders ~~and the consent of the holders of a majority in principal amount of the Exit~~

~~Term Loans that are eligible to vote under the definition of "Required Lenders" (as defined in the Credit Agreement)~~ shall also be required; provided, further, that the Required Exit Investors (including, for the avoidance of doubt, a Pooled Majority) may not amend or supplement this Indenture, the Notes, the Note Security Documents ~~or the~~, any of the ABL/Cash Flow Intercreditor Agreement, the Pari Passu Intercreditor Agreement, any Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement, any Other Intercreditor Agreement or any Intercreditor Agreement Supplement (as defined in the Exit Credit Agreement), and may not waive a Default or Event of Default or compliance with any provision hereunder unless ~~such~~a corresponding amendment, supplement or wavier is also extended or made in connection with the Exit Credit Agreement, to the extent applicable.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 902 (and for the avoidance of doubt, without any requirement to obtain the consent of the Required Exit Investors), without the consent of Holders of 100.0% of the principal amount of the Notes affected (including consents obtained on connection with a tender offer or exchange of the Notes), an amendment or waiver, including a waiver pursuant to Section 613, may not:

(i) reduce the principal amount of the Notes whose Holders must consent to an amendment or waiver;

(ii) reduce the rate of or extend the time for payment of interest on any Note;

(iii) reduce the principal of or extend the Stated Maturity of any Note;

(iv) reduce the premium payable upon the redemption of any Note or change the date on which any Note may be redeemed as described in Section 6 of the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture;

(v) make any Note payable in money other than that stated in such Note;

(vi) amend or waive the legal right of any Holder of any Note to receive payment of principal of and interest on such Note on or after the respective Stated Maturity for such principal or Interest Payment Date for such interest expressed in such Note, or to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after such respective Stated Maturity or Interest Payment Date;

~~(vii) amend the definition of "Required Holders";~~

(vii) ~~(viii)~~ make any change in the amendment or waiver provisions described in this paragraph; ~~or~~

(viii) release Guarantors accounting for all or substantially all of the value of the Guarantee of the Secured Obligations pursuant to this Indenture, or, in the aggregate (in a single transaction or a series of related transactions), except as expressly permitted hereby or by any Note Security Document (as such documents are in effect on the Issue Date or, if later, the date of execution and delivery thereof in accordance with the terms hereof); or

(ix) reduce the percentage specified in the definition of "Required Holders" or "Pooled Majority" or any other provision of this Indenture having the purpose or effect of amending or modifying any of the foregoing;

(x) Furthermore, notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 902, no amendment or wavier may: (I) extend the grace period for the maturity of payment of any Note or Obligation hereunder; (II) provide for all interest to be payable in kind, (III) prepay any Notes over any other series of Notes in connection with a Liability Management Transaction~~, and~~; or (IV) amend the second proviso in the first paragraph of this Section 902; (V) amend Section 4~~.~~19~~,~~ or Section 1010 the definitions of "Liability Management Transaction," "Material Assets," "Release Requirements" and "Material Intellectual Property," the last provisos of each of the definitions of "Required Holders," "Required Supermajority Holders," "Required Exit Investors~~,~~" and "Required Supermajority Exit Investors~~"~~," the second sentence of the definition of "Investment" or the last paragraph of each of Section 407 and Section 40~~8~~9, clause (e) of Section 411 or any other provision of this Indenture having the effect of amending or modifying any of the foregoing, in each case, without (A) the written consent of (i) the Required Supermajority Exit Investors and (~~B~~ii) the each of the Required Supermajority Holders and the Required Supermajority Lenders, (B) in connection with any amendment or waiver in respect of the foregoing that would affect the Notes in a manner different and materially adverse relative to the manner such amendment or waiver affects the Lenders under the Exit Credit Agreement, then the consent of the Required Supermajority Holders shall be required; and (C) in connection with an amendment to permit a financing of new Indebtedness for borrowed money, unless all Holders[20] directly and adversely affected thereby shall have been offered an opportunity to participate in such amendment and such financing on the same terms and conditions and to receive their respective pro rata share (based on the amount of Notes that are held by each Holder~~s~~, calculated immediately prior to any applicable amendment) of any such financing and any economics in respect thereof (including any consent fee applicable to such amendment) (other than bona fide backstop, structuring and similar fees), which offer shall remain open to each such Holder~~s~~ for a period of not less than five (5) Business Days ~~(~~, which shall, for the avoidance of doubt, not apply to any issuance of Emergence Exit Notes; provided that each of (i) this proviso and (ii) subclause (B) of this paragraph may not be amended or modified without the written consent of each directly and adversely affected Holder ~~and each adversely affected holder of Exit Term Loans)~~.

(c) In addition, (x) the definitions of "Required Supermajority Exit Investors" and "Required Exit Investors" may not be amended and (y) the percentage specified in the definitions of "Required Holders" and "Required Supermajority Holders" may not be reduced, in each case, without the consent of all adversely affected Lenders

[20] ~~Note to Milbank: Exit Term Lenders cannot be offered pro rata participation in both the notes and the term loan.~~

under the Exit Credit Agreement and all adversely affected Holders. After (i) the Discharge of First Lien Obligations (as defined in the Pari Passu Intercreditor Agreement) constituting Credit Agreement Obligations (as defined in the Pari Passu Intercreditor Agreement) or (ii) a refinancing of the Credit Agreement, all references herein, in each case, to "Required Exit Investors" and "Required Supermajority Exit Investors" shall be automatically and irrevocably changed to "Required Holders" and "Required Supermajority Holders", respectively; provided that, in the case of the foregoing clause (ii), such references shall not be automatically changed if and to the extent (1) Issuers have elected in writing pursuant to an Officer's Certificate that such references shall not be changed concurrently and irrevocably with any such refinancing (such Officer's Certificate, a "Refinancing Certificate"), (2) that the Credit Agreement Refinancing Parties shall expressly acknowledge, agree, and accede to the voting provisions set forth in this Indenture pursuant to language and documentation reasonably satisfactory to the Required Holders and (3) the refinanced Credit Agreement contains substantially the same voting provisions as the Exit Credit Agreement and does not contain any Credit Agreement voting rights that are more favorable to the lenders thereunder than those contained in this Indenture. Any lenders, noteholders (and any of their agents) that provide or will prospectively provide a refinancing of the Credit Agreement as described in the preceding sentence (the "Credit Agreement Refinancing Parties") may conclusively rely on any Refinancing Certificate in providing such refinancing.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, any amendment, modification, waiver or supplement that disproportionately and adversely affects the Holders of a series of Notes as compared to Holders under another series of Notes shall, in all events and in addition, require the consent of Holders holding a majority of the aggregate Notes under such disproportionately and adversely affected series of Notes in addition to the foregoing.

(e) After an amendment, supplement or waiver under this Section 902 becomes effective, the Company or Intermediate Holdings shall send to the Holders, with a copy to the Trustee, a notice briefly describing the amendment, supplement or waiver. Any failure of the Company or Intermediate Holdings to send such notice, or any defect therein, shall not, however, in any way impair or affect the validity of any supplemental indenture or the effectiveness of any such amendment, supplement or waiver.

(f) In addition, without the consent of the Required Supermajority Exit Investors, no amendment, supplement or waiver may (1) make any change to any Note Security Document, any Intercreditor Agreement, or the specified provisions in this Indenture dealing with the Collateral or the Note Security Documents, that would release all or substantially all of the Fair Market Value of the Collateral from the Liens of the Note Security Documents (except as permitted by the terms of this Indenture, the Note Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements) or would change or alter the priority of the security interests in the Collateral under any Intercreditor Agreement in any manner adverse to the Holders in any material respect, or (2) make any other change to any Note Security Document, any Intercreditor Agreement, or the specified provisions in this Indenture dealing with the Collateral or the Note Security Documents, or the application of trust proceeds of the Collateral pursuant to this Indenture, that would adversely affect the Holders in any material respect, in each case other than in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, the Note Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements.

(g) Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, the Required Holders (or Required Supermajority Holders, the Required Exit Investors or Required Supermajority Exit Investors, as the case may be) may not amend or supplement this Indenture or the Note Security Documents and may not waive a Default or Event of Default or compliance with any provision hereunder unless such amendment, supplement or wavier is also extended or made in connection with the Exit Credit Agreement, to the extent applicable.

Section 903. Execution of Amendments, Supplements or Waivers. The Trustee and the Note Collateral Agent (as applicable) shall sign any amendment, supplement or waiver authorized pursuant to this Article IX if the amendment, supplement or waiver does not adversely affect the rights, duties, liabilities or immunities of the Trustee or the Note Collateral Agent, as applicable. If it does, the Trustee or the Note Collateral Agent may, but need not, sign it. In signing or refusing to sign such amendment, supplement or waiver, the Trustee or the Note Collateral Agent shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the execution of such amendment, supplement or waiver is authorized or permitted or complies with this Indenture and the other Senior Secured Notes Documents, that all conditions precedent to such amendment, supplement or waiver required by this Indenture and the other Senior Secured Notes Documents have been complied with and that such amendment, supplement or waiver is a valid and binding agreement of the Issuers, enforceable against the Issuers in accordance with its terms. For the avoidance of doubt, (a) no Officer's Certificate shall be required on the Issue Date for the execution of any Note Supplemental Indenture, supplemental indenture pursuant to Sections 501(a)(i) or 501(b), as applicable, or Guarantor Supplemental Indenture and (b) no Opinion of Counsel shall be required (w) on the Issue Date for the execution of any Note Supplemental Indenture, supplemental indenture pursuant to Sections 501(a)(i) or 501(b), as applicable, or Guarantor Supplemental Indenture, (x) in connection with the execution of any documents reasonably requested by the Company or Intermediate Holdings to evidence the release, discharge, and termination of a Subsidiary Guarantee as set forth in Section 1303 or any Guarantor Supplemental Indenture, (y) in connection with the execution of any documents reasonably requested by the Company or Intermediate Holdings to evidence the release, discharge, and termination of the Parent Guarantee as set forth in Section 1403 and (z) in connection with the transfer of all of the Capital Stock of Intermediate Holdings held by Intermediate Holdings to any Successor Holding Company pursuant to Section 1410.

Section 904. Revocation and Effect of Consents. Until an amendment, supplement or waiver becomes effective, a consent to it by a Holder, Required Holders, Required Exit Investor, Required Supermajority Holder or Required Supermajority Holders, as applicable, is a continuing consent by such applicable person and every subsequent Holder of that Note or any Note that evidences all or any part of the same debt as the consenting Holder's Note, even if notation of the consent is not made on any Note. Subject to the following paragraph of this Section 904, any such Holder, Required Holders, Required Exit Investor, Required Supermajority Holder or Required Supermajority Holders or subsequent Holder may revoke such consent by written notice to the Trustee, or either Issuer, received by the Trustee, or either Issuer, as the case may be, before the date on which the Trustee receives an Officer's Certificate from the Issuers certifying that the applicable persons have consented (and not theretofore revoked such consent) to the amendment, supplement or waiver. The Issuers may, but shall not be obligated to, fix a record date for the purpose of determining the applicable persons entitled to consent to any amendment, supplement or waiver as set forth in Section 108. The Trustee and the Note Collateral Agent may conclusively and without liability rely on (and at the request of the Trustee or the Note Collateral Agent, the Company shall promptly provide) an Officer's Certificate delivered by the Issuers specifying the aggregate principal amount of Exit Term Loans outstanding and the aggregate principal amount of Exit Term Loans held by lenders that are eligible to vote, to the extent applicable, that have consented to such amendment, supplement or waiver.

Subject to Section 907(b), after an amendment, supplement or waiver becomes effective, it shall bind every Holder of Notes.

Section 905. Consent or Direction of Holders. In connection with any consent or direction delivered to the Trustee or the Note Collateral Agent under the Senior Secured Notes Documents, the Trustee or the Note Collateral Agent may, conclusively and without liability assume that the Holder delivering any such consent or direction did not incur any Notes, including Additional Notes, or any refinancing indebtedness in connection with or for the purpose of influencing the provision of requisite consents for any direction, modification, amendment, release or waiver under this Indenture or the other Senior Secured Notes Documents and the delivery of any such consent or direction from a Holder shall be deemed to constitute a representation and warranty that such Holder did not incur any Notes, including Additional Notes, or any refinancing indebtedness in connection with or for the purpose of influencing the provision of requisite consents for any direction, modification, amendment, release or waiver under this Indenture or the other Senior Secured Notes Documents.

Section 906. Notation on or Exchange of Notes. If an amendment, supplement or waiver changes the terms of a Note, the Trustee shall (if required by the Company or Intermediate Holdings and in accordance with the specific direction of the Company or Intermediate Holdings) request the Holder of the Note to deliver it to the Trustee. The Trustee shall (if required by the Company or Intermediate Holdings and in accordance with the specific direction of the Company or Intermediate Holdings) place an appropriate notation on the Note about the changed terms and return it to the Holder. Alternatively, if the Company, Intermediate Holdings or the Trustee so determines, the Company in exchange for the Note shall issue and the Trustee shall authenticate a new Note that reflects the changed terms. Failure to make the appropriate notation or issue a new Note shall not affect the validity and effect of such amendment, supplement or waiver.

Section 907. Net Short Holders (a) Each amendment, supplement, waiver or modification of this Indenture, the Notes, the Note Security Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements, as well as any other request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver under this Indenture, shall be binding and effective as to each Net Short Holder. By acceptance of a beneficial ownership interest in the Notes, each Notes Beneficial Owner shall be deemed to have agreed to not take any action, whether consenting, affirmatively not consenting or otherwise, for any amendment, supplement, waiver or modification of this Indenture, the Notes, the Note Security Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements, or otherwise give any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver under this Indenture, if it is a Net Short Holder (in each case unless otherwise agreed to by the Issuers). In connection with any amendment, supplement, waiver or modification of this Indenture, the Notes, the Note Security Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements, or any other request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver under this Indenture, each Notes Beneficial Owner shall promptly notify the Trustee, the Issuers in writing that it is a Net Short Holder, or shall otherwise be deemed to have represented and warranted to the Issuers and the Trustee that it is not a Net Short Holder; provided that if such action relates to a Default or Event of Default, such representation or deemed representation shall be deemed repeated at all times until the resulting Default or Event of Default is cured or ceases to exist or the Notes hereunder are accelerated. In connection with, and as a condition to, taking any action requiring the consent of, or the giving of any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver by, the Holders of the requisite principal amount of Notes, each Notes Beneficial Owner taking such action shall (A) certify to the Trustee, and the Issuers that it is not a Net Short Holder (in each case unless otherwise agreed to by the Issuers) and (B) covenant to provide the Issuers with such other information as the Company or Intermediate Holdings may reasonably request from time to time in order to verify the accuracy of such ~~Net~~Notes Beneficial Owner's representation or warranty, deemed representation or warranty or certification with respect to not being a Net Short Holder, within five Business Days of request thereof (the "Net Short Holder Verification Covenant"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, these provisions shall in no way limit the right of any Notes Beneficial Owner or Holder to institute suit for the enforcement of payment of principal and interest of any Note of such Holder on or after the final Stated Maturity Date for such principal or scheduled interest payment dates for such interest expressed in such Note. If any Notes Beneficial Owner has made an incorrect representation or warranty, deemed representation or warranty or certification with respect to not being a Net Short Holder, or has otherwise breached its covenant to not take any action, whether consenting, affirmatively not consenting or otherwise, for any amendment, supplement, waiver or modification of this Indenture, the Notes, the Note Security Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements, or otherwise give any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver under this Indenture, if it is a Net Short Holder (in each case unless otherwise agreed to by the Issuers), the Issuers shall have the right at the sole expense of any such Person to cause such Person to (and such Person shall be obligated to) transfer any or all of its Notes to one or more transferees (which may, at the Company's or Intermediate Holdings' sole option, be or include any Parent Entity, the Company, Intermediate Holdings or any Subsidiary); provided that (1) the Trustee shall not have any obligation to the Issuers or to such Notes Beneficial Owner to find such a transferee, (2) the Issuers shall not have any obligation to such Notes Beneficial Owner to find such a transferee or accept or consent to any such transfer to itself or any other Person and (3) the transferee (or, at its option, the Issuers) shall pay to such Notes Beneficial Owner concurrently with such transfer an amount (which payment shall be deemed payment in full) equal to the lesser of (x) the face principal amount of the Notes so assigned and (y) the most recently available quoted price for such Notes (as determined by Intermediate Holdings in good faith, which determination shall be conclusive), in each case without interest thereon. The rights and remedies of the Issuers provided herein are cumulative and are not exclusive of any other rights and remedies provided to the Issuers at law or in equity, and the Issuers shall be entitled to pursue any remedy available to it against any Net Short Holder (or any Notes Beneficial Owner that the Company or Intermediate Holdings in good faith believes is a Net Short Holder). In no event shall the Trustee have any liability or obligation to ascertain, monitor or inquire as to whether any Person is a Net Short Holder and/or whether such Net Short Holder has delivered any related certifications under this Indenture or in connection with the Notes. It is understood and agreed that the Issuers and the Trustee shall be entitled to rely on each representation, deemed representation and certification made by, and covenant of, each Notes Beneficial Owner provided for in this paragraph. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the Notes or any other document, the provisions of this paragraph shall apply and survive with respect to each Notes Beneficial Owner notwithstanding that any such Person may have ceased to be a Notes Beneficial Owner, this Indenture may have been terminated or the Notes may have been redeemed in full.

(b) If, in connection with the giving of a request, demand, authorization, notice, consent or waiver relating to a Default or Event of Default (each, a "Default Direction"), but prior to the acceleration of the Notes, ~~the Company or~~ Intermediate Holdings determines in good faith that there is a reasonable basis to believe a Notes Beneficial Owner that took such action made an incorrect representation or warranty, deemed representation or warranty or certification with respect to not being a Net Short Holder, or otherwise at any relevant time on or following such action was a Net Short Holder ~~(a "Net Short Holder Default Breach"), the Company or~~, Intermediate Holdings delivers an Officer's Certificate to the Trustee certifying that (i) ~~the Company~~Intermediate Holdings believes in good faith that there is a reasonable basis to believe a Notes Beneficial Owner that gave a Default Direction (x) made an incorrect representation or warranty, deemed representation or warranty or certification with respect to not being a Net Short Holder, or otherwise at any relevant time on or following such action was a Net Short Holder or (y) breached the Net Short Holder Verification Covenant and (ii) ~~the Company,~~ Intermediate Holdings and/or one of its Affiliates has filed papers with a court of competent jurisdiction seeking a determination that such Notes Beneficial Owner made an incorrect representation or warranty, deemed representation or warranty or certification with respect to not being a Net Short Holder, or otherwise at any relevant time on or following such action was a Net Short Holder or breached the Net Short Holder Verification Covenant, and seeking to invalidate any Default or Event of Default that resulted from such action, the cure period with respect to such Default or Event of Default shall be automatically stayed pending a final and non-appealable determination of a court of competent jurisdiction on such matter. If such Officer's Certificate has been delivered to the Trustee, the Trustee shall refrain from acting in accordance with ~~such~~ any such Default Direction until such time as the Company or Intermediate Holdings provides to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate stating that such Notes Beneficial Owner has satisfied its Net Short Holder Verification Covenant. If such Notes Beneficial Owner has satisfied its Net Short Holder Verification Covenant, then the Trustee shall be permitted to act in accordance with such Default Direction.

(c) If any amendment, supplement, waiver or modification of this Indenture, the Notes, the Note Security Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements, or any other request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver under this Indenture, is effected in violation of Section 907(b) (including, without limitation, as a result of such amendment, supplement, waiver or modification having been consented to by a Net Short Holder or such other request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver having been given by a Net Short Holder), and assuming all Net Short Holders complied with Section 907(b) and Notes owned by all Net Short Holders were disregarded and deemed not to be Outstanding (in each case unless otherwise agreed to by the Issuers), (1) if such amendment, supplement, waiver or modification, or such other request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver, shall have received the requisite percentage of Holders under this Indenture, the Notes, the Note Security Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements, without taking into account any action, whether consenting, affirmatively not consenting or otherwise, of any Net Short Holder (in each case unless otherwise agreed to by the Issuers), then such amendment, supplement, waiver or modification, or such other request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver shall nonetheless be binding and effective, and shall not be null or void, as to each Holder and (2) in all other cases, such amendment, supplement, waiver or modification, or such other request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver shall be null and void (in each case unless otherwise agreed to by the Issuers).

ARTICLE X

REDEMPTION OF NOTES

Section 1001. Applicability of Article. Notes of or within any series that are redeemable (including in connection with an Optional Purchase Offer) in whole or in part before their Stated Maturity shall be redeemable in accordance with their terms and (except as otherwise specified for Notes of any series in the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture, as contemplated by Section 301) in accordance with this Article X.

Section 1002. [Reserved].

Section 1003. Election to Redeem; Notice to Trustee. In case of any redemption at the election of the Company or Intermediate Holdings of less than all of the Notes of any series, the Issuers shall, at least two Business Days (but not more than 60 days (except that such notice may be delivered more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date if the Redemption Date is delayed as provided in Section 6 of the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture)), prior to the date on which notice is required to be sent or caused to be sent to Holders pursuant to Section 1005, notify the Trustee of such Redemption Date and of the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed, but failure to so notify the Trustee shall not invalidate any notice given in accordance with Section 1005 and shall not constitute a Default or Event of Default by the Issuers.

Section 1004. Selection by Trustee of Notes to Be Redeemed. Unless otherwise specified for Notes of any series in the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture, as contemplated by Section 301, in the case of any partial redemption, selection of the Notes for redemption will be made by the Trustee not more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date (except that such notice may be delivered more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date if the Redemption Date is delayed as provided in Section 6 of the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture) on a pro rata basis, by lot or by such other method as the Trustee in its sole discretion shall deem to be fair and appropriate (provided, however, that any redemption of Global Notes shall be in accordance with the applicable procedures of DTC), in integral multiples of $1 or integral multiple of $1 in excess thereof, although no Note of the Minimum Denomination in original principal amount or less will be redeemed in part.

The Trustee shall promptly notify the Company and Intermediate Holdings in writing of the Notes selected for redemption and, in the case of any Note selected for partial redemption, the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. On and after the Redemption Date, interest will cease to accrue on Notes or portions thereof called for redemption.

For all purposes of this Indenture, unless the context otherwise requires, all provisions relating to the redemption of Notes shall relate, in the case of any Note redeemed or to be redeemed only in part, to the portion of the principal amount of such Note that has been or is to be redeemed.

Section 1005. Notice of Redemption. Subject to the final paragraph of Section 110, unless otherwise specified for Notes of any series in the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture, as contemplated by Section 301, notice of redemption or purchase as provided in Section 1001 shall be given electronically or, at the Company's or Intermediate Holdings' option, by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not less than 10 nor more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date (except that such notice may be delivered more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date if such notice is issued in connection with the defeasance of Notes pursuant to Section 1201 or a satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture pursuant to Section 1101 or of such Notes pursuant to Section 1102, or if the Redemption Date is delayed as provided in Section 6 of the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture), to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at such Holder's address appearing in the Note Register.

Any such notice shall state:

(1) the expected Redemption Date,

(2) the redemption price (or the formula by which the redemption price will be determined),

(3) if less than all Outstanding Notes are to be redeemed, the identification (and, in the case of partial redemption, the portion of the respective principal amounts) of the Notes to be redeemed,

(4) that, on the Redemption Date, the redemption price will become due and payable upon each such Note, and that, unless the Issuers default in making such redemption payment or the Paying Agent is prohibited from making such payment pursuant to the terms of this Indenture, interest thereon shall cease to accrue from and after said date, and

(5) the place where such Notes are to be surrendered for payment of the redemption price.

In addition, if such redemption, purchase or notice is subject to satisfaction (or, waiver by the Company or Intermediate Holdings in its sole discretion) of one or more conditions precedent, as permitted by Section 6 of the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture, such notice shall describe each such condition, and if applicable, shall state that, in the Company's or Intermediate Holdings' discretion, the Redemption Date may be delayed until such time as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied (or waived by the Company or Intermediate Holdings in its sole discretion), or such redemption or purchase may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been (or, in the Company's or Intermediate Holdings' sole determination, may not be) satisfied (or waived by the Company in its sole discretion) by the Redemption Date, or by the Redemption Date as so delayed.

The Company or Intermediate Holdings may provide in such notice that payment of the redemption price and the performance of the Issuers' obligations with respect to such redemption may be performed by another Person.

Notice of such redemption or purchase of Notes to be so redeemed or purchased at the election of the Company or Intermediate Holdings shall be given by the Company or Intermediate Holdings or, at the Company's or Intermediate Holdings' request (made to the Trustee at least 15 days (or such shorter period as shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee) prior to the Redemption Date), by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Issuers. Any such request will set forth the information to be stated in such notice, as provided by this Section 1005.

The notice if mailed in the manner herein provided shall be conclusively presumed to have been given, whether or not the Holder receives such notice. In any case, failure to give such notice by mail or any defect in the notice to the Holder of any Note designated for redemption as a whole or in part shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for the redemption of any other Note.

Section 1006. Deposit of Redemption Price. Unless otherwise specified for Notes of any series in the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture, as contemplated by Section 301, on or prior to 12:00 p.m., New York City time, on any Redemption Date, the Company shall deposit or cause to be deposited with the Trustee or with a Paying Agent (or, if the Company is acting as its own Paying Agent, the Company shall segregate and hold in trust as provided in Section 403) an amount of money sufficient to pay the redemption price of, and any accrued and unpaid interest on, all the Notes or portions thereof which are to be redeemed on that date.

Section 1007. Notes Payable on Redemption Date. Notice of redemption having been given as provided in this Article X or in the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture, the Notes so to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become due and payable at the redemption price specified herein or in the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture and from and after such date (unless the Issuers shall default in the payment of the redemption price or the Paying Agent is prohibited from paying the redemption price pursuant to the terms of this Indenture) such Notes shall cease to bear interest. Upon surrender of such Notes for redemption in accordance with such notice, such Notes shall be paid by or on behalf of the Issuers at the redemption price. Installments of interest whose Interest Payment Date is on or prior to the Redemption Date shall be payable to the Holders of such Notes registered as such on the relevant Regular Record Dates according to their terms and the provisions of Section 307.

On and after any Redemption Date, if money sufficient to pay the redemption price of and any accrued and unpaid interest on Notes called for redemption shall have been made available in accordance with Section 1006, the Notes (or the portions thereof) called for redemption will cease to accrue interest and the only right of the Holders of such Notes (or portions thereof) will be to receive payment of the redemption price of and, subject to the last sentence of the preceding paragraph, any accrued and unpaid interest on such Notes (or portions thereof) to but not including the Redemption Date. If any Note (or portion thereof) called for redemption shall not be so paid upon surrender thereof for redemption, the principal (and premium, if any) shall, until paid, bear interest from the Redemption Date at the rate borne by the Note (or portion thereof).

Section 1008. Notes Redeemed in Part. Any Note that is to be redeemed only in part shall be surrendered at the Place of Payment (with due endorsement by, or a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Company duly executed by, the Holder thereof or its attorney duly authorized in writing) and the Issuers shall execute and (upon receipt of an Authentication Order) the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver to the Holder of such Note without service charge, a new Note or Notes, of any authorized denomination as requested by such Holder in aggregate principal amount equal to and in exchange for the unredeemed portion of the principal of the Note so surrendered (or if the Note is a global note, an adjustment shall be made to the schedule attached thereto).

Section 1009. Mandatory Redemption.

(a) Within five Business Days following the day on which financial statements in respect of the immediately preceding Fiscal Year are delivered pursuant to Section 405(a)(i) (commencing with the fiscal year ending on or about December 31, ~~[~~2026~~]~~[21]) (or, if later, the date on which such financial statements are required to be delivered) (each, an "ECF ~~Redemption~~ Date"), the Issuers shall, at their option, redeem (an "~~Excess Cash Flow~~ECF Redemption") or offer to purchase (any such offer, an "ECF Offer") the Notes, in each case in an amount equal to the Excess Cash Flow Sweep Payment (if any), minus the portion of such Excess Cash Flow Sweep Payment applied or offered (to the extent the Issuers or any of their Subsidiaries are required by the terms thereof) to prepay, redeem, repay or purchase Pari Passu Indebtedness on no more than a pro rata basis with the Notes (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Exit Term Loans), in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Indenture and in Section 1009(b) below.

(b) The Issuers shall give notice to the Holders (with a copy to the Trustee) of ~~any Excess Cash Flow~~(i) in the case of an ECF Redemption, at least three Business Days or (ii) in the case of an ECF Offer at least ten calendar days prior to the applicable ECF ~~Redemption~~ Date. Subject to the following sentence, once given, such notice shall be irrevocable and all amounts subject to such notice shall be due and payable on the ECF ~~Redemption~~ Date (except as otherwise provided in the last sentence of this Section 1009(b)). Any such notice of ~~Excess Cash Flow~~ECF Redemption may state that such notice is conditioned upon the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event specified therein (including the effectiveness of other credit facilities), in which case such notice may be revoked or extended by the Issuers (by written notice to the Holders, with a copy to the Trustee, on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied or waived. Upon request by the Issuers at least two (2) Business Days prior to the requested date of delivery (or such shorter period as the Trustee may reasonably agree), the Trustee shall immediately give notice prepared by the Issuers to each Holder of the ~~Excess Cash Flow~~ECF Redemption (or ECF Offer, as applicable) and the ECF ~~Redemption~~ Date. ~~The~~In the case of an ECF Offer, the Issuers ~~(in their sole discretion) may~~shall give each Noteholder the option ~~(in its sole discretion) to elect to decline any such ECF Offer~~to require the Issuers to purchase their Notes by giving notice of such election in writing to the ~~Trustee by [~~Issuers (or Paying Agent on their behalf) by 11:00 A.M.~~]~~, New York City time, on the date that is one Business Day prior to the ECF ~~Redemption~~ Date. ~~Upon receipt by the Trustee of such notice, the Trustee shall immediately notify the Issuers of such election.~~ Any amounts ~~so declined by any Noteholder~~not required to be used in connection with an ECF Offer (the "ECF Declined Amounts") may, at the option of Intermediate Holdings, be applied to the payment or prepayment of Indebtedness, including any Junior Debt, or otherwise be retained by Intermediate Holdings and its Restricted Subsidiaries and/or applied by Intermediate Holdings or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries in any manner not inconsistent with this Indenture. ~~22~~

(c) Except as provided in this Section 1009, any ~~Excess Cash Flow~~ECF Redemption shall comply with the provisions of this Article X applicable to redemptions. Any ECF Offer shall comply with clause (d) below.

(d) The Issuers will comply, to the extent applicable, with the requirements of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and any other securities laws or regulations in connection with the repurchase of Notes pursuant to this Section 1009. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with the provisions of this Section 1009, the Issuers will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this Section 1009 by virtue thereof.

Section 1010. Optional Redemption and Optional Offer to Purchase.

(a) In connection with any optional redemption effected pursuant to this Indenture, including as supplemented by any Notes Supplemental Indenture, the Notes eligible for redemption in connection with any optional redemption shall be selected by the Trustee

~~22 Note to A&B: These mechanics are meant to track the cash flow credit agreement, so we have pushed back on your comments where they deviate from the corresponding cash flow language (see subsection 4.4(h) thereof). In addition, under the current construct, the Issuers retain the ability to either (1) redeem the notes in an amount equal to the ECF payment or (2) make an offer to redeem (see the definition of "ECF Offer" so we think our existing language already comports with the DTC).~~ pursuant to Section 1004; provided that the Issuer shall cause that any optional redemption shall be pro rata with the Exit Term Loans.

(b) The Issuer shall also be entitled to commence at its option at any time, subject to the requirements of this Section 1010 and of the Pari Passu Intercreditor Agreement, an optional offer to purchase any Notes (an "Optional Purchase Offer") which shall be effected as described in clause (c) below; provided that any optional redemption or Optional Purchase Offer (subject to Section 1010(c)) shall be pro rata with the Exit Term Loans.

(c) In the case of an Optional Purchase Offer, The Issuers shall give notice to the Holders (with a copy to the Trustee) at least ten (10) Business Days prior to the date the Issuers propose to purchase Notes (such date, the "Optional Purchase Date"). Such notice shall state that the Issuers are offering to purchase Notes on or before the applicable Optional Purchase Date. Subject to the following sentence, once given, such notice shall be irrevocable and all amounts subject to such notice shall be due and payable on the Optional Purchase Date (except as otherwise provided in the last sentence of this Section 1010(c)). Any such notice may state that such notice is conditioned upon the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event specified therein (including the effectiveness of other credit facilities), in which case such notice may be revoked or extended by the Issuers (by written notice to the Holders, with a copy to the Trustee, on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied or waived. Upon request by the Issuers at least two (2) Business Days prior to the requested date of delivery (or such shorter period as the Trustee may reasonably agree), the Trustee shall immediately give notice prepared by the Issuers to each Holder of the Optional Purchase Offer and the Optional Purchase Date. In such notice given by the Issuers (or Trustee or other Paying Agent on their behalf), the Issuers shall give each Noteholder the option to require the Issuers to purchase their Notes by giving notice of such election in writing to the Issuers (or Paying Agent on their behalf) by 11:00 A.M., New York City time, on the date that is one Business Day prior to the Optional Purchase Date. Any amounts not required to be used in connection with an Optional Purchase Offer (the "Declined Optional Redemption Amounts") may, at the option of Intermediate Holdings, be applied to the payment or prepayment of Indebtedness, including any Junior Debt, or otherwise be retained by Intermediate Holdings and its Restricted Subsidiaries and/or applied by Intermediate Holdings or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries in any manner not inconsistent with this Indenture (including, for the avoidance of doubt, to prepay the Exit Term Loans on a non-pro rata basis with the Notes).

(d) The Issuers will comply, to the extent applicable, with the requirements of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and any other securities laws or regulations in connection with the repurchase of Notes pursuant to this Section 1010. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with the provisions of this Section 1010, the Issuers will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this Section 1010 by virtue thereof.

(iii) the Company and Intermediate Holdings have delivered to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each to the effect that all conditions precedent provided for in this Section 1102 relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the Notes of such series have been complied with; provided that any such counsel may rely on any Officer's Certificate as to matters of fact (including as to compliance with the foregoing clauses (i), (ii) and (iii)).

Notwithstanding the satisfaction and discharge of the Notes of any series, if such satisfaction and discharge is effected through redemption in accordance with Section 1102(i)(b)(3), the provisions of Section 1007 shall survive such satisfaction and discharge, and the other provisions of Article X (and Section 6 of each applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture) shall survive such satisfaction and discharge until the Redemption Date shall have occurred.

Section 1103. Application of Trust Money. Subject to the provisions of the last paragraph of Section 403, all money and/or U.S. Government Obligations (including the proceeds thereof) deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 1101 or Section 1102 shall be held in trust and applied by it, in accordance with the provisions of the Notes and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through any Paying Agent as the Trustee may determine, to the Persons entitled thereto, of the principal (and premium, if any) and interest on the Notes; but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

ARTICLE XII

DEFEASANCE OR COVENANT DEFEASANCE

Section 1201. The Company's Option to Effect Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance. The Company or Intermediate Holdings may, at their option, at any time, elect to have terminated the obligations of the Issuers ~~Holdings~~ with respect to Outstanding Notes, each Parent Guarantors with respect to its Parent Guarantee and ~~(ii) of the~~each Subsidiary Guarantor~~s~~ with respect to the Subsidiary Guarantees, to have released any and all Liens on the Collateral securing the Indebtedness evidenced by the Notes and to have terminated the Note Security Documents, in each case, as set forth in this Article XII, and elect to have either Section 1202 or Section 1203 be applied to all of the Outstanding Notes (the "Defeased Notes"), upon compliance with the conditions set forth below in Section 1204. Either Section 1202 or Section 1203 may be applied to the Defeased Notes to any Redemption Date or the Stated Maturity of the Notes.

Section 1202. Defeasance and Discharge. Upon the Company's or Intermediate Holdings' exercise under Section 1201 of the option applicable to this Section 1202, the Issuers shall be deemed to have been released and discharged from their obligations with respect to the Defeased Notes, ~~Holdings~~each Parent Guarantor shall be deemed to have been released and discharged from its obligations with respect to the Parent Guarantee, and the Subsidiary Guarantors shall be deemed to have been released and discharged from their obligations with respect to the Subsidiary Guarantees and the Issuers and the Guarantors shall have released any and all Liens on the Collateral securing the Indebtedness evidenced by the Notes and to have terminated the Note Security Documents on the date the relevant conditions set forth in Section 1204 are satisfied (hereinafter, "Defeasance"). For this purpose, such Defeasance means that the Issuers shall be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire Indebtedness represented by the Defeased Notes, which shall thereafter be deemed to be "Outstanding" only for the purposes of Section 1205 and the other Sections of this Indenture referred to in clauses (a) and (b) below, and an Issuer, ~~Holdings~~a Parent Guarantor and each of the Subsidiary Guarantors shall be deemed to have satisfied all other obligations under such Notes, the Parent Guarantees, the Subsidiary Guarantees and this Indenture insofar as such Notes are concerned (and the Trustee, at the expense of the Issuers, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging the same), except for the following, which shall survive until otherwise terminated or discharged hereunder: (a) the rights of Holders of Defeased Notes to receive, solely from the trust fund described in Section 1204 and as more fully set forth in such Section, payments in respect of principal of and premium, if any, and interest on such Notes when such payments are due, (b) the Issuers' obligations with respect to such Defeased Notes under Sections 304, 305, 306, 402 and 403, (c) the rights, powers, trusts, duties and immunities of the Trustee hereunder, including the Trustee's rights (and the Issuers' obligations) under Section 707, and (d) this Article XII. If the Issuers exercise their option under this Section 1202, payment of the Notes may not be accelerated because of an Event of Default with respect thereto. Subject to compliance with this Article XII, the Company or Intermediate Holdings may, at their option and at any time, exercise their option under this Section 1202 notwithstanding the prior exercise of their option under Section 1203 with respect to the Notes.

Section 1203. Covenant Defeasance. Upon the Company's or Intermediate Holdings' exercise under Section 1201 of the option applicable to this Section 1203, (a) each Issuer and the Guarantors shall be released from their respective obligations under any covenant or provision contained in Section 405, Sections 407 through 415 and Section 1503, and the provisions of clauses (iii), (iv) and (v) and the second paragraph of Section 501(a) shall not apply, and (b) the occurrence of any event specified in clause (iv), (v) (with respect to Section 405, Sections 407 through 415, inclusive and Section 1503), (vi), (vii), (viii) (with respect to Subsidiaries), (ix) (with respect to Subsidiaries), (x), (xi) or (xii) of Section 601 shall be deemed not to be or result in an Event of Default, in each case with respect to the Defeased Notes on and after the date the conditions set forth below are satisfied (hereinafter, "Covenant Defeasance"), and the Notes shall thereafter be deemed not to be "Outstanding" for the purposes of any direction, waiver, consent or declaration or Act of Holders (and the consequences of any thereof) in connection with such covenants or provisions, but shall continue to be deemed "Outstanding" for all other purposes hereunder. For this purpose, such Covenant Defeasance means that, with respect to the Outstanding Notes, the Issuers and the Guarantors may omit to comply with and shall have no liability in respect of any term, condition or limitation set forth in any such covenant or provision, whether directly or indirectly, by reason of any reference elsewhere herein to any such covenant or provision or by reason of any reference in any such covenant or provision to any other provision herein or in any other document and such omission to comply shall not constitute a Default or an Event of Default under Section 601, but, except as specified above, the remainder of this Indenture and such Outstanding Notes shall be unaffected thereby.

Section 1204. Conditions to Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance. The following shall be the conditions to application of either Section 1202 or Section 1203 to the Outstanding Notes:

(1) The Issuers shall have irrevocably deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee, in trust, money or U.S. Government Obligations, or a combination thereof, in amounts as will be sufficient (without reinvestment), to pay and discharge the principal of, and premium, if any, and interest on the Defeased Notes issued by the Issuers to the Stated Maturity or relevant Redemption Date in accordance with the terms of this Indenture and the Notes (provided that if such redemption is made pursuant to Section 6(d) of the applicable Notes Supplemental Indenture, (x) the amount of money or U.S. Government Obligations or a combination thereof that the Issuers must irrevocably deposit or cause to be deposited shall be determined using an assumed Applicable Premium calculated as of the date of such deposit, as calculated by the Company in good faith and (y) the Issuers must irrevocably deposit or cause to be deposited additional money in trust on or prior to the Redemption Date, as required by Section 1006, as necessary to pay the Applicable Premium as determined on such Redemption Date);

(2) No Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit;

(3) Such deposit shall not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a Default or Event of Default under, this Indenture or any other material agreement or instrument to which the Issuers is a party or by which either of them is bound;

(4) In the case of an election under Section 1202, the Company or Intermediate Holdings shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel from Debevoise & Plimpton LLP or other counsel in the United States to the effect that (x) the Issuers have received from, or there has been published by, the Internal Revenue Service a ruling or (y) since the Issue Date, there has been a change in the applicable Federal income tax law, in either case to the effect that, and based thereon such opinion shall confirm to the effect that, the Holders of the Outstanding Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such Defeasance and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Defeasance had not occurred; provided that such Opinion of Counsel need not be delivered if all Notes theretofore authenticated and delivered (other than (i) Notes that have been destroyed, lost or stolen and that have been replaced or paid as provided in Section 306, and (ii) Notes for whose payment money has theretofore been deposited in trust or segregated and held in trust by the Issuers and thereafter repaid to the Issuers or discharged from such trust, as provided in Section 403) not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation have become due and payable, will become due and payable at their Stated Maturity within one year, or have been called for redemption or are to be called for redemption within one year under arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee for the giving of notice of redemption by the Trustee in the name, and at the expense, of the Issuers;

(5) In the case of an election under Section 1203, the Company or Intermediate Holdings shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel from Debevoise & Plimpton LLP or other counsel in the United States to the effect that the Holders of the Outstanding Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such Covenant Defeasance and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Covenant Defeasance had not occurred; and

(6) The Company or Intermediate Holdings shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel from Debevoise & Plimpton LLP or other counsel in the United States, each to the effect that all conditions precedent provided for in this Section 1204 relating to either the Defeasance under Section 1202 or the Covenant Defeasance under Section 1203, as the case may be, have been complied with. In rendering such Opinion of Counsel, counsel may rely on an Officer's Certificate as to compliance with the foregoing clauses (1), (2) and (3) of this Section 1204 or as to any matters of fact.

Section 1205. Deposited Money and U.S. Government Obligations to Be Held in Trust; Other Miscellaneous Provisions. Subject to the provisions of the last paragraph of Section 403, all money and U.S. Government Obligations (including the proceeds thereof) deposited with the Trustee (or such other Person that would qualify to act as successor trustee under Article VII, collectively and solely for purposes of this Section 1205, the "Trustee") pursuant to Section 1204 in respect of the Defeased Notes shall be held in trust and applied by the Trustee, in accordance with the provisions of such Notes and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through any Paying Agent as the Trustee may determine, to the Holders of such Notes of all sums due and to become due thereon in respect of principal, premium, if any, and interest, but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

The Issuers shall pay and indemnify the Trustee and its agents and hold them harmless against any tax, fee or other charge imposed on or assessed against the U.S. Government Obligations deposited by the Issuers pursuant to Section 1204, or the principal, premium, if any, and interest received in respect thereof, other than any such tax, fee or other charge that by law is for the account of the Holders of the Defeased Notes.

Anything in this Article XII to the contrary notwithstanding, the Trustee shall deliver to the Issuers from time to time, upon Issuer Request, any money or U.S. Government Obligations held by it as provided in Section 1204 that, in the opinion of a nationally recognized accounting or investment banking firm expressed in a written certification thereof to the Trustee, are in excess of the amount thereof that would then be required to be deposited to effect an equivalent Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance. Subject to Article VII, the Trustee shall not incur any liability to any Person by relying on such opinion.

Section 1206. Reinstatement. If the Trustee or Paying Agent is unable to apply any money or U.S. Government Obligations in accordance with Section 1202 or 1203, as the case may be, by reason of any order or judgment of any court or governmental authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting such application, then the obligations of the Issuers, Holdings and the Subsidiary Guarantors under this Indenture, the Notes, the Parent Guarantee and the Subsidiary Guarantees shall be revived and reinstated as though no deposit had occurred pursuant to Section 1202 or 1203, as the case may be, until such time as the Trustee or Paying Agent is permitted to apply all such money and U.S. Government Obligations in accordance with Section 1202 or 1203, as the case may be; provided, however, that if the Issuers, ~~Holdings~~the Parent Guarantors or any Subsidiary Guarantor makes any payment of principal, premium, if any, or interest on any Note following the reinstatement of its obligations, the Issuers, ~~Holdings~~the Parent Guarantors or Subsidiary Guarantor, as the case may be, shall be subrogated to the rights of the Holders of such Notes to receive such payment from the money and U.S. Government Obligations held by the Trustee or Paying Agent.

Section 1207. Repayments to the Issuers. The Trustee shall pay to the Issuers upon Issuer Request any money held by it for the payment of principal or interest that remains unclaimed for two years after the Stated Maturity or the Redemption Date, as the case may be. After payment to the Issuers, Holders entitled to money must look to the Issuers for payment as general creditors unless an applicable abandoned property law designates another Person and all liability of the Trustee or Paying Agent with respect to such money shall thereupon cease.

ARTICLE XIII

SUBSIDIARY GUARANTEES

Section 1301. Guarantees Generally.[23]

(a) Guarantee of Each Subsidiary Guarantor. Each Subsidiary Guarantor, as primary obligor and not merely as surety, hereby jointly and severally, irrevocably and fully and unconditionally Guarantees, on a senior secured basis, the punctual payment when due, whether at Stated Maturity, by acceleration or otherwise, of all monetary obligations of the Issuers under this Indenture and the Notes, whether for principal of or interest on the Notes, expenses, indemnification or otherwise (all such obligations guaranteed by such Subsidiary Guarantors being herein called the "Subsidiary Guaranteed Obligations").

The obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor will be limited to the maximum amount as will, after giving effect to all other contingent and fixed liabilities of such Subsidiary Guarantor (including, but not limited to, any Guarantee by it of any Credit Facility Indebtedness) and after giving effect to any collections from or payments made by or on behalf of any other Subsidiary Guarantor in respect of the obligations of such other Subsidiary Guarantor under its Subsidiary Guarantee or pursuant to its contribution obligations under this Indenture, result in the obligations of such Subsidiary Guarantor under the Subsidiary Guarantee not constituting a fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer under applicable law, or being void or unenforceable under any law relating to insolvency of debtors.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the obligations of each German Subsidiary Guarantor are subject to the additional provisions set forth in Schedule 1301(i), to the extent applicable to such German Subsidiary Guarantor.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the obligations of each Irish Subsidiary Guarantor are subject to the additional provisions set forth in Schedule 1301(ii), to the extent applicable to such Irish Subsidiary Guarantor.

(b) Further Agreements of Each Subsidiary Guarantor. (i) Each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby agrees that (to the fullest extent permitted by law) its obligations hereunder shall be unconditional, irrespective of the validity, regularity or enforceability of this Indenture, the Notes or the obligations of the Issuers or any other Subsidiary Guarantor to the Holders or the Trustee hereunder or thereunder, the absence of any action to enforce the same, any waiver or consent by any Holder with respect to any provisions hereof or thereof, any release of any other Subsidiary Guarantor, the recovery of any judgment against any Issuer, any action to enforce the same, whether or not a notation concerning its Subsidiary Guarantee is made on any particular Note, or any other circumstance that might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a Subsidiary Guarantor.

[23] NTD: Subject to local counsel review.

(ii) Each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby waives (to the fullest extent permitted by law) the benefit of diligence, presentment, demand of payment, filing of claims with a court in the event of insolvency or bankruptcy of any Issuer, any right to require a proceeding first against any Issuer, protest, notice and all demands whatsoever and covenants that (except as otherwise provided in Section 1303) its Subsidiary Guarantee will not be discharged except by complete performance of the obligations contained in the Notes, this Indenture, the Note Security Documents and this Subsidiary Guarantee. Such Subsidiary Guarantee is a guarantee of payment and not of collection. Each Subsidiary Guarantor further agrees (to the fullest extent permitted by law) that, as between it, on the one hand, and the Holders of Notes and the Trustee, on the other hand, subject to this Article XIII, (1) the maturity of the obligations guaranteed by its Subsidiary Guarantee may be accelerated as and to the extent provided in Article VI for the purposes of such Subsidiary Guarantee, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such acceleration in respect of the obligations guaranteed by such Subsidiary Guarantee, and (2) in the event of any acceleration of such obligations as provided in Article VI, such obligations (whether or not due and payable) shall forthwith become due and payable by such Subsidiary Guarantor in accordance with the terms of this Section 1301 for the purpose of such Subsidiary Guarantee. Neither the Trustee nor any other Person shall have any obligation to enforce or exhaust any rights or remedies or to take any other steps under any security for the Subsidiary Guaranteed Obligations or against the Issuers or any other Person or any property of the Issuers or any other Person before the Trustee is entitled to demand payment and performance by any or all Subsidiary Guarantors of their obligations under their respective Subsidiary Guarantees or under this Indenture.

(iii) Until terminated in accordance with Section 1303, each Subsidiary Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect and continue to be effective should any petition be filed by or against any Issuer for liquidation or reorganization, should any Issuer become insolvent or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors or should a receiver, receiver and manager, interim receiver, monitor or trustee be appointed for all or any significant part of any Issuer's assets, and shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, continue to be effective or to be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment and performance of the obligations of the Loan Parties under the Notes are, pursuant to applicable law, rescinded or reduced in amount, or must otherwise be restored or returned by any obligee of the obligations, whether as a "voidable preference," "fraudulent transfer" or otherwise, all as though such payment or performance had not been made. In the event that any payment, or any part thereof, is rescinded, reduced, restored or returned, the Notes shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be reinstated and deemed reduced only by such amount paid and not so rescinded, reduced, restored or returned.

(c) Each Subsidiary Guarantor that makes a payment or distribution under its Subsidiary Guarantee shall have the right to seek contribution from the Issuers or any non-paying Subsidiary Guarantor that has also Guaranteed the relevant Subsidiary Guaranteed Obligations in respect of which such payment or distribution is made, so long as the exercise of such right does not impair the rights of the Holders under the Subsidiary Guarantees.

(d) Each Subsidiary Guarantor acknowledges that it will receive direct and indirect benefits from the financing arrangements contemplated by this Indenture and that its Subsidiary Guarantee, and the waiver set forth in Section 1305, are knowingly made in contemplation of such benefits.

(e) Each Subsidiary Guarantor, pursuant to its Subsidiary Guarantee, also hereby agrees to pay any and all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including reasonable counsel fees and expenses) incurred by the Trustee, the Note Collateral Agent or the Holders in enforcing any rights under its Subsidiary Guarantee.

(f) Each Brazilian Subsidiary Guarantor hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives all benefits under Articles 301, 333 (sole paragraph), 364, 366, 821, 827, 830, 834, 835, 837, 838 and 839 of the Brazilian Civil Code and under Articles 130, 131 and 794 of the Brazilian Code of Civil Procedure, to the extent applicable.

Section 1302. Continuing Guarantees. (a) Each Subsidiary Guarantee shall be a continuing Guarantee and shall (i) subject to Section 1303, remain in full force and effect until payment in full of the principal amount of all Outstanding Notes (whether by payment at maturity, purchase, repurchase, redemption, defeasance, retirement or other acquisition) and all other Subsidiary Guaranteed Obligations then due and owing unless earlier terminated as described below, (ii) be binding upon such Subsidiary Guarantor and (iii) inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Trustee, the Note Collateral Agent, the Holders and their permitted successors, transferees and assigns.

(b) The obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder shall continue to be effective or shall be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time any payment which would otherwise have reduced or terminated the obligations of any Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder and under its Subsidiary Guarantee (whether such payment shall have been made by or on behalf of the Issuers, or by or on behalf of a Subsidiary Guarantor) is rescinded or reclaimed from any of the Holders upon the insolvency, winding-up, bankruptcy, liquidation or reorganization of an Issuer, or any Subsidiary Guarantor or otherwise, all as though such payment had not been made.

Section 1303. Release of Subsidiary Guarantees. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1302, Subsidiary Guarantees will be subject to termination and discharge under the circumstances described in this Section 1303. Any Subsidiary Guarantor will automatically and unconditionally be released from all obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee, and such Subsidiary Guarantee shall thereupon terminate and be discharged and of no further force or effect, (i) concurrently with any direct or indirect sale or disposition (by merger or otherwise) of any Subsidiary Guarantor or any interest therein, or any other transaction, in accordance with the terms of this Indenture (including Section 411 and Section 501), following which such Subsidiary Guarantor is no longer a Restricted Subsidiary of Intermediate Holdings, (ii) subject to the Release Requirement, at any time that such Subsidiary Guarantor is (or, substantially concurrently with the release of the Subsidiary Guarantee of such Subsidiary Guarantor or if as a result of the release of the Subsidiary Guarantee of such Subsidiary Guarantor, will be) released from all of its obligations under its Guarantee of payment by the Issuers and all other Subsidiary Guarantors of any Indebtedness under the Senior Credit Facilities (including by reason of ceasing to be a borrower under the Senior ABL Facility) (it being understood that a release subject to contingent reinstatement is still a release, and that if any such Guarantee is so reinstated, such Subsidiary Guarantee shall be reinstated to the extent that such Subsidiary Guarantor would then be required to provide a Subsidiary Guarantee pursuant to Section 414)[24], (iii) upon the merger, amalgamation or consolidation of any Subsidiary Guarantor with and into an Issuer or another Subsidiary Guarantor that is the surviving Person in such merger or consolidation, or upon the liquidation of such Subsidiary Guarantor following the transfer of all of its assets to any of the Issuers and the other Subsidiary Guarantors, (iv) concurrently with any Subsidiary Guarantor ceasing to constitute a Wholly Owned Subsidiary of Intermediate Holdings (provided that Holdings shall not permit any Subsidiary to consummate a transaction in which such Subsidiary Guarantor shall cease to be a Wholly Owned Subsidiary of the Company except in connection with a bona-fide joint venture with an unaffiliated third party for a bona fide business purpose, using available Investment capacity), (v) [reserved], (vi) upon Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance of the Issuers' obligations, or satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture pursuant to Section 1101, or (vii) subject to Section 1302(b), upon payment in full of the aggregate principal amount of all Notes then Outstanding and all other Subsidiary Guaranteed Obligations then due and owing. In addition, the Company will have the right, upon 10 days' notice to the Trustee (or such shorter period as agreed to by the Trustee), to cause any Subsidiary Guarantor that has not guaranteed payment by the Company or another Subsidiary Guarantor of any Indebtedness of the Company or such other Subsidiary Guarantor under the Senior Credit Facilities to be unconditionally released from all obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee, and such Subsidiary Guarantee shall thereupon terminate and be discharged and of no further force or effect.

Upon any such occurrence specified in this Section 1303, the Trustee shall upon receipt of an Officer's Certificate, at the Issuers' expense, execute any documents reasonably requested by the Company or Intermediate Holdings in order to evidence such release, discharge and termination in respect of the applicable Subsidiary Guarantee. The Company or Intermediate Holdings shall deliver notice to the Trustee and the Note Collateral Agent of any release or termination contemplated under this Section 1303, but failure to so notify the Trustee or the Note Collateral Agent shall not invalidate such release or termination or constitute a Default or Event of Default by the Company or Intermediate Holdings.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Holder expressly and irrevocably agrees that it will not hinder, or direct the Trustee to take any action that will hinder, the automatic release of any Subsidiary Guarantee provided for by this Section 1303 to the extent the Company or Intermediate Holdings determines in good faith that the applicable transaction is permitted under this Indenture (including, without limitation, in connection with any disposition to Persons other than an Issuer or a Subsidiary Guarantor permitted under this Indenture), and each Holder expressly and irrevocably agrees that the Trustee shall be authorized to, and shall, take any necessary action to release any such Subsidiary Guarantee to the extent authorized to do so by this Section 1303 without any obligation or requirement to notify or obtain consent from any Holder (and the Trustee shall not condition any such actions on providing notice to, or obtaining consent from, the Holders).

Section 1304. [Reserved].

[24] ~~NTD: Duplicative of Section 414.~~

Section 1305. Waiver of Subrogation. Each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby irrevocably waives any claim or other rights that it may now or hereafter acquire against the Issuers that arise from the existence, payment, performance or enforcement of the Issuers' obligations under the Notes and this Indenture or such Subsidiary Guarantor's obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee and this Indenture, including any right of subrogation, reimbursement, exoneration, indemnification, and any right to participate in any claim or remedy of any Holder of Notes against the Issuers, whether or not such claim, remedy or right arises in equity, or under contract, statute or common law, until this Indenture is discharged and all of the Notes are discharged and paid in full. If any amount shall be paid to any Subsidiary Guarantor in violation of the preceding sentence and the Notes shall not have been paid in full, such amount shall be deemed to have been paid to such Subsidiary Guarantor for the benefit of, and held in trust for the benefit of, the Holders of the Notes, and shall forthwith be paid to the Trustee for the benefit of such Holders to be credited and applied upon the Notes, whether matured or unmatured, in accordance with the terms of this Indenture.

Section 1306. Notation Not Required. Neither an Issuer nor any Subsidiary Guarantor shall be required to make a notation on the Notes to reflect any Subsidiary Guarantee or any release, termination or discharge thereof.

Section 1307. Successors and Assigns of Subsidiary Guarantors. All covenants and agreements in this Indenture by each Subsidiary Guarantor shall bind its respective successors and assigns, whether so expressed or not.

Section 1308. Execution and Delivery of Subsidiary Guarantees. The ~~Company or Intermediate Holdings~~Issuers shall cause each Restricted Subsidiary that is required to become a Subsidiary Guarantor pursuant to Section 414, and each Subsidiary of the Company that the ~~Company or Intermediate Holdings~~Issuers cause~~s~~ to become a Subsidiary Guarantor pursuant to Section 414, to promptly execute and deliver to the Trustee a Guarantor Supplemental Indenture, or a supplemental indenture otherwise in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, evidencing its Subsidiary Guarantee on substantially the terms set forth in this Article XIII.

Section 1309. Notices. Notice to any Subsidiary Guarantor shall be sufficient if addressed to such Subsidiary Guarantor care of the Company or Intermediate Holdings at the address, place and manner provided in Section 109.

ARTICLE XIV

PARENT GUARANTEE

Section 1401. Guarantees Generally

(a) Guarantee of Parent Guarantor. Each of Holdings~~,~~ and Intermediate Holdings (together, the "Parent Guarantors"), as primary obligor and not merely as surety, hereby irrevocably and fully and unconditionally Guarantees (the "Parent Guarantee"), on a senior secured basis, the punctual payment when due, whether at Stated Maturity, by acceleration or otherwise, of all monetary obligations of the Issuers under this Indenture and the Notes, whether for principal of or interest on the Notes, expenses, indemnification or otherwise (all such obligations guaranteed by Holdings and Intermediate Holdings being herein called the "Parent Guaranteed Obligations").

The obligations of ~~Holdings~~the Parent Guarantors will be limited to the maximum amount as will, after giving effect to all other contingent and fixed liabilities of ~~Holdings~~the Parent Guarantors (including, but not limited to, any Guarantee by it of any Credit Facility Indebtedness), result in the obligations of ~~Holdings~~each of the Parent Guarantors under the Parent Guarantee not constituting a fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer under applicable law, or being void or unenforceable under any law relating to insolvency of debtors.

~~Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture or any Note Security Document to the contrary, including Section 1401(b)(iii) hereof, (i) the obligations of Holdings under this Indenture and the Note Security Documents, including in respect of the Parent Guaranteed Obligations, are expressly limited recourse obligations of Holdings, and such obligations shall be payable solely from, limited to, and shall in no event exceed, the Capital Stock of Intermediate Holdings pledged by Holdings under the Note Security Documents, and (ii) upon the collection, sale or disposition of, or other realization upon, the Capital Stock of Intermediate Holdings pledged by Holdings by or on behalf of the Trustee, the Holders or the Note Collateral Agent, the obligations of Holdings under this Indenture and the Note Security Documents, including in respect of the Parent Guaranteed Obligations, shall be irrevocably and indefeasibly terminated and shall not be subject to reinstatement under any circumstance.~~

(b) Further Agreements of Parent Guarantors. (i) ~~Holdings~~Each Parent Guarantor hereby agrees that (to the fullest extent permitted by law) its obligations hereunder shall be unconditional, irrespective of the validity, regularity or enforceability of this Indenture, the Notes or the obligations of the Issuers or any other Guarantor to the Holders or the Trustee hereunder or thereunder, the absence of any action to enforce the same, any waiver or consent by any Holder with respect to any provisions hereof or thereof, any release of any other Guarantor, the recovery of any judgment against an Issuer, any action to enforce the same, whether or not a notation concerning the Parent Guarantee is made on any particular Note, or any other circumstance that might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of Holdings.

(ii) ~~Holdings~~Each Parent Guarantor hereby waives (to the fullest extent permitted by law) the benefit of diligence, presentment, demand of payment, filing of claims with a court in the event of insolvency or bankruptcy of an Issuer, any right to require a proceeding first against an Issuer, protest, notice and all demands whatsoever and covenants that (except as otherwise provided in Section 1403) its Parent Guarantee will not be discharged except by complete performance of the obligations contained in the Notes, this Indenture, the Note Security Documents and this Parent Guarantee. The Parent Guarantee is a guarantee of payment and not of collection. ~~Holdings~~Each Parent Guarantor further agrees (to the fullest extent permitted by law) that, as between it, on the one hand, and the Holders of Notes and the Trustee, on the other hand, subject to this Article XIV, (1) the maturity of the obligations guaranteed by the Parent Guarantee may be accelerated as and to the extent provided in Article VI for the purposes of the Parent Guarantee, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such acceleration in respect of the obligations guaranteed by the Parent Guarantee, and (2) in the event of any acceleration of such obligations as provided in Article VI, such obligations (whether or not due and payable) shall forthwith become due and payable by ~~Holdings~~the applicable Parent Guarantor in accordance with the terms of this Section 1401 for the purpose of the Parent Guarantee. Neither the Trustee nor any other Person shall have any obligation to enforce or exhaust any rights or remedies or to take any other steps under any security for the Parent Guaranteed Obligations or against the Issuers or any other Person or any property of an Issuer or any other Person before the Trustee is entitled to demand payment and performance by ~~Holdings~~the applicable Parent Guarantor of its obligations under the Parent Guarantee or under this Indenture.

(iii) Until terminated in accordance with Section 1403, the Parent Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect and continue to be effective should any petition be filed by or against an Issuer for liquidation or reorganization, should an Issuer become insolvent or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors or should a receiver or trustee be appointed for all or any significant part of an Issuer's assets, and shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment and performance of the Notes are, pursuant to applicable law, rescinded or reduced in amount, or must otherwise be restored or returned by any obligee on such Notes, whether as a "voidable preference," "fraudulent transfer" or otherwise, all as though such payment or performance had not been made. (d) ~~Holdings~~Each Parent Guarantor acknowledges that it will receive direct and indirect benefits from the financing arrangements contemplated by this Indenture and that its Parent Guarantee, and the waiver set forth in Section 1405, are knowingly made in contemplation of such benefits.

Section 1501. Collateral and Security Documents. The punctual payment when due, whether at Stated Maturity, by acceleration or otherwise, of all monetary obligations of the Issuers and any Guarantor under this Indenture, the Notes and the Note Security Documents, whether for principal of or interest on the Notes, expenses, indemnification or otherwise, shall be secured as provided in the Note Security Documents, which define the terms of the Liens that secure the Secured Obligations, subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements. The Trustee and the Issuers hereby acknowledge and agree that the Note Collateral Agent holds the Collateral in trust for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in each case pursuant and subject to the terms of the Note Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements. Each Holder, by accepting a Note, consents and agrees to the terms of the Note Security Documents (including the provisions providing for the possession, use, release and foreclosure of Collateral), this Indenture and the Intercreditor Agreements, in each case as the same may be in effect or may be amended, supplemented, waived or otherwise modified from time to time in accordance with their terms, and authorizes and directs the Note Collateral Agent to enter into the Note Security Documents (including any Note Security Documents entered into after the Issue Date) and the Intercreditor Agreements and to perform its obligations and exercise its rights thereunder in accordance therewith. ~~[25] Note to Draft: To be conformed to Exit Cash Flow Collateral Agreement. Note to D&P: If this release will be in the Exit Cash Flow Collateral Agreement, shouldn't we just put in the corresponding Collateral Agreement for the Notes? Fine to include if this concept is agreed in the Exit Cash Flow Credit Agreement, but think we should mirror their structure. Note to Milbank: The form indenture and form credit agreement are slightly different in structure but substantively designed to mirror each other. Taking this provision out here and putting it in the collateral agreement may result in unanticipated bugs in the other provisions, so we would prefer to keep it in, but if moving it is purely a formal change, we don't care.~~ to the intent and purposes herein expressed. The Issuers shall, and shall cause each of the Guarantors to, use commercially reasonable efforts to take any and all actions reasonably necessary to cause the Note Security Documents to create and maintain, as security for the Secured Obligations, a valid and enforceable perfected Lien and security interest in and on all of the Collateral in favor of the Note Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties, as and to the extent contemplated by the Note Security Documents and subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements, including making all filings and recordings (including filings of continuation statements, financing change statements and amendments to financing statements that may be necessary to continue the effectiveness of such financing statements) or recordings and taking all other similar actions as are reasonably necessary or required by the Note Security Documents or that the Note Collateral Agent may reasonably request (to the extent required under the Note Security Documents) in order to create, preserve, validate, maintain and perfect (at the sole cost and expense of the Issuers and the Guarantors) the security interest and liens created by the Note Security Documents in the Collateral as a perfected security interest, in each case other than with respect to any Collateral the lien or security interest in or on which is not required to be maintained or perfected under the Note Security Documents, and subject to Liens permitted under this Indenture, including Permitted Liens and other Liens permitted by Section 413. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Loan Party has created a valid and enforceable perfected Lien and security interest in any Collateral in favor of the Collateral Agent (as defined in the Exit Credit Agreement) for the benefit of the Secured Parties (as defined in the Exit Credit Agreement) then the Issuers shall, and shall cause each of the Guarantors to, to take any and all actions reasonably necessary to cause the Note Security Documents to create and maintain, as security for the Secured Obligations, a valid and enforceable perfected Lien and security interest in and on all of the applicable Collateral in favor of the Note Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties as and to the extent contemplated by the Note Security Documents and subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements, including making all filings and recordings (including filings of continuation statements and amendments to financing statements that may be necessary to continue the effectiveness of such financing statements) or recordings and taking all other similar actions as are reasonably necessary or required by the Note Security Documents or that the Note Collateral Agent may reasonably request (to the extent required under the Note Security Documents) in order to create, preserve, validate, maintain and perfect (at the sole cost and expense of the Issuers and the Guarantors) the security interest and liens created by the Note Security Documents in the Collateral as a perfected security interest. In addition, the Trustee and Note Collateral Agent shall have no responsibility or liability (i) in connection with the acts or omissions of the Issuers in respect of the foregoing or (ii) for or with respect to the legality, validity and enforceability of any security interest created in the Collateral or the perfection and priority of such security interest. The Issuers and the Guarantors shall continue to have the right to possess and control their property and assets constituting Collateral and exercise all rights with respect thereto, subject to the terms of the Note Security Documents.

The Collateral shall not at any time include any Excluded Assets. Without limiting the foregoing, to the extent constituting Excluded Assets, the Collateral shall not include any Capital Stock and other securities of a Subsidiary of the Company to the extent that the pledge of or grant of any other Lien on such Capital Stock and other securities for the benefit of any holders of securities results in the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries being required to file separate financial statements for such Subsidiary with the SEC (or any other governmental authority) pursuant to either Rule 3-10 or 3-16 of Regulation S-X under the Securities Act, or any other law, rule or regulation as in effect from time to time, but only to the extent necessary to not be subject to such requirement.

Collateral of each Issuer will secure the Obligations of such Issuer under the Notes, Collateral of ~~Holdings~~each Parent Guarantor will secure the Obligations of ~~Holdings~~such Parent Guarantor under the Parent Guarantee and Collateral of each Subsidiary Guarantor will secure the Obligations of such Subsidiary Guarantor under its Subsidiary Guarantee.

Neither the Trustee nor the Note Collateral Agent shall be liable for any such release undertaken in good faith and in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Section 1508. Reports and Certificates Relating to Collateral. Any release of Collateral permitted by Section 1502 shall be deemed not to impair the Liens under this Indenture and the U.S. Collateral Agreement and the other Note Security Documents in contravention thereof.

Each of the Issuers and the Guarantors may, subject to the other provisions of this Indenture, among other things, without any release or consent by the Trustee, the Note Collateral Agent, the Holders or any other Secured Party, conduct ordinary course activities with respect to the Collateral, including, (i) selling or otherwise disposing of, in any transaction or series of related transactions, any property or assets that is or has become worn out, defective, obsolete or not used or useful in the business of the Issuers and the Guarantors; (ii) abandoning, terminating, canceling, releasing or making alterations in or substitutions for any leases, contracts or other agreements or instruments; (iii) surrendering or modifying any franchise, license or permit that it may hold or own or under which it may be operating; (iv) altering, repairing, replacing, changing the location or position of or adding to its structures, machinery, systems, equipment, fixtures and appurtenances; (v) granting a license of any intellectual property; (vi) selling, transferring or otherwise disposing of inventory in the ordinary course of business; (vii) collecting accounts receivable in the ordinary course of business; (viii) making cash payments (including for the repayment of Indebtedness or payment of interest) from cash that is at any time part of the Collateral in the ordinary course of business; and (ix) abandoning any intellectual property that is no longer used or useful in the business of the Issuers and the Guarantors.

Section 1509. Note Collateral Agent. (a) The Trustee and each of the Holders by acceptance of the Notes hereby designates and appoints the Note Collateral Agent as its collateral agent under this Indenture and the Note Security Documents and the Trustee and each of the Holders by acceptance of the Notes hereby irrevocably authorizes the Note Collateral Agent to take such action on its behalf under the provisions of this Indenture and the Note Security Documents to exercise such powers and perform such duties as are expressly delegated to the Note Collateral Agent by the terms of this Indenture and the Note Security Documents, together with such powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. The Note Collateral Agent agrees to act as such on the express conditions contained in this Section 1509. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained elsewhere in this Indenture and the Note Security Documents, the Note Collateral Agent shall not have any duties or responsibilities, except those expressly set forth herein, nor shall the Note Collateral Agent have or be deemed to have any fiduciary relationship with the Trustee, any Holder or the Company or any Guarantor, and no implied covenants, functions, responsibilities, duties, obligations or liabilities shall be read into this Indenture and the Note Security Documents or otherwise exist against the Note Collateral Agent. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing sentence, the use of the term "agent" in this Indenture with reference to the Note Collateral Agent is not intended to connote any fiduciary or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable law, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between independent contracting parties. Except as expressly otherwise provided in this Indenture, the Note Collateral Agent shall have and may use its sole discretion with respect to exercising or refraining from exercising any discretionary rights or taking or refraining from taking any actions that the Note Collateral Agent is expressly entitled to take or assert under this Indenture and the Note Security Documents, including the exercise of remedies pursuant to Article VI, and any action so taken or not taken shall be deemed consented to by the Trustee and the Holders.

(b) The Note Collateral Agent may execute any of its duties under this Indenture or the Note Security Documents by or through agents or attorneys-in-fact and shall be entitled to advice of counsel concerning all matters pertaining to such duties and the Note Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney-in-fact appointed with due care by it hereunder.

(c) No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Note Collateral Agent from liability for its own grossly negligent action, its own grossly negligent failure to act, or its own willful misconduct, except that (i) this paragraph does not limit the effect of the third and fourth sentences of Section 1509(a); and (ii) the Note Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by the Chairman of the Board, the President or any other officer or assistant officer of the Note Collateral Agent assigned by the Note Collateral Agent to administer its collateral agency functions, unless it is proved that the Note Collateral Agent was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts. The recitals contained herein and in the Notes, shall be taken as the statements of the Issuers, and the Note Collateral Agent assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Note Collateral Agent makes no representations as to the validity or sufficiency of this Indenture or of the Notes, except that the Note Collateral Agent represents that it is duly authorized to execute and deliver this Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreements and the Note Security Documents and perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder. The Note Collateral Agent shall not be accountable for the use or application by the Company of the Notes or the proceeds thereof. None of the Note Collateral Agent or any of its agents shall be under any obligation to the Trustee or any Holder to ascertain or inquire as to the observance or performance by an Issuer or any Guarantor of any agreements contained in, or conditions of, this Indenture or the Note Security Documents, or to inspect the properties, books or records of the Company or any Guarantor.

(d) The Note Collateral Agent shall not be deemed to have knowledge or notice of the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default, unless the Note Collateral Agent shall have received written notice from the Trustee or the Issuers referring to this Indenture, describing such Default or Event of Default and stating that such notice is a "notice of default." The Note Collateral Agent shall take such action with respect to such Default or Event of Default as may be directed by the Trustee in accordance with Article VI (subject to this Section 1509 and the Intercreditor Agreements); provided, however, that unless and until the Note Collateral Agent has received any such direction, the Note Collateral Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) take such action, or refrain from taking such action, with respect to such Default or Event of Default as it shall deem advisable, subject to the Intercreditor Agreements.

(e) A resignation or removal of the Note Collateral Agent and appointment of a successor Note Collateral Agent shall become effective only upon the successor Note Collateral Agent's acceptance of appointment as provided in this Section 1509(e). The Note Collateral Agent may resign in writing at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Company and the Trustee at least 30 days prior to the proposed date of resignation. The Company may remove the Note Collateral Agent if: (i) the Note Collateral Agent is removed as Trustee under this Indenture; (ii) the Note Collateral Agent fails to meet the requirements for being a Trustee under Section 709; or (iii) the Note Collateral Agent shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver of the Note Collateral Agent or of its property shall be appointed or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Note Collateral or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation. If the Note Collateral Agent resigns or is removed or is incapable of acting, or if a vacancy exists in the office of Note Collateral Agent for any reason, the Company shall promptly appoint a successor Note Collateral Agent that complies with the eligibility requirements contained in this Indenture. If a successor Note Collateral Agent does not take office within 10 days after the retiring Note Collateral Agent resigns or is removed, the retiring Note Collateral Agent, the Company or the Holders of at least 10.0% in principal amount of the then outstanding principal amount of the Notes may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Note Collateral Agent. A successor Note Collateral Agent shall deliver a written acceptance of its appointment to the retiring Note Collateral Agent and to the Company. Thereupon, the resignation or removal of the retiring Note Collateral Agent shall become effective, and the successor Note Collateral Agent shall have all the rights, powers and the duties of the Note Collateral Agent under this Indenture and the Note Security Documents. The successor Note Collateral Agent shall mail a notice of its succession to the Trustee. The retiring Note Collateral Agent shall promptly transfer all property and assets held by it as Note Collateral Agent to the successor Note Collateral Agent, provided that all sums owing to the Note Collateral Agent hereunder have been paid. Notwithstanding replacement of the Note Collateral Agent pursuant to this Section 1509(e), the Company's obligations under this Section 1509 and Section 1511 shall continue for the benefit of the retiring Note Collateral Agent and the retiring Note Collateral Agent shall not by reason of such resignation be deemed to be released from liability as to any actions taken or omitted to be taken by it while it was the Note Collateral Agent under this Indenture. Any corporation into which the Note Collateral Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Note Collateral Agent shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all the corporate trust business of the Note Collateral Agent, shall be the successor of the Note Collateral Agent hereunder; provided such corporation shall be otherwise qualified and eligible under this Article XV, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

(f) The Note Collateral Agent shall be authorized to appoint co-note collateral agents as necessary in its sole discretion. Except as otherwise explicitly provided herein or in the Note Security Documents, neither the Note Collateral Agent nor any of its officers, directors, employees or agents shall be liable for failure to demand, collect or realize upon any of the Collateral or for any delay in doing so or shall be under any obligation to sell or otherwise dispose of any Collateral upon the request of any other Person or to take any other action whatsoever with regard to the Collateral or any part thereof. The Note Collateral Agent shall be accountable only for amounts that it actually receives as a result of the exercise of such powers, and neither the Note Collateral Agent nor any of its officers, directors, employees or agents shall be responsible for any act or failure to act hereunder, except for its own willful misconduct or gross negligence.

(g) The Note Collateral Agent and the Trustee, as applicable, are authorized and directed to (i) enter into the Note Security Documents, the ABL/Cash Flow Intercreditor Agreement and the Pari Passu Intercreditor Agreement, (ii) execute and deliver any other Intercreditor Agreement, and any amendments, amendments and restatements, restatements or waivers of or supplements to or other modifications to the Note Security Documents, the ABL/Cash Flow Intercreditor Agreement, the Pari Passu Intercreditor Agreement and any other Intercreditor Agreement, and to make or consent to any filings or take any other actions in connection therewith, as may be reasonably determined by the Company to be necessary or reasonably desirable for any Lien on the Collateral permitted under this Indenture to secure any Indebtedness to become a valid perfected Lien (with such priority as may be designated by the Company, to the extent that such priority is permitted by this Indenture), (iii) bind the Holders on the terms as set forth in the Note Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements and (iv) perform and observe its obligations under the Note Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements.

(h) The Trustee agrees that it shall not (and shall not be obliged to), and shall not instruct the Note Collateral Agent to, unless specifically requested to do so by a majority of the Holders and subject to the Intercreditor Agreements, take or cause to be taken any action to enforce its rights under this Indenture or against the Issuers and the Guarantors, including the commencement of any legal or equitable proceedings, to foreclose any Lien on, or otherwise enforce any security interest in, any of the Collateral.

(i) The Note Collateral Agent shall have no obligation whatsoever to the Trustee or any of the Holders to assure that the Collateral exists or is owned by the Issuers and the Guarantors or is cared for, protected or insured or has been encumbered, or that the Liens securing the Collateral have been properly or sufficiently or lawfully created, perfected, protected, maintained or enforced or are entitled to any particular priority, or to determine whether all of any Granting Party's property constituting Collateral intended to be subject to the Lien and security interest of the Note Security Documents has been properly and completely listed or delivered, as the case may be, or the genuineness, validity, marketability or sufficiency thereof or title thereto, or to exercise at all or in any particular manner or under any duty of care, disclosure or fidelity, or to continue exercising, any of the rights, authorities and powers granted or available to the Note Collateral Agent pursuant to this Indenture or any Note Security Document, it being understood and agreed that in respect of the Collateral, or any act, omission or event related thereto, the Note Collateral Agent may act in any manner it may in good faith deem appropriate, in its sole discretion and in accordance with this Indenture and the Intercreditor Agreements, and that the Note Collateral Agent shall have no other duty or liability whatsoever to the Trustee or any Holder as to any of the foregoing.

(j) The Note Collateral Agent and the Trustee, as applicable, are hereby directed and authorized to enter into any intercreditor agreement on behalf of, and binding with respect to, the Holders and their interest in the designated assets, in connection with the Incurrence of any Additional Fixed Asset Debt (as defined in the ABL/Cash Flow Intercreditor Agreement), including to clarify the respective rights of all parties in and to designated assets, including the ABL/Cash Flow Intercreditor Agreement and the Pari Passu Intercreditor Agreement. The Note Collateral Agent and the Trustee shall enter into the ABL/Cash Flow Intercreditor Agreement and the Pari Passu Intercreditor Agreement and any other Intercreditor Agreement at the request of the Company or Intermediate Holdings, provided that (in the case of such other Intercreditor Agreement) the Company or Intermediate Holdings will have delivered to the Note Collateral Agent and the Trustee an Officer's Certificate to the effect that such other Intercreditor Agreement complies with the provisions of this Indenture, the Notes, the other Note Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements. The Note Collateral Agent and the Trustee, as applicable, each agrees at the expense of the Company or Intermediate Holdings to execute and deliver any amendment to, waiver of, or supplement to any Note Security Document or Intercreditor Agreement authorized pursuant to Article IX.

(k) The Note Collateral Agent (i) shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith which it reasonably believes to be authorized or within its rights or powers, or for any error of judgment made in good faith by an authorized officer, unless it is proved that the Note Collateral Agent was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts, (ii) shall not be liable for interest on any money received by it except as the Note Collateral Agent may agree in writing with the Company (and money held in trust by the Note Collateral Agent need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law), and (iii) may consult with counsel of its selection and the advice or opinion of such counsel as to matters of law shall be full and complete authorization and protection from liability in respect of any action taken, omitted or suffered by it in good faith and in accordance with the advice or opinion of such counsel. The grant of permissive rights or powers to the Note Collateral Agent shall not be construed to impose duties to act.

(l) If at any time the Trustee shall receive (i) by payment, foreclosure, set-off or otherwise, any proceeds of Collateral or any payment with respect to the Obligations arising under, or relating to, this Indenture, except for any such proceeds or payment received by the Trustee from the Note Collateral Agent pursuant to the terms of this Indenture, or (ii) any payment from the Note Collateral Agent in excess of the amount required to be paid to the Trustee pursuant to Article VI, the Trustee shall promptly turn the same over to the Note Collateral Agent, in kind, and with any such endorsement as may be required to negotiate the same to the Note Collateral Agent.

(m) The Trustee and the Note Collateral Agent are each Holder's agents for the purpose of perfecting the Holders' security interest in assets that can be perfected only by possession. Should the Trustee obtain possession of any such Collateral, upon request from the Company or Intermediate Holdings, the Trustee shall notify the Note Collateral Agent thereof, and shall deliver such Collateral to the Note Collateral Agent or otherwise deal with such Collateral in accordance with the Note Collateral Agent's instructions.

(n) The Note Collateral Agent and its Affiliates may make loans to, issue letters of credit for the account of, accept deposits from, acquire equity interests in and generally engage in any kind of banking, trust, financial advisory, underwriting or other business with the Issuers and the Guarantors as though the Note Collateral Agent was not the Note Collateral Agent hereunder and without notice to or consent of the Trustee. The Trustee and the Holders acknowledge that, pursuant to such activities, the Note Collateral Agent and its Affiliates may receive information regarding the Issuers and the Guarantors (including information that may be subject to confidentiality obligations in favor of the Issuers or any Guarantor) and acknowledge that the Note Collateral Agent shall not be under any obligation to provide such information to the Trustee or the Holders. Nothing herein shall impose or imply any obligation on the part of the Note Collateral Agent to advance funds.

(b) For purposes of article 853 A of the Brazilian Civil Code, the Note Collateral Agent is hereby appointed pursuant to and under the terms of this Indenture by the Trustee and each of the Holders by acceptance of the Notes, with authority to perform in its own name, as a representative and for the benefit of itself, the Trustee and each of the Holders by acceptance of the Notes hereby, all actions described herein relating to the Brazilian Security Documents. Any reference in 853-A of the Brazilian Civil Code to the Note Collateral Agent's fiduciary duty and liability to Secured Parties shall be interpreted to reflect solely the duties and liabilities of the Note Collateral Agent set forth under this Indenture, and any proceeds received by the Note Collateral Agent shall be distributed at such times as the Note Collateral Agent shall determine without giving effect to Section 6 of 853-A of the Brazilian Civil Code.

(c) Beyond the exercise of reasonable care in the custody thereof, the Note Collateral Agent shall have no duty as to any Collateral in its possession or control or in the possession or control of any agent or bailee or any income thereon or as to preservation of rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining thereto and the Note Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for filing any financing or continuation statements or recording any documents or instruments in any public office at any time or times or otherwise perfecting or maintaining the perfection of any security interest in the Collateral. The Note Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody of the Collateral in its possession if the Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which it accords its own property and shall not be liable or responsible for any loss or diminution in the value of any of the Collateral, by reason of the act or omission of any carrier, forwarding agency or other agent or bailee selected by the Note Collateral Agent in good faith. The Note Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for the existence, genuineness or value of any of the Collateral or for the validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of the Liens in any of the Collateral, for the validity or sufficiency of the Collateral or any agreement or assignment contained therein, for the validity of the title of the Company to the Collateral, for insuring the Collateral or for the payment of taxes, charges, assessments or Liens upon the Collateral or otherwise as to the maintenance of the Collateral (except as set forth in this paragraph). The Note Collateral Agent shall have no duty to ascertain or inquire as to the performance or observance of any of the terms of this Indenture or other Note Security Documents. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture or in any Note Security Document or any Intercreditor Agreement, in no event shall the Note Collateral Agent or the Trustee be responsible for, or have any duty or obligation with respect to, the recording, filing, registering, perfection, protection or maintenance of the security interests or Liens intended to be created by this Indenture, the other Senior Secured Notes Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements (including without limitation the filing or continuation of any Uniform Commercial Code financing or continuation statements or similar documents or instruments), nor shall the Note Collateral Agent or Trustee be responsible for, or makes any representation regarding, the validity, effectiveness or priority of any of the Note Security Documents or the security interests or Liens intended to be created thereby.

Section 1510. Compensation and Indemnification. The Note Collateral Agent shall be entitled to the compensation and indemnification set forth in Section 707 (with the references to the Trustee therein applying herein to refer to the Note Collateral Agent); provided that, references to negligence shall be replaced with references to gross negligence.

Section 1511. The Intercreditor Agreements and the Note Security Documents. Each of the Trustee and the Note Collateral Agent is hereby directed and authorized to execute and deliver the Intercreditor Agreements and any Note Security Documents in which it is named as a party. It is hereby expressly acknowledged and agreed that, in doing so, the Trustee and the Note Collateral Agent are not responsible for the terms or contents of such agreements, or for the validity or enforceability thereof, or the sufficiency thereof for any purpose. Whether or not so expressly stated therein, in entering into, or taking (or forbearing from) any action under or pursuant to, the Intercreditor Agreements or any Note Security Documents, the Trustee and Note Collateral Agent each shall have all of the rights, immunities, indemnities and other protections granted to it under this Indenture (in addition to those that may be granted to it under the terms of such other agreement or agreements).

Section 1512. [Reserved].

Section 1513. Confidentiality. The Note Collateral Agent agrees to keep any information supplied by the Issuers or any Guarantor or any of their respective Subsidiaries or on behalf of the Issuers or any Guarantor or any of their respective Subsidiaries or obtained by it based on a review of books and records relating to an Issuer or any Guarantor or any of their respective Subsidiaries confidential from anyone other than its Affiliates (provided that each such Affiliate keeps such information confidential in accordance herewith) and to use (and cause such Affiliate to use) such information only in connection with the duties specifically set forth in this Indenture and the Note Security Documents; provided that nothing herein shall prevent the Note Collateral Agent or any such Affiliate from disclosing such information (a) upon the order of any court or administrative agency, (b) upon the request or demand of any regulatory agency or authority having jurisdiction over the Note Collateral Agent or any such Affiliate, (c) that had been publicly disclosed other than as a result of a disclosure by the Note Collateral Agent or any such Affiliate that is prohibited by the terms of this Section 1513, (d) already in the Note Collateral Agent's or any such Affiliate's possession (other than information provided to the Note Collateral Agent or any such Affiliate known by the Note Collateral Agent or such Affiliate to be subject to any confidentiality agreement or undertaking in favor of the Issuers or any Guarantor or any of their respective Subsidiaries) prior to its receipt of such information from the Issuers or any Guarantor or any of their respective Subsidiaries or from another Person supplying it on behalf of the Issuers or any Guarantor or any of their respective Subsidiaries or from its review of books and records described above (as the case may be), (e) in connection with any litigation to which the Note Collateral Agent or any such Affiliate may be a party, to the extent compelled by legal process in such litigation, (f) to the extent necessary or advisable in connection with the exercise of any remedy hereunder, (g) to the Note Collateral Agent's or any such Affiliate's legal counsel and independent auditors; provided that such counsel and auditors keep such information confidential in accordance herewith, or (h) to the Trustee (if not the same entity as the Note Collateral Agent); provided that the Trustee, as the case may be, agrees to keep all such information confidential pursuant to a written agreement for the benefit of and enforceable by the Issuers and Guarantors and their respective Subsidiaries, on terms and conditions substantially identical to (and in any event no less favorable to the Issuers and Guarantors and their respective Subsidiaries than) the provisions of this section (which agreement shall be executed and delivered to the Issuers prior to any such disclosure to the Trustee); provided that, in the case of clause (a), (b) or (e), the Note Collateral Agent shall, to the extent practicable and in accordance with its reasonable business practice, notify the Issuers of the proposed disclosure as far in advance of such disclosure as practicable and use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any information so disclosed is accorded confidential treatment.

Section 1514. Parallel Debt.

(a) Each Loan Party hereby irrevocably and unconditionally undertakes (and to the extent necessary undertakes in advance) to pay to the Note Collateral Agent, as creditor in its own right and not as representative of any other Secured Party, with respect to its Parallel Debt Security an amount equal to the aggregate amount owing from time to time by such Loan Party to any Secured Party under this Indenture and any other Senior Secured Notes Document as and when those amounts are due under any Senior Secured Notes Document (such payment undertakings under this Section 1514 and the obligations and liabilities resulting therefrom being the "Parallel Debt").

(b) The Note Collateral Agent shall have its own independent right to demand payment of the Parallel Debt by each Loan Party. Each Loan Party and the Note Collateral Agent acknowledges that the obligations of each Loan Party under this Section 1514 are several, separate and independent (selbständiges Schuldanerkenntnis) from, and shall not in any way limit or affect, the corresponding obligations of each Loan Party to any Secured Party under this Indenture or any other Senior Secured Note Document (the "Corresponding Debt") nor shall the amounts for which each Loan Party is liable under this Section 1514 be limited or affected in any way by its Corresponding Debt, except that (i) the Parallel Debt shall be decreased to the extent that the Corresponding Debt has been irrevocably paid or discharged (other than, in each case, contingent obligations), (ii) the Corresponding Debt shall be decreased to the extent that the Parallel Debt has been irrevocably paid or discharged, (iii) the amount of the Parallel Debt shall at all times be equal to (and shall in no event exceed) the amount of the Corresponding Debt, (iv) the Parallel Debt will be payable in the currency or currencies of the Corresponding Debt and (v) for the avoidance of doubt, the Parallel Debt will become due and payable at the same time when the Corresponding Debt becomes due and payable.

(c) The relevant Parallel Debt Security with respect to a Parallel Debt is granted to the Note Collateral Agent in its capacity as sole creditor of such Parallel Debt.

(d) Without limiting or affecting the Note Collateral Agent's rights against any Loan Party (whether under this Indenture or any other Senior Secured Note Document), each Loan Party acknowledges that (i) nothing in this Indenture shall impose any obligation on the Note Collateral Agent to advance any sum to any Loan Party or otherwise under any Senior Secured Note Document and (ii) for the purpose of any vote taken under any Senior Secured Note Document, the Note Collateral Agent shall not be regarded as having any participation or commitment.

(e) The Parallel Debt shall remain effective in case a third person should assume or be entitled, partially or in whole, to any rights of any of the Secured Parties under any Senior Secured Note Documents, be it by virtue of assignment, assumption or otherwise.

(f) All monies received or recovered by the Note Collateral Agent in respect of Parallel Debt, including all amounts received or recovered by the Note Collateral Agent from or by the enforcement of any Parallel Debt Security, shall be applied in accordance with this Indenture and the Intercreditor Agreements, as applicable.

Section 1515. French Security Agent Appointment

It is specified that, if the French Security Agent does not consent, any judicial attribution or private foreclosure will be made directly to the benefit of the Secured Parties, notwithstanding any contrary indications.

(e) The French Security Agent shall credit all proceeds of enforcement (or notification, as applicable) of the French Security in a separate dedicated account.

(f) Each other Secured Party acknowledges that (i) the French Security Agent (acting in such capacity) shall not be liable on its own estate (patrimoine propre) for the payment of any soulte that would be payable by any Debtor as a result of the enforcement of any French Security and (ii) the payment of any sums in respect of any soulte (if any) shall be borne by each other Secured Party in accordance with this Indenture.

(g) Each Party agrees that the French Security Agent shall have only those duties, obligations and responsibilities expressly specified in this Indenture or in the French Note Security Documents to which the French Security Agent is expressed to be a party (and no others shall be implied).

MANAGEMENT

3.1 Board.

(a) Management by the Board of Directors; Board Composition. The business and affairs of the Company shall be managed by or under the direction of a board of directors (the "Board", and each member of the Board, a "Director"). Directors need not be Members. Except as otherwise provided herein (including, for the avoidance of doubt, Section 9.8 and the rights and privileges of the Preferred Units set forth on the Preferred Unit Schedule), the Board shall have full, exclusive and complete discretion to manage and control the business and affairs of the Company, to make all decisions affecting the business and affairs of the Company (including to approve a merger, sale, consolidation, conversion or other business combination of the Company and/or any IPO) and to take all such actions as it deems necessary or appropriate to accomplish the purposes of the Company as set forth herein, including to exercise all of the powers of the Company set forth in Section 2.2. The Board is hereby designated as a "manager" (within the meaning of the Act) of the Company. Except as otherwise provided herein, and notwithstanding the last sentence of section 18-402 of the Act, no single Director may bind the Company, and the Board shall have the power to act only collectively in the manner specified herein. As of the Effective Date, the total number of Directors constituting the full Board shall be nine (9). The size of the Board may be fixed by the CD&R Holders from time to time, subject to Section 3.1(a)(i) and Section 3.10 below. The composition of the Board as of the date of this Agreement shall be as follows:

(i) (x) for so long as the Initial Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders collectively own 10% or more of the issued and outstanding Common Units, one (1) Director designated by the holders of a majority of all Common Units held by the Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders, which shall initially be vacant, or (y) following such time as the Initial Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders collectively own less than 10% of the issued and outstanding Common Units, for so long as any Initial Non-Sponsor Common Equityholder owns at least 50% of the Common Units held by such Initial Non-Sponsor Common Equityholder on the Effective Date (any such Initial Non-Sponsor Common Equityholder, a "Remaining Initial Non-Sponsor Common Equityholder"), one Director designated by the holders of a majority of all Common Units held by the Remaining Initial Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders (such Director appointed pursuant to (x) or (y), subject to the proviso at the end of this sentence, the "Non-Sponsor Director"); provided that any Non-Sponsor Director shall be reasonably acceptable to the CD&R Holders;

(ii) Seven (7) Directors designated by the CD&R Holders, who shall initially be David Scheible, Nathan Sleeper, Justin Kirchner, Rob Volpe, Beth Amato, David Fernandes and Glenn Richter; provided, that the CD&R Holders may, at any time and from time to time, in lieu of appointing such Directors, appoint such lesser number of Directors with the power to vote the aggregate number of votes upon any matter upon which the Board is entitled to vote equal to the number of Directors the CD&R Holders are entitled to designate; and

(iii) the CEO.

(b) Board Observer.

(i) For so long as the Initial Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders collectively own 10% or more of the issued and outstanding Common Units, the holders of a majority of all Common Units held by the Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders shall have the right to designate one (1) non-voting observer of the Board (such observer, subject to the proviso at the end of this sentence, the "Non-Sponsor Observer"); provided, that once the Initial Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders collectively own less than 10% of the issued and outstanding Common Units, for so long as there are any Remaining Initial Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders, the holders of a majority of all Common Units held by the Remaining Initial Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders shall have the right to appoint the Non-Sponsor Observer; provided, further, that any Non-Sponsor Observer shall be reasonably acceptable to the CD&R Holders.

(ii) For so long as the holders of the Preferred Units (excluding any CD&R Holder) as of the Effective Date (such holders, the "Initial Non-Sponsor Preferred Equityholders") collectively own 10% or more of the issued and outstanding Preferred Units, the Holder Majority (as defined in the Preferred Unit Schedule) shall have the right to designate one (1) non-voting observer of the Board (such observer, subject to the proviso at the end of this sentence, the "Preferred Unit Observer" and, together with the Non-Sponsor Observer, the "Observers"); provided that once the Initial Non-Sponsor Preferred Equityholders collectively own less than 10% of the issued and outstanding Preferred Units, for so long as any Initial Non-Sponsor Preferred Equityholder owns at least 50% of the Preferred Units held by such Initial Non-Sponsor Preferred Equityholder on the Effective Date (such Initial Non-Sponsor Preferred Equityholder, a "Remaining Initial Non-Sponsor Preferred Equityholder"), the holders of a majority of all Preferred Units held by the Remaining Initial Non Sponsor Preferred Equityholders shall have the right to designate the Preferred Unit Observer; provided, further, that any Preferred Unit Observer shall be reasonably acceptable to the CD&R Holders.

(iii) Subject to Section 3.1(c), the Observers shall each have the right to attend any meeting of the Board or any committee thereof and receive invitations to all meetings thereof by such means and at substantially the same time as such invitations are delivered to the Directors.

(c) Board Materials; Privilege. Each Observer shall have the right to receive copies of all Board and committee meeting materials distributed to the Directors, in their capacity as such, by such means and substantially at the same time as such materials are delivered to the Directors. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if the Board determines, acting reasonably and in good faith, that the provision of any such meeting materials or other information regarding the Company and its Subsidiaries and their respective businesses and operations or access to their respective books and records to the Non-Sponsor Director or any Observer (i) would reasonably be expected to cause a loss or waiver of attorney-client or other legal privilege, or (ii) relates to a matter in which such Non-Sponsor Director or Observer has a conflict of interest, then neither the Board nor the Company shall be required to provide any such information or access to the Non-Sponsor Director or such Observer, or permit any such Non-Sponsor Director or Observer to attend any portion of any board meeting discussing any such materials or matter, and the Company shall not be in breach of this Agreement as a result of the failure to provide such information or access; provided that if any information is withheld from any Non-Sponsor Director or Observer, or any of them is so excluded from a portion of a meeting, the Board shall provide reasonably prompt notice of, and, to the extent reasonably practicable while also preserving such legal privilege or in light of such conflict, as applicable, the basis for, such withholding or exclusion. Each Non-Sponsor Director and Observer shall be bound by Section 9.6 hereto.

3.2 VCOC Rights. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, (x) for so long as the CD&R Holders have the right to designate one or more Directors pursuant to Section 3.1(a), such right of designation as to one of such Directors shall be exercised solely by an equity investor in the CD&R Members (or their respective Permitted Affiliate Transferees), which is intended to qualify as a "venture capital operating company" (as defined in U.S. Department of Labor regulation sec. 2510.3-101) (the "CD&R VCOC"), or (y) in the event that the CD&R Holders shall no longer have the right to designate Directors pursuant to Section 3.1(a), then for as long as the CD&R Holders hold any Units, the CD&R VCOC shall be entitled to the information rights contained in Section 12.2(a) and the access rights contained in Section 12.1; provided that the CD&R VCOC shall remain subject to the obligations hereunder in respect of any of its Director designees.

3.3 Chairman of the Board. The CD&R Holders shall have the right to designate one of the Directors to serve as Chairman of the Board (the "Chairman"). The Chairman shall initially be David Scheible.

3.4 Vacancies; Removal.

(a) Vacancies. Subject to Section 3.4(b), each Director shall hold office until his or her death, disability, retirement, resignation or removal (with or without Cause) or until his or her successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. In the event that a vacancy is created at any time by the death, disability, retirement, resignation or removal (with or without Cause) of any Director, such vacancy shall be filled by an individual designated solely by the applicable Designator in accordance with Section 3.1(a) (or, following such time as there is no entitlement to designate a Director pursuant to Section 3.1(a)(i), the CD&R Holders), and the Company and the Members shall take, at any time and from time to time, any and all actions necessary to accomplish the foregoing. In the event that a vacancy is created at any time as a result of any increase of the Board size as may be determined by the CD&R Holders from time to time, such vacancy shall be filled by an individual designated by the CD&R Holders, and the Company and the Members shall take, at any time and from time to time, any and all actions necessary to accomplish the foregoing.

(b) Removal. Each Director and Observer may only be removed by its applicable Designator, at any time for any reason, with or without Cause, or for no reason; provided, that, any Director or Observer may be removed by the Board for Cause and, in such event, the applicable Designator shall be entitled to designate a substitute Director or Observer, as applicable, in accordance with Section 3.1(a) or Section 3.1(b), respectively. Any replacement Director to fill such vacancy shall be elected solely by the applicable Designator as provided in Section 3.4(a), and the Members shall take, at any time and from time to time, any and all actions necessary to accomplish the foregoing. Upon the removal of any Director, such Director shall cease to be a "manager" (within the meaning of the Act). If a Designator that has the right to appoint a Director or Observer ceases to have such right, then at the Board's request such Designator shall promptly remove or cause to resign the Non-Sponsor Director or Observer, as applicable, designated by it. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, immediately upon such time that no Series A Preferred Units are outstanding (including, from and after a Board Step-In), each Director added pursuant to a Board Step-In, as applicable, and the Preferred Unit Observer shall be automatically removed from the Board without further action on the part of the Designators thereof.

3.5 Voting. The Company and each Member shall take such action as may be required under applicable Law and this Agreement to cause the Board to consist of the number of Directors specified in Section 3.1. Each of the Members agrees to take all actions as may be necessary to cause any Directors designated in accordance with Section 3.1 to be elected to the Board.

3.6 Compensation; Reimbursement. For so long as the CD&R Expense Reimbursement Agreement remains in effect, no Director Affiliated with the CD&R Holders shall be entitled to compensation by the Company for any services as a Director. Subject to the terms and conditions of the CD&R Expense Reimbursement Agreement (solely with respect to the Directors Affiliated with the CD&R Holders), the Company shall reimburse each of the Directors and the Observers for reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses (including travel and related expenses) incurred by them for the purpose of attending meetings of the Board or committees thereof.

3.7 Actions of the Board.

(a) Meetings of the Board. The Board shall meet from time to time, but in any event at least four times per year (and approximately once per fiscal quarter), to discuss the business and affairs of the Company. Meetings of the Board may be held at such time and at such place as shall from time to time be determined by the Board. The Chairman of the Board or the majority of the Directors may call a meeting of the Board by sending notice by first-class mail at least seven (7) days, by overnight delivery at least two (2) days, or by electronic mail, facsimile or hand delivery at least forty-eight (48) hours, before the meeting addressed to such Director at such Director's usual business address (if sent by mail); provided, however, that upon a good faith determination by the Chairman of the Board or the majority of the Directors that exigent circumstances exist, such notice may be given by any reasonable means within such shorter time period as is practicable under the circumstances. Notice of any meeting of the Board need not be given to any Director who attends such meeting without protesting the lack of notice to him or her, prior to or at the commencement of such meeting, or to any Director who submits a signed waiver of notice, whether before or after such meeting, and any business may be transacted thereat. Members of the Board, or any committee designated by the Board, may participate in a meeting of the Board, or any committee, by means of conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and such participation in a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

(b) Quorum; Actions of the Board. A quorum for any meeting of the Board shall be a majority of the Directors constituting the full Board at the time of such meeting, which majority shall be required to include (x) the Non-Sponsor Director (for so long as the Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders have the right to appoint the Non-Sponsor Director pursuant to Section 3.1(a)(i) and such Non-Sponsor Director is actually appointed to the Board), and (y) a CD&R Affiliate Director; provided that, if (i) the Non-Sponsor Director does not attend a meeting called in accordance with Section 3.7(a), but action by the Board at such meeting is required due to exigent circumstances or (ii) the Non-Sponsor Director is excluded from such meeting pursuant to Section 3.1(c), then the presence of the Non-Sponsor Director shall not be required to constitute a quorum with respect to such meeting; provided, further, that if a quorum is not present at a meeting due to the lack of attendance by the Non-Sponsor Director, then such meeting may be adjourned to a day no sooner than forty-eight (48) hours thereafter (unless exigent circumstances require a shorter period) and, if such reconvened meeting is duly called in accordance with this Agreement, the presence of the Non-Sponsor Director shall not be required to constitute a quorum solely with respect to such reconvened meeting. Except as otherwise required by Law or this Agreement, actions of the Board shall require the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the Directors present in person or by conference telephone or other communications equipment or by proxy at a duly convened meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote pursuant to a written consent, setting forth the action so taken and signed by Directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to approve such action at a meeting of the Board at which all Directors then in office were present and voted (which consent shall not become effective earlier than forty-eight (48) hours after it was delivered to the Non-Sponsor Director in proposed final form, unless exigent circumstances require a shorter period). Upon receipt of a proposed written consent, a Non-Sponsor Director shall have the right, within twenty-four (24) hours following receipt of such proposed written consent, to call a meeting of the Board to be held at a time prior to the time such written consent becomes effective pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence. Such written consent may be executed in any number of counterparts and an e-mail or similar transmission by a Director or a photographic, photostatic, facsimile, Docusign, .pdf or similar reproduction of a writing signed by a Director, shall be regarded as signed by the Director for purposes of this Section 3.7(b). Such written consent shall be filed with the records of the meetings of the Board and treated for all purposes as the act of the Board.

3.8 Committees. The Board may, by resolution, designate one or more committees. Each such resolution shall specify the duties and quorum requirements of such committees. Each such committee shall consist of such number of Directors as the Board may fix from time to time. For so long as the Non-Sponsor Director or an Observer continues to be entitled to serve in such role pursuant to Section 3.1(a)(i) or Section 3.1(b), as applicable, the Non-Sponsor Director and the Observers shall have the right to serve as observers on all committees of the Board.

3.9 Officers. The Board shall appoint from time to time an individual to serve as the Company's Chief Executive Officer, and may, from time to time as it deems advisable, appoint additional officers of the Company (together with the Chief Executive Officer, the "Officers") and assign such Officers titles (including President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer) as it deems advisable. Unless the Board decides otherwise, if the title of any Officer is one commonly used for officers of a business corporation formed under the Delaware General Corporation Law, the assignment of such title shall constitute the delegation to such person of the authorities and duties that are normally associated with that office (including the authority to sign, in the name and on behalf of the Company, checks, orders, contracts, leases, notes, drafts and all other documents and instruments in connection with the business of the Company), subject to the terms herein. Any delegation pursuant to this Section 3.9 may be revoked at any time by the Board. Any Officer may be removed with or without cause by the Board, except as otherwise provided in any services or employment agreement between such Officer and the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. The salaries and other compensation of all Officers and agents of the Company shall be fixed by the Board or in the manner established by the Board. The Officers of the Company as of the date of this Agreement shall be: Hassan Rmaile (President and Chief Executive Officer), Kathleen Phelps (Chief Financial Officer), Linn Harson (Chief Legal Officer and Corporate Secretary), Tatiana Berardinelli (Chief Human Resources Officer), Matthew Skiles (Assistant Secretary and Assistant Treasurer).

3.10 Board Step-In. Pursuant to the terms of Section 5.02(c) of the Preferred Unit Schedule, the composition of the Board may be modified in connection with a Demand Failure. To the extent the Initiating Holders (as defined in the Preferred Unit Schedule) elect to appoint a majority of the members of the Board in accordance with Section 5.02(c) pursuant to the Board Step-In (as defined in the Preferred Unit Schedule), the Board shall be subject in all respects to the terms therein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon and during the continuance of a Board Step-In, the provisions set forth on Exhibit A to the Preferred Unit Schedule shall apply.

ARTICLE IV.

UNITS AND CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS

4.1 Units.

(a) Units. As of the Effective Date, the Company has two authorized classes of limited liability company interests of the Company, consisting of (i) common units (the "Common Units") and (ii) a class of preferred units as described in the Preferred Unit Schedule (the "Preferred Units"). Subject to the provisions of Section 7.4, Section 4.12 and the Preferred Unit Schedule, (i) additional classes of limited liability company interests of the Company denominated in the form of Units (or options to acquire Common Units or similar rights thereupon) may be authorized and issued from time to time by the Board without obtaining the consent of any Member or class of Members and in such event, this Agreement may be appropriately amended without the consent of the Members to reflect such additional class or classes of limited liability company interests of the Company and the preferences, rights and obligations applicable to such additional class or classes of limited liability company interests of the Company as determined by the Board and (ii) an unlimited number of Units in a particular class of Units (or options to acquire Units or similar rights thereupon) may be issued from time to time, at such prices and on such terms as the Board may determine, without obtaining the consent of any Member or class of Members. Schedule A hereto sets forth each Member, and the number and type of Units held by such Member. Each Member (other than the CD&R Holders) shall only have the right to review a redacted version of Schedule A that shows the Units of such Member and the aggregate number of Units held by all Members.

(b) Common Units. The Common Units shall have the rights with respect to distributions from the Company as are set forth in Article V. To the extent applicable, the Common Units shall have one vote for each such Common Unit outstanding (other than, prior to an IPO, Common Units held by Management Holders, which shall be non-voting). The number of Common Units of each Member as of any given time shall be set forth on Schedule A, as it may be updated from time to time in accordance with this Agreement.

(c) Preferred Units. The rights and privileges of the Preferred Units are set forth on Schedule B (the "Preferred Unit Schedule"), which is incorporated herein by reference and will be deemed a part of this Agreement for all purposes. If there is any conflict between the provisions in this Agreement (including any Annexes, Exhibit, Schedules (other than the Preferred Unit Schedule) and other attachments hereto), on the one hand, and the provisions of the Preferred Unit Schedule, on the other hand, with respect to the rights and privileges of the Preferred Units, the terms of the Preferred Unit Schedule shall govern and be controlling. The number of Preferred Units of each Member as of any given time shall be set forth on Schedule A, as it may be updated from time to time in accordance with this Agreement.

(d) Value. The value of each Common Unit outstanding on the Effective Date is $100.00. The Initial Stated Value of each Preferred Unit is set forth in the Preferred Unit Schedule.

(e) Repurchase Provisions Applicable to Management Holders. The Common Units owned by the Management Holders shall be subject to repurchase by the Company as provided in their applicable Management Subscription Agreements.

(f) Upon prior written notice by Barclays or BNP to the Company and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, any portion of the Units held by Barclays or BNP in excess of 4.99% of any class of voting securities or voting power (as determined under the U.S. Bank Holding Company Act and 12 C.F.R. Part 225 (Subpart A) (the "BHCA") that vote or consent on any matter which under the BHCA would cause such voting securities to be deemed a separate class, shall irrevocably be converted, except as specified below, into non-voting Units ("Corresponding Non-Voting Units") that have all the rights and privileges of the Units that converted but are subject to the restrictions of a non-voting security for purposes of the BHCA and shall not be entitled to vote or consent on any matter other than matters permissible for non-voting securities pursuant to 12 C.F.R. 225.2(q)(2). The Corresponding Non-Voting Units shall remain Corresponding Non-Voting Units unless: (i) transferred to the Company or to a third party in a transaction described in 12 C.F.R. 225.9(a)(3) (e.g., widespread distribution) or (ii) converted into voting Units under the anti-dilution provisions described in 12 C.F.R. 225.9(a)(5). For the avoidance of doubt Barclays will be deemed to have provided such notice in writing described in this Section 4.1(f) to the Company as of the date hereof.

4.2 Capital Contributions. [Reserved].

4.3 Additional Capital Contributions. No Member shall be required to make any additional capital contribution or loan in respect of the Units then owned by any such Member. However, a Member may make additional capital contributions to the Company with, and only with, the written consent of the Board and in compliance with the other terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. The provisions of this Section 4.3 are intended solely to benefit the Members and, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, shall not be construed as conferring any benefit upon any creditor of the Company (and no such creditor shall be a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement), and no Member shall have any duty or obligation to any creditor of the Company to make any additional capital contributions or to cause the Board to consent to the making of any additional capital contributions.

4.4 Member's Interest. A Member's Units shall for all purposes be personal property. A Member has no interest in specific Company property.

4.5 Certificated and Uncertificated Units. The Units shall initially be uncertificated. Upon the request of a CD&R Holder (or any other Member if consented to by the Board), such Member shall be entitled to have a certificate signed by or in the name of the Company, by the Chief Executive Officer or any other Officer designated by the Board, representing the number of Units held by such Member. Such certificate shall be in such form as the Board may determine, to the extent consistent with applicable Law, the Certificate and this Agreement. Any or all of such signatures on any certificate representing one or more Units may be a facsimile, engraved or printed, to the extent permitted by applicable Law.

4.6 Legends. All certificates (if any) or book-entry accounts and related statements representing or otherwise evidencing the Units shall conspicuously bear the applicable legends set forth below, with such changes as the Board, in its discretion, deems to be necessary and appropriate, and any other legends required by this Agreement. Each Member shall be deemed to have actual knowledge of the terms, provisions, restrictions and conditions with respect to the Transfer of any Units set forth in this Agreement (including the restrictions on Transfer set forth in Section 7.1 hereof), whether or not any certificate or book-entry accounts and related statements representing or otherwise evidencing the Units owned or held by such Member bear the legends set forth below and whether or not any such holder received a separate notice of such terms, provisions, restrictions and conditions.

THE HOLDER OF THE SECURITY EVIDENCED HEREBY REPRESENTS FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE ISSUER THAT IT IS NOT A U.S. PERSON, IS NOT ACQUIRING THIS SECURITY FOR THE ACCOUNT OR BENEFIT OF A U.S. PERSON AND IS ACQUIRING THIS SECURITY IN AN OFFSHORE TRANSACTION WITHIN THE MEANING OF REGULATION S UNDER THE ACT AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS APPLICABLE TO SUCH PURCHASER IN THE JURISDICTION IN WHICH SUCH PURCHASE IS MADE."

Any certificates representing such Units shall be replaced, at the expense of the Company, with certificates or instruments not bearing the legends required by this Section 4.6 at such time as they are no longer required for purposes of applicable securities Law; provided that the Company may condition such replacement of certificates upon the receipt of an opinion of securities counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Company.

4.7 Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. The Board may direct that a new certificate representing one or more Units be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Company alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon delivery to the Board of an affidavit of the owner or owners of such certificate, setting forth such allegation. The Board may require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to give the Company a bond sufficient to indemnify it against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of any such certificate or the issuance of any such new certificate.

4.8 Transfer Agent, Exchange Agent and Registrar. Subject to acceptance of the Units by The Depository Trust Company ("DTC") and any restrictions under the Securities Act, the Units will be eligible for transfer on DTC. The Board may appoint one or more transfer agents, one or more exchange agents and one or more registrars, and may require all certificates representing one or more Units to bear the signature of any such transfer agents, exchange agents or registrars.

4.9 Registration of Transfer of Units. Upon surrender to the Company or the transfer agent of the Company, if any, of a certificate for one or more Units, duly endorsed or accompanied by appropriate evidence of succession, assignment or authority to transfer, in compliance with the provisions of this Agreement, the Company shall issue a new certificate representing one or more Units to the Person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate and record the transaction upon its books. Subject to the provisions of the Certificate and this Agreement, the Board may prescribe such additional rules and regulations as it may deem appropriate relating to the issue, transfer and registration of Units by any Management Holder.

4.10 Interest as a Security. A Unit shall constitute a security for all purposes of Article VIII of the Uniform Commercial Code promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, as in effect in Delaware or any other applicable jurisdiction. Delaware Law shall constitute the local Law of the Company's jurisdiction in its capacity as the issuer of Units.

4.11 Management Incentive Plan. The Board shall establish a management incentive plan to permit certain managers, employees, independent contractors or other service providers of the Company, or employees and managers of an Affiliate of the Company, to participate in the Company's equity appreciation (an "Equity Incentive Plan"). The Board shall establish such vesting criteria and other terms and conditions applicable to awards issued under the Equity Incentive Plan (the "Award Agreements") as it determines appropriate in its sole discretion and shall specify such vesting criteria and such other terms and conditions in the Equity Incentive Plan and/or the applicable Award Agreement.

4.12 Non-Circumvention. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Company shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to, (i) issue, or cause to be issued by any Subsidiary thereof, New Securities that circumvent the express rights granted to the Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders in this Agreement or (ii) make any subsequent amendments, restatements, supplements, waivers or other modifications to the rights, preferences, privileges, restrictions or obligations of any previously issued New Securities that (A) circumvent the express rights granted to the Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders in this Agreement or (B) create material new rights, preferences or privileges in respect of such previously issued New Securities or provide for the exchange of such New Securities for other securities or interests that possess such rights, preferences or privileges. For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing shall prohibit any amendment to this Agreement (or the organizational documents of any applicable Subsidiary of the Company) to create and issue any such New Securities (or any subsequent amendments, restatements, supplements, waivers or other modifications to the express rights, preferences, privileges, restrictions or obligations of any previously issued New Securities) or to facilitate any exchange offers with respect to such New Securities, in each case, that would by their terms have the effect of (i) eliminating or adversely changing the express rights, preferences, privileges, restrictions or obligations of the Common Units held by the Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders in a manner disproportionate to any other class or series of equity securities of the Company or any Subsidiary thereof, or (ii) creating material new rights, preferences or privileges in respect of any previously issued New Securities, in each case of clauses (i) and (ii), without the requisite consent of the Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders as set forth in Section 13.11(a).

ARTICLE V.

DISTRIBUTIONS

5.1 Distributions. Subject to any restrictions, conditions or other terms set forth in this Agreement, including as set forth on the Preferred Unit Schedule with respect to the Preferred Units, distributions may be made to all Common Unit Holders, including the Preferred Unit Holders (to the extent of their Common Unit Equivalent Participation), at such times and in such aggregate amounts as determined by the Board in proportion to the number of Common Units (accounting for Common Unit Equivalent Participation) held by each Member as of the time of such distribution. Distributions shall be made to Preferred Unit Holders at such times and in such aggregate amounts as determined in accordance with the Preferred Unit Schedule.

5.2 Distributions in Kind. In the event of a distribution of Company property, such property shall for all purposes of this Agreement be deemed to have been sold at its Fair Market Value and the proceeds of such sale shall be deemed to have been distributed to the Members.

5.3 Withholding.

(a) Indemnification for Withholding. Each Member shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, indemnify and hold harmless each Person who is or who is deemed to be the responsible withholding agent for U.S. federal, state or local income tax purposes against all claims, liabilities and expenses of whatever nature (but, in each case, excluding any penalties and accrued interest that result from such Person's fraud, willful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence) solely relating to such Person's obligation to withhold and to pay over any U.S. federal, state or local income taxes imposed on such Member.

(b) Withholding and Remittance. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article V, (i) each Member hereby authorizes the Company to withhold and to pay over, or otherwise pay, any withholding or other taxes payable by the Company or any of its Affiliates with respect to such Member or as a result of such Member's participation in the Company and (ii) if and to the extent that the Company shall be required to withhold or pay any such taxes (or if any amounts withheld from amounts payable to the Company to the extent attributable, in the judgment of the Board, to such Member's Units), such Member shall be deemed for all purposes of this Agreement to have received a payment from the Company as of the time such withholding or tax is required to be paid, which payment shall be deemed to be a distribution with respect to such Member's Units to the extent that the Member (or any successor to such Member's Units) is then entitled to receive a distribution under this Article V. To the extent that the aggregate of such payments to a Member for any period exceeds the distributions to which such Member is entitled for such period, such Member shall make a prompt payment to the Company of such excess amount.

(c) Distributions in Kind. If the Company makes a distribution in kind and such distribution is subject to withholding or other taxes payable by the Company on behalf of any Member, such Member shall make a prompt payment to the Company of the amount of such withholding or other taxes by wire transfer.

5.4 Restricted Distributions. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Company shall not make a distribution to any Member on account of such Member's Units if such distribution would violate section 18-607 of the Act or other applicable Law.

ARTICLE VI.

DISSOLUTION, LIQUIDATION AND TERMINATION

6.1 Dissolving Events. The Company shall be dissolved in the manner hereinafter provided upon the happening of any of the following events:

(a) Board Vote. The Board shall approve the dissolution of the Company; or

(b) Required by Law. Any event which under applicable Law would cause the dissolution of the Company; provided that unless required by applicable Law, the Company shall not be wound up as a result of any such event and the business of the Company shall be continued.

(c) No Dissolution upon Occurrence of Certain Events. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of any Member or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of any Member in the Company under the Act shall not, in and of itself, cause the dissolution of the Company. In such event, the remaining Member(s) may continue the business of the Company without dissolution.

6.2 Dissolution and Winding-Up.

(a) General. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the assets of the Company shall be liquidated or distributed under the direction of and to the extent determined by the Board and the business of the Company shall be wound up; provided that this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect, notwithstanding any prior dissolution of the Company, until termination of the Company in accordance with this Agreement. Within a reasonable time after the effective date of dissolution of the Company, the Company's assets shall be distributed in the following manner and order:

(i) First, to all creditors of the Company, to the extent otherwise permitted by applicable Law, in satisfaction of liabilities of the Company, including any amounts held in reserve therefor and any amounts the Company may owe under the indemnity provided in Sections 10.4 and 10.5 (whether by payment or the making of reasonable provision for payment thereof);

(ii) Second, to purchase customary tail insurance coverage on customary terms for any Directors and officers and/or errors and omissions coverage maintained by the Company as of immediately prior to such dissolution; and

(iii) Third, to the Members in accordance with Section 6.3.

(b) Distributions in Cash or in Kind. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Board shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to liquidate all of the Company's assets in an orderly manner and apply the proceeds of such liquidation as set forth in Section 6.2(a); provided that, if in the good faith judgment of the Board, a Company asset should not be liquidated, the Board shall distribute such assets in accordance with Section 6.2(a) as if such assets had been sold for their Fair Market Value and the proceeds of such sale had been received in cash, subject to the priorities set forth in Section 6.2(a); and provided, further, that the Board shall in good faith attempt to liquidate sufficient Company assets to satisfy in cash (or make reasonable provision for) the debts and liabilities referred to in Section 6.2(a).

6.3 Liquidation Rights.

(a) Remaining Funds. In the event of any Liquidation, any liquidating distributions shall be distributed to the Members pursuant to Section 5.1.

(b) No Liquidation Upon Asset Sale, Merger, etc. Neither the sale, conveyance, exchange or Transfer (for cash, shares of stock, securities or other consideration) of all or substantially all of the assets, Units or business of the Company (other than in connection with a Liquidation) nor the merger or consolidation of the Company into or with any other Person shall by itself be deemed to be a Liquidation for purposes of this Section 6.3.

6.4 Termination. The Company shall terminate when the winding up of the Company's affairs has been completed, all of the assets of the Company have been distributed and the Certificate has been canceled, all in accordance with the Act.

6.5 Claims of the Members. The Members and former Members shall look solely to the Company's assets for the return of their capital contributions, and if the assets of the Company remaining after payment of or due provision for all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company are insufficient to return such capital contributions, the Members and former Members shall not be entitled to have such capital contributions returned to them and shall have no recourse against the Company or any other Member.

ARTICLE VII.

TRANSFERS OF UNITS; PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS

7.1 Restrictions on Transfers of Units by Members.

(a) General. Subject to compliance with the Securities Act, applicable federal and state Laws, including the securities Laws and regulations of any applicable jurisdiction and all applicable provisions of this Agreement, any Member (other than a Management Holder) may Transfer any of its Units without the consent of the Board; provided, however, that (i) no such Transfer shall be permitted if it would require the Company to file a registration statement under the Securities Act or if it shall be made in violation of Section 7.1(c), (ii) no such Transfer shall be permitted to be made to any Competitor without the prior written consent of the Board, and (iii) any such Transfer shall comply with the conditions set forth in Section 7.1(b) and (iv) for the avoidance of doubt, (x) no Management Holder may Transfer any of its Common Units without the consent of the Board (other than with respect to a Management Holder that is an individual, any immediate family member, executor, administrator, testamentary trustee or legatee of such Management Holder or any family trust or bona fide estate planning vehicle in which the sole (direct or indirect) beneficiaries or other equity holders thereof are such Management Holder or his or her immediate family members) and complying with other restrictions set forth in this Section 7.1 and (y) the Common Unit Equivalent Participation attributable to any Preferred Unit is not detachable or otherwise transferable separately from the underlying Preferred Units and rather, the Preferred Units and the related Common Unit Equivalent Participation will be transferred together, subject to any limitations that would be applicable to the transferability of the Preferred Units. To the extent the Board or the Company has the right to approve any Transfer hereunder, the approval of any such Transfer by the Board in any one or more instances shall not limit or waive the requirement for such approval in any other or future instance. The restrictions set forth in this Section 7.1(a) shall terminate upon an IPO except as required under applicable federal and state Laws, including the securities Laws and regulations of any applicable jurisdiction.

(b) Conditions to Permitted Transfers.

(i) From and after the date of this Agreement, it shall be a condition precedent to any Transfer of Units to any Person otherwise permitted under this Agreement (including any Transfer to a Permitted Affiliate Transferee) that the Transferee, if not already a party to this Agreement, become a party to this Agreement by executing and delivering to the Company at its address specified in Section 13.1 a duly executed and completed Joinder Agreement (including completion of such Transferee's complete and accurate notice information).

(ii) Upon a Transferee's acquisition of Units in accordance with this Agreement and the satisfaction of the foregoing conditions to the reasonable satisfaction of the Company, such Transferee shall be a Member for all purposes under this Agreement.

(c) Exchange Act Limitations. Until the Company otherwise becomes obligated to file reports under Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act or upon receipt of prior written approval from the Board, no Members shall Transfer any Unit to any other Person to the extent such Transfer would cause the Company to have, including as a result of passage of time and giving effect to the exercisable or conversion of any securities that are convertible into or exchangeable for the Units, in excess of 1,950 Members (or four-hundred-fifty (450) or more Members who are not Accredited Investors (as defined below), calculated in accordance with Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act (or fifty (50) fewer than such other number of Members as may subsequently be set forth in Section 12(g), or any successor provision, from time to time of the Exchange Act, as the minimum number of Members of record or shareholders for a class of Units that would require the Company to register such class of Units under Section 12 of the Exchange Act). The Company and any transfer agent for the Units shall be entitled to enforce this provision (including denying any requested Transfer). The Company and any transfer agent for the Units shall determine the number of Members of record from time to time in consultation with the Company's counsel in order to give full effect to the restriction set forth in this Section 7.1(c).

(d) Prohibited Transfers Void. Any Transfer or attempted Transfer of Units in violation of this Article VII (including failure to satisfy the condition precedent pursuant to Section 7.1(b)(i)) shall be null and void ab initio (provided that, with respect to a Transfer of Units held through DTC, if a Transferee of any such Units executes a Joinder Agreement and delivers it to the Company after the date that such Transfer occurred through DTC, such Transfer shall be effective on the books and records of the Company as of the date the Joinder Agreement is executed by the Transferee and delivered to the Company (unless the effectiveness of such Transfer as of such time would be materially harmful to the Company (including if the effectiveness of such Transfer would be prohibited pursuant to Section 7.3(c)) and the Company promptly notifies the Transferee thereof); it being agreed and understood that the Company's countersignature to such Joinder Agreement shall be evidence of the Company's acceptance of such Transfer), and with respect thereto the Company (x) shall not, and shall cause its transfer agent not to, register or effect such Transfer, (y) may institute legal proceedings to force rescission of such Transfer and (z) may seek any other remedy available to it at Law, in equity or otherwise, including an injunction prohibiting such Transfer, and the provisions of Section 7.6 shall not apply to any such Transfers.

(e) Redemption Rights. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event that a Member, other than a CD&R Holder, reasonably determines in its sole discretion that (i) the holding of any rights, interests or obligations with respect to the Company or this Agreement will or could be unlawful or a breach of any applicable Laws, or (ii) there has been, is, or could be, an act, matter, event or circumstance related to the Company that results in or could result in damage to the reputation of the Member or any of its Affiliates, upon prior written notice to the Company, the Member shall have the right to require the Company to repurchase all of its Units for an aggregate purchase price of $1.00.

(f) Transfer Information. Upon the request of the Company, a Member making or having made a Transfer shall deliver to the Company such information as the Company may reasonably request in order for the Company to determine in good faith that such Transfer is (or was) in compliance with Section 7.1(a) (including information enabling the Company to confirm that such transferee is not a Competitor and information or other certifications (but not opinions of counsel) used to determine whether such Transfer complies with U.S. federal or state securities Laws and any other applicable securities Laws).

7.2 Tag-Along Right.

(a) General. Prior to an IPO, in the event of a proposed Transfer of Common Units, in one or more related transactions, by any Common Unit Holder (each, a "Transferring Member") to any Person of 10% or more of the Company's outstanding Common Units, each other Common Unit Holder (each, a "Tag-Along Participant") shall have the right to participate in such proposed Transfer in the manner set forth in this Section 7.2 (a "Tag-Along Transaction"); provided that this Section 7.2 shall not apply to Transfers: (i) to Permitted Affiliate Transferees (solely with respect to Initial Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders, other than single-asset Continuation Fund transactions), (ii) in connection with an IPO as a part of such registered offering or following an IPO, or (iii) pursuant to a Drag-Along Transaction.

(b) Required Tag-Along Notice. Prior to any Transfer described in this Section 7.2, the Transferring Member shall deliver to the Company prompt written notice (the "Transfer Notice"), which the Company will forward to each of the Tag-Along Participants within two (2) Business Days of the Company's receipt of such notice, which notice shall state (i) the name of the proposed Transferee, (ii) the number of Common Units proposed to be Transferred (the "Tag-Along Units"), (iii) the proposed purchase price therefor, including a description of any non-cash consideration sufficiently detailed (to the extent that the Transferring Member is in possession of such information) to permit the determination of the fair market value thereof, and (iv) the other material terms and conditions of the proposed Transfer, including the proposed Transfer date (which date may not be less than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Transfer Notice).

(c) Exercise of Tag-Along Right. Each Tag-Along Participant may, subject to the limitations set forth in this Section 7.2(c), Transfer to the proposed Transferee identified in the Transfer Notice up to such number of such Tag-Along Participant's Common Units that is equal to the product of (i) the number of Common Units held by such Tag-Along Participant, multiplied by (ii) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of Tag-Along Units set forth in the Transfer Notice and the denominator of which is the outstanding Common Units owned (directly or indirectly) by the Transferring Member, by giving written notice (the "Tag-Along Acceptance Notice") to the Company and to the Transferring Member within fifteen (15) days after receipt of the Transfer Notice (the "Tag-Along Acceptance Period"), stating (x) that such Tag-Along Participant elects to exercise its tag-along right under this Section 7.2 and (y) the maximum number of Common Units sought to be Transferred by such Tag-Along Participant. Each Tag-Along Participant shall be deemed to have waived its tag-along right with respect to such Tag-Along Transaction if it fails to give the Tag-Along Acceptance Notice within the Tag-Along Acceptance Period. The proposed Transferee of Tag-Along Units will not be obligated to directly or indirectly purchase a number of Common Units exceeding the number set forth in the applicable Transfer Notice, and in the event such Transferee elects to purchase, directly or indirectly, less than all of the additional Common Units sought to be Transferred by the Tag-Along Participants, the number of Common Units to be Transferred by the Transferring Member and each of the Tag-Along Participants shall be reduced to the Transferring Member's and each Tag-Along Participant's respective Pro Rata Portion. In the event that a Tag-Along Participant elects to Transfer less than its Pro Rata Portion, the remaining Tag-Along Participants and the Transferring Member shall each be entitled to sell a percentage of the additional Common Units that would otherwise have been sold by such Tag-Along Participant not fully participating in such Transfer equal to such remaining Tag-Along Participant's or Transferring Member's, as applicable, Pro Rata Portion of such additional Common Units (re-calculated to omit such non-fully-participating Tag-Along Participant).

(d) Consummation of Tag-Along Transaction; No Liability. Each Tag-Along Participant and the Transferring Member shall, subject to the following proviso, receive the same amount of consideration for each Tag Along Unit Transferred in such Tag Along Transaction; provided, however, that the form of consideration to be received by the Transferring Member in connection with the Tag-Along Transaction may be different from that received by the Tag-Along Participants solely with respect to rollover equity so long as the Fair Market Value of the consideration to be received by such Transferring Member is the same or less than what such Transferring Member would have received had such Transferring Member received the same form of consideration as the Tag-Along Participants (as reasonably determined by the Board in good faith) and in no event shall the Transferring Member receive consideration in the form of cash unless the Tag-Along Participants are also receiving at least a proportionate amount of their consideration in the form of cash. A Tag-Along Participant exercising its tag-along right hereunder with respect to certificated Common Units shall deliver to the Transferring Member at the closing of the Transfer of the Transferring Member's Tag-Along Units to the Transferee certificates representing the Tag-Along Units to be Transferred by such Tag-Along Participant (free and clear of any liens or encumbrances other than those existing under applicable securities Laws and pursuant to this Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement), duly endorsed for transfer or accompanied by written instruments of transfer. A Tag-Along Participant exercising its tag-along right hereunder with respect to uncertificated Common Units shall deliver to the Transferring Member at the closing of the Transfer of the Transferring Member's Tag-Along Units an assignment and assumption agreement reasonably satisfactory to the proposed Transferee effecting the Transfer of such Common Units. Each Tag-Along Participant shall agree to make or agree to the same representations, covenants, indemnities and agreements as the Transferring Member so long as they are made severally and not jointly; provided, that (i) no Tag-Along Participant shall be required to enter into noncompetition, non-solicitation or similar restrictive covenants (other than customary and reasonable covenants regarding confidentiality and publicity), (ii) any general indemnity and any related escrow agreement given by the Transferring Member to the Transferee in connection with such sale that is applicable to liabilities not specific to the Transferring Member shall be apportioned among the Tag-Along Participants and the Transferring Member on a pro rata basis, based on the number of each such Member's Common Units to be Transferred and shall not exceed such Member's net proceeds from the sale, and (iii) any representation relating specifically to a Member or its ownership of the Common Units to be Transferred shall be made only by such Member, and any indemnity and any related escrow agreement given with respect to such representation shall be given only by such Member and shall not exceed such Member's net proceeds from the sale. Subject to Section 7.2(g), the proposed Transfer date may be extended beyond the date described in the Transfer Notice to the extent necessary to obtain required governmental approvals and other required third-party approvals and the Company and the Transferring Members shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to obtain such approvals. The Transferring Member shall, in its sole discretion, decide whether or not to pursue, consummate, postpone or abandon any proposed Transfer subject to this Section 7.2 and the terms and conditions thereof. No Member or Affiliate of a Member shall have any liability to any other Member or the Company arising from, relating to or in connection with the pursuit, consummation, postponement, abandonment or terms and conditions of any proposed Transfer subject to this Section 7.2 except to the extent such Member shall have failed to comply with the provisions of this Section 7.2.

(e) Satisfaction of Tag-Along Obligations After Sale. Notwithstanding the foregoing requirements of this Section 7.2, the Transferring Member may proceed with the Transfer of the Tag-Along Units without first complying with its obligations under this Section 7.2 if, prior to or concurrently with such Transfer (but in any event, as an express closing condition of such Transfer), the purchaser of the Tag-Along Units or the Transferring Member agrees to acquire and, within 30 days (provided, that if such acquisition is subject to regulatory approval and such regulatory approval is required by the definitive agreement entered into to give effect to such transaction, such 30 day period shall be extended until the expiration of 15 days after all such approvals have been received or the relevant transaction document is terminated) after the closing of such Transfer, acquires the Common Units that each electing Tag-Along Participant was otherwise entitled to sell under this Section 7.2 on the same terms and conditions as the Transfer by the Transferring Member of such Tag-Along Units (for the avoidance of doubt, including with respect to indemnification, but, in the case of a purchase by the Transferring Member, for the benefit of the Transferring Member, such as to put each of the Transferring Member and Tag-Along Participants in substantially the same position as if the sale had been made by the Tag-Along Participants directly to the Transferee of the Transferring Member's Tag-Along Units). If the purchaser of the Tag-Along Units has agreed to purchase the Common Units from the electing Tag-Along Participants, but fails to consummate such purchase, in each case, pursuant to the prior sentence, then the Transferring Member shall promptly consummate such purchase.

(f) Tag-Along Rights of Management Holders and Non-Accredited Investors. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (i) Management Holders shall not have any tag-along rights or obligations under this Section 7.2 and (ii) a Common Unit Holder shall not have any tag-along rights under Section 7.2, if the consideration in such Tag-Along Transaction consists of securities that have not been registered under the Securities Act and such Common Unit Holder is not an "accredited investor" as defined in Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act (each, an "Accredited Investor"). The tag-along rights and obligations, if any, of Management Holders shall be set forth in their applicable Management Subscription Agreements.

(g) Tag-Along Notice Expiration. Any Tag-Along Transaction pursuant to this Section 7.2 shall occur within ninety (90) days after delivery of the Transfer Notice delivered to the Tag-Along Participants pursuant to the first sentence of Section 7.2(b); provided, that if such Tag-Along Transaction is subject to regulatory approval and such regulatory approval is required by the definitive agreement entered into to give effect to such transactions, such ninety (90) day period shall be extended until the expiration of twenty (20) Business Days after all such approvals have been received or the relevant transaction document is terminated. If (i) the Transferring Member has not consummated the Tag-Along Transaction within the period described by the immediately preceding sentence (for any reason other than the failure of a Tag-Along Participant to sell its Units under this Section 7.2) or (ii) the terms and conditions of the Tag-Along Transaction shall change from those in the Transfer Notice (A) with respect to the purchase price to be paid for the Units, in any respect (other than de minimis changes) or (B) with respect to any other terms and conditions, in any material respect, then the Transfer Notice shall be null and void and it shall be necessary for a separate Transfer Notice to be furnished and the terms and provisions of this Section 7.2 separately complied with, in order to subsequently consummate such proposed Tag-Along Transaction pursuant to this Section 7.2.

7.3 Drag-Along Right.

(a) General. Prior to an IPO, if the CD&R Holders propose to Transfer all or a portion of their Common Units to any Independent Third Party, where such Common Units so proposed to be Transferred by the CD&R Holders constitute more than fifty percent (50%) of the Company's outstanding Common Units, then each other Member (each, a "Selling Member") shall, if requested by the CD&R Holders, be required to Transfer its Drag-Along Units in accordance with this Section 7.3 (a "Drag-Along Transaction") with the proceeds from such Transfer being allocated in accordance with Section 5.1; provided that this Section 7.3 shall not apply to Transfers: (i) to Permitted Affiliate Transferees of the CD&R Holders (including, for the avoidance of doubt, a Continuation Fund), (ii) in connection with an IPO as a part of such registered offering or following an IPO, (iii) pursuant to a Tag-Along Transaction as a Tag-Along Participant or (iv) of the Preferred Units. To the extent any drag-along or similar sale requirements are applicable to a Management Holder pursuant to any Management Subscription Agreement, such terms shall apply to the Common Units subject to any Management Subscription Agreement in lieu of the terms of this Section 7.3.

(b) Terms of Drag-Along Transaction. Subject to Section 7.3(d), the terms and conditions of such Drag-Along Transaction applicable to the Selling Members shall be the same as those upon which the CD&R Holders directly or indirectly sell their Common Units in the Drag-Along Transaction. In connection with the Drag-Along Transaction, each Selling Member shall agree to make or agree to the same representations, covenants, indemnities and agreements as the CD&R Holders, so long as they are made severally and not jointly; provided that (i) no Selling Member shall be required to enter into noncompetition, non-solicitation or similar restrictive covenants (other than customary and reasonable covenants regarding confidentiality and publicity), (ii) any general indemnity and related escrow agreement given to the purchaser in connection with such sale that is applicable to liabilities not specific to the CD&R Holders shall be apportioned among the Selling Members and the CD&R Holders according to the number of Common Units sold by the CD&R Holders and each Selling Member in such Drag-Along Transaction and shall not exceed such Member's net proceeds from the sale, and (iii) any representation relating specifically to a Selling Member shall be made only by that Selling Member, and any indemnity and any related escrow agreement given with respect to such representation shall be given only by such Selling Member, and shall not exceed such Selling Member's net proceeds from the sale.

(c) Required Drag-Along Notice. The CD&R Holders shall exercise the rights provided in Section 7.3(a) by providing written notice (the "Drag-Along Notice") to each Selling Member of any proposed Drag-Along Transaction no later than fifteen (15) Business Days prior to the consummation of such Drag-Along Transaction. The Drag-Along Notice will include the material terms and conditions of the Drag-Along Transaction, including (i) the name and address of the proposed Transferee, (ii) the number of Common Units of the CD&R Holders proposed to be Transferred, (iii) the proposed amount and form of consideration and (iv) the proposed Transfer date, if known. The CD&R Holders will deliver or cause to be delivered to each Selling Member copies of all final transaction documents relating to the Drag-Along Transaction promptly as the same become available. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, after the Drag-Along Notice has been provided by the CD&R Holders to the Selling Members pursuant to this Section 7.3(c) with respect to any proposed Drag-Along Transaction, (A) during the period commencing on the later of (x) fifteen (15) Business Days following the delivery of the initial Drag-Along Notice and (y) ten (10) Business Days prior to the estimated closing date of such Drag-Along Transaction (based on the CD&R Holders' good faith estimate of the closing date as of the time of the Drag-Along Notice) as set forth in the Drag Along Notice (or any subsequent notice provided from time to time by the CD&R Holders to the Selling Members updating in good faith such estimated closing date), no Selling Member may Transfer any of its Common Units to any Person (other than to a Permitted Affiliate Transferee or as part of such Drag-Along Transaction) and (B) with respect to any proposed Drag-Along Transaction that is structured as a unit or securities purchase from the Members (as opposed to a merger or asset sale), no Selling Member may Transfer any of its Common Units to any Person (other than as part of such Drag-Along Transaction) unless such Transfer is otherwise in accordance with Section 7.1 and, as a condition to any such Transfer, the Transferee agrees to be part of such Drag-Along Transaction in accordance with this Section 7.3, including by concurrently executing the definitive sale documentation governing such Drag-Along Transaction; provided that, with respect to any Transfers made after the Drag-Along Notice has been provided by the CD&R Holders to the Selling Members pursuant to this Section 7.3(c), such Drag-Along Notice (and any subsequent updates with respect to the estimated closing date of the Drag Along Transaction) shall be deemed to have been delivered to any such Transferee. Upon the CD&R Holders becoming reasonably aware that any prior estimate given to the Selling Members of the closing date of any Drag-Along Transaction is no longer accurate, the CD&R Holders shall reasonably promptly provide the Selling Members with a subsequent notice referred to in clause (A) of the prior sentence of an updated good faith estimate of the closing date of any such Drag-Along Transaction.

(d) Form of Consideration. Each Selling Member and the CD&R Holders shall receive consideration in accordance with Section 5.1; provided, however, that the form of consideration to be received by the CD&R Holders in connection with the Drag-Along Transaction may be different from that received by the Selling Members so long as the Fair Market Value of the consideration to be received by the CD&R Holders is the same or less than what the CD&R Holders would have received had the CD&R Holders received the same form of consideration as the Selling Members (as reasonably determined by the Board in good faith); provided, further, that to the extent the consideration in any Drag-Along Transaction consists of a mix of illiquid securities, on the one hand, and cash and/or marketable securities, on the other hand, (x) the CD&R Holders will, and will cause the Company to, use reasonable best efforts to allocate cash and/or marketable securities to the Selling Members that are Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders before any cash and/or marketable securities are allocated to any other Member and (y) each Selling Member that is not an Accredited Investor may, in the discretion of the CD&R Holders, receive, and hereby agrees to accept, in lieu of such securities, cash consideration with an equivalent value to such securities as reasonably determined in good faith by the CD&R Holders; provided, further, that to the extent that any consideration to be received by a Non-Sponsor Common Equityholder that is a Selling Member pursuant to such Drag-Along Transaction consists of "seller financing" or similar take-back indebtedness in the form of a loan or other indebtedness not constituting a security, the CD&R Holders shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain for such Non-Sponsor Common Equityholder the option to receive such seller financing or take-back indebtedness in the form of debt securities issued pursuant to Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act with identical terms as the corresponding seller financing or take-back indebtedness not constituting securities.

(e) Consummation of Drag-Along Transaction. At least five (5) Business Days prior to the consummation of the Drag-Along Transaction, each Selling Member shall deliver to the Company, to hold in escrow pending transfer of the consideration therefor, an assignment and assumption agreement reasonably satisfactory to the Transferee necessary to sell or otherwise dispose of such securities in accordance with the terms of this Section 7.3. In the event that a Selling Member should fail to deliver such assignment and assumption agreement, the Company shall cause the books and records of the Company to show that all Common Units are bound by the provisions of this Section 7.3 and that such securities may only be Transferred to the purchaser in such Drag-Along Transaction in accordance with the terms of this Section 7.3. Upon the consummation of the Drag-Along Transaction, the acquiring Person shall remit directly to the Selling Members and the CD&R Holders, by wire transfer if available and if requested by the Selling Members or the CD&R Holders, as applicable, the consideration for the securities directly or indirectly sold pursuant thereto in accordance with Section 5.1.

(f) Cooperation; Waiver of Appraisal Rights. Each Selling Member shall cooperate, subject to the satisfaction of the terms and conditions set forth in Section 7.3(b) through Section 7.3(d), with the Company and the CD&R Holders in connection with the Drag-Along Transaction and shall take all actions as may be reasonably necessary or desirable to consummate such Drag-Along Transaction, including (i) voting all of its Common Units (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall take into account the Common Unit Equivalent Participation) entitled to vote on such Drag-Along Transaction in favor of such Drag-Along Transaction at any meeting of the Members called to vote on or approve such Drag-Along Transaction and/or to consent in writing to such Drag-Along Transaction (whether or not such approval of the Drag-Along Transaction is required by applicable Law and whether or not such approval is sought prior to or after the execution of a definitive agreement relating to a Drag-Along Transaction), (ii) using its reasonable best efforts to cause any Directors designated by such Selling Member to vote in favor of such Drag-Along Transaction at any meeting of the Board called to vote on or approve such Drag-Along Transaction or to consent in writing to such Drag-Along Transaction and raise no objection thereto, (iii) waiving any appraisal, dissenters' or similar rights that may be available to such Selling Member under any Law, agreement, organizational document or otherwise in connection with such Drag-Along Transaction, (iv) executing, acknowledging and delivering such agreements, consents, waivers and other documents and instruments, furnishing such information and documents, and filing such applications, reports, returns and other documents and instruments with governmental authorities, in each case, to the same extent as the CD&R Holders and as may be reasonably necessary or desirable in connection with the Drag-Along Transaction, and (v) taking such other actions as may be reasonably requested by the Company or the CD&R Holders in connection with the Drag-Along Transaction, in each case, to the same extent as the CD&R Holders (it being hereby acknowledged by each Member that such further actions may be requested by the Company or the CD&R Holders notwithstanding, and shall not limit in any manner the effect of, any approval, consent or waiver already given by such Member hereunder). Without limiting the effect of the foregoing or any other provision of this Section 7.3, if the Drag-Along Transaction is structured as a merger or consolidation, each Selling Member hereby consents to such Drag-Along Transaction and hereby waives and agrees not to exercise any appraisal, dissenters' or similar rights that may be available to such Selling Member under any applicable Law, organizational document or otherwise in connection with such Drag-Along Transaction.

(g) Proxy and Power of Attorney. Each Member (other than the CD&R Holders) hereby grants to the CD&R Holders collectively (acting by unanimous consent) an irrevocable proxy and power of attorney (with full power of substitution), for and in the name, place and stead of such Selling Member, (i) to vote all of its Common Units (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall take into account the Common Unit Equivalent Participation) entitled to vote on such Drag-Along Transaction in favor of such Drag-Along Transaction at any meeting of the Members called to vote on or approve such Drag-Along Transaction and/or to consent in writing to such Drag-Along Transaction (whether or not such approval of the Drag-Along Transaction is required by applicable Law and whether or not such approval is sought prior to or after the execution of a definitive agreement relating to a Drag-Along Transaction), and (ii) to take any and all other actions contemplated by Section 7.3(f) that may be necessary or advisable to consummate such Drag-Along Transaction or to Transfer to the purchaser the Common Units that such Selling Member is required to Transfer to the purchaser in connection with such Drag-Along Transaction pursuant to this Section 7.3 (it being hereby acknowledged by each Member that such actions may be taken by the CD&R Holders notwithstanding, and shall not limit in any manner the effect of, any approval, consent or waiver already given by such Member hereunder). Each Member (other than the CD&R Holders) hereby agrees that the irrevocable proxy and power of attorney set forth in this Section 7.3(g) is given to secure the performance of the obligations of such Member under this Section 7.3 and that such proxy and power of attorney shall be irrevocable, shall be deemed to be coupled with an interest, shall extend for the term of this Agreement or, if earlier, until the last date permitted by applicable Law, and shall be binding upon the successors and assigns of the applicable Member. Except as expressly contemplated by this Agreement, no Member shall grant any proxy or power of attorney or become party to any voting trust or other agreement that is inconsistent with or conflicts with the provisions of this Section 7.3.

(h) No Liability. The CD&R Holders shall, in their sole discretion, decide whether or not to pursue, consummate, postpone or abandon any proposed Transfer subject to this Section 7.3 and the terms and conditions hereof. No Member or Affiliate of a Member shall have any liability to any other Member or the Company arising from, relating to or in connection with the pursuit, consummation, postponement, abandonment or terms and conditions of any proposed Transfer subject to this Section 7.3, except to the extent such Member shall have failed to comply with the provisions of this Section 7.3.

(i) U.K. Listing Rules. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 7.3, the maximum amount payable to any Member that affirmatively elects, pursuant to an irrevocable notice to the Company prior to the consummation of the Drag-Along Transaction, to be subject to this Section 7.3(i) (a "Listing Rules Member") pursuant to a repurchase or other sale of such Listing Rules Member's Units and over which the applicable Listing Rules Member does not have sole discretion as to whether to enter into and consummate the applicable sale (including a Drag-Along Transaction) (a "Listing Rules Subject Sale") shall be equal to the lesser of (x) either (i) the minimum amount that would result in such Listing Rules Subject Sale constituting a significant transaction under the UK Listing Rules minus one pound Sterling (£1.00) or (ii) such other amount as such Listing Rules Member notifies to the Company in writing from time to time or (y) the amount otherwise payable to such Listing Rules Member in such Drag-Along Transaction in accordance with this Section 7.3; provided, that Barclays is hereby deemed to be a Listing Rules Member for purposes of this Section 7.3(i) and is not required to provide notification to the Company of its election as such; provided further, that the election of any Member to have this provision apply to such Member shall in no event increase the amount payable to such Member under this Agreement.

7.4 Preemptive Rights.

(a) General. The Preemptive Rights Recipients shall have the right to participate in any issuance or sale of New Securities by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Section 7.4. For the avoidance of doubt, the purchase right provided in this Section 7.4 shall apply at the time of issuance of any right, warrant, option or convertible or exchangeable security, and not to the conversion, exchange or exercise thereof. The rights and obligations in this Section 7.4 shall terminate upon an IPO.

(b) Required Notice of New Issuance. At least fifteen (15) Business Days prior to the proposed effective date of such issuance or sale, the Company shall give written notice of any proposed issuance or sale described in Section 7.4(a) (the "Issuance Notice") to each of the Preemptive Rights Recipients, which notice shall set forth the description of New Securities proposed to be issued or sold (the "Purchase Issuance"), the material terms and conditions of such proposed issuance or sale, including the name of any proposed purchaser(s), the proposed manner of disposition, the proposed issuance or sale date, the proposed purchase price (including, if applicable, the price per Unit or other New Security), including a description of any non-cash consideration sufficiently detailed to permit the determination of the fair market value thereof, and the proposed use of proceeds, including, in the case of an issuance or sale to fund an acquisition or other similar transaction, information regarding the target or counterparty to such transaction.

(c) Exercise of Preemptive Rights. At any time during the ten (10)-Business Day period following its receipt of the Issuance Notice, each of the Preemptive Rights Recipients who wishes to purchase any portion of the Purchase Issuance shall give a written notice to the Company (the "Purchase Notice"), which notice shall (i) set forth the portion of the Purchase Issuance such Preemptive Rights Recipient wishes to purchase (up to such Preemptive Rights Recipient's Pro Rata Portion) and, at the option of such Preemptive Rights Recipient, the maximum portion of the Purchase Issuance that such Preemptive Rights Recipient irrevocably commits to purchase in excess of such Preemptive Rights Recipient's Pro Rata Portion (the "Excess Amount"), and (ii) contain an irrevocable commitment by such Preemptive Rights Recipient to purchase the portion of the Purchase Issuance set forth in such Purchase Notice, upon the terms and conditions, including the purchase price, specified in the applicable Issuance Notice; provided that, in the event that any portion of the purchase price (per Unit, if applicable) to be paid by the proposed purchaser is to be paid in non-cash consideration, the value of any such non-cash consideration (per Unit, if applicable) shall be the Fair Market Value thereof, and the Preemptive Rights Recipient shall be permitted to satisfy payment of the purchase price in cash (based on the Fair Market Value) in lieu of non-cash consideration. So long as none of the terms set forth in the Issuance Notice are changed following delivery of the Purchase Notice by a Preemptive Rights Recipient, any Purchase Notice shall upon delivery become binding on such Preemptive Rights Recipient and shall become irrevocable without the necessity of any acceptance thereof by the Company. If one or more Preemptive Rights Recipients decline to participate in such purchase or elect to purchase less than their Pro Rata Portion, then the remaining portion of the Purchase Issuance shall automatically be deemed to be accepted by the Preemptive Rights Recipients who specified an Excess Amount in their respective Purchase Notices, and shall be allocated among such Preemptive Rights Recipients in proportion to their respective Pro Rata Portion; provided that in no event shall an amount greater than a Preemptive Rights Recipient's Excess Amount be allocated to such Preemptive Rights Recipient pursuant to this sentence. Any excess portion of the Purchase Issuance remaining after such allocation shall be further allocated among the remaining Preemptive Rights Recipients whose specified Excess Amounts have not been satisfied in full, in proportion to each such Preemptive Rights Recipient's respective Pro Rata Portion, and such procedure shall be employed until the entire Excess Amount of each Preemptive Rights Recipient has been satisfied or until the entire Purchase Issuance has been allocated. A Preemptive Rights Recipient's failure to give written notice prior to the expiration of the 10-Business Day period above regarding its election to purchase any portion of the Purchase Issuance pursuant to this Section 7.4 shall be deemed an election by such Preemptive Rights Recipient not to purchase any portion of the Purchase Issuance.

(d) Consummation of New Issuance. The purchase of any portion of the Purchase Issuance with respect to which Purchase Notices have been delivered in accordance with Section 7.4(c) shall be consummated concurrently with the consummation of the issuance or sale described in the applicable Issuance Notice; provided that the closing of any purchase by any Preemptive Rights Recipient may be extended beyond the closing of the transaction described in the applicable Issuance Notice to the extent necessary to obtain required governmental approvals and other required approvals, and the Company and the Members shall use reasonable best efforts to obtain such approvals. Upon the consummation of the purchase by the Preemptive Rights Recipients of their portions of the Purchase Issuance pursuant to this Section 7.4, each of the Preemptive Rights Recipients who has purchased a portion of the Purchase Issuance shall remit to the Company or the applicable Subsidiary of the Company, by wire transfer of immediately available funds, the consideration for the portion of the Purchase Issuance sold pursuant thereto.

(e) Issuance of Unsubscribed New Securities. If, at the end of the ten (10)-Business Day period specified in Section 7.4(c), none of the Preemptive Rights Recipients has delivered to the Company an effective Purchase Notice, or if the Preemptive Rights Recipients have delivered Purchase Notices covering in the aggregate less than the entire Purchase Issuance, then the Company or the applicable Subsidiary of the Company shall be free to complete the proposed issuance or sale of the Purchase Issuance with respect to which no effective Purchase Notice has been delivered on terms no less favorable to the Company or such Subsidiary than those set forth in the Issuance Notice (except that the amount of the Purchase Issuance may be reduced), provided that (x) such issuance or sale is consummated within ninety (90) days after the expiration of the 10-Business Day period described in Section 7.4(c) and (y) the price at which the Purchase Issuance is issued or sold (including the price per Unit or other New Securities, if relevant) is equal to or higher than the purchase price described in the Issuance Notice. Such periods within which such issuance or sale must be closed shall be extended to the extent necessary to obtain required governmental approvals and other required approvals, and the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain such approvals. In the event that the Company or the applicable Subsidiary of the Company has not sold any portion of the Purchase Issuance within such 90-day period (as may be extended in accordance with the prior sentence), the Company or such Subsidiary shall not thereafter issue or sell any portion of the Purchase Issuance without first again offering the Purchase Issuance to the Preemptive Rights Recipients in the manner provided in this Section 7.4.

(f) Designation Rights. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, each of the Preemptive Rights Recipients may designate one or more Persons constituting a Permitted Affiliate Transferee thereof to purchase all or part of the portion of the Purchase Issuance which such Preemptive Rights Recipient has elected to subscribe for pursuant to this Section 7.4.

(g) Post-Issuance Offering. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Board determines that it is in the best interests of the Company for the Company, or the applicable Subsidiary, to issue New Securities to any Person prior to offering such New Securities to the Preemptive Rights Recipients under this Section 7.4, the Company, or its applicable Subsidiary, may issue such New Securities without first complying with this Section 7.4; provided that, (i) within five (5) Business Days after such issuance, the Company, or its applicable Subsidiary, shall provide written notice to each Preemptive Rights Recipient, including the same detail as would have been in an Issuance Notice of such issuance and (ii) within forty-five (45) days of the closing of such issuance, the Company shall offer each Preemptive Rights Recipient the opportunity to purchase on the same terms and at the same price as applicable to such issuance, the number of New Securities that such Preemptive Rights Recipient would have been entitled to purchase so as to maintain or obtain such Preemptive Rights Recipient's Pro Rata Portion (calculated immediately before the issuance made pursuant to this Section 7.4(g)) of the New Securities issued pursuant to this Section 7.4(g) in accordance with the procedures of this Section 7.4. A Preemptive Rights Recipient's failure to give written notice prior to the tenth (10^{th}) Business Day following the offer to participate described above regarding its election to purchase any portion of the Purchase Issuance pursuant to this Section 7.4 shall be deemed an election by such Preemptive Rights Recipient not to purchase any portion of the Purchase Issuance.

(h) Preemptive Debt Interests. To the extent that, in connection with any issuance of New Securities constituting Preemptive Debt Interests, the CD&R Members or any of their respective Affiliates acquire 33.33% or greater of such issuance of New Securities, the terms of such Preemptive Debt Interests shall provide for customary transferability (as to permitted assignees / transferees) and customary voting and sacred rights protections, including, without limitation as to pro rata treatment, waterfall and payment, structural and lien subordination and amendments to the foregoing; provided, however, that this Section 7.4(h) shall be deemed satisfied so long as such provisions (i) are no less favorable to lenders or holders of such New Securities than the equivalent provisions in the New Term Loan Facility (as in effect on the Effective Date, and without taking into account any subsequent amendments, restatements, supplements or modifications thereto), (ii) provide that any contractual subordination or amendments to the pro rata provision sharing and waterfall provisions are subject to each directly and adversely affected lender being offered an opportunity to provide its pro rata share of the subject indebtedness and (iii) provide that any "Liability Management Transaction" (as defined in the New Term Loan Facility as in effect on the Effective Date, and without taking into account any subsequent amendments, restatements, supplements or modifications thereto) shall be subject to each directly and adversely affected lender being offered an opportunity to provide its pro rata share of the subject indebtedness.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, a Preemptive Rights Recipient shall not be entitled to acquire New Securities by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to this Section 7.4, if (i) such Preemptive Rights Recipient is not an Accredited Investor or (ii) issuance or offer of the New Securities to such Preemptive Rights Recipient will require the registration or qualification of any securities or the sale thereof or of any Person as a broker or dealer or agent with respect to such securities where such registration or qualification is not otherwise required.

7.5 Effect of Assignment. The Company shall, from the effective date of any permitted Transfer of a Unit (or part thereof), thereafter pay all further distributions on account of such Unit (or part thereof) to the Transferee of such Unit (or part thereof). The permitted Transferee of a Unit (or part thereof) held by any Member or any of their respective Affiliates shall have all of the rights granted generally to all Members hereunder.

7.6 Release of Liability. In the event any Member shall Transfer its entire interest in the Company in compliance with the provisions of this Agreement, without retaining any interest therein, directly or indirectly, then the selling Member shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, be relieved of any further liability arising hereunder for events occurring from and after the date of such Transfer and shall cease to be a Member of the Company.

7.7 Right of First Refusal. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 7.2, from the Effective Date until the three-month anniversary of the Effective Date, in the event that a Member shall propose to Transfer any Common Units (each, a "Prospective Selling Member") to any Person (other than a Permitted Affiliate Transferee), the ROFR Members shall have a right of first refusal with respect to such proposed Transfer, which right shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of this Section 7.7.

(a) With respect to any such proposed Transfer of Common Units, the Prospective Selling Member shall offer to ROFR Members the option to purchase the Common Units proposed to be Transferred at the same price and upon the same terms and conditions as are specified in a bona fide written offer from the proposed transferee.

(b) The notice to the ROFR Members ("Right of First Refusal Notice") shall include the price, form of consideration and any other material terms and conditions, and the identity of the Person to whom such Prospective Selling Member is proposing to Transfer such Common Units, including the identity of any Person controlling such proposed Transferee (if known by the Prospective Selling Member). Upon the written request from a ROFR Member within five (5) Business Days of delivery of the Right of First Refusal Notice, such Prospective Selling Member shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide such other information as is reasonably requested by such ROFR Member. To exercise its right to purchase the Common Units proposed to be Transferred, any of the ROFR Members shall within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of the Right of First Refusal Notice (such period of days, the "ROFR Notice Period") give written notice to the Prospective Selling Member identifying the number of such Common Units it agrees to purchase (a "ROFR Acceptance Notice"). In the event that, as of such date, the ROFR Members, collectively, fail to notify the Prospective Selling Member of their agreement in writing to purchase all of the Common Units proposed to be Transferred, the Prospective Selling Member shall provide notice of such shortfall to the ROFR Members, and if they wish to purchase all or any portion of the Common Units comprising such shortfall, the ROFR Members shall within two (2) Business Days of receipt of such notice provide written notice to the Prospective Selling Member identifying the number of Common Units comprising such shortfall that it agrees to purchase ("ROFR Undersubscription Notice"). In the event that any ROFR Member fails to deliver (x) a ROFR Acceptance Notice to the Prospective Selling Member within the 10 Business Day period, such ROFR Member shall be deemed, subject to Section 7.7(c), to have waived its right of first refusal with respect to such Common Units and (y) if applicable, a ROFR Undersubscription Notice to the Prospective Selling Member within the two (2) Business Day period, such ROFR Member shall be deemed, subject to Section 7.7(c), to have waived its right to purchase any portion of any shortfall with respect to such Common Units. The delivery by a ROFR Member of a ROFR Acceptance Notice or a ROFR Undersubscription Notice shall constitute an irrevocable commitment, subject to the terms of this Section 7.7(b), by such ROFR Member to purchase such Common Units set forth in its ROFR Acceptance Notice and, if applicable, ROFR Undersubscription Notice on the terms set forth in the Right of First Refusal Notice and the closing of such purchase shall take place at the offices of the Company (or at any other place as may be agreed by the Company, any ROFR Members that are purchasing Common Units in such Transfer and the Prospective Selling Member) on a date specified by the Company and any ROFR Members that are purchasing Common Units in such Transfer, which date shall be within fifteen (15) Business Days after the expiration of the ROFR Notice Period (subject to extension to the extent necessary to obtain required government approvals or clearances); provided, however, that, if the ROFR Members, collectively, elect to purchase more than all of the Common Units proposed to be Transferred, each ROFR Member electing to purchase any Common Units shall be deemed to have irrevocably committed to purchase the number of such Common Units allocated to it as follows (in each case until the full number of Common Units proposed to be Transferred has been allocated), (I) first, to the ROFR Members delivering ROFR Acceptance Notices, up to the number of Common Units set forth in their respective ROFR Acceptance Notices, allocated pro rata in proportion to the number of Common Units held by such ROFR Member immediately following the Effective Date relative to the number of Common Units held by all ROFR Members immediately following the Effective Date, respectively, and (II) second, to the ROFR Members delivering ROFR Undersubscription Notices, up to the number of Common Units set forth in their respective ROFR Undersubscription Notices, allocated pro rata in proportion to the number of Common Units held by such ROFR Member immediately following the Effective Date relative to the number of Common Units held by the ROFR Members delivering ROFR Undersubscription Notices immediately following the Effective Date, respectively. If the terms of the proposed Transfer include the Transfer of the Common Units for consideration other than cash, any ROFR Members that are purchasing Common Units in such Transfer will have the right to exercise their rights hereunder by purchasing such Common Units for cash in an amount equal to the Fair Market Value of such proposed consideration.

(c) If the ROFR Members elect not to purchase any Common Units proposed to be Transferred, or elect to purchase less than all of the Common Units proposed to be Transferred, the Prospective Selling Member may accept the offers of the ROFR Members (if any) and, at the option of the Prospective Selling Member, sell the remaining Common Units proposed to be Transferred to the Person (or an Affiliate thereof) specified in the Right of First Refusal Notice, provided that, such sale is made (x) within 90 days after the date of such Right of First Refusal Notice (subject to extension to the extent necessary to obtain required governmental approvals or clearances), at a price and upon terms and conditions not more favorable to such transferee than those that were specified in the Right of First Refusal Notice and (y) in compliance with Section 7.2 if applicable to such sale.

ARTICLE VIII.

INITIAL PUBLIC OFFERING

8.1 IPO Restructuring.

(a) General. In anticipation of or in connection with any proposed IPO, the Board may take, and the Members shall, at the request of the Board, cooperate with the Board and each other by taking, such actions as may be reasonably required or otherwise advisable in connection therewith to effectuate the IPO. The corporation to issue securities in the IPO shall be the Company or other entity designated by the CD&R Holders (the "IPO Corporation"). The IPO Corporation, if other than the Company, shall cause all proceeds of any IPO in respect of primary issuances by the IPO Corporation (net of any related fees and expenses) to be directly or indirectly contributed to the Company. If the Board determines, in its sole discretion, that the exchange or conversion of Units held by the Members for or into securities of the IPO Corporation would increase the likelihood of success of the IPO, in any respect, the Company may, and the Members shall, cause the exchange or conversion of Units held by all Members for or into securities of the IPO

Corporation. The Members shall cooperate in undertaking such transactions and taking all actions as are necessary to effect the IPO of the relevant IPO Corporation as determined by the Board, including, without limitation, (i) passing any resolutions and/or class consents necessary to: (A) transfer the Units to the IPO Corporation, (B) reorganize or restructure the relevant equity capital or other securities of the Company or its Subsidiaries, provided always that no Member shall be obligated to exercise its voting rights to effect any such reorganization that would dilute its then proportionate economic entitlement as compared with any other Member, (C) adopt such new constitutional documents of the Company or its relevant Subsidiaries or the IPO Corporation, (D) re-register the Company or its relevant Subsidiaries or the IPO Corporation as a public limited company or other corporate form which is lawfully capable of issuing shares to the public and/or such other securities as are to be listed or traded and (E) make all applications to a relevant exchange necessary for the purposes of effecting the IPO, (ii) voting, if such a vote is required by this Agreement or otherwise, all of their Units entitled to vote on such IPO in favor of such IPO at any meeting of the Members called to vote on or approve such IPO and/or to consent in writing to such IPO, (iii) using their reasonable best efforts to cause their representatives on the Board to vote in favor of such IPO (whether at any meeting of the Board called to vote on or approve such IPO or through a consent in writing) and raise no objection thereto, (iv) executing, acknowledging and delivering agreements (including any underwriting or similar agreement), consents, assignments, waivers (including a waiver of any dissenters' rights, appraisal rights or similar rights to the fullest extent under the Law of the State of Delaware or otherwise related to such IPO and confirmation of such waiver upon request of the Company) and other documents or instruments, (v) furnishing such information and copies of documents as may be reasonably requested by the Company and (vi) taking such other actions as may be reasonably requested by the Board in connection with the IPO. The actions of the Company in respect of the Units described above are referred to herein as the "IPO Restructuring". Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if a Common Unit Holder or Preferred Unit Holder that is not an Accredited Investor will receive securities in the IPO Restructuring or the participation of such Common Unit Holder or Preferred Unit Holder in such transaction will require the registration or qualification of any securities or the sale thereof or of any Person as a broker or dealer or agent with respect to such securities where such registration or qualification is not otherwise required for such transaction, then such Common Unit Holder or Preferred Unit Holder shall not have the right to exchange or convert its Units in such proposed transaction and, at the Company's discretion, will surrender its Units to the Company for an amount in cash equal to the Fair Market Value of such Units as of the effective date of the proposed recapitalization, conversion, reorganization or other IPO Restructuring transaction.

(b) Equivalent Rights. The Company and the Members shall take such actions as to ensure that, as a result of and immediately after giving effect to any IPO Restructuring and the IPO, the holders of IPO Corporation securities that were Members (or Affiliates of Members) immediately prior to the IPO have substantially the same relative economic rights, privileges, preferences, priorities and obligations and governance rights (to the extent any such governance rights would continue to be applicable following an IPO under this Agreement) in respect of the IPO Corporation as the applicable Member had in respect of the Company and its Subsidiaries pursuant to this Agreement immediately prior to such IPO Restructuring. If requested by the Company, the Members and/or their Affiliates shall enter into a stockholders, operating or similar agreement containing substantially similar rights and obligations with respect to IPO Corporation securities as are provided for in this Agreement with respect to the Units, including with respect to the board of directors or other similar governing body of such entity, and otherwise consistent with the provisions of this Section 8.1 (taking into account any rights that may terminate upon an IPO, if applicable, such as the tag-along rights set forth in Section 7.2, the drag-along rights set forth in Section 7.3 and the preemptive rights set forth in Section 7.4).

(c) Holdback Agreement. No Member shall effect any Transfer of any Units during the seven (7) days prior to and the 180-day period beginning on the effective date of the IPO (and the 90-day period beginning on the effective date of any other underwritten Public Offering), except as part of such underwritten Public Offering or unless otherwise permitted by the Board. In connection with any underwritten Public Offering, each Common Unit Holder and Preferred Unit Holder will enter into any lock-up, holdback or similar agreements requested by the underwriter(s) managing such offering, in each case with such modifications and exceptions as may be approved by the Board; provided that the period of any such lock-up or holdback shall not begin earlier than the seven (7) days prior to, and shall end no more than 180 days after, the effective date of the IPO (or in the case of any other underwriting Public Offering, 90 days after such underwritten Public Offering). Any discretionary waiver or termination of the foregoing restrictions by the Board or the underwriters, as applicable, shall apply to all Members pro rata based on the number of Units subject to such restrictions.

ARTICLE IX.

MEMBERS

9.1 Powers of Members. The Members shall have only the rights and powers expressly granted to the Members pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and shall not have any voting or other rights in respect of any other matter. The vote, approval or consent of the Members shall not be required in order to authorize the taking of any action by the Company except and only to the extent that (i) this Agreement (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Preferred Unit Schedule) shall expressly otherwise provide, (ii) such approval or consent shall be required by non-waivable provisions of the Act or (iii) the Board shall determine that obtaining such approval or consent would be appropriate or desirable. No Member (acting in its capacity as such) shall have any authority to bind the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company to any Person with respect to any matter, except as authorized in accordance herewith. Members shall exercise their powers with respect to the Company only through the appointment of Directors, except as otherwise required by the Act. Each Member expressly waives any voting, approval or consent rights (except to the extent described above) or other rights to participate in the governance of the Company, whether such rights may be provided under the Act (including under §§ 18-209(b), 18-213(b), 18-215(b)(4), 18-215(b)(9), 18-216(b), 18-301(b)(1), 18-302(a), 18-302(f), 18-304, 18-305(a), 18-702(a), 18-704(a), 18-801(a), 18-803(a) or 18-806 thereof) or otherwise.

9.2 Meetings of Members.

(a) Meetings; Notice of Meetings. An annual meeting of the Members of the Company for the transaction of such business as properly may come before such meeting is not required but may be held each year in the discretion of the Board either within or without the State of Delaware on such date and at such place and time as are designated by the Board. Additional meetings of the Members may be called by the Board from time to time. Notice of any meeting of the Members shall be given to all Members not less than 10, nor more than 30, Business Days prior to the date of such meeting and shall state the location, date and hour of such meeting and the nature of the business to be transacted. Meetings shall be held at the location (within or without the State of Delaware) at the date and hour set forth in the notice of the meeting.

(b) Waiver of Notice. No notice of any meeting of Members need be given to any Member who submits a signed waiver of notice, whether before or after the meeting. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any meeting of the Members need be specified in a written waiver of notice. The attendance of any Member at a meeting of Members shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the Member attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

(c) Quorum. Except as otherwise required by Law or by the Certificate, the presence in person or by proxy of the holders of record of a majority of voting power of the Common Units (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall take into account the Common Unit Equivalent Participation) shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at such meeting.

(d) Voting. If the Board has fixed a record date, each Common Unit Holder is entitled to one vote for each Common Unit held by such Member at the close of business on such record date. If no record date has been so fixed, then each Common Unit Holder shall be entitled to one vote for each Common Unit held by such Member at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice of the meeting is given or, for actions taken in lieu of a meeting, the first consent in respect of the applicable action is executed and delivered to the Company, or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held. In addition to any prescribed voting rights of Preferred Unit Holders as a separate class as set forth in Section 5.01(b) of the Preferred Unit Schedule, the Preferred Unit Holders shall be entitled to vote, to the extent of the Common Unit Equivalent Participation, in person or by proxy, at all meetings of Common Unit Holders (and written actions in lieu of meetings) or otherwise on all matters on which Common Unit Holders generally are entitled to vote and the Preferred Unit Holders (to the extent of Common Unit Equivalent Participation) and Common Unit Holders shall vote together as a single class on all matters submitted to a vote of Common Unit Holders. Any matters at any meeting of the Members at which a quorum is present shall be decided by the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power of the Common Units (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall take into account the Common Unit Equivalent Participation) present in person or represented by proxy at such meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter in question, unless otherwise expressly provided by applicable Law or this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else to the contrary in this Agreement, Common Unit Holders shall only be entitled to vote on those matters for which their vote is required in accordance with Section 9.1.

(e) Proxies. Each Member may authorize any Person to act for such Member by proxy on all matters in which a Member is entitled to participate, including waiving notice of any meeting, or voting or participating at a meeting. Every proxy must be signed by the Member or such Member's attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after the expiration of three (3) years from the date thereof unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Every proxy shall be revocable at the pleasure of the Member executing it unless otherwise provided in such proxy; provided that such right to revocation shall not invalidate or otherwise affect actions taken under such proxy prior to such revocation.

(f) Organization. Each meeting of Members shall be conducted by such Person as the Board may designate.

(g) Action Without a Meeting. Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement, any action which may be taken at any meeting of the Members may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by Members holding a majority of the voting power of the Common Units (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall take into account the Common Unit Equivalent Participation) entitled to vote; provided, that any Special Action shall instead require its applicable approval set forth in Section 9.8.

(h) Action to be Taken by Groups of Members. For all purposes of this Agreement, if any action (including delivery of a consent, notice or request) is required or contemplated to be taken by a group of two or more Members (including the CD&R Holders), such action shall be deemed to be taken by such group of Members if taken by Members holding a majority of the total voting power of the Common Units (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall take into account the Common Unit Equivalent Participation) held by such group of Members.

9.3 Partition. Except as may otherwise be provided by Law in connection with the Liquidation of the Company, each Member hereby irrevocably waives any and all rights that such Member may have to maintain an action for partition of any of the Company's property.

9.4 Business Transactions of a Member or its Affiliates with the Company. Subject to Section 9.8 and the terms of this Agreement, a Member or Affiliate thereof may lend money to, borrow money from, act as surety or endorser for, guaranty or assume one or more specific obligations of, provide collateral for, or transact any other business with the Company.

9.5 No Cessation of Membership upon Bankruptcy. A Person shall not cease to be a Member of the Company upon the happening, with respect to such Person, of any of the events specified in section 18-304 of the Act.

9.6 Confidentiality. Each Member (other than the CD&R Members or any of their respective Permitted Affiliate Transferees) agrees to, and shall cause its Representatives to, keep confidential and not divulge any Information, and to use, and cause its Representatives to use, such Information only in connection with the operation of the Company and its Subsidiaries; provided that nothing herein shall prevent any party hereto or any of its Representatives from disclosing such Information (i) upon the order of any court or administrative agency, (ii) upon the request or demand of any regulatory agency or authority having jurisdiction over such party or Representative, (iii) to the extent required by Law or legal process or required or requested pursuant to subpoena, interrogatories or other discovery requests, (iv) to the extent necessary in connection with the exercise of any remedy hereunder, (v) to other Members, (vi) to such party's Representatives that in the reasonable judgment of such party need to know such Information, (vii) in the case of any institutional investor with respect to such Information as is customarily disclosed by institutional investors to their limited partners, to such party's direct or indirect limited partners, prospective limited partners and/or their respective advisors or (viii) to any bona fide proposed Transferee to whom such proposed Transfer would be permitted under this Agreement in connection with a proposed Transfer of Units from such Member (or a bona fide proposed acquiror of the Company or substantially all of the assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries (directly or indirectly) in connection with a transaction permitted under this Agreement), so long as such proposed Transferee or acquiror agrees to be bound by the provisions of this Section 9.6 as if a Member; provided, further, that, in the case of clause (i), (ii) or (iii), such Member shall notify the Company of the proposed disclosure as far in advance of such disclosure as practicable and use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any Information so disclosed is accorded confidential treatment, when and if available.

9.7 Additional Members.

(a) Admission. Except as otherwise provided herein (including Article VII), upon the approval of a majority of the Directors, the Company may admit one or more additional Members to be treated as a "Member" for all purposes hereunder. Each Person shall be admitted as a Member at the time such Person (i) executes and delivers a duly executed and completed Joinder Agreement hereto (including the completion of such Person's complete and accurate notice information), (ii) complies with the applicable Board resolution, if any, with respect to such admission and (iii) is named as a Member in Schedule A hereto. The Board is authorized to amend Schedule A to reflect any such admission and to take any actions pursuant to Section 9.7(b) below.

(b) Rights of Additional Members. Upon the admission of an additional Member:

(i) Units. The Board may, subject to any restrictions or consents contained herein (including Article VII), assign Units to such Member; and

(ii) Capital Contributions. If requested by the Board and agreed to by such Member, such Member shall make capital contributions to the Company in an amount to be determined by the Board.

9.8 Non-Sponsor Common Equityholder Approvals. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, prior to an IPO, the Company shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to, take any of the following actions (the "Special Actions"):

(a) unless approved by the holders of a majority of Common Units held by the Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders who timely cast a vote or otherwise timely respond to a consent solicitation, in each case, following reasonable notice from the Company regarding the proposed action at least twenty (20) Business Days prior to the deadline to submit such vote or respond to such consent solicitation, (i) enter into any related party transaction between the CD&R Members or any of their respective Affiliates, on the one hand, and the Company and its Subsidiaries, on the other hand, except for (x) a Transfer of Units to, or a transaction with, a Continuation Fund, so long as such Transfer or transaction observes a process designed to ensure fairness of the transaction to the Company and the Members or a written fairness opinion from an independent financial advisor has been obtained, (y) Transfers for which preemptive rights are made available in accordance with Section 7.4, or (z) transactions with portfolio companies of the CD&R Members or their respective Affiliates on arms' length terms, or (ii) make a material change in the Company's principal line of business;

(b) unless approved by the holders of 75% of Common Units held by the Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders who timely cast a vote or otherwise timely respond to a consent solicitation, in each case, following reasonable notice from the Company regarding the proposed action at least twenty (20) Business Days prior to the deadline to submit such vote or respond to such consent solicitation, change the tax classification of the Company (other than in connection with a reorganization to facilitate an IPO on customary terms (including an IPO Restructuring) that does not by its terms adversely affect the Common Units held by the Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders in a manner disproportionate to the effect on the Common Units held by the CD&R Holder and is not otherwise required pursuant to the Preferred Units Schedule); and

(c) unless approved by 95% of the Common Units held by the Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders (a "Non-Sponsor Common Equityholder Supermajority"), make any non-pro rata dividends, distributions or equity purchases or repurchases, except for (i) equity purchases or repurchases that have been offered to all Common Unit Holders on a pro rata basis, which purchases or repurchases may be made from only those that accept such offer, (ii) any redemption of Preferred Units permitted or required pursuant to the Preferred Units Schedule and (iii) repurchases of Common Units owned by the Management Holders in an aggregate amount not to exceed an amount equal to (A) the greater of $20.0 million and 5.0% of Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (as defined in the Preferred Unit Schedule) of the Company plus (B) the Net Cash Proceeds (as defined in the Preferred Unit Schedule) received by the Company on or since the Effective Date from, or as a capital contribution from, the issuance or sale to Management Investors (as defined in the Preferred Unit Schedule) of debt or equity securities of the Company (including any options, warrants or other rights in respect thereof) plus (C) the cash proceeds of key man life insurance policies received by the Company or any Subsidiary thereof on or since the Effective Date.

ARTICLE X.

LIABILITY, EXCULPATION AND INDEMNIFICATION

10.1 Liability. Except as otherwise provided by the Act, the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, shall be solely the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company, and no Covered Person shall be obligated personally for any such debt, obligation or liability of the Company solely by reason of being a Covered Person.

10.2 Exculpation. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, no Covered Person shall be liable to the Company or any other Covered Person for any loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by such Covered Person in good faith on behalf of the Company and in a manner believed to be within the scope of authority conferred on such Covered Person by this Agreement, except that a Covered Person shall be liable for any such loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of such Covered Person's Disabling Conduct or willful and material breach of this Agreement. Each Covered Person shall in the performance of his or her duties be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the records of the Company and upon information, opinions, reports or statements presented to the Company by any of the Company's officers or employees, or committees designated by the Board, or by any other person as to the matters the Covered Person reasonably believes are within such other person's professional or expert competence and who has been selected with reasonable care by or on behalf of the Company. Without limiting the foregoing, each Member agrees to waive any claim or right of action it might have, whether individually or on behalf of the Company against any Director on account of any action taken or failure to take any action in his or her capacity as a Director.

10.3 Fiduciary Duty; Company Opportunities.

(a) Waiver of Fiduciary Duties. Any duties (including fiduciary duties) of a Covered Person to the Company or to any other Covered Person that would otherwise apply at law or in equity are hereby eliminated to the fullest extent permitted under the Act and any other applicable Law; provided that (x) the foregoing shall not eliminate the obligation of each Covered Person to act in compliance with the express terms of this Agreement, (y) the foregoing shall not be deemed to eliminate the implied contractual covenant of good faith and fair dealing and (z) the foregoing shall not limit the fiduciary duties set forth in the Act of any Director or officer who is an employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. A Covered Person acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company or to any other Covered Person for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, each of the Members hereby acknowledges and agrees that each of the Directors (other than any Director that is also an employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries), in determining whether or not to vote in support of or against any particular decision for which the Board's consent or approval is required, may act in and consider the best interest of the Member or Members who designated such Director and shall not be required to act in or consider the best interests of the Company or the other Members. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, to the extent that, at law or in equity, a Covered Person (other than any Covered Person that is also an employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries) has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company or to any other Covered Person, a Covered Person acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company or to any other Covered Person for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement. Any Director or officer of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that is also an employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries shall be subject to the fiduciary duties of a director or officer, as applicable, of a Delaware corporation under the Delaware General Corporation Law.

(b) Company Opportunities. Except as otherwise provided in the last sentence of this Section 10.3(b) and subject in all cases to compliance with Section 9.6, (i) no Covered Person (other than any Covered Person that is also an employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries) shall have any duty to communicate or present an investment or business opportunity or prospective economic advantage to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries in which the Company or one of its Subsidiaries may, but for the provisions of this Section 10.3(b), have an interest or expectancy ("Company Opportunity"), and (ii) no Covered Person (other than any Covered Person that is also an employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries) will be deemed to have breached any fiduciary or other duty or obligation to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries by reason of the fact that any such Person pursues or acquires a Company Opportunity for itself or its Affiliates or directs, sells, assigns or transfers such Company Opportunity to another Person or does not communicate information regarding such Company Opportunity to the Company. The Company, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries, renounces any interest in a Company Opportunity and any expectancy that a Company Opportunity will be offered to the Company; provided that the Company does not renounce any interest or expectancy it may have in any Company Opportunity that is offered to an officer or employee of the Company, whether or not such individual is also a director, officer or employee of a Member, if such opportunity is expressly offered to such Person in his or her capacity as an officer or employee of the Company, and the Members recognize that the Company reserves such rights.

(c) Overriding Provision. The provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict the duties and liabilities of a Covered Person otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the parties hereto to replace such other duties and liabilities of such Covered Person.

10.4 Indemnification and Insurance. In addition to the payment of expenses pursuant to Section 10.5, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, the Company agrees to indemnify, pay and hold each Covered Person harmless from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, claims, costs, expenses and disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever (including any interest and penalties, out-of-pocket expenses, and the fees and disbursements of counsel for such Covered Person in connection with any investigative, administrative or judicial proceedings, whether or not such Covered Person shall be designated a party thereto), whether absolute, accrued, conditional or otherwise and whether or not resulting from third-party claims, which may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against any such Covered Person, in any manner relating to or arising out of any act or omission performed or omitted by such Covered Person on behalf of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, except that no Covered Person shall be entitled to be indemnified in respect of any loss, damage or claim incurred by such Covered Person which is determined by a final, non-appealable decision of a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from such Covered Person's Disabling Conduct; provided, that any indemnity under this Section 10.4 shall be provided out of and to the extent of Company assets only, and no Covered Person shall have any personal liability on account thereof. The Company is the full indemnitor of first resort (i.e., its obligations to a Covered Person are primary and any obligation of the CD&R Members or any Affiliate thereof to advance expenses, to provide indemnification and/or to provide insurance for the same expenses or liabilities incurred by the Covered Person are secondary). The Company shall maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance in an amount determined by, and on terms and conditions reasonably acceptable to, the Board.

10.5 Expenses. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees, disbursements, fines and amounts paid in settlement) incurred by a Covered Person in defending any claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding relating to or arising out of his or her performance of his or her duties on behalf of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, or with respect to advice sought regarding his or her rights and responsibilities, or the protection of rights or interests, under this Agreement, shall, from time to time, be advanced by the Company prior to the final disposition of such claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding upon receipt by the Company of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Covered Person to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Covered Person is not entitled to be indemnified as authorized in Section 10.4.

10.6 Severability. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, if any portion of this Article X shall be invalidated on any ground by any court of competent jurisdiction, then the Company shall nevertheless indemnify each Covered Person and may indemnify each employee or agent of the Company as to costs, charges and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement with respect to any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including an action by or in the right of the Company, in each case to the fullest extent permitted by any applicable portion of this Article X that shall not have been invalidated.

10.7 Breach of Agreement. Nothing in this Article X shall relieve any party from any liability for the breach of any of the agreements set forth in this Agreement.

ARTICLE XI.

INVESTMENT REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

11.1 Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Members. Each Member represents and warrants to the Company and each other Member, as of the date that such Member becomes a party to this Agreement, that:

(a) Investment Intention and Restrictions on Disposition. Such Member is acquiring the Units solely for such Member's own account for investment and not with a view to resale in connection with any distribution thereof. Each Member agrees that such Member will not Transfer any of the Units (or solicit any offers to buy, purchase or otherwise acquire or take a pledge of any of the Units) or any interest therein or any rights relating thereto or offer to Transfer, except in compliance with the Securities Act, all applicable state securities or "blue sky" laws and this Agreement. Any attempt by a Member to Transfer, or offer to Transfer, any Units or any interest therein or any rights relating thereto without complying with the provisions of this Agreement shall be void and of no effect.

(b) Securities Laws Matters. Such Member acknowledges receipt of advice from the Company that (i) the Units have not been registered under the Securities Act or qualified under any state securities or "blue sky" laws; (ii) it is not anticipated that there will be any public market for the Units; (iii) the Units must be held indefinitely and such Member must continue to bear the economic risk of the investment in the Units unless the Units are subsequently registered under the Securities Act and such state laws or an exemption from registration is available; (iv) Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act ("Rule 144") is not presently available with respect to sales of any securities of the Company and the Company has made no covenant to make Rule 144 available and Rule 144 is not anticipated to be available in the foreseeable future; (v) when and if the Units may be disposed of without registration in reliance upon Rule 144, such disposition can be made only in limited amounts and in accordance with the terms and conditions of Rule 144 and the provisions of this Agreement; (vi) if the exemption afforded by Rule 144 is not available, public sale of the Units without registration will require the availability of an exemption under the Securities Act; (vii) restrictive legends shall be placed on any certificate representing the Units; and (viii) a notation shall be made in the appropriate records of the Company indicating that the Units are subject to restrictions on transfer and, if the Company should in the future engage the services of a transfer agent, appropriate stop-transfer instructions will be issued to such transfer agent with respect to the Units.

(c) Ability to Bear Risk. (i) Such Member's financial situation is such that such Member can afford to bear the economic risk of holding the Units for an indefinite period and (ii) such Member can afford to suffer the complete loss of such Member's investment in the Units.

(d) Access to Information; Sophistication; Lack of Reliance. (i) Such Member is familiar with the business and financial condition, properties, operations and prospects of the Company and its Subsidiaries and such Member has been granted the opportunity to ask questions of, and receive answers from, representatives of the Company concerning the Company and its Subsidiaries and the terms and conditions of the purchase of the Units and to obtain any additional information that such Member deems necessary to evaluate whether or not to make an investment in the Company, (ii) such Member's knowledge and experience in financial and business matters are such that such Member is capable of evaluating the merits and risk of the investment in the Units and (iii) such Member has carefully reviewed the terms and provisions of this Agreement and has evaluated the restrictions and obligations contained herein. In furtherance of the foregoing, each Member represents and warrants that (x) no representation or warranty, express or implied, whether written or oral, as to the financial condition, results of operations, prospects, properties or business of the Company and its Subsidiaries, or as to the desirability or value of an investment in the Company, has been made to such Member by or on behalf of the Company; (y) such Member has relied upon such Member's own independent appraisal and investigation, and the advice of such Member's own counsel, tax advisors and other advisors, regarding the risks of an investment in the Company and its Subsidiaries and (z) such Member will continue to bear sole responsibility for making its own independent evaluation and monitoring of the risks of its investment in the Company and its Subsidiaries. For the avoidance of doubt, for purposes of this Section 11.1(d), the Company and its Subsidiaries includes the businesses contributed to, or acquired by, the Company on the Effective Date.

(e) Accredited Investor. Except to the extent set forth otherwise in a Management Holder's Management Subscription Agreement, such Member is an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act and, in connection with the execution of this Agreement, agrees to deliver such certificates to that effect as the Board may request.

(f) Due Organization; Power and Authority. Such Member has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by such Member and constitutes a valid and binding obligation of such Member enforceable against such Member in accordance with its terms, except to the extent that the enforcement thereof may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar Laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and general equitable principles, regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding at law or in equity. If such Member is a trust, no consent of any beneficiary is required for the foregoing.

(g) No Violations. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Member, the performance of its obligations hereunder, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, will not violate, conflict with or result in a breach, or constitute a default (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) under any provision of its charter, bylaws or other similar organizational documents (if and as applicable) or any agreement or other instrument to which it is a party. No consent, approval, authorization, order, filing, registration or qualification of or with any court, governmental authority or third person is required to be obtained by such Member in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the performance of such Member's obligations hereunder.

ARTICLE XII.

BOOKS AND RECORDS; TAX MATTERS

12.1 Access to Books and Records. At all times during the continuance of the Company, the Company shall maintain, at its principal place of business, separate books of account for the Company that shall show a true and accurate record of all costs and expenses incurred, all charges made, all credits made and received and all income derived in connection with the operation of the Company's business in accordance with GAAP, except to the extent otherwise set forth in this Agreement. Such books of account, together with a copy of this Agreement and the Certificate, shall at all times be maintained at the principal place of business of the Company and shall be open to inspection and examination at reasonable times for any purpose by the CD&R Holders and their duly authorized representatives. Subject to the provisions of Section 9.6, the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries, officers, Directors, employees, auditors and other agents to, (x) afford the officers, employees, auditors and other agents of the CD&R Holders during normal business hours and upon reasonable notice reasonable access at all reasonable times to its officers, employees, auditors, legal counsel, properties, offices, plants and other facilities and (y) afford such Person the opportunity to discuss the affairs, finances and accounts of the Company and its Subsidiaries with their respective officers from time to time as such Person may reasonably request. Except as set forth in Section 12.2, each Member, other than the CD&R Holders, expressly waives any access rights or other rights to receive or review any records or information of the Company and its Subsidiaries, including any information regarding the status of the business or its financial condition, whether or not such rights may be provided under the Act (including under § 18-305).

12.2 Information Rights.

(a) CD&R Holders. The Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered the following information to the CD&R Holders:

(i) Quarterly Reports. As soon as available after the end of the first, second and third quarterly accounting periods in each Fiscal Year of the Company, an unaudited combined and/or consolidated balance sheet of LABL, Inc. and its Subsidiaries as of the end of each such quarterly period, and the related combined and/or consolidated statements of operations, members' equity, comprehensive income (loss) and cash flows of the Company and its Subsidiaries for such quarterly period and for the current Fiscal Year to date, together with all related notes and schedules thereto, prepared in accordance with GAAP consistently applied (subject to normal year-end audit adjustments and the absence of notes thereto) and setting forth in comparative form the figures for the corresponding periods of the previous Fiscal Year.

(ii) Annual Reports. As soon as available after the end of each Fiscal Year of the Company, an audited combined and/or consolidated balance sheet of LABL, Inc. and its Subsidiaries as of the end of such Fiscal Year, and the related combined and/or consolidated statements of operations, members' equity, comprehensive income (loss) and cash flows of the Company and its Subsidiaries for such year, together with all related notes and schedules thereto, prepared in accordance with GAAP consistently applied and setting forth in each case in comparative form the figures for the previous Fiscal Year, all in reasonable detail and accompanied by the reports thereon of the Company's independent auditors.

(iii) Other Requested Information. (b) Other Members. Prior to an IPO, for so long as any Common Units or Preferred Units remain outstanding, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered to each Common Unit Holder and each Preferred Unit Holder (unless such holder has given notice to the Company that it does not require the provision or delivery of such information (which notice may be revoked at any time)), (i) promptly following delivery thereof to the administrative agent under the New Term Loan Facility, annual and quarterly financial statements, reports and other information referred to in Section 7.1 and Section 7.2 of the New Term Loan Facility as in effect on the Effective Date; provided, that, if the administrative agent under the New Term Loan Facility (or such other party with such authority under the New Term Loan Facility) grants an extension for any such deadline, then no later than such extended deadline, and (ii) at any time when the New Term Loan Facility as in effect on the Effective Date is not then in effect, promptly following the date on which delivery thereof to the administrative agent would have been required to be delivered under the New Term Loan Facility as in effect on the Effective Date, the annual and quarterly financial statements, reports and other information that were referred to in Section 7.1 and Section 7.2, as applicable, in such New Term Loan Facility. 13.2 Interpretive Provisions.

(a) The meanings of defined terms are equally applicable to the singular and plural forms of the defined terms.

(b) The words "hereof", "herein", "hereunder" and similar words refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement; and any subsection and Section references are to this Agreement unless otherwise specified.

(c) The term "including" is not limiting and means "including without limitation."

(d) The titles, captions and headings of this Agreement and its Sections and subsections are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

(e) Whenever the context requires, any pronouns used herein shall include the corresponding masculine, feminine or neuter forms.

13.3 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the other Transaction Agreements, embody the complete agreement and understanding among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede and preempt any prior understandings, agreements or representations by or among the parties, written or oral, that may have related to the subject matter hereof in any way.

13.4 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. Signatures provided by facsimile or electronic transmission in "pdf" or equivalent format will be deemed to be original signatures.

13.5 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware applicable to contracts made and to be performed within the State of Delaware, without giving effect to conflicts of law rules that would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

13.6 Jurisdiction.

(a) Venue; Jurisdiction; Waiver. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably agrees that any legal action or proceeding in connection with or with respect to this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect of this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder brought by the other party hereto or its successors or assigns shall be brought and determined in any of the courts of the State of Delaware, or if it has or can acquire jurisdiction, in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably submits with regard to any such action or proceeding for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, to the personal jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts and agrees that it will not bring any action in connection with or relating to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement in any court other than the aforesaid courts. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, counterclaim or otherwise, in any action or proceeding in connection with or with respect to this Agreement, (i) any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts for any reason other than the failure to serve in accordance with this Section 13.6(a), (ii) any claim that it or its property is exempt or immune from jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment or otherwise) and (iii) to the fullest extent permitted by the applicable Law, any claim that (A) the venue of such suit, action or proceeding is improper or (B) this Agreement, or the subject matter hereof, may not be enforced in or by such courts.

(b) Service of Process. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably consents to the service of any summons and complaint and any other process in any other action in connection with or relating to this Agreement, on behalf of itself or its property, by the personal delivery of copies of such process to such party or by sending or delivering a copy of the process to the party to be served at the address and in the manner provided for the giving of notices in Section 13.1. Nothing in this Section 13.6 shall affect the right of any party hereto to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by Law.

13.7 Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of this Agreement or any transaction contemplated hereby. Each party (a) certifies and acknowledges that no representative, agent or attorney of any other party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such other party would not, in the event of litigation, seek to enforce the foregoing waiver and (b) acknowledges that it understands and has considered the implications of this waiver and makes this waiver voluntarily, and that it and the other parties have been induced to enter into the Agreement by, among other things, the mutual waivers and certifications in this Section 13.7.

13.8 Specific Performance. The parties agree that irreparable damage would occur for which money damages would not suffice in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached and that the parties would not have any adequate remedy at law. It is accordingly agreed that the non-breaching party shall be entitled to an injunction, temporary restraining order or other equitable relief in any court specified in Section 13.6(a) without the necessity of proving the inadequacy of money damages as a remedy and without the necessity of posting a bond, and the breaching party agrees that it will not oppose the granting of such equitable relief on the basis that (a) there is adequate remedy at law or (b) an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or in equity. The foregoing is in addition to any other remedy to which any party is entitled at law, in equity or otherwise with respect to this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Barclays shall have no right to enforce against any other Member any provision of this Agreement that requires a Member to vote for or against any matter or that restricts or conditions a Member's ability to transfer its Units or exercise its rights as a Member to the extent that Barclays' possession of such enforcement ability would result in Barclays controlling the other Member's Units under Section 225.9(b) of the Federal Reserve Board's Regulation Y, 12 CFR 225.9(b), as interpreted in light of any Frequently Asked Questions or other guidance from the Federal Reserve Board

13.9 Severability. If any term, provision, covenant or restriction of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction or other authority to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms, provisions, covenants and restrictions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party hereto. Upon such a determination, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby be consummated as originally contemplated to the fullest extent possible.

13.10 Further Actions. At any time or from time to time after the Effective Date, the parties agree to cooperate with each other, and at the request of any other party, to execute and deliver any further instruments or documents and to take all such further action as the other party may reasonably request in order to evidence or effectuate the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby in accordance with their terms and to otherwise carry out the intent of the parties hereunder.

13.11 Amendments and Waiver.

(a) Except as otherwise expressly provided herein and subject to Section 4.12 and the terms of the Preferred Units set forth on the Preferred Unit Schedule, this Agreement may be modified or amended with the approval of (i) the Board and (ii) the CD&R Holders; provided, that any such modification or amendment that (x) by its terms would in any manner disproportionately and materially adversely affect any Member as compared to all other Members shall require the prior affirmative vote or prior written consent of such Member (including any consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for, or purchase of, any Units), (y) amends any rights expressly granted to the Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders (other than those described in clause (z) below) shall require the prior affirmative vote or written consent of a majority of the Common Units held by the Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders, or (z) amends Sections 3.1(a)(i) (Management by the Board of Directors; Board Composition), 3.1(b)(i) and (iii) (Board Observer), 4.3 (Capital Contributions), 5.1 (Distributions), 7.1 (Restrictions on Transfers of Units by Members), 7.2 (Tag-Along Right), 7.3 (Drag-Along Right), 7.4 (Preemptive Rights), 9.8 (Non-Sponsor Common Equityholder Approvals), 10.1 (Liability), or 12.2(b) (Information Rights – Other Members) shall require the affirmative vote or prior written consent of a Non-Sponsor Common Equityholder Supermajority (including any consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for, or purchase of, any Units). Any Member may waive (in writing) the benefit of any provision of this Agreement with respect to itself for any purpose. Any written modification or amendment to this Agreement that receives the approvals described above need not be signed by all Members, but shall be effective in accordance with its terms and shall be binding upon all Members. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any amendment, waiver or modification to this Agreement shall only require the approval of the Board and the Preferred Unit Holders to the extent required pursuant to the Preferred Unit Schedule.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 13.11(a), the Board or any Officer shall promptly amend Schedule A and take any action required by Section 9.7 to reflect any permitted Transfer of Units in accordance with Article VII or as contemplated by Section 4.1.

13.12 Delays or Omissions. It is agreed that no delay or omission to exercise any right, power or remedy accruing to any party, upon any breach, default or noncompliance by another party under this Agreement, shall impair any such right, power or remedy, nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such breach, default or noncompliance, or any acquiescence therein, or of any similar breach, default or noncompliance thereafter occurring. It is further agreed that any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character on the part of any party hereto of any breach, default or noncompliance under this Agreement or any waiver on such party's part of any provisions or conditions of this Agreement, must be in writing and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing. All remedies with respect to this Agreement, either under this Agreement, by Law, or otherwise afforded to any party, shall be cumulative and not alternative.

13.13 Successors, Assigns and Transferees. This Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Members may assign their respective rights and obligations hereunder to any Transferees only to the extent expressly provided herein.

13.14 Third-Party Beneficiary. This Agreement is not intended to confer in or on behalf of any Person not a party to this Agreement (and their successors and assigns) any rights, benefits, causes of action or remedies with respect to the subject matter or any provision thereof (except (i) as set forth in Section 3.2 in respect of the VCOC and (ii) as set forth in Article X with respect to any Covered Person, in each case which Persons are express third-party beneficiaries of such provisions).

13.15 Control Over Securities/Regulation Y. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, or any other arrangement to which the parties or the Company are a party, BNP (as defined herein) hereby confirms that BNP shall not be entitled to enforce against any other equityholders any provision or portion of a provision of this Agreement to the extent that such provision (or portion of a provision) would cause BNP to be deemed to control the securities of another equityholder under Regulation Y of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve, 12 CFR 225.9(b) (including through any restriction or condition on any equityholder's ability to transfer such shares in the Company or any requirement for an equityholder to vote for or against any matter, in each case that would cause BNP to be deemed to control the securities of another equityholder under Regulation Y, 12 CFR 225.9(b)). For the avoidance of doubt, it is acknowledged that the other parties to this Agreement should be deemed third party beneficiaries of this Section 13.15.

Subject to Section 3.4(b), each Director shall hold office until his or her death, disability, retirement, resignation or removal (with or without Cause) or until his or her successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. In the event that a vacancy is created at any time by the death, disability, retirement, resignation or removal (with or without Cause) of any Director, such vacancy shall be filled by an individual designated solely by the applicable Designator in accordance with Section 3.1(a) (or, following such time as there is no entitlement to designate a Director pursuant to Section 3.1(a)(i), the CD&R Holders), and the Company and the Members shall take, at any time and from time to time, any and all actions necessary to accomplish the foregoing. In the event that a vacancy is created at any time as a result of any increase of the Board size as may be determined by the CD&R Holders from time to time, such vacancy shall be filled by an individual designated by the CD&R Holders, and the Company and the Members shall take, at any time and from time to time, any and all actions necessary to accomplish the foregoing.

(b) Removal. Each Director and Observer may only be removed by its applicable Designator, at any time for any reason, with or without Cause, or for no reason; provided, that, any Director or Observer may be removed by the Board for Cause and, in such event, the applicable Designator shall be entitled to designate a substitute Director or Observer, as applicable, in accordance with Section 3.1(a) or Section 3.1(b), respectively. Any replacement Director to fill such vacancy shall be elected solely by the applicable Designator as provided in Section 3.4(a), and the Members shall take, at any time and from time to time, any and all actions necessary to accomplish the foregoing. Upon the removal of any Director, such Director shall cease to be a "manager" (within the meaning of the Act). If a Designator that has the right to appoint a Director or Observer ceases to have such right, then at the Board's request such Designator shall promptly remove or cause to resign the Non-Sponsor Director or Observer, as applicable, designated by it. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, immediately upon such time that no Series A Preferred Units are outstanding (including, from and after a Board Step-In), each Director added pursuant to a Board Step-In, as applicable, and the Preferred Unit Observer shall be automatically removed from the Board without further action on the part of the Designators thereof.

3.5 Voting. The Company and each Member shall take such action as may be required under applicable Law and this Agreement to cause the Board to consist of the number of Directors specified in Section 3.1. Each of the Members agrees to take all actions as may be necessary to cause any Directors designated in accordance with Section 3.1 to be elected to the Board.

3.6 Compensation; Reimbursement. For so long as the CD&R Expense Reimbursement Agreement remains in effect, no Director Affiliated with the CD&R Holders shall be entitled to compensation by the Company for any services as a Director. Subject to the terms and conditions of the CD&R Expense Reimbursement Agreement (solely with respect to the Directors Affiliated with the CD&R Holders), the Company shall reimburse each of the Directors and the Observers for reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses (including travel and related expenses) incurred by them for the purpose of attending meetings of the Board or committees thereof.

3.7 Actions of the Board.

(a) Meetings of the Board. The Board shall meet from time to time, but in any event at least four times per year (and approximately once per fiscal quarter), to discuss the business and affairs of the Company. Meetings of the Board may be held at such time and at such place as shall from time to time be determined by the Board. The Chairman of the Board or the majority of the Directors may call a meeting of the Board by sending notice by first-class mail at least seven (7) days, by overnight delivery at least two (2) days, or by electronic mail, facsimile or hand delivery at least forty-eight (48) hours, before the meeting addressed to such Director at such Director's usual business address (if sent by mail); provided, however, that upon a good faith determination by the Chairman of the Board or the majority of the Directors that exigent circumstances exist, such notice may be given by any reasonable means within such shorter time period as is practicable under the circumstances. Notice of any meeting of the Board need not be given to any Director who attends such meeting without protesting the lack of notice to him or her, prior to or at the commencement of such meeting, or to any Director who submits a signed waiver of notice, whether before or after such meeting, and any business may be transacted thereat. Members of the Board, or any committee designated by the Board, may participate in a meeting of the Board, or any committee, by means of conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and such participation in a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

(b) Quorum; Actions of the Board. A quorum for any meeting of the Board shall be a majority of the Directors constituting the full Board at the time of such meeting, which majority shall be required to include (x) the Non-Sponsor Director (for so long as the Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders have the right to appoint the Non-Sponsor Director pursuant to Section 3.1(a)(i) and such Non-Sponsor Director is actually appointed to the Board), and (y) a CD&R Affiliate Director; provided that, if (i) the Non-Sponsor Director does not attend a meeting called in accordance with Section 3.7(a), but action by the Board at such meeting is required due to exigent circumstances or (ii) the Non-Sponsor Director is excluded from such meeting pursuant to Section 3.1(c), then the presence of the Non-Sponsor Director shall not be required to constitute a quorum with respect to such meeting; provided, further, that if a quorum is not present at a meeting due to the lack of attendance by the Non-Sponsor Director, then such meeting may be adjourned to a day no sooner than forty-eight (48) hours thereafter (unless exigent circumstances require a shorter period) and, if such reconvened meeting is duly called in accordance with this Agreement, the presence of the Non-Sponsor Director shall not be required to constitute a quorum solely with respect to such reconvened meeting. Except as otherwise required by Law or this Agreement, actions of the Board shall require the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the Directors present in person or by conference telephone or other communications equipment or by proxy at a duly convened meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote pursuant to a written consent, setting forth the action so taken and signed by Directors having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to approve such action at a meeting of the Board at which all Directors then in office were present and voted (which consent shall not become effective earlier than forty-eight (48) hours after it was delivered to the Non-Sponsor Director in proposed final form, unless exigent circumstances require a shorter period). Upon receipt of a proposed written consent, a Non-Sponsor Director shall have the right, within twenty-four (24) hours following receipt of such proposed written consent, to call a meeting of the Board to be held at a time prior to the time such written consent becomes effective pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence. Such written consent may be executed in any number of counterparts and an e-mail or similar transmission by a Director or a photographic, photostatic, facsimile, Docusign, .pdf or similar reproduction of a writing signed by a Director, shall be regarded as signed by the Director for purposes of this Section 3.7(b). Such written consent shall be filed with the records of the meetings of the Board and treated for all purposes as the act of the Board.

3.8 Committees. The Board may, by resolution, designate one or more committees. Each such resolution shall specify the duties and quorum requirements of such committees. Each such committee shall consist of such number of Directors as the Board may fix from time to time. For so long as the Non-Sponsor Director or an Observer continues to be entitled to serve in such role pursuant to Section 3.1(a)(i) or Section 3.1(b), as applicable, the Non-Sponsor Director and the Observers shall have the right to serve as observers on all committees of the Board.

3.9 Officers. The Board shall appoint from time to time an individual to serve as the Company's Chief Executive Officer, and may, from time to time as it deems advisable, appoint additional officers of the Company (together with the Chief Executive Officer, the "Officers") and assign such Officers titles (including President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer) as it deems advisable. Unless the Board decides otherwise, if the title of any Officer is one commonly used for officers of a business corporation formed under the Delaware General Corporation Law, the assignment of such title shall constitute the delegation to such person of the authorities and duties that are normally associated with that office (including the authority to sign, in the name and on behalf of the Company, checks, orders, contracts, leases, notes, drafts and all other documents and instruments in connection with the business of the Company), subject to the terms herein. Any delegation pursuant to this Section 3.9 may be revoked at any time by the Board. Any Officer may be removed with or without cause by the Board, except as otherwise provided in any services or employment agreement between such Officer and the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. The salaries and other compensation of all Officers and agents of the Company shall be fixed by the Board or in the manner established by the Board. The Officers of the Company as of the date of this Agreement shall be: ~~[●]~~ Hassan Rmaile (President and Chief Executive Officer), Kathleen Phelps (Chief Financial Officer), Linn Harson (Chief Legal Officer and Corporate Secretary), Tatiana Berardinelli (Chief Human Resources Officer), Matthew Skiles (Assistant Secretary and Assistant Treasurer).

3.10 Board Step-In. Pursuant to the terms of Section 5.02(c) of the Preferred Unit Schedule, the composition of the Board may be modified in connection with a Demand Failure. To the extent the Initiating Holders (as defined in the Preferred Unit Schedule) elect to appoint a majority of the members of the Board in accordance with Section 5.02(c) pursuant to the Board Step-In (as defined in the Preferred Unit Schedule), the Board shall be subject in all respects to the terms therein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon and during the continuance of a Board Step-In, the provisions set forth on Exhibit A to the Preferred Unit Schedule shall apply.

ARTICLE IV.

UNITS AND CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS

4.1 Units.

(a) Units. As of the Effective Date, the Company has two authorized classes of limited liability company interests of the Company, consisting of (i) common units (the "Common Units") and (ii) a class of preferred units as described in the Preferred Unit Schedule (the "Preferred Units"). Subject to the provisions of Section 7.4, Section 4.12 and the Preferred Unit Schedule, (i) additional classes of limited liability company interests of the Company denominated in the form of Units (or options to acquire Common Units or similar rights thereupon) may be authorized and issued from time to time by the Board without obtaining the consent of any Member or class of Members and in such event, this Agreement may be appropriately amended without the consent of the Members to reflect such additional class or classes of limited liability company interests of the Company and the preferences, rights and obligations applicable to such additional class or classes of limited liability company interests of the Company as determined by the Board and (ii) an unlimited number of Units in a particular class of Units (or options to acquire Units or similar rights thereupon) may be issued from time to time, at such prices and on such terms as the Board may determine, without obtaining the consent of any Member or class of Members. Schedule A hereto sets forth each Member, and the number and type of Units held by such Member. Each Member (other than the CD&R Holders) shall only have the right to review a redacted version of Schedule A that shows the Units of such Member and the aggregate number of Units held by all Members.

(b) Common Units. The Common Units shall have the rights with respect to distributions from the Company as are set forth in Article V. To the extent applicable, the Common Units shall have one vote for each such Common Unit outstanding (other than, prior to an IPO, Common Units held by Management Holders, which shall be non-voting). The number of Common Units of each Member as of any given time shall be set forth on Schedule A, as it may be updated from time to time in accordance with this Agreement. ~~Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, any portion of the Common Units held by Barclays in excess of 4.99% of the total outstanding Common Units shall be automatically deemed to be, and subject to the restrictions of, a non-voting security for purposes of the U.S. Bank Holding Company Act and 12 C.F.R. Part 225 (Subpart A) and shall not be entitled to vote or consent on any matter other than matters permissible for non-voting securities pursuant to 12 C.F.R. § 225.2(q)(2).~~

(c) Preferred Units. The rights and privileges of the Preferred Units are set forth on Schedule B (the "Preferred Unit Schedule"), which is incorporated herein by reference and will be deemed a part of this Agreement for all purposes. If there is any conflict between the provisions in this Agreement (including any Annexes, Exhibit, Schedules (other than the Preferred Unit Schedule) and other attachments hereto), on the one hand, and the provisions of the Preferred Unit Schedule, on the other hand, with respect to the rights and privileges of the Preferred Units, the terms of the Preferred Unit Schedule shall govern and be controlling. The number of Preferred Units of each Member as of any given time shall be set forth on Schedule A, as it may be updated from time to time in accordance with this Agreement.

(d) Value. The value of each Common Unit outstanding on the Effective Date is $~~[ ]~~100.00. The Initial Stated Value of each Preferred Unit is set forth in the Preferred Unit Schedule.

(e) Repurchase Provisions Applicable to Management Holders. The Common Units owned by the Management Holders shall be subject to repurchase by the Company as provided in their applicable Management Subscription Agreements.

(f) Upon prior written notice by Barclays or BNP to the Company and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, any portion of the Units held by Barclays or BNP in excess of 4.99% of any class of voting securities or voting power (as determined under the U.S. Bank Holding Company Act and 12 C.F.R. Part 225 (Subpart A) (the "BHCA") that vote or consent on any matter which under the BHCA would cause such voting securities to be deemed a separate class, shall irrevocably be converted, except as specified below, into non-voting Units ("Corresponding Non-Voting Units") that have all the rights and privileges of the Units that converted but are subject to the restrictions of a non-voting security for purposes of the BHCA and shall not be entitled to vote or consent on any matter other than matters permissible for non-voting securities pursuant to 12 C.F.R. 225.2(q)(2). The Corresponding Non-Voting Units shall remain Corresponding Non-Voting Units unless: (i) transferred to the Company or to a third party in a transaction described in 12 C.F.R. 225.9(a)(3) (e.g., widespread distribution) or (ii) converted into voting Units under the anti-dilution provisions described in 12 C.F.R. 225.9(a)(5). For the avoidance of doubt Barclays will be deemed to have provided such notice in writing described in this Section 4.1(f) to the Company as of the date hereof.

4.2 Capital Contributions~~. The capital contributions and the number and class of Units of each Member shall be set forth opposite such Member's name under the heading "Capital Contributions", "Class of Units" and "Number of Units" on Schedule A.~~

. [Reserved].

4.3 Additional Capital Contributions. No Member shall be required to make any additional capital contribution or loan in respect of the Units then owned by any such Member. However, a Member may make additional capital contributions to the Company with, and only with, the written consent of the Board and in compliance with the other terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. The provisions of this Section 4.3 are intended solely to benefit the Members and, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, shall not be construed as conferring any benefit upon any creditor of the Company (and no such creditor shall be a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement), and no Member shall have any duty or obligation to any creditor of the Company to make any additional capital contributions or to cause the Board to consent to the making of any additional capital contributions.

4.4 Member's Interest. A Member's Units shall for all purposes be personal property. A Member has no interest in specific Company property.

4.5 Certificated and Uncertificated Units. The Units shall initially be uncertificated. Upon the request of a CD&R Holder (or any other Member if consented to by the Board), such Member shall be entitled to have a certificate signed by or in the name of the Company, by the Chief Executive Officer or any other Officer designated by the Board, representing the number of Units held by such Member. Such certificate shall be in such form as the Board may determine, to the extent consistent with applicable Law, the Certificate and this Agreement. Any or all of such signatures on any certificate representing one or more Units may be a facsimile, engraved or printed, to the extent permitted by applicable Law.

4.6 Legends. All certificates (if any) or book-entry accounts and related statements representing or otherwise evidencing the Units shall conspicuously bear the applicable legends set forth below, with such changes as the Board, in its discretion, deems to be necessary and appropriate, and any other legends required by this Agreement. Each Member shall be deemed to have actual knowledge of the terms, provisions, restrictions and conditions with respect to the Transfer of any Units set forth in this Agreement (including the restrictions on Transfer set forth in Section ~~7.1~~7.1 hereof), whether or not any certificate or book-entry accounts and related statements representing or otherwise evidencing the Units owned or held by such Member bear the legends set forth below and whether or not any such holder received a separate notice of such terms, provisions, restrictions and conditions.

4.7 Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. The Board may direct that a new certificate representing one or more Units be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Company alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon delivery to the Board of an affidavit of the owner or owners of such certificate, setting forth such allegation. The Board may require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to give the Company a bond sufficient to indemnify it against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of any such certificate or the issuance of any such new certificate.

4.9 Registration of Transfer of Units. Upon surrender to the Company or the transfer agent of the Company, if any, of a certificate for one or more Units, duly endorsed or accompanied by appropriate evidence of succession, assignment or authority to transfer, in compliance with the provisions of this Agreement, the Company shall issue a new certificate representing one or more Units to the Person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate and record the transaction upon its books. 4.11 Management Incentive Plan. The Board shall establish such vesting criteria and other terms and conditions applicable to awards issued under the Equity Incentive Plan (the "Award Agreements") as it determines appropriate in its sole discretion and shall specify such vesting criteria and such other terms and conditions in the Equity Incentive Plan and/or the applicable Award Agreement.

4.12 Non-Circumvention. ARTICLE V.

DISTRIBUTIONS

5.1 Distributions. Subject to any restrictions, conditions or other terms set forth in this Agreement, including as set forth on the Preferred Unit Schedule with respect to the Preferred Units, distributions may be made to all Common Unit Holders, including the Preferred Unit Holders (to the extent of their Common Unit Equivalent Participation), at such times and in such aggregate amounts as determined by the Board in proportion to the number of Common Units (accounting for Common Unit Equivalent Participation) held by each Member as of the time of such distribution. Distributions shall be made to Preferred Unit Holders at such times and in such aggregate amounts as determined in accordance with the Preferred Unit Schedule.

5.2 Distributions in Kind. In the event of a distribution of Company property, such property shall for all purposes of this Agreement be deemed to have been sold at its Fair Market Value and the proceeds of such sale shall be deemed to have been distributed to the Members.

5.3 Withholding.

(a) Indemnification for Withholding. Each Member shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, indemnify and hold harmless each Person who is or who is deemed to be the responsible withholding agent for U.S. federal, state or local income tax purposes against all claims, liabilities and expenses of whatever nature (but, in each case, excluding any penalties and accrued interest that result from such Person's fraud, willful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence) solely relating to such Person's obligation to withhold and to pay over any U.S. federal, state or local income taxes imposed on such Member.

(b) Withholding and Remittance. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article V, (i) each Member hereby authorizes the Company to withhold and to pay over, or otherwise pay, any withholding or other taxes payable by the Company or any of its Affiliates with respect to such Member or as a result of such Member's participation in the Company and (ii) if and to the extent that the Company shall be required to withhold or pay any such taxes (or if any amounts withheld from amounts payable to the Company to the extent attributable, in the judgment of the Board, to such Member's Units), such Member shall be deemed for all purposes of this Agreement to have received a payment from the Company as of the time such withholding or tax is required to be paid, which payment shall be deemed to be a distribution with respect to such Member's Units to the extent that the Member (or any successor to such Member's Units) is then entitled to receive a distribution under this Article V. To the extent that the aggregate of such payments to a Member for any period exceeds the distributions to which such Member is entitled for such period, such Member shall make a prompt payment to the Company of such excess amount.

(c) Distributions in Kind. If the Company makes a distribution in kind and such distribution is subject to withholding or other taxes payable by the Company on behalf of any Member, such Member shall make a prompt payment to the Company of the amount of such withholding or other taxes by wire transfer.

5.4 Restricted Distributions. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Company shall not make a distribution to any Member on account of such Member's Units if such distribution would violate section 18-607 of the Act or other applicable Law.

ARTICLE VI.

DISSOLUTION, LIQUIDATION AND TERMINATION

6.1 Dissolving Events. The Company shall be dissolved in the manner hereinafter provided upon the happening of any of the following events:

(a) Board Vote. The Board shall approve the dissolution of the Company; or

(b) Required by Law. Any event which under applicable Law would cause the dissolution of the Company; provided that unless required by applicable Law, the Company shall not be wound up as a result of any such event and the business of the Company shall be continued.

(c) No Dissolution upon Occurrence of Certain Events. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of any Member or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of any Member in the Company under the Act shall not, in and of itself, cause the dissolution of the Company. In such event, the remaining Member(s) may continue the business of the Company without dissolution.

6.2 Dissolution and Winding-Up.

(a) General. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the assets of the Company shall be liquidated or distributed under the direction of and to the extent determined by the Board and the business of the Company shall be wound up; provided that this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect, notwithstanding any prior dissolution of the Company, until termination of the Company in accordance with this Agreement. Within a reasonable time after the effective date of dissolution of the Company, the Company's assets shall be distributed in the following manner and order:

(i) First, to all creditors of the Company, to the extent otherwise permitted by applicable Law, in satisfaction of liabilities of the Company, including any amounts held in reserve therefor and any amounts the Company may owe under the indemnity provided in Sections 10.4 and 10.5 (whether by payment or the making of reasonable provision for payment thereof);

(ii) Second, to purchase customary tail insurance coverage on customary terms for any Directors and officers and/or errors and omissions coverage maintained by the Company as of immediately prior to such dissolution; and

(iii) Third, to the Members in accordance with Section 6.3.

(b) Distributions in Cash or in Kind. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Board shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to liquidate all of the Company's assets in an orderly manner and apply the proceeds of such liquidation as set forth in Section 6.2(a); provided that, if in the good faith judgment of the Board, a Company asset should not be liquidated, the Board shall distribute such assets in accordance with Section 6.2(a) as if such assets had been sold for their Fair Market Value and the proceeds of such sale had been received in cash, subject to the priorities set forth in Section 6.2(a); and provided, further, that the Board shall in good faith attempt to liquidate sufficient Company assets to satisfy in cash (or make reasonable provision for) the debts and liabilities referred to in Section 6.2(a).

6.3 Liquidation Rights.

(a) Remaining Funds. In the event of any Liquidation, any liquidating distributions shall be distributed to the Members pursuant to Section 5.1.

(b) No Liquidation Upon Asset Sale, Merger, etc. Neither the sale, conveyance, exchange or Transfer (for cash, shares of stock, securities or other consideration) of all or substantially all of the assets, Units or business of the Company (other than in connection with a Liquidation) nor the merger or consolidation of the Company into or with any other Person shall by itself be deemed to be a Liquidation for purposes of this Section 6.3.

6.4 Termination. The Company shall terminate when the winding up of the Company's affairs has been completed, all of the assets of the Company have been distributed and the Certificate has been canceled, all in accordance with the Act.

6.5 Claims of the Members. The Members and former Members shall look solely to the Company's assets for the return of their capital contributions, and if the assets of the Company remaining after payment of or due provision for all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company are insufficient to return such capital contributions, the Members and former Members shall not be entitled to have such capital contributions returned to them and shall have no recourse against the Company or any other Member.

ARTICLE VII.

TRANSFERS OF UNITS; PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS

7.1 Restrictions on Transfers of Units by Members.

(a) General. Subject to compliance with the Securities Act, applicable federal and state Laws, including the securities Laws and regulations of any applicable jurisdiction and all applicable provisions of this Agreement, any Member (other than a Management Holder) may Transfer any of its Units without the consent of the Board; provided, however, that (i) no such Transfer shall be permitted if it would require the Company to file a registration statement under the Securities Act or if it shall be made in violation of Section ~~7.1(c)~~7.1(c), (ii) no such Transfer shall be permitted to be made to any Competitor without the prior written consent of the Board, and (iii) any such Transfer shall comply with the conditions set forth in Section 7.1(b) and (iv) for the avoidance of doubt, (x) no Management Holder may Transfer any of its Common Units without the consent of the Board (other than with respect to a Management Holder that is an individual, any immediate family member, executor, administrator, testamentary trustee or legatee of such Management Holder or any family trust or bona fide estate planning vehicle in which the sole (direct or indirect) beneficiaries or other equity holders thereof are such Management Holder or his or her immediate family members) and complying with other restrictions set forth in this Section ~~7.1~~7.1 and (y) the Common Unit Equivalent Participation attributable to any Preferred Unit is not detachable or otherwise transferable separately from the underlying Preferred Units and rather, the Preferred Units and the related Common Unit Equivalent Participation will be transferred together, subject to any limitations that would be applicable to the transferability of the Preferred Units. To the extent the Board or the Company has the right to approve any Transfer hereunder, the approval of any such Transfer by the Board in any one or more instances shall not limit or waive the requirement for such approval in any other or future instance. The restrictions set forth in this Section 7.1(a) shall terminate upon an IPO except as required under applicable federal and state Laws, including the securities Laws and regulations of any applicable jurisdiction.

(b) Conditions to Permitted Transfers.

(i) From and after the date of this Agreement, it shall be a condition precedent to any Transfer of Units to any Person otherwise permitted under this Agreement (including any Transfer to a Permitted Affiliate Transferee) that the Transferee, if not already a party to this Agreement, become a party to this Agreement by executing and delivering to the Company at its address specified in Section 13.1 a duly executed and completed Joinder Agreement (including completion of such Transferee's complete and accurate notice information).

(ii) Upon a Transferee's acquisition of Units in accordance with this Agreement and the satisfaction of the foregoing conditions to the reasonable satisfaction of the Company, such Transferee shall be a Member for all purposes under this Agreement.

(c) Exchange Act Limitations. Until the Company otherwise becomes obligated to file reports under Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act or upon receipt of prior written approval from the Board, no Members shall Transfer any Unit to any other Person to the extent such Transfer would cause the Company to have, including as a result of passage of time and giving effect to the exercisable or conversion of any securities that are convertible into or exchangeable for the Units, in excess of 1,950 Members (or four-hundred-fifty (450) or more Members who are not Accredited Investors (as defined below), calculated in accordance with Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act (or fifty (50) fewer than such other number of Members as may subsequently be set forth in Section 12(g), or any successor provision, from time to time of the Exchange Act, as the minimum number of Members of record or shareholders for a class of Units that would require the Company to register such class of Units under Section 12 of the Exchange Act). The Company and any transfer agent for the Units shall be entitled to enforce this provision (including denying any requested Transfer). The Company and any transfer agent for the Units shall determine the number of Members of record from time to time in consultation with the Company's counsel in order to give full effect to the restriction set forth in this Section 7.1(c).

(d) Prohibited Transfers Void. Any Transfer or attempted Transfer of Units in violation of this Article VII (including failure to satisfy the condition precedent pursuant to Section ~~7.1(b)(i)~~7.1(b)(i)) shall be null and void ab initio (provided that, with respect to a Transfer of Units held through DTC, if a Transferee of any such Units executes a Joinder Agreement and delivers it to the Company after the date that such Transfer occurred through DTC, such Transfer shall be effective on the books and records of the Company as of the date the Joinder Agreement is executed by the Transferee and delivered to the Company (unless the effectiveness of such Transfer as of such time would be materially harmful to the Company (including if the effectiveness of such Transfer would be prohibited pursuant to Section ~~7.3(c)~~7.3(c)) and the Company promptly notifies the Transferee thereof); it being agreed and understood that the Company's countersignature to such Joinder Agreement shall be evidence of the Company's acceptance of such Transfer), and with respect thereto the Company (x) shall not, and shall cause its transfer agent not to, register or effect such Transfer, (y) may institute legal proceedings to force rescission of such Transfer and (z) may seek any other remedy available to it at Law, in equity or otherwise, including an injunction prohibiting such Transfer, and the provisions of Section 7.6 shall not apply to any such Transfers.

(e) Redemption Rights. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event that a Member, other than a CD&R Holder, reasonably determines in its sole discretion that (i) the holding of any rights, interests or obligations with respect to the Company or this Agreement will or could be unlawful or a breach of any applicable Laws, or (ii) there has been, is, or could be, an act, matter, event or circumstance related to the Company that results in or could result in damage to the reputation of the Member or any of its Affiliates, upon prior written notice to the Company, the Member shall have the right to require the Company to repurchase all of its Units for an aggregate purchase price of $1.00.

(f) Transfer Information. Upon the request of the Company, a Member making or having made a Transfer shall deliver to the Company such information as the Company may reasonably request in order for the Company to determine in good faith that such Transfer is (or was) in compliance with Section ~~7.1(a)~~7.1(a) (including information enabling the Company to confirm that such transferee is not a Competitor and information or other certifications (but not opinions of counsel) used to determine whether such Transfer complies with U.S. federal or state securities Laws and any other applicable securities Laws).

7.2 Tag-Along Right.

(a) General. Prior to an IPO, in the event of a proposed Transfer of Common Units, in one or more related transactions, by any Common Unit Holder (each, a "Transferring Member") to any Person of 10% or more of the Company's outstanding Common Units, each other Common Unit Holder (each, a "Tag-Along Participant") shall have the right to participate in such proposed Transfer in the manner set forth in this Section 7.2 (a "Tag-Along Transaction"); provided that this Section 7.2 shall not apply to Transfers: (i) to Permitted Affiliate Transferees (solely with respect to Initial Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders, other than single-asset Continuation Fund transactions), (ii) in connection with an IPO as a part of such registered offering or following an IPO, or (iii) pursuant to a Drag-Along Transaction.

(b) Required Tag-Along Notice. Prior to any Transfer described in this Section 7.2, the Transferring Member shall deliver to the Company prompt written notice (the "Transfer Notice"), which the Company will forward to each of the Tag-Along Participants within two (2) Business Days of the Company's receipt of such notice, which notice shall state (i) the name of the proposed Transferee, (ii) the number of Common Units proposed to be Transferred (the "Tag-Along Units"), (iii) the proposed purchase price therefor, including a description of any non-cash consideration sufficiently detailed (to the extent that the Transferring Member is in possession of such information) to permit the determination of the fair market value thereof, and (iv) the other material terms and conditions of the proposed Transfer, including the proposed Transfer date (which date may not be less than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Transfer Notice).

(c) Exercise of Tag-Along Right. Each Tag-Along Participant may, subject to the limitations set forth in this Section 7.2(c), Transfer to the proposed Transferee identified in the Transfer Notice up to such number of such Tag-Along Participant's Common Units that is equal to the product of (i) the number of Common Units held by such Tag-Along Participant, multiplied by (ii) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of Tag-Along Units set forth in the Transfer Notice and the denominator of which is the outstanding Common Units owned (directly or indirectly) by the Transferring Member, by giving written notice (the "Tag-Along Acceptance Notice") to the Company and to the Transferring Member within fifteen (15) days after receipt of the Transfer Notice (the "Tag-Along Acceptance Period"), stating (x) that such Tag-Along Participant elects to exercise its tag-along right under this Section 7.2 and (y) the maximum number of Common Units sought to be Transferred by such Tag-Along Participant. Each Tag-Along Participant shall be deemed to have waived its tag-along right with respect to such Tag-Along Transaction if it fails to give the Tag-Along Acceptance Notice within the Tag-Along Acceptance Period. The proposed Transferee of Tag-Along Units will not be obligated to directly or indirectly purchase a number of Common Units exceeding the number set forth in the applicable Transfer Notice, and in the event such Transferee elects to purchase, directly or indirectly, less than all of the additional Common Units sought to be Transferred by the Tag-Along Participants, the number of Common Units to be Transferred by the Transferring Member and each of the Tag-Along Participants shall be reduced to the Transferring Member's and each Tag-Along Participant's respective Pro Rata Portion. In the event that a Tag-Along Participant elects to Transfer less than its Pro Rata Portion, the remaining Tag-Along Participants and the Transferring Member shall each be entitled to sell a percentage of the additional Common Units that would otherwise have been sold by such Tag-Along Participant not fully participating in such Transfer equal to such remaining Tag-Along Participant's or Transferring Member's, as applicable, Pro Rata Portion of such additional Common Units (re-calculated to omit such non-fully-participating Tag-Along Participant).

(d) Consummation of Tag-Along Transaction; No Liability. Each Tag-Along Participant and the Transferring Member shall, subject to the following proviso, receive the same amount of consideration for each Tag Along Unit Transferred in such Tag Along Transaction; provided, however, that the form of consideration to be received by the Transferring Member in connection with the Tag-Along Transaction may be different from that received by the Tag-Along Participants solely with respect to rollover equity so long as the Fair Market Value of the consideration to be received by such Transferring Member is the same or less than what such Transferring Member would have received had such Transferring Member received the same form of consideration as the Tag-Along Participants (as reasonably determined by the Board in good faith) and in no event shall the Transferring Member receive consideration in the form of cash unless the Tag-Along Participants are also receiving at least a proportionate amount of their consideration in the form of cash. A Tag-Along Participant exercising its tag-along right hereunder with respect to certificated Common Units shall deliver to the Transferring Member at the closing of the Transfer of the Transferring Member's Tag-Along Units to the Transferee certificates representing the Tag-Along Units to be Transferred by such Tag-Along Participant (free and clear of any liens or encumbrances other than those existing under applicable securities Laws and pursuant to this Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement), duly endorsed for transfer or accompanied by written instruments of transfer. A Tag-Along Participant exercising its tag-along right hereunder with respect to uncertificated Common Units shall deliver to the Transferring Member at the closing of the Transfer of the Transferring Member's Tag-Along Units an assignment and assumption agreement reasonably satisfactory to the proposed Transferee effecting the Transfer of such Common Units. Each Tag-Along Participant shall agree to make or agree to the same representations, covenants, indemnities and agreements as the Transferring Member so long as they are made severally and not jointly; provided, that (i) no Tag-Along Participant shall be required to enter into noncompetition, non-solicitation or similar restrictive covenants (other than customary and reasonable covenants regarding confidentiality and publicity), (ii) any general indemnity and any related escrow agreement given by the Transferring Member to the Transferee in connection with such sale that is applicable to liabilities not specific to the Transferring Member shall be apportioned among the Tag-Along Participants and the Transferring Member on a pro rata basis, based on the number of each such Member's Common Units to be Transferred and shall not exceed such Member's net proceeds from the sale, and (iii) any representation relating specifically to a Member or its ownership of the Common Units to be Transferred shall be made only by such Member, and any indemnity and any related escrow agreement given with respect to such representation shall be given only by such Member and shall not exceed such Member's net proceeds from the sale. Subject to Section ~~7.2(g)~~7.2(g), the proposed Transfer date may be extended beyond the date described in the Transfer Notice to the extent necessary to obtain required governmental approvals and other required third-party approvals and the Company and the Transferring Members shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to obtain such approvals. The Transferring Member shall, in its sole discretion, decide whether or not to pursue, consummate, postpone or abandon any proposed Transfer subject to this Section 7.2 and the terms and conditions thereof. No Member or Affiliate of a Member shall have any liability to any other Member or the Company arising from, relating to or in connection with the pursuit, consummation, postponement, abandonment or terms and conditions of any proposed Transfer subject to this Section 7.2 except to the extent such Member shall have failed to comply with the provisions of this Section 7.2.

(e) Satisfaction of Tag-Along Obligations After Sale. Notwithstanding the foregoing requirements of this Section 7.2, the Transferring Member may proceed with the Transfer of the Tag-Along Units without first complying with its obligations under this Section 7.2 if, prior to or concurrently with such Transfer (but in any event, as an express closing condition of such Transfer), the purchaser of the Tag-Along Units or the Transferring Member agrees to acquire and, within 30 days (provided, that if such acquisition is subject to regulatory approval and such regulatory approval is required by the definitive agreement entered into to give effect to such transaction, such 30 day period shall be extended until the expiration of 15 days after all such approvals have been received or the relevant transaction document is terminated) after the closing of such Transfer, acquires the Common Units that each electing Tag-Along Participant was otherwise entitled to sell under this Section 7.2 on the same terms and conditions as the Transfer by the Transferring Member of such Tag-Along Units (for the avoidance of doubt, including with respect to indemnification, but, in the case of a purchase by the Transferring Member, for the benefit of the Transferring Member, such as to put each of the Transferring Member and Tag-Along Participants in substantially the same position as if the sale had been made by the Tag-Along Participants directly to the Transferee of the Transferring Member's Tag-Along Units). If the purchaser of the Tag-Along Units has agreed to purchase the Common Units from the electing Tag-Along Participants, but fails to consummate such purchase, in each case, pursuant to the prior sentence, then the Transferring Member shall promptly consummate such purchase.

(f) Tag-Along Rights of Management Holders and Non-Accredited Investors. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (i) Management Holders shall not have any tag-along rights or obligations under this Section 7.2 and (ii) a Common Unit Holder shall not have any tag-along rights under Section ~~7.2~~7.2, if the consideration in such Tag-Along Transaction consists of securities that have not been registered under the Securities Act and such Common Unit Holder is not an "accredited investor" as defined in Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act (each, an "Accredited Investor"). The tag-along rights and obligations, if any, of Management Holders shall be set forth in their applicable Management Subscription Agreements.

(g) Tag-Along Notice Expiration. Any Tag-Along Transaction pursuant to this Section 7.2 shall occur within ninety (90) days after delivery of the Transfer Notice delivered to the Tag-Along Participants pursuant to the first sentence of Section 7.2(b); provided, that if such Tag-Along Transaction is subject to regulatory approval and such regulatory approval is required by the definitive agreement entered into to give effect to such transactions, such ninety (90) day period shall be extended until the expiration of twenty (20) Business Days after all such approvals have been received or the relevant transaction document is terminated. If (i) the Transferring Member has not consummated the Tag-Along Transaction within the period described by the immediately preceding sentence (for any reason other than the failure of a Tag-Along Participant to sell its Units under this Section 7.2) or (ii) the terms and conditions of the Tag-Along Transaction shall change from those in the Transfer Notice (A) with respect to the purchase price to be paid for the Units, in any respect (other than de minimis changes) or (B) with respect to any other terms and conditions, in any material respect, then the Transfer Notice shall be null and void and it shall be necessary for a separate Transfer Notice to be furnished and the terms and provisions of this Section 7.2 separately complied with, in order to subsequently consummate such proposed Tag-Along Transaction pursuant to this Section 7.2.

7.3 Drag-Along Right.

(a) General. Prior to an IPO, if the CD&R Holders propose to Transfer all or a portion of their Common Units to any Independent Third Party, where such Common Units so proposed to be Transferred by the CD&R Holders constitute more than fifty percent (50%) of the Company's outstanding Common Units, then each other Member (each, a "Selling Member") shall, if requested by the CD&R Holders, be required to Transfer its Drag-Along Units in accordance with this Section 7.3 (a "Drag-Along Transaction") with the proceeds from such Transfer being allocated in accordance with Section 5.1; provided that this Section 7.3 shall not apply to Transfers: (i) to Permitted Affiliate Transferees of the CD&R Holders (including, for the avoidance of doubt, a Continuation Fund), (ii) in connection with an IPO as a part of such registered offering or following an IPO, (iii) pursuant to a Tag-Along Transaction as a Tag-Along Participant or (iv) of the Preferred Units. To the extent any drag-along or similar sale requirements are applicable to a Management Holder pursuant to any Management Subscription Agreement, such terms shall apply to the Common Units subject to any Management Subscription Agreement in lieu of the terms of this Section 7.3.

(b) Terms of Drag-Along Transaction. Subject to Section 7.3(d), the terms and conditions of such Drag-Along Transaction applicable to the Selling Members shall be the same as those upon which the CD&R Holders directly or indirectly sell their Common Units in the Drag-Along Transaction. In connection with the Drag-Along Transaction, each Selling Member shall agree to make or agree to the same representations, covenants, indemnities and agreements as the CD&R Holders, so long as they are made severally and not jointly; provided that (i) no Selling Member shall be required to enter into noncompetition, non-solicitation or similar restrictive covenants (other than customary and reasonable covenants regarding confidentiality and publicity), (ii) any general indemnity and related escrow agreement given to the purchaser in connection with such sale that is applicable to liabilities not specific to the CD&R Holders shall be apportioned among the Selling Members and the CD&R Holders according to the number of Common Units sold by the CD&R Holders and each Selling Member in such Drag-Along Transaction and shall not exceed such Member's net proceeds from the sale, and (iii) any representation relating specifically to a Selling Member shall be made only by that Selling Member, and any indemnity and any related escrow agreement given with respect to such representation shall be given only by such Selling Member, and shall not exceed such Selling Member's net proceeds from the sale.

(c) Required Drag-Along Notice. The CD&R Holders shall exercise the rights provided in Section 7.3(a) by providing written notice (the "Drag-Along Notice") to each Selling Member of any proposed Drag-Along Transaction no later than fifteen (15) Business Days prior to the consummation of such Drag-Along Transaction. The Drag-Along Notice will include the material terms and conditions of the Drag-Along Transaction, including (i) the name and address of the proposed Transferee, (ii) the number of Common Units of the CD&R Holders proposed to be Transferred, (iii) the proposed amount and form of consideration and (iv) the proposed Transfer date, if known. The CD&R Holders will deliver or cause to be delivered to each Selling Member copies of all final transaction documents relating to the Drag-Along Transaction promptly as the same become available. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, after the Drag-Along Notice has been provided by the CD&R Holders to the Selling Members pursuant to this Section 7.3(c) with respect to any proposed Drag-Along Transaction, (A) during the period commencing on the later of (x) fifteen (15) Business Days following the delivery of the initial Drag-Along Notice and (y) ten (10) Business Days prior to the estimated closing date of such Drag-Along Transaction (based on the CD&R Holders' good faith estimate of the closing date as of the time of the Drag-Along Notice) as set forth in the Drag Along Notice (or any subsequent notice provided from time to time by the CD&R Holders to the Selling Members updating in good faith such estimated closing date), no Selling Member may Transfer any of its Common Units to any Person (other than to a Permitted Affiliate Transferee or as part of such Drag-Along Transaction) and (B) with respect to any proposed Drag-Along Transaction that is structured as a unit or securities purchase from the Members (as opposed to a merger or asset sale), no Selling Member may Transfer any of its Common Units to any Person (other than as part of such Drag-Along Transaction) unless such Transfer is otherwise in accordance with Section 7.1 and, as a condition to any such Transfer, the Transferee agrees to be part of such Drag-Along Transaction in accordance with this Section 7.3, including by concurrently executing the definitive sale documentation governing such Drag-Along Transaction; provided that, with respect to any Transfers made after the Drag-Along Notice has been provided by the CD&R Holders to the Selling Members pursuant to this Section 7.3(c), such Drag-Along Notice (and any subsequent updates with respect to the estimated closing date of the Drag Along Transaction) shall be deemed to have been delivered to any such Transferee. Upon the CD&R Holders becoming reasonably aware that any prior estimate given to the Selling Members of the closing date of any Drag-Along Transaction is no longer accurate, the CD&R Holders shall reasonably promptly provide the Selling Members with a subsequent notice referred to in clause (A) of the prior sentence of an updated good faith estimate of the closing date of any such Drag-Along Transaction.

(d) Form of Consideration. Each Selling Member and the CD&R Holders shall receive consideration in accordance with Section 5.1; provided, however, that the form of consideration to be received by the CD&R Holders in connection with the Drag-Along Transaction may be different from that received by the Selling Members so long as the Fair Market Value of the consideration to be received by the CD&R Holders is the same or less than what the CD&R Holders would have received had the CD&R Holders received the same form of consideration as the Selling Members (as reasonably determined by the Board in good faith); provided, further, that to the extent the consideration in any Drag-Along Transaction consists of a mix of illiquid securities, on the one hand, and cash and/or marketable securities, on the other hand, (x) the CD&R Holders will, and will cause the Company to, use reasonable best efforts to allocate cash and/or marketable securities to the Selling Members that are Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders before any cash and/or marketable securities are allocated to any other Member and (y) each Selling Member that is not an Accredited Investor may, in the discretion of the CD&R Holders, receive, and hereby agrees to accept, in lieu of such securities, cash consideration with an equivalent value to such securities as reasonably determined in good faith by the CD&R Holders; provided, further, that to the extent that any consideration to be received by a Non-Sponsor Common Equityholder that is a Selling Member pursuant to such Drag-Along Transaction consists of "seller financing" or similar take-back indebtedness in the form of a loan or other indebtedness not constituting a security, the CD&R Holders shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain for such Non-Sponsor Common Equityholder the option to receive such seller financing or take-back indebtedness in the form of debt securities issued pursuant to Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act with identical terms as the corresponding seller financing or take-back indebtedness not constituting securities.

(e) Consummation of Drag-Along Transaction. At least five (5) Business Days prior to the consummation of the Drag-Along Transaction, each Selling Member shall deliver to the Company, to hold in escrow pending transfer of the consideration therefor, an assignment and assumption agreement reasonably satisfactory to the Transferee necessary to sell or otherwise dispose of such securities in accordance with the terms of this Section 7.3. In the event that a Selling Member should fail to deliver such assignment and assumption agreement, the Company shall cause the books and records of the Company to show that all Common Units are bound by the provisions of this Section 7.3 and that such securities may only be Transferred to the purchaser in such Drag-Along Transaction in accordance with the terms of this Section 7.3. Upon the consummation of the Drag-Along Transaction, the acquiring Person shall remit directly to the Selling Members and the CD&R Holders, by wire transfer if available and if requested by the Selling Members or the CD&R Holders, as applicable, the consideration for the securities directly or indirectly sold pursuant thereto in accordance with Section 5.1.

(f) Cooperation; Waiver of Appraisal Rights. Each Selling Member shall cooperate, subject to the satisfaction of the terms and conditions set forth in Section 7.3(b) through Section 7.3(d), with the Company and the CD&R Holders in connection with the Drag-Along Transaction and shall take all actions as may be reasonably necessary or desirable to consummate such Drag-Along Transaction, including (i) voting all of its Common Units (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall take into account the Common Unit Equivalent Participation) entitled to vote on such Drag-Along Transaction in favor of such Drag-Along Transaction at any meeting of the Members called to vote on or approve such Drag-Along Transaction and/or to consent in writing to such Drag-Along Transaction (whether or not such approval of the Drag-Along Transaction is required by applicable Law and whether or not such approval is sought prior to or after the execution of a definitive agreement relating to a Drag-Along Transaction), (ii) using its reasonable best efforts to cause any Directors designated by such Selling Member to vote in favor of such Drag-Along Transaction at any meeting of the Board called to vote on or approve such Drag-Along Transaction or to consent in writing to such Drag-Along Transaction and raise no objection thereto, (iii) waiving any appraisal, dissenters' or similar rights that may be available to such Selling Member under any Law, agreement, organizational document or otherwise in connection with such Drag-Along Transaction, (iv) executing, acknowledging and delivering such agreements, consents, waivers and other documents and instruments, furnishing such information and documents, and filing such applications, reports, returns and other documents and instruments with governmental authorities, in each case, to the same extent as the CD&R Holders and as may be reasonably necessary or desirable in connection with the Drag-Along Transaction, and (v) taking such other actions as may be reasonably requested by the Company or the CD&R Holders in connection with the Drag-Along Transaction, in each case, to the same extent as the CD&R Holders (it being hereby acknowledged by each Member that such further actions may be requested by the Company or the CD&R Holders notwithstanding, and shall not limit in any manner the effect of, any approval, consent or waiver already given by such Member hereunder). Without limiting the effect of the foregoing or any other provision of this Section 7.3, if the Drag-Along Transaction is structured as a merger or consolidation, each Selling Member hereby consents to such Drag-Along Transaction and hereby waives and agrees not to exercise any appraisal, dissenters' or similar rights that may be available to such Selling Member under any applicable Law, organizational document or otherwise in connection with such Drag-Along Transaction.

(g) Proxy and Power of Attorney. Each Member (other than the CD&R Holders) hereby grants to the CD&R Holders collectively (acting by unanimous consent) an irrevocable proxy and power of attorney (with full power of substitution), for and in the name, place and stead of such Selling Member, (i) to vote all of its Common Units (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall take into account the Common Unit Equivalent Participation) entitled to vote on such Drag-Along Transaction in favor of such Drag-Along Transaction at any meeting of the Members called to vote on or approve such Drag-Along Transaction and/or to consent in writing to such Drag-Along Transaction (whether or not such approval of the Drag-Along Transaction is required by applicable Law and whether or not such approval is sought prior to or after the execution of a definitive agreement relating to a Drag-Along Transaction), and (ii) to take any and all other actions contemplated by Section 7.3(f) that may be necessary or advisable to consummate such Drag-Along Transaction or to Transfer to the purchaser the Common Units that such Selling Member is required to Transfer to the purchaser in connection with such Drag-Along Transaction pursuant to this Section 7.3 (it being hereby acknowledged by each Member that such actions may be taken by the CD&R Holders notwithstanding, and shall not limit in any manner the effect of, any approval, consent or waiver already given by such Member hereunder). Each Member (other than the CD&R Holders) hereby agrees that the irrevocable proxy and power of attorney set forth in this Section 7.3(g) is given to secure the performance of the obligations of such Member under this Section 7.3 and that such proxy and power of attorney shall be irrevocable, shall be deemed to be coupled with an interest, shall extend for the term of this Agreement or, if earlier, until the last date permitted by applicable Law, and shall be binding upon the successors and assigns of the applicable Member. Except as expressly contemplated by this Agreement, no Member shall grant any proxy or power of attorney or become party to any voting trust or other agreement that is inconsistent with or conflicts with the provisions of this Section 7.3.

(h) No Liability. The CD&R Holders shall, in their sole discretion, decide whether or not to pursue, consummate, postpone or abandon any proposed Transfer subject to this Section 7.3 and the terms and conditions hereof. No Member or Affiliate of a Member shall have any liability to any other Member or the Company arising from, relating to or in connection with the pursuit, consummation, postponement, abandonment or terms and conditions of any proposed Transfer subject to this Section 7.3, except to the extent such Member shall have failed to comply with the provisions of this Section 7.3.

(i) U.K. Listing Rules. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section ~~7.3~~7.3, the maximum amount payable to any Member that affirmatively elects, pursuant to an irrevocable notice to the Company prior to the consummation of the Drag-Along Transaction, to be subject to this Section 7.3(i) (a "Listing Rules Member") pursuant to a repurchase or other sale of such Listing Rules Member's Units and over which the applicable Listing Rules Member does not have sole discretion as to whether to enter into and consummate the applicable sale (including a Drag-Along Transaction) (a "Listing Rules Subject Sale") shall be equal to the lesser of (x) either (i) the minimum amount that would result in such Listing Rules Subject Sale constituting a significant transaction under the UK Listing Rules minus one pound Sterling (£1.00) or (ii) such other amount as such Listing Rules Member notifies to the Company in writing from time to time or (y) the amount otherwise payable to such Listing Rules Member in such Drag-Along Transaction in accordance with this Section 7.3; provided, that Barclays is hereby deemed to be a Listing Rules Member for purposes of this Section 7.3(i) and is not required to provide notification to the Company of its election as such; provided further, that the election of any Member to have this provision apply to such Member shall in no event increase the amount payable to such Member under this Agreement.

7.4 Preemptive Rights.

(a) General. The Preemptive Rights Recipients shall have the right to participate in any issuance or sale of New Securities by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Section 7.4. For the avoidance of doubt, the purchase right provided in this Section 7.4 shall apply at the time of issuance of any right, warrant, option or convertible or exchangeable security, and not to the conversion, exchange or exercise thereof. The rights and obligations in this Section 7.4 shall terminate upon an IPO.

(b) Required Notice of New Issuance. At least fifteen (15) Business Days prior to the proposed effective date of such issuance or sale, the Company shall give written notice of any proposed issuance or sale described in Section 7.4(a) (the "Issuance Notice") to each of the Preemptive Rights Recipients, which notice shall set forth the description of New Securities proposed to be issued or sold (the "Purchase Issuance"), the material terms and conditions of such proposed issuance or sale, including the name of any proposed purchaser(s), the proposed manner of disposition, the proposed issuance or sale date, the proposed purchase price (including, if applicable, the price per Unit or other New Security), including a description of any non-cash consideration sufficiently detailed to permit the determination of the fair market value thereof, and the proposed use of proceeds, including, in the case of an issuance or sale to fund an acquisition or other similar transaction, information regarding the target or counterparty to such transaction.

(c) Exercise of Preemptive Rights. At any time during the ten (10)-Business Day period following its receipt of the Issuance Notice, each of the Preemptive Rights Recipients who wishes to purchase any portion of the Purchase Issuance shall give a written notice to the Company (the "Purchase Notice"), which notice shall (i) set forth the portion of the Purchase Issuance such Preemptive Rights Recipient wishes to purchase (up to such Preemptive Rights Recipient's Pro Rata Portion) and, at the option of such Preemptive Rights Recipient, the maximum portion of the Purchase Issuance that such Preemptive Rights Recipient irrevocably commits to purchase in excess of such Preemptive Rights Recipient's Pro Rata Portion (the "Excess Amount"), and (ii) contain an irrevocable commitment by such Preemptive Rights Recipient to purchase the portion of the Purchase Issuance set forth in such Purchase Notice, upon the terms and conditions, including the purchase price, specified in the applicable Issuance Notice; provided that, in the event that any portion of the purchase price (per Unit, if applicable) to be paid by the proposed purchaser is to be paid in non-cash consideration, the value of any such non-cash consideration (per Unit, if applicable) shall be the Fair Market Value thereof, and the Preemptive Rights Recipient shall be permitted to satisfy payment of the purchase price in cash (based on the Fair Market Value) in lieu of non-cash consideration. So long as none of the terms set forth in the Issuance Notice are changed following delivery of the Purchase Notice by a Preemptive Rights Recipient, any Purchase Notice shall upon delivery become binding on such Preemptive Rights Recipient and shall become irrevocable without the necessity of any acceptance thereof by the Company. If one or more Preemptive Rights Recipients decline to participate in such purchase or elect to purchase less than their Pro Rata Portion, then the remaining portion of the Purchase Issuance shall automatically be deemed to be accepted by the Preemptive Rights Recipients who specified an Excess Amount in their respective Purchase Notices, and shall be allocated among such Preemptive Rights Recipients in proportion to their respective Pro Rata Portion; provided that in no event shall an amount greater than a Preemptive Rights Recipient's Excess Amount be allocated to such Preemptive Rights Recipient pursuant to this sentence. Any excess portion of the Purchase Issuance remaining after such allocation shall be further allocated among the remaining Preemptive Rights Recipients whose specified Excess Amounts have not been satisfied in full, in proportion to each such Preemptive Rights Recipient's respective Pro Rata Portion, and such procedure shall be employed until the entire Excess Amount of each Preemptive Rights Recipient has been satisfied or until the entire Purchase Issuance has been allocated. A Preemptive Rights Recipient's failure to give written notice prior to the expiration of the 10-Business Day period above regarding its election to purchase any portion of the Purchase Issuance pursuant to this Section 7.4 shall be deemed an election by such Preemptive Rights Recipient not to purchase any portion of the Purchase Issuance.

(d) Consummation of New Issuance. The purchase of any portion of the Purchase Issuance with respect to which Purchase Notices have been delivered in accordance with Section 7.4(c) shall be consummated concurrently with the consummation of the issuance or sale described in the applicable Issuance Notice; provided that the closing of any purchase by any Preemptive Rights Recipient may be extended beyond the closing of the transaction described in the applicable Issuance Notice to the extent necessary to obtain required governmental approvals and other required approvals, and the Company and the Members shall use reasonable best efforts to obtain such approvals. Upon the consummation of the purchase by the Preemptive Rights Recipients of their portions of the Purchase Issuance pursuant to this Section 7.4, each of the Preemptive Rights Recipients who has purchased a portion of the Purchase Issuance shall remit to the Company or the applicable Subsidiary of the Company, by wire transfer of immediately available funds, the consideration for the portion of the Purchase Issuance sold pursuant thereto.

(e) Issuance of Unsubscribed New Securities. If, at the end of the ten (10)-Business Day period specified in Section 7.4(c), none of the Preemptive Rights Recipients has delivered to the Company an effective Purchase Notice, or if the Preemptive Rights Recipients have delivered Purchase Notices covering in the aggregate less than the entire Purchase Issuance, then the Company or the applicable Subsidiary of the Company shall be free to complete the proposed issuance or sale of the Purchase Issuance with respect to which no effective Purchase Notice has been delivered on terms no less favorable to the Company or such Subsidiary than those set forth in the Issuance Notice (except that the amount of the Purchase Issuance may be reduced), provided that (x) such issuance or sale is consummated within ninety (90) days after the expiration of the 10-Business Day period described in Section 7.4(c) and (y) the price at which the Purchase Issuance is issued or sold (including the price per Unit or other New Securities, if relevant) is equal to or higher than the purchase price described in the Issuance Notice. Such periods within which such issuance or sale must be closed shall be extended to the extent necessary to obtain required governmental approvals and other required approvals, and the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain such approvals. In the event that the Company or the applicable Subsidiary of the Company has not sold any portion of the Purchase Issuance within such 90-day period (as may be extended in accordance with the prior sentence), the Company or such Subsidiary shall not thereafter issue or sell any portion of the Purchase Issuance without first again offering the Purchase Issuance to the Preemptive Rights Recipients in the manner provided in this Section 7.4.

(f) Designation Rights. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, each of the Preemptive Rights Recipients may designate one or more Persons constituting a Permitted Affiliate Transferee thereof to purchase all or part of the portion of the Purchase Issuance which such Preemptive Rights Recipient has elected to subscribe for pursuant to this Section 7.4.

(g) Post-Issuance Offering. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Board determines that it is in the best interests of the Company for the Company, or the applicable Subsidiary, to issue New Securities to any Person prior to offering such New Securities to the Preemptive Rights Recipients under this Section 7.4, the Company, or its applicable Subsidiary, may issue such New Securities without first complying with this Section 7.4; provided that, (i) within five (5) Business Days after such issuance, the Company, or its applicable Subsidiary, shall provide written notice to each Preemptive Rights Recipient, including the same detail as would have been in an Issuance Notice of such issuance and (ii) within forty-five (45) days of the closing of such issuance, the Company shall offer each Preemptive Rights Recipient the opportunity to purchase on the same terms and at the same price as applicable to such issuance, the number of New Securities that such Preemptive Rights Recipient would have been entitled to purchase so as to maintain or obtain such Preemptive Rights Recipient's Pro Rata Portion (calculated immediately before the issuance made pursuant to this Section 7.4(g)) of the New Securities issued pursuant to this Section 7.4(g) in accordance with the procedures of this Section 7.4. A Preemptive Rights Recipient's failure to give written notice prior to the tenth (10th) Business Day following the offer to participate described above regarding its election to purchase any portion of the Purchase Issuance pursuant to this Section 7.4 shall be deemed an election by such Preemptive Rights Recipient not to purchase any portion of the Purchase Issuance.

(h) Preemptive Debt Interests. To the extent that, in connection with any issuance of New Securities constituting Preemptive Debt Interests, the CD&R Members or any of ~~its~~their respective Affiliates acquire 33.33% or greater of such issuance of New Securities, the terms of such Preemptive Debt Interests shall provide for customary transferability (as to permitted assignees / transferees) and customary voting and sacred rights protections, including, without limitation as to pro rata treatment, waterfall and payment, structural and lien subordination and amendments to the foregoing; provided, however, that this Section 7.4(h) shall be deemed satisfied so long as such provisions (i) are no less favorable to lenders or holders of such New Securities than the equivalent provisions in the New Term Loan Facility (as in effect on the Effective Date, and without taking into account any subsequent amendments, restatements, supplements or modifications thereto), (ii) provide that any contractual subordination or amendments to the pro rata provision sharing and waterfall provisions are subject to each directly and adversely affected lender being offered an opportunity to provide its pro rata share of the subject indebtedness and (iii) provide that any ~~[~~"Liability Management Transaction" (as defined in the New Term Loan Facility as in effect on the Effective Date, and without taking into account any subsequent amendments, restatements, supplements or modifications thereto)~~]~~[2] shall be subject to each directly and adversely affected lender being offered an opportunity to provide its pro rata share of the subject indebtedness.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, a Preemptive Rights Recipient shall not be entitled to acquire New Securities by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to this Section 7.4, if (i) such Preemptive Rights Recipient is not an Accredited Investor or (ii) issuance or offer of the New Securities to such Preemptive Rights Recipient will require the registration or qualification of any securities or the sale thereof or of any Person as a broker or dealer or agent with respect to such securities where such registration or qualification is not otherwise required.

7.5 Effect of Assignment. The Company shall, from the effective date of any permitted Transfer of a Unit (or part thereof), thereafter pay all further distributions on account of such Unit (or part thereof) to the Transferee of such Unit (or part thereof). The permitted Transferee of a Unit (or part thereof) held by any Member or any of their respective Affiliates shall have all of the rights granted generally to all Members hereunder.

7.6 Release of Liability. In the event any Member shall Transfer its entire interest in the Company in compliance with the provisions of this Agreement, without retaining any interest therein, directly or indirectly, then the selling Member shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, be relieved of any further liability arising hereunder for events occurring from and after the date of such Transfer and shall cease to be a Member of the Company.

7.7 Right of First Refusal. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 7.2, from the Effective Date until the three-month anniversary of the Effective Date, in the event that a Member shall propose to Transfer any Common Units (each, a "Prospective Selling Member") to any Person (other than a Permitted Affiliate Transferee), the ROFR Members shall have a right of first refusal with respect to such proposed Transfer, which right shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of this Section 7.7.

(a) With respect to any such proposed Transfer of Common Units, the Prospective Selling Member shall offer to ROFR Members the option to purchase the Common Units proposed to be Transferred at the same price and upon the same terms and conditions as are specified in a bona fide written offer from the proposed transferee.

(b) The notice to the ROFR Members ("Right of First Refusal Notice") shall include the price, form of consideration and any other material terms and conditions, and the identity of the Person to whom such Prospective Selling Member is proposing to Transfer such Common Units, including the identity of any Person controlling such proposed Transferee (if known by the Prospective Selling Member). Upon the written request from a ROFR Member within five (5) Business Days of delivery of the Right of First Refusal Notice, such Prospective Selling Member shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide such other information as is reasonably requested by such ROFR Member. To exercise its right to purchase the Common Units proposed to be Transferred, any of the ROFR Members shall within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of the Right of First Refusal Notice (such period of days, the "ROFR Notice Period") give written notice to the Prospective Selling Member identifying the number of such Common Units it agrees to purchase (a "ROFR Acceptance Notice"). In the event that, as of such date, the ROFR Members, collectively, fail to notify the Prospective Selling Member of their agreement in writing to purchase all of the Common Units proposed to be Transferred, the Prospective Selling Member shall provide notice of such shortfall to the ROFR Members, and if they wish to purchase all or any portion of the Common Units comprising such shortfall, the ROFR Members shall within two (2) Business Days of receipt of such notice provide written notice to the Prospective Selling Member identifying the number of Common Units comprising such shortfall that it agrees to purchase ("ROFR Undersubscription Notice"). In the event that any ROFR Member fails to deliver (x) a ROFR Acceptance Notice to the Prospective Selling Member within the 10 Business Day period, such ROFR Member shall be deemed, subject to Section 7.7(c), to have waived its right of first refusal with respect to such Common Units and (y) if applicable, a ROFR Undersubscription Notice to the Prospective Selling Member within the two (2) Business Day period, such ROFR Member shall be deemed, subject to Section 7.7(c), to have waived its right to purchase any portion of any shortfall with respect to such Common Units. The delivery by a ROFR Member of a ROFR Acceptance Notice or a ROFR Undersubscription Notice shall constitute an irrevocable commitment, subject to the terms of this Section 7.7(b), by such ROFR Member to purchase such Common Units set forth in its ROFR Acceptance Notice and, if applicable, ROFR Undersubscription Notice on the terms set forth in the Right of First Refusal Notice and the closing of such purchase shall take place at the offices of the Company (or at any other place as may be agreed by the Company, any ROFR Members that are purchasing Common Units in such Transfer and the Prospective Selling Member) on a date specified by the Company and any ROFR Members that are purchasing Common Units in such Transfer, which date shall be within fifteen (15) Business Days after the expiration of the ROFR Notice Period (subject to extension to the extent necessary to obtain required government approvals or clearances); provided, however, that, if the ROFR Members, collectively, elect to purchase more than all of the Common Units proposed to be Transferred, each ROFR Member electing to purchase any Common Units shall be deemed to have irrevocably committed to purchase the number of such Common Units allocated to it as follows (in each case until the full number of Common Units proposed to be Transferred has been allocated), (I) first, to the ROFR Members delivering ROFR Acceptance Notices, up to the number of Common Units set forth in their respective ROFR Acceptance Notices, allocated pro rata in proportion to the number of Common Units held by such ROFR Member immediately following the Effective Date relative to the number of Common Units held by all ROFR Members immediately following the Effective Date, respectively, and (II) second, to the ROFR Members delivering ROFR Undersubscription Notices, up to the number of Common Units set forth in their respective ROFR Undersubscription Notices, allocated pro rata in proportion to the number of Common Units held by such ROFR Member immediately following the Effective Date relative to the number of Common Units held by the ROFR Members delivering ROFR Undersubscription Notices immediately following the Effective Date, respectively. If the terms of the proposed Transfer include the Transfer of the Common Units for consideration other than cash, any ROFR Members that are purchasing Common Units in such Transfer will have the right to exercise their rights hereunder by purchasing such Common Units for cash in an amount equal to the Fair Market Value of such proposed consideration.

(c) If the ROFR Members elect not to purchase any Common Units proposed to be Transferred, or elect to purchase less than all of the Common Units proposed to be Transferred, the Prospective Selling Member may accept the offers of the ROFR Members (if any) and, at the option of the Prospective Selling Member, sell the remaining Common Units proposed to be Transferred to the Person (or an Affiliate thereof) specified in the Right of First Refusal Notice, provided that, such sale is made (x) within 90 days after the date of such Right of First Refusal Notice (subject to extension to the extent necessary to obtain required governmental approvals or clearances), at a price and upon terms and conditions not more favorable to such transferee than those that were specified in the Right of First Refusal Notice and (y) in compliance with Section 7.2 if applicable to such sale.

ARTICLE VIII.

INITIAL PUBLIC OFFERING

8.1 IPO Restructuring.

(a) General. In anticipation of or in connection with any proposed IPO, the Board may take, and the Members shall, at the request of the Board, cooperate with the Board and each other by taking, such actions as may be reasonably required or otherwise advisable in connection therewith to effectuate the IPO. The corporation to issue securities in the IPO shall be the Company or other entity designated by the CD&R Holders (the "IPO Corporation"). The IPO Corporation, if other than the Company, shall cause all proceeds of any IPO in respect of primary issuances by the IPO Corporation (net of any related fees and expenses) to be directly or indirectly contributed to the Company. If the Board determines, in its sole discretion, that the exchange or conversion of Units held by the Members for or into securities of the IPO Corporation would increase the likelihood of success of the IPO, in any respect, the Company may, and the Members shall, cause the exchange or conversion of Units held by all Members for or into securities of the IPO Corporation. The Members shall cooperate in undertaking such transactions and taking all actions as are necessary to effect the IPO of the relevant IPO Corporation as determined by the Board, including, without limitation, (i) passing any resolutions and/or class consents necessary to: (A) transfer the Units to the IPO Corporation, (B) reorganize or restructure the relevant equity capital or other securities of the Company or its Subsidiaries, provided always that no Member shall be obligated to exercise its voting rights to effect any such reorganization that would dilute its then proportionate economic entitlement as compared with any other Member, (C) adopt such new constitutional documents of the Company or its relevant Subsidiaries or the IPO Corporation, (D) re-register the Company or its relevant Subsidiaries or the IPO Corporation as a public limited company or other corporate form which is lawfully capable of issuing shares to the public and/or such other securities as are to be listed or traded and (E) make all applications to a relevant exchange necessary for the purposes of effecting the IPO, (ii) voting, if such a vote is required by this Agreement or otherwise, all of their Units entitled to vote on such IPO in favor of such IPO at any meeting of the Members called to vote on or approve such IPO and/or to consent in writing to such IPO, (iii) using their reasonable best efforts to cause their representatives on the Board to vote in favor of such IPO (whether at any meeting of the Board called to vote on or approve such IPO or through a consent in writing) and raise no objection thereto, (iv) executing, acknowledging and delivering agreements (including any underwriting or similar agreement), consents, assignments, waivers (including a waiver of any dissenters' rights, appraisal rights or similar rights to the fullest extent under the Law of the State of Delaware or otherwise related to such IPO and confirmation of such waiver upon request of the Company) and other documents or instruments, (v) furnishing such information and copies of documents as may be reasonably requested by the Company and (vi) taking such other actions as may be reasonably requested by the Board in connection with the IPO. The actions of the Company in respect of the Units described above are referred to herein as the "IPO Restructuring". Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if a Common Unit Holder or Preferred Unit Holder that is not an Accredited Investor will receive securities in the IPO Restructuring or the participation of such Common Unit Holder or Preferred Unit Holder in such transaction will require the registration or qualification of any securities or the sale thereof or of any Person as a broker or dealer or agent with respect to such securities where such registration or qualification is not otherwise required for such transaction, then such Common Unit Holder or Preferred Unit Holder shall not have the right to exchange or convert its Units in such proposed transaction and, at the Company's discretion, will surrender its Units to the Company for an amount in cash equal to the Fair Market Value of such Units as of the effective date of the proposed recapitalization, conversion, reorganization or other IPO Restructuring transaction.

(b) Equivalent Rights. The Company and the Members shall take such actions as to ensure that, as a result of and immediately after giving effect to any IPO Restructuring and the IPO, the holders of IPO Corporation securities that were Members (or Affiliates of Members) immediately prior to the IPO have substantially the same relative economic rights, privileges, preferences, priorities and obligations and governance rights (to the extent any such governance rights would continue to be applicable following an IPO under this Agreement) in respect of the IPO Corporation as the applicable Member had in respect of the Company and its Subsidiaries pursuant to this Agreement immediately prior to such IPO Restructuring. If requested by the Company, the Members and/or their Affiliates shall enter into a stockholders, operating or similar agreement containing substantially similar rights and obligations with respect to IPO Corporation securities as are provided for in this Agreement with respect to the Units, including with respect to the board of directors or other similar governing body of such entity, and otherwise consistent with the provisions of this Section 8.1 (taking into account any rights that may terminate upon an IPO, if applicable, such as the tag-along rights set forth in Section 7.2, the drag-along rights set forth in Section 7.3 and the preemptive rights set forth in Section 7.4).

(c) Holdback Agreement. No Member shall effect any Transfer of any Units during the seven (7) days prior to and the 180-day period beginning on the effective date of the IPO (and the 90-day period beginning on the effective date of any other underwritten Public Offering), except as part of such underwritten Public Offering or unless otherwise permitted by the Board. In connection with any underwritten Public Offering, each Common Unit Holder and Preferred Unit Holder will enter into any lock-up, holdback or similar agreements requested by the underwriter(s) managing such offering, in each case with such modifications and exceptions as may be approved by the Board; provided that the period of any such lock-up or holdback shall not begin earlier than the seven (7) days prior to, and shall end no more than 180 days after, the effective date of the IPO (or in the case of any other underwriting Public Offering, 90 days after such underwritten Public Offering). Any discretionary waiver or termination of the foregoing restrictions by the Board or the underwriters, as applicable, shall apply to all Members pro rata based on the number of Units subject to such restrictions.

ARTICLE IX.

MEMBERS

9.1 Powers of Members. The Members shall have only the rights and powers expressly granted to the Members pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and shall not have any voting or other rights in respect of any other matter. The vote, approval or consent of the Members shall not be required in order to authorize the taking of any action by the Company except and only to the extent that (i) this Agreement (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Preferred Unit Schedule) shall expressly otherwise provide, (ii) such approval or consent shall be required by non-waivable provisions of the Act or (iii) the Board shall determine that obtaining such approval or consent would be appropriate or desirable. No Member (acting in its capacity as such) shall have any authority to bind the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company to any Person with respect to any matter, except as authorized in accordance herewith. Members shall exercise their powers with respect to the Company only through the appointment of Directors, except as otherwise required by the Act. Each Member expressly waives any voting, approval or consent rights (except to the extent described above) or other rights to participate in the governance of the Company, whether such rights may be provided under the Act (including under §§ 18-209(b), 18-213(b), 18-215(b)(4), 18-215(b)(9), 18-216(b), 18-301(b)(1), 18-302(a), 18-302(f), 18-304, 18-305(a), 18-702(a), 18-704(a), 18-801(a), 18-803(a) or 18-806 thereof) or otherwise.

9.2 Meetings of Members.

(a) Meetings; Notice of Meetings. An annual meeting of the Members of the Company for the transaction of such business as properly may come before such meeting is not required but may be held each year in the discretion of the Board either within or without the State of Delaware on such date and at such place and time as are designated by the Board. Additional meetings of the Members may be called by the Board from time to time. Notice of any meeting of the Members shall be given to all Members not less than 10, nor more than 30, Business Days prior to the date of such meeting and shall state the location, date and hour of such meeting and the nature of the business to be transacted. Meetings shall be held at the location (within or without the State of Delaware) at the date and hour set forth in the notice of the meeting.

(b) Waiver of Notice. No notice of any meeting of Members need be given to any Member who submits a signed waiver of notice, whether before or after the meeting. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any meeting of the Members need be specified in a written waiver of notice. The attendance of any Member at a meeting of Members shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the Member attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

(c) Quorum. Except as otherwise required by Law or by the Certificate, the presence in person or by proxy of the holders of record of a majority of voting power of the Common Units (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall take into account the Common Unit Equivalent Participation) shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at such meeting.

(d) Voting. If the Board has fixed a record date, each Common Unit Holder is entitled to one vote for each Common Unit held by such Member at the close of business on such record date. If no record date has been so fixed, then each Common Unit Holder shall be entitled to one vote for each Common Unit held by such Member at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice of the meeting is given or, for actions taken in lieu of a meeting, the first consent in respect of the applicable action is executed and delivered to the Company, or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held. In addition to any prescribed voting rights of Preferred Unit Holders as a separate class as set forth in Section 5.01(b) of the Preferred Unit Schedule, the Preferred

Unit Holders shall be entitled to vote, to the extent of the Common Unit Equivalent Participation, in person or by proxy, at all meetings of Common Unit Holders (and written actions in lieu of meetings) or otherwise on all matters on which Common Unit Holders generally are entitled to vote and the Preferred Unit Holders (to the extent of Common Unit Equivalent Participation) and Common Unit Holders shall vote together as a single class on all matters submitted to a vote of Common Unit Holders. Any matters at any meeting of the Members at which a quorum is present shall be decided by the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power of the Common Units (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall take into account the Common Unit Equivalent Participation) present in person or represented by proxy at such meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter in question, unless otherwise expressly provided by applicable Law or this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else to the contrary in this Agreement, Common Unit Holders shall only be entitled to vote on those matters for which their vote is required in accordance with Section 9.1.

(e) Proxies. Each Member may authorize any Person to act for such Member by proxy on all matters in which a Member is entitled to participate, including waiving notice of any meeting, or voting or participating at a meeting. Every proxy must be signed by the Member or such Member's attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after the expiration of three (3) years from the date thereof unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Every proxy shall be revocable at the pleasure of the Member executing it unless otherwise provided in such proxy; provided that such right to revocation shall not invalidate or otherwise affect actions taken under such proxy prior to such revocation.

(f) Organization. Each meeting of Members shall be conducted by such Person as the Board may designate.

(g) Action Without a Meeting. Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement, any action which may be taken at any meeting of the Members may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by Members holding a majority of the voting power of the Common Units (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall take into account the Common Unit Equivalent Participation) entitled to vote; provided, that any Special Action shall instead require its applicable approval set forth in Section 9.8.

(h) Action to be Taken by Groups of Members. For all purposes of this Agreement, if any action (including delivery of a consent, notice or request) is required or contemplated to be taken by a group of two or more Members (including the CD&R Holders), such action shall be deemed to be taken by such group of Members if taken by Members holding a majority of the total voting power of the Common Units (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall take into account the Common Unit Equivalent Participation) held by such group of Members.

9.3 Partition. Except as may otherwise be provided by Law in connection with the Liquidation of the Company, each Member hereby irrevocably waives any and all rights that such Member may have to maintain an action for partition of any of the Company's property.

9.4 Business Transactions of a Member or its Affiliates with the Company. Subject to Section 9.8 and the terms of this Agreement, a Member or Affiliate thereof may lend money to, borrow money from, act as surety or endorser for, guaranty or assume one or more specific obligations of, provide collateral for, or transact any other business with the Company.

9.5 No Cessation of Membership upon Bankruptcy. A Person shall not cease to be a Member of the Company upon the happening, with respect to such Person, of any of the events specified in section 18-304 of the Act.

9.6 Confidentiality. Each Member (other than the CD&R Members or any of ~~its~~their respective Permitted Affiliate Transferees) agrees to, and shall cause its Representatives to, keep confidential and not divulge any Information, and to use, and cause its Representatives to use, such Information only in connection with the operation of the Company and its Subsidiaries; provided that nothing herein shall prevent any party hereto or any of its Representatives from disclosing such Information (i) upon the order of any court or administrative agency, (ii) upon the request or demand of any regulatory agency or authority having jurisdiction over such party or Representative, (iii) to the extent required by Law or legal process or required or requested pursuant to subpoena, interrogatories or other discovery requests, (iv) to the extent necessary in connection with the exercise of any remedy hereunder, (v) to other Members, (vi) to such party's Representatives that in the reasonable judgment of such party need to know such Information, (vii) in the case of any institutional investor with respect to such Information as is customarily disclosed by institutional investors to their limited partners, to such party's direct or indirect limited partners, prospective limited partners and/or their respective advisors or (viii) to any bona fide proposed Transferee to whom such proposed Transfer would be permitted under this Agreement in connection with a proposed Transfer of Units from such Member (or a bona fide proposed acquiror of the Company or substantially all of the assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries (directly or indirectly) in connection with a transaction permitted under this Agreement), so long as such proposed Transferee or acquiror agrees to be bound by the provisions of this Section 9.6 as if a Member; provided, further, that, in the case of clause (i), (ii) or (iii), such Member shall notify the Company of the proposed disclosure as far in advance of such disclosure as practicable and use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any Information so disclosed is accorded confidential treatment, when and if available.

9.7 Additional Members.

(a) Admission. Except as otherwise provided herein (including Article VII), upon the approval of a majority of the Directors, the Company may admit one or more additional Members to be treated as a "Member" for all purposes hereunder. Each Person shall be admitted as a Member at the time such Person (i) executes and delivers a duly executed and completed Joinder Agreement hereto (including the completion of such Person's complete and accurate notice information), (ii) complies with the applicable Board resolution, if any, with respect to such admission and (iii) is named as a Member in Schedule A hereto. The Board is authorized to amend Schedule A to reflect any such admission and to take any actions pursuant to Section 9.7(b) below.

(b) Rights of Additional Members. Upon the admission of an additional Member:

(i) Units. The Board may, subject to any restrictions or consents contained herein (including Article VII), assign Units to such Member; and

(ii) Capital Contributions. If requested by the Board and agreed to by such Member, such Member shall make capital contributions to the Company in an amount to be determined by the Board.

9.8 Non-Sponsor Common Equityholder Approvals. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, prior to an IPO, the Company shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to, take any of the following actions (the "Special Actions"):

(a) unless approved by the holders of a majority of Common Units held by the Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders who timely cast a vote or otherwise timely respond to a consent solicitation, in each case, following reasonable notice from the Company regarding the proposed action at least twenty (20) Business Days prior to the deadline to submit such vote or respond to such consent solicitation, (i) enter into any related party transaction between the CD&R Members or any of ~~its~~their respective Affiliates, on the one hand, and the Company and its Subsidiaries, on the other hand, except for (x) a Transfer of Units to, or a transaction with, a Continuation Fund, so long as such Transfer or transaction observes a process designed to ensure fairness of the transaction to the Company and the Members or a written fairness opinion from an independent financial advisor has been obtained, (y) Transfers for which preemptive rights are made available in accordance with Section 7.4, or (z) transactions with portfolio companies of the CD&R Members or ~~its~~their respective Affiliates on arms' length terms, or (ii) make a material change in the Company's principal line of business;

(b) unless approved by the holders of 75% of Common Units held by the Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders who timely cast a vote or otherwise timely respond to a consent solicitation, in each case, following reasonable notice from the Company regarding the proposed action at least twenty (20) Business Days prior to the deadline to submit such vote or respond to such consent solicitation, change the tax classification of the Company (other than in connection with a reorganization to facilitate an IPO on customary terms (including an IPO Restructuring) that does not by its terms adversely affect the Common Units held by the Non-Sponsor Common Equityholders in a manner disproportionate to the effect on the Common Units held by the CD&R Holder and is not otherwise required pursuant to the Preferred Units Schedule); and

ARTICLE X.

LIABILITY, EXCULPATION AND INDEMNIFICATION

10.1 Liability. Except as otherwise provided by the Act, the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, shall be solely the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company, and no Covered Person shall be obligated personally for any such debt, obligation or liability of the Company solely by reason of being a Covered Person.

10.2 Exculpation. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, no Covered Person shall be liable to the Company or any other Covered Person for any loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by such Covered Person in good faith on behalf of the Company and in a manner believed to be within the scope of authority conferred on such Covered Person by this Agreement, except that a Covered Person shall be liable for any such loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of such Covered Person's Disabling Conduct or willful and material breach of this Agreement. Each Covered Person shall in the performance of his or her duties be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the records of the Company and upon information, opinions, reports or statements presented to the Company by any of the Company's officers or employees, or committees designated by the Board, or by any other person as to the matters the Covered Person reasonably believes are within such other person's professional or expert competence and who has been selected with reasonable care by or on behalf of the Company. Without limiting the foregoing, each Member agrees to waive any claim or right of action it might have, whether individually or on behalf of the Company against any Director on account of any action taken or failure to take any action in his or her capacity as a Director.

10.3 Fiduciary Duty; Company Opportunities.

(a) Waiver of Fiduciary Duties. Any duties (including fiduciary duties) of a Covered Person to the Company or to any other Covered Person that would otherwise apply at law or in equity are hereby eliminated to the fullest extent permitted under the Act and any other applicable Law; provided that (x) the foregoing shall not eliminate the obligation of each Covered Person to act in compliance with the express terms of this Agreement, (y) the foregoing shall not be deemed to eliminate the implied contractual covenant of good faith and fair dealing and (z) the foregoing shall not limit the fiduciary duties set forth in the Act of any Director or officer who is an employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. A Covered Person acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company or to any other Covered Person for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, each of the Members hereby acknowledges and agrees that each of the Directors (other than any Director that is also an employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries), in determining whether or not to vote in support of or against any particular decision for which the Board's consent or approval is required, may act in and consider the best interest of the Member or Members who designated such Director and shall not be required to act in or consider the best interests of the Company or the other Members. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, to the extent that, at law or in equity, a Covered Person (other than any Covered Person that is also an employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries) has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company or to any other Covered Person, a Covered Person acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company or to any other Covered Person for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement. Any Director or officer of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that is also an employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries shall be subject to the fiduciary duties of a director or officer, as applicable, of a Delaware corporation under the Delaware General Corporation Law.

(b) Company Opportunities. Except as otherwise provided in the last sentence of this Section 10.3(b) and subject in all cases to compliance with Section 9.6, (i) no Covered Person (other than any Covered Person that is also an employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries) shall have any duty to communicate or present an investment or business opportunity or prospective economic advantage to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries in which the Company or one of its Subsidiaries may, but for the provisions of this Section 10.3(b), have an interest or expectancy ("Company Opportunity"), and (ii) no Covered Person (other than any Covered Person that is also an employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries) will be deemed to have breached any fiduciary or other duty or obligation to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries by reason of the fact that any such Person pursues or acquires a Company Opportunity for itself or its Affiliates or directs, sells, assigns or transfers such Company Opportunity to another Person or does not communicate information regarding such Company Opportunity to the Company. The Company, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries, renounces any interest in a Company Opportunity and any expectancy that a Company Opportunity will be offered to the Company; provided that the Company does not renounce any interest or expectancy it may have in any Company Opportunity that is offered to an officer or employee of the Company, whether or not such individual is also a director, officer or employee of a Member, if such opportunity is expressly offered to such Person in his or her capacity as an officer or employee of the Company, and the Members recognize that the Company reserves such rights.

(c) Overriding Provision. The provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict the duties and liabilities of a Covered Person otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the parties hereto to replace such other duties and liabilities of such Covered Person.

10.4 Indemnification and Insurance. In addition to the payment of expenses pursuant to Section 10.5, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, the Company agrees to indemnify, pay and hold each Covered Person harmless from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, claims, costs, expenses and disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever (including any interest and penalties, out-of-pocket expenses, and the fees and disbursements of counsel for such Covered Person in connection with any investigative, administrative or judicial proceedings, whether or not such Covered Person shall be designated a party thereto), whether absolute, accrued, conditional or otherwise and whether or not resulting from third-party claims, which may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against any such Covered Person, in any manner relating to or arising out of any act or omission performed or omitted by such Covered Person on behalf of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, except that no Covered Person shall be entitled to be indemnified in respect of any loss, damage or claim incurred by such Covered Person which is determined by a final, non-appealable decision of a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from such Covered Person's Disabling Conduct; provided, that any indemnity under this Section 10.4 shall be provided out of and to the extent of Company assets only, and no Covered Person shall have any personal liability on account thereof. The Company is the full indemnitor of first resort (i.e., its obligations to a Covered Person are primary and any obligation of the CD&R Members or any Affiliate thereof to advance expenses, to provide indemnification and/or to provide insurance for the same expenses or liabilities incurred by the Covered Person are secondary). The Company shall maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance in an amount determined by, and on terms and conditions reasonably acceptable to, the Board.

10.5 Expenses. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees, disbursements, fines and amounts paid in settlement) incurred by a Covered Person in defending any claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding relating to or arising out of his or her performance of his or her duties on behalf of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, or with respect to advice sought regarding his or her rights and responsibilities, or the protection of rights or interests, under this Agreement, shall, from time to time, be advanced by the Company prior to the final disposition of such claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding upon receipt by the Company of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Covered Person to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Covered Person is not entitled to be indemnified as authorized in Section 10.4.

10.6 Severability. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, if any portion of this Article X shall be invalidated on any ground by any court of competent jurisdiction, then the Company shall nevertheless indemnify each Covered Person and may indemnify each employee or agent of the Company as to costs, charges and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement with respect to any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including an action by or in the right of the Company, in each case to the fullest extent permitted by any applicable portion of this Article X that shall not have been invalidated.

10.7 Breach of Agreement. Nothing in this Article X shall relieve any party from any liability for the breach of any of the agreements set forth in this Agreement.

ARTICLE XI.

INVESTMENT REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

11.1 Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Members. Each Member represents and warrants to the Company and each other Member, as of the date that such Member becomes a party to this Agreement, that:

(a) Investment Intention and Restrictions on Disposition. Such Member is acquiring the Units solely for such Member's own account for investment and not with a view to resale in connection with any distribution thereof. Each Member agrees that such Member will not

Transfer any of the Units (or solicit any offers to buy, purchase or otherwise acquire or take a pledge of any of the Units) or any interest therein or any rights relating thereto or offer to Transfer, except in compliance with the Securities Act, all applicable state securities or "blue sky" laws and this Agreement. Any attempt by a Member to Transfer, or offer to Transfer, any Units or any interest therein or any rights relating thereto without complying with the provisions of this Agreement shall be void and of no effect.

(b) Securities Laws Matters. Such Member acknowledges receipt of advice from the Company that (i) the Units have not been registered under the Securities Act or qualified under any state securities or "blue sky" laws; (ii) it is not anticipated that there will be any public market for the Units; (iii) the Units must be held indefinitely and such Member must continue to bear the economic risk of the investment in the Units unless the Units are subsequently registered under the Securities Act and such state laws or an exemption from registration is available; (iv) Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act ("Rule 144") is not presently available with respect to sales of any securities of the Company and the Company has made no covenant to make Rule 144 available and Rule 144 is not anticipated to be available in the foreseeable future; (v) when and if the Units may be disposed of without registration in reliance upon Rule 144, such disposition can be made only in limited amounts and in accordance with the terms and conditions of Rule 144 and the provisions of this Agreement; (vi) if the exemption afforded by Rule 144 is not available, public sale of the Units without registration will require the availability of an exemption under the Securities Act; (vii) restrictive legends shall be placed on any certificate representing the Units; and (viii) a notation shall be made in the appropriate records of the Company indicating that the Units are subject to restrictions on transfer and, if the Company should in the future engage the services of a transfer agent, appropriate stop-transfer instructions will be issued to such transfer agent with respect to the Units.

(c) Ability to Bear Risk. (i) Such Member's financial situation is such that such Member can afford to bear the economic risk of holding the Units for an indefinite period and (ii) such Member can afford to suffer the complete loss of such Member's investment in the Units.

(d) Access to Information; Sophistication; Lack of Reliance. (i) Such Member is familiar with the business and financial condition, properties, operations and prospects of the Company and its Subsidiaries and such Member has been granted the opportunity to ask questions of, and receive answers from, representatives of the Company concerning the Company and its Subsidiaries and the terms and conditions of the purchase of the Units and to obtain any additional information that such Member deems necessary to evaluate whether or not to make an investment in the Company, (ii) such Member's knowledge and experience in financial and business matters are such that such Member is capable of evaluating the merits and risk of the investment in the Units and (iii) such Member has carefully reviewed the terms and provisions of this Agreement and has evaluated the restrictions and obligations contained herein. In furtherance of the foregoing, each Member represents and warrants that (x) no representation or warranty, express or implied, whether written or oral, as to the financial condition, results of operations, prospects, properties or business of the Company and its Subsidiaries, or as to the desirability or value of an investment in the Company, has been made to such Member by or on behalf of the Company; (y) such Member has relied upon such Member's own independent appraisal and investigation, and the advice of such Member's own counsel, tax advisors and other advisors, regarding the risks of an investment in the Company and its Subsidiaries and (z) such Member will continue to bear sole responsibility for making its own independent evaluation and monitoring of the risks of its investment in the Company and its Subsidiaries. For the avoidance of doubt, for purposes of this Section 11.1(d), the Company and its Subsidiaries includes the businesses contributed to, or acquired by, the Company on the Effective Date.

(e) Accredited Investor. Except to the extent set forth otherwise in a Management Holder's Management Subscription Agreement, such Member is an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act and, in connection with the execution of this Agreement, agrees to deliver such certificates to that effect as the Board may request.

(f) Due Organization; Power and Authority. Such Member has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by such Member and constitutes a valid and binding obligation of such Member enforceable against such Member in accordance with its terms, except to the extent that the enforcement thereof may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar Laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and general equitable principles, regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding at law or in equity. If such Member is a trust, no consent of any beneficiary is required for the foregoing.

(g) No Violations. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Member, the performance of its obligations hereunder, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, will not violate, conflict with or result in a breach, or constitute a default (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) under any provision of its charter, bylaws or other similar organizational documents (if and as applicable) or any agreement or other instrument to which it is a party. No consent, approval, authorization, order, filing, registration or qualification of or with any court, governmental authority or third person is required to be obtained by such Member in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the performance of such Member's obligations hereunder.

ARTICLE XII.

BOOKS AND RECORDS; TAX MATTERS

12.1 Access to Books and Records. At all times during the continuance of the Company, the Company shall maintain, at its principal place of business, separate books of account for the Company that shall show a true and accurate record of all costs and expenses incurred, all charges made, all credits made and received and all income derived in connection with the operation of the Company's business in accordance with GAAP, except to the extent otherwise set forth in this Agreement. Such books of account, together with a copy of this Agreement and the Certificate, shall at all times be maintained at the principal place of business of the Company and shall be open to inspection and examination at reasonable times for any purpose by the CD&R Holders and their duly authorized representatives. Subject to the provisions of Section 9.6, the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries, officers, Directors, employees, auditors and other agents to, (x) afford the officers, employees, auditors and other agents of the CD&R Holders during normal business hours and upon reasonable notice reasonable access at all reasonable times to its officers, employees, auditors, legal counsel, properties, offices, plants and other facilities and (y) afford such Person the opportunity to discuss the affairs, finances and accounts of the Company and its Subsidiaries with their respective officers from time to time as such Person may reasonably request. Except as set forth in Section 12.2, each Member, other than the CD&R Holders, expressly waives any access rights or other rights to receive or review any records or information of the Company and its Subsidiaries, including any information regarding the status of the business or its financial condition, whether or not such rights may be provided under the Act (including under § 18-305).

12.2 Information Rights.[3]

(a) CD&R Holders. The Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered the following information to the CD&R Holders:

respective reporting, regulatory, or other legal requirements and as may from time to time be reasonably requested by any such Person.

(b) Other Members. Prior to an IPO, for so long as any Common Units or Preferred Units remain outstanding, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered to each Common Unit Holder and each Preferred Unit Holder (unless such holder has given notice to the Company that it does not require the provision or delivery of such information (which notice may be revoked at any time)), (i) promptly following delivery thereof to the administrative agent under the New Term Loan Facility, annual and quarterly financial statements, reports and other information referred to in Section 7.1 and Section 7.2 of the New Term Loan Facility as in effect on the Effective Date; provided, that, if the administrative agent under the New Term Loan Facility (or such other party with such authority under the New Term Loan Facility) grants an extension for any such deadline, then no later than such extended deadline, and (ii) at any time when the New Term Loan Facility as in effect on the Effective Date is not then in effect, promptly following the date on which delivery thereof to the administrative agent would have been required to be delivered under the New Term Loan Facility as in effect on the Effective Date, the annual and quarterly financial statements, reports and other information that were referred to in Section 7.1 and Section 7.2, as applicable, in such New Term Loan Facility. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the requirements set forth in Section 7.1 of the New Term Loan Facility that the financial statements delivered pursuant to Section 7.1 of the New Term Loan Facility be reported on without a "going concern" or like qualification or exception, or qualification arising out of the scope of the audit shall not be required to satisfy the Company's obligations under this Section 12.2(b).

(c) Delivery of Information. The documents and information required by Section12.2(b) may be delivered electronically on a website (which may be nonpublic, require a confidentiality acknowledgement and may be maintained by the Company or a third party) to which access will be given to Common Unit Holders, Preferred Unit Holder and bona fide prospective investors in the Units of the Company (which prospective investors shall be limited to "qualified institutional buyers" within the meaning of Rule 144A of the Securities Act or non-U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act) that certify their status as such to the reasonable satisfaction of the Company), and securities analysts (to the extent providing analysis of an investment in the Units) and market making financial institutions that are reasonably satisfactory to the Company who agree to treat such information and reports as confidential; provided that the Company may deny access to any competitively-sensitive information and reports otherwise to be provided pursuant to Section12.2(b) to any Common Unit Holder, Preferred Unit Holder, bona fide prospective investor of the Units of the Company, security analyst or market maker that is a Competitor of the Company and its Subsidiaries to the extent that the Company determines in good faith that the provision of such information and reports to such Person would be competitively harmful to the Company and its Subsidiaries. The Company may condition the delivery of any such reports to Common Unit Holders, Preferred Unit Holders, prospective investors in the Units of the Company and securities analysts and market making financial institutions on the agreement of such Persons to (i) treat all such reports (and the information contained there) and information as confidential, (ii) not use such reports (and the information contained therein) and information for any purpose other than their investment or potential investment in the Preferred Units and (iii) not publicly disclose any such reports (and the information contained therein) and information.

(d) KYC Information. Reasonably promptly following any request therefor, the Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to furnish to any Member readily available information and documentation reasonably requested by such Member for purposes of such Member's compliance with applicable "know your customer" and anti-money laundering rules and regulations, including the USA PATRIOT ACT of 2001 and 31 C.F.R. § 1010.230, and other due diligence reasonably required to satisfy regulatory requirements.

12.3 Filings of Returns and Other Writings. The Company shall cause the preparation and timely filing of all of the Company's tax returns and shall timely file all other writings required by any governmental authority having jurisdiction to require such filing. Each Member shall promptly upon request furnish to the Company any information that the Company may reasonably request in connection with filing the tax returns of the Company or any Subsidiary thereof. Upon the written request of any Member, the Company shall provide any additional information readily available and necessary for the preparation of any federal, state, local and foreign income, franchise or other tax returns which may need to be filed by such Member.

13.2 Interpretive Provisions.

(a) The meanings of defined terms are equally applicable to the singular and plural forms of the defined terms.

(b) The words "hereof", "herein", "hereunder" and similar words refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement; and any subsection and Section references are to this Agreement unless otherwise specified.

(c) The term "including" is not limiting and means "including without limitation."

(d) The titles, captions and headings of this Agreement and its Sections and subsections are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

(e) Whenever the context requires, any pronouns used herein shall include the corresponding masculine, feminine or neuter forms.

13.3 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the other Transaction Agreements, embody the complete agreement and understanding among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede and preempt any prior understandings, agreements or representations by or among the parties, written or oral, that may have related to the subject matter hereof in any way.

13.4 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. Signatures provided by facsimile or electronic transmission in "pdf" or equivalent format will be deemed to be original signatures.

13.5 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware applicable to contracts made and to be performed within the State of Delaware, without giving effect to conflicts of law rules that would require or permit the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.

13.6 Jurisdiction.

(a) Venue; Jurisdiction; Waiver. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably agrees that any legal action or proceeding in connection with or with respect to this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect of this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder brought by the other party hereto or its successors or assigns shall be brought and determined in any of the courts of the State of Delaware, or if it has or can acquire jurisdiction, in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably submits with regard to any such action or proceeding for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, to the personal jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts and agrees that it will not bring any action in connection with or relating to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement in any court other than the aforesaid courts. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, counterclaim or otherwise, in any action or proceeding in connection with or with respect to this Agreement, (i) any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts for any reason other than the failure to serve in accordance with this Section 13.6(a), (ii) any claim that it or its property is exempt or immune from jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment or otherwise) and (iii) to the fullest extent permitted by the applicable Law, any claim that (A) the venue of such suit, action or proceeding is improper or (B) this Agreement, or the subject matter hereof, may not be enforced in or by such courts.

(b) Service of Process. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably consents to the service of any summons and complaint and any other process in any other action in connection with or relating to this Agreement, on behalf of itself or its property, by the personal delivery of copies of such process to such party or by sending or delivering a copy of the process to the party to be served at the address and in the manner provided for the giving of notices in Section 13.1. Nothing in this Section 13.6 shall affect the right of any party hereto to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by Law.

13.7 Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of this Agreement or any transaction contemplated hereby. Each party (a) certifies and acknowledges that no representative, agent or attorney of any other party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such other party would not, in the event of litigation, seek to enforce the foregoing waiver and (b) acknowledges that it understands and has considered the implications of this waiver and makes this waiver voluntarily, and that it and the other parties have been induced to enter into the Agreement by, among other things, the mutual waivers and certifications in this Section 13.7.

13.8 Specific Performance. The parties agree that irreparable damage would occur for which money damages would not suffice in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached and that the parties would not have any adequate remedy at law. It is accordingly agreed that the non-breaching party shall be entitled to an injunction, temporary restraining order or other equitable relief in any court specified in Section 13.6(a) without the necessity of proving the inadequacy of money damages as a remedy and without the necessity of posting a bond, and the breaching party agrees that it will not oppose the granting of such equitable relief on the basis that (a) there is adequate remedy at law or (b) an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or in equity. The foregoing is in addition to any other remedy to which any party is entitled at law, in equity or otherwise with respect to this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Barclays shall have no right to enforce against any other Member any provision of this Agreement that requires a Member to vote for or against any matter or that restricts or conditions a Member's ability to transfer its Units or exercise its rights as a Member to the extent that Barclays' possession of such enforcement ability would result in Barclays controlling the other Member's Units under Section 15.6 Certain Calculations and Tests.

(a) In connection with any action being taken in connection with a Limited Condition Transaction, for purposes of determining compliance with any provision of this Schedule, including any provision which requires that no Trigger, Trigger Event, Mandatory Redemption Event or specified Trigger, Trigger Event or Mandatory Redemption Event, as applicable, has occurred, is continuing or would result from any such action, as applicable, such condition shall, at the option of the Company, be deemed satisfied, so long as no Trigger, Trigger Event, Mandatory Redemption Event or specified Trigger, Trigger Event or Mandatory Redemption Event, as applicable, exists on the date (i) a definitive agreement for such Limited Condition Transaction is entered into, (ii) in connection with an acquisition to which the United Kingdom City Code on Takeovers and Mergers (or any equivalent thereof under the laws, rules or regulations in any other applicable jurisdiction) applies, on which a "Rule 2.7 announcement" of a firm intention to make an offer in respect of a target of a Limited Condition Transaction is made (or the equivalent notice under such equivalent laws, rules or regulations in such other applicable jurisdiction) or (iii) notice of redemption, repurchase, defeasance, satisfaction and discharge or repayment of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Equity is given. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Company has exercised its option under the first sentence of this clause (a), and any Trigger, Trigger Event, Mandatory Redemption Event or specified Trigger, Trigger Event or Mandatory Redemption Event, as applicable, occurs following the date (A) a definitive agreement for the applicable Limited Condition Transaction was entered into, (B) in connection with an acquisition to which the United Kingdom City Code on Takeovers and Mergers (or any equivalent thereof under the laws, rules or regulations in any other applicable jurisdiction) applies, on which a "Rule 2.7 announcement" of a firm intention to make an offer in respect of a target of a Limited Condition Transaction is made (or the equivalent notice under such equivalent laws, rules or regulations in such other applicable jurisdiction) or (C) notice of redemption, repurchase, defeasance, satisfaction and discharge or repayment of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Equity is given and prior to the consummation of such Limited Condition Transaction, any such Trigger, Trigger Event, Mandatory Redemption Event or specified Trigger, Trigger Event or Mandatory Redemption Event, as applicable, shall be deemed to not have occurred or be continuing for purposes of determining whether any action being taken in connection with such Limited Condition Transaction is permitted hereunder.

(b) In connection with any action being taken in connection with a Limited Condition Transaction, for purposes of:

(i) determining compliance with any provision of this Schedule which requires the calculation of the Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio, the Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio or any other financial measure;

(ii) testing baskets set forth in this Schedule (including baskets measured as a percentage of Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA); or

(iii) any other determination as to whether any such Limited Condition Transaction and any related transactions (including any financing thereof) complies with the covenants or agreements contained in this Schedule;

in each case, at the option of the Company (the Company's election to exercise such option in connection with any Limited Condition Transaction, an "LCT Election"), the date of determination of whether any such action is permitted hereunder, shall be deemed to be the date (x) a definitive agreement for such Limited Condition Transaction is entered into, (y) in connection with an acquisition to which the United Kingdom City Code on Takeovers and Mergers (or any equivalent thereof under the laws, rules or regulations in any other applicable jurisdiction) applies, on which a "Rule 2.7 announcement" of a firm intention to make an offer in respect of a target of a Limited Condition Transaction is made (or the equivalent notice under such equivalent laws, rules or regulations in such other applicable jurisdiction) or (z) notice of redemption, repurchase, defeasance, satisfaction and discharge or repayment of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Equity is given, as applicable (the "LCT Test Date"), and if, after giving pro forma effect to the Limited Condition Transaction and the other transactions to be entered into in connection therewith (including any Incurrence or Discharge of Indebtedness and Liens and the use of proceeds thereof) as if they had occurred at the beginning of the most recent four consecutive Fiscal Quarters of the Company ending prior to the LCT Test Date for which consolidated financial statements of the Company (or, as applicable, OpCo Intermediate Holdings or any IPO Vehicle) are available, the Company could have taken such action on the relevant LCT Test Date in compliance with such ratio, basket or amount, such ratio, basket or amount shall be deemed to have been complied with; provided that (a) if financial statements for one or more subsequent Fiscal Quarters or Fiscal Years shall have been delivered pursuant to Section 12.2(b) of the Agreement, the Company may elect, in its sole discretion, to re-determine all such ratios, baskets or amounts on the basis of such financial statements, in which case, such date of redetermination shall thereafter be deemed to be the applicable LCT Test Date for purposes of such ratios, baskets or amounts; and (b) except as contemplated in the foregoing clause (a), compliance with such ratios, baskets or amounts (and any related requirements and conditions) shall not be determined or tested at any time after the applicable LCT Test Date for such Limited Condition Transaction and any actions or transactions related thereto (including any Incurrence or Discharge of Indebtedness and Liens and the use of proceeds thereof). For the avoidance of doubt, if the Company has made an LCT Election and any of the ratios, baskets or amounts for which compliance was determined or tested as of the LCT Test Date are exceeded as a result of fluctuations in any such ratio, basket or amount, including due to fluctuations in exchange rates or in Consolidated EBITDA of the Company or the Person subject to such Limited Condition Transaction or any applicable currency exchange rate, at or prior to the consummation of the relevant transaction or action, such ratios, baskets or amounts will not be deemed to have been exceeded as a result of such fluctuations. If the Company has made an LCT Election for any Limited Condition Transaction, then in connection with any subsequent calculation of any ratio, basket or amount with respect to the Incurrence or Discharge of Indebtedness, mergers, the conveyance, lease or other transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company on or following the relevant LCT Test Date and prior to the earlier of the date on which (1) such Limited Condition Transaction is consummated, (2) the definitive agreement for, or firm offer in respect of, such Limited Condition Transaction (if an acquisition or investment) is terminated or expires without consummation of such Limited Condition Transaction or (3) such notice of redemption, repurchase, defeasance, satisfaction and discharge or repayment of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Equity is revoked or expires without consummation, any such ratio, basket or amount shall be calculated on a pro forma basis assuming such Limited Condition Transaction and other transactions in connection therewith (including any Incurrence or Discharge of Indebtedness and Liens and the use of proceeds thereof) have been consummated.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, (i) in calculating any Incurrence Based Amounts (including any Financial Incurrence Tests), any amounts incurred or utilized, or transactions entered into or consummated, in reliance on a Fixed Amount (including under the Cash Capped Incremental Facility) in a concurrent transaction, a single transaction or a series of related transactions consummated substantially concurrently with the amount incurred or utilized, or transaction entered into or consummated, under the applicable Incurrence Based Amount, shall not be given effect in calculating the applicable Incurrence Based Amount (but giving pro forma effect to all applicable and related transactions (including the use of proceeds of all Indebtedness to be incurred and any repayments, repurchases and redemptions of Indebtedness, and the making of any Investment, other Restricted Payment and any Asset Disposition (or any disposition specifically excluded from the definition of "Asset Disposition")) and all other pro forma adjustments) and (ii) thereafter, incurrence of the portion of such action or transaction to be consummated in reliance on a Fixed Amount shall be given effect in calculating any applicable Incurrence Based Amounts. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, if the Company, at its option, has elected to Incur Indebtedness, incur any Lien or make any Investment, in each case, on the date of determination (A) in part under a Financial Incurrence Test that requires compliance with a Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio and/or Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio, as applicable, and (B) in part under a separate Financial Incurrence Test (which, for the avoidance of doubt, may not be based on the same Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio and/or Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio, as applicable, as the Financial Incurrence Test described in clause (A) above) that requires compliance with a Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio and/or Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio, as applicable, any such Indebtedness Incurred, Lien incurred or Investment made in reliance on the Financial Incurrence Test described in clause (B) above, shall be disregarded for purposes of determining compliance with the Financial Incurrence Test described in clause (A) above. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, if any financial ratios or tests (including, without limitation, any Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio and Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio tests) which require compliance in connection with the Incurrence of any Indebtedness, incurrence of any Lien or the making of any Investment ("Financial Incurrence Tests") would be satisfied in any subsequent Fiscal Quarter following the utilization of either (x) fixed baskets, exceptions or thresholds (including baskets measured as a percentage of Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA) that do not require compliance with a financial ratio or test ("Fixed Amounts") or (y) baskets, exceptions and thresholds that require compliance with a financial ratio or test (including, without limitation, any Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio and Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio tests) (any such amounts, "Incurrence Based Amounts"), then the reclassification of actions or transactions (or portions thereof), including the reclassification of utilization of any Fixed Amounts as incurred or utilized under any available Incurrence Based Amounts, shall be deemed to have automatically occurred even if not elected by the Company (unless the Company otherwise notifies the Holders).

15.7 Divisions. Any reference herein to (a) a transfer, assignment, sale, disposition or transfer, or similar term, shall be deemed to apply to a division of or by a limited liability company or a limited partnership, as applicable, or an allocation of assets to a series of a limited liability company or a limited partnership (collectively, a "Division"), as if it were a transfer, assignment, sale or transfer, or similar term, as applicable, to a separate Person, and (b) a merger, consolidation, amalgamation or consolidation, or similar term, shall be deemed to apply to the division of or by a limited liability company or a limited partnership, or an allocation of assets to a series of a limited liability company or a limited partnership, or the unwinding of such a division or allocation, as if it were a merger, consolidation, amalgamation or consolidation or similar term, as applicable, with a separate Person, and such new Person shall be deemed to have been organized on the first date of its existence by the holders of its Capital Stock at such time.

ARTICLE XVI.

DISTRIBUTIONS AND LIQUIDATION RIGHT

16.1 Distributions.

(a) Holders of the issued and outstanding Series A Preferred Units shall be entitled to receive, out of assets legally available for the payment of distributions, distributions on the terms described in this Section 3.01. From and after the date of issuance of each Series A Preferred Unit, cumulative distributions (the "Preferred Distributions") will accumulate on a daily basis in arrears during each Accrual Period at a rate per annum equal to the applicable Distribution Rate in effect from time to time on the Stated Value as of the first day of such Accrual Period, whether or not such distributions are declared by the Board of Directors, and, if declared, shall be due and payable in cash on the Preferred Distribution Payment Date with respect to such Accrual Period in accordance with this Section 3.01. On a Preferred Distribution Compounding Date related to an Accrual Period for which the Company does not for any reason pay in cash all Preferred Distributions that accumulated during such Accrual Period on Series A Preferred Units that remain outstanding, any such accumulated and unpaid Preferred Distributions on a Series A Preferred Unit (the "Accrued Distributions") will automatically and irrevocably compound on such Preferred Distribution Compounding Date (unless such distributions have been declared by the Board of Directors and paid on or prior to such date) and become part of the then-outstanding Compounded Distributions of such Series A Preferred Unit as of the applicable Preferred Distribution Compounding Date. The Company will have the option, in its sole discretion, to declare and pay Accrued Distributions in cash with respect to any Series A Preferred Unit only to the extent such Accrued Distributions have not compounded pursuant to this Section 3.01(a). Following the compounding of Preferred Distributions as provided for in this Section 3.01(a), any resulting Compounded Distributions may only be paid in cash in accordance with this Schedule as part of a redemption at the applicable Redemption Consideration. Preferred Distributions shall be computed on the basis of a three hundred and sixty (360)-day year of twelve (12) thirty (30)-day months and, for the period from and including the Effective Date to the first Preferred Distribution Compounding Date following the Effective Date, will be computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in such period divided by ninety (90). In addition to any Preferred Distributions to which Holders may be entitled, Holders shall be entitled to participate equally and ratably, to the extent of their Common Unit Equivalent Participation, with the Common Unit Holders in any distributions declared and paid to Common Unit Holders in accordance with the terms of the Agreement (the "Common Distributions"). Other than with respect to the Common Distributions, Holders shall not be entitled to participate in dividends or distributions of any nature paid on or in respect of the Common Units (except, if applicable, in respect of any Common Units owned by any such Holder).

(b) The Preferred Distributions and Common Distributions, to the extent declared and paid, shall be paid pro rata (based on the aggregate Liquidation Preference of Series A Preferred Units) to the Holders entitled thereto. The Preferred Distributions and Common Distributions shall be payable to the Holders as they appear on the Register at the close of business on the record date designated by the Board of Directors for the applicable distribution. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, any payment required to be made hereunder on any day that is not a Business Day shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day without interest or additional payment for such delay.

(c) Upon the occurrence of a Trigger Event, the Distribution Rate shall increase by two percent (2.00%) per annum from and including the date on which the Trigger Event shall occur and be continuing through but excluding the date on which such Trigger Event is no longer continuing (the "Trigger Rate Increase"); provided, however, that in no event shall the cumulative Trigger Rate Increase, which shall be equal to two percent (2.00%) per annum multiplied by the number of Trigger Events that are then continuing, exceed six percent (6.00%) per annum. For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall the Company be required to pay Preferred Distributions in cash upon a Trigger Event; provided that the foregoing shall not limit the Company's obligations pursuant to Section 4.02.

16.2 Liquidation Rights.

(a) In the event of any Liquidation, each Holder shall be entitled to receive liquidating distributions out of the assets of the Company legally available for distribution to its equityholders, after satisfaction of all liabilities and obligations to creditors of the Company, but before any payment or distribution of any assets of the Company is made or set apart for holders of any Junior Securities, including the Common Units, for such Holder's Series A Preferred Units in an amount equal to the aggregate Liquidation Preference (as calculated without accounting for clause (c) of the definition thereof) of such Series A Preferred Unit as of the date of the Liquidation (the "Preferred Liquidation Amount"). In addition, solely to the extent of the Common Unit Equivalent Participation, each Holder shall be entitled to participate equally and ratably with Common Unit Holders in any liquidating distributions that Common Unit Holders are entitled to receive (the "Common Liquidation Amount"). Other than the Preferred Liquidation Amount and the Common Liquidation Amount, a Holder shall not be entitled to any further payment with respect to its Series A Preferred Units upon a Liquidation.

(b) In the event that the assets of the Company available for distribution to Members upon a Liquidation shall be insufficient to pay in full the Preferred Liquidation Amount payable with respect to all outstanding Series A Preferred Units pursuant to Section 3.02(a), such assets, or the proceeds thereof, shall be distributed among the Holders ratably in proportion to the full respective liquidating distributions to which they would otherwise be respectively entitled upon such Liquidation.

(c) Neither the sale, conveyance, exchange or transfer (for cash, shares, securities or other consideration) of all or substantially all of the assets, capital or business of the Company (other than in connection with the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company) nor the merger, consolidation, share exchange, statutory exchange or any other business combination transaction of the Company into or with any other Person shall by itself be deemed to be a Liquidation for purposes of this Section 3.02.

ARTICLE XVII.

REDEMPTION

17.1 Optional Redemption.

(a) Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4.01(a), the Company shall have the right, at its option, at any time and from time to time after the Effective Date, to redeem, out of funds and Common Units legally available therefor, all or any portion of the Series A Preferred Units then-issued and outstanding at a redemption price per Series A Preferred Unit equal to the Redemption Consideration as of the date of such redemption. In the event the Company elects to exercise its right to require redemption under this Section 4.01(a), it shall do so by sending a written notice to each Holder (the "Redemption Notice") specifying (i) the date on which the redemption shall occur (the date on which any such optional redemption actually occurs, the "Optional Redemption Date"), which shall be a Business Day that is no earlier than ten (10) days from the date the Redemption Notice is sent and (ii) the aggregate number of Series A Preferred Units which are being redeemed pursuant to such redemption. Any such Redemption Notice may state that such notice is conditioned upon the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event specified therein, in which case such notice may be revoked or extended by the Company (by written notice on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied or waived. A Redemption Notice may provide that payment of the Cash Redemption Price and performance of the Company's obligations with respect to such redemption may be performed by another Person. If fewer than all of the Series A Preferred Units then-issued and outstanding are to be redeemed pursuant to this Section 4.01(a), then such redemption shall occur on a pro rata basis based on the aggregate Liquidation Preference of such Series A Preferred Units with respect to all Holders and such that the amount to be received for redeemed Series A Preferred Units by each Holder is proportional to the Liquidation Preference of the Series A Preferred Units held by each Holder relative to the aggregate Liquidation Preference of all Series A Preferred Units then-issued and outstanding.

(b) Redemption pursuant to Section 4.01(a) shall become effective on the Optional Redemption Date. On the Optional Redemption Date, (i) the Cash Redemption Price for each Series A Preferred Unit being redeemed shall be due and payable in cash to each record Holder for its Series A Preferred Units being redeemed and (ii) the Common Unit Consideration shall be issued to each record Holder for its Series A Preferred Units being redeemed. If a Redemption Notice has been delivered in accordance with Section 4.01(a) and if the Redemption Consideration necessary for redemption has been settled with, or made available to, the Holders of the Series A Preferred Units being redeemed, then from and after the applicable Optional Redemption Date, distributions will cease to accrue on such redeemed Series A Preferred Units, such redeemed Series A Preferred Units shall no longer be deemed outstanding and all rights of the Holders with respect to such redeemed Series A Preferred Units (including the Common Unit Equivalent Participation related thereto) will terminate.

17.2 Mandatory Redemption.

(a) Upon a Mandatory Redemption Event, the Company shall redeem, out of funds and Common Units legally available therefor subject to and in accordance with Section 4.02(c), all of the Series A Preferred Units then-issued and outstanding at a redemption price per Series A Preferred Unit equal to the Redemption Consideration as of the date of such redemption. The date on which a Mandatory Redemption shall occur is referred to as the "Mandatory Redemption Date".

(b) On the Mandatory Redemption Date, (i) the Cash Redemption Price for each Series A Preferred Unit being redeemed shall be due and payable in cash to each record Holder for its Series A Preferred Units being redeemed and (ii) the Common Unit Consideration shall be issued to each record Holder for its Series A Preferred Units being redeemed, provided, however, that for the purpose of this clause (ii), in case of Mandatory Redemption Event triggered as a result of a Change of Control, in lieu of receiving the Common Unit Consideration, the Holders shall be entitled to receive the same amounts and forms of consideration to which they would be entitled as holders of Common Units in such Change of Control transaction had they been issued the Common Unit Consideration immediately prior to the Change of Control. If a Mandatory Redemption Event has occurred and if the Redemption Consideration necessary for redemption has been settled with, or made available to, the Holders of the Series A Preferred Units being redeemed, then from and after the applicable Mandatory Redemption Date, distributions will cease to accrue on such redeemed Series A Preferred Units, such redeemed Series A Preferred Units shall no longer be deemed outstanding and all rights of the Holders with respect to such redeemed Series A Preferred Units (including the Common Unit Equivalent Participation related thereto) will terminate.

(c) If on the Mandatory Redemption Date, the Company, pursuant to applicable Law or the terms of any Debt Financing Documents or any documents governing the terms of any other Indebtedness of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or Senior Securities, in each case, not issued or incurred in violation of this Schedule (provided that such Debt Financing Documents, documents governing the terms of such other Indebtedness or Senior Securities have not been issued or incurred with the intent of frustrating the redemption rights of a Holder hereunder), shall not have funds or Common Units legally available to redeem, or shall otherwise be prohibited or restricted from redeeming, all outstanding Series A Preferred Units, those funds and Common Units that are legally available and not so restricted or prohibited shall be used to redeem the maximum possible number of such Series A Preferred Units. At any time and from time to time thereafter when additional funds and Common Units of the Company are legally available and not so restricted or prohibited for such purpose, such funds shall be used in their entirety to redeem the outstanding Series A Preferred Units that the Company failed to redeem on the Mandatory Redemption Date until the balance of such units has been redeemed. The Series A Preferred Units to be redeemed in accordance with this Section 4.02(c) shall be redeemed from all Holders on a pro rata basis based on the aggregate Liquidation Preference of such Series A Preferred Units.

(d) If the Company breaches its obligations under this Section 4.02, the Holder Majority shall have the right to appoint a Transaction Committee or the Board Appointees in the manner provided under Section 5.02(c) and such Transaction Committee or Board Appointees, as applicable, shall have the power and authority set forth in subclauses (i) through (iii) of Section 5.02(c) (subject to the terms of Exhibit A).

ARTICLE XVIII.

CERTAIN RIGHTS OF HOLDERS

18.1 Voting Rights.

(a) General. Except as otherwise expressly provided for in this Schedule and the Agreement or except as otherwise required under the Act, each Holder, in such holder's capacity as such, shall have no voting rights with respect to the Series A Preferred Units and shall not be entitled to vote on any matter; provided, however, that Holders shall be entitled to vote, to the extent of the Common Unit Equivalent Participation, in person or by proxy, at all meetings of Common Unit Holders (and written actions in lieu of meetings) or otherwise on all matters on which Common Unit Holders generally are entitled to vote, and the Holders (to the extent of Common Unit Equivalent Participation) and Common Unit Holders shall vote together as a single class on all matters submitted to a vote of Common Unit Holders. Other than as expressly set forth herein or as provided by unwaivable provisions of the Act, the Series A Preferred Units shall not have the right to vote as a separate class on any matter, irrespective of the provisions of the Act.

(b) Class Voting. So long as any Series A Preferred Units are outstanding, in addition to the voting rights set forth in Section 5.01(a), the Company and its Subsidiaries (as applicable) may not:

(i) take any of the following actions without the prior affirmative vote or written consent of the Holder Majority (including any consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for, or purchase of, the Series A Preferred Units), voting as a separate class:

(a) amend or otherwise modify or waive any provision of this Schedule or amend, modify or waive the terms or the powers, preferences, rights or privileges of the Series A Preferred Units;

(b) amend or otherwise modify or waive Section 3.1(b)(ii), Section 7.1 (solely with respect to the transfer of Series A Preferred Units) and Section 12.2(b) (solely with respect to information rights of Series A Preferred Units) of the Agreement; or

(c) waive any Default or Trigger Event and its consequences hereunder;

(ii) take any of the following actions without the prior affirmative vote or written consent of a 95% Holder Majority (including any consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for, or purchase of, the Series A Preferred Units), voting as a separate class, to the extent such actions would be adverse to the Holders:

(a) amend or otherwise modify the definitions of "Distribution Rate", "Base Distribution Rate" or "Trigger Rate Increase";

(b) amend or otherwise modify Section 1.02 or the ranking of the Series A Preferred Units;

(c) amend or otherwise modify the definitions of "Initial Stated Value", "Stated Value", "Liquidation Preference", "Accrued Distributions", "Compounded Distributions", or "Redemption Consideration" or change the timing or method of payment with respect thereto;

(d) amend or otherwise modify or waive the timing of payment or method of calculation of Preferred Distributions (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the definition of "Preferred Distribution Payment Date". "Preferred Distribution Compounding Date" and "Accrual Period");

(e) amend or otherwise modify any provision of Section 5.1 of the Agreement or Section 3.01 in any adverse manner that would alter terms or manner of payments of Preferred Distributions and Common Distributions required thereby;

(f) amend or otherwise modify or waive the obligation to mandatorily redeem the Series A Preferred Units pursuant to Section 4.02 or the pro rata treatment provisions in connection with such redemption;

(g) amend or otherwise modify or waive this Section 5.01(b) or the definitions of "Holder Majority" or "95% Holder Majority"; or

(h) amend or otherwise modify any provision of Section 5.02(c) that would alter, restrict, impair or contravene the rights of the Holders to appoint the Transaction Committee or the Board Appointees pursuant to such provisions;

provided that, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no amendment, modification or waiver of this Schedule may be effected in a manner that by its terms would disproportionately and adversely impact any particular Holder relative to the other Holders without the consent of such particular Holder (it being understood that any amendment, modification or waiver of this proviso shall require the consent of each Holder, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Holder that is a CD&R Holder).

(c) Except as otherwise set forth herein, any of the rights, powers, preferences and other terms of the Series A Preferred Units set forth herein may be waived on behalf of all holders of Series A Preferred Units by the affirmative written consent (including any consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for, or purchase of, the Series A Preferred Units) or vote of the Holder Majority.

(d) The consent or votes required in Section 5.01(b) shall be in addition to any approval of Members of the Company which may be required by applicable Law or pursuant to any provision of the Agreement. Each Holder will have one vote per Series A Preferred Unit on any matter on which Holders are entitled to vote separately as a class, whether at a meeting or by written consent.

Until an amendment, supplement or waiver becomes effective, a consent to it by a Holder is a continuing consent by the Holder and every subsequent Holder of a Series A Preferred Unit or portion of a Series A Preferred Unit that evidences the same unit as the consenting Holder's Series A Preferred Units, even if notation of the consent is not made. However, any such Holder or subsequent Holder may revoke the consent as to its Series A Preferred Unit if the Company and the Holders receive written notice of revocation before the date the consent becomes effective. An amendment, supplement or waiver becomes effective in accordance with its terms and thereafter binds every Holder.

18.2 Sale / Qualified IPO Demand Right.

(a) General. On or after November 11, 2033, the Holder Majority may deliver a written notice (such notice, the "Repurchase Notice") to the Company requesting the Company to redeem in full the then-issued and outstanding Series A Preferred Units for the Redemption Consideration. If the Company fails to redeem the Series A Preferred Units in full within 60 days of the receipt of such Repurchase Notice, the Holder Majority (the Holder Majority delivering such written notice, constituting the "Initiating Holders") shall have the right to deliver a written notice (such notice, the "Demand Notice") to the Company to initiate a process (the "Process") to consummate, at the Company's option, a Qualified IPO or a Sale Transaction that would result in the full redemption of the then-issued and outstanding Series A Preferred Units for the Redemption Consideration. As soon as reasonably practicable upon receipt of a Demand Notice, the Board of Directors shall cause the Company to initiate the Process in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 5.02. The Board of Directors shall conduct the Process with a view toward effectuating a Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction that maximizes the Fair Market Value of the Company and its Subsidiaries; provided that the decision of whether to pursue and effect a Qualified IPO or pursue and effect a Sale Transaction shall be in the Company's sole discretion. The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to consummate and make effective any Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction within twelve (12) months following delivery of a Demand Notice with respect thereto (subject to extension to the extent necessary to obtain any regulatory approvals required by the binding, definitive documentation entered into prior to the expiration of such initial twelve (12)-month period to give effect to such Sale Transaction). Once a Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction has been consummated, the Company shall cause any Subsidiary that receives any net cash proceeds in connection with such Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction to distribute such net cash proceeds to the Company, to the extent available for distribution, unless such distribution is prohibited by applicable Law or any Debt Financing Documents. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company may discontinue and abandon the Process at any time prior to the consummation of a Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction, if the Company redeems in full the then-issued and outstanding Series A Preferred Units for the Redemption Consideration.

(b) Transaction Process. The Board of Directors shall control and make all decisions regarding the Process, including, as applicable, the selection of a buyer, the timing and hiring of advisors and investment banks, the pricing, terms and conditions of the transaction and the drafting of documentation. In connection with such decisions, the Members shall cooperate with the Company and the Board of Directors, and the Company and the Members will use reasonable best efforts to effect a Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction (whether by merger, sale of assets or equity interests in any Group Member or otherwise) required by Section 5.02(a), including by taking or causing to be taken all such reasonable actions as may be reasonably necessary or reasonably desirable in order to approve and expeditiously consummate such Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction and:

(i) in the case of a Qualified IPO, (I) passing any resolutions and/or class consents necessary to: (A) transfer Series A Preferred Units to a New Holding Issuer, (B) reorganizing or restructuring the relevant Group Member's equity capital or other securities, provided that no Holder shall be obligated to exercise its voting rights to effect any such reorganization that would dilute its then-proportionate economic entitlement as compared with any other Holder, (C) adopt such new constitutional documents of the relevant Group Members or the New Holding Issuer, (D) re-register the relevant Group Members or the New Holding Issuer as a public limited company or other corporate form which is lawfully capable of issuing shares to the public and/or such other securities as are to be listed or traded and (E) make all applications to a relevant exchange necessary for the purposes of effecting the Qualified IPO, (II) voting, if such a vote is required by the Agreement or otherwise, all of their Units entitled to vote on such Qualified IPO in favor of such Qualified IPO at any meeting of the Members called to vote on or approve such Qualified IPO and/or to consent in writing to such Qualified IPO, (III) using their reasonable best efforts to cause their representatives on the Board of Directors to vote in favor of such Qualified IPO (whether at any meeting of the Board of Directors called to vote on or approve such Qualified IPO or through a consent in writing) and raise no objection thereto, (IV) in the case of the Company, preparing a data room, registration statement, one or more prospectus or offering documents, responding to due diligence inquiries, and providing underwriters and their advisors with access to the Company's books and records and personnel, (V) executing, acknowledging and delivering agreements (including any underwriting or similar agreement), consents, assignments, waivers (including a waiver of any dissenters' rights, appraisal rights or similar rights to the fullest extent under the Law of the State of Delaware or otherwise related to such Qualified IPO and confirmation of such waiver upon request of the Company) and other documents or instruments, provided that no Member shall be required to execute any underwriting agreement (or similar agreement imposing seller representations, covenants or indemnities) except to the extent such Member is selling or otherwise transferring any of its equity interests in connection with such Qualified IPO, (VI) if the Board of Directors or the Company determines that it is necessary or advisable to accept restrictions on the transfer of some or all of the equity interests of the Members which are subject to a Qualified IPO, then for any period after such Qualified IPO, each Member shall agree to accept those restrictions in respect of the same proportion of its equity interests if and to the extent determined by the Board of Directors or the Company, in consultation with the investment bank advising the Company on the proposed Qualified IPO, to be necessary or advisable to ensure the success and maximize the value of such Qualified IPO, (VII) furnishing such information and copies of documents as may be reasonably requested by the Company and (VIII) taking such other actions as may be reasonably requested by the Company in connection with the Qualified IPO; and

(ii) in the case of a Sale Transaction, to the extent reasonably requested by the Board of Directors and customary for a sale transaction process, (I) reviewing and considering in good faith any offers received from potential acquirors, responding reasonably expeditiously and in good faith to any bona fide offers received from potential acquirors and together with its advisors, negotiating reasonably, reasonably expeditiously and in good faith, the terms of any potential sale of the Company, (II) in the case of the Company, preparing a data room and a confidential information memorandum, preparing and attending management presentations, responding to due diligence inquiries, providing potential acquirors and their advisors with reasonable and customary access to the Company's books and records and personnel and requesting receipt of indications of interest from potential acquirors, (III) executing, acknowledging and delivering agreements (including any equity purchase agreement or similar agreement or any customary voting agreement to vote in favor of, support and not object to such Sale Transaction), consents, assignments, waivers (including a waiver of any dissenters' rights, appraisal rights or similar rights to the fullest extent under the Law of the State of Delaware or otherwise related to such Sale Transaction and confirmation of such waiver upon request of the Company) and other documents or instruments reasonably required or reasonably desirable to effectuate a Sale Transaction, (IV) furnishing such information and copies of documents, and filing such applications, reports, returns, filings and other documents or instruments with governmental authorities, as may be reasonably requested by the Company, (V) voting, if such a vote is required by the Agreement or otherwise, all of their Units entitled to vote on such Sale Transaction in favor of such Sale Transaction at any meeting of the Members called to vote on or approve such Sale Transaction and/or to consent in writing to such Sale Transaction, (VI) exercising any drag-along rights, proxies and other rights to compel votes to effect such Sale Transaction and (VII) taking such other actions as may be reasonably requested by the Company in connection with the Sale Transaction;

provided, however, that (I) a Member shall be obligated to become liable in respect of any representations, warranties, covenants, indemnities or otherwise to such third party solely to the extent provided in clause (II) below, (II) in connection with any such Sale Transaction, and agreements related thereto that any Member is requested to execute and deliver, a Member may be required to make individual representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements as to the unencumbered title to its Series A Preferred Units and any of its other equity in the Company and the power, authority and legal right to transfer such Series A Preferred Units or such other equity, in each case, on a several and not joint basis and be severally and not jointly liable in respect of such representations, warranties and covenants; provided, however, that (x) the aggregate amount of liability in respect of such individual representations and warranties with respect to the Member and the Company shall not exceed the proceeds actually received by such Holder and the Company in connection with such Sale Transaction or Qualified IPO; (y) in no event shall any Member or the Company or any of their Affiliates be required to enter into a non-compete, non-solicit, non-hire or similar restrictive agreement; and (z) the Members may be subject to reduction of proceeds (whether by purchase price adjustment, indemnity payments or otherwise) in respect of representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in respect of the Company or its Subsidiaries in a manner that allocates any such reduction, directly or indirectly, to the Members based on the amount by which each such Member's share of the aggregate proceeds otherwise payable with respect to its Units would have been reduced had the aggregate proceeds available for distribution to all such Members been reduced by the aggregate amount of such adjustment, indemnity payment or other liability.

(c) Demand Failure. In the event of Demand Failure, unless all of the Series A Preferred Units have been redeemed, then, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Initiating Holders shall have the right to appoint, at their election, (x) all members of a committee of the Board of Directors (a "Transaction Committee") except one (1) member which the CD&R Holders shall be entitled to appoint, or (y) a majority of the members of the Board of Directors (such appointed members, the "Board Appointees" and the appointment of such members of the Board of Directors pursuant to this clause (y), a "Board Step-In"); provided that the CD&R Holders shall be entitled to appoint the remaining members of the Board of Directors. For the avoidance of doubt, the CD&R Holders' representation on the Transaction Committee or the Board of Directors shall not in any way impede, limit or prevent the Transaction Committee or the Board of Directors as controlled by the Board Appointees pursuant to a Board Step-In from exercising its rights or carrying out its obligations as provided in this Section 5.02(c). The Transaction Committee and members of the Board of Directors shall benefit from a full waiver of any fiduciary duties with respect to the Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction, as applicable, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Law. In the event the Initiating Holders elect to appoint members of a Transaction Committee, the powers delegated to such committee shall be consistent with those listed in sub-clauses (i) through (iii) below, and all other approval rights and powers shall otherwise remain vested in the Board of Directors. Subject to Section 5.02(f), the Transaction Committee or the Board Appointees, as applicable, will have full and exclusive authority, subject to the terms of Exhibit A, to (i) control a Process (a "Controlled Process"), (ii) approve (on behalf of the Board of Directors and any required Members of the Company) and cause to be consummated a Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction, as applicable, resulting from the Controlled Process and (iii) make any determination with respect to the capital structure of the Company or any Subsidiary thereof (including any determination whether to pay the Preferred Distributions in-kind or in cash) (for the avoidance of doubt, excluding any amendment, waiver or change to the capital structure or other determination that (A) materially and disproportionately impacts a holder of a class of securities of the Company as compared to any other holder of the same class (in its capacity as a holder of such class) or (B) is made in bad faith).

(d) If the Sale Transaction pursuant to this Section 5.02 is structured as a sale of assets, the Company will be dissolved, and after satisfaction of all liabilities and obligations to creditors of the Company, but before any payment or distribution of any assets of the Company is made or set apart for holders of any Junior Securities, including the Common Units, the Holders shall be entitled to receive, and the Company shall pay to such Holders, the remainder of the net sale proceeds among the Holders up to their Redemption Consideration in accordance with this Schedule and the Agreement in effect at such time.

(e) Notwithstanding anything contained herein:

(i) prior to soliciting offers or indications of interest from any third parties with respect to any Sale Transaction or any other transaction involving the redemption of the Series A Preferred Units (a "Proposed Transaction") to which a Controlled Process applies, the Company shall deliver written notice (the "ROFO Notice") to the CD&R Holders of its desire to enter into a Proposed Transaction and shall provide the CD&R Holders with an opportunity to make an offer to enter into a Proposed Transaction. The CD&R Holders shall have a period of twenty (20) Business Days from receipt of the ROFO Notice (the "Offer Period") to deliver to the Company a binding irrevocable written offer to enter into a Proposed Transaction, which offer shall specify in reasonable detail the material terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction, including, as applicable, the purchase price (which purchase price shall be presented without including the value of any other transaction or service) or redemption amount and timing of such payments (the "ROFO Offer"). If the CD&R Holders deliver a ROFO Offer within the Offer Period, the Company shall have a period of twenty (20) days (the "Acceptance Period") to accept in writing the ROFO Offer (the "ROFO Acceptance Notice"). If the Company delivers a ROFO Acceptance Notice within the Acceptance Period, the Company and the CD&R Holders shall negotiate in good faith for a period of thirty (30) Business Days (the "Negotiation Period") to finalize definitive documentation for the Proposed Transaction on terms substantially consistent with those set forth in the ROFO Offer. If (A) the Company does not deliver a ROFO Acceptance Notice, or affirmatively declines such ROFO Offer, within the Acceptance Period, or (B) the Company and the CD&R Holders do not execute definitive documentation for the Proposed Transaction within the Negotiation Period, then the Company shall be free, for a period of 270 days following the expiration of the Acceptance Period or Negotiation Period (as applicable), to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a Proposed Transaction (subject to extension to the extent necessary to obtain any regulatory approvals required by the binding, definitive documentation entered into prior to the expiration of the initial 270-day period to give effect to such Proposed Transaction) with a third party on pricing terms that are not more favorable to such third party in any respect (and at a valuation that is not less than the value proposed in the ROFO Offer), and on other terms and conditions that are not materially more favorable to such third party, in the aggregate, than those set forth in the ROFO Offer. If the Company fails to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a Proposed Transaction on terms meeting the requirements in the preceding sentence within 270 days of the expiration of the Acceptance Period or Negotiation Period (as applicable) (subject to extension to the extent necessary to obtain any regulatory approvals required by the binding, definitive documentation entered into prior to the expiration of the initial 180-day period to give effect to such Proposed Transaction), the Company shall be required to comply with the terms of this clause (e) with respect to any Proposed Transaction before consummating a Proposed Transaction with a third party.

(ii) Following the election of a Transaction Committee or Board Appointees pursuant to the Board Step-In, until such time thereafter that the Series A Preferred Units are no longer outstanding (A) the CD&R Holders, solely in their capacity as of holders of Series A Preferred Units, shall be entitled to (x) preemptive rights as set forth in Section 7.4 of the Agreement and (y) preemptive rights for all issuances of New Securities (as defined in the Agreement) and Indebtedness by the Company or any Subsidiary to any Person (other than the Company or any Subsidiary), utilizing the timing and mechanics set forth in Section 7.4 of the Agreement but with the CD&R Holders as the sole Persons with such preemptive rights and (B) the CD&R Holders shall be entitled to the rights set forth on Exhibit A hereto.

(iii) For the avoidance of doubt, subject to compliance with the express terms of this clause (e), nothing in this clause (e) shall give the CD&R Holders a consent right with respect to, or prevent the Transaction Committee or the Board Appointees from taking, any of the actions described in sub-clauses (i) through (iii) of Section 5.02(c) (it being understood that any such actions shall be subject to the terms set forth on Exhibit A hereto in all respects).

(f) Solely in the case of a Controlled Process, the Initiating Holders may, at their discretion (but subject to the rest of this Section 5.02), decide whether or not to pursue, consummate, postpone or abandon any proposed Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction. Neither the Company nor any Holder, nor any of their respective Affiliates, to the fullest extent permitted by Law, shall have any liability to any other Holder or any other Person arising from, relating to or in connection with the pursuit, consummation, postponement, abandonment or terms and conditions of any proposed Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction except to the extent of a failure to comply with the provisions of this Section 5.02.

(g) The closing of a Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction to which this Section 5.02 applies shall take place at such time and place as the Board of Directors, or, in the case of a Controlled Process, the Transaction Committee or the Board Appointees, as applicable, shall specify by notice to each Holder.

(h) Upon the consummation of any Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction, the net cash proceeds of such transaction will be used in accordance with Article IV of this Schedule to the extent the Holders do not receive directly such proceeds. For the avoidance of doubt, from and after the time there are no longer any Series A Preferred Units outstanding, (i) any Board Appointees will automatically and immediately be deemed to resign from the Board and (ii) any Transaction Committee then in existence shall automatically and immediately be dissolved and cease to have any power or authority, and any delegated powers theretofore granted to such Transaction Committee shall automatically revert to the Board of Directors.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 5.02 or in the Agreement, unless the Holder Majority otherwise provides its prior written consent, the Company will not, after receipt of a Demand Notice, consummate any Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction unless the net proceeds to be received by the Company or the Holders, as applicable, in such transaction are sufficient to permit the Company to pay in full, and are used to pay in full, or the Holders otherwise receive pursuant to such transaction, the Redemption Consideration of each outstanding Series A Preferred Unit as of such date.

(j) During the continuance of a Board Step-In pursuant to Section 5.02(c), the provisions set forth on Exhibit A will apply (and the terms and provisions thereof shall not be amended, changed, waived or altered (regardless of whether such action adversely affects the rights of any CD&R Holder), without the prior written consent of each CD&R Holder). Notwithstanding the foregoing and for the avoidance of doubt, subject to compliance with the express terms thereof, the rights of the CD&R Holders pursuant to Exhibit A shall not impair or otherwise be deemed to limit the rights of the holders of the Common Units set forth in the Agreement.

ARTICLE XIX.

(d) For purposes of determining compliance with, and the outstanding principal amount of any particular Indebtedness Incurred pursuant to and in compliance with, this Section 6.01, (i) any other obligation of the obligor on such Indebtedness (or of any other Person who could have Incurred such Indebtedness under this Section 6.01) arising under any Guarantee, Lien or letter of credit, bankers' acceptance or other similar instrument or obligation supporting such Indebtedness shall be disregarded to the extent that such Guarantee, Lien or letter of credit, bankers' acceptance or other similar instrument or obligation secures the principal amount of such Indebtedness; (ii) in the event that Indebtedness Incurred pursuant to Section 6.01(c) meets the criteria of more than one of the types of Indebtedness described in Section 6.01(c), the Company, in its sole discretion, shall classify such item of Indebtedness and may include the amount and type of such Indebtedness in one or more of the clauses or subclauses of Section 6.01(c) (including in part under one such clause or subclause and in part under another such clause or subclause); provided that (if the Company shall so determine) any Indebtedness Incurred pursuant to (x) Section 6.01(c)(iv), (c)(viii)(H) or (c)(xii) shall cease to be deemed Incurred or outstanding for purposes of such clause or subclause but shall be deemed Incurred for the purposes of Section 6.01(c)(xvii), as applicable, from and after the first date on which any Restricted Subsidiary could have Incurred such Indebtedness under Section 6.01(c)(xvii), as applicable, without reliance on such clause or subclause and (y) the Cash Capped Incremental Facility shall cease to be deemed Incurred or outstanding for purposes of such definition but shall be deemed Incurred for the purposes of the Ratio Incremental Facility from and after the first date on which the Company could have Incurred such Indebtedness under the Ratio Incremental Facility without reliance on such provision; (iii) [reserved]; (iv) the amount of Indebtedness issued at a price that is less than the principal amount thereof shall be equal to the amount of the liability in respect thereof determined in accordance with GAAP; (v) the principal amount of Indebtedness outstanding under any clause or subclause of this Section 6.01, including for purposes of any determination of the "Maximum Incremental Facilities Amount", shall be determined after giving effect to the application of proceeds of any such Indebtedness to refinance any such other Indebtedness; (vi) if any commitments in respect of revolving or deferred draw Indebtedness are established in reliance on any provision of Section 6.01(c) measured by reference to Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (or a percentage thereof), at the Company's option in the case of a Limited Condition Transaction, on the date of the initial borrowing of such Indebtedness or entry into the definitive agreement providing for the commitment to fund such Indebtedness, after giving pro forma effect to the Incurrence of the entire committed amount of such Indebtedness, such amount may thereafter be borrowed and reborrowed, in whole or in part, from time to time, irrespective of whether or not such Incurrence would cause such Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (or a percentage thereof) to be exceeded; (vii) if any Indebtedness is Incurred to refinance Indebtedness initially Incurred

(or, to refinance Indebtedness Incurred to refinance Indebtedness initially Incurred) in reliance on any provision of Section 6.01(c) measured by reference to Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (or a percentage thereof) at the time of Incurrence and such refinancing would cause such Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (or a percentage thereof) to be exceeded if calculated based on the Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (or a percentage thereof) on the date of such refinancing, (1) such Indebtedness shall be deemed to be Incurred in reliance on the provision of Section 6.01(c) under which it was initially Incurred and (2) such Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (or a percentage thereof) shall not be deemed to be exceeded (and such refinancing Indebtedness shall be deemed permitted) so long as the outstanding or committed principal amount of such refinancing Indebtedness does not exceed an amount equal to the outstanding or committed principal amount of such Indebtedness being refinanced, plus the reasonable (as determined by the Company in good faith, which determination shall be conclusive) aggregate amount of fees, underwriting discounts, premiums and other costs and expenses (including accrued and unpaid interest) Incurred or payable in connection with such refinancing; and (viii) if any Indebtedness is Incurred to refinance Indebtedness (or unutilized commitments in respect of Indebtedness) initially Incurred (or established) (or, to refinance Indebtedness Incurred (or commitments established) to refinance Indebtedness initially Incurred (or commitments initially established)) in reliance on any provision of Section 6.01(c) measured by a dollar amount, (1) such Indebtedness shall be deemed to be Incurred in reliance on the provision of Section 6.01(c) under which it was initially Incurred (or established) and (2) such dollar amount shall not be deemed to be exceeded (and such refinancing Indebtedness shall be deemed permitted) to the extent the outstanding or committed principal amount of such refinancing Indebtedness does not exceed an amount equal to the outstanding or committed principal amount of such Indebtedness being refinanced, plus the aggregate amount of reasonable (as determined by the Company in good faith, which determination shall be conclusive) fees, underwriting discounts, premiums and other costs and expenses (including accrued and unpaid interest) Incurred or payable in connection with such refinancing. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Indebtedness Incurred by OpCo Intermediate Holdings or its Restricted Subsidiaries (as applicable) on the Effective Date under the Senior Secured Credit Agreement, the Senior ABL Agreement or the Senior Secured Notes Indenture shall be classified as Incurred under the respective baskets in Section 6.01(c)(i)(I) and Section 6.01(c)(i)(II) expressly permitting the Incurrence of such Indebtedness and may not later be reclassified.

(e) For purposes of determining compliance with any provision of Section 6.01(c) measured by a dollar amount or by reference to Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (or a percentage thereof), in each case, for the Incurrence of Indebtedness or Liens securing Indebtedness denominated in a foreign currency, the dollar equivalent principal amount of such Indebtedness Incurred pursuant thereto shall be calculated based on the relevant currency exchange rate in effect, at the Company's option, on the date that such Indebtedness was Incurred, allocated or priced, as applicable, in the case of term Indebtedness, or first committed, in the case of revolving or deferred draw Indebtedness; provided that (x) the dollar equivalent principal amount of any such Indebtedness outstanding on the Effective Date shall be calculated based on the relevant currency exchange rate in effect on the Effective Date, (y) if such Indebtedness is Incurred to refinance other Indebtedness denominated in a foreign currency (or in a different currency from such Indebtedness so being Incurred), and such refinancing would cause the applicable provision of paragraph (c) above measured by a dollar amount or by reference to Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (or a percentage thereof), as applicable, to be exceeded if calculated at the relevant currency exchange rate in effect on the date of such refinancing, such provision of Section 6.01(c) measured by a dollar amount or by reference to Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (or a percentage thereof), as applicable, shall be deemed not to have been exceeded so long as the principal amount of such refinancing Indebtedness does not exceed (i) the outstanding or committed principal amount (whichever is higher) of such Indebtedness being refinanced plus (ii) the aggregate amount of fees, underwriting discounts, premiums and other costs and expenses (including accrued and unpaid interest) Incurred or payable in connection with such refinancing and (z) the dollar equivalent principal amount of Indebtedness denominated in a foreign currency and Incurred pursuant to the Senior Secured Credit Agreement, Senior ABL Facility or any Credit Facility shall be calculated based on the relevant currency exchange rate in effect on, at the Company's option, (A) the Effective Date, (B) any date on which any of the respective commitments under the applicable Senior Secured Credit Agreement, Senior ABL Facility or any Credit Facility shall be reallocated between or among facilities or subfacilities or thereunder, or on which such rate is otherwise calculated for any purpose thereunder, (C) the date of such Incurrence or (D) the date on which such Indebtedness is allocated or priced, as applicable. The principal amount of any Indebtedness Incurred to refinance other Indebtedness, if Incurred in a different currency from the Indebtedness being refinanced, shall be calculated based on the currency exchange rate applicable to the currencies in which such respective Indebtedness is denominated that is in effect on the date of such refinancing.

(f) The accrual of interest, the accretion of accreted value and the payment of interest and/or dividends on Indebtedness permitted pursuant to this Section 6.01 in the form of additional Indebtedness shall not be deemed to be an Incurrence of Indebtedness for purposes of this Section 6.01.

(g) For purposes of determining compliance with any provision of this Section 6.01 measured by a dollar amount or by reference to Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (or a percentage thereof) (including pursuant to the definition of "Maximum Incremental Facilities Amount") other than Section 6.01(c)(i)(II), in the event that on a pro forma basis after giving effect to a Refinancing the Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio of the Company as of the date of such Refinancing would be equal to or less than 6.50 to 1.00 (such Refinancing, a "Qualified Refinancing"), any prior incurrence under such basket shall cease to be deemed Incurred or outstanding for purposes of any other provision of this Section 6.01 on and as of the date of such Qualified Refinancing and shall be deemed to be Incurred and outstanding under Section 6.01(c)(iii) as if it were outstanding on the Effective Date and set forth on schedule 8.1 to the Senior Secured Credit Agreement.

19.2 Restricted Payments.

(a) The Company shall not, and shall not permit its Subsidiaries to, (i) declare or pay any dividend or make any distribution on or in respect of Common Units or Junior Securities of the Company (including any such payment in connection with any merger, amalgamation or consolidation to which the Company is a party) except (x) dividends or distributions, or purchases, redemptions, repurchases, defeasances or other acquisitions or retirements of Common Units or Junior Securities of the Company, in each case, payable solely in Common Units or Junior Securities (other than Disqualified Stock) and (y) dividends or distributions payable to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (and, in the case of any such Subsidiary making such dividend or distribution, to other holders of Common Units or Junior Securities on no more than a pro rata basis, measured by value) or (ii) purchase, redeem, retire or otherwise acquire for value any Common Units or Junior Securities of the Company held by Persons other than the Company or any Subsidiary (other than any acquisition of Common Units or Junior Securities deemed to occur upon the exercise of options if such Common Units or Junior Securities represents a portion of the exercise price thereof) (any such dividend, distribution, purchase, redemption, retirement or other acquisition being herein referred to as a "Restricted Payment").

(b) The provisions of Section 6.02(a) do not prohibit any of the following (each, a "Permitted Payment"):

(i) [reserved];

(ii) any dividend paid or redemption made within 60 days after the date of declaration thereof or of the giving of notice thereof, as applicable, if at such date of declaration or the giving of such notice, such dividend or redemption (after giving pro forma effect to any subsequent Restricted Payments on or following such date through and including the date of such Restricted Payment) would have complied with this Section 6.02;

(iii) [reserved];

(iv) loans, advances, dividends or distributions by the Company to any IPO Vehicle (whether made directly or indirectly) to permit any IPO Vehicle to repurchase or otherwise acquire Common Units or Junior Securities or other debt or equity securities (including any options, warrants or other rights in respect thereof) to the extent related to effecting a Qualified IPO, or payments by the Company or its Subsidiaries to repurchase or otherwise acquire Common Units or Junior Securities or other debt or equity securities of any IPO Vehicle or the Company or any Subsidiary (including any options, warrants or other rights in respect thereof), in each case from or to current or former Management Investors (including any repurchase or acquisition by reason of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or any IPO Vehicle retaining any Common Units or Junior Securities or other debt or equity securities, option, warrant or other right in respect of tax withholding obligations, and any related payment in respect of any such obligation), such payments, loans, advances, dividends or distributions not to exceed an amount (net of repayments of any such loans or advances) equal to (x) the greater of $20.0 million and 5.0% of Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA of the Company plus (y) the Net Cash Proceeds received by the Company (or by any IPO Vehicle and contributed to the Capital Stock (other than Disqualified Stock) of the Company other than in the form of Disqualified Stock) on or since the Effective Date from, or as a capital contribution from, the issuance or sale to Management Investors of Common Units or Junior Securities or other debt or equity securities (including any options, warrants or other rights in respect thereof); plus (z) the cash proceeds of key man life insurance policies received by the Company or any Subsidiary (or by any IPO Vehicle and contributed to the Capital Stock (other than Disqualified Stock) of the Company) on or since the Effective Date; provided that any cancellation of Indebtedness owing to the Company or any Subsidiary thereof by any current or former Management Investor in connection with any repurchase or other acquisition of Common Units or Junior Securities or other debt or equity securities (including any options, warrants or other rights in respect thereof) from any Management Investor shall not constitute a Restricted Payment for purposes of this covenant or any other provision of this Schedule;

(v) payments by the Company, or loans, advances, dividends or distributions by the Company to any IPO Vehicle to make payments to the extent related to effecting a Qualified IPO, to holders of Common Units or Junior Securities of the Company or any IPO Vehicle in lieu of issuance of fractional shares of such Common Units or Junior Securities;

(vi) any transaction to the extent it constitutes a Restricted Payment that is permitted by and made in accordance with Section 6.03(b)(vii) (other than any Restricted Payments that is permitted pursuant to Section 6.03(b)(vii)(A)); provided (x) such transaction must be for bona fide business purposes and not in connection with a Liability Management Transaction and (y) such Affiliate shall not own any Capital Stock or Indebtedness of, or own or hold any Lien on any property of, Opco Intermediate Holdings or any other Restricted Subsidiary of Opco Intermediate Holdings;

(vii) payment of the Preferred Distributions, Redemption Consideration or, following the redemption in full of all Series A Preferred Units or satisfaction in full of the Preferred Liquidation Amount, Common Distributions, in each case, in accordance with the terms of the Agreement and this Schedule;

(viii) any Restricted Payment pursuant to or in connection with the Transactions;

(x) Restricted Payments to any IPO Vehicle the proceeds of which are applied by any IPO Vehicle in connection with any acquisition of assets (including Common Units or Junior Securities), business or Person, or any merger or consolidation of any Person with or into such IPO Vehicle or any Subsidiary thereof, or any other Investment; provided that (A) such acquisition, merger or consolidation or other Investment would have been permitted under this Schedule had it been consummated by the Company or a Subsidiary (with such transaction being deemed to utilize the relevant covenant basket or exception under this Schedule), (B) such Restricted Payment shall be made substantially concurrently with the closing of such acquisition, merger or consolidation or other Investment, (C) any IPO Vehicle shall, substantially concurrently with the closing thereof, cause (1) such business, assets or Person acquired and any liabilities assumed to be contributed to the Company or a Subsidiary or (2) the merger or amalgamation into the Company or one of its Subsidiaries and (D) such acquisition, merger or consolidation or other Investment shall be made in order to effect a Qualified IPO; provided that in the case of Section 6.02(b)(ii) the net amount of any such Permitted Payment shall be included in subsequent calculations of the amount of Restricted Payments. The amount of any Restricted Payment, if other than in cash, shall be determined in good faith by the Company, which determination shall be conclusive. The Company, in its sole discretion, may classify any Restricted Payment as being made in part under one of the provisions of this Section 6.02 and in part under one or more other such provisions (or, as applicable, such clauses or subclauses).

(c) If the Company or any Subsidiary makes a Restricted Payment that, at the time of the making of such Restricted Payment, in the good faith determination of the Company, would be permitted hereunder, such Restricted Payment shall be deemed to have been made in compliance with this Schedule notwithstanding any subsequent adjustment made in good faith to any Specified Entity's financial statements affecting Consolidated Net Income or Consolidated EBITDA, as applicable.

For the avoidance of doubt, except as expressly set forth in this Schedule, the Company will not, and will not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, make any Restricted Payment to the Sponsor or cash dividends, distributions or similar payments on or in respect of Junior Securities.

For purposes of this Section 6.03(a), any Affiliate Transaction shall be deemed to have satisfied the requirements set forth in this Section 6.03(a) if, in addition to any other approvals required under the terms of the Agreement, (A) such Affiliate Transaction is approved by a majority of the Disinterested Directors, or (B) in the event there are no such Disinterested Directors, a fairness opinion is provided by a nationally recognized appraisal or investment banking firm with respect to such Affiliate Transaction.

(v) any transaction in the ordinary course of business on terms that are fair to the Company and its Subsidiaries in the reasonable determination of the Board of Directors or senior management of the Company, or are not materially less favorable to the Company or the relevant Subsidiary than those that could be obtained at the time in a transaction with a Person who is not an Affiliate of the Company;

(viii) the Transactions, all transactions in connection therewith (including but not limited to the financing thereof), and all fees and expenses paid or payable in connection with the Transactions, including the fees and out-of-pocket expenses of any Investor;

(d) The Company shall not take any action that would cause a change in the tax classification of the Company from a domestic corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes other than in connection with a reorganization to facilitate a Qualified IPO (so long as such change does not adversely affect any Holder).

The Company and its paying agent (if any) shall be entitled to deduct and Withhold Taxes (as defined below) on all payments and distributions with respect to the Series A Preferred Units to the extent required by applicable Law, but consistent with the Intended Tax Treatment (as defined below). Each Holder shall indemnify the Company and its Subsidiaries, and the paying agent, for, and hold harmless the Company and its Subsidiaries from and against, any withholding taxes (together with any interest or penalties imposed thereon (other than any such interest or penalties arising as a result of gross negligence, willful misconduct or fraud), any

The Company shall cooperate in good faith with the Holders to minimize taxes on any payments, including distributions or deemed distributions, with respect to the Series A Preferred Units, including by (a) providing the Holders an opportunity to provide additional information or to apply for an exemption from, or a reduced rate of, Withholding Taxes and (b) considering in good faith any commercially reasonable proposals from the Holders to structure any exercise of its right to optionally redeem the Series A Preferred Units in a tax-efficient manner for the majority of Holders participating in such distributions.

20.3 Intended Tax Treatment. Unless otherwise required by a (a) "determination" within the meaning of section 1313(a) of the Code or (b) change in applicable Law after the Effective Date (including, for the avoidance of doubt, issuance of a U.S. Treasury regulation promulgated under the Code, precedential IRS Revenue Ruling or similar guidance), the Company and the Holders shall treat the Series A Preferred Units as equity of the Company that is not "preferred stock" within the meaning of section 305 of the Code and no distribution for U.S. federal income tax purposes is includible in income by a Holder under section 305 of the Code, other than in connection with a cash payment on the Series A Preferred Units (such treatment, the "Intended Tax Treatment").

20.4 Binding Effect. The tax covenants in this Article VII shall be binding on any successor Company and successor Holder or transferee of a Holder.

15.4 ~~Section 2.04~~ Rounding. Any financial ratios required to be satisfied in order for a specific action to be permitted under this Schedule shall be calculated by dividing the appropriate component by the other component, carrying the result to one place more than the number of places by which such ratio is expressed herein and rounding the result up or down to the nearest number (rounding up if there is no nearest number).

15.5 ~~Section 2.05~~ Currency Equivalents Generally~~.~~

~~[~~. Subject to Section 6.01(e), when determining compliance with any basket, threshold, ratio or other amounts under this Schedule, the Dollar equivalent shall be calculated as at the date of the incurrence or making of the relevant disposition, acquisition, Investment, Indebtedness or Restricted Payment or taking other relevant action or, upon the Company making an LCT Election, on the LCT Test Date; provided that (a) no Trigger, Trigger Event, Mandatory Redemption Event, or breach of any covenant or representation or warranty shall arise merely as a result of a change in the Dollar equivalent of any relevant amount due to fluctuations in exchange rates and (b) the Dollar equivalent principal or face amount of any Indebtedness or Investment outstanding on the Effective Date shall be calculated based on the relevant currency exchange rate in effect on the Effective Date.~~]~~[65]~~.

15.6 ~~Section 2.06 [~~Certain Calculations and Tests.

(a) In connection with any action being taken in connection with a Limited Condition Transaction, for purposes of determining compliance with any provision of this Schedule, including any provision which requires that no Trigger, Trigger Event, Mandatory Redemption Event or specified Trigger, Trigger Event or Mandatory Redemption Event, as applicable, has occurred, is continuing or would result from any such action, as applicable, such condition shall, at the option of the Company, be deemed satisfied, so long as no Trigger, Trigger Event, Mandatory Redemption Event or specified Trigger, Trigger Event or Mandatory Redemption Event, as applicable, exists on the date (i) a definitive agreement for such Limited Condition Transaction is entered into, (ii) in connection with an acquisition to which the United Kingdom City Code on Takeovers and Mergers (or any equivalent thereof under the laws, rules or regulations in any other applicable jurisdiction) applies, on which a "Rule 2.7 announcement" of a firm intention to make an offer in respect of a target of a Limited Condition Transaction is made (or the equivalent notice under such equivalent laws, rules or regulations in such other applicable jurisdiction) or (iii) notice of redemption, repurchase, defeasance, satisfaction and discharge or repayment of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Equity is given. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Company has exercised its option under the first sentence of this clause (a), and any Trigger, Trigger Event, Mandatory Redemption Event or specified Trigger, Trigger Event or Mandatory Redemption Event, as applicable, occurs following the date (A) a definitive agreement for the applicable Limited Condition Transaction was entered into, (B) in connection with an acquisition to which the United Kingdom City Code on Takeovers and Mergers (or any equivalent thereof under the laws, rules or regulations in any other applicable jurisdiction) applies, on which a "Rule 2.7 announcement" of a firm intention to make an offer in respect of a target of a Limited Condition Transaction is made (or the equivalent notice under such equivalent laws, rules or regulations in such other applicable jurisdiction) or (C) notice of redemption, repurchase, defeasance, satisfaction and discharge or repayment of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Equity is given and prior to the consummation of such Limited Condition Transaction, any such Trigger, Trigger Event, Mandatory Redemption Event or specified Trigger, Trigger Event or Mandatory Redemption Event, as applicable, shall be deemed to not have occurred or be continuing for purposes of determining whether any action being taken in connection with such Limited Condition Transaction is permitted hereunder.

(b) In connection with any action being taken in connection with a Limited Condition Transaction, for purposes of:

(i) determining compliance with any provision of this Schedule which requires the calculation of the Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio, the Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio or any other financial measure;

(ii) testing baskets set forth in this Schedule (including baskets measured as a percentage of Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA); or

(iii) any other determination as to whether any such Limited Condition Transaction and any related transactions (including any financing thereof) complies with the covenants or agreements contained in this Schedule;

in each case, at the option of the Company (the Company's election to exercise such option in connection with any Limited Condition Transaction, an "LCT Election"), the date of determination of whether any such action is permitted hereunder, shall be deemed to be the date (x) a definitive agreement for such Limited Condition Transaction is entered into, (y) in connection with an acquisition to which the United Kingdom City Code on Takeovers and Mergers (or any equivalent thereof under the laws, rules or regulations in any other applicable jurisdiction) applies, on which a "Rule 2.7 announcement" of a firm intention to make an offer in respect of a target of a Limited Condition Transaction is made (or the equivalent notice under such equivalent laws, rules or regulations in such other applicable jurisdiction) or (z) notice of redemption, repurchase, defeasance, satisfaction and discharge or repayment of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Equity is given, as applicable (the "LCT Test Date"), and if, after giving pro forma effect to the Limited Condition Transaction and the other transactions to be entered into in connection therewith (including any Incurrence or Discharge of Indebtedness and Liens and the use of proceeds thereof) as if they had occurred at the beginning of the most recent four consecutive Fiscal Quarters of the Company ending prior to the LCT Test Date for which consolidated financial statements of the Company (or, as applicable, OpCo Intermediate Holdings or any IPO Vehicle) are available, the Company could have taken such action on the relevant LCT Test Date in compliance with such ratio, basket or amount, such ratio, basket or amount shall be deemed to have been complied with; provided that (a) if financial statements for one or more subsequent Fiscal Quarters or Fiscal Years shall have been delivered pursuant to Section 12.2(b) of the Agreement, the Company may elect, in its sole discretion, to re-determine all such ratios, baskets or amounts on the basis of such financial statements, in which case, such date of redetermination shall thereafter be deemed to be the applicable LCT Test Date for purposes of such ratios, baskets or amounts; and (b) except as contemplated in the foregoing clause (a), compliance with such ratios, baskets or amounts (and any related requirements and conditions) shall not be determined or tested at any time after the applicable LCT Test Date for such Limited Condition Transaction and any actions or transactions related thereto (including any Incurrence or Discharge of Indebtedness and Liens and the use of proceeds thereof). For the avoidance of doubt, if the Company has made an LCT Election and any of the ratios, baskets or amounts for which compliance was determined or tested as of the LCT Test Date are exceeded as a result of fluctuations in any such ratio, basket or amount, including due to fluctuations in exchange rates or in Consolidated EBITDA of the Company or the Person subject to such Limited Condition Transaction or any applicable currency exchange rate, at or prior to the consummation of the relevant transaction or action, such ratios, baskets or amounts will not be deemed to have been exceeded as a result of such fluctuations. If the Company has made an LCT Election for any Limited Condition Transaction, then in connection with any subsequent calculation of any ratio, basket or amount with respect to the Incurrence or Discharge of Indebtedness, mergers, the conveyance, lease or other transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company on or following the relevant LCT Test Date and prior to the earlier of the date on which (1) such Limited Condition Transaction is consummated, (2) the definitive agreement for, or firm offer in respect of, such Limited Condition Transaction (if an acquisition or investment) is terminated or expires without consummation of such Limited Condition Transaction or (3) such notice of redemption, repurchase, defeasance, satisfaction and discharge or repayment of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Equity is revoked or expires without consummation, any such ratio, basket or amount shall be calculated on a pro forma basis assuming such Limited Condition Transaction and other transactions in connection therewith (including any Incurrence or Discharge of Indebtedness and Liens and the use of proceeds thereof) have been consummated.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, (i) in calculating any Incurrence Based Amounts (including any Financial Incurrence Tests), any amounts incurred or utilized, or transactions entered into or consummated, in reliance on a Fixed Amount (including under the Cash Capped Incremental Facility) in a concurrent transaction, a single transaction or a series of related transactions consummated substantially concurrently with the amount incurred or utilized, or transaction entered into or consummated, under the applicable Incurrence Based Amount, shall not be given effect in calculating the applicable Incurrence Based Amount (but giving pro forma effect to all applicable and related transactions (including the use of proceeds of all Indebtedness to be incurred and any repayments, repurchases and redemptions of Indebtedness, and the making of any Investment, other Restricted Payment and any Asset Disposition (or any disposition specifically excluded from the definition of "Asset Disposition")) and all other pro forma adjustments) and (ii) thereafter, incurrence of the portion of such action or transaction to be consummated in reliance on a Fixed Amount shall be given effect in calculating any applicable Incurrence Based Amounts. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, if the Company, at its option, has elected to Incur Indebtedness, incur any Lien or make any Investment, in each case, on the date of determination (A) in part under a Financial Incurrence Test that requires compliance with a Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio and/or Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio, as applicable, and (B) in part under a separate Financial Incurrence Test (which, for the avoidance of doubt, may not be based on the same Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio and/or Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio, as applicable, as the Financial Incurrence Test described in clause (A) above) that requires compliance with a Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio and/or Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio, as applicable, any such Indebtedness Incurred, Lien incurred or Investment made in reliance on the Financial Incurrence Test described in clause (B) above, shall be disregarded for purposes of determining compliance with the Financial Incurrence Test described in clause (A) above. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, if any financial ratios or tests (including, without limitation, any Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio and Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio tests) which require compliance in connection with the Incurrence of any Indebtedness, incurrence of any Lien or the making of any Investment ("Financial Incurrence Tests") would be satisfied in any subsequent Fiscal Quarter following the utilization of either (x) fixed baskets, exceptions or thresholds (including baskets measured as a percentage of Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA) that do not require compliance with a financial ratio or test ("Fixed Amounts") or (y) baskets, exceptions and thresholds that require compliance with a financial ratio or test (including, without limitation, any Consolidated Secured Leverage Ratio and Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio tests) (any such amounts, "Incurrence Based Amounts"), then the reclassification of actions or transactions (or portions thereof), including the reclassification of utilization of any Fixed Amounts as incurred or utilized under any available Incurrence Based Amounts, shall be deemed to have automatically occurred even if not elected by the Company (unless the Company otherwise notifies the Holders).~~]~~[66]

15.7 ~~Section 2.07~~ Divisions. Any reference herein to (a) a transfer, assignment, sale, disposition or transfer, or similar term, shall be deemed to apply to a division of or by a limited liability company or a limited partnership, as applicable, or an allocation of assets to a series of a limited liability company or a limited partnership (collectively, a "Division"), as if it were a transfer, assignment, sale or transfer, or similar term, as applicable, to a separate Person, and (b) a merger, consolidation, amalgamation or consolidation, or similar term, shall be deemed to apply to the division of or by a limited liability company or a limited partnership, or an allocation of assets to a series of a limited liability company or a limited partnership, or the unwinding of such a division or allocation, as if it were a merger, consolidation, amalgamation or consolidation or similar term, as applicable, with a separate Person, and such new Person shall be deemed to have been organized on the first date of its existence by the holders of its Capital Stock at such time.

ARTICLE XV~~ARTICLE III~~

DISTRIBUTIONS AND LIQUIDATION RIGHT

16.1 ~~Section 3.01~~ Distributions.

(a) Holders of the issued and outstanding Series A Preferred Units shall be entitled to receive, out of assets legally available for the payment of distributions, distributions on the terms described in this Section 3.01. From and after the date of issuance of each Series A Preferred Unit, cumulative distributions (the "Preferred Distributions") will accumulate on a daily basis in arrears during each Accrual Period at a rate per annum equal to the applicable Distribution Rate in effect from time to time on the Stated Value as of the first day of such Accrual Period, whether or not such distributions are declared by the Board of Directors, and, if declared, shall be due and payable in cash on the Preferred Distribution Payment Date with respect to such Accrual Period in accordance with this Section 3.01. On a Preferred Distribution Compounding Date related to an Accrual Period for which the Company does not for any reason pay in cash all Preferred Distributions that accumulated during such Accrual Period on Series A Preferred Units that remain outstanding, any such accumulated and unpaid Preferred Distributions on a Series A Preferred Unit (the "Accrued Distributions") will automatically and irrevocably compound on such Preferred Distribution Compounding Date (unless such distributions have been declared by the Board of Directors and paid on or prior to such date) and become part of the then-outstanding Compounded Distributions of such Series A Preferred Unit as of the applicable Preferred Distribution Compounding Date. The Company will have the option, in its sole discretion, to declare and pay Accrued Distributions in cash with respect to any Series A Preferred Unit only to the extent such Accrued Distributions have not compounded pursuant to this Section 3.01(a). Following the compounding of Preferred Distributions as provided for in this Section 3.01(a), any resulting Compounded Distributions may only be paid in cash in accordance with this Schedule as part of a redemption at the applicable Redemption Consideration. Preferred Distributions shall be computed on the basis of a three hundred and sixty (360)-day year of twelve (12) thirty (30)-day months and, for the period from and including the Effective Date to the first Preferred Distribution Compounding Date following the Effective Date, will be computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in such period divided by ninety (90). In addition to any Preferred Distributions to which Holders may be entitled, Holders shall be entitled to participate equally and ratably, to the extent of their Common Unit Equivalent Participation, with the Common Unit Holders in any distributions declared and paid to Common Unit Holders in accordance with the terms of the Agreement (the "Common Distributions"). Other than with respect to the Common Distributions, Holders shall not be entitled to participate in dividends or distributions of any nature paid on or in respect of the Common Units (except, if applicable, in respect of any Common Units owned by any such Holder).

(b) The Preferred Distributions and Common Distributions, to the extent declared and paid, shall be paid pro rata (based on the aggregate Liquidation Preference of Series A Preferred Units) to the Holders entitled thereto. The Preferred Distributions and Common Distributions shall be payable to the Holders as they appear on the Register at the close of business on the record date designated by the Board of Directors for the applicable distribution. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, any payment required to be made hereunder on any day that is not a Business Day shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day without interest or additional payment for such delay.

(c) Upon the occurrence of a Trigger Event, the Distribution Rate shall increase by two percent (2.00%) per annum from and including the date on which the Trigger Event shall occur and be continuing through but excluding the date on which such Trigger Event is no longer continuing (the "Trigger Rate Increase"); provided, however, that in no event shall the cumulative Trigger Rate Increase, which shall be equal to two percent (2.00%) per annum multiplied by the number of Trigger Events that are then continuing, exceed six percent (6.00%) per annum. For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall the Company be required to pay Preferred Distributions in cash upon a Trigger Event; provided that the foregoing shall not limit the Company's obligations pursuant to Section 4.02.

16.2 ~~Section 3.02~~ Liquidation Rights.

(a) In the event of any Liquidation, each Holder shall be entitled to receive liquidating distributions out of the assets of the Company legally available for distribution to its equityholders, after satisfaction of all liabilities and obligations to creditors of the Company, but before any payment or distribution of any assets of the Company is made or set apart for holders of any Junior Securities, including the Common Units, for such Holder's Series A Preferred Units in an amount equal to the aggregate Liquidation Preference (as calculated without accounting for clause (c) of the definition thereof) of such Series A Preferred Unit as of the date of the Liquidation (the "Preferred Liquidation Amount"). In addition, solely to the extent of the Common Unit Equivalent Participation, each Holder shall be entitled to participate equally and ratably with Common Unit Holders in any liquidating distributions that Common Unit Holders are entitled to receive (the "Common Liquidation Amount"). Other than the Preferred Liquidation Amount and the Common Liquidation Amount, a Holder shall not be entitled to any further payment with respect to its Series A Preferred Units upon a Liquidation.

(b) In the event that the assets of the Company available for distribution to Members upon a Liquidation shall be insufficient to pay in full the Preferred Liquidation Amount payable with respect to all outstanding Series A Preferred Units pursuant to Section 3.02(a), such assets, or the proceeds thereof, shall be distributed among the Holders ratably in proportion to the full respective liquidating distributions to which they would otherwise be respectively entitled upon such Liquidation.

(c) Neither the sale, conveyance, exchange or transfer (for cash, shares, securities or other consideration) of all or substantially all of the assets, capital or business of the Company (other than in connection with the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company) nor the merger, consolidation, share exchange, statutory exchange or any other business combination transaction of the Company into or with any other Person shall by itself be deemed to be a Liquidation for purposes of this Section 3.02.

ARTICLE XVIIARTICLE IV

REDEMPTION

17.1 Section 4.01 Optional Redemption.

(a) Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4.01(a), the Company shall have the right, at its option, at any time and from time to time after the Effective Date, to redeem, out of funds and Common Units legally available therefor, all or any portion of the Series A Preferred Units then-issued and outstanding at a redemption price per Series A Preferred Unit equal to the Redemption Consideration as of the date of such redemption. In the event the Company elects to exercise its right to require redemption under this Section 4.01(a), it shall do so by sending a written notice to each Holder (the "Redemption Notice") specifying (i) the date on which the redemption shall occur (the date on which any such optional redemption actually occurs, the "Optional Redemption Date"), which shall be a Business Day that is no earlier than ten (10) days from the date the Redemption Notice is sent and (ii) the aggregate number of Series A Preferred Units which are being redeemed pursuant to such redemption. Any such Redemption Notice may state that such notice is conditioned upon the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event specified therein, in which case such notice may be revoked or extended by the Company (by written notice on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied or waived. A Redemption Notice may provide that payment of the Cash Redemption Price and performance of the Company's obligations with respect to such redemption may be performed by another Person. If fewer than all of the Series A Preferred Units then-issued and outstanding are to be redeemed pursuant to this Section 4.01(a), then such redemption shall occur on a pro rata basis based on the aggregate Liquidation Preference of such Series A Preferred Units with respect to all Holders and such that the amount to be received for redeemed Series A Preferred Units by each Holder is proportional to the Liquidation Preference of the Series A Preferred Units held by each Holder relative to the aggregate Liquidation Preference of all Series A Preferred Units then-issued and outstanding.

(b) Redemption pursuant to Section 4.01(a) shall become effective on the Optional Redemption Date. On the Optional Redemption Date, (i) the Cash Redemption Price for each Series A Preferred Unit being redeemed shall be due and payable in cash to each record Holder for its Series A Preferred Units being redeemed and (ii) the Common Unit Consideration shall be issued to each record Holder for its Series A Preferred Units being redeemed. If a Redemption Notice has been delivered in accordance with Section 4.01(a) and if the Redemption Consideration necessary for redemption has been settled with, or made available to, the Holders of the Series A Preferred Units being redeemed, then from and after the applicable Optional Redemption Date, distributions will cease to accrue on such redeemed Series A Preferred Units, such redeemed Series A Preferred Units shall no longer be deemed outstanding and all rights of the Holders with respect to such redeemed Series A Preferred Units (including the Common Unit Equivalent Participation related thereto) will terminate.

17.2 Section 4.02 Mandatory Redemption.

(a) Upon a Mandatory Redemption Event, the Company shall redeem, out of funds and Common Units legally available therefor subject to and in accordance with Section 4.02(c), all of the Series A Preferred Units then-issued and outstanding at a redemption price per Series A Preferred Unit equal to the Redemption Consideration as of the date of such redemption. The date on which a Mandatory Redemption shall occur is referred to as the "Mandatory Redemption Date".

(b) On the Mandatory Redemption Date, (i) the Cash Redemption Price for each Series A Preferred Unit being redeemed shall be due and payable in cash to each record Holder for its Series A Preferred Units being redeemed and (ii) the Common Unit Consideration shall be issued to each record Holder for its Series A Preferred Units being redeemed, provided, however, that for the purpose of this clause (ii), in case of Mandatory Redemption Event triggered as a result of a Change of Control, in lieu of receiving the Common Unit Consideration, the Holders shall be entitled to receive the same amounts and forms of consideration to which they would be entitled as holders of Common Units in such Change of Control transaction had they been issued the Common Unit Consideration immediately prior to the Change of Control. If a Mandatory Redemption Event has occurred and if the Redemption Consideration necessary for redemption has been settled with, or made available to, the Holders of the Series A Preferred Units being redeemed, then from and after the applicable Mandatory Redemption Date, distributions will cease to accrue on such redeemed Series A Preferred Units, such redeemed Series A Preferred Units shall no longer be deemed outstanding and all rights of the Holders with respect to such redeemed Series A Preferred Units (including the Common Unit Equivalent Participation related thereto) will terminate.

(c) If on the Mandatory Redemption Date, the Company, pursuant to applicable Law or the terms of any Debt Financing Documents or any documents governing the terms of any other Indebtedness of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or Senior Securities, in each case, not issued or incurred in violation of this Schedule (provided that such Debt Financing Documents, documents governing the terms of such other Indebtedness or Senior Securities have not been issued or incurred with the intent of frustrating the redemption rights of a Holder hereunder), shall not have funds or Common Units legally available to redeem, or shall otherwise be prohibited or restricted from redeeming, all outstanding Series A Preferred Units, those funds and Common Units that are legally available and not so restricted or prohibited shall be used to redeem the maximum possible number of such Series A Preferred Units. At any time and from time to time thereafter when additional funds and Common Units of the Company are legally available and not so restricted or prohibited for such purpose, such funds shall be used in their entirety to redeem the outstanding Series A Preferred Units that the Company failed to redeem on the Mandatory Redemption Date until the balance of such units has been redeemed. The Series A Preferred Units to be redeemed in accordance with this Section 4.02(c) shall be redeemed from all Holders on a pro rata basis based on the aggregate Liquidation Preference of such Series A Preferred Units.

(d) If the Company breaches its obligations under this Section 4.02, the Holder Majority shall have the right to appoint a Transaction Committee or the Board Appointees in the manner provided under Section 5.02(c) and such Transaction Committee or Board Appointees, as applicable, shall have the power and authority set forth in subclauses (i) through (iii) of Section 5.02(c) (subject to the terms of Exhibit A).

ARTICLE XVIIARTICLE V

CERTAIN RIGHTS OF HOLDERS

18.1 Section 5.01 Voting Rights.

(a) General. Except as otherwise expressly provided for in this Schedule and the Agreement or except as otherwise required under the Act, each Holder, in such holder's capacity as such, shall have no voting rights with respect to the Series A Preferred Units and shall not be entitled to vote on any matter; provided, however, that Holders shall be entitled to vote, to the extent of the Common Unit Equivalent Participation, in person or by proxy, at all meetings of Common Unit Holders (and written actions in lieu of meetings) or otherwise on all matters on which Common Unit Holders generally are entitled to vote, and the Holders (to the extent of Common Unit Equivalent Participation) and Common Unit Holders shall vote together as a single class on all matters submitted to a vote of Common Unit Holders. Other than as expressly set forth herein or as provided by unwaivable provisions of the Act, the Series A Preferred Units shall not have the right to vote as a separate class on any matter, irrespective of the provisions of the Act.

(b) Class Voting. So long as any Series A Preferred Units are outstanding, in addition to the voting rights set forth in Section 5.01(a), the Company and its Subsidiaries (as applicable) may not:

(i) take any of the following actions without the prior affirmative vote or written consent of the Holder Majority (including any consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for, or purchase of, the Series A Preferred Units), voting as a separate class:

(a) (A) amend or otherwise modify or waive any provision of this Schedule or amend, modify or waive the terms or the powers, preferences, rights or privileges of the Series A Preferred Units;

(b) (B) amend or otherwise modify or waive Section [3.1(b)(ii)], Section [7.1] (solely with respect to the transfer of Series A Preferred Units) and Section [12.2(b)] (solely with respect to information rights of Series A Preferred Units) of the Agreement; or

(c) (C) waive any Default or Trigger Event and its consequences hereunder;

(ii) take any of the following actions without the prior affirmative vote or written consent of a 95% Holder Majority (including any consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for, or purchase of, the Series A Preferred Units), voting as a separate class, to the extent such actions would be adverse to the Holders:

(a) ~~(A)~~ amend or otherwise modify the definitions of "Distribution Rate", "Base Distribution Rate" or "Trigger Rate Increase";

(b) ~~(B)~~ amend or otherwise modify Section 1.02 or the ranking of the Series A Preferred Units;

(c) ~~(C)~~ amend or otherwise modify the definitions of "Initial Stated Value", "Stated Value", "Liquidation Preference", "Accrued Distributions", "Compounded Distributions", or "Redemption Consideration" or change the timing or method of payment with respect thereto;

(d) ~~(D)~~ amend or otherwise modify or waive the timing of payment or method of calculation of Preferred Distributions (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the definition of "Preferred Distribution Payment Date". "Preferred Distribution Compounding Date" and "Accrual Period");

(e) ~~(E)~~ amend or otherwise modify any provision of Section 5.1 of the Agreement or Section 3.01 in any adverse manner that would alter terms or manner of payments of Preferred Distributions and Common Distributions required thereby;

(f) ~~(F)~~ amend or otherwise modify or waive the obligation to mandatorily redeem the Series A Preferred Units pursuant to Section 4.02 or the pro rata treatment provisions in connection with such redemption;

(g) ~~(G)~~ amend or otherwise modify or waive this Section 5.01(b) or the definitions of "Holder Majority" or "95% Holder Majority"; or

(h) ~~(H)~~ amend or otherwise modify any provision of Section 5.02(c) that would alter, restrict, impair or contravene the rights of the Holders to appoint the Transaction Committee or the Board Appointees pursuant to such provisions;

provided that, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no amendment, modification or waiver of this Schedule may be effected in a manner that by its terms would disproportionately and adversely impact any particular Holder relative to the other Holders without the consent of such particular Holder (it being understood that any amendment, modification or waiver of this proviso shall require the consent of each Holder, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Holder that is a CD&R Holder).

(c) Except as otherwise set forth herein, any of the rights, powers, preferences and other terms of the Series A Preferred Units set forth herein may be waived on behalf of all holders of Series A Preferred Units by the affirmative written consent (including any consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for, or purchase of, the Series A Preferred Units) or vote of the Holder Majority.

(d) The consent or votes required in Section 5.01(b) shall be in addition to any approval of Members of the Company which may be required by applicable Law or pursuant to any provision of the Agreement. Each Holder will have one vote per Series A Preferred Unit on any matter on which Holders are entitled to vote separately as a class, whether at a meeting or by written consent.

Until an amendment, supplement or waiver becomes effective, a consent to it by a Holder is a continuing consent by the Holder and every subsequent Holder of a Series A Preferred Unit or portion of a Series A Preferred Unit that evidences the same unit as the consenting Holder's Series A Preferred Units, even if notation of the consent is not made. However, any such Holder or subsequent Holder may revoke the consent as to its Series A Preferred Unit if the Company and the Holders receive written notice of revocation before the date the consent becomes effective. An amendment, supplement or waiver becomes effective in accordance with its terms and thereafter binds every Holder.

18.2 ~~Section 5.02~~ Sale / Qualified IPO Demand Right.

(a) General. On or after ~~[●]~~November 11, 2033[67], the Holder Majority may deliver a written notice (such notice, the "Repurchase Notice") to the Company requesting the Company to redeem in full the then-issued and outstanding Series A Preferred Units for the Redemption Consideration. If the Company fails to redeem the Series A Preferred Units in full within 60 days of the receipt of such Repurchase Notice, the Holder Majority (the Holder Majority delivering such written notice, constituting the "Initiating Holders") shall have the right to deliver a written notice (such notice, the "Demand Notice") to the Company to initiate a process (the "Process") to consummate, at the Company's option, a Qualified IPO or a Sale Transaction that would result in the full redemption of the then-issued and outstanding Series A Preferred Units for the Redemption Consideration. As soon as reasonably practicable upon receipt of a Demand Notice, the Board of Directors shall cause the Company to initiate the Process in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 5.02. The Board of Directors shall conduct the Process with a view toward effectuating a Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction that maximizes the Fair Market Value of the Company and its Subsidiaries; provided that the decision of whether to pursue and effect a Qualified IPO or pursue and effect a Sale Transaction shall be in the Company's sole discretion. The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to consummate and make effective any Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction within twelve (12) months following delivery of a Demand Notice with respect thereto (subject to extension to the extent necessary to obtain any regulatory approvals required by the binding, definitive documentation entered into prior to the expiration of such initial twelve (12)-month period to give effect to such Sale Transaction). Once a Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction has been consummated, the Company shall cause any Subsidiary that receives any net cash proceeds in connection with such Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction to distribute such net cash proceeds to the Company, to the extent available for distribution, unless such distribution is prohibited by applicable Law or any Debt Financing Documents. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company may discontinue and abandon the Process at any time prior to the consummation of a Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction, if the Company redeems in full the then-issued and outstanding Series A Preferred Units for the Redemption Consideration.

(b) Transaction Process. The Board of Directors shall control and make all decisions regarding the Process, including, as applicable, the selection of a buyer, the timing and hiring of advisors and investment banks, the pricing, terms and conditions of the transaction and the drafting of documentation. In connection with such decisions, the Members shall cooperate with the Company and the Board of Directors, and the Company and the Members will use reasonable best efforts to effect a Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction (whether by merger, sale of assets or equity interests in any Group Member or otherwise) required by Section 5.02(a), including by taking or causing to be taken all such reasonable actions as may be reasonably necessary or reasonably desirable in order to approve and expeditiously consummate such Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction and:

(i) in the case of a Qualified IPO, (I) passing any resolutions and/or class consents necessary to: (A) transfer Series A Preferred Units to a New Holding Issuer, (B) reorganizing or restructuring the relevant Group Member's equity capital or other securities, provided that no Holder shall be obligated to exercise its voting rights to effect any such reorganization that would dilute its then-proportionate economic entitlement as compared with any other Holder, (C) adopt such new constitutional documents of the relevant Group Members or the New Holding Issuer, (D) re-register the relevant Group Members or the New Holding Issuer as a public limited company or other corporate form which is lawfully capable of issuing shares to the public and/or such other securities as are to be listed or traded and (E) make all applications to a relevant exchange necessary for the purposes of effecting the Qualified IPO, (II) voting, if such a vote is required by the Agreement or otherwise, all of their Units entitled to vote on such Qualified IPO in favor of such Qualified IPO at any meeting of the Members called to vote on or approve such Qualified IPO and/or to consent in writing to such Qualified IPO, (III) using their reasonable best efforts to cause their representatives on the Board of Directors to vote in favor of such Qualified IPO (whether at any meeting of the Board of Directors called to vote on or approve such Qualified IPO or through a consent in writing) and raise no objection thereto, (IV) in the case of the Company, preparing a data room, registration statement, one or more prospectus or offering documents, responding to due diligence inquiries, and providing underwriters and their advisors with access to the Company's books and records and personnel, (V) executing, acknowledging and delivering agreements (including any underwriting or similar agreement), consents, assignments, waivers (including a waiver of any dissenters' rights, appraisal rights or similar rights to the fullest extent under the Law of the State of Delaware or otherwise related to such Qualified IPO and confirmation of such waiver upon request of the Company) and other documents or instruments, provided that no Member shall be required to execute any underwriting agreement (or similar agreement imposing seller representations, covenants or indemnities) except to the extent such Member is selling or otherwise transferring any of its equity interests in connection with such Qualified IPO, (VI) if the Board of Directors or the Company determines that it is necessary or advisable to accept restrictions on the transfer of some or all of the equity interests of the Members which are subject to a Qualified IPO, then for any period after such Qualified IPO, each Member shall agree to accept those restrictions in respect of the same proportion of its equity interests if and to the extent determined by the Board of Directors or the Company, in consultation with the investment bank advising the Company on the proposed Qualified IPO, to be necessary or advisable to ensure the success and maximize the value of such Qualified IPO, (VII) furnishing such information and copies of documents as may be reasonably requested by the Company and (VIII) taking such other actions as may be reasonably requested by the Company in connection with the Qualified IPO; and

(ii) in the case of a Sale Transaction, to the extent reasonably requested by the Board of Directors and customary for a sale transaction process, (I) reviewing and considering in good faith any offers received from potential acquirors, responding reasonably expeditiously and in good faith to any bona fide offers received from potential acquirors and together with its advisors, negotiating reasonably, reasonably expeditiously and in good faith, the terms of any potential sale of the Company, (II) in the case of the Company, preparing a data room and a confidential information memorandum, preparing and attending management presentations, responding to due diligence inquiries, providing potential acquirors and their advisors with reasonable and customary access to the Company's books and records and personnel and requesting receipt of indications of interest from potential acquirors, (III) executing, acknowledging and delivering agreements (including any equity purchase agreement or similar agreement or any customary voting agreement to vote in favor of, support and not object to such Sale Transaction), consents, assignments, waivers (including a waiver of any dissenters' rights, appraisal rights or similar rights to the fullest extent under the Law of the State of Delaware or otherwise related to such Sale Transaction and confirmation of such waiver upon request of the Company) and other documents or instruments reasonably required or reasonably desirable to effectuate a Sale Transaction, (IV) furnishing such information and copies of documents, and filing such applications, reports, returns, filings and other documents or instruments with governmental authorities, as may be reasonably requested by the Company, (V) voting, if such a vote is required by the Agreement or otherwise, all of their Units entitled to vote on such Sale Transaction in favor of such Sale Transaction at any meeting of the Members called to vote on or approve such Sale Transaction and/or to consent in writing to such Sale Transaction, (VI) exercising any drag-along rights, proxies and other rights to compel votes to effect such Sale Transaction and (VII) taking such other actions as may be reasonably requested by the Company in connection with the Sale Transaction;

provided, however, that (I) a Member shall be obligated to become liable in respect of any representations, warranties, covenants, indemnities or otherwise to such third party solely to the extent provided in clause (II) below, (II) in connection with any such Sale Transaction, and agreements related thereto that any Member is requested to execute and deliver, a Member may be required to make individual representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements as to the unencumbered title to its Series A Preferred Units and any of its other equity in the Company and the power, authority and legal right to transfer such Series A Preferred Units or such other equity, in each case, on a several and not joint basis and be severally and not jointly liable in respect of such representations, warranties and covenants; provided, however, that (x) the aggregate amount of liability in respect of such individual representations and warranties with respect to the Member and the Company shall not exceed the proceeds actually received by such Holder and the Company in connection with such Sale Transaction or Qualified IPO; (y) in no event shall any Member or the Company or any of their Affiliates be required to enter into a non-compete, non-solicit, non-hire or similar restrictive agreement; and (z) the Members may be subject to reduction of proceeds (whether by purchase price adjustment, indemnity payments or otherwise) in respect of representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in respect of the Company or its Subsidiaries in a manner that allocates any such reduction, directly or indirectly, to the Members based on the amount by which each such Member's share of the aggregate proceeds otherwise payable with respect to its Units would have been reduced had the aggregate proceeds available for distribution to all such Members been reduced by the aggregate amount of such adjustment, indemnity payment or other liability.

(c) Demand Failure. In the event of Demand Failure, unless all of the Series A Preferred Units have been redeemed, then, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Initiating Holders shall have the right to appoint, at their election, (x) all members of a committee of the Board of Directors (a "Transaction Committee") except one (1) member which the CD&R Holders shall be entitled to appoint, or (y) a majority of the members of the Board of Directors (such appointed members, the "Board Appointees" and the appointment of such members of the Board of Directors pursuant to this clause (y), a "Board Step-In"); provided that the CD&R Holders shall be entitled to appoint the remaining members of the Board of Directors. For the avoidance of doubt, the CD&R Holders' representation on the Transaction Committee or the Board of Directors shall not in any way impede, limit or prevent the Transaction Committee or the Board of Directors as controlled by the Board Appointees pursuant to a Board Step-In from exercising its rights or carrying out its obligations as provided in this Section 5.02(c). The Transaction Committee and members of the Board of Directors shall benefit from a full waiver of any fiduciary duties with respect to the Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction, as applicable, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Law. In the event the Initiating Holders elect to appoint members of a Transaction Committee, the powers delegated to such committee shall be consistent with those listed in sub-clauses (i) through (iii) below, and all other approval rights and powers shall otherwise remain vested in the Board of Directors. Subject to Section 5.02(f), the Transaction Committee or the Board Appointees, as applicable, will have full and exclusive authority, subject to the terms of Exhibit A, to (i) control a Process (a "Controlled Process"), (ii) approve (on behalf of the Board of Directors and any required Members of the Company) and cause to be consummated a Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction, as applicable, resulting from the Controlled Process and (iii) make any determination with respect to the capital structure of the Company or any Subsidiary thereof (including any determination whether to pay the Preferred Distributions in-kind or in cash) (for the avoidance of doubt, excluding any amendment, waiver or change to the capital structure or other determination that (A) materially and disproportionately impacts a holder of a class of securities of the Company as compared to any other holder of the same class (in its capacity as a holder of such class) or (B) is made in bad faith).

(d) If the Sale Transaction pursuant to this Section 5.02 is structured as a sale of assets, the Company will be dissolved, and after satisfaction of all liabilities and obligations to creditors of the Company, but before any payment or distribution of any assets of the Company is made or set apart for holders of any Junior Securities, including the Common Units, the Holders shall be entitled to receive, and the Company shall pay to such Holders, the remainder of the net sale proceeds among the Holders up to their Redemption Consideration in accordance with this Schedule and the Agreement in effect at such time.

(e) Notwithstanding anything contained herein:

(i) prior to soliciting offers or indications of interest from any third parties with respect to any Sale Transaction or any other transaction involving the redemption of the Series A Preferred Units (a "Proposed Transaction") to which a Controlled Process applies, the Company shall deliver written notice (the "ROFO Notice") to the CD&R Holders of its desire to enter into a Proposed Transaction and shall provide the CD&R Holders with an opportunity to make an offer to enter into a Proposed Transaction. The CD&R Holders shall have a period of twenty (20) Business Days from receipt of the ROFO Notice (the "Offer Period") to deliver to the Company a binding irrevocable written offer to enter into a Proposed Transaction, which offer shall specify in reasonable detail the material terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction, including, as applicable, the purchase price (which purchase price shall be presented without including the value of any other transaction or service) or redemption amount and timing of such payments (the "ROFO Offer"). If the CD&R Holders deliver a ROFO Offer within the Offer Period, the Company shall have a period of twenty (20) days (the "Acceptance Period") to accept in writing the ROFO Offer (the "ROFO Acceptance Notice"). If the Company delivers a ROFO Acceptance Notice within the Acceptance Period, the Company and the CD&R Holders shall negotiate in good faith for a period of thirty (30) Business Days (the "Negotiation Period") to finalize definitive documentation for the Proposed Transaction on terms substantially consistent with those set forth in the ROFO Offer. If (A) the Company does not deliver a ROFO Acceptance Notice, or affirmatively declines such ROFO Offer, within the Acceptance Period, or (B) the Company and the CD&R Holders do not execute definitive documentation for the Proposed Transaction within the Negotiation Period, then the Company shall be free, for a period of 270 days following the expiration of the Acceptance Period or Negotiation Period (as applicable), to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a Proposed Transaction (subject to extension to the extent necessary to obtain any regulatory approvals required by the binding, definitive documentation entered into prior to the expiration of the initial 270-day period to give effect to such Proposed Transaction) with a third party on pricing terms that are not more favorable to such third party in any respect (and at a valuation that is not less than the value proposed in the ROFO Offer), and on other terms and conditions that are not materially more favorable to such third party, in the aggregate, than those set forth in the ROFO Offer. If the Company fails to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a Proposed Transaction on terms meeting the requirements in the preceding sentence within 270 days of the expiration of the Acceptance Period or Negotiation Period (as applicable) (subject to extension to the extent necessary to obtain any regulatory approvals required by the binding, definitive documentation entered into prior to the expiration of the initial 180-day period to give effect to such Proposed Transaction), the Company shall be required to comply with the terms of this clause (e) with respect to any Proposed Transaction before consummating a Proposed Transaction with a third party.

(ii) Following the election of a Transaction Committee or Board Appointees pursuant to the Board Step-In, until such time thereafter that the Series A Preferred Units are no longer outstanding (A) the CD&R Holders, solely in their capacity as of holders of Series A Preferred Units, shall be entitled to (x) preemptive rights as set forth in Section 7.4 of the Agreement and (y) preemptive rights for all issuances of New Securities (as defined in the Agreement) and Indebtedness by the Company or any Subsidiary to any Person (other than the Company or any Subsidiary), utilizing the timing and mechanics set forth in Section 7.4 of the Agreement but with the CD&R Holders as the sole Persons with such preemptive rights and (B) the CD&R Holders shall be entitled to the rights set forth on Exhibit A hereto.

(iii) For the avoidance of doubt, subject to compliance with the express terms of this clause (e), nothing in this clause (e) shall give the CD&R Holders a consent right with respect to, or prevent the Transaction Committee or the Board Appointees from taking, any of the actions described in sub-clauses (i) through (iii) of Section 5.02(c) (it being understood that any such actions shall be subject to the terms set forth on Exhibit A hereto in all respects).

(f) Solely in the case of a Controlled Process, the Initiating Holders may, at their discretion (but subject to the rest of this Section 5.02), decide whether or not to pursue, consummate, postpone or abandon any proposed Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction. Neither the Company nor any Holder, nor any of their respective Affiliates, to the fullest extent permitted by Law, shall have any liability to any other Holder or any other Person arising from, relating to or in connection with the pursuit, consummation, postponement, abandonment or terms and conditions of any proposed Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction except to the extent of a failure to comply with the provisions of this Section 5.02.

(g) The closing of a Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction to which this Section 5.02 applies shall take place at such time and place as the Board of Directors, or, in the case of a Controlled Process, the Transaction Committee or the Board Appointees, as applicable, shall specify by notice to each Holder.

(h) Upon the consummation of any Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction, the net cash proceeds of such transaction will be used in accordance with Article IV of this Schedule to the extent the Holders do not receive directly such proceeds. For the avoidance of doubt, from and after the time there are no longer any Series A Preferred Units outstanding, (i) any Board Appointees will automatically and immediately be deemed to resign from the Board and (ii) any Transaction Committee then in existence shall automatically and immediately be dissolved and cease to have any power or authority, and any delegated powers theretofore granted to such Transaction Committee shall automatically revert to the Board of Directors.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 5.02 or in the Agreement, unless the Holder Majority otherwise provides its prior written consent, the Company will not, after receipt of a Demand Notice, consummate any Qualified IPO or Sale Transaction unless the net proceeds to be received by the Company or the Holders, as applicable, in such transaction are sufficient to permit the Company to pay in full, and are used to pay in full, or the Holders otherwise receive pursuant to such transaction, the Redemption Consideration of each outstanding Series A Preferred Unit as of such date.

(j) During the continuance of a Board Step-In pursuant to Section 5.02(c), the provisions set forth on Exhibit A will apply (and the terms and provisions thereof shall not be amended, changed, waived or altered (regardless of whether such action adversely affects the rights of any CD&R Holder), without the prior written consent of each CD&R Holder). Notwithstanding the foregoing and for the avoidance of doubt, subject to compliance with the express terms thereof, the rights of the CD&R Holders pursuant to Exhibit A shall not impair or otherwise be deemed to limit the rights of the holders of the Common Units set forth in the Agreement.

(e) For purposes of determining compliance with any provision of Section 6.01(c) measured by a dollar amount or by reference to Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (or a percentage thereof), in each case, for the Incurrence of Indebtedness or Liens securing Indebtedness denominated in a foreign currency, the dollar equivalent principal amount of such Indebtedness Incurred pursuant thereto shall be calculated based on the relevant currency exchange rate in effect, at the Company's option, on the date that such Indebtedness was Incurred, allocated or priced, as applicable, in the case of term Indebtedness, or first committed, in the case of revolving or deferred draw Indebtedness; provided that (x) the dollar equivalent principal amount of any such Indebtedness outstanding on the Effective Date shall be calculated based on the relevant currency exchange rate in effect on the Effective Date, (y) if such Indebtedness is Incurred to refinance other Indebtedness denominated in a foreign currency (or in a different currency from such Indebtedness so being Incurred), and such refinancing would cause the applicable provision of paragraph (c) above measured by a dollar amount or by reference to Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (or a percentage thereof), as applicable, to be exceeded if calculated at the relevant currency exchange rate in effect on the date of such refinancing, such provision of Section 6.01(c) measured by a dollar amount or by reference to Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (or a percentage thereof), as applicable, shall be deemed not to have been exceeded so long as the principal amount of such refinancing Indebtedness does not exceed (i) the outstanding or committed principal amount (whichever is higher) of such Indebtedness being refinanced plus (ii) the aggregate amount of fees, underwriting discounts, premiums and other costs and expenses (including accrued and unpaid interest) Incurred or payable in connection with such refinancing and (z) the dollar equivalent principal amount of Indebtedness denominated in a foreign currency and Incurred pursuant to the Senior Secured Credit Agreement, Senior ABL Facility or any Credit Facility shall be calculated based on the relevant currency exchange rate in effect on, at the Company's option, (A) the Effective Date, (B) any date on which any of the respective commitments under the applicable Senior Secured Credit Agreement, Senior ABL Facility or any Credit Facility shall be reallocated between or among facilities or subfacilities or thereunder, or on which such rate is otherwise calculated for any purpose thereunder, (C) the date of such Incurrence or (D) the date on which such Indebtedness is allocated or priced, as applicable. The principal amount of any Indebtedness Incurred to refinance other Indebtedness, if Incurred in a different currency from the Indebtedness being refinanced, shall be calculated based on the currency exchange rate applicable to the currencies in which such respective Indebtedness is denominated that is in effect on the date of such refinancing.

(f) The accrual of interest, the accretion of accreted value and the payment of interest and/or dividends on Indebtedness permitted pursuant to this Section 6.01 in the form of additional Indebtedness shall not be deemed to be an Incurrence of Indebtedness for purposes of this Section 6.01.

Section 2.1 Issuance of Warrants.

(a) On the Closing Date, the Company shall, in accordance with the Plan, issue an initial number of Warrants equal to 1,017,442 Warrants (each such Warrant to be subject to adjustment from time to time as described in this Warrant Agreement) in accordance with the terms of this Warrant Agreement and the Plan. On the Closing Date, the Warrant Agent shall register all such Warrants in the Warrant Register. All such Warrants issued on the Closing Date shall be dated as of the Closing Date and, subject to the terms hereof, shall be the only Warrants issued or outstanding under this Warrant Agreement as of the Closing Date.

(b) Each Warrant Certificate shall evidence the number of Warrants specified in such Warrant Certificate. Each Warrant Certificate shall initially be issued by electronic book-entry registration on the books and records maintained by the Warrant Agent until (i) a Warrantholder requests a physical Warrant Certificate to evidence its corresponding Warrants or (ii) a Global Warrant Certificate is executed by the Company and countersigned by the Warrant Agent and delivered to the Depositary pursuant to Section 2.1(d).

(c) All Warrants issued under this Warrant Agreement shall in all respects be equally and ratably entitled to their respective benefits under this Warrant Agreement, without preference, priority, or distinction on account of the actual time of the issuance and authentication thereof or any other terms of such Warrants. Each Warrant shall be, and shall remain, subject to the provisions of this Warrant Agreement until such time as such Warrant shall have been duly exercised or shall have expired or been cancelled in accordance with the terms hereof. Each Warrantholder shall be bound by, and be an express third party beneficiary of (entitled to directly enforce), all of the terms and provisions of this Warrant Agreement as fully and effectively as if such Warrantholder had signed this Warrant Agreement.

(d) On the Eligibility Date, one or more Global Warrant Certificates evidencing the Warrants shall be executed by the Company and delivered to the Warrant Agent for countersignature, and the Warrant Agent shall, upon receipt of a Company Order and at the direction of the Company set forth therein, register such certificated Warrants in the Warrant Register in substitution for (and upon cancellation of) the corresponding book-entry Warrants issued pursuant to Section 2.1(a) and countersign and deliver such Global Warrant Certificates for issuance to the Depositary, or its custodian, for crediting to the accounts of its participants for the benefit of the Warrantholders, as holders of beneficial interests in the Warrants, on the Eligibility Date, pursuant to the Applicable Procedures of the Depositary; provided that at any time prior to the Eligibility Date, any Warrantholder may elect by written notice to the Company and the Warrant Agent to not have its corresponding book-entry Warrants evidenced (and cancelled) by the issuance of Global Warrant Certificates pursuant to this Section 2.1(d).

Section 2.2 Form of Warrant. The Warrant Certificates evidencing the Warrants (a) shall be in registered form only and substantially in the form attached as Exhibit A; (b) shall be dated as of the date on which it is countersigned by the Warrant Agent or issued in book-entry registration on the books and records maintained by the Warrant Agent; (c) shall have such insertions as are appropriate or required or permitted by this Warrant Agreement; (d) may have such letters, numbers, or other marks of identification and such legends and endorsements typed, stamped, printed, lithographed, or engraved on such Warrant Certificates as the Appropriate Officers executing the same may approve (execution by the Appropriate Officers to be conclusive evidence of such approval) and as are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Warrant Agreement, the Plan, or the Confirmation Order; (e) shall bear a restrictive legend substantially similar to that set forth in Section 2.10, which legend shall refer to, among other things, the restrictions contained in this Warrant Agreement and the LLC Agreement; and (f) shall otherwise be in such form as shall be required to comply with any Law or with any rule or regulation of any securities exchange on which the Warrants may be listed.

Section 2.3 Execution and Delivery of Warrant Certificates.

(a) At any time and from time to time on or after the date of this Warrant Agreement, (i) Warrant Certificates evidencing the Warrants may be executed by the Company and delivered to the Warrant Agent for countersignature, and upon receipt of a Company Order and at the direction of the Company set forth in such Company Order, the Warrant Agent shall countersign and deliver such Warrant

Certificates to or as directed by the Company for original issuance to the respective Persons entitled to such Warrant Certificates or (ii) electronic entry registrations on the books and records maintained by the Warrant Agent evidencing the Warrants shall be delivered by the Warrant Agent upon receipt of a Company Order and at the direction of the Company set forth in such Company Order. The Warrant Agent is authorized to countersign and deliver Warrant Certificates as required by this Section 2.3 or by Section 2.1, Section 2.5, Section 2.8, Section 2.9 or Section 3.2(d) or to provide evidence from time to time to the Warrantholders whose Warrants are held in book-entry form on the books and records maintained by the Warrant Agent, as requested.

(b) To the extent certificated, the Warrant Certificates shall be executed in the name and on behalf of the Company by the Chairperson or any Co-Chairperson of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, any Vice President, Treasurer, or any Assistant Treasurer or any other individual designated as such by the Board from time to time (each, an "Appropriate Officer") and attested to by the Secretary or one of the Assistant Secretaries of the Company, either manually or by facsimile or electronic signature printed on such Warrant Certificate. The Warrant Certificates shall be countersigned by the Warrant Agent, either manually or by facsimile or electronic signature, and shall not be valid for any purpose unless so countersigned. In case any Appropriate Officer whose signature shall have been placed upon any of the Warrant Certificates shall cease to be such officer of the Company before countersignature by the Warrant Agent and issue and delivery such Warrant Certificates, such Warrant Certificates may, nevertheless, be countersigned by the Warrant Agent and issued and delivered with the same force and effect as though such person had not ceased to be such officer of the Company, and any Warrant Certificate may be signed on behalf of the Company by such person as, at the actual date of the execution of such Warrant Certificate, shall be an Appropriate Officer, although at the date of the execution of this Warrant Agreement any such person was not such officer.

Section 2.4 Global Warrant Certificates

(a) Any Global Warrant Certificate shall bear the legend substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit A (the "Global Warrant Legend").

(b) So long as a Global Warrant Certificate is registered in the name of the Depositary or its nominee, members of, or participants in, the Depositary ("Agent Members") shall have no rights under this Warrant Agreement with respect to the Warrants evidenced by such Global Warrant Certificate held on their behalf by the Depositary or its custodian, and the Depositary may be treated by the Company, the Warrant Agent, and any agent of the Company or the Warrant Agent as the absolute owner of such Warrants, and as the sole Warrantholder of such Warrant Certificate, for all purposes. Accordingly, any such Agent Member's beneficial interest in such Warrants will be shown only on, and the transfer of such interest shall be effected only through, records maintained by the Depositary or its nominee or its Agent Members, and neither the Company nor the Warrant Agent shall have any responsibility or liability with respect to such records maintained by the Depositary or its nominee or its Agent Members. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prevent the Company, the Warrant Agent, or any agent of the Company or the Warrant Agent from giving effect to any written certification, proxy, or other authorization furnished by the Depositary or impair, as between the Depositary and its Agent Members, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a holder of any security.

(c) Any holder of a beneficial interest in Warrants evidenced by a Global Warrant Certificate registered in the name of the Depositary or its nominee shall, by acceptance of such beneficial interest, agree that transfers of beneficial interests in the Warrants evidenced by such Global Warrant Certificate may be effected only through the book-entry system maintained by the Depositary as the Warrantholder of such Global Warrant Certificate (or its agent), and that ownership of a beneficial interest in Warrants evidenced thereby shall be reflected solely in such book-entry form.

(d) Transfers of a Global Warrant Certificate registered in the name of the Depositary or its nominee shall be limited to transfers in whole, and not in part, to the Depositary, its successors, and their respective nominees except as set forth in Section 2.4(e). Interests of beneficial owners in a Global Warrant Certificate registered in the name of the Depositary or its nominee shall be transferred in accordance with this Warrant Agreement (including Sections 2.4(j) and 2.5) and, to the extent not inconsistent with this Warrant Agreement, the Applicable Procedures of the Depositary.

(e) A Global Warrant Certificate registered in the name of the Depositary or its nominee shall be exchanged for Definitive Warrant Certificates only if the Depositary (i) has notified the Company that it is unwilling or unable to continue as or ceases to be a clearing agency registered under Section 17A of the Exchange Act and a successor to the Depositary registered as a clearing agency under Section 17A of the Exchange Act is not able to be appointed by the Company within 90 days or (ii) the Depositary is at any time unwilling or unable to continue as Depositary and a successor to the Depositary is not able to be appointed by the Company within 90 days. In any such event, a Global Warrant Certificate registered in the name of the Depositary or its nominee shall be surrendered to the Warrant Agent for cancellation in accordance with Section 3.9, and the Company shall execute, and the Warrant Agent shall countersign and deliver, to each beneficial owner identified by the Depositary, in exchange for such beneficial owner's beneficial interest in such Global Warrant Certificate, Warrant Certificates issued in book-entry registered form only evidencing, in the aggregate, the number of Warrants theretofore represented by such Global Warrant Certificate with respect to such beneficial owner's respective beneficial interest. Any Definitive Warrant Certificate delivered in exchange for an interest in a Global Warrant Certificate pursuant to this Section 2.4(e) shall not bear the Global Warrant Legend. Interests in any Global Warrant Certificate may not be exchanged for Definitive Warrant Certificates other than as provided in this Section 2.4(e).

(f) The Warrantholder of a Global Warrant Certificate registered in the name of the Depositary or its nominee may grant proxies and otherwise authorize any Person, including Agent Members and Persons that may hold interests through Agent Members, to take any action which a Warrantholder of a Warrant Certificate is entitled to take under this Warrant Agreement or such Global Warrant Certificate.

(g) Each Global Warrant Certificate will evidence such of the outstanding Warrants as will be specified therein and each shall provide that it evidences the aggregate number of outstanding Warrants from time to time endorsed thereon and that the aggregate number of outstanding Warrants evidenced thereby may from time to time be reduced to reflect exercises or expirations. Any endorsement of a Global Warrant Certificate to reflect the amount of any decrease in the aggregate number of outstanding Warrants evidenced thereby will be made by the Warrant Agent (i) in the case of an exercise, in accordance with the Applicable Procedures as required by Section 3.2(d) or (ii) in the case of an expiration, in accordance with Section 2.6.

(h) The Company shall initially appoint DTC to act as Depositary with respect to the Global Warrant Certificates on or prior to the Eligibility Date.

(i) Every Warrant Certificate authenticated and delivered in exchange for, or in lieu of, a Global Warrant Certificate or any portion thereof, pursuant to this Section 2.4, Section 2.5(a), or Section 2.8, shall be authenticated and delivered in the form of, and shall be, a Global Warrant Certificate, and a Global Warrant Certificate may not be exchanged for a Definitive Warrant Certificate, in each case, other than as provided in Section 2.4(e). Whenever any provision herein refers to issuance by the Company and countersignature and delivery by the Warrant Agent of a new Warrant Certificate in exchange for the portion of a surrendered Warrant Certificate that has not been exercised, in lieu of the surrender of any Global Warrant Certificate and the issuance, countersignature, and delivery of a new Global Warrant Certificate in exchange therefor, the Warrant Agent may endorse such Global Warrant Certificate to reflect a reduction in the number of Warrants evidenced thereby in the amount of Warrants so evidenced that have been so exercised.

(j) Beneficial interests in any Global Warrant Certificate may be transferred to Persons who take delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in the same Global Warrant Certificate in accordance with this Warrant Agreement and, to the extent not inconsistent with this Warrant Agreement, the Applicable Procedures.

(k) At such time as all Warrants evidenced by a particular Global Warrant Certificate have been exercised or expired in whole and not in part, such Global Warrant Certificate shall, if not in custody of the Warrant Agent, be surrendered to or retained by the Warrant Agent for cancellation in accordance with Section 3.9.

Section 2.5 Registration, Transfer, Exchange and Substitution.

(a) The Warrant Agent will maintain an office (the "Corporate Agency Office") in the United States of America, where Warrant Certificates may be surrendered for registration of Transfer or exchange in accordance with this Section 2.5 and where Warrant Certificates may be surrendered for exercise of Warrants by such Warrantholders, which office as of the Closing Date is Computershare Trust Company, N.A., 150 Royall Street, Canton, MA 02021. The Warrant Agent will give prompt written notice to all Warrantholders of any change in the location of such office.

(b) The Warrant Certificates evidencing the Warrants initially shall be issued in electronic book-entry registered form only. The Company shall cause to be kept at the office of the Warrant Agent designated for such purpose, and the Warrant Agent shall maintain, a warrant register (the "Warrant Register"). Subject to such reasonable regulations as the Warrant Agent may prescribe or as may be prescribed by Law, the Warrant Register shall provide for the registration of Warrant Certificates and any Transfers, exchanges, or substitutions of any Warrant Certificates as provided in this Warrant Agreement.

(c) Upon surrender for registration of Transfer of any Warrant Certificate at the Corporate Agency Office, and compliance by the Transferor and each Transferee with the provisions of this Warrant Agreement and the LLC Agreement, the Company shall execute, and the Warrant Agent shall countersign and deliver, in the name of the designated Transferee or Transferees, one or more new Warrant Certificates evidencing a like aggregate number of Warrants.

(d) At the option of any Warrantholder, upon payment of the applicable charges provided for under this Warrant Agreement by such Warrantholder, Warrant Certificates may be exchanged at the Corporate Agency Office for other Warrant Certificates evidencing a like aggregate number of Warrants. Whenever any Warrant Certificates are so surrendered for exchange, the Company shall execute, and the Warrant Agent shall countersign and deliver, the Warrant Certificates of the same tenor and evidencing the same aggregate number of Warrants as evidenced by the Warrant Certificates surrendered by the Warrantholder making the exchange. Every Warrant Certificate surrendered for registration of Transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Company or the Warrant Agent) be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a duly executed assignment, in the form attached to this Warrant Agreement as Exhibit B.

(e) All Warrant Certificates issued upon any registration of Transfer or exchange of, or substitution for, any Warrant Certificates shall be a valid obligation of the Company, evidencing the same obligations and entitled to the same benefits under this Warrant Agreement, as the respective Warrant surrendered for such registration of Transfer, exchange, or substitution.

(f) No service charge shall be made for any registration of Transfer or exchange of Warrant Certificates. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any stamp or other tax or other charge that may be imposed in connection with any registration of Transfer or exchange of Warrant Certificates and may subject any such Transfer to the payment of unpaid withholding taxes (if any) attributable to the Transferor Warrantholder as and to the extent provided in Section 3.10. The Warrant Agent shall forward any such sum collected by it to the Company or to such Persons as the Company shall specify by written notice.

(g) Upon request of the Company from time to time, the Warrant Agent shall deliver to the Company such reports of registered ownership of the Warrants and such records of transactions with respect to the Warrants and the Common Units as the Company may request. From time to time as the Company may request, the Warrant Agent shall also make available to the Company for inspection by the Company's agents or employees such books and records maintained by the Warrant Agent in connection with the issuance and exercise of Warrants, such inspections to occur at the Corporate Agency Office during normal business hours.

(h) The Warrant Agent shall keep copies of this Warrant Agreement and any notices given to Warrantholders under this Warrant Agreement shall be available for inspection by the Warrantholders during normal business hours at the Corporate Agency Office. The Company shall supply the Warrant Agent from time to time with such numbers of copies of this Warrant Agreement as the Warrant Agent may request.

Section 2.6 Cancellation of the Warrants. Any Warrants outstanding as of the Expiration Time shall be automatically cancelled without any further action on the part of the Warrant Agent or any other person, and all rights in respect of such Warrants under this Warrant Agreement shall cease as of such time. The Warrant Agent will cancel all Warrants surrendered for Transfer, exchange, exercise, or cancellation and dispose of them in accordance with its normal procedures. Certification of the cancellation of all cancelled Warrants shall be delivered to the Company upon written request.

Section 2.7 Reservation of Common Units. The Company shall at all times reserve and keep available a number of its authorized but unissued Common Units sufficient to permit the exercise in full of all outstanding Warrants. The Company shall provide an opinion of counsel to the Warrant Agent prior to the date hereof to set up a reserve of warrants and related Common Units. The opinion shall state that all warrants or Common Units, as applicable: (i) were offered, sold or issued as part of an offering that was registered in compliance with the Securities Act or pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and (ii) are validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

Section 2.8 Loss or Mutilation.

(a) If (i) any mutilated Warrant Certificate is surrendered to the Warrant Agent or (ii) both (A) there shall be delivered to the Company and the Warrant Agent (x) a claim by a Warrantholder as to the destruction, loss, or wrongful taking of any Warrant Certificate of such Warrantholder and a request by such Warrantholder for a new replacement Warrant Certificate, and (y) such indemnity bond as may be required by them to save each of them and any agent of either of them harmless and (B) such other reasonable requirements as may be imposed by the Company as permitted by Section 8-405 of the Uniform Commercial Code have been satisfied, then, in the absence of notice to the Company or the Warrant Agent that such Warrant Certificate has been acquired by a "protected purchaser" within the meaning of Section 8-405 of the Uniform Commercial Code, the Company shall execute and, upon its written request, the Warrant Agent shall countersign and deliver to the registered Warrantholder of the lost, wrongfully taken, destroyed, or mutilated Warrant Certificate, in exchange for or in lieu of such Warrant Certificate, a new Warrant Certificate of the same tenor and for a like aggregate number of Warrants.

(b) Upon the issuance of any new Warrant Certificate under this Section 2.8, the Company may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation to such issuance and other reasonable expenses (including the reasonable fees and expenses of the Warrant Agent and of counsel to the Company) in connection with such issuance.

(c) Every new Warrant Certificate executed and delivered pursuant to this Section 2.8 in lieu of any lost, wrongfully taken, or destroyed Warrant Certificate shall constitute an additional contractual obligation of the Company, whether or not the allegedly lost, wrongfully taken, or destroyed Warrant Certificate shall be at any time enforceable by anyone, and shall be entitled to the benefits of this Warrant Agreement equally and proportionately with any and all other Warrant Certificates duly executed and delivered under this Warrant Agreement.

(d) The provisions of this Section 2.8 are exclusive and shall preclude (to the extent lawful) all other rights or remedies with respect to the replacement of mutilated, lost, wrongfully taken, or destroyed Warrant Certificates.

Section 2.9 Restrictions on Transfer.

(a) Unless otherwise waived by the Board in its sole discretion, no Warrants shall be Transferred by any Warrantholder (regardless of the manner in which the Warrantholder initially acquired such Warrants), if:

(i) such Transfer would, if consummated, result in any violation of the Securities Act or any state securities laws or regulations, or any other applicable federal or state laws or order of any Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over the Company or any of its subsidiaries;

(ii) such Transfer would, if consummated (after taking into account the consummation of any other proposed Transfers or transfers of any of the Common Units for which a notice of any thereof has been previously delivered to the Company, but not yet consummated), result in the Company having, in the aggregate, (A) 1,950 or more holders of record (as such concept is understood for purposes of Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act), or (B) 450 or more holders of record (as such concept is understood for purposes of Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act) that are not Accredited Investors, of either (x) the Warrants or (y) the Common Units (assuming, for purposes of this clause (y), that all issued and outstanding Convertible Securities (including all issued and outstanding Warrants) were exercised, exchanged, or converted at the time of such Transfer), unless at the time of such Transfer the Company is already subject to the reporting obligations under Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act;

(iii) such Transfer would, if consummated (after taking into account the consummation of any other proposed Transfers or transfers of any of the Common Units for which a notice of any thereof has been previously delivered to the Company, but not yet consummated), require the Company to register the Warrants, the Common Units, or any other equity Securities of the Company under the Exchange Act (as a result of the number of holders of the Warrants, the Common Units, or such other equity Securities or otherwise), unless, at the time of such Transfer, the Company is already subject to the reporting obligations under Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act;

(iv) such Transfer would, in the sole judgment of the Board, cause the Company to be required to register as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act; or

(v) such Transfer is to any Competitor.

(b) In addition to the restrictions set forth in Section 2.9(a), no Warrants shall be Transferred by any Warrantholder unless the Warrant Certificates representing such Warrants bear legends as provided in Section 2.10, for so long as such legends are applicable.

(c) Unless otherwise waived by the Company, any Warrantholder proposing to effect a Transfer of Warrants must submit to the Company a written notice of such Transfer (a "Transfer Notice"). A Transfer Notice shall be delivered to the Company and to the Warrant Agent, in each case, in accordance with Section 6.13. A Transfer Notice shall include or be accompanied by (A) the name, address, e-mail address, and telephone number of the Transferor and the Transferee, (B) certifications from the Transferor and Transferee that such proposed Transfer would be in accordance with the provisions of this Warrant Agreement, including the provisions of Section 2.9(a), (C) the number of Warrants proposed to be Transferred to, and acquired by, the Transferee, (D) the date on which the Transfer is proposed to be effective, (E) a duly executed assignment, in the form attached to this Warrant Agreement as Exhibit B, together with the physical Warrant Certificates (if any) representing the Warrants proposed to be Transferred, (F) an IRS Form W-9 or appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable (or successor forms), duly completed and executed by the Transferee to the extent such Transferee has not already delivered to the Company such a duly completed and executed tax form that is not obsolete, inaccurate, or expired, and (G) unless the Warrants subject to such Transfer are represented by a Global Warrant Certificate, a request that the Company instruct the Warrant Agent to register the Transfer in the Warrant Register. A party requesting transfer of Warrants must provide any evidence of authority that may be reasonably requested by the Warrant Agent, including but not limited to, a signature guarantee from an eligible guarantor institution participating in a signature guarantee program approved by the Securities Transfer Association. So long as the other provisions of this Section 2.9 are satisfied and complied with, within five Business Days after a Transfer Notice is delivered pursuant to this Section 2.9 (but in no event earlier than the proposed effective date of Transfer specified in the Transfer Notice), (i) the Company shall instruct and use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Warrant Agent to register the Transfer of such Warrants in the Warrant Register or (ii) if the Warrants subject to such Transfer are represented by a Global Warrant Certificate, the Warrant Agent shall, if applicable, register such Transfer in accordance with Applicable Procedures unless, in either case, (I) prior to the expiration of such five Business Day period, the Company reasonably requests information demonstrating that the Transfer complies with this Section 2.9 (including information demonstrating that the Transferee is not a Competitor) or (II) the Transferor, by written notice to the Company, withdraws the related Transfer Notice prior to registration of the Transfer; provided that if the Company does not take any action pursuant clause (i) within such five Business Day period in the absence of a request for further information pursuant to clause (I) or a withdrawal pursuant to clause (II), the Company shall be deemed to have taken the applicable action pursuant to clause (i) at the end of such five-Business Day period. If any such request for information is made, the Company shall (x) instruct and use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Warrant Agent to register the Transfer in the Warrant Register or (y) otherwise consent in the case of Warrants represented by a Global Warrant Certificate, in each case, no later than five Business Days after the Company receives such information (but in no event earlier than the proposed effective date of Transfer specified in the Transfer Notice), unless the Company determines during any such five-Business Day period that the Transfer is not permitted pursuant to the terms of this Section 2.9, in which case the Company shall promptly inform the Transferor of such determination; provided that if the Company does not take any action pursuant clause (x) or (y) within such five-Business Day period, the Company shall be deemed to have taken the applicable action pursuant to clause (x) or (y) at the end of such five-Business Day period.

(d) Upon the closing of each Transfer that is permitted by this Warrant Agreement, (i) such Transferee shall be deemed to be a Warrantholder for purposes of this Warrant Agreement, (ii) such Transferee shall be entitled to the rights and subject to the obligations of a Warrantholder under this Warrant Agreement with respect to the Transferred Warrants, and (iii) the Company shall instruct and use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Warrant Agent to register the Transfer in the Warrant Register.

(e) The Warrant Agent shall not record in the Warrant Register the Transfer of any Warrants except for Transfers that are consummated in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Warrant Agreement. Any purported Transfer of Warrants in violation of such terms and provisions shall be void ab initio and shall not be recognized by the Company or the Warrant Agent.

(f) If any Warrantholder is an Entity that has no substantial assets other than Warrants or indebtedness of, or securities in, the Company or any of its subsidiaries, then such Warrantholder agrees that no shares of capital stock of, or other equity interests in, such Warrantholder may be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed to any Person other than in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Section 2.9 as if such capital stock or other equity interests were Warrants; provided that a Transfer of capital stock or other equity interests in such Warrantholder to any Affiliate of such Warrantholder (other than to any Affiliate of such Warrantholder that is a portfolio company of such Warrantholder or any of its other Affiliates, other than any portfolio company entity formed solely for purposes of holding a direct or indirect interest in the Company unless such portfolio company entity was formed to engage in a "fund to fund" transaction) shall not be subject to this Section 2.9(f).

(g) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company may, in its sole discretion, waive or modify the application of any term or provision of a procedural nature set forth herein to any Transfer so long as such waiver or modification (i) is for administrative convenience purposes to facilitate the consummation of such Transfer, (ii) does not adversely affect the rights of any of the Warrantholders, (iii) does not subject any of the Warrantholders to any additional obligations or liabilities, and (iv) is approved by the Transferor and the ultimate Transferee of such Transfer (which approval may be provided by e-mail to the Company in accordance with Section 6.13). The right of the Company to make any such waiver or modification need not be uniform among Transfers and may be made by it selectively among any Transfers (whether or not such Transfers are similar in nature). Any such waiver or modification shall not require any consents or approvals of the Warrant Agent or the Warrantholders under Section 5.2.

Section 2.10 Restrictive Legend. Each Warrant Certificate and the account of each Warrantholder on the Warrant Register shall be marked with a legend in the following or a substantially comparable form:

ARTICLE 3
EXERCISE AND SETTLEMENT OF WARRANTS

Section 3.1 Right to Acquire Common Units Upon Exercise. Subject to the provisions of the applicable Warrant Certificate and of this Warrant Agreement, when countersigned by the Warrant Agent, each Warrant Certificate shall entitle the applicable Warrantholder to acquire from the Company, for each Warrant evidenced by such Warrant Certificate, one Common Unit at the applicable Exercise Price, subject to adjustment as provided in this Warrant Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Warrants are issued by book-entry registration on the books and records maintained by the Warrant Agent and not represented by physical certificates pursuant to Section 2.1(b), any applicable Warrantholder's rights with respect to such uncertificated Warrant Certificates shall not be subject to such countersignature by the Warrant Agent. The Exercise Price, and the number of Common Units obtainable upon exercise of each Warrant, shall be adjusted from time to time as required by Article 4.

Section 3.2 Exercise of Warrants.

(a) Subject to and upon compliance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Warrant Agreement, a Warrantholder may exercise all or any whole number portion of the Warrants held by such Warrantholder on any Business Day from and after the date of issuance of such Warrant until the Expiration Time. The Warrants, to the extent not exercised prior thereto, shall automatically expire, terminate, and become void as of the Expiration Time. No further action of any Person (including by, or on behalf of, any Warrantholder, the Company, or the Warrant Agent) shall be required to effectuate the expiration of Warrants pursuant to this Section 3.2(a).

(b) Except in the case of an automatic exercise pursuant to Section 3.2(c) or Section 4.13, to exercise a Warrant, the Warrantholder thereof must:

(i) (x) if the Warrants are represented by physical certificates, surrender the Warrant Certificate evidencing such Warrants to the Warrant Agent at the Corporate Agency Office or (y) in the case of a Global Warrant Certificate, deliver such Warrants to the Warrant Agent by book-entry transfer through the facilities of the Depositary in accordance with the Applicable Procedures and otherwise comply with this Warrant Agreement and the Applicable Procedures in respect of the exercise of such Warrants;

(ii) deliver to the Warrant Agent and the Company a duly completed and executed Exercise Notice as to the Warrantholder's election to exercise the number of the Warrants specified therein, duly executed by such Warrantholder;

(iii) pay to the Warrant Agent (x) an amount equal to the Exercise Price for each Common Unit receivable upon exercise of each Warrant to be exercised and (y) those applicable taxes and charges provided for in Section 3.8 and Section 3.10, prior to, or concurrently with, the exercise of such Warrant, in each case of (x) and (y), by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account specified in writing by the Company in the Exercise Notice or such other account as the Company shall have given notice to the Warrant Agent and such Warrantholder in accordance with Section 6.13; and

(iv) if such Warrantholder is not already a member under the LLC Agreement, deliver to the Warrant Agent and the Company a duly completed and executed Joinder, pursuant to which such Warrantholder agrees to be bound by the LLC Agreement and acknowledges that all Common Units issued upon such exercise of such Warrants shall be subject to the LLC Agreement, to the Company (with a copy concurrently delivered to the Warrant Agent) prior to or concurrently with delivering an Exercise Notice in accordance with Section 3.2(b)(ii). Without limiting the foregoing, the exercise of any Warrant by any Warrantholder shall be deemed to be such Warrantholder's agreement to be bound, and shall cause the Warrantholder thereof to become automatically bound, by the LLC Agreement.

(c) (i) Subject to clause (c)(ii) hereof and Section 4.13, immediately prior to the occurrence of a Change of Control Transaction, the closing of a SPAC Transaction, or the pricing of any Initial Public Offering (other than a SPAC Transaction), each Warrantholder shall, without further action on the part of any Warrantholder, be deemed to have exercised all of its Warrants on a "cashless" basis, with such number of Common Units deliverable upon such exercise determined as follows:

$$X = \frac{(A - B) * C}{A}$$

X = the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise pursuant to this Section 3.2(c).

A = (i) in the case of a Change of Control Transaction, the Fair Market Value of the Securities, cash, or other assets payable per Common Unit in connection with the Change of Control Transaction and (ii) in the case of (A) an Initial Public Offering under clause (a) of the definition thereof, the per security offering price to the public in the Initial Public Offering, (B) an Initial Public Offering under clause (b) of the definition thereof, the reference price for such Initial Public Offering, and (C) an Initial Public Offering under clause (c) of the definition thereof, the Fair Market Value of the Securities, cash, or other assets payable per Common Unit in such SPAC Transaction.

B = the applicable Exercise Price of such Warrant.

C = the number of Common Units as to which the applicable Warrants are exercisable (prior to payment of the applicable Exercise Price).

(ii) If "A" in the calculation above is less than or equal to the applicable Exercise Price for such Warrant (such Warrant, an "Out-of-the-Money Warrant", and if "A" in the calculation above is greater than the applicable Exercise Price for such Warrant, such Warrant, an "In-the-Money Warrant"), then, subject to Section 4.13, each such Warrant shall not be exercised as contemplated by this Section 3.2(c) and shall be automatically cancelled upon consummation of the Change of Control Transaction or Initial Public Offering for no consideration. In such event, neither the Warrantholder nor any other Person shall have any rights under the Warrants or this Warrant Agreement unless any Warrant has been duly exercised prior to the consummation of such Change of Control Transaction or Initial Public Offering. The deemed exercise of any Warrant by any Warrantholder pursuant to this Section 3.2(c) shall be deemed to be such Warrantholder's agreement to be bound, and shall cause the Warrantholder thereof to become automatically bound, by the LLC Agreement if such Warrantholder is not already a member under the LLC Agreement (including, in the case of an Alternative Monetization, such Warrantholder with respect to its In-the-Money Warrants shall be subject to the same obligations as a holder of Common Units under the LLC Agreement, including Sections 7.2 and 7.3 thereof). Any deemed exercise of any Warrant pursuant to this Section 3.2(c) in connection with the pricing of an Initial Public Offering (other than direct listing or a SPAC Transaction) shall be expressly conditioned on the closing of such Initial Public Offering.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary herein, if prior to any Change of Control Transaction, (A) a Warrantholder holds In-the-Money Warrants, (B) such Warrantholder requests that its In-the-Money Warrants be sold or exchanged (the "Alternative Monetization") in such Change of Control Transaction (in lieu of the sale or exchange of the Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of such Warrants), and (C) the Alternative Monetization would not adversely affect the applicable tax or non-tax consequences for the Company or the holders of Common Units in connection with such Change of Control Transaction or otherwise adversely affect the ability to consummate such Change of Control Transaction in any manner (in each case, as determined by the Board in good faith), then the Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause each Warrant held by such Warrantholder to be sold or exchanged in such Change of Control Transaction for an amount equal to (x) the excess of (1) the Fair Market Value of the Securities, cash, or other assets payable per Common Unit in connection with the Change of Control Transaction over (2) the Exercise Price of such Warrant, multiplied by (y) the number of Common Units receivable upon exercise of such Warrant; provided that the failure of the Company counterparty in such Change of Control Transaction to agree to an Alternative Monetization shall not hinder or otherwise impede the ability of the Company and the other parties in such Change of Control Transaction to consummate such transaction.

(d) If fewer than all of the Warrants represented by a Warrant Certificate are exercised (which shall in no event be applicable in the event of an automatic exercise pursuant to Section 3.2(c) or Section 4.13), (i) in the case of an exercise of Warrants evidenced by a Global Warrant Certificate, the Warrant Agent shall endorse the "Schedule of Decreases of Warrants" attached to such Global Warrant Certificate to reflect the Warrants being exercised and (ii) in the case of any other exercise of Warrants, such Warrant Certificate shall be surrendered and a new Warrant Certificate of the same tenor and for the number of Warrants which were not exercised shall be executed by the Company. The Warrant Agent shall countersign the new Warrant Certificate, registered in such name or names, subject to the provisions of this Warrant Agreement regarding registration of Transfer and payment of governmental charges in respect of such registration of Transfer, as may be directed in writing by the Warrantholder, and shall deliver the new Warrant Certificate to the Person or Persons in whose name such new Warrant Certificate is so registered. Whenever required by the Warrant Agent, the Company will supply the Warrant Agent with Warrant Certificates duly executed on behalf of the Company for such purpose.

(e) The date on which all of the requirements for exercise set forth in this Section 3.2 in respect of a Warrant have been satisfied is the "Exercise Date" with respect to such Warrant.

(f) Subject to Section 3.2(h), any exercise of a Warrant pursuant to the terms of this Warrant Agreement shall be irrevocable and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

(g) All funds administered by Computershare under this Warrant Agreement that are to be distributed or applied by Computershare in the performance of services (the "Funds") shall be administered by Computershare as agent for the Company and deposited in one or more bank accounts to be maintained by Computershare in its name as agent for the Company. Until paid pursuant to this Warrant Agreement, Computershare may administer or invest the Funds through such accounts in: (a) funds backed by obligations of, or guaranteed by, the United States of America; (b) debt or commercial paper obligations rated A-1 or P-1 or better by S&P Global Inc. ("S&P") or Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's"), respectively; (c) Government and Treasury backed AAA-rated Fixed NAV money market funds that comply with Rule 2a-7 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended; or (d) short term certificates of deposit, bank repurchase agreements, and bank accounts with commercial banks with Tier 1 capital exceeding $1 billion, or with an investment grade rating by S&P (LT Local Issuer Credit Rating), Moody's (Long Term Rating) and Fitch Ratings, Inc. (LT Issuer Default Rating) (each as reported by Bloomberg Finance L.P). Computershare shall have no responsibility or liability for any diminution of the Funds that may result from any deposit or investment made by Computershare in accordance with this paragraph, including any losses resulting from a default by any bank, financial institution or other third party. Computershare may from time to time receive interest, dividends, or other earnings in connection with such deposits or investments. Computershare shall not be obligated to pay such interest, dividends or earnings to the Company, any Warrantholder or any other party.

(h) Prior to the delivery of any Common Units upon exercise of a Warrant, the Company shall be obligated to comply with all applicable Laws which require action to be taken by the Company in connection with such delivery. Upon the reasonable advance request of an Exercising Owner (other than in the case of an automatic exercise of a Warrant pursuant to Section 3.2(c) or Section 4.13), at the sole cost and expense of such Exercising Owner, the Company shall reasonably assist and reasonably cooperate with such Exercising Owner that is required to make any governmental filings or obtain any governmental approvals prior to or in connection with receipt of Common Units upon any exercise of a Warrant; provided that, if applicable, the Expiration Time shall be extended with respect to exercises for which an exercise notice has been provided prior to the stated Expiration Time in order to allow a Warrantholder to receive such governmental approvals; provided, further, that such extension shall not exceed 120 days after the stated Expiration Time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, except to the extent required by Law, in no event shall any such filing or approval delay any Change of Control Transaction, the closing of a SPAC Transaction, or the pricing of any Initial Public Offering (other than a SPAC Transaction). The Company shall provide the Warrant Agent, upon the Warrant Agent's reasonable request, with evidence of compliance with this Section 3.2(h), which the Warrant Agent shall be entitled to rely upon.

(i) The Company shall calculate and transmit to the Warrant Agent, and the Warrant Agent shall have no obligation under this Warrant Agreement to make any calculations with regards to Warrants exercised on a "cashless" basis. The number of Common Units to be issued on such exercise will be determined by the Company (with written notice thereof to the Warrant Agent) using the formula set forth in Section 3.2(c), and the Warrant Agent shall have no duty or obligation to investigate or confirm whether the Company's determination of the number of Common Units to be issued on such exercise pursuant to this Section 3.2 is accurate or correct.

(j) The Warrant Agent shall forward funds received for Warrant exercises in a given month by the fifth Business Day of the following month by wire transfer to an account designated by the Company.

(k) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Common Units are to be issued in a name other than the record holder of the applicable Warrant, such record holder shall be deemed to have requested a Transfer of such Warrant prior to such exercise, which Transfer must comply with the provisions of this Warrant Agreement and the LLC Agreement.

(l) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the number of Common Units for which Warrants, together with any other convertible instrument held by Barclays (as defined in the LLC Agreement and referred to herein as the "Regulated Holder"), may be exercised will be limited such that the Regulated Holder (including its direct or indirect transferees, other than in a transfer permitted under 12 C.F.R. 225.9(a)(3) (e.g., widespread distribution) ("Permitted BHCA Transfer") will at no time have the right to acquire Common Units of the Company that, together with other Units held by the Regulated Holder (including its direct or indirect transferees, other than in a Permitted BHCA Transfer), would cause the Regulated Holder to own or control, or to be deemed to own or control, greater than 4.99% of any class of voting securities of the Company (as determined under the U.S. Bank Holding Company Act and 12 C.F.R. Part 225 (Subpart A) (the "BHCA") or one-third or more of the total equity of the Company. Any Common Units received by the Regulated Holder constituting (together with any other Units held by such Regulated Holder, including its direct or indirect transferees, other than in a Permitted BHCA Transfer) in excess of 4.99% of any class of voting securities of the Company shall be non-voting Common Units that shall not confer onto their holders any voting rights in the Company, except as expressly provided in the LLC Agreement relating to matters for which holders of non-voting securities are permitted to have a vote pursuant to 12 CFR 225.2(q), and shall remain non-voting Common Units except as may be provided in the LLC Agreement relating to Permitted BHCA Transfers and anti-dilution conversions permitted under 12 CFR 225.9(a)(5), but shall be identical to voting Common Units in all other respects. No Warrants (or any other convertible instruments) held by the Regulated Holder convertible into more than 4.99% of any class of voting securities of the Company may be transferred by the Regulated Holder unless such transfer is made in a Permitted BHCA Transfer.

Section 3.3 Delivery of Common Units.

(a) In connection with the exercise of Warrants, the Warrant Agent shall:

(i) examine all Exercise Notices and all other documents delivered to it to ascertain whether, on their face, such Exercise Notices and any such other documents have been executed and completed in accordance with their terms;

(ii) where an Exercise Notice or other document appears on its face to have been improperly completed or executed or some other irregularity in connection with the exercise of the Warrant exists, endeavor to inform the appropriate parties (including the Person submitting such instrument) of the need for fulfillment of all requirements, specifying those requirements which appear to be unfulfilled;

(iii) inform the Company of, and cooperate with and assist the Company in resolving, any reconciliation problems between the Exercise Notices received and delivery of Warrants to the Warrant Agent's account;

(iv) advise the Company with respect to an exercise, no later than three Business Days following the satisfaction of each of the applicable procedures for exercise set forth in Section 3.2(b), of (x) the receipt of such Exercise Notice and the number of Warrants exercised in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Warrant Agreement, (y) the number of Common Units to be delivered by the Company, and (z) such other information as the Company shall reasonably require;

(v) forward funds received for Warrant exercises in a given month by the fifth Business Day of the following month by wire transfer to an account designated by the Company;

(vi) provide to the Company, upon the Company's request, the number of Warrants previously exercised, the number of Common Units issued in connection with such exercises, and the number of remaining outstanding Warrants; and

(vii) provide to the Company, upon the Company's request, any Exercise Notices delivered pursuant to Section 3.2(b) and any documents delivered pursuant to Section 3.2(b) or Section 3.3(b).

(b) With respect to each properly exercised Warrant in accordance with this Warrant Agreement (other than in the case of an automatic exercise of a Warrant pursuant to Section 3.2(c) or Section 4.13), within ten Business Days after the applicable Exercise Date, (i) in the case of an exercise of Warrants evidenced by a Global Warrant Certificate, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered, in accordance with the Applicable Procedures, Common Units in book-entry form to be so held through the facilities of DTC equal to such amount, or if the Common Units may not then be held in book-entry form through the facilities of DTC, either, at the Warrantholder's option, (x) duly executed certificates representing Common Units equal to such amount or (y) Common Units equal to such amount issued in electronic book-entry registered form only, and (ii) in the case of any other exercise of Warrants, the Company shall issue, in book-entry form, the Common Units equal to such amount, in each case of clause (i) and (ii), due in connection with such exercise for the benefit and in the name of the Person designated by the Warrantholder submitting the applicable Exercise Notice. The Person on whose behalf and in whose name any Common Units are so registered shall for all purposes be deemed to have become the holder of record of such Common Units as of the Close of Business on the applicable Exercise Date. The Company covenants that all Common Units which may be issued upon exercise of Warrants will, at the time of issuance, be, upon payment of the Exercise Price and issuance of such Common Units, fully paid and nonassessable, free of preemptive rights and (except as specified in Section 3.8 or in the LLC Agreement) free from all taxes, liens, charges, and security interests (other than those created by the applicable Warrantholder or Person on whose behalf or in whose name such Common Units are issued) with respect to the issuance of such Warrants. Notwithstanding any provision in this Warrant Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall not be required to register Warrant Units in the name of any person who acquired any Warrant or any Warrant Units otherwise than in accordance with the terms of this Warrant Agreement, the Warrant, and the LLC Agreement.

(c) Promptly after the Warrant Agent has taken the action required by this Section 3.3 (or at such later time as may be mutually agreeable to the Company and the Warrant Agent), the Warrant Agent shall account to the Company with respect to the consummation of any exercise of any Warrants.

(i) In the event of a cash exercise, the Company hereby instructs the Warrant Agent to record cost basis for newly issued shares at the time of such exercise in accordance with instructions by the Company.

(ii) In the event of a "cashless" exercise, the Company shall provide the cost basis for shares issued pursuant to a cashless exercise at the time the Company provides the calculations of such "cashless" exercise to the Warrant Agent pursuant to Section 3.2 hereof.

Section 3.4 No Fractional Common Units to Be Issued.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Warrant Agreement, the Company shall not be required to issue any fraction of a Common Unit upon exercise of any Warrants.

(b) If any fraction of a Common Unit would be issuable on the exercise of any Warrants if not for the provisions of this Section 3.4, the Company shall either, at its option, (i) make a cash payment in lieu of issuing such fractional Common Unit equal to the Fair Market Value of one Common Unit, as determined on the date the Warrant is presented for exercise, multiplied by such fraction, rounded to the nearest whole cent, subject to any restrictions or limitations in the Company's financing or other contractual arrangements (a "Fractional Payment") or (ii) round such fractional Common Unit up to the nearest whole number of Common Units. All Warrants exercised by a Warrantholder on the same Exercise Date shall be aggregated for purposes of determining the number of Common Units to be delivered pursuant to Section 3.3(b).

(c) By its acceptance of an interest in a Warrant, each Warrantholder expressly waives its right to any fraction of a Common Unit upon its exercise of such Warrant.

(d) The Company shall provide to Computershare an initial funding of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for the purpose of issuing cash in lieu of fractional shares. From time to time thereafter, Computershare may request additional funding to cover Fractional Payments. The Warrant Agent shall have no obligation to make Fractional Payments unless the Company shall have provided the necessary funds to pay in full all amounts due and payable with respect thereto.

Section 3.5 Acquisition of Warrants by Company. The Company shall have the right, except as limited by Law, to purchase or otherwise to acquire one or more Warrants at such times, in such manner, and for such consideration as agreed by the Company and the applicable Warrantholder. A Transfer of Warrants to the Company shall not be subject to the requirements of Section 2.9.

Section 3.6 Validity of Exercise. All questions as to the validity, form, and sufficiency (including time of receipt) of a Warrant exercise shall be determined by the Company in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this Warrant Agreement and the Warrants, which determination, absent manifest error, shall be final and binding with respect to the Warrant Agent. The Company reserves the right to reject any and all Exercise Notices not in proper form or duly executed by the Person in whose name the Warrants are registered as the record holder thereof, unless such deemed Transfer complies with the terms of this Warrant Agreement and the LLC Agreement. The Company shall give prompt notice to the Warrant Agent and the applicable Warrantholders of any such determination. The Warrant Agent shall incur no liability for or in respect of (and except to the extent such liability arises from the Warrant Agent's fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, or willful misconduct, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final non-appealable judgment) and shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company for acting or refraining from acting upon, or as a result of, a determination made by the Company pursuant to this Section 3.6. The Warrant Agent shall not be under any duty or responsibility to any Warrantholder or under any section of this Warrant Agreement to make or cause to be made any adjustment in the Exercise Price or in the number of Warrant Units any Warrant is exercisable for (except as instructed in writing by the Company), or to determine whether any facts exist that may require any such adjustments, or with respect to the nature or extent of or method employed in making any such adjustments when made. The Company reserves the absolute right to waive any of the conditions to the exercise of Warrants or defects in Exercise Notices with regard to any particular exercise of Warrants.

Section 3.7 Certain Calculations.

(a) Other than with respect to certain calculations relating to automatic exercises of Warrants pursuant to Section 3.2(c) (as described in the penultimate sentence of this Section 3.7(a)), the Warrant Agent shall be responsible for performing all calculations required in connection with the exercise and settlement of the Warrants as described in this Article 3. In connection with any such calculations, the Warrant Agent shall provide prompt written notice to the Company, in accordance with Section 3.3(a)(iv), of the number of Common Units deliverable upon exercise and settlement of Warrants. The Company shall be responsible for the calculation of "A" described in Section 3.2(c) in connection with any automatic exercise of a Warrant pursuant to Section 3.2(c) and shall provide written notification to the Warrant Agent of the number of Common Units to be issued in settlement of any such automatic exercise. The Warrant Agent shall not be responsible for performing the calculations set forth in Article 4.

(b) The Warrant Agent shall not be accountable with respect to the validity or value of any Common Units that may at any time be issued or delivered upon the exercise of any Warrant, and it makes no representation with respect to the validity or value of any Common Units. The Warrant Agent shall not be responsible, to the extent not arising from the Warrant Agent's fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final non-appealable judgment), for any failure of the Company to issue, transfer, or deliver any Common Units, or to comply materially with any of the covenants of the Company contained in this Article 3 of this Warrant Agreement.

Section 3.8 Charges, Taxes, and Expenses. Issuance of Warrant Units shall be made without charge for any documentary, stamp, or similar issue or transfer tax or other incidental expense in respect of the issuance of such Warrant Units, all of which taxes and expenses shall be paid by the Company (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, any income, withholding, or similar taxes). Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither the Company nor the Warrant Agent shall be required (a) to pay any tax that may be payable in respect of a Transfer event, including the issuance and delivery of Warrant Units in a name other than the name of the Warrantholder in which the Warrants are registered, or (b) to effect a Transfer, including by issuing or delivering Warrant Units, in the name other than that in which the Warrants were registered unless and until the Persons requesting the issuance or delivery of such Warrant Units or other similar Transfer shall have paid to the Company the amount of such tax or shall have reasonably demonstrated that such tax has been paid.

Section 3.9 Cancellation of Warrant Certificates. Any Warrant Certificate surrendered for exercise shall, if surrendered to the Company, be delivered to the Warrant Agent. All Warrant Certificates surrendered or delivered to or received by the Warrant Agent for cancellation pursuant to this Section 3.9 shall be as soon as commercially practicable cancelled by the Warrant Agent and shall not be reissued by the Company. The Warrant Agent shall destroy any such cancelled Warrant Certificates and deliver its certificate of destruction to the Company, unless the Company shall otherwise direct.

Section 3.10 Withholding and Reporting Requirements. The Company shall be permitted to comply with all applicable tax withholding and reporting requirements imposed by any Governmental Authority with respect to the Warrants and this Warrant Agreement, and all distributions, dividends, or other payments requiring withholding under applicable Law, including, as applicable, deemed distributions or dividends pursuant to the Warrants and any payment of cash in lieu of Common Units payable in connection with the exercise of a Warrant, shall be subject to applicable withholding and reporting requirements. Notwithstanding any provision hereof to the contrary, each of the Company and the Warrant Agent shall be authorized to, at their discretion, (a) take any actions that may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to comply with such withholding and reporting requirements, (b) apply any cash amount otherwise deliverable to a Warrantholder (whether pursuant to this Warrant Agreement or otherwise) to pay (or, in the case of the Company, reimburse the Company for) withholding taxes attributable to such Warrantholder, (c) liquidate a portion of any non-cash amount (including Common Units) otherwise deliverable to a Warrantholder (whether pursuant to this Warrant Agreement or otherwise) to generate sufficient funds to pay (or, in the case of the Company, reimburse the Company for) withholding taxes attributable to such Warrantholder, (d) require reimbursement from any Warrantholder to the extent any withholding is required in respect of such Warrantholder in the absence of any cash or property described in clauses (b) or (c), or (e) establish any other mechanisms it believes are reasonably necessary and appropriate, including requiring Warrantholders to (x) submit appropriate tax and withholding certifications (such as Internal Revenue Service Forms W-9 or the appropriate Internal Revenue Service Forms W-8, as applicable) or any other documentation reasonably requested to comply with any withholding under applicable Law or (y) promptly pay to the Company in cash any withholding tax amount which is or was required to be paid under applicable Law with respect to such Warrantholder as a condition of receiving the benefit of any adjustment as provided in this Warrant Agreement. Any amounts that are so withheld and paid to the appropriate Governmental Authority shall be treated as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such withholding was made.

ADJUSTMENTS

Section 4.1 Adjustments and Other Rights. The Exercise Price of the Warrants and the number of Common Units into which each Warrant is to be exercisable pursuant to Article 3 of this Warrant Agreement of each Warrant shall be subject to adjustment from time to time in accordance with this Article 4. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) no single event shall be subject to adjustment under more than one subsection of this Article 4 so as to result in duplication and (ii) if any single event would otherwise require adjustment of the Exercise Price or the number of Common Units into which each Warrant is to be convertible pursuant to more than one such subsection, the adjustment that provides the highest value relative to the rights and interests of each Warrantholder shall be made.

Section 4.2 Common Units Issued at Less Than the Fair Market Value.

(a) If the Company issues or sells any Common Units or Convertible Securities (other than pursuant to a transaction to which Section 4.5 applies) to the CD&R Member or any of its Affiliates for no consideration or for consideration per Common Unit less than 98% of the Fair Market Value thereof, then:

(i) the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to each such issuance or sale will immediately be reduced to the price determined by multiplying the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such issuance or sale by a fraction, (x) the numerator of which shall be the sum of (1) the product obtained by multiplying the number of Common Units outstanding immediately prior to such issuance or sale by the Fair Market Value of a Common Unit immediately prior to such issuance or sale, plus (2) the aggregate consideration, if any, received by the Company for the total number of such additional Common Units or Convertible Securities so issued or sold, and (y) the denominator of which shall be the product obtained by multiplying (1) the number of Common Units outstanding immediately after such issuance or sale by (2) the Fair Market Value of a Common Unit immediately prior to such issuance or sale; and

(ii) the number of Common Units issuable upon the exercise of a Warrant shall be increased to the number obtained by dividing (x) the product of (1) the number of Common Units issuable upon the exercise of such Warrant immediately prior to such adjustment and (2) the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to the issuance or sale giving rise to this adjustment, by (y) the new Exercise Price determined in accordance with Section 4.2(a)(i). For the avoidance of doubt, no increase in the Exercise Price or reduction in the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant shall be made pursuant to this Section 4.2 or, if and to the extent applicable, any other provision of this Article 4 (except as expressly specified in Section 4.4 as a result of a transaction described in clause (iii) thereof).

(b) For the purposes of any adjustment of the Exercise Price and the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant pursuant to this Section 4.2, the following provisions shall be applicable:

(i) in the case of the issuance or sale of Common Units or Convertible Securities for cash, the amount of the consideration received by the Company shall be deemed to be the amount of the gross cash proceeds received by the Company for such Securities before deducting therefrom any discounts or commissions allowed, paid, or incurred by the Company for any underwriting or otherwise in connection with the issuance and sale thereof.

(ii) in the case of the issuance or sale of Common Units or Convertible Securities (other than upon the conversion of shares of capital stock or other Securities of the Company) for consideration in whole or in part other than cash, including Securities acquired in exchange therefor (other than Securities by their terms so exchangeable), the consideration other than cash shall be deemed to be the Fair Market Value thereof, before deducting therefrom any discounts or commissions allowed, paid, or incurred by the Company for any underwriting or otherwise in connection with the issuance and sale thereof.

(iii) in the case of the issuance of Convertible Securities (whether or not at the time so convertible or exchangeable):

(A) the aggregate maximum number of Common Units deliverable upon exercise of such Convertible Securities shall be deemed to have been issued at the time such Convertible Securities are issued and for consideration equal to the consideration (determined in the manner provided in this Section 4.2), if any, received by the Company upon the issuance or sale of such Convertible Securities, plus the minimum purchase price provided in such Convertible Securities for the Common Units covered thereby;

(B) the aggregate maximum number of Common Units deliverable upon conversion of or in exchange for any such Convertible Securities shall be deemed to have been issued at the time such Convertible Securities were issued and for a consideration equal to the consideration (determined as provided in this Section 4.2), if any, received by the Company upon the issuance or sale of such Convertible Securities (excluding any cash received on account of accrued interest or accrued dividends), plus the additional consideration (in each case, determined in the manner provided in this Section 4.2), if any, to be received by the Company upon the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities;

(C) if the Exercise Price and the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant shall have been duly adjusted in accordance with the terms of this Warrant Agreement upon the issuance or sale of any Convertible Securities, no further adjustment of the Exercise Price or the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant shall be made for the actual issuance of Convertible Securities or Common Units upon the exercise, conversion, or exchange thereof; and

(D) upon the expiration or termination of any unexercised, unconverted, or unexchanged Convertible Securities that resulted in an adjustment to the Exercise Price or the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant pursuant to the terms of this Section 4.2, the Exercise Price and such number of Common Units then in effect shall be readjusted to such Exercise Price and number of Common Units that would then be in effect if such Convertible Securities had never been issued.

Section 4.3 Repurchases or Redemptions at Greater Than Fair Market Value. If the Company repurchases or redeems any Common Units or Convertible Securities (other than Common Units or Convertible Securities (i) repurchased or redeemed from Management Holders in an aggregate amount not to exceed an amount equal to (x) 125% of the greater of $20.0 million and 5.0% of Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (as defined in the LLC Agreement) of the Company, plus (y) the Net Cash Proceeds (as defined in the LLC Agreement) received by the Company on or since the Closing Date from, or as a capital contribution from, the issuance or sale to Management Investors (as defined in the LLC Agreement) of debt or equity securities of the Company (including any options, warrants, or other rights in respect thereof), plus (C) the cash proceeds of key man life insurance policies received by the Company or any Subsidiary thereof on or since the Closing Date, and (ii) issued pursuant to any stock option, warrant, stock purchase plan, agreement or arrangement, any employment agreement, any other benefit plans or compensatory arrangements or any other bona fide compensatory arrangements, including equity purchase plans, approved by the Board), for consideration per Common Unit or Convertible Security greater than 110% of the Fair Market Value thereof, then the Exercise Price will immediately be reduced to the price determined by multiplying the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such repurchase or redemption by a fraction, (a) the numerator of which shall be (i) the product obtained by multiplying the number of Common Units outstanding immediately prior to such repurchase or redemption by the Fair Market Value of a Common Unit immediately prior to such repurchase or redemption minus (ii) the aggregate consideration paid to effect such repurchase or redemption, and (b) the denominator of which shall be the product obtained by multiplying (i) the number of Common Units outstanding immediately prior to such repurchase or redemption minus the number of Common Units repurchased or redeemed (or in the case of repurchase or redemption of Convertible Securities, the number of Common Units deliverable upon conversion of or in exchange for any such Convertible Securities so repurchased or redeemed) by (ii) the Fair Market Value of a Common Unit immediately prior to such repurchase or redemption. For purposes of calculating clause (a)(i) and clause (b)(i) in the preceding sentence, the number of Common Units deliverable upon conversion of or in exchange for any such Convertible Securities so repurchased or redeemed shall be deemed outstanding immediately prior to such repurchase or redemption. In such event, the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant shall be increased to the number obtained by dividing (x) the product of (i) the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of such Warrant before such adjustment and (ii) the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to the Record Date or effective date, as the case may be, for such repurchase or redemption by (y) the new Exercise Price determined in accordance with the second preceding sentence.

Section 4.4 Dividends, Distributions, Stock Splits, Subdivisions, Reclassifications, or Combinations. If the Company shall (i) declare a dividend or make a distribution on its Common Units in Common Units, (ii) split, subdivide, recapitalize, restructure, or reclassify the outstanding Common Units into a greater number of Common Units or effect a similar transaction, or (iii) combine, recapitalize, restructure, or reclassify the outstanding Common Units into a smaller number of Common Units or effect a similar transaction, in each case, other than upon a Transaction to which Section 4.13 applies, the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant and the Exercise Price will be adjusted as follows:

$$N_A = \frac{N_B * O_A}{O_B} \qquad E_A = \frac{E_B * O_B}{O_A}$$

where:

N_A = the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant immediately after adjustment pursuant to this Section 4.4.

N_B = the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant immediately before adjustment pursuant to this Section 4.4.

E_A = the Exercise Price immediately after adjustment pursuant to this Section 4.4.

E_B = the Exercise Price immediately before adjustment pursuant to this Section 4.4.

O_A = the number of Common Units outstanding immediately after the transaction or event resulting in an adjustment pursuant to this Section 4.4.

O_B = the number of Common Units outstanding immediately before the transaction or event resulting in an adjustment pursuant to this Section 4.4.

Such adjustments shall become effective (x) in the case of clause (i) above, at the Close of Business on the Record Date for such dividend or distribution or (y) in the case of clause (ii) or clause (iii) above, at 9:00 a.m., New York City time, on the effective date of such event. In the event that a dividend or distribution described in clause (i) above is not so paid or made, the Exercise Price and the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant shall be readjusted, effective as of the date when the Board determines not to make such dividend or distribution, as the case may be, to be the Exercise Price and the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant that would be in effect if such dividend or distribution had not been declared.

Section 4.5 Other Distributions. In case the Company shall fix a Record Date for the making of a distribution to all holders of its Common Units of (a) shares of any class of capital stock other than Common Units (other than shares referred to in Section 4.2(a)), (b) evidence of indebtedness of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, (c) other Securities, assets, or cash (excluding dividends or distributions referred to in Section 4.4), or (d) rights or warrants, in each such case, the Exercise Price in effect prior thereto shall be reduced immediately thereafter to the price obtained by multiplying the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior thereto by the fraction resulting from dividing (x) an amount equal to the difference resulting from (i) the number of Common Units outstanding on such Record Date multiplied by the Fair Market Value of a Common Unit on the Trading Day immediately prior to such Record Date less (ii) the Fair Market Value of said shares, evidences of indebtedness, assets, cash, rights, or warrants to be so distributed in the aggregate to all Common Units outstanding on such Record Date by (y) the number of Common Units outstanding on such Record Date multiplied by the Fair Market Value of a Common Unit on the Trading Day immediately prior to such Record Date. Such adjustment shall be made successively whenever such a Record Date is fixed. In such event, the number of Common Units issuable upon the exercise of a Warrant shall be increased to the number obtained by dividing (x) the product of (i) the number of Common Units issuable upon the exercise of a Warrant before such adjustment and (ii) the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to the Record Date for the distribution giving rise to this adjustment by (y) the new Exercise Price determined in accordance with the second preceding sentence. In the event that such distribution is not so made, the Exercise Price and the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant then in effect shall be readjusted, effective as of the date when the Board determines not to distribute such shares, evidences of indebtedness, assets, cash, rights, or warrants, as the case may be, to the Exercise Price that would then be in effect and the number of Common Units that would then be issuable upon exercise of a Warrant if such Record Date had not been fixed.

Section 4.6 Dissolution, Total Liquidation, or Winding Up. Unless Section 4.13 applies, if at any time there is a voluntary or involuntary dissolution, total liquidation, or winding-up of the Company, then the Company shall provide (or otherwise make available or cause to be made available) to each Warrantholder written notice of the date on which such dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up shall take place (and, in any event, not less than five Business Days before any date set for definitive action). Such notice shall also specify the date as of which the record holders of Common Units shall be entitled to exchange their Common Units for Securities, money, or other property deliverable upon such dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up, as the case may be. On such date, each Warrantholder shall be entitled to receive, upon surrender of its Warrant for each Common Unit then receivable upon exercise of such Warrant, the cash, Securities, or other property, less an amount of cash, Securities, or other Property having an aggregate Fair Market Value equal to the Exercise Price for such Warrant then in effect, that such Warrantholder would have been entitled to receive in respect of such Common Unit had such Warrant been exercised immediately prior to such dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up. Upon receipt of such cash, Securities, or other property, any and all rights of such Warrantholder to exercise such Warrant shall terminate in their entirety. If the cash, Securities, or other property distributable in respect of such Common Unit in the dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up has a Fair Market Value that is less than the Exercise Price for such Warrant then in effect, no such cash, Securities, or other property shall be delivered to such Warrantholder in respect of such Warrants and such Warrant shall terminate and be of no further force or effect upon the dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up.

Section 4.7 Rounding of Calculations; Minimum Adjustments. All calculations under this Article 4 shall be made to the nearest one-tenth (1/10th) of a cent or rounded to the nearest whole unit, as the case may be. Any provision of this Article 4 to the contrary notwithstanding, no adjustment in the Exercise Price or the number of Common Units issuable upon the exercise of a Warrant shall be made if the amount of such adjustment would be less than $0.01 or one Common Unit, respectively, but any such amount shall be carried forward and an adjustment with respect to such amount shall be made at the time of, and together with any subsequent adjustment that, together with such amount and any other amount or amounts so carried forward, shall aggregate $0.01 or one Common Unit, respectively, or more, subject in all cases to Section 3.4.

Section 4.8 Timing of Issuance of Additional Common Units Upon Certain Adjustments. In any case in which the provisions of this Article 4 shall require that an adjustment shall become effective immediately after a Record Date for an event, the Company may defer until the occurrence of such event issuing to each holder of a Warrant exercised after such Record Date and before the occurrence of such event the additional Common Units issuable upon such exercise by reason of the adjustment required by such Record Date over and above the Common Units issuable upon such exercise before giving effect to such adjustment.

Section 4.9 Statement Regarding Adjustments. Whenever the Exercise Price or the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant shall be adjusted as provided in this Article 4, the Company shall file, at the principal office of the Company, a statement showing in reasonable detail the facts requiring such adjustment and the Exercise Price that shall be in effect and the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant after such adjustment. The Company shall also cause a copy of such statement to be delivered to each Warrantholder at the address appearing in the Warrant Register.

Section 4.10 Notice of Adjustment Event. In the event that (i) the Company shall propose to take any action of the type described in this Article 4 or (ii) the Company fixes any Record Date for any such event, the Company shall give notice to each Warrantholder, in the manner set forth in Section 4.9, which notice shall specify the Record Date, if any, with respect to any such action and the approximate date on which such action is to take place. Such notice shall also set forth the facts with respect thereto (including the material terms with respect to any contemplated transaction) and indicate the effect on the applicable Exercise Price and the number, kind, or class of units or other Securities or property that shall be deliverable upon exercise or exchange of a Warrant, if any. Such notice shall be given at least five Business Days prior to the taking of such proposed action. Failure to give such notice, or any defect therein, shall not affect the legality or validity of any such action. Subject to the restrictions contained herein, nothing shall prohibit the Warrantholders from exercising their Warrants following the date of such notice. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Warrant Agreement, the Company shall not be required to deliver any notice pursuant to this Section 4.10 at any time that such notice would contain material non-public information relating to the Company or the Common Units. The Company hereby agrees that it will provide the Warrant Agent with reasonable notice of any such event. The Company further agrees that it will provide to the Warrant Agent any new or amended exercise terms. The Warrant Agent shall have no obligation under any section of this Warrant Agreement to determine whether an adjustment event has occurred or to calculate any of the adjustments set forth herein.

Section 4.11 Proceedings Prior to Any Action Requiring Adjustment. As a condition precedent to the taking of any action which would require an adjustment pursuant to this Article 4, the Company shall take any action that may be necessary, including obtaining regulatory, stock exchange (if applicable), or member approvals or exemptions under the Securities Act, in order that the Company may subsequently validly and legally issue, as fully paid and nonassessable, all Common Units that each Warrantholder is entitled to receive upon exercise of a Warrant (other than any approvals or exemptions that are required as a result of the identity or characteristics of the Warrantholder).

Section 4.12 Adjustment Rules. Any adjustments pursuant to this Article 4 shall be made successively whenever an event referred to this Article 4 shall occur. If an adjustment in the Exercise Price made under this Article 4 would reduce the Exercise Price to an amount below the par value (if any) of the Common Units, then such adjustment in the Exercise Price made under this Article 4 shall reduce the Exercise Price to the par value (if any) of the Common Units and then, so long as the Company shall have taken any company action which would, in the opinion of its counsel, be necessary in order that the Company may validly issue Common Units at the Exercise Price as so adjusted in accordance with its obligations under Section 3.7, to such lower par value (if any) as may then be established.

Section 4.13 Changes in Capitalization. In case at any time or from time to time after the Closing Date while any Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, the Company (including any Successor Company) shall be a party to or shall otherwise engage in any transaction or series of related transactions constituting: (1) a consolidation of the Company with, a sale of all of the equity (including a tender or exchange offer) of the Company to, a merger of the Company into, a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries (taken as a whole) to, any other Person, or any similar transaction, in each case, in which the previously outstanding Common Units shall receive or be entitled to receive (either directly or upon subsequent liquidation or winding up), or be cancelled, reclassified, or converted or changed into or exchanged for Securities of such other Person or other property (including cash) or any combination of the foregoing (a "Non-Surviving Transaction"), or (2) any merger of another Person into the Company in which the previously outstanding Common Units shall be cancelled, reclassified, or converted or changed into or exchanged for Securities of the Company or other property (including cash) or any combination of the foregoing (a "Surviving Transaction" and any Non-Surviving Transaction or Surviving Transaction being herein called a "Transaction"); then:

(i) if such Transaction constitutes a Sale Cash Only Transaction and such Sale Cash Only Transaction is consummated prior to the Black-Scholes Expiration Date, then, at the effective time of the consummation of such Sale Cash Only Transaction, each Warrantholder shall, without further action on the part of any Warrantholder, be deemed to have exercised its Warrants on a "cashless" basis in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.2(c)(i) and (ii); provided that, if such exercise is not made pursuant to Section 3.2(c)(ii) and if the Black-Scholes Value of one Warrant as of the date of the consummation of the Sale Cash Only Transaction is greater than zero, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Warrantholders holding any unexercised Warrants, cash in an amount, for each Warrant so evidenced, equal to such Black-Scholes Value;

(ii) if such Transaction is a Non-Sale Transaction:

(A) as a condition to the consummation of such Transaction, the Company shall (or, in the case of any Non-Surviving Transaction, the Company shall cause such other Person to) execute and deliver to the Warrant Agent a written instrument providing that any Warrant that remains outstanding in whole or in part, upon the exercise thereof at any time on or after the consummation of such Transaction, shall be exercisable (on such terms and subject to such conditions as shall be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the provisions set forth in this Warrant Agreement) into, in lieu of the Common Units issuable upon such exercise prior to such consummation, only the Securities or other property ("Substituted Property") that would have been receivable upon such Transaction by a Qualifying Person holding the number of Common Units into which such Warrant was exercisable immediately prior to such Transaction and for an aggregate Exercise Price for such Warrant equal to the product of (I) the number of Common Units into which such Warrant was exercisable immediately prior to such Transaction and (II) the Exercise Price per Common Unit immediately prior to such Transaction;

(B) except as otherwise specified in Section 4.13(ii)(A), the rights and obligations of the Company (or, in the event of a Non-Surviving Transaction, such other Person) and the Warrantholders in respect of Substituted Property shall be substantially unchanged to be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the rights and obligations of the Company and Warrantholders in respect of Common Units hereunder as set forth in Section 3.1 hereof; and

(C) such written instrument under clause (ii)(A) above shall provide for adjustments that, for events subsequent to the effective date of such written instrument, shall be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the adjustments provided for in this Article IV; and the provisions of this Article IV shall similarly apply to successive Transactions that are not Change of Control Transactions;

(iii) if such Transaction constitutes a Sale Securities Only Transaction and such Sale Securities Only Transaction is consummated prior to the Black-Scholes Expiration Date, then, at the effective time of the consummation of such Sale Securities Only Transaction, each Warrantholder shall, without further action on the part of any Warrantholder, be deemed to have exercised its Warrants on a "cashless" basis in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.2(c)(i) and (ii); provided that, if such exercise is not made pursuant to Section 3.2(c)(ii) and if the Black-Scholes Value of one Warrant as of the date of the consummation of the Sale Securities Only Transaction is greater than zero, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Warrantholders holding any unexercised Warrants, at the Company's sole option, (x) the Sale Securities Only Transaction Securities for each Warrant so evidenced having a Fair Market Value equal to such Black-Scholes Value and (if such Sale Securities Only Transaction Securities consist of Securities of more than one type) in such proportion among the Securities so delivered as to be pro rata in kind and amount per Common Unit (determined on the basis of all outstanding Common Units held by all Qualifying Persons) actually received in such Sale

Securities Only Transaction or (y) cash having a Fair Market Value equivalent to such consideration described in the foregoing clause (x);

(iv) if such Transaction constitutes a Sale Cash and Securities Transaction and such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction is consummated prior to the Black-Scholes Expiration Date, then, at the effective time of the consummation of such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction, each Warrantholder shall, without further action on the part of any Warrantholder, be deemed to have exercised its Warrants on a "cashless" basis in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.2(c)(i) and (ii); provided that, if such exercise is not made pursuant to Section 3.2(c)(ii) and if the Black-Scholes Value of each Warrant as of the date of the consummation of the Sale Cash and Securities Transaction is greater than zero, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Warrantholders holding any unexercised Warrants, at the Company's sole option, (x) Sale Cash and Securities Transaction Consideration for each Warrant so evidenced having a Fair Market Value equal to such Black-Scholes Value and (if such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction Consideration consists of consideration of more than one type) in such proportion among the cash, Securities, and other property so delivered as to be pro rata in kind and amount per Common Unit (determined on the basis of all outstanding Common Units held by all Qualifying Persons) actually received in such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction by all Qualifying Persons or (y) cash having a Fair Market Value equivalent to such consideration described in the foregoing clause (x);

(v) for the avoidance of doubt, if such transaction constitutes a Sale Cash Only Transaction, a Sale Securities Only Transaction, or Sale Cash and Securities Transaction and is consummated on or after the Black-Scholes Expiration Date, this Section 4.10 shall not apply and the Warrant shall be treated as contemplated by Section 3.2(c).

For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in no event shall a Warrantholder be entitled to any Fair Market Value, or any delivery of any cash, Securities, or other property in respect thereof, on account of the Warrants (using the Black-Scholes Value or otherwise) in any Non-Sale Transaction (other than the kind and amount of Substituted Property specified in Section 4.13 (ii)(A)).

Section 4.14 Optional Tax Adjustment. The Company may at its option, at any time prior to the Expiration Time, increase the number of Common Units into which each Warrant is exercisable, or decrease the Exercise Price for such Warrant, in addition to those changes otherwise required by this Article 4, as deemed advisable by the Board, in order that any event treated for U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes as a dividend of stock or stock rights shall not be taxable to the recipients or that such tax shall be diminished.

ARTICLE 5
OTHER PROVISIONS RELATING TO RIGHTS OF WARRANTHOLDERS

Section 5.1 No Rights as Members.

(a) Nothing contained in this Warrant Agreement shall be construed as conferring upon any Person the right to vote, receive any dividend or other distribution, receive notice of, or attend, any meeting of members, or otherwise exercise any rights whatsoever as a member or other equity holder of the Company to the extent such vote, dividend, giving of notice, meeting, or other exercise of rights (or, if applicable, the relevant Record Date therefor) precedes the Close of Business on the Exercise Date with respect to the exercise of such Warrant and the delivery of the Joinder required in connection therewith, if applicable. The consent of any Warrantholder, solely by reason of the ownership or possession of a Warrant or the Warrant Certificate representing the same or otherwise by virtue hereof, shall not be required with respect to any action or proceeding of the Company, including with respect to any Change of Control Transaction. No Warrantholder shall have any right not expressly conferred under this Warrant Agreement or under, or by applicable Law with respect to, the Warrant held by such Warrantholder.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Warrant Agreement, by accepting and holding Warrants, each Warrantholder acknowledges and agrees as follows: (i) in its capacity as a Warrantholder, the relationship of such Warrantholder to the Company is strictly contractual in nature and is not the relationship of a member, other form of equity holder, or any similarly situated person to the Company; (ii) no fiduciary or similar duties of any kind or description are owed to any Warrantholder in its capacity as a Warrantholder; (iii) in furtherance of the foregoing (and not in limitation of the foregoing), no director or officer of the Company shall owe any duty of any kind (including any fiduciary duty) to any Warrantholder, in its capacity as a Warrantholder, including in connection with any act or failure to act, whether under this Warrant Agreement, the Warrant, or otherwise; and (iv) such Warrantholder shall not, and shall cause its Affiliates not to, bring, make, institute, or seek to bring, make, or institute, in the name of or on behalf of the Company, such Warrantholder, or any other Person, any claim or proceeding arising out of, or relating to, this Warrant Agreement or any Warrants against any director or officer of the Company directly or indirectly in connection with an alleged breach of such director's or officer's duties, including fiduciary duties.

Section 5.2 Modification or Amendment.

(a) This Warrant Agreement may be modified or amended only upon the written consent of (x) the Warrantholders holding a majority of the then-outstanding Warrants and (y) the Company; provided that any modification or amendment that (i) has the effect of increasing the Exercise Price of any Warrant or amending the definition of "Expiration Time" to an earlier time or (ii) materially and adversely affects the rights or interests of any Warrantholder disproportionately relative to any other Warrantholder shall require the written consent of each affected Warrantholder. For all purposes under this Warrant Agreement, a Warrant ceases to be outstanding if such Warrant is exercised or if the Company holds or is the beneficial owner of such Warrant.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary in this Warrant Agreement, the Company and the Warrant Agent may from time to time supplement or amend this Warrant Agreement: (i) without the approval of any Warrantholders in order to cure any ambiguity, manifest error, or other mistake in this Warrant Agreement or (ii) to make any other provision in regard to matters or questions arising under this Warrant Agreement that the Company and the Warrant Agent may deem necessary or desirable and that, in each case, shall not adversely affect, alter, or change the interests of any Warrantholder in any material respect. No supplement or amendment to this Warrant Agreement pursuant to this Section 5.2(b) shall be effective unless duly executed by the Warrant Agent and the Company. As a condition precedent to the Warrant Agent's execution of any such amendment, the Company shall deliver to the Warrant Agent a certificate from a duly authorized officer of the Company that states that the proposed amendment is in compliance with the terms of this Section 5.2(b). Notwithstanding anything in this Warrant Agreement to the contrary, the Warrant Agent may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any supplement or amendment that adversely affects the Warrant Agent's own rights, duties, immunities or obligations under this Warrant Agreement.

(c) Upon execution and delivery of any amendment pursuant to this Section 5.2, such amendment shall be considered a part of this Warrant Agreement for all purposes and every Warrantholder holding a Warrant Certificate shall be bound by such amendment. Any consent delivered by electronic means shall be deemed to constitute written consent.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to contrary contained in this Warrant Agreement, with respect to Warrants represented by one or more Global Warrant Certificates, any requirement that a "Warrantholder" or any group of Warrantholders of a sufficient number of Warrants authorize, provide, or give, as applicable, any consent, waiver, or other approval may be satisfied by the beneficial owners of interests in such Warrants, and the Company and the Warrant Agent shall be permitted to rely in the absence of bad faith on proof provided to the Company and the Warrant Agent of the number of Warrants held by such beneficial owner in the form of a certification from such beneficial owner to that effect and screenshots or other similar proof of such holdings from the beneficial owner's broker or custodian (and shall not require the provision of DTC proxies, medallion-stamped guarantees, or other similar evidence).

Section 5.3 Rights of Action. All rights of action against the Company in respect of this Warrant Agreement are vested in the Warrantholders, and any Warrantholder, without the consent of the Warrant Agent or any other Warrantholder, may, on such Warrantholder's own behalf and for such Warrantholder's own benefit, enforce and may institute and maintain any suit, action, or proceeding against the Company suitable to enforce, or otherwise in respect of, such Warrantholder's rights under this Warrant Agreement or right to exercise such Warrantholder's Warrants in the manner provided in this Warrant Agreement.

Section 5.4 Issuance Obligation Remedies. Nothing in this Warrant Agreement shall limit the right of any Warrantholder to pursue any other remedies available to it under this Warrant Agreement, at law or in equity, including a decree of specific performance or injunctive relief (without the necessity of proving the inadequacy of money damages as a remedy and without the necessity of posting a bond) with respect to the Company's violation of its obligations under this Warrant Agreement or any failure by the Company to timely issue Common Units upon exercise of such Warrant as required pursuant to the terms of this Warrant Agreement. All such remedies shall be cumulative, non-exclusive and may be exercised concurrently. The Company shall not oppose the granting of an injunction, specific performance and other equitable relief on the basis that (a) there is adequate remedy at law or (b) an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or in equity.

Section 5.5 Tax Forms. Each Warrantholder shall deliver to the Warrant Agent a properly completed and duly executed IRS Form W-9 or the appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable.

ARTICLE 6
CONCERNING THE WARRANT AGENT AND OTHER MATTERS

Section 6.1 Change of Warrant Agent.

(a) The Warrant Agent, or any successor thereto appointed after the date of this Warrant Agreement, may resign its duties and be discharged from all further duties and liabilities under this Warrant Agreement (except for liability arising as a result of the Warrant Agent's own fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement (as determined by a final non-appealable order, judgment, ruling, or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction)) after giving 30 days' notice in writing to the Company (and such resignation shall become effective immediately upon the expiration of such notice period), except that such shorter notice may be given as the Company shall, in writing, accept as sufficient. If the office of the Warrant Agent becomes vacant by resignation or incapacity to act or otherwise, the Company shall appoint in writing a successor warrant agent in place of the Warrant Agent. Following any required notice period, pending appointment of a successor to the Warrant Agent, the duties of the Warrant Agent shall be carried out by the Company. If the Company shall fail to make such appointment within a period of 30 days after it has been notified in writing of such resignation or incapacity by the resigning or incapacitated warrant agent, then the Warrantholders representing a majority of the Warrants at the time outstanding may appoint a successor warrant agent.

(b) The Warrant Agent may be removed by the Company at any time upon 30 days' written notice to the Warrant Agent. Pending appointment of a successor to the Warrant Agent, the duties of the Warrant Agent shall be carried out by the Company. If any transfer agency relationship between Computershare and the Company is terminated, the relationship under this agreement is terminated at the same time.

(c) Any successor warrant agent appointed by the Company shall be a corporation or banking association organized, in good standing, and doing business under the Laws of the United States of America or any state or the District of Columbia, and authorized under such Laws to exercise corporate trust powers and subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority and having a combined capital and surplus of not less than $50,000,000. The combined capital and surplus of any such successor warrant agent shall be deemed to be the combined capital and surplus as set forth in the most recent report of its condition published prior to its appointment to the extent such reports are published at least annually pursuant to Law or to the requirements of a federal or state supervising or examining authority.

(d) After acceptance in writing of such appointment by the successor warrant agent, such successor warrant agent shall be vested with all the authority, powers, rights, immunities, duties, and obligations of its predecessor warrant agent with like effect as if originally named as warrant agent under this Warrant Agreement, without any further act or deed; provided that, if for any reason it becomes necessary or appropriate, the predecessor warrant agent shall execute and deliver, at the expense of the Company, an instrument transferring to such successor warrant agent all the authority, powers, and rights of such predecessor warrant agent under this Warrant Agreement, and upon request of any successor warrant agent, the Company shall make, execute, acknowledge, and deliver any and all instruments in writing to more fully and effectually vest in and conform to such successor warrant agent all such authority, powers, rights, immunities, duties, and obligations. Upon assumption by a successor warrant agent of the duties and responsibilities under this Warrant Agreement, the predecessor warrant agent shall deliver and transfer, at the expense of the Company, to the successor warrant agent any property at the time held by it under this Warrant Agreement. As soon as practicable after such appointment, the Company shall give notice of such appointment to the predecessor warrant agent. Failure to give such notice, or any defect in such notice, shall not affect the validity of the appointment of the successor warrant agent.

(e) Any entity into which the Warrant Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion, or consolidation to which the Warrant Agent shall be a party, or any Person succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust or agency business of the Warrant Agent, shall be the successor warrant agent under this Warrant Agreement without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties of this Warrant Agreement, but only if such entity would be eligible for appointment as a successor warrant agent under Section 6.1(c).

(f) The provisions of this Article 6 with regard to the Warrant Agent shall survive the termination and the resignation or removal of the Warrant Agent.

Section 6.2 Compensation; Further Assurances. The Company agrees that it will (a) pay the Warrant Agent reasonable compensation for its services as Warrant Agent in an amount separately agreed to between the Company and the Warrant Agent, (b) except as otherwise expressly provided, pay or reimburse the Warrant Agent upon written demand for all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses, disbursements, and advances incurred or made by the Warrant Agent in accordance with any of the provisions of this Warrant Agreement (including the reasonable and documented out-of-pocket compensation, expenses, and disbursements of its counsel incurred in connection with the execution and administration of this Warrant Agreement), except any such expense, disbursement, or advance as may arise from its or any of their fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement (as determined by a final non-appealable order, judgment, ruling, or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction), and (c) perform, execute, acknowledge, and deliver or cause to be performed, executed, acknowledged, and delivered all such further and other acts, instruments, and assurances as may reasonably be required by the Warrant Agent for the carrying out or performing of the provisions of this Warrant Agreement. The Warrant Agent agrees to provide the Company with prior written notice of the retention of counsel whose compensation, expenses, and disbursements are to be paid or reimbursed by the Company under this Section 6.2.

Section 6.3 Reliance on Counsel. The Warrant Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be legal counsel for the Company), and the written opinion of such counsel or any advice of legal counsel subsequently confirmed by a written opinion of such counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection to the Warrant Agent as to any action taken or omitted by it in the absence of bad faith and in accordance with such written opinion or advice.

Section 6.4 Proof of Actions Taken. Whenever in the performance of its duties under this Warrant Agreement the Warrant Agent shall deem it necessary or desirable that any matter be proved or established by the Company prior to taking or suffering or omitting any action under this Warrant Agreement, such matter (unless other evidence in respect of such actions be specifically prescribed in this Warrant Agreement) may, in the absence of bad faith on the part of the Warrant Agent, be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by a certificate executed by an Appropriate Officer delivered to the Warrant Agent, and such certificate shall, in the absence of bad faith on the part of the Warrant Agent, be relied upon by the Warrant Agent for any action taken, suffered, or omitted in the absence of bad faith by it under the provisions of this Warrant Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in lieu of such certificates, in its discretion the Warrant Agent may accept other evidence of such fact or matter or may require such further or additional evidence as to it may seem reasonable.

Section 6.5 Correctness of Statements. The Warrant Agent shall not be liable for or by reason of any of the statements of fact or recitals contained in this Warrant Agreement (except its countersignature of this Warrant Agreement) or be required to verify the same, and all such statements and recitals are and shall be deemed to have been made by the Company only.

Section 6.6 Validity of Agreement. Whenever in the performance of its duties under this Warrant Agreement the Warrant Agent deems it necessary or desirable that any fact or matter be proved or established by the Company prior to taking or suffering or omitting any action under this Warrant Agreement, the Warrant Agent may apply to an Appropriate Officer for instruction, and from time to time, the Company may provide the Warrant Agent with instructions concerning the services performed by the Warrant Agent hereunder. In addition, at any time the Warrant Agent may apply to any officer of the Company for instruction and may consult with legal counsel for the Warrant Agent or the Company with respect to any matter arising in connection with the services to be performed by the Warrant Agent under this Warrant Agreement. The Warrant Agent and its agents and subcontractors shall not be liable and shall be indemnified by Company for any action taken or omitted by the Warrant Agent in reliance upon any Company instructions or upon the advice or opinion of such counsel. The Warrant Agent shall not be held to have notice of any change of authority of any person, until receipt of written notice thereof from Company. In the event the Warrant Agent believes any ambiguity or uncertainty exists hereunder or in any notice, instruction, direction, request, or other communication, paper, or document received by the Warrant Agent hereunder, or is for any reason unsure as to what action to take hereunder, the Warrant Agent shall notify the Company in writing as soon as practicable, and upon delivery of such notice may, in its sole discretion, refrain from taking any action, and shall be fully protected and shall not be liable in any way to the Company or any Warrantholder or other Person for refraining from taking such action, unless the Warrant Agent receives written instructions signed by the Company which eliminates such ambiguity or uncertainty to the reasonable satisfaction of the Warrant Agent. The Warrant Agent shall not be held to have notice of any change of authority of any Person, until receipt of such notice from the Company. The Warrant Agent shall not be responsible for any breach by the Company of any covenant or condition contained in this Warrant Agreement, nor shall it by any act under this Warrant Agreement be deemed to make any representation or warranty as to the authorization or reservation of any Common Units to be issued pursuant to this Warrant Agreement or any Warrants or as to whether any Common Units will, when issued, be validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable. The Warrant Agent and its agents and subcontractors shall not be liable and shall be indemnified by the Company for any action taken or omitted by the Warrant Agent in reliance in the absence of bad faith upon any Company instructions except to the extent that the Warrant Agent had actual knowledge of facts and circumstances that would render such reliance unreasonable.

Section 6.7 Use of Agents. The Warrant Agent may execute and exercise any of the rights or powers hereby vested in it or perform any duty hereunder either itself or by or through its attorneys or agents provided, however, that the Warrant Agent shall remain responsible for the activities or omissions of any such agent or attorney and reasonable care has been exercised in the selection and in the continued employment of such attorney or agent.

Section 6.8 Liability of Warrant Agent. The Warrant Agent shall incur no liability or responsibility to the Company or to any Warrantholder for any action taken or not taken (a) in reliance on any notice, resolution, waiver, consent, order, certificate, or other paper, document, or instrument reasonably believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent, and presented by the proper party or parties or (b) in relation to its services under this Warrant Agreement, unless such liability arises out of or is attributable to the Warrant Agent's fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement (as determined by a final non-appealable order, judgment, ruling, or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction). The Company covenants and agrees to indemnify and to hold the Warrant Agent harmless against any and all losses, expenses, and liabilities, judgments, damages, fines, penalties, claims, demands, costs, settlements and reasonable and documented out-of-pocket counsel fees (collectively, "Losses"), which may be paid, incurred or suffered by, or to which it may become subject, arising from or out of, directly or indirectly, any claims or liability resulting from any action taken, suffered or omitted in the absence of bad faith by the Warrant Agent in the execution, acceptance, administration, exercise and performance of its duties under this Warrant Agreement, including the reasonable costs and expenses of defending against any claim of liability arising therefrom, directly or indirectly, or of enforcing its rights under this Warrant Agreement or otherwise arising in connection with this Warrant Agreement; provided that such covenant and agreement does not extend to, and the Warrant Agent shall not be indemnified with respect to, such Losses incurred or suffered by the Warrant Agent as a result of, or arising out of the Warrant Agent's fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement (as determined by a final non-appealable order, judgment, ruling, or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction). The Warrant Agent shall be liable under this Warrant Agreement only for its fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final non-appealable judgment), for which the Warrant Agent is not entitled to indemnification under this Warrant Agreement. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, except to the extent arising from fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, or willful misconduct of the Warrant Agent (in each case, as finally determined by a judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction), the Warrant Agent's aggregate liability during any term of this Warrant Agreement with respect to, arising from, or arising in connection with this Warrant Agreement, or from all services provided or omitted to be provided under this Warrant Agreement, whether in contract, or in tort, or otherwise, is limited to, and shall not exceed, the amounts paid hereunder by the Company to the Warrant Agent as fees and charges, but not including reimbursable expenses, during the 12 months immediately preceding the event for which recovery from Warrant Agent is being sought (which such term shall survive the termination or removal of the Warrant Agent). The Warrant Agent will not be under any duty or responsibility to ensure compliance with any applicable federal or state securities laws in connection with the issuance, transfer or exchange of the Warrants. The Warrant Agent shall not incur any liability for not performing any act, duty, obligation, or responsibility by reason of any occurrence beyond the control of the Warrant Agent (including without limitation any act or provision of any present or future law or regulation or governmental authority, any act of God, war, civil disorder, or failure of any means of communication, terrorist acts, pandemics, epidemics, shortage of supply, breakdowns or malfunctions, interruptions or malfunction of computer facilities, or loss of data due to power failures or mechanical difficulties with information storage or retrieval systems, or labor difficulties).

Section 6.9 Legal Proceedings. The Warrant Agent shall be under no obligation to institute any action, suit, or legal proceeding or to take any other action likely to involve expense unless the Company or any Warrantholder shall furnish the Warrant Agent with reasonable indemnity (as determined by the Warrant Agent) for any costs and expenses which may be incurred, but this provision shall not affect the power of the Warrant Agent to take (or not take) such action as the Warrant Agent may consider proper, whether with or without any such security or indemnity. The Warrant Agent shall, as soon as commercially practicable, notify the Company and each Warrantholder in writing of any claim made or action, suit, or proceeding instituted against it arising out of or in connection with this Warrant Agreement.

Section 6.10 Actions as Agent.

(a) The Warrant Agent shall act under this Warrant Agreement solely as agent and not in a ministerial or fiduciary capacity, and its duties shall be determined solely by the provisions of this Warrant Agreement. The duties and obligations of the Warrant Agent shall be determined solely by the express provisions of the Warrant Agreement or of the Warrant Certificates, and the Warrant Agent shall not be liable except for the performance of such duties and obligations as are specifically set forth in the Warrant Agreement or in the Warrant Certificates. No implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Warrant Agreement against the Warrant Agent. The Warrant Agent shall not be liable for anything that it may do or refrain from doing in the absence of bad faith in connection with this Warrant Agreement except for its own fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement (as determined by a final non-appealable order, judgment, ruling, or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction). Notwithstanding anything in this Warrant Agreement to the contrary, except to the extent arising from fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, or willful misconduct of the Warrant Agent (in each case, as finally determined by a judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction), in no event will the Warrant Agent be liable for special, indirect, incidental, punitive, or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including, but not limited to, lost profits), even if the Warrant Agent has been advised of the possibility of such loss or damage. The Warrant Agent may execute and exercise any of the rights or powers hereby vested in it or perform any duty hereunder either itself or by or through its attorneys, accountants, agents, or other experts, and the Warrant Agent will not be answerable or accountable for any act, default, neglect, or misconduct of any such attorneys or agents or for any loss to the Company or the Warrantholders resulting from any such act, default, neglect, or misconduct, absent fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement in the selection and continued employment thereof (each as determined by a final non-appealable order, judgment, ruling, or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction).

(b) The Warrant Agent shall not, by countersigning Warrant Certificates or by any other act under this Warrant Agreement, be deemed to make any representations as to validity or authorization of the Warrants or the Warrant Certificates or any Warrant or as to whether the Warrant Units will when issued be validly issued, fully paid, and non-assessable (except as to its countersignature on such Warrant Certificates) or as to the Exercise Price, the number of Warrant Units a Warrant is exercisable for, or any adjustment thereof (except as instructed in writing by the Company). The Warrant Agent shall not be responsible for any failure of the Company to make any cash payment or to issue, transfer, or deliver any Common Units or stock certificates or other securities or property upon the exercise of any Warrant or upon any adjustment pursuant to Article 4 or to comply with any of the covenants of the Company contained in Article 4.

(c) The Warrant Agent shall not (i) be liable for any recital or statement of fact contained in this Warrant Agreement or in the Warrant Certificates or for any action taken, suffered, or omitted by it in the absence of bad faith on the belief that any Warrant Certificate or any other documents or any signatures are genuine or properly authorized, (ii) be responsible for any failure on the part of the Company to comply with any of its covenants and obligations contained in this Warrant Agreement or in the Warrant Certificates, (iii) be liable for any act or omission in connection with this Warrant Agreement except for its own fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement (as determined by a final non-appealable order, judgment, ruling, or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction), or (iv) be subject to, nor be required to comply with, or determine if any Person has complied with, the Warrants or any other agreement between or among the parties hereto, even though reference thereto may be made in this Warrant Agreement, or to comply with any notice, instruction, direction, request, or other communication, paper, or document other than as expressly set forth in this Warrant Agreement.

(d) The Warrant Agent is authorized to accept and protected in accepting instructions with respect to the performance of its duties under this Warrant Agreement by Company Order and to apply to any such officer named in such Company Order for instructions (which instructions will be promptly given in writing when requested), and the Warrant Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or suffered to be taken by it in the absence of bad faith in accordance with the instructions in any Company Order.

Section 6.11 Appointment and Acceptance of Agency. The Company appoints the Warrant Agent to act as agent for the Company in accordance with the instructions set forth in this Warrant Agreement, and the Warrant Agent accepts the agency established by this Warrant Agreement and agrees to perform the same upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Warrant Agreement and in the Warrant Certificate or as the Company and the Warrant Agent may later agree. By their acceptance of a Warrant Certificate evidencing Warrants, the Warrantholders agree to be bound by such terms and conditions.

Section 6.12 Successors and Assigns.

(a) All the covenants and provisions of this Warrant Agreement by or for the benefit of the Company or the Warrant Agent shall bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors and assigns under this Warrant Agreement. The Warrant Agent may assign this Warrant Agreement or any rights and obligations under this Warrant Agreement, in whole or in part, to an Affiliate of such Warrant Agent with the prior written consent of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Warrant Agent may make such an assignment without consent of the Company to any successor to the Warrant Agent by consolidation, merger, or transfer of its assets, in each case, subject to the terms and conditions of this Warrant Agreement.

(b) So long as Warrants remain outstanding, the Company will not enter into any Non-Surviving Transaction that constitutes a Non-Sale Transaction in which Warrants would be outstanding after consummation unless the acquirer (a "Successor Company") shall expressly assume by a supplemental agreement, executed and delivered to the Warrant Agent, in form reasonably satisfactory to the Warrant Agent, the due and punctual performance of every covenant of this Warrant Agreement on the part of the Company to be performed and observed and shall have provided for exercise rights in accordance with Section 4.13. Upon the consummation of such Non-Sale Transaction, the Successor Company shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, the Company under this Warrant Agreement with the same effect as if such Successor Company had been named as the Company herein.

Section 6.13 Notices. Any notice or demand authorized by this Warrant Agreement to be given or made to the Company after the Closing Date shall be sufficiently given or made if sent by mail first-class, postage prepaid, addressed (until another address is filed in writing by the Company with the Warrant Agent) or electronic mail (so long as the relevant computer record includes a successful transmission or no failure message is generated), as follows:

If the Warrant Agent shall receive any notice or demand addressed to the Company by a Warrantholder, the Warrant Agent shall, as promptly as practicable, forward such notice or demand to the Company.

Section 6.14 Applicable Law; Jurisdiction.

(a) All issues and questions concerning the application, construction, validity, interpretation, and enforcement of this Warrant Agreement and the exhibits and schedules to this Warrant Agreement (including the Warrant Certificates, if any) or any other matter arising out of or in connection with this Warrant Agreement, the transactions contemplated by this Warrant Agreement, or the legal relationship among the parties, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise, shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to any choice of law or conflict of law rules or provisions (whether of the State of New York or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of New York.

(b) Any and all suits, legal actions, or proceedings arising out of this Warrant Agreement and the Warrants (including against any officer of the Company) shall be brought solely in any of the courts of the New York Supreme Court, County of New York, or in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Chosen Court"). Each of the parties of this Warrant Agreement submits to and accepts the exclusive jurisdiction of the Chosen Court for the purpose of such suits, legal actions, or proceedings. In any such suit, legal action, or proceeding, each party waives personal service of any summons, complaint, or other process. Each party also agrees that service may be made by certified or registered mail directed to it at its address set forth in the books and records of the Company. To the fullest extent permitted by law, each party irrevocably waives any objection which it may now or after the Closing Date have to the laying of venue or any such suit, legal action, or proceeding in the Chosen Court. Each party further waives any claim that any suit, legal action, or proceeding brought in the Chosen Court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Each of the parties agrees that the exclusive choice of forum set forth in this Section 6.14 does not prohibit the enforcement of any judgment obtained in that forum or any other appropriate forum. Nothing set forth in this Section 6.14 affects the right to serve process in any other matter permitted by law.

Section 6.15 Waiver of Jury Trial. TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, EACH PARTY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LITIGATION IN ANY COURT WITH RESPECT TO, IN CONNECTION WITH, OR ARISING OUT OF THIS WARRANT AGREEMENT OR A WARRANT CERTIFICATE EVIDENCING A WARRANT OR THE VALIDITY, PROTECTION, INTERPRETATION, COLLECTION, OR ENFORCEMENT OF THIS WARRANT AGREEMENT OR A WARRANT CERTIFICATE EVIDENCING A WARRANT.

Section 6.16 Specific Performance. Each of the Company and the Warrant Agent acknowledges that a breach or threatened breach by such party of any of its obligations under this Warrant Agreement would give rise to irreparable harm to the other party to this Warrant Agreement for which monetary damages would not be an adequate remedy and agrees that in the event of a breach or a threatened breach by such party of any such obligations, the other party to this Warrant Agreement and the Warrantholders shall, in addition to any and all other rights and remedies that may be available to it in respect of such breach, be entitled to seek equitable relief, including a restraining order, an injunction, specific performance, and any other relief that may be available from a court of competent jurisdiction without the necessity of proving the inadequacy of money damages as a remedy or without the necessity of posting a bond. All such remedies shall be cumulative, non-exclusive and may be exercised concurrently. No party shall oppose the granting of equitable relief on the basis that (a) there is adequate remedy at law or (b) an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or in equity.

Section 6.17 Benefit of this Warrant Agreement. Nothing in this Warrant Agreement expressed and nothing that may be implied from any of the provisions of this Warrant Agreement is intended, or shall be construed, to confer upon, or give to, any Person other than the parties to this Warrant Agreement and the Warrantholders any right, remedy, or claim under or by reason of this Warrant Agreement or of any covenant, condition, stipulation, promise, or agreement of this Warrant Agreement, and all covenants, conditions, stipulations, promises, and agreements in this Warrant Agreement contained shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the parties to this Warrant Agreement, and their respective successors and permitted assigns, and the Warrantholders. By acceptance of a Warrant Certificate, each Warrantholder agrees to all of the terms and provisions of this Warrant Agreement applicable to a Warrantholder.

Section 6.18 Registered Warrantholder. Every Warrantholder, by accepting a Warrant Certificate, consents and agrees with the Company, with the Warrant Agent and with every subsequent holder of such Warrant Certificate that, prior to due presentment for registration of transfer, the Company and the Warrant Agent may deem and treat the Person in whose name any Warrant Certificates are registered in the Warrant Register as the absolute owner of the Warrants evidenced by such Warrant Certificate for all purposes whatever (notwithstanding any notation of ownership or other writing on such Warrant Certificate made by anyone other than the Company or the Warrant Agent) and neither the Company nor the Warrant Agent shall be affected by any notice to the contrary or be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to, or interest in, any Warrant Certificates or any Warrants evidenced by such Warrant Certificates on the part of any other Person and shall not be liable for any registration of transfer of Warrant Certificates that are registered or to be registered in the name of a fiduciary or the nominee of a fiduciary unless made with actual knowledge that a fiduciary or nominee is committing a breach of trust in requesting such registration of transfer or with such knowledge of such facts that its participation in such registration or transfer amounts to bad faith.

Section 6.19 Headings. The Article and Section headings are for convenience only and are not a part of this Warrant Agreement and shall not affect the interpretation of this Warrant Agreement.

Section 6.20 Counterparts. This Warrant Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts on separate counterparts, each of which so executed shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument. A signed copy of this Warrant Agreement delivered by e-mail or other means of electronic transmission shall be deemed to have the same legal effect as delivery of an original signed copy of this Warrant Agreement.

Section 6.21 Entire Agreement. This Warrant Agreement, any Warrant Certificate, and the LLC Agreement constitute the entire agreement of the Company, the Warrant Agent, and the Warrantholders with respect to the subject matter of this Warrant Agreement and supersede all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, among the Company, the Warrant Agent, and the Warrantholders with respect to the subject matter of this Warrant Agreement. In the event of an inconsistency between the terms of the Warrant and the Warrant Agreement, the terms of the Warrant Agreement shall prevail. The Company shall not amend any provisions of the Warrant Certificate without the prior consent of the Warrant Agent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed.

Section 6.22 Severability. Wherever possible, each provision of this Warrant Agreement shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable Law, but if any provision of this Warrant Agreement shall be prohibited by or invalid under applicable Law, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity, without invalidating the remainder of such provision or the remaining provisions of this Warrant Agreement; provided that if such invalidated provision shall affect the rights, immunities, liabilities, duties or obligations of the Warrant Agent, the Warrant Agent shall be entitled to resign immediately upon written notice to the Company.

Section 6.23 Termination. This Warrant Agreement shall terminate at the earlier to occur of (i) the Expiration Time (or, if later, Close of Business on the settlement date with respect to all exercises of Warrants as to which the respective Exercise Date is prior to the Expiration Time) and (ii) the date on which all outstanding Warrants have been exercised. The obligations of the Company as set forth in this Article 6 shall survive the exercise or expiration of the Warrants, the termination of this Warrant Agreement and the resignation, replacement or removal of the Warrant Agent.

Section 6.24 Confidentiality. The Warrant Agent and the Company agree that that all books, records, information and data pertaining to the business of the other party, including, inter alia, personal, non-public Warrantholder information, which are exchanged or received pursuant to the negotiation or the performance of this Warrant Agreement, including the fees for services set forth in the attached schedule, shall remain confidential, and shall not be voluntarily disclosed to any other person, except as may be required by law, including, without limitation, pursuant to subpoenas from state or federal government authorities (e.g., in divorce and criminal actions), except disclosures expressly permitted pursuant to Section 9.6 of the LLC Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

Section 6.25 Force Majeure. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Warrant Agent will not be liable for any delays or failures in performance resulting from acts beyond its reasonable control including, without limitation, acts of God, epidemic, pandemic, terrorist acts, shortage of supply, breakdowns or malfunctions, interruptions or malfunction of computer facilities, or loss of data due to power failures or mechanical difficulties with information storage or retrieval systems, labor difficulties, war, or civil unrest.

Section 6.26 Representations and Warranties of the Company. The Company represents and warrants to the Warrantholders that, as of the date hereof, (a) it has the corporate power and authority to execute this Warrant Agreement and consummate the transactions contemplated by this Warrant Agreement, (b) there are no statutory or contractual preemptive rights or rights of first refusal with respect to the issuance of any Warrants, and (c) the execution and delivery by the Company of this Warrant Agreement and the issuance of the Common Units upon exercise of any Warrant do not and shall not (i) conflict with or result in a breach of the terms, conditions, or provisions of, (ii) constitute a default under, (iii) result in the creation of any lien, security interest, charge, or encumbrance upon the Company's capital stock, partnership, membership, or limited liability company interest or other equity or voting interest or assets pursuant to, (iv) result in a violation of, or (v) require any authorization, consent, approval, exemption, or other action by or notice or declaration to, or filing with, any court or administrative or governmental body or agency pursuant to, the Company's Certificate of Formation or LLC Agreement or, to the Company's knowledge, any Law in effect as of the date of this Warrant Agreement to which the Company is subject, or, to the Company's knowledge, any agreement, instrument, order, judgment, or decree to which the Company is subject as of the date of this Warrant Agreement, except for any such authorization, consent, approval, notice, or exemption required under applicable securities laws or as have been received.

Section 6.27 Representations and Warranties of the Warrantholders. Each Warrantholder, by accepting any Warrant, represents and warrants to the Company that (a) it has received (or otherwise had made available to it), read and understands the LLC Agreement, (b) it agrees to be bound by the terms of this Warrant Agreement and, if it exercises any Warrants (including upon automatic exercise of any Warrants), the terms of the LLC Agreement (including the restrictions on Transfers contained herein and therein), and (c) (i) it is not and will not be, and is not and will not be acting on behalf of, a Benefit Plan Investor and (ii) its acquisition, holding, and exercise of Warrants will not result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code. Each Warrantholder, by accepting any Warrant, also represents and warrants to the Company as provided in Section 11.1 of the LLC Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

The Warrant Certificates are issuable only in registered form in denominations of whole numbers of Warrants. No fractions of a Common Unit will be issued upon the exercise of any Warrant. As to any fractional Common Units to which a holder would otherwise be entitled, the Company shall either, at its option, (i) make a cash payment in lieu of issuing such fractional Common Unit equal to the Fair Market Value of one Common Unit, as determined on the date the Warrant is presented for exercise, multiplied by such fraction, rounded to the nearest whole cent, subject to any restrictions or limitations in the Company's financing or other contractual arrangements or (ii) round such fractional Common Unit up to the nearest whole number of Common Units.

Upon surrender at the office of the Warrant Agent and payment of the charges specified in this Warrant Certificate and in the Warrant Agreement, this Warrant Certificate may be exchanged for Warrant Certificates in other authorized denominations or the Transfer of this Warrant Certificate may be registered in whole or in part in authorized denominations to one or more designated transferees subject to the limitations contained in the Warrant Agreement and the LLC Agreement. Any Warrant Certificates issued upon exchange or registration of Transfer shall evidence the same aggregate number of Warrants as this Warrant Certificate. The Company shall cause to be kept at the office of the Warrant Agent the Warrant Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as the Warrant Agent may prescribe or as may be prescribed by Law, the Company shall provide for the registration of Warrant Certificates and of Transfers or exchanges of Warrant Certificates. Issuance of Warrant Units shall be made without charge for any documentary, stamp, or similar issue or transfer tax or other incidental expense in respect of the issuance of such Warrant Units, all of which taxes and expenses shall be paid by the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be required (i) to pay any tax that may be payable in respect of a Transfer event, including the issuance and delivery of Warrant Units in a name other than the name of the holder in which the Warrants are registered, or (ii) to effect a Transfer, including by issuing or delivering Warrant Units, in the name other than that in which the Warrants were registered unless and until the Persons requesting the issuance or delivery of such Warrant Units or other similar Transfer shall have paid to the Company the amount of such tax or shall have reasonably demonstrated that such tax has been paid.

Prior to due presentment of this Warrant Certificate for registration of transfer, the Company, the Warrant Agent and any agent of the Company or the Warrant Agent may treat the Person in whose name this Warrant Certificate is registered as the owner of such Warrant Certificate for all purposes, and neither the Company, the Warrant Agent, nor any such agent shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

With certain exceptions as provided in the Warrant Agreement, the Warrant Agreement permits the amendment of the Warrant Agreement and the modification of the rights and obligations of the Company and the rights of the holders of Warrant Certificates under the Warrant Agreement at any time by the Company and the Warrant Agent with the consent of the holders holding a majority of each then-outstanding Warrants to be amended or modified.

Nothing contained in the Warrant Agreement or this Warrant Certificate shall be construed as conferring upon any Person, by virtue of holding or having a beneficial interest in a Warrant Certificate evidencing any Warrant, the right to vote, receive any dividend or other distribution, receive notice of, or attend, any meeting of members, or otherwise exercise any rights whatsoever as a member of the Company to the extent such vote, dividend, giving of notice, meeting, or other exercise of rights (or, if applicable, the relevant Record Date therefor) precedes the Close of Business on the Exercise Date with respect to the exercise of such Warrant. No holder shall have any right not expressly conferred under the Warrant Agreement or under, or by applicable Law with respect to, this Warrant Certificate held by such holder.

By accepting and holding Warrants, each Warrantholder acknowledges and agrees as follows: (i) in its capacity as a Warrantholder, the relationship of such Warrantholder to the Company is strictly contractual in nature and is not the relationship of a member, other form of equity holder, or any similarly situated person to the Company; (ii) no fiduciary or similar duties of any kind or description are owed to any Warrantholder in its capacity as a Warrantholder; (iii) in furtherance of the foregoing (and not in limitation of the foregoing), no director or officer of the Company shall owe any duty of any kind (including any fiduciary duty) to any Warrantholder, in its capacity as a Warrantholder, including in connection with any act or failure to act, whether under this Warrant Agreement, the Warrant, or otherwise; and (iv) such Warrantholder shall not, and shall cause its Affiliates not to, bring, make, institute, or seek to bring, make, or institute, in the name of or on behalf of the Company, such Warrantholder, or any other Person, any claim or proceeding arising out of, or relating to, this Warrant Agreement or any Warrants against any director or officer of the Company directly or indirectly in connection with an alleged breach of such director's or officer's duties, including fiduciary duties.

The Company is not required and does not intend to file any registration statement for the Warrants or the Warrant Units.

This Warrant Certificate, each Warrant evidenced by this Warrant Certificate, and the Warrant Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to any choice of law or conflict of law rules or provisions (whether of the State of New York or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of New York.

The Warrant Agreement provides that each Warrantholder or transferee of any Warrantholder shall provide the Warrant Agent with properly completed and duly executed IRS Form W-9 or the appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable.

(c) Any holder of a beneficial interest in Warrants evidenced by a Global Warrant Certificate registered in the name of the Depositary or its nominee shall, by acceptance of such beneficial interest, agree that transfers of beneficial interests in the Warrants evidenced by such Global Warrant Certificate may be effected only through the book-entry system maintained by the Depositary as the Warrantholder of such Global Warrant Certificate (or its agent), and that ownership of a beneficial interest in Warrants evidenced thereby shall be reflected solely in such book-entry form.

(d) Transfers of a Global Warrant Certificate registered in the name of the Depositary or its nominee shall be limited to transfers in whole, and not in part, to the Depositary, its successors, and their respective nominees except as set forth in Section 2.4(e). Any endorsement of a Global Warrant Certificate to reflect the amount of any decrease in the aggregate number of outstanding Warrants evidenced thereby will be made by the Warrant Agent (i) in the case of an exercise, in accordance with the Applicable Procedures as required by Section 3.2(d) or (ii) in the case of an expiration, in accordance with Section 2.6.

(j) Beneficial interests in any Global Warrant Certificate may be transferred to Persons who take delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in the same Global Warrant Certificate in accordance with this Warrant Agreement and, to the extent not inconsistent with this Warrant Agreement, the Applicable Procedures.

A party requesting transfer of Warrants must provide any evidence of authority that may be reasonably requested by the Warrant Agent, including but not limited to, a signature guarantee from an eligible guarantor institution participating in a signature guarantee program approved by the Securities Transfer Association. So long as the other provisions of this Section 2.9 are satisfied and complied with, within five Business Days after a Transfer Notice is delivered pursuant to this Section 2.9 (but in no event earlier than the proposed effective date of Transfer specified in the Transfer Notice), (i) the Company shall instruct and use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Warrant Agent to register the Transfer of such Warrants in the Warrant Register or (ii) if the Warrants subject to such Transfer are represented by a Global Warrant Certificate, the Warrant Agent shall, if applicable, register such Transfer in accordance with Applicable Procedures unless, in either case, (I) prior to the expiration of such five Business Day period, the Company reasonably requests information demonstrating that the Transfer complies with this Section 2.9 (including information demonstrating that the Transferee is not a Competitor) or (II) the Transferor, by written notice to the Company, withdraws the related Transfer Notice prior to registration of the Transfer; provided that if the Company does not take any action pursuant clause (i) within such five Business Day period in the absence of a request for further information pursuant to clause (I) or a withdrawal pursuant to clause (II), the Company shall be deemed to have taken the applicable action pursuant to clause (i) at the end of such five-Business Day period. If any such request for information is made, the Company shall (x) instruct and use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Warrant Agent to register the Transfer in the Warrant Register or (y) otherwise consent in the case of Warrants represented by a Global Warrant Certificate, in each case, no later than five Business Days after the Company receives such information (but in no event earlier than the proposed effective date of Transfer specified in the Transfer Notice), unless the Company determines during any such five-Business Day period that the Transfer is not permitted pursuant to the terms of this Section 2.9, in which case the Company shall promptly inform the Transferor of such determination; provided that if the Company does not take any action pursuant clause (x) or (y) within such five-Business Day period, the Company shall be deemed to have taken the applicable action pursuant to clause (x) or (y) at the end of such five-Business Day period.

(d) Upon the closing of each Transfer that is permitted by this Warrant Agreement, (i) such Transferee shall be deemed to be a Warrantholder for purposes of this Warrant Agreement, (ii) such Transferee shall be entitled to the rights and subject to the obligations of a Warrantholder under this Warrant Agreement with respect to the Transferred Warrants, and (iii) the Company shall instruct and use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Warrant Agent to register the Transfer in the Warrant Register.

(e) The Warrant Agent shall not record in the Warrant Register the Transfer of any Warrants except for Transfers that are consummated in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Warrant Agreement. Any purported Transfer of Warrants in violation of such terms and provisions shall be void ab initio and shall not be recognized by the Company or the Warrant Agent.

(f) If any Warrantholder is an Entity that has no substantial assets other than Warrants or indebtedness of, or securities in, the Company or any of its subsidiaries, then such Warrantholder agrees that no shares of capital stock of, or other equity interests in, such Warrantholder may be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed to any Person other than in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Section 2.9 as if such capital stock or other equity interests were Warrants; provided that a Transfer of capital stock or other equity interests in such Warrantholder to any Affiliate of such Warrantholder (other than to any Affiliate of such Warrantholder that is a portfolio company of such Warrantholder or any of its other Affiliates, other than any portfolio company entity formed solely for purposes of holding a direct or indirect interest in the Company unless such portfolio company entity was formed to engage in a "fund to fund" transaction) shall not be subject to this Section 2.9(f).

(g) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company may, in its sole discretion, waive or modify the application of any term or provision of a procedural nature set forth herein to any Transfer so long as such waiver or modification (i) is for administrative convenience purposes to facilitate the consummation of such Transfer, (ii) does not adversely affect the rights of any of the Warrantholders, (iii) does not subject any of the Warrantholders to any additional obligations or liabilities, and (iv) is approved by the Transferor and the ultimate Transferee of such Transfer (which approval may be provided by e-mail to the Company in accordance with Section 6.13). The right of the Company to make any such waiver or modification need not be uniform among Transfers and may be made by it selectively among any Transfers (whether or not such Transfers are similar in nature). Any such waiver or modification shall not require any consents or approvals of the Warrant Agent or the Warrantholders under Section 5.2.

Section 2.10 Restrictive Legend. Each Warrant Certificate and the account of each Warrantholder on the Warrant Register shall be marked with a legend in the following or a substantially comparable form:

> THIS WARRANT WAS ORIGINALLY ISSUED IN RELIANCE UPON AN EXEMPTION FROM THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS OF SECTION 5 OF THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "ACT"), PROVIDED BY SECTION 1145 OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE, 11 U.S.C. § 1145. ARTICLE 3
EXERCISE AND SETTLEMENT OF WARRANTS

Section 3.1 Right to Acquire Common Units Upon Exercise. Subject to the provisions of the applicable Warrant Certificate and of this Warrant Agreement, when countersigned by the Warrant Agent, each Warrant Certificate shall entitle the applicable Warrantholder to acquire from the Company, for each Warrant evidenced by such Warrant Certificate, one Common Unit at the applicable Exercise Price, subject to adjustment as provided in this Warrant Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Warrants are issued by book-entry registration on the books and records maintained by the Warrant Agent and not represented by physical certificates pursuant to Section 2.1(b), any applicable Warrantholder's rights with respect to such uncertificated Warrant Certificates shall not be subject to such countersignature by the Warrant Agent. The Exercise Price, and the number of Common Units obtainable upon exercise of each Warrant, shall be adjusted from time to time as required by Article 4.

Section 3.2 Exercise of Warrants.

(a) Subject to and upon compliance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Warrant Agreement, a Warrantholder may exercise all or any whole number portion of the Warrants held by such Warrantholder on any Business Day from and after the date of issuance of such Warrant until the Expiration Time. The Warrants, to the extent not exercised prior thereto, shall automatically expire, terminate, and become void as of the Expiration Time. No further action of any Person (including by, or on behalf of, any Warrantholder, the Company, or the Warrant Agent) shall be required to effectuate the expiration of Warrants pursuant to this Section 3.2(a).

(b) Except in the case of an automatic exercise pursuant to Section 3.2(c) or Section 4.13, to exercise a Warrant, the Warrantholder thereof must:

(i) (x) if the Warrants are represented by physical certificates, surrender the Warrant Certificate evidencing such Warrants to the Warrant Agent at the Corporate Agency Office or (y) in the case of a Global Warrant Certificate, deliver such Warrants to the Warrant Agent by book-entry transfer through the facilities of the Depositary in accordance with the Applicable Procedures and otherwise comply with this Warrant Agreement and the Applicable Procedures in respect of the exercise of such Warrants;

(ii) deliver to the Warrant Agent and the Company a duly completed and executed Exercise Notice as to the Warrantholder's election to exercise the number of the Warrants specified therein, duly executed by such Warrantholder;

(iii) pay to the Warrant Agent (x) an amount equal to the Exercise Price for each Common Unit receivable upon exercise of each Warrant to be exercised and (y) those applicable taxes and charges provided for in Section 3.8 and Section 3.10, prior to, or concurrently with, the exercise of such Warrant, in each case of (x) and (y), by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account specified in writing by the Company in the Exercise Notice or such other account as the Company shall have given notice to the Warrant Agent and such Warrantholder in accordance with Section 6.13; and

(iv) if such Warrantholder is not already a member under the LLC Agreement, deliver to the Warrant Agent and the Company a duly completed and executed Joinder, pursuant to which such Warrantholder agrees to be bound by the LLC Agreement and acknowledges that all Common Units issued upon such exercise of such Warrants shall be subject to the LLC Agreement, to the Company (with a copy concurrently delivered to the Warrant Agent) prior to or concurrently with delivering an Exercise Notice in accordance with Section 3.2(b)(ii). Without limiting the foregoing, the exercise of any Warrant by any Warrantholder shall be deemed to be such Warrantholder's agreement to be bound, and shall cause the Warrantholder thereof to become automatically bound, by the LLC Agreement.

(c) (i) Subject to clause (c)(ii) hereof and Section 4.13, immediately prior to the occurrence of a Change of Control Transaction, the closing of a SPAC Transaction, or the pricing of any Initial Public Offering (other than a SPAC Transaction), each Warrantholder shall, without further action on the part of any Warrantholder, be deemed to have exercised all of its Warrants on a "cashless" basis, with such number of Common Units deliverable upon such exercise determined as follows:

$$X = \frac{(A - B) * C}{A}$$

where:

X = the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise pursuant to this Section 3.2(c).

A = (i) in the case of a Change of Control Transaction, the Fair Market Value of the Securities, cash, or other assets payable per Common Unit in connection with the Change of Control Transaction and (ii) in the case of (A) an Initial Public Offering under clause (a) of the definition thereof, the per security offering price to the public in the Initial Public Offering, (B) an Initial Public Offering under clause (b) of the definition thereof, the reference price for such Initial Public Offering, and (C) an Initial Public Offering under clause (c) of the definition thereof, the Fair Market Value of the Securities, cash, or other assets payable per Common Unit in such SPAC Transaction.

B = the applicable Exercise Price of such Warrant.

C = the number of Common Units as to which the applicable Warrants are exercisable (prior to payment of the applicable Exercise Price).

(ii) If "A" in the calculation above is less than or equal to the applicable Exercise Price for such Warrant (such Warrant, an "Out-of-the-Money Warrant", and if "A" in the calculation above is greater than the applicable Exercise Price for such Warrant, such Warrant, an "In-the-Money Warrant"), then, subject to Section 4.13, each such Warrant shall not be exercised as contemplated by this Section 3.2(c) and shall be automatically cancelled upon consummation of the Change of Control Transaction or Initial Public Offering for no consideration. In such event, neither the Warrantholder nor any other Person shall have any rights under the Warrants or this Warrant Agreement unless any Warrant has been duly exercised prior to the consummation of such Change of Control Transaction or Initial Public Offering. The deemed exercise of any Warrant by any Warrantholder pursuant to this Section 3.2(c) shall be deemed to be such Warrantholder's agreement to be bound, and shall cause the Warrantholder thereof to become automatically bound, by the LLC Agreement if such Warrantholder is not already a member under the LLC Agreement (including, in the case of an Alternative Monetization, such Warrantholder with respect to its In-the-Money Warrants shall be subject to the same obligations as a holder of Common Units under the LLC Agreement, including Sections 7.2 and 7.3 thereof). Any deemed exercise of any Warrant pursuant to this Section 3.2(c) in connection with the pricing of an Initial Public Offering (other than direct listing or a SPAC Transaction) shall be expressly conditioned on the closing of such Initial Public Offering.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary herein, if prior to any Change of Control Transaction, (A) a Warrantholder holds In-the-Money Warrants, (B) such Warrantholder requests that its In-the-Money Warrants be sold or exchanged (the "Alternative Monetization") in such Change of Control Transaction (in lieu of the sale or exchange of the Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of such Warrants), and (C) the Alternative Monetization would not adversely affect the applicable tax or non-tax consequences for the Company or the holders of Common Units in connection with such Change of Control Transaction or otherwise adversely affect the ability to consummate such Change of Control Transaction in any manner (in each case, as determined by the Board in good faith), then the Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause each Warrant held by such Warrantholder to be sold or exchanged in such Change of Control Transaction for an amount equal to (x) the excess of (1) the Fair Market Value of the Securities, cash, or other assets payable per Common Unit in connection with the Change of Control Transaction over (2) the Exercise Price of such Warrant, multiplied by (y) the number of Common Units receivable upon exercise of such Warrant; provided that the failure of the Company counterparty in such Change of Control Transaction to agree to an Alternative Monetization shall not hinder or otherwise impede the ability of the Company and the other parties in such Change of Control Transaction to consummate such transaction.

(d) If fewer than all of the Warrants represented by a Warrant Certificate are exercised (which shall in no event be applicable in the event of an automatic exercise pursuant to Section 3.2(c) or Section 4.13), (i) in the case of an exercise of Warrants evidenced by a Global Warrant Certificate, the Warrant Agent shall endorse the "Schedule of Decreases of Warrants" attached to such Global Warrant Certificate to reflect the Warrants being exercised and (ii) in the case of any other exercise of Warrants, such Warrant Certificate shall be surrendered and a new Warrant Certificate of the same tenor and for the number of Warrants which were not exercised shall be executed by the Company. The Warrant Agent shall countersign the new Warrant Certificate, registered in such name or names, subject to the provisions of this Warrant Agreement regarding registration of Transfer and payment of governmental charges in respect of such registration of Transfer, as may be directed in writing by the Warrantholder, and shall deliver the new Warrant Certificate to the Person or Persons in whose name such new Warrant Certificate is so registered. Whenever required by the Warrant Agent, the Company will supply the Warrant Agent with Warrant Certificates duly executed on behalf of the Company for such purpose.

(e) The date on which all of the requirements for exercise set forth in this Section 3.2 in respect of a Warrant have been satisfied is the "Exercise Date" with respect to such Warrant.

(f) Subject to Section 3.2(h), any exercise of a Warrant pursuant to the terms of this Warrant Agreement shall be irrevocable and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

(g) All funds administered by Computershare under this Warrant Agreement that are to be distributed or applied by Computershare in the performance of services (the "Funds") shall be administered by Computershare as agent for the Company and deposited in one or more bank accounts to be maintained by Computershare in its name as agent for the Company. Until paid pursuant to this Warrant Agreement, Computershare may administer or invest the Funds through such accounts in: (a) funds backed by obligations of, or guaranteed by, the United States of America; (b) debt or commercial paper obligations rated A-1 or P-1 or better by S&P Global Inc. ("S&P") or Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's"), respectively; (c) Government and Treasury backed AAA-rated Fixed NAV money market funds that comply with Rule 2a-7 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended; or (d) short term certificates of deposit, bank repurchase agreements, and bank accounts with commercial banks with Tier 1 capital exceeding $1 billion, or with an investment grade rating by S&P (LT Local Issuer Credit Rating), Moody's (Long Term Rating) and Fitch Ratings, Inc. (LT Issuer Default Rating) (each as reported by Bloomberg Finance L.P). Computershare shall have no responsibility or liability for any diminution of the Funds that may result from any deposit or investment made by Computershare in accordance with this paragraph, including any losses resulting from a default by any bank, financial institution or other third party. Computershare may from time to time receive interest, dividends, or other earnings in connection with such deposits or investments. Computershare shall not be obligated to pay such interest, dividends or earnings to the Company, any Warrantholder or any other party.

(h) Prior to the delivery of any Common Units upon exercise of a Warrant, the Company shall be obligated to comply with all applicable Laws which require action to be taken by the Company in connection with such delivery. Upon the reasonable advance request of an Exercising Owner (other than in the case of an automatic exercise of a Warrant pursuant to Section 3.2(c) or Section 4.13), at the sole cost and expense of such Exercising Owner, the Company shall reasonably assist and reasonably cooperate with such Exercising Owner that is required to make any governmental filings or obtain any governmental approvals prior to or in connection with receipt of Common Units upon any exercise of a Warrant; provided that, if applicable, the Expiration Time shall be extended with respect to exercises for which an exercise notice has been provided prior to the stated Expiration Time in order to allow a Warrantholder to receive such governmental approvals; provided, further, that such extension shall not exceed 120 days after the stated Expiration Time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, except to the extent required by Law, in no event shall any such filing or approval delay any Change of Control Transaction, the closing of a SPAC Transaction, or the pricing of any Initial Public Offering (other than a SPAC Transaction). The Company shall provide the Warrant Agent, upon the Warrant Agent's reasonable request, with evidence of compliance with this Section 3.2(h), which the Warrant Agent shall be entitled to rely upon.

(i) The Company shall calculate and transmit to the Warrant Agent, and the Warrant Agent shall have no obligation under this Warrant Agreement to make any calculations with regards to Warrants exercised on a "cashless" basis. The number of Common Units to be issued on such exercise will be determined by the Company (with written notice thereof to the Warrant Agent) using the formula set forth in Section 3.2(c), and the Warrant Agent shall have no duty or obligation to investigate or confirm whether the Company's determination of the number of Common Units to be issued on such exercise pursuant to this Section 3.2 is accurate or correct.

(j) The Warrant Agent shall forward funds received for Warrant exercises in a given month by the fifth Business Day of the following month by wire transfer to an account designated by the Company.

(k) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Common Units are to be issued in a name other than the record holder of the applicable Warrant, such record holder shall be deemed to have requested a Transfer of such Warrant prior to such exercise, which Transfer must comply with the provisions of this Warrant Agreement and the LLC Agreement.

(l) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the number of Common Units for which Warrants, together with any other convertible instrument held by Barclays (as defined in the LLC Agreement and referred to herein as the "Regulated Holder"), may be exercised will be limited such that the Regulated Holder (including its direct or indirect transferees, other than in a transfer permitted under 12 C.F.R. 225.9(a)(3) (e.g., widespread distribution) ("Permitted BHCA Transfer") will at no time have the right to acquire Common Units of the Company that, together with other Units held by the Regulated Holder (including its direct or indirect transferees, other than in a Permitted BHCA Transfer), would cause the Regulated Holder to own or control, or to be deemed to own or control, greater than 4.99% of any class of voting securities of the Company (as determined under the U.S. Bank Holding Company Act and 12 C.F.R. Part 225 (Subpart A) (the "BHCA") or one-third or more of the total equity of the Company. Any Common Units received by the Regulated Holder constituting (together with any other Units held by such Regulated Holder, including its direct or indirect transferees, other than in a Permitted BHCA Transfer) in excess of 4.99% of any class of voting securities of the Company shall be non-voting Common Units that shall not confer onto their holders any voting rights in the Company, except as expressly provided in the LLC Agreement relating to matters for which holders of non-voting securities are permitted to have a vote pursuant to 12 CFR 225.2(q), and shall remain non-voting Common Units except as may be provided in the LLC Agreement relating to Permitted BHCA Transfers and anti-dilution conversions permitted under 12 CFR 225.9(a)(5), but shall be identical to voting Common Units in all other respects. No Warrants (or any other convertible instruments) held by the Regulated Holder convertible into more than 4.99% of any class of voting securities of the Company may be transferred by the Regulated Holder unless such transfer is made in a Permitted BHCA Transfer.

Section 3.3 Delivery of Common Units.

(a) In connection with the exercise of Warrants, the Warrant Agent shall:

(i) examine all Exercise Notices and all other documents delivered to it to ascertain whether, on their face, such Exercise Notices and any such other documents have been executed and completed in accordance with their terms;

(ii) where an Exercise Notice or other document appears on its face to have been improperly completed or executed or some other irregularity in connection with the exercise of the Warrant exists, endeavor to inform the appropriate parties (including the Person submitting such instrument) of the need for fulfillment of all requirements, specifying those requirements which appear to be unfulfilled;

(iii) inform the Company of, and cooperate with and assist the Company in resolving, any reconciliation problems between the Exercise Notices received and delivery of Warrants to the Warrant Agent's account;

(iv) advise the Company with respect to an exercise, no later than three Business Days following the satisfaction of each of the applicable procedures for exercise set forth in Section 3.2(b), of (x) the receipt of such Exercise Notice and the number of Warrants exercised in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Warrant Agreement, (y) the number of Common Units to be delivered by the Company, and (z) such other information as the Company shall reasonably require;

(v) forward funds received for Warrant exercises in a given month by the fifth Business Day of the following month by wire transfer to an account designated by the Company;

(vi) provide to the Company, upon the Company's request, the number of Warrants previously exercised, the number of Common Units issued in connection with such exercises, and the number of remaining outstanding Warrants; and

(vii) provide to the Company, upon the Company's request, any Exercise Notices delivered pursuant to Section 3.2(b) and any documents delivered pursuant to Section 3.2(b) or Section 3.3(b).

(b) With respect to each properly exercised Warrant in accordance with this Warrant Agreement (other than in the case of an automatic exercise of a Warrant pursuant to Section 3.2(c) or Section 4.13), within ten Business Days after the applicable Exercise Date, (i) in the case of an exercise of Warrants evidenced by a Global Warrant Certificate, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered, in accordance with the Applicable Procedures, Common Units in book-entry form to be so held through the facilities of DTC equal to such amount, or if the Common Units may not then be held in book-entry form through the facilities of DTC, either, at the Warrantholder's option, (x) duly executed certificates representing Common Units equal to such amount or (y) Common Units equal to such amount issued in electronic book-entry registered form only, and (ii) in the case of any other exercise of Warrants, the Company shall issue, in book-entry form, the Common Units equal to such amount, in each case of clause (i) and (ii), due in connection with such exercise for the benefit and in the name of the Person designated by the Warrantholder submitting the applicable Exercise Notice. The Person on whose behalf and in whose name any Common Units are so registered shall for all purposes be deemed to have become the holder of record of such Common Units as of the Close of Business on the applicable Exercise Date. The Company covenants that all Common Units which may be issued upon exercise of Warrants will, at the time of issuance, be, upon payment of the Exercise Price and issuance of such Common Units, fully paid and nonassessable, free of preemptive rights and (except as specified in Section 3.8 or in the LLC Agreement) free from all taxes, liens, charges, and security interests (other than those created by the applicable Warrantholder or Person on whose behalf or in whose name such Common Units are issued) with respect to the issuance of such Warrants. Notwithstanding any provision in this Warrant Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall not be required to register Warrant Units in the name of any person who acquired any Warrant or any Warrant Units otherwise than in accordance with the terms of this Warrant Agreement, the Warrant, and the LLC Agreement.

(c) Promptly after the Warrant Agent has taken the action required by this Section 3.3 (or at such later time as may be mutually agreeable to the Company and the Warrant Agent), the Warrant Agent shall account to the Company with respect to the consummation of any exercise of any Warrants.

(d)

(i) In the event of a cash exercise, the Company hereby instructs the Warrant Agent to record cost basis for newly issued shares at the time of such exercise in accordance with instructions by the Company.

(ii) In the event of a "cashless" exercise, the Company shall provide the cost basis for shares issued pursuant to a cashless exercise at the time the Company provides the calculations of such "cashless" exercise to the Warrant Agent pursuant to Section 3.2 hereof.

Section 3.4 No Fractional Common Units to Be Issued.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Warrant Agreement, the Company shall not be required to issue any fraction of a Common Unit upon exercise of any Warrants.

(b) If any fraction of a Common Unit would be issuable on the exercise of any Warrants if not for the provisions of this Section 3.4, the Company shall either, at its option, (i) make a cash payment in lieu of issuing such fractional Common Unit equal to the Fair Market Value of one Common Unit, as determined on the date the Warrant is presented for exercise, multiplied by such fraction, rounded to the nearest whole cent, subject to any restrictions or limitations in the Company's financing or other contractual arrangements (a "Fractional Payment") or (ii) round such fractional Common Unit up to the nearest whole number of Common Units. All Warrants exercised by a Warrantholder on the same Exercise Date shall be aggregated for purposes of determining the number of Common Units to be delivered pursuant to Section 3.3(b).

(c) By its acceptance of an interest in a Warrant, each Warrantholder expressly waives its right to any fraction of a Common Unit upon its exercise of such Warrant.

(d) The Company shall provide to Computershare an initial funding of ~~[~~one thousand dollars ($1,000)~~]~~ for the purpose of issuing cash in lieu of fractional shares. From time to time thereafter, Computershare may request additional funding to cover Fractional Payments. The Warrant Agent shall have no obligation to make Fractional Payments unless the Company shall have provided the necessary funds to pay in full all amounts due and payable with respect thereto.

Section 3.5 Acquisition of Warrants by Company. The Company shall have the right, except as limited by Law, to purchase or otherwise to acquire one or more Warrants at such times, in such manner, and for such consideration as agreed by the Company and the applicable Warrantholder. A Transfer of Warrants to the Company shall not be subject to the requirements of Section 2.9.

Section 3.6 Validity of Exercise. All questions as to the validity, form, and sufficiency (including time of receipt) of a Warrant exercise shall be determined by the Company in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this Warrant Agreement and the Warrants, which determination, absent manifest error, shall be final and binding with respect to the Warrant Agent. The Company reserves the right to reject any and all Exercise Notices not in proper form or duly executed by the Person in whose name the Warrants are registered as the record holder thereof, unless such deemed Transfer complies with the terms of this Warrant Agreement and the LLC Agreement. The Company shall give prompt notice to the Warrant Agent and the applicable Warrantholders of any such determination. The Warrant Agent shall incur no liability for or in respect of (and except to the extent such liability arises from the Warrant Agent's fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, or willful misconduct~~, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement~~, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final non-appealable judgment) and shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company for acting or refraining from acting upon, or as a result of, a determination made by the Company pursuant to this Section 3.6. The Warrant Agent shall not be under any duty or responsibility to any Warrantholder or under any section of this Warrant Agreement to make or cause to be made any adjustment in the Exercise Price or in the number of Warrant Units any Warrant is exercisable for (except as instructed in writing by the Company), or to determine whether any facts exist that may require any such adjustments, or with respect to the nature or extent of or method employed in making any such adjustments when made. The Company reserves the absolute right to waive any of the conditions to the exercise of Warrants or defects in Exercise Notices with regard to any particular exercise of Warrants.

Section 3.7 Certain Calculations.

(a) Other than with respect to certain calculations relating to automatic exercises of Warrants pursuant to Section 3.2(c) (as described in the penultimate sentence of this Section 3.7(a)), the Warrant Agent shall be responsible for performing all calculations required in connection with the exercise and settlement of the Warrants as described in this Article 3. In connection with any such calculations, the Warrant Agent shall provide prompt written notice to the Company, in accordance with Section 3.3(a)(iv), of the number of Common Units deliverable upon exercise and settlement of Warrants. The Company shall be responsible for the calculation of "A" described in Section 3.2(c) in connection with any automatic exercise of a Warrant pursuant to Section 3.2(c) and shall provide written notification to the Warrant Agent of the number of Common Units to be issued in settlement of any such automatic exercise. The Warrant Agent shall not be responsible for performing the calculations set forth in Article 4.

(b) The Warrant Agent shall not be accountable with respect to the validity or value of any Common Units that may at any time be issued or delivered upon the exercise of any Warrant, and it makes no representation with respect to the validity or value of any Common Units. The Warrant Agent shall not be responsible, to the extent not arising from the Warrant Agent's fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final non-appealable judgment), for any failure of the Company to issue, transfer, or deliver any Common Units, or to comply materially with any of the covenants of the Company contained in this Article 3 of this Warrant Agreement.

Section 3.8 Charges, Taxes, and Expenses. Issuance of Warrant Units shall be made without charge for any documentary, stamp, or similar issue or transfer tax or other incidental expense in respect of the issuance of such Warrant Units, all of which taxes and expenses shall be paid by the Company (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, any income, withholding, or similar taxes). Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither the Company nor the Warrant Agent shall be required (a) to pay any tax that may be payable in respect of a Transfer event, including the issuance and delivery of Warrant Units in a name other than the name of the Warrantholder in which the Warrants are registered, or (b) to effect a Transfer, including by issuing or delivering Warrant Units, in the name other than that in which the Warrants were registered unless and until the Persons requesting the issuance or delivery of such Warrant Units or other similar Transfer shall have paid to the Company the amount of such tax or shall have reasonably demonstrated that such tax has been paid.

Section 3.9 Cancellation of Warrant Certificates. Any Warrant Certificate surrendered for exercise shall, if surrendered to the Company, be delivered to the Warrant Agent. All Warrant Certificates surrendered or delivered to or received by the Warrant Agent for cancellation pursuant to this Section 3.9 shall be as soon as commercially practicable cancelled by the Warrant Agent and shall not be reissued by the Company. The Warrant Agent shall destroy any such cancelled Warrant Certificates and deliver its certificate of destruction to the Company, unless the Company shall otherwise direct.

Section 3.10 Withholding and Reporting Requirements. The Company shall be permitted to comply with all applicable tax withholding and reporting requirements imposed by any Governmental Authority with respect to the Warrants and this Warrant Agreement, and all distributions, dividends, or other payments requiring withholding under applicable Law, including, as applicable, deemed distributions or dividends pursuant to the Warrants and any payment of cash in lieu of Common Units payable in connection with the exercise of a Warrant, shall be subject to applicable withholding and reporting requirements. Notwithstanding any provision hereof to the contrary, each of the Company and the Warrant Agent shall be authorized to, at their discretion, (a) take any actions that may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to comply with such withholding and reporting requirements, (b) apply any cash amount otherwise deliverable to a Warrantholder (whether pursuant to this Warrant Agreement or otherwise) to pay (or, in the case of the Company, reimburse the Company for) withholding taxes attributable to such Warrantholder, (c) liquidate a portion of any non-cash amount (including Common Units) otherwise deliverable to a Warrantholder (whether pursuant to this Warrant Agreement or otherwise) to generate sufficient funds to pay (or, in the case of the Company, reimburse the Company for) withholding taxes attributable to such Warrantholder, (d) require reimbursement from any Warrantholder to the extent any withholding is required in respect of such Warrantholder in the absence of any cash or property described in clauses (b) or (c), or (e) establish any other mechanisms it believes are reasonably necessary and appropriate, including requiring Warrantholders to (x) submit appropriate tax and withholding certifications (such as Internal Revenue Service Forms W-9 or the appropriate Internal Revenue Service Forms W-8, as applicable) or any other documentation reasonably requested to comply with any withholding under applicable Law or (y) promptly pay to the Company in cash any withholding tax amount which is or was required to be paid under applicable Law with respect to such Warrantholder as a condition of receiving the benefit of any adjustment as provided in this Warrant Agreement. Any amounts that are so withheld and paid to the appropriate Governmental Authority shall be treated as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such withholding was made.

ARTICLE 4
ADJUSTMENTS

Section 4.1 Adjustments and Other Rights. The Exercise Price of the Warrants and the number of Common Units into which each Warrant is to be exercisable pursuant to Article 3 of this Warrant Agreement of each Warrant shall be subject to adjustment from time to time in accordance with this Article 4. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) no single event shall be subject to adjustment under more than one subsection of this Article 4 so as to result in duplication and (ii) if any single event would otherwise require adjustment of the Exercise Price or the number of Common Units into which each Warrant is to be convertible pursuant to more than one such subsection, the adjustment that provides the highest value relative to the rights and interests of each Warrantholder shall be made.

Section 4.2 Common Units Issued at Less Than the Fair Market Value.

(a) If the Company issues or sells any Common Units or Convertible Securities (other than pursuant to a transaction to which Section 4.5 applies) to the CD&R Member or any of its Affiliates for no consideration or for consideration per Common Unit less than 98% of the Fair Market Value thereof, then:

(i) the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to each such issuance or sale will immediately be reduced to the price determined by multiplying the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such issuance or sale by a fraction, (x) the numerator of which shall be the sum of (1) the product obtained by multiplying the number of Common Units outstanding immediately prior to such issuance or sale by the Fair Market Value of a Common Unit immediately prior to such issuance or sale, plus (2) the aggregate consideration, if any, received by the Company for the total number of such additional Common Units or Convertible Securities so issued or sold, and (y) the denominator of which shall be the product obtained by multiplying (1) the number of Common Units outstanding immediately after such issuance or sale by (2) the Fair Market Value of a Common Unit immediately prior to such issuance or sale; and

(ii) the number of Common Units issuable upon the exercise of a Warrant shall be increased to the number obtained by dividing (x) the product of (1) the number of Common Units issuable upon the exercise of such Warrant immediately prior to such adjustment and (2) the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to the issuance or sale giving rise to this adjustment, by (y) the new Exercise Price determined in accordance with Section 4.2(a)(i). For the avoidance of doubt, no increase in the Exercise Price or reduction in the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant shall be made pursuant to this Section 4.2 or, if and to the extent applicable, any other provision of this Article 4 (except as expressly specified in Section 4.4 as a result of a transaction described in clause (iii) thereof).

(b) For the purposes of any adjustment of the Exercise Price and the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant pursuant to this Section 4.2, the following provisions shall be applicable:

(i) in the case of the issuance or sale of Common Units or Convertible Securities for cash, the amount of the consideration received by the Company shall be deemed to be the amount of the gross cash proceeds received by the Company for such Securities before deducting therefrom any discounts or commissions allowed, paid, or incurred by the Company for any underwriting or otherwise in connection with the issuance and sale thereof.

(ii) in the case of the issuance or sale of Common Units or Convertible Securities (other than upon the conversion of shares of capital stock or other Securities of the Company) for consideration in whole or in part other than cash, including Securities acquired in exchange therefor (other than Securities by their terms so exchangeable), the consideration other than cash shall be deemed to be the Fair Market Value thereof, before deducting therefrom any discounts or commissions allowed, paid, or incurred by the Company for any underwriting or otherwise in connection with the issuance and sale thereof.

(iii) in the case of the issuance of Convertible Securities (whether or not at the time so convertible or exchangeable):

(A) the aggregate maximum number of Common Units deliverable upon exercise of such Convertible Securities shall be deemed to have been issued at the time such Convertible Securities are issued and for consideration equal to the consideration (determined in the manner provided in this Section 4.2), if any, received by the Company upon the issuance or sale of such Convertible Securities, plus the minimum purchase price provided in such Convertible Securities for the Common Units covered thereby;

(B) the aggregate maximum number of Common Units deliverable upon conversion of or in exchange for any such Convertible Securities shall be deemed to have been issued at the time such Convertible Securities were issued and for a consideration equal to the consideration (determined as provided in this Section 4.2), if any, received by the Company upon the issuance or sale of such Convertible Securities (excluding any cash received on account of accrued interest or accrued dividends), plus the additional consideration (in each case, determined in the manner provided in this Section 4.2), if any, to be received by the Company upon the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities;

(C) if the Exercise Price and the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant shall have been duly adjusted in accordance with the terms of this Warrant Agreement upon the issuance or sale of any Convertible Securities, no further adjustment of the Exercise Price or the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant shall be made for the actual issuance of Convertible Securities or Common Units upon the exercise, conversion, or exchange thereof; and

(D) upon the expiration or termination of any unexercised, unconverted, or unexchanged Convertible Securities that resulted in an adjustment to the Exercise Price or the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant pursuant to the terms of this Section 4.2, the Exercise Price and such number of Common Units then in effect shall be readjusted to such Exercise Price and number of Common Units that would then be in effect if such Convertible Securities had never been issued.

Section 4.3 Repurchases or Redemptions at Greater Than Fair Market Value. If the Company repurchases or redeems any Common Units or Convertible Securities (other than Common Units or Convertible Securities (i) repurchased or redeemed from Management Holders in an aggregate amount not to exceed an amount equal to (x) 125% of the greater of $20.0 million and 5.0% of Four Quarter Consolidated EBITDA (as defined in the LLC Agreement) of the Company, plus (y) the Net Cash Proceeds (as defined in the LLC Agreement) received by the Company on or since the Closing Date from, or as a capital contribution from, the issuance or sale to Management Investors (as defined in the LLC Agreement) of debt or equity securities of the Company (including any options, warrants, or other rights in respect thereof), plus (C) the cash proceeds of key man life insurance policies received by the Company or any Subsidiary thereof on or since the Closing Date, and (ii) issued pursuant to any stock option, warrant, stock purchase plan, agreement or arrangement, any employment agreement, any other benefit plans or compensatory arrangements or any other bona fide compensatory arrangements, including equity purchase plans, approved by the Board), for consideration per Common Unit or Convertible Security greater than 110% of the Fair Market Value thereof, then the Exercise Price will immediately be reduced to the price determined by multiplying the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such repurchase or redemption by a fraction, (a) the numerator of which shall be (i) the product obtained by multiplying the number of Common Units outstanding immediately prior to such repurchase or redemption by the Fair Market Value of a Common Unit immediately prior to such repurchase or redemption minus (ii) the aggregate consideration paid to effect such repurchase or redemption, and (b) the denominator of which shall be the product obtained by multiplying (i) the number of Common Units outstanding immediately prior to such repurchase or redemption minus the number of Common Units repurchased or redeemed (or in the case of repurchase or redemption of Convertible Securities, the number of Common Units deliverable upon conversion of or in exchange for any such Convertible Securities so repurchased or redeemed) by (ii) the Fair Market Value of a Common Unit immediately prior to such repurchase or redemption. For purposes of calculating clause (a)(i) and clause (b)(i) in the preceding sentence, the number of Common Units deliverable upon conversion of or in exchange for any such Convertible Securities so repurchased or redeemed shall be deemed outstanding immediately prior to such repurchase or redemption. In such event, the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant shall be increased to the number obtained by dividing (x) the product of (i) the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of such Warrant before such adjustment and (ii) the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to the Record Date or effective date, as the case may be, for such repurchase or redemption by (y) the new Exercise Price determined in accordance with the second preceding sentence.

Section 4.4 Dividends, Distributions, Stock Splits, Subdivisions, Reclassifications, or Combinations. If the Company shall (i) declare a dividend or make a distribution on its Common Units in Common Units, (ii) split, subdivide, recapitalize, restructure, or reclassify the outstanding Common Units into a greater number of Common Units or effect a similar transaction, or (iii) combine, recapitalize, restructure, or reclassify the outstanding Common Units into a smaller number of Common Units or effect a similar transaction, in each case, other than upon a Transaction to which Section 4.13 applies, the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant and the Exercise Price will be adjusted as follows:

$$N_A = \frac{N_B * O_A}{O_B} \qquad E_A = \frac{E_B * O_B}{O_A}$$

where:

N_A = the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant immediately after adjustment pursuant to this Section 4.4.

N_B = the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant immediately before adjustment pursuant to this Section 4.4.

E_A = the Exercise Price immediately after adjustment pursuant to this Section 4.4.

E_B = the Exercise Price immediately before adjustment pursuant to this Section 4.4.

O_A = the number of Common Units outstanding immediately after the transaction or event resulting in an adjustment pursuant to this Section 4.4.

O_B = the number of Common Units outstanding immediately before the transaction or event resulting in an adjustment pursuant to this Section 4.4.

Such adjustments shall become effective (x) in the case of clause (i) above, at the Close of Business on the Record Date for such dividend or distribution or (y) in the case of clause (ii) or clause (iii) above, at 9:00 a.m., New York City time, on the effective date of such event. In the event that a dividend or distribution described in clause (i) above is not so paid or made, the Exercise Price and the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant shall be readjusted, effective as of the date when the Board determines not to make such dividend or distribution, as the case may be, to be the Exercise Price and the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant that would be in effect if such dividend or distribution had not been declared.

Section 4.5 Other Distributions. In case the Company shall fix a Record Date for the making of a distribution to all holders of its Common Units of (a) shares of any class of capital stock other than Common Units (other than shares referred to in Section 4.2(a)), (b) evidence of indebtedness of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, (c) other Securities, assets, or cash (excluding dividends or distributions referred to in Section 4.4), or (d) rights or warrants, in each such case, the Exercise Price in effect prior thereto shall be reduced immediately thereafter to the price obtained by multiplying the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior thereto by the fraction resulting from dividing (x) an amount equal to the difference resulting from (i) the number of Common Units outstanding on such Record Date multiplied by the Fair Market Value of a Common Unit on the Trading Day immediately prior to such Record Date less (ii) the Fair Market Value of said shares, evidences of indebtedness, assets, cash, rights, or warrants to be so distributed in the aggregate to all Common Units outstanding on such Record Date by (y) the number of Common Units outstanding on such Record Date multiplied by the Fair Market Value of a Common Unit on the Trading Day immediately prior to such Record Date. Such adjustment shall be made successively whenever such a Record Date is fixed. In such event, the number of Common Units issuable upon the exercise of a Warrant shall be increased to the number obtained by dividing (x) the product of (i) the number of Common Units issuable upon the exercise of a Warrant before such adjustment and (ii) the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to the Record Date for the distribution giving rise to this adjustment by (y) the new Exercise Price determined in accordance with the second preceding sentence. In the event that such distribution is not so made, the Exercise Price and the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant then in effect shall be readjusted, effective as of the date when the Board determines not to distribute such shares, evidences of indebtedness, assets, cash, rights, or warrants, as the case may be, to the Exercise Price that would then be in effect and the number of Common Units that would then be issuable upon exercise of a Warrant if such Record Date had not been fixed.

Section 4.6 Dissolution, Total Liquidation, or Winding Up. Unless Section 4.13 applies, if at any time there is a voluntary or involuntary dissolution, total liquidation, or winding-up of the Company, then the Company shall provide (or otherwise make available or cause to be made available) to each Warrantholder written notice of the date on which such dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up shall take place (and, in any event, not less than five Business Days before any date set for definitive action). Such notice shall also specify the date as of which the record holders of Common Units shall be entitled to exchange their Common Units for Securities, money, or other property deliverable upon such dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up, as the case may be. On such date, each Warrantholder shall be entitled to receive, upon surrender of its Warrant for each Common Unit then receivable upon exercise of such Warrant, the cash, Securities, or other property, less an amount of cash, Securities, or other Property having an aggregate Fair Market Value equal to the Exercise Price for such Warrant then in effect, that such Warrantholder would have been entitled to receive in respect of such Common Unit had such Warrant been exercised immediately prior to such dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up. Upon receipt of such cash, Securities, or other property, any and all rights of such Warrantholder to exercise such Warrant shall terminate in their entirety. If the cash, Securities, or other property distributable in respect of such Common Unit in the dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up has a Fair Market Value that is less than the Exercise Price for such Warrant then in effect, no such cash, Securities, or other property shall be delivered to such Warrantholder in respect of such Warrants and such Warrant shall terminate and be of no further force or effect upon the dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up.

Section 4.7 Rounding of Calculations; Minimum Adjustments. All calculations under this Article 4 shall be made to the nearest one-tenth (1/10th) of a cent or rounded to the nearest whole unit, as the case may be. Any provision of this Article 4 to the contrary notwithstanding, no adjustment in the Exercise Price or the number of Common Units issuable upon the exercise of a Warrant shall be made if the amount of such adjustment would be less than $0.01 or one Common Unit, respectively, but any such amount shall be carried forward and an adjustment with respect to such amount shall be made at the time of, and together with any subsequent adjustment that, together with such amount and any other amount or amounts so carried forward, shall aggregate $0.01 or one Common Unit, respectively, or more, subject in all cases to Section 3.4.

Section 4.8 Timing of Issuance of Additional Common Units Upon Certain Adjustments. In any case in which the provisions of this Article 4 shall require that an adjustment shall become effective immediately after a Record Date for an event, the Company may defer until the occurrence of such event issuing to each holder of a Warrant exercised after such Record Date and before the occurrence of such event the additional Common Units issuable upon such exercise by reason of the adjustment required by such Record Date over and above the Common Units issuable upon such exercise before giving effect to such adjustment.

Section 4.9 Statement Regarding Adjustments. Whenever the Exercise Price or the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant shall be adjusted as provided in this Article 4, the Company shall file, at the principal office of the Company, a statement showing in reasonable detail the facts requiring such adjustment and the Exercise Price that shall be in effect and the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of a Warrant after such adjustment. The Company shall also cause a copy of such statement to be delivered to each Warrantholder at the address appearing in the Warrant Register.

Section 4.10 Notice of Adjustment Event. In the event that (i) the Company shall propose to take any action of the type described in this Article 4 or (ii) the Company fixes any Record Date for any such event, the Company shall give notice to each Warrantholder, in the manner set forth in Section 4.9, which notice shall specify the Record Date, if any, with respect to any such action and the approximate date on which such action is to take place. Such notice shall also set forth the facts with respect thereto (including the material terms with respect to any contemplated transaction) and indicate the effect on the applicable Exercise Price and the number, kind, or class of units or other Securities or property that shall be deliverable upon exercise or exchange of a Warrant, if any. Such notice shall be given at least five Business Days prior to the taking of such proposed action. Failure to give such notice, or any defect therein, shall not affect the legality or validity of any such action. Subject to the restrictions contained herein, nothing shall prohibit the Warrantholders from exercising their Warrants following the date of such notice. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Warrant Agreement, the Company shall not be required to deliver any notice pursuant to this Section 4.10 at any time that such notice would contain material non-public information relating to the Company or the Common Units. The Company hereby agrees that it will provide the Warrant Agent with reasonable notice of any such event. The Company further agrees that it will provide to the Warrant Agent any new or amended exercise terms. The Warrant Agent shall have no obligation under any section of this Warrant Agreement to determine whether an adjustment event has occurred or to calculate any of the adjustments set forth herein.

Section 4.11 Proceedings Prior to Any Action Requiring Adjustment. As a condition precedent to the taking of any action which would require an adjustment pursuant to this Article 4, the Company shall take any action that may be necessary, including obtaining regulatory, stock exchange (if applicable), or member approvals or exemptions under the Securities Act, in order that the Company may subsequently validly and legally issue, as fully paid and nonassessable, all Common Units that each Warrantholder is entitled to receive upon exercise of a Warrant (other than any approvals or exemptions that are required as a result of the identity or characteristics of the Warrantholder).

Section 4.12 Adjustment Rules. Any adjustments pursuant to this Article 4 shall be made successively whenever an event referred to this Article 4 shall occur. If an adjustment in the Exercise Price made under this Article 4 would reduce the Exercise Price to an amount below the par value (if any) of the Common Units, then such adjustment in the Exercise Price made under this Article 4 shall reduce the Exercise Price to the par value (if any) of the Common Units and then, so long as the Company shall have taken any company action which would, in the opinion of its counsel, be necessary in order that the Company may validly issue Common Units at the Exercise Price as so adjusted in accordance with its obligations under Section 3.7, to such lower par value (if any) as may then be established.

Section 4.13 Changes in Capitalization. In case at any time or from time to time after the Closing Date while any Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, the Company (including any Successor Company) shall be a party to or shall otherwise engage in any transaction or series of related transactions constituting: (1) a consolidation of the Company with, a sale of all of the equity (including a tender or exchange offer) of the Company to, a merger of the Company into, a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries (taken as a whole) to, any other Person, or any similar transaction, in each case, in which the previously outstanding Common Units shall receive or be entitled to receive (either directly or upon subsequent liquidation or winding up), or be cancelled, reclassified, or converted or changed into or exchanged for Securities of such other Person or other property (including cash) or any combination of the foregoing (a "Non-Surviving Transaction"), or (2) any merger of another Person into the Company in which the previously outstanding Common Units shall be cancelled, reclassified, or converted or changed into or exchanged for Securities of the Company or other property (including cash) or any combination of the foregoing (a "Surviving Transaction" and any Non-Surviving Transaction or Surviving Transaction being herein called a "Transaction"); then:

(i) if such Transaction constitutes a Sale Cash Only Transaction and such Sale Cash Only Transaction is consummated prior to the Black-Scholes Expiration Date, then, at the effective time of the consummation of such Sale Cash Only Transaction, each Warrantholder shall, without further action on the part of any Warrantholder, be deemed to have exercised its Warrants on a "cashless" basis in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.2(c)(i) and (ii); provided that, if such exercise is not made pursuant to Section 3.2(c)(ii) and if the Black-Scholes Value of one Warrant as of the date of the consummation of the Sale Cash Only Transaction is greater than zero, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Warrantholders holding any unexercised Warrants, cash in an amount, for each Warrant so evidenced, equal to such Black-Scholes Value;

(ii) if such Transaction is a Non-Sale Transaction:

(A) as a condition to the consummation of such Transaction, the Company shall (or, in the case of any Non-Surviving Transaction, the Company shall cause such other Person to) execute and deliver to the Warrant Agent a written instrument providing that any Warrant that remains outstanding in whole or in part, upon the exercise thereof at any time on or after the consummation of such Transaction, shall be exercisable (on such terms and subject to such conditions as shall be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the provisions set forth in this Warrant Agreement) into, in lieu of the Common Units issuable upon such exercise prior to such consummation, only the Securities or other property ("Substituted Property") that would have been receivable upon such Transaction by a Qualifying Person holding the number of Common Units into which such Warrant was exercisable immediately prior to such Transaction and for an aggregate Exercise Price for such Warrant equal to the product of (I) the number of Common Units into which such Warrant was exercisable immediately prior to such Transaction and (II) the Exercise Price per Common Unit immediately prior to such Transaction;

(B) except as otherwise specified in Section 4.13(ii)(A), the rights and obligations of the Company (or, in the event of a Non-Surviving Transaction, such other Person) and the Warrantholders in respect of Substituted

Property shall be substantially unchanged to be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the rights and obligations of the Company and Warrantholders in respect of Common Units hereunder as set forth in Section 3.1 hereof; and

(C) such written instrument under clause (ii)(A) above shall provide for adjustments that, for events subsequent to the effective date of such written instrument, shall be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the adjustments provided for in this Article IV; and the provisions of this Article IV shall similarly apply to successive Transactions that are not Change of Control Transactions;

(iii) if such Transaction constitutes a Sale Securities Only Transaction and such Sale Securities Only Transaction is consummated prior to the Black-Scholes Expiration Date, then, at the effective time of the consummation of such Sale Securities Only Transaction, each Warrantholder shall, without further action on the part of any Warrantholder, be deemed to have exercised its Warrants on a "cashless" basis in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.2(c)(i) and (ii); provided that, if such exercise is not made pursuant to Section 3.2(c)(ii) and if the Black-Scholes Value of one Warrant as of the date of the consummation of the Sale Securities Only Transaction is greater than zero, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Warrantholders holding any unexercised Warrants, at the Company's sole option, (x) the Sale Securities Only Transaction Securities for each Warrant so evidenced having a Fair Market Value equal to such Black-Scholes Value and (if such Sale Securities Only Transaction Securities consist of Securities of more than one type) in such proportion among the Securities so delivered as to be pro rata in kind and amount per Common Unit (determined on the basis of all outstanding Common Units held by all Qualifying Persons) actually received in such Sale Securities Only Transaction or (y) cash having a Fair Market Value equivalent to such consideration described in the foregoing clause (x);

(iv) if such Transaction constitutes a Sale Cash and Securities Transaction and such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction is consummated prior to the Black-Scholes Expiration Date, then, at the effective time of the consummation of such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction, each Warrantholder shall, without further action on the part of any Warrantholder, be deemed to have exercised its Warrants on a "cashless" basis in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.2(c)(i) and (ii); provided that, if such exercise is not made pursuant to Section 3.2(c)(ii) and if the Black-Scholes Value of each Warrant as of the date of the consummation of the Sale Cash and Securities Transaction is greater than zero, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Warrantholders holding any unexercised Warrants, at the Company's sole option, (x) Sale Cash and Securities Transaction Consideration for each Warrant so evidenced having a Fair Market Value equal to such Black-Scholes Value and (if such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction Consideration consists of consideration of more than one type) in such proportion among the cash, Securities, and other property so delivered as to be pro rata in kind and amount per Common Unit (determined on the basis of all outstanding Common Units held by all Qualifying Persons) actually received in such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction by all Qualifying Persons or (y) cash having a Fair Market Value equivalent to such consideration described in the foregoing clause (x);

(v) for the avoidance of doubt, if such transaction constitutes a Sale Cash Only Transaction, a Sale Securities Only Transaction, or Sale Cash and Securities

Transaction and is consummated on or after the Black-Scholes Expiration Date, this Section 4.10 shall not apply and the Warrant shall be treated as contemplated by Section 3.2(c).

For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in no event shall a Warrantholder be entitled to any Fair Market Value, or any delivery of any cash, Securities, or other property in respect thereof, on account of the Warrants (using the Black-Scholes Value or otherwise) in any Non-Sale Transaction (other than the kind and amount of Substituted Property specified in Section 4.13 (ii)(A)).

Section 4.14 Optional Tax Adjustment. The Company may at its option, at any time prior to the Expiration Time, increase the number of Common Units into which each Warrant is exercisable, or decrease the Exercise Price for such Warrant, in addition to those changes otherwise required by this Article 4, as deemed advisable by the Board, in order that any event treated for U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes as a dividend of stock or stock rights shall not be taxable to the recipients or that such tax shall be diminished.

ARTICLE 5
OTHER PROVISIONS RELATING TO RIGHTS OF WARRANTHOLDERS

Section 5.1 No Rights as Members.

(a) Nothing contained in this Warrant Agreement shall be construed as conferring upon any Person the right to vote, receive any dividend or other distribution, receive notice of, or attend, any meeting of members, or otherwise exercise any rights whatsoever as a member or other equity holder of the Company to the extent such vote, dividend, giving of notice, meeting, or other exercise of rights (or, if applicable, the relevant Record Date therefor) precedes the Close of Business on the Exercise Date with respect to the exercise of such Warrant and the delivery of the Joinder required in connection therewith, if applicable. The consent of any Warrantholder, solely by reason of the ownership or possession of a Warrant or the Warrant Certificate representing the same or otherwise by virtue hereof, shall not be required with respect to any action or proceeding of the Company, including with respect to any Change of Control Transaction. No Warrantholder shall have any right not expressly conferred under this Warrant Agreement or under, or by applicable Law with respect to, the Warrant held by such Warrantholder.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Warrant Agreement, by accepting and holding Warrants, each Warrantholder acknowledges and agrees as follows: (i) in its capacity as a Warrantholder, the relationship of such Warrantholder to the Company is strictly contractual in nature and is not the relationship of a member, other form of equity holder, or any similarly situated person to the Company; (ii) no fiduciary or similar duties of any kind or description are owed to any Warrantholder in its capacity as a Warrantholder; (iii) in furtherance of the foregoing (and not in limitation of the foregoing), no director or officer of the Company shall owe any duty of any kind (including any fiduciary duty) to any Warrantholder, in its capacity as a Warrantholder, including in connection with any act or failure to act, whether under this Warrant Agreement, the Warrant, or otherwise; and (iv) such Warrantholder shall not, and shall cause its Affiliates not to, bring, make, institute, or seek to bring, make, or institute, in the name of or on behalf of the Company, such Warrantholder, or any other Person, any claim or proceeding arising out of, or relating to, this Warrant Agreement or any Warrants against any director or officer of the Company directly or indirectly in connection with an alleged breach of such director's or officer's duties, including fiduciary duties.

Section 5.2 Modification or Amendment.

(a) This Warrant Agreement may be modified or amended only upon the written consent of (x) the Warrantholders holding a majority of the then-outstanding Warrants and (y) the Company; provided that any modification or amendment that (i) has the effect of increasing the Exercise Price of any Warrant or amending the definition of "Expiration Time" to an earlier time or (ii) materially and adversely affects the rights or interests of any Warrantholder disproportionately relative to any other Warrantholder shall require the written consent of each affected Warrantholder. For all purposes under this Warrant Agreement, a Warrant ceases to be outstanding if such Warrant is exercised or if the Company holds or is the beneficial owner of such Warrant.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary in this Warrant Agreement, the Company and the Warrant Agent may from time to time supplement or amend this Warrant Agreement: (i) without the approval of any Warrantholders in order to cure any ambiguity, manifest error, or other mistake in this Warrant Agreement or (ii) to make any other provision in regard to matters or questions arising under this Warrant Agreement that the Company and the Warrant Agent may deem necessary or desirable and that, in each case, shall not adversely affect, alter, or change the interests of any Warrantholder in any material respect. No supplement or amendment to this Warrant Agreement pursuant to this Section 5.2(b) shall be effective unless duly executed by the Warrant Agent and the Company. As a condition precedent to the Warrant Agent's execution of any such amendment, the Company shall deliver to the Warrant Agent a certificate from a duly authorized officer of the Company that states that the proposed amendment is in compliance with the terms of this Section 5.2(b). Notwithstanding anything in this Warrant Agreement to the contrary, the Warrant Agent may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any supplement or amendment that adversely affects the Warrant Agent's own rights, duties, immunities or obligations under this Warrant Agreement.

(c) Upon execution and delivery of any amendment pursuant to this Section 5.2, such amendment shall be considered a part of this Warrant Agreement for all purposes and every Warrantholder holding a Warrant Certificate shall be bound by such amendment. Any consent delivered by electronic means shall be deemed to constitute written consent.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to contrary contained in this Warrant Agreement, with respect to Warrants represented by one or more Global Warrant Certificates, any requirement that a "Warrantholder" or any group of Warrantholders of a sufficient number of Warrants authorize, provide, or give, as applicable, any consent, waiver, or other approval may be satisfied by the beneficial owners of interests in such Warrants, and the Company and the Warrant Agent shall be permitted to rely in the absence of bad faith on proof provided to the Company and the Warrant Agent of the number of Warrants held by such beneficial owner in the form of a certification from such beneficial owner to that effect and screenshots or other similar proof of such holdings from the beneficial owner's broker or custodian (and shall not require the provision of DTC proxies, medallion-stamped guarantees, or other similar evidence).

Section 5.3 Rights of Action. All rights of action against the Company in respect of this Warrant Agreement are vested in the Warrantholders, and any Warrantholder, without the consent of the Warrant Agent or any other Warrantholder, may, on such Warrantholder's own behalf and for such Warrantholder's own benefit, enforce and may institute and maintain any suit, action, or proceeding against the Company suitable to enforce, or otherwise in respect of, such Warrantholder's rights under this Warrant Agreement or right to exercise such Warrantholder's Warrants in the manner provided in this Warrant Agreement.

Section 5.4 Issuance Obligation Remedies. Nothing in this Warrant Agreement shall limit the right of any Warrantholder to pursue any other remedies available to it under this Warrant Agreement, at law or in equity, including a decree of specific performance or injunctive relief (without the necessity of proving the inadequacy of money damages as a remedy and without the necessity of posting a bond) with respect to the Company's violation of its obligations under this Warrant Agreement or any failure by the Company to timely issue Common Units upon exercise of such Warrant as required pursuant to the terms of this Warrant Agreement. All such remedies shall be cumulative, non-exclusive and may be exercised concurrently. The Company shall not oppose the granting of an injunction, specific performance and other equitable relief on the basis that (a) there is adequate remedy at law or (b) an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or in equity.

Section 5.5 Tax Forms. Each Warrantholder shall deliver to the Warrant Agent a properly completed and duly executed IRS Form W-9 or the appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable.

ARTICLE 6
CONCERNING THE WARRANT AGENT AND OTHER MATTERS

Section 6.1 Change of Warrant Agent.

(a) The Warrant Agent, or any successor thereto appointed after the date of this Warrant Agreement, may resign its duties and be discharged from all further duties and liabilities under this Warrant Agreement (except for liability arising as a result of the Warrant Agent's own fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement (as determined by a final non-appealable order, judgment, ruling, or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction)) after giving 30 days' notice in writing to the Company (and such resignation shall become effective immediately upon the expiration of such notice period), except that such shorter notice may be given as the Company shall, in writing, accept as sufficient. If the office of the Warrant Agent becomes vacant by resignation or incapacity to act or otherwise, the Company shall appoint in writing a successor warrant agent in place of the Warrant Agent. Following any required notice period, pending appointment of a successor to the Warrant Agent, the duties of the Warrant Agent shall be carried out by the Company. If the Company shall fail to make such appointment within a period of 30 days after it has been notified in writing of such resignation or incapacity by the resigning or incapacitated warrant agent, then the Warrantholders representing a majority of the Warrants at the time outstanding may appoint a successor warrant agent.

(b) The Warrant Agent may be removed by the Company at any time upon 30 days' written notice to the Warrant Agent. Pending appointment of a successor to the Warrant Agent, the duties of the Warrant Agent shall be carried out by the Company. If any transfer agency relationship between Computershare and the Company is terminated, the relationship under this agreement is terminated at the same time.

(c) Any successor warrant agent appointed by the Company shall be a corporation or banking association organized, in good standing, and doing business under the Laws of the United States of America or any state or the District of Columbia, and authorized under such Laws to exercise corporate trust powers and subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority and having a combined capital and surplus of not less than $50,000,000. The combined capital and surplus of any such successor warrant agent shall be deemed to be the combined capital and surplus as set forth in the most recent report of its condition published prior to its appointment to the extent such reports are published at least annually pursuant to Law or to the requirements of a federal or state supervising or examining authority.

(d) After acceptance in writing of such appointment by the successor warrant agent, such successor warrant agent shall be vested with all the authority, powers, rights, immunities, duties, and obligations of its predecessor warrant agent with like effect as if originally named as warrant agent under this Warrant Agreement, without any further act or deed; provided that, if for any reason it becomes necessary or appropriate, the predecessor warrant agent shall execute and deliver, at the expense of the Company, an instrument transferring to such successor warrant agent all the authority, powers, and rights of such predecessor warrant agent under this Warrant Agreement, and upon request of any successor warrant agent, the Company shall make, execute, acknowledge, and deliver any and all instruments in writing to more fully and effectually vest in and conform to such successor warrant agent all such authority, powers, rights, immunities, duties, and obligations. Upon assumption by a successor warrant agent of the duties and responsibilities under this Warrant Agreement, the predecessor warrant agent shall deliver and transfer, at the expense of the Company, to the successor warrant agent any property at the time held by it under this Warrant Agreement. As soon as practicable after such appointment, the Company shall give notice of such appointment to the predecessor warrant agent. Failure to give such notice, or any defect in such notice, shall not affect the validity of the appointment of the successor warrant agent.

(e) Any entity into which the Warrant Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion, or consolidation to which the Warrant Agent shall be a party, or any Person succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust or agency business of the Warrant Agent, shall be the successor warrant agent under this Warrant Agreement without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties of this Warrant Agreement, but only if such entity would be eligible for appointment as a successor warrant agent under Section 6.1(c).

(f) The provisions of this Article 6 with regard to the Warrant Agent shall survive the termination and the resignation or removal of the Warrant Agent.

Section 6.2 Compensation; Further Assurances. The Company agrees that it will (a) pay the Warrant Agent reasonable compensation for its services as Warrant Agent in an amount separately agreed to between the Company and the Warrant Agent, (b) except as otherwise expressly provided, pay or reimburse the Warrant Agent upon written demand for all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses, disbursements, and advances incurred or made by the Warrant Agent in accordance with any of the provisions of this Warrant Agreement (including the reasonable and documented out-of-pocket compensation, expenses, and disbursements of its counsel incurred in connection with the execution and administration of this Warrant Agreement), except any such expense, disbursement, or advance as may arise from its or any of their fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement (as determined by a final non-appealable order, judgment, ruling, or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction), and (c) perform, execute, acknowledge, and deliver or cause to be performed, executed, acknowledged, and delivered all such further and other acts, instruments, and assurances as may reasonably be required by the Warrant Agent for the carrying out or performing of the provisions of this Warrant Agreement. The Warrant Agent agrees to provide the Company with prior written notice of the retention of counsel whose compensation, expenses, and disbursements are to be paid or reimbursed by the Company under this Section 6.2.

Section 6.3 Reliance on Counsel. The Warrant Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be legal counsel for the Company), and the written opinion of such counsel or any advice of legal counsel subsequently confirmed by a written opinion of such counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection to the Warrant Agent as to any action taken or omitted by it in the absence of bad faith and in accordance with such written opinion or advice.

Section 6.4 Proof of Actions Taken. Whenever in the performance of its duties under this Warrant Agreement the Warrant Agent shall deem it necessary or desirable that any matter be proved or established by the Company prior to taking or suffering or omitting any action under this Warrant Agreement, such matter (unless other evidence in respect of such actions be specifically prescribed in this Warrant Agreement) may, in the absence of bad faith on the part of the Warrant Agent, be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by a certificate executed by an Appropriate Officer delivered to the Warrant Agent, and such certificate shall, in the absence of bad faith on the part of the Warrant Agent, be relied upon by the Warrant Agent for any action taken, suffered, or omitted in the absence of bad faith by it under the provisions of this Warrant Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in lieu of such certificates, in its discretion the Warrant Agent may accept other evidence of such fact or matter or may require such further or additional evidence as to it may seem reasonable.

Section 6.5 Correctness of Statements. The Warrant Agent shall not be liable for or by reason of any of the statements of fact or recitals contained in this Warrant Agreement (except its countersignature of this Warrant Agreement) or be required to verify the same, and all such statements and recitals are and shall be deemed to have been made by the Company only.

Section 6.6 Validity of Agreement. Whenever in the performance of its duties under this Warrant Agreement the Warrant Agent deems it necessary or desirable that any fact or matter be proved or established by the Company prior to taking or suffering or omitting any action under this Warrant Agreement, the Warrant Agent may apply to an Appropriate Officer for instruction, and from time to time, the Company may provide the Warrant Agent with instructions concerning the services performed by the Warrant Agent hereunder. In addition, at any time the Warrant Agent may apply to any officer of the Company for instruction and may consult with legal counsel for the Warrant Agent or the Company with respect to any matter arising in connection with the services to be performed by the Warrant Agent under this Warrant Agreement. The Warrant Agent and its agents and subcontractors shall not be liable and shall be indemnified by Company for any action taken or omitted by the Warrant Agent in reliance upon any Company instructions or upon the advice or opinion of such counsel. The Warrant Agent shall not be held to have notice of any change of authority of any person, until receipt of written notice thereof from Company. In the event the Warrant Agent believes any ambiguity or uncertainty exists hereunder or in any notice, instruction, direction, request, or other communication, paper, or document received by the Warrant Agent hereunder, or is for any reason unsure as to what action to take hereunder, the Warrant Agent shall notify the Company in writing as soon as practicable, and upon delivery of such notice may, in its sole discretion, refrain from taking any action, and shall be fully protected and shall not be liable in any way to the Company or any Warrantholder or other Person for refraining from taking such action, unless the Warrant Agent receives written instructions signed by the Company which eliminates such ambiguity or uncertainty to the reasonable satisfaction of the Warrant Agent. The Warrant Agent shall not be held to have notice of any change of authority of any Person, until receipt of such notice from the Company. The Warrant Agent shall not be responsible for any breach by the Company of any covenant or condition contained in this Warrant Agreement, nor shall it by any act under this Warrant Agreement be deemed to make any representation or warranty as to the authorization or reservation of any Common Units to be issued pursuant to this Warrant Agreement or any Warrants or as to whether any Common Units will, when issued, be validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable. The Warrant Agent and its agents and subcontractors shall not be liable and shall be indemnified by the Company for any action taken or omitted by the Warrant Agent in reliance in the absence of bad faith upon any Company instructions except to the extent that the Warrant Agent had actual knowledge of facts and circumstances that would render such reliance unreasonable.

Section 6.7 Use of Agents. The Warrant Agent may execute and exercise any of the rights or powers hereby vested in it or perform any duty hereunder either itself or by or through its attorneys or agents provided, however, that the Warrant Agent shall remain responsible for the activities or omissions of any such agent or attorney and reasonable care has been exercised in the selection and in the continued employment of such attorney or agent.

Section 6.8 Liability of Warrant Agent. The Warrant Agent shall incur no liability or responsibility to the Company or to any Warrantholder for any action taken or not taken (a) in reliance on any notice, resolution, waiver, consent, order, certificate, or other paper, document, or instrument reasonably believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent, and presented by the proper party or parties or (b) in relation to its services under this Warrant Agreement, unless such liability arises out of or is attributable to the Warrant Agent's fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement (as determined by a final non-appealable order, judgment, ruling, or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction). The Company covenants and agrees to indemnify and to hold the Warrant Agent harmless against any and all losses, expenses, and liabilities, judgments, damages, fines, penalties, claims, demands, costs, settlements and reasonable and documented out-of-pocket counsel fees (collectively, "Losses"), which may be paid, incurred or suffered by, or to which it may become subject, arising from or out of, directly or indirectly, any claims or liability resulting from any action taken, suffered or omitted in the absence of bad faith by the Warrant Agent in the execution, acceptance, administration, exercise and performance of its duties under this Warrant Agreement, including the reasonable costs and expenses of defending against any claim of liability arising therefrom, directly or indirectly, or of enforcing its rights under this Warrant Agreement or otherwise arising in connection with this Warrant Agreement; provided that such covenant and agreement does not extend to, and the Warrant Agent shall not be indemnified with respect to, such Losses incurred or suffered by the Warrant Agent as a result of, or arising out of the Warrant Agent's fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement (as determined by a final non-appealable order, judgment, ruling, or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction). The Warrant Agent shall be liable under this Warrant Agreement only for its fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final non-appealable judgment), for which the Warrant Agent is not entitled to indemnification under this Warrant Agreement. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, except to the extent arising from fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, or willful misconduct of the Warrant Agent (in each case, as finally determined by a judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction), the Warrant Agent's aggregate liability during any term of this Warrant Agreement with respect to, arising from, or arising in connection with this Warrant Agreement, or from all services provided or omitted to be provided under this Warrant Agreement, whether in contract, or in tort, or otherwise, is limited to, and shall not exceed, the amounts paid hereunder by the Company to the Warrant Agent as fees and charges, but not including reimbursable expenses, during the 12 months immediately preceding the event for which recovery from Warrant Agent is being sought (which such term shall survive the termination or removal of the Warrant Agent). The Warrant Agent will not be under any duty or responsibility to ensure compliance with any applicable federal or state securities laws in connection with the issuance, transfer or exchange of the Warrants. The Warrant Agent shall not incur any liability for not performing any act, duty, obligation, or responsibility by reason of any occurrence beyond the control of the Warrant Agent (including without limitation any act or provision of any present or future law or regulation or governmental authority, any act of God, war, civil disorder, or failure of any means of communication, terrorist acts, pandemics, epidemics, shortage of supply, breakdowns or malfunctions, interruptions or malfunction of computer facilities, or loss of data due to power failures or mechanical difficulties with information storage or retrieval systems, or labor difficulties).

Section 6.9 Legal Proceedings. The Warrant Agent shall be under no obligation to institute any action, suit, or legal proceeding or to take any other action likely to involve expense unless the Company or any Warrantholder shall furnish the Warrant Agent with reasonable indemnity (as determined by the Warrant Agent) for any costs and expenses which may be incurred, but this provision shall not affect the power of the Warrant Agent to take (or not take) such action as the Warrant Agent may consider proper, whether with or without any such security or indemnity. The Warrant Agent shall, as soon as commercially practicable, notify the Company and each Warrantholder in writing of any claim made or action, suit, or proceeding instituted against it arising out of or in connection with this Warrant Agreement.

Section 6.10 Actions as Agent.

(a) The Warrant Agent shall act under this Warrant Agreement solely as agent and not in a ministerial or fiduciary capacity, and its duties shall be determined solely by the provisions of this Warrant Agreement. The duties and obligations of the Warrant Agent shall be determined solely by the express provisions of the Warrant Agreement or of the Warrant Certificates, and the Warrant Agent shall not be liable except for the performance of such duties and obligations as are specifically set forth in the Warrant Agreement or in the Warrant Certificates. No implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Warrant Agreement against the Warrant Agent. The Warrant Agent shall not be liable for anything that it may do or refrain from doing in the absence of bad faith in connection with this Warrant Agreement except for its own fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement (as determined by a final non-appealable order, judgment, ruling, or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction). Notwithstanding anything in this Warrant Agreement to the contrary, except to the extent arising from fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, or willful misconduct of the Warrant Agent (in each case, as finally determined by a judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction), in no event will the Warrant Agent be liable for special, indirect, incidental, punitive, or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including, but not limited to, lost profits), even if the Warrant Agent has been advised of the possibility of such loss or damage. The Warrant Agent may execute and exercise any of the rights or powers hereby vested in it or perform any duty hereunder either itself or by or through its attorneys, accountants, agents, or other experts, and the Warrant Agent will not be answerable or accountable for any act, default, neglect, or misconduct of any such attorneys or agents or for any loss to the Company or the Warrantholders resulting from any such act, default, neglect, or misconduct, absent fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement in the selection and continued employment thereof (each as determined by a final non-appealable order, judgment, ruling, or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction).

(b) The Warrant Agent shall not, by countersigning Warrant Certificates or by any other act under this Warrant Agreement, be deemed to make any representations as to validity or authorization of the Warrants or the Warrant Certificates or any Warrant or as to whether the Warrant Units will when issued be validly issued, fully paid, and non-assessable (except as to its countersignature on such Warrant Certificates) or as to the Exercise Price, the number of Warrant Units a Warrant is exercisable for, or any adjustment thereof (except as instructed in writing by the Company). The Warrant Agent shall not be responsible for any failure of the Company to make any cash payment or to issue, transfer, or deliver any Common Units or stock certificates or other securities or property upon the exercise of any Warrant or upon any adjustment pursuant to Article 4 or to comply with any of the covenants of the Company contained in Article 4.

(c) The Warrant Agent shall not (i) be liable for any recital or statement of fact contained in this Warrant Agreement or in the Warrant Certificates or for any action taken, suffered, or omitted by it in the absence of bad faith on the belief that any Warrant Certificate or any other documents or any signatures are genuine or properly authorized, (ii) be responsible for any failure on the part of the Company to comply with any of its covenants and obligations contained in this Warrant Agreement or in the Warrant Certificates, (iii) be liable for any act or omission in connection with this Warrant Agreement except for its own fraud, gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or material breach of this Warrant Agreement (as determined by a final non-appealable order, judgment, ruling, or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction), or (iv) be subject to, nor be required to comply with, or determine if any Person has complied with, the Warrants or any other agreement between or among the parties hereto, even though reference thereto may be made in this Warrant Agreement, or to comply with any notice, instruction, direction, request, or other communication, paper, or document other than as expressly set forth in this Warrant Agreement.

(d) The Warrant Agent is authorized to accept and protected in accepting instructions with respect to the performance of its duties under this Warrant Agreement by Company Order and to apply to any such officer named in such Company Order for instructions (which instructions will be promptly given in writing when requested), and the Warrant Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or suffered to be taken by it in the absence of bad faith in accordance with the instructions in any Company Order.

Section 6.11 Appointment and Acceptance of Agency. The Company appoints the Warrant Agent to act as agent for the Company in accordance with the instructions set forth in this Warrant Agreement, and the Warrant Agent accepts the agency established by this Warrant Agreement and agrees to perform the same upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Warrant Agreement and in the Warrant Certificate or as the Company and the Warrant Agent may later agree. By their acceptance of a Warrant Certificate evidencing Warrants, the Warrantholders agree to be bound by such terms and conditions.

Section 6.12 Successors and Assigns.

(a) All the covenants and provisions of this Warrant Agreement by or for the benefit of the Company or the Warrant Agent shall bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors and assigns under this Warrant Agreement. The Warrant Agent may assign this Warrant Agreement or any rights and obligations under this Warrant Agreement, in whole or in part, to an Affiliate of such Warrant Agent with the prior written consent of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Warrant Agent may make such an assignment without consent of the Company to any successor to the Warrant Agent by consolidation, merger, or transfer of its assets, in each case, subject to the terms and conditions of this Warrant Agreement.

(b) So long as Warrants remain outstanding, the Company will not enter into any Non-Surviving Transaction that constitutes a Non-Sale Transaction in which Warrants would be outstanding after consummation unless the acquirer (a "Successor Company") shall expressly assume by a supplemental agreement, executed and delivered to the Warrant Agent, in form reasonably satisfactory to the Warrant Agent, the due and punctual performance of every covenant of this Warrant Agreement on the part of the Company to be performed and observed and shall have provided for exercise rights in accordance with Section 4.13. Upon the consummation of such Non-Sale Transaction, the Successor Company shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, the Company under this Warrant Agreement with the same effect as if such Successor Company had been named as the Company herein.

Section 6.13 Notices. Any notice or demand authorized by this Warrant Agreement to be given or made to the Company after the Closing Date shall be sufficiently given or made if sent by mail first-class, postage prepaid, addressed (until another address is filed in writing by the Company with the Warrant Agent) or electronic mail (so long as the relevant computer record includes a successful transmission or no failure message is generated), as follows:

Computershare Trust Company, N.A., Computershare Inc.

Attention: Client Services

If the Warrant Agent shall receive any notice or demand addressed to the Company by a Warrantholder, the Warrant Agent shall, as promptly as practicable, forward such notice or demand to the Company.

Section 6.14 Applicable Law; Jurisdiction.

(a) All issues and questions concerning the application, construction, validity, interpretation, and enforcement of this Warrant Agreement and the exhibits and schedules to this Warrant Agreement (including the Warrant Certificates, if any) or any other matter arising out of or in connection with this Warrant Agreement, the transactions contemplated by this Warrant Agreement, or the legal relationship among the parties, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise, shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to any choice of law or conflict of law rules or provisions (whether of the State of New York or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of New York.

(b) Any and all suits, legal actions, or proceedings arising out of this Warrant Agreement and the Warrants (including against any officer of the Company) shall be brought solely in any of the courts of the New York Supreme Court, County of New York, or in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Chosen Court"). Each of the parties of this Warrant Agreement submits to and accepts the exclusive jurisdiction of the Chosen Court for the purpose of such suits, legal actions, or proceedings. In any such suit, legal action, or proceeding, each party waives personal service of any summons, complaint, or other process. Each party also agrees that service may be made by certified or registered mail directed to it at its address set forth in the books and records of the Company. To the fullest extent permitted by law, each party irrevocably waives any objection which it may now or after the Closing Date have to the laying of venue or any such suit, legal action, or proceeding in the Chosen Court. Each party further waives any claim that any suit, legal action, or proceeding brought in the Chosen Court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Each of the parties agrees that the exclusive choice of forum set forth in this Section 6.14 does not prohibit the enforcement of any judgment obtained in that forum or any other appropriate forum. Nothing set forth in this Section 6.14 affects the right to serve process in any other matter permitted by law.

Section 6.15 Waiver of Jury Trial. TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, EACH PARTY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LITIGATION IN ANY COURT WITH RESPECT TO, IN CONNECTION WITH, OR ARISING OUT OF THIS WARRANT AGREEMENT OR A WARRANT CERTIFICATE EVIDENCING A WARRANT OR THE VALIDITY, PROTECTION, INTERPRETATION, COLLECTION, OR ENFORCEMENT OF THIS WARRANT AGREEMENT OR A WARRANT CERTIFICATE EVIDENCING A WARRANT.

Section 6.16 Specific Performance. Each of the Company and the Warrant Agent acknowledges that a breach or threatened breach by such party of any of its obligations under this Warrant Agreement would give rise to irreparable harm to the other party to this Warrant Agreement for which monetary damages would not be an adequate remedy and agrees that in the event of a breach or a threatened breach by such party of any such obligations, the other party to this Warrant Agreement and the Warrantholders shall, in addition to any and all other rights and remedies that may be available to it in respect of such breach, be entitled to seek equitable relief, including a restraining order, an injunction, specific performance, and any other relief that may be available from a court of competent jurisdiction without the necessity of proving the inadequacy of money damages as a remedy or without the necessity of posting a bond. All such remedies shall be cumulative, non-exclusive and may be exercised concurrently. No party shall oppose the granting of equitable relief on the basis that (a) there is adequate remedy at law or (b) an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or in equity.

Section 6.17 Benefit of this Warrant Agreement. Nothing in this Warrant Agreement expressed and nothing that may be implied from any of the provisions of this Warrant Agreement is intended, or shall be construed, to confer upon, or give to, any Person other than the parties to this Warrant Agreement and the Warrantholders any right, remedy, or claim under or by reason of this Warrant Agreement or of any covenant, condition, stipulation, promise, or agreement of this Warrant Agreement, and all covenants, conditions, stipulations, promises, and agreements in this Warrant Agreement contained shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the parties to this Warrant Agreement, and their respective successors and permitted assigns, and the Warrantholders. By acceptance of a Warrant Certificate, each Warrantholder agrees to all of the terms and provisions of this Warrant Agreement applicable to a Warrantholder.

Section 6.18 Registered Warrantholder. Every Warrantholder, by accepting a Warrant Certificate, consents and agrees with the Company, with the Warrant Agent and with every subsequent holder of such Warrant Certificate that, prior to due presentment for registration of transfer, the Company and the Warrant Agent may deem and treat the Person in whose name any Warrant Certificates are registered in the Warrant Register as the absolute owner of the Warrants evidenced by such Warrant Certificate for all purposes whatever (notwithstanding any notation of ownership or other writing on such Warrant Certificate made by anyone other than the Company or the Warrant Agent) and neither the Company nor the Warrant Agent shall be affected by any notice to the contrary or be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to, or interest in, any Warrant Certificates or any Warrants evidenced by such Warrant Certificates on the part of any other Person and shall not be liable for any registration of transfer of Warrant Certificates that are registered or to be registered in the name of a fiduciary or the nominee of a fiduciary unless made with actual knowledge that a fiduciary or nominee is committing a breach of trust in requesting such registration of transfer or with such knowledge of such facts that its participation in such registration or transfer amounts to bad faith.

Section 6.19 Headings. The Article and Section headings are for convenience only and are not a part of this Warrant Agreement and shall not affect the interpretation of this Warrant Agreement.

Section 6.20 Counterparts. This Warrant Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts on separate counterparts, each of which so executed shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument. A signed copy of this Warrant Agreement delivered by e-mail or other means of electronic transmission shall be deemed to have the same legal effect as delivery of an original signed copy of this Warrant Agreement.

Section 6.21 Entire Agreement. This Warrant Agreement, any Warrant Certificate, and the LLC Agreement constitute the entire agreement of the Company, the Warrant Agent, and the Warrantholders with respect to the subject matter of this Warrant Agreement and supersede all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, among the Company, the Warrant Agent, and the Warrantholders with respect to the subject matter of this Warrant Agreement. In the event of an inconsistency between the terms of the Warrant and the Warrant Agreement, the terms of the Warrant Agreement shall prevail. The Company shall not amend any provisions of the Warrant Certificate without the prior consent of the Warrant Agent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed.

Section 6.22 Severability. Wherever possible, each provision of this Warrant Agreement shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable Law, but if any provision of this Warrant Agreement shall be prohibited by or invalid under applicable Law, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity, without invalidating the remainder of such provision or the remaining provisions of this Warrant Agreement; provided that if such invalidated provision shall affect the rights, immunities, liabilities, duties or obligations of the Warrant Agent, the Warrant Agent shall be entitled to resign immediately upon ~~15 days'~~ written notice to the Company.

Section 6.23 Termination. This Warrant Agreement shall terminate at the earlier to occur of (i) the Expiration Time (or, if later, Close of Business on the settlement date with respect to all exercises of Warrants as to which the respective Exercise Date is prior to the Expiration Time) and (ii) the date on which all outstanding Warrants have been exercised. The obligations of the Company as set forth in this Article 6 shall survive the exercise or expiration of the Warrants, the termination of this Warrant Agreement and the resignation, replacement or removal of the Warrant Agent.

Section 6.24 Confidentiality. The Warrant Agent and the Company agree that that all books, records, information and data pertaining to the business of the other party, including, inter alia, personal, non-public Warrantholder information, which are exchanged or received pursuant to the negotiation or the performance of this Warrant Agreement, including the fees for services set forth in the attached schedule, shall remain confidential, and shall not be voluntarily disclosed to any other person, except as may be required by law, including, without limitation, pursuant to subpoenas from state or federal government authorities (e.g., in divorce and criminal actions), except disclosures expressly permitted pursuant to Section 9.6 of the LLC Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

Section 6.25 Force Majeure. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Warrant Agent will not be liable for any delays or failures in performance resulting from acts beyond its reasonable control including, without limitation, acts of God, epidemic, pandemic, terrorist acts, shortage of supply, breakdowns or malfunctions, interruptions or malfunction of computer facilities, or loss of data due to power failures or mechanical difficulties with information storage or retrieval systems, labor difficulties, war, or civil unrest.

Section 6.26 Representations and Warranties of the Company. The Warrant Agreement, all amendments to the Warrant Agreement, and the Third Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement, dated as of ~~[●]~~May 11, 2026, by and among the Company and the other Persons named as parties thereto (as amended, restated, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "LLC Agreement"), are each referred to for a statement of the respective rights, limitations of rights, transfer restrictions, duties, and immunities of the Company, the Warrant Agent, the holders of Warrant Certificates, and the owners of the Warrants evidenced by such Warrant Certificates and of the terms upon which the Warrant Certificates are, and are to be, countersigned and delivered. A copy of the Warrant Agreement and the LLC Agreement shall be available at all reasonable times at the office of the Warrant Agent for inspection by the holder of this Warrant Certificate. To the extent permitted by law, in the event of an inconsistency or conflict between the terms of this Warrant Certificate and the Warrant Agreement, the terms of the Warrant Agreement will prevail.

Except as provided in the Warrant Agreement, all outstanding Warrants shall expire and all rights of the holders of Warrant Certificates evidencing such Warrants shall terminate and cease to exist, as of the Expiration Time.

Subject to Section 4.13 of the Warrant Agreement, all outstanding Warrants shall be automatically, without further action on the part of any holder, deemed to be surrendered for cancellation immediately prior to the occurrence of a Change of Control Transaction, the closing of a SPAC Transaction, or Initial Public Offering in exchange for the payment to the holders thereof of the consideration (if any) provided for in Section 3.2(c) of the Warrant Agreement.

[~~74~~] Include only on Global Warrant Certificates.

[~~85~~] Include on all other non-Global Warrant Certificates.

The Warrant Certificates are issuable only in registered form in denominations of whole numbers of Warrants. No fractions of a Common Unit will be issued upon the exercise of any Warrant. As to any fractional Common Units to which a holder would otherwise be entitled, the Company shall either, at its option, (i) make a cash payment in lieu of issuing such fractional Common Unit equal to the Fair Market Value of one Common Unit, as determined on the date the Warrant is presented for exercise, multiplied by such fraction, rounded to the nearest whole cent, subject to any restrictions or limitations in the Company's financing or other contractual arrangements or (ii) round such fractional Common Unit up to the nearest whole number of Common Units.

Upon surrender at the office of the Warrant Agent and payment of the charges specified in this Warrant Certificate and in the Warrant Agreement, this Warrant Certificate may be exchanged for Warrant Certificates in other authorized denominations or the Transfer of this Warrant Certificate may be registered in whole or in part in authorized denominations to one or more designated transferees subject to the limitations contained in the Warrant Agreement and the LLC Agreement. Any Warrant Certificates issued upon exchange or registration of Transfer shall evidence the same aggregate number of Warrants as this Warrant Certificate. The Company shall cause to be kept at the office of the Warrant Agent the Warrant Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as the Warrant Agent may prescribe or as may be prescribed by Law, the Company shall provide for the registration of Warrant Certificates and of Transfers or exchanges of Warrant Certificates. Issuance of Warrant Units shall be made without charge for any documentary, stamp, or similar issue or transfer tax or other incidental expense in respect of the issuance of such Warrant Units, all of which taxes and expenses shall be paid by the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be required (i) to pay any tax that may be payable in respect of a Transfer event, including the issuance and delivery of Warrant Units in a name other than the name of the holder in which the Warrants are registered, or (ii) to effect a Transfer, including by issuing or delivering Warrant Units, in the name other than that in which the Warrants were registered unless and until the Persons requesting the issuance or delivery of such Warrant Units or other similar Transfer shall have paid to the Company the amount of such tax or shall have reasonably demonstrated that such tax has been paid.

Prior to due presentment of this Warrant Certificate for registration of transfer, the Company, the Warrant Agent and any agent of the Company or the Warrant Agent may treat the Person in whose name this Warrant Certificate is registered as the owner of such Warrant Certificate for all purposes, and neither the Company, the Warrant Agent, nor any such agent shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

With certain exceptions as provided in the Warrant Agreement, the Warrant Agreement permits the amendment of the Warrant Agreement and the modification of the rights and obligations of the Company and the rights of the holders of Warrant Certificates under the Warrant Agreement at any time by the Company and the Warrant Agent with the consent of the holders holding a majority of each then-outstanding Warrants to be amended or modified.

Nothing contained in the Warrant Agreement or this Warrant Certificate shall be construed as conferring upon any Person, by virtue of holding or having a beneficial interest in a Warrant Certificate evidencing any Warrant, the right to vote, receive any dividend or other distribution, receive notice of, or attend, any meeting of members, or otherwise exercise any rights whatsoever as a member of the Company to the extent such vote, dividend, giving of notice, meeting, or other exercise of rights (or, if applicable, the relevant Record Date therefor) precedes the Close of Business on the Exercise Date with respect to the exercise of such Warrant. No holder shall have any right not expressly conferred under the Warrant Agreement or under, or by applicable Law with respect to, this Warrant Certificate held by such holder.

By accepting and holding Warrants, each Warrantholder acknowledges and agrees as follows: (i) in its capacity as a Warrantholder, the relationship of such Warrantholder to the Company is strictly contractual in nature and is not the relationship of a member, other form of equity holder, or any similarly situated person to the Company; (ii) no fiduciary or similar duties of any kind or description are owed to any Warrantholder in its capacity as a Warrantholder; (iii) in furtherance of the foregoing (and not in limitation of the foregoing), no director or officer of the Company shall owe any duty of any kind (including any fiduciary duty) to any Warrantholder, in its capacity as a Warrantholder, including in connection with any act or failure to act, whether under this Warrant Agreement, the Warrant, or otherwise; and (iv) such Warrantholder shall not, and shall cause its Affiliates not to, bring, make, institute, or seek to bring, make, or institute, in the name of or on behalf of the Company, such Warrantholder, or any other Person, any claim or proceeding arising out of, or relating to, this Warrant Agreement or any Warrants against any director or officer of the Company directly or indirectly in connection with an alleged breach of such director's or officer's duties, including fiduciary duties.

The Company is not required and does not intend to file any registration statement for the Warrants or the Warrant Units.

This Warrant Certificate, each Warrant evidenced by this Warrant Certificate, and the Warrant Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to any choice of law or conflict of law rules or provisions (whether of the State of New York or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of New York.

The Warrant Agreement provides that each Warrantholder or transferee of any Warrantholder shall provide the Warrant Agent with properly completed and duly executed IRS Form W-9 or the appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable.

All terms used in this Warrant Certificate which are defined in the Warrant Agreement and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Warrant Agreement. The terms of this Warrant Certificate are to be read in conjunction with the applicable terms of the Warrant Agreement. In the event of an inconsistency between the terms of this Warrant and the Warrant Agreement, the terms of the Warrant Agreement shall prevail.
