DOUGLAS' UPDATE TO THE COURT TO UPLIFT THE AUTOMATIC STAY

To the Honorable Judge Alfredo Perez, Douglas has been trying to negotiate with the debtor's Attorneys going by Texas bankruptcy court procedures.

On January 11th, 2026, Attorney Elizabeth Morrison contacted me through the mail with the automatic stay paperwork.

I called Attorney Elizabeth Morrison, and she said that she was over the bankruptcy case.

I tried to negotiate with Attorney Elizabeth Morrison, she said that Modivcare was not going to negotiate with me.

Then I asked if she could send that to me in the mail, she declined.

Then she said that she would accept my negotiation paperwork from me.

2590309261112000000000005

So, I mailed it to Attorney Elizabeth Morrison and contacted Attorney Elizabeth Morrison two months later because I was waiting on Attorney Elizabeth Morrison to respond back to me.

She informed me during this conversation that she was no longer over the bankruptcy case, and she told me to call another Attorney for Modivecare who is now handling the case in Texas in the bankruptcy case.

Attorney Elizabeth Morrison said that she would no longer be handling that part of the case and to call Mr. Stephen Esteban and gave me his phone number.

I called Mr. Steven Estevaughn and he responded to the name, not Esteban as Attorney Elizabeth Morrison had said and then we started having a negotiation.

During the negotiations something didn't sound right with what he was telling me so I started to investigate him and found out that it was not his legal licensed name and he cannot speak to me in any other name other than his legal license name because it is unethical.

In the New York Bar his real licensed legal name is Attorney Steven Andrew Woo Kee.

In New York Bar there is no Attorney Steven Estevaughn or Attorney Steven Esteban licensed to practice with in State New York as of this current date.

The New York Bar stated that there was an Attorney Steven Estevaughn who was in practice until he passed away in 1992 and there has not been any other Attorney Steven Estevaughn as an Attorney in New York State so that made me worry and it caused me to have confusion because I don't talk to dead people and they don't talk to me.

The number that he was using was not listed in the New York Bar associated with any practice in the State of New York.

So, with all the running around that's been going on, they have been wasting my time.

But now, I'm not going to negotiate with him any longer because the Attorney handling it doesn't know what he is supposed to call himself.

So, I will be sending in my paperwork to the court systems in Texas for the Automatic Stay to Be Lifted because I've done my part.

Also, I am asking the Honorable Judge Alfredo Perez in Houston, Texas, to please allow me to turn in my MP3 recordings to the court as proof of the deception from these attorneys.

That way, you don't think I need to be in a strait jacket.

Please allow me to present them to you as evidence.

Narrative

On March 2nd, 2026, I, Deputy Rooney, responded to 28 S Main St, which is located within Spartanburg County, in reference to a fraud.

Upon arrival, I made contact with the complainant, Frances Douglas, who stated that she is the plaintiff in a civil lawsuit in Greenville County. She stated that she was under the impression that the defendant in that case, Modivcare Solutions LLC, was being represented by Attorney Elizabeth Morrison who works for Whelan Mellen & Norris LLC. She stated that Attorney Morrison advised her that additionally, Attorney Stephen Esteban, with Latham & Watkins LLP, would be representing the defendant. The complainant alleged that Stephen Esteban was not a real attorney, and that according to a web search, he was also not representing the defendant in this case. She also stated she conducted a query of his name via the New York Bar Association and was unable to find any attorney by that name.

I contacted Attorney Morrison via phone, due to her office being based out of Charleston, SC, and she stated she was familiar with the complainant and the active civil litigation. Attorney Morrison stated that she is representing the defendant in that case, and that since then, the company has went bankrupt. She stated that Attorney Esteban would be handling the bankruptcy portion of the lawsuit.

I contacted Attorney Esteban via phone, due to his office being based out of New York, NY, and he stated he also stated that he is familiar with the complainant and the active civil litigation. Attorney Esteban stated he has been in contact with the complainant and that she is aware he is representing the defendant. While speaking with Attorney Esteban, it became clear that the complainant misspelled his name as "Steven Estevan". I explained to the complainant that there was an apparent misunderstanding and that there was no attempt to defraud her by providing false information. Attorney Esteban spoke to the complainant on the phone, in my presence, and advised her she could contact him if she had any further questions or concerns related to the case. Additionally, I advised the complainant to seek representation from a licensed attorney who could aid her in this matter.

On March 6th, 2026, I received a message call stating that the complainant had more information for this case, and requested a report for documentation purposes. I contacted the complainant via phone, who again stated that Attorney Esteban was not a real individual, and that he had previously lied to me.

I contacted Attorney Esteban via phone, who stated that he has not had contact with the complainant since the previous incident. I advised him that the complainant is once again alleging his not a real individual or a licensed attorney. I conducted a query via the New York State Unified Court System and found Attorney Esteban listed (Registration #6077705) with the information he provided the complainant and myself previously. Additionally, his name and contact information is listed under his law firm's official website, which the complainant has access to.

It is the complainants belief that she was provided false information in an attempt to prolong the civil litigation process. Based on the information provided, there is no reason to believe that a criminal offense has occurred and there will be no further investigation into this matter.

This report is for informational purposes only.

BWC was activated.

Plaintiff has copies of both flash drives and the police report with Attorney's Elizabeth Fulton Morroison and Stephen Andrew Woo Kee told police lies on Plaintiff. What Attorney Elizabeth Fulton Morrison is asking for so I have sent all the records and police paperwork to this address I have for Elizabeth Fulton Morrionson at:

To The Honorable Judge William S. Brown, since the Plaintiff had given you the first flash drive to give to the court to update about Plaintiff's situation, more information has been collected and a second flash drive has been created with another voicemail along with a written police report with the forementioned attorneys having lied to the police officer taking the report. Plaintiff tried to bring the stated items to the court but was turned away because of flash drive.

Plaintiff did send Elizabeth Fulton Morrison everything on misconduct. Plaintiff does not want this to oversee the case or get it dismissed in any way.
