RE : Government & Priority Creditor Claim; Reclassifying an Equity Interest Claim Under U.S.C. § 501

Dear Honorable Brendan L. Shannon,

The identifying case name & case number are :

Proterra or
Prodigy Investment Holdings, Inc.
Chapter 11 Reorganized Debtor
Case No. 23-11120 (BLS)

Under 11 U.S.C. § 501 (a) (An equity security holder may file a proof of interest.) Reclassifying an Equity Interest Claim will enable the Reorganized Debtors to maintain a more accurate claims register and will not prejudice parties holding interests in the Debtors.

Accordingly, the Reorganized Debtors were requested the Court enter an order reclassifying my Equity Interest Claim to the Order as proof of interest.

To the extent that a proper basis for relief is concerned, 11 U.S. Code § 502 of the Bankruptcy Code – Allowance of claims or interests provides that

(c) There shall be estimated for purpose of allowance under this section -
(2) any right to payment arising from a right to an equitable remedy for breach of performance.

Proterra has agreed to pay $29 million to settle with investors. What are the maximum legal & professional fees allowed from the settlement?

Respectfully submitted,

Amyr Naeem

Dear Honorable Brendan L. Shannon,

I was somewhat cautious when I received the Notice of Deficiency documents because they were mailed from Pennsylvania. Nonetheless, the identifying case name & case number are :

Prodigy Investment Holdings, Inc.

US BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

November 15, 2025

Dear Honorable Brendan L. Shannon,

I am a creditor and filed my claim as a governmental unit. I represent KPMG Peat Marwick (the name was subsequently changed to KPMG Consulting) and my own entity, Amyr Naeem LLP. My claim remains classified as Priority.

In our previous hearing on 11/20/2024, I made an argument to highlight the advancements Stellantis N.V. and Factorial Inc. have made to accelerate the future of electric vehicles with solid-state battery technology. This was an article published in Business Wire on 10/23/2024.

I also made the argument that Proterra's assets were split into three divisions and sold off. The Proterra Powered powertrain manufacturing business line would operate as an independent company within the Volvo Group. The transit bus manufacturing business line was sold to Phoenix Motorcars. The Proterra Energy business line which built charging systems for fleets of heavy-duty vehicles was purchased by Cowen Equity. These actions would be an advantage to me as creditor.

According to 11 U.S. Code §501 – Filing of proofs of claims or interest,

(a) A creditor or an indenture trustee may file a proof of claim. An equity security holder may file a proof of interest.

or

(e) A claim arising from the liability of a debtor (the Reorganized Debtors or others) for fuel use tax assessed consistent with the requirements of section 31705 of title 49 may be filed by the base jurisdiction designated pursuant to the International Fuel Tax Agreement (as defined in section 31701 of title 49) and, if so filed, shall be allowed as a single claim.

I previously submitted a government attorney certification and financial statements.

To the best of my knowledge and belief, PTRA.MX was trading at $2.58/share on the Mexico Stock Exchange on July 12, 2024.

Delaware law permits the garnishment of up to 15% of a debtor's net income. This would extend to the contents of the PTRA Distribution Trust.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Amyr Naeem
