Please consult the applicable account governing agreement or instrument to ascertain the specific Wilmington Trust entity contracted to provide services to an account.

Where permitted, Wilmington Trust, its affiliates and its sub-advisors may execute portfolio transactions with brokerage firms that provide proprietary and/or third-party research products and services, as well as trade execution. The brokerage firms providing such services may be paid commisisons in excess of those another broker or dealer might charge for executing such transactions. We may execute such transactions resulting in receipt of brokerage and research services, notwithstanding that the particular account(s) involved may not be a beneficiary of such brokerage or research. Receipt of research services and products from brokers or dealers who execute client trades involves conflicts of interest for Wilmington Trust, its affiliates and its sub-advisors because they do not have to produce or pay for the research itself, and thus have an incentive to select or recommend a broker based on their interest in receiving such research.

Pricing and Valuation

Details of transaction charges and commissions are displayed on transaction confirmations, which have been mailed or made available separately to you. Wilmington Trust will also send you this information upon request. To the extent Wilmington Trust has custody of assets but no investment authority over your account, you have the right at any time to receive, at no additional cost to you, written confirmations of securities transactions that occur in your account. These confirmations will be mailed to you in the timeframe required by applicable regulations. Even if you previously waived your right to receive these confirmations, you may at any time ask to receive such confirmations going forward. Please contact your Relationship Manager if you wish to have written trade confirmations mailed to you.

The investment values and estimated income information reported herein reflect the securities in your account on a trade date basis as of the close of your statement period. Pricing may reflect market price quotations, closing price, mean bid / ask price, or estimated market values obtained from various third-party quotation services which we believe to be reliable and which were available when the report was prepared. If an investment did not have a readily determinable value, then reported values are based on the last valuation available to us at the time the report was generated. For assets not custodied at Wilmington Trust, prices and values are provided by the custodian, the issuer or their administrator, and Wilmington Trust is not responsible for this information, nor can Wilmington Trust guarantee its accuracy or timeliness. Valuation for Private Equity, Private Real Estate and Other asset classes reflect the most recent information available, but are typically illiquid and may have irregular reporting. Consult your Relationship Manager for details regarding valuations for your illiquid holdings.

Glossary

Accrued Dividend represents dividends declared by the issuer which have not yet been paid.

Accrued Income represents income payments accumulated with a security (i.e., "priced in" to the security value) since the last payment date but not yet received. Income accrues daily and is reset every time accruals are paid.

Cost represents the reported original value of an asset adjusted for corporate actions, including stock splits, dividends, and return of capital distributions. Tax cost basis on fixed income securities are adjusted for amortization, accretion or principal paydowns. The method of calculation is based upon the type of fixed income security and certain attributes, obtained from sources believed to be reliable. This information is used to estimate capital gains and losses; however, this is not a tax document. This information is being provided for your convenience and is for informational purposes only. For tax reporting, you should rely on your official tax documents. Transactions requiring tax consideration should be reviewed with your tax advisor.

Securities acquired before 2011 are generally not subject to the new cost basis reporting rules set forth by the Internal Revenue Service Code in the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008 and are, therefore, considered "noncovered" under the new cost basis reporting rules. All other securities in this section are securities which are "covered" under the new cost basis reporting rules. Securities which are "covered" under the new cost basis reporting rules are defined as securities which have been acquired on or after their applicable dates at which they are subject to the cost basis reporting rules and the adjusted basis will be reported to the IRS on form 1099-B for the applicable tax year in which the security is disposed.

Credit ratings are used to evaluate the likelihood of default by a bond issuer. Independent rating agencies, such as Moody's Investors Service, analyze the financial strength of each bond's issuer. Moody's ratings range from Aaa (highest quality) to C (lowest quality). Bonds rated Baa3 and better are considered "Investment Grade". Bonds rated Ba1 and below are "Speculative Grade" (also "High Yield"). The Weighted Average Credit Rating reflects a portfolio-weighted average of ratings on individual rated bonds – non-rated bonds are excluded – it does not represent a rating of the portfolio as a whole. The weighted average is intended only as an aggregate illustration of the portfolio holdings rather than as an indication of their respective risks, as certain risks –including the risk of default of individual issues– may be underrepresented by this measure.

Duration is a measure of a bond's sensitivity to changes in interest rates and is calculated as the average percentage change in a bond's value under parallel shifts of the yield curve. Thus a bond with duration of 4 would be expected to lose 1% in value (price) in the event of a 25 basis point (0.25%) increase in market rates, represented by the yield curve. Conversely, that bond would be expected to appreciate 1% in value with a 25 basis point decrease in market rates.

Estimated Annual Income is an indication of income return expected from security positions over the next 12 months assuming that the position quantities, interest /dividend rates, and prices remain constant. For U.S. government, corporate, and municipal bonds it is calculated by multiplying the coupon rate by the face value of the security. For common stocks, ADRs, REITs and mutual funds it is calculated using an indicated (projected) annual dividend. They are provided for illustrative purposes only, are not a forecast or guarantee of future results, and they should not be relied on for making investment, trading, or tax decisions.

Estimated Yield compares the anticipated earnings on investments (Estimated Annual Income) to the current price of the investments. Changes in the price of a security over time or in the amount of the investment held in your account will cause the estimated yield to vary. The actual yield may be higher or lower than the estimated amounts.

Net Interest represents the receipt of interest earned less the purchase of accrued interest on securities.

Taxable versus Tax-exempt status is determined at the security level, and not at the account type level. Thus accounts that carry a tax exemption, such as IRAs or various charitable trusts, often have holdings that are categorized as Taxable for this report. Conversely, securities classified as Tax-exempt for this report are held in taxable account types. Securities may be deemed Tax-exempt based on a tax-advantaged treatment, typically for interest payments on municipal bonds, which may not be available equally to all investors. Additionally, alternative tax treatments may mitigate or offset tax advantages reflected in this report. This report is not a tax document and should not be used for tax preparation.

Term (Long or Short) reflects the holding period of the security. Long term indicates a holding period one year or greater, while Short indicates a holding period less than one year.

Trade Date accounting is used throughout this report, unless otherwise identified, and records the purchase or sale of an asset as of the date on which an agreement to purchase/sell was entered, or a market trade executed, rather than on the settlement date (the actual delivery of the asset in exchange for payment). Thus, trades executed but pending settlement are treated as already present in the account in reliance upon successful settlement. Trade date treatment serves as a better reflection of actual decisions to buy/sell than settlement date, which can occur days later.

Unit Cost is the reported cost per share of an equity position, or cost per bond for debt securities. It reflects the price paid, adjusted for corporate actions such as stock splits and return of capital distributions. It is used to estimate capital gains and losses; however, you should rely only on your official tax documents for tax reporting purposes. All cost basis information is derived from transactions in the account or information supplied by you or other sources and is provided for your convenience and is for informational purposes only. There is no guarantee as to the accuracy of third-party cost basis information and it is not intended for tax reporting purposes. Please inform us in the event that a cost basis is not accurate.

Unrealized Gain/Loss is the difference between the current value of a security and the adjusted cost basis of that security. If the current value is greater than the original cost, that position has an unrealized gain. Conversely, if the current value is less than the original cost, that position has an unrealized loss.

Yield to Worst assumes the "worst case" yield to investors within the terms of the issue's provisions, such as use of prepayment, call, or sinking fund options that may be available to the issuer on some bonds.
