MOTION OF THE DEBTOR FOR ENTRY OF INTERIM AND FINAL ORDERS (I) AUTHORIZING DEBTOR TO REDACT CERTAIN PERSONALLY IDENTIFIABLE INFORMATION IN THE CREDITOR MATRIX AND CERTAIN OTHER DOCUMENTS, (II) MODIFYING THE REQUIREMENT TO FILE A LIST OF ALL EQUITY SECURITY HOLDERS AND MODIFYING NOTICE THERETO, AND (III) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

Sangamo Therapeutics, Inc., as debtor and debtor in possession (the "Debtor") in the above-captioned case, hereby files this motion (the "Motion") and respectfully states as follows:

RELIEF REQUESTED

1. By this Motion, the Debtor seeks entry of interim and final orders, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Interim Order") and Exhibit B (the "Final Order"), respectively: (i) authorizing the Debtor to redact the home addresses and email addresses of natural persons (the "Personally Identifiable Information") in its creditor matrix and other documents filed in this Chapter 11 Case (as defined below), (ii) modifying the requirement to file a list of all equity security holders of the Debtor and modifying notice thereto, and (iii) granting related relief.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction to consider this Motion under 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware dated February 29, 2012 (Sleet, C.J.). This is a core proceeding under 28

2610989260623000000000006

U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue of this Chapter 11 Case (as defined below) and this Motion is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

3. The statutory predicates for the relief requested herein are 105(a), 107(b) and (c) and 521 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), rules 1007(a)(1) and (d), 2002(a) and (b), and 9018 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and rule 1001-1, 1007-2, 2002-1, 9013-1(f), 9013-1(m), and 9018-1 of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Local Rules").

4. Pursuant to Local Rule 9013-1(f), the Debtor consents to the entry of a final order or judgment with respect to this Motion if it is determined that this Court lacks Article III jurisdiction to enter such final order or judgment absent consent of the parties.

BACKGROUND

5. On June 23, 2026 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtor commenced with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (this "Court") a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (this "Chapter 11 Case"). The Debtor continues to operate its business and manage its properties as a debtor in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No creditors' committee has been appointed by the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware (the "U.S. Trustee"), nor has a trustee or examiner been appointed in this Chapter 11 Case.

6. Additional factual background and information regarding the Debtor, including its business operations, its corporate and capital structure, and the events leading to the commencement of this Chapter 11 Case, are set forth in detail in the Declaration of Scott B.

Willoughby in Support of the Chapter 11 Petition and First Day Motions (the "First Day Declaration"), filed contemporaneously herewith and fully incorporated herein by reference.[2]

BASIS FOR RELIEF

I. The Debtor Should Be Authorized to Redact the Personally Identifiable Information from Its Creditor Matrix and Other Documents Filed in This Chapter 11 Case

7. Section 107(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that:

> The bankruptcy court, for cause, may protect an individual, with respect to the following types of information to the extent the court finds that disclosure of such information would create undue risk of identity theft or other unlawful injury to the individual or the individual's property:
> (A) Any means of identification (as defined in section 1028(d) of title 18) contained in a paper filed, or to be filed, in a case under this title.
> (B) Other information contained in a paper described in subparagraph (A).

11 U.S.C. § 107(c)(1)(A)–(B) (emphasis added). Thus, if a debtor can show that disclosure of any "means of identification," or some "other information," creates "undue risk of identity theft" or "other unlawful injury," courts may intervene to curtail disclosure of that information. Id.

8. Here, the Debtor submits that the personal mailing addresses and email addresses of natural persons fit squarely within section 1028(d)(7)(A) and that disclosure of the personal addresses of such natural persons (i) would create an undue risk of identity theft contemplated by section 107(c) and (ii) would potentially cause other types of unlawful injury to natural persons, including potential future harassment from the Debtor's creditors or abusive former intimate partners.

9. Section 1028(d)(7)(A) defines "means of identification" as:

[2] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the First Day Declaration.

> any name or number that may be used, alone or in conjunction with any other information, to identify a specific individual, including any—(A) name, social security number, date of birth, official State or government issued driver's licenses or identification number, alien registration number, government passport number, employer or taxpayer identification number . . .

18 U.S.C. § 1028(d)(7)(A) (emphasis added). Although personal mailing addresses and email addresses are not specifically enumerated in this definition, this list is inclusive, rather than exclusive, and should not be read as an exhaustive list of "means of identification." Accordingly, the fact that personal mailing addresses and email addresses are not listed in section 1028(d)(7)(A) does not prohibit their redaction in bankruptcy court documents pursuant to section 107(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Indeed, had Congress intended to exclude personal mailing addresses or email addresses from this list, it would have done so. As Judge Sontchi suggested in In re Promise Healthcare Grp., LLC, Congress has already acted, as "they've provided an ability for the Court to protect people when necessary" via section 107(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. In re Promise Healthcare Grp., LLC, No. 18-12491 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Dec. 4, 2018) [Docket No. 228 at 18:18- 20, 19:3–6] (noting that "to the extent Congress hasn't acted specifically to deal with this, I think it should" but that Congress has already acted "because there's a mechanism for protecting this information").

10. Moreover, as noted above, section 1028(d)(7)(A) contemplates as a "means of identification" any "name or number . . . used alone or in conjunction with any other information" to identify a specific natural person. 18 U.S.C. § 1028(d)(7). Personal mailing addresses and email addresses are precisely that: a combination of names and numbers used to identify a specific natural person. Therefore, although not specifically enumerated, a personal mailing address and an email address fits squarely within the types of "means of identification" set forth by section 1028(d)(7)(A).

11. Courts in this district agree that section 1028(d)(7) is not exhaustive and that personal mailing addresses and email addresses are means of identification. See, e.g., In re Quorum Health Corp., No. 20-10766 (KBO) (Bankr. D. Del. May 6, 2020) [Docket No. 296 at 28:10–12] (holding that "the combination of the names and addresses is a means of identification under 18 U.S.C. 1028(d)(7)(a)" and that "[t]he enumerating list in 1028(d)(a) is not exclusive"); In re Clover Techs. Grp., LLC, No. 19-12680 (KBO) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 22, 2020) [Docket No. 146 at 24:15–20] ("As I have held before[,] I do find that names and/or addresses are a means of identification. The combination of a name and address to me is a means of identification under . . . 28 U.S.C. § 1028(d)(7)."); In re THG Holdings LLC, No. 19-11689 (JTD) (Bankr. D. Del. Aug. 22, 2019) [Docket No. 180 at 37:25-38:5] ("And in terms of 1028(d) not including address[es], I agree. I think that's an inclusive list. It wouldn't seem to make much sense that I could order the names not to be disclosed, but the addresses had to be; that wouldn't make any sense to me."); In re L.K. Bennett U.S.A., Inc., No. 19-10760 (KG) (Bankr. D. Del. Apr. 9, 2019) [Docket No. 58 at 17:15-17] ("[I] do think that the list of matters to be considered personally identifiable is not exclusive . . .").

12. Indeed, courts in this district have recognized that permitting debtors to redact the personally identifiable information, including personal mailing addresses, of natural persons significantly reduces the risk that such natural persons will become victims of identity theft and/or unlawful injury. See, e.g., In re Quorum Health Corp., No. 20-10766 (KBO) (Bankr. D. Del. May 6, 2020) [Docket No. 296 at 29:13–14, 29:19–20] (overruling the U.S. Trustee's objection to similar redaction relief, noting that the "association [of address information] with an employee makes the risk of identity theft even worse" and that "[t]he court can completely avoid contributing to this existing risk by redacting the addresses"); In re Clover Techs. Grp., LLC, Case No. 19-

12680 (KBO) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 22, 2020) [Docket No. 146 at 24:21–25:10] (overruling the U.S. Trustee's objection to similar redaction relief, noting that redaction of personal mailing addresses of individuals "is common sense. I don't need evidence that there is, at best, a risk of identity theft and worse a risk of personal injury from listing someone's name and address on the internet by way of the court's electronic case filing system and, of course, the claims agent's website. . . . The court can completely avoid contributing to the risk by redacting the addresses"); In re Forever 21, Inc., Case No. 19-12122 (KG) (Bankr. D. Del. Dec. 19, 2019) [Docket No. 605 at 60:22–25] (overruling the U.S. Trustee's objection to similar redaction relief, noting that "[w]e live in a new age in which the theft of personal identification is a real risk, as is injury to persons who, for personal reasons, seek to have their addresses withheld").

13. Thus, the Debtor respectfully submits that it is appropriate to authorize the Debtor to redact from any paper filed or to be filed with the Court in this Chapter 11 Case, including the Debtor's creditor matrix, the Personally Identifiable Information of any natural persons—including the Debtor's current and former employees and other potential creditors—because the disclosure of such information (i) would create an undue risk of identity theft contemplated by section 107(c) and (ii) would potentially cause other types of unlawful injury to these natural persons, including potential future harassment from the Debtor's creditors or abusive former intimate partners.

14. This risk is not merely speculative. In at least one recent chapter 11 case, the abusive former partner of a debtor's employee used the publicly accessible creditor and employee information filed in that chapter 11 case to track the employee at her new address that had not been publicly available until then, forcing the employee to change addresses again.[3] Due to the large number of creditors and interest holders who may be natural persons, the Debtor cannot reasonably know with sufficient certainty whether a release of such natural persons' Personally Identifiable Information could potentially jeopardize their safety.

II. The Requirement to File a List of, and to Provide Notice Directly to, All Equity Security Holders of the Debtor Should Be Modified

15. The Bankruptcy Rules also contain certain requirements with respect to a debtor's equity security holders. Bankruptcy Rule 1007(a)(3) requires a debtor to file, within fourteen days after the petition date, a list of the debtor's equity security holders. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(a)(3). Bankruptcy Rule 2002(d), in turn, requires that equity security holders be provided notice of, among other things, the commencement of the bankruptcy case and the confirmation hearing. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002(d). Bankruptcy courts have authority to modify or waive the requirements under both rules. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(a)(3) ("[U]nless the court orders otherwise, the debtor shall file . . . a list of the debtor's equity security holders . . . ."); Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002(d) ("[U]nless the court orders otherwise, the clerk . . . shall in the manner and form directed by the court . . . give notice to all equity security holders . . . ."); see also 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) ("The court may issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title."); Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9007 ("When notice is to be given under these rules, the court shall designate, if not otherwise specified herein, the time within which, the entities to whom, and the form and manner in which the notice shall be given.").

[3] The incident, which took place during the first Charming Charlie chapter 11 proceedings in 2017, is described in the "creditor matrix motion" filed in In re Charming Charlie Holdings, Inc., No. 19-11534 (CSS) (Bankr D. Del. Jul. 11, 2019) [Docket No. 4].

16. The Debtor submits that the requirements to file a list of, and to provide notice directly to, equity security holders should be modified. The Debtor's common stock is publicly traded on the OTCQB Venture Market under the ticker symbol "SGMO", with 414,471,132 outstanding shares of common stock as of the June 8, 2026. The Debtor does not maintain a complete list of its equity security holders and therefore must obtain the names and addresses of its shareholders from a securities agent. Preparing and submitting such a list with last known addresses for each such equity security holder and sending notices directly to all parties thereon would create undue expense and administrative burden with limited corresponding benefit to the Debtor's estate or parties interest.

17. The Debtor has taken or will take several actions to inform its equity security holders of the commencement of this Chapter 11 Case. On or about the date hereof, the Debtor will issue a press release announcing the filing and also will file a Form 8-K with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission within four business days following the Petition Date, thereby notifying stockholders of, among other things, the commencement of this Chapter 11 Case. As soon as is practicable following the date hereof, the Debtor intends to cause the notices required under Bankruptcy Rule 2002(d) to be served by first class mail on registered holders of the Debtor as soon as practicable after the entry of the Interim Order and published in full on the Debtor's case website located at www.veritageglobal.net/Sangamo. All registered holders, including banks, brokers and other intermediaries, shall be required to serve such notice on any holder for whose benefit such shares are registered. The Debtor submits that these efforts provide adequate notice to the Debtor's equity security holders.

COMPLIANCE WITH LOCAL RULE 9018-1(d)(iv)

18. To the best of the knowledge, information, and belief of the undersigned proposed counsel to the Debtor, the information that the Debtor is requesting to seal pursuant to the relief requested in this motion do not contain information subject to the Confidentiality Rights of another Holder of Confidentiality Rights (each as defined in Local Rule 9018-1(d)(iii)). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if there are any such Confidentiality Rights, then undersigned counsel respectfully certifies that they are unable to confer with all Holders of such Confidentiality Rights and that attempting to confer with all known or potential Holders of Confidentiality Rights would be futile due to the significant number of such Holders with respect to this Motion.

NOTICE

19. The Debtor has provided notice of this motion to the following parties or their respective counsel: (i) the U.S. Trustee; (ii) the holders of the twenty largest unsecured claims against the Debtor; (iii) counsel to the DIP Lender; (iv) the Internal Revenue Service; (v) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (vi) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Delaware and all other states in which the Debtor operates; (vii) United States Food and Drug Administration; and (viii) all other parties entitled to notice pursuant to Local Rule 9013-1(m). The Debtor submits that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

NO PRIOR REQUEST

20. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by the Debtor to this Court or any other court.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth herein, the Debtor respectfully requests that the Court grant the relief requested in this Motion, the Interim Order, the Final Order, and such other and further relief as is just and proper.
