RETENTION OF NOMURA AND SUMMARY OF PROFESSIONAL COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES REQUESTED

17. Since its retention on November 26, 2025, Nomura has provided extensive financial advisory and investment banking services to the Debtor in connection with the evaluation and pursuit of a potential sale transaction. Prior to the Petition Date, Nomura, among other things, identified and evaluated potential acquirors, contacted potential acquirors, assisted the Debtor in the preparation of a confidential information memorandum and other materials for purposes of marketing the Debtor's assets, advised the Debtor with respect to the financial aspects of potential sale transactions, and rendered such other financial advisory and investment banking services as Nomura and the Debtor mutually agreed were appropriate.

18. Following the Petition Date, Nomura continued its efforts and led a comprehensive marketing and sale process for substantially all of the Debtor's assets. In that capacity, Nomura assisted in preparing and distributing marketing materials, conducted extensive meetings and negotiations with various potential buyers, facilitated diligence for various potential buyers, evaluated bids and indications of interest submitted in connection with the sale process, advised the Debtor regarding bid structures, transaction economics and the selection of the stalking horse bidder, and assisted the Debtor and its other professionals in negotiating, documenting and consummating the sale of substantially all of the Debtor's assets to 1370 Clean Energy LLC.

19. On March 20, 2026, pursuant to sections 327(a) and 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2014 and 2016, and Bankruptcy Local Rules 2014-1 and 2016-1, the Court entered a revised order authorizing the Debtor to employ and retain Nomura Securities International, Inc. as investment banker to the Debtor effective as of January 25, 2026 [Docket No. 112] (the "Retention Order"). The Retention Order authorized Nomura to receive compensation pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules and orders of this Court.

20. Nomura prepared this Fee Application in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules, Bankruptcy Local Rules, the Interim Compensation Order, and the confirmed Plan.

21. Nomura seeks final allowance of compensation for professional services rendered to the Debtor in the aggregate amount of $4,094,724.11 (the "Nomura Transaction Fee"), of which $818,944.82 remains unpaid, and for reimbursement of expenses incurred in connection with the rendition of such services in the aggregate amount of $89,887.65 during the Application Period, of which $14,490.00 remains unpaid. Nomura's fee and expense summaries and details (including invoices for time periods for which interim compensation has not previously been awarded) are attached hereto as Exhibit A. Nomura's prior fee statements are attached hereto as Exhibit B.

22. In accordance with the Interim Compensation Order, Nomura submitted monthly fee statements to the Debtor seeking interim compensation and reimbursement of expenses. During the Application Period, Nomura submitted the following fee statements:

(a) On April 29, 2026, pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, Nomura served its first monthly fee statement for the period from January 25, 2026, through and including March 31, 2026 (the "First Monthly Fee Statement"). The First Monthly Fee

Statement sought the reimbursement of $45,493.36 in expenses. As of the date hereof, no fees or expenses remain unpaid in regard to the First Monthly Fee Statement.

(b) On June 25, 2026, pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, Nomura served its second monthly fee statement for the period from April 1, 2026, through and including June 25, 2026 (the "Second Monthly Fee Statement"). The Second Monthly Fee Statement sought (i) $4,094,724.11 as compensation for services rendered and (ii) the reimbursement of $29,904.29 in expenses. As of the date hereof, $818,944.82 of the Nomura Transaction Fee remains unpaid as prescribed in the Interim Compensation Order.

23. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a), there is no agreement or understanding between Nomura and any other person for the sharing of compensation to be received for services rendered in this case.

24. Nomura respectfully submits that (a) the services provided by Nomura were necessary for, and beneficial to, the Debtor, (b) Nomura has satisfied the requirements of section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code as set forth in the Retention Order, and (c) the requested compensation is appropriate based on the complexity, importance and nature of the services provided.

25. Pursuant to the Retention Order, Nomura has maintained a schedule setting forth all Nomura professionals who have performed services for the Debtor in this chapter 11 case during the Application Period, the capacities in which each such individual is employed by Nomura, and the aggregate number of hours expended by professionals in this matter, which totaled approximately 1,909.50 hours for the Application Period.

26. Nomura does not maintain, in the normal course of providing investment banking services to its clients, detailed written time records, and does not bill its clients based on the number of hours expended by its professionals. However, Nomura has maintained written records in half-hour increments of the time expended by its professionals in the rendition of professional services to the Debtor in the Application Period in accordance with the terms of its Retention Order. Such time records were made in connection with the rendition of services by the person rendering such services. A schedule setting forth a list of all professionals who rendered services to the Debtor and the total number of hours expended by each professional and by category during the portion of the Application Period for which interim compensation has not previously been awarded as well as the associated detailed time entries by individual and category by month is annexed hereto as Exhibit C.

27. Nomura has not received payments from the Debtor other than those sought by this Fee Application and those set forth in Nomura's Retention Application (defined below), the First Monthly Fee Statement, and the Second Monthly Fee Statement.

DISINTERESTEDNESS OF NOMURA

28. As disclosed in the Debtor's Application for Entry of an Order (I) Authorizing the Retention and Employment of Nomura Securities International, Inc. as Investment Banker to the Debtor and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 79] (the "Retention Application"), the Declaration of Komu Kumar in Support of Debtor's Application for Entry of an Order (I) Authorizing the Retention and Employment of Nomura Securities International, Inc. as Investment Banker to the Debtor and (II) Granting Related Relief, attached as Exhibit B to the Retention Application, Nomura: (i) is a "disinterested person" within the meaning of section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, as required by section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (ii) does not hold or represent any interest materially adverse to the Debtor or their estate.

SUMMARY OF SERVICES RENDERED

29. Nomura has been retained as investment banker to the Debtor in this complex case because of Nomura's familiarity with issues involved in this case, and the Debtor's belief that Nomura possesses the requisite resources and is well qualified to represent the Debtor in this case.

30. During the Application Period, Nomura rendered extensive financial advisory and investment banking services to the Debtor. The services that Nomura has performed have been substantial and necessary in this chapter 11 case. Nomura has worked extensively with other professionals retained by the Debtor (including, but not limited to Accordion Partners, LLC ("Accordion") as financial advisor, and Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP ("Bradley") as legal counsel), while at the same time attempting to perform its services with the minimum amount of duplication with the Debtor's other advisors.

31. The following summarizes the professional services by category rendered by Nomura during the Application Period:

a) Material Preparation and Review: Nomura expended time preparing and reviewing transaction materials including, but not limited to, analyses, presentations, and other materials in connection with creation and maintenance of a data room, creation of confidential information memoranda and teasers, the creation of materials in response to diligence requests, and the maintenance of potential buyer and diligence trackers.

b) Stakeholder Discussions: Nomura participated extensively in numerous calls and meetings regarding the key issues of this case. These included calls and meetings with the Debtor's management, counsel, the Debtor's other advisors, and internal Nomura meetings. During these calls and meetings, Nomura reported on the status of the sale process, feedback from various parties in interest, the status of diligence, and other process-related issues.

c) Bidder Correspondence: Nomura facilitated, scheduled, and participated extensively in numerous calls, emails, and meetings with potential buyers. These calls, emails, and meetings aimed to facilitate due diligence and drive negotiations surrounding any potential indications of interest and/or asset purchase agreements submitted to the Debtor, including with respect to the sale of substantially all of the Debtor's assets to 1370 Clean Energy LLC.

d) Project Administration: Nomura expended time on administrative matters including, but not limited to, preparing its retention application, fee statements and fee applications, assisting the Debtor and the Debtor's legal counsel in reviewing and drafting court documents, attending or listening to hearings, and tracking hours.

32. The professional services performed by Nomura were necessary and appropriate to the administration of the chapter 11 case and were in the best interests of the Debtor, the Debtor's estate, and other parties in interest. Compensation for the services described above is commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problems, issues, or tasks involved.

ACTUAL AND NECESSARY DISBURSEMENTS OF NOMURA

33. Nomura has disbursed $89,887.65 as expenses incurred in providing professional services during the Application Period. It is Nomura's policy to charge its clients for all actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the engagement. The expenses charged to clients include overtime meals, late night travel expenses, and legal counsel fees. In accordance with the applicable factors enumerated in the Bankruptcy Code, it is submitted that the expenses requested by Nomura are fair and reasonable given (a) the complexity of this case, (b) the time expended,

(c) the nature and extent of the services rendered, the value of such services, and (d) the costs of comparable services other than in a case under this title.

NOMURA'S REQUESTED COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT SHOULD BE ALLOWED

34. Under the terms of the Retention Order, subject to certain qualifications and limitations set forth therein, Nomura "shall be compensated and reimbursed pursuant to section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, and Nomura's fees and expenses shall not be evaluated under the standard set forth in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code." Retention Order ¶ 3. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Court and U.S. Trustee are empowered to object to Nomura's compensation under section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code.

35. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code provides for the award of compensation to professionals. 11 U.S.C. § 330. Section 330, by its terms, is "subject to" the provisions of section 328 of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 328(a) permits a debtor, with the court's approval, to employ a professional person "on any reasonable terms and conditions of employment, including on a retainer, on an hourly basis, or on a contingent fee basis." 11 U.S.C. § 328(a). Accordingly, section 328(a) permits the compensation of professionals, including investment bankers and financial advisers, on flexible terms that reflect the nature of their services and prevailing market conditions for those services.

36. Courts consistently find that the purpose of section 328 is to permit the pre-approval of compensation arrangements as a method of ensuring that the most competent professionals would be available to provide services in bankruptcy cases. See, e.g., In re National Gypsum Company, 123 F.3d 861 (5th Cir. 1997). As the Court explained in National Gypsum: "If the most competent professionals are to be available for complicated capital restructuring and the development of successful corporate reorganization, they must know what they will receive for their expertise and commitment. Courts must protect those agreements and expectations, once found to be acceptable." Id. at 863. As discussed above, Nomura, among many other things, (i) conducted the marketing and sale process for substantially all of the Debtor's assets; (ii) assisted the Debtor in designating and obtaining court approval of 1370 Clean Energy LLC as stalking horse bidder for substantially all of the Debtor's assets; (iii) assisted the Debtor in obtaining court approval of the sale transaction to 1370 Clean Energy LLC for substantially all of the Debtor's assets; and (iv) assisted the Debtor in closing the sale transaction to 1370 Clean Energy LLC.

37. Pursuant to section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtor:

> [M]ay employ or authorize the employment of a professional person under section 327 . . . of [the Bankruptcy Code] on any reasonable terms and conditions of employment, including on a retainer, on an hourly basis, on a fixed or percentage fee basis, or on a contingent fee basis. Notwithstanding such terms and conditions, the court may allow compensation different from the compensation provided under such terms and conditions after the conclusion of such employment, if such terms and conditions prove to have been improvident in light of developments not capable of being anticipated at the time of the fixing of such terms and conditions.

11 U.S.C. § 328(a) (emphasis added).

38. Nomura respectfully submits that the professional services provided by Nomura on behalf of the Debtor and its estate during this chapter 11 case were necessary and appropriate given the complexity of this chapter 11 case, the time expended by Nomura, the nature and extent of Nomura's services provided, the value of Nomura's services, and the cost of comparable services outside of bankruptcy. Moreover, Nomura's compensation is comparable to the compensation paid to other investment banking firms for comparable services in other chapter 11 cases and outside of chapter 11 cases as contemplated in the Retention Order.

39. The professional services and related expenses that are the subject of this Fee Application were rendered and incurred in connection with this chapter 11 case, and in discharge of Nomura's professional responsibilities as investment banker to the Debtor in this chapter 11 case. Nomura's services have been substantial, necessary, and beneficial to the Debtor, the Debtor's estate, and other parties in interest.

40. Nomura respectfully submits that (i) its professional services were necessary and appropriate and substantially benefited the Debtor's estate, (ii) the compensation requested in this Fee Application is in accordance with the terms of the Engagement Letter as approved by the Retention Order pursuant to sections 328(a) and 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, and (iii) no unforeseeable developments have arisen during this case that would render the approval of Nomura's fees to have been "improvident" within the meaning of section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

41. Accordingly, Nomura respectfully submits that approval of the compensation sought herein is warranted and should be approved.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS AND NOTICE

42. It is possible that some professional fees or expenses incurred during the Application Period are not reflected in the Fee Application. Nomura reserves the right to include such amounts in future fee applications. In addition, notice of this Fee Application will be served by electronic transmission upon (i) the Debtor, Shannon Wind LLC, c/o Accordion Partners, LLC, John Shepherd (John.Shepherd@accordion.com); (ii) counsel to the Debtor, Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP, 600 Travis Street, Suite 5600, Houston, Texas 77002, Attn: Jarrod B. Martin (jbmartin@bradley.com), James B. Bailey (jbailey@bradley.com) and Michael K. Riordan (mriordan@bradley.com); (iii) the U.S. Trustee for the Southern District of Texas, 515 Rusk Street, Suite 3516, Houston, Texas 77002 (Attn: C. Ross Travis, C.Ross.Travis@usdoj.gov); (iv) counsel to the Prepetition Secured Parties, Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP, 600 Travis Street,

Houston, Texas 77002 (Attn: Jennifer Hardy, jhardy2@willkie.com) (each entity listed above a "Notice Party," and collectively, the "Notice Parties").

NO DUPLICATION OF SERVICE

43. Nomura has developed a cooperative working relationship on behalf of the Debtor with Bradley as the Debtor's counsel and Accordion as the Debtor's financial advisor. Because each firm has been aware of the others' role and services to the Debtor, Nomura believes that no unnecessary duplication of services has occurred.

NO PRIOR REQUEST

44. No previous motion for the relief sought herein has been made to this or any other court.

NOTICE

45. This Fee Application shall be served on all applicable parties pursuant to the Procedures for Complex Cases in the Southern District of Texas.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Nomura respectfully requests the Court enter an order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit D: (a) allowing Nomura (i) an allowance of compensation for professional services rendered during the Application Period in the amount of $4,094,724.11, of which $818,944.82 remains unpaid, and reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses Nomura incurred during the Application Period in the amount of $89,887.65, of which $14,490.00 remains unpaid, for a total award of $4,184,611.76; (ii) the allowance of such compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred be without prejudice of Nomura's right to seek additional compensation for expenses incurred during the Application Period which were not processed at the time of this Fee Application; and (iii) such other and further relief as is just and proper; and (b) authorizing and directing the Debtor to pay Nomura $833,434.82, which is the total amount unpaid and due to Nomura for services rendered and expenses incurred.
