IT IS HEREBY FOUND AND DETERMINED THAT:

A. The findings and conclusions set forth in this order (this "Confirmation Order") and in the record of the Confirmation Hearing constitute this Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as made applicable herein by Bankruptcy Rules 7052 and 9014. To the extent any of the following findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such. The Debtors are eligible to be debtors under section 109 of the Bankruptcy Code and, pursuant to the Local Bankruptcy Rules, the Debtors consent to entry of a final order by the Court in accordance with the terms set forth herein to the extent that it is later determined that this Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. The Debtors are proper plan proponents under section 1121(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. This Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Order of Reference to Bankruptcy Judges from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, dated May 24, 2012. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b) and this Court has jurisdiction to enter a final order with respect thereto.

C. Each of the Debtors has met the burden of proving that the Plan satisfies the requirements of sections 1129(a) and 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code by a preponderance of the evidence.

D. The Plan was solicited in good faith and in compliance with applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Bankruptcy Rules. As is evidenced by the Solicitation Affidavits, the transmittal and service of the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Solicitation Packages, and the Notices of Non-Voting Status and Release Opt-Out Forms complied with the Solicitation Procedures Order and was adequate and sufficient under the circumstances. All parties required to be given notice of the Confirmation Hearing (including the deadline for filing and serving objections to confirmation of the Plan) have been given due, proper, timely, and adequate notice in accordance with the Solicitation Procedures Order and in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and applicable non-bankruptcy law, and such parties have had a full and fair opportunity to appear and be heard with respect thereto. No additional or further notice is required under the circumstances.

E. The Plan has been proposed in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law. In so finding, this Court has considered the totality of the circumstances of the Chapter 11 Cases, and found that all constituencies acted in good faith. The Plan is the result of extensive, good faith, arm's length negotiations among the Debtors and their principal constituencies.

F. With respect to each Debtor, the votes to accept or reject the Plan have been solicited and tabulated fairly, in good faith, and in a manner consistent with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules and the Solicitation Procedures Order.

G. The Holders of First Lien Claims (Class 3) and the Holders of General Unsecured Claims (Class 4) (each a "Voting Accepting Class" and together the "Voting Accepting Classes") have voted to accept the Plan in accordance with section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

H. Each Voting Accepting Class is impaired within the meaning of section 1124 of the Bankruptcy Code. Because at least one impaired Class has voted to accept the Plan without including any acceptance of the Plan by any insider, section 1129(a)(10) of the Bankruptcy Code is satisfied.

I. The Plan satisfies section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code. The liquidation analysis set forth in Exhibit C to the Disclosure Statement and other evidence proffered or adduced at the Confirmation Hearing establishes that each Holder of a Claim or Interest in an Impaired Class either has accepted the Plan or will receive or retain under the Plan, on account of such Allowed Claim or Interest, property of a value, as of the Effective Date of the Plan, that is not less than the amount that it would receive if the Debtors were liquidated under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code on such date.

J. Holders of Subordinated Unsecured Notes Claims (Class 5) have voted to reject the Plan in accordance with section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Holders of Subordinated Claims (Class 7) and the Existing Parent Equity Interests (Class 9) are deemed to have rejected the Plan (Class 5, Class 7, and Class 9, each a "Rejecting Class" and, collectively, the "Rejecting Classes"). The Court finds, based on the record of the Chapter 11 Cases and the evidence presented and adduced at the Confirmation Hearing, that the Plan does not discriminate unfairly and is fair and equitable with respect to the Rejecting Classes, as required by sections 1129(b)(1) and (b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, because (i) no Holder of any Claim or Interest that is junior to the interests represented by the Rejecting Classes will receive or retain any property under the Plan on account of such junior Claim or Interest and (ii) no Holder of a Claim in a Class senior to the Rejecting Classes is receiving more than 100% recovery on account of its Claim. Thus, the Plan may be confirmed notwithstanding the rejection of the Plan by the Rejecting Class.

K. The classification of Claims and Interests under the Plan is proper and satisfies the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to sections 1122(a) and 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, Article III of the Plan provides for the separate classification of Claims and Interests into nine Classes, based on differences in the legal nature or priority of such Claims and Interests (other than Administrative Claims (including Professional Fee Claims), DIP Claims, Priority Tax Claims, and statutory fees, which are addressed in Article II of the Plan and which have not been classified in accordance with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code). Valid business, factual, and legal reasons exist for the separate classification of the various Classes of Claims and Interests created under the Plan, the classifications were not done for any improper purpose, and the creation of such Classes does not unfairly discriminate between or among Holders of Claims or Interests. As required by section 1122(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, each Class of Claims and Interests contains only Claims or Interests that are substantially similar to the other Claims or Interests within that Class.

L. The Court finds, based on the record of the Chapter 11 Cases and the evidence presented and adduced at the Confirmation Hearing that the Debtor Release provided pursuant to Section 10.6(a) of the Plan represents a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment, was negotiated in good faith and at arms' length, and formed an essential part of the agreement among the parties participating in the negotiation and formulation of the Plan. In addition, for the reasons set forth in the Confirmation Memorandum and the evidence adduced at the Confirmation Hearing, the Third-Party Release provided pursuant to Section 10.6(b) of the Plan is consensual and binding on all creditors to the extent set forth therein and herein. All impaired creditors were given an opportunity to "opt out" of such release in accordance with the Plan and the Solicitation Procedures Order. Moreover, the Released Parties played an integral role in the formulation of the Plan, have made significant contributions that are essential to the Plan's success, and have expended significant time and resources analyzing and negotiating the Plan and the issues presented by the Debtors' prepetition capital structure. Accordingly, the Court finds, based on the record of the Chapter 11 Cases and the evidence presented and adduced at the Confirmation Hearing, that the releases provided pursuant to Section 10.6 of the Plan are: (i) in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties; (ii) a good faith settlement and compromise of the Claims and Causes of Action released by the Plan; (ii) in the best interests of the Debtors and their Estates; (iv) fair, equitable, and reasonable under the circumstances; and (v) given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing.

M. The exculpation provided by Section 10.7 of the Plan for the benefit of the Exculpated Parties (the "Exculpation") is appropriate under applicable law, including In re Highland Capital Mgmt., L.P., 48 F.4th 419 (5th Cir. 2022), because it is an integral part of a Plan, supported by the evidence in the record at the Confirmation Hearing, proposed in good faith, formulated following extensive good faith, arm's-length negotiations with key constituents, and appropriately limited in scope to the parties that served as fiduciaries in the Chapter 11 Cases. The Exculpation, including its carve-out for willful misconduct, actual fraud, and gross negligence, is consistent with the applicable law and established practice in this jurisdiction and others.

N. The Court finds that the relief requested by the Committee in the Standing Motions should be denied on the merits for the reasons more fully set forth by the Court on the record at the Confirmation Hearing.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

I. Confirmation of the Plan

1. The Plan is confirmed pursuant to section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. Any and all objections to Confirmation of the Plan that have not been resolved, withdrawn, waived, or settled and all reservations of rights included therein, are overruled on the merits and for the reasons set forth on the record at the Confirmation Hearing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the rights and objections of any party that properly Filed and served an objection to the assumption, or assumption and assignment, of its Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, including (without limitation) an objection regarding the amount of its proposed Cure Claim (such amount, as set forth on the applicable Assumption Notice (as defined in the Solicitation Procedures Order), the "Proposed Cure") or the applicable Debtor's ability to provide adequate assurance of future performance are reserved. Any dispute (an "Assumption Dispute") regarding the assumption, or assumption and assignment, of the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, including (without limitation), the Proposed Cure or the applicable Debtor's ability to provide adequate assurance of future performance, shall be resolved in accordance with paragraph 36 of this Confirmation Order.

3. The Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors (as applicable) are authorized to take all actions required under the Plan and to effectuate the Plan and the transactions contemplated therein. The terms of the Plan, the Plan Supplement, the Definitive Documents, and the exhibits and schedules thereto are incorporated by reference into, and are an integral part of, this Confirmation Order. The terms of the Plan, the documents contained in the Plan Supplement, Definitive Documents, all exhibits thereto, and all other relevant and necessary documents, shall be effective and binding as of the Effective Date. The failure to include or reference any particular provision of the Plan or Plan Supplement in this Confirmation Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such provision, it being the intent of the Court that the Plan be confirmed in its entirety and such provisions shall have the same binding effect, enforceability, and legality as every other provision of the Plan. Each term and provision of the Plan, as it may have been altered or interpreted by the Court, is valid and enforceable pursuant to its terms.

4. The terms of the Plan and all transactions contemplated by the Plan, shall be effective and binding as of the Effective Date. Subject to the terms of the Plan, the Debtors reserve the right to alter, amend, update or modify the Plan Supplement, the Definitive Documents, and any documents contained therein up until, and through, the Effective Date. The failure to specifically include or refer to any particular article, section, or provision of the Plan, the Plan Supplement, the Definitive Documents, or any related document in this Confirmation Order does not diminish or impair the effectiveness or enforceability of such article, section, or provision, which are approved in their entirety.

5. This Confirmation Order shall constitute all approvals and consents required, if any, by the laws, rules or regulations of any state or any other governmental authority with respect to the implementation or consummation of the Plan and any other acts that may be necessary or appropriate for the implementation or consummation of the Plan. Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the corporate and limited liability company laws of the states where the Debtors are organized, other applicable non-bankruptcy law, and section 1142(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, no action of the respective directors or stockholders of the Debtors shall be required to authorize the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, to enter into, execute, deliver, file, adopt, amend, restate, consummate, or effectuate, as the case may be, the Plan and any Definitive Documents, contract, instrument, or other document to be executed, delivered, adopted, or amended in connection with implementation of the Plan.

6. Subject to payment of any applicable filing fees under applicable non-bankruptcy law, each federal, state, commonwealth, local, foreign or other governmental agency shall accept for filing and/or recording any and all documents, mortgages and instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement or consummate the transactions contemplated by the Plan and this Confirmation Order. To the fullest extent permitted by section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers of property pursuant to, in contemplation of, or in connection with the Plan shall not be subject to any stamp tax, document recording tax, conveyance fee, intangibles, or similar tax, mortgage tax, real estate transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, sales or use tax, Uniform Commercial Code filing or recording fee, regulatory filing or recording fee, or other similar tax or governmental assessment in the United States, and this Confirmation Order hereby directs the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents to forgo the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and to accept for filing and recordation instruments or other documents pursuant to such transfers of property without the payment of any such tax or governmental assessment. Such exemption specifically applies, without limitation, to (a) the creation, modification, consolidation, or recording of any mortgage, deed of trust, Lien, or other security interest, or the securing of additional indebtedness by such or other means, (b) the making, assignment, or recording of any lease or sublease, (c) any of the Restructuring Transactions authorized by the Plan, and (d) the making or delivery of any deed or other instrument of transfer under, in furtherance of, or in connection with the Plan, including: (i) any merger agreements;

(ii) agreements of consolidation, restructuring, disposition, liquidation, or dissolution; (iii) bills of sale; or (iv) assignments executed in connection with any of the Restructuring Transactions.

7. The compromises and settlements set forth in the Plan are approved pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019.

8. The assumption, on and as of the Effective Date, by the Debtors of all (a) existing Employee Plans and (b) all insurance policies (including, without limitation the D&O Policies) to which any Debtor is a party as of the Effective Date, as set forth in the Plan, is hereby approved.

9. For the avoidance of doubt, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3020(c)(1), the following provisions in the Plan are hereby approved in full and will be effective immediately on the Effective Date without further order or action by this Court, any of the parties to such release, or any other Person or Entity: (a) Releases by the Debtors (Section 10.6(a)); (b) Releases by Holders of Claims and Interests (Section 10.6(b)); (c) Exculpation (Section 10.7); and (d) Permanent Injunction (Section 10.5).

10. The amendments and modifications to the solicitation version of the First Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of ModivCare Inc. and its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 465] since the filing thereof, including as reflected and incorporated into the Plan, are shown in the redline filed with the Court on December 5, 2025 [Docket No. 960, Exhibit A]. Adequate and sufficient notice of such amendments and modifications (collectively, the "Subsequent Plan Modifications") has been given. The Subsequent Plan Modifications do not individually, or in the aggregate, materially or adversely affect or change the treatment of any Claim against, or interest in, any of the Debtors. Accordingly, no other or further notice, disclosure under section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, nor resolicitation of votes under section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, is or shall be required and such Subsequent Plan Modifications are approved in full in accordance with section 1127(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3019(a). The Plan, as modified by the Subsequent Plan Modifications, is deemed accepted by all creditors who have previously accepted the Plan and the Subsequent Plan Modifications do not require that Holders of Claims be afforded an opportunity to change previously cast acceptances or rejections of the Plan. All rights of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors to modify the Plan and the documents that comprise the Plan Supplement, in accordance with the terms thereof, are reserved.

11. Pursuant to section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code and the other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, effective as of the Effective Date, the provisions of the Plan shall be binding on (a) the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors, (b) all Holders of Claims against, and Interests in, the Debtors, whether or not Impaired under the Plan and whether or not such Holders have accepted or rejected the Plan or affirmatively voted to reject the Plan, (c) each Person or Entity receiving, retaining or otherwise acquiring property under the Plan, and (d) any non-Debtor party to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease with the Debtors.

12. The applicable Debtors or Reorganized Debtors are authorized to consummate the Restructuring Transactions described in or contemplated by Section 5.1 of the Plan, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, in this Confirmation Order and in the Definitive Documents.

13. The existing directors of ModivCare in their capacities as such will be deemed to have resigned as directors of ModivCare on and as of the Effective Date, in each case without further notice to or order of the Bankruptcy Court, act or action under applicable law, regulation, order, or rule or the vote, consent, authorization or approval of any Person or Entity.

14. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Exit Facilities Documents, or in any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan, on the Effective Date and concurrently with the applicable distributions made pursuant to the Plan and, in the case of a Secured Claim, satisfaction in full of the portion of the Secured Claim that is Allowed as of the Effective Date, all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any asset or property of the Debtors shall be fully released and discharged, and all of the right, title, and interest of any holder of such mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests shall revert to the Reorganized Debtors and their successors and assigns, free and clear of such mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests and without further notice to or order of this Court, act or action under applicable law, regulation, order, or rule or the vote, consent, authorization or approval of any Person or Entity.

15. The Debtors shall cause to be served a notice of the entry of this Confirmation Order and occurrence of the Effective Date, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Effective Date Notice"), upon (a) all parties listed in the creditor matrix maintained by the Solicitation Agent (as defined in the Solicitation Procedures Order) and (b) such additional persons and entities as deemed appropriate by the Debtors, no later than five (5) business days after the Effective Date. The Debtors shall cause a copy of the Effective Date Notice to be published in The New York Times or a similar publication of national circulation within seven (7) business days after the Effective Date.

II. Dissolution of the Committee

16. On the Effective Date, the current and former members of the Committee, and their respective officers, employees, attorneys, financial advisors, and other agents, will be released from all further authority, duties, responsibilities and obligations related to, and arising from, and in connection with, the Chapter 11 Cases and the Committee will dissolve; provided, however, that following the Effective Date, the Committee will continue in existence and have standing and a right to be heard for the following limited purpose of pursuing the payment in full in Cash of Professional Fee Claims and filing and prosecuting fee applications, including any final fee applications, Filed pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code. Following the completion of the Committee's remaining duties set forth above, the Committee will be dissolved, and the retention or employment of the Committee's respective attorneys, accountants and other agents will terminate without further notice to, or action by, any Entity. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing set forth herein shall permit any professional engaged by the Committee or the Debtors to seek payment of an Administrative Claim from either the Debtors' estates or the Reorganized Debtors for (a) any fees incurred in defending any fee applications or (b) otherwise in connection with any objection to such fees or fee applications, in each case, without further order from the Court.

Upon the closing of the Exit Facilities, the lenders under the Exit Facility thereunder shall have valid, binding, perfected and enforceable Liens on the collateral specified in the Exit Facilities Documents with the priority set forth in the Exit Facilities Documents, and subject only to such Liens and security interests as may be permitted under the Exit Facilities Documents, and the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors are hereby authorized to make any and all filings and recordings necessary or desirable in connection with such Liens.

18. The obligations, guarantees, mortgages, pledges, Liens and other security interests granted pursuant to or in connection with the Exit Facilities are granted in good faith, for good and valuable consideration and for legitimate business purposes as an inducement to the lenders under the Exit Facilities to extend credit thereunder and shall be, and hereby are, deemed not to constitute a fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer and shall not otherwise be subject to avoidance or recharacterization.

IV. Administrative Claims Bar Date

19. Except as otherwise provided in the DIP Orders, the Order Establishing (A) Bar Dates and Related Procedures for Filing Proofs of Claim, (B) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof, and (C) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 66], or the Plan, requests for payment of Administrative Claims must be filed with the Court and served on the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors (as the case may be) and the Solicitation Agent within thirty (30) days from the date of service of the Effective Date Notice. Such proof of Administrative Claim must include at a minimum: (a) the name of the applicable Debtor that is purported to be liable for the Administrative Claim and if the Administrative Claim is asserted against more than one Debtor, the exact amount asserted to be owed by each such Debtor; (b) the name of the Holder of the Administrative Claim; (c) the asserted amount of the Administrative Claim; (d) the basis of the Administrative Claim; and (e) supporting documentation for the Administrative Claim; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to the Holders of Claims arising under section 503(b)(1)(D) of the Bankruptcy Code or the United States Trustee as the Holder of Administrative Claims. FAILURE TO FILE AND SERVE SUCH PROOF OF ADMINISTRATIVE CLAIM TIMELY AND PROPERLY SHALL RESULT IN SUCH CLAIM BEING FOREVER BARRED AND DISCHARGED.

V. Resolution of Other Matters.

20. Treatment of ASIC and Applied Surety Bond Agreements.[3] Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Plan, Plan Supplement, this Confirmation Order or any other Order of the Bankruptcy Court in the Chapter 11 Cases, on the Effective Date, any rights and obligations arising under or with respect to: (a) the Surety Bonds; (b) any Surety Bond Indemnity Agreements; (c) any Surety collateral, including, without limitation, cash, letters of credit, and/or the proceeds of any such collateral (the "Surety Collateral"); and (d) any Surety agreements governing Surety Collateral (items (a), (b), (c), and (d) collectively, the "ASIC and Applied Surety Bond Agreements") shall be deemed reaffirmed and ratified by the applicable Reorganized Debtors and Surety Bond Indemnitors, shall continue in full force and effect, and the rights and obligations thereunder and with respect thereto shall not be altered, modified, discharged, enjoined, impaired or released by the Plan, any Plan Supplement, or this Confirmation Order. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in the Plan, Plan Supplement or this Confirmation Order or any Order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases, including, without limitation, any exculpation, release, injunction, exclusions and discharge provision contained in Article X of the Plan, shall bar, alter, limit, impair, release, modify or enjoin any rights and obligations of the parties under the ASIC and Applied Solely to the extent any of the ASIC and Applied Surety Bond Agreements are deemed to be one or more executory contracts, any such agreements are deemed assumed by the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code effective as of the Effective Date with the consent of the Surety. If on and after the Effective Date any one of the ASIC and Applied Surety Bond Agreements ceases to be in effect solely as a result of a determination by a court of competent jurisdiction that such agreements are non-assumable under applicable bankruptcy law, any such ASIC and Applied Surety Bond Agreements shall be deemed reinstated or ratified on the terms of such Surety Bond Agreement that existed immediately prior to the Effective Date and the Reorganized Debtors will take reasonable steps to execute such documents as may be necessary to effect the reinstatement of such ASIC and Applied Surety Bond Agreements on such terms that existed immediately prior to the Effective Date. Nothing in the Plan, Plan Supplement, Confirmation Order or any Order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases shall affect in any way the Surety's rights against any non-Debtor, or any non-Debtor's rights against the Surety, including under any ASIC and Applied Surety Bond Agreement.

21. Treatment of Chubb Surety Bond Agreements. Company and/or their past, present or future affiliated sureties (each as surety in its role as an issuer of bonds, individually and collectively referred to herein as "Chubb Surety") as to:

(a) surety bonds or similar instruments issued or executed by Chubb Surety on behalf of any of the Debtors and/or non-debtor affiliates (collectively, and together with those bonds or similar instruments in which any of the Reorganized Debtors is becoming the principal, as set forth in paragraph 22(a), below (the "Chubb Bonds"), all of the obligations under each and every one of the Chubb Bonds shall hereafter be referred to individually and collectively as the "Chubb Bonded Obligations"); provided, however, that the Chubb Bonds and Chubb Bonded Obligations shall be recognized and enforced consistent with applicable nonbankruptcy law;

(b) any indemnity agreement executed by any Debtor and/or non-debtor affiliates, including but not limited to the Agreement of Indemnity executed by Charter LCI Corporation and LogistiCare, Inc. (d) any rights, remedies and/or defenses Chubb Surety may now or in the future have with respect to any and all Chubb Bonds and/or related instruments issued and/or executed by Chubb Surety on behalf of any of the Debtors and/or their non-Debtor affiliates to the extent set forth in the Chubb Surety Documents (as defined below) and/or otherwise permitted by applicable nonbankruptcy law;

(e) current or future setoff and/or recoupment rights and/or the lien rights and/or trust fund claims of Chubb Surety or any party to whose rights Chubb Surety has or may be subrogated as related to any Chubb Bonded Obligations, and/or any existing or future subrogation or other common law rights of Chubb Surety to the extent set forth in the Chubb Surety Documents and/or otherwise permitted by applicable nonbankruptcy law; and

(f) any related documents (together with the Chubb Bonds, Indemnity Agreements, and the Cash Collateral Agreements, collectively, the "Chubb Surety Documents"), as well as, any and all subrogation rights, all of which are neither affected nor impaired by the Plan Documents.

22. Notwithstanding anything in the Plan Documents to the contrary:

(a) any and all active Chubb Bonds in place as of the Effective Date shall survive the Effective Date and one or more of the Reorganized Debtors ("Assuming Reorganized Debtor") shall become the principal on the Chubb Bonds in lieu of the current principal or principals as of the Effective Date;

(b) the Indemnity Agreements, Cash Collateral Agreements and Chubb Bonds shall be assumed by one or more of the Assuming Reorganized Debtors and assigned to the Assuming Reorganized Debtor and, Chubb Surety shall be entitled to reasonable and documented attorneys' fees and costs and, without duplication, any cure amounts, without having to file an administrative claim, request for payment, cure objection, or fee application; provided, that (i) any such cure amounts shall be limited to those incurred and payable in accordance with the Chubb Surety Documents and applicable law, (ii) shall be supported by reasonably detailed invoices and documentation, which may be redacted as to privilege, and (iii) any cure amounts that remain outstanding as of the Effective Date shall become the obligation of the Assuming Reorganized Debtor;

(c) on and after the Effective Date, the Assuming Reorganized Debtor shall comply with all obligations of the Debtors relating to the Chubb Bonds under the Indemnity Agreements as if the Reorganized Debtor had executed the Indemnity Agreements;

(d) Chubb Surety may, amend the Chubb Bonds and/or Indemnity Agreements to name the Assuming Reorganized Debtor and/or require the Assuming Reorganized Debtor to execute a new indemnity agreement; provided, that any such amendments or new agreements shall be limited to those reasonably necessary to reflect the change in principal and maintain the existing risk profile, and shall not impose materially more onerous terms than existed immediately prior to the Effective Date absent the Assuming Reorganized Debtor's consent; and

(e) Chubb Surety reserves all of its rights to modify, amend, extend, and/or cancel any and all of the active Chubb Bonds as permitted by the Chubb Surety Documents and/or under applicable law; provided, that any such action shall be consistent with the terms of the applicable Bond; provided, further, that Chubb Surety has no obligation to issue or execute any new bonds on behalf of any entity, or to extend, modify, renew or increase the amount of any Chubb Bonds, except as expressly agreed to in writing.

23. Nothing in the Plan Documents, or any documents related to the foregoing, shall prime or otherwise impact: (a) current or future setoff and/or recoupment rights and/or the lien rights and/or trust fund claims of Chubb Surety or any party to whose rights Chubb Surety has or may be subrogated as it relates to Chubb Bonded Obligations and/or (b) any existing or future subrogation or other common law rights of Chubb Surety. For the avoidance of doubt, Section 6.16 of the Plan (Satisfaction of Claims) shall not apply to Chubb Surety. For the avoidance of doubt, Section 8.1(a) of the Plan (assumption of executory contracts on the effective date) shall not apply to Chubb Surety. For the avoidance of doubt, Section 10.5(d) (injunction as to setoff or recoupment) shall not apply to Chubb Surety or its bond beneficiaries. Notwithstanding any other provision in the Plan Documents to the contrary, if a claim or claims is or are asserted against any of the Chubb Bonds, then the Surety shall be granted reasonable access to, and may make copies of, any books and records that may be held by the Debtors and/or the Reorganized Debtors relating to any such claim; provided, that such access shall be upon reasonable prior notice, subject to customary confidentiality obligations, and limited to materials reasonably necessary to evaluate, defend, or resolve the specific claim asserted. To the extent the Effective Date does not occur, this paragraph 23 will be of no force and effect, and the parties' rights are reserved; provided, that nothing in any other section of this Confirmation Order shall negate any of the rights of Chubb Surety or of any of the obligees under any of the Chubb Bonds.

24. Treatment of the Chubb Insurance Program. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Definitive Documents, Restructuring Support Agreement, any other document related to any of the foregoing, or any other order of the Court (including, without limitation, any other provision that purports to be preemptory or supervening, grants an injunction, discharge or release, confers Court jurisdiction, or requires a party to opt out of any releases):

(a) on the Effective Date, all of the insurance policies which have been issued by ACE American Insurance Company, Federal Insurance Company and any of their respective U.S.-based affiliates and predecessors (together with ESIS, Inc., and solely in their capacities as insurers and third party administrators, the "Chubb Companies") to, or which provide coverage to, any of the Debtors (or any of their predecessors) at any time and for any line of coverage (collectively and together with any agreements, documents or instruments related thereto entered into by, or issued for the benefit of, the Chubb Companies, and each as amended, modified or supplemented and including any exhibit or addenda thereto, the "Chubb Insurance Program") shall be assumed in their entireties by the applicable Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors pursuant to sections 105 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, and shall continue in full force and effect thereafter in accordance with their respective terms and shall survive unimpaired under the Plan;

(b) on and after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall become and remain jointly and severally liable in full for all of their and the Debtors' obligations under the Chubb Insurance Program regardless of whether such obligations arise before or after the Effective Date and without the requirement or need for the Chubb Companies to file a Proof of Claim or an Administrative Claim, Cure Claim, object to any cure amount, or file a motion for setoff or recoupment;

(c) nothing (including Article VIII, Sections 8.5 and 8.6 of the Plan or any corresponding paragraphs of this Confirmation Order) shall alter or modify the terms and conditions of the Chubb Insurance Program, and any rights and obligations thereunder shall be determined in accordance with the terms thereof and applicable non-bankruptcy law;

(d) except as set forth in the Chubb Insurance Program, nothing shall permit or otherwise effectuate a sale, assignment or other transfer of the Chubb Insurance Program and/or any rights, benefits, claims, proceeds, rights to payment, or recoveries under and/or relating to the Chubb Insurance Program, or any collateral provided on account of the Chubb Insurance Program, without the prior express written consent of the Chubb Companies;

(e) the automatic stay of section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and the injunctions set forth in Article X, Section 10.5 of the Plan, if and to the extent applicable, shall be deemed lifted without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, solely to permit: (i) claimants with valid workers' compensation or direct action claims against the Chubb Companies under applicable non-bankruptcy law to proceed with their claims; (ii) the Chubb Companies to administer, handle, defend, settle, and/or pay, in the ordinary course of business and without further order of this Bankruptcy Court: (1) workers' compensation claims, (2) claims where a claimant asserts a direct claim against the Chubb Companies under applicable non-bankruptcy law, (3) claims where an order has been entered by this Bankruptcy Court granting a claimant relief from the automatic stay or the injunction set forth in Article X, Section 10.5 of the Plan to proceed with its claim; and (4) all costs in relation to each of the foregoing; (iii) the Chubb Companies to draw against any or all of the collateral or security provided by or on behalf of the Debtors (or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable) at any time and to hold the proceeds thereof as security for the obligations of the Debtors (and the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable) and/or apply such proceeds to the obligations of the Debtors (and the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable) under the Chubb Insurance Program, in such order as the Chubb Companies may determine in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of the Chubb Insurance Program; and (iv) the Chubb Companies to cancel the Chubb Insurance Program, and take other actions relating thereto (including effectuating a setoff or recoupment) in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of the Chubb Insurance Program and applicable non-bankruptcy law; provided, however, that the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors and Chubb Companies reserve all of their respective rights and defenses, if any, under applicable non-bankruptcy law and the Chubb Insurance Program to the extent Chubb Companies takes any action permitted by this sub-paragraph (e)(iv); and

(f) nothing in the second paragraph of Article X, Section 10.5 of the Plan or any corresponding paragraph of this Confirmation Order requires, precludes and/or prohibits the Chubb Companies to or from administering, handling, defending, settling and/or paying claims covered by the Chubb Insurance Program in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of the Chubb Insurance Program and/or applicable non-bankruptcy law.

For the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein expands, limits or affects the rights of the Chubb Companies under the Chubb Insurance Program.

25. Treatment of the Endurance Insurance Programs. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Confirmation Order, the Plan, or any related Assumption Notice, the policies issued by Endurance American Specialty Insurance Company ("Endurance"), including but not limited to two Healthcare Professional Services Liability, General Liability, and Employee Benefits Liability Policies issued to non-Debtor OEP AM Holdings, LLC, bearing Policy Nos. HLA100148512500 and HLA100148512501 (the "Policies"), which include a number of Debtors as additional insureds, shall be assumed solely to the extent of the applicable Debtors' remaining rights thereunder. In conformance with Debtors' cure obligations, Debtors shall pay $42,901.17 to Endurance within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date. Further, as allowed by the Insurance Order, Debtors or Reorganized Debtors (as applicable) shall timely pay all deductibles and other amounts due under the Policies as they come due, and Endurance is authorized to pay defense costs and other amounts under the Policies pursuant the terms of the Policies. Nothing contained in the Plan or this Confirmation Order shall alter, modify, or amend any terms and conditions in the Policies or the rights and obligations of the Debtors, Reorganized Debtors or Endurance thereunder (including any defenses to coverage) and, for the avoidance of doubt, Endurance shall not be required to pay or satisfy any amounts in excess of any amounts required by any of the applicable Policies or to cover or pay any claims or costs that Endurance would otherwise not pay under the Policies.

26. Treatment of the Humana Insurance Programs. As to Humana Inc., Humana Insurance Company, Humana Medical Plan, Inc., Humana Insurance Company of Florida, Inc., and their affiliates ("Humana") and the Debtors, nothing in the Plan, this Confirmation Order, or related Plan documents shall enjoin or impair any statutory or common law setoff rights as recognized in section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code and applicable bankruptcy and nonbankruptcy law, or the recoupment rights of Humana or the Debtors in their contracts. All such setoff and recoupment rights of Humana and the Debtors are preserved and are not required to have been asserted prior to the Confirmation Date. For all Humana contracts assumed under the Plan, in lieu of cure, all obligations due and unpaid under the contracts accruing prior to the Effective Date shall be unimpaired and will be paid or collected in the ordinary course of business.

27. Humana shall not be considered a Releasing Party or a Released Party. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, this Confirmation Order, or related Plan documents, nothing therein shall be deemed as a waiver or relinquishment of any rights, claims, causes of action, rights of setoff or recoupment, or other legal or equitable claims or defenses that Humana and the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors may have under bankruptcy or non-bankruptcy law in connection with any claims, liabilities, or causes of action arising from any Humana contract.

28. Elevance Health, Inc. On the Effective Date, all of the Agreements (as that term is defined in the Limited Objection of Elevance Health, Inc. to Assumption or Assumption and Assignment of Executory Contracts [Docket. No. 749] (the "Elevance Cure Objection")) and any other agreements between Elevance Health, Inc. or its direct or indirect affiliates and subsidiaries (collectively, "Elevance"), on the one hand, and any of the Debtors, on the other hand, for the provision of non-emergency transportation services as may be identified by the Debtors and Elevance in writing prior to the Effective Date (collectively, the "Elevance Agreements") shall be assumed by the Debtors. Notwithstanding anything in the Plan or this Confirmation Order to the contrary and in resolution of the Elevance Cure Objection, all obligations owing to either the Debtors or Elevance under the Elevance Agreements shall pass through and survive assumption, and will be paid in the ordinary course of business under the Elevance Agreements. Nothing in the Plan or this Confirmation Order shall affect the rights of recovery, setoff, or recoupment of Elevance or the Debtors under the Elevance Agreements.

29. Missouri Department of Revenue. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or this Confirmation Order, to the extent that the priority tax claims of the Missouri Department of Revenue have not been paid in full prior to the Effective Date, such claims will be paid either (a) in full on the Effective Date or (b) in equal monthly installments commencing on the Effective Date and continuing over a period ending not later than sixty (60) months after the Petition Date. Each equal monthly payment shall in addition include interest at the statutory interest rate of 8% per annum from the Effective Date.

30. Texas Comptroller. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in the Plan or this Confirmation Order, the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts (the "Texas Comptroller") reserves the following rights: (a) any statutory or common law setoff rights of the Texas Comptroller in accordance with 11 U.S.C. § 553; (b) any rights of the Texas Comptroller to pursue any non-debtor third parties for tax debts or claims; (c) the payment of interest on the Texas Comptroller's Allowed administrative expense tax claims, if any; (d) subject to any applicable limitation in the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent that interest is payable with respect to any Allowed administrative expense, priority or secured tax claim of the Texas Comptroller, payment of the statutory rate of interest pursuant to Texas Tax Code § 111.060; and (e) the Texas Comptroller is not required to file a motion or application for payment of administrative expense claims pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(1)(D). For the avoidance of doubt, the Texas Comptroller's rights are reserved regarding receiving interest on its Allowed Priority Tax Claims after the Effective Date as required by sections 511 and 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors', Reorganized Debtors', and Texas Comptroller's rights and defenses under Texas state law and the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the foregoing are fully preserved. Nothing contained in the Plan or this Confirmation Order will be deemed to be a waiver or relinquishment of, or otherwise affect, any rights, claims, causes of action, rights of setoff or recoupment, rights to appeal tax assessments, or other legal or equitable defenses that any Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, or non-Debtor third party has under non-bankruptcy law in connection with any claim, liability or cause of action of the Texas Comptroller.

To the extent the Texas Tax Code provides for interest and/or penalties with respect to any portion of the Texas Taxing Authority Claims, nothing in the Plan or this Confirmation Order prevents the inclusion of such interest and/or penalties in the Texas Taxing Authority Claims, and the Debtors' and Reorganized Debtors' defenses and rights to object to such Claims or to the inclusion of such interest or penalties in such Claims on any grounds are fully reserved and preserved. The Texas Taxing Authorities shall retain the liens (if any) that secure any Texas Taxing Authority Claims, in their pre-petition priority (to the extent the Texas Taxing Authorities' liens are valid, senior, perfected, binding, enforceable and non-avoidable), until the taxes due under this Confirmation Order are fully paid. VII. Treatment of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

33. The Debtors have exercised sound business judgment in determining whether to reject, assume, or assume and assign each of their Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases pursuant to sections 365 and 1123(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, Article VIII of the Plan, and as set forth in the Plan Supplement. Except as set forth herein and/or in separate orders entered by the Court relating to the assumption of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, the Debtors have cured or provided adequate assurance that the Debtors will cure defaults (if any) under or relating to each Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease assumed under the Plan and, for each Executory

Contract or Unexpired Lease being assigned under the Plan (if any), such assignee has provided adequate assurance of future performance as required under section 365(f)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code.

34. Assumption (or assumption and assignment) of the Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases as set forth in Section 8.1(a) of the Plan is hereby authorized. Rejection of the Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases as set forth in Section 8.1(b) of the Plan and in the Plan Supplement is hereby authorized. Unless an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease: (a) was previously assumed, assumed and assigned, or rejected by the Debtors by prior order of this Court; (b) is the subject of a motion to reject filed by the Debtors that is pending on the Effective Date; (c) is identified as rejected in the Plan Supplement; (d) is rejected by the Debtors or terminated pursuant to the terms of the Plan, effective as of the Effective Date; or (e) is the subject of a pending Assumption Dispute, such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed to have been assumed by the applicable Reorganized Debtor, in each case consistent with the Definitive Documents, including the Restructuring Transactions.

35. Unless a party to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease being assumed (or assumed and assigned) under the Plan has timely objected to the assumption or assumption and assignment of such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease and/or the Proposed Cure, the Debtors shall pay such Proposed Cure in accordance with the terms of the Plan and the assumption (or assumption and assignment) of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, pursuant to the Plan or otherwise, shall result in the full release, discharge and satisfaction of any Claims or defaults, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease at any time prior to the effective date of assumption and/or assignment and the counterparty to such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed to have consented to such assumption or assumption and assignment.

36. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, in the event of an Assumption Dispute regarding the amount and timing of any Proposed Cure, the Reorganized Debtors and applicable non-Debtor parties shall promptly confer after the Effective Date to attempt to resolve any such dispute consensually without further order of this Court. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, in the event such Assumption Dispute cannot be resolved consensually by the applicable parties, then the Reorganized Debtors shall, within thirty (30) days after the Effective Date, file a notice of dispute with the Court (and promptly serve such notice on the applicable counter-party) and such dispute shall be set for a status conference at the next scheduled omnibus hearing in the Chapter 11 Cases, with subsequent evidentiary hearings to be established by the Court as and if necessary. The payments, if any, or other actions, if any, that the Court determines the Reorganized Debtors are required to pay or otherwise perform to assume the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code shall be promptly paid or undertaken as required by Final Order resolving the applicable dispute. If an objection to the proposed cure amount is sustained by Final Order of this Court, the Reorganized Debtors in their sole option, may elect to reject such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease in lieu of assuming or assigning it by filing written notice thereof with this Court, and serving such notice on the applicable counter-party, within ten (10) days of the entry of such Final Order.

VI. Standing Motions

37. The Standing Motions are denied in their entirety for the reasons set forth by the Court on record at the Confirmation Hearing. The Court may further supplement its bench decisions on the Standing Motions with a written opinion.

VIII. Miscellaneous

38. Any objections to Claims shall be Filed by no later than the Claims Objection Deadline; provided that nothing contained herein or in the Plan shall limit the Reorganized Debtors' right to object to Claims, if any, Filed or amended after the Claims Objection Deadline. Moreover, notwithstanding the expiration of the Claims Objection Deadline, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors shall continue to have the right to amend any Claims objections or other objections and to File and prosecute supplemental objections and counterclaims to a Disputed Claim until such Disputed Claim is Allowed.

39. The Plan shall not become effective unless and until all conditions set forth in Section 9.1 of the Plan have been satisfied or waived pursuant to Section 9.3 of the Plan.

40. Pursuant to the Court's ruling on the record, the fourteen (14) day stay of this Confirmation Order imposed under Bankruptcy Rule 3020(e), is modified and the stay is in place through December 16, 2025, and is thereafter waived, and the Debtors are hereby authorized to consummate the Plan and the transactions contemplated thereby immediately upon expiration of the modified stay on December 17, 2025, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Article IX of the Plan. This Confirmation Order is a Final Order and the period in which an appeal thereof must be filed shall commence upon its entry.

41. The provisions of the Plan and this Confirmation Order, including the findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth herein, are non-severable and mutually dependent.

42. To the extent of any inconsistency between this Confirmation Order and the Plan, the terms and conditions of this Confirmation Order shall govern.

If the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, dispute any requested Second Lien Notes Trustee Fees and Expenses, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall (1) pay the undisputed portion of the Second Lien Notes Trustee Fees and Expenses and (2) notify the Second Lien Notes Trustee in writing of such dispute within two Business Days after presentment of the invoices by the Second Lien Notes Trustee. Upon such notification, the Second Lien Notes Trustee may assert its Second Lien Notes Trustee Charging Lien to pay the disputed portion of its Second Lien Notes Trustee Fees and Expenses or submit such dispute for resolution by the Bankruptcy Court; provided, however, that the Bankruptcy Court's review shall be limited to a determination under the reasonableness standard in accordance with the Second Lien Notes Indenture. Nothing herein shall in any way affect or diminish the right of the Second Lien Notes Trustee to exercise its Second Lien Notes Trustee Charging Lien against distributions on account of the Second Lien Claims with respect to any unpaid Second Lien Notes Trustee Fees and Expenses, as applicable.

Payment of the fees and expenses of the First Lien Agent and the Second Lien Notes Trustee as Restructuring Expenses and their inclusion as Released Parties is being provided to each in consideration of the agreement of each of the First Lien Agent and the Second Lien Notes Trustee to waive their respective charging lien rights against distributions under their respective Prepetition Funded Debt Documents.

2.4. Professional Fee Claims.

All Professionals seeking approval by the Bankruptcy Court of Professional Fee Claims shall (i) File, on or before the date that is forty-five (45) days after the Effective Date (unless extended by the Reorganized Debtors), their respective applications for final allowances of compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred and (ii) be paid in full, in Cash, in such amounts as are Allowed by the Bankruptcy Court or authorized to be paid in accordance with the order(s) relating to or allowing any such Professional Fee Claims.

2.5. Professional Fee Escrow.

(a) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Confirmation Date and no later than the Effective Date, the Debtors shall establish and fund the Professional Fee Escrow with Cash equal to the Professional Fee Claims Estimate. No Liens, Claims, or Interests shall encumber the Professional Fee Escrow or Cash held in the Professional Fee Escrow in any way. Subject to the DIP Orders, the Professional Fee Escrow (including funds held in the Professional Fee Escrow) (i) shall not be and shall not be deemed property of the Debtors, their Estates, or the Reorganized Debtors, and (ii) shall be held in trust for the Professionals; provided, that funds remaining in the Professional Fee Escrow after all Allowed Professional Fee Claims have been irrevocably paid in full in cash pursuant to one or more Final Orders of the Bankruptcy Court shall revert to the Reorganized Debtors. Allowed Professional Fee Claims shall be paid in Cash to such Professionals from funds held in the Professional Fee Escrow when such Claims are Allowed by an order of the Bankruptcy Court; provided, that the Debtors' obligations with respect to Professional Fee Claims shall not be limited nor deemed to be limited in any way to the balance of funds held in the Professional Fee Escrow.

(b) If the amount of funds in the Professional Fee Escrow is insufficient to fund payment in full of all Allowed Professional Fee Claims and any other Allowed amounts owed to Professionals, the deficiency shall be promptly, and, in any event, by no later than five (5) Business Days of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, being alerted to such deficiency, funded in Cash to the Professional Fee Escrow from the Debtors' Estates or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, without any further action or order of the Bankruptcy Court.

(c) Any objections to Professional Fee Claims shall be served and Filed no later than twenty-one (21) days after Filing of the final applications for compensation or reimbursement.

2.6. Professional Fee Claims Estimate.

Each Professional shall estimate in good faith its unpaid Professional Fee Claim and other unpaid fees and expenses incurred in rendering services to the Debtors, before and as of the Effective Date and shall deliver such reasonable, good faith estimate to the Debtors no later than five (5) Business Days prior to the Effective Date (such estimate the "Professional Fee Claims Estimate"); provided, that such estimate shall not limit, nor shall it be construed as limiting, the amount of the fees and expenses that are the subject of the Professional's final request for payment of Filed Professional Fee Claims. If a Professional does not provide an estimate, the Debtors shall estimate in good faith the unpaid and unbilled fees and expenses of such Professional. The total aggregate amount so estimated to be outstanding as of the anticipated Effective Date shall be utilized by the Debtors to determine the amount to be funded to the Professional Fee Escrow; provided, that the Reorganized Debtors shall use Cash on hand to increase the amount of the Professional Fee Escrow to the extent fee applications are Filed after the Effective Date in excess of the amount held in the Professional Fee Escrow based on such estimates.

2.7. DIP Backstop Premium.

On the Effective Date, the DIP Backstop Premium shall be paid in accordance with the terms of the DIP Backstop Commitment Letters and this Plan.

2.8. DIP Claims.

(b) Upon and following the Confirmation Date, any requirement that Professionals comply with sections 327 through 331, 363, and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code in seeking retention for services rendered after such date shall terminate, and the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, may employ any Professional in the ordinary course of business without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

ARTICLE III.

CLASSIFICATION OF CLAIMS AND INTERESTS.

3.1. Classification in General.

A Claim or Interest is placed in a particular Class for all purposes, including voting, confirmation, and distribution under this Plan and under sections 1122 and 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided, that a Claim or Interest is placed in a particular Class for the purpose of receiving distributions pursuant to this Plan only to the extent that such Claim or Interest is an Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest in that Class and such Claim or Interest has not been satisfied, released, or otherwise settled prior to the Effective Date. All of the potential Classes for the Debtors are set forth herein. Certain Debtors may not have any Holders of Claims or Interests in a particular Class or Classes, and such Claims or Interests shall be treated as set forth in Article III, Section 3.5 herein.

In accordance with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors have not classified Administrative Claims, Priority Tax Claims, and DIP Claims, as described in Article II herein.

Other than with respect to Debtor ModivCare, the Debtors shall be substantively consolidated solely for the purposes of voting, determining which Class or Classes have accepted the Plan, confirming the Plan, and the resulting treatment of all Claims and Interests and Plan distributions.

3.2. Formation of Debtor Groups for Convenience Only.

This Plan groups the Debtors together solely for the purpose of describing treatment under this Plan, confirmation of this Plan, and making distributions in respect of Claims and Interests under this Plan. Such groupings shall not affect any Debtor's status as a separate legal Entity, change the organizational structure of the Debtors' business enterprise, constitute a change of control of any Debtor for any purpose, cause a merger or consolidation of any legal Entities, or cause the transfer of any Assets; and, except as otherwise provided by or permitted under this Plan, all Debtors shall continue to exist as separate legal Entities after the Effective Date.

3.3. Summary of Classification.

The following table designates the Classes of Claims against and Interests in each of the Debtors and specifies which of those Classes are (a) Impaired or Unimpaired by this Plan, (b) entitled to vote to accept or reject this Plan in accordance with section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, and (c) presumed to accept or deemed to reject this Plan. In accordance with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, Administrative Claims, DIP Claims (including the DIP Backstop Premium), Priority Tax Claims, and Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Plan, the Reorganized Debtors shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all such Claims, Causes of Action, rights of setoff, and other legal or equitable defenses that the Debtors had immediately prior to the Petition Date fully as if the Chapter 11 Cases had not been commenced, and all of the Reorganized Debtors' legal and equitable rights with respect to any Reinstated Claim or Claim that is otherwise Unimpaired by this Plan may be asserted after the Confirmation Date and the Effective Date to the same extent as if the Chapter 11 Cases had not been commenced.

3.5. Elimination of Vacant Classes.

Any Class of Claims or Interests that, as of the commencement of the Confirmation Hearing, does not have at least one Holder of a Claim or Interest that is Allowed, or temporarily Allowed under Bankruptcy Rule 3018, in an amount greater than zero for voting purposes shall be considered vacant, deemed eliminated from this Plan for purposes of determining acceptance or rejection of this Plan pursuant to section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to that Class.

If a Class contains Claims or Interests eligible to vote and no Holders of Claims or Interests eligible to vote in such Class vote to accept or reject this Plan, this Plan shall be presumed accepted by such Class.

Classes 1, 2, 6, and 8 are Unimpaired under this Plan. Therefore, the Holders of Claims or Interests in such Classes are presumed to have accepted this Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code and are not entitled to vote to accept or reject this Plan.

3.9. Deemed Rejection of this Plan.

Classes 7 and 9 are Impaired and Holders of Subordinated Claims and Existing Parent Equity Interests in such Classes shall receive no distribution under this Plan on account of such Claims or Interests, as applicable. Therefore, the Holders of Subordinated Claims and Existing Parent Equity Interests are deemed to have rejected this Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code and are not entitled to vote to accept or reject this Plan. Such Holders will, however, receive a Release Opt-Out Form to allow such Holders to affirmatively opt-out of the Third-Party Release.

3.10. Confirmation Pursuant to Sections 1129(a)(10) and 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Section 1129(a)(10) of the Bankruptcy Code shall be satisfied for purposes of Confirmation by acceptance of this Plan by any of the Voting Classes. The Debtors shall seek Confirmation of this Plan under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to any Impaired Class that does not accept this Plan. The Debtors reserve the right to modify this Plan or any Exhibit or the Plan Supplement in order to satisfy the requirements of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, if necessary.

ARTICLE V.

MEANS FOR IMPLEMENTATION.

5.1. Restructuring Transactions.

Without limiting any rights and remedies of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors under this Plan or applicable law, but in all cases subject to the terms and conditions of the Definitive Documents and any consents or approvals thereunder, the entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute authorization for the Reorganized Debtors to take, or to cause to be taken, together with any other transaction that may be necessary or appropriate to effect any transaction described in the Restructuring Support Agreement, or described in, approved by, contemplated by, or necessary to effectuate this Plan, including: (a) the execution and delivery of any appropriate agreements or other documents of merger, amalgamation, consolidation, restructuring, conversion, disposition, transfer, formation, organization, dissolution, or liquidation containing terms that are consistent with the terms of this Plan, and that satisfy the requirements of applicable law and any other terms to which the applicable Persons may agree, including the documents comprising the Plan Supplement; (b) the execution and delivery of appropriate instruments of transfer, assignment, assumption, or delegation of any Asset, property, right, liability, debt, or obligation on terms consistent with the terms of this Plan and having other terms for which the applicable Persons agree; (c) the filing of appropriate certificates or articles of incorporation, reincorporation, merger, amalgamation, consolidation, conversion, or dissolution pursuant to applicable state law or the filing of any elections; (d) such other transactions that are required to effectuate the Restructuring Transactions, including any mergers, consolidations, restructurings, conversions, elections, dispositions, transfers, formations, organizations, dissolutions, or liquidations; (e) the execution, delivery, and Filing, if applicable, of the Definitive Documents; (f) the issuance of Plan Securities, all of which shall be authorized and approved in all respects, in each case, without further action being required under applicable law, regulation, order or rule; and (g) all other actions that the applicable Persons determine to be necessary or appropriate, including making filings or recordings that may be required by applicable law (collectively, the "Restructuring Transactions").

5.2. Compromise and Settlement of Claims, Interests, and Controversies.

Pursuant to sections 363 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019, and in consideration for the classification, distribution, releases, and other benefits provided under this Plan, upon the Effective Date, the provisions of this Plan shall constitute an integrated, good faith compromise and settlement of all Claims, Interests, and controversies relating to the contractual, legal, equitable, and subordination rights that a Claim or an Interest Holder may have with respect to any Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest or any distribution to be made on account of such Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest. This Plan shall be deemed a motion to approve the good-faith compromises and settlements of all Claims, Interests, Causes of Action, and controversies pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019. Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval of the compromise or settlement of all such Allowed Claims, Allowed Interests, and controversies under Bankruptcy Rule 9019, as well as a finding by the Bankruptcy Court that such compromises, settlements, and transactions are in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and Holders of Allowed Claims and Allowed Interests, and each such compromise, settlement, and transaction, is fair, equitable, and within the range of reasonableness. Subject to the provisions of this Plan governing distributions, all distributions made to Holders of Allowed Claims and Allowed Interests in any Class are intended to be and shall be final. As consideration for, among other things, the Releases provided pursuant to this Plan, the Consenting Creditors have agreed pursuant to the Restructuring Support Agreement, for the benefit of the Debtors and the Debtors' Estates, to make contributions to enable the implementation of this Plan, such contributions being fundamentally necessary to the implementation of this Plan, and without consideration, including the Releases, the Consenting Creditors would not have agreed to make the contributions reflected herein. The compromises and settlements described herein shall be non-severable from each other and from all other terms of this Plan.

5.3. Administrative Consolidation for Voting and Distribution Purposes Only.

Other than with respect to Debtor ModivCare, this Plan is premised upon the substantive consolidation of the Debtors solely for the purposes of voting, determining which Class or Classes have accepted this Plan, confirming the Plan, and the resulting treatment of all Claims and Interests and Plan distributions. Each Debtor shall continue to maintain its separate corporate existence for all purposes other than the treatment of Claims and Interests under this Plan. On the Effective Date, and except as otherwise expressly provided in this Plan, solely for voting, confirmation, and distribution purposes with respect to each Class of Claims or Interests, other than with respect to Debtor ModivCare: (a) all Claims or Interests in each respective Class shall be deemed merged or consolidated and treated as Claims or Interests against the Debtors on a consolidated basis; (b) each Claim or Interest in each respective Class will be deemed a single Claim against, or Interest in, the consolidated Debtors; (c) any Claim in a given Class based on a guaranty by any Debtor of the obligations of any other Debtor shall be deemed eliminated and extinguished, so that any Claim against any Debtor and any guarantee thereof by any other Debtor, and any joint or several liability of any of the Debtors, shall be deemed to be one obligation of the consolidated Debtors; and (d) each Holder of any Allowed Claim or Interest in a given Class shall be entitled to a single recovery on account of such Claim or Interest, in accordance with the treatment provided under this Plan for such Class, regardless of whether such Holder filed Proofs of Claim against multiple Debtors or has Claims against multiple Debtors based on the same or similar debt.

Such substantive consolidation is solely for voting, confirmation and distribution purposes with respect to each Class and shall not constitute a transfer of Assets or liabilities between the Debtors for any other purpose.

Moreover, this Plan's treatment shall not affect any subordination provisions set forth in any agreement relating to any Claim or Interest or the ability of the post-Effective Date Debtors or to seek to have any Claim subordinated in accordance with section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law. Pursuant to section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors expressly reserve the right to reclassify any Allowed Claim or Interest in accordance with any contractual, legal, or equitable subordination relating thereto. Except as provided in this Plan, all subordination rights that a Holder of a Claim may have with respect to any distribution to be made pursuant to this Plan shall be discharged and terminated, and all actions related to the enforcement of such subordination rights shall be permanently enjoined.

5.4. Continued Corporate Existence; Effectuating Documents; Corporate Action; Restructuring Transactions.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Plan or the Plan Supplement, the Debtors shall continue to exist after the Effective Date as Reorganized Debtors in accordance with the applicable laws of the respective jurisdictions in which they are incorporated or organized and pursuant to the respective Corporate Governance Documents (or other analogous formation, constituent, or Corporate Governance Documents) in effect before the Effective Date or the New Corporate Governance Documents or other applicable Corporate Governance Documents, except to the extent such certificate of incorporation, certificate of formation, bylaws or operating agreement (or other analogous formation, constituent, or Corporate Governance Documents) are amended by this Plan or otherwise, and to the extent any such document is amended, such document is deemed to be amended pursuant to this Plan and requires no further action or approval (other than any requisite filings required under applicable state or federal law).

(b) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, on or about the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall take all actions set forth in and contemplated by this Plan, and enter into any transaction, and may take all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate the transactions described in, approved by, contemplated by, or necessary or appropriate to effectuate this Plan, including the Restructuring Transactions.

(c) Upon the Effective Date, all actions contemplated by this Plan shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, including (i) the assumption of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases as provided herein; (ii) the selection, or criteria for selection, of managers, directors, or officers for the Reorganized Debtors; (iii) the issuance of the New Common Interests and the New Warrants, and entry into the New Common Interests Documents and the New Warrants Documents; (iv) entry into the Exit Facilities and Exit Facilities Documents, (v) the issuance and/or distribution of the Plan Securities; (vi) implementation of, and performance under, the Management Incentive Plan; (vii) the consummation of the Equity Rights Offering; (viii) entry into the New Corporate Governance Documents; and (ix) all other actions contemplated by this Plan (whether to occur before, on, or after the Effective Date), in each case in accordance with and subject to the terms hereof.

(d) The Confirmation Order shall and shall be deemed to, pursuant to sections 363, 1123, and 1142 of the Bankruptcy Code, authorize and direct parties, as applicable, among other things, to

(c) To the extent any portion of the Plan Securities is not eligible for the exemption of registration provided by section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code (including any New Common Interests to be issued pursuant to the Equity Rights Offering), the offering, sale, issuance, and distribution of such Plan Securities shall be made in reliance upon Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act and/or Regulation D promulgated thereunder and on equivalent state law registration exemptions or, solely to the extent such exemptions are not available, other available exemptions from registration under the Securities Act. Any Plan Securities that are not issued pursuant to section 1145(a) of the Bankruptcy Code will be considered "restricted" Plan Securities, will bear customary legends, and may not be resold except pursuant to an effective registration statement or under an available exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, such as, under certain conditions, the resale provision of Rule 144A, Regulation S, and/or Rule 144 of the Securities Act, subject to, in each case, the transfer provisions, if any, and other applicable provisions set forth in the Corporate Governance Documents of the applicable issuers. 5.10. New Warrants Agreement.

On the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors and Holders of Allowed General Unsecured Claims shall enter into the New Warrants Agreement and all New Warrants shall be issued and exercisable into New Common Interests, subject to the terms and conditions of the New Warrants Agreement, and shall be subject to dilution by the MIP.

5.11. Cancellation of Existing Securities and Agreements.

Except for the purpose of evidencing a right to a distribution under this Plan and except as otherwise set forth in this Plan, including with respect to Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases that shall be assumed by the Reorganized Debtors, or any contract, instrument, or other agreement or document created in connection with this Plan, on the Effective Date, all agreements, instruments, notes, certificates, mortgages, security documents, Prepetition Funded Debt Documents, and any other documents evidencing any Claim or Interest (other than Intercompany Claims and Intercompany Interests that are not modified by this Plan) and any rights of any Holder in respect thereof shall be deemed canceled, discharged, and of no further force or effect, without any further act or action of any person under any applicable agreement, instrument, document, law, regulation, order, or rule, and the obligations of the Debtors thereunder shall be deemed automatically fully satisfied, released, and discharged, and each of the Second Lien Notes Trustee, the Subordinated Unsecured Notes Trustee, and the First Lien Agent, and their respective agents, successors and assigns shall each be automatically and fully released and discharged of and from all duties and obligations thereunder. Notwithstanding such cancellation and discharge on the Effective Date and the release of the Second Lien Notes Trustee and the First Lien Agent from their respective duties thereunder, the First Lien Credit Agreement, the Second Lien Notes Indenture, and the Subordinated Unsecured Notes Indenture shall continue in effect solely (a) to the extent necessary to allow the Holders of First Lien Claims, Second Lien Claims, and Subordinated Unsecured Notes Claims to receive distributions under this Plan in accordance therewith; (b) to the extent necessary to allow the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and/or the Second Lien Notes Trustee, the Subordinated Unsecured Notes Trustee, and the First Lien Agent each to make post-Effective Date distributions in accordance with this Plan at the expense of the Reorganized Debtors, subject to their respective rights as Second Lien Notes Trustee, the Subordinated Unsecured Notes Trustee, and the First Lien Agent under the First Lien Credit Agreement, the Second Lien Notes Indenture, and the Subordinated Unsecured Notes Indenture, as applicable, or take such other action expressly authorized by this Plan on account of Allowed First Lien Claims, Second Lien Claims, and Subordinated Unsecured Notes Claims; (c) to allow the Second Lien Notes Trustee, the Subordinated Unsecured Notes Trustee, and the First Lien Agent to appear in the Chapter 11 Cases or in any proceeding in the Bankruptcy Court or any other court, including to enforce the respective obligations owed to each of them under this Plan and to enforce any respective obligations owed to each of them under this Plan in accordance with the respective Prepetition Funded Debt Documents; (d) to allow the Second Lien Notes Trustee to exercise its Second Lien Notes Trustee Charging Lien against distributions to Holders of Second Lien Claims, as applicable; (e) to preserve all rights, remedies, indemnities, powers, and protections, including rights of enforcement, of the Second Lien Notes Trustee, the Subordinated Unsecured Notes Trustee, and the First Lien Agent against any person or entity (including, without limitation, with respect to any indemnification or contribution under the respective Prepetition Funded Debt Documents) or any exculpations of the Second Lien Notes Trustee, the Subordinated Unsecured Notes Trustee, and the First Lien Agent, pursuant to and subject to the terms of the respective Prepetition Funded Debt Documents to the extent such rights, remedies, indemnities, powers, and protections are enforceable; and (f) to permit the Second Lien Notes Trustee, the Subordinated Unsecured Notes Trustee, and the First Lien Agent to perform any functions that are necessary to effectuate the foregoing, provided, that nothing in the foregoing shall affect the discharge of Claims pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, the Confirmation Order, or this Plan or result in any liability or expense to the Reorganized Debtors. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to cancel, terminate, release, or discharge the obligation of the Debtors or any of their counterparties under any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to the extent such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease has been assumed by the Debtors pursuant to a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court or hereunder. For the avoidance of doubt, the Second Lien Notes Trustee, the Subordinated Unsecured Notes Trustee, and the First Lien Agent shall have no ongoing duties to the Holders of the First Lien Claims, the Second Lien Claims, and the Subordinated Unsecured Notes Claims under any of the canceled and discharged First Lien Credit Agreement, Second Lien Notes Indenture, Subordinated Unsecured Notes Indenture, and Prepetition Funded Debt Documents following the Effective Date other than as expressly set forth in this Plan or Confirmation Order.

5.12. Cancellation of Existing Parent Equity Interests and other Interests.

(a) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, including pursuant to Article V, Section 5.4(a) of this Plan, all notes, instruments, certificates or other agreement or document evidencing debt of the Debtors, Existing Parent Equity Interests, and other Interests will be canceled and obligations of the Debtors thereunder will be discharged and of no further force or effect, except, where applicable, for the purpose of allowing the applicable agents and trustees to receive distributions from the Debtors under this Plan and to make any further distributions to the applicable Holders on account of their Claims.

(b) Upon the full payment or other satisfaction of its Allowed Other Secured Claim, or promptly thereafter, any Lien securing any Other Secured Claim shall be deemed released and the Holder of such Allowed Other Secured Claim shall deliver to the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, any Collateral or other property of a Debtor held by such Holder, together with any termination statements, instruments of satisfaction, or releases of all security interests with respect to its Allowed Other Secured Claim that may be reasonably required to terminate any related financing statements, mortgages, mechanics' or other statutory Liens, or lis pendens, or similar interests or documents.

(c) After the Effective Date and following the (i) distributions to Holders on account of Allowed DIP Claims, Allowed First Lien Claims, and Allowed Second Lien Claims and (ii) payment of the Restructuring Expenses, any Lien securing such Claims shall be deemed released and the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors may, in their sole discretion, take any action necessary to terminate, cancel, extinguish, and/or evidence the release of any and all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, and other security interests with respect to the DIP Claims, First Lien Claims, and Second Lien Claims, including the preparation and filing, in form, substance, and content of any and all documents necessary to terminate, satisfy, or release any mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, and other security interests held by the DIP Agent, the First Lien Agent, the Second Lien Notes Trustee, and Holders of DIP Claims, and First Lien Claims, Second Lien Claims, including UCC-3 termination statements.

5.13. Officers and Boards of Directors.

(a) On the Effective Date, the New Board of the Reorganized Debtors shall be appointed by a pre-emergence committee consisting of certain Holders comprising the Required Consenting First Lien Lenders, in consultation with the Debtors, and disclosed in the Plan Supplement prior to emergence in accordance with section 1129(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code. The identity of the New Board members will be disclosed in the Plan Supplement at or prior to the Confirmation Hearing. Except to the extent that an existing director of ModivCare is designated (by the aforementioned pre-emergence committee) to serve on the New Board, the existing directors of ModivCare in their capacities as such, shall be deemed to have resigned or shall otherwise cease to be a director of ModivCare on the Effective Date. Each independent director of the Debtors, in such capacity, shall not have any of his/her respective privileged and confidential documents, communications, or information transferred (or deemed transferred) to the Reorganized Debtors, Reorganized Parent, or any other Entity without such director's prior written consent unless such information constitutes property of the Debtors.

(b) The existing directors of each of ModivCare's subsidiaries shall remain in their current capacities as directors of the applicable Reorganized Debtor until replaced or removed in accordance with the organizational documents of the applicable Reorganized Debtors.

(c) The existing officers of the Debtors as of the Effective Date shall remain in their current capacities as officers of the Reorganized Debtors, subject to their right to resign and the ordinary rights and powers of the New Board to remove or replace them in accordance with the New Corporate Governance Documents and any applicable agreements (including, but not limited to, employment agreements and offer letters) that are assumed pursuant to this Plan.

5.14. Management Incentive Plan.

After the Effective Date, the New Board shall adopt and implement the Management Incentive Plan.

5.15. First Lien Claim Equity Option

Prior to the Effective Date, each Holder of an Allowed First Lien Claim shall have the opportunity to irrevocably elect to receive (subject to the limitations set forth in the Election Procedures) (a) additional New Common Interests in lieu of receiving some or all of their pro rata share Exit Term Loans (the "Equity Option") or (b) additional Exit Term Loans in lieu of receiving some or all of their portion of the New Common Interests. New Common Interests distributed pursuant to the Equity Option shall not reduce the aggregate amount of Exit Term Loans available for distribution. The (a) New Common Interests distributed on account of the Equity Option shall reduce, on a ratable basis and at a ratio to be set forth in the Election Procedures, the amount of New Common Interests issued to each Holder of the Allowed First Lien Claims that elects to receive additional Exit Term Loans (to the extent available) in lieu of its pro rata portion of the New Common Interests and (b) the Exit Term Loans distributed on account of the equity Option shall reduce, on a ratable basis and at a ratio to be set forth in the Election Procedures, the amount of Exit Term Loans issued to each Holder of the Allowed First Lien Claims that elects to receive additional New Common Interests in lieu of its pro rata portion of the Exit Term Loans. Holders shall have the opportunity to make such election pursuant to the Election Procedures.

5.16. Issuance of New Common Interests and Deregistration. On the Effective Date, Reorganized Parent shall issue and deliver or reserve for issuance, as applicable, all of the New Common Interests issuable in accordance with the terms of this Plan and the other Definitive Documents. The issuance and delivery or reservation for issuance, as applicable, of such New Common Interests is authorized without the need for further corporate or other action or any consent or approval of any national securities exchange upon which the New Common Interests may be listed on or immediately following the Effective Date. All of the New Common Interests issuable under this Plan and the other Definitive Documents shall, when issued in accordance with this Plan and/or any other applicable Definitive Documents, be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid, and non-assessable. Each Holder of New Common Interests shall be deemed, without further notice or action, to have agreed to be bound by the New Corporate Governance Documents, as the same may be amended from time to time following the Effective Date in accordance with their terms. The New Corporate Governance Documents shall be binding on all Entities receiving New Common Interests (and their respective successors and permitted assigns), whether received pursuant to this Plan or otherwise and regardless of whether such Entity executes or delivers a signature page to any New Corporate Governance Document. The issuance and delivery or reservation for issuance, as applicable, of the New Common Interests in accordance with this Plan and the other Definitive Documents are authorized without the need for any further limited liability company or corporate action and without any further action by any Holder of a Claim or Interest.

Reorganized Parent shall not be obligated to effect or maintain any listing of the New Common Interests for trading on any national securities exchange (within the meaning of the Exchange Act) and it has no current intention of maintaining or obtaining such listing. The New Common Interests are expected to be delivered via book-entry transfer by the Distribution Agent in accordance with this Plan and the other Definitive Documents, rather than through the facilities of DTC; however, in the event the New Common Interests are DTC eligible on the Effective Date, delivery thereof may be made via DTC. Upon the Effective Date, after giving effect to the Restructuring Transactions, the New Common Interests shall be that number of shares or membership interests as may be designated in the New Corporate Governance Documents. On and after the Effective Date, transfers of New Common Interests shall be made in accordance with applicable United States law, United States securities laws (as applicable), and the New Corporate Governance Documents.

As promptly as reasonably practicable following the Effective Date, Reorganized Parent shall take all necessary steps in accordance with and to the extent permitted by the Exchange Act and the Securities Act to terminate the registration of all Securities under the Exchange Act and Securities Act, including to de-register its Existing Parent Equity Interests, and to terminate its reporting obligations under sections 12, 13, and 15(d) of the Exchange Act, including by (a) filing, or causing any applicable national securities exchange to file, a Form 25 with the SEC under the Exchange Act, and (b) filing a Form 15 with the SEC under the Exchange Act.

5.17. Effectuating Documents; Further Transactions.

Before, on, and after the Effective Date, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and the directors, managers, officers, authorized persons, and members of the boards of directors or managers and directors or managers of the foregoing, are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, securities, notes, instruments, certificates, releases, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, and further evidence the terms and provisions of this Plan, the New Corporate Governance Documents, the Exit Facilities Documents, and any Securities issued pursuant to this Plan in the name of and on behalf of the Reorganized Debtors, without the need for any approvals, authorizations, actions, or consents except for those expressly required pursuant to this Plan.

5.18. Authority of Debtors.

Effective on the Confirmation Date, the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall be empowered and authorized to take or cause to be taken, before the Effective Date, all actions necessary or appropriate to achieve the Effective Date and enable the Reorganized Debtors to implement effectively the provisions of this Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Definitive Documents, and the Restructuring Transactions.

5.19. Continuing Effectiveness of Final Orders.

Payment authorization granted to the Debtors under any prior Final Order entered by the Bankruptcy Court shall continue in effect after the Effective Date. Accordingly, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors may pay or otherwise satisfy any Claim to the extent permitted by, and subject to, the applicable Final Order without regard to the treatment that would otherwise be applicable to such Claim under this Plan.

5.20. Nonconsensual Confirmation.

To the extent any Voting Class has not voted to accept this Plan, the Debtors intend to undertake to have the Bankruptcy Court confirm this Plan under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code as to any Classes that reject or are deemed to reject this Plan.

5.21. Closing of the Chapter 11 Cases.

After an Estate has been fully administered, the Reorganized Debtors shall be authorized, but not directed, to submit one or more motion(s) to the Bankruptcy Court for entry of one or more order(s) that close and issue final decrees for any of the Chapter 11 Cases, for any Debtor, in each case in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules.

5.22. Notice of Effective Date.

On or as soon as practicable after the Effective Date, the Debtors shall File a notice of the occurrence of the Effective Date with the Bankruptcy Court.

ARTICLE VI.

DISTRIBUTIONS.

6.1. Distributions Generally.

The Distribution Agent shall make all distributions under this Plan to the appropriate Holders of Allowed Claims in accordance with the terms of this Plan, provided that initial Plan distributions shall be made to or at the direction of the Second Lien Notes Trustee, the Subordinated Unsecured Notes Trustee, and the First Lien Agent, as applicable, for further distribution in accordance with the Prepetition Funded Debt Documents, respectively.

If and to the extent that there are Disputed Claims, distributions on account of any such Disputed Claims shall be made pursuant to the provisions set forth in Article VII. Except as otherwise provided herein, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to postpetition interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for herein, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

6.2. Special Rules for Distributions to Holders of Disputed Claims.

Except as otherwise agreed by the relevant parties: (a) no partial payments and no partial distributions shall be made with respect to a Disputed Claim until all such disputes in connection with such Disputed Claim have been resolved by settlement or Final Order; and (b) any Entity that holds both an Allowed Claim and a Disputed Claim shall not receive any distribution on the Allowed Claim unless and until all objections to the Disputed Claim have been resolved by settlement or Final Order or such Claims or Interests have been Allowed or expunged.

6.3. Distribution Record Date.

As of the close of business on the Distribution Record Date, the various transfer registers for each of the Classes of Claims or Interests as maintained by the Debtors or their respective agents, shall be deemed closed, and there shall be no further changes in the record Holders of any of the Claims or Interests. The Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors shall have no obligation to recognize any transfer of the Claims or Interests occurring on or after the Distribution Record Date. In addition, with respect to payment of any Cure Claims or disputes over any Cure Claims, neither the Debtors nor the Distribution Agent shall have any obligation to recognize or deal with any party other than the non-Debtor party to the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease as of the Distribution Record Date, even if such non-Debtor party has sold, assigned, or otherwise transferred its Cure Claim. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Distribution Record Date shall not apply to distributions in respect of the Second Lien Notes or any securities deposited with DTC, the Holders of which shall receive distributions, if any, in accordance with the customary exchange procedures of DTC or this Plan. For the avoidance of doubt, in connection with a distribution through the facilities of DTC (if any), DTC shall be considered a single Holder for purposes of distributions.

6.4. Date of Distributions.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Plan (including payments made in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business) or as paid pursuant to a prior Bankruptcy Court order, on the Effective Date or, if a Claim or Interest is not Allowed on the Effective Date, on the date that such Claim or Interest becomes Allowed, or, in each case, as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, or as otherwise determined in accordance with this Plan and the Confirmation Order, including the treatment provisions of Article IV of this Plan, each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive the full amount of the distributions that such Holder of an Allowed Claim is entitled to under this Plan; provided, that the Reorganized Debtors may implement periodic distribution dates to the extent they determine them to be appropriate (but subject in all respects to the Definitive Documents); provided further, that the Reorganized Debtors may make distributions of Plan Securities following the Effective Date, including to Holders of Disputed Claims that become Allowed Claims; provided further, that any Holder participating in the Equity Rights Offering may inform the Distribution Agent pursuant to the Equity Rights Offering Procedures that the distributions in respect of such Holder's Allowed Claims shall be made to one or more of its Affiliates, designees or Related Funds. If and to the extent that there are Disputed Claims, distributions on account of any such Disputed Claims shall be made pursuant to the provisions set forth in Article VII; provided, that any Plan Security that is issuable to Holders of Allowed Claims but is withheld from distribution on account of a Holder of a Disputed Claim shall not be issued until such time such Disputed Claim is resolved and the Plan Securities are to be distributed. Except as specifically provided in this Plan, Holders of Allowed Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for in this Plan, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

(b) For all purposes associated with distributions under the Plan, all guarantees by any Debtor of the obligations of any other Debtor, as well as any joint and several liability of any Debtor with respect to any other Debtor, shall be deemed eliminated so that any obligation that could otherwise be asserted against more than one Debtor shall result in a single distribution under the Plan; provided, that Claims held by a single entity against different Debtors that are not based on guarantees or joint and several liability shall be entitled to the applicable distribution for each such Claim against each applicable Debtor. Any such Claims shall be released pursuant to Article X of the Plan and shall be subject to all potential objections, defenses, and counterclaims, and to estimation pursuant to section 502(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. For the avoidance of doubt, this shall not affect the obligation of each and every Debtor to pay fees payable pursuant to section 1930(a) of the Judicial Code until such time as a particular Chapter 11 Case is closed, dismissed, or converted, whichever occurs first.

6.5. Delivery of Distributions to Holders of the First Lien Loans.

All distributions with respect to the First Lien Claims shall be made to or at the direction of the First Lien Agent. As a condition precedent to the distributions provided for in this subsection, the Holders of Allowed First Lien Claims shall be deemed to have surrendered their First Lien Loans and all such surrendered First Lien Loans and the related book entry positions and other documents shall be deemed to be canceled in accordance with Article V, Section 5.11 of the Plan as of the Effective Date in exchange for such distributions.

6.6. Delivery of Distributions to Holders of the Second Lien Notes.

All distributions with respect to the Second Lien Notes shall be made to or at the direction of the Second Lien Notes Trustee, and the Second Lien Notes Trustee shall hold or direct such distributions for the benefit of the Holders of Second Lien Claims in accordance with the Second Lien Notes Indenture. At the expense of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, the Second Lien Notes Trustee shall arrange to deliver such distributions to, or on behalf of, the respective Holders of such Allowed Second Lien Claims (subject to the Second Lien Notes Trustee Charging Lien). The Second Lien Notes Trustee shall not incur any liability whatsoever on account of any distributions under the Plan, except for its own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a final, non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction. As a condition precedent to the distributions provided for in this subsection, the Holders of Allowed Second Lien Claims shall be deemed to have surrendered their Second Lien Notes and other documentation underlying their Allowed Second Lien Claims, and all such surrendered Second Lien Notes and the related book entry positions and other documentation shall be deemed to be canceled in accordance with Article V, Section 5.11 of the Plan as of the Effective Date in exchange for such distributions.

Notwithstanding any policies, practices, or procedures of DTC or any other applicable clearing system, DTC and all other applicable clearing systems shall cooperate with and take all actions reasonably requested by the Second Lien Notes Trustee to facilitate distributions to Holders of Allowed Second Lien Claims without requiring that such distributions be characterized as repayments of principal or interest. The Second Lien Notes Trustee shall not be required to provide indemnification or other security to DTC in connection with any distributions to Holders of Allowed Second Lien Claims through the facilities of DTC. In the event that, notwithstanding the Debtors' good faith efforts, any of the Plan consideration to be distributed to the Holders of Second Lien Claims are not approved to be eligible for distribution through DTC as of the Effective Date of the Plan, then the Debtors and the Second Lien Notes Trustee shall confer regarding a methodology of distribution consistent with the terms of the Second Lien Notes Indenture.

6.7. Distribution Agent.

All distributions under this Plan to Claims other than with respect to the First Lien Loans and the Second Lien Notes shall be made by the applicable Distribution Agent which may be a Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, or such other Entity designated as Distribution Agent pursuant to the Plan Supplement, on or after the Effective Date or as otherwise provided herein. A Distribution Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other Security for the performance of its duties, and all reasonable fees and expenses incurred by such Distribution Agents directly related to distributions hereunder shall be reimbursed by the Reorganized Debtors.

6.8. Rights and Powers of Distribution Agent.

(a) From and after the Effective Date, the Distribution Agent, solely in its capacity as Distribution Agent, shall be exculpated by all Entities, including Holders of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors and other parties in interest, from any and all Claims, Causes of Action, and other assertions of liability arising out of the discharge of the powers and duties conferred upon such Distribution Agent by this Plan or any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered pursuant to or in furtherance of this Plan, or applicable law, except for actions or omissions to act arising out of the gross negligence or willful misconduct, fraud, malpractice, criminal conduct, or ultra vires acts of such Distribution Agent. No Holder of a Claim or Interest or other party in interest shall have or pursue any Claim or Cause of Action vested in a Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to this Plan, or as deemed by such Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions hereof.

(b) The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to: (i) take, and otherwise effectuate, all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under this Plan; (ii) make all applicable distributions or payments provided for under this Plan; (iii) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities; and (iv) exercise such other powers (A) as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court (including any Final Order issued after the Effective Date) or pursuant to this Plan or (B) as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of this Plan.

6.9. Expenses of Distribution Agent.

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court and subject to the written agreement of the Reorganized Debtors, the reasonable and documented fees and expenses incurred by the Distribution Agent acting in such capacity (including reasonable and documented attorneys' fees and expenses) on or after the Effective Date shall be paid in Cash by the Reorganized Debtors in the ordinary course of business.

6.10. No Postpetition Interest.

Except as otherwise specifically provided for in this Plan, the Confirmation Order, any other Definitive Document, another Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, or required by applicable bankruptcy law (including, without limitation, as required pursuant to section 506(b) or section 511 of the Bankruptcy Code), postpetition interest shall not accrue or be paid on any Claims, and no Holder of a Claim shall be entitled to interest accruing on such Claim on or after the Petition Date.

6.11. Delivery of Distributions.

Subject to Bankruptcy Rule 9010, all distributions to any Holder of an Allowed Claim shall be made by a Distribution Agent, who shall transmit such distribution to the applicable Holders of Allowed Claims (or to the DIP Agent, Second Lien Notes Trustee, and the First Lien Agent, as applicable, as provided herein in the case of DIP Claims, the First Lien Claims, and the Second Lien Claims, as applicable); provided, that any Holder participating in the Equity Rights Offering as of the Distribution Record Date may send a written notice to the Distribution Agent that the distributions in respect of such Holder's Allowed Claims shall be made to one or more of its Affiliates, designees or Related Funds; provided further, that such Holder and relevant Affiliate, designee, or Related Fund comply with all applicable withholding and reporting requirements set forth in Article VI, Section 6.22 of this Plan. If a distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable, no further distributions shall be made to such Holder unless and until such Distribution Agent is notified in writing of such Holder's then-current address, at which time all currently-due, missed distributions shall be made to such Holder as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter without interest. Nothing herein shall require the Distribution Agent to attempt to locate Holders of undeliverable distributions and, if located, assist such Holders in complying with Article VI, Section 6.22 of this Plan.

6.12. Distributions as of Effective Date.

Distributions to Holders of Disputed Claims that are not Allowed Claims as of the Effective Date, but which later become Allowed Claims shall be deemed to have been made on the Effective Date.

6.13. Unclaimed Property.

One year from the later of (a) the Effective Date and (b) the date that is ten (10) Business Days after the date of a distribution on an Allowed Claim, all distributions payable on account of such Claim that are undeliverable or otherwise unclaimed shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and shall automatically, without need for need for any further action by or approval of any Person, including, without limitation, the Bankruptcy Court, revert to the Reorganized Debtors or their successors or assigns, and all Claims of any other person (including the Holder of a Claim in the same Class) to such distribution shall be discharged and forever barred. The Reorganized Debtors and the Distribution Agent shall have no obligation to attempt to locate any Holder of an Allowed Claim other than by reviewing the Debtors' books and records and the Bankruptcy Court's Filings.

6.14. Time Bar to Cash Payments.

Checks issued by the Distribution Agent in respect of Allowed Claims shall be null and void if not negotiated within ninety (90) days after the date of issuance thereof. Thereafter, the amount represented by such voided check shall irrevocably revert to the Reorganized Debtors, and any Claim in respect of such voided check shall be discharged and forever barred, notwithstanding any federal or state escheat laws to the contrary. Requests for reissuance of any check shall be made to the applicable Distribution Agent by the Holder of the Allowed Claim to whom such check was originally issued, prior to the expiration of the ninety (90) day period.

6.15. Manner of Payment under Plan.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Plan, at the option of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, any Cash payment to be made hereunder may be made by a check or wire transfer or as otherwise required or provided in applicable agreements or customary practices of the Debtors.

6.16. Satisfaction of Claims.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Plan, any distributions and deliveries to be made on account of Allowed Claims under this Plan shall be in complete and final satisfaction, release, settlement, and discharge of and exchange for such Allowed Claims.

6.17. Fractional Interests.

No fractional shares of New Common Interests shall be distributed. If any distributions of New Common Interests pursuant to this Plan would result in the issuance of a fractional share of New Common Interests, then the number of shares of New Common Interests to be issued in respect of such distribution will be calculated to one decimal place and rounded up or down to the closest whole share (with a half share or greater rounded up and less than a half share rounded down). The total number of shares of New Common Interests to be distributed in connection with this Plan shall be adjusted as necessary to account for the rounding provided for in this Article VI, Section 6.15. No consideration shall be provided in lieu of fractional shares that are rounded down. Neither the Reorganized Debtors nor the Distribution Agent shall have any obligation to make a distribution that is less than one (1) share of New Common Interests. Fractional shares of New Common Interests that are not distributed in accordance with this section shall be returned to, and the ownership thereof shall vest in, the Reorganized Debtors.

6.18. Minimum Cash Distributions.

The Distribution Agent shall not be required to make any distribution of Cash less than one hundred dollars ($100) to any Holder of an Allowed Claim; provided, that if any distribution is not made pursuant to this Article VI, Section 6.18, such distribution shall be added to any subsequent distribution to be made on behalf of the Holder's Allowed Claim.

6.19. Setoffs.

(a) The Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors, or such Entity's designee as instructed by such Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, may, but shall not be required to, set off or recoup against any Claim, and any distribution to be made pursuant to this Plan on account of such Claim, any and all Claims, rights, and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever that the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors or their successors may have against the Holder of such Claim pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law; provided, that neither the failure to do so nor the allowance of any Claim hereunder shall constitute a waiver or release by a Debtor or a Reorganized Debtor or its successor of any claims, rights, or Causes of Action that a Debtor or Reorganized Debtor or its successor or assign may possess against the Holder of such Claim.

(b) In no event shall any Holder of Claims be entitled to set off any such Claim against any claim, right, or Cause of Action of the Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, unless (i) the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, have consented or (ii) such Holder has Filed a motion with the Bankruptcy Court requesting the authority to perform such setoff on or before the Confirmation Date, and notwithstanding any indication in any Proof of Claim or otherwise that such Holder asserts, has, or intends to preserve any right of setoff pursuant to section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this paragraph does not create any new rights to setoff or recoupment that did not exist under any applicable law or agreement in existence prior to the Effective Date.

6.20. Allocation of Distributions Between Principal and Interest.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 4.3(c) of this Plan and subject to Article VI, Section 6.10 herein or as otherwise required by law (as reasonably determined by the Reorganized Debtors), distributions with respect to an Allowed Claim shall be allocated first to the principal portion of such Allowed Claim (as determined for United States federal income tax purposes) and, thereafter, to the remaining portion of such Allowed Claim, if any.

6.21. No Distribution in Excess of Amount of Allowed Claim.

Notwithstanding anything in this Plan to the contrary, no Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive, on account of such Allowed Claim, distributions in excess of the Allowed amount of such Claim.

6.22. Compliance with Tax Requirements.

(a) In connection with this Plan and all distributions hereunder, the Reorganized Debtors or other applicable Distribution Agent shall comply with all applicable withholding and reporting requirements imposed by any Governmental Unit, and all distributions hereunder and all related agreements shall be subject to any such withholding and reporting requirements. The Reorganized Debtors or other applicable Distribution Agent shall have the right, but not the obligation, to take any and all actions that may be necessary or appropriate to comply with such applicable withholding and reporting requirements, including (i) withholding distributions and amounts therefrom pending receipt of information necessary to facilitate such distributions, including properly executed withholding certification forms, and (ii) in the case of a non-Cash distribution that is subject to withholding, withholding an appropriate portion of such property and either liquidating such withheld property to generate sufficient funds to pay applicable withholding taxes (or reimburse the distributing party for any advance payment of the withholding tax) or pay the withholding tax using its own funds and retain such withheld property. Notwithstanding any provision in this Plan to the contrary, all Persons holding Claims or Interests shall be required to provide any information necessary to effect information reporting and the withholding of any taxes (or establish eligibility for an exclusion therefrom), and each Holder of an Allowed Claim or an Allowed Interest will have the sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment of any tax obligations imposed by any Governmental Unit, including income, withholding, and other tax obligations, on account of such distribution. Any amounts withheld or reallocated pursuant to this Article VI, Section 6.22 shall be treated as if distributed to the Holder of the Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest.

(b) Any Person or Entity entitled to receive any property as an issuance, distribution or otherwise under this Plan shall, upon request, deliver to the applicable Reorganized Debtor or other applicable Distribution Agent, or such other Person designated by the Reorganized Debtor or the Distribution Agent, an IRS Form W-9 or, if the payee is a foreign Person or Entity, the applicable version of IRS Form W-8, or any other forms or documents reasonably requested by a Reorganized Debtor or Distribution Agent to reduce or eliminate any withholding required by any applicable Governmental Unit.

ARTICLE VII.

PROCEDURES FOR RESOLVING DISPUTED CLAIMS

7.1. Allowance and Disallowance of Claims.

(a) After the Effective Date, and except as otherwise provided in this Plan, the Reorganized Debtors shall have and shall retain any and all available rights and defenses that the Debtors had with respect to any Claim immediately before the Effective Date, including the right to assert any objection to Claims based on the limitations imposed by section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors may, but are not required to, contest the amount and validity of any Disputed Claim or contingent or unliquidated Claim in the ordinary course of business in the manner and venue in which such Claim would have been determined, resolved or adjudicated if the Chapter 11 Cases had not been commenced.

(b) All Claims and Interests of any Entity from which property is sought by the Debtors under sections 542, 543, 550, or 553 of the Bankruptcy Code or that the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors allege is a transferee of a transfer that is avoidable under sections 522(f), 522(h), 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, or 724(a) of the Bankruptcy Code shall be disallowed if: (i) the Entity, on the one hand, and the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, on the other hand, agree or the Bankruptcy Court has determined by Final Order that such Entity or transferee is liable to turn over any property or monies under any of the aforementioned sections of the Bankruptcy Code; and (ii) such Entity or transferee has failed to turn over such property by the date set forth in such agreement or Final Order.

7.2. Claims Administration Responsibilities.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Plan, after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall have the authority: (i) to File, withdraw, or litigate to judgment, objections to Claims or Interests; (ii) to settle or compromise any Disputed Claim or Interest without any further notice to or action, order, or approval by the Bankruptcy Court; and (iii) to administer and adjust the Claims Register to reflect any such settlements or compromises without any further notice to or action, order, or approval by the Bankruptcy Court. For the avoidance of doubt, except as otherwise provided herein, from and after the Effective Date, each Reorganized Debtor shall have and retain any and all rights and defenses such Debtor had immediately before the Effective Date with respect to any Disputed Claim or Interest, including the Causes of Action retained pursuant to this Plan.

7.3. Adjustment to Claims or Interests Without Objection.

Any duplicate Claim or Interest or any Claim or Interest that has been paid, satisfied, amended, or superseded may be adjusted or expunged on the claims register by the Reorganized Debtors without the Reorganized Debtors having to File an application, motion, complaint, objection, or any other legal proceeding seeking to object to such Claim or Interest and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

7.4. No Distributions Pending Allowance.

If any portion of a Claim is Disputed, no payment or distribution provided hereunder may be made on account of such Claim unless and until such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim; provided that if only a portion of a Claim is Disputed, such Claim may be deemed Allowed in the amount not Disputed and payment or distribution shall be made on account of such undisputed amount.

7.5. Distributions After Allowance.

To the extent that a Disputed Claim ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, distributions (if any) shall be made to the Holder of such Allowed Claim in accordance with the provisions of this Plan. As soon as reasonably practicable after the date that the order or judgment of the Bankruptcy Court allowing any Disputed Claim becomes a Final Order, the Reorganized Debtors shall provide to the Holder of such Claim the distribution (if any) to which such Holder is entitled under this Plan as of the Effective Date, without any postpetition interest to be paid on account of such Claim.

7.6. Claim Resolution Procedures Cumulative.

All of the Claims, objection, estimation, and resolution procedures in this Plan are intended to be cumulative and not exclusive of one another. Claims may be estimated and subsequently settled, compromised, withdrawn, or resolved in accordance with this Plan without further notice or Bankruptcy Court approval.

ARTICLE VIII.

TREATMENT OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES.

8.1. Assumption or Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

(a) On the Effective Date, all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases of the Debtors, including, but not limited to, employee contracts and offer letters (other than any individual employee contract or offer letter for which the parties separately agree to different treatment), which have not expired by their own terms on or prior to the Confirmation Date, shall be deemed assumed by the Debtors in accordance with, and subject to, the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, except for those Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases that, in each case:

(i) have been assumed, assumed and assigned, or rejected by the Debtors by prior order of the Bankruptcy Court;

(ii) are the subject of a motion to reject Filed by the Debtors pending on the Effective Date;

(iii) are identified as rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases by the Debtors on the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases to be Filed in the Plan Supplement, which may be amended by the Debtors up to and through the Effective Date to add or remove Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases by Filing with the Bankruptcy Court a subsequent Plan Supplement and serving it on the affected non-Debtor contract parties;

(iv) are rejected or terminated pursuant to the terms of this Plan; or

(v) are the subject of a pending Cure Dispute.

(b) Without amending or altering any prior order of the Bankruptcy Court approving the assumption or rejection of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, the Confirmation Order shall constitute an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving such assumptions, assumptions and assignments, and the rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases set forth in the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases provided for in this Plan pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code as of the Effective Date.

(c) To the extent any provision in any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease assumed or assumed and assigned (as applicable) pursuant to this Plan or any prior order of the Bankruptcy Court (including, without limitation, any "change in control" provision, "change of control" provision, or provision with words of similar import) prohibits, restricts or conditions, or purports to prohibit, restrict or condition, or is modified, breached or terminated, or deemed modified, breached or terminated by, (i) the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases or the insolvency or financial condition of any Debtor at any time before the closing of its respective Chapter 11 Case, (ii) any Debtor's or any Reorganized Debtor's assumption or assumption and assignment (as applicable) of such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or (iii) the Confirmation or consummation of this Plan, then such provision shall be deemed modified such that the transactions contemplated by this Plan shall not entitle the non-Debtor party thereto to modify or terminate such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or to exercise any other default-related rights or remedies with respect thereto, and any required consent under any such contract or lease shall be deemed satisfied by the Confirmation of this Plan.

(d) Each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease assumed and/or assigned pursuant to this Plan shall revest in and be fully enforceable by the applicable Reorganized Debtor or the applicable assignee in accordance with its terms and conditions, except as modified by the provisions of this Plan, any order of the Bankruptcy Court approving its assumption and/or assignment, or applicable law.

(e) The Debtors reserve the right, on or before the Effective Date, to amend the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and/or to add or remove any Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease; provided, the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, may (with the prior written consent of the Required Consenting First Lien Lenders) amend the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases to add or delete any Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases after such date to the extent agreed to by the relevant counterparties or approved by an order of the Bankruptcy Court.

(f) The inclusion or exclusion of a contract or lease on any schedule or exhibit shall not constitute an admission by any Debtor that such contract or lease is an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or that any Debtor has any liability thereunder.

8.2. Payments Related to Assumption of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases. Any monetary defaults under each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease to be assumed or assumed and assigned pursuant to this Plan shall be satisfied, pursuant to section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, by payment of the amount of the Cure Claim in Cash on the Effective Date or on such other terms as the parties to such Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases may otherwise agree. In the event of a dispute regarding: (a) the amount of any Cure Claim; (b) the ability of the Reorganized Debtors to provide "adequate assurance of future performance" (within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code), if applicable, under the Executory Contract or the Unexpired Lease to be assumed; or (c) any other matter pertaining to assumption, the Cure Claims shall be paid following the entry of a Final Order resolving the dispute and approving the assumption of such Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases; provided, that the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, may settle any dispute regarding the amount of any Cure Claim without any further notice to or action, order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

8.3. Claims on Account of the Rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases.

(a) All Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to this Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within twenty-one (21) days after service of an order of the Bankruptcy Court (including the Confirmation Order) approving such rejection. Any Claim arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases that becomes an Allowed Claim is classified and shall be treated as a General Unsecured Claim.

(b) Any Person or Entity that is required to File a Proof of Claim arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or an Unexpired Lease that fails to timely do so shall be forever barred, estopped and enjoined from asserting such Claim, and such Claim shall not be enforceable, against the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors or the Estates, and the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors and their Estates and their respective Assets and property shall be forever discharged from any and all indebtedness and liability with respect to such Claim unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court or as otherwise provided herein. All such Claims shall, as of the Effective Date, be subject to the permanent injunction set forth in Article X, Section 10.5 hereof.

8.4. Survival of the Debtors' Indemnification Obligations.

Except as otherwise provided in this Plan or the Confirmation Order, and subject to the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Indemnification Obligations shall not be discharged, impaired, or otherwise affected by this Plan; provided, that the Debtors or the applicable Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall not indemnify any such officers, directors, agents, or employees of the Debtors for any Claims or Causes of Action arising out of or relating to any act or omission for which indemnification is barred under applicable law or that is excluded under the terms of the foregoing organizational documents or applicable agreements governing the Debtors' Indemnification Obligations. Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, all such Indemnification Obligations shall be deemed and treated as Executory Contracts that are assumed by the Debtors under this Plan. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Section 8.4 of this Plan or elsewhere, the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall not be obligated to indemnify and hold harmless any Entity for any claim, cause of action, liability, judgment, settlement, cost or expense of the Non-Released Parties (as defined in the Plan Supplement).

8.5. Employee Plans.

(a) All Employee Plans that exist as of the Petition Date shall be assumed on the Effective Date as Executory Contracts pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code. For the avoidance of doubt, the assumption of any Employee Plans shall not trigger any applicable change of control, immediate vesting, termination, or similar provisions therein, including any right to severance pay in connection with a change in control. For the avoidance of doubt, unless expressly agreed to in writing between the Debtors and the Required Consenting First Lien Lenders (except as provided in the Restructuring Support Agreement) if an Employee Plan provides in part for an award or potential award of Interests or consideration based on the value of Interests that have not vested into Existing Parent Equity Interests as of the Petition Date, such Employee Plan shall be assumed in all respects other than the provisions of such agreement relating to Interest awards, which interest awards shall be canceled and discharged.

(b) As of the Effective Date, the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors shall continue to honor their obligations under all applicable workers' compensation programs and in accordance with all applicable workers' compensation Laws in states in which the Reorganized Debtors operate. Any Claims arising under workers' compensation programs shall be deemed withdrawn once satisfied without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court; provided, that nothing in this Plan shall limit, diminish, or otherwise alter the Debtors' or Reorganized Debtors' defenses, Causes of Action, or other rights under applicable law, including non-bankruptcy Law, with respect to any such workers' compensation programs; provided further, that nothing herein shall be deemed to impose any obligations on the Debtors in addition to what is provided for under applicable state Law.

8.6. Insurance Policies.

(a) All insurance policies to which any Debtor is a party as of the Effective Date, including any D&O Policy, shall be deemed to be and treated as Executory Contracts and shall be assumed by the applicable Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors and shall continue in full force and effect thereafter in accordance with their respective terms and shall survive unimpaired under this Plan, and all such insurance policies shall vest in the Reorganized Debtors. Coverage for defense and indemnity under the D&O Policies shall remain available to all individuals within the definition of "Insured" in any D&O Policy.

(b) In addition, after the Effective Date, all officers, directors, agents, or employees who served in such capacity at any time before the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits of any D&O Policy (including any "tail" policy) for the full term of such policy regardless of whether such officers, directors, agents, and/or employees remain in such positions after the Effective Date, in each case, to the extent set forth in such policies and on terms no less favorable than the Debtors' existing policies.

(c) In addition, after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Policy (including any "tail policy") in effect as of the Petition Date, and any current and former directors, officers, members, managers, agents or employees of any of the Debtors who served in such capacity at any time prior to the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such D&O Policy for the full term of such policy regardless of whether such members, managers, directors, and/or officers remain in such positions after the Effective Date to the extent set forth in such policies.

(d) In the event that the Debtors determine that an Allowed Claim is covered in full or in part under one of the Debtors' insurance policies, no distributions under this Plan shall be made on account of such Allowed Claim unless and until, and solely to the extent that, (i) the Holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy, and (ii) an insurer authorized to issue a coverage position under such insurance policy, or the agent of such insurer, issues a formal determination, which the Debtors in their sole discretion do not contest, that coverage under such insurance policy is excluded or otherwise unavailable for losses arising from such Allowed Claim. Any proceeds available pursuant to one of the Debtors' insurance policies shall reduce the Allowed amount of a Claim on a dollar-for-dollar basis. To the extent that one or more of the Debtors' insurers agrees to satisfy a Claim in full or in part (if and to the extent adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction), then immediately upon such insurers' agreement, the applicable portion of such Claim may be expunged without a Claim objection having to be Filed and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. If an applicable insurance policy has a SIR, the Holder of an Insured Claim shall have an Allowed General Unsecured Claim or a Subordinated Claim, as applicable, solely up to the amount of the SIR that may be established upon the liquidation of the Insured Claim. Such SIR shall be considered satisfied pursuant to this Plan through allowance of the General Unsecured Claim or Subordinated Claim, as applicable, solely in the amount of the applicable SIR, if any; provided, that nothing herein obligates the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors to otherwise satisfy any SIR under any insurance policy. Any recovery on account of the Insured Claim in excess of the SIR established upon the liquidation of the Claim shall be recovered solely from the Debtors' insurance coverage, if any, and only to the extent of available insurance coverage and any proceeds thereof. Nothing in this Plan shall be construed to limit, extinguish, or diminish the insurance coverage that may exist or shall be construed as a finding that liquidated any Claim payable pursuant to an insurance policy.

8.7. Assignment.

To the extent provided under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law, any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease assumed and assigned, or otherwise transferred, hereunder shall remain in full force and effect for the benefit of the transferee or assignee in accordance with its terms, notwithstanding any provision in such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease (including those of the type set forth in section 365(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code) that prohibits, restricts, or conditions such transfer or assignment. To the extent provided under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law, any provision that prohibits, restricts, or conditions the assignment or transfer of any such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or that terminates or modifies such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or allows the counterparty to such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to terminate, modify, recapture, impose any penalty, condition renewal or extension, or modify any term or condition upon any such transfer and assignment, constitutes an unenforceable anti-assignment provision and is void and of no force or effect.

8.8. Modifications, Amendments, Supplements, Restatements, or Other Agreements.

Unless otherwise provided herein or by separate order of the Bankruptcy Court, each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease that is assumed shall include any and all modifications, amendments, supplements, restatements, or other agreements made directly or indirectly by any agreement, instrument, or other document that in any manner affects such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

8.9. Reservation of Rights.

(a) Neither the exclusion nor inclusion of any contract or lease by the Debtors on any exhibit, schedule, or other annex to this Plan or in the Plan Supplement, nor anything contained in this Plan, will constitute an admission by the Debtors that any such contract or lease is or is not in fact an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or that the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors or their respective Affiliates has any liability thereunder.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, nothing in this Plan will waive, excuse, limit, diminish, or otherwise alter any of the defenses, claims, Causes of Action, or other rights of the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors under any executory or non-Executory Contract or any Unexpired Lease or expired lease.

(c) Nothing in this Plan will increase, augment, or add to any of the duties, obligations, responsibilities, or liabilities of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors under any executory or non-Executory Contract or any Unexpired Lease or expired lease.

(d) If there is a dispute regarding a Cure Claim or whether a contract or lease is or was executory or unexpired at the time of assumption or rejection under this Plan, the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall have sixty (60) days following entry of a Final Order resolving such dispute to alter their treatment of such contract or lease by Filing a notice indicating such altered treatment.

ARTICLE IX.

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO CONSUMMATION OF THIS PLAN.

9.1. Conditions Precedent to the Effective Date.

(a) The effectiveness of this Plan will be subject to the satisfaction or waiver in writing of customary conditions to effectiveness, as well as such other conditions as may be agreed by the Debtors and the Required Consenting Creditors, including the conditions precedent to effectiveness set forth in Article IX (as applicable, collectively, the "Conditions Precedent").

(b) The following are Conditions Precedent to the Effective Date of this Plan; provided, that each condition precedent may be waived by the Debtors with the consent of the Required Consenting Creditors, in each case, with such consent rights being exercised in accordance with the Restructuring Support Agreement:

(iv) The Exit Facilities Documents shall have been entered into by the Reorganized Debtors, and all conditions precedent to the effectiveness of the Exit Facilities Documents, other than the occurrence of the Effective Date, shall have been satisfied or waived in accordance with the terms thereof, such that the Exit Facilities Documents will be in full force and effect on the occurrence of the Effective Date;

(v) All Restructuring Expenses shall have been paid in full in Cash in accordance with the terms of this Plan and the Restructuring Support Agreement;

(vi) The Definitive Documents (a) shall be consistent with the Restructuring Term Sheet and the Restructuring Support Agreement and otherwise approved by the applicable parties thereto consistent with their respective consent and approval rights as set forth in the Restructuring Support Agreement, (b) shall have been executed or deemed executed and delivered by each party thereto, and any conditions precedent related thereto shall have been satisfied or waived by the applicable party thereto, and (c) to the extent applicable, shall be adopted by the applicable Entity on terms consistent with the Restructuring Support Agreement and the Restructuring Term Sheet;

(vii) All governmental and third-party approvals and consents necessary, if any, in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Restructuring Term Sheet and the Restructuring Support Agreement shall have been obtained, not subject to unfulfilled conditions, and be in full force and effect, and all applicable waiting periods shall have expired without action being taken or threatened by any competent authority that would restrain, prevent or otherwise impose materially adverse conditions on such transactions;

(viii) The Debtors shall have implemented the Restructuring Transactions and all transactions contemplated by this Plan; and

(ix) The Professional Fee Escrow shall have been established and funded in full in Cash.

9.2. Timing of Conditions Precedent.

All injunctions or stays provided for in the Chapter 11 Cases under Sections 105 or 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise, and in existence on the Confirmation Date, shall remain in full force and effect until the Effective Date.

No Person may commence or pursue a Claim or Cause of Action, as applicable, of any kind against the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Exculpated Parties, or the Released Parties, as applicable, that relates to or is reasonably likely to relate to any act or omission in connection with, relating to, or arising out of a Claim or Cause of Action, as applicable, subject to Article IX hereof, without the Bankruptcy Court (a) first determining, after notice and a hearing, that such Claim or Cause of Action, as applicable, represents a colorable Claim of any kind, and (b) specifically authorizing such Person to bring such Claim or Cause of Action, as applicable, against any such Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, Exculpated Party, or Released Party, as applicable; provided, that the foregoing shall only apply to Claims or Causes of Action brought against a Released Party if such Person bringing such Claim or Cause of Action is a Releasing Party. For the avoidance of doubt, any party that obtains such determination and authorization and subsequently wishes to amend the authorized complaint or petition to add any Claims or Causes of Action not explicitly included in the authorized complaint or petition must obtain authorization from the Bankruptcy Court before filing any such amendment in the court where such complaint or petition is pending. The Bankruptcy Court reserves jurisdiction to adjudicate any such claims to the maximum extent provided by the law.

In addition, after the Confirmation Date, so long as such action does not materially and adversely affect the treatment of Holders of Allowed Claims or Interests pursuant to this Plan, subject to the consent rights set forth in the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Debtors may remedy any defect or omission or reconcile any inconsistencies in this Plan or the Confirmation Order with respect to such matters as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of effects of this Plan, and any Holder of a Claim or Interest that has accepted this Plan shall be deemed to have accepted this Plan as amended, modified, or supplemented.

(b) Other Amendments. Subject to the consent rights set forth in the Restructuring Support Agreement, before the Effective Date, the Debtors may make technical adjustments and modifications to this Plan and the documents contained in the Plan Supplement without further order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

12.7. Effectuating Documents and Further Transactions.

Each of the officers of the Reorganized Debtors is authorized, in accordance with his or her authority under the resolutions of the applicable board of directors or managers, to execute, deliver, File, or record such contracts, instruments, releases, indentures, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate and further evidence the terms and conditions of this Plan.

The Debtors reserve the right to revoke or withdraw this Plan prior to the Effective Date as to any or all of the Debtors with the consent of the Required Consenting First Lien Lenders (except as provided in the Restructuring Support Agreement); provided, that the Debtors may revoke or withdraw this Plan without such consent in the exercise of the Debtors' fiduciary duty or as otherwise permitted under the Restructuring Support Agreement. If, with respect to a Debtor, this Plan has been revoked or withdrawn prior to the Effective Date, or if Confirmation or the occurrence of the Effective Date as to such Debtor does not occur on the Effective Date, then, with respect to such Debtor: (a) this Plan shall be null and void in all respects; (b) any settlement or compromise embodied in this Plan (including the fixing or limiting to an amount any Claim or Interest or Class of Claims or Interests), assumption of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases affected by this Plan, and any document or agreement executed pursuant to this Plan shall be deemed null and void; and (c) nothing contained in this Plan shall (i) constitute a waiver or release of any Claim by or against, or any Interest in, such Debtor or any other Entity; (ii) prejudice in any manner the rights of such Debtor or any other Entity; or (iii) constitute an admission of any sort by any Debtor, any of the Consenting Creditors, or any other Entity.

12.9. Severability of Plan Provisions.

If, before the entry of the Confirmation Order, any term or provision of this Plan is held by the Bankruptcy Court to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, the Bankruptcy Court, at the request of the Debtors and with the consent of the Required Consenting First Lien Lenders (except as provided in the Restructuring Support Agreement), shall have the power to alter and interpret such term or provision to make it valid or enforceable to the maximum extent practicable, consistent with the original purpose of the term or provision held to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, and such term or provision shall then be applicable as altered or interpreted; provided that any such alteration or interpretation shall be consistent with the Restructuring Support Agreement and the remainder of the terms and provisions of this Plan will remain in full force and effect and will in no way be affected, impaired, or invalidated by such holding, alteration, or interpretation. The Confirmation Order shall constitute a judicial determination and shall provide that each term and provision of this Plan, as it may have been altered or interpreted in accordance with the foregoing, is (a) valid and enforceable pursuant to its terms, (b) integral to this Plan and may not be deleted or modified without the consent of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors (as the case may be), and (c) non-severable and mutually dependent.

12.10. Governing Law.

Except to the extent that the Bankruptcy Code or other federal law is applicable, or to the extent an exhibit hereto or a Definitive Document provides otherwise, the rights, duties, and obligations arising under this Plan shall be governed by, and construed and enforced in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to the principles of conflict of laws thereof.

12.11. Time.

In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by this Plan, unless otherwise set forth herein or determined by the Bankruptcy Court, the provisions of Bankruptcy Rule 9006 shall apply.

12.12. Dates of Actions to Implement this Plan.

described in this Plan, and any and all non-Debtor parties to Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases with the Debtors. All Claims shall be as fixed, adjusted, or compromised, as applicable, pursuant to this Plan regardless of whether any Holder of a Claim, Interest, or debt has voted on this Plan.

12.14. Deemed Acts.

Subject to and conditioned on the occurrence of the Effective Date, whenever an act or event is expressed under this Plan to have been deemed done or to have occurred, it shall be deemed to have been done or to have occurred without any further act by any party, by virtue of this Plan and the Confirmation Order.

The rights, benefits, and obligations of any Entity named or referred to in this Plan shall be binding on, and shall inure to the benefit of any heir, executor, administrator, successor, or permitted assign, if any, of each Entity.

12.16. Entire Agreement.

On the Effective Date, this Plan, the Plan Supplement, and the Confirmation Order shall supersede all previous and contemporaneous negotiations, promises, covenants, agreements, understandings, and representations on such subjects, all of which have become merged and integrated into this Plan.

In accordance with the Order Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses for Professionals ("Compensation Procedures Order") [Docket No. 500], each Notice Party (as defined therein) receiving notice of the Monthly Statement will have until 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Central Time) 14 days after the filing of the Monthly Statement to object to the requested fees and expenses. Upon the expiration of such 14-day period, the Debtors are authorized to pay White & Case an amount of 80% of the fees and 100% of the expenses requested in the applicable Monthly Statement that are not objected to.

White & Case LLP ("White & Case"), counsel for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases, hereby files this monthly statement (this "Monthly Statement") for the period from December 1, 2025 to and including December 29, 2025 (the "Fee Period") requesting an aggregate amount of $2,639,311.31 for the Fee Period representing (a) interim allowance and payment of compensation for professional services to the Committee in the amount of $2,491,640.00, representing 80% of the $3,114,550.00 of fees earned by White & Case for professional services to the Committee during the Fee Period, and (b) reimbursement of 100% of the actual and necessary expenses incurred by White & Case during the Fee Period in connection with such services in the amount of $147,671.31. Prior to filing this Monthly Statement, White & Case voluntarily elected to reduce its fees by 218.5 hours (~9.1%) and $289,172.00 (~8.5%) and its expenses by $4,065.86 (~2.7%), which White & Case will not hereafter seek payment.[4]

2. White & Case attorneys and paraprofessionals expended a total of 2,192.3 hours in connection with the chapter 11 cases during the Fee Period. All services rendered by White & Case for which compensation is sought pursuant to this Monthly Statement were rendered solely to or on behalf of the Committee. No payments were received by White & Case from any source other than the Debtors for services rendered or to be rendered in connection with the chapter 11 cases.

3. Pursuant to the Compensation Procedures Order, any party objecting to this Monthly Statement shall serve via email to White & Case and each of the Notice Parties (defined in the Compensation Procedures Order) a written objection identifying with specificity the objectionable fees or expenses, including the amount of such objected-to fees or expenses, and the basis for such objection (the "Objection") on or before the objection deadline.

4. Upon expiration of the objection deadline, the Debtors are authorized to pay White & Case an amount equal to 80% of the fees and 100% of the expenses requested in this Monthly Statement that are not subject to an objection. If an Objection is timely served pursuant to the Compensation Procedures Order, the objecting party and White & Case shall attempt to resolve the objection on a consensual basis. If the parties reach an agreement, the Debtors shall promptly pay White & Case an amount equal to 80% of the agreed-upon fees and 100% of the agreed-upon expenses. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement, then resolution will be governed as set forth in the Compensation Procedures Order.

5. Although White & Case has made every effort to include all fees earned and expenses incurred during the Fee Period, some fees and expenses might not be included in this Monthly Statement due to delays caused by accounting and processing during the Fee Period. White & Case reserves the right to make further statements or applications to this Court for allowance of such fees and expenses not included herein, which further statement will be filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Bankruptcy Local Rules, and the Compensation Procedures Order.

Summary of Services Rendered During the Final Period

19. During the Final Period, AlixPartners advised the Committee and supported White & Case in analyzing numerous issues critical to unsecured creditors' interests. Due to the Committee's efforts with assistance from AlixPartners, the unsecured creditors were able to obtain a more favorable recovery than the Debtors initial filed Plan. After numerous meetings and diligence sessions with the Debtors' advisors and various Committee filings with the Court, the Debtors ultimately filed an amended Plan that increased recoveries for general unsecured creditors by allowing them to share in the reorganized equity and participate in the warrants package or select a cash out option.

20. AlixPartners also developed an independent view of the Debtors' business plan and valuation. This included numerous due diligence sessions with management and Debtor advisors, review of various Debtor produced business plan documents, development of supporting analyses and review of data room documents. Ultimately AlixPartners produced expert reports related to its analysis of the Debtors' business plan and valuation and provided related testimony at the confirmation hearing. The expert business plan report provided an objective third party view of the Debtors' proposed business plan and identified key initiatives that would result in EBITDA enhancements. During the DIP hearing, AlixPartners presented analysis and testimony that ultimately served as the basis for changes in the DIP financing order beneficial to unsecured creditors. In sum, AlixPartners played a critical role to represent unsecured creditors interests, increased recoveries under the Plan and provided a check on the Debtors' actions throughout the case.

8. On December 15, 2025, (the "Confirmation Date"), the Court entered an order [Docket No. 1055] (the "Confirmation Order") confirming the Plan.

9. On December 29, 2025, the effective date (the "Effective Date") of the Plan occurred. The Plan requires all professionals, including White & Case, to file final applications for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses through the Effective Date no later than forty-five (45) days after the Effective Date. Professionals' fees and expenses of the Committee (and other parties) incurred after the Confirmation Date are subject to the reimbursement provisions of the Plan.

CASE SUMMARY[5]

19. The Debtors' chapter 11 cases presented complex issues on a very short timeline requiring, among other things, a thorough investigation of a liability management exercise consummated only five months prior to the Petition Date and an assessment of the Debtors' untested plan valuation, which initially would have left unsecured creditors entirely out of the money.[6] The Committee's advisors determined that the Debtors' valuation was particularly "cuspy"—meaning that either a successful challenge to the secured creditors' claims or minor adjustments to the Debtors' valuation would put the unsecured creditors' class in the money.

20. At the outset of these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors (based on the milestones set by the Consenting Creditors[7] under a proposed plan that would not provide any recovery for unsecured creditors) sought to confirm a plan and exit chapter 11 within ninety days after the Petition Date and only sixty-nine days after White & Case's retention as Committee counsel. Once retained, White & Case immediately began working to: (i) evaluate the Debtors' first day motions,

5 An extensive description of these Chapter 11 Cases is contained within the disclosure statement.

6 The Debtors' initial plan only provided the general unsecured creditor class with a pro rata share of the right (if qualified) to purchase up to $200 million of new common interests pursuant to an equity rights offering. See Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of ModivCare Inc. And Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 119] (as later amended, the "Plan").

7 "Consenting Creditors" refers to the Debtors' prepetition secured creditors represented by Paul Hastings LLP set forth on Exhibit A to the Verified Statement Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2019 [Docket No. 791] including the proposed DIP Facility (as defined below), the Plan, and the Disclosure Statement;[8] (ii) assess the Debtors' proposed valuation, which was not market tested or then-supported by expert work product and was much lower than the valuation for their liability management transaction consummated just six months prior to the Petition Date; and (iii) investigate the prepetition secured creditors' lien package and prepetition transactions, including the recently consummated uptier notes exchange, which came at the expense of the recoveries of a substantial portion of the unsecured creditors in these cases.

21. This was not a small task. For instance, the DIP Facility included a significant backstop fee in the form of twenty percent (20%) of the post-reorganization equity that had already been approved by the Bankruptcy Court at the first day hearing, and the value of which had not yet been determined. The Committee's position was that this provision (along with several other provisions discussed below) created a further risk of depleting value that would otherwise be available to unsecured creditors. In addition, assessing the Debtors' proposed Plan valuation—which was not yet in process as of the Petition Date—required the application of two distinct types of expertise: (i) an evaluation of the Debtors' business plan on a granular, segment-by-segment basis; and (ii) a determination and application of the appropriate valuation methodology.

22. White & Case also conducted a thorough assessment of the Debtors' potential settlement with UnitedHealthcare Insurance Company ("UHC"). The Committee determined it was prudent to evaluate the terms of the UHC Settlement (as defined below) because, among other things, the termination of the UHC relationship would have a direct impact on stakeholder recoveries. The Committee conducted required diligence in keeping with its statutory duties. As further discussed below, the Debtors' relationship with UHC was also a key workstream leading up to the confirmation hearing, in part because the Debtors did not disclose whether UHC had found replacement parties for their key contracts until after the confirmation hearing had begun.[9]

23. White & Case also investigated potential claims and causes of action related to the Debtor's prepetition transactions. Investigating the prepetition liability management transaction required extensive review of the Debtors' financial condition at various points in time, scrutiny of applicable market factors and the participants' incentives, a valuation of consideration exchanged, and analysis of the legal principles applicable to certain potential claims arising from the transaction. The Committee served targeted discovery relating to these issues. The Debtors' independent director (the "Independent Director") and his counsel, Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, LLP ("Quinn"), tasked with a similar investigation mandate (but on behalf of a different constituency), also served document requests, conducted numerous interviews, reviewed all of the documents produced in responsive to the Committee's requests, and attended the depositions noticed by the Committee regarding the transactions and conduct at issue.

24. White & Case did not represent the members of the Committee in their individual capacity. But the firm was nevertheless forced to address the repercussions for the Committee of unreasonable discovery served on two Committee members by the Debtors and the Consenting Creditors.

25. In just over three months, White & Case reviewed more than 30,000 documents, conducted 14 depositions of representatives for the Debtors (including certain current and former directors and officers) and Consenting Creditors, and held three interviews with the Debtors' management team. White & Case (and the other Committee professionals) worked around the clock to satisfy the Committee's statutory duty to protect the interests of unsecured creditors on the expedited timeline sought by the Debtors. This was necessary to ensure that unsecured creditors' interests were adequately represented. While Plan recoveries initially provided for no recovery to general unsecured creditors, as a result of the Committee's work, the Plan ultimately provided for a distribution to general unsecured creditors of their pro rata share of (i) 2% of the Debtors' new common interests (subject to dilution), new warrants, participation rights in an equity rights offering for eligible holders or (ii) a "cash-out" option for holders of claims less than $1,000,000 for a pro rata share of a pool of cash up to $32 million.

A. Committee Professionals Have Satisfied Their Burden Under Section 330

26. The professional seeking compensation under section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code bears the burden to establish a case in support of the fee award. 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3). A professional can satisfy its burden by submitting fee applications with sufficient information for the court to make a determination as to reasonableness. See In re El Paso Refinery, L.P., 257 B.R. 809, 841 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. 2000) ("Normally, the fee application itself sets out evidence sufficient for a prima facie case that the final fee award sought to be approved is both reasonable and necessary within the meaning of the statute."). Once the applicant establishes a prima facie case that its fees are reasonable, any objecting party has the burden of demonstrating that specific fee requests are unreasonable. Castorena v. Mendoza, 2011 WL 13315708, at *5 (S.D. Tex. Mar. 14, 2011) ("Generalized statements that time spent was unreasonable or unnecessary are not particularly helpful and not entitled to much weight.") (internal quotations omitted). Courts in this District have previously recognized that vague objections to reasonableness do not satisfy this burden. See, e.g., In re MLCJR, LLC, Case No. 23-90324 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Sept. 25, 2024), Hr'g Tr. at 7:22-8:4 (noting that "[a] general complaint that too much time was spent . . . or a fee was too high, or creditors did not substantially recover . . . may not be enough to substantiate an objection").

27. White & Case has satisfied its burden to demonstrate that its fees are reasonable. As further evidenced in the fee applications, the Committee and its professionals played a vital role in ensuring that the rights of all unsecured creditors were fully represented, including through four distinct workstreams.

i. DIP Motion

28. White & Case conducted a comprehensive review of the proposed debtor-in-possession financing (the "DIP Facility") described in the Emergency Motion of the Debtors for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Postpetition Financing, (B) Granting Liens and Providing Claims with Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (C) Authorizing the Use of Cash Collateral, (D) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (E) Scheduling a Final Hearing, and (F) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 4] (the "DIP Motion"), which contained several provisions that the Committee viewed as objectionable, including:

a) Outsized fees to the DIP lenders, including the backstop fee equal to 20% of the equity in the reorganized Debtors (noting that the Debtors' own estimated total enterprise value was between $80 million and $126 million);

b) Extension of the DIP liens and adequate protections liens to unencumbered assets, including avoidance actions;

c) A waiver of section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code;

d) A waiver of the "equities of the case" exception to section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code;

e) A waiver of an ability to advocate for application of the doctrine of marshalling;

f) A compressed timeline for confirmation of the a chapter 11 plan;[10]

[10] The Court ultimately extended the timeline for confirmation of the chapter 11 cases after the Committee filed The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors' Emergency Motion for Entry of An Order (I) Scheduling Certain Dates and

g) A limitation of the Committee's professional fees during the chapter 11 cases;

h) An insufficient $50,000 investigation budget for the Committee;

i) A professional escrow account where the Debtors would be required to borrow and pay interest on cash in escrow to fund the estimated future fees of estate professionals;

j) A stipulation by the Debtors that all of their cash constituted cash collateral of the prepetition secured creditors without any potential for investigation or challenge;

k) An increase in the secured creditors' prepetition interest rate as a form of adequate protection;

l) Confusing (at best) language regarding the ability to keep challenges live during the challenge period;

m) An unqualified right to credit bid for the prepetition agent under the first lien credit agreement (the "Prepetition First Lien Agent");

n) An automatic right for the DIP agent to exercise all remedies against DIP collateral with only a five-day notice period;

o) Full approval to and shield from challenge any and all fees on the DIP Facility paid prepetition; and

p) No requirement to provide notice to the Committee of immaterial amendments to the DIP Facility.

These provisions created a risk of depleting value that would otherwise be available to unsecured creditors and required thorough and careful review.

29. In furtherance of the Committee's statutory duties, White & Case, among other things, carefully reviewed the DIP Motion, the proposed final order to approve the DIP Motion Deadlines in Connection with Confirmation of the Debtors' Plan of Reorganization and Associated Proceedings, (II) Establishing Certain Protocols, and (III) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 484] (the "Scheduling Motion").

(the "Final DIP Order") and the DIP Facility's credit agreement (the "DIP Credit Agreement"); conducted a detailed analysis of which entities were obligors and which assets were included or carved out of the proposed financing; assessed the propriety and scope of fees and other charges the Debtors sought to approve; provided proposed revisions to the Final DIP Order; negotiated these revisions with Debtors; conducted legal research related to outstanding issues; reviewed thousands of documents produced by the Debtors in response to the Committee's discovery requests; conducted two depositions of Debtor representatives; prepared the Committee's financial advisor for deposition; defended the deposition of the Committee's financial advisor; drafted and refined the Committee's objection to the DIP Motion [Docket No. 346] (the "DIP Objection"); assisted AlixPartners LLP ("AlixPartners") with its supporting declaration to the DIP Objection [Docket No. 349]; and prepared for the hearing on the Debtors' DIP Motion on September 30, 2025.

30. White & Case's work resulted in a revised proposed Final DIP Order, which, removed the Prepetition First Lien Agent's unqualified right to credit bid, required the DIP agent to seek relief from the automatic stay before exercising any remedies against the DIP Collateral, removed the cap on the Committee's professional fees and increased the Committee's investigation budget.

ii. UHC Settlement

31. All parties agreed from the beginning of these chapter 11 cases that the threatened loss of over $250 million in revenues from UHC would substantially reduce stakeholder recoveries. In response to the potential settlement between UHC and the Debtors described in the Motion of Debtors for Entry of an Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 (A) Approving a Global Settlement Agreement By and Among the Debtors and UHC and (B) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 439] (the "UHC Settlement"), the Committee sought informal discovery about UHC and their market reputation for terminating contracts (or threatening to) and then reengaging. During those informal interviews with the Debtors' management, the Debtors confirmed that they could not identify any potential replacement providers.

32. The Committee then served limited discovery to the Debtors (document requests and a deposition notice) and filed a limited objection to the UHC Settlement.[11] White & Case took one deposition of the Debtors' CRO, Chad Shandler. During his deposition, Mr. Shandler testified that (i) the loss of the UHC contracts would put the prepetition lenders under the Debtors' first lien credit agreement (collectively, the "First Lien Lenders") underwater, (ii) the Debtors had not identified potential replacement parties, (iii) he believed that the Debtors would identify the potential replacement parties prior to the termination date, and (iv) management expected that the Debtors would extend their existing contracts if replacement parties did not emerge by the termination date.

33. Given that testimony, the Committee raised the issue to the Court to address the material adverse consequences to the Committee's constituents' recoveries if the UHC contracts reappeared before the termination date or soon thereafter, and also to protect the legitimacy of the overall chapter 11 process. The Debtors did not provide updates to the transition process prior to the October 30, 2025 hearing.[12] The Committee's objection to the UHC Settlement, which it presented at the October 30, 2025 hearing ensured the critical issue of whether the UHC relationship was actually terminating was presented to the Court and protected everyone from criticism if UHC reemerged. The Court reserved the Committee's rights to raise the issue at confirmation.[13]

34. The Debtors informed AlixPartners through early December that potential replacement parties were not yet identified.[14] But the Debtors apparently did get that information from a UHC representative shortly before the confirmation trial and the Debtors decided to make the disclosure (through hearsay statements) during the confirmation trial.[15]

iii. Investigation of Claims and Causes of Action

35. At the outset of these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors filed the Plan, which proposed—in exchange for zero recovery for unsecured creditors—the cancellation of more than half a billion of unsecured claims, and broad releases for no consideration for their directors, officers, and professionals, as well as those of the Consenting Creditors. This required a comprehensive investigation into potential estate claims and causes of action, including those relating to the liens under the Debtors' secured loans and the Debtors' prepetition transactions. Debtors' counsel, Latham & Watkins LLP ("Latham"), was initially conducting this investigation. But Latham had previously represented the former administrative agent under the prepetition first lien credit agreement.[16] It was only after the Committee was engaged and retained White & Case, and over three weeks after the Petition Date, that the Independent Director engaged Quinn to conduct this investigation.[17]

16 See Debtors' Application for Entry of an Order Authorizing the Employment and Retention of Latham & Watkins LLP as Bankruptcy Co-Counsel Effective as of the Petition Date [Docket No. 338-1] ¶ 30. 17 See Declaration of Daniel B. Silvers, Investigating Director of ModivCare Inc., in Support of Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of ModivCare Inc. and its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 687] at ¶ 8 ("Because Latham formerly represented JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., which, until September 2025, had served as the administrative agent under the Company's credit agreement dated as of February 3, 2022…I determined to retain separate counsel to assist me in the Investigation. On

36. White & Case undertook a comprehensive investigation into these matters. Investigations like this are typical in large, complex chapter 11 cases, especially those involving failed liability management transactions that were consummated by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date. Assessing the viability of, and seeking standing to prosecute, claims and causes of action were especially important because they could have been the sole source of recovery for unsecured creditors, which were slated to receive nothing under the proposed Plan. For example, a successful challenge to the liability management transaction would have resulted in distribution to unsecured creditors with only minor adjustments to the Debtors' valuation.

37. In connection with the Lien Challenge (as defined below), White & Case reviewed the prepetition first lien and second lien loan documents and related collateral packages; analyzed the Debtors' unperfected assets; and conducted thorough lien perfection reviews for each Debtor, including specialized reviews related to the liens on the Debtors' intellectual property. Recognizing the unique challenges posed by the Debtors' healthcare-related assets, White & Case also researched perfection requirements for Medicare and Medicaid receivables. To further support the Lien Challenge, White & Case conducted numerous depositions and interviews to understand the Debtors' business operations and the extent to which post-petition revenue was generated by post-petition labor. Ultimately, the Committee found colorable claims in connection with the Lien Challenge and White & Case drafted and litigated the Committee's Omnibus Claim Objection and Lien Challenge Standing Motion [Docket No. 729] and the First Supplement to the Committee's Omnibus Claim Objection and Lien Challenge Standing Motion [Docket No. 806], which necessitated significant preparation in advance of the confirmation hearing.

September 15, 2025, at my direction, the Company retained Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, LLP ("Quinn Emanuel") for that purpose.").

38. The Committee also investigated sophisticated and complex prepetition transactions between the Debtors and their secured lenders, which demanded the highest level of diligence and expertise. Five months prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors completed an uptier transaction that increased their secured debt to approximately $1.7 billion through a dollar-for-dollar exchange of $271 million of unsecured notes for second-lien secured notes. As part of the investigation, White & Case deposed one of the Debtors' former independent board members who testified that the Debtors' management and restructuring advisors "seemed to be focused on . . . getting into bankruptcy" and the prospect of bankruptcy "overshadowed each and every aspect of what was happening" throughout his tenure on the board.[18]

39. The Committee had no choice but to thoroughly explore these issues. Accordingly, in connection with the Uptier Challenge (as defined below), White & Case conducted legal research into potential causes of action; conducted extensive discovery on the Debtors and First Lien Lenders, including reviewing thousands of documents relating to the Debtors' prepetition transactions and deposing several of the Debtors' former and current officers and directors; together with the Committee's financial advisor, analyzed the value of the consideration exchanged in the transactions; and drafted and litigated the Uptier Challenge [Docket No. 975]. White & Case also reviewed and researched potential causes of action related to the payments of prepetition bonuses and severance packages to Company employees.

40. White & Case also analyzed the adequacy of the Independent Director's own investigation into the Debtors' prepetition transactions, along with his associated conclusions and recommendations, to adequately assess the Debtors' exercise of their business judgment in granting broad releases under the Plan. This involved additional discovery and trial preparation, along with a repeated need to seek Court intervention regarding the timing of the Independent Director's disclosures and assertions of privilege. The latter dispute ultimately resulted in the Court partially sustaining the Committee's objection to certain aspects of the Independent Director's testimony regarding the his investigation and conclusions.[19]

iv. Plan

41. White & Case conducted a thorough review and analysis of the Plan, Disclosure Statement, and Plan Supplement,[20] ensuring that all provisions were scrutinized for their impact on unsecured creditors. The valuation of the Debtors' business was at the center of these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors and the Consenting Creditors initially filed a Plan that provided no recovery to unsecured creditors without even conducting an expert valuation, much less a valuation that had been market tested. The Committee was required to hire its own experts to assess the Debtors' underlying business plan—which assessed each of the Debtors' operative business segments—and to determine and apply the appropriate valuation methodology to independently conclude whether the Debtors' presumption that unsecured creditors were out of the money was correct.

42. The Committee's experts found that it was not. With only certain adjustments to the business plan and taking appropriate valuation methodologies into account, the Committee believed that there could have been enough value to satisfy claims of the First Lien Lenders and the prepetition noteholders under the Debtors' second lien notes, with residual value flowing to unsecured creditors.[21] This was without even considering any additional value that could have been recovered from the Lien Challenge and Uptier Challenge. Those challenges, if successful, would have showed that the Plan was incorrectly premised on the First Lien Lenders' secured claim being $881 million, which would have required a revision of the equity splits and, therefore, enhanced the proposed recovery to unsecured creditors.

43. White & Case conducted legal research related to the approval of the Plan and Disclosure Statement; closely examined the Independent Director's investigation and the scope and propriety of the Plan's proposed releases; drafted and filed the Disclosure Statement Objection (as defined below) and a supporting declaration [Docket No. 422]; assisted AlixPartners with the Committee's expert reports regarding the Debtors' business plan and valuation; and drafted and filed the Plan Objection (as defined below), advocating for the interests of unsecured creditors in light of the Plan's proposed treatment. In addition, the Committee provided numerous comments to the Debtors' pleadings and negotiated certain issues encompassed in the final orders for the Solicitation Procedures and Plan.

44. After extensive, good faith attempts to reach a consensual resolution, White & Case prepared for and participated in the multi-day hearing on the confirmation of the Plan, as well as the Uptier Challenge and Lien Challenge. Among other things, White & Case drafted the pleadings; prepared and conducted direct examinations, cross-examinations of each of the Debtors' witnesses, and oral argument; and finalized and negotiated exhibit lists and deposition designations. The four-day hearing included testimony by eight witnesses, including two Committee experts. The Court specifically found that the Committee's valuation expert testimony was credible.[22] White & Case's efforts were instrumental in ensuring that the Committee's voice was heard and that the interests of unsecured creditors were represented in a case where their recovery was initially non-existent. Ultimately, in part based on the work of the Committee's professionals, the recovery for general unsecured creditors increased to provide for (i) a pro rata share of 2% of the reorganized equity, a warrant package and participation rights for eligible holders in an equity rights offering, or (ii) for holders of claims less than $1,000,000, a "cash-out" option for a pro rata share of a $32 million pool.

45. Throughout these chapter 11 cases, White & Case has filed thousands of pages of detailed time entries, all of which have been approved on an interim basis without formal objection from any party.[23] White & Case has been consistently transparent in its fee applications, providing the information and detail necessary for a presumption of reasonableness. White & Case has satisfied the standards for final allowance and payment of its fees.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT AND COMPENSATION

46. The terms and conditions of White & Case's employment by the Debtors and compensation to be paid to White & Case by the Debtors are outlined in the Retention Application and Retention Order. Post-petition compensation paid to White & Case by the Debtors has been paid from the Debtors' estates, in accordance with the Compensation Procedures Order and applicable bankruptcy law.

49. In the ordinary course of White & Case's practice, White & Case maintains a record of expenses incurred in the rendition of professional services required by the Committee for which reimbursement is sought. As noted above, a summary of White & Case's expenses is attached as Exhibit E, with the detailed statement of same attached to the Prior Fee Statements and hereto as Exhibit D. The expenses incurred for which White & Case seeks reimbursement include, but are not limited to, discovery and e-discovery expenses, travel expenses, and printing expenses. These charges are intended to reimburse White & Case's direct operating costs, which are not incorporated into White & Case's hourly billing rates. White & Case charges external costs at the vendor's cost without markup.

50. Although White & Case has made every effort to include all fees earned and expenses incurred during the Final Period, some fees and expenses might not be included in this Application due to delays caused by accounting and processing during the Final Period. White & Case reserves the right to make further applications or to supplement this Application to this Court for allowance of such fees and expenses not included herein.

ALLOWANCE OF THE FEES AND EXPENSES

51. In this Application, White & Case seeks final allowance and payment of compensation for professional services provided in the amount of $13,893,521.00 and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses in the amount of $300,469.13 that were incurred for the Final Period.

52. The blended rates for all White & Case timekeepers for the Final Period is $1,414.

53. In support of the Application, White & Case relies upon its Prior Fee Statements and Interim Fee Application, which are incorporated herein by reference.

54. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may award a professional employed under section 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code (such as counsel to the Committee) "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered . . . [and] reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1)(A)-(a)(1)(B). Section 330 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

> In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded . . . , the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including—

> (a) the time spent on such services;
> (b) the rates charged for such services;
> (c) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
>
> (d) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
>
> (e) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

55. The Application readily meets the standards of section 330 and applicable case law for compensation for services rendered on behalf of the Committee.

56. White & Case respectfully submits that the foregoing professional services for which it seeks compensation in this Application were, at the time rendered, reasonable, necessary for, beneficial to, and appropriate to the Committee, the Debtors, their estates, and the administration of these chapter 11 cases. White & Case further believes that it performed the services for the Committee economically, effectively, and efficiently, and the results obtained benefited not only the Committee and its constituents, but also the Debtors' estates. White & Case further submits that the compensation requested herein is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of such services to the Committee and all parties in interest.

57. During the Final Period, White & Case's U.S. hourly billing rates for attorneys (though not necessarily billed to the Debtors' estates) ranged from $870 to $2,500. The hourly rates and corresponding rate structure utilized by White & Case in these chapter 11 cases are equivalent to the hourly rates and corresponding rate structure used by White & Case for restructuring, workout, bankruptcy, insolvency, and comparable matters, and similar complex corporate, securities, and litigation matters, whether in court or otherwise, regardless of whether a fee application is required. White & Case strives to be efficient in the staffing of matters. These rates and the rate structure reflect that such matters are typically national in scope and involve great complexity, high stakes, and severe time pressures—all of which were present in these chapter 11 cases.

58. Moreover, White & Case's hourly rates are set at a level designed to compensate White & Case fairly for the work of its attorneys and paraprofessionals and to cover certain fixed and routine overhead expenses. Hourly rates vary with the experience and seniority of the individuals assigned. These hourly rates are subject to periodic adjustments to reflect economic and other conditions and are consistent with the rates charged elsewhere.

59. Over 83% of the hours worked were by attorneys within White & Case's Financial Restructuring and Insolvency Practice, a practice which enjoys a national and international reputation for its expertise in financial restructurings. Overall, White & Case brings to these chapter 11 cases a particularly high level of skill and knowledge, which inured to the benefit of the Committee and all parties in interest.

60. In conclusion, the services provided by White & Case have been necessary to the Committee's role in these chapter 11 cases during the Final Period, and were beneficial at the time at which the services were rendered toward the successful prosecution of the unsecured creditors' interests in these chapter 11 cases. Further, White & Case performed the services within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, nature of the problems, issues, and tasks addressed on behalf of the Committee. Finally, the compensation sought is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in chapter 11 cases. White & Case requests that the Court determine that the nature, extent, and value of these services were appropriate under the circumstances at the time the services were rendered.

61. As a result of the services provided, White & Case incurred expenses which it billed. The disbursements for such services are not included in White & Case's overhead for the purpose of setting billing rates and White & Case has made every effort to minimize its disbursements in these chapter 11 cases. The actual expenses incurred in providing professional services were necessary, reasonable, and justified under the circumstances to serve the needs of the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases. Among other things, White & Case makes sure that all expenses for which it seeks reimbursement were reasonable and appropriate.

WHEREFORE, White & Case requests that this Court enter an order granting final allowance and payment of compensation for professional services provided in the amount of $13,893,521.00 and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses in the amount of $300,469.13 that were incurred for the Final Period.

Customary and Comparable Compensation Disclosure for White & Case LLP

The blended hourly rate for White & Case timekeepers (including both professionals and paraprofessionals) who have billed time to the Committee during the Final Period was approximately $1,414 per hour (the "Committee Blended Rate").[1]

The non-bankruptcy blended hourly rate for White & Case's timekeepers during the 12-month period from January 1, 2025, to and including December 31, 2025 (the "Comparable Period")[2] was, in the aggregate, approximately $1,272 per hour (the "Non-Bankruptcy Blended Rate").[3]

A detailed comparison of these rates is as follows:

Category of Timekeeper	Committee Blended Rate	Non-Bankruptcy Blended Rate
Partner[4]	$2,221	$1,816
Counsel	$1,630	$1,436
Associate[5]	$1,169	$1,063
Paraprofessional	$500	$462
Aggregate	$1,414	$1,272

1 White & Case calculated the blended rate for timekeepers who billed to the Debtors by dividing the total dollar amount billed by such timekeepers during the Final Period by the total number of hours billed by such timekeepers during the Final Period. Accordingly, it does not reflect the voluntary reductions made by White & Case.

2 On an annual basis, White & Case reexamines and adjusts for increases in seniority and changes in experience, expertise, and status in January of each year the rates for lawyers and paraprofessionals.

3 White & Case calculated the Non-Bankruptcy Blended Hourly Rate by dividing the total dollar amount billed by all timekeepers in the applicable offices to non-bankruptcy matters during the Comparable Period by the total number of hours billed by all timekeepers in the applicable offices to non-bankruptcy matters during the Comparable Period. For purposes of the foregoing calculation, White & Case included New York and Chicago as the applicable offices.

4 Does not include partner of counsel.

OBJECTION TO FINAL FEE APPLICATION
FILED BY ALIXPARTNERS, LLP

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

ModivCare Topco, LLC ("ModivCare") files this Objection to the Final Fee and Expense Request of AlixPartners, LLP, and would respectfully show as follows:

SUMMARY OF FACTS AND RELIEF REQUESTED

1. The reorganization of ModivCare Inc. and its seventy debtor affiliates (collectively, the "Debtors") was characterized by an aggressive, expedited timeline that saw the enterprise transition from its voluntary Chapter 11 filing on August 20, 2025, to the confirmation of its Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization on December 15, 2025.

2. The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") retained AlixPartners, LLP ("AlixPartners") as its financial advisor to provide specialized expertise in valuation, business plan assessment, and litigation support.

3. In its Final Application, AlixPartners seeks total compensation and expense reimbursement of $5,022,757.29 for approximately 111 days of service as financial advisor to the Committee, comprising $4,955,847.00 in professional fees, $41,910.29 in expenses, and $25,000.00 in post-effective date fees.

[1] A complete list of each of the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") and the last four digits of each Debtor's taxpayer identification number (if applicable) may be obtained on the website of the Debtors' claims and noticing agent at https://www.veritaglobal.net/ModivCare. Debtor ModivCare Inc.'s principal place of business and the Debtors' service address in these Chapter 11 Cases is 6900 E. Layton Avenue, Suite 1100 & 1200, Denver, Colorado 80237.

4. The final fee request should be scrutinized through the lens of the twelve factors articulated in Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc. and the prospective "reasonable at the time" standard established by the Fifth Circuit in In re Woerner. A comprehensive audit of AlixPartners' 321 pages of time records reveals a pattern of top-heavy staffing, excessive internal conferencing, the billing of clerical tasks at professional rates, and the pursuit of litigation strategies that lacked an objective prospective benefit to the estate.

5. While the Reorganized Debtors do not contest that AlixPartners performed services during the case, they respectfully submit that the fees and expenses sought are unreasonable, excessive, and insufficiently justified under the standards of 11 U.S.C. § 330 and controlling Fifth Circuit authority.

6. Specifically, the time requested in the Fee Application should be significantly reduced because: (a) AlixPartners charged hourly rates far exceeding prevailing market rates for financial advisory services in the Southern District of Texas; (b) AlixPartners engaged in systematic overstaffing and "gang billing" of routine internal coordination calls, inflating billable hours well beyond what was actual and necessary; (c) AlixPartners duplicated the services of White & Case LLP ("White & Case"), counsel to the Committee, in violation of the express terms of the Retention Order; and (d) AlixPartners seeks reimbursement of unreasonable expenses.

JURISDICTION AND STANDING

7. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

I. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

8. On August 20, 2025 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

9. On September 5, 2025, the United States Trustee appointed the Committee [ECF No. 124].

10. On November 4, 2025, this Court entered the Order Authorizing the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors to Employ and Retain AlixPartners, LLP as its Financial Advisor Effective as of September 10, 2025 [ECF No. 654] (the "Retention Order").

11. On December 15, 2025, the Court entered the Order Confirming Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of ModivCare Inc. and its Debtor Affiliates [ECF No. 1055] (the "Confirmation Order"). The Plan went effective on December 29, 2025.

12. On February 11, 2026, AlixPartners filed its Final Fee Application [ECF No. 1288], seeking a final allowance of $5,022,757.29 (the "Fee Application").

II. LEGAL STANDARD

13. Under 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1), the Court may award to a professional employed under section 1103 "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by the . . . professional person . . . and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses".

14. Section 330(a)(3) requires the Court to consider the following factors in determining reasonable compensation:

a. the time spent on such services;

b. the rates charged for such services;

c. whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;

d. whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;

e. with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and

f. whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

15. Section 330(a)(4)(A) further provides that the Court "shall not allow compensation for . . . services that were not . . . reasonably likely to benefit the debtor's estate" or were "not necessary to the administration of the case".

16. In Barron & Newburger, P.C. v. Texas Skyline, Ltd. (In re Woerner), 783 F.3d 266 (5th Cir. 2015) (en banc), the Fifth Circuit overruled the prior Pro-Snax retrospective "actual benefit" standard and adopted a prospective "good gamble" test, holding that services are compensable if they were either "necessary to the administration" of the case or "reasonably likely to benefit" the estate "at the time at which [they were] rendered". However, the Woerner standard is not a shield for inefficiency or overzealousness. In assessing the likelihood of benefit, courts must consider the probability of success at the time of the service and the reasonable costs of pursuing that action. "Whether the services were ultimately successful is relevant to, but not dispositive of, attorney compensation." Barron & Newburger, P.C. v. Tex. Skyline, Ltd. (In re Woerner), 783 F.3d at 276 (emphasis added).

17. The Reorganized Debtors contend that AlixPartners' pursuit of a doubling of the enterprise value—from the midpoint of $837.5 million to approximately $1.66 billion—lacked objective reasonableness given the contemporaneous market trading data and the Debtors' operational realities, such as the non-renewal of material contracts. Furthermore, these "opinions" were never disclosed to the Committee for review prior to discussing them at trial.

18. The Fifth Circuit has confirmed that the lodestar method — evaluating (1) whether the hours billed were reasonable, (2) whether the hourly rates are consistent with prevailing market rates, and (3) all other relevant equitable factors — remains the proper analytical framework.[1]

19. The determination of the lodestar amount does not conclude the inquiry.[2] The court possesses broad discretion to adjust the fee award based on the Johnson factors, which include: (1) the time and labor required; (2) the novelty and difficulty of the questions; (3) the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly; (4) the preclusion of other employment; (5) the customary fee; (6) whether the fee is fixed or contingent; (7) time limitations; (8) the amount involved and the results obtained; (9) the experience, reputation, and ability of the professional; (10) the "undesirability" of the case; (11) the nature and length of the professional relationship; and (12) awards in similar cases.

20. Courts in the Fifth Circuit have repeatedly reduced or disallowed professional fees for overstaffing, duplication of services, excessive rates, and billing for services that are not actual and necessary. See, e.g., In re Digerati Techs., Inc., 537 B.R. 317 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2015)

[1] Assadi v. Osherow (In re Assadi), 2025 U.S. App. LEXIS 13678, at *7 (5th Cir. 2025)
[2] Moench v. Marquette Transp. Co. Gulf-Inland, L.L.C., 838 F.3d 586 (5th Cir. 2016)

(applying Woerner lodestar; reducing fees for vague entries, lumping, overstaffing, and lack of billing judgment); In re 900 Corp., 327 B.R. 585 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2005) (court reduced fees for overstaffing, duplicative efforts, and excessive billing, emphasized the need for careful billing judgment, particularly when fees are assessed against another party, and reduced fees to protect estate assets from excessive charges.)

21. The Retention Order itself imposes a binding, affirmative obligation: "AlixPartners shall use its reasonable efforts to avoid any duplication of services provided by any of the other retained professionals in these Chapter 11 Cases" (Retention Order ¶ 13). AlixPartners' own Retention Application acknowledged this obligation, stating: "AlixPartners will work closely with White & Case to ensure that there will be no duplication of efforts or unnecessary overlap". (Retention Application ¶ 15)

III. APPLICATION OBJECTION

22. The Fee Application should be reduced for five principal reasons:

a. excessive hourly rates;

b. systemic overstaffing and internal “gang billing”;

c. duplication of White & Case’s legal services in violation of the Retention Order;

d. services that were neither reasonable nor necessary, and provided no benefit to the estate;

e. vague and lumped time entries and clerical billing; and

f. unreasonable expenses and impermissible post-effective date fees.

A. HOURLY RATES CHARGED BY ALIXPARTNERS UNREASONABLE

23. AlixPartners staffed this 111-day engagement with 34 individual timekeepers and charged the following rates:

TITLE/LEVEL	RATE RANGE	KEY EXAMPLES
Partner/Managing Director	$1,225 – $1,460/hr	MacGreevey ($1,460) McGlynn ($1,415) Brown ($1,415) Magrisi ($1,250)
Director	$715 – $1,150/hr	Panda ($1,150) Amico ($1,150) Nelson ($1,120) Gates ($1,120) Komendowski ($1,080)
Senior Vice President	$565 – $980/hr	Hood ($850) Clark ($910) Prince ($950) Cuomo ($910)
Analyst	$535/hr	Olohan ($535)

24. The resulting blended hourly rate ranged from $1,032.83 (October) to $1,111.70 (November), with a composite average of $1,060.91 across all four months. Industry data confirms that AlixPartners already commands the highest blended hourly rate among financial advisors to unsecured creditors' committees, recorded at $1,013/hour in recent comparable cases, and the rates in this case exceed even that benchmark.

25. These rates are unreasonable under § 330(a)(3)(B) and (F) for several reasons.

B. RATES EXCEED COUNSEL'S RATES

26. Multiple AlixPartners partners billed at $1,415–$1,460/hour — rates that rival or exceed senior White & Case restructuring partners ($2,100–$2,500/hr) on a per-unit basis when one considers that financial advisory work does not require a law license and does not carry the same professional responsibility obligations. The fact that AlixPartners Directors billing at $1,080–$1,150 per hour and SVPs billing at $850–$980 per hour exceed the rates of many experienced attorneys in this District is itself an indication of unreasonableness.

C. EXCESSIVE NUMBER OF HIGH-RATE BILLERS

27. The engagement featured 9 professionals billing at partner rates ($950–$1,460), 8 directors ($715–$1,150), and 11 SVPs ($565–$980), many of them billing substantially full-time during peak months. For example, in October alone, Ashutosh Panda (Director, rate of $1,150) billed 215.0 hours; Susan Clark (SVP, rate of $910) billed 212.3 hours; Ryan Komendowski (Director, rate of $1,080) billed 189.1 hours; and Lucas Lovatto (VP, $835) billed 162.4 hours. This staffing model is inconsistent with a reasonable, efficient engagement.

D. EXCESSIVE HOURS DUE TO SYSTEMIC OVERSTAFFING AND "GANG BILLING"

28. The time records reveal a pervasive, recurring pattern of billing large numbers of AlixPartners professionals for the same internal coordination calls. This practice dramatically inflated hours and is not the "actual, necessary" service contemplated by § 330. Examples include:

a. October 6, 2025: A single internal "workstreams, coordination, and next steps" call was attended by 13 AlixPartners professionals each billing 0.5 hours. Total: 7.0 hours at a blended rate exceeding $1,000/hour, generating approximately $7,700 in fees for one internal telephone call.

b. October 7, 2025: A similar internal coordination call involved 11 professionals with each billing 0.6 hours. Total: 6.6 hours, approximately $7,300.

c. October 14, 2025: Yet another internal coordination call with 11 professionals with each billing 0.5 hours. Total: 5.5 hours, approximately $5,900.

d. October 21, 2025: Internal "work plan and strategy" call with 12 professionals with each billing 0.7 hours. Total: 9.1 hours, approximately $10,000.

e. October 28, 2025: Internal "ongoing workstreams" call with 13 professionals, each billing 0.7 hours. Total: 9.1 hours, approximately $10,000.

f. November 4, 2025: Internal "ongoing workstreams, coordination of priority tasks, and next steps" call with 12 professionals with each billing 0.8 hours. Total: 10.4 hours, approximately $11,400.

g. November 11, 2025: Internal "work plan and strategy" call with 10 professionals with each billing 0.7 hours. Total: 7.0 hours, approximately $7,800.

h. November 18, 2025: Internal "work plan and strategy" call with 10 professionals, each billing 0.5–0.6 hours. Total: approximately 5.8 hours, approximately $6,400.

i. December 2, 2025: Internal "ongoing workstreams, coordination of priority tasks, and next steps" call with 8 professionals with each billing 0.4 hours. Total: 3.2 hours, approximately $3,700.

29. The foregoing is only a sample. These internal coordination calls occurred weekly or more frequently throughout AlixPartners' engagement, and each call routinely included 8–14 professionals. No reasonable basis exists for requiring 14 financial advisors on a single internal coordination call. At most, 2–3 senior professionals should attend such calls; the remaining team members can be briefed by memorandum or brief follow-up call. The excess hours generated by this practice are conservatively estimated at 300+ hours over the course of the engagement, representing approximately $300,000–$350,000 in excessive fees.

30. The Reorganized Debtors request disallowance of all time charged by professionals in excess of 3 attendees for any internal-only AlixPartners coordination call, or alternatively, a 20% across-the-board reduction to the "Planning, Coordination and Case Management" category (101.3 hours / $116,057.50) and "Meetings/Communication with UCC and Creditors" category (256.6 hours / $306,728.50) to account for the systematic overstaffing.

E. DUPLICATION OF SERVICES

31. Paragraph 13 of the Retention Order expressly requires that "AlixPartners shall use its reasonable efforts to avoid any duplication of services provided by any of the other retained professionals in these Chapter 11 Cases". AlixPartners' own Retention Application represented that "AlixPartners will work closely with White & Case to ensure that there will be no duplication of efforts or unnecessary overlap". The time records demonstrate systematic failure to honor these obligations across multiple categories.

32. AlixPartners billed 85.5 hours for "RSA, Disclosure Statement & Plan of Reorganization" work, including reviewing and "providing comments" on draft confirmation objections, plan supplements, and other legal pleadings. For example, Chase Hood (SVP, $850/hr) billed 0.7 hours on November 21 to "Review initial draft of confirmation objection," 1.4 hours on November 25 to "Review and provide additional comments to further revised confirmation objection," and 1.3 hours on November 25 to "Revise and provide comments to revised confirmation objection". Reviewing, revising, and commenting on draft confirmation objections is quintessential legal work product that was White & Case's core function. White & Case billed 522.7 hours ($759,367.00) in its November and December time periods under its own "Exclusivity, Plan & Disclosure Statement" category for this same work. While a financial advisor may reasonably review financial aspects of plan documents, the detailed review and revision of legal briefs and confirmation objections by a financial advisor at $850/hour is duplicative.

33. AlixPartners billed 398.4 hours ($469,325.50) for "Litigation Support / Investigations," which the Fee Application describes as including "[c]onducted detailed investigations into the Debtors' insiders and other parties' actions prior to filing for bankruptcy" and "[r]eviewed the Debtors' advisors' reports on these actions, prepared related expert reports, and summarized findings for the Committee". White & Case simultaneously billed 382.9 hours ($523,640.00) in December alone, and substantial additional hours in November, under its own "Investigation of Causes of Action" category for the same underlying investigation. The combined total for investigation activities between both firms exceeded 780+ hours — an extraordinary figure for investigating pre-petition transactions in a case that ultimately did not result in any filed adversary proceedings.

34. Both firms had multiple professionals attending the same deposition preparation sessions (e.g., the November 7 call where AlixPartners professionals Rubel, Amico, Komendowski, and MacGreevey attended alongside White & Case attorneys Zakia, Smith, and Chase to "prepare for ModivCare CEO deposition").

35. Both firms reviewed the same Silvers investigation report and prepared responsive analysis.

36. AlixPartners billed 201.9 hours ($240,499.50) for "Court Hearings and Status Conferences". While financial advisor attendance at certain hearings may be appropriate, the time records reveal multiple AlixPartners professionals attending the same hearings at which White & Case was already present and advocating:

a. September 30, 2025 (DIP Hearing): Six AlixPartners professionals attended (MacGreevey, McGlynn, Amico, Gates, Hood, Cuomo), collectively billing 30.4 hours ($34,241.50). White & Case — which was conducting the actual litigation — also had its full trial team present.

b. December 8–11, 2025 (Confirmation Hearing): AlixPartners billed 153.1 hours ($184,505.50) in December for "Court Hearings and Status Conferences" alone. White & Case simultaneously had over a dozen attorneys at the confirmation hearing, billing 472.2 hours ($837,561.00) in its "Hearings & Court Matters" category. While AlixPartners' expert witness Greg Magrisi needed to attend for his testimony and one or two professionals could reasonably observe, the attendance of multiple additional AlixPartners professionals at every hearing session is unreasonable.

37. AlixPartners billed 152.4 hours ($147,204.50) for "Claims Analysis". White & Case also performed claims analysis work, billing under its "Claims Administration & Objections" categories. For example, White & Case billed 20.7 hours on claims work in November alone, including extensive research into make-whole claims and precedent claim objections. Both firms performed overlapping claims analysis during the same period.

38. Of the 215.0 hours ($228,903.50) AlixPartners billed for "DIP Financing and Cash Collateral," the vast majority (213.7 hours) was incurred in September. While the preparation of the MacGreevey declaration supporting the DIP objection was a legitimate financial advisory function, much of the remaining DIP work overlapped with White & Case's role as lead counsel on the DIP objection. White & Case billed 57.3 hours ($99,952.00) for DIP Financing work in October alone, and substantial additional hours in September. Both firms had multiple professionals attending the same DIP hearings and breakout meetings on September 30.

F. EXCESSIVE FEE APPLICATION PREPARATION TIME

39. AlixPartners billed 83.0 hours ($60,713.00) for "Fee Statements / Fee Applications" — i.e., preparing its own monthly fee statements and this final fee application. While the Supreme Court confirmed in Baker Botts LLP v. ASARCO LLC, 576 U.S. 121 (2015), that preparing fee applications is compensable, § 330(a)(6) requires that such compensation be "reasonable in relation to the level and skill required". Over 83 hours to prepare four monthly fee statements and one final application is unreasonable; the Fee Application itself is largely a compilation of previously filed monthly fee statements with a brief narrative.

G. AMBIGUOUS TIME WHICH LACKS SUFFICIENT DETAIL

40. Under In re Woerner, the burden is on the professional to show that any billed for service was a "good gamble" at the time it was made. It is impossible to assess the objective reasonableness of a "workstream" if the professional refuses to describe or identify the work being performed. Numerous entries in the application fail to meet the disclosure standards of this Circuit, including the following:

H. IMPROPER LUMPING OF TASKS

41. The U.S. Trustee Fee Guidelines highlight the requirement that each time entry describes a single, distinct task. AlixPartners' records are replete with "lumped" entries that combine disparate activities—such as internal strategy, document review, and correspondence—into a single block of time. Lumped time entries include:

I. CLERICAL AND MINISTERIAL TASKS

42. Professionals are prohibited compensation for "essentially clerical or secretarial work," regardless of whether the person performing the task is a professional. Such tasks are considered overhead, and their cost should be absorbed by the firm's hourly rates. The AlixPartners time records contain numerous entries where highly compensated professionals billed the estate for ministerial work. Below are some examples:

a. Case Setup and Administration: On September 10, 2025, Kathryn B. McGlynn (Managing Director, $1,415/hr) billed 0.9 hours to “Prepare case set-up items.” Setting up an internal project file is a basic administrative function that does not require the expertise of a managing director.

b. Data Room and Distribution List Management: Chase Hood (SVP, $850/hr) billed 0.8 hours on September 10, 2025, and another 0.8 hours on September 11, 2025, to “Prepare team internal datasite and email distribution group.” Additionally, on September 10, 2025, Hood billed 0.8 hours to “Prepare working group list for counsel.”

c. Fee Application Preparation: Lisa Marie Bonito (VP, $580/hr) billed 62.3 hours in Category 1.20 (Fee Applications & Fee Statements).1 While some time for fee application preparation is compensable, over 60 hours for a reorganization that lasted less than four months is excessive. Much of this time was spent on repetitive tasks such as “Analyzing professional fees… for privilege and confidentiality” and “Preparing schedule/exhibit workbook”.

43. The practice of billing the estate at professional rates—up to $1,415 per hour—for managing email distribution lists and formatting data rooms is inherently unreasonable. The Reorganized Debtors submit that these entries should be disallowed in their entirety.

J. UNREASONABLE EXPENSES

44. AlixPartners seeks $41,910.29 in total expenses. The Reorganized Debtors object to the following categories of expenses:

a. Excessive Research Reports: In October 2025 alone, AlixPartners purchased three third-party market research reports totaling $9,400.00: "US Home Care Services Market Outlook" ($2,000.00), "US Remote Patient Monitoring Market Outlook" ($4,950.00), and "US Non-Emergency Medical Transportation Market to 2031" ($2,450.00). When combined with $2,253.63 in September research costs (including $1,210.10 and $893.53 for additional industry research reports), AlixPartners charged the estate $11,973.63 for "Client Research". The necessity of nearly $12,000 in off-the-shelf industry research reports has not been demonstrated, particularly where AlixPartners presumably already possesses expertise in the healthcare and transportation sectors that justified its retention.

b. Luxury Lodging: In October 2025, the expense records reflect $1,500/person for two nights at New York City hotels (Westin Grand Central and Benjamin Royal Sonesta) for Amico and Komendowski — while traveling to AlixPartners' own New York office at 909 Third Avenue. The Reorganized Debtors question why the estate should bear lodging costs for AlixPartners professionals traveling to their firm's own headquarters.

c. In November 2025, lodging totaled $3,000.00, and in December 2025, lodging totaled $8,797.53 — the highest single expense category in December.

K. POST-EFFECTIVE DATE FEES

45. AlixPartners requests an additional $25,000.00 for "fees incurred or expected to be incurred after the Effective Date . . . in connection with the preparation and prosecution of this final Application". The Retention Order, at Paragraph 5, provides that "AlixPartners shall not seek reimbursement from the Debtors' estates for any fees incurred in defending any of AlixPartners' fee applications in these Chapter 11 Cases". To the extent the $25,000.00 includes any fees for defending this Fee Application against objections, such fees are expressly prohibited. AlixPartners should be required to submit an itemized statement of actual post-effective date fees incurred, limited strictly to preparation (not defense), before any allowance is granted.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, ModivCare, respectfully prays that the Court deny the requested fees and for such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

In re: MODIVCARE, INC., et al.,[1] Debtors.	Chapter 11 Case No. 25-90309 (Jointly Administered)

FILED BY WHITE & CASE, LLP

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

ModivCare Topco, LLC ("ModivCare" or "Reorganized Debtors") files this Objection to the Final Fee and Expense Request of White & Case, LLP, and would respectfully show as follows:

I. SUMMARY OF FACTS AND RELIEF REQUESTED

The Reorganized Debtors hereby object to the final fee application filed by White & Case LLP ("White & Case"), counsel for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee"), seeking $13,893,521.00 in fees and $300,469.13 in expenses for 111 days of work. White & Case was retained as a fiduciary. It did not act as one. Soon after its retention, White & Case delivered an ultimatum to the Consenting Creditors: pay $30 million to the unsecured class, or the estate professionals would generate $30 million in fees through litigation. Pay the class or pay the professionals.

[1] A complete list of each of the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") and the last four digits of each Debtor's taxpayer identification number (if applicable) may be obtained on the website of the Debtors' claims and noticing agent at https://www.veritaglobal.net/ModivCare. Debtor ModivCare Inc.'s principal place of business and the Debtors' service address in these Chapter 11 Cases is 6900 E. Layton Avenue, Suite 1100 & 1200, Denver, Colorado 80237.

On October 28, 2025, before the bulk of White & Case's billing occurred, the Consenting Creditors warned this Court that "the Committee's real strategy appears to be to bury the estate in exponentially expanding professional fees in order to extract an outsized settlement where it otherwise has no viable legal strategy. They identified the Committee's valuation theory as "completely unsupportable," requiring a 65% swing above the Debtors' midpoint valuation which was an impossible burden.

White & Case executed that strategy anyway. It deployed 54 timekeepers. It assigned 39 of them to review 30,000 documents. It sent 9 attorneys to the confirmation hearing and 12 to routine weekly calls. It charged a 10-22% "bankruptcy premium" above its own non-bankruptcy rates. It billed for stays at the Ritz-Carlton and Four Seasons. And it never submitted a budget.

ModivCare request the following relief, in the alternative: First, because White & Case announced in advance its intention to bury the estate in professional fees if its demands were not met and then carried out that threat through every billing category in this case, the Court should deny White & Case's Final Fee Application in its entirety under 11 U.S.C. §§ 328(c), 330(a)(4)(A), and 105(a), and award no compensation whatsoever. Second, in the alternative, the Court should drastically reduce White & Case's fees and expenses under 11 U.S.C. § 330 and equitably subordinate the remaining to the claims of unsecured creditors under 11 U.S.C. § 510(c). Third, in the further alternative, Third, the Court should drastically reduce the fees and expenses under §330.

II. JURISDICTION AND STANDING

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

2. The Reorganized Debtors have standing to object to the Final Application for Compensation at ECF No. 1290 ("Final Fee Application") filed by White & Case, LLP ("White & Case") as the party obligated to pay the fees sought. See 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1); Compensation Procedures Order [Docket No. 500].

III. RELEVANT BACKGROUND

3. On August 20, 2025 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. On September 5, 2025, the United States Trustee appointed the Committee [Docket No. 124].

5. On September 9, 2025, the Committee selected White & Case as its bankruptcy counsel.

6. On October 8, 2025, the Committee filed its Application of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors for Entry of an Order Authorizing the Employment and Retention of White & Case LLP as Counsel Effective as of September 9, 2025 [Docket No. 472] (the "Retention Application").

7. In the Retention Application and the proposed Retention Order, the Committee represented to this Court that the retention of White & Case was necessary and in the best interest of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and all parties in interest.

8. On October 28, 2025, the Consenting Creditors filed a Statement [Docket No. 589] regarding White & Case's Retention Application, serving as an early warning to the Court and White & Case regarding its aggressive and abusive billing strategy (the "Statement").

9. The Statement explicitly cautioned that the Committee's real strategy appears to be to bury the estate in exponentially expanding professional fees in order to extract an outsized settlement where it otherwise has no viable legal strategy.

10. The concerns raised in the Statement show that the Reorganized Debtors accurately quantified this harm in real-time, projecting that White & Case's aggressive litigation strategy would needlessly inflate total estate professional fees putting unsecured creditors further out of the money than they already were.

11. On October 31, 2025, the Court entered an order (the "Retention Order") approving the Retention Application and authorizing the retention of White & Case as bankruptcy counsel to the Committee effective as of September 9, 2025.

12. The Retention Order specifically provides that White & Case shall use its reasonable efforts to avoid any duplication of services provided by any of the Committee's other retained professionals in these Chapter 11 Cases.

13. On December 15, 2025, the Court entered the Order Confirming Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of ModivCare Inc. and its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 1055] (the "Confirmation Order"). The Plan went effective on December 29, 2025.

14. On February 12, 2026, White & Case filed its Final Fee Application [Docket No. 1290], seeking a final allowance of $13,893,521.00 in attorney's fees and an additional $300,469.13 in expenses (the "Fee Application").

IV. WHITE & CASE'S COERCIVE THREAT AND INEQUITABLE CONDUCT

15. Representatives of the Committee's professional team, including Scott Greissman, a partner at White & Case, met in person with the Debtors and the Consenting Creditors and delivered an unequivocal demand. During this meeting, Mr. Greissman insisted that $30 million be paid to unsecured creditors and made clear that, absent such payment, the estate would incur comparable or greater sums in professional fees through sustained litigation.

16. The message was direct and unmistakable: either allocate $30 million to the class or prepare to spend it on professional fees. White & Case's threat was unambiguous: pay the class or pay us. This was not a good faith negotiation tactic. It was an extortionate proposition. The Committee's professionals were threatening to inflict massive administrative expenses upon the estate unless the Consenting Creditors capitulated to a $30 million settlement demand that the Committee's own legal theories could not independently support.

17. The threat did not occur on a single occasion. Mr. Greissman had further phone conversations with counsel for the Consenting Creditors in which he reiterated the same demand.

18. As the Consenting Creditors detailed in their Statement filed at Docket No. 589, "The Committee's real strategy appears to be to bury the estate in exponentially expanding professional fees in order to extract an outsized settlement where it otherwise has no viable legal strategy." The Consenting Creditors further noted that professional fees in these cases were projected to increase from the original DIP Budget estimate of $51 million by an additional $46 million, to a total of $91 million through the year end exit, "principally as a result of the Committee's litigation efforts."

19. The accuracy of this characterization was borne out by subsequent events. The Committee pursued discovery on the DIP financing where there was no competing alternative, litigated the UnitedHealthcare settlement motion which rested in the sound business judgment of the Debtors, and launched "extremely broad" discovery in connection with plan confirmation, all in furtherance of a completely unsupportable valuation theory. As the Consenting Creditors warned in their October 28 Statement, filed well before the bulk of the confirmation related billing occurred, the Committee's valuation theory required proving an enterprise value at least 65% higher than the Debtors' midpoint valuation. Despite this warning, White & Case continued to generate millions in fees pursuing it. The Committee ultimately failed to prevail on its confirmation objection, and the Court confirmed the Plan on December 15, 2025.

20. The Committee's professionals, White & Case and AlixPartners combined, generated nearly $20 million in fees and expenses in less than four months, while the unsecured creditors they were ostensibly protecting received a fraction of the $30 million initially demanded.

21. The fees were not a byproduct of vigorous but reasonable advocacy. They were the direct fulfillment of the threat made at the outset: if the $30 million was not paid to the class, the professionals would ensure that the money was extracted from the estate in fees.

22. The fact that Mr. Greissman, the specific partner who made these threats, personally billed $1,027,000 over 111 days is itself powerful evidence that the threat was carried out. His billing pattern confirms it. He inserted himself into nearly every workstream in the case as a $2,500 per hour "monitor" and "reviewer," adding a supervisory billing layer on top of work already being performed by other partners who were themselves billing at $2,100 to $2,500 per hour. His $190,000 in monitoring entries alone, passively observing depositions conducted by other partners and watching hearings argued by other partners, represents precisely the kind of duplicative, non-beneficial fee generation that Section 330 was designed to prevent.

V. LEGAL STANDARD FOR ALLOWANCE OF PROFESSIONAL FEES

23. Under 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1), the Court may award to a professional employed under section 1103 "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by the . . . professional person . . . and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses".

24. Section 330(a)(3) requires the Court to consider the following factors in determining reasonable compensation:

a. the time spent on such services;

b. the rates charged for such services;

c. whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;

d. whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed; and

e. with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and

f. whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

25. Section 330(a)(4)(A) further provides that the Court "shall not allow compensation for . . . services that were not . . . reasonably likely to benefit the debtor's estate" or were "not necessary to the administration of the case".

26. Pursuant to Section 330(a)(4)(A), the fees related to White & Case's pursuit of hyper-aggressive discovery and litigation on issues where they had no viable legal strategy, including but not limited to the DIP financing, the UnitedHealthcare settlement, and plan confirmation, are not compensable.

27. In Barron & Newburger, P.C. v. Texas Skyline, Ltd. (In re Woerner), 783 F.3d 266 (5th Cir. 2015) (en banc), the Fifth Circuit overruled the prior Pro-Snax retrospective "actual benefit" standard and adopted a prospective "good gamble" test, holding that services are compensable if they were either "necessary to the administration" of the case or "reasonably likely to benefit" the estate "at the time at which [they were] rendered". The Fifth Circuit confirmed that the lodestar method — evaluating (1) whether the hours billed were reasonable, (2) whether the hourly rates are consistent with prevailing market rates, and (3) all other relevant equitable factors — remains the proper analytical framework.

28. Courts in the Fifth Circuit and this District have repeatedly reduced or disallowed professional fees for overstaffing, duplication of services, excessive rates, and billing for services that are not actual and necessary. See, e.g., In re Digerati Techs. (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2015) (applying Woerner lodestar; reducing fees for vague entries, lumping, overstaffing, and lack of billing judgment).

29. In addition, 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) provides that the Court may issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title. This includes the authority to reduce or deny fees where the professional has engaged in conduct inconsistent with its fiduciary obligations or where the billing practices are so pervasive and systematic that entry by entry analysis is impractical and a percentage or categorical reduction is warranted.

VI. SYSTEMIC BILLING PRACTICES

A. UNREASONABLE RATE PREMIUM

30. White & Case asserts in its Fee Application that its requested compensation is "reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title".

31. However, White & Case's own data directly contradicts this claim and reveals that White & Case is seeking a significant "bankruptcy premium" from this estate.

a. Partner Rates: The "Committee Blended Rate" for partners in this case is $2,221 per hour.

b. Non-Bankruptcy Rates: The firm's "Non-Bankruptcy Blended Rate" for partners in the same offices during the same period is $1,816 per hour.

c. The Disparity: White & Case is charging this estate $405.00 more per hour, per partner than it charges its non-bankruptcy clients for similarly complex work.

32. Furthermore, this "bankruptcy premium" is not isolated to senior partners at White & Case; it permeates the entire staffing structure of the engagement. For example: associates bill at a blended rate of $1,169.00 per hour compared to non-bankruptcy rate of $1,063.00. In summary, White & Case has a $194.00/hr premium for counsel, $106.00/hr premium for associates, and paraprofessionals are billed at $500.00 per hour exceeding the non-bankruptcy rate of $462.00.

33. White & Case has failed to justify why the Debtors' estate should be forced to pay a 10% to 22% surcharge above the firm's standard commercial rates. This inflation of rates, combined with the "siege strategy", further proves that the $14 million fee request is designed to fulfill White & Case's initial $30 million threat rather than provide reasonable and necessary services to the estate.

B. INADEQUATE VOLUNTARY REDUCTIONS

34. In its Fee Application, White & Case attempts to demonstrate "billing judgment" by explaining that it "voluntarily elected to reduce its fees by 377.8 hours totaling $487,911.00".

35. While it appears that White & Case presents this as a significant concession, a mathematical analysis reveals it is a small gesture that fails to address the systemic overbilling identified in this Objection.

36. White & Case is requesting a final allowance of $13,893,521.00 in fees. Against this total, the "voluntary" reduction of $487,911.00 represents a mere 3.5% of the total fees generated. A 3.5% "haircut" is a woefully inadequate remedy for a billing record where partners routinely billed $2,500 per hour to "monitor" depositions or attend meetings with no active role.

37. Furthermore, in the Fee Application, White & Case's (a) average hourly rate for attorneys is $1,466.00; and (b) the total attorney hours covered is 9,298.0. Therefore, a reduction of only 377.80 hours, across 54 timekeepers over 111 days, amounts to a reduction of less than 4 minutes per timekeeper per day.

38. This is not billing judgment; it is a rounding error.

39. Finally, the reductions mask the “bankruptcy premium”. As noted previously, White & Case's "Committee Blended Rate" of $1,414 is significantly higher than its "Non-Bankruptcy Blended Rate" of $1,272. White & Case explicitly states that its blended rate calculation "does not reflect the voluntary reductions made by White & Case. Even if the $487,911.00 reduction were applied to the partner rates, the partners would still be billing at a rate far exceeding the $1,816 non-bankruptcy average.

40. The "voluntary reduction" appears to be an attempt to create the illusion of restraint while the firm simultaneously extracts a 22% premium over its standard commercial rates for partner time.

C. BLOCK BILLING AND VAGUE TIME ENTRIES

41. Throughout the Fee Application, White & Case often fails to keep detailed time records and instead lumps time together. This type of “block billing" prevents the Court and parties in interest from assessing the reasonableness of the time spent on any individual task. As a result of lumping fees, White & Case can bury tens of thousands of dollars in single-day entries that were either vague or unusually large.

42. In several instances, associates billed 10 to 13 hours in a single day with virtually no description of the specific work performed or documents reviewed.

43. Several timekeepers billed unusually long hours in a single 24-hour period, which was likely made possible by lumping together endless lists of sub-tasks. For example, on December 7, 2025, one attorney billed 18.60 in a dingle day packing 12 distinct tasks into a massive block entry that included drafting cross outlines, reviewing exhibits, reviewing liquidation research, drafting memos, and holding multiple calls for a total cost of $22,692.00.

ADMITTED CATEGORY OVERLAP

44. White & Case admits in its Fee Application that there was “extensive overlap between project categories B16 and B17. White & Case also admits in Footnote 25 that its project categories are “interconnected” and “overlap”. This is a tacit admission of "lumping" and "block billing."

45. This lack of clear boundaries makes it impossible for the Court to determine if the $2.8 million billed for Investigation (B16) is duplicative of the $4.2 million billed for Discovery (B12).

46. Furthermore, White & Case also admits in the Fee Application that “extensive overlap” exists between the category called, “Investigation of Causes of Action” and B17(Lien Challenge), suggesting the investigation lacked even a clear scope definition.

47. This overlap is a mechanism to hide “gang billing” and prevents the Court from performing the highly detail-driven review required to protect the estate.

D. OVERSTAFFED AND DUPLICATIVE EFFORTS

48. White & Case staffed this 111-day engagement with 54 unique timekeepers, including thirteen partners, and billed the estate over $14 million in less than four months. The sheer volume of attorneys deployed on virtually every task in this case is not a reflection of complexity. The overstaffing was not episodic or limited to a few isolated incidents. It was systematic, pervasive, and applied with equal force to the most consequential matters in the case and the most routine.

49. At hearings, White & Case routinely dispatched armies of attorneys to sit in the courtroom. On the first day of the DIP hearing, nine attorneys attended, including five partners billing between $1,900 and $2,500 per hour. At the confirmation hearing, as many as fourteen attorneys billed on a single day, with the estate paying over $200,000 per day for hearing attendance alone. At the UHC settlement hearing, a three-hour proceeding on an objection, eight attorneys attended.

50. The same pattern infected depositions. At nearly every deposition, the firm sent between four and seven attorneys while a $2,500 per hour partner billed thousands of dollars to passively "monitor" a deposition being conducted by another partner.

51. Drafting was no different. When White & Case drafted the Committee's Standing Motion and Complaint, twelve attorneys billed the estate over a two-day period, generating $223,004.00 in fees for a single pleading. When the firm drafted the UHC settlement objection, twelve attorneys touched the document over the course of a week. When the firm prepared its own ten-page retention application, ten timekeepers were involved, and a single associate spent 48.2 hours on what should have been a half day project at most.

52. The pattern was always the same: a junior attorney would draft, a senior associate would revise, a partner would review, a second partner would review the first partner's review, and then additional attorneys would "confer" about the result.

53. Committee meetings followed the identical model. Across eighteen formal Committee calls during the case, White & Case routinely billed for ten to twelve attorneys on a single call, including as many as six partners. In total, the estate paid $364,318 for White & Case attorneys to communicate with their own client, an amount that reflects not the complexity of the Committee's work but the number of timekeepers White & Case chose to put on the phone.

54. Even routine administrative tasks were overstaffed. Five different associates billing between $990 and $1,420 per hour updated the same internal work in progress tracker nearly every day, generating over $46,000 in fees for what amounts to maintaining an internal to do list. Eight pro hac vice motions, each requiring nothing more than a court form and a certificate of good standing, were routed through seven timekeepers at a cost of $11,365. Four attorneys, including three partners, billed $8,161 to review stay relief motions that the Committee never even contested.

55. The cumulative effect of this staffing model is staggering. When nine attorneys attend a hearing that requires two, the estate pays for seven attorneys who contributed nothing. When seven attorneys attend a deposition that requires two, five of them are billing for the privilege of observation. When twelve attorneys revise a single pleading, at least eight of them are performing duplicative work. Across every category of work in this case, White & Case applied the same formula: flood the matter with timekeepers, layer partner review upon partner review, and bill the estate for the full cost. The Retention Order required White & Case to "use its reasonable efforts to avoid any duplication of services." The billing records demonstrate that White & Case did the opposite.

VII. OBJECTIONS TO BILLING CATEGORIES

56. The Reorganized Debtors objects to each and every time entry and expense contained in the Fee Application on the grounds that White & Case's fees are the product of a coercive threat, and hereby preserve all objections under 11 U.S.C. §§ 328(c), 330(a)(3), 330(a)(4)(A), and 105(a).

57. The specific categories, entries, and examples identified below are illustrative and are not intended to constitute a complete catalog of every objectionable entry.

DIP FINANCING

58. The Committee's objection to the DIP Financing, a facility for which there was no competing alternative, served as White & Case's first major opportunity to execute its coercive billing threat.

59. White & Case assigned 18 attorneys to oppose the DIP Financing proposed by the Debtor, including 5 partners.

60. Project Code B11, which relates solely to reviewing DIP orders, negotiating with the Debtors, drafting the objection to the DIP Motion, and preparing for the contested DIP hearing, totals $828,944.00.In addition, White & Case billed for the following DIP related entries:

Project Code	Description	Dollar Amount
B12	Discovery	$218,452.00
B15	Hearing	$184,363.00
B05	Case Strategy	$28,118.00
B08	Committee Meetings	$4,709.00
B19	Travel Time	$8,556.00
B13	Hearing Exhibits	$7,548.00
	TOTAL	$451,746.00

61. In total, White & Case billed the estate $1,280, 690 to address DIP related issues.

OBJECTION TO CONFIRMATION

62. By the time the Committee launched its sprawling confirmation fight their legal and valuation theories were statistically and legally unsupportable. White & Case pursued the confirmation objection anyway, not because it was a "good gamble," but because a multi-day confirmation trial was the ultimate vehicle to generate millions of dollars in fees and force a settlement through attrition.

63. On October 28, 2025, in its Statement filed with the Court, the Consenting Creditors explicitly stated and identified the futility of the Committee's confirmation strategy. The Statement alerted the Court that the Committee's attempt to derail the plan was founded on a completely unsupportable valuation theory.

64. To drive a single dollar of recovery to the subordinated unsecured notes, the Committee needed to prove an enterprise value that was at least 65% higher ($545.5 million higher) than the Debtors' midpoint valuation. The Committee's ability to win this fight was impossible and that the litigation was nothing more than a "siege strategy" designed to press operationally struggling Debtors and very invested secured creditors into surrender by piling expenses onto the estate.

65. The futility of the Committee's strategy was compounded by the fact that it required simultaneously prevailing on three independent and untenable legal theories.

66. The Committee needed to prove: (a) the Debtors' midpoint valuation of $837.5 million was wrong and the Committee's doubled valuation of $1.66 billion was correct; (b) an unprecedented interpretation of Section 552 of the Bankruptcy Code that would, in the result in a paradigm shift for chapter 11 and the global secured lending markets; and (c) a complete unwinding of the Uptier Transaction including erasure of a validly executed subordination agreement.

67. If any one of these theories failed, the entire strategy collapsed. White & Case knew this when it deployed 54 timekeepers to pursue all three simultaneously.

68. Contemporaneous market data further confirmed the objective unreasonableness of the Committee's valuation theory. As of October 2025, while White & Case was generating millions in confirmation-related billing, the Debtors' First Lien Loans traded at approximately 43.7 cents on the dollar, the Second Lien Notes at 1.4 cents, and the Subordinated Unsecured Notes at less than 1 cent. At no time in 2025 had the market agreed with the Committee's valuation because none of the Debtors' secured debt instruments have traded at or near par value.

69. The market is a prospective indicator that was available to White & Case in real time and it knew that the Committee's theory was objectively unreasonable at the time the work was performed. Under Woerner, this is precisely the kind of contemporaneous evidence that demonstrates a strategy was not a "good gamble."

70. The Committee's own valuation rebuttal expert could not remember another time in his extensive experience where a Committee had presented its own view on a Debtors' enterprise value. Furthermore, the already-impossible 65% valuation hurdle was widening, not narrowing, while White & Case continued billing the estate millions of dollars per month. After the Debtors' Valuation was filed with this Court, the Debtors received additional contract terminations and notices of non-renewal from significant customers, representing a materially significant loss of revenue that impacted the valuation of the Debtors' businesses and that was not reflected in the valuation's projected revenues.

71. Every lost contract made the Committee's valuation theory less tenable. A reasonable fiduciary would have reassessed its strategy in light of these developments. White & Case instead continued to bill millions pursuing the same theory.

72. Despite this stark reality, White & Case ignored everything and unleashed a catastrophic wave of billing objecting to confirmation.

No. of Timekeepers	Task	Amount Billed
20	Draft objection to confirmation.	$522,766.00
21	Prepare for confirmation hearing	$752,505.00
14	Witness and Exhibit List	$311,785.00
10	Designate depositions	$156,561.00
11	Organizing exhibits and outlines	$937,316.00
17	Attend Confirmation Hearing	$821,666.00
8	Discovery/Depositions	$2,108,239.00
6	Travel (6 did not bill)	$57,826.00
9	Strategy for Trial	$345,379.00
	TOTAL CONFIRMATION:	$6,014,043.00

73. Aside from the fact that the objection to confirmation was unreasonable and not reasonably likely to benefit the estate at the time it was pursued, the other issue is the unreasonableness of the overstaffing related to confirmation. For example, 11 attorneys spent 115 hours in a single day organizing exhibits.

74. Spending over $2 million to conduct depositions can only occur when they are staffed by 7 attorneys including partners who bill at $2,500.00 an hour simply to "monitor" their partner conducting the deposition .

75. This is consistent with the fee-generation strategy: the depositions were not targeted at obtaining specific evidence to support viable claims. They were designed to generate billable hours across as many timekeepers as possible.

76. A good-faith fiduciary does not spend more than $6 million litigating an objection that requires proving an impossible 65% valuation swing. White & Case pursued the confirmation objection knowing it was futile because it provided the ultimate justification to flood the case with timekeepers and execute the $30 million threat.

UHC SETTLEMENT OBJECTION

77. White & Case's pursuit of litigating the UnitedHealthcare (UHC) Settlement is a prime example of the White & Case's scorched earth billing strategy. Without any legitimate hopes of success in opposing the UHC Settlement, White & Case billed as follows:

No. of Attorneys	Description	Amount
13	Drafting Objection, review, outlines	$61,000.00
8	Hearing	$46,000.00
10	Depo and Discovery	$58,605.00
4	Strategy Calls	$33,660.00
	TOTAL	$199,265.00

78. In total, 19 attorneys billed the estate regarding the UHC objection. The Committee lost the UHC objection at the October 30 hearing. However, White & Case spent an additional $426,328 on UHC-related work after the UHC objection had already failed.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS

79. White & Case billed the estate $364,318.00 to attend committee meetings. White & Case's overstaffing infected even the most routine administrative tasks, including weekly Committee update calls.

80. Across the 111-day timeline of these cases, there were at least 18 formal Committee meetings or update calls. The time records reveal a staggering pattern: rather than sending one or two attorneys to provide updates to the Committee, White & Case routinely had 12 attorneys at a time, including up to five or six partners on a single call.

VAGUE CASE STRATEGY ENTRIES

81. White & Case billed $168,708 across 124 separate time entries in its Case Strategy category (B05) that identify no legal issue, no substantive topic, and no work product — only the names of the individuals on the call. These entries, submitted by 18 different attorneys, consist entirely of descriptions such as "Strategy call with", "Internal strategy call," "Attend W&C team strategy call," and "Weekly strategy meeting with Alix Partners."

82. Section 330(a)(3)(A) requires that fees be for "actual" and "necessary" services. The applicant bears the burden of demonstrating both. A time entry that discloses nothing more than the identity of the participants on a phone call does not permit the Court to evaluate whether the service was necessary to the administration of the case, whether it was duplicative of work performed by others, or whether the time expended was reasonable. The Court cannot determine from "strategy call with S. Greissman" whether the call concerned a matter that benefited the estate or was even related to a pending issue in the case.

83. The $168,708 represents only the portion of the Case Strategy category where no topic could be identified at all; additional Case Strategy entries that could be linked to specific workstreams — such as the DIP Financing objection, the UHC settlement objection, and the confirmation fight — are addressed in those respective sections of this objection.

PRO HAC VICE APPLICATIONS

84. White & Case billed the estate $11,365 across eight routine pro hac vice motions — one for each out-of-state attorney seeking admission to practice before this Court. A pro hac vice motion is among the most routine filings in any bankruptcy case: the attorney fills in a standard court form with their name, bar number, and jurisdiction of admission, attaches a certificate of good standing, and files it on the docket. A competent legal assistant should be able to prepare and file each motion in ten to fifteen minutes. Eight motions, at fifteen minutes each, is two hours of work. White & Case billed 16.6 hours — more than eight times the reasonable amount — because it routed these simple forms through seven different timekeepers across multiple billing categories.

85. A $990-per-hour associate spent 0.7 hours "reviewing" the motions. A $1,370-per-hour associate "conferred" about them. A $1,110-per-hour associate "finalized and filed" one. A legal assistant spent 1.3 hours on the phone with the PACER Service Center activating a single attorney's CM/ECF account. Each motion passed through multiple hands, each of whom billed a fraction of an hour, transforming a two-hour administrative task into a $11,365 billing event.

LUXURY EXPENSES

86. The Reorganized Debtors object to the entirety of the expenses under 11 U.S.C. §105 based on the coercive threats made by White & Case.

87. In addition, Section 330(a)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code limits reimbursement strictly to "actual, necessary expenses". White & Case professionals consistently opted for premium luxury accommodations and high-end services, far exceeding the reasonable standards for a bankruptcy estate. For example, partners billed the estate for numerous multi-night hotel visits at luxury hotels like the Four Seasons in Houston and the Ritz Carlton in Boston. One attorney billed the estate over $3,000.81 for three nights at a hotel in Miami.

88. Not only did White & Case bill the estate for luxury hotels, but it also billed the estate for extravagant dinners. For example, on December 11, 2025, one attorney billed $1,877.51 for a single dinner.

RETENTION APPLICATION

89. White & Case billed the estate $87,678 across 82 hours and ten separate timekeepers to prepare and file its own retention application which is a ten-page motion that consists almost entirely of boilerplate statutory disclosures required by §§327 and 328 and Bankruptcy Rule 2014.

90. A single associate, billing at $990 per hour, spent 48.2 hours and billed the estate $47,718 to draft and revise this routine filing.

91. The balance was consumed by nine additional timekeepers who reviewed, revised, conferred about, and filed what one associated had previously drafted, including two partners billing at $2,100 and $2,500 per hour and one counsel billing at $1,900 per hour.

92. Mr. Greissman, the partner who threatened to use the fee process as a vehicle to extract his demands, reviewed this ten-page retention application on four consecutive days between October 6 and October 9, billing the estate $6,500 at $2,500 per hour to read and re-read a boilerplate motion that his own associate had already drafted and that another partner had already revised.

93. In total, the three most senior timekeepers on the retention application, collectively billed $14,780, nearly all of which consisted of "reviewing" a document prepared by junior attorneys below them.

94. A retention application of this nature should require no more than two hours at most by a single associate and a reviewing partner. The $87,678 billed here reflects the same pattern of manufactured layering and duplicative review that pervades this fee application.

ASSET ANALYSIS, SALE AND DISPOSITION

95. White & Case billed $2,660.00 under the Asset Analysis, Sale and Disposition category (B02) for a single entry by Partner F. Lupinacci on December 23, 2025 for "Review of new filing re: sale." Mr. Lupinacci bills the estate at $1,900 per hour. Earlier that same month, on December 6, Mr. Lupinacci billed an additional 1.2 hours ($2,280) under the Plan and Disclosure Statement category (B13) to review "Plan Supplement for any red flag issues." The Plan Supplement contains the very exhibits and transaction documents that would be filed in connection with any sale under the Plan, making these entries functionally duplicative work billed to two separate categories.

96. More revealing is the broader pattern surrounding the Plan Supplement itself. The Plan Supplement is a finite set of exhibit attachments to the Plan of Reorganization. White & Case billed nine separate timekeepers at rates ranging from $870 to $2,500 per hour to review this same stack of documents and then categorized the work across four different billing categories: B02 (Asset Analysis), B09 (Corporate and Securities), B13 (Plan and Disclosure Statement), and B16 (Investigation). On November 17 alone, four attorneys billed the estate to review the initial Plan Supplement, including Mr. Greissman at $2,500 per hour for "attention to Plan supplement" and Mr. Zatz at $2,100 per hour for "reviewing Plan Supplement."

97. By the time the final Plan Supplement was filed in late December, the estate had paid nine different attorneys in excess of $22,000 to read and reread the same set of documents. This is precisely the kind of category overlap and duplicative review that White & Case itself acknowledges in its Fee Application, where it admits that "certain of these categories may overlap with one another." The Plan Supplement is a microcosm of the $14 million problem: a single discrete task, fragmented across multiple billing codes and staffed with enough timekeepers to obscure the true cost of the duplication.

AUTOMATIC STAY ISSUES

98. White & Case billed the estate $8,161.00 under the Automatic Stay Issues category (B03) to review motions for relief from the automatic stay. The Committee took no position on these motions and filed no response.

99. Despite having no active role, White & Case assigned four separate attorneys to review and confer about the same filings, including three partners. Associate D. Litz initially reviewed and summarized the stay relief motion on October 10 and conferred with Partner A. Zatz, who separately billed 0.3 hours to review the same motion on October 15. By October 23, the matter had expanded to include Partner J. Shore, who billed 0.4 hours ($1,000) for a "call re: lift stay," Partner R. Gorsich, who billed 2.5 hours ($4,750) to review and analyze the motion and confer with multiple attorneys about it, and Litz again for an additional call about the same motion. Gorsich's 2.5 hours represent 58% of the entire category, and this is his only billing entry in the entire case.

100. In total, four attorneys billed the estate $8,161 across 4.5 hours to passively monitor stay relief motions that the Committee never contested. This is a minor category in dollar terms, but it is a powerful illustration of the billing culture that pervaded this engagement. Even on a routine monitoring task requiring no Committee action, White & Case managed to involve four timekeepers, including three partners charging between $1,900 and $2,500 per hour.

FEE APPLICATIONS

101. White & Case billed the estate approximately $98,000 across 87.7 hours and twelve separate attorneys to review its own time entries, draft its own fee statements, and prepare and file its own interim and final fee applications. This is the cost the estate was asked to bear so that White & Case could bill the estate for the privilege of asking to be paid.

102. One attorney billing at $1,110 per hour, who billed approximately 45 hours across 38 entries spanning October through December. The overwhelming majority of his time consisted of a single recurring task: "Review pro forma time entries or expense entries for [month] monthly fee statement for compliance with US Trustee guidelines and other requirements, including privilege and confidentiality." He performed this review for every month of the engagement, often billing two to five hours per session, sometimes multiple sessions per week, and occasionally billing the same review task for the same month on consecutive days.

103. White & Case then routed the same time entries through a second layer of reviewers who spent an additional 8.4 hours reviewing the same pro forma entries for privilege. A third associate billing at $1,370 per hour spent 1.3 hours doing the same privilege review that the second attorney had already performed. A fourth associate billing at $1,370 per hour then spent 13.4 hours across six entries "reviewing and revising" the fee statements that had already been drafted.

104. In total, four attorneys at rates ranging from $870 to $1,370 per hour reviewed the same set of time entries in sequence, each performing a function that could have been handled by a single competent billing coordinator, or at least one associate at reasonable hourly rate.

105. The layering did not end with the associates. After the fee statements were drafted and reviewed by four associate attorneys, three additional partners and counsel reviewed them again.

106. The final fee application narrative itself was drafted by an associate who billed 7.3 hours ($9,344) on a single day.

107. The fee application process illustrates in miniature the same billing pathology that infected every other workstream in this case. A task that should have required one staff attorney to compile time entries and one associate to draft the application instead consumed twelve attorneys across three months.

EXCESSIVE CLAIMS ADMINISTRATION

108. White & Case billed the estate $44,656.00 under the Claims Administration and Objections category (B07) across 26 entries and nine separate timekeepers. The bulk of this work fell into two phases. In the first phase, during September and early October, attorneys reviewed bar date orders and proofs of claim, which is routine Committee monitoring work. In the second phase, which consumed the majority of the category, White & Case assigned two attorneys to research claim objection procedures.

109. The claim objection research is objectionable on two independent grounds. First, the duplication is self evident: two attorneys at a combined rate of $2,410 per hour conducted parallel research on identical legal issues, conferring with each other and with Partner Zatz at every step, when a single associate could have completed the work in a fraction of the time. Second, the nature of the research itself raises serious concerns.

110. White & Case holds itself out as one of the preeminent restructuring practices in the country and charges the estate rates premised on that expertise. A firm billing at these rates should not need 14.4 hours of associate time to research how to file a claim objection in bankruptcy court. These are foundational procedures that any competent bankruptcy practitioner would know without billing the estate for the education.

111. White & Case billed $44,656.00 to "review" and "analyze" proofs of claim, and researching "claim objection procedures". Reviewing claims that aren't even being litigated yet is premature, yet White & Case billed the estate for this. Furthermore, a law firm of this caliber who charges an average hourly rate of $1,414.00 should presumably know claim objection procedures, and not bill the estate to research this issue.

VIII. RELIEF REQUESTED

A. PRIMARY RELIEF: COMPLETE DENIAL OF ALL COMPENSATION UNDER §§ 328(C), 330(A)(4)(A), AND THE COURT'S INHERENT AUTHORITY

112. As its primary relief, the Reorganized Debtors respectfully request that this Court deny White & Case's Final Fee Application in its entirety and award no compensation whatsoever under 11 U.S.C. §105.

113. White & Case was retained under §1103 to serve the interests of unsecured creditors and the estate. Instead, within days of its retention, White & Case delivered an ultimatum, pay $30 million to the unsecured class or the estate professionals would generate $30 million in fees, that placed its own fee interest in direct sub with the interest of the estate it was retained to serve.

114. Second, Section 330(a)(4)(A) provides that the Court "shall not allow compensation for . . . services that were not . . . reasonably likely to benefit the debtor's estate" or "not necessary to the administration of the case." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(4)(A)(ii). As demonstrated in this Objection, White & Case's core litigation strategy was not pursued because it was reasonably likely to benefit the estate. It was pursued to execute the fee-generation threat.

115. Third, the Court possesses inherent authority to supervise the professionals it appoints and to deny compensation when those professionals abuse their fiduciary position. White & Case, as a court-appointed professional owes fiduciary duties to the estate and its creditors.

116. A professional who weaponizes its court-approved status to threaten the estate with $30 million in fees unless its settlement demand is met has breached those fiduciary duties in the most fundamental way. The Court's inherent authority to police its own officers provides an independent basis to deny all compensation. See also 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) (court may "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of" the Bankruptcy Code).

117. A professional whose entire billing record reflects the execution of an extortionate threat is not entitled to be compensated by the estate it threatened.

A. First Alternative Relief: Drastic Reduction Under §330 and Equitable Subordination of the Remaining Fees Under §510(c)

118. In the alternative, if the Court declines to deny all compensation, the Reorganized Debtors request that the Court (a) drastically reduce White & Case's fees and expenses under 11 U.S.C. § 330 and (b) equitably subordinate the remaining allowed fees under 11 U.S.C. § 510(c).

119. As detailed in this Objection, the §330 factors compel drastic reduction in every single category billed. White & Case's fees are unreasonable under §330(a)(3) because of: (a) the deployment of 54 timekeepers in a 111-day case; (b) systematic gang billing, (c) a bankruptcy rate premium of $142 per hour above the firm's own non-bankruptcy rates; (d) block billing, (e) lumped entries, and vague time descriptions that prevent meaningful review; (e) admitted overlap between billing categories; (f) failure to submit any budget despite the U.S. Trustee Guidelines' expectation of budgeting; and (g) a cost-benefit disproportion in which White & Case's fees alone consumed approximately 44% of the maximum $32 million cash-out pool.

120. The vast majority of the fees are not "reasonable" under §330(a)(3) and are not "reasonably likely to benefit the debtor's estate" under §330(a)(4)(A), and should be drastically reduced, and equitably subordinated.

Equitable Subordination

121. The Reorganized Debtors further request that the Court equitably subordinate the remaining allowed portion of White & Case's fees under 11 U.S.C. § 510(c).

122. Section 510(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides:

> [A]fter notice and a hearing, the court may — (1) under principles of equitable subordination, subordinate for purposes of distribution all or part of an allowed claim to all or part of another allowed claim or all or part of an allowed interest to all or part of another allowed interest.

123. The Fifth Circuit established the controlling framework for equitable subordination in Benjamin v. Diamond (In re Mobile Steel Co.), 563 F.2d 692, 699–700 (5th Cir. 1977). Under Mobile Steel, three conditions must be satisfied:

a. The claimant must have engaged in some type of inequitable conduct;

b. The misconduct must have resulted in injury to the creditors of the debtor or conferred an unfair advantage on the claimant; and

c. Equitable subordination of the claim must not be inconsistent with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.

124. The Mobile Steel court further identified three general categories of misconduct that may warrant equitable subordination: (1) fraud, illegality, or breach of fiduciary duty; (2) undercapitalization; and (3) the claimant's use of the debtor as a mere instrumentality or alter ego. Id. at 700. Subsequent courts have recognized that equitable subordination may be applied to any creditor engaging in inequitable conduct, not merely insiders. See, e.g., In re LightSquared, Inc., 504 B.R. 321 (BANKR. S.D.N.Y. 2013) (subordinating claims of non-insider creditor that breached implied covenant of good faith).

125. Here, A professional retained under § 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code occupies a position of trust. Committee professionals are fiduciaries to the estate and its creditors. See 11 U.S.C. § 1103(c) ("[A] committee appointed under section 1102 of this title may . . . perform such other services as are in the interest of those represented"). A committee professional that weaponizes its own fee-generating capacity to coerce settlement has engaged in inequitable conduct fundamentally inconsistent with this fiduciary obligation.

126. The $30 million threat constituted precisely the type of overreaching and coercive behavior that equity courts have long condemned. By presenting the estate with this demand— pay $30 million to the class or we will consume $30 million in fees — White & Case leveraged their privileged position as court-approved professionals to extract economic value for themselves rather than their constituents.

127. This is the functional equivalent of a "hold-up" or "siege" strategy, designed to impose costs on the estate until the other parties capitulate. The Consenting Creditors explicitly identified this tactic: the Committee's "view seems to be that it has nothing to lose and that it might as well try to press operationally struggling Debtors and very invested secured creditors into surrender by piling expenses onto the estate.

128. The inequitable nature of this conduct is underscored by the objective weakness of the Committee's underlying legal theories discussed above.

129. Despite this, White & Case pursued a course of maximum fee generation, including unnecessary discovery, and conducting extensive confirmation hearing litigation, all consistent with their original threat.

130. The injury to the Debtors' estate and its creditors is direct and quantifiable. Every dollar in professional fees approved as an administrative expense under §§ 503(b)(2) and 330 is a dollar unavailable for distribution. Moreover, White & Case derived a direct and unfair advantage from the threatened conduct: the generation of over $14 million in professional fees and expenses in less than a four-month period.

131. Equitable subordination of White & Case's fee claim is entirely consistent with the Bankruptcy Code. The Code contemplates that professionals serve the estate and its creditors, not themselves. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 330(a)(4)(A) (prohibiting fees for services "not necessary to the administration of the case"), 328(a) (authorizing retention on "reasonable terms"). Using the professional fee mechanism as a coercive bargaining weapon perverts the very purpose of §§ 327, 328, 330, and 1103. Subordinating the fees generated through such conduct vindicates the Code's requirement that professional compensation be for "actual, necessary services" and restores creditors to the position they would have occupied had the inequitable conduct not occurred.

132. The Reorganized Debtors request that the Court, under § 510(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, equitably subordinate all or a significant portion of White & Case's fee claim. To the extent the Court determines that equitable subordination under § 510(c) is not the appropriate vehicle, the Reorganized Debtors request that the Court exercise its broad equitable powers under § 105(a) and its inherent authority under § 330 to deny all requested fees or reduce White & Case's fees to account for the coercive and extortionate nature of the fee threat and the resulting litigation strategy.

133. The remedy of equitable subordination is remedial, not punitive, and should be "tailored to offset the specific harm." In re Mobile Steel, 563 F.2d at 701. The Court should subordinate White & Case's fee claim to the extent necessary to offset the harm inflicted on the estate — that is, the excess fees generated by the "siege strategy" that would not have been incurred had the Committee professionals pursued a reasonable, targeted, and good-faith approach to their representation.

B. SECOND ALTERNATIVE RELIEF: DRASTIC REDUCTION UNDER §330 WITHOUT SUBORDINATION

134. In the further alternative, if the Court declines to apply equitable subordination, the Reorganized Debtors request at minimum that the Court exercise its authority under 11 U.S.C. § 330 to drastically reduce White & Case's fees and expenses as discussed above.

IX. PRAYER AND CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, ModivCare Topco, LLC respectfully requests that this Court enter an order:

1. Denying White & Case's Final Fee Application in its entirety pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 328(c), 330(a)(4)(A), and 105(a), and awarding no compensation whatsoever;
2. In the alternative, drastically reducing the fees and expenses under 11 U.S.C. § 330 and equitably subordinating any remaining allowed fees under 11 U.S.C. § 510(c);
3. In the further alternative, drastically reducing the fees and expenses under 11 U.S.C. § 330; and
4. Granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper, including but not limited to the disallowance of specific categories and entries identified in this Objection and any additional entries or categories identified at or before the hearing.

Date: March 5, 2026.

REPRESENTED PARTIES SHOULD ACT THROUGH THEIR ATTORNEY.

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

COMES NOW, ModivCare Topco, LLC ("ModivCare") and files this Motion to Compel White & Case, LLP to Respond to Discovery Requests, and would respectfully show the Court as follows:

SUMMARY OF FACTS AND RELIEF REQUESTED

White & Case LLP ("White & Case") seeks over $14 million in purported fees and expenses for 111 days of work. After ModivCare filed a detailed objection challenging the propriety and reasonableness of those fees, it served narrowly tailored discovery requests focused on the specific issues raised in that objection.

White & Case has categorically refused to produce any documents, admits it has not conducted any search for responsive materials, has not identified a single document being withheld, and has failed to provide a privilege log as required by the Federal Rules. Instead, it has asserted broad objections to every request and taken the untenable position that no discovery should occur. Effectively, White & Case asks the Court to approve its fee request based solely on its unilateral submissions, without providing an opportunity for even a cursory examination of the facts underlying the purported fees. This approach is inconsistent with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the standards governing fee applications under 11 U.S.C. § 330, and fundamental principles of fairness and transparency.

White & Case's refusal to engage in discovery is especially concerning given its acknowledgment that it has not begun to search for responsive materials. A party cannot assert burdensomeness, irrelevance, or privilege in the abstract while declining to determine what documents actually exist.

Accordingly, ModivCare respectfully requests that the Court overrule White & Case's objections in their entirety and compel full and complete responses to the Requests for Production.

RELEVANT BACKGROUND FACTS

1. On February 12, 2026, White & Case filed its Final Fee Application [Docket No. 1290], seeking a final allowance of $13,893,521.00 in attorney's fees and an additional $300,469.13 in expenses (the "Fee Application").

2. In its Fee Application, White & Case affirmatively represents that it has "satisfied its burden to demonstrate that its fees are reasonable."

3. On March 5, 2026, ModivCare filed its Objection to the Fee Application (the "Objection") [ECF No. 1354], challenging both the propriety and reasonableness of the fees sought.

4. On March 12, 2026, ModivCare served narrowly tailored Requests for Production on White & Case directed to the issues raised in the Objection (the "RFP"). (See Exhibit A).

5. On April 2, 2026, White & Case served its Responses and Objections to the RFP (the "Responses"). (See Exhibit B).

6. White & Case has refused to produce a single document, has not conducted any search for responsive materials, and has asserted across-the-board objections while withholding all information. White & Case has taken the position that it is entitled to recover more than $14 million in purported fees without providing any meaningful transparency into how those purported fees were generated.

ATTEMPTS TO CONFER

7. Prior to filing this Motion to Compel, undersigned counsel conferred with White & Case in a good faith effort to resolve the issues raised herein without Court intervention.

8. White & Case's position was unequivocal: it contends that this Court can and should determine the reasonableness of its $14 million fee request based solely on the record "as it exists today," without any discovery.

9. That position ignores the obvious. The existing record reflects only what has been filed, not the underlying facts concerning how those purported fees were generated, including, but not limited to, internal billing practices, staffing decisions, and other conduct that occurred outside the presence of the Court.

10. During the conference, White & Case expressly acknowledged that it had not conducted any search for responsive documents and did not intend to do so unless ordered by the Court.

11. White & Case's position is untenable. A party cannot refuse to search for responsive documents and, at the same time, assert that requests are unduly burdensome, irrelevant, or privileged. Such objections necessarily require a reasonable inquiry. Without one, they lack any factual basis and do not comply with the obligations imposed by Rule 26(g).

12. Despite these discussions, White & Case refused to modify its position, produce any documents, withdraw its general objections, or provide a privilege log, thereby necessitating this Motion.

BLANKET REFUSAL TO PROVIDE ANY DISCOVERY

13. White & Case's core position that no discovery is permitted and that the Court must decide its Fee Application solely on the existing record is legally and factually incorrect.

14. ModivCare's Objection raises serious concerns, including:

a. Purported fees were generated through coercive tactics;

b. Excessive staffing and billing practices; and

c. Work performed that was neither necessary nor beneficial to the estate.

15. None of these issues can be adequately examined based solely on the docket and pleadings. Critical information, including internal communications, staffing decisions, billing practices, and budgetary judgments, exists exclusively in White & Case's own files. Their refusal to produce these materials prevents ModivCare from testing the reasonableness of the purported fees claimed.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS MUST BE STRICKEN

16. In response to all 16 requests contained in the Requests for Production, White & Case asserts that it "will not produce documents responsive to this request at this time."

17. White & Case asserts no fewer than 32 general objections to ModivCare's Requests for Production.

18. Specifically, White & Case:

a. Asserts a blanket objection that ModivCare is not entitled to any discovery regarding its purported fees and insists the Court must decide the matter solely on White & Case's fee application and knowledge of the proceedings.

b. Objects to every request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and harassing, without explaining how these generic objections apply to the specific documents sought.

c. Objects to every request as seeking information that is not relevant or necessary to resolving its fee application.

d. Claims privilege over broad categories of documents without identifying any materials withheld or providing a privilege log.

e. Argues that the requests seek information already in ModivCare's possession and simultaneously claims that this information is privileged.

f. Objects to every single request as "overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case" without specifying how these generic objections apply to the specific documents sought.

19. General, or blanket objections are improper and prohibited, and have been for many years:

> The "prohibition against general [or blanket] objections to discovery requests has been long established." Hall v. La., Civ. A. No. 12-657-BAJ-RLB, 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 77180, 2014 WL 2560579, at *1 (M.D. La. June 6, 2014). Rule 33(b)(4) requires that "grounds for an objection to an interrogatory shall be stated with specificity." FED. R. CIV. P. 33(b)(4). And Rule 34(b) requires that a response to a request for production of documents, electronically stored information, and tangible things "must either state that inspection and related activities will be permitted as requested or state an objection to the request, including the reasons." FED. R. CIV. P. 34(b)(2)(B). In short, "[o]bjections to discovery must be made with specificity, and the responding party has the obligation to explain and support its objections." Cartel Asset Mgmt. v. Ocwen Fin. Corp., No. 01-cv-01644-REB-CBS, 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17857, 2010 WL 502721, at *10 (D. Colo. Feb. 8, 2010).
> Another court has put the matter at hand well: "General objections such as the ones asserted by [Defendant] are meaningless and constitute a waste of time for opposing counsel and the court. In the face of such objections, it is impossible to know whether information has been withheld and, if so, why. This is particularly true in cases like this where multiple 'general objections' are incorporated into many of the responses with no attempt to show the application of each objection to the particular request." Weems v. Hodnett, No. 10-cv-1452, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 80746, 2011 WL 3100554, at *1 (W.D. La. July 25, 2011).
> Heller v. City of Dallas, 303 F.R.D. 466, 483 (N.D. Tex. 2014)

20. These objections should be stricken in their entirety.

BOILERPLATE OBJECTIONS ARE INVALID AND WAIVED

21. For every request, White & Case repeats the same formulaic objections: “overly broad,” “unduly burdensome,” “not proportional,”, “privileged” and “irrelevant.”

22. These are textbook boilerplate objections. They are legally insufficient because White & Case:

a. Provides no facts supporting an alleged burden;

b. Does not quantify cost or effort; and

c. Does not explain why the requests are disproportionate.

23. White & Case's boilerplate objections should be stricken.

> So-called boilerplate or unsupported objections — even when asserted in response to a specific discovery request and not as part of a general list of generic objections preceding any responses to specific discovery requests — are likewise improper and ineffective and may rise (or fall) to the level of what the Fifth Circuit has described as "an all-too-common example of the sort of 'Rambo tactics' that have brought disrepute upon attorneys and the legal system." McLeod, Alexander, Powel & Apffel, P.C. v. Quarles, 894 F.2d 1482, 1484-86 (5th Cir. 1990)(holding that simply objecting to requests as "overly broad, burdensome, oppressive and irrelevant," without showing "specifically how each [request] is not relevant or how each question is overly broad, burdensome or oppressive," is inadequate to "voice a successful objection"); see also Anderson v. Caldwell Cty. Sheriff's Office, No. 1:09cv423, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 62263, 2011 WL 2414140, at *3 (W.D.N.C. June 10, 2011) ("Moreover, there is no provision in the Federal Rules that allows a party to assert objections simply to preserve them. Instead, the Federal Rules require that objections be specific."); Mancia v. Mayflower Textile Services. Co., 253 F.R.D. 354, 358 (D. Md. 2008)(noting that, despite Rule 26(g), "boilerplate objections that a request for discovery is 'overboard and unduly burdensome, and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of material admissible in evidence,' persist despite a litany of decisions from courts, including this one, that such objections are improper unless based on particularized facts" (citation omitted)).
> Another court has observed that "[the] failure to particularize [overbreadth, undue burden, and relevance] objections as required leads to one of two conclusions: either the [responding parties] lacked a factual basis to make the objections that they did, which would violate Rule 26(g), or they complied with Rule 26(g), made a reasonable inquiry before answering and discovered facts that would support a legitimate objection, but they were waived for failure to specify them as required." Mancia, 253 F.R.D. at 364.

24. Worse, White & Case admitted it did not conduct any search for responsive documents.

A party cannot claim burden or proportionality without first making a reasonable, or in this case, any, inquiry. Rule 26(g) requires exactly that. These objections should be overruled.

PRIVILEGE ASSERTIONS ARE IMPROPER AND WAIVED

25. White & Case asserts sweeping privilege objections to nearly every Request for Production, yet fails to identify a single specific document withheld, provides no privilege log, and admits that it has not conducted any search for responsive materials. This is improper. A party cannot assert blanket privilege objections while refusing to identify what documents are being withheld or on what basis.

26. White & Case further fails to articulate any specific privilege with respect to any particular document or category of documents. Instead, it reflexively invokes the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, and "any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection," without limitation or explanation. Such undifferentiated, catch-all assertions are legally insufficient.

27. Moreover, none of the Requests for Production seek communications between White & Case and its client, the Committee. Rather, the Requests are directed to internal communications regarding billing practices, staffing, and fee preparation. These are subjects that, in the ordinary course, do not implicate privileged legal advice.

28. White & Case's blanket and unsupported privilege objections are improper, result in waiver, and should be stricken.

THE "ALREADY IN YOUR POSSESSION" OBJECTION IS BASELESS

29. White & Case repeatedly asserts that responsive information is already in ModivCare's possession.

30. It is unclear how communications among White & Case's employees could possibly be in ModivCare's possession, especially when White & Case simultaneously claims that the very same communications are privileged.

THE REQUESTS ARE NARROW, TARGETED AND DIRECTLY RELEVANT

31. The Requests are limited to a 111-day engagement and focus on discrete, critical issues including (a) billing practices, (b) staffing decisions, (c) fee application preparations; (d) deposition preparation; (e) budget; and (f) coercive conduct tied to fee generation. These topics go directly to whether the fees were reasonable, necessary and beneficial to the estate under 11 U.S.C. §330.

32. White & Case's repeated assertion that these topics are "not relevant" is neither credible nor tenable.

RFP NO. 1 -3 AND 13-14 (BILLING PRACTICES AND STAFFING)

33. These requests seek internal communications regarding billing expectations, staffing decisions, and time entry practices on this specific case for a 111-day time period.

34. White & Case argues these issues can be resolved from the existing record. That is incorrect. The record shows what was billed, not:

a. Why hours were generated in the first instance, including whether tasks, and the associated staffing, were necessary or duplicative;

b. Whether internal expectations, targets, or pressures existed regarding (i) the amount of fees to be billed in the case or (ii) total hours to be billed by individual timekeepers;

c. How staffing decisions were made, including whether the number of timekeepers assigned to particular tasks was driven by legitimate case needs or by a desire to increase billable hours;

d. Whether time entries were recorded contemporaneously or influenced by internal guidance regarding billing practices;

e. Whether "voluntary reductions" referenced in the fee application reflect genuine billing judgment or post hoc adjustments designed to justify an otherwise excessive fee request; and

f. Whether time entries were reconstructed.

35. They go to the heart of whether the purported fees were "reasonable," "necessary," and "beneficial to the estate" under § 330.

36. White & Case's burden objection is equally defective. A party cannot claim that a request is unduly burdensome while simultaneously admitting that it has not conducted any search for responsive documents. Without undertaking a reasonable inquiry, White & Case has no factual basis to assert burden, cost, or proportionality. Such objections violate Rule 26(g) and should be disregarded.

37. Finally, White & Case's blanket invocation of privilege is improper. These requests are expressly limited to internal communications among firm personnel concerning billing and staffing. Such communications do not, in the ordinary course, involve client confidences or legal advice and therefore are not protected by the attorney-client privilege. Nor do they constitute protected work product where they concern administrative or billing practices rather than litigation strategy. Furthermore, no privilege log was provided and no declaration was made that documents are being withheld as required.

38. In summary, these requests seek precisely the type of evidence necessary to test the reasonableness of a $14 million fee request. White & Case's refusal to produce any responsive documents cannot be sustained.

RFP NO. 4 (THE $30 MILLION DEMAND)

39. RFP No. 4 is narrowly tailored to support ModivCare's allegation that White & Case's fee generation was tied to a coercive demand that the estate either fund a $30 million payment or incur substantial professional fees. White & Case not only billed $14 million in purported fees and expenses, but its unnecessary litigation forced ModivCare to incur millions more in legal costs defending meritless disputes.

40. It seeks only communications among White & Case personnel concerning the $30 million demand to the extent those communications relate to billing practices or the relationship between that demand and anticipated or actual fees. RFP No. 4 expressly excludes communications reflecting legal strategy or mental impressions.

41. Furthermore, White & Case's objections on relevance and vagueness grounds are unsupportable. First, responsive documents would be directly probative of whether the purported fees were incurred in good faith and for proper purposes. Section 330 does not permit compensation for services pursued for improper leverage. Evidence bearing on this is plainly discoverable.

42. Second, the request is not vague. It identifies a specific event (the $30 million demand referenced in the Objection) and a specific subject matter (billing practices and fee generation). White & Case's claimed inability to understand the request is not credible.

43. Finally, any concern regarding privilege is addressed by the request itself, which specifically excludes legal strategy and mental impressions.

44. White & Case's refusal to search for or produce such materials is indefensible.

RFP NO. 5 – 7 (PRIOR FEE REDUCTIONS AND ALLEGATIONS OF IMPROPER BILLING PRACTICES)

45. RFP Nos. 5, 6 and 7 seek (i) court orders and rulings reducing or disallowing White &

Case's purported fees based on improper billing or litigation practices, and (ii) pleadings in other bankruptcy cases in which parties alleged materially similar misconduct.

46. These requests go directly to issues raised in the Objection, namely, whether the billing and litigation practices at issue here are isolated to this case or part of a broader, repeated pattern.

47. White & Case argues that materials from "other cases" are categorically irrelevant. That is incorrect. The Objection does not merely dispute line items. It alleges systemic billing and litigation practices, including, but not limited to, overstaffing, excessive billing, and "scorched earth" tactics designed to generate fees. Evidence that similar concerns have been raised or sustained by other courts is directly relevant because White & Case's state of mind, intent, and course of conduct are at issue in the Objection.

48. White & Case's assertion that the requests are overly broad because they seek materials from "any case" ignores both the nature of the issues and the ease of reasonable limitation. First, these requests are inherently self-limiting. They do not seek all documents from all cases. They seek a discrete subset of materials:

a. Judicial decisions addressing fee reductions or disallowances based on specific categories of misconduct; and

b. Pleadings asserting those same categories of misconduct.

49. White & Case never proposed any limitation to this request. Instead, it adopted an all-or-nothing position, refusing even to identify whether responsive materials exist.

50. That is not a proportionality objection. It is a refusal to engage in discovery.

51. White & Case contends that the requests are burdensome because responsive materials, "if they exist," are publicly available. That objection fails for multiple reasons. First, the requests seek materials known to White & Case, not materials theoretically available somewhere in the public domain. White & Case is uniquely positioned to identify:

a. Cases in which its purported fees were challenged or reduced;

b. Allegations made against it; and

c. Rulings addressing its billing practices.

52. Here, ModivCare has no way of knowing which cases to search for. Without that foundational information, the "public availability" objection is meaningless. At minimum, White & Case should be required to identify responsive cases and provide basic information (case name, court, and docket number), even if the Court ultimately limits production of full pleadings or orders.

53. White & Case argues that terms such as "unnecessary litigation," "scorched earth tactics," or "billing not reasonably likely to benefit the estate" are vague.

54. White & Case is a sophisticated law firm whose hourly rates are among the highest in the country. It cannot plausibly claim that it does not understand these terms. Most importantly, White & Case did not seek clarification during the meet-and-confer process. It just refused to produce anything.

55. Finally, White & Case asserts that responding to these requests are burdensome without making any effort to conduct a search for responsive materials. It is troublesome on its face that there would be so many pleadings and orders entered against them for their billing practices that it would create such a burden.

RFP NO. 8 (COMMUNICATIONS REGARDING THE CONSENTING CREDITORS' STATEMENTS)

56. RFP No. 8 seeks internal communications among White & Case personnel referencing the Consenting Creditors' Statement filed at Docket No. 589, to the extent those communications relate to billing practices, staffing decisions, or the volume of fees being generated in the engagement. The request is expressly limited and excludes legal strategy or mental impressions.

57. This request goes to the core of the Reorganized Debtors' objection.

58. The Statement (filed early in the case) was not a routine pleading. It was a direct and explicit warning that White & Case's strategy appeared designed to generate escalating professional fees as leverage to extract a settlement. It specifically cautioned that such an approach would burden the estate with unnecessary costs and harm creditor recoveries.

59. RFP No. 8 asks a straightforward question: How did White & Case respond internally to that warning (if at all) with respect to its billing and staffing practices after the Statement was filed.

60. The Statement put White & Case on contemporaneous notice of the precise misconduct alleged in the Objection. Internal communications reflecting how White & Case reacted to that warning are directly probative of:

a. Whether White & Case recognized that its practices were being challenged as potentially excessive or abusive;

b. Whether White & Case adjusted (or consciously declined to adjust) its billing and staffing practices in response;

c. Whether purported fees incurred after the warning were undertaken with appropriate regard for cost discipline and estate impact; and

d. Whether the subsequent escalation in purported fees was anticipated and knowingly pursued despite the risks identified.

61. If White & Case internally acknowledged the concerns raised in the Statement yet continued the same practices, that evidence would be highly relevant to whether the resulting purported fees were "reasonable" or "necessary" under § 330.

62. White & Case again asserts that the issue can be resolved based on the existing record.

That argument fails for a simple reason: the record contains the warning, but not White & Case's response or reaction to the Statement.

63. Furthermore, White & Case's blanket assertion of privilege is improper. RFP No. 8 is carefully drafted to avoid privileged material. It does not seek communications with clients, legal advice or litigation strategy regarding how to respond to the Statement. To the extent any responsive document contains privileged material, White & Case should have produced a privilege log to comply with Rule 26.

64. Likewise, White & Case claims burden without evidence and despite admitting that it has not conducted any search. A proper burden objection requires a reasonable inquiry and an explanation of the efforts required to produce them. White & Case has provided none of that. Its conclusory assertion of burden, untethered to any actual investigation, should be disregarded.

65. Finally, the proportionality of this request is beyond dispute. White & Case seeks more than $14 million in purported fees and expenses. RFP No. 8 seeks a discrete category of internal communications tied to a single, pivotal event that directly relates to whether those purported fees were generated in good faith and with appropriate regard for the estate.

66. The likely burden of locating such communications is minimal compared to the significance of the purported fees at stake.

RFP NO. 9 (PREPARATION OF THE FINAL FEE APPLICATION)

67. RFP No. 9 seeks internal communications concerning the preparation and drafting of White & Case's Final Fee Application, including how time entries were categorized, allocated, described, and presented to the Court. This request goes directly to the accuracy, reliability, and transparency of the Fee Application itself.

68. White & Case's argument that these materials are not relevant is untenable. The Fee

Application is not self-proving. Internal communications concerning the preparation of the Fee Application are directly probative of whether it accurately reflects the underlying work performed or instead presents that work in a manner designed to justify the fees sought, including:

a. Reassigning time entries across project codes;

b. Allocating time across multiple categories;

c. Addressing acknowledged "overlap" between categories; and

d. These are core issues under § 330.

69. White & Case again asserts overbreadth, burden, and vagueness without support. The phrase "assignment or reassignment of time entries" is not vague; it describes a common billing practice, particularly where time is reorganized for presentation in a fee application. Furthermore, the request is limited to a 111-day engagement and a single Final Fee Application.

70. White & Case admits it has not conducted any search, rendering its burden objection baseless. To the extent responsive communications involve administrative decisions about billing presentation, they are not privileged. They do not involve client advice or litigation strategy, but rather how billing data is categorized and described.

71. If any responsive materials contain privileged content, White & Case could have redacted the documents and provided a privilege log. Instead, they refused production altogether.

RFP NO. 10 (DEPOSITION OUTLINES)

72. RFP No. 10 seeks deposition outlines prepared or used by White & Case in connection with depositions taken during the engagement, with an express allowance for redactions of any privileged material.

73. This request is directly relevant to whether the time spent on numerous (and similar) depositions and the number of attorneys involved in preparing deposition outlines was reasonable and necessary under § 330.

74. The Fee Application shows how many hours were billed to prepare for depositions. It does not show whether that work product justified those hours. Deposition outlines are among the few documents that allow the Court to assess that issue in a meaningful way.

75. For example, if the same amount of time were billed to separate deposition outlines, yet they were nearly identical, then this would be important evidence for the Court to consider.

76. Furthermore, this request is narrow and includes built-in privilege protections. The request is limited to deposition outlines from a 111-day engagement which is a finite and easily identifiable category of documents.

77. It is also expressly tailored to address privilege concerns. White & Case is permitted to:

a. Redact attorney mental impressions;

b. Redact confidential client information; and

c. Withhold or log any portions that qualify as protected work product.

78. Given these built-in protections, privilege is not a valid basis to refuse production altogether. Similarly, the argument that the Court can assess reasonableness solely from the existing record ignores the obvious: the record does not reveal what work was actually performed prior to or at those depositions.

RFP NOS. 15–16 (TIME ENTRY METADATA, AUDIT TRAILS, AND BILLING SYSTEM IDENTIFICATION)

79. RFP Nos. 15 and 16 seek (i) documents sufficient to show when time entries were created, entered, modified, or submitted for billing; and (ii) documents sufficient to identify the billing or timekeeping system used by White & Case in connection with the Fee Application. Together, these requests address the reliability, integrity, and transparency of the billing records underlying White & Case's $14 million fee request.

80. RFP No. 15 seeks documents sufficient to show when time entries were created, entered, modified, or submitted for billing, including audit logs, metadata, or system-generated histories reflecting those events.

81. RFP No. 16, in particular, is foundational. Identifying the billing system used is a necessary predicate to understanding the data sought in RFP No. 15. Without that information, neither the Reorganized Debtors nor the Court can evaluate:

a. Whether the system preserves audit trails or metadata;

b. How time entries are created, edited, and stored;

c. Whether modifications are tracked and recoverable; and

d. What information exists to test the integrity of the billing records.

82. White & Case asserts that this information is "not relevant". However, these requests go directly to several core issues raised in the Objection, including:

a. Whether time entries were recorded contemporaneously or reconstructed after the fact;

b. Whether entries were modified, edited, or recharacterized prior to submission;

c. Whether billing judgment was exercised in real time or applied retroactively in anticipation of fee review; and

d. Whether the Fee Application reflects actual work performed or a curated presentation of that work.

83. White & Case's overbreadth and burden objections are equally defective. These requests are narrowly limited to a 111-day engagement and seek discrete categories of information maintained in the ordinary course of business within White & Case's own billing system. Identifying the system used and producing associated metadata or audit trails is not a document-intensive exercise, it is an inquiry into information that law firms typically maintain as part of their standard billing practices.

84. Critically, White & Case admits it has not conducted any search or inquiry. Without investigating how its own billing system functions or what data it maintains, it has no factual basis to claim burden, cost, or disproportionality. Such unsupported assertions violate Rule 26(g) and should be disregarded.

85. White & Case's privilege objections are likewise improper. The information sought is administrative in nature. It does not reveal client communications, legal advice, or litigation strategy. To the extent any responsive material contains embedded privileged content, White & Case may redact that content and provide a privilege log. That is not a basis to refuse production altogether.

86. The proportionality of these requests is beyond dispute. White & Case seeks more than $14 million in purported fees and expenses. RFP Nos. 15 and 16 seek objective, system-generated evidence and basic foundational information necessary to test whether the underlying billing records are accurate and reliable. The minimal burden associated with producing this information is vastly outweighed by its importance.

87. White & Case's refusal to provide even this threshold level of transparency underscores its broader position that its billing practices are not subject to scrutiny. That position is contrary to the Federal Rules and the standards governing fee applications under § 330. The objections to RFP Nos. 15 and 16 should be overruled and full responses compelled.

WHEREFORE, ModivCare respectfully requests that the Court strike the objections outlined above, compel White & Case to produce all responsive documents, and grant such other and further relief, at law or in equity, to which ModivCare may be justly entitled.

In re:	)	Chapter 11
MODIVCARE INC., et al.,	)	Case No. 25-90309 (ARP)
Debtors.[1]	)	(Jointly Administered)

WHITE & CASE, LLP'S RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO THE REORGANIZED DEBTORS' REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION

Pursuant to Rules 26 and 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (the "Federal Rules"), made applicable to this matter by Rules 7026, 7034, and 9014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), White & Case, LLP ("White & Case"), by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby responds and objects (the "Responses and Objections") to ModivCare TopCo, LLC's Requests for Production to White & Case, LLP (the "Requests," and each a "Request") served by the reorganized debtors of the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (the "Reorganized Debtors") on March 12, 2026.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

The following general objections ("General Objections") apply to each definition ("Definition"), instruction ("Instruction"), and Request, and shall have the same force and effect as if fully set forth in the response to each individual Request. To the extent that White & Case responds to a Request, White & Case reserves all objections as to relevance, materiality, competence, confidentiality, propriety, privilege, and admissibility, as well as to any and all other objections on any ground that would require or permit the exclusion of the response, or any portion of the response, if the response were offered into evidence. White & Case objects as follows:

[1] A complete list of each of the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") and the last four digits of each Debtor's taxpayer identification number (if applicable) may be obtained on the website of the Debtors' proposed claims and noticing agent at https://www.veritaglobal.net/Modivcare. Debtor Modivcare Inc.'s principal place of business and the Debtors' service address in these Chapter 11 Cases is 6900 E. Layton Avenue, Suite 1100 & 1200, Denver, Colorado 80237.

1. White & Case objects to each Definition, Instruction, and Request to the extent they purport to impose different or broader requirements or obligations than those contained in the Federal Rules, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, the Bankruptcy Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas, or any other applicable law, rule, or order of this Court (collectively, the "Rules"). White & Case will construct and respond to the Requests in a manner consistent with White & Case's obligations under the Rules.

2. White & Case objects to the Requests to the extent that they purport to require White & Case to conduct anything beyond a reasonable search for readily accessible information relevant, probative, and proportional to the needs of assessing the relief sought in White & Case LLP's Final Application for Allowance of Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses for the Period From September 9, 2025 Through December 29, 2025 [Dkt. No. 1290] (the "W&C Fee Application").

3. White & Case objects to the Requests to the extent that they are overbroad, unduly burdensome, cumulative, or duplicative, not proportional to the needs of the case, or designed to harass White & Case. White & Case objects to the Requests to the extent that they call for the production of "all" or "any" Documents pertaining to a subject on the grounds that such Requests are overly broad, unduly burdensome and not proportional to the needs of the case so as to make it impossible to identify the limits of the inquiry. To the extent White & Case produces documents in response to any Request, White & Case does not represent that "all" or "any" documents responsive to any Request will be collected or produced.

4. White & Case objects to each and every Request to the extent that it is not reasonably limited in time or otherwise not limited to a time frame relevant to the W&C Fee Application. Each such Request is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and seeks the discovery of information or documents that are not relevant to the subject matter of this proceeding and/or not proportional to the needs of this case.

5. White & Case objects to the Requests to the extent that they seek disclosure of documents or information protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the common interest or joint defense privilege, or any other protection, privilege or immunity against disclosure available under any applicable law (collectively, "Privileged Materials"). To the extent White & Case produces documents, White & Case will not produce any Privileged Materials. White & Case expressly reserves the right to redact non-responsive, proprietary, commercially sensitive, privileged or protected portions of any documents that may be produced in response to the Requests. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) as well as any other applicable laws, rules, regulations, court orders, or agreements, if any Privileged Material is inadvertently produced or disclosed, White & Case does not waive or intend to waive any privilege or immunity from discovery pertaining to such Privileged Material or to any other documents or information and reserves the right to demand the return of all copies of any such document(s). To the extent that there are inconsistencies in the types of privilege or other protections asserted with respect to various copies of the same document, the most comprehensive privilege or protection is intended to apply to all copies of such document.

6. White & Case objects to the Requests to the extent that they seek documents containing confidential, personal, private, proprietary, or sensitive business information; or information protected from disclosure by any law (including, but not limited to, foreign laws), court order, or any agreement with respect to confidentiality or non-disclosure (collectively, "Confidential Materials"). White & Case reserves the right to redact any documents that may be produced including, but not limited to, the right to redact personally identifying information.

7. White & Case objects to each Request to the extent it expressly or impliedly assumes the existence of facts or circumstances that do not or did not exist, or states or assumes legal or factual conclusions. White & Case does not admit any factual or legal premise in these Requests. White & Case's Responses and Objections should not be construed as: (a) any admission as to the propriety of any Request; (b) an agreement as to erroneous assumptions or incorrect factual predicates contained in any Request; (c) an acknowledgment that documents or other items responsive to any Request exist; (d) a waiver of the General Objections or the objections asserted in response to specific Requests; (e) an admission as to the relevance or admissibility into evidence of any documents, items, materials, communications, or information; (f) an admission, concession, or waiver as to the validity of any claim or defense; or (g) an agreement that requests for similar documents, items, materials, communications, or information will be treated similarly.

8. White & Case objects to each Request to the extent that it seeks information that is in the possession, custody, or control of the Reorganized Debtors, publicly available, or can be obtained from another more convenient, less expensive, or less burdensome source.

9. White & Cases objects to each Request to the extent that it seeks to impose an obligation to provide information not in White & Case's possession, custody, or control, or to create documents that do not exist.

10. To the extent any term defined or used in the Requests is used in responding to the Requests, it is not accepted or conceded that any such term or definition is appropriate, descriptive or accurate.

11. White & Case objects to each Request to the extent that it requires White & Case to search for and produce electronically stored documents from sources that are not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost.

12. White & Case preserves (a) all rights to object on any ground to the use of any document or information produced in response to the Requests or the subject matter thereof, in any proceeding; and (b) all rights to object on any ground to any request for further responses to the Requests or any other document request.

13. Any documents produced in response to any Request are solely for use in these chapter 11 cases and shall be governed by the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement and Stipulated Protective Order [Dkt. No. 174] (the "Protective Order").

14. The Responses and Objections represent White & Case's present knowledge, information, and belief. White & Case reserves the right to supplement, amend, correct, clarify or modify these responses and objections as additional information becomes known, including based on discovery and future developments in this action.

OBJECTIONS TO DEFINITIONS

White & Case objects to the following definitions in the Requests. The failure to object to any of the definitions shall not be deemed a waiver of any objections or a concession that any of the definitions are factually accurate.

1. White & Case objects to the Definition of "Billing Practices" as it contains improper assumptions concerning alleged billing "goals, targets, [or] expectations" and "revision or editing of time entries." White & Case further objects to the Definition of "Billing Practices" as vague and ambiguous for its use of "commentary" and "volume of hours," which are undefined.

2. White & Case objects to the Definition of "Communication" to the extent that it purports to impose burdens or obligations on White & Case that are broader than, inconsistent with, or not authorized by the Rules. White & Case further objects to this Definition on the grounds that it is overbroad, unduly burdensome, seeks to impose burden and expense that outweigh their benefits, and is not proportional to the needs of the W&C Fee Application.

3. White & Case objects to the Definition of "White & Case Personnel" as vague and ambiguous, overbroad, seeking to impose burden and expense that outweigh any benefit, and not proportional to the needs of the W&C Fee Application, because it purports to include "any other person . . . affiliated with White & Case." White & Case will understand "White & Case Personnel" to refer only to those employed by White & Case.

4. White & Case objects to the Definition of "Deposition Materials" as overbroad, seeking to impose burden and expense that outweigh any benefit, and not proportional to the needs of the W&C Fee Application especially in light of its purported inclusion of "any subsequent iteration, revision, or adaptation of any such document for use in a later deposition." White & Case will understand "Deposition Materials" to refer to the specific materials enumerated in the Definition without reference to "any subsequent iteration, revision, or adaptation of any such document for use in a later deposition."

5. White & Case objects to the terms or phrases defined by the Debtors to the extent that those terms and phrases are vague or ambiguous or beyond their customary meanings. White & Case has made reasonable efforts to understand the terms in the Requests as used in context, but White & Case makes its responses and objections based on its understanding of such terms and reserves the right to amend the responses and objections herein if the Reorganized Debtors assert different meanings of such terms.

OBJECTIONS TO INSTRUCTIONS

White & Case objects to the Instructions. The Requests target the production of materials from White & Case, a law firm, related to work completed by White & Case during its retention in the above-captioned cases. The burden to review and log Privileged Materials in response to such Requests is excessive and not proportional to the needs of the W&C Fee Application. To the extent White & Case withholds any information on the basis of privilege, White & Case will seek to meet and confer regarding the Instructions as they relate to a privilege log.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing General Objections, which are hereby expressly incorporated into each of the following specific objections and responses as if fully set forth therein, White & Case responds to the Reorganized Debtors' specific Requests as follows:

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 1

All Communications among White & Case Personnel concerning Billing Practices in connection with the Engagement, including but not limited to any communications regarding the volume of hours to be billed to the Engagement, any targets or expectations regarding fees to be generated from the Engagement, or any instructions or guidance regarding increasing or decreasing the amount of time recorded by any timekeeper on any task or matter.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 1

White & Case incorporates its General Objections as though fully set forth herein. White & Case objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and harassing because, among other things, it seeks information that is not relevant or necessary to the resolution of the W&C Fee Application or the objection thereto, which can be resolved based on the record already before the Court. White & Case further objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case, because, among other things, it seeks "All Communications" without limitation. White & Case further objects to this Request on the basis that it is vague and ambiguous, including because it requests production of communications concerning "Billing Practices," a vague and ambiguous term as defined in the Requests. White & Case further objects to this Request as seeking documents or information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, and/or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection. White & Case further objects to this Request as not relevant and because the burden and expense of searching for responsive non-privileged communications, if any exist, outweigh any benefits for the contested matter at issue. White & Case further objects to this Request as seeking information already in the Reorganized Debtors' possession and refers the Reorganized Debtors to communications by and among White & Case and Latham & Watkins, LLP concerning weekly budgets for work performed by White & Case during the Engagement.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 2

All Communications among White & Case Personnel concerning the staffing of the Engagement, including but not limited to any communications regarding the number of timekeepers to be assigned to any hearing, deposition, committee call, drafting task, or document review project, or any communications regarding whether particular timekeepers should bill time to the Engagement or to any particular task within the Engagement.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 2

White & Case incorporates its General Objections as though fully set forth herein. White & Case objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and harassing because, among other things, it seeks information that is not relevant or necessary to the resolution of the W&C Fee Application or the objection thereto, which can be resolved based on the record already before the Court. White & Case further objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case, because, among other things, it seeks "All Communications" without limitation. White & Case further objects to this Request as seeking documents or information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, and/or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection. White & Case further objects to this Request as not relevant and because the burden and expense of searching for responsive non-privileged communications, if any exist, outweigh any benefits for the contested matter at issue.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 3

All Communications among White & Case Personnel concerning the review, revision, editing, reduction, or write down of time entries recorded in connection with the Engagement, including but not limited to any communications regarding the "voluntary reductions" referenced in the Final Fee Application, any communications identifying specific entries to be reduced or written off, any communications regarding whether particular time entry descriptions should be revised before submission, and any communications regarding the criteria applied in determining which entries to reduce.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 3

White & Case incorporates its General Objections as though fully set forth herein. White & Case objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and harassing because, among other things, it seeks information that is not relevant or necessary to the resolution of the W&C Fee Application or the objection thereto, which can be resolved based on the record already before the Court. White & Case further objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case, because, among other things, it seeks "All Communications" without limitation. White & Case further objects to this Request as seeking documents or information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, and/or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection. White & Case further objects to this Request as not relevant and because the burden and expense of searching for responsive non-privileged communications, if any exist, outweigh any benefits for the contested matter at issue. White & Case further objects to this Request to the extent it is duplicative of Request No. 1.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 4

All Communications among White & Case Personnel concerning the $30 million demand referenced in the Objection, to the extent such communications relate to Billing Practices or the relationship between the demand and the anticipated or actual level of professional fees in the Engagement. This Request does not seek communications reflecting legal strategy or mental impressions.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 4

White & Case incorporates its General Objections as though fully set forth herein. White & Case objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and harassing because, among other things, it seeks information that is not relevant or necessary to the resolution of the W&C Fee Application or the objection thereto, which can be resolved based on the record already before the Court. White & Case further objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case, because, among other things, it seeks "All Communications" without limitation. White & Case further objects to the phrase "relationship between the demand and the anticipated or actual level of professional fees" as vague and ambiguous. White & Case further objects to this Request as seeking documents or information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, and/or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection. White & Case further objects to this Request as not relevant and because the burden and expense of searching for responsive non-privileged communications, if any exist, outweigh any benefits for the contested matter at issue.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 5

All orders, opinions, rulings, or decisions issued by any bankruptcy court in any case in which White & Case LLP served as counsel, that reduced, denied, or disallowed fees or expenses sought by White & Case on the basis of overstaffing, excessive billing, duplicative services, block billing, vague or insufficient time entries, unnecessary litigation, scorched earth litigation tactics, litigation tactics generally, billing for services not reasonably likely to benefit the estate, billing for services not necessary to the administration of the case, frivolous or baseless pleadings, conduct adversarial to the estate, or any other billing practice or litigation conduct that resulted in a judicial finding that fees requested by White & Case were unreasonable, unnecessary, or otherwise not compensable.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 5

White & Case incorporates its General Objections as though fully set forth herein. White & Case objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and harassing because, among other things, it seeks information that is not relevant or necessary to the resolution of the W&C Fee Application or the objection thereto, which can be resolved based on the record already before the Court. White & Case further objects on the basis that the Request, which expressly relates to other cases, is on its face not relevant to the W&C Fee Application or the objection in this proceeding. White & Case further objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case, because, among other things, it seeks "All" documents from "any case" without limitation. White & Case further objects to the phrase "unnecessary litigation, scorched earth litigation tactics, litigation tactics generally, billing for services not reasonably likely to benefit the estate, billing for services not necessary to the administration of the case, frivolous or baseless pleadings, conduct adversarial to the estate" as vague, ambiguous, and undefined. White & Case further objects to this Request as not relevant and because the burden and expense of searching for responsive non-privileged communications, if any exist, outweigh any benefits for the contested matter at issue. White & Case further objects to this Request as overly burdensome and harassing because it seeks documents that, if they exist, are publicly available.

Subject to a meet and confer between the parties and absent an order from the Court regarding the need for, or appropriate scope of, discovery in this contested matter, White & Case will not produce documents responsive to this request at this time.

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

COMES NOW, ModivCare Topco, LLC ("ModivCare") and files this Motion to Compel White & Case, LLP to Respond to Discovery Requests, and would respectfully show the Court as follows:

SUMMARY OF FACTS AND RELIEF REQUESTED

White & Case LLP ("White & Case") seeks over $14 million in purported fees and expenses for 111 days of work. After ModivCare filed a detailed objection challenging the propriety and reasonableness of those fees, it served narrowly tailored discovery requests focused on the specific issues raised in that objection.

White & Case has categorically refused to produce any documents, admits it has not conducted any search for responsive materials, has not identified a single document being withheld, and has failed to provide a privilege log as required by the Federal Rules. Instead, it has asserted broad objections to every request and taken the untenable position that no discovery should occur. Effectively, White & Case asks the Court to approve its fee request based solely on its unilateral submissions, without providing an opportunity for even a cursory examination of the facts underlying the purported fees. This approach is inconsistent with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the standards governing fee applications under 11 U.S.C. § 330, and fundamental principles of fairness and transparency.

White & Case's refusal to engage in discovery is especially concerning given its acknowledgment that it has not begun to search for responsive materials. A party cannot assert burdensomeness, irrelevance, or privilege in the abstract while declining to determine what documents actually exist.

Accordingly, ModivCare respectfully requests that the Court overrule White & Case's objections in their entirety and compel full and complete responses to the Requests for Production.

RELEVANT BACKGROUND FACTS

1. On February 12, 2026, White & Case filed its Final Fee Application [Docket No. 1290], seeking a final allowance of $13,893,521.00 in attorney's fees and an additional $300,469.13 in expenses (the "Fee Application").

2. In its Fee Application, White & Case affirmatively represents that it has "satisfied its burden to demonstrate that its fees are reasonable."

3. On March 5, 2026, ModivCare filed its Objection to the Fee Application (the "Objection") [ECF No. 1354], challenging both the propriety and reasonableness of the fees sought.

4. On March 12, 2026, ModivCare served narrowly tailored Requests for Production on White & Case directed to the issues raised in the Objection (the "RFP"). (See Exhibit A).

5. On April 2, 2026, White & Case served its Responses and Objections to the RFP (the "Responses"). (See Exhibit B).

6. White & Case has refused to produce a single document, has not conducted any search for responsive materials, and has asserted across-the-board objections while withholding all information. White & Case has taken the position that it is entitled to recover more than $14 million in purported fees without providing any meaningful transparency into how those purported fees were generated.

ATTEMPTS TO CONFER

7. Prior to filing this Motion to Compel, undersigned counsel conferred with White & Case in a good faith effort to resolve the issues raised herein without Court intervention.

8. White & Case's position was unequivocal: it contends that this Court can and should determine the reasonableness of its $14 million fee request based solely on the record "as it exists today," without any discovery.

9. That position ignores the obvious. The existing record reflects only what has been filed, not the underlying facts concerning how those purported fees were generated, including, but not limited to, internal billing practices, staffing decisions, and other conduct that occurred outside the presence of the Court.

10. During the conference, White & Case expressly acknowledged that it had not conducted any search for responsive documents and did not intend to do so unless ordered by the Court.

11. White & Case's position is untenable. A party cannot refuse to search for responsive documents and, at the same time, assert that requests are unduly burdensome, irrelevant, or privileged. Such objections necessarily require a reasonable inquiry. Without one, they lack any factual basis and do not comply with the obligations imposed by Rule 26(g).

12. Despite these discussions, White & Case refused to modify its position, produce any documents, withdraw its general objections, or provide a privilege log, thereby necessitating this Motion.

BLANKET REFUSAL TO PROVIDE ANY DISCOVERY

13. White & Case's core position that no discovery is permitted and that the Court must decide its Fee Application solely on the existing record is legally and factually incorrect.

14. ModivCare's Objection raises serious concerns, including:

a. Purported fees were generated through coercive tactics;

b. Excessive staffing and billing practices; and

c. Work performed that was neither necessary nor beneficial to the estate.

15. None of these issues can be adequately examined based solely on the docket and pleadings. Critical information, including internal communications, staffing decisions, billing practices, and budgetary judgments, exists exclusively in White & Case's own files. Their refusal to produce these materials prevents ModivCare from testing the reasonableness of the purported fees claimed.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS MUST BE STRICKEN

16. In response to all 16 requests contained in the Requests for Production, White & Case asserts that it "will not produce documents responsive to this request at this time."

17. White & Case asserts no fewer than 32 general objections to ModivCare's Requests for Production.

18. Specifically, White & Case:

a. Asserts a blanket objection that ModivCare is not entitled to any discovery regarding its purported fees and insists the Court must decide the matter solely on White & Case's fee application and knowledge of the proceedings.

b. Objects to every request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and harassing, without explaining how these generic objections apply to the specific documents sought.

c. Objects to every request as seeking information that is not relevant or necessary to resolving its fee application.

d. Claims privilege over broad categories of documents without identifying any materials withheld or providing a privilege log.

e. Argues that the requests seek information already in ModivCare's possession and simultaneously claims that this information is privileged.

f. Objects to every single request as "overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case" without specifying how these generic objections apply to the specific documents sought.

19. General, or blanket objections are improper and prohibited, and have been for many years:

> The "prohibition against general [or blanket] objections to discovery requests has been long established." Hall v. La., Civ. A. No. 12-657-BAJ-RLB, 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 77180, 2014 WL 2560579, at *1 (M.D. La. June 6, 2014). Rule 33(b)(4) requires that "grounds for an objection to an interrogatory shall be stated with specificity." FED. R. CIV. P. 33(b)(4). And Rule 34(b) requires that a response to a request for production of documents, electronically stored information, and tangible things "must either state that inspection and related activities > will be permitted as requested or state an objection to the request, including the reasons." FED. R. CIV. P. 34(b)(2)(B). In short, "[o]bjections to discovery must be made with specificity, and the responding party has the obligation to explain and support its objections." Cartel Asset Mgmt. v. Ocwen Fin. Corp., No. 01-cv-01644-REB-CBS, 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17857, 2010 WL 502721, at *10 (D. Colo. Feb. 8, 2010).

> Another court has put the matter at hand well: "General objections such as the ones asserted by [Defendant] are meaningless and constitute a waste of time for opposing counsel and the court. In the face of such objections, it is impossible to know whether information has been withheld and, if so, why. This is particularly true in cases like this where multiple 'general objections' are incorporated into many of the responses with no attempt to show the application of each objection to the particular request." Weems v. Hodnett, No. 10-cv-1452, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 80746, 2011 WL 3100554, at *1 (W.D. La. July 25, 2011).

20. These objections should be stricken in their entirety.

BOILERPLATE OBJECTIONS ARE INVALID AND WAIVED

21. For every request, White & Case repeats the same formulaic objections: “overly broad,” “unduly burdensome,” “not proportional,”, “privileged” and “irrelevant.”

22. These are textbook boilerplate objections. They are legally insufficient because White & Case:

a. Provides no facts supporting an alleged burden;

b. Does not quantify cost or effort; and

c. Does not explain why the requests are disproportionate.

23. White & Case’s boilerplate objections should be stricken.

> So-called boilerplate or unsupported objections — even when asserted in response to a specific discovery request and not as part of a general list of generic objections preceding any responses to specific discovery requests — are likewise improper and ineffective and may rise (or fall) to the level of what the Fifth Circuit has described as "an all-too-> common example of the sort of 'Rambo tactics' that have brought disrepute upon attorneys and the legal system." McLeod, Alexander, Powel & Apffel, P.C. v. Quarles, 894 F.2d 1482, 1484-86 (5th Cir. 1990)(holding that simply objecting to requests as "overly broad, burdensome, oppressive and irrelevant," without showing "specifically how each [request] is not relevant or how each question is overly broad, burdensome or oppressive," is inadequate to "voice a successful objection"); see also Anderson v. Caldwell Cty. Sheriff's Office, No. 1:09cv423, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 62263, 2011 WL 2414140, at *3 (W.D.N.C. June 10, 2011) ("Moreover, there is no provision in the Federal Rules that allows a party to assert objections simply to preserve them. >

24. Worse, White & Case admitted it did not conduct any search for responsive documents. A party cannot claim burden or proportionality without first making a reasonable, or in this case, any, inquiry. Rule 26(g) requires exactly that. These objections should be overruled.

PRIVILEGE ASSERTIONS ARE IMPROPER AND WAIVED

25. White & Case asserts sweeping privilege objections to nearly every Request for Production, yet fails to identify a single specific document withheld, provides no privilege log, and admits that it has not conducted any search for responsive materials. This is improper. A party cannot assert blanket privilege objections while refusing to identify what documents are being withheld or on what basis.

26. White & Case further fails to articulate any specific privilege with respect to any particular document or category of documents. Instead, it reflexively invokes the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, and "any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection," without limitation or explanation. Such undifferentiated, catch-all assertions are legally insufficient.

27. Moreover, none of the Requests for Production seek communications between White & Case and its client, the Committee. Rather, the Requests are directed to internal communications regarding billing practices, staffing, and fee preparation. These are subjects that, in the ordinary course, do not implicate privileged legal advice.

28. White & Case's blanket and unsupported privilege objections are improper, result in waiver, and should be stricken.

THE "ALREADY IN YOUR POSSESSION" OBJECTION IS BASELESS

29. White & Case repeatedly asserts that responsive information is already in ModivCare's possession.

30. It is unclear how communications among White & Case's employees could possibly be in ModivCare's possession, especially when White & Case simultaneously claims that the very same communications are privileged.

THE REQUESTS ARE NARROW, TARGETED AND DIRECTLY RELEVANT

31. The Requests are limited to a 111-day engagement and focus on discrete, critical issues including (a) billing practices, (b) staffing decisions, (c) fee application preparations; (d) deposition preparation; (e) budget; and (f) coercive conduct tied to fee generation. These topics go directly to whether the fees were reasonable, necessary and beneficial to the estate under 11 U.S.C.

32. White & Case's repeated assertion that these topics are "not relevant" is neither credible nor tenable.

RFP NO. 1 -3 AND 13-14 (BILLING PRACTICES AND STAFFING)

33. These requests seek internal communications regarding billing expectations, staffing decisions, and time entry practices on this specific case for a 111-day time period.

34. White & Case argues these issues can be resolved from the existing record. That is incorrect. The record shows what was billed, not:

a. Why hours were generated in the first instance, including whether tasks, and the associated staffing, were necessary or duplicative;

b. Whether internal expectations, targets, or pressures existed regarding (i) the amount of fees to be billed in the case or (ii) total hours to be billed by individual timekeepers;

c. How staffing decisions were made, including whether the number of timekeepers assigned to particular tasks was driven by legitimate case needs or by a desire to increase billable hours;

d. Whether time entries were recorded contemporaneously or influenced by internal guidance regarding billing practices;

e. Whether "voluntary reductions" referenced in the fee application reflect genuine billing judgment or post hoc adjustments designed to justify an otherwise excessive fee request; and

f. Whether time entries were reconstructed.

35. They go to the heart of whether the purported fees were "reasonable," "necessary," and "beneficial to the estate" under § 330.

36. White & Case's burden objection is equally defective. A party cannot claim that a request is unduly burdensome while simultaneously admitting that it has not conducted any search for responsive documents. Without undertaking a reasonable inquiry, White & Case has no factual basis to assert burden, cost, or proportionality. Such objections violate Rule 26(g) and should be disregarded.

37. Finally, White & Case's blanket invocation of privilege is improper. These requests are expressly limited to internal communications among firm personnel concerning billing and staffing. Such communications do not, in the ordinary course, involve client confidences or legal advice and therefore are not protected by the attorney-client privilege. Nor do they constitute protected work product where they concern administrative or billing practices rather than litigation strategy. Furthermore, no privilege log was provided and no declaration was made that documents are being withheld as required.

38. In summary, these requests seek precisely the type of evidence necessary to test the reasonableness of a $14 million fee request. White & Case's refusal to produce any responsive documents cannot be sustained.

RFP NO. 4 (THE $30 MILLION DEMAND)

39. RFP No. 4 is narrowly tailored to support ModivCare's allegation that White & Case's fee generation was tied to a coercive demand that the estate either fund a $30 million payment or incur substantial professional fees. White & Case not only billed $14 million in purported fees and expenses, but its unnecessary litigation forced ModivCare to incur millions more in legal costs defending meritless disputes.

40. It seeks only communications among White & Case personnel concerning the $30 million demand to the extent those communications relate to billing practices or the relationship between that demand and anticipated or actual fees. RFP No. 4 expressly excludes communications reflecting legal strategy or mental impressions.

41. Furthermore, White & Case's objections on relevance and vagueness grounds are unsupportable. First, responsive documents would be directly probative of whether the purported fees were incurred in good faith and for proper purposes. Section 330 does not permit compensation for services pursued for improper leverage. Evidence bearing on this is plainly discoverable.

42. Second, the request is not vague. It identifies a specific event (the $30 million demand referenced in the Objection) and a specific subject matter (billing practices and fee generation). White & Case's claimed inability to understand the request is not credible.

43. Finally, any concern regarding privilege is addressed by the request itself, which specifically excludes legal strategy and mental impressions.

44. White & Case's refusal to search for or produce such materials is indefensible.

RFP NO. 5 – 7 (PRIOR FEE REDUCTIONS AND ALLEGATIONS OF IMPROPER BILLING PRACTICES)

45. RFP Nos. 5, 6 and 7 seek (i) court orders and rulings reducing or disallowing White & Case's purported fees based on improper billing or litigation practices, and (ii) pleadings in other bankruptcy cases in which parties alleged materially similar misconduct.

46. These requests go directly to issues raised in the Objection, namely, whether the billing and litigation practices at issue here are isolated to this case or part of a broader, repeated pattern.

47. White & Case argues that materials from "other cases" are categorically irrelevant. That is incorrect. The Objection does not merely dispute line items. It alleges systemic billing and litigation practices, including, but not limited to, overstaffing, excessive billing, and "scorched earth" tactics designed to generate fees. Evidence that similar concerns have been raised or sustained by other courts is directly relevant because White & Case's state of mind, intent, and course of conduct are at issue in the Objection.

48. White & Case's assertion that the requests are overly broad because they seek materials from "any case" ignores both the nature of the issues and the ease of reasonable limitation. First, these requests are inherently self-limiting. They do not seek all documents from all cases. They seek a discrete subset of materials:

a. Judicial decisions addressing fee reductions or disallowances based on specific categories of misconduct; and

b. Pleadings asserting those same categories of misconduct.

49. White & Case never proposed any limitation to this request. Instead, it adopted an all-or-nothing position, refusing even to identify whether responsive materials exist.

50. That is not a proportionality objection. It is a refusal to engage in discovery.

51. White & Case contends that the requests are burdensome because responsive materials, "if they exist," are publicly available. That objection fails for multiple reasons. First, the requests seek materials known to White & Case, not materials theoretically available somewhere in the public domain. White & Case is uniquely positioned to identify:

a. Cases in which its purported fees were challenged or reduced;

b. Allegations made against it; and

c. Rulings addressing its billing practices.

52. Here, ModivCare has no way of knowing which cases to search for. Without that foundational information, the "public availability" objection is meaningless. At minimum, White & Case should be required to identify responsive cases and provide basic information (case name, court, and docket number), even if the Court ultimately limits production of full pleadings or orders.

53. White & Case argues that terms such as "unnecessary litigation," "scorched earth tactics," or "billing not reasonably likely to benefit the estate" are vague.

54. White & Case is a sophisticated law firm whose hourly rates are among the highest in the country. It cannot plausibly claim that it does not understand these terms. Most importantly, White & Case did not seek clarification during the meet-and-confer process. It just refused to produce anything.

55. Finally, White & Case asserts that responding to these requests are burdensome without making any effort to conduct a search for responsive materials. It is troublesome on its face that there would be so many pleadings and orders entered against them for their billing practices that it would create such a burden.

RFP NO. 8 (COMMUNICATIONS REGARDING THE CONSENTING CREDITORS' STATEMENTS)

56. RFP No. 8 seeks internal communications among White & Case personnel referencing the Consenting Creditors' Statement filed at Docket No. 589, to the extent those communications relate to billing practices, staffing decisions, or the volume of fees being generated in the engagement. The request is expressly limited and excludes legal strategy or mental impressions.

57. This request goes to the core of the Reorganized Debtors' objection.

58. The Statement (filed early in the case) was not a routine pleading. It was a direct and explicit warning that White & Case's strategy appeared designed to generate escalating professional fees as leverage to extract a settlement. It specifically cautioned that such an approach would burden the estate with unnecessary costs and harm creditor recoveries.

59. RFP No. 8 asks a straightforward question: How did White & Case respond internally to that warning (if at all) with respect to its billing and staffing practices after the Statement was filed.

60. The Statement put White & Case on contemporaneous notice of the precise misconduct alleged in the Objection. Internal communications reflecting how White & Case reacted to that warning are directly probative of:

a. Whether White & Case recognized that its practices were being challenged as potentially excessive or abusive;

b. Whether White & Case adjusted (or consciously declined to adjust) its billing and staffing practices in response;

c. Whether purported fees incurred after the warning were undertaken with appropriate regard for cost discipline and estate impact; and

d. Whether the subsequent escalation in purported fees was anticipated and knowingly pursued despite the risks identified.

61. If White & Case internally acknowledged the concerns raised in the Statement yet continued the same practices, that evidence would be highly relevant to whether the resulting purported fees were "reasonable" or "necessary" under § 330.

62. White & Case again asserts that the issue can be resolved based on the existing record. That argument fails for a simple reason: the record contains the warning, but not White & Case's response or reaction to the Statement.

63. Furthermore, White & Case's blanket assertion of privilege is improper. RFP No. 8 is carefully drafted to avoid privileged material. It does not seek communications with clients, legal advice or litigation strategy regarding how to respond to the Statement. To the extent any responsive document contains privileged material, White & Case should have produced a privilege log to comply with Rule 26.

64. Likewise, White & Case claims burden without evidence and despite admitting that it has not conducted any search. A proper burden objection requires a reasonable inquiry and an explanation of the efforts required to produce them. White & Case has provided none of that. Its conclusory assertion of burden, untethered to any actual investigation, should be disregarded.

65. Finally, the proportionality of this request is beyond dispute. White & Case seeks more than $14 million in purported fees and expenses. RFP No. 8 seeks a discrete category of internal communications tied to a single, pivotal event that directly relates to whether those purported fees were generated in good faith and with appropriate regard for the estate.

66. The likely burden of locating such communications is minimal compared to the significance of the purported fees at stake.

RFP NO. 9 (PREPARATION OF THE FINAL FEE APPLICATION)

67. RFP No. 9 seeks internal communications concerning the preparation and drafting of White & Case's Final Fee Application, including how time entries were categorized, allocated, described, and presented to the Court. This request goes directly to the accuracy, reliability, and transparency of the Fee Application itself.

68. White & Case's argument that these materials are not relevant is untenable. The Fee Application is not self-proving. Internal communications concerning the preparation of the Fee Application are directly probative of whether it accurately reflects the underlying work performed or instead presents that work in a manner designed to justify the fees sought, including:

a. Reassigning time entries across project codes;

b. Allocating time across multiple categories;

c. Addressing acknowledged "overlap" between categories; and

d. These are core issues under § 330.

69. White & Case again asserts overbreadth, burden, and vagueness without support. The phrase "assignment or reassignment of time entries" is not vague; it describes a common billing practice, particularly where time is reorganized for presentation in a fee application. Furthermore, the request is limited to a 111-day engagement and a single Final Fee Application.

70. White & Case admits it has not conducted any search, rendering its burden objection baseless. To the extent responsive communications involve administrative decisions about billing presentation, they are not privileged. They do not involve client advice or litigation strategy, but rather how billing data is categorized and described.

71. If any responsive materials contain privileged content, White & Case could have redacted the documents and provided a privilege log. Instead, they refused production altogether.

RFP NO. 10 (DEPOSITION OUTLINES)

72. RFP No. 10 seeks deposition outlines prepared or used by White & Case in connection with depositions taken during the engagement, with an express allowance for redactions of any privileged material.

73. This request is directly relevant to whether the time spent on numerous (and similar) depositions and the number of attorneys involved in preparing deposition outlines was reasonable and necessary under § 330.

74. The Fee Application shows how many hours were billed to prepare for depositions. It does not show whether that work product justified those hours. Deposition outlines are among the few documents that allow the Court to assess that issue in a meaningful way.

75. For example, if the same amount of time were billed to separate deposition outlines, yet they were nearly identical, then this would be important evidence for the Court to consider.

76. Furthermore, this request is narrow and includes built-in privilege protections. The request is limited to deposition outlines from a 111-day engagement which is a finite and easily identifiable category of documents.

77. It is also expressly tailored to address privilege concerns. White & Case is permitted to:

a. Redact attorney mental impressions;

b. Redact confidential client information; and

c. Withhold or log any portions that qualify as protected work product.

78. Given these built-in protections, privilege is not a valid basis to refuse production altogether. Similarly, the argument that the Court can assess reasonableness solely from the existing record ignores the obvious: the record does not reveal what work was actually performed prior to or at those depositions.

RFP NOS. 15–16 (TIME ENTRY METADATA, AUDIT TRAILS, AND BILLING SYSTEM IDENTIFICATION)

79. RFP Nos. 15 and 16 seek (i) documents sufficient to show when time entries were created, entered, modified, or submitted for billing; and (ii) documents sufficient to identify the billing or timekeeping system used by White & Case in connection with the Fee Application. Together, these requests address the reliability, integrity, and transparency of the billing records underlying White & Case's $14 million fee request.

80. RFP No. 15 seeks documents sufficient to show when time entries were created, entered, modified, or submitted for billing, including audit logs, metadata, or system-generated histories reflecting those events.

81. RFP No. 16, in particular, is foundational. Identifying the billing system used is a necessary predicate to understanding the data sought in RFP No. 15. Without that information, neither the

Reorganized Debtors nor the Court can evaluate:

a. Whether the system preserves audit trails or metadata;

b. How time entries are created, edited, and stored;

c. Whether modifications are tracked and recoverable; and

d. What information exists to test the integrity of the billing records.

82. White & Case asserts that this information is "not relevant". However, these requests go directly to several core issues raised in the Objection, including:

a. Whether time entries were recorded contemporaneously or reconstructed after the fact;

b. Whether entries were modified, edited, or recharacterized prior to submission;

c. Whether billing judgment was exercised in real time or applied retroactively in anticipation of fee review; and

d. Whether the Fee Application reflects actual work performed or a curated presentation of that work.

83. White & Case's overbreadth and burden objections are equally defective. These requests are narrowly limited to a 111-day engagement and seek discrete categories of information maintained in the ordinary course of business within White & Case's own billing system. Identifying the system used and producing associated metadata or audit trails is not a document-intensive exercise, it is an inquiry into information that law firms typically maintain as part of their standard billing practices.

84. Critically, White & Case admits it has not conducted any search or inquiry. Without investigating how its own billing system functions or what data it maintains, it has no factual basis to claim burden, cost, or disproportionality. Such unsupported assertions violate Rule 26(g) and should be disregarded.

85. White & Case's privilege objections are likewise improper. The information sought is administrative in nature. It does not reveal client communications, legal advice, or litigation strategy. To the extent any responsive material contains embedded privileged content, White & Case may redact that content and provide a privilege log. That is not a basis to refuse production altogether.

86. The proportionality of these requests is beyond dispute. White & Case seeks more than $14 million in purported fees and expenses. RFP Nos. 15 and 16 seek objective, system-generated evidence and basic foundational information necessary to test whether the underlying billing records are accurate and reliable. The minimal burden associated with producing this information is vastly outweighed by its importance.

87. White & Case's refusal to provide even this threshold level of transparency underscores its broader position that its billing practices are not subject to scrutiny. That position is contrary to the Federal Rules and the standards governing fee applications under § 330. The objections to RFP Nos. 15 and 16 should be overruled and full responses compelled.

WHEREFORE, ModivCare respectfully requests that the Court strike the objections outlined above, compel White & Case to produce all responsive documents, and grant such other and further relief, at law or in equity, to which ModivCare may be justly entitled.

WHITE & CASE LLP'S REPLY IN SUPPORT OF ITS FINAL APPLICATION FOR ALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES FOR THE PERIOD FROM SEPTEMBER 9, 2025 THROUGH DECEMBER 29, 2025

White & Case LLP ("White & Case"), counsel for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases of the debtors and debtors in possession (the "Debtors" and after the Effective Date, collectively, the "Reorganized Debtors"), respectfully submits this reply ("Reply") in further support of White & Case LLP's Final Application for Allowance of Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses for the Period From September 9, 2025 Through December 29, 2025 [Docket No. 1290] (the "W&C Fee Application") and in response to the Reorganized Debtors' Objection to Final Fee Application Filed by White & Case, LLP [Docket No. 1354] (the "Objection").[2]

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. As this Court has already seen, these chapter 11 cases were the result of a failed liability management transaction completed just six months before the filing, through which the

[1] A complete list of each of the Reorganized Debtors in these chapter 11 cases and the last four digits of each Reorganized Debtor's taxpayer identification number (if applicable) may be obtained on the website of the Reorganized Debtors' proposed claims and noticing agent at https://www.veritaglobal.net/ModivCare. Reorganized Debtor ModivCare Inc.'s principal place of business and the Reorganized Debtors' service address in these chapter 11 cases is 6900 E. Layton Avenue, Suite 1100 & 1200, Denver, Colorado 80237.

Debtors' secured creditors, led by the Consenting Creditors,[3] obtained security over substantially all of the Debtors' assets. Whether or not this uptier transaction had any realistic hope of avoiding chapter 11, once it failed, the unmistakable and oft-stated goal of the newly secured lender group was to take the keys to the company as quickly and inexpensively as possible. Their challenge was that the Bankruptcy Code creates procedural safeguards that must be respected in a chapter 11 case, even if a secured creditor group finds those requirements inconvenient, inefficient, or expensive.

2. The existence of an official committee to represent the interests of all unsecured creditors, especially in a case like this with millions in funded unsecured debt and thousands of trade vendors, is one such fundamental safeguard. And, once the Committee was appointed and represented, the process run in these chapter 11 cases worked exactly as the Bankruptcy Code envisions (and Congress intended). The Consenting Creditors and the Debtors had one view of where enterprise value broke. Under their view, unsecured creditors were out of the money and were legally entitled to nothing. Not surprisingly, the Committee, as an estate fiduciary specifically charged with advocating for the interests of unsecured creditors, developed a different view. And because the Debtors' Plan did not include any market test to set an objective view of value—a direct result of the strategy chosen by the Plan supporters—the question of where enterprise value broke had to be presented to this Court through a classic battle of the experts. This is standard practice in complex chapter 11 cases, and one that all parties understood would be expensive.

[3] "Consenting Creditors" refers to Q Global Advisors, LLC, HG Vora Capital Management, LLC, Redwood Capital Management, LLC, TCW Investment Management Company LLC, Metropolitan West Asset Management, LLC and TCW Asset Management Company LLC. The Consenting Creditors were represented by Paul Hastings LLP ("Paul Hastings") and included all entities listed in Exhibit A to the Verified Statement Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2019 [Docket No. 791]. The Consenting Creditors became the largest shareholders of the Reorganized Debtors as they had the right to appoint the Reorganized Debtors' board of directors. See Notice of Filing of Plan Supplement for the First Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of ModivCare Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 725], Ex. C-1.

3. At the Debtors' request, this Court approved a fast but fair process in which both sides had the opportunity to take discovery and make their case at a five-day confirmation hearing. At the conclusion of the confirmation hearing, the Court found that the Committee's valuation expert was "credible" and that his approach was "valid." The Court also stated that it was "very happy with the level of the quality of the briefs [and] the quality of the arguments." But, this Court ultimately ruled for the Debtors and Consenting Creditors and confirmed the Plan.

4. None of this is remarkable. What is remarkable and, as far as we can tell, unprecedented, is that post-emergence, the Reorganized Debtors (now controlled by the Consenting Creditors) have taken the position that the Committee's professionals, whose retentions were approved by this Court without objection, should be paid nothing for their work.[4] The Objection, together with the overbroad discovery served on White & Case,[5] is a transparent and vindictive attempt to force the Committee professionals to incur economic pain in order to be paid for their service to the estates.

5. This Court should reject this effort. But before we delve into the many particularized reasons as to why the Objection fails, it bears noting who filed the pleading—the Reorganized Debtors, not the Consenting Creditors. The Consenting Creditors' decision as controlling shareholder to cause the Reorganized Debtors to hire their former counsel and to object was presumably done to fund this fee fight out of their new portfolio company.[6] That strategic decision has one key practical consequence here: everything the Debtors did (or did not do) in these cases is, one way or another, binding on the only objecting party before this Court.[7] In that regard, the sole objector—the Reorganized Debtors—dictated the scope and extent of the fight and never once protested the Committee's staffing or spend for that fight as laid out in weekly budgets provided to them by the Committee. Nor could the Debtors protest because, as explained below, the Debtors were voluntarily paying significantly more to their own professionals to support their efforts to secure confirmation, all without comment, much less objection.

[4] The Reorganized Debtors have also objected to the fees and expenses incurred by the Committee's financial advisor, AlixPartners, LLP ("AlixPartners"), further evidencing the retaliatory nature of their fee objections. See Objection to Final Fee Application Filed by AlixPartners, LLP [Docket No. 1351].

6. Turning back to the substantive objections framed in the pending matter, White & Case respectfully requests that this Court bifurcate its consideration of the Objection and first consider the Reorganized Debtors' arguments on the law and the already extensive evidentiary record developed in these cases, without any additional discovery (which the Objection explicitly points out will be uncompensable under the Bankruptcy Code).[8] The core of the Reorganized Debtors' argument is that the Committee's counsel should be paid nothing because they advanced a frivolous litigation position as part of some alleged extortion threat to force the estates to pay unnecessary professional fees. This Court can and should dispose of this without any additional factual record. First, the Objection's reliance on the so-called "extortionist threat" represents a clear violation of Federal Rule of Evidence 408 that this Court should not permit. Putting aside the fact that the cost of defense is a legitimate consideration that is (and should be) discussed in

[7] Pursuant to the Plan, the "rights, benefits, and obligations" from the Plan are binding on any successor of the Debtors. See Plan, Art. XII, 10.1, 12.15.

[8] Given the Court's prior rulings, the absence of any support for the proposition that the entirety of the Committee's advisor fees should be disallowed or subordinated, the inflammatory and deliberate mischaracterization and disclosure of statements made during privileged settlement discussions, and the fuzzy and misleading math contained therein raise the issue of potential sanctions on account of the Objection. See Moser v. Bret Harte Union High Sch. Dist., 366 F. Supp. 2d 944, 950 (E.D. Cal. 2005) (imposing sanctions on attorneys for submitting pleadings and objections for improper purposes). Moreover, it is unclear whether the fact that the Reorganized Debtors filed the Objection would in this situation insulate the Consenting Creditors from sanctions, especially considering that counsel for the Reorganized Debtors appeared earlier in these cases on behalf of the Consenting Creditors. See [Docket No. 753]. If the matter proceeds to discovery, this will all have to be fully explored.

every settlement negotiation, this is exactly why the law does not allow the admission of settlement discussions as evidence. If discovery is allowed, it would need to include all parties and include the full context of these negotiations, including:

a) the unreasonable "settlement offers" the Committee was responding to;

b) the written and oral statements made by Latham (Debtors' counsel) and Paul Hastings (Consenting Creditors' counsel) concerning the Consenting Creditors' settlement proposals, their approach to these cases and their treatment of professionals;

c) the written and oral statements of the Consenting Creditors made directly to members of the Committee; and

d) the Debtors' own attempts to broker a deal.

7. While this expensive and expansive exercise would debunk the absurd allegations of wrongdoing in the Objection, it is unnecessary because none of that back-and-forth should be considered. Rule 408 shields such discussions, and that rule should be respected for all parties.

8. Second, the unstated premise of the Objection's extraordinary position—that White & Case should be paid nothing—seems to be that White & Case incurred these fees in support of purportedly frivolous positions taken before the Court. This contention can likewise be disposed of based on the existing record of those contested matters. The Court already presided over all of the disputes in these cases. There is no need for an additional trial to reopen contested matters, in effect, to award sanctions not sought on the first instances. In particular, because the entire confirmation fight turned on value, the fact that the Committee put forth credible opinions showing unsecured creditors to be in the money precludes any argument that White & Case's efforts to contest the Plan were frivolous. If the Reorganized Debtors want to explain why that is not true, they do not need discovery to do so.

9. Finally, the Objection's criticisms of White & Case's invoices can also be disposed of on the existing record without any discovery, as is the case with any final fee application. Among other things, this Court has already adjudicated the reasonableness of the Reorganized Debtors' counsel's own fees and expenses in this case, and Latham was litigating the same exact issues as White & Case on the same schedule. Latham's pre-confirmation fees were approved by this Court without objection from any party and, importantly, without a peep from the party paying them. A comparison of Latham's fees and expenses, which have already been approved as reasonable, to White & Case's fees and expenses, establishes that White & Case's fees and expenses are even more reasonable. In every area where the Reorganized Debtors now criticize, White & Case spent far less than the Reorganized Debtors' own counsel for the same task. To be clear, this is not a criticism of Latham or any of the other Debtor professionals. It is simply proof of the amount of work required in these cases. Like the Reorganized Debtors' own advisors, White & Case deserves to be paid for its work.

10. For all of these reasons, the Objection should be overruled.

ARGUMENT

I. This Court Should Bifurcate Consideration of the Objection

11. Courts have the sole discretion to bifurcate consideration of any claims or issues "[f]or convenience, to avoid prejudice, or to expedite and economize." See Fed. R. Civ. P. 42(b); Conkling v. Turner, 18 F.3d 1285, 1293 (5th Cir. 1994) ("[T]he decision to bifurcate is a matter within the sole discretion of the trial court."); see also EEOC v. Lawler Foods, Inc., 128 F. Supp. 3d 972, 974 (S.D. Tex. 2015) (holding that bifurcating discovery was appropriate because it is "the best means to secure the just, speedy, and efficient resolution of this action"). This Court should exercise its discretion and first consider the Reorganized Debtors' arguments on the law and the already extensive evidentiary record without any additional discovery. Aside from the alleged statements made during settlement negotiations—which are inadmissible and represent a clear violation of Rule 408 (as discussed below)—the Objection does not present any factual issues that warrant discovery.[9] See In re Assadi, 2025 WL 1576801, at *2 (5th Cir. June 4, 2025), cert. denied sub nom. Assadi v. Osherow, 2026 WL 79771 (U.S. Jan. 12, 2026) (noting that the fee objections "concern the legal conclusions the court should draw from the record" and holding that the objectors "fail[ed] to assert disputed factual issues that would benefit from 'testimony of witnesses' . . . ."). Courts in this District routinely find that time entries and fee applications are sufficient evidence to determine the reasonableness of attorney fees. See In re Lawler, 807 F.2d 1207, 1211-12 (5th Cir. 1987) (upholding the bankruptcy courts finding that "the time logs presented by the applicants with their application describe the services rendered by the applicants in sufficient detail and, together with the record of this case, adequately inform the Court as to the extent and quality of the applicants' services"); Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. v. Jones, 391 B.R. 577, 591 (E.D. La. 2008) ("[T]he Fifth Circuit has ruled that the submission of legal invoices is sufficient evidence to affirm a district court's fee award . . . . [T]he Court finds sufficient evidence of legal invoices, billing, and record keeping to uphold the Bankruptcy Court's award.") (citing K3C Inc. v. Bank of Am., N.A., 204 F. App'x 455, 466-67 (5th Cir. 2006)); see also Montalvo v. Tower Life Bldg., 426 F.2d 1135, 1150 (5th Cir. 1970) ("The rule that a trial court may award attorneys' fees without receiving evidence concerning the proper amount is not grounded in judicial arrogance. There is simply no good reason why a court should be required to subordinate its own expertise in the matter to that of others. A trial court has firsthand knowledge of the proceedings before it and is thus clearly qualified to place a value on (the attorney's) services without opinion evidence of an expert witness on the subject.") (internal quotations omitted). This Court can adjudicate White & Case's fees based on the record in these chapter 11 cases, including the W&C Fee Application, the Monthly Fee Statements, and the attached time entries.

12. Avoiding discovery into the parties' settlement discussions respects Rule 408 and will avoid an extensive, painful, and ultimately irrelevant discovery. If the Court were to consider the alleged "threats" made in the course of settlement discussions, it would need to consider the full scope of the entire settlement negotiation to put those statements into context. But every effort should be made to clear the underbrush first, particularly where fees spent in discovery may not be compensated. The only reason that the Reorganized Debtors would fight bifurcation here would be to ensure that the Committee's professionals had to spend time and resources that the Bankruptcy Code will not cover. And it is not just the Committee professionals' fees at issue—developing a full record would entail discovery of numerous other parties, including the Debtors, Latham, Paul Hastings, and the Consenting Creditors. This is not necessary to adjudicate the Objection. See Associated Builders & Contractors of La., Inc. v. Orleans Par. Sch. Bd., 919 F.2d 374, 379 (5th Cir. 1990) ("A request for attorney's fees should not result in a second major litigation.").

II. The Reorganized Debtors' Accusations Regarding Settlement Negotiations Violate Federal Rule of Evidence 408 and Are Meritless

13. The centerpiece of the Reorganized Debtors' Objection is their mischaracterization of statements made by White & Case in a settlement meeting as amounting to a coercive "threat." Obj. ¶¶ 15-22. The Reorganized Debtors allege that White & Case demanded that the Consenting Creditors "pay $30 million to the unsecured class, or the estate professionals would generate $30 million in fees through litigation" and threatened to "bury the estate in professional fees" if the parties did not reach a settlement. Id. ¶¶ 9, 15-21. The Court should not permit the Reorganized Debtors to weaponize settlement discussions.

14. First, Federal Rule of Evidence 408 prohibits the use of offers or statements made during compromise negotiations to prove or disprove the validity or amount of a disputed claim, or to impeach a party through a prior inconsistent statement or contradiction. See Fed. R. Evid. 408; see also Lyondell Chem. Co. v. Occidental Chem. Corp., 608 F.3d 284, 299 (5th Cir. 2010) ("Effective dispute resolution requires frank and full discussion of relevant evidence. Making the content of such a discussion available for use in related litigation would invite the very situation that Rule 408 is designed to avoid."). Rule 408 cannot be evaded simply by relabeling a settlement communication as "coercive," "extortionate," made in "bad faith," or as evidence of fiduciary misconduct. See Ramada Dev. Co. v. Rauch, 644 F.2d 1097, 1106-07 (5th Cir. 1981) (affirming the trial court's refusal to permit the introduction of evidence prepared to facilitate settlement negotiations under Rule 408); Blu-J, Inc. v. Kemper C.P.A. Grp., 916 F.2d 637, 642 (11th Cir. 1990) (rejecting use of settlement-related evidence because the evidence in question "was intended to be part of negotiations toward compromise").[10]

[10] The limited exceptions found in Rule 408(b) do not apply as the statements are not being used to prove a witness's bias or prejudice, negate a contention of undue delay, or prove an effort to obstruct a criminal investigation or prosecution. See Fed. R. Evid. 408.

15. The meeting referenced in the Objection was a settlement meeting conducted in the context of negotiating creditor recoveries under the Debtors' Plan. See Obj. ¶ 19 (confirming that the challenged communications occurred in the context of settlement demands over value distribution to unsecured creditors). The Reorganized Debtors violate Rule 408 by attempting to use a statement made during those negotiations as evidence of the invalidity of the positions taken by the Committee in the chapter 11 proceedings. See Eid v. Saint-Gobain Abrasives, Inc., 377 F. App'x 438, 444 (6th Cir. 2010) ("[admitting settlement discussions] would also run contrary to the purposes of Rule 408, as it would invite undue caution in settlement negotiations, and would facilitate the admission of communications that contain puffing, posturing, and various irrelevancies.").

16. Second, separate from the inadmissibility of settlement communications, the Reorganized Debtors' characterization of the statements in question is misleading. What the Reorganized Debtors now describe as an "ultimatum" was nothing more than a recognition of litigation reality: if the parties could not resolve the Committee's concerns consensually, the Committee would continue investigating, litigating, and incurring professional fees in fulfilling its duties to its creditor constituents until it was able to put its best foot forward. Far from being "extortionate," such a statement reflects the simple reality that a contested chapter 11 case will result in significantly higher professionals' fees than a non-contested case.

17. Third, the circumstances further confirm that the Reorganized Debtors' decision to label ordinary settlement discussions as "extortion" is nothing more than a weak justification for their retaliatory Objection. The Reorganized Debtors claim that, as early as October 28, 2025, they knew that the Committee's "real strategy" was to "bury the estate in exponentially expanding professional fees." See Obj. ¶ 2. Yet, despite purportedly possessing this knowledge for months, the Debtors never moved to curtail White & Case's engagement, sought to impose sanctions, or filed a motion, letter, or even a reservation of rights challenging the Committee's litigation positions as frivolous or sanctionable. On the contrary, the Debtors responded to White & Case's weekly DIP budget submissions with "thanks" and without objection. See, e.g., Email Chain from White & Case to Debtors' Professionals, dated Oct. 8, 2025 (the "Budget Emails"), attached as Exhibit C. Moreover, as discussed further below, the Debtors never objected to any of White & Case's monthly fee statements or its interim fee applications. The Objection is the first time the Debtors or their successors have characterized the Committee's litigation strategy as "extortionate" or anything similar. Obj. ¶ 16.

18. Fourth, the Reorganized Debtors unsurprisingly cite no authority for the proposition that referencing the reality of professional fee exposure is improper in the context of settlement negotiations. See Obj. passim. Settlements are favored in bankruptcy precisely because they avoid the cost and burden of continued litigation. See In re Johns, 667 B.R. 322, 324 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2025) ("Compromises are favored in bankruptcy as they minimize litigation costs and promote an efficient administration of the debtor's estate.") (internal quotations and citations omitted); In re Hudson's Coffee, Inc., 2008 WL 4837285, at *2 (Bankr. D.N.J. Oct. 31, 2008) ("Settlements are favored in bankruptcy in order to minimize litigation costs and to expedite administration of the estate.") (internal citations omitted); In re Mallows, 344 B.R. 207, 216 (Bankr. D. Mass. 2006) ("Settlement agreements are especially desirable in bankruptcy cases as a means to avoid the litigation of claims which would otherwise be unduly costly and therefore detrimental to the bankruptcy estate."). The Reorganized Debtors cannot complain about the fact that litigation materially increased costs to the estate and at the same time argue that it was somehow improper for the Committee's counsel to raise this obvious reality as a factor to consider in setting any baseline recovery for unsecured creditors during settlement discussions. Obj. ¶¶ 9-10, 18, 21.

19. Finally, underlying the Reorganized Debtors' entire argument is the false premise that the Committee's litigation position was frivolous. See Obj. ¶¶ 15-22. The Court already has more than sufficient evidence to dispose of this baseless allegation. The Court presided over this entire case, culminating with a five-day valuation trial. The Court heard and considered the evidence on which the Committee's valuation position was based, primarily the expert opinion work of two highly qualified experts from AlixPartners. See Hr'g Tr. (Dec. 10, 2025), passim. There is no dispute that if these experts were correct, the Plan could not have been confirmed and unsecured creditors' recoveries would have to have been materially greater. See Objection of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors to Confirmation of the First Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of ModivCare Inc. and its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 851]. While this Court ultimately did not accept the Committee's valuation position and confirmed the Plan, it did not find that the Committee's position was frivolous. Instead, it found that the Committee's valuation expert was "credible" and that his approach was "valid." See Hr'g Tr. (Dec. 12, 2025), at 8:21-24, 9:7-11. The Debtors' own expert witness agreed. See Zul Jamal Dep. Tr. (Nov. 20, 2025), at 28:9-13, relevant excerpts attached as Exhibit D ("Q: I'll get to this later, but in your view, do you view either report as having been prepared in bad faith? . . . A. Bad faith? I don't think so."). This Court also recognized everyone's "professionalism" and stated that he was "very, very happy with the level of the quality of the briefs, the quality of the arguments, and [ ] commend[ed] everybody for in a very, very short period of time being able to do that." Hr'g Tr.

(Dec. 12, 2025), at 4:24-5:4. In the face of this record and this Court's prior findings, there is no basis to contend that the Committee's litigation position was frivolous.[11] See Obj. ¶¶ 62-76.

III. White & Case's Fees and Expenses Are Reasonable Under Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code

20. The Objection also argues that White & Case's rates and practices were excessive and divorced from what the market demands for complex chapter 11 representation. See Obj. passim. They were not. The W&C Fee Application, detailing White & Case's fees and expenses, readily meets the standards of section 330 and applicable Fifth Circuit case law for compensation for services rendered on behalf of the Committee. See 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1)(A)-(a)(1)(B) (stating that a court may award a professional employed under section 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered . . . [and] reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses"). As the Reorganized Debtors concede, under the Fifth Circuit's prospective "good gamble" standard articulated in In re Woerner, professional services are compensable if, at the time rendered, they were either necessary to the administration of the case or reasonably likely to benefit the estate "even when those gambles do not produce an identifiable, tangible, and material benefit." See 783 F.3d 266, 273-74, 276 (5th Cir. 2015) (internal citations and quotations omitted); In re Cmty. Home Fin. Servs., Inc., 990 F.3d 422, 427 (5th Cir. 2021) ("In awarding fees, hindsight is irrelevant; retrospect is irrelevant; 'material benefit to the bankruptcy estate' is irrelevant. What matters is that, prospectively, the choice to pursue a course of action was reasonable. . . . The district court was wrong to vacate the bankruptcy court award based on its own retrospective assessment of the propriety of the adversary proceedings.") (internal citations and quotations omitted). Courts in this District have noted that "once the applicant establishes the reasonableness of the fees, the objecting party has the burden of demonstrating what part of the application is unreasonable." In re MLCJR, LLC, No. 23-90324 (CML) (Bankr. S.D. Tex.), Hr'g Tr. (Sept. 25, 2024), [Docket No. 2259], at 7:22-24.

21. White & Case's rates, fees, and expenses are all consistent with the standards that govern fee allowance under section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code. When measured against those of the Debtors' own counsel and against the prevailing national market for large-case restructuring counsel, White & Case's compensation is reasonable for a case of this size and complexity. White & Case's rates, which were already approved by the Court when White & Case was retained, reflect the reality that chapter 11 cases like these involve great complexity, high stakes, and severe time pressures—all of which were manifestly present here. See Retention Order. The Reorganized Debtors have failed to satisfy their burden to show that White & Case's fees and expenses are unreasonable.

A. A Comparison to the Debtors' Counsels' Fee Applications Demonstrates the Reasonableness of White & Case's Fees

22. Without protest, the Reorganized Debtors paid equivalent (and sometimes higher) going-rate fees and expenses of their own attorneys—including for large teams sent to the confirmation hearing, case monitoring, fee application work, and travel and lodging expenses. See Latham Fee Application passim.[12] Having allowed the Court to approve those practices from their own counsel without objection and having used estate assets to pay those fees in full, the [12] "Latham Fee Application" references the First and Final Application of Latham & Watkins LLP for Allowance of Compensation for Services Rendered and for Reimbursement of Expenses Incurred as Bankruptcy Co-Counsel to the Debtors for the Period of August 20, 2025 Through December 29, 2025 [Docket No. 1268].

Reorganized Debtors cannot credibly challenge identical, standard practices by the Committee's counsel as "unreasonable." See Obj. passim. Reasonableness under section 330 does not vary based on which side of the table the professional sits on.

i. White & Case's Fees are Comparable to the Debtors' Counsels' Fees

23. What the Reorganized Debtors paid their own counsel for the same or similar workstreams in this case proves the reasonableness of the Committee's counsel's fees.[13] The aggregate fees and expenses paid by the Reorganized Debtors to their counsel far exceeds that requested by White & Case. Compare W&C Fee Application at 2 (showing total fees and expenses of $14,193,990) with Latham Fee Application at 2 (showing total fees and expenses of $23,134,030); Quinn Fee Application at 2 (showing total amount of fees and expenses of $2,073,759); Hunton Fee Application at 2 (showing total fees and expenses of $1,510,952).[14] The table below compares (1) White & Case's fees in certain of the billing categories that the Reorganized Debtors have now contested are "unreasonable" with (2) Latham's fees for those same categories.

Workstream	W&C	Latham
DIP Financing	$917,755[15]	$1,559,541[16]

[13] White & Case was the Committee's sole counsel in the case. On the other hand, the Debtors retained Latham as principal bankruptcy co-counsel, Hunton Andrews Kurth LLP ("Hunton") as bankruptcy co-counsel, and Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, LLP ("Quinn") as counsel to the Debtors' special committee. See generally Latham Fee Application; Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, LLP's First and Final Application for the Payment of Compensation and the Reimbursement of Expenses for the Period September 1, 2025, Through December 29, 2025 [Docket No. 1273] (the "Quinn Fee Application"); First and Final Application of Hunton Andrews Kurth LLP as Bankruptcy Co-Counsel for the Debtors for Allowance and Payment of Fees and Expenses Incurred for the Period of August 20, 2025 Through December 29, 2025 [Docket No. 1269] (the "Hunton Fee Application").

[14] All specific dollar amounts discussed in this Reply are rounded down to the nearest whole dollar.

[15] The total amount is derived from billing category B11 (DIP Financing & Cash Collateral) plus certain of the related tasks in billing category B15 (Hearings & Court Matters). See W&C Fee Application, Ex. B; First Monthly Fee Statement, Ex. C; Second Monthly Fee Statement, Ex. C.

[16] The total amount is derived from the billing category "Financing and Cash Collateral" and certain of the related tasks in "Hearings." See Latham Fee Application, Ex. B, E. This amount does not take into account Latham's fees incurred prior to the Petition Date, which are most likely substantial.

Workstream	W&C	Latham
Firm's Retention Applications and Fee Statements	$184,752[17]	$252,046[18]
Meetings & Communications with Clients	$364,318[19]	$414,595[20]
Plan Confirmation	$3,227,845[21]	$3,737,509[22]

24. The Objection includes various charts with an alleged total amount of fees for various workstreams. See, e.g., Obj. ¶ 72. White & Case has significant concerns that those amounts are not accurate as they do not fully align with the amounts in W&C Fee Application's respective billing categories. White & Case, therefore, is unable to meaningfully comment as to nearly any of the Objection's numerical characterizations. The Reorganized Debtors' failure to include any specific time entries or methodology on how the Reorganized Debtors reached such amounts is fatal. See Castorena v. Mendoza, 2011 WL 13315708, at *5 (S.D. Tex. Mar. 14, 2011) ("Generalized statements that time spent was unreasonable or unnecessary are not particularly helpful and not entitled to much weight.").

[17] The total amount is derived from billing category B20 (Professional Retention & Fees – W&C). See W&C Fee Application, Ex. B.

[19] The total amount is derived from billing category B08 (Committee Meetings & Communications). See W&C Fee Application, Ex. B.

[20] The total amount is derived from specific time entries from the following billing categories: "Assumption and Rejection of Leases and Contracts," "Business Operations/Strategic Planning," "Communications with Creditors Committee," "Compliance & Investigations," "Corporate Governance, Board, and Regulatory Matters," "Employee Benefits and Pensions," "Financing and Cash Collateral," "General Case Strategy," "Hearings," "Insurance," "Litigation," "Plan and Disclosure Statement/Confirmation/Implementation/Plan Supplement," "Securities Matters," and "Vendor and Customer Matters." See Latham Fee Application, Exs. B, E.

[21] The total amount is derived from billing category B13 (Exclusivity, Plan & Disclosure Statement) plus certain of the related tasks in B15 (Hearings & Court Matters) and B19 (Non-Working Travel). See W&C Fee Application, Ex. B; Fourth Monthly Fee Statement, Ex. C.

[22] The total amount is derived from the billing category "Plan and Disclosure Statement /Confirmation/Implementation/Plan Supplement" and certain of the related tasks in "Hearings" and "Non-Working Travel Time." See Latham Fee Application, Exs. B, E. This amount does not take into account Latham's fees incurred prior to the Petition Date, which are most likely substantial.

25. The Reorganized Debtors also generally allege that White & Case "overstaffed" the matter by having 54 timekeepers over 111 days. Obj. ¶ 48. In a chapter 11 case involving simultaneously contested DIP financing, Plan confirmation, investigation of potential claims and causes of action, discovery, and multiple contested hearings, the use of a full litigation and restructuring teams is not overstaffing—it is competent case management.[23] The Debtors' own counsel deployed more than double the number of team members (132 timekeepers) throughout the same period. See Latham Fee Application, Exs. A, E (93 timekeepers and 7 practice support staff);[24] Hunton Fee Application, Ex. A (17 timekeepers); Quinn Fee Application, Ex. C (15 timekeepers).

26. The Reorganized Debtors also complain about the fees of Mr. Greissman, a key senior restructuring partner in these cases. See Obj. ¶¶ 22, 36, 50, 74. For its part, Latham, had four senior partners who each billed significantly more than Mr. Greissman during the cases—Jamie Wine billed 622.8 hours for $1,500,625, Keith Simon billed 648.6 hours for $1,484,512, George Klidonas billed 789.1 hours for $1,608,645, and Elizabeth Marks billed 894.8 hours for $1,744,479. See Latham Fee Application, Ex. A. The Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors viewed these fees to be reasonable and this Court accepted that position, allowing them to pay their professionals. See Final Order Allowing Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses [Docket No. 1344]. The same should be true for White & Case.

27. The Objection's generalized challenge to deposition attendance is contradicted by the practices of the Debtors' own professionals. See Obj. ¶¶ 36, 50, 74-75. A review of the appearances recorded in certain deposition transcripts show that Latham sent a minimum of five attorneys to each deposition and usually had eight or nine attend.[25] See, e.g., Dep. Trs., Exs. B-F; The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors' Deposition Designations of Daniel B. Silvers [Docket No. 1023] at Ex. A. The deposition of David Mounts Gonzales is illustrative. See Dep. Trs., Ex. B. The deposition transcript (and related time entries) for the first day of David Mounts Gonzales' deposition reflects that the Committee, as part of what the Reorganized Debtors assail as "overstaffed and duplicative efforts," had nine professionals attend in total, including the questioning attorney and financial professionals. See id.; Third Monthly Fee Statement, at 38; Alix Third Monthly Fee Statement,[26] at 44-45. This is in comparison to nine professionals from Latham, four from Quinn, one from Hunton, four from Moelis, and two from FTI, for a total of twenty Debtor professionals. See Dep. Trs., Ex. B, at 2-4. That same deposition transcript showed that the Consenting Creditors, who were legally aligned with the Debtors, sent an additional five attorneys from Paul Hastings. See id. at 3.

[23] For instance, the Debtors and the Consenting Creditors produced documents after depositions began, necessitating a large team to simultaneously review documents and prepare for imminent depositions.

[24] Latham does not list its practice support staff in its timekeeper summary table, see Latham Fee Application, Ex. A, and instead treats their work as an "expense." See Latham Fee Application, Ex. E. A manual review of Latham's expense invoices reveals that seven practice support staff billed time to the matter. See Latham Fee Application, Ex. E.

28. More specific comparisons also disprove the Reorganized Debtors' baseless criticism that White & Case had restructuring attorneys attend depositions. See Obj. ¶¶ 22, 50. This criticism is absurd and again disproven by the Debtors' own professionals. Three to four Latham partners, including restructuring partners, regularly attended depositions and billed for their time. See, e.g., Dep. Trs., Exs. B-F. This included George Klidonas, a Latham restructuring partner, who attended all sixteen depositions and billed $170,742 for that work, and Keith Simon, a Latham restructuring partner, who attended fifteen depositions and billed $134,617 for that work.

[25] "Deposition Transcripts" refers to The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors' Deposition Designations of David Mounts Gonzales, Heath Sampson, Barbara Gutierrez, and Scott A. Kern [Docket Nos. 1019, 1020].

[26] "Alix Third Monthly Fee Statement" refers to Third Monthly Fee Statement of AlixPartners, LLP, Financial Advisor to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, for Allowance of Compensation for Professional Services Rendered and Reimbursement of Expenses Incurred for the Period From November 1, 2025 Through November 30, 2025 [Docket No. 1086].

See, e.g., id.; Latham Fee Application, Ex. E. Again, this is not a criticism of Messrs. Klidonas and Simon or any of the Debtors' professionals. It is simply proof that the work necessary in these cases, particularly given their lightning speed , required large teams to focus on multiple disciplines to stay on top of the workflow.

29. A comparison of the Debtors' counsels' and the Committee's counsels' staffing for hearings yields the same conclusion. Latham's time entries show that seventeen timekeepers (including five partners) billed for attending the DIP hearing, see Latham Fee Application, at 142-43, and that at least nineteen timekeepers billed for attending the first three days of the confirmation hearing, see Latham Fee Application, at 669-72. This is in comparison to the nine White & Case timekeepers who billed for attending the DIP hearing, see First Monthly Fee Statement, at 55, and the eight White & Case timekeepers who billed for attending the confirmation hearing, see Fourth Monthly Fee Statement, at 34-38. This objectively demonstrates that White & Case's lower attendance at depositions and hearings was not "overstaffing" or "duplicative," but rather consistent with what the Debtors themselves understood was reasonable and necessary for a case of this complexity. Obj. ¶ 49.

30. Perhaps most tellingly, White & Case billed significantly less than the Debtors' counsel for trial preparation and the confirmation trial itself. From December 1 (one week before trial started) through December 11 (the last day of the evidentiary portion of trial), White & Case, using 30 timekeepers, billed $2,780,850 in fees to billing categories associated with trial preparation and trial. See Fourth Monthly Fee Statement, Ex. C.[27] Over this same period, Latham, Quinn, and Hunton, using 60 timekeepers, billed $4,111,315 in fees to similar billing categories.

[27] The total amount is derived from billing categories B13 (Exclusivity, Plan & Disclosure Statement), B15 (Hearings & Court Matters), and B16 (Investigation of Causes of Action) from December 1 to December 11, 2025.

See Latham Fee Application, at 620-733;[28] Quinn Fee Application, at 102-107;[29] Hunton Fee Application, at 151-173.[30] This is nearly 34% more than White & Case who was representing the sole party on the other side of the courtroom aisle. This comparison does not even take into account that the Debtors' positions at trial were supported by the Consenting Creditors' own separate counsel, Paul Hastings, whose trial fees were not disclosed. In light of this comparison, the Reorganized Debtors' assertion that White & Case's fees are the product of "systemic overbilling" is neither genuine nor credible. See Obj. ¶ 35.

ii. White & Case's Travel Expenses Incurred for Confirmation Mirror those Incurred by the Debtors' Counsel

31. The Reorganized Debtors also object to the "entirety" of White & Case's expenses, ostensibly contending that White & Case should go significantly out of pocket for its work in these cases. See Obj. ¶ 86. The Objection, when it comes to even attempting to satisfy the heavy burden of such an egregious ask, singles out certain White & Case attorneys' hotel stays at the Four Seasons in Houston and the Ritz-Carlton in Boston, and a group dinner during trial, as its only evidence of unreasonable "extravagance." Id. ¶¶ 2, 87.[31] But, again, a comparison with the Debtors' counsel's expenses, which this Court approved and the Reorganized Debtors paid, shows that White & Case's expenses are well within the bounds of reasonableness. First, various Latham attorneys also stayed at the Four Seasons in Houston. See Latham Fee Application, at 597, 605-06, 612-14. In total, Latham's hotel expenses are directly comparable to those expenses now

[28] The total amount is derived from billing categories "Hearings," "Litigation," and "Plan and Disclosure Statement/Confirmation/Implementation/Plan Supplement" from December 1 to December 11, 2025.

[29] The total amount is derived from billing categories project categories 03 (Plan/Disclosure Statement) and 04 (Investigation) from December 1 to December 11, 2025.

[30] The total amount is derived from billing categories B110 (Case Administration) and B320 (Plan and Disclosure Statement, including Business Plan) from December 1 to December 11, 2025.

[31] The Reorganized Debtors did not find that payment of a $366 hair dryer for their own counsel was "extravagant." See Latham Fee Application, at 586.

challenged by the Reorganized Debtors for the Committee. Compare Latham Fee Application, Ex. C (showing Latham spent $76,625 in hotel accommodations) with W&C Fee Application, Ex. E (showing White & Case spent $47,561 in hotel accommodations). Second, the Reorganized Debtors allege that "one attorney billed $1,877 for a single dinner," failing to mention that this dinner was for the entire trial team on the day the evidentiary portion of the trial ended. See Obj. ¶ 88. And in fact, Latham billed $1,239 for a dinner at a restaurant on December 4 or 8, 2025 and had at least three other dinners for over $800 each. See Latham Fee Application at 591-92. This is not unreasonable; it just shows the reality of meal expenses during a trial in Houston. Compare Latham Fee Application, Ex. C (showing that Latham spent $25,277 in various meal types) with W&C Fee Application, Ex. E (showing that White & Case spent $13,562 in various meal types). On the record that already exists, White & Case's expenses were not just "actual and necessary," they were proportionate to those incurred by the objecting party's own counsel. See 11 U.S.C. §330(a)(1)(B). This Court should reject the Reorganized Debtors' request to apply a selective standard of reasonableness to the Committee's counsel's expenses.

B. The Committee Benefitted the Debtors' Estates

32. The Reorganized Debtors object to literally "each and every time entry and expense" of White & Case, which the Reorganized Debtors say was all "the product of a coercive threat"– i.e., taking issue with every single action that White & Case took in furtherance of the unsecured creditors' statutory duties. Obj. ¶¶ 56-83. As explained above, the Reorganized Debtors are apparently of the view that it was unreasonable for the Committee's counsel to perform any work at all.[32] The only conceivable bases for such a ridiculous position would be if (1) everything the Committee was doing was frivolous, which as explained above, was certainly not the case, or (2) these cases did not warrant a Committee with counsel. This Court has already rejected the latter contention, stating "the Committee fees will be what the Committee fees are, and if they're reasonable, they will be -- they will be awarded. And if you want to confirm a plan, they will have to be paid . . . ." See Hr'g Tr. (Oct. 3, 2025) at 9:25-10:3.[33] The Court can, and should, dispose of this argument based on the existing record and its prior findings. See supra ¶¶ 11-12.

[32] Despite these post-hoc statements, the Debtors' own expert and investment banker found that the Committee's actions, including forming views on the distributable value under a plan and a debtor's business plan, objecting to debtor-in-possession financing, and serving discovery, were not uncommon actions for unsecured creditors' committees. See Jamal Dep. Tr. (Nov. 20, 2025), at 20:15-21:9, 22:2-34:19, attached as Ex. D.

C. The Prevailing Market Rate Under Section 330 Is the National Market for Complex Reorganization Counsel

33. In an attempt to have this Court disallow a wide swath of legal fees without going line-by-line through the W&C Fee Application, the Reorganized Debtors argue that White & Case's fees are off-market. See Obj. ¶¶ 30-32. The controlling "community" for assessing prevailing market rates under section 330 in a case of this complexity is not the geographically local market (i.e., Houston or the Southern District of Texas), it is the national bankruptcy market for large, sophisticated chapter 11 cases. See In re Fieldwood Energy LLC, 2024 WL 4713011, at *4 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Nov. 7, 2024) ("Reasonable hourly rates 'are to be calculated according to the prevailing market rates in the relevant community.'") (quoting McClain v. Lufkin Indus., Inc., 649 F.3d 374 (5th Cir. 2011)); In re ASARCO LLC, 2011 WL 2975691, at *13 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. July 20, 2011) (holding that the factors under section 330 "must also include a determination of the 'relevant market' in which these fees are determined and the fees billed compared"). As disclosed in the Retention Application, White & Case is a nationally recognized participant in representing stakeholders in chapter 11 cases and its rates are consistent with those of peer firms, including Latham. See Retention Application ¶ 8; Latham Fee Application, Ex. D (showing comparable and in several instances higher rates);[34] see, e.g., In re LifeScan Global Corp., Case No. 25-90259 (ARP) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Jan. 6, 2026), [Docket No. 653], Ex. C (showing comparable 2025 hourly billing rates), approved in full [Docket No. 683]; In re Wellpath Holdings, Inc., Case No. 24-90533 (ARP) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. June 6, 2025), [Docket No. 2956], Ex. C (showing comparable 2025 hourly billing rates), approved in full [Docket No. 3191]; In re NorthVolt AB, Case No. 24-90577 (ARP) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. May 1, 2025), [Docket No. 10], Ex. E (showing comparable 2025 hourly billing rates), approved in full [Docket No. 22].

[33] The Court also explained "to the extent that everyone wants a confirmed plan . . . the reasonable administrative expenses are going to have to be paid . . . I'm not going to confirm a plan without admin claims being paid, and I'm not going to cap the fees of the Committee. . . ." See Hr'g Tr. (Oct. 3, 2025), at 9:14-25.

34. In any event, this Court has already approved White & Case's billing rates upon retention through its unopposed Retention Application. See Retention Order. To the extent the Reorganized Debtors' arguments rest on the premise that those rates were unreasonable, those arguments are barred by the Court's prior approval. See id. The Court pre-approved White & Case's hourly rates under section 328(a),[35] which provides that any later inquiry into the reasonableness of fees at the conclusion of employment is limited to whether the "terms and conditions prove to have been improvident in light of developments not capable of being anticipated at the time of the fixing of such terms and conditions." 11 U.S.C. § 328(a); see also Feilitech, 2023 WL 8855666, at *14 (citing In re ASARCO, L.L.C., 702 F.3d 250 (5th Cir. 2012)) ("[Case law] makes clear that § 328 prohibits the award of fees above the amount previously agreed absent circumstances not capable of being anticipated. Logic dictates that § 328 does not permit this Court to reduce agreed upon hourly rates under similar circumstances."). The Objection's [34] While complaining about the disclosed rates of White & Case's senior partners, four partners from Latham have even higher hourly rates—e.g., Joseph Kronsnoble, Joel Trotter, Michele Anderson's rates are all $2,650 per hour and Ray Schrock's rate is $2,550 per hour.

[35] Both the Retention Application and the entered Retention Order explicitly refer to approval of White & Case's employment under section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. See Retention Application, at 1, ¶¶ 1, 3, 11, 17; Retention Order, at 1-2, ¶ 1; see also In re Feilitech US LLC, 2023 WL 8855666, at *11 (Bankr. N.D. Miss. Dec. 21, 2023) ("[B]oth the Employment Applications and the Employment Orders explicitly refer to approval of the Applicants' employment under § 328.").

failure to contend at all with the governing "improvidence" standard forecloses any belated complaint about White & Case's hourly rate.

D. This Court Should Reject the Reorganized Debtors' Flawed Blended Rate Comparison

35. The Reorganized Debtors blended-rate argument—characterizing White & Case's blended rates here as evidence of a "bankruptcy surcharge"—misunderstands how blended rates are calculated and applies a methodology that no court in this Circuit has adopted as grounds for categorical fee reduction. See Obj. ¶¶ 2, 30-32.[36] Their argument is flawed on two independent grounds. First, the blended rate comparison is inherently distorted by the composition of the timekeeping pool. White & Case calculated its "Non-Bankruptcy Blended Rate" by dividing the total dollar amount billed to non-bankruptcy matters by all timekeepers in the applicable offices by the total number of hours billed to non-bankruptcy matters during the comparable period. Non-bankruptcy matters at a firm like White & Case encompass a broad range of work, including work that, by its nature, is comparatively weighted toward junior associates at lower rates, which dilutes the blended figure downward. The Committee engagement, by contrast (and aligned with both debtor engagement and committee engagements in large, complex commercial chapter 11 cases—especially those on expedited timelines), drew heavily on senior partners, a necessary reality given the compressed time frame insisted upon by the Debtors. A higher blended rate is the natural and expected result of a more senior-weighted, specialized team—not evidence of a surcharge. Indeed, Latham's own blended rate disclosures illustrate a similar difference between their firm-wide, non-restructuring work and the necessities of this complex, chapter 11 case. Compare Latham Fee

[36] Consistent with the Objections' numerous inaccuracies, the Objection in one sentence notes the White & Case's blended paraprofessional rates for this matter of $500 and non-bankruptcy matters at $462, and then in the next sentence refers to "a 10% to 22%" differential. Obj. ¶¶ 32-33. The difference for paraprofessionals is only 8.2%.

Application, Ex. D (showing that the aggregate blended rate was $1,426) with W&C Fee Application, Ex. F (showing that the aggregate blended rate was $1,414).[37]

36. Second, the "bankruptcy premium" framing ignores what section 330 actually requires: "reasonable" compensation taking into account "the nature, the extent, and the value of such services." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3). In applying this standard, the relevant question is whether the average rates billed are consistent with the customary market rate charged by comparably skilled practitioners in comparable non-bankruptcy matters. See In re ASARCO, L.L.C., 751 F.3d 291, 301 (5th Cir. 2014) (holding that "there is no litmus test to determine the comparability of professional services in bankruptcy and other practice areas.") (citations omitted).

E. White & Case's Time Entries Comply with the U.S. Trustee Guidelines and Sufficiently Demonstrate the Reasonableness of the Work Performed

37. Eventually, the Reorganized Debtors make their way to actual criticisms of White & Case's time entries, but these objections also are misleading and without merit. See, e.g., Obj. ¶¶ 41-47. First, the Reorganized Debtors allege that White & Case's time entries were "vague" and amounted to "block billing." Id. ¶ 41. But the only specific time entry they point to shows the exact opposite. Id. ¶ 43. That example is of an attorney who billed 18.6 hours on the day before trial began. Id. ¶ 43. The Reorganized Debtors concede that this single entry lists "12 distinct tasks," including "drafting cross outlines, reviewing exhibits, reviewing liquidation research, drafting memos, and holding multiple calls." Id. ¶ 43. That is the opposite of block billing and "vague" time entries. The attorney specifically listed out each task and the amount of time that each task took. See Fourth Monthly Fee Statement, Ex. C at 20.[38] Intensive single-day billing leading up to a contested confirmation trial simply reflects the demands of the cases. The reasonableness of such time entries is further evidenced by the Debtors' attorneys' time entries showing multiple 18-hour plus days. See, e.g., Latham Fee Application at 468, 672, 689, 693, 707, 719 (showing attorneys billing in one day (i) 18.7 hours for four tasks, (ii) 19 hours for four tasks and traveling to Houston, (iii) 21.5 hours for two tasks, and (iv) 18.6 hours for seven tasks).

38. Second, White & Case's time entries in the "Case Strategy" category are not vague. See Obj. ¶¶ 81-83. The Reorganized Debtors selectively copy and paste parts of time entries to allege that any time entry with the word "strategy" is vague and does not provide sufficient information for this Court to determine the reasonableness of such fees. Id. ¶¶ 81-83. They are wrong. Even the excerpts of the time entries cited in the Objection state when the call took place, who the call was with, what the call was about, and how long the call took. See League of United Latin Am. Citizens # 4552 v. Roscoe Indep. Sch. Dist., 119 F.3d 1228, 1233 (5th Cir. 1997) (holding that in determining the reasonableness of fees, a court regularly focuses on whether the records contain the "date, the number of hours spent (calculated to a tenth of an hour), and a short but thorough description of the services rendered"); see also, e.g., Fourth Monthly Fee Statement, Ex. C, at 3-5. Not disclosing attorney work-product and other privileged information about the Committee's strategy in public fee application filings does not make a time entry vague.[39]

[38] The time entry stated: "Revise C. Shandler cross-examination outline for confirmation hearing (2.2); review exhibits re: same (1.3); confer with C. Shandler re: same (0.8); review research re: liquidation analysis (1.9); conduct legal research re: same (1.6); draft memo re: same (1.1); prepare for confirmation hearing trial (2.2); review exhibits for confirmation trial (2.6); confer with A. Chase and E. Smith re: same (0.7); call with W&C re: standing motion reply (0.9); conduct legal research re: colorability for standing motion reply (0.4); emails with W&C re: workstreams for standing motion reply (0.9); review bench memos for confirmation hearing (1.4); confer with J. Zakia re: bench memos (0.4); email with Alix re: confirmation trial (0.2)."

[39] Further, the alleged "admitted category overlap" is misleading, as this disclosure was merely to indicate that certain of the attorney's specific time entries fell into various billing categories. See Obj. ¶¶ 44-47. This is a technical clarification for purposes of the W&C Fee Application, but does not mean that any time entry is duplicative, considered "block billing" or "gang-billing." Id. ¶¶ 44-47.

39. Ultimately, the Reorganized Debtors have failed to identify a single time entry that is not compensable or that does not comply with the U.S. Trustee's guidelines. Throughout these chapter 11 cases, White & Case has filed thousands of pages of detailed time entries and has been consistently transparent in its fee applications, providing the information and detail necessary for a presumption of reasonableness. See generally W&C Fee Application; Interim Fee Application; First Monthly Fee Statement; Second Monthly Fee Statement, Third Monthly Fee Statement; Fourth Monthly Fee Statement. White & Case has satisfied the standards for final allowance and payment of its fees.

IV. The Debtors Never Objected to, or Reserved Rights Regarding White & Case's Rates, Budget, or Fees

40. While the Reorganized Debtors now seek to deny all fees, during the chapter 11 cases, the Debtors sat silent through every one of White & Case's monthly fee statements and interim fee application.[40] They never objected, filed a reservation of rights, or otherwise complained to the Court that such fees were in any way improper. And, contrary to the Reorganized Debtors' assertions, White & Case provided the Debtors' professionals with an overall budget at the beginning of the cases—approximately $18 million for a contested case. See Budget Emails. Ultimately, White & Case billed approximately $5 million lower than the budgeted amount. See W&C Fee Application; Budget Emails. The Committee also sent the Debtors weekly budgets and estimates throughout the chapter 11 cases. See, e.g., Budget Emails. The Debtors never protested or objected to the Committee's initial budget or the weekly budget estimates. Rather, the Debtors agreed to adjust their DIP budget for professional fees based on the contested nature of the chapter 11 cases. This Objection, raised for the first time at the final fee stage, is inconsistent with the Debtors' conduct throughout the chapter 11 cases. See supra ¶¶ 5, 17.

[40] No other party in interest has objected to White & Case's fees, including the U.S. Trustee, who is the statutory watchdog for professional fee matters in chapter 11 cases. See U.S.C. s 586(a)(3)(A).

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

41. White & Case expressly reserves all of their rights, claims, defenses, and remedies, including, without limitation, the right to amend, modify, or supplement this Reply, to seek discovery, to introduce evidence and to raise additional arguments at any hearing to consider the W&C Fee Application.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth in this Reply and in the W&C Fee Application, White & Case requests that this Court (i) overrule the Objection, and (ii) enter an order granting final allowance and payment of compensation for professional services as provided in the proposed order attached to the W&C Fee Application.

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS

In re:	)	Chapter 11
MODIVCARE INC., et al.,	)	Case No. 25-90309 (ARP)
Debtors.[1]	)	(Jointly Administered)

WHITE & CASE, LLP'S RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO THE REORGANIZED DEBTORS' REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION

Pursuant to Rules 26 and 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (the "Federal Rules"), made applicable to this matter by Rules 7026, 7034, and 9014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), White & Case, LLP ("White & Case"), by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby responds and objects (the "Responses and Objections") to ModivCare TopCo, LLC's Requests for Production to White & Case, LLP (the "Requests," and each a "Request") served by the reorganized debtors of the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (the "Reorganized Debtors") on March 12, 2026.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

The following general objections ("General Objections") apply to each definition ("Definition"), instruction ("Instruction"), and Request, and shall have the same force and effect as if fully set forth in the response to each individual Request. To the extent that White & Case responds to a Request, White & Case reserves all objections as to relevance, materiality, competence, confidentiality, propriety, privilege, and admissibility, as well as to any and all other objections on any ground that would require or permit the exclusion of the response, or any portion of the response, if the response were offered into evidence. White & Case objects as follows:

[1] A complete list of each of the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") and the last four digits of each Debtor's taxpayer identification number (if applicable) may be obtained on the website of the Debtors' proposed claims and noticing agent at https://www.veritaglobal.net/Modivcare. Debtor Modivcare Inc.'s principal place of business and the Debtors' service address in these Chapter 11 Cases is 6900 E. Layton Avenue, Suite 1100 & 1200, Denver, Colorado 80237.

1. White & Case objects to each Definition, Instruction, and Request to the extent they purport to impose different or broader requirements or obligations than those contained in the Federal Rules, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, the Bankruptcy Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas, or any other applicable law, rule, or order of this Court (collectively, the "Rules"). White & Case will construct and respond to the Requests in a manner consistent with White & Case's obligations under the Rules.

2. White & Case objects to the Requests to the extent that they purport to require White & Case to conduct anything beyond a reasonable search for readily accessible information relevant, probative, and proportional to the needs of assessing the relief sought in White & Case LLP's Final Application for Allowance of Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses for the Period From September 9, 2025 Through December 29, 2025 [Dkt. No. 1290] (the "W&C Fee Application").

3. White & Case objects to the Requests to the extent that they are overbroad, unduly burdensome, cumulative, or duplicative, not proportional to the needs of the case, or designed to harass White & Case. White & Case objects to the Requests to the extent that they call for the production of "all" or "any" Documents pertaining to a subject on the grounds that such Requests are overly broad, unduly burdensome and not proportional to the needs of the case so as to make it impossible to identify the limits of the inquiry. To the extent White & Case produces documents in response to any Request, White & Case does not represent that "all" or "any" documents responsive to any Request will be collected or produced.

4. White & Case objects to each and every Request to the extent that it is not reasonably limited in time or otherwise not limited to a time frame relevant to the W&C Fee Application. Each such Request is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and seeks the discovery of information or documents that are not relevant to the subject matter of this proceeding and/or not proportional to the needs of this case.

5. White & Case objects to the Requests to the extent that they seek disclosure of documents or information protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the common interest or joint defense privilege, or any other protection, privilege or immunity against disclosure available under any applicable law (collectively, "Privileged Materials"). To the extent White & Case produces documents, White & Case will not produce any Privileged Materials. White & Case expressly reserves the right to redact non-responsive, proprietary, commercially sensitive, privileged or protected portions of any documents that may be produced in response to the Requests. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) as well as any other applicable laws, rules, regulations, court orders, or agreements, if any Privileged Material is inadvertently produced or disclosed, White & Case does not waive or intend to waive any privilege or immunity from discovery pertaining to such Privileged Material or to any other documents or information and reserves the right to demand the return of all copies of any such document(s). To the extent that there are inconsistencies in the types of privilege or other protections asserted with respect to various copies of the same document, the most comprehensive privilege or protection is intended to apply to all copies of such document.

6. White & Case objects to the Requests to the extent that they seek documents containing confidential, personal, private, proprietary, or sensitive business information; or information protected from disclosure by any law (including, but not limited to, foreign laws), court order, or any agreement with respect to confidentiality or non-disclosure (collectively, "Confidential Materials"). White & Case reserves the right to redact any documents that may be produced including, but not limited to, the right to redact personally identifying information.

7. White & Case objects to each Request to the extent it expressly or impliedly assumes the existence of facts or circumstances that do not or did not exist, or states or assumes legal or factual conclusions. White & Case does not admit any factual or legal premise in these Requests. White & Case's Responses and Objections should not be construed as: (a) any admission as to the propriety of any Request; (b) an agreement as to erroneous assumptions or incorrect factual predicates contained in any Request; (c) an acknowledgment that documents or other items responsive to any Request exist; (d) a waiver of the General Objections or the objections asserted in response to specific Requests; (e) an admission as to the relevance or admissibility into evidence of any documents, items, materials, communications, or information; (f) an admission, concession, or waiver as to the validity of any claim or defense; or (g) an agreement that requests for similar documents, items, materials, communications, or information will be treated similarly.

8. White & Case objects to each Request to the extent that it seeks information that is in the possession, custody, or control of the Reorganized Debtors, publicly available, or can be obtained from another more convenient, less expensive, or less burdensome source.

9. White & Cases objects to each Request to the extent that it seeks to impose an obligation to provide information not in White & Case's possession, custody, or control, or to create documents that do not exist.

10. To the extent any term defined or used in the Requests is used in responding to the Requests, it is not accepted or conceded that any such term or definition is appropriate, descriptive or accurate.

11. White & Case objects to each Request to the extent that it requires White & Case to search for and produce electronically stored documents from sources that are not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost.

12. White & Case preserves (a) all rights to object on any ground to the use of any document or information produced in response to the Requests or the subject matter thereof, in any proceeding; and (b) all rights to object on any ground to any request for further responses to the Requests or any other document request.

13. Any documents produced in response to any Request are solely for use in these chapter 11 cases and shall be governed by the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement and Stipulated Protective Order [Dkt. No. 174] (the "Protective Order").

14. The Responses and Objections represent White & Case's present knowledge, information, and belief. White & Case reserves the right to supplement, amend, correct, clarify or modify these responses and objections as additional information becomes known, including based on discovery and future developments in this action.

OBJECTIONS TO DEFINITIONS

White & Case objects to the following definitions in the Requests. The failure to object to any of the definitions shall not be deemed a waiver of any objections or a concession that any of the definitions are factually accurate.

1. White & Case objects to the Definition of "Billing Practices" as it contains improper assumptions concerning alleged billing "goals, targets, [or] expectations" and "revision or editing of time entries." White & Case further objects to the Definition of "Billing Practices" as vague and ambiguous for its use of "commentary" and "volume of hours," which are undefined.

2. White & Case objects to the Definition of "Communication" to the extent that it purports to impose burdens or obligations on White & Case that are broader than, inconsistent with, or not authorized by the Rules. White & Case further objects to this Definition on the grounds that it is overbroad, unduly burdensome, seeks to impose burden and expense that outweigh their benefits, and is not proportional to the needs of the W&C Fee Application.

3. White & Case objects to the Definition of "White & Case Personnel" as vague and ambiguous, overbroad, seeking to impose burden and expense that outweigh any benefit, and not proportional to the needs of the W&C Fee Application, because it purports to include "any other person . . . affiliated with White & Case." White & Case will understand "White & Case Personnel" to refer only to those employed by White & Case.

4. White & Case objects to the Definition of "Deposition Materials" as overbroad, seeking to impose burden and expense that outweigh any benefit, and not proportional to the needs of the W&C Fee Application especially in light of its purported inclusion of "any subsequent iteration, revision, or adaptation of any such document for use in a later deposition." White & Case will understand "Deposition Materials" to refer to the specific materials enumerated in the Definition without reference to "any subsequent iteration, revision, or adaptation of any such document for use in a later deposition."

5. White & Case objects to the terms or phrases defined by the Debtors to the extent that those terms and phrases are vague or ambiguous or beyond their customary meanings. White & Case has made reasonable efforts to understand the terms in the Requests as used in context, but White & Case makes its responses and objections based on its understanding of such terms and reserves the right to amend the responses and objections herein if the Reorganized Debtors assert different meanings of such terms.

OBJECTIONS TO INSTRUCTIONS

White & Case objects to the Instructions. The Requests target the production of materials from White & Case, a law firm, related to work completed by White & Case during its retention in the above-captioned cases. The burden to review and log Privileged Materials in response to such Requests is excessive and not proportional to the needs of the W&C Fee Application. To the extent White & Case withholds any information on the basis of privilege, White & Case will seek to meet and confer regarding the Instructions as they relate to a privilege log.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing General Objections, which are hereby expressly incorporated into each of the following specific objections and responses as if fully set forth therein, White & Case responds to the Reorganized Debtors' specific Requests as follows:

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 1

All Communications among White & Case Personnel concerning Billing Practices in connection with the Engagement, including but not limited to any communications regarding the volume of hours to be billed to the Engagement, any targets or expectations regarding fees to be generated from the Engagement, or any instructions or guidance regarding increasing or decreasing the amount of time recorded by any timekeeper on any task or matter.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 1

White & Case incorporates its General Objections as though fully set forth herein. White & Case objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and harassing because, among other things, it seeks information that is not relevant or necessary to the resolution of the W&C Fee Application or the objection thereto, which can be resolved based on the record already before the Court. White & Case further objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case, because, among other things, it seeks "All Communications" without limitation. White & Case further objects to this Request on the basis that it is vague and ambiguous, including because it requests production of communications concerning "Billing Practices," a vague and ambiguous term as defined in the Requests. White & Case further objects to this Request as seeking documents or information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, and/or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection. White & Case further objects to this Request as not relevant and because the burden and expense of searching for responsive non-privileged communications, if any exist, outweigh any benefits for the contested matter at issue. White & Case further objects to this Request as seeking information already in the Reorganized Debtors' possession and refers the Reorganized Debtors to communications by and among White & Case and Latham & Watkins, LLP concerning weekly budgets for work performed by White & Case during the Engagement.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 2

All Communications among White & Case Personnel concerning the staffing of the Engagement, including but not limited to any communications regarding the number of timekeepers to be assigned to any hearing, deposition, committee call, drafting task, or document review project, or any communications regarding whether particular timekeepers should bill time to the Engagement or to any particular task within the Engagement.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 2

White & Case incorporates its General Objections as though fully set forth herein. White & Case objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and harassing because, among other things, it seeks information that is not relevant or necessary to the resolution of the W&C Fee Application or the objection thereto, which can be resolved based on the record already before the Court. White & Case further objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case, because, among other things, it seeks "All Communications" without limitation. White & Case further objects to this Request as seeking documents or information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, and/or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection. White & Case further objects to this Request as not relevant and because the burden and expense of searching for responsive non-privileged communications, if any exist, outweigh any benefits for the contested matter at issue.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 3

All Communications among White & Case Personnel concerning the review, revision, editing, reduction, or write down of time entries recorded in connection with the Engagement, including but not limited to any communications regarding the "voluntary reductions" referenced in the Final Fee Application, any communications identifying specific entries to be reduced or written off, any communications regarding whether particular time entry descriptions should be revised before submission, and any communications regarding the criteria applied in determining which entries to reduce.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 3

White & Case incorporates its General Objections as though fully set forth herein. White & Case objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and harassing because, among other things, it seeks information that is not relevant or necessary to the resolution of the W&C Fee Application or the objection thereto, which can be resolved based on the record already before the Court. White & Case further objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case, because, among other things, it seeks "All Communications" without limitation. White & Case further objects to this Request as seeking documents or information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, and/or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection. White & Case further objects to this Request as not relevant and because the burden and expense of searching for responsive non-privileged communications, if any exist, outweigh any benefits for the contested matter at issue. White & Case further objects to this Request to the extent it is duplicative of Request No. 1.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 4

All Communications among White & Case Personnel concerning the $30 million demand referenced in the Objection, to the extent such communications relate to Billing Practices or the relationship between the demand and the anticipated or actual level of professional fees in the Engagement. This Request does not seek communications reflecting legal strategy or mental impressions.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 4

White & Case incorporates its General Objections as though fully set forth herein. White & Case objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and harassing because, among other things, it seeks information that is not relevant or necessary to the resolution of the W&C Fee Application or the objection thereto, which can be resolved based on the record already before the Court. White & Case further objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case, because, among other things, it seeks "All Communications" without limitation. White & Case further objects to the phrase "relationship between the demand and the anticipated or actual level of professional fees" as vague and ambiguous. White & Case further objects to this Request as seeking documents or information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, and/or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection. White & Case further objects to this Request as not relevant and because the burden and expense of searching for responsive non-privileged communications, if any exist, outweigh any benefits for the contested matter at issue.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 5

All orders, opinions, rulings, or decisions issued by any bankruptcy court in any case in which White & Case LLP served as counsel, that reduced, denied, or disallowed fees or expenses sought by White & Case on the basis of overstaffing, excessive billing, duplicative services, block billing, vague or insufficient time entries, unnecessary litigation, scorched earth litigation tactics, litigation tactics generally, billing for services not reasonably likely to benefit the estate, billing for services not necessary to the administration of the case, frivolous or baseless pleadings, conduct adversarial to the estate, or any other billing practice or litigation conduct that resulted in a judicial finding that fees requested by White & Case were unreasonable, unnecessary, or otherwise not compensable.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 5

White & Case incorporates its General Objections as though fully set forth herein. White & Case objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and harassing because, among other things, it seeks information that is not relevant or necessary to the resolution of the W&C Fee Application or the objection thereto, which can be resolved based on the record already before the Court. White & Case further objects on the basis that the Request, which expressly relates to other cases, is on its face not relevant to the W&C Fee Application or the objection in this proceeding. White & Case further objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case, because, among other things, it seeks "All" documents from "any case" without limitation. White & Case further objects to the phrase "unnecessary litigation, scorched earth litigation tactics, litigation tactics generally, billing for services not reasonably likely to benefit the estate, billing for services not necessary to the administration of the case, frivolous or baseless pleadings, conduct adversarial to the estate" as vague, ambiguous, and undefined. White & Case further objects to this Request as not relevant and because the burden and expense of searching for responsive non-privileged communications, if any exist, outweigh any benefits for the contested matter at issue. White & Case further objects to this Request as overly burdensome and harassing because it seeks documents that, if they exist, are publicly available.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 6

All pleading [sic] filed in any bankruptcy court in any case in which White & Case LLP served as counsel that alleged or asserted that White & Case LLP: (a) overstaffed matters; (b) excessively billed; (c) duplicated services; (d) engaged in block billing; (e) submitted vague or insufficient time entries; (f) pursued unnecessary litigation; (g) employed "scorched earth" litigation tactics or other improper litigation tactics; (h) billed for services not reasonably likely to benefit the estate; (i) billed for services not necessary to the administration of the case; (j) filed frivolous or baseless pleadings; or (k) engaged in conduct adverse to the estate.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 6

White & Case incorporates its General Objections as though fully set forth herein. White & Case objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and harassing because, among other things, it seeks information that is not relevant or necessary to the resolution of the W&C Fee Application or the objection thereto, which can be resolved based on the record already before the Court. White & Case further objects on the basis that the Request, which expressly relates to other cases, is on its face not relevant to the W&C Fee Application or the objection in this proceeding. White & Case further objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case, because, among other things, it seeks "All" documents from "any case" without limitation. White & Case further objects to the phrase "(f) pursued unnecessary litigation; (g) employed "scorched earth" litigation tactics or other improper litigation tactics; (h) billed for services not reasonably likely to benefit the estate; (i) billed for services not necessary to the administration of the case; (j) filed frivolous or baseless pleadings; or (k) engaged in conduct adverse to the estate" as vague, ambiguous, and undefined. White & Case further objects to this Request as not relevant and because the burden and expense of searching for responsive non-privileged communications, if any exist, outweigh any benefits for the contested matter at issue. White & Case further objects to this Request as overly burdensome and harassing because it seeks documents that, if they exist, are publicly available.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 7

All pleadings filed in any bankruptcy court in any case in which White & Case LLP served as counsel in which any party requested, sought, or argued for the reduction, denial, modification, or disallowance of any attorney's fees or costs requested by White & Case LLP, regardless of whether such request or objection was sustained, overruled, or otherwise resolved.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 7

White & Case incorporates its General Objections as though fully set forth herein. White & Case objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and harassing because, among other things, it seeks information that is not relevant or necessary to the resolution of the W&C Fee Application or the objection thereto, which can be resolved based on the record already before the Court. White &

Case further objects on the basis that the Request, which expressly relates to other cases, is on its face not relevant to the W&C Fee Application or the objection in this proceeding. White & Case further objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case, because, among other things, it seeks "All" documents from "any case" without limitation. White & Case further objects to this Request as not relevant and because the burden and expense of searching for responsive non-privileged communications, if any exist, outweigh any benefits for the contested matter at issue. White & Case further objects to this Request as overly burdensome and harassing because it seeks documents that, if they exist, are publicly available.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 8

All Communications among White & Case Personnel referencing the Consenting Creditors' Statement filed at Docket No. 589, to the extent such communications relate to Billing Practices, staffing decisions, or the volume of fees being generated in the Engagement. This Request does not seek communications reflecting legal strategy or mental impressions regarding the substantive response to the Statement, but solely communications regarding whether and how the Statement should affect billing or staffing decisions.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 8

White & Case incorporates its General Objections as though fully set forth herein. White & Case objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and harassing because, among other things, it seeks information that is not relevant or necessary to the resolution of the W&C Fee Application or the objection thereto, which can be resolved based on the record already before the Court. White & Case further objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case, because, among other things, it seeks "All Communications" without limitation. White & Case further objects to this Request as seeking documents or information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, and/or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection. White & Case further objects to this Request as not relevant and because the burden and expense of searching for responsive non-privileged communications, if any exist, outweigh any benefits for the contested matter at issue.

not proportional to the needs of the case, because, among other things, it seeks "All Communications" without limitation. White & Case further objects to the Request as vague and ambiguous, including the phrase "assignment or reassignment of time entries." White & Case further objects to this Request as seeking documents or information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, and/or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection. White & Case further objects to this Request as not relevant and because the burden and expense of searching for responsive non-privileged communications, if any exist, outweigh any benefits for the contested matter at issue. White & Case further objects to this Request to the extent it is duplicative of Request Nos. 1 and 3.

Subject to a meet and confer between the parties and absent an order from the Court regarding the need for, or appropriate scope of, discovery in this contested matter, White & Case will not produce documents responsive to this request at this time.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 10

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 10

White & Case incorporates its General Objections as though fully set forth herein. White & Case objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and harassing because, among other things, it seeks information that is not relevant or necessary to the resolution of the W&C Fee Application or the objection thereto, which can be resolved based on the record already before the Court. RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 11

White & Case incorporates its General Objections as though fully set forth herein. White & Case objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and harassing because, among other things, it seeks information that is not relevant or necessary to the resolution of the W&C Fee Application or the objection thereto, which can be resolved based on the record already before the Court. White & Case further objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case, because, among other things, it seeks "All documents sufficient to show" without limitation. White & Case further objects to the Request as vague and ambiguous, including the phrase "anticipated fee range." White & Case further objects to this Request as seeking documents or information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, and/or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection. White & Case further objects to this Request as not relevant and because the burden and expense of searching for responsive non-privileged communications, if any exist, outweigh any benefits for the contested matter at issue. White & Case further objects to this Request as seeking information already in the Reorganized Debtors' possession and refers the Reorganized Debtors to, among other things, communications by and among White & Case and Latham & Watkins, LLP concerning weekly budgets for work performed by White & Case during the Engagement. White & Case further objects to this Request to the extent it is duplicative of Request No. 1.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 12

All Communications among White & Case Personnel concerning whether a budget, fee estimate, fee projection, or anticipated fee range should be prepared or filed in connection with the Engagement, including any Communications discussing reasons for preparing, not preparing, filing, or not filing such a budget or estimate.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 12

White & Case incorporates its General Objections as though fully set forth herein. White & Case objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and harassing because, among other things, it seeks information that is not relevant or necessary to the resolution of the W&C Fee Application or the objection thereto, which can be resolved based on the record already before the Court. White & Case further objects to this Request on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case, because, among other things, it seeks "All Communications" without limitation. White & Case further objects to the Request as vague and ambiguous, including the phrase "anticipated fee range." White & Case further objects to this Request as seeking documents or information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, and/or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection.

White & Case further objects to this Request as not relevant and because the burden and expense of searching for responsive non-privileged communications, if any exist, outweigh any benefits for the contested matter at issue. White & Case further objects to this Request to the extent it is duplicative of Request Nos. 1 and 11.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 13

All Communications among White & Case Personnel concerning whether the professional fees incurred or anticipated to be incurred in connection with the Engagement were excessive, unusually high, disproportionate to the matters at issue, likely to draw objection, or otherwise at risk of reduction or disallowance by the Court.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 13

All,

Pursuant to see page 47, para 7(i) of the attached DIP Order, a segregated Escrow Account has been created to deposit funds for both Debtor and UCC professionals, to be paid out once fee applications are submitted and the applicable objection periods pass. FTI has been reaching out to all impacted professionals weekly to get fee estimates for past work done and instructing the Company to fund the Account.

To that end, please provide us with an estimate for fees and expenses incurred through end of week last Friday 9/19.

Q. So is Mr. Mounts Gonzales just wrong?

A. I mean, I think so.

Q. Okay. Good, I'm glad to say.

Do you believe that the committee is approaching this case as a terrorist?

MS. WINE: Object to the form.

A. I don't know what -- I don't know what that really means.

Q. Okay. Well, you agree with me that "terrorist" is a fairly pointed word?

MS. WINE: Object to the form.

A. Yes.

Q. So let's see if we can maybe bring down the temperature in the case.

You understand that official committees of unsecured creditors have duties that they need to fulfill in the case, right?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And how would you describe your understanding, if any, of those duties generally?

A. They are supposed to act as fiduciaries on behalf of all unsecured creditors.

Q. Okay. And would you agree that those duties to act as fiduciaries typically play out in certain acts taken by committees?

MS. WINE: Objection to form.

A. Yes. The committee does -- always does certain things. What they do I think would vary case to case.

Q. Now let's draw a distinction with respect to ad hoc groups of creditors.

You've interacted with ad hoc groups of creditors, right?

A. I have.

Q. And is it your understanding, just as a business perspective, that ad hoc groups of creditors bear the same duties with respect to a class of creditors as a whole?

MS. WINE: Objection to form.

A. They don't.

Q. Right. So, for example, the consenting creditors in this case, is it your understanding that they owe duties to all secured creditors in these cases?

A. I don't believe they do.

Z. JAMAL

Q. Okay. Let's talk about what this particular UCC has done.

In your experience, is it common for a UCC to seek to form views on distributable value in a Chapter 11 case?

MR. STANFIELD: Objection to the form of the question.

A. It could be something they do, yes.

Q. Okay. Have you done it when you've been an advisor to a committee, formed views as to distributable value under a plan?

MR. STANFIELD: Hold on a second.

Objection to the form of the question.

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And as part of that exercise of determining distributable value, is it common in your experience for committees to hire advisors?

MR. STANFIELD: Object to the form of the question.

A. In my experience UCCs typically hire advisors, yes.

Q. Okay. And have you ever heard of Alix Partners being described as a terrorist in any case?

MR. STANFIELD: Object to the form of the question.

A. Not that I can recall.

Q. In your experience, has Alix Partners ever taken extreme views that you would find to be outside the bounds of normal FA behavior?

MS. WINE: Objection to form.

A. I don't know what that means.

Q. Okay. In a case in which -- in a big Chapter 11, is it common for, in your experience, for a financial advisor for a committee to perform valuations?

A. It might be something they do.

Q. Okay. And where did the distributable values -- have you been involved in other cases where distributable value is post-reorganization stock?

A. Yes.

Q. And that's the distributable value largely in this case, right?

MR. STANFIELD: Objection; form.

A. Yes. Primarily the recovery that creditors are receiving here is in the form of equity in the reorganized company.

Q. Right. And then there's a cash component?

A. Yes. A modest one.

Q. Right. Is there any other value being distributed under the current plan on file other than post-reorg equity and cash?

A. Yes.

Q. What's that?

A. Debt.

Q. And that's the takeback debt to the 1L?

A. That's correct.

Q. Let me rephrase my question.

Is there any distributable value that's being offered under the current plan to general unsecured creditors other than post-reorg equity and cash?

A. Yes.

Q. What's that?

A. Warrants.

Q. Okay. And is it, in your view, in a plan which provides for warrants for distribution, that you would expect an unsecured creditors' committee to form views with respect to the value of such warrants?

A. It might be something they do, yes.

Q. Okay. Well, you say it "might be."

Would it be outside the bounds of expected behavior for a committee to value warrants if warrants are being offered to unsecured creditors?

A. No.

MR. STANFIELD: Objection; form.

THE WITNESS: Sorry.

BY MR. SHORE:

Q. Can you think of any reason why a UCC financial advisor would not want to blindly -- sorry. Let me -- I missed a question here.

As part of a valuation exercise of post-reorg equity, would you expect that any committee FA will analyze a debtor's business plan?

MS. WINE: Objection to form.

A. That certainly might be something they do for sure, yes.

Q. That's something you did when you represented committees, right; formed views with respect to the appropriateness of the business plan to be used in a valuation?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And can you think of any reason why a financial advisor to UCC would not want to blindly rely on a business plan prepared by debtors' management? Can you think of reasons?

MS. WINE: Object to the form.

A. Sorry. Can you -- I just want to make sure.

Q. Sure.

A. Can you ask the question again?

Q. Sure. In your experience, do unsecured creditors committees' FAs blindly rely on business plan projections prepared by management in connection with a Chapter 11 case?

MS. WINE: Objection to form.

A. I don't think anyone blindly relies on stuff prepared by management.

Z. JAMAL

Q. Can you explain some of the reasons why you wouldn't want to -- why no one would blindly rely on management projections?

MS. WINE: The same objection.

A. Well, because in order to analyze something, whether for performing valuation or otherwise, you need to understand it. And blind reliance suggests, at least the way you used it, and maybe I'm misunderstanding your use, that you just take it as given and don't even understand what it means.

And it's hard to do something when you don't understand what it means.

Q. Okay. Did you have any expectation when you were preparing your valuation in this case that the committee would be looking at the debtors' valuation?

A. I expected they would look at it.

Q. And did you expect that the committee would also be looking at the business plan?

A. Yes.

Q. And you know that Alix has now formed views on both, right?

Z. JAMAL

A. That's my understanding.

Q. And that those views have been laid out in two expert reports which have been circulated to the debtors and the other creditors, subject to the confi in this case, right?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. I'll get to this later, but in your view, do you view either report as having been prepared in bad faith?

MS. WINE: Objection to form.

A. Bad faith? I don't think so.

Q. Well, you have no reason to believe that either Mr. Brown or Mr. Magrisi set forth views that they don't actually hold?

MR. STANFIELD: Objection; form.

A. I haven't talked to them. I have no reason to believe it one way or the other.

Q. Now, in your experience dealing with creditors committees, is it common for financial advisors to a committee to engage in periodic calls with the debtors' management or financial advisors to discuss things like business plan?

Z. JAMAL

MS. WINE: Objection to form.

A. Yes, they typically do.

Q. And that's happened here, right? The Alix team has met periodically with the Moelis and FTI teams to discuss aspects of the case?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Have you participated in those?

A. I think maybe a couple of them.

Q. Okay. And in your experience was Alix doing anything that you thought was appropriate -- sorry -- inappropriate?

A. Nothing comes to mind sitting here right now.

Q. In addition to the exchange of information and calls, is it common in your experience for committees to issue document requests and deposition notices?

A. I would say it's common to ask for diligence. I don't know that I would describe deposition notices as common.

Q. Okay. Have you experienced cases where deposition notices and document requests have been served?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And are you aware that that has happened in this case?

A. Yes.

Q. And are you aware of whether or not the debtors have voluntarily agreed to produce documents and witnesses in response to the requests?

MS. WINE: Objection to form.

MR. STANFIELD: Objection; form.

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Let's talk about the schedule for a bit.

All of that discovery has been taking place, to your knowledge, on an accelerated timeline, right?

A. I don't know what "accelerated" means in this context. I think it's been taking place on a timeline that we have.

Q. Okay. And that was pursuant to a scheduling order that was entered in the case, right?

MS. WINE: Objection to form.

Q. Do you know?

A. I don't actually know whether a scheduling order was entered in this case or not.

Q. Do you know when the debtors were originally seeking to have their confirmation hearing?

A. I believe before Thanksgiving.

Q. Okay. And you're aware that the Court has now pushed that to next month?

A. I am.

Q. Okay. In your experience is one of the things that committees do when appointed is form views with respect to the motions that a debtor has filed on the first day of the case?

MS. WINE: Objection to form.

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Do you have a recollection of what the committee actually objected to with respect to the first-day motions that were heard on the second-day hearing?

A. Yes.

Q. What?

Z. JAMAL

A. The DIP. And then I believe there was some objection to I think the critical vendor payments.

Q. Okay. Did you think that there was anything untoward or unexpected about the committee's objection to the DIP?

MR. STANFIELD: Objection to form.

MS. WINE: Objection to form.

A. Yes.

Q. What?

A. I thought it was unexpected that they would object to the company obtaining financing when without the financing it wouldn't have been able to operate the business on an ongoing basis.

Q. Is it your understanding that the committee sought to have the entire DIP not approved or just certain terms?

A. Well, I think that because the DIP financing was an all-or-nothing proposition, objecting to certain terms was effectively or tantamount to objecting to the whole thing.

Q. Did the terms actually change in the DIP from the time it was proposed to the Court and the time the DIP order was entered?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And why did that happen?

MS. WINE: Objection to form.

A. I --

Q. If you know.

A. I don't know the specifics of why it happened.

Q. At the time of the DIP, had you prepared any views of total enterprise value of the debtors?

A. I think our valuation work at the time was ongoing, but, um, the timeline is, you know, was such that I don't know what was done when. And so I would have to go back and try and remember exactly when we were done with our valuation relative to the DIP. But, you know, so I don't remember the specifics.

Q. Prior to the final DIP order being entered did you provide or Moelis provide any advice to the board with respect to what 20 percent of the post-reorg equity of the debtors was worth, which would be paid in the form of a DIP backstop fee?

A. I don't believe so. Again, I would have to go back and refresh my recollection on that.

Q. Okay. In your experience in connection with DIP objections, have you seen objections where an official committee has objected to a DIP?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And have you ever seen a committee object to a critical vendors motion in another case?

A. Not that I recall.

Q. Would you consider the objections to the DIP and the critical vendor motion to have been a committee acting as a terrorist?

MS. WINE: Objection to form.

A. As a terrorist? No. I don't think so.

Q. I think the only other real objection in the case so far has been to the UHC settlement.

Did you form any views with respect to the appropriateness of the committee objecting to the UHC settlement?

MODIVCARE INC., et al.,	§	Case No. 25-90309 (ARP)
Reorganized Debtors. [1]	§	(Jointly Administered)

OBJECTION TO ITS FINAL FEE APPLICATION

AlixPartners, LLP ("AlixPartners"),[2] financial advisor for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases of the debtors and debtors in possession (the "Debtors" and after the Effective Date, collectively, the "Reorganized Debtors") submits this reply (the "AlixPartners Reply") in further support of to the Final Fee Application of AlixPartners, LLP, Financial Advisor to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, for Allowance of Compensation for Professional Services Rendered and Reimbursement of Expenses Incurred for the Period from September 10, 2025 through December 29, 2025 [Docket No. 1288] (the "Application"), and in response to the Reorganized Debtors' Objection.[3]:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. The Objection is long on rhetoric and short on substance. It ignores the reality of the challenges facing the Committee's professionals when they were retained. As the First Day Declaration shows, FTI Consulting Ltd. ("FTI"), the financial advisor to the Debtors, began working on the Debtors' restructuring in November 2024, almost nine months before AlixPartners was engaged. The First Day Declaration characterizes the Debtors' corporate structure as complex, and the Restructuring Support Agreement and DIP allowed for very tight timeframes before confirmation. Given the complexity of the Debtors' businesses, and the pre-arranged nature of the cases, it should not be surprising that AlixPartners was required to quickly mobilize and dedicate substantial resources to understanding the company, its assets, and their values.

2. The Objection advances a series of generalized criticisms of the Committee's professionals that are disguised as "reasonableness" objections, mirroring positions that the Debtors' lenders (the so called "Consenting Creditors")[4] expressed throughout these Chapter 11 Cases regarding the Committee's role and the work performed by its advisors.[5] The present Objection is simply the culmination of that strategy: a last-ditch effort by the Consenting Creditors to continue litigating after a contested confirmation process through challenges to the fee applications of Committee professionals. Such an objection, untethered to the actual services

4 "Consenting Creditors" refers to the entities listed in Exhibit A to the Verified Statement Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2019 [Docket No. 791].

5 See Reservation of Rights of the Consenting Creditors with Respect to White & Case LLP's First Monthly Fee Statement for Allowance of Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses for the Period from September 9, 2025 to and Including September 30, 2025, and First Monthly Fee Statement of AlixPartners, LLP, Financial Advisor to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, for Allowance of Compensation for Professional Services Rendered and Reimbursement of Expenses Incurred for the Period from September 10, 2025 through September 30, 2025 [Docket No. 753] at ¶¶ 4 6. It is clear that the Consenting Creditors, now in control of the reorganized enterprise, are, through the Objection, using the Reorganized Debtors to further their pre-confirmation agenda.

3. The Objection represents an effort to punish the Committee professionals for zealously representing their client's interests. The record is clear: AlixPartners' work was critical to enabling the Committee to meet the accelerated timetable imposed by the Consenting Creditors and to fully litigate the complex valuation and business plan issues at the heart of these Chapter 11 Cases. Oddly, in challenging AlixPartners' hourly rates, the Debtors ignore the Court's order authorizing AlixPartners' retention in which those exact rates were approved. A challenge to the rates charged by AlixPartners could have and should have been made at the time AlixPartners filed its retention application, not in response to a final fee application. The Objection reflects a transparent attempt to punish Committee professionals for fulfilling the duties they were retained to perform.

4. The Application fully complies with the Order Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals [Docket No. 500] and all applicable fee guidelines, and the fees and expenses requested are reasonable under section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code. Fee applications must provide sufficient information to allow the Court to evaluate the reasonableness and necessity of the services rendered.[6] The Application satisfies this standard and provides ample detail for the Court to assess the reasonableness of the services performed and expenses incurred. Because the Objection fails to identify any actual shortcoming in AlixPartners' work and instead attempts to use the compensation process as a litigation tactic, it should be overruled and the Application approved in full.

RELEVANT BACKGROUND

5. These Chapter 11 Cases unfolded under an unusually compressed timeline, requiring the Committee and its professionals to investigate the Debtors' financial condition, develop expert analyses, and prepare for confirmation in a matter of weeks.

6. AlixPartners commenced its engagement with the Committee on September 10, 2025, and its retention was approved by this Court on November 4, 2025, at a critical stage of these Chapter 11 Cases. At the time AlixPartners commenced its engagement, the Debtors had already filed a Plan and Disclosure Statement and were pursuing an expedited path to confirmation, with the Confirmation Hearing scheduled for November 18, 2025 (at the request of the Committee, it was later moved to begin on December 8, 2025). As a result, the Committee and its professionals were left with an extraordinarily compressed time within which to discharge their statutory duties to investigate the Debtors' financial condition, analyze the proposed restructuring, participate in the formulation of a plan and prepare for what was expected to be (and, in fact, ultimately was) a contested Confirmation Hearing. See 11 U.S.C. 1103(c).

7. The Committee's work was particularly time-sensitive because the Debtors' Disclosure Statement assumed no recovery for unsecured creditors based on the Debtors' asserted valuation of the enterprise.[7] The Committee, however, believed the Debtors' valuation understated the value of the business and that a proper valuation analysis could materially affect recoveries for unsecured creditors. Because the Debtors were not pursuing a postpetition marketing or sales process, enterprise value would necessarily be determined at confirmation through expert testimony. This required the Committee, with the assistance of AlixPartners, to conduct an expedited, but comprehensive, review of the Debtors' financial projections, business operations, and restructuring assumptions in order to develop an independent view on valuation and the Debtors' business plan.

8. Against this backdrop, AlixPartners mobilized a team of senior professionals across multiple workstreams to meet the accelerated schedule dictated by the lenders. In a matter of weeks, AlixPartners conducted extensive diligence on the Debtors' financial projections and operations, participated in numerous diligence sessions with the Debtors' financial advisor, interviewed company management, and prepared expert analyses addressing both the valuation of the enterprise and the Debtors' business plan. AlixPartners also submitted expert reports in advance of the Confirmation Hearing and its professionals were deposed and testified at the DIP hearing and the Confirmation Hearing. In addition, AlixPartners provided critical financial analysis and support in connection with the Committee's objection to the Debtors' proposed DIP financing and informed the Committee's litigation strategy and presentation at the Confirmation Hearing.

9. AlixPartners also worked closely with Committee counsel, White & Case LLP, to support the Committee's investigation and litigation efforts, as is customary practice in these situations. The Objection's critique that AlixPartners was overinvolved in legal matters demonstrates a misunderstanding of the collaboration between attorneys and financial advisors that is required in large, complex chapter 11 cases to improve unsecured creditors' recoveries. The lawyers are not expected to provide the financial advisory and analysis services, and the financial advisors are not expected to provide the legal skills, both of which were necessary to effectively advocate for the Committee. This work included assisting with discovery related to historical transactions, analyzing a significant prepetition liability management exercise undertaken six months prior to the Petition Date, evaluating potential causes of action, and supporting challenges relating to liens and other issues under the Bankruptcy Code. AlixPartners further assisted with extensive discovery related to the Debtors' proposed plan and related litigation, including document review, participation in numerous depositions and management interviews, preparation for the Confirmation Hearing, and provided financial analysis that informed the Committee's presentation at the five-day confirmation trial.

10. Importantly, AlixPartners was retained not only to serve as the Committee's financial advisor but also to advise the Committee on valuation of the Debtors' assets. See [Docket No. 473] at Ex. B. By leveraging AlixPartners' capabilities in both capacities, the Committee avoided the need to retain a separate firm for valuation purposes, thereby saving the estate significant additional professional fees. This approach contrasted with the Debtors' own advisory structure, under which the Debtors retained both FTI as financial advisor and Moelis & Company ("Moelis") as investment banker, whose combined fees and expenses totaled approximately $20.8 million, far exceeding those of AlixPartners.[8]

11. Ultimately, the issues raised by the Committee, including valuation and the feasibility of the Debtors' business plan, were litigated during a five-day Confirmation Hearing that included extensive witness testimony, including that of two AlixPartners professionals. AlixPartners' work was critical to ensure the Committee could meet the accelerated timeline dictated by the Consenting Creditors and the Debtors and fully defend its positions in complex financial issues in furtherance of the Committee's statutory duties.

12. In fact, the Court found AlixPartners' valuation credible, as follows:

(Court) "First of all, I want to thank everyone for their presentations and their professionalism. I think I was very, very happy with the level of the quality of the briefs, the quality of the arguments, and I commend everybody for in a very, very short period of time being able to do that.

OBJECTIONS TO THE APPLICATION AND REPLIES THERETO

13. The Objection seeks reductions to the Application based on a series of largely repetitive allegations, including purportedly above-market hourly rates, systemic overstaffing, improper billing practices, duplication of services performed by Committee counsel, and alleged deficiencies in time entry descriptions. As explained below, each of these arguments lacks merit.

14. The Objection fails to meet the legal standard required to challenge a professional's compensation under section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code. Under 11 U.S.C. § 330(a), the Court may award reasonable compensation for actual and necessary services based on the nature, extent, and value of the services rendered, including factors such as the time spent, rates charged, necessity of the services, and benefit to the estate. In assessing reasonableness, courts also apply the Johnson factors, which require a fact-specific evaluation of the services performed, including, among other considerations, the time and labor required, the complexity and novelty of the issues addressed, the skill required, and the results obtained. See 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1), (a)(3); Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714, 717-19 (5th Cir. 1974).

15. The Objection fails to satisfy the standard required to challenge a professional's compensation under section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code. An objection to fees must identify specific deficiencies or demonstrate that the services were unreasonable. See In re Bartenwerfer, 613 B.R. 730, 736 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2020) ("Debtors were required to object to specific time entries to obtain a reduction or disallowance of fees. This entailed 'specifically identify[ing] defects or deficiencies in the hours requested. Conclusory and unsubstantiated objections are insufficient to warrant a reduction in fees.'"); In re Kelsey, 272 B.R. 830, 834 (Bankr. D. Vt. 2002) ("[T]hose challenging an attorney's fee application must articulate their objection with specificity, indicating particular entries that seem unreasonable, rather than expounding conclusory statements that applicant is seeking too much compensation"). The Objection does not do so. Instead, it raises broad and unsupported criticisms of the Committee's professionals while ignoring the extensive work performed by AlixPartners in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases.

16. The Objection also improperly attempts to evaluate isolated time entries in a vacuum, without considering the broader context of the Committee's engagement or the pace and complexity of the Chapter 11 proceedings in which the services were performed. See In re Dabney, 417 B.R. 826, 832-33 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. 2009) ("A reasonable fee must be a function not only of the complexity of the debts and assets of the debtor, but of the complexity of the debtor herself. Thus, reasonableness is a function of both objective factors such as time, complexity of issues, and length of representation, and subjective factors such as the nature of the client, the difficulty of the client's predicament, her reliability and predictability."); In re Kyung Tae Ko, 560 B.R. 245, 250-51 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 2016) (stating that the "fee review and allowance process is a holistic one. It involves, on one level, looking at the big picture of a case. What were the results obtained? What were the problems encountered? What expertise did counsel bring to the case? Was the rate charged for the services within the legal community norms? And, was the engagement completed in a timely, efficient manner under the circumstances?"). When viewed in context, the services reflected in the Application were reasonable, necessary, appropriately staffed, and were critical to enabling the Committee to meet the Debtors' and Consenting Creditors' accelerated timeline and litigate the complex financial issues presented at the Confirmation Hearing.

A. AlixPartners' Hourly Rates Are Reasonable, Consistent with Market Practice, and Were Approved By The Court

17. The Objection's assertion that AlixPartners' hourly rates are unreasonable is unsupported and contrary to the record in these Chapter 11 Cases, and the prevailing hourly rates for leading restructuring advisory firms in large chapter 11 cases.

18. As an initial matter, it is far too late for the Reorganized Debtor to challenge the hourly rates AlixPartners charged in these Chapter 11 Cases. AlixPartners' compensation structure was fully disclosed in its retention application and expressly approved by this Court in the Order Authorizing the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors to Employ and Retain AlixPartners, LLP as its Financial Advisor Effective as of September 10, 2025 (the "Retention Order") [Docket No. 644], which provides that "AlixPartners' compensation terms set forth in the Engagement Letter, including, without limitation, the Fee and Expense Structure, are approved." Retention Order ¶ 5. Such approval at the time of AlixPartners' retention supports the reasonableness of AlixPartners' fee structure, and the Objection's attempt to challenge those rates now, without identifying any change in circumstances or other basis to revisit the Court's prior approval, lacks merit.

19. Further, AlixPartners' rates are consistent with the other bankruptcy financial advisory firms, including the financial advisory firm hired by the Debtors in these Chapter 11 Cases. The Bankruptcy Code directs courts to consider "the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3)(F). Consistent with that standard, the appropriate benchmark for evaluating AlixPartners' rates is the market for comparable restructuring advisory services, not isolated averages or the generalized "industry data" cited in the Objection.

20. AlixPartners' rates fall within the market ranges charged by comparable restructuring advisory firms during the relevant period. For example, publicly disclosed restructuring advisory rates for the leading firms in the industry during 2025 reflected the following ranges:[9]

Alvarez & Marsal Rates

Title	Hourly Rate
Managing Director	$1100-$1575
Director	$850-$1100
Associate	$625-$825
Analyst	$450-$600

FTI Rates

Title	Hourly Rate
Senior Managing Director	$1270-$1580
Directors/Senior Directors/Managing Directors	$940-$1195
Consultants/Senior Consultants	$535-$850
Administrative Paraprofessional	$195-$395

AlixPartners Rates

Title	Hourly Rate
Partner & Managing Director/Partner	$1225-$1540
Director/Senior Vice President	$850-$1150
Vice President	$650-$835
Consultant/Analyst	$250-$640

21. These ranges demonstrate that AlixPartners' rates are well within the market for comparable restructuring professionals. The Objection's reliance on a purported blended average does not establish that AlixPartners' rates are excessive, particularly given the nature of the services performed and the senior expertise required for the Committee's workstreams.

22. Courts in complex Chapter 11 cases routinely approve rates comparable to those approved here. See, e.g., In re Office Properties Income Trust, No. 25-90530 (CML) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Dec. 15, 2025) (approving retention of AlixPartners at comparable rates); In re Anthology Inc., No. 25-90498 (ARP) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Dec. 8, 2025) (same); In re Ascend Performance Materials Holdings Inc., No. 25-90127 (CML) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. July 9, 2025) (same); In re Docudata Solutions, L.C., No. 25-90024 (CML) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Apr. 17, 2025) (same); In re Party City Holdco Inc., No. 24-90621 (ARP) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Feb. 12, 2025) (same); In re Intrum

[9] While these tables reflect accurate rate ranges of the firms listed according to publicly available documents, titles are not directly transferrable between and among the firms.

AB, No. 24-90575 (CML) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Jan. 3, 2025) (same). Courts likewise approve comparable rates for other leading restructuring advisors, including Alvarez & Marsal and FTI Consulting. See, e.g., In re Pine Gate Renewables, LLC, No. 25-90669 (CML) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Dec. 16, 2025) (approving retention of Alvarez & Marsal at comparable rates); In re First Brands Group, LLC, No. 25-90399 (CML) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Dec. 8, 2025) (same); In re Linqto TX, LLC, No. 25-90186 (ARP) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Sept. 17, 2025) (same); In re Ascend Performance Materials Holdings Inc., No. 25-90127 (CML) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. June 12, 2025) (approving retention of FTI Consulting at comparable rates). The Objection offers no evidence demonstrating that the rates approved by this Court and charged by AlixPartners fall outside the range charged by similarly situated professionals.

23. Therefore, AlixPartners' rates reflect standard market pricing for senior restructuring advisory services in complex Chapter 11 cases and fully satisfy the standards set forth in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. Comparing Financial Advisor Rates to Attorney Rates Is Improper

24. The Objection's attempt to compare the billing rates of AlixPartners' professionals to those of legal counsel is fundamentally flawed. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code requires comparison to "comparably skilled practitioners," not professionals performing entirely different functions.

25. Financial advisors and attorneys perform distinct but complementary roles in chapter 11 proceedings. Financial advisors provide services such as liquidity analysis, financial diligence, valuation analysis, business plan evaluation, and expert testimony. These services require specialized financial and operational expertise that differs materially from the legal services provided by counsel. Accordingly, courts evaluate the reasonableness of financial advisory rates by reference to other restructuring advisory firms, not attorneys. See, e.g., In re

Pilgrim's Pride Corp., 690 F.3d 650, 655 (5th Cir. 2012) (recognizing that market-based compensation for professionals is appropriate under section 330). When evaluated against the appropriate benchmark (rates charged by other restructuring advisory firms) AlixPartners' rates fall within the prevailing market range.

C. The Staffing Structure was Appropriate Given the Scope and Complexity of the Engagement

26. The Objection's criticism of AlixPartners' staffing levels reflects an improper attempt to second-guess professional judgment, rather than evaluating whether the services were reasonable when rendered. The Objection further reflects an improper understanding of these Chapter 11 Cases and how top-tier financial advisory firms, such as AlixPartners, approach Chapter 11 cases altogether.

27. The factors under section 330(a)(3) support the full allowance of AlixPartners' fees set forth in the Application. The services that AlixPartners rendered were beneficial toward assisting the Committee in discharging its fiduciary duties and AlixPartners' work was in furtherance of the interests of unsecured creditors. As noted above, this was a complex case barreling toward confirmation on an accelerated timeline. Understanding and evaluating a company with operations in 48 states, subject to a pervasive regulatory regime, and with billions in revenues and debt, required the expenditure of senior staff with specific skill sets and expertise. Therefore, this required senior-level restructuring expertise, including financial diligence, evaluation of a complex DIP structure, business plan analysis, preparation of expert reports and testimony. As a result, the engagement necessarily required significant involvement from experienced professionals, including Partner and Managing Director, Partner, and Director-level personnel. The composition of the AlixPartners team reflected the nature of the work required to advise the Committee during a highly compressed Chapter 11 process that culminated in a contested confirmation hearing involving complex valuation and business plan issues.

28. The Reorganized Debtors do not criticize AlixPartners' skill and expertise in the bankruptcy field and instead attempt to criticize the fees based on staffing despite them paying far more to their own financial advisor and investment banker.

29. The Objection's suggestion that the work should have been performed primarily by more junior professionals ignores the reality that the Committee required senior advisory expertise to evaluate the Debtors' projections, analyze complex financial issues, and prepare expert reports and provide expert testimony within the confirmation schedule.

30. Exhibit A attached hereto identifies AlixPartners' core team of professionals who worked on the engagement, their roles, and highlights the key tasks to which they contributed. Exhibit A supports that professionals were assigned specific responsibilities necessary to support the Committee's work in these Chapter 11 Cases.

31. In light of the scope, complexity, and timing of the engagement, the staffing structure employed by AlixPartners was both reasonable and necessary.

D. The Hours Billed Reflect the Work Reasonably Required by the Case

32. The Objection's claim that AlixPartners engaged in "overstaffing" or "gang billing"[10] mischaracterizes the nature of the work performed and selectively cites isolated time entries without considering the broader context of the engagement.

33. AlixPartners employed a team-based approach typical in complex restructuring engagements, consisting of professionals with distinct responsibilities across multiple workstreams. Because these workstreams were often interrelated, including liquidity projections, valuation analysis, investigation of historical transactions, business plan review, and litigation support, coordination among team members was both necessary and efficient.

34. Attendance of team members at certain meetings, including regularly scheduled meetings to ensure that everyone was informed of key facts and relevant data across workstreams, reflected their specific roles in those workstreams and ensured that the Committee and its advisors could receive immediate and informed responses to questions as they arose. Rather than being unnecessary or overbilling, those meetings actually promoted efficiency in the delivery of advisory services.

35. Contrary to the suggestion in the Objection, having team members that fulfill different roles attend key meetings together is often more efficient than requiring separate follow-up communications to relay information to professionals who were not present. In fast-moving chapter 11 cases, such coordination is routine and essential to ensure that consultants remain aligned and able to respond promptly to developments in the case.

36. In reality, the hours billed were commensurate with the work required to analyze the Debtors' business plan, support the Committee's negotiations and litigation efforts, and prepare for the five-day confirmation hearing that ultimately resolved these Chapter 11 Cases. The hours reflected in the Application are consistent with the scope and urgency of that work.

E. AlixPartners' Work Was Complementary to, and Not Duplicative of, Committee Counsel's Work

37. The Objection's assertion that AlixPartners duplicated the work of Committee counsel reflects a fundamental misunderstanding of the distinct roles performed by financial advisors and attorneys in chapter 11 proceedings.

38. When analyzing whether AlixPartners performed services that it should not have, the Court need look no further than the November 20, 2025 testimony of Zul Jamal of Moelis & Company (the Debtors' financial advisor) who testified that as follows:

> (Mr. Shore) Q. Okay. In a case in which -- in a big Chapter 11, is it common for, in your experience, for a financial advisor for a committee to perform valuations?
> (Mr. Jamal) A. It might be something they do.

Jamal Nov. 20, 2025 Dep. Tr. 23:13-17.

39. Financial advisors and legal counsel routinely work on the same subject matters such as plan negotiations, disclosure statements, or financing arrangements, but they perform different functions within those workstreams. Financial advisors provide financial, operational, and valuation analysis that informs the Committee's strategic and legal positions, while counsel addresses the legal structure, negotiation, and litigation of those issues. Accordingly, the presence of similar billing category descriptions (e.g., "Plan," "Disclosure Statement," or "DIP Financing") does not indicate duplication of services.

40. For example, while counsel was responsible for drafting pleadings, negotiating legal terms, and litigating issues before the Court, AlixPartners' work focused on financial diligence and analysis, including reviewing the Debtors' financial projections, assessing the proposed DIP financing, evaluating the Debtors' business plan, assessing enterprise value, analyzing creditor recoveries, and providing expert reports and testimony concerning those financial matters. These financial analyses were necessary to inform the Committee's legal strategy and could not have been performed by counsel.

41. Similarly, with respect to matters such as the Restructuring Support Agreement, Plan negotiations, and the Disclosure Statement, counsel addressed the legal structure and documentation of those matters, while AlixPartners analyzed the financial implications of the proposed transactions, assessed the reasonableness of the Debtors' projections and assumptions, and evaluated the impact of those proposals on creditor recoveries. These roles are inherently complementary.

42. The Objection also overlooks the fact that effective representation of a creditors' committee requires close coordination between financial advisors and counsel, particularly where, as was the case here, the issues presented at confirmation involved complex valuation and business plan disputes. Coordination between advisors and counsel, including attendance at key meetings and hearings, is not duplication, but rather a necessary component of providing informed and effective advice to the Committee.

43. The Objection asserts that it is problematic that multiple AlixPartners professionals attended certain hearings and preparation sessions and further criticizes the presence of both AlixPartners and White & Case at those proceedings. That criticism reflects a misunderstanding of standard practice in complex Chapter 11 cases. Experienced bankruptcy practitioners recognize that each professional serves a distinct role, and that attendance at hearings and related preparation sessions is driven by subject matter expertise and the needs of the engagement. In particular, having multiple professionals present enables real-time support during hearings, facilitates the efficient division of responsibility across discrete issues and workstreams, and ensures that questions arising on different topics can be addressed promptly and accurately. This is especially critical in complex proceedings, where financial, operational, and legal issues are often intertwined and evolve quickly.

44. Attendance by AlixPartners professionals at hearings and strategy sessions was similarly appropriate where those proceedings directly involved financial issues on which AlixPartners was advising the Committee. Indeed, the Debtors' own professionals in these Chapter

11 Cases followed the same approach. Multiple professionals from the Debtors' advisory teams attended key hearings, including those identified in the Objection. For example, professionals from FTI Consulting and Hunton Andrew Kurth attended numerous hearings, including the September 30 hearing cited in the Objection and the confirmation hearing, both firms with multiple representatives present, consistent with the complexity and scope of the issues being addressed.[11]

45. Ultimately, the work performed by AlixPartners provided the financial analysis and expert support necessary for the Committee to evaluate the Debtors' proposals and litigate the complex valuation and business plan issues presented in these cases. Far from duplicating counsel's work, AlixPartners' services enabled the Committee to meet the accelerated confirmation timeline and to effectively discharge its statutory duties.

46. Courts routinely recognize that financial advisors and counsel must work collaboratively on the same issues in Chapter 11 cases, and such coordination is both expected and necessary to ensure that the committee receives informed financial and legal advice.

F. Time Spent Preparing Fee Applications is Compensable and Reasonable

47. Time spent preparing interim and final fee applications is expressly compensable under section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code and the applicable fee guidelines. See 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(6) ("Any compensation awarded for the preparation of a fee application shall be based on the level and skill reasonably required to prepare the application."). Courts consistently recognize that preparing fee applications is a necessary component of a professional's engagement in [11] See FTI Consulting Inc.'s Application for Final Allowance and Payment of Fees and Expenses as Financial Advisor, Chief Transformation Officer, and Additional Personnel for the Debtors for the Period from August 20, 2025 through December 29, 2025 [Docket No. 1270] and Hunton Andrews Kurth LLP's First and Final Fee Application of Hunton Andrews Kurth LLP as Bankruptcy Co-Counsel for the Debtors for Allowance and Payment of Fees and Expenses Incurred for the Period of August 20, 2025 through December 29, 2025 [Docket No. 1269].

bankruptcy cases and is compensable when reasonable. See, e.g., In re Spanjer Bros., Inc., 203 B.R. 85, 90 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 1996).

48. During the Final Period, AlixPartners incurred time preparing monthly fee statements for September, October, November, and December 2025, as well as its final fee application. Preparation of these submissions required reviewing and organizing detailed time records, ensuring compliance with the United States Trustee Guidelines, addressing confidentiality considerations, preparing the required schedules and exhibits, and coordinating with counsel regarding the filing of the fee statements.

49. The Objection's suggestion that these efforts were excessive overlooks the detailed reporting requirements imposed by the Bankruptcy Code, the United States Trustee Guidelines, and the Court's fee procedures order. Courts routinely acknowledge that preparing fee applications requires careful review and organization of time entries, compilation of supporting schedules, and preparation of the disclosures necessary to allow the Court and parties in interest to evaluate the reasonableness of the requested compensation. See, e.g., In re CF & I Fabricators of Utah, Inc., 131 B.R. 474, 489 (Bankr. D. Utah 1991).

50. In light of the scope of the engagement and the number of professionals whose time entries were reviewed and summarized, the time incurred in preparing these required pleadings was reasonable.

G. The Time Entries Provide Sufficient Detail to Understand the Work Performed

51. The time descriptions in the Application provide sufficient detail to permit the Court to understand the nature of the services performed, which is the standard required under the Bankruptcy Code and applicable guidelines. See Matter of Evangeline Ref. Co., 890 F.2d 1312, 1326 (5th Cir. 1989). Revised entries, though not required, are attached as Exhibit B. A comparison of the original entries with the updated descriptions demonstrates that the entries included in the Application already provided sufficient information for the Court and parties in interest to understand the nature of the work performed and evaluate the reasonableness of the services rendered.[12]

H. The Objection is Misleading and AlixPartners' Time Entries Reflect Discrete Tasks and Appropriate Professional Judgment

52. The Objection's criticism of certain time entries as lumping reflects an interpretation of timekeeping standards that is inconsistent with the practical realities of complex restructuring engagements and with the standards typically applied in reviewing professional fee applications.

53. More importantly, the Objection attempts to mislead the Court by misquoting time entries in an attempt to disallow AlixPartners' fees. The Objection paraphrases or rewrites short entries, which obscures the actual language submitted in the Application and prevents a meaningful evaluation of the alleged deficiencies. Where the basis of the Objection revolves around formulistic and precise conveyance of tasks performed in the narrative of a time entry, the Objection's re-writing of entries and including them in a chart with no explanation that they are rewritten can only be characterized as misleading. Objection at ¶ 41.

54. For example, the Objection cites the following purported AlixPartners entry as evidence of "lumping":

9/10/2025	RK	Discussion... re: valuation work stream and staffing; Discussion... re: business plan workstream	0.2

However, the actual entry submitted in the Application states:

[12] The descriptions and numerical references quoted in the Objection do not always reflect the exact language or figures included in the Application. For ease of reference, AlixPartners has included both the Objection's characterization of certain entries and the corresponding entries as they appear in the Application. The same issue arises with respect to certain numerical references throughout the Objection, which vary slightly from the amounts reflected in the filed Application but do not meaningfully affect the substance of AlixPartners' responses.

09/10/2025	RK	Discussion with D. MacGreevey, R. Komendowski (AlixPartners) re: ModivCare valuation work stream and staffing	0.2

55. In their rewritten version, the Reorganized Debtors substitute language that does not appear in the actual time entry and imply that the entry reflects separate discussions regarding distinct matters when, in reality, the entry reflects a single conversation regarding the valuation workstream and related staffing. When evaluated based on the actual entry, there is no lumping concern; the entry describes a discrete task and provides sufficient detail for a twelve-minute discussion.

56. An additional sampling of such entries is shown in the chart below, highlighting the Objection's misplaced argument around alleged "lumping."

Date	Time Entry as Written in Objection	Time Entry as Written in AlixPartners' Application
9/10/2025	Discussion... re: valuation work stream and staffing; Discussion... re: business plan workstream	Discussion with D. MacGreevey, R. Komendowski (AlixPartners) re: ModivCare valuation work stream and staffing
10/2/2025	Conduct initial assessment...; compared plan margins to peer benchmarks	Conduct initial assessment of segment-level financials and cost allocations; compared plan margins to historical performance and peer benchmarks.
10/3/2025	Analyze spend data to identify trends, cost drivers, and optimization opportunities	Analyze September 2025 YTD third-party spend data to identify spending trends, cost drivers, and potential opportunities for vendor optimization
10/13/2025	Prepare effectiveness model... estimating potential savings	Prepare organizational effectiveness model for field operations estimating potential savings.

10/29/2025	Integrate initiatives into model; ensured consistency of phasing and costs	Integrate service expense initiatives into unified business-plan financial model; ensured consistency of savings phasing and one-time costs before sending to W&C for review.

57. More broadly, the Objection incorrectly assumes that any entry referencing multiple related topics necessarily constitutes "lumping." That is not the applicable standard. Where a professional performs a single task such as participating in a meeting or conference call, discussion of multiple related issues during that meeting does not transform the entry into multiple tasks requiring separate billing entries.

58. Indeed, attempting to subdivide a single call or meeting into numerous separate entries based on each topic discussed would not meaningfully enhance transparency and would instead create artificial fragmentation of time entries. In re Harry Viner, Inc., 520 B.R. 268, 276 (Bankr. W.D. Wis. 2014) ("[T]here is a law of diminishing returns in requiring separation of every single task or service" and "it would be absurd to require separate time entries for every e-mail—particularly if the subject matters or the nature of the services are the same"). Similarly, entries describing work such as developing a work plan, coordinating strategy, or discussing staffing often reflect related aspects of the same analytical or planning session. These activities are appropriately recorded together where they occur as part of a single working session rather than as separate, unrelated tasks. When viewed in context, the time entries included in the Application are appropriate and provide sufficient detail to permit the Court and parties in interest to evaluate the nature and reasonableness of the services performed.

I. The Challenged Tasks Reflect Compensable Professional Work, Not Clerical Activity

59. The Objection incorrectly characterizes certain time entries as clerical or ministerial based solely on the nature of the task described or the professional performing it. In reality, the entries reflect work that required familiarity with the issues in these Chapter 11 Cases and the exercise of professional judgment. Therefore, such tasks constitute compensable professional services under section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code.

60. Courts consistently distinguish between purely clerical functions such as basic scheduling, copying, or filing, and tasks that require knowledge of the case, evaluation of information, or coordination of substantive workstreams. The latter are properly compensable professional services. See, e.g., In re CF & I Fabricators of Utah, Inc., 131 B.R. 474, 488–89 (Bankr. D. Utah 1991). The tasks identified in the Objection constitute compensable professional work. For example, activities such as preparing and organizing data room materials, coordinating diligence materials, and establishing distribution lists for substantive communications required familiarity with the relevant workstreams and the professionals involved in those efforts. These tasks were integral to facilitating the Committee's diligence, financial analysis, and coordination among advisors.

61. In complex Chapter 11 proceedings involving extensive diligence and multiple professional teams, such work is often performed by members of the advisory team who are familiar with the case and the underlying issues. Assigning these tasks to professionals with knowledge of the engagement ensures that materials are organized correctly, distributed to the appropriate parties, and integrated efficiently into the advisory workstreams.

62. Accordingly, the entries identified in the Objection reflect reasonable professional services performed in support of the Committee's engagement and do not constitute non-compensable clerical work.

J. The Expenses Incurred Were Reasonable and Reimbursable

63. The expenses for which AlixPartners seeks reimbursement were incurred in connection with providing necessary services to the Committee and are of the type routinely reimbursed to retained professionals in chapter 11 cases. Section 330(a)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code expressly authorizes reimbursement for "actual, necessary expenses," and the expenses reflected in the Application are entirely consistent with that standard. 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1)(B)

64. First, the Objection challenges the purchase of certain third-party research reports, suggesting that AlixPartners' industry experts should have obviated the need for such materials. This criticism misunderstands the role of independent market data in financial advisory work performed in connection with business plan and valuation analysis. The reports at issue consisted of third-party market research analyzing the current state of the market and projected growth through 2030–2031 for each of the Debtors' principal business segments, including non-emergency medical transportation, personal care services, and remote patient monitoring. These reports provided objective industry data regarding market size, growth trends, and competitive dynamics. Incorporating independent market research into financial analysis is standard practice in business plan review and performance assessment engagements. Advisors routinely combine external market data with internal analytical tools and experience in order to calibrate assumptions, evaluate management projections, and develop informed conclusions regarding industry outlook and business performance.

65. Here, the reports were particularly relevant because they provided independent support for evaluating the Debtors' market growth assumptions and business plan projections. The information contained in the reports informed AlixPartners' analysis of the Debtors' projections and provided objective evidentiary support for the conclusions reflected in AlixPartners' expert rebuttal report concerning the Debtors' business plan and market outlook.[13] While AlixPartners has broader access to market trends and industry research at the US/national or global level that can provide general overview and outlook for a healthcare sub-sector, it does not include these state/market-level drivers, regulations, competitive dynamics, and related nuances. AlixPartners routinely relies on these third-party market research reports, which it charges to the client benefiting from that resource, as these are more tailored to the client's sub-sector/market focus. This is a standard practice in the consulting and advisory industry.

[13] It should be noted that AlixPartners requested that the Debtors provide access to their subscription-based research resources. In some instances they did, which saved the estate money, and in some cases they did not, which required AlixPartners to purchase certain research reports.

66. As such, AlixPartners' expenses associated with research reports were both reasonable and necessary to the work performed. The data accessed and utilized by AlixPartners in formulating the expert reports and supporting expert conclusions was reliable and necessary, and, had AlixPartners failed to utilize such current data, its expert opinions would be susceptible to attack on that very basis.

67. Second, the Objection also challenges certain lodging expenses in New York City and Houston as "luxury" accommodations. That characterization is incorrect as evidenced by the Debtors' professionals using the same accommodations. AlixPartners also voluntarily reduced actual lodging expenses, resulting in an approximate $3,200 reduction before submission of the Application. The Objection also questions why certain professionals incurred lodging expenses in New York City when AlixPartners maintains an office there. Those expenses were not incurred for routine office visits but instead related directly to matters in these Chapter 11 Cases, including in-person settlement discussions, and preparation for and participation in the deposition of Marc Brown. Given the nature and timing of those matters, travel and lodging were necessary for AlixPartners professionals who are not based in New York City in order to support the Committee's work during critical stages of the case. AlixPartners staffs its engagements with the best possible expertise and, in this instance, the AlixPartners team was composed of individuals from more than one of AlixPartners' offices.

68. In light of the scope and demands of the engagement, the expenses incurred by AlixPartners were reasonable, necessary, and of the type routinely reimbursed to professionals retained in Chapter 11 cases.

K. Post-Effective Date Fees Are Limited to the Estimated Amount

69. AlixPartners incurred post-effective date fees and, consistent with its Application, invoiced $25,000 for such services, which represents the lesser of the $25,000 estimated amount and the actual, reasonable, and necessary fees incurred related to preparation of monthly fee statements and the Application.

70. Post-effective date fees are regularly approved by courts in Chapter 11 cases. See, e.g., In re Ascend Performance Materials Holdings Inc., No. 25-90127 (CML) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Feb. 18, 2026); In re Benefytt Techs., Inc., No. 23-90566 (CML) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Dec. 8, 2023); In re CBL & Assocs. Props., Inc., No. 20-35226 (DRJ) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. (f/k/a iMedia Brands, Inc.)*, No. 23-10852 (KBO) (Bankr. D. Del. July 1, 2024); In re Boy Scouts of Am. and Delaware BSA, LLC, No. 20-10343 (LSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 17, 2023); In re Exide Holdings, Inc., No. 20-11157 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 8, 2021).

71. The invoice reflecting AlixPartners' post-effective date fees does not include any fees incurred in defending AlixPartners' fee applications in these Chapter 11 Cases and is attached as Exhibit C (the "Invoice"). The balance of the Invoice remains outstanding and subject to approval as part of the Application. This is not at odds with In re ASARCO, L.L.C. because the post-effective date fees only relate to preparation of monthly fee statements and this Application, not defending the Application against objections. See 751 F.3d 291, 299 (5th Cir. 2014).

WHEREFORE, AlixPartners, LLP respectfully requests that the Court (i) overrule the Objection in its entirety; (ii) approve the Application and allow the compensation and reimbursement of expenses requested therein; and (iii) grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
HOUSTON DIVISION

In re:	)	Chapter 11
MODIVCARE INC., et al.,	)	Case No. 25-90309 (ARP)

MOTION OF CRESA, LLC TO ENFORCE THE FINAL FEE ORDER, COMPEL PAYMENT OF COURT-APPROVED FEES, AND FOR RELATED RELIEF

If you object to the relief requested, you must respond in writing. Unless otherwise directed by the Court, you must file your response electronically at https://ecf.txsb.uscourts.gov/ within twenty-one days from the date this motion was filed. If you do not have electronic filing privileges, you must file a written objection that is actually received by the clerk within twenty-one days from the date this motion was filed. Otherwise, the Court may treat the pleading as unopposed and grant the relief requested.

Cresa, LLC ("Cresa"), court-approved and retained real estate consultant and advisor to the above-captioned reorganized debtors (prior to the Effective Date,[2] collectively the "Debtors" and, after the Effective Date, collectively, the "Reorganized Debtors"), hereby moves (the "Motion") for entry of an order enforcing the Final Order Allowing Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Cresa, LLC entered on March 4, 2026 [Dkt. 1348] (the "Final Fee Order") and compelling the Reorganized Debtors to immediately pay fees pursuant thereto. In support of this Motion, Cresa hereby states as follows:

[1] A complete list of each of the Reorganized Debtors in these chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") and the last four digits of each Debtor's taxpayer identification number (if applicable) may be obtained on the website of the Reorganized Debtors' claims and noticing agent at https://www.veritaglobal.net/ModivCare. Debtor ModivCare Inc.'s principal place of business and the Reorganized Debtors' service address in the Chapter 11 Cases is 6900 E. Layton Avenue, Suite 1100 & 1200, Denver, Colorado 80237.

[2] Capitalized terms used, but not otherwise defined herein, have the meaning assigned in the Retention Order (as defined below) or the Plan (as defined below), as applicable.

I. JURISDICTION

1. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas (the "Court") has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b), and this Court may enter a final order consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

2. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

3. The bases for the relief requested in this Motion are §§ 105(a), 328, and 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, Rule 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and Rule 2016-1 of the Bankruptcy Local Rules for the Southern District of Texas (the "Local Rules"), and the Procedures for Complex Cases in the Southern District of Texas (the "Complex Case Procedures").

II. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

4. This Motion arises from the Reorganized Debtors' unjustified refusal to comply with a clear, final, and binding order of this Court. On March 4, 2026, after notice and an opportunity to be heard, the Court entered the Final Fee Order, approving Cresa's fees in the amount of $1,950,000.00 on a final basis and authorizing payment by the Reorganized Debtors. Not a single party in interest—not the Reorganized Debtors, not the U.S. Trustee, not the Creditors' Committee, not any creditor—filed an objection to Cresa's fee application. The time to object has long passed. This Court entered the Final Fee Order. The Final Fee Order has neither been stayed nor appealed.

5. The relief requested is straightforward. Cresa seeks enforcement of this Court's Final Fee Order and to compel payment pursuant thereto, together with interest to compensate for the wrongful delay in payment and reimbursement of attorneys' fees incurred solely because of the Reorganized Debtors' noncompliance. Granting this Motion will uphold the authority of the Court, protect the integrity of the professional compensation process, and ensure that court-approved professionals are paid as required. Accordingly, the time to pay is now.

III. BACKGROUND

6. On August 20, 2025 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On September 5, 2025, the United States Trustee for the Southern District of Texas (the "U.S. Trustee") appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors (see Dkt. 124), which was subsequently reconstituted on October 22, 2025. See Dkt. 568. No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner was made in the Cases.

7. On December 5, 2025, the Debtors filed the Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of ModivCare Inc. and its Debtor Affiliates [Dkt. 959] (the "Plan"). Section 2.4 of the Plan provides that all Professional Fee Claims (as defined by the Plan) shall "be paid in full, in Cash, in such amounts as are Allowed by the Bankruptcy Court or authorized to be paid in accordance with the order(s) relating to or allowing any such Professional Fee Claims" Id. (emphasis added).

8. On December 15, 2025, the Court entered an order [Dkt. 1055]confirming the Plan. On December 29, 2026, the Plan went effective. See Dkt. 1134.

9. On October 21, 2025, the Debtors filed Application of Debtors for Entry of an Order Authorizing the Retention and Employment of Cresa, LLC as Real Estate Consultant and Advisor to the Debtors and Debtors-in-Possession as of the Petition Date [Dkt. 567] (the "Retention Application"). Attached as Exhibit A to the Retention Application was the Vendor Service Agreement (the "Services Agreement") setting for the terms of services and payment between the Debtors and Cresa.

10. On November 14, 2025, the Court entered an order [Dkt. 716] (the "Retention Order") approving the Retention Application (including the terms of the Services Agreement) and authorizing the retention of Cresa as real estate consultant and advisor pursuant to section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Retention Order approved Cresa's compensation, expense reimbursement, and indemnification provisions as set forth in the Services Agreement, as modified by the Retention Order. The Retention Order further provided that Cresa would:

> be compensated and reimbursed in accordance with, and will file fee statements and interim and final fee applications pursuant to, the applicable procedures set forth in sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Bankruptcy Local Rules, the Complex Case Procedures, and further orders of this Court.

Id.

11. During its retention, Cresa provided critical real estate consulting and advisory services to the Debtors, including strategic analysis of markets and site selection, property surveys, lease negotiations, drafting and reviewing RFPs, evaluating landlord responses, and assisting in the negotiation of lease and purchase agreements. See Dkt. 1271 at ¶ 12. These services directly benefited the Debtors' estates and all creditors by maximizing the value of the Debtors' real property interests during the Chapter 11 Cases. Id.

12. On February 9, 2026, Cresa filed its First and Final Fee Application of Cresa, LLC, Real Estate Consultant and Advisor to the Debtors, for the Period from August 20, 2025 Through December 29, 2025 [Dkt. 1272] (the "Final Fee Application"), seeking allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $1,950,000.00.

13. The deadline to file objections to the Final Fee Application was March 2, 2026. Not a single objection was filed.

14. On March 3, 2026, the Reorganized Debtors filed a Certificate of No Objection Regarding First and Final Fee Application of Cresa, LLC, Real Estate Consultant and Advisor to the Debtors, for the Period from August 20, 2025 Through December 29, 2025 [Dkt. 1340], in which the Reorganized Debtors' counsel represented to this Court that "counsel has reviewed the Court's docket and no objections or other responses to the Application have been filed on the Court's docket, and the Reorganized Debtors are unaware of any other objection to the Application." Id. The Reorganized Debtors then affirmatively requested that this Court enter the proposed Final Fee Order. Id.

15. On March 4, 2026, the Court entered an order [Dkt. 1348] (the "Final Fee Order"). The Final Fee Order provides, in unambiguous terms, that:

- "Applicant is allowed compensation and reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $1,950,000.00."
- "The compensation and reimbursement of expenses allowed in this Order are approved on a final basis."
- "The Reorganized Debtors are authorized to disburse any unpaid amounts allowed by [] this Order."

See id.

16. The Final Fee Order is clear, final, and unconditional. There is no ambiguity. There is no contingency. The Reorganized Debtors are "authorized"—and, indeed, obligated—to pay Cresa the full $1,950,000.00.

17. Notwithstanding the clarity and finality of the Final Fee Order, the Reorganized Debtors have failed to pay Cresa any portion of the $1,950,000.00 allowed by the Court.

18. Cresa has made repeated demands upon the Reorganized Debtors for payment. The Reorganized Debtors have not provided any legitimate justification for their refusal to comply with the Final Fee Order. This refusal is not merely a breach of the Reorganized Debtors' obligations—it is a willful disregard of a binding order of this Court.

19. As a direct result of the Reorganized Debtors' noncompliance, Cresa has been forced to incur additional attorneys' fees and costs to enforce the Final Fee Order.

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

20. By this Motion, Cresa respectfully requests that this Court enter an order:

a. Compelling the Reorganized Debtors to immediately pay Cresa the full amount of $1,950,000.00 as allowed by the Final Fee Order;

b. Awarding Cresa interest on the unpaid balance at the applicable rate;

c. Awarding Cresa its reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in connection with bringing this Motion; and

d. Granting such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

V. BASIS FOR RELIEF

A. The Reorganized Debtors Are Bound By The Final Fee Order And Plan And Must Comply With Their Terms.

21. The Final Fee Order is a final, binding order of this Court. It was entered after full notice, adequate opportunity to be heard, and the express certification by the Reorganized Debtors' own counsel that no objections had been filed. The Final Fee Order approved Cresa's fees and expenses "on a final basis" and authorized the Reorganized Debtors to disburse the amounts owed.

22. Moreover, section 2.4 of the Plan requires that Cresa "be paid in full, in Cash, in such amounts that are Allowed by the Bankruptcy Court . . . ." Plan at § 2.4. Taken in conjunction with the allowance of $1,950,000 in fees set forth in the Final Fee Order, the Reorganized Debtors have no other recourse but to pay such amount to Cresa.

23. It is hornbook law that orders of a bankruptcy court are binding on all parties and must be obeyed unless and until they are reversed, modified, or set aside. See Celotex Corp. v. Edwards, 514 U.S. 300, 313 (1995) ("[P]ersons subject to an injunctive order issued by a court with jurisdiction are expected to obey that decree until it is modified or reversed."). The Reorganized Debtors have not sought to appeal, modify, or vacate the Final Fee Order. Their obligation to pay is absolute.

24. Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code vests this Court with the power to "tak[e] any action or mak[e] any determination necessary or appropriate to enforce or implement court orders or rules." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). This Court has the inherent authority—and the duty—to enforce its own orders. See Placid Ref. Co. v. Terrebonne Fuel & Lube (In re Terrebonne Fuel & Lube), 108 F.3d 609, 613 (5th Cir. 1997). See also In re Marcus Hook Development Park, Inc., 943 F.2d 261, 266 (3d Cir. 1991) (holding that, under Section 105(a), bankruptcy courts have "the power and the jurisdiction to enforce its valid orders") (quoting In re Radco Merchandising Services, Inc., 111 B.R. 684, 688-89 (N.D. Ill. 1990)); In re Blast Energy Servs., 396 B.R. 676, 688-89 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2008); In re Protarga, Inc., 329 B.R. 451, 479 (Bankr. D. Del. 2005) ("In the exercise of this authority, courts have inherent powers to enforce compliance with and execution of their lawful orders.").

B. No Objection Was Filed To The Final Fee Application, And The Deadline To Object Has Long Since Passed.

25. The significance of the fact that no objection was filed to the Final Fee Application cannot be overstated. Every party in interest—including the Reorganized Debtors, the U.S. Trustee, the Creditors' Committee, and all creditors—had 21 days to raise any challenge to Cresa's compensation. The Reorganized Debtors cannot now—after the objection deadline has expired, after their own counsel certified that no objections existed, and after this Court entered a final order—refuse to pay on grounds that could and should have been raised during the objection period.

26. Moreover, Cresa's retention and compensation structure were approved under § 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Fifth Circuit has made clear that, absent unforeseeable circumstances, parties are bound by compensation approved under section 328 of the Bankruptcy Code. See ASARCO, L.L.C. v. Barclays Capital Inc. (In re ASARCO, L.L.C.), 702 F.3d 250, 257-58 (5th Cir. 2012). Allowing the Reorganized Debtors to withhold payment after final approval would undermine the certainty section 328 is designed to provide and directly contravene controlling Fifth Circuit precedent.

27. The Reorganized Debtors had every opportunity to object to the Final Fee Application and chose not to do so. They are now foreclosed from withholding payment on any basis.

C. The Reorganized Debtors' Own Counsel Affirmatively Sought Entry Of The Final Fee Order.

28. The Reorganized Debtors' position is made all the more untenable by the fact that it was their own counsel who filed the Certificate of No Objection and who affirmatively requested that this Court enter the Final Fee Order. The Reorganized Debtors cannot, in good faith, ask this Court to enter an order requiring them to pay Cresa $1,950,000.00 and then simply refuse to do so. Such conduct is inconsistent with the most basic principles of good faith, fair dealing, and respect for judicial process.

29. Under the doctrine of judicial estoppel, a party that takes a position before a court is precluded from later adopting a clearly inconsistent position. See New Hampshire v. Maine, 532 U.S. 742, 749–50 (2001). The Reorganized Debtors' certification of no objection and request for entry of the Final Fee Order constituted an unequivocal representation to this Court that the Fee Application was proper and should be approved. Moreover, where a party affirmatively induces the entry of an order, the invited-error doctrine likely bars that party from later resisting or challenging the order sought. See Kempton v. Clark (In re Clark), 662 F. App'x 544, 546 (9th Cir.

2016) ("In addition, under the invited error doctrine, Kempton cannot invite a purported error in the bankruptcy court and then on appeal complain of that very error."). See also United States v. Baytank (Houston), Inc., 934 F.2d 599, 606 (5th Cir. 1991). The Reorganized Debtors cannot request entry of the Final Fee Order and then refuse to comply with it.

D. THE REORGANIZED DEBTORS' REFUSAL TO PAY WARRANTS SANCTIONS.

30. The Reorganized Debtors' willful noncompliance with the Final Fee Order warrants the imposition of sanctions. Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and this Court's inherent contempt power provide ample authority to sanction parties who fail to comply with court orders. See In re Terrebonne Fuel & Lube, 108 F.3d at 613.

31. At a minimum, Cresa is entitled to recover the attorneys' fees and expenses it has been forced to incur in bringing this Motion to enforce an order that the Reorganized Debtors should have voluntarily obeyed. Cresa should not be required to bear the cost of compelling the Reorganized Debtors to do what they are already obligated to do.

E. INTEREST SHOULD ACCRUE ON THE UNPAID BALANCE.

32. Cresa is entitled to post-judgment interest on the unpaid $1,950,000.00 from the date the Final Fee Order was entered—March 4, 2026—until the date of payment. See 28 U.S.C. § 1961 (providing for post-judgment interest on any money judgment in a civil case recovered in a district court). In addition to section 1961, section four of the Services Agreement further provides that any invoice not paid within 30 days accrues interest at a rate of 1.5% per month. Treating entry of the Final Fee Order as the invoice date, the Reorganized Debtors had until April 3, 2026 to pay Cresa without incurring any interest. At an interest rate of 1.5% per month, with incurred fees of $1,950,000, the monthly interest comes to $29,250 or $975 per day.

33. The Reorganized Debtors should not benefit from their own delay and noncompliance. Accordingly, the Court should allow interest pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961 or subject to the terms of the Services Agreement.

VI. NOTICE

34. Notice of this Motion has been provided to (i) the Reorganized Debtors and counsel for the Reorganized Debtors; (ii) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of Texas; and (iii) all parties in interest who have filed a notice of appearance and requested notice in the Chapter 11 Cases. Cresa respectfully submits that no further notice of this Motion is required.

VII. CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Cresa, LLC respectfully requests that this Court enter an order (a) compelling the Reorganized Debtors to immediately pay Cresa the full allowed amount of $1,950,000.00 pursuant to the Final Fee Order, (b) awarding post-judgment interest on the unpaid balance, (c) awarding Cresa its reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in bringing this Motion, and (d) granting such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

IF YOU AND THE MOVING PARTY CANNOT AGREE, YOU MUST FILE A RESPONSE AND SEND A COPY TO THE MOVING PARTY. YOU MUST FILE AND SERVE YOUR RESPONSE WITHIN 21 DAYS OF THE DATE THIS WAS SERVED ON YOU. REPRESENTED PARTIES SHOULD ACT THROUGH THEIR ATTORNEY.

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

ModivCare Topco, LLC ("TopCo" or the "Reorganized Debtor") respectfully moves for reconsideration of two orders announced at the April 6, 2026 status conference in connection with the Objection to White & Case LLP's Final Fee Application and AlixPartners' Final Fee Application: (I) the Order Bifurcating Legal and Factual Issues (the "Bifurcation Order"), and (II) the Order Requiring Deposit of Funds into the Court Registry (the "Escrow Order" and, collectively with the Bifurcation Order, the "Orders"). In support, TopCo respectfully shows the Court as follows:

JURISDICTION AND STANDARD OF REVIEW

1. This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A) and (B). Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1409.

2. A bankruptcy court possesses inherent authority to reconsider its interlocutory orders at any time before entry of final judgment. See Melancon v. Texaco, Inc., 659 F.2d 551, 553 (5th Cir. 1981) ("[A] district court has broad discretion to reconsider and modify its interlocutory orders any time prior to final judgment."). Where, as here, a party identifies "a manifest error of law or fact" or a "clear error" in the court's reasoning, reconsideration is appropriate. See Livingston Downs Racing Ass'n, Inc. v. Jefferson Downs Corp., 259 F. Supp. 2d 471, 475 (M.D. La. 2002). A motion to reconsider is also warranted where the court's order rests on an "erroneous legal standard." Simon v. United States, 891 F.2d 1154, 1159 (5th Cir. 1990).

BASIS FOR EMERGENCY RELIEF

3. Emergency consideration is warranted because the proposed Escrow Order will necessarily set a compliance deadline requiring TopCo to transfer approximately $1.644 million into the Court's registry. TopCo requests consideration prior to any deadline passing. Absent emergency consideration, TopCo faces the choice of complying with an order it contends is legally infirm or risking contempt.

SUMMARY OF RELIEF REQUESTED

4. TopCo recognizes and respects this Court's broad authority to manage its docket. This motion does not challenge that authority. It respectfully submits that both Orders, as announced, exceed the bounds of what the Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules, Fifth Circuit precedent, and the Due Process Clause permit.

5. The Bifurcation Order. The Bifurcation Order purports to resolve "legal issues" in a first phase before any evidentiary hearing. This conflicts with Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9014(d)'s mandatory directive that testimony on disputed material factual issues "must be taken in the same manner as testimony in an adversary proceeding." It also contravenes the Fifth Circuit's categorical rule, most recently reaffirmed in In re Assadi, 2025 U.S. App. LEXIS 13678 (5th Cir. June 4, 2025), that an evidentiary hearing is mandatory when fee-application objections raise disputed material facts.

6. The Escrow Order. The Escrow Order commands TopCo to affirmatively transfer approximately $1.644 million of its own funds into the Court's registry before a single dollar of professional fees has been finally and judicially allowed under 11 U.S.C. § 330. That is a mandatory injunction—among the most disfavored forms of equitable relief in the Fifth Circuit—which may issue only upon a showing of "clear entitlement" to relief under the facts and the law. Justin Indus., Inc. v. Choctaw Sec., L.P., 920 F.2d 262, 268 n.7 (5th Cir. 1990). No party moved for this order. It was entered sua sponte at a status conference without an evidentiary record, without a showing of irreparable harm, and without a finding of a clear entitlement and likelihood of success on the merits. Moreover, no provision of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes such relief: Section 105(a) cannot be used to compel payment of fees not yet allowed under § 330. Law v. Siegel, 571 U.S. 415 (2014).

7. TopCo respectfully requests that the Court reconsider, and: (1) deny/vacate the Escrow Order in its entirety; and (2) deny/vacate the Bifurcation Order and set a single, unified evidentiary hearing at which all issues, legal and factual, are addressed on a complete record after a reasonable time for discovery.

RELEVANT BACKGROUND

8. On February 11, 2026, AlixPartners, LLP, ("AlixPartners") filed its Final Application for Allowance of Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses for the Period from September 10, 2025 Through December 29, 2025 [ECF No. 1288] (the "AlixPartners Fee Application"), seeking allowance of approximately $5 million in fees and expenses.

9. On February 12, 2026, White & Case, LLP ("White & Case") filed its Final Application for Allowance of Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses for the Period from September 9, 2025 Through December 29, 2025 [ECF No. 1290] (the "WC Fee Application"), seeking allowance of approximately $14 million in fees and expenses. Collectively, the AlixPartners Fee Application and the WC Fee Application are referred to as the "Fee Application".

10. On March 4, 2026, TopCo filed its Objection to the AlixPartners Fee Application [ECF No. 1351] (the "AlixPartners Objection"). On March 5, 2026, TopCo filed its Objection to the WC Fee Application [ECF No. 1354] (the "WC Objection" and collectively with the AlixPartners Objection the "Objection"). The Objection presents three tiers of alternative relief: (a) complete denial of fees under § 328(c); (b) reduction and equitable subordination under §§ 330 and 510(c); and (c) reduction under § 330 alone. Each tier depends on the same core factual record: the alleged $30 million demand made by White & Case partner Scott Greissman; White & Case's subsequent execution of that demand through its billing practices; and specific, granular challenges to the reasonableness and necessity of more than $14 million in fees billed by 54 timekeepers over 111 days.

11. Following the Objection, TopCo served narrowly tailored document requests (the "RFPs") directed to those factual issues to White & Case. White & Case refused to produce a single document absent a court order.

12. On April 3, 2026, TopCo filed a Motion to Compel [ECF No. 1409]. The same day, White & Case filed its Reply [ECF No. 1410] (the "Reply"), in which, without filing a separate motion, it requested that the Court address purportedly "legal" issues first and defer or preclude factual development. AlixPartners, LLP filed its own Reply [ECF No. 1411].

13. On April 6, 2026, the Court held a status conference and sua sponte: (a) ordered bifurcation of the hearing into Phase 1 ("legal issues") and Phase 2 ("factual issues"); and (b) indicated its intent to require TopCo to deposit all disputed amounts, approximately $628,727.58 related to White & Case and $1,016,169.40 related to AlixPartners, into the Court's registry.

14. On April 8, 2026, White & Case circulated proposed orders memorializing both rulings. The proposed Escrow Order sets an April 10, 2026 compliance deadline—affording TopCo only days to transfer $1.644 million without any prior motion, briefing, or evidentiary hearing.

ARGUMENT

THE BIFURCATION ORDER VIOLATES THE BANKRUPTCY CODE, THE FEDERAL RULES, AND FIFTH CIRCUIT PRECEDENT.

A. The Bankruptcy Code and Rule 9014 Mandate an Evidentiary Hearing.

15. Section 330(a)(1) provides that the court may award reasonable compensation only "[a]fter notice to the parties in interest and the United States Trustee and a hearing." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1). Section 102(1)(B)(i) provides that the court may act without an actual hearing only if a hearing "is not requested by a party in interest." TopCo has affirmatively requested a hearing.

16. Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9014 governs contested matters, including fee-application objections. The Advisory Committee Notes confirm: "If a party in interest opposes the amount of compensation sought by a professional, there is a dispute which is a contested matter." Rule 9014(d) then provides in mandatory terms: "A witness's testimony on a disputed material factual issue must be taken in the same manner as testimony in an adversary proceeding." FED. R. BANKR. P. 9014(d) (emphasis added). The 2002 Advisory Committee Notes reinforce: "if the motion cannot be decided without resolving a disputed material issue of fact, an evidentiary hearing must be held." The rule is mandatory, not permissive.

B. Fifth Circuit Precedent Categorically Requires an Evidentiary Hearing When Material Facts Are Disputed.

17. In In re U.S. Golf Corp., 639 F.2d 1197, 1202 (5th Cir. 1981), the Fifth Circuit categorically held that "the judge must hold an evidentiary hearing if there are any disputed factual issues" when determining attorneys' fees in bankruptcy. This holding was reaffirmed in In re First Colonial Corp. of America, 544 F.2d 1291, 1300 (5th Cir. 1977).

18. In re Assadi, 2025 U.S. App. LEXIS 13678 (5th Cir. June 4, 2025), reaffirmed the U.S. Golf Corp. mandate. The court upheld denial of an evidentiary hearing only because the pro se objector had raised exclusively legal challenges "concern[ing] the legal conclusions the court should draw from the record", without asserting "disputed factual issues that would benefit from 'testimony of witnesses.'" Id. at *3. This case is the polar opposite. TopCo's Objection identifies, with specificity, more than a dozen categories of disputed billing conduct—including the alleged $30 million demand, systemic overstaffing, and specific unreasonable billing entries, each of which requires witness testimony to resolve. Assadi thus supports, rather than undermines, TopCo's entitlement to an evidentiary hearing.

19. In Sylvester v. Chaffe McCall, L.L.P. (In re Sylvester), 23 F.4th 543, 549 (5th Cir. 2022), the Fifth Circuit vacated a fee award because the court below failed to require the applicant to affirmatively prove each element of its fee request upon the filing of an objection. A bifurcation procedure designed to preemptively foreclose the evidentiary hearing would relieve White & Case of that burden—the antithesis of what Sylvester commands. The Supreme Court's treatment of contested fee applications confirms this expectation: in Baker Botts L.L.P. v. ASARCO LLC, 576 U.S. 121, 125 (2015), the bankruptcy court conducted "extensive discovery and a 6-day trial" on contested fee applications before ruling on objections—a procedure the Supreme Court treated as the unquestioned baseline.

C. Every Issue White & Case Labels "Legal" Requires Factual Findings.

20. The Phase 1 issues identified in the Bifurcation Order are not genuinely separable from the factual record:

21. Standing. The Fifth Circuit has developed a structured approach to jurisdictional challenges, including standing, under Rule 12(b)(1). Williamson v. Tucker, 645 F.2d 404 (5th Cir. 1981), which established that a district court may find lack of subject matter jurisdiction based on any one of three separate bases: (1) the complaint alone; (2) the complaint supplemented by undisputed facts evidenced in the record; or (3) the complaint supplemented by undisputed facts plus the court's resolution of disputed facts. Williamson v. Tucker, 645 F.2d at 413 (emphasis added).

22. However, it is unclear whether the Court's oral statements questioning "standing" reflect a question of Article III standing and/or prudential standing, further confusing the necessary proof/evidence that may be required. See Abraugh v. Altimus, 26 F.4th 298, 303-04 (5th Cir. 2022) (Not being a proper plaintiff does not defeat Article III standing. "[S]tanding in federal court is determined entirely by Article III and depends in no degree on whether standing exists under state law.") (citations omitted)

23. The "standing" issue is also clearly dependent on factual questions, as indicated by the Court itself. The Court indicated that after conducting an independent review of the reorganized Debtor's corporate documents, the Court itself indicated it had fact questions.

24. "Standing" (Article III and prudential) also raises an additional factual issue – is TopCo liable at all for any fee award? If there is liability, there must be standing under either analysis. And, the Court has apparently determined that there is liability by indicating it would enter the Escrow Order against TopCo requiring it to deposit disputed funds, predetermining liability.

25. Rule 408 Applicability. Before determining whether Rule 408 shields Mr. Greissman's statements, the Court must find whether those statements were made "in the course of compromise negotiations concerning a disputed claim." FED. R. EVID. 408(a). TopCo alleges they were not offers of compromise but unilateral threats—a disputed factual issue. The Court must also address Rule 408(b) exceptions, including whether the statements are admissible to show the bias, motive, and context for the billing patterns that followed. Moreover, Mr. Greissman reiterated the same demand in separate communications with the Consenting Creditors' counsel outside any settlement context; whether those communications fall within Rule 408 is a factual question requiring testimony. Neither Ramada Development Co. v. Rauch, 644 F.2d 1097 (5th Cir. 1981), nor Blu-J, Inc. v. Kemper C.P.A. Group, 916 F.2d 637 (11th Cir. 1990)—the cases on which White & Case principally relies—involved a fiduciary who allegedly threatened to impose harm on the estate it was obligated to serve.

26. The Woerner "Good Gamble" Inquiry. The Fifth Circuit's en banc decision in Barron & Newburger, P.C. v. Tex. Skyline, Ltd. (In re Woerner), 783 F.3d 266, 274 (5th Cir. 2015), requires the Court to assess whether services were "reasonably likely to benefit the estate" at the time they were rendered—a prospective, fact-intensive inquiry into what the professionals knew, what alternatives existed, and why they chose to proceed as they did. This cannot be resolved on a paper record.

27. Section 330 Reasonableness Factors. The statutory factors under § 330(a)(3)—including time spent, rates charged, necessity, and reasonableness—are explicitly factual. The Court cannot discern from billing records alone why seven attorneys attended a single deposition, why multiple timekeepers reviewed a routine pro hac vice application, or why 54 timekeepers were deployed over 111 days. That inquiry requires testimony about staffing decisions, delegation, and billing judgment.

28. White & Case's Fee-Comparison Theory. White & Case devotes substantial portions of its Reply to comparing its fees with those of Latham & Watkins LLP. This comparison, raised by White & Case, not TopCo, is itself fact-intensive. Whether the work performed by the two firms was truly comparable, whether Latham's undisclosed pre-petition fees distort the comparison (White & Case's own Reply concedes they were "most likely substantial"), and whether Latham's approval without objection establishes a reasonableness benchmark are factual questions requiring evidence.

29. Section 328(a) Pre-Approval. The Order Authorizing Employment (the "Order") refers to Section 328, with White & Case suggesting that the mere reference locks in billing rates. However, the Order of Employment goes on to explicitly say that all fee applications are subject to sections 330 and 331, and the Order clearly does not immunize the volume of hours billed, the number of timekeepers deployed, or the reasonableness of specific services from § 330 scrutiny. These remain inherently fact-intensive inquiries. White & Case's Reply first assumes just the mention of 328 somehow creates pre-approval on final application of their rates, and compounds the assumption by suggesting by arguing that the supposed prior approval of its rates forecloses any challenge to its fees. See Reply ¶ 34.

D. Bifurcation Contravenes Rule 42(b)'s Efficiency Requirement.

30. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 42(b), applicable through FED. R. BANKR. P. 9014(c), permits bifurcation only "for convenience, to avoid prejudice, or to expedite and economize." See Lindsey v. Prive Corp., 161 F.3d 886, 892 (5th Cir. 1998). Bifurcation accomplishes the opposite here. Because every Phase 1 "legal" issue either requires factual predicate findings or will not eliminate Phase 2, the parties will brief the same issues twice—first on an incomplete record, then again after discovery and evidence are presented. This multiplies cost, burden, and delay.

31. Bifurcation also risks unfair prejudice by fragmenting a fact-dependent record. The Objection presents a unified factual narrative—that White & Case adopted a strategy to generate excessive fees and executed it across multiple workstreams. Preliminary rulings on a limited record may shape and constrain the scope of Phase 2, preventing TopCo from presenting the full context necessary for a fair adjudication.

E. Section 105(a) Cannot Override the Evidentiary Hearing Requirement.

32. To the extent the Bifurcation Order rests on § 105(a), that foundation fails for the same reasons that defeat the Escrow Order. Law v. Siegel and NexPoint Advisors foreclose the use of § 105(a) to override the specific evidentiary-hearing mandate of Rule 9014(d) and § 330(a)(1).

F. The Consenting Creditors' Own Contemporaneous Statements Confirm the Factual Nature of This Dispute.

33. White & Case invokes the confirmation proceedings as establishing that the Committee's litigation was reasonable. But confirmation addressed whether the Plan satisfied § 1129—not whether the fees incurred in litigating those matters were reasonable when incurred. The Consenting Creditors' Statement filed on October 28, 2025 [ECF No. 589]—filed by the parties who now control TopCo—explicitly warned in real time that the Committee's strategy was to "bury the estate in exponentially expanding professional fees." Whether that contemporaneous assessment was accurate, and whether White & Case's subsequent billing patterns bear it out, are classic questions of fact requiring witness testimony.

A SINGLE, UNIFIED EVIDENTIARY HEARING IS THE ONLY LAWFUL AND EFFICIENT RESOLUTION.

34. The Objection identifies, with particularity, more than a dozen categories of disputed billing conduct totaling millions of dollars in a $14 million fee request. These are not abstract legal arguments; they are specific, fact-intensive challenges requiring witness testimony, documentary evidence, and cross-examination. A unified evidentiary hearing—with targeted discovery first is the procedurally sound, efficient, and constitutionally compliant method of resolving this dispute.

35. The Fifth Circuit's mandate in In re U.S. Golf Corp., 639 F.2d at 1202, and its progeny leave no room for a procedure designed to foreclose that hearing. This Court's broad discretion to manage its docket, while fully respected, does not extend to denying a party its right to an evidentiary hearing when the Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules, and the Constitution require one.

THE ESCROW ORDER IS A MANDATORY INJUNCTION ENTERED WITHOUT LEGAL AUTHORITY OR THE REQUISITE SHOWING.

The Escrow Order Compels Affirmative Action and Is Therefore a Mandatory Injunction.

36. The distinction between prohibitory and mandatory injunctions is dispositive, not semantic. A prohibitory injunction restrains a party from acting and preserves the status quo. A mandatory injunction compels affirmative action, altering the existing state of affairs. The classification determines the applicable legal standard.

37. An Escrow Order does not preserve the status quo. It predetermines liability and commands TopCo to affirmatively transfer approximately $1.644 million of its own funds into the Court's registry before a single dollar of fees has been judicially allowed under 11 U.S.C. § 330. The characterization of the order as an "escrow" or "deposit" does not alter the analysis; substance, not label, controls. See Savage Tavern v. Stag, 589 F. Supp. 3d 624, 639 (N.D. Tex. 2022) (Mandatory injunction "mandates" a party to take some action inconsistent with the status quo rather than prohibiting them from altering the status quo.).

The Fifth Circuit Imposes a "Clear Entitlement" Standard on Mandatory Injunctions.

38. In Justin Industries, Inc. v. Choctaw Securities, L.P., 920 F.2d 262, 268 n.7 (5th Cir. 1990), the Fifth Circuit held that a party seeking a mandatory injunction "bears the burden of showing a clear entitlement to the relief under the facts and the law." (emphasis added).

This standard is categorically more demanding than the "substantial likelihood of success" test applied to prohibitory injunctions. Exhibitors Poster Exch., Inc. v. Nat'l Screen Serv. Corp., 441 F.2d 560, 561 (5th Cir. 1971) ("Nevertheless, when a plaintiff applies for a mandatory preliminary injunction, such relief 'should not be granted except in rare instances in which the facts and law are clearly in favor of the moving party.'")(cleaned up).

39. The Supreme Court reinforced in Winter v. Natural Resources Defense Council, Inc., 555 U.S. 7, 24 (2008), that injunctive relief is "an extraordinary and drastic remedy" that is "never awarded as of right." Winter requires a clear showing on all four elements: (1) likelihood of success on the merits; (2) likelihood of irreparable harm; (3) the balance of equities favors the movant; and (4) an injunction serves the public interest. For a mandatory injunction, each factor must be demonstrated by clear and unambiguous evidence.

None of the Winter Factors Is Satisfied.

40. No party moved for the Escrow Order. It was determined sua sponte at a status conference without prior notice, without briefing, and without any evidentiary record bearing on the four Winter factors.

41. No likelihood of success on the merits. The Escrow Order presupposes that White & Case and AlixPartners are entitled to the disputed sums and that TopCo is liable. The liability element even more suspect when at the same hearing the Court questions TopCo's "standing". But fee allowance under § 330 is not ministerial—it requires a judicial determination that fees were reasonable and necessary. TopCo's Objection raises specific, detailed factual challenges that the Court has not yet evaluated. The outcome of this dispute is supposed to be uncertain, uncertain until the Court hears, weighs and determines the factual record. White & Case cannot demonstrate "clear entitlement" to funds that have not been allowed.

42. No showing of irreparable harm. No evidence has been presented that TopCo lacks the ability or willingness to pay fees ultimately allowed. There is no allegation, let alone proof, of insolvency, asset dissipation, or collection risk. Irreparable harm cannot be presumed; it must be proven. See Janvey v. Alguire, 647 F.3d 585, 600 (5th Cir. 2011). This failure is independently fatal.

43. The balance of equities favors TopCo. Requiring the transfer of approximately $1.644 million into the Court's registry imposes immediate, concrete, and potentially prolonged harm. If this matter is appealed - a realistic prospect whatever the outcome - those funds could remain frozen through proceedings in the District Court and the Fifth Circuit for years. White & Case, by contrast, suffers no legally cognizable harm from awaiting the orderly conclusion of a contested judicial process. Its retention was approved; it was paid interim fees; and it has no present entitlement to the disputed amounts.

44. The public interest weighs against the order. Upholding this order would establish precedent that a reorganized debtor may be compelled to deposit disputed holdback amounts into the court's registry before its fee objection is heard on the merits. This would substantially chill good-faith fee objections, one of the few mechanisms Congress provided to police professional compensation in bankruptcy, and would effectively convert unapproved fee applications into pre-approved claims immune from meaningful review.

NO STATUTORY AUTHORITY EXISTS FOR THE ESCROW ORDER.

Section 105(a) Cannot Supply the Missing Authority.

45. The only conceivable statutory basis for the Escrow Order is 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). But § 105(a) is not a "roving commission to do equity." United States v. Sutton, 786 F.2d 1305, 1308 (5th Cir. 1986). The Supreme Court drew the boundary definitively in Law v. Siegel, 571 U.S. 415, 421 (2014), holding unanimously that "a bankruptcy court may not contravene specific statutory provisions" through § 105(a). Section 105(a) empowers courts to implement the Code, not to supersede it.

46. The fee-allowance framework under §§ 328 and 330 is a specific statutory scheme: professionals are entitled to compensation only after the court determines that fees are reasonable and necessary. Ordering the pre-allowance deposit of disputed fees does not implement that scheme; it inverts it. See also NexPoint Advisors v. Highland Capital Mgmt., 48 F.4th 419, 437 (5th Cir. 2022) (rejecting expansive application of § 105(a) to authorize relief not specifically provided by the Code).

THE ESCROW ORDER VIOLATES DUE PROCESS.

47. TopCo has a concrete property interest in the approximately $1.644 million in disputed funds. Those funds belong to TopCo under the confirmed Plan of Reorganization until a court orders their payment following allowance of the underlying claims. Compelled transfer of a property interest requires procedural due process. Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 333 (1976) ("The fundamental requirement of due process is the opportunity to be heard at a meaningful time and in a meaningful manner.")(cleaned up).

48. The Escrow Order was required at a status conference with no advance notice that the Court was considering such relief, no opportunity for TopCo to file written opposition, and no evidentiary hearing. TopCo was afforded no meaningful opportunity to be heard before being deprived of a substantial sum. See Goldberg v. Kelly, 397 U.S. 254, 267–71 (1970) (due process includes the right to present evidence and confront adverse witnesses when substantial property interests are at stake).

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, ModivCare Topco, LLC respectfully requests that the Court enter an Order:

(1) Denying/Vacating the Order Requiring Deposit of Funds into the Court Registry as (a) a mandatory injunction for which no movant has demonstrated the requisite "clear entitlement" under Justin Industries, Inc. v. Choctaw Securities, L.P., 920 F.2d 262, 268 n.7 (5th Cir. 1990), and Winter v. Natural Resources Defense Council, Inc., 555 U.S. 7 (2008); (b) lacking any statutory authority under the Bankruptcy Code; and (c) entered without the notice, hearing, or evidentiary record required by due process;

(2) Denying/Vacating the Bifurcation Order and setting a single, unified evidentiary hearing at which all issues—legal and factual—are addressed on a complete record, consistent with FED. R. BANKR. P. 9014(d), 11 U.S.C. §§ 102(1) and 330(a)(1), and the Fifth Circuit's mandate in In re U.S. Golf Corp., 639 F.2d 1197, 1202 (5th Cir. 1981);

(3) Setting a hearing on the pending Motion to Compel [ECF No. 1409] to allow TopCo to obtain the discovery necessary for the evidentiary hearing; and

(4) Granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

vii. under the applicable standard and without any additional discovery, the Court should grant the Fee Applications.

3. If the Court determines that it cannot fully resolve the Objection and the Fee Applications in Phase 1, the Court will consider additional evidence related to the Fee Objections that are not resolved in Phase 1 ("Phase 2").
